A TWO PERCENT income tax, to be levied after exemptions equal to the Federal allowance, is the latest proposal by the State Taxation Committee to be sent to the House. Chairman of the committee Rollo G. Conlin (R. Tipton) said that the program would produce 142 million dollars of new revenue the first of the year. It is, by his description, a "middle of the road compromise." It would sufficiently balance the budget and begin to reduce the growing State debt. Corporations would be taxed 5 percent and financial institutions, 7 percent.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA COAST, above Charleston, was hit last night by tropical storm Cindy, with gusts of 60 and 70 miles an hour striking Bull Bay. Charleston residents, who left their homes for fear of huge waves and tides, were told that it was safe to return home early this morning. The weather bureau said that Cindy was quieting down and would not be classed a severe hurricane.

THE THREAT OF A STEEL STRIKE next week loomed larger, yesterday, when President Eisenhower said that he plans no further intervention to avert the once delayed strike. He urged that both sides keep talking. Originally the strike was set for June 30, but a two week postponement was agreed upon. More talks by the negotiators for the steel mills and 500,000 workers are scheduled for Thursday.

THREE MEN HELD UP a westside branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., escaping with $2,027, yesterday. It took them but three minutes to take the money from the open tellers' cages, dump it into a paper bag and get away in a stolen car. An alert clerk tripped a back room burglar alarm, setting two motion picture cameras in action, recording the entire robbery. Exactly how much help the films will give is questionable, according to police.

THREE SWISS GUIDES, in a daring effort, recovered the body of a mountain climber who had been hanging for two years by a rope on the north wall of the Eiger Mountain. Stephano Longhi, of Lecco, Italy, died from exhaustion and exposure on Aug. 12, 1957.

"I could not stand the sight of the body dangling there every time I looked toward the Eiger," said Adolf Juvan, the guide who volunteered to be lowered to the body. Yesterday, he and two others, Oscar and Alfred Gertsch, cut Longhi's body from the nylon rope and then, with the cable that lowered them and a winch, they inched their way back to the top with the body.

IN HIS FIRST NEWS conference since becoming Secretary of State, Christian Herter said yesterday that there is a possibility of a temporary solution to the Berlin crisis. The Russians must lift their 18 month deadline for the Allies to withdraw from the city, said Herter.

He said that there was an indication of such a possibility in a recent statement by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

A BRUSH FIRE SPREAD through Laurel Canyon, near Hollywood, late Friday, destroying twenty houses in the movie colony community. Hundreds of residents fled as the fire, erupting like a volcano, sent smoke 4,000 in the air. Firemen and volunteers fought the blaze until late last night and a 100 degree temperature didn't help the situation.

"This is the worst fire disaster we've had in the 27 years I've been on the force," said a fire official. The Los Angeles Fire Department called it a

Fireworks Show Seen By 30,000

Annual Display Staged by Kiwanis Club to Help Children, Best Ever

Complete ticket returns have not been tabulated for the giant Fourth of July fireworks display at the Parcels Junior High playground by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, but to date, more than $3,200 has been realized from the show. Woods Public Safety Director, Vern C. Bailey, called the display the most successful since the organization began this type of entertainment 17 years ago. He is the current president of the club.

Kiwanian Arnold Disting of 2008 Lennon, shot off the fireworks, which were viewed by approximately 18,000 persons within the playground and another 12,000 spectators from sidewalks and passing cars, according to Bailey.

Eleven Win Prizes

Eleven persons were winners in a drawing held after the display, with the first prize, a TV set, going to Ruby Dias of 1383 Anita.

The second prize, a $50 gift certificate, was awarded to Helen Widlaski of 910 Anita. Transistor radios were won by Harry Pickard of 1981 Kenmore, Richard Studer of 2073 Beaufait, Ralph Chapman of 851 S. Renaud, and Tom Macerri of 1442 Broadstone.

Two Thugs Beat and Rob Woods Resident of $230

A Woods resident was beaten and robbed of a considerable sum of money on Friday, July 3, and left tied hand and foot in a woods in East Detroit, according to information given to Farms police.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said the victim, August J. Mayer, 53, of 2064 Anita, told him that he lost $230 to two thugs, who got into his car at Mack and Moross, Farms side, and warned they would shoot him if he did not remain quiet. No gun was shown.

Mayer told the detectives that he was driving east on Mack at about 11:30 p.m. and had stopped for a red light at the Mack-Moross intersection, when two white men got into the car from the right hand

'Mackinac Fever' Season Nearing Peak as Sailors Exhibit Familiar Symptoms

Disease Started 55 Years Ago When Chicago Yachtsmen Made Decision Duplicated by Detroiters Two Decades Later

By Fred Runnells
News Sports Editor

We are approaching the peak of the season for "Mackinac Fever", the disease known only to sailors of the Great Lakes and the occasional visiting tar.

There is no known vaccine to cure the "fever" and it runs rampant around the water and especially in the yacht clubs. Sailors are the only known carriers. Some old sailors have thought they found a cure by scurrying off to a golf course. But they will admit they still have traces of the disease and it bothers them most around the middle of July.

Disease 55 Years Old
The world of science still is puzzled after 55 years. That

Last Concert Of Festival Wednesday

Quartet of Singers and Chamber Orchestra to Be Augmented by Church-Carlson

A quartet of outstanding Detroit singers and a Chamber orchestra will provide an evening of great vocal music at the final concert of the Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival next Wednesday evening, July 22.

The program will be held, as usual, in the Fountain Court of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road at 8:15 o'clock.

The concert will open with a performance of Bach's delightful secular work, the Coffee Cantata, which Bach wrote for the private amusement of his family and friends at home.

Shirley Zaft, soprano, Thomas Gamble, tenor, and Hugo Edberg, bass, will perform this work in English so that the audience will be able to enjoy fully the humor with which it was composed. Accompanying the singers will be a chamber orchestra under the direction of Paul Olefsky, who is musical director of the entire festival series.

Well known Detroit contralto, Shirley Love, will present the short but moving Bach Cantata No. 53, accompanied by the chamber orchestra and the Carillons of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church next door to the War Memorial center. Members of the orchestra are: Gordon Staples and Edouard Kesner, violins, David Ireland, viola, Douglas Marsh, cello, John Mathews, double bass, Irvin Gilman, flute and Richard Roekelein, harpsichord.

Exciting Finish

An exciting close and promise of things to come in future festivals will be provided with the final work on this program. All four singers will be joined by the strings of the Chamber orchestra in a performance of Brahms' Liebeslieder Waltz, Opus 52, for vocal quartet and strings. This program has been planned as a step toward the production of more elaborate presentations — small operas, or operas in concert — in future summer festival programs.

Water Pumping Records Made As Area Stays Dry

Farms Pumping Station Chalks Up New Mark in Supplying Wants of That Municipality And City of Grosse Pointe

Water consumption records were shattered last month when the Farms Filtration and Pumping Plant, Moross and Lake Shore roads, poured out millions of gallons of water to users in the Farms and City, as an unusually dry spell gripped the area.

Farms City Manager Sidney DeBoer said that more than 176,000,000 gallons of water were pumped to consumers, the highest number of any month in the history of the plant.

Day Records Set
Another record, pumpage for one day, was also shattered on Friday, June 10, which saw 8,700,000 gallons poured into the mains for the hot and thirsty, populace and dry lawns.

The previous high was 8,600,000 gallons on August 2, 1957; and the second highest, 8,200,000 gallons on June 20 of this year which now takes third place.

The first 13 days of this month, Mr. DeBoer said, 82,000,000 gallons of water were pumped, as compared to 45,000,000 gallons for the same period last year.

The city manager said that the figure for this month appears to be running ahead of June, this year, and if the drought and lack of precipitation continue, last month's record might be beaten by July 31.

During the entire month of June, 1957, consumers used 115,000,000 gallons of water, and during the entire month of July 1958, the number was 138,000,000.

Beats August Record

Last month's pumpage exceeds that of the previous record of the entire month of August 1958, which showed 164,000,000 gallons.

The highest number of gallons pumped last month was on June 29, amounting to 8,600,000, equaling that of August 2 last year.

Mr. DeBoer said that if the citizens of the Farms and the City, the latter a customer of the Farms, continue to use a reasonable amount of water during the dry spell, restrictions may still not be necessary. However, if the supply cannot meet the demand, then restrictions will be enforced.

Project Completed

The modernization of the water intake well at Moross and Lake Shore, of which Highland Park owns 7/8ths and the Farms, the other eighth, was scheduled to have been completed yesterday, July 15. The project was undertaken solely by Highland Park at a cost of $16,000.

The housing has been made to look like a garage, and new automatic revolving screens, to sift out foreign matter from the lake water, have been installed.

Both Highland Park and the Farms pump from this well, with the latter community having mains stretching 11 miles to feed water to its local consumers. The housing was originally constructed in 1920.

Pointe Police Seek Thief After Series of Robberies

A burglar broke into the home of the Winning S. Pendergast, 277 Kerby road, and took several items of jewelry of undetermined value and a small sum of money.

Entrance into the house was gained by breaking the glass of the door at the rear of the building, according to Farms Det. Sgt. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem.

The break-in was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Pendergast, after several days' absence from home. They told the police officers that they left home on June 30, and returned on Tuesday, July 7, at about 10:30 a.m. and found the house had been ransacked.

Seven new donors added $139.36 to the slowly swelling War Memorial Center Fund Drive, making the total contributed to date, $39,782.14, according to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

This leaves the drive $217.86 short of the $40,000 needed to see the Center through the year's activities.

The Association disclosed that the number of donors in this year's drive totaled 3,007, as compared to 2,887, who contributed $39,891, for the same time last year. This drive included $2,000 contributed by the Joy Estate, during the latter part of the 1958 drive.

Woods Police Tag 2 Drivers

Two motorists were ticketed by Woods police on Saturday, July 11, in separate accidents.

One driver fell asleep at the wheel, and the other blamed a distraction.

Arthur A. Hill, 48, of 1923 Spruce, Detroit, was going east of South Oxford, according to police, and fell asleep. His car veered to the north side of the street and rammed into a tree in front of number 700. He was knocked unconscious.

He was transported to St. John Hospital, where it was found he had chest and arm and leg injuries.

Mary M. Krublock, 39, of 1890 Oxford, told police she was driving south on Linville, when she became distracted, but did not give the cause of the distraction. She ran into the front fender of a car parked in front of 19258 Linville, belonging to Charles Strehler of that address.

