Pick Site for High School

"Therefore, be it resolved that The Citizens' Advisory Committee makes the following recommendations to the Grosse Pointe School Board and urges prompt implementation thereof: 1) The Grosse Pointe School District should have two senior high schools.

2) The second senior high school should be built on the Vanderbush-Baker site."

No Negative Vote With 26 of the 31 members present, and with the absentees having made known their sentiments to Chairman Koppin beforehand, the vote on the resolution was cast without a negative vote.

In his presentation to the Committee Dr. McCormick said "My basic recommendation is for The Grosse Pointe Public School System to build a high school to accommodate from 1,500 to 1,700 students, with provisions for expansion to 2,400."

He also urged the school system to move as rapidly as possible to build the Vanderbush-Baker site and shift the internal organization from the existing 6-3-3 pattern to one of 5-3-4. (Under the proposed pattern, kindergarten through grade 5 would be contained in most elementary buildings, with grades 6 through 8 housed in the three existing junior high schools, and students in grades 9-12 to attend either the present Grosse Pointe High School or the one that has been proposed.)

Want More Property In addition, the Citizens' Advisory Committee passed resolution urging the Board of Education consider the acquisition of property adjacent to the Vanderbush farm in accordance with Dr. McCormick's recommendations. The houses in question are those in Vernier road between the proposed access lot to the high school site and Morningside drive.

The Citizens' Advisory Committee also passed a resolution commending the members of the Board of Education for their action on the proposed high school site and wished them success in their future endeavors for the boys and girls of Grosse Pointe.

The action was taken at the final meeting of the 31-member Citizens' Advisory Committee, a blue-ribbon representative community group in a session at the Central Library.

All meetings have been chaired by Kenneth Koppin, 1271 S. Renaud, Detroit insurance executive and former mayor of Grosse Pointe Woods.

The committee, formed early in the summer at the request of the Board of Education, was charged with the responsibility to determine the need and location of a second senior high school to serve the Grosse Pointe community.

In his concluding remarks, Chairman Koppin thanked the members of the committee for their participation in the work of the past months.

The membership of the Citizens' Advisory Committee included school-minded people from throughout the district. They are William M. Adams, 305 Lake Shore, J. Dunton Barlow, 1256 Beaconsfield, J. Addison Bartush, 287 Lake Shore, Peter Brett, 1220 Whittier, Roy R. Broman, 20400 Lennon, and Thomas Chandler, 51 N. Duval, Mrs. William J. Champion, 40 Edgemere, G. The Constitution further states, "Because we are formed to protect the lives and properties of communities in case of fire and other serious hazards, we shall not strike, nor shall we take an active part in strikes."

Hunt said, "With these objectives as our background, and because of the city officials' continuous refusal to recognize us, and their discrimination against us, we are left with one recourse—to file for mediation with the State."

Under Section 7 of Act 336 of the Public Acts of 1947, Hunt pointed out, the State has the right to mediate matters in disagreement if requested by the majority of the public employees involved.

Parcells, GPHS Swamped

(Continued from Page 1) on Thursday; we began the 1963-64 year with 2519. The increase of 146 students over the first day of last year represents an addition to the school's population of 5.58 per cent," Gerich added.

"It is a great credit to our fine student body and to our most capable staff that, in spite of our crowded conditions and the miserably hot weather, we had a smooth opening day. Everyone cooperated to the fullest to make things go well under trying circumstances," he said.

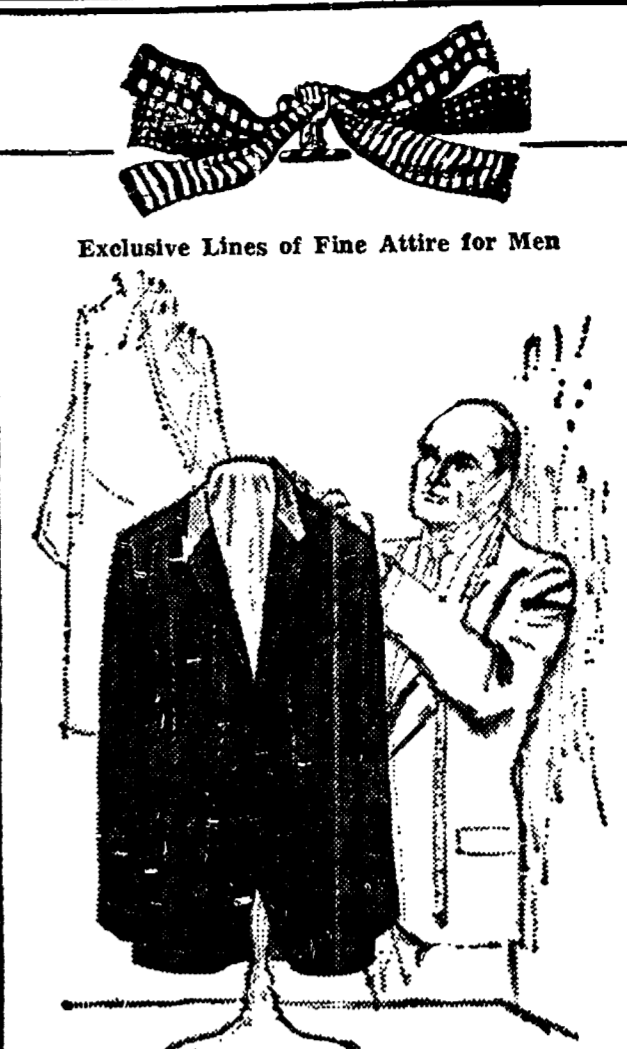

"During the last year our utilization of classrooms and teaching stations approached the 97 per cent mark. This year we are beyond the 99 per cent level with only three classrooms unused a total of three hours per day," the principal concluded.

Commenting on the conditions at Parcells Junior High School, Principal Vincent L. Peterson said that he and his staff expected an enrollment of more than 1,000 on September 9, the day before classes reconvened.

"On September 10 we had

983, on September 11 a total of 998, and on Monday we reached the one-thousand mark," Peterson said. "This gives us approximately 150 more students than the building was originally designed to hold. We are now scheduled beyond the maximum capacity of Parcells. We have virtually no vacant classrooms that can be utilized, schedule-

Police said that skid marks from the point of impact to where Setili's car came to a stop, measured 25 feet. Other evidence, it was said, indicated that Setili was not at fault.

After making a statement at the police station, Setili was released without charge.

Owner-Dog Obedience Class To Start on September 29

Classes in Owner-Dog Obedience Training will be offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, beginning on Tuesday, September 29.

On this date, owners, without their dogs, will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the gym at Grosse Pointe High School for an introductory presentation of the work to be done in this series, and instructions for enrollment in the course.

Instructors for the training programs are members of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club, and have all had the experience of training their own dogs, and continue as a hobby. This program was established 16 years ago as a service to the residents of the Grosse Pointe School District, and was the first of its kind to be offered as an Adult Education Course.

Since that time, similar classes have been established in Pontiac, Berkley, East Detroit, Ferndale, Bloomfield Hills, Mt. Clemens, Rochester, Royal Oak, Warren, Waterford and Walled Lake.

The course is based on exercises approved by the American Kennel Club, and the degree of success attained in the training of a dog depends entirely on the owner's interest and willingness to follow instructions. With this in mind, only those individuals who are seriously interested in following through with 10 weeks of required daily practice and class work should enroll.

During the course of instruction,

Yoga Classes Being Offered

Beginning Wednesday evening, October 7, a new series of Yoga classes will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. George Johnston, Jr. who received his training from the Self-Realization Fellowship, will be the instructor.

Yoga is a science, not a religion, and enables one to relax the tensions of body and mind. Exercises and techniques will be presented which can be practiced at home for greater health and well-being.

The classes are open to men, women, and children of all ages. A wide selection of exercises is presented so that, if a student is not able to do some of them, there are others he can do right from the start.

There will be 10 weekly sessions in the series offered at the War Memorial. Loose casual clothing should be worn, and an old blanket or exercise mat brought to class. Those wishing to enroll should call the War Memorial, TU 1-7511.

Problems are created by the man who fails to plan his work.

desire to prevent party unity in the district."

Durant contended the State Central Committee has no authority to rescind the district convention's actions.

The donnybrook added fuel to a long-standing dispute between the ultra-conservative Durant and his followers and Republicans of more moderate persuasion who look upon him as a maverick out of step with the rest of the party.

In Control Since 1956

Durant, one-time member of the John Birch Society and antagonist of Gov. George Romney, has held virtual control of the 14th District party organization since he was named vice-chairman in 1956. He became chairman two years ago following the resignation of Stanley J. Baldwin, Detroit DPW official and a long-time Durant crony.

Matheus, Parke-Davis & Co. employment director and a strong Romney supporter, was named this year to head the Republican Citizens. It is the successor to the Committee of 109-Plus, which made an earlier unsuccessful effort to strip Durant of his powers.

The final count was Durant 133, Matheus 121.

Committees Named

Durant, in full command, appointed members of various committees to handle the business of the convention.

One committee named to select the 150 delegates and alternates to the Republican State convention virtually excluded the Republican Citizens from the list. A fight was averted when the Duranters agreed to give their opponents 15 of the 75 delegate spots and about 20 of the alternate positions.

Battling broke out anew with disclosure of recommendation by the Rules and Order of Business Committee. It proposed, contrary to the proposed agenda, that the district chairman be chosen simultaneously with other district officers and executive board members on a single vote on whether to accept the committee report.

It also recommended bans against floor amendments and roll-call votes on business of the convention still to be taken up.

Citizens Score Victory

Many of the delegates had by that time gone home. Republican Citizens decided to test their strength again by calling for a vote on the floor amendment ban. They succeeded in knocking it out, 98-95.

The anti-Duranters first proposed a second vote on the method for selecting the district chairman, then withdrew the demand.

Then the Duranters called for a vote on the full report. Durant refused demands for a roll-call and ruled that the voice vote had carried.

Amid angry shouts that erupted from every corner, another Duranter called for adjournment of the convention. Again Durant turned aside demands for a roll-call and gavelled the session to a close.

Waldron Gives Views

"In my opinion it was not a valid election," said State Rep. Robert E. Waldron, Wayne County GOP chairman and a delegate to the district convention.

"Roberts' Rules of Order clearly require a division on a vote if a member of the body demands it," Waldron said.

Said Durant: "This convention operated completely in accordance with the rules and it was legal in every way. The other side merely succeeded in outsmarting themselves."

A tabulation of the roll-call vote for Convention Chairman, (not District Chairman), showed that only four cast their votes for Durant. Two delegates passed the vote, Emerson and Congdon of the Farms. Two others, Bernard and Brubaker of the Woods were not present.

Voting for Matheus were McBride, Waldron, Hoffman and Brookes of the City; Walsh, Herdegen, Brucker, Teetzel and Bashara of the Farms; Thorburn, Bashara, Bagwell, O'Keefe and Kurtz of the Park; Lundy and Dahling of the Township; Chandler, Matheus, Zinn, Huetteman, Saviano, Brown, Koppin and Osterlund of the Woods.

Voting for Durant were Mestterhazy and Young of the Park; Wilson and Cross of the Woods.

DRILL STOLEN

Cole Robertson, an employe of the Fisher-Record Motor Sales bump-shop in Kercheval avenue, complained to Park police on Tuesday, September 8, that someone stole his air drill, valued at $150.

Staebler Names Pointe Chairmen

Mrs. Helen Graves of Buckingham road and George Crane of Moroland drive have been named co-chairmen of the recently-formed East Side Steering Committee for Neil Staebler's Democratic campaign for governor of Michigan.

Both have been active in Democratic politics in the area for some time. Mrs. Graves is married to Dr. James H. Graves and has three children. Crane, a Grosse Pointe building contractor, is married and also has three children.

Among the more than 40 committee members are Paul Donahue, in charge of finance; Mrs. Kenneth F. Eckhart, speakers' bureau; Allen Marshall, volunteers, and Mrs. Daniel Matthews, publicity.

The group is currently involved in planning a series of issues meetings in the area. Qualified speakers are available on a number of topics such as education, mental health, conservation, civil rights, senior citizens, labor, agriculture, reapportionment and urban problems.

Staebler made a commitment early in his campaign to have some 10,000 meetings of this sort throughout the state.

Other projects the east side group is concerned with include a volunteer program and voter identification project.

Reckless Driver Awaits Sentence

David W. Gillette, 22, of 1100 Newport, Detroit, pled guilty to reckless driving and causing an accident, and voluntarily surrendered his operator's license, following a hearing held before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Thursday, September 10.

Gillette led Detroit and Park police in an 80-mile-an-hour chase through Detroit and Park streets, which ended when his car crashed into another vehicle at Charlevoix and Wayburn.

Testifying against the motorist was Detroit Motorcycle Officer Edward Quinn, who took part in the chase, and witnessed the accident in the Park.

Judge Belanger released Gillette on bond of $100, and referred the matter to the Wayne County Probation Department for a pre-sentence investigation.

Police said that Gillette, who had been drinking, crashed into a car driven by Edward M. Gessler of 2620 Lakewood, Detroit.

Park Police Sgt. Charles French, while on patrol, heard a report from Detroit authorities, over a police monitor, that several Detroit scout cars were pursuing Gillette, from the Edsel Ford Freeway, at 80 miles an hour. The pursuers lost the driver at Lenox and Mack.

At Lenox and Kercheval, Quinn spotted Gillette, and gave chase. The pursuit led to Audubon, north on Audubon to Mack, west on Mack to Wayburn, and south on Wayburn to Charlevoix, where the accident occurred.

Taking part in the chase on Park streets, besides Quinn and French, were Park Patrolmen Charles Petrie, Rodney Wedding and Robert Saiford.

Since the accident took place in the Park, authorities of that community assumed jurisdiction in the matter, arrested Gillette and brought him to trial before Judge Belanger, with Quinn as the complaining witness.

Gessler, the driver of the car that was hit, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police, for treatment of slight injuries, resulting from the accident.

Promises are small outlays intended to pay large returns.

Get Extra Time For Registration

At its regular meeting Monday night, September 14, the Grosse Pointe Woods City Council voted to extend the hours of registration for the General November Election.

The decision was made because of the heavy increase in eligible voters in the Woods area. The City offices will be open for registration September 28, 29 and 30 and October 1, 2 and 5 from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Residents may also register Saturday, October 3, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

In other business, the Council issued a permit to the Grosse Pointe Lodge No. 102 Fraternal Order of Police to solicit funds for its widows and orphans fund. They also gave permission to the Kiwanis Club to hold its annual peanut sale on Saturday, September 26.

In addition five proposed ordinances were given the okay by the Council. They concerned the licensing and regulation of vendors, peddlers, hawkers, hucksters and house-to-house solicitors and canvassers; regulating the disposal, storage, collection and hauling, transporting or handling of garbage and food wastes, rubbish and refuse; and provision for and requirements to protect against the overflow of floodwaters due to the rising level of waters in the Milk River, the Girard Drain and other open water courses.

The fourth ordinance repealed ordinance No. 175 which required voter approval of the building a new municipal building, court facilities or public safety department. The final ordinance established a uniform procedure for the purchasing of all equipment, material, supplies for the Woods.

The council heard a resolution on the installation of sidewalks on Vernier Circle and Cook road and voted to hold a public hearing on the issue at its next meeting Monday night, September 21.

Child Guidance Clinic Asks Funds to Begin Operation

Two representatives of the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, appealed to the Farms council on Monday, September 14, for financial assistance, to enable the clinic to open its doors this month.

Personally petitioning the council were Courtney B. Rankin of 354 Ridge road, an attorney; and Dr. Calier H. Worrell of 1038 Audubon, a pediatrician. They asked for $1,000, the minimum sum needed as the Farms' share, they said.

The attorney and doctor informed the council that they will petition for financial aid from the Park, City Woods, Harper Woods and Detroit. The $1,000 has already contributed $1,000 toward the opening of the clinic, the Farms council was informed.

All the council members favored making a contribution, but several expressed concern that giving of the money might set a precedent, whereby other worthy causes, too, would appeal for financial assistance.

City Attorney George McKean told the council that in 1944, the Michigan legislature passed an act committing county and local governments to contribute to child guidance clinics, if the clinics have been established by State authority.

Attorney Rankin and Dr. Worrell told the council that the clinic initially intended to serve only the Pointes and Harper Woods, but in order to qualify for funds from the State Health Department, it was necessary to include the entire northeastern section of Wayne County.

This section includes part of Detroit, they said, which roughly comprises two-thirds of the area to be serviced by the clinic. The Detroit Common Council will be approached for financial help, but in what amount, will have to be determined.

The petitioners told the Farms council that the clinic, which will serve emotionally disturbed, delinquent and mentally retarded children, needs a minimum of $10,000, before it can begin operating. It is hoped that not only will the funds come from local government, but also from private sources.

They said that although the Farms fiscal year budget has already been set, it is hoped that $1,000 can be donated to the clinic by the city, and in next year's budget, provisions provided for another contribution.

The attorney and doctor said that the clinic needs help to open its doors, but once it becomes firmly established, it will receive assistance from the State Government. The need for a child guidance clinic is extremely critical, they added.

There are two other child guidance clinics in Wayne County, the council was informed.

The council members, although favoring the clinic, decided to study the matter further, and to render a decision at its October 5 meeting.

The clinic will be located at 18424 Mack avenue, in a building donated by Dr. Rosemary Dykema of 294 Touraine, a psychiatrist.

For the past several years, interest in the establishment of a child guidance clinic in the area has been mounting. Studies were conducted to assess the need for services for emotionally disturbed delinquent and mentally retarded children.

One such study was conducted by a social worker employed by the Board of Directors of the Neighborhood Club.

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters studied available facilities and services, and recognized the necessity for the establishment of a "publicly supported eastside child guidance clinic. The Junior League of Detroit, Tau Beta and the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women also studied the problem.

Other groups have studied the matter, and it becomes obvious that there is a great void in services and a great need for such services for emotionally disturbed children.

A public meeting held in February 1963, sponsored by the Mental Health Committee of the Junior League and the League of Women Voters, brought out impressive testimony from police, clergy and from members of the medical and teaching professions, supporting the need of a clinic for Northeastern Wayne County.

At a second public hearing held this spring, Dr. Ralph Rabinovich of Hawthorne Center, described in detail the various services the clinic will provide.

He pointed out that the clinic might provide diagnostic evaluation for children with learning difficulties, children unable to adjust to school or home, children with neurological impairment, and children who are mentally retarded. After evaluation of a case, an appropriate recommendation will be made by a psychiatric team.

The clinic will aid and cooperate fully with school personnel, physicians, police officials and other pertinent professional people.

The clinic will charge fees on a sliding scale, graduated ac-ording to income. Income derived from fees will provide only part of the total budget. The remainder of the budget must be supplied by local communities and the State of Michigan.

Child guidance clinics are established and operated on a partnership arrangement between the local communities and the Michigan Department of Mental Health. The letter has promised to request funds for the new clinic for the State in their next budget.

In the meantime, the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic lacks $10,000 of its first year's budget, and therefore is petitioning local government and private sources for financial assistance so that it can open its doors this month.

It was pointed out that child guidance clinics are the government's first line of defense against human and financial losses from serious mental illness. Expenditures in Michigan for last year, for mental health, totaled 81 million dollars, the second largest appropriation from the general fund.

