

CITY REFUSE COLLECTORS IRKED

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

PRESIDENT KENNEDY was dealt a double-barreled setback Wednesday when the House and Senate amended his request for long-range authority to grant foreign-aid economic loans without seeking annual appropriations from Congress. The most severe blow was delivered by the House, which tentatively approved, 197-185, an amendment to the foreign-aid authorization bill which would keep the loan program on an annual basis, as at present. The amendment was sponsored by Rep. D. S. Saund (D., Calif.).

THE ARMY WEDNESDAY alerted 113 National Guard and Reserve units, totaling 23,626 men, for possible callup. It said it might extend duty tours for close to 100,000 men in building a one-million man force to meet the Berlin crisis. This will be the first strengthening of United States forces since the Korean war.

DESPITE PUBLIC DEMANDS from West Berliners for Western counteraction against Communist travel restrictions in Berlin, the State Department said there are no basic disagreements on Berlin among the Western Allies. It conceded there are "honest differences of opinion" regarding tactics but said the Allies still are united in their determination to defend Western rights in Berlin.

A MOTHER AND HER FOUR CHILDREN were killed Thursday when a freight train struck their car and dragged it a quarter of a mile at a crossing just north of Alma. The engine was still dragging the car when it stopped after the crash at the Luce road crossing of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in Pine River Township. Dead were Mrs. Betty Olszewski, 33, of 133 Philadelphia, Alma, a traffic supervisor in a switchboard room of the General Telephone Co. in Alma; and her children, Christine, 12; Michael, 9; Andrew, 7; and Mary Jane, 4.

THREE MAJOR DRUG FIRMS and three of their top executives were indicted Thursday on charges of rigging the prices of three "wonder drugs" used by millions. The companies, Chas. Pfizer and Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Co., and Bristol-Myers Co., denied the charges immediately.

The Federal grand jury indictment charged that the alleged conspiracy prevented other companies from marketing improved drugs and hampered research. Involved are three of the four so-called "broad spectrum" antibiotics—tetracycline, terramycin, and aureomycin—which are used in fighting a wide range of harmful micro-organisms.

Saturday, August 19

PRESIDENT KENNEDY Friday ordered 1,500 more American troops to West Berlin to emphasize to both the Communists and nervous Berliners that he intends to defend the city against any Red move. The new group will reach Berlin early Sunday after a dramatic ride along the autobahn through 110 miles of East German territory.

Shortly after the President's announcement, Vice President Lyndon Johnson flew from Washington to Germany where he will meet with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt. Johnson may dramatize the situation further by riding into East Berlin as a demonstration that Allied rights to all sectors of the city cannot be ended by the Communists.

THE SPACE AGENCY, in a speedup of its program to orbit a man around the Earth, decided Friday no further sub-orbital flights are necessary. An attempt at an orbital flight may be made late this year. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the two sub-orbital flights—rocket rides up and down again—by United States astronauts, had supplied all the data needed.

Everything's Set for Big Party Saturday

The 21st annual Field Day sponsored by the Metropolitan Club of Grosse Pointe will be held Saturday, starting at 10 a.m., at the Neighborhood Club. All Pointe children and their parents are invited. One of feature attractions will be rides on a fire truck, and of course there will be plenty of clowns.

Metro Club Invites All To Field Day

Twenty-first Annual Event to be Held This Saturday at Neighborhood Club

The Metropolitan Club, composed of all Pointe policemen, firemen, and postal workers, will hold its twenty-first annual Field Day at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday, Aug. 26.

All Pointe children and their parents are invited to the event. Admission is free by showing a park pass.

Many prizes will be given away. Bicycles, tricycles, rods and reels, jump ropes, balls and balloons are some of the gifts from the Metropolitan Club.

Many Events Stated
Field events will be held throughout the morning and early afternoon starting at 10 o'clock.

Free refreshments will be served to all comers. There will be hot dogs, popcorn, soft drinks and ice cream on hand.

Clowns will greet the children upon arrival at the Neighborhood Club. All children are asked to register for the event at their local fire department or the Neighborhood Club beforehand.

To Ride Fire Truck

Kids will be treated to a free ride aboard a genuine fire truck. Chairman of the Field Day is Dave Taylor, of the Park Fire Department.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Metropolitan Club is going to assist again this year. The members will be on hand to register kids at the gate for the prizes.

For further information about the field day contact any Pointe police or fire department.

Early Decision Indicated On Hospital Parking Plans

Nearly 15 residents of Grosse Pointe City near Bon Secours Hospital appeared at the City Council meeting on August 21 to submit a plan showing that the hospital can provide enough parking spaces to meet City ordinances on its present parking area without constructing an addition to it.

Through their spokesman, G. A. Thorpe, of 438 Notre Dame, the residents said they had devoted considerable time and study to the problems of the hospital and could only conclude that increased parking area was unnecessary.

Public School Teachers Must Earn Pay Increases By Professional Growth

Must Present Evidence Annually That They Have Improved Their Capabilities by Continuing Study or Gaining Experience

Grosse Pointe teachers are busy people. In addition to the usual demands made on them by teaching assignments and extra-curricular duties, and the demands often made on them by the community as a result of their special qualifications to work with youth, Grosse Pointe teachers must also earn the right to receive an advance in salary each year.

Teachers here do not advance automatically salary-wise as a result of successfully completing a year of teaching, as is the case of the typical teaching salary schedule elsewhere. In addition to performing satisfactorily in the classroom, they must also present objective evidence annually that they have grown professionally, if they expect to receive a higher salary the next fall. Such a plan has been in operation locally for nearly a decade, and is considered a real strength by a great majority of the staff.

Dr. Selmeier Reports The Assistant Superintendent for Instruction, Dr. H. Leroy

Dr. Selmeier's report stated that 202 applications for approval of college courses to be taken by staff members last year were processed by his office. These represented a total of more than 694 semester hours of credit, setting new records both for the number of persons involved and the number of credits to be earned.

Customer Keeps Too Much Cash

Kresge's was short $10 on Saturday, August 19, when a man who had bought 5c worth of gum, paid for it with a $20 bill.

The salesgirl gave him $10 too much in change and told him so when she realized her mistake.

The man then turned and walked out of the store. He was described as a white male, six feet, 165 to 170 pounds, brownish blond hair combed straight back and was wearing a green and blue short-sleeved shirt and khaki pants.

Before the next Council meeting, the Council will meet in executive session with a spokesman for the hospital to discuss the parking problem and also a future expansion which the hospital wishes to plan.

Mayor Alonzo Allen informed the residents that any action would be taken in a regular meeting of the Council. The Mayor indicated, however, that the long-pending decision would be forthcoming soon by saying that "it is time we quit sweeping this thing under the carpet."

New Pupils To Register Next Monday

Principals and Secretaries to be on Hand Each Afternoon All Week; Schools in Top Shape

Registration of newcomers to the Grosse Pointe Public Schools will begin next Monday in all schools. Principals and secretaries will be on hand each afternoon for the entire week to receive pupils.

Secondary school students desiring to make changes in their schedules of study should see the appropriate school dean next week also. Evidence of parent approval for such is needed before the change can be effected.

Summer maintenance workers have been busy the past two months repairing, renovating, resurfacing, altering, sanding, painting, replacing and otherwise improving every possible physical feature of the school plant. As a result it is reported that 15 shining-like-new school buildings will open their doors to the expected 10,500 pupils Thursday morning, September 7 at 8:30 (8:15 at Grosse Pointe High School).

A full complement of well-qualified teachers has been obtained to replace departed staff members and man new teaching stations. As in other years, personnel authorities state that a large field of applicants presented itself as replacements for the more than 50 vacancies to be filled.

Parents may learn which school should enroll their children by telephoning the Central Administrative Offices, TU 5-2000, extension 33. Other information concerning documents and records needed to complete enrollment procedures may be secured there also.

Thief Gets Loot Valued at $634

Kenneth Rische, of 31890 Lynne drive, Rockwood, told Woods Police on August 17 that articles valued at $634 were taken from his car while it was parked in the lot at Mack and 7 Mile.

Rische, who is an anesthetist at St. John Hospital, said he left his car in the lot near the rear exit of the hospital and found his right front door window broken and the articles missing on his return.

Missing articles were: a tape recorder, Voice of Music, valued at $259; a Voice of Music amplifier, valued at $75; and a box of anesthesia equipment valued at $300.

Attempted Assault Brings Plea from Park Police Chief

Arthur Louwers Asks Parents and All Residents to Cooperate by Warning Children and Reporting Any Suspicious Incidents

Park police are searching for a man who attempted to criminally assault a seven-year-old girl at Windmill Pointe drive and Middlesex Wednesday evening, August 16. The would-be rapist was frightened away by the girl's screams.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the man approached the girl, and a five-year-old boy with whom she was playing, and offered both some licorice candy. Then taking the girl and boy by the hand, walked down Middlesex toward a field at Windmill Pointe.

The chief said that when the man attempted to take the children across the street, the boy balked because his parents had forbidden him to cross streets. The man, however, took the girl across and into the field, where he attempted to assault her.

Assaultant Flees
When the child started to scream, the man tried to calm her down. He released her when she continued screaming, and the girl escaped. The man then fled east on Windmill Pointe and disappeared. Police were called by a resident who heard the girl's screams.

The man was described as being white, about 18-25 years old, or possibly older, medium complexion, with medium length black hair with combed sides and curled front, had one front tooth broken and decayed and another front tooth protruding. When last seen, he was wearing a white shirt with long sleeves, and black trousers with check pattern.

Parents Given Advice
Chief Louwers said that parents should constantly remind their children to beware of strangers who act paternal and who might offer the children candy or other goodies, in an attempt to entice them to a lonely spot. Children who succumb to such lures are in great danger of bodily harm, or even death, the chief added.

"In recent weeks, I have noticed that our people have become almost apathetic in reporting strangers talking to children," the chief said. "I don't mean that people should become hysterical and report every stranger walking down a street, but only when they are seen talking to children.

"It is a simple matter to send police to check on these strangers, and clear them. We don't care how many 'false alarms' we receive because it is better to check and find nothing amiss, than to have the matter ignored, when it might be too late."

Cites an Example
Chief Louwers sighted as an example, the arrest of Emil E. Hommel, 60, of 135 Charlotte, Detroit, on August 3, for soliciting work in the Park without a city license. He told residents, from whom he sought employment, tales to arouse their sympathy.

When taken to the station, Hommel gave a fictitious name, but fingerprints disclosed his true identity. It turned out that he had sought work in the Park.

