TIBETAN REBELS proclaimed the formation of a provisional government in New Delhi, India, and were reported "giving hell" to Red Chinese troops in fierce guerrilla fighting. Reliable sources said that the Reds were going about in trying to crush anti-Communist resistance, but despite Chinese Communist reinforcements, the rebellious supporters of the Dalai Lama were reported putting up stiff opposition. The intensified fighting was reported as the Dalai Lama, fugitive god-king of Tibet, began the arduous trek through the Assam jungles from Tawang to Bomdila by horse and mule back, escorted by a strong Indian Army guard.

KONRAD ADENAUER, 83-year-old leader of West Germany, declared his country's unbending policy toward negotiations with Russia will not change "one iota" after he retires as chancellor. He made it clear that he will not become a figurehead president. He spoke to a nationwide audience on his decision to drop out as chancellor and campaign for the less-powerful post as president. He explained that his decision was designed to "secure the continuity of our policies for years to come." The rumor that Adenauer was shifting to the presidency caused a loud buzz around the world that West Germany's policy was going to take on a new look.

ROBERT W. BEEMAN of Anderson, Ind., has no objection to lovers using his gravel pit driveway as a lover's lane, but decided to run an ad in the local newspaper setting down some rules thereto. The ad read: "Participants park on the right, spectators on the left. During daylight hours, please cover windows, as we have had several near collisions because of truck drivers not watching the road."

MICHIKO SHODA 24, daughter of a Japanese millionaire flour miller, became the bride of Japan's Crown Prince Akihito, 25, heir to the imperial throne, in the "wedding of the century." The new princess became the first commoner to be welcomed into the Imperial family in more than 2,500 years. Millions of flag-waving Japanese roared their approval, as the beaming young couple rode through Tokyo's streets in an open carriage. The marriage ceremony was in the tradition of Shinto, Japan's nature-loving, ancestor-worshipping native faith. Wedding presents came from all over the world. President Eisenhower sent a Steuben crystal bowl.

A RUSSIAN SEAMAN, who suffered damaging brain injuries when he fell five days ago into a hatch of the Soviet fishing-factory ship, Pischavaya Industriya, in the Bering Sea, was brought to Anchorage, Alaska, by the United States Coast Guard.

Lt. Gen. Frank A. Armstrong, American commander of all armed forces in Alaska, lent a hand as Evgenij Ivanovich Gneishev, 23, was lifted from an amphibious Coast Guard plane when it landed at Elmendorf Air Force Base, and taken to the base hospital. It was a mercy mission asked of the United States by the Russian Embassy in Washington Monday night. The Moscow press did not even carry the story.

CHINESE RED FORCES and Tibetan rebels are engaged in a fierce battle in Tsinghai and Sikang Provinces on the Tibetan frontier, reliable sources disclosed. The Times of India said the rebels have cut off Chamdo, deep in Sikang Province on the main supply road between China proper and Lhasa, capital of Tibet. At the United Nations, the Indian delegate said the Dalai

How to Make Enemies and Alienate Customers

The NEWS photographer caught the props in an interesting little drama in the Kercheval-on-the Hill business district Friday afternoon, but the leading actor was busily engaged out of the camera angle on the right of the picture. While the Farms scout car was double-parked, creating a traffic menace, the officer was writing out an expired-meter ticket on the other side of the street. The meter hadn't quite flicked, but it did so while the gendarme was patiently waiting. The minute it did, he placed the ticket on the windshield. There have been a number of complaints about this sort of thing. See editorial in this issue.

Public Schools Enroll 10,216

Total enrollment in the Grosse Pointe Public School System, at the end of March, was 10,216. This figure represents three less than last month's total and 339, or 3.45 percent, above that of a corresponding date one year ago. A breakdown of the figures shows that elementary school enrollment was 5,885; junior high school totals were 2,282; and the enrollment at Grosse Pointe High School was 2,059. The enrollment for March in the Nursery School for Exceptional Children was 10, the same as the previous month.

Pointe Symphony Giving Last Concert of Season

Sunday, April 19, signals the end of the 1958-59 concert season for the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra which has been one of Grosse Pointe's most active cultural activities. This last performance featuring five soloists and called "An Afternoon at the Opera" is being co-sponsored and wholeheartedly supported by the Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Gerald L. Stoetzer, member of the Board of Directors of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society, is directly responsible for engaging the support of all the Girl Scout Troops in the Grosse Pointe area. Since being approached by Mrs. Stoetzer, these "young ladies" have proved themselves a most tireless and en-

Six-City Mutual Fire Aid Pact Appears in Jeopardy; One Community Hedging

Harper Woods: Lone Holdout and Eyeing Agreement With South Macomb Departments; Park-City Fire Department Merger Is Dormant
Harper Woods had not yet signed the Mutual Fire Aid Pact, and it appears that it has no desire to, according to a report made to the Park council on Monday, April 13, by City Manager Robert Stone. The city manager stated that from all indications, Harper Woods' decision, which is not yet official, will not effect the pact as far as the Pointe communities are concerned. It is not definite, he added, that Harper Woods officials will not sign the agreement. Mr. Stone said that Harper Woods is eyeing a pact with East Detroit and other Macomb County communities, where mutual fire aid is being discussed, and it might join with them.

Health Heads Back Clean-Up

Health officials urge support of the annual Clean-Up Campaign set for May 1 through 10, in the following message directed at readers of the NEWS. "The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council is sponsoring 'Clean Up Week' which has been set for May 1st through May 10th, 1959. 'Each individual here in Grosse Pointe should cooperate in seeking ways by which he may beautify trees, shrubs and gardens. Repair, repaint, improve buildings and homes, clean up and remove rubbish. This will not only give that satisfaction which companies well doing but more important will please our neighbors. 'An immediate reaction of the Health Department is that clean up good neighbor activity promotes the health of Grosse Pointe. We are continually fighting rats. The removal of rubbish, the elimination of burrows, the prevention of rat access to housing, food or garbage should be profitable and therefore a continuing activity throughout the year. Two tickets were issued for the same accident by Grosse Pointe City police on Thursday, April 9. The delinquent drivers were Paul M. Torres, Jr., of 18500 Fairway, Detroit, and James E. Morrison, of 18520 East Warren. Torres was driving east on Mack avenue, and approaching the island intersection at Lincoln road, when the accident occurred. He was attempting to make a left-hand turn from the middle lane when his car was struck in the left side. Morrison and Torres were both ticketed on charges of not having their cars under control.

Help Needed For Success In Clean-Up

Girl and Boy Scouts and Schools Take Part In Beautifying Campaign
"It's later than you think!" In spite of cold and rainy weather Spring is really here. Maples are tipped with red, and lilacs show swelling green, the forsythia is a yellow haze and brave young shoots of early plants are pushing through the ground. But Old Man Winter has left his signature of leaves, branches, papers and debris in gardens, vacant lots, public properties and on the highways. What better way to welcome Spring than to join in the Clean-Up effort for Grosse Pointe from May 1 through May 10. The week is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, but real success depends on the cooperative effort of every resident. Youngsters to Help The younger generation is already busy with plans. Mrs. Lewis W. Leisinger, District Girl Scout chairman, has alerted Scout leaders on a "May Day-Moseguy" project so that every Girl Scout can decorate her doorway with a basket or bouquet of Spring blossoms. It is hoped that all school children, home owners, and business men will also pick up this idea as a kick-off symbol for Clean-Up Week on this traditional flower hanging day. Under Paul L. Koivord's capable leadership as District Scout Master, the Boy Scouts will deliver several thousand reminders of Clean-Up Week

Drivers Warned About Spraying

Tree spraying with insecticides directed against the dreaded Dutch Elm Blight Disease, is in general progress in the City of Grosse Pointe, but progress has been somewhat less than satisfactory, due to prevailing uncertain weather conditions. Night spraying has, of necessity, been resorted to because of wind conditions during daylight hours, and the fact that usually the wind abates or at least moderates sufficiently during the evening hours. Every effort is made to warn residents about cars parked in the streets (also contrary to ordinances), and driveways close to the City trees being sprayed, but incidents and misunderstandings will occur. If, during the spraying operation your car is inadvertently exposed to the spray droplets, telephone Shock Bros. spraying contractors, giving all particulars. Today's "NEWS" contains an official ad directing public attention to the requirements of spraying by the owner of private property containing any elm trees which must be sprayed both by dormant and by foliage spray. A penalty accrues to each property owner who fails to do so spray. Full information of such spraying in the City can be had by telephoning the City Clerk, Norbert P. Neff, at TUxedo 5-5800.

15-Year-Old Runaway Boy Confesses Store Robbery

A 15-year-old Woods boy, sought by Woods authorities since April 1 for questioning in a larceny case, was arrested by Park police on Thursday, April 9. The teenager was taken into custody by Patrolmen James LaPratt and Robert McAllister, who saw the youth dressed in soiled western clothing, standing on the corner of Jefferson and Beaconsfield. The officers recognized him from a police teletype description. When arrested, the 15-year-old gave police a fictitious name, but at the station, admitted to his real name, and that he had stolen money from his employer in the Woods, and that he had run away from home on April 1. The boy was turned over to

Contributions Slightly Behind Last Year But Number Of Donors Shows Slight Increase; All Urged to Give
At the end of the second week of its 1959 Annual Family Participation Campaign to meet operating costs, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center finds receipts so far, to be $19,094.43 - just slightly under the $19,129.61 figure received by this time in the drive of 1958. There is, however, $40,000 needed this year, an increase in number of givers. One thousand and three hundred and sixty-five families have given this year as compared to 1,317 at this point in 1958. This rise in contributors, though small, is most gratifying.

Polio Clinic April 20 at Pierce High

Third Round of Injections To Be Given; First and Second Also Available
Three cases of polio have been reported in Wayne County since January 1, 1959. Two 18-year-old victims have paralytic polio while the third, 26 years old, has the non-paralytic type. The hope of ending polio will be realized only when everyone gets three properly spaced shots of Salk vaccine. Your children's immunization or that of the folks next door will not prevent the polio virus from attacking you. Clinics to Be Held Confronted by an epidemic of polio last year, the citizens of Wayne County were given opportunities of having two injections of vaccine to start their protection. Beginning on April 20, the third round of vaccine injections will be given in many locations throughout Detroit and Wayne County. The charge per injection, as it was in the fall, will be $1.00. While these locations are being set up primarily to give the third inoculation, anyone may get his first or second shot at any of the clinics and then follow up a month later by going to his doctor's office for the second. Third Dose Important Last year's polio epidemic proved that two injections of Salk vaccine offer fairly good immunity against paralytic polio but it has also been proved that the third dose of the vaccine raises the immunity many times beyond that obtained by the first two. In Grosse Pointe there will be clinic at Pierce Junior High School, 15430 Kercheval, from 6 to 8:30 p.m., on Monday, April 20. There will also be one at Eastland Center in Harper Woods, from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 25; and one in Brownell Junior High School at 260 Chalfonte, on Thursday, April 30, from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Board Seeks Permission To Borrow

State's Financial Plight Forces Action; May Need $1,750,000
At its regular April meeting the Grosse Pointe Board of Education moved to obtain permission from the Michigan Municipal Finance Corporation to borrow money with which to finance the operation of the local public schools for the balance of this calendar year. Inasmuch as the State of Michigan is in arrears, and probably will continue for some time to be arrears, in its payment of the state aid funds, the local school system is forced to borrow money to keep going. The Board estimated that the sum of $1,750,000 would see them through until the local winter taxes begin to come in next December. However, they will not borrow until absolutely necessary and then only what is currently needed. This is the second time that the local Board has had to borrow money for such purposes. Last winter, when payment of state aid funds was delayed, the Board borrowed $500,000 for a period of several months. The loan was fully repaid on March 1, its due date. Until the legislature solves the financial plight of the state, it appears that local Boards of Education will be obliged to operate in this fashion. In a sense they could be said to be paying interest on monies which are owed them and whose receipt is delayed through no fault of the local school district. It is to be hoped that a permanent solution to this and allied problems will soon be found.

