DETROIT POLICE forced a man from his barricaded home after he defied them with a shotgun and a pistol. Earl Beck, 31, of 11407 Sorrento, chased his mother, Agnes, 62, and his sister, Rosemary, 27, out of the house, brandishing a shotgun. His mother said that she had been trying to persuade him to see a psychiatrist but her son refused. Detroit police commando squads converged on the home, setting up floodlights and evacuating houses on both sides of the Beck home.

EX-TENNESSEE CONVICT, Charles Nash, confessed Thursday to the April 6 murder of Parvin (Bill) Lassiter, Royal Oak car dealer. Police are still looking for one of his partners in the crime, R. C. Beck of Chattanooga. Nash named Richard Jones as the third man responsible for Lassiter's death. Jones was already being held in a Chattanooga jail on a charge of attempted burglary. Nash was identified by Chattanooga police from an artist's sketch carried by Michigan police officers.

AN AIR NATIONAL GUARD jet fighter plane crashed in the back yard of Miss Ada L. Roe, of 508 W. Cady, in Northville, barely missing two nearby schools. Flames from the fiery crash seriously burned two children, Elizabeth King, 3½, and David King, 10, who were playing in a sandpile 100 feet away. The children's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene King of 117 S. Rogers. Two other King children, Patricia, 5 and Gregory, 7, along with a neighboring child, Barbara Taxis, 6, were also playing in the sandpile, but escaped injury.

Sunday, May 10

ROY C. HICKS, of Chattanooga, Tenn. the last of the three men being sought in connection with the April 6 murder of Pavin (Bill) Lassiter, Royal Oak car dealer, surrendered Saturday, to Tennessee authorities. He admitted to being present when the crime was committed, but denied seeing the actual killing.

ON THE EVE of the opening of the East-West foreign ministers conference in Geneva, the Russians presented another obstacle to the success of the meeting in the form of a demand that East Germany be seated as an equal in the talks. Assistant Secretary of State, Andrew Berding, said that the West would not agree because it would imply recognition of the East German government which the West has so far refused.

Tuesday, May 12

A REPUBLICAN PLAN to put an end to payless paydays for 27,000 State employees was endorsed by Governor Williams, Monday. The plan, presented by Senator John P. Smeekens (R, Coldwater) is not a permanent solution to the cash crisis, said Williams, but it will allow enough cash to be "squeezed out" of restricted funds to pay employees who have been waiting since last Thursday for their checks. A mixup by Democratic legislators delayed the passage of the Senate approved bill, so that the paychecks could not be released Monday night. Instead, they were to be ready Tuesday or Wednesday.

Wednesday, May 13

THE RUSSIANS threw another snag into the Geneva conference negotiations, Tuesday, by demanding that Poland and Czechoslovakia be admitted as full participants because they were the first victims of Nazi aggression. The West refused to accept the Soviet satellites as equals. Soviet Minister Andrei Gromyko had already given in to the West on his demand that the East Germans be given equal status.

The statement disclosed that street resurfacing in the city will take a large slice, $89,500, of the city's proposed improvement program fund.

The next largest amount, $33,000, will be expended for replacement of DPW vehicles; (Continued on Page 2)

The Annual Spring Scholarship Concert of the Grosse Pointe High School Band and Orchestra will be held at 8:15 p.m. this Friday at Parcels Junior High School Auditorium.

Musical Director Richard Snook has a great musical program planned, including composer Don Gillis conducting the band playing his own composition "Downbeat" — a take-off on the conductor himself. $16,000 in Bonds and Safe Stolen from Woods Home

Woods police are attempting to solve the mystery of the whereabouts of a 500-pound safe that burglars took from a Woods home, and which contained $16,000 worth of non-negotiable bonds.

The safe was carried away from the home by a pick-up truck stolen from the garage of a neighboring Woods home, according to Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell.

The burglary was reported by Charles A. Reichling of 1431 Oxford on Sunday, May 10, from whose home the safe was taken.

Reichling told Sgt. O'Dell that he had been gone from his home over the weekend, from 7 p.m. Friday, May 8, to 5 p.m. Sunday, and returned to discover the back porch window had been jammed open. He

Tragedy Strikes Pointe Families

Tragedy struck two Grosse Pointe families when four Hillsdale College students died in an automobile accident Friday, May 8, near the school. Thomas Agar, 23, of Pleasant Ridge, the captain of the Hillsdale basketball team, was to marry Carol Jean Vossler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert E. Vossler of Moran road, on August 29 of this year. Agar was the son of John Agar of Pleasant Ridge. He was president of his fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega, in his junior year.

Fredrick F. Fellows was the husband of the former Barbara Roumell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Roumell of Colonial court. A son, Fredrick Franklin Fellows Jr., had been born to the couple a few days before the accident. Fellows was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fellows of Auburn, Pa. He was a member of Alpha Tau Omega and was a former president of Galloway, student dormitory.

The accident occurred about 2 a.m. Friday, on a country road six miles northeast of Hillsdale. The car was traveling fast when it left the road, crashed into three trees and broke in two.

Also killed in the crash were J. Stewart Mason of Farmington Township and Robert Vaughn of Hillsdale. Frank Papenhagen Jr. of Defiance, Ohio, a fifth occupant of the car, suffered a fractured knee and possible fractures of the spine and nose.

All five were seniors at Hillsdale and had just been notified they had passed their comprehensive examinations required for graduation.

Five Pointes Will Share State Fund

Will Divide $113,378 Coming from Motor Vehicle Fund Collections

The five Pointes will receive their share of the net receipts of the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, collected by the State Highway Department during the first quarter of 1959, according to information released by the State Highway Information Service.

The net receipts amounted to $77,914,451.50, an increase of $873,658.80, over that of the first quarter of 1958, which was $77,040,792.70, the Service release disclosed.

The Highway Department has begun the distribution of the fund to the incorporated cities and villages and the counties of Michigan, as provided for by the Acts of 1953 and 262 of the 1957 Legislature, which combined Act 51 of 1958 and 87 of 1955.

Pointes Get $113,378 The Pointes' share of this vast sum totals $113,378.47, of which the Park will receive $34,014.29; the Woods, $31,033.67; Farms, $27,522.81; City, $16,977.43; and the Shores, $3,830.27.

Gross collections for the first quarter of 1959 amounted to $79,112,120, from which was deducted the Secretary of State's collection costs amounting to $1,197,668.50.

All state gasoline, weight and Diesel fuel taxes and a small amount of miscellaneous fees collected under the Acts, are deposited in the Highway Fund. After deductions for non-highway uses and collection costs, the money is divided as follows:

Forty-seven percent to the State Highway Department for expenditure on state trunkline highways in both rural and urban areas; 35 percent to the counties for expenditures on county roads; and 18 percent to the incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

$36,619,732 For Highways Under this formula, the Highway Department will receive $36,619,732.20, the counties, $27,270,058; and the cities and villages, $14,024,601.27.

The first quarter Highway Fund collections came from the following tax sources: State Gasoline, $31,141,125.73; Diesel Fuel, $505,470.10; Liquefied Petroleum Gas, $19,715.97; Weight (resident), $46,739,461.27; Weight (non-resident), $104,463.49; and Miscellaneous, $601,863.44.

Wayne County's share of the fund amounts to $5,614,840.91.

Elementary School Students Offered Foreign Language

Board of Education Authorizes Establishment of New French Classes After Parents Approved Suggested Plan

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education acted last Monday night at its May meeting to authorize the establishment of a foreign language program in the elementary schools. The program will start next September.

The Superintendent of Schools, Dr. James W. Bushong, recommended that two classes of instruction in French be scheduled for each elementary school. Each class is to meet for 45 minutes immediately following the regular school day.

Dr. Bushong also recommended that three classes of instruction in French be scheduled for each junior high school. The classes, each 55 minutes long, are to meet Saturday mornings throughout the school year.

Enrollment in these classes, which will emphasize the conversational (or oral-aural) approach to learning the language, will be limited to pupils enrolled in grades 4-8. Every effort will be made to coordinate the child's development in language skills to the already established language program in grades 9-12.

