French Horticulture Flourishes in Pointe

Newsboy Dies When Hit By Drunk Driver

Accident On Detroit Side of Mack at Beaconsfield; Car Skids 129 Feet

Leamon Hall, 15, a newsboy on his early morning rounds, was run down and killed by a drunken driver on the Detroit side of Mack at Beaconsfield at 5 a.m. Sunday, August 28. He was delivering his papers from a bicycle.

The driver of the car was Roger R. Valoke, 33, of 4039 Neff. The police rushed Hall to Receiving Hospital but he was dead before arrival. Valoke is held for investigation of manslaughter. Measurements on the pavement showed the car skidded 129 feet before coming to a stop.

Polio Report

Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Pointe Health Commissioner, stated on Tuesday that no new cases of polio had been reported for a full week. The total stood at six cases for the year, as against seven in 1948.

Joy of Serving Learned By Youngsters in Shores

The joy of serving has been learned early by a group of children who live in Hawthorne road in Grosse Pointe Shores. And they have found a joyous way of performing service. The youngsters conducted a carnival and raised $90. They are donating it to ease the suffering of other children, who may become afflicted with the dread polio. It has been presented to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

This wasn't the first event the group has staged for charity, but it was the largest and most successful. In 1947 and 1948 the children gave the proceeds of their benefits to the Cancer Fund.

The oldest member of this group of young promoters for the betterment of the human race is 12. Following the carnival two of the leaders were overheard discussing future plans. "Of

Japanese Beetle Invasion In Park Being Fought by Department of Agriculture

Village Purchases 2000 Pounds of DDT To Fight Pests Which Were Trapped At Eight Different Locations During Government Survey

The United States Department of Agriculture requested the Park Village to purchase 2,000 pounds of DDT of 50 per cent water saturation to use in fighting the Japanese beetle. The village has purchased the material and the agents of the U. S. Agriculture Department will do the work applying it.

The Department has been making a survey of the Park and other Pointe communities for several months. In the Park they have trapped beetles at four different locations on Pemberton, at two on Harvard, one on Bishop and one on Bedford.

This survey has indicated a sufficient diffusion of the pest to call for positive preventive action.

Brought Over on Ships. The beetle was brought from Japan, presumably in ship borne freight, within the last 15 years, and has already become so prevalent in widely separated sections of the country as to require serious attention from the Federal department.

It is reported to be one of the most menacing pests that has ever attacked vegetable life in this country. Flowers, fruit, vegetables and even leaf growth are all subject to its attack.

Beaupre Family All Squared Up

Patrolman Harold Beaupre of the Farms Police Department is now a four-timer. For the fourth time he became a father on August 13 when Mrs. Beaupre gave birth to a daughter in the Henry Ford Hospital.

The Beaupre family is all squared up now. There are two sons and two daughters and mother and the newest arrival, Ann Lydia, are doing fine.

Robert Orr, director of the Grosse Pointe Public Library in the Pierce School, called up the Park police at 4:10 p.m. on Aug. 27 and said he had a young man he was holding there for taking indecent liberties with a minor child.

The police took in the youth, who is 20 years old. They have had him in tow before on similar charges, but in each case the parents have refused to pay for charges against him because of the publicity it might entail for their daughters.

Bar Flies Put Bee on Drinking Pal

"Fine Fellows" Fleece Trusting Topper of $200 at Knife-Point in Automobile

Quickly-made barroom pals are a hazardous liability, as Harry Kenton of E. Grand boulevard learned to his sorrow late Saturday night, August 27.

In a Detroit barroom he met up with an extremely agreeable pair of strangers, men about 45 and 35 respectively. The trio had several drinks, paid for in turn with meticulous regularity. They were real fellows; no cheap bar flies.

One of them suggested that they go on out to Shumways. This met with unanimous consent. As they neared the Pointe emporium however, one of them said, "now, I don't want to stop here; let's go over on Mack."

Proceeding a few blocks farther, they turned into Berkshires, a reasonably shaded thoroughfare, northbound for the place of heart's desire.

Pained and Surprised. When in front of 1016 Berkshire Mr. Kenton was pained and surprised to feel the delicate point of a knife thrust into his right ribs accompanied with the undebatable mandate to "shut up and put up."

He put up, to the tune of $200, and was unceremoniously hoisted out of the car as the fickle friends fled on.

That the incident was no mere figment of the imagination whereby Mr. Kenton might explain to a waiting and dubious wife the unexplained absence of a pay envelope when he got home, a party in the neighborhood of 1016 Berkshire states positively that she heard about the exact hour named; a preemptory order to "get out of here."

SLUMBER PARTY? An entry in the Farms police record book relates that six teenage girls were playing football at Kercheval and Fisher road at 4:18 a.m. on August 26. They were sent back to the home of their young hostess in McKinley avenue.

FROWLER CALL. Farms police answered a prowler call from 217 Lakeview a mile before midnight on August 28. They could find no one.

Formal Dedication Being Planned for Memorial Center

Armistice Day Expected To Be Selected for Ceremonies; Tablets Containing Names of Those Who Died And Served Will Be Unveiled

The formal dedication of the Memorial Center will take place this fall, probably on Armistice Day. The unveiling of the Memorial Tablets, one containing the names of the Grosse Pointe war dead, and another with the names of all those who served in World War II, will be the principal event of the dedication.

The fathers and mothers of the boys who died will have a prominent place in the program. The intent is that the formal dedication of the property shall definitely stamp its memorial character in the mind of the community.

Memorial Idea First. While the property is to be employed in a wide range of community uses, and its character as a living memorial will be observed in its entire administration, it is the purpose of the Board of Directors who will control it that, the main fact shall never be overlooked, that it is a memorial to Grosse Pointe's honored war dead.

The exact nature of the dedicatory services has not yet been decided, but the committee plans to have a prominent speaker to impress on the community the high character of the project.

Much progress has already been made in determining certain definite uses of the property.

Veterans Have Quarters. The Veterans have, appropriately, been given permanent quarters in the building. The associated garden clubs of Grosse Pointe already have quarters assigned to them, wherein a garden center will be maintained, from which will be distributed information of interest to horticulturists.

Whether permanent designated quarters for other activities will be provided is not yet determined, but it is quite certain that the Grosse Pointe Historical Society will eventually be located there.

Plan for Library. It is also hoped that a room will be set aside which will be a repository for valuable books and manuscripts from the many fine private libraries in the Pointe which may ultimately be donated by their owners to the use and enjoyment of the Grosse Pointe people. The thought now advanced is that such a room should be taken under the administration of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

While the proposal that this property should be taken over by the Grosse Pointe School District as a Memorial Library fell through, the hope has not been abandoned that some part of it should be employed as a contribution to the cultural literary life of the community.

Banned From Peddling Corn Without Permit. The young men started peddling sweet corn on Lincoln road on August 24 but had not gotten far when the police asked to see their peddler's permit.

They had none. Local regulations require that a person must get a permit to peddle vegetables even though he has produced them on his own truck farm.

Four Members Caught. The Van Dyke Gang produced the two youths whom Woods patrolman Alfred Abend caught recently. Two others from this same gang were picked up immediately after by the Detroit police on the request of the Woods police.

These four confessed to innumerable car robberies and in one case to robbery armed of a gas station in St. Clair Shores.

SPEEDERS ESCAPE. A complaint against car speeding on Ridge and Charlevoix was registered with the Farms police on August 25. The drivers had sped away before they could be caught.

College and Young Married Group to Dance at Center

The College to Thirty group in the Pointe is again looking forward to the next Memorial Association dance at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Saturday night, September 10, will be the big evening. Roston Clark will furnish the music for "Summer Shadows" and again the gardens and terrace will be open to the guests.

Joyce Bowen and Bill Boales, co-chairman of the dance, have already begun the necessary preparations to insure its success. The committee heads have been chosen and are working to make "Summer Shadows" as successful as the "Roaring Twenties" dance held July 23.

Nancy Hodges has been consulting with Mrs. McGinty, house manager of the Center, so that there will be more than enough refreshments for all. They are, of course, included in the price of the tickets. Also the decorations committee under the direction of Dick Wardrup have been dusting off the Japanese lanterns and deciding on floral arrangements.

Bob Fosmoe will be in charge of tickets which will be on sale at the door the night of the dance. The price will be $1.50 a couple. No stags will be admitted. The posters by Barbara Sickels will be seen throughout the Pointe. She is working with Sally Andrus and Allan Rutter on the publicity committee. Harry and Jean Schroeder are representing the young married people in

Health Heads Vote Against Postponement

Abatement In Polio Epidemic Influences Decision At Conference

Grosse Pointe public schools will open for more than 5,400 children on Thursday, September 8. Uncertainty with respect to the opening of public schools in the metropolitan area due to the infantile paralysis situation was removed as a result of a conference of public health officers and school authorities which was held Monday, August 29.

Health authorities were unanimous in their recommendation that schools should open according to schedule. Dr. Thomas S. Davies, local health officer, has

Parochial Schools Also Will Open on Sept. 8

All parochial schools in the Pointe will open on September 8, the same day on which the public schools are scheduled to start classes.

expressed unqualified agreement in the decision to open schools next week.

Issue Statement. The purpose of the conference was to make recommendations to the schools and health authorities concerning the opening of schools in view of the rather acute outbreak of infantile paralysis throughout the area. Following the conference an appointed committee issued the following statement:

"IT IS THE UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION of the conference that public and private schools should not be closed, nor their scheduled opening delayed because of the poliomyelitis outbreak. This recommendation is made after thorough and careful evaluation of the scientific as well as the social aspects of the problem. It is considered that disturbing or altering greatly the normal pattern of life, unless there is good and sufficient reason, is inadvisable. Whatever is done to upset the usual routine and activities of children, or the occupation of adults, is apt to cause more trouble than good. The reasons for recommending that schools be opened as scheduled for the 1949-50 school year are as follows:

The Reasons. (1) The opening of schools was delayed during the 1939, 1944 and 1946 outbreaks and on many previous occasions in many sections of the country. Experience has shown that delay in the opening of schools has in no way affected the course of outbreaks of poliomyelitis. It has been found that delaying the opening of schools disrupted the normal routine of adults and children and resulted in creation of undue anxiety on the part of the general public.

(2) In a widespread outbreak of poliomyelitis of the type presently experienced, the infection is so widely spread in an affected community or area that the deferment of the opening of schools would not influence the infection rate. (By infection is meant the presence of the virus in the body without causing actual disease.)

(3) This recommendation cannot be looked upon as inconsistent with the usual recommendation made with respect to avoiding strange and large crowds, such as traveling from epidemic to non-epidemic areas or from one section of an urban community not heavily infected to another where the disease is widespread.

(4) Health services are provided in all schools in the metropolitan area. These programs have been so well developed that the school doctor, the nurse and the teacher are alerted to early recognition of signs and symptoms of disease. Past experiences has shown that school health programs are very effective in controlling those diseases which may be controlled. It may be assumed that the health of the school child will be as closely guarded in the schools as it is in the home.

In making these recommendations the committee recognizes the need for the following precautions:

(a) There should be a "toning-down" of competitive athletic activities and physical training programs because overexertion and exhaustion may be contributing factors in the development of poliomyelitis.

"(b) Where children are transported by bus or other common conveyance to a centralized school from widely scattered areas, delay in admission of children so transported may be justifiable. This applies particularly to areas where children are transported to or from an outbreak area. This exception would probably not affect urban or rural urban areas.

