A COURAGEOUS teenager from a children's home was pulled from a cave near Medina, Ohio, Wednesday after spending 26 hours wedged head-first in a downward slanting tunnel. Morris Baetzold, 15, was on an excursion with other children from the Methodist Home for Emotionally Disturbed Children in Berea when he wriggled into the cave. A rescue team of government specialists, firemen, state police and medical workers watched Morris pulled to safety on a board after he was sprayed with water and glycerine to reduce friction and tugged partway from the tunnel by a harness a small Boy Scout had secured around his legs.

STATE REPRESENTATIVES Thursday passed bills that will grant a state-paid rebate for renters over 65 and possibly lower tolls on the Mackinac bridge. The rebate would provide an estimated 60,000 elderly renters yearly checks averaging $93, beginning in the spring of 1967, and is a companion to the senior citizens property tax program approved in April. Tough going was anticipated for the bill to refinance the Mackinac bridge, however, in the Senate. It would replace present bonds financing the $100 million bridge with lower-interest State-backed bonds.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON walked less than five hours after the removal of his gallbladder and a kidney stone Friday. The operation was described as a complete success, and Presidential Press Secretary Bill Moyers reported within three hours of the operation that Johnson was ready to make any presidential decisions that might be necessary.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S office will investigate inspectors' complaints that many elevator safety tests do not meet the requirements of state law, it was promised Saturday. The state's chief inspector, Howard J. Carpenter, of Detroit, has been accused by five state-licensed inspectors of approving tests that fail to check an elevator's weight capacity, and of refusing to enforce inspectors' orders for correction of elevator defects.

CUBAN EXILES rushing to get-pass diplomatic red tape in getting their relatives out of Cuba landed at least four small boats on the island over the weekend, and Cuban officials reported that more were on the way. Castro officials were apparently cooperating with the rescuers' efforts, providing free food, lodging, and gasoline. All of the exiles arriving in Cuba said they had left the United States illegally, but had met no interference.

A UNITED AUTO WORKERS spokesman announced Monday that the union is willing to back a slate of four Negroes and five white liberals in order to avoid a racial breach in the Common Council election. If agreed to by Negro ministers, the UAW would drop Louis C. Miriani and Philip J. Van Antwerp from the present endorsed slate of candidates. Meanwhile, the Citizens Committee on Equal Opportunity Monday urged white voters to give Negro candidates for the Council a fair chance. In a statement made public by Episcopal Bishop Richard Emrich, chairman, the committee said it was "candidly alarmed" by polls showing whites are not supporting Negro candidates for office, and asserted "The Common Council (should) . . . represent in its members the total interests of all the citizens of the entire city." Observers said the Rev. Nicholas Hood stands highest among Negro candidates on political polls and is most likely to profit from the announcement.

Hospital, City Officials Hold Discussions

Seek Amicable Solution To Problem Created By Institution's Plans To Enlarge

Representatives of Bon Secours Hospital met Monday evening, October 11, with the City Manager and Council of the City of Grosse Pointe to discuss possible modifications in the hospital's proposed building plans.

The meeting was part of the effort being made to arrive at a solution which might make it possible for the hospital to expand its bed capacity and related facilities while still meeting other community needs, and taking into account interests of the neighboring property owners.

Several suggestions have been taken under advisement by both city and hospital officials. Should a satisfactory result appear likely, the city officials want it clearly understood that no final action will be taken without first holding a public hearing with the due notice being given to all interested persons.

CAR ABANDONED

Police Friday afternoon, October 8, received a report of an abandoned car parked on St. Clair near Jefferson. Officers who examined the car, a white '57 or '58 Dodge convertible with black top, said it appeared to have been stripped and bore no license. An investigation is pending.

Catch Teeners Harassing Elderly Woman in Village

An incident of the kind of juvenile disorderliness police are campaigning against occurred Wednesday afternoon, October 6, at Kresge's in the Village, when four teenage boys harassed a 79-year-old woman who had just been released from the hospital. The boys, 14 and 15 years old, are all Grosse Pointe residents.

Mrs. Burnetia Hayes, 714 Neff, told police investigating the incident that she was in the Kresge store Wednesday about 4:30 p.m. when one of the boys deliberately bumped her. She then went to another store, she said, and when she returned to her car the four boys were sitting on the fender. When she asked them to leave, one of the boys repeated her request in a sarcastic manner. Next, the four began tampering with the

Teens' Halloween Parties Planned by Adults, Students For Saturday, October 30

Four School Buildings to Be Settings For Annual Celebrations of Holiday; Wide Variety Of Entertainment Offered

Grosse Pointe teens can anticipate a real swingin' time on Halloween even, October 30. Parties will be held simultaneously at Grosse Pointe High School, Pierce, Brownell and Parcels Junior Highs. These affairs, which feature dance bands, movies, and refreshments, are planned and executed by a committee of students and community citizens, chaired by Forest Geary, director of Community Services for the Grosse Pointe schools.

Community Halloween parties have been given yearly since 1938, and Mr. Geary has been the chairman for 23 of those years. Other officers for 1965 include Arthur Louwers, vice-chairman; Mrs. Kennard Jones, secretary; and Arthur Dannecker, treasurer.

Other adult members of the committee include: Miss Muriel Brook and Mrs. Henry Vaughn, representing Grosse Pointe University School; Craig Marks, William Christofferson and Neil J. Curtis, representing Brownell Junior High School; Mrs. Albert McKay, Pierce Junior High; George F. Curran, Parcels PTA; Henry Kinzie, Grosse Pointe High School Dads' Club; Mrs. Marshall Bruce, St. Clare School; Mrs. Lloyd Davis, American Association of University Women; John Lake, Grosse Pointe War Memorial; Richard Beach, Kiwanis Club; Ed Krattli, Neighborhood Club; Mrs. Oscar E. Keller, Ladies Auxiliary, V.F.W.; and from the Police Department—Andrew C. Teetaert, G. P. City; George LaForest, G. P. Shores; Ignatius Backman, G. P. Farms; and Allen Andrews, G. P. Woods.

A committee of students met to make suggestions on entertainment that they would like at the Halloween party. They included: Kris Thompson, Gigi Graham, Sue Schueler, Steve May, Laurie Elmer, Steve Maun, JoAnn Kinner, James Zokem, Toni Truesdell, Russ Nutter, Kathy Jens, Steve Bowles, Mary Miouczynski and Kathy Brennan.

Tickets purchased in advance of October 30 are 25 cents, and will be available in the schools next week. At the door admission is 50 cents, so it pays to plan ahead to take part in the Halloween fun! Donations from residents or merchants who would like to support the party will be welcome, and should be sent to the treasurer, Arthur Dannecker, at 1931 Lennon.

Woods Council Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Woods City Council was held Monday evening, October 4.

Among matters discussed was a letter from the "Union for Public Employees," the AFSCME, which stated that a majority of City employees had designated that union as its bargaining agent and requested negotiations on employment conditions "as soon as possible."

The "majority" mentioned was exclusive of police, fire, and supervisory employees. The letter was found in error, however. Office workers stated that they had not voted on union representation, and DPW workers were thus the only ones officially favoring it.

City Administrator Chester Andersen was instructed to inform the Union of this fact.

The Council also approved the placing of a traffic light at the corner of Vernier road and Christine court. The light was requested in a petition to the Council, with signatures representing 10 residences attached.

STARTING TACKLE

Joseph Reed, 6'2", 220 lb. sophomore from Grosse Pointe has been elevated to the position of right tackle on the starting offensive line of the Albion College Britons. Reed is a 1964 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

Fund Started In Honor of Roland Gray

Committee Setting Up Organization; Community Shocked By His Sudden Death

Plans to establish a Roland H. Gray Memorial Fund were being formulated shortly after his sudden death last Friday afternoon shocked the entire community. Wide interest has been evinced even before details for the project could be worked out. A committee has been formed and is expected to hold a first meeting tonight, Thursday.

A fatal heart attack was suffered by Mr. Gray at his home at 432 Calvin road. He had told friends the day before that he has made an appointment for a physical checkup, but was apparently not seriously worried about his health. He was eating luncheon at his home when the attack came. The Farms police were called, but he was dead on arrival at Cottage Hospital.

Born in England

Mr. Gray, 57, was born in Torquay, England, and came to this country with his family when he was seven years old. His father and grandfather were both tennis professionals and he followed in their tradition. He taught in Germantown, Pa., and Toledo, O. before coming to Grosse Pointe. He served as professional at the Country Club of Detroit from 1929 to 1947, when he resigned to open Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop at 106 Kercheval avenue.

During much of this period he also taught badminton and supervised classes for adults in this sport at Grosse Pointe High School.

The family home is at 432 Calvin avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms. Survivors include his widow, Lillian; a son, Roland H. Jr., of Baltimore, Md.; two daughters, Mrs. Herbert Kenz of Kalamazoo, and Mrs. George Bangs of Wilmette, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Traynor of New Jersey, Mrs. Harrison Edsel and Mrs. Wayne Jones, both of Pennsylvania; and 15 grandchildren.

