

WOODS CHURCH PLANS ADDITION

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Architect's Drawing Shows Church Expansion

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church is conducting a drive to raise $600,000 to provide for an extension of the church nave and other facilities. This drawing shows the enlarged church with two added bays and enlarged narthex, with balcony over the narthex and last bay. The addition will provide an additional 425 pew seats.

Clean-Up Drive Enlists Support of Many Groups

Garden Club Council Assisted by Hi-Y Clubs, Girl Scouts, Merchants and Private Groups; Drive Starts May 1

The hot summer days of this past week, have brought out swarms of home owners, armed with rakes, shovels and baskets, for the preliminary "tidying" of lawns and gardens. Judging from this activity, many residents will not need the door-hanger reminders of Clean-Up which will be distributed by the Boy Scouts during this coming week.

This year the Clean-Up drive is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council and the dates to remember are May 1 through May 10.

The Hi-Y Clubs at the High School, which are always ready to be of service to the community, are laying their plans for vacant lot day on Saturday, May 2.

Dale Patterson, adviser of the Blue Hi-Y's, with club president, Holmes Brown, and William Schlegelmilch, adviser of the Gold Hi-Y's, with president Steve Trowbridge, worked out details with the members at their Monday meetings for tackling several "sore spots" in heavily trafficked areas to rid them of the accumulation of winter papers and debris. As in the past the municipalities will cooperate with truck collections.

Merchants Cooperating
Meanwhile the business men have shown interest in dressing up their shop fronts on May Day, the date when the Girl Scouts will decorate their home doorways with some floral hanging. William Dant, chairman of the Kercheval Merchants-on-the-Hill, is rounding up the business people there, and Edward Hickey and Robert Harrison are planning a surprise feature for "The Village."

It has been emphasized that clean-up and beautification were matters of education and cooperation. Mrs. George VanLokeren of Grand Marais is a shining example of this maxim. For several years she has been enlisting the enthusiasm of her own and neighborhood children in a community flower garden. Last Saturday, she with some twenty boys and girls started this year's project.

Each child contributes two dollars with which a great variety of flower seeds is purchased. On the appointed day each child makes his choice of seeds and at the foot of Grand Marais does his planting in beds which have been prepared by Mrs. VanLokeren. At noon they all enjoy a hot-dog lunch together.

Project Provides Thrills
But this is just the beginning because during the summer the gardens are their responsibility: to water, to weed, to cultivate, to watch bloom and finally the thrill of cutting ones own special flowers. There is an old saying "If each would sweep before his door, the village would be clean." So now is the time to check up on garden tools, so we can make "A Clean Sweep in Grosse Pointe."

'Shady' License Plates Bring Motorist's Arrest

Farms Patrolman Otto Glanert's sharp eyes detected something "shady" about the "1959" license plate on the car driven by James Somerset, 38, of 140 Seward, Detroit, and arrested the motorist.

The officer said he was cruising south on Moross when he spotted Somerset's car heading north, with license plates that appeared to be the wrong shade of yellow and green. Glanert turned his scout car around and gave chase, and caught up with Somerset, mentioning him to the curb. A closer inspection of the off-color plates on the motorist's car revealed that the 1958 had been changed to 1959, by punching out the lower left portion of the digit 8, and the plates were painted over.

22 Accidents Recorded By Farms Police

Total Property Damage Estimated at $3,370; 12 Persons Injured

Twenty-two traffic accidents in the Farms resulted in injuries to 12 persons, and property damage estimated at $3,370, according to a report submitted to the Farms council on Monday, April 20 by Police Chief James D. Furton.

The chief's report, for the month of March, revealed that four breakings and enterings resulted in a loss of $633.25, with 15 simple larceny losses adding another $274.73, of which $50 of the latter was recovered.

Fines Total $667
Law violation fines totaled $667, of which $224 was paid for 75 traffic violations; $352 for 552 parking violations; $22 for violations of the city dog ordinance; $59 collected from traffic court cases; and a $10 fine levied for littering.

Seven juvenile traffic cases were handled by the Police Department, according to Chief Furton, and four driver's licenses suspended, including that of three juveniles.

Two bicycles were reported stolen, and both were recovered.

Releases Brake; Falls Under Car

A five-year-old Detroit boy suffered a fractured leg and hip when he released the brakes of a car, and the vehicle ran over him.

James Tuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Tuttle of 2525 Field, was playing with his cousin, John Keydel, Jr., 4, son of the John Keydels of 405 McKinley, in the family car, which was parked in the driveway, according to Farms police.

James released the brake of the vehicle, and fell under the left front wheel as the car rolled backward.

The boy was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Farms firemen, where x-rays disclosed his left leg and hip were fractured.

Mrs. Tuttle and her son were visiting the Keydels. The mother was in the house when the accident occurred.

Presbyterians Launch Big Fund Drive

Would Extend Nave and Construct Hall; May Erect Tower and Get Organ

A $600,000 building program has been announced for the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue. The needs involve an extension of the church nave to add to the seating capacity.

The Church is presently offering two services which are overflowing per space. The nave will be extended toward Mack avenue with the addition of two more bays and a balcony over the narthex.

In addition, the Church has need for a Fellowship all-purpose Hall, partitioned of space underneath the church for Sunday School rooms, addition of a gabled roof over the present Education building, a pipe organ for the nave, and possibly a church tower to dominate the entire group of buildings.

150 To Make Canvass
Heading the canvass as general chairman is Hugh W. McTavish; canvass committee chairman is Gerald C. Schroeder; initial gifts chairman is Dr. Gomar P. Evans; special gifts chairman is Edward G. Mertz; teams chairman is E. H. Meyers; and canvass treasurer is Lathrop P. More.

There will be 25 special gifts committees and six divisions. All in all there will be approximately 150 churchmen participating in the canvassing of the parish.

Two loyalty dinners are being held at the church on Wednesday, April 22, and Friday, April 24 at 7 o'clock in the evening. Attendance will be limited primarily to member families because of space limitations and facilities.

Purpose of the dinners is to give parishioners an opportunity to hear of the church's program of needs in detail, and to learn what each can do to help. There will be no solicitation for funds at either dinner. Short speeches will be given by canvass leaders on the history of the church, needs of the church, plans to meet these needs, a presentation of the canvass organization, and closing with "How to make a pledge."

Hostess chairman for the loyalty dinners is Mrs. Dwight Struthers, with vice-chairmen the Mesdames Charles D. Busbey, Charles C. Bryant, George B. Craig, Fredrick R. Rice, Dwight A. Moore, Donald G. Neil, Kenneth W. Smith and John C. Squiers. There are 54 hostesses for the two dinners.

Arrangements committee chairman is Mrs. Charles C. Mulliken with vice-chairmen Mrs. Alexander G. Gill and Mrs. Gerald C. Schroeder. There will be 60 women and young people assisting in the arrangements.

Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will celebrate its 20th Anniversary in October of this year. It has grown from a struggling young mission to become the stalwart parish it is today serving more than 1,100 families. The pastor is the Reverend Andrew F. Rauth who is rounding out 16 years of devoted ministry in this parish and community.

Mr. Rauth said, "Besides fulfilling our physical needs, in order that we might serve our people better, we look for strong spiritual blessings through increased interest and the application of true Christian Stewardship principals. We are challenging our people to seek to know His will for them and then to discharge their Stewardship responsibilities, generously giving of their time, talents, and substance."

The general chairman, Hugh W. McTavish said, "Our church has seen a steady and consistent growth in the past 20 years of our existence. Many of our families do not realize how large we have become, nor how inadequate our facilities are to minister to our total parish family. We can and should and will provide for the needs of our people."

This weekend marks the Seventh Annual Spring Concert of the 90-voice Grosse Pointe Community Chorus. The concert will be held at Parcels Junior High School (Auditorium) this Sunday, April 26, at 3:30 p.m.

Donald Simmons, teacher of vocal music at Parcels, is the conductor. Accompanist is Milton Setzer, member of the staff of Wayne State University. Special added attraction is an appearance by the Grunions under the direction of William Y. Gard.

Owner Recovers Diamond Brooch

A valuable diamond brooch, reported lost or stolen on November 12, 1958, was returned to the owner, Mrs. Keith Smith of 32 Hendrie lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith informed Farms police on the November date, that they last remembered seeing the jewelry piece on August 22, 1958. It is valued at $1,750.

On Saturday, April 18, a dress sent to the cleaners last fall, was returned to Mrs. Smith — with the brooch attached.

Burglars Raid Woods Medical Clinic Again

For the second time in as many months, thieves broke into a Woods medical building owned by Dr. W. J. Watkins of 1162 Buckingham. The building is at 20250 Mack avenue.

On Monday, April 13, Dr. Watkins opened the building at about 8 a.m., to find all the offices in the building had been ransacked. The thieves took $300 in gold nuggets and $600 in other valuable loot.

Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobiasan said the burglars entered the clinic by removing a board from the lower top of the building and crawling into another entrance leading into the attic, and then down to the first floor by means of a hidden stairway. The officers said that the

Memorial Center Campaign Slows Down After Hitting Good Pace for Two Weeks

Total of $23,872 Received from 1,750 Donors; More Money Needed This Year to Carry Out Important Projects

After two weeks of excellent response, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1959 Annual Family Participation Campaign has slowed down to receipts of only around $500 per day. The Center is trying very hard to get the $40,000 necessary to balance next year's budget and to get it by May 30, Memorial Day, which marks the end of the active solicitation period.

If the goal of the Drive is to be achieved by Memorial Day daily contributions must be pushed up several hundred dollars immediately. The Center's Board members are giving their time to speak at many meetings throughout the community, newspaper articles through the cooperation of the editors are keeping the issue alive and on April 24th a follow-up mailing will go out to all the Pointes. As a final effort a corp of volunteers will make reminder calls to all givers of record.

$23,872 Raised to Date
The drive figures to date stand at $23,872.93 from 1,750 families as compared to $24,235.61 from 1,743 contributors at this same time in 1958. $2,500 more is needed this year than last. Just some of the expenses are additional parking with a complete re-landscaping, replacement of equipment which has worn out after 10 years' hard use and major repairs to the structure. All this without considering the increased costs of maintenance to accommodate increased patronage 100,000 persons now using the Center each year.

Among those early givers whom the Center's Board wish to thank are:

Concert Set For April 30 At Center

Men's Chorus to Present Annual Spring Event; All Residents Invited

The Center's very fine Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus is presenting its Annual Spring Concert at the Memorial on Thursday evening, April 30. Especial attention is called to the date because, while the date was printed correctly on the Center's monthly activity card, it was incorrectly listed as a Wednesday instead of a Thursday night.

There is a very nominal charge of 75 cents for this concert. This charge is the only way the chorus has of defraying its expenses for the year throughout which they bring much joy and happiness to church groups, community enterprises, and old folks' homes where they give concerts free of charge.

The 20 men who sing in the Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus are a closely knit, well integrated singing group. John Finch who has been directing them since 1952 is the head of the Vocal Music Department of Grosse Pointe High school. Webb Knight is president of the chorus.

Council Curbs Police Cars

The Farms council on Monday, April 20, agreed it was not good policy for a police officer to double park a scout car while writing out parking meter violation tickets.

City Manager Sidney DeBoer was instructed to direct Police Chief James Furton to inform police personnel that double parking, especially in the Hill district, should be avoided, and a spot be found to park the police car before the officer issues tickets.