"(c) The opening of boarding schools, exclusive of colleges and universities, may be delayed if there is an outbreak of poliomyelitis in the area in which the boarding school is located or in case students so attending come from widely scattered and actually different sections of the country.

"This report is intended as a guide for and as a recommendation to various Boards of Education of public schools, to the controlling authorities of private and parochial schools and to local health authorities.

Enrollments Taken

All public school offices have been open for enrollment of new pupils beginning Monday of this week. School authorities have urged parents of children not previously enrolled in the Grosse Pointe public schools to take care of enrollment formalities this week in order to avoid delays in the beginning of the work of the new school year which are unavoidable if all enrollments are delayed until Tuesday, September 8, when classes get under way in all public schools.

20 New Teachers

Twenty new teachers will be on duty when the school year opens for the public school staff on Tuesday, September 6. All but two of these new teachers will be in elementary schools. This is the smallest number of new teachers in the public schools in more than ten years. School authorities are gratified by this decrease in teacher turn-over. During the war years it was necessary to fill as many as 50 positions with new personnel.

Four Are Graduates

Four of the new teachers are graduates of Grosse Pointe High School, Miss Mary Andrus, a graduate of Hillsdale College, will teach a Grade Three group in the Mason School. Miss Frances Kerr, a graduate of National College of Education, will have a Grade Two group in the Trombly School. Miss Kathryn Lynch, a graduate of the University of Michigan, has been assigned to a Grade One group in the Mason School.

Same School Hours

School hours during the 1949-50 school year will be the same as last year. Elementary school sessions are from 9 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. School hours at Pierce Junior High School are from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. School activities at the High School begin at 8:30 a.m. and close at 3:20 p.m., with a rotating system of lunch periods so that the noon period will be different for some pupils than it will be for others.

As a public service we print elsewhere in this issue the calendar of the local public schools. This calendar notes vacation periods and other important dates which many parents find it advantageous to know in advance. School authorities suggest that parents clip the 1949-50 school calendar for future reference.

Gang of Bicycle Thieves Nabbed

The Park police on August 25 picked up three Detroit juveniles, 14-15 years old, who they have identified with a gang of bicycle thieves. Their thefts were generally carried on at the waterfront park.

The police have already recovered four stolen bicycles and are hot on the trail of a "fence" in Detroit, where they expect to find many stolen machines, heretofore, unaccounted for.

Thomas Forward Dies at Age 62

Thomas S. Forward, of 745 Grand Marais, died on August 25 in the Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, following a major operation on August 23.

Mr. Forward was born in Lexington, Ill., 62 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys, and a sister, Mrs. Abigail Parsons, of Durand, Mich.

He had been a resident of Grosse Pointe since 1941.

The funeral was held on August 28 from the family home and burial was in Grandlawn cemetery.

Carnival

Refreshments were sold to earn part of the $80. The children had conducted a play previously which netted them $7.50. With this they bought hot dogs and ginger ale. Candy and cookies were donated by some of the parents and sympathetic neighbors.

Police Help Out

The Grosse Pointe Shores police stepped into the breach to help with the publicity. The kids painted posters and rigged them on their bicycles. Then the police furnished a scout car as escort and led the group through the community, advertising the coming event. Officer Holberg blew his siren to lead the parade.

Among the children who planned and carried out the enterprise were: Ruth and Cecile Engelhardt, Christine, Elizabeth and Kingsley Roney, Emily Frolund, Kay Marbut, Linda Martin, Bobby Hackathorn, David and Mary Roll, Myrna and Sandy James, Jim and John Ogden, Chris Frolund, Beline LaHood, Beverly DeMers, Lisette Nelson and Francis Martin.

Center Dance

Grosse Pointe Others on the central committee include Lois Gehrig and Ray Schuman.

This will be the last dance for this group before the college set returns to school and it will be a fine opportunity for them to see their friends before leaving.

Lloyd D. Smith Taken by Death

Lloyd DeWitt Smith, aged 78, died at his home, 731 Grand Marais, on August 24, following a lingering illness.

He was born in Howell, Mich., but has been identified with the industrial life of the Detroit area for many years. In his later years he was associated with the Murphy Iron Works.

He is survived by his wife, Mable E., a son, Kenneth, in California; a stepdaughter, Helen Gale Wright, at home; three grandchildren and a brother, Ford Savery Smith.

Mr. Smith had long been active in various patriotic societies. He was deputy Governor General of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, past vice-president of the Sons of the American Revolution and State President of the Society of the War of 1812.

The funeral services were conducted at his home at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Burial was in the Lakeview cemetery in Howell, Mich.

Susan Mitchell Struck by Car

Susan Mitchell, aged 7, of 755 St. Clair avenue, darted across Kercheval at Notre Dame against the red light at 8:28 p.m. August 14, and was struck by a car driven by John David Mott of 7519 Chalmers, Van Dyke, Michigan.

Officers Criswelder and Allor took the child to Bon Secours Hospital where it was found she had a broken left clavicle. Mott was deemed wholly unresponsible for the accident and no ticket was given. The police say the child was chasing another little girl across the street and had ducked back to avoid another car going in the opposite direction. She then proceeded without looking directly into the pathway of the Mott car.

FIND HOSE CUT

The residents at 722 University reported to the police on August 23 that some malicious youngsters had cut their hose, attached to a lawn sprinkler, the night before.

Park Postpones Conversion Vote

Inquiry develops the fact that there will probably be no vote taken in the Park this fall on the proposal to change to City status.

The proponents of the measure believe there is not sufficient time left this year in which to carry on a campaign of public education necessary to enable the residents to vote intelligently on the issue.

Park Zoning Law Hearing Planned

There will be a public hearing in the Park Council on September 12 on the proposed set-back of ten feet in the commercial section between Wayburn and Lakepointe on the north side of Jefferson avenue and Barrington and the Ray Whyte Oldsmobile property on the south side.

This subject has long been argued, due in part to the fact that the matter has not been fully understood.

It is a zoning regulation and in no way affects existing property. No property is to be condemned and moved back or have its front cut off. The purpose is only that for future construction a set-back of at least ten feet shall intervene between the building and the front property line.

PARKED CAR RIFLED

John Byrwa of 8144 Serron, Detroit, told the Farms police that while his car was parked on Manor near Mack on the night of August 25, someone had stolen a topcoat, a pen and pencil set, a ball-point pen and a necktie. The total loss was estimated at $65.50.

Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show to be Held Sept. 17, 18

33rd Annual Event Will Be Staged in Neighborhood Club By Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society

The 33rd Annual Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society will be held in the Neighborhood Club on Saturday and Sunday, September 17 and 18.

The following classes of arrangements, open to all residents of the Grosse Pointe communities, have been announced.

Class I—An arrangement of garden flowers in any container (open only to people who have never won a blue ribbon).

Class II—An arrangement to be used on a sideboard against a wall.

Class III—An arrangement on a plaque suitable for a fall dinner table (flowers, vegetables, or fruit; vines permitted).

Class IV—An arrangement in a rustic container (wooden, basketry, pottery or metal).

Class V—An arrangement in shades and tints of purple.

Class VI—An arrangement of flowers from the palest yellow to the deepest orange.

Materials used are not required to be grown by exhibitor. Reservations should be in by September 13. Call Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell Jr., NI 1115.

Entries must be in place before 12 noon of Saturday, September 17, and shall remain in place until the end of the show on Sunday, September 18.

No limitations on the number of entries. Ribbons to be awarded in each class. Tri-color for best of show. Complimentary Exhibits, not in competition are acceptable.

COMMITTEE

The committee includes: Garden Club of Michigan, Mrs. Lynn McNaughton; Grosse Pointe Farm & Garden Club, Branch National Farm & Garden Association, Mrs. William H. Fries; Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. Clarence Fox and Mrs. Wendell Wheelock; Grosse Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell Jr.; Grosse Pointe Woods Branch National Farm & Garden Association, Mrs. Mark Hanna; Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club, Mrs. Fred Schumann. The general chairman is Mrs. George Villerot.

OUT OF SEASON

Two complaints of kids shooting firecrackers were investigated by the Farms police on the night of August 23. The first came from the vicinity of Ridge and Ridgmont and the second from Lewiston road. The youngsters eluded the officers in both instances.

High School Alumni Hold First Party

All Alumni Committee members were pleased to report that the first alumni dance held at G. P. H. S. on Saturday, August 27, was a complete success.

Graduates from the previous four years met with their friends to vote upon the formation of an alumni association constitution, which is composed of an executive board and a corresponding department. The constitution was approved, but several worthwhile suggestions were made which will be taken up with amendments.

During an executive board meeting last Monday night it was decided that the election of officers will be temporarily postponed until a later date. Tom Wilson, Feb. '48, was appointed temporary chairman of the association until a suitable plan can be arranged.

Loyal Jodar, June '45, also present at the meeting Monday night, discussed with the executive board members a means of acquiring the older alumni's interest in the association.

In the near future, the alumni association may provide a silver anniversary homecoming football game, celebrating the twenty-fifth year of graduates from G. P. H. S.

The first official social function of the alumni association will be a dance, following the varsity-alumni basketball game in December at G. P. H. S.

Car Strikes Bus At Intersection

A bus and passenger car figured in a tangle at Grosse Pointe boulevard and Kerby road on the afternoon of August 28.

Ralph Hauke of 1501 Oxford road, driving on Kerby, stopped for the sign and then started up to cross the boulevard. He crashed into the side of the bus, driven by Robert J. Frisby of 897 Manistique, west on the boulevard.

Damage to the bus was estimated at $50, and to the car at $75. Walter Binney, of 409 Manor road, owner of the car, accepted the blame and said he would pay for the damages. No tickets were issued.

Mount Vernon Students Visit Classmates Here

The Pointe gained a fondness for Mt. Vernon Junior College last week when two pretty misses who study there came on to visit equally pretty classmates here.

Virginia Persons of Birmingham, Ala., suh, was the guest of Joan Mulford, daughter of the John W. Mulfords of Provincial road; and Helen Person of Winnetka, Ill., visited Ann Wedthoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy G. Wedthoff of Washington road.

Round Up Gang Of Car Riflers

Detective Jim Flannagan of the City police, was busy the earlier part of the week in rounding up a gang of boys who had been rifling automobiles.

He had already gathered in four of them by Tuesday afternoon and expected to have a fifth member of the gang within a matter of hours.

Samuel Angelo, aged 20, of 2418 Baldwin, was released on $50 cash bond to await hearing on September 12. Gregory Grove, 17, of 1642 Hampton, Robert Hill, 18, of 228 Muir road, and a minor, 16, whose name is withheld, completed the quartet already in hand. They will all have their hearing on September 12.

All of the property stolen in Grosse Pointe City has been recovered.

Two thefts in Gratiot and four in Detroit have also been cleared up through the confession of these boys.

Dossin Residence Damaged by Fire

A fire which caused an estimated damage to the building of $2,000, occurred at the residence of the R. A. Dossin, 805 Trombley road on Aug. 23. It was reported to the fire department at 4:10 p.m.

The family was away and the maid, just before leaving for the day, touched a match to the papers and garbage in the incinerator. A defective spark arrester in the incinerator flue caused the shingle roof to take fire, whence it burned down into the partitions in the attic rooms.

Neighbors saw a great quantity of smoke issuing from the place and called the firemen.

Chief Rector said it was a difficult fire to fight as the entire building was saturated with smoke. The damage to clothing and contents may exceed that to the property.