Gave Body to Wayne

Mr. Gray had directed that his body be given to Wayne State University's Medical School. Memorial services were held Monday morning in the Verheyden Funeral Home, attended by an overflow representation of residents from every walk of life. Msgr. Frank J. McPhillips of St. Paul's Church officiated.

Live Wires Trap GPHS Students; Power Disrupted

Defective Pin on Pole at Rear of 38 McKinley Is Cause of Trouble; Edison Personnel Complete Repairs In Four Hours

Nearly 3,000 Grosse Pointe High School students were prevented from leaving the high school building on Thursday, October 7, when live electric wires fell over the cyclone chain fence around the school's parking lot. A five-block area was without power for four hours before repairs were made.

A Detroit Edison official said the trouble originated in the rear of 38 McKinley, when a defective pin on a pole caused a live wire to fall against others at the cross bar at the top of the pole, at 12:03 p.m.

The Farms Police and Fire Departments received more than a dozen calls from residents in the area, who saw the arcing wires. No one was reported injured.

Area Blacked Out

The downed wires knocked out electric power in a five-block area bounded by McKinley place, Edgemere, Grosse Pointe boulevard, and Lake Shore drive. Arcing wires fell in Pine court, near the boulevard, but no one ventured outdoors to get a closer look.

Edison repairmen instructed police to prevent High School students from leaving the school building. The instructions were relayed to Jerry Gerich, principal of the High School.

Gerich ordered all students to remain in the building until police indicated that it would be safe for them to leave. There were no students outside the building when the wires fell.

Orderly Evacuation

When the power in the lines were cut off by repairmen, Gerich ordered the students dismissed for the rest of the day, and the pupils were allowed to leave at 10-minute intervals.

The principal said that there was no excessive absenteeism on Friday, October 8, even though school officials could not tell students at the time of their dismissal whether the building would be open on that day.

Gerich praised the action of policemen and firemen who were at the scene of the fallen wires.

Backing Driver Hits Two Cars

Two parked cars were struck Monday afternoon, October 4, in front of Silloway & Co., 16825 Kercheval, when Patricia Kuhn, 19259 Linville, mistakenly put her car into reverse when attempting to pull away from a parking space.

Her car struck one owned by Lucille Johnson, 3629 Woodhall in Detroit, pushing that car back into one belonging to George Lennox, 8621 Corona, Denver, Col.

Police issued the driver a reckless driving ticket.

BLOOD DRIVE FRIDAY

The next Grosse Pointe bloodmobile is scheduled for Friday, October 15, at the Calvin United Presbyterian Church, 6125 Cadieux, between the hours of 2 and 8 p.m. For your appointment, call LA. 7-9823.

Car Hit at Intersection Takes Path of Destruction

Park police charged a 70-year-old motorist with pulling in front of moving traffic and causing an accident in which a woman driver lost control of her car and crashed into a garage and damaged another automobile.

Charged with the violation is Solomon P. Vasil of 4861 Audubon, Detroit, who police said was traveling north on Three Mile drive, and drove out into the Charlevoix intersection, causing Bertha B. Vinson, 38, of 3499 Mack avenue, Detroit, to sideswipe Vasil's car, as she tried to avoid a collision.

After striking the left side of the man's vehicle, Mrs. Vinson lost control of her automobile, which skidded a few feet, leaped over the curb, plowed over the lawn and through the hedge of 1405 Three Mile drive,

November 18 Election Day For Teachers

Two Groups Battle to Obtain Sole Bargaining Power; About 350 Eligible to Vote

Teachers will vote at the Wicking Library of Grosse Pointe High School and at Parcels Junior High School on Thursday, November 18, to decide who will be the sole negotiating agent for the certificated, contractual, non-supervisory employees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The polls will be open from 3:15 to 6:30 for the approximately 530 teachers eligible to vote.

The ballot will offer three choices: the Grosse Pointe Education Association (MEA-NEA); the Grosse Pointe Local 819 of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), or no sole bargaining agent.

These provisions and other ground rules were settled last Friday, October 8, at a three-hour informal hearing at the Labor Mediation Board's Detroit office.

Three interested parties appeared at the hearing—the Grosse Pointe Education Association (MEA-NEA), whose filing of a petition brought about the hearing; the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the employer; and the Grosse Pointe Local 819 of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), who appeared as an intervenor.

Present at the meeting were Lawrence Kennedy, Director of Professional Personnel, and Thomas Coulter, attorney, for the Board of Education; Dr. William Sosnowsky, Virginia Downs, John Schwan, Erwin Ellman, attorney, and Dan Manthe, MEA field service representative, for the Grosse Pointe Education Association; Alexander Essaiades, Milton Riggs, Robert Welch, Bernie Feiger, attorney, and Pat Quinn, MFT organizer, for the Grosse Pointe Local 819 of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO). Robert Blackwell, mediator, chaired the meeting.

In the early part of the hearing a new ruling by the Labor Mediation Board was announced: to wit, that an intervenor, in order to challenge a petitioner, would be required to make a 30 percent showing of interest in the bargaining group. The 10 percent showing (Continued on Page 2)

Cut Down 102 More Trees Since August

All Pointes Except Shores Have Received Final Reports From Lansing Regarding Elms From Having Dutch Elm Blight

All the Pointes except the Shores, have received a complete and final report from the State Agriculture Department in Lansing, on samples of elm trees suspected of having Dutch Elm Disease. The final analysis resulted in the removal of an additional 102 elms, making the total loss this year 699, the worst in the Pointe's history.

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis said that there was no further report of elm loss in the community, and that no final report has yet been received from Lansing on samples sent for analysis. He claimed that the total loss for the Village this year is still eight publicly-owned elms, and 20 privately-owned, the same figures given early in August. No trees have been removed since.

The eight public trees included four removed from Lake Shore, a Wayne County road, Jefferis pointed out at the time.

The Park, Farms and Woods lost additional trees, as a result of analyses of samples, whereas the City's loss showed negative on all samples, according to City Manager John Cantwell.

The City has held the status quo on losses, which still remains at 49 elms lost to the dread blight, 22 on public property, and 27 on private land.

The final report for the Park, meant the city had to remove an additional 59 more trees, 28 public, and 31 private, making the total loss this year 46 public and 114 private, as compared to figures given in August, according to City Manager Robert Slone.

In the Farms, Public Service Director John DeFoe said that of the many samples sent to Lansing, 19 trees were found to be diseased, and these were removed immediately. Of this figure, one was on public property, and 18 were on private property, making the total loss this year, 14 public, and 68 private elms.

All Are Cut Down

DeFoe said that all trees cut down, were diseased, and the total figure does not include already dead trees condemned by the State and removed without delay. There were two dead trees removed from public land, and 14 from private, he added.

In August, the Woods, which suffered the greatest loss of elms in the Pointe this year, listed a total of 216 elms removed because of the disease, and when the final analysis report dispatched from Lansing, the city was forced to remove 24 more, according to Anthony Guaresimo, assistant superintendent of the Woods Highway Department.

Guaresimo said that of the 216 elms reported lost earlier, the figure included 60 diseased and non-diseased trees that were cut down in a full block of vacant property to make way for a subdivision development.

He said that the 24 additional elms removed were on private property, making the total loss of privately-owned trees, 181. The public tree loss this year is set at 59.

All Pointe officials stated that diseased and dead elms were removed and disposed of without any delay as a sanitation measure to help combat the spread of the Dutch Elm Disease.

Owners of trees on private property cooperated fully in the removal of the trees, the officials added.

VANDALS CHASED

Two teenage boys tore the house number sign from the tree in front of the Charles Whitney residence, 341 Lakeland, Tuesday night, October 5, according to a report made to police. Mr. Whitney said he chased the boys on foot south to Jefferson, but they were gone when police arrived.

Election Day

of interest, previously required of an intervenor, would now allow participation only as an observer at an informal hearing and assure a place on the ballot.

Ask Ruling Waived

The GPEA requested that the ruling be waived in this case because Local 819 threatened to take the ruling to court. Litigation would have delayed the consent election and shortened this year's negotiation period with the Board of Education.

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has about 585 certificated, contractual employees. Law prescribes that supervisors cannot participate in a consent election. A major portion of the meeting was spent arriving at an agreement as to who would be disqualified from participation in the campaign and voting because of supervisory responsibilities.

Early in the negotiations, the 35 people who are on the administrative salary schedule were declared ineligible. The GPEA was able to preserve the voting rights of all elementary school First Assistants but two who also serve as Instructional Specialists. The Federation steadfastly maintained that the Public Librarians and School Nurses did not have a community of interest with the bargaining unit and caused their exclusion. About 530 qualified voters remained.

Date Is Negotiated

The Federation stated that it wanted the election on December 10. Mediator Blackwell announced that the Labor Mediation Board could provide personnel for conducting the election as soon as October 22, 26, or 27. After much negotiation, with the GPEA seeking the earliest possible date, November 18 was selected for the consent election.

