MONGO SLIM, 53-year-old North African diplomat, was unanimously elected president of the United Nations General Assembly Wednesday. The first African to be named Assembly president, Slim has represented Tunisia in the United Nations since 1956, when Tunisia first became a member of the UN. He is a moderate, member of the strong Asian-African bloc, and well liked by the West. There was still no agreement among the delegates on even a temporary successor to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, killed in an air crash Monday while on a peace mission to the Congo.

AFTER 330 HOURS of bargaining, General Motors Corp. and the UAW came to an agreement on a three-year national contract Wednesday morning. Plans for resuming full production in all plants by the weekend were disrupted, however, when the UAW's General Motors Council voted on Wednesday night to continue the strike against GM in support of the 26 locals still with unresolved grievances.

The council had voted earlier Wednesday to accept the economic and non-economic portions of the national contract. The vote to continue the strike was in the form of a recommendation by the council and was overruled by the UAW's Executive Board, which early Thursday told workers in the 103 plants where local issues have been settled to report back to work, and promised a new approach to negotiating unresolved issues in the remaining 26 plants. Next target of negotiations for the UAW is the Ford Motor Company.

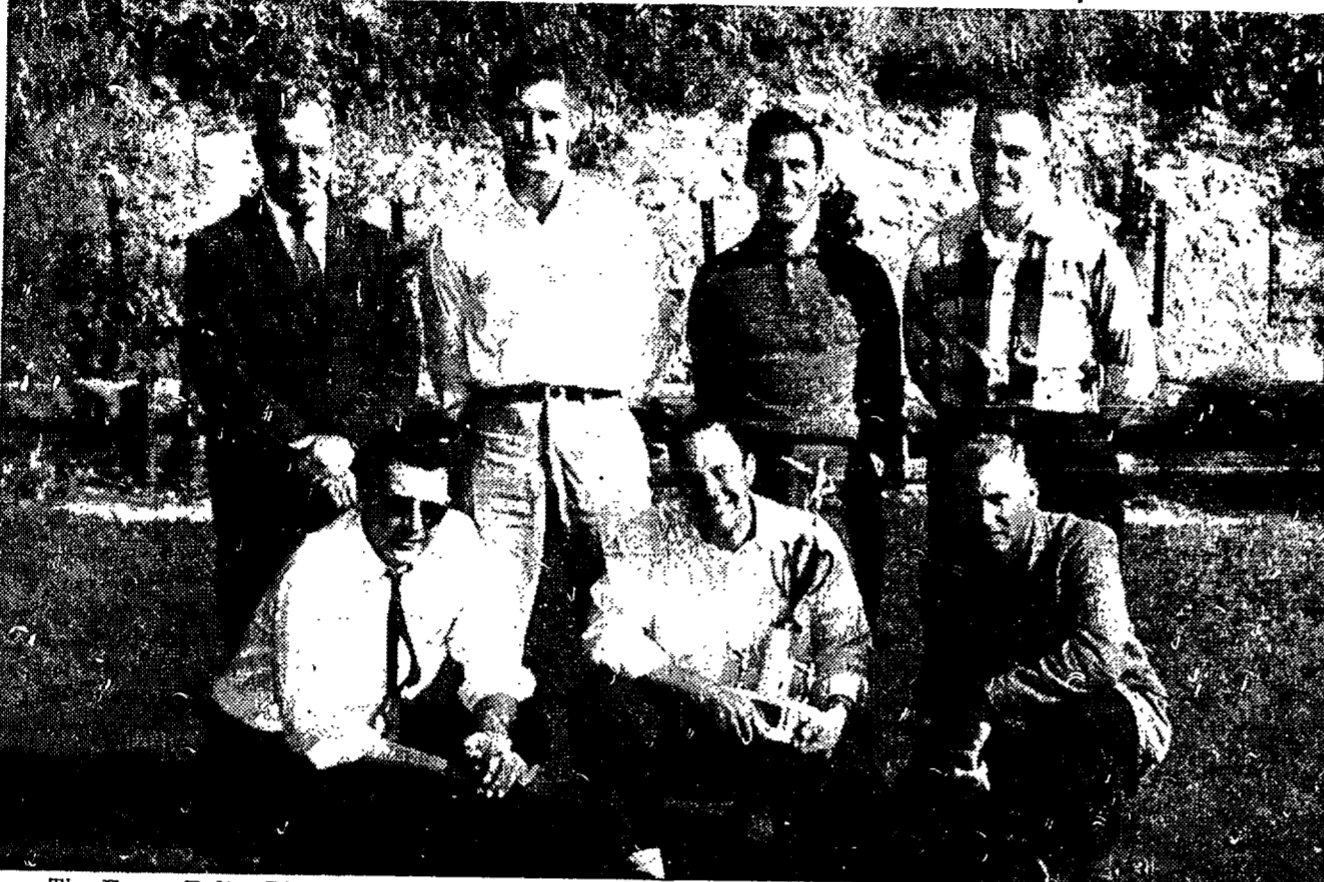

AN AGREEMENT between Katanga and the United Nations calling for an immediate ceasefire and exchange of prisoners was announced Wednesday by Katanga President Moïse Tshombe. But hopes for peace in the Congo dimmed when Congo Prime Minister Cyrille Adoula stated that the Congo Central Government will "spare no effort to end Katanga's secession" and "will reply to force with force." Adoula charged that capitalist imperialism backed Katanga's secession. He hinted that the Central Congolese Government may try to return Katanga to the Leopoldville regime without the United Nations' help.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S Steering Committee voted Thursday night to support a New Zealand proposal to throw the issue of a United Nations seat for Communist China open to full debate in the Assembly. The proposal, backed by the United States, was approved by a vote of 15 to 0, with 5 abstentions. This marks the first time since 1950 that the question of Chinese representation is scheduled for debate on the world parliament's agenda. The United States is confident that the proposal to seat Red China will be defeated despite Russian opposition.

CHRYSLER CORPORATION announced the election of Pittsburgh industrialist George H. Love, 63, as chairman of the board and chief policy officer. A Chrysler director since 1958, Love has served as chairman of the corporation's executive committee since Lynn A. Townsend was elected president on July 24.

UAW PRESIDENT WALTER P. REUTHER announced Thursday that General Motors and the UAW have scheduled a series of peace talks with representatives of the 24 GM plants still on strike. The talks are slated to begin Friday morning, when General Motors officials and international union representatives will meet.

Farms Police Pistol Team Still Champs

The Farms Police Pistol Team "copped" the third Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club Trophy, donated by the NEWS, to become the champions of the Pointe. The rules stipulate that a team must win the trophy three times to retain permanent possession. The champs retired a NEWES-donated trophy in 1954 and another in 1957. The one shown in the picture was won at an annual pistol shoot match held at the Mt. Clemens Police Pistol Range on September 19. The

Robbery Suspect Fighting Return To Face Charges

Woods Police Want Man Alleged to Have Taken Part In the March 18 Robbery of Kay Anos Fur Store Branch

Two Woods detectives who had gone to Chicago Thursday, September 21, to return a fur robbery suspect to the jurisdiction of Michigan and Wayne County, returned Friday night empty-handed, when the suspect decided to fight extradition.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian said that the extradition of the suspect, George B. Boulas, 28, of Chicago, had been approved at a hearing held before Chief Justice Joseph J. Drucker, of the Criminal Court of Cook County, Chicago.

The detectives stated that if the appeal is not heard, or if it is denied, then Boulas must personally surrender to Woods authorities by October 1. Boulas is under bond of $7,500, the Woods officers said.

Accused of Big Robbery
Boulas is accused of stealing approximately $50,000 in mink furs from the Kay Anos Furs, 19619 Mack avenue on March 18, after tying up Armen Anusbikian, 26, of 23065 Kelly, East Detroit, manager of the store. Three men were involved in the hold-up.

One man was let into the store by Anusbikian, claiming he was delivering a package to the store. The man and his companions were dressed in uniforms similar to those worn by messengers. When admitted, the man whipped out a gun and handed Anusbikian a note on which was written "This is a hold-up."

A second man entered the store, placed a bag over Anusbikian's head, then the two robbers proceeded to stuff fur pieces, mostly stoles, into canvas bags.

All Took Cash
The thieves took approximately $50,000 in furs, and about $300 in cash from the manager.

A woman who saw the two men in the store, told police that the robbers got into an old model car, a third man behind the wheel, waiting at the curb on Mack at Littlestone, and escaped.

On March 28, FBI agents in Chicago arrested Boulas and two other suspects, James W. Bamford, 41; and Sorecho Nalo, 29, both of Chicago, for investigation of the Woods fur theft.

Boulas was traced through fingerprints and a license plate number from a 1953 Pontiac that was found abandoned in the Woods Theater parking lot by Woods Patrolman Don Sabel, who recognized it from a description given by the woman witness to the robbery.

Find 18 Stoles in Car
FBI agents arrested Bamford on March 28, after finding 18 mink stoles from the Woods fur store, valued at $20,000, in Bamford's car. Nalo was arrested hours later, and Boulas, on March 29.

