HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, September 11

THE DEADLINE for a strike action against the Ford Motor Co. was set for September 17 by the International Executive Board of the UAW. The reasons for such action were given in a six-page statement issued by the Board. This was pervaded with optimism for the "... possibility of an honorable and equitable agreement on a new contract ..." without implementation of strike action. Following the report came the announcement that Reuther will appear at the Ford negotiations when they reopen today. The naming of a target surprised many who had followed the negotiations, but John S. Bugas, vice-president-industrial relations at Ford said that his company had expected such tactics. He said that nothing had occurred to alter the Company's purpose of arriving at an agreement on the basis of what "... is sound and fair to all parties concerned."

Friday, September 12

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER predicted Thursday night that "There is not going to be any war" in the Far East. But he firmly refused to buy peace with peace with Red China at the price of a "Western Pacific Munich".

Linking Russia with the Chinese Communist threat to Formosa and Nationalist-held Quemoy, he said the Far Eastern situation was "dangerous," but "by no means desperate or hopeless."

Saturday, September 13

GOV. ORVAL FAUBUS, assuming that "violence and disorder would occur" took it upon himself Friday to order the four Little Rock schools not to open on schedule Monday — in spite of a Supreme Court decree.

Shortly after this action, a sheriff served Faubus with a summons to appear in court in a citizen's suit challenging the school-closing law (which Faubus recently signed, authorizing himself to close the schools.)

Sunday, September 14

THE STATE DEPARTMENT disclosed Saturday that the United States and Red China have agreed to begin peace talks on the Formosa crisis within the next few days, in Warsaw.

The Warsaw negotiators will be Ambassador to Poland, Jacob D. Beam, and Red Chinese envoy, Wang Ping Nan.

The development coincided with a stern note from President Eisenhower challenging Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to prove he wants peace by persuading Red Chinese leaders to end their artillery attacks on the Chinese Nationalist Quemoy and Matsu Islands.

Monday, September 15

THERE IS AN INDICATION that a major buildup is underway for the defense of Formosa against Communist attack. American men, missiles and jets have been sent to aid the Nationalist Chinese in the event of possible aggression, and it is predicted that more will be on the way.

Tuesday, September 16

A COMMUTER TRAIN skidded with screeching brakes into a half-open drawbridge Monday and the forward cars plunged 50 feet into Newark Bay.

The railroad estimated 40 persons died, most of them trapped in one car in water 35 feet deep. At least 20 persons were reported injured.

Wednesday, September 17

THE UAW and Ford Motor Co. opened an around-the-clock drive Tuesday to reach contract settlement, with only 24 hours remaining before pickets close the company's plants across the nation. Walter Reuther, UAW president, re-emphasized that the union had no intention of changing today's 10 a.m. strike deadline.

Hula Hoop Goes 'Round The Pointe-R

The Hula Hoop craze that is sweeping the country found its way into the Pointe and nine-year-old DEBBIE HUMPHREYS, of 1301 Cadioux road, turned in the first Pointe record by spinning the plastic circle for one and a half hours. Neighbor Dr. Leon Sweet timed the performance and estimated the hoop revolved around pretty Debbie 10,000 times. Here Debbie displays her talent to her playmates. From left, standing, CAROL SWEET, JAY HUMPHREYS and ARTHUR STOCKARD. Seated are brother JOHN and sister PAGET. The latest reported record for boys came from 14-year-old Philip Angell, of 969 Balfour Road, who wiggled for 78 minutes and 8,000 revolutions. His mom, Mrs. John Angell, was the timer-counter.

Cost Figures Compared in Four Pointes

Woods Comptroller Lonergan Draws Up Comparison After Studying Merger Report

The Woods council was informed on Monday, September 15, that the city's comptroller, Gerald Lonergan, made a study of the proposed merger of the Park, City and Farms as submitted by the Citizens' Research Council, and drew up comparative cost figures.

Lonergan submitted a report to the council, which showed that the Woods has less expenditure per capita than the three Pointes involved in the research council's study.

Lonergan compiled the following figures as pertains to each of the four cities, the first figure is the amount expended and the second figure, per capita.

General Government:—Park—$90,434, $5.99; Farms—$71,113, $5.69; City—$59,160, $8.33; Woods—$115,556, $6.42.

Public Safety:—Park—$356,173, $23.53; Farms—$316,600, $23.33; City—$188,715, $26.58; Woods—$233,556, $12.95.

Public Works:—Park—$309,897, $20.52; Farms—$315,857, $25.27; City—$232,895, $32.80; Woods—$315,731, $17.50.

Parks and Recreation:—Park—$44,750, $2.96; Farms—$45,895, $3.67; City—$24,402, $3.44; Woods—$98,695, $5.47.

Residents Invited to See New Brownell Junior High At Open House on Sept. 28

Complete Tour of New Structure Planned; Invitation Sent to Dr. Brownell, After Whom School Is Named

The Samuel Miller Brownell Junior High School, newest of the Grosse Pointe schools, will be the scene of an open house for the general public on Sunday, September 28, Principal Charles Saltzer has announced. Hosts at the affair will be the newly formed Brownell P-TA members of the school staff. The hours will be from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

"Members of the Board of Education will be present to aid in receiving the guests," Saltzer said. "Invitations to attend have also been extended to former Superintendent Samuel M. Brownell, now head of the Detroit School System and to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett, former Grosse Pointe school administrator."

Business Men Meeting Today

At noon today, Thursday, September 18, the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association holds its first fall luncheon meeting when round-table discussions on planned activities will take place. The group held no regular meeting during the summer months.

President David McCarron is expecting an excellent turnout of members at this lead-off luncheon.

These regular sessions, he points out, will be held at the Memorial Center on the third Thursday of each month at 12:30 p.m.

Pointes Pay Varied Fees To Attorneys

Retainers Often Supplemented by Additional Payments for Extra Assignments

The five Pointes pay their respective city attorneys varied sums each year to handle the legal matters that come up from time to time. Three attorneys are paid an annual retainer and plus, and two are paid by the hour and plus.

The attorney for the Park is, Pierre Heftler of 1154 Grayton, a member of the firm of Bodman, Longley, Vogle, Armstrong and Dahling. The firm receives the monthly retainer check of $416.67. At the end of a fiscal year, the annual retainer fee comes to about $5,000, excluding extra legal matters, such as law suits against the city, condemnation proceedings, which might come up during the course of the year.

In the City, it is Charles Wright, of 360 Neff road, who is with Beaumont, Smith and Harris, a corporation of attorneys. The fee is paid directly to the city attorney, and some times varies.

The smallest fee ever paid by the City was $500 in one year, and the highest, and only time, about $10,000. The average annual fee is about $3,500. The City does not pay a retainer, but it costs $12 an hour for legal work.

George McKean of 166 Ridge road works for the Farms. A retainer fee of $5,400 a year is paid to the firm he is with, Dickinson, Wright, Davis, McKean and Cudlip.

Law suits and other legal matters that must be handled in court are rare, so the fee is pretty stationary.

An annual retainer fee of $2,400 is paid directly to the Shores Village Attorney Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of 56 South Deeplands, who is with Beaumont, Smith and Harris.

The annual pay is pretty stable, but it might be slightly higher this year, or whenever a condemnation suit, now pending against a Shores resident comes up in court.

Julius L. Berns of 957 Vernier, Woods city attorney, is a "lone wolf," maintaining his own law office in Detroit. He is not paid a retainer fee, but gets $12 an hour, plus a fee for the handling of any court or other legal matter.

Attempt to Bypass Voters on Proposed City Hall Blocked

Woods Councilmen and Mayor Squabble Over Attempt to Rescind Resolution Giving Residents Chance to Express Opinion

A resolution to rescind a resolution was blocked at a Woods council meeting on Monday, September 15, when two councilmen and several citizens protested the methods used in trying to pass it.

The rescinding resolution was made part of the agenda for the meeting, but its proposer, Councilman Tom Bowling, was absent from the city on business.

Also absent was Councilman James Hunt, who favored a resolution passed on August 18, for an advisory vote from the people on whether the city should spend $200,000 for two wings of the proposed new city hall to be built in Ghesquiere Park.

Councilman Bowling, at the time, also favored the thought of giving the people a say in the project.

Made Phone Call

When the time came to discuss Bowling's resolution, Mayor Kenneth Koppin said that Bowling called just before the council meeting and said he was in Toledo on business for his firm. The mayor added, "He might be in Florida by this time."

Councilman Rex Johnston proposed the rescinding resolution on behalf of its proposer, making a motion that it be accepted and that bids for the new municipal building be received and opened at the earliest possible time.

Jail Term Given To Motorcyclist

Francis Midgley, 23, of 19677 Lancaster, Detroit, was found guilty of reckless driving in the operation of his motorcycle, and driving without a valid operator's license. A hearing in the matter was held before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, September 10.

The reckless driving charge brought a fine of $100, or 15 days in the Wayne County Jail. The second count merited a 15-day term.

Midgley was unable to pay the fine and he was remanded to jail to serve the full 30 days. The convicted man was one of four motorcyclists observed by Park Cpl. Charles French on Tuesday, September 9, operating their two-wheelers in a reckless manner while going east on Mack avenue.

In the pursuit of the four, the officer clocked the cyclist at speeds up to about 70 miles an hour.

During the pursuit, the quartet split up. Cpl. French, picking Midgley as the most likely to be apprehended, continued the chase with the erring cyclist as his target. The chase continued east on Mack, and then north on Marcellines in Detroit, where Midgley lost control of his motorcycle and it toppled over. He was taken into custody by the officer.

Midgley was taken to the City police station where he occupied a cell until his appearance before Judge Belanger the following day.

Postpone Decision in Parking Tilt

Briefs Ordered Filed in Argument Between War Memorial Center and Neighbors

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association attempted to obtain a variance or modification of the requirements of Section 4.01(h) of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms zoning ordinance covering the placement of parking lots before the Farms board of appeals on Monday, September 15. But after hearing arguments from petitioners and complainants, the Appeal Board requested that briefs be filed by October 6, so that the city attorney could have an opportunity to study the legal aspects.

The association asked to continue construction for the enlargement of its present parking lot, now under a temporary court restraining order obtained by complainants, because: (1) it would be $7,000 cheaper to build from the existing lot; (2) the only other possible construction site, on the west side of its property, would esthetically interfere with an area important to its functions; (3) supervision of two separate parking lots would mean increased difficulty and hazard.

Asks for Variance

The association asked for a variance under articles 8.01 (b) and 8.01(g) which provide for the modification of regulations for the use of premises, for public or for public utility purposes, "which the board considers reasonably necessary for the public convenience or welfare," and "where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in complying strictly with the provisions of (an) ordinance ..."

The attorney for the petitioners claimed that section 4.01(h) was a purely technical ordinance, and that compliance with their request should be had in the light of existing variations to this section. According to the building inspector the War Memorial is violating section 4.01 by constructing a parking lot in its front yard.

However, he claims that under 4.02 of the City zoning ordinances, on the requirements of front yards, which establishes a minimum depth of 25 feet, there would be no complaint if the parking lot were set back more than the (Continued on Page 2)

Rap Negative Approach of Some Solons

Research Council Thanked For Doing Good Job On Survey and Report on Consolidation

A Grosse Pointe City Council, wishing to go on record as taking a positive approach to the problem, met Monday night to consider the controversial issue of Pointe consolidation.

Although Councilman John Kenower, at the outset, expressed unwillingness to discuss the issue freely in front of representatives of the Detroit press, the Council did proffer individual opinions of the report recently completed by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

Collectively, they stated for the sake of the record that—contrary to erroneous charges by some—the consolidation report was not initiated by any one person, or Council, nor was it completed at a cost to any of the three Pointe municipalities involved (Park, City and Farms). Rather, the initiative was taken by the Citizens Research organization, with whom all three councils agreed to, and did, co-operate.

Rap Negative Approach

Deploping the negative approach some local politicians have taken in discussing the report, the City Council pointed out that the publication was written solely to quote from the text itself. "... to produce an objective, factual account of the existing situation ... no matter what action may eventually be taken." They went on to say that, if all approached the report from selfish motives, any conceivable progress would be out of the question; that a constructive approach was the only mature one.

Subsequently a resolution was passed to send a letter of appreciation to the Citizens Research Council commending it on the "good general report" of a problem pertinent to the three Pointe municipalities studied, and for a job well done in the interest of public service.

The City Council then elected to review the report more thoroughly in executive session, and to create a committee which would, in turn, meet with members of the Park and Farms Councils for further objective study.

New Heating System

Also on the evening's agenda was the matter of remodeling the heating system at the police and fire station. The Council voted to give the contract to Joseph P. Kropp, Inc., plumbing and heating company, whose low bid of $4,395 will include the necessary electrical work. The present budget only allotted $3,500 for the job so the Council agreed that the balance of the fee would come from the "Unallocated Capital Improvement" funds.

Councilmen Pongrace and Lusk were appointed by Mayor Parker to assist Committee Chairman Kenneth Bergmann in a survey of the City's garbage disposal methods, in the light of a possible ordinance which would require disposal units in City homes.

Park Committee Chairman Otto Pongrace submitted a report of summer activities at the pier, at the same time requesting, for next year, a more generous budget allowance.

Libraries Have Merger Reports

The consolidation report made by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan is available for study at the Grosse Pointe Central Library and its branches.

This report, which was discussed at the Farms' last council meeting, is the result of a study of a proposed merger of the Farms, Park and the City. Through an integration of public officials and equipment, the report indicated, there would not only be greater efficiency in public service, but an estimated cost reduction of up to $500,000.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone year ago. Since the end of World War II, enrollments have more than doubled—from 5,051 in 1945 to 10,365 in 1958. In the same period four elementary schools: Monteith, Poupard, Ferry, and Barnes have been put into service.

Parcels Junior High School was completed in 1951 and the senior high school's capacity augmented in 1953 with the acquisition of the Country Day School. These, along with the new Brownell unit enabled the public school system to keep up with the needs of the burgeoning numbers of secondary students.

