HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 23

IN A MEASURE to help cut down cigarette smoking, the State Health Commissioner, Albert Heustis, in Lansing proposed a tax increase from 7 to 10 cents a pack. Dr. Heustis voiced his proposal at a state conference of some 40 public and private officials presided over by Governor Romney. He added that $13 million annual revenue could be used to finance educational campaigns on the evils of smoking. However, officials rejected the proposal. Donovan Rau, deputy state revenue commissioner, said such an increase would create an extremely difficult bootlegging problem.

ROBERT G. (BOBBY) BAKER presented a gift of a $583 stereo set to President Johnson which the President reported was just an innocent present. Baker, the former Senate official, is under investigation because of certain business dealings. The president mentioned also that he had purchased $200,000 worth of life insurance after his heart attack in 1955. But he did not answer the allegation that the agent who sold the insurance was forced to buy advertising on the Johnson family television station.

THE DETROIT COUNCIL of Churches elected its first Negro president in its 45 year history. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Lawrence Roberts, pastor of the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church will assume the high post, succeeding Dr. Allan A. Zaun, pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Roberts is president of the 600 member ruling Connectional Council of his denomination which has a membership of 700,000. He is also president of the Detroit Inter-denominational Ministers' Alliance. He is a graduate of Knoxville College and the McCormick Theological Seminary.

A BATTLE CREEK WOMAN who was trapped under the ice of Gull Lake was miraculously rescued by men who used lanterns to find her under the clear ice. Mrs. Judy Bordeaux and her companion were fishing for smelt with hand lines when a heavy rain caused their shanty to break through the ice. Mrs. Bordeaux was unable to find the hole through which they had fallen, but her companion, Donald Teeter, climbed out and ran for help. When discovered, Mrs. Bordeaux was about 15 feet from the hole and was unconscious, but she was quickly resuscitated by mouth to mouth respiration.

A TWO-TON SATURN rocket, nearly three times the weight of the largest Soviet satellite, will be launched today by the United States from Cape Kennedy, Fla. If the rocket works properly, it will put the United States rocketry ahead of the Russians, as far as weightlifting is concerned. The weight of the rocket is 38,000 as compared to 14,292 pounds for the largest Soviet satellite. The main purposes of the flight are to prove out the 16-story two-stage booster that will be used later this year for initial unmanned orbital flights of three-man Apollo moon-mission capsules, and to advance the country's knowledge of liquid hydrogen technology.

Communist China asked Japan to throw out all the U.S. armed forces, in a move probably prompted by the recognition of Communist China by France. Peking leader Mao Tse Tung opposed the stationing of U.S. nuclear submarines in that country. He further demanded the dismantling of all U.S. military bases, the withdrawal of U.S. forces, the return of Japan's territory of Okinawa, the abrogation of the U.S.-Japan security treaty and other measures. The statement was directed chiefly at the arrival in Japan of new F105 jets capable of carrying atom bombs.

Harper Woods Councilman Defends Contract Received from Motorola

A contract, offering to install and service a police-fire emergency radio system for Harper Woods, reported as having been submitted by Motorola Corporation, was "simply to show the significant economy that is possible," Harper Woods Councilman George Scopas disclosed in a statement on Tuesday, January 28.

A copy of the contract had been sent to all mayors, councilmen and city managers in the Pointes and Harper Woods. It was denounced as "fraudulent" by Farms Councilman Henry Bodman II, at a regular council meeting held on Monday, January 20.

Scopas said that "we" filled in the estimated costs on the blank maintenance agreement form sent to Harper Woods officials, and copies were sent to the officials of the other communities, merely as a means of information.

Bore No Signature

"There were no signatures on the contract, and it was not binding on Harper Woods, or the other partners in the Inter-City Municipal Radio System," Scopas said. Rates in the contract, which he filled out using maintenance rates submitted to us by the Motorola Corporation, were merely to show that the radio system can be operated at a much cheaper rate, than what it is costing Harper Woods and the Pointes each year.

Scopas said that the Harper Woods council met in special session on Monday, January 27.

Warning Issued On Car Lights

A new law that has been in effect for the past six months, makes it mandatory that all motorists must drive with regular car headlights turned on during pre-dusk and pre-dawn hours, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

He said that the officers of his department were reluctant to issue violation tickets to motorists driving through the Park, during the specific hours, with only parking lights on because it appeared that the drivers were not aware of the State law.

The chief said that henceforth, since ample time has been allowed, persons who drive their cars with only parking lights, will be issued violation tickets.

He pointed out that the law requires that all motor driven vehicles, and other type vehicles, cannot be operated on public streets or highways, without proper lights during pre-dawn and pre-dusk hours. He said that this especially applies during the hours of nighttime.

The only time lighted parking lights will be allowed, the chief said, is when a car is parked at the curb.

Future School Building Needs Aired at Meeting

At its January meeting held Monday night at the Central Library, The Grosse Pointe P-TA Council met with the members of the Board of Education to discuss possible future school building needs.

Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, served as spokesman in addressing the assembly of P-TA representatives from throughout the district. He outlined the Board's thinking on possible courses of action in light of enrollment increases foreseen and predicted by 1980.

Referring to population projections of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, June, 1963, Dr. Wilson pointed out that the area encompassed by the Grosse Pointe School district could anticipate a 15,000 increase in

Farms Acquires New Ambulance

The Farms recently purchased this ambulance at a cost of $8,136. The vehicle, a 1963 Ford Country Sedan, built by Sieberts Associates, Inc., is a custom job, and was ready to roll immediately from the moment of delivery. It came equipped with a portable resuscitator, an all-level cot, dome lights, a penetrator siren and a built-in address system. Fire Chief M. William Mason disclosed that the ambulance is the last word in vehicles of this type.

Pointe Officials Champion Combined Police-Fire Units After Attack by Kelley

Attorney General's Statement Draws Angry Answers from Safety Heads of Woods and Shores and Other Suburban Communities

A statement made by Attorney General Frank J. Kelley in Lansing on Wednesday, January 22, in which he claimed that cities with combined police-fire departments tend to "weaken law enforcement and reduce fire protection," was challenged by suburb officials, including some from the Woods and Shores.

The Pointe officials who do not agree with Kelley, are Woods City Administrator Chester Petersen, and Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis, whose communities have integrated police and fire departments.

Also in disagreement with the attorney general are Woods Public Safety Director Vern C. Bailey, and Shores Chief Fred Dumeling, who head their respective departments.

Others Also Mad

Kelley also raised a storm in Oak Park where the system was pioneered, and in Huntington Woods.

"According to a national median, a community of the size of our city would need an average of 30 policemen and 24 firemen, if there was a separate police and fire department," Petersen said. "Our Public Safety Department's personnel number 43, including two full-time female clerks. Our combined department saves the taxpayers approximately $77,000 a year."

"I'll put up our law enforcement and firefighting abilities against that of any community of the comparable size of the Woods," he said. "The reason we have been able to maintain high quality service in the city, is because of the efficiency and high calibre of our personnel."

Symphony Sets Concert For Feb. 9

Felix Resnick Will Conduct in Parcells Auditorium at 3:30; Miss Riddell Is Soloist

Audience-wise, the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra anticipates scoring a Pointe on Sunday, February 9 when it presents as guest soloist for the second concert of the current season, the beautiful and talented soprano, Roma Butler Riddell, of Trombley road, who will be making her first appearance with the orchestra.

The orchestra, which under the able leadership of Conductor Felix Resnick, has become recognized as one of the fine community musical aggregations in this area, will ring up the curtain at 3:30 p.m. at Parcells School Auditorium.

Miss Riddell, a native of Canada, has been a resident of Grosse Pointe for the past six years. She has concertized across Canada; has appeared on several occasions with the Toronto Symphony and other leading Canadian orchestras, and was widely acclaimed here in Detroit for her role in the long-run production of Vanguard Theatre, "Little Mary Sunshine."

For her first appearance with the Grosse Pointe Symphony, Miss Riddell has chosen "To This We've Come" from Menotti's, tremendously exciting and interesting work, "The Consul."

Miss Riddell will also sing "Mimi's Adieu" from the opera La Boheme, and "Un Del Di" from Madame Butterfly, both by Puccini.

The orchestra will be heard in Schubert's "Overture to Rosamunde," Prokofieff's, "Classical Symphony," and the brilliantly colorful "An American in Paris" by George Gershwin.

Following the concert there will be a reception and coffee hour hosted by members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society.

MICHIGAN'S TAX SHARE

Michigan's taxpayers will be required to pay out approximately $4,297,890,000 in Federal taxes as their share of the cost of the Federal spending program of $97.9 billion proposed by President Johnson for the Federal fiscal year beginning July 1, 1964, according to a statement made by Harry R. Hall, Executive Vice President of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce. This estimate was based on the State Chamber's calculations that Michigan taxpayers bear 4.39 percent of all Federal taxes.

Lee Hills to Give Tuesday's Lecture On Center Series

Publisher of Free Press Will Comment on Offerings of First Four Speakers from Journalism Viewpoint; Reception to Follow

The next speaker in the series of lectures being held at Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial Center and entitled "Politics—1964" will be Lee Hills, vice-president and publisher of the Detroit Free Press and executive editor of the Knight Newspapers, Inc., who will speak February 4.

The first two speakers were Zoltan A. Ferency, Democratic State Chairman and Arthur G. Elliott, Jr., Republican State Chairman, who spoke on candidates and issues on a state level. The next two were Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., and Fred Clark Scribner, Jr., who spoke on the same subject but on a national level, each speaker representing his own political party.

Lee Hills and the final speaker in the series, Martin Hayden, editor of the Detroit News, will discuss the ideas presented by the first four speakers but from a journalistic point of view.

Heads Editor's Group

Mr. Hills has been executive editor of the Free Press since 1951. However, he won a Pulitzer prize in 1955 as a reporter for his work on auto negotiations, and in 1962, he took an 8,000 mile tour of the Soviet Union. As president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, Hills headed a group of 12 U.S. newspaper editors who made the trip.

Mr. Hills was born in Granville, N.D., in 1906. He moved with his family to Price, Utah, where he was editing that town's weekly newspaper soon after finishing high school. He attended Brigham Young University, the University of Missouri School of Journalism, and in 1934, while a working newspaperman, received his law degree at Oklahoma City University School of Law and was admitted to the bar.

Mr. Hills worked for the Scripps-Howard newspapers in Oklahoma City, Memphis and Cleveland, moving up through the ranks as reporter, copy editor, political writer, editorial writer, city editor, news editor, associate editor and editor.

Joined Knight Papers

He joined the Knight newspaper organization in 1942, and became managing editor of the Miami Herald. In that position, he directed the news editorial campaign against organized crime in Florida, which won for the Herald a Pulitzer prize for public service.

Mr. Hills came to Detroit in 1951 and was named publisher of the Free Press in 1963. He also serves as executive editor of all the Knight newspapers, in Miami, Akron, Charlotte, N.C., and Detroit.

The lecture will begin promptly at 8:15 and the invocation will be given by Monsignor McPhillips, of St. Paul's Church on the Lake. The lecture, about one half hour in length, will be followed by a question and answer period. After that, refreshments will be served in the Crystal Ballroom where guests will have an opportunity to meet Mr. Hills.

Farms Building Project Encounters Usual Bugs

Unforeseen complications which usually arise during remodeling of old buildings have hit the alterations and additions project at the Farms Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road, increasing the costs by $1,321.60.

At its regular meeting Monday night, January 20, the Farms council approved changes in the drawings and specifications recommended by Assistant City Engineer John DeFoe and Jack Brown of Begrow and Brown, Architects.

The biggest change will be in the police station, presently being remodeled, and pertains to the reversing of the steel door and frame, leading to the jail cells. This item will cost an estimated $435.

Police Chief James Fulton told the council that the rever-

Radio System Conversion Completed

Municipally-owned inter-city operation goes on split channel as of January 24

The Grosse Pointe Inter-City Municipal Radio System went on split channels on Friday, January 24, it was disclosed by Warren Carson, radio technician. Work on converting the system into two channels, one for the fire departments, was completed on Friday, Carson said, four days after the project was started.

The radio technician said that the City Police and Fire Departments were the first to operate on the split channel, and this was on Wednesday, January 22. There was a gradual conversion as the work was completed for the other Pointes and Harper Woods, he said.

Carson disclosed that the radio frequency being used, and the channels are one and the same. He explained that all departments use the same frequency, but a flick of a switch carries a message to either the police department, or the fire department.

Can Contact Both

The switch can be adjusted to carry a message to both police and fire departments at the same time, for example, in case of a fire alarm, when fire rigs and police cars are dispatched to a fire scene, or sent out on other emergency calls.

Previously, the radio system, jointly operated by the Pointes and Harper Woods, was on a single frequency. Police calls were heard over radios in fire trucks, and visa versa.

All emergency police-fire radio systems throughout the country were ordered to revert to split channels by the Federal Communication Commission in Washington in 1958, with the deadline for conversion set for October 31, 1963.

The Farms, the managing municipality for the local radio system, was unable to meet the deadline because of interference from Canada, where two communities objected because they were on the same frequency.

Was Unusual Case

A license to operate a certain channel is generally not granted if it is found that it will interfere with frequencies of emergency radios of communities within a given radius.

Start Probe To Find Way To Cut Costs

City Managers Hold Amicable Meeting to Discuss Complaints Made by Harper Woods

The city managers of the Pointe and Harper Woods met in an amicable session on Wednesday, January 22, to discuss the 1964 budget for the Grosse Pointe Inter-City Municipal Radio System, and talk over possible solutions to the charges of excessive costs leveled by Harper Woods.

Also attending the session were three Pointe city controllers, and the system's radio technician, Warren Carson.

Farms City Manager Sidney DeBoer, speaking for the Farms which is the managing municipality under the six-city's radio contract, said that the budget was discussed, but not approved.

He said that after a lengthy meeting, a resolution was adopted by the city managers, which authorized the city managers from the Park, City, Farms and Shores, to conduct a review of the system and analyze some of the cost-cutting suggestions presented by Harper Woods.

Might Drop Assistant

DeBoer said that the chief suggestion offered by Harper Woods City Manager Allan Kronbach, as a means of cutting the annual costs, is the elimination of the position of assistant radio technician, presently held by Bruce Butler of 1354 Audubon.

Butler, who was appointed assistant to Carson on February 15, 1962, receives an annual salary of $5,800, plus fringe benefits.

Ironically, the post was created by the six-city partners, at the suggestion of Harper Woods officials, when it was pointed out that Carson was overburdened with work, due chiefly to the overwhelming technicalities involved in converting the single police-fire radio frequency, into separate police and fire channels. The separate channels were ordered by the Federal Communications Commission in Washington approximately two years ago.

To Meet in March

DeBoer said that the four city managers who will make the cost and budget study, will present their findings at a meeting to be held about the middle of March.

The system will operate, until a budget is approved, on an invoice of $10,000 based on an assessed property valuation formula, pro rated among the radio partners, the Farms city manager said, which is approximately half of the annual operational budget for the system. The budget last year was about $24,000, DeBoer said.

He said that the Farms wants to seek an agreeable solution, but is of the opinion that the present set-up is not costly, and that the radio system is big enough and important enough to be maintained at its present level. This, he said, is because there are so many lives, and so much property involved. In the meantime, while the matter is being studied, he said, the 1964 budget is held in abeyance.

