MIAMI HERALD reporter James Buchanan arrived home yesterday after 23 days in a Cuban jail. Buchanan, who was arrested December 10 by secret agents of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, was convicted by a midnight military tribunal, two days ago, for concealing facts. He received a 14 year prison term, but that was suspended on the condition he leave Cuba within 24 hours and never come back. He told some 30 reporters who met him at Miami International Airport that he was not physically abused. Buchanan had gone to the St. John Hotel in Havana, on a "confidential tip," to interview Frank Austin Young, 38, of Miami, and Flint, Mich., the soldier of fortune who had escaped from a Cuban prison. He was arrested there.

A YANKEE drum and five corps played Dixie and North-erners joined Southerners to lay to rest the last of the Civil War veterans, yesterday. The final tribute was for Walter Williams, a forager in the Confederate Army, who died last week at the age of 117. His body was taken from Houston to Franklin, Texas, his old home. There he was buried with full military honors. Governors, or their representatives, from the eleven Confederate states acted as honorary pall-bearers.

THE 200 EMPLOYEES of Kern's department store are out of work today, as the old downtown establishment closed its doors Wednesday night. Kern's, once one of Detroit's busiest and most fashionable stores, began business 77 years ago and moved to its present building on Woodward avenue, 60 years ago. Signs yesterday warned customers to "make selections carefully—no refunds."

CHRISTMAS DAY was celebrated throughout the city of Detroit and throughout the world today as the birthday of Jesus Christ was marked. Midnight services were observed in many churches of the area. Parties flourished in numerous homes as friends and families enjoyed the Yule season, and children reigned supreme under the Christmas tree as the stockings were emptied and Santa's gifts were discovered. A Merry Christmas, 1959.

THE WHITE CHRISTMAS

predicted for Detroit ended up in Wisconsin, with the exception of a few wet flakes, and the residue of an old snow fall. Half an inch fell between noon and 6 p.m. yesterday, but the weather bureau expected four to seven inches for Christmas Day.

A SUMMIT CONFERENCE will be held in Paris next spring, as Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has agreed to the meeting and the place. He has requested, however, that the western leaders change the date of the meeting. The date originally set for the big four was April 27. Khrushchev has asked that the date be either April 21 or May 4, as the week of the 27th will interfere with his plans to be present in Moscow for the Soviet May Day celebration, May 1. He said that he hoped his request would not "create any complications."

It was noted that there would be complications for French President DeGaulle, as far as the April 21 date was concerned, and difficulties with the British for the May 4 date. There has been no comment from Washington.

Woods Man Found Dead In Truck Cab

Harold Shannon Had Been Working On Motor In Closed Garage

A Woods resident was found dead in a rented garage on Monday, December 28, with death apparently caused by accidental asphyxiation by carbon monoxide.

Dead is Harold C. Shannon, 48, of 1953 Hunt Club, whose body was found at the rear of 1931 Hunt Club, in the cab of his parcel truck.

Two Mailmen Bitten by Dogs

December 22 was an open season day on mailmen, apparently, as two were bitten by dogs in the same neighborhood in the City.

Gardner Pickering of 12812 Frankfort, was bitten on the right arm by a dog owned by Richard C. Wells of 791 Lincoln road. On the same day, Robert M. Gale of 1324 Audubon road, was bitten on the left leg by a dog belonging to Mrs. Arthur Axford of 826 Washington road.

Gale was bitten in front of 830 Washington, next door to the Axford home. Mrs. Axford was given a ticket for her dog running at large.

'Strictly from Hunger,' Say Pair Nabbed for Speeding

Two motorists who could give no reason for speeding other than that they were hurrying to a restaurant to eat, were arrested by Woods police on Sunday, December 27.

Robert E. Bonislowski of 630 North Renaud, was ticketed for reckless driving and for failing to wear corrective glasses; and Raymond J. Michels of 181 Burke street, River Rouge, received a ticket for reckless driving.

Patrolmen Kenneth Metcalf and Jack Patterson were on routine patrol on Mack avenue, when they observed Bonislowski and Michels racing north on Mack, at Bournemouth, and gave chase.

The officers said they paced the two motorists at speeds above 70 miles an hour, and that both cars were swerving

Warn Residents Against Phony Utility Repairmen After Incident in Shores

Man Claiming to be from Telephone Company Suspected of Intending to Burglarize Home; Foiled by Son's Vigilance

Pointe residents are warned to be wary of persons claiming to represent any of the utility companies and requesting to check gas, electric or telephone systems in homes.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling issued the warning, when Steve Whittlesey, son of the T. B. Whittleseys of 914 Lake Shore road, told police officers that while his mother and father were absent from the house, a man appeared at the door on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 23, claiming to be from the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Looked Over Phones

Steve said the man claimed that he was sent to check the phone in the house, and was admitted. The man went through the house, looking over the phones, including one in the master bedroom.

The younger Whittlesey said he followed the man everywhere he went, and watched as he carried out his "inspection." Steve said that as he followed the man, he thought it odd that he did not see a company truck, and after the stranger left, Steve called police.

Chief Duemling said the officials of the telephone company were called, and they stated that they did not have a record of sending a repairman, or representative, to the Whittlesey address.

Intentions Suspected

The chief said that perhaps the man's intentions were not from one traffic lane to another, passing four other vehicles going in the same direction.

Metcalf and Patterson said neither of the drivers were able to stop or slow down immediately when they were ordered to the curb at the intersection of Mack and Woodward. The officers said both men had been drinking.

Bonislowski and Michels, the policemen said, were unable to give any reason for speeding except that they were hurrying to a restaurant to eat.

SOFT DRINKS STOLEN

Mel Crandall of 1130 Wayburn, complained to Park police on Sunday, December 27, that someone stole 10 large bottles of slinger ale from the back porch of his house.

Two Teeners Report Being Beaten Up

Youth Sought for Questioning in Connection With Assault Said to Be in Florida

Two teenage boys, were stopped and assaulted by another teenager Friday night, December 18, while driving on Jefferson avenue at Fisher road.

Charles David Usher, 16, of 1206 Balfour road, told City police that he and his friend, Eugene Clifford Hawthorne, 16, of 1071 Beaconsfield avenue, were driving on East Jefferson when they were waved down at Fisher road. The boy who flagged the car grabbed Usher, pulled him from the driver's seat and began to hit him.

When Hawthorne got out of the car to help his friend, he was also beaten. Their attacker then kicked in the left front door and grill of the car.

Then Drove Away

Usher and Hawthorne said that the boy then got into a yellow Buick convertible and drove away. The car was found later that evening abandoned in a Farms parking lot. The transmission had been broken. The car was identified as belonging to Glen Harmon of 2057 Fleetwood drive.

When the police called the Harmon residence, they found that Mr. Harmon's son, Douglas, 17, had had the car for the evening. The parents were told, by Capt. Andrew Teelaert, to bring their son into the City police station the following morning for questioning.

Didn't Get Home

When they didn't appear the morning of the 19th, Capt. Teelaert again called the Harmon home. Mrs. Harmon told him that her son hadn't been home all night. It was found that he had taken the other family car and he and three friends had gone to Florida for the holidays.

Mrs. Harmon was told to bring her son in as soon as he returned from Florida. It will then be necessary for young Usher to appear, and identify Harmon if he is the one who attacked Usher and Hawthorne. If Harmon is positively identified, Usher may or may not sign the complaint.

"Usher hasn't been in since the night of the incident, so it may just be a teenage squabble," said Capt. Teelaert.