Preview Was Held
Construction on the Brownell Junior High School began on the 15 acre Chalfonte road site about two years ago. An earlier opportunity to view the progress of last winter was the public last winter. On Sunday, February 23, more than 1,000 residents toured the building to see "behind-the-scenes" and came away better informed on what went into the construction of a modern public building.

Many Brownell students will be on hand for the open house to guide the guests about the building and describe the school program.

City Hall Move Blocked

made the original protest against passage of the measure, followed by Councilman Kenneth McLeod.

Action Challenged
Both officials charged that the council had no right to try to pass Bowling's resolution, in his absence, or in the absence of Hunt because the matter was too important.

The mayor, in a personal opinion, ventured that there was enough delay in the matter of the new building, and that it possibly could cost the people more money if there is any further delay. This matter must be taken care of at the earliest opportunity, and he favored Bowling's resolution, he said.

The two protesting councilmen interjected further protests, before persons in the audience had their say.

A majority of the handful in the audience opposed the retraction of the original resolution, asserting that the people had a right to have a say on how their money is to be spent.

Wants Council Bound
One person quoted "This is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people," and since the August 18 resolution has been passed, it should remain, and even though the November vote will be merely advisory, the council should be bound by minimum depth. This together with the question of what a front yard was, the attorney felt, was a technicality.

Ordinance Violated
James K. Watkins, the attorney for the complainant, Mrs. Julian P. Bowen, of 40 Lake Shore road, stated that the War Memorial was technically violating the ordinance, and that the board had no power to change a zoning ordinance because it constituted a hardship. He claimed, in fact, that no grounds for hardship had been established, and that simply because the War Memorial had spent some money, there were no grounds for granting a modification of the ordinance. He felt that the Association was asking for an "extreme action" by the board in eliminating the legal requirements.

Mr. Watkins continued that it had not been shown that building on the west end of the War Memorial property amounted to a practical difficulty, or that any ordinance could be construed as constituting a practical difficulty. He stated that his client would have no objection to the construction of a parking lot on the west side, but any enlargement of the present parking lot, on the east side, next to her house, would prove too great a nuisance.

Mr. Bodman Testifies
Both Mrs. Bowen and Henry E. Bodman, her neighbor, at 46 Lake Shore road, testified to the nuisance created by the dances held at the Memorial Center. They declared that noise from the parking lot during the late evening and early morning, frequently prevented sleep. Mr. Bodman felt that if the attorney for the petitioners lived where he did, the disturbance from the parking lot "would be anything but a technicality."

In a rebuttal to the objections of the complaints that the War Memorial didn't show a need for an enlargement of parking facilities, and hadn't presented a better policing policy than the one it already provided, the attorney for the petitioners gave these arguments: (1) he called Charles W. Elliot, of 279 Merriweather, the president of the War Memorial Board, who announced that the War Memorial had conducted a 12-month survey in which they counted 85 evenings when the parking facilities were inadequate; (2) he said that objections to nuisance and policing provisions were not germane to the Appeal Board, but should be taken to the Circuit Court.

Mayor William Connolly, at this point, asked that petitioners and complainants file briefs, and City Attorney

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Judge Douglas L. Paterson wrapped up another Traffic Court session last Tuesday evening, September 9, after hearing a total of five cases.

First on the agenda was Gerald A. Steger of 1355 Wayburn Avenue. He was found guilty of traveling 30 miles-an-hour in a 25 MPH zone and subsequently fined $10.

On an identical charge William Winfield, of 55 University place, was fined the same fee, $10.

James L. Hatfield, 1899 Hunt Club drive, was charged with not having his car under control. Judge Paterson found him guilty, fined him $25 and placed him on three months' probation during which time he may drive his car only to and from school and on his paper delivery job.

For speeding 5 miles-an-hour above the restricted 25 MPH, Thomas A. Martin, of 17 Berkshire road, was fined $1 and placed on six months' strict probation which forbids the use of an automobile during that period.

Douglas A. Winscott, 4851 Audubon, in Detroit, pled not guilty to a charge of reckless driving and driving at an excess of 45 miles-an-hour. He was found guilty of speeding but was exonerated of the reckless driving charge, and fined $20, for the first offense.

Drivers Ticketed Following Crash

Two drivers ticketed by Woods police on Wednesday, September 10, following an accident in which two persons received minor injuries, will have a chance to settle the issue in court.

Gilbert B. Weaver, 73, of 1300 Oxford road, was given a ticket for entering traffic at an intersection without due care and caution and causing an accident; and Marion Daugett, 35, of 2435 Pennsylvania, Detroit, was issued one for not leaving his car under control.

Weaver and a passenger in Daugett's car Stella Sullivan, 20, of 4125 Van Dyke, Detroit, taken to St. John Hospital, and the woman to Saratoga, where x-rays showed that neither one was seriously injured.

A police report showed that Weaver was traveling west on Oxford, and was crossing the north bound lane of Mack, when he was struck by Daugett, who was going north on Mack.

Weaver's car received damage in the left front and side and rear; Daugett's car was damaged in the front.

Court date is set for November 22.

Turner to Show New and Old Buicks

Sleek and low describes Buick's new styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom as last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light and jaunty. Compound windshields that curve back into the roof and eliminate wind noise are a feature on all 1959 Buicks. The Electra is powered by a 401-cubic inch V-8 engine with 10.5-to-1 compression ratio. Twin turbine Dynaflo and power steering are standard on all models in the Electra series. This model can be seen locally at Turner Buick, Kercheval and Maryland. In conjunction with Buick's 50th anniversary, a 1909 Buick will be shown to illustrate the great strides Buick has made in body styling and engineering since the inception of the old model.

Club Sets Plans For Peanut Sale

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club will hold its second annual peanut sale on Friday, September 26, and Saturday, September 27, it was disclosed by Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey, general chairman of the sale.

The organization's goal is to sell 5,000 bags of peanuts, to raise at least $500, which will be used for the benefit of under privileged children.

More than 30 volunteers, comprised of doctors, lawyers, house-wives, businessmen and many others, will become salesmen for the drive.

Last year, the club attempted its first venture of peanut selling, and sold about 1,500 bags. Cost of the bags is whatever the buyer wishes to give.

Director Bailey said he has no doubt that the people of the Woods "will contribute willingly and generously" to enable the club to do even more for the boys and girls of the community.

Awning Blazes At Delbos Home

A truckman from a cartage company pulled the switch of alarm box no. 31 Friday morning, September 12, sending City firemen to the home of Mrs. Edman Delbos, 333 Lincoln road, where a back porch awning was on fire.

When the firemen arrived, the awning was a total loss, but the framework, which supported the screens, was saved, though badly scorched. Also burned was a window sill directly above the blackened porch.

The smoke and flames were easily put out by a supply of water.

Eckel entered the Army last February and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He is a 1955 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and attended Michigan State University.

Friends of Library Start Film Forum Series Friday

The Friends of the Grosse Pointe Library, in cooperation with the Library Staff, will present another series of Friends Film Forums on Friday night, September 19, at 8 o'clock. These film programs were begun two years ago and won enthusiastic approval of Pointe residents.

The first program will feature the Italian drama "La Strada" directed by Frederic Fellini. This film has been acclaimed "completely extraordinary" in the quality of its genius, in the depth of appreciation it has inspired all over the world and in the number of awards it has won.

These awards include Academy Award, Best Foreign Film of 1956; Grand Prize Winner, Venice International Film Festival; New York Film Critics' "Year's Best Foreign Film"; National Board of Review; Joseph Burstyn Award, "Year's Best Foreign Film"; and Golden Gate Awards (Best Foreign Film, Actress and Director).

"La Strada's" cast includes Giulietta Masina, Anthony Quinn and Richard Basehart. Fellini's story of a simple-minded wif, a brutish strongman and a philosophical "fool" who travel the highway in Italy becomes, through the artistry of all concerned, a story of every man's loneliness and search for the way of his life. The Italian language film has English sub-titles.

Other films scheduled for future programs include "Kon-tiki"; "The Red Badge of Courage"; "The Red Shoes"; Grand Hotel" starring Greta Garbo, John Barrymore, Lionel Barrymore, Joan Crawford and Wallace Beery; and "The Importance of Being Earnest." Check this paper for future announcements of these programs.

Friends Film Forums are to be held on the third Friday nights of each month, September through March except for December. There will not be a program that month. Any adult resident of Grosse Pointe is welcome to attend the showings. There is no admittance charge, nor are tickets required. Patrons are asked not to bring children, as the films will be of no interest to them.

Let's Keep Our Minds Open

It is interesting to note the great variance in the attitudes of the officials of the cities involved as they start discussions on a proposed consolidation of the Park, Farms and City. The councils have been studying the report of a survey made by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan to determine the feasibility of a merger of these three Pointe municipalities.

Last week this paper carried a lengthy news story on the first public discussion on the matter, held during a regular council meeting in the Farms. The councilmen there make no bones about their opposition to the proposal and lost no time in attempting to find flaws in the findings of the survey organization.

This Monday night the council of the city of Grosse Pointe met, and while no names were used, it was obvious that in "deploring the negative approach of some politicians" to a study of the report, the City councilmen were talking about the attitude of the Farms mentors.

There will be much discussion about the proposition in the weeks to come. The Farms has scheduled a hearing for October 1, either in the War Memorial Center or the Municipal Building. It will be well for the council members involved and the public to bear in mind that this survey was made by experts and not by inexperienced outsiders. It would be wise for all to read the report, which is available at the public libraries if a copy can't be borrowed from one of the municipal offices.

We quote from a portion of the summary of this report:—

"In the event a total merger is unpalatable, the development of further agreements among the cities for functional integration would be desirable. This is especially the case in the areas of fire, police, and garbage and rubbish collection and disposal. Special legislation may be necessary to form police or fire protection authorities or districts. Another alternative is the assumption of responsibility by each city for a given function, such as fire protection, and providing the service to the other two on a contract basis. The latter two approaches are somewhat cumbersome and may become too involved for effective use if attempted over too wide an area of services.

"Any move in the direction of consolidation and centralizing would be more desirable than the present situation in which each city is attempting to meet its problems individually. This is becoming more costly with each passing year. The three Grosse Pointe cities here considered have fared well in the past, contrary to many suburban communities nearby. This study disclosed, however, that many of the same influences affecting the metropolitan area as a whole are increasingly operative here. Rising costs, static revenue yields, increasing citizen demands for services, and overflow problems stemming from those of adjacent communities, account for this increasing concern. Eventually, perhaps, there will be need for some type of an overall metropolitan authority. This will probably not materialize for some time in the Detroit area. The proposal for consolidation here considered should go a long way towards resolving this well-knit community's problem, thereby obviating any necessity for its being stamped into an all-embracing metropolitan organization."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:— This letter is being written as a tribute to an unknown doctor in the hopes he will read this and know how deeply grateful we are to him. On Sunday, August 31, 1958, while on a picnic at Grosse Pointe Park, our little daughter was accidentally injured requiring first aid treatment. At a time like this, to hear the words "I am a doctor, can I help?" is the most welcome phrase in the world. We did not, and still do not, know the name of the doctor, as unfortunately, in all the resultant confusion, no one asked his name.

So, to that doctor, whoever he is, please accept this as an expression of our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation.

Very truly yours, Knoel Harkins September 10, 1958.

Gentlemen: The officers and members of the Detroit Power Squadron as a member of the United States Power Squadron wishes to extend to you personally, and the members of your staff a hearty "well done" for the recent help you gave us in setting an all time record of student registration in the free public Piloting Classes for promoting greater safety on our lakes and rivers. We thought you should share with us the wonderful experience of registering nearly 400 people in the Detroit area, who, through the thirteen week course starting September 15th, at Eastland Center Auditorium are anxious to be good seamen and good neighbors. We know this could not have been accomplished without your help.

The Detroit Power Squadron's Educational Department has informed me that they will make room for any late comers who may still wish to enroll in the free Piloting Course. They will be able to register September 15th at 7:30 p.m. at Eastland Center Auditorium, foot of Eastland Concourse. Enclosed please find pictures of the registration activities at the Brodhead Naval Armory September 5, 1958.

Very truly yours, GEORGE M. COOPER, A. P., Detroit Power Squadron.

Quello Honored By Broadcasters

James H. Quello of Berkshire road, WJR Program and Public Affairs Manager, will serve as president of the Michigan Association of Broadcasters effective January 1, 1959.

He was elected head of the 69 station Michigan association of radio and television stations at the annual state convention held at Hidden Valley, September 11-14. His election as MAB president is the latest in a wide range of civic, service and industry posts held by Quello while at WJR. He is currently MAB director and has served for the past five years as MAB Legislative Chairman. He has served the city of Detroit for seven years as a housing commissioner, serving as president of the commission in 1954 and again this year. On the state level he has served since 1951 as a member of the board of trustees.

Grosse Exaggerations A. PRYOR

"Glory is that bright tragic thing, That for an instant Means Dominion, Warns some poor name That never felt the sun, Gently replacing In oblivion." (Emily Dickinson)

The column this week shall be devoted to anecdotes told by friends who toured the world last year. We shall refer to this married couple as Guy and Cresseda . . . since we can think of no more unlikely names for them! Sooooo, grab your dramazine and follow us.

BRAZIL

Guy, who LOATHES Bull Fights . . . in fact got actively sick as a youngster by watching part of one in a movie . . . was wounded by his wife all week to PLEASE take her to a Bull Fight while they were in Brazil. She added that they could hardly face their friends back home if they didn't see at least ONE while in the country famed for them. She announced as how she thought or read someplace that the spectacle took place some time in the evening, after dinner.

Our hero finally capitulated . . . so one night they dressed in what is considered (according to Cresseda, who knew everything) the correct Bull Fighting outfits for spectators. They descended to the lobby and on their way to the dining room, Madame decided they had better check with the hotel clerk as to the time of the performance and what to do about tickets etc. Full of glee over the victory she had won over Guy and looking forward to the gory evening . . . she said to the clerk, brightly: "What time do the Bull Fights start?" That worthy raised his eyebrows to the ceiling, and queried: "WHAT did you say, Madame?" She repeated her question slowly and carefully. Just as slowly and carefully he replied: "Madame . . . we have not had a Bull Fight in Brazil in the history of the COUNTRY!"

