THE WHITE HOUSE put a top secret label on a message from Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin to President Eisenhower. It is believed that the message contains the Premier's newest proposals on how to promote "world peace."

Russian Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin paid an extraordinary call at the White House to present the proposal. At first the belief was widespread that the message dealt with world disarmament, a problem the two heads of state have been dealing with since last August, but an air of mystery was added when an informant said this was not so.

TORRENTIAL RAIN lashed Southern California, forcing more than 1,500 persons to flee their homes in Los Angeles, besides disrupting traffic and communications and forcing the closing of all Los Angeles schools. It was officially disclosed 7.24 inches of rain fell from 6 a. m. Wednesday to Thursday night.

THE BIG GUNS of Red China pounded the north and south anchors of Formosa's outer defenses in retaliation against Nationalist China's sinking of a Communist gunboat.

The revived "pocket war" flared on all three main sectors of the Formosan Strait as Peiping Radio blared of Red China's "sovereign right to liberate" Formosa. It termed the Nationalist bastion as "Chinese and definitely not American territory."

Sunday, January 29

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER refused to accept Russian Premier Bulganin's proposal for a 20-year friendship and co-operation pact for fear it would create a false illusion of accord. The President did not reject the proposal in so many words, but he made it clear that he did not think much of the idea.

FIRE AND PANIC swept a church hall in a suburb of Baltimore. At least 10 persons died and more than 200 were injured. Police and firemen were searching the debris for other possible victims.

The fire started by an explosion of a stove in the kitchen of the hall where 1,100 persons were attending an oyster supper, broke out at about 5 p. m. and took three hours to bring under control. Ambulances and fire fighting equipment were rushed to the scene from Baltimore and surrounding communities.

Tuesday, January 31

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and British Prime Minister Anthony Eden began their three-day high policy discussions today. Both agreed the test of Russia's intentions are deeds and not promises. Eden assured the President that his country endorsed the Chief Executive's rejection of Russia's 20-year peace pact. Eden and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd got down to business during a White House luncheon two hours after their arrival.

NORWAY seized eight Russian fishing boats in two days which were found fishing within the four-mile territorial limits of Norway, a Norwegian navy spokesman said. He said that more naval vessels are steaming full speed for the rich herring banks off the west coast of Norway, where five Russian trawlers were taken yesterday and more were reported still operating. Foreign Minister Halvard Lange, who has been attending a Nordic council meeting in Copenhagen, flew back home especially to deal with the international implications created by the alleged Russian encroachment, and seizure of the vessels. Norwegian authorities have imposed no fines and police are waiting for instructions from higher authorities before they take any action.

Soldiers Top Residents in Blood Drive

Of 189 Volunteers at Center Collection, 75 Came From AAA Posts in Pointe

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit which paid its annual visit to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center last Friday, January 27, was barely able to cope with the unusually large turnout of donors. Nurses and volunteers alike worked steadily from 2 to 8 p. m. with just a half hour break for a snack.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. G. R. Koester, assisted by Mrs. John R. Harding, the Council of Churches Blood Bank Committee, chaired by Hugh Burns, gave full support in soliciting donors.

Junior R.C. Helps
Much help was also given by the Junior Red Cross. They placed notices under windshields, painted signs, distributed posters and acted as babysitters and helpers the day of the Blood Bank.

But it was the men of the 99th A.A.A. Gun Battalion stationed in the Pointe who brought the attendance figures to 189 and the number of pints of blood donated to 139.

Major Sajor, Commanding Officer of the Battalion, said he would publicize the Blood Bank to his men and that he was sure the men when not on duty would contribute. They did, 75 strong — they kept coming in truck relays.

The Center apologizes for the delays which resulted to both civilian appointments and to the Army, but the Memorial is very grateful to the boys.

Thanks to the patient civilians and to the equally patient army men—many of whom missed their chow while waiting to donate their blood.

Show Will Thank Soldiers For Gifts to Blood Bank

The first drive for a community blood bank was held in the War Memorial Center on Friday, January 27.

Of the 139 pints of blood donated, 75 pints were contributed by the men stationed at the two 99th A.A.A. Gun Battalion camps at the foot of Three Mile drive and in Chalfonte road.

John Lake, director of the War Memorial Center, announced that the men have designated that all 75 pints be made available for members of the community. Anyone needing blood may call the Memorial Center for further information.

As a thank-you gesture for the fine way the men of the two gun battalion camps turned out

Pointe Symphony Resumes Rehearsals in Preparation For February 19 Concert

Emil Raab, Who Was Guest Conductor During Absence Of Wayne Dunlap, Will Be Soloist at Sunday Afternoon Event

After a brief intermission during the holiday season, rehearsals have resumed for members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra. Their next concert on Sunday afternoon, February 19, at 3:30 o'clock in the Parcels School Auditorium, is one that they are all looking forward to with a great deal of pleasure and anticipation.

Emil Raab, who served as guest conductor of the orchestra last season during the absence of Mr. Wayne Dunlap in Europe, will be the soloist.

Mr. Raab is on the staff of the School of Music of the University of Michigan as assistant professor of violin and chamber music. He is a member of the Stanley Quartet which has received wide recognition throughout Michigan and the east and has appeared as violin soloist with a number of symphony orchestras and in numerous sonata recitals in Ann Arbor and many other Michigan communities.

He received both the Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees from the University and was awarded the Stanley Medal, which is the highest award given by the School of Music.

Besides serving as guest conductor of the Grosse Pointe Orchestra during the 1954-55 season, Mr. Raab was also director of the Plymouth Symphony during Mr. Duñlap's absence and has recently been appointed conductor of both the Ann Arbor and Jackson Civic Symphonies and the Dearborn String Ensemble.

Grosse Pointers who enjoyed the concerts under Mr. Raab's direction so much last season, will all welcome the opportunity of hearing him as a soloist with the orchestra.

As the number of season ticket holders has increased substantially this season, all those wishing to purchase tickets for this concert are urged to do so without delay as the number is necessarily limited.

Tickets may be reserved by calling Mrs. Robert P. Armstrong, TU. 5-2432; Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., TU. 5-8861, or Mrs. Edward A. Baumann, TU. 1-6785.

David M. Sutter is president of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra Society.

As in the past, social hour will follow the program in the gymnasium of the school.

Tickets are $1.25 for adults and .75c for students.

Car Damages Home in Park

A Jaguar—car that is—almost entered the home of William Ward, 1025 Kensington road at Maumee, on Tuesday, January 24, causing considerable property damage.

A Park police traffic accident report revealed that the car, a sport coupe, driven by George W. Bullen, 39, of 212 Birchmont, Chagrin Falls, O., had leaped over the curb when control was lost, and smashed into the front porch and front storm doors of the house, causing an estimated $2,500 damage to the building.

Police said Bullen was traveling west on Maumee, when he lost control. They said he also knocked down a dead-end sign at the corner before striking the house.

When police arrived at the scene, Bullen was found lying on the ground, but was not seriously hurt. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by City police, where he was treated for facial cuts.

Bullen, ticketed for not having the car under control, was taken before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on January 25. Court was adjourned until February 15, to give the driver a little time to make restitution for damages. He was placed under a $50 bond, pending his re-appearance.

JR. GOODWILL TO MEET

The Junior Group of Goodwill Industries will hold a meeting on Monday, February 6, at 12:30 p. m. in the Goodwill Industries Building, 6522 Brush street.

Air Parking Lot Problem At Meeting

Farms Officials, School Representatives and Businessmen Hold Friendly Discussion

A meeting held in the Farms Municipal Building Monday night, to discuss the growing Kercheval-on-the-Hill parking problem, ended in amiable understanding between representatives of the city, businessmen and Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The meeting ended with all concerned agreeing that the problem should be given further study and the results of the study presented at a future meeting.

Represent Farms
Representing the Farms were Mayor William Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Richard Maxon, William Butler, Edward Roney, George Lang, William Kirby and City Manager Harry Furtton. Councilman Neil McEachin was absent.

Robert Weber, represented the school system, with Dr. Roy Selmeier, the system's director of instruction; and Walter Cleminson, principal of Grosse Pointe High School, also present.

On the side of the businessmen were Roland Gray, Edward Pongraz, Ray Jeffs and Cliff Ashton.

Prime discussion of the evening was the driver training program and where the training could take place, and also an exchange between the Farms and the Board, whereby the Board was offered the continued use of the city's pier-park, in return for the "loan" of a 75-foot strip of the Richard playground for business parking.

Recalls Past Meetings

Mayor Connolly pointed out to those present that several meetings had been held in the past, pertaining to the problem, including a discussion on the feasibility of closing McMillan road, building an under pass to connect the Richard playground and the possibility of erecting a double-deck over the parking lot, but in each case there was some form of opposition.

He repeated the Farms' offer to the Board wherein the pier-park was placed at the disposal of the schools for use in the driver-training program, in return, he said, the city would like to acquire the strip of land for parking.

Free Rows Jammed

Mr. Pongraz said that since the parking lot has been metered, the last two rows, which are for free parking, are jammed full by 8:45 a. m. If the Richard strip can be acquired and developed with room for at least 75 cars, the parking problem

Diplomas Awarded To 133 Graduates At GPHS Exercises

New Auditorium-Gymnasium Provides Ample Space For Friends and Relatives; Many Honors Handled Out at Commencement

By Rosalie Klein
GPHS Journalism Student

Grosse Pointe High School's new auditorium-gymnasium was the scene of commencement exercises for the first time last Thursday when the class of January, 1956, was graduated.

This was possibly the first time in the school's history when the graduates could invite as many friends and relatives as they wished.

1400 See Ceremonies

Approximately 1400 people were present to see the 133 students receive their diplomas. This is twice as many as could be accommodated in the old auditorium.

A hushed audience watched as the graduates marched into the auditorium to Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," played by the high school orchestra.

The theme of the commencement speeches, given by three members of the class, was "Our American Heritage."

Alice Lynn Martin, the first speaker, explained "The Meaning of Democracy."

"We must understand other nations and they must understand us," said Walter Foley, who spoke on "The Challenges of Democracy."

Oscar Marx climaxed the discussion in his speech on "The Future of Democracy."

Cleminson Presents Class

Mr. W. R. Cleminson, principal, presented the class of January, 1956, to Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of Grosse Pointe public schools.

Dr. Bushong congratulated the seniors on one of their journeys up the ladder to success.

The principal read the names of the students as they came up onto the stage to receive their diplomas from Dr. Bushong, who was assisted by Mr. Charles E. Saltzer, assistant principal.

Honor Graduates Named

The honor graduates who completed their three-year high school course with a "B" average or better were: Deanna Barty, James Deimen, Walter Foley, Hal Farquhar, Martha

Fire Damages Fruit Truck

A large wholesale fruit truck was partially damaged by fire on Friday, January 27, and its entire contents were ruined by heat and freezing water, it was revealed by Park Fire Chief George DeCaussin.

The truck, property of Carl Ciaramitaro of 1107 Lakepointe, was parked in the driveway of a gas station at 18200 Kercheval, overnight.

Chief DeCaussin said that the fire, caused by the overturning of a kerosene heater used to prevent the cold and frost from ruining the fruits, destroyed the entire top of the truck before firemen could put out the blaze. An estimate of the total damage and loss was not known.

Completes Special Course To Teach Kids to Drive

Muriel Kreski of Grosse Pointe High School is one of 72 newly-qualified driver education instructors being welcomed back to Michigan high schools this week.

Miss Kreski graduated Friday (January 27) from the 26th Driver Training Institute at the University of Michigan. Attending the week-long Institute on an all-expense scholarship from Automobile Club of Michigan, she received 40 hours of special training in both classroom and behind-the-wheel driver education techniques.

The state's new subsidized driver training program, introduced a need for an additional 300 to 500 qualified instructors by September. After February

Occupied Dwellings in Pointe Expected to Be 17,500 by That Time

The Pointe will have a population of about 60,700, and homes totaling about 17,500, by July 1960, according to estimates made by the Population Committee of the Regional Planning Commission of Detroit.