It was pointed out that in the Hill district, it would be better for the officer to park in the Municipal parking lot, and make the round of the meters in Kercheval avenue on foot, to give out the tickets.

The council action followed a publication on the front part of the NEWS in last week's issue, in which a police car was shown double parked on Kercheval, while the officer was writing a meter violation ticket.

POSTS $150 BAIL

Jesse Toner, 42, of 2580 Harding, Detroit, posted a bond of $150 with Shores police on Monday, April 13. He was arrested while going north on Lake Shore road, and charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol. He became belligerent at the station, police said. Court date is pending.

Thursday, April 16
PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, sad and moist-eyed, announced the resignation of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. The Chief Executive said he has not picked a successor to Dulles, but promised to fill the post as "quickly as practicable." Reports indicate that Under Secretary of State Christian Herter, 64, is the likeliest choice.

Dulles was forced to resign because of cancer, but the President said that he will keep him on as a consultant on foreign policy. Official Washington paid tribute to the retiring Secretary, as did leaders throughout the free world. Moscow merely commented without any elaboration, concerning the resignation.

FIDEL CASTRO, youthful leader of Cuba's revolutionary government, received a roaring welcome in Washington, when he alighted from a plane at an airport near the capital. He was given a cheering welcome by 1,500 flag-waving Cuban supporters and Dominican exiles.

He is in the United States on a 10-day unofficial visit, but was greeted by State Department officials. Heavy security guards have been assigned to protect the Cuban leader because of threats that he would not leave the United States alive. He was invited to Washington by the American Society of Newspaper Editors, whose members he will address tomorrow.

THE UNITED STATES, asserting its right to fly at any altitude it chooses, flew a C-130 Air Force transport to and from West Berlin high above the 10,000-foot ceiling Russians is trying to impose. Russian jets shadowed the plane, but did not buzz it as was done to other American planes on two previous occasions.

An American spokesman said the flight was not provocative, but it was an assertion "of our right to fly to and from West Berlin at altitudes of our own choosing." The flight raised misgivings in Britain, lest a United States-Soviet flareup imperil an East-West summit meeting this year.

Friday, April 17
RIOTING CONVICTS in Montana State Prison, killed the deputy warden and captured 18 other persons, including the warden, and held them as hostages. The warden, Warden Floyd E. Powell, was later released, along with seven convicts who were to be paroled within a few days.

Dead is Deputy Warden Ted Rothe, 45, who was killed when the riot broke out about 4 a.m. He was shot twice in the back in his office. Still held are Capt. Felix Everett and Lt. Charles Brown of the guard staff, Walter Jones, prison sociologist, and 15 guards. National guardsmen, police and deputy sheriffs were alerted to storm the prison. Cause of the mutiny is not known yet, and officials refused to talk to the convicts unless all hostages are released.

OTTO GROTEWOHL, premier of East Germany, put a damper on hopes of an accord at Geneva to reunite Germany, or place all Berlin under United Nations control. In a speech to the East German Parliament, Grotewohl outlined an uncompromising policy, which foreshadowed the stand that will be taken by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at Geneva on May 11.

The premier rejected United States proposals that his East Berlin be placed under UN control along with West Berlin. He insisted that a peace treaty be concluded with Germany as a prerequisite to unification, and occupation of West Berlin be ended.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER moved in and assumed leadership in direct foreign relations, in fact as well in law. His new role began to blossom last

Shady Plates

(Continued from Page 1) of tools, which appear to be the type commonly used by burglars, in the trunk. Somerset might be involved in a Detroit burglary, the officer said.

The detective said that investigation in the case is still incomplete, but that Somerset was scheduled to appear before Judge Grant E. Armstrong yesterday, April 22, on a charge of forging license plates.

ANOTHER INCREASE?

Last year there were almost five times as many cases and deaths from paralytic polio in Michigan as in 1957. Must 1959 be another epidemic? No—not if every youngster and young adult receives polio vaccine.

Students Get Ready for Art Exhibit at Center

Shown working on wood carvings for their "History of Art" to be displayed at the Public School Art Exhibit at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center April 26-May 15 are Jim Roberts and Cynthia Gilliat of Parcells Junior High. Supervising is Miss Judith Harger, student teacher from the University of Michigan.

Have you ever heard of zonalite sculptures? Do you know what photograms are? They are just two of the new techniques featured in the display of art forms at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center—all created by the students in the Grosse Pointe Public School System. The exhibit will be daily April 26-May 15. Be sure to call first if you are planning to bring a party, to be sure none of the rooms are occupied by meetings. Photogram is an art which has been greeted with much enthusiasm at Parcells Junior High School. Objects are placed on photographic paper and then exposed to light. The resulting designs are most intriguing. At the High School, sand and plaster are combined with zonalite in a brick which when chipped into sculpture produces very interesting marbled effects.

Different schools have selected different mediums to tell the history of the development of art. Brownell Junior High School tells the story with hand puppets, Parcells with bas reliefs.

Pierce Junior High School has produced some very interesting torn paper designs. The tear out pattern is covered with colored chalk which is flected off on another sheet to result in a very interesting effect.

The elementary schools have concentrated on seasonal effects and have produced fascinating paper mosaics, potatoe prints, crayon resists and soap carvings.

Other interesting displays include fish lures, original designs for gliders, block prints, ceramics and copper and enamel work.

1531 Get Shots At Polio Clinics

Salk vaccine inoculations were given to 806 at the Polio Clinic held Monday at Pierce Junior High School. Most of those attending took their third shots, following up the clinics held last fall.

A second clinic was held at the Harper Woods Junior High School, where 725 took shots.

U-M Museum Honors John L. Booth

John L. Booth, of Lake Shore road, president of Booth Radio and Television Stations, Inc. and a director of the Booth newspapers, has been appointed collaborator at The University of Michigan Exhibit Museum.

Booth recently donated his extensive mineral and shell collection to the museum. Its director, Irving G. Reimann, said part of the collection will go on display when construction of the new Hall of Geology is completed this summer.

In his capacity as collaborator, Booth will continue mineral and shell samples during his world travels for inclusion in the Exhibit Museum collections, Reimann said.

Books Given to Children's Home

Exchange Club president ROBERT H. TAYLOR, (right) presents a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica Jr. to HERBERT SHANKS, Director of the Protestant Children's Home of Detroit. The award was made in recognition of the 123 years of service given by the Home to the community.

The encyclopedia were made available through the National Exchange Club, to be awarded by local Exchange Clubs to a deserving children's institution in the community.

Director Shanks reported that on the 21st of May, the Home will celebrate its 123rd year of service to children in the greater Detroit area. The Home outgrew its downtown quarters, and in 1951 moved to its present location at Cook road. Boys and girls from the ages of six through fourteen are cared for in a cottage type of setting, thereby creating a home-like atmosphere.

On Tuesday evening, April 21, members of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club toured the Children's Home, at the invitation of Director Shanks.

High School Parking Lot Governed by Strict Rules

Reprinted from The Tower By Sue Sprunk, 12A

On a typical school morning, more than 300 automobiles converge on Grosse Pointe High School.

The result of this mass assembly of vehicles could be a bit of confusion, especially between 8 and 8:30 a.m. To minimize this confusion and prevent accidents, a special set of regulations govern the parking lot. To wit:

Cars must be parked within the lined spaces.

STUDENTS are not allowed to drive, much less park, autos in the Fisher Road parking lot between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Beside this lot, there are also areas in the big parking lot that are reserved for the faculty. These are the spaces that face the main building and the spaces that border the passageway between the main building and the Annex.

The parking spaces in front of the quonset hut are reserved for the parents and teachers of the exceptional children attending school there.

Fifteen parking spaces facing Grosse Pointe Boulevard have been provided for students who wish to use their cars during the noon hour. Only autos parked in this area may be removed from the school grounds during lunch.

Students who must take cars out of the parking lot for emergency reasons must obtain a special permit signed by the assistant principal or a dean.

STUDENTS who park in the lot are requested to: not eat in cars; refrain from littering the parking lot; drive carefully and slowly; and to observe the stop signs.

All students are requested to keep out of the parking lots while school is in session. Cars parked illegally are towed away, and the offending

PLAN BENEFIT PARTY

Donation $1.25. Proceeds raised will be used to further the program of the Detroit Hearing Center (a participating agency in the United Community Services) in helping the deaf and hard of hearing in Detroit.

Studies show that driver error caused 85 per cent of the highway accidents in 1958.

NOW! FOR THE SELECTED CREDIT USER... A NEW WAY TO BORROW MONEY ANY TIME FOR ANY PURPOSE... QUICKLY, CONVENIENTLY. AT LOW COST!

DETROIT BANK & TRUST
56 CONVENIENT OFFICES MEMBER FDIC

CHARGA-LOAN IS A NEW KIND OF CONTINUOUS PERSONAL CREDIT THAT LETS YOU CHARGE MONEY AT DETROIT BANK & TRUST JUST AS YOU CHARGE CLOTHING, APPLIANCES AND OTHER PURCHASES AT MANY DEPARTMENT STORES!

Earn an average or above salary? Steadily employed? Enjoy a good credit standing? Then take advantage of your preferred position now! Apply for a Charga-Loan, and get these wonderful benefits:

- Provides quick cash in lump sums for taxes, medical bills, auto repairs, household expenses, emergencies, anything!
- Lets you borrow and re-borrow up to your credit limit simply by mailing us a deposit request.
- The money you request is deposited in a checking account for you. You may use it at any time just by writing checks against your account.
- Regardless of your outstanding balance, you pay a regular fixed monthly payment which you determine for yourself according to your ability to pay.
- As each monthly payment reduces your loan balance, the credit available to you increases.
- You get free insurance coverage that pays your loan in full in the event of death.

HERE'S HOW CHARGA-LOAN WORKS
Determine the amount, from $25 to $200, which you can pay monthly on your Charga-Loan. Multiply this by 20 and you will have the maximum amount of continuous credit you may use. Each month you will repay an amount equal to 1/20 of your maximum credit regardless of the amount borrowed.

If you can pay monthly...	You can have a Charga-Loan up to...
$ 25	$ 500
30	600
35	700
40	800
45	900
50	1,000
75	1,500
100	2,000
150	3,000
200	4,000

FOR EXAMPLE... if you decide you can pay $50 a month, your maximum credit available would be $1000. If you used the full $1000 in the initial loan, then made 6 monthly payments of $50, you would have an unpaid balance of $700, plus the small interest charges. You could now borrow up to $300 more by simply sending us a deposit request for that amount. Each month you will receive a monthly statement that shows interest charges, loan balance and credit available.

HOW TO APPLY: Just visit or phone any of our 55 convenient offices for complete details, or fill out this coupon and mail it today!

He will preach at the 9:30 and the 11 o'clock services on the topic, "The Body of Christ."

Professor Reed, born in Auburn, New York, was graduated from Yale University in 1927, and received the B.D. degree from Auburn Theological Seminary in 1932 with highest honors, and the B.Litt degree from Mansfield College, Oxford University in 1934.

Following his ordination by the Presbytery of Cayuga, Mr. Reed served as Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Trumansburg, N.Y. From 1943 to 1958 when he assumed his present duties, he was Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Ossining, N.Y. where he encouraged a high standard of church life and membership. He served as Moderator of the Presbytery of Geneva in 1940, and Moderator of the Presbytery of Westchester in 1954. In 1957 he was Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Westchester.

