RUSSIA'S Andrei Y. Vishinsky ripped into President Eisenhower's speech before the UN General Assembly, by stating that the President's proposal for an "atomic bank" for peaceful purposes cannot be guaranteed. Radio Moscow, in its reaction to the speech, said that the President made an "eulogy of a policy of force." It said the United States was trying to impose a variation of the old Baruch plan. UN diplomats were appalled by Moscow's apparent rejection to join in the pooling of uranium which could lead to the use of atomic energy for industry and advance agriculture and medicine. American Delegate Henry Ford II's comment about the Russians was, "They're nuts."

A BATTLE between Atty. Gen. Frank Millard and Wayne Prosecutor Gerald O'Brien, appeared to be near a showdown in a demand for a grand jury investigation of Hamtramck affairs. O'Brien refused to turn over to the attorney general the results of his investigations and stated he was shocked by the intervention of Millard.

The attorney general demanded that O'Brien turn over the facts to him after he blocked Circuit Court action on a petition filed by the prosecutor. His demand was refused on the grounds witnesses in the probe must be protected.

NOTING THAT IN A CRISIS practically all of its plants would become essential to defense industry, the General Electric company announced a tough anti-Communist policy. Henceforth, all employees who admit to being Communists or are engaged in any form of espionage or sabotage will be discharged at once. Employees who have refused or do refuse to answer questions on such activities in public Government hearings will be suspended until they have been cleared of taint.

Friday, December 11
I. A. LONG, head of the police board in St. Louis, stated that formal charges will be filed against former Lt. Louis Shoulters and Patrolman Elmer Dolan for violating police regulations during their handling of the Bobby Greenlease kidnap-killer case. He refused to state the nature of the charge, but added it was not of a criminal nature. The board action came during its investigation into the missing $303,720, more than half of the ransom paid to Carl Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, little Bobby's kidnapers and killers. Long said that the charge to be filed, will give Shoulters a chance to clear his 27-year police record.

THE WHITE HOUSE expressed the hope that Russia would reconsider President Eisenhower's latest proposal to internationalize and harness the atom for peaceful purposes, and has left the door to atomic peace wide open, so that the Soviet can take advantage of the offer if it so wished.

James C. Haggerty, White House secretary, said this country did not accept Russia's "no" as a final decision. Other sources said that the President refuses to give up hope until he hears from leaders in the Kremlin, either directly or through diplomatic channels.

INDOCHINA REDS renewed their offer to France to negotiate a peace in Indochina. Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam leader, said, if the French are sincere and desire to negotiate to end the war, his people and government are willing and ready to talk it over. Observers in that country noted that the Vietnam leader's peace feeler emphasized Vietnam aims of Indochinese independence of France and peace and made no mention of Communism. It was denied that Ho Chi Minh's offer was the result of any deterioration in the Vietnam's military organization.

Cyclist Dies When Struck In Woods

Harper Woods Youth Killed When Hit by Car; First Fatality in 10 Years

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods' 10-year record of no traffic fatalities was marred last Saturday, December 12. The victim was 16 year old Carmen Visconti of 19234 Eastborn avenue in Harper Woods.

He was riding his bicycle west on Bournmouth avenue at 7 p. m., when the rear fender of the bike was struck by a 1951 Mercury convertible driven by Donald A. Deslover of 21543 Bournmouth.

Didn't See Boy
Deslover told police that he was driving west and pulled over to let a car coming the other way pass. He did not see the boy until after the impact.

An ambulance was on the scene in four minutes and Carmen was rushed to Saratoga Hospital, where he died of a fractured skull a few hours later. He never regained consciousness.

Funeral Today
Surviving Carmen are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic R. Visconti; an older brother, Anthony; and his younger sister, Marie.

Burial was this morning, December 17, at 9:30, from Our Lady Queen of Peace Church on Bournmouth avenue.

Entire Community Invited To Tree Lighting Program At Center Sunday Evening

Youth Groups Taking Charge of Yuletide Ceremony Urge Residents of All Ages to be Present at 6 O'clock

The final arrangements for the annual tree lighting ceremony at 6 p.m. on Sunday, December 20, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, have been made, according to Miss Donna Smith, chairman of the War Memorial Youth Council.

"While the ceremony itself is being conducted by the youth of this community, it is also directed toward parents and other adults and everyone is welcome," said Miss Smith, "and we have planned the lighting early so that it will be over in time for those present to attend their own church services, if they desire."

To Give Invocation
Michael Sheehan, president of the Student Council of St. Paul's, will give the invocation. The purpose of the ceremony will be explained by Miss Martha Slovin of the Y Teens. Then, Harold Drinkaus, Hi-Y officer, will talk on the real meaning of Christmas.

Donna Smith will introduce the officers of the Pointe Youth organizations, who will join hands around the tree during the lighting.

Choir to Sing Carols
The Grosse Pointe High School choir, under the direction of Mr. John Finch, will sing Christmas carols. David Law, local Scout who has received the God and Country award, will give the benediction. Santa Claus will arrive and coffee and cocoa will be served in the Center.

A Sorry Situation

Soldiers stationed at the Anti-Aircraft Artillery camps in the Pointe aren't getting much help from the residents in their efforts to make Christmas a merry day for some 30 under-privileged youngsters who will be their holiday guests.

It should be made clear that the soldiers didn't ask for any help. But when it was learned that they had invited these children from the Detroit Emergency Shelter to share their Christmas dinner with them, it was suggested by Col. Walter Allard that it would be nice if the Pointe residents would give the project a boost by contributing towards getting some presents for the soldiers to give the kids.

Col. Allard is chairman of the Veterans' Committee at the War Memorial Center. He served with great distinction in World War II, and at the close of the war was aide to General William Dean, the most famous prisoner of the Korean War. He rose from the ranks and he remembers well what a dismal place an army camp can be, especially at Christmas time.

The suggestion that Pointe residents might like to share in the project to the point of helping the soldiers buy some presents for these youngsters, most of whom are orphans, was augmented by the suggestion that it would be a fine gesture if enough money could be raised to also buy some presents for the soldiers themselves.

It seemed perfectly reasonable to expect that there would be enough residents who would like to share the Christmas spirit with this group, to insure the success of the project. But such isn't proving to be the case, and unless many more

Women Injured As Cars Tangle

Two women were injured, one of them seriously, on Saturday, December 12, when their car collided with another at St. Clair and Charlevoix.

According to a City police accident report, Mrs. Ruth Ernst, 75, of 418 Cadieux, and her daughter-in-law, Susan Ernst, 44, same address, suffered injuries. The elder woman, fractured ribs, and the younger a bruised left elbow and arm, when a car failed to stop for the proper signal at Charlevoix, and struck theirs.

The driver of the other car, Eileen J. Rapp of 22956 Maxine, St. Clair Shores, was ticketed for causing the accident, and the two injured women were taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

The extent of damages to both cars has not been established.

Bluecoats Fete City Officials

Immediately following the City of Grosse Pointe's Council meeting Monday evening, December 14, the mayor, council and other city officials were invited across the street to the fire hall for a get-together with the police and firemen.

John Mazer, Commissioner of Public Safety for the city, stated that this was the first time such an event has occurred. He hopes that a precedent has been established because such a meeting facilitates better understanding between the governing body and the police and fire departments. The fire hall was turned into a veritable banquet room with roast beef, ham, salad, sandwiches, and coffee being served. Your reporter will attest to the excellent cooking of the firemen. He went back for three helpings.

Tax Evaders Found Guilty Of Smuggling

Pointer Sam Frontiera Called Head of Giant Ring Which Defrauded State

Sam Frontiera, 41, of 379 Chalfonte, described as the ringleader in a multimillion-dollar cigarette smuggling ring, and five of his cohorts, were found guilty on Thursday, December 10, of conspiracy to violate the Michigan Cigarette Tax Law and cheat and defraud the State.

Found guilty with Frontiera, on all counts, by a Recorder's Court jury, were Ernest Brown, 55, of 21514 Harper Lake drive, St. Clair Shores; Anthony Palazola, 32, of 2988 Gray, and Peter Monteleone, 35, of 12711 Evans-ton, both of Detroit.

Guilty On One Count
Clarence Huey, 55, of 12356 Dickerson, Detroit, was convicted on the first count only, and Dominic Asta, 39, of 5149 Maxwell, Detroit, was found guilty of only the second.

Recorder's Judge Paul E. Krause, before whom the trial was held, referred the six to the probation department pending sentence January 7. The convicted men face a maximum of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine each.

Defense attorneys plan an appeal of the verdict.

Broke Ring's Back

According to William B. Elmer, assistant attorney general, who conducted the prosecution, the verdict broke the back of one of the largest cigarette tax evasion rings ever to operate in the state. He named Frontiera as the leader of the ring which smuggled truckloads of cigarettes from St. Louis, Mo., and cities in New Jersey, and which had been operating from early 1948 to last February, when the State Police broke up the racket.

From its beginning to the time it was broken up, the ring cost the state 10 million dollars. Elmer said the cigarette tax revenue has jumped by $150,000 a month since last February.

Parked Car Paid Visit by Vandals

Mrs. Eleanor Schneider of University place, had returned to her 1950 Oldsmobile after seeing a movie at the Punch and Judy Theater Thursday evening, December 10. She had parked the car on Kercheval next to the library. Vandals had stolen the cigarette lighter, ash tray, the handle from the turn indicator, and the knob on the gear shift. They also removed the wires from the spark plugs.

Number of Liquor Licenses is Cause Of Battle in Woods

Monday Night's Council Meeting Promises to Be One of Most Vociferous in History of Municipality

Next Monday night's council meeting of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods promises to be one of the most vociferous in the history of that municipality. Hotly-worded notices are being circulated throughout the city, urging the residents to turn out and oppose an action contemplated by the officials.

The council voted by a 4-3 majority on December 7 to publish by title a new ordinance which would repeal an ordinance only a year old, helping to restrict the number of Class C and Tavern liquor licenses approved by the city.

The existing ordinance was passed after the voters balloted on November 4, 1952, on the question of the adoption of such an ordinance. The results were 5432 for, and 2075 against this ordinance, which says the Woods shall not approve nor signify its approval for the issuance of any future or additional Class C and or Tavern licenses to be issued by the Liquor Control Commission of the State of Michigan. (A municipality cannot dictate to the state on the number of licenses, but it is the policy of the state to respect the wishes of the municipality.)

The new ordinance, which has not been published by title, could not be submitted for final action before the publication, as required by city charter. It is this final action which the residents are being asked, (in the mimeographed notices being circulated), to oppose Monday night.

The motion for the repeal of the restricting ordinance was offered by Councilman Rex Johnston on December 7. It was seconded by Councilman George Heckendorn. Opposed to the motion were Councilwoman Elsie Friedrich and Councilmen Harry Pratt and Waid McKnight.

Monday night's council meeting will convene at 7:30 o'clock.

DeCausin Made Park Fire Chief

The Park council unanimously approved the status of Park Fire Chief George DeCausin from that of acting permanent fire chief, on Monday, December 14.

Chief DeCausin was made acting chief of the fire department following the retirement of Chief Edward L. Rector on August 1 of this year, pending future confirmation to a permanent rank.

His pay is now raised from $6,058, to a full chief's pay of $6,492. Chief DeCausin has 31 years of fire fighting experience behind him, starting his career with the Highland Park Fire Department in July, 1922.

He resigned to move to the Park in 1929, and immediately joined the community's fire department.

He was made senior man in charge of the ladder trucks on June 1, 1929; and on May 2, 1942 was promoted to captain.

He and his wife, Irene, live at 1458 Maryland. They have no children.

Death Takes Karl Goddard In Florida

Former President and Councilman of Grosse Pointe Park, Succumbs in South

The Park council on Monday, December 14, unanimously expressed approval of forwarding a resolution to the family of the late Karl B. Goddard, well loved and respected former official of the Park, who died in St. Petersburg, Fla., on December 10, at the age of 67.

Mr. Goddard was born on September 15, 1886, in Harvard, Ill., and was a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School in 1910.

He was the senior partner of the law firm of Goddard, McClintock, Fulton and Donovan, and had been associated with the firm for 40 years.

He became intimately associated with the Park government at the time of the Ferguson Grand Jury investigating corruptive government in that city in 1940.

He took over the reins of government in the Park in March 1940, and served up to his retirement in March 1944, during which time he was Village president. He was later appointed commissioner to fill a vacancy, serving in this capacity from March 1945 to 1946; and then again was commissioner from March 1948 until the Park incorporated as a city on December 14, 1950.

A resolution presented to Mr. Goddard at the time of his final retirement, stated that during the period of his public service, the community had witnessed many beneficial developments in its local government affairs.

Among the benefits he is credited with bringing about are:

Koffee Prefers Lipstick Diet

Kay Yonkers, a student at Grosse Pointe High School, has a brown poodle named Koffee, who thinks lipsticks are a common diet for a dog.

Koffee's passion for the red goo is so great that he will even open drawers in search for a tube. When he finishes eating he will prance gleefully about the house showing off his red chops and leaving red footprints on the carpets.

Wouldn't Koffee have fun in a women's dormitory?

Goodfellows Raise $6,248 Despite Horrible Weather

Water-logged and tired, the policemen, firemen, and Lion's Club members, some of whom had been on the streets since four a.m., selling papers for the Goodfellows' Fund, wearily emptied their collection coffers Monday noon, ending the 25th anniversary of the newspaper sale.

Plagued by the worst weather in the history of the sale, the volunteer newsboys weathered slush and snow at busy intersections and the shopping areas in the Pointe.

Co-chairman for the sale, Carl Schweikart, announced that a total of $6,248 was collected. This was about $1,600 less than last year, but again, the unbearable weather accounted for the deficit when compared to previous years. The shopping areas, which normally bring in a large amount of money, were almost void of shoppers Monday morning. The Lion's Club called the sale a phenomenal success considering the adverse conditions. They credited the unselfish service of the many police and firemen for this success.

After the sale the Lion's Club members, by their own contributions, gave a luncheon in the Detroit Turners for the police and firemen who helped in the drive.

For those who did not get a chance to make a contribution, it is not too late. Checks may be sent to either one of the co-chairmen for the sale: Carl Schweikart, 15303 E. Jefferson, or James N. McNally, 2016 Guardian building.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Choral numbers by Palestrina, Victoria, Bach, Healey Willan, Gustav Holst, Ralph Vaughan Williams, and Benjamin Britten will be among those heard at the annual Christmas concert of the Rackham Symphony Choir, Maynard Klein, conducting. The event will be held at the Rackham Educational Memorial at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 22. There is no charge for admission.

Set to Start Construction Of Building

Three Main Contracts on Auditorium - Gymnasium At High School Total $831,948

Bids for the construction of the new auditorium-gymnasium on the High School campus are well within the $995,000 approved for this purpose by voters last spring. The bids were opened at a meeting of the Board of Education on Wednesday night, December 9.

The Kriehoff Company, low bidder for the general contract, was awarded the job at a figure of $631,170.

Gray Electrical Co. won the electrical contract with the low bid of $52,725.

One Bid Confusing

There was some confusion over the heating and plumbing bid when the low bidder announced that it had made a mistake in figuring the bid and it should be $10,000 more than the amount quoted. This concern asked to be released.

The second low bidder, the L. L. McConachie Co. put in a bid of $148,053. The Board of Education held a special meeting Tuesday morning and approved the awarding of the contract for plumbing and heating to the McConachie concern.

$120,000 for Equipment
Total of the three bids and architect's fees estimated at about $410,000, comes to $872,948, or more than $120,000 under the amount approved in the bond issue for the structure.

The school officials feel this amount affords a comfortable leeway to take care of equipping the building and other contingencies.