Bon Secours Told to Add More Spaces

Citizens' Committee Report Attacks Institution's Arguments for Expansion

In a letter dated September 22 and read before the Grosse Pointe City Council on Monday, September 25, Hayes and McEvoy, attorneys for Bon Secours hospital, withdrew the hospital's present petition for additional parking. The Council voted unanimously to recognize withdrawal of the request for re-zoning.

Reason for withdrawal, as stated in the letter, was that the hospital has not yet completed plans for expansion. The attorneys had asserted in a letter dated May 11 that Bon Secours was in the process of drawing up such plans.

Bon Secours reserved the right to and will, when the expansion plans are complete, present a new rezoning petition requesting that the hospital be allowed to expand and that sufficient parking be permitted for the total needs of the hospital.

Committee Report Read
In a statement read before the Council at Monday's meeting by William P. Thorpe, Jr., 17011 East Jefferson, the Citizens Committee for Planning and Study of Grosse Pointe Community Needs charged that four specific things have happened since Bon Secours presented its original petition in April, 1961.

The Committee charged that on several occasions spokesmen for the hospital asserted that Bon Secours would lose its AMA accreditation if it were not permitted to expand to 300 beds. The Committee stated that evidence contained in a telegram from the AMA proved this charge false.

The Committee contended that there was no shortage of hospital beds in the area in which Bon Secours is located. It cited the expansion plans of St. John hospital and the announcement of the construction of new hospitals and expansions of others as being adequate to take care of the community's hospital needs.

Claim Meeting Packed
The Committee stated that the Council meeting was packed with non-residents of the City of Grosse Pointe on the occasion of the second Council hearing relative to the Bon Secours petition, and that noise and commotion at this meeting was part of an obvious plan by supporters of the hospital to hamper the presentation of any opposition views.

The Committee further charged that hospital representatives who made a door to door canvass of portions of the City and Park, at the same time hospital spokesmen were presenting arguments for the expansion of the hospital size to some members of the area, deliberately withheld information in order to secure signatures on a rezoning petition by stating that parking was the only issue.

Expresses Surprise
The Committee expressed its surprise at Bon Secours' "apparent willingness to engage in tactics of deception and deceit" and recommended that the Council take necessary steps to implement revision of the present hospital parking facilities, and that construction of the expanded and improved parking facilities begin no later than 30 days from September 25, to be completed within 90 days of the date of commencement.

Ordered to Comply
The Council therefore requested that the hospital immediately comply with the existing ordinance concerning parking. It warned that the hospital will be cited for violation if it does not comply within a reasonable time. The City Manager was required to furnish the hospital with a copy of the city engineer's plan for provision of adequate parking spaces with a 25-foot setback on Notre Dame and Maumee.

Bon Secours was also requested to provide adequate green screening of the parking lot.

Halloween Party Heads Laying Plans

Student Representatives Meet with Adult Leaders to Discuss Annual Community Event

Autumn is here again and it is time to plan for the annual Halloween Party. Meeting Friday, September 22, in the High School Annex, were the Student Committee chairman from the private, parochial and public junior and senior high schools of Grosse Pointe.

The party is an annual event sponsored by members of the various civic organizations, municipal and police officials, and educational leaders.

This party had its inception 2 years ago as a stop gap measure by the merchants and police officials to give the students the (Continued on Page 4)

Driver Reports Car Hit by Egg

William A. McClenahan, 503 Washington, reported to City police on Friday, September 22, that someone threw an egg at his car while he was driving home from work.

The incident occurred at the corner of Washington and Charlevoix. The egg hit Mr. McClenahan's windshield.

City police officers investigated and found no one in the area, but have promised to keep a close watch.

Following a prayer by the Rev. Bertram dell. Atwood, minister of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, expressions of gratitude and thanks were made by Donald M. D. Thurber to Mrs. Russell Alger and her family for the gift of the Center and its beautiful grounds and to the late William Hayes Fries for the magnificent bequest of the new auditorium.

Eight High School Students Qualify as Semifinalists In National Merit Exams

Get Recognition for High Achievement in First Part of Tests Given in 15,000 Schools Throughout The Country

Principal Jerry J. Gerich of Grosse Pointe High School has announced that eight of the school's students have been given recognition for their high achievement in the initial stage of the seventh annual National Merit Scholarship competition.

He said the students were named semifinalists in the 1961-62 Merit Program, as a result of their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. They are Andrew Balas, Allen Crow, Cynthia Gilliat, Allen Hyer, Donald Owens, Grant Piggott, Ellen Rollins, and Michael Simson. All are currently enrolled at Grosse Pointe High School except Miss Rollins who has moved from Grosse Pointe.

"We are very proud of our semifinalists," Mr. Gerich stated. "All have compiled outstanding records during their school careers here. As an indication of their all-around ability, two are officers of our Student Association, Don Owens being president and Allen Hyer the treasurer."

15,000 Schools Take Tests
These students are among approximately 10,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semifinalist status through their high scores on the qualifying examination, a test of educational development given last March in more than 15,000 high schools.

The semifinalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in the Student States territories. Each semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice.

The annual program is conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, a non-profit organization. Its president, John M. Stalnaker, said: "This nation's future intellectual leaders will come from young people who have the qualities of the semifinalists in the Merit Program. Their accomplishment brings credit to themselves, their schools, their parents, and their communities."

Many Factors Count
"The achievement of any student is usually the product of many influences. Ability is of course a major factor. The wish and the will to make the most of that ability are equally important. Ambition and drive are key factors."

"But the able can be discouraged as well as encouraged. That is why the attitudes of (Continued on Page 4)

Nab Teenage Car Thieves After Chase

Woods Police Pick Up One on Street After They Abandon Car; Implicates His Pal

Two teenage boys were arrested by Woods police on Wednesday, September 20, and are being held by East Detroit authorities for investigation of unlawfully driving away an automobile.

Arrested were John C. Albert, 17, of 1426 Lochmoor boulevard, and a 16-year-old from East Detroit. Their arrests preceded a 60-mile an hour chase through Woods streets.

Patrolmen William Duster and Donald Sun, the arresting officers, stated that they were patrolling south on Mack when they saw a car speeding east on Lochmoor, and gave chase. The officers said that the chase was at speeds up to 60 miles an hour and that the driver of the car ignored several stop streets during the pursuit.

Turn Off Lights
The policemen said that they turned onto Lochmoor and tried to stop the youths, when the boys sped ahead of them, then turned north onto Holiday, to Sunningdale, then east onto Sunningdale, then turned off the car lights and tried to escape.

At Sunningdale Park, in the Shores, near the Woods-Shores boundary, the driver of the stolen car hit a curb on an island and lost control. He stopped the vehicle, and both boys jumped out and ran away on foot. Shores police were called and they helped search the area.

Make Their Escape
The boys ran into the rear yard of nearby 26 Lochmoor, and got away.

At 2:30 a.m., Duster and Sun spotted Albert at Lake Shore and Lochmoor and took him into custody.

About seven hours later, after considerable questioning, Albert confessed and implicated his 16-year-old companion, who was arrested by East Detroit authorities at his home. Albert stated that he and his friend stole the car in East Detroit. He was turned over to police of that city.

East Detroit police said that the stolen car belonged to Richard F. Norton of 22589 Raven, East Detroit, who did not know the vehicle had been taken. Norton stated that the last time he saw his car was when he parked it in front of his house the previous evening.

Farms Police Seek Biting Dog

Farms police are searching for a mongrel dog that bit Patrolman William Elworthy on Wednesday, September 20, and are asking anyone who has any information to call the station.

The animal is described as being a small male of mixed breed, and light tan, wearing a chain collar around its neck.

The officer was dispatched to the Grosse Pointe Little Club on the Wednesday date, to pick up the dog reported having one foot caught in the collar and running around the area on three legs.

Elworthy caught the dog, and as he was extracting its leg from the binding collar, the animal bit him on the left hand, breaking the skin, and escaped. The dog has a wound under one leg.

Anyone who might have information leading to the finding of the dog, or possibly its owner, please notify Farms police, TU 5-2100. Police are anxious to find out if the animal is rabid, or not.

If the dog is not found within a reasonable time, it is possible that Officer Elworthy might have to undergo a painful series of shots.

Champ Farms Police Pistol Team Wins News Trophy

If there is an air of pride permeating from the Farms police station these days, there is good reason for it. The Farms Police Pistol Team won the Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club Trophy by besting the other Pointe police pistol teams at an annual shoot held on Tuesday, September 19, at the Mt. Clemens Police Pistol Range.

The Farms team retired the trophy, donated by the Grosse Pointe News, after winning it three times. The Farms now retains permanent possession of the prize, which has been added to the many pistol shooting trophies on display in the station.

The Farms team won the trophy in 1958, 1959, lost it to the Woods Police Pistol Team in 1960, and then retired it last Tuesday, after regaining possession of it. According to the rules, the team that wins the trophy three times, gets to keep it.

The retired trophy is the third Metropolitan Club Trophy won by the Farms Team in 10 years. All three trophies were donated by the NEWS. The first shoot match between the police departments was held in 1952.

The Farms Team retired one trophy in 1954, and one in 1957, and now, the latest one.

The scores for the 1961 Metropolitan Shoot are: Farms, 1,278; Shores, 1,185; Woods, 1,157; City, 1,153; and the Park, 1,139.