Editor's Note
We heartily endorse letters of the following nature designed, it would seem, to mutually benefit the parents, teen-agers, and community. This particular letter is the culmination of a dozen evening meetings of the 10th and 11th grade parents at Grosse Pointe High School, with the Administration. It has been favorably received by parents of all high school ages, and given the official seal of approval by the Grosse Pointe Ministerial Association. A similar letter, it is understood, is soon to be sent parents of High School seniors, who will be celebrating their prom in the near future.

In checking with Mrs. Ruth Flom, Dean of Girls at Grosse Pointe High, on Monday, we learned that the letter apparently achieved its desired effect, as attested by the unprecedented good-behavior record of the students at their annual Junior Prom, held Saturday, April 18. It is our hope that other parent organizations, and school administrations, will see fit to pattern their social regulations accordingly.

Dear 11A Parents:
As another Prom approaches, we know you are sharing with your son or daughter the plans and preparations for a gala evening. Although you want this Prom to be an especially happy experience, perhaps your anticipation is clouded by a feeling of apprehension. We all know that a few students with poor judgment can ruin the evening for many.

It is not within the province of the school administration to supervise or regulate anything but the Prom itself, which is held between the hours of 9 and 12. Since parties in private homes preceding and following the Prom are not under the jurisdiction of the school, they present special problems. Many people have felt that the Mothers' Club, as your PTA organization, could act as a coordinating force in this phase of the evening's activities.

Therefore, after a series of parent discussion meetings, we want to restate here what a large group of parents and students feel are reasonable standards:

1. Many parents feel that it to attend a post-prom party. However, if some parents feel that additional activity should be planned, it is suggested that parents get together with other parents so that the number of pre-prom and post-prom parties is not excessive. Attendance at one party after the prom is adequate.
2. Parents should be in the house the entire time of a party in their home.
3. Food should be served promptly so that all students can be home on time.
4. At recent parent meetings the consensus of opinion was that a reasonable time for students to be home following a Junior Prom would be from 1:30 to 2 a.m. The parents of a tenth grade student who might attend the prom as a guest of an eleventh grader may want their child to be home earlier.
5. It is the responsibility of parents to see that liquor is not served or available to minors. It is a Michigan State Law that "any person who willfully gives or furnishes alcoholic beverage to a minor is guilty of a misdemeanor". Any student who shows signs of drinking will not be admitted to the Prom.
6. Closed invitational parties have proven much more satisfactory than unrestricted Open Houses. Won't you see that your child does not attend a party unless he has received a definite invitation by the host or hostess?

7. Encourage your child to think of the one who might be left out and invite him to your party.

8. Stress safe driving and see that there is no overloading of cars.

The foregoing plan can be successful only if all parents cooperate and work together. Good traditions surrounding the Proms are built by individual parents who are as concerned about their child's behavior as they are about his happiness. We hope everyone will have a good time April 18.

Sincerely,
Tenth and Eleventh Grade Parent Committees

Strictly for the Birds

While we were basking in the sunshine on the island of Jamaica several weeks ago, we were particularly interested in an article in this paper's March 19 issue, which had been air-mailed to us. Written by our very well-known horticulturist, Vincent R. De Petris, it was concerned with the havoc being wrought on our bird life by the continued use of DDT, the spray commonly used to fight Dutch Elm Disease.

We have been waiting ever since for violent reactions, but strangely, there has been nothing violent and hardly any protests at all. We thought the Audubon Society would rally 'round and press the fight after the opening had been created, but all we have had were mildly interested interrogations, which frankly, we are not equipped to answer. Apparently this is a controversial subject, but one which we should like to see explored further.

We are the type who takes great delight in feeding the feathered friends throughout the snowy months. We even have an electrically-heated watering pan which we keep feeding fresh light bulbs all through the winter, as fast as an errand drop of water blows one out.

We have always been a lover of Nature, if not an avid student of same. One of our earliest lessons was about the bees... not what you're thinking... but how, if we killed all the bees, all vegetation would soon die and there would be no means of pollinating plants, a chore which the little stingers handle so admirably.

We have known, to these many years, that birds eat more insects than insecticides ever killed, and that they play very important roles in the general scheme of keeping plant life on an even keel. We have gloried in the sight of bluejays and cardinals feeding together in the snow, and we have been indulgent when the awkward, squawking grackles have taken over in the spring.

We have seen more dead birds about the yards lately, and conjectured as to whether they had been killed by blindly flying into picture windows... which happens quite often. We have noted that there has been an ever-decreasing number of robins and bluejays and cardinals... and we have missed them.

If we are killing off our birds through the continued use of DDT, we think something should be done about it. We have every confidence in the stated opinion of Mr. DePetris and we think his contentions merit a thorough investigation by those in charge of our tree and shrubbery spraying. We understand that the product he recommends, Methoxychlor, is more expensive than DDT, but we think this is a luxury in which we should indulge if it will save the lives of our greatest killers of insects.

We hope more of our experts will express themselves on this subject, and that our municipal officials will look carefully into it before contracting again to douse our environs with a fluid that may be lethal to a very important portion of our population.

Trombly PTA To Honor Dads

Chicago and Southfield, will be presented by the Ford Chorus, Great Lakes Steel Male Chorus, General Motors Detroit Chorus and the Edison Glee Club. Master of ceremonies will be Tom Shanahan of Ford Motor.

Grosse-Exaggerations A. PRYOR

"I sat alone with my conscience In a place where time had ceased, And we talked of my former living In the land where the years increased. The ghost of forgotten actions Came floating before my sight, And things that I thought were dead things Were alive with a terrible might."

"To sit alone with my conscience Will be judgment enough for me!" (Charles William Stubbs)

Television

Again we are forced to make like a small town John Crosby and bring to your attention (in case you missed it and in case it comes back again) the terrific Playhouse 90 of last week, showing a superb play called (and about) "Judgment at Nuremberg." Abby Mann who wrote the script deserves an 'Emmy' award double in spades! Every single minute of this fine, scary, enlightening, deeply emotional play was an experience in TV viewing that we are glad we saw and heard.

The play (taken from life) dealt with the trial of four Nazi jurists... the greatest, played by Paul Lukas. As one of the American judges who presided at the trial... Claude Rains was at his best. Melvyn Douglas was excellent as the prosecuting attorney and a new man (to us) was Maximilian Schell, brother of the great Maria Schell, who portrayed the attorney for the defense. In the privacy of our living room, we felt like standing to our feet and yelling "BRAVO" after the play was over.

The only thing that threw us were the authentic movies supplied by our own Army Signal Corps... concerning the horrors of Buchenwald and Dachau. Reading of these things in the newspapers is as nothing compared to seeing real life film. It is hoped that the young were safely in bed when this great play was on view. BUT... PLEASE don't miss it when it comes back and we predict it will.

Dept. of Sympathetic Understanding

Being a scholar of the "quick thinking" school, sometimes much to our regret, we can appreciate this woman's red face after calling our Editor last week. It seems the gal wanted to say something nice about the paper and offer a good suggestion or two... and probably telephoned on the spur of the moment. Anyway, the Editor happened to answer the phone himself... and instead of stating her reason for calling, on the spot, she started out by saying: "You'll probably think I'm crazy but I'm a subscriber to the Grosse Pointe News." Ye Editor allowed as how he didn't think that made her "crazy" exactly... that she might be considered so if she DIDN'T subscribe! After much embarrassed chuckling, Madame launched into the reason for her nervous call. We just want to say "wherever you are"... don't give it a second thought. It takes all kinds to make a telephone call!

Navy... Here We Come

With the advent of graduation day at Annapolis, the plain friends, girl friends, fiancées, mothers, sisters and in some cases, grandmothers... have all received a sort of brochure advising them what to wear at the different events for the weekend festivities. We think this an admirable gesture and very thoughtful on the part of whomsoever is in charge of wearing apparel. The part we liked was the dilemma facing a local grandmother who plans on attending. Our heroine being seventy something and weighing about 160. She is now pondering the list and wondering what to do. It reads in part: "Be sure to bring along some Bermuda Shorts, a bathing suit, slacks, a 'dressy' cotton frock, plenty of white gloves, and medium or high heeled shoes." We made her promise that if she decides on the Bermuda Shorts, to give us a picture for first run in the Grosse Pointe News... before LIFE magazine latches on to it!

Nicely Reversed

We should have written this right after Easter but time flies and apparently we do not. Anyways... a couple of local sisters were told by their parents on the eve of Easter, that due to several pressing domestic details, they had neglected to gather up the usual bunnies and eggs and chocolates etc, but would make up for it after the holiday. They hoped the children wouldn't be too disappointed, etc. etc. The kids took it in stride and said not a word.

Easter morning, when Mom and Pop woke up and were readying for church... the kids asked them to come into the living room FIRST. When they entered the room, they found two large pieces of paper containing a poem for each... with "clues" that would lead their parents to a surprise.

Mom and Pop followed the directions and played the game that led them to two pretty baskets of colored eggs that the children had done themselves. The baskets were ones kept over from last year... but the eggs were fresh and newly dyed by the youngsters, who had set their alarm for 2 a.m. the previous night, so they could secretly get up, dye the eggs and set the stage! This is the kind of story we like to hear for a change. Don't think THESE parents will have to worry about their offspring entering the delinquent field.

GPHS Band Adds To Its Honors

Once more, the Grosse Pointe High School Band had excelled among contemporaries, this time playing its way to a First Division "superior" rating in the State Band Competition Festival held in Jackson, Mich., over the past week-end.

The rating was awarded, unanimously, by all four of the Festival's judges. Competition was the keenest yet encountered by the local musicians as only the top high school bands throughout the state participated in the annual tourney, each earning the privilege by qualifying with a First Division at the district level some weeks ago.

The Grosse Pointe High School Band performed three compositions: a selected march "Alba Sentimentale" by Fasoli; the required selection (which all Class AA bands had to play), "Prelude For Band" by Johnson; and another selected composition, "Canzona" by Mennin. In addition to the concert event, all the competing bands were required to sight read two pieces which they had never seen before.

Judges for the State Competition Festival were Leonard Falcone, Director of Bands at Michigan State University; George Wain, of Oberlin College; Larry Teal, from Detroit; and George Grocock, of DePauw University. Richard H. Snook is director of the Grosse Pointe High School Band. He has recently been invited to teach at the Interlochen Music Camp this summer. As Supervisor of Ensembles, he will be instructing during the regular eight-week camp session, beginning on June 24.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

We have mentioned last year's "Notable Books" in an earlier column, and now it is only fair to give the young fry their innings. The Book Evaluation Committee of the Children's Services Division, American Library Association, has selected thirty-four titles for the "Notable Children's Books of 1958."

"The Witch of Blackbird Pond" by Elizabeth Speare and "Chanticleer and the Fox" by Barbara Cooney, mentioned in this column a week or two ago as the Newbery and Caldecott award winners, are of course, on this list. The runners-up for the Newbery, "The Family Under the Bridge," by Natalie Carlson, "Along Came a Dog," by Meindert De Jong, "Chucaro" by Francis Kalnay, and "The Perilous Journey" by William O. Steele, are also listed. These two we commented on when noting the awards.

We have space to mention only a few of the others included, but your library has the entire list if you are interested.