The bleacher seats will be purchased through independent competitive bids, rather than through the general contractor. It is estimated these will cost between $30,000 and $40,000.

To Build It in Year

The contractors have stated they can break ground almost immediately and estimate it will take 365 calendar days to complete the structure. If this schedule can be maintained, the new building would be ready for use by the middle of the 1954-55 basketball season.

Drinking Driver Lands in Hospital

When David John Gauthier of 22079 Donald, in Detroit, failed to stop for the sign at the intersection of Grosse Pointe boulevard and Moross road Friday night, December 11, he found his car and himself in mighty poor condition when the car finally came to rest against a tree.

Gauthier was in poor condition before the crash, as he was ticketed for drunken driving.

Before hitting the tree in front of 50 Moross, the car knocked down a light and plowed through a hedge. Gauthier was taken to Bon Secours Hospital and kept under surveillance until Saturday morning, when he was released.

Using Yule Tree For Second Year

The price of Christmas trees seems to be climbing higher and higher each year. It would be a sizeable sum if we added up the cost of our family's trees for the past five years.

Last year Harry W. Short of Harvard road, bought a tree and sprayed it with white paint. When the time arrived to take it down, his wife suggested that he hang it in the garage and maybe it would be all right to use again the following year.

Short recently cut the tree down from its 11 months' roost in the garage and found it to be in perfect condition. It hadn't even lost any of its needles.

"It looks like we'll have that tree around for a long time to come," said Short, "I might even mention it in my will."

POLICE DO GUARD DUTY

While Woods police were making routine check-ups of the stores along Mack avenue Thursday evening, December 10, they discovered that a large window had blown out in the Food Fair Market. They called the manager and stood by until he arrived.

Church Group Selling Trees

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Men's Club has acquired two temporary lots needed to conduct their third annual Christmas tree sales, for the benefit of the church.

Because they felt that beautiful Christmas trees are so much a part of the Yuletide festivities, the club has arranged to sell choice selections of Scotch Pine, Balsam and spruce trees, at conveniently located lots, the southeast corner of Warren and Bishop road; and 17500 Mack at Neff road.

Everyone is urged to buy early to avoid the last minute rush. All funds derived from the sale of the trees will be turned over to the Building Fund Committee of the church.

The club, which has chosen "Top Quality Trees for a Top Spiritual Purpose" as their motto during the sale, are hoping the venture will prove as big a success as last year.

realization of true Council-Manager form of government; very material debt reduction; adoption of pay-as-you-go policy and achievement of a sound financial condition; the adoption of the principle of city planning, cordial and close relations and cooperation with the other Pointe communities; and above all, achieving home rule for the city.

The resolution also stated that Mr. Goddard, as President and Commissioner for public affairs exercised a unifying influence within the Village Commission, held the confidence of the community, and enjoyed, without exception, the special respect of all municipal officers and employees.

His death was a blow to the Park council and other city officials, his close friends and the city at large.

Following his retirement, Mr. Goddard and his family moved to St. Petersburg to make a permanent home.

Mr. Goddard is survived by his wife, Ethel H.; a son, John L.; a daughter, Mrs. R. R. Reed; a sister, Mrs. T. R. Strobbridge of La Grange, Ill.; and a brother, Paul, of Hollywood, Calif.

Burial was in St. Petersburg.

Baby Abandoned in Pointe Beaten in Boarding Home

The operator of a former State-licensed children's boarding home at 12618 Helen, Ecorse Township, was found guilty of cruelty to children by a Circuit Court jury on Monday, December 14.

The jury, composed of 10 men and two women, returned the verdict before Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan, establishing the charge against Mrs. Edith May Hubbard.

Mrs. Hubbard was found to have beaten little John Patwin, the abandoned waif, who was found in a field at Kercheval and Provençal with a fractured skull, in July, 1952.

At that time, the little tike was discovered in a shopping bag by Merrill Wall, Jr., of Detroit, who happened by. The baby was rushed to Cottage Hospital, where dotting nurses gave him the name of Johnny.

Many persons sought adoption of the child, but the Children's Aid Society placed him in the care of a couple, carefully screened for qualifications as parents.

Last July, Johnny's parents placed him in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hubbard, who had a state-licensed home in Ecorse Township.

While under their care, it came to light that Johnny and another child, Jerry Dotson, 3, had been severely beaten, and the couple were accused of administering the punishment.

Johnny, examining doctors discovered, had been beaten half to death, suffering deep lacerations on the right side of the face, and a two-inch welt, stretching from his jaw to his ear on the left side of his face.

Jerry suffered cracked swollen lips from repeated blows on the mouth, and was a mass of black and blue welts from shoulder blades to knees.

At the time the couple denied beating the children, but their license was revoked and they were remanded for examination and then placed on bond pending trial.

Mrs. Hubbard, as established by the jury, was found guilty of inflicting the beating on Johnny; her husband is still awaiting trial for the beating of the other little boy.

State law provides a maximum of four years in prison for persons convicted of cruelty to children.

CAROLERS AFLOAT

On Saturday afternoon, December 12, Shores police answered a call for help at 1020 Lake Shore road. George Knight told them that he had heard shouts from the lake. They found two young boys sitting in a rowboat singing Christmas carols. They were told to do their caroling from land.

City's Park Project Bonds Sold at Low Interest Rate

The Grosse Pointe City Council met Monday evening, December 14, to open the sealed bids for the $235,000 bond issue which was passed in the city election of November 3.

After carefully reviewing the several bids submitted, the council voted unanimously to award the contract to the lowest bidder, the firm of Kenower-MacArthur. The bonds are scheduled for 20 years payment but may be redeemed in 15 years. The first 15 years maturities are non-callable.

The interest rate the city will pay is a low 2.01 percent.

An interesting fact pointed out by councilman Alonzo C. Allen, is that the City's bonds seem to be worth more to financial houses than those of other Pointe municipalities. He stated that the Farms accepted bids last May 18, for a bond issue to finance its park improvements. The Farms had to pay an interest rate of 2.42 percent. The October 12 bond issue of the Shores for sewer improvements calls for 2.36 percent.

Final specifications will be submitted to City Clerk Norbert Neff this week, and will also have to meet the approval of the council. The engineering bids will be accepted in January. Construction will then commence when the weather permits. It is hoped that the project will be completed by June 1, 1954.

Lucky Cyclist Struck by Car

Twelve year old Richard Bruneau is a lucky boy to be walking around today. On Tuesday afternoon, December 8, young Richard was riding his bicycle south on Moross road. He did not stop at the red light on Lake Shore, but continued on into the lane of traffic moving eastward.

Joseph Russo of Alger road, in Detroit, could not avoid driving into the boy. The impact was so great that Richard and the bike were knocked into the driveway at the entrance to the Farms Municipal Pier. Police arrived and took the shaken-up youngster to Bon Secours Hospital. After a thorough examination, which disclosed no injuries, Richard was released.

Russo was completely exonerated from all blame.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (FHTNC)—NAVY LT. (jg) WARREN S. PARR, JR., recently returned here from an eight-month tour of duty in the Far East aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Boxer.

A veteran pilot of 126 missions over Korea, Lt. (jg) Parr is the son of Rear Admiral Warren S. Parr, USN, and Mrs. Parr of 3292 S. Glebe road, Arlington, Va., and husband of the former Miss Marilyn J. Buck of 851 Pemberton road, Grosse Pointe, Mich.

He currently resides at 569 Savoy street, San Diego, Calif. He was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., in 1949.

Park Acquires New Controller

Following the recommendations submitted by Park City Manager Everett B. Lane, the Park council on Monday, December 14, approved the appointment of Warren E. Schnoes of 28900 Little Mack, St. Clair Shores, as the city's new Controller.

Mr. Schnoes is a graduate of the Walton School of Commerce, where he did special work, majoring in cost accounting and finance.

He was associated with the L. A. Young Spring and Wire corporation, where he handled the accounting, cost, payroll and government reports. Previous to that he was finance auditor for the U. S. Gypsum Company in Illinois.

From 1942 to 1944, he was assistant auditor for the McMillan Seed company in that same state.

The Park has been without a regular Controller since William Johnson left in July, 1952, to live in Birmingham, Mich.

Mrs. Marion Marentette, assistant controller, had taken over the regular duties of the office, since Mr. Johnson's departure.

Mr. Schnoes will assume his duties on January 1, at a salary of $7,000, Mr. Lane said.

Champine and Carey At Camp Pendleton

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (FHTNC)—Undergoing four weeks of individual combat training at the Marine Corps base here are Marine Privates First Class Timothy A. Champine of 28 Moran, and James J. Carey of 671 Westchester, both of Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Before assignment here, the trainees were promoted to private first class after successful completion of 10 weeks of intensive training at the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

The fellow who always looks on the bright side of life is not likely to be accused of shady transactions.

Students Making Survey Of Pointe Jobs Available

Members of the Junior Guidance Council at Grosse Pointe High School are making a job survey of business concerns in the Grosse Pointe area.

They are trying to acquaint employers with the placement service of Grosse Pointe High School and to make a list of establishments where jobs might become available. Jobs are needed for students and graduates, both part-time and full-time.

The Council also made up questionnaires which were distributed to students at Grosse Pointe High School to find out in what vocations the students are interested. Speakers will talk to students about these careers so they can get a better idea of what training they will need for them.

Charles Verheyden, president of the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Association, spoke to the Council Tuesday, December 15, about how the Council can get the cooperation of the merchants and which speakers would be the best to talk about vocations.

The Junior Guidance Council is in its first year at Grosse Pointe High School. Senators of the Student Association chose the representatives of grades eight through twelve to serve on the Council. Sue Brown represents the eighth grade, Carol Bayless and Jim Book, the ninth, Bill Squire and Corky Cross, the tenth, Gwen Waite and Judy Westphal, the eleventh, and Randy Fitch and King Patterson represent the twelfth grade.

Cars Gently Nudge Each Other at Mack Crossover

There must be some sort of magnetic attraction between the car of Caroline Sue Amrine of Hunt Club, in Harper Woods, and the car owned by Robert R. Kunkel of Opal, in Detroit.

At 5:30 in the afternoon of December 9, both cars were going opposite directions on Mack avenue. When they approached the cross-over near Vernier they both turned left, nudging into each other. The damage to both cars was slight as they only rubbed noses.

Admits Forcing Driver to Curb

Farms police have located the boys who forced to the curb a car driven by John Scott, Jr., on the night of November 18.

Working on the single clue that the car was a 1948 Lincoln convertible, the police found it parked in the driveway at 587 Fisher road. It is owned by David Erhardt of the same address.

He confessed forcing Scott to the curb and named his accomplice as Robert Dorsten of Ashland, in Detroit. The boys will be arraigned in court January 6, on a disorderly conduct charge.

Find Stolen Car Parked in Farms

The Farms police in cooperation with Detroit police recovered a 1953 Hudson which had been stolen on December 9.

The car was found the same afternoon, parked on Beverly near Grosse Pointe boulevard. A check proved the owner to be Simon Olson of Phillip avenue in Detroit. He picked up his car at the Farms police station.

Open Car Door Injures Cyclist

A motorist was ticketed by City police on Thursday, December 10, for opening the door of her parked car and causing a cyclist to run into it.

William Hendrie, 58, of 293 Webster, while cycling west on Waterloo, arrived at the intersection of Waterloo and St. Clair, just as Mary Mathlesson Dye, 29, of 110 Merriweather, parked her car at the curb and opened the left door to emerge.

Hendrie ran into the door; as it was opened, and was knocked from his bike, injuring his arm when he hit the pavement.

Mrs. Dye was given a ticket for interfering with traffic and causing an accident; Hendrie was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment and released.

Pointers Playing Important Parts in Running Auto Club

Mervyn G. Gaskin of 731 Oxford road was unanimously elected to the board of directors of Automobile Club of Michigan at a meeting in the Detroit Athletic Club on Thursday, December 10. He was also elected a member of the board of governors of the Detroit Inter-Insurance Exchange.

Grosse Pointe-area directors elected for three-year terms include J. Lee Barrett of 38 Newberry, and Edward J. Weeks of 650 S. Oxford road. Weeks retired this week from a two-year term as president, with Clarence E. Otter of Bloomfield Hills replacing him.

Present directors include Charles T. Bush of 1007 Three Mile drive; Ralph Thomas of 222 Merriweather road, and Jesse G. Vincent of 961 Trombley road.

"Gaskin assumes Auto Club directorship at a time when it is the world's largest motor club, with membership at an all-time high of 400,000 motorist-members," Weeks said.

Gaskin is president of Taylor and Gaskin, Inc., of Detroit, and head of Indiana Bridge Co. in Muncie, Indiana. He has been a continuous member of Auto Club since 1927. Gaskin is a world-traveler and photography enthusiast, having covered South America and the Orient with his camera. He has traveled extensively in the U. S. and understands the problems of the auto owner.

Born 53 years ago in Georgetown, British Guiana, Gaskin came to Detroit in 1925 after graduating from McGill University in Montreal, Canada. He and his wife, Margaret, have three children, Michael, 19; Victoria Louise, 17, and David M., 13.

A long list of community jobs identifies Gaskin with civic service. He is currently civil defense administrator of Grosse Pointe Woods; a vestryman of Grosse Pointe's Christ Church; a director of St. Peter's Home for Boys; trustee of the Detroit Memorial Hospital; member of the Detroit Museum of Arts Founders Society; Treasurer of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; past president and director of Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club. He maintains the Mervyn G. Gaskin Foundation, a charitable trust.

MERVYN G. GASKIN

He is a member of Kiwanis Club No. 1 in Detroit; Knights Templar, Detroit Commandery No. 1, and a Shriner. He is chairman of the Code of Standards and Practices of the American Institute of Steel Construction; a member of American Welding Society and American Ordnance Association.

Gaskin's post as an Automobile Club of Michigan director will be in the nature of civic service, for neither directors nor officers receive remuneration for the jobs.

Officers elected to head the Club for 1954 include, in addition to President Otter: Henry S. Hulbert, first vice-president; Charles L. Wilson, second vice-president; Frank J. Howlett, third vice-president; Ralph Thomas, secretary; and J. Lee Barrett, treasurer.

Soldier of The Week at Aberdeen, Maryland

PVT. HILLYARD R. PIERCE, JR., after a thorough investigation of his ability as a soldier, was selected as one of the two outstanding "Soldiers of The Week" from among 6,000 men in the Ordnance Corps at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland. Presenting Pvt. Hillyard a certificate and expressing his congratulations is COL. ROBERT P. WILSON, commander of the Ordnance Corps. The following letter was forwarded to the soldier's pleased parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hillyard R. Pierce, Sr., of Manor road:

Mr. Hillyard R. Pierce, Sr.
481 Manor
Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich.

Dear Mr. Pierce:

It is my pleasure to inform you that your son, Hillyard R. Pierce, Jr., has been chosen as one of the two outstanding "Soldiers of The Week" in recognition of his outstanding performance of duty. Private Pierce has distinguished himself by his courage to tackle any assignment, determination to stick to the job, basic appreciation for his fellows, respect for discipline, and leadership ability. You as his father are also to be congratulated, for these qualities show he has had a happy and well adjusted home life.

No hasty decision was made in selecting Private Pierce. The men in our training companies are being constantly surveyed, both by our company cadre and the officers, and after careful consideration, your son was chosen from a group of some 6,000 men.

Basic training is the most difficult phase of his military career due to the transition from civilian to military status. It is a period of training in the fun-mental amount of time is devoted to toughening a soldier mentally as well as physically to stand up under rigorous service in the field. Your son in his training has demonstrated an unusual ability to master these obstacles. I am enclosing a photograph taken when your son was presented with a certificate attesting to his selection as one of the two outstanding "Soldiers of the Week". I have also presented an autographed copy to Private Pierce.