The Committee emphasized that the estimates for 1960 should be regarded as "working figures." Nationally, sharp changes in economic conditions would undoubtedly have their effect on residential construction in the Detroit area.

Locally, within the metropolitan area, new manufacturing plants, new shopping centers, and new residential development might bring about unexpected and accelerated growth in a governmental unit.

Might Also Be Slower

On the other hand, the delay or failure of development plans to materialize might mean a much slower growth in a local community than that anticipated in the estimates.

The Woods, fastest growing Pointe community, is expected to have a population of about 21,000, and dwelling units totaling about 6,000. Its present population is 16,000; home units, 4,700.

The Park, trailing the Woods, is expected to have about 16,000 people, and 4,700 homes. Its present population is 14,700; and homes, 4,400.

The estimate for the Farms is 14,000 population and 4,000 dwelling units. Present figures are 11,800 persons and 3,400 dwellings.

The City is expected to increase to 7,000 people and 2,200 homes. Now, the population is 6,700; and the number of homes, 2,100.

The Shores, the smallest Pointe, should have 2,500 people and 690 homes. The population today is 1,540, and the number of homes, 440.

The Detroit Standard Metropolitan area (Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties) will have a population of 3,960,000 by July 1960, the Committee estimated. That means an increase of 943,803 people for the area during the 1950's as against a population growth of 638,958 during the decade of the 1940's.

Arriving at his house, he stepped out of his car and at the same moment, he was seized by a man who struck him several times, knocking him to the pavement. Approaching pedestrians frightened away the assaulter, who jumped into his car and drove off without lights.

One of the pedestrians noted the license number of the fleeing car and gave it to police.

Chief Louwers said that the officers had difficulty in finding DeRosia because he had moved several times in the last few months.

He said that DeRosia was arrested on January 28 and taken to the station, where under questioning, DeRosia admitted assaulting Constant.

The chief said that DeRosia stated that he beat up Constant because while he was driving west on Jefferson, Constant drove into traffic and nearly collided with his car.

DeRosia is scheduled to appear before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger for disposition of his case.

Hope to Be Set for Bids During April

Plans For New Junior High School Now Being Completed by Architect

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education Office has high hopes that the bid-opening date for the $3,475,000 school-improvement program will be in April. The voters approved a bond issue last week to provide for the planned improvements to the system.

Harold Husband, Director of Administrative Service, disclosed that the Board is "shoot-ing" for an April bid-date on the junior high school and improvements on the Grosse Pointe High School heating system.

Pools Come Later

Bids on the proposed swimming pools at Pierce and Parcels will be opened at a later date, he said.

Mr. Husband said that it is also hoped that ground can be broken for the new junior high school by May 1, and that construction will be begun on the northern section of the Chalfonte site.

The construction will begin at that end he said because the Army Anti-Aircraft unit, encamped at the south part of the site, will not be leaving until August 1.

Ironing Out Details

He said that it took six months to plan the junior high school, and now he and Earl Meyer, the architect who drew the school plans, are ironing out the details before construction can be undertaken.

Mr. Husband said that the pools will be left last because once started, they will not take long to complete.

Man Arrested In Assault Case

Park police have been looking for a man since October 31, 1955, for assaulting an elderly man, and finally tracked him down.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that his detectives arrested Lawrence DeRosia, 31, of 1437 Crane, Detroit, for investigation of assault and battery.

The chief said that on the October date, Gus Constant, 60, of 970 Lakepointe, left his business place, located at Mack and Harvard, to go home.

Arriving at his house, he stepped out of his car and at the same moment, he was seized by a man who struck him several times, knocking him to the pavement. Approaching pedestrians frightened away the assaulter, who jumped into his car and drove off without lights.

One of the pedestrians noted the license number of the fleeing car and gave it to police.

Chief Louwers said that the officers had difficulty in finding DeRosia because he had moved several times in the last few months.

He said that DeRosia was arrested on January 28 and taken to the station, where under questioning, DeRosia admitted assaulting Constant.

The chief said that DeRosia stated that he beat up Constant because while he was driving west on Jefferson, Constant drove into traffic and nearly collided with his car.

DeRosia is scheduled to appear before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger for disposition of his case.

Shores Employe Saws Off Finger

P. B. Siniff of 795 Lake Shore road, an employe of the Shores Public Works Department, suffered the loss of his left third finger from the second joint on Wednesday, January 25.

A police report disclosed that Siniff was using a table saw in the basement of the Village Municipal Building, when the accident happened.

He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by police for treatment.

An informal reception followed in the girls' gymnasium, given by the Mothers' Club.

lem would be solved, and everyone would be happy, he said. He also said that if the schools developed the section of the playground for its driver-training, five to six years from now the developed portion would not be adequate to handle the program.

Mr. Weber said that soon the driver-training program is going to be a must, but as to how far it will go is not yet determined, as it is in its early stages. He said the Board appreciated the offer of the use of the park, which is being used at the present time, to carry out the program, but it was felt that the development of the playground would be more efficient and economical.

Asks About Loan

Councilman Roney then asked if the Board would be interested in "loaning," not giving the strip, in return for the use of the park.

Mr. Weber said the subject of the "loan" will be presented to the Board for study and consideration.

Dr. Selmeier brought up the problem of curbing, for road-way turns, etc., in the training, whereupon Mr. Weber said the layout of the drivers' court must be seen before plans can be made.

Mr. Jeffs said the most important thing, if the strip is acquired, is egress and ingress on Ridge road.

In bringing up the subject of the Special Assessment, whereby businessmen on the Hill were to pay for the development of the present parking lot, Mr. Gray said that the reason the businessmen refuse to pay and now have the matter in court, was because it was originally intended, by the city, to meter the lot, whereas, business wanted the parking free.

For Free Parking

He said that if parking was free, he would not be against paying his fair share of the assessment. Otherwise, the court would have to make him pay.

Councilman Maxon asked that if the city acquired the strip and developed it for free parking, would business pay the assessment.

Mr. Gray said he would, but he could not speak for the rest of the businessmen.

It was said that if the Farms is given the use of the strip by the school, the city will develop the land for free parking, and the last two rows will be metered so that funds obtained would pay for maintenance and upkeep of the lot and the businessmen might be induced to pay their share of the assessment.

Mr. Gray said he would, but he could not speak for the rest of the businessmen.

Earth Interior Is Under Study

Waves from earthquakes, atomic bombs and other explosions give scientists information about the earth's interior structure, according to Dr. L. Don Leet, Harvard University seismologist and Sigma Xi national lecturer.

Dr. Leet, professor of geology and head of Harvard's seismograph station, spoke to the Wayne University chapter of the Sigma Xi Society recently at the Kresge Science Library auditorium.

He revealed that the first atomic blast in 1945 not only ushered in a new era, but gave evidence of two earthwaves not found in earthquakes.

Geologists have learned that the earth is surfaced by a 20-mile thickness of crust, probably crystalline. This was learned by accurately timing the travel of earthquake waves to difference distances, Dr. Leet explained.

Below this crust, there is a region called the mantle which extends for 1,800 miles. The materials in this mantle are rigid for stresses of short duration, but they have a relatively low flow strength which permits changing under surface loads.

The earth's core is below this mantle. For 1,360 miles the materials are apparently liquid; the innermost 790 miles are probably solid.

Explosions, large or small, can generate in earth materials all the waves set up by earthquakes, as well as two not yet recognized on earthquake records, Dr. Leet said.

A significant fraction of the earthwave energy of the atomic explosion was carried by two additional earthwaves to the four kinds produced by earthquakes.

Eight hundred fifty groups of Boy Scouts made trips to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Alaska, and Europe in a year.

New Pools Seen as Added Insurance for Youngsters

By Fred Runnells

The affirmative decision of Grosse Pointers in the Tuesday, January 24, school election proved they feel the welfare of the Pointe's youngsters is more important than money.

Actually, by voting for a new Junior High School, which is so badly needed to handle the ever-increasing school population, and the two new swimming pools to be added to the Pierce and Parcels Junior Highs, these people took out a long range insurance policy to cover our children's education.

To raise and educate a child costs thousands of dollars and uncountable hours of vigilance. Valuable possessions most always are protected from total or partial loss by their owners through insurance policies. The affirmative vote was just another form of insurance; one that has no cash surrender value, but will pay big dividends over the long pull.

Take for example this fictitious story.

John and Mary Doe stood happily, hand in hand at their modest wedding reception, as guests wished them all the best things in life. A few years later John and Mary experienced the ordeal of awaiting the birth of the first child. Mary had a rough time of it and for a while the outcome hung in balance but the first wails from those tiny lungs signalled the all clear.

For five years the Doe's jealously guarded their offspring from the dangers of the world. Truly, Junior was the pride and joy of his parents. His dad took out hospitalization and insurance to protect his son from the unforeseen.

When Junior gayly trudged off to school that first day Mary went along and saw the dangers that lurk along the way and signed up, at the school office, for adult safety patrol duty. This was her way of providing insurance for her son and hundreds of other children who make their daily trek to and from school.

Through all kinds of weather Mary kept her vigilance at her street corner throughout Junior's elementary school days.

And weren't the Does proud when Junior graduated and became ready to enter Junior High. This meant Mary no longer need worry about Junior traveling the city's street. After all hadn't she kept watch over him all these years and schooled him in pedestrian safety?

Junior sailed through his Junior High career without mishap and was showing promise of becoming a better than average student. Already his dad could envision Junior going to college and later joining him as a partner in his now thriving business.

Junior took to high school like a duck to water. He had little trouble with his academic subjects and was a pretty fair athlete. Because of limited swimming facilities, Junior turned his athletic talents to basketball and baseball.

The lad had just completed his final exams for the tenth grade and was looking forward to a summer of baseball playing on one of the Pointe's Babe Ruth League teams.

It was a hot humid summer afternoon and Junior's team had just won a close one. Hot and sweaty, the boys decided the cool waters of Lake St. Clair would feel wonderful and went to one of the municipal parks for a dip. Bathing was one thing and swimming another as far as Junior was concerned and he kept to the safety of the shallow water until one of his playmates called him a sissy. This was too much for such a red blooded boy and Junior ventured too far in an attempt to join the others.

In seconds all of John's and Mary's protection went by the boards. Hours later the police pulled the limp form from the water. As the sad news was broken to his parents John could see all his dreams for his son vanish. Mary, through tear-filled eyes, moaned "My baby, my baby, what have we done to deserve this?"

Actually, John and Mary had done everything in their power. Hadn't they protected him from all dangers for the past 15 years? Yes, they certainly had. Then where did the fault lie? It all could be traced back to the fact the community had not provided adequate swimming facilities in the school system so that every child had the opportunity to learn to swim.

This incident could have happened to any Pointe family over the past years but with the successful vote on January 24, the danger of a John and Mary Doe situation is greatly reduced.

With the addition of the new pools every child will have the opportunity to learn to protect himself or herself in the water.

Once the new pools are commissioned the Grosse Pointe Board of Education MUST make them instead of giving them the right of selection of any of the three points separately. Many of them do not have youngsters in school and felt they shouldn't be asked to support the proposal that would benefit them little.

Regardless of what the various reasons were for these people dissenting, the fact remains the majority, however slight, still rules our elections.

Cpl. Bill Wilson In Movie Role

Cpl. Bill Wilson, U. N. Honor Guard in the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed at Pershing Heights, Tokyo, was a recent "stand-in" for movie actor David Niven, in scenes being shot for a picture "Around the World in 80 Days," in Japan.

Director Kevin McClory of Todd AO Unit was in a quandary when he learned that David Niven, at the last minute, could not make the trip for his scheduled scenes. His secretary remembered a 6-foot Honor Guardsman, who she thought would be able to replace him.