INJURES ANKLE

Barbara Rose, 54, of 1926 Col-linson, East Detroit, was about to enter her place of business at 21006 Mack, when she turned her right ankle stepping into a hole in the sidewalk in front of her store. She was transported to St. John Hospital by Woods police ambulance, suffering from a possible fractured or dislocated ankle. The incident occurred on Monday, September 18.

The self-made man has one fault—he is not self-contained.

LOSES WALLET

John E. Cowen of 6300 Poe road, Bethesda, Maryland, visiting in the Pointe, told Farms police on Thursday, September 14, that he had lost his wallet near the Punch and Judy Theater in Kercheval avenue. He said the wallet contained $16 in cash, a check made out to him in the amount of $40, his operator's license and other personal papers.

GRIDDER HITS CAR

Thomas Walker, of 1211 Bishop, while playing football in the street in front of 1321 Devonshire on Sunday, August 27, ran into a parked car. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for lacerations of the left shoulder.

Robbery Suspect Fighting Return

 Anusbigian was flown to Chicago, where he again identified Boulas at a show-up at Chicago Police Headquarters.

Bamford and Nalo, at the time of their arrests, refused to talk, except to deny any part in the Woods robbery. After considerable investigation Nalo was released because of lack of evidence.

In Country Illegally

Bamford, however, confessed that he was in the United States illegally, stating that he entered this country from Canada 16 years ago, and had been using the alias of Robert Lee Allen. He said he had been living in Chicago since his illegal entry.

Deportation proceedings were started immediately and Bamford was sent back to Canada.

The fur company has been robbed or burglarized six times since October 11, 1959, including a branch store in the Park that was broken into on February 13, and a $500 mink stole taken. Almost $100,000 worth of furs had been stolen from the company since the October, 1959, date.

Convict Confessed

The Park burglary was cleared by a Jackson Prison convict who confessed to taking the stole, after he was arrested by Detroit police for a burglary in Detroit. The convict is serving a prison term for the Detroit crime.

The convict, Clarence Webb, 31, who had no known address, prior to being sentenced to prison, confessed to a number of fur thefts in the Detroit area, including the Kay Anos Park branch.

DRIVES INTO TREE

Officers James Cronin and Thomas McLaughlin, Jr. took Stanley G. Trombly, of 25155 Port, St. Clair Shores, to Bon Secours Hospital. Trombly was driving east on Jefferson near Neff and hit a tree. He was ticketed for reckless driving.

National Merit Exams

(Continued from Page 1) parents, the extent to which a community supports its schools, and the amount of recognition given to intellectual attainment also significantly influence the development of talent.

"At a time when brain power is increasingly the source of national power, we must all encourage, in every way possible, the pursuit of intellectual excellence by our able students."

To increase their opportunities to obtain financial assistance if they need it, the Merit Corporation sends the names of semifinalists to all accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and financial aid sources. Studies show that about 50 percent of the semifinalists obtain scholarship assistance from sources other than the Merit Program.

More Tests in December
The semifinalists will take another rigorous examination, the three-hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, to be given in testing centers throughout the nation on December 2, 1961.

Students whose scores on the second test substantiate their performance on the qualifying test and who are endorsed by their high schools will become finalists in the competition. In past years, more than 97 percent of the semifinalists have become finalists. All finalists received a Certificate of Merit in recognition of their outstanding performance in the program.

As finalists, the students will be eligible for scholarship awards sponsored by about 130 business corporations, foundations, associations, individuals, and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself.

In the final phase of the competition, the high school grades, extracurricular activities, school citizenship, and leadership qualities of the students will be evaluated along with their scores on the tests.

Announced in April
About April 26, 1962, the names of the Merit Scholars will be announced, the exact number depending on the extent of sponsor support of the Merit Program.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award to cover the undergraduate college years. The recipient's stipend is tailored to his need. Stipends now average about $800 a year.

For Merit Scholars who require financial assistance, awards may reach a maximum of $1,500 annually. For students who already possess financial resources which will enable them to attend the college of their choice, awards of $100 a year are granted.

The minimum stipend is a form of "educational insurance" for the student who receives it, because the amount will be increased at any time while he is in college if there is a significant change in his family's financial situation.

Pick Own Colleges
Finalists designate the college they wish to attend and the course of study they plan to pursue. The colleges chosen by the Merit Scholars in most instances also receive supplementary grants ranging up to $500 per year to help defray the actual costs of educating the students.

The Merit Scholarship Program was established in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. The National Merit Scholarship Corporation and sponsors have thus far contributed direct financial assistance to nearly 5,000 students and their colleges.

An accident occurred at the intersection of Lincoln and Mack on Saturday, August 19, when Michael Van Lockeren, of 725 Grand Marais, driving a 1961 Ford station wagon, struck a 1948 Plymouth in the rear, doing minor damage. The second car was driven by George Overman, of 5667 Lanoo, Detroit. Van Lockeren was ticketed for reckless driving.

Damaged Hedge Blamed on Boys

City police investigated a report of vandalism made by M. K. Allen, 805 Loraine, who said that sometime after 9:30 on the night of Saturday, September 23, someone damaged the hedges on the right side of his lot.

Captain Andrew C. Teetaert's investigation revealed that someone had evidently jumped in and out of the hedge, causing it to break down in many places. A neighbor, Mary Margaret Stockard, 799 Loraine, when questioned stated that she had heard boys playing in the area but had no idea there was damage being done.

She was unable to identify the boys.

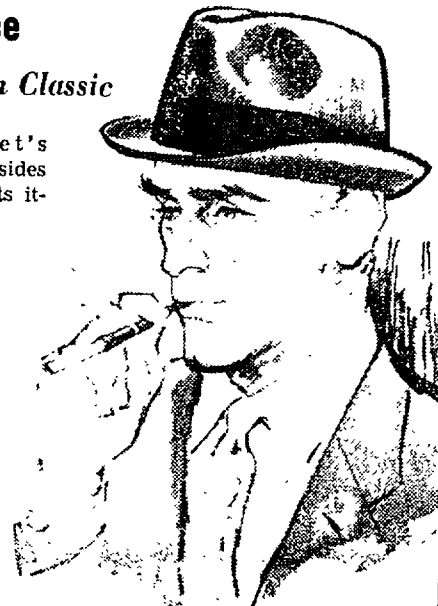

Other neighbors in the area also complained about certain boys getting out of hand.

Officers on the road were notified to be on the alert for further incidents.

State Certifies Water Experts

The Michigan Department of Health has awarded certificates of achievement to 62 water treatment plant employes in 46 cities who passed a written examination and met certain other requirements as prescribed by state law.

The law requires every water treatment plant in Michigan to be supervised by an operator certified by the health department.

Each plant is classified by the health department according to the type of treatment engaged in and the population served. An "F" designation pertains to plants engaged in filtration and softening; "D" indicates disinfection plants; "T" plants are those which treat water with chlorine, and an "M" classification is a miscellaneous designation given to plants treating various local water conditions such as iron removal, softening, fluoridation, phosphate treatment, etc.

In addition, the "F" plants are designated one, two or three, according to population served—over 40,000; 4,000 to 40,000, or under 4,000. The plant operator must hold a certificate equal to or above the plant's classification.

Local certificate recipients are: Theodore J. Beaupre, Carl Commerson, Fred J. Dansbury and Norman O. Koch, all of the Farms.

To be certified, an operator must meet educational and experience standards set by the state health department, and must pass a written examination administered annually by the department.

PTA at Ferry Meets Oct. 4

The Ferry School Parent Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the current school year on Wednesday evening, October 4.

Dr. Robert Everett, the Ferry School PTA president, will convene the group in the auditorium of the school at 8 p.m. Other officers for the year are: father vice-president, Alan Neef; mother vice-president, Mrs. David Teague; teacher vice-president, Miss Jane Gullert; secretary, Mrs. Floyd Richardson; and treasurer, Clare Sober.

This meeting will provide an opportunity for all parents to meet their child's teacher and to become acquainted with the work of the school. Principal Edwin Wendt will introduce members of the staff.

Allan Neef, program chairman, has arranged for the showing of a color filmstrip, "Your Child's Intelligence," including narration and musical background. Following this presentation Miss Doris Forsythe, psychologist for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools and Principal Edwin Wendt will respond to questions which parents may wish to ask on this timely subject.

Parents will have the opportunity to visit the classrooms for a short time after the auditorium program. Here they may talk with the teacher and other parents, as well as seeing the work that the children are doing.

The evening is scheduled to conclude on a note of informality and sociability as refreshments are served following the classroom visitation. Mrs. David Teague, mother vice-president and social chairman, announces that the refreshments for this first meeting will be handled by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beever, who will be acting as co-chairmen; assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hincks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Begeman and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ambrose.

It is hoped that all parents will find it possible to attend this first meeting of the school year, but a particular welcome is extended to the parents of those children who are new to the school. The members of the school staff join with the PTA officers in extending a warm welcome to these new members of the school community.

Critically Hurt In LS Accident

Mrs. Inez Marie Spears, 31, of 35922 E. Jefferson, Mt. Clemens, was reported in critical condition in Bon Secours Hospital where she was taken by Shores police after her car crashed into a tree on Lake Shore road on Friday, September 22.