We are proud and extremely fortunate in having a soldier of your son's caliber serving in the Armed Forces of our country. Sincerely,

Robert P. Wilson
Colonel, Ord. Corps

Hits Parked Car On Mack Avenue

Mrs. Edith M. Waldbott of Bal-four road was going east on Mack avenue on Thursday afternoon, December 10, when her eyes strayed from the road for just one moment.

Her car plowed into the rear of a 1949 Packard owned by Mrs. G. V. Wager of Harvard. The Packard was parked at the south curb facing east. Extent of damage to Mrs. Waldbott's Plymouth was considerable, but only slight to the Packard.

Church to Hold Special Service

Faith Lutheran Church, E. Jefferson and Phillip, will again have its traditional duplicate Christmas Eve Services at 8 and 10:30 p.m. Rev. Charles Lange and Rev. Clyde Showalter are the pastors.

The candle-light services will be held in a festively decorated church. Nova M. Bransky will be at the console of the organ. Directing the 90 voice choirs will be Prof. W. E. Crist and Mrs. Grace Samson.

The combined choirs will sing, "Bethlehem" by Goldsworthy and "O Holy-Night." "Voices of the Sky" by Matthews.

Soloist will be Mrs. Elsa Pengelly.

A string trio from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will accompany the choir on this anthem as well as play a prelude and offertory. Members of the string trio are: Emily Mutter Adams, violinist; Eugenia Kuhnle, harpist; and Edward Korkkigan, cellist.

The trio and organ will play traditional Christmas Carols for 15 minutes preceding the service at 8 and 10:30 p.m. The sermon "God Comes to Earth" will be delivered by the Rev. C. H. Lange.

Report Submitted By Health Head

Grosse Pointe's Commissioner of Health, Dr. Thomas Davies reports for the month of November, 34 communicable diseases including 12 from Harper Woods. These consisted mostly of chicken pox, scarlet fever, and mumps. Each disease plagued 9 persons.

The measles and poliomyelitis attacked six more people, three each. Pertussis and pneumonia accounted for the other two illnesses.

Animal bites totaled 27, and an unusual event was the biting of 11 children by one dog at school recess. The dog was being teased and was not rabid.

Children Drawn To New Library

By Ben Sharp

"Sometimes I come to the library every day," said Jim Clarke, 10, of 489 Fisher Road, and an enthusiastic young patron of the new Central Library. He said that he had not gone to the library often before the new branch was opened, and was impressed with the large building, the amount of light and number of books.

Of the librarians Jim went on to say, "They are very nice, and are friendly when they help me select books." Probably one of the biggest attractions of the new library for all children is the story hour. The comfortable seating arrangement was another feature the children liked.

Gordon Yates, 12, of 1000 Harvard, said that he liked the racks on which suggested books for children were displayed. He also liked the friendly librarians.

Tom Smith, 12, of 1311 Harvard, said that he enjoyed the Calder mobile which hangs from the ceiling of the library. He said that he would rather go to the Central Library than to the old branch at Pierce School, although he is equi-distant from both. Both Tom and Gordon like the modern architecture of the building, and the special children's librarian.

If such boys as these three are representative of all children, books are very likely to give such media as television, radio, and movies good, stiff competition.

Labor Relations Subject of Talk

By Ben Sharp
G.P.H.S. Journalism Student

"How our labor problem is solved depends upon the quality of leaders we get at the local union level." Mr. William H. Granse, labor relations lawyer, told Miss Kathryn Sheedy's commercial law class at Grosse Pointe High School.

Mr. Granse went on to say that both union and management are important to the country, and that the 14 to 16 million union members in the country today need representation.

Mr. Granse spoke on the background of labor laws from the year 1900. He explained that at that time labor was considered as any other commodity on the market, and this opinion was upheld by the courts.

However, the picture changed completely with the passing of the Wagner Act, or the National Labor Relations Act. Mr. Granse stated that he considered the Taft-Hartley Act to be an amendment to the Wagner Act, and as a balancing of the scales between labor and management.

One important feature of the Taft-Hartley Act, he explained, was the provision whereby all labor board rulings were made fully subject to review by the Federal Courts of Appeals.

"There are exaggerations on the part of both management and unions, which tend to make the problems seem bigger than they really are, and increase the tension on both sides," Mr. Granse said. He feels that if exaggerations are avoided and tempers are held, most labor and management difficulties can be settled by discussion.

News Notes From D. U. S.

Hans W. Becherer, a 1953 graduate of the Detroit University School, has been named by the dean's office as one of the scholarship winners at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. Becherer is a freshman.

One of the subjects now occupying the attention of alumni, faculty, and trustees of D.U.S. and Country Day is mulling over possible names for the new school when the construction work now moving forward so rapidly on Cook road is completed and when, (next fall, it is hoped), the two institutions share the same campus. The name then will be neither D.U.S. nor C.D.S. but perhaps one which embodies something of both old names, or one which is completely new. Alumni are being polled for suggestions and for their reaction to a variety of possibilities which have already been proposed. The final decision will be in the hands of the trustees.

The winter program is now in full swing at D.U.S. Special activities are available to pupils in the afternoon, among them photography, fly-casting, riflery, creative writing, story hour, library techniques, word derivation, and archery.

Grades 10 through 12 made a field trip recently, with some of the fathers of the boys serving as their chauffeurs, to the G.M. proving grounds. The boys were given rides in some of the cars that were being given test-runs.

Mr. John Conley of the D.U.S. faculty will represent the Detroit chapter of the American Association of the Teachers at the National A.A.T.F. meeting in Chicago during the Christmas vacation.

Last week's assembly speaker in the Friday morning series was Dr. Henry Hitt Crane of Central Methodist Church, Detroit. On this Friday Dr. Hugh Stalker of Grosse Pointe, school physician, will show color slides of his travels in Italy last summer.

Dr. Erville B. Maynard of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, is conducting an afternoon discussion group as a winter activity open to interested upper classmen.

Last weekend in Chicago Mr. John Suter of the D.U.S. faculty and Edgar Honbert and Andrew Barr, both of the 11th grade, attended the annual conference devoted to the subject of religious education. The conference is sponsored by the independent schools of the country.

The traditional Detroit University School Christmas program will take place this Friday afternoon at 2:15 p.m. The boys of the lower school will present a Christmas play under the direction of Miss Patricia Texter.

Glee club and carol singing will be under the direction of Mrs. Hortense Robinson. The St. Luke Christmas story will be

To Spread Cheer Christmas Morn

By Carol Measel
Journalism II
Student, G.P.H.S.

On Christmas morning the Grosse Pointe High School A Capella Choir, directed by Mr. John Finch, will bring to the patients of Michigan Memorial Hospital a little of the Christmas joy by presenting a program of special Christmas music.

The 70 voice choir will go through the wards of the hospital singing carols. They will not go through the TB wards, but their doors will be opened so that the patients can hear the choir as they go through the halls.

The songs that will be sung are: "Hospodi Pomili," "Bless This House," "The Lord's Prayer," "Silent Night," and "The Song of Christmas." Solo parts in "The Song of Christmas" will be taken by: Janice Bowlin, Dorothy Reyst, Frances Winkler, and John Pilon. The narration will be done by Rollins Betteley.

Anglers Snare Redhead in Net

Through the course of history hunters have used many devices for hunting ducks. Brad Peabody and Malcolm Foster, both Grosse Pointe High School students, netted themselves a female duck of the redhead species recently when they were fishing off Harsens Island.

cause that is just what the boys did. A flock of the feathered creatures flew overhead, but one which seemed to have been wounded, kept diving into the lake trying to commit suicide. When the duck had tired itself the boys scooped it up with a fish net.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By
Jana Schermerborn

The Pointe's Mrs. J. C. Davenport has been invited to appear on Edward R. Murrow's inspiring This I Believe... and will probably keep the radio date in early January... We can only claim the Davenports as "temporary Pointers" since their presence here is due to Lieut. Davenport's being stationed at Selfridge with air sea rescue... We are not surprised that the editorial committee of This I Believe (besides Mr. Murrow, it includes Raymond G. Swing, and Ward Wheelock) reached into the Pointe for the fascinating Mrs. D... Her philosophy sends your mind and thoughts soaring... For three years, she lived in Japan while the lieutenant was stationed there... and through friends in her native California boasted contacts with the Japanese which most Americans wouldn't have... She was soon writing a column for So-En, the Japanese Vogue, on fashions... (she was a professional designer before her marriage)... and now keeps busy at her typewriter as she contributes articles to three Japanese magazines and five newspapers...

Started a Fashion Show

One column is called "We Americans" and does much to interpret the ways of the Western World to the Japanese... whom Mrs. Davenport finds have a delicious sense of humor... She is really responsible for the great fashion wave that has swept Japan... Her first story for a Tokyo newspaper suggested Japanese women needed full length mirrors... She was besieged by requests from Japanese designers to approve their fashions... by women's groups for talks on Western fashions and how to dress in "good taste"... She writes in English and all revenue from her work goes to the translator who puts it into Japanese... The Davenports hope to live in Japan some day... As a matter of fact she is going to Tokyo in February for a visit and reunion with friends and business acquaintances over there... We'll keep you posted when the Davenport Date for This I Believe is set... we know you'll want to listen...

Her Christmas Spirit

Mrs. Davenport told us that while Japan celebrates Christmas in a small way... New Year is the big holiday... festivities last for ten days... She'll never forget the odd sensation it was to see the Japanese version of Mary (in kimono)... For her own Christmas, Mrs. Davenport long ago abandoned the commercial side of Christmas... Instead she sends gift packages to needy families all over the world... Europe, England, the Orient... In each she places the name of one of her own good friends here in the United States... that friend is notified by a note telling about the family and the package through which they have said Merry Christmas with her...

Carol Sanford Bride Of David A. Coolidge

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford of Hillcrest Road Speaks Vows With Son of Mrs. Frank Wellington Coolidge in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church

Guests watched the new Mr. and Mrs. David Allen Coolidge clasp a be-ribboned silver knife and cut their five tiered wedding cake last Saturday evening in Lochmoor Club.

The fashionable reception followed the 8 o'clock wedding, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, of the former Carol Hemingway Sanford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford of Hillcrest road, and the son of Mrs. Frank Wellington Coolidge of Rivard boulevard and the late Mr. Coolidge.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Paul Ketchum and the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. John K. Coolidge of Grand Rapids.

A portrait gown of all over lace with its bouffant skirt designed floor length, was worn by the bride. Distinguishing the front of the gown was a center panel of pleated nylon net.

Carol's frothy bridal veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by snug fitting lace cap, embroidered in pearls and edged in sparkling white satin.

She carried stephanotis centered with a white orchid and backed by polished camellia and ivy leaves in her bouquet.

A trio of attendants was gown-ed in aqua taffeta, brief jackets covering the halter necklines. The pouf skirts fell waltz length and all wore bands of deeper aqua velvet in their hair.

Joan Ruby, as maid of honor, carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations and ivy while the bridesmaids, Mrs. Arthur Warrnett and Mrs. Charles Daniels Jr. had arrangements of pale pink carnations and ivy.

Frank W. Coolidge Jr. came from Glencoe, Ill. to be his brother's best man and the bridesmen were James S. Sanford, Moffett Field, San Francisco, and John E. Sanford, of Ann Arbor, brothers of the bride; Russell E. Dexter Jr., Palmer T. Heenan, Richard Durant and Phelps Trix of Grosse Ile.

A floor touching gown of dusty rose nylon net frosted in taffeta leaves was chosen by Mrs. Sanford for her daughter's wedding. She wore a small matching chapeau and her flowers were Amazon lilies.

Mrs. Coolidge attended the ceremony in pastel green chiffon with iridescent sequins trimming the jacket. Her small hat blended with her costume and her flowers were green orchids.

The young Coolidges left their wedding reception for a honeymoon in Florida. They will return to the Pointe in time for Christmas with their families and after Jan. 15 will be at home on Rivard boulevard.

For traveling, the bride donned a light blue gray wool suit with wispy navy hat, navy accessories and a fur jacket.

Out of town wedding guests here for the ceremony included Mrs. L. Myers Lippincott of Jackson, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Frazer and their daughter, Carol, of Flint; Mrs. Frank Wellington Coolidge Jr., of Glencoe, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. John K. Coolidge Jr. of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Randolph Adams, Mrs. Walter Pomeroy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noble, all of Ann Arbor.

Yale Dance Lifts Lid On Christmas Parties

Annual Dance at Country Club of Yale Alumni Association Will Touch Off the Merry Christmas Season in the Pointe; The Grunyons to Entertain During Party

The Christmas season really arrives in the Pointe this Saturday evening with the Yale Alumni Association's annual dance at the Country Club.

This is the way the Yale group swells its scholarship fund each year in addition to providing the social calendar with a sparkling event.

It's the time when the debs step out in their first holiday finery—when old grads cast a discerning eye over the under-graduate . . . when Yale men and their wives meet for gay cocktail parties and dinners before the dance.

One of the largest groups gathering for cocktails will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hefferan who will entertain in their home on Merriweather road. Later all will attend a subscription dinner at the Country Club before the dance.

The Hefferan party list will comprise:

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Krag, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Black Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Hal F. Smith Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Buhr, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Buell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Laurence Buell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Burt R. Shurly (he's president of the Alumni Association); Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Moore, Mrs. Charles G. Warren Jr., Mrs. Ewald Loud, Washburn Wright, Thomas B. Mann, James McEvoy Jr., Ledyard Mitchell and Palmer Walling.

A subscription dinner at the Little Club follows the cocktail party which Mr. and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams will give in their Hillcrest road home.

The Williams' guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Redfield and their daughter, Randi, who are coming from Harbor Beach to spend the week-end; Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah V. Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brooks Begg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Semple.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Standart Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James W. Standart, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Little III, Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler and Mr. and Mrs. Read H. Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford II will entertain at cocktails and dinner in their Provencal road home and among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clifford Ford Jr., Mr. F. C. Ford is chairman of the dance this year.

Attending the dance together is the group which includes Mr. and Mrs. John C. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. William Sawden and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kinzie who plan to dine at the Country Club earlier in the evening.

Another Country Club dinner party will include Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright III, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McGraw.

As subscription dinner at the Country Club will also precede the dance for Mr. and Mrs. Ford Ballantyne Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briggs Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Edwards Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wood.

Planning to entertain at cocktails and dinner in their McKinley road home are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin M. Walker whose guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. William Loud, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strong, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hoag, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Millegan.

During the evening's party, the glee club—The Grunyons, will sing for the guests. Before that the Grunyons and their wives will attend a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bodycombe to be followed by dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Parcels Jr.

Grunyons, and their wives, are: Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sladen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Sutter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Tilley, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Wilson and Murray Dodge and Lawrence J. Verdier.

Mrs. Gallette Hostess at Tea

Fellow art students who attend Lee Smith's classes at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, were invited to a tea party last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Peter J. Gallette of Audubon road.

Christmas decorations were used in the Gallette home and recent works of most of the guests were exhibited to add to the afternoon's fun. Mr. Smith enjoyed the afternoon with his students.

Most of the paintings were still life and subjects included a church scene, Mexican motif, and arrangements of mums.

Among the student guests were Mrs. Curtis Moody, Mrs. Morton Walbridge, Mrs. Phyllis Connel, Hazel and George Lare, Mrs. Garnet Cramer and Mrs. Jack W. Hooper.

There may be faculty changes in the school of experience, but the lessons remain the same.

Christmas Choir To Sing for Sick

After weeks of practice, a Christmas Choir under the direction of Miss Florence Trombly, will make its annual trip to nearby hospitals and an old folks' home on Friday, December 18.