Social Security Advice Offered

Faulty notification of change of address by social security beneficiaries can cause considerable delay in receipt of monthly checks, Francis L. Pendergast, social security district manager of the Detroit-East office, pointed out today.

The change of address process is quite simple if the person getting social security benefits will use the cards given him when an initial claim is filed. These can be obtained from any of the more than 600 social security district offices in the country.

"The person wishing to change his address should give his or her name, the new address and the claim number," Pendergast said. The latter is always found on the award letter which is furnished every person when his claim for social security benefits is approved.

"In each case the post office should also be notified," Pendergast added.

A coward's life is never dull—he encounters many dangers that don't even exist.

Institute Has Films on Art

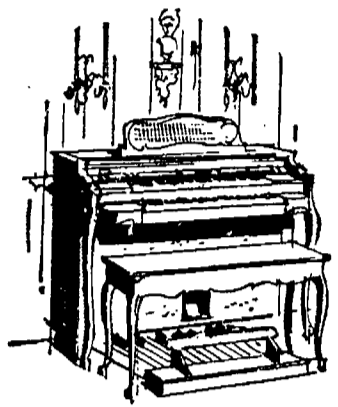

Ten programs of short films with a connecting theme constitute "The Detroit Institute of Arts 'Films On Art' series for 1964-65.

The first program, to be shown September 22, is titled "Photographers and Filmmakers." The films will be an introduction to artists of the still and moving picture—Steichen, Cocteau, Severini and others.

The films are shown in the museum's lecture hall at 8 p.m. Programs are open to the public without charge.

Inaugurated last year, the "Films On Art" series attracted near-capacity audiences. This response, plus the increasing availability of fine quality films on art, encourage continuation of the series, according to Mrs. Nita Schwartz, of the Education Department, The Detroit Institute of Arts.

GADGET OR ORGAN?

There are many makes of Electronic Home Organs and as many conflicting claims as to their superiority... but this much we can tell you about Baldwin... the very first characteristic of the Baldwin Organ is its tone... Listen to the Baldwin Organ... The tone has body and substance; the bass has depth and the total effect is stereophonic.

Then comes variety of tone. The String Family, the Woodwind Section, the Brasses and the Percussion, built around the first of all pipe organ sounds... the Diapason. These tonal qualities of Baldwin instruments are respected the world over.

When you buy a Baldwin Organ it is not a gadget or sound-effects instrument, but a superb ensemble of voices that is built to interpret fine music and will most surely please you for many years to come.

Baldwin Organs are priced from $1,050 to $22,000. Needless to say, the style and finish of Baldwin Organs is without equal for Baldwin makes the entire instrument, both case and tone-producing components and, BALDWIN ORGANS ARE GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Little Football Players Start Candy Sale Sept. 19

Little football players in assorted sizes will begin ringing doorbells Saturday, September 19, to open their campaign for funds to make the 1964 season possible for the All American Football Leaguers.

This is the ninth season for little football in communities in the Detroit area. The league's 6-game schedule will get underway Friday, September 25, with 17 communities represented in the All American Football Leaguers.

Membership in the league is by franchise, but a member organization may field more than one "unit" of three teams, consisting of "Freshmen," "Junior Varsity" and "Varsity" to even the competition both by age and weight.

Since the beginning of the league, all funds for equipment, insurance and other expenses have been raised by a candy sale during the last two weeks of September. All American League Commissioner Joseph G. Gembis said that it costs about $70 per boy to provide the kind of equipment required by league rules.

"Starting with the premise that boys will play football anyway, anyhow and anywhere, the All American Football Leaguers' purpose is to provide a healthy, sane and supervised opportunity for the average 9 to 12 year old boy to participate and to direct his activity to proper playing fields, with the best protective equipment and with competent instruction," said Gembis.

Adequate adult supervision and coaching, assured by the league's franchising system, and facilities for practice and most games are donated by the individuals and communities. Each group, or member, has two representatives on the league's board of directors, which sets policy and regulates the league's operations.

Recognizing the criticism often leveled at other organized sports activities for boys of this age that benefits of such a program are outweighed by mental pressures caused by the need to win, the league has no championships, no playoffs, no individual player awards and does not even maintain won and lost records or standings, Gembis said.

"We haven't de-emphasized playing to win," Gembis said, "but have attempted to remove some of the glamor that fosters the 'win at any cost' attitude." He says that the league has accomplished a major objective when the half that loses, as half must in each game, is proud of the game they played and the way they played it.

Each member organization is dependent on the candy-selling ability of its own members for support. The annual Sanders candy sale thus is the most important economic element in the plans of each group. None of the league's members has finances for all the equipment needed to outfit each boy without a successful fund-raising candy sale.

Playing equipment is the best obtainable, including helmet with chin guard and face mask, shoulder pads, jersey, practice and game pants with requisite hip and thigh pads, hose and parkas. Mouthpieces are optional.

Game conditions are those recommended for junior high schools under the rules of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations, with members of the Michigan High School Athletic Association officiating.

A team must have at least 25 players in uniform for a game, but the average is well above 35. Each boy must play a minimum of four consecutive plays in each half and also must sit out the same number, requirements which, along with the large teams, help to minimize both physical and mental pressures on the boys, Gembis says.

Farms Council Approves Bills

Payments of bills totaling $50,265, was authorized by the Farms council at its regular meeting held on Monday, September 14. The payments are for work done on city projects to date.

A partial payment of $2,456.47 will be given to the Maryland Electric Company for electrical work done on the Municipal Building, 80 Kerby road.

William T. Kreighoff company will receive a payment of $20,135.66, for architectural construction (alterations and additions), to the Municipal Building.

With the 1964 asphalt paving program completed, the Detroit Asphalt Paving company will get $21,816.44, for the paving of city streets.

A total of $6,358.58, will go to the DeMeulenaere Construction company for curb, catch basins and sidewalk repairs and replacements.

On recommendation of City Manager Sidney DeBoer, the council approved expenditure of an additional $1,500, from the Public Improvement Fund, for repairs to city-owned sidewalks, in conjunction with these sidewalks abutting those repaired under the special assessment program.

Advice Offered On Investments

Under the auspices of the Investment Bankers Association, a series of lectures is to be presented in the Fries Auditorium free of charge by the leading members of stock and brokerage firms of Detroit.

While the admission is free, in order to regulate the size of the crowd, all Grosse Pointes interested in attending are asked to pick up free tickets at the Center in advance, if possible.

This series is to be known as "Your Guide to Wise Investing". The lectures will be held during October on the evenings of Thursday, the first; Monday, the fifth; Monday, the twelfth; Thursday, the fifteenth; Tuesday, the twentieth; and Thursday, the twenty-ninth; all at 8 o'clock.

Charles A. Parcels Jr. will lead off with the subject "Getting Acquainted with Stocks and Bonds". The second week Paul A. Richmond will speak on the subject "What a Broker Can Do For You". "Keeping Abreast of the Market" is the subject of the third week's lecture. This topic includes an explanation of the reading and interpreting of the financial pages. George A. Nicholson, Jr. is the speaker. The last three lectures are on "Mutual Funds", "Trading Techniques", and "Planning Your Portfolio". The speakers will be Harry A. McDonald, Peter Viviano, and Paul P. Chester.

Each speaker has been selected on the basis of his own extensive experience in the area of his own specific subject. Free investment publications will be given out to all who attend these lectures, and following each talk there will be a question and answer period.

New Wicking Library to Open at Grosse Pointe High

 president; Dr. Robert K. Whiteley, vice-president; Mrs. Ruth H. Goebel, secretary; Edward J. Pongracz, treasurer; Franklyn D. Dougherty, trustee; C. Henry Haberkorn, 3rd trustee; and Mrs. Alice Mary Hykes, trustee.
 Members of the 1963-64 Board participating were Dr. Frank H. Parcels and Russell H. Peebles.
 Of the schools' administration, Dr. Charles H. Wilson, superintendent, and Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier and J. Harold Husband, assistant superintendents, offered many valuable suggestions during the planning and construction of the building.
 Robert Welch, library coordinator and Mrs. Vera Milar, associate librarian, also worked with Ronald Buehler, curriculum assistant in the Department of Instruction. All these, and many more, including department heads, teachers and students who were pooled for ideas, contributed generously, working within the guidelines initially laid down by Principal Gerich.
Three Buildings Joined
 The octagonal red brick structure is located adjacent to the parking lot between the main building and the annex. The Wicking Library is joined to these by a wide covered passageway.
 The shape of the eight-sided exterior is carried out in the interior design as well. The center of the main reading room is lighted by eight clerestory windows and eight circular white fixtures suspended from the ceiling of the cupola. Two modern clocks are set into the wood-paneled walls.
 An octagonal display case rests on an eight-sided olive green carpet and is encircled by neutral-beige plastic-covered chairs.
 The main reading room itself is furnished with individual study carrels, as well as longer tables for four, six, or eight students. The tops are a simulated oil walnut finish. Modernistic chairs drawn up to the tables are coral, with light gray backs.
 The 12 individual carrels are electronically-controlled; provision has been made to add more of the individual desks if necessary.
Many Other Facilities
 Opening off the central reading room are reference rooms, offices, storage and utility facilities. The majority of these are glass-enclosed to permit full view of the central room. Folding doors opening onto the main room may be opened to create two classrooms for teaching library skills.
 Also around the perimeter of the central area are study rooms for small group work, a professional library for the faculty, and a preview room for films.
 In the specially-equipped workroom many kinds of new instructional media may be produced. These include the preparation and copying of transparencies for use with the overhead projector.
 The stacks housing the book collection are located around the perimeter as well as in some of the auxiliary rooms. Lighting of the inner portion of the reading area is provided by recessed indirect fixtures.
 The entire library may be viewed from the charging desk.
Four on Staff
 The professional staff of the Bert Harrison Wicking Library will number four. They include Robert Welch, coordinator; William Hoover, instructional specialist; Mrs. Vera Milar and Miss Frances Natushko, associate librarians.
 Coordinator Robert Welch is a former English teacher at Grosse Pointe High School. During recent summers he has served as a Master Teacher in the Harvard-Newton teacher training program.

 Welch, a native of Chicago, received his BA from Dartmouth in English and comparative literature and his MA in English language and literature from the University of Chicago. In addition, he has done much graduate work at Wayne State University. He holds membership in Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Kappa. He came to the local school system as an English and social studies teacher at Pierce Junior High School. Prior to that he taught at St. Paul's School in Garden City, New York. He is a veteran of naval service in the Far East.
 The Welch and their two young sons reside in St. Clair Shores.
 Working in the newly-created position of instructional specialist at the Wicking Library will be William Hoover, a member of the school's staff here since 1954, serving on the upper grade cycle at Richard.
 A native of Portsmouth, Ohio, Hoover is a graduate of Ohio State University with majors in physics and chemistry. In addition to his master's degree from Miami University, he has done additional graduate work at Michigan State University.
 Hoover's varied background includes a year of teaching in England, employment for General Electric as a methods and equipment planner, an interest in photography, and experience at both elementary and secondary level. He will assist teachers at the high school in the production of instructional aids.

 The Hoovers and their family reside in Grosse Pointe Woods.
 The professional staff of the Wicking Library will be completed by Mrs. Vera Milar and Miss Frances Natushko, associate librarians.
 Mrs. Milar, a native of Indiana, has been on the staff of the Grosse Pointe schools since 1945. She holds an AB degree from Ball State College and an MA in history from the University of Iowa. She has continued her education in library science at the University of Michigan and Wayne State. The Milars and their family are residents of St. Clair Shores.
 Miss Frances Natushko, a newcomer to the staff and a resident of Detroit, is a native of the metropolitan area. A member of the Women's City Club of Detroit, Miss Natushko also claims membership in the American Library Association, M.A.S.L. and D.F.T. Quite naturally enough, her hobby is reading.
 A graduate of Chadsey High School in Detroit, Miss Natushko received her BS from Wayne State University, with majors in library science and social science and minors in English and science.
 She received her master's degree in library science from the University of Michigan. Most recently she has been the librarian at Western High School in Detroit. Previous experience in Cass Technical High School, the Fairbanks and Mann Elementary School. Recent summers have found her on the staff of the Detroit Public Library.

 Mrs. Frances Renaud and Mrs. Gertrude Veenendaal have been assigned to clerical duties at the library.
 The decision to construct the new library on the campus of Grosse Pointe High School was reached by the Board of Education during 1962-63 and bids were awarded May 10. Ground was broken the following month.
 The old High School Library, designed and incorporated into the building when it was opened in 1928, became inadequate over the years with the increase in the student population, a changed approach to instruction in many areas, as well as an enlarged collection of books and the growing trend toward other types of instructional materials.
 "With an anticipated enrollment of some 3300 students at Grosse Pointe High School by 1970, the old quarters would have been capable of serving not more than a third of our students adequately," said Principal Jerry J. Gerich recently.
 "If the number of our poised student body is halved with the construction of a second high school, our old library would still have been inadequate," the principal continued. "It was constructed for a student body of 1200 and if Grosse Pointe High School is to meet the needs of 1750 students (half the ultimately anticipated total local public high school population) it would still have been too small. Its location, the structure and plan of the building just would not permit any expansion of the old library."

Space Redesigned
 Gerich added that the space in the main building formerly occupied by the school's library has been redesigned to serve four new functions. The bookstore is now located in the old stock room. This provides maximum accessibility by all students.
 The workroom of the library will now become the center for the Student Association, while the main room has become a work-study-center for members of the senior class. The large room will be used for meetings of groups up to 75.
 "With room utilization approaching 100% at Grosse Pointe High School, we use every inch," Gerich said.
 The new library at Grosse Pointe High School has been named for Bert Harrison Wicking, a longtime member of the Board of Education. Wicking, first elected to office in 1943, served until his death in 1962. During his 19 years he spent seven years as President and five as Treasurer.

 It is the hope of Principal Gerich, the high school's instructional staff, and the librarians that the program of the Wicking Library will reflect the philosophy of the school and enrich all parts of its educational program.
 It is the consensus of the professional staff that the library program should offer for the individual student valuable experiences and instruction that begin in kindergarten and expand in breadth and depth through the secondary school.
Another Goal Cited
 Another goal in the use of the Wicking Library at Grosse Pointe High School includes instruction, service, and activity throughout the building, rather than simply within its own walls. It is hoped to enrich all phases of the school program by means of library materials and services.

Teachers Serve During Vacation

Three members of the professional staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System have reported summertime activities in fields of education allied to their local school year responsibilities. They are Miss Ruth Curtis and Daniel Doheny of the Department of Pupil Personnel, and Dr. Stanley Cook of Grosse Pointe High School.

Miss Curtis and Mr. Doheny served on the staff of the University of Michigan's Speech Improvement Camp at Northport Mich. Miss Curtis, chairman of the system's speech correctionists whose responsibilities include teaching classes at Ferry and the High School, served as internship coordinator at the camp. She supervised graduate students who worked as assistants to the major speech therapists. In addition, the local educator conducted demonstration classes and counseled these students.

Mr. Doheny, who this year will conduct classes at Parcels, Poupard and Brownell, served as one of the six major speech therapists on duty at the camp. Under his guidance at the camp, unofficially called "Shady Trails," were 17 students in his cabin.

Dr. Stanley Cook, chairman of the English department at Grosse Pointe High School, was called upon again for professional services by Wayne State University. On the part-time faculty there since 1945, Dr. Cook's assignment this past summer was to conduct a course in freshman composition.

Straight Party Ticket Ballot Still in Effect

It will be polling as usual on November 3, and residents will still be able to vote a straight party slate by flipping one lever.

Use of the present Michigan ballot, which provides for straight party voting, was assured when the state board of canvassers certified enough referendum signatures to put the so-called "Massachusetts ballot" (official block ballot) to a vote of the people in the November election. More than enough signatures were filed, with 139,000 necessary to place the proposal on the ballot.

Local elections' officials, meanwhile, came in for plaudits from Secretary of State James M. Hare, the state's chief elections' officer.

Hare complimented local elections' workers for what he described as a "tremendous job" in the face of "one of the toughest and most complicated elections in Michigan's history." He said he was amazed at the relative lack of complaints received by the state elections' division on the primary.

Hare noted that many local elections' officials reported long lines after official closing of the polls. "We had some reports that some persons, faced with long waits after the polls had officially closed, became discouraged and went home without voting," Hare said. He blamed the "telescoping" of the Spring and Fall elections on one ballot as the reason.

The Secretary of State said he was "greatly encouraged" by the "record turnouts" reported in many areas. "I can't remember a primary election in which so much interest was focused on the candidates and the issues," Hare stated. He said the primary could turn out to be the biggest in the state's history.

Pointe Chorus Now Forming

Next Tuesday evening, September 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the Vocal Room at Parcels Junior High School, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will begin rehearsing for its 12th annual Christmas Concert.

The first of the group's weekly rehearsals will be an organizational meeting and Grosse Pointers and residents of nearby communities who enjoy singing are urged to attend.

Anyone over high school age is welcome and there are no auditions.

Director of the Chorus since 1957, Dr. Donald Simmons is vocal instructor at Parcels Junior High School, director of music at Covenant Baptist Church, and founder of the Grosse Pointe Summer Chorus and Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers.

Jerry Hughes, accompanist for the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus and Chamber Singers is starting his third season as accompanist for the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus.

Included in the program will be selections from oratorio, traditional and contemporary Christmas music with some few lighter holiday songs.

HS Library

The library's staff hopes to reach every boy and girl within the school according to his individual needs. The variety of its collections and instructional materials should provide for the many kinds of interest that its users have.

The high school's staff envisions the Wicking Library as a laboratory for research and study when students learn to work alone and in groups under the guidance of librarians and teachers. And the staff regards the library's program as one facet of an overall guidance program by making contributions through its teaching, materials and services to the personnel, social and vocational guidance of students.

It is hoped that the Wicking Library's experiences may serve as steppingstones to the use of other library resources in the community and to the formation of a lifetime habit of library usage, as well as pride in the ownership of books.

Grosse Pointe now has a library for its high school that is as functional as it is attractive, one that has been conceived with an eye to the future needs of a changed curriculum and improved instructional media.

ALSAC Drive Nets $110,000

Mrs. Charles Dawood of 1064 Berkshire road is more than just a pointer of interest—she's a pointer of action.

Last weekend she organized and conducted for ALSAC, (Aiding Luekemia Stricken American Children), its annual Teen March which raised approximately $110,000 for St. Jude Research Hospital. Mrs. Dawood and her corps of 15,000 teenagers topped last year's total of $40,000 by $70,000.

Pointers in the Park, Woods,

Farms and City contributed $3,500 this year. There was no solicitation in the Shores, however, because the organization was unable to obtain a permit there.

In addition to her work for ALSAC, which was founded by Comedian Danny Thomas, Mrs. Dawood is first vice-president of the Bon Secours Women's Guild and a member of the Board of Directors of the Maryglade College Guild and the Mayor's Committee "To Keep Detroit Beautiful."

How long since you've cooked tender, juicy lamb?

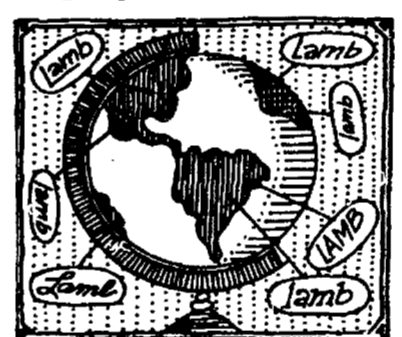

It's plentiful now, and it's young, tender, with the succulent flavor of spring lamb. Any cut you buy...leg, chops, steak, or stew...will give you your money's worth in nourishing, good red meat.
Get three meals from a leg of lamb

- 1 Have lamb steaks cut from sirloin end for a tender steak dinner.
- 2 Divide the rest of the leg in half. Use meat cubes from shank for stew, curry or shish-kebab.
- 3 Save plump center section for your Sunday roast.

