

Good Friday Services

19950 Mack avenue at Torrey road from 1 to 2:40 o'clock.
This observance is scheduled for children in grades one through six with a primary and a junior service. "Growing in God's World" is the theme for the afternoon.
Besides Easter talks, and a filmstrip, there will be craft work. Children's choirs from some of the participating churches will provide the music for these services.

A recent map lists 13 different names for the word "mountain". They are: berg, giri, kangri, kilima, kuh, mir, monte, nevado, san, shan, tagh, ula, and yama.

Library Week

ing people informed on vital issues.
In Grosse Pointe, the Public Library is in its thirty-first year of service to the community. Local libraries have attracted a substantially higher percentage of users than most libraries, having at present more than 24,000 registered users, or 36 per cent of all residents. This year they will borrow more than 450,000 books from the three Public Libraries, and more than 70,000 reference and readers' advisory requests will be handled by the Professional Staff.

The contributions from the Friends of the Library group, one of the largest and strongest in the Country, have strengthened the book collection through special gifts, and have made possible many new services.

During the coming week, each of the three Public Libraries will feature displays of new books, special exhibits, and reading lists especially prepared, covering investment, opera, sports, antiques, young people, gardening, and Staff favorites. In addition, there will be special displays of rare books at the Central Library.
The Public Library Staff cordially invites local residents to drop into their closest Library during this week.

Antique Show

are the main reason for the existence of the club.

A few of these projects are: community fishing rodeo and annual Halloween party; camping and equipment expenses for Boy and Girl Scout troops; college scholarship grants for deserving Grosse Pointe graduates; maintenance of radio and television equipment for hospital patients; school safety patrol awards; support of foreign exchange students attending Grosse Pointe schools; support of Little Leagues and Babe Ruth leagues in baseball and football; maintaining our Central Library's Tool Library. And many more.
No case is ever submitted to Rotary which does not receive careful study and action if it comes within the scope of the club.

This year 98 Rotarians and their wives are working hard to make this fifth annual antiques show the most successful to date in order to sustain these activities which mean so much to Grosse Pointe. Everyone is invited to visit this unusual event at the beautiful War Memorial Center.

Hearing Set

Michigan in conjunction with the U. S. department of Agriculture, will act as moderator of the meeting, April 11.
Mr. Biebesheimer is currently working on a program for the meeting that will consist of a panel of experts in the various fields affected by this problem. He hopes to have experts on chemistry, agriculture, bird and animal life, all in attendance at the War Memorial the night of the meeting.

After the speech, there will be a question and answer period, conducted in the manner now being used at the Lenten Lecture Series. The audience will be asked to write out their questions on a card or cards, and these cards will be given to the man on the panel who is most qualified to answer the question.

"We hope that the public will attend this meeting," said Mrs. W.D. "It is generally thought that what the people of the Pointe want and need in this matter is information as to what DDT is doing to the bird, animal and plant life out here. This meeting should answer their questions."

Other Interested Organizations
Representatives of the various Garden clubs and other Pointe organizations will be in attendance. It is the hope of the Garden Council that officials from the five Pointes will attend, also.

The DDT spray was used last year, and has been or will be used by all five of the Pointes this year to combat the Dutch Elm disease which has been killing many of the beautiful elm trees in the area. The spray has proved to be extremely effective in preventing the Dutch Elm disease.

However, because of the effect it has had (or is thought to have had) in killing the birds and animals that populate the Pointe, another spray was suggested to the municipal governments. That spray, called Methoxychlor, does not have a fatal effect on wild life. It is about five times as expensive to use, however. Thus the controversy has arisen.

The meeting on April 11, in the library of the War Memorial, may be the beginning of an answer to this community problem. Residents are urged to attend.

Disposal Law

items as shells, large bones and corn husks and cobs.

"The City has already had problems with getting a place to dispose of the garbage it now collects," said Mr. Blondell. "In the near future, we are going to be faced with paying from $3 to $5 per ton of municipal waste disposed of (that includes garbage), plus another $15 for the cost of hauling it 30 miles away to an incinerator. At five to seven tons a day, that will be rather expensive."

"It will be much better for the City and for the residents of the City if each resident installs a grinder disposal unit," Mr. Blondell added.

Ed. Note—A copy of the new garbage disposal ordinance for the City of Grosse Pointe appears elsewhere in this issue of the Grosse Pointe News.

Center Goal for Budget

fields on an adult and advanced level. And of course there are the two popular Senior Clubs, for men and for women.

The War Memorial Center opened in the summer of 1949. Since that time, according to Mr. Paynter, nearly 800,000 Pointe residents have used its services and facilities. More than 16,500 groups have used the Center as a meeting place or for parties of various sorts, and food has been served to 350,000 persons.

97,188 Visited in 1959
The record of usage has been one of steady advance, each year. For example in its first full year of operation 50,000 persons used the Center. Last year the figure was 97,188.

"Obviously, with this kind of growth, it has become necessary to acquire more funds in order to operate the Center," said Mr. Paynter. "Our paid staff has grown from seven to 14 in those ten years. This has been necessary to handle the rapidly increasing number of groups who desire to use the facilities here."

The Center has a total operational budget this year of $159,250. More than $109,000 of this total is raised by the Center through receipts from the program activities, receipts from services supplied and dividends and interest from investments. The remaining $50,000 must come from the Family Participation Drive.

Money Must Come From You
"We think it is most significant that in the ten years of its operation the War Memorial Center has been able to be more than 65 per cent self-supporting and that only one third of the money each year must come through the individual solicitation route," said Mr. Paynter.