High school students, grade school children, housewives and businessmen have joined to make this the best choir ever. The youngest are Elaine Shametro, three and a half, from Detroit and Christ Graulich, five, from Roseville. Bink Butterly from Grosse Pointe Woods will lead the group.

Besides the traditional carols, a new song, "Let There Be Light," will be featured for the first time. This is an original composition by Miss Trombly.

Smith Misses Luncheon Guests

The Smith Club of Detroit will fete the college's undergraduates at a luncheon in the Country Club of Detroit on Tuesday.

Officers of the club, who will act as hostesses for the occasion, include Mrs. Allen M. Lomax, president; Mrs. Phillip Moon, vice president; Mrs. Brian Sullivan, secretary, and Mrs. Richard Van Dusen, treasurer.

Mrs. Frederick C. Bahr En Route to Nassau

For the next six months, Mrs. Frederick C. Bahr's address will be the British Colonial Hotel in Nassau. She will be associated with the hotel during her stay. Before leaving for Nassau on Tuesday, Mrs. Bahr went to Emerton, Va. to visit her mother, Mrs. Fairfax Griffith at her home. Springtime will find the young Bahrs visiting their mother at the resort. They include Jean, who'll be Christmas guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Laird of University place this year, Mary, who'll holiday in Boston, and Fred who will go to Birmingham to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renfrew for Christmas.

Birthday and Xmas Arrive Together for Stapletons

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Stapleton will be hosts at Christmas dinner and a birthday dinner at the same time this year when they entertain at their home in Bedford road. Mr. Stapleton's father, Dr. William J. Stapleton celebrates his birthday anniversary on Christmas.

D.A.R. Chapter Plans Tea Party

Honor guests will attend the Holiday Silver Tea, to be given for members of Gen. Alexander Macomb Chapter, U. S. Daughters of 1812, at the home of their corresponding secretary, Mrs. Eugene V. DeRosier, of Littlestone road, on Tuesday afternoon, December 29, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

These include: Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, honorary president-national; Mrs. Henry B. Joy, honorary vice-president-national, and the chapter's parliamentarian; Mrs. Francis C. McMath, of Merriweather road, charter member of the National Society; Mrs. Sidney C. Probert, of Kensington road, state president; Mrs. Paul J. Wolski, of Rutherford Avenue, chapter president; other state and chapter officers, and members. The honor guests will assist the hostess in receiving her guests.

Proceeds of the tea will benefit the educational and philanthropic projects of the society. Mrs. L. E. McKittrick, chairman of the ways and means committee, has assigned various duties to members of her committee, to assist the hostess throughout the afternoon.

To Give Party For Sick, Poor

The Auxiliary of the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor will give their annual Christmas Tea on Sunday, December 20, from 2 until 6 p.m. The tea will be held in the convent of 4848 Commonwealth avenue.

Arrangements were completed for the party at the home of Miss Margaret Bradford of Bishop road, who is chairman for the event.

She will be assisted by Mrs. John A. Reuter and Mrs. Raymond J. Peters; Mrs. Michael J. Swift, chairman of refreshments; Mrs. Joseph R. Nagel and Mrs. Jerry I. Planigan, publicity; Mrs. Maurice Quinn, invitations, and Mrs. Jeremiah Bresnahan, reception.

Miss Hane Doughty has extended invitations to pour at the tea table to: Mrs. Arthur Kirchner, Mrs. Michael Kearns, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Cyril Burke, Mrs. Arthur Martz, Mrs. Frank MacDonell, Mrs. William Markley, Mrs. John Van Loon and Miss Dorothy Meyer.

Still others at the tea table will be: Mrs. Percy J. Donovan, Mrs. Frank C. Smith, Mrs. Robert Powell, Mrs. Clyde Craine, Mrs. Frederick Ward, Mrs. Alfred Fisher, Mrs. John Mutschall, Mrs. Frank Kramer and Miss Anne Markley.

The proceeds from the tea enable the sisters to carry on their work in behalf of the sick poor in their own homes, and contribute food, medicine and household supplies.

GP Newcomers Plan Gala Party

The Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club will hold its ninth annual Christmas party, a dinner dance, on Saturday, December 19, at the Lakepointe Country Club, with Verne Willard and his orchestra furnishing the music.

Alumni of the club will join with the active and prospective members in the gala event which highlights the fall season of the Newcomers' social calendar.

Before the dance, several "get acquainted" parties are scheduled. The hosts and hostesses of these parties will be: Mr. and Mrs. Eldan Stahl of Neff road; Mr. and Mrs. James Hondorf of Loraine road; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson of Lochmoor road; Mr. and Mrs. George Landman of Lakepointe road; and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stuart of Cadieux road.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Carpenter of Country Club drive; Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Connell of Lathrop road; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts of Grayton road; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schwartz of Grayton road; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hausman of McMillan road.

Jr. League Glee Club Cheers Many Groups

Members of Senior Group at War Memorial Center Among Those Entertained by Talented Singers and Pianists

By Marge Addams

Members of the Junior League Glee Club are again cheering people with their beautifully constructed recitals.

Last Wednesday afternoon at the War Memorial Center, the Senior Group held its Christmas party; each member taking a gift to be delivered to the Children's Hospital.

The main feature of the afternoon was the music offered by the 20 young matrons from the Junior League. Though busy wives and mothers, they find time to contribute pleasure to young and old.

Mrs. Frank Sladen Jr., a pianist of exceptional attainment, is the director and accompanist. Mrs. Richard E. Williams, soloist, possesses rare tone and enunciation. Mrs. Bert Taylor Jr. played two delightful piano numbers.

Congratulations to them and may they continue contributing their talent to the community.

Following is the list of present Junior League Glee Club members:

Mrs. Davenport Cleveland, Mrs. Allen Edwards, Mrs. Roy Fairlamb, Mrs. James French, Mrs. William Gard, Mrs. James Gram Jr., John Hodges, and Mrs. James Humphreys Jr.

Also Mrs. Henry Kinzie, Mrs. Joseph Oeming, Mrs. John E. Park, Mrs. Walter Scotten II, Mrs. B. E. Taylor Jr., Mrs. Cleveland Thurber Jr., Mrs. H. F. Vaughan Jr., Mrs. Richard E. Williams, Mrs. William C. Boydell, Mrs. H. Hudson Mead, Mrs. Frank Sladen Jr., and Mrs. T. L. McCray.

Woods Presbyterian Groups Hold Election

Reports On Year's Accomplishments Also Heard at Annual Meeting Held On Monday, December 14

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church held its annual meeting with reports from the various officers and committees, and a resume of a very successful year's work, on Monday, December 14, 1953, at 8:15 p.m.

Two of the activities of the year were a rummage sale in October and a holiday bazaar in November. The proceeds of these activities are used in assisting with the furnishing and beautifying of the rapidly growing Woods Presbyterian Church, and in sharing in the worldwide missionary work of the National Council of Presbyterian Women.

The Rebecca Group, under the leadership of Mrs. George Miles, was the hostess group for the evening. After the meeting and dedication ceremony they served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Thomas Dewey, retiring president, presided at the business meeting. The other retiring officers are: first vice-president, Mrs. Yeatman Vestal; second vice-president, Mrs. Samuel Moorhatch; third vice-president, Mrs. Daniel Hembel; recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas Clark; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Britton, and treasurer, Mrs. Lathrop Morse.

Following the business meeting the incoming officers were installed at a very impressive candlelight ceremony in the church sanctuary. Mrs. Yeatman Vestal, program chairman, had charge of the dedication service.

She was assisted by Mrs. Andrew Rauth and Mrs. Lorne Knister. Mrs. George Gouillard made the dedication of the evening. Music was furnished by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Carl Asmus, Mrs. Frank Dettmer, Mrs. William Gamble and Mrs. Earl Peters. Mrs. Alex Alardyce was at the organ.

The following women were installed as officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Lathrop Morse; first vice-president, Mrs. Yeatman Vestal; second vice-president, Mrs. Malcolm Kreul; third vice-president, Mrs.

Charles Mulliken; recording secretary, Mrs. John Korinda; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Britton; treasurer, Mrs. Stuart McIntosh; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Richard Harrison.

After the dedication ceremony a brief business meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Lathrop Morse. The new group leaders read the names of their members for the coming year. This work was arranged by the membership chairman, Mrs. Peter Zambas.

The afternoon group leaders are the Mrs. Carl Asmus, Charles Brownell, Ward Cornwall, George Easom, William Gamble, Cecil Halbert, Elmer Murvay, William Shaffer, William Symons. The evening group leaders are the Mrs. Dale Boyles, Donald Marshall, George Miles, Floyd Seiber and Arthur Swanson.

Every member attending brought a White Christmas gift to be shared among the Delray, Dodge and St. John Community Houses.

MILLIONS PLAY BRIDGE

Playing card manufacturers report that 20,000,000 Americans play one of more games or bridge a month, the Yearbook for 1953 of the America Peoples Encyclopedia reports. The American Contract Bridge League reported an enrollment of 40,000 players in important tournaments last year and estimated that there were 500,000 duplicate players in the country.

KERBY SCHOOL

More than 400 parents attended the second meeting of the Kerby Parent-Teachers' Association on December 8. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 19.

Over 80 boys and girls gave an interesting demonstration emphasizing progression in the physical skills at Kerby School. The first grade pupils demonstrated formations, warm-up activities, ball games, and creative rhythms. The third and fourth grade pupils in their demonstration stressed the progression of the formations, warm-ups and skill in ball games.

The upper grade pupils gave an exhibition of ball games emphasizing passing, catching, and dribbling. Other exhibitions included an "Oh Johnnie Mixer" where pupils stressed whole body movements, rhythm, coordination, and working with partners.

Institute Adds Oriental Pieces

Many important new pieces of sculpture and decorative arts from China, Japan, Korea and Bali make 1953 an outstanding year of expansion for the Oriental Galleries of the Detroit Institute of Arts. These pieces are on view now.

A bronze Tiger mask with turquoise inlays from the early Chou Dynasty of China, about 1000 B.C., was purchased by a City Appropriation, bringing to Detroit an example of Chinese art almost impossible to acquire at any price today since Chinese art objects are not allowed to leave Communist China.

Three bronze chariot handles in an extraordinary state of preservation, dating from the late Chou Dynasty, about 400 B.C., were purchased through the L. A. Young Fund.

A group of dramatic, small sculptures from the tombs of the Tang Dynasty (618-907 A.D.) include two galloping horses and riders, a camel, and a quintet of musicians. Such terracotta figures were placed in the tombs to represent actual servants, concubines or animals who had previously been sacrificed and their bodies placed on top of the tombs. Mrs. Gilmore Seranton, Robert H. Tannahill and the L. A. Young Fund are the donors of these pieces.

One of the earliest and most valuable Japanese ceramics in this country, a 13th century Fu lion, is covered with thick brown glaze and made even more beautiful by the gold lacquer an expert Japanese craftsman used to repair the legs. This and two exquisite celadon bowls from Korea were purchased by the Laura Murphy Fund. A Japanese Satsuma bowl is the gift of Miss Ethel Black.

A most picturesque example of Balinese folk art is a painted linen scroll about 35 feet long and 10 inches wide which probably represents one scene from the Ramayana, an ancient religious and historical epic novel the total length of which is 50,000 lines. This 18th or 19th century work is the gift of Dr. Robert Hatt in memory of Marcella Roigneau Hatt.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Johnstone of Meadow lane has announced the engagement of their daughter, JANET NELSON, to Louis Whitfield Pierson, Jr. of Wilmette, Illinois. The bridegroom-elect's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Pierson. The engaged couple are both graduates of Northwestern University. Janet was affiliated with Alpha Phi Sorority, and Louis is a member of Kappa Kappa Epsilon. No date has been set for the wedding.

Horticultural Society Elects

The election of officers of the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society took place at the monthly meeting on December 3.

The president, Herman Hinsenkamp, and the treasurer, Frank Moulou, were reelected to another term. Newly elected officers were: vice-president, Nelson Frolund; secretary, Daniel Lutey.

Inauguration of the officers will take place in the Neighborhood Club on January 7.

St. James Plans Yule Services

St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan near Kercheval will hold a Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at 11 p.m., December 24.

The choir, under the direction of Carl Munzel, will present a "Carol Festival" of favorite Christmas songs. They will also sing Handel's "And the Glory of the Lord," "A Star Shone Out" by Davis, and "Glory to God" by Kessel.

Solos will be sung by Mrs. Charles Erdmann, soprano, Mrs. Julius Ortwein, contralto, and Paul Winkelman, tenor.

Rev. George E. Kurz will deliver a meditation on the words in Isaiah 40, "Comfort Ye My People."

Betrothal Told

Mr. William R. Ostermann of Fisher road announces the engagement of his daughter, BETTY to James Boria, son of Mrs. Misto V. Boria of Southport, Connecticut and the late Mr. Boria. The bride-elect attended Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri and her fiancé was graduated from the University of Michigan Engineering School. A summer wedding is planned.

St. James will have a family service on Christmas morning at 11 a.m. The sermon will be "Christmas Tablesux" taken from Luke 2:1-14. The choir will sing several joyous Christmas anthems.

College Holding Yule Assembly

Among the Grosse Pointe students of the Detroit Commercial College: prominent in activities at the Christmas Assembly Friday of this week at 2 o'clock are Diane Bachle, 279 LaSalle place, who presents "Christmas Eve in Olden Times"; Janice Wanless, 719 Fisher road, who gives the reading, "Keeping Christmas"; Katherine Lawrence, 1305 Buckingham road, a member of the cast of "White Shepherds Watched"; and Joan Sjoberg, 703 Lochmoor boulevard, who presents "The King's Broadcast."

Mrs. Edna Huebner, 473 LaBelle road, serves as chairman of the committee on refreshments. Following the Christmas Assembly, classes recess for the holidays, to be resumed January 4.

Xmas Customs Centuries Old

By Vera Turashoff
GPHS Journalism Student

We are all familiar with the Christmas story, but how many of us know the origin of the word Christmas and of some of our Christmas customs.

Somehow the reasons behind the origin of our Christmas symbols and customs such as Christmas trees, gifts, and caroling, have been lost and we accept them as part of our Christmas celebration without knowing why or how they began.

The word Christmas was taken from a festival in England known as Christes' messe, which they held to celebrate the birth of Christ. Christes messe meant Christ's mass, and this is where we get our word Christmas. Christmas is often represented as Xmas because it is the Greek equivalent of Ch and Ch represents Christ.

The origin of caroling is something on which authorities differ; several countries claim to be the birthplace of this custom. Music of some kind was a part of church festivals in honor of the birth of Christ from the very beginning. Some carols, evidently of pagan origin, were adopted by Christians and given new words. Many of the carols were danced as well as sung, and the word "carol" was associated with dancing until the fourteenth century. It comes from the word "carolare", a medieval ring dance accompanied by singing.

Some believe that carols sprang from mystery plays in the eighth century, which were Biblical episodes given at the churches and at fairs. The music became so popular that it was sung in the streets, and some believe that this is the way caroling really began.

The practice of giving gifts at Christmastime has become universal. The gifts brought to the Christ child by the Wise Men may well have been the origin of our present-day custom.

On the other hand, it may have grown out of the desire to represent the unselfishness of Christ. It was taught from earliest times that the gifts should carry the spirit of good will, kindness, and generosity.

The Christmas tree has become one of our most familiar symbols. In the tenth century a beautiful legend began to spread through Europe. The story said that on the night Christ was born all the trees in the forest, even those in the ice and snow, bloomed and bore fruit.

Girl Scout News

On December 18 St. Paul Girl Scout Troop 1373 will present a Christmas play and tea for the mothers. The girls had a grand time writing their own play, making their own costumes and planning the tea. Each girl will bring dainty homemade tea cakes and sandwiches.