BOY CUTS SELF

Park police transported Robert Boehrlitz, 17, of 1347 Maryland, to Bon Secours Hospital on Sunday, December 27, when he cut his right thumb with a sharp knife while in his home. He was treated and released.

Review of Year's Top News Events Offered Readers

A Digest of the Most Interesting Happenings in the Pointe During 1959 as Reported in Each Issue of This Paper

Sad and happy thoughts came to the minds of many people as they look back at 1959, as this, the last day of the year, December 31, slowly expires. Many events have escaped being recorded during the past 12 months, but whether they are written down or not, they are now part of the past.

Throughout the year, the NEWS has made every effort to present to its readers happenings in the Pointe. The following is a digest of the highlights of the news as reported in each issue of this paper:

January 1 — The memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Joy, who have given so much to the Pointe, will be perpetuated in the carillon from their estate. Their son and daughter, Henry B. Joy, Jr., and Mrs. Helen Joy Lee, presented the bells to the Farms, their resident city. The city council appropriated funds to have the carillon removed from the estate and re-erected on the Water Filtration Plant grounds in Moross road, between Lake Shore road and Grosse Pointe boulevard, where it will ring again after many years of silence.

January 8 — A Mutual Fire Aid Pact, between the Pointe and Harper Woods, which died in 1955, was stirred to life again at a Park council meeting. The need for mutual assistance in combating fires was forcibly brought home by the $250,000 fire of the residence of Dr. and Mrs. John Buell, 188 Provençal, December 22, 1958. The Park, City and Harper Woods Fire Departments were called upon for assistance by the Farms Fire Department, when the inferno that engulfed the house got out of control.

January 15 — Thugs broke into the home of the Robert Dales, 500 Ballantyne, and terrorized the couple's daughter, Margaret, 15, and her friend, Ann Cronenweth, of 525 Sheldon. While one hoodlum held the girls at gun point, the other ransacked chest drawers, searched closets and looked through rooms on the first floor. After taking a valuable tape recorder, and two girls' coats, the robbers fled in an old car. One thief, Walter Simard, 28, of 7452 Steger, Detroit, was captured by Detroit police when he ran a red light at Gratiot and Six Mile road. The other, Donald E. Lstewski, 28, of 17389 Mendota, Detroit, escaped, to be captured five days later by Brownsville, Tex., police.

January 22 — The city managers and fire chiefs of the Pointe and Harper Woods reached accord on a formal plan of mutual fire aid, after meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. All that remains is ratification by the respective city councils. The City and Park appointed committees to discuss possible merger of their respective fire departments. The proposed merger will not interfere with the over all mutual aid pact, it was said.

Eight Nabbed Implicated in Many Thefts

Man Who Served as Fence for Stolen Goods Also Picked Up by Detroit Police

A suspicious policeman, a routine traffic investigation and the subsequent arrest of two teenage boys resulted in the breaking up of a teen-burglary ring, according to information released by Woods police on Monday, December 28.

Among those arrested were Henry Gehringer, 50, of 1009 Townsend, Detroit, alleged fence of goods the gang stole; and William Wenzell, 17, of 12741 Greiner, Detroit, the oldest boy of the gang.

The gang included five 15-year-old boys and two who are 16 years old.

First Clue Dec. 13

The activities of the gang first came to light on December 13, when Woods Patrolman Donald Sabel, while on routine scout car patrol going west on Hawthorne, stopped for a stop street at Goethe. He noticed a car parked 30 feet from Hawthorne on the southeast side of Goethe. The parked vehicle had no lights on.

Officer Sabel proceeded on Hawthorne toward Mack, and happened to glance in the rear view mirror, and observed the parked car start up and turn east on Hawthorne, still without lights.

The policeman turned his car around and followed the other down Hawthorne to Marter road, at which point the other vehicle made a U turn on Marter and drove west on Hawthorne, passing the officer.

Find Two Youngsters

Sabel stopped the other car at Vernier and Mack, and ordered the two occupants out. The driver of the car was a 16-year-old boy and his passenger, a 15-year-old.

The 15-year-old claimed the car belonged to his brother, but had no registration certificate as proof. The car and boys were taken to the station, where the younger boy readily admitted he did not have his brother's permission to use the car.

While being questioned by Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian, Wood authorities received a call from the John Herberlings of 1957 Hawthorne, who stated that their home had been broken into. They said they left the house about 10:30 a.m. on the December 13 date and returned about 8:30 p.m., to find the garage door open and door window broken, and the first floor of the house ransacked.

Found in Field

The only thing taken, according to the two detectives, was a gold-trimmed, red table lighter, which was found in a field nearby, where the young burglars had thrown it.

The two boys in custody gave the name of another 16-year-old and stated that he was with them, when the Heberling home was entered. They said this boy and four others were in the house. All made their escape.

The lads gave the name and address of the boy they implicated, to O'Dell and Tobian, and the officers called Detroit police and asked that the boy be picked up for questioning and investigation.

The implicated boy was taken into custody at his home by officers of Detroit's 15th Precinct, and questioned. The boy stated that he was in the Heberling home and implicated Wenzell, who was later arrested.

Sold Their Loot

Wenzell and one of the 15-year-olds, made formal statements to Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Olsen, in which they stated they sold their stolen property to Gehringer.

A search warrant was obtained on December 17, to search Gehringer's home. Nothing was found there, but the officers arrested Gehringer at his confectionery, 11911 East Seven Mile road, and questioned him at the 15th Precinct.

Gehringer at first denied any knowledge of any stolen items, but later admitted he had taken a tape recorder to a barber shop next to his store to have it repaired. Police said the re-

The book has been organized in a very workable fashion. Dr. Hicks has opened each chapter (each of which deals with a different subject field or aspect of the elementary school program), with a discussion of the underlying philosophies and theories as well as some historical background.

The second half of each chapter has been written in a very lucid style by Dr. Jameson. He gives many practical examples and applications of these theories which have been tried and proven successful by teachers on his staff as well as others.

Many exceptional photographs of Grosse Pointe pupils and staff have been used to illustrate the text.

Found Dead

Doors Were Closed
 Marter told authorities that he found the garage doors closed and the motor of the truck running. He turned off the ignition he said, and then called Mrs. Marguerite Hoffman of 1931 Hunt Club, from whom Shannon was renting the garage, and then called police.

The woman said Shannon had been renting the garage for three years.

Investigating officers said evidences showed that Shannon must have died while working on the motor of the truck. They said they found the hood up, and a screw driver and a pair of pliers on the left front fender, and a lighted flashlight on the floor of the truck cab.

The body was lying on the seat with the feet dangling outside of the cab, and the upper part of the body slightly under the dash panel.

Had Been Happy
 Shannon's wife, Bernice, 47, said she last saw her husband between 8:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. on the Monday date, and he was in a happy frame of mind.

She said that she and Marter were talking in her home, when Marter decided to go to the garage to look for his employer.

Dr. Walter D. Pool of 418 Roland court, the family physician, said that about four years ago he examined Shannon when he complained of a chest pain, and had not seen him professionally since.

Woods Det. Leroy Tobian said that Dr. Walter W. Hassig, an assistant medical examiner of the Wayne County Medical Examiner Office, held a post mortem examination on Tuesday, December 29, but his findings will not be known for at least 10 days.

Busy Thief

(Continued from Page 1) nothing of it, until sometime later when she went downstairs and found the rear door open and footprints in the kitchen, dining room and living room.

The chief said that in this case, nothing was disturbed, and it appeared that the burglar was frightened away when he heard Mrs. Griffin upstairs.