At the budget discussion meeting, besides DeBoer and Kronbach, were City Managers Robert Stone, Park; Lawrence Savage, City; Chester Petersen, Woods; and Thomas Jefferis, Shores superintendent.

Also present were City Controllers Carroll Lock, Farms; Nunzio Ortisi, Park; John Cantwell, City; and Russell Manney, Woods. The controllers for the Shores and Harper Woods were absent.

REPORTS RUGS STOLEN

Charles Thompson of 790 road reported to City Police January 26 at 4:20 p.m. that eight assorted sizes and colors of scatter rugs remnants were missing from his garage. The garage was not locked, and various other items, such as tools and nails were disturbed. The rugs were insured.

Councilman Scopas Tells His Side of Radio Battle

 He said that what Harper Woods is fighting for is a reduction in the annual cost of operating the local radio system.
 "We obtained cost estimates from several companies familiar with the cost of operating radio systems," he stated. "The costs submitted by the Motorola Corporation were the highest received, yet, they are way below the annual costs of operating our system."
 In a letter to Farms officials, Scopas stated:
 "It has been demonstrated that one radio service program for the Inter-Municipal Radio will yield economy.

 Apparently the confirmation that radio maintenance service can be obtained for approximately $7,000, rather than on a budget exceeding $25,000 per year, causes concern so that an unjustified criticism must be made on an individual.
Wants Thorough Study
 "It has been hoped that the facts thus revealed would prompt a careful and thorough evaluation of the services necessary to operate an adequate radio communication system, together with reasonable costs of operation. Rather than dealing squarely with this issue, a personal attack is used to obscure the issue."
 Scopas said that when Harper Woods solicited costs of operating a radio system, Motorola responded in a letter dated November 26, 1963, quoting prices on a variety of radio equipment, including police and fire base stations.
 Since Harper Woods has no police and fire base stations, other than the ones operated by the Inter-Municipal System, it was assumed that the rates quoted by the firm applied to the equipment operated by the system, and not by Harper Woods. Only unit rates were quoted in the letter, which was attached to a blank maintenance agreement form, Scopas stated.
For Ease of Analysis
 He said that the maintenance form was completed for ease of analysis, using the unit rates quoted in the firm's letter, using the best estimates available for unit quantities of each type of equipment. The form was then extended so that an annual total might be estimated.
 Scopas said that the purpose of circulating this estimate was simply to show the significant economy that is possible in the event the system was able to obtain a contract under similar terms and conditions with any firm interested and qualified to do this work.
 He pointed out that there was no intent to recommend, or solicit, a specific maintenance agreement between the local system and Motorola.
 "Without a detailed equipment inventory," Scopas said, "it was not possible to list exact quantities of equipment change in the utility wing of the station has already been completed, and payment of $13 for this item was approved by the council on Monday.

 Re-construction of the existing exhaust fan in the police station, and the furnishing and relocating a new off and on switch was originally to have been deleted, but at the request of Chief Furton, the fan will remain because of its usefulness in the past. Cost, $58.
 At the request of Warren Carson, radio technician, an additional overhead door control switch (waterproof) will be installed outside the police radio garage. This is a security measure since it will allow the doors to be opened from the outside, which would involve going through the radio equipment control room first. Cost, $32.50.
 Reduce the canopy projection over the alley at the police wing to 18 inches. Cost, $159.50.
 And finally, provide and install Parkwood ripe olive wood on the top surface of window stools in the police wing, including the basement window. Cost $303.60.
 At its meeting held on January 6, the Farms council approved the repair of the roof over the police station at a cost of $533.

 person, possibly a relative or friend.
 Chief James Furton said that the wreath had to be removed because curious motorists would slow down, or stop, to look at the spray, causing heavy traffic congestion. There was the danger of another accident, too, he said, because of the tie up in traffic.
 Young Lauve was a native of Detroit. He graduated from Avon School, Avon, Conn., two years ago, and at the time of his death was a sophomore at the University of Michigan.
 Surviving, besides his parents, are his brother, John, also a U of M student; and his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Otis Ashley of New York.
 He was also the godson of Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., of the Pointe; and Lee C. Hills of Detroit.
 Memorial services were held in Christ Episcopal Church, Grosse Pointe, on Sunday, January 26. Private services and burial were in New York City.
 Honorary pallbearers at the memorial services, were: William C. Rand III; John C. Holly, Jr.; John Potter, Jr.; David N. Viger, Jr.; Allan Shelden IV, Robert B. Evans, Jr., Richard Schulte, Peter Grossi, Russell H. Donovan, and Bruce Hubbard.

 The family has suggested that if memorial tributes are desired, they be made to the James Ashley Lauve Memorial at Avon School.
 It has also been announced that a memorial to young Lauve will be placed at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. Marshall Fredericks, noted sculptor and close friend of the family, is presenting one of his works for the memorial, according to the Rev. Erville B. Maynard, rector of the church.

Don't congratulate yourself for being outspoken—it's the easiest thing in the world to do.

in the Inter-Municipal System. While a firm price for this work was desirable, we felt that we had to be content with preliminary estimates to obtain some "round number."
Wants More Answers
 The Harper Woods councilman said that although the Farms answered to questions recently submitted to it, as the managing municipality, the responses revealed all sorts of information, but "we do not feel that such question was answered."
 Scopas said that a letter dated January 20, disclaiming responsibility for the estimate's application to the local system, suggests that the firm offers different terms and conditions to Harper Woods than would be offered to the Grosse Pointe Inter-City Municipal Radio System.
 He said that from another point of view, the price indicated in the estimates in the Motorola agreement, does not appear to misrepresent the normal commercial charges for this maintenance work, since other quotations for this work are on file in the same general price range.
 "Again," Scopas stated, "we submit that this is the question to be answered, in order to proceed in a logical manner: 'What can the radio maintenance work that we require be contracted for commercially, at the level of service and under the terms that we require?'"
 The answer to this question the councilman said, can readily be determined if the Farms will be defined reasonable specifications for the work and seek competitive bids, as has been previously suggested.

Work Progresses On HS Library

Work on the new library being built at Grosse Pointe High School is progressing satisfactorily. With the electrical wiring almost complete and the heating system in operation, workmen are ready to tile the ceiling. The new library should be ready for use by next fall.

The central area which will be carpeted will be used as an informal gathering room where students can read or study in comfortable lounge chairs. The area outside this room will be open and metal partitions can be used to divide the area into separate small rooms, if a closed off area is desired.

The domed roof has windows, below which is wood paneling. The walls will be tiled and eight columns which surround the area will be covered with vinyl. Further details will be handled by an interior decorator. Books will be shelved around the outer walls.

The move from the old library will probably take place during the last weeks of school. By this plan, the students will be able to help with the transition.

Plans at the present time, according to Jerry Gerich, principal, for the old library are that the main room be used as a student center and the stacks used for a bookstore. However, further ideas are under consideration by the Student Council.

Mr. Gerich further recommended an increase in the staff of the library personnel to seven; a coordinator, two teacher-librarians, a teacher-librarian-audiovisual specialist, an audiovisual technician, and two clerks.

Parent-Teacher Contacts Called Most Important

Parents and educators are in general agreement that the continuing flow of information between the home and school is of importance to the welfare of the boys and girls enrolled.

With improved communications in mind, parent-teacher conferences have been scheduled for many of the elementary buildings of The Grosse Pointe Public School System during the month of January.

Therefore, the building principals work constantly with their staffs to devise means of developing and improving conference procedures and techniques that will best serve the children concerned.

An example of one building's cooperative thinking is contained in extracts from an article entitled "Conference Time at Barnes," which appeared in a recent bulletin, "Morningside Mail." Principal Roger O'Connor's writing is representative of the background philosophy regarding conferences. It is offered to be shared to the benefit of the community at large.

"The conference method of reporting pupil progress is another way of trying to evaluate a child's life in school. Evaluating human behavior is always a complex matter and 'report card time' is deceptively simple. Teachers and parents were students at one time (many still are) and can recall their perplexity and even anger over a grade or a mark on their cards.

"Take the grade that was either higher or lower than we expected. What about the proud feeling we had that in the last few weeks before cards came out we were beginning to understand, only to have this feeling destroyed by the cold, glaring grade. Then there is the inexplicable way some teachers mysteriously, even furtively, arrived at our grade.

"The conference method has its weaknesses too. Parents (and teachers) grow restless over conferences that take twenty minutes to say what both already know. One is frustrated by the time limitation, especially when one is beginning to get into an illuminating point about his child.

"Conferences sometimes go out of balance, two or three subjects are discussed while everything else goes by the board. Nor can it be argued that merely because of personal contact, communication is always established.

"Neither can it be said that a report card always communicates simply because the marks are there in black and white. Report cards and conferences are two avenues of approach to evaluating pupil growth and behavior, and the point is that both should be utilized as effectively and positively as possible.

"The conference offers an opportunity to talk about the child. This means an interchange of views. It is not necessary to belabor the point about the advantage that can accrue from a teacher and parent each giving his perspective on the child.

"Conference time ought not to be looked upon strictly as vacation time by the pupils. The reason they are dismissed from school is because it is physically impossible to have conferences while they are in class. All pupils at Barnes will be assigned work to do by their teachers that is a continuation of class work or that is a part of some project or activity.

"In addition, these conference officers are an excellent time for pupils to do reading on their own on some aspect of their school work even if it has not been assigned. School can very well continue at home for awhile during conference time dismissals.

"Results of the conference should be shared with the child. There should be no secretiveness on the part of either teacher or parent. Certainly there will be things said between the adults that will remain on their level, but the ultimate purpose of a conference is to benefit the child and if he is not made a party to what goes on, he will not benefit."

District GOPS Elect Matheus

Republican Citizens-14th, an active grass-roots citizens' organization in the 14th Congressional District, on January 20, elected John W. Matheus, 1563 Edmond drive, as chairman for the year 1964-65, at a meeting in their headquarters, 13315 Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Matheus, a personnel official at Parke-Davis Company, Torch Drive, church and civic leader, was vice-chairman of Romney Volunteers-14th Congressional District, and has been an executive board member of Republican Citizens-14th since its inception, following Governor George Romney's victory in 1962.

Mr. Matheus succeeds Kenneth Kurtz, 1230 Bishop road, under whose leadership the organization has sparked over 800 local citizens requests for information and active participation.

Re-elected to the position of co-vice-chairman is Hudson Mead, 420 Washington road. Mr. Mead, an attorney with offices in Detroit and active in civic, school, and political affairs, was the district chairman of Romney Volunteers.

Robert T. Herdegen, Jr., 167 Merriweather road, a charter member of the executive board, is the newly-elected co-vice-chairman. Mr. Herdegen has been active in the Republican Party for many years, and was one of the leaders of the Republican-Action Committee.

John Schroeder, 745 Chalmers, Detroit, is the new secretary. Mr. Schroeder is a teacher in Detroit and an active "Young Republican" leader.

The new treasurer is Roger Oetting, 587 Rivard boulevard. Mr. Oetting, a C.P.A., was treasurer for Governor Romney's campaign in the 14th district.

French Class Starts Feb. 12

In conjunction with the University Center for Adult Education, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is offering a course in Intermediate Conversational French on Wednesday mornings beginning February 12, from 9:30 to 11 o'clock. The instructor will be Helen Waldstein of the faculty of Wayne State University.

The 16-week course is designed for those having some previous language study or contact with French, and is offered for $35. Advance enrollment is requested.

Cottage Hospital Holds Elections

One new member and eight incumbent members were elected to the Board of Trustees of The Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe at the hospital's annual meeting, Wednesday (January 22, 1964).

The lord trustee is Mrs. John Lord Booth.

Re-elected were Mesdames Edwin O. Bodkin, Henry B. Joy, Jr., Richard P. Joy, Jr., Seabourn R. Livingstone, Joseph B. Schlotman, Stuart Wells Ulley and H. Gordon Wood. Robert A. Waters, who was elected to fill a vacancy on the Board of Trustees last year, was also re-elected.

All were elected for three-year terms ending in January, 1967.

Officers elected at the meeting were Mrs. Nelson Holland, president; Mrs. James McMillan, first vice-president; Mrs. H. Gordon Wood, second vice-president; John N. McNaughton, treasurer; Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. George R. Fink, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Cameron Waterman, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., assistant corresponding secretary.

Dr. David H. Barker, president of the medical staff, and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, retiring president of the Board of Trustees, presented reports to the membership. Clarence Honkanen, assistant administrator, read the report from Miss Carolyn M. Wick, hospital administrator.

A dinner for the trustees and the medical staff followed the meeting.

Center Receives Generous Gifts

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center has recently been the recipient of several very generous gifts for which it is most grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. Alger Sheldon of Provençal road have ordered the installation of a fountain in the middle of the circular pool in front of the main entrance to the Alger House. Come spring, this will be a focal point of beauty as one enters the main drive of the Center.

Mrs. John Stephenson Jr., Mrs. Harold Drinkhaus and J. Lawrence Buell III have given a beautiful column and sundial for the Memorial Gardens in memory of their mother, Mrs. Lawrence Buell, Jr., who was so active in the maintenance of the Center's lovely grounds.

Dr. Robert B. Clarke of University place has given the Center's Youth Council a new record player and public address system for Alger House so that young people and adults alike may enjoy the best recorded music and entertainment without distortion.

John Elias of Washington road has contributed a closed television circuit so that the theater and dance groups may see themselves in action and by studying their reflections achieve a greater degree of perfection.

The Center's staff and Board of Directors wish to thank these donors for their beautiful and useful gifts and for the fine community spirit and support of the Center's work which they demonstrate.

To Head Drive

THOMAS F. MORROW, whose civic and business activities have led him through parallel courses from the ranks to the vice presidencies of the United Foundation and the Chrysler Corporation, will head the 1964 Torch Drive.

Donald F. Valley, board chairman of the National Bank of Detroit and president of the UF, Saturday named Morrow as general chairman for the 16th annual "Give Once for All" fund-raising campaign.

The huge task of organizing the 130,000 volunteers to canvass the nearly 4,000,000 residents of the United Foundation solicitation area will start immediately. The campaign, which will seek operating funds for 197 agencies, will be held Oct. 20 through Nov. 12.

Morrow is Chrysler Group Vice President, Defense-Space and Diversified Products. As Torch Drive chairman, he follows Edward N. Cole, General Motors group vice president, in charge of car and truck divisions, who led last year's campaign in raising $21,680,224.

"The United Foundation is fortunate in obtaining the services of a man of Mr. Morrow's caliber as its leader," Valley said in announcing the appointment. "He has proven his worth at every step in his rise from a contact man to Torch Drive General Chairman."

Morrow lives at 78 Vendome, Grosse Pointe Farms, with his wife and daughter, both named Thirza. Daughter Thirza, 22, is a student at Wayne State.

In acknowledging the appointment, Morrow said, "My appointment as General Chairman of the 1964 Torch Drive is one which I accept with gratitude and humility. The names of the men who have preceded me in this great community responsibility comprise a unique role of honor and I am grateful to be placed in their distinguished company."

"I can only assure the officers and directors of the United Foundation and all those served by its 197 agencies that I shall do all I can to add another victory to Detroit's sparkling string next fall."

After serving as a contact man in the Major Industry unit of the Torch Drive in 1950, Morrow worked as one of the Unit's team chairmen in 1951 and 1954. In 1960, he was a group chairman in the Automotive and Suppliers Unit and in 1961, he became chairman of the Unit. Through the 1962 and 1963 Torch Drives, he was Torch Drive Co-Chairman for Chapter Campaigns.