The girls in Troop 1373 are Pamela Glynn, Janet Beaupre, Judy Benkert, Margaret Danbury, Mary Susan Duffy, Patty Erdas, Joyce Furton, Marian Kiefer, Diane Kramer, Marilyn Maertens, Diane Messacar, Kathleen Sullivan, Karen Tanghe and Maureen Wright.

The leaders of Troop 1373 are Mrs. Raymond Duffy, Jr., and Mrs. William Glynn.

Swimming classes for the second semester start on January 12, Tuesday evening, at the Grosse Pointe High School. Again, due to the class limitation, only the first 110 girls who mail the registration blank and the fee of $2.50 for the entire 10 week course to Mrs. Mitchel Andrews, 1043 Devonshire, Grosse Pointe Park, will be accepted for class membership. For all newcomers, enclose your medical card, (dated not earlier than June 1, 1953), with your check and registration blank.

Please make all checks payable to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Girls are to bring bathing suit, cap and two towels, the extra towel to be used for the hair.

Tuesday, Brownie and Girl Scout Leaders met at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church for their annual Christmas Craft Workshop. From 10 a.m. on, leaders and co-leaders were deep in berries, ribbons and cakes of spun snow, making table decorations, mantel pieces, etc. They could pick out any Christmas decorations from mountains of supplies, then "Lady-Do-It" and Phyllis Watkins would be on hand to show the group the tricks of the trade.

By mid-afternoon all the projects looked quite professional. The leaders will use some of these ideas for the troop projects. The girls brought their nose-bag lunch but coffee and tea and many lush cakes were served.

The Brownie play will be "The Shoemaker and the Elves." It will be presented again by the Wayne University on Saturday, January 30, at Pierce Junior High School Auditorium. The play is sponsored by the Brownie troops of Grosse Pointe as their money-raising project for the District Committee. There will be performances at 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m., and 3 p.m. The tickets will again be 60 cents, which proves some things haven't gone up! Look for your favorite Brownie when she rings your bell.

Three Christmas Services Planned

There will be three Christmas services at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Sunday, December 20. At 9:30 a.m. and at 11 a.m. the Rev. Paul F. Ketchum, Associate Minister, will preach on the subject "Christmas Makes a Difference."

The Chancel Choir will sing at both services while the Junior Choir will provide special Christmas music for the 9:30 service. At 7 p.m. the Church School will present the annual Christmas pageant, "The First Christmas." Directed and produced by the Rev. James W. Gillespie, Minister of Christian Education, the pageant tells the story of Christmas in music and pantomime.

The Chancel Choir, directed by Malcolm MacLean Johns, Organist and Choirmaster, and the Youth Choirs under the direction of Mario Joy Curtiss will combine to provide the musical background.

All departments of the Church School will meet at 9:30 a.m. with the exception of the Junior High Department, which will meet at 11 a.m. Special Christmas programs will be held in each department.

A new pre-nursery class for two year olds has just been started which is held every Sunday at 11 a.m. The class is taught by Mrs. Allen Neef.

The traditional Christmas Eve Service will be held on Thursday night, December 24, at 11 p.m.

Pair Tossed in Woods Jail For Trying to Collect Gift

Two members of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club were "unavoidably detained" early last week, by Woods police, who thought the pair were pilfering materials from a new building.

Lou Calcaterra, Jr., of 1130 Fairholme, and Harry C. Johnson of 1115 Wabash, Detroit, received the traditional "come along with us" tap on the shoulder by police officers, who found the pair helping themselves to concrete blocks on the site of a new building, belonging to Clem Martin, being erected in Oxford road.

Calcaterra, needing the blocks to set his cruiser on for the winter, asked Martin, a fellow member of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club, for permission to take several. This was granted, and Johnson went along to help pick up the materials.

Of course, at the time they were apprehended, the police officers did not know this, and both businessmen were taken to the Woods police station for investigation.

Calcaterra finally persuaded the police to let him call the Martin residence to clear up the matter, but Martin was not home. However, Mrs. Martin cleared up the matter and the two men were released.

According to the Grosse Pointe Exchange, the Exchange Club's official paper, the undertaker is trying to determine whether to sue the police for false arrest or Martin for conspiracy to entrap a fellow member.

Children's Books Subject of Talk

Miss Jean A. Taylor, Chief of Children's Services for the Public Library, reviewed the current crop of books for young people at the Sunday afternoon meeting sponsored by the Friend of the Grosse Pointe Public Library last Sunday.

Miss Taylor, giving special thought to Christmas book gifts for children, told the group about many of the interesting volumes which have been brought out this year. Explaining the difficulty of classifying books too strictly by age, Miss Taylor divided her recommendations into books for "the youngest," "the middle group," and "the oldest."

She quickly and interestingly briefed the stories and their treatments, to give her audience an excellent idea of each book and its appeal.

Miss Taylor talked to the group in the pleasant comfortable Adult Reading Room, where a log fire burned brightly in the huge fireplace.

Unusual Christmas decorations, by Mrs. William Dant, received much attention and admiration.

Cleaning Concern Taken to Cleaner

Woods police are investigating a breaking and entering which occurred on Monday, December 14, in a dry cleaning establishment at Fleetwood and Mack.

According to a police report, Clara Terwilliger, manager of the cleaner, reported that during the night, someone had forced an entrance to the store and had taken $30 in cash from the cash register.

Police sent to investigate, discovered that entrance was gained by breaking a window in the rest room at the rear of the building. Underneath the window were found two cans of floor cleaner, which apparently had been tossed out by the burglar or burglars.

10 Pointers Get MSC Degrees

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, President of Michigan State Normal College was the speaker at the fall term commencement exercises at Michigan State College on Tuesday, December 8, at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium.

Degrees were conferred on 358 undergraduates and 100 students.

Candidates for the bachelor's degree from the Pointe, were: Richard W. Ashland of Bishop road; Allen B. Blair of Kerby road; Clarence E. Cope of Ridgemoor road; Nancy Mary Georgi of McMillan road; Robert L. Hansen of Hollywood road; Salvatore A. Meli of Devonshire; Barbara P. Slocum of Shoreham road; Richard C. Methodist Church Dedicates Altar, Chancel Furnishings

The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church dedicated its altar and chancel furnishings last Sunday, December 13. With the gift and installation of the choir stalls as a memorial to Mr. La Verne Cheyney, the furnishings are now complete.

The listing of the items in furnishings of the chancel and altar includes the organ, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Parker, in honor of Mrs. Parker's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton A. Grinnell; the altar, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Van House in memory of their son Roger Van House; the lectern given by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wylie in honor of Mr. Wylie's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. James Madison Wylie; and the pulpit and frontals given by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wylie in honor of Mrs. Wylie's brother, the Rev. Mr. Herbert C. Shaw, a Methodist minister who preached in this and other conferences.

The choir stalls and frontals were given by the friends of La Verne E. Cheyney to honor his memory and the interest he had in the church; the communion set, given by Mrs. Adolph Halmhuber in honor of her husband, Dr. J. Adolph Halmhuber, former executive secretary of the Metho-

Builder Reports Material Stolen

Samuel Pad, a builder, has reported to Woods Police that someone has been stealing materials from two homes he is building in Bournemouthe road.

During the night of Tuesday, December 8, the culprit broke windows in both houses to gain entry. Pad stated there was around $130 worth of materials missing.

STEAM LAUNDRY

Woods police hastened to George E. Pfeiffer home at 19299 Livville to put out a fire in an automatic washer, Wednesday, December 9. On their arrival they discovered that it had only become over-heated. The plug was pulled on a service man was called to take over.

Cpl. William Frabotta Returning to States

FIRST CAV. DIV., JAPAN—Cpl. William H. Frabotta, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frabotta, 1437 Nottingham, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., is returning to the U. S. after serving with the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan.

Corporal Frabotta entered the army in January, 1952, and received basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He arrived overseas this last February.

A 1949 graduate of Fordson High School, Dearborn, Frabotta was a portrait photographer.

Low Arrested As Tax Evader

A former millionaire found out on Wednesday, December 9, that what is past, is not past, as far as the United States Government is concerned, especially when he is a wanted man.

Harry Low, 66, was arrested by U. S. Marshals as he was sleeping in his apartment at 602 Cadieux, where he had been living under the name of Harry Love.

Low had been sought for 14 years on charges of income tax evasion and violation of the Federal Securities and Exchange Act.

Indictment on the charges were secured in 1939 shortly before Low, at the time a vice-president of the Carling Brewing Company, disappeared.

A Canadian, he was one-time president of the Trenton Valley Distillers Corp., Trenton, serving in that capacity from 1935 to 1936.

The Government charged that Low and a vice-president of the company fraudulently used the mails to advertise company stock, causing 1,200 to 2,000 investors to suffer losses of about $1,500,000.

The Government also charges he jumped a $5,000 bond.

He stood mute when arraigned before Chief Federal Judge

Arthur F. Lederle on the income tax charge. The United States contends Low owes $5,829 for 1935 and 1936.

Low told authorities he had told of going to Quebec to live, and when he did not hear from the Government, assumed influential friends had quashed the charges against him.

He returned to Detroit in 1949 and has worked as a toolmaker whenever his health permitted.

Low has been living with his wife, a daughter and a grandson at the Cadieux address, where he was apprehended and identified by a 15-year-old photograph.

Judge Lederle placed him under a $10,000 bond, which Low was unable to meet, claiming he was broke.

His plea not to be locked up because of a bad heart and the fear he might die in jail because of the ailment, while the bond is pending, is being studied.

A limited vocabulary does not necessarily mean that a man is not good at making excuses.

Storm Brews in Woods

A storm that threatens to assume hurricane proportions has been brewing among the citizenry of Grosse Pointe Woods over action instituted by a faction of the city council. The storm will probably come to a head at a council meeting scheduled for next Monday night, December 21, at 7:30 o'clock.

The argument has to do with the number of liquor licenses in the city. The hassle is one of long standing.

There are now three bars in the Woods, and, according to the Michigan Liquor Commission, the city is entitled to four more licensed places. The city cannot tell the state how many licenses shall be issued, but it is the policy of the state body to abide by the official municipal approval or disapproval when it comes to granting licenses.

Many of the residents and some of the councilmen have long felt that the three existing liquor dispensing places are enough, and that any more would be inviting trouble.

Argument over the question reached such a heated state back in July of 1952 that Councilman Harry Pratt offered a motion that the City Council deny approval for the issuance of any additional applications for Class C liquor licenses in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods. This motion was defeated, with only Councilman Waid McKnight supporting Mr. Pratt's motion, and Councilmen Arnold Diesing, Rex Johnston, Paul Rowe and Herbert Savage opposing.

Despite this official action, argument over the question continued and reached such proportions that by the fall of that year the council agreed that the residents should be asked to ballot on the matter.

Consequently, an ordinance was submitted to the people for referendum action at the polls on national election day, November 4, 1952. The question on the ballot was: "Do you favor adoption of an ordinance to provide that the City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan, shall not approve the issuance and/or signify its approval of the issuance of any future or any additional Class C and/or Tavern licenses in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan."

The Woods voters cast 5,432 votes for this ordinance and 2,075 against it. There were 175 spoiled ballots which could not be counted, but it showed the residents were against issuing any more licenses, by the score of more than two and one-half to one.

In accordance with this public expression, the Woods Council adopted Ordinance 89, which is now Chapter 50 of the Municipal Code, which states that the Council shall not approve or signify its approval for the issuance of any more Class C or Tavern licenses.

The wrath of a goodly number of residents has now been aroused because, at a Woods council meeting held on December 7 last, Councilman Rex Johnston offered a motion, supported by Councilman George Heckendorn, that the following ordinance be published by title: "An ordinance to repeal Chapter No. 50 of the Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1953," being Ordinance No. 89, the City of Grosse Pointe Woods ordains: Section 1, "That Chapter No. 50 of the Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1953 being Ordinance No. 89 be and the same is hereby repealed."

Notice of this official action was published in a legal advertisement of the Woods in last week's issue of the NEWS. The closing lines of the advertisement, over the signature of Clerk Ray MacArthur say: "Final action on this resolution awaits publication by title as required by our charter."

It is reliably reported that Councilmen Harry Pratt and Waid McKnight and Councilwoman Elsie Friedrich are very much opposed to this action. Needless to say, many residents resent the fact that a bare majority of the council has voted to disregard the wishes expressed by 5,432 voters just a little more than a year ago.

A mimeographed sheet, couched in forceful language, is being distributed throughout the Woods, urging the residents to attend the council meeting next Monday night and voice their disapproval of this contemplated action.

Titled "OF the people, BY the people, but NOT FOR the people," this sheet virtually accuses the council of trying to sneak a fast one over on the residents, by the very nature of the legal notice.

The fact that the advertisement resorted only to references to code and ordinance numbers and made no attempt to enlighten the residents as to the contents of the ordinance, would seem to indicate the council members weren't too anxious to have too many people know what was being attempted. It isn't a particularly fine example of the working of representative government.

All indications point to an intensely interesting session in the Woods Municipal Building next Monday night. The council will doubtless be expected to furnish some reasonably satisfactory explanation as to why it has chosen to ignore the edict of the residents... an edict which it officially solicited just a year ago.

Volunteers for Service Work Needed at the Center.

A Sad Situation

Pointers cooperate, the idea will die a rather sorry death.

Up to Tuesday something less than $300 had been donated. The very large percentage of this came from contributions from the local branches of the service organizations and a few substantial checks of $20 and $25. This means that only a handful of other residents has seen fit to donate anything.

The soldiers aren't paying much attention to the efforts or lack of effort on the part of the residents. They are going right ahead with their plans to make the day the best one possible for the kids. There is a spirit of competition between the camps to see which one can put on the best party, with the finest decorations and the prettiest tree. They are donating money from their own meager pay.

Those who have charge of selecting the presents will be faced with a tremendously discouraging task if they have to spread $300 out to obtain gifts for 30 kids and the 179 soldiers in the two camps.

If only a few hundred residents of the more than 11,000 families in the Pointe would contribute even $1 apiece, it would make a whale of a lot of difference in the kind of Christmas these soldiers and youngsters will have.

Time is of the essence. It is a big job to buy and wrap that many gifts. Volunteers are ready to take over this task, but they must have the financial help to make it possible.

This is Christmas-time. Let's pause long enough while making plans for our own pleasures to give a thought to this opportunity which is being presented to share our blessings with others.

We can't think of a better, nor easier way to grab a big chunk of yule-tide joy than to help make this project a whopping success.

Send your check or cash now, to Walter Allard, 375 Fisher road, Grosse Pointe, 30, Mich. He is acting as clearing agent.

Scout Handbook Can Be Helpful

Borrow one of the new Girl Scout Handbooks if you want to learn how to wrap a Christmas gift safe for mailing.

That is the suggestion of Mrs. Edward Kay, of 1245 Balfour road, program chairman for the Girl Scouts of America, one of the youth-training services made possible by the recent Torch Drive.

The new Handbook, Mrs. Kay added, also gives pertinent information on such diverse activities as finger painting, making camp on a hunting trip, first aid, removing an ink stain, and cooking a kabob on an open fire.

"The 1953 Girl Scout Handbook contains a variety of practical information on homemaking, arts and crafts, sports, citizenship and camping," Mrs. Kay said. "For this reason it is a very useful book to have around the home. Scouts tell us that mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters often borrow their Handbook to find the answer to a question or the way to do something."

The new Handbook is available to all of the 30,000 Girl Scouts in the Detroit Metropolitan area as well as anyone else who might be interested.

Police Chiefs Visit Jackson

Police Chiefs Vern Bailey of the Woods and Allen Miglio of Harper Woods visited Jackson State Prison Thursday, December 10.

