Sentences Handed Out For Hold-Up

Driver of Get-Away Car Put on Probation; One Bandit Gets 2 to 10 Years

A young taxi driver who is alleged to have used his cab as the "get-away" car in the hold-up of the Alger Beer Store, 17320 Mack, was sentenced to two years probation by Recorder's Judge George Murphy.

Sentenced was Guido Zaccarelli, 28, of 4010 Bluehill, who admitted using the cab of a local taxi company in the beer store holdup and four other robberies in Detroit.

He remained in the cab, police said, while two accomplices, Robert Leonard, 26, of 1078 Coplin, and John J. Redmond, 26, of 4420 Courville, pulled the hold-ups.

Leonard received ten months to ten years from Judge Murphy. Redmond, a policeman's son, is awaiting sentence Jan. 5 on a robbery unarmed charge.

Stole $303
Grosse Pointe City police said that Leonard and Redmond entered the beer store last November and took $303 from owner Walter Price at gunpoint.

Two Youths Go to Hospital Following Battle Started When Gang Crashes Party

Five Detroiters Held for Investigation of Assault and Battery and Breaking and Entering Guaresimo Home on Lakepointe

Five Detroit youths were held for investigation of assault and battery and breaking and entering after crashing a New Year's party at 1081 Lakepointe and attacking several of the young guests.

Grosse Pointe Park police said that one of the guests, Joseph Saddlar, 18, of 1058 Beaconsfield, suffered severe lacerations on the face and body. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

Force Way In
Det. Sgt. Stanley Enders said about 12 members of the "Cinderella" gang forced their way into the home of Roy A. Guaresimo at the Lakepointe address about 2:30 a.m. New Year's Day.

Lewis John Lugosity, 21, of 922 Navahoe, who had a previous felonious assault charge against him, was described as the ringleader by Enders.

Leader Hospitalized
Lugosity suffered face and head injuries and was taken to the hospital.

Held besides Lugosity were Joseph Yelick, 21, of 990 Clairmont; William Wilson, 18, of 823 Emerson; Donald James Handy, 19, of 852 Drexel, and William Hoskins, 19, of 42 Elmberst.

Sgt. Enders said the intruders had been drinking.

Considerable Damage
"They caused considerable damage to furniture and other household goods," Enders said. "Lugosity pushed his fist through a window."

Enders described the beating given to young Saddlar as a vicious one.

"He was slugged on the face several times by Lugosity and other members of the gang," Enders stated.

"There was no drinking at this party," Enders said.

Church Plans 10th Birthday Celebration

Congregationalists to Hold Dinner January 10; Lichtwardt to Be Speaker

On January 10, the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will celebrate its tenth anniversary with a birthday dinner. This will be the first anniversary to be observed in the new sanctuary which was dedicated February, 1950.

The speaker of the evening will be Doctor H. A. Lichtwardt, whose topic will be "The Christian in Today's World." A second-generation Detroit, Doctor Lichtwardt brings a background of rich and varied experience to his topic.

In Medical Corps
Following his graduation from Wayne County Medical College and post-graduate work at the University of Michigan, Doctor Lichtwardt saw a year's service as Lieutenant in the United States Army Medical Corps.

When this period was ended, he and Mrs. Lichtwardt sailed for Iran as medical missionaries—spent 15 years in Meshed, an inland city not far from the borders of Afghanistan, Turkey.

Doctor Lichtwardt pioneered in the treatment of leprosy in Iran. From 1934 to 1941, the Lichtwardts were stationed in Hamadan, Iran, and in 1942 they returned to Detroit.

Ordained Minister
Doctor Lichtwardt, who is one of the few surgeons who has been ordained to the ministry, has traveled extensively in the Near and Middle East, in Africa and in Europe. Returning to Detroit in 1942, Doctor Lichtwardt was for four years on the surgical staff of

Building Material Stolen in Woods

Sixteen window frames, two doors and one canvas were reported stolen from a house under construction on Marter near Almie Friday, December 29.

The material, owned by the Beach Lawn Building Co., was valued at $327, Grosse Pointe Woods police said.

Officials of Woods Prepare to Tackle Important Tasks

Mayor Ratcliffe Says Six Non-Residents Have Already Applied for Post of Administrator: Which Pays $10,000 Per Year

The administration of Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe's newest and fastest growing city, faces numerous problems as it begins the first year of "home rule" government.

One of their most important tasks is the appointment of a city administrator, a treasurer and an assessor.

Leon D. Ratcliffe, newly elected Grosse Pointe mayor, said that the council has already received six applications from non-Grosse Pointe residents for the city administrator job, which would pay $10,000 yearly.

The job is currently held by Philip Allard, veteran Woods clerk.

May Eliminate Clerk
Ratcliffe said there was a possibility that the office of clerk would be eliminated.

"The clerk's duties could be absorbed by the city administrator," he said.

The Woods president described the duties of the city treasurer as far more important than under village rule.

"Our new treasurer will be required to handle the collection of all county, school and city taxes," he said.

To Name Supervisor
The council will also name a representative to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Ratcliffe stated that all appointments would be made during meetings held in January.

Among the other problems facing the council are the successful completion of the new bath house at the lakefront park, and the water main project extending from Harper across Eight Mile to Mack.

This new water main will eliminate low water pressure in that area.

Parking Problems
The rapid development of the Mack Avenue business district presents parking and traffic problems.

The council is studying off-street parking and parking meter plans with hopes of meeting these problems.