The Federation wanted one polling place—the High School—while the GPEA desired several polling places and, at one point, suggested the use of a mobile unit to take the polls to as many teachers as possible. The issue was compromised with the agreement to establish two polling places, one in the Wicking Library of the Grosse Pointe High School and the second at Parcels Junior High School.

The Board of Education offered to close school at 2:30 on election day to allow teachers to vote, but the Federation vetoed this. The time for voting was set as 3:15 to 7 p.m.

WINDSHIELD BROKEN

James Cole, 17, of 21175 Kenmore, Harper Woods, an employe of a gas station at Mack and Moross, parked his car in the Sears parking lot across the street. On returning to the car, he discovered someone had smashed the windshield with an unknown object. He made a formal complaint to Farms police on Sunday, October 10.

Nab Teeners In Village

When Fritz entered the store after the boys, he said, two women shoppers told him the four had just gone out the rear door, almost knocking them to the floor as they ran past. By this time Patr. Plumb had the boys in his car, and on Fritz' instructions took them to the station. It was then that Mrs. Hayes, who was still in her car, caught Fritz' attention and told him what had happened.

All of the boys were issued Ordinance Violation notices for Disorderly Persons.

Farms Submits Building Report

The number of construction permits issued in the Farms during the nine months of 1965 was less than in 1964, yet the value of this year's buildings exceeds that of the same period last year by more than $339,000, according to a monthly report received from John A. DeFoe, public service director, for the month of September.

The total number of building permits approved from January 1 through September 30, was 87, worth a total of $1,348,300. This figure does not include the only non-assessable construction approved so far this year, valued at $170,138.

From January 1 through September 30, 1964, the Farms Building Department granted a total of 97 permits, for constructions valued at a total of $1,008,950. There were no applications for non-assessable or commercial building permits during this period.

During the nine months of 1965, permits for residential construction totaled 19, worth $1,071,000; one commercial, valued at $45,000; and 67 miscellaneous permits, valued at $232,300.

During the same period in 1964, a total of 16 residential permits were granted to develop property valued at a total of $708,000; no commercial permits, and 81 miscellaneous, worth $300,950.

Last month, the Building Department okayed permits for three residences valued at a total of $225,000; no business permits; and 11 for miscellaneous construction, valued at $53,550.

For the same period in 1964, one permit was approved for a home valued at $44,000; no commercial permits; and four miscellaneous permits for building worth a total of $300,950.

The residential permits approved last month were for a $65,000 home at 33 Kerby court; a $60,000 home at 27 Preston place; and a $100,000 home at 324 Provencal road.

include: — Frank Boyer, Shepherd Norton, John Sweeney, David Whitney, Cleveland Thurber, Ed Lauer, Ed Snell and Henry Bodman, II. It is expected that the first meeting will be devoted to incorporating the fund, following which steps will be taken to have it recognized by the Internal Revenue Department as a tax deductible organization. It is likely that officers will also be elected. It is reported the fund will be administered by the Trust Department of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company.

Plans for the fund were discussed with members of the Gray family early this week.

Many persons are said to have already called committee members asking where donations can be sent. They have been told to wait until the organization was set up. All necessary information is expected to be available for publishing in next week's issue of this paper.

DONATION APPROVED

The Park council expressed its willingness to do its share in helping to keep Halloween mischief at a minimum, when it approved a donation of $100 to the Grosse Pointe Halloween Committee to help defray expenses for the 26th annual party to be held later this month. The donation was approved on Monday, October 11.

Park to Have Brighter Alleys

The Detroit Edison company will install 105 modern Mercury Vapor lights in every alley in the Park, to be solely paid for by the firm. The go-ahead to install the lights was given by the Park council on Monday, October 11.

City Manager Robert Slone told the council that Edison personnel have already completed a study of the new lighting system and have set the cost, and since the council approved the alley lighting program, the firm is prepared to begin work immediately.

It was pointed out that the company will install the new lights on existing poles, with a complete change made from the present incandescent street lights, which, it was also pointed out, are now obsolete, and eventually will be eliminated as a major means of illumination, as was the candle.

Slone told the council that Edison could install new incandescent lights at a much cheaper cost, but since this form of lighting will eventually be eliminated, it would be to the advantage of the community if Mercury Vapor lights replaced the present outmoded lighting.

He said that the present cost per light is a service fee of $42 a year, charged by the company, whereas, the Mercury Vapor light charge a year would be an estimated $57, less three per cent.

The city manager said that the company would give the Park the benefit of a lower rate, if the annual fee should drop.

Slone said that some alleys will have three lights, depending on the spacing, and the length of the alley. He said that the lights will be spaced approximately 250 feet apart.

He said that the annual service fee to the city is estimated at $5,805, as compared to $4,278 for incandescent lights used in the alleys at the present time.

Councilman William Oddy voted to retain the present lighting system, but lost out. Favoring the new lights were Mayor Matthews Patterson, and Councilmen Charles Ives, William Luedders, Robert Hutton, John Doelle and George Verdonckt.

Foolish Driver Invites Trouble

Frank B. Barrows, 17, of 278 McMillan, will have to go to court on Wednesday, October 27 to answer charges on two counts of traffic violation. He is scheduled to appear before Farms Municipal Judge Grant E. Armstrong.

Farms Patrolman Francois Belanger, while on routine patrol at 8:15 p.m., on Thursday, October 7, observed a station wagon parked illegally across the sidewalk at the northeast corner of Fisher, at Kercheval.

The officer stated in a report that as he was about to park his scout car to investigate, a young man emerged from the drug store at Kercheval and Fisher, got into the station wagon and started to drive north on Fisher. Belanger stopped the driver, and asked for identification.

The policeman said Barrows gave his name, and when asked for his operator's license, was unable to produce it, stating he did not have it on his person at the time. At the station, this was proved true because Barrows' license had been suspended by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

It also was found that young Barrows was wanted on a Farms warrant for another traffic violation.

Belanger gave Barrows a violation ticket for illegally parking a car across a sidewalk, and another for driving a motor vehicle while his license was suspended.

Barrows posted bond of $25 cash, pending his appearance in court.

Charlevoix Traffic Relief Asked by Park Residents

A group of citizens residing in Charlevoix avenue and in Bishop road, approached the Park council on Monday, October 11, for action toward alleviating the heavy vehicular traffic traveling on Charlevoix.

Dr. Arthur B. Eisenbrey of 1386 Bishop, spokesman for the citizens group, claimed that traffic on the avenue was extremely heavy during the early morning and late afternoon hours, when people go to and from work, and asked the council to seek some form of relief for the residents of the area. He suggested that traffic diverters be installed, which would force traffic to use the other major streets, Mack, Vernor, Kercheval and Jefferson.

The doctor claimed that he is unable to sell his house, on the corner of Bishop and Charlevoix, because of the excessive traffic. No one, he said, wants to buy a home in a neighborhood where such a situation exists.

Residents living in the area find it very difficult to drive across Charlevoix during the hours that the avenue is heavily traveled, and school children sometimes must wait a considerable period of time before a gap in the congested traffic gives them a chance to cross the street, it was claimed. Dr. Eisenbrey and the residents who attended the meeting, were informed that a solution to the problem is a difficult thing because Charlevoix is a major thoroughfare.

However, it was disclosed by the council, the City Plan Commission is making a study of the situation, and one recommendation from the commission is that Wayne County be petitioned to widen Mack avenue from Somerset to Cadieux, from four lanes to six lanes.

It was pointed out that Mack, a county thoroughfare, is six lanes all the way through, except between Somerset and Cadieux.

City Manager Robert Slone revealed that there is talk of having present traffic lights synchronized along Charlevoix, and possibly have additional lights installed, as a means of controlling the heavy traffic flow. Traffic engineers are studying the costs of additional lights, he added.

He said that the Plan Commission is going out this afternoon, October 14, to again appraise the problem by watching and counting the cars that travel on Charlevoix, in an attempt to arrive at a solution. A report by the commission will be presented to the council at the earliest possible time, it was said.

Public School Enrollment Outstrips All Predictions

The problems caused by a constantly-increasing school population were brought to the attention of the trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education as they gathered Monday night in the schools' administration building at 389 St. Clair avenue for the regular October meeting.

Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, revealed in his report that last month the total enrollment of the public schools hit a high of 11,863, an increase of 374 students since September of 1964, and 253 more than were enrolled in June of 1965. Dr. Wilson contrasted these most recent figures with earlier predictions. "Members of the Board of Education will recall that at the time of the bond election for Grosse Pointe High School North, a 1960 prediction for our schools' enrollment put our enrollment at 11,325 students this fall, with 14,325 by 1980. The 1965 predicted figure fell 538 short of our actual enrollment this September," he said.