The Center is strictly a non-profit organization with board and committee members serving without pay. Because of this structure and because its programs and aims are cultural, educational and in the interest of community service, the Center is tax free and all donations to it are income tax exempt. It does not draw funds from the United Foundation.

The War Memorial Center was a $1,500,000 gift to the community as a living memorial to those who served and sacrificed in World War II and Korea. Its doors are open for use by all military and service organizations.

3,000 Families Helped
Last year, 3,000 families in the Pointe helped support this cause. The Center, again, in order to continue its valuable and needed service to the community, must have funds to the amount of $50,000. They are asking that Pointers, again, contribute to the maintenance of these services.

A brochure and a postage free remittance envelope will arrive in the mail today or tomorrow. Towards the end of April, the solicitation captains and their workers will go into action.

Area captains are: Arthur E. Louwers, Mrs. John Bockstanz, William Klingbeil, Jr., John Rini, Thomas Nester, Louis Hyde, C. Henry Haberkorn III, Hudson Mead, James D. Standish III, Mrs. Stanley F. Dolega, Mrs. Frank W. Hausmann, Jr., Mrs. Edward V. Luss, Edward F. Gehrig, Mrs. William J. Turner and Mrs. Alice M. Sheaffer.

Also, Bert Wicking, John K. Roney, Mrs. Jean Mesritz, William M. Dant, Raymond C.

Smith, Henry Earle, Mrs. John McNaughton, Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, Howard H. Lawrie, Joseph H. Parsons, Remington Purdy, Harold B. Tyree, Bruce Bockstanz, Thomas Little, C. A. Schneider, William B. Hurley, Charles Parcels, Jr. and Charles W. Elliott.

other department can be used successfully in securing evidence, as opposed to the use of resident department personnel, who might be recognized.

Points in Agreement
The gist of the proposed agreement, is as follows:
1. The departments agree that in an emergency, each shall cooperate in an effort to provide services within the corporate limits of the other participating cities, subject to the terms and conditions of the agreement.

2. The chief, director of public safety, or other commanding officer of the police agency, or other individual governing the city body may designate, shall have the right to determine whether in his opinion the responding municipality shall send men and/or equipment to another city, and shall reserve the right to determine if such men and/or equipment shall be sent out of its municipal limits. Failing to respond will not make any unit liable for damage to any other party to the agreement.

3. The properly designated official of any municipality may order personnel and equipment of his department into the service of the other unit, without regard to the corporate limits of the other unit.

4. The chief, commanding officer, or other designated official, of the unit needing assistance in emergencies, may request aid from any of the municipalities as he shall deem necessary.

5. The chief, or commanding officer of the department requesting aid, shall be in command of all units responding from other departments, and all personnel and equipment shall be under the immediate command of the highest ranking officer attached to the responding units. All commands and orders shall be made through the ranking officer of the units responding. The officer in charge of the department sending assistance shall have the right to recall his men and equipment.

6. Any participating municipality may withdraw at any time from the agreement, by giving written notice to the other participating municipalities.

The Park council accepted the agreement for study, and will discuss it further at its next regular meeting on Monday, April 11.
Each police chief will appear before his respective council at meetings to urge acceptance of the agreement, it was said.

High School Students Win 92 Awards in Writing Contest

Grosse Pointe Public School students combined to capture 92 awards in the recently completed Southeastern Michigan Scholastic Writing Contest. They competed with students from 360 private, parochial and public schools in this part of the state.

Members of the High School Tower staff led the way, capturing 38 of a total of 141 awards given in journalism. This represents 27 per cent of the awards in a competition where 24 high schools had one or more winners. In addition GPHS students won 16 other awards in literary categories.

Students competed in two main divisions, junior and senior high school. Twelve categories of writings were open to the lower grades while the senior high students competed in 18 areas ranging from short story through poetry, radio and TV to journalism. More than 10,000 entries were received and 1212 were adjudged worthy of an award.

The highest award given was a gold Achievement Key plus a dictionary and a certificate. Honorable mention and Commendation were the other awards. Grosse Pointe Public School pupils received a total of 22 keys, 35 honorable mentions, and 35 commendations. They will receive their awards along with other winners May 4 at the Detroit Art Institute.

Winners from Grosse Pointe High School are as follows. The name is followed by their class and the category in which they won. The English or journalism teacher's name is given in parentheses:

last meeting, the Woods council talked about not having an ordinance prohibiting such organizations as the Society and Foundations, from trying to raise funds in the community.

He said that the council felt that groups of this type were performing worthy work, therefore, no objections will be raised in regard to the Cancer Society's drive. However, he added, representatives must carry positive identification with them, to be shown on demand, when approaching Woods residents for money.

The Shores does not permit any type of solicitations within the village limits, it was stated by Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers. There is an ordinance against soliciting, he said, and efforts will be made to discourage the Society from coming into the Shores.

Of course, he pointed out, the final say will be made by the village trustees, at the next regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, April 19.

The objectives of the Cancer Society was brought up at a meeting of the City council on Monday, March 28, where it was said that the city body did not want to object to the Society's drive, but a city ordinance prohibits sales and solicitations, and efforts will be made to enforce this law.

However, Acting City Manager Neil Blondell said that the City will take no definite action until approached by the Society.

If all men were placed on an equal footing today it wouldn't be long before one-half was pulling the other half.

Countess' Death Stirs Memories of Pointe's Past

An echo from the long ago past sounded along Lakeshore road and in the homes of long time Pointe residents this week when the news came from Brighton, England of the death of the Countess Von Limberg-Stirum, aged 76.

The Countess is remembered by such families as the Russels, the Joys, the Buhls, the McMillans and the Ledyards who formed that Edwardian colony of summer residents along the lakefront.