For the picture book age, "Umbrella" by a young Japanese artist, Juan Iwamatsu (Taro Yashima, pseud.) tells of a little girl's radiant delight in her birthday gift of an umbrella and a pair of red rubber boots. Mr. Yashima was born in Japan and spent his early life there. He and his family now make their home in Los Angeles, California.

If you have a young snake fancier in your household, he may well find "Cricitor" by Tom Ungerer, hilarious fare. Cricitor is a boa constrictor who becomes the pet of an old lady in a small French village, and after some amazing adventures, is made the town hero. The pictures are highly amusing, and carry out the humor and originality of the story. The author gives to the most absurd situation a matter of fact touch that is reminiscent of the "Babar" and the "Curious George" books. Children who do not care for snakes may not be enthusiastic about it.

There are two books of verse on this list, both for young children. "Tistou of the Green Thumbs" by Maurice Druon, translated from the French, is an unusual story of a small boy whose green thumbs bring to his town, miraculous changes that have far-reaching effects. A delightful fantasy, this may have a greater appeal if read aloud to children.

"Henry Reed, Inc.," by Keith Robertson, is a truly funny tale of a twelve-year-old boy who ventures into business one summer to illustrate free enterprise. Readers of "Homer Price" should enjoy this story.

In "Pinky Pye," Eleanor Estes gives us further entertaining adventures of the Pye family, first encountered in the 1952 Newbery Award winner "Ginger Pye."

*Children's Art Class—Margheritta Loud—Instructor—3:45 to 5:15 p.m. *Ballet Classes—Mary Ellen Cooper—Instructor—4:00 to 7:30 p.m. Grosse Pointe Painters Club—Class—7:45 p.m. *Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus Annual Spring Concert. John Finch directing. Admission 75c—8 p.m.

Students Taken On Field Trip

Parcells Civics students visited the City-County Building in downtown Detroit Wednesday morning, April 22. The purpose of the field trip was to give selected students from each of the Civics classes an opportunity to see local government in action. A similar group visited the state capital last month for the same purpose.

Upon their return the student observers are expected to report on what they have seen to their respective groups. Written reports will also be made by some of the students.

The tour through the City-County Building included a visit to the Mayor of Detroit's office, a visit to the City Council while it was in session; and a visit to a courtroom where court proceedings were underway. The students also viewed and heard a discussion, "The Detroit of Tomorrow."

Students from Brownell Junior High School classes will make a similar trip on May 5. Students from all of the local schools also visit local courtrooms, council meetings, and meetings of the Board of Education so that they can see the principles they are studying actually being practiced. Many of these meetings entail the use of after school or evening hours by both students and faculty, but are considered valuable experiences for all.

The following students from Parcells Junior High School were selected to make the trip to the City-County Building yesterday: John Allan, Joyce Andreshak, Bill Babbage, Barbara Baldwin, Gail Boardman, Kathy Carothers, Susan Chandler, Janet Cheraz, Nancy Clay, Elena Conforti, Jean Dougherty, Niki Glanz, Barbara Jennings, Jennifer Jones, Linda Leddick, Susan McCarl, Jeff Mason, Albert Maynard, Kenneth Meek, Jim Meyers, Anharied Muhney, Marcia Muntz, Betty Place, Keith Reichle, Marjorie Rodefeld, Thomas Russell, Gail Schulze, Rick Stocking, Virginia Shaffer, Mike Shannon, Pat Shaw, Joyce Thompson, Susan Wilkie, Linda Vineyard, John Woods, and Chuck Zentgraf.

Alternates were Diane Ruppe, George Thomas and Sharon Wright.

Chronic Gambler Wants to Lose

Most habitual gamblers have an unconscious need to lose," says a psychiatrist at the University of Michigan Medical Center.

"Any gambler knows he must lose over a period of time. Unconsciously he seeks this loss as a necessary form of punishment for the pleasure he derives from playing."

Dr. Thomas N. Cross (M.D.) says this "need to lose" is usually based on an infantile pattern of reward and punishment which the gambler has never outgrown.

Despite popular belief, the desire to win money is not the main reason for gambling, reports Dr. Cross, an assistant professor in the U-M Neuropsychiatric Institute.

"Some slot machines even post notices that say you will have to put in one dollar for every 60 cents you get back. "Knowing the odds here, and in almost every other gambling game, are loaded against the player, people play for the perverse satisfaction which they get from losing."

Sound Advice

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Never use drugs left over from a serious illness for self-treatment of a similar ailment. You see, modern drugs are highly potent—that's why we dispense them only when your physician prescribes. If you dose yourself with leftovers, you may do serious damage. It's a good idea to pour the remains of old prescriptions down the drain and destroy the bottles.

Pierce Teacher Wins High Honor

Another member of the Grosse Pointe Public School System has achieved outstanding recognition, this time on an international level. Charles M. Jorgenson, of Berkshire road, teacher of English and Art at Pierce Junior High School, has been awarded a Fulbright Scholarship for study abroad in an international exchange program for the academic year 1959-60.

Mr. Jorgenson will travel to the Secondary Modern School in Liverpool, England, in the fall. Teaching in his stead at Pierce will be Henry J. Hutton, of that same institution.

Drinking Driver Gets Jail Term

Joseph Labeau, 58, of 22619 Chapaton, St. Clair Shores, preferred $100 days in jail to paying a $300 fine for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Labeau was found guilty of the charge by Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Monday, April 20, following a hearing. The judge levied the heavy penalty, not only for the drunk driving, but also because Labeau had no driver's license.

The motorist was arrested by Woods Patrolman Donald Sun, at Vernier and Mack avenue, after the officer was hailed by Dick Lisabeth of 22771 David, East Detroit, who said he had followed Labeau from East Detroit, where the latter was involved in a hit and run accident.

Lisabeth said he witnessed Labeau, who was driving a stake truck, hit a car, and then leave the scene without stopping to identify himself.

Patrolman Sun said that Labeau was driving in an erratic manner, north on Mack, swerving from curb to curb, and that when he attempted to stop him, the motorist tried to ram the truck into the scout car. The brakes of the truck were defective, the officer added.

A call to East Detroit police revealed that Labeau had no driver's license, and also that a warrant had been issued for the motorist's arrest for leaving the scene of an accident. Labeau will serve the 30 days in the Wayne County Jail, after which he will be turned over to East Detroit authorities for prosecution on the hit and run charge.

Picks Early Hour To Find Trouble

Two alert Grosse Pointe City officers, while cruising on Jefferson avenue Saturday morning, April 18, spotted a car travelling at a high rate of speed down that thoroughfare at 3:15 a.m.

Giving chase, they clocked the speed-king at more than 85 miles-an-hour. They pulled him over to the curb and handed him a ticket for reckless driving, then took him back to the station for further questioning.

The speedster gave his name as "Junior" Baranek, and his address, 3127 Lakeview, Detroit. He was held at the City station the remainder of the night, in lieu of a $50 bond which was placed on him.

This bond was met later in the day, but before releasing Baranek it was learned that there was an outstanding warrant for his arrest in Detroit, so he was turned over to the Detroit Police Department for further prosecution.

With the aid of x-ray examinations in certain patients, radiologists are now better able to judge the amount of calcium in a child's bones. Thus, an under-developed boy or girl can be given medical treatment and grow up into a well-formed healthy adult.

Earns Prize in Science Exhibit

LISA MOWER, Pierce Junior High School eighth grade student, demonstrates the prize winning equipment she constructed for her science class. With this project she has carried on an experiment investigating conditional reflexes of mice. The experiment and equipment earned her a Science Achievement Award in The Future Scientists of America contest which was just completed. Lisa was one of three Pierce students to win a $25 Savings Bond in the contest.

Students from Pierce Junior High School carried off many prizes in the recently completed Future Scientists of America contest. Eight students in all won a Science Achievement Award in competition with students from Ohio, Ontario, and Michigan.

In the 7-8 grade division, six winners were announced and three of them were Pierce students. Robert Hope with his project, "The Effect of Radiation on Seeds"; Lisa Mower, "Conditioned Reflex"; and William Simson, "Effect of Vitamin D Has on Metabolism of Phosphorus in the Rat".

Each will receive a $25 saving Bond in recognition of their success. All are 8th grade students of Mr. Bruce Westling, Pierce science teacher. Two other students of Mr. Westling received Honorable Mentions for their entries in the 7th-8th grade division. They are Janelle Hunt and Dave Carbone. Thus, in all, Pierce 7th and 8th grade students captured five of the 14 awards given students of their classification.

Ramsey Sa'di, Mr. James Anderson instructor, won Honorable Mention in the 9th-10th grade division. Kent Lamkins and Michael Simson, 9th grade students of Mr. Westling, also won Honorable Mention in this division.

All winners will receive appropriate certificates, plaques, pins and bonds at a special assembly May 27. The Pierce Science Fair will be held that evening and all exhibits will be on display.

Fire Chief Has Clean-Up Advice

Fire Chief George L. deCausin of Grosse Pointe Park has offered some safety hints for those participating in the annual Clean-Up campaign which starts May 1 and runs through May 10.

The chief says: "Clean up and paint up, but don't burn up."

His advice for the yard and garage includes:
 "Remove all combustible rubbish, leaves and debris from yard."
 "Remove all waste, debris and litter from garage."
 "If burning of trash, leaves, etc., is contemplated out of doors, it should be supervised by an adult during the time of burning."
 "Remove weeds, dried leaves and rubbish from vacant property next to you."
 "Remove all old paint cans and containers of inflammable liquids from garage and dispose of same."
 "Clean all house gutters of old leaves."

Household hints include:
 "Remove all rubbish, oily rags, old papers and magazines and mattresses, broken or discarded furniture from attic."
 "Do not place hot ashes in any other than metal containers."

Course Offered Scout Leaders

It was announced by Jack Drummond, 11583 Whitehall, Chairman of the Explorer Training Committee, that the Explorer Training Course for Adult leaders will be held on Saturday, April 25 at Bethany Lutheran Church (Balfour and Chandler Park) from 12:30 p.m. till 5 p.m.

This is a streamlined version of the present concept on Explorer Training - a one afternoon program complete in one package.

Helping to present the program will be John Clarke, 434 Newport and William Roscup, 18018 Manning.

Under the new program, reports Mr. Drummond, the boys will have a greater opportunity expressing and following a specific idea. In addition, the boys attend their school functions as a body keeping alive the spirit of "participating Citizenship".

With these and other changes it is important that each adult working with the program, therefore, the meeting is open to all who are interested.

Tryouts for the four male and four female roles in the fast-moving comedy by Max Shulman and Robert Smith will also be held at the War Memorial on Tuesday, April 28, and Wednesday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. in Room D.

"The Tender Trap" has been designated as the tenth anniversary play of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater and theater members plans to go all-out to produce a top-flight show.

Child welfare problems hold the attention of Auxiliary Units throughout the country during April, she said.

More than half the children now needing help are the children of veterans, which increases the American Legion and the Auxiliary problem and responsibility.

In the child welfare work of the Legion and the Auxiliary they seek to improve conditions for all children. The Grosse Pointe Auxiliary hopes everyone will join the organization in giving special attention to child welfare during April.

Solution to Rat Problem Being Sought in Farms

Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith informed the Farms Council on Monday, April 20, that steps are being taken to try to eliminate the rat population in the Mapleton-Lewiston area.