Pointe to Lose James W. Lee II

James W. Lee II, trustee of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, announced his resignation from the Board at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday, April 13. Mr. Lee has been transferred out of the city, effective next month. Following is Mr. Lee's letter of resignation: April 13, 1959 To The Grosse Pointe Board of Education It is with great regret that I must resign from the Grosse Pointe Board of Education because I am returning to New York early in May. Working with our fine school system for the last six years has been one of the most rewarding associations of my life and I shall always remember the many friendships and experiences which I have had with it. I also want to thank at this time all my friends in Grosse Pointe for the wonderful support they have given me and the Grosse Pointe schools. We have a wonderful school system and I know it will continue to improve and to provide outstanding learning experiences for all boys and girls in the district. The very best of luck to you all. Chorus Set For Concert

The concert will open with a group of sacred choruses. These range from the traditional works of Bach and Handel to a contemporary selection by Randall Thompson. These will be followed by a group of lighter numbers bringing with them an assurance of Spring!

Among these songs are Fred Waring's "Holiday" and selections from Frank Loesser's score for the movie "Hans Christian Anderson."

One of the most unusual features of the program will be a Negro spiritual, "Go Down Death." This will be accompanied only by the beat of bongo drums. Glen Kalember is featured on the bongos. Vocal soloist for this particular number is John Parker. Other soloists include Barbara Bailey, soprano; and Carol Kropp, mezzo-soprano.

Tickets are now on sale by all members of the chorus, or they may be purchased at the Grosse Pointe Book Shop, 19459 Mack avenue. Tickets will also be available at the door on the day of the concert. Prices are $1.00 for adults, 50c for students.

A reception will be held in the Parcels School gymnasium immediately following the concert, and all members of the audience are invited to attend.

All 21 schools in the district have been invited to enter a "Cleanest Playground" contest. Awards will be given to the three best playgrounds. The first prize will be given to flowering orabapple trees, the second prize, two trees and the third prize, one tree. These shrubs will be planted by students of the winning schools on their grounds. Contacts with all the principals of the schools have been made by a committee of Garden Club women which includes Mesdames Ivan Taylor, David Gillis, William S. Turner, Pierre Fuger and John Carter.

Farms Patrol Boy Honored

Michael Chandler, 12, of 418 Belanger, a sixth grade student at Kerby School, was awarded a brand new bicycle by TV's Sagebrush Shorty on Sunday, April 12, on the latter's morning show.

Present when the award was given was Farms Patrolman Joseph Miller, School Safety Officer, who picked Michael as the Farms' Safety Patrol Boy of the Month.

The sixth grader was selected by Officer Miller, for his outstanding adherence and devotion to duty, and for services rendered during the two years he has been safety patrol boy at the school.

"Every member of the public and private schools' safety patrols, was eligible to be picked for the honor of becoming Safety Patrol Boy of the Month," Patrolman Miller said. "Every single one of them has and is doing a terrific job, and believe me, I found it very difficult to make a choice. In picking young Michael, I intended that he typify the rest of the youngsters in the Farms schools. I wish that I could have selected all of the patrol boys."

Michael is the son of the John F. Chandlers.

Confesses

The 15-year-old said he used some of the stolen money to purchase some clothing, then he and the older boy arrived in a restaurant, and then returned to Windsor.

In that city, the younger boy said, he met a friend of "Fritz," known only as "Frank," who he said, stole his shoes.

The Woods teenager told O'Dell and Tobian that he left Windsor, just ahead of police, after he became involved in a fight with five other boys. After his escape, he returned to Detroit, and later was arrested at Jefferson and Beaconsfield.

Police confiscated a leather-thonged bull whip, which the runaway purchased along with the western-type clothing.

The boy, in a statement to police, admitted stealing $100 in cash from the book store, but, Charles Scott of 19243 Raymond, owner of the store, said it was slightly more than $60.

On Friday, April 10, the boy was taken to the Wayne County Juvenile Court, where a hearing was held, after which the case was adjourned for further study.

The University of Michigan Department, in a poll conducted at the University of Pennsylvania in 1958, ranked among the nation's top five.

Clean-Up can be fun for families, for neighbors, for the community and will give everyone who participates a feeling of personal pride when visitors exclaim "How Lucky you are to live in such a beautiful place as Grosse Pointe."

The orchestra's rehearsals and concerts have been a mixture of fun and work, instruction and accomplishment. This was made possible not only by the interest, dependability, loyal support and enthusiasm on the part of the members of the orchestra, but also by the Grosse Pointe community as a whole.

Thus it is at this time that the president, Miss Camilla Ayers and the board of directors wish to thank all the patrons and members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society for their generous support of this community project.

...in a road-hugging Wide-Track Pontiac!

Take all its beauty, balance it gracefully on a wider, steadier wheel design and you have a car the likes of which you've never owned. The wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens the stance, but not the car. You're secure at the controls, more comfortable from head to toe. There's a noticeable lack of lean and sway. Narrow track cars fall far short by comparison. Wouldn't this be a good day for you to drive this sweet automobile? The keys are waiting.

Dotted lines show wheel positions. Pontiac's wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car itself. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean are considerably reduced, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier.

Grunyons Giving Center Concert on April 28

As part of their 10th anniversary celebration, "The Grunyons," Grosse Pointes own Whiffenpoofs, are giving a concert free of charge to as many citizens as can be accommodated at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. The date is Tuesday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock. The all-Grunyon Concert at the Center will be a preview of the concert the group will be giving on May 1 for the Cleveland University Club. A whole parcel of new songs has been rehearsed for the occasion. They are, however, in the Grunyon tradition and all are the kind the audience will applaud with sincerity.

The new numbers include a riotous commercial take-off "Casey's Coffins Are Devine," such delectables as "Sister Mary," "The Animals Are Comin'," "Lucky Lindberg" and a slightly changed spiritual "Swing Down, Sweet Chariot."

The core of the Grunyon group are former Yale men who were Whiffenpoofs on campus. To this group have been added singers from other campuses, and to the Whiffenpoof style has been added the brand of the Hi-Lo quartet and some of the antics of the "Four Freshmen."

"The Grunyons" have always been generous with their talents. First organized to give life to a Junior League Charity Fair, they have appeared in that organization's Follies, have given civic concerts at the Center and sung for church groups, hospitals and homes for the aged.

The Grunyons are made up of some of the most attractive, fun-loving and giving young men in the Pointe. They include: first tenors, Barney Brogan, Norm Perrin and Bud Lester; second tenors, Al Bodycombe, George Wilson and Jim VanDusen; baritones, Alex MacDonald, Charles Parcels and Murray Dodge; bass, Bill Gard, Steve Hauser, Ellis VanSlyck and Larry Verdier.

The Center invites everyone who likes male singing and good fun to come down to the Memorial early on, the 28th and enjoy this personable group.

Lions to Raise Funds for Blind

The Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club members will be on the streets, at all shopping centers, during the evenings of Thursday and Friday, April 23 and 24, to carry on their fifth annual Miniature White Cane fund raising sale.

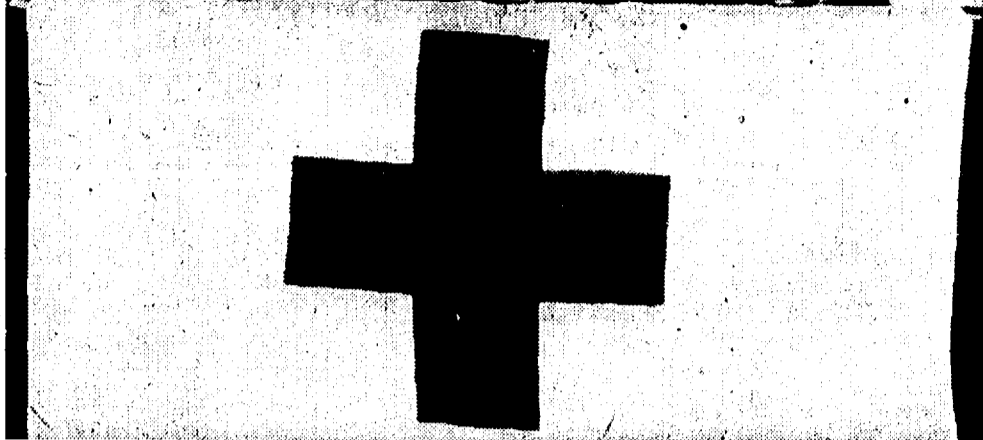

The proceeds of the sale will go towards aiding the blind and the partially blind in the area.

On Saturday, April 25, the Lions will make a house to house canvass to further the program, from 12 noon to 6 p.m., with the hope that the public will be generous.

Lions Clubs throughout the State will conduct Miniature Cane Sales during White Cane Week, April 19 through 25, which was recently proclaimed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams. President of the Woods Lions is Walter J. Weideback, and chairman of the sales drive is Ernest F. Brosch.

The Woods club is appealing to the residents of the Pointe to cooperate in making the sales the best yet, and to keep in mind the three days set aside by the club for this purpose.

Complete Plans for Blood Collection

Pointers will have an opportunity on May 1 to donate blood when the Red Cross Mobile Unit comes to the Faith Community Reformed Church from 2:30 until 8:30 p.m. Helping organize the drive are, left to right: Mrs. Arthur O. Riske, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Blood Council; Mrs. William J. Turner, chairman of the Detroit Regional Blood Center; and John Friesema, chairman of the blood bank at Faith Community Reformed Church.

The church is located at Moross and Sanilac avenue, just one block north of Harper. Many Pointers will be helping out to make the collection a success. Donations may be made to any bank chosen by those contributing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Friesema will be on hand the day of the blood bank drive to oversee the general organization. Mrs. J. V. Worboys, 1227 Whittier, is in charge of the volunteer workers for the Donor Room and Registrars; Mrs. Greydon M. Worbois, 322 Ridge road, is in charge of volunteer nurses; Mrs. Philip Joswick, chairman of the Guild for Christian Service, will be in charge of the dinner to be served the Red Cross workers.

Miss Donna Kramer, 439 Colonial Court, will organize the Junior Red Cross workers for the Nursery and the telephone service. The Nursery will be open from 2:15 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Transportation will be furnished to donors when desired by calling TU 2-0632, previous to the day of the Mobile Unit or call TU 4-9898 after 2 p.m. on the day of the Blood Bank, May 1.

Any other information may be had by calling Hugh Burns, president of the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank at TU 1-0990, office phone, or his residence phone TU 1-4339.

George Schlaepfer Wins Edison Alex Dow Award

Two Detroit Edison men have won their company's Alex Dow Award for outstanding achievement.