Answer to Autumn appetites: Juicy, succulent rack of Autumn Harvest Lamb, roasted to a golden-brown turn and served with fluffy cheese-stuffed baked potatoes. Try it soon.

Lamb speaks many languages. From Swedish

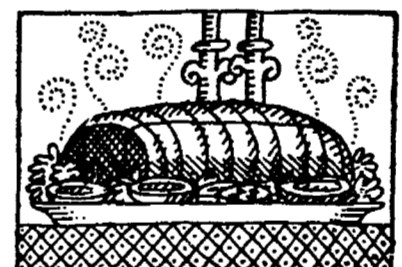

Lamb Shanks to Hungarian Goulash, Mexican Lamb to Lamb Blintzes you can prepare lamb in hundreds of new ways. Write for recipes.*

Lamb is extremely friendly with every vegetable under the sun...fresh, frozen, canned. With fruits, too: canned pineapple, cling peaches, apricots, grapes, cranberries, oranges. Be adventurous! Try something new. Remember: lamb is the meat that always makes the cool: look good!

Dad will appreciate a roast with no carving. Ask your meat man about pre-carved lamb shoulder roast. Serve with golden baked squash and luscious, red-ripe tomato slices for a big hearty Autumn Harvest feast.

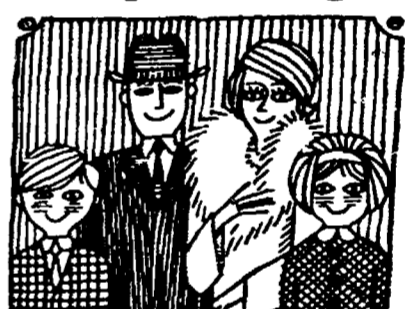

Baked Apples love lamb. Crisp tangy apples, stuffed with raisins and glazed with cinnamon and sugar—the perfect light, tasty companion for roast Autumn Harvest Lamb.

Hot Lamb-doggers Shape ground lamb into long, narrow patties, pan-fry crisp brown, and serve on hot dog buns. Spice with India relish, hot mustard, catsup. Watch the kids gobble 'em up!

Tonight's the night!

Eat out! It's fun, and the whole family (especially mother) will enjoy it. Suggestion: With young Autumn Harvest Lamb now in season, order the lamb specialty of the house. A perfect selection for a perfect evening!

Don't be baffled about cooking lamb. It's as easy to cook as any other red meat. You can roast lamb, braise or broil it, stew, pan-fry or barbecue it. If you can cook meat you can cook lamb. Try it!

RESEARCH IN ACTION
C. Austin Barker (right), director of Hornblower & Weeks' 24-man Research Department, discusses power technology with Walter S. McCormick, superintendent of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company's Eastlake Power Plant.

Institutional investors know—as do individual investors—that the value of any investment analysis is directly dependent on the background knowledge and exposure to current developments of the people who prepare it. That is why the authorship of Hornblower & Week's reports is clearly labeled.
Our recent utility stock analysis, "A Different World of Utility Stocks", was written by C. Austin Barker, partner in charge of research. Mr. Barker has had 28 years of utility financial experience; has been a frequent university lecturer on the subject; has written feature articles for Harvard Business Review, Barron's and other financial publications; and often has appeared as an expert witness before regulatory commissions and probate courts.
Yet in appraising the current earnings prospects of more than 200 electric, gas and telephone utilities, Mr. Barker did not rely on his established reputation. Instead, he went out into the field, talked with industry leaders, investigated individual company developments on the scene.
Result: A report pinpointing 33 prime utility stocks, recommended for potential growth and current income, to meet your various investment needs.

Republicans Pay Waldron Honor

At the Wayne County Republican Committee Convention, September 10, Pointe Representative Robert E. Waldron, House Majority Floor Leader was picked to be the top Republican in Wayne County, by acclamation.

The County Committee is comprised of all the Republican nominees throughout Wayne County, as determined by the September 1 Primary. In his acceptance speech, Chairman Waldron challenged each candidate to a do-or-die battle at cracking the Democratic stranglehold on Wayne County.

Further action was taken in electing Irwin H. Burdick, former 15th District Chairman to the newly created post of executive vice-chairman; Mrs. Charles Dean, Mrs. Leo VanDerziel,

To Show Slides At Camera Club

Grosse Pointe Camera Club has planned a special slide program for September 22. Each member has been invited to submit one slide most descriptive of his or her summer activities including a short commentary.

In addition, a Kodak recorded instructional lecture will be shown. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Coffee will be served during the social hour following the meeting. The public is invited.

The above poem, written by Frances Shaw, was the focal point around which Dr. George Walter built an inspirational and dramatic speech entitled: "Pegasus Prancing." Dr. Walter, Director of Teacher Education at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., was the featured speaker at the General Meeting of the Grosse Pointe School System on September 8 at Parcels Auditorium.

"Pegasus Prancing" followed hard on the heels of a message from the Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe School System, Dr. Charles H. Wilson. Dr. Wilson, with his ready wit, fine delivery and provocative ideas is a hard man to follow, but Dr. Walter was indeed equal to the occasion and turned out to be one of the most dynamic, dramatic and humorous speakers I have ever heard. He held his audience enthralled from beginning to end.

Before I go into details of his talk, I'd like to give you a little of his many-faceted background. He was a football player in both high school and college, but felt his highest honor was being chosen college poet laureate. His graduate work was done at Ohio State University, and his under-graduate work at Lawrence College. With tenure as a high school English teacher and coach, Dr. Walter has also held important administrative posts such as the principalship of Washington Park High School in Racine, Wisconsin, and service as Dean of Men at Lawrence College. As an interesting balance, he spends his summers with axe and hiking shoes working for the National Park Service at Glacier Park, Montana.

And so we were all made to feel the interesting combination of athlete and poetry enthusiast as we listened to Dr. Walter. We felt the powerful range of his voice — from the low, sensitive interpretation of the above-quoted poem, to the bombast (with appropriate gestures) of "Casey at the Bat." He led us down the garden path to shout out in unison that Babe Ruth was the most famous baseball player, only to have it pointed out to us that, no, it was Casey. And why? Because Casey was immortalized in a poem, and consequently will be remembered long after the names of Maris, Koufax, and even Ruth, will become somewhat dim.

He told of his experiences as an English teacher, and of his struggles to impart some appreciation of poetry in even the dullest — and sometimes it meant resorting to poor poetry as the beginning rung on the ladder to awareness. He ranged in his examples from John Donne's DEVOTIONS to Dr. Seuss, using Shakespeare's famous line from his 73d sonnet: "Bare ruin'd choirs, where late the sweet birds sang," as one of the most beautiful in imagery in the English language. He contrasted the jingler with the true genius in the art of writing poetry.

Now let us get back to the poem quoted in the opening of this column. The speaker used it as a good illustration of how much a poet can say with a few, well-chosen words. He maneuvered the audience into deducing that the author was a woman, and that she was describing the kind of man she would want to marry. Then appeared many facets of this idealized male — he would manage female foibles with equanimity, be a tower of strength — would even smoke a pipe as opposed to cigarettes. And what are the two key words in the poem? The audience knew that too — "quiet eyes."

And so to summarize. The world is in need of physicists, scientists of all kinds, social scientists, psychologists and the like. Emphasis is constantly being put on this area of education. But what of the Fine Arts? Are we adequately remembering this all-important field? But more specifically, what of poetry? This art, Dr. Walter implies, is a neglected one, often poorly taught, if at all. By all means let us encourage our English teachers to pursue this subject with courage, inspiration and understanding; if necessary, building from the poorest poetry to the greatest. And always with the hope that with exposure to it and with maturation and experience, a greater awareness and appreciation will follow.

If I had Dr. Walter to inspire me, and I think I speak for all those who listened to him, I could not help but come from a class of his with the results he is seeking to achieve. Even one morning's exposure left me with heightened interest, sensibility and enthusiasm. I think I'll go and read some poetry!

Social Worker To Give Lecture

Mrs. Ivor J. Echols of Detroit, will lecture on "Race and Church Renewal" (How the Church and Community Converge)", on Wednesday, September 23, at 8 p.m. at St. James Lutheran Church. This is the second lecture in a series of five, in a depth study group entitled, "The Christian and Race Relations," sponsored by the church's Board of Christian Education.

Mrs. Echols' dossier includes undergraduate work at the University of Kansas, A.B., 1942; University of Nebraska, Social Work, 1945-46; Columbia University, New York School of Social Work, M.S.S.W., 1952; University of Southern California, Doctoral Study in Social Work, fall of 1962.

Mrs. Echols taught social studies in high schools in Holdenville and in Geary, Calif. from 1942-45; was a case worker, Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross, 1946-47; a resident group worker at Dorothea House for Emotional Disturbed Teen-age Girls in 1950-51, and a group-work supervisor of Walnut Grove Center Neighborhood Clubs in Oklahoma City, 1948. She acted as Program Director, Y.W.C.A. Camp Lookout in Denver in the summer of 1951, and in the same capacity for the Presbyterian Neighborhood Food Services in the summer of 1960.

Mrs. Echols has been associated with the Merrill-Palmer Institute since 1951, and presently holds the title of Head of School-age Laboratory (Social Group Work) in that institution. Mrs. Echols also has been Field Instructor in Social Group Work for the University of Michigan in 1959-60, and for Wayne State University from 1958-61.

Mrs. Echols holds memberships in the Academy of Certified Social Workers, National Association of Social Work, and in the American Camping Association. Her community affiliations in Detroit are many and varied, among them being the Chairmanship of the Evaluation Committee of the Coordinating Council on Human Relations. She is the author of six published articles in various publications.

Mrs. Echols has been the recipient of many scholarships and fellowships from the years 1945-62. She was a consultant to the National Education Association Conference on Family Camping in 1959, and an observer and participant in the White House Conference on Children and Youth, 1960, both of which were held in Washington, D.C. She also served as consultant to the Scott Paper Company on an educational film in 1963.

St. James Lutheran Church cordially invites all interested Grosse Pointers to attend Mrs. Echols' lecture, and to participate in the question-answer discussion which follows.

To Make Movie Of Fall Foliage

Michigan's autumn wonders will be pictured in full color in a half-hour film to be produced this fall by the Michigan Tourist Council, it was announced today by William T. McGraw, council director.

The film is scheduled to be ready for distribution next summer, McGraw said, replacing an autumn film produced 10 years ago and shown to millions of Michigan vacation prospects in the mid-west and Canada.

The Council has three other half-hour films: "Michigan-Winter Wonderland", "Fishing Fun in Michigan", and "Michigan-Water Wonderland". Copies are available for television stations, and civic, professional, fraternal, church and school groups.

Autumn Starts September 22

Autumn will begin at 7:17 p.m. Tuesday, September 22.

The sun's apparent arrival at the autumnal equinox marks the opening of the season when the night becomes longer than day. University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh explains.

"Since June 21, the sun has been steadily moving southward, and on the day of the equinox it will cross the equator," Professor Losh says.

The sun will rise and set almost exactly at the east and west points, and the day and night will be said to be equal.

"Strictly speaking, however, this is not true," Professor Losh points out. "Due to refraction of the sun by the earth's atmosphere, the hours when the sun is actually visible on Sept. 22 will exceed the time when the sun is out of sight by nine minutes."

Equal day and night will come on Sept. 26 and, from then on, the day will steadily grow shorter.

Another astronomical highlight of the month:

Five bright planets will be visible between sunset and sunrise. Saturn, rising in the southeast around sunset, is visible the whole night through. Rising around 10 p.m., to the north of east, is bright Jupiter.

Mars and Venus rise in the early morning. On the morning of Sept. 18 seldom seen Mercury will reach its greatest angular distance from the sun and will make its appearance in the east about an hour and one-half before the sun.

Brings Message From Ethiopia

Rev. Robert P. Avers from Ethiopia, will be the speaker next Sunday for the 93rd anniversary of St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop. Missionary and Mrs. Avers, whose native home is Freemont, Ohio, are sponsored by the St.

Paul Sunday School and congregation.

He will preach at both the 8:30 and 11 o'clock services, as well as at Sunday School sessions at 9:45 and 11.

He will show slides at the congregational dinner in the Fellowship Hall at 5 p.m.

NOW IS THE TIME TO FERTILIZE FOR A SHOWPLACE LAWN

HERE'S WHY FALL IS BEST FOR GROWING GRASS

1. Cool nights, shorter days, warm soil and plentiful rainfall make fall ideal for growing grass.
2. Root systems fertilized in fall grow thicker, stronger . . . resist cold winters better.
3. Fertilized grass will take over bare spots left by "annual" weeds that die in fall.

GRACE LAWN SPRAY IS BEST

Well-balanced Lawn Spray fertilizers are applied the liquid spray-way to supply nutrients through grass blades and roots simultaneously. Lawn Spray fertilizers are made exclusively for lawns. Our men are trained and supervised by W. R. Grace & Co., agronomists.

Act now, the sooner you have your lawn fertilized the healthier it will be next year.

WITHOUT OBLIGATION, let our man measure and study your lawn. He will give you an exact estimate on fall fertilizing plus a 16-page book on seeding, feeding, winter care. You needn't be home. He'll leave professional recommendations.

Coming September 23—three different new Ramblers

THE SENSIBLE SPECTACULARS

65's most sweeping changes—in size—in style—in power

We can tell you this about the new automobiles coming to market for 1965:

No other new cars will be more dramatically changed, or better attuned to the new motoring age, than the '65 Ramblers.

These Ramblers are changed, but not for the sake of change.

They are changed to meet today's changing tastes, changing traffic, changing turnpike demands, changing car uses.

To meet the challenge of these changes, we designed three different kinds of Ramblers, in three different sizes, on three different wheelbases, in three different price ranges.

We powered these Ramblers with seven spectacular engines, Sixes and V-8s, including Torque Command, world's most advanced engine. Boosts both power and economy.

We put new brawn and heft into these Ramblers, new space inside, yet kept the famed easy handling, parking, maneuverability.

We added new features to the long list of extra-value features you get at no extra cost—added new sportiness and action—added new glamor models, including dazzling new convertibles in Ambassador and Classic.

These new 1965 Ramblers you will see next week are Ramblers through and through—the most sensible Ramblers we have ever built.

But they are also the most spectacular Ramblers in history—spectacular in looks, size, beauty, performance.

Thus, they named themselves. They are The Sensible Spectaculars. No other words describe them better, more honestly.

When you see the new Ramblers on Wednesday, September 23—sit in them, drive them—you will understand the honesty of the name—The Sensible Spectaculars.

We invite you to see the 1965 Ramblers yourself—at your Rambler dealer, next week.

OBITUARIES

RALPH E. KELLER, SR.

Ralph E. Keller, Sr., chairman of the board of Zimmer, Keller Calvert, Inc., Detroit advertising agency and a pioneer in the advertising agency business in this country, died September 9 after a long illness. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., he would have been 80 years of age on October 19 next. Mr. Keller's advertising career started in the early 1900's with the Hampton Advertising Agency in New York. During his early 20's, he was a junior copy writer for the Charles H. Fuller Company in Chicago. He later became general manager and treasurer of the Martin V. Kelley Company in Toledo, Ohio, then the largest advertising agency in the Middle West between New York and Chicago. This company handled the Willys-Overland account, which at this time was the largest advertising account in America. He personally wrote most of the copy for that account.

In 1920, he and Walter F. Zimmer, a well-known Detroit advertising man, established the Zimmer-Keller, Inc. advertising agency in that city. When Mr. Zimmer became chairman of the board in May, 1946, Mr. Keller became president of the company. Later on, the agency became known by its present name as Zimmer, Keller & Calvert, Inc. and Mr. Keller became chairman of the board of directors in September, 1960.

Mr. Keller was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Country Club of Detroit (Grosse Pointe) and Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

He is survived by his wife Marie of 70 Hall place, and one son, Ralph E. Keller, Jr., of Birmingham, Michigan.

The funeral services were held Saturday, September 12, at 11 a.m., at the Hamilton Funeral Home, 3975 Cass avenue, Detroit.

BARTHOLOMEW SEYMOUR

B. A. Seymour, president of the real estate firm of Seymour and Troester, died early Friday morning at his home, 876 Edgemoor Park.

Mr. Seymour was one of the founders of the Detroit Community Chest, the forerunner of our present United Foundation. He served on its Board in various offices since its inception.

One of the founders, also, of the Child Caring Division of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Detroit, he was a leader in this activity for some 40 years until it was made a branch of the Catholic Charities of Detroit. He died as president of the Particular Council of Detroit of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, giving of his talents, time and wealth to the underprivileged. Camp Ozanam and Stapleton, for underprivileged children benefited by his generosity as well as Kundig Center for Senior citizens, one of whose buildings was named for him. Mr. Seymour was also Vice-President and Treasurer of the Superior Council of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul of the United States and National Chairman of its Extension Movement.

A lover of music and art, Mr. Seymour was past president of the Alumni Association of the University of Detroit from which institution he received an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters and Laws. He was a graduate of the Detroit College of Law, receiving his degree in law the same year that his twin brother, the late Dr. William J. Seymour, received his degree in medicine. "B.A." as he was affectionately called, was a past President of the Layman's Retreat League in Detroit. Pope Benedict XV conferred upon him the medal Pro Ecclesia Et Pontifice for his noted work for Church and state. As his listing in "Who's Who" proclaims, Mr. Seymour was a born leader.

Two years ago St. Helen's School, in Vero Beach, Florida was dedicated to him without his prior knowledge, as Mr. Seymour always sought to avoid publicity of any kind. Need—whether for old or young—always brought from him a generous response.

He was a member of the D.A.C., Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and Lochmoor Club.

Surviving him are his wife, Marcella; daughters, Mr. John W. Fitzer, Jr., Bloomfield Hills, Mich., Ms. John R. Lilly, Greenwich, Conn., Mrs. William J. Froelich, Jr., Wichita, Kansas, Miss Dorothy Seymour, Grosse Pointe; and his son, Bartholomew A. Seymour, Jr. associated with his father in real estate. He is also survived by four grandchildren. Surviving also are his sisters, Mrs. Walter J. Costello, Mrs. John O'Hara and Mrs. Linn Zimmer and a brother, Fr. M. A. Seymour, C.S.S.R.

Funeral services were held for Mr. Seymour, September 15, at Verheyden Funeral Home and SS Peter and Paul Jesuit Church.

BERTHA A. ABBOTT Services were held for Mrs. Abbott, 82, Tuesday, September 8 in Clock Chapel in Muskegon. She died Friday, September 4, in Hackley Hospital in Muskegon.

Before her death, Mrs. Abbott made her home at 1124 Nottingham road, Born in Palestine, Ind., June 17, 1882, she received her education in Indiana and at Valparaiso University. In 1902, she married the late John R. Abbott.

She was a member of the First Congregational Church in Muskegon, Royal Neighbors, the Senior Sixteens of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church and the Senior Ladies of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Survivors include a son, John A., of Muskegon; three daughters, Mrs. Harriette Slowin, Mrs. Mary Shriver of Fullerton, Calif. and Mrs. Dorothy Manson of Wallingford, Pa.; 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Muskegon.