Bolton was not so fortunate, however. He told police that he left home early the previous evening and returned about 9 a.m. the following day to find all the upstairs rooms completely ransacked.

He said all that could be determined missing was his topcoat, valued at $150. He told police that he had taken the precaution of removing all his valuables to another location in the house, where it would be difficult for a burglar to find.

Chief Louwers said that an investigation revealed that the burglar entered by way of Kensington, where he possibly parked his car, and then climbed the fence into Bolton's yard.

In the Farms, Det. Sgt. Van Tiem said the Schleh burglary was discovered by James Flom of 260 Mt. Vernon, who found a rear door of Schleh's house open. Flom was checking the house in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Schleh.

Flom told the officer that he noticed the broken glass of the door, and on checking further found the door open and the house ransacked.

Sgt. Van Tiem said there were no footprints in the snow, and also said that it could not be determined what was missing until the owners of the house return from a trip. He said that the method of operation was the same as that of the thief who broke into the Park homes.

In each case, the thief un-latched a side door, for a fast get-away in case he was surprised while carrying out his crimes. The method of search was identical, too, he said.

Bushong, superintendent of Public Schools, presented diplomas to 122 graduates, as approximately 1,200 persons looked on. With this graduating class, the high school has awarded 9,218 diplomas since 1925.

February 5—St. Clair Shores informed the Woods it has hiked the assessed valuation of the Woods' lakefront park, located just over the border in St. Clair Shores. Woods taxpayers were surprised to find out that their park is now valued at $503,900, more than eight times the original purchase price of the land of $60,000 in 1948. The 1959 assessed valuation of the property the Woods was told jumped from the 1958 figure of $122,000, to $125,988. The Woods has paid $298,800 toward improvements since the purchase of the park.

February 12 — The Grosse Pointe War Memorial was willed one million dollars for the construction of an auditorium. The bequest was made by the late William H. Fries, a Pointe resident for 30 years, who died while traveling in New Zealand, and while cruising with his wife in the South Pacific. He bequeathed the money to the Center for a completely equipped building to be known as "The William Fries Auditorium." It is the most outstanding gift ever made to the Pointe communities, making it possible for the Center to fulfill the terms of its charter as an educational, cultural and recreational center for the five Pointes.

February 19—Mervyn G. Gaskin of 83 Oxford road, was elected president of the Board of Trustees of the Detroit Memorial Hospital at a Board meeting. Two other Pointers elected as officers were: Dr. Gordon K. Glasgow of 1170 Harvard road, vice president; and William J. Thomas of 262 Stephens road, treasurer.

February 26 — The Grosse Pointe High School Concert Band, under the direction of its new director, Richard H. Snook, took part in the Southeastern District Band competition in Birmingham, and was one of two bands in the entire district to receive first division ratings from all four judges. This qualified the group to participate in the State Competition Festival on April 18. A near-perfect record was scored by the band a week prior to the Birmingham competition, in the Southeastern Michigan Solo and Ensemble festival, held at Redford Thurston High School.

March 5—Grosse Pointe High School Orchestra participated for the first time in the District Competition Festival for orchestras in Livonia, and like the band a week ago, came away with straight First Division ratings from all four judges. One of the judges, Edgar Ross, stated that there was "very mature playing throughout the orchestra—good spirit and a very fine performance." Richard H. Snook is the director of both the orchestra and band.

March 12—The Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church celebrated its Twentieth Anniversary. The Rev. Dr. Dana McLean, president of the American Unitarian Association, was the guest speaker at the anniversary banquet held a week later. In March 1939, about 63 persons signed the covenant, establishing the new church, at a formal meeting. Dr. Frederick May Elliot, then president of the American Unitarian Church was the guest speaker. The Rev. Merrill O. Bates was the first official minister.

Police also recovered two table model radios, a man's gold wrist watch, and an empty brown leather gun case, all taken from Detroit homes.

Worked as Unit
 A report on the burglaries showed that Woods police, East Detroit police and those from Detroit worked as a unit in smashing the ring. The report also disclosed that other teenagers might be involved.

With the breaking up of the ring, and the arrests, police not only cleared the Woods burglary, but also one in East Detroit, and 17 in Detroit, where the boys broke into homes, schools and business places.

All the juveniles have been filed against in Juvenile Court, police said.

Warrant Refused
 On December 21, a warrant was sought charging Wenzell with breaking and entering a school, but the warrant was denied by Asst. Pros. William Bolio, and Wenzell was referred to the Juvenile authorities for Violation Juvenile Code.

On the same day, a warrant charging Gehringer with receiving stolen property over the value of $100, was approved and the accused man was arraigned in Circuit Court immediately thereafter. The case is now pending.

Hospital Visited By GPHS Choir

The group, under the direction of John E. Finch, the vocal music director of the high school, toured all the wards singing carols.

Party for New Residents Being Given at Center

The officers and board of directors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association are issuing invitations to their 10th Annual reception for new residents. The affair has been set for Sunday afternoon, January 10, from 3 to 5 o'clock. It has purposely been delayed a week this year to give everyone a chance to catch their breaths after the two holiday weekends.

All families and individuals who moved into any of the five Grosse Pointe communities in 1959 are most cordially invited to this reception. Individual invitations have been mailed to everyone for whom the Center's staff has been able to obtain the address. However, there are many newcomers who may have been missed by the Welcome Wagon and are not on the Center's mailing list. It is hoped that these new residents will come down and register at the reception. The Memorial also urges any Pointer knowing newcomers not individually invited to let the Center know and encourage their new neighbors to come.

In the receiving line will be the Memorial Association's President and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Paynter and other official couples—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Goodnow, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Marx, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Bartholomew, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Hilary H. Micou, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Perry TeWalt. Other directors welcoming the guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Alan P. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Brucker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Exchange Club Donates Books

The Exchange Club made an informal presentation of books to the Grosse Pointe Public Library on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Robert M. Orr, Library Director, accepted the books from Exchange president George M. Zimmerman. As guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Orr explained the role and functions of the library system within the Grosse Pointe community. President Zimmerman commented, "His talk revealed many fascinating facts about our library which should be of interest to all in the Pointe."

According to library records, June 30, 1959 marked the completion of thirty years of service to the community. Since 1929, the public libraries have been a regular part of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. The 63,000 Pointe residents are now served by three public libraries; the Central Library at Fisher and Kercheval Avenues, and the Woods and Park Branches in their respective communities.

The Friends of the Library group has more than 1,000 members, a number greater than that for the corresponding group for New York City. There are more than 24,000 registered users of the library, which is about 37 percent of the residents. Director Orr commented, "25 percent usage by the residents is considered to be a good level of operation, however, the resident usage and participation for Grosse Pointe is markedly higher." He also pointed out that the libraries here circulate about 60 percent more non-fiction than fiction.

Among the many services offered are children's programs including story hours, summer films, special Christmas and Book Week programs, monthly family film programs, reader's advisory and reference services, film, record, framed art prints, and tool collections for rental. Library Director Orr said: "Of the 13,000 new books purchased annually, we can purchase only a limited number. We make every effort to meet the specific needs of our users. However, we always welcome donations of books from groups or individuals, or subscriptions to periodicals to maintain the continued growth and service of the Grosse Pointe Public Library."

Councilmen Hear Pier Park Plans

A progress report on the improvements in the City pier park was presented to the City Council by Mayor Kenneth Bergmann at the December 21 meeting.