The winners are George L. Schlaepfer, coordinator of international cooperation programs for Detroit Edison and Frank M. Mason, manager of Edison's Romeo, Mich., office. The awards, established in 1946 in honor of the electric industry pioneer who headed Detroit Edison for 28 years, will be presented by Edison President Walker L. Cister at a banquet April 30 in Detroit's Statler-Hilton Hotel. Each winner will receive a citation, a gold lapel pin, an engraved watch and five shares of Detroit Edison Stock.

Schlaepfer, who lives at 251 McMillan road, Grosse Pointe, was cited for his outstanding work in planning and carrying out special programs in which visitors from many countries of the world have had the opportunity to study Detroit's industrial accomplishments and, at the same time, gain a better understanding of life in America. His activities in this field have far exceeded his assigned duties and frequently have extended into his private life.

A native of Zurich, Switzerland, Schlaepfer graduated from the Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich with an electrical engineering degree in 1923. He came to the United States in the same year and joined the Detroit Edison as an electrical draftsman in 1925. He was assigned duties as an engineer and translator in the company's research library in 1930 and was given the additional responsibility for the international programs in 1956.

Mason, who makes his home at 27 Lodewyck, Mount Clemens will receive the award for assistance that he gave in the planning of two new Utica, all-electric school buildings in Michigan.

Since their completion in September, 1958, the schools have received national recognition for advanced design.

A native of Utica, Mason joined Detroit Edison in 1923 as local agent in the Utica area. He has served the company in the Macomb Sales Division as farm service advisor and customer business representative and was named local manager in Romeo in 1958.

Mr. Schlaepfer was a city councilman for Grosse Pointe Farms 1943-55; Police and Fire

Commissioner, member of the Public Works Commission 1943-50; member of Finance and Public Safety Commission 1950-55; and is now chairman of the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee.

LOSES WALLET

Miss Nancy Welch of 116 Hall place, informed City police on Tuesday, April 7, that she lost her wallet in the parking lot of the Village Manor, St. Clair and Kercheval. She said it contained $13, her driver's license and personal papers.

Students' Art To Be Exhibited

Art from every public school in Grosse Pointe will be on display at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center from Sunday, April 26, to Friday, May 15.

The display will be in the second floor exhibit rooms which are open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Sundays from 12-5 p.m. However, meetings sometimes are scheduled in these rooms so that it is wise to call the Center (TUXedo 1-7511) before coming to view the work to avoid disappointment.

Teachers in charge of the exhibit include Miss Marion Lampman at the High School, Allen Ebert and Miss Marilyn Kreuger at Brownell, Charles Jorgensen and Miss Grace Gilliard at Pierce, Allen Hayes and Miss Esther Mel-drum at Parcels, and Donald Schrom and Miss Susan Pollock in the elementary schools.

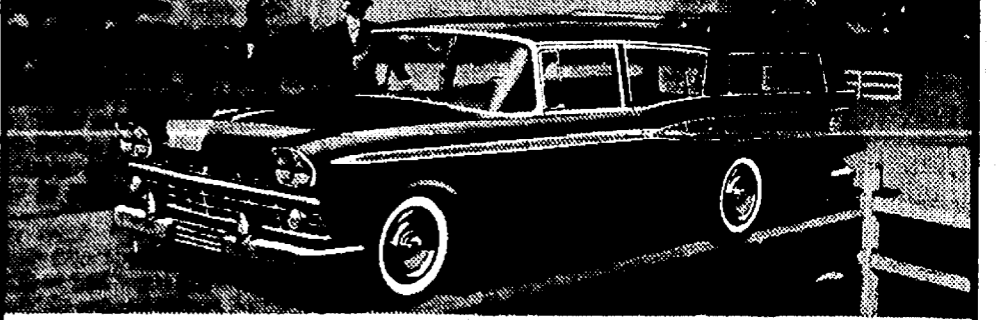

Many interesting art forms have been used in very novel ways to make this a most fascinating exhibit. Talent in surprising and gratifying abundance, has produced beautiful and unusual effects in silk screen work, original designs in jewelry, modern three-dimensional abstracts done with toothpicks, clay masks, figures over bottles, murals, papier-mache animals, weaving and oil painting.

Everyone coming to the Center for meetings and activities is urged to step upstairs to the second floor exhibit rooms to enjoy this unusually fine display.

Market Robbery Suspect To Stand Trial on Charges

Louis E. Pearson, 25, of 13911 Averhill court, Detroit, was bound over to the Wayne County Circuit Court for trial following an examination before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Wednesday, April 8, on charges of armed robbery and embezzlement.

A bond of $2,500, set by Judge Goodrow on February 25, was continued, and Pearson was released until trial date.

Pearson, former manager of the Food Fair Supermarket, 20382 Mack avenue, is accused of plotting the robbery of the market last July 31, with two former employees, Robert Curlee of 15601 East Seven Mile road, and James Woods of 12927 E. Canfield, both of Detroit.

Curlee and Woods were arrested by Detroit police on February 22, while in the act of breaking into a Mack avenue gas station, and while being questioned by Detroit detectives, the two told of the supermarket holdup, which netted them about $11,000, and which, they said, was masterminded by Pearson.

The former manager was arrested on February 23 at the Chatham Supermarket, 13800 Harper avenue, Harper Woods, where he was assistant manager, by Woods detectives, Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Leroy Tobian. Pearson denied being involved.

Curlee told police at the time of his arrest, that he actually had the gun in the hold-up, while Woods remained outside in a car as lookout, but asserted that Pearson plotted the crime.

Curlee and Woods claimed that Pearson took $5,400, and they split $5,600.

Talks Sunday

The Reverend Joseph E. McCabe, D.D., president, Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will be guest minister at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Sunday, April 19. He will preach at both the 9:30 and the 11 o'clock services on the subject, "When Faith Encounters Doubt, What Then?"

Dr. McCabe's election in 1957 as president of this 107-year-old institution followed an outstanding academic career. He holds five earned degrees: the A.B. from Muskingum College (1937), the M.A. from Ohio State University, the B.Th. and M.Th. from Princeton Theological Seminary, and the Ph.D. from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland (1951).

In 1957 Muskingum College recognized him with an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. His chief academic interests have been education and political science. His doctor's dissertation was on the religious and political thought of the 18th century, with special emphasis on the influence of Edmund Burke.

His contributions to the Presbyterian Church have been important. After serving in two Ohio churches, he became minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Lambertville, N.J., and during this period served a term as Moderator of the New Brunswick Presbytery.

From 1953 to 1957 he was minister in the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. As a member of the Committee on Consolidations of the Presbyterian Church USA and the United Presbyterian church, he worked on plans that led to the merger of the two churches in 1958.

During three years of military service, Dr. McCabe had experience as a sea-going chaplain, taking part in the final engagement of the Battle of Okinawa.

This scholarly and energetic young churchman, with Mrs. McCabe, has visited every state in the U.S., and travelled extensively in the British Isles and Western Europe.

New Aid Guides Garage Parking

Ease-in! That's the name of a new device to eliminate garage parking problems, especially fender nicks.

Made by a group of Detroit engineers, the item consists of a simple, trouble-free flexible strip placed on the garage floor. It operates electrically and flashes a signal before coachwork hits a doorframe or wall.

The AAA Electrical Contractors are featuring the device for Grosse Pointe where cars get bigger and bigger and garages fit tighter and tighter. The firm can be reached at WA 1-6600.

Dolphin Club Giving Show

The Grosse Pointe High School Dolphin Club will splash out its interpretation of this year's news events April 23, 24, and 25 in its annual synchronized swimming show. The Dolphin club is an extracurricular activity for the high school girls, sponsored by Mrs. Loa McLean.

In this year's show, called News Splash, every section of the daily paper from headlines to the society section to the sports page will be portrayed by a cast of 45 girls in a living newspaper.

Synchronized swimming may be taken by the high school girls as a regular gym class. To further their skills and participate in shows, girls may join the Dolphin Club.

This will be the third annual show for the club, and the first time that the show has run for three nights.

Tickets for the show will go on sale Thursday, April 16 and may be obtained at the high school student service booth from 11:15 to 12:50. General admission will be 50 cents.

High School Standards Win Praise of U-M Professor

Recently, it has been the policy of the Grosse Pointe Public School System to bring to the High School a university professor to lecture to the students on a strictly collegiate level. The purpose of this innovation is to further prepare the pupil, on a more realistic basis, for his college career.

Dr. Alexander DeConde, Professor of History at the University of Michigan, recently lectured to an 11th grade history class at Grosse Pointe High School. The students took notes during the lecture, on which they were tested the following day. Although the test was administered by their regular classroom teacher, it was prepared by Dr. DeConde. The completed tests were then sent to Ann Arbor for his evaluation.

The following are excerpts from a letter Dr. DeConde wrote to the High School staff upon his return to the University.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN Department of History Miss Leona Weier Grosse Pointe High School 11 Grosse Pointe Blvd. Grosse Pointe 36, Michigan

Dear Miss Weier: I was delighted with my experiment at your fine high school last week and was especially pleased to have met and talked with you and your fresh and perceptive colleagues. The work I saw going on in Mr. Kaloger's honors group was as good, if not better, than I have seen in some small colleges and junior colleges. I say this not to flatter you but because I was quite impressed with the caliber of your students and teachers. I only wish I could say the same about some other public school situations I have seen.

The papers you sent impressed me as being quite good. Their main general defect was one that neither the students nor the teachers could overcome. They lacked maturity and analytical depth. I do not expect to find these qualities in papers by high school students but I make this comment because you asked me to grade them as I would my own students in the university. And those are two of the qualities I attempt to find in the work of my own students. The grades I placed on the papers are the grades I would probably have placed on papers of my own students. You realize, of course, that this business of grades on the subjective examinations is an approximation that may differ from instructor to instructor, but in the long run I have found that good instructors end up with fair grades in their essay examinations, grades that often approximate those given in objective examinations.

Please give my regards to all the fine people I met at your school. I hope that they continue to maintain and add to the high professional standards I saw at Grosse Pointe High School.

Yours truly, Alexander De Conde.

Cinema League To View Film

Earl B. Brink's "Vienna Cross Road of the World" will be featured at the Grosse Pointe Cinema League meeting on Thursday, April 23, at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial Center.

Brink's multi-colored camera probe Vienna with the restless determination of the River Danube—trace development and history of that grand old city from pre-Roman times, through the turbulence of the Hapsburgs, to the bombed ruins of 20th Century wars; then on to her present, great rebuilding... the ancient and the modern, all shimmering together in the flamboyant spectrum of Vienna!

Brink has a foot of colored motion picture film for every mile he has traveled. In 20 years, he has paced off more than 450,000 miles, which means a lot of film has streamed through his lens. He has visited 104 countries, and island groups, been around the world, taken pictures in

Accepts Call 500 Students to Exhibit Projects in School Fair

CHARLES ALLEN MOYA has been called to join the staff of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, as an assistant minister. He will arrive toward the end of May, the rector, Rev. Erville N. Maynard announced recently.

Mr. Moya, due to graduate in mid-May from the Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Va., will join the Christ Church staff prior to his ordination to the diaconate scheduled for later in the spring.

Mr. Moya was born in Cincinnati, O., and has lived in Chile, Brazil and the Panama Canal Zone. He has served with the United States Navy, and has taught Spanish and Portuguese in American schools.

