They Took to the Beach for Relief

Grosse Pointe municipal beaches and docks did a land office business during last weekend and on Monday through the heat wave. Farms residents made their municipal beach Monday resemble a miniature Coney Island as they sought the cooling waters of Lake St. Clair and forgot how just three short months ago these same waters practically wrecked all beach and dock installations along the Pointe shore.

Residents Petition For Permission to Erect Own Barriers Along Milk River

The Grosse Pointe Woods city council last Monday night accepted a petition by a group of property owners along the Milk River that they be permitted to build their own embankments as protection against possible flooding of their land.

The petition was inspired to ward off the city's emergency diking program provided for under an ordinance adopted nearly a month ago.

Prefer Own Work

The petitioners felt that in view of their personal expenditures toward the improvement and beautification of their own properties (outdoor grills, fences, rock gardens) they would be more responsible in providing adequate flood protection, at the same time maintaining the present and desired appearance.

Director of Public Safety Appointed by Woods as Head Of Police, Fire Departments

Inspector Vern Bailey of Detroit Police Department Given Appointment; Walter Goulette Named as Fire Chief

The Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, at their regular meeting on June 16, created by ordinance a new position to be known as a "Director of Public Safety". Following the creation of this new position the Acting City Administrator, Ray MacArthur, appointed Vern C. Bailey and asked the Council for confirmation of the appointment in accordance with Charter requirements.

The Acting City Administrator, in making the appointment, stated that the responsibility for the Police and Fire Departments had increased to the point where it was no longer feasible for both of these departments to be under the complete jurisdiction of one man. It was further explained there should be an individual responsible for the activities of each department who, in turn, would be responsible to the Director of Public Safety.

Is 48 Years Old

Mr. Bailey, the new appointee, was born in Bad Axe, Michigan and is 48 years old. At the present time he lives with his wife and three children at 8242 Apolline Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. The Council, in confirming the appointment, stressed the fact that the new appointee had undergone considerable investigation both as to ability and character for the past eight months. After careful scrutiny of the experience and background of several applicants, Mr. Bailey was finally selected for this position.

Mr. Bailey attended the University of Virginia and the University of Michigan where he majored in Civil and Military Government courses. He is now the Commanding Officer of the

Farms Fire Loss Zero During May

Grosse Pointe Farms got through the entire month of May without any fire loss, according to the monthly report of Chief William Newport.

The department answered a total of 18 calls, which included eight ambulance calls, seven emergency calls with the small pickup truck, one residence fire, which did no damage, and two false alarms.

Persuasive Sales Lady Takes Off

A magazine sales-girl persuaded the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Ayling, of 20640 Vernier circle, to sign a check in her mother's name, one day last week, as a deposit for a few magazines.

Mr. Ayling immediately stopped payment on the check and notified Grosse Pointe Woods police. The police called the down-town offices represented by the girl and were told that she had left that day for New York. They warned the firm that none of their representatives would hereafter be allowed to solicit in the community without their authorization.

Survey of Rubbish Disposal Problem Gets Under Way

A survey of the garbage and rubbish disposal problem in the five Pointe communities and Harper Woods got under way last Friday. Contracted for the project is the engineering firm of H. E. Beyster & Associates, Inc.

Measures for alleviating the existing problems of refuse disposal run the gamut of sink disposal units in the homes, a proposal that has been buffeted about by the various city councils; sanitary land fill method, and incineration.

Everitt Lane, city manager of Grosse Pointe Park, who for the past two years has worked to draw the six municipalities into such a cooperative program, contended that the survey would probably result in the recommendation of an incineration plant.

Designed to carry the added burden of increasing populations, the plant would also be large enough to offer refuse disposal facilities to other communities on a contractual basis.

One of the complaints against the incineration process has been the resulting odor. Said Lane, "The old plant simmered refuse at 800 degrees (Fahrenheit). Now, everything is burned completely at temperatures of 1400 degrees or more."

To Erect Barrier To Protect House

Permission to erect a steel post barrier in the right-of-way in front of his home at the foot of the Merriweather road hill, at Charlevoix, has been granted to Daniel G. Shea by the Grosse Pointe Farms Council.

Mr. Shea said that four driverless cars have plunged down the hill and onto his property, doing considerable damage, during the last three years. In at least one case, youngsters were believed to have released the brakes on a car and allowed it to run away down the hill.

Mr. Shea produced plans for the barrier he expects to erect, a series of steel posts sunk in the ground three feet in 15 inches of concrete, and projecting three feet above ground. He said he would have them painted any color selected by the council.

Four Days of Spectacular Events Will Feature Many of Nation's Champions; Proceeds Will Benefit "Girlstown"

Grosse Pointe becomes the center of interest of the horse show world nationally this weekend. This is a result of the Hunt Club's 41 years of annual showing this June weekend—and an unceasing effort to increase the scope, quality and interest of the show.

The Grosse Pointe production has taken its place in prominence among the country's top shows—the major league of the horse show world. An example of this is the fact that Green Dunes Farm's "My Bill," from Boston, last year's Hunter Champion here, was also crowned National Hunter Champion. Further, J. Long Brooks "Ottawa's Empress," from Springfield, Mass., winner of the Grosse Pointe Fine Harness Championship, was also Fine Harness Champion nationally.

To See Brightest Stars

"Velvet Lassie," from Indianapolis, twice Jumper Champ at Grosse Pointe was last year's National Reserve Jumper Champ. It is obvious, then, that Grosse Pointers will this year have an opportunity to see the brightest stars of the horse show world, comfortably, conveniently, almost in their own back yards, for the Hunt Club's show grounds are just a few minutes' drive from anywhere in the Pointe.

Top Notch Officials

To handle a show of the size and national importance of the Pointe show, judges and officials with coast-to-coast prestige have been imported. James H. Blackwell, the judge of hunters and jumpers, is ex-master of Foxhounds of the famous Farmington Hunt of Charlottesville, Va., and is now honorary secretary of the hunt.

Arthur Roberts, saddle division judge, is manager of one of Lexington Kentucky's most famous American saddle horse breeding establishments, "Wingneck Farm," which farm, incidentally, bred "Sweet Rhythm," which won fame and national championships for Frances Dodge Van Lennep stable.

The ringmaster, J. Vincent Wholey of Swickley, Pa., officiated in the same capacity at last year's Madison Square Garden National Horse Show.

Many Stellar Events

Every day of the four-day event, Thursday, June 19, through Sunday, June 22, has its stellar attractions, its special features.

Check Trees For Signs Of Dread Killer

Second Phase of Battle Against Dutch Disease Launched Under State Supervision

Last Monday representatives of the Grosse Pointe communities, Pointe Garden Council and Property Owners Association met with state representatives to formulate a program that would control the Dutch Elm disease in the area.

A month ago the Pointe's elms were sprayed in an attempt to check the spread of the disease, first known in Detroit two years ago. The meeting Monday constituted the second step in control and elimination of the elm bark beetle, the chief transmitter of the deadly fungus.

Team of Experts

A team of experts under the direction of Hubert C. Kendeigh, Assistant Supervisor in Detroit for the Michigan Department of Agriculture, began work Tuesday, with the cooperation of municipal employees, surveying the thousands of elm trees throughout the Pointe. Trees that have visibly symptomatic characteristics will be tagged. Samples will later be taken and sent to the laboratories of Dr. F. C. Strong, Assistant Professor (Research) of Botany and Plant Pathology at Michigan State College, for positive determination of infection.

Started in East

The Dutch Elm disease was introduced from Europe about 1930 at several points along the Atlantic coast of North America, and was carried west of the Appalachians on elm burl logs consigned to a veneer plant in the Midwest.

The beetle that carries the fungus emerges in May or early June as an adult, flies to healthy trees, and feeds in the crotches of the twigs, introducing the fungus spores from their bodies.

Once the fungus becomes well established within a tree, death results. If the bark of a diseased elm is not treated or disposed of, the fungus will continue to grow in the dying tissues and can be spread to other trees by the beetle.

Study Still Incomplete

Although the life history of the beetle in Michigan has not been studied completely, observations to date have revealed that Michigan probably has two generations each year. Many trees die in the same season infection occurs. Some die after a few weeks, and only a few live longer than the second or third season.

In order to prevent further spread of the disease, infected trees must be removed and destroyed.

State Regulation

If a tree is proved to have become diseased as a result of study of specimens in Dr. Strong's laboratories, the tree will be removed in accordance with the Department of Agriculture regulation governing Dutch Elm disease. Dr. Strong stated that evidence of the disease in specimens should be apparent in two weeks.

According to Mr. Kendeigh, the project of marking the trees and obtaining samples should be completed in about two weeks.

Farms Hears Arguments on Fencing Law

Capacity Crowd Turns Out For Public Hearing On Proposed New Ordinance

The proposed new fence ordinance for the City of Grosse Pointe Farms attracted a near capacity audience of residents to the public hearing on the matter conducted by the city council Monday night. Various aspects of the proposed law were argued over for two hours in the sweltering heat of the crowded council chamber in the Municipal Building in Kerby road.

The fence ordinance has long been a matter of considerable contention in the Farms. Action on three cases of violations cited by the council has been held up for some months, pending the adoption of a new law.

Violations Referred To

It was stated at the meeting Monday night that the fences of George Rieveschl of 232 Lothrop road, and of John MacLucas of Vendome road at Grosse Pointe boulevard, were in violation of both the present and proposed ordinances. A third citation was made against Daniel Goodenough of Lothrop road for his portion of a fence erected jointly with Mr. Rieveschl along Charlevoix.

Mr. Goodenough, a Farms councilman, had his section of the fence removed immediately after he was cited as a violator.

Long Explains Task

Benjamin Long, special counsel for the city in charge of codification of ordinances and the drafting of the new fence ordinance, explained what a difficult job it has been for the council to formulate a new ordinance which will please every resident. He said the meeting had been arranged so the residents could air their opinions and help the council decide just what should be incorporated in the new ordinance.

Mr. Long asked that in considering their own personal problems and wishes, the residents not forget that the law was being enacted for the good of the entire community and for the preservation of property values.

General Outline

In general, the new ordinance would permit fences up to four feet in height from the property line back to the building line. Behind this, fences could be erected up to eight feet in height, provided written permission was obtained from the immediate adjoining neighbors.

There was some argument about where hedges, shrubs, etc., fitted into the picture and further study will be given this question. Some of the residents were against any fences in front yards; others felt

Molester Sent Back to Prison

Sergeant Arnold Hough and Detective Donald Dean arrested John F. Houtteman, 33, a janitor at the Aloma Theater, Thursday, June 12, after receiving a complaint that Houtteman had molested a 7-year-old child earlier that same day.

Investigation disclosed that Houtteman had enticed two 7-year-old boys and an 8-year-old girl who had been playing outside into the theater building. There Houtteman, a parolee from the State Prison Hospital at Ionia, made immoral advances. He had promised the children apples in return.

According to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, Houtteman, under the circumstances, will not receive the benefit of a trial, but will be returned to the prison hospital as a parole violator. He had previously been charged with similar offenses.

Water Shortage Warning Issued to Woods Residents

Acting City Administrator of Grosse Pointe Woods, Ray MacArthur, warned this week of the health and safety hazard created in the community by the past weeks of dry weather and the subsequent abnormal use of water.

As a result certain areas of the city have been experiencing extremely low water pressure. It has been reported that some residents have not had sufficient pressure for bathing purposes.

MacArthur has issued a request that residents cooperate in the use of water, particularly for sprinkling and watering lawns. A tentative schedule has been set up to conserve water for more important sanitary purposes: Daytime use between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. only; night time use during the nine hour period between 10 p.m. and 5 a.m. only.

Residents are asked to cooperate with this schedule from now through September.

SWINGS TOO FAR

While passing a parked car on June 14, Leona B. Wilkins, of 3017 Anderson, Detroit, swung too far to her left and hit a Dodge panel truck approaching from the other direction. City police said that minor damage was done to both vehicles. No tickets were issued.

Praised By Buell

Theodore E. Buell, executive secretary of the American Horse Shows Association, who for several years has officiated at the microphone during the Grosse Pointe event, says, "It has been my privilege and pleasure to have attended this show for the past four years and I can truthfully say it ranks among the best outdoor shows in the United States."

This is truly an opportunity for horse-lovers to enjoy blue ribbon entertainment and support a worthy cause, for this year Grosse Pointe's show joins Devon, Lexington, Houston and Dayton, among others, notable horse shows whose proceeds, in whole or part, go to charity.

To Benefit "Girls Town" This year Grosse Pointe's ticket sales are pledged to the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs "Girlstown" enterprise. Tickets may be purchased at the gate, at Saks Fifth Avenue, and at the J. L. Hudson Co. on the main floor. There's convenient free parking across from the show grounds.

GIVEN SAFETY AWARD

The Michigan Safety Commission has awarded the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, through the police department, a 1951 national traffic safety contest honor roll award in recognition of completing the year without a fatal motor vehicle traffic accident within the borders of the municipality.

New Director

10th Precinct in the City of Detroit, having started with the Detroit Police Department in August of 1927. He was promoted to Sergeant in September of 1940 to Lieutenant in November of 1944 and finally to Inspector in September of 1949.

His assignments with the Detroit Police included the Motorcycle Traffic Bureau, Administrative Assistant to the Police Commissioner, Commanding Officer of the 12th Precinct and Commanding Officer of the Youth Bureau.

In addition to the above, he spent 5 1/2 years in the United States Army as a Commissioned Officer in World War II in the Corps of Military Police and was assigned to the Military Government Public Safety in Frankfurt and Berlin. He presently holds a commission as Major in the Military Police Reserve. He is also a member of the Southeastern Michigan Police Chiefs Association.

The City Ordinance creating the position outlines the new Director's duties as follows: He shall be Director of Public Safety and shall be the full and complete administrative officer of the Police and Fire Departments. He shall act under the direction of, report to, the City Administrator. The Council decided that the offices of Director of Public Safety and Police Chief should be consolidated. Mr. Bailey's appointment is to take effect on July 1, at a salary established by the Council at $6,500.00 per year.

Walter Goulette, who has served as Chief of Police for Grosse Pointe Woods since April 1940, was transferred to the newly created position of Chief of the Fire Department. Mr. Goulette started on the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Force in August of 1936, was appointed Chief of Police in April 1940 and was also appointed Chief of the Fire Department when those two departments were combined in November of 1943.

ORDER NEW SCOUT CARS

Purchase of four new police scout cars was approved by the Farms Council on June 18. The cars are being ordered from Holzbaugh Motor Sales Co., the low bidder, for a total cost of $1490 and the four old cars which are being traded in.

Fencing Law

that they should have the right to erect fences of any height they wished to afford them privacy, whether the neighbors liked it or not. Many believed that no fences over four feet high should be allowed any place in the city.

Some were of the opinion that the old ordinance was all right as it stands and that portions of the proposed new ordinance are going to be difficult to interpret. It was predicted the council is going to have a lot of headaches deciding individual cases.

Harold A. Beatty of Fine court, chided some of the more vociferous speakers for their attitude, which he described as insulting to the council. He pointed out that the council members, faced with a tough assignment, were giving their time without pay to serve the community, and he re-stated the fact that many appear to have the idea that the officials are trying to put something over on the residents.

To Continue Study

Mayor William Connolly and Attorney Long told the gathering that, all consideration would be given to their opinions. The study of the proposed ordinance will be continued and any changes made will be properly advertised for everyone to see. If it is felt advisable to hold another public hearing before the ordinance is finally adopted, this will be done.

To Award Prizes For Best Roses

On Friday afternoon, June 20, at 4 o'clock on the terrace of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, prizes will be awarded to the finest rose garden owners competing in the recent contest. The following people have listed their gardens for judging: Mrs. R. L. Spitzley, Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell, Mr. William G. Power, Mrs. Frank W. Hubbard, Mrs. Wood Williams, Mr. Clarence McGraw, Mr. Ralph Glahn, Mrs. Ben O. Shepherd, Mr. Frederick H. Curtis, Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, Also: Mrs. Charles H. Hodges, Miss Frances Booth, Mrs. Wm. H. Fries, Mr. Charles Ellis, Mr. Harold Gumpfer, Mrs. Richard Webster, Mrs. John Veech, Mrs. Russell Alger, War Memorial Gardens, and Mrs. Howard F. Smith. The Windmill Pointe mill stone will be presented to the Grosse Pointe Historical Society at the same time. The Grosse Pointe Garden Center and Memorial Gardens Committee are jointly sponsoring a tea on the terrace. It is useless to make good laws for bad people—good government must begin in the home.

