to the same period last year, causing the slight decrease in both total revenue and net receipts after deductions.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, license plate fees and a small amount of miscellaneous fees are deposited in the Highway Fund. Hill pointed out.

How Fund Is Split

After deductions, the money is distributed under the provisions of State law which provides that 47 percent goes to the State Highway Department, 35 percent to the state's 83 counties for county roads, and 18 percent to the 510 incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

Under this formula, the Highway Department will receive $19,828,980, as its third-quarter share, the counties will get $14,768,262, and the cities and villages will receive $7,594,977.

Wayne County's share of the fund allocated to the counties, will be $2,949,313.

The third quarter collections, added to that of the first and second quarters, showed that the Pointes will be the recipients of a total of $279,619 from the Highway Fund.

On receipt of the third quarter distribution, the Woods will have received a total of $91,324; the Park, $76,160; the Farms, $54,778; the City, $33,093; and the Shores, $12,263.

Farms Pier

ming meet was held, with entries numbering 138, two short of the number for 1960. There were 34 events held, plus four preliminaries. Attendance for the meet was 1,100.

Regatta Interrupted

The Ninth Annual Regatta was held on July 30 and August 6. Twenty-three boats took part in the July 30 parade. The races were postponed to August 6 because of bad weather.

Thirty-one boats joined the race on August 6. The Water Ballet was performed by Farms students under the direction of Annette Urso, in two sections, advanced and beginners.

There was dancing in the evening to the music of a 10-piece orchestra, attended by the largest night crowd in the history of the park, 1,800 persons.

Attendance for July 30 was 4,000, and August 6, 6,000.

On August 5, the Lifeguard meet, and on August 6, the Inter-City Lifeguard meet were held in the Woods lakefront park for the first time. The August 5 meet was won by the Park guards, with the Farms guards second.

The Woods guards won the Inter-City Meet Championship for the second consecutive year. The awards were presented by the Woods. All five Pointes took part in the events.

20 Divers Compete

The Third Annual All-Grosse Pointe Diving Contest was held on August 12, with 20 contestants of all ages and both sexes participating. Ribbons were donated by the City.

A project of both the Farms and City, the annual Fishing Rodeo, took place on September 2, with 348 boys and girls attending the affair; 290 from the Farms and 58 from the City. A record number of fish, 119, were caught.

There was entertainment, with hot dogs, pop and prizes given to everyone. There were no left-overs from the 35 cases of pop, 70 pounds of hot dogs and prizes; and only eight dollars remained of the $350 appropriated for the affair.

In the swimming classes offered, 422 persons enrolled in the first session and 364 signed up for the second session. Classes were divided into beginners, breathing, advanced beginners, beginning intermediate, advanced intermediate, swimmers, mothers, lifesaving, synchronized swimming and diving.

Many Family Picnics

Of other activities reported, 154 letters were sent to individuals and concerns for picnics and family gatherings, with 4,856 responding.

It was also disclosed that the new springtime animals were the biggest playthings ever put in the park football, softball and games that have an element of danger were permitted in the open end of the picnic area.

Innertubes, frisbees, fins, toys, kickboards, etc., were available without charge from the check-room.

Basketball, tetherball, tennis, badminton, shuffleboard, volleyball, all very popular games, were played on the surfaced area near the boathouse.

City Replies to Hospital

that you did, in fact, ask that I issue you a receipt for having received this letter on the 22nd, in time for the meeting of the 25th. I would also add that a number of meetings and hearings have been held with Hospital representatives in attendance where the failure to have the required number of parking spaces and the green screen were thoroughly discussed. Records of the April 4, 1961 Public Hearing discloses that you stated at that time that the hospital was short of the off-street parking standards established in the Zoning Code by 54 spaces. This was given in support of your petition for re-zoning. In view of the many opportunities that were afforded hospital authorities to present their case and the fact that you not only knew of the meeting of September 25, 1961 but had actually submitted a communication to be placed on its agenda, special notice of the regular meeting, which is unusual in itself, would have been rather superfluous.