Cpl. Wilson spent three days on the set of the Unit in Numazu. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wright Wilson of Anita avenue. He has been in Japan since October 1954, and will serve in that area through December 1956.

Bill was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School.

Library Announces Newest Additions to Movie Files

Film users of Grosse Pointe will have a selection of new titles available for their use during the month of February.

The film collection of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, as part of its program of having new films available for use during each of the winter months, announces eight new titles plus one held over from the January assignment.

The film collection is circulated from the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher, where inquiries may be presented in person or by telephone to TUxedo 4-2200. All films are 16 millimeter and require a sound projector for their use. No charge is made for the use of any of the films, and an adult library card is the only requirement for borrowing.

The title included in the assignment available during the month of February are:

CALIFORNIA AND ITS NATURAL RESOURCES, 40 minutes, color. The film describes how California's oil, natural gas and water have made possible the development in its mining and forest resources, industries, agriculture, and fisheries. It also shows scenes of California's cities and landscapes.

FINE FEATHERS, 10 minutes, color. The strange and colorful birds of Australia make up the content of this film. The list of varieties shown makes up an exotic array: parrots, cockatoos, black swans, pelicans, penguins, emus, cassowaries, mistletoe birds, and bell birds, to mention a few.

THE JOLIFOU INN, 11 minutes, color. An introduction to the work of Cornelius Krieghoff, the Dutch artist who came to Canada in search of adventure. Living in the wilderness of Quebec during the mid-1800's, Krieghoff drew his inspiration from the hardy French habitant, whose spirit is captured in his colorful work. Among the reproductions shown is the Jolifou Inn, his most famous work.

LIMA—CAPITAL OF PERU, 10 minutes, color. Describes how Francisco Pizarro laid out the city around the Plaza de Armas, shows a religious procession and celebrations honoring San Martin, and makes a tour of the city to picture its buildings and something of the life of the Limeros.

NO LONGER VANISHING, 28 minutes, color. The problem of how to train and integrate the Indians into the white society which has supplanted theirs is here dealt with with special reference to the Indian tribes of Canada. A feature of the film are some spectacular shots of tall tree lumbering in which many Indians are now engaged.

OTTAWA—TODAY AND TOMORROW, 10 minutes, color. The Canadian national capital, which is considered by many to be one of the outstandingly well planned capitals of the world, is here described both from the viewpoint of town planning and scenic attractions. Included in the film are shots of the Houses of Parliament there located.

THE SINGING PIPES, 21 minutes, black and white. The skilled craft of pipe-organ building, as represented by the work of the Casavant Freres of St. Hyacinthe, Quebec. The film shows the entire story of the complex building of the instrument. Sheets of molten metal become pipes; wooden parts are made with cabinet-maker precision by craftsmen who spend all their lives in the business and hand their skill down from father to son. Throughout the film, music on the organ accompanies its life story.

SOUTHERN HIGHLANDERS, 21 minutes, color. This film tells the story of a backwoods people who live in the beauty and awe-inspiring grandeur of the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee. It portrays their transformation from a primitive mode of life to modern living and mechanized methods of tilling the soil and raising their crops, while retaining all the tradition and folklore which are their heritage.

The holdover film is WHITE THUNDER, which takes the viewer on a technicolor tour of Niagara Falls.

Party Planned By Bachelors

Plans are underway for the fifth annual "New Faces" party to be held February 12 at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

The bachelors, who founded the club, have a strict "no dates" rule for the party, the object being strictly boy-meets-girl. Jack Heaton, Glenn Friedt, Barbara Leonard, Susan Irving, Bill Wilson, Rankin Peck, Julie Dickson, Marion Wilbur, Jamie Bond and John Jenkins are issuing the 400 invitations.

Nine times out of ten there is an explanation for what seems unreasonable—think before passing judgment.

3 Departments Extinguish Fire

Mutual aid was put into practice on Tuesday, January 31, when the Park and the Farms Fire Departments aided the City in extinguishing a blaze at the home of the Howard Bennetts, 530 Washington road.

The fire, which originated in the basement of the house, caused an estimated $8,000 in damages.

The fire had a good start before City firemen arrived on the scene. Park and Farms fire equipment were called almost immediately.

City Fire Capt. Harold Rivard disclosed that the fire was started by a shorted wire above a rubbish bag in the basement, and then caught onto the bag. The flames touched the gas meter, which flared up and added fuel to the blaze. The meter was completely destroyed, Capt. Rivard said, and gas masks were required to turn off the gas.

The fire shot up into the clothes chute and in between the walls of the kitchen and front room, but was cut off at the first and second floor of the building.

Nab 2 Youths In Park Thefts

Two 14-year-old boys were arrested Wednesday, January 11, in the burglary of a Park hardware store.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said the two were seized after a break-in at a Detroit store. The suspects, Louwers said, were tracked to their homes by footprints in the snow.

Chief Louwers reported that the loot taken from Salerno Hardware, 15128 Mack avenue, on January 7, has been recovered.

Mrs. Mildred Mitchell is owner of the store.

Many Events to Observe Scouting's 46th Birthday

Corner lot encampments, store window displays, religious award presentations, Blue and Gold Banquets, Old-Timer Reunions, Father-and-Son Dinners, Courts of Honor, Scout Sabbath Services and other special programs will highlight Scouting's 46th Birthday Anniversary during the next two weeks.

"Onward for God and My Country" is the theme for the 46th Anniversary Birthday observance. "Onward for God and My Country" is a new Four-Year Program designed to help prepare America's boys to live in today's world and to prepare them to carry their responsibilities in the years ahead.

Nationally, Scouting's membership is over 4,100,000 Scouts and leaders, by far the largest of the 57 different countries which endorse Scouting and are members of a World-Wide International Scout Bureau.

Since 1910, more than 24,500,000 boys and leaders have been identified with the Boy Scouts of America.

The Metropolitan Detroit area, recognized as the "Arsenal of Democracy," also has the largest Scout Council in the nation. Membership as of December 31, 1955, include 54,970 Scouts, 18,685 Volunteer Leaders for a record total of 73,655 registered members.

These Volunteers gave over 2,424,000 hours of service to Scouts in this area during 1955. The valuable contribution to their community being made by these Volunteers was recognized by Sponsoring Institutions, Service Clubs, Schools, Churches and many other community groups at a Mammoth Recognition Dinner last week.

Highlighting many church and synagogue services will be the presentation of Religious Awards to Scouts of Catholic, Jewish, Lutheran and Protestant faiths. Largest ceremony will be the Holy Hour Service at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Sunday afternoon, February 12. Over 225 Ad Altaredei Crosses will be presented to Scouts of the Catholic faith.

Locally, during Boy Scout Week, and immediately following, District "Friends of Scouting" teams will be engaged in conducting the Council's Annual Sustaining Membership Enrollment, needed to extend and expand the Scouting Program among all boys in all sections of the Council territory.

An activity highlight this year will be the Mammoth Scouting Exposition at the State Fair Grounds on May 17-18-19, expected to exceed the record attendance of 112,000 in the 1954 show.

As part of its annual celebration, Scouting will conduct two official pilgrimages to Lincoln statues on Lincoln's birthday. At 2:30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, February 12, one pilgrimage will be held at the Lincoln-Mercury statue, Warren and Livernois. The other pilgrimage is scheduled later that same afternoon at the Scout's Own statue on the Charles Howell Scout Reservation, near Brighton.

A Canadian delegation will attend the pilgrimage in Detroit. A birthday cake-cutting celebration will be held in the Scout Office, 51 West Warren Avenue, on Wednesday morning, February 8, with Scout Executive Amos R. Shields and other Council Officers officiating.

Unitarians Hear Pearson

"In England I was told that only 20 per cent of the people there are members of any congregation, while only one quarter of these are actual church-going members.

"Contrast this with figures which show that more than 60 per cent of the American people maintain active church membership," said H. Talbot Pearson, national president of the Unitarian Laymen's League, at a slide-illustrated lecture which he presented at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Mr. Pearson's lecture, which depicted the recent visit of a group of Unitarians to the various European shrines dedicated to religious freedom, spoke Monday evening before a group of nearly 200 people.

An interesting sidelight on the humanness of the great humanitarian, Dr. Albert Schweitzer, was supplied by Mr. Pearson, as he showed scenes and described the party's visit to the doctor's home in Guinbach. "Dr. Schweitzer told us he preferred to speak in French, so we had a member of our party translate all questions into that language," related Mr. Pearson. "However, he would stop the interpreter repeatedly, saying, in English: 'No, no, that is not the exact meaning.' Finally he turned to us apologetically and said: 'I always forget; I am always finding myself correcting interpreters.'"

Prior to the lecture, Mr. Pearson was honored at a dinner at the Village Manor, which, like the lecture, was sponsored by the Laymen's League of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

There are no national boundaries when Red Cross is on the job.

Home Nursing Classes Form

If you are a homemaker, why don't you join a Red Cross Home Nursing class now so that you will be better prepared to meet any health emergency in your family or neighborhood, Dr. Joseph G. Molner suggests. There is no fee, and you may join a morning or afternoon class. They are taught by a graduate, registered nurse who has special preparation for teaching. Meetings last two hours, and they are held once a week for seven weeks.

The number of women in each class is limited so that each may have an opportunity to practice the nursing skills which the nurse demonstrates. If you enroll in a class you will learn what to do before the doctor comes and how to give simple treatments which he orders. You will learn to perform a number of skills which add greatly to the comfort of anyone who must stay in bed. You will learn what is necessary to protect children from catching diseases. You can become expert at making a bed with a patient in it and taking temperatures and reading the thermometer.

One recommendation to meet Civil Defense needs is to have a substantial number of women complete the Red Cross Home Nursing Class.

To improve your own mental health, Dr. Molner advises that you treat yourself to the personal satisfaction and confidence which comes from being better prepared to serve your own family and neighbors.

Classes are being organized to meet in the following places: Marygrove College, 8425 West McNichols; Northwest Health Center, 14585 Greenfield; St. Clair Community Center, 4535 Fairview; Lasky Community Center, 13200 Fenelon; and Kronk Community Center, 5555 McGraw. To join one of these classes you should call the American Red Cross at Woodward, 1-3900, Home Nursing Department.

There's a difference between the terms "scissors" and "shears." Scissors are under 6" long and have both handles alike. Shears are more than 6" long and have a large size handle for the fingers and a smaller handle for the thumb.

DAC Bowlers Honor Wives at Big Party

Annual Gala Event Draws 600; Special Honors Paid To New President and Mrs. Joseph E. Bayne

Gala January festivities at the Detroit Athletic Club reached a peak last Saturday, when the DAC Bowlers, including a large number of Grosse Pointe members, gave their annual formal party to honor their wives. And practically everyone knew everyone else in the throng of 600 present.

Dinner, dancing and floor show entertainment, preceded by a 6 o'clock cocktail hour, made the fete a fun-packed affair. Each league had its own long table for dinner, served in the Pontchartrain and ladies dining rooms and the gymnasium. Dancing was in the gym, too.

At 11 o'clock, some 200 converged on the bowling alleys—it's the only time in the year when the feminine contingent has the chance to bowl at the DAC. These couples alternated their kegging with dancing in the nearby Abbey grill.

Joseph E. Bayne, DAC's newly-elected president, and Mrs. Bayne were especially honored at the festivity presided over by S. C. Armitage, bowling chairman, and Mrs. Armitage.

A preliminary cocktail party given by the William G. Sieberts brought 17 couples to their Touraine road home before going to the DAC. The group included the Robert Gaskills, the David Sicksteels, the Murray L. MacDonalds, the Kent Zimmermans, the L. Jerome DuMauhs.

More were the H. C. Van Wormers, the Kenneth Beardslees, Dr. and Mrs. George Christiansen, the L. Gaylor Hulberts, the Clyde LaMees, the Peter Gallettes, the Paul Reids, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thoma, all of Grosse Pointe; the Asa Sherwoods and Arthur McWoods of Bloomfield, and the Walter Fischleys and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coates, of Brighton.