Ideal Weather Enhances Beauty of Traditional Ceremony Held on Lawn; Richard Scales, Laura Lou Smith Win Top Honors

Grosse Pointe's version of the traditional American high school graduation exercises took place last Thursday evening, when 231 students received their diplomas at Grosse Pointe High School.

Commencement exercises in the country over can have had more beautiful settings. The weather was ideal—pleasantly cool and calm. The green of trees and shrubbery set off the beauty of the high school library portico, which served as a stage for the exercises. In their blue caps and gowns the young people made an inspiring impression as row upon row filed past some 2,000 spectators in the procession and recessional marches.

Student Production

As is the custom at Grosse Pointe High School the commencement program was a student production. The major addresses were given by three graduates, chosen by classmates and faculty as outstanding representatives of the class. Richard Scales talked on "Know Thyself," Laura Lou Smith on "Know Thy Neighbors" and Thomas Lister on "Know Thy God."

All three urged integrity, unselfishness, and spiritual dedication as the only desirable way of living.

Music for the occasion was provided by the Grosse Pointe High School Band and by the Girls' Glee Club. Frances Crowley sang a vocal solo. Invocation and benediction were offered by Reverend William J. Hammond, minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Bushong Awards Diplomas

Mr. Walter R. Cleminson, principal, presented the class to Mr. James W. Bushong, superintendent, who conferred the diplomas on behalf of the Board of Education. In brief remarks to the class, Superintendent Bushong pointed out that a high school education is only a "proper start" in the life-long process of learning.

A long list of honors and scholarships was announced by Mr. Cleminson. These included:

Mothers' Club Grants

In addition to the scholarships awarded by universities, Mr. Cleminson also announced the

Farms Police Report Submitted

The Farms Police Department answered a total of 211 calls during the month of May, according to the report of Chief Walter Hoyt. Total arrests included 40 adults and 22 juveniles.

Cash collections were $726, with $313 being collected for traffic violations, $159 for parking violations, $22 for traffic court cases and 22 for violations of the dog ordinance.

Three adults and one juvenile had their driver's licenses suspended. There were 28 traffic accidents which accounted for a total of $4,668 in damages and six injuries.

Two cases of breaking and entering were reported. There was no loss in either case and three arrests were made in connection with them. Seven cases of simple larceny were reported, with a loss of $175, of which $130 was recovered. One case of grand larceny accounted for a loss of $176.

Five bicycles were reported stolen, and six were recovered, one of them a hangover from April. Two cases of destruction of property involved damages of $155.

There were seven dog bites reported and 12 persons were reported missing, all being found. Eleven doors were found left open and six ambulance runs were made. Two fire calls were answered and total complaints numbered 150.

The department issued 131 driver's licenses and nine chauffeur's licenses during May.

winners of scholarship grants made by the Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School. Gifts of $300 each will be made for scholarship purposes to: Donna Albright, Nancy Blair, Susan Kuhl, Robert Messner, George Papich and Daniel Webb of the June Class and to Eugene Halbrook of the January Class. An award of $100 was also made to Gretta Cullers.

New Scholarship

Newest addition to the scholarships available to Grosse Pointe High School graduates was also announced. This is the Chet Sampson Scholarship established by Mr. Chet Sampson, member of the Board of Education. This scholarship consists of two installments of $500 each. The first winner of the award is Dan Webb.

Completing the scholarship lists were awards from the Rotary Club. Grants of $200 each went to Marilyn Lang, Myron Ranney and Jean Rydholm. Grants of $100 each went to five girls for the specific purpose of training to enter the field of nursing. These girls are Gloria Daniels, Doris Scrine, Elaine Stephen, Rita Stright and Audrey Rheume.

Receptions in both gymnasiums followed the commencement exercises. The Mothers' Club sponsored the receptions.

Visitor Facing Double Trouble

Grosse Pointe Park police released Carius Morgan, 19, 941 Navahoe, on a $50 bond, June 13, after picking him up for running a signal light earlier that same day, and set a court date for both him and his aunt, Jessie Godwin, 943 Navahoe.

Police discovered that Carius, recently from Georgia, had been driving with an operator's license. His aunt was charged with permitting him to do so.

Parking Meters Nearly Paid For

The Farms has the 100 parking meters which it installed along the Kercheval avenue business frontage in November of 1949, just about paid for. There is a balance left owing the Magee-Hale Park-O-Meter company of just $112.53.

The meters were purchased without down payment, at a cost of $61 each. Payment has been made by applying half of each monthly collection to the purchase price. The city keeps the other half and with the cleaning up of the small balance, it will be able to retain all of the collections.

Through May the Farms had taken in a total of $11,972.94 in nickels and pennies. It has paid the company half of this amount, or $5,986.47.

Community Club Boosts Program

The Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club announces that the summer professional staff has been expanded. The summer Day Camp schedule has been changed in order to improve the program.

The schedule will be as follows: Day Camp will be on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons from 1:30 - 4 p.m. This small group program will accommodate children 4-12 years old. The fee will be $1.00 for members for two weeks and for non-members $1.50.

Registrations are now open for both of these programs. It is advised that parents register their children, as parent signatures are needed on the cards. The Community Club program is open to all residents in the Grosse Pointe School District and is a service of the United Foundation.

Golfer Robbed Of Entire Gear

N. C. Linnwerth reported to Grosse Pointe City police that while his car had been parked in the driveway of his home at 821 Neff road, during the night, June 14, someone had broken into the trunk.

Linnwerth told the police that a golf bag, and set of clubs had been taken, along with a fishing rod and reel, and a suitcase packed with clothes. He said also that a shirt, pair of golf slacks, and golf shoes were missing.

Champine Serves Farms 25 Years

George Champine, sergeant in the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department, has retired after 25 years of service to his village and city. He was honored at a meeting of the Farms Council Monday night and presented with a sergeant's gold retirement badge.

Mayor William Connolly read a letter praising Champine's record and expressing the best wishes of all the council members.

George joined the force on June 10, 1927. He served for 13 years as a motorcycle policeman. He was elevated to the rank of sergeant about four years ago.

Asked about his plans for the future, George said he and Mrs. Champine are heading north in about two weeks. They will build a home on the shores of Saginaw Bay near Pinconning. "Then if it gets too cold, we'll simply get in the car and head for warmer places," George stated. He plans to rent his Kercheval avenue home.

The Champines have two children, Mrs. Shirley Ann Wahl of Lakepointe avenue, and Richard George, a law student at the Detroit College of Law.

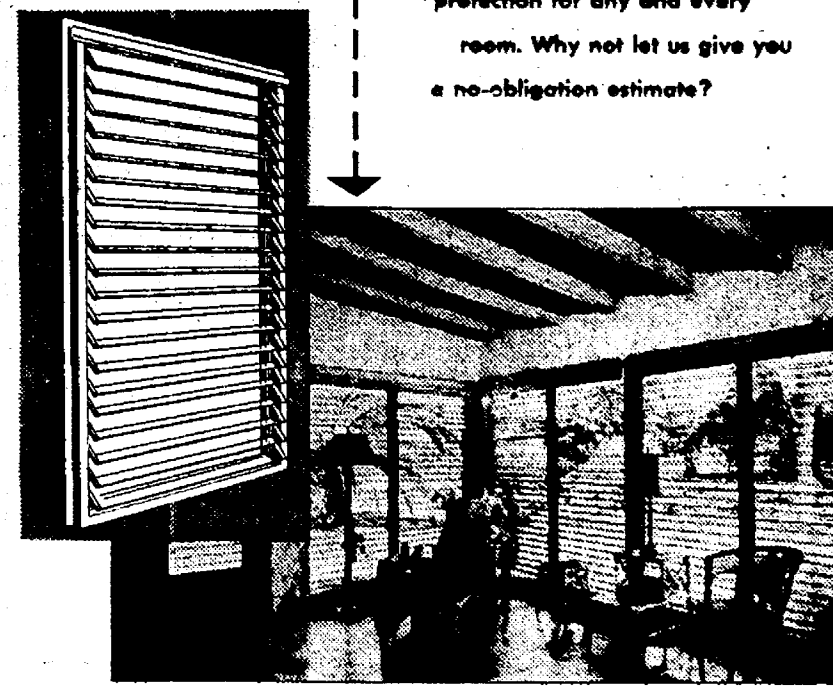

The trouble with blunt words is that they all have sharp edges.

Students Will See Country On Chet Sampson Caravans

One hundred of Grosse Pointe's high school age boys and girls are busy getting ready to "hit the road" this summer as members of Chet Sampson's Western caravans. Before their return for school this fall, they will cover 17,000 miles of the West, have seen half of the national parks of the country plus four of Canada's, and travelled through half of the states in the country, two of Canada's provinces, and a small portion of Mexico.

The girls will take 5 1/2 weeks for their trip which left on June 14, and takes in California and the Southwest. The boys' trip, leaving on July 26, requires five weeks and features the Canadian Rockies and Pacific Northwest.

Seven new station wagons will be put into service, and as usual sleeping bags will be used entirely, except for the three nights in Hollywood. Four special trailers carry clothes, special stoves, ice box, and cooking gear. This equipment makes the groups completely self-sufficient, and they are able to stop at any time and anywhere to prepare their meals and spend the night.

These two trips mark the eighty-second and eighty-third trips made in this fashion since the first one in the summer of 1939. About two thousand students from Grosse Pointe have participated in them.

The girls will first visit Boys' Town in Omaha, Nebraska, and then push on to Denver and Colorado Springs for their first look at the Rockies. Hiking around the Garden of the Gods will get the kinks out of their muscles before they travel on to the ancient Indian ruins at Mesa Verde. Here they will explore the homes of the Pueblo Indians, built one thousand years ago and still preserved in the cliffs of the region.

The Painted Desert and Petrified Forest are taken in on the way to the Grand Canyon where the more daring will hike down to the Colorado River, a grueling sixteen-mile hike. The others, most of whom will have cameras, will be content to photograph the "grandfather of all canyons" from the rim.

Ranking high in favor with Grosse Pointe youth are Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks in southern Utah. The most colorful canyons in the country, they require four days in order that the girls may take the many trails which lead throughout the parks.

A trip through Hoover Dam, a swim in Lake Mead, and visits to the fabulous hotels of Las Vegas precede the trip across the Mojave Desert into California.

Though short visits to all the beaches of Southern California will be made, the favorite is Laguna Beach, where stops are made before and after the visit in Tijuana, Mexico. The latter stop gives the Spanish students an opportunity to try out their high school Spanish in bargaining with the natives over souvenirs.

As usual, Hollywood will welcome the group in grand style, with visits to the movie studios and homes of the stars, and radio broadcasts. Some of the stars will be invited to the girls' hotel for dinner parties. Dale Robertson is the latest star to indicate he wishes to meet the girls. It is expected that the old stand-bys, Ronald Regan, Alan Ladd, Lore-ta Young, Jimmy Durante, Bob Stack, Jean Peters, Mitzi Gaynor, Debbie Reynolds and many others will again be meeting with the group.

After the hotel days in Hollywood, it will be back to sleeping bags and blue jeans in Yosemite National Park, where four days are required to see all the attractions of that park: hikes up to Half Dome and the falls, the giant redwoods, Glacier Point, and others.

San Francisco offers lunch at Fisherman's Wharf, a ride on the Cable Cars, shopping in Chinatown, and some first-hand experience with the well-known San Francisco fog.

After Reno and Lake Tahoe, the group will hasten to northern Nevada for the annual visit with Bing Crosby and his sons. This will be the fourth year for this trip highlight, and each year the visit has become more memorable.

Bing would like to take the girls hiking up into the mountains on his ranch this year. It is again expected that he will crown "Miss Sleeping Bag of 1952" around the campfire held each evening. This is the girl chosen as the outstanding girl of the trip. Last year, Nancy Ramsay was presented with the title and a beautiful beaver pelt by Bing. Said Bing in his invitation: "We shall look forward with pleasure to your arrival and to the little song-fest up on the bank of the creek. My little monsters always appreciate the visit of the charming young ladies who comprise the Grosse Pointe set. Give my very best to all the kids."

Next on the agenda is Salt Lake City with a swim in the Great Salt Lake. Yellowstone and the Grand Tetons follow Salt Lake. A popular activity in the Tetons is horseback riding, along with hikes up the mountains. The hot-water phenomena of Yellowstone and the beautiful falls compete with the bears in that park.

The return route is by way of the Black Hills, Mt. Rushmore, Wind Cave, and the Badlands. On their five-week tour beginning on July 26, the boys will repeat some of what the girls see: Bing's ranch, Reno, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone, the Tetons, Black Hills, and the Badlands. They will add northern California, the Pacific Northwest, and the Canadian Rockies. Important stops will be made at Mt. Lassen Volcanic National Park, Crater Lake, Mt. Ranier, the Oregon Coast, Grand Coulee Dam, and Glacier National Park.

Youngsters Begin Daily Bible Camp on June 23

On Monday morning, June 23, Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church opens its doors to accommodate the third annual session of the Daily Vacation Bible Camp, held each year for children of the community between the ages of 4 and 11.

Each day, from 9:30 to 12, and continuing for two weeks, crafts, games, nature walks, songs and stories, all woven about a central theme, "Learning to Be a Christian," will be presented by a trained staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Clarence Anderson, director.

Opportunity remains open for registration at the church's Education Bldg. until Sunday noon, June 22, or by calling TU. 2-8312. All interested boys and girls are invited to attend this summer project, irrespective of creed.

"Pops" Concerts Start June 18

Detroit will again have a full season of summer orchestra concerts. For the third consecutive year, the Pfeiffer Brewing Company and the Music Performance Trust Fund will co-sponsor the Detroit Symphony "Pops" Orchestra, according to Alfred Epstein, president of Pfeiffer's, and Eduard Werner, president of the Detroit Federation of Musicians. Pfeiffer's and the Music Performance Trust Fund will provide the public with 24 free evening concerts. Three concerts each week on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday will be played for eight weeks.

Mr. Epstein also announced a new location for the 1952 summer series. Symphony Pavilion and Gardens at Jefferson Beach on Lake St. Clair was named as the orchestra's new summer home. Symphony Pavilion and Gardens seats several thousand. Concert-goers can now enjoy fine music in the beach setting of the Gardens or under the roof of the Pavilion.

Starting with the first concert June 18, Mr. Valter Poole will conduct 24 two-hour concerts. Each concert will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will feature both classical and semi-classical works. Many prominent young Detroit soloists will be heard.

In co-sponsoring the summer series, Pfeiffer's co-operates with the Music Performance Trust Fund. This fund was established by all recording companies for advancing good music. The fund is administered here by the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

Symphony Pavilion and Gardens is easily reached by Lake Shore Line buses starting from Grand Circus Park. Free parking space is provided for thousands of cars. Boats can anchor off Jefferson Beach within listening distance of the orchestra.

Michigan's 929th Reserve Training Wing became the new 439th Fighter-Bomber Wing at Selfridge Air Force Base this week. This followed the announcement earlier that the flying training for civilian Reservists would begin this summer. This is part of a long range plan through which the Air Force expects to build up fully manned and trained Reserve Wings. Initially, conventional propeller driven aircraft will be used with jets and other advanced types coming later in the program.

Colonel Felix L. Vidal of Grosse Pointe, Commanding Officer of the 329th, continues as Commanding Officer of the newly designated 439th. This Wing, like the 329th, will train at Selfridge one weekend per month in addition to a two week active duty period set for August 10-24th.

With the flying program, new openings in almost all Air Force specialties will be available for both men and women. Men with prior service in any branch of the Armed Forces and women over 18 are eligible.