As to the requirements for additional off-street parking spaces and the green screen, I would like to remind you of the agreement between the Hospital and the City of Grosse Pointe made in 1952 establishing conditions upon which the Building Permit was issued for construction of an addition to the hospital at that time. This agreement, which was approved in writing by yourself as attorney for the hospital, enumerated nine different conditions to be met by the hospital during construction. Most of these had to do with construction methods but the two that are pertinent to our problem here included specific reference to the permanent black-top surfacing of the enlarged hospital parking yard area and to the "proposed landscaping and green screen project referred to by Mr. Hayes at the hearing is stipulated as a necessity and is to be accomplished as soon as possible." As mentioned above, a written communication was received from you indicating your approval of these conditions and the building permit was subsequently issued for the hospital expansion. Then, as you probably remember, before construction had quite begun on this addition, the hospital petitioned the Council for additional expansion as a result of the AMA changing its minimum standards for the intern training program from 100 to 150 beds. After another public hearing, a building permit was again approved by the City Council. An extract of the minutes of this meeting held February 3, 1953 appears below indicating the specific conditions upon which the permit was granted:

... it being expressly stipulated, however, and made a part of this record, certain minimum conditions which, when permit is granted, will be incorporated with and made a part of such building permit, such minimum conditions being as follows:

"It is expressly stipulated that the present ratio of hard-surfaced off-street vehicular parking will continue so that at all times there will be one such parking space for each patient's bed in addition to which there shall be at all times adequate off-street hard-surfaced parking for employees, medical staff and all others engaged in any manner in such hospital, the adequacy of such parking to be determined by the City Parking Committee and Authority and the matter of adequacy to be reviewed from time to time.

The second man was said to be heavy set, about five feet eight inches tall, about 220 pounds, big shouldered, stocky, big chest and small waist, had large wide set eyes in a full face, light brown hair, pink complexion, and wearing a washed-out Navy blue jacket. Sgt. Van Tiem and Paisley said the case is still under investigation.

The second man was said to be heavy set, about five feet eight inches tall, about 220 pounds, big shouldered, stocky, big chest and small waist, had large wide set eyes in a full face, light brown hair, pink complexion, and wearing a washed-out Navy blue jacket. Sgt. Van Tiem and Paisley said the case is still under investigation.

The present Ordinance requirement for off-street parking for hospitals requires one parking space for each patient bed and one parking space for each five staff persons. The only difference between the provisions of this Ordinance and the conditions set forth above, is that the Ordinance expresses in specific terms the ratio of parking spaces required for staff and employees. Unless it could be concluded that one space for each five staff persons is an unreasonable requirement or is more than "adequate," the conditions upon which the building permit was issued are, for practical purposes, the same as those imposed by the present Ordinance.

You have also made two points in your letter relative to the green screen which I would like to answer at this time. You state that (1) you had felt that your "commitment in this regard had been satisfactorily met," and (2) that "[this is the first request made by the City for any change in or addition to the planing]." With respect to the second point, you are probably correct that the City has not given the hospital written and specific notice that the green screen was inadequate, although, I find nothing in the City records that would indicate that the "plantings" had been approved as a green screen. In fact there are statements on the record which would indicate that the green screen was not adequate. In the hearing of April 15, 1957, involving an identical request for expanded parking facilities, it was stated, in response to a direct question, that the hospital was still making an attempt to have the lot screened. This was four years after the building permit was issued. The inadequacy of the present green screen was also raised in the April, 1961 hearings and no comment was made by the hospital authorities. With respect to the point you made that you felt your commitment on the green screen had been satisfactorily met, one need only to pass the parking (Continued on Page 7)

GPUS Student Solos at 16

OTIS LEE MCKINLEY, is without doubt the youngest student at Grosse Pointe University School who can fly airplanes solo. In fact he is probably the youngest for miles around. He made his first solo flight October 16 which incidentally was his 16th birthday at his father's airport in Fraser. FAA rules require that one be 16 before he can fly alone and Otis Lee didn't wait very long before trying his wings.

His brother Velton made his first solo flight on his 16th birthday just ten years ago and the family of ten children plan to make the procedure a family tradition. His instructor was Arnold Pelton, veteran flight instructor who has been turning students loose to fly the wild blue yonder for 20 years.

His father, Dr. Otis McKinley, dentist and Fraser councilman, operates the largest privately owned airport in Michigan and the family, known in aviation circles as The Flying McKinleys, have flown over much of the North American continent in private planes and airliners.

Otis Lee will begin working toward his private pilot certificate so that he can take his classmates flying at the earliest possible date.