A request for relief of the rat problem was made by several citizens in that area, it was disclosed at the council meeting.

Mr. Smith said the matter has been turned over to the Wayne County Health Department.

He said that the request from the citizens was received in the latter part of March, and that he discussed the situation with Jack Adelson of the County Department, who made an inspection of properties on both streets on March 23.

The county official said that he found a number of garages in which rats were nesting, but the main location where the rodents were found, was in a rock garden in the rear of 95 Lewiston.

Mr. Adelson notified property owners, where the situation was prevalent, to clean up their properties, and on April 10, made another inspection.

Mr. Smith said that the home owner at 95 Lewiston agreed to have the rock garden either eliminated, or properly rat-proofed with concrete, to provide a rat wall.

The city engineer said the county official will conduct another inspection of the entire area, to insure that properties have been cleaned up.

"People will have to cooperate in the elimination of the rats," Mr. Smith said. "All the rats need is a nesting place, and they can forage food for themselves. The rodents get most of their food supply from bird feed, and dog feed which are left on the ground."

He said that fumigating the nests might help to curb the rodents, but it is a costly method, and does not rid an area entirely of rats. It is up to the people to keep their grounds clean and free of rubbish and garbage.

He said that if, following the next inspection, residents have not complied with Mr. Adelson's request for cleaning up, the citizens can be made to do so under the city's Nuisance Ordinance, which controls the elavng of rubbish and garbage, or other unsightly material on premises.

Please Return Goodwill Bags

It is estimated that there are still 40,000 Goodwill Industries' bags in homes in the Detroit Metropolitan area which were distributed by Girl Scouts and church groups that have not been returned.

"Handicapped workers at Goodwill Industries are depending on householders to fill these bags and return them as soon as possible," said Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Goodwill Industries.

"Contributors to Goodwill Industries have been exceptionally thoughtful during the past recession months. Because of this thoughtfulness, many handicapped men and women and their families have been able to earn a living instead of depending on welfare."

"Although a person may not consciously be aware of any positive effort made toward helping other less fortunate beings, its own reward is inner satisfaction of accomplishment toward one's fellow man. This is especially true in difficult times when each of us relies so much on the basic principles of hope, faith, and charity."

"The Goodwill Industries' program offers both spiritual and practical assets. The spiritual benefits are enjoyed by both the contributor and the physically handicapped worker, and the practical benefit is a life-line to every Goodwill employee."

McKinnon reminded contributors who are not home during the week to ask for a Goodwill pick-up on Saturdays. To call for a Goodwill truck, telephone TRinity 3-3600, or if you live in the suburbs, ask for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

West European capitals expressed respect for Herter as an experienced diplomat of long standing with first-hand knowledge of Europe and its complex problems.

it can transform atomic energy directly to an electric current of 24,000 volts.

An experimental method of converting atomic energy directly into electric power was announced by American scientists. Their device produced enough power only to keep a single electric light bulb burning for 12 hours.

Russia's announcement gave no hint of the size of the atomic battery.

In the meantime, the President is preparing a recommendation to Congress that Under Secretary of State Christian A. Herter succeed cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles, who resigned last Wednesday. Herter, who is a victim of arthritis, passed a new physical examination with flying colors, and was given a clean bill of health.

Saturday, April 18
MONTANA STATE PRISON authorities and rebellious convicts reached an impasse Friday in the bitter, 24-hour mutiny, testing each other's strength with the lives of 21 hostages hanging in the balance.

Two other hostages were released with new demands from the rebels. Even the resignation of Ned Wright, 42, director of the Montana Board of Pardons and a key target of the prisoner's grievances, failed to break the deadlock.

The mutineers have protested over a prison loud-speaker system about what they term "inhuman living conditions" inside the 90-year-old turreted institution.

A 12-YEAR-OLD seventh-grader at Wayne Elementary School was held blameless Friday in the death of his principal, Sherman T. Cross, who died Thursday of a heart attack as the two scuffled.

Although Juvenile Judge Nathan T. Kaufman told the boy he did not believe he was responsible for Cross's death, he added "But I do think you are guilty of assault and battery and we are going to make certain that you get some kind of special care."

Detroit school officials have made arrangements for the boy to leave the Wayne school and enter a special junior ungraded class at Arthur School.

Sunday, April 19
A 35-HOUR REBELLION at Montana State Prison was crushed yesterday when national guardsmen stormed the walls to free 16 guards held hostage. The guardsmen fought a gun battle with ringleaders of the prison riot.

The guard, 200-strong and supported by 100 police and volunteer citizens attacked the convict-held prison behind a barrage of bazooka shells, machinegun and rifle fire and tear gas shells.

Two convict ringleaders of the revolt, cornered in a tower, committed suicide and three other diehard inmates who holed up with them surrendered to helmeted troops.

"Boo-Boo" at Blaze Denied by Woods Fire Official

Reports that a "boo-boo" by Woods firemen in putting out a garage fire, resulted in a total loss of the garage, were denied by a ranking official of the Woods Police-Fire Department.

The fire was at the rear of the William C. Mahoney home 1966 Broadstone, on Saturday, April 18.

Lt. Harry Duross said that the alarm was given at 2:15 p.m., and when the fire trucks arrived at the scene, the garage was "one big blaze," but everything was under control and the fire out within 15 minutes after arrival. The garage and its contents were a total loss, however, he said.

A citizen, who witnessed the fire, claimed a pumper was "spotted" in front of the Mahoney house, and that about 200 feet of hose were laid from the apparatus to the hydrant. One of the officers, the citizen said, hooked up to the hydrant, and then turned on the water, but without disconnecting the hose from the hosebed and attaching it to the pumper.

The citizen, who did not give his name, said the water was running from the hydrant up through the bed onto the truck. Then a citizen or volunteer fireman uncoupled the hose and received a "shower bath."

Then, the informant citizen said, Mrs. Mahoney complained about the length of time it took for the fire apparatus to arrive at the scene.

Lt. Duross, who was in command, denied that any of the four regulars, or the seven volunteer firemen, touched the hose. He said it was attached to the hydrant by one of the spectators, who then turned on the water, without realizing it was not properly hooked up to the pumper.

He said that the pumper contained 400 gallons of water, which is sufficient to battle the fire for at least five minutes, permitting the firemen to combat the blaze as soon as they arrived.

Mrs. Mahoney did not put in an alarm as soon as the fire was discovered, Lt. Duross said. She removed the family car out of the garage, and then tried to put out the blaze alone. She then asked a neighbor to call the department, the lieutenant said.

He said that both Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney stated they were completely satisfied with the way the firemen took care of the situation.

The fire was believed to have been started by spontaneous combustion in a pile of papers in a six-by-eight bin, put there for a Boy Scout paper drive.

A volunteer fireman, Francis Thibideau, suffered a deep cut on the left index finger, while at the fire. The injury was treated at the station.

Princeton Alumni Gather For Big Annual Conference

The Princeton National Alumni Association Conference will be held in Detroit, Michigan, April 23-26 this year.

More than 500 Princetonians from all over the country and this area are expected to attend.

This is the first time that such a meeting has been held in the State of Michigan. Previous Princeton conferences have been conducted in St. Louis, Colorado Springs, New Orleans, San Francisco-Los Angeles, Cleveland, Ponte Vedra, Chicago, Hot Springs, Houston, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati-Louisville, Princeton and Kansas City.

While the objective of all these conferences is to bring Princeton to different parts of the country, the Michigan meeting is the largest and most comprehensive ever held.

Led by Princeton's president, Robert F. Goheen, the Princeton contingent includes the chairman of its Board of Trustees, Harold H. Helm, chairman of the Chemical Corn Exchange Bank in New York; Trustee James F. Oates, Jr., President of Equitable Life Assurance Society; Trustee Judge Harold R. Medina, who helped convict 11 communists in New York in 1949; Dr. Sir Hugh Taylor, retired Dean of the Graduate School; J. C. Elgin, Dean of the School of Engineering; W. D. Lippincott, Dean of Students; Victor Lange, Chairman Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures; Rensselaer W. Lee, Chairman of Department Art and Archaeology; Arthur Mendel, Chairman Department of Music; W. J. Pittendrigh, Professor of Biology; Cyril E. Black, Professor of History; Richard W. Colman, Jr., Head football coach; and three members of the senior class, G. R. Empon, James Robertsen and J. W. Wenrich.

Among those working on the conference here are Princetonians H. T. Bodman, President National Bank of Detroit; Emory M. Ford, Chairman of the Board of Wyandotte Chemicals; Benson Ford, Vice President Ford Motor Company; A. R. Glancy, Jr., President Realty Mortgage and Investment Corporation; W. J. Croul, President, Riverside Storage and Cartage Company; W. Brace Krag, Vice President National Bank of Detroit; B. H. Paddock, President of General Underwriters, Inc.; J. N. Non-Princeton Detroiters participating in the Conference include Walker Cislcr, President Detroit Edison Company; John A. Hannah, President Michigan State University; Clarence B. Hillberry, President Wayne State University; Father Celestin J. Steiner, President University of Detroit; Dr. Henry J. Gomberg, Professor of Nuclear and Electrical Engineering at University of Michigan; Robert W. Hartwell, General Manager of the Power Reactor Development Company of Detroit; Dr. Donald H. Loughridge, Head Nuclear Power Engineering Department of General Motors; John Manning, Editor of Detroit Times; Royce Howes, Associate Editor Detroit Free Press; Gordon Harrison, Chief Editorial Writer, Detroit News; Samuel M. Brownell, Superintendent, Detroit Public Schools; Rev. Father Vincent J. Horkan, Superintendent of Parochial Schools, Archdiocese of Detroit; J. J. Gerich, Principal Grosse Pointe High School; Nicholas Schreiber, Principal Ann Arbor High School; Ross Wagner, Principal Birmingham High School; John Chandler, Headmaster Grosse Pointe University School; and Hubert J. Davis, Director of Programs and Senior Counselor at Cranbrook School.

The Conference will be officially opened by Princetonian Gov. G. Mennen Williams at lunch at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Thursday April 23. Following lunch Judge Medina will lead a discussion on "How Are American Colleges to Meet the Challenge of the Modern World." He will be assisted by Presidents Goheen of Princeton; Hannah of Michigan State; Hilberry of Wayne State; and Steiner of Detroit.

In the afternoon, "Thermo Nuclear Power in the Space Age" will be the subject with the main speaker Dr. Lyman Spitzer who heads up the famous project Matterhorn in the Forrestal Laboratories in Princeton. A panel headed by Walker Cislcr and consisting of Smyth of Princeton, Gomberg of University of Michigan, Loughridge of General Motors and Hartwell of the Power Reactor Company will query him.

Princeton's future will be discussed on Friday noon April 24 by Trustee James F. Oates, followed by an examination of the "Humanities in Action," the counter-balance to scientific education. The latter program will be directed by Princeton Department Chairmen Oates—classics; Menel—music; Lee—Art and Archaeology; Thorp—English; and Lange—Germanic Languages. A panel of leading Detroit newspapermen will query these speakers—John Manning of the Times, Royce Howes of the Free Press and Gordon Harrison of the News.

Shores Warns All Dog Owners

Shores residents are warned that dog licenses are renewable as of May 1, and must be obtained according to Village ordinance it was disclosed by Police Chief Fred Duemling.