Mayor Bergmann offered tentative plans for the following improvements; the expansion of the locker rooms, the paving of the parking area and the improvement of swimming area two. The Council postponed any further discussion on the proposals until the next regular meeting. In the meantime the City engineer has been asked to make a further study in the matter and give his report at the next meeting.

Famous Skier To Show Film

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's Grosse Pointe Ski Club announces another special attraction. On the evening of Wednesday, January 13, Hans Gmoser will personally narrate his ski film "Vagabonds of the Mountains."

"Vagabonds of the Mountains" shows skiing in parts of the world seldom filmed—Alaska and the Canadian Rockies. Hans himself is one of the better skiers and ski instructors of Europe and the North American Continent. His narration is completely spontaneous and natural and his slight accent is guaranteed to give the whole evening a pleasant Alpine touch.

Hans is well known to Grosse Pointers most particularly through the Pessl family with whose adventurous son Skip, Hans has been on many an expedition.

Grosse Pointe Ski Club members will have priority on the purchase of tickets for "Vagabonds of the Mountains" through January 4 at a membership rate of $1.00. Beginning January 5 the remaining tickets

Mission Accomplished

A drab and dingy utility room in Receiving Hospital has been converted into a bright and cheery day room for psychiatric patients through the efforts of the Service Committee of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church...

Up until this time, the women psychiatric patients have had to divide their time between their sleeping beds and a limited area of hallway.

Early this spring, Mrs. Charles Feldman, chairman of the committee, approached Dr. Henry Krystal, a psychiatrist at Receiving Hospital, and talked to him about the needs of the hospital. He pointed out that the local chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women had decorated and furnished a day room for men psychiatric patients...

Such a facility would contribute substantially to the progress of many patients, and might help to cure some to the point where they might be released.

The committee felt that this undertaking would have real humanitarian value, and after some discussion decided to undertake it. Finances to do the job were limited, so it was decided that committee and church members would have to do as much as possible themselves...

A church member who was a professional decorator designed the room, in white and gold with a coral accent. Provision was made for curtaining the bars at the windows.

Furniture that could be donated was found among the church membership, and the ladies of the committee busied themselves with making draperies, and setting up a collection system for trading stamps...

Perhaps the best part of this enterprise concerns the interest and effort shown by members of other faiths, and people from other fields of interest, who learned of the project and contributed liberally in time and money.

The hospital maintenance staff started things off by re-painting the area. Then there was the good Catholic who spent many hours in his basement workshop making a lovely modern table for the room...

The actual hanging of the wallpaper was to be done by professionals, and it was thought that this might be fairly expensive, since it had to be done in the evening when the patients were not around.

The two men who were to do the job arrived early one evening in the midst of a pouring rain, and started in after they had already done a full day's work. They worked late to complete the job, and in the course of the evening, they learned more about the project...

The wives of the doctors on the staff became interested, and volunteered to make slip covers for some of the furniture, and to provide a continually replenished supply of new magazines.

The psychiatrists pointed out that beauty care has a marked therapeutic value in dealing with women psychiatric patients. Here the committee was fortunate in contacting a beauty shop operator who became so enthused over the proposition that she organized a group of beauty operators who agreed to donate time to help the patients improve their appearance.

This bundle of energy then persuaded a manufacturer of beauty equipment to donate some of his products to outfit a small beauty shop in one corner of the day room.

Aside from the actual usefulness of the room and its facilities, the work that has been done seems to have a good deal of value in simply letting the patients know that there are people who care about them and their situation. Concern on the part of someone, anyone, is most important to any human being, and this is particularly true of the mentally ill. Moreover, the addition of such a room is a booster to the morale of the staff, who are faced with the problem of handling a large patient load, with limited facilities.

What Goes On at Your Library

Guest Columnist: Robert M. Orr, Director of Public Libraries.

As another year ends, and 1960 is just about here, it seems appropriate to take a minute to look back.

The most significant happening of the year for the Public Library was the passing of Mr. D. M. Ferry, Jr., on December 6. With his gift of the Central Library building in its entirety in early 1953, Mr. Ferry made it possible for Grosse Pointe for the first time to have public library facilities comparable to other Michigan communities. Indeed, the gift made possible an unusually high standard of library service. Many of us mourned his passing.

Also of major importance was the strengthening of the staff. During the year, Mr. James A. Dodd was appointed Woods Branch Librarian, and Mrs. Betty Seifert as Park Branch Librarian; professional appointments included Mr. W. Thomas Tripp, Miss Gerda Bielitz, and Mrs. Evaline Schunk at the Central Library; Mrs. Anne MacDonald was appointed Director's Secretary, Mrs. Louise Leeson, Central Circulation Clerk, and Mr. Charles Castle as Central Custodian-Engineer.

Library service is composed of a great many individual contacts. Basically, this means bringing together the right patron and the right book. Statistics can never indicate the inspiration, the imagination, and the beauty received by a child from a book; they cannot show how much the Public Library has contributed to better academic work by our students; and they can never indicate the tremendous satisfaction derived by our adults from books borrowed from the library. In short, 1959 was again a record-breaking year in library use. Circulation increased from 389,000 to over 426,000. Almost 1,000 more Grosse Pointers are registered users. Use of the Reference and Readers' Advisory Service available in the three Public Libraries has increased substantially, and an increasing number of Grosse Pointe groups use meeting room facilities at the Central Library.

From the standpoint of the staff, the most inspiring part of the story involves the great number of strong friends the Public Library has been blessed with through the years. Today, no major American city is on record as having a stronger or bigger Friends of the Library group than ours. We of the staff are proud of this fact, and deeply conscious of the obligations involved. During the past year, under the leadership of Mr. Lee Crooks and Mr. Joseph N. Jennings, the Friends have continued to move forward, enriching the Public Library and its book collection by their gifts, and in an advisory capacity playing a major part in influencing the Public Library.

On behalf of the staff, I am deeply grateful for all that Grosse Pointers have done to enable the Public Library to maintain fine library service. A very special note of thanks to the Board of Education, our official Board; to the Friends Board of Directors, our Advisory Board; to Dr. Otis M. Dickey, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools; to Mr. Robert M. Edgar, Editor and General Manager of the GROSSE POINTE NEWS; and to the many residents whose interest in and support of the Public Library has meant so much. Here's wishing for all of you, and our wonderful community, everything that is good for the coming year.

in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The officers for the year were: Albert D. Thomas and Zack Moir, directors; Norman Kopperschmidt, president; Albert DeRiemacker, vice president; Margaret Rice, secretary; and Edward Craft, treasurer. David McCarron, outgoing president, automatically became a director.

May 21—A stolen .45 caliber automatic, purchased in good faith and taken to the Park police station to be registered, brought about an investigation that smashed a teenage burglary ring. Thirteen young Detroit-area men were arrested following an around the clock joint investigation by Park, City and Farms police. The teenagers were rounded up by the Pointe police and authorities in Detroit, and by the time the youths were through confessing their crimes, the officers cleared numerous burglaries, car thefts, larcenies and other crimes in the Park, City, Farms and Detroit. The gun was one stolen from a home in the City.

June 11—Grosse Pointe High School captured the coveted Border Cities League All-Sports Trophy for the sixth consecutive year. The Devils toted 147½ points in the six major sports. Although they captured the tennis championship with Royal Oak, took second places in swimming, track and baseball and fourth place in basketball. The race was close all the way, and the points were not totaled until the end of the baseball season.

viewed a movie, unaware that policemen were in the building looking for a lethal instrument of destruction. A cashier at the theater told authorities that someone called on the phone and said a bomb was planted in the theater. The tip proved false.