Arrest Teenager With Gun, Knife

Acting on meager information supplied by teenagers, regarding an assault and death threat from a 15-year-old Park boy, Lt. Arnold Hough, Park Juvenile Officer, arrested two 15-year-old Park boys on Tuesday, October 31. One boy was released to the Wayne County Juvenile Probation Department.

The boy who was held, was filed against in juvenile court for being in possession of an unregistered automatic pistol, and for carrying an eight-inch switch blade knife.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the lieutenant had received information concerning a youth making threats to assault and kill another youth, but that was as far as the information went. The complaint was received on Friday, October 27.

Lt. Hough, the chief said, started an immediate investigation, talking to different teenagers, and following leads, and finally arrested the two boys, one of whom was carrying the gun and the knife.

The boy who had the weapons, confessed to the lieutenant that he had stolen the gun, a German make P-38, similar to a Luger, from a dealer in Detroit. The second boy knew of the theft.

The boy said that he showed the gun and the knife to a group of boys and girls, telling them that the gun was not in working order, but did not state this until after he had threatened to use it.

The gun was checked and found to be in perfect working condition, the chief said. Both weapons were confiscated as evidence, the chief said, and the boy was filed on in juvenile court, after which he was turned over to Detroit authorities because the gun was stolen in that city.

ADDED TROUBLES

Martin B. Potter, 26, of 22419 Edgewood, St. Clair Shores, was stopped by Woods police at Lochmoor boulevard and Mack for a traffic violation. It came to light that the motorist was wanted by Detroit authorities on two traffic violation warrants. He was turned over to Detroit police, but not before receiving a ticket from Woods officers for failing to change the address on his operator's license.

Win the battle of life—he a hard hitter and a poor quitter.

was in that position for 20 minutes.

He said he looked at the man for about five minutes before the man put the bag over his head. He said he saw the two men stuffing fur pieces in canvas bags, similar to the one put over his head, when he lifted the bottom of the bag and peeked out.

Anusbigian said that the second man, whom he identified as Boulas, took approximately $300 from his trouser pocket, and asked for the combination to the store safe. The merchant said he gave the man a wrong combination number, and when the safe would not open, the men left. Boulas unsuccessfully tried to take a ring from his finger, Anusbigian said.

He identified the box that was said to have contained the bags, three canvas bags, one of which had been placed over his head and the other two that had been left in the box, and a list of the stolen fur pieces, numbering 56 pieces, which Anusbigian said were valued at a total of about $24,000.

Anusbigian told the court that he next saw Boulas in an FBI lineup in a Chicago police station, and picked him out of 13 men in the lineup. Anusbigian said he also picked Boulas because his voice was the same as the man who handcuffed him.

Devlin asked Judge Goodrow to admit the box, bags and list as exhibits, which was done without objection from the defense attorney, Irwin Kasoff.

Kasoff, in a cross examination, asked when Anusbigian first identified the accused man, and the answer was in a police mug file, in which 12 photos were viewed.

The attorney forced Anusbigian to admit that out of the 12 photos, the merchant picked two dark complected men, but at first, he (Anusbigian) was not sure which of the men was the one supposed to have been involved in the holdup.

Anusbigian also admitted talking to Boulas' brother, who lives in Flint, and stating he was not positive of the identification. However, in court, when asked by Kasoff to pick out the man in the holdup, Anusbigian pointed to Boulas.

The attorney sought to shake Anusbigian's identification of Boulas in the 13-man showup in Chicago, by asserting that the merchant picked Boulas because he was the most dark complected man in the lineup. Anusbigian refused to change his story.

Devlin asked the court to hold Boulas for trial in Circuit Court on a charge of robbery armed, and Kasoff asked for a dismissal of the charge.

Judge Goodrow said that after hearing all of the testimony, he found sufficient cause to have Boulas bound over for trial. At the request of Kasoff, the judge continued Boulas' bond at $5,000, and Boulas was released until the trial date in circuit court is set.

In an interview, following the hearing, Boulas claimed that at the time of the holdup, he was visiting his family in Flint. He said that he did not have a police record, which was verified by police.

Boulas claimed to have sold the car, in which FBI agents found the furs in Chicago on March 28, about five or six weeks prior to the holdup of which he is accused.