In 1961, Morrow was made a member of the United Foundation board and its executive committee. He was elected a UF vice president in 1962.

At Chrysler, Morrow's rise has been steady and swift. Joining the corporation in 1935 as an assembly line worker at the Jefferson Plant, he held assignments in central cost estimating, planning, tool engineering, manufacturing, sales and sales promotion.

During World War II, he was planning superintendent, tool engineering assignments and was on the staff of the general manager of the Chrysler Detroit Tank Plant. In 1946, he was assigned to Airtemp as assistant to the vice president in charge of manufacturing. In 1947, he was appointed assistant to the president of Airtemp.

There followed promotions in 1948 to staff assistant to the executive in charge of the company's subsidiary activities, in 1952 to Works Manager of the Chrysler Detroit Tank Plant. In 1954, he was named to set up the company's Defense Operations Division and served as Division General Manager until 1956, when he was appointed as assistant group executive. Morrow was elected a vice president of Chrysler Corporation in January, 1957. In April, 1958, he was named Group Vice President.

In his present position, Morrow is responsible for the Corporation's Defense - Space Group, which includes missile operations, tank production and the Diversified Products Group.

Diversified Products consist of Airtemp heating, cooling and refrigeration, Chrysler Marine and Industrial engine divisions, Ampex Ollite powdered metal products, and the Chemical Divisions' Cycleweld adhesives and chemical products.

Morrow, 51, is a native of New York City. He studied civil engineering at New York University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology before coming to Detroit.

In addition to serving as a UF vice president, Morrow is a member of the governor's "Citizens Committee on Higher Education," the governor's Economic Development Commission, the board of trustees of Harper Hospital, the Achievement Award Committee of the Probus Club of Detroit, the M.I.T. Alumni Club of Detroit, and many other technical and service groups, including the Armed Forces Management Association, the Navy League of the United States, the Air Forces Association, the Association of U.S. Army, the American Ordnance Association.

Morrow served as chairman of the Armed Forces Technology Committee of the Society of Automotive Engineers last year, as an executive board member of the Boy Scouts of America, vice president Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts, the Advisory Board of the Economic Club and as regional chairman of the Educational Council for M.I.T.

Why can this 40-gallon heater give more hot water than this 80-gallon one?

Because it's a Gas water heater. The 80-gallon heater is electric. And Gas heats so much faster than electricity you can actually get more hot water daily from a Gas heater than an electric one twice its size! And Gas costs so much less, too—one more big reason why Gas water heaters are the overwhelming favorites of families in our area.

DAR Pays Honor To Nancy Brown

Nancy Brown, a member of the class of '64 at the Grosse Pointe High School, has been chosen Good Citizen of the Year and will represent the school in the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen contest.

Nancy lives in Meadow lane; her alternate, Diane Stewart, also class of '64, lives in Kenwood court.

Representatives from the metropolitan area will meet at a luncheon in their honor at the Woman's City Club of Detroit, in February.

The qualities of good citizenship as defined by the DAR are dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. The girls were chosen by the faculty.

Nancy is in the top 5% of her class and is also a National Merit semi-finalist. She has been active in speech activities for four years and has been on television.

Morrow is Chrysler Group Vice President, Defense-Space and Diversified Products. As Torch Drive chairman, he follows Edward N. Cole, General Motors group vice president, in charge of car and truck divisions, who led last year's campaign in raising $21,680,224.

FBI Graduates Elect Louwers

The Michigan Chapter of the National Academy of Graduates, a recently held annual meeting at the Belle Isle Casino, elected Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers as president for 1964.

Helping the chief to guide the organization, comprised of police officer-graduates of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Training Academy in Washington, will be: Mt. Morris Police Chief Fred Serra, first vice president; Port Huron Police Chief Carl Falk, second vice president; and Big Rapids Police Chief Max Harrow, secretary-treasurer.

Two other area police heads, also graduates of the Academy, attended the meeting. They are: City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert and Harper Woods Police Chief Allen Miglio.

Chamber Music Players Giving Concert on Sunday

The Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe will present a program of American Music to members and guests on Sunday, February 2, at 3 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The program will be opened by William David and Camella Ehrlich playing Russell Woolen's Sonata for Piano Duo, the first performance for this work in the Detroit area. Father Woolen is an Instructor in Music and Director of Choral and Liturgical Music at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

William David is a junior at Grosse Pointe High School and first chair bass of the Grosse Pointe High School Orchestra. He is a member of Christ Church Choir and has studied choral music at the Royal College of Church Music at St. Elfin's, Derbyshire, England. In the summer of 1963 he was one of eight American boys selected to sing with the Royal School of Church Music Choir at the Anglican Convention in Toronto. William has studied piano with Richard Roeklein and with Camella Ehrlich, his present teacher.

Mrs. Ehrlich, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, is an Executive Board member of the Tuesday Musical Society of Detroit. Despite her active teaching and coaching schedule in the Detroit area, she has found time to fulfill engagements in the past two years in other cities, including two concerts in Washington, D.C. for the American Society of Music and Fine Arts.

Arthur Brooks, who is on the faculty of the Grosse Pointe Conservatory, appears with Anna Husbard and Mrs. Nordstrom for this program (two pianos). Kay and Mrs. Nordstrom appeared together in October, 1962 when they performed the Brahms Sonata in F minor for the Chamber Music Players.

Lucille Zocharski, violin, Lotta Winkler, viola, and Eleanor Lorentzen, piano, will present the Julius Chajes Trio in D minor for Violin, Cello (transcribed for this program for viola by Mrs. Winkler) and Piano. This trio, composed when Chajes was 17 years old, soon became his most frequently performed chamber music work. It is very melodious and is evenly divided among three instruments. Mr. Chajes, who was born in Poland in 1910 and came to this country in 1937, is well known as the conductor of the Center Symphony in Detroit. His Suite of Four Dances for Oboe and French Horn was performed at the November, 1963 program of the Chamber Music Players.

A coffee hour will follow the musical program.

Arthur Brooks Course Added

Arthur Brooks, who has previously taught "Speech Techniques" in the Adult Education program, will add a course in curriculum for the coming winter term.

Sponsored by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, both courses are designed for the salesman, the club woman, the civic minded, the business or professional man (or woman) or the housewife, who wishes to improve her savoir faire and gain self-confidence in plain, every day living.

Mr. Brooks has amassed great experience in the field of public relations; he has conducted training classes for industry—from management on down, and for department stores in Houston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Baltimore. He lectured seven years for John Robert Powers and directed the first Dale Carnegie class in Grosse Pointe.

For the past 15 years he has been an actor in training films and more recently, he was a TV spokesman for Standard Federal Savings of Detroit and a lecturer for the Mott Foundation in Flint, Mich. He has recently completed a two year national tour during which he presented training programs in public and customer relations for business and management.

"Style and Poise", to begin Monday, Feb. 10, at 7:30, is an eight week course designed to help students in wardrobe, manners, social graces, business etiquette, job success and communication with the public.

"Speech Techniques" is designed to make speech painless and to eliminate the butterflies experienced by most people when circumstances require appearing before groups—large or small. This class will begin Tuesday, February 11, at 7:30 and is a two hour class, meeting for a period of ten weeks.

Enrollment in both of these classes is limited, and persons wishing to register are advised to call the Department of Community Services, TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271 as soon as possible to assure their place in class.

Dr. D. A. Sargent To Give Lecture

Dr. Douglas A. Sargent will be the second speaker in the program series "Your Window On The World" presented at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17440 East Jefferson avenue, this Sunday, February 2, at 8 p.m.

Using as a demonstration device the trapezoid window and the film "The Eye Of The Beholder," Dr. Sargent will discuss perception under the title "Father To The Thought."

Dr. Sargent is a native of Michigan and attended the Detroit public schools. He graduated from Brown University and the University of Michigan School of Medicine, receiving his psychiatric training at the Ypsilanti State Hospital and Detroit Receiving Hospital.

He has worked in the Federal Prison System and for six years, until July 1963, he was Director of the Detroit Juvenile Court Psychiatric Clinic. He has been Consultant to the U. S. Children's Bureau, a member of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, and is now Chairman of the Mental Health Committee for the Detroit Commission on Children and Youth. He is on the faculty at Wayne State University, is Director of a Demonstration Project concerning emotionally disturbed children conducted through the Merrill-Palmer Institute, and conducts a private practice in psychiatry.

The program series opened on January 23 with a talk by J. Clayton Lafferty, Ph.D., on "The Tyranny of Irrationality." Rev. William D. Hammond will present the third talk, "In The Beginning—NOT The Word!" on Sunday, February 9, and on the following Sunday, February 16, the concluding speaker will be James G. Bond, Ph.D., on the topic "Being Comfortably Different." For information phone 881-0338 or 885-0233.

Park Approves Parking Survey

The Park council authorized the City Planning Commission to undertake a survey of off-street parking facilities in the commercial areas in the city. The go-ahead was given on Monday, January 27.

The survey will be conducted within the framework of standards for off-street parking as they exist in the City Zoning Ordinance, and will be based on recommendations made by Vilican-Leman and Associates, Incorporated, planning consultants hired by the Park.

It was pointed out by the consultants, that the proposed parking standards would apply only to new activities, or to existing uses which intend to rebuild or change the type of occupancy.

It is in the latter area that some adjustments in the Zoning Ordinance may be necessary, to assure that parking requirements do not stifle remodeling of businesses, or the building of new businesses in the Park, due to the creation of non-conforming through stringent off-street parking requirements, the consultants stated.

They listed the number of parking spaces that should be provided, for example, churches, one space for each four seats in the main unit of worship; and banks, one space for each 300 square feet of useable floor area.

Everybody who wants a Wildcat, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Skylark, please stand up.
Everybody who wants a Riviera, please stand up.

Now that everybody's standing, let's all go to the Buick Sports Car Rally.

Really.

It would be a shame to waste this chance to drive one of Buick's lively sport models, wouldn't it? Especially considering your Buick dealer's so close, and the price is so nice. That's what the Sports Car Rally is all about. And they're all luxurious enough to make you wonder why anybody'd settle for a two-seater. A finely tuned production 340 hp Wildcat with a skilled driver scored the highest miles per gallon in the economy test of Class I—high performance V-8's—at the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Florida. (So who's surprised? Not Wildcat owners.)

Writes Article About Teaching

Mrs. Norma Parent, second grade teacher at Maitre School, has authored an article in the December, 1963, issue of "Education Without a Roof." It is an account of a superior student teacher's contributions to the curriculum for a group of gifted first-grade children in a regular room of The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Mrs. Parent describes her working relationship with a "Miss K", a young woman whom she describes as "physically attractive as she was brilliant," an honor graduate with a major in science and a double minor, one in mathematics and one in German.

The Grosse Pointe teacher gave her apprentice teacher much data on the children in writing and she started a log, to which she added philosophy or suggested approaches in subject matter fields. She wrote two background sections on information, "You As a Teacher," and "Your Children as Learners."

Mrs. Parent followed this section with a narrative of her co-teacher's contributions in various areas and in a variety of projects. These ranged from a discussion of vitamins and foods to the writing of poems, to activities in music and gym and a taste of German. The group studied a bit of natural science, some of the more elementary aspects of prehistoric life and astronomy and, of course, reading. All these activities were conducted with the approval and under the careful supervision of Mrs. Parent.

Mrs. Parent concludes: "We should remember in teacher education that youth is our challenge. Student teachers know many things which we older and more experienced teachers have forgotten."

Elsa; three sons, Dr. William, Dr. George, and Thomas; 13 grandchildren; one brother and three sisters.

Services were Monday, January 27, at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church with burial in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

J. LEE BARRETT
 Mr. Barrett, 82, of 38 Newberry place, died January 24 in William Beaumont Hospital. He was a founding director of the Automobile Club of Michigan and for 40 years was executive vice-president of the Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau. He had retired from that post in 1952, but remained active as treasurer and a director of the Auto Club.

He is survived by his wife Ruth; a daughter, Mrs. Garver Wheeler; and two sons, Dr. John L., and Lt. Col. James F. Mr. Barrett was at the William R. Hamilton Company until Monday, January 27, when services were held in St. Paul's on the Lake. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

DR. THOMAS C. STARRS
 Dr. Starrs, 82, died at Detroit Memorial Hospital January 25 after a sudden illness at his home. He lived at 1122 Kensington road. Dr. Starrs is believed to have been the oldest practicing psychiatrist in the Detroit area.

He is survived by a daughter, Mother Mary G., a nun, of Buffalo; two sons, William and John, and eight grandchildren.

The funeral was Tuesday, January 28, from the Verheyden Funeral Home and St. Clare de Montefalco Church, with burial in Mt. Elliott Cemetery.

JOHN W. SUTTON
 Mr. Sutton, who lived at 21118 Francis, St. Clair Shores, died at his residence Thursday, December 23. He was 71 years old. He owned the Grosse Pointe Moving and Storage Company on Mack avenue.

Services were in St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Monday, January 27, with burial in White Chapel Cemetery. Prior to that, Mr. Sutton was at the Verheyden Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie, and a daughter, Marina.

DENTAL HEALTH WEEK
 David E. Burgess, mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe, has proclaimed the week of February 2 through 8, 1964, as Children's Dental Health Week and urges that all citizens and community organizations join in this observance.

Freydl Elected DAC President

Arnold D. (Mike) Freydl, senior vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit, was elected president of the Detroit Athletic Club by the club's 18-man board at a meeting on Friday, January 24.

Freydl, who lives at 1043 Harvard road, will serve for the ensuing year. He succeeds Norman J. Fredericks.

Other officers elected by the board are: first vice-president, Edwin O. George, vice president of the Detroit Edison Company; treasurer, Roland A. Mewhort, president of the Manufacturer's National Bank of Detroit, and secretary, Jervis C. Webb, president of the Jervis B. Webb Co.

The board reappointed Grosse Pointer Wilbur E. Boyse of Washington road as controller, and Miss Marian E. Marshall as assistant secretary.

At the DAC's January 21 annual election of six directors, the membership chose the following for three-year terms: Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler Corp.; H. Glenn Bixby, president of Ex-Cell-O Corp.; Edwin O. George, vice-president, the Detroit Edison Co.; Peter J. Koenig of 886 Sheldon, who is vice president of the Koenig Coal & Supply Co.; and John S. Plingel of Peach Tree lane, who is executive vice-president of Ross Roy, Inc.

Install Officers At St. Paul Ev.

Installed into office at St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, last Sunday were: Werner Goetsch, 326 Newport, treasurer; Adolph Brandau, 3466 Balfour, financial secretary; Carl Koster, 310 Mt. Vernon, assistant financial secretary; Ronald Buehler, 1940 Prestwick, deacon; Frank Firschild, 755 Harcourt, and James Graham, 863 S. Brys Drive, elders; Earl Veenendaal, 20212 Hunt Club, Sunday School treasurer; William Frame, 487 Bournemouth Road and Herbert Taube, 19943 Wedgewood, auditors.

The annual congregational meeting was held last Sunday evening.

Paid Honor

RAYMOND W. MIOTTEL, a member of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church, which is affiliated with the American Lutheran Church, has been selected "Lutheran Layman of the Year" by the Lutheran Luncheon Club of Detroit.

He will be the honored guest at a dinner to be held Wednesday, February 5, at 7 p.m. at the Harmonie Club.

A life-long member of St. Paul's Church, located at Lothrop and Chalfonte, Mr. Miottel has been a member of the Church Council for more than 25 years.