Aged Pedestrian Given Blessing

An old colored man was reported walking on Jefferson avenue at 8 o'clock Sunday night uncertain in his movements; and apparently lost.

The Park police took him to the station and questioned him. He was neither drunk, helpless nor uncertain in his movements.

"What were you doing here," asked the police.

"Oh! just walking," replied Mr. Bishop Gills, aged 76.

"Where to?" said the police.

"Newton, Ohio," said Mr. Gills.

OK said the police. "It's a long walk, but Good Luck and Fair Weather."

HOSPITAL FRUIT STOLEN

The Farms police received a complaint on August 22 that boys were stealing apples from trees in the Cottage Hospital property. They had vanished by the time the police arrived.

Out of Frying Pan Into Fire

Two of the four teen-age Detroit youngsters who confessed to robbing a number of Grosse Pointe Farms homes during July and August, have skipped town in a stolen car.

The parents of the pair advised Detective Sergeant Elmer Labadie on August 28 that the boys had been picked up in Kentucky.

In the meantime, William Fisher, of 288 Cloverly road, has told the Farms police he believes the same gang of kids stole a drill from his car, parked on his property. The drill disappeared on August 12, the same date the boys were in the William Denier home at 277 Cloverly road.

The boys have been awaiting trial in Juvenile Court on the burglary charges here. The oldest of the quartet is 15 years old.

The pair were released from Juvenile Court to their parents custody on August 20. They disappeared the following day and were not heard from until reported arrested in London, Ky. on August 26. The car theft occurred there, so the offense is not a federal one. It is expected either the county authorities or Sergeant Labadie will go to Kentucky to return the boys here for trial.

THEFT REPORTED

Mrs. Philip K. Hills, recently living at 697 St. Clair avenue, but now residing at 981 Vernier road, reported the loss by theft of clothing and miscellaneous articles of considerable value from a downstairs closet while the family was living on St. Clair. Presumably the theft occurred some time the latter part of July.

Attacker Foiled By Smart Girl

The City police picked up a car, a '49 Chevrolet that was parked on Rivard, at the request of the St. Clair Shores police at 4:36 p. m. on August 26. The Shores police said the car was wanted in connection with an attempted rape case the night before at Jefferson Beach.

A young girl from Detroit was at the Jefferson Beach resort and picked up an acquaintance with a young man, who attempted to rape her.

The girl, who was wise beyond her years, pretended to acquiesce, but told the man first to go into the bath house and change his clothes. As he left to do she jumped into his car and fled with it.

At Rivard she left it and took a bus home, from where she phoned the St. Clair Shores police. She told them she would sign charges against the man, who has a business address over on Harper avenue.

"Smart Gal" said Detective Jim Flannagan.

Splash Party Climaxes Big Season at GP Shores Beach

The first annual Grosse Pointe Shores Splash Party was attended by the largest crowd ever to be in the Shores Municipal Park last Sunday afternoon. The Splash Party climaxed a very successful summer season which has seen an unprecedented increase in use of the park facilities by the residents of this Village.

Judges of the events, captained by Jim Hartman, Recreational Director for the summer, included Miss Pat Martin, Tom Bruce, Don Macauley, Bob Robertson, and Barney Martin. There were ribbons for placing contestants as well as cash prizes in most events, and many of the Shores' small fry have shiny silver dollars to clink in their jeans. The judges announced the following winners of the events:

Greased Watermelon Race: 1st, Lizette Nelson.
25 Yard Dash (11 years and under): 1st, Jim Forester; 2nd, Anne Forester; 3rd, Ricky White.
Inner Tube Race: 1st, Sanford White; 2nd, Dave Munson; 3rd, Paul Krogh tied with Mike LaForest.

Disrobing Race: 1st, George Jerome; 2nd, Ricky White; 3rd, Anne Forester.

Lemon Race: 1st, Kurt Carmichael; 2nd, Jay Hooker; 3rd, Johnny Mertz.

50 yard Dash (15 years and under): 1st, Don McKenzie; 2nd, Ralph Cross; 3rd, Chris Frolund.
Greased Watermelon Race: 1st, Ben Fruehauf.

Greased Pole Walk: 1st, Chris Frolund; 2nd, Jim Ogden; 3rd, Jim Forester.

Tennis Tourney
 During the long hot weeks of the summer season young tennis aspirants have been regularly taking lessons and training from Jim Hartman in preparation for the tennis tournament which is now in progress. The quarter-finals of this meet are now being played with Kit Roney playing Lizette Nelson, and Bellina LaHood challenging Margo Englehardt. First prize for the tournament is a beautiful tennis racket.

Swimming Lessons
 Another thrilling scene for many of the parents of the younger children has been to see the progress made in swimming instruction. Miss Pat Martin was assigned this job and under her expert instruction two classes of five, six and seven year olds have had almost daily lessons in the Australian Crawl, the elementary back-stroke, diving, and competitive spirit. Children who have done well in these classes and who have made good progress include Frances Martin, Susie Macdonald, Helen Macdonald, Johnny Adair, Lee Jeffers, Johnny Hedges, John Ogden, Jill Ogden, Paul Krogh, Sanford White and Gary Chapman.

Life Saving
 At the present time eight of the older boys and girls of the Village are taking the standard American Red Cross Senior Life

Saving Course. This instruction, when completed will entitle the successful swimmers to Senior Life Saving emblems and certificates. Tom Bruce, Assistant Recreation Director for the Park holds an Instructors Rating for Life Saving with the American Red Cross and is in charge of these classes.

Improve Facilities
 Nor have the adults of the Village been left out of activity for the summer. Two new grills, and six additional tables have made the park far more popular for picnics. Two shuffleboard courts were completed prior to July 4th, and these have had constant play both day and night since they were opened. A horse-shoe pitch court and portable standards for badminton and volleyball also have seen a full measure of use by both adults and children.

Four Drivers Pay Fines in Court

Justice C. Joseph Belanger disposed of only four cases in Park police Court on August 24, as follows:

Janet Ann McLean, 3223 Ho-garth, Detroit, arrested Aug. 16 at Beaconsfield and Kercheval as a disorderly person, was found guilty and paid a fine and costs of $25.50.

Nick John Couretas, of 15125 E. Jefferson, for improper starting of his car from a parked position on July 27, resulting in an accident, paid a fine and costs of $10.

George R. Fitzgerald, of 2154 Basset, Detroit, charged with speeding on Jefferson avenue on July 18, failed to appear and forfeited a cash bond of $15, ordered turned over to the village treasury.

Mrs. Lovina Lyden, of 15400 Hazelridge, Detroit, for failure to stop at Vernor Highway and Audubon on Aug. 2, causing an accident, was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $55 or undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days. The jail sentence was suspended and costs of $5 remitted.

It'll be an October 8 ceremony in Blessed Sacrament Church for June Shader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Shader of Berkshire road, and Daniel Ross Reason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair D. Reason of Chicago boulevard. The 11 o'clock ceremony will be followed by the wedding breakfast and reception at Detroit Golf Club.

Mrs. William J. Berg Jr. is to be June's honor matron and the bridesmaids will include Jane Salisbury of Evanston, Ill., Mrs. Walter A. Bayer Jr., Sally Reason, sister of the bridegroom-elect and Victoria Melikan.

Bob Reason will assist his brother as best man and the groomsmen will be Major Howard O. Golladay of Jackson, Mich., James Murray, Lieut. Col. Burdett Haesly of Faribault, Minn. and Fred R. Artz.

Beginning Sept. 10 and continuing almost to the wedding hour are parties for the popular young couple. Among these are the kitchen shower and tea on Sept. 10 to be given by Mrs. F. J. Winckler, Mrs. Walter Bayer Jr. and Mrs. Robert Winkler in the F. J. Winkler home on West McNichols road; the crystal shower and tea on Sept. 14 being given by Mrs. Frank A. Krue Jr., Mrs. William H. Gordon and Mrs. C. H. Chisholm at the Krue residence in Wildemere.

A Sunday brunch will be given Sept. 18 by Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Hobb of Allard road and on the twenty-fifth Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Kelly have invited guests to a dinner party in their Boston boulevard home to compliment June and Dan.

Mrs. Hugh Gorey has issued invitations to a personal shower and luncheon for June in her Chalfonte road home on Sept. 28 and Mrs. William J. Berg will give the spinster dinner Oct. 4.

The bridegroom-elect's parents will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner Oct. 6.

Mrs. Michael Waskowsky

In a quiet ceremony, before the flower-banked fireplace in the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Earl A. Gelhaart, of Fisher road, Harriett Gelhaart exchanged her marriage vows on August 13 with Michael Waskowsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Waskowsky, of Chicago, Illinois.

Mary Louella Watson, also of Grosse Pointe, was Harriett's only attendant. Charles Gelhaart, brother of the bride, served as Michael's best man.

Following a home reception for close friends and relatives the couple left for a motor trip to northern Wisconsin. They will reside in Kalamazoo, Michigan, where Mr. Waskowsky will teach.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerborn

Autumn's Little Season revolves about two debutantes who have chosen September dates for their bows to society . . .

First will be Buffy Wicking . . . dark-eyed daughter of the Bert Harrison Wickings of Trombley road . . . Who is to come out at a reception and garden party on Sept. 13 . . .

Followed the next day by the debut reception of Shirley Forsyth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Forsyth of Rivard boulevard . . .

Deb Luncheons

Buffy, who returns to University of Michigan this Fall as a sophomore . . . had her assistants named before she was off on a whirl of Summer visits . . .

They'll include her sister, Mrs. Webster Bonham Knight III . . . Nancy Bergdahl, her roommate at Michigan . . . Barbara Hasselblad, who was with her on a Mexican trip last year . . . Mary Reisig of Monroe . . . and Mary Waterfall . . .

The day of the debut . . . Mrs. Knight will give a luncheon for her sister . . . in the Knight's home on Edgefield road . . .

Bud Shirley Forsyth

The Forsyths returned recently from Northern Michigan holiday . . .

And this week are settling down to details of Shirley's debut . . . which is to be a 4 to 6 reception . . . at home . . .

Assistants will be announced later by the bud . . . who returns this autumn to her studies at Mount Holyoke . . .

Gay Winter Season

While the Little Season will find just two debuts . . . Christmas holidays are to be jam-packed with Merry Doings. None of these being settled at this point . . . but being buzzed about a good deal by especially the deb set . . .

Our own list is slim, but if all those who are thinking of debuts . . . decide "yes" . . . what a Winter it'll be! . . .

Definite, of course, is the ball to be given Dec. 27 for Helen Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Parker of Grosse Pointe boulevard . . .

Helen . . . along with another deb, Susan Sattley, daughter of the Hale Sattleys of Vendome . . . is off to Mount Vernon in Washington come Sept. 20 . . .

Susan's sister, Joan, is on the Winter's deb list, too . . .

Mary Elizabeth Fisher a Deb

Mary Boyer, daughter of the Harold R. Boyers, of East Jefferson avenue is to come out during the Christmas holidays . . .

And Janis Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Woodruff of Lewiston road and Frances Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Frost Jr. of Village lane . . . will bow together at a tea dantes at the Country Club on Christmas Eve . . .

Newest name we've heard as joining the debutante ranks is that of Mary Elizabeth Fisher daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fisher Jr. of Lake Court . . . though no definite date has been announced . . .