LERoy B. SWIFT he had resided in recent years. Funeral services were held for Mr. Swift, 67, on Tuesday, September 15, in Coral Gables, Walkersville, Canada. He was graduated from the University of Florida. (Continued on Page 13)

INVADING THIEF

Richard M. Kimbrough of 187 Earl court, complained to Woods police on Wednesday, September 9, that a thief entered a new house that he is building on 20800 Marter road, and stole all the hardware from the doors and cupboards. Total value of the loss is $125, he said.

Opportunity works wonders—and ability gets the credit.

Center Showing Far East Films

Unusual pictures of Thailand, India, and Iran, will be shown at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, on Monday, September 21, at 8 p.m.

E. H. Heaton and his wife took these pictures on their recent trip to unusual parts of these countries. Parts seldom visited by tourists, Mr. and Mrs. Heaton will also have on display in the lobby, some very interesting exhibits from these lands. The Grosse Pointe Public and their guests, are cordially invited free of charge.

Beginning in Bangkok, viewers will see fabulous temples, and the Royal Compound before moving to the ruins of the ancient capital of Siam. Then it's on to Cambodia, and the ruins of the Khmer civilization at Angkor Wat, and Angkor Thom.

At Shive Deagon Pagoda, the audience will see the largest Buddhist Temple in existence. This great building has now been closed to tourists.

In India, the pictures will cover Calcutta, Benares, and Agra, then the Heaton's will take the audience to Darjeeling, to which beautiful place the Dalai Lama escaped from Tibet. The Himalayan scenery here is magnificent. By way of contrast, an elephant journey to Jaipur in the desert will show the deserted city of Amber.

Then to Kashmir, and a fishing trip to the mountains, which takes one up the Khyber Pass to the boundary of Afghanistan. Last country to be visited on

The Beatles Invade Detroit

Reported by
Sue Kennedy and Lisa Carrato

September 8 was quite a day for Detroit as well as for us. The Beatles arrived in Detroit at the Metropolitan Airport about 1:30 a.m. Sunday morning.

Three thousand fans had been anxiously awaiting their idols for five or more hours. They were then taken to a suite in the Whittier Hotel in Detroit. There they remained until 2:30 Sunday afternoon, when they were carefully escorted to Olympia Stadium, where they gave two performances, one at 3 and one at 7.

We arrived at the Olympia shortly after the Beatles. We caught our first glimpse of them as they were rushed out of their dressing room and onto the stage for their first performance. When the boys were in full swing and the girls were in ecstasy, we were ushered behind stage to where the press conference was to be held.

Suddenly, the four young Englishmen, who have turned the music world upside down and inside out, were sitting directly in front of us, not more than ten feet away. They were introduced, "Paul, George, John, and Ringo," and immediately the flashbulbs began popping.

The group hushed and the questions began in an orderly fashion, one by one:

Would John like his son to be a Beatle some day?
John replied, "He's still too little."

George added, "He's only 38; give him time to grow up."

Who are your chief competitors?

Paul wittily replied, "Sophie Tucker."

John said, "Elvis."
Boys, we know that you can sing, play instruments and write, but other than that, what else can you do?

George, with a boyish smile and a wink of his eye, remarked, "All sorts of things!"

When Ringo was confronted with the question of his rumored engagement, he explained, "No, I'm not engaged. Every time we date a girl, we suddenly become married. We don't like it at all."

When we got our chance we asked, what scene did they enjoy filming most in their movie, "A Hard Day's Night?"

Paul said, "The bit in the field."

George, laughing, answered, "Well, personally, I enjoyed the bathroom scene."

The minutes flew by in an atmosphere of unexplainable pleasure. The conference ended, and the Beatles prepared for their second show.

The next time we saw them, we were in the midst of 16,000 sobbing, screaming, fainting, uncontrollable young girls. The screaming produced an effect of complete silence. The Beatles rolled through twelve songs, joked a bit with the crowd, and seemed to be thoroughly enjoying themselves.

Then it was over, all over—the press conference—the Beatles—and the most exciting day in our lives. A day which will always be remembered by us, and if we could, we'd certainly live it all over again!

Institute Books Young Musicians

Outstanding young musicians of the United States will be presented in a special concert series, sponsored by the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts, in collaboration with the Leventritt Foundation, announced Edith J. Freeman, chairman of the Music Committee.

The Edgar M. Leventritt Foundation award-winners are scheduled for monthly concert appearance in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium, December through April.

Mrs. Freeman is enthusiastic about introducing to Detroiters these four outstanding talents of the nation, who distinguished themselves in the rigid and demanding Leventritt competition.

Stephen Manes, 24-year-old pianist, will appear on December 3. He has appeared with more than 30 orchestras since the age of nine, has given solo recitals on the East Coast, and has made radio and television appearances. Among his many awards are: Fulbright grant to Vienna for 1963-64 season; Leventritt finalist (1962); winner of Concert Artists Guild Town Hall Award (1962); Hour of Music Competition (1961); Kosciuszko Foundation Chopin Scholarship (1960).

Violinist Charles Castleman, who made his debut at age four, will appear on February 16. Now holding a University Fellowship at the University of Pennsylvania, he has been soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, New York Philharmonic and others. He has toured Europe, Mexico and Canada. The recipient of many musical awards, Castleman was sent to Belgium by the Institute for American Education as American representative at the 1963 Concours Reine Elisabeth. There he won the $1,000 prize and silver medal. Pianist Lawrence LaGore, well-known to Detroit audiences, will accompany Castleman.

On March 19, Marilyn Neely of Glendale, California will appear. She has been a guest with the Boston Pops, Chicago, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, and Hollywood Bowl symphonies. Last season, she made 40 concert appearances in Alaska. Following her debut (age five) with the Bach Festival in Los Angeles, she graduated from the University of California and achieved distinction in various musical competitions.

Currently concertmaster of the Oakland (California) Symphony and a member of the Francisco Chamber Trio in San Francisco, violinist David Abel will be heard on April 6, accompanied by Lawrence LaGore. Abel has been featured soloist with the Minneapolis Symphony and guest artist with the orchestras of Boston, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, Denver, Oklahoma City, Baltimore, Chicago and Honolulu.

All concerts will be in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium at 8:20 p.m. Concert series—(Continued on Page 15)

USDA CHOICE

Wrigley Gives You Superior Quality

All Wrigley beef is U.S.D.A. Choice or Prime, every cut is well marbled with streaks of creamy white fat. Iowa Corn feeding makes the fat white and gives this beef its superb flavor. Our expert buyers have personally selected that beef which has the very finest texture, mouth watering goodness, and fresh rosy bloom.

U.S.D.A. Grade
Prime and Choice

Check the U.S.D.A. Grade when you buy beef. To be sure of the best, insist on Choice or Prime, for only top quality beef (as certified by the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture) can be aged properly and eased to peak tenderness and flavor. The mantle of gleaming white fat protects U.S. Prime and Choice beef during the aging process, as well as giving it the superb flavor found in only the finest beef.

Slow Controlled
Natural Aging

What natural aging does for fine cheese and fine wines, it also does for the fine beef you get at Wrigley. It mellows and enhances the flavor of our U.S. Choice and Prime Beef and increases its tenderness without destroying its fine beef texture as hurry up artificial tenderizing so often does.

More Eating Meat
Table Trimmed

It pays to compare trim as well as price. Wrigley's exclusive table trim (you get it on every cut we sell) removes excess waste fat. You get more delicious meat to serve for your money. Wrigley meats are a better value every time . . . You can enjoy all you pay for!

Pfc. Arthur G. Affer At Fort Hood, Tex.

Army PFC Arthur G. Affer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Affer, 1952 Country Club drive, has been assigned to the 1st Armored Division at Fort Hood, Tex. Affer, a supply clerk in Battery A, 1st Battalion of the division's 73d Artillery, entered the Army in January, 1963, and completed basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky. The 22-year-old soldier attended Grosse Pointe High School.

St. James Plans Lecture Series

A new lecture series is scheduled for the fall term at St. James Lutheran Church, sponsored by the Board of Christian Education. The Wednesday night series entitled, "The Christian and Race Relations," will run for five weeks from 8-9:30 o'clock.

Topics for the five sessions are:

September 16: "The Bible and Racial Discrimination" led by Dr. Armin Grams, Professor of Parent Education at Merrill-Palmer Institute and Chairman of the St. James Board of Christian Education.

September 23: "Race and Church Renewal (How the Church and the Community Converge)" The leader is Mrs. Ivor Echols, head of the School-Age Laboratory (Social Group Work) at Merrill-Palmer Institute.

September 30: A one hour long documentary film entitled, "Walk in My Shoes," will be moderated by C. Hugh Fletcher of Grosse Pointe, a member of the Board of Christian Education at St. James.

October 7: "The Role of the Church in Race Relations" will be a dialogue between co-lecturers, the Reverend and Mrs. James Chambers. The Reverend Chambers is minister of St. John's Presbyterian Church in Detroit; Mrs. Chambers, a lawyer, holds an administrative post with the Federal Department Stores.

October 14: Douglas Sargent, M.D., will lecture on "The Psychological Origins of Prejudice." Dr. Sargent is a psychiatrist residing in Grand Marais boulevard.

Several of the speakers are prominent Negro citizens of the Detroit area. The issues of human relations between individuals and between differing groups are most dangerous when they are not faced openly. The lectures will be followed by a question and answer discussion giving the audience an opportunity to express feelings, regardless of personal views, and thereby help break down the ominous wall of silence which surrounds the question of race relations.

St. James Church extends a cordial invitation to all interested persons to attend these opportune lectures.

James Tocco to Give Recital on Wednesday

Pianist James Tocco, 1961 Austin graduate, will play the works of Beethoven, Ravel, Bartok, and Brahms in a recital Wednesday, September 23, 8:30 p.m., at the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium, 5200 Woodward.

Tocco, who made a memorable debut in Detroit a year ago, has just returned from a year's study at the Magda Tagliaferro School in Paris, France. Just prior to his return, he distinguished himself in Paris by winning first prize in the 7th Annual Magda Tagliaferro International Competition against eighteen other contestants representing eleven countries.

Early next month, he returns to Paris for another year to study with the renowned European pianist and teacher Magda Tagliaferro, and to meet the commitments of performing eight concerts through France, which are, in part, the result of his winning the competition.

Proceeds from the recital will aid James, who will be twenty-one later this month, to continue his study abroad for another year. Tickets will be available at the box office the night of the recital.

Nation's Crime Rate Increases

Through June of 1964, the Crime Index recorded a nationwide increase over the same six-month period of 1963, according to a report received from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. All crime classifications were up significantly. The violent crimes were led by rape up 20 percent; aggravated assault, 17 percent; and murder and robbery up 13 percent each, the director stated.

The voluminous property crimes registered consistent increases with auto theft up 17 percent; burglary, 13 percent; and larceny $50 and over 15 percent.

Suburban communities continued to show a sharp trend up, 23 percent; while the rural area averaged an over-all nine percent rise due principally to the property crimes.

Cities of over 25,000 population which experience a higher level of crime had an average increase of 14 percent. All cities, when grouped by population size had total crime increases ranging from seven to 23 percent, Hoover stated.

Geographically, the upward trend was highest in the Southern States, 18 percent; followed by the Northern States, 15 percent; North Central States, 14 percent; and Western States, 11 percent.

Daylight attacks of burglary on both residences and business houses showed marked increases. All types of thefts from autos, which comprise 40 percent of all larcenies, were up sharply.

Hoover stated that street robbery, a high volume offense, increased nine percent, and purse snatching, another street crime, 35 percent.

Young Musicians

ries tickets for four performances will be $6.00 (main floor) and $5.00 (balcony); individual tickets, $1.75. Tickets are available at the World Adventure Series office in The Detroit Institute of Arts and at Grinnell's downtown. All seats are reserved. Mail orders sent to the World Adventure Office, Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward Avenue, will be filled in order of receipt.

GPHS Tower Wins Awards

The student newspaper of Grosse Pointe High School, "The Tower," has just been named the recipient of three important awards for journalistic excellence. It was reported by Jerry J. Gerich, Principal. "This is another fine recognition for Miss Trot and her students in journalism," Gerich added. Adviser of the publication is Miss Doris K. Trott, journalism and English teacher and adviser of the literary magazine, "Prom."

The high school weekly received a grade of "A" and a percentage of 97% in the competition sponsored by Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, and was named to the combined George H. Gallup and International Honor Award. The Gallup Award is given for sustained leadership through the years.

The third laurel received by the local student publication is an All-American Honor rating in the 71st All American Newspaper Critical Service of the National Scholastic Press Association.

Quill and Scroll each spring invites its member schools to participate in its newspaper evaluation program. The service provides not only for an annual appraisal of the school newspaper in terms of its journalistic merit but also of the students' growth and development on the newspaper staff in terms of educational value.

The first part of the program consists of searching self-evaluation by the staff and adviser as they provide the data for the competition. The second part consists of evaluation and comments by highly qualified, adult judges who will determine the rating of the paper according to the criteria set forth in the scorebook.

The criteria for judging are the same for all papers: How well does the newspaper serve its readers? How good is curricular, extracurricular and feature coverage in the school? What is the quality of writing, of physical presentation, of leadership? How well does it do as a business enterprise, and how well does it function as an educational laboratory?

It was on the answers to these questions that The Tower won its international honor rating as a "newspaper of superior achievements."

In the National Scholastic Press Association competition more than 1,000 newspapers from high schools all over the nation were judged in groups divided by enrollment, frequency of publication and method of printing.

THREE GOOD REASONS TO BUY AN ELECTRIC DRYER NOW

- low initial cost
- special installed price
- Edison no-charge service

When it comes to buying a clothes dryer, there are more important things to consider than an incomplete claim about a pennies-per-load operating cost.

Take dryer service, for example. No matter where you buy your electric dryer, Edison will repair or replace electrical parts with no charge for parts or labor.

How do you put a price tag on this extra-special service? One way is to look at what you'd pay for a dryer service policy. Typical charges, in this area, range from $70 to $150 over the first five years. This is the kind of money you save when you dry clothes the safe, gentle, electric way.

Also, model for model, an electric dryer costs less to buy than a flame-type does—some electric dryers are $20 to $40 less.

And now, for a limited time, the price paid for an electric dryer includes its wiring, if any is needed. So you save even more.

What about cost of operation claims? Just this, an electric dryer costs about 5¢-7¢ per load to operate—and there are no other hidden costs.

Look at all the facts. EDISON They add up to electricity.

GP City Judges Pass Sentences

City Judge Douglas Paterson heard one traffic case, and Judge Malcolm Sutherland heard four, on Tuesday, September 8.

Judge Paterson found Victor J. LaBrauche of 881 Marborough, Detroit, guilty of speeding 45 miles an hour on City streets and fined him $50, with the alternative of 10 days in the Wayne County Jail. LaBrauche paid the fine.

In the cases heard by Judge Sutherland, two persons were found guilty of trespassing on private property and each was given a suspended sentence.

They are Gary Lee Friend of 9993 Palmoor and Robert A. Purdy of 1236 Round Lake road, both of Union Lake, Mich.

The judge dismissed a charge of running through a red light and causing an accident, against Harold B. Edsall of 873 Rivard boulevard, when a witness refused to sign a complaint.

William Lee Potts of 1527 Hawthorne, pled guilty to speeding 80 miles an hour through City streets, and it cost him a fine of $45. In addition, his parents pledged to hold his operator's license for a period of six months, during which time he will not be allowed to drive.

Pointers Enjoy Services of UF

Recreational services provided by the Torch Drive were enjoyed by 5,495 Grosse Pointers during the past year.

The United Community Services reported that there were, in Grosse Pointe, 1,095 Boy Scouts with 252 adult leaders, 1,671 Girl Scouts with 487 leaders, and 49 Camp Fire Girls with 19 leaders. There were 285 YMCA members, 1,083 YWCA members, 1,163 members of the Neighborhood Club, 15 members of Sophie Wright Settlement, 21 members of UAW Retired Workers Centers, four members of Senior Center, Inc., and one member of the Jewish Community Center. Seven Grosse Pointers attended Bay Court Camp of the District Nursing Society.

Altogether, recreation services provided by Torch Drive funds reached 390,461 persons of all ages, races and creeds.

The Scouting and Camp Fire activities, which listed 186,498 growing boys and girls between the ages of seven and 18, provided an endless array of things to be done and things to be learned by doing. Their aim is the building of good citizens.

Boys' clubs, with the same aim, provide a place and an atmosphere where a boy may satisfy his desires for wholesome development, and maintain a program of health and guidance services, physical, educational, and recreational activities under competent leadership.

Recreational activities for youngsters in the community which are usually located in neighborhoods of low economic status, are provided as a means of combating juvenile delinquency. Case workers counsel families of boys needing such help and carry on the fight against school drop-outs.

Older boys and girls, as well as adults, find in the Catholic Youth Organization, the YWCA and YMCA a means of self-expression and release from tensions, through healthful recreation.

The Senior Center and UAW Retired Workers Centers provide a place and a program in which those whose life's work is behind them find companionship and interests suited to their tastes and abilities.

Weaver's Guild To Meet At Women's City Club

Members of the Michigan Weaver's Guild will meet for luncheon at the Women's City Club on September 17, at 1 o'clock.

Publicity chairman Mrs. James Roach, reports that Dorothy Whitman from the Fashion Wool department of the Wool Bureau in New York, will be the speaker.

Jobs Looking For People

Jobs are looking for people this year instead of people for jobs, and the need for qualified workers will steadily increase as the Christmas season approaches, Robert Baker, Manager of the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Clerical and Sales Office, 1145 Griswold, stated.

In addition to the anticipated need for sales people, cashiers, checkers, and alteration women, there is a heavy backlog of unfilled clerical and sales jobs available to applicants 18 years of age and over. Many sales orders are also available to housewives who can only work certain hours on a variable schedule.

The Clerical and Sales Office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission will operate a mobile placement office in its Christmas recruitment program this year.

In an effort to meet the current and future personnel needs of retail stores, a 29-foot recruitment trailer will be stationed at Eastland Shopping Center from now through November 30. It will be located on the south side of the J. L. Hudson Company, adjacent to the bus terminal.

Anyone who is interested in applying for Christmas work or for immediate employment, may apply at the recruitment trailer, which will remain open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and until 5 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday.

End combat Training At Fort Pendleton

Marine Private Michael J. Celan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Celan of 1967 Hawthorne, and Daniel A. Dlouhy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dlouhy of 1737 Hawthorne, completed four weeks of individual combat training August 11 at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

While with the regiment all new Marines are trained in tactical and combat skills needed for battle. Emphasis was placed on the small unit tactical—the four-man fire team and the 14-man squad.

OIL

The United States government will put up at public drawing in Santa Fe, New Mexico, the third Monday of each month, millions of acres of oil and gas leases in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma for sale to the public at 50 cents per acre. Many of these leases are valued by the major oil companies and other interested buyers at many hundreds of dollars per acre. But, under Federal rules and regulations you have the same EQUAL chance to draw one of these valuable leases as the largest oil company in the nation. Write for how you may obtain service in filing for leases, Federal termination lease lists, advance postings and monthly winners lists. This is not a drilling venture.

University School News

Headmaster Hugh C. Riddleberger welcomed faculty and students to the 66th year of the Grosse Pointe University School when he greeted them on the morning of Thursday, September 10.