On the March date, Federal agents arrested Boulas, and two other suspects, James W. Bamford, 41; and Sorecho Nalo, 29, both of Chicago, after finding 18 mink stoles from Kay Anos Fur Store, 19619 Mack avenue. (The firm moved from this location shortly after the robbery.)

After an investigation, Nalo was released because of lack of evidence; Bamford was deported to Canada, from where he entered the United States illegally 16 years ago, and Boulas was later extradited from Chicago.

The Kay Anos company was victimized six times since October 31, 1959, in different burglaries, losing approximately $100,000 worth of furs.

Park Patrolman Shifts Uniforms

A Park probationary officer, who joined the department on Wednesday, October 4, was "tapped" for military service with the United States Fifth Army for one year reserve duty because of the crises in Europe.

Patrolman Robert P. Arman, 23, who lived at 14717 East Ver-nor Highway, Detroit, exchanged a policeman's uniform for a soldier's with a rating of a specialist fourth class, and left for active duty on Sunday, October 29. He will be stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., until his unit receives further orders.

Arman served with the U.S. Army, doing state-side duty, from 1956 to 1958, and was honorably discharged with the rating of specialist fourth class, but remained in the active reserves.

A native of Detroit, he is a graduate of Southeastern High School.

He is married to the former Phyllis Bibrey of Detroit. The couple have one child, a daughter, Susan, who is 16 months old.

Mrs. Arman moved to the home of a friend, Mrs. Geraldine Bauder, 365 Chalmers, where she said she will stay for about two months, or until her husband receives his final orders. If her husband remains in the States, Mrs. Arman said, she will live with him, on or near the Army base.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Arman was a probationary officer, and as such, had no service standing in the Police Department, but unofficially, his job will be kept open for him.

As things stand, now, the chief said, a temporary replacement will be hired to take Arman's place, to keep the department manpower at its present 30 men.

The chief said that there were other men in his department who are on military reserve status, but are uncertain of whether or not they will be called to the colors.

League to See Hawaiian Film

Max and Frances Faulkner will present their spectacular 16mm color film "Hawaii" at the next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League on Thursday, November 9, at 8 p.m., in the War Memorial Center.

Mr. Faulkner, a member of the Detroit Cinema Club, has many unusual shots in his film. The audience will see spectacular views of a volcano in action, accompanied by the sounds of the eruption. The film includes beautiful scenes of flowers, waterfalls, the Lei Day show, and the ride on a catamaran to meet the S.S. Lurline.

Among the pictures shown on Kauai, the Garden Isle, are shots of Waimea Canyon, the Grand Canyon of the Pacific, and views taken on a trip along the north shore to the Na Pali and Bali H.

There are also scenes on Maui, the Valley Isle, with a trip to the 10,000 foot level of Haleakala Crater, the largest extinct crater in the world.

On Oahu, the audience will watch the surfing at Walkiki Beach, visit a hibiscus garden, and see Diamond Head from the air as the journey ends. Background music in Hawaiian style is heard through the film.

Any Grosse Pointe resident interested in photography is welcome to be a guest at this meeting.

The move was made to coincide with the opening of the "Dollars for Democrats" drive now in effect.

Mr. Mead will also work in co-operation with J. D. Barlow of Grosse Pointe Park, Jay McCormick of Grosse Pointe Farms and Mrs. George Chieger in Grosse Pointe Woods and St. Clair Shores.

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

MISS NANCY SIKKEMA, Trombly music teacher, demonstrates her talents on the auto-harp for fellow newcomers as well as Trombly Principal FRANK J. WALCENBACH (left). She, MISS MARIANNE CON-

CILIO, kindergarten teacher (2nd from left) and MRS. JEAN TUTTLE, grade 2 teacher, are serving their first year with the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Miss Marianne Concilio was born in Detroit and is a graduate of Dominican High School. She completed her training as a kindergarten teacher at Marygrove College. The Trombly assignment is her initial teaching experience and she indicates it is a challenging and interesting assignment.

An Iowan, Miss Nancy Sikkema was born in Clinton and graduated from Des Moines High School. She then attended Drake University in Des Moines, with a degree in music education. The Mu Phi Epsilon Senior Award was given her as the most outstanding senior music student. She also earned a University Honors Scholarship while an undergraduate. Hobbies indulged in when Trombly duties permit include sailing, water sports, and reading.