LONDON

The couple took a sightseeing tour by bus when they reached London. The Guide in charge of the crowded bus, described the various points of interest as they motored along the highways. Finally he boomed "We are about to see, (just around this next corner) a statue of a great man who said: 'We have nothing to fear but fear itself.'" In tones loud and clear on the quiet bus, Cresseda exclaimed: "OH, WINSTON CHURCHILL." (This gal could take Gracie Allen's place!)

PARIS

Here, our friends caught up with another American couple they knew slightly . . . so the foursome did most of their gadding about together. We shall call the other couple Guy and Agnes. Before launching on this one . . . we might mention that there is a place in Paris called "The Crazy Horse" . . . where every visiting fireman is advised to go while in Paris IF they want a touch of spice. It is a small place with an intimate atmosphere and good entertainment including the usual strip tease artcasts. It is also difficult to get a table unless you are either well known or well heeled.

So now . . . the girls, Cresseda and Agnes, are MAD to see the Ballet. They tell the boys to get tickets for such and such a night. The boys return with the word that the Ballet is completely sold out. No soap. "Well," sez Cresseda, "YOU know what you have to do. Get to someone in the hotel and TIP them. You can get them if you want to." They were all sitting in the hotel bistro during this yak yak . . . so Joe FLEW over to a bellboy at about half a kilometer an hour, and came back with the news that there just weren't any tickets for the new Ballet. This ran at luncheon.

Around 5 o'clock, Guy ran into Agnes at the hotel entrance and asked where Joe was. She said: "Oh, he just rushed off in a cab to go to a place called 'The Crazy Horse.'" Apparently it's hard to get in there too but Joe just heard from someone who knows a man whose name he can mention and we can get in with a fat tip of fifty dollars or some such thing." Guy said he had heard about the place but it didn't open until near midnight. "Oh," replied Agnes, "He knows THAT . . . but he wanted to be sure we got the tickets. . . ." (Art wins out every time, we alluz sez.)

HOME COMING

On shipboard, returning to the States, our friends tiredly sat back and let themselves be entertained by two couples who had been traveling through Europe with their pig-tailed age children to help the kids absorb the beauties and wonders of the old world before returning to school. The pair belonging to one couple will no doubt go to Harvard and Vassar. When asked, (for the benefit of our friends' ears), what they enjoyed the most or would always remember, they answered dutifully with such things as "The tavern where Shakespeare used to eat" . . . or "The jewels in the Tower of London" . . . or the Museum where the original Pickwick papers were kept . . . etc.

The other couple . . . listening to all this with awe . . . decided to quiz THEIR nine and 10-year-old boy and girl on the same subject. When the girl was asked what stood out most in her mind, she replied without hesitation, "The steak we had at the Ritz in Paris." The boy's greatest recollection and thrill was the horse on a back London street, that wore a hat! (THIS QUIZ was NOT rigged!)

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Whether you are a doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief—as the old jingle goes—the chances are a number of people in your profession have tried their hand at writing, outside their own particular craft.

It is not surprising that the lawyer, who depends to a great degree on "words" in his daily routine, should occasionally trade his profession for a literary one, or carry on the two simultaneously. Among authors who were at one time connected with the law but abandoned it for the literary profession are such past notables as Dickens, Scott and Thackeray.

Thackeray studied law for a year, but gave up this career when he became twenty and received control of his inheritance, eventually giving all his time to writing.

Scott's father was determined that his son should be a lawyer, and although he himself had little liking for it, he practised law for several years before he gave it up to devote himself to writing.

Dickens' intimate knowledge of lawyers' offices began when he was a junior clerk to a lawyer of Symonds Inn, and later solicitor's clerk to a lawyer at Gray's Inn. His experience here inspired the famous scenes in Pickwick, Bleak House, etc.

And who penned that masterpiece, "The Gettysburg Address," but a country lawyer, Abraham Lincoln. Lord Tweedsmuir, the former Governor General of Canada, who wrote those romantic adventure tales "Thirty-Nine Steps," "Green Mantle," et al, was also a lawyer by profession. Known to his readers as John Buchan, he early switched his allegiance from law to business and literature. "I regard business as my profession," he wrote, "and writing as my amusement."

Other authors who belonged to the legal profession include Henry Fielding, John Galsworthy, Edgar Lee Masters,

Owen Wister and A. P. Herbert. Then too there is Arthur Cheney Train, who said of himself, "I enjoy the dubious distinction of being known among lawyers as a lawyer." You will recall this most famous character, the lawyer hero, Mr. Tutt, who wins acquittal for his clients through his knowledge of obscure points of the law. Shortly before his death in 1945, Mr. Train wrote "The Autobiography of Ephraim Tutt" following fourteen books about this amazingly real person. Letters poured in to the author from multitudes who refused to believe that Mr. Tutt was not a living flesh and blood being.

Another writer who put his legal know-how to work in various series of popular mystery stories, is Earl Stanley Gardner. Actively engaged in trial work for many years, his handling of legal points in his detective tales has brought high praise from members of the profession.

The author of "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," Oliver Wendell Holmes, was a surgeon, who had also studied law, but who will be remembered for his contribution to the literature of his time. He was one of the Atlantic Monthly when it was established in 1857, and the opening chapter of the "Autocrat" appeared in the first issue. His son, the brilliant jurist, Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, no doubt inherited his clever turn of phrase from his gifted father.

Coming closer to home, Justice J. D. Voelker of Michigan's Supreme Court, has discovered that the legal world can provide the ingredients of a good story. Under the pseudonym of Stanley Traver, he has written the current best seller, "Anatomy of a Murder." Almost any career can be grist for the literary mill, but it would seem that lawyers and perhaps doctors outnumb the others who, learned in their own professions, became learned in letters as well.

Seven Pointers Get MSU Degrees

Seven Pointers were included among the 581 students who earned degrees, following the end of the summer term at Michigan State University, the University's Department of Information Services disclosed.

Onion Necklace

by Fred Kopp, R.Ph.

Wearing an onion around the neck used to be fashionable—at least for cold sufferers. It's easy to see why this old-time cold remedy has now been discarded. We can't cure colds, yet, but we can relieve their discomforts . . . and avoid more serious complications by using the effective medications available today. But don't use any medicines indiscriminately. When you're ill, be sensible. Let your physician do the diagnosing and prescribing. Then, if he recommends medication, see us for quality prescription.

Port Director Gives Center Talk Tonight

Carl Stettin to Speak On Need for Money, Action To Improve Facilities

The St. Lawrence Seaway will be completed to Detroit in May. According to Carl Stettin, Director of the Port of Detroit, even if the proposed bond issue to expand port facilities reaches the voters in November and is passed on favorably there will be a five year lag before Detroit is ready to compete with other lake cities in the greatly increased foreign and domestic trade which will come with the Seaway.

Mr. Stettin is speaking at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial tonight, Thursday, September 18, at 8:15 o'clock. He will do his best to inform the people what is at stake in the proposed Port expansion.

In order to get land necessary for Port expansion, money for condemnation proceedings is necessary at once. Nearly $2,500,000 will be necessary for this process. To clear the waterfront, build docks and wharves and deepen the berths so that the larger ocean going vessels may be handled, will take much more.

As this article goes to press the Port authorities are pressuring the Board of Supervisors will approve placing a $7,100,000 bond issue on the November ballot for port improvement. Control of the sale of these bonds would remain in the hands of the supervisors and be placed on the market only as needed.

The Grosse Pointe public is urged to become informed of the need for port expansion and is cordially invited to hear Mr. Stettin and to feel free to question him.

Dr. Hourihan Goes to Wayne

Dr. Joseph P. Hourihan, Visiting Teacher of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, has resigned, effective September 1, to accept a position on the Wayne State University staff. Dr. Hourihan will become an associate professor in the School of Social Work at Wayne State University.

Having been employed in 1939, Dr. Hourihan served a year of internship at Richard Elementary School. He then taught at Mason School for several years before leaving for more than three year's military service during World War II. He taught at Maire School briefly upon his return but then took a leave to continue his graduate study at Wayne University.

In 1948 Dr. Hourihan rejoined the local staff as a visiting teacher and has served in that capacity ever since. He has been active in professional organizations and has served on the summer school staffs of several colleges and universities. Work at Wayne and at the New York School of Social Work led to advanced degrees.

His resignation was accepted with regret at the September 8 meeting of the Board of Education. It was remarked that his was a great loss to the local school system after having completed a distinguished record of service during his 19 year stay here.

New Principal at Mason School

The new principal of the Mason Elementary School, JOHN W. BRUBACHER, has picked up the reins of leadership laid aside last June by retiring principal, Miss Ethel Tucker. Members of the staff and the student body speak highly of the efficient manner in which he has assumed his new duties.

Brubacher, formerly a teacher at Poupard School, was reared in Connecticut and received his first degree at Yale University. Graduate work at Columbia University led to an advanced degree in 1955. Currently he is continuing his studies in the University of Michigan's graduate school.

Prior to coming to Grosse Pointe, Brubacher taught in Missouri and New York public schools. He also taught for six months in the American Community School in Beirut, Lebanon. Following this he served 3½ years in the U.S. Navy rising to the rank of Lieutenant, (J.G.).

The Brubachers live on Roslyn road and have two daughters, Beth, 3½ years old and Janis, 10 months. Mrs. Brubacher is an accredited public school teacher also. Among Mr. Brubacher's hobbies are an interest and skill in refinishing antique furniture, reading, and photography.

Famed Artist To Teach Here

The War Memorial Center announces that the University of Michigan's famous artist-lithographer, Professor Emil Weddige, has agreed to teach art classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial beginning Friday, September 26.

Mr. Weddige will teach three classes in beginning and advanced oil painting and water color. Two hour classes will be held each Friday at 9:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. Twelve weeks instruction is offered for $36. Classes are limited to 15 each class. They are filling up rapidly and immediate enrollment is advised.

NOTICE OF SALE

$500,000.00

The Grosse Pointe Public School System

Wayne County, Michigan NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of notes of said School District of the par value of $500,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at the Board of Education Room, 389 St. Clair Avenue, Grosse Pointe 30, Michigan, until 8:00 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 13th day of October, 1958, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be placed October 1, 1958, will mature March 1, 1959 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 4% per annum. Both interest and principal will be payable at such bank or trust company as the principal of the notes of Michigan as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the notes. Denominations and form of the notes shall be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at time of delivery.

Said notes will be subject to redemption prior to maturity in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest on the 1st day of any month prior to maturity thereof, upon 15 days notice served upon the holder or holders thereof or published in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds.

For the purpose of awarding the notes, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from November 1, 1958 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the School District. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of undistributed state appropriations for the school year 1958-59, and the full faith and credit of the District is pledged.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2% of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the treasurer of the School District must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, Attorneys, of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the notes to be secured at the School District's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes, ready for execution at his expense. Executed notes will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Interesting Antiques in Window Display

Few persons are aware of the continual world-wide search that goes on by Englander's, local dealers in famed lines of furniture, for unusual antiques to grace our contemporary homes. Photo shows an excellent Oriental collection on display in the plaza window of the company's smart Eastland Center store. The display includes a rare Chinese Bormandel (poem) screen; a bridal trousseau box; bronze Buddha heads; an inlaid Sitar (lute) from India; Chinese warrior strappers, Byzantine light fixtures and a great Turkish brazier (center); solid brass water jugs and other well-preserved pieces bearing the masterful touches of ancient artisans. Englander's own staff of interior decorators, as well as many private decorators, make great use of these charming antiques.

Park Traffic Violators Pay

Roy F. Midgeley of 19677 Lancaster, Harper Woods, pled guilty to two counts of traffic violation when he appeared before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, September 10.

He was accused of driving while his license was revoked, for which he received a mandatory 15 days in the Wayne County Jail, and driving 60 miles an hour on Mack avenue, for which he was ordered to pay a fine of $100, or serve an additional 15 days. He could not pay the fine.

Gail Ambrose of 603 Fairfield, pled guilty to causing an accident at Jefferson and Nottingham, and paid a fine of $35.

James E. Ryan of 9435 Nottingham, Detroit, pled guilty to running a red light at Jefferson and Wayburn, and paid a fine of $8.

William K. Springett of 1318 Nottingham, paid a fine of $15, after admitting to being at fault in an accident at Jefferson and Maryland. Nick G. Temples of 2904

Harding, Detroit, Pled Guilty to Causing an Accident

Harding, Detroit, pled guilty to causing an accident at Jefferson and Maryland, as the result of an improper turn. His fine was $7.50.

Alfred I. Tucker of 5916 Fischer, Detroit, failed to appear in court to answer a charge of speeding on Jefferson and a report of the case was sent to Lansing.

Ernest T. Kanakis of 5796 Garfield, Detroit, forfeited a bond of $17.50, for failing to come to court for speeding on Mack.

Walter J. Keating of 1001 Covington, pled not guilty and was found not guilty of running a red light at Jefferson and Cadieux, and his case was dismissed.

Elizabeth Ann Gross of 22212 Moross road, Detroit, paid a fine of $15, after being found guilty of speeding on Jefferson.

Pointe Chorus Goes to Work

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus announces its first rehearsal of the fall season, was held on Tuesday evening, September 16, in the Vocal Music room at Parcels Junior High School, Vernier and Mack.

The chorus rehearses each Tuesday evening from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock preparing for a Christmas concert to be given early in December. Membership is open to anyone over high school age with a desire to sing. There is a registration fee of $4.50.

The group was founded in 1953 by Malcolm MacLean Johns, who was its conductor for four years, and is now under the direction of Donald W. Simmons. Mr. Simmons is vocal music teacher at Parcels and directs the youth choirs at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. Milton Setzer, who is on the staff of Wayne State University, serves as accompanist.

