HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the
Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, August 20
A PROPOSAL to end the cold war over Berlin is rumored sent by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to President Eisenhower, via the president's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower. The Russian leader has offered secretly to give the West German government control over West Berlin, with guaranteed access, in return for a pullout by the Western powers, informed sources said, Wednesday.

Khrushchev is reported to have outlined his plan to Dr. Eisenhower when he was in Moscow with Vice-President Nixon, recently. No indication was given as to how the President reacted to the proposal. However, in the past, he let it be known that he would listen to any new ideas the Soviet boss could come up with.

AN ELECTRONIC BRAIN has been installed by Capital Airlines in Detroit to work out reservation questions. It will give "up to the second" word on seats available on flights. By pushing the appropriate buttons, (city of departure, destination, flight number, seat requests, date and sell buttons), the message is sent to the Univac brain. It takes about three seconds for the machine to answer if the seat is available or not. The machine will also tell if a flight is on time or not.

THE AIR FORCE will again attempt today the mid-air rescue of a nose cone of a Discoverer satellite. The satellite, Discoverer VI was blasted off its launch pad yesterday at 12:25 p.m. PDT. It achieved its polar orbit at 6:08 p.m. PDT. During its first circuit of the earth, radio signals were picked up "loud and clear" by an Alaska tracking station. Provided things go all right, the rescue will be made this afternoon. The same rescue was attempted last Friday, but failed.

Friday, August 21
THE AIR FORCE, for the second time in a week, failed to recover a 300-pound capsule that was ejected from the Discoverer VI satellite, Thursday. The capsule was successfully ejected over the Pacific at 5:27 p.m. (Detroit time), the Defense department said. However, as it parachuted down to earth, the fleet of planes and ships that were awaiting it, failed to see it or to pick it up on radio signals.

The search will continue for a few hours, though it is unlikely that it will be recovered now," sources said. Had the capsule been recovered, it would have been a space age first—a step towards putting a man into space and returning him safely.

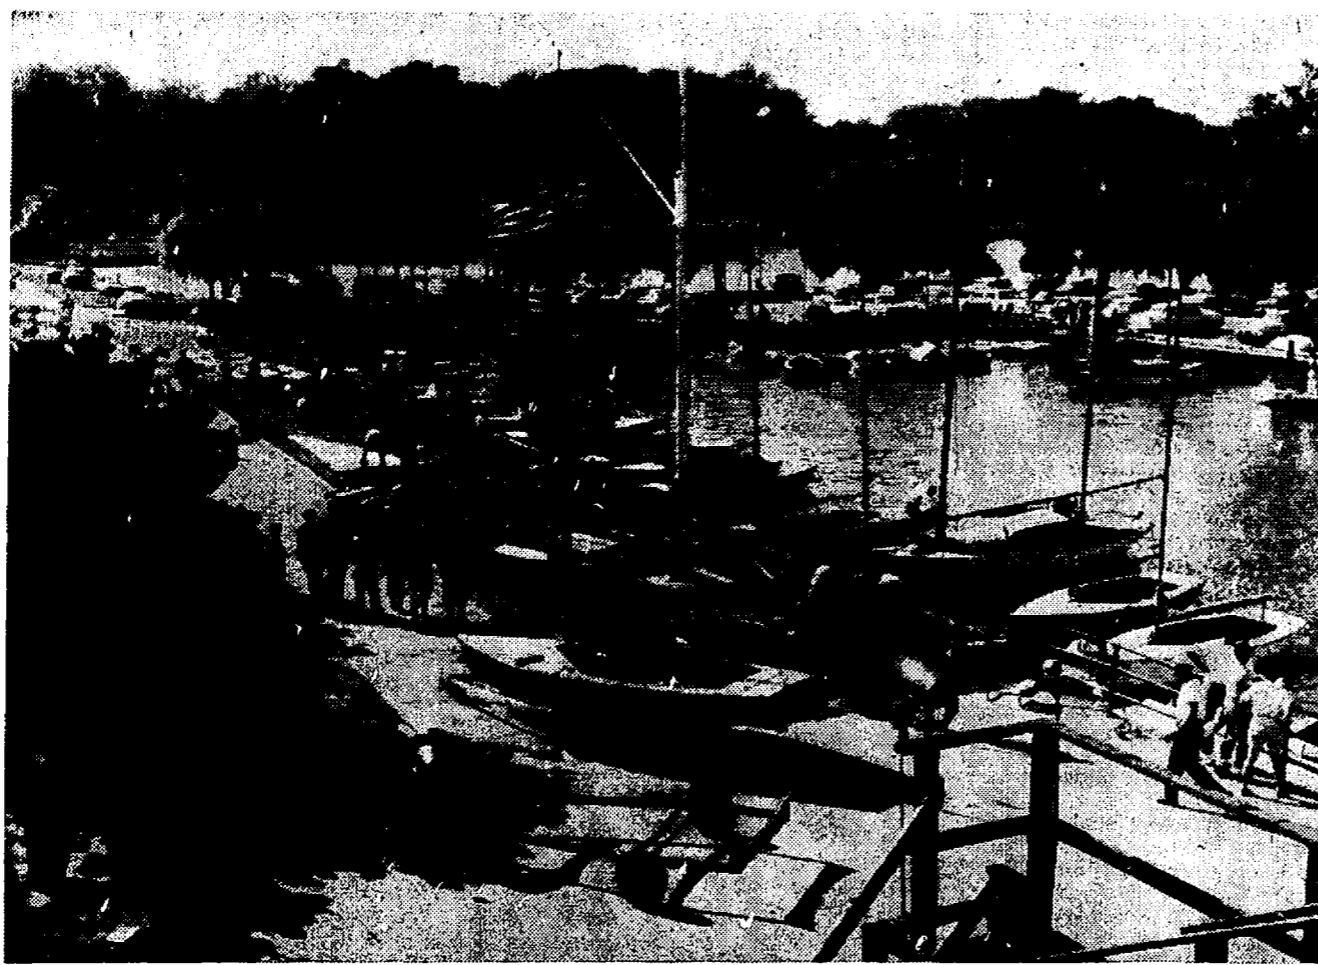

DETROIT'S "GOOD DRIVER OF 1959" is Mrs. Geraldine Radke, wife of Donald Radke, a die-casting firm executive. The 40-year-old housewife drove a seven-mile course, starting and ending at the Ford Auditorium, including eight right turns, seven left turns, 35 signal lights and six stop signs plus entering the John C. Lodge expressway. She won over three men and another woman.

This is the second time in three years that a woman has won the award. She drove her own car, a red Thunderbird, and covered the course in 22 minutes. Her husband taught her to drive 10 years ago.

THE STOCK MARKET scored its biggest gain in 21 months, yesterday, with a four billion dollar advance. Demands for steel shares provided most of the increase. The statement of Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell that the two sides of the steel strike could reach an early agreement if they worked hard enough, was thought to be responsible for the interest in steel.

Saturday, August 22
HAWAII WAS PROCLAIMED the 50th state, officially, Friday by President Eisenhower and the new American flag, with its 50 stars, was unfurled. The new flag has five rows with

Sailing Season Highlighted by Lightning Internationals

Lake St. Clair has always been known as having the best racing waters in the world and last week 53 of the best Lightning class skippers and crews converged on Crescent Sail Y.C. to test the theory in the annual Lightning Internationals. Crescent became the host club when Henry Cawthra won the title in 1958 and chose Lake St. Clair as the site which he wished to defend. The little club on Lake Shore Road was a beehive of activity as sailors came from as far away as Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Metro Club To Be Host At Field Day

All Pointe Youngsters With Passes to Be Entertained at Neighborhood Club

The Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club will hold their 19th annual field day Saturday, August 29 at the Neighborhood Club "come rain or shine".

Starting at 10:30 a.m. there will be games for the kids with prizes of bicycles, fishing rods, etc. Clowns will be on hand to entertain and there will be refreshments of every description.

All Pointe children are urged to come, but in order to be admitted, each one must show his pier park permits.

The Metropolitan Club is made up of firemen, policemen and federal employees of the Grosse Pointe area.

Unwanted Guest Pays With Life

James P. Hannan of 862 Sunningdale reported to Woods police that a raccoon was trying to claw open the door of his home on Friday, August 21.

Mr. Hannan was afraid of injury to his children.

Woods Patrolman Leroy Tobias shot and disposed of the animal with a .22 rifle, after he was unable to chase it away.

Arrested Driver Battles Way Into Double Trouble

A St. Clair Shores man found himself facing two charges, instead of one, after he was arrested by Farms police for reckless driving at midnight Thursday, August 20.

Patrolmen Marvin Krebs and Eugene Thomas brought Woodrow Wilson, 47, 21810 Elizabeth, St. Clair Shores to the Farms station after they spotted him weaving from lane to lane on Lakeshore.

At the station Wilson, who was described as drunk, was issued the ticket for reckless driving. As if that wasn't enough, he started a fight by throwing a punch at the desk sergeant.

He was placed in the cell block to sober up. Here he went into action again, this time rip-

Police Sgt. Anthony Walsh Thrown Under Dashboard As Speeder Hits Scout Car

Park Officer Believed Not Seriously Injured; Detroit Driver Using Expired License Also Suffers Abrasions

A car driven by Robert L. Melosi of 4823 Baldwin, Detroit, smashed into a Park police car, at the corner of Cadieux and Charlevoix avenues, injuring Police Sgt. Anthony Walsh, 59, of 1309 Lakepointe avenue, early Monday evening.

Melosi, 25, was driving south on Cadieux. He pulled around a car stopped for a red light at the Cadieux-Charlevoix intersection, went through the light and hit the police car broadside. The police car was going west on Charlevoix.

Taken to Hospital
Walsh was thrown under the dashboard of the police car. He was taken to Bon Secours hospital and treated for a laceration of the eye. X-rays showed that he had no broken bones. He was released from the hospital Tuesday morning, August 25.

Melosi, also taken to Bon Secours, was treated for multiple abrasions. Other than that, the extent of his injuries had not been determined by Tuesday afternoon.

Witnesses to the accident stated that they thought Melosi had been driving at speeds up to 50 to 70 miles per hour, from Warren avenue to Charlevoix where the accident occurred.

Cars End on Lawn
Sgt. Walsh had just issued a ticket on Mack avenue. Both cars ended up on the lawn on the southwest corner of the intersection and had to be towed away.

City police officers William Waldecker and Thomas McLaughlin found that Melosi was driving a car owned by another party. Melosi was charged with reckless driving and driving with an expired driver's license.

Traffic Cases Heard in Park

Twelve traffic cases were heard before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, August 12.

Diane C. Solterisch, 1127 Beaconsfield, was fined $40 and placed on three months' probation without driving privileges for reckless driving.

David B. Ayres, 14717 Flinders, Detroit, had his $25 fine suspended on payment of $5 costs. He was found guilty of backing up without due care and caution and causing an accident.

James O'Hara, 22445 Wildwood, St. Clair Shores, received a $10 fine on a similar charge.

Mary Goodrow, 1274 Audubon, was found guilty of disregarding a signal light and causing an accident. Her fine was suspended on payment of $15 costs.

Add Classes For Training New Drivers

Two Additional Sessions Planned for Parochial and Private School Students

Opportunities for parochial and private school students to enroll in Driver Education Classes at Grosse Pointe High School will be expanded this fall. Two additional after-school classes are now being organized and interested students are advised to apply at the High School immediately.

The after-school sessions will operate between 3:45 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.—one section meeting Mondays and Fridays and the other on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Two other sections, established several years ago to meet the needs of non-Grosse Pointe High School students, will continue to meet between 2:35 p.m. and 3:20 p.m.—the last period of the regular school day. They also meet two days a week.

The new classes are being formed primarily to accommodate those students attending school too distant from Grosse Pointe High School to permit them to get to driver training classes at 2:35 p.m. without disrupting their regular school program. However, those who are close enough to get to the earlier sessions on time are advised to seek enrollment in them. Competition for the 3:45 p.m. sections will undoubtedly be very keen, school officials emphasized.

Application blanks may be obtained from the High School office daily. All interested applicants should apply immediately.

Church Hearing Date Postponed

The meeting scheduled by the City of Grosse Pointe for Tuesday night, September 8, concerning the building proposal of the Unitarian Church, has been changed to Tuesday night, September 15.

The meeting will take place at 8 o'clock at the Neighborhood Club. All interested parties, whether church members, neighbors or otherwise, are invited to attend.

Recommend Hike In Water Rates

The Sewer and Water Committee of Grosse Pointe Woods moved to recommend to the Council that water rates be increased from the present $1.75 per 1,000 cubic feet to $1.90. The proposed increase is a result of the increase in water rates charged by the City of Detroit, from whom the Woods buys its water. This proposal would mean that the present water rate ordinance will have to be amended. The issue will come before the Council at the September 14, meeting.

Disposal Laws Effective July '61 Approved by Park

Most Vociferous Arguments Against New Law Voiced By Non-resident of City; Partial Pickups to Continue

"After July 1, 1961, all garbage collected within the City of Grosse Pointe Park shall be collected at the expense of the owner and not at public expense."

So reads an ordinance amending the Park "Ordinances Relating to Garbage and Rubbish," which was passed by the Park Council after a public hearing at its meeting Monday, August 24.

The ordinance reads:—"It shall be the policy of the City to minimize the need for the collection of garbage and to encourage the disposal of garbage by means of garbage grinders employing into the sewer system or incinerators separately fueled and capable of converting garbage to rubbish and ashes."

"This policy shall be carried out by requiring garbage grinders or incinerators to be installed in connection with all construction or major repairs and by imposing a special charge for garbage collected after July 1, 1961."

Garbage grinders or incinerators will be required in all homes built in the Park after October. In homes built prior to that time, disposals and incinerators will not be required except in the case of a major repair.