He married in 1948 at St. Luke's Cathedral, Ancon, P.C.Z. His wife, Arliss, formerly a nurse anesthetist and two children, Yvonne and Rhonda, will follow him to Grosse Pointe shortly after his arrival.

Mr. Moya received the B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of New Mexico in inter-American affairs and has since completed three semesters toward the Ph.D. at the University of Michigan.

Ticket Driver For Bad Turn

Hubert H. Johnson, 52, of 1025 Albany, Ferndale, did not quite make a left turn from Chalfonte onto Kerby road on Thursday, April 9. He collided with another car.

He was given a ticket for failing to signal a turn and causing an accident.

A Farms police report revealed that Johnson was driving west on Chalfonte, and while attempting the turn, he drove into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Carolyn Ann Sharpe of 33444 Kelly road, East Detroit, just as she was passing a truck.

A witness stated that Johnson had failed to signal.

Damage to Johnson's car was about $20, and to Mrs. Sharpe's about $35.

The Grosse Pointe School Fair will be held Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 20 and 21, in the Grosse Pointe High School Gymnasium from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Exhibits in art, physics, chemistry, biology, and home-making will be displayed in Elementary, Junior High and Senior High divisions.

Virtually all of the 14 public schools in Grosse Pointe will be represented among the 500 students who are expected to participate in the fair.

Blue ribbons will be awarded to those exhibits which show the most originality and resourcefulness.

Projects will be set up this Friday, April 17, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, and on Saturday, April 18, from 12 noon to 5 o'clock. Any Grosse Pointe public school student who has a science or art project is urged to display it. A two by three foot space will be allotted for each exhibitor.

A half hour program will be presented each evening by students from Grosse Pointe High School.

Exhibits will range from an

CAR MIRROR STOLEN

Frederick J. Beyer of 848, Washington road, complained to City police on Wednesday, April 8, that while a car he leased from a car rental agency was parked in front of his home during the night, someone stole the side view mirror.

Americans may very well increase their vacation spending by 10 per cent this year, predicts Roy H. Park, head of the Duncan Hines Institute, publisher of the Duncan Hines travel guides. This is attributed to more vacation time, 63 million cars on the highways, thousands of miles of new highway being built, more hotels and motels being built, and the advent of more jet and jet-prop airplane service at economy fares.

GPYC to Give Swim Lunch

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's sports committee has announced a complimentary luncheon this coming Saturday, April 18, at 12:30 p.m. in the club's Fo'Castle for prospective members of this year's swimming team including boys and girls from 10 years and under through 18 years.

Plans for this season will be discussed. Hans Gehrke Jr. and Arthur P. Bartholomew Jr. are the sports chairman and vice chairman, respectively.

Recent Donors to Memorial Center

(Continued from Page 1) with the possibility of funds left over from building, will not produce a self-sustaining edifice. Meanwhile, the Center, itself, continues in operation and will have to add staff for the new building, additional parking, etc.

Mr. Fries' gift makes possible the growth of the Center to meet the needs of a growing Grosse Pointe and will enable the Association to fully become the sort of civic, cultural, and educational center which the founders envisioned.

Auditorium Needed The gift of an auditorium came to the Center just in time. The Center does desperately need an auditorium—hall addition. Many community groups who use the Center and its catering accommodations regularly have already outgrown the Memorial's largest rooms. The Center's own theater groups, ballet troupe, choruses, etc. often have to invade the schools to stage their activities. Concerts and fine-lectures draw more people than the Center can now take care of and its progress in this direction is cramped because it is impossible to house the fine programs the Center stands ready to bring to Grosse Pointes.

It is hoped that all Grosse

Pointers will realize the wonderful potential which William Hayes Fries' gift should make possible at Grosse Pointe's Memorial Center and that each citizen will contribute, to the measure that he is able, to assist in realizing this wonderful addition to Grosse Pointe and what it stands for.

Club Denied Paving Delay

The Woods council on Thursday, April 9, denied the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's petition for a delay in the paving of the south half of Cook road, from the east line of the subdivision to the southerly line of Morningside drive.

Kenneth Kahn, attorney for the club, sought to persuade the council that the paving was not necessary at the present time, and to withhold the project until at least another year.

Members of the council agreed that the paving was a necessary public improvement, and approved a resolution declaring the project expedient and advisable.

The council stated that every means will be used to complete the paving program before the Hunt Club holds its annual Horse Show in June.

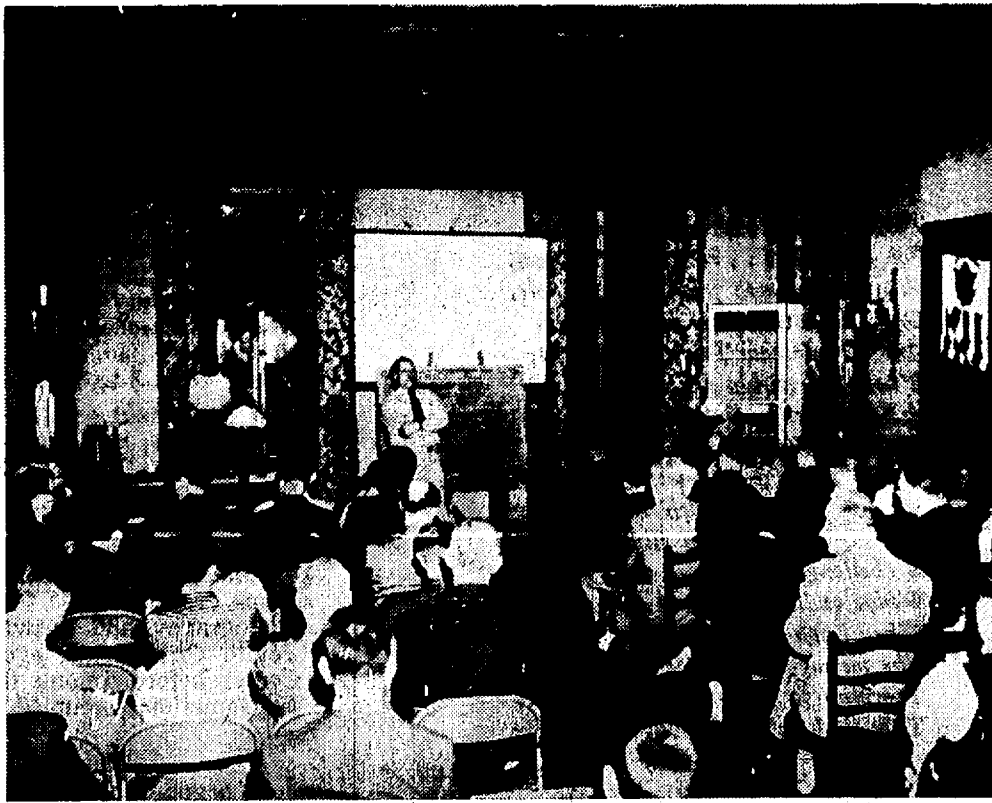

The entire project, including the installation of integral curb and drainage facilities, will cost an estimated $9,500, according to the Woods City Engineers.

Of this sum, the city body decreed, $1,200 will be paid by the city-at-large, and $8,300 will be chargeable to the Hunt Club through the creation of a special assessment district.

REPORTS LARCENY

Mrs. Ruth Lister of 861 Lorraine, secretary for the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, told Farms police that someone took $15 from her wallet in her purse, which was on a desk on the second floor of the church. She said she left the office, and returned several minutes later, and noticed a strange man standing near the office door.

Kolojeski is also a fine baseball player and has held down an outfield position for the past two years on the Laker squad. He was named to the Class C Michigan All-State basketball team last year and earned All-City and All-Catholic berths this past season.

Several offers were tendered to this 17-year-old honor student. He chose St. Bernard because of its outstanding basketball record and high scholastic standards. St. Bernard's coach Charles Richard expressed his pleasure over getting Kolojeski by saying "We like to get boys who are exceptional students as well as outstanding athletes."

PLAN ARTHRITIS FARLEY

Accuse Driver Of Drunkenness

Clifford Wilks, 44, of 674 Engle, Detroit, was given a bed in a Farms jail cell to sober up, and a ticket for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Wilks was arrested when he was observed driving in a very erratic manner, heading east on Lake Shore road. His car was swerving from curb to curb in a jerking manner.

When police pulled up along side to motion Wilks to the curb, the motorist almost ran into their scout car, and then stopped in a traffic lane. The police said Wilks had been drinking.

Court date was scheduled for yesterday, April 15.

to the fun of rotisserie cooking—one feature to see on Gold Star gas ranges

Dad enjoys doing his good turn by cooking dinner—if he can do it the rotisserie way. The revolving spit on a Gold Star gas range brings the outdoor fun of the barbecue right indoors! Rotisseries are just one of the special advantages to look for on gas ranges awarded the Gold Star.

Only ranges that meet 28 Gold Star standards, including the burner-with-a-brain and self-lighting operation earn this American Gas Association award. So see Gold Star ranges at your Gas Company or dealer.

BEER STOLEN

John B. Watkins of 308 Cloverly road, informed Farms police that on Monday, March 30, an unknown person slipped into his garage during the night and removed two cases of beer. He said the garage door was open, and the cases covered.

Parking Meter Blues

We can be doubly cantankerous about the parking meter gripe this week... because of the picture on Page One... and because we sent off a check to Romulus Township in payoff of a sweet little parking racket they have going at the new Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

Taking a crack at the "away from home" deal first... we found ourselves enmeshed in a bit of education that cost us $3.00. There is a small metered section, right handy to the incoming flights' exit at the airport. There are no signs to tell when the meters are in effect. We arrived at 8 p.m. to meet an 8:05 flight. We came close to not putting any money in the meter, but being a bit confused we thought we'd play it safe and put in all the iron monster would take, which limited us to one-half hour of parking.

Checking with the airline employes, we were told the flight was on time... which it was not. It was a few minutes late, but we didn't dare leave the airport and tend the meter, lest we miss the passenger we were there to meet. Result: we got back to the car just as the uniformed lad was writing up the ticket... three minutes after the expired time.

Our protestations did no good. "I have been hired to do my duty, etc." When we checked the ticket the next day to see where to send the fine, we were vicariously amused to see that the duty lad couldn't even spell the name of the township for which he worked. Twice on the ticket he had written "Romulus." We sent a letter of protest against highway robbery to the justice of the peace who shares the loot, along with our check for the $3.00 demanded.

This is a fine way to make friends. The officials of the new airport should step in and tell the local law enforcement agencies a thing or two.

The local gripe comes much closer to home, as the illustration on Page One shows. We have had many complaints about this sort of activity on the part of the Farms police. One woman stopped in the other day to tell us about a scene she had witnessed.

The scout car pulled up alongside a parked car, and she halted to watch the proceedings. She saw that the meter had not yet expired... but was about to. The officer was busily writing out the ticket, just as the driver of the car... a woman, came out of the shop. She got in her car and was set to drive away but couldn't because she was blocked in by the police car. At this moment the red flag flicked on the meter and the cop handed her the ticket. Her protestations did no good, either.

This type of persecution can lead to no good and can have no end excepting a hate on the police department and the city officials in general... which is a very bad thing. It is bad for the merchants, for such actions are driving shoppers away from "The Hill." The store owners and the landlords are very good taxpayers and there should be sweetness and understanding between the taxpayer and the recipient... not bitterness.