Police Chief Fred Duemling stated that the woman suffered a broken jaw, and injuries to both legs, one of which might have to be amputated.

It was disclosed that a passing motorist stopped at the Shores police station to report that a car had struck a tree on Lakeshore between Renaud and Colonial roads.

Patrolmen Stanley Otulakowski and William Marshall sped to the scene in the police ambulance and found the woman unconscious in her car. They took her to the hospital, where her condition was pronounced critical.

Police said that Mrs. Spears was on her way home about 5:30 a.m., after taking her husband, Robert, to work in Detroit, when the accident occurred. Because of the jaw injury, the woman was unable to talk, but it is believed that Mrs. Spears must have fallen asleep at the wheel.

Mr. Spears was notified of the tragedy by police and taken to the hospital to be near his wife.

Police Recruits Start Training

The third term of the seventh consecutive Law Enforcement Officers Training School, co-sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police Association and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is in full swing. It was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

There are three schools in the Detroit Metropolitan Area, wherein police officers must undergo basic recruit training. The policemen must successfully complete three 40-hour sessions, totaling 120 hours, before they can receive certificates of graduation, Chief Louwers stated.

The sessions will be held in Lincoln Park, in the Lafayette School, every Wednesday starting September 20; in Royal Oak, in the Elks Temple, every Thursday, beginning September 21; and in the Park, in the city council chambers every Friday, commencing September 22.

Chief Louwers is the director of the Park School. The directors of the other schools are: Chiefs of Police Ralph Moxley of Birmingham, Frank T. Cribb of Clawson and Asst. Chief Herman Potts of Royal Oak, co-directors of the Royal Oak School; and Chief of Police Carl Walkmaster of Lincoln Park and Chief William B. Shaffer of Southgate, co-director of the Lincoln Park School.

Chief Louwers said that all student-officers must pass examinations with a grade of at least 85 percent to pass the course.

It was disclosed that most, if not all, of the instructors of these schools are professional law enforcement officers, or experts in their fields, and each is donating his time and efforts to provide a training program that will give each participating community more efficient service.

The Beautiful New Lincoln Continental

The 1962 Lincoln Continental's classic styling is enhanced by a redesigned front bumper, new front grille and repositioned headlamps. Many customer conveniences have been added to the car. Engineering refinements provide greater reliability smoother and quieter riding, and less need for car maintenance. Each Lincoln Continental undergoes a 12-mile road test. Two models of the luxury car are available this year. The four-door sedan is shown above. The four-door convertible has been improved in appearance to simulate the look of a sedan when the top is up. Both are being shown in the salon of Frank Adam, 130 Kercheval avenue, in the Farms.

Burglar Robs Dentist's Home

A thief broke into the home of Dr. C. W. Harley, 1018 Harvard, on Friday, September 15, and stole two expensive items, Park police disclosed. Dr. Harley, a dentist, told police that he left his house at 4:45 p.m. on Friday, and returned shortly after midnight to find that someone had gained entrance into the house by forcing a Fenestra window at the rear of the building. The doctor said that the burglar took a brand-new man's suit, valued at $125; and a portable television set worth about $169.

Pin-pointing the target is the main goal in any man's life. Attend the church of your choice—make it a family affair.

Church Forum To Hear Price

Dan Price, roving reporter of FM station WDTM, will be the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church's first speaker on their fall Sunday Evening Forum series. The Forum has become a traditional must for many informed members of this community. It is open to all.

Mr. Price's talk, "Europe, 1961", will begin at 8 p.m., Sunday, October 1, in the church's Chapel Hall and be followed by a discussion period.

Mr. Price returned from an eight week investigation of major news topics in Europe just last week. He was in Berlin when the Gate was closed; from Berlin he went directly to Moscow. As he speaks four languages, including Russian, his interviews with prominent European personalities and ordinary citizens are authoritative.

Prior to joining WDTM, Mr. Price was associated with station WJR, WFDF in Flint, and WJBG, Philadelphia. Before that, he was with the National Security Agency as an intelligence analyst. Mr. Price received his Masters Degree in International Relations from Syracuse University and is a student in Slavic studies.

Among the many newsmakers and personages who have been interviewed by Dan Price this year prior to his recent trip are Minister Malcolm X, international representative of Elijah Mohammed of the Muslim Brotherhood, Barry Goldwater, and Professor Melvin Conant of the National War College, to name a few.

The fall series of the Sunday Evening Forum on eight Sundays beginning October 1, will combine the services of outstanding members of the Unitarian congregation and visiting speakers and center on the theme question: "THE PROBLEMS OF THE 20TH CENTURY - WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT THEM?" A contribution of $1 per person will be required at Mr. Price's lecture, as the Forum is operated independently of the regular church budget.

The members of Mitchell's unit keep the border under constant surveillance through the use of jeep-mounted patrols and observation and listening posts.

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

Pictured with the Barnes School principal, MISS FLORENCE CUMMINGS, (right), is MISS MARGARET MARY DEMERY, new 6th grade teacher, examining the files and pupil records available for staff use in the school. Such data play an important role in acquainting newcomers with essential details concerning their charges and the functioning of the school system. Miss Demery, a graduate of Immaculata High School, attended Marygrove and the University of Detroit to prepare for her teaching career. She comes to Barnes after a year's experience at St. Joan of Arc's school. A music theory major in college, she still studies piano. An interest in modern music, especially 20th century Russian Composers, commands her attention in spare moments stolen from her teaching duties.

Now here—a great new exclusive from Buick

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its 3/4-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

Mr. Ferranti, owner of the Company, and his son Gary, who had been driving the Impala at the time of the accident, reported to the City Police Station, where they talked to Mr. Palms and agreed to take care of all damages.

Announce Exams For Academies

Representative Louis C. Rabaut (D-Mich.) announced that another preliminary Civil Service examination will be given in Detroit on Saturday, November 4, for young men residing in the 14th Congressional District of Michigan who wish to be considered for an appointment to the United States Military, Air Force or Merchant Marine Academies, for the classes entering in July of 1962. At the present time, no vacancy is anticipated at the United States Naval Academy for residents of the 14th District of Michigan.

men to serve as career officers in one of the services, and the education offered by the Military, Merchant Marine and Air Force Academies is regarded as the finest available. I urge the youth of the 14th District to take advantage of this opportunity.

Miss Packard's first novel, "Love in a Mist," received critical acclaim as a penetrating, witty and well-written book. It first was published in England in 1958, later was serialized and published in book form in America. Her second book, "Love in Question," is to be announced by Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York publishers, the day before her talk here.

Miss Packard has been visiting her brother, Warren Packard, of Birmingham, and her Grosse Pointe hostess is Mrs. George Detwiler, of Kenwood court.

Previously she visited her mother, Mrs. Edward Smith, in Naples, Fla.

The meeting is the first of four to be held during the 1961-62 season by the Friends of the Library, an organization of approximately 1,000 persons that serves the library by sponsoring a film forum, a great books series, by acquiring modern and rare books and otherwise contributing to the development of the Library.

It has a capacity of 150 cars and has three entrances and exits, one on Mack and two on Whittier Road. Like the establishment it serves, it is the largest of its kind in the country and is in keeping with the award-winning gardens that enclose it.

BABY BUGGY STOLEN

T. H. Fuger, Jr., of 690 Rivard boulevard, complained to City Police that he left a baby buggy in the garage at 637 Fisher road on July 17 when the family was moving to the Rivard address. When he returned for the buggy, Fuger said, it was missing. It is insured.

Reckless Drivers Pay in Shores

Charles C. Maiale of 1049 Seminole, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lakeshore with an automobile that had faulty brakes, and ordered to dispose of the vehicle, within two weeks, or obtain liability insurance.
Shores Judge John Gillis heard the case against Maiale, and convicted him of speeding 50 miles an hour. Besides ordering the driver to get rid of the car, the judge placed Maiale on six months probation and fined him $30. Maiale's license will be held until he pays the fine at a rate of $5 a week.
The judge also found Barbara Jean Jacoby, of 726 Barington, guilty of speeding 45 miles an hour on Lakeshore and ordered her to pay court costs of $7.50.

Robert A. Strale of 1923 Norwood, charged with reckless driving on North Deeplands, with an automobile making excessive noise, was found guilty and fined $35.
Richard A. St. Onge of 1274 Engle, Detroit, failed to come to court to answer for speeding 40 miles an hour on Lake Shore and forfeited his bond of $17.

Basil Rathbone, one of the best-loved theatrical people of our time, will be the opening attraction on Detroit Town Hall's 12-program series beginning October 4. The series, in its 33rd year, will be held in the new Fisher Theater on alternate Wednesdays at 11 a.m. The celebrity luncheon following the Rathbone lecture will be held at the Detroit Golf Club. Rathbone was born in Liverpool of a famous shipping family. After playing some 53 roles at Stratford-on-Avon, he scored a smash hit in London in "Peter Ibbetson." Then it was Broadway and such plays as "The Czarina," "The Heiress," "Witness for the Prosecution," and "Separate Tables." In Hollywood he was best known for his many-filmed adventures of Sherlock Holmes, "Romeo and Juliet," "Captain Blood," and "The Last Hurrah." Rathbone's recording of "Peter and the Wolf" delights children everywhere as does his "Tales of Edgar Allen Poe." He has also played many roles on television, including "The Lark" and "Hans Brinker and the Silver Skates."