She was Mary Joy Newland, daughter of Martha Alger Joy, daughter of James Joy, and Henry A. Newland, who began his merchant career as a clerk in the firm of Frederick Buhl and Co., and became senior partner of a wholesale fur company which bore his name.

Mr. and Mrs. Newland and their daughter (a son James Burns Joy died when he was three) occupied a home next door to St. Paul's Church originally built by Thomas Pitts. The grounds were famous for their orchards, their strawberries were delicacies of the summer season.

Mary Joy Newland was one of the belles of that halcyon summer colony and like several other society misses of the day (Maud Ledyard, Julie DuCharme and Amy and Gladys McMillan) grew up to marry a foreign nobleman.

Mary Newland met the Count Memo Von Limberg-Stirum in St. Moritz in 1908. He was a member of the royal guard in Kaiser Wilhelm's court and well known in Anglo-American circles in Hamburg, Baden-Baden and Territet.

Miss Newland married the Count in the Detroit residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graves Meredith (her parents were the victims of a tragic train accident while traveling to the Chicago World's Fair in 1893).

The couple lived abroad in Baden-Baden and Geneva and were the parents of three daughters, all of whom survive the Countess. The Count died in Baden-Baden on April 29, 1959. Three grandchildren also survive.

Funeral and burial services for the Countess Von Limberg-Stirum were held in Brighton, where she died January 27, 1959 after a long illness.

Center Offers Opera Courses

Designed for those whose knowledge of opera is limited as well as for the opera enthusiast, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association in cooperation with the Division of Adult Education of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University is offering to the Grosse Pointe public a series of evenings comprising "An Introduction to Opera."

The course of five weekly meetings will begin Wednesday evening, April 13, at 7:30 o'clock and continue each Wednesday night through May 11th.

The classes will include lectures, recordings and discussions. The basic principles of opera will be discussed as an art form in comparison and contrast to the drama. The changes in structure and style of works from Mozart to the present will be traced.

Special study will be given to the five operas to be presented in Detroit by the Metropolitan Opera Company later on in May. These operas will be Verdi's "Simon Boccanegra," "Gypsy Baron" by Strauss, "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart, "Andrea Chenier," by Giordano and "Il Trovatore" by Verdi.

The instructor for the Opera Course will be University of Michigan's Professor William J. Weichlein who took both undergraduate and graduate courses at Ann Arbor in the History of Music and advanced courses in Music Literature and Music Bibliography. Professor Weichlein is a Ph.D. in Musicology and was formerly a member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

The entire fee for the five class course is $8.50 per person and married couples are invited to attend for a total of $15.00. The Center would appreciate advance enrollment by calling TUxedo 1-7511.

Three Pointe Men Have ARF Positions

Two Pointers have been elected officers for 1960 of the Michigan chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, an agency of the Torch Drive and the Michigan United Fund.

They are D. E. Mitchelson of 1017 Whittier road, vice-president and Lewis S. Robinson, of 29 Dyar lane, secretary.

Elected to one of the trustee positions for 1960 was Oscar L. Buhr of 405 Lakeland avenue.

Senior Men To See Films

The Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club will meet Tuesday, April 12, at the War Memorial at 12:30 o'clock for a program of underwater movies in color.

George Harding, president of the Harding Chemical Corp. and a Pointe resident will be showing the films he made off the coast of Florida and the Bahamas.

Many of his unusual pictures have been taken for the television industry. His experience in underwater photography dates back more than 25 years and his pictures and equipment are the products of his own development.

Included in the films are shots of the hand feeding of Moray eels, sharks, barracudas, whilprays and many other interesting and exciting underwater scenes.

Better to Give Than Receive

Not many people give gifts on their birthday instead of receiving them, but Janice Lee Wedge, who was 10 years old on March 26, did.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Wedge of 1025 Nottingham road, Janice had a birthday party. She invited Defer School Brownie Troop 703 and some other friends, and asked that instead of bringing gifts for her that they donate money to send a handicapped child to camp.

Janice, who herself attends the Leland School for the handicapped, has been to Camp Grace Bentley near Port Huron, and wanted to see some other child have the same good fortune as she.

Her friends, as anxious to help as Janice, brought contributions that, when totaled, amounted to $70 — enough to send not one child to camp, but two.

Easter Eggs Decorated At Center on Palm Sunday

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is again scheduling its very popular pre-Easter program on "Easter Egg Decoration" to be presented on Palm Sunday, April 10, in two sessions at 2 and 3:30 p.m., respectively.

The lessons given without charge will be directed by Mrs. Martha Wichorek, Easter egg expert of the Ukrainian Section of the International Institute, who has been named "Ukrainian of the Year."

Assisting her in demonstrating and explaining the Ukrainian art of decorating "pysanky" will be her three daughters, Marcia, Monica, and Myra.

Both children and adults enjoy learning to decorate eggs the Ukrainian way in time for Easter. And these eggs just as in Ukrainian households may be treasured as works of art from year to year. Eggs and the materials to decorate them may be obtained at small cost when arriving at the Center for instructions.

The Ukrainian "pysanka" (Easter egg) has a very ancient history. Proof of this is found in the many archaeological excavations in Ukraine, where these decorated eggs have been found that date from the Stone Age, thus exploding the common belief that Easter eggs were primarily a product of pre-Christian era.

Our early Ukrainian ancestors, like all other peoples, were pagans who worshipped the sun as a great life-giving force. Our ancestors greeted spring with various songs and games, which still remain in our folk culture in the form of our Easter "hayeivki."

The egg, which stands for rebirth, or new life, is closely awakening and rebirth of nature.

This spring brings people joy, new hope for a better life, new desires, health and wealth.