There is enough congestion in Kercheval avenue traffic now without the police further gumming it up with their double-parking for the purpose of out-guessing the parker who has already paid his or her stipend for the privilege.

If the Farms can afford to keep a scout car occupied solely for the purpose of pouncing on those who fail to guess the idiosyncrasies of the meter to which they are slave, we have a suggestion along the line of indicated economy. Give the Boy in Blue a bicycle, or at the best a motorcycle in which to do his patrolling. It will consume far less gasoline... thus costing the taxpayer far less money... and it will take up far less room when it is double parked.

A. PRYOR

"To be alive in such an age, When man, impatient in his cage, Thrills to the soul's immortal rage For conquest... races goal on goal, Travels the earth from pole to pole, Gathers the tempests and the tides And on a Dream Triumphant rides, When, hid within a lump of clay, A light more terrible than day Proclaims the presence of that force Which burles the planets on their course. O age with wings O age that flings A challenge to the very sky, Where endless realms of conquest lie! When earth on tiptoe, strives to bear The message of a sister sphere, Yearning to reach the cosmic wires That flush infinity's desires."

(Angela Morgan)

Although the above poem is longer than we usually use, we hope you will be as fascinated as we were with the content of it, since it must have been written around 1912 to 1916. A startling insight into the future by the woman who wrote the poem that was read over the bier of the Unknown Soldier buried in Arlington, Va.

Academy Awards

Since everyone else has gotten into the act, we would like to add our two cents worth. We read not ONE columnist who went all out for praising the hour and three quarter show given us viewers a week ago last Monday, for free.

The criticisms were high and wide... WHY did the show run short?... Jerry Lewis laid a bomb, he was terrible... Liz Taylor looked awful... why didn't the stars have a chance to DO something other than read the nominees and name the winners... why didn't the cameras focus on the stars in the audience... Why did Chevalier get an award when so many older American stars deserved one... WHY, WHY, WHY?

Not one columnist that we read... praised the Academy for paying for the entire show themselves so we wouldn't be pestered with commercials as in past years. No one commented on the thrill it was to see so many stars on one stage and in such rapidity... the women looking beautiful and WHAT a fashion parade!

So they ran under and had to ad lib the last five minutes of the show, when Jerry Lewis did his best to make with the comedy. HOW TRAGIC... when we got all that show for FREE. In past years, the critics said everyone talked too much. This time, they didn't talk enough! What do people want... BLOOD? The stars a lot of us don't get to see in the theater were there for free also... and not because they were up for awards... they just appeared... and personally, we loved every minute of it.

We were especially thrilled to see the seemingly ETERNAL youth of Rosalind Russell... the great Susan Hayward FINALLY getting what she has long deserved for her superb acting... the "puckish" charm of June Allyson, who wore the dreamiest gown ever... the suave Lawrence Olivier whom we never have a chance to see out of costume... Bette Davis... great to see her going on and on and never changing... Ingrid Bergman... another great beauty, looking younger and happier than we have seen her in years. We can lump all the men together... they were attractive, charming and those supposed to be amusing WERE amusing.

Woman like... we tried to figure ages of the gals and all we can say is HOW DO THEY DO IT? However they do it... more power to them! As for Pryor, we had a ball and for our money the Academy did a magnificent job of keeping us GLUED to the set without one split second of boredom. And a pox on all the people who criticized it while using a microscope, no doubt.

Poodle Talk

NUBA... our favorite French Poodle, who has come to be known as the "Grosse Pointe News Dog"... gave forth with FIVE puppies last week on Friday to be exact. Saturday noon she was running around the back yard! This in itself is not news... but what we like is that after two days of feeding, cleaning and cuddling her puppies, she whined to get out of the room... and made a bee-line for her "toy" basket... where she retrieved a favorite toy rubber pig and moved it into the basket with her puppies... treating ALL alike!

On The Wagon, Anyone?

A woman whose husband is supposed to be on the wagon... told us he decided to take care of a voluminous batch of mail at HOME last week, while laid up with a cold. He got himself all set at the desk with (among other things) one of those synthetic rubber sponges in a glass container for the purpose of wetting down stamps. Instead of putting water on the sponge, he decided to try Scotch! Since the Scotch didn't dampen the stamps enough to stick on the envelopes... he licked each one AFTER trying the sponge. By the time he got through the stack of mail he was plastered. We would say that's doing it the HARD WAY!

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: I have just read your article regarding delays in voting. I believe this situation could be helped by wider adoption of the practice used a good deal in Grosse Pointe Shores, where I live, of mailing out sample ballots in advance. These of course can be marked at home at leisure. The voting is probably more intelligent as well as quick.

er. It seems to me that voting congestion could be relieved either by more machines or by such mailings, which latter, I suppose would be less costly of the two. Sometimes I've wondered if, in the interest of more intelligent choice of candidates, a law making such advance mailings obligatory would be a good thing. Regards Paul Maxon

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Surely John James Audubon chose the right month of the year for his entrance into this world. He was born on the 28th day of April, 1785, in what is now Haiti, lived most of his boyhood in France and emigrated to the United States about the time of his eighteenth birthday. That is over a century and a half ago, and yet with each Spring and the first robin, we salute this author-artist, who has passed along to the rising generation his knowledge of and enthusiasm for nature in all its forms.

The story of this ornithologist and artist has been told many times, possibly because it has such a human appeal. No one perhaps has written a more delightful account of Audubon's life than Donald Culross Peattie, in his book "Singing in the Wilderness." This is not a new book, but one that has a timeless appeal. Mr. Peattie's own knowledge of birds and nature gives him a unique understanding of Audubon. He has a flair for description and his own reflections upon the world of nature add much to the story. Constance Rourke has written a biography "Audubon" which has a special appeal for young adults, and a fictionalized account of the naturalist's life "Mr. Audubon's Lucy" by Lucy Kennedy, published a year or two ago, will also be read with enjoyment by this age group. This revolves around the remarkable Lucy Bakewell who contributed much by her love and understanding to the enduring work of her husband. Some fifty years later than Audubon, in 1837, also in the month of April, in the Catskill country, was born the great birdman and philosopher, John Burroughs. A year after, in Glasgow, Scotland, on the twenty-first of April, the birth of one John Muir was celebrated. A roving naturalist, Muir was never lionized as was Burroughs, but both left a heritage to subsequent nature lovers. If you would develop in your children an interest in the natural world, we suggest a helpful book "Exploring Nature with Your Child," by Dorothy Edwards Shuttlesworth, former editor of the Junior Natural History Magazine. This discusses ways for adults to introduce children to birds, flowers, trees, stars, insects, fish and other forms of nature. The text is broken up into short paragraphs with explanatory headings to attract the eye and make information readily available. Well indexed, it would be a happy addition to the family library. Among other books for family browsing which should promote interest in nature, are two attractive volumes by B. M. Parker, "The Golden Treasury of Natural History," and "The Golden Book of Science," both profusely illustrated in color. The "World We Live In," adapted from the original version by the editorial staff of Life, should stimulate a curiosity about the world of nature also. In the collection of records for children at your library, you will find an excellent recording "Songbirds of America," which will be of interest to both adults and young people. It is for anyone who would like to recognize and remember bird songs. As we write this, there is a snowflake or two in the air, but we refuse to be disheartened. We pass along Donald Peattie's good advice "Someone is forever telling us that one swallow does not make a summer. But what is the good of the first swallow, skimming on his side through the April afternoon, if it cannot raise a vaunted hope or encourage us to defy the gloomy and the circumspect! May I be given grace and fortitude in the chill spring weather, to say when first I see the wild spiral of the swallow that winter is over and done."

With the year at the spring, residents have returned to enjoying the lovely weather and catch up on their entertaining.

Mrs. Henry Ewald has invited a group for cocktails on Saturday evening to honor her son-in-law and daughter, the Charles F. Pfeifers, of New Canaan, Conn.

Guests will go on to the Little Club for dinner and dancing. Mrs. Pfeifer arrived on Monday and her husband will come this Friday for the week-end. Mrs. Ewald, incidentally, has just returned from several weeks in New York.

Also home from New York is Mrs. William Ternes, who accompanied her daughter Lynn Ann on a tour of Eastern colleges. Lynn Ann will star in the Academy of the Sacred Heart play this Saturday evening. She has a lead role in the seniors' production of "Merchant of Venice."

Mr. and Mrs. Ternes will take a group to the play and after the curtain will go on to the GPYC "Gay Nineties Review."

This will be a busy week-end for Tuesday Musicales members who will be turning out en masse for the operatic production of "Hansel and Gretel" Friday night in the auditorium at the Detroit Institute of Arts. After that curtain Mrs. Abraham Bodycome, president of the Musicales, will give a cast supper in her Lincoln road home.

Traveling To And Fro

Mr. and Mrs. Lem W. Bowen, of Elm court, will be entertaining April 25 for Mrs. E. K. Hoover, their former neighbor on that pleasant cul de sac. Mrs. Hoover recently moved to Neff road and will be off shortly on a trip to Europe.

Tremblant during spring vacation and this was the first mother-daughter reunion since the Christmas holidays.

Leaving shortly for a golfing week at the Cascades in Virginia are Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Reed, who will probably go on to try the greens at Pinehurst before coming home.

Before Flight West

Organizing a few dinner parties before she flies to California next month is Mrs. William B. Hibbard. The Hibbards will be hosts this Saturday evening in their Colonial court home and have bid another group to dine on May 9.

Mrs. Hibbard and her son, Jack, will leave with her mother, Mrs. Winslow Howarth on May 26 for Laguna Beach, Calif., where Mrs. Howarth is taking a house for the summer. Mrs. Hibbard and Jack, who

Follow the lines of the wall when you arrange large pieces of furniture in your home. Michigan State University home furnishing specialists advise that sofas and upright pianos look better if placed parallel to the wall or at right angles to it. Seek Clothing for Students

(Continued from Page 11) only children of families in temporary financial distress, caused by such factors as unemployment, sickness, desertion, and the like. There are many thousands of such cases ever school year, and last year, was the worst.

Social Service reports that a record amount of clothing was given to needy children of such families during 1958, a total of 74,442 items to 12,703 school pupils. This far exceeded the 58,270 articles given to 10,078 children in 1957.

"Last September and October alone," Laing said, "the amazing amount of 23,467 garments were distributed. It was fortunate that previous successful school clothing drives enabled us to do this.

"We must be prepared for a similar situation this fall. Used items donated in the spring drive must be processed during the summer months for the heavy fall demand."

Usable shoes and clothing are needed in both child and adult sizes. Items that cannot be repaired, however, are still welcome, according to Laing, as they can be sold as rags, and thus make it possible to buy garments not usually donated to the drive.

Contributions of clothing should be tied in bundles, shoes securely tied in pairs to prevent mismatching, then taken or sent to the nearest public school. A home pickup can also be arranged by calling the Volunteers of America at WOODWARD 2-8810.

THE HEIGHT OF PRECISION

The most recent Timing Competitions conducted at the official Swiss Neuchatel Observatory demonstrate Movado's leadership in the timekeeper's pursuit of perfection. For the third consecutive year, Movado has swept the field.

FIRST, Grand List, for performance accuracy of any single wrist chronometer.

FIRST, Prix de Serie, for performance accuracy of four wrist chronometers (breaking all previous records).