The Civil Defense Picture

Pointe Civil Defense Director George Elworthy is being driven mildly wild by the flood of inquiries which have been coming into his office recently.

Mr. Elworthy has been subjected to all manner of questions about what is being done locally, and with suggestions, some stupid, about what should be done.

The top officials of all five Pointes were asked to attend a meeting on Tuesday evening, September 19, to discuss the situation. At the gathering in the Neighborhood Club were Mayor Kenneth Cunningham and City Manager Robert Stone of the Park, Mayor William Connolly and City Manager Sidney DeBoer of the Farms, Mayor Kenneth Koppin and Safety Director Vern Bailey of the Woods. The Shores had a meeting of the Board of Trustees scheduled that night and asked to be excused.

There has been a rumor that a directive is coming through which would make it mandatory for all cities with a population of 10,000 or over to establish their own Civil Defense organization. Those municipalities with populations of less than 10,000 would come under the county organization.

Mr. Elworthy was also at a meeting in Flint last Friday, which was attended by 61 Civil Service directors from all over the state. An association was organized and Mrs. Helen Luther, Civil Defense Director for Genesee County, was named the first president.

To further inform the public, Mr. Elworthy has asked this paper to publish the following letter, a copy of one recently sent out to all municipal heads, advising them of the latest developments in the Civil Defense program.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir: I am the mother of 5 children and I am deeply concerned about the apparent lack of initiative in protecting ourselves and our little ones against the REAL threat of an H Bomb being dropped on our city. WE NEED SHELTERS.

The Future Belongs To Those Who Prepare For It! Very sincerely yours, Grace Duffield, Mrs. Thomas A. Duffield.

Faulty Lights Cause Crashes

What's the greatest hazard on Detroit's expressways? The Traffic Safety Association says many drivers claim it is the car ahead with stop lights that do not work.

A recent Department of Streets and Traffic survey showed that of more than 15,000 cars observed, nearly 10 per cent had both stop lights not working and another 10 per cent had only one of two lights in good condition.

Detroit police and the Traffic Safety Association are now conducting a program to make certain that all car lights are in good condition.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

"I never knew..." This is a comment heard frequently over the library charging desk. "I never knew that you may borrow tools from the library."

September brings many new residents to our community. This week's column is written especially for them.

There are records for the asking at each of the three libraries. The long-playing discs for adults rent for six cents a day.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

AS THIS IS WRITTEN, the rain has stopped and the zip and zest of the brisk, crisp new season seems to be here. On the Hill, this week, the oddest bits and pieces have arranged themselves into a kaleidoscopic souvenir of the trip we made.

Outdoor Art Market which will be held in Grosse Pointe on the Hill between Muir and McMillan Roads, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, October 12, 13, and 14. Circle the dates. Then come and enjoy what you see.

One of the finest lines in the country will be ready for display at the Top 'O' The Hill when they present Eleanor Beard's exquisite needlework. Every article from bed jackets... and decorated sweaters are hand-done and merit the signature of the artist who created them.

We heard Margaret Mead, world famous Anthropologist this week: She said, "Our powers for good have grown proportionately with our powers to destroy."

The whirl of fall activities includes, in many cases, a game of cards. Those new NARROW ones are found at Trail Pharmacy, on the Hill... nicely boxed... ready for giving or keeping. Two dollars and fifty cents.

Did you know that intricate repair work on watches... clocks... travel... French or otherwise, is scarcely a challenge to the experienced staff (Tiffany, no less) staff at Pongraz Jeweler and Silversmith, 91 Kercheval.

Mr. Wm. Denier maybe having dinner at the typical little Left Bank cafe, La Bouteille d'Or, where he can have a lovely view of Notre Dame across the way, but he is also visiting Europe's finest shopping places where he can buy impressive, decorative pieces and fabrics for Grosse Pointer's. C'est bon! Nest pas?

'Tis true that the Hill may be just a dot on the world atlas... but it is indeed a shopper's paradise... serving up all that's wonderful.

Social Security Seeks Survivors

"We are still looking for survivors of workers who died before 1940 who may now be eligible for monthly payments," states Pendergast, manager of the Detroit-East social security office.

He explained that the original Social Security Act provided benefit payments only for retired workers. When the law was changed in 1939 to make benefits payable to the survivors and dependents of workers,

Records Smashed At Ford Museum

Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village established a new all-time monthly attendance mark in August.

Visitors totaled 250,690 last month at the indoor and outdoor museum of Americana founded by the late Henry Ford near Detroit, Mich.

Attendance at Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village reached a milestone in 1960 when more than a million visitors were recorded for the first time in its 32-year history.

What can I do about this pain? By FRED KOPP, R. Ph. Customers often ask questions like this. And every year we sell perhaps a ton of pain relievers. Relievers. That's the point. We can sell simple analgesics, but we can't prescribe drugs to eliminate the cause of pain.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Edgar's four grandchildren, Robert G. Edgar, Gay Edgar, Mrs. Benjamin G. Chapman and Mrs. John R. Gordon gave a dinner for the rest of the family at Mr. and Mrs. Gordon's University place home, while the birthday guest was celebrating at the Parkers.

Travel Before Classes

When Anna Petzold discovered she would not be able to enter the University of Michigan until next semester she was not too disappointed. While she is waiting she will be traveling about Europe with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Petzold, of Edgemont park.

They will leave soon for the Continent and expect to be home about December first.

Kegling Stars Hold Clinic at GPYC

Give Exhibit Friday Evening at Pre-Season Bowling Party; Jack W. Hooper General Chairman of Committee; Club League Bowling to Begin

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club bowlers got into the swing of things last Friday evening, September 22, preparatory to serious league kegling, when they gathered for their jolly pre-season bowling party in the club's Fo'Castle adjoining the bowling alley area.

Each year the fete is a great reunion; enthusiasm for the coming season runs high; there's a great deal of catching up on news; and there's considerable open bowling before the cocktail hour and after the buffet dinner.

Center of attention all evening were professional bowling stars Buzz Fazio, Maxine Cruchon and Elvira Toepfer, who gave expert instructions and were the featured personages of a bowling clinic.

Earliest on the scene were Jack W. Hooper, general chairman of the bowling committee, (Mrs. Hooper arrived later), and GPYC's kegling director and coach, Bob Warren. Among other early comers were the Ralph Richardsons, the John Welkers, the Louis Palombits (her black sport dress was sashed in two tones of beige), and the Gayford Hulberts, who were joined by the Roland Postels.

The Stanley W. Smiths were followed by the Lee Radkes, the William Schmidts and the Jack Botts. The Robert Webbers and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauss II were visiting around—but it was an evening of visiting as everyone knew everyone else, it seemed.

Brunswick's Marc Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin were a popular couple; the Stark Hickeys were always surrounded (her peacock green costume dress and waist-length jacket were stunning with bodice green-printed on a white ground, and matching jacket lining).

The Paul Morelands, the Ed Schoenherrns, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Cross and the Earl Frasers were there, as were the Howard Shaws, who earlier in the week had taken daughter Susie down to Haverhill, Mass., for her freshman year at Bradford Junior College. With the Shaws were the Ted Berendsohns, former New Yorkers now making their home in Harbor Hill road in the Pointe.

After dinner, Haford Kerbawy tried out his skill on the alleys and appeared to do pretty well, too. On another lane, Roger K. Smith and Stanley W. Smith had a kegling contest, while bowling diligently on still another alley was Mrs. Roger Smith.

In the late evening, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Haas stopped down at the bowlers' party for a few minutes chat with the James Quellos—Mr. Haas had given his piano and talk recital "An Evening With Karl Haas" in GPYC's ballroom, and this event has been sponsored by the Symphony Women's "Committee of the Musical Excursion Program," to benefit the maintenance fund for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra

Others at the kegling fete—Mrs. Haford Kerbawy who did a little practice kegling; Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams, and George W. Parkins, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Brooks, the Joseph Schnurs, Dr. and Mrs. George Franker, the Leo Schultes, the Frank Gofranks, the Charles Wainmans, the Fred Hillgers, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. (Pete) Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. Karl Weber, the Fred A. Hoods, Jr.

Having dinner together at one of the tables were a group of members of the new Thursday twilight mixed league, a league for young adults, including the George Gardellas, Jr., the Charles Gardellas, the Jack Suttons, the George T. Maghielses and Dr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lepley.

"County Home Rule" will be the topic for the opening meeting of the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe on Wednesday, October 4, at 12:30 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road.

County Home Rule, which is not provided for in Michigan, would allow the counties greater freedom and authority. Proponents of this idea feel it would make county officials more responsible to the electorate. Whether or not County Home Rule would aid or hinder the solution of Metropolitan area problems will also be considered.