Parents Were Pooled

In March the Board of Education authorized school officials to take a poll of parents who would have pupils in grades 4-8 in the fall as to their interests in such a program. In early April 3,896 letters of inquiry were sent home, via pupils, asking parents to respond concerning their desires for a foreign language opportunity for their children. Nearly two-thirds responded promptly with almost 85 per cent of the replies indicating they would like such a program.

Over 55 per cent of the interested parties expressed a preference for French. Most of the remainder were divided between Spanish and German with the former having a slight majority. Some 150 additional preferences were divided among seven other languages. Interestingly enough, French was the language preferred by a majority in every elementary and junior high school building.

Seek Good Teachers School officials indicated that they would begin immediately to line up the necessary, qualified teachers to handle these outside-of-school assignments. As proposed to the Board of Education, present planning will entail the (Continued on Page 2)

School As Usual Before Holiday

The Grosse Pointe Public Schools will be in session Friday, May 29.

Many residents are evidencing an interest in this fact inasmuch as some business and industrial concerns are treating this day as a holiday and are staying closed. However, the public schools will operate as usual.

Center Drive Short $6,000 With But Two Weeks Left

With just two weeks to go till the end of its active drive for funds, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial finds its 1959 Annual Family Participation Campaign still $6,000 short of the $40,000 actually needed to balance the budget for the coming fiscal year, beginning August 1.

The Center is very hopeful of announcing on Memorial Day the achieving of its goal. All givers of record and users of the Center who still have not sent their contributions are urged to do so now.

This week, board members and volunteers will begin making follow-up calls to remind many loyal donors who have been out of town that the drive is on. Perhaps in some cases those calls will cover contributions on their way in the mail, but it is hoped that such contributors will understand and overlook the remainder.

A last two weeks effort will also be made by making brief talks before community-group meetings where postage-free remittance envelopes will be on hand to make contributing easy.

Each year the Center has slowly but steadily broadened the base of its supporters. This year the goal is to have 3,500 of the Pointe's 15,000 families on the roll call. To date, response has been encouraging. A total of $34,094.88 has been received from 2,582 families as compared to 2,477 contribu-

No Increase In Tax Rate Necessary

Increased Valuation and Decreased Debt Service Pegs Tax Rate

The Park council considered and approved an operational budget of $1,369,159.55 for the fiscal year 1959-60, at a regular meeting held on Monday, May 11. The meeting was opened for a public hearing.

The budget, submitted to the council by City Manager Robert A. Slone, is $10,774.19 more than that for the 1958-59 fiscal year.

The present assessed property valuation in the Park is $46,463,100, as compared to $46,360,390 in 1958-59, it was disclosed by Mr. Slone.

No Tax Boost

In his statement to the council, the city manager revealed that the increase in assessments, along with increased sewage disposal rates and decrease in debt service requirements, has made it possible for the city to retain the present tax rate with the increase in operating to $15.60 per $1,000 assessed valuation, and a decrease in debt service to $1.35 per $1,000, for a total of $16.95 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

The budget showed that $167,500 has been set aside for the Improvement Reserve Fund, a jump of $44,400 over that of the current fiscal year.

The monies appropriated for the operation of the city government for the fiscal year beginning July 1, are as follows:

- General Government—$36,088.50; Finance — $34,603.34; Public Safety — $384,130.18; Parks and Recreation — $46,150; Public Works — $341,028.54; Water Supply — $152,438.18; Public Health and Service—$5,100; Contingency — $50,000; Insurance and Pension — $90,514; Debt Service — $61,606.81; and Improvement Reserve—$167,500.

Anticipated Revenue

Revenues for the fiscal budget come from these sources: Property Tax—$787,200; Miscellaneous Revenue—$299,950; Water Department Revenue—$181,475; and Surplus Reappropriated — $100,534.56.

Comparative budgets of previous fiscal years, from 1956-57, were also presented to the council by Mr. Slone.

The Park's budget for 1958-57 was $1,297,843.29; for 1957-58—$1,336,644.93; for 1956-57—$1,350,565.36; and the approved budget for 1959-60.

The tax rate in 1956-57 was $16.35 per $1,000 assessed valuation; in 1957-58, it was $16.95; and has remained the same since.

Farms Jewelry Store Robbed

A thief broke the plate glass of Pongrazz Jewelry, 91 Kercheval, on Friday, May 8, and stole a valuable emerald ring from the window showcase.

The theft was discovered during a routine check of stores, during the early hours of the morning, by Patrolmen Francois Belanger and Charles Bingham. The store had been checked the previous evening and nothing was found amiss, according to a police report.

The jewelry piece taken was described as being a white gold, emerald cut ring with tapered baguettes on each side. It is valued at $550.

Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem, who are investigating the case, said the thief cut his hand in breaking the glass. A small amount of blood was found at the scene, they said.

CAR FIRE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wesenberg of 37294 Jefferson, Mt. Clemens, called Woods firemen on Wednesday, May 6, when their car engine burst into flames at Mack and Vernier. Smoke billowed from under the hood after Wesenberg started up the car, and the engine blazed. The vehicle was towed to a service station after the firemen extinguished the flames.

Embezzlements in 1957 cost million, about 260 per cent U. S. insurance companies $57 more than the year before.

Students to Hear Talk on Darwin

As part of St. Paul's observance of the Darwinian Centennial, 150 Junior students, from 13 Detroit Area Catholic High Schools, will hear Professor E. O. Dodson speak at Dominican High School on Friday afternoon.

Doctor Dodson will include in his talk evidence in support of Darwin's theory, taking material from biogeography, comparative anatomy, and comparative embryology. He will outline the mechanics of evolution with emphasis on mutation and the reshuffling of genes.

To present the historical background of the religious controversy that arose at the time of the publication of Darwin's "Origin of the Species," he will refer to such diverse authorities as Aquinas and Linnæus, to Augustine and Lamarck. By quoting from the encyclical Humani Generis, Dr. Dodson will show that the supposed incompatibility of science and religion is actually due to differences in methodology.

Doctor Dodson is Professor of Biology at the University of Ottawa and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and of Sigma Xi. After receiving his doctorate from the University of California at Berkeley, he became a lecturer in Zoology at U.C.L.A.

For ten years he was a member of the biology department at the University of Notre Dame before taking his present post. He is a member of the Albertus Magnus Guild, of the American Society of Zoologists, of the A.A.A.S. (fellow), of the Genetics Society of America, of the Society for the Study of Evolution, and of the Society of Systematic Zoology. He is the author of two current text books on evolution and genetics, and is a frequent contributor to the scholarly periodicals in his field.

The Board and school administrators recognized that the program adopted probably would not satisfy each citizen in the community as to the choice of language, the time of classes, or the number of pupils who can be accommodated. They point out that it is an experimental step forward in extending more service to the community and will help serve the needs of the bright youngsters who require a greater challenge in their school studies. Once the plan has been tried for a while the Board will be better able to determine what modifications, if any, are necessary to do a more adequate job.

A veteran of the Grosse Pointe teaching staff, Miss Harger came to the local school system in 1940, having had experience in Albion and Ann Arbor. She has taught at Mason, Defer, Trombly, Parcels and Monteith enjoying notable success in each instance. In 1948 she became first assistant to Principal Marshall Jameson and moved with him to Monteith when that building opened in the fall of 1951, becoming Assistant Principal at that time. She served as Acting Principal of Monteith during Dr. Jameson's absence in the 1955-56 school year.

Miss Harger received her B.A. from Albion College and her Masters from the University of Michigan. She has also studied at Wayne, Abbot Academy in Maine, Ohio State University, the University of Detroit and the Merrill Palmer School in Detroit.

An extensive traveler, Miss Harger has toured nine European countries, most of the U.S.A. and parts of Canada, and throughout the Caribbean area. These trips have provided her with a wealth of interesting information and materials for use in the classroom.

Active in her profession Miss Harger is a member of the M.E.A., NEA, and the Michigan Society for Mental Health. She also is active in the Elementary School Improvement Committee and The International Reading Association. She is currently President of a professional society, Alpha Mu of Delta Kappa Gamma.