She suffered bruised knees, but refused medical attention. Both drivers were given tickets for not having their cars under control and causing accidents.

The man is scheduled to appear in court on September 12, and the woman, on Saturday, July 25.

Have Studied Situation

"For some time we have observed the effects of garbage disposals on the sewage system," he said. "During the past spring months we have had very little sewer trouble, and few storms having extremely high volume run-off into our combination sewers.

"We do have some sewers that will necessitate additional maintenance procedures, if we have disposals in all households. The extent of the additional maintenance and cleaning cannot be predicted now."

The areas he is most concerned about, he said, are the following:

Cut in Costs, Cleaner City Anticipated

City Attorney Instructed to Draft Ordinance to Be Studied by Council

A garbage grinder and incinerator ordinance, patterned after those of the Farms and the Woods, was proposed at a regular meeting of the Park council on Monday, July 13.

City Attorney Pierre Heffler was instructed to draft such an ordinance and present it to the council at a future meeting for study, after which the city body will consider a possible public hearing on the matter.

The purpose of the measure, said City Manager Robert A. Stone, is to try to make the Park a cleaner and healthier community in which to live.

Woods Led Parade

The Woods was the first to enact a grinder-incinerator law about three or four years ago, making it compulsory to have either a grinder or an incinerator in each household. New homes or stores must have either unit installed.

Only five homes and three stores do not have units because of proven hardship, and these individuals must pay to have their garbage hauled away. No tax monies are now being expended for this program.

Several months ago, the Farms passed a similar ordinance, but gave home owners and store proprietors until July 1, 1960, to comply with the provisions of the law.

Cost Facts Revealed
In a report recommending the passage of a grinder-incinerator law, Mr. Stone disclosed to the council the following information:

The Park has a population of approximately 15,800 persons, or 6,100 household units, with about 2,800 homes not having mechanical garbage eliminators or incinerators.

Garbage collection service in the city costs $9.72 a household unit a year, with 132 man hours and one piece of equipment required each week for the collection.

"Garbage and trash is disposed of by sanitary land fill method at the dump located on Quinn road in Clinton Township," Mr. Stone said. "It is operated jointly by the Park, Farms and City, with the Township also using the facility. We are presently trying to develop an authority that will include the Township as a fourth partner."

Installation Costs
He said the average cost of installing a disposal unit is about $45, with $15 extra if it is to be installed in an old style sink because the drain hole must be enlarged.

The average cost of a smokeless-odorless gas type incinerator is about $200, but in some homes this will create somewhat of a problem because of inadequate space and because adequate flue space is required. However, this type of unit would benefit the city more, since it will not only dispose of garbage, but also materials that make the bulk of trash collections.

Mr. Stone said the city is fortunate in having a combined storm and sanitary sewer system, making flushing possible during rainstorms, which is beneficial provided the storm water flow is not too severe.

Park Proposes Garbage Disposal Law

Barrington, west, between Essex and Korte, 31 homes, nine without disposals. The sewer breaks both ways in the middle of the block and is very flat.

Harcourt, east and west, from Essex to Windmill Pointe drive, 172 homes, 84 without units, flat sewer condition. The addition of four more units would make no difference.

Trombley, west, from Essex to Windmill Pointe drive, 27 homes, 11 without units, flat sewer condition.

Trombley, east, from Essex to Windmill Pointe drive, 54 homes, 21 without disposals, flat sewer condition; and Grand Marais, from Essex to the lake, 21 homes, five without units, flat sewer condition.

Maryland to Beaconsfield from Kercheval to Jefferson. This area is primarily Residence B with two or more units in each building. The sewers are believed to be satisfactory. The private service from the residence to the sewer is supposedly very flat. This is due to the shallow elevation of the former sewer that drained into Fox Creek, which the Park corrected a number of years ago.

Detroit Won't Object

Mr. Stone pointed out that Detroit treats the Park's combined sewage, and does not have any objections to additional garbage disposals.

He said he is confident that the Park sewer system is capable of handling city-wide household garbage, but it will require considerable additional sewer maintenance. A relief sewer on Charlevoix, between Whittier and Balfour, should be provided as soon as possible.

He cited the following advantages and disadvantages of a compulsory garbage disposal ordinance:

Advantages — A cleaner, healthier city without garbage cans in the rear yards and alleys, some of which are presently attracting flies and rats; savings to the city in garbage pickups; compliance with Clinton Township's no garbage dumping ordinance; higher standard of living in homes; and more equal service to those now having garbage disposals.

Some Disadvantages

Disadvantages — Additional sewer maintenance; possibility of overloading of electrical and plumbing systems in older homes, especially in Residence B district; the ordinance will not eliminate all garbage, such as that from commercial establishments and from homes where the appliance is out of order.

Mr. Stone advocated that a public hearing be held after the city attorney drafted the proposed ordinance, and presented it to the council for study. Many problems will undoubtedly be brought out at such a meeting, he added.

Largest Crowd Ever

Director Bailey said the display lasted for about an hour and 15 minutes, and that the estimated 30,000 was the largest crowd ever to view a display in the Woods.

The proceeds from the show will be used to operate and maintain two buses, donated to the city by the club, which are used to transport children to and from the Woods lake-front park; for support of Little League, scholarships, medical and dental care for handicapped and indigent children, scouting, clothing and assisting needy families.

After he had freed himself, Mayer said, he was picked up by a passing milkman, who took him to the East Detroit police station, where he told his story. The East Detroit authorities notified Farms police of the incident.

The only description Mayer was able to give of his assailants, Sgt. Van Tiem said, was that one was five feet 10 inches tall, about 175 pounds, light brown hair, and wearing dark slacks and a dark sport shirt; his companion, about six feet, dark complexion, with long dark hair combed straight back.

Mayer was taken to Detroit Police Headquarters, downtown, where he viewed a large number of mug shots, Sgt. Van Tiem said, but was not able to come up with any positive identification.

The officer said investigation of the case is still pending.

Mackinac

To Get First Relief

Chicago yachtsmen will get relief after next Saturday, July 18, when they take off for Mackinac. Some will be cured for another year, but others will need another shot and will get it from Dr. Bruce Conlan, RC, on Saturday, July 25, in the Bayview-Mackinac race. Usually a double shot does the trick. As a matter of fact the double dose fires up many of the sailors to a point that they feel they must have a quiet cruise in Georgian Bay to recover.

A couple of local sailors, Clarence Baker and Jerry Clements, just couldn't stand the "fever" any longer and took their sloop "Last Straw" around to Chicago for the first race. And there were enough local guys, like Johnny Trost, Bill Noah and Toot Gmeiner, who felt they too needed a "fever" shot from Dr. Tony Koeft, RC, in Chicago, and they will fly over to get it next Saturday.

Owner of Stolen Car Nabs Thief

Edward M. Muldoon of 8900 E. Jefferson, discovered his car was missing from the lot of the Lochmoor Club on Saturday, July 4, but he did not wait around for the police to find it. He caught one of the thieves in a little more than an hour after the car was taken.

Muldoon told Farms police that he missed his car at about 10 p.m. and he and a friend, Lon Honell of 3933 Canton, Detroit, cruised around the area in Honell's car, looking for the stolen vehicle.

While the two men were driving west on Lake Shore, Muldoon spotted his car, with two boys in it, also headed west, and gave chase. This was at about 11:11 p.m.

The boys were forced over to the curb in front of 20 Harbor Hill. Muldoon and Honell apprehended one of the boys, a 15-year-old, but the other escaped on foot.

Farms police were called, and the juvenile was taken to the station and later turned over to Woods authorities.

Woods police, after talking to the arrested youth, went to the home of James F. O'Sullivan, 17, of 5227 Coplin, Detroit, and arrested him and took him to the Woods station where O'Sullivan was held for investigation of car theft.

Woods authorities said they will seek warrants against the boys charging them with car theft.

Farms Loses Tax Hassle After Long Fight

Michigan's Statute of Limitation cancelled a personal property tax the Farms has been trying to collect since 1953, it was brought out at a council meeting on Monday, July 6.

A decree was given in the Wayne County Circuit Court on June 22, which erased a tax of $74.50 against Truman H. Newberry, II, formerly of 233 Merriweather, and now of St. Davids, Pa., according to City Attorney George McKean. In 1953, the Farms sought to collect that amount from Newberry, who it was said, denied it was owed. After a period of two years, the matter was turned over to county authorities.

Legal hassling dragged on until the statute of limitations brought proceedings to a halt. At Monday night's meeting, the council voted to cancel the tax.

The spell of opening night anxiety and anticipation was cast over both audience and performers as they sipped lemonade and munched popcorn to an overture of various songs from "South Pacific."

Then, at 8 o'clock, a small figure appeared in front of the tri-colored curtain (pink, green and white sheets) and a hush fell upon the waiting audience. The small figure in a loud and clear voice, announced that there would be a slight delay. A script was lost.

But the delinquent script did not elude them for long and within five minutes, the curtains parted to reveal the set, a small country kitchen, somewhere in the Great Middle West. The one "people play" of the evening, "Persons Are People" (take-off on Edward R. Murrow's Person to Person) had begun.

The audience laughed enthusiastically, particularly one small girl in the front row, who obviously got her nickel's worth, during the entire performance.

Between plays, comments were heard throughout the crowd and each parent there was beaming and congratulating all the other parents. Then the actors were ready again and Act II, the puppet show, began. Characters from "The Little Circus Donkey," "Hansel and Gretel" and "Epanamandus" danced across the small puppet stage and again the audience laughed and applauded in appreciation.

For the last act of the evening, pixie-faced Susie Spinks sang Kookabera and then Lynn Bergman, attired in a middle blouse, bermuda shorts and a sailor cap, pantomimed "Honey-bun" from "South Pacific," assisted, with appropriate costume and motions, by Bobby Gonas.

Then it was all over but the cheering. More than three weeks of hard work on the part of 12 talented and imaginative youngsters was only a memory. But what a memory! Bobby Gonas (who got the group together), Lynn and Mike Cooper, Marybeth Longe, Susie Spinks, Eleanor and Art Waters, Lynn Bergman, Becky Waggoner, Nancy Snell, Jim Bays and Joy Chandler (in

Ike Gives Sendoff to JRC Members

"CHIP" MUNGER, directly behind President Eisenhower, 211 Lakeview, Grosse Pointe University School Junior, has been in Washington D.C. attending an orientation class preparatory to going, with 13 other American Junior Red Cross members, on a study tour of Europe.

