HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

PRESIDENT KENNEDY, concerned over the fate of his multi-billion dollar school aid program, asked Congress yesterday not to let controversial issues such as segregation and aid to parochial schools kill his proposals to build more classrooms and train competent teachers.

Friday, March 10

TWO WELL-KNOWN local organizations have protested the activities of a fund-raising group with no Michigan connections which has moved into Detroit in hopes of enlisting 10,000 volunteers in a campaign to solicit $50,000 between March 20 and April 20. Walter Laidlaw, United Fund executive vice-president, charged that the organization, which calls itself the Leukemia Society, Inc., has been using the name of United Fund without authority.

A BLIND FATHER rescued his wife, also sightless, and their 12 children from an early-morning fire at their home on Detroit's East side. William Joyce, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, was awakened by his wife's screams shortly after 5 a.m. He roused his five sons in another bedroom then went back to his own front bedroom where he kicked out a window and passed his children, one by one, out the window to a porch roof where an off-duty fireman and his brother took them to safety. The parents and three children were taken to East Side General Hospital where they were treated for smoke inhalation. Joyce's guide dog, a Labrador retriever, died of suffocation.

FORMER PRESIDENT Herbert Hoover has declined President Kennedy's invitation to head a citizens advisory panel for the Peace Corps but sent his wishes for the success of the venture. In a telegram from Homestead, Florida, Mr. Hoover told the President that with his more than 86 years and his long-standing other commitments, he could not take on the assignment. He added that he greatly regretted having to decline any service to the President.

Monday, March 13

FORMER VICE PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon has joined a well-known Los Angeles law firm where he will serve primarily in an advisory capacity. A spokesman for the firm of Adams, Duque, and Hazeltine said that Nixon's association with the firm at present would be that of "counsel." One of the firm's nine partners later added that it was hoped Nixon might become a partner at an "appropriate time."

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION Floyd Patterson managed to knock out challenger Ingemar Johansson last night in the sixth round of a series of three bouts. Although retaining his title, Patterson displayed little of the fine boxing technique for which he is known. The champion was knocked down twice in the first round and appeared groggy until he landed two decisive punches late in the sixth. Johansson, not badly hurt, was on his feet seconds after the referee reached the count of 10.

WITH THE AID of Michigan Republicans in the Senate, Governor Swainson's industrial-credit program gained legislative approval to be placed on the ballot for the April 3 election. The Senate voted 26 to 3 to go along with the house which had already passed the measure. The Governor's plan calls for extending state credit to industry seeking to locate or expand in Michigan and has been ignored by business opposition. Voters will now decide whether to repeal the present constitutional provision which forbids the State to invest tax money in private industry.

Taken last fall, this picture shows how the Park's recreational center looks from the air. The swimming pool lies within the boat mooring harbor. The peninsula on the left between Fox Creek and the boat harbor, is the property of Detroit. Negotiations were carried on to determine if the Park could make arrangements to use some of this land for a launching site for small boats, but Detroit refused.

Rough Road To College Gets Rougher

Grosse Pointe High Seniors Submit 1,349 Applications; Requirements Stricter

Seniors at Grosse Pointe High School submitted 1,349 college applications through the office of guidance co-ordinator Dr. R. J. Hanson as of February 27. He reported that this is an increase of 208 over last year's total in February. Dr. Hanson said that notification from state colleges indicate that they are continuing to tighten admission standards. Some students have been rejected who would have been accepted a year ago. He cited Wayne State University and the University of Detroit as examples. They have started to require tests from students who have less than a B average. Since most of the Eastern colleges do not send replies to applicants until May, complete statistics as to acceptances will not be compiled until then. Dr. Hanson said that fewer students are applying to high-ranking Eastern colleges with very high admission requirements. He predicted that approximately 70 percent of this year's 726 graduating seniors will undertake college work in the fall.

STOLEN TAIL LIGHT

Lee Warrick of 826 Shoreham, told Park police on Friday, March 10, that while his car was parked in front of 727 Harcourt, someone stole the entire rear tail light assembly.

Pointe Theater Has Hopes Of Winning Contest Again

Grosse Pointe Community Theater, which came off with top honors last season, has entered the February 24-25 production of "Gazabo" in the Detroit-Windsor Theater Council's contest.

The board members of the theater council were guests of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater Monday evening at a meeting at the War Memorial. They will co-sponsor a Beaux Arts Ball with the GPCT at the St. Clair Shores Civic Center on April 7.

Last spring "Death of a Salesman" won first place as the best all around production on by the Detroit-Windsor Theater Council and was among the five plays presented at the Shubert Theater in the council's festival. This May, five plays will

Young Student's Scientific Experiment Wins Prizes; Gets National Recognition

Douglas Jones, of Pierce Junior High, Is Written Up in "Science World" After Tests with Insulating Materials

"Science World," a periodical published by Scholastic Magazine for science pupils, recognized the award-winning science project of a Grosse Pointe student recently. Douglas Jones of Pierce Junior High School is the student and his project dealt with the insulating properties of various materials. Douglas won numerous awards in science fairs last year with this project, including the Future Scientists of America Award. The latter was won in competition with students from a number of mid-western states and a portion of Canada. He also received top recognition in the local science fair and in the Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair.

The project dealt with a problem of great concern to scientists and engineers in a society as highly industrialized as America's. In brief, this involves such technicians' efforts to delay the change of high energy matter to low energy matter, a most important consideration in a culture employing such great quantities of energy as we do.

Often this takes the course of attempting to reduce heat loss, heat being energy. The most common approach is to use insulating materials to impede the flow of heat and thus conserve energy. Douglas' project was an attempt to measure the insulating effectiveness of various building materials.

Considerable ingenuity was evidenced by Douglas in the device he created to carry on a controlled experiment. Following is the description of his experiment as he wrote it up for the contest and in which he outlines the equipment used:

To measure the insulating effectiveness of different kinds of materials, I had to build a device that would do two things at the same time. It would have to give off the same amount of heat for each test, and provide some way of measuring the heat that passed through the insulating material.

Comes Up With Design

I finally came up with a design that consisted of two chambers. In the bottom chamber, I placed the heat source—a 100-watt bulb. The top chamber contained an air space and

Injured Running Into Parked Car

A Detroit motorist whose car crashed into another parked at the curb on Tuesday, March 7, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of facial cuts.

Park police charged that Robert M. Vaughn, 50, of 4177 Buckingham, did not exercise proper care and caution and gave him a ticket. Police said that Vaughn was driving north on Bedford, when he somehow lost control of his vehicle and smashed into one owned by Peter Barranco, Jr., of 1424 Bedford, parked in front of his house. Vaughn's car, the front end damaged, had to be towed away. Barranco's auto, the rear smashed in, was left at the curb.

Court date is scheduled for April 28.

Pair Jailed For Stealing From Cars

Admit Many Thefts After Police Arrest Them Following Tip by Alert Resident

Two Detroit youths are confined in the County jail following their arrest for larceny from autos less than $100, on March 8.

City police said that Curtis D. Folts, 111, 17, of 4575 Hereford, and James Charles Ryan, 24, of 4525 Hereford, were taking the spare tire out of a station wagon in front of the apartment building, at 17540 Mack avenue, when a resident saw them and called the police.

Find Loot in Car

Patrolman William Waldecker and Sgt. Foster Mauck apprehended the youths as they were leaving the scene. In the car they found a tire, wheel, and jack which the boys admitted had been taken from a car belonging to John J. Brady, 20497 Mack avenue, and a tire and wheel belonging to Mary J. Kirchner, 17590 Mack avenue.

Also found in the boys' car were five pairs of socks which Ryan later admitted taking from a parked vehicle in the vicinity of the K. C. Hall on Warren, Detroit.

When the youths were questioned by Captain Andrew Teetaert, they admitted taking items from other automobiles on two separate occasions. On March 7, they had removed several items from automobiles parked near Warren and Mack avenue. These included a black tire and wheel from a 1955 Plymouth, a red tire and wheel from a 1958 Ford station wagon, and a black tire from a 1955 Plymouth.

Admit Other Thefts

In addition, the boys admitted taking articles from cars parked in the vicinity of Parcels School about a month ago. Among the recovered items were four Dodge Lancer hub cap spinners taken from two different cars and a green wheel and tire from a Plymouth.

City Judge Joseph Uvick sentenced Ryan to $75 or 30 days in jail and Folts to $50 or 20 days in jail. Both chose to serve their time.

Captain Teetaert stated that recovered items have been turned over to the Detroit Police and the Grosse Pointe Woods Police. After the boys have served their present sentences in the County jail they will be liable for prosecution by the other cities involved.

Woods Ambulance With Patient Hit In Crash on Mack

Cass Michaels, Former Tiger Ball Player, Being Treated When Accident Occurred; Car Pulls from Curb into Path of Vehicle

Two Woods police officers received minor injuries when their ambulance crashed into another vehicle while they were transporting an injured accident victim to the hospital on Saturday, March 11.

Sgt. Roland Symons and Patrolman Russell Allard were on their way to St. John Hospital with Cass Michaels, 35, of 1171 N. Renaud, former Tiger baseball player, who had blacked out while in his car, and run into the front window of Liebold's Men's Wear, 20418 Mack avenue.

The police ambulance crashed into a car driven by Carol Ann Gartz, 17, of 359 Ridgmont, at the intersection of Mack and Bournmouth. The girl was not injured.

Policeman Bruised

Sgt. Symons, who was administering first aid to Michaels in the conveyor section of the ambulance, suffered head and chest injuries. At the hospital, X-rays showed he was only bruised. He was treated and released.