During 1960 and 1961, he was in charge of the Parish Education Building Fund and now serves as financial advisor to the Board of Trustees of his church. In addition, Mr. Miottel serves on the board of directors of Gethsemane Cemetery.

Presently, Mr. Miottel is chairman of the National Investment Committee of the American Lutheran Church. He has been a member of the Board of Trustees of the American Lutheran Church for more than 20 years and also served as chairman of the board during its merger in 1961 with the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Furthermore, Mr. Miottel serves as a councilor representing the American Lutheran Church in the National Lutheran Council. He has traveled to various parts of the world as a delegate and representative of various church bodies.

For his contributions of time and talents to the American Lutheran Church, Mr. Miottel received an Honorary Doctor's Degree in 1950 from Wartburg College, of Waverly, Ia.

School Study

In thanking the P-TA Council for its invitation to the Board members to discuss with it the community's immediate and long-range building needs, Edward J. Pongracz, treasurer, commented: "Our purpose in coming here is to involve you people at the earliest possible stage in the planning and development of some program to meet the housing requirements of the school district.

In the absence of P-TA Council President Arthur Sherman, Jr., the business meeting, the introduction of the guests, and the question and answer period were conducted by vice-president Walter Seyffert.

The next meeting of the council is slated for Monday, March 23.

Will Observe Day of Prayer

Mrs. Joseph Lemon will be the speaker for the Grosse Pointe observance of "World Day of Prayer" to be held at the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, 211 Moross Road, on Friday, February 14 at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Lemon will lead meditations on the world wide theme for the 1964 service, "Let Us Pray."

Mrs. Lemon is a former school teacher and has one married son. She is at present president of the United Presbyterian Women of Detroit, a member of the national executive board of the United Presbyterian Women, and will represent her denomination at the World Presbyterian Alliance to be held in Germany this summer. She is a former member of the executive board of United Church Women of Detroit.

Everyone is welcome to participate in this world wide fellowship on February 14.

America Loves Its Television

"There is no doubt that America is head over heels in love with television" members of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council were told at their Monday, January 20, meeting in the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

Glen Kyker, promotion manager of Detroit station WWJ, who made the statement, quoted convincing facts and figures to back it up. "There are more than 800 television stations in the United States and more than 49 million homes (or more than 90 percent of the homes in the U.S.) have at least one television set," he said.

"The average family watches television more than five hours daily," Kyker said. In Detroit alone there are over one million television homes and the viewer has a choice of over 400 different programs weekly to watch.

In his talk Kyker outlined his duties as a promotion manager and commented that the prime qualifications for his job are stamina, flexibility and a sense of humor. He related several anecdotes to illustrate his point, mentioning the scheduled and well-publicized appearance of Dick Chamberlain, television's Dr. Kildare, in Detroit last year.

"He was booked to appear at a dozen different places in the city and suburbs during the day and when he didn't show up it was my job to explain why and do something about it," Kyker said. He managed to fill in with local television personalities and more or less save the day, he said.

Kyker stressed to council members that television stations are made well-aware of what the public doesn't like, but that they don't hear often enough what is liked. "Many times a show that is destined for cancellation could be saved if enough people would let us know that they think it is worthwhile," he said.

During the business meeting which preceded Kyker's talk Mrs. Robert Snyder of Balfour road presided. Council members voted to give $100 to the Grosse Pointe Central Library's film fund. This gift is made annually toward the purchase of 16 mm sound movies which may be borrowed, free of charge, by area residents. More than 87,000 people reviewed these films last year.

Mrs. E. A. Steiner, Jr., of Touraine road was named to head a nominating committee. Reports were given by Mrs. O. M. Robbins of Balfour road, Mrs. John Prestini of Hall place, Mrs. George F. Taylor of Hawthorne road, Mrs. Maurice DeClercq of Buckingham road and Mrs. Daniel Matthews of Cranford Lane.

Judge Joseph Rashid will speak at the group's next general meeting at 1 p.m., February 17 in the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

Pre-Schoolers' Course Offered

Parents of children ages 3-5 in the Grosse Pointe area are encouraged to have them discover the world of art, music and literature in a Cultural Program for Pre-Schoolers sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association weekly on Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m. beginning February 12.

The three certified Michigan teachers who are in charge of this program are all mothers of young children themselves. They are Mrs. Mary Ann Hughes, Mrs. Lee Peters and Mrs. Helen Doelle.

In the 10-week course will be an introduction to sound and music, art and literature. First, the young children will be encouraged to cut out toys from magazines after which they will hear the story of a toy pipe. Next they will look at pictures of instruments and hear the record "Billy Finds His Baton." There will be real instruments for the children to see and touch and they will learn different rhythms, finger tapping, marching and a simple dance.

In the realm of art they will relate line, shape, space, light, color and pattern to music and while making a gingerbread man hear folk-lore about him. Later they will dramatize "Pinochio" and become familiar with "Peter and the Wolf" and "Babes in Toyland."

The course is offered for a fee of $25 for the 10 weeks. The class must be limited so advance enrollment is requested. The fellow who is satisfied to take things as they come had better not expect very much.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS ORDAINS:

Paragraph 1. Article 2—"DEFINITIONS"—of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by adding thereto, under Section 2.7—"DEFINITIONS PERTAINING TO BUILDING USE"—the following:

"Private Recreational Clubs: Private non-profit incorporated clubs of limited membership, organized and operated for strictly sport and recreational purposes. The building and parking plans for such shall be subject to review and approval by the City Council initially and any substantial expansion or changes in such plans shall also be subject to the further approval of the City Council.

Paragraph 2. Section 7.2, R1AA of Article 7, (Schedule of Regulations) of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the following:

"Strictly private incorporated clubs of limited membership organized for social, education, or athletic purposes, and all of whose other activities are incidental to such purposes and are not a service customarily carried on as a business, if and when their charters or Articles of Association, the plans of the building and the membership are approved by the City Council before such erection or use shall be begun or enlarged."

Paragraph 3. Article 7 (Schedule of Regulations), of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by adding thereto a district classification to be known as Community Recreational District (CR) and incorporating therein the following regulations under the appropriate subsection:

Section 4. Article 8 (Zoning Map) of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended to create a Community Recreational District Zoning classification (CR) on the lands so indicated on Zoning Amendment Map No. 1 of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, which map is hereto attached and made a part of this ordinance. All notations, references and other information shown on said map are by this reference made a part of this ordinance as if the matter and information set forth on said map were in total fully described herein.

Section 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

This notice is given pursuant to direction of the City Council in accordance with said ordinance and the statutes in such case made and provided.

Blue Devil Cagers Snatch Victory from Port Huron

By Jim Blackburn

A fourth-quarter rally saved the Grosse Pointe High School basketball team from extreme embarrassment and brought the Devils a 59-54 victory over Port Huron Wednesday, January 22.

With the score 53-52 Port Huron, in the last minute of the contest Rod Luzzi sank two free throws and scored on a lay-up shot to give the Devils a 56-53 lead. After a Port Huron foul shot, Jeff Vonschwarz was fouled and sank two free throws to put the game out of reach of the Big Red. As the game ended he was fouled again and sank the second of two free throws to finish the game with 21 points. Luzzi was high man with 25 and Jim Cates of Port Huron scored 21.

Tomorrow the Blue Devils resume Border Cities League activity, hosting a league-leading Fordson quintet which has yet to lose in league competition.

Against Port Huron the Devils jumped to a 15-8 first quarter lead and increased it to 30-18 at halftime. Fifteen of the Devils' first-half points belonged to Luzzi.

In the third quarter the Devils increased their lead to 40-23, when the Big Reds came to life. By the end of the third quarter the lead had shrunk to 44-40 and six straight points by the visitors to open the final stanza put the Devils behind 46-44. The teams exchanged foul shots, two by Vonschwarz and two by Cates, then Mike Bielawski came from the Devil's bench to stimulate the offense and build a defense which had been lax. He immediately tied the score with a lay-up.

After a Port Huron free throw Vonschwarz hit on a jump shot and Bielawski dropped in two free throws to provide a 52-49 lead. Port Huron's Fowler scored two quick baskets to make it 53-52. From this point Luzzi came back with his four points and Vonschwarz with his three to finish the game.

Of the Devils' 29 second-half points, 15 belonged to Vonschwarz, 10 to Luzzi, and four to Bielawski, all three seniors.

Hockey Chiefs Set for Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Bantam Hockey Club coached by Ray MacArthur, Charlie Kavelage and Hal Neil, are in their final tune-up games prior to the state tournament, which begins early in February.

The Chiefs have been traveling between Essex, Windsor and Leamington, Ontario, to Royal Oak, St. Clair Shores and Olympia, Detroit. Steady improvement in play has made the Chiefs a solid contender in future games.

Led by the sparkling play of Bill Noecker, their big goalie, and Rob Zink, their captain, the team has recently posted strong wins over Detroit Harper Sport 4 to 2 and St. Clair Shores, 3 to 0. This week games include Dearborn at Olympia and Leamington, Ontario, at their home rink of Gordie Howe Hockey Land.

The lineup includes Goalie, Bill Noecker; defense, Don Lacke, George Griffin, Doug MacArthur and Mike Logge; forwards, Rob Zink, Doug Kavelage, Ron Nomura, Pat Gage, Bill Acker, Randy Neil, Marv Larivee and Phil Bashier.

This is the fourth year of organized hockey for most of the Chiefs and all this experience is hoped some day to be of help in putting a few of the boys on good college teams.

MIDGET BASKETBALL
The Neighborhood Club Midget Basketball League, 1964 Version, is off to its usual exciting start. The eight team league provides basketball competition for boys from ages 9 to 12. Upon completion of the first three games Rotary, Metro and V.F.W. are tied for first place.

Last Saturday, at Brownell Junior High School, Rotary, Metro, and V.F.W. displayed the power that keeps them in the lead. Rotary, led by Curtis Mumma's 24 points, easily beat Exchange.

Metro beat Optimist 23-5 with the fine defense and balanced scoring that has made Metro a champ in the past.

V.F.W., led by Bud Grow's 12 points, beat Post 303 17-6.

The Lions won their first game on Baron Munchausen's last minute basket.

Pointe Ski Club Plans Four Trips

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club is taking off this week-end for a ski jaunt to Blue Mountain, Collingwood, Canada. Leaving the Center at 32 Lake Shore Road at 6 p.m. Friday, January 31, by chartered bus, skiers will be served a hot box supper and proceed to the Dorchester Hotel in Collingwood for two nights lodging and two days skiing.

The bus will return to the Memorial by midnight Sunday, February 2. There are still a few places open at $30 for Grosse Pointe Ski Club members, $34 for guests, if one acts immediately.

Friday, February 8 there will be an all day day ski trip to Pine Knob. Round trip bus transportation at $2 plus a reduced all-area tow fee of $3 and beginners' slope tow fee of $2 will be featured.

Married folks are welcome to bring their children on this trip. There is an additional charge for families where parents are not Grosse Pointe Ski Club members $1 for adults and 50c for the children.

Another week-end trip will be made to Boyne Highlands and Boyne Mt. on February 14, staying at the lush Weatherwax Lodge with heated swimming pool in Charlevoix. Round trip bus transportation, lodging, meals and tow charges are included for $40 for club members and $43 for guests. Paid reservations should be in by February 12 at the latest.

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club's biggest trip of the season is a full week of skiing in the Laurentian Mountains scheduled between February 29 and March 8. The group will leave the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 8 a.m. Saturday, February 29, go by charter bus to the Grand Trunk Station where they will board a private coach for Montreal. Then another charter bus will take them to St. Jovite where they will stay at Chateau Bellevue.

Eight nights lodging, three meals a day, and four hours daily ski instruction are included in the package. The group will return via charter bus and private rail coach. There will be a five-hour stop-over in Montreal for food, fun and purchases. Everyone will be back at the Center at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 8.

The cost is $155 for club members and $175 for guests. Club membership is just $3 for singles and $5 for married couples for those who qualify.

At least the race to keep up with living expenses gives a man a run for his money.

Full Schedule For Teen Skiers

The Ski-Hi Club co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and the Neighborhood Club is planning a very busy schedule for teen skiers this month.

This Friday, January 31, at 4:30 p.m. they are leaving by chartered bus for Harbor Springs to stay at Ski View Lodge and ski Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob and Boyne Mt. The cost is $27.50 to members including bus fare, lodging, meals when not at the slopes and insurance. Tow charges will be up to the individual.

There will be two all-day ski trips. On Saturday, February 8, the club will go to Mt. Brighton with special tow rates of $1.50, rental charges of $1.25 and ski lessons for $1 plus a bus charge of $2. On Saturday, February 22, they will go to Grampan Mt. where charges will be $1 each for tows, rentals and lessons plus bus and insurance charges.

On February 28 there will be another week-end trip to Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob and Boyne Mt. exactly the same as this week-end. Only 35 can be accommodated on each week-end trip so paid reservations should be made at once to avoid disappointment.

Tuxis Club Busy On Annual Show

"Hotels-A-Poppin'", the 1964 version of the annual Tuxis Show, will be presented February 13, 14, and 15 at 8:15 p.m. at Parcels Junior High School auditorium.

The variety show will have a theme concerning the adventure of a group of gangsters and their laughable antics while trying to take over a hotel.

As usual the profits from the show will go to charity. This year portions of the money will go to a missionary doctor in India, a fund which prepares high-school dropouts for jobs, a scholarship fund for Negro students ample in talent and merit but lacking in funds, and to "Church World Services" which provides food and shelter to refugees from behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains.

According to Mary Zinn, student chairman of "Hotels 'A Poppin'", "The show will, as in the past, be a lot of fun both for those who are in the audience and those who take part in presenting it. We expect this year's show to be as good or better than last year's." The co-directors of the show, Miss Marilyn Meyer and Mrs. Peggy Keeney, are also enthusiastic.

Tickets will cost $1, $1.25, and $1.50 and may be purchased from members of the Tuxis Club of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, at the church, and at Kay Baum's and the Campus Shop in The Village.

Trip to Circus Given as Reward

As a partial reward for their service to the school, 151 members of the Safety Patrol, Girls' Service Squad and Library Club of Kerby Elementary School will attend a performance of the Shrine Circus Friday afternoon. The outing is one of three special events normally scheduled during the year for the fifth and sixth grade boys and girls.

Tickets for the afternoon were contributed by three Kerby School parents and the cost of bus transportation will be borne by the P.T.A.

Four teachers will accompany the two busloads of children. They are Miss Rita Flaherty, Mrs. Hilda Bokos, John Allan and Edward Knuth.

Elect Officers At Bayview YC

The members of Bayview Yacht Club have elected Charles M. Bayer, 1430 Bishop road as Commodore, succeeding Karl E. Ness, 615 Lakeland.

William M. Bremer, M.D., 702 Touraine road moved up to vice Commodore and Maurice G. Deleerque was elected to rear commodore.

William F. Bainger, Three Mile and William R. Miller, Whittier were voted in to serve as Directors on the Board of Governors along with incumbents C. R. Burt, Ferndale, and Norman J. Wertmann, Pearl-tree lane.

Bayview Yacht Club is one of the most renowned sailing clubs in the world. They are best known for the Bayview Yacht Club Mackinac Island Race which, in 1963, had the greatest number of starting yachts of any Mackinac Race on either Lake Michigan or Lake Huron—115 registered vessels crossed the starting line.

Bayview is anticipating another record fleet in 1964.