New Officers of Business Men's Association

Residents Asked to Help With Annual School Census

Census takers of the Grosse Pointe School District began their annual job of enumerating the residents of the district last Monday, May 11. Estimates of the expected increase in population they will find, range from 1,500 to 2,000 persons.

The school census is taken during the last 20 days of May under the direction of Dr. Paul E. Mawhinney, Director of Pupil Personnel for the Pointe Public Schools. He emphasized the need for fullest cooperation between residents and the census workers, if a complete and accurate enumeration is to result.

Every home in the school district will be visited by a census worker during the next few weeks. School officials stressed the point that all information obtained will be kept in strictest confidence.

Each census enumerator has been carefully selected. Twenty Grosse Pointe women compose the group and of these, 16 have previously helped take the school census. Four have done this work 12, or more, years. Mrs. Edgar Hallead leads in experience, having served for 22 years, while Mrs. Warren Piche has taken the census on 16 occasions. Mrs. Ralph M. Clark has served 15 years and Mrs. George Liddle, 12.

All census takers are provided identification cards signed by Dr. Mawhinney. The workers are instructed to show them on request.

The census serves many useful purposes," said Mawhinney. "Part of the money which the local schools receive from state funds is apportioned on the basis of the number of children residing in the district. Information received from the annual school census is also essential for the enforcement of the compulsory education laws.

By receiving confidential information from parents regarding handicapped children, the schools are also in a position to offer professional counsel relative to special education services which may be needed.

Public Schools Enroll 10, 219

The total enrollment of the Grosse Pointe Public School system at the end of April was 10,219. This was three more than March and 358 or 3.63 per cent above that of one year ago.

The enrollment for the elementary schools was 5,868; for the junior high schools, 2,283; and for the senior high school, 2,058. The Nursery School for Exceptional Children shows an enrollment of ten.

Another important use of census data is to provide facts relative to the growth of population and the number of children in the district, reported Mawhinney. The data is summarized in such a way, that the total population as well as the number of children of each age, is tabulated for each municipality and each elementary school district in the area.

The tabulation also shows each age attending no school, public schools and non-public schools.

As a result of such tabulations, a year by year picture is obtained which shows the exact growth in each municipality and elementary school district. "In a growing area such data are invaluable to the Board of Education and school officials in planning.

Last May's census showed a total population of 62,857 for the area comprised in the Grosse Pointe School District.

Continued building activity in the area this year is the basis for the school's estimate that the figure may be upped to about 64,500.

Clean-Up Drive Success; Contest Winners Revealed

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, which has sponsored this year's "Clean-Up" week, has announced the winners in the "Cleanest Playgrounds" contest, which all 21 schools in the area were invited to enter.

The judging committee which was made up of six members of the Men's Garden Club of G.P. and headed by Leland Gilmour, after a painstaking and considered tour, made the following awards: First prize of three flowering crab trees to Pierce Junior High School, second prize of two trees to Kerby School, third prize of one tree to Monteith School. Honorable mention was given to Barnes School, and Our Lady Star of the Sea School.

The principals of the winning schools have been notified and the prizes of crab trees have been presented to the schools by the Garden Club Council, with a letter of congratulation. The Council also wishes to thank all of the other schools who participated in this important part of Clean-Up in Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Gilmour and his committee felt the general appearance of most of the school playgrounds was excellent and showed interest and painstaking work on the part of the children. The decision of the judges was difficult. Mr. Gilmour pointed out four areas which could be watched another time: fence areas, wooded areas (where papers were not picked up), window wells which are a definite fire hazard, where school playgrounds adjoined vacant lots which residents used for a dumping ground.

Litterbags, which are made by the League for the Handicapped, will continue to be sold for another week at the special price of 39c. Through the co-operation of the managers of supermarkets, these attractive bags, designed for automobile use, may be purchased at the three Wrigleys in Grosse Pointe, the A&P and Kroger in the "Village" and the Farms market in Fisher road.

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council wishes to thank the thousands who helped in various ways to make "Clean-Up" a success. The home gardeners; the school children with their teachers and principals; the special groups of Litterbags, not to mention the many who purchased the bags in the fine work of the League for the Handicapped and to reduce the littering of highways.

Two Injured In Accident

Two persons were injured and a driver was ticketed by Farms police following a traffic accident at Moran road and Grosse Pointe boulevard on Monday, May 4.

Injured were Miss Esther Zappitelli, 18, of 1231 Lake-pointe, who suffered deep gashes about the face, and Neil Hodgson, 22, of 315 Beaupre, who was cut on the right knee cap.

Ticketed was Beatrice M. Scott, 61, of 562 Sunningdale, who was charged with entering an intersection without due care and caution.

Police said that Mrs. Scott was driving north on Moran and had stopped for the stop street at the intersection. When she proceeded across the boulevard she was hit by the car driven by Hodgson. Miss Zappitelli was a passenger in Hodgson's car, according to a police report. Both the girl and her driver were taken to Cottage Hospital for treatment of their injuries. Police estimated damage to Mrs. Scott's car at about $250; and to Hodgson's, about $300.

St. Paul Dads Giving Banquet

The St. Paul Dads Club will honor St. Paul High School athletes in all sports, both boys and girls, in the traditional athletic banquet and dance in St. Paul School gym, Sunday, May 17, at 6:30 p.m.

Guests prominent in the fields of athletics and education will be presented at the dinner, which is being arranged under the general chairmanship of Kenneth Oxley, newly-elected president of the St. Paul Dads' Club.

Among invited guests are Sam Madden, executive director of the Detroit Catholic League; Frank Connelly, director of the CYO and its extensive grade-school circuit; Fred Runnels, sports editor of the Grosse Pointe News, and Frank Guyott, sports editor of the Michigan Catholic.

Also invited as honored guests will be Herald Husband, director of administrative services for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and representatives of Grosse Pointe High School.

Edward Lauer, Laker head coach, will award letters in all sports — football, basketball, swimming, baseball and track — and will honor girls' teams in basketball, softball and swimming.

Parents of Laker athletes and their friends are invited. Reservations may be made by calling Edward Dooley (TU 4-5976) or Richard Campau (TU 4-1553). Joseph P. Wright, retiring president of the St. Paul Dads' Club, will be toastmaster. Dancing will follow the dinner and awards ceremonies.

Library Friends To Hear Stason

E. Blythe Stason, Dean of University of Michigan School of Law will be the principal speaker at the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Library stage their annual dinner meeting, Friday, May 15, according to Lee Crooks, president of the Friends.

Dean Stason will speak on "A Visit to the Soviet Courts." Donald M. D. Thurber of the Friends' program committee stated the committee felt the subject worthy of special attention because, "To most of us, law in Russia is a complete unknown. We know little of Russian courts or how they dispense justice."

"Dean Stason, because of his background in the law, and his special interest and study of this subject, can explain the weird process of the purge trials in Russia," he added.

The program will be preceded by the annual dinner beginning at 7 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The dinner is $2.75 per person.

All are welcome to attend, according to William L. Newman, program chairman, but reservations are necessary for the dinner. These may be obtained by calling the War Memorial Center by Thursday.

Moral Re-Armament Play To Be Presented at GPUS

The latest Moral Re-Armament play, "The New American," will be staged at the Grosse Pointe University School. It is a drama of American life with humor and reality.

It comes straight from a successful run on the West Coast, where Cobina Wright, columnist for the Los Angeles Herald-Express, wrote, "I urge all of you to go and see 'The New American.' These MRA plays are always inspiring, thought-provoking and professionally polished."

It is one of a group of plays presented through the winter months by Moral Re-Armament in the major cities from Seattle to San Diego.

Admiral William H. Standley, former Chief of Naval Operations and former U.S. Ambassador to Moscow, said, "I have witnessed these ideological plays recently presented in San Diego and am more convinced than ever that they are bringing the answer for all mankind. We must awaken America to the need of arming our nation with an ideology as well as through economic and military means."

General J. W. O'Daniel, who commanded the famous "Hell on Wheels" Third Division, which fought through Italy into Germany, and who was known as "Iron Mike" by his men, called MRA "The answer to Communism for the whole world."

The commanding officers of Norton Air Base, George Air Force Base and El Toro Marine Base invited the plays to be shown to their personnel.