High School to Eliminate New Method of Marking

A new method of marking High School report cards, known as the cumulative grading system and used on an experimental basis last year, will be dropped this year.

Dr. James Bushong, superintendent of schools, reported to the Board of Education on August 21 that the cumulative system intended that the grade put on the report card each marking period would represent the student's status in the course for the entire portion of the year that had elapsed since September.

The theory behind this plan was that student and parent would know at a glance when cards were issued just what the over-all picture was with respect to the entire effort in a given subject. The need to average different grades representing the achievements of several marking periods would therefore be eliminated and less chance for misinterpretation or miscalculation would theoretically be present.

In practice, Dr. Bushong said that students, teachers, and administrators found that there were shortcomings to the cumulative grading system and so it will be abandoned for the coming year.

Equipment Blamed for High Costs

Employes Fight Possibility of Having Outside Contractors Take Over Jobs

A study by Grosse Pointe City Council to determine whether the City should purchase new packer trucks to pick up refuse or to turn to outside contractors for City refuse collection, came under fire at the meeting of the Council on August 21.

Fearing for the safety of their jobs, the City employes involved gathered to inform the Council that with proper equipment they could continue to handle the refuse operation at least as efficiently and inexpensively as an outside contractor.

They complained that the City equipment has been obsolete and worn out for years and that the City has provided neither the leadership nor the organization required in an efficient operation.

Ask for Meeting
Through Attorney John Mazur they asked to meet with members of the Council to offer suggestions on the type of equipment that is needed and how the operation can be efficiently manned by present employes.

Councilmen recognized that the present situation is not an efficient one and said that it is the reason for undertaking the study at this time. Mayor Alonzo Allen said that the City is at a crossroads and must make a decision as to whether to purchase the new equipment or farm the job out to a contractor.

At the request of the Council, Lawrence Savage, city manager, submitted without recommendation a study indicating that the City could save in the neighborhood of $15,000 a year by hiring outside contractors.

Contractors Contacted
In making the study, Savage said that he contacted four contractors who had bid for the refuse contract in Grosse Pointe Woods. Low figure was submitted by A. N. Reitzloff who said that his company could take over a refuse collection similar to what the City is now providing for $59,686.20 without using the City Dump or $50,086.21 if the City Dump were used.

Under the present refuse system, Savage said the City was paying $118,000 a year but that this figure could be cut to $72,500 if a new City-system were established and new modern equipment purchased. Funds for new equipment are included in the present City budget.

Mazur challenged whether the contractors could actually perform the job for less money as the figures indicated, saying that if there were any savings involved they would have to come from decreased service or by paying the men sub-standard wages.

See Cut in Service
Two residents told the Council that any change to outside contractors would result in decreased service. However, they were informed that the specifications on which the contractors had been asked to bid included back door pickup and

Teenage Bandit Robs Two Boys

Two 10-year-old boys were strong-armed while walking on Lake Shore road, on Tuesday, August 15, and robbed by an older boy, according to information given to Farms police.

Robert Engstrom, 65 Moran, and Robbie Norris, of 1818 Norwood, told police that they were walking on Lake Shore road, near the Crescent Sail Club, when they were confronted by a boy about 13 or 14 years old, who after pushing them, forced young Norris to give him his wrist watch, and took Robert's wallet containing 64 cents and a pass to the Farms Municipal Pier-Park.

The youngsters stated that the older boy jumped on a bicycle and escaped, going east on Lake Shore. There was a small boy with the teen-bandit, the robbery victims said.

Fishing Tackle Reported Stolen

Fishing equipment valued at $150 was taken from his home on August 19, William Bohm, 739 Hollywood, reported to Woods Police. He said he left home about 5:30 p.m. and returned about 15 minutes later to find his metal fishing box and a Shakespeare casting rod were missing.

Bohm said he searched the premises and located the rod and several items from the fishing box hidden in the shrubbery.

Assault

On August 10, Hommell was arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, who sentenced the man to pay a fine of $75, or serve five days in the Wayne County Jail, after finding him guilty of soliciting work without a license. Hommell served the five days.

"This is only a case in point," Chief Louwers said. "This man was found to have had a sex record. At present, Hommell is being held by Detroit police for investigation of a number of sex crimes believed committed by him in Detroit."

Ask For Cooperation

"I ask our citizens to please not pass these things off so lightly. If you see anything suspicious, call your local police department. Strangers seen talking to little children might be harmless, and then again, they might not. Don't take a chance. Don't jeopardize a child's safety by ignoring what you see."

Chief Louwers concluded his statement by pointing out that parents have a duty to warn their children, many times, if necessary, about the dangers of talking to strangers, or accepting anything from them. Children should be taught to tell their parents immediately of any such approaches, and the parents in turn should notify police at once.

(Continued from Page 1) lar to previous years under the old system. However, counselors and deans had much more difficulty explaining marks to parents under the cumulative set-up.

3) Cumulative grading does not show the exact performance of a student for the grade period. As a result, parents and students were not alerted to a sudden drop-off or improvement.

4) Mr. Gerich's observations lead him to believe that cumulative grading did not inform parents about what they wanted to know.

5) One of the biggest arguments for cumulative grading was that it would stimulate students to work continuously throughout the year, somewhere near their best level. There was no evidence that this actually occurred.

Although there were some advantages found in the cumulative grading system, Mr. Gerich and Dr. Bushong said that they believed a return to the old system of six equal marking periods would be advantageous to students and parents.

Vernier Road Parking Ban

Meeting Scheduled

Tuesday Vernon Baily, director of public safety, met with state officials and representatives from Harper Woods to try to tentatively agree on a relief parking program. However, the results of this meeting were not available when the News went to press.

The council wanted to defer any action until the results of Tuesday's meeting could be known. Since the irate residents met on August 3 with state officials, unbeknownst to the council, the state officials have seemed most cooperative.

Joseph S. Marlow, metropolitan district traffic engineer from the Michigan State Highway Department, and Cpl. Louis Simoneau, of the traffic control duty department of the Michigan State Police, took the plea of the Vernier residents to their superiors in Lansing. Late Monday afternoon City Manager William H. Lange received a phone call from Mr. Marlow who told him that some relief was coming.

In view of these events, Julius Berns, city attorney for the Woods, said, "We cannot do anything until the matter is resolved by those who have authority. I suggest that the matter be tabled."

Give Jabin Audience

However, the council decided to first hear the remarks of Mr. Jabin, who had done extensive research on the subject.

In Mr. Jabin's opinion, in this instance the State is not the sole authority. He believes that the Woods has the right to demand a full hearing on the matter. "No State highway commissioner can pass such an ordinance until the city has had a full hearing," he declared.

James H. Woodhouse, of 2120 Vernier, had done a bit of research comparing Moross and Vernier roads. He demonstrated how similar they were in respect to width, speed limit, type of housing, type of business, and so forth, and concluded his comparison dramatically. "Parking: Moross—yes, Vernier—no!"

Applause sounded throughout the room.

A member of the council pointed out that Moross was a county rather than a state road.

Cites Comparison

Dr. Louis J. DePerro, Jr., of 2009 Vernier, mentioned that Vernier between Kelly and Harper has ten-foot-two-inch lanes instead of the 13-foot lanes which are in the Woods. (The Woods even has one 13½-foot lane.)

LIGHT LENS STOLEN

Philip Ferro, 21, of 723 Baldwin, Detroit, informed Farms police that while his car was in the municipal parking lot at the rear of the Kercheval business district, someone stole the two flat lens from the car's tail light. The incident occurred on Tuesday, August 15.

REPORTS VANDALISM

Mrs. Frank Donovan of 17160 East Jefferson, complained to Farms police on Wednesday, August 16, that while her car was parked in the lot of the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, someone used a sharp instrument to mar the paint on both sides of the vehicle.

City Fight

Council members were obviously surprised at the heat generated by what started out as a routine survey prior to the forming of a policy decision. Councilman Lloyd Marentette appeared to sum up their reaction when he turned to Mayor Allen and whispered, "Where did we get this hot potato?"

Mayor Allen assured the spectators that no decision would be reached without an intensive study and praised the attendance of interested parties as an example of "Democracy in action."

Lt. William Fiscus Takes Active Duty

Lt. William S. Fiscus, USNR, of 979 Balfour, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, completed two weeks active training duty at the Grosse Ile, Michigan, Naval Air Station on August 20.

Lt. Fiscus is Aviation Technical Training Officer with Naval Air Reserve Squadron VA-731 based at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station. The squadron flies the AD-5N "SKY-RAIDER" single engine attack bomber.

REPORTS STOLEN BIKE

Mrs. F. W. Fournier, of 19692 Washtenaw, Harper Woods, called Farms police on Friday, August 18 to report the theft of her son's black and chrome Schwinn bicycle taken from in front of Sears and Roebuck at about 4 p.m. that day.

Farms to Buy Pick-Up Truck

Based largely on a report from a man named Oscar, the Farms Council decided August 21 to authorize bids to be obtained for the purchase of an Express pick-up for the Public Works Department.

"Oscar" informed his superintendent Peter Allard who told the Council via an intermediary, City Engineer Murray Smith, that the two recently purchased Farms jeeps could not be used for ordinary pick-up purposes. The men complained, he said, that the jeeps "jiggled their livers."

The new pick-up will cost an estimated $2,000 and will replace a unit which was acquired in 1953. The jeeps were purchased at a combined cost of $3,640 and will be used at the pier park and for sweeping sidewalks in the winter, among other things.

After making certain that the jeeps are unsuitable for running errands in the City, the Council agreed to solicit bids for the Express pick-up. One Councilman said as he cast his vote, "I like Oscar and I want to maintain his liver so I'll vote yes."

The "Oscar" whose opinion carries such weight, is better known as Oscar Beaudry, a foreman in the Farms Public Works Department.

Superior handling

One of Cadillac's most appreciated qualities has long been its extreme maneuverability for a car of such stature. A current example of this emphasis on handling ease is a new 1961 front end suspension system which permits a turning diameter importantly less than any other car of comparable wheelbase. Cadillac's superior handling ease quickly becomes evident behind the wheel—as does the incomparable seating comfort you enjoy as driver of the "car of cars."

Street Fight Won by Shores

The Woods has lost its fight with the Shores over the extension of Hollywood avenue.

More than a month ago the Woods decided to take up the cause of the Hollywood residents and go to court to battle for the extension of their street through to Lake Shore.

The council instructed City Attorney Julius Berns to attempt to get an order to restrain the Wayne County Plat Board from approving the Willow Tree Place subdivision plat in the Shores. The court issued a temporary restraining order which prevented the plat from being approved—temporarily.