A complete civilian defense program will also be given top priority on the council's 1951 agenda.

The council does not contemplate any changes in the administration of the police and fire department as one unit.

Question for Future
"However separate departments will be considered at a later date," Ratcliffe said.

He was confident that the tax rate of $15.30 per thousand would not be increased.

Six Pointe Men Pass Bar Exams

Six men from Grosse Pointe were among the 263 persons who passed the recent State bar examination, entitling them to practice law in Michigan.

The State Board of Bar Examiners reported that 413 took the examination.

The Grosse Pointe men are Clarence J. McLeod, Jr., Frank L. Charbonneau, Glenn H. Friedt, Jr., Bruce D. Carey, Robert O. Sheppler and Wilson M. Jackson.

Pointe's First 1951 Baby Born to Detroit Parents

The first baby to be born in Grosse Pointe in 1951 arrived at Cottage Hospital at 9:15 a.m. on New Year's Day for Mr. and Mrs. William Spear, of 18330 Moross road.

The prize package tagged "boy" weighed six pounds 14 ounces on arrival.

Meanwhile other New Year's firsts brought a variety of calls for Grosse Pointe police.

Grosse Pointe Park police's initial 1951 run was to a "fight" at a bar on Jefferson at Barrington.

First official act of Grosse Pointe City police was to tag a parking ticket on a car that was

Police, Fire Departments Seek Helpers

Auxiliary Forces Being Built Up in All Five Pointes to Take Training Course

A civilian defense training program will get underway shortly in the five Grosse Pointe municipalities under the direction of the police and fire chiefs. The training will include emergency and first aid procedure in the event of atomic attack.

All police and firemen will be required to take the training.

Auxiliary police and firemen, now being recruited, will also get the training.

Headed by Louwers
Key figure in the program will be Arthur Louwers, Grosse Pointe Park police chief, who recently completed a special instructor's training course under the auspices of the Detroit Civilian Defense Committee.

Louwers will cooperate with Police Chiefs Tom Trombly, City; Walter Hoyt, Farms; O. C. Ingalsbe, Shores, and Walter Goulette, Woods, in the training course.

Need More Volunteers
Meanwhile all police and fire department heads sought more volunteers.

Chief Louwers said that 30 Grosse Pointe Park men have enlisted as auxiliary police. "We need several more," he said.

Grosse Pointe City has 20 men who served as auxiliary police and firemen during World War II. "These men have volunteered again," Trombly said. "But we can use about 12 more."

Hoyt Wants 50
Farms Chief Hoyt was hopeful of having a defense unit of 50 men ready to take the training program. However, volunteers have been slow in signing up.

"We have about 10 recruits," said Lt. James Furton.

Both Chief Ingalsbe and Chief Goulette declared that they needed more auxiliary police and firemen.

Men interested in serving on the home front are requested to call the police or fire department of their respective community.

Social Security Pamphlet Ready

The recently publicized pamphlet entitled "Do you have a maid? laundress? cook? chauffeur? gardener?" an official publication of the Federal Security Agency and U. S. Treasury Department, has been made readily available for families in the Grosse Pointe municipalities, announced Francis L. Pendergast, Manager of the East Side office of the Social Security Administration, today.

This booklet explaining when and how to arrange for the reporting of these newly covered household workers, under the 1950 Social Security Amendments, can be obtained at the following places: Grosse Pointe Bank, City Clerk's Office in each of the respective communities, the Post Office, Memorial Center and most of the employment agencies furnishing domestic help.

You can also obtain a copy of this pamphlet at the office of this paper or by calling the Social Security office at 8720 Mack Avenue, Walnut 1-8714.

Bullet Wound Called Accident

An accidental shooting in a car parked at Country Club drive near Kercheval Friday, December 29 sent John Gardella, 27, of 3450 Courville, to Providence Hospital with a bullet lodged in his left arm.

Gardella told Det. Sgt. Elmer LaBadie that he had parked his car and was showing a new .38 caliber Colt revolver to his date, Miss Viola Hass, 20, of 2569 Van Dyke, when she fired it.

Gardella said he did not tell Miss Hass that the gun was loaded. She pulled the trigger and the bullet pierced the handkerchief in his coat pocket and lodged into his arm.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

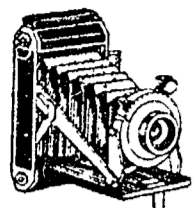

Robert R. Galletti, of 1141 Renaud, reported the theft of four Hollywood type hubcaps from his car while it was parked at the Grosse Pointe Woods Theater parking lot Friday, December 29.

Karen Koch Hurt When Hit by Car

Karen Koch, 12, of 68 Cloverly, suffered bruises on her right leg when she was struck by a car at Kercheval and St. Clair. She was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Grosse Pointe City police.

Police exonerated the driver, Arthur V. Angott, of 41135 Reiden. Witnesses said the child ran into the street from between two cars, police reported.

The mishap occurred Tuesday, December 19.

Presenting the New 1951
Cadillac

Far More Beautiful... Gorgeous New Interiors... and an Even Finer High-Compression Engine!