Bravo for Big Business

In the light of union demands for an ever-increasing share in the profits of the automotive industry, an announcement made by General Motors Corporation on January 23 held special interest. It revealed how a great many employees of GM with faith, foresight and financial acumen, took advantage of and reaped a tidy harvest from an investment opportunity offered by the company back in 1955.

Last Thursday GM distributed approximately $94,450,000 in General Motors common stock, government bonds and cash to 58,800 salaried employees in the U.S. who participated in the 1958 Savings Fund Plan under the Corporation's Savings-Stock Purchase Program. More than three million dollars were returned to the distribution resulted from employees' savings of $30,448,000 and Corporation contributions of $15,224,000 during 1958, plus interest and dividends earned between January 1, 1958 and December 31, 1963, and appreciation in the value of GM common stock. Under the program General Motors contributes $1 for every $2 of employees' savings. Half of the employees' savings is invested in government bonds and half in GM stock. The Corporation's contribution and all dividends are invested entirely in GM stock.

Since October 1955, the effective date of the program, employees have saved about $146 million. These savings and the GM contributions have been used to purchase about $223 million in government bonds and more than 10 million shares of General Motors common stock. The plan encourages regular savings and provides an opportunity for more employees to become company shareholders. This latest distribution made an additional 15,600 salaried employees shareholders in the Corporation.

Under the Program all salaried employees with one year or more of continuous service are eligible to participate on a voluntary basis. They may save up to 10 percent of their salary. A new "class" is formed each year and matures five full years after formation. This was the fourth distribution since the inception of the plan. Currently 90 percent of the eligible employees are saving an average of eight percent under the Program.

While this plan is open only to salaried employees, there is nothing to keep the hourly-wage employee from also participating in the profits of the Corporation by investing in the stock. Quite naturally GM would like to have as many of this group as possible among its shareholders. Any worker does a better job when he is also a part owner of the company for which he works. And the preliminary report on General Motors' 1963 operations, released Monday, graphically tells the story of how profitable it is to be a shareholder of this great corporation.

Breaking all records, GM reports sales of $16.5 billion, with net income of $1,592 million, or $5.56 per share of common stock. Other items in the report reveal to some extent how incredibly wide-spread are the vast operations of this one corporation, and how many lives are affected by its success. GM's payrolls world-wide in 1963 amounted to $4.3 billion and were shared by 640,000 employees, including 157,000 outside the United States. Record dividends of $4 per share were paid last year, with total dividend payments of $1,136 million.

Especially interesting is the figure showing that 1963 provision for United States and foreign taxes totals $1,762 million, or more than the estimated net profit of the company. Sales of cars and trucks from GM plants throughout the world in 1963 were 5,974,000 units.

In addition to these cold figures there is of course the other story of the colossal contribution General Motors and countless other companies, large and small, make to educational, charitable, cultural, recreational and religious projects all over the world.

It all adds up to making us take a rather dim view of the tendencies of segments of our bureaucratic government to attempt to tear down and pull apart practically every corporation that has shown a marked proclivity for growth and achievement. These outstanding concerns were founded on the free enterprise system which gave this nation its life blood. Their incredible development and know-how have provided a large percentage of the wherewithal which enabled the country to make the major contribution to victory in two world wars, and their donations towards peace, an ever-mounting level of prosperity and the never-ending attack on poverty and disease have been immeasurable. We say Big Business is entitled to more bravos and fewer brick-bats.

Pointe Players To Honor Bard

In honor of the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, the Pointe Players will present several scenes on March 19, 20, and 21. The scenes will be taken from four Shakespearean plays, "Macbeth," "The Taming of the Shrew," "Romeo and Juliet," and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." These were chosen because they contain many of his most famous characters, scenes and speeches. A narrator will introduce each scene by telling what has happened prior to the present action and what is occurring as the scene begins. The stage will be in the form of a "theater-in-the-round" in order to resemble as closely as possible the play as it was produced in the Globe Theater of Shakespeare's time.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

A meeting on January 22, sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, proved to be a tremendously exhilarating one for those of us who were privileged to hear Dr. Charles E. Feinberg speak on Walt Whitman.

Dr. Feinberg, an internationally known collector of Whitman material, spoke movingly and knowingly of his subject, including the association between Abraham Lincoln and Walt Whitman. With the recent tragic assassination of President Lincoln, the centennial of President Lincoln's equally appalling death becomes more significant. Dr. Feinberg's exhibit of a portion of his fine collection provided visual aids, making his presentation ever more vivid and meaningful.

Two members of the Friends who have made outstanding gifts to the Library were also honored at the January meeting: Mrs. Helen B. Landrum and Dr. Hugh Stalker. Mrs. Landrum, over the years, has presented us with her Lewis Carroll collection, and many fine examples of gouging and fore-edge painting. Her most recent gifts include a beautiful quadruple (1) fore-edge painting executed on Thomas Gray's POEMS (1814); a new parody on ALICE IN WONDERLAND by Caroline Lewis entitled CLARA IN BLUNDERLAND (1902); a BIBLIOGRAPHY OF PRINTING by E. C. Bignmore & C. W. Wyman (1874) which is two volumes in one.

The name of John Masefield, present poet laureate of Great Britain, is a prominent one, and Dr. Stalker's collection of some 97 items (some duplicated) is an exciting and welcome one for our Special Collections.

This group of books is certainly an interesting one. Let us consider a sampling. There are first editions of such titles as PHILIP THE KING, THE WIDOW IN THE BYE STREET, LOST ENDEAVOR, LOLLINGTON DOWNS, and ST. GEORGE AND THE DRAGON. There are limited editions of SELECTED POEMS, SARD KING'S DAUGHTER, SARD HARKER, and THE HAWBUCKS.

Olivier Stars In Center Film

A faultless and definitive film—Sir Laurence Olivier's "Hamlet" is the second offering in the four-week Grosse Pointe Foreign Film Festival at the Fries Auditorium.

A winner of five Academy awards, it is considered by critics a unique film creation which gave motion pictures in general a new dimension.

"Hamlet" was filmed in the vast and gloomy palace of Elsinor, and is played by a cast of 18 of England's leading theatrical personalities. It will start at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, February 2 and like the other films in the series it was selected by the War Memorial's special Film Committee and the Studio Theatre Corporation of Detroit as one of the milestones in modern motion picture history.

Tickets for the performance are on sale at the door for $1.25 and there is a special student price of 90 cents.

According to the country's film critics, Laurence Olivier's "Hamlet" gives absolute proof that it is possible to translate such stage classics to the screen. Furthermore, the camera gives the audience the exciting impression of being a silent observer to great events. The viewer is led intently through the somber palace, then out to the misty battlefield, now

In Case You Think You Might Be Stung

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

Some people seem to feel that prescriptions are outrageously priced. The truth of the matter is this: Last year the average American bought about 3 prescriptions for a total cost of around $7.50. An average of less than $3.00 per prescription. So, some drugs cost a lot. So do television tubes—for the same reason. They're expensive to manufacture. New and improved production methods, however, bring prices down. Penicillin, for example, costs only a small fraction of what it did when it first came out. Your pharmacist has a professional knowledge of drugs and can tell you this. They are fairly priced. You get what you pay for. We are always pleased to serve you.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balombit, of Oxford road, announce the engagement of their daughter, LOUISE CAMILLE, to Lee George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johan Reef, of Roseville, Mich.

The prospective bride, who attended St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind., will be graduated from Marygrove College. Her fiance is currently a member of the Wayne State University Department of Music, and is in the process of obtaining his doctorate.

They plan a noon wedding in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church June 20, with a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club following the ceremony.

Kemp-Dawson Betrothal Told

The engagement of Dorothy Lynn Dawson to Robert Dale Kemp, Jr., was announced at a January 3 dinner party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Dawson, of Southfield.

The bride-elect was graduated from the Ferry Hall School, Lake Forest, Ill., and attended Michigan State University.

Her fiance, son of the Robert Dale Kemps, of Webber place, was graduated from Middlesex School, Concord, Mass., and Yale University. He is currently attending Harvard Business School.

An August wedding is planned.

Ensign Decker Weds in Hawaii

The Naval Station Chapel, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, was the setting for the marriage of Mary Elizabeth Mason and Ensign Robert Louis Decker, United States Navy, last Saturday, January 25, at 9 o'clock in the morning.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett J. Mason, of Stoepel avenue, Detroit, is a graduate of Marygrove College.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis O. Decker, of Manor avenue, is a graduate of St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, Ind., and Officers Candidate School, Newport, R.I.

After a wedding trip to the Island of Maui, the newlyweds will return to Pearl Harbor, where Ensign Decker is stationed and assigned to the U.S.S. Durant.

Flower Fixing Class Offered

Flower arranging will be taught at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in anticipation of spring. Classes will begin Friday, January 31, and continue weekly on Fridays through March 6.

They will be taught by Mrs. Richard T. Cerathy in a series of six two and half hour lessons for $15. Hours are 9:30 to 12 noon.

Mrs. Cerathy has taught at the Center for the past several years and has quite a following not only in Grosse Pointe but throughout Michigan. She is an accredited flower show guide, lecturer and teacher. Most important she is an enthusiastic and practical instructor.

After taking her classes it is possible to have fresh flower arrangements of individuality and distinction in one's home all year around for a few dollars.

Mrs. Cerathy makes use of a wide variety of materials other than blossoms for her arrangements so that one is not dependent on green-houses before flowers start appearing outdoors. This is an art anyone can master and the skill will be appreciated by family and friends alike.

Newlywed Sheldens Travel To Islands

Alger Shelden, Jr., and Carole Sue Hopkins Wed Saturday at Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Hills; Pair to Live in the Pointe

Mr. and Mrs. Alger Shelden, Jr., will make their home in the Pointe when they return March 1 from a month long wedding trip to Jamaica and Antigua.

The pair were married last Saturday, January 25, at Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Hills. The Reverend Harold DeWindt officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

The bride is the former Carole Sue Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold John Hopkins, of Forestwood drive, Southfield. She wore a gown of ivory silk alpaca by Galina, fashioned with a bateau neckline, three quarter length cuffed sleeves and modified bell skirt, for the Saturday rites.

A deep band of Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls defined the hemline of her gown, which featured a detachable cathedral train. Her head-dress was an heirloom lace mantilla, and she carried an ivory French rose-on-a-stem with three rosebuds.

Honor attendant Mary Gail Crissman, of Rochester, Mich., wore a long frock of Dior blue brocade, with a bell shaped skirt, and a headband of matching brocade. Her flowers were white camellias.

Francis Duffield Shelden served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alger Shelden, Sr., of Provincial road.

In the usher corps were James J. Hopkins, brother of the bride; Arthur V. Diedrich, Jr., Frederick A. Peck, James R. Teetzel, Hilary H. Micou, Jr., and Gari Melchers Stroh, Jr.

The mother of the bride chose a garnet French silk velvet suit with a pink silk blouse, matching velvet pumps and hat. She carried a garnet bead bag and wore a single pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Shelden was in a dress of beige silk alskaine, fashioned with an Empire waist and three quarter length sleeves, with a beige silk embroidered hat and matching accessories. She wore a bronze cymbidium orchid.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Plassey, chose a pink lace dress with matching accessories, and wore two white phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Amberg to Entertain Windmill Pointe Gardeners

The Windmill Pointe Garden Club will meet next Wednesday, at 12:30 o'clock for luncheon in the Westchester road home of Mrs. Irwin S. Amberg. This is the last time Mrs. Amberg will be hostess to the Garden Club, as she is moving shortly to the East.

Following a business meeting, Mrs. Arlington Lecklider will show slides and comment on her recent trip around the world.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

Constance Louisell Feted Before Rites

Will Wed John Joseph Fannon, III, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church February 8; Parties Began in Early January

Parties for Constance Marie Louisell, who will be married to John Joseph Fannon, III, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church February 8, began early this month, with a personal shower given by Veronica Motschall, Elaine Gravelle and Sharon Rabaut, at Miss Motschall's home in Ballantyne road.

Mrs. Dolph Lozelle and Mrs. John McNamara were hostesses at a January 22 linen shower in the latter's Touraine road home, and on January 25, Mr. and Mrs. George Van Lokeren feted the bride-elect and her fiance at a garden and picnic shower, followed by cocktails and dinner, at their home in Grand Marais boulevard.

The bridegroom's aunts, Mrs. Robert Fannon and Mrs. Marvin Beaupre, gave a miscellaneous shower and brunch at Captain Shumway's January 26.

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Joan K. Tait, of Buckingham road, was hostess at a bar shower and tea, and this Saturday Mrs. John F. Kane, of Coplin avenue, will give the bridesmaids' luncheon at The Whittier.

The Misses Valerie and Bettie DeGalan, of Yorkshire road, have planned a "Mr. and Mrs." shower February 3. The following day, February 4, Mrs. Raymond DeRyck and Mrs. John Ortmann have scheduled a kitchen and bathroom shower at Mrs. DeRyck's home in Berkshire road.

Mrs. John C. McDonald, the bride's aunt, will be hostess at the Spinster Dinner February 5, in her Courville avenue home.

Womans Club To Play Bridge

The Grosse Pointe Womans' Club will sponsor a telephone bridge to be held in the homes of various members, next Wednesday, February 5.

Dessert and beverage will be served at 12 o'clock noon, with play scheduled to start an hour later. The dessert will be prepared from a recipe supplied by Mrs. Harold B. Lee, who obtained it from a recent British visitor.

Heading the bridge afternoon committee is chairman Mrs. John J. Kelly, assisted by committee members Mrs. Hilary F. Alles, Mrs. Alexander J. King, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Richard Piper, Mrs. Bewley D. Priestman, Mrs. William Schnell, Mrs. Harry Speelman and Mrs. Norman Sumner.

Hostesses for the event include Mrs. Alles, Mrs. John V. Crane, Mrs. Walter L. Griffith, Mrs. J. W. Harrison, Mrs. J. E. Hinzman, Mrs. W. M. Kinchloe, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Sidney C. Marsh.

Other hostesses will be Mrs. E. Richard Murvey, Mrs. Dallas E. Newkirk, Mrs. Piper, Mrs. Priestman, Mrs. Thomas R. Quilter, Mrs. S. A. Ramsey, Mrs. Bruce M. Regan, Mrs. John G. Scales, Mrs. James C. Stewart and Mrs. Robert Whiteley.

Proceeds from the telephone bridge will be used for charitable purposes.

Party Planned By Newcomers

"A Midwinter Blues Party" will be held this Saturday, February 1, at AmVets Hall in Nine Mile road. The Newcomers Club of Grosse Pointe is hosting the festivities which will get under way at 9:30 o'clock, with music by the Esquires. Supper will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

The party is being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ponder. Assisting them are Mr. and Mrs. William Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bick, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ankeny, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Sandstedt.

Worry never solves a problem—in fact, it prevents the solution.

Mrs. David M. Kelley

JUDY JANE PETERS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. F. Peters, of Hawthorne road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Kelley January 11 in Peace Church. He is the son of the David F. Kelleys, of Bedford road.

Mr. Newberry To Claim Bride

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Hastings, of South Dartmouth, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Wendell Hastings, to Jay Lamar Newberry, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Lamar Newberry, II, of McMillan road.

Miss Hastings received her B.A. degree from Vassar College in 1962. She was presented to society at the 89th Assembly in New Bedford, Mass., in 1958, and is currently a member of the faculty of the Beaver County Day School, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Mr. Newberry, who received his B.A. degree from the University of Michigan, attended the Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Mass., and is now a member of the faculty of the Brooks School, North Andover, Mass.