By special request of school boards, "The New American" was presented to high school assemblies during school hours and was enthusiastically received by the students; and at San Diego the cast was invited by the high school to address 18 classes of seniors.

In honor of the presentations of these plays the mayors of San Marino and San Diego proclaimed an MRA Week in their cities. After the showing of "The New American" to the Palm Springs High School assembly, the mayor declared, "The most refreshing and hopeful thing I have seen... a powerful answer to delinquency and broken homes... they are giving a moral ideology which everyone and every community needs. I hope that every high school student and every community in America can see 'The New American' and meet with the people of Moral Re-Armament."

To the packed first-night audience in Los Angeles, a young American, stepping before the curtain to introduce the play, said, "We wrote this play and we who act in it are ordinary kids. We hated the cops—we loved the girls—we rebelled against our parents. Recently we have found a dynamic answer. It has changed us from being rebels against the old world into revolutionaries for the new world. This play tells the story of our own lives."

The play will be presented at the Grosse Pointe University School on Tuesday, May 26, and Wednesday, May 27, at 8 p.m. As a special feature the International Chorus in national costume will present a group of original selections before each performance.

Tickets without charge may be obtained by telephoning WO 1-9173, or by writing to P.O. Box 3028, Detroit 31.

Four Cars Crash When Foot Slips

Two cars had to be towed away because of extensive damage caused in a four-car collision at Mack and Bourne-mouth on Tuesday, May 5, according to a Farms police report.

The accident was the result of a chain reaction when the rear driver stepped on the gas pedal instead of the brakes, hitting the car in front of him.

The police report revealed that Nova M. Cybulski, 46, of 22125 Trombly, St. Clair Shores, slowed down at the intersection because of a pickup truck that was parked with its left wheel to the curb.

Cybulski's action caused John H. Haas, 58, of 1547 N. Renaud, to show up his speed and behind him, Nancy Jo Hartner, 17, of 22724 Sunningdale avenue, St. Clair Shores, also slackened speed.

George H. Clark, 34, of 25824 Arlington, Roseville, started to slow down, when his foot slipped from the brake onto the gas pedal and he shot forward, hitting Miss Hartner's car, and she in turn slammed into Haas, and he smashed into Cybulski.

Damage to the rear of Cybulski's car was estimated at $50; Haas', $50; Hartner, front and rear $300 and Clark's, front, $400. The latter two cars had to be towed to a service station.

Clark's insurance company will foot the bill for the damages. No ticket was given to any of the drivers.

However, the driver of the truck, who was not present at the time of the mishap, returned later to find a ticket attached to the windshield wiper, for illegal parking.

No one was hurt, according to the police report.

5,000 Serve on Committees To Observe Michigan Week

From latest reports received at Michigan Week headquarters in Lansing, approximately 5,000 people are serving on committees arranging the program for observance of the sixth annual Michigan Week, May 17-23, Paul Carnahan, board chairman of the Great Lakes Steel Corporation, Ecorse, and general chairman of Michigan Week, reported today.

Many thousands of other Michigan people will be taking part in these programs boasting to state and nation the unlimited advantages and resources of Michigan and its thousands of products, Carnahan said.

Assisting him as an advisory committee, are the five men who previously have served as Michigan Week chairmen: Jay D. Runkle, Dr. Grover C. Dillman, Russell A. Swaney, K. T. Keller, and Edward J. Hekman.

Nine regional chairmen, all leaders in business, industry and education in all parts of the state, are directing the Michigan Week organization in their respective areas. Serving under these men are chairmen in all of the state's 83 counties and most of its 500 communities, who in turn are directing committees on the local level where much of the Michigan Week program planning will come to life.

"Everywhere this vast Michigan Week organization is carrying forward the 1959 slogan 'We're Proud of Michigan,'" Carnahan said, "with wide displays of the Michigan Week emblem, which shows the state's official bird, a chesty robin wearing a sailor's cap and headdress of the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway."

The theme of this year's celebration is "Michigan Products," to call attention to the several thousand products made in the state.

Mr. Carnahan, in appealing for all citizens to join in the celebration, sounded the keynote of the observance when he said:

"Through this combined effort we will show pride in our state and its products. It is essential that we accent the positive, not the negative. We must start at the community level to take inventory of those things of which we can be proud. Then we must stir up enthusiasm so that the spirit of pride is contagious throughout the state and nation. If we do this we will make the 1959 Michigan Week the most successful ever."

"Products of Michigan" was selected as the theme for special emphasis in this year's celebration and a major effort is being made to get all people acquainted with the diversified products of the state's factories, farms, mills, mines and shops as well as the products in such fields as science, literature, music, the arts and crafts.

The objectives of Michigan Week are three fold: 1. To sell Michigan people on their great state and its unlimited opportunities and advantages.

2. To focus favorable national attention on Michigan.

3. To get all Michigan people working together to make the state an even better place to live, work and play.

What is believed to be the most extensive publicity program ever undertaken in the state is being carried forward by 29 committees of the Michigan Week Public Relations Board, headed by W. Lowell Treaster, head of the department of information services at Michigan State University.

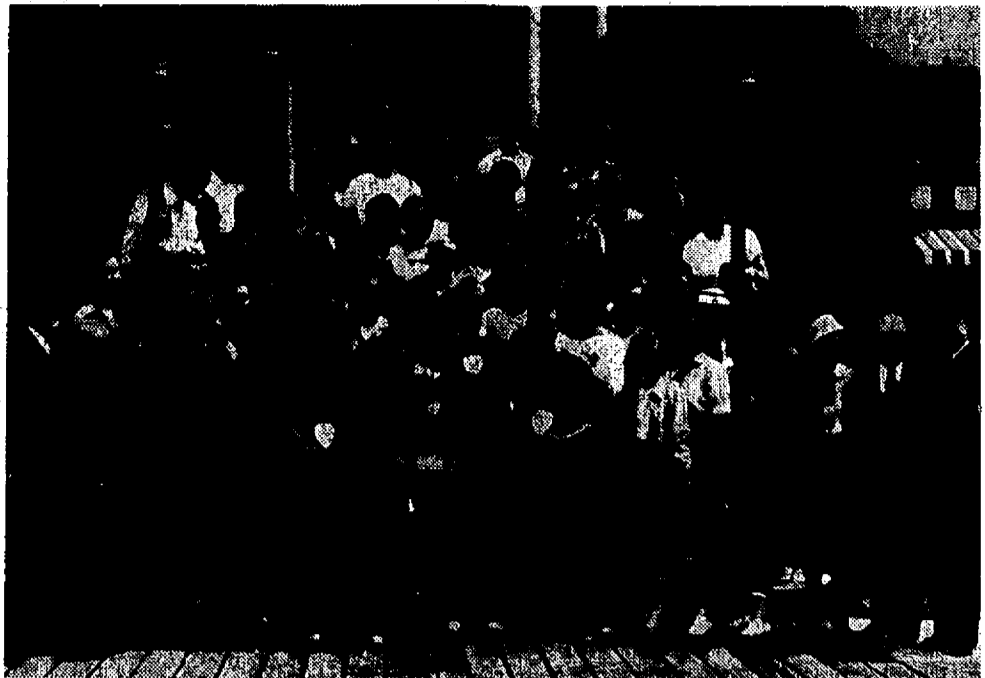

This board, one of six state level groups working with the Michigan Week executive committee, is covering every avenue of communication. It has five committees in the newspaper field, five concerned with national and state radio and television, three working on magazine publicity and others working on outdoor advertising, moving pictures, direct mail, religious publications, promotional materials, gathering of new facts and feature articles on a wide list of subjects. Another committee is in charge of a bureau which is arranging speakers for Michigan Week meetings.

Lynn Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, is chairman of the School College activity board which has several committees which are providing leadership for the Michigan Week program in thousands of public and parochial schools of the state.

Dr. Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, heads the Cultural Activities Board, which is being staffed by university officials. The board is directing all Michigan Week activities in the interest of furthering architecture, fine arts, community theaters, history, literature, music and folklore.

Robert Furlong, executive director of the Michigan Tourist Council, is chairman of the Michigan Week Program Board, which has state committees for each of the seven

DYC Opens Sailing Season With Collegiate

Monday, May 18: Exchange of Mayors Day.