This program offers double pay for training weekends, promotions, and retirement benefits. Especially needed are fighter pilots who were not eligible for the old program that offered only ground training. The Personnel Officer of the 439th, in Building T-727 at Selfridge is available for further information on the new Wing and for questions concerning Reserve Status.

Welcome to New Teachers

Because of the growth of the Grosse Pointe community and the subsequent increased enrollment in the public schools, the Grosse Pointe School Board has made some 50 appointments to the different faculties.

These appointments have also been made because of the need to replace those teachers leaving the Public School system for reason of transfer or retirement.

By way of introduction to the parents of children who will attend or who are now attending the public schools, the NEWS is publishing weekly short biographies of those whose appointments have been confirmed. During the coming months until school reopens in the fall, the biographies of new teachers will appear in each issue.

ARTHUR S. BOLSTER, JR., will teach history at the Grosse Pointe High School with the beginning of the fall semester this year. Born in Bismarck, North Dakota, he attended the public schools of New Hampshire and received his A.B. from Dartmouth College.

He spent three and a half years as a naval officer, serving as senior officer in personnel matters. Since the war he has earned his M. A. at Harvard, where he is currently nearing completion of his Ph.D. in history.

TO GET CERTIFICATE

Paul Mabarak, 1258 Three Mile Drive will be among the 45 who will receive real estate certificates awarded by the University of Michigan Extension Service and School of Business Administration on June 19.

JEAN BRIERS, now living in Detroit, is a graduate of the public schools of Nova Scotia. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Education at Acadia, Nova Scotia and has had experience teaching in the English schools of Montreal, Canada, as well as Roseville, Michigan.

Beginning next fall she will teach the fifth grade at the Maire Elementary School.

Born in Tomahawk, Wisconsin, ERNEST BAUER, received his B.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1950. He was a member of the baseball team of that year that shared the Big 10 championship with the University of Michigan.

Following his graduation, he took graduate work at the university and taught school in Green Lake.

Mr. Bauer, a World War II veteran, will teach mathematics at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Born in Jamesville, Wisconsin, JOHN E. FOX was graduated from the public schools there, received his B. A. degree from Milton College, Wisconsin, and is currently doing graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

He served 32 months in the Army Signal Corps, the majority of time in the Southwest Pacific. During the past three years he has been teaching in the public schools of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. Beginning next fall he will teach English at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Heat Makes Lake Beaches Popular

Early season attendance records at the Farms pier were broken during the weekend when the heat wave drove the residents to the beach by the thousands.

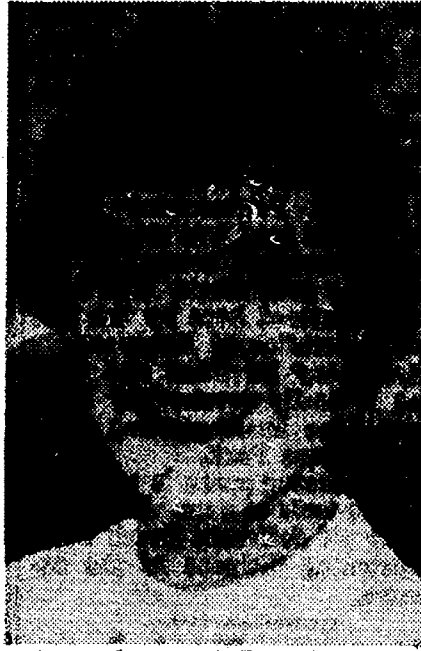

City Clerk Harry Furton said more than 9,000 used the municipally owned lakefront park on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Furton also stated that more boat mooring space has been made available and that the construction work on the pier is progressing very satisfactorily and should be completed within the next two weeks.

Beginning next fall WALTER J. ADAMS will teach the fifth grade at Maire Elementary School, according to a recent announcement by the Grosse Pointe School Board.

Mr. Adams is a graduate of Lansing (Mich.) public schools and received his B.A. degree from Alma College in Alma, Michigan. He is married and is now living in Lansing.

A graduate of Detroit public schools, JOYCE BOBIER is current receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State Normal College. She has recently received appointment to the faculty of Poupard Elementary School where she will teach kindergarten.

Miss Bobier, who has also attended Albion College, lives at 3796 Devonshire, Detroit.

SURE WAY TO GET VOTE The one sure way to get out a heavy vote in our presidential elections would be to tell the citizens they can't.

Duo From Texas Here for Debutante Parties

Joan Dryden returned from Colby Junior College Monday and brought with her a classmate Claire Smith who'll visit with Joan and her parents the John Rodger Drydens of Kercheval road for a couple of weeks.

Claire, whose home is in Amarillo, Tex., will join Joan at all the exciting debutante festivities. Joan, you'll remember, had planned to make her bow to society this season, but postponed it until a later date.

Also participating in the whirl of deb parties will be another Texan, Gretchen Wolfm who too, lives in Amarillo.

She is the houseguest of Cynthia Wheelock. The two girls are roommates at the University of Colorado.

F. B. McGregors Linger in South

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Barron McGregor, who were married June 11, at Christ Church, are enjoying a wedding trip in Charleston, S.C.

The bride, who is the former Suzanne Angela Cruikshank, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Cruikshank of Hawthorne road, wore an ivory tulle gown made with a fitted bodice and full skirt. The off-shoulder neckline was outlined in narrow Val lace.

Her maid of honor, Felice Thorpe, and the bridesmaids, Lois Moeller, Mrs. James Connelley and Mrs. Alan B. McGregor Jr., wore waltz length gowns in shades of blue, and carried pink carnations and white sweet peas.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Alan B. McGregor and the late Mr. McGregor of Merriweather road, asked his brother, Alan B. McGregor, Jr., to be his best man. Ushers included Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., John Wideman and Evert Johnson of Chicago, Ill.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cruikshank chose an opera length champagne colored organza gown trimmed with chantilly lace, and Mrs. McGregor wore a gown of navy lace.

FREAK ACCIDENT

Treated at Cottage Hospital last Sunday was 15-year-old William Schultz, of 2966 Lakewood. While diving into the water at the Farms pier he caught his ring on a ladder, breaking it and imbedding it in his finger.

LILLIAN HOGUE HONORED
Lillian G. Hogue of Yorkshire road was recently elected president of the Detroit Chapter of the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters.

FREE ENTERPRISE

Maybe the reason some folks lag behind in our free enterprise system is because they depend too much on the free part and not enough on their own enterprise.

Mary Mulford Tuesday Deb

A dozen ushers wore blond Mary Andrea Mulford's maroon carnations on their dinner jackets Tuesday evening when that young lady bowed at a buffet supper dance given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mulford in the Country Club.

The girl who bestowed the maroon boutonnieres was lovely to see in a Cecil Chapman dancing gown of white embroidered organdy over apple green taffeta.

She carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies with streamers of ivory as she met her guests in the club's French room with her parents.

Mrs. Mulford wore a striking frock combining a stark white strapless bodice with opera length swirling skirt of navy taffeta.

Before supper, cocktails were served on the club's terrace. Both on the terrace and in the great hall, small supper tables were arranged cabaret fashion to permit dancing.

Yellow cloths were used on the tables which had centerpieces of yellow and white daisies. Hurricane lamps held apple green tapers.

John Murphy was Mary Andrea's head usher and the other young men were Harry Bodman, Murray Sales, Tom Pierce, Robert Sherer, Nicky Ruwe, Dave Cudlip, Robert Kanzler, Richard P. Joy, III, James Standish, Stanley N. Muirhead, Jr., and Gari Symington.

The Mulford's and their daughter will leave soon after the Fourth of July to spend the Summer at their Roaring Fork ranch at Carbondale, Colo.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Ice cream mixture will taste less sweet after it is frozen in your hand-turned freezer, so add sugar accordingly.

TESTS, PROVE IT

Testing and constant use in Michigan State College household equipment laboratories have proved that plastic varnishes and sheet coverings will produce easy-to-keep surfaces that repel many stains or heat discolorations.

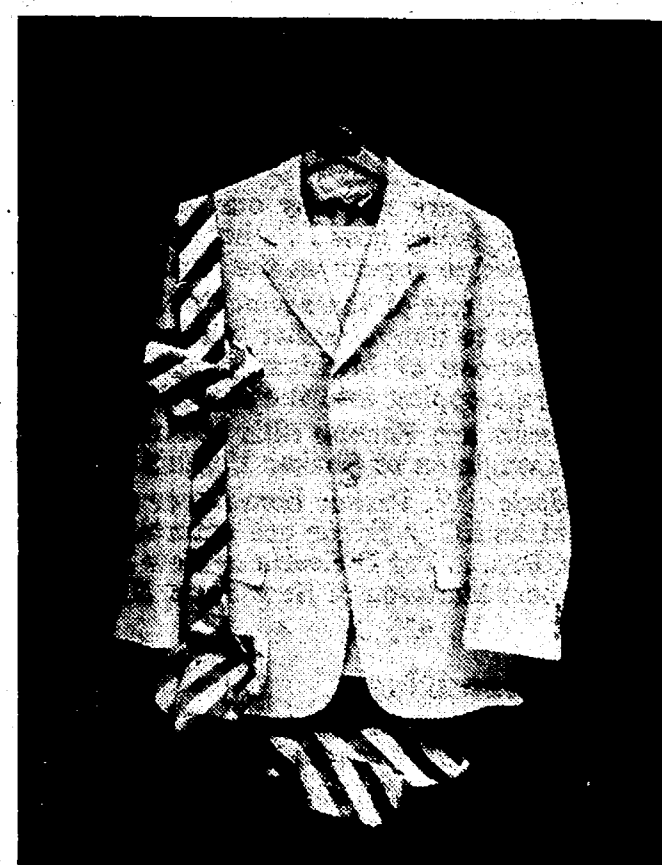

HOUSEHOLD HINT

In planning meals give attention to variety. Avoid all hot or all cold foods and try to include as many colors as possible. Do not repeat a food in the same meal—such as tomato soup and tomato salad.

Church Women Plan Fall Fair

The Woman's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church is planning to have a Country Fair, November 21, complete with a General Store, pantry shelf, gift shop, book shop, sweet shop, and many others.

A country supper will be served in the evening and there will be a snack bar at noon. The chairmen of the various booths will meet at the Grosse Pointe Farms pier on June 25 to discuss further summer plans.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

Notice all that added beauty around the Pointe this week-end?

Contributing to it are not only our own debs... stepping forth as young ladies now... but the bevy of houseguests they've caused to appear on the local scene...

Vicki Wehmeier, one of the seven Cotillion debs, had a scant second or two to unpucker her fair brow (she worked all yesterday afternoon at Michigan State College on her final exam) before stepping into the receiving line...

Her houseguests are Phoebe Ellis of Arlington, Ill... and Mary Elva Congleton of Shaker Heights...

At the Frederick W. Parker home over on Washington road, debs Alden and Gay Edgar are entertaining Ann Bissell of Scranton, Pa... Pat O'Keefe of New Rochelle, N. Y... and also Robert Matteson of New Paltz, N. Y., is a guest.

Out of Town Beauties

Mary Andrea Mulford has her Bennett College roommate... Polly Priest of Southborough, Mass., visiting her...

And Mary Carey is entertaining Ann Gardner of Marblehead, Mass... Jan Lepard of Ann Arbor... and Nelson Lee of Woodstock, Vt...

Sally Martz settled for a young man from the Chicago stagline... Harry Pillman, who's houseguest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martz of Chalfonte drive...

Nancy Ruedemann, who was presented to Cleveland society last winter by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Ruedemann, they formerly made their home there, has Amy Rhodes of Darien, Conn., and Mary Van Winkel of Chicago visiting at her house...

More Houseguests

Sally Jean Fageol, daughter of the John C. Culbertsons, is entertaining her Bennett College roommate Lucy Battel of Buffalo as well as Ann Kellerman of the same city...

And Dorothy Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilford Wood, is hostess to her roommate at Colby Junior College: Nancy Lee Carter of Boston...

We are well aware, as we've been jotting here, that we've let the young men visitors in for a bit of joshing... including them as beauties...

But we understand they can take it...

And Still More Fun

The Pointe debs have been invited for a pot luck luncheon by Dorothy Woods... Tuesday... and all their out-of-town guests have been asked, too...

We couldn't find any baby Escottiers in the group... all (Continued on Page 9)

Short and to the Pointe

A favorite sub deb of ours requests that we put right here at the top of Short and to the Pointe that the way to reach Grosse Pointe Hunt Club and the Horse Show (it starts today and lasts through Sunday) is to take Mack avenue to Cook road, turn left until you come to all the wonderful parking space they've provided.

Today, Thursday, is Junior Day and at 9 o'clock youngsters from all over the country, leading riders, started to show their horses in a performance which will run through until evening.

Other days the show goes on at 1 p.m., rain or shine. The show is open to the public and extra grandstands will give every visitor a good view of the thrilling proceedings.

The BERT H. WICKINGS had a non-stop week-end, most important point of which was their Saturday journey to Ann Arbor where they saw their daughter, BUFFY, graduated from the University of Michigan.

Traditional to the Pointe in June are the summer parties when yesterday's "little girls" emerge as charming young women. The Misses Edgar, Fageol, Martz, Ruedemann, Wehmeier and Wood were honored together at a Cotillion in the Detroit Boat Club. Miss Meader was presented at an afternoon tea and Miss Mulford's coming out party took place Tuesday evening at the Country Club.

Boat Club Cotillion Presents Seven Debs

Inasmuch as this newspaper goes to press early Wednesday morning, we're just taking for granted that the gods provided a June moon for the seven debutantes who bowed at a Cotillion in the Detroit Boat Club that evening.

It was the first such deb presentation in almost two decades of Detroit society (the thirties saw the debut of six Grosse Pointe girls at the Country Club, some will recall).

The June moon should have shimmered silverly over the Detroit River and sent gentle beams to shine in the eyes of the seven young lovelies dressed in their bal gowns of gossamer pink or white.

The debs were Alden and Gay Edgar, daughters of Mrs. Frederick W. Parker Jr. and Robert B. Edgar; Sally Jane Fageol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Culbertson; Sally Martz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wood; Nancy Ruedemann, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Ruedemann; Vicki Wehmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehmeier and Dorothy Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilford Wood.

The girls alone formed the receiving line in the north windows of the Boat Club ballroom and late in the evening joined their guests to dance to the tunes of two orchestras. Still later, breakfast was served at small tables arranged in the club dining rooms. The parents of the debs planned it as a delightfully informal evening, the guest list being restricted to contemporaries of their daughters.

Each deb carried a small colonial bouquet of shattered white carnations centered with blossoms to complement or contrast her gown.

Alden Edgar was in white silk net, the great bouffant skirt falling floor length. Tiniest rhinestones and sequins were embroidered on her strapless bodice and scattered all over the great skirt. Deep red sweetheart roses were in the center of her bouquet.

Gay Edgar had single blue larkspurs wired to perkiness in the center of her bouquet and wore a gown of pink silk net, its bouffant skirt attached to slim bodice embroidered in pearls and rhinestones.

Sally Jean Fageol made her debut in a Bendel gown of white lace frothing with crisp paniers of white taffeta, the skirt billowed over layers of net, taffeta and crinoline. Palest pink sweetheart roses centered her bouquet.

Sally Martz's bal gown of silk net was shaded in a fascinating orchid pink. Its strapless bodice was a dreamy affair of crushed net shadowed by stiffened points of material and the floating skirt was a pouf of ruching. Rubrum lilies were combined with her white carnations.

Nancy Ruedemann wore a full and classic skirted debut gown of white nylon net with tiniest iridescent sequins worked in pattern on the bodice. Tight yellow rose buds were tucked in her bouquet.

Vicki Wehmeier was in shell pink net over taffeta, the bodice and peplum effect encrusted in shell pink sequins and bugle beads. Yards and yards of net formed the floor-length skirt and shell pink sweetheart rose buds was combined with the carnations she carried.

Dorothy Wood's strapless dusty pink silk net over taffeta gown, had a wisp of a stole snapped around her bronzed shoulders. Detail of tucked net formed contour bodice and the skirt swirled full to the floor. Dusty pink rose buds were used in her colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Parker chose for the evening pink Chantilly lace, waltz length, with a tiny bolero worn over the strapless bodice. Mrs. Culbertson was in a strapless Delft blue net gown with matching stole edged in Delft blue ostrich feathers. She pinned palest lavender orchids to her bodice.