Other Grosse Pointers at the Bowlers' fete were the W. Harold Lightbodies, the Ernest P. Lambs, the H. John Hagens, Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lepley, the Vincent C. Youngs, the William F. Rossiter, the William M. Perretts, the Fred A. Rohns, the Howard J. Elys.

The list continues with the A. J. Wettlaufers, Dr. and Mrs.

Don S. Graham, the W. D. McClintocks, Mr. and Mrs. E. Richard Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Simon, the Ellsworth W. Allisons, the George Maghielses, the James C. Finneys, the Walter Crows.

Still more were the Knox Hearnese, the Taylor H. Seebers, the L. George Hoopers and the James A. Zinns.

Theresa Font's Betrothal Told

Mrs. Raynaud Font of Lincoln road and Dr. Anthony J. Font of Detroit, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Theresa, to Rodney Dennis Elgie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Mix of Brookings, South Dakota.

The marriage will take place in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on March 17, in an afternoon ceremony with Rev. Andrew Rauth officiating. A reception will follow in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The bride-elect has asked her sister, Mrs. Ralph Quinones, to be the matron of honor, and her niece, Diane Font, to be flower girl.

Dr. Ralph Quinones will be best man for Mr. Elgie.

Several parties have been planned for the prospective bride.

Mrs. C. P. Hardy and Emily Hardy gave an afternoon tea and miscellaneous shower for Theresa in their home on Three Mile drive on January 22.

Mrs. Karl Lysinger and Mrs. Henry Crossen have reserved February 4 for a luncheon and linen shower in the former's homes on Whittier road.

Theresa's sister-in-law, Mrs. Pierre J. Font of Torrey road will honor her with a luncheon and kitchen shower at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on February 23.

Another party will be given at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club by Mrs. Ralph Quinones on March 10.

A rehearsal dinner on Friday, March 16 will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Pierre J. Font in their home in Torrey road.

Settlement House Observes Birthday

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers as Franklin Settlement Becomes 75 Year Old; Many Pointers on Board

The oldest settlement house in Michigan saw its beginning on Franklin Street by the river in 1881. Starting as a day nursery, this year the Franklin Settlement House, no longer in the old location, will celebrate its 75th anniversary. Many years ago it was moved to its present site on Charlevoix at Elmwood street.

In the past it fell to the lot of gracious "well-to-do" Detroit families to support the neighborhood recreation project. Now, with its membership of some 1,200 from the ages of two years to 94 years, the house is supported by the United Foundation.

But members of old Detroit families, many of whom are now Grosse Pointers, still set the policy for its leadership and maintenance.

At the annual meeting in the Franklin Settlement held on January 26, an election of officers for 1956 and new board members was held. All were guests of the staff.

Mrs. Wallace M. Jensen of Hillcrest road was re-elected president. The slate of officers includes Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., first vice-president; Mrs. Leonard R. Lewis, second vice-president; Mrs. C. H. Haberkorn III, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward B. Caulkins, Jr., assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Edward P. MacKenzie, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Andrew G. Creamer, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. John W. McEachren, treasurer, and Mrs. Reginald MacArthur, assistant treasurer.

Elected to the board in December were Mrs. Sam Keller and Mrs. Robert Looker. Mrs. Osborne Coates, Mrs. Henry E. Bodman II, Mrs. Charles Homer, and Mrs. Richard Gushue were elected to the board on January 26.

Other members of the board of directors are as follows: Mrs. John A. Dodds, Mrs. Albert Dickson, Jr., Mrs. Edsel Ford, Mrs. C. Henry Haberkorn III, Mrs. Howard C. Baldwin, Mrs. Wallace N. Jensen, Mrs.

Leonard T. Lewis, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Mrs. Ray Danaher, Mrs. William Crapo, Mrs. J. Howard Stephenson, Mrs. Henry B. Steinbach, Miss Sarah Sheridan, Mrs. Richmond W. Smith, Mrs. William E. Scripps, Mrs. Joel Prescott, Mrs. Charles R. Murphy, Mrs. Peter Mather, Mrs. John McLucas, Mrs. Andrew Creamer, Mrs. Stuart Curtis, Mrs. Thomas Curtis, Mrs. E. B. Caulkins, Jr., Mrs. Martin L. Butzel, Mrs. Harold R. Boyer, Mrs. C. Hascall Bliss, Mrs. Henry E. Beyster, Mrs. John W. McEachren, Mrs. E. P. MacKenzie, and Mrs. Reginald O. MacArthur.

Others are Mrs. J. H. Stephenson, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Vance, Mrs. Donald VanZile, Mrs. A. D. Wilkinson, and Mrs. David Williams.

A diamond jubilee will be observed by the Franklin Settlement, the date for which will be announced at a future meeting.

The maintenance of a standing corps of volunteer nurses ready to help local doctors and nurses cope with emergencies is one of the important jobs of the Red Cross. A total of 650 assignments of Red Cross nurses to major disaster duty were made this past year.

Parke, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford B. P. Lorange of Lake Shore road, who had been skating all afternoon on the lake, as had been Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Osius, who were also present.

Square Dances Outgrow Hall

The monthly Unitarian Church Square Dance has become so popular that it will move to the larger gym of the Monteith School on Saturday, February 4. More than 25 sets participated in the January dance.

The Unitarian Church square dance is the brain child of two Grosse Pointe Unitarian church members, Wes and Julie Rea.

Wes and Julie have been teaching square dancing for the Grosse Pointe Adult Education Department for eight years. It would be impossible to estimate the number of dancers who have learned from them. In the Adult Education classes the enrollment has been well over 1,000.

Wes is assistant principal of Northeastern High School in Detroit. He and Julie have two sons, Carl, 10, and Paul, 13.

Both boys play Little League baseball and football, and next year Wes Rea will be treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Little League baseball.

Julie is also active in community affairs, being one of those persons who can't say no when a worker is needed for the Torch Drive, March of Dimes or P-T.A.

The popularity of the Unitarian square dance bears out the Reas' philosophy that many dancers want a place to dance in a friendly relaxed group where the dancing patterns are not too difficult, but where they can use the dancing skills they have already mastered in the Grosse Pointe Adult Education classes. And yet emphasis is on friendliness and good fellowship rather than perfection of dancing ability.

Police Arrest Speeding Driver

A driver, who police said was driving at a high rate of speed on Lake Shore road, and in an erratic manner, drove his car over the curb at Lake Shore and Elm court on Thursday, January 26, before police could stop him.

While cruising east on Lake Shore at night Farms Patrolmen Peter LaPonsa and Earl Field observed the car with its left front headlight out, going west on Lake Shore. The officers turned their car at Moran and gave chase.

Besides traveling at a high rate of speed, the other car was swaying from side to side, almost hitting the curb on either side of the road, and then came to a stop after going over the curb.

The driver, Clifford C. Sweet, 43, of 12000 Kercheval, was arrested, and taken to the station. Police said he had been drinking.

The officers said that when apprehended, Sweet's face, left side of his shirt and his left hand was covered with blood, but he refused to disclose where or how he was injured.

The driver was ticketed for reckless driving and will have to appear in court on February 8.

Library Family Film Night Has Close Call When Car Skids

February's Family Film Night is to be presented tomorrow, Friday, at the Grosse Pointe Public Library. Scheduled for 7:30 in the meeting room on the second floor of the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher, the program will offer an hour of color films which the entire family can enjoy together.

By setting the time of the program in the early evening, the library works to encourage parents to come and bring their children for a combination library visit and film showing.

The Central Library is open both before and after the program to enable patrons to exchange books and to browse through the collection.

The feature film of the February 3 program is "Boys A-Building," which tells the story of the 1954 Soap Box Derby and the boy champions who competed in it.

With thousands of boys throughout the country learning to use hand tools and to shape materials through their hope of being crowned champion of the greatest amateur race in the world, "Boys A-Building" traces the yearly cycle of the competition up to its yearly climax on Derby Day in Akron.

There champions from all over the country gather to compete, to play, and to be entertained. In addition to the thrill of the race, there are movie stars, colorful parades, special events, and the championship award dinner to make it a remarkable two days. While the film, sponsored by the Derby's promoters, the General Motors Corporation, centers around a boys' activity, it has appeal for all members of the family.

Completing the program will be a children's short aimed to hold the younger members of the audience and a Michigan film, "Buck Fever." Holding interest for the hunter, the outdoorsman, the conservationist, and the plain scenery lover, "Buck Fever" was filmed in Michigan's north country.

By presenting the attractions of deer hunting against the hard facts of deer population and food supply, the film is aimed to place deer hunting in its proper perspective in Michigan's outdoor sport offerings.

Patrons of the Library, both regular members of the Family Film Night audience and newcomers, are invited to come to the Central Library on February 3 to enjoy the showing. Neither tickets nor reservations are required, and children accompanied by a parent or other responsible adult are especially welcome.

FLOOD VICTIMS AIDED

President Harlow H. Curtice of General Motors announced a $25,000 GM contribution to the American Red Cross for relief of flood victims in Oregon and California. "All America should give help to the residents of the West Coast flood disaster area, many of whom suffered great property losses," Mr. Curtice said.

A 52-year-old motorist suffered three fractured ribs when his car skidded on an icy road on Saturday, January 28, and smashed into a steel light pole.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling said that the car was a total loss and that it was a miracle the man escaped death.

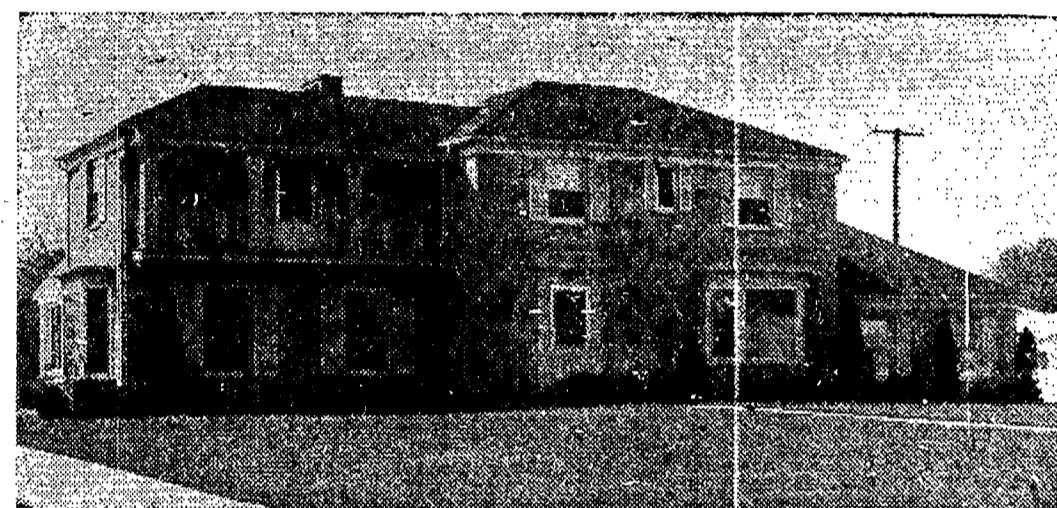

Driver of the car was Julius C. Hall of 21124 Walton road, St. Clair Shores. He was driving north on Lake Shore road, when his vehicle skidded off the roadway, leaped over the curb and slammed sideways into the pole.

Chief Duemling said that Hall was rushed to Cottage Hospital in an unconscious state and that police administered oxygen because the man had difficulty breathing.

Hall was issued a ticket for not having his car under control, the chief said.

Since 1910, more than 24,500,000 boys and leaders have been members of the Boy Scouts of America.

Soldiers Give Eloquent Answer

There is food for thought and considerable cause for head-hanging on the part of the local citizenry in the report which has come in from the most recent blood collection project conducted at the War Memorial Center.