The ordinance states that the remodeling of a kitchen involving the installation of a new sink will be deemed an alteration which would warrant the installation of a disposal.

Some Exceptions Made
No person will be required to install either piece of equipment if the installation would be inadvisable due to limitations in their existing plumbing of chimney apparatus in the opinion of the Department of Building and Safety Engineering a list of grinders and incinerators.

The Department will maintain a list of approved incinerators which will satisfy the requirements of the ordinance.

In multi-family homes separate grinders in each living unit or a common incinerator will be required.

To Determine Costs
The costs of private garbage collection after July, 1961 will be determined by the City Manager and published at that time. The rates will be revised from time to time.

The chief objections to the ordinance at the public hearing came from residents who had lived in the Park for years and

Park Buying Its Gasoline For 14.8 Cents Per Gallon

Gasoline at 14.8c a gallon? Impossible, you'll say. But that's what the City of Grosse Pointe Park will pay for gas this year.

The Park Council accepted the low bid of the Sinclair Refining Co. to supply the city's needs of 50,000 gallons a year, at Monday evening's meeting, August 24.

The cost of gasoline would be even cheaper if the city had larger storage facilities. Mayor Kenneth Cunningham claimed that the cost of an additional tank and its installation could be paid for with the money saved in a year if the city bought in larger quantities. Accordingly the city will begin moves necessary to acquire the tank in the near future, according to City Manager Robert Stone.

Deluge Hits After Two Prior Falls

Damage Surprisingly Light As Area Takes from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches in Short Time

A storm which struck the Pointe at about 5:10 p.m. Sunday, August 23, dumped 2 1/2 inches of rain on the area, flooded approximately 150 basements, knocked down wires, and flooded streets. It was the most intense rainfall in years.

Typical of the intensity statistics was the rain measurement at the Farms pumping station on Moross where 1.35 inches fell in fifteen minutes. At the height of the period a half inch of rain was recorded in five minutes. The total measured fall in the Farms was 2.57 inches.

Measured rainfall in the Park was 2.63 inches according to Weatherman W. W. Oak. One and half inches of rain fell in 45 minutes. Two and a quarter inches were measured at Mack and Cadieux.

Large Area Struck
Oak said that the storm was the most severe in the area from Eight Mile and Gattiot to the lake and down as far as the City-County building. The largest measured fall was 3.67 inches at Jefferson and Clairpointe. There are those in the Pointe who will argue their own yards received that much.

The storm took a higher toll in inconvenience than it did in dollars. The toll was highest in the Woods where there were 75 reports of flooded basements.

During the height of the storm the public safety switchboard was swamped with calls, with the police trying to screen them for fires and other serious events.

"As a result, many citizens probably felt brushed off," said City Manager William Lange, "but we had to determine if there were any real emergencies. We felt very sorry for the citizens with flooded basements, but there was nothing we could do to help them."

Drained Fairly Fast
The bulk of the water was out of the city's sewer system by 9:30 p.m., he said, and a number of the flooded basements were caused by clogged connections between the residents' plumbing and the city sewer system.

Two fire calls resulted, including one to the home of Jesse R. Lowther, at 2025 Lochmoor, which was hit by lightning. Minor damage was done to the shingles on the roof.

Oxford, Renaud, Aline, and Hunt Club were the source of many calls reporting flooded basements and streets. The Milk River overflowed its banks near the pumping station at Torrey road.

Shores Police and Fire Chief Fred Duemling reported that a number of basements were flooded but none badly in his community. Four to six inches of water were the most in any basement, he said. A few

Juveniles Break Into New Home

Two Berkeley juvenile boys broke into a new home at 541 Peach Tree lane and spent the night of August 18 there.

They were discovered by Ernest Brosch, 42, 1508 Hollywood who found the boys when he came to work at 8 a.m. Tuesday. The pair fled and were later apprehended.

They had broken a window on a rear door to gain entry and spent the night sleeping on lounge chairs which they had taken from the lawn of the Addy residence at 540 Cook road.

Both boys are fifteen years old and have criminal records. Woods police are investigating to see if they are connected with any other Pointe breakings and enterings.

Brosch is the same citizen who reported prowlers on the night of August 13 in the neighborhood of Hollywood and Charlevoix. His observation led to the arrest of a Warren, Michigan, gas thief.

Park Approves Disposal Ordinance

Typical was Clara E. Fischer of 1056 Beaconsfield, who said that she was retired and had built her home in 1923. She claimed that if she had to pay for the installation of a disposal, "I wouldn't be able to continue living here after all those years."

One citizen wanted to know "Why this sudden desire to pass this service back to the people?" Mayor Cunningham replied that the change was not sudden, that the council had been considering it for a long time.

He said that at present only

2,800 homes of the 6,100 residences in the Park do not have garbage disposal apparatus. "In other words less than 50 per cent of the homes are now receiving garbage pickup, but all of the expense is being born by all of the people."

"In equity to the people as a whole and for general appearances, we would be much better off with the ordinance," he stated.

Questions Efficiency

Frank J. Messing of 1428 Nottingham felt that the ordinance was unfair to owners of older homes. He stated that there was still refuse from disposals and incinerators and questioned their efficiency.

Most vocal of the objectors was a Grosse Pointe City resident, Stanley Fisher, of 509 St. Clair. After repeatedly talking out in the meeting Mayor Cunningham instructed him to be quiet until he was called upon.

When he was given the floor Fisher stated that he was at the meeting to object, since he felt that the City would follow the example of the Park if the ordinance is passed.

"Because of Cunningham and Ives I will be forced to shell out $400 for a disposal," he said. "I'm 100 per cent for progress and disposals, but in new units."

He told the group of 25 citizens who were at the meeting: "Folks, this is just a dress rehearsal. It's going through whether we like it or not. And we're not going to save a dime."

Told To Be Quiet

After a series of other unfounded statements, one of which was refuted by a quotation from the minutes of a previous meeting, Councilman Peter J. Gallette requested that "Mr. Fischer be asked to keep his remarks to himself or know what he is talking about. You are here for one purpose; to disturb the people who have come to this meeting."

Councilman William Oddy pointed out that the new ordinance is aimed at economy: "We want to hold out present tax rate rather than let it rise as is happening in other communities. This ordinance is aimed at putting the cost where it actually lies; with the people who have their garbage picked up."

"Rubbish collection will continue as an overall city service," he added.

"I don't think that there is any question that we won't please everyone," said Mayor Cunningham. "The installation of disposal equipment may cause a large immediate cost, but when spread out over a number of years it will be less than garbage pickups."

Cites Possibility

City Manager Robert Stone reported that at present garbage and trash are dumped at the same site in Clinton Township. "There is a good possibility that this practice will have to be stopped and we will again have to haul the garbage to Detroit's incinerator to be burned at $6 a ton," he said.

According to Stone's monthly report the city hauled 380 cubic yards of garbage a month during July and June. Garbage trucks traveled a total of 1,400 miles a month.

Similar figures for rubbish were 3,100 cubic yards and 6,000 miles.

New Drivers

(Continued from Page 1) applicants should file before September 4 if they wish their applications to be considered. The first meetings of the classes will be September 10 for the Tuesday-Thursday section and September 11 for the Monday-Friday group.

Very Popular Course

School officials indicated that they were hopeful the new arrangements would more nearly meet the needs of the community. The summer driver education program, which is still under way, was greatly oversubscribed, they stated.

Five hundred and twelve pupils will have taken the course by Labor Day. Some two hundred others had to be kept on the waiting list because of limited facilities for offering this training. The augmented plan should increase the number trained in the regular school year so that the demands for next summer may more nearly be met, they said.

Successful applicants for the fall courses will be notified by mail as soon as enrollments are completed.

New Students Must Register

Registration of pupils new to the Grosse Pointe Public School System will begin next Monday. Students enrolled in last year's sessions are already registered for the coming year.

Parents of newcomers are advised that all school offices will be open Monday, August 31, through Friday, September 4, to receive registrations. Afternoon hours have been reserved for this purpose. A copy of the pupil's birth record and previous school record will be required to effect a complete registration.

Senior high school students transferring to Grosse Pointe High School from schools other than the Grosse Pointe junior high schools are requested to have their former schools furnish an up-to-date transcript of their credits to local school officials. The high school also emphasizes that it is desirable to have parents accompany the student when he registers.

Students already enrolled at Grosse Pointe High School who wish to make a schedule change should see the deans the same week. To expedite this the student must have a request in writing from his parents, asking that such a schedule change be made.

The High School book store will be open August 31 through September 4 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Students are urged to purchase their books during this week to avoid the rush the following week when classes begin.

All secondary schools will have orientation periods for pupils who will be new to these buildings on Wednesday, September 9 at 1:30 p.m. Parents are invited to accompany their children.

The first meeting of the school staff will be held Tuesday, September 8 at Pierce Junior High School. Dr. Dma Cotton of Harvard University will be the main speaker as more than 650 local school employees assemble for the year-opening program. They will continue throughout Tuesday and Wednesday, September 8 and 9, in their final preparations for the arrival of some 10,500 students expected for classes Thursday a.m.

Park Court

Donald Martin Grove, 860 Nottingham was driving without due care and caution and caused an accident. He was fined $10.

Joseph L. Zalar of 5245 Hereford, Detroit, was fined $40 for failure to stop at a stop sign and causing an accident.

Rains Finally Arrive

Pumps Set Record

In the city less than 25 basements were reported flooded. The complaints were from scattered points. The City's sewer pumping system pumped nearly 13 times its million gallon a day average.

Water was over the curb at Kercheval and St. Clair. Three homes were reported struck by lightning. Many side streets were flooded.

In the Park 49 complaints relative to the storm were handled by the police department. A number of streets south of Jefferson were flooded including Windmill Pointe drive.

The Park's sewer pumping system handled 49,950,000 gallons of water at a rate of 5,200 gallons per second. "We did not have to use all of our pumps," said Herb Jager. He stated that the pumping system was operating at 2/3 of its capacity.

Some Wires Down

Wires were reported down on Park lane, Grand Marais, and Edgemont Park and a hot transformer was reported on Westchester.

A fire was extinguished at 1003 Somerset after the home had been struck by lightning. Damage was confined to the roof.

There were 20 basements reported flooded in the Farms, according to City Engineer Murray Smith. "It was the intensity of the rainfall which caused the flooding," he said in reporting the half inch in five minutes.

The Farms sewage pumping station pumped 30 million gallons at 250,000 gallons per minute.

There were three reports of live wires down in the Farms. Storms on the two preceding days caused minor damage in the area.

Grab Juveniles For Shoplifting

Four Grosse Pointe juveniles were caught last week shoplifting from four stores in "The Village." Their loot included packages of paper clips, rubberbands, a butcher knife, carton of cigarettes, and phonograph records.

juvenile probation officer by Police Chief Thomas Trombly. "When kids come home with articles like that, their parents ought to ask where they all came from," he said. All four were taken by police to the stores from which they stole, where they paid for the articles.

Group at Center Launches New Club for Retired Men

Forty of the Pointe's senior residents met last Thursday, August 20, at the War Memorial for the purpose of forming the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe.

"To have reached the stage of retirement is of great credit to a person, we feel," said Ed Gehrig, chairman of the meeting who was later elected president. "After all, we've been through three wars, a depression and various illnesses in getting there."

With much interest and enthusiasm the group went about the business of adopting the constitution and by-laws drawn up by the somewhat smaller group that formulated the plans for the organization.

The object of the club is "to further the educational and social growth through the general advancement of men's interests and to promote better understanding among men of the Grosse Pointes and to operate for civic, social, literary and educational purposes."

The dues are $5 per year, with meetings planned twice a month, one speaker luncheon and one casual meeting with lunch. Any retired male resident of the Grosse Pointes or adjoining areas is eligible to join.

Walter M. Wakeman, chairman of the nominations committee, read the slate of officers and it was accepted unanimously. The officers are Ed Gehrig, president; Eugene Hoezle, vice-president; H. W. (Doc) Merrill, secretary; and Arthur Dannecker, treasurer. These men will serve the club until October 1, 1960. From that date on, officers will serve from one October 1 to the next October 1. The appointed officers are: Eugene Hoezle, program committee chairman; Walter Wakeman, membership; Sam Shenefield, fellowship; and Harry Hogan, publicity.

The next meeting planned by the club is for Tuesday, September 15 at the War Memorial. It will be their "kick-off" luncheon, the first official meeting as a club. As speaker they will have Red Jones, a former American League umpire, now with the public relations department of Pfeiffer Brewing Co.

"We have doubled our attendance at each of our three organizational meetings. We hope to double the number for this meeting, also, which would mean 80 men," said Mr. Gehrig. Many of the men present expressed the wish to have members as speakers at future meetings. "There is a great variety of talent and interests in this organization. We should take advantage of it," one spokesman said.

The group that attended the first meeting on July 15 are: John Lake, Ed Gehrig, Harold Jones, Eugene Hoezle, Ralph Kimble, Bert Wickling, Sam Schingman, John Kwivinan, Wilber Kann and Sam Shenefield.

Others in on the planning sessions were: Walter Wakeman, Gustav Schroeder, Fred Slocum, J. L. Dickson, Frank Magee, L. A. Hittel, Fred Liebold, Arthur Dannecker, H. W. (Doc) Merrill, Roy Margenau and Richard Knight.

Everyone present seemed to agree that the club would be a going concern and expressed their enthusiasm for the idea.

Driver of Truck Without License

Farms Patrolman Earl Field and Harold Beapre stopped a Chevy pickup truck on Lakeshore at 1:15 a.m. on Tuesday, August 25, after they spotted it moving in an erratic manner. The driver of the truck Louis H. Knight, 21, of 280 Wyandotte in Windsor, did not have a driver's license and had never acquired one.