The sun helps the whole world to refresh itself at this time and to bloom anew. For this reason people in ancient times depicted all their hopes, expectations and joys on the egg, as a symbol of that recurrent rebirth.

It is well to note that the ancient Egyptians, Persians, Chinese, Greeks, Romans and possibly other nations all used the egg as a spring symbol; therefore, it seems reasonable to assume that the practice antedates the dispersion of nations.

A bowlful of pysanky was invariably kept in every home, serving not only as a colorful display, but also as protection against lightning and fire. Some were emptied and bird's head made of wax and wings and tail feathers of folded paper attached. These "doves" or "pigeons" were suspended before icons in commemoration of the birth of Christ.

Many variations in the process of egg dyeing are found, as well as in the accompanying rituals. But, throughout the whole Ukraine, the custom was observed solemnly with great ceremony. Hutuzls are, perhaps most noted for their intricately-decorated eggs. Their patterns are predominantly geometric with abstract adaptations of many familiar objects or places.

Dyes were made from dried plants, roots, barks or berries, or any local growth proving suitable. The eggs usually were prepared in secret, using method handed down from mother to daughter to attain the necessary brilliance, clarity and lasting color. Often chemical dyes of rare colors were purchased from traders.

Most Easter egg designs are of ancient pagan origin, but each woman applies her own skill and ingenuity in creating, combining, and arranging patterns and colors harmoniously. Rarely are two eggs identical.

Finished pysanky are kept well-hidden from the eyes of prying neighbors, least someone try to imitate an original design. It is not until Holy Saturday, when food prepared for the Easter Sunday feast is brought to church for the holy water blessing, that pysanky are exposed to view.

The beauty of Ukrainian Easter eggs has long been recognized. Yet it is only recently, with increased study of folk arts and a realization of their importance, that artists and scholars have sought to study, and analyze their designs.

What once seemed to be only an ancient tradition is now recognized as a distinct and well-developed branch of folk art, a definite contribution to world culture.

Perhaps nothing better illustrates the Ukrainian feeling for beauty and form. The simple elements of Easter egg designs offer almost unlimited combinations which reveal the skill and good taste of the designer. We can only hope that this art will continue and that it will be realized as a superb expression of the spirit.

Uncle Norb Marks Birthday

"Uncle Norb" had a birthday party last week, with pink champagne, thick, juicy steaks and a two-foot square birthday cake. But best of all, his old and dear friends were there. Norb Neff, for 41 years a public servant in his office of City Clerk for the City of Grosse Pointe, celebrated his 65th birthday a week ago today, March 24.

Mayor of the City, Kenneth Bergmann, along with City Assessor Neil Blondell, and many other City officials and old friends were on hand at the St. Mary's Nursing Home at seven o'clock for the celebration. Telegrams, cards, flowers and other gifts filled his room, and heart, to overflowing, just small reminders of the many friends he has all over the Pointe.

The nurses at St. Mary's presented him with a toy pickup truck ("Norb always drives the City truck instead of his car, if possible," said old friend Leo Carrier) filled to capacity with packs of gum.

How many kids over the years have received gum from Uncle Norb when meeting him in his office, on the street, anywhere! His pockets are always loaded with all sorts of flavors. And one of the stores across Nine Mile road from the nursing home had a big sign saying "Happy Birthday, Mr. Grosse Pointe."

It was really a grand party, in honor of the gentleman who has done so much for his community. But the greatest single event of the evening was the fact that Norb made a speech. Having suffered a stroke, not too many weeks ago, his ability to talk has been somewhat hampered. But last Thursday night, his speech was so much improved, it looks like "Norb" is almost back to his old familiar form.

GPHS To Offer Test Program

Grosse Pointe High School seniors will have the opportunity in May to take the Advanced Placement tests to determine what subjects, if any, the student is capable of skipping in college.

This is the first time that these tests will be given at the high school. Registrations for the tests, to be given from May 16 to May 20, must be in by tomorrow, April 1. There is a fee of $5 for registration and an additional $8 for every examination taken.

Registrations should be given to Dr. Robert J. Hanson, guidance coordinator. He has stressed the fact that there will be no late registrations.

The tests will be given in the following fields: physics, biology, chemistry, French, Latin, European history, mathematics, literature and English composition.

Advanced placement in college allows the student to waive the freshman level course or courses in the subject or subjects in which he has advanced knowledge, and enroll in a more advanced course in that subject.

Wayne Accepts Joy Fund Grant for Women's Dorms

The Helen Newberry Joy Fund has proposed a $400,000 grant to aid in the construction of the first women's dormitory on the campus of Wayne State University.

Henry B. Joy Jr., of Provençal road, president of the fund, has offered the money to the University on condition that $350,000 or more become available from other donors and the balance of the estimated cost of $1,125,000 be raised through revenue bonds or other means. In his proposal, he points out Mrs. Joy's great interest in Wayne's College of Nursing and also in training of nurses. "As you know," his letter to President Hilberry stated, "my mother was always greatly interested, and particularly during the last years of her life, in the training of nurses and especially in the work being done by your very fine School of Nursing, and the Trustees of this Fund wish to make possible the continuation and expansion of opportunities for young women, particularly of this community, to train themselves for this important work."

University officials, confident that the conditions for the proposed grant can be met, have gone ahead with preliminary plans. The University will seek legislative approval for the revenue bonds when the details of the financing plan are set.

In the meantime, the University is preparing not only the plans for the financing by securing additional grants but also for the location of the dormitory and its physical requirements.

Wayne now houses its women students on a floor of the Student Center Building as well as in a converted apartment house, the Glen Manor, at 645 Merrick. The new dormitory is expected to accommodate approximately 250 students.