They plan to be married June 27.

Thomas Jeffs, II To Claim Bride

The engagement of Patricia Lucas and Thomas Hamilton Jeffs, II, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lincoln Lucas, of North Gleggery road, Birmingham.

Miss Lucas was graduated from the University of Michigan, where she affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, in 1963.

Mr. Jeffs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Raymond Jeffs, of McKinley avenue, was graduated from the University of Michigan. He received his Masters degree in Business Administration in 1961, and is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity, and Phi Kappa Phi and Beta Gamma Sigma honoraries. They plan to be married August 22, at Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Spinsters Get One Extra Try

February has an extra day this year to allow the young ladies a little more chance to land their beaux. For that reason the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center Club for young single adults is planning a Leap Year Dance on Friday evening, February 7, from 9 to 12 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of Fries Auditorium.

Those attending must either live or work in Grosse Pointe or be a guest of some. Dates are welcome, but not necessary. Roston Clarke's orchestra will play for this Sadie Hawkins Day affair and their mellow music and the candlelight atmosphere should help the leap year tactics to the fullest.

At intermission time refreshments will be served at tables overlooking the lake. The admission price of $1.75 covers refreshments too.

Businessmen's Luncheons Begin At Art Institute

The Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, first Businessmen's Luncheon of 1964 took place yesterday, in the Institute's Riviera Court.

Willis F. Woods, director of the museum, inaugurated a series of talks on what to look for in a painting, what distinguishes the good from the bad as seen through the eyes of museum officials, private collectors and art dealers. Mr. Woods discussed how and why a museum selects objects for its collection.

Miss Peters Weds David M. Kelley

Reception at Hawthorne Road Home of Bride's Parents Follows January 11 Rites in Peace Church; Pair Living in Beaconsfield Road

At an early evening ceremony in Peace Church January 11, Judy Jane Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. F. Peters, of Hawthorne road, was married to David Michael Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Kelley, of Bedford road.

The bride wore a gown of peau de soie and lace, designed with a bateau neckline. A matching peau de soie and lace rose caught her illusion veil, and she carried white roses and an orchid.

Jennifer J. Peters was her sister's only attendant, in a street length frock of gold taffeta with a gold flowered headpiece. She carried pink carnations and ivy.

Thomas Carter served as Mr. Kelley's best man. Ushering were Dale E. Boye and Charles Usher.

Mrs. Peters greeted guests at the reception in her home, wearing a navy silk taffeta suit dress with tangerine accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a gold suit dress. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

The newlyweds are making their home in Beaconsfield road.

Begins Training

LEONARD G. STAFFEL, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. HERBERT C. ENGLE, of Hollywood road, began basic training recently at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The nine-week training includes orientation, history and organization, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, military drill, first aid and survival. During the training recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future assignments in the Navy.

U. of D. Gala Night Has Nautical Theme

Mothers' Club of University of Detroit High School Schedules Annual Party February 1; Gymnasium to Become "S.S. Cambridge" for the Evening

Come aboard the S.S. Cambridge on Saturday, February 1, at 8:30 o'clock, for a mid-season fantasy cruise to whichever ports you would like to disembark.

An 18-foot mast centers the floor; a lighthouse warns you of the reefs; electrified portholes along the walls give you a nautical view; and if you see all these things you know you are a guest at the 28th Gala Night of the University of Detroit High School Mothers' Club annual social event.

You may dance to Mack Pitt's Orchestra and sit at a candle-lit table aboard the boat; you may climb the crow's nest with the mannequin sailor, (if you're that daring), or you may follow your card playing instincts on the upper deck and view the gala mood below.

This in reality is the gymnasium at the school but with the aid of Mothers Club members you will never recognize your surroundings.

Mrs. Franklin Weiss is general chairman with Mrs. Gerst

Dance Classes' Heads Replaced

The young people's ballroom dancing classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this spring will be under the direction of Ted and Lillian Forrest who with their family of four, know young people well.

They will be taking over the reins from Bill and Marge Wilson, who after many successful years of teaching in the Pointe are moving to California.

Classes will be given in the great hall of the former Russell Alger Mansion at 32 Lake Shore. The Forrests will insist on the same social behavior patterns they instill at their invitational classes at the Hunt Club. Assistant teachers will take over when the Forrests themselves are not present, though the Forrests will be with the students the majority of the time.

Classes will be held Thursday afternoons after school beginning January 30 for fifth and sixth graders and on Friday evenings after dinner beginning January 31 for seventh through tenth graders.

Another class has been added, for 10 to 15-year-olds at 8:30 p.m. Saturdays, starting February 1.

Fourteen lessons will be concluded with a gala dance in the spring for the combined classes in the Crystal Ballroom of Fries Auditorium. The enrollment fee is $15 and as classes are limited early registration is advised.

Gala Night, sponsored by the University of Detroit High School Mothers' Club. The party begins at 8:30 o'clock in the school gymnasium. Mrs. Oscar Torina, of Grand Marais boulevard, assisted by Mesdames Donald Dossin, Donald Cherry and John Starrs, is handling reservations in the Pointe area.

Snow Ball To Open DBC's New Season

Winter Wonderland Decor to be Used for Sparkling Party to be Held This Saturday night in Belle Isle Clubhouse

The 1964 Snow Ball this Saturday, February 1, will inaugurate a new season at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jenkins are chairmen of this sparkling party, to begin with cocktails at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner an hour later and dancing to the music of Earl Perkins' Orchestra.

Decor for the formal ball will feature snow flakes, a huge snow man in the club foyer, and an illuminated ice castle at the entrance to the ballroom.

Club President Hugh Fuller and Mrs. Fuller will be on hand to greet guests as they enter the Winter Wonderland.

Committee members, who have worked on this first party of the Boat Club's 126th season, include Mr. and Mrs. William Bunderson, Hugh McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters.

Rockettes Set For Bonsel

There will be approximately 96 women participating in a Bonsel to be held at the Detroit Curling club on February 6 and 7. They will be representing 16 different curling clubs from both the United States and Canada.

Approximately one dozen Grosse Pointe women are members of the Detroit Rockettes and plan to participate in the event. Among them are Mrs. Frank Andrus, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. David Davidson, Mrs. Joseph Giroux, Mrs. Melvin Huffaker, Mrs. Bryan Melvin, Mrs. Charles Markley, Mrs. William Raven, Mrs. Chick Rutan and Mrs. Edward Taube.

This two day affair promises to be quite an event with a banquet for the curlers on Thursday night following the afternoon spiel, accompanied by an entertaining program, employing the talents of some of the Rockettes.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women have chosen next Tuesday, February 4, as the date of their Circle meetings.

Hosting the meetings will be Mrs. Ralph Reich, of Bournemouth road, Circle 1; Mrs. Richard F. Barnum, of Yorkshire road, Circle 2; Mrs. Howard Simon, of Buckingham road, Circle 3; Mrs. M. W. McCutcheon, of Lochmoor boulevard, Circle 4; Mrs. Charles R. Beitz, of Lakeland avenue, Circle 5; and Mrs. Bertram Atwood, of Beverly road, Circle 6.

Other hostesses are Mrs. Howard E. Pilbeam, of Westchester road Circle 7; Mrs. Walter Pattee of Kensington road, Circle 8; Mrs. Frank J. Sladen, of Lincoln road, Circle 9; Mrs. T. H. Schneider, of Grand Marais boulevard, Circle 10; and Mrs. Thomas Larkin, of Audubon road, Circle 11.

65th President's Ball

Two hundred and fifty people—who bought their tickets early—will gather at the University Club Saturday evening for fun, music, dinner and dancing at the 65th annual Presidents' Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Jr., the club's current president and his lady, will give a cocktail party in their Moross road home preceding the party, as will many other board members.

Guests at these various "private" festivities then plan to go on to the clubhouse, decorated in blue and white, for more cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, dinner served at intimate tables scattered throughout the club, and dancing to the music of Al Navarro and his orchestra in the Great Hall.

Jerry DuCharme is in charge of party plans, assisted by Verne C. Hampton, II, the Peter R. Finks, Miles M. O'Briens, Jr., Peter A. Dows, David M. Hamiltons, Robert M. Peabodys, Michael M. Careys, III, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Barnett, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lucius S. Beasley and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Ewing, Jr.

Terry Gould Wed To Gerald James

Speak Vows January 18 in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church; Bride Wears White Satin Gown with Alencon Lace Train

At a morning ceremony in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church January 18, Terry Monica Gould spoke her marriage vows to Gerald James.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gould, of West Williams court, wore a white satin gown with a train of Alencon lace falling from her shoulders.

Her bouffant veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown and she carried a white ermine muff with a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with a cluster of white orchids.

Mrs. Edward Skrzycki, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederick Saad, another sister of the bride, Patricia McKinley, Elaine Skawski and Barbara James, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore opera blue velvet gowns, with matching headpieces, and carried bouquets of ivy, pink carnations and sweet heart roses.

Flowergirls Monica, Michelle and Pamela Saad, the bride's nieces, were dressed in pink velvet frocks trimmed in white satin, with matching headpieces.

They carried nosegays of white carnations, pink sweetheart roses and blue cornflowers.

Kevin Gould, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Duncan James, Jr., was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan James, of Renaud road. Ushering were Bill Gould, brother of the bride, Donald Fitzpatrick, James Clancy, David Engle and James Gunn.

Mrs. Gould greeted guests at the reception in Bruce Post, wearing a glaze blue costume suit with matching accessories, and a pink camellia corsage. Mrs. James chose a dress of dark aqua peau de soie, and pink camellias.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York City, the newlyweds will make their home in Roseville.

Find a man who knows and admits his faults and you have a human who is as near perfect as anyone in this world can be.

Andrew Bratton To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Conrad, of Cleveland Heights, O., announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Elizabeth to Andrew P. Bratton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Bratton, Jr., of Ann Arbor, Mich. formerly of Kensington road.

The bride-elect, a sophomore at the University of Michigan, is a member of Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary scholastic sorority.

Her fiancé, a senior at Eastern Michigan University, is a member of Phi Kappa Alpha professional fraternity and in the EMU Reserve Officers Training Corps.

At a family dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herbert Campbell, of Westchester road, announced the engagement of their daughter, ROBERTA ALLINGHAM CAMPBELL, to Thomas Melvin Schulz, son of Commissioner and Mrs. Melvin W. Schulz, of Muskegon, Mich.

Miss Campbell is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and is presently in her junior year at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, where she is majoring in special education for the mentally handicapped.

Her fiancé, a June, 1963, graduate of Western Michigan University, now attends Wayne State University law school.

Church Dinner To Fete Young

The high school age students of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church and their guests will be the guests of the church's Missionary Board and Board of Christian Education at a dinner on Sunday evening, February 2, at 5:30, in the Social Hall of the church.

The purpose of the evening is to discuss "Christian Vocations," not only church-related professions, but life-related vocations, pointing to the fact that any area for earning a living can be a Christian vocation.

Outstanding guest speakers for the evening include the Rev. H. Root, pastor of the Mt. Zion United Church in Mt. Clemens; Rev. Arley Porter, minister to the Metropolitan Mission, commissioned by the United Church of Christ Board of Home Missions in New York City, through the Detroit Council of Churches; Rev. John W. Estes, Jr., pastor of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lawrence, who will discuss teaching and music as Christian vocations and avocations; Miss Janet Clark, who will talk on nursing and Mr. Robert Choate, who will discuss law.

Billy Graham is only one of many Christians who have stressed the importance of carrying the Christian witness into every area of contemporary life. The Missionary and Christian Education Boards of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church feel the importance of stressing this to the young people in the process of choosing their life's work and direction.

League to Quiz School Leaders

"How are school building programs financed?" is the question the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters will put to Superintendent Charles H. Wilson, and his assistant, J. Harold Husband, at the luncheon meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 5, to be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Both Dr. Wilson and Mr. Husband have wide experience and national prominence in the field of School Administration and Finance, and League Members will have the opportunity to hear how their wide experience is applied to problems of the Grosse Pointe School District.

Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, Chairman of the League's Study of School Finance, has asked the speakers to touch upon the following questions:

How far into the future does Grosse Pointe look when planning school building programs? Who buys school bonds? Why is bond interest "deductible"? Do schools face zoning restrictions? In other states, are schools completely dependent upon property taxes for building funds? How long does it take us to pay for our schools? Upon which school issues may only property owners vote? What will the new Constitution mean to education in Michigan? Is there critical overcrowding anywhere besides the Ferry area and the High School?

As with all League of Women Voters functions, visitors are welcome. Lunch will be served at 12:30 o'clock, with the program following at 1:30. Call Mrs. Leonard Slowin, 882-2793, or Mrs. Leslie Pressel, TU 6-2274, for reservations by noon Monday, February 3.

Pro Musica Sets Second Concert

The second concert of the Pro Musica Season at the Detroit Institute of Arts, featuring Charles Rosen, young American pianist, in his Detroit debut, will be Friday evening, February 7.

Pro Musica, founded in Detroit in 1927, sponsors three concerts yearly. The society's directors seek to bring new artists, on the threshold of becoming widely recognized, to Detroit, and request the artists to present programs that include music of the pre-classic and contemporary composers.

Whenever possible, the directors invite performing composers to participate in the concert series. Among the outstanding composers, artists and ensembles that have appeared in the 14 concerts of Pro Musica's 37-year history are Bela Bartok, Maurice Ravel, Darius Milhaud, Serge Prokofieff, Paul Hindemith, Phyllis Curtin, Martha Lipton, Albeneri Trio, Paris Chamber Ensemble and Solisti Di Zagreb.

Grosse Pointe residents active in Pro Musica include Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge, president; Dr. Hugh Stalker, vice president; Edward P. Frohlich, treasurer; and Mrs. John M. Chase, membership secretary.

The school of experience is a rough teacher—it even issues its diplomas on sandpaper.

Georgetown Alumni To Mark Anniversary

Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S.J., to Present 175th Anniversary Medals of Honor at Dinner Reception in Detroit Club next Wednesday

Detroit area alumni of Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., will celebrate the 175th anniversary of its founding at a reception and dinner Wednesday, February 5, at the Detroit Club.

The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S.J., president of Georgetown, will present 175th Anniversary Medals of Honor to Senator Philip A. Hart (Dem., Mich.), a 1934 Georgetown graduate, and other distinguished Detroit area alumni and friends of Georgetown.

Pointers receiving medals are Paul J. Brown, retired, of Washington road, who graduated from Georgetown in 1902 and is the University's oldest living alumnus in Michigan; Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., whose late husband was former president of the National Bank of Detroit and a 1928 graduate of Georgetown, and whose son, Charles T. Fisher, III, is a 1951 Georgetown graduate; and David T. Marantette, of Oxford road, president of the Detroit Insurance Agency, whose son, David, is a '63 Georgetown graduate.

Others to be honored are Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, Jr., E. Victor Chilson, James P. Curmiskey, Jr., James F. Duffy, Jr., Bedford L. Embrey, Joseph F. Flaherty, Philip J. Monaghan and John E. Steiner.

Chairman of the Anniversary Dinner is Daniel N. King, of University place, president of the Georgetown Club of Michigan, assisted by Miles M. O'Brien, Jr., of Hall place, Peter J. Kennedy, of Hillecrest lane, Christopher J. Duncan, Jr., of Moross road, and John J. Power, III, of Birmingham.