Patrolman Allard suffered only a bruised knee, according to an X-ray taken at the office of Woods City Physician Clarence Candler. The officer was taken to the doctor's office by Farms Patrolman Arnold Parsons.

The emergency run for Michaels was completed by Farms firemen in their ambulance, following the crash. Sgt. Symons was also taken to the hospital by the Farms personnel.

According to Woods police, Michaels was parked in front of the Food Fair Supermarket, 20382 Mack, car motor idling, when he suddenly blacked out. As Michaels slumped over the steering wheel, police said, his arm accidentally hit the gear shift, which started his car in motion. The vehicle proceeded north on Mack, turned left, jumped the center island curb,

Pedestrian Hurt In Park Traffic

Norman Lesperance, 58, of 14937 Kercheval, Detroit, suffered a broken left leg after he was hit by a car on Monday, March 6, while crossing Kercheval avenue.

Park police said that Lesperance was crossing Kercheval from the south side to the north, and stopped in the middle of the street, then stepped back into the path of an automobile driven by Robert C. Schweitzer, 31, of 961 Berkshire.

Witnesses exonerated Schweitzer, stating Lesperance was in the middle of the street, and the mishap was his fault.

Lesperance was given a ticket for walking into moving traffic. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, where a cast was put on his leg. The fracture was just above the ankle, a police report disclosed.

He told police that he was in the middle of the street, when he thought he heard someone call his name, and he turned and was struck by the car.

Detroit Shatters Park's Hope of Buying Land Strip

The Park's hope of obtaining a strip of submerged land in Detroit, to augment its waterfront park, was shattered by Detroit, it was disclosed on Monday, March 13.

Mayor Kenneth Cuninghame informed the Park council that the Detroit authorities refused to give consent to permit the Park to purchase the strip, approximately 60 feet wide and about 1,000 feet long, located at the foot of Alter road.

The mayor said that Detroit was of the opinion that the land, although filled in, could not be claimed by Michigan, because it extends into the Detroit River, not Lake St. Clair. Park officials have sought a meeting with Detroit officials

Real Estate Group Again Exonerated

Judge Streeter Sees No Cause for Damages in Long Case Heard in Port Huron

All Grosse Pointe defendants in a damage suit brought before Circuit Court in Port Huron, Michigan by John A. Maxwell, a former Algonac manufacturer, were exonerated on Monday, March 13.

Judge Halford Streeter, hearing the case without a jury, said that there was no basis for Maxwell's claim that certain Grosse Pointe real estate men and associations had conspired to damage the value of his property.

The suit began on March 24, 1960 and hearings have been conducted intermittently for nearly a year. With 31 full days in court devoted to the trial, it became the second longest lawsuit ever to be heard in St. Clair County.

Damages Denied

Judge Streeter denied Maxwell the right to collect damages of $73,823 from several defendants including the Grosse Pointe Properties, Inc., the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, Maxon Brothers, Inc., and Paul Maxon, officer of the firm and secretary for the Grosse Pointe Brokers Association which was not included in the charges.

Other defendants were H. Gordon Wood, attorney for Grosse Pointe Properties, Inc., and Paul R. O. Marden, former executive secretary for the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, who has since moved to Florida.

Circumstances which led to the court suit began in 1955 when Maxwell informed the Grosse Pointe Property Owners' Association that he had received offers to purchase his home at 15650 Windmill Pointe Drive, which was two-thirds completed, from Negro families.

Maxwell indicated that he might accept such an offer because of personal financial difficulties. Maxwell said he needed $10,000 to retain the title of the house under construction.

Loaned Him $40,000

Upon learning of Maxwell's difficulties, property owners in the Windmill Pointe area formed an association called Grosse Pointe Properties, Inc., which loaned Maxwell $40,000 to help him out of his difficulties. Maxwell has since repaid $15,000 of this amount.

In return for the aid offered by Properties, Inc., Maxwell agreed that sale of the house would be approved by him and the association which had loaned him the money.

The National Bank of Detroit was chosen to serve as escrow agent in connection with the agreement. It was agreed that the bank would conduct an appraisal of the house and attempt to sell it at that figure. Maxwell said that the house had cost him roughly $170,000 to build.

Later Maxwell attempted to break his agreement with Grosse Pointe Properties, Inc., and brought an injunction to prevent the National Bank of Detroit from making an appraisal.

In an attempt to interest potential purchasers in his home, Maxwell circulated a brochure which said the house could be purchased at a fraction of the cost for construction and land. Grosse Pointe real estate men then thought he would consider offers in the $70,000 to $80,000 range.

Realtors Notified

Paul Maxon, acting as secretary of the Grosse Pointe Broker's Association, notified the local realtors by post card that Maxwell might be willing to entertain offers for that amount.

Maxwell then decided that the realtors were conspiring to lessen the value of his property and had defamed the house. He instigated the damage suit which contained two aspects, 1) charges against realtors for lessening the value of his house and 2) an attempt to break his agreement with Grosse Pointe Properties, Inc.

In attempting to prove that the realtors had actually lessened the value of his home, Maxwell submitted to the Court two appraisals he had had made of the house. The first, which (Continued on Page 4)

To Improve Recreation Site in Park

Council Approves Appropriation of $23,777 to Develop Area at Foot of Three Mile

The Park council on Monday, March 13, approved a total appropriation of $23,777, for needed equipment and facilities for the Three Mile Drive Park so that it might be in service on, or before, May 1.

City Manager Robert Stone told the council that it is hoped that the new park, which will be for passive recreation, should be officially opened on the same date as the waterfront park, May 31. By the time the official opening date arrives, the scars of the development-improvements should be gone, he said.

Itemizes Cost

The city manager itemized the expenditures for the park to the council. They are as follows:

Park equipment and personnel services for park operation from May 1 to June 30, $3,587.80; Sprinkling system, $5,100; Comfort station, 24 by 36 feet, to be located at the entrance to the park, $12,000; parking lot (gravel) 150 by 150 square feet, with space for 60 cars, $1,080; and $2,009.29, for equipment and facilities for

Vandal Blasts Light Fixtures

Woods police will make number 13 unlikely for the young culprit responsible for breaking glass lights, if they catch him.

Shores Patrolman Frank Mustazza cruising in the area of Morningside and Thorn Tree Tuesday night, March 7, heard what he thought were shots, and notified Woods authorities. Woods Patrolmen Don Sahel and William Duster were dispatched to the scene.

The three officers checked the vicinity and counted 13 glass light fixtures shattered by what is believed to have been BB pellets, apparently fired from a gas operated gun.

The policemen were unable to locate anyone with a weapon. They said the vandal shattered the fixture glasses in front of 470 Cook road; in front of 19814, 19828, 19844, and 19885 Thorn Tree lane; 541 and 599 Peach Tree lane; and in front of 612 and 620 S. Highbie.

Estimate of the damage was not given.

the installation of water and sewer across the McMillan property.

Stone disclosed that it is more costly to install a sprinkling system using lake water, but the operating cost would be less than a system using city water.

He told the council that the comfort station will be constructed with storage and first aid rooms, and that the Park will act as its own contractor, using city forces where feasible.

Foresee Future Paving

The city manager said that for the present, the parking lot will be graveled, but that it will be constructed in a manner that will permit asphalt paving in the future.

The park will have 24 six-foot metal base picnic tables with wood seats, six iron fireplaces, 24 portable six-foot benches, and 18 rubbish containers. There will be one gate-man and one caretaker.

According to Stone's recommendation, the council approved appropriation of $20,189.29, from the Improvement Reserve fund for the equipment and facilities and for the water and sewer system; and $3,587.80 from the Contingent Fund for equipment and personnel services, to be applied to the operational budget of the park.

and struck a parked car owned by John Lavasco of 2223 Anita, pushing it over the curb, Michael's car continued on and crashed into the store window.

A witness, Duncan Marshall of 482 Lexington, told police that he saw the Michael's car leap the curb on the east side. The automobile, he said, seemed to gain speed as it crossed the island, and then on the west side of Mack, it struck Lavasco's car, and then smashed through the store glass.

Was Slumped Over Wheel

Duncan said that it appeared that Michael's was slumped over the wheel at the time.

Sgt. Symons and Patrolman Allard arrived in the Woods police ambulance. The officers said they were going south on Mack, red light and siren operating, Michaels in the ambulance.

They said they were driving in the left traffic lane, and traffic was heavy. Drivers were pulling over to the side and stopping when they heard the emergency siren.

Allard, who was driving the ambulance, said that about 25 feet from the Bournemouthe intersection, the light turned red for Mack traffic. He said he was doing about 30 or 35 miles an hour because of the traffic congestion.

Ambulance Couldn't Stop

The light was green for Bournemouthe, and Miss Gartz started west, crossing into Mack. Allard was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the girl's car, and the ambulance crashed into the right center of the automobile. Miss Gartz's car was pushed across Mack and struck a car driven by Sylvia M. Schultz of 21710 O'Connor, St. Clair Shores, who was stopped at Bournemouthe, waiting for the ambulance to pass.

The Woods officers, after making sure that neither women were injured, called for assistance, and the Farms sent its ambulance and scout car.

Michaels, who received internal injuries, was given a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident; and Miss Gartz was given one for falling to give the right of way to an emergency vehicle. There was considerable damage to all vehicles involved.

WARRANT ISSUED

Shores Judge John Gillis issued a traffic warrant for the arrest of Anthony Sarotte, 23, of 22987 Gary lane, St. Clair Shores, on Monday, March 6, for failure to come to court last February 20. Sarotte was ticketed for speeding 45 miles an hour on Lake Shore on January 20. He forfeited a bond of $20.

thermometer. To test a sample of material, I put it on top of the heat source and covered it with an air chamber. Heat passing through the insulator made the temperature of the air rise. Then I could measure the temperature change with the thermometer.