And others include:

Mary Macauley, first daughter of the Alvan Macauleys Jr. of Kenwood road to become a debutante . . . Gaynor Jones . . . daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Olney Jones of Renaud road . . . Martha Muirhead, daughter of Mrs. Stanley N. Muirhead of Kenwood road . . .

And there you have it . . .

Short and to the Pointe

Mrs. Arthur Carl Neidow

The former ROWENE ANN ZICK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Zick of Yorkshire road, was married on Saturday, August 28, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Neidow of Hammond, Ind.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK CLIFFORD FORD are back in their Bishop road home following an Eastern trip during which they were the guests of MR. and MRS. ROBERT O. LORD who are spending the Summer at Narragansett, R. I. . . .

You can look for members of the HARRY S. FINKENSTAEDE family to return to the Pointe shortly after Labor Day, too. MR. and MRS. WILLIAM C. FINKENSTAEDE of Van Antwerp road left last week for a visit with his family at their Summer home in Hyannisport, Cape Cod. BETSY FINKENSTAEDE and her mother have spent the Summer on the Cape . . .

MR. and MRS. DONALD W. HOAGLAND of New York and NELLE TIEDEMAN are currently paying a visit to the girl's parents, MR. and MRS. CARSTEN TIEDEMAN of Kenwood road . . .

MR. and MRS. RAYMOND PRATT and DR. and MRS. ALVIN H. SEIBERT of Bedford road have returned from vacation at Portage Pointe Inn, Onekama . . .

MR. and MRS. SHERWOOD REEKIE of Renaud road and their daughter, SUZANNE, are at the Pere Marquette Rod and Gun Club near Baldwin, Mich., for the last Summer holiday . . .

It's the Western Life for MR. and MRS. EDWIN FISHER of McKinley road and their children, RUTH and TONY, who are at French Creek Ranch, Laramie, Wyoming. Before returning to the Pointe they'll visit Yellowstone National Park . . .

The FRANK J. SEELYS and daughter, MAUREEN, are again in their Neff road home after a month at Mackinac Island . . .

BIGWIN INN at Lake of Bays, Ont., was locale for the vacation from which MR. and MRS. JOHN M. VAN LOON of Courville road have just returned . . .

The first of September marks the return to their Neff road home of MR. and MRS. DAVID A. WOLFF and their children, JEANNE and DAVID. The Wolfs have been vacationing in Northern Michigan . . .

MR. and MRS. HIRAM H. WALKER are occupying their Muskoka road home following travel in the East. They attended part of the Berkshire Music Festival while they were away . . .

Metamora Horse Show Set For Weekend

This Saturday and Sunday to Mark Second Annual Hunter Breeder Trials at Metamora Hunt Club; Pointers Hosts at Metamora Lodges for Event

A large section of the Pointe is hoping for fair skies and a considerate thermometer this next week-end when the Second Annual Hunter-Breeder Show takes place at Metamora Hunt Club.

Christopher Greer of Middleburg is coming over to judge the show (it takes place Saturday . . . starting at 9:30 a.m. . . and Sunday . . . starting at 10) and will be accompanied by Mrs. Greer. They are going to be guests of Mrs. Edward P. Hammond at her Metamora lodge.

Chairman of the show is Pointer Ethel Flinn who has asked Mrs. Ben Colman to act as secretary and treasurer. The trophies are the special province of Mrs. J. Deane Rucker while Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr., has been enlisted to publicize the event and Mrs. Hammond is entertainment chairman.

Mrs. George Gagnier, Jr., and Miss Charlotte Nichols have assumed the duties of program co-chairman and on the general committee you'll find Mrs. Wilson W. Mills, Mrs. Edgar R. Thom, Mrs. Edward C. Parker, Mrs. Edward Rotham, Mrs. Ernest C. Putnam, Mrs. Butler Higbie, Miss Sally Cote, Miss Mary Margaret Sweeney, David Loevit, Mrs. James A. Blackwood and Mrs. James E. Bullock.

This event always attracts week-end guests to the fascinating hunting lodges at Metamora. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ledyard, at their High Acres, will be entertaining former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sellers with their children, Bunny and Sandy of Buffalo. Over at Stump Lane Farms, the James Blackwoods will be hosts to Mrs. Charles Kirchen and her daughter, Mrs. William Fitzgerald of Holland, Mich.

A special feature of the show this year will be an exhibition by Seeing Eye Dogs to be presented by the Leader Dog League.

Maylou Ann Babcock Exchanges Vows With John Maurice Closs

For the third time, the heirloom prayer book was carried down the aisle in a bride's hand when Maylou Ann Babcock spoke her vows to John Maurice Closs. They were married in St. Paul's on the Lake Shore on Saturday morning, August 27.

The silk Chantilly lace which trimmed her gown had been previously worn by the bride's grandmother, mother, and sister. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Babcock, of Moross road, was in heavy blush pink slipper satin. The gown was trimmed with a deep berth of the Chantilly lace. The same lace covered a fan which she carried.

Her sister, Mrs. Gerald Nelson Murphy, was matron of honor. She wore pale pink faille with matching trim on her large picture hat. Maids, dressed in a shade darker pink faille, included

Sharon Ludwig, Charleen Ward, Sally White and Mrs. James Ludwig Babcock.

Susan Closs, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid, and Lucretia and Linda Fogt were flower girls. The flower girls were dressed in long dresses patterned after the bridesmaids with flowers in their hair. The older girls' corsages were attached to fans.

Gerald Nelson Murphy was best man. Guests were seated by Robert Closs, brother of the bridegroom, Arthur Dittrich, and James Babcock and Charles Babcock, brothers of the bride.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Stockholm, and in the afternoon the bride's parents were hosts at the garden reception at their home.

The bride's mother wore soft blue with matching hat, shoes and purse. The bridegroom's

Joan Gardner Weds In East

Members of the United States Cabinet, Eastern and Grosse Pointe society made glamorous the wedding in Watch Hill, R. I. of Joan Gardner, daughter of the Arthur Gardners of Washington and Grosse Pointe, and Alexander Britton-Browne Jr. last Saturday.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Browne.

The afternoon wedding was solemnized in the Watch Hill Chapel by the Rev. Dr. Charles Leslie Glenn, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Washington. A reception followed at the Gardners' Summer home, Moana.

Rosepointe lace worn first by her great grandmother trimmed the ivory satin wedding robes of the slim, blonde bride. The deeply draped neckline of the bodice was finished in rosepointe, sleeves were short and the voluminous skirt swept into a long court train. Joan wore her mother's wedding headdress of lace trimmed with orange blossoms. It was attached to a tulle veil. She carried white butterfly orchids and white stephanotis.

Suzanne Gardner, sister of the bride, was honor maid in bouffant white embroidered organdy gown sashed in larkspur blue velvet. She wore a halo of white horsehair touched with the velvet and carried delphinium in varying shades of blue.

The bridesmaids wore pale blue shirred organza with sashes of the larkspur velvet and matching blue horsehair halos, velvet-trimmed. They also carried delphiniums in all the blue shades. Maids included Lindsay Anderson of Grosse Pointe, cousin of the bride; Marie Williams of St. Louis, Fay Caulkins of New York, Betty Easton of Washington, Mrs. Gerald McGuire of Albany, Mrs. Owen Walsh of Radnor, Pa., Lorine Eshleman of Villa Nova, Pa., Betty Easton of Washington, Marian Bellingier of Allegheny, Pa.

Mr. Browne asked Randall Hagner of Washington to be his best man, and guests were seated by Arthur Gardner Jr., brother of the bride; Richard and Barton Semple of Sewickley, Pa.; and Grant Boss, Maurice Selinger, George Wheeler, Merle Thorpe, all of Washington, and Campbell Smith of St. Louis.

The bridegroom is an alumnus of the Landon School of Washington and the Business College of Hartford, Conn. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aldis Browne of Washington and the late Mr. and Mrs. William P. Semple of Louisville, Ky. He is a member of the Chevy Chase and Metropolitan Clubs in Washington, an officer and director of Randall H. Hagner & Co., real estate firm in Washington.

Other events at the Hunt Club include the Hunter Trials, Sept. 17 followed that evening by the Hunt Ball. The Trials are an annual event with the various classes designed especially for the horses that hunt regularly with hounds. Later in the season there will be races and a Point-to-Point.

The pair left on a wedding trip to Ausable Lodge. The bride wore a silver blue gabardine suit with brown suede and cobra accessories. Upon their return from their honeymoon the couple will move into their new home that has just been completed for them on Moross road, Grosse-Pointe Farms.

mother wore beige with taupe accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Mrs. John Keogh

The former RUTH DUFFIELD, daughter of Muir B. Duffield and the late Mrs. Duffield, who was married on August 27 to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keogh of Notre Dame avenue.

Ruth Bethune Duffield Marries John Keogh

In a fortnight you'll find Mr. and Mrs. John Keogh at home in one of the new terraces on Vernier road. Their marriage was an event of Saturday afternoon and Mrs. Keogh was the former Ruth Duffield, daughter of Muir B. Duffield of Indian Village and the late Mrs. Duffield.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keogh of Notre Dame.

The Rev. Dr. Frederick H. Oler performed the ceremony held in Jefferson avenue Presbyterian Church. A reception followed at the Detroit Boat Club.

Ruth wore a gown of ivory satin designed on princess lines with sweetheart neck, traditional long, fitted sleeves which extended in points over the hands. From the fitted bodice fell the full skirt extending into a long circular train. The wedding veil of rosepointe and illusion swept the length of the train and was attached to a bridal cloche, lovely with its bands of rosepointe framing the face. The bride carried white stephanotis centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. William A. D. Pond of Pasadena, Calif., was her cousin's matron of honor. Her gown, picture hat and flowers repeated in costumes worn by the other bridal attendants. Fashioned of white organdy and worn over pale blue underskirt, the frock had portrait neckline which slipped gracefully off-shoulder. Full skirt studded at waistline and was finished with narrow blue ribbon matching the trimming on her large white horsehair picture hat. Mrs. Pond carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses.

Joan Rockwell was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Hugh Mulkey Laird Beamer, Virginia Hebb and Cynthia Finn of Sutton's Bay, Mich. Young Jinxie Blake, her costume was like the older attendants but in miniature and she wore a garland of yellow roses in her hair, and Brooks Duffield, in white Eton suit, were their aunt's flower girl and ring bearer.

Robert Keogh was his brother's best man and groomsmen were Glenn H. Friedt Jr., Bethune Duffield, brother of the bride; John H. Herdegen, Alvin George Sherman Jr., Richard McKinley and Simon Emmet Dunn Jr.

Cammelia pink lace was chosen by the bridegroom's mother for the wedding. Her matching felt toque was swathed in maline shaded from cammelia pink to bronze. Accessories were bronze and Mrs. Keogh pinned brown orchids to her beaded bag.

Following a reception at the Detroit Boat Club the Keoghs left for the Laurentian Mountains. The bride traveled in a two piece green tie silk dress suit with which she wore brown accessories and a beige feathered chapeau.

Out of town guests included the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Blake of Portland, Me.; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Duffield of Penacook, N. H.; and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Alva Knapp of Sioux City, Ia.