Among faculty members beginning their first term at G.P.U.S. were the following: Gilder D. Jackson succeeds Principal Wellington V. Grimes, who has become executive secretary of the National Association of Independent Schools, Boston, Mass. Mr. Jackson was formerly Dean of the Academy at Wilbraham Academy in Massachusetts.

The Rev. Franklin P. Bennett, Jr., will be the new teacher of Theology replacing the Rev. Lyman Stookoy who has accepted a call at Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Bennett is a graduate of Phillips Exeter, Harvard College and received his B.D. from Episcopal Theological School. He is on the staff of Christ Episcopal Church, Grosse Pointe.

Mlle. Idellette Bourdet is a native of France. She has studied at both the University of Paris and the University of Lille. Mlle. Bourdet has taught in her own country as well as in England and the United States. She will teach French in the Upper School.

Richard R. Davis received his B.A. from Carleton College, where he was an English major. He has taught the top years of high school at both North Yarmouth Academy and most recently at the Tilton School in New Hampshire. For six summers he has worked with young people at the National Music Camp in Interlochen, Michigan, and this year he is the administrative assistant in charge of counselling in the High School Boys' Division. Mr. Davis teaches English and history for boys of Grade Eight and a section of Tenth Grade English.

Mrs. Jane Renaud will teach the new subject of Grade 7 science. She holds a B.S. in Geology from the University of Michigan as well as the M.S. from Wayne. She has had broad experience as teacher and geologist, having taught at the Liggett School and Wayne University (where she presently teaches) and as a working geologist for the Texas Company, the Standard Oil Co. of California, and the Michigan Conservation Department.

Henry A. Stone will teach English and History to the boys of Grade Seven. He is a graduate of Milton Academy, Boston University (A.B.), and has received his M.A. from the University of Nebraska. He has taught at both the Fessenden School, West Newton, Mass., and the Wichita Day School in Kansas.

Lower School
Mrs. Martha A. Barrett will teach one section of Grade one. She is a graduate of Abbott Academy in Andover, Mass., and received her B.A. degree from Hollins College. She has done graduate work at both the University of Michigan and Wayne. She has taught for six years in the primary schools of St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Barbara J. Bidigare will teach one section of Grade Three. She is a graduate of McMaster University of Hamilton, Ontario, where she received her B.A. degree. She has continued her studies at both Wayne and Ypsilanti. She has had five years of experience in primary school education.

Miss Sue Ann Follmer is a graduate of Wayne State University, where she earned a B.S. degree. She has been studying for her M.A. at the same university. Miss Follmer has taught for four years, and it was at our school that she did her practice teaching. She will teach one section of Grade Four.

Mrs. Clare A. Kimber will succeed Mrs. Doris Peitter, teacher of reading in the Lower School. Mrs. Kimber's work will also include some special teaching in fields other than reading. She has studied at Nebraska Wesleyan, Hastings College, Montana State College, and Wayne State. Mrs. Kimber also took a course in reading at Harvard University.

The school is happy to welcome two American Field Service students to its 12th grade. They are Miss Susan Nichols of Australia and Miss Hilda Sabato of Argentina. Miss Nichols is residing with the family of classmate Betsy Peabody; Miss Sabato's host family is that of 11th grader Susan Jenks.

Among reports of summer faculty activity are these: David Arner conducted his usual summer band school at G.P.U.S. and spent a month on the Virginia coast. Miss Jean Diekoff attended the summer session at the University of Michigan, where she is doing graduate work in classical studies. Miss Clare Lockhart visited Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island in June and spent July and August at her cottage in Naples, Me.

For Lower School Principal Bertram P. Shover this past summer rounded out 35 years of association with Camp Tecumseh on Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H. Mr. Shover is a co-director of the camp and has charge of the camp bank and heads the tutoring there. Mrs. Shover assists in the teaching program, which includes a broad range of subjects from 3rd grade arithmetic to high-school algebra, from simple elementary spelling to senior English. Many of the sons of former campers and even some grandsons attend this camp, which is one of the oldest in America, having been established in 1903.

Mrs. Kay Welzenbach attended a seminar in composition and the new English at Columbia University, New York. She describes it as "a stimulating conference." Her course was one which pointed up "Explosion English." The Welzenbachs, (her husband is Mr. Frank Welzenbach, principal of the Trombly School, Grosse Pointe), also were hosts for Mlle. Michele Guibert, a student at the Sorbonne in Paris, for two weeks.

Too often a man's reputation is injured by his character.

Mu Psi Epsilon Alums To Gather September 21

The Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Mu Psi Epsilon will hold its September meeting next Monday, September 21, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Bernard Rosner in Huntington Woods.

Co-hostesses for this meeting will be Miss Caroline Baxter, Mrs. Millard Meador and Mrs. Carl Lischer.

The program for the evening will be given by Mrs. W. H. Winkler, who will speak on her trip to Europe.

The man who's willing to do good often fails to make good.

Pointe Ski Club Slates Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club, sponsored by the War Memorial Association, has scheduled its first meeting of the season, for Sunday, September 27, at 4 p.m., at Fries Auditorium.

Chuck Collinson, president, hopes that all former members and all other Grosse Pointe skiers, will be in attendance. The program will feature recent films of Aspen, since this is one of the spots to which the club will journey for skiing during the winter.

The entire schedule of trips and activities will be announced at this meeting. Among the highlights of the Ski Club's plans, are presentations in Fries Auditorium of John Jay personally narrating his latest ski films, accompanied by Ski Style Shows by the J. L. Hudson Co. Another interesting offer is ski lessons by the Grosse Pointe Ski Club for beginners, conducted both at the Center, and later on the slopes.

A large number of social gatherings are planned in Gobel's Circus and elsewhere. Special night and Saturday trips by bus will go to local ski areas, and there will be weekend trips to Boyne and other popular Northern Michigan and Canadian ski areas.

In addition to the Aspen trip, there will be the usual Gala New Years Trip, which features a fabulous caribou party. Membership in the Grosse Pointe Ski Club is a nominal three dollars, which entitles one to special rates on all activities plus a number of free gatherings.

Gardeners To Gather At Memorial Center

Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, District One, Plan General Meeting In The Pointe Early Next Month

The annual meeting of District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan will be held October 6, in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The Harper Woods Garden Club will be the hostess group with president, Mrs. Frederick Condit, as the official hostess and Mrs. Robert Ungewitter chairman of the day.

Registration is 9 o'clock, with luncheon at 12 noon.

The theme of the day, "MUMS 'N GREEN THUMBS" will prove to be an exhilarating experience for all gardeners. Vincent DePetris, hybridizer, and past president of the National Chrysanthemum Society, will speak and exhibit some of the newest varieties of Chrysanthemums.

Mr. DePetris has been working with mums since 1922 and has originated 15 to 20 percent of all varieties in culture today in gardens and greenhouses.

C. G. Milne, Garden Editor of the Indianapolis Star, will explore the possibilities of "How to be a Lazy Gardener." Mr. Milne holds two degrees in Horticulture from Ohio State University and has taught at both Purdue University and Texas A&M College. In his capacity as garden editor of the Indianapolis Star he has contributed articles to other newspapers of the chain.

The reservation chairman for this gardening day is Mrs. Edward Grant, 19942 Lochmoor, Harper Woods, Michigan 48236. Please send name, club name, and check for $4.50 (covers registration cost of the entire day, including luncheon) to Mrs. Grant before October 1. There will be no refunds after the October 1 date.

Tea To Benefit Cottage Hospital

The annual Fall Donation Tea sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital will be held on Tuesday, September 22, at the home of Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy, Jr., at Provincial road. General chairman of this year's Tea is Mrs. David C. Lowe, of Merriweather road.

Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, Mrs. James MacMillan and Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr. will preside at the Silver Bowl. Mrs. Nelson Holland, president of the Board of Trustees of Cottage Hospital, Mrs. Sydney H. Morgan and Mrs. Peden A. Meikle, president of the Auxiliary will assist Mrs. Joy in greeting the guests.

Mrs. Richard P. Joy Jr., Mrs. Stuart Wells Utley, Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin and Mrs. Carl B. Grawn together with the past presidents of the Auxiliary will assist at the tea table. Members of the Executive Board of the Auxiliary will act as hostesses for the day.

Any women interested in assisting the work of Cottage Hospital are cordially invited to attend the tea.

Pi Beta Phi Plan Meeting

Mrs. John King will hostess the first fall meeting of the Grosse Pointe Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club in her new Lakeland avenue home next Monday, September 21, at 7:30 o'clock.

Following a social hour over dessert and coffee, Mrs. Stuart Cammett will present "Tales from Victoria." Mrs. Cammett attended the Pi Phi national convention in Victoria, B.C., this summer.

Any Pi Phi in the area are invited to attend. For transportation, contact Mrs. Samuel Irwin, TUXedo 4-6756.

Pamela Petri Bows At Tea

Mrs. Henry L. Petri, of Handover road, presented her daughter, Pamela, to society Saturday, at a tea in the French Room of the Country Club of Detroit.

The debutante received in an afternoon sheath dress of pale yellow tissue crepe, fashioned with a cowl neckline and a bow, of matching crepe, accenting a lightly defined high-rise waistline.

She wore a string of heirloom pearls, gift of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry S. Dennison, of Framingham, Mass., and carried her father's gift bouquet, an arrangement of cymbidium orchids and ivy.

Mrs. Petri stood with her daughter before the mirrored wall in the Country Club drawing room. Her sleeveless dress of jade green shantung was accented by a yellow orchid corsage.

A yellow and white color scheme was used for the party. The tea table, covered with a white cloth and a yellow skirt, was placed before the windows overlooking the golf course. It was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white fall flowers, flanked by Sheffield silver candelabra, which originally belonged to Pam's great-grandmother, holding yellow candles.

Stephanie Petri was her sister's assistant. She wore an aqua shantung frock and a yellow orchid corsage.

Fouring were Mrs. J. D. Chapin, Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. Lorey Kammer, Mrs. John B. Warren, Mrs. James G. Macpherson, Mrs. William M. Day, Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow and Mrs. James W. Grace.

The G-R-E-A-T-E-S-T (politicians have no monopoly on this word) fashion show of the fall season is planned for Thursday afternoon, October 8, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Patriotic red, white and blue invitations have been mailed to the ladies of St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, the staff of Walton-Pierce is carefully comparing incoming clothes for their platform appeal, the Phil Skillman Trio has been alerted . . . and the "Election Selections" fashion show luncheon, annual gala of St. Paul's Altar Society and the Parish Council of the National Council of Catholic Women, is definitely underway in A Big Way.

The ladies at the helm for the '64 show, all with plenty of know-how and know-who, are Mrs. Edward Letcher, honorary chairman; Mrs. Hamilton F. Kotcher, chairman; and Mrs. Lorenzo Browning, co-chairman.

Mrs. Anthony Shemansky is in charge of patrons. Mrs. Blount Slaue heads the invitations committee. More members of the imaginative group are the Mesdames Gerald Kane and Joseph Wright, Mrs. William Hurley, Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, Mrs. John C. Griffin, Mrs. Howard O'Leary, Mrs. Fred Cody, Mrs. Joseph Marshall, Mrs. Leo Covey, Mrs. Raymond Little, Mrs. John Clifford, Mrs. John Verbiest, Mrs. Milton Smith, Mrs. Ambrose Singer, Mrs. R. E. Curtis and Mrs. Martin Paye.

Decorations are in the capable hands of Mrs. Arthur Cerre, Mrs. T. W. Berendsohn, Mrs. John Graffius and Mrs. Chilton Drysdale, while Mrs. Victor Kenyon is in charge of hostesses.

Barbara Wenzel Marries Mr. Shilson

Pair "Piped" Into Reception At Detroit Yacht Club; Newlyweds to Live In St Clair Shores When They Return From Northern Michigan

Barbara Ann Wenzel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Wenzel, of Cloverly road, exchanged vows with William Thomas Shilson Friday evening, at St. Paul's on the Lakeshore. The Right Reverend Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Shilson, of Bishop road. In keeping with the bride's maternal Scottish ancestry, the newlyweds made their entrance at their wedding reception to the skirling of bagpipes. The bride's uncle, Murray MacDonald, wearing full Highlander regalia, met his niece at the Detroit Yacht Club portals, and "piped" the couple to the festivities. Mr. MacDonald, of Ripley, Ont., is a member of the Lucknow Highlanders.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of ivory clipper satin. Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented with seed pearls defined the center of her bodice and the front of her bouffant skirt, which ended in a chapel train. More Alencon lace outlined her batteau neckline, and formed her elbow length sleeves. A petite satin bow, cascading into covered streamers ending with tiny satin roses, accented the back of her waist.

A full-blown rose of ivory satin, and a coronet of satin rose leaves, held the bride's floor length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and gardenias. Her attendants were dressed identically in floor length gowns of rose-fuschia taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodices, batteau necklines and over-bowes of matching lace. Their headpieces were roses of fuschia satin, with matching veiling. They carried sprays of sweetheart roses in varying shades of pink.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wenzel chose a gown of powder blue peau de soie, with an overblouse of matching lace. Her hat, of tiny rosebuds and veiling, and accessories were of powder blue. A spray of pink cymbidium orchids was pinned to her beaded clutch purse.

Mrs. Shilson wore a gown of cafe au lait, with a bengaline skirt, and Alencon lace jacket. Her hat was of deep beige velvet roses and ribbon, and her accessories were cocoa beige. She carried a seed pearl clutch purse with a yellow cymbidium orchid spray. For traveling, the bride donned a creme yellow Chanel suit with deep beige accessories. Her corsage was a brown cypripedium orchid.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in St. Clair, Mich.

Out of town guests included aunts and uncles of the bride: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Brandt, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald, of Ripley, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald, of Kintail, Ont.; Mrs. Robert Tobin, of Lincoln road, was matron of honor. Margaret Ann MacDonald, of Toronto, and Mrs. Harry Beau-

Mrs. William J. Toth

KATHLEEN MARGARET MEBUS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip K. Mebus, of Whittier road, spoke her wedding vows to Mr. Toth Saturday, September 5, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church. He is the son of Mrs. William J. Toth, of New York City, and the late Mr. Toth.

Miss Mebus Says Vows To Mr. Toth

Reception At Detroit Athletic Club Follows Saturday In St. Clare de Montefalco Church; Pair To Live In New York

Kathleen Margaret Mebus and William Joseph Toth exchanged marriage vows at high noon Saturday, September 5, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip K. Mebus, of Whittier road. She wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, styled with an oval neckline, long court sleeves, and a shirred skirt falling into a Cathedral train, overlaid with embroidery of Alencon lace.

Her corsage was fashioned of green orchids. Mrs. Toth chose a pink brocade costume, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage. The new Mr. and Mrs. Toth are making their home in New York City.

Her mantilla was fashioned of Spanish lace, and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis. Her attendants, in long gresses of jadeite peau de suede, were Erika Mebus, who served as her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Philip K. Mebus, Jr., Caroline Fisher, Mary Sue Herz and Patricia Klubnik, of New Jersey.

Miss Wardle To Be Bride

The engagement of Mary Evelyn Wardle and Gerald Elwood Black was announced last week at a small cocktail party at the home of the bride-elect's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wardle, of San Francisco, Cal.

Mary is the daughter of Mrs. C. D. Wardle, of Washington road, and the late Mr. Wardle.

She attended Grosse Pointe High School and was graduated from Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Toth, son of Mrs. William J. Toth, of New York City, and the late Mr. Toth, asked his brother-in-law, Michael O'Brien, to serve as best man. Seating the guests were another brother-in-law, James Tobin, Philip K. Mebus, Jr., brother of the bride, Peter Durr, Angelo Larallo, Vincent McGee and John Norton.

Mrs. Mebus greeted her guests at the reception at the Detroit Athletic Club following her daughter's wedding, wearing a gold brocade suit dress, with matching accessories. Her

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Black, of Altoona, Pa. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University, where he affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi, and upon his marriage will relinquish membership in the San Francisco Bachelors. The couple are planning an October wedding in San Francisco, where they will make their home.

Kit Hoye Bows At Tea Party

Katherine Pillsbury Hoye was presented to society Tuesday afternoon, at a tea in the Vendome road home of J. Lawrence Buell, Jr. Her godmother, the late Mrs. Buell, had expressed the wish that Kit would make her debut in the Buell home.

The debutante, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harold Hoye, of Merriweather road, received in a sleeveless, quilted brocade, powder blue silk dress, accented with a bow at her low, narrow neckline and a long, inverted panel falling from her front waistline. She carried a round bouquet of stephanotis, her father's gift.

Mrs. M. Oliver, of Goderich, Ont.; and Mrs. A. Kelley, of Ann Arbor.

More were the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Wilbur J. B. Thomas; his aunts Mrs. Lou Holliday, of Traverse City; and Mrs. Gilbert T. Shilson, of Lansing; and his great-aunt, Mrs. John Gillespie, of Palm Desert, Cal.

Mrs. Hoye wore a gown of pale blue peau de soie, styled with a portrait collar and belled skirt.

A large silver bowl, filled with white roses and flanked with white candles in silver candlesticks, centered the tea table, which was covered with an embroidered white damask cloth, accented with inserts of Venetian lace.

White flowers were used in arrangements throughout the house, with white geraniums featured on the terrace.

Kit's assistants, distinguished by spray orchid corsages, were Margaret Hill, Adena Wright, Susan Ford and Sibley Johnson. Pouring were Mrs. Charles W. Bishop, Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell, III, Mrs. Michael W. Hoye and Mrs. John H. Stephenson, Jr.

Kit leaves tomorrow for her second year at Pine Manor Junior College. She is a member of the Tau Beta Association.

Mr. Boyd Weds Susan O'Connor

Wearing a gown of candlelight peau de soie, styled with a narrow net band featuring applied taupe de soie blossoms at her rounded neckline and sleeves, Susan Catherine O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. O'Connor, of Manhasset, L.I., spoke her wedding vows to Richard Keith Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Boyd, Sr., of Sunningdale drive, on Saturday, September 5.

The Reverend Harold Paul officiated at the ceremony, in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Manhasset.

A huge cabbage rose of taupe de soie was caught in the folds of the bride's chapel train, and her shoulder length tulle veil fell from a narrow pearl crown. She carried glamelias.

Patricia O'Connor served as her sister's maid of honor. Catherine O'Connor, another sister, Barbara Boyd, sister of the bridegroom, and Nancy Wilson, of Manhasset, were the bridesmaids.

They wore long gowns of pale yellow taffeta under cut-out, embroidered white organza. Yellow velvet bands defined their waistlines, and yellow velvet Dior bows served as their headpieces. Their flowers were white shattered mums.

Milton J. Boyd was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Bruce A. Boyd, of Chicago, another brother; James O'Connor, Jr., brother of the bride; Thomas Guthat, Lawrence Calcaterra and Peter Biglin.

Following a luncheon reception at Milleridge Inn, Jericho, L.I., the newlyweds left for several days in San Francisco and Carmel-by-the-Sea, before flying to Rio de Janeiro and Brazil. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. O'Connor wore an antique gold silk faille sheath with an overblouse of antique gold re-embroidered lace, and matching accessories. She pinned gardenias to her purse.

Mrs. Boyd wore a blue and lime green silk print with blue accessories, and pinned gardenias to her purse.