However, on August 15 Circuit Court Judge Horace W. Gilmore ordered that the temporary restraining order be dissolved and that the plaintiff's petition for the declaration of

Car and Truck in Tangle

Harold Campbell, of 303 Morris, was traveling south on Morris on Friday, August 18, and slowed to allow a car in front of him make a turn. He was struck in the rear by a truck owned by De Petris Florist, of 230 Grosse Pointe Boulevard, and driven by Fred C. Wagner, of 3110 Coplin. Campbell assumed responsibility for the damages which amounted to $125 for the truck and $75 for his own car.

Named to Posts At Bon Secours

The appointment of Sister St. Theophanes as Mother Superior of Bon Secours Hospital in Cadioux road, and the appointment of the hospital administrator, Sister Mary Gertrude, as a provincial councilor, one of four in the United States, were announced by the Generalate of the Congregation of Bon Secours.

Mother St. Theophanes' appointment follows 25 years of service to the sick, the last 13 of which were spent in Grosse Pointe where she has served as supervisor in surgery and as assistant administrator. Born in Johnstown, Penn., she was graduated as a nurse from the Mercy Hospital there. The knowledge that she gained in training she has retained and expanded so that, even today, she frequently relieves in the operating room when an emergency requires it.

Mother St. Theophanes fills the vacancy that occurred when Mother St. Laborius was named Mother Superior of the St. Edmunds Home for Crippled Children in Rosemont, Pennsylvania. Mother St. Laborius' transfer followed the completion of her six years' tenure at Bon Secours, the maximum time that a religious superior can serve in the same position.

The new provincial councilor, Mother Mary Gertrude, came to Grosse Pointe more than 40 years ago when the sisters gave home nursing care. Coming from Willington, Dela., she helped found Bon Secours Hospital and has seen it grow into a first rate medical facility. Her efforts long directed to Grosse Pointe will take on a broader scope as she assumes nation wide responsibilities. Although her new duties will require extensive traveling, she will remain as administrator of the Grosse Pointe hospital.

Four Pointers Taken Off Road

The drivers' licenses of two Pointe motorists were taken away temporarily by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, and two other Pointers had theirs revoked, according to the latest information from James M. Hare, Secretary of State.

Ronald C. Kemp of 1927 Anita, had his license taken away from July 27 through August 27, for having an unsatisfactory driving record.

Craig A. Charters of 1828 Brys drive, had his taken away for a longer period, August 1 through February 1, 1962, because of an unsatisfactory driving record.

Stiffer penalties were given to Roland Eugenio of 1185 Whittier, and Anthony Scaglione of 19956 Wedgewood drive, both of whom had unsatisfactory driving records.

Eugenio's operator's license was revoked as of July 20, and Scaglione's as of July 19.

During the week of July 30, according to Hare, the drivers' licenses of 260 Michigan motorists were suspended and those of 21 were revoked by the Michigan Department of State.

Con-Con Candidates Set To Air Views on Sunday

Rockwell T. Gust, Jr., rumored candidate for Governor, is among the Con-Con candidates who will speak at the Unitarian Church in Grosse Pointe Sunday, August 27.

A candidate for the 1st Senatorial District delegacy, (representing the Grosse Pointes, Harper Woods, and Detroit's 21st ward), Republican Gust will face his opponent, Louis Rabaut, at the meeting. Rabaut is a son of the Congressman by the same name.

Other candidates speaking on "Con-Con: Creative Force in Society" will be Democrat Phillip Koerner and Republican William B. Cudlip. Both men seek to represent the 13th House District (Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods) at the Constitutional Convention.

Expressing what he considers the most important issues of the convention, each candidate will be allowed 15 minutes to speaking. It is expected that questions will follow.

Gust, the most controversial figure of the group, has indicated that he will stress the importance of re-apportionment, appointment by the Governor of the administration, and tax revision. Before primary election, in which he received the largest number of votes cast for any Wayne County Republican, he spoke at numerous rallies and meetings about his plan for re-apportionment of the legislature.

"I firmly believe that the House should be apportioned strictly in accordance with the 1960 census," Gust said. "Whether or not my particular political party will pick up legislators, I cannot say. That is hardly a rational basis for a decision here. What is important is that each voter in the State of Michigan, wherever he lives, is as well represented numerically as every other voter."

"This can only be accomplished through fair representation in the House of Representatives. Of course I believe that the Senate should continue to reflect both population and area. I have heard no discussion of denying Rhode Island or Utah their United States Senators. The same principle applies to outstate Michigan." Gust then said that he did think the State Senate should be re-apportioned to reflect population shifts in the southeastern part of the state.

This meeting, the last in a series of Adult Forums, will begin at 8 p.m. August 27 at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17440 E. Jefferson.

Using a new light source called a LASER, four University of Michigan physicists have for the first time produced an overtone of a beam of light.

83 Kindergarten Children Tested

Eighty-three boys and girls have been tested so far this year in the special testing program for children who are too young to qualify for regular admittance to kindergarten in September, Dr. James Bushong, superintendent of schools, told the Board of Education on Monday.

Of these children, 36 or 43.4 percent were judged ready for possible early entrance to school. The final decision rests with the parents of these children.

The testing program is designed for children whose fifth birthdays fall after December 1, the cut-off date for regular enrollment, and before the end of January. Traits such as emotional, social, and intellectual maturity are measured by the school psychologists. Recommendations are then made as to the desirability of enrolling the various applicants.

Two primary considerations are the child's ability to talk in sentences which are intelligible to others than the immediate family, and a demonstrated willingness to separate completely from the parents for at least a half day.

Dr. Bushong stated that a usual year will find upwards of 100 children being tested in this program and typically about one-half are found sufficiently mature to make an early start. The testing program will be continued until mid-September to insure that all who wish the opportunity will be able to take advantage of it.

Other disbursements were—scholarships, $600; tools for the Tool Library, $247.03; Antiques Show advance expense account, $2,000; Polio Foundation for Youth Group, $25; Disaster assistance Rotary Club of Ancud, Chile, $95; St. Mary's Nursing Home, $391.75; Orphans Theater Party, $50; Wolvener Boys State, $92; wheel chair for Rotary invalid equipment, $95.38; and Grosse Pointe War Memorial contribution, $100.

Still more: coaches for Safety Patrol Boys, $99; Bicycle Safety Program, $211.50; Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League, $25; Neighborhood Club Basketball League, $50; Therapy for needy pupil, $50; High School Citizenship Watch Award, $124.50; special tutoring case, $100; Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, $25; Grosse Pointe Park Little League, $25; and deposits in special saving account, $3,000.

5,100 Get Polio Vaccine Shots

Approximately 5,100 polio shots of Salk vaccine were given at Eastland Center last week, according to Dr. Thomas Davies, Pointe Health Commissioner.

A portable unit was brought to this area by the Wayne County Health Department in conjunction with its policy of making the shots available to the citizens of all the Detroit area communities. Dr. Davies said.

In three days of operation, 5,030 persons came to receive the vaccine. Nearly 100 children received two shots. Total number of persons treated each day were: Thursday, 1994; Friday, 1534; and Saturday, 1502.

Tentative starting date for the Wayne County X-ray unit to begin operation at Eastland is September 2. Chest X-rays for tuberculosis will be given for four weeks. Hours on Tuesday and Friday will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Other days the X-ray unit will be in operation from 1 to 9 p.m.

Woman Injured In Farms Traffic

One person was injured when two cars collided at Kercheval and Hall place on Monday, August 14. Damage to both vehicles was extensive.

A Farms police report disclosed that Joseph E. Burke of 1123 Yorkshire was stopped on Kercheval, waiting for the red light to change, when he was struck in the rear by Melvin R. Baldwin of 2414 Camel, Warren. Both drivers were heading east.

Baldwin told police that he did not see Burke's car in time to avoid the collision. Damage to Baldwin's car was estimated at $700 and to Burke's, $450.

Burke's wife, Mildred, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by police ambulance when she complained of an injured back. Baldwin was given a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

Lochmoor Club Swimmers Close Successful Season

By Bill Bullard

Lochmoor Club ended the most successful swimming season in its short history last Sunday by placing fourth in the finals of the Inter-Club championships on Sunday, August 20, at Dearborn Country Club.

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club was fifth and Country Club of Detroit was tenth in the twelve-team meet. Lochmoor was also awarded a trophy for winning the dual meet championship of the White League. The dual meet championship was clinched with a 162-120 victory over Grosse Isle Country Club on Thursday, August 17, at the Lochmoor pool.

Two Presented Trophies
Neal Bauer of Lochmoor received a trophy for scoring more points than any other boy in the White League during the dual meet season. Kathy Cross of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club received a similar trophy for outscoring all other girls in the Blue League. This was Neal's last season for Lochmoor but Kathy has one more summer of Inter-Club competition left.

The Detroit Boat Club, dual meet champion of the White League, won the team championship of the Inter-Club finals with 152 points. Detroit Golf Club (117 points) and Western Golf and Country Club (93 points) placed second and third. Lochmoor Club was fourth with 63 points and was followed by Grosse Pointe Yacht Club (52 points), Detroit Yacht Club (50 points), Plum Hollow Golf Club (42 points), Grosse Isle Country Club (32 points), Country Club of Detroit (27 points), Dearborn Country Club (20 points), and Oakland Hills Country Club (4 points).

May Be Elevated
Because of its impressive showing this season, Lochmoor Club may be elevated to the tougher Blue League next season. In the Inter-Club, finals, Lochmoor lost to three Blue League teams but placed higher than Blue League members Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Detroit Yacht Club and Oakland Hills Country Club.

Ten records were broken and six other new records were set in new events in the 25-event meet. Lisa Beckenhauer of Lochmoor swam the girls' eight years old and under 25-meter freestyle in the record time of 17.2 seconds. The record of 19.0 seconds was set by Robin Pearson of the Detroit Boat Club in the 1960 meet. Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Kathy Paddon was third and Lochmoor's Lauri Simon was fourth in the same event. Lisa will be back to defend her title next season when she will be eight years old.

Close Freestyle Race
Leslie Beckenhauer won the girls' 13-14 years old 50-meter freestyle in 32.0 seconds. FLOWER POTS STOLEN

Mrs. Chase Morsey, Jr., of 510 Sheldon, told Shores Police on August 19 that an unknown party stole two redwood flower pots off her front porch. She described the pots as being painted black and having two gold bands. She said they were 12 inches in diameter, 18 inches high, and were filled with white gravel. In the pots were boards four feet high and topped with artificial leaves and red cherries. They are valued at $50 each.