Mrs. Jean Tuttle is teaching a second grade class at Trombly this fall. She comes here after 5 years experience in the Kenmore and Brighton, New York schools. Mr. Tuttle is presently interning at Henry Ford Hospital, Silver Creek, N.Y. is Mrs. Tuttle's birthplace and where she completed high school. Her training to teach was accomplished at Brockport College of Education, which awarded her a bachelor of science degree and the University of Rochester where she earned her M.A.

She, too, earned an award as the most outstanding senior in her class. This was the Hartwell Award in 1956 at Brockport which resulted in her being selected for Who's Who in American Colleges that year. Golfing and reading occupy much of her leisure time.

Youngsters Deny Damaging Car

Vincent S. Pernicano, 31607 Auburn, Birmingham, reported car damage to City police on Saturday, October 28. Pernicano stated that he had left his parked car in front of 17020 Maudslayi and returned at 5:30 p.m. to find both the right window and the windshield broken.

Officer William Waldecker, Jr., who ascertained that the damage had been done by a BB gun, checked the immediate neighborhood. He found two boys who owned BB guns, but both denied any knowledge of the crime. The matter is still under investigation.

Blowout Causes Three Car Crash

A front tire blowout sent Leona Elizabeth Beemer's '54 Ford skidding into two parked cars on Saturday, October 28.

Mrs. Beemer, 1006 Wayburn, had been driving east on Jefferson early Saturday evening. She was in the process of making a left turn at Cadieux when her right front tire blew out, pulling her car to the right.

The Ford, out of control, slammed into a '61 Oldsmobile parked at the east curb on Cadieux, continued going and struck a '59 Buick also parked at the east curb. The Buick, owned by Warren Rinalds Larchell, 518 Thompson, Saginaw, was hit on the left side.

City police, informed of the three-car collision via Grosse Pointe Park Police Department radio, went to the scene of the accident. Officers William Waldecker, Jr. and Duncan MacEachern took Mrs. Beemer's report, issuing her a ticket for reckless driving resulting in an accident. Her car was towed away.

The works of some people are constant prayers of self-praise.

City Replies to Hospital Lawyer

(Continued from Page 2) area on Maumee and Notre Dame to actually observe that the plantings in the hospital lawn do not constitute a green screen or barrier to vision, as contemplated at the outset. With the exception of two evergreens, these trees consist of small deciduous trees which shed their leaves annually. We are approaching the time of year when the parking area will be almost entirely exposed to clear visibility from all sides. It is not felt that these plantings could be termed a "green screen" in the sense anticipated by the City Council when they established this condition in granting the building permit. In conclusion, I would like to express my regret in seeing the publication of your letter. I do not feel that this is the way to settle problems of this type or to work toward a satisfactory solution of them. I am deeply concerned over what appears to be a deterioration of relations between the hospital and the City. The Council and those of us working within the administration, are all attempting to make decisions that are in the best interests of the whole community and I sincerely believe that those of you who represent the Hospital are motivated by ideals every bit as high and worthy as these. Publicity such as this can only serve to widen the gap of confusion and misunderstandings that appear now to exist. The City Council, in requesting the hospital to increase its off-street parking spaces and to establish an adequate green screen is merely requiring the completion of conditions already agreed upon prior to issuing the 1952 and 1953 building permits. The Engineer's plan submitted in my prior communication illustrates that this can be done on the property already used for off-street parking by the hospital.

If you have any questions or would like to offer any suggestions or criticism on matters in dispute, I would be pleased to discuss them with you or make arrangements to have you discuss them with the City Council.

Sincerely yours,
COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE
L. C. SAVAGE,
City Manager

Cubs at Ferry School Gather

Pack 34 held its second meeting of the season last Thursday evening in the Ferry School gymnasium. William Healy was the master of ceremonies.

The flag ceremony was performed by John Richardson and Steve Anderson. The invocation was given by John Charley. Cub Master Healy welcomed the following new scouts to the Pack: John Shook, Drew LaChuisa, Robert Massie, Jay Jackson, Kenneth Vorhees, Richard Noyes, Richard Darling, Richard Clifton, Ross Clark, Timmy Atkinson and James Robertson.