Pointe Girl Wed In South Bend

In South Bend, Ind. Rowena Ann Zick was married last Saturday to Arthur Carl Neidow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Neidow of Hammond, Ind. The wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Lutheran Church where Rev. E. W. Broder heard the vows.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Zick of Yorkshire road, chose an imported ivory lace gown designed with off-shoulder neckline, fitted bodice with pointed basque. A full gathered skirt extended into cathedral length train and she wore a fingertip length veil of illusion attached to crown of seed pearls and lace. Her flowers were bridal roses and white orchids.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in frocks of brocaded satin with portrait necklines and smooth, bias cut skirts which at back were finished in flying panels. All carried deep red roses and wore a swirl of the blossoms in their hair. Arlene Zick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in gold satin. The bridesmaids included Norma Gittersonke of Homewood, Ill., Barbara Sturm of Chicago, Georgann Eley of Plymouth, Ind. and Mrs. William Wells of Indianapolis.

Richard Neidow was his brother's best man and guests were seated by William Wells of Indianapolis, William Bostick of Fort Wayne, Ind., George Hall of St. Louis, and Edward Rademacher of Hammond.

The mother of the bride was in dark brown gown with boat neckline and panners of the material over her floor length skirt. Her toque was fashioned of beige feathers and her flowers were orchids. Mrs. Neidow was in a beaded teal blue gown with gray accessories and pink spray orchids.

Following the church ceremony the Zicks (who formerly made their home in South Bend) gave the reception at the South Bend Country Club.

The bride graduated from Ward Belmont School and from Indiana University where she was a member of Sigma Kappa. Mr. Neidow attends Indiana University and is affiliated with Sigma Nu.

Bolivia and Paraguay are the only South American countries having no seacoast.

Betty Flanders Becomes Bride of Don Spencer

Marriage Solemnized This Morning In St. Ambrose Church Followed By Reception In Home Of Bride's Mother on Barrington

At an 11 o'clock ceremony this morning (Thursday) Betty Sue Flanders, daughter of Mrs. George Flanders of Barrington road, and the late Mr. Flanders, became the bride of Donald R. Spencer, son of Mrs. William MacPherson Spencer of Ann Arbor and the late Mr. Spencer.

The services took place in St. Ambrose Church where Rev. Father F. F. Van Antwerp married the young couple. Cathedral tapers were used in the church and on the altar were low bowls of all white bridal flowers. George E. Flanders gave his sister in marriage.

The bride wore a picture gown of imported white eyelet embroidery over palest blue with wide sash of matching taffeta. Her large hat was of the same material, a tiny bit of the lovely material edging over the brim. She carried a colonial bouquet of ice blue delphiniums and white bebe roses.

Nan Flanders was her sister's only attendant in a champagne crepe frock with overskirt of matching lace. Her small hat was fashioned to match the dress and flowers were yellow daisies with ivy streamers.

William Spencer of Ann Arbor was his cousin's best man and debers were another brother of the bride, Walter Flanders, Wendell Page of Lansing, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, George Miller of Chicago and William Peterson of Detroit (he will marry Nan Flanders on Nov. 19).

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Flanders chose a dusty rose crepe gown with large navy hat and accessories. Her flowers were ivory roses. Mrs. Spencer wore deep blue crepe with dusty rose chapeau and matching accessories and a blending corsage.

A reception followed at the Flanders' home where the bride's table was centered by the two tiered round wedding cake. The most delicate pink and white bebe mums were used around the bottom layer and again to decorate the very top of the cake which nestled in a garland of ivy.

The new Mrs. Spencer traveled in a poude blue tailored gabardine suit with helmet type deep brown velvet toque trimmed in poude blue feathers. Following a two week's motor trip in the East, the couple will return to Detroit to make their home.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Hughes of San Francisco.

The Last Roll Call

It was a moving experience to sit by one's radio last Sunday afternoon and listen to the last roll call, with ruffles, of the sixteen survivors of the Civil War. Soon we will hear a similar announcement over our radio that the last survivor of that great fratricidal conflict has passed on.

It is to be hoped that this vale of the Grand Army of the Republic will serve to bring to the minds of the present generations the mighty role these men played, not only in the history of our country, but in the history of the world.

When they "saved the union," in answer to President Lincoln's first call, they not only preserved this nation as a close knit national sovereignty but they made secure the foundations on which it has grown to be the mightiest political power in human history, with the new mission looming before it of preserving the structure of freedom and human dignity throughout the world.

These sixteen old men who are meeting for the last time, are the only symbol left of the more than 2 1/2 millions who answered the call to national duty.

They were the actors in a simple age of unalloyed patriotism. Their beloved nation was in peril and that was the only persuasion they needed to rush to its defense.

Before the struggle was over in every seven and one half of the entire population had entered the armed forces.

Their kind were uncompromising in their insistence on loyalty to the Union.

An instance of the kind of loyalty they practiced occurred when in 1863 a group of dubious loyalty in Central Pennsylvania banded together to resist the draft and went so far as to unwittingly kill a recruiting lieutenant. The authorities promptly sent a regiment of infantry with a squadron of cavalry and a battery of artillery into the mountainous regions of the "fishin' creek" country and gathered in the the farmers that raised the disturbance. These simple farming folk did not object to fighting for their country. They objected to being compelled to do so. They were taken down to Fort Mifflin near Baltimore and their cousins along the Susquehanna, who were intermarried with them for generations, piously prayed that the Government would hang every last one of the "damned rebels" for treason.

Happily no such fate was dealt them. After a suitable period of anxiety the fishin' creek farmers were sent back home, with a warning and a mission to raise more food for the army. From then on peace reigned in the Fishing Creek Confederacy and

"If you looked all up our valleys where the glowing harvests shine
You could see our sturdy farmers' boys fast falling into line,
And children from their mothers' knees were pulling at the weeds
And learning how to reap and sow against their country's needs."

And now the country is taking a sad adieu to this gallant army. Its place is a high one on the honor roll of the Nation. They pass but will not be forgotten. They will remain as long as the story of America is written or repeated. Their work will stand as an example to those who will follow them down through long ages ahead.

Safe Swimming

The annual report of the Township Health Board covering the year April '48 to April '49, which Township Health Director Dr. Thomas S. Davies presented to the Township Board on August 22, was a most complete and informing public document.

All of the essential information was presented by categories broken down into detail in which the public could glean the exact information on any inquiry it chose to make.

More significant, however, than any mere presentation of statistics which Dr. Davies' report showed, was in his verbal statement to the Board of his latest experience with the public swimming problem. Due to the heavy rain of a few days earlier which had caused pollution of the lake beachfront waters to the danger point, he had felt compelled to place a temporary ban on swimming until the waters cleared of their dangerous bacteria count. The ban went into effect on Saturday morning, August 20. He had been able to lift it the following Monday afternoon.

This ban had not applied, however, to the Park and Woods swimming pools. Both of these municipalities have provided themselves with enclosed swimming pools with machinery installed which provide the chlorination of the water in the pools with sufficient density to keep the pools safe for swimming at all times, regardless of the condition of the open lake waters.

This meant that the public in the City, Farms and Shores were unable to use their local waters while their neighbors at either end of the Grosse Pointe lakefront could swim with assurance that their waters were safe.

Dr. Davies is a firm advocate of the enclosed swimming pool as a necessary guarantee of safe swimming at all times. In this he is backed up by thousands of Grosse Pointers.

They hold that the public health transcends in necessity any ordinary consideration of public expense. Economy in the spending of the public taxes is commendable and all of Grosse Pointe is fortunate in having in its councilmanic bodies officials who are economy minded. They have served this entire community, with the good results seen in the municipal fiscal status, but economy carried to the danger line in matters of the public health and safety is not justified.

Britain's Hour of Trial

The chief responsibility for England's woes, which are just now beginning to crystallize into a picture of cataclysmic proportions, can be laid to the fact that she has been trying to bore with too large an auger.

After being bled white in two great wars within one generation the labor government came into power on a platform of doing everything for everybody.

Security from the cradle to the grave had an irresistible allure for great masses of the people. There was neither the caution nor the courage to look this program squarely in the face and ask whether it was possible for their country with

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Too solemn for day, too sweet for night,
Come not in darkness, come not in light;
But come in some twilight interim,
When the gloom is soft, and the light is dim."
(William Sidney Walker)

Not a day goes by that we aren't listening to the trials of the parents of teen-agers. How to make them come home on time; how to keep them from poorly chosen companions; how to make them face responsibilities and how to make them stay home occasionally. (Some parents have an entirely different point of view on the latter question, however. THEIR problem is how to get them and their gang OUT of the house and into someone else's for a change!)

Well, an extensive series of articles in a recent publication explains all these problems and tells the parents what to do about them. Very simple. In case you miss it, we give you here, a few excerpts along with our usual arrow-like comments. The first in this series of suggestions stems from the experience of a family consisting of two girls and a boy of various teen ages. This family has solved the problem of keeping their children (and most of their friends), at home most of the time. How do they do it? The article sez... "compete with the juke joints."... If anyone is crazy enough to do that just to keep their children home... this item is for THEM.

The thing is your children must WANT to stay home and you must give them good reasons for wanting to. The old-fashioned idea of thinking that a bed to sleep in, good food, loving care, a few victrola records, a cat or dog and a stereopticon viewer are sufficient to keep the young by the fireside, is definitely passe.

What this family (we shall call them Dokes for the heck of it), has done is to offer the young, "bebop, boogie and burgers at home rather than roadhouse." Isn't that simple? Just turn your joint... oops, we mean your lovely home into a roadhouse for the neighborhood, and presto, your troubles are over!

We almost forgot to mention that besides a log cabin planned on the Dokes' estate just for general hair-raising, they also have a lake in front of their property where the kids can swim and fish and ice skate in winter. That all helps of course, so if you don't have these little extras, you'll just have to hunt around for another article! See?

Now let's see how the next family arrived at solving their problem. We shall call them the Blabbingtons... and here are a few direct quotes from the article, just so you don't think we are making this up: "Teen-agers drive miles to the Blabbingtons' Saturday swimming parties and outdoor square dances. What's YOUR outdoor fun score?" Yet another quote: "Take two parents whose fundamental principle is the enjoyment of life at home with their children; add a caretaker house wedged between sea and cliffs on the California coast; a huge fireplace, a slab-paved outdoor play area that's just right for square dancing or roller skating; ping pong and other games... and you have the Blabbingtons recipe for fun at home." Now isn't this beginning to sound simple as all get out? Just wait though, you ain't read nothing yet.

The third recipe from a family we'll call Liverlace is really a lot less complicated and serves the same purpose, i.e., keeping the little darlings at home: This family built a wonderful recreation room in the basement of the home! Think of THAT. Now if that doesn't entice your offspring, what would? BUT the article sez that Mr. Liverlace went all out for comfort... and we quote... "Not a leftover piece of furniture from anyone's attic has a place here." Maybe THAT'S what's been driving your kids to your neighbors' houses. Maybe they don't like the leftover furniture you tried to get away with in the games room?

The fourth and last family, the Trappingwells, admit that their one and only teen-ager is a lucky guy. He has his own apartment on the grounds and it consists of sitting room, bedroom, bath and kitchenette. Oh yes, there is also a sun-deck on the roof of the little apartment. HIS friends can hardly wait to gather at this little hide-away where his thoughtful mother disappears completely from sight after furnishing them all with home-made doughnuts, coffee cake, icecream and whatall. Mrs. Trappingwell no doubt appears again later to clean up after them, but that is all they have to see of her.