TODAY, we are privileged to present the new Cadillac for 1951—finer and more wonderful from every conceivable standpoint. . . . Numerous refinements in exterior design have made it more lovely to behold—while wholly new interiors, so rich in fabric and tailoring that they defy description, impart a sense of luxury that is simply beyond compare. . . . And, oh, the things that have been done to make it more gentle to handle—and more comfortable to ride in! The changes in this regard are manifold—and the results are a revelation. The car's quietness is now akin to silence; driving is all but a response to your wish; comfort leaves literally nothing to be desired. To ride or drive is to relax—and to rest. . . . The great master engine has also been refined—down to the smallest details. Its voice is closer to a whisper; its power application is faster; and it's even smoother in operation. . . . And there is an even finer Hydra-Matic Drive—with a new reverse for easier shifting, and for "rocking" the car in sand or better. . . . There is new steadiness on the road—better balance on turns and curves—easier and softer braking. And throughout the chassis are vital improvements which add to endurance and dependability. . . . All in all, here is new lustre for the Cadillac name—and a far higher standard for the automotive world. . . . There are ten distinctive body types and four individual series—the "Sixty-One," the "Sixty-Two," the "Sixty Special," and the incomparable "Seventy-Five". . . . Why not come in and see them today? We'd be most happy to see you—and we are certain you'd find it an interesting and enlightening experience.

Burglars Grab Big Xmas Haul

Smooth operating burglars fled with more than $1,500 in cash, jewelry, household goods and other articles after they ransacked the home of Norman J. Boehm, 1377 Sunningdale, early Saturday morning, December 23. The theft was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Boehm Sunday when they returned home after being away for most of the week-end.

Grosse Pointe Woods police said that entrance had been gained through a kitchen window, which had been broken.

The loot included $257 in cash, a 32-caliber revolver, a travel kit, an electric razor, a wrist watch, a small radio, a travel clock, clothing and several Christmas gifts.

Recruit Firemen Attending School

Three recruits of the Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Department are attending the Detroit Firemen's Training School prior to joining the department.

They are Charles Backman, Frank Goosen and Warren Schultz.

The new men will fill the vacancies in the department created by the death of assistant Fire Chief Arthur Bricard, and the retirement of Chief George Danbury, and Fireman William Gleason.

GETS TRAFFIC TICKET

The police issued a ticket to Karl R. Malzalen, of 13833 Brungard, for cutting into traffic on Kercheval on Thursday, December 28.

Ten Year Old Jewel Theft In Shores Still Unsolved

Completing another year as chief of the Grosse Pointe Shores police and fire departments, O. C. Ingalsbe sat back in his chair and recalled one of his most interesting cases during his 30-year tenure.

It happened about ten years ago at the home of a wealthy resident. But it still remains a mystery.

The family cook disappeared one day without giving the usual two-weeks notice.

"The cook could whip up a wov of a souffle and other delightful dishes and his departure was keenly felt by all the family."

Particularly when they noticed that $53,000 worth of jewelry also had disappeared.

"We searched unsuccessfully everywhere for the man and the jewels," Chief Ingalsbe said.

"The cook was listed as wanted and his photo distributed throughout the country."

Four years later, a truck driver spotted the photo on the wall of the Michigan State Police post at Wayne. He called Shores Police.

"If you still want this man, I know where he is," the truck driver told Ingalsbe.

The police chief hurried to Wayne. Then he and the truck driver proceeded to Thornton, Illinois. Here they found the cook working in a small restaurant.

"We got our man all right, but only to let him go," Ingalsbe said. "No jewels were recovered. We had no evidence."

So the case of the missing jewels remains unsolved in the Shores police records.

Edward Barthel Taken by Death

Funeral services were held Friday, December 29 for Edward T. Barthel, realtor, who died suddenly Wednesday at his home, 159 Grosse Pointe boulevard. He was 58.

Burial was in Coldwater, Michigan.

A native of Denver, Colo., Mr. Barthel had lived in Detroit and Grosse Pointe for 45 years.

He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1917. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and the Detroit Real Estate Board and a Navy veteran of World War I.

His wife, Eleanore, survives.

Ford Production Figures Released

Ford Motor Company and its 142,000 people produced two million Ford, Lincoln and Mercury passenger cars, trucks and tractors during the year 1950, Henry Ford, II, president, said today.

Payrolls totaled more than $590,000,000.

The company spent $1,750,000,000 for raw materials, finished products, construction and services.

"It was one of the best years in Ford history, with production and sales breaking all company records of the past quarter-century," Mr. Ford said.

"Such figures now seem important only as they indicate the ability of Ford Motor Company to do its part in the job ahead of us all as we enter this decisive year of 1951."

"We know that however the present situation may develop, increased American production—above and beyond any peace or wartime levels the nation ever has reached before—must be achieved."

"Only by such production can we maintain our peacetime progress and, at the same time, strengthen ourselves to protect and defend that peace."

"Ford Motor Company is, I think, in a better position than ever before to take on—with dispatch, efficiency, and good heart—whatever its full share may be of the task immediately ahead."

Honor Society Picks Pointers

By Lee Eskridge

Ten Grosse Pointe High School seniors have been chosen as members of the National Honor Society. This is a small number in comparison to those chosen at the same time last year, which was nineteen.

They are: Janet Ballentine, Jean Corey, Marvin Jackson, William Johnson, Malcolm McColl, Marcia Olen, Fred Pessl, Barbara Rose, Marjorie Snay, and John Tower.

Qualifications for membership in the National Honor Society require attendance in the high school for a minimum of two years, and at least a B average by the middle of the 12A semester. Each eligible senior is also rated by the entire faculty in leadership, character and service. This rating plus the service point record of the senior affects election.

Membership is awarded by a faculty committee, and not more than the top 15 per cent of the graduating class may be elected to the society.