Owners are reminded that their pets must be vaccinated against rabies and certificates attesting to that fact must be presented before a tag can be issued, the chief said.

Resident dog owners are also reminded that failure to obtain licenses for their animals might result in a violation notice.

A village ordinance also prohibits dogs running at large. They must be on a leash when with owners. Ignoring this law could result in a ticket and fine, the chief said.

Farms Submits Fire Report

A monthly report submitted to the Farms council on Monday, April 20, by Fire Chief M. William Mason, disclosed that fire damage to buildings and contents during March amounted to about $2,500.

The estimated value of the buildings involved amounts to $165,000, with damage set at about $2,000; and the estimated value of contents, $50,000, with damage fixed at about $500.

In his report, Chief Mason stated that his department answered 25 calls, including three alarms to residences, and one miscellaneous fire.

Twelve calls involved the use of the department's utility vehicle; and eight calls were for the use of the ambulance.

There were no automobile fires, nor any false alarms last month, he said.

Firemen answered a call to 60 Lewiston, which turned out to be smoke caused by a blocked incinerator; a call to 467 LaBelle avenue, where there was a fire in a second story bedroom, and an alarm to the Village Supermarket, 18330 Mack avenue, which turned out to be steam escaping from an air conditioner.

The department answered a call for aid by the City, to a fire at 315 Washington road.

Both Sr. Lt. E. C. Beupre and Lt. M. C. Beupre attended an Arson Seminar at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, on March 2 through 4, the chief said.

ACROSS THE NATION business appears to be booming. Corporate profits have reached an all-time high and business is surpassing all expectations, according to Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson.

Although he gave no figures, Anderson said corporate profits in the first quarter of 1959 hit a record annual rate. Total production, industrial activity and personal income also have broken into new high figures, he said Sunday.

principals and students what life at Princeton has meant to them. They will also be questioned by a panel of Michigan educators led by Samuel M. Brownell, Detroit Superintendent of Schools.

Supplementing the regular sessions will be an address by Princeton President Goheen at the Detroit Economic Club on Monday, April 27, on "What is American Higher Education for?"; on Friday April 24, Princeton biology Professor Dr. Colin Pittendrigh will talk to the Detroit A draft Club on "Living Clocks"; History Professor Black will address the Kiwanis Club on April 21 on "Soviet Science and Military Strategy"; Germanic Language Professor Dr. Lange will speak to the Downtown Rotary Club on April 22 on "The Growing Role of the Scholar in Business, Industry and Politics"; Economic Professor Lester will address the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations and Administrative Secretary Gemmell will talk to the Detroit Public Relations Society. Dr. Sir Hugh Taylor, retired Dean of the Princeton Graduate School, addressed the First Friday Club on April 3.

City Council Holds Meeting

The Grosse Pointe City Council met for its regular monthly meeting on Monday night, but absent from the ranks were Councilmen Alonzo C. Allen and Otto Pongrace, both of whom are out of town.

The minutes of the March 23 special meeting were approved, as submitted. The Council then heard a request from Elmer F. Longnecker, of 911 Washington road, for approval of the formation of a new lot at the rear of his residence.

Mr. Longnecker's proposed lot would be a combination of the western 100 feet from lots 671 and 670, giving 100 feet of frontage on Chalfonte road, with a depth of 100 feet. The resulting lot, Mr. Longnecker contended, would be ideal for a single residence. Inasmuch as the proposed property change would meet with all the City's zoning ordinances, the Council approved the formation of the new lot.

Glen Coulter, attorney for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, approached the City Council for approval of a building permit to replace the Board's current motor vehicle garage at the rear of their offices on St. Clair avenue. The proposed replacement would be located on the same site as the existing garage facilities.

In the opinion of the City Attorney, Charles Wright III, the existing ordinance requires that the City Council, as a Board of Zoning Appeals, hold a public hearing on the matter before it can rightfully approve the building permit. A date for the hearing was subsequently set for Monday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall.

Hudson's Given Air Force Honor

The J. L. Hudson Co. was saluted Wednesday by the Air Force in general and Michigan's 403rd Reserve Troop Carrier Wing in particular.

A citation, the first of its kind from the wing, was awarded, hailing the company's public service in developing a flexible personnel policy, enabling reservist employees to participate in the reserve program as needed.

The award was made to Read Jenkin, executive vice-president of the store, by Col. James H. McParlin, wing commander, at a 12:30 luncheon in the executive dining room of the Eastland store.

The 403rd includes 350 Wayne, 140 Macomb and 115 Oakland county men and women among its 800 members. They train once a month at Selfridge Air Base.

FOURTEEN TOP GENERAL Motors executives, who are also directors, again took substantial cuts in salaries and bonuses in 1958, GM's annual proxy statement disclosed Friday.

The reduction followed a trend which has continued for four years. Total remuneration for the 14 for the year was $3,502,888 — as compared with $4,509,992 in 1957; and $5,877,744 in 1956.

Burning Wax Causes Fire

Burning wax behind the kitchen stove in the home of the Robert Evans, 980 Lake Shore road, caused some damage to the kitchen, according to Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling.

The fire, which occurred on Thursday, April 16, was stated by the Evans' young son, who was melting the wax on the stove. The wax caught fire, pouring flames on the floor, the chief said.

He said the fire was confined to the kitchen. Damage was estimated at about $300.

The Shores has a combined police-fire department.

Time to Learn Highway Signs

Are you taking to the highways more now that good weather is here? If so, you'll see a lot of road signs. Just how well do you know them—the "signs of life" for you and your family? Take this test and find out.

1. An eight-sided sign—red with white lettering—means (a) no passing, (b) stop, (c) yield right-of-way.

2. Rectangular signs—white with black (or other color) lettering state the (a) road conditions, (b) altitude, (c) law.

3. The newest of the standard traffic signs—the triangle—is yellow with black lettering. It means you should (a) yield right-of-way, (b) stop, (c) expect a railroad crossing ahead.

4. A round yellow sign ahead means just one thing—you're approaching a (a) dead end, (b) school crossing, (c) railroad crossing.

5. A diamond-shaped sign tells of (a) unusual conditions ahead, (b) a roadside park, (c) a hospital zone.

Answers:
1. (b) Come to a full stop opposite any eight-sided sign, whether it's red with white lettering or yellow with black lettering. Both signs mean stop. And be sure the way's clear before proceeding.

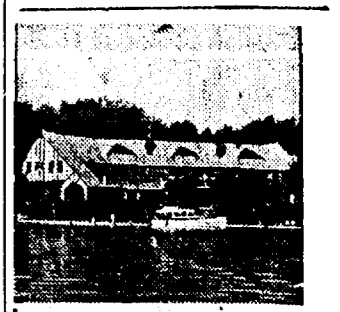

2. (c) The signs state the law—for example, speed limits, parking restrictions and turning and passing regulations.

3. (a) This means you're required to slow down or stop for other cars at intersections. Even if the intersection isn't marked with a yield right-of-way sign, it's smart to let the other car go ahead, the National Safety Council says. "Better to lose a right and save your life."

4. (c) According to the council, you should always be ready to stop when approaching a railroad crossing.

5. (a) Diamond-shaped signs warn of any dangerous or unusual conditions ahead—side roads, curves, hills, intersections, dips, bumps or school zones.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

With the first touch of 70 degree weather, all the boat owners were off and running to the respective docks to ready their craft for early launching.

The David Gambles are really aglow, because this season they have a new cruiser, just in the water last Saturday at the Emerald City marina.

Mrs. G. was on her way to hang curtains, (champagne flecked with gold), and lay carpet, (light brown and black accented with gold), on Monday morning.

The Gambles will introduce the 35-foot cruiser to their friends on Derby Day, May 2, when their good friend, Don Giles will be here from Louisville, Ky.

Over the week-end the Gambles entertained his parents, the Sidney Gambles, of New York, who stopped off for a short visit before going on a European vacation.

In Derbytown next week-end to view famed Churchill Downs with its refurbished paddocks, exercising thoroughbreds and gardens of bright tulips will be delegates from the Soroptimist Club of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Lewis Hutchenreuther, Miss Jean Taylor and Mrs. A. J. Meyer will be off for Louisville on Friday.

League Chorus Line

The Neighborhood Club is jumping these week-day mornings and the beauties who will form the chorus line for the Junior League Follies, May 14, 15 and 16 at the Cass Theater are kicking up their heels.

Among the League "Rockettes" are Mrs. William Hester, Mrs. Allen Edwards, Mrs. Richard Marsh, Mrs. Gordon F. Knight, Mrs. Mitchell Justice, Jr., Mrs. William C. Boydell, Mrs. Bruce T. Davenport, Mrs. Frederic M. Sibley, Mrs. Bayard Wilson, Mrs. George T. Hall, Mrs. David Jansen, Mrs. William C. Porter and Mrs. Thomas Hammond.

The Junior League talent dreamed up the four stage ads and some of the numbers, but the review is a Jerome Cargill production. They promise a bright take-off of Broadway in the thirties as well as a current skit of the Great White Way.

Mrs. Jean Mesritz held a planning meeting Monday in her Lothrop road home for committee heads.

Travel Report

This is the season for Sea Island, Ga., that resort just coming into its best sunning weather. The William Gilbrides will be leaving about May 1 for the island, the trip a present to Mrs. G. from her husband for their wedding anniversary.

About the first of May the Francis D. Pecks will be returning from Georgia having been vacationing in the family home in Ossabaw.

Expected home any moment from the West Coast are the Paul Ruedemanns who have been vacationing at Vancouver and in California. Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Albert D. Ruedemann, of Lewiston road, have been caring for daughter, Lynn.

Clean Rummage

Elegant rummage will be offered by the League for Planned Parenthood on April 30 at the third annual sale in Christ Church.

Mrs. Robert Duff is chairman of the sale and (Continued on Page 19)

Urge to Create Comes Early in Life

The Grosse Pointe Shores Cooperative Nursery School has had many happy times this year. Witness PAM CANDLER, left, and CATHY COULTER. Maybe more contented than happy, but busily occupied at least. The three- and four-year-old groups meet alternately four mornings each week in the old Vernier School in Eight Mile road.

There, under the competent direction of Mrs. Robert Orr, assisted by the mothers, the children try their hand at modeling clay, painting, and many types of imaginative play.

They have also been able to participate in many other interesting and worthwhile adventures aside from their day to day routine.

At Christmas time, Santa Claus paid a visit to the youngsters right at school. During the winter months a fun packed sleigh ride was enjoyed on Belle Isle, and at Easter time they visited the small animal managerie at Eastland. The group has also visited the Public Library and the Fire Department. They are now eagerly looking forward to their Fathers' Day celebration which will take place early in May.

As an added feature, Safety Patrol Boys from one of the near by Elementary Schools will instruct the four-year-old group, who will be starting school shortly, on how to safely cross the street.

As the school year draws to a close, Mrs. Alfred Moran will turn over the chairmanship to Mrs. Roger Judkins.

NEVER ENDS

Gay Nineties Revue Held Over at GPYC

Red Velvet Hangings Turned Ballroom into Restaurant Theater of the Gaslight Era; Two Performances Not Enough So, Called Back For Sunday Night

"Held over by popular demand" was the record chalked up by Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's exciting production, "The Gay Nineties Revue"—and even then the all-GPYC cast could have filled the "house" several times more than the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday performances of last week-end.