Mrs. Martz's full skirted green and white silk crepe gown was designed with floor length skirt and simple, fitted bodice. Raspberry chiffon was chosen by Mrs. Ruedemann and Mrs. Wehmeier wore green orchids with her pansy petal (a particularly divine shade of purple) silk chiffon gown which had crystal and pearl embroidery on the bodice. Mrs. Wood's royal blue Chantilly lace evening gown was full skirted and distinguished by sweetheart neckline and briefest of cap sleeves. Her flowers were white orchids.

Gay red carnations on their lapels marked the debutantes' ushers. They were Danny Burke, Warren Babcock, Joseph Maycock, Butch Edgar, John Rice, Guthrie David, Richard Kuhn, Tom Hammond, Don Beaumont, Myron May, Ted Sedwick Jr., Albert and Paul Ruedemann, Dick Sutherland and Bob Sherer Jr.

Two Skillman Girls Wed on Same Day

Beverlie Skillman Speaks Vows With Lt. John D. Lyles, Jr., At Ceremony in Germany; Janice Skillman Weds Roland J. Rinke at Services in the Pointe

The Philip J. Skillmans of Fisher road had two family weddings to think about Saturday but were only able to attend one and send a cable of congratulations before the other which took place in Weisbaden, Germany.

Their daughter, Beverlie, was married in the historic old German town to Lt. John David Lyles, Jr., of Shreveport, who is with the United States government in Mainz.

And their other daughter, Janice, almost simultaneously, was exchanging her nuptial vows with Roland John Rinke right here at St. Paul's Church.

However all the members of the Skillman family are hoping to meet at a grand reunion in July when both couples return from their wedding trips.

The newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Rinke are motoring through the Smokies to Ft. Lauderdale for three weeks.

For her wedding Janice chose a bouffant white Mouseline de Lane gown fashioned with cap sleeves, an off-the-shoulder neckline hand applied with tiny rose pointe lace motifs and pearls, and bouffant white skirt which fell into a cathedral train.

Her crown of heirloom rose pointe lace secured a three tiered formal length veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with an orchid.

Marilyn Doyle was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Dolores Baker, Mrs. Philip N. Skillman; Doris and Ann Rinke, sisters of the bridegroom.

The attendants were gowned in matching white lace fashioned with cap sleeves and off-the-shoulder necklines. They carried natural straw baskets filled with pale yellow daisies and ivy.

Roger Rinke was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Rinke of Sunningdale drive.

Seating the guests were John Buechel, Phillip N. Skillman, brother of the bride; Richard and Joseph Rinke, brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Skillman wore a navy blue organza waltz length gown with a front panel of white accordion pleats.

Mrs. Rinke wore a gown of delft blue silk. Mr. and Mrs. Skillman entered the wedding party at a breakfast at the Detroit Yacht Club. In the evening the wedding reception took place in the Whittier.

Beverlie's wedding to Lt. John D. Lyles Jr., son of Mrs. Henrietta Lyles of Shreveport, La., and the late John D. Lyles, took place in the American Air Force chapel at Weisbaden.

For the nuptial high-mass the bride wore an ice-blue waltz-length gown of Alencon lace and nylon tulle.

Her attendants were gowned in light blue organdy appliqued with small white daisies which carried out the daisy motif in their bouquets and headresses.

They were Mrs. Edward Sacks of Chevy Chase, Md., who was matron of honor; and bridesmaids Mrs. Charles Lehner of Philadelphia and Catherine Geis of Seattle, Wash.

Lt. Paul Whelan of Shreveport was the best man. Seating guests were Lt. Robert LaCaff of Phoenix, Ariz., Lt. John Bellinger of Washington; Lt. Lehner and Lt. Sacks.

After the reception at the Officers' Club at Mainz-Gonsenheim the couple left for Berchtesgaden and Vienna.

Beth Keegin Lovely Bride

Beth Keegin was the portrait of a lovely June bride in her frost white gown of French silk net, Wednesday, when she exchanged her nuptial vows with Charles T. Fisher III in St. Paul's Church, Grosse Pointe.

The regal gown of the willow bride was fashioned with a fitted bodice and round neckline trimmed with pearls. Her billowing Empress skirt swept into a court train. A halo of Alencon lace held the veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of stephanotis, ivy and orchids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Keegin of the Rivard Blvd. The bridegroom is the son of the Charles T. Fishers Jr.

Ann Stringer was the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Elizabeth and Jane Fisher, the bridegroom's sisters; Molly Moll, Jean Howerstein, Mary Macauley, Peggy Hughes, Mary Stuart Macdonald, Anne O'Brien and Sally Rush of New York. Sally Fisher was junior bridesmaid.

They wore gowns of illusion pink mousseline de sole with godet sleeves, fitted bodices and square necklines. Their full waltz length skirts were embroidered with white French flowers. They carried bouquets of French roses.

Fred Fisher was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Walter Fisher, another brother; William D. Robinson Jr., Walter Robinson, Harry Hagerty, David Jansen, Bill Jansen, Warwick Keegin, Fred LaFerte, and Paul Murphy of Newfoundland.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Keegin chose a gown of champagne silk chiffon and matching hat with soft green maline veil.

Mrs. Fisher was dressed in a pastel gray matelasse linen suit with short fitted jacket and small matching sailor with flower trim.

After the reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left for a plane trip to Bermuda.

The bride chose for her trip a gray blue tailored suit, a white hat and veil, and blue accessories. When they return from Bermuda the newly weds will make their home in Cambridge, Mass., where the bridegroom plans to complete his final year at the Harvard Business School.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Banach of Notre Dame avenue announce the betrothal of their daughter, MARY CATHERINE, to William G. Lemke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Lemke of Menominee, Mich.

Mary Carey Is Presented

At a dinner for 125 members of the young set, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Carey introduced their daughter, Mary, to society on Wednesday.

The Careys and their debutante received the guests in the living room of their home, the guests drifting into the sunken library for cocktails and punch and later retiring to the gardens for dinner.

Dark and sparkling Mary wore a diaphanous gown of white organza net with voluminous floor length skirt Rhinestone centered white pique flowers outlined the top of the strapless bodice and a stole of net was worn around Mary's shoulder.

Mary carried her father's gift of American Beauty roses, centered with a smaller corsage of the blossoms which she pinned to her gown when she later in the evening attended the cotillion of the seven debuts at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mrs. Carey's blond good looks were complemented by a waltz length gown of champagne lace worn over blush taffeta. The strapless bodice was covered by an "Eisenhower" jacket of lace.

The dinner tables were set with vari-colored pastel cloths and centered with crystal stars holding contrasting topped tapers. Dinner was served buffet fashion.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Carey at the debut were their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Healy of Flint, Mich.

Matrimony is an institution of learning in which a man loses his Bachelor's degree and his wife acquires a Master's.

Patricia Burns Missouri Bride

Patricia Burns exchanged vows with Harvey K. Glor in St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Clayton, Mo., on June 10. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Burns of Chicago and formerly of Grosse Pointe, and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kenyon Glor, of Lakewood, Ohio, had both graduated from the Principia College in Elmhurst, Ill., earlier the same day.

The bride's attendants included Miss Jacquelyn Coo of Rochester, N.Y., Miss Nancy MacDonald of St. Louis, Mo., Miss Jo Anne Pries of Victoria, Texas, and Miss Stephanie McCandless of St. Louis, the bridegroom's cousin, and Miss Chris Kelly of Easthampton, Long Island, was maid of honor. The best man, Paul Catalano, of Hollis, Long Island, and the ushers, including the bridegroom's brother, William Glor, William Snyder of Memphis, Tenn., Geoffrey Drummond of Washington, D.C., and Jon Jostyn of Manhasset, Long Island, constituted the bridegroom's attendants.

The bride wore chantilly lace which cascaded down to two deep rows of pleated net. The lily-of-the-valley in her bouquet was repeated in the halo head-dress. The bridesmaids, in white organza gowns, embroidered with rose buds over pink taffeta, carried white lace fans with roses and ivy. The bride's mother wore a turquoise ballerina-length organza dress. Both mothers wore corsages of roses.

The reception took place in the formal garden beside the colonial church. For her going-away costume, the bride wore a taupe shantung sheath dress, covered by a swath tangerine jacket. The couple will spend the summer motoring through the East.

Sally Meader Bows at Tea

Sally Ann Meader, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rankin Weisgerber, made her bow to society Friday afternoon, at a tea given in the Lincoln road home of her parents.

She wore a white opera length organza gown made with a portrait neckline, and a flowered belt presented by her father, was of yellow daisies, roses and stephanotis.

Her assistants were Molly Kerr, Cynthia Keydel, Betsy Ann Stevens, Jane Ottaway, Alden Edgar and Cynthia Wheelock.

For her daughter's debut, Mrs. Weisgerber chose a white linen strapless dress with a bolero jacket. The skirt was banded in white lace over yellow satin ribbon.

Little Theater Group Of AWYS Plans Party

The Little Theater Group of the American Women's Voluntary Services (Detroit Metropolitan Unit) are sponsoring a Twilight Dinner Party at the Detroit Yacht Club, Friday evening June 20 at 6 o'clock for the benefit of their Servicemen's Fund and to enable them to carry on their various projects.

Mrs. Jules Schneider is chairman of the Little Theater Group and also chairman of this dinner party. Mrs. E. Wilson Wardell, is co-chairman of both.

Welcome Wagon Hostesses Guests of Mrs. Kennedy

Mrs. Leland Kennedy, the Welcome Wagon supervisor for the Detroit area, entertained the Welcome Wagon hostesses and members of the Welcome Wagon newcomers Club at her home, 895 Lakepointe, on Friday afternoon, June 13.

A delicious dessert was served and bridge was played. Plans are being made for a pot-luck dinner to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. McCauley, Guilford Street on Saturday, July 19. Interested persons call TU. 5-5714 or TU. 4-1528.

MORE HUB CAPS STOLEN

Arthur F. Deizer, Jr., of 1311 Devonshire, reported to Grosse Pointe Farms police that while his car, a 1949 Chevrolet, had been parked on Mack avenue, between Maison and Allard, during the night of June 14, someone had stolen both hub caps from the front wheels of the car.

KID BITS

Last week was one of the graduating seniors will never forget because of the many parties given in their honor, the last days at Ole' G. P. H. S., and last but not least, commencement.

ANN MEADER debut, the Colony Town Club Fair, Detroit University's School Carnival and even the Artist's Market (though it was accompanied by the big wind) has set a pace for future hostesses who have been lulled into complacency by our omnipotent sunshine.

So MRS. ROBERT W. SIN-CLAIR decided, since the weather,
despite gloomy forebodings, has been consistently on the warm and sunny side, she too would hold her next get-together in the gardens of her home in Vendome road.

She and MR. SINCLAIR will be hosts Saturday at a large cocktail party which will serve the double purpose of just the delight of getting together with good friends, and a "house-warming" for their new garden.

They moved into their home early this year and in the spring planted the garden. Now they are enjoying the fruits of their labor in the form of dozens upon dozens of blossoming roses.

MR. and MRS. CARROLL M.
BOUTELL will be hosts June 28 at a farewell dinner party in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club honoring the LOUIS F. WEYANDS who are leaving next month to make their new home in St.
Paul, Minn.

MRS. CARSTEN TIEDEMAN, who has been vacationing at Sea
Island, stopped in Northampton on her way back to the Pointe to say hello to daughter SALLY and Sally's husband JOHN DUNN
DAVIES, and most especially to greet a new granddaughter.

Later this summer Mrs. Tiedeman will have as her house-guests in her Kenwood road home, the Davies family. Undoubtedly she's already shopping for some new rattles.

WALTER R. CAVANAUGH of Grosse Pointe Woods was one of six hundred nationally prominent life insurance leaders attending the Million Dollar Round Table of the National Association of Life Underwriters being held June 13-17 at the Mt. Washington Hotel, Bretton Woods, N. H.

KEITH PATTERSON ROWAN, formerly a student at Grosse Pointe High school, last week was graduated from the Princeton High School, Princeton, N.J.
Editor of the school's yearbook, holder of its honor key, and leader in the institution's extensive dramatic activities, Rowan was named the "most versatile" member of a graduating class of 225 students. He will register in September as a freshman at Cornell University. Rowan is the son of MR. and MRS. JAMES A.

ROWAN, of Rosedale road,
Princeton, N.J., formerly of Cad-ieux road, Grosse Pointe.

MR. and MRS. BEN J. MCIN-TOSH motored east last week and are now on Long Island vacationing. They are expected to return to their Grayton road home next week.

Combining education with travel, MISS BETTINA WALLIS, daughter of MR. and MRS. F. G.
WALLIS, of St. Clair avenue, is one of a group of 12 Stephens
College students who will tour
Europe this summer.

The group will sail from New York June 12 on the Vulcania and points of interest will include Lisbon, Naples, Capri and Rome during the month of June. In July the students will visit Florence, Venice and Lucerne. The tour, principally concerned with the study of art, will visit Paris, Nice and Genoa in August, and return to New York City on the Saturday August 23. The tour is a college-sponsored trip.

Miss Ann Couls was graduated from Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Michigan, on June 14 with a Bachelor of Science degree. She majored in Early Elementary Education and Mixed Arts.

She is the daughter of MR. and MRS. GEORGE W. COULS, and graduated from Grosse Pointe
High School in the class of June, 1948. Miss Couls has accepted a position teaching at the Fitzgerald School System in Van Dyke, Michigan beginning in September, 1952.

MRS. JOHN NOYES FAILING,
JR., of Three Mile drive, and MRS. FRANK EDDY STANDISH of Moross road, have returned to their homes after attending their class reunion at Goucher College, Baltimore, Md. This year was the first time since the college began its move from the city to the country campus that all the reunion events were held on the Towson campus.

KATHLEEN MCCARTHY and BARBARA J. GYGAX will be among the 300 persons from Michigan and other Midwestern states who will attend the Fred Waring Choral workshop to be held at Michigan State College July 21-25. The workshop will be directed by Mr. Waring with the help of a member of his famous Pennsylvanians.

ROBERT P. KUNDINGER, son of
MR. and MRS. ELMER
KUNDINGER, of Devonshire road, received an L.L.B. degree in the June graduating class at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla. A graduate of Grosse Pointe high school, Kundinger is a member of the Student Bar Association, at the university.

RICHARD W. KING, son of MR. and MRS. W. S. KING, of Hawthorne road, received a B.B.A. degree in the June graduating class at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla. A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, King majored in marketing at the university. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

MRS. ERVIN SORGE and her daughter, HARRIET, of Neff road have returned from a cruise to the West Indies and Bermuda.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT A.
JENKINS of McKinley avenue announce the birth of a son,
THOMAS ANDERSON JEN-KINS, on June 11. Mrs. Jenkins is the former PATRICIA DAY.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD ED-WARDS of Kerby road announce the arrival of a son, DAVID LYNN, on June 16. Mrs. Edwards was the former JOYCE SCHUMANN.

A. C. ADAMS, of Los Angeles,
California, is visiting for a few weeks with his daughter and son-in-law MR. and MRS. FRITZ
NESS, of Lochmoor boulevard.

MRS. PHELPS NEWBERRY
will be the houseguest of MRS.
WESSON SEYBURN for the next couple of weeks while her new home in Cloverly road is being completed.

GAY BUHL received a very nice graduation gift from her parents the ARTHUR H. BUHL, JR., of Provencal road—a trip to the Pacific Islands.

Victim of a Paradox

The Pointe has been the victim of a great paradox, this spring . . . too much water and too little water. Too much water in the lake . . . too little water in our mains. The dry spell has greatly reduced the threat of floods, but it has also greatly increased the use of water and demonstrated that our present public water system is far from adequate.

The fear of flooded basements has largely been replaced by the fear that the anticipated shower bath is going to be but a tantalizing trickle, or the sure knowledge that if the garden hose is running there won't be enough water to operate the sanitary facilities.