To build the insulation tester, I used three tin cans (a large can, a tall juice can, and a tuna fish can), extension cord, a socket asbestos, a switch, and some miscellaneous screws and hardware — the kind that can be found in any home. Here's how to build one:

First collect all the materials. Then fasten the bulb socket to the inside of the juice can on the bottom. Make a hole in the side of this can. Run the extension cord through and wire it to the socket.

Now fasten the large can to a board for a base, and pack about one inch of asbestos around the bottom and sides of the can. Make a hole in the side of this can, just above the top of the asbestos layer. Put the juice can inside the large can, and run the extension cord out through the hole. Now wire a switch into the cord and a wall plug on the end.

How to Build Chamber

To build the air chamber, cut a hole about three-fourths inch in diameter in the bottom of the tuna fish can. Borrow or buy a one-hole rubber stopper that will fit the hole tightly. Grease a thermometer with soap or glycerin and run it through the hole in the stopper. (You should wrap the thermometer with a towel while doing so and try not to force it. A broken thermometer can give you a very bad cut.) Now insert the stopper and thermometer into the bottom of the tuna fish can so that the thermometer bulb projects into the can about one-half inch. Insulate the outside of the can with wet asbestos.

Place a sample of material on top of the heater chamber directly above the bulb. Place the air chamber on top of the sample, with the thermometer bulb down. Record the temperature.

Borrow your mother's kitchen timer or use a stop watch set for five minutes. Plug in the heater, turn on the switch, and start the timer. At the end of five minutes — or any other time, as long as it is the same for all tests—record the temperature. Subtract the first temperature from the second to find out how much the temperature inside the air chamber has increased.

Tested Many Materials

Using this method, I tested many kinds of materials: plastic, asbestos sheet, fiberboard, wood, two layers of glass with air space between them, tin (black on one side and shiny on the other), tin (shiny on both sides), and soundproof board.

After testing all these materials, I was surprised to find that when I tested tin, the temperature in the air chamber rose less than it did when I tested asbestos or fiberboard. In testing the tin that was black on one side and shiny on the other, I found that it made a difference which side faced the heater. When the shiny side was down, the temperature inside the air chamber rose 23° C. When the black side was down, the temperature rise was 30° C.

I also tested a piece of tin that was shiny on both sides, and found that the temperature rose only 12° C. The best insulator of all was two shiny pieces of tin separated by a layer of air.

All the results are shown in the graph on this page. It would have been better if all the different samples were of the same thickness. When a thin piece of one material gave a smaller heat rise than a thicker piece of another material, I thought that the first was a better insulator.

This project was fun to do. I learned that when you perform experiments, the results are apt to be different from things you have heard or thought about. Before doing this project, I would have told anybody that a piece of asbestos would permit less heat to pass through than a piece of tin. I still do not know why it did not.

Nun to Speak at St. Michael's
St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Sunningdale Park, will hold its regular mid-week Lenten Devotional Hour on Thursday, March 16, at 8 p.m., with a meditation given by Sister Rosemary Anne, Assistant Superior of the Sisterhood of St. John the Divine, of Canada.
Sister Rosemary Anne is known to many in this area, having made several visits to Grosse Pointe and Detroit, conducting Quiet Days and speaking on the work of her Order.
The Sisterhood of St. John the Divine, founded in 1884, is the only women's order in the Anglican faith claiming Canadian origin. It was founded at the request of a committee of the Church in Canada by a widow who, after receiving her training at St. Mary's Convent, Peekskill, New York, was Professed as a Sister of the Canadian Order. The Sisters follow what is known as the Mixed Life, performing many acts of mercy, and at the same time devoting a part of their days to worship, meditation, and the recitation of the Divine Office.
In addition to their work in the Altar Bread Department and the Ecclesiastical Embroidery Room at the Mother House Willowdale, Ontario (a suburb of Toronto) the Sisters are engaged in various works in other parts of Canada, including a home for the aged in Toronto.

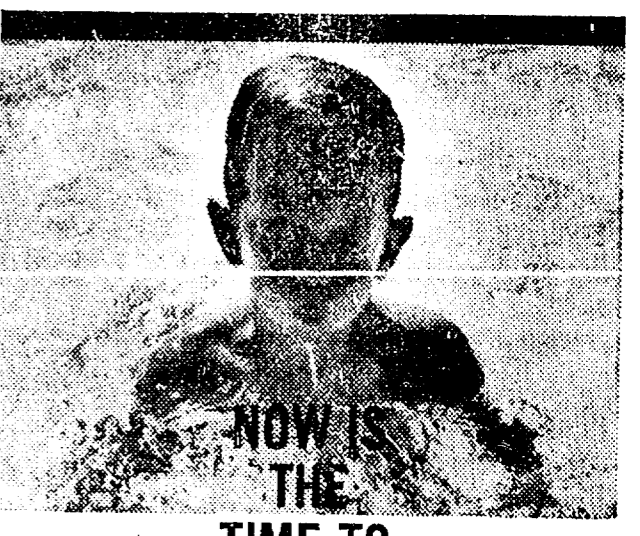

As is customary in all religious orders, a Professed Sister undergoes a long training period. A young woman wishing to enter the Order first visits the Convent for a month, after which she may be accepted and admitted as a Postulant for a six-month period. At the end of her Postulancy, if the Community so recommends, she is clothed as a Novice, receiving the habit of the Order. The Novitiate covers a three-year term, after which she may be Professed as a Junior Sister. Her final Life Profession of poverty, chastity and obedience is made after another three years.
The public is cordially invited to attend this service and hear Sister Rosemary Anne.

Realtors Again Exonerated
was made in 1956, set the value at $172,895, based on construction costs. It did not consider comparable market conditions because it said that none existed.
The second appraisal Maxwell had made in October, 1960, gave a figure of $99,072, the drop being caused, Maxwell said, by realtor's comments. He asked damages for the difference, of $73,823.
Three More Appraisals
Defense attorneys submitted three appraisals which were made by the Properties, Inc., Maxon Brothers, and Paul Maxon, which used the market-value system. The appraisals ranged from $72,000 to $75,600.
In Monday's decision, Judge Streeter said that no purchaser had been found for Maxwell's house because of the plaintiff's inflated determination of value. He added that the appraisals made by the defendants represented their honest belief of the market value of the house and coincided with the opinion of the court.
In considering Maxwell's move to break his agreement with Properties, Inc., Judge Streeter ruled that the agreement was invalid because it was unenforceable. He added that Maxwell was not entitled to collect damages because he was a voluntary partner in the agreement.
Constitutes Mortgage
Despite the invalidity of the agreement, the Judge said that the money which was advanced to Maxwell constitutes a mortgage on the house. Judge Streeter ruled that interest of 5 percent per annum since 1956 is payable to Properties, Inc.
Judge Streeter gave no reason for the agreement being unenforceable but defense attorneys advanced an opinion that his decision was based on restraint of alienation, which means that if two parties have the right to approve a purchase, it can be considered restraint.
The screening system, which was formerly used by Grosse Pointe realtors, was not a part of the case at any time because none of the parties involved was screened.

Cure for Colds Eludes Doctors
Finding a prevention or cure for the "common" cold is an uncommonly tough problem, says a University of Michigan epidemiologist.
Fred M. Davenport (M.D.) of the U-M School of Public Health has outlined some of the curious effects of the common cold which have so far defied solution by medical scientists:
—It causes fever in children, but usually does not cause fever in adults.
—A diabetic person is apt to get severe acidosis when he has a cold.
—People with chronic heart or pulmonary disease become markedly worse.
—Laboratory tests such as blood counts give about the same results whether you have a cold or not.
—Frequency of colds declines the older you get.
—No matter what grandma says about bundling up for cold weather and wearing your rubbers, scientific tests have not shown any connection between chilling the body and "catching a cold."
—Cold symptoms are almost identical to the early signs of severe infections like measles, and influenza.
After considering such evidence, says Dr. Davenport, health scientists today believe there is no such thing as one cold virus. They suspect there are 40 to 50 different unidentified viruses which cause approximately the same symptoms which we call the common cold.
These viruses may strike singly, or in groups of two or more. Also, he says, people of different ages may be affected by different groups of viruses.
The U-M doctor believes we will someday get protection from colds by immunization. A "shot" will consist of a multiple vaccine to protect against the cluster of viruses which generally affect people in one's age group.

Farms Submits Building Report

A two-month report submitted by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith, disclosed that no residential or business construction permits have been issued since January 1.

However, he revealed that in February, five applications were approved for miscellaneous building, and two for nonassessable constructions. The total value of these types of permits for last month was set at $845,500, of which the miscellaneous accounted for $27,500, and the nonassessable, $818,000.

The total number of miscellaneous permits granted since the first of the year, is 11, valued at $46,100, according to the report, making the grand total value for all permits, $864,100.

The nonassessable permits were for a $705,000 addition to the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road; and a $113,000 addition to the Grosse Pointe High School, 11 Grosse Pointe Boulevard.

Be courteous — take advice, but always make your own decisions. It takes lots of backbone to back down from a wrong position.

The remaining parts are as follows: Febronia, Bonnie Wade; Mary Lou, Sue Solenberg; Herbert, Fred Jackson; Sheriff, Ron Gutow; Sadie, Susan Beeby. The cutting adviser of the seventh graders is Miss Margaret Schmidt.

There's a reason—good luck always comes to the man who uses common sense and is industrious.