"A second prediction, made at the same time and based on figures developed by the Bureau of Census, called for a school population of 11,740 this September. We exceeded that figure by 123. The ultimate projection based on these statistics calls for 16,003 students in our classes by 1960," the schools' chief executive added.

In other business Thomas Coulter, attorney for the Board of Education, indicated that the date of the collective bargaining election for school personnel has been set for Thursday, November 18. Polling places designated by the Labor Mediation Board at the Wicking Library of Grosse Pointe High School and Parcels Junior High School. Polls in both locations will be open from 3:15 to 6:30 p.m.

The first half-hour of the Board of Education meeting was devoted to a presentation on the improved program of elementary science developed during the past year under the direction of William Arbaugh of the staff of Pierce Junior High School. He and Mrs. Lillian Seegers of Richard, a member of the science committee, outlined advances and improvements incorporated into the new course materials.

Steps in the reorganization of the science program included the adoption of a new series of texts and the preparation of a teacher's manual.

Using the overhead projector, Mr. Arbaugh and Mrs. Seegers spoke on the importance of skills, concepts, and attitudes in developing a scientific attitude on the part of elementary school pupils.

Mr. Arbaugh said that pupils are taught to observe, to measure, to compare, to describe, to analyze and interpret. They learn to infer and hypothesize, to conduct experiments, and to make predictions and applications of the principles observed.

Mrs. Seegers concluded the presentation with a simple demonstration of an experiment used in the early elementary grades. Mrs. Seegers and Mr. Arbaugh were introduced by Dr. H. Leroy Selmer, Assistant Superintendent-in-Instruction, who reviewed briefly the history of the elementary science program in the Grosse Pointe Public School System. He mentioned that when the furor over Sputnik arose eight years ago, Grosse Pointe had just completed a revision of its science program. Dr. Selmer said that it has been improved since, and that the latest curriculum materials will be scrutinized periodically to keep the instructional program in line with advances in the field of science. The meeting, chaired by Edward J. Pongracz, president of the Board of Education, was adjourned at 9 p.m.

Introducing the tuned car. 1966 Buick.

What makes a car a car is styling, performance, ride and handling. Only when they're all tuned together is the car a Buick. Like this 1966 Riviera Gran Sport.

You know how well your car's engine runs after a tuneup? Buick tuning has the same effect on the whole car. Not just the engine. The whole Buick. Everything blends with everything else. Styling. Performance. Ride. Handling. All tuned to work together in harmony. That's what the tuned car is. A Buick. Only Buick is the tuned car. (And every Buick is the tuned car.) What the tuned car is a masterful blending of all the things that make a great car greater. The Riviera for 1966 is the tuned car. It features six-passenger seating, disappearing headlights, a silently efficient new ventilating system and the kind of roadworthiness you'd expect in a car that costs twice as much. (You can get a Riviera for your desk as well as your garage. Send $1 in check or money order to Riviera, P.O. Box 68, Troy, Mich., for an accurate 1/25 scale model '66 Riviera.) But Riviera's not the only tuned car. LeSabre is, too. And Wildcat. Electra 225. Special. Skylark. Sportwagon. See them all at your Buick dealer's. The tuned car may not mean much to you now. But then you haven't had a chance to drive one yet.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

Marital System
Lecture Subject

"Our American marriage, based upon equality, is the best marital system evolved by man so far," So stated Dr. Jesse R. Pitts last week.
Dr. Pitts spoke on the "Strengths and Weaknesses of American Marriage" as the first speaker in a series entitled "The Challenge of Modern Marriage," currently being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

"There have been other good systems," he continued, "but ours is the first to be available to such a broad segment of society. Also, our system provides dignity to the woman."
Dr. Pitts is a professor and chairman of the Department of Sociology at Oakland University.

Pointing out that the highest percentage of marriageable adults are married today, Dr. Pitts stated that the American family has never been as strong as it is today. He feels divorce statistics are misleading for various reasons, among them the fact that so many divorced people remarry.

Dr. Pitts feels the contented housewife must find approval from her husband in four areas: housework, motherhood, her family and sex. The husband's "closed market" consists of fatherhood, occupational achievement, his family and sex.

Several weaknesses of our system were cited by Dr. Pitts, among them the fact that our children are so often isolated from relatives. "They are deprived of other adults with whom they can identify and this places a greater burden on the marriage." He also feels that the American housewife is too isolated from complex human relationship, resulting in a "blandification" of her character.

The series will continue on Tuesday, October 19 at 8 p.m. with a dialogue between Katharine Green, formerly a Wayne County Marriage Counselor, and Esther L. Middlewood, chief of the Education Section of the Michigan Department of Mental Health. The topic will be focused on children and the marriage relationship. For information or reservations call 881-0420.

Men Gardeners Present Awards

At two separate ceremonies on Wednesday, October 6, officers of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe presented awards to students at Richard and Kerby Schools. The occasion was the climax of the seventh summer-long school garden contest in which approximately 300 children received sunflower and zinnia seeds.

Representing the club were the organizers of the contest, J. Edward Schutte second vice-president and board member Harold A. Wiek. In addition president Alfred R. Tapert, treasurer Gilbert Douglas and past-presidents J. Arthur Shimm and Elmore W. Frank attended the ceremonies.

The Kerby School principal, Dr. Custer Homeier, introduced the Grosse Pointe Garden Club officials while at Richard the introductions were shared by temporary president of the Student Council, Ricky Vinci, and the principal Richard W. Kay.

At both schools, Wiek gave a brief talk on the value of gardening to the community and he was followed by a calling of the winners' rolls by Schutte. Frank presented the awards. Altogether 25 members of the Men's Garden Club participated in the contest through their inspections of the children's gardens and the organization of the data.

The DRC Story

SOME OF THE BEST FILMS
YOU CAN SEE ARE OUT AT DRC

The Scientific Touch.
Thoroughbred racing, more than any other sport, has utilized the advances of Science to refine its techniques and modernize its operation. Every idea adopted has been designed to improve the attraction, increase the Fans' pleasure and build greater public confidence.

I have been connected closely with racing from boyhood, and have watched these developments with keen interest. Past and present, they vitally concern our daily operations at the Detroit Race Course.

In my years in racing, I have seen the old web barrier, with the walk-up start (which still is used in Europe), replaced by the highly efficient Starting Gate. I have watched the introduction of the Film Patrol, the Saliva Test, Lip Tattoos for the identification of horses, and the Photo Finish Camera.

Each advance has been of tremendous importance. I think the Photo Finish Camera, however, is the step of greatest interest to the average racing fan. He is aware of its use and its importance every time he visits the DRC or any other major track.

The Photo Finish Camera eliminates the chance of human error in determining the outcome of a race. Its speed is amazing, its accuracy unchallenged.

Within ELEVEN SECONDS after the horses have crossed the Finish Line, the Placing Judges have flashed on a screen a picture which shows the first five finishers in the race.

Jones was one of the two pioneers in this unique field. In the 1930's, James J. Jones

Comparable experiments in the same period were made on the Pacific Coast by Glenn Laird, now President of Confirmation Photos, Inc., whose services are used by many tracks, and an associate, Glen Wilson.

Laird and Wilson developed the idea of photographing the finishes of horse races from an assignment during the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles. Movies they made of the finishes of all Olympic track events planted the idea of doing it for thoroughbred racing.

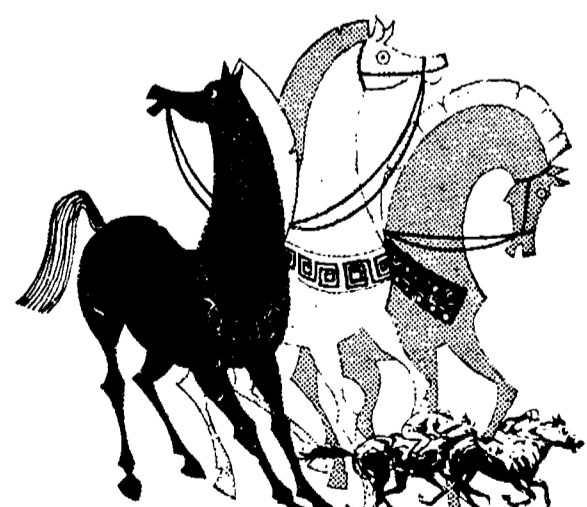

Photo finishes were first introduced at thoroughbred tracks in 1935. Their value was recognized immediately and the acceptance was quick by major tracks.

At the DRC, two Jones Precision Cameras are used on each race. In addition to photographing the actual finish, the cameras also "catch" the horses on a Mirror Image, a feature which is an infallible double check.

The Photo Finish is one of the many "extras" designed to increase your Racing Pleasure at the DRC. We have a new Clubhouse, which is one of the Show Places of the Sports World. There are two excellent dining terrace restaurants, beef buffets and snack bars. We have close-in parking for 12,000 cars.

We will race daily through November 6. I invite you to visit us soon.

Dr. Harry C. Meserve, recently installed minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian church, will be the keynote speaker at a conference in Los Angeles during the week of October 10.