The truck's owner, Hanon K. Gaston of 22520 Milner, St. Clair Shores, was a passenger in the truck and was issued a ticket for allowing an unlicensed driver to drive.

Knight had been drinking and was given a bed in which to sober up. Gaston was released pending further investigation.

Six Pay Fines In Shores Court

Six court cases were heard before Shores Judge John Gillis Monday, August 17.

David R. Muhleck, 21, of 5927 Nottingham, Detroit, paid a $12.50 fine for speeding 45 m.p.h. on Lakeshore.

Marcus Wellington Smith of 630 St. Clair was fined $107.50 for reckless driving on Lakeshore.

Joseph G. Vulpetti, 23, of 5890 Oakman boulevard, Detroit, was found guilty of ignoring a stop sign and speeding on July 4. He paid a $80 fine and was placed on 90 days probation with no driving. He had a record of previous offenses.

Jerome J. Browarski, 20, of 4004 Oliver, Detroit, was fined $10 for driving 40 m.p.h. on Vernier.

George L. Tack, 49, of 21107 Eshoven Mile road, St. Clair Shores, pled guilty to a charge of reckless driving and paid a fine of $107.50.

John B. Whitton, 18, of 1014 Hawthorn, paid a fine of $10 and was placed on 60 days probation. He was given a written assignment in addition. His charge was loitering at 20 Lochmoor and refusing to leave at an officer's request.

FIRE DAMAGE SLIGHT

A fire at 904 Pemberton caused very little damage on Saturday, August 22. The residents were burning some material in the fireplace and the fire flashed out the front of the fireplace.

It may be true that every man never lets the price tag man has his price, but a smart show.

"Have A Boy—They Cost Less!"

It's a good thing parents don't have the final say in whether a child is to be a boy or a girl. Else, Detroit would be greatly overstocked in boys. The reason being that Harry Sufferin sells boys' clothing—everything from hats to shoes for every boy from first grade to high school senior—at "the smallest margin of profit known" (excepting only merchandise price-controlled by the manufacturer).

If you happen to have only girls, just tuck away this bit of information. It'll save them money some day—when they grow up and have boys of their own to clothe!

After the Ball Was Over

The day after the night before was a solemn sight at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club where the annual Showboat Night was held. Fabulous decorations that glittered and gleamed the night before were just another bunch of wood and metal awaiting the workmen's wrecking bars to clear the front lawn for another year.

Plan to Improve Launching Ramp

The Woods Parks and Recreation Committee is planning to recommend to the Woods Council that the present launching ramp at the pier-park be improved for next spring.

This recommendation came after much discussion of proposed construction of boat ramps and docks, during the committee meeting Monday night, August 24. Rather than build a new launching ramp, it was thought that improvements on the present one would be sufficient.

William H. Lange, Woods City Administrator, will report to the Council at the September 14 meeting what the approximate cost of improving the present ramp will be. It was felt that there had not been sufficient discussion on the construction of boat docks at this time. There is a problem as to how the Woods will charge for the ramps and docks.

Studies Music On Scholarship

Gone to The Big City to seek fame and also fortune, a local musician would seem to be well on the way to both.

David Elwood Riemer, son of the Elwood F. Riemers, of Somers road, has been awarded a $600 scholarship by the Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University, Chicago, Ill.

Young Riemer, a 1955 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, entered the university's music school in February of that year to study clarinet. Now a senior in the downtown Chicago school, he was one of five students awarded grants for the 1959-60 academic year.

While attending Grosse Pointe High, Riemer was president of his classroom and also played in the school band and on the tennis team.

His grant came from Roosevelt's Oliver Ditson endowment fund which provides the money in order to help "capable music students... planning professional careers."

Roosevelt is one of four American universities to be endowed with the fund. The others are Yale, Princeton and Harvard.

Income from Roosevelt's endowment of $100,000 provides for grants in the fields of organ, voice, strings, piano, wind instruments, composition and musicology.

Winners of the grants (which aren't necessarily awarded each year), are chosen by a jury composed of musicians and teachers in each of the seven fields.

Holley to Head Speakers Bureau

The appointment of Danforth Holley to 209 Lake Shore Road as chairman of the United Foundation Speakers Bureau was announced today by Thomas B. Adams, general campaign co-chairman for promotion.

Holley is vice-president of Holley Carburetor Company and president of Holley Plastics Company. He will head a group of 200 outstanding volunteer public speakers. These men and women will appear before luncheon clubs, parents' groups, employe meetings and other gatherings to discuss the importance of the services offered by 195 health and community agencies made possible by the Torch Drive.

The UF Speakers Bureau also handles the distribution of films bearing on the work of Torch Drive services, which are often shown in conjunction with talks by bureau volunteers.

Holley has been prominently identified with Torch Drive leadership for several years. He was Torch Drive campaign chairman in 1956 for South Macomb County, where the Holley plants are located. In 1957 he became chairman of the South Macomb UF advisory committee. Last year he was named to the UF Goal and Allotments Committee and the UF Board of Directors.

Park Council and Residents Battle Over Submerged Land

Following the regular Park council meeting on Monday, August 24, the park council and city planning commission had a joint meeting to discuss the use of the city owned land at the foot of Three Mile drive. The meeting was prompted when parties represented by William McMillan and Thomas LoCicero applied for title to adjacent submerged lands at the meeting of August 3. The council asked them and the planning commission to appear at the August 24 meeting to discuss the matter before it decided how to answer their request. Under state law, persons applying for title for filled in lake bottom lands must secure the approval of their local city council before applying to the Michigan Conservation Commission to buy the land. LoCicero answered a council request for a price on the land he represented, saying that his owners don't want to quote a price and become involved in a public bidding contest. He promised that after the owners had cleared title they would consult with the city before selling the land. Planning commission chairman Harold S. Ellington stated that during the 11 years he has been on the commission the subject of the property had been continuous. "The Park is woefully short of city-owned property," he said. "We own the site of the municipal building, three of the seven lots across the street, the waterfront Park and parking lot and the Three Mile drive property. He said that the property in question was acquired in a 1943 State tax sale and at the time it was required that the land be used for municipal purposes. Now the law has been amended so that it can be used for other purposes or disposed of. "The majority of the planning commission is very definitely of the opinion that the property should be held by the city and used for recreational purposes in part or in toto," he continued. "On Sunday the Waterfront Park was jammed even on threat of rain. We are woefully short of recreational space even considering the school playgrounds which the city doesn't own. "According to national averages we should have 180 acres of recreational space. Counting the school property and our seven acre park we are still 145 acres short of the nationally recommended minimum. The Three Mile property is just a sweetener." The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club has offered to help with the planting and the beautification of the property. Last fall the city appropriated $4,000 to clean up and improve the property. Four thousand yards of fill have been put in and bulldozed and the fences have been improved. The site was in the state in which it had been left after the army had closed its anti-aircraft operation there. Planning Commission Vice Chairman Melville H. Collinson thought that the adjacent submerged lands might be acquired to increase the area. Grand Marais lot 26, the property represented by LoCicero, looks right up the lake. He felt the area should be developed into a "park for those who want peace and quiet to sit under a tree and watch the boats go by or have a picnic." No athletic games or swimming should be conducted on the site, he continued. Collinson claimed that the law which gave the city councils the right to pass on the applications for title was designed to allow the State municipalities a chance to acquire lakefront property inexpensively. He recommended that the council tell the property owners that they will under no condition grant them title to the submerged lands. City Attorney Pierre Heffler stated that the filled in land legally belongs to the state of Michigan and in order for the Park to buy it, permission of the owner of the adjoining fast land must be secured. One alternative would be to condemn lot 26 and then buy the filled in land, he said. Councilman Peter J. Gallette questioned the city's right to refuse title on land on which the parties had been paying taxes, but Heffler stated that possession of property alone was sufficient grounds for taxation. LoCicero claimed that the law requiring the council's approval on the application for title was just a matter of courtesy to the municipalities to see if it interfered with any city action. He said that the city had no right to hold up his application on this ground. "The property owners have first right to the submerged land and the city can always condemn the land after the owners secure title," he said. "We come to you in good (Continued on Page 19)

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"My heart has grown rich with the passing of years, I have less need now than when I was young To share myself with every corner, Or shape my thoughts into words with my tongue. Let me think I love them more than I do, Let them think I care, though I go alone, If it lifts their pride, what is it to me, Who am self-complete as a flower or a stone." (Sara Teasdale)

Kid Stuff

If we may borrow a page from Sam Levinson's book... here are excerpts from a few letters some G.P. residents have received from their children who are at the inevitable summer camp. "Dear Mom and Dad: It is a lot of fun but I miss you a little. Our counselor is nice. She plays the guitar. Vicki says she is 53 and I am sure she likes the teacher. We had a cookout yesterday. What I like best is we all put names in a hat then took one out because we would be nice to the person but not tell her your her invisabel friend. I got DeeDee Downs, her father is a movie star! I have been giving her flowers and putting them under her pillow."

"Dear Mother and Father: I want to know if you will send a note saying I can get my hair cut. Do not write anything purnal because my roommate reads them when she gets a chance."

"Dear Mom and Dad: In answer to Pop's questions I dedicate my letter. "1. I once went on a mountain trip and we got half way to the top. "2. I do not like swimming at all. It is usully freasing. I like swimming in a pool better. "3. I like sleeping in a tent. "4. I pasted my fifteen minute swim test yesterday. H.S. wanted to know when I pasted it so I told her and she said that was because she fed me so much when I sat at her table."

"A short note from an older camper: "Dear Mum: I am NOT homesick. Just hate camp. I like Pam so much better than MiMi. Am SICK of opera. I hate it. I hate it. Tossed and turned because of it."

Space Decor

One of the mechanics at the airport (MY how we get around) told us a privately owned plane flew in and needed some repair work. He had to board the plane for something or other and was amazed to see the decoration in the main salon. There were light colored brocade draperies at the windows... floor length, yet... a large round glass top table in the middle of the room and a crystal chandelier hung over same. Nice if the pilot, in a pixie mood decided to do loops, aloft!

Dear Little Old Lady Dept.

A reader tells us a nice little old lady moved into the house next to hers about a month ago... and they have become acquainted over the back fence. Our heroine sez she got into the habit of asking the LOL if she could pick anything up for her when she went to market. Last week, LOL thought and thought and then said: "Oh yes. If you don't mind going to the drugstore I'd like some "Overnight Corn Remover"... The younger woman said she'd be glad to pick it up but strangely enough, had never heard of it. "Oh dear," replied the little lady, "I've been using it for twenty years." (Nice plug (?) for the Overnight Corn Remover people!)

Television

We've seen a lot of funny things on TV but nothing to top this. Before Bill Kennedy (CKLW-TV, channel 9) left for his vacation he had as a guest on his show, the NEW and virile Tarzan, whose name we are sorry to say has escaped us. A handsome Tarzan to be sure, who refused to make with the "Me Tarzan" famous YELL... but did consent to remove his sport shirt before leaving the studio, so the audience could see his rippling muscles. They make the Mr. America boys look like sissies.

After another segment of movie, the next sponsor was due to appear in person. Kennedy's director got a heat wave or something and talked the sponsor into coming on the set in his underwear! In itself, this might not be so hilarious except that the sponsor, Abe Cherow of Artistic Furniture, is not exactly the Tarzan type. Abe is short and husky... has much more hair on his arms and chest than on his head. However, in he walked in his undershorts and undershirt. Kennedy looked as if he'd been stoned. For once, he couldn't open his mouth. After the first uproar was over, Mr. Cherow suggested he don his coat while making his pitch... but Kennedy made him sit as he was and sell his artistic assistance and materials in his underwear. Funniest sight we've ever seen. Wonder what the people thought who might just have tuned in at that moment??

More TV

The followers of "Edge of Night" (channel 2) will be crushed to see the last of the evil Maximilian Briar... who we fear is about to get the electric chair for three juicy murders. No matter what other program "Max" turns up on, we will always think of him as a diabolical fiend.

He is a personable looking gent whose real name is Robert Pastene. Since we predict great things for Mr. Pastene in the fiend field... we wrote to make some inquiries as to his background and future. As is so often the case, no answer. Much to our surprise, our local Sandy Schenck, who is in Nantucket, called to tell us she saw a familiar face among the group on the dance floor one night and asked it: "Are you by any chance "Max Briar"?" The gent allowed as how he was indeed Max... and gave the gal his autograph. She didn't do much in the way of the snooping reporter though... all she found out was that his run in "Edge of Night" will last about one more week.

Since that program is a top rated one here... just thought we'd pass on what dope we have on the guy.

Pointers Teach Special Courses

Several people from this area will teach classes this fall in the Division of Adult Education sponsored jointly by Wayne State University and the University of Michigan. The Division, which offers more than 100 courses, combines the rich resources of both universities to present a wide variety of college level classes ranging from the liberal arts and the humanities to business subjects. The courses will be held on the Wayne State campus as well as at the Rackham Memorial and at suburban points which include Allen Park, Ferndale, Grosse Pointe, Royal Oak, St. Clair Shores and Wyandotte. Those from this area who will be teaching, include:—Edgar V. Roberts, of 1315 Lakepointe, English Composition; Lawrence M. Peck, of 2048 Beaufait, Office Management; Eleanor Stelekul, of 114 Handy road, Catering for Church Dinners and Receptions; Melvin C. Bergen, of 412 Calvin, Economics; Government and Business CPCU, Part III A; Dominic Pucil, of 287 Moran, Elementary Conversational Italian; Malcolm M. Johns, of 1699 Bourne-mouth road, Introduction to the Art of Music.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

According to busy parents who frequent our libraries, August is the desperate month. "As for the last ten days before school opens," sighed the mother of five, "they are the most troublesome of the year." Come the end of August, the heady joy of early vacation days has faded, play tastes are jaded and it takes a resourceful grown-up to keep things on an even keel.

