WILLIAM C. NEWBERG, former president of Chrysler Corporation, filed a $5,250,000 personal damage suit against L. L. Colbert, chairman of the board. Newberg accused Colbert of masterminding his promotion to the company presidency with the deliberate intention of forcing Newberg's discharge at a later date.

The plan, according to the suit, was to destroy Newberg and thereby eliminate him as a threat to Colbert's continued tenure as Chrysler's chief executive. Colbert denied all charges.

DR. GEOFFREY FISHER, retiring Archbishop of Canterbury, denied reports which he said appeared in letters written to Episcopal churchmen in the United States that he was resigning to change faiths. Dr. Fisher said that the reports were "so absurd" that no intelligent person could believe them and that there is as "much chance of his becoming a Roman Catholic as there is of Pope John XXIII becoming an Episcopalian."

GOVERNOR SWAINSON said that Michigan's Unemployment compensation program is inadequate and should be overhauled to provide two-thirds of take-home pay. The Governor said the top payment of $54 a week for a maximum of 26 weeks is not enough to provide a decent standard of living and tends to halt benefits at a time when the need becomes greatest. The unemployment problem itself, he said, is of national scope and should be handled in Washington. The Governor was speaking to an AFL-CIO educational conference on State legis-

A Vacation on Dividends . . .

Many people put a little aside for a vacation each payday. And wouldn't it be nice to add to that nest egg, through dividends, while you're waiting for that next vacation time to roll around.

And let's not forget that complete vacation we're all looking forward to, called retirement. It's wise to review your portfolio now to anticipate your retirement needs. With proper planning, it could be like being on a payroll yet not working every day.

We at Manley, Bennett have complete information on the many industries that never take a vacation . . . but make it easier for you to do so through dividends. Stop in at either of our offices for complete consultation. Perhaps we can help you plan now for "A Vacation on Dividends".

High among the special pleasures of Cadillac ownership is the car's remarkable handling ease. It seems almost to drive itself. In parking, traffic, or on the open road, a Cadillac maneuvers with scarcely more than your thoughts to prompt it. And contributing to this relaxing feeling of effortless driving is the superb silence of the Cadillac engine . . . the virtual absence of travel noise . . . and those deep and buoyant Cadillac seats. Your Cadillac dealer will be more than happy to let you see for yourself how deftly a 1961 Cadillac handles.

"Neither Snow, Nor Rain..."

Herodorus, the Greek historian, said it in the 5th century, B.C., and you'll find it today inscribed on the main postoffice in New York City: "Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds." With the Christmas rush not far behind us, it's a good time to pay tribute to those who, day in, day out, in fair weather or foul, see that the mail gets through. Your postman deserves a pat on the back, but he'll settle for a smile . . . Incidentally, the motor truck plays a vital part in the distribution of the mail, serving the length and breadth of Michigan, from the most densely populated cities to the most remote rural areas.

Winning Film

An Academy Award winning film of rare and breathtaking beauty will be the next presentation of the Friends' Film Forum. It is "The Silent world beneath the waves. This Technicolor film will be shown Friday, February 17, at 9:15 p.m., in the Main Reading Room of the Central Library, Kercheval at Fisher.

The film pictures some of the oceanographic explorations of Jaques-Ives Cousteau, inventor records the 42,000 mile cruise of the ship "Calypso" through. the Mediterranean, the Red Sea, the Persian Gulf and the Indian Ocean.

Although, according to Cousteau, the underwater kingdom appears to be all of a dull blue hue, fantastically beautiful colors exist in the depths. These were seen for possibly the first time by any living eye when nizant of the continued co-powerful underwater lights operation of all other personwere used for photographing the water world.

Perhaps the most powerful sequence in "The Silent World," which also took top international honors at the Canne's Film Festival, is the hopeless struggle between a wounded young sperm whale and a devouring horde of sharks. The more pleasant side of sub-marine life is represented by a happy parade of porpoises cavorting through the air and torpedoing through the waves.