BACKS INTO CAR

A minor accident occurred in front of 1331 Wayburn on Saturday evening, August 19. Margaret M. Reith, of 1331 Wayburn, was backing out of her driveway and failed to see a car driven by Claire J. Ryckman, of 1266 Wayburn. No complaint was filed.

Win Trophy for Their New Home

Not only are CAROL KIBIGER and OTTO SCHERER, JR. engaged, but they are also the new international champions in the Penguin Sailing Class. They won the title in the series of races held last week at the Crescent Sail Yacht Club. Carol and Otto, both of the Pointe, will have a pretty important item for their trophy case in the home they will establish after their wedding.

Sails and Skis

By Frank McBride

The majority of the sailing fleet has returned from cruising and are once again settling down to the Saturday afternoon DRYA regattas which resumed last weekend with the Edison Boat Club regatta.

From appearances it seemed that far more boats than ever cruised the North Channel and Georgian Bay this year. During the three weeks we spent aboard FANTASY we encountered more of every type of boat from outboard cruisers to very large yachts than in the past.

Light winds prevailed last Saturday for the 174 boats that answered the starting gun of the Edison Boat Club Regatta. Toot Gmiener's APACHE captured Cruising "A" honors by finishing first both boat and on corrected time. Henry Burkard's METEOR III did the same in Cruising "B".

JAYELIN, a brand new 35 ft. sloop owned by Don Sucher of the Great Lakes Yacht Club gave the Cruising "C" fleet a real beating on her maiden race on Lake St. Clair. She finished two minutes behind LOTUS II owned by Bob Zell also of the Great Lakes Yacht Club. LOTUS which led the Cruising "C" fleet boat for boat would have placed second on corrected time except for a protest by LAST STRAW which was sustained. As the Cruising "A" class was heading for the starting line, LAST STRAW is in this class, LOTUS crossed the restricted zone diagonally under a combination of power and sail, interfering with the start.

The 37th Annual Bayview Yacht Club Port Huron to Mackinac Island Race has become history. Before placing it in the archives it seems appropriate to briefly sum up the event.

All sorts of records were broken. Race Chairman H. C. "Sandy" McGregor's committee received 103 entries, 99 boats crossed the starting line, and 97 finished, all of which are new all time highs. The first boats arrived just before midnight Sunday and the last of the

Betrothed Pair Sailing Champs

A young Grosse Pointe couple who are engaged and planning to be married on August 26, made a winning team last week to win the International Penguin sailing championship on Lake St. Clair.

Otto Scherer, of Berkshire road, and Carol Kibiger, of Lochmoor boulevard, sailed Scherer's maize and blue colored Penguin in the race. Scherer, who was graduated from the University of Michigan last June as an aeronautical engineer, built his boat at home. His finishes were 4-1-1-4-3.

First prize was a huge, sterling silver bowl, symbolic of the International championship. Scherer won the championship with 148.5 points. Second place winner was Jerry Jenkins, of the Farms. F. Gardner Cox, of Philadelphia, who was the defending champion, was third, and Dennis Conner, of San Diego, was fourth.

In the first race, Jenkins was penalized 13.1 points for unintentionally fouling another boat and he finished 134.9 points. Without the penalty, he still would have come in second, but he and Scherer would have been only .5 of a point apart.

Need Clothing For Children

"Retail stores of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit are currently outfitting hundreds of children in Detroit and surrounding area for their return to school in September," said John E. Hopkins, Executive Director.

"In order for us to meet the requirements of low-income families, whose number has increased tremendously as a result of the economic decline this past year, Goodwill Industries urges you to examine your children's clothes today. If there are any articles of clothing that your children have outgrown or that are in need of repair, your contribution of these materials to Goodwill would make it possible for us to fill the needs of families less fortunate than yours and, at the same time, keep the handicapped employees at Goodwill Industries working on a full-time basis," Hoskins concluded.

For a truck pick-up at your home, call TRINITY 3-3600. If you live in Detroit. If you live in the suburbs, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002, or consult your local telephone directory.

Speaking of Lawbreakers

The tobacco companies won't be sending us any bouquets, but we can't help disseminating a fascinating bit of information which has been provided us this week. It all came about through the announcement by the Board of Education that a rather drastic change will be made this year in the program at Grosse Pointe High school. The "reorganized or continuous school day," a modification of the bell schedule will be inaugurated with the start of the new school year on September 7.

The reorganization involves a change from the former seven-period plus lunch hour day to one divided into six periods and an abbreviated hour break. Each of the six class periods will be an hour in length as opposed to the former 45-minute sessions. The school day will be of the same duration, but the students will have 45 minutes more of instructional time, considered a significant gain.

In addition to the longer instruction periods, the new program is expected to eliminate many harassing programs which have been associated with the noon hour. The student body will be divided into two groups, each being allowed 30-minute lunch periods. Additional feeding facilities are being established in the girls' gymnasium to supplement the cafeteria.

With the creation of practically a closed campus, needless driving of cars during the noon hour and congregating of students on the streets and in business places with attendant problems should be eliminated.

The announcement of the new program prompted us to inquire if any provisions would be made to allow the students to smoke within the High School building.

The answer we received provides the fascinating information which will probably surprise many readers as much as it did us. There has been a state law since 1915 which prohibits the "selling, giving or furnishing of cigarettes to minors, prohibits the use of cigarettes by minors, and prohibits the harboring of minors for the purpose of indulging in the use of cigarettes." This is a direct quote from Act 31, 1915, p. 42, eff. Aug. 24. The rest of the act follows:

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Cigarettes; furnished to minor, penalty. Section 1. Any person within this state who sells, gives or in any way furnishes any cigarettes in any form to any person under twenty-one (21) years of age shall be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty (50) dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed thirty (30) days for each offense.

Same; use by minor in public; penalty. Sec. 2. Any person under twenty-one (21) years of age who shall smoke or use cigarettes in any form, on any public highway, street, alley, park or other land used for public purposes, or in any public place of business or amusement, may be arrested by any officer of the law, who may be cognizant of such offense; and further, it shall be the duty of such officer upon complaint of any person and upon warrant properly issued to arrest such offenders and take them to the proper court. In case the offender is found guilty the court may impose a penalty in its discretion in the sum of not to exceed ten (10) dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed five (5) days for each offense.

Harboring minors for indulgence in cigarettes; right of parents. Sec. 3. Any person who knowingly harbors any person under twenty-one (21) years of age, or grants to them the privilege of gathering upon or frequenting any property or lands held by him, for the purpose of indulging in the use of cigarettes in any form, shall be held under the same penalty as provided for under section one (1) of this act: Provided, That no part of this act shall be construed as to interfere with the right of parents, or lawful guardians in the rearing and management of their minor children or wards within the bounds of their own private premises.

If ever a law was flagrantly violated, this is it. But can you imagine how many officers it would take to enforce the act? Establishment of a smoking center in the High School building would of course be a violation of the law, strict enforcement of which would make the public school system subject to fine.

It is pretty frightening to think how many law breakers we are gazing at and associating with constantly as we walk the streets, sit in the smoking lounge at the Punch and Judy, enter a store or do most anything, any place. Thank goodness they are not hardened criminals, and the harm they are doing is confined to themselves.

We have noticed that more and more young people in recent years have shunned the adoption of the smoking habit. We wish we had been smart enough at that age to have done likewise. Maybe the tighter restrictions at Grosse Pointe High will add a few more to the ranks of the abstainers.

And if any of our municipalities ever get in a really tight financial jam, we have an idea where they could recoup in a hurry, if they could get the courts to back them up in enforcing the law against smoking by minors.

Teachers Win Honors, Praise

Dr. James Bushong, Grosse Pointe public school superintendent, recently commended three staff members who received professional honors from outside agencies.

Dr. Stanley Cook, head of the English department at the High School, has been appointed a judge in the National Council of English Achievement Awards competition. As such, he will play an important role in determining award winners and making a significant contribution to the teaching of English in this country.

Dr. John Hakenjos, Parcels Industrial Arts teacher, was awarded the John Herman Trybom Memorial Library certificate of service by Wayne State University this summer. This recognition was for his contribution in locating texts and reference materials associated with industrial arts.

"Trends," a publication of the National School Public Relations Association, gave some publicity to a Handbook for Substitute Teachers developed by Principal John Hammet and the Poupard School staff this past year. Some 139 requests for copies were received from all states in the Union and Puerto Rico.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: Virginia Leonard

This is summer vacation time. Beaches, forests, mountains and similar spendors of nature, as well as urban pleasures, lure us to their milieus, for enjoyment, relaxation and participation in their activities.

And where do books fit into this picture? Aside from the books set aside for reading on lazy warm days, do we remember the printed page, or do we have much contact with reading materials from June to September?

Let me tell you of my recent experience in New England—the results of a trip including Boston, Cape Ann, several suburbs of Boston, Plymouth, and a stopover at Cooperstown, New York. We arrived at our hostess' home in Scituate, Massachusetts (a suburb of Boston) in mid-afternoon, only to discover a play being performed by a bevy of small-fry.

"Look at my hat!" screamed one small girl. "Do you know who I am?"

My first guess was the Mad Hatter in Alice in Wonderland, and I was wrong, she was the cat in The Cat in the Hat Comes Back, by the inimitable Dr. Seuss! And what a performance it was, with pink blobs to the right and left of us!

A few days later we took a walking tour of Boston, following the Freedom Trail, which includes many historical landmarks. One out of the fifteen stops, and was the Old Corner Bookstore, first between 1712-1715. It was built an apothecary shop, and then a bookstore for nearly three-quarters of a century. During Boston's literary heyday it was a meeting place for such celebrities as Longfellow, Emerson, Hawthorne and Harriet Beecher

Stowe. Later in the day we wandered into Goodspeeds and browsed among the books, tempted by many bargains among the older books and relaxing in the quiet atmosphere.

Again, the lovely little town of Scituate provided us with evidence of books in several instances. First, with an eye-catching display in a bookstore of The Making of the President, 1960 by T. H. White; and later, a quick trip to their small but satisfactory library provided us with an opportunity to peruse their collection (incognito of course!).

A day's visit to the Plymouth Rock area included, as do all trips with small children, much time spent on the selection of souvenirs. I was interested to note that among their displays in the shops, many good books were for sale, both fiction and non-fiction, and embracing all facets of Colonial living in America. This same type of thing was in evidence later in Cooperstown at the Baseball Hall of Fame, where the type of material consisted largely of books on baseball and biographies of baseball "greats" such as Babe Ruth.