They talked with over 200 convicts who would soon come up for parole. The subject of the talk was the relationship between the police officer and the parolee.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

If you are a pater familias and subject to cold chills and butterflies every time a succulent turkey is entrusted to you for dissection, call your library and reserve "How to Carve Meat, Game and Poultry" by Max Cullen.

This helpful little book has saved the day more than once according to library users. In it the meat carving expert for the National Livestock Board gives you simple lessons on the anatomy and carving of meat, game and poultry. Carefully done line-drawings help to make the text easily understandable for beginning carvers.

There's help too for the inexperienced femme, faced for the first time with the responsibility of the Christmas feast. "Meal Planning and Table Service for the American Home Without Servants," by N. B. Bailey, gives excellent suggestions for the housewife who must double as cook and hostess. Mary Goldman, assistant professor of home economics at the University, has written a handy guide, "Planning and Serving Your Meals." This covers entertainment for special holidays and includes a chapter on carving and serving meat and fowl.

A brand new book is Stella Standard's "Menus and Recipes for All Occasions." This has a section on holiday meals which includes Christmas, Christmas Eve, New Year's and New Year's Eve as well as some interesting buffet suppers.

And what is Christmas without lots and lots of cookies? We think the teen-ager who would like to try her culinary wings might surprise experienced cook if she were to follow the directions Virginia Pasley gives in her "Christmas Cookie Book." This includes recipes for over 60 kinds of cookies as well as instructions for packing and advice on tools and ingredients.

The "Wine Cook Book" by Mrs. Cora Brown is a useful book to know at this season. It gives a selection of recipes from France, the Far East, from the South and elsewhere, all of which owe their final excellence to the skillful use of wine in their preparation.

For eye appeal Patricia Roberts' "Book of Table Arrangements with Flowers, Fruits and Other Decorative Elements" has some unique ideas. There are full page photographs of table settings and some illustrations in color.

More technical than the preceding book is "Flowers and Calorie Counting?

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

Everyone who attempts to reduce has at least a slight knowledge of the calorie content of common foods. The more serious dieter has a more complete knowledge, naturally, gained by a longer and broader experience.

While counting calories will aid you in limiting the intake of food, it is not the complete answer to the dieting problem, as every doctor admits. Attention must be given to the bodily needs for protein, fats, sugars, as well as the individual needs for certain chemicals that must be constantly replaced.

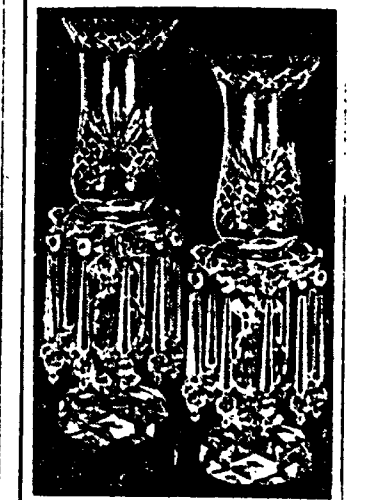

Always consult a doctor before dieting. Let a competent pharmacist supply whatever additional nutrition the doctor should advise.

This is the 47th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Warning Issued On Extinguishers

Michigan residents have been warned not to buy glass ball fire extinguishers to hang on their Christmas trees.

The Michigan Department of Health found in a series of tests on these extinguishers that they failed to put out a Christmas tree fire and that they produced toxic vapors and gases of carbon tetrachloride and phosgene in concentrations hazardous to life and health.

In conducting its tests, the health department burned three Christmas trees, fastening the glass ball extinguishers on them according to the manufacturer's instructions. The extinguishers failed to put out the fires in all three cases.

During the burning of two trees, samples of air were taken to measure the concentration of carbon tetrachloride, which in both instances was 4,800 parts per million, and the phosgene concentration which was 36 parts per million in one instance and 37 parts per million in the other. Two minutes exposure to this concentration of phosgene, a poison gas used in World War I, would result in serious illness, which in many cases would be followed by death in a few weeks.

Set New Records In Bowling Loop

Things busted wide open in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Bowling League Thursday night. There was a terrific rash of high scoring and record breaking.

In taking four points from Adam-Simms, Testa established a new high single game of 1014 along with a 27-66 three game series just missing that captain, J. Bosco of that team rolled another swell series of 637.

Bob Cucchi rolled a new high single game of 261 when he rolled seven strikes in a row and then missed and struck out to help Norman take three points from Bruce-Wigle. He ended up with a 632 series to give him second place in that column.

Andy Sarroll of Boutin's rolled a sterling 663 to put him on top in the individual high three column, although his team was losing three points to H. M. Seldon, who were helped by Schilling's 246 game and 601 series.

Members of this week's 200 Club are: Small 200, Cucchi, 261-217, Schilling 246, Callahan 202, Carroll 215-224-224, Warren 200, Lundberg 206, J. Bosco 224-224, Caprin 211, Paterson 200, C. Airman Don C. Bennett Returns from Korea

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (PHINC)—Scheduled to arrive here aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Lake Champlain December 1, was Don C. Bennett, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Bennett of 1907 Hunt Club Drive, Grosse Pointe, Mich.

The Lake Champlain arrived in Korean waters in June and operated with fast carrier Task Force 77 delivering daily air strikes against the Communists. Before the signing of the armistice she helped the task force set many new operational records.

The "Champ" left Norfolk, Va., in April for Korea via the Mediterranean, Red Sea, Indian Ocean and China Sea, becoming the largest ship ever to transit the Suez Canal.

Kiwanians Busy Spreading Cheer This Week's News Picked From the Headlines

The Riverside Kiwanis Club has the Christmas spirit in a big way and as always, is directing its efforts in behalf of the underprivileged.

Tonight the Club holds its annual Christmas party for the young polio patients at the Sigma Gamma Hospital near Mt. Clemens. Members and their wives will attend.

Dr. Weldon Derifield, 1893 Broadstone road, is in charge of the party and has a big time planned for the 45 patients, ranging from one to 16 years of age.

Art Blyler, of the Grosse Pointe News Staff, will entertain with chalk drawings of Old Santa, Mrs. Santa and their helpers. Following, Santa himself will appear with gifts for all the children.

Dean charged. At a meeting of the Korean preliminary peace conference he blasted the Reds to their faces, calling them liars and asserted that they have violated the truce when they certified that all Allied prisoners have been returned with the exception of a handful who refused to be repatriated.

This was put down in writing he said. He said "escapeses from your dictatorial control" have confirmed that the Reds are still holding thousands of Allied prisoners in forced labor camps.

CHARLES E. WILSON, Secretary of Defense, announced that the February draft call will be cut by 5,000, but emphasized there is no idea of junking compulsory induction soon. His announcement caught Army and Selective service officials by surprise.

The Defense Department normally withholds information of monthly draft calls until Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey has been notified. Army officials said that the big reduction in draft calls has been made possible by the great number of volunteers and because of "over deliveries" by Selective Service.

LOUIS SHOULDERS, former St. Louis police lieutenant, disclosed that Carl Hall, kidnapper of Bobby Greenleaf, had planned to kill his partner, Mrs. Bonnie Heady. In spite of the professed love he claimed to have had for his sweetheart, Hall had planned to kill her because she could be easily identified as having a part in the killing. Shoulders said, Hall and Mrs. Heady will die in the Missouri Penitentiary's gas chamber on December 18.

Sunday, December 13

A DIFFERENT VERSION of the missing Greenleaf ransom money was presented by former Police Lt. Louis Shoulders. He changed his story of bringing the suitcase of money into the station with the prisoners, to that of leaving the money in a scout car unguarded for 10 minutes.

The former policeman resigned from the department as a result of an investigation of the missing money, and had turned in his badge and gun. Despite this, he and Patrolman Elmer Dolan, who helped make the arrest of Carl and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, must appear before a St. Louis police board, on charges of violating departmental regulations.

ESTES KEFAUVER, Tennessee's Democrat senator, asked a probe by the Senate Armed Services Committee regarding the Army's decision to give General Motors a monopoly on production of military tanks. Specifically, he asked that a hearing be scheduled by the committee on a proposed $200,000,000 contract for M-48 medium tanks given to GM.

The propriety of the award was not questioned, as far as legal and ethical standpoint is concerned, he said, but "it may represent a dangerous departure from the principle of maintaining a very broad defense production basis."

Tuesday, December 15

A PROPOSAL, submitted to President Eisenhower by the National Security Commission, suggested that 18-year-olds youths be picked by lottery for two years of military service or six months of military training.

Wednesday, December 16

THE U. S. AIR FORCE announced that it will permit a long-time friend of one of the 22 Americans who have chosen Communism, to enter Korea's truce zone to try to talk him into returning home.

Monday, December 14

THE 22 AMERICAN soldiers who have refused repatriation, declined to face Allied explanation teams and withdrew into their barbed wire compound. The soldiers sent out their written refusal, Sunday night, to leave their camp and listen to talks in a neutral zone.

THE 22 AMERICANS who had chosen Communism, stood firm in their refusal to listen to repatriation teams until their demands on behalf of pro-Red South Koreans are met. The pro-Red South Koreans insist on speaking to the Allied explainers and presenting their side, as soon as the explainers have finished talking.

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, Secretary of State, warned Europe it must okay an army or face suicide. He said that if a European army, including West German Forces, was not established soon, the United States would be forced into an "agonizing reappraisal of its own basic policies."

AN INDICTMENT, returned by Grand Jury Judge Herman Dehnke, accuses D. Eugene Tolfree, 59, of West Branch, Mich., of permitting an overdraft of about $1,200,000 in one account. There are two counts of fraud against him. Tolfree, once one of the most respected men in Michigan, is now in California.

THREE AIR FORCE reservists were killed when a private plane struck a high power line and crashed three miles north of Michigan State College. Killed were Dr. Roelf Lanting, of East Lansing, a colonel; Don Cleveland, a major, and Stanley W. Lawill, an airman first class, both of Lansing.

They were returning from Seltridge Air Force Base where they had taken training. The plane was owned by Dr. Lanting, who was also Shiawassee County medical director, and was headed for the Davis Airport in East Lansing. All were ground personnel in the reserve.

AFTER FAILING to reach an agreement with the Communists on arrangements for a Korean peace conference, American Envoy Arthur Dean announced he will leave for the United States immediately.

Persons who have worked at least 1 1/2 years after 1950 in jobs covered by social security will be able to get monthly social security payments for themselves and their families if they reach age 65 and retire before the middle of 1954.

THE "HEAT" is on in Hamtramck. While the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office is waiting for an expected approval of its plea for a grand jury probe in that city, gamblers have deemed it wise to take a "necessary" trip for their health.

Although he broke off negotiations with the Reds Saturday, he left the door open for resumption of the talks by leaving behind his chief aide, Kenneth Young, who will stay in Munsan for about a week to see what the Communists will do and to see if they wish to resume talks.

Dean said he will return to Washington to speak to American officials and authorities of the seven nations he represented in the fruitless negotiations.

THE WARNING issued in a speech to Europe by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in which he remarked that the continent must choose between unity and "suicide" created an uproar in France. Frenchmen attacked his statement as brutal and ultimatum-like because the secretary made it clear that it was the French who were stalling European unity.

Kids in Korea Need Your Help

Thousands of Wayne County residents are receiving an appeal in the mail to help clothe Korean children. The appeal is being made in behalf of Save The Children Federation by Bill O. Brink, Michigan State Chairman of S.C.F.

Through sponsorships and donations, S.C.F. provides clothing, supplementary food, shoes, school supplies, layettes, and other essentials to families, children, and babies, many of whom might not survive without them.

Mr. Brink reports that there are more than nine million refugees in South Korea. A large portion of them are not able to find jobs and cannot find homes. Save The Children Federation is making a shipment of blankets to aid the victims of the recent fire in Pusan, which left 30,000 homeless, of whom 15,000 were children.

Through the sponsorship program of Save The Children Federation an individual or organization in America may sponsor one of these children for an entire year for only $120.00. Sponsors receive the name and address of the child they are sponsoring, and are encouraged to correspond with them.

Anyone not receiving a letter is asked to send their contribution to Save The Children Federation, 424 Book Building, 1260 Library St., Detroit 26, Michigan.

Conservatory of Music Holds Xmas Recital

The Grosse Pointe Conservatory of Music presented piano and voice students of Leone Hahnke and Nora Conklin in a Christmas program in the school recital studios on Friday evening, December 11, at 8 o'clock.

Highlights of the program were two arrangements by Myra Hess of Bach's "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Sheep May Safely Graze," for two pianos played by Eleanor Jones and Miss Hahnke.

The Christmas spirit was featured in the singing of "Come Unto Him" from the "Messiah," by Helen McDougal and Miss Conklin, besides the Christmas Carols sung by Gretchen Galbraith, Dannie Denton, Barbara Adams, Marjorie Gudin and J. Hobson Reynolds.

Other numbers on the program included the "Polichinelle" of Villa Lobos played by Clarann Wichens, a nocturne and a waltz of Chopin played by Rosaleen Malow, the "Romance of Sibelius" by Josephine Mannino, and the Mozart "Sonata in D Major" for two pianos played by Pietrina Misuraca and Miss Hahnke.

Peace Lutheran Children To Present Song Service

The children of Peace Lutheran Day School will present a Christmas Song Service on Tuesday, December 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the church at Balfour and East Warren avenues.

The annual children's Christmas Service is sponsored under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association.

The kindergarten through the eighth grade will be represented in the Christmas Service, which will depict the "Prophecies" and "The Christmas Story" by the children's choir and choruses, and choral readings.

Celeste Holm In Play at Cass

Seats went on sale Monday, December 14, at Detroit's Cass Theatre for "His and Hers," starring Celeste Holm and Robert Preston, which opens a two-week engagement prior to Broadway on Monday, December 21.

The new comedy, penned by Fay and Michael Kanin, relates the complications which ensue when Miss Holm, portraying a lady playwright, reneges professional and romantic collaboration with her ex-husband, also a playwright, portrayed by Robert Preston.

"His and Hers" marks Miss Holm's first stage role since "Affairs of State," the long-run comedy hit of two seasons ago. Mr. Preston scored on Broadway last season with his near-classical portrayal of the ebullient ex-husband in "The Male Animal."

Four Pointe Students At Indiana University

Four residents of Grosse Pointe are enrolled at Indiana University, an institution which this year is celebrating a trio of anniversaries.

Founded in 1820, the Hoosier state university this fall observed the 50th anniversary of its School of Medicine, fifth largest in the country.

In February it will celebrate the golden anniversary of the founding of its rapidly growing Graduate School.

The University's alumni association, one of the oldest and representing 95,000 alumni and former students, will be 100 years old in June.

I. U. students from Grosse Pointe are Suzanne D. Fairchild, 1235 Bishop road; Richard A. Harris, 855 Ellair place; Doris G. Rock, 1763 Hawthorne and Ellen J. Worley, 311 McMillan road.

Offers Advice For Safe Xmas

Fire Chief William Newport of Grosse Pointe Farms has submitted the following information as important and pertinent to the coming Christmas season to aid in avoiding fires due to flimsy decorations, ornaments, and Christmas tree installations in the coming holiday season.

For institutions, stores and all places of gatherings:

1. Do not use paper decorations.
2. Keep decorations eight feet above floor.
3. Flameproof decorations.
4. Keep decorations a safe distance from lights.
5. Do not use natural decorations except wreaths which must be spaced at least ten feet apart.
6. No Christmas trees permitted without special permission.

Where permission is granted, trees must be treated to reduce flammability and all ornaments, must be non-inflammable. The following formula for the reduction of flammability of Christmas trees is accepted by this office:

Combustion can be reduced by allowing the tree to absorb a solution of calcium chloride. This is done in the following manner: Use calcium chloride to one-fourth the weight of the tree in pounds and mix this in one and one-half pints of water to the pound of calcium chloride.