June 25—The Gaslight Era returned to the Pointe when nine residents in Dean lane had street gaslight fixtures installed in their street. The residents battled the Farms council when it was decided that two electric light fixtures would be put in the lane for better illumination. The gaslights were approved when the residents protested the electric lights would be too harsh and petitioned for the gaslights. The approval was given on condition the residents bear the costs of the installation and for the gas.

Why All the Red Tape?

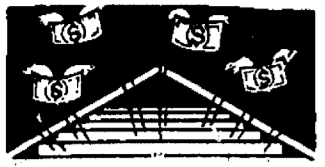

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph. You can understand why we don't sell narcotics without a physician's prescription. But maybe you've wondered why we're so fussy about other things. Like penicillin, sleeping pills, the new tranquilizers. These potent medications are called "legend drugs" and you have to have a prescription to get them. Reason: Uncontrolled use may do more harm than good. Only your physician knows whether you should use them or not—and, if so, just how much. So we require a prescription. It's a matter of professional ethics and the law. Always it's common sense. This is the 66th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week. To Be Continued

G. P. U. S. News Notes

The fifteenth century morality play "Everyman" is not so often seen on stage nowadays as it is read and studied by numerous history of drama classes, but the upper school at GPUS saw the classic last Thursday, December 17. The play, done with puppets instead of live actors, was the highlight of the second Arts Assembly of the year at GPUS. It was done under the supervision of Mrs. Eleanor Munger, speech and drama teacher. Authentic period costumes were provided by the sewing teacher, Mrs. Therese Fleming.

The morality plays, of which "Everyman" is the most famous, appeared in England and on the continent around the fifteenth century. They were the successors to the mystery plays which were presented in the church by the clergy. The mystery play was the type of drama used during the Dark Ages to instruct the people, who were for the most part illiterate. As drama moved from within the church to the outside, it became a secular interest rather than spiritual. The presentation of the plays was given by the various guilds of a town instead of the clergy. And each guild had its own play and its pageant wagon which served as their stage. The characters became allegorical abstractions bearing names like Man, Temperance, Virtue, Vice and, of course, Everyman. The plays were intended, as the name morality implies, to tell of man's struggle between good and evil. They were also meant to entertain. In the same manner, the GPUS presentation had a twofold purpose. It was to entertain, and it was also to instruct — instruct in the development of drama through the ages of man. Mrs. Munger feels that by coming in contact with "Everyman" now, the younger students particularly, (seventh through twelfth grade students saw the production), will have a better understanding of the morality play and its importance in dramatic history. Most classes of English drama, in both high school and college, come in contact with "Everyman", either through actual reading or through discussion. The GPUS production was done in the original Middle English, with some cutting of repetitious parts. This required that those students who had reading parts, understand what they were saying in order to present clearly each part to the audience. Seventeen of Mrs. Munger's speech and drama students took the reading parts of the play. Three boys were responsible for handling the puppets. "At one point, one of them had to use his teeth," said Mrs. Munger. The three puppeteers were Chip Munger, Terry Seyler and Budd Lott. These boys also pulled the pageant wagon which was a copy of an authentic wagon. They even had the signs used by the particular guild to designate which one it was.

Pointe Motorist Taken Off Road

During November, 1,297 Michigan driver's licenses were suspended under the Financial Responsibility Statutes.

According to James M. Hare, Secretary of State, of these 719 were mandatory suspensions of persons convicted of negligent homicide in the operation of a vehicle; conviction of three charges of reckless driving within a 12-month period; conviction for operating a car while under the influence of drugs or intoxicating liquor, and similar serious offenses.

Accident suspensions removed 290 more persons from the road and unsatisfied judgment suspensions accounted for 288 more.

"Under our Financial Responsibility Law a person who has been suspended for 90 days for drunk driving does not get his license back at the end of the three months unless he can prove Financial Responsibility," Hare said. "He does have the alternative, however, of being grounded for three years at the end of which time he can again apply for his driver's license." During the week of December 13, the driver's licenses of 433 Michigan motorists were suspended and those of 87 were revoked.

Home Ransacked In Fisher Road

Oliver Phelps, Jr., of 459 Fisher road, told City police that he thought someone had broken into his home the night of December 21 while he was out to dinner.

When he returned at 8:30 p.m., after a two hour absence, he found the glass on the French door broken at the lock. There were signs of ransacking in the upstairs bedrooms; but a search revealed nothing missing.

City Police Capt. Andrew Teetaert said that two or three sets of footprints were found outside the house and apparently belonged to children or young teenagers. "It's possible that whoever it was, was frightened away when Mr. Phelps returned home," said Capt. Teetaert.

Fear is born into every man, but the brave have the ability to overcome it.

Cub Pack 290 Holds Meeting

Cub Scout Pack 290 held its Pack meeting on Friday, December 18, at Mason Gym.

During the singing of Christmas carols, a tree was decorated with decorations made by the various Dens. A beautiful old fashioned Christmas tree, with strings of pop corn, paper chains, etc., was the result. The fully decorated tree was donated to charity.

The Gold Cup trophy, awarded each month to the Den which presents the best skit at the Pack meeting, was awarded to Den 2. Den mother, Mrs. VI Passarelli's scouts, presented a skit based on the Journey of the Three Wise Men to Bethlehem.

The Attendance Award was also presented to Den 2 as 13 parents were in attendance at the Pack meeting representing this Den. The Inspection Award, given monthly for appearance was presented to Den 8, Den Mother, Mrs. John Mason. The Yell Award was earned by Den 7, Den Mother, Mrs. Joseph Williams.

With Indian tradition, Cubmaster McKenna awarded the following Cub Scouts advancement badges: Lion Badge to Michael Frank; Bear Badges to John Chesquire, Peter Mason and David Williams; Wolf Badges to Joe Mack, Danny Menzo, John Mercical and Louis Tellerico.

In making the awards Cubmaster McKenna pointed out that these awards were earned only after many hours of hard work, on this trail learning among other things the way of food, the names of trees, the calls of birds and the language of the stout heart which never gives up.

In closing the ceremony he charged the Cub Scouts to continue their good work in their Dens and to remember that even the wolf needs the Pack.

Each Scout presented his mother or father with a gift made by him. The Pack Committee presented gifts to each Scout and Den Mother.

The annual Pack 290 Blue and Gold Banquet will be held on Thursday, February 11, at Buckingham Hall located at 21865 Harper near 9 Mile Road. A very attractive buffet dinner will be served starting at 7 p.m.

Admission will be by ticket only, $1.50 per adult, 75c for children under 12 years.

Young Cyclist Injured By Car

Wallace Straton, 14, of 21151 Norwood, rode into the path of an automobile, while pedaling his bicycle on Monday, December 21, but told the motorist he was not hurt.

Later, while attending classes at Parcels Junior High School, he complained that his leg was painful, and he was taken to St. John Hospital, where x-rays showed no broken bones. He had several bruises, however.

Young Straton told Woods police that he rode into the path of an oncoming car, driven by a woman. He said the woman applied her brakes and slid into him and he was knocked to the pavement.

The driver, the boy said, stopped and offered aid and wanted to give him her name and address, but he refused and continued on his way to school.

He could not give a description of the woman, and all he could say about the car was that it was of a light color.

FOP Christmas Party Success

The Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge 102, Christmas party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Monday, December 21, was the most successful ever held, according to Park Patrolman Charles Slusser, president.