The group, after a three-day period studying the United Nations in New York, will fly to Europe. It will divide into two units, one going to England and Ireland, the other to the Netherlands and Luxembourg to study Red Cross programs and visit the national Red Cross societies.

They will meet at Chiemsee, Germany, and attend the American Junior Red Cross Leadership Training Center where students in the American military dependents' schools in Europe assemble every summer to learn more about Red Cross.

Later the group will go to Geneva, Switzerland, home of international Red Cross operations and organizations, visit the French and Italian Red Cross headquarters, stop at American military installations in Europe to have a first hand glimpse of Red Cross working with the military.

When the group returns in September, the members will spend several days in Washington, D.C., reviewing and evaluating their experiences and preparing reports which will be given to local chapters, Junior Red Cross meetings, and to organizations in their home communities.

For the past several years president of the Wayne County Council of Junior Red Cross, composed of representatives of junior and senior high schools where JRC carries on a program offering students and opportunities for service in the community and around the world.

Last summer he attended the JRC Area Leadership Training Center at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. He has participated in planning and directing the Detroit Leadership Training Center held annually in September, has been president of JRC in the upper grades of GPUS and represents it on the Council.

Other school activities in which he participates are the band, service and dramatic clubs, treasurer of the Camera Club. He has been assistant editor of the school's paper, Pariscript, and co-manager of the football team.

With the admonition "work hard," President Eisenhower at the White House today tells 14 Europe-bound Junior Red Cross members good-bye as they start a six-week study visit to foreign Red Cross societies. "You get the most fun out of things requiring you to do the most work," the President said. "What you work hard to attain you appreciate the most." Grounded Driver Does It Again

Gary E. Spencer of 22825 East Detroit, had just a little more than two weeks before the return of his driver's license, when he was arrested by Shores police while driving on Lake Shore road — and speeding, too.

He was apprehended by Patrolmen Gordon Swartz and Chester Painter, who in their report, stated they were cruising north on Lake Shores on Friday, July 10, at 12:30 a.m., observed Spencer driving in the same direction at a high rate of speed, taking the curve near the Ford Estate without even slowing down.

The officers gave chase and stopped the motorist at Jefferson and Edsel Ford court in St. Clair Shores. When asked for his operator's license, Spencer produced a permit issued to him last January, claiming he had left his regular license at home.

Spencer was taken to the Shores station, where on further questioning, he admitted that his license had been revoked by Shores Judge Victor DeBaeke on July 26, 1958, who convicted Spencer of leaving the scene of a property damage accident and driving with a defaced license.

The motorist was issued a ticket for driving while his license was revoked. He posted a bond of $150 and his court appearance date is scheduled for Monday, July 20.

Resolutions to reform come from those who have been detained.

Grosse Pointe mermaids and mermen have 9 days remaining to train for the Third Annual Grosse Pointe Farms Two-Mile Swim.

Michigan Has Best Chance For Top Teen-Age Drivers

Michigan has the best chance of any state of putting first-rate teen-age drivers on our streets and highways.

This opinion was expressed by driver education teachers discussing recent national recommendations that states raise the minimum age for driver's licenses.

The teachers' comments were obtained as part of a series of reports on current traffic safety problems presented by the Michigan State University Highway Traffic Safety Center.

Those interviewed were Stuart Willett, Central high school, Flint, and Francis Kenel, Sexton high school, Lansing. Conducting the interview was Richard W. Bishop, assistant professor, department of teacher education and the Highway Traffic Safety Center.

Under discussion were sections of the newly published reports of a three-year study of highway accidents by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

In considering the age of drivers, the study points out that drivers under 20 have the highest accident involvement rate—250 per cent higher than the average for all drivers.

The study continues, "Considering the much higher accident rates of younger drivers, states should consider raising the minimum age for driving licenses."

Several states currently have bills before their legislatures to do this.

The driver education teachers interviewed did not feel that raising the minimum age for driving licenses would accomplish any good in Michigan.

"I want to pitch right in and take up the cudgels for the teen-age driver," Willett said. "I feel that too much emphasis is placed on age and not enough on mental maturity."

Willett contended that 15, 16 and 17 year olds can be, and most are, good drivers when they have the proper education. Many older drivers, most of whom have had no driver education, are much poorer drivers.

The driver education teachers' stand was based on the fact that Michigan's beginning teen-age drivers now have an advantage not available in many states—Michigan's comprehensive driver education program in the schools.

In 1958, Michigan ranked among the top states in both the per cent of schools offering driver education and in the per cent of students taking the course. According to Michigan's Department of Public Instruction, 225,000 young drivers have been trained since 1958.

Under the Michigan law, 16 and 17 year olds obtain a driver's license if they've successfully completed a driver education course and pass the license examination. Otherwise they must wait until they are 18 before applying for a driver's license.

Michigan's law is unique. It is the only state with such requirements covering both class-room and practice driving work in the high schools.

The panelists pointed out that a properly conducted driver education course does much more than just teach the student how to start, steer and stop an automobile.

A good driver education course incorporates the teaching of beginning and advanced driving skills, including the know-how of getting out of emergency situations on the highway; the teaching of knowledge concerning natural and man-made traffic laws; and the development of proper driving attitudes.

"A good attitude," they agreed, "means that the student will use the knowledge and skill he has acquired safely and sanely."

As evidence that driver education is reaching the teenager and helping with his problems, Kenel cited last month's record in Ingham county.

During a one week period of that month, no citations for traffic violations were given to teen-age drivers. During the preceding week, only three teen-age drivers were cited for violations.

In addition to teaching driver education at Sexton high school, Kenel also conducts the Ingham County Traffic Safety School. Repeat violators are assigned to this school by the courts as part of their sentence.

"I see a very definite change in those that attend the county traffic school," Kenel observed. "The teen-agers who have committed traffic violations and are assigned to attend the school, take pride in the fact they have committed no further violations as they come to understand the importance of and develop better attitudes."

Willett emphasized the fact that teen-agers do not want to wait until they're 18 to obtain driver's license. They all sign up when they become eligible before their 16th birthday.

Accordingly, Michigan's high school driver education teachers have the opportunity to work with youngsters who otherwise might become bad drivers because of personal problems or irresponsible attitudes.

"We get problem boys and girls in the driver education course," Willett said. "But we're not throwing up our hands. We try to find out what is causing them to be bad drivers to have bad attitudes. Then we try to give them personal help, or see that they get proper counseling to help them overcome the basic problems leading to bad driving."

Willett cited the example of one boy from his driver education class in Flint. The boy was on the point of flunking out of school when he entered Willett's driver education class.

Because of the boy's interest in automobiles and in obtaining his driver's license, Willett was able to work closely with the student and help him understand his problems. The boy was not only able to complete the course successfully but to improve in his other studies so that he continued on and was graduated from high school.

"We're convinced that, through driver education, we can help make Michigan's teen-age drivers the best in the country," Willett summarized. "More than that, we're convinced that by helping problem students overcome behavioral and personality difficulties, we can also help develop better citizens in every way."

Scout Reporter Attends Roundup

This is the first news letter received from Susan Tillitson, Grosse Pointe patrol reporter for the 1959 Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Colorado Springs, Colo July 8, 1959
 All of us of the Detroit-area scouting group assembled at the Michigan Central Railroad Station at 8 a. m. on June 30. Our own patrol from the Grosse Pointe area includes: Frances Vaughan, Kathy, Vestal, Midge Head, Pat Elkins, Jan Wehrung, Evie Hoerauf, Sue Carl (our patrol leader), and myself, Sue Tillitson.

We arrived in Colorado Springs by train on July 1, happy but a little tired and ruffled from the trip. At the Springs we were greeted by many townfolks and by the Band of the new United States Air Force Academy.

After two days of jetting down in camp we were ready for the official opening of the 1959 Girl Scout Roundup. We are located just several miles distant from Colorado Springs and Pike's Peak's 14,110 foot towers above us ten miles away. The entire encampment covers about 1,200 acres and includes such things as: the shopping center, the hospital, many recording tents for radio correspondents, many post offices, commissaries and, last but not least, the lost and found.

The food they have given us has proved to be very appetizing and filling. Steak, chicken and fishsticks are examples of the good main dishes that we have had for dinner. Every evening we have snacks which include things like watermelon, kool-aid, and cookies, and fresh green grapes.

Tonight, after we had the flag lowering ceremony, our troop (made up of four patrols), collected in our kitchen tent, had refreshments, and sang for the remaining part of the evening. We went to bed at 10:30 when Taps was played.

50 Millionth Ford Adds Another Red Letter Day

Production of the 50 millionth Ford Motor Company vehicle in the Dearborn assembly plant added April 29, 1959, to a long list of red-letter days in Rouge plant history.

Since the property for the Rouge plant was acquired by Henry Ford in July, 1915, the procession of milestones has lengthened to impressive proportions. In war and in peace, the Rouge has contributed to modern American industrial achievements.

Always, it has been a source of amazement to millions of visitors from throughout the world. Just as the Rouge has been a "must" to tourists visiting Detroit, so too has it been a magnet to celebrities—kings and queens, political, industrial and entertainment personalities. The visit of each world-famous or nationally prominent figure has been a day to be remembered in Rouge history.

And always, this giant complex has been the heart of Ford Motor Company, the symbol of the full-blown fulfillment of one man's dream.

In April, 1917, initial construction at the Rouge was begun. On July 11, 1918, its first manufactured product was completed; not an automobile, strangely, but an Eagle boat.

World War I had taken the Rouge into war production, just as World War II would divert its operations later. With the end of the war, Henry Ford proceeded with the building of his mechanical marvel that eventually would embrace foundries, blast furnaces, a boat slip, a railroad, and plants to make steel, glass, engines, frames and myriad other parts.

Yet it was not until October 27, 1927, that automobile assembly operations were begun. On that date a Model A Ford became the first car to emerge from the assembly line of the Dearborn assembly plant.

Later, the company's 20 millionth Ford would roll off that same line on April 13, 1931. On March 9, 1932, the first Ford V-8 came off the line. The Mercury automobile came into being there on October 8, 1938. And the 25 millionth Ford was turned out January 18, 1937.

 Soon thereafter the Rouge turned its massive power to supplying the American arsenal for World War II. Pratt & Whitney engines were the foremost product of the Rouge at the time, and employment hit its peak in September, 1943, when 100,296 persons worked there. On January 1, 1946, civilian truck production resumed.