Georgetown University, operated by the Society of Jesus, was founded in 1789, the year the United States Constitution was adopted, by Bishop John Carroll, S.J., first Catholic Bishop in the United States.

Father Bunn will speak on Georgetown, its past 175 years, its present achievements and opportunities in the years ahead. A short motion picture, "Georgetown Today," will be shown. There are about 300 Georgetown alumni in the Detroit area, and 42 local students currently attend the Washington, D.C., university.

Bologna-Zastrow Vows Exchanged

Daughter of Alfred Zastrows Weds Son of James Bolognas December 28 in St. Ambrose Church; Reception at Statler Hotel

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Bologna, who were married December 28 in St. Ambrose Church, are making their home in Hartford, Conn., where the bridegroom is studying for his Masters degree at the University of Connecticut and engaged in metallurgical research for Pratt and Whitney.

The bride is the former Barbara Zastrow, daughter of the Alfred Zastrows, of Barrington road. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Bologna, of Balfour road.

For her marriage, the bride chose a gown of white satin with lace panels inset in the full skirt and matching lace edging the neckline and points of the wrist length sleeves.

Her lace-trimmed illusion veil fell from a lace crown, and she carried white orchids.

Mrs. Albert Demchak was her sister's matron of honor, in a green and gold brocade floor length gown with a gold sash. Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Pat Kendall, Maria Bologna, sister of the bridegroom, and Elaine Ohno. Their headpieces were Dior bows, and they carried gold mums.

Peter Bologna served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Charles Zastrow, brother of the bride, George Murnola, of New York, and Paul Zernatti.

Paul and Mark Demchak, the bride's twin nephews, were ring bearers.

For the ceremony and nuptial high mass celebrated by the bridegroom's uncle, Father Anthony Bologna, and the reception in the Statler Hotel, Mrs. Zastrow chose a dress of ivory brocade. Mrs. Bologna was in a gold knit suit. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchids.

Varied Program For Local AAUW

"Playwright at Work," a tape recording about Edward Albee, will be heard by the Creative Writing group of the American Association of University Women, Grosse Pointe branch on Wednesday, February 5 at 12:45 o'clock.

Albee, author of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf," will be interviewed by Frank Perry about his methods and philosophy. A portion of the first scene of the play will be included. Hostess is Mrs. Arthur T. Bersey, of Harbor Island.

The Painting group continues to meet on Tuesdays at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lee Corless in Roslyn road. The Ceramic group meets Thursdays at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kimble, of Fisher road.

The Recent Graduate group and the Status of Women group will not meet in February.

The following new members have been welcomed into the local AAUW branch: Mrs. John Cooper, of Notre Dame avenue; Mrs. William Fors, of Kerby road; Mrs. Alexander Irwin, of Vernier road; Mrs. Robert Kotas, of Alter road; Mrs. Russell McKinney, of Beaconfield avenue; and Mrs. Jack Swidler, of Hollywood avenue.

Offer Classes In Decoupage

The period of Louis XIV brought with it many innovations in furniture, dress and art—among them, the art of Decoupage, which now seems to be having a rebirth in popularity with many Grosse Pointers.

The Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, offered a course in Decoupage last fall under the tutelage of Mrs. Louise Hoyt, and because of its increasing popularity, three classes have been added to the roster for the winter term.

Decoupage is an art involving many arts—the cutting and application of pictures onto a wooden, metal or composition surface, the gradual burying of this picture under many layers of varnish, and then the sanding of the surface, so that the final product becomes a beautiful picture imbedded into the background material. In this manner, Mrs. Hoyt's students have made purses, trays, coasters, boxes and even tables, in a method so unique that it is duplicated only in the most exclusive art shops.

Places in the evening decoupage class are still available for men, as well as women. This class meets Monday nights from 7:15 to 9:45 for a period of 10 weeks. For further information, please call the Department of Community Services, TU. 5-3808 or TU. 5-0271.

Also available are places in the Blue Print class. Taught by Aelred Kingsbury, this class deals mainly with the reading of machine and construction blue prints, and meets Monday evenings at 7:30 for a period of 10 weeks.

Mrs. Dominic Bologna

In St. Ambrose Church December 28, BARBARA ZASTROW, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zastrow, of Barrington road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Bologna, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bologna, of Balfour road.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Haas, of North Renaud road, announce the engagement of their daughter, SUZANNE MARIE, to Lloyd Brennan Marks, the prospective bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marks, of Fairford road, attends Eastern Michigan University. They plan an August 8 wedding, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Will Wed

The engagement of VIRGINIA ANN MIHALIK to Joseph V. D'Orso has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Mihalik, of Beaupre road. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. D'Orso, of South Norwalk, Conn.

Miss Mihalik is a graduate of Sacred Heart Junior College, Belmont, N.C., and has since attended the University of Dayton, Dayton, O. Mr. D'Orso, a senior at the University of Dayton, is affiliated with Delta Tau Nu fraternity.

White Material Donors Thanked

On behalf of its Volunteers, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial wishes to thank the many donors who have brought white material to the Center to be used by "The Crusaders" in making cancer pads. The material was much needed, came in large quantities and was greatly appreciated.

Clark Women Slate Book Review Session

Clark Women's Club will meet on Monday, February 3, at 1 o'clock at Christ Methodist Church for a tea and social hour, followed by a business meeting. Mrs. Edgar Hahn will present a book review of "Caravans" by James A. Michener.

Knitting Group Requests Help

Beginning February 7 the Neighborhood Club Knitting Group will meet at the War Memorial Center on the first and third Fridays of each month, from 12:30 to 3 o'clock. Knitters, young and old, who would like to work with these women, will be most welcome.

Afghans, lap robes, baby blankets, which are sent to hospitals, convalescent homes, to needy individuals in the Detroit area, to many places in the United States, and to foreign countries as well, are made from the wool yarn donated by individuals and shops of the community.

Acknowledgement letters of blankets are often received, such as this one dated December 23, 1963 from the Children's Aid Society: "Afghans are always so welcome, always so decorative as well as useful. They are claimed by the workers for their most needy—practically before we get them unwrapped."

Wool yarn of any kind or amount can be used—dark shades or light, heavy yarn or fine, discarded knitted articles can be reworked. Yarn can be left at the temporary Neighborhood Club office, 710 Notre Dame, or can be picked up. Telephone TU 5-4600.

Theater Night For CMU Grads

Mardi Gras Night at the Vanguard Theatre is on the agenda for Central Michigan University alumni in the Detroit area.

Members of the Detroit chapter of alumni will view August Strindberg's "Dreamplay," February 11, produced by CMU alumnus William A. Gregory, Vanguard producer-director.

Cast and audience will mingle at an after-show party, according to John Lynch of Rosedale Park, general chairman. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan of 371 Ridgemont, and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Stetekuh of 114 Handy road, are members of the committee for the event.

END RESULT
Cultivate the right view-point—spading the garden isn't labor if you're looking for bait.

THE TITAN II's two stages are shown locked in static firing position on pads at Cape Kennedy, Fla., before the Jan. 10 test. The Titan II booster will be used to launch two astronauts into space in the Gemini capsule later this year, the first such operation since Gordon Cooper's trip in May 1963.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?—It's water, being boiled for drinking by head chef Frank Resetarits in Buffalo General Hospital. Lake Erie's low water level and ice clogging forced the Water Department to resort to an intake that hasn't been used in three decades. It comes from the Niagara River and doesn't pass through the filtration plant.

REUNION AFTER KILLING—Mrs. Carmen Bartholomae, 25, weeps a bit as she is reunited with her 3-month-old baby Carlos and husband Charles after being cleared in the stabbing of millionaire William A. Bartholomae, 70, her brother-in-law, in Newport Beach, Calif. Her half-sister, Manola Gallardo, is accused.

Head-On Collision Nemesis

Head-on collision fatalities are a thing of the past on Detroit's John C. Lodge and Edsel Ford expressways. Since 1958, when median steel beam guard rail was installed on both highways to separate traffic moving in opposite directions, there have been no head-on collision deaths due to vehicles crossing over the median. Previously six persons were killed in head-on collisions when cars crossed over the median strip. Head-on collisions cause 5,800 automobile fatalities annually. Steel median guard rail's success in stopping such accidents is spurring its use throughout the country.

PISTOL PACKIN' PRESIDENT—This smiling gent is Sheikh Abdel Karume, the rebel president of Zanzibar, who walked into a hotel with his foreign minister and personally arrested two U.S. diplomats and marched them out at gunpoint. They are Frederick P. Picard III, New York, charge d'affaires, and Donald K. Petterson, San Luis Obispo, Calif., third secretary, who were placed under house arrest because they defended four reporters whose stories displaced the new island regime.

$40,000 MONTH—Blonde and beautiful Donna Rae Ferguson, 31, sits in court in Los Angeles, contemplating one of the biggest divorce settlements on record there. She gets $105,000 cash plus $40,000 a month from oilman Robert B. Ferguson, 40. He stayed away from home for long periods without explanation, she said.

NEW FOOTWEAR for '64 includes these creations shown in New York. The heel and toe step into view in the shoe designed by Herbert Levine, with an extra high heel under a wide sling. Designer Caressa adds a novel heel to a black suede pump trimmed in gold piping.

BEAUTY AND BEAST Hollywoodite Eileen O'Neill, one of six finalists in the 1963 "Miss Rheingold" competition, emotes a bit in Los Angeles on winning an annulment from film producer-director-writer William D. Holmes. She said she took her on a three-month honeymoon to hunt tigers in India, and "He said that while we were on the hunt one had to stay in excellent physical condition and there was plenty of time for mutual union later."

Air dispatchers get set to shunt package from plane.

Package is on way after being slid off those rollers.

Parachute floats it down to jungle outpost on river.

SUPPLYING MALAYSIA OUTPOSTS—This is an operation by British army air dispatchers who are keeping jungle outposts of Malaysia defenses supplied. The operation is in the former British territories of North Borneo and Sarawak, and the enemy is encroaching Indonesia. President Johnson sent Attorney General Robert Kennedy to Tokyo to discuss the problem with Indonesia's President Achmed Sukarno.

DRESSED FOOT FORWARD—Way out footwear shown in New York includes a knee-high sandal reminiscent of early Rome, done in green leather, by Marion Woods, and the longest grained leather boot ever made, which laces into a shoe with an arch-support heel, by Capozzi.

CONSULTATION—Attorney General Robert Kennedy and Indonesian President Achmed Sukarno seem not at all at odds as they discuss the Malaysia situation in Tokyo. They agreed it should be solved by consultation. (Radiophoto)

NEW CANAL PROPOSED—A new canal across Mexico in the Tehuantepec area as an alternative to the "outmoded" Panama Canal is proposed by Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont. It would be a sea level waterway, and thus no war-damaged and costly locks would be necessary.

MAYBE IT'S THE RADIOACTIVE POLONIUM IN CIGARETS—Two Harvard scientists, Dr. Vilma R. Hunt and Dr. Edward F. Radford (with technician at his right) are shown in their physiology laboratories, where they have collected radioactive polonium from cigarette smoke, and think that might be the lung cancer answer. Dr. Hunt holds a silver disc plated with polonium collected from cigarette smoke. Dr. Radford and his aide, Clement Nelson, check the puffing pattern of the cigarette in the apparatus. It draws smoke into a filter, and the smoke is analyzed later.

YOU DON'T LIKE TO GO TO THE DENTIST?—Well, he can come to you, now. Dr. John W. Collins of the Michigan Health Department demonstrates new hand-carry dental office in Ann Arbor. "Patient" is Judy Marx. The equipment is designed especially for benefit of shut-ins, the aged, and chronically ill.

THE KING OF BEASTS and family are playing it real cool in Baltimore these snowy days.

WANTS OUT—Jack Ruby, the assassin of the assassin, doesn't seem a bit perturbed in these photos, made after he fired a fatal bullet into Lee Harvey Oswald. Ruby's bond hearing reopens in Dallas, Tex., Jan. 20. He's gained weight, they say, from jail living.

FIRST OFFERINGS
CHARMED we're sure you'll be when you see this French colonial on Hillcrest road. It has all the ingredients if you are looking for a four bedroom with 2 1/2 baths. Priced to accommodate the buyer in the middle thirty range.

A COMPLETELY re-done colonial which is so designed to change with the average family. Enormous kitchen, three bedrooms up and a tremendous first floor bedroom and bath. This room could be used as an active room because its dimensions are 17x15. The entire house shows well. Wall to wall carpeting throughout the first floor is just three months old.

IF YOU HAVE BEEN looking for a four bedroom house in the Radnor Circle area, you know they rarely come on the market... and when they do they don't last long. While it lasts we have just such a home. Better call us now... tomorrow may be too late.

A CENTER HALL gray colonial on Roslyr Road, and just waiting for a new owner. You see the present owner has moved away and the little house is lonely for a new family. Good looking from the curb and when you come inside. Three bedrooms and a paneled den off the center hall. Now at $24,900.

SUMPTUOUSLY SITUATED on a large lot which affords the ultimate in privacy and is serviced by underground sprinklers, this truly fine home is completely air conditioned. The ingenious second floor layout makes this house suitable for just a couple, but "expands" into five accessible bedrooms if required. The first floor plan includes a gracious foyer which gives access to the living, dining, and library rooms. Recently redecorated in pleasing colors which go with almost everything. As an added inducement there is an extra lot which "goes with or without," depending on what our buyer prefers.

FISHER ROAD, 476 — Good sized 3-bedroom colonial, 1 1/2 baths, screened terrace. Good mortgage available, and quick possession.

MOROSS ROAD, 377 — Semi-ranch, 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, G. E. kitchen with built-ins, good floor plan, center air-conditioning, attached garage. Close to everything.

WINDMILL PTE. DR. Stately Georgian colonial with excellent view of lake. 5 bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths, fine library. Better than new condition. Located on almost an acre of ground. Completely sprinklered. Expensively carpeted. Now vacant. Let us show it to you.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Brave Pointers who venture, by car, to "the other side of town," often find themselves hopelessly lost in the wooded hills and winding roads of Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills-Metamora, etc. Oakland County dwellers, tired of running out in the middle of the night to lead bewildered East Siders through the North Suburban wilds, have begun, in self-defense, to provide road maps with their party invitations. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Dewey, of Lakecrest lane, received ditto-processed letters, complete with a "travelers' guide," from the Frank Carlsons, of North Valley Chase road, early this month. "On January 19, 1924, Ruth and Fran Dewey were married," the invitations read. "Three daughters and 12 grandchildren and 40 years later, they are on the brink of an anniversary. We would like to honor them for the wonderful mother and father they have been." The note concluded with time, place and a detailed map. "X" marking the spot of the Carlsons' residence, and—wonder of wonders!—no one got lost on the way to the party.

Grosse Pointe's Poet Laureate, Carolyn Hubbard (Mrs. Russell H.) Lucas, of East Jefferson avenue, impressed by Mrs. George Romney's speech at the Junior League Regional Meeting January 8, dedicated one of her delightful compositions to the Governor's wife. Mrs. Romney, via letter, has expressed her acknowledgement of Mrs. Lucas' couplets and graciously consented to the dedication with many thanks preceding "The Child."

A "children's panel" comes and goes
But how eternal is the rose.
It's price? Devoted years of life
That lend and spend through joy and strife.
A child must see with quick surprise
Bright summer in his mother's eyes—
And feel the tenderness she gives
In every moment that he lives.
A child is such a simple thing—
Yet O the cherishing to bring
His heart and mind to know the truth
That leads him into splendid youth.
The worth of this the world may see
When twigs are bent to make the tree.