Confused and Confounded

If there is anything more confusing than the way thoroughfares are named, re-named and misspelled in the Pointe, we hope we never have any cause to tangle with it. Small wonder that many of our guests arrive at our homes in states of mild, intermediate and advanced

Let's start with some of the main arteries, as we laughingly call them. That must be because they could easily be the scene of a thrombosis. The stranger comes out East Jefferson avenue, then just as the going gets really good on the divided highway, he is startled to find he is driving on Lake Shore Drive. That's the Farms. If he continues on he will soon be on Lakeshore road. That's the Shores. A little further and he gets to St. Clair Shores and it becomes East Jefferson avenue | *7, once again

Kercheval is pretty tried and true, excepting when one reaches the dividing line between the City and the Farms; then the numbering starts all over again and we suddenly disintegrate from 17000 something to Number One. This can be pretty humiliating and takes up a lot of our time. We get many calls asking for our address and when told it is 99 Kercheval, the voice on the other end of the wire is quite likely to say:—"Oh . . . you're in Vernor Highway goes through a horrendous metamorphosis from Vernor in Detroit and Grosse Pointe Park to Waterloo in the City, then Ridge Road in the Farms. And even that gets more tangled up when it seems to end abruptly at Kerby, but really starts all over again if one has the patience to turn left a block then cut right on what appears to be a brand new street. It only lasts two blocks and then really does end . . at Moross road, which most people call Seven Mile road because Seven Mile is just a few miles west over in Detroit It's all the same street, just like Vernier and Base Line and Eight Mile Road are one and the same, provided you're in the right spot at the right moment. Maumee avenue in the City becomes Grosse Pointe Boulevard in the Farms without sufficient warning. We have McKinley avenue, which even the residents prefer to call McKinley road, running from Kercheval to Mack. And on the other side of the High School campus, running for one short block between Grosse Pointe Boulevard and Lake Shore, we have Mc-Kinley Place. Only instead of being next to Fisher road over there, they have run in another one-block, residential haven and called it Beverly road.

Chalfont is spelled that way in the City, but when it hits the Farms an "E" is added and it becomes an elegant Chalfonte.

Kenwood road one of the Pointe's loveliest, is only a block long, or was until recently when they cut into another property and added a cul de sac; but if one gets Kenwood court and Kenwood road confused, heaven help him. He either has to feel his way up to Moran and down a block and a half, or down to Lewiston and over to Charlevoix and north to the other entrance of this twisted byway that has been demoted in nomenclature.

*2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.—Detroit Adventure—Conversations in the Arts—"The Stratford Plays," 1961.

There are literally hundreds of these most-times unamusing contorsions of street names throughout what is actually a single community. The poor stranger trying to find an address gets most horribly confused. On some of the roads, like Ridge, five blocks can separate a house with a 100 number and one with a 200 number.

And we are still waiting for a satisfactory explanation of the spelling of names given two new streets, one in the Woods and one in the Shores.

We never heard of a Wedgwood other than the famed Josiah Wedgwood, English potter, 1730-95, inventor of the ware bearing his name and after whom various shades of colors have been designated. But they open a new street, drive . . . or is it a lane, a road, an avenue, a court or a boulevard? . . . in the Woods and it is proudly proclaimed Wedgewood. Maybe someone has the answer to this. We didn't dare ask, or it would have spoiled the story.

And in the Shores we have Sheldon something or other. In view of the fact that it is part of the subdivision development on the former Henry Shelden estate we feel certain it should be spelled with an "E" not an "O." We could be wrong, but we'd like to be enlightened.

Just wait until the next time you are trying to tell a visitor, brand new to the Detroit area, how to get to your house. You'll see what we mean. And now, pardon us while we go see if any of the little monsters have twisted the signs on the corner again.

A Sure Gure for Insomnia

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

You've heard the joke, "The best cure for insomnia is a good night's sleep." Not funny to someone suffering "white nights," but true, nonetheless. Too - frequent use of sleeping pills can be bad. Even if they do not cause true addiction they may have a strong psychological effect. Users sometimes come to depend on them. So sleeping pills - any kind should be taken only when a physician prescribes, and only in the amount directed.

Skating in the backyard has become a popular pasttime for stay-at-homes who want to pep up February's bleak days. On Washington road there are several rinks well filled with skaters at all hours.

The Joseph L. Hudsons, who are currently skiing in Canada, have a rink. Mr. H. was goalie on the Yale hockey team in his college days, enjoys the rink with ENS, Jr., the C. J. ANDERthe neighborhood hockey players.