Owners of electric garbage disposers have been acutely aware of the water shortage. These handy gadgets are so rigged that they require considerable water pressure to make them function. When the pressure is lacking (and that seems to be most of the time these days), the kitchen labor saver remains as silent as the tomb and as functionless as the old potato peels which pile up in them.

Many a housewife has been so plagued with the problem as to have to wait until the late hours of the night, when most sprinklers have been turned off and the pressure is again somewhere near normal, before she can clear out the accumulated garbage of the day.

We had a small talk with Murray Smith, City Engineer of Grosse Pointe Farms, which municipality pumps a great portion of the water consumed in the Pointe area. The trouble is not, according to him, that the pumping system has been outgrown by the tremendous increase in population and building. This has had something to do with it, of course. But the pumping system is perfectly adequate for years to come, Mr. Smith says.

The hitch lies in the fact that many of the water mains are too small for the number of houses they are now serving. By increasing the pumping pressure, some of the difficulty has been overcome, but it has been far from a solution to the problem. Bigger water mains are the only thing which will wholly remedy the exasperating situation.

Large mains such as those installed in Detroit, have such a great potential pressure stored up in them that even the turning on of a fire hydrant fails to produce much change in the pressure. Some of the mains in the Pointe are six inches, some others eight. When a hydrant is turned on here, these small mains feel the effect immediately and the pressure may drop 30 pounds or so instantly.

The replacement of the small mains by ones of adequate size is a project that should be undertaken without delay. With the continued building of more and more residences, business places and public buildings, the lack of sufficient pressure is going to be felt more and more acutely. The Woods, which gets its water from Detroit, has already passed an ordinance requiring that all future homes be equipped with garbage disposers. Other local municipalities have been considering the adoption of similar ordinances for some time.

The Woods has already been asked to cut down on the use of water. The Pointes served by the Farms pumping station have had no such requests. There is plenty of water . . . it is just delivered too slowly to do much good or provide much pleasure.

An Interesting Spectacle

The Farms council meeting provided an interesting spectacle Monday night. The steaming council chamber was packed to the rafters with residents who had come to argue over a proposed adoption of a new fencing ordinance.

Some of the arguments were long . . . some fairly short and concise. There were many speakers and almost without exception, each followed up his or her little personal argument with the hearty assurance that the prime interest at heart was the good of the community as a whole.

This went on for two hours, and when it appeared that the opinions of those gathered were about exhausted, Mayor William Connolly called attention to the fact that the council still had several hours of very important city business to transact before an adjournment could be called. The residents were assured that any proposed changes made in the fence ordinance under study would be properly advertised and they would be given another chance to speak before the new law was passed.

City Clerk Harry Furton announced that anyone wishing to stay for the rest of the meeting would be more than welcome.

Then the interesting thing occurred. Each and every one of the 100 or more persons who had come to speak his piece and air his own personal problems, filed out of the council chamber as fast as water runs through a sieve. The great interest in the community as a whole, which had been so freely bandied about, was glaringly absent when it came to the other important business which the council had on the agenda. No one was the slightest bit concerned in these other affairs, which directly or indirectly affected each and every one of them as residents and taxpayers of the municipality.

A. PRYOR

"It is morning, Senlin says, and in the morning
When the light drips through the shutters like the dew,
I arise, I face the sunrise,
And do the things my fathers learned to do.
Stars in the purple dusk above the rooftops
Pale in a saffron mist and seem to die,
And I myself on a swiftly tilting planet
Stand before a glass and tie my tie."
(Conrad Aiken)

A local woman asked us last week why we wrote only about the people who are wearing TAFT buttons! Well, it isn't because we don't KNOW any other people; (we are so fancy, we even know someone who is wearing a Truman button!) Anyhow, this here now lady, left town recently for a vacation . . . and wished us to announce that she was wearing an "I Like Ike" button. As a matter of fact, we saw our heroine at a small gathering just before she took the train. She was wearing a navy blue suit, red hat, red bag and shoes and a white orchid. Tiny clocks on her stockings also spelled out "I Like Ike." The patriotic color scheme was a nice background for the IKE "pancake" . . . but what she didn't know at the time . . . was that one of the guests clipped a TAFT button on the back of her jacket! Tee-hee.

Since our Editor will not permit us to write a political column, we will sneak a few opinions in this one, from time to time. Opinion number one: After having heard the "rumor" that Truman might allow himself to be drafted to run again, we can only conclude that he has a one "trek" mind.

Opinion two: It wouldn't surprise us one teeny-weeny bit to find General MacArthur nominated as Taft's running mate. In fact we'll bet a quarter on it . . . if we can find a bookie that's still open.

Here is an encouraging tidbit for you struggling golfers. Fourteen year old Ann Mayo Hartzell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hartzell, got a hole in one on the Country Club golf course recently! Better give up the "uke" Annie, and stick to the golf club!

You little homemakers who enjoy springing new delicacies on your family and guests, will envy THIS one. Last year at a get-together dinner at the Explorers' Club, each guest was served a small thin slice of meat en-craqueur, along with his cocktail. The meat turned out to be a piece of "Giant Sloth" . . . some 225,000 years old . . . that had been found frozen in an Alaskan Glacier! Now we've heard everything. We shuddered at the local gent who served muskrat stew to his guests and fainted when we saw rattlesnake meat on the canape tray of one of our top hostesses . . . but this beats 'em all.

In case you don't know what a giant Sloth is . . . it has two to us . . . and is recognized in cross word puzzles as an AL. As far as we are concerned, that's where it belongs. In puzzles . . . not part of the gastronomical booby trap called "aw-derves." Baahhh.

A friend of ours, (female), who is a doctor, has a small daughter who believes in saying what she thinks. The child was practicing piano one afternoon, preparatory to appearing at a small recital in school. Her mother, who fancies herself quite a pianist, listened to a few passages, then suggested that the youngster listen to HER play them, to get the idea.

Little Miss dutifully listened for some minutes, then said, "Mother . . . you're lucky you're a doctor." Pleased as all get out, Doctor Ma asked why . . . to which the child replied, "Because you're a terrible piano player!"

Skulking around our back yard one evening last week, were three man-sized boys who were in the process of a treasure hunt. One carried a piece of blue paper bearing a clue written in poetry form. We can't recall the poem but it had to do with felines and the last line was something about a place where a feline would hate to end up.

We asked why they thought a cat would hate to find itself in OUR backyard, since Ruffy and Mr. Dickens are two of the happiest cats we know. (Have you ever seen a "happy" cat?) Well anyway, we suggested they take a gander at Roland Gray's Sport Shop . . . where tennis rackets complete with cat gut are very much in evidence! We hope they found what they were looking for.

A local woman who has a telephone system in her house connecting her bedroom with the kitchen, told us the following. One Morning recently, at about 8:30, she buzzed the kitchen and when the cook answered, she asked what exotic fruits were in the larder for her breakfast. There was a moment of silence . . . then the cook asked, "Who is this?" Our heroine allowed as how she couldn't imagine who ELSE it would be other than her ladyship herself calling for breakfast from her bedroom at that hour. Cooky explained that she didn't recognize Madame's voice!

In our midst next week, will be the lovely Jessica Dragonette, who is coming to Detroit to appear at a benefit recital at the DAC. The occasion is for the benefit of the Vincentian Missions. The card party will start at 2 and will be followed by Miss Dragonette's recital. Refreshments will also be served. How about going?

there's more to cleaning a rug than just washing its face

Rug cleaning is no job for an amateur. A knowledge of every type of rug construction is needed, and how to remove deeply imbedded dirt.

Rugs must be cleaned scientifically ALL THE WAY THROUGH if all the dirt is to be removed—they need gentle handling if you are to get maximum life out of them—they must be dried under perfect temperature control to protect their threads.

Only a rug that has been PROFESSIONALLY cleaned can keep that "like-new" appearance and springy texture month after month. And bright, cheerful, new looking rugs will add freshness and beauty to your home.

Seek More Funds To Aid Symphony

Headed by Jerome H. Remick, Jr., 35 of Detroit's top business executives are launching a campaign to add new corporate money to the Detroit Symphony's Maintenance Fund.

Whereas the current campaign for funds being conducted by the Women's Association for the orchestra is aimed at broadening the base of support on an individual basis, the Men's Division is primarily interested in adding to the list of large business and industrial firms who supply the major portion of money needed to operate a project as extensive as the Detroit Symphony.

The orchestra was reorganized only a year ago under the leadership of John B. Ford, Jr., who applied the principles of the Detroit Plan of broad community participation to the Symphony problem.

The gradual disappearance of great private philanthropy, and the acceptance by industry of their role as supporters of cultural and social enterprises, made possible the construction of the Detroit Symphony under the most favorable of financial conditions—a 3-year guarantee of funds to support the orchestra.

Now, with a year of unprecedented accomplishments behind the orchestra, the industrial leaders concerned with the campaign are seeking to raise new funds to assure the continuing growth and development of the Symphony.

At the outset of the Men's Campaign, Mr. Remick stated, "We feel confident that the general support displayed by the community at large will prove a heartening influence to business, industry, and labor unions who feel that financing the orchestra is a worthy community service.

The response from the community at large to the Women's Campaign has proven the people of Detroit want their orchestra. Their primary purpose now is to provide Detroit with an orchestra as great as any in the nation. Such an orchestra must have the support of all business organizations in the city.

Youth on Probation Admits Attempts to "Roll Drunks"

Grosse Pointe Park police officers Thomas Martin and William Grandall arrested 17-year-old David Balkema, 1527 Alter road, Detroit, and Norris Ouellette, 1115 Nottingham, Saturday night, June 15, on a strong-arming charge. Questioning by Sgt. Stanley Anders and Patrolman Donald Dean of the Park Detective Bureau revealed that both boys had been drinking with friends earlier and had later decided to "roll drunks for some extra money."

The first attempt failed. The second, which also failed, was reported to the police, and the boys were identified after being picked up.

Investigation showed, however, that Ouellette, who had been involved in an auto theft late in March of this year, was innocent of the charge, and he was subsequently released.

Balkema, who had previously been involved in auto thefts and a strong-arming on March 5, and subsequently placed on probation, gave a formal statement at the Wayne County Prosecutor's office, admitting to the charge and violating probationary terms. Disposition of his case is pending.

Young Cyclist Struck by Car

As Edwin G. Bayer, 11980 Racine, was making a right turn onto Cadieux from Maumee on June 13, young Karin Van Leuven, 10, of 1005 Cadieux, turned her bicycle in front of his car.

Unable to stop in time, Bayer drove into Karin, knocking her from her bike. She was taken to Bon Secours Hospital where she received treatment for severe injuries to her forehead, knees and right arm.

Boy Scout Camp Opens June 22

One of the largest camps of its kind in the world—the Charles Howell Scout Reservation near Brighton, Michigan—opens this Sunday, June 22 for its 15th annual summer season. The camp, secured in 1937, operated its first summer program in 1938.

Only a handful of selected troops roamed its 875 acres during that first period. Today's capacity is 600 Scouts per week for the 8-week summer season—closing August 16. The camp is used all year round and during the Fall-Winter-Spring months 300 to 400 Scouts enjoy its hospitality every week-end. On special occasions, such as the recent religious retreat, as many as 1,500 may be in attendance.

Two plans of camping are offered. Individuals may attend as "provisional" campers. The council provides all leadership, housing and meals for "provisional" troops. Plan two is where Scouts go with their own Troops under Troop Leadership either using their own tents or renting cabins, shelters or camp equipment on the site. Some of these camping troops do all their own cooking while others arrange for certain meals at the Lodge with "provisional" campers.

All campers have the benefit of the Reservation's excellent waterfront facilities, nature counselor and other program experts. Archery, marksmanship and the many crafts are everyday program features. The Council's Health and Safety Committee has already inspected all campsites on the Reservation in accordance with State Health Department regulations. The Reservation is accredited by the American Camping Association and is often visited by camp experts from other parts of the country.

Free parking stands proved inadequate last Monday, June 16, when the Farms' small fry swooped down on the popular municipal pier to evade the 96 degree heat wave. A steadfast rule of the Farms dock does not permit bicycles inside the park as a safety measure.

Hit-Run Driver Sought by Police

John Broderick heard a crash in the street in front of his home at 1114 Bedford, ran outside and saw a Chrysler sedan pulling away from his automobile. The sedan had driven into the left rear fender of Broderick's 1950 Ford, battering the tail-light.

The car headed for St. Paul, turned east and drove out of sight before Broderick was able to get an adequate description. The only hint for the police: the right front fender of the hit-run car was damaged. Said Broderick, "You could hear the fender scraping the tire as he drove off."

Brothers-in-Law In Street Fight

Farms police, cruising along Mack avenue Saturday night, June 14, near the New Brick Inn, came across a woman waving her arms wildly in the air and shouting at a man standing in the street in front of her.

The police discovered that the man, who was the woman's brother, had just been in a vicious fight with her husband, who police found lying in the "dirt driveway nearby. They took the husband to Bon Secours Hospital where two sutches were taken in his right eyelid and treatment was given to his hemorrhaging eyeball.

Rides Bicycle Into Side of Car

Young Charles Baier, 10, of 240 McKinley, rode his bicycle into the left rear fender of a passing automobile on Kercheval avenue, June 13. The driver of the car, Robert E. Warren, of 1310 Hart, Detroit, notified Farms police of the accident.

Charles was taken to Cottage Hospital where he received treatment for slight injuries to his arm and knee.

Elections Held By Lions Club

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club held its annual election of officers May 29, 1952 at the regular Thursday noon meeting at the Whittier Hotel. Installation of officers for year July 1, 1952 to July 1, 1953 is to be held today, June 19, at Beverly Hills.

The new officers include: Walter H. Breyer; first vice president, David R. Nagel; second vice president, Earl Hunley; third vice president, Edward J. Singelyn; secretary treasurer, S. Willard Hosking; Lion Tamer, Fred H. Steinheiser; Tail Twister, Edgar A. Beauchamp.

Outgoing president is Thomas Munson.

William Rogers Selects Chicago Girl for Bride

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Van Deventer of Beverly Hills, Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy to William Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Rogers of Buckingham Road.

Miss Van Deventer graduated from Denison University this June, and is a member of Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Rogers is also a graduate of Denison and belongs to Sigma Chi fraternity. The wedding will take place in August.

Churches Plan Joint Services

Next Sunday, June 29, at 10 a.m. the Methodist and the Congregational churches will begin their annual series of ten cooperative summer worship services. The Congregational Church will worship with the Methodist Church in the Methodist Sanctuary for the first of five services in the Methodist Church. The Rev. Marcus William Johnson will preach to the combined congregations at this first service. A Nursery and Kindergarten will be provided during this hour.

For the five Sundays in August, the Rev. Hugh C. White, pastor of the Methodist Church will preach to the combined congregations in the Congregational Church Sanctuary. This is unique in the Pointe. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. The time again 10 a.m. for all these combined services.

As "Guardian of the Pointe"—and as the Protector of Property Values in the Pointe

The Grosse Pointe Property Owners' Association

—invites YOU to join its membership

(PROVIDED you are a property owner in any one of the five Grosse Pointe Communities)

The objectives of this association are three-fold... and its many activities are in keeping with these expressed aims:

1. To protect, preserve and improve property values in Grosse Pointe.
2. To advance the cause of Grosse Pointe property owners in matters affecting them now and in the future.
3. To give service to members... to do things for them which they cannot do for themselves, or which can be done better or less expensively through our association.

Briefly, the Grosse Pointe Property Owners' Association is looked to as the spokesman for Grosse Pointe owners... by INDIVIDUALS... by BUSINESS... by GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES.

GROSSE POINTE PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION

Commodore Bob Kerr Wins In Own Bayview Regatta

By Fred Rummels

When a "man bites a dog" that's news but when a commodore wins his own regatta that's even bigger news. Last Saturday, June 14, Commodore Bob Kerr made big news when he led the Raven class skippers a merry chase around course number 4 in Bayview's annual regatta to cop the winning gun at the finish line in front of the club down river.