Our conversations with friends included discussions of books old and new, and articles, and provocative articles currently appearing in periodicals. Thus we felt that our summer trip East, which included swimming, fishing, dining, and sight-seeing was further enriched by our contacts, planned and unplanned, with our old friends in many guises—books!

GARAGE THEFT TOLD

From Another Pointe of View

"It's just not true what they say about British cooking", says Mrs. Jean Mesritz, who has returned from several weeks abroad and hails London as her favorite city.

While Mr. and Mrs. Mesritz were in England they saw the exciting production of Terence Rattigan's new play, "Ross", the story of Lawrence of Arabia. Mrs. M. also did some browsing and buying in the bookstalls of Charing Cross, along with the usual sight seeing.

The couple drove to Kent to have dinner with Sir Henry and Lady Moore. Lady Moore was here a year ago visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Tait Hall. After England the Mesritzes flew to Geneva where they rented a car, toured Switzerland and then went on to Paris. In that sojourn city they ran into the Frank Donovans and Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Rosenfeld, Pointers also vacationing in the city of light.

From Paris the pair went to Amsterdam to visit Mr. Mesritz' relatives. In September Hans Mesritz will return their visit and spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Mesritz in their Lothrop road home.

Report on Peace Corps

One of the members of the first contingent training for President Kennedy's U. S. Peace Corps, Daniel M. Wemhoff will be home in Kensington this Friday to give a first hand report of the preparations to his excited parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wemhoff.

Daniel, who has been doing post graduate work in political science at Wayne, was among the first to sign up for the Peace Corps, for he wants to go into foreign service as a career. He joined a group training at Rutgers University and is destined for duty in Colombia, South America.

He will arrive this week-end in time to attend a week of pre-wedding festivities for his sister, Nancy, who will marry Frederick Cadek September 2 in St. Clare of Montefalco Church. Daniel will be an usher at the wedding. He will be home ten days before reporting back to New York and Peace Corps duties.

GPYC Fetes Fathers, Sons

All sorts of components made up the exciting Father and Son Day at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Thursday. The party really ran in two sections, both great fun.

The one group came for early lunch at the club, going to the ballgame, then coming back to GPYC for entertainment and the banquet; the other group came only for the late afternoon and evening part of the party.

Going to the ballgame at Tiger Stadium was a tremendous thrill. Three chartered buses loaded with dads and boys had a motorcycle escort which kept sirens wide open all the way, it seemed.

The game between the Tigers and Baltimore Orioles was fun, too, up to the time the Tigers' losing streak set in and the Orioles took the game. However, there were more thrills ahead, and the buses hurried the ballgame crowd back to GPYC to join up with the 100 dads and sons waiting there.

While swimming races and diving went on at the outdoor pool, other lads either were taking scooter rides around the grounds or cruising in the harbor aboard the "African Queen", a canopied craft reminiscent of the gas-powered launch of some years back.

"Take Me Out To The Ballgame" strains by a strolling accordionist greeted Tiger players and broadcasters who were guests at the party, among them catchers Frank House and Dick Brown, pitcher Jerry Staley, trainer Jack Homel, Mike Rourke, George Kell and Ernie Harwell.

The banquet was in the ballroom with the throng seated at tables for eight. With Arthur Wroek were his sons Bill and Chuck and Doug Fox, and with J. J. Gorman, Jr. were Jim and Bob Cleary.

J. Edgar Duncan, his son, John E., and his four grandsons, Jack, Bill and Bruce Duncan and Shawn Evan Appleby, together with George Kell and Ernie Harwell, were at a table just in front of the bandstand where Arthur Quatro's group dispensed the party music.

Hafor Kerbawy and son Kris, Herbert W. Hart and Jay, James Smith with his Chuck, John and Jim and their guest, Mike Sprague, James Fitzgerald and his quartet, Mike, Tim, Terry and Danny, and Emmett Paddon with Michael and Patrick were among the party-goers.

Bryan A. Chaplow, chairman of the fete, was busy seeing that all ran smoothly—his son Tom and son-in-law Joseph Machiorlatti were with him, also his brother Walter Chaplow and the latter's son Michael and son-in-law Daniel Barril.

Como, John R. Wilt, Vice Como, Paul I. Moreland, and Rear Como, J. Earl Fraser and the latter's son, Jim, were at a central table, and nearby were Ed Schoenherr with Rick, John and Blay; Dr. Harold E. Cross and Kevin; Hans Gehrke, Jr. and Bill; John Paynter with Tom and Skip Beltz.

William M. Schmidt brought his boys, Bill and John, and his father, Fred Schmidt, and with them was Lee Radke. Carl Anderson and his John and Bobby were chatting with Howard Shaw and Teddy, and Dolph Lozelle and his son Jim. Noted in another group were Daniel Holefa and his triplet sons, Dan, Dean and Dennis.

Mike, Brad and Brian Kolowich had shiny new baseballs which, their father, Fred Kolowich, explained, had been provided by their thoughtful mother—and the trio quietly and politely garnered a goodly showing of autographs from the Tigers present. Fred Somes Jr. and his Jon, Howard Girardin and Peter, and Charles Monahan with his Mike and Tom dined together. With Russell D. VanHoulen were sons Buzz and Peter, and their guest, Stuart Merrill Jr.

More than 20 per cent of the regular faculty of The University of Michigan College of Literature, Science and the Arts received specific job offers from other institutions during the past year.

He revved her up to 55 at 100 feet altitude in a test, and said, "It was like learning to fly all over again." Center Offers Class in Art

An art class in painting and drawing will begin this Monday night, August 28, at 7:30. It will be taught on consecutive Monday nights through October 2 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, by Steve Davis.

New students may enroll now for a half term of lessons at $13.50. Students working with Mr. Davis last year presented an outstanding exhibition of their work last May at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The exhibition showed dramatically the art development taking place among the students in this group, some of whom have been painting only a short time.

This year new advanced work will be undertaken. People with background and experience in basic drawing and painting are invited to join this class. Emphasis on color, design and composing of ideas will be particularly studied. Mr. Davis is currently teaching his summer school courses with the Bay City Art Association. He also teaches classes in Detroit at the Brightmoor Community Center and the Howell Art Guild, Howell, Mich. He is connected with the Anna L. Werpe Galleries where a reception will be held for him this fall.

Previously well known in other fields of art, in recent years his interest in portraiture has led him to the painting of many outstanding portraits, a number of which are in collections in the Detroit and suburban areas.

Mr. Davis is represented nationally and internationally in the Louvre, Modern Museum of Art, New York; Whitney Museum; and Denver Museum. He has murals in the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C.; Baltimore Post Office; Colorado Light and Power Company; and Great Lakes Bowling Center, Detroit.

He studied with Picasso and won third prize in painting at the 1959 International Cultural and Artistic Competition. In recent years he has painted many outstanding portraits, a group of which were shown this year at the Detroit City Women's Club.

To Shift Lights In Radnor Circle

The Farms Council agreed August 21 to the purchase of two new streetlights and the removal of one existing light in Radnor circle.

The change was recommended by the City Engineer as the result of a communication which was received from Roy A. Moxley, 35 Radnor, on May 8 stating that the lighting on the curve of the street was insufficient.

The City Engineer consulted representatives from Detroit Edison and contacted residents in the area. Seven replies were received from residents, five were in favor of the additional lighting and two stated minor objections.

Hold-up Report False Alarm

Detroit police demonstrated the spirit of cooperation existing between the police departments in the area, when on Wednesday, August 16, three Detroit police cars were dispatched to the scene of a reported hold-up in the Farms. It was a false alarm.

According to a Farms police report, an unknown person called Detroit authorities and informed them that a hold-up was in progress at the Standard Gas Station, Mack and Moross.

The Detroit police dispatcher relayed the message to Farms police, then, to avoid any possibility of the bandits making a getaway, sent the Detroit cruisers to the scene.

All Farms police cars were sent to the gas station, where Farms officers found Detroit policemen already there and waiting for them.

After the Detroit policemen were thanked for their cooperation, all cars returned to their respective beats.

PLANTER VANISHES. H. E. Jaubert, 491 Cook road, reported the theft of a redwood planter which was stolen from his back yard during the night of August 17. He valued the planter at $10.

Counterattack Freedom School Opens on Monday

The Counterattack Freedom School opens its five-day program next Monday, August 28, in the Memorial Building at the University of Detroit. The School's program runs through Friday, September 1.

Both daytime and evening activities are scheduled. The dominant theme of the school will be how an individual can learn to fight Communism.

The Counterattack Freedom School is sponsored by Education For American Freedom, Inc., a non-profit Detroit group.

"Never before has such a group of competent speakers been brought together on such a vital topic," says William W. Neubecker, Jr.

Neubecker, of Wyandotte, Michigan, is president of Education For American Freedom, Inc. He continued:

"This is an opportunity to learn just what Communism is and how it operates. The speakers we have on the program have had actual contact with the Communists. Some have themselves been members of the Communist Party. One has attempted to deal with them on a diplomatic level and another spent nine years in Soviet prison camps. And all the speakers are authorities on the subject."

"They know what they are talking about," he said.

Herbert Philbrick, speaking on the first day of the program, is a former FBI-Counterespionage member of a Communist cell. Bella V. Dodd is a former top woman office-holder in the Communist Party.

Frank S. Meyer, now Associate Editor of The National Review magazine, is a former Communist.

Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi is former Finance Minister for Hungary and currently Director of the School of International Studies at Bradley University.

John Noble is a native Detroit who tells of his nine years spent in Soviet prison camps in his book, "I Was a Slave in Russia."

Education For American Freedom, Inc., has two primary aims: To promote a greater appreciation of America and the American way-of-life and also to help others to educate themselves about Communism.

Both aims are carried out in the program of the Counterattack Freedom School.

"Once one knows what Communism is and how it operates, then he can do something about it," Neubecker says. "With one-fourth of the land surface of the world and one-third of all the peoples of the world under Communist control, Communism presents a very real threat to Americans."

"That's why we've planned our program this way—with 20 speakers, scheduled discussion groups and motion pictures. It will give Americans the opportunity to understand the Communist menace they're up against."

The discussion group meetings will follow the lectures. "It is in these discussion groups that Americans can learn how they themselves can carry the story of the Communist threat to their own friends and neighbors. We feel that this is important," Neubecker says.