The John Hoags, who spend all summer at West and JILL VAN DAM. Glacier, Mont., and rarely use their tennis court, have frozen the court into a rink. Across the street from the Hoags the William Dances also have a skating rink. The Dances just returned from Pompano, Fla.; where they visited her parents, the Sidney M. Cadwells, also of Washington road, who are vacationing at the Hillsboro Club.

On Rivard the Gordon Cooks have had a hockey rink every winter for several years. Son Dan organizes weekly hockey games and so does his brother, Dave, a sophomore at the U. of M., when he's home. Dave works out with the varsity hockey team at school, is able to give his brother pointers.

The George Tait Halls have flooded their back yard to make a skating rink and so have the Henry Haberkorns, who often have a spirited hockey game going after school hours.

The Charles Beltzes, of University place, have a tennis court which makes an ideal rink. Daughter Carol recently entertained her Girl Scout troop for a skating party and all the Beltz boys are accomplished hockey players.

ing the necessary required playing fields for the coming season. It is felt that Mr. Dumas' services will be of great value to both the League and Cities of Grosse Pointe Woods and Shores in coordinating their athletic activities.

Trips Planned By Ski Club

The Center's Grosse Pointe Ski Club has weekly ski plans running into March. Following a most successful weekend trip to Boyne Mountain and Nubs Nob, a similar trip has been planned for the weekend of March 3-5.

This time the group will stay at the plush Village Inn at Walloon Lake while skiing at Nubs and Boyne. The holiday package will include round trip bus transportation, transport to and from the slopes, lodging, chair lift charges and meals except lunches at the ski runs. Only 35 accommodations are available, so members and guests are urged to get their paid reservations in early to avoid disappointment.

A regular schedule of midweek trips will also be run on Wednesday nights, leaving the Center at 6 p.m. with hot box suppers served on the bus. On February 22, the group will go to Mt. Christie. March 1, the schedule calls for skiing at the newest local area, Alpine, and on March 8 the last trip of the season will be to Mt. Holly with its new chair lift. Paid reservations at $3.50 for these mid-week trips should be in to the Center office by the Monday immediately prior to the

YMCA Drive Starts Feb. 18

Rev. Allen Zaun, long time resident of Grosse Pointe and pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, will be the Kick-Oif speaker at the YMCA's Partner for Youth Membership Enrollment at 12:45, Saturday, Feb. 18th, at the War Memorial according to George Phillips, general chairman.

Goal of the current enrollment is 500 partner members, Phillips stated. A partner member is one who supports and makes possible the youth program through sponsoring a boy by the difference between his membership and the actual per capita expense of operating the Y's services and programs for approximately 1,000 boys and

Assisting Phillips in the planning and organizing of the Partner Membership Enroliment is Dr. Henry T. E. Munson, chairman of the Hannan Branch Committee of Management. He said the drive has been necessitated by Hannan Branch due to the increased "Y" services among the low income families and youngsters of the neighborhood. The chairman also stressed that due to the changing economic, social, and cultural conditions of the east-side Detroit area, the "Y" is realizing less income from the residents while their needs for aid and services are increasing. Key Grosse Pointers assisting Phillips and Munson in the membership drive are: Bill Erhlich, Robert Orr, James Humphreys, Jr., James O'dell, J. Perham Stanley, John Van Zile, Robert Hess, Hudson Scherfele, Nicholas Kachman, Otto Leu. Len Prince, Tom Driscoll, Robert Cunningham, Mrs. Hal Cornelius, Mrs. Gladys Munson, William Laitner, Bert Warren and Gene

by Thomas Cusack

The Austin Friars lost a heartbreaker to Catholic Central as free throws by Bill Downs and Brian Motter gave the Shamrocks a 72-70 victory over Austin. The game was played at Austin on February 10 before a full house as some 500 were turned away.

The Austin gym could be compared with a championship game setting as the league leader, Catholic Central, came to play Austin High who is truly the most improved team in the Central Division since the beginning of the season.