Before you resort to tranquilizers, try a visit to your library. A number of books on our shelves provide new ideas for play time and may help to keep youngsters busy and happy until the school bell rings.

There's a wealth of ideas for backyard fun, which will delight eight to twelve year olds, in "Back-Yard Games and Activities" by Sylvia Cassell. It includes chapters on cookouts, overnight camping, campfire capers, games with homemade equipment and old favorites such as hop scotch and jacks.

There are good ideas too for special events, a real circus with sideshow and clown acts, a carnival, or an Indian powwow. The author has an earlier book "Nature Games and Activities" useful with children nine to eleven. It is not a book for strong particular interests but rather one to stimulate and direct the more generally inquisitive.

"Fun in the Back Yard" by Arthur Lawson and Mary Breen tells you how to convert your backyard into an attractive outdoor rumpus room which the entire family will enjoy. This is an excellent book for the family with a limited budget and limited space. There are suggestions for the small fry: swings, seesaws, sandboxes and other play equipment; chapters on games for various ages and for the oldsters, there is a chapter on the outdoor kitchen and outdoor meals.

One of the best books we know to keep Junior absorbed for hours on end is G. Warren Schloat's "What Shall I Do?" Tricks, games, and things to make are presented in simple text and large, clear, easy-to-follow photographs which illustrate each step. Practically all materials needed can be found in the home. Older children can work things out for themselves but there are some things that young children can do with some adult help. Parents will appreciate such admonition as "Don't forget to clean your work-room and put away your tools" or "While the mask is drying, you must clean the kitchen. Remember it should be left as clean as you found it."

"The Family Fun Book" by Helen and Larry Eisenberg includes games and other amusements which can be enjoyed by the family group and suggests ways of injecting fun into the doing of routine chores.

Alfred Sheinwoid believes that every child will benefit from playing card games and his book "101 Best Card Games for Children" starts with games for the youngest player, just able to distinguish the faces on his cards and continue through variations of hearts, rummy, casino, et al. Many of the games are good family fun. Mr. Sheinwoid has also written the "First Book of Bridge" which he addresses to teen-agers. Actually the material and presentation would be useful to anyone interested in bridge.

Books about magic delight youngsters of all ages. The library has many from which to choose. "101 Best Magic Tricks" by Guy Frederick shows just how to perform the more familiar tricks of magic and how to make your own equipment for some of them. "Magic Wherever You Are" by William Severn describes simple magic requiring little and inexpensive equipment, to be performed before small audiences in the home or out of doors.

How Food Fads Can Fool You

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

We don't mean there's anything wrong with eating yogurt and wheat germ and so on. They are fine, healthful foods. But here's the rub. Advocates of some food fads promise benefits that diet alone can't deliver. Occasionally, someone with a medical problem will try to solve it by living on cabbage juice or some such thing. Special foods and diets, however, have limitation — can be harmful when improperly used. So if you think there's anything wrong with you, by all means see your physician. ...This is the 167th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Minister Copies Famous Herb Garden

THE REV. ANDREW RAUTH, minister of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, has constructed a duplicate of the Goose Foot herb garden, (the original of which is at the Brewster House in the Plymouth Plantation Pilgrim Village at Plymouth, Mass.), in the yard of his home at 20070 Berns court. The name is taken from the design of the paths leading into the garden. Mr. Rauth's interest in such gardens started with the Cottage Herb Garden at Washington Cathedral in Washington, D.C., many years ago.

Special Service At Parking Lots

Hats off and many thanks were the words of praise by some local ladies about some very thoughtful parking lot attendants.

During a recent and very stormy cloudburst, it seems that numerous ladies had left car windows down when they parked in "The Village" parking lots. They went about their shopping until suddenly, with horror, they noticed the black heavens and the pelting rain drops.

Too late, thought one and all, the car is soaked by now. To go out in this storm means getting drenched, new hairdo and all. So they waited out the storm.

But, each one, upon returning to her rain washed auto, found to her surprise that the windows were up, the insides of the vehicle dry as a bone.

The reason—a thoughtful parking lot attendant. One woman, driving into a lot during the storm, remarked that the attendant was dashing around closing windows in between taking tickets. There were lots of grateful women in the Village that day thanks to that particular act. So, to Charles Mason, Paul Ruggillo and Howard Witherspoon, the attendants in the Village lots three, four and five, hats off and thank-you, from some grateful Pointers.

Watched Quake In Yellowstone

Mrs. Paul F. McNally of Hidden Lane was enjoying her vacation in Yellowstone National Park and other parts of Montana until August 18, which was Tuesday a week ago. It was also the day that the earthquake hit that area.

Mrs. McNally "fortunately" left Old Faithful Inn on Monday, Aug. 17, but was in Livingston, Montana, when the quake hit there. "Needless to say, I am frightened," she wrote on August 18 at 1 p.m.

Edward J. Wasners Purchase New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Wasner have recently purchased the Nicholas R. Kerns home in Berkshire road and will leave their McMillan road home around September 15.

A few members of Mrs. Wasner's family will be guests in their present home before the moving date. Mrs. Wasner's sister, Mrs. Frank Howarth, arrived on Saturday, August 15, from Chicago to be here for a few weeks visiting relatives in Michigan.

The Wasners were hosts at a steak barbecue in their yard Saturday evening, August 15, in honor of Mrs. Howarth. Among the guests were the Wasners' son, Edward, Jr., Mrs. C. D. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carson, and the Robert E. Vedders.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wasner celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary at a dinner party at St. Clair Inn in St. Clair, Michigan. Among the guests were Mrs. Wasner's brother and sister-in-law the F. Sheldon Wilsie's and their son, Richard of Caro, Michigan.

The University of Michigan Extension Service conducted nearly 750 classes throughout the state last year.

Take Canoe Trip Down Manistee

The parking lot of Grosse Pointe High School, was the scene of much excitement and anticipation last Monday morning as 14 boys left at 7 o'clock for a six day adventure. Their parents were there to wish them bon voyage.

Dan Goodnow, 20, of Handy place, and Jerry Lynch, 19, of Hall place, who have spent the summer taking boys from ages 10 to 14 on canoe trips, were in charge along with an able assistant, Peter Jason, of Whittier road. This week's trip, the longest of the season, is the tenth and final one.

The boys motored to Mackinac Island in two station wagons, did some water skiing at the Otsego ski club and then got down to the business of a canoe trip. They "pu' in" at Grayling on the Manistee river, about noon Wednesday, and from there they will paddle with the current down 100 miles of river.

Saturday afternoon should mark the end of the trip when they arrive at the Highway 131 bridge. There, Ray's Canoe Livery, from whom they rent their canoes, will pick them up and return them to Grayling and their station wagons. From there on it will be the highway again, and home.

The boys on this trip are: Larry, Tommy and John Drummy, of Lothrop road, and their cousin Bill Drummy, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Warren Long, of Lothrop road, Dick Schulte, of Westwind lane, Kris Kerbaw, of Yorkshire road, Billy Scott, of Handy place, Paul Mc-

Kenney, of Newberry place, Kevin Cassidy, of Lakeshore road, Dave Wells, of Handy place, Doug Minge of Grayton road, Doug Lott, of Washington road, and Rod Wilson.

Both Dan and Jerry are college boys. Dan, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and Williston Academy, Easthampton, Mass., will be a junior at Colgate University and Jerry, a graduate of Austin High School, will be a junior at Michigan State. Peter is a 1959 graduate of University of Detroit High School.

"Plans are being made to continue the trips next summer, possibly taking two a week instead of one," said Dan.

Thief Ransacks Home in Park
 Allan G. Barry of 1019 Bedford reported belatedly to Park police that his home had been burglarized while he was away between Wednesday noon and Friday, two weeks ago.

Barry made the report on Monday, August 17. He said that a strong box and some Japanese pearls were missing.

They were later found in the home, Park Police Chief Arthur Lowers said that the thief was apparently looking for money, since drawers had been searched throughout the house and a mattress had been removed from a bed.

The thief had entered through an unlocked door.

Arrest Driver Fleeing Crash
 A Detroit youth got himself deeper and deeper into trouble on Friday, August 21, after he hit a parked car on Mack near Hollywood.

Theodore Alter of 5039 Anatole, Detroit, fell asleep at the wheel of his 1951 Plymouth and hit a parked Ford occupied by Doris Kott of 81 Devonshire, Kapuskasing, Ontario, and her three children. The children were shaken up in the crash.

Alter got out of his car and ran behind the stores at Mack and Hollywood. Woods Patrolman Kenneth Metcalf apprehended him at Anita and Canton in Harper Woods.

He was taken to the Woods police station for investigation of causing an accident and leaving the scene. There it was discovered that he did not have a driver's license on his person. A check with Lansing revealed that he had never obtained one.

He was found guilty of causing an accident and never obtaining a Michigan driver's license in court the next day. He made full restitution to Mrs. Kott, who was on her way to Florida.

Nab Pair Trying To Steal Battery

A call from Julius Beeles, 15545 Brunswick, Detroit, that he was holding a person in custody at the Verdonck Cafe, Mack at Beaconsfield, resulted in the arrest of two youths.

Beeles was holding William Nichols, 17, of 4133 Maryland, for tampering with a car in the parking lot near the bar.

In interrogation at the Park police detective bureau, Nichols named an accomplice Ralph Pirrello, 18, of 4741 Maryland. The pair were attempting to steal a battery for Pirrello's car.

The complainant refused to prosecute, but during the questioning the youths admitted stealing a wheel from a car in Detroit. They were turned over to Detroit for possible prosecution.

Pointer Hurt In Rail Crash

Jack Wilson, 18, of 681 N. Oxford road was among 13 persons injured when a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train was derailed near Perrysburg, Ohio, 10 miles southeast of Toledo, Monday, August 24.

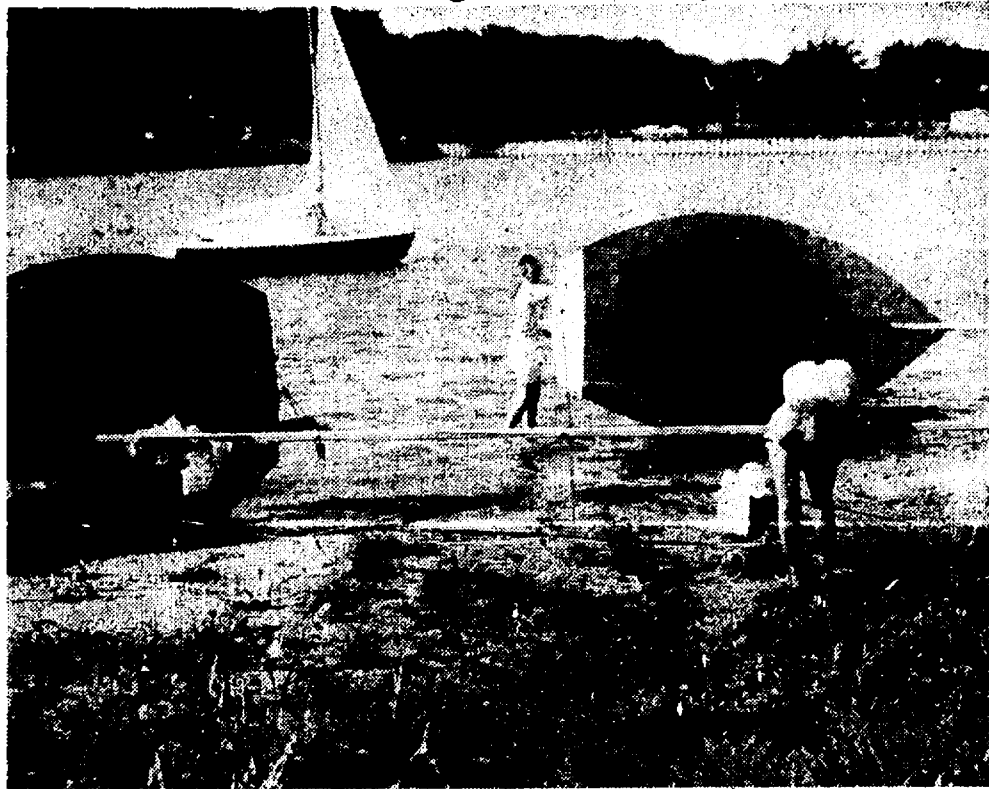

Jack, the son of the George R. Wilsons, suffered a broken leg and was taken to Toledo Hospital. His father drove to Toledo as soon as he heard about the accident. After Jack's leg was set and put in a cast, his father drove him back to Grosse Pointe.

Jack, a senior at Gow School near Buffalo, N. Y., was returning home after a visit with his school roommate Al Deckebach of Cincinnati, when the train was derailed.

"He's doing fine now," said his mother. "We are just thankful he is alive."

This Sail Racing Has Many Angles

Early arrivals for the annual Lightning Class International championship series at Crescent Sail Y.C., took advantage of the beach to scrub road grim off the bottoms of their boats prior to the start of the five race series sailed on Lake St. Clair. One cute crew member adds her not too petite weight to hold down the spar of one of the contenders as it gets its bottom washed. Meanwhile—back at the ranch.

Richard Heinrich Killed in Crash

Richard Heinrich, 17, the son of the Otto Heinrichs of 1496 Hampton road, died Sunday night, August 23, as a result of a plane crash August 21, in Land O'Lakes, Wisconsin.

Richard and his two cousins, Barbara Miner, 14, and Wesley Miner, Jr., 12, were critically injured in the crash that instantly killed Wesley A. Miner, Sr. and his wife, of Des Plaines, Ill. The two Miner children are out of danger. Barbara suffered two broken legs and Wesley had lacerations about the head.