Through all of its 42 years, the Rouge calendar has maintained a guest list that reads like an international who's-who.

Presidents Herbert Hoover and Harry S. Truman, the latter when he headed a Senate investigating committee during World War II, are prominent on the list of distinguished visitors. Other Rouge "tourists" included Thomas A. Edison, Harvey Firestone, Herbert Bayard Swope, Dale Carnegie, Bernard McFadden, Helen Keller and Eve Curie.

From the entertainment world came Fritz Kreisler, Will Rogers, Charlie Chaplin, Joe E. Brown, Amos and Andy (Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll), Marian Anderson, Raymond Massey, Clark Gable, Mickey Rooney and many others.

 Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb, baseball stars, were among the guests. There are various ways of wasting time—looking for a soft job is one of them.

Pointer Takes Part In Training Program

Harold G. Bay, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Bay, Sr., of 1818 N. Renaud, Grosse Pointe Woods, is among eight hand-picked University of Michigan students participating in the Campbell-Ewald's Summer training program.

Bay, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and a senior at the University of Michigan, is assigned to the agency copy department. The two-month program, inaugurated two years ago, is designed to provide students with practical training in advertising and at the same time develop a new talent source of advertising personnel.

Bay, 21, who was a member of the National Honor Society at Grosse Pointe High School, plans to continue in the advertising profession.

Two University of Michigan professors are among 16 American educators currently touring the Federal Republic of Germany as guests of the German Government.
 Research grants totaling $124,712.94 have been awarded by the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies to 58 faculty members of The University of Michigan.

Quick care can make stain removal easier, remind clothing specialists at Michigan State University. Immediate laundering of washable cottons—that is, washing while the stain is still fresh and moist—may prove just as effective as special treatment for removing coffee, tomato juice, soft drink and chocolate.

Investment Pays Off

The wisdom of the investment of additional hundreds of thousands of dollars in expansion of the Pointe's water supply system several years ago, has been proven by the protracted spell of dry weather which the area has experienced this year.

Rainfall has been far below average and the great preponderance of sunny days has kept hoses and sprinkling systems working overtime. The story on page one of this issue gives figures on the records being set at the Farms pumping station which supplies both that city and the City of Grosse Pointe with water.

Three years ago both the Farms and City completed a program of increasing the size of water mains, installing auxiliary lines and enlarging the size of the intake which draws in the water from the lake.

Prior to this improvement, the offices of both cities had been plagued with complaints about low water pressure during dry periods. Many homes reported they were unable to get any water on the second floor.

Despite the unusually dry period which the Pointe has been experiencing it has not yet become necessary to order any restriction in water use this year. Mondays and Tuesdays are the days of highest water consumption because these are normal wash days for the average family.

The enlarged water mains allow a considerable reserve to be stored up in them during the night. This pressure gradually decreases during the day when consumption is heavy.

The city officials who promoted the program for expansion of the system, and the residents who approved the funds for paying for the project are both to be congratulated. It has proven to be an investment which has paid off remarkable dividends in far greater convenience and comfort, to say nothing of greener lawns and gardens and increased fire protection.

Tossed from Car by Crash Impact

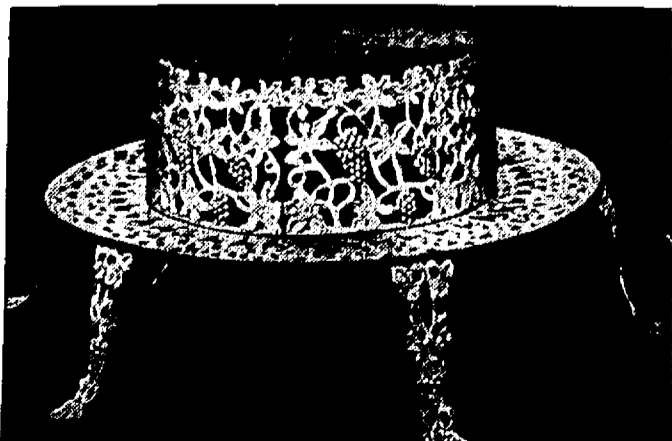

Eunice Hardiman, 42, of 2140 Cody, Detroit, suffered extensive injuries on Wednesday, July 8, when she was thrown from her car after hitting another vehicle. She had failed to stop for a stop street, Woods police charged.

The impact threw the woman from her car onto the pavement. She was taken to Saratoga Hospital by police ambulance, where she was treated for a back injury, and injuries of the right hip, ankle and shoulder.

Witnesses said Mrs. Hardiman went through the stop street without slowing down, and police, on investigating, said her brakes were defective.

Mrs. Hardiman was given a ticket for failing to stop for a stop sign and causing an accident.

Young Englishman Sees U.S. On Station Wagon Cavalcade

Peter New is a 21-year-old Englishman who is driving one of the station wagons on a current cavalcade to west coast and back. These tours, originated by Chet Sampson, have been popular for years with young Pointers. Newman applied for a driving position as an ideal way to see more of America.

You would have thought that two alarm clocks would have been sufficient to waken even a limey from his slumber—but no! The writer arrived 20 minutes late at Grosse Pointe school, feeling very guilty and bemused. Perhaps it was this that made the scene at the car park seem more chaotic than it really was.

In every wagon there was a feeling of excitement and anticipation as the caravan wound its way out of Detroit, heading west. My passengers were all making vows that this would be an even better Chet Sampson tour than the ones they had missed in the past.

We stopped for dinner at Joliet, Ill., and there we picked up the last of our passengers. Later on that evening we had our first swim, which was quite a relief after a long day's drive in the sun. Everyone splashed around thankfully until we drove on refreshed and in good spirits to bed down for the night in Washington, Iowa. The drive that night was very beautiful.

When we arrived at our sleeping place Bill Winkler rapidly organized the tired tourists for the night—but excited girls, apparently undaunted by the long day's run, chattered energetically into the small hours, while tired drivers slept soundly in their cars.

Next morning "after the night before" spent in unaccustomed sleeping bags, 45 tousled heads crawled slowly out from among the trees. It was here that the Englishman found out, not for the first time, what a narrow vocabulary he possessed. The girls laughingly told me that they were feeling "F-squared" which being interpreted for the uninitiated like myself actually means "fanny-fatigued".

From here, the tour pushed on to Boys' Town after a swim and lunch at Greenfield. Storm clouds were gathering and sure enough, as we set off again, the heavens opened. We found ourselves traveling in the teeth of a thunder storm. It is at moments like these that I cannot help being impressed by the resilience and wonderful morale of the girls who could, with justification, have become depressed by the appalling weather which lasted until we arrived at Lexington to sleep. The whole group seemed spontaneously to refuse to allow their happiness to be affected by circumstances and went on their way regardless as if it was "just one of those things".

Tree Trimmer Injured in Fall

Joseph Sattipane, 31, of 22463 Linwood, East Detroit, was seriously injured when he fell 35 feet to the ground while trimming a tree in front of 18638 East Jefferson on Monday, July 13. Sattipane was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police ambulance. He was put on the critical list, doctors at the hospital said.

Compare Salaries Paid Teachers

Teachers and administrators in the United States are now earning an average yearly wage of $4935, according to information received by the Michigan Education Association.

A survey of 49 states by the National Education Association's research division revealed that educators in Alaska, considered the instructional staff, earn an average salary of $6500, highest in the country.

Michigan ranks ninth nationally with an average of $5400. The MEA points out that this figure includes the wages of administrators and special educators who earn more than the classroom teacher. Average salary of Michigan's classroom teacher is $5066.82, or $334 less than the figure released by the national association.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Were I ever talented and fortunate enough to write and publish a book, I think I should choose a fairly provocative title for it—one that would arouse interest, promote inquiry, or perhaps merely amuse.

Some authors tend to unusual titles. Take Leonard Wibberley, for instance. "Be aware of the Mouse," "Take Me to Your President" and, currently, "No Garlic in the Soup," are the sort of titles one finds among his output.

Another Smith—Robert Paul, to be exact—has done the same thing recently with his long titles: "How to Do Nothing with Nobody (All Alone by Yourself)," and "Where Did You Go? 'Out' 'What Did You Do? 'Nothing'".

City Youngsters Train for Meet

Youngsters interested in competitive swimming at the Grosse Pointe City Park have an excellent opportunity to learn the various swimming techniques and training practices necessary for success in this activity, according to Grosse Pointe City Councilman, Kenneth F. Bergmann, chairman of park activities.

Instead of simply labeling his book as a New England cook book, Duncan McDonald gave it the title: "Rain, Hail and Baked Beans"—a very appropriate one to indicate the seasonal emphasis of relating food and the weather. When Fannie Hurst wrote her autobiography, she didn't label it tritely: Autobiography. Instead she called it "Anatomy of Me."

One American in four has this disease

Physicians call it obesity, but it's just as unhealthy if we call it pounds—too many pounds. In some places a chief cause of early death is malnutrition but in this country the Grim Reaper's number one helper is over-eating. Overweight people subject their heart and blood vessels to undue stresses and strains.

STATUTE STOLEN Mrs. Charles Coleman of 860 Three Mile drive, told Park police on Monday, July 13, that an unknown person stole a jockey boy statue from her front lawn during the night.

Light Air Teases Skippers In Little Club's Regatta

Light variable winds are becoming the rule instead of the exception on Lake St. Clair during the weekly DRYA inter club regattas.

Commodore Horace (Bobby) Ford didn't have much success in whistling up a breeze for the 148 boat fleet that hit the starting line under a hot sun and a soft southerly zephyr that abruptly switched to an equally light east, southeast breeze after the big boats got underway.

Trouble for Judges

This caused much concern among the judges aboard Commodore Ed Bodkin's cruiser "Vagabond". They had planned to give the fleet a buck to weather on the last leg of the triangular courses.

That old wind sniffer Henry Burkard sensed every switch as he steered his "Meteor III" around the 15 mile triangle to take his first place in the season in Cruising B and also posting the fastest corrected time of all the cruising classes to win overall honors.

"Falcon" Wins
Clare Jacobs "Falcon" slipped away from Norbert Taylor's "Vitesse II" on the last leg of the 15 mile triangle when her crew did a magnificent job of keeping the big blue spinnaker pulling throughout the last five miles.