Stop Crabgrass Before June 1

If you want to prevent crabgrass in your lawn this year, you have an extra month to apply pre-season control.

This extra grace period is due to the heavy snows and cold weather which have combined to delay the germination of dormant crabgrass seed.

"By setting back her time clock Mother Nature has made it possible to extend recommended applications dates to June 1 in northern U.S. states and to May 15 in states further South," said A. H. Bowers, Chicago agronomist.

Since it is important to apply a pre-season crabgrass control before the pesky seeds begin to sprout, the standard recommendation of the manufacturers of Rid, a new crabgrass eradicator, is for application to lawns by May in areas where spring comes late, and by April 15 in more southerly areas.

Research on turf plots at leading universities has borne this out, according to Bowers.

Dacthal W-50, the new ingredient in Rid, has given excellent control, even when applied later, said Bowers.

the house where You live

By Patricia Talbot

Peeking inside houses is a treat usually reserved for patrons of the various charitable house tours and happens to rarely . . . but we have glimpsed some elegant interiors which do credit to the Pointe's decorators and to the chatelaine herself.

The breakfast, that Victorian furnishing so important in the turn of the century parlor is having a great comeback in modern salons. . . . Mrs. Henry Ford II has a large antique breakfast in her spacious hall to show off her collection of rare china . . . in the Allan Sheldon III's pink, gray and white living room is a breakfast painted to match the walls and lined in silk . . . Mrs. C. Henry Buhl's stepdown living room has a focal point a breakfast lined in fabric and lighted in the evening to better point up her collection of china and figurines . . . this breakfast is in rare mahogany.

China is not the only collector's item to be used as a decorative touch . . . the Emory M. Fords' array of mustache cups lined the paneled den . . . Mrs. Hale Sattley's rare curios, snuffboxes, are kept in an antique glassed table in her Tonnancour place home.

Stark white walls, a perfect backdrop for paintings and prints, rare or modern, are currently a favorite . . . the William R. Witherells, Jr., removed early American wallpaper in their colonial home, painted the house long living room white, are using an Oriental rug on the floor . . . the Dan K. Lovelands have remodeled their older home stressing white walls which highlight their ceramics and modern art.

Mrs. Palmer Knights has designed a striking pink and white bedroom in her Rivard boulevard duplex. . . the bedspread in frothy white is accented by the half canopy in white and pink which is built out from the wall . . . in her living room are two fine antique chests, the beginning of a collection, which she found in New Orleans.

Brady Furniture At New Site

The John J. Brady Furniture Store, located for more than a decade of years at Mack and Nottingham, is now in its new location at 20491 Mack, in the Woods.

The store, which specializes in Early American furniture is one of the best known in the Pointe area. John J. Brady, its founder and owner, distinguished himself years ago when his knowledge of furniture helped him earn the coveted position of buyer for the famed Tuttle & Clark firm, one of the country's outstanding furniture dealers of yesteryears.

Film TV Council Discuss Curfew

Pursuing its motto "Support the Best, Forget the Rest" the Grosse Pointe Movie and Television Council members conducted a workshop on Monday, March 21, at the main library to make recommendations for the spring bulletin to be distributed to all affiliated organizations.

Mrs. Arthur Sherman, president, emphasized that choices of programs should be made on desirability for family viewing rather than on popularity alone. Shows rated were all scheduled no later than 8:30 o'clock on week days and 9:30 o'clock on Saturdays.

Discussion of promoting a uniform curfew ordinance in the Grosse Pointes of permitting no child under 12 years of age and unaccompanied by an adult in local theaters after 7 o'clock brought compliments for the Vogue Theater which phones parents of children under 12 years of age who have not been called for by 7 o'clock.

The splinters on the ladder of success really go to work when a man starts to slide down.

Ten years ago, the first Volkswagens were imported into the U.S.A.

These strange little cars with their beetle shape were almost unknown.

All they had to recommend them was 32 miles to the gallon (regular gas, regular driving), an aluminum air-cooled rear engine that could go 70 mph all day long without strain, sensible size for a family, and a sensible price-tag too.

Beetles multiply; so do Volkswagens. By 1954, VW was the best-selling imported car in America.

It has held that rank each year since. In 1959, Volkswagen was once again first, with over 150,000 VWs sold, including station wagons and trucks.

Millionaires buy them; so do working people and college kids. Their snub noses are familiar in every state of the Union; as American as apple strudel.

Volkswagen is an honest car. We think it's the best car in the world for your money. Everyone who owns one seems to agree.

We would be glad to arrange for an eye-opening test drive . . . very soon.

Six Educators Set for Conclave

LANSING.—Six educators from Grosse Pointe have been named special delegates to the annual Representative Assembly of the Michigan Education Association (MEA) in Lansing, April 1-2.

Scheduled for the Lansing Civic Center, the two-day session of the MEA's governing body will attract more than 400 educators from throughout Michigan. Each of the association's 159 districts will send representatives to the meeting.

Keynote speaker of the assembly will be George Romney, president of American Motors Corporation. Romney, well-known throughout the country for his educational, industrial, and civic leadership, will address the conference on Friday evening, April 1.

Delegates to the assembly will concentrate on such issues as: establishing a program of action for the MEA for 1960-61, formulating policies, adopting a budget, electing officers, and amending the constitution and bylaws.

The educators also will focus attention on regional conferences, teacher institutes, department relationship, federal support for education, and strengthening relationship with institutes of higher education.

Featured at the assembly will be the presentation of the annual Distinguished Service Award to the person who has made an outstanding contribution to education in Michigan.

School Bell awards for distinguished comprehensive coverage of education will be presented to members of the mass media (Radio, TV, Newspapers). This is the first time for such presentations to be made by the MEA.