"Man's Ministry to Man" will be the theme of the conference held at the University of California Medical School, with both clergymen and physicians participating.

Dr. Meserve will also lead a workshop and participate in the closing panel during the week-long event.

"Over 75 per cent of Americans who have emotional problems," explained Dr. Meserve, "Discuss them with a physician or a clergyman or both. Hence, there is a real need for us to meet one another, understand one another's language and ways of working, and learn how to cooperate more effectively."

THIEF NOT GREEDY
Bruce Ortenburter, 14, of 2065 Country Club, informed Woods police on Saturday, October 9, that an unknown thief broke into his locker at Parcels Junior High School, and stole $5.50 from his wallet. The thief left him three cents, the teenager said.

Men Gardeners To Hold Banquet

"The Mysterious Island of Yap and its stone money" will be the title of the speech by Rear Admiral Oscar H. Dodson, U.S.N. (Ret.) when he addresses the annual banquet of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe at Stouffers, Eastland, on Thursday, October 21, at 6:30 o'clock.

A life-long student of numismatics, Admiral Dodson was appointed by President Truman to the Annual Assay Commission in 1948. He is the author of "Money Tells the Story" and has published articles on numismatics and international affairs.

In 1959 the State Department sponsored his visit to numismatic groups in Poland and the Soviet Union. This year Admiral Dodson visited the remote island of Yap in the Southwest Pacific Ocean to gather material for a history of Yap Island Stone Money. The Admiral served for four years as president of the American Numismatic Association whose 26,000 members constitute the largest organization of numismatists.

He has appeared frequently on television programs, including the national program "To Tell the Truth" and Detroit's World Adventure Series.

Rear Admiral Dodson was born in Houston, Tex. in 1905. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, the Naval Post-Graduate School and holds a Master's Degree in Russian History from the University of Illinois.

Admiral Dodson spent most of his naval life at sea, serving in battleships, carriers, cruisers, destroyers, and amphibious forces. In World War II he participated in 13 major Pacific engagements, including the battles of Midway, Santa Cruz, Guadalcanal and the Philippine Sea. Plymouth Satellite Sitting around a Plymouth Dealer's showroom isn't exactly the Satellite's idea of excitement.

Give it a go.

Satellite is the spirited new leader of the all-new Plymouth Belvedere line. Standard equipment runs like this: Front bucket seats. Center console with glove box. Special wheel covers with spinner hubs. A padded instrument panel. Variable-speed windshield wipers with windshield washer. Back-up lights. Torsion-bar suspension. A 273-cubic-inch V-8.

Power is a passion with the Satellite. Optional V-8s check in at 318, 361, and 383 cubic inches. That's forceful. And that's Satellite.

Satellite. The top of the Plymouth Belvedere line for '66. The line forms at your Plymouth Dealer's.

Pointe Theater To Give Satire

Rehearsals are underway for "Little Mary Sunshine," the opening production of the Grosse Pointe Theater's 1965-66 season.

Singers, dancers and actors are preparing themselves as red-coated Forest Rangers, demure young ladies and menacing Indians with the knowledge that advance ticket sales for the November performances are already nearing capacity level.

"Little Mary Sunshine" with libretto, music and lyrics by Rick Besoyan is a subtle satire of the sentimental American operettas of yesterday. Show dates are November 12, 13, 14, 18, 19 and 20 at the Fries Auditorium.

Mrs. Haig Avedisian of Bedford road, a newcomer to the Pointe, will be seen in the title role of Little Mary. Ronald Friedrich of Rivard boulevard, vice-president of the group, appears as the bumbling Corporal Billy Jester. Another GPT officer, Ann Young of St. Clair avenue, is combining her duties as secretary with practice of a heavy German accent for her part as Madame Ernestine von Liebedich.

Playing General Oscar Fairfax is Donald Bliss of Ridgmont road, a frequent performer also with Fine Arts Society. Other Pointers in the cast are Thomas Stein of Kenmore road as Fleetfoot and Larry Marco of Emory court as Yellow Feather. Vita Pellegrino, Mrs. Jack Owens, James Harkema and Jack Donachie complete the list of principles.

Assisting director Roger Shepard on the production staff are: Mrs. Donald Brydges, producer; Mrs. Mark Reeve, stage manager; David Hadden, technical director; Dr. John Pericin, musical director; Mrs. Richard Sholtz, choreographer; Justin Parrott, choral director.

The Grosse Pointe Theater's 1965-66 schedule of plays also includes "Inherit the Wind" in January; "My Three Angels" in March and a second musical, "Can Can," in May. Some season tickets are still available for Friday and Sunday performances. Individual tickets for "Little Mary Sunshine," are available for Thursday, November 18.

Write Grosse Pointe Theater, 32 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe Farms, for further ticket information or call 886-1434.

City Residents to Ballot On Local Issues Nov. 2

Grosse Pointe City residents will vote in the General City Election Tuesday, November 2. They will elect a mayor and three Council members and decide whether the City Charter is to be amended to substitute municipal judges for the present justices of the peace.

Residents will also elect county Circuit Court Judges at this time.

The City's Mayor and Councilmen receive no compensation for their services.

Incumbent Mayor David E. Burgess is the only candidate who has filed for the two-year office of mayor. Burgess, who resides at 651 University, is an attorney. He was appointed to the Council in February, 1954, and was elected a Councilman in November, 1959, and again in November, 1963. Burgess has served as Mayor of Grosse Pointe since his election in 1963.

Running for four-year seats on the City Council are three incumbent members and two aspirants, G. Gordon Cook, of 430 Rivard, is the sole incumbent and candidate for Councilman who was elected to the office. He is Assistant Executive Director of the Ford Motor Company's Engineering Staff, and serves as a director of the Grosse Pointe-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority and member of the Employees Retirement Commission. Cook has been a member of the Council since November, 1961.

The other two incumbent candidates, George N. Monro, III and James Morgan Smith, were both appointed to fill vacancies. Monro, who lives at 3 Woodland place, was appointed in February, 1964 to replace E. L. W. Eblestone, whose business kept him away from Grosse Pointe during much of the year.

Smith, of 253 Lakeland, was appointed in May, 1965 to succeed William M. Day, who was also forced to retire by the press of business. Smith is vice-president of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company and also serves as the company's Chief Legal Counsel.

Questions relating to apportionment of the legislature will be discussed this month at the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters unit meetings. Members and interested persons are welcome at any of these study groups.

Hostesses for the meetings are:

St. Paul Holds Homecoming

The celebration of homecoming for St. Paul High School began on Friday evening, October 8, with the homecoming dance sponsored by the cheerleaders.

The dance, with the motif Mad, Mad, World, drew a large crowd of Paulites and their dates. An assortment of pop art and hot pink daisies added to the theme of the dance.

Toward 10 p.m. the members of the football team retired to select a queen from among the members of the court who had already been selected the week before. From the homecoming court which included Patti Crea, Marilyn Fox, Mary Hoffman, Kathy Loeher, and Sue Wright, Patti Crea received the nod and became the queen of the 1965 homecoming.

The traditional kiss from the football captains, Danny Wright and Paul Thoen, completed the investiture ceremony, and Queen Patti reigned amid her homecoming court.

On Sunday, October 10, Patti and her court graced the senior first-place-winning float, a representation of Cleopatra's barge. In second place in the float competition came the juniors with a representation of the three figures in a Blatz beer commercial.

The sophomores came third with a huge washing machine with the caption "Dash for Victory." In fourth place, the freshmen portrayed a huge Jolly Green Giant saying "Ho-Ho-Hold 'em."

Following the Lakers' first victory of the season against St. David's, the school congregated for a victory party in St. Paul's All Purpose Room.

Roland H. Gray... 1908-1965

Roland Gray won't be coming across Kercheval again to pay one of his frequent calls, wearing his funny little shop apron, his glasses, (neck-ribbon attached), perched atop his head. Roland won't physically grace our office with his presence, but his penetrating personality, his compassion, his interest in all things and everybody, his delightful sense of humor, his constant thoughtfulness and his ability to toss the well-deserved barb, formed a combination of talent which will never be forgotten.

Roland died suddenly last Friday afternoon, but individuals with his qualities can never be completely lost to those who had the privilege of knowing them. His influence, his charm, his characteristic comments distilled from experience, remain as a continuing endowment which enriches the lives of all of us who were within the magic circle of his friendship. And the circle has an immense circumference, for his capacity to make friends was immense. Those who attended the memorial service for him Monday morning must have shared our gratitude for the most impressive evidence of the affection he commanded and deserved.

In the more than 30 years of our association it is not only difficult but impossible to recall even a small portion of the movements, projects and personal acts of kindness with which Roland has been associated. We always chided him as being "born tired," but we always knew no one had a better right to be tired. He never turned down a request for help, and they were myriad.