Cut the tree at the bottom on a diagonal slant and place the tree in the solution for a few days so that it will absorb this chemical mixture. Also, use a Christmas tree stand with a container for water in which the base of the tree is placed. This keeps it moist during the time it is used for decorative purposes.

If these regulations do not fully cover your plans for Christmas decorations, kindly contact the Department for assistance and approval.

For the home: It is well that the foregoing regulations also be observed in private homes as a safety precaution for your family and guests.

The whole world talks of peace, but most of the nations want it on their own terms. It is relatively easy to acquire a reputation, but it takes a lot of doing to keep it.

POUPARD SCHOOL
The children of Poupard School are eagerly awaiting the unfolding of plans which have been made for the Christmas season. Meanwhile they are learning Christmas songs, enjoying art activities associated with the spirit of the season, and deciding on the purchase of a tree for their room.
On Wednesday morning, December 23, the last day of school before vacation, there will be an assembly featuring the choir under the direction of Mr. Ferry. The emphasis will be on the inspirational aspects of the yuletide season. That same afternoon room parties will be held from 12:45 through 2:30 when school will close for the vacation. Children in grades 3-6 may exchange gifts which have a limit of 25c. Some groups are planning to send their gifts to a charitable organization.

Fouls Numerous In Girls' Loop

The Metropolitan Club was defeated by the St. Paul Seniors, 30 to 23, in the girls' basketball loop at the Neighborhood Club last Thursday, December 10.

Gloria Strenlau continued to lead her team in high scoring by racking up 13 points, while Phyllis Van Becelaere captured St. Paul's honors. St. Paul committed 13 fouls and Metro had 8. The score at half time was 17 to 17.

East Side Sport continued their winning ways by defeating the St. Paul Varsity 48 to 19. Suzanne Peplinski and Mary Taylor shared high scoring honors, with Suzanne getting 21 and Mary 17. Marilyn D'hoigne led the St. Paul team with 7 points. St. Paul committed 13 fouls with East Side Sport having 4. The score at half time was 13 to 9 favoring East Side Sport.

Tonight, Thursday, December 17, the St. Paul Seniors will meet the high-scoring East Side Sport team in a 7 o'clock game. In the 8 o'clock contest, St. Paul Jr. will meet the St. Paul Varsity. The Metropolitan Club will draw a bye.

This evening's games will be the last through the holiday season with the teams returning on Thursday, January 7.

Francis Martin New DRYA Head

Likeable, bespectacled Francis L. Martin, past commodore of the Edison Boat Club, moved up from his rear commodore's post in the Detroit River Yachting Association to the boss' job for 1954 at the annual winter meeting held at Bayview, Tuesday, December 1.

Murray V. Napp of the Detroit Yacht Club and Bruce Tappin of the Boat Club were elected to the vice and rear commodore posts, respectively, by the delegates of the various member clubs of the DRYA. Both are past commodores of the clubs they represent.

Cheerful Hal Smith was unopposed for the secretary job which he has held for so many years that no one can remember who held the job before him.

Martin made the jump from rear commodore due to the resignation of Jack Sutton, of the Grosse Pointe, Y.C., from the vice commodore position prior to the election meeting. Due to business pressure and personal reasons Jack was forced to forego the honor of leading the organization in the 1954 season.

Many recommendations were made from the floor by the sailors who wished to get their recommendations on the record for the annual Spring meeting when they will be discussed and acted upon for the 1954 season.

The best recommendation came from the boss man himself when he set January 15 for "an open meeting" at the Edison Boat Club for all the delegates and interested sailors. At that time tentative regatta dates will be set for the 1954 racing season and the "gripes" will be aired and discussed.

This unprecedented meeting should prove to be a boon to the local sailing picture, because it will filter out the best recommendations to be discussed at the Spring meeting. Also regatta dates requested by the clubs will be just a matter of formality.

Usually it is a battle for choice regatta dates that consume the most time at the Spring meeting each year. It is Martin's thought that the "open meeting" will afford more time to iron out regatta date difficulties which always arise each year and sometimes cause hard feeling among the unsuccessful delegates.

Grosse Pointe High Swim Team Conquers Royal Oak

Coach Frank Banach's Blue Devil swimming team scored its first victory over the Royal Oak Acorns in the last four meetings of these teams, December 11, with a stirring 47 to 37 victory in the opening Border Cities League meet of the season.

Prior to last Friday's meet, Royal Oak had enjoyed two fat seasons in which they had hung three defeats and a tie on the Pointers. That is the best winning mark a Royal Oak team had ever posted over the always strong and dangerous Banach-coached tank teams.

Three Records Erased
One school and two pool records were erased from the book, the first one hitting the partisan crowd right between the eyes almost before they got settled in their seats.

Pete Eckel of Royal Oak opened the meet with his record breaking performance in the 40 yard free style event with a blazing 18.4 seconds. This eclipsed the old mark of 18.8 held by Tony Pear of Grosse Pointe and Marling of Fordson. The new mark is only a pool record. Pear still holds the school mark at 18.8. Actually, Stuart Smith of the Devils bettered Pear's mark when he splashed in behind the record breaking Eckel with an 18.5. But in order to annex a school record a Pointer boy must win the event. It is easy to predict that Smith will grab the school mark before he graduates.

Adamski Stars Again
Don Adamski, Grosse Pointe's powerful backstroke, electrified the crowd when he broke his own 100 yard backstroke mark of 1:02.5 set in the opening meet against Hazel Park, December 4. Don paddled his way to the new mark of 1:02.1 which establishes a new school and pool record. It is hard to tell just how much Don will lower the mark in this event before he graduates in January. In both meets in which he has broken the mark, he hasn't been pushed.

Farms Little League Holds Election, Discussion Meeting

Under the direction of President Howard Gnuau the Grosse Pointe Farms Little League held its election meeting at the Grosse Pointe Central Library last Wednesday, December 9.

Before the actual election proceedings took place, Gnuau reported on the 1953 season, which was the first for the Farms League. President Gnuau stated 210 boys registered and 174 actually played ball on the official Little League field built by Grosse Pointe Farms.

Ninety-four registered parent members were present to hear the report.

Treasurer Remington Purdy reported the League finished its first season in the black with a balance of $728.67 dollars.

James Dingeman, chairman of the nominating committee presented the slate for 1954 which included Robert Ayrauli, Burgess Book, Herb Bumpus, Howard Gnuau, Robert Choche, Leo Luke, Jim Dingeman, Remington Purdy, Dr. Robert Swanson, Reuben Waterman, William Butler, Don Miller and Ed Stanley. All were elected to the board of directors.

Herb Bumpus showed the movies of the past season and requested all Farms residents who had taken 16mm films of the boys at play, to turn the films over to the league so they might be edited and made into a movie story which could be shown in the future to promote the league.

During the discussion which followed the movies, it was suggested the age limit be lowered to include 8-year-old boys. This suggestion was tabled to be considered at a later date because of the problems of limited facilities and the scarcity of competent coaches.

Following the open meeting

St. Ambrose Drops Opener

By Tom Chappelle
A great comeback with less than four minutes left in the final quarter by the Warriors of Saint Catherine robbed the Saint Ambrose Cavaliers of a victory in their First Divisional basketball opener. The final score was 54-48, but the score has no reflection on the type of play.

It was a see-saw battle throughout, with the lead changing hands many times. With three minutes and thirty-two seconds left, the Cavaliers enjoyed a three point lead, but then the roof fell in.

The Warriors, led by Ed Rachat and Ron Ramaci, provided the winning margin of six points. They were the leading scorers of the Catherine quintet with 17 and 15 points, respectively.

The Cavaliers' leading scorers for the night were: guard, Tom Brown with 16 points, and forward Jerry Tobianski with 12 points.

The Cavaliers looking for their first league victory will battle their neighboring rivals the, Servite Panthers at the South-eastern Gym, this Friday at 8:15 p.m.

Flyers Score Two Victories

Coach Eddie Lauer's St. Paul basketball team is flying again and the prospects for another winning season appear to be just as bright now as they were a year ago at this time.

Last week the Flyers turned back two Big 12 Conference foes for the second win in three starts this season. The only loss on the Flyers' record is a 39 to 30 setback by De La Saie, a Class A team, in the opening non-league game.

Since that defeat, however, the Flyers have tipped over St. Philip 45 to 27 on Tuesday, December 8, and downed strong St. Charles on its home court, Friday, December 11, 45 to 33.

The final score of the St. Charles game doesn't tell the true picture of the contest. It was a noisy affair right from the opening tipoff. St. Charles moved into a 9 to 4 lead in the first quarter and it appeared they were on their way to hanging a box car score on the Flyers.

When the team took the floor to start the third quarter bedlam reigned in the jam-packed St. Charles gymnasium. The teams matched basket for basket throughout the quarter and well into the final stanza before the Flyers hit a scoring streak with four minutes remaining, to pull well out in front of their stubborn foe.

Guard Bob Wright paced the Flyers' attack with 15 points to lead both teams in scoring and he was closely followed by his teammate Bob Louwers, who hit the nets for 13 points for runner-up honors.

Dick Allor, the transfer student from Missouri, came into his though Allor wasn't among the high scorers he turned in a stellar job on defense before he fouled out in the third period. He was replaced by Bob Keller, who filled the gap in grand fashion during the remaining minutes of play.

Jim Ayrauli and Ted Monahan rounded out the starting team and it would be impossible to pick any one of the five starters as the star of the game because they all were equally good.

The Flyers will be idle from league competition until January 8 when they meet St. Thomas on its home court.

Club's Quintet Leading League

The Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club basketball team captured its second game in as many starts last Monday, December 14, when it turned back the Royals 53 to 27 on the Cannon Memorial court. The victory gave the local team top billing in the standings.

Guard Don Schroeder personally outscored the Royals when he collected 33 points for scoring honors.

This league lit for boys under 20 years, old and the Neighborhood Club team is coached by Bill Desrocher.

Cruising Club Officers Take Office

HANK BURKARD, retiring commodore of the Detroit Cruising Club, congratulates NORMAN "NUBBY" SARNIS, the 1954 commodore, following the annual meeting of the organization held at Bayview, Thursday, December 10. GIL PINGREE, second from right, was the successful candidate for the vice-commodore post and A VERY MACKLEM, perennial secretary-treasurer, retained that position.

Sharpshooting Acorns Beat Blue Devil Basketball Five

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devil basketball team experienced the first bump along the bumpy Border Cities League basketball trail last Friday night, December 11. A tall, sharpshooting Royal Oak quintet handed the Devils their first jolt with a 59 to 52 defeat in the league opener for both teams on the Acorns' home court.

Royal Oak's skyscraper height and a slight ease of the jitters on the part of the Pointers in the early stages of the contest, put the Pointers in a hole from which they never quite pulled themselves out.

Acorns Take Big Lead
In the first period the Acorns jumped into an 11 to 0 lead and for the most part consted until the last four minutes of the game, when the Devils pulled to within one point of a tie, 47 to 48. Royal Oak spurred in the final four minutes to gain its margin of victory.

Sides, a 6 feet 3 inch forward and Zickel, a 5 feet 10 inch guard, paced the Acorns in their first league win with 17 points each. Three Pointer's two veterans Dick Spindle, who led the Devil attack, and Lou "Weedle Dum" Frisar played key roles, notching 15 and 11 points, respectively.

The biggest surprise of the night was the play of forward Jan Russell who chipped in 12 points for the Pointers losing cause.

In the foul department the Devils were best, making good on 19 of 29 attempts from the free throw line, while the Acorns made good on 16 of 32 charity tosses.

Where the Acorns excelled was from the floor, connecting for an amazing 50 percent of their shots. In this department Royal Oak hit on 21 of 42 long shots while the Devils were able to find the range with 17 of 46 long shots.

It just could be they will be ripe for picking by the time they meet the Pointers and the Devils could be the team to reap the harvest come January 22, when they entertain the Parkers.

While the Pointers were taking their licking, defending champion Highland Park was smashing Monroe 69 to 41, behind the plain and fancy shooting of its two Georges, Lee and Duncan, who played only three quarters of the game, as did the other three regulars who were pulled from the contest by Coach Jim Wink.

Led by Jerry Calloway and Bob Bohn, Fordson moved into the winners' circle with a 41 to 31 victory over Wyandotte. Calloway collected 16 points while his teammate Bohn registered 15.

May Repeat Triumphs
Taking the league openers as a measuring stick it appears Highland Park will walk into its third Border Cities League title with the rest of the league battling for second place.

Many of those in the know figure Highland Park is a good bet to go all the way to another State Class A title next March, when the Regional play gets underway. However, we have seen overconfidence wreck many a ball club and that may be just what the Parkers are building up to.

It just could be they will be ripe for picking by the time they meet the Pointers and the Devils could be the team to reap the harvest come January 22, when they entertain the Parkers.

Club Basketball League Opens

The Neighborhood Club House Basketball League opened its season last Saturday, December 12, with all six teams seeing action.

In the first game the Pointers walloped the Hot Shots 65 to 9 with Johnny Asmus getting 20 points for honors. The second game saw the Trofers swamp the Flyers 82 to 24 behind the sharpshooting of Jny Hooker who outscored the entire Flyer quintet with 40 points.

Dick Dilloway and John Wardle notched 12 points each to lead the Rockets to a 42 to 36 win over the Bachelors. This was one of the best games played at the club so far this year. The Rockets trailed 7 to 9 in the first period and 13 to 20 at halftime. But in the third quarter tied the count at 29 to 28 and then went on to win in the final stanza.

This leaves the Pointers, Rockets and Trotters tied for first place after the first round of play.

The House League swings into action every Saturday at the Neighborhood Club.

It is not inconceivable that the new leadership for which the world craves may arise from within the Christian church. But this hypothesis appears to presuppose a transformation of Christianity, or a revival of its primitive spirit, which would in itself amount to a revolution.—Edward Hallett Carr.

It just could be they will be ripe for picking by the time they meet the Pointers and the Devils could be the team to reap the harvest come January 22, when they entertain the Parkers.

Dads' Party for Blue Devil Team Draws Meager Crowd

Only about 300 dads, students and coaches showed up for the Dad's Club Football Bust held at the High School last Tuesday, December 9.

It was a good party that President Nate Goodnow and his helpers put together, it followed pretty much the same pattern of previous Dad's Club parties.

As usual, the program started off with a roast beef dinner in the cafeteria, which was followed by a musical rendition by a swing band under the direction of Dewey Kalembar.

Athletic director Frank Banach introduced the football coaches. There were reserve coaches Pat Kaulitz and Harold Fisher and assistant varsity coaches Bud Kurvink and Ernie Bauer and head coach Ed Wernet.

Deserve Bigger Crowd
Wernet called his Blue Devil football squad to the stage and introduced each player to the meager audience. It was a shame more dads didn't show up for the party, which was in honor of the 1953 Grosse Pointe football team which compiled the best record for the school on Fisher road since 1932. These kids deserved better treatment for the way they battled to give the Pointers a 5 wins, two losses and a tie record for the season.

Only Missed One
Yes sir, we were at the first Dad's Club party and have only missed one since they started. We must admit the parties got better as the years have passed. That is up until last year. That's when the attendance began to drop, mainly because the Dad's Club haven't exercised any imagination since the year Hil Pierce started the dinner idea with a buffalo roast dinner.

Something has to be done to give these parties a shot in the arm or they will gradually slip out of the picture entirely.