Richard had been visiting his aunt and uncle in Des Plaines. The family was on its way to the Miners' summer home in Wisconsin, Friday night, when the Commanche single engine plane crashed in a severe thunderstorm.

"Mr. Miner was a capable pilot," said Richard's mother. "He taught flying in the Army. The plane they were in Friday was a safe one."

Richard, a 1959 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, had planned to go to college, but no definite school had been selected at the time of his death.

He was interested in sports, particularly water and snow skiing and boating. At Parcels Junior High School, he excelled in fencing. He was also both a Cub and Boy Scout. "He was working very hard, preparing himself for college," his mother said.

The Heinrichs have no other children. Funeral services will be held tomorrow, August 28, at Kline's Funeral home in East Detroit at 10 o'clock.

SWIMMER STONED
Donald Stres, 21152 Kenmore, Harper Woods was struck on the head by a stone while he was swimming at the Farms pier on Saturday, August 22. He was treated at Cottage hospital. The stone was thrown by a fifteen year old who was swimming at the pier.

District Dems Holding Picnic

14th Congressional District Democrats will forget politics Sunday, August 30th, while they enjoy the organization's annual picnic at Chandler Park. The picnic will be held near Chandler Park's eastern entrance—Dickerson at Chandler Park drive, adjoining the golf course.

A highlight of picnic activities is the softball game to be played between the Young Dems and older Dems. The game is scheduled for 12:30 p.m., shortly after the picnic opens at 12 noon.

Every child who takes part in the picnic has been promised a gift, according to co-chairmen Mrs. Lee Murphy, 11824 Kilbourne, and Mrs. Carmella Bommarito, 2996 Coplin. Games competition, with prizes for the winners, will be held for adults and children.

Hot dogs and refreshments will be furnished, free of charge, by the Democratic organization. The cooking of hot dogs will begin at 2 p.m.

District Chairman Marvin Taormina stressed that the picnic was a family affair open to all Democrats. He said the affair is another in a series of social activities given on behalf of party delegates and workers whose year-around door-to-door work is greatly appreciated by the Democratic organization.

Taormina said there is no charge to attend the picnic. He said that the emphasis will be on having a good time.

Michigan Skipper Winner Of Lightning Sail Title

Rotund Hermy Nickels and his crew of Dave Nickels and Bob Furey were thrown bodily into the harbor at Crescent Sail Yacht Club last Friday, August 22, after winning the 1959 Lightning International championship on Lake St. Clair under the sponsorship of Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

The dunking didn't come until about an hour after the final race had finished in a thunder squall that drenched the crews of the fifty-three boats that competed in the five race series which started Wednesday, August 19. Everyone knew Nickels had won, but they restrained themselves until the judges announced the new champion officially.

Ends 15-Year Search

This was one time Hermy didn't mind taking the victor's swim. As a matter of fact he had been seeking this show of affection from the other Lightning skippers for the past fifteen years. Hermy and his crew took another victor's swim last February in St. Petersburg, Florida after they had won the Mid-Winter championship.

Going into the final race on Friday afternoon it appeared Tommy Allen, of the Buffalo Canoe Club, would become the first to win the International title three times. He had a seven point lead over second place Charley Kehoe, of New Orleans, and a nine point lead over Nickels. Allen had 194 points on finishes of 1-10-1-10 and it didn't seem possible for him to fall apart at this stage in the hotly contested series.

But for the first time Allen failed to finish among the first ten boats and Nickels snatched the title out of Allen's hands when he took second place to gain a four point margin in the final standings. Charley Kehoe, sailing with Jack Price, skipper of the "Comanche" of Southern Ocean Racing Circuit fame, placed high enough in the last race to salvage third place.

Proves Great Sailor

Henry Cawthra, the defending champion stamped himself as a great sailor in this popular class, when he captured the last race by a wide margin to gain ninth place. This was a remarkable come back for Cawthra and his crew, Arno Neumeier and Otto Scherer, Jr., after they had been disqualified in the second race for hitting a boat at the start as they attempted to get back across the line for a restart.

Jimmy Schudel, of Bayview Y. C., was the only other Michigan skipper who showed up well. Jim placed sixth in the fifty three boat fleet.

For the most part the series was sailed in light winds on a smooth Lake St. Clair and under a brilliant sun, except for the final race. In that race storm clouds loomed in the west southwest and moved in just before the fleet started up the final weather leg of the triangular course.

Only the first six boats crossed the line before the turbulent breeze began doing tricks. The first six finished on the wind but a half mile back the rest of the fleet encountered a north wind and colorful spinners burst open like puff balls. As the two wind currents met the rains came and for nearly ten minutes visibility was nil. This caused much concern on the judges boat because mass capsizing could have been disastrous, as there were not enough patrol boats to do an effective job in case this happened. Fortunately the storm produced only rain and little wind.

Besides giving Nickels the coveted International title it earned for him the right to represent the United States in the Pan American Games to be held in Chicago, August 28 through September 3, in this class. Seven races will be sailed on Lake Michigan.

Spectacular Sight

The most spectacular sight of the series and which drew the "Ohs" and "Ahs" from the spectator fleet was the colorful spinners. There were hardly two alike and they were made of every color in the rainbow and it seemed like every possible combination.

Janet Lethen and her crew from Rye, New York, was the only girl crew in the series. They finished forty-fifth but seemed to have a ball doing it. In one race the gals donned bikini bathing suits and there was more than one male crew that took a second look as they sailed near Janet's "Restless". However, they kept their minds focused on the job at hand and didn't give the gals a bit of a break.

Sailed in conjunction with the International was the President's Trophy race which started twenty minutes after the International starts. Carter Ford, of Riverside, Connecticut, won this series with 158 points. Jack Swanson, of Buffalo, N. Y., was second with 142 and was followed by C. L. Holman, of Fenton, Michigan, with 122 points.

Alex Allardyce, of Crescent Sail Y. C. was the only local skipper to do well in this series when he finished fifth with 112 points. Don Fairchild and Charles Grant, of Crescent, placed eighteenth and twenty fifth respectively.

Herm Nickels indicated he would defend his new title on Lake Huron at Tawas, Michigan next summer.

Bob Brown, Jr., trailed his boat the farthest when he rolled in, from Seattle, Washington. Carl Echtenlaub came from San Diego, California. Eric Schmidt was the representative from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil who borrowed Warren Jones' "Hard Tom" for the series and placed seventh with 208 points.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnels

A swimming accident struck down one of our veteran sailors last Thursday, August 20.

Ward Detwiler, skipper of the Luder sloop "Yum Yum," is in serious condition at Ford Hospital with a broken neck suffered when he dived from a boat into shallow water near Peche Island. The accident left Ward paralyzed from the neck down. An operation was performed Tuesday, August 25, to relieve the pressure near the sixth vertebra, which was damaged.

We know get well cards would help Ward on the road to recovery. Doctors have ordered that no flowers be allowed in his room which is 612.

Michigan pleasure boaters will be happy to hear they are going to get what's coming to them, finally. A new release from the Outboard Club of America states:

In 1946, the pleasure boaters approved a proposal (by Constitutional amendment) by which they gave up their rights for a refund of the fuel tax collected for highway use, provided this money would be earmarked for increasing and improving the state's boating facilities.

A new and simple method for apportioning all the tax money that should go into this fund has recently been approved by the state legislature. One half of one per cent of all gasoline sales tax collected will now automatically go to improving boating facilities.

This will mean that the Michigan State Waterways Commission will have more than double what it had ever previously collected, or about $650,000 to build harbors and docking facilities, according to the director of the commission.

The new system is viewed as being more simple and obviously more efficient than the old method in which a consumer had to report to the service station attendant from whom he purchased the fuel as to how he was going to use it—whether in a tractor, a lawn mower or a boat. The dealer then had to file a report with the state's tax office and this amount was then deducted from the highway fuel tax fund and earmarked for boating.

The new system came about from a study by the state's House Committee on Marine Affairs, which worked with oil companies and surveyed service station operators to determine the per cent of fuel sales actually sold for marine use.

Boat Builder Wins Lightning Title

HERM NICKELS, right, is not one to "hide his light under a bushel basket" and he proved this point when he captured the 1959 Lightning Class International championship in the five race series sailed on Lake St. Clair and sponsored by Crescent Sail Yacht Club, August 19 through 21.

Nickels hails from Fenton, Michigan, where he has built more than 700 of the popular 19-foot Lightning sloops in his shop. Posing with the winner is crew, Dave Nickels, left, and Bob Furey. This crew will represent the U.S. in the forthcoming Pan American Games to be held in Chicago.

Win Net Title At Hunt Club

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's second annual Junior Invitational Boys Doubles Tennis Tournament reached its climax last Sunday, August 23.

The final match pitted George Haggarty and Bob Wood, current holders of the State high school class C-D doubles championship and recent graduates of Grosse Pointe University School, against Chuck Dyer and Pete Ness, who represent Grosse Pointe High School. All but two games went to deuce as Haggarty and Wood subdued their rivals for the title 6-1, 6-1.

Trophies were presented to the winners and runners-up by Ed Carroll, club tennis director.

The perpetual trophy will again bear the name of George Haggarty who teamed with Pete Monroe to win the title last summer.

Thirty boys initially participated in the tournament. They represented seven East Side high schools: GPUS, GP High, Austin, Hamtramck, Servite, East Detroit, and Lakeview.

Edison Boat Club Regatta Mauled by Freak Storm

A fluke afternoon storm rapped the 133 boat sailing fleet in the annual Edison Boat Club regatta last Saturday, August 22. Ripped sails, torn rigging and capsizings were left in the wake of the storm that seemed to skip across the lake.

The leading Class A boats caught only a brief shower of rain which was accompanied by a fifteen mile an hour wind that came from out of the west. It was this wind that apparently picked up speed as it crossed the lake and slammed the bulk of the fleet.

Some skippers reported fifty mile an hour winds and elected to drop canvas and anchor and ride it out instead of chancing rigging failure.

Peter Kremlick, the newest Raven owner, rode out the storm in good shape to capture his first victory with "Naraka" in that class.

Heart Breaker

A Junior sailor, whose name was not available suffered a heartbreaking loss to C. Mistelle in the Interlake class. The nameless skipper lost out by one second and he can trace the loss to an incident near the finish line when he was forced about by a big yacht on a port tack and under a straining spinnaker. The Junior tar was livid because he was forced to give way to the bigger boat and leave his rival uncovered which eventually cost him the race. The loser complained bitterly to the officials on the judges boat, who in turn told him to file a protest. Possibly because he is a youngster he felt he didn't have a chance to win a protest against a big boat skipper and elected not to file the protest. Or possibly he is so new at the game he didn't know how to go about filing a protest.

Earlier in the day when the fleet got underway, the wind was light out of the southeast and the yachts slowly picked their way toward the weather marks of the DRYA triangular courses. The bigger yachts found a void at the first weather mark along the Canadian shore and had difficulty rounding it.

The breeze remained light for the reach to the second mark as the storm built up in the west. With plenty of warning from the black clouds the sailors were able to prepare for the worst and they got it. Many elected not to finish the race and returned to port under power.

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will be the host club next Saturday, August 29, with the first class getting away at 11:40 with the remaining classes taking their respective starting guns at five minute intervals. This race will not be sailed over the DRYA courses, but over triangles adjacent to the host club.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Jack Oliver

Before we get in the flittings and flutterings we'd like to mention something of a more sober nature. (There are those who are sure we haven't a serious thought in our curly, little head, we admit with chagrin):

The Marine Guild is sponsoring a benefit card party and drawing on September 30 at Grosse Pointe War Memorial with the proceeds going to finance the Guild's services to patients at United States Public Health Service Hospital (formerly known as Marine Hospital).

Mrs. Anna Mae Earle is chairman of this function and is being assisted by Mrs. Elmer A. Schade, Mrs. Frank McNamara, Mrs. P. R. Jones and Mrs. Frank P. Buck.

The Guild is now in its 14th year of voluntary service to the hospital. We wish them very well.

Around the Town

(or, Gee, I Feel Awful Dept.)

At The Stockholm:

Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Behr, of Beacon Hill, deserting their charming home and pool in favor of the re-vamped Viking decor at the Swedish inn and chatting with Mrs. Siggan Sjunneson, its gracious chatelaine.

(Mrs. B. had survived a day that held quite a variety of things, from taking her four very tender-age poodle puppies to have their tails docked to yelling for her favorites at The Game.)

At The Park's beach:

The Richard T. Brodheads and their young, Thornie, Chrissie, Brian, Carey and Peter, (who made a magnificent haul from the finny deep and was prepared to feed the entire family via same), with steaks, corn etc., in view.

At The Farms' beach:

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Janis and their extravagantly talented daughter, Brooke (who skates, dances, sculpts, rides and plays piano with artistry and dash), viewing the waves.

Vital Trivia

Friends of the Lloyd G. Hookers are glad they're back in Vendome road from a stay at their winter home, "The Highlands", in the shadow of Camelback Mountain, Phoenix, Ariz.

The William John Moores, who recently moved from Vernier road to Hawthorne road, find themselves with . . . among other things . . . a HUGE apple tree over a hundred years old and more than two stories high and urge their pals to come over and Bring A Basket for picking purposes.

Mrs. Richard Pickering Joy, of Lakeshore road, has been visiting her friend Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, of "Stonehurst", at the latter's summer residence at Harbor Pointe.

And we understand Mrs. Geiger Smith and young have been visiting here (with Mr. and Mrs. Max Bates, in one instance). The former and very popular "Boolie" (phonetics) now makes her home in St. Davids, Pa., more's the pity.

MUCH to the delight of their friends, Mr. and Mrs.