Other speakers on the program include U.S. Senator Thomas Dodd, (D., Conn.), Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski of Michigan and William J. Edwards. Also speaking are Rev. Stanley Parry, C.S.C., and Dr. Gerhart Niemeyer, both of the Department of Political Science at the University of Notre Dame, and Dr. Charles Lowry, an Episcopal minister.

Tickets for the Counterattack Freedom School can be obtained through Grinnell's, the University of Detroit ticket office or from Post Office Box 4602, Detroit 34, Michigan. Tickets for the full five-day program are $10; other tickets are $3 per day or $1 per two-lecture session.

Air Force Academy Accepts Mike Lynch

Cadet Michael J. Lynch, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lynch, of 130 Hall place, Grosse Pointe Farms, has successfully completed seven weeks of basic cadet training at the United States Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Class of 1965, of which he is a member, was formally accepted into the Cadet Wing at a parade and ceremony held Aug. 17. They began their formal academic training along with the rest of the 2,200-man Cadet Wing when the Academy started its school year on Aug. 21.

The acceptance ceremony marked the end of the training period which began for the 800-man class on June 26, when they arrived at the Academy to begin a four-year course of study leading to Regular Air Force commissions as second lieutenants and bachelor of science degrees.

Under the leadership of Academy's upperclassmen, the new cadets received a total of 463 hours of summer training. In its broadest aspects the training covered the fields of basic military training, physical conditioning; the growth and development of the Air Force; physiological indoctrination, which acquaints the basic cadets with such matters as problems of high altitude flight and bodily reactions to conditions encountered; and an introduction to flying training, including orientation flights in operational aircraft.

Chimaging basic cadet training was a one-week land survival program in which the cadets received instruction in survival techniques and applied what they learned in a 22-mile trek through the wilderness.

Roche Named To ARA Post

The appointment of Redmond H. Roche, Jr., Detroit attorney, as special assistant to Area Redevelopment Administrator William L. Batt, Jr., has been announced.

The ARA is the Federal Government's new program of aiding areas of chronic and persistent unemployment to improve their economic conditions and thereby provide more job opportunities for their citizens.

Mr. Roche, who has served as a consultant to ARA since June, had been assistant general counsel to the United Automobile Workers, AFL-CIO, in Detroit, for eight years. Prior to his UAUI post, from 1951 to 1953, he was with the anti-trust division of the Justice Department, stationed in Detroit. In 1950-51, he was also in the patent law section of General Motors Corp.

A graduate of the University of Michigan in 1946 with a chemical engineering degree, Mr. Roche studied law at the University of Detroit. He graduated in 1949, and was admitted to practice of law in Michigan the same year.

He is a World War II Navy veteran, and resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Redmond H. Roche, in Grosse Pointe Woods. Mr. Roche is 35 years old.

Youth Admits Theft of $40

One youth was given a suspended sentence in the Woods court, and another was freed after both had been arrested on warrants charging them with larceny under $100.

James E. Adams, 17, of 35612 Weideman, Mt. Clemens, pled guilty as charged, at a hearing held before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Monday, August 14, and was given 90 days in the Wayne County Jail. The sentence was suspended, and Adams was placed on probation to the Wayne County Probation Department for one year, and ordered to pay court costs of $75 within 60 days.

Charles E. Poole, 18, of 21072 Sunfolk, Mt. Clemens, entered a plea of not guilty. He was found innocent and the case against him was dismissed.

On Friday, August 11, Woods Patrolmen Kenneth Metcalf and Bernard Kelly were stopped at Edmuntson, east of Chalevoix, by St. Clair Shores police, who stated they were holding Adams and Poole on complaint of Allan Law, 18, of 23280 Doramus, who reported that the youths had stolen $40 from him.

Adams and Poole were taken to the Woods station where they were questioned and Adams admitted that he had taken the money. After questioning by police, Adams and Poole were released, after which Adams went to the police car in which he and Poole were riding, and retrieved $20 from underneath the rear seat of the vehicle.

Adams told police that the balance of the money was under the right front seat of Poole's car, apparently placed there without Poole's knowledge. The money was recovered.

The warrants for the arrest of the youths was recommended by Asst. Pros. Dale Devlin.

Law, Adams and Poole were together in Poole's car, when Law missed the money.

Two Injured As Cars Tangle

Two persons were injured in an accident at the corner of Maryland and Vernor early Sunday morning.

Mary E. Courval, of 1374 Maryland, driving north on Maryland, failed to make a complete stop at the Vernor intersection and struck a car driven by Terrence K. Glynn, of Benton Harbor, going east on Vernor.

Mary Ann Glynn, wife of the driver of the second car was taken to Bon Secours Hospital with both arms and legs injured. Gretchen Cannon, another passenger in the same car was treated at the hospital for an injured right shoulder.

Miss Courval was ticketed for pulling out into moving traffic.

Damage to her car was estimated at $450. Damage to the second car amounted to approximately $100.

Damage to the third car, another Michigan Consolidated Gas truck, driven by James Marshall, of 6367 Grandville, Detroit, amounted to about $35.

Named Agent

The New York Life Insurance Company has announced the appointment of NEIL T. BROWN, 114 Merriweather, as a representative in the Grosse Pointe area according to Charles E. Wood, General Manager of the Company's Detroit Office in the First National Building. Neil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Brown and is a graduate of Hamilton College, Clinton, New York.

Passenger Hurt As Cars Crash

A three-car collision occurred at the intersection of Moross road and Kercheval avenue last Thursday noon. One passenger was taken to Bon Secours Hospital afterwards for treatment of injuries.

Injured was Jack Hodgson, of 315 Beaupre, a passenger in a car driven by Hazel R. King, of the same address. He was treated for cuts in his left forearm.

Miss King was traveling east on Kercheval and was making a left turn at Moross. She did not see a truck, owned by Michigan Consolidated Gas, and driven by Frank A. Gary, of 21761 Cushing, East Detroit, traveling west on Kercheval, in time to change her mind about the turn or avoid an accident. After the impact the first car was pushed into a third car, which had stopped on Moross waiting for the red light.

Miss King was ticketed for making an improper left turn and steering in front of moving traffic.

Damage to her car was estimated at $450. Damage to the second car amounted to approximately $100.

Damage to the third car, another Michigan Consolidated Gas truck, driven by James Marshall, of 6367 Grandville, Detroit, amounted to about $35.

Public Schools Expect 10,500

Enrollment in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools this fall is expected to reach 10,500 according to a recent report from Dr. James Bushong, superintendent of schools.

Of this number, the elementary schools should enroll more than 5,760, the junior high schools about 2,475, and the senior high school approximately 2,260, Dr. Bushong said.

Last June at the end of the school year, there was a system-wide total of 10,463, of which 5,814 were registered in elementary, 2,455 in junior high, and 2,194 in senior high school.

Bar Owners' Appeal Denied

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission turned down an appeal made by the owners of the Baby Grand Bar, 15222 Charlevoix, for a reversal of a fine and license suspension, Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers was informed on Monday, August 14.

Commission officials said that the appeal hearing was held on Thursday, August 3, and a ruling of a 30-day suspension and a $250 fine was upheld.

The fine and suspension order was given on June 14, when the bar owners were found guilty of serving liquor on Sundays, Chief Louwers said.

The chief said the Liquor Commission order will be carried out, effective as of September 11. If the fine is not paid, an additional 50 days suspension will be imposed, the chief added.

Lands in Jail For Violations

George Parke Dowler, 16090 Novara, Detroit, and Daniel Francis Carbery, 10121 Grayton, Detroit, were apprehended by Shores police on August 16 and charged with illegal possession of alcoholic beverages. Both were fined $25 by Shores Judge J. Gillis.

Carbery, who was driving, was given an additional fine of $25 and ordered to spend two days in the Village jail for violating a driving probation.

Shores Police had retained his operator's license since April 12, 1960, when Carbery was caught for speeding in the Shores. He was put on two years' probation because he carried no public liability insurance.

Headlines of the Week

approved foreign aid bills Friday night, but differed on whether to give President Kennedy his long-range overseas loan program.

Corp. ignored the union request for salaries for hourly rated workers. General union feeling over the offer was that it was not acceptable.

A NEW NOTE of firmness, injected by President Kennedy today, strengthened the U.S. commitment to preserve West Berlin in the face of Soviet pressure.

SEPARATE MEETINGS with officials of the Detroit Free Press and Miami Local 46 of the Pressmen's Union were set today by the National Labor Relations Board.

PUBLICATION of the Detroit Free Press was halted Sunday by a token picket line of Florida pressmen which Detroit pressmen refused to cross.

LICENSE PLATE MISSING
Russell VanHauss of 2071 Oxford, informed Woods police that the rear license plate and license tag were lost from his car.

LAWN SWEEPER STOLEN
Richard Kassy, 2081 Norwood, told Woods Police on August 18 that a 20 inch Parkette lawn sweeper has been taken from his garage sometime during the past month.

Sunday, August 20
A BUILD-UP of Soviet military forces along the West German border was confirmed today. News of the build-up came as Vice President Johnson flew into West Berlin with assurances that the American people will never let the city down.

Other Knight newspapers, the Akron Beacon-Journal and the Charlotte Observer were not picketed Saturday.

President Kennedy made a new plea for his battered multibillion foreign aid program today. He said that the $20 billion "Alliance for Progress" foreign aid program for Latin America required long-range authority to finance America's foreign aid commitments.

Earlier West Berlin welcomed U.S. troop reinforcements on their arrival at the city border and during a parade along the Kurfurstendamm. The Vice President was almost overwhelmed by chering, weeping Berliners as he greeted Col. Glover S. Johns, Jr., the unit's commander, at the city frontier.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY cut short his weekend on Cape Cod to get a first-hand report today from Vice President Johnson on his mission to West Germany. Kennedy kept in close touch with the Berlin situation over the week end.

THE DETROIT FREE PRESS today filed an unfair labor practice charge with the National Labor Relations Board. It charged Miami Local 46 of the Pressmen's Union with secondary boycott activities in violation of the Landrum-Griffin Act, which covers labor-management relations. Detroit pressmen have declined to cross the picket line.

THE BIG THREE auto companies today made almost identical offers to the UAW of a three-year contract highlighted by several provisions. One was a general wage increase starting at six cents an hour for hourly rated employees.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
Kerby School
Sunday: 10:30 a.m. Significance for today of the healing theology of Christ Jesus will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include this verse from Matthew (9): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"The highest earthly representative of God, speaking of human ability to reflect divine power, prophetically said to his disciples, speaking not for their day only but for all time: 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and 'These signs shall follow them that believe'" (p. 52).