Two Crucial Losses
Royal Oak's defeat forced the Acorns to share the Border Cities League title with Monroe and Port Huron's defeat knocked the Big Reds out of the mythical Class A State championship which

Lions and Celtics Continue To Lead Club Court League

The idle Lions in the Midget league and the Celtics in the Giant league continued to hold on to the lead in their respective leagues. Both teams own perfect records in two starts.

On Tuesday, December 8, Don Carrier led the Exchange quintet to an 18 to 9 victory over the Kiwanis in the first game of a triple header program. Butch Jacoby and Bob O'Brien of Kiwanis tied at 4 points each in the Kiwanis losing cause.

The second game saw a mixup on the score sheet and the game went into the book as a 20 to 20 tie between Metropolitan Club and Rotary. Seems a mistake in the final tabulation of the points, in which one point was missed although it was marked on the score sheet, was found by the referee as he checked the score sheet.

However, the final game of the evening had already started and it was too late to call the Metro and Rotary teams back to play the overtime to break the tie. Johnny Auckland, Boys Athletic director at the club, said the overtime period will be played prior to the start of the next regularly scheduled game between these two teams to break the tie.

The giant league game on December 8 saw the Lakers squeeze past the Eagles, 24 to 23, in a hard, closely fought game. Jim Millies of the Eagles was high point scorer for the game, which saw the Lakers grab a 7 to 6 lead in the first quarter only to see the Eagles tie it up to 14 to 14 at the halftime.

The Lakers forged ahead 18 to 16 in the third period and then maintained a one point advantage for the final eight minutes of play to earn the one point victory. Eddie Goussen paced the Lakers to a 12 to 9 victory over the Rotary swamped VFW #36 to 12 in the first game on Monday, December 14, with Bob Wood tossing in half of the Rotary points to become high point boy for the contest. Ed Langs led the losers with 6 points.

The second game of the night saw Post 303 trip up Kiwanis, 23 to 11, with Tom Kolodziejski of 303 getting 8 points for scoring honors ahead of Butch Jacoby who had 6 points.

The final game of the night was a thriller between the Lakers and Falcons, who eventually eked out a 29 to 23 win in the last two minutes of play. The Falcons moved into a 5 to 4 lead in the first period and increased it to a 13 to 10 advantage at halftime.

The Lakers fought back and took the lead in the third quarter only to fall behind 19 to 18 as the period ended. Six minutes of the final quarter it was anybody's ball game but with two minutes remaining the Falcons put together a scoring spree to capture the contest.

PILFERINGS

Remember the old, old story about the Duke of Windsor when he was the Prince of Wales?

Seems one day His Royal Highness was riding a motorcycle along a road in France (this was during World War I) when suddenly the machine stalled. He spent some time trying to locate the trouble but was unsuccessful and finally he had to hail a passing dispatch rider.

The soldier had no trouble at all getting the Prince's machine started, and was somewhat annoyed to be stopped for so trivial a service.

"You must be a heck of a poor mechanic that you couldn't help yourself," he said scornfully. "Who are you?"

"I am the Prince of Wales," replied His Royal Highness, considerably taken aback by this reflection on his mechanical ability.

"Sure, you're the Prince of Wales and I'm King George," shot back the soldier as he mounted his machine and rode on.

A very short time after that, the outfit to which the dispatch rider belonged was inspected by the Prince. Naturally the soldier was scared half to death when he recognized the man he had first helped and then rebuked.

But His Royal Highness was a good sport—as always. As he came face to face with the terrified fellow, he said: "Hello, Dad! How are you?"

EDWIN P. HORAN WITH KATHY AND GAIL OF TROMBLEY ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

Don't be downcast, those of you who deplore what's happened to Christmas midway in the twentieth century. It isn't a one hundred percent price tag affair, it isn't all a series of bespangled holiday parties.

In almost every Pointe home you can find something as old fashioned as strung popcorn for the Christmas tree, the bayberry candle to light the Christ Child in, the family singing of carols these wintery eves.

Especially does such spirit abound in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Horan on Trombley road, where the Christmas creche is an annual work of love, built by Mr. Horan and enjoyed by his family including the two pretty little Horans, Kathy and Gail.

The project was initiated in the Horan household two years ago when the Christ Child in His crib and the three wise men stood on the mantel in the living room, reminder of the real Christmas story.

Christmas Creche

Last year Mr. Horan, whose family credits him with genius and a way with everything artistic ("Why, he even writes poems to us," boasted Gail) decided the fireplace itself would be perfect setting for the Nativity scene.

So he arranged the background and figures in a huge cardboard box, only you couldn't tell it was a cardboard box when Mr. Horan finished, and set it in the fire well.

This year, the improvement has been lining the well with deep blue sateen to represent the December sky and the hilly countryside of Bethlehem has been simulated by Mr. Horan's deft touch with orle (used under carpeting usually) and corrugated cardboard representing snow swept mountains.

Silver stars twinkle in the sky and the larger Star of Bethlehem really guides the way to the manger where the Christ Child lies.

Their Own Greens

The builder of the creche has been faithful to all the details. Mary and Joseph lean over the crib of the Child. The three Wise Men approach the manger where animals are lazing.

From their gardens, the Horans have brought branches of Japanese ewe to frame the whole scene and to form the tiny trees within their Christmas picture.

Each year Mr. Horan takes a little away, adds a little to the creche. Now next year, he's decided to mold more animals himself (the present ones were purchased but these next ones will be custom made!) And he's still experimenting with lighting for the creche though he didn't see how he could improve upon his 1953 effort.

Mr. Christmas

Adding to his distinction of being Mr. Christmas in his home, are the wreaths and greens arrangements he makes.

This week he is busy fashioning four wreaths (that's what makes him such an avid ribbon saver from Christmas to Christmas... he looks especially for great big fat and beautiful red satin bows for his wreaths).

His two little girls led us proudly to the dining room table and the Scotch pine centerpiece their dad had made for a pre-Christmas dinner. Sparkling tiny Christmas tree balls nestle in the deep green needles of the pine arrangement and there are metallic twirls to add to its light heartedness.

Mrs. Horan's forte is the unusual recipe for Christmas dinner and then besides being Santa's helper with the shopping she has an annual date with her two little girls when they make Christmas cookies to serve Santa on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Horan mixes the dough but the little girls do all the rolling, cutting out and decorating. They already have one batch in the deep freeze but are going to make still another lot, just in case Santa is extraordinarily hungry when he comes to their house this year.

They are also a little worried about the first ones they made this year because after the "fourth rolling" some of the cookies seemed just a tiny bit tough.

Letters to Santa

They're writing to Santa as we sat there before the creche. Breathlessly they mentioned Winnie Walker dolls, pictures to paint with oils, a mutual sewing machine, nurse's kits and a set of tea dishes.

There is a visit to Santa in the flesh in the offering for the young ladies, too.

Family Affair

Together the family trims the Christmas tree, Gail decking the lower branches, Kathy the mid-way ones because she's growing tall and mama and papa are responsible for the higher reaches.

The whole family so loves Christmas and the Christmas story, the creche appears each year a bit earlier so they may enjoy it longer.

And during one of those absences, when Mr. Horan traveled to his work shop at his home where he can drill, solder and do all manner of magic, we learned that the creche-builder, expert gardener, is also a collector.

Collector

In the Horan library there is always at least one year's collection of volumes on a special table.

In an upstairs room are the copies from 1932 and his sister in Cleveland protects for him the issues of the earlier years.

They may not be at his finger tips but it's nice just to know where he can get at them when he needs them.

He won't feel the girls are really getting any place in school until he can bring forth a copy of the National Geographic which will help to write some theme from its informative articles. He felt a

VIRGINIA EGG NOG

- 12 eggs
2 c. bar sugar
1 quart 100 proof bourbon
1/2 pt. dark rum
nutmeg
1 quart heavy cream
2 quarts rich milk

(This is the second year Grosse Pointe News has printed the recipe for Virginia Egg Nog which was originally called Medicinal Egg Nog and prescribed by Dr. Cabell Morris for his patients. We came by the recipe through his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Lipop of Clifton Forge, Va. People hereabouts always thought we made up the name "Lipop" but it's as true as the egg nog is good. Mrs. Lipop was a kissin' aunt of ours. Aunt Jess, and during the year she died. This will be the first Christmas she won't be here to make egg nog for her own family but we know she'd like to think Pointe Christmas parties were just a bit more fun with the recipe which always did so much good for her father's patients who were much stronger by the end of the holidays and the end of the egg nog, J.S.)

Method: Beat the egg yolks until they are as light as they possibly can be and then add the sugar. Beat thoroughly. Slowly pour in the bourbon and then the rum. When well mixed add cream and milk. Stir in the twelve stiffly beaten egg whites. Drift generously with grated nutmeg.

Pour the egg nog into a three gallon stone crock. Cover top with waxed paper or foil and then secure with plate. Set in snow, weather permitting, or some equally cool place for four days during which time it is advisable to hire a Pinkerton man to guard. Merry Christmas!

TO SHOW SPORTS CARS

Many of the world's outstanding sports cars, some of which have never been exhibited in this country before, will be on public view at The Henry Ford Museum when "Sports Cars Unlimited", a new exhibition will open on Friday, January 8. More than 50 automobiles will chronicle the evolution of the sports car, beginning with a 1910 Hudson Speedster, through modern times to a 1954 Fiat V-8. The exhibition will stress future trends, which will be dramatized by an Alfa Romeo "Disco Volante" and "Bat", and a host of plastic-bodied cars.

decided victory when he produced a story on spices for Mrs. Horan's personal and she was fascinated by it.

It's one of his own favorite gifts to give at Christmastime. And if you wonder what will happen to the copies he used to make the hilly terrain in the Christmas creche, all hidden under oxide and snow, you needn't worry.

When the creche is taken apart this year, those copies will go right smack back in the National Geographic Room at that nice Christmas house on Trombley.

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

So merry... so bright... so white... an airy-fairy white net... far-flung short skirt... trimmed in over-all black lace fans... splashed with rhinestones... so gala... so perfect for your dancing dates... for around fifty dollars. The clever hands at Margaret Rice's... on the hill... could turn out a sweater... but cashmere... with the same fan pattern... choose black trim, of course.

This week it looks as though your dream of a White Christmas is a reality... and advance snapshot fans dream of a Deluxe Outfit that can be a reality if you want it to be. Included is a basic camera... film... flashholder... flash guard... lamps... batteries... instructions... but more... this Duaflex 11 Camera is equipped with a Kodak F/8 Lens... a finer, faster lens that lets you move in closer to your subject... makes pictures under more difficult conditions... the camera with Kodak lens is around twenty dollars... complete Duaflex Deluxe Outfit around thirty dollars. Camera accessories... and many attractive snapshot albums... leather camera cases... are all good for Christmas giving. Camera Center... in the village.

For your special Christmas angel... especially if she's a teenager... there is Majestic, Brilliance... a gift carry-all... good for evening wear... It's a black velvet fold-over clutch bag combined with gold or silver embroidery... and a compact to match... for just three dollars. And out of Jacobson's Christmas galaxy of gifts there are gold and silver mesh bags... all sizes for around six to ten dollars. Jacobson's Bag Department.

The Fluff-Cuff hose are especially for the school set... feature the nylon reinforced heel and toe... in pastel shades of skyblue, maize, pink and white... infants' sizes right thru 11. Also practical are the Del baby slippers in red, blue, or yellow with tops of precious fur. The plain zippered ones are just as good-looking. Indian Mocs and pullman-type slippers are for boys. And your teen-age daughter would call the "Omphies" real gone. Clyde Hornung's, on the hill.

Warm as your Christmas hearth is a gift for the recreation room... a forty-eight cup West Bend Drip Coffee Urn... aluminum. The salient feature of the urn is that after the dripping process is over the heat control keeps the coffee at a proper serving temperature. Did you know that everybody, everywhere is painting? And to add glamour to your rooms there are handsome black waste baskets and trays already to paint? Just match the numbers on the paints to the numbers on the pictures. It's a cinch to paint one. Tile sets are available now, too. Frömm's, in the village.

Believe us, there isn't a gift that would portray the real spirit of Christmas more than the mustard seed remembrances in the form of bracelets, pins, and key rings that Marie Bird is showing in her salon on the hill. Many of these items were sold out a week ago... but another shipment has arrived in time for last minute shoppers... three and six dollars. Let us remind you there is still time for one of her competent staff to give you that extra holiday glamour... since her salon will be open Saturday, Dec. 26 and Monday, Dec. 28.

Every hostess and homemaker would dote on an "Extra-Maid" stainless steel tea cart... could be used as a television cart... refreshment server... dish carrier... sick room cart... serving cart. You see there is eight square feet of portable work space... triple shelves. The free wheeling coasters make it so easy to move from one room to the other... possesses rugged construction... good designs... some with hot tops. Gillis Modern Home Furnishings, 403 Fisher Rd.

At the Sign of the Mermaid, on the hill, there is always a myriad of gifts. And the ones we choose to extol this week are huge Tole trays (24x19 inches). Floral decorations adorn the black background. This set on a folding rack... use it as a tray or coffee table. The ones on casters are higher and ideal for pushing around... black with gold... both models are around thirteen dollars.

And while we sing of Yuletide treasures... we want to sing the praises of a worthwhile investment in relaxation. You just owe it to yourself to discover the restfulness of Prisma glasses. We looked through a pair... thought we were dreaming... the glare WAS gone... the objects that met our gaze were soft. Prisma glasses angle your vision just right for reading in bed and televiewing while lying down or reclining. Gives clearer, more comfortable vision... look in on a demonstration at 87 Kercheval... Johnston Optical Co., oh yes... these precision made specs come complete with case and gift box... for a jewel of a price... nineteen dollars and seventy five cents.

Do you know a man? This is for him... a personal shaker. It's perfect for mixing or shaking one drink (plus a dividend). Designed by a fellow called Napier, it comes in gleaming silver plate, and the decorated top is an attractive cocktail cup... the base has its own built-in strainer. He could use them in pairs for an attractive twosome service. Six and one-half inches tall... holds four ounces... $7.50 each, plus tax. Trall's Pharmacy, on the hill.

Some bright boys turned their clever hands... sparked them with imagination... and presto... we have a chance to start a model closet. A garment bag... some matching bangers... and a few yards of gay scalloped edging will do the trick... add a matching piece. Each item is beautifully quilted of the finest vinyl and sturdily constructed to give years of service, and will pay dividends in unwrinkled, dirt and moth protected clothes... A fifty seven inch garment bag holds 16 garments, $3.95... door bumper, $2.95... blanket comforter bag holds two blankets or one comforter, $1.95... quilted covered dress hangers, set of four... one dollar... quilted chests from around $10... many more... all good for Christmas giving. Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.

As bright as candy canes are the gifts from D. J. Healy's in the village. We choose lots of budget priced things... some as low as one twenty-five and not over five dollars. Wool is for warmth... know and here are cozy wool plaid stoles that gals crave for just three dollars... others in black, white, pink and blue for around four. Cozy knit gloves to keep her warm on blustery days are here at such a wee price... one dollar and twenty-five cents. Collars galore in fur, leather, wool, velvet or lace. Fragrances she'd ah and oh over... glorious jewelry and tricky jeweled gifts, bags, pixie hats made of wool and sparkly threads... slipper socks... caress-soft hankies. Now what could be more Christmas-y than a dolled-up package from the D. J. Healy Shop, in the village?

Flirty little Tabi house boots are an idea from native Japan lounge wear. They fit like a mitten... up over the ankle... adjustable. Offers the recipient "shoe-off" comfort... washable... fold flat for packing... interlined... in cotton or velvet... tiny price tags. Or choose leather mocs in a smart leather bag. The leather is fine because it is of imported glove leather. See... it is possible to make her leisure hours at home... and away... comfortable if you visit Jacobson's Hosiery Department.