Approximately 275 children of the members and guests of the Lodge met Santa Claus during an afternoon party, and about 175 adult members and guests were present at an evening affair.

Harry Jarkey of WXYZ's "Harry Calling" program, and WXYZ's Ricky the Clown, entertained the children and made sure they had a wonderful time. Slusser said, Ricky was a complete hit with the small fry. The TV personalities donated their time.

The adults danced to the music of Art Quatro's Orchestra at the evening affair. John Bullo, a Detroit fireman and brother-in-law of the president of Lodge 102, took over the role of Santa Claus and made sure every child received a gift. Fred Gebstadt, manager of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, threw open the facilities of the building at both affairs, and the parking of cars and acted as busboys. Girl employees of the club aided in the checking room. Gebstadt also saw to it that the club rooms were adequately decorated for both occasions, Slusser said.

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey and his sons attended the afternoon party; and Shores Police Chief and Mrs. Fred Duemling were guests at the evening party.

Climaxing a Symphony Week was the very gay ball given by the Junior Women's Association for the Symphony at the Whittier.

February

Ibex presented "Light Up the Sky," the Moss Hart musical at GPUS to sell-out audiences for two nights, and Junior League began planning its May Follies with Mrs. William D. Byron, Jr., as chairman.

"My Fair Lady" returned to the Riviera Theater and there were several gay parties to see this most popular musical.

Mary Owen was married to William Taylor Harper in a home ceremony, the newlyweds making their home in New York.

Mrs. Bert H. Wicking was the first Pointe gardener to walk off with top honors at the Michigan Horticultural Society's spring flower show. Liggett School Alumnae turned out at the Hunt Club for a dinner dance to brighten the mid-winter scene.

March

The Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony began the Easter fashion parade with a giant style show to benefit the orchestra.

After the really violent winter, many families gathered their offspring during school vacation for a visit to the sunshine, the ones, of course, who hadn't gone much earlier.

There were the annual St. Patrick's Day parties at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Boat Club plus a Grunyon song fest at the University Club.

Jane Ottaway was the petite brunette bride of the month when she wed Peter Dow in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Fine Arts Society successfully presented "Brigadoon," starring Mrs. Richard Simonds, Jr., and many Pointers acted in Theater Arts, "Wizard of Oz."

The DAC opened a pre-Easter week floor show starring Trude Adams and gave the club's Fathers and Daughters afternoon party.

April

With Lent over and many residents home from the Southland the social picture brightened. There was the Junior Goodwill Mart, the GPYC "Gay 90's Revue," the Cottage Hospital Telephone Bridge, the Williams College dance at the Little Club, and the Boat Club gala featuring Pee Wee Hunt's orchestra all in this busy month.

Plans were climaxing for the Junior League Follies, with a Talent Party at the Country Club managed by the Walter Buhl Fords II, and the appearance in late May of the Metropolitan Opera here, spurred by Mrs. Henry Ford, who had just returned from a tour of South

The young adult group of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is holding its Annual "Rapid Recovery" Dance on Friday evening, January 8, from 9 to 12 p. m. This party is so named to signify a return to normalcy after the "hecticity" of the holidays.

The Center Club hopes to fill the gap with this party to which all young single adult Grosse Pointers in their twenties and thirties are invited. Each Grosse Pointer has a guest privilege, but dates are in no way necessary.

Bill Kniceley's orchestra will again provide the music for the evening and refreshments will be served from a buffet table in the dining room around which small candlelit tables will be placed where small groups can get together for better acquaintanceship.

Eckel-Reno Rites Read Saturday

Bride Wears Ivory Silk Satin and Chantilly Lace for Ceremony at SS. Peter and Paul, Couple Will Live in Three Mile Drive After Chicago Trip

Mary Margaret Reno, daughter of Mrs. Frank B. Reno, of Hampton road, and the late Mr. Reno, was married Saturday in SS Peter and Paul Church to Richard Paul Eckel, son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert J. Eckel, of Lochmoor boulevard.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Edward J. Hurley, and her cousin, the Rev. Father John Van Antwerp bestowed the Papal blessing. For her wedding the bride wore a gown of ivory silk satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt which fell into a chapel length train. Bands of Chantilly lace trimmed the scoop neckline and skirt. A Dutch cap of matching lace held her veil of silk illusion. She carried white camellias and ivy.

the bridegroom, Bernard Eckert, Michael Hurley and Dallas R. Kitchin.

Mrs. Reno chose wine brocade with matching accessories. She pinned pink camellias to her purse. Mrs. Eckel wore green brocade with matching accessories. She pinned green cymbidium orchids to her purse.

After a breakfast reception at the Detroit Yacht Club, the couple left for a wedding trip to Chicago. Upon their return, they will make their home on Three Mile Drive.

Deb Calendar Still Crowded

Four Grosse Pointe girls bowed to society over the holiday week-end, keeping the deb set hopping at perhaps the fastest pace in debutante history.

Catherine Jean Riemann and Jane Rueger were honored by their parents, the William H. Riemans, Jr. and Dr. and Mrs. Milton J. Rueger, at a dinner given in the Country Club of Detroit the day after Christmas.

The sextette received in the French Room, in a blue and silver setting. Jane wore a full-length gown of pale blue peau de soie, with a draped bodice, cap sleeves, and large bow at the waist.

Following the dinner guests moved on to Lynn Anne Ternes' dance at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. There Lynn and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ternes, of Three Mile road, welcomed guests in the gold and white, holiday-decorated Rotunda room.

Lynn was lovely in a white satin brocade, full length gown with a modified sweetheart neckline. Her waist was accented with several tiny cummerbunds, banded together, the combined streamers reaching nearly to the floor, at the back. Guests danced to the orchestras of Art Quatro and Jack Rosevear in the ballroom, where a huge Christmas tree trimmed in gold and cerise formed the backdrop.

Rounding out the full week-end, and beginning the end of a full season, Thirza ("Timmy") Morrow bowed at a tea-reception Monday afternoon in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow of Yorkshire road. She wore a candle light-white ballerina-length gown, appliqued with pearls and brocade. White roses and fresh holly were abundant throughout the house, with a white holly tree and candles banking the fireplace.

HOUSEHOLD HINT - The tossed salad for dinner need not be limited to head lettuce. Darker greens such as spinach, water cress, chard and Bibb lettuce add eye appeal to the salad bowl. Greens like romaine and escarole add unique flavors. Home economists suggest you try using equal parts of head lettuce and one or more other salad greens for a tossed salad.

Mrs. Richard Paul Eckel

Lochmoor Club Holding Party

New Year's Eve will be celebrated at Lochmoor Club in its usual grand style.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair will entertain the Board of Directors at a cocktail party at their home.

At the Club, the theme of the party will be a good old fashioned New Year's Eve with balloons and favors.

Free cocktails will be served, starting at nine p.m. Co-chairmen of the party are Mr. Louis DeHayes and Mr. G. D. Woodbridge. Their plans include the music of Mr. Jack Qualey and his orchestra.

Hors d'oeuvres will be served during the evening, breakfast after 1 a.m.

Rickel and his parents in their Stonehurst road home. (Visits between the two families, longtime friends, are frequent). Completing this festive group will be daughter, Alice Rickel, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bailey, of Midland, Tex.

Christmas Christening

The Daniel D. Jacksons, of Rye, N. Y., arrived to spend the holidays with her parents, the John W. Strohs, of Lewiston road, and incidentally took this occasion to have their two daughters christened.