The figures show that a total of 189 volunteers appeared to donate their blood, a number which caused the officials in charge to hail it as a record turn-out and to issue an apology for the delay caused in making the collection. The large number of donors taxed the capacity of the technicians on hand and some waiting was required.

This is all very fine and admirable, as far as the cold statistics go. But the real meat of the story lies in the breakdown.

It seems that among the 189 volunteer donors, there were some 75 soldiers from the two Anti-Aircraft battalions stationed in the Pointe. As far as the actual figures go, these soldiers gave 75 pints of blood. A total of 139 pints were collected, so that leaves just 64 pints which were donated by Pointe residents, of which there are some 55,000, with at least 25,000 in the category of eligible contributors.

The soldiers arrived by truck in relays all through the day. A number of them missed mess because they had to wait to make their donation, but no grumbling was heard.

What is more, each and every one of the soldiers requested that his blood be put in the community blood bank in the Memorial Center's name. Whoever needs it has only to call the Center and make the request. The Center will telephone Red Cross, where the blood is kept, and order it released for use.

This is a pretty nice present the soldier boys have made to a community where loud voices have been heard inviting them to leave. It is an eloquent answer to the, fortunately, small minority who have hollered against their presence here.

A thick haze of shame hangs over this area where the residents needed the military, assigned to duty here, to carry out an obligation that was not theirs. Without their help, the record of this blood collection would have gone down as a dismal failure.

This is not the first time these soldiers have displayed their eagerness to take part in worthwhile affairs in the community in which they are stationed. They volunteer for all manner of helpful jobs, such as canvassing for charity drives, giving parties for orphans, lending a helping hand to worthy organizations in all fields of endeavor.

These boys aren't here because they want to be. They were sent here by their government and we all should be grateful and proud to have them in our midst. Not only are they our greatest single source of protection in the event of an enemy air attack, but they have made every effort to take a helpful part in the life of the community.

The next time anyone raises a hue and cry about getting them out of here, we shall be very likely to inquire whether or not the objector donated any blood at this last collection. The records show the soldiers did, and that they wanted it left here, as a continuing reminder of their willingness to be a part of us. So vital is their demonstration that it very well may save the lives of some of those who have objected to their presence.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"The play is done; the curtain drops,
Slow falling to the prompter's bell;
A moment yet the actor stops,
And looks around to say farewell.
It is an irksome word and task;
And when he's laughed and said his say,
He shows, as he removes the mask,
A face that's anything but gay."

(W. M. Thackeray)

If you think yours are the only troubles in the world, then you might try this out for size. We recently met a middle-aged woman with multiple sclerosis. She was told six years ago that within a year she would be a helpless invalid in a wheel chair. But she refused to settle for that. Today she manages to drag herself around with the aid of canes.

She exercises on an electric bicycle and manages to drive a car and attend such functions that are not too wearing. Her disposition is cheerful and her outlook encompasses trying to help others.

We had the extreme pleasure of meeting her . . . and when we asked how she managed to continue thinking that life can be beautiful . . . she replied: "Have you ever thought of this. Take a room full of people, all of whom have some illness or trouble or sorrow. Suppose it were possible to put each person's trouble in a paper bag and let everyone present choose the bag he would most like to have as long as he HAD to have SOMETHING. Everyone would pick his OWN bag of troubles. Do you know why? It is YOUR problem and you have become used to it and learned how to live with it." We think this can stand a LOT of thought!

It's been a long time since we attended a "dance palace" for the purpose of watching others; have at it . . . so we were a little startled the other day to tune in on McKenzie's t-v teen party and see what the modern dance has come to. We don't know what it is called but a contest was in progress with about six couples gyrating to the tune of Pat Boone's rock and roll deal . . . "Tutti Frutti". At first glance it looked as though a dozen or so teen-agers had eaten something that gave them stomach pains.

Finally a brother and sister team won the thing . . . and gave a demonstration of WHY they were the lucky winners. They never got closer to each other than about six feet NOR did they look at each other. Mostly they looked at the floor when they weren't lying on it in the process of the dance. A far cry from the old two step we used to do when our partner held us delicately in his arm while wearing white kid gloves!

After the "ball was over" Emcee McKenzie asked the pair if they practised a lot together. They allowed as how they did . . . at home. We couldn't help feeling that they could have practised just as easily if one lived here and one in Toledo. Ah wilderness!

Can't say Grosse Pointers aren't on the ball. A local gent putting in a long distance call recently . . . couldn't get a very simple name over to the operator . . . so when she asked how to spell the name (which began with the letter R) . . . he said "R . . . as in ARM." THAT she understood!

If you care to . . . you may believe this. A guy shipwrecked on an island, woke up to find himself lying under a tree with his head being stroked by a beautiful girl. He asked the usual "Where am I?" and was told his ship had sunk but he was very lucky to have been washed ashore and that there was also a case of champagne that came in in his wake.

The island loreli got him some food and between them they knocked off a magnum of champagne. Time hanging heavy on their hands, she asked him what he would like to do. He replied: "Anything you say. What IS there to do?" Our heroine then asked "Would you like to play around with me?" To which the shipwreck gent exclaimed: "DON'T tell me there's a golf course on this island too. HOW enthusiastic can golfers get????

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

The Grosse Pointe Public Library has just received a set of "Great Books of the Western World," a 54-volume work produced by Encyclopedia Britannica in collaboration with the University of Chicago.

To assure that an adequate cross-section of universities, colleges and public libraries possess this set, the Old Dominion Foundation advanced a sum sufficient to distribute 1,600 sets and invited the American Library Association to serve as the agency of selection and distribution.

The Old Dominion Foundation was established in 1941 by Paul Mellon. Grants of over $20,000,000 have been made by the Foundation for "religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes as shall be in the furtherance of the public welfare."

Application questionnaires were mailed to approximately 30,000 libraries including public, college and university libraries, public, parochial and private high school libraries as well as to all state library agencies. The 18,000 successful applicants were selected from among the several thousand libraries that replied. Your library is honored to be one of them.

This set which contains 54 volumes encompassing 443 works by 74 authors, spanning Western thought from Homer and the Bible to the 20th century, is edited by Robert Maynard Hutchins, with Mortimer J. Adler, associate editor.

Editorial preparation of the set occupied 100 scholars, chiefly engaged on the Syntopicon, for eight years, and cost $2,000,000. The unique contribution of the set is the Syntopicon, Volumes 2 and 3. It comprises an "idea index" through which it is possible to trace 202 fundamental "Great Ideas" and their 2,987 subordinated topics through all the writings in Volumes 4 to 54 of the set. It is as though all these 443 works had been read 2,987 times, each time with a particular topic in mind.

The Syntopicon operates in the field of ideas as the dictionary does in the field of words and the encyclopedia in the field of facts, thus constituting a third basic reference work.

The set contains whole works, not excerpts, and for 21 of the 74 authors, all their works. It represents the only publication in English, or the only edition aside from rare or expensive printings, of key-works by Aristotle, Hippocrates, Galen, Euclid, Archimedes, Ptolemy, Copernicus, Galileo, Harvey, Descartes, Pascal, Newton, Montesquieu, Kant, Lavoisier, Fourier, Faraday and Freud.

The set included 1,200 pages of original writing, including Dr. Hutchins' introductory volume, "The Great Conversation" and the 102 introductory essays in the Syntopicon by Dr. Adler

We understand that the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library are talking of sponsoring a Great Books program next fall. Leaders for this program are always in demand. If you are interested in joining such a group in the fall or in attending a leader course this spring, you might contact Mr. Robert M. Orr, Director of Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, at the Central Library, TUxedo 4-2200.

Chrysler Boosts Fund Donation

An additional gift of $250,000 has been made to the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund by the Chrysler Fund, L. L. Colbert, president of Chrysler Corporation, announced.

The new gift raises the total Chrysler Fund grant to the Building Fund to $2,500,000, largest contribution ever made to any charitable organization by the Chrysler Fund.

The Chrysler Fund contribution brings the amount raised thus far for the Building Fund to $15,456,000, said Mr. Colbert, a co-chairman of the major corporations division in the Building Fund campaign. The campaign goal is $16,500,000.

The Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund launched the campaign last spring among corporations, executives, foundations and similar groups to provide capital improvements for Detroit health, welfare and recreational institutions and organizations.

Some 43 agencies will benefit from the 70 projects which will be financed through the Building Fund. Thirty-three of these agencies also participate in the United Foundation's annual campaign which provides them only with operating funds, not new buildings, equipment or major repairs. Principal beneficiaries include orphanages, homes for the aged, agencies assisting the handicapped, the Young Men's and the Young Women's Christian Associations and Detroit Hospitals.

The Chrysler Fund, which is directed by a Board of Trustees, was established in 1953 to make welfare and educational contributions for Chrysler Corporation.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.
If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

Woman's Role in Home Subject Of Second Lecture at Center

"It is not necessary to launch a crusade to challenge women in their role in the home," Dr. Ernest Osborne, nationally-known educator, told a responsive audience of women at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center last Friday.

"Today's post-World War II wife and mother no longer feels the need to prove, that she is capable of operating on a level with men," he said. "She no longer feels she must obey the old drive inherent in all of us to do something of real social significance." She no longer has the drive to prove she is capable of operating on a level with men.

Dr. Osborne thinks women are developing a more basic feeling of confidence and they ought to be, in view of their achievements.

Dr. Osborne, professor at Teachers' College, Columbia University, was the speaker at the second of a series of lectures on "Women in a Changing World," sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Branch, American Association of University Women. His topic was "Revitalizing Family and Neighborhood Life."

Mrs. George Fatt Hall, president of the Junior League of Detroit, introduced Dr. Osborne to the audience of more than 200. The series, with lectures on Friday mornings through February 24, was originated by the AAUW's Status of Women Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Morgan J. Sherman.

Dr. Harrison Sadler, psychiatrist and associate professor at the College of Medicine, Wayne University, will speak this week on "Emotional Growth of the Individual in the Family." Dr. Sadler is on the staff of several Detroit hospitals and participates actively in many Detroit community programs. He is a graduate of the Menninger Foundation School of Psychiatry, Topeka, Kan.

Agreeing with the previous week's speaker, Dr. Harold Taylor, president of Sarah Lawrence College, Dr. Osborne said there had been a major shift in the attitude of college women today. In the twenties and thirties they felt they must establish themselves in some kind of position or career first, then marry. Now, marriage and having children is at the top of their "must" list.

But it is important, he suggested, that women from the start of their marriage careers, keep one hand into something outside home life if for no other reason than that they have something to do when their children leave home.

"If you've just been occupied with your children and home it isn't easy to pick up and start again," said Dr. Osborne. "It's far better to keep your hand in outside activities."

In pointing out some of the dissatisfaction in women's lives, Dr. Osborne said our culture creates a kind of dull level for women today. This is more true in other countries where racial and religious taboos sometimes promote the feeling that women's place is in the home. "Even so," the speaker said, "we still have in the United States an important adjusting job to do in establishing the position of women."

That some women still seem to feel inferior just because they are women, Dr. Osborne establishes when he questions his classes on their feeling about the desirability of being in each sex category. His teachers' courses are composed of about 65 per cent women and 35 per cent men. When he asks "How many of you wish you had been born a boy," about 70 per cent of the women respond "yes," whereas it's the rare man who wishes he were born a girl. Similarly, there is such a difference in the connotations of "tomboy" and "sissy."

Women sometimes refer to themselves as "mere homemakers" as if it were derogatory. We have an important job still to do in establishing the difference between the sexes. The world's attitude toward the aggressive, competitive male if he's successful in his job is complimentary. He may be different in his wife and children and "in fact" be pretty much of a louse," but he is successful in life by most people's standards.