Attending from Grosse Pointe will be Robert Roddewig, John Corbin, Geraldine Bertovick, Leroy Selmeler, Richard Snook and Donald Yerkes.

ceremony held in the theater. The trophy was donated by the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club. Patrolman JACK MAST, Woods school safety officer, who attended the ceremony, but is not shown in the picture, said that Collard has always taken a personal interest in the boys and girls of the Patrol and Squad, and the trophy was presented to show the appreciation of the Woods Police Department.

Bransby Wins Award at Exhibit

At the recent annual convention of Professional Photographers of Michigan, Ralph Bransby of the Bransby Studios in Grosse Pointe, had five portraits accepted for exhibition, two receiving ribbons. Over five hundred photographers attended the meet, which was held at Saginaw. Of the hundreds of prints submitted less than 200 were accepted for exhibition.

Bank Hold Up A False Alarm

Police of three communities rushed to the Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Association, 19307 Mack avenue, on Friday, March 25, when a woman called the Woods police to state that the bank was being held up.

Scout cars from the Woods, Farms and Harper Woods converged in the area, immediately after the alarm was given, but the alarm was false.

The police talked to Mrs. Henry Forcier of 464 Manor, who told them that she saw two 17-year-old boys get out of a car. The driver of the car asked his companion, "Do you have the gun?" the woman said.

She said that the second youth said, "Yes," and both young men walked toward the loan association building.

Police picked up the two boys in a nearby drug store, and questioned them. They admitted the conversation and said that they walked toward the bank building, but did not go in.

The boys, whose names are withheld pending a complete investigation, were released and ordered to remain available for further questioning.

One boy lives in the Farms, the other, in Detroit.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Just about the time the sun seeking set prepare for the daily trip to the Farms pier the trapshooters will close up shop for the season.

The Farms Trapshooting Club opens for business about the same time as the fall bird hunting season and closes May 1. Every Saturday and Sunday some of the 200 members appear at the pier to sharpen their shooting eyes.

President of the club Dave Nyman welcomes all comers, provided they are Farms residents, and willing to pay the nominal fee. The club offers either trap or skeet shooting, will provide shells and guns. Beginners are urged to come on Saturdays. Other officers of the club are Tom Squire and R. H. Childress.

Among the devoted sportsmen to be found at the pier are Roy D. Chapin, Jr., Mrs. William C. McMillan, Robert Valade, William E. Lane, Sterling Dockson (one of the best shots in the country who visits the club frequently when he is not skiing), Murray Dodge, Dr. Joe Barkley and Howard Morse.

Some of the experts have been visiting the pheasant preserve near Romeo recently to see how their practice pays off.

April in Paris

April in Paris, that recurring theme, is the happy experience of Jean Dodenhoff, daughter of the Charles F. Dodenhoffs, of Vendome road, who flew over with some of her Smith College classmates for two weeks of their spring recess. Also on the trip are a group of Amherst lads, which will take care of the escort situation in gay Paree.

The rest of the Smith College contingent, who came home for the spring vacation, turned up this Wednesday for the mother-daughter tea Mrs. John H. Stephenson, of LaSalle place, gave for entering freshmen and undergraduates.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Perry TeWalt, Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. Warren Craumer and Mrs. Dwight Black. The current Smith crop with their mothers who attended included Mrs. Robert Rains and Cecily, Mrs. John Garlinghouse and Susan; Mrs. Erland Reuter and Joyce; Mrs. Manfred Whittingham and Sarah and Mrs. Edward Lambrecht and Susan.

Eleanor Duffield, at Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn., heard that she was accepted to Smith about Christmas time and also was a guest at the tea with her mother, Mrs. Frederick H. Duffield.

Williams Dance

More college news concerns the alumni of Williams College who are anticipating the annual dance, to be held this year on April 23 at the Little Club.

Williams' men and their wives in the area include the Hudson Meads, the John Worcesters, the William R. Witherells, Jr., the Hugo S. Higbies and the William E. Lanes.

Two of the Williams men share the same preparatory school, Loomis School in Windsor, Conn. Mr. Witherell and Mr. Mead will welcome the headmaster of Loomis, Francis O. Grubbs, here on April 17 when he will be a guest of honor at the Stockholm dinner sponsored by alumni of the area.

Christ Church Offers Talk on Existentialism

Dr. F. T. Kingston, Professor of Philosophy at Canterbury College Assumption University, Windsor, to Speak April 5 in Undercroft

So great was the interest in the January panel discussion on "Values in our Grosse Pointe Community", Christ Episcopal Church is sponsoring a second open meeting to clarify the guide lines set forth by the panel, and to deepen our understanding of ourselves, and of our responsibility to home, church, school and community.

Guest speaker, Dr. F. T. Kingston, Professor of Philosophy of Canterbury College, Assumption University, is coming over from Windsor to talk on the fascinating topic "Christian Existentialism" and to moderate during the question-and-answer period following his challenging talk.

Dr. Kingston is scheduled to speak during lunch at 12 noon, Tuesday, April 5, in the Undercroft, following the regular monthly meeting of the Episcopal Church women of Christ Church. Cost of the lunch is 75 cents, and luncheon reservations must be received by noon Monday. Guests are welcome.

Dr. Kingston has fully explored the subject of Existentialism, having written a book "French Existentialism, A Christian Critique" which will be published by the University of Toronto Press in September. Recently he served as discussion leader of the Detroit Round Table sponsored by the American Council of Christians and Jews on the subject, "Rearing Children of Good Will."

Dr. Kingston was raised in the Anglican tradition. His father was the late Most Rev. G. F. Kingston, Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, and Archbishop of Nova Scotia. After receiving his B.A. and M.A. Philosophy at the University of Toronto, Dr. Kingston attended Trinity College in Toronto graduating with his L. th. D. in Theology.