There's the whole story. Any of these simple arrangements will not only keep YOUR children hanging around the house all day and every day, but will also keep the neighbors' kids there too. The article (unfortunately) doesn't say what to do if you are poor as a church mouse and can't afford to have kids hanging around eating and drinking you out of house and home... not even your own, but then you unlucky ones will have to devise something on your own time now that this article has given you all the leads.

Next week, without any help from any publication whatsoever, Pryor will give handy hints and recipes for you smart folks who are looking for a way to get your kids out of the house and into your unsuspecting friends' homes.

very limited natural resources and an industrial economy already reeling under the impact of the two most destructive wars in history, to underwrite such staggering commitments.

The country had already soaked the rich until there were no longer any rich.

Her machinery was antiquated to the point where in some basic industries such as coal mining it was beyond the power of private enterprise to carry on longer and these industries had to be taken over and the resulting deficit charged to general public taxation.

She is discovering, maybe too late, that she can't have her cake and eat it too. She has dried up sources of her national income by capturing private enterprise when men with a scintilla of grey matter under their skulls should realize that this must be the source of the taxation upon which all state projects must rely.

Britain has launched on a Welfare State road when she was probably the most poorly prepared of any great nation in the world to undertake such an experiment. Her world political position has greatly deteriorated and she has lost the brightest jewel of her empire in India, meaning that she will have no continuing assurance there of a preferred position in the employment of her exportable capital or in the trade which has been her lifeblood.

A nation with limitless natural resources within her own political boundaries might attempt such a vast experiment in socialism with some tangible hope of being able to see it through. This is the basis on which socialists in this country count. Russia, with greater natural resources than any country in the world, plumped hook, line and sinker into a so-called Welfare State more than thirty years ago, and according to best information has made a sorry mess of it to date.

For England, one of the poorest countries in the world to attempt it looks like a move towards national suicide.

Socialized medicine, with which President Truman-toying, has already cost the British taxpayer twice what was expected. We have backed her up with many billions for the reason that, in the first instance our economic ties were close and extensive and secondly, because we have regarded her as the great bastion of real democracy in Europe. We may continue to do so, in a diminishing degree, for the same reason, but our long confidence in Britain's ultimate soundness and common sense is sorely tried by her current experiments.

England Sends Pointe Teacher

Miss Mary Patricia Lynch, a teacher from Penzance, Cornwall, England, is enroute to Grosse Pointe to begin a one-year assignment at Grosse Pointe High School under the Teacher Interchange Program sponsored by the National Committee on Interchange of Teachers and the Office of Education, Federal Security Agency. Miss Lynch is exchanging positions with Miss Margaret Grace Casteel, who is already in Great Britain. Altogether, 97 teachers arrived in the United States from England, North Ireland, Scotland, and Wales under the teacher exchange program. They were greeted in New York City by representatives of the Office of Education, Department of State, and other organizations. From New York the entire group went to Washington where the teachers were received by President Truman at the White House. A reception at the British Embassy followed. While in the Nation's capital, the teachers were guests of the American University. Other Washington activities of the group included participation in Sunday church services and a sight-seeing trip to Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, and the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

Leaders of Hi-Y Train at Camp

Three Grosse Pointe boys attended the annual State Hi-Y Training Camp at Camp Haywood-Ha on Torch Lake.

Officers of 217 Hi-Y Clubs in Michigan met for a week's intensive training session during which time they gave consideration to some of the problems that confront high school students, such as developing a philosophy of life, vocational, social life, integration into family life, facing the future in college or employment, and meeting every day problems.

This type of training course is offered each fall before the new term opens for officers of the clubs who will be responsible for conducting the programs of the Hi-Y Clubs throughout Michigan. Outstanding leaders in the various fields of counseling and guidance, as well as faculty Hi-Y advisors meet with the boys to assist them in planning this work. The following boys from Grosse Pointe attended the camp: Jerry Jenkins, Robert Corless and Leroy Peplinski.

Hi-Y is a nation-wide high school youth organization having for its objective the development of Christian democracy in the schools. The movement states that its purpose is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote "There was a little girl and she had a little curl right in the middle of her forehead."

A Good Smile Has Value

By Fred M. Kopp, R.P.H.

A charming smile can do much toward making life pleasant and easier in business and socially... and a really charming smile is made brighter by well-cared for teeth.

Because good teeth are so important to appearance and health, they should be given constant daily care and at least twice-yearly a dentist should check them for cavities. In this way you avoid the illness that might result from infected teeth.

Let a trusted druggist help you choose the dental aids best suited to your individual needs from the large selection he carries.

Neighborhood Club Tourney Sees Net Champs Crowned

Champions have been crowned following the annual summer tennis tournament at the Neighborhood Club. The Men's Singles finals were interrupted by rain in the third set after Joe Kristufek beat Al Mann in the first set, 6-4, then lost the second set, 6-22.

To gain the finals Kristufek, seeded No. 1, defeated Joe Kennedy, 6-3, 6-1; Fr. Robert Versteynen, 6-3 and 6-2; and Robert Stritzinger, 6-1 and 6-3.

Al Mann, seeded No. 3, defeated George Mantho, 6-4 and 6-3; Bill McHugh by default; and Bill Castell, 6-1 and 6-2.

First Round
The first round matches saw Ed Bonneau beat Dick McKenzie, 6-4, 6-3; Bill Rossiter beat Leroy Johnson, 7-9, 6-3, 6-4; Bob Stritzinger beat Dick Sutherland, 6-1, 6-1; George Mantho beat Bob Schneider, 6-4, 6-3; and P. J. Donovan beat Bill Hough by default.

Other second round matches showed the following results: Fr. Versteynen beat John DeBroul, 6-1, 6-1; Stritzinger beat Rossiter, 6-2, 6-3; Ed Carroll beat Bill Penoyer, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3; and Bill Castell beat George Kennedy, 1-6, 6-1 and 6-3.

In other third round matches Stritzinger beat Bonneau by default and Castell beat Carroll, 6-0, 6-1.

Win Men's Doubles
Castell and Mann teamed in the Men's Doubles to take the championship from Kristufek and McHugh in three sets, 6-4, 3-6 and 9-7. The winners had previously beaten Bill Rossiter and Dick McKenzie, 6-1 and 5-3; and George Kennedy and Dan Guy, 6-1 and 6-3. Kristufek and McHugh had successfully met George Mantho and John Rummel, 6-2 and 6-1; and Stritzinger and Bob Schneider, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Mann Whips Guy
Al Mann took the Junior Singles by downing Dan Guy in the finals, 6-3 and 6-1. Mann beat Courtney Lecklider in the semi-finals, 6-2, 6-4, while Guy was downing George Kennedy, 6-1, 6-2.

Len Smith beat John Quackenbush in the only first round match in this tourney, by scores of 6-0, 6-1. In second round matches, Mann beat Leroy Johnson, 6-1, 6-1; Bill Rossiter beat Hoyt Spicer in two love sets; John DeBroul beat Bill Dettinger, 6-3, 6-3; Lecklider beat Ken Smith, 8-6, 6-0; George Kennedy beat Dick McKenzie, 6-4, 6-1; Dick Sutherland beat Skip Pessel by default; Bruce Allen whipped Bob Peterson, 6-2, 6-3; and Guy beat M. McColl in love sets.

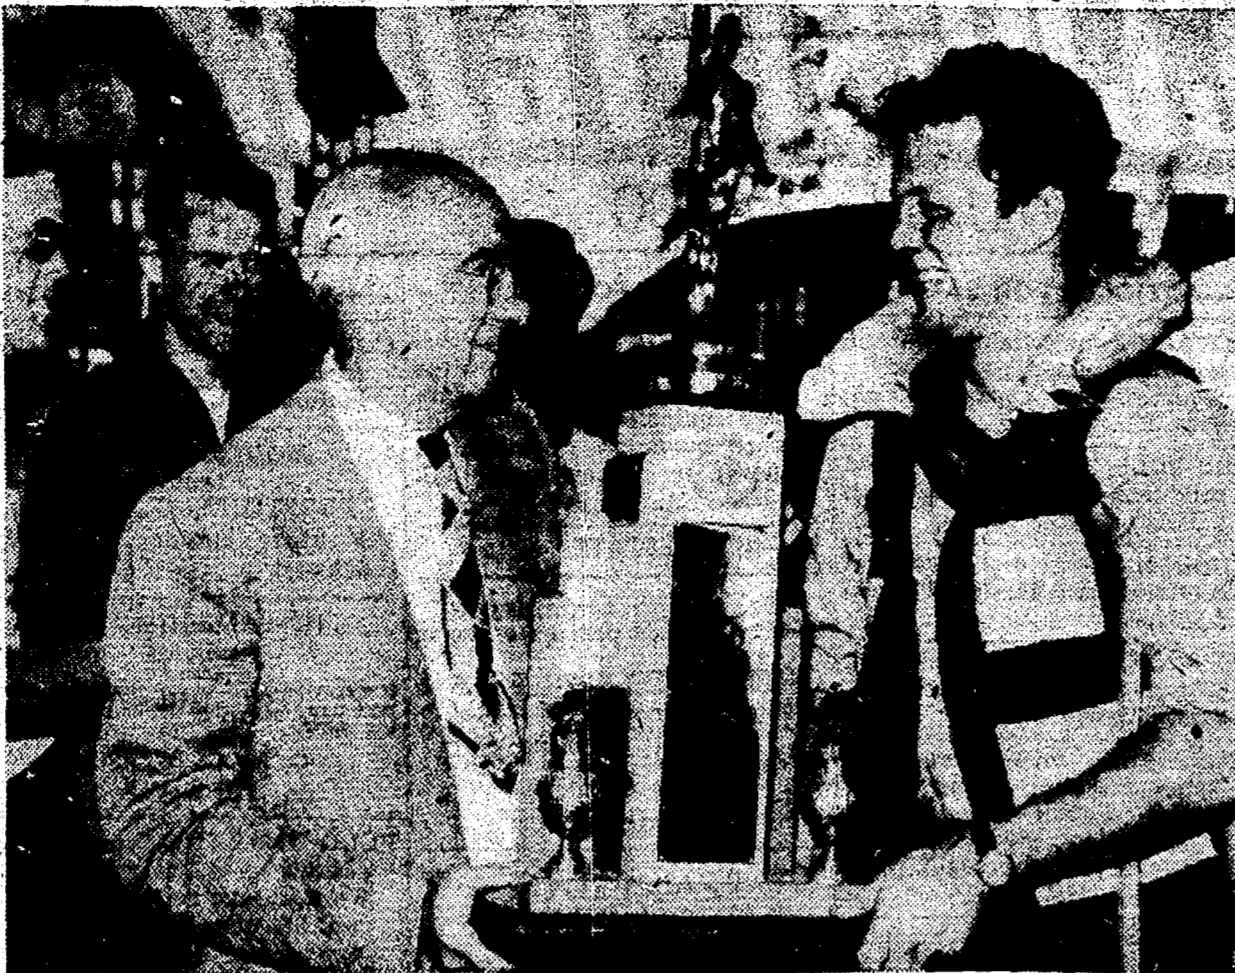

The third round matches saw Mann beat Rossiter, 6-0, 6-1; Lecklider beat DuBroul, 6-0, 6-2; Kenedy beat Sutherland, 6-2, 6-3; and Guy beat Allen, 6-1, 6-2.

Take Junior Doubles
Guy and Mann teamed up in the Junior Doubles to take the title from George Kennedy and Courtney Lecklider in the finals by 6-4, 6-2. They beat Peterson and Kake in the first round by 6-0, 6-1; and Skip Pessel and John DuBroul in the second round, in love sets.