This man will be remembered by an ever-diminishing group as a teacher of badminton classes in the High School 30 years ago. He was tennis professional at the Country Club of Detroit for 19 years and in that capacity was a potent force in molding the character of many of the Pointe's and Detroit's leading citizens of today. He organized the Church Basketball League, conducted uncounted tennis clinics, thought up the annual Mutt Shows which were co-sponsored by this paper and which brought much pleasure to many of all ages. He was one of the pioneers who helped get the Little League started here. He gave unstintingly of his time, day and night, to help the afflicted. He was a volunteer for every movement which offered benefit to a few or many.

Roland often masqueraded behind a simulated gruffness, and he could bluster with the best, but he was unmasked by the imprint of kindness he left in the hearts of all who knew him.

Plans are now underway for the creation of a fund to perpetuate his memory. It is anticipated, and greatly hoped, that many will participate in this project to provide help to worthy youths in the future, carrying on the tradition of helpfulness which was so much a part of Roland's life. While his passing must be considered a tragic loss to the entire community, we should also view it as a reminder of all the good he contributed and his legacy of inspiration to those who follow.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Some months ago, I gave way to a penchant for original, whimsical titles and annotations to well-known classics from all literatures.

Once again I hesitantly offer you a few more such zany contributions. Do you recognize all of them; have you read each and every one?

OH DAD, POOR DAD, MAMA AND UNCLE HAVE DONE YOU IN, I'M HIDIN' IN THE CLOSET AN FEELIN' SO SAD. To a psychotic Dane, something appears to be rotten in the state of Denmark.

SIXTEENTH CENTURY HANDBOOK OF POLITICAL SCIENCE. Machiavellian advice on the acquisition, use and maintenance of political power. FOR WHOM THE BELLE TOILS. Young girl becomes a famous singer under the hypnotic influence of Svengali-like, sinister musician.

TOUJOURS GAL. Jazzed-up free-verse relating adventures of a literary insect and his feline friend. A dictaphone in this case, or a much smaller typewriter, would have been useful, thus taking away the similarity to e.e. cummings.

STOP THE BARGE, I WANT TO GET ON. An Egyptian Elizabeth Taylor is pursued by several top-flight Roman leaders. After many exciting escapades, the heroine succumbs to snakebite.

MARCH IN NEW ENGLAND. Rather than a weather guide or a travel tract, this book relates the vicissitudes of four somewhat impoverished sisters "and how they grew".

HOW TO WIN A WAR—PELOPONNESIAN, THAT IS. The women of Athens have a solution for peace. It may not always work, but it is, in this instance, efficacious. MUCH ADO ABOUT QUACK.

Library Friends To Hear Cuban

"How Castro Fooled Everyone," is the arresting subject of the speaker at the first Friends of the Library meeting of the 1965-66 season, scheduled for Monday, October 18, at the Central Library at 8 p.m.

The speaker is a man who knows his subject intimately. Serafin G. Menocal is a Cuban citizen who was a business leader in his country and witnessed the Castro revolution and subsequent events until 1959, when he left his native country.

Mr. Menocal is an electrical engineer who started to work with the Cuban Electric Company at Havana as a student engineer 27 years ago. He was vice-president and general manager of that firm in 1959 when he resigned because he did not wish to live under the Communist Government which Castro was implanting in Cuba.

Since 1959 he has been in New York City, where he is an executive of American & Foreign Power Company. Mr. Menocal took a very active part in the civic activities of pre-Castro Cuba, and had an important part in planning and developing the electrical industry of the country.

He was president of the National Council of Boy Scouts of Cuba, director of the Cuban Society of Engineers, president of the Lions Club of Camaguey.

The Friends of the Library extend the most cordial invitation to all Grosse Pointe citizens to hear Mr. Menocal. His first-hand account of the way Castro moved, with complete ruthlessness, to domination of Cuba, will be absorbing and authoritative.

After the meeting, refreshments will be served in the Main Reading Room to allow Friends members and guests to meet Mr. Menocal informally.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Party-of-the-Year for members of the St. Paul Altar Society and the Parish Council of the National Council of Catholic Women is their annual fall bridge luncheon and fashion show.

A capacity crowd is expected next Thursday at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. "Flair Fashions for Paulites" is the title of the '65 style show, with Walton-Pierce doing the runway honors and Phil Skillman's Trio providing the music.

As a change of pace, this year's party committee has decided to put the accent on local color. Parties in the recent past have had French, Italian and Convention themes, but next Thursday the fashion show backdrop, the table centerpieces and the decorations will all have a special meaning for Paulites and their friends.

A Fashion Gallery, which should quickly become an attention-getter, will feature some of The Pointe's own cover girls. (Perhaps that's why so many cameras have been clicking hereabouts lately?).

Mrs. Edward Letscher is honorary chairman of the bridge luncheon-fashion show. Mrs. William Bavinger, Jr., is chairman.

Other committee heads include Mrs. Robert Wakely, Mrs. Robert Hurley, Mrs. Frederick Cody, Mrs. James Coyle, Mrs. Gerald Kane, Mrs. Joseph Wright, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall, Mrs. Arthur Cerre, Mrs. Charles Wollenzin, Jr., Mrs. Robert Thibodeau and Mrs. Hamilton Kotcher.

Music In The Afternoon

The breathtaking voices of soprano Maralin Niska and baritone Nolan Van Way gave members of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, gathered for luncheon last Friday at the Little Club, an idea of what to expect from the Metropolitan Opera National Company, scheduled to present a week of grand opera at the Fisher Theater October 18 through 23.

MRS. MICHAEL J. BRENNAN opened her Three Mile drive home for the first meeting of the Fox Creek Chapter of Questers, Inc., September 23. Speaker MRS. JOHN R. MELVIN BLOCK will be the hostess for this month's meeting during which MRS. CHARLES CHAPMAN will discuss "How To Go Antiquing."

JUDY A. PESLAR, daughter of MR. and MRS. EMIL F. PESLAR, of Stephens road, has entered the freshman class at Pembroke College, the coordinate college for women in Brown University. Judy is a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School.

MR. and MRS. DONALD FISHER, of McKinley avenue, are members of the VIF (Very Important Fans) Alumni Club of the Detroit Race Course.

Among those who attended the High School Red Cross Leadership Training Conference at Camp Tamarack in Ortonville October 1 through 3, were Pierce Junior High School students VANESSA VINCI, of Lakecrest lane, and GAIL ELDRIDGE, of St. Paul avenue; Brownell Junior High School students BETSY CANTINE, of Maison road, and MARY BRUNO, of Manchester boulevard; Grosse Pointe High School students JOHN BARTON, of Pemberton road, BECQUIE BLACKBURN, of Rivard

Newcomers Plan Anniversary Party

Looking over clippings and mementos of The Newcomers Club of Grosse Pointe's first 20 years as they make plans for the Club's gala 20th Anniversary Dance, to be held this Saturday evening, at the Detroit Yacht Club, are, (left to right), MR. and MRS. GEORGE ALDRIDGE, chairmen of the Dance Finance committee, WILLIAM ABRAMS, who with Mrs. Abrams is in charge of flower arrangements, and MRS. KENNETH DAVIS, who with Mr. Davis has been compiling the invitation mailing list. The party, "Down Memory Lane," begins with cocktails at 7 o'clock, includes dinner and a floor show, and will conclude with dancing until 1:30 o'clock.

boulevard, DIANA GALDA, of Calvin road, NANCY Owens, of Newcastle road, and CAROL RIDDLE, of Hillcrest road; and Grosse Pointe University School student HENRY TAYLOR, of Kenwood road.

PHILLIP SINGER, of Eastbrook court, is a member of Michigan State University's Marching Band.

DOUGLAS MUNRO, of Kenmore Drive, Grosse Pointe Woods, has been commended for outstanding on-the-job performance. Munro is associated with the Procurement and Production Directorate, Mobility Command, (MOCOM), Warren, Mich. The commendation was part of the U.S. Army's incentive award program for civilian employees. Award recommendations by the employee's supervisor must be approved by a committee of employees as well as the Commanding General of MOCOM.

Among those pouring during the membership tea following yesterday's meeting of the Society of Engineers' Wives and a musical program presented by Teruko Yamasaki and Mary Pardee was MRS. HAROLD C. Mrs. Cameron wore a floor length dress of celadon gold crepe, styled with beaded sleeves. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

The bride made the turquoise wool costume suit she wore when she and her husband left the Boat Club for a vacation in Acapulco, Mexico.

Reverend Leonard De Beer officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony Saturday, in Faith Community Church, at which Linda Joyce Munro spoke her marriage vows to Leon J. Van Dyke.

A reception in the church Fellowship Hall followed the rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Munro, of Fairholme road, wore an Empire waisted gown of peau de soie, its bodice overlaid with Alencon lace accented with beads and pearls. The bodice featured Kabuki sleeves, and the skirt ended in a Chapel train.

Her full illusion veil fell from a seed pearl crown, and she carried a cluster of white orchids and pink sweetheart roses on a white Bible.