The music department is assisting the dramatists personnel to make March 24 an evening of fine arts presentations. Dr. Thomas J. Moore will conduct the pit orchestra before the curtain rises. The girls foursome is Cheryl Riesenberger, Julie Marshal, Jeanne L'Heureux and Peggy Comly. They are known as the Beauty Shop quartet. The boys' Barber Shop quartet, composed of Don Holtz, Jim Kelly, Jack Gajewski and Joe Reed are harmonizing on some selections for presentation between the play productions.

The upper classmen have selected the popular play "Glamorous Gloria" for their production. Mr. John Mason is the director for this eighth and ninth grade dramatics selection. The Hall family consists of Mrs. Hall, Florence, Juliet, and Jerry. Students cast in these parts are Lydia Leacock, Sue Kennedy,

Susan Sides and Bob Rosenow. Mrs. Glover is portrayed by Claire Berteel; Walter Glover is Joe Reed and Gloria Glover is Candy Mason. Pointe Police Smash Ring Of Teener Thieves, Vandals

Pointe police broke up a gang of boys responsible for a number of thefts and malicious destruction of property in the Pointe, Harper Woods and Detroit. The arrests of the boys ended two weeks of police investigation.

The investigation mushroomed from a routine investigation by Park police of the February 24 knifing of a City boy by a Woods boy, both 16 years old, at Whittier and St. Paul, following a quarrel over a stolen radio.

The knifing investigation was conducted by Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, who questioned both boys at the station, and before the end of the interrogation, the boys "squealed" on each other.

The boys told of thefts committed in the Woods, Farms, Shores, City, Harper Woods and Detroit. Each department was notified of the teenagers' crimes.

Lt. Enders, City Capt. Andrews Teetaert and Farms Det. Sgts. George Van Tien and Jack Paisley, worked on the case, and between them rounded up seven teenagers, from the Farms, Woods and the City, including the knifing principals. All the boys admitted their part in the thefts and destructions, which dated back to January, 1960.

The Woods boy told Lt. Enders that he had made a set of keys to his father's store in Harper Woods, and he, the City boy and a 15-year-old boy from the Farms, entered the store one night and took 600 in cash, splitting the money three ways.

The knifing principals also told the lieutenant that they pilfered boxes of candy in February 1960, to give to their mothers for Valentine Day; stole gloves from a Woods store to give to their fathers on Father's Day last year, and last December stole perfumes and other items to give to their parents for Christmas.

All the boys told of stealing numerous items, including liquor and candy from stores. They also admitted that on several occasions they took cars from the Country Club of Detroit parking lot, driving them around the streets and returning them to the space from where they were taken.

They also confessed to taking carburetors, batteries and hubcaps from cars, including those from the Country Club; stealing watch bands, champagne, whiskey and other items from drug stores, beer from a Detroit cafe, wrenches and other valuable tools and equipment from appliance and department stores and damaging parked automobiles. Most of the loot has been recovered, police said.

The knifing victim and his assailant told of stealing hundreds of gallons of gasoline from a storage tank on the property of St. Paul-on-the-Lake Shore, selling the fuel to young motorists for $2.50 a tankful. From this enterprise, the boys said, they split a profit of $120.

Capt. Teetaert stated that he is planning to file charges against three of the young culprits; Sgts. Van Tien and Paisley said they have already filed against three of the boys in Juvenile Court; Lt. Enders stated that charges of felonious assault have been filed against the Woods boy, as this was the only incident his department is interested in. The gang was not active in the Park, he said.

The other departments involved have not announced their intentions as yet.

Church to Show Schweitzer Film

At a Wednesday Lenten Family Night, Pointe Methodists will see the famed movie "Albert Schweitzer." Coming on Wednesday, March 15 at 8:30 o'clock, this will be the second such event at the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church at 211 Moross road during Lent.

The movie "Albert Schweitzer" was filmed in color for commercial showing and portrays the early life and education of this modern saint as well as his present work in Lamborene, Africa. Schweitzer is shown playing the organ in the church of his boyhood, as well as in his African clinic. Viewers will come to know Albert Schweitzer as theologian, philosopher, scientist, musician and doctor.

Reservations for the Family Night dinner may be made with the church office. Nursery care will be provided, as well as a special program for children through the third grade. Arrangements are being made for Lenten dinners by the Fellowship Committee.

At the dinner on March 1, the pastor, Rev. James D. Nixon, gave devotions on "The Christian Witness." The program, given by Mrs. Alan Schaefer and Paul Smith, was a reporter illustrated with slides on their recent participation in the Methodist UN-Washington Seminar. They emphasized participation in the world of political affairs as a part of the Christian's witness.

REPORTS THEFT

Someone broke the rear window of his car parked in the Woods Theater lot on Monday, February 27, and stole his tan raincoat, valued at $9; and a pair of fur-lined gloves, valued at $6, John Vitale, 18, of 3948 Grayton, Detroit, told Woods police.

Fellowship Won By John Sterritt

John David Sterritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sterritt, 16913 Cranford, has been awarded a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship and will receive $1,500 plus family allowances and full costs for a year's graduate study at any university of his choice in the United States or Canada.

Sterritt, who is a student in political science at the University of Michigan, is one of 46 college students in the state, including 20 from the University of Michigan, to receive the fellowship.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, Princeton, N. J., said this week that the fellowships are given to outstanding students who are considering college teaching as a career.

Nominations for the fellowships are made by faculty members. This year, 1,333 students from 381 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada were selected from 10,453 nominees.

Since the fellowships were established in 1945, 94 students from the University of Michigan have received the awards, placing the University first nationally among all state-supported institutions. The U. of M. total is exceeded only by Princeton, Harvard, Yale, and Cornell, all privately supported universities.

155 Fire Alarms In City in 1960

The Grosse Pointe City Fire Department responded to 155 alarms during 1960 for fires which caused losses of $105,121.96, according to the department's annual report which was prepared recently by Fire Captain George Poupard.

Included in the losses, Captain Poupard said, were $94,674.90 on property, $9,788.34 on contents, and $658.72 on automobiles.

If the City Fire Department had been unsuccessful in its efforts, damages of $1,310,375 or more than 12 times the actual amount could have been realized. That figure would have represented a total loss to all burned property. The endangered property was insured for $848,166.

Captain Poupard reported that four calls to outside departments were answered, two for the Park and two for the Farms.

Members of the Rose Garden Committee are Mrs. Frederick H. Curtis, chairman, Mrs. Lem Bowen, Mrs. Elmer Clark, Mrs. William G. Boales, Mrs. C. Leslie Mitchell, Mrs. Julius Peter and Mrs. Frederick Campbell.

Parcells to Celebrate 10th Anniversary Mar. 17

Brightly lighted classroom windows will symbolize the warm welcome awaiting all those who attend the tenth anniversary celebration of Parcells Junior High School.

The occasion will be observed by a special I.T.A. program to be held on Friday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium. Featured on the program will be two leading educators from this area who will discuss the development of the junior high school in Grosse Pointe.

Dr. S. M. Brownell, former Grosse Pointe administrator and now Superintendent of the Detroit Public Schools, will describe "The Early Years." Dr. James Bushong, the Superintendent of Grosse Pointe schools, will set forth his views in a talk entitled "This We Believe."

Opening the auditorium program will be the Parcells Concert Orchestra playing the Star-Spangled Banner. The Reverend Edgar Yeoman of St. Michael's Church will give the invocation. Vincent Peterson, Principal of Parcells, will introduce the guests of honor and recall some events in the development of this school. The orchestra, under the direction of Donald McNew, will play three selections: "Chorale and Minuet" by Haydn, "Poem" by Fibich, and "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck.

Invitations and announcements were sent to many former students and teachers, to

Board of Education members, past presidents of the Parcells Parent Teacher Association, and others who contributed to the successful development of the school. Special seats in the auditorium have been set aside for these guests, but the program is open to the public and it is hoped that many residents will find it possible to attend.

After the auditorium program guests will be invited to tour the facilities to see for themselves the changes and improvements which have been made to help this fine school keep pace with modern trends in education. Special displays have been arranged to tell the history of Parcells through pictures and exhibits, and these displays should be of special interest to alumnae.

The Home Room Mothers, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Glanz, have been busy preparing for the social hour to be held in the gymnasium. Special plans for decorations and refreshments have been made to add to the festivities. Former Mother Vice-Presidents have been invited to serve as pourers, including Mrs. O. Keith Baldwin, Mrs. John Zolad, Mrs. Elvin Long, Mrs. Jon Gandelot, Mrs. Richard Mertz, and Mrs. Karl Schaltenbrand.

PERFORMANCE COUNTS

Believe it or not—the things you intend to do won't put a cent in your pocket.

Full Moon Fixes Date of Easter

April Fools' Day this year will begin with a full moon—the moon that will fix the date of Easter with no fooling.

"The full moon at 12:48 a.m. April 1 is of special interest, for it is the full moon that fixes the date of Easter," Professor Hazel M. Losh of The University of Michigan notes.

"In 325 A.D. the church fathers gathered in council at Nicaea, and among other things set the date for Easter once and for all.

"It was designated as the first Sunday following the first full moon that comes after the vernal equinox. This year the Sunday falls on April 2, a relatively early date," the U-M astronomer explains.

"Probably a good reason for using the full moon for reckoning Easter was to enable the pilgrims traveling to the Holy City to have the advantage of full moonlight for comparatively safe travel by night as well as by day.

"This date fluctuates over a period of 35 days between the equinox and April 25, the latest date on which Easter may occur. In 1943, it occurred on the latest date, this will not happen again until 2038 A.D. In 1951, it came as early as March 25.