The show was voted "terrific," a conversation piece for weeks to come. Remembered are Haford Ker-baw, with head-set mike and ear-phones directing the performance from a quiet corner (and getting professional perfection); styles of the '90's in masculine toupees and handlebar mustaches; intriguing long, curly stage eyelashes glamorizing the already glamorous amateur actresses.

Red velvet hangings turned the ballroom into a restaurant theatre of the gaslight era. There was the great surprise of the grand staircase closed off—the stage had been constructed right over it, to create more audience space.

Never was there a prettier, nor more able line of Can Can dancers—Mrs. Wayne Long, choreographer, had welded a fast-stepping, high-kicking corps. They were Mesdames Herbert Hart, Fred B. Hillger, Robert Wood, James Whims, Paul Barker, Robert F. Weber, Joseph Caskey and Earl Thompson. They opened the show, came on stage to the spirited "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" by the Art Quatro orchestra.

Russell VanHouten did a most impressive job as master of ceremonies.

Reminiscing now turns repeatedly to the Stark Hickeys and the handsome picture they made all three evenings—dressed in the garb of the first automobile days, they were ensconced in a modern replica of the early "Merry Oldsmobile," placed prominently in the corridor rotunda. Everyone stopped to compliment the past commodore on his rakish cap, goggles and gauntlet gloves, worn with linen duster over splashy checked suit, and to rave over Mrs. Hickey's stunning long duster in pastel blue, and brimmed hat tied in place by a voluminous veil falling into long streamers.

On opening night the Hickeys entertained the Leo Fitzpatrick, William J. Rewoldts, Ralph R. Ginters, Past Commodore Warren H. Farr, Mrs. Irene Soensen, and the George Suliburks.

The stage lighting, simple, expert settings and crisp, authentic costumes created a feeling of brightness. The three-act "Fraud Frustrated" melodrama drew appropriate hisses and boos for the villain, Ferdinand Fickleboulder (Don Ferdinand Fickleboulder (Thomas Fox); applause for our hero, Paul Proudfoot (Fred Cody); groans for the apparently-doomed heroine, Arabella Appleblossom Mrs. Donald Ford), and sympathy for her swooning mother (Mrs. Paul Moreland).

It was the oltos (delightful between-acts entertainment bits of the '90's) which were uproarious—Mrs. William M. Schmidt luring a quartet of swains (John C. Griffin, Commodore Robert Weber, Rex Brophy and Paul Moreland) with the song "Goo-Goo Eyes," only to be supplanted by Mrs. Bill O. Brink, a real siren in rose satin with slit skirt, and her song, "Hannah."

John Bannister's and Mrs. Howard Shaw's romantic duets, "Strolling Through the Park" and "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" were interrupted by a "small" boy with a butterfly net (Howard Shaw); hilarious was the "On the Beach" number with Mrs. John Bannister, Mrs. Cyril Detever, Mrs. Rex Regan, Mrs. Melvin Huffaker, Earl Fraser, L. George Hooper,

Farquhar-McKnight Vows Solemnized

Anne McKnight, daughter of the Horace Ely McKnights, of Touraine road, was married Saturday in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to William Edward Farquhar. The Rev. Paul Ketchum came from Lowell, Mass., to officiate at the rites.

For her wedding the bride wore a princess gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a scooped neckline, appliqued with heirloom lace. The fitted bodice deepened into a bell shaped skirt and the back fullness fell into a chapel train.

A shell cap appliqued with heirloom lace caught her illusion veil and she carried staphanotis with spray orchids and ivy.

Elizabeth Buell was maid of honor in copen blue silk organza made with a boat neckline, cap sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt with black fullness. A satin band at the empire waistline formed a bow at the back. A small hat trimmed with a copen satin bow completed the ensemble and she carried a bouquet of violets.

The attendants, dressed like the honor maid, were Virginia Evans, Deborah Eaton, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.; Mrs. William S. Hickey, Mrs. Lewis Davies and Mitzi Thurber.

James G. Farquhar was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the James Farquhars, of Kerby road. The ushers were Robert Welchli, James P. Williams, Phillip Droll, Dr. Warren W. Babcock, Robert G. Edgar, the bride's brother, David E. McKnight; Benjamin G. Chapman III and Frederick G. Bloy.

Mrs. McKnight greeted guests at the reception at the Country Club wearing a violet silk taffeta gown with matching accessories. Mrs. Farquhar was in celeste blue peau de soie with matching accessories.

The couple traveled to Nassau on their wedding trip.

Single Adults To Have Dance

No one is expecting any labor battalions to march around the circle in front of the entrance to 32 Lake Shore; neither is it expected that any maidens or youths will be slyly hiding May baskets in the formal garden. But the Center Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is welcoming the merry month of May with a "Spring Fling" complete with flower decked hall, orchestra, refreshments and lighted garden paths.

The Center Club's usual band leader has been caught in the matrimonial whirl which begins to swirl each spring. Though Bill Knicely will be away on his honeymoon, a suitable leader will take his place at the head of the band.

Because so many young, single, business and professional people in the Pointes appreciate the privilege of using the Center, they are asking everyone coming to the May dance to contribute an extra quarter or what ever he wishes to a kitty to be given by the club as a contribution to the Center's current drive for funds to meet the demands of the 1959-60 budget.

Dick Gale, president of the Center Club, and the entire hard working committee who stage these parties — mailing notices, making decorations, playing host and hostess — hope you will come and assist in making this dance an outstandingly enjoyable occasion.

Party Planned At St. Michael's

The annual Spring Card Party, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 2047 Sunningdale, is to be held on Thursday, April 30 at 12:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

Plans are being made by a committee under the leadership of Mrs. Harold B. Lee, general chairman for the affair. Dessert and beverage will be served before the card playing begins.

Parents at Defer Plan Variety Show

PTA Giving Presentation on Friday, May 1, Instead of The Usual Annual Pancake Supper Held In Previous Years

Replacing their annual Pancake Supper to benefit the PTA Fund, Defer School parents are substituting the benefit affair this year, for the first time, with a variety show.

The proceeds of the one-night performance will be used for a special school project, to be named at a later date. Friday, May 1, is the big night, and show time has been set for 7:30 p.m. in the Pierce Jr. High School auditorium.

The cast, representing a diversified talent list, is composed almost 100 percent of Defer School parents. Whether professional entertainers, or strictly amateur, all are donating their talents and services for the evening.

Eddie Shepherd is slated to emcee the show, entitled "Defer's Defollies." His wife, Mary Ann, accompanied by Art Wieland on the trumpet, Earl Deary on the bass, Catherine Dion, piano, and Joe Venola on the drums, will sing a few numbers. Also in the musical field, Jo Williams will perform on the Hammond organ. Between acts, Bernie Falk will entertain the audience, expected to be 50 percent adult and 50 percent children, with his clown portrayal. "The Three Flowers," a Japanese song and dance, will be presented by Bea Wilcox and Paula Albrecht, accompanied by Florence French at the piano.

Dr. Kennard Jones, a Defer parent and also program director of the Pierce PTA, will present a comedy monologue entitled "Modern Poetry."

Other acts will include Jerry McMinn pantomiming the hit song "I Enjoy Being a Girl," and Ted Worthman and Ginger Benedict's presentation of "For Fun," a musical-comedy bit. The children are sure to enjoy their Defer teachers in a mock fashion show.

Tickets are selling for 25c for children, and $1.00 for adults. Call Defer School for further information.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ernest Halliday, of Buckingham road, announce the engagement of their daughter, SUE TARA, to Robert David Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrew Brooks, of Cambridge road.

The bride-elect attends Marygrove College and will be graduated in June. Her fiancé is studying at the University of Detroit. He is a member of Delta Pi Kappa. They will exchange vows on June 13.

Lutheran High Plans Festival

The first Spring Festival sponsored by Lutheran High School East will take place on Thursday evening, April 30, and Friday evening, May 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lutheran High East Cafeteria, Kelly near Eight Mile road, Harper Woods. Ample parking space has been provided in nearby lots.

Members of the student body, faculty, Ladies' Guild and Boosters Club of LHE will take this opportunity to provide you with two hours of delightful entertainment for your viewing and listening pleasure. You and your family are cordially invited to attend! Invite your friends and neighbors, too!

Musical selections and numbers will be presented by the LHE choir and bands, students and faculty members, skits, pantomime and educational exhibits. The Ladies' Guild and Boosters Club members will present humorous renditions which will, we're SURE, bring requests for encores.

The entire proceeds from both performances will be used for a much needed and very worthy cause, improvement of driveways and parking areas, so that surfacing, paving, and black-topping work can be done at Lutheran High School East. Donation: Adults $1.00; children 50 cents. Tickets will be sold in advance by students, faculty, Ladies' Guild, and Boosters. Tickets will also be available at the door both evenings.

London Sets Theme For Lochmoor Party

Petticoat Lane, Market Street Will Be Set Up in Club For Tuesday Bridge Luncheon and Fashion Show; Mrs. Diegel to Toast Sister's Trip

A capacity crowd of more than 300 women will gather at Lochmoor Club for the first of the season's ladies bridge-luncheons on Tuesday, April 28th at 12:30 o'clock.

The perennial April in Paris party theme will be forsaken in favor of an April in London decor at the afternoon function. All will be most proper and utterly British.

Hostesses Mrs. Howard B. Downs, a native of England, and Mrs. Robert E. Strange have named their party "Petticoat Lane," which lends a clue that a fashion show is also on the agenda.

"Petticoat Lane" in reality a famous market street in London will be literally recreated in the club's main foyer. Individual stalls topped with striped awnings will display the various and sundry wares to familiar to shoppers in the lane.

A mannequin attired in an authentic costume worn by the British bobby will be posed against one of the sign posts inscribed with a street name which bisects Petticoat Lane. A gaily decked coster-

Village Club To Open Season

What was the date upon which the Indian Village Club was founded? That has been a topic of discussion at the winter get-togethers of the John N. Fallings, John D. Benfield, Harold O. Loves, Nick S. Aagesens, John Veeches, George A. Dickeys and George A. Nicholsons.

To settle the question, all members of the Club have been asked to bring such historical materials as they can gather together to a tea-dance, May 2 from 4 to 7 o'clock. The dance will open the I. V. C.'s summer activities.

While its exact date of birth is in doubt, there is no doubt that the club, located at Coe and Parker, is Detroit's oldest "tennis only" club.

A social committee, headed by Mrs. Robert A. Sullivan, has planned a wonderful afternoon of fun and dancing.

Among those who will attend are: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dieckmann, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Donovan, Glenn M. Freidt, Mr. and Mrs. Weston Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. John Luzadre, Mr. and Mrs. William McBrearty, Dr. and Mrs. Julius J. Michels, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Trip to Bermuda follows wedding Saturday in St. James Lutheran Church and reception at Lochmoor; bride wears imported Chantilly lace

Mr. and Mrs. Berthold August Treiber traveled to Bermuda after their wedding Saturday in St. James Lutheran Church and the reception at Lochmoor.

The former Terry Kuhn, daughter of the Terry W. Kuhns, of Lochmoor boulevard, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace designed on princess lines with the scooped neckline and short sleeves finished with lace appliques.