Tommy Hanson served notice this might be the year for his "Dauntless II" to move into the honor spot in the coming Bayview-Mackinac race on July 25. Tommy nipped Susan Fisher's "Old Rarity" by five minutes and 12 seconds for Cruising C honors and third place in the overall standings.

Commodore Arnold Fuchs, of Bayview, is looking for someone to tell him how he can get just a little bit more speed out of his L boat "Gamble II".

Hal Dushane's "Bellatrix" finally became a "bride" in the big Cruising D (Performance handicap) class. Charles Taylor's "Wind Song" moved into the money circle with a second place for the first time.

Al Jones fretted all spring and early summer while his R boat "Mouette" was undergoing a major repair job. Al just got his spar in the boat in time for the Little Club regatta and he must have put it in the right spot because he captured top honors in the A Universal class the first time out this year.

Scores Second in Row
Al Borlototti's "Nauti-gal" made it two in a row in the Raven class and Sid Marsh's Privateer "Indian Drum" took another first after having been displaced a week ago in the Crescent regatta.

The Detroit Boat Club catboat team of Harold Waldo, John Hunt and Bruce Renaud took team honors with 13 points over the Detroit Yacht Club team of John Fennessy, John Trost and Bill Ohst.

Johnny Trost, foredeck man par excellence of Clarence Baker's and Jerry Clement's sloop "Last Straw", was sailing the catboats for the first time in years. He had no place to go when the "Straw-pile" took off for Chicago to compete in the 52nd Chicago-Mackinac race next Saturday, July 18.

The usually large entry in the Lightning class was missing in this regatta as most of the skippers chose to take in the Michigan Districts at Tawas, Mich., over the weekend. Only five started and Jim Moeller's "Crazy Man" was the best of the stay at homes.

The Little Club regatta was the last fullblown regatta scheduled until the Windmill Point Yacht Club regatta on August 1. Even that one won't see too many of the big boats back from cruising in Georgian Bay.

In the meantime Grosse Pointe Sail Club will stage its annual regatta which will include only catboats and the new fiber glass Flying Scot class. Starting time is high noon Saturday, July 18.

The Woods-Shores Little League action saw several tight races developing as the season entered the last week of contention.

The Giants of the National League kept their hopes alive by winning two games and stayed on the heels of the league-leading Cubs. Dennis Doyle went all the way as his mates edged the Phillies 7-6 with a couple of well played bunts in the last inning by Bill Friedman and Don Bay.

Baker of the Phillies pitched the entire game for the losers. Then the Giants slugged their way into a tie for second place by beating the Braves 10-1. Joe Portero pitched a two-hitter and contributed to the run total by pounding a home run. Bill Friedman also hit a round-tripper, and Doyle hit two doubles as he continued his consistent work at the plate. Johns and Reynolds pitched for the Braves. In the Major-Minor League, the Pirates beat the Blue Jays 8-5 behind the steady pitching of Simowski. Towar was behind the plate. Simowski helped his cause with three singles off the offerings of Miller and Mackey. Nichols and Zarnak had two hits each.

Jordan of the Jays hit a double and a single, with Jennings also getting two singles. In a well played game the Blue Jays beat the Browns 7-2. Jerry Gates started the game for the Blue Jays and allowed only two runs and four hits for three innings. Roger Vortman pitched the last half of the game and held the Browns hitless and got credit for the win as his teammates went ahead with some solid hitting including doubles by Kennedy and Doug Spencer.

Spencer, the new catcher who had just come up from the minors, was outstanding behind the plate. The game featured some fine infield play by Casas, Jordan, Nyman and Gates, as well as some fine outfield catches by Kennedy. Souliere of the Browns pitched the entire game, allowing only eight hits.

Toronto of the International League played three games during the week, winning two of them. In the first encounter, they edged the Montreal Royals 11-10, coming from behind with 4 runs in the fifth inning and 4 runs in the sixth. Oliver Durham pitched the entire 6 innings for Toronto, striking out 9 men and walking only 4. Joe Machesky caught and made the outstanding play of the game by cutting off the potential winning run at the plate on a fine throw by Mark Pohnel. Skip Przelomski pitched for Montreal.

Buffalo smacked Toronto around in winning 28-12. Busby and Bollenback pitched for the Bisons with Held and Cytacki on the mound for Toronto.

Toronto then came back to beat the league leading Miami Marlins, 13-7. Swensen and Pohnel divided the pitching duties for the winners, Durham catching. Williams got four out of five including a home run with two men on. Cytacki also hit a four-bagger. Machesky, the left fielder, played a fine game in the field as well on contributing a double. Durham, the catcher, picked off 4 men at 3rd base and one at 2nd base on excellent throws. Andrew Schaedel played a fine game in centerfield.

Indianapolis of the American Association fought their way into a three way tie for first place in winning both of their games this week. They first set down the front running Minneapolis team 8-5. Kirk Strehler pitched a two-hitter. Gerald Padilla and Dave Clifford divided the catching duties. Bob Jarvotac hit a timely triple to add to his teams ten hit total. Dave Oglevac made a terrific play at short and Ron Dicicco started a double play with a nice throw from his second base position to nip the runner at first, and Tom McPharlin then threw from first to Clifford to catch the runner coming into the plate for the final out.

Indianapolis then walloped the St. Paul team 17-0. Bill Haarz, Ron Dicicco, and Dave Clifford split the mound duties with Terrance Smith doing the catching. Clifford was outstanding on the mound. He came in with three men on base and struck out the batter for the third out, then pitched three innings without allowing a hit or run. Terry Smith made a fine catch of a line drive for the final out. Dave Oglevac and Clifford hit triples and Tom McPharlin a double.

Kansas City of the American League climbed out of the cellar with two wins for the week. Highlighting the action was a no-hit game thrown at the Red Sox by pitchers McDonald and Jerger. The score was 2-1. Hahn pitched well for the Sox with Studer catching. Then, in the seven inning encounter, the Athletics nosed the Yankees 7-5. Sharille pitched the regulation six innings and McDonald pitched the seventh and got credit for the win as his team came up with two runs. Schrievos pitched six innings for the Yanks with Noble finishing. Lutsy was the receiver.

GROSSE POINTE PARK The Orioles and the Dodgers appear to be headed for the inter-league best-of-three series to determine the Grosse Pointe Park Little League champion, but no matter where the Senators finish, they are the team that has captured the fancy of the grandstands. In the biggest upset of the season, the Senators, who had won only six games previously, shattered the Orioles' season-long, 16-game winning streak with a three-run rally in the fifth inning to take a 3-1 decision.

The big blow was a double by Senator catcher Paul Prentiss, with two out, after Patrick Lamore walked, Pitcher John Entenman singled, Frank Decker walked and Dinny Stack had reached first on an error.

The Oriole defeat seemingly set the stage for a deadlock between the Orioles and the White Sox but the Senators, with a fine display of impartiality, ruined the White Sox' chance two days later.

After staking themselves to a one-run lead in the first inning, the Senators wound up with an 8 to 5 decision over the White Sox on the strength of a four-run assault in the sixth.

That left the Sox with a 5-2 won-lost record and only a bare mathematical chance of overtaking the Orioles' 7-1 mark and forcing a play-off for the American League championship.

In the National League, the Dodgers (6-2) had all but closed the door on the Braves (5-3) and the Giants and Cardinals with 4-4 records.

After the Braves had beaten the Giants 5-1, the Dodgers personally took care of their bid for undisputed first place by downing the Braves, 6-4, with home runs by Rickey Locke and Mike O'Linn playing a major role in the victory.

The Dodgers later strengthened their lead with a 4-3 win over the Redlegs, with the winning run being forced in on a walk in the last half of the sixth. The Giants were virtually eliminated from the race when they dropped a 15 to 12 slugfest to the Pirates.

Other games saw the Cardinals take a 9-5 game from the Pirates, with Bob Thurlow homering for the winners and Al Steiner for the losers, and the Redlegs beat the Cardinals, 7 to 2.

In American League play, besides their upset losses to the Senators, the White Sox defeated the Indians, 5 to 3, with Joe Ciaramitaro hitting a homer for the winners and Nino Cimino for the losers, and the Orioles trounced the Yankees 10 to 1 as Ronnie Gutow hit a two-run homer for the Orioles.

The Athletics, in a late season comeback, took two games, one from the Indians, 9-6, in which Sammy Thompson hit a home run for the A's, and the second from the Yankees, 8 to 4.

Collegiate league play found Harvard, riding the crest of an eight-game winning streak, leading the Northern Conference, and Alabama, despite its first game, still at the head of the Southern Conference.

Illinois, which had been dueling with Harvard for the lead, dropped two games, one to Harvard by a 19 to 1 count, and the other to Evansville, 10 to 15. The other Northern Conference game produced a 25 to 19 win for Great Lakes over Fordham.

In the other conference, Alabama beat Carolina, 9-8, before losing its first game in a forfeit to Kentucky, 6-0. Kentucky trounced Duke, 19 to 4.

A newly-revised edition of "Fishing in Michigan" has just been released by the Michigan Tourist Council.

The colorful, 32-page guide outlines year-round fishing opportunities in this vacation state. Copies are available without charge from the Council's office, Lansing 26, Michigan.

Prepared cooperatively by the Council and the Michigan Conservation Department, the popular booklet includes sections on fishing sites, boats, accommodations, camping, fish preparation and cooking, deep water trolling, ice fishing and smelt dipping, in addition to illustrated descriptions of the state's various game fish.

Outboard Club Offers Advice

The Outboard Boating Club of America reminds all powerboat owners that the deadline for filing refund claims for federal gasoline tax is September 30.

About 404,057,000 gallons of gasoline were consumed by pleasure boats in the calendar year of 1958, OBC estimates. This includes 127,807,000 gallons for inboard boats and 276,250,000 gallons for outboards.

Application for the one-cent per gallon refund for gasoline used in motorboats must be made on Internal Revenue Service form 843 and filed with the District Director of Internal Revenue. The claim should cover the gasoline used during the period July 1, 1958, to June 30, 1959.

This game, called in first half of eighth inning with two outs because of darkness, was really a tied game, being tied in runs and hits as well. The rules provide that a tied game be played to its conclusion at a later date from the point at which it was called with batting order and personnel the same. The game is to be completed on July 15 at 5:30 p.m. as a forerunner to the regularly scheduled game on that day. Extra base hits in the tied game so far were by McDonald who had a home run, and Neal Westmacott who had a two base hit.