"Sleepy Hollow" was the theme of the program. Skits, games and relays were among the boys' activities. Den 3 presented the bowling scene from Rip Van Winkle with Michael Merritt, Bob Massie and Jay Jackson taking part. The "Headless Horseman" scene was presented by Den 1 with Bill Healy, John Charley, John Shook and Rickie Staffel taking part.

The following Cubs received Advancement Awards: Bobcat Pin, John Shook, Richard Noyes and Richard Darling; Silver Arrows, Jerry Rivard, John Duncan and Don Wilkie; Gold Arrows, Jerry Rivard, Steve Anderson and Don Wilkie; One Year Pins, Jerry Rivard and Stanley Lindow; Two Year Pins, Allan Hoffman, Tom Longley and Ray Tatu.

Mrs. L. Staffel will serve as the new secretary. Mrs. S. Lindow will serve as the new membership chairman. Benediction was given by Cub Scout Michael Merritt.

Fire Damages Home in Farms

Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason disclosed that quick action on the part of the firefighters of his department on Thursday, October 26, kept the fire damage at the home of the Curtis Goulds, 282 Hillcrest, at a minimum.

The chief said that painters who were removing paint from the south side of the house with blow torches Thursday morning, unknowingly started a fire between the walls of the building, just below the eaves. The painters stopped work to eat their lunch, the chief said, and were unaware of smoke that became visible from the outside of the house.

Mrs. Gould, who went outside to see how far the painters had progressed, noticed the smoke and called the Fire Department. The fire was put out with a booster line.

The chief said that damage was estimated at about $200. He said that the clapboards inside the wall kept the blaze from spreading immediately into the attic. If the fire had reached the attic, the chief said, it would have been more difficult to control.

NO MORE FISHING

Dr. Harry Hasmer of 1033 Bedford, called Park police on Monday, October 30, and stated that between October 28 and 30, someone broke into his boat, docked in a large well at the waterfront park, and stole two fishing rods, two reels and other fishing equipment, and two raincoats. The loss was valued at a total of $205. The boat was unlocked, he said.

Following the general meeting, a social hour is planned

Detroit likes action...and Buick's got it!

Northland shoppers' Special... There are good reasons why the Buick Special (particularly the Special wagon) is such a welcome shopping companion. The roominess finds exceptional favor: even the results of real shopping jamboree only begin to fill its luggage or cargo area. The Special alleviates parking distress, too... slips in and out of tight spots with the grace a lady likes. Something else that's nice to contemplate is this: even though you may splurge in the store your Special is pinching pennies on the road. With either V6 or V8 engine you get real bargain-basement economy. Find out about this tremendous value. Buick Special '62

Pointe Theater Has Finest Set

The newly formed Stagecraft Class of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater paid off with the finest theatrical set ever furnished a community theater production. Designed by, and under the supervision of Roger Shepard, the scenery for the current play, "Mr. Roberts", was built by many men and women who had never had a hammer or screw driver in their hands.

Even the small fry got into the act, arriving with their parents and carrying various materials to places needed and generally proving helpful.

The gun turret, cabin that turns around on wheels to be a bulkhead in some scenes and two different cabins in others, a hatch with sliding cover from which members of the cast emerge, all give a realistic appearance of the deck and interior of a Navy ship.

Mr. Shepard is well qualified to be chairman of the production department for the GPCT. A graduate of Grosse Pointe High, he got his degree in speech at the University of Michigan. In 1945-46 the Army assigned him to a soldiers' show, "Script and Score", as technical supervisor. This job quickly proved to be constructing the sets, doing the lighting and sound and being responsible for all transportation.

The musical toured throughout Germany and Austria, playing 175 performances, all one and two night stands. They set up the theater in anything from a platform in the middle of a field to opera houses.

Since leaving the service, Mr. Shepard has been a radio engineer, working for an Ann Arbor station as sound engineer, and for another as program director. He is now supervisor of Men's Employment Office of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The Joshua Logan, Thomas Heggen play, "Mr. Roberts", is being presented Friday, November 3, and Saturday, November 4, at the Grosse Pointe High Auditorium, Curtain is at 8:30 and tickets are available at the box office. Not recommended for children.

Church Women To Tour City

To bring the study course on "Christian Living" from the realm of theory into the domain of reality, the women of Christ Episcopal Church have arranged for a bus tour through downtown Detroit.

The bus will leave the Church parking lot at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday, November 7, and will return to Grrosse Pointe early that afternoon.