Nuptial Vows Said By Suzanne Francis

Becomes Bride of Charles Edward Lucas at Saturday Ceremony in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church

The Rev. Fr. Ralph Barton, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, bestowed the Papal Blessing and officiated at the marriage and Nuptial Mass uniting Suzanne Gayle Francis and Charles Edward Lucas, Saturday.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. George A. Francis, of Torrey road, and the late Mr. Francis, chose silk organza fashioned on princess lines and accented with Alecon lace, a sabrina neckline and chapel train. Her long mantilla silk illusion veil was ornamented with Chantilly lace and she carried a prayer book topped by an orchid, stephanotis and ivy.

A. J. Normandeau, close friend of the bride, gave her in marriage.

Rayleen Francis was her sister's maid of honor and Rosemary Hanzl was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of silk organza in romance blue with matching flowered headpieces and carried crescent-shaped bouquets of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lucas, of Glenfield avenue, asked his brother, Dr. John Lucas, to be best man. Seating the guests were Dr. Robert Lucas and William Lucas, two other brothers, and James Francis, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Francis wore a silk sheath dress in smoke grey with turquoise accessories. Mrs. Lucas chose royal blue peau de soie with matching accessories and both mothers wore orchids.

After a reception at the home of the bride's mother, the young couple left for a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula. They will make their home on Farmbrook road.

Miss Raschelle Speaks Vows

Sandra Marie Raschelle, daughter of the Santo Raschellas, of Grayton road, became the bride of Kenneth George Hanson, son of the George Hansons, of Savannah avenue, Saturday, at St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of imported white embroidered organza. Her headpiece consisted of a seed pearl crown and a two-tiered illusion veil of fingertip length with seed pearls scattered throughout.

Linda Raschella was her sister's maid of honor. She wore beige silk embroidered organza in street length and a tiny pink taffeta headpiece and carried a basket of pink flowers.

Larry Raschella, brother of the bride, was best man. A reception followed in the church parlors from which the couple left for Florida.

Upon their return, they plan to reside temporarily in East Detroit.

Betty Lou Snell Exchanges Vows

Becomes Bride of Howard Wayne Stavoe at Saturday Afternoon Ceremony in Woods Presbyterian Church

Gowned in off-white peau de soie and Alencon lace, Betty Lou Snell, daughter of the James Edward Snells, of Paget court, became the bride of Howard Wayne Stavoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf B. Stavoe, of Hunt Club drive, Saturday afternoon, at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The bride's veil was of fingertip length with a cap of iridescent sequins and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and Amazon lilies. The Rev. Andrew Rauth performed the ceremony. Mrs. James H. Mintun, Jr., Mrs. James E. Snell, and Mrs. Richard C. Stavoe were the bride's attendants. They wore turquoise satin frocks made with fitted waists, flared and pleated skirts and cap sleeves. Richard Charles Stavoe was his brother's best man and

James E. Snell, Donald J. McCarty and Philip W. Beach were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Snell chose an embroidered pink silk organza sheath with matching accessories with which she wore an orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore rose beige silk organza and lace, a feather hat and beige accessories and she, too, wore an orchid.

Following the ceremony, a garden party was held at the Snell home, from which the young couple left for their future home in Columbus, Ga.

Mrs. Howard W. Stavoe

Mrs. Fredric R. Haines

The Richard H. Taylors' daughter, JOY MARY TAYLOR, was married, Saturday afternoon, to the son of Mrs. Mervin L. Haines, of Elwood City, Pa., and the late Mr. Haines.

Miss Taylor Bride Of Fredric Haines

Vows Exchanged at Saturday Afternoon Ceremony in Pointe Congregational Church; Will Live in Ohio After Trip East

Joy Mary Taylor, daughter of the Richard H. Taylors, of Loraine road, became the bride of Fredric Randall Haines, son of Mrs. Mervin L. Haines, of Elwood City, Pa., and the late Mr. Haines, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed at Grosse Pointe Congregational Church with a reception following in the church parlors.

The bride's ballet-length dress was of imported silk organza made on princess lines and trimmed in re-embroidered Alencon lace. It had a scoop neckline with a sheered silk organza sash forming a bustle-bow back, shirred cap sleeves and matching organza mitts. Her scalloped lace cap was highlighted with iridescent sequins and pearls. The full veil was of pure silk imported English illusion. She carried a bouquet of white Amazon lilies and stephanotis with ivy.

The maid of honor was Joanne Hoover and bridesmaids were Cynthia Lister, Joy Louise Smith, cousin of the bride, and Marjorie Pattee.

Donald F. Chamberlain was best man and Gerald Olson, John Zimmerle and Henry Taylor, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

The dresses of the honor maid and the bridesmaids were of yellow imported batiste with front panels of white eyelet embroidery and bouffant skirts. Accessories were tiny white hats with white aigrettes. They carried white daisies with ivy.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath of violene pink imported eyelet embroidered silk organza over taffeta with matching accessories. She wore dark pink sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a blue embroidered batiste sheath with white accessories. Her flowers were white sweetheart roses.

After a trip East, the couple will make their home in Ohio.

From Another Pointe of View

Henry T. Gage and family have moved back here from Alexandria, Va.

(The "young" bear such fascinating nicknames as "Gigi", "Monty" and "Tat", we might add.)

Possible Pointer

Robert Lee Sealby, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert I. Sealby, of Hawthorne road, journeyed to Carrollton, Mo., with his parents to make pretty Martha Lee Kruse his wife, last weekend.

The young man will enter medical school at Ann Arbor this September, but perhaps he and his bride will be settling down here in due time.

The new Mrs. Sealby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kruse, of Carrollton, and chose ivory peau de soie for her wedding gown. A court train and large picture hat of lace made by her maternal grandmother distinguished the costume. She carried a fan of six gardenias with green leaves and white bridal satin streamers, the fan being an heirloom, too.

AMONG THOSE PRESENT

In town for the wedding, Saturday, of pretty Paula Ver Linden Walker and David Lucas Wigton is the super-chic Mrs. Weigand Tuchbreiter who now makes her home at Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.

Also on hand for the nuptials is Mrs. Brainard Mellinger, of Belaire, Calif.

Incidentally, the sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. James Lynch Walker, of Dallas, Tex., gave the spinster dinner for her at the home of their parents, the Otis Upton Walkers, of Balfour road, Tuesday evening, and at the same time the prospective bridegroom was being wined and also dined at the Country Club by Jack Frazer, Jr., and pals.

And JUST arrived, (well, on Aug. 19, to be exact), Julie Jaye to brighten the lives of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Burgess, of Washington road.

Mama was Marie Hawley, you'll recollect.

In closing, we'd like to say we had a fine time standing by until Pat Davis came back from her vacation and we thank you sincerely for your kindness and cooperation.

So long.

Short and to the Pointe

for a ten day visit with her parents, the FRED J. POTVINS of Bedford road. A graduate of Sacred Heart Academy a few years ago, Mrs. Moran will be attending a class reunion buffet dinner at the home of MRS. HERBERT BUHLER JR., of Mt. Vernon road, Saturday night.

MISS ROSALIND WEBER, daughter of MR. and MRS. ROBERT WEBER of Lake Shore has returned from the summer at camp at Charlevoix.

Four students from Grosse Pointe will be attending Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., this fall when the two-year college for women starts classes on September 21.

GAYLENE THOMPSON, daughter of the FRANK W. THOMPSONS, of Fairholme road, will resume her studies in the autumn.

And accepted for admission as new students are CAROL BANKERD, daughter of the FRED W. BANKERDS, of Bishop road; JUDITH HUBBENTHAL, daughter of the THEODORE WILLIAM HUBBENTHALS, of Fisher road; and MARGARET NIGRO, daughter of the RAY NIGROS, of S. Oxford road.

MR. AND MRS. A. D. WILKINSON, of Lakeshore road, had as their weekend guest their daughter-in-law, MRS. LAWRENCE S. WILKINSON, of Rumson, N.J.

On Wednesday, they left for Rumson to visit at the L. S. Wilkinson home and also to see their other son and his wife, the WARREN S. WILKINSONS. Later, they will go on to New York and also to Forest Hills, L.I. to catch the tennis matches.

MR. AND MRS. C. HENRY BUHL, of Vendome road, journeyed to Stratford, Ont., to attend the Shakespearean Festival and then on to Toronto.

The first of this week, they drove to the Buhl family's lodge at Mikado, Mich., for a stay of 10 days.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK KUHN are back in their home in McKinley place following a two-week stay at the Lunge Lodge on French River where they have been going summers for the past 29 years. Their daughter, AIRIELLE, is home from taking graduate work in German and Russian at Middleberg (Vt.) College.

MRS. EDWARD B. CAULKINS, JR., and her daughter, ELSIE, have returned to their home in Beverly road following a visit to Mrs. Canklins' mother, MRS. JAMES T. McMILLAN, of Essex boulevard, at her summer home at the Huron Mountain Club.

Mrs. McMillan, who's been north since July, was expected to return to the Pointe this week bringing with her BLISS CAULKINS.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD A. BEATTY recently moved from Pine court to McKinley avenue. DR. AND MRS. JOHN WEBSTER have purchased the Beatty's former home.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM D. BYRON, of Rivard boulevard, recently entertained at a cocktail party given in honor of Mrs. Byron's mother, MRS. FRANKLIN K. LANE, and MR. LANE, here from Sarasota, Fla.

Constance Bennett Follows Tradition

Marries Charles William Heidt on Her Parents' 25th Wedding Anniversary Saturday in Christ Methodist Church

Constance Leone Bennett followed family tradition when she chose her parents' twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, August 22, as the date of her marriage to Charles William Heidt in Christ Methodist Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Selzberg Bennett, of Buckingham road, wore Chantilly lace appliqued on silk organza. The dress was made with long sleeves which came to points over the wrists. The softly gathered skirt swirled into a chapel train.

A finger-tip veil of illusion attached to a tiara completed the bridal costume and she carried an all-white bouquet of shattered carnations surrounding an orchid.

Beverly Benedict, of Grand Rapids, was honor maid and the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Rudolph Heeb, of St. Clair Shores, and Mrs. Patrick Bidelman, were bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's sister, Julie Heidt, was the junior bridesmaid.

All the bridal attendants wore aqua blue nylon chiffon dresses and carried garnet roses.

Mr. Heidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Heidt, of Berkshire road, asked Richard Miller to be his best man and Rudolph Heeb, Patrick Bidelman, Tom Bodolts and Milton Heidt, of Westerville, O., to be ushers.

The Bennetts gave a reception in Church Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The couple will live in Mt. Clemens following a trip to Northern Michigan.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Eade, of Hollywood, Fla., were among the wedding guests.

The new Mrs. Heidt was graduated from Michigan State College in June where she was affiliated with Chi Omega. Her husband is an alumnus of M.S.U.

Group Honored At Old Club

Honoring past commodores of the Old Club and their wives, a cocktail party was given, Saturday, at the St. Clair, Flats clubhouse.

Among those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynn Person, Mr. and Mrs. Alger Shelden, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glendon H. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Allmand.

Also present were the Alfred J. Fishers, the Sam T. Kellers, the William M. Packers, the John W. Mulford and the Herbert W. Harts.

Spring Bride

NANCY EMMELINE CASEY, daughter of the William Francis Caseys, of Rivard boulevard, will become the bride of Peter A. Goebel next spring. Their engagement was recently announced at a family dinner.

The bride-elect will be graduated from the University of Detroit in January.

Her fiance, son of the Theodore Ernst Goebels, of Fisher road, attended Wayne State University and is awaiting active duty in the U.S. Army Reserve.

St. Matthew's Church Women to Hold Party

The Woman's Club of St. Matthews Church, Whittier and Harper, announces its first luncheon and card party for the 1959-60 season as scheduled for Tuesday, September 10, at 12:15 p. m.

For reservations, call Mrs. Edward Healy, TU 2-3808 or Mrs. George Tvo, at TU 2-3968.

Center Holding College Dance

Co-Chairman Nancy Ruby of the forthcoming college send-off dance to be given from 9 to 12 at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center on Friday evening, September 11 reported that the planning is progressing rapidly.

Known as the G.P. Goes to College, the dance will provide one final get-together this summer for every student who is going to college this fall.

Co-chairmen of the dance are Nancy Ruby, who will be going to Cornell, and Bill Gleason, who will attend the University of Michigan. Lisa Robinson and Diane Macalpine, the co-managers of the decorations committee, are looking forward to Michigan State.

Chaperones are being obtained by the U of M-bound Kay Kerr, while Carol Murphy and Polly Walker, also of the U of M are arranging for the refreshments. Entertainment is being obtained by Julie Ruegger who is going off to Alma. Connie Malcolmson (John Powers) is in charge of the door committee while publicity is being handled by Bill Selmeier (Michigan).

To Give Party For Symphony

Bloomfield Hills' oldest and most historic estate, the impressive home of Mrs. Adolph J. Weissmiller dating to 1929, will be the setting for a huge farewell to summer party presented by the Women's Symphony Orchestra the afternoon of Wednesday, September 16.

Invitations are in the mail this week for the event which is being staged for the benefit of the orchestra.

Plans call for an elaborate out-of-doors Harvest Luncheon followed by a "Fashion-On-The-Green" showing from the fall collection of Margi Franzell, Inc. Association members will serve as models and later staff booths on the lawn to offer home-made specialties from their own kitchens.

Mrs. E. Bryce Alpen, general chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Richard F. Brennan. Other committee heads will be Mesdames Edgerly W. Austin, hostess; Louis J. Janacek, tickets; and Leon H. Lewis, booths. Hostesses will be Mesdames Cecil Akroyd, Draper Allen, John L. Barrett, Earl Bartholomew, Walter J. Bomb, Henry Scripps Booth, Warren S. Booth, Alexander S. Z. Budd, Leroy W. ## Goodwill Juniors Get Set for Show

Workers Have Been Busy All Summer Planning Big Event to Be Held in Late October; To Meet September 9

"Vacationing While Working" for their favorite project might well be the slogan for the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries.