Monday evening Mrs. Parker appeared at the Woods council meeting to petition for a permit to move her building into the Woods from its present site, 809 Lakeshore in the Shores.

However, a Woods ordinance provides that where a party wants to move his home into the city, the council can hear the appeal but first the building must conform to the building code. Plans and specifications must be submitted to the building inspector.

Mrs. Parker has failed to do this. So there is nothing tangible that the building inspector can act upon and take to the council.

Mrs. Parker has admitted that the historic structure does not exactly follow the Woods code. Some of the ceilings are too low and part of the wiring does not meet specifications.

Other technicalities deviate from the regulations. However, Mrs. Parker told a News reporter last week that she would like to have it considered as a non conforming structure.

The home was built 140 to 160 years ago on the property of descendants of Jean Baptiste Vernier dit Ladoucier. Recently the property on which it is located was purchased by the Shores for $65,000 to more than double the size of its present lakefront park.

On July 20 Mrs. Parker and her husband submitted a bid to repurchase the cabin itself from the Shores. According to Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers, the offer depended on the Parkers being able to move the cabin onto old Vernier land which they own in the Woods.

Since 1947 the Parkers have put many thousand dollars into modernizing the cabin and building an additional wing. All of the plumbing, heating, and wiring are new and of the finest quality, Mrs. Parker has stated, and the cabin is definitely safe for occupancy as well as being an historical asset to the community.

ASCHAFFENBURG, GER-MANY (AHTNC) — Andrew H. Barr, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, 125 Merriweather rd., Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently was promoted to first lieutenant in Germany where he is a member of the 26th Artillery.

Lieutenant Barr is a platoon leader in the 26th's Battery C in Aschaffenburg. He entered the Army in January, 1960. A 1955 graduate of Grosse Pointe University School, the lieutenant was graduated from Princeton (N. J.) University in 1959.

BOTTLE HITS CYCLIST
Scott Kavaya, 10, of 2360 Stanhope, told Woods Police on August 16 that he was riding his bicycle on the expressway exit and Broadstone road when a pop bottle thrown from a passing truck struck him in his chest and knocked him to the ground. The boy was assisted by a passerby and was not apparently injured. Police turned the case over to the Highway Department for investigation.

John Theodore Rauen, Jr., of 1756 Brys drive, told Woods Police on August 16 that the battery was stolen from his car while it was parked overnight in his garage.

Many Use School Buildings Who Don't Attend School

For the third consecutive year, Grosse Pointe school buildings were used nearly 15,000 hours by non-school groups, according to a recent report from Dr. James Bushong, superintendent of schools.

The figure does not include the hours Adult Education classes use the facilities or the 536 meetings attended by 11,688 people in the public libraries. Dr. Bushong said.

The total rental collected for all schools from approximately 70 outside groups was $17,877.60. Labor and utility costs were fully covered by these fees with a balance being accumulated to help offset hidden costs and maintenance expenses, Dr. Bushong reported.

Dr. Bushong stated that every effort is being made to allocate the buildings equitably; however, the number of requests has grown so that all requests for the use of gymnasium facilities in particular cannot be met.

For this reason, Dr. Bushong said, time allowed various groups must be limited so that several groups may be permitted in a gymnasium on a given night. This occasionally may mean an earlier start for one of the groups than its members would like and a later terminal hour for the second shift than otherwise would be set.

Thief Collecting Lawn Springlers

Two sprinklers were stolen from Park residents on the same day last week.

Mr. Elmer E. Kunninger, of 1055 Devonshire, reported to Park police the theft of his sweep-type lawn sprinkler sometime during the previous evening.

That afternoon Mrs. Clarence T. McGraw, of 659 Bedford, told police that her creeping lawn sprinkler, valued at $50 had been taken sometime that day.

CHECKERS CHECKED

The traffic counter hose was stolen from St. Paul west of Whittier on Saturday, August 19. The loss was reported by patrolmen Crendall and McDowell, who were taking a traffic check.

Pointe Students Returning After Study in Far Places

By Niki Glanz

Six students of Grosse Pointe High School are now preparing to bid good-bye to the families with whom they have lived in a foreign country for this summer.

Jane Evenden, sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Honkassalo in Helsinki, Finland. The Honkassalos have four daughters; Eva, the oldest, is Jane's age.

Mr. Honkassalo is a geologist and his wife teaches school in the winter. The family divides their time between their apartment in Helsinki and their summer home in the country. Jane writes that the summer home, called a rollhouse, would be a cross between a farmhouse and a cottage in American terms. It is located on a lake, but it is surrounded by farmland and the family must bicycle to reach their neighbors.

At the rollhouse Jane has learned of a way of life very different from ours here. Every Saturday the girls help their mother do all the baking for the coming week. Jane was taught by her family how to weave, and she is now busy making a rug. With her two oldest sisters, Jane helped a neighbor pitch hay for a whole day.

One of the most different customs Jane has come across is the Finnish bath. Jane writes that she is still not quite used to jumping in a cool lake after being in a 240-degree heated room. Of course, the fact that customs of our country and Finland are different is one reason Jane wanted to live with a family for the summer there.

Jane's family has taken her to many different parts of Finland, but before she returns home she will stop in Oslo, Norway, to see Liv Myhre, the American Field Service exchange student who lived with her this past year in Grosse Pointe.

Ann Hock is also sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. Ann is spending her summer with Mr. and Mrs. Georg von Raison and their two small boys in Hannover, Germany. The family lives in a penthouse apartment and Ann can see the whole town from the terrace adjacent to her bedroom.

Although there are no children in the von Raison family her age, Ann has met many German teenagers. She often visits a school with Karola Neumann, a German girl who is Ann's "big sister." Karola and Mrs. Neumann have taken Ann many places, one of them Berlin. This divided city was very exciting to Ann, especially when she crossed the border into East Germany.

Ann found the differences between the East and West incredible. The eastern sector, Ann writes, is marked by long food lines, shops closed because of lack of produce, and just general shabbiness. On the other hand, West Berlin is a modern, bustling city with flowers planted everywhere. Ann also visited Hamburg and stayed with Renate Kofel, the same girl Carolyn Krebs, a Grosse Pointe High School graduate, lived with last summer in Germany.

Ann loves her summer excursion and the von Raisons are equally as happy to have her with them. Together the family has visited many places in and around Hannover. One of Ann's favorite places was the Opera. She also enjoyed Hameln where the Pied Piper lived. Ann writes that the town looks exactly like the story describes it.

Sherry Bookstanz has been living since December in Invercargill, New Zealand, with Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Orwell and their four children: Lynley, Mairi, Mike, and Frankie. All the children are older than Sherry except Frankie, who is her age. Jim Cruickshank, a Grosse Pointe High School graduate, lived with the Orbellis just a year before Sherry did.

Invercargill is the southernmost English city in New Zealand. Sherry describes it as "half of Grosse Pointe in population, but on a Detroit scale." In this city is located the school which Sherry attends. It is a private school for girls, and the students must wear uniforms. In school Sherry takes English, history, biology, and geography. She is also taking Spanish, but since it is not offered at the school, she is being privately tutored. Extra-curricular activities are scheduled as regular classes in New Zealand, and everyone is required to participate in at least three. Sherry is a great basketball and cricket fan now, and has become very adept at both.

The Orbellis spend much of their time in the summer at their cottage on Te Anau, a lake in northern New Zealand.

The Orbellis and Sherry have learned much from each other. Sherry, of course, has learned a new way of life in a country that has a different heritage than ours. Her American family is even beginning to have a hard time understanding her letters because she uses such New Zealand phrases as "swatting for a test" (cramming, to us) continually. Sherry, in turn, has taught the Orbellis many American customs and ideals, one of these being our traditional Easter egg hunt. Sherry sums up her life in New Zealand for nine months with, "I have had an experience of a life time, living in another country; meeting its people; adopting its habits; and I have gained so much from it."

Anne Adams has been spending her summer in Switzerland with the Metral family. Eddie Metral lived with Anne's family, the William Adams, five years ago as the first American Field Service student in Grosse Pointe. Eddie's sister, Daniele, is Anne's age.

Anne spends much of her time with Eddie and Daniele's friends. They swim, ski, climb mountains, and take part in many other Swiss activities. However, these things are always done as a crowd, since Swiss teenagers do not date, as we think of it.

The Metrals have taken Anne all over Switzerland. Lucern was one of her favorite cities. She writes that a river flows through it and reflects the lights of the cafes along its sides. Now the Metrals are touring France and Italy with Anne. In Italy Anne is planning to see Frances Tonnell, who was an American Field Service student at Grosse Pointe High School last year. Anne writes that the more she travels, the more she appreciates the great scenery and the more she thinks in terms of European standards.

Mike Simson is sponsored in Sweden for the summer by Experiment in International Living. He is living with Dr. and Mrs. Borje Berglund and their four sons. The family divides their time between their home in Sundsvall, a city two hundred miles from Stockholm, and their summer home in Sorfjarden Gnapp. The Berglunds' summer home is in the middle of a pine forest and just 150 feet from the Baltic Sea.

After staying with the Berglunds for a month, Mike toured France, Sweden and Denmark with 10 other American exchange students on the Experiment in International Living program. While in Paris, Mike talked to the leaders of the African state, Katanga.

Mike also visited Malou Hesselmen, an American Field Service student at Grosse Pointe High School in 1959, at her summer home in Sweden. Mike said Malou's cottage is typical of Swedish summer homes because there is no running water nor any modern facilities. During his stay, Malou showed Mike the Hesselmens' winter home. Mike writes that it is quite modern, but that Mrs. Hesselmen, who interior decorated it herself, made it look very comfortable and friendly.

Mike's summer in Europe will come to an end when he arrives at Montreal on August 31.

Don Owens flew to Tokyo, Japan, with 37 other American Field Exchange Students. After four days of orientation, he went on to Kumamoto, in the southern part of Japan, to meet his "parents," Dr. and Mrs. Tatsuo Uchida. Dr. Uchida is the president of a hospital. The Uchidas have three boys (aged 27, 23, and 17) and two girls (26 and 14).

Don went to school until July 21 with his 17-year-old brother Toshio. He spent most of his time talking to the English students at Toshio's high school and other nearby schools. However, he took no courses.

Don has learned enough Japanese to converse with his parents, who speak very little English. He is teaching English to his younger sister.

Don has done a lot of swimming this summer. He often instructs his Japanese friends in American life saving. In turn he receives judo lessons. The Uchidas took Don to Mt. Aso, three days after its eruption.