The cost of the tour including a box lunch which will be provided is $2. Reservations should be made by phoning the Church office, TU 5-4841. Everyone is welcome.

Details for the tour have been worked out by Mrs. George Root, Parish Chairman of the newly formed Episcopal Community Services, and the Rev. Elmer B. Usher of Mariner's Church, head of the Diocesan Episcopal Community Services.

Stops will be made at Williams House, a home for unfortunate girls; St. Peter's Home for Boys, a refuge dedicated to rebuilding the morale of boys from unfit homes; and Mariner's Inn which provides shelter for homeless men.

The Episcopal Churchwomen make an annual contribution from their budget to these three institutions, but until now very few parishioners have had the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the work carried on within these inner-city areas.

The study sessions will continue Tuesday mornings throughout November under the auspices of the Rev. George R. Whitney and will deal with "The Church and the Community." Text for this part of the course is Part III of "Christian Living" by Stephen F. Bayne.

The bridesmaids, dressed like the honor attendant, were Sharynn Sallé, Sandra Olzark, Patricia Kelly, sister of the bridegroom, and Rose Ann L'Esperance. Mary Anne Fletcher was her sister's flower girl.

Church Plans Loyalty Service

Three Worship Services will mark Loyalty Sunday at Memorial Church on November 5. These services will be held at 8:30, 9:30, and 11:15.

Loyalty Sunday has become such an important part of the yearly program, it requires additional emphasis and services. It is on this Sunday that pledges for the yearly operating and benevolent program of the church are dedicated.

Throughout the year the people of Memorial Church have been hearing, discussing, and thinking about Christian Stewardship. This often used word has taken on new meaning as it has been seen in connection with Biblical teaching and its application to daily life.

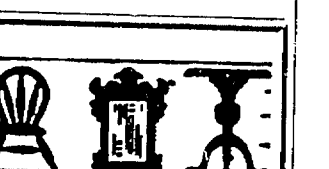

Stewardship is the practice of systematically returning a definite portion of income to God's program in and through the church. The basis for this return is gratitude to God rather than an attempt to meet a budget. Thus the budget of the church is a realistic appraisal of areas of concern instead of a goal to be reached.

It is because people are vitally grateful for the heritage given to them, as well as the hope they now know, that pledges are made each year. This is a matter for each person's thought, for each has been singularly blessed.

The Stewardship program of Memorial Church has included emphasis upon missions, scholarship aid for foreign students, clothing drives for overseas need, closer looks at the work being done in the Detroit area in addition to the local emphasis.

Memorial Church has direct relationship to three missions, in India, Lebanon, and Alaska. In addition, minor support is directly given by the Women's Association to eight missionary families.

Loyalty Sunday Worship Services will feature the Boy's Choir at the 8:30 service, and the Chancel Choir at the other services. The sermon, by Bertam deHeus Atwood, will be "The Stub of an Old Check-book".

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael R. Farah, wore a full length gown of white Skinner satin trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls with a chapel train. Her white illusion veil fell from a crown of crystal beads and she carried a white satin prayer book topped with white carnations and stephanotis.

The flower girl, Michelle Sophia, of Flint, wore a short, full, white silk organza dress. Mark Naimy served as ring-bearer.

Best man for his brother was George Shammas; and the bride's brother, Roger Farah, Raymond Mourad, of St. Clair Shores, and John Cueter were ushers. Another brother of the bridegroom, Richard Shammas, and a nephew, Marshall Lakis, were junior ushers.

The bride's mother chose a gown of pale green lace with an underskirt of ivory peau de soie with matching accessories and carried orchids.

Along Gratiot avenue at the turn of the century the Belgian colony congregated. Many of them had come to the Pointe in the mid-nineteenth century and emigration continued with the Belgians bringing their heritage to the community to mingle with the French.

One of the most successful of these emigrants was Adolph Posselius, a native of Antwerp, where he early learned the trade of carpentering, wood turning and chair making. In 1857 he came to America aboard a sailing ship which took 53 days to make the trip. After docking he brought his family directly to Detroit where he had a job in a furniture factory. Soon he was in business for himself, building a factory which manufactured chairs on the site of the present Gratiot market. He died in 1879 leaving four children, one of whom, Alphonse, expanded the business.