Co-chairmen of their Annual Antiques Show and Sale, to be held in late October, Mrs. Hall Lippincott and Mrs. Thomas Fox, report their committees have been active all summer long.

On September 9, they will hostess a luncheon and meeting at Mrs. Lippincott's home in Rivard boulevard to work out further details in preparation for the show.

Mrs. Bill O. Brink and Mrs. Robert Patterson made a foray into Canada to order the excellent aged cheese, which, along with the old-fashioned candy, has made the Country Store so famous. Jams, Jellies and conserves are perfuming the kitchens of Mesdames Lyle Colinson, C. Donald Wing and Vernor R. Donnelly.

Patrons' letters for addressing were distributed by Mrs. Frank A. Reid, and added to the luggage of many a vacationing member.

Mrs. Paul Richmond and family are vacationing in St. Croix, Virgin Islands. "Ginny" (Continued on Page 14)

Shoes don't grow... Children's feet do!

Parents naturally want their children to have the best of everything, and that includes shoes, too. It has been a tradition in Detroit for 43 years that the school year for most children starts with a visit to the Hack Shoe Company. Here, parents know that their children's shoes will be correct... and properly fitted! Right now, Hack has a splendid selection of children's shoes for school, dress or play—all one quality—the very best.

JULIE ELIZABETH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Michel, of Touraine road, was married, Saturday, to the son of Mrs. James T. Mitchell, of Lochmoor boulevard and the late Mr. Mitchell.

A diadem of the Alencon topped her tiered veil of fine silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Kathryn Bork, of Columbus, O., was maid of honor and Jean Loveless, Judith Mitchell, sister of the bridegroom; Judith Winters, of Saginaw, and Jane Marshall, of Flint, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore white mousseline de soie styled with oval necklines, short sleeves and demi-length, belled skirts accented with wide bandings of shirred hyacinth mousseline with pouffed bows at the back. White bow-trimmed princess caps completed their costumes and they carried bouquets of delphinium in varying shades of blue with ivy.

John Mitchell was his brother's best man and Richard Degeuer, Harold Bay, Larry Sullivan, Robert Schofield and Jack Wilson seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Michel chose a dress of moonstone blue with matching accessories and carried a spray of white orchids. Mrs. Mitchell wore blue chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid. A reception followed at the Michel home. The young couple will make their home in the Pointe. University of Michigan undergraduate students in engineering will have their first chance to take courses in meteorology—the study of weather—this fall.

CATNIPPED
Gay Ellery, 6, of 310 Kerby was treated by her family doctor after she had been bitten on her left arm by a cat and scratched on Monday, August 24. The cat was sent to the Harvey Animal hospital for 10 days observation.

HAPPY DISCOVERY
The Farms fire department answered a call to the S. T. Moore residence at 102 Merrilweather Wednesday, August 19. Happily, the cause of the alarm was smoke which had been sucked into the basement by the Moore's air conditioner.

Hearty Welcome Extended Exchange Student

Marie-Louise (Malou) Hesselman, one of Grosse Pointe High School's two American Field Service exchange students, arrived in Detroit at the Greyhound bus station. This completed a journey that began for Malou on August 4 when she left her home in Ornskoldsvik, Sweden.

Malou is the Sixth American Field Service student to attend Grosse Pointe High School in four years.

Malou was met at the station by her new parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Sellheim of 944 Hidden Lane, their daughter Susan, a senior at Grosse Pointe High School, Mrs. William Adams, chairman of the local American Field Service Committee and many Grosse Pointe High School students.

Students who went to the station to greet Malou were Mary Asmus, Sue Baldwin, Sue Bartholomew, Betsy Buell, who went to Spain on an A.F.S. scholarship in 1957, Cathy Calcaterra, Pat Chapman, Candy Colett, Katie Collins, Karen Davis, Vicki Elmer, Linda Firth, Barb Gauss, Lanier Gray, Pat Hagland, Edith Hope, Susie Hykes, Pegi Jeffs, and Judy Jo Johnson.

Others were Jackie Kasabach, Joan Kasabach, Barb Knudtson, Charles Krebs, Mary Lundale, Judy Marnard, Pat Moran, Bill Mueller, Dianna Popp, Elaine Resmer, Bev Seales, Carole Scherer, Sharon Sweeny, Joan Taube, Marilyn Taylor, Joan Vermuelen, Mike Waggoner, Peggy Waggoner, Cathy Wilkie, Mary Lee Wilcoxson, and Chris Wohlers, who went to Turkey with the A.F.S. in 1958.

Malou is the daughter of Dr. Bengt Hesselman, head of the pediatrics department of Ornskoldsvik Hospital, and Ulla Hallman Hesselman. She has two brothers, Thomas, 22, and Klas, who is six. She has one sister, Marika, 21.

Malou will live with the Sellheims until late next June. She will be a senior at Grosse Pointe High School and plans to further her study of the English language and American Literature. Malou has already studied English for six years.

In her essay which she wrote when she applied for an American Field Service Scholarship, Malou gave the reasons why she wanted to come to America for a year. "This term I got a new classmate, a girl who has been in the U.S. as an A.F.S. scholar, and she made me interested in the U.S. in a more real way. Before I had thought of America more as a big political power and enormous piece of land, but now she told me about the American people, 'her' school and family and their customs, and I thought that I should like to meet with what she had met with. I have always loved to travel—for me something very thrilling—and this summer I met a lot of Americans, indeed very charming.

"Thus I got curious to know more about their countrymen, especially the youth, what they think and feel, and their views of life. I do think that the peace of the world depends on understanding between the different peoples and that understanding can only be reached if the members of different nations get to know each other better."

Grosse Pointe High School's other exchange student Eduardo Middleton of Santiago, Chile, is expected to arrive sometime this week.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms
SUMMARY OF MINUTES
AUGUST 17, 1959

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.
Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Harry E. Bodman, II, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., William G. Butler, William G. Kirby, Richard L. Maxon and Edward C. Roney, Jr.
Absent: None.
Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided
Minutes of the regular meeting of August 3, 1959, were approved as submitted.
The reports of the Police Department, Fire Department and Building Department for the month of July, 1959, were received and ordered filed.
Due to the lack of a favorable vote of three-fourths of all members of the Council, a motion to adopt a proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance, relative to the front line of lake-front properties, was lost.
Approval was given to transfer a 1959 SDD license located at 1 Kercheval Avenue from Richard H. and Virginia Kadlec to J. L. Carraher.
Approval was given to pay the Jess M. Gregory Contracting Company the sum of $28,000.00, as partial payment on their contract for pavement sealing.
Action regarding a letter from the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, relative to parking on Elm Court, was deferred to a later meeting.
A special meeting of the Council was ordered called for Thursday, August 20, 1959, at 5:30 p.m. to consider and award the bid for resurfacing Kerby Road between Ridge Road and Grosse Pointe Blvd.
A resolution was adopted requesting the Detroit Edison Company to shield a street light on the side facing the residence at 332 Grosse Pointe Blvd.
A report of the City Manager, relative to the proposed improvements to the Gabriel Richard school playground, was ordered received and filed.
Communications from the Board of Water Commissioners of the City of Detroit, relative to increases in the charge for water stand-by service and water rates, were received.
Approval was given to make certain transfers of General Fund monies to Reserve Funds, as of June 30, 1959.
Due to the first regular Council meeting date in September falling on Labor Day, the meeting was adjourned to September 14, 1959.
A communication from the Michigan Department of Agriculture, advising that Japanese beetles had been found in certain areas of the city and that the Department of Agriculture was presently treating the soil in these areas, was ordered received and filed.
On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m.

Balmoral means "the majestic dwelling" in Gaelic. Prince Albert bought it for Queen Victoria. Tower is 100 feet high.

Chequers, so named because Henry II's clerk of the exchequer lived on the 1,500-acre estate 900 years ago. Remains of Roman fortifications still can be seen nearby.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER WILL SLEEP HERE — Stopovers on President Eisenhower's forthcoming trip to Europe include Balmoral castle in Scotland, to visit Queen Elizabeth, and Chequers, outside London, to visit Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Chequers is prime ministers country home.

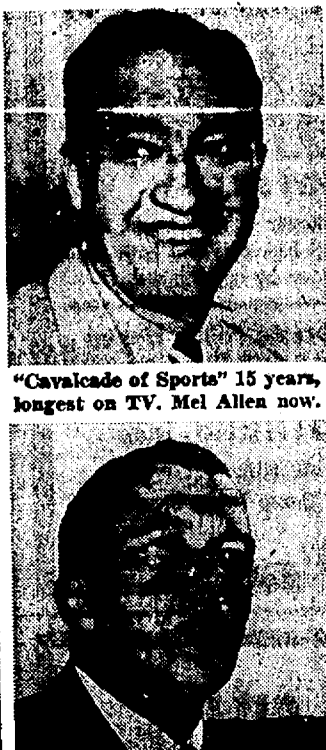

"I Love Lucy" eight years.

Groucho Marx nine years.

Jack Benny nine years.

"Cavalcade of Sports" 15 years, longest on TV. Mel Allen now.

Red Skelton eight years.

STAYING POWER—Television shows may come and television shows may go, but these seem to go on forever. They have survived a merciless fatality rate that makes traffic look safe.

INTEGRATED AND NOT INTEGRATED—Jefferson Thomas, the only Negro in Central High in Little Rock, Ark., leaves classes (upper) after telling Principal Jess Matthews and two school board members that he has "no complaints" and "everything is fine." But in Front Royal, Va. (lower), plans for the private school system to avoid integration proceed as Mrs. Russell Wood (left) registers her sons for September term opening. They are (from left) Robert, 15; Wayne, 13; Gibson, 17. Mrs. Frank Compton, a registrar, sits at right in Union hall.

KEY TO A MYSTERY — When Harry Schultz of Boise, Id., pulled a carrot from his garden, he found it had grown through a key to his front door lock, lost a few months earlier. (Central Press)

STEEL WAGES $3.10 HOUR

STEEL PROFIT 16.1%

OTHER INDUSTRY 14.1%

OTHER INDUSTRY $2.23 HOUR

LOOKS LIKE A TOSSUP—This is one of the many graph views of the steel management-United Steelworkers argument presented by figures in Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell's fact-finding report. The figures are for the first half of 1959, with both sides apparently doing nicely compared to the average of other large industry. (Central Press)

IT'S AN ART—Following closely in the steps of strip tease queen Candy Barr (right), actress Joan Collins starts to peel off her dress on a sound stage in Hollywood. The only female actress in "Seven Thieves," Miss Collins has spent about 45 hours learning the take-it-off art.

PROUD PAPAS—Two of the proudest men in Norway the day of the THE wedding were Nelson Rockefeller (left), governor of New York and father of the bridegroom, Steven Rockefeller, and Kristian Rasmussen, father of the bride, Anne Marie Rasmussen.

Two modern gourmets enjoy their luncheon in the Cheshire Cheese, probably London's best known pub. From the wall, in frowning dignity, the portrait of Dr. Samuel Johnson glares down at his favorite table.

HE FELL OUT OF A TREE—Suffering a fracture of his left arm when he tumbled from a tree in Indianapolis, Dennis Fullbright, 6, tearfully waits for an ambulance in his home.

PURSE SNATCHED—Mrs. Rebecca Poboda comforts her 2-year-old daughter, Becky, after an elderly woman snatched the mother's purse from the baby in a downtown Cleveland store. The snatcher said, "Now give grandma the purse."

MAT IN RING—County chairmen throughout the state have agreed unanimously to support Mayor Robert Wagner of New York for the Democratic vice presidential 1960 nomination.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU—In Rome filming "The Bay of Naples" with Sophia Loren, Clark Gable joins in a tenth birthday party for Adolph Spreckles, Jr., his wife's son by a previous marriage, at Gable's villa. Waiting for a piece of cake is Mariette Angeletti, also in the movie.

IT'S NO. 6—The Discoverer VI leaves launching pad at Vandenberg AFB, Calif., with the 300-pound instrument package which was to be recovered.

COMMUNITY TERRORIZED—James Lynch and son Kevin, 8, look at store window sign in Ronkonkoma, N. Y., a community which has been terrorized by three robbery-murders. Police are on guard at all-night diners and gasoline stations.

HE'D HAD IT—Mrs. Velma Hoover, 35, lovely widow and mother of four children, was shot and killed as she emerged with a date from a nighttime swim in her pool in Winter Park, Fla., and less than 30 minutes later William Vikes (above), 38, was stopped by a policeman on suspicion of drunk driving. While the policeman talked to Vikes, the patrol car radio blared word of the killing, and a description of car. Vikes had had it.

WHEAT SURPLUS A BIG ISSUE—President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson confer in the Gettysburg, Pa., "little White House" as the President decides to take the farm legislation problem to the people in a broadcast. The President is concerned with the mounting wheat surplus—handling it costs $1½ million a day.

QUAKE-WRECKED DAM MACHINERY—One of the tasks facing residents of West Yellowstone, Mont., is cleaning up the gears and machinery in the power house of Hebgen dam. The debris came over the top of the dam when an 8-foot tidal wave was triggered by a mighty earthquake.

six stars alternating with four rows of five stars, on the familiar field of blue. According to custom, the flag will not become official until next July 4. It was the second time this year that the President has proclaimed a new state. On January 3, Alaska was admitted to the union. "We know she is ready to do her part and make this Union a stronger nation than it was before," said the President. "All 49 states will join in welcoming Hawaii on this historic occasion."