Game: July 7. Cubs: 7 Runs, 5 Hits; Dodgers: 5 Runs, 9 Hits. Tom Kerwin, winning pitcher for the Cubs, pitched a good game except for the fifth inning at which time he seemed to let up for a few moments and the Dodgers collected five hits and four runs and posed as a threat, but he then again gained his poise and allowed only two hits and no runs for the remainder of the game.

The Cubs fielded well and played their usual fine alert game, but again demonstrated weak hitting. The team in general though, shows that it is well coached and managed taking advantage of every break that comes its way, and handling themselves as the champions that the are. Charles Casgrain had two doubles and Jim Blackburn had one double for the Cubs. The Dodgers displayed their hitting ability again by outhitting the opposition. John McMillan pitched a fine game and deserved a better fate than he had. John Stempfle and Dave Letscher had two base hits for the Dodgers.

Game: July 8. Braves: 8; Cubs: 3 Runs, 3 Hits. Bruce Harper again pitched a good game holding the opposition to three hits. The Cub pitcher, McLeod, matched his opponent for the first four innings but weakened in the

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

WOODS-SHORES

A dream baseball game between two undefeated champions—a game that Woods-Shores Babe Ruth fans have been looking forward to for an entire year—will take place next Saturday, July 18, at 1 p.m. on the Grosse Pointe University School diamond.

It's the return "World Series" meeting between Carl Wheeler's Detroit Tigers, undefeated champions of the American League, and George Foster's "Gas House Gang," otherwise known as the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cardinals are undefeated champions of the National League this season as well as defending "world champions."

Wheeler's Tigers are heavily favored to win back the title that had almost become their private property before George Foster last year put together his "Gas House Gang" and won the huge championship trophy by upsetting the Tigers, 8-7.

The Tigers can be counted on to go with their undefeated pitching ace, 15-year-old Dennis Dahnke, who had posted a 7-0 record at the end of last week. George Foster, in his usual mysterious fashion, refuses to name his starter. However, in 14-year-old Jack Whitney, Foster has a pitcher who has equaled Dahnke's perfect 7-0 record. Should these two pitch against each other on Saturday one thing is sure: there'll be a blemish on somebody's record.

Many of the experts are picking the Tigers to win rather easily, figuring that their stronger defense and more experienced pitching should prevail. The Cardinals are the stronger hitting club and are possibly a shade speedier. However, the strongest thing the Cardinals have going for them is their winning spirit. This is a team that hates to lose worse than the original St. Louis "Gas House Gang" that included Pepper Martin, Lippy Leo Durocher and Dizzy Dean.

Can Wheeler's Tigers win back the trophy that belonged to them for so many years? Can Foster's "Gas House Gang" repeat last year's thrilling triumph? The baseball fans of this area will find out on Saturday afternoon starting at 1:00 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to watch the action. No admission is charged.

FARMS-CITY-PARK Haskin's Hobblers won the coveted "Shoe Shine Bucket" trophy from Ewald's Elders when they met in the fourth annual Babe Ruth Loop Manager's-Coaches classic at the Neighborhood Club on Sunday afternoon, by a score of 7 to 6.

Ed Stanley, Jr., started pitching for the American League and was opposed by George Ewald for the National League, both men being relieved after a couple of innings by Schervish and Verdonct who finished the remaining three innings.

Highlights of the game were the great home run clout by lean Ed Stanley of the American League, and the great umpiring by Russell Peebles and his assistants. The Nationals got 7 hits and the Americans got 8 hits.

After presentation of the trophy to the American League, players and spectators went happily home to supper. The Shoe Shine Bucket will be on display in the lobby of the Neighborhood Club.

The Board of Directors of Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, which provides baseball for boys in the Farms-City-Park, at a recent meeting declined to take any action on a Pony League organization. They asserted their desire to continue with the franchise from the Babe Ruth organization.

The Board also moved the annual meeting to the second Wednesday in September and reduced the number of Directors to be elected to nine.

Going into the final week of the 1959 season, the American League shows a four-way tie between Detroit, New York, Cleveland and Chicago, with Boston only one game behind. The San Francisco Giants lead the National League with the St. Louis Cardinals only one game behind.

The New York Yankees won over Chicago 3-1, Munson pitching a two-hitter to win. Haller pitched the Yankees to a win over Detroit with both teams allowing only two hits apiece. The Yankees then lost to the Philadelphia Phillies 11-8. Dhooge the winning pitcher; Stockard helping the team by getting three hits. Dhooge also pitched his team to victory over the Milwaukee Braves 4-3, with Nelson leading the attack by getting three hits. The Phillies then lost to the Cardinals 5 to 4, Thompson the winning pitcher. The Cardinals won their second game of the week by winning over Boston 4-1. Vroom the winner. Vroom and Swingle high-lighted the game by hitting home runs. The Cardinals won again when they beat the Dodgers 8-4, Thompson the winning pitcher and also getting himself a home run.

The Cleveland Indians beat Boston 8 to 1, Stanley pitching one-hit ball to win. Stanley pitched his team to victory (Continued on Page 18)

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Anticipating a long vacation in Europe is Mrs. David M. Sutter, of Pine court, who is adopting her husband's suggestion that she sail across the Atlantic this time instead of flying.

She will board the "American" on August 7 and dock at Southampton which will allow her a few days in London, "that most entrancing city", before embarking on the "Stella Polaris" at Harwich. She will then cruise to Scandinavian countries before docking at Dover.

A few more days in London and then back to Southampton and the "Stella Polaris" again. This time the Mediterranean is the travel itinerary. If the weather remains bright she will rent a car after the Mediterranean cruise and motor through England before her return sailing date on October 30.

This exciting travelogue means Mrs. Sutter will miss the opening night at the symphony here which she regrets. But on her return to the States she will stop in Cambridge, Mass. to visit her son-in-law and daughter, the Ray McIntyres. He's the eminent harpsicordist so she will be in touch with the musical world. Mr. McIntyre is studying for his doctorate at Brandeis University.

Home From Their Travels

Just home from an extended tour of Europe are Dr. and Mrs. John R. Birch, of Vendome road. Their Continental tour included Austria, Spain, Germany, England and Switzerland.

Also home is Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Jr., who has been in New Caanan, Conn., visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles F. Pfeifer. Since Mr. Pfeifer would be traveling on business for a few weeks Mrs. Ewald prevailed on her sister-in-law to return to the Pointe with her. She is staying with the senior Mrs. Ewald in Vendome road.

Mother of the Bride

With all the excitement of a wedding behind her, Mrs. John R. Conway will recuperate with a month at the shore.

On July 18 her daughter, Jane Bragaw will marry John B. Vanderzee and ten days later Mrs. Conway will be off with her husband for Westbrook, Conn. The house they have rented is right on the shore and they will stay until after Labor Day.

Then Mrs. Conway will stop by in Farmington, Conn., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, the Robinson Cushman, before returning home.

The Long Week-End

Spending the season in the best of all possible resorts, right here at home, is the choice of many residents, but even the most enthusiastic summer-at-home advocates need a break from children and chores.

Four couples have planned a long week-end in mid-August which should just fill the "get-away-from-it-all" bill. Their destination is a rustic lodge, Nomisidico, on the banks of the Sturgeon River near Wolverine, Mich.

The fishing won't be too good at that time but the lounging should be. Leaving on this short trip will be Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Simmons, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack

Her mantilla of silk Brusson was edged in heirloom Brussels lace and she carried white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Virginia Blessing, the bride's sister, was maid of honor in a French blue organza sheath with a bouffant overflounce. Her headband had a tiny illusion veil and she carried blue and white flowers.

Garden Council Holds Meeting

A well attended Garden Club Council meeting was held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial recently with Mrs. H. Ray Will presiding. Much enthusiasm was expressed over the recent Clean-Up Campaign.

The members also felt the Playground contest and Litter Bag sale had been very successful and should be continued next year.

The much talked-about and controversial D.D.T. spray has been brought to the attention of the five municipalities by the Council and it is hoped they will unite their efforts and come to some conclusion as to whether the spray should be discontinued or a different type of spray be used.

A letter was also sent to the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association and they are also giving it their most earnest attention.

It was voted to have the Flowering Crab sale again this fall, with Mrs. George Van Lokeren as chairman. Inasmuch as this is a public service for all Pointe residents, notices of the sale will be sent to all organizations telling of the extremely reasonable price of these shrubs. Plant a Tree will be the theme of the sale this year.

The Council decided there would be no Christmas lighting program this year, but will suggest in a few articles in this paper that people when buying their Christmas decorations give thought to good design and harmony.

Christening Supper

When the Edwin D. Clarkes decided to have their fifth child christened last Sunday they thought it would be a nice gesture to include at the after ceremony supper the godparents of their other children.

Six month old Michael Sullivan Clarke wore a brand new white suit for the christening in Christ Church at which the Rev. George Whitney officiated.

Neighbors of the Clarkes on Rivard boulevard, the William Talliaferros and the George William Duffields were Michael's godparents.

Other guests at the party were the Jack Sturtevant, the Frederick W. Peaces, Jr., and the Donald Frazer Sullivans, Jr., of Birmingham.

Mrs. Clarke's parents, the Donald Frazer Sullivans, are spending the summer at their Camlachie, Ont., home and did not come down for the party. Mrs. Clarke went up to visit them last week with the children. But Mr. Clarke's mother, Mrs. Harry C. Clarke, was on hand to see her grandchild christened.

New Students at WMU Pay Visit to Campus

Freshman students who will be coming to Western Michigan University in September to begin their college education are being given an opportunity to become somewhat acquainted with the campus during a two-day visit in July.

Under the direction of the counseling bureau, 100 students are coming to the campus four days each week. They are housed in University residence halls, having a good opportunity to become acquainted with this mode of living.

They are also tested and counseled concerning fall classes and then complete their registration for their first semester. Swimming, movies and campus tours are planned as recreation for them.

Among those students finished visiting the campus from Grosse Pointe and area are: Robert D. Askren, 1177 Devonshire; Elizabeth A. Deal, 1040 Wayburn; Linda M. Nolting, 19864 Emory court; Carole Borushko, 862 Nottingham; Edwin J. Chenoweth, 1253 Grayton; Nancy J. Cleminson, 351 McMillan road, and Jean Cheetham of 218 Vernier road.