David Calhoun, Mayor of Huntington Woods, will be the speaker. Mr. Calhoun came to Huntington Woods in 1942. He was a member of the Council for two years and has been Mayor since 1950. A graduate in engineering from Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia, Mr. Calhoun includes among his many responsibilities the following: membership on the Board of Supervisors of Oakland County, membership on the Inter-county Commission for the six counties of the Detroit Metropolitan area, past-president for two years of the Michigan Municipal League, and he has just completed a two year term on the executive committee of the American Municipal Association.

Residents of the community are invited to attend and participate in the discussion. Reservations for the luncheon may be made until Monday, October 2, by calling Mrs. A. C. Fortunski, VA 3-1562 or Mrs. H. L. Haggman, TU 5-8013.

Some of the highlights of Miss Kuhn's illustrated account will include visits to the music festivals in Split and Dubrovnik. She heard "Tosca" given in the former city and had the rare privilege of seeing "Hamlet" performed in the castle at Dubrovnik. It was given in Serbo-Croatian.

Miss Kuhn also visited the former principality of Montenegro and will show some colorful pictures of the castle there. She travelled on the new expressway to Belgrade which is complete with rest stops in the American manner from the outside but the resemblance ends, says Miss Kuhn, the minute you step inside.

The evening will conclude with pictures of the "Passion Play" which is rarely photographed.

Severo Ballet Plans Premiere

Severo Ballet Company of Detroit will open its 1961-62 season with a "Rehearsal Performance," premiering four new ballets, at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Saturday, September 30, at 8:30 p.m.

This workshop presentation will include two new ballets with choreography by Sandra Severo, to Benjamin Britten's "Variations on a Theme of Frank Bridge" and Brahms' "Serenade No. 2, one work to Varese's "Ionisation" choreographed by Buzz Miller and a work to Hanson's "Pastorale for Oboe, Harp and Strings" by David McLain.

Preceding each ballet, the choreographer will explain how the ballets were designed and developed.

The "Rehearsal Performance" is a new idea for Detroit with the choreographer explaining the design and development of each ballet to give the audience an insight into the workings of the choreographer and how he visualizes the end product. Funds from this lecture-type performance will be used in the Spring to present the same program fully produced in costumes and full staging.

Buzz Miller, outstanding jazz dancer-choreographer from New York City, visited Detroit September 12-13 to create a new jazz ballet to Varese's "Ionisation." Mr. Miller, who has recently choreographed a jazz ballet for the Roland Petit Co., Paris, France, has appeared in movies and on Broadway. On Broadway he was seen in "Pal Joey," "Me and Juliet" and in "Pajama Game." He is currently assistant choreographer to Carol Haney, who recently staged the dancing in the 1961 Oldsmobile Show here.

Miller is being brought to Detroit through the Severo Ballet Scholarship Fund, which was set up to assist Detroit's dancers last year in a special performance with the Detroit Symphony.

Tickets at $3, $2 and $1.50 are now on sale at Grinnells.

Miss Cripps Weds George E. Holme

Pair Speak Vows Saturday in St. Columba Church with Reception Following at War Memorial; After Quebec Trip Will Live in Pointe

In St. Columba Episcopal Church Saturday, Pamela A. Cripps, daughter of Mrs. William Henry Cripps, of St. Clair avenue, and the late Mr. Cripps, was married to George Edward Holme, son of the George E. Holmes, of Beaconsfield road.

For the rites the bride wore an ivory silk organza gown designed with a portrait neckline accented with lace. A double crown of matching fabric held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried white roses and daisy mums with ivy.

serts and hats of gold beige and rust colored leaves. They carried autumn shaded mums with sheaves of wheat.

John Holme, of St. Clair Shores, was his brother's best man and seating the guests were John Onstwedder, and Paul Hoisington.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the War Memorial Mrs. Cripps wore a pale green lace gown. Mrs. Holme was in dusty rose lace. After a trip to Quebec the newlyweds will live in the Pointe.

Pastor to Talk To Methodists

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold its next luncheon on Tuesday, October 3, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Ernest Scherer, chairman of the day, will introduce the speaker, the Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor of the church.

Devotions will be given by Mrs. Walter Griffith and the pledge dedication by Mrs. Norman Mooney. The Ruth and Esther Circles are in charge of serving the luncheon.

The theme for the year of the Women's Society of Christian Service is "The Household of God." In keeping with the theme, the Reverend Nixon's talk will have as its title, "Members One of Another?"

In speaking of this Rev. Nixon said that it is important for us to remember that it is one thing to work and live "alongside others; it is something quite different to be with persons."

Because the Church is intended to be a redemptive fellowship he will try to help women of the Church sense the importance of this distinction. The talk will be illustrated with pictures and there will be a question and discussion period.

Nursery care will be provided free of charge for pre-school children.

Fall's Great Color Show Set to Start in Michigan

"Autumn in Michigan," Mother Nature's re-make of last year's colorful outdoor extravaganza and a perennial favorite of travelers, will have its premiere in the upper peninsula in late September. Cool, autumn winds carry the show into the lower peninsula during October.

The opening scene is set in Michigan's renowned "Copper Country," the Keweenaw Peninsula. This arching finger of land juts into the gun-metal surface of Lake Superior and seems to beckon the frost-tipped winds which cue a colorful costume change for 19 million acres of green-cloaked Michigan forests.

Brightly costumed extras, performing in bow-shaped settings, steal the scene for a few hours during football weekends but Dame Nature is the real star of the show. She gives a brilliant performance with her portrayal of the flamboyant beauty, "Autumn," who dons her gaudiest finery for this fleeting season.

The Michigan Tourist Council has arranged to give advance notice to those who want to see the show. Based on recent years, October 1-17 is the most likely time to enjoy Michigan's fall color spectacular, but a card or letter to the Council office, Lansing 26, Mich., will bring a postcard announcing just when Mother Nature's performance is about to start.

The heavily forested expanses of the upper peninsula offer a multitude of scenic vistas for the autumn traveler and many communities have charted special tours of their areas.

Munising and outlying points in Alger county offer numerous planned tours through the Hiawatha national forest and routed near the many waterfalls which dot the area. Escanaba is the starting point for five tours of varying length, 72 to 130 miles. The view from atop Pine Mountain in Iron Mountain, features a spectacular scenic vista which is spiced by a ride on the aerial chair lift at the ski lodge.

Gogebic County has conveniently marked the special scenic attractions within its boundaries by wooden Indianhead signs for easy identification. Color photography fans will find countless camera subjects along the well-planned group of four tours outlined in Menominee county.

Marquette's Sugar Loaf Mountain, Lake Superior shore drive and seven other recommended color viewpoints present the rugged beauty of the upper peninsula dressed in its varicolored autumn raiment. Manistique has planned three tours which take the viewer through a goodly portion of Schoolcraft county.

A patchwork quilt of autumn color extends in all directions as far as the viewer can see from the overlook escarpment at Porcupine Mountains state park near Ontonagon. On the eastern end of the peninsula, Sault Ste. Marie and the nearby Newberry-Tahquamenon Falls exert magnetic attraction for those who have seen the area in its autumn adornment.

The northern half of Michigan's lower peninsula begins its autumnal transformation about a week after its start above the Straits of Mackinac.

Alpena suggests that the fall traveler follow a circuit using US-23 to Lakewood then along East Grand Lake road which skirts the Lake Huron shore and returns to US-23 up to Rogers City. Cadillac has outlined four tours varying in length from 20 to 70 miles.

Charlevoix is another central point from which three planned color tours emanate through the surrounding area, which is interlaced with tree-bordered lakes.

Cheboygan fall color enthusiasts recommend four circle tours for fall color and offer a brochure of detailed instructions. Grayling offers a marked tour along the old DeWard Trail and suggests a canoe float trip down the picturesque Au Sable River.

From Houghton Lake, color tourists will find the trip on highways M-76 and M-55 through the Ogemaw Hills and US-27 south to Harrison especially attractive. The Grand Traverse region has eight planned tours covering a five-county area, ranging from 22 to 175 miles in length.

Hubbard Lake in Alcona county is the center from which color tours radiate along highways US-23, M-65 and M-72. From Ludington, highways US-31 and US-10 run north, south and east into vivid fall color tour areas, including the Manistee national forest. Mackinaw City features tours along the tree-carpeted shores facing the Straits of Mackinac.

Manistee county, site of the 126,000 acre Manistee national forest, offers a color tour along the marked trails of the forest. Missaukee county, too, recommends five color tours to visitors in the area. Along Lake Michigan, Muskegon charts a

DAC to Open Show Season

Detroit Athletic Club will open its 1961-1962 floor show season for members and their guests with a show to be presented October 6 through October 14.

Headliner is to be Carl Ballantine, comedian, whose humor is highlighted by feats of fumbled magic. Nancy Donovan, charming singer, who has appeared at the DAC several times, will present songs ranging from classical to calypso.

In keeping with its format of recent years, the DAC will stage the performances on two Fridays and Saturdays, but will not have a show on Sunday, October 8, nor Monday, October 9.

Seymour Hoffman and his orchestra, currently at the DAC, will accompany the stars and play for dancing. Among early reservations are those of the Frederick A. Kaisers, the George Frischkorns, the W. Harold Lightbodies, the Sumner Gurneys, and the C. M. Fosters.

Something new has been added to DAC activities and its fathers-and-sons bowling which will start October 7. It's to be from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Saturday mornings during the bowling season except special occasion days. Minimum age is 13 years.