Co-sponsored by its own Board of Directors and the department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the chorus has established a lending library of choral music, which is on loan at the main public library, Kercheval at Fisher, Grosse Pointe Farms.

In the past, members have come not only from Grosse Pointe, but all surrounding communities, including Royal Oak and Mt. Clemens.

For further information, call TU 4-5964.

More than 1,000 degrees in education were conferred by The University of Michigan School of Education and Graduate School during 1957-58.

Cinema League Plans Contest

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will hold its annual 8 and 16 mm amateur movie contest next Thursday, September 25, at 8 p.m. at the War Memorial Center.

Winners of the contest will be awarded individual trophies and their names will be engraved on a large permanent trophy. Entries, which are limited to club members in good standing, are expected to cover a wide range of travel and local subjects.

Judging will be done by the audience on the point system as set up by the Photographic Society of America. This annual program, which has always been an entertaining and popular one, is open to the public without charge.

The Cinema League is a Center-sponsored organization and is open to all persons interested in any of the various phases of cinematography.

Men's Chorus Being Formed

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus conducted its first rehearsal of the season at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore, in whose recreation room they meet weekly, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, at 8 o'clock.

All Grosse Pointe men regardless of age or training who would enjoy group singing are cordially invited to become a part of the chorus. As in the past the men's chorus will be under the direction of John Finch, who for many years has been head of vocal music at Grosse Pointe High School.

The chorus besides its weekly meetings at the Center sparks many community gatherings in Grosse Pointe and throughout the metropolitan community and a good time is had by all. Dues are very nominal—just enough to buy new music and reimburse the director and accompanist.

Cast for 'Caine Mutiny' Revealed By Pointe Theater

Five Pointers have been cast in principal roles in "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial," which will open the Grosse Pointe Community Theater's 1958-59 season October 17.

Chosen during the past week by Director Dean Erskine to play major roles in the naval drama by Herman Wouk were Albert M. Bertel, 45 Radnor circle; Richard Bauhof, 744 Rivard; Donald L. White, 499 Neff; C. Henry Haberkorn, III, 16641 E. Jefferson; and Jean Mezeritz, 222 Lothrop road.

Bertel has been cast in the demanding dramatic role of Lt. Cmdr. Philip Francis Queeg, the naval officer against whom the mutiny is directed. This will be the first leading role in a serious part for Bertel, who is the past president of the GPCT and who has previously appeared in eight other GPCT productions during the past three years in comedy and character roles.

Bauhof, who appeared as a convict in "Desperate Hours" and as a newspaper reporter in "The Front Page" for the GPCT last season, has been assigned the role of Lt. Barney Greenwald, the defense attorney, in "Caine Mutiny."

The role of Lt. Thomas Keefe, chief trouble-maker, has been delegated to White, who appeared on the GPCT stage last season as a servant in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and as another reporter in "The Front Page."

Haberkorn has been cast as Capt. Blakely, the highest ranking officer and presiding judge at the court martial. His two appearances on the GPCT stage last season included roles as Dr. Bradley in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and the father of the bride in "Philadelphia Ctory."

Mezeritz will be making his debut on the GPCT stage in the role of Dr. Forest Lunden, a veteran Navy psychiatrist.

"The Caine Mutiny Court Martial," based on the Pulitzer prize winning book, "The Caine Mutiny," also by Wouk, will be presented by the GPCT at the Grosse Pointe High School on two successive Friday and Saturday evenings, October 17, 18, and 24, 25.

Others in the all-male cast include four Detroiters, two St. Clair Shores residents and one from Harper Woods.

East Detroiters in the "Caine Mutiny" cast are John W. Henderson, 1534 Cadillac boulevard; Allen H. Hayes, 3059 Gray; Vance D. MacDonald, 5953 Hillcrest; and Robert P. Metzger, 4691 Three Mile road.

Richard B. Watson, 21449 Willow Wisp, and Gordon R. Jett, 23301 Edsel Ford, both of St. Clair Shores, and George V. Wilson, 21137 Lancaster, Harper Woods, round out the "Caine Mutiny" cast.

Henderson, who has appeared professionally and with the GPCT and other theater groups has been cast as Lt. Stephen Maryk, defendant at the court martial.

Hayes, playing the role of Lt. Cmdr. John Challee, the prosecuting attorney, has appeared in 7 roles and designed sets during the past two years for the Little Theater Guild. MacDonald, also making his GPCT debut in the role of Lt. Willis Keith, has appeared with the Michigan Tech Little Theater and the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater.

The only humorous role in "Caine Mutiny," Signalman 3/c Junius Urban, will be portrayed by Watson, making his GPCT debut. Last spring he appeared in "Picnic" as Howard with the Royal Oak Players.

Jett, who was stage manager for the GPCT productions of "Man Who Came to Dinner" and "The Front Page" last season and is currently vice-president of the group, will play Dr. Bird, a naval reserve psychiatrist.

Metzger, who has appeared with the Concordia College Players in "Of Three I Sing," has been cast as the court stenographer in his first GPCT appearance.

The role of Capt. Randolph Southerd, ship handling expert, has been assigned to Wilson, who has appeared in summer stock with Walter Hampton in "Cyrano" and in the Broadway cast of "Don't Look Now."

Producer of "Caine Mutiny" is Charles "Chuck" Carson, who was seen last June in the GPCT production of "The Philadelphia Story," as the bride's brother.

Erskine also plans to cast later six non-speaking roles—those of the naval officers who sit in judgment as members of the court.

Nearly 100 persons turned out for the opening meeting of the GPCT at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial last week. Featured workshop of the evening was a scene from "Born Yesterday," presented by William Mehegan, Bertel and Glenna Kratzet.

Receive Degrees At Michigan

The Office of Registration and Records at the University of Michigan, announces that students receiving degrees at the end of the 1958 Summer Session numbered 1,080. Of this total, 637 were enrolled in graduate school courses.

Festival Choir Seeks Members

Do you sing in the shower? College songs at parties? Carols on Christmas Eve? In short, do you like to sing? If so, a wonderful opportunity for singers of any tenor awaits those who would like to join the Festival Choir.

The choir, under the direction of Richard Roecklein, will start rehearsal of its Christmas program on Tuesday, September 23, 8-10 p.m., in Christ Church. Interested members of the community are invited to attend.

The Christmas program, scheduled for performance in Christ Church on December 21, will be the "Midnight Mass" by Marc Antoine Charpentier and "The Christmas Oratorio, Part II" by Bach.

Charpentier, a seventeenth century contemporary of Lully, was overshadowed by the latter during his lifetime. Charpentier's music has been revived during the past decade, and this will be the first performance of the "Midnight Mass" in Detroit. The work is seasonal in spite of the name, being constructed on a series of Christmas carols.

The Bach "Christmas Oratorio" calls for choir and small orchestra. It consists of a cycle of cantatas for six successive feast days. The Festival Choir will celebrate the second day of Christmas, Part II of the oratorio.

The choir rehearses every Tuesday evening from 8-10 p.m. in Christ Church. The first rehearsal is September 23. If you like to sing, be sure to be there!

College Courses Offered By Public School System

As has been the custom for many years, the Grosse Pointe Public School System has arranged for a number of college courses to be offered locally. Primarily these courses are arranged for the convenience of the teaching staff as they seek professional growth, but in some instances the general public has been enrolled where enrollment conditions existed.

One of the courses to be given this fall by various professors from the University of Michigan is entitled "Survey of The Soviet Union". Those teachers interested in either a historical, a sociological, or a geographical approach to the subject will find this course of interest.

It will deal in 16 weekly meetings with the land, people, history, arts and general culture of Russia. The first class will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 25, at the Central Public Library. Enrollment in the course already exceeds 60 persons.

Wayne State University is offering a course entitled "Dynamics of Human Behavior". The first meeting was held Thursday, September 11, also at the Central Public Library. This group, numbering 46, meets at 4:10 p.m. Primarily the course deals with the application of psychological principals to educational problems.

A seminar in Science Education will be offered by staff members from Michigan State University. Specifically, the course is designed to aid in improving plans and materials for teaching critical thinking in elementary science. The first meeting will be held Thursday, September 18, at 4:10 p.m. in Monteth School.

Another University of Michigan offering this fall will be a course in "Modern Mathematics". The initial meeting will be 4:10 p.m. Thursday, September 25, at Grosse Pointe High School. Secondary teachers of mathematics have requested such a course in assisting them in restudying the local mathematics program.

Thefts Believed One Man's Work

Breaking and entering incidents were reported to the Park Police on Wednesday, September 10, and Thursday, September 11, with both burglaries believed committed by the same thief because of the similarity of tactics, and because they were only a few blocks apart.

The first case was reported on September 10, by an unidentified citizen, who said that while he was passing by the home of Joseph Zerilli, 700 Middlesex, he heard the burglar alarm ringing. By the time he arrived at his house to call the police, 10 minutes had lapsed.

Investigation by officers revealed that the thief had climbed a spiked rear fence, and broke a window of the rear kitchen door, reaching in to throw the latch.

Police believe that after the burglar had gained entrance to the house the alarm went off, and the thief, remembering the spikes on the back fence, beat a hasty retreat through the house, and out the front door. Nothing was reported missing.

School System Employing 666

The total number of persons employed regularly, exclusive of cafeteria workers, by The Grosse Pointe Public School System as of September 1, 1958 is 666. There are 35 in administrative and supervisory capacities; 213 elementary teachers; 218 secondary teachers; 13 Public Librarians; 68 office workers; 92 plant personnel; a cafeteria manager and a High School Bookstore manager; 5 nurses; and 20 other professional staff.

This capable crew is responsible for a total enrollment (as of September 8) of 10,342 students in the Grosse Pointe School System — an increase of 402 over last year's opening day figures. 2,197 of these pupils are enrolled at Grosse Pointe High School. The System anticipates that the year's final figures will show at least 10,400 total enrollment, perhaps even more.

"While the general evidence supports our belief that we have a fine program," said Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Director of Instruction for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, "this math course is a typical, periodic review. In this way we are reasonably confident that we are always abreast of modern developments and techniques in all areas. In our rapidly changing world this is most essential."

Children's Art Classes Form

Beginning Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons September 23, 24 and 25 after school, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will start again its children's Art Classes. Aged 7-9 will be enrolled Tuesdays, ages 9-11 Wednesdays and ages 11-13 Thursdays.

Popular Junior League President Mrs. William C. (Mickey) Loud will again instruct the art classes. So popular did her class last year prove as well as her two weeks Summer Art Camp that she has agreed to this year's additional schedule.

Mrs. Loud, who has five children at home herself is very definite and original in her teaching tenets. She believes in "Art for Fun" and believes in using all available materials. She guides young imaginations to express themselves freely in a variety of media.

Mrs. Loud majored in art at Sarah Lawrence and continued her studies with the Corcoran Galleries in Washington, D.C., where she was instructor at the Washington Cathedral School.

Since coming to Detroit she has been active in both Grosse Pointe and Detroit Art Associations where she has served as an officer. She planned the program for the Junior League's Senior Center later becoming its President. Now she is President of the League itself.

Classes will be limited in size to 12 each. Fifteen one and one half hour lessons are being offered for $2.50 plus $2.50 for materials.

People with the highest aim in life very seldom carry guns.

who sought improvement in local government. Mrs. John Pear was elected first president.

A concentrated drive was undertaken to increase the number of registered voters and to furnish the voters with non-partisan information on candidates and issues. As a result the total number of registered voters for all the Pointes was so outstanding that in 1952 the American Heritage Foundation conferred an award on the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters for this work.

Another League achievement locally was the publication in 1954 of "This Is Your Grosse Pointe." This booklet is the result of a comprehensive survey of the five local governments. It is now in its second printing and is used by teachers, libraries, local government officials, and real estate companies as a standard source of reference.

Mrs. George Brown, current president of the Grosse Pointe League says, "Today in its eighth year the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe looks at its past achievements with satisfaction and at its objectives for the future with confidence."

Notice of Ordinance Adoption

Code No. 7-14 Garbage Disposal Ordinance Ordinance No. 132

AN ORDINANCE TO REQUIRE INSTALLATION OF GARBAGE GRINDERS OR DISPOSAL UNITS IN NEW RESIDENTIAL, COMMERCIAL AND OTHER STRUCTURES, WHERE GARAGE OR FOOD WASTE IS PRODUCED OR ACCUMULATED, AND TO RESTRICT AND REGULATE THE HANDLING OF GARBAGE, AND TO REQUIRE INSTALLATION OF GARBAGE GRINDERS, DISPOSAL UNITS, OR APPROVED INCINERATORS IN ALL RESIDENTIAL, COMMERCIAL AND OTHER STRUCTURES WHERE GARAGE OR FOOD WASTE IS PRODUCED OR ACCUMULATED BY JULY 1, 1960.

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms Ordains:

SECTION 1. From and after the effective date of this Ordinance it shall be required in the construction of all new residential buildings, all new commercial buildings and all other structures erected in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, Wayne County, Michigan, which are designed, arranged or intended to be used for purposes which cause, result in, produce or develop food wastes, that a good and proper type of garbage grinder or disposal unit shall be installed and connected to the sewer system, which grinder or disposal unit and all connections shall be of sufficient size to grind all garbage and food wastes produced or accumulated. Each apartment, household unit, shop, store, restaurant or other individual unit where garbage or food waste is produced or accumulated shall be provided with a separate garbage grinder or disposal unit.

Section 2. In the interest of preserving the public peace health, and safety it is unlawful at any and all times to deposit, place, scatter, or bury garbage and food wastes on any private or public premises or any street, highway, alley, or place in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. It is also unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation or his agent or employee to collect and transport within the City of Grosse Pointe Farms upon any of its public highways, streets, alleys, or public places garbage and food wastes unless previously authorized by proper action of the City Council of Grosse Pointe Farms. It is hereby determined that a violation of this section is intended to supplement existing ordinances and in no way amends or supersedes them.