Close formation flying at supersonic speeds calls for super-human precision and timing. But that precision is crude compared to the accuracy of a Movado chronometer.

"KINOMATIC" Chronometer, self winding, water resistant, 28 jewels, with certificate from "The Swiss Bureau for the official control of watch performances" in 18 K. Gold, $350; in Steel and 14 K. Gold, $200.

League of Women Voters Plans Study

To Cooperate with Dearborn League in Probing Wayne County Government; New Officers Named at Annual Meeting

"A Study of Wayne County Government" was adopted as the Local Item for 1959-1960 by the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe at its annual meeting on Friday, April 10, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The local league will cooperate with the Dearborn League in this project, and will point attention chiefly to a study of the county judicial system. It is planned that this cooperative study will culminate in a "Know Your County" publication similar to the "Know Your State" booklet now well known and widely used throughout the state.

Interest was high among members for a revision and updating of the league's local publication "This Is Your Grosse Pointe". It was suggested that a committee be appointed to work on this revision.

As a result of the annual election, officers and directors of the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe for the coming year are: Mrs. George Brown, president; Mrs. Joseph Thomson, first vice-president in charge of Unit Organization; Mrs. Douglas Graham, second vice-president, State Item; Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper, third vice-president, Arrangements; Mrs. Richard Lord, recording secretary; Mrs. Hamilton Stillwell, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were: Mrs. Leonard Slowin, membership; Miss Adelaide Lodge, finance; Mrs. Carl Fischer Jr., voters' service; Mrs. F. M. Towsley, local item; Mrs. Tom Mason, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Rudolph Oila, publications; Mrs. James H. Graves, National Item I; and Mrs. Harlan L. Hagman, public relations. Other board positions will be filled by appointment.

Junior Badminton Tourney Attracts 87 Entries

Despite the last minute decision to stage the third annual Grosse Pointe Junior Badminton tournament, 87 entries were received for the two-day affair held at Grosse Pointe High, Saturday and Sunday, April 11-12.

Eleven events were scheduled and were run off with machine-like precision under the capable direction of Harold O. Love and Bob Bryant, sponsors of the tourney. These men had the valuable assistance of Gus Keller, Hans Rogind, Mary Bryant and some of the veteran junior players who acted as referees.

Bob Love and Marnie Hammond emerged the big winners of the trophies provided by Roland Gray of Gray's Sports Shop and the Grosse Pointe News.

Love Double Winner
Love walked off with top honors in the boys' under 18 singles and doubles and teamed with Marnie to take the mixed doubles events. Hammond captured the girls' singles and doubles.

Because there were only three entries in the boys' (under 18) singles a round robin series was played with Love beating Craig Wiles in the finals 15-6; 15-8. Love then teamed with Hammond to beat Carol Nyma and Don Walker in the mixed doubles final 15-11; 15-2.

Don Walker, the comedian of the tourney, took the boys' (15 and under) singles by beating Craig Wiles in an exciting final match 15-8; 17-14. As Walker was about to serve the match point he said to his opponents, "You've played a good game and I've played a good game. Between us we had a wonderful match." Then he served and Wiles belted the weary bird into the net for the deciding point.

Also Wins in Doubles
Walker then teamed with Bob Love to win the boys' (under 18) doubles by beating Tim McCormick and Alan Andrews 15-0; 15-0.

Ray Keller and Vic Dhooge teamed up to take the boys' (under 15) doubles by turning back Don Ware and Dave Rupp 15-5; 18-14. Vic Dhooge followed up this victory by taking the boys' (15 and under) consolation singles by tripping Ron Vande Bunte 15-3; 15-6.

Cindy Beeman raced through the girls' (15 and under) singles by beating Mary Walker, the smallest and youngest, (she's eleven) player in the tourney, 11-1; 11-2. The little red headed Walker raced around the court like a ball of fire but Cindy's experience proved to be the difference as she deftly placed birds on the backcourt line or skinned them just over the net. But little Mary captured the hearts of the crowd.

Cindy and Mary teamed up to win the girls' (15 and under) doubles when they beat Penny Henry and Donna Pharis 15-5; 15-3.

In the 18 and under bracket Marnie Hammond proved to have too much class for the field and had things pretty much her own way until she bumped into Carol Nyma in the finals. Nyma made a battle of it right down to the wire before bowing to Hammond 15-6; 15-3.

Win Girls' Doubles
Carol and Marnie teamed up to win the girls' doubles by defeating Donna Vermeersch and Pat Michael 15-1; 15-4.

Kay Wunsch emerged the winner of the girls' (18 and under) consolation singles when she turned back Dottie Hall 11-5; 13-12.

Ingrid Svenson proved to be the best in the girls' (15 and under) consolation singles by beating Peg Leaman 11-7; 11-0.

A hats-off cheer is in order for the people who made the third annual Grosse Pointe Junior Badminton tournament possible. Had it not been for their unselfish efforts and valuable spare time this wonderful sports event never could have been possible this year.

Cavanaugh-McKay Win

Walter R. (Pudge) Cavanaugh and Donald McKay captured the crown for the third year last Sunday in the finals of the Annual Tennis House tournament. All matches were men's doubles.

The winners defeated Walter B. Ford, II, and Ralph T. McElvenny, 6-3, 6-4. The match attracted a large audience to the Tennis House in Moselle place.

Keenan to Lead Fencers at U-D

Mike "Little Mike" Keenan, of 1443 Harvard road, was named captain of the 1960 University of Detroit fencing team. Keenan and his teammate Mike "Big Mike" Bruce, of 1334 Devonshire, both former Austin High tennis partners, have won two fencing letters and will be the mainstays of the Titans in 1960.

Keenan had a record of 27 wins and 23 losses during the 1959 season while Bruce posted a mark of 36 wins as against 13 losses. He placed ninth in the NCAA and was fourth best among the Midwestern fencers who competed.

While at Austin Keenan won one tennis and two swimming letters. Bruce earned monograms in football and tennis.

PFC Allen Ledyard In Army in Germany

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany — Pfc. Allen Ledyard, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ledyard, 101 Lewiston road, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., recently attended a religious retreat at the Army's European retreat site in Berchtesgaden, Germany.

A clerk in the 4th Infantry's Headquarters company in Bamberg, Ledyard entered the Army in November 1957. He completed basic training at Fort Benning, Ga., and arrived in Europe in May 1958.

A 1952 graduate of the Taft School in Watertown, Conn., Ledyard is a 1956 graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College.

Walks Costly As Friars Lose

The failure of the Austin Friar pitchers to find the plate in the opening game of the season cost the Friars a 9-5 decision to league opponent Cathedral Central on Friday, April 10, at Palmer Park.

Although the Friars outthrew Cathedral, 6 to 1, the 13 free passes accounted for seven runs of the winner's margin. The Friars were very much in the game up until the roof fell in the fourth inning when six walks and the lone hit accounted for six runs.

Junior Jim Beauregard started for the Friars and although he didn't give up any hits he was credited with five walks and three unearned runs before being relieved by Junior Horst Auer, who came in with none out in the third inning.

Horst lasted only one and a third innings but was charged with the lone Cathedral hit, six runs and eight walks. Sophomore Bob Maniere took over with one out in the fourth and handcuffed Cathedral with no hits and no runs for the remainder of the game, which was called after six innings.

The game was played in 30 degree weather, which may or may not have had something to do with the control the Friar pitchers displayed.

Box Score
Austin 002 201-5
Cathedral 012 600-9

Boat Banter

All is in readiness for the first annual Detroit River Yachting Association's Yachtsmen's Dinner-Dance to be held at the Detroit Yacht Club on Saturday, April 18.

The purpose of the party is to raise funds to help send DRYA Cup finalists to the sites of the Sears, Adams or Mallory finals late this summer. It also will be the official kick-off of the 1959 season and will honor the current DRYA flag officers, Commodore John Detwiler, Vice Commodore Arthur Rautenberg and Rear Commodore Robert L. Benkert.

This is one party you will not want to miss. All the local sailors will be on hand. Already many reservations have been received. Be sure you're not left out. Call LO. 7-4110 for your reservation.

Entertainment chairman Charles "Tommy" Tompkins has his committee busy planning decorations, arranging for the orchestra and an outstanding sailors' fashion show which will feature the latest nautical attire for 1959 and will be modeled by local sailors and sailorettes.

DRYA Junior Chairman Charles Fitzsimons has really jumped into his job with both feet. Already he has lined up three Junior races for June, July and August, which will be held at Grosse Pointe (Little) Club, Detroit Boat Club and Crescent Sail Yacht Club, respectively. These races will be coupled with instruction sessions at which Bob Drean will preside and school the junior sailors in sailing rules.

The DRYA Sears Cup quarter finals have been set for July 18. This series will determine the local crew which will compete in the semi-finals at Put In Bay early in August.

Austin Netters Beat Lakeview

The Austin Friars, tennis team, won its first non-league meet, defeating Lakeview High, 7-0. Only one set was lost by the Friars.

The singles were: Mike Cavanaugh, 9-7, 6-4; Tony Fisher, 6-2, 6-2; Bill Hoebman 6-1 and 6-3; and Mike Nash, 6-0 and 6-1, demonstrated their readiness for the season.

Doubles matches went the same way: Joe Thibodeau and Gene Gargaro 6-1; and 6-2 and the best of three winners, Ted Bonneau and Earl Meyers at 2-6, 6-0 and 8-2; Don Diebel and Bill Bavinger 6-0 and 6-1.

Adam-Simms Keglers Lead

Adam-Simms increased its lead in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Bowling League to five points last week. Paul Fredericks and a 524 gave the Adam-Simms team a clean sweep of their match with Mack-Prestwick. This loss also dropped Mack-Prestwick to last place.

Another four point winner, and climbing from last to 11th place, was Belding, over Atwell.

The balance of the league remained steady as Cramer won over G.P. Woods Lounge; Beaconsfield-Kercheval over Kennelly, G.P. Pharmacy over Barrett's, Cox and Baker over Wigle, and Goebel One over Goebel Two. Each had a three and one advantage.

Maple Lanes in third and Larry's in fourth place split their match two and two.

This was a rare night when only 15 men had 200 scores: Don Stange 213, Art Pomminville 212, John MacDonald 212, 200, John Vance 210, Bob Gross 209, Harvey Reid 208, John Hotia 206, Jack Baker 205, Mel Persky 203, Jim Ryan 203, Walter Dolan 203, Harry Rudge 202, Sam Kunath 201, Clarence Miller 201 and Sam Sam Sarcona, 201, 201.

The People's Choice

The trucks you see operating over the streets and highways of Michigan are there because the people want the swift, dependable transportation service they provide. People who operate factories, run farms, own retail business — they rely on trucks to stock their enterprises and to ship their finished products. And the people who buy these products — their needs, too, are served for the most part by trucks. It's a service they've grown used to, a service which has become a vital part of the American way of life... Yes, motor transport in the people's choice, a service and convenience that serves them night and day!

Devil Tennis Team Facing Fight to Retain Its Crown

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devil Tennis Team, defending Border Cities League champion, is much like the legendary Sampson, this year. The Devils have been shorn of their usually strong contingent of senior lettermen and must rely on three returning Junior lettermen.

The nucleus around which Coach Bud Kurvink will build the 1958 team includes Ron Linclau, Charles Dyer and Peter Ness. Linclau is slated for number one singles and Dyer holds down the number two singles while Peter Ness will team with first year Junior Carl Macpherson in the number one doubles.