Nash-Conrad Rites Read September 5

Newlyweds Travel to New Orleans; Bride Wears Peau de Soie Gown For Saturday Ceremony In St. Clare de Montefalco Church

Kathleen Mary Conrad chose a gown of peau de soie, styled with a fitted bodice, scooped neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and belled skirt, for the September 5 ceremony, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, at which she became the bride of Garrett John Nash.

Reverend Jerome Heyman officiated at the Nuptial Mass. The bride, daughter of Mrs. Paul C. Conrad, of Kensington road, and the late Mr. Conrad, was escorted by her two brothers, Paul C. Conrad, Jr., and Thomas Patrick.

A full Watteau drape cascaded from her neckline, and a crown of roses caught her shoulder length illusion veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of white bridal roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Matron of honor Mrs. William Funkhouser, and bridesmaid Mrs. Raymond Lawrence, both sisters of the bride, wore gowns of textured silk peau de serge, in lapis lazuli blue undershot with emerald. Their headpieces were matching fabric bow and flower circlets. They carried balls of pale pink carnations, with boxwood greens.

The bride's nephew, Daniel Lawrence, as ring bearer, accompanied his sister, Andrea, who was the flower girl. She wore a pale blue frock, and carried a miniature of the attendant's bouquets.

Mr. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schollenberger, of Balfour road, asked William Hodgman to act as best man. Ushers included William Fitzgerald, William Adelhoch and Raymond Lawrence.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of royal blue French Chantilly lace and a wrist corsage of light pink shattered carnations. Mrs. Schollenberger's corsage also was fashioned of pink shattered carnations; she wore a three piece Alice blue brocade suit.

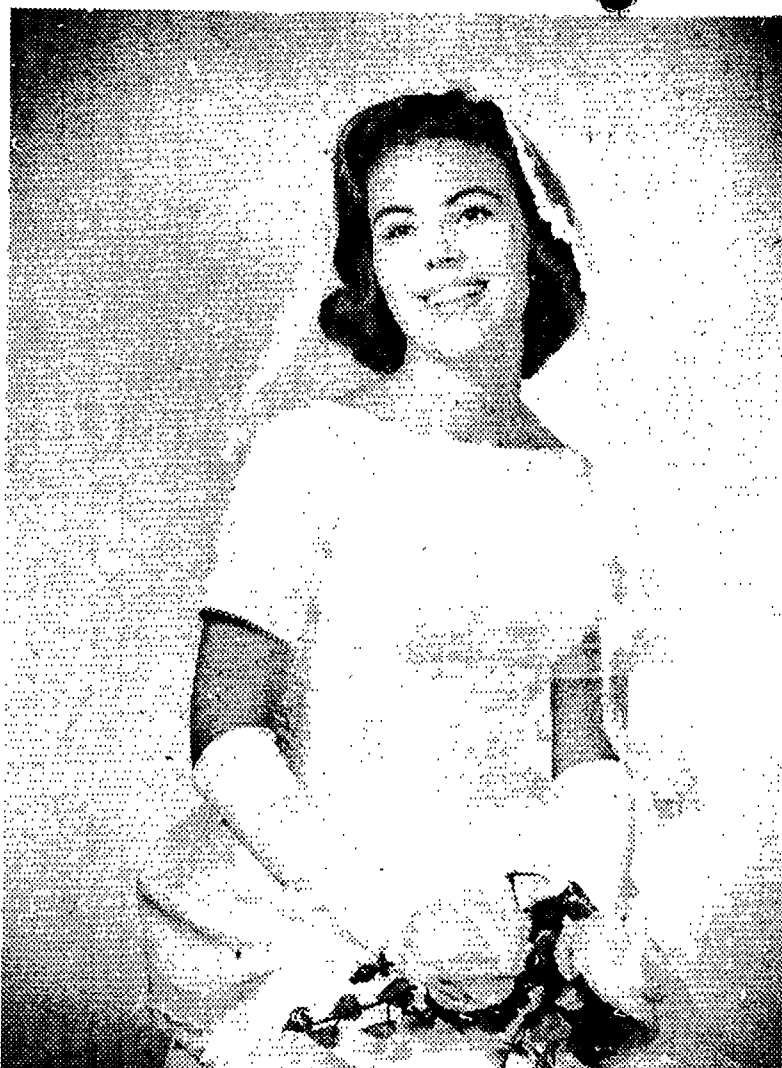

After a trip to New Orleans, the newlyweds will make their home in East Lansing.

Mrs. Garrett J. Nash

In St. Clare de Montefalco Church, September 5, KATHLEEN MARY CONRAD, daughter of Mrs. Paul C. Conrad, of Kensington road, and the late Mrs. Conrad, was married to Mr. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Schollenberger, of Balfour road.

Mrs. Glenn J. Singer

In St. Paul's on the Lakeshore Saturday, PAMELA MARTHA LOUWERS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Louwers, of Nottingham road, was married to Mr. Singer, son of the Joseph J. Singers, of Chicago, Ill.

Pamela M. Louwers Marries Mr. Singer

Breakfast Reception at Golden Lion Follows Morning Rites, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; Pair to Live in Ypsilanti

Pamela Martha Louwers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Louwers, of Nottingham road, became the bride of Glenn Joseph Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Singer, of Chicago, Ill., at a double ring ceremony Saturday, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Monsignor Frank A. McPhillips officiated at the morning rites. A Papal Blessing was conferred upon the couple.

For her marriage, the former Miss Louwers chose a gown of white spun silk organza, trimmed with Swiss lace. Her bodice was fashioned with a batteau neckline and elbow length sleeves, and her bell shaped skirt, trimmed in Swiss lace, featured a Chapel train.

She wore her veil of matching lace mantilla style, and carried French roses.

In floor length forest green and mint crepe dresses, with velvet bodices, were the attendants, maid of honor Nancy Herschelmann, and bridesmaids

Jenny Louwers, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Thomas Slaninka, sister of the bridegroom, Katherine Gruber and Joanne Sneathkamp. They carried bouquets of fall flowers.

Thomas Slaninka served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushering were Stephen Holmes, William Merritt, Thomas Sullivan and Anthony Szymanski.

For her daughter's wedding and the breakfast reception at the Golden Lion, Mrs. Louwers wore a dress of juniper peau de soie, with matching accessories. Mrs. Singer's gown was fashioned of cashmere lace; she wore beige accessories.

The newlyweds are making their home in Ypsilanti.

Memorial Center Slates Teen Age Dance

The very popular "Fugitives" from "The Hideout", will play for the opening Teen Age Dance in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, on Saturday evening, September 26, at 8:30 o'clock.

Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth

Youth Council, under the direction of Pierce Junior High School teacher, Bill Jones, this dance is open to all Pointe teenagers in grades 9-12 of the public, private and parochial schools.

When the "Fugitives" are taking breaks, dancing will continue to records. Admission which includes the cost of refreshments, is $1 per person, (couples only).

This is the first Youth Council effort under the direction of its new officers, Craig Dykster, president; Scott Tily, vice-president; Sue Hinks, secretary; and Bill Swan, treasurer.

Dress will be casual, and even though the night should be warm air conditioning will make it comfortable for all.

Colwell-Zaun Vows Exchange Friday

Newlyweds Residing in Detroit; Bride Wears Sister's Wedding Gown of Lace-Trimmed Antique Taffeta With Pearl and Crystal Accents

For the second time, Dr. Allan Zaun, pastor of Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, invited his congregation to attend the wedding of one of his daughters.

Dr. Zaun escorted his daughter, Victoria, down the aisle to her bridegroom, Barry Thomas Colwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Colwell of Detroit, last Friday evening.

The bride chose to wear her sister's wedding gown of antique taffeta, trimmed with Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. Named for two queens, Victoria Elizabeth wore an English crown of seed pearls and crystals, from which fell an illusion veil.

Her bouquet of Eucharis lilies and Italian ivy was flown from the home of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

Andrea Zaun was her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Mrs. David R. Wallace, of Memphis, Tenn., was her matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Tracy Huestis, Barbara Purdy and Tracy King, of Katonah, N.Y.

The attendants wore floor length rudy peau de soie sheath gowns, with bouffant overskirts. Their headpieces were fashioned of matching illusion veiling with bows of pink velvet, and they carried cascades of Elegance carnations, ivy and pink velvet ribbon.

Donald W. Colwell was his brother's best man. Ushers were Roy Barry, Donald Carman, Roger Ekstrom, Donald Mitchell, Gene Parks and David Plawchan.

Dr. and Mrs. Zaun, of Westchester road, greeted their guests at a reception in the Church dining room. Mrs. Zaun wore a Burgundy silk sheath, with a small matching contour hat and veil.

Mrs. Colwell chose a pink silk linen dress and jacket, with a pink velvet bow headpiece.

After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds are at home in Detroit, where both are resuming their studies. Mr. Colwell plans to finish his work in electrical engineering at Wayne State University.

The new Mrs. Colwell will be practicing teaching in Detroit, in conjunction with the University of Michigan.

E. Mcl. Wiener Claims Bride

Karen Landgraff Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrd Fischer, of Jenkintown, Pa., was married Saturday to Edward McIntosh (Mackie) Wiener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Loder Wiener, of Woodland place.

The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Albert F. Fischer, Jr., uncle of the bride, and the Reverend Louis Fifer IV in All Hallows Church, Wyncote, Pa. A reception at Lulu Temple Country Club followed the rites.

Carol Fischer served as her sister's maid of honor, and attendants were Gail Tichenor, Dawn Tichenor, Marianne Marshall, Sandra Willaman, Priscilla McVey and flower girl Mindy Tichenor.

Alexander Loder Wiener, Jr., was his brother's best man. Ushering were William Kirtz, II, John Byrd Fischer, Jr., brother of the bride, Paul Henry Bringer, Robert Roy Johnson, James Montgomery Stewart and Daniel Webster Goodenough.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will make their home in Bronxville, N.Y.

Ballet Classes Now Forming

The Center's Ballet Troupe is enrolling this weekend with its director Mary Ellen Cooper. Enrollment hours are 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. this Friday, September 18 and from 9:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 19.

The Troupe is open to beginners age 5. Older students are accepted through their teens. There is also a special class for adults.

Miss Cooper would appreciate seeing all her prospective students during one of the enrollment periods even though the student has been a member of the Ballet Troupe before. She likes to be sure that people are grouped properly according to age and skill. She wishes to limit the size of classes and she likes to get all clerical work out of the way.

All Miss Cooper's ballet students learn the basic movements of traditional Italian ballet. Rhythm, balance, poise and grace are stressed. All classes are accompanied by Miss Cooper's mother a former concert pianist.

At the conclusion of the ballet season all members of the Troupe, which usually numbers from 100 to 125, are given parts in a production presented in the Fries Auditorium.

Most young people who take Miss Cooper's classes do so simply to acquire a sureness of carriage and a certain amount of grace. Few expect to become professional ballerinas, though many of her former students have been successful in this field.

Miss Cooper is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. She has taught at the Center for the past 10 years in addition to teaching in Los Angeles and San Francisco. All her choreography is original and her evenings of ballet are all completely designed and directed by her. The Center's ballet classes take place in the Recreation Room and are offered in series on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays after regular school and both mornings and afternoons on Saturdays.

The terms are 12 weeks each and the tuition is $21.60 for students up to 10 and $24 for older students. The adult class is given for the same fee and is scheduled for Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Barry T. Colwell

VICTORIA ELIZABETH ZAUN, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Allan Zaun, of Westchester road, was married Friday evening in her father's Church, Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian, to Mr. Colwell, son of the Wallace Colwells, of Detroit.

Church to Hold Rummage Sale

"Something Old, Something New" — white elephants and real bargains galore will feature the twenty-third annual Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Rummage Sale at the church October 9 and 10.

Mrs. William Frederick is chairman of the sale and Mrs. Richard F. Fernstrum is co-chairman.

The Women's Association of the church organizes and sponsors the sale annually. Years of experience and many valued rummage sources make this sale one of the largest in the Detroit area. Chairmen report an unusually large supply of varied merchandise on hand — merchandise which each year runs the gamut from antiques to zithers.

The many departments at the sale include: Jewelry, Mrs. Glenn Himmelsbaugh; Lingerie, Mrs. Cecil Finerty; Linens, Mrs. Richard Piper; Furniture, Mrs. Clarence Anderson; Housewares, Mrs. Alexander Gill and Mrs. Robert Ebersole; Men's Wear, Mrs. Benjamin Thomas; Hats and Purse, Mrs. James Fournier; Women's Wear, Mrs. Frank Kaufman; Infants' Wear, Mrs. Paula Russell; Shoes, Mrs. Wainwright Taylor; Toys, Mrs. Stanley Maples; Books, Mrs. William Hill; Electrical Equipment, Mrs. Robert Goodhand; Children's Wear, Mrs. Kenneth Holsopple; Quality Shop, Mrs. William Stepke.

Delta Zeta Alumnae To Meet on Sept. 24

The Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of Delta Zeta Alumnae will hold the first meeting of the year on Thursday, September 24, at 8 p.m. in the lounge of the Dearborn Youth Center.

The program will be presented by Mrs. L. M. Gilewicz, president of the Detroit Delta Zeta Alumnae. Her talk, "Cincinnati Capers" will deal with the sorority's national convention held earlier this summer.

A lively coffee hour is planned in order to welcome new area Delta Zeta alumnae as well as the 1964 graduates, who have been invited as special guests.

In addition to Mrs. Gilewicz, who resides in Allard Road, other area members planning to attend are Mrs. William Kamm, Vernier; Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, Rednor circle; Mrs. Philip Ramsdell, Meadow lane; and Mrs. Norman P. Lasca, Fisher road.

Risdon-Richards Rites Revealed

In Christ Church, Cranbrook, Saturday afternoon, Charles Roland Risdon, III, son of Mrs. James F. Daly, of Dearborn, and Charles R. Risdon, Jr., of Ridge road, claimed Betty Ann Richards as his bride.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Richards, of Bloomfield Hills. The Reverend Robert P. Patterson officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was followed by a buffet reception at the Birmingham Country Club.

The bride's gown of cameo peau de soie was fashioned with a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace. Frosted crystals defined her Empire waistline, and her detachable chiffon train was court length.

An Elizabethan coif bow centered with orange blossoms and crystals held her petal tiered bouffant veil. She carried a cascade of lilies, stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Susan J. Richards served as her sister's maid of honor, in a floor length jacket dress of mauve pink velveteen, featuring a modified bell shaped skirt. Her headpiece was a double tiered Dior bow, and she carried a cascade of Burgundy frosted grapes, with ivy.

Dressed identically in Burgundy velveteen, carrying mauve pink frosted grapes with ivy, were the bridesmaids, Kay I. Thompson, Ann L. Davies, Mrs. Richard W. Wiley and Mrs. Larry W. Adderley.

Russell W. Risdon was his brother's best man. Ushering were Thomas J. Weldon, of New York City, Ronald L. Tomlinson, of Chicago, Mario F. Jacobelli and Joseph E. Risdon, Jr.

AAUW Slates Fall Meetings

Members of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women are being polled by the association's Legislative Study group to determine their views on various federal legislative programs.

A report on the poll will be submitted to the association's national Legislative Program committee which will correlate it with similar polls from other branches throughout the country. The findings will influence the position taken on these issues by the AAUW national organization. The poll includes questions on such subjects as home rule for District of Columbia, educational policies, foreign policy, discrimination against women, health and welfare programs and federal housing.

The Legislative Study group will meet Thursday, September 24, at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Albert D. Conkey, 802 Pemberton, to study the poll. Anyone interested is urged to attend. Copies of the poll may be obtained from the Legislative Study group chairman, Mrs. Lee Johnson, 885-0959.

Members attending the first general meeting of the fall, a get-together-coffee, today, September 17, are urged to bring used books and old hobby magazines for the Used Book sale scheduled for November 17-18. The coffee will be from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Conkey. Prospective new members wishing to attend should call Mrs. Urban Borech, 886-4692.

An introduction to the year's intensive study of the short story as an art form and as a reflection of literary movements and culture will be presented at the first meeting of the Contemporary Literature group Tuesday, September 22, at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Duenweg, 1111 Devonshire. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Ritter Newell and Mrs. Edward Trowbridge. The program will be presented by Mrs. Burke Arhart, Mrs. Robert Bogan, and Mrs. Kenneth Cook.

The Children's Theater committee will meet Wednesday, September 23, to launch the ticket-selling campaign for the production of "Little Red Riding Hood" scheduled for Saturday, October 24, at Pierce Junior High School. The meeting is at the home of Mrs. David D. Howell, 1842 Norwood drive. Children's Theater chairman, at 8:30 p.m.

The Studio Arts group (ceramics) will meet Thursday, September 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kimble, 557 Fisher.

Tentative Schedule For Today

Some dates, like people, tend to collect parties. Take today, Thursday, September 17...

One might—if one so minded—begin activities in the morning, at 11 o'clock (time for an 8:30 hair appointment), at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, where the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is presenting its first luncheon-fashion show on the current season.

After the business meeting, a bite of lunch and a peek at the Ruth Joyce clothes, one might jump in a car dash to the Detroit Institute of Arts, arriving in time for dessert in the Rivera Court, scene of the first in the fall series of Businessmen's Luncheons sponsored by the Founders Society.

Enrico Donati, noted artist from New York, is pledged to complete his program at the Art Institute by 1:55—leaving a full free hour before Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart's meeting and tea begins back in The Pointe, at the Provençal road home of Mrs. Hugo S. Higbie.

And after the tea... one might go home, pop a few TV dinners in the oven, tell the family to pull them out when ready—and fall into bed!

"Strip" For Charity

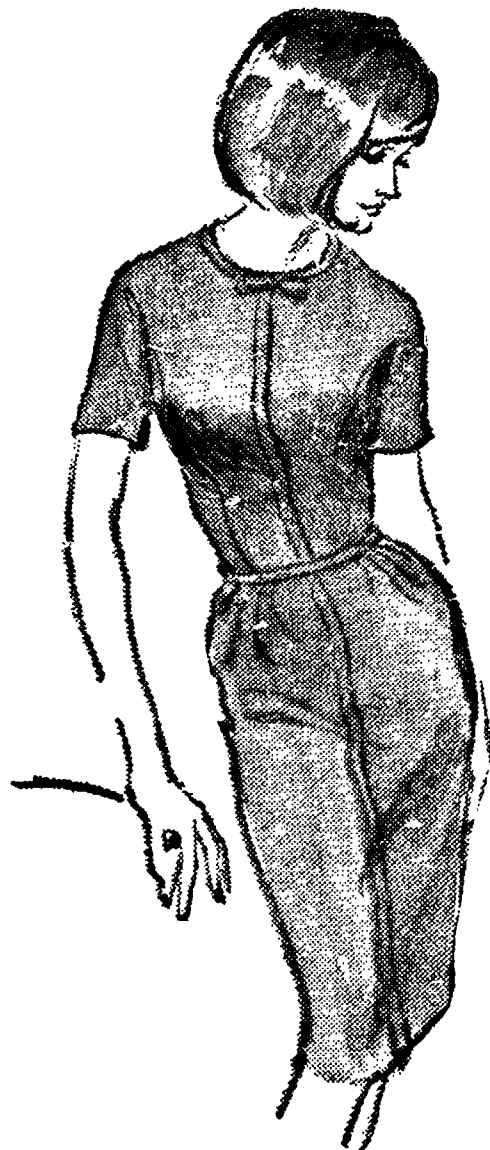

A tea with an unusual twist will be sponsored by the Detroit Memorial Hospital Auxiliary next Thursday afternoon, September 24. Hostess and chairman of the affair is Mrs. Frank B. Walker, of Nottingham road.

