A Farms police report disclosed that the woman was hit while walking south across Mack, by the juvenile motorist, who was making a right turn onto Mack from Moross.

Miss Ramoser was taken to St. John Hospital by Farms firemen. An examination by doctors disclosed that the only injury sustained by the woman was a bruised right hip. X-rays showed no broken bones.

The young driver was issued a ticket for not having his car under control and causing a pedestrian injury accident. He will have to appear in Juvenile Court for a hearing.

LIKE THE housewife who shops for all sorts of things to keep her home running smoothly, your phone company buys many "housekeeping" items of its own. Last year, for example, Michigan Bell and Western Electric Company, the Bell System's manufacturing and supply division, bought about $62 million worth of supplies-from trucks to work gloves-from about 1,400 Michigan suppliers. Add the wages and salaries of our employees, our construction expenditures, state and local taxes, and the total benefit to Michigan's economy was one-quarter billion dollars.

YOU'RE GOING to be hearing more and more about Bell Telephone scientists' work with a revolutionary device called the Optical Maser. It transmits the narrowest light beam ever achieved, along which can be sent enormous numbers of messages-many, many times more than by wire, cable, or radio. Light may become a whole new medium for telephone talk, TV images and data communication. It's constant research like this that makes possible the latest telephone service improvements for our customers at the earliest possible time and at the lowest possible cost.

GOOD IDEAS are valuable and at Michigan Bell our Employce Suggestion Plan is providing lots of good ideas on how we can serve you better, faster and even more economically. Last year, for instance, Michigan Bell employees came up with over 2,500 suggestions on how to do things better. For cach one accepted the employee gets a cash award. So good ideas pay off in three ways: to the employee, to Michigan Bell which gains better methods of operation, and to you who enjoy the benefit of even more efficient service.

Blue Devils Beat Parkers Pair Taken By Reserves To Keep Grid Slate Clean

Grosse Pointe's Blue Devils celebrated Homecoming 1961 by clinching at least a tie for second place in the BCL and remaining tied for first place at least for the present. Saturday's 33-6 victory over Highland Park also assured the Devils of a better record than last year. So far the Devils have racked up three victories and no defeats in league play. Last year the Devils finished with a 2- yard line. Two plays later Beltz won, 2-lost and 1-tied record. In other BCL action, Monroe walloped Wyandotte 35-7, and Fordson kept its top ranking in the BCL by clipping Royal Oak Dondero 12-2. Next week Grosse Pointe will entertain Dondero, and Monroe will take on Fordson. If the Devils win, they will clinch second place. However, Royal Oak, a rugged team, will probavoid a second straight loss. the goal line. all business is conducted through the board which meets School. Any member having questions or suggestions is asked to contact the president, Mrs. Albert Law. These will be answered or acted upon by the board members.

In September the executive board, committee chairmen and delegates met at the President's home for a get-acquainted brunch and fully discussed policies for the coming year.

At the October board meeting 17 members were present and the business they conducted is here briefly noted. The treasurer, Mrs. Vincent Rodeck, reported several checks had been issued for scholarships, also funds were donated to defray some of the extra expenses of the three American Field Service students.

Mrs. Arthur Sherman, corresponding secretary, discussed the addressing and mailing of the Roster to 2,317 mothers. Formerly the addressing had been done by the students but now by necessity because of a full agenda in home rooms, this is done by the corresponding secretary and assistants. ## Arguments Continue

Arguments over merits of the Closed Campus pro-gram adopted this year at Grosse Pointe High School continue. A number of them take place in the NEWS office, where we make it a point to quizz any High School students who come in, about their views on the situation. There have been a few gripes about the curtailment of freedom, the crowded eating facilities and the jams in hallways, but the majority of the students appreciate the added opportunities for study which are being afforded and demonstrate an adult understanding of the problems involved and a willingness to 'cooperate | in every way possible to make the program work satisfactorily.

Monday afternoon, right in the middle of one of the busiest periods of the week in the NEWS office, a group of five boys came to make a heated report on a "nearriot" that had taken place in the High School corridors. Their grievances were many and some of the charges sounded fairly wild. The fact that none of the quintet was willing to divulge his name, nor to name any of the faculty members they were accusing, certainly didn't add any credence to their colorful descriptions of what had gone on. They said police had been called to stop the outbreak, but the police informed us they had had no calls to the school. Principal Jerry Gerich said there had been no disturbance of any size, but that one boy had been reprimanded for trying to start trouble.

Mr. Gerich also invited any or all of the NEWS staff members to come to the school at any time to see for themselves how the program was progressing. As he put it:--- "We have brought the trouble inside and things are working out very satisfactorily." He was referring to the minority element which always exists in large groups. The few who spent their noon hours careening around the streets at excessive speeds in their cars, throwing litter on the school and private property, making a nuisance of themselves in stores, are now being confined and resent it. Whether the boys who waited on us in the NEWS office belong to this small group, we wouldn't know. Just what they expected us to do was also not at all clear.

Our advice to them, and to all students who feel they are being put upon under the new system, is to sell their grievances to their parents. They should be good enough salesmen to convince said parents that their complaints are sufficiently valid to be aired before the proper authorities. We are certain that Mr. Gerich, Dr. James Bushong, superintendent of schools who will return shortly from Russia, and the members of the Board of Education would all be intensely interested and would make every effort to meet with the parents and find a solution to the difficulties.

In the meantime, letters such as the one which appears below, others which have been submitted and printed here, and our talks with many students, make us feel that things are not too precarious at the High School.