Her attendants' frocks were fashioned of royal blue silk organza over matching taffeta, and they wore matching veiled headbows.

Marcia Voigt, of St. Louis, Mo., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl Brandt, of Ann Arbor, Patricia Ashwood, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Roberta Kirkpatrick, of Holland, Mich., all the bride's classmates at Hope College, Holland.

They carried clusters of white gladioli, fashioned into one camellia-like flower.

Kathy Brinkman, of Springfield, Ill., was her cousin's flower girl.

Mr. Van Dyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke, of Holland, Mich., asked Robert Hecht, of Holland, to act as best man.

Ushering were Jack Dozeman, Donald Kardux and Robert Werge, all of Holland, and the bride's brother, Lieutenant (j.g.) Larry Munro, stationed with MATS at Moffet Field, San Francisco, Calif.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Muro chose a costume of flamingo pink crepe with a matching lace coat and accessories.

The bridegroom's mother's two piece dress was fashioned of teal blue silk. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

The newlyweds are making their home in Spring Lake, Mich., where the new Mrs. Van Dyke teaches in the local high school.

Mrs. Leon J. Van Dyke

Warren's Has Crystal Exhibit
A unique and unusual exhibition by Steuben is being presented at the Charles W. Warren & Company galleries in Washington boulevard, Detroit, through October 30.

The exhibit, "Poetry in Crystal," is comprised of 31 crystal sculptures, inspired by poems specially commissioned from 31 distinguished American poets.

The collection is the result of an experiment undertaken jointly by Steuben Glass and The Poetry Society of America. The Society invited poets representative of contemporary American poetry to participate in the experiment.

The hitherto unpublished poems were then circulated among Steuben's artists and designers, who in turn interpreted the theme or spirit of each poem in a design for crystal.

Two fine pieces in the exhibit are interpretations of poems contributed by local poets.

"Stories" was written by Donald Hall, who is an associate professor of English at the University of Michigan where he has taught since 1957, and who so first book of poems, "Exiles and Marriages," was a Lamont Poetry selection and appeared in 1955. The piece was designed by George Thompson. Sidney Waugh designed the engraving.

"Partial Eclipse," unique in its concept, reflects the feeling expressed in the poem by that name written by W. D. Snodgrass, who is an associate professor of English at Wayne State University, and who won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1960.

Each of the designs in the collection is limited to an edition of twelve. The sculptures will be displayed in Warren's second floor gallery from 9:30 to 5 o'clock daily.

An unusual feature is the two-way mirror and microphone set up between the two conference rooms for use in observations and teaching.

Professional personnel for the Clinic's patients is supplied by the Children's Center of Wayne County. However a large portion of the operating funds and the establishment of the new building come from voluntary contributions from the general membership and from the proceeds from various benefits held throughout the year.

Highland Park Defeated By Devils by 28-0 Score

Scoring the first two times they had the ball, Grosse Pointe High School gridders went on to crush Highland Park 28-0 on a soggy home field last Saturday. The Devils consistently stalled the Parker's offense and in turn battered their defense for good gains before the game was marred by the heavy rains which began early in the second half.

Only under the adverse conditions of the second half and against the Devil second, third, and fourth stringers could Highland Park battle on even terms.

Coach Edward Wernet said that a combination of good blocking, good running, and overall team unity made the difference.

Runs 41 Yards to Score
Highland Park ran the opening kick-off to their own 33 and after failing to gain ground punted on fourth down. The Devils took the punt to their own 44 and moved 15 yards on their first two plays. Then Mike Van de Ginstie cut along the sidelines 41 yards to score the first touchdown. Andy Balsara made the score 7-0 with the extra point kick.

After Grosse Pointe kicked off Highland Park penetrated to the Devil 45 but could advance no farther. Grosse Pointe took over and marched downfield in five plays, capped by a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bill Hahn to Bob Lynch.

Early in the second quarter Highland Park recovered a Devil fumble on the Grosse Pointe 19. The Parkers were contained, and gave up the ball on the 18.

Aided by runs of 17 and 10 yards by Van de Ginstie and a 15-yard penalty against Highland Park, the Devils reached the Parker 35. The Parkers held

Center Forming Teens' Ski Club

With the announcement of having its own ski lodge up north, to be shared with the Grosse Pointe Adult Ski Club, the Grosse Pointe Ski-Hi Club for students in grades 9-12 will hold its first meeting of the year Sunday afternoon, October 24, at 2 o'clock in Fries Auditorium.

Chief attraction will be "Lefty" Brinkenau from Aspen, Colo., with his films of skiing at Aspen and in Europe.

Everyone should be prepared to pay his membership fee for the season which is $3. Sign-ups also will be taken for the first big trip of the year up north which will be a four-day trip by charter buses to Wolverine, December 28 through 29, with skiing at Boyne Mt., Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob and Thunder Mt.

Evening trips to the Pony Tail in Harbor Springs and the Ski Hunt in Osego will be optional. All transportation, room, meals, chaperoning and ski insurance will be included for approximately $36. Ski lift charges are extra, the cost depending on whether they are all-area or beginner-area tickets. A limit of 35 boys and 35 girls is imposed.

Similar shorter trips to Boyne Mt., Boyne Highlands, and Nubs Nob are scheduled to the lodge the weekends of January 28, February 18 and March 4. During spring vacation there will be a trip by train for 10 days to the high western Rockies at Taos, N.M., for approximately $195. Transportation, room, board, ski charges, and insurance and chaperoning are included. The dates will be April 8 through April 17. There is a 35-person limit.

Saturday trips to local areas will be scheduled as soon as the snow falls.

Blocked Kick Helps

Highland Park was likewise forced to punt, but Bob Czarniecki rushed in, arms up, and blocked the kick and then recovered the ball on the Parker 1. Hahn bucked through the line for a touchdown and Balsara's point kick made it 21-0. Highland Park came close to scoring toward the end of the half, but was stopped 2 yards short of the goal.

The Parkers kicked off to start the second half and Grosse Pointe brought the ball to their own 36. On the first play from scrimmage Rick Gonzoles slanted off tackle for 52 yards. Two plays later Van de Ginstie crossed the goal from 10 yards out for the final touchdown.

The rain started coming down fairly heavy at this point and the remainder of the game was a stand-off between the two teams. Because of the poor playing conditions neither team could move the ball. Bad footing resulted in many losses on rushing plays and a wet ball was the cause for a large number of incomplete passes.

A MENACE
The motorist who speeds and runs away will live to kill and maim some other day.

Ski Club to Present Film

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club will present John Jay in person with his exciting color film "Silver Skis" at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Sunday, Oct. 31. The laugh loaded show offering quality entertainment for the entire family, will be shown at two performances, 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. A quarter century of the best in ski films will be part of the thrilling show. Tickets are available at the War Memorial or from any club member.

Two Close Ones Lost by Packers

By Dean K. Riddle
Sunday, October 10, saw the Packers Varsity and Jr. Varsity each lose their games by one point to the Roseville Mohawks on the Mohawks' home field, while the Packers' Freshman evened their record at 1-1-1 with a 6-0 win.

Kevin Kelly scored a touchdown on a 12-yard slant to give the Freshmen their win. The Jr. Varsity lost to the Mohawks 14 to 13 as their second try for the P.A.T. (Point after touchdown) was no good. Sczygiel took a pass from Davis and went 30 yards for the first touchdown with Weyhing getting the P.A.T. On the second play after the touchdown, Waims intercepted a Mohawk pass to give the Packers the ball. Weyhing went 8 yards to the one foot line and Heidt went in on a quarterback sneak. The try for P.A.T. was stopped.

The Varsity scored in the first quarter on a 20-yard run by Hubbard. The Mohawks stopped the P.A.T. try. Roseville scored two touchdowns in the third quarter making the score 13 to 6. In the last period with about 4 minutes to play Hubbard went 32 yards on a fourth down to score. With a chance to tie, the handoff was fumbled and Roseville won 13 to 12.

The Packers' next game is Saturday, October 16, at 1 p.m.

St. Paul Shatters Long Losing Streak; Wins 31-26

In 61 seconds St. Paul's football Lakers Sunday ended 3½ years of winless football, marched 71 yards in six plays to beat highly rated St. David, 31-26, and sent 2,109 ecstatic homecoming fans screaming onto the field.

Bob O'Leary's three-yard plunge with 41 seconds left in the game gave the Lakers their first win in 25 games, and turned what appeared to be another "one point loss" into a wild victory.

With just four minutes left St. David jumped to a 26-25 lead on Charlie Stahl's one yard run. Offensive series by both teams failed after the kickoff, and the Lakers took over on their own 29 yard line with 1:42 left in the game.

Senior Quarterback Dan Wright passed 30 yards to Rick Jablonski. Bob O'Leary picked up 20 yards on two runs, and a 17-yard Wright pass to Mark Smolenski carried to the St. David six with a minute left.

Smolenski actually took the pass away from two St. David defenders just before he was pushed out of bounds to stop the clock.