Auxiliary members of the South Macomb Hospital unit and the Detroit Memorial Hospital unit have been invited to come wearing several layers of clothing, which they will donate to the auxiliary's Thrift Sale, to be held October 9.

The lady who "takes off" the most apparel, hats, jewelry and what-have-you will receive a prize.

Alencon Lace Appliques Accent Bride's Gown; Pair To Live In East Lansing, Where Both Will Pursue Studies At MSU

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Maurer, III, left by jet for a week in Las Vegas, Nev., after their Saturday morning wedding, in Old Saint Mary's Church, Detroit, followed by a noon champagne brunch at the Detroit Yacht Club for the wedding party, and an afternoon reception at the Lakepointe avenue home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monroe Huber.

In Old St. Mary's Church Saturday morning ANN MARIE HUBER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monroe Huber, of Lakepointe avenue, was married to Mr. Maurer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Maurer Jr., of Detroit.

For her marriage, the former Ann Marie Huber chose a floor length sheath gown of chiffon over taffeta, fashioned with a panel train, long princess sleeves and Sabrina neckline, accented with Alencon lace appliques.
Her mantilla veil was edged with matching Alencon lace, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white Pinocchio mums, glamelias and ivy. Maid of honor JoAnne McAleer wore an afternoon dress of olive green chiffon and taffeta, with detachable long sleeves, and a matching pill box hat.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Angela Maurer, the bridegroom's sister; Sally Dusseau, of East Lansing; and Sandra Scalzo, of Niagara Falls, N.Y. They carried cascades of rust and gold mums and ivy. Stephen Maurer served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Maurer, Jr., of Detroit. Ushering were David and Michael Maurer, two other brothers; Lawrence Cavanaugh, Victor Doherty and Charles Huber, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Huber chose a beige crepe sheath with appliques of matching Chantilly lace. Her accessories were beige, and she pinned a rust-colored glamelia to her purse.

Mrs. Maurer wore a mint green afternoon dress with matching accessories, and a shoulder corsage of green cymbidium orchids.
The newlyweds will stop briefly in Chicago before they

Society Plans For Rose Show

The first fall meeting of the Detroit Rose Society will be held on Friday, September 18, at 8 p.m. in the WWJ Auditorium, West Lafayette at Second Avenue.

The most popular flower grown in the Detroit area today is the rose. If you can grow them, you can show them.

In preparation for the fall rose show to be held September 26, 27, the entire September 18 meeting of the Detroit Rose Society will be devoted to the art of showing roses.

Joseph Nufer, chairman of the show, will review the schedule, outline the rules and explain the awards.

Many, many trophies, cups, medals and ribbons are offered in the competition each year.

Mrs. Edward Katuski, experienced rose exhibitor, will give a talk on "Tips to Exhibitors." Mrs. Katuski will explain how to groom a Rose for the show as well as unusual and interesting tips on Miniature Roses. She will also talk on disbud-ding, when to pick the bloom, and how to preserve it.

Mrs. Bruce Romant, nationally known flower arranger, will explain and demonstrate the arrangement section of the show. She will not only explain the schedule, but give practical tips and a demonstration on Rose arrangements.

All meetings of the Detroit Rose Society are free and the public is invited to attend.

return to Michigan. They will make their home in East Lansing, where Mr. Maurer will work toward his Ph.D. in Business Administration and Mrs. Maurer will study for her Bachelor of Arts degree in the College of Communication Arts at Michigan State University.

her 25 and October 2. Destination? Cranbrook's Greek Theater, where Clifford West is presenting a series of films on the sculpture and architecture of the Renaissance.

Shot in Italy a year ago by Mr. and Mrs. West, (Mrs. West is the former Eleanor Ford Torrey), the eight films will be shown in groups of four. September 25's program includes The Cathedral and Baptistery of Florence, The Florentine Workshop of the Pietre Dure, The Davids of Florence and Michelangelo's Medici Chapel.

The October 2 schedule will feature Florentine Architecture of the Renaissance, Siena, The Basilica of St. Lorenzo and The Cantoria of Luca della Robbia.

The entire festival is being presented by the Kings-wood's Scholarship Fund. Pointers working on the project include Mrs. William C. Beardslee, Mrs. John Posselius and Mrs. D. Valley Stutt, as well as Mrs. Peter C. Higbie, who is the person to contact, at TUXedo 4-9430, for tickets.

Fall Tourists

Mrs. Louis Stuhldreher and her daughter Bonnie, of Lochmoor boulevard, are enjoying their first European vacation.

The pair left last Friday; they will return to The Pointe in mid-October, after country-hopping, by air, all over the Continent. England, Germany, France, Italy and Switzerland are on their itinerary.

Mr. Lippincott Weds in East

In Christ Church, Hamilton, Mass., Nancy Jaques, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jaques, Jr., of Wrentham, Mass. became the bride of David Hall Lippincott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Lippincott, of Winnetka, Ill., formerly of Grosse Pointe. The Rev. James R. Whittemore officiated at the Sunday afternoon ceremony.

Given away by her father, the former Miss Jaques wore a gown fashioned of heirloom satin. Her heirloom veil was trimmed with Alencon lace and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stepanotis.

The attendants included Maria Lowell Gallagher, maid of honor, and Mrs. Herbert Jaques, III, Nancy M. Wilde, Polly Townsend, Pauline P. Marean, Jean F. McLean and Mrs. George J. Wade, bridesmaids. Anna P. Jones was flower girl.

In dresses of coral silk organza over silk crepe, the bridesmaids' bouquets were of white carnations and tea roses. Anna Jones carried carnations and tea roses also, and wore an embroidered frock of peach organdie with matching head band.

Thomas Trowbridge, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass., was best man for the bridegroom. Users were Herbert Jaques, III and William Jaques, brothers of the bride, and Norman B. Cromartie, Ned A. Longson, Harvey Brickley, and James Glenn. Following the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Cambridge, Mass.

Newlywed Noblitts Traveling In South

Glenda Ellen Fouch Wears Peau de Soie and Lace Gown For Rites Saturday, In Grosse Pointe Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodson Noblitt, Jr., will make their home in Bedford road when they return from their wedding tour of the Southern United States. The pair was married Saturday evening, at a candlelight ceremony in Grosse Pointe Baptist Church. The bride is the former Glenda Ellen Fouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fouch, of Fleetwood drive. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Noblitt, of Vernier road. For her marriage, the former Miss Fouch wore a peau de soie gown styled with a bodice of French Chantilly lace and a chapel train. Her bouffant illusion veil fell from a pearl crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy. In floor length frocks of shocking pink linen, fashioned with Empire waistlines, were the attendants. Gail Fouch, who served as her sister's maid of honor, Jean Childers, cousin of the bride, and Ann Lynn Stimpson, of Lapeer, Mich., the bride's former roommate at Central Michigan University. Their headpieces were Dior bows, and they carried Colonial bouquets of cranberry carnations. Douglas Williams served as best man. Ushers were Alvin Mielke, Jr., and Norman Wolfe. For her daughter's wedding and the reception in the Crystal Room of The Whittier, Mrs.

Gretchen Shortz Wed In Florida

St. Helen's Catholic Church in Vero Beach, Fla., was the setting for the July 25 marriage of Gretchen Shortz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Shortz, of Vero Beach, formerly of Grosse Pointe, to James E. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Thomas, of Grosse Pointe Farms. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the double-ring ceremony. For her wedding, the former Miss Shortz chose a gown of white silk organza over taffeta with a bodice of rose-petal lace and modified bell shaped skirt, accented by a chapel train. Her illusion veil fell from a matching silk organza rose with forehead pendants of pearls. She carried a cascade of white Cattleya orchids and stephanotis. Matron of honor Mrs. Gerald Kent Shortz, of Selma, Ala., wore a silk sheath of Schiaparelli pink. She carried a crescent of American Beauty rose buds, which were used in her coronet headpiece. Serving as best man was Richard Adams of Grosse Pointe and Cincinnati. The guests were seated by Stephen Keller of Los Gatos, Cal., and the brothers of the bride, Roger Shortz, of Vero Beach, and Dr. Gerald Kent Shortz, of Selma. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shortz chose a beaded light beige silk sheath. Mrs. Thomas wore a Dior blue linen sheath with an over-blouse trimmed in Alencon lace. Following their stay in Jamaica, the couple returned to Michigan and are residing in St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. William W. Noblitt, Jr.

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday in Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, GLENDA ELLEN FOUCH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fouch, of Fleetwood drive, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Noblitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Noblitt, of Vernier road.

Woods Church Group to Meet

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will have its first fall luncheon meeting at the church at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 22. The program for the day will be under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Miller, chairman of the World Service Department. The devotions will be given by Mrs. Chalmers Zech, who will present a musical meditation. Mrs. Robert Bachelder, Secretary of the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations for the Detroit Presbytery, will speak on "The Fellowship of the Least Coin." Mrs. Andrew F. Rauth, wife of the minister of the Church, will relate and share experiences of the trip to Europe from which she and her husband recently returned. The Summer Medical Offering will be dedicated at this meeting and there will be a display of the mission sewing completed this year. Tickets for the luncheon are $1.25 and reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Frederick Olmsted, TU 4-4534. The usery will be available for preschool children.

Children's Theater Needs More Boys

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater, under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Reynolds, last weekend opened their doors to new membership. Both the beginning group for ages 7 through 10, and the advanced group for older boys and girls are well filled as far as girls are concerned but more boys are needed in each group. It is hoped that any interested young chaps will apply this coming Saturday at the Center between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. The Children's Theater is far from a sissy affair. Many of its graduates have gone onto successful roles in radio and TV. Besides the field of acting, there is a lot of opportunity to get a working knowledge of stage lighting, set building, managing and directing. For those who do wish to perform, a male member of the Children's Theater is always sure to get a role and the chance to perform on the stage of the new Fries Auditorium. Membership in the Children's Theater is $36 a season, which includes the presentation of both straight drama and musicals.

Austin Mothers Meet For Tea

The Board of Directors of Austin Catholic Preparatory School for Boys' Mothers' Club held its annual tea for freshman mothers Wednesday afternoon, September 9, at the Washington road home of Mrs. David Turner. The tea table theme was carried out with yellow tapers in crystal hurricane lamps and matching floral centerpiece. Freshman mothers were greeted by Mrs. Joseph Price, president of the Mothers Club, Board members and faculty.

Garden Group Meets Sept. 23

The first meeting of the Garden Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday, September 23, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sidney DeBoer of Belanger road. Her co-hostess for the day will be Mrs. R. W. Lang. Speaker, Mrs. John Veech, will give members of the group an opportunity to learn how a flower show is judged with "Evaluation of a Flower Show" as her topic.

Plan Pre-Sale To Aid Society

Opening her home on Tuesday, September 22, from 10-2 o'clock for the Christ Child Society Pre-Sale is Mrs. William Hosbein, of 591 Sheldon road. All items which will be available at the regular October 22 fair, may be bought or ordered at the Pre-Sale.

Miss LeGro Is Married

Mrs. Young LeGro, of Lakeland avenue, announces the April marriage of her daughter, Catherine Joan, to Eric Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schneider, of Roslyn road. The new Mrs. Schneider is also the daughter of the late F. Filer LeGro.

Church Women Slate Meeting

The Evening Group of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will meet for dinner on Tuesday evening, September 22, at 6:30 o'clock, in Fellowship Hall. The devotions will be given by Miss Anne Seeley. Mrs. F. S. Robinson will present a book review of the "Life of Albert Schweitzer." Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Robert J. Conway, chairman, Mrs. John Finch, Mrs. A. F. Lecklider, Mrs. Ralph Ranney, and Mrs. Isabel Thomas.

Paul J. Slimko To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kovalesky, of Detroit, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Stella A. Kovalesky, to Paul J. Slimko, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Slimko, of North Brys drive. The bride-elect attended the Art School of the Society of Arts and Crafts, and is currently studying oil paintings at Pyramid Art School. Her fiance served in the United States Navy, where he studied electronics. The couple plans a February 11 wedding, after which they will make their home in Kauai, Hawaii. Count your friends, but don't count too much on them.

Dance Classes Open to Boys

Ted and Lillian Forrest's several ballroom dancing classes, scheduled at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this fall, beginning today, are nearly full as far as enrollment of girls goes. However, to have properly balanced classes, there are still a number of openings for young men. The Forrests are especially good with boys since they are the parents of four husky young males themselves, whom the frequently conscript as partners in their classes. Ted Forrest is a former Naval officer and as such appreciates the need for courtesy. He stresses rules of behavior in all the classes. This does not mean that the young people don't have a good time. They literally have a "ball" learning the latest dance crazes as well as the traditional steps. Everybody is invited to a big party at the end of the season given in the Center's Crystal Ballroom where there are games and refreshments and favors in addition to dancing. The fee for a series of the Forrest classes is $15 for 15 lessons. There are classes for age groups between grades 5 and 9.

Chevrolet Unveils 45 New Models-20 Sport Cars

CORVETTE STING RAY SPORT COUPE: The only American-built production sports car featuring powerful new disc brakes on all four wheels as standard equipment, smoother hood and "floating" grille styling with functional front fender louvers. Available in both the Sport Coupe and Convertible models. A fiberglass hardtop is optional at no extra cost in place of the convertible folding top. Eight power teams for the Corvette offer V8's up to a high of 375 horsepower.

CORVAIR MONZA SEDANS are related, but their appearance is decidedly changed in 1965, for the first time since 1959 body design of the 1964 Monza 4-door Sedan (top) poses in sharp contrast to the smooth, continental flowing lines of the 1965 Monza Sport Sedan. The new sedan is 3 inches longer, slightly lower and over 2 inches wider. The new Corvair offers more interior roominess and an array of mechanical innovations.

CORVAIR CORSA SPORT COUPE: Smart all-new continental styling. For the first time since its introduction in 1959, body lines of Chevrolet's rear-engine car have been completely changed. The Corsa Sport Coupe (above) and the Convertible lead the 1965 Corvair series, followed by the Monza Sport Coupe, Sport Sedan, Convertible and two "500" models.

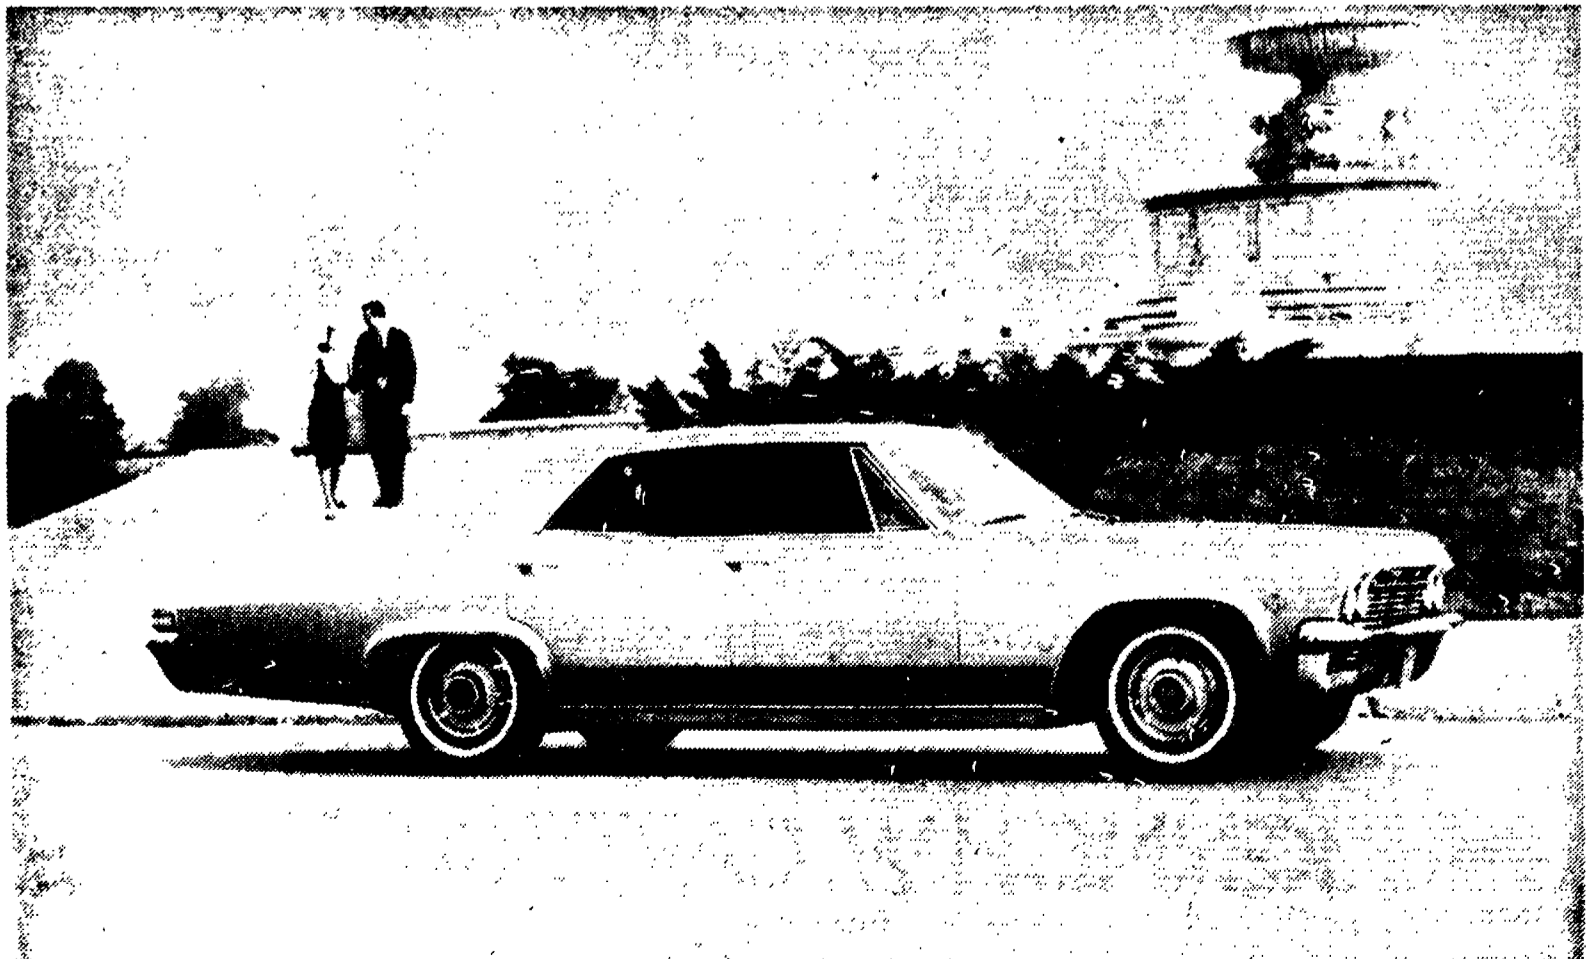

CHEVY II NOVA SUPER SPORT COUPE: New styling refinements include new grille with single headlamp design, distinctive new roof and rear window design on sedan models. Wide range of optional power, six power plants. Horsepower range is from 90 to 300, and three transmissions available. Total number of power teams offered is 15. Sport Coupe height is 54 inches. Chevy II available in 7 models in 3 series.