The Rev. Erville Maynard assisted Bishop Crowley at the Saturday ceremony in Christ Church at which Laird Elizabeth Jackson and Faye LeBaron Jackson were christened.

The John W. Strohs had a family party following the christening. The Eric W. Strohs, (she was one of the godmothers), who attended, will be off over the week-end if the weather is good, for Collingwood, Ont., for a few days of skiing.

Also having a reunion over Christmas were the Philip Ira Worcester who welcomed their son-in-law and daughter, the John Hastings, of Indianapolis.

More New Year's Eve parties have been added to crowded calendars. The John Denlers will have a small group for the last night of the year and the Mark Anthony Belaires have also scheduled an open house to welcome 1960.

CITY OF
Grosse Pointe Farms
SUMMARY OF MINUTES
DECEMBER 21, 1959

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Henry E. Bodman II, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., William G. Butler, Richard L. Maxon and Edward C. Roney, Jr.

Absent: Councilman William G. Kirby.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided.

Councilman Kirby was excused from attending the meeting.

Minutes of the regular meeting of December 7, 1959, were approved as submitted.

The Council meeting was temporarily adjourned to permit the members of the Council to convene as a Zoning Board of Appeals, to consider the appeal of Walter H. Mast Company.

A communication was received from A. C. F. Wrigley's Stores, Inc., appealing from the denial of the City Engineer of a building permit to construct an addition to their building on Kercheval Avenue, which proposed construction would be over the City-owned property between Wrigley's store and the Grosse Pointe News, and requesting the Council to grant favorable consideration to their utilization of the space as proposed.

The matter was referred to the City Attorney for a study and report as to the legal aspects involved and what procedures would be necessary on the part of the Council to grant permission for the construction.

A report of the Fire Department for the month of November, 1959, and a financial report of the General Fund for the five-month period ending November 30, 1959, were received and ordered filed.

The City Manager reported that the Garden Club of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club had donated a Christmas wreath to the City, which is being used to decorate the Water Filtration Building, and the City Clerk was instructed to write the Club, expressing the appreciation of the Council.

Approval was given to pay the City of Grosse Pointe, as Managing Municipality, the sum of $1,459.35 for the City's share of the Civil Defense and Disaster Control Budget, and the sum of $1,937.55 for the City's share of the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods Health Council Budget.

Approval was given to close the Administrative Office at noon on December 24, 1959.

The City Manager reported that the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe had awarded the City a "Certificate of Honor" for the outstanding landscaping and gardening at the Pier Park, and the City Clerk was instructed to write the Club, expressing the appreciation of the Council.

The regular Council meeting of January 4, 1960, was postponed to January 18, 1960.

The City Manager was authorized to obtain bids for the sale of a 1952 Federal truck equipped with a nine cubic yard load-packer body.

The City Attorney was requested to make an examination of the City's Zoning Ordinance, with the thought in mind of clarifying those sections of the ordinance having to do with the approving of requested variances or exceptions and the adoption of amendments to the ordinance.

On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:30 P.M.

ination would not be accepted either. Rockefeller's decision was based on his recent trips through the country. He said that in talks with the national leaders of the Republican party, he found that they were opposed to a contest for the nomination.

Monday, December 28 THE BALTIMORE COLTS are once more the champions of the National Football League, after a 31 to 16 win over the New York Giants, yesterday. The western division champion Colts were not pressed to pull the game out of the fire in the closing minutes, as they were in last year's match with the eastern champion Giants. Three fourth quarter touchdowns and a field goal were more than the Giants could handle.

Tuesday, December 29 THE QUESTION of racial bias in the Detroit public schools will be investigated by the Board of Education, it was learned Monday. A 35 member committee is to be appointed to hold the investigation. Negro leaders have charged that Detroit is actually segregating its public school children, one fourth of whom are Negroes. The new committee, now being organized, will be headed by Juvenile Judge Nathan Kaufman. The committee will serve as an "advisory" to the Board of Education, and will be able only to make recommendations as to changes, rather than take action.

Wednesday, December 30 THE INQUIRY BOARD formed by President Eisenhower to investigate the steel strike, yesterday asked the steel companies to state their side of the deadlock. The board is in the process of gathering data for the report ordered by the President on January 6. Head of the board is Prof. George W. Taylor of the University of Pennsylvania. The board heard the steel union's side of the controversy Monday.

America with Mr. Ford and son, Edsel. Suzanne Fisher spoke her wedding vows to Daniel N. King and Claire Fisher became the bride of Philip C. Lauinger, Jr. A sunshine yellow luncheon opened the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's spring season.

Ann McKnight became the bride of William Farquhar later in April and the engagement of Susan Denier made news in the betrothal department.

May Ixex celebrated the merry month with a dance at the Hunt Club, the party being a farewell to the Robert Hamiltons, who were moving to Tennessee. Mrs. Hamilton is the Pointe artist, Dallas Chapin, who did so many sets for Ixex productions along with teaching the local talent.

And also on the art scene, the Grosse Pointe Artists held a show at the War Memorial. There were some picturesque as well as the last-word in modern kitchens to be seen at the Cottage Hospital annual tour including the Richard P. Joys' home in Tonnancour place and the Robert E. Mozenas' in Lewiston road.

The Little Club came up with a tennis exhibition, to which members of other tennis clubs were cordially invited and a brunch served. In Cook road the Protestant Children's home marked its Founder's Day with an historical skit and tea.

Then there was the long heralded Junior League Follies at the Cass Theater, in which Mrs. Jean Mesritz was a stand-out. Elegant indeed were the gowns worn by the first night audience at the Masonic Temple for the Metropolitan's performance of "Carmen" starring Rise Stevens.

Many of the Pointe's first families attended the dinner. Other momentous June doings included the opening of the Pointe's finest gardens for the annual Detroit Center Pilgrimage. This was the last view of the gardens of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour, whose property was sold later in the year to St. Paul's Church.

The Junior League toasted its past presidents and the 45th year of its founding at a sherry party at the Country Club before the regular meeting. Grosse Pointe Yacht Club members made their annual excursion to the Old Club on a South Seas cruise party.

The Grunions (that all male singing group of fame) took their wives to Huron City, Mich., as the guests of the Charles A. Farcells' Jr., to celebrate the tenth year of the organization. And Grosse Pointe University School counted the proceeds from a very successful two-day carnival to aid the scholarship fund.

(To Be Continued) HOUSEHOLD HINT Asparagus can come to the table as a salad. Just chill cooked or canned asparagus and arrange the tender green spears on lettuce. Garnish with hard cooked egg slices and strips of pimento and serve with French dressing.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Daughter of President Cleveland's private secretary, wife of President Harding's Secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Edwin Denby lives today in St. Clair avenue with years of memories when the political arena was the center of her existence.

Born Marion Thurber in Detroit she was the daughter of Henry T. Thurber of the law firm of Dickinson, Thurber and Stevenson. Mr. Thurber married Elizabeth Brady Croul who was descended from General Hugh Brady, Revolutionary war hero who settled in Detroit after the conflict. The Thurbers date their Detroit residence back several generations, coming here from Monroe where they first took up residence, believing it was to become the huge metropolis, not Detroit.

Edwin Denby was the son of a civil war colonel who was appointed minister to China under four presidential terms, (Cleveland, Harrison and McKinley). He grew up in China and entered the Chinese Imperial Customs Service, taking two years leave on half pay to come to Detroit to visit his sister. While he was here he finished a law course at the University of Michigan and joined the Naval Reserve. He was among the valiant crew from Detroit who sailed on the "Yosemite" during the Spanish American War.