The commodore's victory was no fluke either. He had more than three minutes on the second place Larry Hope who had more than five minutes on third place Jack Williams. Al Thomas lost his first race of the year, but good, by finishing last.

Gang Up On St. John
The 30-square meter skippers ganged up on Ray St. John, one of the winningest skippers around these parts, and pushed the likeable, silver thatched St. John down to third place in that class. Al Gregory's "Typhoon" had a ten minute and one second margin and Dick Sullivan's "Starling," which incidentally is St. John's old boat, edged into second place by a matter of 17 seconds over Ray's beautiful "Lil Singva."

The 30-square meter boys vowed before the race that "King" St. John's reign was about to come to an abrupt end and they made good their boast. Ray just smiled and shrugged, his shoulders and remarked that there was always another race and that it is always good for any class to have different winners occasionally.

Race Committee Praised

Bayview's race committee, headed by chairman Bill Wiard, received nothing but high praise for the way they ran off the race without a hitch. The starting line was the head of Peche Island was proper but a little too short for the boats as they got off on spinnaker runs down the first leg of the triangular course. The light to moderate southerly winds gave the fleet a close race across the second leg and a dandy but tedious buck down to the finish line in front of the host club.

On the last leg of the race many lead boats found themselves guessing wrong on tacks. The gambling skippers moved into varying positions as the 101 boat fleet bounced down the river. The skippers who played the American shoreline found air currents not experienced by the boys who went out by the ship channel and over to the Canadian shore, searching for that shaft of air that would let them slide home a winner.

Smiley First Home

Paul Smiley's scratch boat "Orient," hugged the American shoreline to lead the Cruising A division home but corrected time knocked the smiling Smiley down to third place behind Cleve Wellings' "Vitesse," under the able hand of Gordie Saunders. Sky took the top honors on corrected time by a minute and 22 seconds over Ernie Wagner's "Last Straw," Ledge Mitchell's "Soubrette," Toot Gmeiner's "Apache," J. B. Ford's "Royvon VII," Clare Jacobs' new New York 32 "Falcon," George Naumann's "Estrellita" and Nubby Sarns' "Revelry" finished in that order on corrected time.

Jack Booth's "Voyager" captured her first winning gun of the season in the Cruising B class on corrected time. Booth beat such boat as Leydorf's "Joanne," Wilfred McGuire's "Kandu," Pat Collins fun boat "Pearl" and Andy Langhammer's "Rambler."

Burkard Wins Again

Hank Burkard once again showed the Cruising C boys how it is done. Hank received his second first place on corrected time by edging Jim Carlin's "Glory Sea II" by three minutes and 13 seconds. Karlness "Happiness" was third and Bill Hanson's "Marbill," last year's "C" champion, finished just out of the money for the first time in go sh k n o w s when Gerold Schneider's "Margaret M" followed in fifth place and Bayview's rear commodore Bill Nagel pulled a reverse to Commodore Kerr's feat by cruising over the finish line last. Said the jovial Nagel, "Nothing went right, and I even got my sparsely thatched noggin sunburned."

Vic Schneider once again topped Bayview's hottest Lightning skipper, Wes Weidrick, in a six boat race with Jerry Jenkins nudging into third place ahead of Carlin, Jones and Hill.

Milt Cross Repeats

Octogenarian Milt Cross kept up his winning ways in the eight meter class by leading home Bob Shannon's "Thisbe" and Hans Hatchescheck's "Shamrock." Bill Berry's twenty two square meter "Fyrvapplingen" won a two boat race, beating Bob Drean's "Vega." Barbara Slocum was the only lady skipper to get a winning gun and she did it in that hot Luders class which saw Hank Ford, G. Edward and R. Fisher II finish in that order.

Alex Allardyce topped a three boat Star race, beating Canadian Bill Walker and Dick Stofflett, who has the oldest Star around these parts, number 125. Dick's boat once was owned by Pat Clancy when the Star Fleet was first organized here some 29 years ago. She answered to the name of "Scrapper" and still does. She was a true blue champion under Clancy's gifted tiller hand. But now she's old and if she was a horse she would be out to pasture these many years. "Scrapper" just can't run with the younger girls anymore.

Tom Hanson Wins

Tom Hanson made it two in a row in the L class, topping a nine boat fleet which saw Frank Hill and Arden Poulson's boat sailed by June Markey, wife of Bayview's entertainment chairman, Jim, finish in the money.

Jimmy Trudell and Bobby Roadstrum tangled in a two-boat scrap in the Privateer fleet and let your lucky writer sneak down the American shore with "Wind Toy" to cop the gun. Trudell finished second and Roadstrum third with Bob Freeman, Vic Heinrich, Chet Reynaud and Orv Aaronson following in that order.

Ternes Tops Class

B. H. Ternes won the Universal class which Lynn Babcock dominated last season. Babcock switched to the Thistle class this year and has been getting his ears pinned back by Howard Boston, who again crossed the finish line first, followed by Springer and Devlin.

C. H. Backus beat J. French, Jr. in the Vineyard Haven class and D. Cowles captured the Club sloop trophy.

Fred Meno, Jr. and John Dieter, both of DYC, finished one-two to garner enough points to give the DYC catboats the team trophy with 27 points. The Boat Club was second, Edison third and the St. Clair Yachtsmen last.

Another Old Timer

Another old catboat who won his first sailing trophy way back in 1923, they tell me, topped a four boat race in the K class with a pre-war catboat called "Eddie's Witch." "The Man" Van der Grinten, who will go to Parcels School with the girls and boys they had this year in the fifth grade, since Mason School will not have room for sixth graders next year; Bernice Horn, speech correctionist, who is moving to California; Ruth Hayes, visiting teacher, who is retiring from the profession; Mathilda Tanner, vocal music teacher, who is taking a leave of absence; and William Ferry, instrumental music teacher, who will teach in Parcels, Poupard, and Vernier Schools next year.

RICHARD SCHOOL

Recently the fifth grade class of Mr. Maben, 25 in number, took a nature field trip by bus to the Rochester-Utica Educational Area.

They started from school at 9 a.m. by Lakeshore Motor Bus and returned at the close of the school day. Mr. Maben having had basic training in natural history at Wayne University, was a particularly adept person to accompany his class in this very fine experience. Mr. Messner, principal of the school and by hobby a field naturalist, also accompanied the group.

The pupils made a general study of the area, which is located about 25 miles from the Pointe, and two miles east of Utica. They learned how to make field notes after careful observations of the wildlife present. They carried check lists for the birds and checked off those they were able to observe in the several hundred acre woods.

For the morning nature study lessons they divided into two parts, half going with Mr. Maben and half with Mr. Messner. After lunch, which was eaten on the picnic grounds, they did more individual field work.

They had the most fun of all in their collecting enterprises. They carefully covered all of the pools and mud flats looking for frogs, toads, tadpoles, snakes and crayfish. They succeeded in bringing a nice sample of these forms back to school where they later learned how to properly take care of them. And important too, they learned how to distinguish poison ivy and stinging nettles.

Should Observe Rules

Such stupid boat handling should and must be stopped before it costs the life or limb of those people who are less fortunate and have to paddle around in a row boat or small sailboat for their water recreation. There is room for everyone who wants to play on the water if everyone observes the "Rules Of The Road" and uses a little good old "horse sense" in operating their boats.

Duke Huber Wins Sail Club's Race

For the second time in as many weeks Duke Huber sailed his catboat into first place last Sunday, June 15, over the other four boats that competed in the Grosse Pointe Sail Club's weekly race. Huber held an eight minute margin over Jim McCathy's Defender class boat. Jim, in turn was one minute ahead of Don Genemat's catboat.

In all five boats started and sailed the short course which started in front of the Park dock and sent the fleet around DRYA course marker number 2 on the Canadian side of the ship channel on a reach. The second leg was a beat to the marker off the Little Club and a run back to the finish line at the Park.

The members have sailed three races so far this season and now have a basis to work out handicaps on the various types of boats that have been competing. Park Attendant Dave Beauvais figures to have all the boats handicapped before next weekend and this will give some of the slower boats a chance to win on corrected time.

The Grosse Pointe Sail Club is an associate member of the DRYA and is made up of residents from Grosse Pointe Park only. However, Beauvais figures before long the club may be opened up to include anyone living in Grosse Pointe.

Elementary School News

The Room Mothers of the Mason Parent-Teacher Association invited the staff of Mason School to luncheon at St. Michael's Church on Thursday, June 12. It was a delightful occasion to meet once more before the close of the year and enjoy a delicious lunch together. Flowers from the gardens of the Room Mothers decked the tables and attractive placecards made by Mrs. Emerson and Mrs. Cuyler marked the 52 places.

Miss Ethel Tucker, principal of the Mason School, thanked the Room Mothers for all their help during the year and for their generous gift of almost three hundred dollars for rest room furniture which they realized at a bake sale earlier in the year. She also announced that Mrs. Donald Emerson and Mrs. John LeBlond had accepted the invitation to be chairman and co-chairman respectively, for next year.

At the last meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Mason School the following officers were elected for the year 1952-53:

President, Mr. Robert W. Smith.

Vice President, Mr. Kenneth Smith.

Secretary, Miss Mary Cobane.

Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Chandler.

At 10 o'clock on Friday morning, June 13, the entire Mason School staff and the Superintendent of Schools, Mr. James Bushong, met as a group to have coffee and doughnuts and to bid farewell to those who would not return to Mason next year. These include: Esther Payne, who plans to be married this summer and live in Illinois; Fred Stegath and Joseph Krutell, who will go to Parcels School with the girls and boys they had this year in the fifth grade, since Mason School will not have room for sixth graders next year; Bernice Horn, speech correctionist, who is moving to California; Ruth Hayes, visiting teacher, who is retiring from the profession; Mathilda Tanner, vocal music teacher, who is taking a leave of absence; and William Ferry, instrumental music teacher, who will teach in Parcels, Poupard, and Vernier Schools next year.

Pointe Boys Honored At Cranbrook School

Norman Bohm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Bohm of Grosse Pointe was presented with one of Cranbrook School's highest honors on June 11, the Trinity College Award, at the 22nd annual Awards Night ceremony held on Friday evening, June 13. This award is made annually to that graduating senior who has done the most for the school in his senior year and who is not a member of the Student Governing body. Norm has attended Cranbrook for six years.

Bohm and Robert Mast, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Mast were among the 52 seniors who were graduated from Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills at services held in Christ Church Cranbrook on Saturday morning, June 14. Dr. Laurence McKinley Gould, president of Carleton College in Northfield, Minnesota gave the Commencement address followed by the presentation of diplomas by Headmaster Harry D. Hoey.

Both boys have taken an active part in school life. Earlier in the week Bohm was presented with a Varsity "C" letter at a special assembly of faculty and students held on June 9 for his managing of the baseball team.

In addition Norm has sung with the Church Choir and the School Glee Club which annually presents Christmas Pageant services, a spring opera which was "The Pirates of Penzance" this year, and he also sang in a concert at the Awards Night program. He also held the honored position of a Lower School Prefect—an honor which required him to govern about 40 boys in the seventh and eighth grades who board full time at the school.

Bob Mast has been a member of the Varsity letter-winners club during his three years at the school and was awarded a Varsity letter in track last spring. He too has sung in the Glee Club and has been a two year member of the pre-medical group.

Guys & Gals! The second meeting of the Summer Time Canteen will be held on Thursday, June 19. If you attended the first session I am sure you will be at the second and all the others to follow, because this is to be a place for you teen-agers to gather for dances to a Swing Band, called "Five Jives" and made up of Cornet, played by Tom Saunders; Clarinet, Jim Wyse; Dave Riemer, Saxophone; Ed Nicholson, Baritone; Jim Bruzese, Drums. We will also have Square Dancing, and sports for those who prefer, as follows: Volleyball, Badminton and Tennis.

Don't forget, every Tuesday and Thursday at the Neighborhood Club at 6:30 p.m.

Girls' Softball

The baseball bang that was to be the starting of the baseball clinic at the Neighborhood Club wasn't heard very far this past Friday. It would seem that most of the girls were busy or at parties.

Anyway, the girls who did show up had a very good game of softball, and are looking forward to some competition this coming Friday. Some of the girls were playing on other teams but will be there next time.

We still need more girls for teams, and if you want to play be sure and come out on Friday, June 20. The summer will be over before you know it and you will have missed a lot of fun, so join us at the Baseball Clinic on Friday evenings at the Neighborhood Club.

Gray Sponsoring Fishing Contest

For the last four years Gray's Sport Shop has sponsored a fishing contest for all Grosse Pointe residents. Because of widespread interest and the large number of entries in the past, Mr. Gray has decided to hold the Fifth Annual contest.

The dates for this year's affair are from Saturday, June 21 to Saturday, July 26. Winners are determined by the length of the fish only, in classes of perch, trout, pike, muskellunge, pickerel and bass.

Last year Jack Trombly won an Actionglas rod with an 11 1/2" perch, and a 19 1/2" bass won an Actionglas rod for Carl Ayres. Other prizes went to D. H. Page for his 23 1/2" trout and also for a muskellunge that measured 30 1/4".

All the fishermen in the Pointe again have a chance to win valuable prizes in Gray's Fifth Annual Fishing Contest, so polish up those rods and reels—and be ready for the opening day, June 21!

Two of Detroit's best Lightning skippers, Wes Weidrick of Bayview and Hank Cawthra of Crescent, took it on the chin last weekend, June 7 and 8, down at Toledo in a three race series which was won by Doc Murphy of Flint. He beat out Toledo's top Lightning skipper, Walt Swinneman, who is generally regarded as the hottest small boat guy afloat around this part of the Great Lakes.

The fleet got its preparatory gun at 11 a.m. and each class received its starting gun at the usual five minute intervals except the L boats and the Privateers which started together. Jimmy Trudell beat his only other competitor, Vic Heinrich, in the Privateer race and Freddie Jensen topped the L boat. Al Thomas was sure of a victory right from the starting gun because he didn't have any competition, so he contented himself with seeing how much he could beat the Lightning. The Lightning started five minutes after Thomas but he saved his time plus four minutes. Peter Goebel handled the strings for Al Alec Carlin, brother of Jim Carlin, skipped his Higgins Lake Lightning around the course ahead of Bob Benkert, Chuck Ellery and one other starter.

Joe Matte III, Bayview Fleet Captain, is responsible for the series getting started but wasn't disappointed in the first day's showing because a lot of the fellas didn't get their program in time.

Reports have it that Crescent Sail Y.C. should be back in business in about a month if all goes well with the weather. The contractor has been lined up and was supposed to get started last Monday, June 16. Most of Crescent's active skippers are chomping at the bit to get their boats in the water. Dick Hill and Vic Schneider, two of the more ardent Lightning skippers, have been bringing their boats down to the club and dropping them in for the day and then hauling them out again in the evening and taking them back home. Brother, that's getting your sailing the hard way.

Grosse Pointe Farms sailors aren't going to have to wait much longer before they can get back in business. It is estimated that if the wind stays off shore until the end of this week the harbor will be ready for its official opening in about 10 days. Its going to be a GOOD calm harbor too.

TURN

'Ballot Battalion' Formed To Get Everyone Registered

Further impetus was added to the widespread "register and vote" campaign when "Ballot Battalion" announced appointment of eight key committee chairmen and the opening of headquarters at 1550 Union Guardian Building, Detroit.

Appointments were announced by "Ballot Battalion" General Chairman David C. Lowe and Vice Chairman Roy L. Reuther after consultation with executive committee members who represent a cross-section of civic, business and labor groups in Detroit cooperating in the movement.

William G. Siebert, secretary-treasurer of W.J.R., was named Publicity Chairman of "Ballot Battalion." Mrs. Lytle P. Colvin, president of the Detroit Council of the Parent-Teachers Association, will head the Schools Committee.

Amos Shields, Detroit head of the Boy Scouts, was appointed chairman of the Canvassing Committee. Mrs. Fred A. Huber, Jr. was named chairman of the Election Information Committee. John Heaphy of the Detroit Board of Education was appointed chairman of the Speaker's Bureau.

Ben Cole, Assistant Attorney General, was named chairman of the Laws and Regulations Committee. Ralph C. Wilson will head the Finance Committee and Andy Kirkpatrick was appointed chairman of the Parade Committee.