PTA Will Hear English Teacher

"Images of England," a talk by Miss Patricia Fahy, exchange teacher from Leeds, England, will be presented to members and guests of the Brownell PTA on Wednesday, March 22, at 8 p.m.

She was selected as an exchange teacher by a board composed of members of the Committee for the Interchange of American and British Teachers.

Charles Saltzer, principal, speaking for the entire staff at Brownell said, "We are extremely honored to have Miss Fahy on our teaching staff. She is an excellent 'citizen ambassador' for her country, and has given everyone, including the students, a new awareness of the close cultural ties between Britain and the United States."

An extra added attraction of the evening will be the presentation of the operetta "Cinderella's Slipper," directed by Mr. John Tausley, vocal teacher at Brownell. The cast, members of the 9th grade Glee Club will consist of: Cindy McDougall, Jean Gerow, Pat Bohl, Debbie Hubert, Karen Neterton, Dave McKee, Michael Scoville, Bill Sutton, Joel Streb, Douglas Gauerke, Robert Pickup, Jim Blackburn, Chris Dahl, David

Young Cyclist Struck By Car

Douglas Fox, 11, of 764 Trombley, was hit by a car while pealing his bicycle east on St. Paul on Monday, February 27, and knocked to the pavement. He suffered head injuries.

Douglas was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, where he was treated for lacerations at the back of his head, and concussion.

The boy was hit by a car driven by Phyllis L. Champine, 27, of 20615 Gaukler, St. Clair Shores, who told police that she was also headed east on St. Paul when the lad suddenly swerved his bicycle into the path of her automobile. She was not blamed, and after making a statement to Park police, she was released.

Douglas told police that he did not know when, or how he had been hit. He said: "The next thing I knew I was in the hospital."

The woman driver said she was traveling about 25 miles an hour when the boy ran into her car.

Douglas was given a bicycle violation ticket for riding in the street while under 12 years old. He presented the ticket to his parents, who were expected to administer the proper punishment.

Patrolman George Blair, school safety officer, said that the incident is a lesson to Douglas, and should be to other young cyclists under the age of 12 years, not to ride in the streets.

A city ordinance stipulates that children under the age of 12 are forbidden to ride in the streets, that they must use the sidewalks. They must take every precaution for their safety and the safety of others while doing so, Officer Blair added.

Boys and girls who violate the city bicycle ordinance, are given tickets which must be given to their parents, who should take proper measures, the patrolman said.

They call them eye-openers, but it takes more than that to slow some men the error of their ways.

Honor Paid By Red Cross To Its Volunteer Workers

Three volunteers whose service totals 105 years were among nearly 400 volunteers honored by the Detroit Red Cross chapter on March 15. Parchment scrolls were given to Miss Carrie McMillan, 821 Fisher road, Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan, 315 Chalfonte, Dr. Paul T. Rankin, 16823 Plainview, for 40, 35 and 30 years' service respectively. Certificates of appreciation and pins indicating length of service presented the others. Miss Carrie McMillan, whose patience and skill have enabled her to transcribe books into the Braille system of raised dots, which blind people read by passing their sensitive fingers over the pages, has written hundreds of technical and school text-books as well as novels and general literature. She has been a teacher of sighted people who subsequently devoted countless hours in the same type of service and had been responsible for proof-reading and binding books transcribed by others.

Mrs. Kinnucan, who served the Chapter as chairman of volunteers for 25 years, is currently chairman of volunteers in the blood program. Dr. Rankin, assistant superintendent of Detroit Schools is chairman of the Junior Red Cross in which more than 500 Wayne County schools, 600 volunteer teacher-sponsors and 435,000 students participate.

Those receiving awards from Grosse Pointe are Mesdames Beatrice Belanger, Catherine Blayden, Virginia Borchardt, C. Henry Buhl, E. E. Draper, John F. Hering, Harley G. Higbie, Agnes Hoezle, Harry Howenstein, Rena Kisskait, Dunbar MacNeehan, Walter Manion, Daniel J. Murphy, Phelps Newberry, Gertrude Paradzinski, Frank Rosier, Richard Taylor, William J. Turner, and Messers

Sherman J. Fitzsimmons, Alvan Maculey, Lansing M. Pittman and Herbert B. Trix.

Burt R. Shurly, Jr., Detroit Red Cross Chapter Chairman, and Mrs. John F. Hering, Chairman of Volunteers, spoke briefly. Shurly emphasized the importance of volunteers in Red Cross, saying that without those who work in the campaign to obtain contributions to the United Foundation Torch Drive from which the chapter's funds are derived, and those whose selfless-given hours of active assistance in its program make each dollar of money contributed nationally do the work of approximately $6, Red Cross services would be impossible.

Mrs. Richard H. Hall, Jr., vice chairman of the Chapter's Advisory Committee to the Office of Volunteers, introduced Mrs. Chadbourne Taylor, of St. Louis, who is the volunteer director of the Office of Volunteers in the Red Cross Midwestern Area.

Mrs. Taylor complimented the Chapter on its volunteer service record last year, which showed 6,000 volunteers gave 300,000 hours of service. She said that nationally, nearly 2,000,000 volunteers working in Red Cross programs gave 16,694,000 hours of service during the same period.

Mrs. Taylor paid tribute to the loyalty of Wayne County men and women as indicated by the number of awards to volunteers with long service records — 50 persons who have given 20 years' service each; 31 people with 15 years' service; 83 who have worked with the Chapter 10 years; and 200 whose service has been of 5 years' duration. Ninety-three of those given awards were men, members of the chapter's Board of Directors, Disaster Service, or teacher-sponsors in the Junior Red Cross.

AAUW Seeking Con-Con Okay

"Vote Yes—April 3rd" buttons are being worn as well as distributed by Grosse Pointe American Association of University Women members. The branch is one of the participating organizations of the 14th Congressional District Constitutional Convention and had a good representative group at the March 6 meeting at the high school.

Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper, Legislative group chairman, passes on the recommendation from the Board of Directors of the Michigan Division of A.A.U.W. urging a "yes" vote on Con-Con. The state A.A.U.W. communique says: "All members all over the state are already working to put over the Convention Call in April. Michigan desperately needs a constitution that will protect the rights of the people while it provides a clear, uncluttered framework for government."

Mrs. Cooper reminds members: "The Proposal known as No. 3 on the November, 1960, ballot, on which A.A.U.W. urged a "yes" vote was favorably passed. It did not automatically call a convention, but it did:

1. Put the opportunity to vote for a convention before the voters in April, 1961;
2. Change the vote requirement to approval by a majority of those voting on the question (instead of those voting in the election);
3. Change the delegate basis of such a convention to one delegate for each state senator and one for each state representative. (Present basis is three for each state senator.)"

On the lighter side of A.A.U.W. activity will be the Tuesday Evening group meeting March 21 when Mrs. Edward Grenard will show pictures of her recent European trip. Hostess will be Miss Virginia C. Johnston assisted by Mrs. S. B. Dombrowski.

Legislative Group will meet on the morning of Thursday, March 23, at the Fisher road home of Mrs. Wallace A. Temple, with Mrs. M. L. Van Dagens and Mrs. Ralph A. Kimble as co-hostesses.

The meeting should attract not only the regular group members but the membership at large because of the exceptionally fine program. Guest speaker Mrs. J. Murray Decker will report on the recent Eisenhower White House Conference on Aging. She was A.A.U.W. representative appointed by Gov. Williams as one of Michigan's 72 official delegates. She is also a member of the advisory committee to the Michigan Committee on Aging with a wide range of experience and work on legislation in this field.

Mrs. Edgar Hahn will present a study on "Aid to the Aged," discussing past and pending legislation for Michigan residents. President Kennedy's recommendations to Congress for medical care for the aged

GOP Club Sets Con-Con Debate

The 14th District Young Republican Club is sponsoring a debate on Constitutional Convention (Con Con), Thursday, March 16, at 8:30 p.m. at Republican Headquarters, 15316 East Warren.

Debating will be Robert Halbrook, chairman of the Grosse Pointe chapter, Citizens for Michigan, who will speak in favor of Con Con, and Mrs. Bernice Zilly, secretary of the 14th District Republican Committee, who will oppose the measure.

A question period will follow. The public is invited to attend.

There is no definite point which divides warm colors from the cool colors. However, home economists at Michigan State University note that the more yellow a color contains, the warmer it will be. The more blue contained in a color, the cooler it will be.

Under social security, recent TV debates, pro and con, and the likely legislative outcome will be highlighted.

The Boys Need Our Help

Several thousand young boys in the Grosse Pointe community will soon respond to the age-old call of "Play Ball". Both Little League and Babe Ruth League teams are now being organized and early next month a hundred or more teams of eager, enthusiastic youngsters will fill the various neighborhood and school athletic fields to overflowing as they ready themselves for another exciting season of play.

Many hundreds of adults take an active part in planning, supervising, and conducting this worthwhile activity. Lots of others attend the games and share the thrills of close and well-played contests and witness the seasoning and conditioning, both mental and physical, that the youngsters undergo as a natural consequence in this, the most popular of America's pastimes.

Two prominent needs are perennial problems for most of these teams—Little League and perhaps to even a greater extent, Babe Ruth League. The latter program was developed after Little League had become quite well established and finds it lags decidedly in the competition for community support, either that of self-involvement on the part of many parents in active roles, or that of obtaining the financial support needed to carry on the league activities.

This need takes a variety of shapes. It is safe to say that the greatest shortage exists in the supply of men willing and able to manage and coach the teams. These jobs are perhaps the most important ones adults fill, for the men in direct charge of the players are the ones who not only must teach baseball skills but must also teach baseball rules, fair play, courtesy and regard for fellow players—in short, sportsmanship.