Tuesday, May 19: Hospital-ity Day.

Wednesday, May 20: Our Livelihood Day.

Thursday, May 21: Education Day.

Friday, May 22: Our Heritage Day.

Saturday, May 23: New Frontiers Day.

Through this widely diversified program every phase of the state's history and economy will be brought to the attention of Michigan people, starting with recognition of the state's early life when missionaries helped develop the first white settlements and concluding with a look at the future and the new horizons opening in many fields, promising a greater tomorrow.

Under Robert H. Albert, manager-secretary of the Saginaw Chamber of Commerce, a group of nine Chamber secretaries, one for each Michigan Week region, are directing all Michigan chambers in a program to back up local Michigan Week committees and assist them in planning and carrying out programs.

Many special events are being planned in all parts of the state, with local communities making their own Michigan Week observance plans.

Here are some of the things people can do to participate in the Michigan Week observance, Carnahan said.

Send Michigan scenic post cards to friends or relatives in other states inviting them to visit Michigan, or send scenic cards of local areas to people in other parts of the state.

Add postscripts to letters citing some outstanding fact about Michigan and the writer's own community.

Wear Michigan lapel buttons and put Michigan decals on your car windows. These are available from local Michigan Week committees.

Buy Michigan products, use Michigan foods whenever possible and boast them to your neighbors and friends.

Offer to serve on local Michigan Week committees.

Nab Juvenile Pilfering Gang

Five juveniles were arrested by Farms police and charged with pilfering meter fine boxes in the municipal parking lot in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill District.

The juveniles, all boys living in the Farms, range in age from 12 to 15 years old, according to Det. Segts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem.

The officers said that charges have been filed against the five on Thursday, May 7, in Wayne County Juvenile Court. Two other boys, also involved in the ring, are being sought for questioning, the detectives said.

One of the boys, 18 years old was first seen breaking into a parking meter fine box in the lot on April 24. He was arrested and taken to the station, where he was extensively questioned.

The youngsters implicated two 15-year-olds and two 12-year-olds, and the two others still being sought, according to Paisley and Van Tiem. All the boys admitted their part in the pilferings.

The Farms detective team said the boys' loot totaled about $49, over a period of time.

The fine boxes are placed at spaced intervals, for the convenience of overtime parkers, who pay a fine of 50 cents if the violation is paid within the hour.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

The heart of the home is so often the kitchen, and local chatelaines are justly proud of their cookery centers; so much so they are happy to show them off in a good cause.

On May 22, seven delightful kitchens will be open for the annual Tour sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital.

Mrs. John Herrman is general chairman of this season's tour and on her committee are: Mrs. William H. Russell, Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. Ralph Ladd, Mrs. Carroll Sutton, Mrs. George W. Christiansen, Mrs. Wilfred Steiner and Mrs. Richard S. Daley.

Does any kitchen have enough storage space? Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Mozena have cupboards galore in their Lewiston road kitchen which she will show to the Tour guests.

The Larry Tisdale's country kitchen in Rivard boulevard is a star attraction and Dr. and Mrs. James E. Lofstrom will open their culinary center which features sparkling crystal in Williams road.

A combination of antique and modern is successful in the kitchen of Dr. and Mrs. K. M. McColl, of Grosse Pointe boulevard. The kitchen with a hearth is Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joys, Jr., in Tonnancour place.

Coral sets the decorative scheme of the Richard P. Martins Lochmoor boulevard kitchen and a breathtaking view of Lake St. Clair can be seen from the contemporary kitchen of the Lawrence A. Reifs, of Fair Lake lane.

GPYC Style Parade At Luncheon May 20

Bridge Will Follow at Red and White "Fun Frolic"; Club Also Plans Dinner Dance and Floor Show for May 23

Another glamorous party for Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's distaff side is in the making. It's the second of the club's spring pair of bridge-luncheon-and-fashion show festivities, and it's to take place next Wednesday, May 20, in the clubhouse ballroom.

Mrs. Irwin M. Kunerth, Mrs. Herbert W. Hart and Mrs. Wayne E. Long are co-chairmen in charge of arrangements. They have planned a striking red and white decor—it will feature many, many red geranium blooms and a striped canopy in cabana effect at the far end of the spacious room.

In the fashion show by Margaret Rice will be every summer style, from bathing suits and daytime clothes to stunning evening wear.

The committee has named the party "Fun Frolic," and all details will be themed to that idea. Luncheon will be at 12:30 p.m. and bridge play will follow the style parade.

The month of May also will bring a "Supper Club" dinner-dance for GPYC'ers—it's to be on Saturday, the 23rd, in the ballroom. Cocktails at 7 p.m., dinner at 8, and 10 o'clock floor show entertainment presenting Wes Harrison (in his unique "Mr. Sound Effects" act) and Shirley McGuire, dancer, comprise the program.

Turning the pages back to last Saturday's Mother and Daughter Luncheon at the club, it was the very youngest set that really stole the show. Karen Karrer, five and a half months old, and Kandi Smith, who has reached the ripe old age of six months, were lavished with attention.

Karen received the prize as the youngest daughter present, and her pretty mamma, Mrs. Edwin S. Karrer Jr., had an award as the youngest mother. With them, and winning a four-generation award, were Karen's grandmother, Mrs. Marie Just, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Julius L. Krimmel.

Sharing honors and receiving awards in the four-generation category were Mrs. Sophie Riedel, her daughter, Mrs. Clarence E. Bleicher; granddaughter, Mrs. J. Earl Fraser, and great-granddaughters, Joanne and Mary Fraser. Prize-winning youngest grandmother was Mrs. James Quello, and Mrs. Logan Wood was the grandmother with the greatest number of grandchildren.

Three mothers each with four daughters at the party qualified in the category of mother-with-the-most-daughters-present. They were Mrs. Howard Shaw with Susan, Bonnie, Patty and Nancy; Mrs. Thor Olson with her four: Mrs. George Baer, Mrs. Alton Wheeler, Mrs. Joseph Hadley and Mrs. Robert Peebles; Mrs. Robert Wood with Christine, Candace, Jane and Martha.

Kandi Smith missed out on the "youngest" prize, but she enjoyed the party with her mother, Mrs. James Smith, and grandmother, Mrs. Everett E. Lundberg—Kandi divided her attention between pink balloons drifting from tables, and the clown costumes and grease paint of Hokey Pokey (Ray LaBarr) and Dodo (Bill Stewart).

Others and Dodo were three-year-old Cynthia Conway (in yellow organdie, she sat between her mother, Mrs. Dean Conway, and aunt, Mrs. William J. Lilly); two-year-old Ann Walton, with sister Lynn and mother, Mrs. John Walton; and the 18-month-old twin sisters Laurie and Margie Wells (with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Homer B. Wells and Mrs. Carl Wells respectively, and Mrs. Warren Avis).

HOSTILE, THESE TEXTILE STRIKERS—A gal striker lunges (upper) at a state trooper to get herself arrested during strike violence at the Harriet-Henderson Cotton mills in Henderson, N.C. So the officer obliged her, put her into a patrol car, and she tried to get out again (lower) and had to be stuffed back in. Incidentally, the officer was wounded in the fracas—she bit him while he was escorting her to the car.

CHAMP CHOMPER—Still going strong after becoming the "Northwest's Grand Champion Smelt Eater" by polishing off 84 of the tiny fish (they totaled seven pounds) Wilbur M. Mackey tackles a hot dog and a cup of coffee. The 27-year-old eating champ from Kelso, Wash., won the title at a Troutdale, Ore., contest among the best plate-cleaners in Oregon and Washington.

FIGGY-BACK POOCH—Accompanying his master wherever he goes, this clever pooch perches on the lad's shoulders during a bicycle ride in Staten Island, N.Y. The boy, Alex Othmer, takes the dog along on all his trips on the bicycle. So far, the piggy-back pooch has never fallen off.