Latest "twist" in benefit-party ideas: The Trading Stamp Dessert and Card Party, price of admission—one book or more of stamps, to be donated to the hostess' favorite charity. Mrs. Henry Zdrodowski, of Berkshire road, a Pointe Stamp Party pioneer, recently entertained 62 women and collected about 100 books of stamps. She turned them over to the Dominican Cloistered Nuns at Blessed Sacrament Monastery, who were having a bit of difficulty collecting the 940-book price of a station wagon.

The eyes of Texas were upon Grosse Pointe last Friday, as Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Emerson, who moved from Houston to McKinley avenue a year and a half ago, entertained an old friend, Senator John Tower, "first Republican elected to represent the Lone Star State in Washington since Reconstruction Days." About three dozen of the Emersons' close friends were invited to meet the Senator at a dinner reception following his speech in Masonic Temple.

Canteen Conversation

By Rick Mills

Suppose you were able to peer into the cluttered mind of today's teenager and observe the mental dictionary he has compiled throughout his vast experiences. If you looked under "s" for school perhaps this is what you would find: "School: a place to go five days a week to see my friends and put into practice my ability to avoid work; a large building to hide behind and smoke my cigarettes; a place to catch up on the sleep I missed over the weekend; a prison with a chief warden and many keepers who love to inflict on me hours of senseless, unintelligible homework; a dump!"

These are but a few of the many pleasant thoughts brought to mind when the word "school" is mentioned. Is it possible that there is another side to this story? What is there about this institution that brings a teen back day after day to sit hunched over his books when he could be home in bed? Is it only the law of the state and the long arm of the truant officer? Could there be a few faint glimmers of real interest, an urge to taste of this smorgasbord of knowledge? Here are some representative opinions.

Candy Mason: "Dramatics interest me most in school. I enjoy acting because of the form of communication developed between the audience and the actor. When I am on stage, I forget all my problems and leave everything behind as I step into the personality of the character portrayed. I have her problems and I solve them in her way. While I am playing the part of someone else I begin to realize what kind of person I really am and what I may become. I am also better able to understand other people, their feelings and needs, because I put myself in their places on stage and off. Drama is most rewarding to me and every new role is a new fascination."

Pete Sclenberger: "I enjoy the science courses offered in school. These subjects extend my knowledge and help satisfy my curiosity. They establish discipline for accurate thought and belief, and provide a background for future learning in college and business. They also provide academic credit while I am in high school."

Jim Hanna, (Grosse Pointe High School Student Association President): "Working with the Student Association is very interesting to me. It has shown what really goes on behind the scenes to keep a school running smoothly. Experience can be gained in dealing with people, both teachers and students. This work offers new solutions to problems that might arise in adult life when I will be better able to cope with them because of this high school opportunity."

Perhaps Webster's definition of school, "the discipline of learning," has a real place in the mind of today's teenager.

Pointer of Interest

JAMES TAMBURINI, OF GRAYTON ROAD

By Janet Mueller

James Tamburini terms himself a "loller"—with no time to loll. First trumpet of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, conductor of the Mt. Clemens Symphony, teacher and amateur artist, Mr. Tamburini longs for hours to while lazily away.

Given his current schedule, he is more likely to find a trumpet, baton or steering wheel under his fingers than time on his hands.

Born in Philadelphia, scion of a musically oriented family, his ancestors include Antonio Tamburini, one of the foremost tenors of the 1830's and '40's. His father, bandmaster for 35 years, saw to it that all three Tamburini boys studied trumpet; James is the only one who still plays professionally.

He competed for and won a complete scholarship to Philadelphia's famed Curtis Institute of Music. The trumpet is the most popular of all brass instruments, used extensively in both jazz and symphonic compositions, and the young student of "serious" music earned extra money playing with jazz and dance bands in the Philadelphia area.

Work Lacked Challenge Although he enjoyed the experience of working with small bands, "the challenge was not there." He found the work monotonous, unsatisfying. Years later, playing four shows a day at Radio City Music Hall during the Detroit Symphony's brief demise, he again found monotony his greatest problem.

In 1940, Leopold Stokowski completed a three-year transcontinental search for young talent. Stokowski and his All American Youth Orchestra, including trumpeter James Tamburini, spent three months on a good will tour of South America.

They played most of the major cities of the Southern Hemisphere, Rio, Sao Paulo, Rosario and Montevideo, where the young American musicians saw the bow of the Graf Spee, sunk by the British Navy after months of trans-oceanic hide and seek, protruding from the off-shore waters.

Returning to the States, Mr. Tamburini toured with the Littlefield Ballet, joined Fritz Reiner's Pittsburgh Symphony, and eventually, like thousands of other Americans, found himself in khaki. Trumpet in hand, he traveled up and down the East Coast, playing for War Drives and Buy Bond Rallies.

To Detroit in 1944 He came to Detroit in 1944 to play with the Detroit Symphony, then under conductor Karl Kruger, and has followed the Symphony from the Masonic Temple, (too big), to the Music Hall, (too small), to Ford Auditorium (minor acoustical problems, but these are being solved).

Symphony rehearsals are scheduled practically every morning, from 10 until about 12:30 o'clock. Sometimes, if the orchestra must work with a choir or special performers, evening rehearsals are also necessary.

Symphony players are under seasonal contract, so all other activities revolve around the Symphony schedule. In his downtown studio, Mr. Tamburini takes private pupils, but in the past few years he has had to cut his students to the minimum—"At present, the time element does not allow much teaching."

"In the past, I have had a fair amount of success with students on brass instruments," Mr. Tamburini says. The record of this "fair amount of success" includes two trumpet players on scholarship at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N.Y.; three students on partial scholarship at the University for Mr. Paray's annual engagement with the Symphony.

In the summer, the Detroit Symphony moves outdoors, playing nine weeks at the State Fairgrounds and three weeks on Belle Isle. The musicians bring their own insect repellents, spray themselves and sometimes their instruments, (imagine a trumpet trying to trumpet while a mosquito bites his nose), before each performance.

Bugs are not Mr. Tamburini's biggest problem at an outdoor concert, however; on Belle Isle, the Symphony fights boat whistles. "I wish when they honk, they would at least honk in tune!" the first trumpet mourns. "Sometimes, I could swear they are our enemies."

Takes Up New Hobby This Christmas, Mr. Tamburini acquired a set of pastel chalks and a new hobby: dabbling at the artist's easel. He has turned out several creditable pastels and is working on his first oil painting.

He finds art "very relaxing" and oils more interesting than pastels—even though, as a complete novice, he mixed too much turpentine with his paint and had to wait days until the canvas was dry enough to be re-worked.

Adding a paintbrush to the collection of articles and instruments passing through his fingers daily leaves James Tamburini even less "lolling time." But he keeps searching, between cups of hastily gulped coffee and dashes down the expressway, for a few quiet minutes of nothing-whatever-to-do.

If scientists ever invent an "hour-bank," like a blood bank, where men and women draw time according to their needs, James Tamburini will probably be a steady customer. As of now, transfusion seems to be the only way for him to achieve the lazy life.

Paray Closing Concert Series Paul Paray will conclude his four-week series of concerts with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for this season at programs to be given at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, January 30, and Saturday, February 1, in the Henry & Edsel Ford Auditorium.

Soloist for the two concerts will be Isaac Stern, violinist, who will play the Mozart Concerto for Violin and Orchestra No. 3 in G Major and the Prokofiev Concerto for Violin and Orchestra No. 1 in D Major.

Paray will lead the Orchestra in performances of Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 and Ravel's "Daphnis et Chloe" Suite No. 2. Stern was the first American concert artist to appear in the Soviet Union in more than a decade when, in 1956, he was invited to tour six Russian cities by the Soviet Ministry of Culture.

More recently he achieved fame as the leader of a group to save Carnegie Hall from destruction. He currently serves as president of the non-profit organization which leases the auditorium from the City of New York.

Following the concerts, Paray and Mrs. Paray will leave for Europe where he will conduct a number of orchestras before they return to their new home outside Geneva, Switzerland.

Honor Top Musicians James Tamburini is a past president of the Bohemians. The club, in addition to its regular schedule, honors "big names" in the musical world when they visit Detroit. Most recently, they hosted a banquet honoring Detroit Symphony Conductor Emeritus Paul Paray and Mrs. Paray, back in the Motor City

BEEF STROGANOFF

Contributed by Mrs. Oliver W. Sturdevant (from "Deliciously Yours," 1963 cookbook compiled by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries)

2 lbs. lean beef, cut into 1-inch cubes and rolled in flour
1 lb. fresh mushrooms
6 medium onions, sliced thin
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 cup dry red wine
2 tsp. celery salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. paprika
1 clove garlic
3 beef bouillon cubes
5 Tbsp. Bourbon
1 Tbsp. corn starch
1 cup pitted ripe olives
1 cup sour cream
1/2 cup liquid from can of ripe olives

Brown meat in butter over low heat. Add mushrooms and onions, finely chopped, and cook for 5 minutes. Add tomatoes, wine seasonings, garlic and bouillon cubes. Cover and simmer for about an hour at low heat, or until meat is tender. Mix bourbon and cornstarch until smooth and add to mixture. Cover and simmer for about 10 minutes, stirring frequently; then stir in sour cream and ripe olives and simmer for 10 minutes more. If extra liquid is needed for gravy add liquid from ripe olives. Serve with hot buttered rice. Serves 8.

Schedule Show By Helen Rose

During her five short years in the couturier field, the Helen Rose label has become internationally known, and to the chic American woman to whom she caters, it stands for true elegance, superb workmanship, and a singular type of fashion beauty that always reminds a woman that she is a WOMAN.

Miss Rose has to her credit the stupendous record of 232 important MGM films during her contract years at the studio, designing for such stars as Elizabeth Taylor, Jane Powell, Ava Gardner, Cyd Charisse, Doris Day, Shirley MacLaine, Lana Turner, Lauren Bacall, Debbie Reynolds, Grace Kelly and countless others. Miss Rose designed the exquisite wedding gown for Grace Kelly when she became Princess of Monaco.

Miss Rose won the Academy Award in 1952 for Lana Turner's gowns in "The Bad and the Beautiful," and again in 1955 for Susan Hayward's wardrobe in "I'll Cry Tomorrow."

Other awards to Miss Rose's credit are . . . The Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, the Phoenix Art Museum for Distinction in the Art of Design, the Millinery Institute of America's Golden Hat Box, and the Maison Blanche of New Orleans Award.

A chic, petite brunette, she herself suggests the special type of woman she designs for. Miss Rose will be at Jacobson's in the St. Clair Room at 10 a.m. on Monday, February 3, for a Formal Brunch Fashion Show (by invitation only), sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe.

From noon on Monday until 5 p.m. and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Tuesday, the fashion line will be brought down to the dress salon for informal modeling. Helen Rose will be on hand to greet visitors and refreshments will be served.

Woods Garden Club to Meet

Mrs. Charles Brownell will entertain members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club in her Hawthorne road home next Tuesday, February 4.

Assisting the hostess at the noon luncheon will be Mrs. Donald Hanna and Mrs. L. A. Lotgering.

Following the regular business meeting, members will participate in a workshop program.

Pointe Counter Points

By Pat Rousseau

Recipe . . . start with the best ingredients, mix with a knowing hand. This is what Mutschler Kitchens do . . . and they serve up a kitchen that is well constructed and appeals to your very fine taste. See all the models at 20489 Mack Avenue.

Gallery Gazing . . . there are fifteen paintings by Joe Franz at Les Galleries de Renee, 14944 East Jefferson. One nostalgic scene is the railway station at Waterford, fifty years ago. Another meaningful work is Saint Joseph Church. Take a bit of time to enjoy gallery gazing this week.

Once Again . . . Mrs. Woodridge is planning a trip to The Gift Show in Chicago to find new gift ideas and unusual serving accessories for The Village Wine Shop, 15338 East Jefferson.

Parrucchiere . . . means hairdresser in Italian. We saw the sign on the unique black and gold shop at 19463 Mack Avenue and stopped to visit Edward Nepi in his beautiful new salon. It is really something to see. The number to call for an appointment with the talented Edward is TUxedo 4-8858.

Ski Week-ending . . . take along travel-wise companions. Special out-of-doors cosmetics and travel-light kits to organize your packing. You'll find both at The Notre Dame Pharmacy.

VIP . . . very important pups like to visit This 'N' That for Pets. It's at 19433 Mack Avenue. The barber and beauty shop grooms him to his lovable best. The boutique is full of fun toys with which to amuse the household. He might even get a ride home via the taxi service . . . which is quite a bit to bark about.

Fashion Two Twenty . . . 20445 Mack Avenue concentrates on bringing out the best in a woman's appearance. It is their ONLY business. They take the time to give you a complete make-up analysis and teach you how to apply cosmetics. They will also train you to be a beauty consultant. Call TUxedo 6-0252 for more information.

Liggett Board Holds Election

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Liggett School, Horace Caulkins Ford was elected president of the board for a three year term.

Liggett has been a tradition in his family for five generations. His great-grandfather, George Peck, first president of the Detroit Edison, was one of seven original stockholders of the Liggett School in 1878. His grandmother Minnie Peck, was graduated from Liggett, then on Stimson Place, in 1884. His mother, Esther Caulkins Ford (Mrs. Frederick S.), attended Liggett for 12 years and now serves as the co-chairman of the Liggett Tomorrow Fund. Both his daughters, Carrie and Esther Lee Caulkins, are enrolled in the new Liggett to be completed in Grosse Pointe Woods by next fall.

Children's Art Classes Slated

Children's Art classes will begin at the Center February 1 for boys and girls ages 6-15. The instructor is Mrs. Sterling Loud who has taught both at the War Memorial and in the Adult Education program of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for a number of years.

There is a session from 9:30 to 11 for the 10-year-olds each Saturday and the older group convenes from 11:15 to 12:45. The courses are for 16 weeks and the fee is $24 plus a $2.75 materials fee.

Mrs. Loud is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence and did graduate work in art in Washington D.C. where she was a friend of Jacqueline Kennedy. Before her marriage and move to Grosse Pointe she taught art in the National Cathedral School in Washington.

Since coming to the Pointe she has besides bringing up a family of children, served on the board of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association, planned the art courses for the Junior League Senior Center, been active in the Detroit Artists Market, taught and won many prizes for her paintings.

Mrs. Loud believes that art is, for fun and guides her pupils imaginations into highly original art forms in many media while at the same time instilling in them the basic principles of design and color.

Newly elected vice-president is Mrs. H. Bradford Aarons who was graduated from Liggett in 1949, and whose mother was graduated in 1923. Mrs. Aarons is the former Liggett campaign chairman.

Richard K. Simonds was elected to serve a three year term as treasurer. Three of his sisters were graduated from Liggett and he himself attended kindergarten there. Mrs. Lynden Kaufmann, whose daughter Mary attends Liggett, will begin her term as secretary.

Continuing on the board are: Mrs. M. M. Burgess, Lewis A. Rockwell, William B. Gilbride, Henry E. Bodman II, Mrs. Benson Ford, William C. Tost, Mrs. Charles M. White, Mr. James Wineman, Mrs. E. James Howard, Mrs. James S. Hirschfeld, mother's representative, and R. Willard Lamp for the Dads for Liggett.