The improvement and success of the Friar's team can be given to Coach Hollosy along with Jim McBride, who scored 23 and sophomore Tom Taras who

Stars on Defense

The defensive success can be given to Bill Coyro who with cat-like quickness has made the Friars' press effective. Coyro also scored in double figures as he used his quickness and shiftiness to score on driving lay-ups for his 12 points. The boards are handled by junior Bob Hitt, sophomore Doug Winkworth, and seniors Joe Kramer and Carl Sowerby.

The first quarter ended with Austin leading 21-14 with Jim McBride scoring 8 points and Taras 6. The Shamrocks came back in the second quarter behind the outside shooting of senior guard Bill Downs, who scored 10 of his 30 points in this quarter, Downs 30 points was the game high. Fifth in Row The Friars made it five in a row as they defeated Salesian 78-30 on Friday February 3 on Cathedral Central's home court. Coach Hollosy used 13 players with 11 helping Austin to a sound victory.

Austin was led by senior forvard Jim McBride who dumped in 30 points on 15 field goals. Jim had 20 of his 30 points in the first half and 10 in the third quarter. McBride sat on the bench for the entire fourth quarter. Sophomore Tom Taras scored 11 points to aid the Friars in this impressive victory.

The Friars pressed for the entire game and held the Red Knights to only 9 field goals in the entire game. The effectiveness of the press can be given credit to senior guard Bill Coyro for his ball-hawking.

Salesian was led by Wally Urgya who scored 11 points on 4 field goals and 3 free throws. Tom Shortal contributed 9 points as he hit 3 from the floor and 3 from the charity line.

when the POINTE was growing up···

Mrs. Morse Stewart, that same stalwart Victorian matron who brought the first knitting machine into her Pointe cottage to produce socks for Union troops, and the moving spirit behind the founding of Harper Hospital, did not neglect the arts.

For 15 years a correspondent of the poet Robert Browning, she had the courage to speak up for nude paintings when the Detroit Institute of Arts was foundering in its beginning days.

Daughter of a minister she paid no attention to denouncements of art from the pulpit and when the first seven nude paintings arrived for exhibition she looked at them forthrightedly and said, "Why the figures are just like dolls. The small size changes the effect entirely! After all it's all in the perspective."

Mrs. Stewart, born Isabella Duffield, had a wide perspective on life and the arts. When William H. Brearly, one time editor of the old Detroit Journal, was anxious to begin an art museum in 1882 Mrs. Stewart was among the first he approached. Others were Gen. Russell A. Alger, James F. Joy, former Governor Henry P. Baldwin, Mrs. H. H. H. Crapo-Smith and Mrs. E. G.

A building was begun on Larned street near St. Anne's Church. Alger, Baldwin and Joy subscribed to one room, Senator James McMillan to another. The first painting was a gift from the Pope from the Vatican collection.

Miss Clara Avery undertook the job of putting out a catalogue, but it was due to Mrs. Stewart that the committee remained in good temper while building delays and problems arose daily. Visitors buckled in to see the colection at 25c a ticket. At the end of two months the museum was $35,000 in the red. That's when grown, educated and well with an apartment in New York. he nudes were brought in to turn the financial tide. launched on careers of their Mrs. Bull's paintings are con-The total receipts amounted to $44,500 creating a sur-plus of $2,500. With this sum Frank Millet's "Greek Although art is her major and Girls Reading the Story of Oenone" was purchased, still a most popular painting at the present museum.

Brearly was determined to make the museum a success, undertook the first big fund raising drive, which has been followed in later years by the elegant benefits such as the Bal Moderne and the Metropolitan Opera first night two years ago. Brearly raised $100,000, a sizeable sum in the 1890's, and the final push was given by James E. Scripps. A new building was begun on Jefferson and Hastings, Miss Avery contributing $15,000 toward the museum for which she worked so hard.

In 1917 the city formed an Arts Commission and took over the Art Museum, changing its name to the Detroit Institute of Arts but a Founders Society, very a rainmaker, and they live in much like the first committee, is still the guiding light California. David, the Bulls' son, Detroit Institute of Arts but a Founders Society, very and support of the museum. Mrs. Henry Ford, Mrs. Allan Shelden, Frank Donovan, Alvan Macauley are just a few of the Pointers who number the art institute among their chief interests.

The handsome Institute of Arts which so many enjoy today was built on the site of the former homes of Thomas W. Palmer and Dexter M. Ferry, Jr.