Number three and four singles and number two and three doubles are a wide open scramble. Roger Wilner appears to have the inside track on the number three singles and it is a toss-up for number four singles with Jim Heiden at the top of the list of many candidates.

Freshman Wayne Wilner and senior John Blair will open the season as the number three doubles team and juniors Jon Berkeley and Gordon Vanderburg are slated for number two doubles.

Although Coach Kurvink has all the spots filled, he is far from satisfied with the strength of the team and is still hopeful of finding stronger players before the Devils swing into league action.

The Devils opened the 1959 season against strong Cranbrook High on Tuesday, April 14, with the return match of the annual home and home series slated for Friday, April 17, on the Devils' home courts.

Coach Kurvink feels Monroe is the team to beat in BCL play but was quick to state "We won't be last" when asked what he thought of the Devils' chances in the race.

The Pointers are currently riding a winning streak which stretches over two seasons during which time they captured the BCL crown. The streak is in serious jeopardy.

The Detroit Yacht Club bowling team, headed by Kenneth Moore, maintained its lead in the Detroit River Yachting Association League in the final matches held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Saturday, April 11, to take the 1958-59 championship.

DYC finished with an aggregate point total of 295 which included all events. Windmill Pointe Y. C. was second with 266, followed by Edison Boat Club 246, Detroit Boat Club 237, Grosse Pointe Y. C. 231, Detroit Yacht Club East 201, Windsor Y. C. 155 and Bayview Y. C. 146.

The DYC team also annexed the high team single game with a 279 and took the high series with a 679. Heimbecker and Ed Robinson captured the high doubles with a 1220.

New Program To Help Cubs

A new concept designed to strengthen Cub Scouting was announced this week by Paul L. Kolvoord, Community Commissioner of the Grosse Pointe area.

This program, known as "Operation Stir", will be kicked off for the Grosse Pointe Cub Packs at an important meeting to be held on Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe High School Annex, 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Pack leaders and all parents from the 15 Grosse Pointe Cub Packs are urged to attend. Operation "Stir" is a vital program of action which can do much to strengthen the local Cubbing program and open the door to many young men who thus far have not been able to join.

Be sure your Pack is well represented at this important meeting. All local Packs are being contacted also by their Neighborhood Commissioners.

Lama, exiled god-king of Tibet, can remain in India as long as he likes. Members of the Indian Parliament called for a strengthening of Indian forces on the border, seeing the Communist action in Tibet as a threat to their country.

Saturday, April 11 THE PEIPING REGIME admits it has its hands full with the rebellion in Tibet, as Tibetan rebels began regrouping in Himalayan hideouts for further attacks against Chinese Communists. THE STEEL INDUSTRY urged that wages be frozen at its present levels for a year, but the proposal was promptly rejected by David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers president. He claimed it was merely a publicity stunt and an attempt to avoid collective bargaining.

The industry wants to extend the present three-year contract which expires June 30, and such a proposal was handed to McDonald in a letter by a representative of 12 major steel companies, which stated that if the steelworkers "will see the inherent benefits" in the proposals, the union would accept it promptly.

In rejecting the proposal, McDonald stated that the union wants to proceed with normal, collective bargaining, and to conclude a fair, decent, non-inflationary contract.

ASKS CROSBY MONEY—Marilyn Scott holds the illegitimate baby she bore Nov. 24, 1957, as she waits to press a paternity suit in Los Angeles against Dennis Crosby, a son of Bing. "So far the Crosbys haven't admitted a thing," she says, "but their attorneys send me $300 a month." She asks $460.25 a month, and legal establishment of Dennis as father of Denise.

SEGREGATION 'HIT'—Recount of the Little Rock, Ark., school board election votes of Dec. 4 puts Mrs. Charles W. Stephens in office over Traffic Judge R. W. Laster (both shown), if appears. Mrs. Stephens is a moderate, which gives the segregation moderates a 4-to-2 edge.

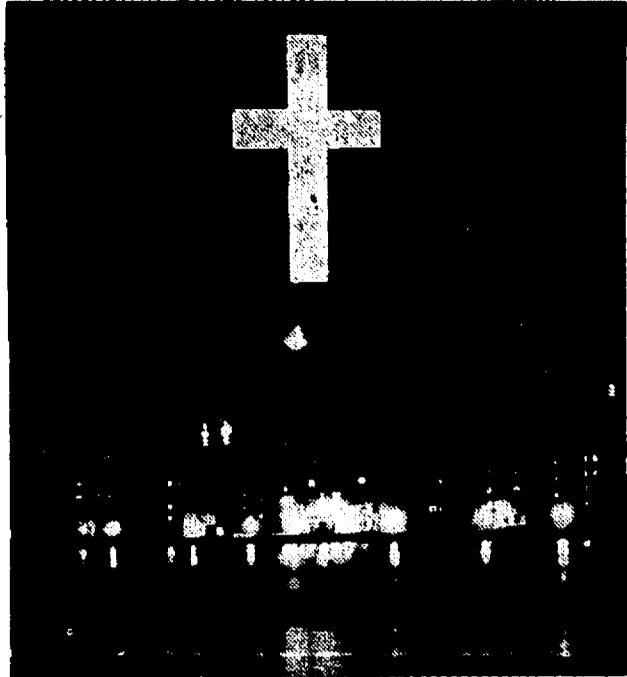

FOOTING THE BILL—Stepping lively at the age of 81, E. G. Hite gets his weekly tap dancing lesson from 19-year-old Bev Baker at a dance studio in Portland, Ore. The sprightly octogenarian has been taking lessons for nearly two months.

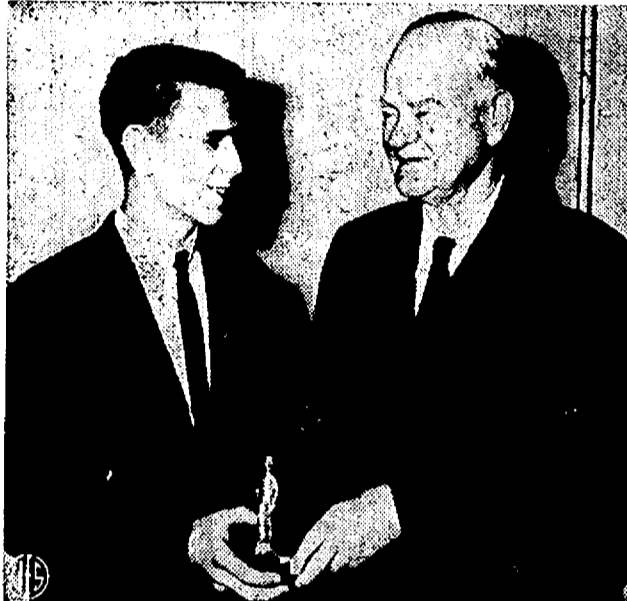

DOPE WON'T TALK—John (Poppa John) Priziola of Detroit is shown on the Senate labor rackets hearing witness stand in Washington, where he invoked the fifth amendment when asked if he was one of the "main traffickers in narcotics" in the nation. Another witness, Charles Siragusa, a U. S. narcotics agent, testified Priziola has that distinction.

"TARZAN" RETURNS—Actor Gordon Scott, who plays the "Tarzan" roles in movies, is shown at New York International Airport as he arrives aboard a Pan American jet clipper from London. He's carrying guns and native spears he acquired in Africa during the filming of "Tarzan's Global Adventure."

EASTER EFFECT—Symbolizing the approach of the Easter season, a cross is framed against the sky atop the tall buildings of New York City in this dramatic night view. The impressive effect was captured via a double exposure. The view of the skyline was taken from Long Island City.

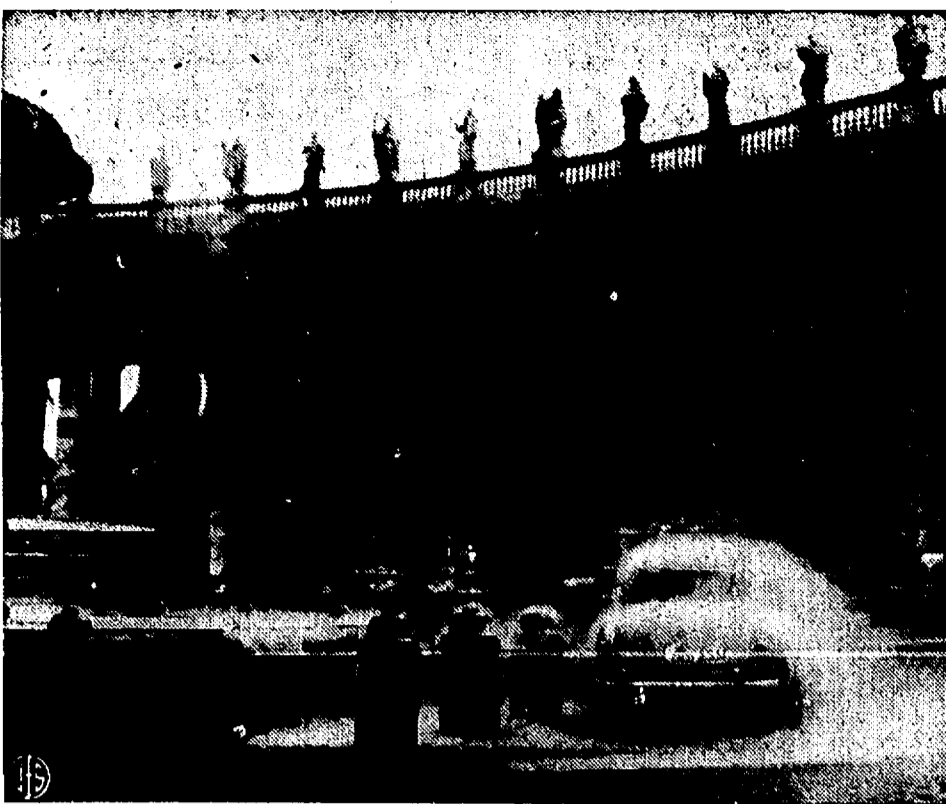

BOY OF YEAR—John Drupa, 16, of Binghamton, N.Y., Boys' Club, receives the "Boy of the Year" award from former President Herbert Hoover, who for 20 years has been board chairman of the Boys' Clubs of America. Young Drupa was chosen from candidates submitted by the more than 500 Boys' Clubs throughout the country. Since arriving here less than nine years ago from his native Latvia, which he fled to escape Soviet oppression, young Drupa has won a wide number of awards for community service, athletics and oratory.

STRETCHING A POINT—Active youngsters who seem to wander off and disappear as soon as Mom's back is turned are in for a surprise, as well as a curtailment of their travels. The Kiddie-Kuf leash, invented by Mrs. Walter W. Grahling of Cleveland after she read of a little boy wandering off at a zoo and being clawed to death by a lion, keeps Junior in tow. The leash, made of plastic handcuffs and a rubberized retractable cord, is being demonstrated by Mrs. Phyllis Dunn, who keeps a tight rein on her niece, Cynthia Spooner, 2½, while out shopping in Cleveland.

THAW SPOT—The calendar says it's spring, and these kids at Menominee, Mich., can't wait for winter to melt away around them. With all that snow still hanging on, the youngsters must bundle up in warm clothes as they sail their springtime boats.