Tiny clusters of seed pearls and aurora borealis accented the full skirt which deepened into a wide chapel train. A crown of lace held her fingertip veil of French illusion and she carried Eucharist lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Ann Leete was maid of honor and the attendants were Judie Owen Bates, of New York; Audrey Sneige and Mrs.

Gerald Salter.

They were dressed in Dresden pink silk over taffeta fashioned with turned back portrait collars, bracelet sleeves bound in satin and satin bells. Their transparent Gainsborough picture hats were pink with velvet streamers and their bouquets of pink camellias and English ivy.

Sharon Sorensen, wearing the traditional yellow organdy dress, will be the junior class's princess when Liggett School celebrates Founders' Day with the crowning of her 1959 May Queen on May 1.

Sharon is the only Grosse Pointe among Queen Susan Smyly's attendants, but there are many others taking part in the dances and singing in the school chorus.

There will be two performances at the school, at 9:30 and 11 o'clock, of the program called "A Symphony in Color." After these exercises the Associate Alumnae will meet at the Little Club for luncheon and their annual business meeting.

Victoria Heftler, Susan Kerns, Mary Mitchelson, Cymbrie Pratt, and Sally Ross are among the 22 eighth graders who will dance the intricate May Pole Dance while Lynne Shelton presents a bouquet of flowers to the Queen. Their pale yellow and blue shirt-waist dresses make the perfect costume for this highlight of the program.

Karilyn Kriehoff, Rory Nelson and Michael Shelton will be costumed for one of Sousa's marches. Lynda Meier, Mary Yeoman, Nancy Brex, Christine Clark and Dennis Shelton will dance Chopin's polonaise, and Edward Isaacson, Bettye Popp and Marilyn Kriehoff have a Santa Claus dance to Tschaiakowsky's march.

Second graders Teresa Clifford, Barbara Isaacson and Eugene Whiteley will wear western costume for their waltz, and Katherine O'Brien is in the elves' frolic. Of the smallest children, Jonathan Motschall will be a gingerbread boy and John O'Brien, Marco Prete, Jonathan Reynolds and Janeen Tingley and John Todd will be in "Party Time" to a theme of Handel.

Upper School girls who have singing parts in the program are Gwendy Bennett, Emmy Besimer, Lynn Demeter, Jane Eccleston, Debbie Friedel, Karolyn Kirspeil, Marilyn Neumann, Karen Russell, Mary Lou Salzman, Gretchen Schuur, Jacqueline Smith and Christine Strehler.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By PAT TALBOT

It took the Van Tiem family 93 days on a sailing vessel to cross the Atlantic from Belgium back in the early 1800's, but they found it worth the privations when they settled on the Michigan farmland that was theirs for over 100 years.

They came right to this area and began to till land hewn from virgin forests north of the present Vernier road, in a tract spreading back to Mack avenue.

The present Stephen H. Van Tiem, (he and his wife marked their golden wedding anniversary last week), remembers tales his mother told of seeing Indian burial ceremonies at sunrise on Gaulkler Pointe, the site of the Edsel Ford home. As recently as the twenties Indian relics of great value were recovered from Gaulkler Pointe.

Mr. Van Tiem's father farmed for the Academy of the Sacred Heart when it was downtown on Jefferson at St. Antoine and the convent cows were pastured in Wayne street. When the convent moved out here in the 1880's he came with them, taking a house in Moran road. The gracious line of maples along the convent drive were planted by him.

Stephen learned about the land from his father and in his turn became a Pointe gardener. He worked for the Swifts, who built the home at the foot of Lincoln road at the lake now owned by Horace Dodge, and remained on the estate when Mr. Dodge bought it from the Swifts. One of the Alger wives was a Swift, although the family itself has long since moved.

Mr. Van Tiem also worked on the Carl Schmidt estate on the corner of Kerby and Grosse Pointe boulevard and reports the stone house is still standing although the land around it has dwindled. He recalls when the first sidewalk was put in by the city, on Rivard boulevard, and the great civic fight over where the new high school was to be located. Pointe residents were up till 2 in the morning arguing the pros and cons of the present site, at a meeting at the old Country Club off Fisher road. Mr. Van Tiem proudly made the motion which carried the day, and he was there to vote for the Maire Charol land, too.

His wife is a Schwaller, whose parents along with the Machleits, were commended by Teddy Roosevelt for their large families, numbering at least a dozen apiece.

On Hawthorne road near the lakeshore stands a willow tree which once shaded the Van Tiem homestead, always called the Eight-Corner House, long since torn down to make way for new residences.

The Van Tiems are descendants of the hardy pioneers who farmed the Pointe long before it became a resort colony or a modern suburb.

Traffic was lined up quite a way on Kercheval around Touraine Saturday night for drivers stopped to gaze at the torchlit gardens of the Robert Grows.

The occasion was a Hawaiian party for daughter Tuppy (Eleanor), marking her sixteenth birthday. The radiant hostess was wearing a pink, white and lavender sarong and a lavishly purple orchid leis flown from the islands for the party. Pineapples, leis, fish nets and other Hawaiian scenery transformed the whole house into an island paradise for the 100 guests who had dessert and danced all evening to the Hawaiian orchestra.

Mrs. Bernard Pearse drew raves for her Ingrid Bergman role in "Kind Sir" for Fine Arts last week-end. Her costumes were eye-catching and drew great sighs from the audience especially the last act gown, black lace to midcalf, then tiers of white ruffles, dipping to the floor in the back and accented with a wicked red rose... Mrs. James Phelps, also in the cast, changed for the afterglow party (she also had a supper in her Elm court home) into a rose beige peau de soie, the bodice completely encrusted with jewels.

Hanging over the garden hedge is becoming a fascinating occupation for Mrs. Richard H. Webber, whose new neighbors on Lakeshore road are the Henry Fords II. All winter she has watched a long train of workmen transforming the former Chapin home into a spectacular mansion. Now she says winsomely, she is having even more fun viewing the landscape gardeners sprucing up the lawns and flower beds. The Webbers are surrounded by Fords, for the John B. Fords III have bought the house once owned by John Anderson on the other side (this home was built by Henry Stephens).

Chet Sampson was in to report an exciting week in Hollywood, where he went to confer with actor Don Murray and his wife, Hope Lange, on their European relief project. While there he saw a great deal of Debbie Reynolds; in fact he cooked a gourmet dinner at Debbie's house. Menu was beef stroganoff, peas amandine, carrot cheese souffle, banana cream pie and apple cream pie, with home baked pecan rolls.

Debbie was so impressed she asked him to return this summer to give a group cooking lessons in her home. Chet says Debbie is radiant these days. He also gave us a coup... a busload of stars including Will Hutchins, TV's Roger Smith in "77 Sunset Strip" will be stopping in Detroit this summer en route to Philadelphia for a movie premier... Incidentally another guest at Debbie's dinner was television western hero, Hugh O'Brien.

The Rev. Paul Farchum, McKnight over the week-end to officiate at the Farquhar-McKnight wedding, told well wishers all about his new home in Lowell, Mass., and reported that his indomitable mother, Mrs. Irving Ketchum, has sewn up draperies for 27 windows in the manse.

MRS. LEONARD S. ROSENFELD AND LYNN, OF GRAYTON ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Even though she will probably be a transient Pointer Mrs. Leonard S. Rosenfeld, her doctor husband, and daughter Lynn, want to make believe this home is permanent.

A concert singer, pianist, guitarist, TV performer, with a master's degree in musicology, and a Harvard master's in education, Mrs. Rosenfeld has a great deal of talent to give to the community. She is giving it as a fifth grade teacher at Grosse Pointe University School and as a soprano in the Festival Choir, and as a fascinating hostess and friend.

As a girl, Mrs. Rosenfeld studied music, both voice and piano at New York City University. Before she could advance her professional career she was the bride of a public health doctor and on her way to Nicaragua.

Work in Nicaragua
Dr. Rosenfeld was attached to the department headed by Nelson Rockefeller, then coordinator of Latin American affairs. He initiated malaria control, set up the first nursing school, organized hospitals and went into the interior to treat patients on rubber plantations. Nicaragua was culturally quite backward and the Rosenfelds missed the advantages, museums, art galleries, concerts and theater, they had enjoyed in New York.

But with inspiring minds and resourcefulness they took what the country had to offer. In a short while they learned Spanish. Mrs. Rosenfeld, unable to continue her voice and piano lessons, found a job as a bilingual secretary for a rubber corporation. Then her husband bought her a guitar which she mastered without lessons, learning native folk songs. Dr. Rosenfeld was painting and sculpting, some of his modern work decorating the Grayton road colonial which is now their home.

Canadian Winter
From the deep tropics they went to Saskatchewan, where they lived for two years, in winters which reached 50 below, and furnaces had to be stoked to keep the big old house warm. It takes a real pioneer spirit to adapt to that country, says Mrs. Rosenfeld, who found it difficult to adjust. Their daughter, Lynn, who was born in Nicaragua, was still a toddler and her mother found she was house-bound most of the winter, transportation being so difficult. She found the citizens "solid, sound people, lacking in pretensions," and claims many as friends.

Television Performer
From the Canadian wilds, again following the public health challenge, the Rosenfelds went to Washington for five years. Here Mrs. R. performed with her guitar on television and studied under Papas, student of classical guitarist, Segovia. She also played to psychiatric patients at Walter Reed Hospital, "a moving and rewarding experience." While in Bethesda, Md., where they lived, she organized a private school music program. When they moved to New York she was eager to return to her music studies.

Mrs. Rosenfeld had also studied to become a teacher at NYU and when they were again transferred, this time to Boston, she decided that teaching would be a better career to embrace than show business due to her husband's frequent job changes.

First Teaching Job
She studied at Harvard and prepared to teach in an elementary school. As a daughter of a clergyman she had taught Sunday School and knew she liked children. Her first job was as fifth grade teacher at a crowded school in Newton, Mass., where she coped with a classroom in the basement, no windows, no blackboards and inadequate texts. While at Harvard she had set up a music course for elementary education and became interested in experiments with individual reading.

Recommendations
Harvard had its eye on her and when she reported that she was coming to Detroit with her husband the authorities told her to try to find a home in Grosse Pointe, where there was an excellent school system.

This she did and her daughter is now enrolled in Pierce, where she shows all the signs of inheriting her parents' talents. She is also a painter and sculptor, is taking flute lessons from Detroit Symphony first flutist, Albert Tipton (also a Pointer), and is enrolled in an honors French course. Last winter Mrs. Rosenfeld did substitute teaching in the public school system, and this year is at GPUS where she is continuing her work in individual reading and spending all her free hours assisting children who need additional help.

Leisure Hobbies
She seems to have leisure for her music, (she helped organize a madrigal society last summer), entertains visitors from South America and all over the world for a meal or a week, collects antiques, gardens, and enjoys her champion dachshund puppy, Chico. Mrs. Rosenfeld's contribution is a large one, and however brief her stay in the Pointe she will have left an educational challenge, a musical talent, an intellectual stimulation to her friends, neighbors and students which will long be remembered.

How Insurance Can Escape Estate Tax

When you own insurance on your life, the value of that insurance protection to your family is whittled down by the estate tax.

Previously, you could protect insurance on your life from being impaired by death taxes only if some member of your family could carry the premiums with independent funds.

Now, even though you pay the premiums, the proceeds of insurance on your life can be protected from the impact of the estate tax.

All you have to do is to transfer the policy and all incidents of ownership to your wife or child or to a trust.