Section 3. It is the intention of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms to discontinue all collection of garbage and food wastes as of July 1, 1960 and to make no further appropriations out of nor expend any city funds raised or provided by general taxation after that date for the purpose of financing garbage and food waste collection service in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. Therefore, it shall be required that after July 1, 1960 all residential buildings, all commercial buildings and all other structures used for purposes which cause, result in, produce or develop food wastes in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms shall have a good and proper type of garbage grinder or disposal unit installed in the sewer system, which grinder or disposal unit and all connections shall be of sufficient size to grind all garbage and food wastes produced or accumulated. Each apartment, household unit, shop, store, restaurant or other individual unit where garbage or food waste is produced or accumulated shall be provided with a separate garbage grinder or disposal unit.

Section 4. The Use of Incinerators. Incinerators which provide an auxiliary supply of fuel such as gas or fuel oil so as to completely burn garbage and food wastes and which have been approved by the City Manager may be installed and used in the place and stead of the garbage grinder or disposal unit herein required to be installed. A list of makes of incinerators which have been approved as substitutes for the garbage grinder or disposal unit shall be on file in the office of the City Manager, available for inspection by and distribution to the public at all times.

Section 5. Installation, operation and maintenance of any equipment or method to be used for the disposal of food wastes shall comply with the applicable provisions and regulations concerning building, housing, plumbing, electricity, smoke abatement, air pollution, safety engineering, health, sanitation, and fire prevention in existing ordinances.

Section 6. Any person, firm, or corporation, his, her, their, or its agent or employees violating the provisions of this Ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be punishable by a fine not exceeding $500.00 or by imprisonment in the city or county jail for a term not exceeding 90 days or both such fine and imprisonment may be imposed at the discretion of the court.

Section 7. If any provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the Ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Section 8. This Ordinance shall take effect 20 days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

SUMMARY OF MINUTES

SEPTEMBER 8, 1958

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Henry E. Bodman, II, Lawrence Euel, Jr., William G. Butler, Richard L. Maxon and Edward C. Roney, Jr.

Absent: None.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr. presided.

Minutes of the regular meeting held on August 18, 1958, were approved as submitted.

The report from the Citizens Research Council relative to the Consolidation of the Cities of Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Park, and Grosse Pointe Farms, together with a report prepared by the Administrative Staff was discussed. Approximately forty residents were present at the meeting, several of whom expressed their views, which in the main, were opposed to the proposed consolidation.

After considerable discussion, further consideration of the Report was deferred to a special meeting to be held on October 1, 1958.

A petition was received asking for the vacation of a strip of property at the rear of lots 106 and 107, Radnor Park Subdivision.

The City Attorney was requested to prepare an appropriate resolution for the vacation, and to present the resolution to the Council for consideration at the meeting to be held September 15, 1958.

The following Ordinance, previously published in the Grosse Pointe News, were enacted:

- (a) Garbage Disposal Ordinance
(b) Electrical Code Ordinance
(c) Amendment to the Building Code Ordinance

A communication signed by residents of Muir Road, between Kercheval Avenue and Grosse Pointe Boulevard, relative to the condition of the street, curbing, and traffic was referred to the City Manager for discussion with the City Engineer and the Police Department, with instructions to report their findings to the Council at the meeting of October 6, 1958.

Murray M. Smith was designated, until future notice, as the Official Engineer to act on behalf of the City Council in the approval of plans and specifications for water and sewerage facilities and the proper submission, thereof, to the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners and the Michigan Department of Health.

Due to an increase of ten cents per thousand cubic feet of water usage, which will be charged by the City of Detroit for sewage treatment and disposal, on and after January 1, 1959, a resolution was adopted, whereby, an increase of ten cents per thousand cubic feet of water usage will be made in the charge for sewage treatment to Grosse Pointe Farms metered water consumers. The increase to become effective January 1, 1959.

A report of the Grosse Pointe Inter-Municipal Police Radio System showing the six months expense for the period ending June 30, 1958 and the estimated expense for the six months ending December 31, 1958 was received and filed.

Approval was given to pay:

- (a) Shock Brothers—$3,588.10 for the survey and spraying of public trees for Dutch Elm disease.
(b) Suburban Cement Company—$8,827.79, the balance due for widening Kerby Road.

An appropriation of $50.00 toward the Annual Municipal Employees Golf Tournament was approved.

The Advisory Planning Committee was invited to attend the General Session and closing luncheon of the Michigan Municipal League Convention to be held on Friday, September 26, 1958, as guests of the City.

A resolution was adopted requiring members of the Police Department to reside within certain geographical boundaries.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:45 P.M.

Notice of Ordinance Adoption

Code No. 11-04 Electrical Code Ordinance Ordinance No. 133

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE INSTALLATION, ALTERATION, REPAIR, SERVICING, MAINTENANCE AND USE OF ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS; TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF PERMITS AND COLLECTION OF FEES THEREFOR, FOR INSPECTION OF ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT, AND FOR LICENSING OF ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS AND JOURNEYMEN; AND TO REPEAL ORDINANCE NUMBER 56.

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms ordains:

Section 1. Adoption of Electrical Code. A certain document, a copy of which is on file in the office of the City Clerk, available for inspection by and distribution to the public at all times, and which is marked and designated as the "National Electrical Code, 1956," and which is an electrical code promulgated by an organization or association organized and conducted for the purpose of developing such code, is hereby adopted, and is to be used in regulating the installation, alteration, repair, servicing, maintenance and use of electrical equipment in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms; and each and all of the regulations, provisions, conditions and terms of such National Electrical Code, 1956, on file in the office of the City Clerk, are hereby referred to, adopted and made a part hereof as if fully set out in this ordinance, with the additions, insertions, deletions and changes prescribed in Section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 2. Uniform Electrical Rules. A certain document, a copy of which is on file in the office of the City Clerk, available for inspection by and distribution to the public at all times and which is marked and designated as the "Uniform Electrical Rules, Supplementary to the 1956 Edition of the National Electrical Code" and which has been promulgated by the Reciprocal Electrical Council, of Detroit, Michigan, an organization or association organized and conducted for the purpose of developing such rules, is hereby referred to, adopted and made a part hereof as if fully set out in this ordinance, and shall control and supersede the provisions of the National Electrical Code, 1956, on all matters covered by said Uniform Electrical Rules. In the application of the Uniform Electrical Rules, the term "Electrical Inspection Authority" used therein, shall mean the City Manager of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms; and an Electrical Board shall be appointed by the City Manager in accordance with the provisions of said Uniform Electrical Rules.

Section 3. Permits. Permits shall be required for the installation of all electrical equipment in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. Permits shall be issued by the City Manager, upon application and subject to the conditions set forth in the Uniform Electrical Rules. Permits may be denied in any case in which the electrical work covered thereby is in violation of this ordinance. Permits may be revoked by the City Manager for any violation of this ordinance, or of any terms and conditions of the permit.

Section 4. Fees. Before receiving a permit, a fee shall be paid to the City Treasurer, in such amount as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Section 5. Inspection. All electrical equipment in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms shall be subject at all reasonable times to inspection by the City Manager or his delegate, for the purpose of determining compliance with this ordinance.

Section 6. Licensing. No person, firm or corporation shall install or alter any electrical equipment, including any electrical wiring, devices, appliances or appurtenances for the generation, distribution and utilization of electrical energy, within or on any building, without being licensed as an electrical journeyman or electrical contractor. No person, firm or corporation shall engage in the business of electrical contracting unless such person, firm or corporation shall have received an electrical contractor's license. The City Manager shall have authority to issue licenses as electrical contractors to persons, firms or corporations who have a place of business located in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, and may license as journeymen electricians, persons who reside in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. Any electrical contractor or journeyman electrician holding a license issued by the Electrical Administrative Board of the State of Michigan, or by any municipality having standards for licensing not less than those established by the board, shall be recognized as licensed under this ordinance and may perform electrical work in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms upon registration with the City Manager.

Section 7. Penalties. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the court. It shall be the responsibility of the offender to abate the violation as expeditiously as possible, and each day that the violation is permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 8. Other Ordinances. In case of any conflict between the provisions of any other ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, at any time in effect, and the provisions of this ordinance, the provisions of this ordinance shall control.

Section 9. Repeal. Ordinance Number 56, entitled "An ordinance for safeguarding life and property by regulating and providing for the inspection of the installation and maintenance in building of electrical wiring, electric devices and electric material; to provide for the licensing and registration of Electrical Contractors and the licensing of Journeymen electricians in the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms; to provide a reciprocal arrangement for the recognition of examinations and licenses issued by other municipalities in the State of Michigan voluntarily cooperating in the enforcement of this ordinance; to provide a penalty for violation thereof and to repeal ordinances number Twenty nine (29) and Forty One (41) and all other ordinances and sections of ordinances in conflict therewith of the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms," adopted December 4, 1939, is hereby repealed.

Section 10. Severability. If any provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Section 11. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after its enactment, or upon its publication, whichever is later.

One of the most worrying aspects about leaving home on a long trip, no matter how glamorous the junket, is bidding goodbye to the house. Mrs. Charles B. Warren, Jr., has solved the problem by finding a tenant for her lovely Washington road colonial home.

When she sails for Europe October 2 on the "United States" she can anticipate a relaxed vacation knowing her house will be well cared for by John Anderson. Mr. Anderson, who has been fishing in Nova Scotia, will move in about October 1 for a three month stay.

Meanwhile Mrs. Warren will be touring Paris, London and Switzerland. She will be headquartered in Rome with the Halsted Vanderpoels, friends from Washington, D. C.

Her trip will be of indefinite length but she does have tentative plans to stay some months. Her son-in-law and daughter, the Peter Paddocks, are now living in Cincinnati, and her son, John Watling, will be busy with his graduate studies at the University of Michigan.

Sailing on the "United States" with Mrs. Warren for Europe will be the Frederick M. Algiers, Jr., and the Henry T. Bodmans, both bound for a Continental visit.

Anniversary Week-End

Weddings in September have always had their own special charm so there are currently a crop of anniversaries to celebrate.

Up at Hidden Valley over the week-end a group gathered to mark their wedding days. The James Quellos, of Berkshire road, and the Clement Pennells, of Clairview road, were both marking this important date on Sunday.

Joining them were former September brides and their husbands, the William G. Sieberts, of Touraine road, the Albert Betteleys, of Hampton road, and the Kenneth Reichles, of Hampton road.

Inspired by the occasion Mrs. Quello took first prize in the Hidden Valley golf tournament over the week-end and also made a hole in one on the putting green.

Christmas Is Coming

Christ Church is already humming with preparations for the giant Christmas Fair on November 13. Mrs. Edward S. Evans, Jr., is chairman of this important fund-raising event on the church calendar.

Assisting her with the arduous planning chores are Mrs. Theodore Buttrick, Mrs. John E. Caulkins, Mrs. Henry Ledyard, Miss Frances Booth, Mrs. Harry W. Kerr, Mrs. Benjamin Long and Mrs. Warren Sheldon.

Mrs. Gordon Weller and Mrs. Edwin Stroh have been organizing their Christmas decorating committee all summer. This tinsel and glitter booth is always one of the most popular at the Fair.

Heading the Paris counter is Mrs. Rivard Klippel, who has such nimble sewing fingers, and Mrs. William Boales. Exquisite blanket covers, delicate linens of all sorts are provided by the seamstresses for this booth.

Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Beatty have a department with a challenge "Fun with Food" which promises some gourmet fare. Mrs. William C. Ford and Mrs. Walter B. Ford II have the surprise package section, always a favorite.

Elegant Rummage

While Christ Church members are bringing to a climax two years of Fair preparations, members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church are busily collecting elegant rummage for their sale on September 25.

All funds raised from the Rummage Sale are used to purchase materials for their Christmas Fair given on alternate years with Christ Church.

Mrs. Walter McAdow and Mrs. Paul Erickson are in charge of the Rummage Sale and such unusual discards they are gathering.

There is rare Belgian lace, an antique glass candelabra, a Scottish silver server to hold Edam cheese, a Chinese porcelain sweetmeat dish, an ermine jacket, curling tongs, a pink boudoir chair and dozens of Mason jars for canning, to list just a few.

Of course there are racks of clothes too. Mrs. Charles Wright III, Mrs. Robert Butz, Mrs. Douglas MacAlpine, Mrs. Sheldon Drennan, Mrs. Frank G. Yates, Mrs. Daniel M. Carne and Mrs. James Morrison will be vending rummage on sale day.

Artists' Mart To Have Exhibit

The Artists Market will open its preview exhibition of the season, Wednesday, September 24 from 2 until 6 o'clock at the Market on Madison avenue.

Tea will be served and Mrs. John Graham is in charge of hostesses for the afternoon.

Assisting her are Mrs. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., Mrs. Hardee Bethea, Mrs. William P. Bonbright II, Mrs. Benson Ford, Mrs. Edsel Ford, Mrs. Walter B. Ford II, Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., Mrs. Julius Haas and Mrs. John W. Hoag, Jr.

Others are Mrs. Lowrey Kammer, Mrs. John N. McNaughton, Mrs. H. Herbert Micou, Mrs. Sibley Moore, Mrs. H. Lynn Pierson, Mrs. Allan Sheldon III, Mrs. Carsten Tiedeman, Mrs. James B. Webber, and Miss Mary Woodruff.

To Give Course On Constitution

Shall we call a constitutional convention to revise the Michigan Constitution of 1908?

To help citizens of the community answer this question a three session course entitled "The Dynamics of Michigan State Government" will be held on three successive Wednesday evenings, from 8 to 10 o'clock, starting October 1.

Dr. Louis L. Friedland, noted authority on political science and professor at Wayne State University, will conduct the course which will be held in the High School Annex.

Dr. Friedland, who has been at Wayne State since 1947, is well known as an authority on the state constitution. He was project director of the "Little Hoover" Commission for Michigan and first director of the Fair Employment Practices Commission. He is also consultant to the Citizens Research Council, which prepared the report on the proposed consolidation of three Grosse Pointes.