He served as chaplain in the Canadian Navy during the Korean War, and then continued his studies at Christ Church, Oxford University, England, where he received his D. Phil.

For six years he taught in the Anglican College at the University of British Columbia at Vancouver, before taking on his present position at Canterbury College. This is the second successful year of the experiment of operating an Anglican Liberal Arts College as part of a Roman Catholic University.

Youth Council To Give Dance

The Youth Council of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is planning a "Bermuda Beach-ick" party for Saturday evening, April 9, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

This dance will give the teen age set a preview of what they have to look forward to on spring vacation when they get to college. The party will also set the tone for their own spring vacation which they are just beginning.

Dress for this occasion will be bermudas or surfers for both boys and girls. With them, either jackets or sweaters may be worn. The charge is a dollar per person; couples only will be admitted.

Pat Hagland is chairman of the dance which will be a record hop interspersed with "live" entertainment. Vince LoCicero is arranging for the disk jockey and hopes to get Toby David all dressed up in his "Captain Jolly" outfit.

Sharon Pastor is inviting five couples to chaperone and is joining Mike Simson in heading the decoration committee.

A special feature of the evening will be the presentation of a very attractive Easter Bunny as a door prize to some lucky couple. Ann Adams is in charge of selecting the rabbit with the most appeal and dressing it as a "beachnik."

Welcome Wagon To Give Grant

The Welcome Wagon fashion show-luncheon, held March 9, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, brought the club a net profit of $285 to be used as a scholarship to nursing school for a Grosse Pointe girl.

Added to this amount will be $115 of the money the club made in December at their annual talent auction, making the scholarship worth a total of $400.

The girl who receives the scholarship will be a 1960 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. The selection will be made later this spring under the direction of Dr. Robert J. Hanson, Guidance Coordinator for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools.

The scholarship will pay for the girl's first year of nurses training at a Michigan hospital of her choice.

This particular type of grant was recommended to the Welcome Wagon club by Dr. Hanson because there are no other such scholarships available. There are grants that will send a girl to a University to study nursing, but none stipulated for training in a hospital.

"We feel that the club has had a very successful year," said Mrs. Russell Manning, president. "We were able, in addition to this scholarship, to donate $50 to the Goodfellows at Christmas and also to give $50 to a Grosse Pointe woman who was in need."

The fashion show that was responsible for the bulk of the funds available in the scholarship, was considered very successful by the Welcome Wagon ladies. Some 227 ladies from the Pointe area attended the luncheon and saw the spring fashions as shown by Roberts Boutique.

General chairman of the show was Mrs. Harold Heyer. Her committee consisted of Mrs. Hugh Wanke, Mrs. H. C. Hilsted, Mrs. Dale Throckmorton, Mrs. C. E. Blanchard and Mrs. Manning.

Foreign Policy Theme Of League Studies

League of Women Voters Learn About U.S. Foreign Policy from Mrs. Tom Baab at Latest Meeting; Mrs. James Graves Leads Group

Foreign Policy is a Mexican shrimp boat, a cement company in Chile and better water in Viet-Nam. World economic development is a water-filled ditch in Libya, a level road in Ecuador, a monetary expert in Tanganyika.

One group of Grosse Pointe women found this to be so. This group, well versed in the ABC's of national and international technical and capital assistance to underdeveloped countries, is the foreign policy resource committee of the League of Women Voters.

For the past two years members have mixed diapers with deliberations on foreign policy, have broken off discussions on serious problems of international relations to rush home to greet their youngsters returning from school, have carried on the chores of family life in which foreign relations is an unseen but real aspect in a changing world.

Their interest and seriousness, heightened by their realization of the importance to the nation's future of thoughtful and well-planned foreign policy, the young mothers work also to lend a hand toward building a future world in which their children will live in peace with others.

For two years, under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Graves, the committee has investigated the intricate maze of United States foreign policy, concentrating its study this year on economics, the latest major weapon in the grim cold war duel between east and west.

The committee has carried on its study through group research, collection and evaluation of current data, and "in depth" reports by individual members. One such report, on capital assistance, was given last Tuesday by Mrs. Tom Baab.

Mrs. Baab detailed the operations of the worldwide financial institutions in which the United States participates. These include the World Bank and its specialized affiliates, the Inter-

AAUW Slates Group Sessions

Co-hostesses for the group are Mrs. Haig Garabedian, Mrs. William W. Killibrew, and Mrs. Robert Welch.

Both Creative Writing and Studio Arts groups will meet on Wednesday, April 6, the first with Mrs. R. W. Cunningham, of Brys drive, at 12:45 o'clock, the second with Mrs. Ralph Kimble, of Fisher road, at 8 o'clock.

The two groups are continuing with work in progress. In addition, Studio Arts will plan a program in ceramics, using a new film under the direction of Mrs. Robert Snyder.

Mrs. Wallace Temple, of Fisher road, is to be hostess with the assistance of Mrs. Eugene D. Allen at a luncheon meeting of International Relations group on Thursday, April 7, at 1 o'clock.

The members will discuss the subject "Mutual Security—Financing World Development" following the speaker on this field, Mrs. William Krebs.

The Tuesday Evening group has changed its meeting this month to Thursday, April 7, at 7:45 o'clock when Dr. J. A. Klein of the Lutheran School for the Deaf will speak to the members about his work.

The junior members of the class will be presented to the Bishop by the Rev. George H. Hanh, assistant minister of the parish, and the adults by the rector, the Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman, who announces that the class is the largest in the history of the parish.