A "Ballot Battalion" office is being maintained at 1550 Union

Guardian Building starting Monday, June 16. Personnel will be on duty daily 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, to supply "Ballot Battalion" materials and to serve any Detroit group who wishes to initiate a "register and vote" campaign.

To help organizations initiate their own campaigns, "Ballot Battalion" has available at no charge, window streamers, envelope inserts, "Let's All Vote" buttons and some gummed stickers with the slogan "Vote Election Day As You Please."

But Vote." No mention of any organization appears on the literature or buttons and they are readily adaptable for use by any organization or company.

Larger quantities of these materials are available at cost from the "Ballot Battalion" Detroit headquarters in the Union Guardian Building.

"Register and vote" campaigns have already been started by a wide cross-section of organizations in Detroit including the Kiwanis, American Legion, League of Women Voters, Rotarians, UAW-CIO, Junior Board of Commerce, Parent-Teachers Association, Federation of Women's Clubs and many others.

Over 20 organizations representing service, civic, veterans, educational, labor and business groups attended the initial "Ballot Battalion" organizational luncheon this month. From this group an executive committee was formed with general supervision of "Ballot Battalion" in Detroit. The executive committee is composed of David C. Lowe, president of Detroit Kiwanis No. 1; Roy L. Reuther of the UAW-CIO; Mrs. Alan Canty, first vice president of the Detroit Parent-Teachers Association; Mrs. Henry B. Ihnken, president of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs and Kenneth Rathert of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"Ballot Battalion" will initiate a city-wide campaign next week urging all organizations and companies to start their own "register and vote" campaign and offering the services of "Ballot Battalion."

Five Pointe Lads to Summer At Camp on Lake Charlevoix

Camp Charlevoix on Lake Charlevoix will be the summer vacation spot of Grosse Pointe lads Steve Monro, Roy and Chris Chapin, John Fink and John Jacobs.

Woods Park Bus Schedule Listed

Beginning with the first week of July, the Grosse Pointe Woods park bus will make four scheduled trips each day for the convenience of Woods residents, acting City Administrator Ray MacArthur has announced.

The bus will leave from the Woods Theater at 9:45 a.m., and every two hours thereafter. It will pass the Municipal Building about 15 minutes later, continue north on Mack avenue, turn right onto Hampton road to Lake Shore drive and proceed to the park. MacArthur added that the bus will stop at each street corner en route to pick up passengers.

Nab 16-Year-Old With Stolen Car

Grosse Pointe Woods police received a report June 16, from East Detroit police that they had given chase to a stolen car which ran off the road into a ditch on Nine Mile road near Harper.

Woods police officers LeDuke and Allard arrived in time to see one of the occupants jump from the car. He was picked up running down Harper toward Grosse Pointe Woods, near Shady lane.

The youth, a 16-year-old, was turned over to St. Clair Shores police for disposition.

Emory L. Ford Taft Chairman

Emory M. Ford of Woodland place has accepted the chairmanship of the Michigan chapter of the Citizens for Taft Committee, headed nationally by Albert C. Wedemeyer, Lt. General, U.S.A. Ret.

The Michigan committee of over 50 state residents has nearly 25 members who are prominent residents of Grosse Pointe. Their crusade has been designed to arouse interest throughout the state sufficient to increase the committee's membership and forward the Taft campaign.

John S. Newberry Jr. Sails For Summer on Continent

John S. Newberry, Jr., left New York June 11 for a trip across the Atlantic. His sight-seeing tour of Europe will include a lengthy stay in the Scandinavian countries. He'll return to the Pointe Sept. 30.

Don't Do This!

What not to do when you go on vacation is shown here by Model Dee Kranz. Don't post signs that reveal the house is empty. It's an invitation to burglars. A new "Check-list for Vacationers" warns that many vacationers leave such signs behind, in notices to the milkman, postman or newsboy. Instead, tell the milkman in advance to stop deliveries, ask the post office to hold your mail, and have the newspaper sent to your vacation address.

- DO seal perfume and lotion bottles and insect-repellent bottles with cellophane tape to prevent spilling inside your luggage; and seal packages and cartons with tape to keep dust out.
- DO make reservations in advance unless planning your trip "gypsy style." Otherwise, start looking for lodging about 4 or 5 p.m.
- DO keep a running picture-story of your vacation with postcards or snapshots. Link them together with tape, to keep them in the right order, easy to show.

St. Clair Beach Starts Season

St. Clair Metropolitan Beach opened all of its facilities daily starting Sunday, June 15, and will stage a Grand Opening Celebration free of charge on Saturday, June 21.

A water ski show, water polo, soft ball games by major league teams, a band concert, small craft show and fleet review are on the program for June 21 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be no toll parking charge on Grand Opening Day and all events will be free, though the usual bathhouse and Food Bar charges will prevail. A parking toll of 25 cents will be charged Sunday, June 15, and effective Monday, June 16, the toll parking fee will be 25 cents on week days and 50 cents on Sundays and holidays as it was last season.

An invitation is extended by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority to all yachts and sail boats in the metropolitan area to participate in the Fleet Review to be staged at 3 p.m. on June 21 in the beach's two boat basins, Black River and Lake St. Clair. The Clinton River Boat Club will serve as host and prizes will be awarded. Among the larger craft will be at least one 80-foot yacht. Special events are planned for children and the Indian Chief who proved so popular at last year's official Dedication Day program will preside at the large Indian tepee which is children's headquarters.

Conducted tours of the huge 6,000 locker bathhouse, ultra-modern Food Bar, Administration Building and other facilities are scheduled from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Among the star performers in the Water Ski Show will be Dick Sligh of Holland, Michigan and other nationally known amateurs who have won fame at Michigan's Mecatawa shows and Cypress Gardens, Florida.

A turtle-racing game, first of its kind in this area, is among the new attractions for young and old at the beach which is the newest project of the five-county Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

All facilities are in perfect order and a full staff of some 160 beach officers, water safety guards and other personnel will be on duty, according to Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, Authority Director.

Following its past practice, the Authority is continuing to take samples of the water at several spots along the 6,000 foot beach three times weekly and these continue to meet all Health Department requirements.

Group of Pointe Girls To Attend Camp Arbutus

A group of Pointe girls is busy these days checking the camp equipment list preparatory to their departure this summer to Camp Arbutus.

This lovely camp, located in the Grand Traverse Bay region, is one of the oldest girls' camps in the midwest, with many alumnae in this area. They are wishing the young crop the same happiness they had in their camping days.

Among those leaving are: Carol Carbone, Lois Carbone, Nancy MacDonald, Nancy Lenz, Elsa Purdy, Patricia Teetzel, Mary Anne Gillett, Joan Dasef, Sharon and Barbara McMullen, Linda Skinner, Carolyn Sutton and Judy Howard.

Legion Auxiliary News From Unit 303

By Betty Hoyt

"Half a loaf" is the way Mrs. Mary Del Barba, Rehabilitation Chairman of Grosse Pointe Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, characterized the "cost-of-living" increases in the compensation and pensions of disabled war veterans and dependents recently voted by Congress.

"The American Legion and Auxiliary asked much larger increases," Mrs. Del Barba said, "but we are happy to be able to obtain something for the nation's disabled defenders and their families who have been struggling to get along on compensation and pension rates which were fixed when living costs were much lower. Our organizations have worked vigorously to make the American public and the Congress understand the situation of the disabled veterans and to grant some measure of relief."

The "cost-of-living" bill passed by Congress and sent to the President for his signature granted an increase of 15 per cent in compensation to veterans with service-connected disabilities rate 50 percent or more. An increase of five per cent was voted for veterans rated as less than 50 percent disabled. This will increase the compensation of a totally disabled veteran from $150 to $172.50 per month, while the increase for a veteran rated as ten percent disabled will be only 75 cents per month, from $15.00 to $15.75. The Legion and Auxiliary had urged a flat 20 percent increase for all.

Disability pension rates (non-service connected) were boosted by the bill from $60 to $63 per month for veterans without dependents, and from $72 to $75 for those with dependents.

Plants for Summer and Fall Bloom

By Vincent DePetris
 Nearly all gardens which have been aglow with many spring flowering plants will begin to look drab in comparison after these delightful spring subjects have finished their symphony of color until another year.

Even where a careful planning provides for a succession of flowering plants it will be found that many spaces once occupied by the colorful Spring flowers will become bare and desolate.

Many Plants Available
 Fortunately there are a goodly number of plants available for the purpose of filling in these voids during the late spring in order to insure a continuous panorama of color until the first frost spells "finis" to the garden season. Some of these summer blooming plants may still be raised from seed sown during early June. Others must be purchased either as seedlings or in pots, while a third type may be obtained from the planting of bulbs, or more properly, corms.

To Bloom in September
 The most satisfactory annual which can be raised from seed sown as late as mid-June is the Zinnia. As a matter of fact it is the best flowers from this splendid and most easily grown annual are desired for September, the best time for sowing is June. The earlier sown plants from greenhouses or cold frames are most generally bloomed out by late August.

Seed may be sown either directly where they are wanted to bloom and later thinned out, or they may be sown in a prepared bed and later transplanted to the spot where they are to bloom.

Zinnias transplant very easily. There are many strains of giant flowered Zinnias that produce showy blossoms of lasting quality with colors ranging from yellow to orange, red, several shades of pink, mauve and white.

In Continuous Bloom
 There is a wide selection of plants which may be purchased in pots which may be used to provide continuous summer and fall blooms from June planting.

For the front of the border Ageratum and Lobelias will provide a colorful display of lavender or true blue Vinca Major with its shiny small leaves gives us a dwarf border plant in shades of pink or white. Incidentally Vinca Major does very well in partial shade. Verbenas which produce an abundance of pink, red, white and rich purple flowers are excellent for sunny locations where dwarf plants are desired.

Petunias Very Colorful
 Petunias likewise will provide an abundance of blooms particularly in sunny and well drained locations. They have a subtle and delightful fragrance, particularly the white hybrids with their large waved blossoms.

For taller plants, one of the most satisfactory is the single Dahlia. This strain was originally developed in England and some years ago made its appearance here as the Coltess hybrid. They produce an abundance of good sized single blossoms in many unusual pastel shades. Moreover they will bloom without interruption until frost.

For Fall Blooming
 If September and October blooms alone are desired a most satisfactory plant is the Chrysanthemum. While these plants do not bloom throughout the summer months they more than make up for this during their blooming season which extends from mid-September until late October when heavy frost cuts them down. Many varieties are literally covered with blooms completely hiding the foliage. A previous article in the Garden Page covered the Chrysanthemum. For cultural hints and other information it is suggested that the reader refer to it.

Heliotrope Deserves Space
 Last but not least we suggest the Heliotrope. Even if no voids are to be filled we would provide the place of honor for this lovely flower.

Its delightful and exotic fragrance has a universal appeal. Planted near terraces, or in close proximity to the more frequented rooms of the residence, the Heliotrope will be found to be constantly in bloom. Its large trusses of violet blue flowers perfume the air with a distinct and most delightful fragrance.

Heliotropes will grow not more than 12" to 15" in height but will make a bushy and compact plant provided the faded blooms are removed and part of the stronger stems pinched back in order to induce branching. They prefer light soil and either full sun or partial shade. It is important that Heliotrope be fertilized regularly. A liberal application of any good fertilizer every three weeks is advisable.

Plant Gladiolus Now
 Two bulbous plants which, however, to be correct must be classified as corms, can be planted in June for flowers in the latter part of September.

The first of these is the gladiolus. This flower is too well known to require much elaboration. We will pass on therefore to the second, the Tigridia, commonly called the Mexican tiger flower and also the Shell Flower. The botanical name Tigridia Pavonia was given to it when it was sent to Europe in the 16th century. The bulbs should be planted about 4 inches deep in light rich soil. They will bloom in August and September, depending on the time of planting. In form they resemble the Iris, to which they are related. However they are not hardy and the bulbs must be taken up in the Fall like gladiolus.

Tigridias, although not long lasting, are extremely beautiful and possess a wide range of unusual colors.

They are worthy of culture for this reason, and are always conspicuous by their unusual coloring and charm.

Fund Established By Marie Bird

A scholarship and educational fund has been established by Marie Bird, owner of the Marie Bird Beauty Salon at 117 Kercheval avenue, for the one carefully selected girl, who is a graduate of any of the Grosse Pointe High School, most interested in seeking a career in the beautician profession.

The fund will provide for the tuition at the best beauty school in the area and include all other expenses such as uniforms, transportation, lunches and incidental expenses.

First recipient of the scholarship award is Beverly Labadie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Labadie, of Muir road. She will receive training at the school selected and under the personal supervision of Mrs. Bird at her salon.

After her graduation, Beverly will be offered a position at the salon, and following one year's employment there, she will be sent to a summer school for continued training.

Mrs. Bird stated that the scholarship will be an annual award.

Sanitation Is Best Answer To Problem Posed by Flies

Sanitation is the answer to DDT-resistant flies, advises LaRue Miller, chief of the Section of Environment Sanitation, Michigan Department of Health.

"While repeated experience has proved that even the most potent insecticides such as DDT are effective only until flies develop resistance to them, it has also proved that flies do not develop any resistance to sanitation," he asserts.

To be successful, a fly-control program must rely heavily on elimination of fly-breeding and fly-feeding places and tight screening, with insecticides playing an important secondary role. It must be carried out cooperatively by the individual and the community.

In residential areas, garbage is the most important feeding and breeding medium. Garbage cans should be made of metal, should be clean and kept tightly covered at all times. Rotting vegetable, fruit or animal matter, piles of decaying leaves and grass, manure piles—all good feeding and breeding places—should be removed.

Screens should be in good repair, and all buildings in which humans live or in which food or milk is prepared or stored should be screened tightly.

All fly resting places such as under the overhang of roofs, doorways, windows, the garbage can and surrounding area should be sprayed with DDT, chlordane or lindane solutions.

Because flies have a yen for travel and the ability to range freely over distances of four miles, the community must add its efforts to that of the individual.

Bring Outdoors Into the Home

Why not arrange to bring the outdoors inside this summer? Give heavy draperies and hangings a vacation for a season and dress up your windows with plants.

Elinor E. Roth, of the Michigan State College department of textiles, clothing and related arts, is not suggesting a bare window graced by a lone plant on the window sill. No indeed—she urges unusual treatment of both plants and windows in order to spruce up home decoration for the summer season.

An idea especially good for picture or bay windows is to frame the whole window with a climbing plant. It will take a surprisingly short time to get ivy or philodendron all the way around. Use inconspicuous string or wire trellises to lead the plant in the proper direction, Miss Roth advised.

For a drapery-like effect, try using wall bracket pots on the sides of the window. The plants should be vine-type so they will grow gracefully downward. Miss Roth thinks that brackets placed quite close together will give the most striking effect because the vines will make a continuous line at the side of the window.

Careful use of plants on window shelves makes striking treatment for curtainless summer living. The specialist suggests putting the shelves—probably made of glass—at structural points, that is, along natural divisions in the window.

Interesting containers can be used for an inside flower garden on the window sill. Try using a long bread basket, for instance or a miniature window box made for the purpose.

Cisler to Be Lecturer At Summer Institute

Walter L. Cisler, of Devonshire road, will be one of the lecturers at the annual summer institute being presented by the University of Michigan Law School June 26-28, in Ann Arbor.

The institute program this year is on the subject of atomic energy and is being offered in cooperation with the University's Phoenix Memorial project, which is concerned with peacetime applications and implications of nuclear fission.

Cisler, president and general manager of The Detroit Edison Company, will speak on "Public Utilities and Nuclear Power." His company, and Dow Chemical Company of Midland, have a joint contract with the Atomic Energy Commission to study the feasibility of using nuclear heat power for industry.

This year's institute will deal in general with industrial and legal problems related to atomic energy. Specific subjects covered—besides industrial uses—will include the production and use of isotopes, atomic fuel procurement, patent policies, governmental control, radiation hazards, and security and censorship practices.