Artists' Group Adding Classes

Classes for beginners and advanced students of art will be held on Mondays and Tuesdays, both in the afternoon and evening.

Instructors include Warren Simpson, Walter Midener, Guy Palazzola and Edgar Yeager.

The Time Is Now

The year 1950 has been filed in the archives of history, neatly tagged with a label that most of the experts agree is peculiarly appropriate. It has been dubbed "The Year of Fear."

Probably never before has the whole world known such a case of mass jitters. Everyone had his own diagnosis for what had caused the sorry state of affairs. Few seemed able to agree on a course of action for the future. With those in high places at sixes and sevens in their opinions. Mr. Average Citizen found himself floundering in a morass of confusion, distrust and uncertainty.

As the year came to a close, millions were given new hope in a statement made by Mr. Ralph Bunche, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize. Speaking to a television audience last Saturday night, he said he firmly believed 1951 would not see the start of World War III and that a lasting peace is still completely possible.

On one point everyone is fairly well agreed. The surest way to halt Russia's dream of world domination and curb the spread of communist aggression is for the western powers to build a military machine that the communists will not dare challenge. As the United States was the arsenal of democracy in World War II, so must she be in this undertaking.

To many, the conversion to full wartime production is not being accomplished nearly fast enough. Time is of the essence.

There is a suspicion in many quarters that the administration is delaying the conversion process because it fears the reaction to the great layoff of labor that much accompany the retooling period.

Edward Grace, Jr., for many years a news commentator on radio and television, offers a solution. He suggests that it would be entirely feasible for the government to pay labor during this layoff period, and charge it up to defense.

Compared to the vast amounts the government has spent and will be spending for defense, this item for paying labor during a period of idleness would not be great. It would keep labor happy, certainly, and should spur the workers to greater effort when they are called back to turn out war material.

Senator Douglas has suggested that as a means of fighting inflation, labor should be paid for overtime work with savings bonds that could not be cashed until the inflation danger was passed. Doubtless there will be a large element of labor which will oppose this suggestion. There would probably be no opposition to a plan that would pay them for being idle, and they should be willing to accept reduced wages during this conversion period.

The nation's great plants could immediately start preparations for turning out the war supplies which are so necessary to keep the communist aggression machine immobile. So argues Mr. Grace.

Whatever sphere we shall eventually decide to defend from communism, the need for the creation of a vast war machine in this country is vital. We can certainly agree with former President Herbert Hoover that not an American man nor an American dollar should be sent to any country which is not willing to contribute its share to the perpetuation of peace. The cost will come high.

The American people are ready and willing to do everything in their power towards this effort. With this general attitude established, it is not the time to dally. We should enter into full war production immediately.

Compulsory military training should also be adopted at once. With the country geared to complete preparation for war, the aggressors of the world would hesitate before taking another step to violate the peace.

New Year's Eve no doubt brought a lot of amusing incidents into the lives of a lot of folk (we hope), but it has been a long time since we have heard anything as "weird" as the true tale told to us by a local couple. You can put your own caption on the story which follows.

Our hero and heroine, both having been laid low with flu during the holidays, decided not to make a production out of New Year's Eve... but to take it easy until midnight, when they planned on calling on some friends nearby, who were having a small celebration. In comfortable bathrobes, they sat in the living room looking at television until about 11 o'clock, when they decided to dress to the teeth... to make their midnight call. So far, so good.

Mister donned his dinner coat... and Madame arrayed herself in a new "million dollar" evening gown, bare down to HERE... bedecked herself with jewels... grabbed her sable wrap... and they were off... or so they thought!

Just as they were about to make their exit, a timid rap sounded on the front door. On opening it, they were stared at by a white faced youth who announced that he was "afraid he had hit their car." The couple made a dash for the car, which was parked in front of the house and across the street... and sure enough, a small coupe was jammed into the rear of their snazzy Cadillac. Husband dear and scared youth held a conference, while sable-coated Madame tapped her foot nervously on the pavement. There followed the usual procedure of trying to extricate one car from the other... but to no avail. Sooooooo, it was finally decided that a wrecker truck was needed.

Monsoon and Madame repaired to the house to telephone a garage for help... and were told that it might take about thirty minutes or so because there were so many calls to take care of. In the spirit of the New Year... our hero decided it was unfair to leave the lad sitting outside waiting in a cold car, so he offered him the hospitality of the house. It was, THEN that he discovered there were two girls in the car also, who were shivering with nervous fright. One with a skinned knee and the other with a slightly "bumped" head!

Forgetting everything but the seeming emergency at hand... our heroine removed her coat and bustled about the house gathering up antiseptics, bandages, aspirin, etcetera. In the meantime, the Grosse Pointe bells chimed their herald of the New Year... all of which was lost on the five oddly assorted people in the living-room. Within an hour, things quieted down a bit... so while waiting for the wrecking car, the boy explained that they were just driving around the Pointe to look at the Christmas lighting and they all happened to be LOOKING when his car hit the Cadillac!

At this point, it seemed sensible to ask if they would like some refreshment. Yes, they would... some hot coffee. With some misgivings, Madame (who had never been closer to a coffee pot than those she'd seen in ads), offered to make some. What she turned up with... shouldn't happen to a dog, but they drank it gratefully. Another hour went by. No wrecker. Christmas cookies were brought out and another pot of insipid coffee was made. Conversation lagged all over the place and yawns were beginning to be the order of the night. Periodic telephone calls were made to the garage... who assured each time that the "wrecker was on the way."