Bishop Crowley, who was consecrated to serve in this Diocese in September, 1954, is well known in the Detroit area, having formerly served for five years as rector of St. James' Church, Grosse Ile. Prior to coming to Michigan he served for 15 years at Grace Church, Lawrence, Mass.

As Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, in addition to assisting in confirmations, ordinations, and other duties which only a bishop can perform, he is responsible for the work of the Department of Christian Education, the Department of Christian Social Relations, College Work, Laymen's Work, Diocesan Camps and Conferences and the Marriage Commission of Advice to the Bishop.

On the same day, both the 9:30 and 11 o'clock congregations will have the privilege of hearing a sermon preached by the Rev. Dom Benedict Reid, Father Prior of the American Order of St. Benedict, St. Gregory's Priory, Three Rivers, Mich.

Dom Benedict, who heads the only Episcopal Order for men located in Michigan, has visited in this area several times, and is well known to many Grosse Pointe Episcopalians. Several times a year a group of men from various parishes make week-end retreats at St. Gregory's.

GP Citizens for Michigan Seeking Additional Members

Business and professional people of all ages from Grosse Pointe and Detroit's far east side are taking an active interest in the two-month-old Grosse Pointe No. 1 Chapter of Citizens for Michigan.

Doctors, lawyers, public school teachers, bankers, and engineers comprise a majority of the members, with men and women about evenly divided, according to the new Chapter's publicity chairman, Gerald L. Morin, 10406 McKinney, Detroit 24.

"Present total membership in the local chapter is over fifty people," he said. "Almost two-thirds attend every monthly meeting, and bring along a friend or two. Many join on their very first visit." This chapter is increasing in size at the rate of a half dozen new members a month, he added, which is indicative of "the growing unrest on the part of the informed voters who are justly concerned with the State's sad fiscal affairs."

The newly elected president of the Grosse Pointe Chapter, Edgar Galloway, 28 Beacon Hill, Grosse Pointe Farms, had this to say in his sincere appeal for more volunteers from the Grosse Pointe area:

"We need and welcome all registered voters to attend just one of our monthly meetings to be convinced of the job that we are trying to do—to broaden the public knowledge of State problems dealing with taxation, employment opportunities, and a better business climate in Michigan, all of which ultimately affect our local communities."

Members and non-members alike are urged to attend these public meetings to let their voices be heard on these important political issues, where they will have an opportunity to make suggestions and ask questions in the role of U.S. citizens and Michigan voter, he reiterated.

The Chapter's next regular monthly meeting will be held again at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8:00 p.m. on April 4. This will be an informal meeting lasting about two hours, with a question and answer period and audience participation. For further information, call the publicity chairman at Tuxedo 5-1373 after 7:30 p.m. weekdays.

Moviemaker Gets Start

It was by marrying his greatest enemy's daughter that Francois Truffaut, producer and director of "The 400 Blows," which will soon follow "Room at the Top" into the Fine Arts Theatre, got his start as a moviemaker.

A juvenile delinquent for most of his life, who spent the greater part of his youth playing hooky, doing stretches in houses of correction and going AWOL from his military service, Truffaut continued his unregenerate career in his early twenties as a film critic.

His chief target was the successful and opulent producer Morgenstern whose firm, Les Films du Carosse, specialized in sure-fire corn.

So savage were Truffaut's attacks on Morgenstern that the young critic was banned from the Cannes Film Festival in 1957, and had to shoot his barbs at targets he was not permitted to see.

Shortly after this highpoint in his career as a martyr, the fiery youth who combined juvenile delinquency with film criticism fell in love with—of all people—Morgenstern's daughter. They were married. At a family dinner where Truffaut as usual was shooting off his mouth, his father-in-law suggested that, if he thought he knew so much about making movies, he ought to try it.

Truffaut accepted the challenge and this past Spring his first film, "The 400 Blows," won first prize for direction at the Cannes Festival, from which he had been barred the previous year.

Since then, world-wide acclaim followed and today Truffaut, on the basis of his first film, is accounted one of the top five directors in France.

Starring a 12-year-old total amateur, Jean-Pierre Leaud, and photographed by natural light on the streets of Paris, "The 400 Blows" is a release of Zenith International Film Corporation. It was produced and directed by Truffaut and will be shown in French with English sub-titles by Herman G. Weinberg.

Now playing at the Coronet, 15635 Mack and the Surf, 13135 Fenkell, Detroit premiere.

Pointe Schools Falter In Parochial Swim Meet

The annual Boys and Girls Parochial school City swimming meet which was held in the Patton pool, Sunday, March 27, failed to produce a team winner among the four Pointe schools entered.

Austin placed third, one point behind U. of D. which was a distant second with 52 points, behind repeating champion Vistation which annexed 82 points. St. Paul pulled down seventh place with 9 points.

In the girls section of the meet St. Paul compiled 40 points for fourth place and St. Ambrose was fifth with 17½. Mercy won the team title with 66 points and was followed by Immaculata, 55, and Vistation, 50½.

The only bright spot for the Pointe schools was Austin's Don Diebel who won the 200-yard freestyle with a record time of 2:08.5. The old mark was 2:15.4. Diebel also won the 100-yard freestyle to become the meets only double winner.

Judy Benkert, of St. Paul, bumped into her old nemesis Jennifer Parks, of Immaculata, in both backstroke events and was forced to settle for second place both times. However, Judy pushed Jennifer to a new record in the 50-yard backstroke. Parks new record time was one and two-tenths of a second faster than the old standard of 32.2. Parks also splashed to a 14.5 in the 25-yard backstroke which was short of the record.

The petty-coat was originally an article of clothing worn by men, and was something like an overgrown vest. The ladies came along, changed its spelling and purpose, and left the men vest-less.