"On the other hand," Dr. Osborne said, "in society generally we're a little suspicious of men who may not be top-flight in his job, even if he leads a rich life and is gentle, considerate, understanding of his wife and children." Dr. Osborne pointed out that there still is an unfortunate tendency among parents to want their children to be "chips off the old block." For most of us, unhappily, our own criteria for success are our own values, our religion, our economic philosophy. We want our children to follow our patterns slavishly.

"There is something in our needs as individuals or parents that makes it awfully hard for us to let our children grow up," he said. "Even at age 25 or 35 they're still our little kids. Many times married students in my classes say: 'I love my mother very much, she's sacrificed so much for me, but when I see her she still treats me like a child.'"

He warned mothers in the audience whose children still are young to be on guard now for this unwholesome attitude in the future, and to work on it as an active, positive principle. "We should go from a parent person into an adult relationship with our children. We should consider them as they grow older as mature adults whose friendship we can enjoy."

Another thing that parents must guard against is not to make comparisons among children about grades, personal habits, such as neatness. This tends to create feelings of inferiority in the children. "We must recognize individual differences in each child and accept each child for himself," he said.

In looking at a few of the things that may be making it difficult for a woman to revitalize her family life Dr. Osborne gave some concrete case-study examples. These women he'd known as students either had a big need to be successful on a business or professional level or to keep driving themselves to higher, intellectual levels because of inner compulsions stemming out of childhood rivalry situations with brothers or sisters.

The speaker said he was not suggesting the analytic couch for women with such deep-seated problems, but we must recognize the "internal dynamics" that create these problems.

Though Dr. Osborne doesn't believe it necessary for a woman to get out and get a salaried job, neither does he think there is sufficient challenge and responsibility in the home of today, with labor-saving devices, to take up all of woman's time, interest and energy after the children are no longer small.

In grandmother's time this might have been true, but today the attitude toward housekeeping has changed, the many labor-saving devices make it simpler. Also the school offers many complimentary services for children that once didn't exist.

Mothers and fathers, too, can help create in their homes and in their neighborhoods a friendly, relaxed tone that is good for them and for the children. He stressed the importance of early childhood experiences, citing examples where parents as individuals had in a casual way allowed their children and their children's friends to participate in the family's hobbies so that it was hard to tell which children belonged to which family.

Dr. Osborne felt that "breadwinner," or papa, should, in many instances, give more time and thought to the home and should be sharing in all aspects of life his wife's thoughts and interests.

A man doesn't have to feel he's making a noble gesture if he helps in washing dishes, cooking, changing diapers or making the baby's formula.

On the other hand he does not have to be aggressive about insisting on helping if the wife has the situation well in hand. If his wife wants to let him come home to his pipe and slippers before an open fire most nights, let him accept that happily. However, if he is sensitive enough to see that the day's activities for his wife have been upsetting and have left her with frayed nerves and worn out, he should be aware of the situation and move in to help. This is when it is appreciated.

Legion Auxiliary News
From Unit 303
By H. MARIE DASSORI

Women of the American Legion Auxiliary will join the men of the American Legion in urging Congress to reappraise the force of the United States Air Force in view of new developments in the air strength of the Soviet Union, according to Mrs. Isobel Thoman, National Security Chairman of the Grosse Pointe Unit of the Auxiliary.
"We must be sure that our Air Force is maintained at a point of overwhelming superiority and must raise our goals if they are not high enough to give us this position," said Mrs. Thoman. "The security of our homes from atomic attack and the peace of the world rests upon American might in the air. To permit Soviet air strength to surpass ours would be inviting national disaster."
Other measures which the American Legion Auxiliary is urging to maintain America's "Power for Peace" were listed by Mrs. Thoman as follows:
Making National Security Training compulsory, and speeding the creation of adequate trained reserve forces through this training program;
Continued intensive research and development work on nuclear weapons;
Maintenance of a balanced Navy of a strength surpassing that of any potential enemy.
The problem of keeping the United States secure from Soviet aggression will be studied and discussed in American Legion Auxiliary Units throughout the country during January, Mrs. Thoman stated, with many local Units holding special meetings on the subject. Auxiliary delegations from every state will take part in the annual Women's Forum on National Security, to be held in Washington, D. C., this month.
"A year's education for five dollars!"
That's what it costs to keep a Korean orphan in school for one year, according to Mrs. Alice Marrs, Child Welfare Chairman of Grosse Pointe Unit, who reports that Auxiliary Units throughout the country are being asked to contribute five dollars or more for education of unfortunate children in Korea. The movement was begun by a contribution of $500.00 from the Auxiliary's national organization, enough to provide school for one year for 100 children.
"Korea is the only reliably ally the free world has on the Asia mainland," said Mrs. Marrs. "If the Korean orphans are to grow into capable guardians of democracy in that part of the world, they must have education. It is the American Legion Auxiliary's hope to help bring educational opportunity to thousands of these little victims of their country's gallant fight for freedom."

Red Cross Needs Volunteers To Help with Many Services
"Recruitment of volunteers for service in the Detroit Chapter Red Cross is continuing until February 15," said Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan, chairman of volunteers for the chapter.
"We have had such fine response we are hopeful that all of our openings will be filled. Only complete success will enable us to render the service we know the community expects of the Red Cross."
"One of our community services which takes an amazing number of volunteers to staff is the Regional Blood Program. Mrs. William J. Turner, chairman of the Blood Program, says there are openings for volunteers with a greater variety of skills and interests than most any other single Red Cross activity."
Mrs. Turner says it would surprise even someone who has been a donor frequently to know how many volunteers it takes to "woman" the Blood Program for one day. "The number is at least 50," she said.
This long line of volunteers runs from the one who assists in recruiting the donors, to the Motor Service driver who transports donors to the blood center or staff and equipment to a bloodmobile location, to the staff aide who greets and registers the donor, or works in the donor room and assists in keeping the voluminous records which are necessary for about 1400 Blood Bank accounts involving several thousand individuals. Then there are the Gray Ladies who stand near during the donating process and the Canteeners who serve the snacks.
"All of these volunteers have different skills and interests . . . and they are busy people, but they have one thing in common . . . the desire to serve their community through voluntary service at Red Cross," said Mrs. Turner.
New volunteers will be given a special course of instruction which acquaints them with Red Cross procedures as well as the specific duties of the service in which they choose to work. These classes will start in late February.
Chairmen of the services will be glad to talk with prospective

Injured Captain Returns To Lead Devils to Victory

Captain Hal Sommerschild put in his first appearance since suffering a painful shoulder dislocation in the Fordson game, December 16, to help the Blue Devils whip Port Huron, 56 to 50, on the Reds' home court last Tuesday, January 24.

Hal didn't get into the game until the fading seconds of the third quarter when the Devils were trailing by 10 points and were on the verge of defeat. Sommerschild flipped in a long shot at the buzzer to put his team within 8 points of a tie going into the final period.

Paces Final Rally
The stocky blond captain paced the Blue Devils' final winning rally with three more long shots which completely unraveled the Big Reds and sent them to their second defeat at the hands of the Pointers this season.

Port Huron, led by its junior star, Robbins, jumped a 27-21 lead at halftime through the efficient use of a down court press the Devils couldn't savvy until Sommerschild entered the game.

Score Sixth Win
The Devils scored their sixth win in nine starts by out-shooting their rivals from the floor. Both teams collected an equal number of free throws, with

Reserve Five Stays Torrid

Coach John Thursby's Blue Devil reserve basketball team merrily rolled along the unbeaten trail last Tuesday, January 24, with a resounding 70-55 win over Port Huron on the latter's court.

Even the chilly Huron gym couldn't cool off the Devils' hot streak which started eight games ago, and the Pointers jumped right off to a 17 to 8 lead which they extended to a very comfortable 40-14 margin at halftime.

Riding on a 26 point cushion, Coach Thursby was able to substitute freely, giving every member of the squad a chance to play. In the final minutes, starters Pete Wade, Todd Price and captain Bruce Boardman got back into the fray, not because Devils were in trouble, but to let them hear the cheers from the big following that made the long trek to the city on the ice jammed St. Clair river.

Wade, Price and Boardman tied for scoring honors with 12 points each. Price and Wade collected all of their points during their playing time in the first half. Wade was the star of the game, playing remarkably well under the boards, thus enabling the Devils to control the ball for the majority of the contest.

Jim Kelly, substituting for Price, collected seven points during his short stay which amounted to approximately 12 minutes.

The Devils' aggressive play was marked by 26 personal fouls which gave Port Huron 45 attempts from the free throw line. However, they could only find the range 27 times and Hart, who notched individual scoring honors with 17 points, got 13 of them. The Devils cashed in on 14 free throws in 25 tries.

The Pointers will swing into the second half of league play on Friday, February 3, on their own spacious court against Royal Oak, minus their captain, Bruce Boardman, who has been moved up to the varsity for the balance of the season.

What Boardman's absence will mean to the Devils' win streak only time will tell. Even if the Devils drop their game to the Acorns next Friday, they still can lay claim to the longest winning streak compiled by a Blue Devil reserve team in the past decade.

Good Sportsmanship Shown In Inter-Church Cage Loop

Officials of the Grosse Pointe Inter-Church Basketball League have never forgotten the purpose of the league since its inception seven years ago. Always these men have sought to promote organized competition and above all good sportsmanship among the church going small fry of the community.

In the first game of the 1956 season, a glaring mismatch was discovered when an extremely small Grosse Pointe Methodist team was placed in the big senior division. In that first game the Methodist Mustangs got clobbered by an unusually tall Grosse Pointe Memorial team and each succeeding Saturday the Mustangs have taken it on the chin from other rivals. Last Saturday the Mustangs met Memorial for the second time and lost, 58 to 14.

Following the conclusion of the game Bill Crogh, manager of the two Woods Presbyterian teams, took it upon himself to call a meeting of the coaches and point out the Mustangs' plight. None of the junior division coaches, especially the Memorial Juniors who are a lead-pipe cinch to take the crown because of their size, wished to jump to the senior division.

Faced with possible criticism against the league Crogh asked for and received permission to send his Woods Junior team up to the senior division for the balance of the season.

Our hat goes off to Bill Crogh, a man with a sense of good sportsmanship and fair play, for taking it upon himself in the absence of a league director, to effect the switch that will make for more evenly matched games each Saturday despite the fact his own team will take its lumps in the senior division the rest of the season.

In last Saturday's competition, January 28, the Woods Presbyterian Senior team moved a step closer to the title by defeating the Christ Church Lions, 56-36. The St. Paul Longhorns moved into a two-way tie for second place with the Memorial Diesels by beating St. James, which prior to the game, was tied for second place. The Memorial Diesels defeated the Methodist Mustangs 68 to 14.

In the Junior division the Grosse Pointe' cashing in on 14 of 30 tries and Port Huron 14 of 25 attempts.

Robbins notched the high point scoring honors with 17 and Sandy Smith paced the Pointers with 12 points for runner-up honors.

Bob "Butch" Moreland and Jerry Olson were awarded their school letters by Coach Howard MacAdam in the locker room following the game, which was their last before mid-year graduation.

Set for Second Half

Grosse Pointe will swing into its second half Border Cities League campaign when they entertain Royal Oak on Friday, February 3. The Devils will be seeking to reverse an earlier decision scored by the Acorns on their home court in the first league game of the season.

Bruce Boardman, captain of the unbeaten Blue Devil reserve team, will make his first appearance in varsity competition in this game.

Schools Offer Dancing Class

A class in square dancing for beginners will be given by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, to start on Wednesday, February 8, at 8:15 p.m., meeting at Monteith School, 1275 Cook road.

The class will be under the instruction of Wes and Julie Rea, who are also the official callers for "Promenaders," one of Grosse Pointe's largest dance clubs. There are probably more square dancers in the Pointe area than in any comparable area in Michigan, a great majority of whom have received their original instruction in classes conducted by the Reas.

If you are interested in old fashioned dancing, now is the time to start. Square dancing is not only good recreation, but good fun. For further information, call the Department of Community Services at TUxedo 5-3808.