A 125-mile circle color tour in Newaygo county takes visitors through eight area towns and features such colorful attractions as "Little Switzerland" and Big Prairie. Osceola directs tourists in search of fall color to the scenic Au Sable River drive or a boat trip to the Five Channels dam.

A scenic drive on M-32 from Gaylord to Alpena is the fall color tour highlighted by Otsego county. Petoskey offers four tours through wooded lake areas of Emmet county. Port Austin is the central point for tours on M-25, east to Harbor Beach and west to Bay Port. Reed City is the starting point for a circuit through the colorful Osceola county lakes area.

St. Helen, in Roscommon county, recommends the system of county roads lacing the Houghton Lake state forest. A triangular route runs north from Standish on US-23 to Tawas, west on M-55, then south on M-65, M-33, or M-76 for a scenic trip over excellent roads.

At Tawas, the fall color devotee is directed to the Huron national forest, the nearby wildlife sanctuary, or the Au Sable River area. Vanderbilt, in Otsego county, has mapped a leisurely drive along US-27, where a sharp-eyed traveler may get a glimpse of Michigan's protected elk herd.

The final act of "Autumn in Michigan" is played with a backdrop of big-city skylines in the southern part of Michigan's lower peninsula.

Barry county has planned a 35-mile trip which takes travelers west from Hastings into the Yankee Springs recreation area and returns by a different route. From Howell, a visitor in search of autumn beauty is directed east on US-16, to Kensington Metropolitan park. US-23, between Saginaw and Bay City, affords excellent fall color viewing.

In Kalamazoo county there are three mapped tours 33 to MONUMENTAL TASK—Still searching for bodies and starting the tremendous cleanup job in hurricane-battered and flooded homes along the Gulf of Mexico, workers remove the body of Pat Malone, about 65, from the debris of his house in Galveston, Tex. The death toll was expected to reach 31. At the right two young sisters, Sandra, 9, and Susan, 7, play in the sunshine while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cohn, start salvaging in the rubble of their home, also in Galveston.

YOUNG MOSCOW FOLLOWS THE STYLE—Most women in the rural areas of the U.S.S.R. wear their dresses hovering close to their ankles, but the young girls in Moscow are following the Paris decree that skirts must barely cover the knees. These two are walking in Sokolniki Park.

TENNIS, ANYONE?—Katherine Melendez, 2, is following the instructions on the sign to the letter in Hilton Head Island, S. C.

HUNTING HIS FAMILY—Maurice Ham (left) aids in the search for bodies of his mother, brother and aunt in the debris of his home, shattered when Hurricane Carla crashed into Houston, Tex. Eleven persons were killed in Houston.

WESTWARD HO!—Leon Gillis, a Providence Forge, Va., restaurant owner; his wife, Ione; and their six children, dog, cat and bantam rooster are all ready for their vacation trip to California in a covered wagon. They have been planning the vacation for five years, and expect to reach Los Angeles in from four to six months. "You can't see much of the country traveling by car," said Gillis, 40.

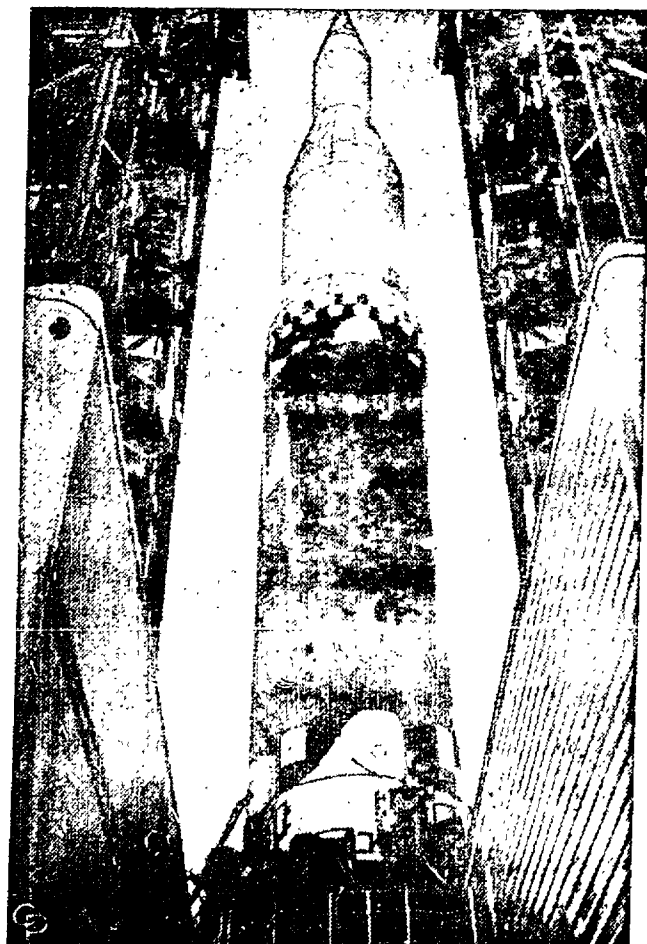

CROWDS GREET OAS INVESTIGATORS—Arriving in Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, a team of Organization of American States investigators was greeted by surging crowds. The investigators are trying to determine if the republic is ridding itself of dictatorship.

DEATH PLUNGE SCENE—A crash helmet of one of three carpenters killed in a 46-story plunge in Chicago lies in debris of a scaffold which broke. The accident occurred inside a spire of naked concrete, the east core of a twin, circular-shaped skyscraper going north of the Loop. Victims were Homer Fields, 33, James R. Toner, 24, and Wallace Kumpula, 42. They were working on the scaffold.

FIRST CHILD AT 104—Johnnie Johnson of Cleveland, who says he is 104 years old, proudly holds his 5-day-old son Johnnie Jr., his first child. Johnson's wife is 33.

'SUPER BOOSTER' POISED AND READY—Poised in gantry at Cape Canaveral, Fla., this Saturn "super booster" rocket will be launched on its first test flight in October. This rocket is a prototype of the mighty space machines which will send American astronauts on trips around the moon.

JUST LIKE A MOVIE—Felicia Atkin went to Hollywood from Sydney, Australia, via Paris and Las Vegas. Comedian Jerry Lewis spotted her in a Las Vegas night spot show and offered her a role in his latest movie.

DON'T TAMPER WITH JUSTICE—The old statue of Justice on Detroit's old City Hall kept her scales intact as she was lowered from the building being torn down as part of the city's downtown redevelopment project.

EATING OUT A HURRICANE—While Hurricane Carla was smorting around outside in Victoria, Tex., Gwynne Campbell, 10, happily fed her dog Lessie, and Danny Cardenas, 2, contentedly drank his milk in refugee centers.

Police Checking Gun Ownership

Two men found asleep in a car, are being investigated by Woods police because a gun was found in their car. They were arrested on Friday, September 22.

Under investigation are Stanley J. Bozich, 26, of 17821 Carwoni, Detroit; and William Mitchell, 25, of 1970 Troy, Ferndale. A German make 7.65 caliber automatic pistol was found under the seat of their car, according to police.

Patrolman Robert Setchell, in his report, stated at 8:10 a.m. Friday morning, he observed a car parked on Mack at Lochmoor, and decided to investigate. He found Bozich and Mitchell asleep in the vehicle, and the car ignition unlocked.

When the two men could not prove ownership of the automobile, Setchell radioed for assistance and Patrolman Kenneth Metcalf was dispatched to the scene. Metcalf searched the car and found the pistol.

At the station, it was found that Bozich was wanted by Detroit police on a traffic warrant. It was also found that the gun belonged to him.

Bozich stated that he had no shells for the weapon, but police searched him and discovered that he had a .32 caliber bullet in his pants pocket.

Police said that Bozich claimed that the gun was part of his collection and that he had picked it up at home and was going to give it to Mitchell to hold for him until a new trigger spring could be made for it.

Bozich was held for Detroit authorities, and Mitchell was released to relatives, police said.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian said that the gun is being checked out with Michigan State Police, and that the investigation is still pending.

Rear End Crash Costs Him $100

A car driven by Robert J. Peitz, of 23220 Marter, St. Clair Shores, slammed into the rear end of a car driven by Fred Crosby, 11766 Camden, Detroit, on Monday, September 18.

The accident occurred at the corner of Jefferson and Washington. Crosby had stopped for traffic before making a left turn from Jefferson onto Washington when he was hit. Both vehicles were damaged considerably.

City police charged Peitz, 23, with reckless driving and driving while his license was revoked. They recommended that he be re-examined for competency as he appeared to lack the proper responsibility toward driving.

Peitz' family was notified, and he was jailed in lieu of a $100 bond. Released to a lawyer and worker for the court, he appeared Thursday before City Judge Joseph P. Uvick.

Judge Uvick found him guilty and ordered a fine of $50 or 30 days. Peitz was placed on 12 months' probation, during which time he must refrain from driving. He was ordered to pay $50 damages to the other person involved.