Yes, a manager's job is clearly one needing an outstanding leader, the more so when one remembers the impressionable material with which he must work. Grosse Pointe has many such men, and many have come forth every year to do this important task.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor: The increased voter interest in recent primary elections is certainly a step in the right direction.

There are some outstanding civic minded citizens running for the Farms Council, who merit the full consideration of all the voters in the coming election.

Many thanks to you, and to the entire staff of the Grosse Pointe News for the excellent coverage and publicity of the recent primary election.

Sincerely yours, Edward A. Kleefuss 199 Ridgmont Rd.

To the Editor: We were delighted to read our letter re: names of streets in Grosse Pointe. We hope something is done about changing these names to be less confusing, especially for the newcomers to the community.

Road, Country Club Drive and Country Club Lane, Deeplands Court and Deeplands Road, Kercheval Avenue and Kercheval Place, but the people outside of Grosse Pointe don't know.

It's like our help in the south used to name their children—John Jones Washington the first, second and third. They just liked the name and wanted to keep it in the family.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

With Lent well under way, we call your attention this week to some recent books of a religious and inspirational nature suitable to Lenten reading.

Two biographies published within the year fall in this category, "Pilgrim Circuit Rider" and "Dr. Schweitzer in Lambarene." The first of these tells the story of Leila Anderson, a modern-day circuit rider for the Congregational Christian Church.

In "Dr. Schweitzer in Lambarene," the doctor who has become a legend in his own lifetime once again has the literary spotlight upon him. This time it is Norman Cousins who writes of this fabulous character. Mr. Cousins visited Dr. Schweitzer at his hospital and home in Lambarene, and his story which grew out of this visit, makes fascinating reading.

In "The Story of America's Religions" Hartzell Spence discusses major religious groups in this country. He leaves no room for doubt that "America's religions have made a significant contribution to the development of the nation, and that any attempt to ignore or cut off the place that religion has held in American life is cutting at the tap root of the American way."

Among the recent books is one that parents will welcome, "Sermons on Questions Children Ask" by Arthur W. Mielke. Dr. Arthur Mielke, minister of the Park Central Presbyterian Church, Syracuse, has written an unusual book of sermons for family use. Here are 15 sermons for children on questions they ask, and with each there follows a companion sermon on the subject for adults.

Additional books for Lenten Reading are "The Master's Men" by William Barclay, "A Protestant Speaks His Mind" by Hlon T. Jones, and "The Kingdoms of Christ" by Kurt Emmrich, a history of the church from the days of the apostles to the Middle Ages.

What's New on THE HILL...

By ROBERTA

TALKING POINTS. The Hill. Spring. Even though it's cold today... Spring maybe tomorrow... and if it isn't you'll find everything, as you wander through your favorite stores between 70 and 130 Kercheval, that smacks of Spring.

THERE ARE THOSE delicious deceptions of flowers and trees blooming in the League Shop. Topiary rose trees... dog wood and Japanese peach blossom trees... and we can't forget the Mimosas. It's the shaping of the miniature tulips that gives them individuality.

AND THEN WE HEARD Anthony speak of a new Spring fashion look in hair dressing. At the nape of the neck the hair is quite short, but the length at the crown is from four to six inches. The illusion from the front view is long... yet the short look in the back creates a sleek coiffure... gay and full fashioned. Definitely Spring.

AT THIS MOMENT, Margaret Rice maybe enjoying the gentle ease and gay excitement of Jamaica... but her fun does not end there... she is spending much of her time combing the markets, calculating what fashions she will bring back to the Pointe. Hurry, hurry back!

SHE'S THE GIRL you turn to look at in a crowd. She's the gal who is using Henri Bendel's new hair-spray that is perfumed and rich with beautifying oils. She bought it for two dollars at Trail Pharmacy, on the hill.

WAIT UNTIL YOU see the windows this week at the Top 'O The Hill. Thick 'n thirsty, those printed Wamsutta towels in patterns of Belvidere Rose and Gloriette (as colorful as an artist's palette) are showing. Bath towels are 2.98; hand towels, 1.79; wash cloths, 69 cents; finger tip towels, 79c; bath mats, 4.98.

JOT THIS DOWN IN your little black book: Date: One day in March. Time: Any time. Where: Anthony's. Why: To find a blouse (should it be dressy or tailored, silk or linen or cotton?)... to spot a bright necklace, a bracelet or earrings, color drenched, for my Spring wardrobe. They're bliss.

THOSE CARPENTERS are going great guns at Al Green's ON The Hill. The decorators are in a tizzy. This week all of the more intricate details will be polished off... and that can only mean one thing... we'll be seeing you at Al Green's... but soon!

PACKABLE KNITS... stunning ones... are part of Margaret Rice's Spring '61 collection of fashions.

HEAR THIS. There will be more refurbishing this Spring at 76 Kercheval. There are big plans for a striking new entrance to the Second Level. It will be like a new addition... a Patio and Sun Shop, no less. Magnificent clothes, here! Margaret Rice's.

From Another Pointe of View

St. Patrick's Day may be the wearing of the green to certain Irish celebrants but to the Allison Monroes it's traveling day.

They will leave this Friday for Florida with son, Peter, a senior at GPUS and a star on the tennis courts. Peter ranks sixth in the junior singles in the Western Lawn and Tennis Association.

He will be working out with the University of Florida tennis team in Gainesville and then go on to Orlando to stay with Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Curry. Peter met the Currys at Nantucket last summer. Dr. Curry is a well known tennis coach.

Meanwhile the Monroes will be staying for the eighth year at Tarpon Center, Fla., not far from Venice. Nearby is property they have bought on Manasota Key, where they go for beach picnics and to plan a future dream house. Peter will join his family at Tarpon Center and they will all be home about April 14 for his GPUS classes. Peter has been accepted at Williams College next fall.

Also enroute for the south are Mr. and Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner, of East Jefferson avenue, who will be staying at the Sea Crest Hotel, Delray Beach, Fla. From there the Kronners hope to do some island hopping.

Home from the islands, the Bahamas, and some deep sea fishing is Mrs. Thomas J. Hammond, with a lovely tan and a bad cold she caught while sunning.

On the U of M Plane

Mr. and Mrs. James Phelps recently vacationed in the Virgin Islands but Mrs. Phelps has an even more exciting vacation in store.

On June 15 she will fly to Europe with her daughter, Sandy, a student at the University of Michigan, on the college chartered plane.

While Sandy is staying in London and the Riviera with the Nunnally Johnsons her mother will motor in Germany, take in the Scandinavian countries and France. Mrs. Phelps and Sandy will be away nine weeks.

Off in the other direction in April will be George Taubeneck, who is slated for another lecture tour.

He will be speaking in Hong Kong and take in some of the Orient. Mr. T. is an old hand at Far Eastern travel, is a member of the Circumnavigators Club.

A Star Will Light

When "Gypsy" with Ethel Merman comes into Detroit's Riviera Theater on April 3 it will be a red letter day for the Albert Boldens, of Edgewood road.

Playing the second lead, the part of Gypsy Rose Lee, will be the Boldens' niece, Julianne Marie, who has starred with Yule Brenner in "The King and I," "Pal Joey," "Plain and Fancy" and other Broadway hits.

The Boldens plan a cast party after the opening night and their two daughters, Kathy and Bonnie, will be thrilled to meet the star as well as their cousin, Julianne Marie who will be staying with her uncle and aunt through the two weeks run. This is the former Toledo girl's first engagement in Detroit and the Boldens are going to make it a fortnight to remember.

Roaring 20's Party At GPYC Saturday

Costume Fete to Re-Open Which Has Been Closed for Month; Decorations to Be A Surprise; Thomas C. Fox, Party Chairman

From 6:30 p.m. this coming Saturday, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's "Roaring 20's Costume Party" promises an evening of tremendous fun right up until the last dance is over.

GPYC members are in the mood for a special festivity at this season—maybe it's a hail to spring.

Certainly the March 18 fete will celebrate the re-opening of the club this Wednesday, the 15th after the annual vacation closing.

There's enthusiasm over the costumes in the Roaring 20's mood, which is a switch from the annual St. Patrick's party staged by the club in previous years. (Even with the styles of the 20's it's likely most of Saturday's party-goers will pin on a wee shamrock just for luck).

Thomas C. Fox, party chairman appointed by Entertainment Chairman Harford Kerbawy, has a quartet of able aides. They are Mrs. James Motschall, chairman of publicity and promotion; Thomas Hatcher, in charge of decorations; Mrs. Cyril DeFever, music and entertainment chairman, and Theodore Friedt, in charge of special events, which are to include a professional Charleston dancer. GPYC's entertainment committee is in the nature of a steering group and besides Mr. Kerbawy and Mr. Fox, includes John Graffius, Don McPhail, James Quello and Arthur Stringari.

The "Roaring 20's" chairman and aides have some surprises up their respective sleeves.

However, it is revealed that there'll be strolling musicians during the 6:30-7:30 o'clock cocktail hour in the main dining room.

The party will move to the grand ballroom for dinner and dancing.

Ballroom decor is still quite secret, but there is to be a spectacular crystal ball, arranged with mirrors, hanging from the ballroom ceiling to reflect light all around the room.

The Fenby-Carr orchestra will be on the bandstand to make the music for dancing.

In the meantime, the distaff side particularly is searching diligently for more and more trimmings such as distinguished the short-skirted, be-beaded dresses of that spectacular era, the Roaring 20's.