The men who give a civic enterprise the least support are usually the ones who do the most kicking.

Pace Still Hot In Bowling Loop

Third place Lochmoor posted a new second high team single game mark of 954 in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League, but still lost ground to the league leading Boutin team.

Lochmoor, behind the sharp-shooting Bob Valade, who paced the quintet with a 595 series, nipped Turner Buick for three points and managed to stay one point ahead of the fourth place Wigle team which won three points from Revere by a total of seven pins (2584 to 2577). Herb Miller led Revere with a 579 series.

Eighth place City Glass nudged Belding for three points in an odd match in which a bowler scored a 500 series.

While the rest of the league was belting each other around, league-leading Boutin and second place Barrett retained their positions by sweeping their points with G. P. Curtin and Adam Simms, respectively. Bruce Warren paced Boutin with a 562 and Harvey Reid led Barrett with a 544 series.

Two hundred-plus scores were rolled by Bob Valade, 245; Herb Miller, 243 Art Sauer, 242; Swede Janson, 212; Bill Keller, 208; Stan Small, 207; Marvin Boutin, 205; Bruce Warren, 204 and Jack Baker, 202.

St. Paul Five Splits Pair In Beating League Leaders

Last Friday, January 27, at Grosse Pointe High School, the St. Paul Flyers engaged the league leaders, St. Phillip, in what turned out to be a thrilling battle of basketball skill. This time the Flyers lived up to expectations, and came through in great style, winning 41-33.

Rules Revealed By Trap Club

Because of increased attendance of shooters taking advantage of the trap shooting facilities provided by Grosse Pointe Farms Trap Shooting Club officials decided it was high time to set a strict set of rules during the shooting on Saturdays and Sundays.

With their every thought to safety, the following rules were established and will be strictly enforced by the membership. The rules are as follows:

1. Everyone entering the Pier Park with a gun must have its action open and uncovered so the gate keeper can inspect it. Shooters must use the sidewalk to the left of the gate which leads directly to the shooting site.
2. Firing will begin at 2 p.m. Saturdays and everyone is welcome, providing they are a resident of the Farms or a guest of a resident. Those desiring instruction should report promptly, particularly juniors. On Sundays the shooting will begin at 1 p.m. and is restricted to seniors over 18 years old.

Fathers who wish to shoot with their sons are asked to shoot Saturdays whenever possible. However, if Saturdays are impractical because of business or other reasons, the fathers and sons will be allowed to shoot, but only after all others are finished.

3. No non-shooter will be allowed within the roped off area on the lower deck at any time, and everyone except those shooting or keeping score will be allowed to remain on the upper deck of the sun deck at the end of the dock.

4. All guns, when not in use, must be kept in the gun racks provided.

The club has obtained five shotguns for instruction purposes and to rent to members and their guests. They range in size from 410 gauge to 12 gauge. When receiving instruction there will be no charge for the use of these guns; however, at all other times they will be rented to shooters for 50 cents per round of 25 birds.

The initiation fee and dues for the club are nominal and the proceeds are being plowed back into the organization to pay for the electric trap and the five guns previously mentioned.

Turkey shoots on a handicap basis and a match with Bayview Yacht Club are planned for later in the season.

MOTORAMA DRAWS CROWD
The General Motors Motorama of 1956, closed its New York showing Tuesday night with a record attendance of more than 275,000 for its six-day stay at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

The game was nip and tuck in the first half, with the lead changing hands continuously, and when the buzzer sounded ending the first half the Flyers held a two-point lead.

Slim Lead Maintained
They maintained their slim lead throughout the rest of the game, and finally in the last few minutes pulled away to stay. The last minute was filled with fouling as St. Phillip tried to get control of the ball.

High-scorer for the game was Ken Oxley, with 14 points. Runner up was Ed Crawford of St. Phillip with 11 points.

On Tuesday, January 24, the St. Paul Flyers journeyed to St. Rose Hall to play St. Rose High School. St. Rose took control of the game at the start and the Flyers left the floor at halftime trailing 30-14.

In the second half the Flyers came to life and slowly whittled away St. Rose's lead. With a minute and a half left in the game the deficit had been narrowed till St. Rose held only a two-point lead. The Flyer bid for victory fell short, however, and the final score read St. Rose 66; St. Paul 59. The high-scorers were Mike McConnell of St. Rose with 21, and Terry Wright of the Flyers with 17.

The Flyers will be seeking revenge for an early season 59-57 loss when they tackle St. Thomas on Saturday, February 4, in Grosse Pointe High's new gymnasium. Game time is 8 p.m. with the reserve team playing the preliminary game at 6:30 p.m.

U-M Offering Music Course

Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Director of the Department of Instruction of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, has announced a music appreciation course on the college level to be offered locally by the University of Michigan to a limited number of interested teachers and laymen.

Grosse Pointers who would like to take the course should call TUxedo 5-2000, extension 8. The first meeting will be held this evening, February 2, and on succeeding Thursdays, at 7:30 o'clock in Room 307 at Grosse Pointe High School. There will be 16 sessions during the semester with each one lasting an hour and 45 minutes. The course is being offered at the request of a number of teachers in the local public school system. The fee is $22.00 and the course may be taken for credit if desired.

McGeoch to Teach

The course (Music 209) will be under the direction of Professor Glen McGeoch, with Dr. Preston assisting. McGeoch has been on the Michigan faculty since 1928. He has studied at various universities both at home and abroad. The course promises to be a stimulating one under his capable direction.

Dr. Selmeier said that the course is intended to give the registrants a practical method of listening to instrumental music and a familiarity with significant forms and styles of composition heard currently in the concert halls and on radio and television. He indicated that the course would serve as an introduction to music for those who have had little or no previous musical training. Those taking the course for credit, Selmeier said, will note a special emphasis being placed on the aesthetics of music.

To Grow Professionally

The music appreciation course is one of a series of college courses being brought to Grosse Pointe for the convenience of local teachers. The professional growth of teachers is encouraged by this means. In the past five years, 820 Grosse Pointe Public School teachers have enrolled in these course offerings.

Drinking Driver Pays $35 Fine

Bernard Marchlewicz, 24, of 6510 Sherwood, Detroit, was ordered to pay a fine of $35 or serve three days in the Wayne County Jail, by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Thursday, January 26, after being found guilty of being drunk and disorderly.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Marchlewicz was spotted driving on Charlevoix in such a manner that two motorists were almost forced off the road.

A broadcast over the police system described the car, which was later found in front of a Charlevoix bar.

Park police entered the bar and after finding that Marchlewicz was the driver, arrested him, but not before the man put up a struggle.

The driver was taken to the station where he was booked for being drunk and disorderly and then taken before Judge Belanger the same day. The fine was paid.

The program is planned as an X-ray treatment of the most competitive business of the age, appropriately coming at a time when automotive sales techniques are under more discussion than ever.

Elliott Named India Advisor

WASHINGTON—The Washington representative of one of the nation's leading producers of automation machine tools has been selected by the government of India as an advisor to its Machine Tool Committee.

John D. Elliott, of Washington and Grosse Pointe, Mich., in the Nation's capital the last two years, left on February 1 for New Delhi on his new assignment.

His work in Washington with various Government agencies, and specifically his contacts with the 1955 Joint Congressional Automation Committee (Joint Committee on the Economic Report), attracted the attention of the Indian government, which seeks to modernize its machine tool industry.

In New Delhi, Elliott will review India's present machine tool capacity and requirements and its facilities for developing machine tool designers, and make recommendations to expedite machine tool deliveries and as to size and scope of new factories. He also will correlate the range of general purpose railway tools with proposed machine tool requirements.

A native of Detroit, Elliott, 39, started in 1937 as an apprentice tool maker at Ford Motor Co., following graduation from the Henry Ford Apprentice School and the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Following service in various technical capacities with Detroit area automotive factories, Elliott operated his own firm, a precision aircraft parts plant, in Detroit, during World War II.

After World War II, he represented the Tarex Co., of Geneva, Switzerland, a machine tool firm, before going to Washington on March 1, 1954.

Also a long-time racing figure in speedboat racing competition, including such events as the Gold Cup and Detroit Memorial races, Elliott has maintained residences in Washington, at 2728 Olive Avenue, N.W., and in Grosse Pointe, Mich., at 591 Fisher road.

Makes Marine Hall of Fame

DANNY FOSTER, of 19661 W. Kings Court, Grosse Pointe Woods, poses with GUY LOMBARDO, owner of "Tempo VII," after being elected to the Gulf Marine Racing Hall of Fame along with 14 others of the nation's top power boat racing drivers. The award was made at the annual Awards Breakfast held at the Belmont Plaza Hotel in New York on January 14. It marked the third time Foster had been elected to the Hall of Fame, the first being in 1947. Dan gained the honor by having won more heats than any other driver in the unlimited class and picked up more trophies than any other driver, winning the Silver Cup, the President's Cup, the International Cup and the Governor's Cup. He also is a member of the 100 Mile An Hour Club.

Dinner to Honor G. F. Taubeneck

A testimonial dinner for George F. Taubeneck, publisher and editor of Air Conditioning and Refrigeration News, in recognition of 25 years of outstanding service to the air conditioning and refrigeration industry, will be given Wednesday, February 8, in the Latin Quarter.

Mr. Taubeneck, who is editor and publisher of Air Conditioning & Refrigeration News, has been associated with that industry since 1930 when he became assistant editor of Electric Refrigeration News, published by the Business News Publishing Company, Detroit. In 1931 he became editor of Air Conditioning & Refrigeration News and in 1940 publisher and president of the Business News Publishing Company.

A native of Marshall, Ill., Mr. Taubeneck was graduated from the University of Illinois where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary, scholastic fraternity and Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity. He is the author of several books and magazine articles.

Cloud Wampler is honorary chairman of the testimonial dinner which is being sponsored by a nation-wide committee of friends. Paul C. Smith, president and publisher of Crowell Collier Publishing Company, will be principal speaker.

We simply must tell you about: The 12-year-old lad, who eyed his mother's anniversary gift, a mink stole, with thoughtful admiration, and then remarked in awed tone: "You know, Mom . . . That's half a cat!"

Anna Marie McGough, who'll become Mrs. William G. Mahon on Saturday. This thoughtful bride-to-be used satin remnants and rose pointe lace left over from pre-wedding fittings to whip up on her sewing machine dainty and oh-so-tiny purses in which her bridal attendants may carry comb and lipstick. The handbags are small enough to be clasped behind the bridesmaids' bouquets. Bride-elect picked up the "hidden purse" idea from a New York wedding in which she served as an attendant.

Home gardening, and the Robert Olps, who are proud enough to send out birth announcements for the lime tree in the greenhouse of their Harvard road home. The 3-foot-high and 4-year-old tree bore fruit for the first time this winter, producing 14 luscious limes.

Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson, wearing smart black and white tweed wool dress belted in wide band of scarlet leather, and complementing ensemble by pearl necklace and earrings.

Mrs. Forbes Howard, stunning in brown at a recent meeting. She wore a sheer wool sheath dress with short bolero jacket, and for a headpiece, a narrow band of mink.

PILFERINGS

During a Shriners' convention in Los Angeles one of the downtown boulevards was roped off for a parade. Only official cars with large signs such as Potentate and Past Potentate were allowed there; all other traffic was halted or rerouted. But one ingenious Californian got by the police blockade and drove nonchalantly down the street. His placard read: Past Participle.

Sign in a Cleveland bookshop: "Curdle Up with a Good Murder Mystery."

"Doc," said the old mountaineer, leading a gangling youth into the presence of the village medico. "I want you should fix up my son-in-law. I shot him in the leg yesterday and lamed him up a mite."

"Shame on you, shooting your own son-in-law!" scolded the doctor.

"Wal, doc," rejoined the mountaineer, "he warn't my son-in-law when I shot him."