BALTIC IS VAST SOVIET 'FORTRESS'—While the cold war continues, the Russians are making the Baltic sea coast from Viborg (in the area they wrested from Finland prior to World War II) to Luebeck, on the outskirts of West Germany, a vast "fortress" for hot war. Information indicated on this map comes from the Swedish naval publication "Marine News," which says an East-West struggle for position is rapidly developing in the Baltic region, and that Sweden is being put on the spot. Russian missile bases along the Baltic can fire to nearly any point in Europe. "Marine News" warns. (Central Press)

CATCH-AS-CATCH-CAN—Waiting for the big ones to bite, fishermen don't even have to set foot in a boat as they fish from a pier in the shadow of San Francisco's famed Golden Gate Bridge. Striped bass run up to 30 pounds in the area, but the pierside anglers face other unusual hazards. Tons of concrete and metal were dumped into the water during the building of the piers, and fishermen chance the loss of gear with each cast. There are also sharks present, which eat the catch off the line before it can be hauled in. Anglers shown are Ray Simonette (foreground) and Lester Bailey (center).

LOOM WITH A VIEW—Checking the work in progress on the loom, women carpet weavers examine the elaborate pattern of the carpet in Azerbaijan, Russia. Lovely carpets like this, popular all over the world, will be on display at a forthcoming exhibition of Soviet products in New York.

SPRING TUNIC—Roman designer Antonelli's collarless tunic dress is adapted in black and white checked silk and cotton for the Blauner import collection. A wide black belt wraps the waist of the dress, which has giant patch pockets and a deep black pleat.

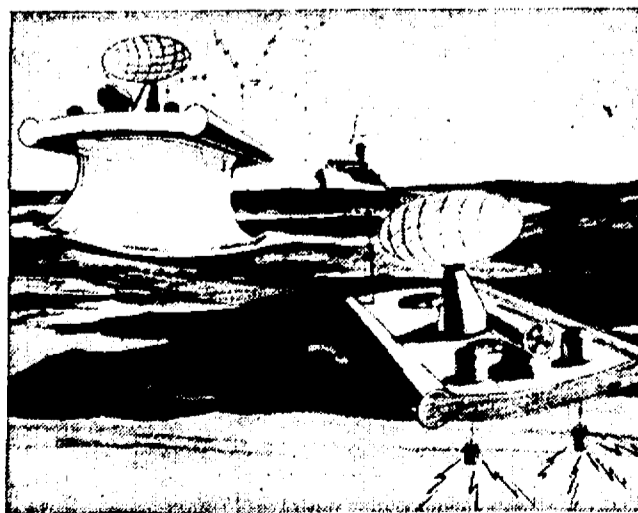

ROYAL REFLECTION—Visiting an exhibit of old English furniture during her stay in Paris, Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth views herself in the mirror atop an 18th Century Chippendale dressing table. Looking on is Claudius Petit, former French Labor Minister. The furniture was on display at the Pavillon de Marsan.

CAMPY GOES WEST—Roy Campanella, whose playing career was ended in an almost-fatal automobile accident over a year ago, exchanges greetings with an American Airlines well-wisher, Miss Sue Victor, while Roy's aide John Williamson looks on. Roy is en route to Los Angeles to attend the Dodgers-New York Yankees game, on Roy Campanella Day, May 7.

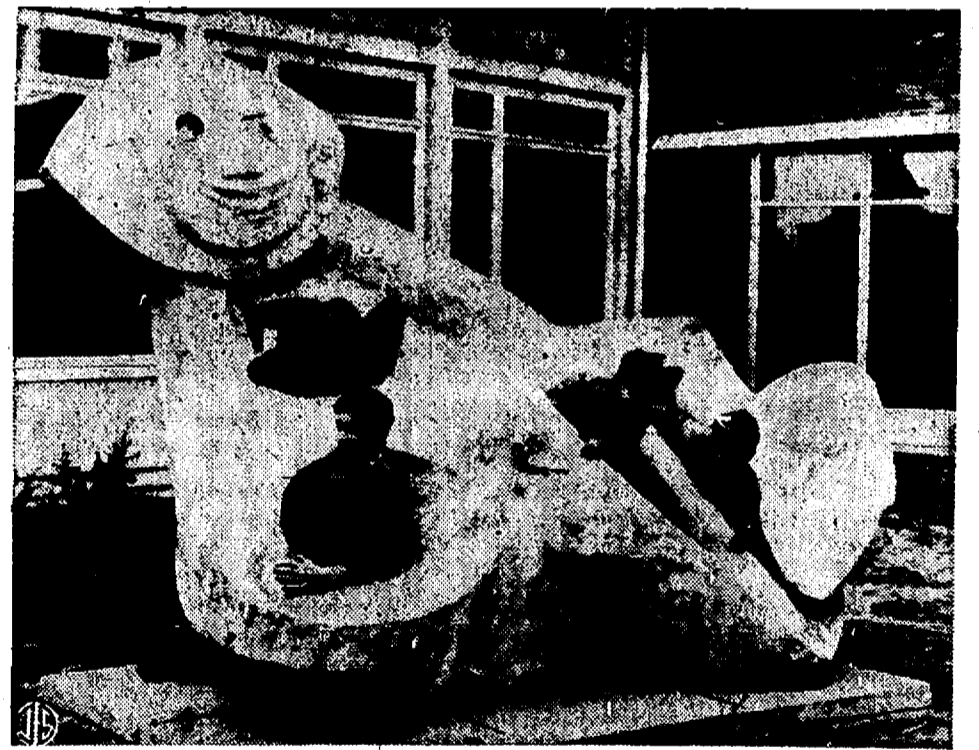

SUITING UP—The ordinary double-breasted suit (right) looks a little prosaic when compared with the snappy one-button, pocketless creation worn by the dapper fellow at left. The new-style suit by Courtois is of black and white check worsted, with a matching hat of the same material. It was on display at a men's fashion show in London.

SEASOON KADAR PLATFORMS—Contracts have been let by the Defense department for research and development on radar platforms like the ones in this Defense department sketch. Such platforms would take advantage of the ground-proximity effect for locomotion, would hover on a cushion of air generated by engines mounted inside. One is sketched (left) moving on a cushion of air, and (right) floating on the sea with its sensor gear extending down under surface.

THAT CRAWLING FEELING—Taking her pet for a walk isn't quite that simple for Mrs. Isobel Cole in Winton, England. The pet is Humphrey, a four-foot alligator and he's still at the crawling stage. Mrs. Cole says Humphrey is more lovable than a dog and lots easier to feed. He eats only two meals a week, a pound of steak at each sitting. The alligator, a native of the Amazon, has been the family pet for two years.

SPACE TO PLAY—Outer-space fun comes easily to these youngsters, who frolic in a play sculpture called "Sun, Moon and Stars" which has been erected outside a school in Dusseldorf, West Germany. With just a little imagination, the kids can pretend to be floating through the cosmos as they wriggle through the openings in the sculpture.

FLYING CRANE—Representing a radical concept in aircraft design, the Sikorsky S-60 crane helicopter, literally a flying crane, is shown in flight at Stratford, Conn. The S-60 has no conventional cargo cabin. Loads up to six tons are carried externally by a hoist suspended from the fuselage at a point directly under the main rotor. The craft can carry its payload for distances up to 100 miles.

Biggest Graduating Class Presents Social Problems

Grosse Pointe High School is preparing to graduate the largest class in its history. Planning arrangements for 523 students has posed some problems for the commencement parties traditionally sponsored by the Mothers' Club and Mrs. John O. Blair, general chairman, gratefully acknowledges that their solution has been found through the aid of community facilities and the generous response of the mothers who are donating most of the food for two of the occasions.

On Saturday, May 23, the school will honor the graduating class with the Senior Prom. To be held in the new gymnasium from 9:12. Preceding the prom, the Mothers' Club will sponsor a cocktail party to be held in the gymnasium of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at 6:30 with Mrs. Edward Brody in charge of arrangements, and followed by a dinner at the War Memorial where Mrs. William H. Martin will serve as dinner chairman.

Guests will dine at tables made colorful with flags of many nations. Guests will form a background for replicas of diplomas tied in the blue and gold school colors, and each place will be marked with a small world globe to carry out the decorating theme of "New Worlds to Discover" and the constitution of "worlds of congratulations". Mrs. Watson Beach is chairman of the decorating committee.