The course will cover the structure and function of Michigan state government under the present constitution, reorganization of the state government in Michigan as compared with other states which have revised their constitutions, the problems and issues of a constitutional convention, and alternative ways of updating the constitution.

Civic organizations and church groups are being invited to sponsor representatives to the course.

Fee for the course will be $4 per person or $6 per couple. Registration is being handled at the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, phone: TU 5-3808.

PLAN TURKEY SHOOT

The Fourth Annual Midwest Muzzle Loaders Turkey Shoot, a yearly event for devotees of oldtime firearms, will be held at Greenfield Village on Saturday and Sunday, October 11 and 12. More than 150 shooters from a dozen gun clubs in the midwest, Kentucky and Virginia are expected to take part.

Kerby-Perusse Vows Exchanged

Margot Anne Perusse, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George L. Perusse, Jr., of Oak Park, Ill., was married recently to Douglas George Kerby, son of the Floyd G. Kerbys, of Hollywood road, in Grace Episcopal Church, Oak Park.

For the wedding the bride chose a ballerina gown of lace and taffeta and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Donald E. Barber came from Manhattan Beach, Calif., to be her sister's matron of honor and the other attendant was Mrs. Matthew J. Donner, of Garden City, Mich., the bridegroom's sister. They wore turquoise chiffon and carried white orchids.

Richard Willis, of Evanston, Ill., was best man for Mr. Kerby and seating the guests was William Finnegan, Jr., of Chicago.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Louise, Banff, Vancouver and San Francisco the newlyweds will make their home in Los Angeles.

Symphony Aids Name Officers

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra held its formal luncheon meeting of the season Wednesday noon at Red Run Golf Club.

Mrs. D. Carleton Broderick III, president for the coming year, presented her new board to the membership.

The board will include Mesdames Thomas T. Restrick, William A. Risdon and Cornelius N. Ray III, vice-presidents; Stanley R. Day, recording secretary; John E. Chapin, corresponding secretary; and Keith T. McKenney, treasurer.

Standing committee chairmen will be Mesdames Donald E. Brown, projects; Charles S. Himelhoch, year book; George F. Renaud, historian; Maurice E. Spary, social; and Willard W. Wicklund, telephone.

The association's busy schedule for the coming season with all events for the benefit of the Detroit Symphony will include a fall fashion tea Oct. 1 at the Lochmoor Club, a theatre party in November and one in January, a Symphony Ball Jan. 24, and Bermuda Bridge parties April 1.

Mrs. Broderick announced that a check for $5,000 will be presented to the Symphony as the Junior's associate sponsor pledge to the orchestra, the money raised from last year's projects.

Bride Wears Italian Silk and Alencon Lace Princess Gown for Wedding Last Friday; After Trip East Newlyweds Will Live in New York

At an afternoon ceremony in the Bishop road home of her parents Friday, Jane Lewis Weaver, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Delmar Franklin Weaver, became the bride of Alfred Richard Reuther, Jr.

For her nuptials the bride chose an Italian silk princess style gown with a bodice of Alencon lace. A wreath of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

Patricia Ann Thomas was maid of honor in a pale pink faille ballerina gown. Her corsage was of deep pink sweetheart roses and ivy.

Sally Weaver was her sister's junior attendant in pale pink organza with a miniature bouquet of pink roses.

Robert A. Reuther was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Alfred Richard Reuthers of McKinley avenue. Bert Cooper, of Charleston, S.C., and the bride's brother, Delmar Franklin Weaver, Jr., were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed Mrs. Weaver wore a gown of hyacinth blue slipper satin and a white orchid. Mrs. Reuther was in sapphire blue satin and carried spray orchids.

When the newlyweds left on an Eastern wedding trip the bride was wearing a bright blue wool suit. They will live in New York.

Gagnon-Kavanaugh Vows Solemnized

Pair Wed in St. Joseph's Church, Bay City; After Trip To Jamaica Will Live in Milwaukee, Wis.; Papal Blessing Read at Ceremony

Ann Beverly Kavanaugh, of Van Antwerp road, daughter of the William P. Kavanaughs, of Bay City, was married recently in St. Joseph's Church, Bay City, to Thomas Esmond Gagnon

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white silk organza over mist taffeta. Pale pink threads formed an all over embroidered motif with self appliques of the organza.

A matching pillbox held her four tiered English mist veil and she carried Rapture roses and stephanotis.

The five bridal attendants were dressed in shell pink taffeta sheaths with an embroidered motif and matching petal bandeaux. Their bouquets were of American Beauty roses.

Joan Kavanaugh was her sister's maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Michael Coate was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Helen LaPorte, a cousin of the bride and Rosemary Kavanaugh, the bride's sister. The flower girl was Lynn LaPorte, the bride's cousin.

John Cueter was best man for Mr. Gagnon, son of the Frederic G. Gagnons, of Van Antwerp road. Ushering were Michael W. Coate, and Patrick Terrance and Paul Kavanaugh, the bride's brother.

A Papal blessing was read at the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Wenonah Hotel.

Dinner Planned By Newcomers

Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club begins its 13th year Friday, October 3 at 7 o'clock with a buffet dinner at St. Michael's Church Hall followed by election of officers, presentation of new members and a surprise program.

The Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club was founded in 1945, the initial membership 7 couples. The purpose of the club is to acquaint couples who have recently moved to the area with their neighbors.

Two parties are held each month during the season and guests are eligible after they have attended three parties. Membership is limited to three years. Most prospective members are suggested by actives who submit their name to the chairman. Active membership in the club this year numbers 100 couples. Over 400 couples have been members since the club's inception.

Committee heads for the first meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kurtz, chairmen, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Wyatt Haisten, the Don Bays, the Jack Reynolds, the Wolfelns, the Leo Cowlings, and the Neil Shanahans.

The committee for the opening party is traditionally made up of the entire governing board of the Newcomers Club. It is their final duty for the club.

A.A.U.W. Groups Plan Meetings

Mrs. Albert D. Conkey will entertain fellow AAUW Status of Women members in her 802 Pemberton road home next Monday, September 22. Guests will gather at 1:30 p.m. to hear the group's speaker, Mrs. R. L. Shepard, on the subject, "Dreamers of the American Dream."

The Contemporary Literature AAUW group will meet on Tuesday, September 23, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. John R. Pear. Mrs. James H. Graves will assist as co-hostess. Mesdames Arthur C. Neidow, Oswald Robbins, John Schonberg, and Robert H. Snyder will present the program of related subject matter in reviews of the following titles: "The Organization Man," "The Lonely Crowd," "The Exurbanites," "Madison Avenue, USA," and "Hidden Persuaders."

Mrs. Conkey will again open her home, on Thursday, September 25, to AAUW members when they convene at 10 a.m. for a Legislative program meeting. Mrs. Edward F. Gehrig, as the day's speaker, will present the program "The Voter and the Constitution of Michigan."

DAC Begins Floor Shows

Detroit Athletic Club has started the week of Monday, September 22, through Saturday, for a six-night dinner dance and floor show to inaugurate the club's fall social season and set it into gay swing.

Robert Merrill, Metropolitan Opera baritone, is the bright luminary engaged to highlight the week of merrymaking, and it will be a return for this popular and topflight singer who won acclaim during his DAC appearance two years ago.

Dinner and dancing are scheduled for 7 o'clock, and preceding cocktail parties are in planning stages. After the floor show at 9:30, dancing will take over again.

Seymour Hoffman, gifted pianist and conductor, and his orchestra will be on the bandstand. The group arrived at the club last Friday for an extended stay.

Arrangements are in the hands of Entertainment Chairman Martin C. Callahan and his committee. They are suggesting black tie attire throughout the week to add luster to the occasion. The committee aides include Grosse Pointers Joseph E. Bayne, Leo Fitzpatrick and Frank W. Keyser.

Among the DAC's Pointe members who already have reserved tables are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Veech, the Terry Kuhns, the Arnold F. Malows, the George Frischkorns, and the William J. Touscanys.

Michigan Court Plans Luncheon September 23

Pointe and Detroit area members of Michigan Court of the National Society, Women Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, will motor to Midland Tuesday, September 23, for the fall luncheon-meeting of the Society, at the Midland Community Center, with luncheon set for 1 o'clock. Reservations should be made by Friday, September 19.

There will be a brief board meeting at 12:30 o'clock, and the business session after luncheon.

Mrs. Joseph C. Rice, of Tecumseh, state second vice-president, and a former national officer, will show pictures of her recent European trip.

Betteley-Davidson Troth Announced in Kalamazoo

Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Davidson, of Kalamazoo, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Lyn, to Charles Rollins Metteley, son of the Albert E. Betteleys, of Hampton road.

Smith-Crawford Vows Exchanged

Newlyweds Left for Bermuda After Ceremony in Bryn Mawr Community Church and Reception at The South Shore Country Club in Chicago

In the Bryn Mawr Community Church, Chicago, Saturday, September 6, Judith Carol Crawford, daughter of the William Fowle Crawfords, of Chicago, was married to Stephen Worthington Smith, son of the Yates Gorham Smiths, of Edgemont park.

The bride wore a period gown of heirloom pearl encrusted chantilly lace, bordered with a swag of silk peau de soie with a court train. Her silk illusion veil was held to her head by a matching lace cap. She carried cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Constance Crawford, attending her sister as maid of honor, wore a floor length emerald green satin empire gown. A tiny satin hat of matching color completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of light amazon lilies.

The bridesmaids, dressed in the same fashion, were Barbara Crawford, sister of the bride, Elizabeth Ann Marsteller, Karen Walsh, all of Chicago, Ill.; Joan Robinson, Ann Richardson of Sewickley, Penn., and Sara Fry of Short Hills, N. J.

Howard B. Knaggs, Jr., acted as the best man and Mr. Smith's ushers were Gordon T. Ford, E. Rust Muirhead, Frank H. Boos, III, Eric W. Stroh and Leonard W. Smith, William Kersten, Ernest C. Kanzler, Jr., of Pacific Palisades, Calif., and Robert Spitzmiller, Jr., of Buffalo, N. Y.

Following the reception at the South Shore Country Club Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a Bermuda honeymoon.

Mrs. Crawford wore a pale lemon yellow hammered satin gown with a beaded inner front sheath. Mrs. Smith wore a sea foam gown of Alencon lace and starched chiffon.

Patricia J. Lash Weds Mr. Frolund

Newlyweds Traveled to Florida After Rites Saturday In Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church; Will Make Home in Hampton Road

Patricia J. Lash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Lash, of Hawthorne road, was married Saturday in Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church to Christian Nelson Frolund, son of the Nelson C. Frolunds, of Hawthorne road.

For the rites she chose a ballerina gown of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a Queen Anne collar and a skirt appliqued with lace, sequins and pearls. A double crown held her shoulder length illusion veil and she carried white roses with her prayer book.

Emmy Frolund, maid of honor, wore blue silk organza with a trapeze back and apron front trimmed in satin. Her bouquet was of matching roses.

Sandra Gore, the other attendant, wore yellow silk organza and carried matching roses.

The bridegroom asked Robert Broom to be his best man. Seating the guests were James Ogden and Daniel Abbey.

Following a reception in the church parlors the pair left for Florida. For traveling the bride wore a green and black wool jersey dress and black accessories. The newlyweds will live in Hampton road.

Regina High School Club Meets Sept. 17

The first general meeting of the school year for the Mom's & Dad's Club of Regina High School was on Wednesday, September 17 at 8 p.m. in the school assembly room.

The first social function for the school year will be the fall social to be held Saturday, September 27, in the Green Room at the Notre Dame High School at 20254 Kelly road. The Melody Kings will furnish the music for dancing from 9 p.m. on. Tickets may be obtained from students, parents or at the school. The donation will be $2.50 per person, which also includes refreshments. All Regina parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

A paper drive will be sponsored the first week in October. For further information call Frank Marchwinski. Paper, cardboard and magazines will be pictured.

Many a man who knows but little tells way too much.

Mrs. Alger Head of Art Society

Mrs. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, Mich., has accepted the position of national women's chairman of the Archives of American Art, Dr. Edgar P. Richardson, director of the archives project and of the Detroit Institute of Arts, announced last week.

The former Suzette de Margny Dewey, daughter of Charles S. Dewey of Washington, D.C., and the late Mrs. Dewey, is the wife of the former United States ambassador to Belgium (1953-1957). Mr. Alger previously served six years in Michigan state office, lastly as Secretary of State.

Mrs. Alger's interest in art is keen and her knowledge is a wide one acquired in many years spent abroad. In 1927-28-29 her father served as financial advisor to the Polish government and she and Mr. Alger were married in Warsaw.

Mrs. Alger's duties on the National Board of Trustees of the Archives of American Art, a privately supported research program housed within the Detroit Institute of Arts, will be to conduct fund-raising campaigns to support the archives. In the spring of 1958 she headed a committee to raise funds for purchases for the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts' contemporary exhibition which was shown in Detroit as well as Philadelphia.

On the national board of trustees she joins the following: Lawrence A. Fleischman, Detroit businessman, chairman; Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, vice chairman; Vincent Price of Beverly Hills, Calif., noted actor and art collector, vice chairman; Frank W. Donovan, Detroit attorney and civic leader, treasurer; Charles F. Moore, Jr., Ford Motor Company, vice president; Henry F. duPont, Winterthur, Delaware, this country's greatest collector of American antiques and decorative arts; Mrs. Charles F. Willis, of New York, daughter of Harvey S. Firestone of Akron, O.; Howard W. Lipman, New York, owner of one of the leading collections of American folk art; Joseph H. Hirshhorn, New York, known both for his Canadian uranium

Plan Rummage Sale At St. Michael's

Women of Church Have Been Working All Summer To Make Event Successful on September 26 and 27

During the summer months the women of St. Michael's Episcopal Church have been working under the able leadership of Mrs. Edward K. Kennedy, Jr., and Mrs. Roger B. Judkins, co-chairmen for the annual Rummage Sale sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary to be held September 26 and 27, in the parish hall of the Church, 20475 Sunningdale Park.