Rossiter and McKenzie won their first round match against Smith and Sutherland, 7-5, 6-1, and then lost to Kennedy and Lecklider in the second round, 7-5 and 6-2.

Roland Gray's Sports Shop donated a tennis racket as a prize for the winner of the Junior Singles. Other prizes were provided by the Neighborhood Club.

Hopes to Repeat Last Year's Victory

The picture above was taken last year when "SONNY DARING" of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, received the TOM BOYD MEMORIAL TROPHY from the donor after winning the 225-class event with his hydroplane "Voodoo" during the International Regatta on the Detroit River. "Sonny" will be back this year to defend his laurels on Labor Day. He is sponsored by Joseph V. Buck of Grosse Pointe Woods. Donor of the trophy is the popular Grosse Pointe Ford Dealer. Darling, a student at the University of Iowa, virtually lost the use of both legs as the result of a double casualty while serving in the Philippines during his four and a half years in the armed forces during World War II. The victim of shrapnel shells, he was also attacked by infantile paralysis, making him dependent on crutches. He has to be lifted into his boat. In the picture, "Sonny's" brother, DAVID, his mechanic, is at the extreme left. BUCK, who also helped as a mechanic, is between David and Tom Boyd.

Softball Pitcher Hurls No-Hitter

Jim Esain, pitcher for Riley Motors, hurled a perfect game in the Neighborhood Club Softball League playoffs when he set down 21 men in a row while his teammates were beating the Ray Whyte Chevrolet team, 4-0. The defeat eliminated the Whyte aggregation from the playoffs. Jim struck out 10 of the batters facing him.

Al Verkeyn starred for the winners, getting three hits in three trips to the plate, one of them a home run with two on in the sixth.

The playoff winner will now be decided in a two-game elimination series, which will probably be run on Sunday. The fact that several of the teams are in another tournament has delayed the holding of the finals.

Left for the elimination series are Jackie's, with a record of four wins and no defeats; Riley's, with four wins and one defeat, and Eastern Heating, with four wins and a single loss.

South Lake Softball League Title Captured by Raynal

Raynal Brothers defeated Smiley's, 1948 Champions, to capture the play-off championship in the South Lake Shore Softball League.

Wednesday, August 24, Smiley's, managed by Otto Weber, came through after being defeated earlier in the week, to down Raynal's 4-3. With Ken Bedell pitching, a strong Smiley nine came from behind to force Raynal's, undefeated in the previous play-off games into a two-game series. Wiley, first sacker for Smiley's, leading the league in home runs, was the big power for Smiley's, while pitcher Frahm of Raynal's gave the lie to the old tale that pitchers can't hit. He slammed a four bagger, with one man aboard.

Monday night, August 29, in the final playoff game, Raynal Bros. took home the play-off trophy. Pitcher Joe Fini turned in his usual star performance. Smiley's scored first on a misplay, with Raynal's pushing one across to knot the score at 1 all for the next seven innings. A hit and a squeeze play netted one and with one out and a man on third a long fly scored the final marker. Trophies were presented to Larry Runnels, manager of the League Winners, the Grosse Pointe Accessory Team, and to George Gareau of Raynal Brothers, with Russ Richards doing the honors for the South Lake Softball League.

State Fair to Open Friday With Many Novel Features

Michigan's first postwar automobile show—the largest ever held in this State—is scheduled for the Centennial Michigan State Fair to be held in Detroit September 2 through 11.

James D. Friel, general manager of this year's fair, announced that the car display, running from September 2 through 11 as the major industrial attraction of the State Fair, will equal any other auto show in size and number of exhibits.

And as a special feature, too, exhibitors will be able to demonstrate their cars to visitors by letting them drive the models on the Fair Grounds track at such hours when it will not interfere with other scheduled attractions in the Grandstand.

All of Michigan's major car manufacturers have arranged to have their latest models on display through the 10 days of the Fair.

They've remodeled the track at the State Fair Grounds to make way for more speed—that produced by the foremost auto racers in the country.

When the ponies departed, a crew of workmen whipped the track into shape for the first automobile race held at the Fair Grounds since 1933.

The track will be letter perfect as far as meeting AAA contest board specifications on the day the race is held on Sunday, September 11. It is a closing day feature of the great Centennial Michigan State Fair which opens on September 2.

Big Prize Fund
Advance ticket sales indicate that a gate of about $100,000 is in prospect, a figure which would produce the highest paying prize fund for any race ever held on a dirt track in this country.

With drivers splitting 40 per cent of the gate, the race should be second only to the 500-mile Indianapolis classic for a prize-money standpoint.

Nearly every driver who competed at Indianapolis has indicated that he will be present. About 50 cars are expected to be entered for the qualifier, scheduled for the morning of Sunday, September 11. Only the fastest 18 will start.

Wild Bill Cummings was the winner of the last race held at the Fairgrounds in 1933. He piloted an eight-cylinder Miller Special around the flat track at an average speed of 73.9 miles per hour.

When the Fair opens on Friday noon at the Fairgrounds for the ten day show, women of the State can take their choice of the host of activities that have been centered especially around exhibits, prizes, and entertainment of interest to them.

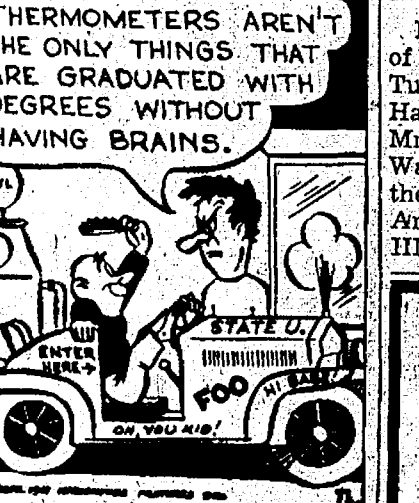

Home Arts building with Polly S. Luers as director, have an abundance of displays. Crochet and needlework from the top of the State to the end of Monroe County, fine handiwork from tapestries to toys, antiques of a hundred years or older, ceramics, metal work and flower arrangements will be included in the exhibits.

Many Exhibits
Women demonstrating their abilities in the culinary arts are featuring delectable pies, cakes, special breads, fruits, canned jellies, meats, relishes and preserves.

Grant House will be open during Fair time with its original furniture used by Ulysses S. Grant, the quaint cook stove with its iron pots, the rope bed with its hand woven coverlets and old fashioned pictures in century old boxed frames.

CYLINDER SEZ

THERMOMETERS AREN'T THE ONLY THINGS THAT ARE GRADUATED WITH DEGREES WITHOUT HAVING BRAINS.

Cars haven't brains but don't think they don't know enough to knock, ping, and sizzle when something is wrong. If your car is complaining, bring it to us and our outside manner will have it up and around, like new, in no time at all.

Bob Hope To Star
The Coliseum at the Fairgrounds will feature matinee and evening performances, with diversified acts and Bob Hope as the star for September 2, 3, and 4.

Another feature for home-makers will be the cooking school classes at 2 p.m. beginning Saturday, September 3, with a host of prizes and interesting demonstrations by home economics in a modernistic Youngstown kitchen.

In Teen Agers

For the teen agers, exhibits have been planned by the 4-H clubs. Campfire girls, parades every evening from 8:45 p.m. Agricultural contests are last but not least and there will be a Fashion Show on September 6th from 9 to 10 p.m. with back to school fashions, college fashions and proper clothes for around the clock for town or country.

Hospital Guild Planning Party

Mrs. Ervin H. Mueller entertained a group of Bon Secours Guild members at a luncheon Thursday in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The group decided the first activity of the year, a dessert-bridge and fashion show, will be held in the club on Thursday, October 20. Mrs. Harold G. Frazer, chairman, is busy selecting her committees and making general arrangements for the party.

Richard Bennett Tailors Have Shop on Boulevard

The famous Fifth Avenue Richard Bennett custom tailoring firm, in continuous operation in New York since 1886, now has a well appointed branch establishment here at 1246 Washington boulevard. Other similar offices are maintained in Beverly Hills, San Francisco, Dallas and Cincinnati.

The Detroit branch uses the photographic measuring technique made famous in the firm's Fifth Avenue store. Joseph Vassallo is the manager here. The firm, in addition to owning one of the country's fine woolen mills, is a heavy importer of woollens which go into the nearly nine hundred suits it turns out each week.

Gonzcos to Meet Lorry Returning From Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gonzco of Bishop road are leaving on September 2 for Chicago where they will meet their daughter, Lorry, on her return from California.

Lorry has been spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Carey of Brentwood. They are former residents of Detroit.

Patty and Judy will accompany their parents to greet their sister and spend the Labor Day weekend in Chicago.

Former Julia Walton Here To Be In Wedding Party

Mrs. George Stanley Shirk, Jr. of Sciencetady, N. Y. arrived Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Harold E. Walton of Bishop road. Mrs. Shirk (the former Julie Walton) will be a bridesmaid in the wedding party of Virginia Arnold and Andrew Boyd Clater III, this Saturday.

Holiday House To Open Sept. 2

Hotpoint's "Holiday House" opening September 2, has been designed, constructed and equipped with "freedom from clutter" in mind. The model one-floor ranch home, quality-built by Cox & Baker, is located at 19520 Mack avenue in Colonial Farms, a Cox and Baker development in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan.

The stream-lined, dream-lined model kitchen is equipped with Hotpoint's famous electric sink which washes, rinses and electric heat-dries your dishes, glassware, silverware, pots and pans, automatically. The equally famous Hotpoint Disposal in the sink unit eliminates garbage problems once and for all.

The Hotpoint Refrigerator and electric range give new beauty, new convenience in this work-saving center. And quantities of food are always on hand in the Hotpoint Home Freezer.

The Laundry Center with its Hotpoint washer, quietly, efficiently takes over your laundering problems... even to the daintiest of fabrics... with a feather-touch operation. And there's a Hotpoint dryer to dry clothes automatically! Further, you relax, sitting down, while your iron clothes faster with a Hotpoint Ironer.

Open to the public from September 2 through October 2, Holiday House will be acclaimed the "Home of Tomorrow, here today."

Holiday House is also backed by a written two year guarantee, as are all Cox & Baker built homes.

Sea Scouts Plan Annual Regatta

Sea Scout Ship No. 690, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, will hold its 25th annual regatta and rendezvous at the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Park on Saturday and Sunday, September 10 and 11. All Sea Scout Ships in the Detroit area have been invited to attend the event.

Werner Von Allman is skipper of the Pointe-Ship, with Byron Bunde assistant skipper.

Neglected Iron Cause of Blaze

A fire which caused only slight damage before it was extinguished by the Park firemen occurred at the Phillips and Phillips Cleaners at Beaconsfield and Jefferson on August 23.

It was caused by a connected electric iron which had been neglected for a few minutes. Chief Edward Rector suggested that a warning be given to all users of electric irons that these should always be disconnected when left alone even momentarily for such errands as answering a telephone or a door bell.

He says several bad fires in the Park have been caused by neglected electric irons even though the users thought the short time they were away implied no risk.

Store on Fisher Road Sold by Kay Patcher

Kay Patcher, who 10 years ago opened her Fisher road gift shop, fashioning it after those in the New England states, is today announcing the sale of the establishment to Mr. and Mrs. William M. Dant, of Detroit, who will take possession next Tuesday, September 6.