TWO BAY CITY TEEN-AGERS were captured near Manistique, Friday, after slipping through a Lower Peninsula blockade in a stolen Conservation Department patrol car. They were heavily armed. Their two companions are still at large. Police are searching for them in the Manistique area.
The four youths had stolen the car from a motel north of Bay City after burglarizing a hardware store there. They were armed with rifles, shotguns and a .22 pistol.

A 24 YEAR OLD WAITRESS, Friday, named Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr. in a paternity suit. She claimed that he is the father of her 5 year old daughter. Diggs, 36, who is the state's first Negro congressman, said that the suit was ridiculous.
"During my political career I have become accustomed to distorted accusations of all types, but this charge against me is by all means the most vicious and it is entirely untrue." The waitress, Jacquelyn Gibbs, refused to comment on the suit.

Park Fight

faith," he continued. "All we want is the fair market price for our land.
Councilman William Oddy was of the opinion that Lo-Cicero's request should be granted.
"We have only taken rights to refuse them," he said. "After they have the title then we can negotiate with them. We won't be able to afford the price anyhow."
"We could add 1 1/2 million dollars to our tax valuation with a subdivision in the area, and each million means an added income of $17,000 to the city treasury."
He asked the council to compare the income with the five to six thousand dollars a year for each man that staffed a proposed new park.
"Records show that less than a third of our residents use our present park and it costs 80 to 75 thousand dollars a year to run it, he said.
After a little more discussion the council and the planning commission asked others to leave the room and met in an executive session. They decided to table the matter, while the planning commission considers the problem further.

A BONDING PROVISION in the pending labor reform bill has been approved by the Senate House conference committee that could prove to be the toughest new legal hazard for labor leaders. The provision says that union officers with racket records who cannot obtain bonds could be driven from the labor movement. Bonds of some officers of the Teamsters and other unions involved in the Senate rackets committee investigations, have already been cancelled by Surety companies. The Teamsters and some other unions require their officers to be bonded. Under the new provision, it would be a legal requirement.

IN A COUNTRY CHURCH WEDDING in Sogne, Norway, Anne Marie Rasmussen became the bride of Steven Rockefeller, heir to one of the largest fortunes in the world. It rained before the ceremony, but according to Norwegian tradition, that means a happy marriage.

Monday, August 24
THE EDEL FORD and JOHN C. LODGE expressways were turned into 12-foot deep rivers when yesterday's torrential rain hit the city. In less than three hours, there were two inches of rain. It was caused by a sudden convergence of small squalls. The deluge hit central and eastern Detroit from Warren to the river. Hundreds of motorists were caught on the expressways when the storm sewers failed to carry the load of water forced upon them.
Cars were buried under the water as owners and their families climbed the banks to safety. The electric storm and high winds that preceded the rain swamped boats, triggered burglar alarms and tore down wires. There were traffic jams on all the major streets. Belle Isle was called by island police "just one complete traffic mess."

FOUR OF THE SIX CONVICTS who saved their way out of the Iowa state penitentiary, Sunday, have been captured. The other two are still at large. A house to house search in the area was conducted by police, aided by National Guardsmen. Three of the four captured were in the home of a Fort Madison minister. They held the minister and his family and a neighbor boy at knife point for 2 1/2 hours. They were surprised by Deputy Prison Warden Bernard Nelson who crawled in the basement window and crept up the stairs. They gave up then without a fight. The other was caught in a nearby wooded area.

EIGHT PRISONERS of the Ocean County (N.J.) jail were victims of a fire, Sunday. The two story building had only one exit and was ruled a fire-trap by Sheriff Harry Roe. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Tuesday, August 25
THE JOHN C. LODGE and the Edsel Ford expressways will be out of use to Detroiters for two weeks, due to Sunday's storm damage, said Irving J. Rubin, Detroit representative for the State Highway Department. Monday, Traffic was heavily tied up last night at the rush hour. The worst problem was at the Lodge expressway and West Grand boulevard. There northbound drivers had to detour into surface traffic. Presently, Lodge is blocked northbound at Lothrop and Ford is blocked westbound at Trumbull.

William Polkinghorn, Police Traffic Director, appealed to motorists to stay off the expressways until they can be repaired.

BIG CORPORATIONS and small merchants alike told the Legislature Monday that they did not want a higher tax on business. They thought, if any-

Look at Seaway Taken By Fords and Crouses

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clifford Ford, of Bishop road, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Crouse, of Provincial road, have returned from a round of visits in the east during which they chafed up 2,300 miles along the St. Lawrence Seaway.
Mr. and Mrs. Crouse paid a visit to their daughter and son-in-law, the Minot D. Eatons, in Marlon, Mass., and the Fords visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ford II in Seal Harbor, Me. They also stayed with former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Finkenstaedt who now make their home in Hyannisport, Mass.

thing, the taxes on business ought to be reduced. Senate Taxation Committee Chairman Clyde H. Geerlings (R. Holland) asked about 150 business representatives to attend the first day of the committee's hearing. They were asked to help the Legislature solve its tax troubles and suggest a way to gain another 10 million dollars, in addition to that gained by the sales tax increase.
"You're asking us how do we want to take our poison and we don't want it," said Willis H. Hall, manager of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

CHRYSLER CORP. recalled 3,000 to 3,500 workers Monday, to get its 1960 production into high gear with two shift operations at its Plymouth, Hamtramck and Jefferson assembly plants. Another 1,500 employees were told to return to work in Newark, Del., and Los Angeles. This was announced by R. S. Bright, group vice-president of automotive manufacturing. He indicated that Chrysler will step up its production schedules rapidly.

Wednesday, August 26
THE WIFE of a non-striking Cross Co. worker was injured, early Tuesday morning, by a paint bomb thrown into their Hazel Park home. Irene Ferguson, 32, was cut by glass as the jar of yellow paint smashed through the window of the 1218 E. Marlow home. Paint was splashed on her face and hair. Her husband, George Ferguson, a former UAW committeeman, had testified at a hearing on a picket-limiting injunction granted to the company. The attack came at about 1 a.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Ferguson had gone outside a few minutes before. She said she could not sleep because of the heat. She saw a car parked across the street. While she was watching, it pulled away. The attack came a half an hour later.

THE FAILURE on the part of Police Commissioner Hart to notify Mayor Louis Miriani of the flood emergency on the expressways, Sunday, caused the Mayor to protest, "I am the guy who determines the emergency." The statement was in answer to Hart's statement, "We decided we didn't need to call you." Hart praised the work of his men in handling the emergency, Sunday. The Mayor said that he might have called out the civil defense units to test their disaster plan. A fact finding conference was called by the Mayor, Tuesday, to study the expressway floods.

High School Students Needed To Help Theatrical Project

Are you interested in acting? Play production? Stagecraft? Then maybe you'd like to become a part of the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater.

The Children's Theater presents plays for children and is similar in purpose to Michigan State's Toyshop Theater and Wayne's Children's Theater. It introduces children to the classics and brings good theatre and entertainment to the community.

In its productions the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater has always used high school students and younger children. The need for older boys and girls is ever present, to make plays more livable and realistic. No audience offers a bigger challenge to acting ability, reacts as spontaneously and appreciates being entertained more than children.

This year Mrs. Syd Reynolds, director of the theater group, wants to bring the opportunity of joining the group to the attention of any interested teenagers who may not have been aware of it before.

Besides onstage acting experience, the Children's Theater offers a chance to work in the production end, with lighting, sound effects, makeup, set construction, and so on, if your interests and abilities lie there.

Mrs. Reynolds, who organized the Children's Theater five years ago, holds a Master's degree in Children's Theater. She has also worked professionally on radio and has taught drama at Liggett School.

She has been assisted by Miss Carol Lovelace and Mrs. Jean Reed, who both have Masters in Children's Theater from Wayne University.

The group has given plays on television, Channel 56 and many members have appeared on "Policewoman" on WXYZ. High School students have been used in productions of the Players' and the Grosse Pointe Community Theater.

The main production of the semester will be a three act play presented in the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium. This play will be a benefit for Detroit's new Vanguard Theater. The new York director will be here to see the play in connection with a possibility of drawing from the Children's Theater for children needed in their professional productions. He will meet with the actors afterward with comments and criticisms.

In addition, the theater group already has plans for plays for the Grosse Pointe libraries, for the Rotary Club, and also a Christmas play for the War Memorial.

The group meets for rehearsals and production work every Saturday at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial beginning September 20. Enrollment will be held on September 12 at the War Memorial. The Children's Theater is open to all boys and girls aged 8-17, in apprentice, junior and senior sections.

There will be a very informal meeting on Wednesday, September 2, from 7-9 for all interested teenagers, to let them ask questions and introduce them to plans for the next semester.

Lutheran Guild Board to Meet

A most interesting fall schedule is starting for all Lutheran Women. The executive board of the Women's Guild of the First English Ev. Lutheran Church, 800 Vernier road, will meet Tuesday, September 1, at 1 o'clock. Bring all suggestions and recommendations for an improved 1960.

The monthly guild meeting will be held in the Fellowship Hall, Wednesday, September 2. Luncheon will be at noon and a short meeting at 1 p.m.

The Michigan District of the Women's Missionary Guild will hold its Fifteenth Biennial Convention at Bowling Green, Ohio, September 9. The morning session will be at 9:30 a.m.

Speakers will be Dr. Norman Venter, president of the Michigan District, Dr. Dorothy Haas, president of the Women's Missionary Federation, and Pastor R. L. Van Scoy, pastor of St. Mark's Church, Toledo, Ohio.

To satisfy the "inner woman," a ham loaf dinner with all the trimmings at $1.30, will be served for all who have made reservations.

Overnight lodging will be available the night before the convention at the dormitories of Bowling Green University at $3.00 per person.

Reservations for dinner and/or lodging must be made before September 1. Call Mrs. Rea York at TU. 1-5358 for reservations. Also please call if you are planning to attend, so car pools or a chartered bus may be arranged.

Police Probe Stolen Bases

It's not very often that anyone reports stolen bases to the police. But Chuck Campbell, the attendant at Kerby field did

The thief, (he must have been a baseball player), stole three bases and home plate. Campbell noticed that the items were missing from the shed on the field.

It was the sixth breaking and entering of the shed this summer.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. BRUCE A. KIRK OF NOTRE DAME AVENUE

by Jack Oliver

Clad in a dinner dress of coral and gold tissue silk the dark and delectable Mrs. Bruce A. Kirk confided, "I have many interests but I don't do anything well."

Hmm-m-m-m-m-m-m.

All around us in the Kirk's delightful drawing room were evidences of a great number of things Mrs. K. did very well indeed, such as her charming selection of colors, furniture, artifacts and such and the harmonious combination of the same.

(Her husband's choice and agreement with his charming wife's lends the final touch to the tapestry.)

Carved Silk Rug

You might begin with the handsome carved silk rug in a sort of warm beige (maybe it's termed "oatmeal" but somehow the thoughts of walking on THAT makes us shudder), which the Kirks bought in San Francisco and build up from there in the apartments' main room:

Add old French lily candelabra, a recently-acquired lemon tree (metal . . . and it's deceptively heavy), an imposing grand piano refinished with touches of gold, ancient Egyptian panel paintings, fragile French bergeres, deep sofas, a sensational Chinese inlaid screen and wall shelves of such delicate and sentimental bibelots as a (solid) silver slipper, gift of the debonair Bruce; a heart-shaped dish of silver fretwork, Chelsea, old and honorable Worcester and nearby, a pearl-inlaid table from India.

No one other than Mrs. Kirk could have put them all together with such remarkably restful results.

The lady admits to taking only such exercise as dancing with her mannerly son and holding all his camera equipment whilst he does the shooting.

Likes and Dislikes File

She: Writes letters to people "all over"— Would like to do more European travel and see the Pyramids—

Wishes she had written Emily Dickinson's poems or Emily Brontë's "Wuthering Heights"— Thinks "The Prophet" is a masterpiece—

Loves rain, calls hills, Latin, shaggy dogs, wind, loyalty in people, trains, old silver, the moon, a kind heart, large ears—rings, Christmas with her uncle and aunt (the J. Henry Picklers), sea horses, Scotland, to wear closed pumps, San Francisco, Santa Barbara and Berger Evans "The Last Word" on TV.

She's "enchanted by" Katharine Cornell, Maurice Evans, Alec Guinness; meditates over morning coffee; can make Russian creme, Yorkshire pudding, tomato aspic (And Then Some . . . we are most certainly here to say, as are a multitude of the Kirks' well-fed friends.

and to wear black. Favorite artists are Van Gogh and Goya and she'd LIKE to perfect her bridge.

Here, then, is—indeed—a young woman of many interests and there is an enthusiastic chorus of family- and friends who'll assure you she does many things very, very well.

LEMON CREAM SHERBET

Contributed by Mrs. Frank E. Werneken

1/2 C. sugar 1/2 pt. whipping cream 2 lemons—grated rind 2 lemons—juice plus water to make 1/2 C. liquid

Mix all ingredients together very quickly and thoroughly. Do NOT whip the cream. Pour into freezing tray. Stir once after mixture begins to freeze. Serve in sherbet glasses with strawberry or cherry garnish.

Drives on Lawn In Stolen Car

A report from Donald Tyrrell that someone had just driven a car over his lawn at 833 Roslyn at 4:50 a.m. Saturday, August 22 resulted in the recovery of a stolen car before it was missed.

Mrs. Tyrrell had run out on to her lawn and yelled at the driver who fled on foot. Woods police found the car, a 1957 Olds, parked near the curb on Wedgewood.

The car, owned by Frank Cooper of 57 Merriweather, had been stolen from Van and Sons collision shop where it had been left for repairs.