Hoping to inspire his workers with promptness and energy, a New York executive hung a number of signs reading "DO IT NOW" around his factory and office.

When he was asked some weeks later how his staff had reacted, he shook his head sadly. "I don't even like to talk about it," he admitted. "The cashier skipped with $4,000; the head bookkeeper eloped with the best secretary I ever had; three typists asked for a raise; the factory workers voted to go out on strike, and the office boy joined the Navy."

Erskine Johnson recounts the story of the actress who phoned a friend and wept: "I just heard my husband wants a divorce."

"So what?" asked her unsympathetic pal.

"Well," said the actress, "my psychiatrist is out of town and I just don't know what to think!"

Mrs. B.'s cleaning woman failed to show up one morning, but a message arrived in the mail. It was a condolence card, reading: "With Deepest Sympathy for You."

Scrawled in poor handwriting at the bottom was: "My sister's sick. I can't come. Anna."

The Treasury of Modern Humor has another cleaning woman "gem": In a New York bank a charwoman was telling of her prowess in polishing floors.

"When I started to work here the floors was in bad shape. But since I've been doing them," she said with quiet pride, "three ladies has fell down."

MRS. WILLIAM C. RUSSELL OF HAMPTON ROAD

By Kijty Marriott

Almost a native Pointer—she's lived here since she was four-year-old Lucille Waters—is attractive Mrs. William C. Russell.

Gardening takes up her spare moments in the summertime. In addition, they volunteer their time so that some are at the hospital each Monday, Wednesday and Friday. There, they take the cart, containing free books and magazines for adults and games or cards for children through the halls to the patients' rooms.

Book cart volunteers have been conferring with their husbands on possible designs for a new, practical lightweight cart to replace the bulky, unwieldy one they are struggling with now.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell made a family project of turning the bedroom which fronts on Hampton road into a cozy den. They paneled it themselves, moved in the television set and suitable furniture, and find it's a room they "live in" much of the time.

Book Cart Guild Mrs. Russell has many absorbing interests. As president of the Book Cart Guild of the Women's Auxiliary to the Cottage Hospital, she has two current aims, to secure more members and to get a new book cart. The 28 members have a

Piano Artist At Town Hall

Boris Goldovsky, brilliant master of ceremonies for the Metropolitan intermission program, "Opera News of the Air," will appear at Detroit Town Hall at 11 a.m. Wednesday, February 8, in the Fisher Theatre.

He will illustrate his lecture, "Piano Portraits," by playing selections on the piano.

Goldovsky is far more than a music raconteur. At the age of 13 he made his professional debut with the Berlin Philharmonic; toured extensively through Europe and the United States appearing as pianist soloist with such symphonies as the Philadelphia, Cleveland and Boston. In 1947 he produced and directed the first American performance of Mozart's opera, "Idomeneo," at the Berkshire Festival. He is now artistic director of the New England Opera Theatre.

Remarked the Boston Herald of a Goldovsky appearance: "As always, his technical assurance at the piano was complete. In his playing Mr. Goldovsky reveals his true stature as a creative artist." And according to the Boston Post, "As a commentator, Mr. Goldovsky is in a class by himself."

To prepare himself for his double role of pianist-commentator, Goldovsky has acquired a fine collection of rare books and manuscripts. He is a linguist, too, and can speak Italian, French, German, Russian, Spanish, Hungarian and English with equal fluency.

Tickets are available at Grinnell's, WO 2-1124, or at the Fisher Theatre the morning of the program.

There, they take the cart, containing free books and magazines for adults and games or cards for children through the halls to the patients' rooms.

Donald Wickes On Flying Trip

Dr. and Mrs. Donald L. Wickes will return to Lothrop road on February 5 after a flying trip to Germany. They also made a quick trip to the London home of Mrs. Wickes' parents, the William Bennetts, who are former Highland Park residents.

Included on their agenda were visits to motor bike and sports car factories, since Dr. Wickes is interested in the foreign-made vehicles.

In Munich this week, the Wickes paid a visit to Charlotte Klein, who is spending her junior year of college at the University of Munich. They took with them a wire recording for Charlotte from her parents, the John F. Kleins of Lincoln road.

Charlotte, a chemistry major from Western Women's College in Oxford, O., traveled in Italy and Sicily during the Christmas holidays. Since she will have a vacation during April and March and then continue classes through July, Charlotte plans to see Greece, Cyprus and possibly Turkey during the two months.

A tour of the Scandinavian countries is on her August schedule before she sails for home aboard the Mauretania on August 29.

Christmas, but Mrs. Russell already has the season on her mind—she is 1956 seal sale chairman for the Women's Committee of the TB and Health Society. She is proud of belonging to that 48-woman group which performs such a gigantic task yearly.

As a part of their job, Mrs. Russell and her committee will distribute and pick up all canisters in Detroit and suburbs in connection with the seal sale. But every phase of selling the seals next winter comes under her jurisdiction, and she is already at work on it.

Symphony Fashion Show

A member of the ways and means committee of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Mrs. Russell is working on that group's annual fashion show.

The show will be presented March 6 and 7. She is handling ticket sales in Grosse Pointe in advance of the fashion show.

This Pointer has belonged to Theatre Arts for 12 years, serving in various capacities from stage design to properties. She was co-chairman of properties for Theatre Arts' January performances of "Twelve Angry Women."

Fine Arts is another of Mrs. Russell's affiliations. There too, she has done a bit of everything from acting in the plays to assisting with stage design. She is also a member of Christ Church.

Her memberships are time-consuming, but Mrs. Russell has a special niche reserved for each one on her calendar of interests. All get equal billing; none is neglected.

Mrs. Douglas Wed in South

Mrs. Russell A. Alger of Grosse Pointe road announces the January 26 marriage of her daughter, Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas, of New York, to Nils R. Johanson, of New York and Stockholm, Sweden.

The couple repeated nuptial vows before a civil registrar in the bride's home at Montego Bay, Jamaica.

Mrs. Johanson, daughter of the late Col. Alger, is the former Josephine Alger.

LEMON 'N' HONEY

Contributed by Mrs. Thomas F. Cashin Jr.

(Most of the recipes we carry here are palate-tempters. This old-time cough remedy is an innovation, but as a soothing aid to throats, it seems most appropriate now during the "nasty cough" season.)

Place 2 lemons in a pan and bake in 300° oven until lemons are soft. Watch carefully and test with finger; if lemon bakes too long, it will explode.

While lemons are still hot, squeeze juice and pulp into juice glass. The oil from the rind penetrates during the baking process. Add about 2 T. honey. Take mixture by teaspoonful.

It does not upset the stomach and is soothing for sore or "ticklish" throats.

Pointe Chorus Has Openings

Having met on Wednesday, January 25, for the first rehearsal of the spring season, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus announces a membership of 80 singers and several openings, for male voice in particular.

Rehearsals are held on Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the choral room at Parcels Junior High School. There is a membership fee of $4.50 and anyone over high school age is eligible.

Under the direction of Malcolm Johns, assistant professor of music at Wayne University and choir master at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, the chorus is preparing for their Spring concert to be given on Sunday, May 6.

Included in the program are some oratorio chorales, a group of 16th century English madrigals and several American folk-songs.

Beyers on Way Back to Pointe

Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. John F. Beyer, Jr., with their year-old daughter, Kathy, are on their way back to the Pointe from Sasebo, Japan, where the Beyers have been stationed for almost three years with the U. S. Navy.

They flew from Tokyo on January 24 to Hawaii, where they are on leave for 10 days. They are expected here about February 5, to visit Jack's parents, the J. F. Beyers of Hollywood road, and the Watson Fords of McKinley avenue, who are the parents of Mrs. Beyer, Jr., the former Patricia Ford.

Pat's mother flew over to Japan, via Alaska, to visit the young couple last September for a three week's stay. After staying in Sasebo for a while, Mrs. Ford traveled through Japan, visiting the cities of Osaka, Kyoto, Nara, Kamakura, Nikko and Tokyo before flying home.

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

Gay and young and romantic square dance skirts in chintz for pre-teens are found in the newest collection of North and South fashions in the resort corner of Young Clothes, Inc., this week. Just the names . . . paper doll and patchwork conjure up in our minds the darling designs they are. Blouses match or blend these, match. As always, they display their talent for choosing bermuda shorts . . . washable plaid orlon and wool skirts (pleated all the way around, and in soft pastel colors). Spied a yellow flannel and a Pintweed. Cole swim fashions are evident, too . . . we peeked into a box and found the most . . . white swimsuit trimmed in ice blue satin. 110 Kercheval, on the hill.

Is it tender, faint, true, good, passionate, aching, breaking, or hopeful? Your heart, we mean. Now that we know it's beating . . . and you know what kind of a heart you have . . . trot to the Dants for a valentine. This selection is destined to suit ANY heart. The Dants, 88 Kercheval, on the hill.

Along with the first robin . . . the first robin . . . new art and architecture will bid you welcome to a new shop a brand new department, on the hill. It will be like combining everywhere you've ever been . . . or dreamed of . . . in one enchanting shop . . . fine decor . . . charm . . . gracious hospitality. There will be the clothes for all the sports on your social calendar . . . sport clothes both fashionable and casual . . . lovely things to buy! It will be the new fun minded OUTDOOR SPORTS SHOP at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Color flash pictures of the whole family would make an unusual Valentine. Incidentally, if you want to get a new thrill out of your color slides see the new Argus Slide viewer. It is truly unique, because it is a small hand viewer . . . yet three or four people can look at the pictures at the same time. It's new. It's bright. Have a demonstration of this Argus slide viewer at the Camera Center, in the village.

Let's applaud the Jack, Queen and King of Hearts. They take the shape of dish towels. These are bound to brighten any lady's V day. So are the handsome hand-detailed handkerchiefs. Consider scattering a fragrant envelope in her lingerie drawer for next-to-the-skin fragrance from their b-i-g collection at the Top 'O The Hill, 114 Kercheval. Consider cocktail napkins or colorful red woven place mats. Heart problems disappear LIKE that when our selection is like this.

It's the right idea . . . and as simple as snow in February . . . the young set ALWAYS go away with the right shoe from Clyde Hornung's, on the hill. They are prepared for your trips to Southern climes. Right now there are plenty of red and smoked elk sandals; ditto for black and white and brown and white saddle shoes. For the second pair choose blue or red with white P. F.'s. The trained personnel here understand the special needs of young feet. You can be sure that your tyke will not be fitted with the most expensive shoe . . . but the shoe that will fit the best.

Ah . . . if they were only OUR suits . . . the one in the glen plaid on it's way to lunch at Al Greens . . . or that sand-colored one on it's way to a matinee. If they were . . . here's what we'd do first . . . we'd look over the soft crepe suite blouse collection with jewelry necklines . . . have one monogrammed to make it personally ours. If perchance we went to Margaret Rice's we'd choose between blue, pink, palest yellow, white or beige. It would cost around ten dollars. And, it would be logical to look first at 76 Kercheval, on the hill, wouldn't it?

The local gentry will like what they see in the window at 92 Kercheval, on the hill, this week. Clothes for both winter and summer resorts are here. And, if your heart does belong to Daddy why not pick out a smart pair of imported Indian cotton madras walking shorts . . . maybe black and white . . . or green. There are cotton cord models, too, with socks to match. Or choose an attractive pair of slacks lined in bright plaid cotton flannel. Kilgore and Hurd.

And what, we ask you, are some headlines made of? Sales, of course. This is the very last week of sale-ing for Young Clothes, Inc., on the hill. It's a 1/2 off sale on snowsuits . . . coat and legging sets. We even found a few storm coats and ski jackets! 110 Kercheval, on the hill.

Any, just any, piece of Miriam Haskell's new Spring jewelry could be wrapped this Valentine's day and sealed with a kiss. White with silver or rhinestones . . . white with gold . . . necklaces, earrings and bracelets are so pretty that you will be tempted to lock them up at night! These at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.