Friends Keep Her Posted

Mrs. Gil Partridge, before leaving for her vacation last month, advised all of her friends — with tongue in cheek — that she didn't want to miss anything while she was away; therefore, there were to be no parties during her absence.

Her obliging pals, with collective tongues in cheeks, didn't want her to miss anything, but just couldn't refrain from having parties. The solution, they sent her all the party invitations, just to keep her up to date!

Mrs. William H. Edwards of Trombley road, blonde and blue eyed, is the former band singer Peg Nolan. She still has all of her recordings — the last one — "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree."

Mrs. Elizabeth Bowen, (she teaches painting at the War Memorial in the winter, has the answer to summer art classes. She holds her classes in the back yards of her various pupils' homes. Question: what's better, the flower painting or the sunbats?

A local lady, who grew up in the flapper days, mentioned in the midst of a discussion of jazz by a number of younger friends — the name of blues singer Bessie Smith. Who? said the young fry, is Bessie Smith — we've never heard of her. Not discouraged by this impertinence, this resourceful lady went to a record store, inquired and ordered on LP hi-fi Bessie Smith Sings with Louis Armstrong (heard of him?). Why she's great, said the surprised "youngsters," almost as good as Ella Fitzgerald.

A young boy brought a stray cat into the City police station the other day. An officer took the cat, with the intent of impounding it for identification by the owner. The cat jumped, (scat cat), out of his arms and ran. Hasn't been seen since. Cat on a hot tin star? By Sarah Evans

Reforming the human race is a major project—especially for only one person.

The average man could save money if he had more to practice on.

The man with money to burn soon finds someone to match him.

Exercise Class Held at Beach

Much interest has been shown in the exercise classes for women at the Grosse Pointe City Park, according to Councilman Kenneth F. Bergmann, chairman of park activities.

This program which gets under way at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday through Friday gives the participants an excellent opportunity to condition every part of the body in 20 to 30 minutes if followed daily.

Exercise along with reading, sun bathing, swimming, and relaxing makes a visit to the park very much worth while. Aquatic director, John Carik, is the class leader.

Be honest in your convictions and you'll have fewer problems.

Congregational Party Planned

A Cards-by-the-Lake party is planned by the members of Group 3 of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Women's association on Wednesday, July 22 at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Sweet, 16628 E. Jefferson.

A salad luncheon will be served at 12:30 followed by an afternoon of cards. Prizes and cookies will be donated by the women of the group.

Reservations will be accepted through Monday, July 20, by Mrs. Sweet, TU 2-6513. The cost is $1.25 and the reservations are limited.

he pups are there again!

Yes. You can't quite miss the completely local emphasis of the Detroit Times. Worlds may shatter. Dynasties may fall. But somewhere—somehow—a boxer gives birth to pups. A boxer belonging to a lonely little guy. And the pups are a front page feature.

Call this sentimental, if you like. We don't think it is.

Like any other major newspaper, we have the services of AP and UPI—including our Hearst Headline Service. Plus our own news bureaus in Washington and Lansing. But watch that feature picture on the first page of the Times. And then you'll know. Our heart is with you: the pups are here again.

Keep your eye on the TIMES!

Elementary School News

MONTEITH SCHOOL

Fifth grade students at Monteith recently completed a thorough study of their home state as part of their social studies learnings this spring. They approach such subjects with great enthusiasm and sometimes with novel methods.

Mr. Darvill's class in its study of Michigan, was operating under the assumption that Michigan is a territory seeking statehood (as Alaska and Hawaii have done recently). The students then deecided to present to a Congressional Committee specific reasons why the citizens of Michigan feel that they are ready for, or entitled to, statehood.

Their presentation to the Committee included information about Michigan's history, natural resources, important cities, and recreational facilities.

Research for pertinent facts and information were made by:

1. Contacting 32 Michigan communities.
2. Extensive individual and group reading.
3. A trip to the Detroit Historical Museum.
4. A talk by Mr. Babcock, curator of the Burton Historical Collection from a Detroit Public Library.
5. Preparation of a class notebook containing reports, the results of research from various committees.

POUPARD SCHOOL

John McMahon was appointed Assistant Principal of Poupard Elementary School by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on June 17. He will assume his duties next September with the opening of the 1959-60 school year.

Mr. McMahon joined the Grosse Pointe Staff in 1951 as a teacher in Defer School after a teaching one year at Grand Ledge, Michigan. He has also taught in Trombly and Ferry Schools as a home room teacher and in Barnes, Kerby and Ferry Schools in the special area of physical education.

He has served on the Philosophy and Text Book Selection Committees and was recently elected President of the Elementary Teachers' Club of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools. Mr. McMahon received his Bachelors and Masters degrees from Michigan State University at East Lansing and has attended Wayne State University in Detroit.

The McMahons live in East Detroit and have one child, Cathy, who is four years old.

John Helfrich, who has been Assistant Principal at Poupard School for the last two years, has been appointed Principal of the Lomon Elementary School in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Mr. Helfrich has been in the Grosse Pointe School System for four years having taught fourth and fifth grades at Monteith Elementary School before becoming Assistant Principal at Poupard. He received his Bachelors and Masters degrees from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio, and was working on his doctorate at Wayne State University.

His fine leadership and services at Poupard School will be missed by his many friends. Mr. Helfrich will assume his new responsibilities in August.

Too often a genius turns out to be a bird who can't even feather his own nest.

last two innings in which he allowed four hits and five runs. The Braves played a very good game in the field with Neal Westmacott making the play of the day, an unassisted double play. Greg Hykes hit a three base hit and Mike Jehle hit a two base hit for the Braves. Dickie Welch had the only extra base hit for the Cubs, a double.

Games July 9.
Cardinals: 9 Runs, 10 Hits, 6 Errors; 0 Runs, 1 Hit.
Bob Campbell, the Cardinal pitcher, did a terrific job of pitching his team to a well-deserved victory. He seemed faster than usual and displayed excellent control by walking only one man and striking out eight and allowed only one hit. His teammates backed up his good effort with excellent fielding support by committing no errors. John Stempfle, losing pitcher, was not his usual self, but did get the only hit team made.

Campbell and Tom Gage had doubles for the Cardinals. The revamped infield of the Cardinals seems to click much better than it did previously.

This Week's Headline News

(Continued from Page 1) Major disaster an hour after the fire broke out. THE TIGERS BROKE their six game losing streak, last night, by defeating the Kansas City Athletics, 5 to 2. It was the longest losing streak since Jimmie Dykes took over as manager, May 3. Jim Bunning, strong from start to finish, was the winning pitcher, giving him a record of 8 and 6 for the year. Ted Lepcio hit a two run homer in the sixth inning. PRESIDENT OF DETROIT Local 297, Wally Butler, testified Friday before the Senate Rackets Committee that he was once offered $50,000 to desert his international union (AFL-CIO) and bring his local into the Teamsters. Local 297 is for Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers. Butler said that the money was offered through an associate by "Buffalino." He was apparently referring to William E. Buffalino, president of the Teamsters juke box local in Detroit. Sunday, July 12 A FOUR ENGINED Pan American World Airways jetliner, with 112 persons aboard, skidded into Idlewild Airport safely, last night, after four tense hours of circling above the field. The plane, bound for London, lost part of its landing gear when it took off from Idlewild. It was forced to turn around and land there on a foam-coated runway. The jet was carrying 101 passengers and a crew of 11. Among those on board were Otto Preminger, producer-director of "Anatomy of a Murder," and Lawrence Harvey, actor. When the plane was safely on the ground, the passengers disembarked by sliding down the emergency chutes. No one was injured. A PLOT TO ASSASSINATE Cuban Premier Fidel Castro and four cabinet ministers was uncovered Saturday by Cuban authorities. Reported to have come from the United States to Havana, it is not known if the assassins are Cuban or American. Protection for Castro and his ministers is reported to have been redoubled. Army authorities reported one man killed and seven persons, one a woman, arrested as the nest of plotters against Castro was smashed. MISS DETROIT, a 20 year old blond from Wyandotte, was crowned Miss Michigan, in Muskegon, Saturday. "I just had to win for Detroit," said Ann Marston, when it was announced that she would carry Michigan's hopes in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City in September. Monday, JULY 13 THE UNITED Steelworkers Union made a last minute peace proposal in an effort to avert a strike, but the industry rejected it as one-sided. Immediately after that, Sunday night, orders went out to shut down the steel mills. A strange thing about this year's strike is that the industry is in the driver's seat and the union over a barrel. Three demands are being made by the industry upon the union — one economic and two concerning rights of management. The industry would like to get rid of the cost of living clause. "The companies are convinced from experience that cost-of-living clauses have done as much to contribute to inflation as to protect against it," the steel corporations say. IT WAS REPORTED yesterday that the Western Powers are seeking a 2 1/2 year truce in Berlin that would include an ironclad agreement recognizing the right of the Western Big Three to maintain and supply troops in that city. A high ranking Russian official, at about the same time, suggested a "stopgap" settlement that would keep things pretty much as they are now for the next 18 months. THE TIGERS seem to be the main reason the Cleveland Indians are on top of the American League since the Tigers just dropped their twelfth game of the year to the league leaders, yesterday. After winning the first game of the doubleheader 6 to 2 behind the strong pitching of Paul Foytack, they lost the second one 8 to 4. Tuesday, July 14 FIVE CHILDREN DIED Monday morning when a fire blazed through their Mount Clemens home. The mother, Mrs. Margaret Langlois, 26, managed to save one child, the oldest, Deborah age 8. After tossing the child from a second story window into the arms of rescuers, Mrs. Langlois was forced to jump before she could save any of the others. The father, Robert Langlois an employe of GMC Truck and Coach in Pontiac, had already left the house for work when the fire broke out. ELEVEN AND A HALF ACRES of New York Central railroad property west of Cobo Hall will be sold to private investors who plan to erect more than 20 buildings in what will be called the New-Penn-Chessi Development, it was announced Monday. The report was confirmed by Karl H. Smith, president of Smith-Bisschop and Co. the Detroit real estate company that will undertake the project with private capital. The 11 1/2 acres, on which three 12 story luxury apartment buildings and other structures will be built, consists of 1,050 feet of riverfront land extending north to Jefferson and, in part, to Larned. TENNESSEE CONVICTS refused last night to end a strike and release three mine foremen held as hostages and threatened to blow up the prison coal mine unless their demands are met. The convicts holed up in the mine shaft Monday morning, armed with shovels, pickaxes and 200 sticks of dynamite. The prison

Pointe's Two Great Stores in One Two well-known names in the sports equipment and sports-wear for the entire family. The store's Swiss Chalet motif, plus an exciting background decor makes it most striking and proves the value of space in the display of play equipment and sportswear.