Following the commencement program on Thursday, June 11, the Mothers' Club will entertain members of the graduating class at a Smorgasbord and dance to be held at the War Memorial. Mrs. Edward Stanley will be chairman for this event and Mrs. E. C. Foxon will serve as ticket chairman and treasurer for the parties on both dates.

FOR WANT OF A NAIL—

For want of a nail, the shoe was lost. And because the shoe was lost, the horse was lost . . . and the soldier was lost and, the story goes, the battle was lost.

Sometimes it is that way when the battle is a community's struggle to gain new industry. Sometimes the battle is lost for want of something it would seem every community should possess.

A community's attitude—how all of us feel about our town and the industry in our town—is one of the most important elements considered by an industrial prospect.

Our attitude must be good if we are going to win. It is everyone's responsibility. The attitude of everyone toward our present industry can be our biggest asset or our biggest liability in the community's effort to get new industry.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community grow and prosper.

NOW FERTILIZE JUST ONCE!
 Merion Fertilizer
 Research proves lawn grass needs a complete fertilizer with at least 4 lbs. of Nitrogen per 1000 sq. ft. of lawn. Merion Fertilizer is the only plant food that meets these unusual requirements. 20% Nitrogen, 5% Phosphorus and 5% Potash, makes Vaughan's MERION FERTILIZER just what the plant doctors ordered.

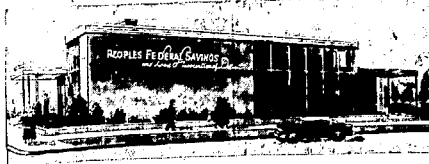

Six different types of Nitrogen are blended to release plant food uniformly throughout the whole growing season. That's why, for only $8.95 (a 50 lb. bag conforming 2500 sq. ft.) Vaughan's Merion Fertilizer gives the average lawn all the food it needs for a full growing season. ONE application of Vaughan's One Shot Merion Fertilizer does the work of FOUR applications of ordinary fertilizer.

Students Polled On TV Interest

Grosse Pointe High School was one of the schools chosen to participate in a recent survey taken by the Institute of Student Opinion which shows that teenagers are spending more time watching television than reading books, magazines and newspapers.

For this survey, 10,149 teenage students, from all over the country were polled. The scientifically drawn sample represents students from grades 7 through 12 in junior and senior high schools of all sizes, both public and private. In Grosse Pointe only the senior high school was polled.

A typical Grosse Pointe teenager watches television for an hour and 41 minutes a day and spends an hour and 11 minutes reading books, magazines and newspapers, combined.

The national figures show that the average American teenager watches television for an hour and 33 minutes a day and reads for only an hour.

The average Grosse Pointe student owns 22 books and his national counterpart owns 17½. Grosse Pointe parents own an average of 113 books and American parents average 69.

The Institute of Student Opinion is the nation's largest youth poll and is sponsored by "Scholastic Magazines." It has been conducting nationwide surveys of teenagers since 1943.

To Hear Noted Carillonneur

Staf Nees, Bellmaster and Director of the International Carillon School at Mechelen, Belgium, will play two recitals at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, on Sunday morning, May 31.

The guest carillonneur will be heard from 10:30 to 11, between the two morning services and again from 12 to 12:30 following the second service.

Mr. Nees became City Carillonist of Mechelen in 1932, the most distinguished carillon post in Europe. His playing, not only in Mechelen, but also on all the important carillons in Belgium, Holland, England, France, Germany and Denmark, soon brought him prominence as the outstanding exponent in Europe of Carillon art and recognition as a virtuoso and interpretive artist of the first rank.

SEE YOUR QUALITY BUICK DEALER...AND Get inside the clean winged beauty of Buick '59

Along with the most talked about style on the road today goes performance new even to owners of previous Buicks . . . and too great for you to miss.

Buick '59 is livelier yet smoother, more powerful yet thrifter, as any previous Buick owner will tell you. And credit goes to the turbine smoothness of Buick transmissions, plus the new responsiveness of Buick "Wildcat" engines.

At the wheel, too, you'll find new handling ease and finned-brake sureness that owners put high on their "most liked" list.

But that's far from all these owners tell us. They talk about new operating economy from the most efficient power plant on the road today. About quality of finish and detail, and of quietness that even beats the best of Buick heretofore. They speak of reliability . . . and they speak of the pure pleasure of owning a Buick '59 . . . in ways that warm the heart.

But the best spokesman for Buick '59—and what it can do for you—is a Buick dealer. Why not go to your Buick dealer and get the inside story, today?

Lets Keep It That Way

Spring has waved its magic wand once more and clothed the Pointe with the most beautiful raiment of the entire year. The grass is at its greenest... In a breath-taking parade of color across our landscape. The lilacs are just coming into full bloom and the dogwood is proudly untangling cloaks of pink and white in nearly every yard.

A great contribution to this lovely pageant which the Pointe is privileged to view annually, is the Clean-Up campaign which ended officially last Sunday. Residents have been encouraged to take more than usual pride in their properties and most have made the extra effort to donate to the beautification of the community.

The drive has been called a great success and the fruits of the labor of many have brought the area into a peak of perfection. Let's not slacken up now, just because the organized drive is over. Look around and see what has been created and then decide to keep it that way. The scenery will change with the seasons, but through all of us being meticulous in the care of our own grounds and careful to keep from spoiling the efforts of others, we can be inordinately proud of the Pointe all year around.

Cultural Treasure Hunt

With the annual observance of Michigan Week starting Sunday, Pointe residents are being asked to take part in a cultural treasure hunt aimed at promoting the historical, artistic and architectural assets of the county and this community.

As part of the celebration a Cultural Activities Committee has been making ambitious plans to collect data that might be used for publication in booklet form for distribution in the county, state and nation. Mrs. John R. Pear of Troy, Michigan, is a member of the Wayne County Cultural Activities Committee and the Grosse Pointe representative is Robert Orr, director of the Pointe Public Libraries.

Those wishing to take part in the treasure hunt are urged to prepare reports and send them to Mr. Orr at the Central Library, Kercheval at Fisher, Grosse Pointe 36. Suggested subjects which could be covered are such reports on history, art, music, theater, literature and architecture.

If you know of any historical sites in the community, any local painters or sculptors who have earned or deserve special acclaim, any noted composers, theater or entertainment personalities, writers or books about the Pointe, examples of architecture that should be promoted, write them down and send in your report.

Anything to Report?

Considerable interest seems to have been aroused over the fate of birds who may have been the victims of spraying by DDT. Publicity given this subject during recent weeks has produced a number of reactions.

Whereas the municipal offices reported several weeks ago that they had no complaints about finding dead birds, it has developed since that this publicity has caused a number of residents to report such findings to the authorities.

The Grosse Pointe Garden Council is anxious to obtain statistics on the mortality of birds because of this type of spraying. It has arranged for a bird count movement about to have the Pointe municipalities investigate the matter thoroughly towards the end of changing spray next season to the type which does not harm birds.

The NEWS is glad to cooperate by running again this week, the box below, which may contain information which will help the Garden Council program. Any residents who have found dead or dying birds on their properties are asked to fill in the coupon and mail to the Grosse Pointe News, 99 Kercheval Avenue, Grosse Pointe 36, Mich.

Letters to the Editor

Gentlemen:
Your editorial "Statistics for the Birds" has been a subject I have wanted to talk about for some time. We have found many a dead bird on our property since the city has been spraying the trees an often some years ago when we first moved into this house our garden was full of song birds. They were here when we bought the house and they remained until the spraying drove them away. Each spring the birds come back to their nests. With the "Methuselah ate what he found on his plate, And never, as people do now, thought of the amount of the caloric count, He ate it because it was chow, He wasn't disturbed at a dinner he sat, Denouncing a roe or a pie, To think it was lacking in granular food, He cheerfully chewed each species of food, Unmindful of troubles or fears, Lest his health might be hurt By some fancy dietist! And he lived over nine hundred years!"

Free Puppy Dept.