At four a.m., the "host" finally suggested that the girls be sent home in a taxi. This he arranged, including the taxi fare. Shortly before five a.m., the wrecker FINALLY arrived and separated the cars... but since the little coupe was in no condition to be driven... the young driver also had to be sent home in a cab. That's all there is to the story... but it may give our readers an idea of how some Grosse Pointe big-shots spend New Year's Eve! All it NOT champagne and caviar!

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

"Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark..."

Most of the resolutions we made last January, if not broken before the close of 1950, were at least badly crumpled. But heeding the words of St. Paul, we pull ourselves together and make a new start.

Perhaps a single resolution might better serve the purpose... to make better use of our time, our energies and our talents in 1951. Books can be helpful in our approach to better living. In this category there is much on the market that is superficial but J. L. Liebman's PEACE OF MIND, BIBLE FOR THE COMMON READER by Mary Ellen Chase, A GUIDE TO CONFIDENT LIVING by Norman Vincent Peale, Harry Emerson Fosdick's ON BEING FIT TO LIVE WITH AND ART OF LIVING by Andre Maurois all point toward a sane way of life.

Or perhaps you have specific plans ahead... You are resolved to be better informed about world affairs. KOREA TODAY by George McCune you will find authentic and up to date.

You have decided to take a more active part in one or two worth-while organizations although hitherto you have always shied away from holding office. ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER and PARLIAMENTARY USAGE by Emma Fox will give you the necessary brush-up.

You lack time for elaborate entertaining but you wish to see more of your friends. The recent title HOME ENTERTAINING: A COMPLETE GUIDE by Charlotte Adams will tell you how you may entertain with minimum effort. We quote from the introduction. "The purpose of this book is to help you manage your entertaining so that it is relaxed and simple for you and therefore for your guests. It is written with time and budget in mind. It attempts to answer all the questions which might possibly trouble either the novice or the experienced hostess."

You have decided to master a language. Don't forget that your library has the LINGUAPHONE CONVERSATIONAL COURSE IN SPANISH. These records may be rented for two cents a day.

With the same old budget you are going to try to stretch that shrinking dollar. FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR THE INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY by Neva Radell will give you a good start and CONSUMER'S RESEARCH BULLETIN and CONSUMER UNION will help you procure your money's worth. You might compare various brands of sheets, etc., before you take advantage of the January white sales.

You'd like to do some creative work and refurbish your home at one and the same time. "DECORATE YOUR HOME FOR BETTER LIVING" by Mary L. Brandt will furnish ideas for you. Good luck with your resolutions!

A wave of the hand to all our old friends home from college. It has been nice to have you back, whether you visited us to get a jump on that next assignment, to do some frivolous reading for a change, or whether you merely popped a head in the door to say "Cheerio!"

SANDRA DICKELY entertained 35 of her Grosse Pointe High School classmates New Year's night in her Lincoln road home.

Proper Foot Care

By Fred M. Kopp, R. Ph.

Don't neglect the care of your feet if you want to have a good disposition and a pleasant expression. And don't accept foot trouble as something that must be. This is not the case.

Outside of the ordinary causes of foot troubles like corns, calluses and bunions, poor circulation, arthritis, and gout can also make your feet ache. Improperly fitted shoes too, cause much suffering.

Consult your doctor about foot troubles. He will be glad to help you determine the cause and advise what should be done.

Should medication be prescribed, rely on a conscientious pharmacist to fill your needs.

Town Hall Books Ruth Alexander

The national policy of "giving," used by politicians to gain votes can act as a greedy hand in the pocket of every citizen, Dr. Ruth Alexander, noted economist, will tell a Detroit Town Hall audience at Fisher Theatre, Wednesday morning, January 10, at 11 o'clock.

Her timely talk, "What the State Gives Away," It Takes Away," explains how the money doled out by government to special groups and individuals must first be collected from the average taxpayer.

Dr. Alexander, a featured columnist for a newspaper syndicate won a Freedom Foundation award, presented by General Eisenhower, for her editorial on free enterprises. One of her most famous talks, "Which Way America," is included in "Representative American Speeches," a textbook used in all universities.

Wedding Unites Pointe Families

Joanne Campfield Johnstone was wed to George Harrison Eversman in a late afternoon ceremony Saturday, December 30, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, the Reverend J. Clemens Kolb, officiating.

Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Johnstone of Meadow Lane and George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Eversman of Westchester road.

Joanne's gown of white chantilly lace was distinguished by a deep portrait neckline filled in with silk illusion and banded by an applique of lace at the neck. Her waist length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a net cloche trimmed with matching chantilly lace. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and ivy, centered with a white orchid.

Janet Johnstone, her sister's only attendant, wore a blue gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of lace and a bouffant net skirt. A small shawl banded with lace

MRS. GEORGE EVERSMAN completed the gown. Janet's cloche of blue net matched the bride's and she carried a similar bouquet of white carnations.

George's father, W. G. Eversman, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Alvin A. Dragula of Grosse Pointe, John F. Huckins of Grosse Pointe and William Merrill of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mrs. Johnstone chose a street-length gown of blue silk taffeta and a flowered hat of mauve pink. She pinned pink Cymbidium orchids to her purse.

Mrs. Eversman wore a street-length gown of wine velvet and a matching hat. Her flowers were shell pink camellias.

The reception at the University Club immediately followed the ceremony.

Joanne's traveling suit was fawn colored wool and with it she wore a matching hat and lizard accessories. To her suit she pinned the white orchid from her bouquet.