CHEVY II NOVA SUPER SPORT COUPE: Boasts a new grille and single-unit headlight styling, front bucket seats, special instrumentation and smart new interiors. The Chevy II's 7 models are offered in 3 series. Three standard engines plus an optional six and two V8's complete the lineup of power teams for the Chevy II.

CHEVELLE MALIBU SUPER SPORT COUPE: Refinements include new front end, restyled taillights, curved body side-glass and luxurious interiors. The Chevelle line has been expanded to 12 models including a new economy series. New Chevrolet-built passenger cars will go on display September 24 in dealer showrooms.

CHEVROLET IMPALA SPORT SEDAN: Impressive smooth-flowing lines of the all new body, simulated wood paneling on the completely new Impala instrument panel, new easier-operating safety door-latches. A new wide-stance chassis design contributes to a steadier and more stable ride.

CHEVROLET IMPALA SPORT COUPE: New flowing lines, new roominess and a distinctive profile. Stylish roof lines and curved side windows blend with the gracefully contoured rear quarter panels. The new Impala Convertible features an inward folding top with tempered glass rear window. Available in 15 models in 4 series.

FARMS

FIRST OFFERING, fine location, owner transferred. Three-year old Colonial built by one of the Pointe's best known builders and maintained by one of the Pointe's most meticulous owners. White vinyl entrance hall enhanced by carriage lamps, large but charming living room, warm cherry paneled library, lovely wool carpeting and decorator draperies, an all-electric kitchen, 2 1/2 baths, attached 2 car garage all make this house a home. The yard is 80' wide, fenced, and the brick patio well shaded, the school district is perfect and the price is surprising.

WOODS

580 HAWTHORNE — Truly a home that will lend itself to many family situations. Two twin-sized bedrooms and bath down, large living room, formal dining room, small den and enclosed porch with fireplace—perfect for any couple. Upstairs, if you have a family, is one huge bedroom plus dormitory space and lavatory easily convertible to full bath. Beautiful lot and in perfect condition. See for yourself today—$34,500.

776 HAMPTON—4 bedroom, 2 bath Colonial loaded with charm and carpeted throughout. Look forward to late spring and a heated swimming pool nestled under sprawling trees. In the meantime, keep the children close to home where they can skate all winter and move inside to enjoy a hot refreshment in the adjacent paneled games room.

PARK

573 PEMBERTON — Built in 1956. A residence for the executive who needs a smaller home but who must retain that certain quality of gracious living. A living room spacious enough to hold large scale furniture, a large paneled library ample enough to house cherished book collections and overlooking a well landscaped yard, three large bedrooms, 2 full baths and a paneled office and bath in the basement. For the small boat owner, perfect winter storage in the specially built attached garage.

EXACTLY FITS the description outlined by so many of today's home buyers—Colonial architecture, approximately ten years old, four bedrooms, at least two and a half baths, large family room, and in "the right location." On a limited access street in the Shores. $50,000.

"Politeness is an easy virtue, costs little, and has great selling power."

DON'T DESPAIR. We are offering today's home buyer a three bedroom house on Mt. Vernon, complete with two full baths and that "must" room . . . the family room. Almost an impossible house to find for the head of household who must stay in the twenty-thousand dollar range. Present owner has recently purchased another property.

MAY WE BE a bit presumptuous in asking if you like to reveal in the luxury of large rooms which have been masterfully decorated; to lounge in your large bedroom with a fire crackling in the fireplace? Do you insist on the privacy of a large yet tree secluded garden, and the intimacy of a warmly paneled library? Must you have quarters for stay-in-help or just the rooms which you know are there for visiting family and brood? If you can project yourself into this picture, then let us "introduce" you to the house that makes all this possible.

IF YOU ARE one who has often driven by one of the few, jewel box French houses with their charming Mansard roofs, which are attractively scattered throughout The Pointe. If you have said to yourself, "Why doesn't that house ever go on the market?" If this be your idea of "creme de la creme." Then ring us up and we'll show you this petite palace. The perfect small house with elbow room.

FAR MORE is offered in this ranch home on Fairway Drive, than is available in other homes in its price class. For less than forty thousand dollars you can buy a three-bedroom, single floor house with one and a half baths and large family room. The basement is full, and divided with large playroom and storage rooms. Kept in beautiful condition so that all the house requires is your furniture.

LARGE ENGLISH Tudor with bedrooms and baths for family and a Scout troop. Rambling floor plan with several extra rooms to retreat into and escape the children. Fabulous kitchen with all built-ins, most of which have been duplicated. Priced at a pittance of original cost.

ANOTHER English house with the perfect layout for a growing family, is offered on Bishop Road. Six bedrooms, with almost as many baths on the second floor. Generous proportioned rooms throughout, yet not overwhelming to maintain. Priced in the low forties.

EXACTLY FITS the description outlined by so many of today's home buyers—Colonial architecture, approximately ten years old, four bedrooms, at least two and a half baths, large family room, and in "the right location." On a limited access street in the Shores. $50,000.

Fall Color Tour Service Offered To assure visitors where and when the Michigan fall colors are at their best, a personalized fall color tour reporting service will again be available this year, according to William T. McGraw, Michigan Tourist Council director. The service, instituted 10 years ago, advises individuals requesting the information when colors are best for viewing in various regions of the state. The foliage normally begins to change in September in the upper peninsula, then gradually spreads downward to southern Michigan in early October and continuing throughout the month. Persons wishing to be advised on Michigan's fall show may receive the free service by contacting the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 48926.

Headline of the Week

(Continued from Page 1) Barwich, an Eastern German nuclear physicist long associated with Soviet research, has been granted asylum in the United States. Deputy director of the Joint Nuclear Research Institute at Dubna, Russiak until this year, Prof. Barwich requested political asylum early this month from American authorities.

Saturday, September 12 THE SECOND Vatican (Ecumenical) Council opens for its third, and perhaps final session in Rome tomorrow. Questions facing the Council are: how radical should be its program for internal renewal and reform, how must it conduct itself in ecumenical dialogue with the other Christian churches long separated from it, and what does it see as the proper posture for a Christian living in today's society? The Council Fathers must decide just how far they intend to carry out the famous process of aggiornamento, or updating the Church, set by John XXIII as the Council's basic goal.

CONCLUDING his nine-state campaign, Sen. Barry Goldwater appeared "surprised," "elated," and convinced of a "grassroots enthusiasm" for his candidacy. At his final stop in Oregon, Illinois, he told a crowd of howling partisans that he was looking forward to "a real big boobo" on the part of pollsters Nov. 9. Meanwhile the Johnson campaign relaxed, although he prepared to hit hard at "Goldwater-Republican extremism" when he flies West this week.

BRITISH JET planes hunted down Indonesian guerrillas on the Malay Peninsula. In the event that more Indonesian attacks take place, officials said that London is ready to expand the war in retaliation. Although "Britain has been in very close touch with its Malaysian, American, Australian and New Zealand allies," no unilateral action will be taken.

Sunday, September 13 THE STRONGHOLD in Saigon held by Rebel troops appeared weakened as it became apparent that the bid for power of Brig. Gen. Lan Van Phat had failed. Khanh's regime was said to be still supported by a radio station in government hands. Washington officials said that the U.S. "fully supports" Khanh's government.

UN HELICOPTERS bringing two tons of emergency rations

Tuesday, September 15 SPEAKING BEFORE THE Economic Club in Detroit yesterday, Secretary of State, Dean Rusk, said that the course in Vietnam is difficult and costly in lives, money and resources. He added, "It taxes our ingenuity and tries our patience, but it is the policy of wisdom and, from the UN's own food stocks, landed in the village of Kokkina, Turkish Cypriot leaders announced UN statements that they had refused to aid Kokkina from their own food stores, and complained that the airlift was not sufficient to ease near starvation in other nearby villages.

PICKING UP intensity, tropical storm Dora headed out to sea. The storm, almost blown out in Florida, gained new momentum over Georgia. Meanwhile, Hurricane Ethel touched Bermuda with 100 m.p.h. winds and then headed northeast. Another storm, Gladys formed yesterday about 1,250 miles east-southeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Monday, September 14 A BID FOR POWER by Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat in South Vietnam apparently failed Sunday. Troops loyal to Premier Nguyen Khanh were reported to have crushed the rebel forces. Khanh returned to Saigon from Dalat where he had fled to the mountain resort under protection of a loyal air force unit. The rebels were led by army officers who had been blacklisted by Buddhists.

TROPICAL STORM DORA picked up intensity that could make it a hurricane again as it headed out to sea. The storm had almost blown itself out over Northwest Florida but gained new force over Georgia. Meanwhile hurricane Ethel brushed Bermuda with winds that gusted to 100 mph and then swung northeast and tropical storm Gladys formed Sunday about 1,250 miles east-southeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico. It was moving west-northwest with top winds of 70 mph.

AMERICAN MOTORS President Roy Abernathy said at a weekend press showing in Fontana, Wis. of the company's 1965 models that the American motorists want more luxury and performance, but in a trimmer, more efficient package. He also said that the 1965 Rambler was designed to fulfill this buying trend and he set a target of 580,000 sales for the car.

Capt. F. C. Greiling Completes Course

Capt. Frederick C. Greiling, whose wife, Franziska, lives at 533 Lincoln road, completed a six-week army medical officer basic course at the Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., September 11.

During the course Captain Greiling received instruction in clinical procedures in the treatment of battle injuries, care of combat exhaustion and preventive techniques to detect health hazards and avoid epidemics.

His father, Chester A. Greiling, also lives at 533 Lincoln road.

SENATE LIBERALS OF both parties neared final agreement last night on a compromise resolution that could break the stalemate over apportionment of state legislatures. If the agreement is reached, the Administration will have a chance of defeating a proposal by Senator Everett Dirksen to postpone until Jan. 1, 1966, further compliance with the Supreme Court ruling that districts of both houses in state legislatures must be substantially equal.

who, where and whatnot

by wbonzit

Although the name has been changed (for obvious reasons), the following is a TRUE story . . . the Grosse Pointe NEWS, as does just about every other daily-weekly-monthly paper in the United States, maintains a circulation check, sending out reminders to ladies and gentlemen whose subscription are about to "run out." Free of charge, we mail slips advising our patrons that their subscriptions are "about to expire," "are expiring," and "have expired," (eventually, we DO give up!). Recently, Circulation was appalled to receive a returned reminder, in a plain envelope, with neither note of explanation nor renewal check. Addressed to "Mrs. John Jones," the slip informed her that "Your subscription has expired." Mystified, Circulation turned over the reminder card. On the back, someone had penciled neatly, "So has Mrs. Jones!"

Footnote to the wedding of Victoria Elizabeth Zaun, who became the bride of Barry Thomas Colwell last Friday . . . Vicky, a real Navy Junior, is among the few babies ever to have been born at the hospital of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, where her father served as one of the Chaplains. Appropriately, the Navy Hymn was among the musical selections she chose for her marriage ceremony.

Spotted one hot Sunday morning in late summer . . . Mr. and Mrs. Otis U. Walker, of Balfour road, enjoying ice cream cones on an almost-deserted "Village" sidewalk.

The most protected . . . fig in town, belongs to inveterate gardener Mrs. Clifford B. Loranger, of Lakeshore road. Gifted with a fig tree, Mrs. Loranger pampered the plant until, this year, it produced three figs—two of which were consumed by gourmet squirrels, who took dainty bites but left the bulk of the fruit to rot on the ground. Mrs. Loranger determined to save the remaining fig—at least until her up-coming garden club exhibition. The idea of maintaining a "round-the-clock watch on the fig tree she discarded as impractical. Instead, Mrs. L. made a sort of "fig guard" (we would be willing to bet it is the only one of its kind in existence) out of nylon mesh, perfect for keeping squirrels out and letting sunshine in. When last we heard, the fig was doing well . . .

Faithful friends . . . Penny Bedwell, Laurie Cook and Barb Flintermann have a great deal in common—they are the same age (18), classmates at Grosse Pointe High School (June '64 graduates) and even share the same birthday (April 27). But this fall, Alas!, the trio will be separated. Penny and Laurie are off to the University of Michigan, while Barb will pursue her studies at William Woods College, Fulton, Mo. The three girls are already making plans for a holiday reunion.

Before the leaves begin to fall . . . we plan to take one last look at the magnificent weeping willow on the lawn of the Percival Dodge residence in Dyar lane. Like liquid shade, the Dodge tree was the most cooling sight imaginable on a hot summer afternoon.

PILFERINGS

In the early days, people were flabbergasted when somebody drove 15 miles per hour . . . they still are. —Changing Times

Sign on the rear bumper of a "compact car:" Go around, not over.

The family was on a motor trip in Canada. Driving down a hill into one town, they saw a church with several silvered spires pointing at the sky.

"Oh, boy!" shouted the four-year-old in the back seat, "Cape Kennedy!"

The self-respect of French headwaiters has become proverbial: Most of them would rather die than make a retort to an ill-bred customer.

Something seemed to snap, however, in one Parisian professional who had been given a particularly bad time by an uncouth diner.

"My position, sir," the headwaiter said acidly, "does not permit me to argue with you. But if it came to a choice of weapons, I would choose grammar!"

Mother had just finished a lecture on the subject of Linda's naughty behavior. "Now tell me, dear," she concluded, "Where do bad little girls go?"

Linda smiled mischievously. "EVERYWHERE!" she said. —Coronet

MRS. LEE CARRICK, OF LAKE SHORE LANE

By Anne Boynton

The life of a painting from palette to wall can be a long, hard road, especially when the artist went all the way to Haiti to get her inspiration. But for Mrs. Lee Carrick, the often repeated trek has been a successful and happy one.

In addition to the many paintings Mrs. Carrick has finished and hung as a result of her ventures are many more artifacts and cherished mementos which she and her husband have collected in their dozen trips to Haiti. There is the huge bin of authentic musical instruments sitting in the living room—hand painted maracas, bongos, a finger piano, a Voodoo drum, and a bacin. Then there are the three magnificent mahogany pieces obtained through a friend who has a mahogany factory on the island; a totem pole statue for burning incense, and two fierce masks. An especially rare ladle, one of two in the world, is another of the Carricks' Haitian wonders. It is carved of taveno wood, a hard wood unlike mahogany, unique because it can be washed.

Make Stunning Feature
But Mrs. Carrick's paintings and others which she has artfully grouped with them, are her home's most attractive and indeed stunning feature. The arrangement over the piano in the living room contains many of her works.

"One is a rather muted oil of an ancient citadel done in what is called limited palette. "When you first look at it," Mrs. Carrick, (who likes only to be called Jo), said, "it appears to contain only two or three colors. But the more you look at it, the more colors come through."

Another, a bright-colored silk screen in the hallway, is a picture of a Haitian cuckoo house. Actually, it isn't a true silk screen, Mrs. C. explained. "It is an individual painting. The color was put on first and then printed over."

On the opposite wall is a mosaic which Mrs. Carrick designed symbolizing the many different religions in Haiti. It depicts the Anglican, Catholic, and bonnet-type churches, plus a fortress, cross, and "Dambala", the Voodoo snake god.

Still another painting, done mostly in beautiful harmonizing shades of blue and green ("I like any colors, as long as they're blue and green," the black haired artist confessed), is a portrait of Pam Walsh, a local and very talented sculptress, which Mrs. Carrick will give to Pam in exchange for one of her sculptures. In the rather large oil, Mrs. Carrick has Pam sculpting, a natural thing for both the subject to be doing and hence the artist to be posing. For in her portraits, considered by many of her art buff friends to be her most outstanding work, Mrs. C. feels very strongly that the subject should be doing something typical, something in which he is either interested or proficient.

Has Definite Ideas
"For instance," she said, "a child should be pictured skipping rope and a lawyer at his desk amid his law books."

A good portrait should be a good painting," she went on, "it should have life. A camera can take merely a picture, better and cheaper."

Two recent endeavors, both religiously significant, are titled "Crime Against Man" and "One World". The first, a protest picture, symbolizes man's crime as a ruined church. "One World" is symbolic of all the world's religions.

Though the Carrick home is now full of all these paintings, Mrs. Carrick really didn't begin painting until quite late in life. Her interest in art seeded itself when she was a young girl, but only in the form of sketching sculptures.

Later, she began drawing at Saturday afternoon classes at the Art Institute. From Cass Technical High School she enrolled at Arts and Crafts. Afterwards, she worked at Doner and Co. in Detroit as a commercial artist, and then at Kern's as a fashion artist. During the war, she tried her hand at animated cartooning, drawing the backgrounds for training films on survival techniques for Jam Handy. Only when she quit working as a commercial artist did she take her first painting lesson—at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Praises Center Classes
"I learned more at the War Memorial than at any art school," she said.

Nevertheless, Mrs. C. believes firmly in art school for anyone who really wants to make art a career. She feels that some artists have neither the time, temperament, nor money for college, and that art school, instead, offers the ideal and most practical training. She is of the opinion, however, that college is a must for anyone who wants to teach art.

Mrs. C. also has definite convictions on art and artists in general. She asserts that an artist is an especially sensitive person who sees and experiences things much differently than does the average observer. Yet she doesn't think that artists are different in the way some people do. "I get mad at people who label artists as kooky, or immoral," she said.

She also maintains that paintings should stimulate some kind of emotional reaction, be it laughter, crying, or whatever.

"Too many people buy a painting as a color accent for a room," she said, "not because the painting does something for them." Furthermore, she continued, when they do buy a painting, it's liable to be any old thing. "They'll pay a thousand dollars for carpeting, and eight hundred dollars for a sofa, then go out and purchase a $16.95 painting to slap on the wall. A cheap painting downgrades a whole room," she said.

They Have To Know

On abstract art, Mrs. Carrick confessed that people can appreciate it without knowing about it, but that they can't understand it without some background of knowledge.

Two of her most interesting experiences painting happened at the Eastern Market and in a downtown slum.

At the Eastern Market, soon after setting up their easels and getting situated, Mrs. Carrick and a friend were approached by a vendor and asked if they wouldn't like a larger and more comfortable spot in which to paint. Declining, the ladies were then told to tell someone as soon as they wished to go to lunch, and their supplies would be carefully put away and watched until they came back. Appreciating, but not quite understanding this especially friendly treatment, they returned and began setting up once again. In a little while they were addressed by another vendor who wandered up. He asked if they might like to come down the street to paint. "It's a lot more colorful down there," he urged. Declining again, they still couldn't quite understand this whole-hearted interest in two women painting some vegetables. However, the hospitable offers soon explained themselves when the women found out that business at the stall of the first vendor had increased 60 percent since their arrival.

The second incident occurred as a result of her painting in the slum. Mrs. Carrick was sketching a mattress hanging out of a window in some rundown apartment building, when all of a sudden a woman popped her head out of the window and shouted, "Say, dearie, can't you find anything better to paint than this crummy neighborhood?"

But whatever Mrs. Carrick

BEAN SALAD
Contributed by Mrs. George Brooks

Cook until tender but not mushy, 2 1/2 cups dried northern beans. Drain them and save juice. Combine in bowl:

- 1 clove garlic
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. black pepper
- 2 tsp. chopped parsley
- 1/4 cup chopped onions
- 3/4 cup bean liquid
- 1/8 cup wine vinegar

Crush garlic and combine salt. Add pepper, parsley, onions, bean liquid and vinegar. Blend liquid mixture thoroughly and add to beans. Toss lightly together and let stand several hours in refrigerator. Serves 4.