This interior view of one aisle in the great new store shows the Swiss chalet motif. Here charm, and allure await every sportsman... all that's new from the costliest gun in the Detroit area to the newest thing in poker chips, catches the eye.

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Swimmers Defeat Red Run

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club swimmers were very much at home in their own pool last Sunday, July 12, when they entertained Red Run Golf Club swimming team and won the opening meet of the Michigan Inter Club season, 109 to 97. Krista Van Hamm and Rick Schoenherr paced the GPYC team with double victories and Peggy Wirth posted two victories for the losers. Coach Bill Reaume, who is the varsity swim coach at Denby High during the winter months and a favorite judge at Grosse Pointe High meets, was impressed with the team spirit of his 55-member team. According to him, "the team wants to win them all." MEET SUMMARIES 100-yd. mixed relays, time: 56:00 —1st, Red Run, Terry Clink, Judy Brady, Kim Renton, Jim Clink. The plant is closed down," said Robert C. McLaughlin, company spokesman. The 800 on the midnight shift left the plant and then milled about the gates on West Jefferson. Warden Frank Llewellyn said the convicts turned Bunch loose because he was ill, but when he walked into the warden's office he appeared to be all right. Bunch said he did not know why he had been released and told newsmen that he believed it was because of his age. Pat Patterson, assistant correction commissioner continued talking to 10 convict-spokesmen one mile underground in the mine. Ninety-five rebellious convicts seized the hostages yesterday. Patterson appeared optimistic about ending the rebellion soon.

The Armin Rickels and the C. W. Boydells must be having fine luck with their gardens in Tonnancour place this summer. Their lots cover the ground once used by the Theodore P. Halls as barnyards and stables.

The first Tonnancour was built on 63 acres of ground around 1870 for Alexandrine Godefroi Hall, whose mother was the brilliant Marianne Navarre de Marantette Godefroi, a great belle of old French Detroit. The land covered the area from lakeshore to Kercheval; on the right hand side is the Whitcomb estate and on left the former Henry Ford II property originally owned by the Burt Eddy Taylors.

This property has since been divided into 26 lots and some of the Pointe's most beautiful new mansions have been built there. The original Tonnancour, for which all three in the Pointe have been named, was the chateau built in Trois Rivieres, Quebec, in 1626. The architect, Toussaint de Normanville was shortly after captured by the Indians and burnt at the stake. The chateau was the home of Rene Godefroi de Tonnancour.

This last Tonnancour, which sits on a slight rise of land, was redesigned from Tonnancour III by Frederick W. Fuger, scion of the Hall family, related though his maternal great-grandmother, Marie Archange Navarre to Henry IV of France.

Tonnancour II was a Swiss chalet type castle like many in the Pointe during its resort era. On the estate was the rustic grotto of Notre Dame de Sainte Claire. A far different home was Tonnancour III designed by Edward W. Donn, a classmate of Fuger's father at M. I. T. To this home Marie Hall Fuger, now Mrs. C. Edmund Delbos, of Lincoln road, came as a young wife. This house had good Georgian design and a wonderful landscaped site which was kept by Mr. Fuger in remodeling Tonnancour IV, the present home.

The large property was subdivided with the apple orchard along Kercheval and the main vegetable gardens becoming the sites of the A. D. Krentler home and the Arnold Malow home among others. The Robert L. Hatches live on the old melon patch and grape arbor; the E. D. Barrett's home is on the old asparagus bed; the John McCormick Goodhart's house stands in the calf pasture, and the W. C. Scherers are near an old pine grove.

This vast estate has been divided before becoming an exclusive avenue. Three of the Hall daughters built homes on the property before the present subdivision was begun. The elegance of the winding road is an inheritance which goes back to medieval France.

The five Russian women traveling with Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol Romanovich Kozlov on his Detroit trip last week were among the guests at the otherwise all stag luncheon Walker Cisler gave at the DAC.

At the same time as the luncheon for the Russians, was Mrs. Maurice E. Griffin's shower for Saturday's bride, Barbara Fruehauf. Quite a study in contrasts were the Russian ladies, in their somewhat travel worn prints, and the chic guests at Mrs. Griffin's luncheon, in their fashionable summer cottons, bouffant hairdos and spanking white gloves... Mrs. G's guests were delighted to spy the Secret Service men waiting outside the corridor for the State Department party munching from a tiered plate of petit fours.

Chet Sampson has become a commuter between the Pointe and Hollywood. Much of his West Coast business is concerned with the refugee work he is doing in Europe with Actor Don Murray and his wife, Hope Lange. But last week-end Chet took a break and dashed off to Honolulu where he was the guest of Debbie Reynolds. The star is vacationing there with her parents and children after a heavy film schedule. While there, Chet made all their arrangements for visiting some of the other Hawaiian Islands. Then it was back to Hollywood as July 1 marked the beginning of World Refugee Year.

Like many fashionable matrons Mrs. David G. Wormer is constantly fighting the battle of the pointed shoes, discarding the passe rounded toes for the newest in footwear. In her closet is a startling pair of evening slippers, shining pink and heliotrope striped with pink heels. She wears them for visits to the library and for dinner at home with her husband to the delight of her son, who she says doesn't really know how inappropriate they are, just knows they're pretty.

Mrs. Herman Zewreck delighted her eight bridge luncheon guests with favors which she bought on a recent round-the-world trip. The ivory book-marks at each place came from India, which added a charming flavor to the party she recently gave for Mrs. Robert Pflugfelder.

PILFERINGS

People say you should pay your bills with a smile. Every time you try however, they keep demanding cash.

In Singapore a pretty Oriental bride told the court she had left her husband because her mother-in-law slept under the bed.

Turning up her pert little nose, the sweet, young women coldly accused her escort of being conceited. "I'm not conceited," the swain replied. "It's just that I like the good things in life, and I happen to be one of them."

I have found the best way to give advice to your children is to find out what they want to do and then advise them to do it... Harry Truman.

Pointers of Interest

By Patricia Talbot

Related in fact to that most Victorian of American authors, Louisa May Alcott, the William Alcotts are more akin temperamentally to fiction's "You Can't Take It With You" family created by George S. Kaufman.

The Alcotts practiced "togetherness" before it was considered an essential element of family living by psychologists. Trim, blond Mrs. A., who certainly doesn't look old enough to be the mother of a 22 year old son, admits she usually rather talk to her children than most people she meets.

But the Alcott children are highly individual with talents far beyond those of most of the younger generation. The youngest, Deborah, sun tanned, chubby and pig tailed, doesn't look much like an artist, but she is. In her kindergarten years she began copying animals and has now graduated to landscape oils. Debbie paints every Saturday morning but the rest of the summer is spent swimming. She is determined to swim from the City Park to the Park pier before Labor Day.

Symphony Plans Sixth Concert

The Detroit Symphony orchestra entered its sixth week of free concerts in the Music Shell at the Michigan Fair Grounds with programs scheduled for Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. Valtor Poole conducts.

Tuesday night Ruth Meckler, winner of the 1959 Bendetson Netorg Memorial Award contest for pianist, was soloist playing the Beethoven Concerto No. 4 in G major. The remainder of the program was made up of works by French composers to commemorate Bastille Day, a major celebration in France.

Thursday evening Elzye Yockey, Detroit Symphony harpist, will solo in Ravel's "Introduction and Allegro." The program will include the entire Franck Symphony in D minor.

Saturday night's "pop" concert will include Massenet's Suite "Picturesque Scenes" and selections from "The Song of Norway" by Bourdon-Grieg.

The summer concerts are offered as a public service by The Detroit Edison Company, National Bank of Detroit, and The Music Performance Trust Funds of the Recording Industries in cooperation with The Detroit Federation of Musicians.

the Alcotts gratefully. She can't sing harmony, though.

She Designs Hats

The creative urge is everything to the Alcotts. So no one was surprised to find Mrs. A. on the day of her son's wedding designing a hat, while nuptial preparations whirled about the house. Hat designing is her talent. She usually creates a millinery masterpiece one day, rips it apart the next, and never has a complete hat to wear. In her bedroom is an upright hat rack holding various half completed originals she has designed. Mrs. Alcott is a musician, too, often composing original scores with lyrics. She's very shy about this ability and doesn't let her family hear her compositions.

He's A Guitarist

All the Alcotts are musical, but Mrs. A. confesses most of her music is played by ear, although she took lessons as a girl and had to practice vigorously. Mr. A. composes poetry and strums the guitar beside cooking like a master.

Not much of a disciplinarian, Mrs. Alcott confesses all individuals in the family are free to express themselves. About the only requirement insisted upon by the head of the house is that all the children take typing. He feels it's a very necessary skill.

In this casual and fun loving household guests are always welcome and the children have had impromptu parties of up to 150 at a moment's notice. When the noise and confusion becomes too much for Mrs. Alcott she retires to her room to think or design hats, sew a frock for one of her daughters, or cut out wallpaper designs to be used on hat boxes or a mural.

Illinois Background

In spite of the fact that the Alcotts have moved frequently during their marriage they have real roots in their family life, a sense of security behind the door of their home. The Alcotts met in college but their families lived near each other in the Illinois town, St. Charles. So close was the connection that ancestors of both the Alcotts were buried across the road from each other in the rural graveyard.

They have been in the Pointe for five years but if tomorrow the world comes to move they would accept what the new home brings, secure in the closeknit, creative family life.

Park Police Find Wallets

Park police have recovered a number of wallets that were reported lost or stolen at the waterfront park, and are holding them for safekeeping until the owners call for them.

Police Cpl. Charles French disclosed that about 20 wallets have been tagged and placed in the property room. Any one who has lost a wallet at the park, or had one stolen, should check with the Park police, and if they can describe, and prove ownership of the property, they can have it.

Citizens using the park, should take advantage of the lockers made available for the safekeeping of valuables and money, the corporal said. It was pointed out that a number of bicycles have been taken from the bicycle rack at the park. This is because the bike owners do not take the precaution of locking the wheels.

A wheel lock is inexpensive, and every bike owner should have one, the corporal said. Locking the wheels will help prevent any one from taking the bikes, and will save the police time and trouble.

Claims for the found wallets can be made on any Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