Lazy Day Refreshments

Keep cool these lazy summer days by entertaining in an informal, casual manner. Good food is such an important part of any entertaining that it is essential to keep up to date on all short cuts. So be sure to use packaged mixes frequently and save yourself hours in a hot kitchen. For example, the luscious cake pictured here is made with packaged devil's food cake mix. Thickly swirled with fluffy frosting or whipped cream it is a tempting dessert suitable for afternoon or evening refreshments. Tall, cool glasses of tangy lemonade is a perfect accompaniment.

Quick Devil's Food Cake

1 package Swans Down devil's food cake mix. 14 cups milk
1 teaspoon grated orange rind. 1 1/4 cups milk

Turn cake mix into bowl; add orange rind. Add 1/4 cup of the milk, blend, and beat 2 minutes. Add half of the remaining milk, blend, and beat 2 minutes. Then add remaining milk and beat 1 minute longer. (Beat cake vigorously by hand or at a medium speed of electric mixer. Scrape bowl and spoon or beater often.)

Turn batter into 2 8-inch layer pans 1 1/4 inches deep, which have been lined with paper. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 20 minutes or until done. When cool, spread Fluffy Frosting or Whipped Cream between layers and on top of cake.

Baha'is Hear Address By William R. Lacey

"Many people today are like the girl who refused to answer her brothers when asked about geography saying, 'I've finished geography'," said William R. Lacey of Madison, Wisconsin, addressing a gathering of Baha'is and their friends recently.

"They have gotten to the point where they did some studying about religion in their early days, joined a church, and then left their spiritual development to someone else. But this is impossible. We cannot develop something we do not use any more than we can learn to play golf by hearing a lecture on it and not practicing it.

"When people neglect their spiritual development, they are handicapped all through life and eternity. Man's eternal life begins the minute he is born, and continues through this life and the next. And most people think it begins when they die or some time after that. If we do not develop in this life what we need spiritually, we enter the next world, which is a spiritual world, with out our necessary equipment."

Two Get Honors At Kalamazoo

Honor to two students from Grosse Pointe were announced in connection with the 116th annual Commencement at Kalamazoo College, Monday, June 9.

Thomas G. Willson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Willson, 418 Madison road, received the Kalamazoo College Athletic Association Medal and also was named the most valuable player on the Kalamazoo College tennis team.

The Medal is awarded annually to the man in the senior class who in the opinion of the faculty has most successfully combined high scholarship with athletic prowess during his four years in college.

Willson was playing the number one position in the powerful tennis team of Kalamazoo College, and he was a member of the varsity basketball team. His other activities on the campus included his holding the position of president of the senior class.

Kenneth R. Venderbush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Venderbush, 820 Pemberton, received the Cooper Prize in Speech. He has been an outstanding member of the speech department, and served as president of the local Pi Kappa Delta group.

During the recent model nominating convention he served as temporary chairman and chairman of the steering committee.

IT'S BUSTED WIDE OPEN

WE'VE GONE PRICE-SLASHING MAD—SO WHAT!! YOU CAN'T EAT A $150,000⁰⁰ STOCK! SCRAM--OUT IT GOES! WE'RE IN THE DOG HOUSE—IT'S OUR LAST, LOUD, SOS YELP!

AN HONEST CONFESSION

The reason for this sale is written here so that you may understand why an old conservative institution such as this, who have never before in their many years in business held a sale of this magnitude, are at the very beginning of the buying season and with their entire building and warehouse loaded with new and up-to-the-minute merchandise selling at such ridiculous sacrifices. Our building and warehouse is literally jammed with goods. TV sets, radios, appliances, washers, etc. It has reached the danger point. We must sell at least half of this stock in a short space of time. We will leave no stone unturned—no sacrifice is too great for us to unload this stock at once. Here, you will find something for that room in your home—marked at prices that, in many instances does not even cover the wholesale cost. We invite and urge you to visit this sale, which starts at 9 a.m. Sharp.

Calls Car Unsafe As Bomb Shelter

Your automobile is not a "safe" shelter in case of atomic attack, but it is safer than no shelter at all, Brig. Gen. Lester J. Maitland, State Civil Defense Director said.
Recent Atomic Energy Commission tests in Nevada showed that cars with metal tops provide good protection against light flying and falling objects, but that they provide no significant protection from atomic radiation.
Five cars used in the Nevada tests—sedans with steel turret tops and safety glass windows—were placed at various distances from the atomic blast so that effects could be studied.
The Michigan Office of Civil Defense, on the basis of the AEC findings, urges the following precautions for drivers and passengers in time of attack.
With warning in a congested downtown area, drive your car to the side of the street and park it. Leave the car and hurry to the nearest Civil Defense shelter. If there is no shelter in the immediate area, seek refuge in the tallest nearby building.
With warning in a residential or other outlying area where there is no building which offers shelter, drive the car to the side of the road and park. Roll down the windows to minimize the danger of flying glass. Crouch as low as possible in the vehicle until the all clear sounds.
Without warning, when the first sign of the attack is the bomb flash, stop your car quickly. Crouch as low as you can in the vehicle until the debris has stopped falling. Then drive the car to the side of the road, if possible, so that it will not interfere with emergency Civil Defense traffic.

Lt. Walter L. Parmalee Becomes Civilian Again
Lt. Walter L. Parmalee, former Tenth Air Force, Personnel Officer, and resident of Grosse Pointe Woods, returned to civilian status this week after completing his fifth year of total commissioned service.
Lt. Parmalee, who was stationed at nearby Selfridge Air Force Base, Michigan, will accept a staff position with the Detroit Auto Insurance Exchange. He was Personnel Director for the Detroit Auto Club prior to his entry into commissioned Air Force service in September 1945. Honorably discharged in May 1946, he was recalled to active duty on April 1951.
Lt. Parmalee is a graduate of the Pierce School of Business Administration, class of 1934. Married, the Parmalees have one daughter, Sherilyn L. They reside at 1122 Hawthorne road.

They are: Harley D. Russell, seaman recruit, USNR, of 838 St. Clair; Herbert I. Buhler, seaman apprentice, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buhler of 373 Neff, and Wallace B. Swayne, seaman recruit, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Swayne of 1569 Hawthorne.
Also: Frederick L. Corey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan L. Corey of 1701 Stanhope; Arnold J. Disting, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold L. Disting of 2008 Lennon; and Raymond C. Krause, formerly of 1315 Hampton, and husband of Mrs. Josephine Krause of 21401 Sloan, Detroit.

Too Much Aspirin Can Kill Children
Aspirin tablets contain five grains of acetyl salicylic acid, a deadly poison if you get too much. Dr. Ernest H. Watson, associate professor of pediatrics and communicable diseases, explains. Four tablets are fatal to a child under five years of age.
The proper amount of aspirin for children is measured on a scale of one grain of aspirin for each year of a child's age up to five years, he points out. Thus, a child under five years of age should never take a whole aspirin tablet, unless prescribed by a physician.
Such innocent looking pills in the home should be kept under lock and key, for the accident rate among children from careless poisoning is appalling, Dr. Watson says.
"While combat divisions in Korea, with all of their lethal weapons, are killing one fighting soldier," he reveals, "we at home, in peace and complacency, kill three children through these needless accidents."
"Parents should remember that they have to do the thinking for young children," Dr. Watson stresses. "Usually, everything a child picks up goes straight to the mouth. While an adult will expel anything that tastes bad, a child will almost always swallow it."

State Inspecting All Pointe Elms
The Michigan State Department of Agriculture in conjunction with Pointe municipalities and the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, is conducting an inspection of all elm trees in Grosse Pointe on both private and public property.
This inspection is for the purpose of detecting any signs of the Dutch Elm disease. If you have an elm tree on your property, it will be inspected. You will be notified if it does have the disease.
Remember—only if your tree is diseased will you be notified. If it is not diseased, no notification will be given to you.
The men conducting this inspection will have credentials and will present them to you upon request.
If you have any further questions concerning this inspection, the Dutch Elm disease, or any matter pertaining to the enjoyment of your property, please call Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association's office.

THE DOINGS OF THE DEBS

They nickname each other this way: Sally Jean Fageol (Fage) ... Victoria Wehmeier (Vicki) ... Dorothy Ann Wood (Do) ... Alden Edgar (Denny) ... Mary Andrea Mulford (Mo-Mo) ... Molly Kerr (Mol) ... Cynthia Wheelock (C) ... Mary Kate Worcester (Katie) ... Annette Torrey (Annie) ...

The rest of the young beauties are called by their given names ...

FASHIONS IN FOOD

At Mary Carey's debut dinner, dessert arrived in form of vanilla ice cream squares with Mary written in strawberry ice cream over the top ...

At Mo-Mo Mulford's coming out supper dance ... the slim young ones ended their suppers with chocolate eclairs.

And after Mol Kerr's coming out tea ... the assistants remained for dinner ... and went seriously at: roast beef and strawberry shortcake ...

THE DEBS ARE TALKING ABOUT

That Hawaiian print sarong bathing suit of Fage Fageol which is lush with her deep sun tan ...

Annie Torrey (and doesn't it sound like Annie Laurie) ... and the Glamor she possesses in such great amount ...

Mol Kerr being elected president of her class next year at Bennett College ... and this cute smartie is one of very few gals who's made the honor roll both semesters this past year ...

The maroon evening ties Mo-Mo Mulford gave her ushers ...

The exodus into the gardens made at all the afternoon tea parties given during the past hot days ...

A job for the Summer months ...

PILFERINGS

Globe trotting Irwin Edman visited Rio de Janeiro and found himself engaged in conversation with a fascinating Brazilian society queen.

She asked him what he did in New York.

"I am a professor of philosophy," he informed her.

"How interesting!" she replied, "Down here there is only one American philosopher we really know about."

"What's his name?" inquired Irwin.

The lady answered, "Lin Yutang."

Press agents for road shows and carnivals will stop at nothing to grab a little free publicity and provide grist for their quills.

One even staged a mock marriage between two elephants with a third pachyderm acting as minister.

A Los Angeles paper obligingly printed a photograph of the weird elephant on the front page.

Dorothy Parker took one look and said:

"I give it six months!"

S. Jay Kaufman, columnist, author, remembers a tense moment at the Lamb's Club when an old member clapped Joe Laurie, Jr., on the back and bellowed,

"Bless my soul, it's Holbrook Blinn. I haven't seen you in ages."

"No wonder," said Laurie coldly, "I've been dead since 1928."

John Drew entertained a group of writers and critics at the same club. He ordered kidneys for luncheon, then repaired to the bar to supervise the dispensation of liquid refreshments. A half hour later a waiter whispered, "I don't want to disturb you, sir, but your kidneys are spoiling."

Drew answered, "I suspected that for years, but I didn't realize it was visible to the naked eye."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ROY D. CHAPIN, JR., OF KENWOOD ROAD

Picture by Fred Runnells

If you are missing the junior Roy D. Chapins on the tennis courts, the golf links or at the swimming pool this Summer it's because with enthusiasm they (to coin a phrase) have gone to the dogs.

They are dogging over the countryside to Metamora, where, with Mr. and Mrs. Preston Mann they own the Preston Mann K-9 School (they make your dog a lady or a gentleman); they are whipping off to field trials in Michigan and adjacent states; or maybe they're just being pre-occupied with the antics of nine English Setter puppies that frolic in open air kennels on the grounds of their home on Kenwood.

The K-9 School, in its present form (for Mr. Mann originally ran a similar establishment at Wayne, Mich.) grew because Mr. Chapin, an avid bird hunter, was so often asked (when hunting season was at its height and because he possessed one of the finest bird dogs), "Well, where could you have a dog trained to hunt?"

His own dog, housed except during hunting season, was carefully prepared for strenuous days in the field by Mr. Mann at his Wayne School.

An Idea Grew

The Chapins were always so pleased and impressed with his methods and results that the idea grew: with the Manns, they could combine a Summer home for themselves at Metamora and a school and kennel for all the questioners. The K-9 School and Ruxroy Kennels were thus established.

The two couples bought the Ted Gorenflo farm at Metamora. All during the Summer months the Chapin young (Roy III, Chris, Billy and Penny) scamper delightedly over the 40 acres and play with their pet lamb and the pony named Strawberry Sundae.

Their elders are being more serious for by March 15 of this year 60 dogs had arrived to be put through the expert paces included in the K-9 School's curriculum.

Trained Army Dogs

Mr. Mann brought to the new business the experience he received during the war in the Army K-9 Corps training dogs for war work. He teaches obedience and develops hunting dogs and can take the common, garden variety type of pooch and make him into a joy to have around.

Mrs. Chapin thinks nothing of being up and about at 6 a.m. to help with the training.

A farm machine shop at the Metamora farm was deftly transformed into a kennel with 26 runways. Ruxroy Kennels (a combination of Mrs. Chapin's nickname "Rux" and Mr. Chapin's given name) is light and sunny, oil heated and has individual inside runs. Dogs sleep in special beds filled with insect repellent cedar shavings. Screened runways provide plenty of space for outdoor exercise.

Bird dogs are trained on partridge, pigeons, woodcock and pheasant under natural hunting conditions.

Dogs are picked up by the K-9 School and delivered as their owners wish. Skilled veterinary service is also provided.

Rebeau

The cause of all this wonderful activity rests in the dogginess of one Rebeau, the admired English setter owned by Mr. Chapin. In Rebeau there flows the famous strain of Beau blood which came from England.

Rebeau is now the proud and doting mother of nine heart-tugging puppies, just 11 weeks old. The Chapin children have adored every minute of this experience from feeding some by bottle to observing how careful a mother Rebeau can be.

Mrs. Chapin is the Springer Spaniel enthusiast of the family. The Phil D. Armour's Jr. of Chicago and the James Simpson's Jr. of Westworth, Ill. really got her interested in this breed.

The papers are impressive on her Davellis Pomme de Terre who has high praise from "The American Field" (the N.Y. Times owners) the latest references including, "a very flashy and fast dog," "on the ball all the time." Davellis Pomme de Terre has been shortened to "Spud" and he has claimed ribbons every time his owner has run him in trial.

K-9 School Student

We watched Spud retrieve a bird at Mrs. Chapin's command the other afternoon and marvelled at the discipline. This spirited Spaniel didn't move except with her order and then he obeyed perfectly.

Besides Spud, the Spaniel family includes the two year old Rayve and the six month old Miss Rex, a name that grew out of the misunderstanding of Mrs. Chapin's nickname by the noted trainer Steve Studnicki who is with the Armour's.

Mrs. Chapin's aptness with dogs in the field has led to an invitation this week-end to show Hunter Specials when the Wolverine Retriever's Club holds a Fun Field Trial at Brace Beamer's farm. Owners and dogs are coming from around the country for this trial in which the Retriever-wise Lee J. Smits is so interested.

And although Spaniels are Mrs. Chapin's forte, she is like all dog lovers—eager to promote interest in all sporting dogs. From the Pointe a group has been invited to watch the proceedings. They include: The Howard Freeman Smiths, the Harry S. Finkenstaents, the Harold L. Wadsworths, the Lester F. Ruwes, the Addison Holtons, the Robert B. Evans, the Emory Moran Fords and the Carsten Tiedemans.

CHICKEN STRINGER

Contributed by Mrs. Max J. Stringer

(And created by Mr. Stringer) Bone four breasts of chicken and broil in buttered electric broiler, basting occasionally. You're also going to need four slices of ham and four slices of toast.

While chickens are broiling, prepare the following sauce, cooking in a double boiler:

- 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
 - 1 Tbsp. onion juice
 - 1 Tbsp. sherry
 - ¼ c. grated Swiss cheese
 - Salt and pepper to taste.
- Fry the slices of ham and place one on each slice of toast. Next place a chicken breast atop each (the chicken should have taken about 20 minutes to broil). Cover all with heated sauce.

Half the world wonders how the other half got such easy jobs.

Reflections

by poul gach

I love quotes that have a bearing on portrait photography. Here's one from 1904, and still good today:

"The same old charitable lie Repeated as the years scoot by"

Perpetually makes a hit—"You really haven't change a bit."

We know people change every year, and I think it's wonderful when a portrait shows the change. The dignity and wisdom of passing years should show. After all, this is our best proof of having lived.