Brake Failure Causes Crash

Three cars collided on Mack avenue at Lochmoor on August 17 when the brakes failed on the car driven by Francis O'Rourke, 1103 Anita avenue, causing the vehicle to strike a car which was stopped for a traffic light and another car which was parked along a nearby curb.

Taken to St. John Hospital for a checkup was the driver of the stopped car, Linda Collins, 7737 Gratiot, Detroit. She and her passengers were later released by the hospital.

Fredrick Monasterski, of 2024 Norwalk, Hamtramck, was driver of the parked automobile. He reportedly suffered no apparent injuries.

This volcano, which has the largest crater in the world, is only 35 miles from their home.

Japanese food must agree with Don because he has already gained five or ten pounds.

Don ate dinner one night with Reverend Andrew Ellis, a Lutheran missionary, whose mother lives in Grosse Pointe. Reverend Bertram Atwood, of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, arranged the meeting.

Don goes to the mission Sunday School and has been to several parties there.

The temperature in Kumamoto has averaged about 90 degrees. One day, though, it reached 112 degrees, the highest in 70 years.

On August 20, Don will bid goodbye to his family and set out on a ten-day tour of Japan with the A.F.S. Then, after a two-day summary of their experiences, then teen-age ambassadors will leave Japan. Because of the time change, the trip to Seattle which is actually 15 hours long will only take 2 1/2 hours. Don should be in Grosse Pointe on September 2.

Farms Pumps $153,542.71 Worth of Water in Year

The Farms sold its residents $105,724.99 worth of water during the fiscal year ending June 30.

Water sales to the City totaled $47,817.72, a figure which is considerably higher than last year. This was mainly caused by the City's major break in its water system which it was unable to locate for some time. Also, as of April 1 the rates increased as provided for in the contract. The last quarter the City paid 85.6 cents per thousand cubic feet as compared to 75.6 cents, the previous price.

Total pumpage in the last year was 166,379,700 cubic feet. The net profit for that period will approximate $20,000.

Revenue from water sales is used for the operation of the entire water utility and for retirement of the outstanding funded debt.

Currently there are two bond issues. First, there are Water Intake Bonds, which began January 1, 1955. The original debt amounted to $150,000 and the current balance is $95,000. This is retired at the rate of $10,000 a year. Interest for last year was about $1,700.

A second debt is the Water Revenue Bonds, which began on May 1, 1955. The original debt was $211,000 and the balance is now $176,000. This is also retired at the rate of $10,000 per year. Interest for the past year amounted to $3,800.

These figures given by the Farms are all subject to auditing, which is taking place right now. A full statement will be published in September after the auditors complete their work.

HURT DIVING

David Neil, 14, of 1973 Doyle place West, suffered deep lacerations over his right eye when he dove into the swimming pool at the Woods park on August 18 and struck his head. He was taken by Police ambulance to St. John Hospital where he was treated and released.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Among the graying headstones in St. Paul's cemetery in Moross road are several inscribed with the name, Van Antwerp. A street in Grosse Pointe Woods commemorates this pioneer Dutch family who began as farmers, contributed leaders to the Catholic Church and established one of the city's leading coal companies.

The first Van Antwerp, Francis, was born in New York state on the Mohawk river and came to Michigan in 1800 where he settled on a Pointe farm. His son and namesake Francis, Jr., was born on the farm but became a blacksmith in early life. He married Mary Gore, an Irish colleen, and the couple made their home here. In 1855 Francis founded the coal and coke business in his blacksmith shop at the foot of Riopelle street in Detroit.

He was the first to bring coal to Detroit by rail for all shipments before his time had been made by boat. His son, M. Gore Van Antwerp extended the business and was president of the growing company. In 1900 Gore Van Antwerp was appointed to the board of Wayne County jury commissioners and served three terms.

Gore Van Antwerp's brother, the Rt. Rev. Francis Van Antwerp, rose to great eminence in the Catholic Church. He was ordained by Bishop Borgess, whose summer home was in the Pointe, and for whom Bishop road is named. From 1882-1885 Father Van Antwerp was the parish priest at St. Paul's when the church was still a log cabin. He returned to this parish to celebrate the groundbreaking of the new school and convent in 1926, when he was a Monseigneur. Father Van Antwerp was the first to give sermons in English at St. Paul's, reconditioned the old church, superintended countless "bees" to spruce up the building.

Father Van Antwerp's sister, Pauline, was the beloved Mother of the Sacred Heart Convent in Detroit and his brother, Arthur, was a Jesuit priest in St. Louis, Mo.

Today Van Antwerp road in the Woods commemorates the family who moved to a farm near Gaukler Pointe in 1800. Detroit councilman Eugene Van Antwerp is among the pioneer's prominent descendants. The Monseigneur's nephew, also Francis, is a parish priest at St. Ambrose Church. The Monseigneur died in 1930 during his pastorate of the Church of the Holy Rosary in Detroit and while he was vicar general of the Catholic Diocese of Detroit.

Sarah Goodard, daughter of the Wendell Goodards, of Provincial road, and a Vassar College alumna, has a job which really keeps her on the inside of the political scene in New York state. She is a member of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's public relations staff.

Dr. Hugh Stalker joins the many who are shook up by the new long telephone numbers recently initiated. In giving a new number the doctor sighed, "You really have to have a PHD degree to remember these digits."

Guests who are ushered into the entrance hall of the Robert Bailey's Lewiston road home invariably stop to admire the antique chandelier. An unusual combination of etched pewter and crystal sheds interesting light. The Baileys are dedicated do-it-yourselfers, paint and refinishing constantly. Another decorative note which attracts admiration are the pale blue shantung draperies in their living room... the blue is accented by an eight inch panel of avocado green, a stunning color note. The Baileys, who are antique collectors, arrange their magazines over a Victorian towel rack in the library... with the periodicals folded over the rack to exhibit the colorful covers.

Combining business and pleasure is the trick Dr. and Mrs. James Graves turned this summer. While Dr. Graves was teaching a seminar at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel, Mrs. Graves and their offspring were able to enjoy a terrific vacation.

In our classified section last week was an advertisement for 3 volumes of Horatio Alger, Jr., printed 1870, a collector's item. The books are owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. Rothe Farr, of Moross road. The old fashioned virtues extolled in the Alger books, concerning the poor but honest and hardworking boy who eventually makes a fortune, have delighted several generations although they are now somewhat scorned. Recently the Chicago Daily News experimented to see if the Horatio Alger spirit was still alive. Fifty years ago according to one of the stories, a wealthy tycoon presented a newsboy with a ten dollar bill and told him he couldn't wait for change but to bring it to his office. The newsboy a few hours later reported with $9.99 (papers cost 2c in those days). The tycoon set the young man up in business and in Horatio Alger fashion he in turn became a tycoon. Last month the Chicago paper sent out an inquiring reporter with a ten dollar bill to buy a paper from a corner newsboy. Honesty still prevails. The newsboy again turned up with the change (in 1961 this is $9.92). His reward for upholding the Horatio Alger standards, a $20,000 scholarship to college.

Pointer of Interest

MALCOLM HUMPHREYS, OF FISHER ROAD

by Patricia Talbot

Before the moving crates had been unpacked in Malcolm Humphreys' Fisher road home, easels were set up in his garage and the internationally known portrait painter had begun to give lessons to Pointe matrons.

"I love Detroit. For years I've wanted to come here to live. All these beautiful homes, with beautiful women in them, ideal for a portrait painter," says the artist.

Mr. Humphreys, a spare ascetic man, the picture of a Princetonian, which he is, is no stranger to Detroit. His wife, who is also an artist, was educated at Liggett School, is a member of Tau Beta and Junior League, and the couple have visited here many times during the past twenty years.

A native of Morristown, N. J., Mr. Humphreys candidly admits he hadn't planned to become a portrait painter after graduation from Princeton. He was rejected for service overseas in the first World War and went to Provincetown, Mass., to study landscape painting. His interest in art began in college days when he, admired paintings in New York, couldn't afford to buy them, and went home and copied them from memory.

Believes In Tradition

Mr. Humphreys is a firm believer in lessons, form and tradition. He gives great credit to the artists who gave him his training in technique. He hopes he can hand down some of these valuable lessons. "The young people of America are deprived of the means of learning good, sound technique, that which has made art great through the centuries."

A traditionalist himself he has very decided opinions about modern art. "It isn't art at all, but design." He likes the impressionists, but feels Renoir is over-rated, prefers Manet, Degas and discovered Toulouse-Lautrec long before he was popular.

Years in France

The artist's wife also paints, hopes to begin her own landscape classes soon. The couple met aboard a ship sailing for France where they were both to study. For many years they lived and worked in a small town in Brittany, but fearing the rise of Hitler and war, long before it happened, they came back to America in 1937. For many seasons the couple worked and taught in Palm Beach, which should have been a mecca for portrait painters. Mr. Humphreys changed from landscapes to portraits because he said, "At dinner parties guests would ask me what type of artist I was. If you weren't a portrait painter, they lost interest."

Five summers in Palm Beach sapped his energies for painting in that climate and students and subjects were rare except for a few months during the season so Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys moved to Princeton. Surprisingly enough he found the atmosphere at his alma mater unfavorable to art. In contrast, Detroit is a much more friendly climate. The couple's old friends, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Stalker, were among the many who persuaded them to make the move. Mrs. Stalker is now taking lessons from Mr. Humphreys.

No Long Sittings

Stacked about the living room of their new home are scores of portraits done by the artist, and some gay flower paintings which Mrs. Humphrey has painted. The portrait painter learned much of his technique from Wayman Adams and from the master learned a rapid method of getting a likeness at once and finishing the portrait in a short time. This method is particularly effective with children. He will give what he calls "demonstrations" of this method to his classes once his routine is established. Although the classes are now meeting in his garage, this car remains permanently parked in the driveway, he is looking for more suitable quarters. He has decided that the east upstairs room in the Neighborhood Club is ideal, may meet with his students there this winter.

Three of his portraits, of US Senator Arthur Capper, Mrs. Paul D'Otrange Seghers, founder of the I Am An American Day, and General Frederick M. Waterbury are hanging in the Library of Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys are among the latest to join the colony of local artists who have found in the Pointe the appreciation and interest in their work which stimulates them and their growing number of pupils.

BACKS INTO CAR

Officer Marvin Krebs, of the Farms police was driving south on Country Club drive just north of the Country Club when he was struck in the right rear fender by a 1960 Chevrolet station wagon backing out of a parking space in a small parking lot. Driver of the second car was Victor McKee, of 1352 Dorchester, Birmingham. Damage to the police car was estimated at $85.