INTRODUCING FOR 1962
THE NEW LEAN BREED OF DODGE
COMPACT DODGE LANCER
The black car above is the 1962 Dodge Dart 440. First of the Action-Economy cars. A low price, full-size Dodge that will outrun, out-economize most any car around. Accelerates seven percent faster on five percent less gas than a comparable '61 model. Reason? Less dead weight. For instance, its automatic transmission (with V8 engine) has an aluminum case, weighs 60 pounds less than last year's. The '62 Dart 440 is more comfortable. Has chair-high seats, a fold-down center armrest in front for bucket seat comfort.
The white car above is the Lancer GT, America's first Sports Compact. It carries five. Corners flat. Handles neat. Really goes. Bucket seats, all-vinyl interior, full carpeting are standard.
Full-size or compact, every 1962 Dodge is rust-proofed. Has a smooth Torsion-Aire Ride. Goes 32,000 miles between grease jobs. As always, the name Dodge is your assurance of complete dependability.

GPUS News Notes

Graham Cragg, of the Grosse Pointe University School mathematics department, has won a National Science Foundation grant for the upcoming two semesters at the University of Michigan.

The members of the G.P.U.S. Glee Club have elected their 1961 officers. They are Lynn Rosenfeld, president; Tessie Hill, librarian; and Charlotte Flintermann, secretary.

At least two new students at G.P.U.S. are continuing a family tradition by their enrollment this year. One is Cherie Kleinschmitt, an 11th grader, who is the granddaughter of Dr. William N. Moffett.

Busy painting the girls' senior room last week-end were Marcia MacDonald and Melinda Walker. Student Council president Anne Wood and secretary Philip Angell attended a state-wide student council assembly in Ann Arbor last Monday.

The first meeting for the year will be held in the Nursery School, Tuesday, October 10, at 8 p. m. At that time parents will meet in the classrooms with their children's teacher.

At the parent representatives meeting to be held September 27, chairmen for the following committees will be appointed: hospitality, telephone, observation booth, Christmas luncheon, refreshments, and field trips.

Lott and Nels Olson, 10th grade; Marna Lynch and John Perkin, 9th grade; Cathie Cinelli and Doug McMillan, 8th grade; and Katharine Duff and John Ballantyne, 7th grade.

The first two chapel assemblies of the school year were conducted last week by Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., on Monday, and by Upper School Principal Wellington Grimes, on Friday.

The first pre-game Pep Rally of the year seemed to work its magic last Friday afternoon since the varsity football squad went on to beat Whitmore Lake, 30-0.

The Grosse Pointe University School's Nursery School opened this fall with a movie camera grinding for Mrs. Ivan Dunlap, mother of Valerie and Charles, who has started work on a new film contrasting the play of three- and four-year-olds.

It might be interesting to note at this time that the Detroit Public Schools ordered a print of the first film "Nursery School in Action" to use in parents' study groups throughout the city.

The first meeting for the year will be held in the Nursery School, Tuesday, October 10, at 8 p. m. At that time parents will meet in the classrooms with their children's teacher.

At the parent representatives meeting to be held September 27, chairmen for the following committees will be appointed: hospitality, telephone, observation booth, Christmas luncheon, refreshments, and field trips.

Feature Page

By Pat Talbot

In the communal cemetery in the village of Courville, France, is the grave of William Muir Russel, first lieutenant, American aviator, died August 11, 1918. A year after his death his family collected his letters as a memorial and published "A Happy Warrior." Today these letters from one of the United States' first combat aviators to his loved ones at home, chiefly to his father Henry Russel, who lived in the summers at "Weeane" in the Pointe, make poignant reading.

William Russel was born in 1893, the youngest of five children, three sisters and a brother who died in childhood. The sisters grew up to become Mrs. H. F. Wardwell, Mrs. Allen Edwards, and Mrs. James Thayer McMillan. He was educated at the old Detroit University School, Hill School and Cornell University, leaving from his college classrooms to enlist just before graduation, in April, 1917.

After training in two stations in Illinois he arrived overseas in October. He trained briefly in France and then spent several months waiting about, with occasional leaves in Paris, for assignment.

Finally in July, 1918 he was assigned to the 95th Aero Squadron, which was also the squadron of his friend, Quentin Roosevelt. He wrote delightfully to tell his father he was at last "on the battle line" instead of flying routine missions over Paris.

On August 3 he wrote:

"After a year and a half of training one is prepared to do his part and yet I lingered on a mere recruit, away from the front, merely guarding Paris in night raids and piloting new aeroplanes across France to the front. The last three weeks, however, have been real and worth while."

"... It is a beautiful sight to watch a take-off before a patrol. The eighteen machines stand in two columns with all motors going. When the signal is given the first machine leaves the ground with the second not fifty yards behind."

"Our work is of different types—all with the main purpose, however, of knocking down enemy machines. We may have low patrols from one thousand five hundred to two thousand five hundred meters, or high from three thousand five hundred to five thousand meters. The latter are the safest. Another job which comes under our routine is to act as protectors to the bombing and reconnaissance machines, which are slow and necessarily have to penetrate a long way into Germany."

"... The last and most disagreeable work is 'strafing' the infantry in action, trains of camions and troops on the march. These various air performances have occupied my days for the past three weeks, and although it is for only four hours a day, it is quite tiring work. The strong wind blows in your face all day and you are ever on the alert, continually watching like a hawk the move of every machine above, below, and around you, with one eye fixed steadily on the sun, if possible."

"Well, father, enough of this, except to add that we look for and see everything in the air and on land, and that the Allies have done remarkable work. We have ample opportunity to visit the front several times and wander through the wrecked villages and devastated country. It is horrible. We must exact amends for it."

Before his father received this letter a cablegram came telling of Lt. Russel's death in action. He was the rear guard of a patrol of 13 planes, flying very high, and was cut off by a formation of 5 German Fokkers which came out of the sun on top of him. His companions saw him start fighting over the Vesle River near Vauxcerc and then he crashed to the ground within enemy lines. The French took the ground that same day.

In the Russel family four of the six grandsons, two of the twelve granddaughters and the husbands of six others offered their services in World War I. Lt. William Muir Russel was the only one who did not come home.

Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, who has just been feted at a stag luncheon in Los Angeles, is home again and deep in plans for the October 1 memorial television program for her late brother, novelist Ernest Hemingway. The network has asked her to check special material for the show.

Emory M. Ford, Jr., who with his sister Laura, spent the summer at the American School in Lugano, Switzerland, contributed an article to the school paper before he left for home on a July 4th celebration dinner the school sponsored. Firecrackers and red crepe paper were features of the festival for the small colony and Emory noticed how unusual it was to celebrate his national holiday in a town where none of the citizens joined the partying.

Mike Backinger is spending his Tuesdays and Thursday evenings at the Cannon Memorial Center superintending the casting of "Visit to a Small Planet", the first fall offering of the new Detroit Civic Theater of which he is now proxy. The comedy will be given October 13, 14 and 20 and 21 at Cannon.

The Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series has done it again—sold all its seasons tickets for the lectures beginning October 12 with social historian Cleveland Amory at the Esquire Theater. The series is sponsored by the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League. Patrons who waited too long are now receiving their checks back in the mail.

On Tuesday the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe celebrated its second birthday at the regular luncheon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. An organization formed by retired men to make productive use of leisure time, the groups has grown by leaps and bounds, now numbers over 200. A great deal of credit for this vital group must be given to its onetime president Ed Gehrig.

PILFERINGS

British playwright Noel Coward was once asked what he did about people who kept coming up to him and saying, "You don't remember me, do you?" "I always say," replied Coward, "Of course, I do. How's Muriel?" "You'd be surprised. There's something about that name Muriel. They never ask again."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. WENDELL W. ANDERSON, JR., OF KENWOOD ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Sun-streaked blond, Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., has nimble fingers with a needle, is a blue ribbon winner for that old fashioned art of crewel embroidery which she learned from a correspondence course. With those same nimble fingers she can clean a trout and shoot grouse in Scotland.

A rare combination of artistic and athletic, Mrs. Anderson spends a great deal of her spare time working for the Artists Market, the Art Museum and the Society of Arts and Crafts. She endures television rather than watches it and during these hours works at her crewel, an intricate type of needlepoint which requires learning 27 types of stitches. Her delicate pillows, which now rest on white brocaded couches in the hall of her English styled Kenwood road home, recently won ribbons at the Michigan State Fair.

Milwaukee Girl

As a girl in Milwaukee she watched her mother do crewel but never learned herself until about two years ago. She sent for a course by Erica Wilson Kagan, of the Royal School of Needlework, London. On one of her frequent trips to New York she stopped in to see her teacher, whose apartment is filled with frames holding crewel. Mrs. Anderson does her work in an embroidery frame.

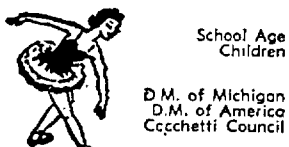

An artist all her life she had hoped to become a surgical artist, studying at Johns Hopkins when she left Briarcliff, but she met and married Mr. Anderson. Oil painting at home was somewhat of a problem as her husband is not too fond of the smell and litter of paint. Crewel is much neater.

Passed on to Children

The Anderson children, Wendell, 12, Lindsay, 10 and David, 3, are all artistically inclined. The two eldest have an art class once a week in their home with Suzie Tolleson and Sheila Ford.