Work actually began in collecting and sorting before the summer months by all the Committee Chairmen and the representatives assisting them from each of the eight Guilds. The various departments are organized as follows: Men's and Boys' Wear: Mrs. Frank Butcher, Mrs. Arthur Kuecken and Mrs. Floyd Kerby. Women's Wear: Mrs. John Cushman, Mrs. Henry Cope, Mrs. Milton O. Cross and Mrs. Frederick Button.

Mrs. Ralph Spresser has given her attention to the Infants and Children's Wear departments and is also organizing the sales personnel and cashiers who will serve when the sales begins. Mrs. Marc Alan and Mrs. David Barker have charge of the toy department and also the books and records. Mrs. Don Nigro and Mrs. Robert Doycombe hope to have a substantial assortment of linens.

Small electrical appliances are taken care of by Mrs. George Thom and Mrs. Louis Troglia. Under miscellaneous, an important part of every rummage sale, are the shoes, hats, belts and all leather goods and these items are being assembled by Mrs. Eugene Most.

Kitchen ware, china and glass will be displayed by Mrs. Robert Chandler and Mrs. George Brown. Pick-up work is being carried on by Mrs. Irvin Malcolm and Mrs. John Barlow. Supplies of all kinds for everyone are being gathered to have in readiness by Mrs. Ray Nigro and Mrs. Frederic Besimer. Mrs. Nelson B. Fisher, treasurer for the Woman's Auxiliary, is in charge of finances.

Publicity is being shared by Mrs. John Ludwig who is taking care of the advertising and Mrs. Herbert Shanks for the editorial. Supervision of the refreshments for all the workers has been undertaken by

St. Michael's Church Holding Sale

—Picture by Fred Runnels

Helping get ready for the big rummage sale which will be held at St. Michael's Church on September 26 and 27, are, left to right: — MRS.

ROGER JUDKINS, co-chairman; MRS. CLARENCE E. GUNN and MRS. EDWARD KENNEDY, JR., co-chairman.

the wife of the rector, Mrs. Edgar H. Yeoman. She will be assisted by Mrs. George H. Hann, the wife of the newly appointed assistant minister.

Preparation for a sale of this kind requires a maximum of the volunteer spirit, perseverance and endless patience, but the various committees have felt that a great deal of fellowship and fun have balanced the time and effort given and they look forward to the sale, assured that it has been very worthwhile.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson To Entertain Sorority

Mrs. Ralph Johnson's home in University place will be the setting for the first fall meeting of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

It will be a buffet supper at 7 o'clock followed by a meeting and pre-rummage sale. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Johnson.

This group is planning its annual rummage sale to be held on October 23, in Highland Park. Rummage may be brought to the supper meeting on September 23 or it will be picked up the week of October 12 if you call Mrs. Watson Ford, TU. 5-9189.

Church Guilds Plan Meetings

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Michael's Episcopal Church on Sunningdale announces their eight Guilds have planned September meetings as follows:

The four evening Guilds which will meet on September 22 are: St. Elizabeth's at the home of Mrs. Edward Knoll 20654 North Maple Lane co-hostess, Mrs. Guenther Buergei;

St. Hilda's at the home of Mrs. Robert McFadden, 24555 Petersburg, East Detroit, co-hostess, Mrs. E. Thomas Behnke;

European Travelers Feted By H. Simons at DAC

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Simon, of Buckingham road, entertained at a dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club September 9 to fete Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zerkle, of Grosse Pointe, and the Willard H. Holts, of Birmingham.

The Holts will leave October 3 for a trip around the world, and the Zerkles plan to move from the Pointe in late October and to make their home in Florida.

The travels were the main topic of conversation in the group which included the Marvin Andersons and the Clarence Millers.

Pointe Coterie To Hold Dance

Grosse Pointe married couples, young and old are invited to Coterie's first dance of the fall season at the War Memorial, Saturday evening, October 11, from 9 until 12 o'clock.

If you need a lift for that low feeling, Al Ross and his orchestra will put pep in your step. Now is the time to polish those dancing shoes and point them toward the War Memorial for a wonderful evening of dancing at a cost of only $3.00 per couple. This includes the cost of refreshments served during the intermission.

Old friends of Coterie will notice that this year's dance will be held on the second Saturday of the month. If you haven't been to the Coterie dances before, circle October 11 on your calendar, and take advantage of a Coterie extra—a chance to meet new friends.

GETS LITTERING TICKET

A ticket for littering was issued John Sterling, of 1005 Kensington road, last Tuesday, September 9. The arrest was made when Sterling tossed a pie at a passing vehicle on Fisher road, in front of Grosse Pointe High School.

Alpha Gamma Delta To Install New Chapter

Alpha Gamma Delta has installed a 71st chapter of the fraternity at Wayne State University, the first pledge class initiated last week.

Local members assisting at the ceremonies were Mrs. B. F. Martin, of Hawthorne road, and her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Auch, of St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Fred Holder, of University Place; Mrs. R. D. Halford, of Harcourt road; Mrs. Patrick J. Burke, of Lakepointe avenue; Mrs. Paul Cornelisen, of Fairway lane; Mrs. N. A. Baker, of Stephens road, and Mrs. George Rogers, of Cloverly road.

Consistency in all things is a man's most precious asset.

Hospital Aides To Hear Talk

The Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital will hold their fall general meeting Friday, September 26 at 10 o'clock at the Nurses Residence on Ridge road.

Speaker for the meeting will be Mrs. Ralph Guiney, Planning Director for Service to the Ageing for United Community Services. She will speak on, "Daring, We are Growing Old."

Luncheon will follow the meeting and interested women in the community are invited.

Two Cars Tangle In Minor Crash

There were no violations issued, and damage was slight to both vehicles but the incident was still distressing to the drivers involved, Penelope L. Distin, of 1200 Grayton road, and David J. Cook, 430 Rivard boulevard.

Miss Distin was driving east on Maumee on Thursday afternoon, September 11, and had stopped for the sign at the Rivard intersection. She started up without seeing Cook's car, which was headed south on Rivard, and smashed into it.

Grosse Pointe City Police considered the accident a minor one, and neither driver to be at fault.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush! An understatement if you've ever heard one! Comparing the industry which is located in your town with industry located somewhere else which your town might like to get, the bird in hand is worth a hundred in the bush, and more. It's a hundred to one that the best opportunity your town has for more industrial payroll lies in expansion of its present industry. The industrial payroll of your town is a priceless possession. Protect it. Other towns would like to get it and some may even now be trying. Don't take the industry in your town for granted. Show your pride in it. Help it expand. There's no better payroll than the homegrown variety and it is, by all odds, the easiest to grow. Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper. New Record Set in Bayview All Night Distance Race

The biggest entry in Bayview Yacht Clubs' annual Night Race was set last Saturday, September 13, as 65 yachts answered the starting gun in the fortieth annual race.

Twenty-two small boats and nineteen of the yachts in the newly formed Cruising D class were responsible for the new record.

Bobby Roadstrum's Privateer sloop "Cotton Top" captured the Sam Durham trophy and shared top honors with Henry Burkard's "Meteor III" who won the Free Press trophy as winner of Cruising B. class and the rededicated coveted Bayview Cup as overall winner of the Cruising division.

Get Williams Trophy
Jerry Clements and Moon Baker's "Last Straw" captured the R. R. Williams trophy when she edged the Cruising A class. The victory UNOFFICIALLY gave the Cruising A DRYA season championship to this Fisher Islander sloop in her second year under the ownership of Clements and Baker.

Susie Fisher's Pilot Sloop "Old Rarity" showed the way to the Cruising C class to win the First Commodore's trophy and Dan Holka's "Seeker" had enough handicap time to capture the new Russell Pouliot trophy as winner of Cruising D class.

It was a beautiful night for a race. The weather man cooperated with a dandy 10-mile an hour southerly breeze, which shifted to the southwest after the fleet had rounded the Huron Point stakeboat to give the skippers a good buck to weather on the last leg of the 4 1/2 nautical mile course. The breeze diminished to a zephyr about midnight which made for a tantalizing beat downriver to the finish line in front of the host club.

In Close Finish
The closest finish of the entire race occurred between Roadstrum's "Cotton Top" and Walt Swindemann, of Toledo Yacht Club who was sailing his new Dragon class sloop. Both competed in the small boat division and were sailing under the Universal Handicap rating system. Roadstrum crossed the line at 1:18:14 a.m. Sunday and Swindemann followed at 1:25:16 a.m. Commodore Dave Davenport's official scorers announced the corrected times for these two yachts were exactly the same—5 hours 46 minutes and 20 seconds. Because Roadstrum finished first he was awarded the trophy.

Henry Burkard's "Meteor III" took the Cruising B honors by 13 minutes and 23 seconds over Llywd Ecclestone's "Fikini" and the overall honors a way from "Last Straw" by one minute and 13 seconds.

Susie Fisher's "Old Rarity", by comparison, had a wide margin in Cruising C when she topped Jimmy Carlin's

"Glory Bea II" by three minutes and 22 seconds. The latter took second place away from Karl Ness' "Happi-Ness" by a mere 32 seconds.

Holka Is Happiest
The happiest guy on the water that night was Dan Holka who in "Seeker" crossed the finish line 13 minutes and one second behind Lynn Stedman's "Lurer" but used her handicap to good advantage to win Cruising D honors by 27 minutes and 43 seconds.

For the most part the skippers adhered to the rule on displaying running lights during the hours of darkness, except for four. They were automatically disqualified as the Bayview race committee followed the printed program to the LETTER.

"Fleetwood" was under her alleged new skipper Bill Hanson and placed third in Cruising B behind the "Bikini".

Drya Sarns "Revelry"
NRYA champion in 1956 and '57, came from far out in left field to take second place in Cruising A behind "Last Straw" and nip Toot Gmeiner's "Apache" who took third.

Sid Marsh placed second in the Privateer class and Oscar Carlson's "Spindrift", after making a kissing acquaintance with the famous Pouliot's Point just a hundred yards from the finish line, managed to work free and take third.

Uses River Current
Guy McNaron's "Sally K" used the river current to good advantage to come from fourth place at Windmill Point to clip Arnold Fuch's "Gamble III" in the L Boat class. J. C. Shenstone's "Nite Wind" was moved up to third place when Alee Chapman's "Artemis" and Guy Ireland's "Shamrock" were disqualified for not having running lights in operation on the lake.

Walt Swindemann's "Yankee Doodle" won the two boat race in the Dragon class and Earl Zuehlke's "Vitamin Z" was moved up to first place in the Crescent class when Dick Hill's "We Do" was discovered operating without running lights and was disqualified. Chuck Keresztes' "Man on" took second place in the three boat race.

Don Hanna was first home with his "Donna Jean" to win the Folkboat class and was followed by Ross Kogel's "Nantin" and Bob Wood's "Smutsig Fagel".

The 1958 season is the twenty-second year in the National Football League for Lions head coach George Wilson, as a player, player-coach, assistant coach and head coach.

Head Coach Flood of Austin High, is noncommittal over the chances of his team in the Central Division gridiron race in the Catholic League this season.

Coach Flood admits he has six letter winners returning but is quick to point out that the loss of two ends and three backfield men leaves the Friar defense in a sad state of affairs.

The returning veterans around whom coach Flood will build are: tackles George Blake and Ken Gogala, guards Bob Kennedy and Kit Gentile, center Sam Miller and back Ken Sherer.

Already Stan La Verhrie has impressed enough to rate a starting berth at quarterback and Bob Miller holds the edge for the fullback slot. The other two positions are wide open and competition is keen among the hopeful candidates who will battle for the starting positions right up until the Friars open their 1958 campaign on September 21 against Salsian on the De La Salle gridiron at 2:30 p.m.

Junior Crews Who Vied For 1958 DRYA Championships

It was a happy but wet crew of Juniors sailors who posed for this group picture after the completion of the first annual Detroit River Yachting Association Boys and Girls Championships at the Grosse Pointe.

Tennis House Netters Win

Don MacKay and John Reindel, representing the Tennis House captured the men's Doubles championship in the fourth annual Country Club of Detroit Men's and Women's Double tennis tournament which reached its climax on Sunday, September 14.

MacKay and Reindel defeated Bob Faught and Charles Lynch, of the Birmingham Tennis Club, in the finals 6-6; 6-2.

In the Women's doubles Ruth Jenks and Mary Lou MacKay handed Helen Connolly and Lynne Jenkins a two set defeat, 9-7; 6-0, in the finals.

Boys' and girls' tournaments were held for club members.

George Haggarty captured the singles crown by defeating Bob Wood 6-4; 6-4 and then the pair teamed up to win the doubles title by defeating Ralph McElvenny, Jr., and Ricky Kammer 6-4; 3-6; 6-2.

Helen Connolly tripped Julie Donovan 6-1; 6-0 to win the girls' singles championship and Francis Bonbright and Susan Merrell captured the girls' doubles crown with a straight set 6-4; 6-4 victory over Ann Wood and Tina Gram.

Coach at Austin Remaining Quiet

Head Coach Flood, of Austin High, is noncommittal over the chances of his team in the Central Division gridiron race in the Catholic League this season.

Coach Flood admits he has six letter winners returning but is quick to point out that the loss of two ends and three backfield men leaves the Friar defense in a sad state of affairs.

The returning veterans around whom coach Flood will build are: tackles George Blake and Ken Gogala, guards Bob Kennedy and Kit Gentile, center Sam Miller and back Ken Sherer.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Within a matter of hours, if everything goes according to schedule, an orange-and-white buoy nine miles off the Brenton Reef Lightship will become the center of interest to every yachtsman in the world.

On Saturday, September 20, two sleek 12 meter sloops, one a foreign challenger and the other the American defender, will jockey for position for the start of the first race of the 1958 America's Cup races to be held off the Rhode Island coast.

Fortunate yachtsmen with the "long green stuff" and the time to spend will be among the thousands of spectators who'll dot the 24 mile race course as the British "Sceptre" tries to wrest the America's Cup from the tenacious grasp of the New York Yacht Club.