Remember a couple of weeks ago we told about the little girl who housed a dog who followed her from school and the next day the dog gave birth to nine pups? We said at the time the dog was a St. Bernard but we were misinformed. PAPA dog is large, but the mother is medium sized and unable to feed so many puppies, so the family have taken turns feeding them "bottle-wise" - including setting the alarm to ring in the night to feed them every four hours! Believe us, THIS is what we call noble. The puppies will be ready for adoption in about 10 days to two weeks, so if any interested parties will watch for the phone number here next week - or they might be lucky enough to get for free a "talk-of-the-town" pup.

Before we leave dogdom, we must pass this bit of whimsy on, sent to us by a friend in Chicago. Informant tells us a neighbor of hers asked if he would look after the family pet (a Pekingsie) while they went on a month's holiday. Our pal agreed to house the dog and asked that they leave full instructions as to his eating and otherwise habits. The owner of the dog said he would bring all the food for the dog and it could be kept in the deep freeze. She would also bring over his eating and water dish and his toys. So far so good.

What she brought (along with the dog) were four nine ounce cans of liver, a couple of chickens (with instructions for cooking same), and his TOYS, which turned out to be two slightly worn sable skins! Our heroine took one look at the grand assortment of food and decided to at least use the hamburger, which incidentally he LOVED. She did allow him to play with his sable skins, however, because they were a little too ratly for her to wear!

Still on DOGS... a local woman was walking her pet one evening when they ran into a "loose" pug dog who took a fancy to the leashed animal. The woman tried to shoo the loose dog away, when finally she heard the owner of same call the dog... she didn't respond to respond. Finally the two women got together close to the dog and retrieved her dog, she explained: "I've taken Winston to obedience school several times, these super-intellectual poodles who the whole class with their superiority complex, so no dog of any other breed has a chance."

Small Boys

The nine-year-old we have written about before in this column... the one we suspect will grow up to be an FBI man, has given us (unwittingly) further ground for Grosse Exaggerations. Our small hero has a job about six to 15. Last Easter, the cousins and their parents were due to visit the boy's family for the day... so the little FBI kid was prepared for the day... He took two bottles of coffee and hid them behind the back of the refrigerator. When his Dad surprised him in the act and asked what he was doing THAT for... the child replied "I just wanna make sure there's some left for me after they go home!" Just the other day, found half a chocolate cake she had baked... (and wondered what had happened to it...) on the floor, behind the TV set in the livingroom. She reported same to the family and after much discussion... the smallest place of course, was in his father's shoe! The safest place of course, was in his father's shoe! The next day, POP slipped into his shoes in the usual off-to-work rush... and thought he had developed arch trouble until he finally removed his shoe and found the sticky chocolate mess of a half eaten candy bar.

It is a pity to kill our feathered friends. In our garden we had robins, blue jays, doves, sparrows, and occasionally we see a bird, once in awhile a few fly back. Early this spring a pair of robins sat at a piece of property on the corner of Touraine and Beaupre... they were to follow, however others were to see them, since DDT they too have disappeared. There were many cars... it is as a trash dumping ground.

The only time it looks decent is when it is covered with four feet of snow. Can't anything be done about cleaning this up to help make Grosse Pointe "clean and beautiful" or to help clean-up, just so many posters and newspaper articles?

I have been reading all the articles in the Grosse Pointe News about "cleaning up Grosse Pointe, and about the police department issuing tickets to litterbugs." It has annoyed me to look at a piece of property on the corner of Touraine and Beaupre... and all the various landscaping companies have been doing it as a trash dumping ground. The only time it looks decent is when it is covered with four feet of snow. Can't anything be done about cleaning this up to help make Grosse Pointe "clean and beautiful" or to help clean-up, just so many posters and newspaper articles?

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Children of varying ages will be entertained by a new book, "The Adventures of Rinaldo." Its author is known to the book world as Judith Holt, but to her friends and neighbors in Grosse Pointe she is Mrs. Haldean Finney. Rinaldo is a knight whose adventures rival those of Don Quixote. He is chivalrous and brave, but getting a little weary of battle and the like. He would like to settle down in a castle of his own. When he wins a fair lady, the blue-eyed Daffodil, he is encouraged to continue his ventures and save some money to average the wicked Grumms, who holds the valiant Captain Gorchy captive. He joins in a tourney, dispirited the Black Knight of Spain, and acquires three stalwarts, Tom, Dick and Harry to serve as his squire. And so his adventures go. It is a delightful fantasy, with a touch of the comic, which makes it a good choice for reading aloud. The illustration is charming and captures the humor and whimsy of the telling. On the book jacket, it mentions that the story first told to the author's own children, was in great demand among her grandchildren. And they were wide spread across the country, Rinaldo was put on paper. Mrs. Finney tells with a chuckle that at the time the book was written down, she had one "scattered" grandchild. She now has two, and she hopes that the story will bring enjoyment to her grandchildren, and to other boys and girls as well. The tale, says Mrs. Finney, was told to entertain her own children, and the telling went on for years. Each child could whisper in her ear one word, representing a person or object which should appear in the story. The three whispered words were "witch," "knight" and "knave." As the story unfolded, there would be a bit of humor from each child as his special word appeared in the story. These evenings, says the Author of many successful books for adults, Mrs. Finney's first contribution to children's literature will be welcomed by many readers. *What DOES go on at your library? Drama—plenty of it—every hour of the day. Our prize play for the week is "Tulip Time at the Library." The piece is directed by John Elder at the front of the library. *The Time: A sunny Saturday afternoon. Characters: One small, tear-stained boy—a first grader. Clutched in his little hot hands are two brightly colored tulips, with inch-long stems. They bear a startling resemblance to those carefully tended by John Elder at the front of the library. One small blond girl, also in first grade, who obviously will grow up to be a woman with a purpose. She propele her boy friend, straight to the court formal, determined to see justice done. The benevolent judge, who Miss Jacqueline Hosking, the children's librarian. She questions the small culprit kindly, and she looks at the boy and girl as well. Suddenly the plaintiff throws his arm around the judge's neck... "Please Miss Jackie, I only wanted to make my friend see that I was innocent. Ingratitude, thy name is woman." Cool Me, Madam

By Fred Kops, R. P. Old women once held curative powers—or so folks believed. Their wrinkled hands laid on feverish brows were thought to cool the fever. Now in this golden era of modern medicine, we have more reliable methods of reducing temperatures. But remember, a temperature is only a symptom... not an illness in itself. Fevers have many causes... some of them very serious. So, sensible. When you or a member of your family is ill, let your doctor do the diagnosing. The medication is necessary, let us fill his prescription promptly and accurately. This is the latest of a series of articles on the art of curing in this paper each week.

Many Voting Registration Records Called 'Incomplete'

A recent routine inspection by an official from the State Secretary of State Office, disclosed that several hundred persons in the Pointe have voted during elections, although their registration records are not "complete." The incompleteness of the records is merely a technicality, and dates back to the days when all of the Pointes were part of Grosse Pointe Township. There is no question regarding the legality of the votes cast over the years, it was pointed out. The state official, in checking over the voting registration records, discovered that many of the registering clerks never wrote their signatures, attesting to the fact that the clerks had not signed. Instead these clerks used signature stamps.

According to State law, city clerks and other officials designated persons must write their signatures, not stamp them, to make the recording official. The registration records in the City, it was disclosed by City Clerk Norbert Neff, are up-to-date, and have been since the community incorporated as a city in 1934. The City was the first Pointe to incorporate, the city clerk said, and all persons registered in the City have been taken care of since the incorporation date.

In the Park, City Clerk Charles Hays stated that a good many of the records were found to bear the stamp signature of the registering clerk, but most of these records have been brought up to date, and the rest will be taken care of in the near future.

Farms City Clerk Dawson Nancy disclosed that form letters have been sent out to all persons whose records show that they have been rubber stamped. These persons have been asked to come to the City Hall, at their convenience, and re-register in the presence of one authorized to do the registering. This will only take a few moments, he said.

Stores Village Superintendent Mrs. Leona Liddle, Woods City Clerk, stated that the State official instructed her to bring the registration records up to date, which, she said, will be done as soon as possible. She said that some of the city records have no signatures, and at the time the registrations were taken, the registering clerk typed in his name.

All the city clerks asked the citizens to be cooperative and when requested to re-register to do so. They all pointed out, again, that all ballots cast by these people in past elections are valid.