Miss Patcher originally came here from New York and now intends to establish herself in Connecticut. "My successors will bring experience and a world of good taste to this shop," Miss Patcher said in making the announcement.

Safety Contest Offers $100,000

Tom Boyd, owner of Tom Boyd, Inc., Ford dealer at 1540 E. Jefferson has entered his dealership in a $100,000 car safety contest sponsored by the Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Boyd is one of 6,400 Ford dealers throughout the nation who has entered his dealership in the contest during September and October.

Seven hundred prizes totaling $100,000 will be awarded winners of the safety contest. The prizes are 25 new Fords including five Ford trucks; 25 $1,000 U. S. Savings Bonds; 100 $100 Bonds; 200 $50 Bonds and 350 $25 Bonds.

In order to participate in the contest, Mr. Boyd pointed out, motorists must bring their car or truck, of any make, to the dealership for a safety check at absolutely no cost or obligation to the motorist.

Free checks will be made on the brakes, steering, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, glass, horn and rear-view mirror.

Tom Boyd, Inc., will place an attractive safety driver reflector insignia on the car or truck inspected and the motorist will be given an entry blank to participate in the contest.

The motorist must then complete in no more than 50 additional words the following statement:

"All cars and trucks should be safety-checked periodically because..."

A jury of prominent persons in national safety circles will judge the winners. Only one entry per car or truck may be entered.

Other details of the contest are available at the Tom Boyd, Inc.

Gladys Vincent August Bride

Gladys Richards Vincent, daughter of the late Mrs. Florence Black and former resident of Barrington road, was married on August 20 to Le Roy J. Abt, son of Mrs. Margaret Abt and the late Maj. Peter J. Abt of Kercheval avenue.

The ceremony was held in the Messiah Episcopal Church, followed by a dinner at the Parkstone and a reception at the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Jaquish of Maumee avenue.

Mrs. Saide Kinney was matron of honor and Reed E. Abt was his brother's best man.

The bride attended Ursuline Academy and the bridegroom Detroit College of Law, where he was a member of Delta Theta Phi, law fraternity. He served two years overseas in World War II as combat intelligence officer in the Army Air Corps.

Following a honeymoon at Mackinac Island the young couple are at home in St. Paul avenue in Indian Village.

Woods Planners Hear Boos Motors Request

The Grosse Pointe Woods Planning Commission held a meeting with officials of the Boos Motor Co. last week to discuss an application for a permit to erect a temporary structure at Mack and Newcastle. The request for the permit had been referred to the commission by the village council.

The company was informed it could not build a temporary type building and suggested that an Early American or colonial structure be erected, with the entrance facing on Mack, instead of on Newcastle as planned.

The company must submit plans to the commission before final action is taken.

About 34 million man-days of labor were lost through strikes in 1948.

Mardy Kilbride To Wed Sept. 3

Miss Margaret Kilbride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Kilbride of Hanly road, has set Saturday, September 3, as the date she will marry Bruce F. Fausone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fausone of Waybourn avenue.

The Rev. Francis F. Van Antwerp will officiate at the marriage which is to take place at a 10 o'clock ceremony. Following the wedding, there will be a breakfast and an afternoon reception, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Margaret has asked her sisters, Pauline and Shirley, to be her attendants. The best man will be Tom Kilbride, assisted by Donald Chuba, cousin of the bridegroom, Nobyn D'Haene, and Charles Wade.

Margaret is a graduate of Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia. Bruce is a graduate of the Detroit Business University, where his fraternity was Delta Nu Omega.

Mrs. Ervin Steiner, sister of the bridegroom, was hostess at a kitchen shower for Margaret on Friday evening, August 19. The bachelor dinner was Wednesday, August 31, in the Whittier.

A luncheon is planned for today, September 1, by Mrs. Ralph Disser, sister of the bride, at her summer home at Port Huron. The luncheon is to honor not only the bride-elect but many of Mardy's former classmates from Chestnut Hill College.

Those coming in from out-of-town for the wedding will be: Roseanita Schubert, Overbrook, Pa.; Ellen Kiernan, Maplewood, N. J.; Kay Friert, Buffalo, N. Y.; Kay Allen, Hollis, N. Y.; Eileen Dowd, Caldwell, N. J.; Shirley Hasket, Cleveland, Ohio; and Joan Loughlin, South Orange, N. J.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. WILLIAM A. TERNES OF THREE MILE DRIVE

The Good Life isn't something to be looked forward to in the home of Mrs. William A. Ternes. In childhood enlightened parents taught her the Good Life is for every day, now. Thus it is, these interests of hers which sparkle in her personality are not considered hobbies.

While we were looking at the cook book collection (G.P. News, Aug. 25) these other ingredients of the Good Life kept popping up. Like the Christmas cloth for instance. In 1945, the Ternes were in Providence, away from the tight and comfortable family circle enjoyed by all Matullo children (Mrs. Ternes was Madlyn Matullo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Matullo).

That first Christmas the Matellos planned to travel East to spend the holiday with Madlyn and husband, Bill. It was during the war; a year when holidays were better forgotten for the heart tearing memories they recalled of nations at war. So, decided Madlyn, it was a year when an old-fashioned, un-gifted Christmas seemed indicated. She shopped for a large linen banquet cloth which was hemmed the same night she bought it.

CHRISTMAS CLOTH In each corner she had "Bill write 'Merry Christmas' and so on a dozen linen napkins. These were embroidered in red satin stitch in time to be used Christmas Day. Mother and Father Matullo, the Ternes and guests who dropped in during the holidays autographed the cloth and Madlyn embroidered all those names in green, or blue, or yellow floss.

The next year was a Providence Christmas, too, and the same autographing went on apace, all through the holidays. Today, almost five years later, the family wouldn't think Christmas had arrived if the cloth with names added now as families grow, weren't there. Then there are the African violets, blue, pink and white which receive devoted attention from Madlyn. Her care of these is added to that she gives almost a hundred plants which grow in her home. In the solarium ivies, philodendron, etc. in ceramic pots bloom atop the great windows' wooden valance.

Life is represented in the collection of English, French, Italian and early American china cups and saucers... the Mexican silver (a set of stunning silver champagne glasses numbered five when Madlyn and Bill found it in a Mexico City silver factory. Before they left Madlyn was holding the sixth goblet; just made and still warm. There are early American butter rum pots, cutest things you ever saw; a silver mustache cup; Florentine silver, a collection started during school days in Rome.

American pressed glass in the Lion design, is another collection to which the Ternes add whenever they come upon this lovely ware in antique shops.

That needle point bellecord (which happily is not only beautiful but works and is answered!) just outside the drawing room was made by the mistress' needle. She also does petit point and gross point (a drawing room throw rug is in the making, now). Then there's her knitting.

The piano—Mrs. Ternes' family were all exposed to a classical education early and so it persists in their lives today! She plays the piano beautifully and loves most the duets with eight year old Lynn.

MUZAK IN HOME Long before that alarm clock radio was invented, the Ternes were being awakened by music. Muzak, which is never intended to intrude itself upon the listeners but just be missed when it ceases, interested Madlyn. "I'd love to have that in my home," she said to Bill one day. The next day, Muzak was installed. It goes off at 10 o'clock in the evening and is set to resume when the Ternes wish to get up next day.

That reminds us of another interest. There must be over a hundred "musical" stuffed animals in the rooms of the Ternes children. They love them, naturally, and go to sleep each night with a different lullaby tinkling from a music box deep within a beloved elephant or lamb or rabbit.

Although her own home is pretty much her favorite place in the world, Mrs. Ternes finds time for a love of hunting and fishing. She and Bill hunt duck and pheasant and are devotees of row shooting, which they insist is the sportiest shooting of all!

And now that we've left the house behind there's that six-in-one tree in the gardens (which are the work of both Madlyn and Bill). Six different kinds of apple all on one tree! And if we seem never to have heard of Luther Burbank in our wonder maybe it's because we always believed the Oz books. Remember the lemonade rain? ... and the popcorn snow storms? And now, in 1949, Madlyn Ternes' six-in-one apple tree.

BUMPER APPLE CROP According to the Agricultural Statistician of the Michigan Co-operative Crop Reporting Service, Michigan is going to harvest an apple crop considerably above the last ten year average, and the nation as a whole is going to have a very large crop this year.

SWEDISH PIE

Contributed by Mrs. Richard A. Forsyth

Fill a pie pan two-thirds full of tart apples. Sprinkle over 1 tablespoon of sugar and 1 teaspoon of cinnamon.

Cover with the following batter:

- ¼ cup butter or erisco
- 1 cup sugar
- Pinch salt
- Mix well and add:
- 1 egg
- 1 cup flour
- ½ cup nuts

Spread over apples and bake slowly one hour in 350 degree oven. If brown before, take out. Serve with whipped cream.

Flying Clubmen Attend Meeting

Milton Sickelsteel, a past president of the St. Clair Shores Kiwanis Club and a former Lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis District 7, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club on August 23. He spoke on his 14 years' experience with the international service organization.

Bill Nixon and Doc Bradley had a double attendance record that day. They flew in Nixon's plane to the fly-in Kiwanis meeting at Hillsdale that noon and flew back in time for the dinner meeting of the local club. Larry Clouthier also flew his ship to the up-state gathering.

Pointe Counter Points

WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH'S Date Dresses were dreamed up for enchanted evenings of the college gals. Just the sparkle of a sophomore was needed for the dashing scarlet taffeta frock its full dance-ie skirt marked off in taffeta diamonds by crisscrossing red velvet; to zip right off the hanger into a samba! The stag line will fall, too, for the freshie in a plaid taffeta we saw at WALTON PIERCE. Navy, red, white and green taffeta cut on slim, slim slines... practically sleeveless (as so many of Autumn's frocks are) and buttoned twice on the left shoulder with those same buttons marching down the entire length of the left side! Some college gal will be devastating in a stunningly severe black velvet Date Dress, its skirt falling in soft folds of the lush material and its bodice finished at top in black chiffon all sprinkled with great big black velvet snowflakes. Another darling was navy taffeta, cut on jeune fille lines, with touches of navy velvet cuffing the above-elbow sleeves and used again in the small collar. Fall's winged look is at the bodice of the Date Dress in sophisticated dark green gold shot taffeta. Campus winners all!

"She's been to ANTHONY" is the expression you hear most often at the Pointe these days. And it means "She" is wearing one of the becoming, soft and short hair-do's. "Let's go to ANTHONY" is said with a great deal of desperation in the voice and IT means the speaker has looked in her own mirror and decided long, bushy hair is just too old hat to stand another minute. The nicest part of all is we've never seen an ANTHONY hair cut that was unbecoming... a nice tribute to the deft scissors the young master wields to prettily frame every face.

We're back to the College Set again because these are Their Shopping Days. They're going to add JACOBSON'S lovely cashmere sweaters to that campus wardrobe. Some of the softest, most beautiful pull overs and cardigans are to be found here. And for on campus crisp and coolth days, JACOBSON'S is showing not only strong toned corduroy two piece suits but a stock of petal smooth wool plaid suits that are simply knockout. Some skirts are laced at the waistline in narrow leather. Besides combinations of sable and squash fine plaids there are dusty teal and brown. Many of the suits are made of menswear, tweedy and elegantly tailored. Musn't forget the belted corduroy rain coats with detachable hoods. The college gals are going to shout with joy at any sign of rain for these coats are flattering as all get out. Come in strong red, dark green and gray and can take a cloudburst in stride.