Following a short trip in northern Michigan, they will drive to Camp LeJeune, North Carolina, where George is stationed with the Marine Corps.

Holiday Sparkle Made By Engagement Rings

Romantic News Told During Christmas Week Forecasts 1951 Year of Many Weddings; "Dodo" Booth, Nancy Curtis, Barbara Shipton, Suzanne Johnson Engaged

There was a blinding sparkle produced by new engagement rings worn this holiday season . . . when if the "party" isn't for a debutante and there are young people in the family, guests always arrive anticipating Big News.

Those who traveled out to Bloomfield Hills and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Scripps Booth last week weren't disappointed. They learned of the engagement of the Booths' daughter, Dorothy Ellen, to Horace Caulkins Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sloane Ford of Windmill Pointe drive.

The party was given to complement "Dodo" Booth's roommate at Wheelock College, Selby Brown of Rochester, N. Y., but at the same time the betrothal news was told.

The bride-elect graduated from Kingswood and made her debut in the summer season of 1949. She is a member of Sigma Gamma and led Miss Annie Ward Foster's May Party Grand March the year she came out.

Mr. Ford goes to Michigan State College and before that attended Taft in Watertown, Conn.

Down in Sarasota, Fla., news was being made of interest to Grosse Pointe, too, when Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jones announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Curtis Jones, to John Philip Worcester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ira Worcester of Lincoln road.

Miss Jones has been the houseguest of the Worcesteres over the New Year's week-end. She is a graduate of Columbus School, Sweetbriar College and Katharine Gibbs School.

John went to Detroit University School, graduated from Hotchkiss and Williams College. He served in the U. S. Navy in World War II and his fraternity is Kappa Alpha.

Planning a Spring wedding are Barbara Jane Shipton and William Lewis Morris, whose engagement was announced at a cocktail party given by her parents during Christmas week.

Barbara is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Shipton of Balfour road and her fiance is the son of Mrs. W. H. Morris of Port Huron and the late Dr. Morris.

Present for the announcement party were the bride-elect's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson of Great Barrington, Mass.

Still more future wedding news was told when Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Johnson of Lakeland avenue revealed the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Mont Richard Wickham, son of Dr. and Mrs. Mont Wickham of Ridge road.

Theirs will probably be a Summer wedding since Suzanne will graduate in June from Endicott Junior College and Dick will receive his diploma from Brown University at the same time.

Mr. Sisk is a graduate of Warren Harding school in Warren and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from General Motors Institute in Flint, where he was affiliated with Phi Tau Alpha fraternity. During the war he served for three years with the Army Medical Corps.

Elaine Zimmerman's Debut Closes Season

Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert Zimmerman Present Their Daughter, Elaine, at Tea Dance in Country Club; Deb and Assistants Feted Later

Society danced down the curtain on the 1950 debut season last Friday afternoon at the tea dance given in the Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Zimmerman of Kenwood road in honor of their daughter, Elaine.

The lacy loveliness of Spring's most delicate blossoms . . . the white lilac and valley lilies . . . were used through the rooms of the club for the party. In the great hall, the dancers were framed by pillars festooned with silver birch branches.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman and their daughter received the guests in the French Room. The brunet debutante wore a radiant gown of pure white chantilly lace with slender bodice and waltz length skirt. Straps were formed of the lace's fragile pattern and over her shoulders, the debutante affected a tiny net cape with edges finished in appliqued Chantilly.

Elaine carried her father's gift bouquet of white lilacs edged in ruff of maline.

For the debut, Mrs. Zimmerman was gowned in sapphire blue lace, waltz length, its fitted jacket closed at front by tiny lace buttons. The jacket's long sleeves ended in points over the wrists, and Mrs. Zimmerman wore white orchids.

Honor assistant for the debutante was her post deb sister, Doris (who made her debut on Elaine's birthday, June 30 . . . Elaine's coming out party fell on nine year old brother Louis' birthday). She chose for the party a deep sea foam imported lace dancing frock with cape sleeves.

All the assistants wore the debutante's gift gardenias and the others were: Ann La Ferte, Nena Cunningham, Isabel Seymour, Mary Doelle and Martha Hagerty.

Assisting Mrs. Zimmerman were Mrs. George Pratt, Mrs. H. Murray Northrup, Mrs. Reginald Fyfe Given, Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham and Mrs. Raymond H. Berry.

Later that evening, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman gave a dinner for the debutante and her assistants who were then whisked to Music Hall to attend University of Pennsylvania's Mask and Wig show.

They were decorative in the very front boxes at Music Hall and later were joined by their escorts, members of the cast, who took them to the Mask and Wig Cabaret at Hotel Statler.

There will be more parties for Elaine during next June's debutante season. She left on Wednesday to return to her studies at Duke University.

Mr. Cheatham was graduated from Wentworth Military Academy Junior College and attended Wayne University. No date has been set for the wedding.

Blue Devil Varsity Quintet Finally Beats Alumni Team

By Fred Runnells
Before a capacity mixed student and alumni crowd, acting captain Alex Mann paced the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils to a stirring 49 to 39 victory over the Alumni team Wednesday, December 27, on the local court.

The victory was the first time the varsity emerged the winner in three contests in this now annual popular holiday game.

Clean Battle
Like its predecessors, this year's game was a cleanly fought battle with only 28 personal fouls called, despite the rigid officiating. Once again Principal Clementson and coach Ed Wernet had high praise for the sportsmanlike way the contest was played.