4. Mrs. Coryell is the former GRACE ROEHM, daughter of MRS. LAWRENCE STEVENS ROEHM, of Stephens road, and the late Mr. Roehm.

Home from a conference in New York with European art authorities is JOSEPH DEGRIMME, of Neff lane.

STEPHEN J. SUOR, son of the Edgar C. Suors, of Lincoln road, a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon at Marietta College in Marietta, O., has been named to the varsity baseball team.

MRS. FERDINAND F. STETEKLUH, of Handy road, has been named chairman of the Central Michigan University Alumni dinner to be held April 27 at Wayne State University's MacGregor Center. DR. JUDSON FOUST, president of the Central Michigan University, will be the guest speaker.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES M. DANIELS, JR., formerly of Grosse Pointe, now of Lincoln Park, announce the birth of a daughter, SUSAN JEAN, on March 8. Mrs. Daniel is the former RUTH ELLEN NEFF, daughter of the ARTHUR F. NEFFS, of Fisker road.

Touring the West Indies are DR. and MRS. PETER JACOBELL, of Lakeshore drive aboard the M. V. Victoria.

On a 16-day cruise in the Caribbean are DR. and MRS. ANGUS L. McDONALD, of Meadow lane.

Visiting Southeast Asia, India, and Australia are MR. and MRS. W. RICHARD JEEVES, of Lincoln road.

Attending the Home Economics Federation of Greater Detroit quarterly meeting at Henry Ford Hospital this Thursday evening will be MRS. FLOYD DARGEL, of Lexington road, president of the Homemakers Club.

Posing Posies Is Fine Art

Flower arranging at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is regarded as one of the fine arts by the instructor, Mrs. Richard Gerathy.

All who sign up for her classes beginning Thursday, March 16, whether it be the session for the beginners from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon or the more advanced series from 1 to 3:30 p.m. will find that they will learn to create flower arrangements based on the same principles of line and color which guide painters and sculptors.

Mrs. Gerathy constantly points out to her students the relationship of flower arranging to the other arts and her students make good use of the painting and sculpture exhibits at the Center to develop ideas.

In teaching her students, Mrs. Gerathy tries to make them aware of the wide variety of natural materials which can be used in designs. They are asked to combine not only blooms and foliage but also to work into their arrangements such things as rocks, pieces of glass, figurines, weathered wood, etc.

Mrs. Gerathy teaches her students how to have a wide variety of flower arrangements throughout the home all year around at a minimum cost. Her instructions also show them how they should plant their gardens so as to have the best material available for interior arrangements and in colors which will harmonize with their rooms. With spring coming and the planning of gardens uppermost in most homemakers' minds, this is a valuable teaching indeed.

Mrs. Gerathy's classes are limited so that she can give individual attention to everyone, so those wishing to enroll are urged to call the Center at TUXedo 1-7511 at the earliest possible moment.

COLOR COUNTS

Color can affect cost and time spent for "upkeep" of a man's suit. Eleanor Mullikin, clothing instructor at Michigan State University, says mixtures are better than plain colors for low-cost care. They are not apt to show spots, shines or repairs. She notes for instance that the grey flannel suit will show far less lint than one in navy blue flannel.

League Plans Two Benefits

Detroit Planned Parenthood Board members joined the Oakland County members for an open meeting Tuesday, at Devon Cables. The luncheon meeting marked the first time the Board has met in Oakland County since the two groups merged.

Mrs. James McEvoy, Honorary Board member of the League, talked to members and their guests on "Planned Parenthood—Its Accomplishments and Its Goals."

She spoke briefly of the history of Planned Parenthood and quoted the American Public Health Association policy which in part states: "Full freedom should be extended to all population groups for the selection and use of such methods of the regulation of family size as are consistent with the creed and morals of the individuals concerned."

Mrs. McEvoy said, "The world has become aware that starving humans are the number one problem. Hungry people seem remote. They are in China and India—maybe South America, Mexico, Puerto Rico—but not here! Well, in Detroit we learned there are people struggling along with less than enough food for health. Yet, here in Detroit these parents are kept from getting birth spacing information from many city departments."

Final plans were made for the White Elephant Sale which the League will hold Thursday, April 20, in the undercroft of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, with Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick as chairman, and the Bloomfield - Birmingham - Royal Oak House Tour which will be held Tuesday, May 8.

Mrs. Merrill O. Bates, chairman of the House Tour, said that "it will be a privilege indeed to go through these beautiful homes. They run a gamut from the stark brilliance of one contemporary interior, to the impressive grace of an old and formal home. Each one reflects the personality of its owners, and each is peculiarly well adapted to its own setting."

Tickets for the House Tour will be available in the Planned Parenthood League office. Proceeds from the White Elephant Sale and the House Tour will be used in the nine clinics which the League operates in Wayne and Oakland Counties.

Camp Voyageur

. . . for Teen-age Boys

Extended canoe trips conducted by experienced outdoorsmen through the Ontario and Quebec forests.

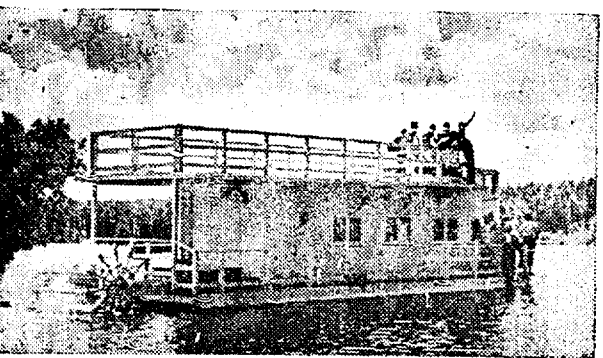

Camp Voyageur was established to fill a special need in camping. Rarely are maturing boys given the opportunity to develop the skills and acquire the intimate knowledge of nature that come with the aid of a canoe. Canoe trips of two and three weeks duration—in Canadian wilderness waters—take in reserves in Ontario and Quebec such as Kipawa, Temagami and Quetico, which straddles the historic routes of the early fur traders, west of Lake Superior.

Owners will be in Grosse Pointe on March 25 to show movies and slides of camp life and trips. For information call TU 2-0726 or TU 4-2253.

Goodwill Asks For Discards

Goodwill Industries' Executive Director John E. Hoskins requested the public not to wait until spring cleaning time to send usable discards to Goodwill Industries.

"The disabled of Goodwill need them now to keep working," Hoskins said.

"February is traditionally the slowest month in the year for our employees. This year it was the slowest month in the last decade," he said.

"Like other industries in the Detroit area, Goodwill's production lines have slowed down. Disabled workers face more cutbacks unless clothing and discards are immediately available to them.

"Goodwill is offering more service to more disabled persons than it has given in years past. This has been accomplished through the good will of the public who remember to call Goodwill Industries when they come across things that they can spare and Goodwill can repair," Hoskins said.

"The clothes and discards contributed to Goodwill help other workers in the community who are caught in an economic squeeze. Goodwill, being a non-profit, charitable corporation, can offer these clothes for sale at low prices that cover salaries only. This helps those with limited incomes.

"Goodwill conducted a successful in-the-plant sale to help people who are laid off. Many of those buying in the plant, observing first-hand the crisis facing Goodwill, volunteered to send discards they no longer needed.

"This sale was a shot in the arm for Goodwill Industries, and we hope it helped others in need. I can't stress too strongly, however, the need for clothing and discards at this time to keep the program operating successfully," Hoskins said.

The best way to lengthen your life is to shorten your worries.

Ballet Classes About to Close

The final chance to enroll in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Ballet School this season will be Monday, March 20. Students taken in at this time will still be able to take part in the big production an "Evening of Ballet" to be presented at the Parcels Junior High School in early June.

Mary Ellen Cooper, who is the instructor at the Center's Ballet School, will take children ages 7 through their teens for the spring term regardless of previous training. In this final session of ballet classes they will master all the basic ballet techniques.

Miss Cooper always confers with her concert pianist mother and her father, who is with the Detroit Symphony, to find exactly the right music for the setting of her annual June production. She, herself, writes original choreography and costumes the whole show.

Every child in the Center's Ballet School is trained in the fundamentals of music and the dance. The June production is simply regarded as something to add additional impetus to the young people's desire to learn. Miss Cooper does not attempt to train ballerinas for the stage but rather tries to instill a sense of appreciation for music and develop a fine measure of poise and grace.

The regional center also distributed 1,013 units of fresh frozen plasma, 867 units of packed red cells, 392 units of serum albumin, 149 units of fibrinogen, and 21 units of anti-hemophilic globulin without charge for the product.

A 13-year-old boy riding his bicycle collided with a truck, and was so severely injured that it required 13 blood transfusions to keep him alive. His life was saved because so many thousands of people each year are donating their blood, not only to protect themselves and their families, but to build up reserves for such emergencies. Not all blood that is donated is used for whole-blood transfusions. Part of the supply is processed into derivatives which are needed for jobs that whole blood alone cannot accomplish. A man who had donated blood for years regularly recently found himself rejected because it was established that his hemoglobin count had dropped below Red Cross standards. In order to overcome this blood deficiency, he has to be treated with a specific derivative.

GROSSE POINTE BROKERS ASS'N

Members of the GROSSE POINTE BROKERS Association Have a Responsibility to Grosse Pointe Citizens, Present and Future.