What's New on THE HILL Bv Roberta

The Hill, as it is called, stands between the corners of Muir and McMillan Roads in Grosse Pointe Farms. It is a very special shopping area comprised of many specialty shops. You will see why they are special as soon as you step inside any one of them. Where else can you find the service? And it isn't surprising that here you find hair stylists par excellence . . . stores devoted to women's clothes of the most admirable kind . . . much of it paraded by the lovely customers as they walk along Kercheval Avenue . . . farther up, you find men's clothes . . . further down, new shiny automobiles . . . delicious refreshments at the famous restaurant . . . shoes and clothes and toys for children . . . sports equipment (who's for football?) ... a travel service ... a pharmacy ... interior decorator studios . . . and sandwiched in between, gift shops laden with the old and the new ... Here stands the Hill ... and it all began a long time ago. 000

That stained

wooden room divider in The League Shop looks handsome enough for any room in the house. The lemons and blossoms and leaves hanging from the top dress it up. We looked at the tag. It read fiftyfive dollars.

At Anthony's this week we were introduced to two new young faces . . . those of Linda Krause and Frank Palozzola. I am sure you will hear more about these talented hairdressers.

As warm as your fireside are the new robes at Martha Lawrence, above the National Bank Bldg. So pretty ... so comfortable ... perfect for gift giving. Every gift is handsomely wrapped. 000

The famous collection of sterling at Pongracz Jewelers, 91 Kercheval, on the Hill features . . . Reed and Barton . . . Gorham . . . Towle . . . Lunt . . . and International. Pongracz Jewelers, Grosse Pointe's oldest Jeweler, invites you to begin or complete your sterling service here where personalized service has been important for more than thirty years. To start, a gravy ladle ... butter knife ... two serving spoons ... or a jelly server and sugar spoon can be fit into your scheme of living.

Rumor

We hear this week that the viewers of the Artist's of the Artist's Outdoor Market, held on the Hill last week, was enjoyable and a success. And that is good.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

In connection with the 75th anniversary of Alma College Saturday, a new residence for 185 women, Helen Newberry Joy Hall, was dedicated at the Presbyterian college.

Mrs. Joy, a long time supporter of the college, was the prime organizer of many projects for higher education. The daughter of John Newberry she was married to Henry B. Joy, later president of Packard Motor Company, in the small Protestant chapel at the foot of Kerby road. Her home, Fairacres, was always opened to the two dozen patriotic societies, music and theatrical groups, philanthropic and civic organizations to which she belonged. She was a devoted member of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and Cottage Hospital as well as the War Memorial

Following her death in 1958 the administrators of the Helen Newberry Joy Fund, which she established, provided funds for the new dormitory at Alma.

This is not the first residence hall donated by Mrs. Joy. Helen Newberry Residence at the University of Michigan was the gift of Mrs. Joy and her two brothers, the late John and Truman Newberry in 1915. Mrs. Joy, who wanted to be a nurse, gave scholarships for nurses to Wayne State University, served as chairman of the board of lady managers of Detroit's Grace Hospital, founded with Newberry and McMillan funds. She was a co-founder of Women's Hospital and gave that institution a home for nurses.

Mrs. Joy's home in the lakeshore has been razed to make way for a new subdivision but her many acts of charity and kindness, her modest and gracious manner, her dedication to service for others lives on in many hearts. The Alma residence hall is just another evidence in her boundless generosity.

States Senator, and early Pointe summer colonist married Mary L. Wetmore of another prominant Detroit family. The couple had six children, only three of whom survived their father.

Their son, James Howard, died the same year as his illustrious father, 1902, leaving a widow Julie and a daughter, Gladys. His last will and testament states that he bequeaths his gold watch and chain to his son James, but the rest of the estate was to go to his wife and daughter.

Gladys, who was 11 years old at the time of her father's death, grew up to marry Count Cornet de Ways-Ruart, of Brussels, and spent her married life at the count's chateau near Waterloo.

In his will James mentions that he bequeaths to "his beloved wife, Julie, all her paraphernalia, wearing ap-... parel, linen, jewelry and all articles of personal or domestic use or ornament usually worn by her or reputed to belong to her; and also all my household furniture, stores and supplies, books, silver, horses, vehicles, harness saddlery, blankets, robes and personal effects generally."

His considerable property was left in trust to his brothers, Philip and William (both Pointe lakeshore residents) to be executed in favor of his wife and daughter, and son, James. Provision was made should Mrs. Mc-Millan marry again, which she did to a Mr. Penrose. One of the executors, William McMillan, died a few years after his brother and it was left to Philip to administer church building but will be set to the building but will be set vertising man by profession,

Included in the testament was land fronting the lakeshore including a long dock which was shared by the McMillans and the Newberrys, their land adjoining. Senator James McMillan and his partner, John Newberry had built twin estates 'Lake Terrace" and built the dock for their steam yacht. John Newberry predeceased his partner but the dock was left to his heirs, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, John and Truman Newberry.

Philip McMillan finally sold part of the land of their handicraft, Christmas dec-James McMillan to Helen Smith Deming but it was orations and knitting. The inspecifically stated in the sale that the new owner would have no rights to the dock.

In the final paragraph of James McMillan's will he states: "I have made no bequests to my father or mother but I desire to here solemnly record my appreciation of their many kindnesses and benefactions.

Young James, who was bequeathed the gold watch and chain seems not to have survived his father by many years. William Charles McMillan his uncle who died in 1907 left two children, Doris, and James Thayer Mc-Millan, whose widow lives in Edgemont park today.