Both the Blue Devil students and alumni had plenty to cheer about as the score repeatedly changed hands throughout the first three periods of the contest. The score was tied or changed hands no less than 14 times in the exciting battle before the Varsity rolled to its 10 point margin in the late stages of the final period.

Schoeck Tops Scorers
Vince Schoeck was the big gun in the Alumni attack with 16 points on 8 field goals, which gave him the individual scoring honors in the game.

While the Alumni scoring was fairly evenly distributed among the 12 players, the Varsity depended on Mann, Bud McCullough and Bruce Allen who netted 15, 13 and 11 points respectively to score its first victory in the holiday contest.

Varsity Favored
The Varsity was the pre-game favorite because of its height advantage but the effective play of Spike Quirk and Captain Bayard Johnson did a remarkable job of halting the Devils' two giants, Bruce Allen and Bud McCullough. Both of these boys have consistently led the Devils' offensive attack throughout the present season. Allen has led the

GPHS Alumni Teams Battle

By Fred Runnells
For the first time in the history of Grosse Pointe High an all-alumni basketball game was played as a preliminary contest to the annual varsity-alumni game last Wednesday, December 27th.

The Blue team of Gerhard, Allen, Finch, Metry and Beck defeated the White team of Wuerker, Ed Isbey, Mantho, Glenn Coury and Bill Isbey 32 to 27 in the final minute of the game. The Blue's final surge in the last stanza nipped the Whites, who had held a narrow lead from the outset of the contest.

Herb Gerhard and Jerry Allan of the Blue team and Johnny Galvin of the White team tied for individual scoring honors with 10 points each.

It had been hoped that many of the old alumni would turn out to play in this first game of its kind at the school on Fisher road but the turnout was disappointing. Only eight old alumni showed up for the game and two of the players, Glenn Coury and Bill Isbey, who played in the final game of the night rounded out the lineups that enabled the game to go on. Tom Wilson was forced to forego the game because of a broken wrist suffered in a basketball accident prior to the Christmas holidays.

The future of this all-alumni game is very much in doubt. However, many of the alumni assured me they would have a much better turnout next year.

Regal Opening Cocktail Lounge

The new Regal Cocktail Lounge opens this week in the great 20-alley Regal Lanes Recreation building at 1701 Harper avenue, near Moross road.
Ranking with the largest and finest recreation buildings in the entire metropolitan area, the Regal Lanes serves many Pointe bowlers. The bowling section of the building was completed more than a year ago.

The new cocktail lounge, a soda bar and restaurant and the 20 lanes for bowling combine to make a complete new recreation center to serve this area.
Walter and Gus Ciolek, well known in bowling circles, and Steve Majewski, former mayor of Hamtramck, are the owners and operators of the establishment.

Neighborhood Club League's Schedule Disrupted by Yule

The Christmas holidays took a heavy toll in games played in the Neighborhood Club's basketball league with only three games being played in two of the three divisions.

The Major Division was the most active when St. Clair Shores won the first game of the Tuesday, December 26, triple header program, 43 to 38, over a scrappy Broderick A.C. team. Dale Erikson, the league leading scorer, chalked up 17 points to pace the winners. It marked the fourth straight week Erikson topped his teams attack.

In the second game of the night Verdonck Bakery edged the Metropolitan Club 56 to 47 to take their fourth victory in as many starts and remain undefeated and stay in a two-way deadlock with the American-Italian aggregation which was idle.

Jack Dillon paced the winners with 12 points which was good for runnerup scoring honors behind the Metropolitan Club's Joe Schaffner and Jim Plecas, who led for top honors with 13 points each.

In the Minor Division Post 303 swamped a hapless St. John quintet 65 to 16 to remain in a two-way first place tie with the idle Tracy Motor team. Clare Weaver topped the Post team with 21 points to capture scoring honors for the night.

Let's Chat!

Now it's 1951 . . . a new year. Good wishes to you and yours.
Did you make any resolutions? I did not . . . but I have a promise to make in behalf of all Packers Super Markets. Throughout the New Year you'll get the best possible food values . . . and a guarantee of finest qualities in everything.
We have a sing in our office reading: "Beware of little expenses; a small leak will sink a great ship." Good thought there . . . so shop at Packers for extra savings.

Let's chat about Frozen Foods briefly. Quick freezing is the modern way of keeping garden freshness right to your table, you know—and super markets everywhere have, or are installing complete frozen food departments. Quick freezing retains all the good flavor in fruits and vegetables . . . and enables us to have out-of-season delicacies throughout the year. We have a well stocked Frozen Food Section at Packers' 115 East Parkhurst, and is employed by one of the automobile plants. Bob Swift, the Detroit Tigers Catcher, was a judge, and was present before the television cameras during the program.

Our interest was aroused when we discovered that Mrs. Campbell is handicapped through failing eyesight . . . and has raised five sons. The Detroit Edison will equip the new fange with Braille controls . . . so Mrs. Campbell will enjoy her new Murray Range. She is glad now that her sons are CISCO KID fans . . . and that her husband entered our contest.

How do you like our Self Serve Meat Department at Packers? Shoppers like the modern method of selecting their meats . . . and it does save time.
In Packers at 107 Kercheval there is one section featuring prepackaged meats . . . and you'll find many of your favorite cuts there. Pick them up . . . see what you are buying . . . choose exactly what you want. It's convenient. The regular meat department is right there too, so if you can't find your needs prepackaged you'll get it at the regular department.
Prepackaging is done behind the scenes at Packers . . . and in a modern sanitary department. Skilled butchers prepare the cuts . . . packages are wrapped and sealed . . . and weights are supervised to be exact as marked. Everything is fresh, and, of course, you can always depend upon Packers quality.