Politics was his real career and when he returned from the war he ran for the state legislature and then was three times elected to Congress, once defeating Truman Newberry.

The culmination of his political life came during President Harding's administration when he served as Secretary of the Navy, his interest in that branch of the service stemming from his duty aboard the Yosemite and his long association with the Naval Reserve. He also enlisted as a Marine Corps private in World War I and became a major.

In spite of national prominence, Mr. Denby did not forget his hometown. He was president of the board of Commerce, chairman of the fund to build YMCA's, chairman of the fund raising committee for the Salvation Army and first city probation officer.

Mrs. Denby, who has been a widow for 30 years, wisely declares herself to be an independent in politics, for her father was a Democrat and her husband a Republican. She spent many years in Washington under both administrations and knew the political figures of the day well. The Denby's only son was lost on a Navy submarine in World War II and a daughter is married and lives in Urbana, Ill. Mrs. Denby is the sister of Cleveland Thurber, of Kenwood road, and Mrs. Thomas N. Bourke, of Lakeland avenue.

Putting up the Christmas tree can almost demolish the spirit of the season in some households... and then there are the families which insist on doing the tree bit on the Eve itself.

One small believer in Santa we know, never saw the glittering tree until Christmas morning, because of course St. Nick brought it. This posed some problems for his parents who this year decided to buy it early, put it on the standard and hide it in the paint room in the cellar.

Father drove ten large nails in the door and smiled his satisfaction at hiding the tree... but enterprising junior discovered all. He rushed to tell mommy, who insisted Santa had stopped by early but not to tell daddy and to nail up the door again. Christmas Eve it took strong papa two hours to pry loose the nails his five-year-old had pounded in the door.

Christmas camellias were the glowing gift of Mrs. Edna Lee Root and Fredrick W. Parker, Jr., who together grow lovely hot house flowers in a neighborly green house.

We love the story of Mrs. Frederick W. Pearce's Christmas gift. Asked by her parents what she would treasure most, something really elegant, what did she choose? Not a fur coat, or a diamond ring, not even a trip. Her wish, a giant spruce tree for the front yard which costs a staggering amount, pretty difficult to tie with red ribbon, though.

So nostalgic to see the white star above the James Gibsons' Lincoln road home. This is a holiday tradition dating back to the days when the Pointe was but a village and the late Murray Sales owned the popular gray stucco house on the corner of East Jefferson.

Two angelic young Pointers caused the second floor of Best's, in the Village, quite an uproarious laugh last week. It seems that these two were there for the business of chatting with Santa about the usual things. However, in the midst of their little talk, one of the boys pointed to his companion and said in a VERY LOUD voice, "But he doesn't say his prayers."

David Niven served as an officer in the British army before he went to Hollywood and became a movie star. Then, when World War II broke out, he returned to England and rejoined his regiment. An old colonel, seeing him when he reappeared in the officer's mess, said to him, "Ah, there, Niven, where have you been?" "I've been doing pictures," Niven said. "Really?" said the colonel. "Water Colors?"

When her favorite daily newspaper had to cease publication for 17 days because of a printers' strike, an irritated housewife called up the editor. "You knew beforehand that this was going to happen," she said. "Why didn't you print up a lot of papers ahead of time?"

This will be a bright new year for over 100 retired oldsters, who have banded together into the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, to fill their suddenly leisurely lives and serve their town.

Back in August Edward Gehrig, now the president, of the group, had the idea of banding together with some of his contemporaries to enjoy his now abundant time, make some worthwhile contribution, and incidentally, get out of the house and leave his wife in peace.

Although many of the members belong to downtown clubs they found themselves lonely when the active men they lunched with returned to their offices. The only qualification for the Senior Men's Club is that members must be retired and live in the Grosse Pointe area. The group is a fine cross section of engineers, workers, small businessmen, corporation officers, doctors and lawyers. They meet at the War Memorial.

Long Lunch Hours A Must

The constitution of the club states the purpose of the group: To further educational, civic and charitable objectives in the community while enjoying social activities. But as one jovial member put it, the real justification of membership is being able to spend a couple of hours at lunch.

The senior men meet the second and fourth Tuesday of every month to hear a luncheon speaker or have a social gathering in which they play bridge, cribbage, pinochle, hold panel discussions or watch the boats on the lake. Every once in a while they have a "go see" trip. They have been to Selridge Air Field and will go to General Motors Technical Center in late January.

What They Do

John Kivinen and Dewey Teachout are in charge of the card playing members; Col. Lloyd Arnold and Mr. Teachout manage the panel discussion; Gene Hoelzle and Harry Hogan direct the cribbage games and George Young marshals the boat watchers.

Weighty Discussions

For the educationally minded the panel discussions are weighty, the effects of Khrushchev's visit; the national budget and the new technical developments of energy are some of the topics which have been discussed. Richard Knight, a talented chess player reports on his games he plays with contestants all over the country. The boat watchers, a dozen strong, can tell you the type of vessel, the country it came from, even its cargo. And the bridge and gin rummy players keep a record of scores.

The club doesn't solicit members, all are welcome and need not join, may just visit. Dues are $5.00 yearly and the price of the luncheon at the War Memorial, which they acknowledge with heartfelt gratitude for the wonderful co-operation the Center has extended.

Conquer Retirement Woes

A modest gathering, the individual members rarely tell of their former successes in the business and professional world. They value this experience of sharing their retirement joys and sorrows. Most of the men are well aware of the pitfalls of retirement, the loneliness, the threat of boring the younger generation. This club gives them the opportunity to avoid some of the problems of those over retirement age, allows them to live their twilight years with grace and service.

Future plans for the Senior Men's Club include many more field trips, an expansion of social activities and possible charitable projects. Enthusiastic, energetic, well informed, these 100 gentlemen deserve a hand for their contribution to each other, their ability to accept retirement with charm and satisfaction.

A happy new year to the Senior Men's Club!

Gowanie Golf Club

Ladies Play Party

A group of the Gowanie Golf Club ladies will gather at the home of Mrs. Charles H. King, 1304 Somerset road, on Wednesday, January 6, at 12:30, for their first party in 1960. Something different in the way of invitations was sent out.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

If a cake recipe leaves you with extra egg whites or egg yolks, home economists at Michigan State University suggest you hard cook them. Then sieve the egg yolks and chop the egg whites for salad garnishes.

Center Offers New Art Course

A special advanced art class will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Thursday afternoons from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., beginning January 14. Prof. Jerome Kamrowski of the faculty of the University of Michigan will be the instructor. At the University he is a professor of both drawing and painting in the College of Architecture and Design.

Professor Kamrowski, a native of Minnesota, studied at St. Paul School, the Art Students League and the Haas Hofmann School. Kamrowski has exhibited widely both nationally and internationally with much acclaim both here and abroad. He has long been connected with abstract surrealist art first coming to attention in this field in the 1946 Surrealist Exhibition in Paris. He has won distinguished awards here in Detroit, in Philadelphia, New York and Paris.

Artists wishing to take advantage of this unusual opportunity for advanced study in Grosse Pointe are urged to enroll at the Center as soon as possible. The charge for the course is $36 for a series of 12 two-hour weekly lessons.

Those wishing to know more about Professor Kamrowski, his ideas and work will have the opportunity to do so on Tuesday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock, prior to the beginning of his course. At that time under the joint auspices of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association and the War Memorial Association Professor Kamrowski will present an illustrated lecture demonstration on "abstract-surrealism" free of charge to the public. He will explain many of the aspects of modern art at this time.