The series is scheduled for seven races which will include four triangular and three windward-leeward courses. The first yacht to win four races will be awarded the "Old Mug" which has held a place of honor for 107 years in the trophy case at the New York Yacht Club.

The British have been the most persistent challenger but during the course of time have only been able to win four races and never the series.

Sir Thomas Lipton was the most outstanding sportsman to represent England and after he failed time and time again T. O. M. Sopwith picked up the gauntlet without success.

Speculation is running rampant among yachtsmen as to the outcome. The sentimental ones hope the English will win. They feel that it would be the best for yachting and would promote an American challenge in 1959. The more down to earth sailors feel the "Columbia" is the ultimate in yacht design and that after "Columbia's" crew went through the "mill" in the final elimination races against the 19 year-old "Vim," it will be the best handled in the match races.

The "Columbia" was designed by the 50 year-old Olin Stephens, who many regard as a genius when it comes to designing fast yachts. Mr. Stephens is regarded as the number one naval architect in America today. His partner Drake Sparkman regards him as "a mathematical genius."

Olin Stephens spent two years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and then quit to find a job. Mr. Sparkman took him into partnership in 1920 before Olin's 21st birthday.

Mr. Sparkman persuaded the Yacht Racing Association of Long Island Sound to let his partner design a new junior class of boats. One year later Olin produced the revolutionary ocean-racing yawl "Dorade." In this design he employed the stylish racing lines rather than the heavier schooner type which at that time was considered best fitted for ocean racing. "Dorade" won the 1930 Bermuda race and the transatlantic race to Fastnet in 1932. She set the pattern for cruising yachts and

Business Men's Keglers Start

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's League has opened the 1958-59 season and is bowling at the Maple Lanes this year. The league has increased to 16 teams.

Four point winners for the first night were: Maple Lanes over Beaconsfield Kercheval; G. P. Pharmacy over Belding; Goebel 1 over Adam Simms; G. P. Woods Lounge over Atwell.

Highlight of the night was Ernie Nierath's 675 series for Goebel II which should be a good score to shoot for the balance of the season. They were bowling a former sponsor, Kennelly. Kennelly by good steady scoring still took three points from Goebel II.

More three point winners were: Cox and Baker over Barrett's; Larry's over Mack Prestwick; Bruce Wigle over Cramer.

New members in the league are Barrett's and Kennelly, both former members. Others are Goebel II, Mack Prestwick, Maple Lanes, G. P. Pharmacy, Atwell Clinic and Beaconsfield Kercheval.

200 scores: Ernie Nierath, 231, 224, 220; George Sperry, 231, 220; Bruce Warren, 223; Harold Nierath, 214; Mel Peksky, 213; Russ Blauer, 213; Frank Fletcher, 212; Carl Lentz, 211; Ange Petraci, 210; Les Henderson, 207; Jack Leithausen, 204; Dan Sarvis, 204; Robert Lieckfelt, 203; Art Neate, 201.

Ten members of the 1958 Detroit Lions team were with the 1953 and 1954 team that twice defeated the College All-Stars. Included are: Lou Creekmur, Jim David, Jack Christiansen, Charlie Ane, Bobby Layne, Carl Karilivacz, Joe Schmidt, Bob Miller, Jim Doran and Jim Martin.

The biggest known factor is the crew who will sail the yachts. They are flesh and blood and all humans can and usually do make a mistake here and there. The terrific pressure these crews will be subjected to magnifies the possibility of an error during the races.

It will be the human factor not the yachts that will produce the eventual winner of the America's Cup this year.

With the Hudson Motor Car Company expanding in the early days of World War I its chief instigator and director, Roy Chapin, was free to turn his attention to other fields. He was one of the automotive pioneers in favor of taxes on automobiles and fuel for the upkeep of highways and earned favorable attention in Washington.

In September 1916 with Howard Coffin he was sent by the US government to Mexico as an unofficial observer of the Army motor transport which was serving in Mexico against Villa. From Mexico he sent Mrs. Chapin a menu of a recent supper, tamales, chile, tortillas etc. total price 25c.

Next came the wartime job of heading the nation's motor transport and Mrs. Chapin went to Washington to look for a house. It wasn't available for the first few months so she installed a valet to look after her husband, especially to see that a white carnation was provided for his buttonhole each morning.

After the war Mr. Chapin returned to Detroit and post war conversion from war materials to automobiles began, and the Essex was introduced. It was a sensational success. In 1922 the president of the Hudson Motor Company was awarded an honorary degree by the University of Michigan, the youngest man in history to receive one. Also receiving honorariums that day were Robert Frost, the poet, and Supreme Court Justice Charles Evans Hughes.

By the mid-twenties the Chapin menage in Beverly road was bursting with five small children. The pair had purchased some property on Provenal but decided instead to build on the Lakeshore.

The house was a great adventure for the Chapins who decided on the Georgian architecture and spent months shopping abroad for rare art objects and furnishings. They bought Reynolds and Romney paintings, paneling from an English manor house, an old Waterford chandelier, a rare four way writing table.

Before the house was completed the Infante of Spain, Don Alfonso, Duc d'Orleans and de Bourbon, first cousin to the King was planning a Detroit visit. The Infante was the father of aviation in Spain and the Chapins were asked to be hosts to the Spanish grandee and his entourage.

They decided to make the visit a house warming and moved in. There were no rugs, curtains or household items. Even the stairs were unstained. Friends came to the rescue. The Edsel Fords, Kanzlers, Bombrights, Schlottmans loaned furniture, Irish glass and old silver. The string quartet from the Detroit Symphony played as did George Gershwin. The party was a success.

Mr. Chapin continued to work for better highways in Washington, became president of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. When President Hoover first asked him to become Secretary of Commerce he declined, but after the 1929 financial crash, Mr. Chapin, unscathed by the debacle, accepted. During this period Amelia Earhart came to Detroit to launch the new Hudson Motor Car, the Terraplane. He returned to Detroit on President Roosevelt's inauguration to face terrible problems.

During the bank closing Mr. Chapin and friends had to put up money to keep the GP Country Day School going, to reorganize the motor company in the depression. In 1936 he caught a cold in Washington where he had been called to solve some motor transport problems. Arriving back in the Pointe he kept a date to play indoor tennis with Edsel Ford. He came down with pneumonia and died on February 16, mourned by friends from every walk of life.

One of his friends wrote in tribute "I call Roy one of the most successful men I ever knew, not only because he was a success in the business and financial way, but because he lived life to the full . . . he possessed that quality of eternal youth and boyishness and gaiety, and eagerness about all sort of things."

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

For seventy-eight years Mrs. C. Edmund Delbos and Mrs. Strathearn Hendrie have been exchanging confidences. Both of them were members of the Pointe's early Resort years when about 20 families spent the summer here, all of them on the closest terms.

The two dowagers have much to talk about and for many years have been enjoying bi-weekly dinners. On Monday they meet at Mrs. Delbos' Lincoln road home and Wednesday it is Mrs. Hendrie's turn in her home at Webster and Belanger. Would live to eavesdrop on these conversations about when the Pointe was growing up.

Mary Gordon Patterson was invited to a ghoulish party last week, (the latest in masquerade fads), and was in a dilemma about her costume.

A friend suggested she try Memorial Church where a huge collection of cast offs is collecting in the gym in preparation for the Rummage Sale, September 25. What did she find but a vintage black velvet beaded sheath. It fit as if it were designed for her and she was a sensation at the gala as a Charles Addams vampire.

Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe, who has impeccable taste in interior design, is off to New York shopping for antiques. She is doing her new Touraine road home in a luscious shade of antique French green and needs furnishings to compliment the walls.

The Bill O. Brinks have a dreadful time convincing people that their name is really Bill not William. All sorts of confusion results. On a trip to Mexico a few years back nary a post card did they receive for the local mailmen thought their name had an Irish sound and was written Bill O'Brink.

Shopping for fall fashions amid the flurry over sack, chemise or empire shape has lately in an understandable dither. One chic matron delving in the Village last week had her temper aroused by a delivery van clogging the alley (and they will do it). So wrathful was she that the police were called. The blotter in question was full of ire too. On the City police blotter was this succinct report: Both parties pacified.

Pointer of Interest

THE REV. WILLIAM HAMMOND, OF GROSSE POINTE UNITARIAN CHURCH -Picture by Fred Rummels

By Patricia Talbot

The Unitarians' chief attraction is a religion which demands no doctrinal beliefs of its members and this independence is what drew the Rev. William Hammond to the church which was to become his life.

Mr. Hammond was brought up as a Baptist in Columbia, Mo., in an intellectual atmosphere which fostered independent thinking. His father was head of the physics department at the University of Missouri, Mr. Hammond's own alma mater.

His graduate work was done at the University of Chicago Divinity School and the Meadville Theological School. He studied with the Institute of General Semantics and then worked for four years in Young People's Director in New York, Chicago and St. Louis for the American Ethical Union.

Pastorate in Chicago
In 1946 he accepted his first call to the Unitarian Church. He remained as pastor of the People's Liberal Church of Chicago until the fall of 1950 when he came here to the church in the old Davis S. Carter mansion in East Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Hammond is well equipped to continue the tradition of Unitarian ministers, many of whom have been great scholars. Currently he is teaching an astronomy course and a class in semantics for the Adult Education Course under the direction of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Mansie in Grayton Road
Mr. Hammond lives with his wife and four little Hammonds in the parsonage in Grayton road. He is looking forward with his 260 member congregation to the church's 20th anniversary this March. The Unitarians hope to announce plans for expansion during this anniversary month. The Unitarian Church came to the Pointe with the aid of three dedicated women, only one of whom, Mrs. Ross Wilkins, survives to see the phenomenal growth of this independent church. For a few years the church held services in the War Memorial, Richard School and the Memorial Church until the Carter home was purchased. Now Sunday services are held in the Chapel hall, the impressive beamed living room and dining room of the old mansion.

His Help Now

When Mr. Hammond arrived replacing the Rev. Merrill Bates, he found himself tied to his desk by administrative detail. Now he has a secretary and a part time director of religious education, Mrs. Josephine Fisher. Mr. Hammond does a great deal of reading for religious expression in his church is free to stay abreast of current events. He welcomes new members with the advice that by joining the Unitarian Church they are beginning, not ending a spiritual quest.

Like most of the Protestant Churches in this area the Sunday School department of the Unitarian Church has expanded most rapidly and in the new plans for expansion this phase of religious life will be in the forefront.

Community Role

Mr. Hammond feels that his church has an important role to play in the community. His congregation, with its liberal outlook, prizes its independence of judgment on affairs both religious and political. A forceful personality, not afraid to speak his mind, Mr. Hammond epitomizes this liberal intellectual and religious attitude.

For two years he has served on the executive committee of Unitarian ministers which meets quarterly in Boston or Chicago and is able to keep his finger on the advanced thinking of the church movement throughout the country.

His type of church government is congregational (current president is Stanley Smith, of Chalfonte road), but Mr. Hammond serves as a strong guide and advisor to this flock.

Nature a Stimulus

On the prairies of his study hangs a print of the Colorado mountains, another of Mr. Hammond's interests. He tries to take his family on an annual pilgrimage there. He is deeply influenced by nature and loves his chapel hall where the seasons of the year are glimpsed in all their majesty during Sunday morning services from the imposing leaded glass windows. Unitarians have no communion services here but observe seasonal festivals.

Beginning his own ninth year as Unitarian minister in Grosse Pointe and the church's 20th, Mr. Hammond looks forward to both physical and religious expansion with great expectation.

He sincerely believes his church offers tremendous advantages to an ever-widening group of independent searching Christians, but hopes it will always keep its friendly intimate atmosphere. As a student, teacher, spiritual advisor and good friends he will move forward with his growing Unitarian Church and thriving modern community.

"Autumn Nocturne" . . . an artistic blending of many high style notes by Kasper . . . with a soigne . . . ladylike result. The showing of his new collection, will be at Jacobson's Dress Salon, September nineteenth. A black wool ensemble with a jacket delightfully lined in black and white stripe satin. Red wool takes a new, inspired shape . . . while the whole line is designed to bring you a fresh breath of fashion!

"When autumn leaves start to fall" . . . is the time to find your new coat at D. J. Healy. For a coat both casual and elegant . . . select a beige beauty of the softest wool . . . a blond beaver collar adds the frosting. Double breasted with small buttons in the mode of the day . . . one hundred thirty-five dollars . . . this is also cut in a traditional single breasted style!

"What's in a name?" Many times it's a tradition. Take the name MORNY of Regent Street, London. Here we find one of the oldest fine soap manufacturers in the world. Trail Pharmacy would like to introduce you to their bouquet of fragrances which include . . . Lavender, Sandalwood, Lily of the Valley, Wild Rose, Honeysuckle and many more . . . by offering the two dollar box for one dollar.

Masculine motifs . . . this autumn are reflected at Kilgore and Hurd. One focal point . . . the Madder oxford shirt with a foulard type print in olive, burgundy or brown. The subtle color is the result of a special dyeing process that captures the deep tones of the ancient design . . . seven ninety-five.

"September Song" . . . reminds us that the days grow short, when we reach this time of the year. If you haven't started your fall house cleaning as yet . . . remember there's a lot of professional help for your house within calling distance . . . the number . . . Tuxedo 1-2100. Wanamaker's Studio offers upholstery cleaning, carpet repair . . . a decorating touch-up for a room or a complete new scheme.

Fashion Editor's Choice . . . a coat of camel color . . . (perennial favorite to be sure) . . . BUT in the newest interpretation of the double breasted look . . . cut and collared by style sure hands. You may have seen this coat featured in the women's pages of your newspaper . . . be sure to see it at D. J. Healy . . . in junior sizes . . . forty-five dollars.

The Midas Touch . . . brings gilded glamour to the bedroom. The new Gold-n-sheer spreads, draperies and cafe curtains featured at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop are gossamer light . . . woven of nylon and dacron with a beautiful gold embroidered floral applique.