I wonder if you know that we have many things in Packers that are usually found in the drug store. Popular items in cosmetics . . . dentifrices . . . shaving needs. The brands you like . . . and we have them in the drug section. Another time-saving reason for shopping at Packers.

THINGS THAT MAKE YOU EXPECT ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

The young man who walked the pretty hostess' pet puppy dog during an afternoon holiday reception... the epitome of devotion!

We are told by An Authority that a combination of numbers (to be found in the Social Secretary) places one definitely in the Top Drawer Aura of Society. Any one of the numbers is a star in the social crown... all four are the final gasp. If you'd like to rate yourself or someone you don't like here they are:

For gentlemen: 13-27-47-109. (Meaning member of the Country Club of Detroit, the Detroit Club, the Grosse Pointe Club AND the Yondoteaga Club.)

For ladies: 58-80-89. (Meaning member of The Junior League of Detroit, sigma Gamma Association and/or Tau Beta Association.)

Which brings to mind a friend of ours, un-clubbed, who listened as long as he could to a pal who "Little Clubbed" him to death.

With satisfying revenge, he now speaks of a mysterious "Big Club" all his own.

HOLDING HANDS

ELISABETH ROBB and BILL BAUBIE.
EDNA SKELTON and JUPE NEWMAN.

The debs choose a standard breakfast to be served in the early hours after the ball: Scrambled Eggs, Bacon, English Muffins (toasted), Jam and Plenty of Milk.

Once again one of the Pointes' most familiar and best loved holiday decorations shines in the great electric star used outside MURRAY W. SALES' East Jefferson home... visible up and down the avenue for blocks.

Incidentally, the one holiday Open House local males really attend out of desire is that given annually at Christmas by MR. SALES and JAMES HOLDEN. It took place at the Detroit Club on Friday, December 22.

PILFERINGS

(From Ogden Nash's delectable "Versus")

CONFOUND YOU DECEMBER 26, I APOLOGIZE

December twenty-fourth is an exciting day because it is the day before Christmas; but December twenty-sixth is a dreary day because it is the day after, and people don't even want to take their heads out from under the covers unless they hafter.

December twenty-fifth is an exciting day because it is what people refer to when Merry Christmas they wish you; but December twenty-sixth is just the day you spend tripping over ribbons and wading through green and scarlet tissue.

It is a day of such anti-climax as to frustrate the most ambitious.

It is lined with gray satin like a medium-priced casket, it's atmosphere is faintly morticianous.

It is a day oppressive as asthma.

A day on which you call up the blood bank and ask them to return your plasma.

It is a day of headaches that set you sighing with nostalgia for your old neuralgia.

Its hours are as dilatory as a 10-cent depilatory.

Indeed it is a day subject to such obscuration and obloquy that I am beginning to feel sorry for it, my knees are wobbling and as I strangle a sobloquy.

I am regretful that in discussing the reputation of December twenty-sixth I may have said anything to jeopardize it, so by making amends I suggest that from now on we not necessarily lionize it, but couldn't we maybe just leopardize it?

Pointer of Interest

—Picture by Fred Runnells

ELIZABETH GOULD OF LAKEPOINTE AVENUE

Betty Gould is another Pointer who feels the lure of the theater and the attraction of Broadway. A June 1950 graduate in dramatics from Syracuse University, she has already done a sizable bit of stage and television work here and in New York.

"I like comedy best..." says the slim, photogenic blonde lass. "Something that I can laugh at myself as well as other people."

Has Done Modeling

During high school days she was a Conover model, and also did some modeling in a store in Syracuse. Incidentally, she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Gould, moved to Grosse Pointe from New York in 1949.

A variety of courses marked Betty's college days. "I took everything but forestry," she says slyly. She studied under Sawyer Falk, noted drama teacher, at Syracuse University, and played in all of the college's major productions. In her senior year, she received the Board's Head Dramatic Society Annual Merit Award for her work in dramatics. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Did Children's Theater

While Betty likes acting best, another phase of the theater which she found most interesting was her work with the Syracuse University Children's Theater.

She was in charge of a major portion of the choreography and musical training of the children, and found it much to her liking.

On the side, she took time to perform on television shows in Syracuse. "It was a charade type of program which I enjoyed doing," Betty says. "I portrayed Catherine the Great one week, Betsy Ross the next, and so on with other famous people."

Worked Long Hours

During an 8-week summer season with the Onida Castle Playhouse in New York, Bettie worked 15 hours a day. Besides appearing in seven of the eight popular plays (including "Blithe Spirit," "All My Sons," "Claudia," and "The Late Christopher Bean") she became an expert on electricity and carpentry, since the actors did all their own mechanical work.

Betty has appeared the past two summers at the Will-O-Way Playhouse in Bloomfield Hills. She had one of the stellar roles there in "Voice of the Turtle" this past season, appearing earlier in "Here Today" and "Heaven Can Wait."

Versatile Gal

The versatile young actress has "fiddled around with art," plays the piano and took dancing lessons for 10 years. She loves sailing and baseball; for that matter, the Goulds were great Tiger fans for years before moving to the Pointe. Currently, Betty is debating whether to go into local radio and television or return to a scheduled TV spot in New York.