SHOWER CURTAIN—It looks like a cloudburst, but this free car wash for the small auto is actually being provided by the water from the twin fountains in St. Peter's Square. Strong winds provided the impetus for the strange shower. In background is St. Peter's colonnade, with granite statues of saints lining the balustrade.

SITTING IT OUT—The chairs are there but the stars are elsewhere during the filming of a new movie in Berwick, Australia. The performers had adjourned to a nearby hillside to film a scene. The movie being shot is "On The Beach," a United Artists film.

STAR AND PATIENT—Film star Kathryn Grant pays a visit to Rosalie Porretto on her sixth birthday at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, New York University-Bellevue Medical Center in New York. The actress, who is Mrs. Bing Crosby in private life, between films is studying to be a nurse and was interested in the latest occupational therapy techniques that are used in the treatment of Rosalie, afflicted with open spine and water on the brain. Occupational therapist George Kadoguchi is an interested spectator. Miss Grant urged students to apply for four-year $2,000 scholarships in nursing, physical and occupational therapy, medical social work and medicine offered by The National Foundation and made possible by contributions to the March of Dimes.

GOOD GRIEF, CHARLIE BROWN!—The "count down" was perfect, but this homemade kite didn't have quite enough get-up-and-go at "launching" time on this farm at Hutchinson, Kan. The kite nosed over and landed in a patch of thistles near the fence, much to the disappointment of these youngsters. Looking ruefully at the kite are, left to right: Karen Welch, Brad Edwards, and Hal Durham.

KITTEN ON THE SKIS—Shaping up wonderfully well on skis, this pretty miss wears a form-fitting creation for skiers by Kiki Urbani of Italy. The curve-revealing elastic tights are topped by a kittenish headgear.

JUMPING FOR JOY—Spring is in the air, and it has sisters Molly and Sally Ardrey springing through the air at Cypress Gardens, Fla. They're a ballet team, which explains their high-flying grace.

ON THE UP AND UP—Celebrating an old English holiday called Hocktide, J. Taylor (top) and A. Galloway wear formal attire and carry bouquets as they mount the ladder to give Mrs. J. Clare a kiss in the village of Hungerford, England. The holiday dates back to the 12th Century. Formerly, on Hocktide Monday, the men would bind all the women and girls they met with ropes and release them on payment of a fine, which would be given to the church. On Hocktide Tuesday, the women would reverse the procedure.

FIT AS A FIDDLE—She may not be able to play it yet, but two-year-old Mary Alston delights in looking at and listening to this violin fashioned by hand by her great-grandfather in Brodhead, Wis. The fiddle is an unusual Norwegian Hardanger instrument, with eight strings. The four strings beneath the fingerboard vibrate when the fiddler draws his bow across the four strings above. The violin also has a carved griffin's head above the tuning knobs.

A small lane running off Grosse Pointe boulevard is named for a Pointe family of the 1880's who made a fortune in radiators and built a peaked-roof frame cottage at the bend of the lakeshore surrounded by evergreens.

John Beekman Dyar, a Vermont merchant's son, was the founder of the Pointe branch of the family and the home he built in 1886 was the first across the road from the lake where the shore bends.

He came to Detroit from Romeo and immediately began building the Detroit Metal and Heating Works. In 1888 he headed the Michigan Radiator and Iron Manufacturing Co., and in 1891 declined the presidency of the American Radiator Company because he would have had to leave the Pointe and move to Chicago.

With his son Ralph, he projected the interurban line between Detroit and Port Huron, although he died before that work was completed.

He married Julia Edmunds Maynard, daughter of a Vermont judge and sister of the U. S. Senator from Vermont who was the author of the Edmunds act which prohibited polygamous marriages in this country.

The couple had three children, Ralph, who married Helen Stearns of the pharmaceutical family, and helped found the Detroit Orchestral Association; John, and Clara.

Ralph moved to the West Coast and was lost to the Pointe but John remained here, living for some time in Lincoln road. He was president of the Dyar Realty Co., which was formed to handle his father's estate. He was also a prominent inventor and patented the Clincher Tire Plow.

Clara was a moving spirit behind much of the city's cultural activity. She began the Arts and Crafts Society, worked against tuberculosis with Dr. W. E. Blodgett, aided the Audubon Society, and initiated the Chamber Music Society.

Clara Dyar was a lady of decided views on women's suffrage, which she supported, as well as prohibition. She was an ardent member of the Anti-Saloon League and endorsed the "No-Tobacco Army," a movement afoot to deprive the dough-tobacs of their smokes.

The imposing mansion, "Beaurivage," the Dyars called home is long since gone and little remains to recall the era of their prominence when they entertained lavishly, worked civically, and made a fortune. A small lane with a few imposing homes recalls the Dyar name to present Pointe residents.

The A. D. Wilkinsons have brought gracious living to its ultimate in the gray stone and glass, extensive modern home they built on Lakeshore road, which they call in the estate tradition, Harwick.

Warm beige is the background for cherished antiques, Oriental art and the most stunning modern decor. Bleached wood forms the parquet walls in the entrance hall which is dominated by a sweeping stone stairway, and a valuable tapestry. A modern delicate brass snowflake mobile is the unusual chandelier.

In the living room, above the marble fireplace imported from Italy, hangs a rare oil of Lady Beechey painted by Sir William Beechey (1753-1839). Nearby is a white framed study of two nuns painted by the Wilkinsons' friend, artist Philip Aziz, of Ontario.

Carpets, draperies and grasscloth walls are done in soft tan to compliment the antiques Mrs. Wilkinson inherited, a needlepoint-covered bench before the piano, a Federalist era grandfather clock, teakwood tables holding white marble lamps. Two bright red cushions on the white damask couch are the only emphatic accent notes. An intricate gold and teakwood Chinese screen holds a center of interest.

The dining room, in teal blue and dark wood, is a perfect foil for the Chinese silk wallpaper, the gold brown background blooming with pink apple blossoms. Two shining brass standing lamps, very contemporary, light the scene.

Off the living room is an informal loggia with black and geranium accents, its curving lines adding to interest. The mural behind the bar was also done by Mr. Aziz as was a modern bright treader study. From the loggia, two walls are glass, the others light latticed wood, there is a view of the free form swimming pool now tenanted by two fat mallard ducks, but a clear blue in the summer months. Off the loggia is a guest room done in seafoam green and beige with grasscloth walls.

The library is a homey room, with a view of the back gardens, and many books lining the walls. An Oriental rug covers the dark parquet floors and gilt framed oils of Mr. Wilkinson's grandparents are recessed into the blond walls.

Mrs. Wilkinson's bedroom is really a sitting room, the blue velvet corduroy covered bed resembling a divan, walls a soft blue. Marble lines the fireplace which is flanked by glass sconces with darker blue glass drops. A pink marble bathroom leads from this comfortable and feminine room.

Her husband's sanctuary is done in sitting room style, too, in beige and green. The guest bedroom on the upper floor is decorated in ashes of roses, the spreads rough linen, the draperies, loose woven. Silk wallpaper shows green birdcages and baskets of pink flowers.

One whole wing, painted a lemon yellow, houses the servants and leads downstairs to their bright sitting room and the turquoise and glass kitchen.

Hi-fi is piped through the whole house and almost every room has a built in television. In the modern games room and loggia ice making machines are at work all day, and three furnaces and two air-conditioning units keep the house comfortable. Off the games room, an immense black tiled area for dancing and cards, is a walk-in freezer area for furs and clothes storage.

No effort has been spared at Harwick to combine the most functional and modern equipment with rare art and an impressive decorative scheme.

THE REV. CHARLES W. SANDROCK, OF ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

By Patricia Talbot

The Rev. Charles W. Sandrock has led his congregation forward in 10½ years from one cornerstone to another, for in a few months the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will be building an addition, a Parish Hall.

This Lutheran congregation has a long history, beginning in 1871 when the church was located at Joseph Campeau, where it also operated a parochial school.

The Rev. Sandrock came here in October, 1948, three years after the parish had sold its church and was meeting in the Jackson Intermediate School.

The red brick church on the corner of Lothrop and Chalfonte was dedicated a year and a half later when the membership totaled about half of its present number, 800.

Ohio Farm Boy Rev. Sandrock still has the wholesome, open manner of the Ohio farm boy he once was. He grew up near Toledo and went to a one-room red school house before taking his undergraduate work at Capital University in Columbus, where he also did his seminary study.

His first call was to Butler, Pa., to St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Then he went to Long Island to the Oceanside Lutheran Church. In both these pastorates he was able to continue seminary study.

He accepted the call to the Pointe and has been here ever since, leading the church with the assistance of a vicar, who changes yearly. The vicars are seminary students from Capital who then return there for further study.

Lutheran Branches The Lutheran movement in this country has divided loosely into three groups, American Lutheran Church; United Lutheran Church and Synodical Conference. St. Paul's belongs to the first group which will become more strongly united in 1960. There is some organizational difference and doctrinal emphasis in the three branches, but all Lutherans accept a certain doctrine in this strongly confessional church. Government is done through the congregation, which at St. Paul's is administered by a church council.

Rev. Sandrock spends most of his mornings in administrative work and his afternoons in pastoral calling, on the ill, prospective members and those with problems. Counseling is becoming more and more an important part of his duty. He helps those he can and refers others to the proper agency.

In the evening there are the countless meetings of church women's groups, youth organizations and special interest clubs. Right now the congregation and their minister are planning for the new addition for which ground will be broken soon.

This busy schedule leaves him little time to spend at the parsonage, nearby on Williams, or with Mrs. Sandrock, Suzie, 2, and Johnny, 4½. Rev. Sandrock was a bachelor when he came here but married an Ohio girl, who had specialized in psychiatric nursing. She has encouraged his interest in counseling members of the congregation with personal problems.

Preaching he enjoys, although sometimes he doesn't get his weekly sermon typed up until Saturday, but he also likes dealing with people with problems. Many members call on their minister for this type of help who a generation ago would have been too proud or shy to seek needed assistance.

Rev. Sandrock gets little time for golf which he enjoys, too, but in the summer he does take his family to a cottage on Lake Erie at Lakeside, O.

Always searching for ways to improve his church and its service, he has recently opened the church for daily meditation and initiated a special Sunday School class for exceptional children.

Lutherans are always interested in the education of the young. Often they operate their own schools as St. Paul's did in its first location, but Rev. Sandrock feels that Pointe public schools do such a good job that a Lutheran School here would not be necessary.

Lutheran Charities downtown, which has its own staff, receives much support from this parish, and St. Paul's is always working for foreign and home missions.

Picture by Fred Runnells

With the ground-breaking of the new Parish Hall St. Paul's Lutherans and their minister will be carrying on a tradition which began in the 1870's and continues today, a faith which meets the problems of modern living.

- ¼ cup sugar
- ½ tsp. salt
- 1 egg white

Even Physicians Die!

(Condensed from Journal of the American Medical Association)

QUOTE:

Physicians are all too frequently the poorest examples of constructive planning. They complain about taxes—yet they do everything to throw their income and estate taxes into the highest possible brackets. Inevitably, they are in need of sound investments, but they seek no expert consultation—both they themselves and the widows they leave are often the victims of slick-tongued promoters.

A businessman spends a week taking an inventory of his business once a year. A physician can certainly afford to take time to take an inventory of himself.