After his school days in Detroit Alphonse continued to learn about furniture manufacturing by working in Chicago, Cincinnati and Grand Rapids. In 1901 he bought six acres of land at Harper and Mt. Elliott and built a new factory where he did a thriving business until after World War I when he sold the building to the Dodge brothers, John and Horace, who used the factory to make automobiles.

Alphonse Posselius grew and prospered along with the city which he remembered as little more than a village. In his boyhood he saw Detroit residents turn their horses out to pasture in what is now Broadway. Near that same avenue he shot wild turkeys for the family dinner table.

Alphonse married into another Belgian pioneer family, many of whose members were early Pointe residents. His first wife was Hortense Vanderbush, and when she died in 1873 he married her sister, Jennie. From the latter marriage three children were born, Frank, Edward and Marie, who married a Congressman, Clarence J. McLeod.

Alphonse's sons expanded the business and Edward finally established a chain of appliance stores, the Goodhousekeep Shops, which are well known in Detroit today. Many of the Posselius descendants now live in Grosse Pointe, most of them in Lewiston road.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Thirteen-year-old Suzie Richards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Richards, of McMillan road, deserves a gold star for thoughtfulness. On her mother's birthday last week the 13-year-old miss delivered her gift, "one day of peace and quiet." She arranged for her grandmother to pick up four-year-old Jack for the day and give school aged Ron and Bob lunch. This gave Mrs. M., one full day to herself, a really precious gift from her considerate daughter.

Susan Lambrecht, daughter of the Edward F. Lambrechts, of Beacon hill, a junior at Smith College has written a song, "Dazzle of Day" and a trio for woodwinds which was played last week at the campus concert.

Another collegiate star is the Grosse Pointe News former staff writer Peggy Jeffs. The daughter of the Raymond T. Jeffs, of McKinley avenue, has been named page one editor of the first Panhellenic newspaper at the University of Michigan, where she is a sophomore set on a newspaper career.

At the theater benefit November 13 in the new Fisher Theater for Starr Commonwealth for Boys, chic models will be poised in the glittering lobby to pass out the patron lists before the performance of "Advise and Consent" which will raise funds for the Commonwealth.

The Richard Fischers were pleasantly surprised Saturday night for their wedding anniversary by friends who arranged a party in the Fischers' Lincoln road home. Mrs. F., had to revise her previous opinions or surprise parties which she insisted she would hate because "what if the house wasn't spic and span." Thoughtful party arrangers alerted her offspring so when she arrived to be surprised they had the downstairs clean as a whistle.

Teen-agers will have a special treat this Thursday at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair at the War Memorial. Mrs. Thatcher Rea, Jr., has arranged for a dance exhibition... featuring the newest rage, "the Twist."

PILFERINGS

A man in anticipation of death bought the finest casket available, for delivery at the appropriate time. He told a friend what he had done, describing the gold fittings, teakwood carvings and other features, and mentioning the cost of the casket. His friend expressed horror and urged him to cancel the deal.

"Do you realize that for only a few hundred dollars more you could be buried in a Cadillac?"

Recreation: Getting exhausted on your own time.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ROBERT KANZLER, OF LOTHROP ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Mrs. Robert Kanzler has a definite fashion sense. She loathes brown, thinks white and shocking pink are her best colors and orders fabrics from New York and Paris for her dressmaker to design her individually chic wardrobe.

She has lined up 20 of her friends and some of their children to model stunning clothes from the 19 shops which sell at the Planned Parenthood League's Christmas Mart November 8 and 9 in the Veteran's Memorial building.

The distinctive stores from all over the country will offer ski clothes, jewelry, sweaters, needlepoint and a wide variety of specialties. Mrs. Kanzler has organized a crew of models for three informal fashion shows during the two luncheons and dinner which climaxes the Mart.

League's Services Planned Parenthood, which receives no aid from the United Foundation, offers a positive approach to family problems and provides information for voluntary family planning. Over 6,684 women were served at Planned Parenthood clinics during the last year.

Mrs. Kanzler has strong ideas which are her own fashion trademark. She never wears brown or beige, doesn't think it smart for anyone, although with her streaked long blond hair and gentian eyes she can wear almost any color with verve. She prefers pastels and currently has a rage for white wool, just as basic as black she thinks.

Her Lothrop road home is a contemporary blend of beige