Today Grosse Pointe is rated among the World's finest residential communities... Situated on beautiful Lake St. Clair, it has nearly eight miles of shoreline. Its famed Lake Shore Drive follows along the shore for nearly four miles. The Pointe is unique in its abundance of natural beauty as well as its fine, well kept homes — homes from a few thousand dollars in value to estates in the hundreds of thousands of dollars in values.
In this far-flung community, comprising four cities, one village and one township—are some 15,000 families (some 60,000 persons of every NATIONALITY and all faiths).
Here the fruits of good leadership in civic and business activities provide ample proof of what can be accomplished when there is co-operation with realty developers and selling organizations of the caliber comprising the membership of the Grosse Pointe Brokers Association, now in its 28th year. The Association has given faithful service to the land developers and property owners as well as to the people who seek to establish residence here.

In this span of years... from the days when Grosse Pointe was a township of farms with a sprinkling of homes, our Association has served prospective buyers and sellers alike. Today Grosse Pointe supports several renowned shopping centers within its borders and possesses one of the best school systems to be found anywhere in the world.

OUR POLICY IS TO SERVE BUYER AND SELLER ALIKE!

A broker is a necessity in a real estate transaction. He is the third man in the deal. He furnishes information to the two principals and, everything being equal, he consummates the deal without the principals having to iron out the "rough spots" themselves.

The prospective buyer wants honest, forthright particulars about the property being offered for sale—its age, condition, its features and the type of neighborhood.

The seller wants honest, forthright particulars about the prospect—his age, job, earnings (or wealth) and what his background may show to insure ability to meet mortgage or other payments which are often as much as 15 years in the future. He should not impair the value of the property before the final payment is made.

No broker provides this service with more zeal and conscientious effort than brokers who are members of the Grosse Pointe Brokers Association. Choose them with full knowledge that they will serve you well and likewise serve the prospective buyer as well.

DENNIS JONES, OF BUCKINGHAM ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Dennis Jones, 15 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. Kennard Jones, is probably the youngest carillonneur in the country playing a 47-bell instrument every Sunday morning.

The carillon at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church demands a great deal from the player. The heaviest of the 47 bells weighs 2½ tons. The bells are played by striking rods or "batons," as they are called, with the fist. The batons then move the clappers of the bells above in the lower. The instrument board resembles an organ and some of the larger bells may be played by a foot pedal. Dennis wears cut-out suede gloves for his job. As there is very little music composed for the carillon Dennis adapts practically all the hymns which he plays before, after and between services at church.

Last spring Mrs. Malcolm Johns, the choir director, recommended Dennis to the church music committee for a special three week scholarship in carillon playing at Michigan State University. John Nyboer, who had been playing the carillon, was leaving to attend Hope College.

Also Plays Organ, Piano

Dennis, who was no stranger to music, had been taking piano and organ lessons. He is continuing with the piano, although the carillon job has cut into his choir practice and other activities. He practices two or three times a week in the carillon loft, high above the church. Remote from the busy weekday activities of the church the quiet, serious musician can adapt the music for the next Sunday's service. Occasionally his younger brother, Doug, who plays the flute, accompanies him to practice. Dennis welcomes visitors on Sunday or practice hours, is delighted to explain the working of the carillon. He is very proud of the bells, keeps the loft tidy, even sweeps up the dust and cobwebs before setting down at the keyboard.

Honor Student Too

A tenth grader at Grosse Pointe High School, Dennis is taking three honors courses, French and plays the clarinet in the band. He will take a history course this summer, and then possibly a scouting trip, for Dennis is an Eagle Scout with a church troop. He is also a collector, saves leaves and edible wild plants, stamps, rocks and coins. When he enters the University of Michigan he will study dentistry and follow in his father's footsteps.

Dennis is not an athlete, but he does enjoy bicycle trips. His family travels a great deal and three years ago took the boys to Europe. Dennis wants to return because most of his traveling on the Continent was done by bus and he takes a dim view of this method of sight seeing, would rather bicycle.

Likes Old Favorites

Dennis is allowed a great deal of responsibility in choosing the music for the carillon. He likes the old favorite, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and four sonatas by Handel. He has investigated the other two sets of carillons in Grosse Pointe, the 23 bell set at Christ Church and the 15 bell set which belongs to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms and was the gift of the Henry B. Joy family. He has also played the carillons at Michigan State and the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota.

For his carillon chores which take at least 9 hours a week Dennis does not receive a salary. But he loves playing the bells and looks forward to the next three years at the carillon. He is very considerate about practice hours, never plays at night. One of his predecessors rapped the bells one evening and the neighbors complained.

Most Pointers welcome the mid-afternoon chimes of the carillon as Dennis plays familiar hymns. On Sundays he arrives well before 9:30 o'clock to chime the churchgoers to service. Occasionally he slips into the church to hear part of the service before returning to the bells. Often he invites Sunday School classes to the tower to watch him play. But although playing the carillon is a lonely tiring job some hours, most often for Dennis it is a source of excitement and inspiration.

Girl Scouts are noted for their good deeds but how many have the opportunity of this pair. Last week Kathy Stuart and Judy Barlow were shopping in "The Village," stopped in for a pair of shoes and discovered a mouse running madly between the shoe boxes.

Very calmly they brought the matter to the store manager's attention, helped him catch the mouse. After all this excitement it was time for ice cream. As they wandered down the street to buy a cone they spied a cigaret smoldering on a store awning, about to catch fire. Scouts to the rescue and in to the manager they went with this tale. Just in time, too. Quite a busy scouting afternoon.

James M. Whistler did paint other pictures beside the famous portrait of his mother. The University of Michigan is currently showing 11 lithographs and 31 etchings of Whistler at the undergraduate library. The collection was gathered by the late Margaret Watson Parker, of the Pointe, and dates from the early 1900's when she bought Whistler's work for her home here.

PILIFERINGS

In this world it is not what we take up, but what we give up that makes us rich. . . Henry Ward Beecher.

The pastor was reading a long list of announcements from the pulpit, which included at least one meeting, sometimes two or three, for every night in the week. When he finished he observed, "Well, it looks like this week is all shot to heaven."

A few minutes before the department store's closing time, a customer was waiting for her package to be wrapped. Two weary salesmen were straightening out stock after what had evidently been a long hard day. Suddenly a bell rang—signifying closing time. "Listen," said one salesman, turning eagerly to the other, "they're playing our scag."

At a party, Perry Como's writer, Goodman Ace, was explaining to a group of Hollywood celebrities why he gave up $25,000 a week TV producing and returned to Como. "It was all due to my wife, Jane," Ace said. Jane said, "Goodie, you're making good money, but you're not happy. Why don't you work for $5,000 or $6,000 a week like everybody else?"

Nineteen Hundred and Sixty One Message - and re-statement of Our Policy...

WE ARE PROUD TO INFORM YOU THE DECISION WE MADE LAST YEAR WAS CORRECT . . . AND WILL CONTINUE.

BASEBALL

A Message... and Our Policy

Gray's is an authorized distributor for:

- The Rawlings Sporting Goods Co.
- A. G. Spalding & Bros.
- Wilson Sporting Goods Co.

The above firms are, and have been since baseball was first played, the leaders in the field—we will continue to carry their complete lines of baseball equipment and, in conjunction with them, stand behind every piece of equipment we sell.

Nineteen hundred and sixty will see an influx of imported baseball gloves; some good, some fair, some poor—all priced to sell far below our market.

Gray's—in fairness to our KNOWN reputation of selling only merchandise we can recommend—will carry NO IMPORTED baseball gloves at this time—because we do not know the manufacturers and question their lack of American inspection.

Since the inception of Little League and Babe Ruth baseball in Grosse Pointe we have had the privilege and distinction to be the official supplier of the Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, Inc., Grosse Pointe City, Farms and Park Little Leagues—we are very grateful.

All our baseball gloves are clearly IDENTIFIED and PRICED.

Roland Gray

PROOF! We sold more baseball gloves . . . at fair prices . . . and, to the best of our ability, were able to guide the boys, and yes girls, to the proper selection of a glove for their specific need and position they wished to play on the field.

Again, in 1961, we will be Official Suppliers of the Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, Inc., and Grosse Pointe City, Farms and Park Little Leagues.

We have a wide choice of gloves designed in cooperation with Master Glove Designers and Major League Ballplayers. These gloves incorporate many new features proved on the baseball diamonds in every part of the country by American ballplayers and manufactured by Rawlings, Spalding and Wilson.

We attended the National Sporting Goods Association show in January . . . and in discussing Baseball Equipment with innumerable suppliers, friends and manufacturers . . . we came away with the knowledge that there are far more dependable imports on the 1961 market than last year. Further, many of the largest retailers are convinced they must return to QUALITY baseball equipment . . . and I believe you will see this trend.

WE CONTINUE TO RECOMMEND, knowing their quality meets YOUR standards, the following Manufacturers of Baseball Equipment:

- HILLERICH & BRADBURY Louisville Slugger Bats
- BROOKS SMOE MFG. CO. Baseball Shoes
- WILSON SPORTING GOODS CO. Baseballs, Gloves and Equipment
- A. G. SPALDING & BROS. Baseballs, Gloves and Equipment
- RAWLINGS SPORTING GOODS CO. Baseballs, Gloves and Equipment
- EMPIRE SPORTING GOODS CO. Uniforms Baseball T Shirts and Sundries

Color Magic . . . best describes Marie Bird's custom blending of the finest ingredients to create a coiffure-color to enhance your good looks. It takes many years of experience and professional background to know when and how to color . . . or the conditioners to use to retain flexibility of the hair. For the timid souls, she recommends color rinses that will not rub off . . . but will disappear with the next shampoo. There is also the new semi-permanent tints that last three to four weeks. So Suitable . . . the collection of wool and silk suits at Healy's. All have smart well bred tailoring and advanced design that carry a promise to out-perform in style, mileage and value.