Penalty Is Costly
A backfield in motion penalty put the ball on the eleven after Wright's scoring run was called back because of the penalty. He then ran eight yards to the three to set up O'Leary's electrifying touchdown run.

St. David's last-ditch attempts in the final 41 seconds were foiled by an alert Smolenski who knocked down one pass and intercepted another as the clock ran out.

The St. Paul losing streak ran through the end of the season of 1962-64 and for the first three Laker games this year. Before Laker's starting win St. Paul hadn't won a game since the 1961 squad topped Lourdes 41-7.

At one point in the first half the Lakers were behind 19-6 but they narrowed the margin to 19-12 for the halftime intermission. At various stages of the game they were behind 6-0, 12-6, and 26-25.

Takes Early Lead
St. David jumped off to an early 6-0 lead but St. Paul came right back with a 52-yard scoring toss from Wright to Jablonski who snared it between two Aviator defenders on the 23 and raced in for the score.

The forward pass, however, hurt the Lakers in the next 10 minutes as St. David scored two touchdowns on passing yardage.

Down 19-6, the Lakers came storming back with three minutes left in the first half on the running of O'Leary, Tom Handlos and Rick Stevens and the passing combination of Wright to Smolenski.

This 62-yard drive was capped by O'Leary's one yard plunge for the touchdown, and the Aviator lead was trimmed to 19-12.

Tom Handlos sent an "on-side" kickoff, at the start of the third period, screaming into a St. David lineman who fumbled the ball and the Lakers recovered it and the Aviator lead was trimmed to 19-12.

Jablonski led pass catchers with four grabs for 100 yards, while Smolenski picked up five grabs for 48 yards.

Handlos led on punt and kickoff returns with two for 40 yards.

who, where and whatnot

by uboozil

Dr. Alice Palmer . . . in Vietnamese costume, completely charmed members of the English Speaking Union, gathered for a dinner meeting at the Country Club last week. Her slides and commentary on life in Vietnam were fascinating, her talk filled with those small but salient facts that make a lecture "come alive" . . . such as a description of the monsoon rains, warm and brief but so heavy that water pours through the buttockholes of raincoats on those unlucky enough to be caught outside when the rains come!

Still on the lecture circuit . . . we expect to be charmed by Winston Churchill, II, too, who opens Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League's 1965-66 Celebrity Series season at the Esquire Theater this morning. Young Winston, incidentally, at the age of 25, is making his American lecture debut a year younger than his illustrious grandfather did.

A glance around . . . that crowded room at the Pontchartrain Hotel where everyone was having a perfectly marvelous time sampling French wines and cheeses, courtesy of the French Government, leaves us with the definite impression that black is THE color this fall in the Motor City, and that no one can wear black with more flair than Mme. Jean Le Direach, wife of our own French Consul.

New books and used books . . . books of all sizes, shapes and descriptions — you'll be able to find just about any kind of book you want right here in The Pointe in the next few days. If you're looking for an Old Friend, or hoping to find a Forgotten Treasure, try the local American Association of University Women's Used Book Sale, opening at 1 o'clock today at the War Memorial. The Sale continues until 9 tonight, re-opens at 10 and closes at 4 o'clock tomorrow. If you want a new book for yourself, or a perfect Christmas gift, take a peek at the treasures on display at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's Book Fair next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. The Fair, at the Church, opens at 10 o'clock all three mornings, runs until 5 o'clock on Monday and Tuesday, closes at 1 o'clock Wednesday.

Ten years from now . . . Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bruce Straith will laugh about the Comedy of Errors attendant upon their September 11 marriage, but right this minute all they want is to be comfortably settled, (finally!), in their own home. Mix-ups began when a downtown newspaper married them off a week in advance, continued when the NEWS, bending over backwards NOT to anticipate the Straith-Frazzitta Rites, held their wedding story a week longer than necessary. They DID manage to get married as planned, however, and flew off to Europe — where rain followed them from England to Switzerland to France. As their wedding trip dripped to its soggy conclusion, they grew more and more anxious to return to their own country and their own home, but when they arrived at their airport outside of Paris well in advance of departure time for their reserved flight back to The States, they discovered that their flight had been oversold. Of course, the Straiths were among the "bumped" passengers. Anxious to make amends, the airline booked them on another transatlantic flight, and thoughtfully flew them up to Brussels, where this second flight departed on (its) schedule the following day. In New York, they switched to still another plane for what they thought would be the final leg of their journey — until the stewardess informed them, in the air, that due to foggy conditions in Detroit, the plane would land in Chicago! Well . . . they finally made it back to Michigan, but are still not quite "home;" their apartment, which should have been ready on their return, wasn't — so they are dividing their time between the Audubon road home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Straith, and the Warren home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frazzitta, for the duration.

Another point of view . . . on Continental vacations and jet travel, is expressed by Mrs. Donal J. O'Brien, back in Newberry place after a whirlwind week in Europe with Mr. O'Brien. Mrs. O'Brien, who had a marvelous time abroad, likes her jets "in the air," but admits she has to fight a tendency to eat and sleep at all the wrong hours until her personal schedule comes to terms with her latest Time Zone.

And while we're on the subject of Time . . . a trip down gas-lit Goodwill Lane at the 18th Annual Antiques Market sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries, scheduled November 14 through 17 at Goodwill's Brush street, Detroit, headquarters, should have market visitors convinced they've actually "gone back" in Time, to turn-of-the-century America.

Our Heartfelt Thanks

To the many wonderful people who expressed their sympathy at the loss of a beloved husband and father, we extend our sincere appreciation.

The store is again open and we look forward to serving you in the traditional Gray manner.

Pointer of Interest

TEDDY EWALD, OF MOROSS ROAD, AND THE PLANNED PARENTHOOD CHRISTMAS MART LION

By Janet Mueller

When nine-year-old Teddy Ewald agreed to interpret for his friend, the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart Lion, we thought it only fair to include Teddy as a subject of this week's Pointer of Interest article.

The REAL Pointer of Interest is, of course, the Lion. We admit he's a rather unusual Pointer. For one thing, although he's been present at every '65 Christmas Mart committee meeting and spent his spare time roaming about to find out exactly what shops Pointers like best in a Christmas Mart, so far he's been invisible.

For another thing, he's a Lion. We don't usually interview Lions, and we frankly didn't quite know how to go about it—until Teddy came to our rescue.

Teddy is one of the few people who has actually SEEN the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart Lion. They met in New York, at F.A.O. Schwarz, and while Teddy's mother, Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Jr., was making arrangements for the famous toy shop to join the roster of other specialty shops at the '65 Mart, scheduled Tuesday, October 26, through Thursday, October 28, at Detroit's Veteran's Memorial Building, Teddy and the Lion became fast friends.

Have Much in Common They have certain things in common. They are both boys. But while Teddy is a Middle Child, standing halfway between sisters Wendy, 14, and Holly, 11, and brother Johnny, 5, and sister Tracey, 4, the Lion is the oldest one in his family. "He has a brother and a sister," Teddy explains, "but I can't remember their names."

Teddy thinks being the Middle Person in a big family is "fine," the Lion thinks being the oldest Lion in a medium-sized family is "fine."

Teddy and his brothers and sisters have pets, a dog, Snoopy, and a cat, Jiggs. The Lion doesn't have any pets.

"He has friends, though," Teddy says. "Not many friends, just some. He'd like to have more, but he hasn't met many people yet. He's very friendly."

Both Teddy and the Lion will visit the Christmas Mart for the first time this year. Teddy likes Christmas. "It's when Jesus was born," he explains. He is looking forward to a Christmas tree and "lots of toys and stuff;" he especially wants something called Trick Track. ("It runs with batteries. You turn it on and it goes all around the house."), and a bigger train.

There are presents for everybody, even Snoopy and Jiggs, Christmas Day at the Ewald house. Teddy makes his own presents. Last year, he made pictures of boats. This year, he hasn't really thought much about what he's going to make—but he's sure he's going to make something.

Lion Not Excited The Lion isn't quite as excited about Christmas as Teddy. "It's the winter time," Teddy explains. "The Lion has to stay outside, and he gets cold. He doesn't get any toys, just extra food."

The Lion's favorite food is deer meat. He likes summer better than winter "because it's easier to get food." His favorite color is brown, his favorite activity is "play," and he likes boys just a tiny bit better than girls. Teddy's favorite food is spaghetti. He likes winter better than summer "because you get to play in the snow." His favorite color is orange.

He is in the third grade at Grosse Pointe University School, (the Lion doesn't go to school), where the subject he likes most is "building."

"Building . . . you know, Shop," he tells the rather droll interviewer. "Right now, I'm building a door stop with a group of boys."

Most of the time he likes school, although he'd be quite happy to take another "building" class and drop arithmetic. Like the Lion, Teddy is slightly prejudiced in favor of boys, although he and Johnny feel there are some advantages in having a younger sister:

"We can make Tracey obey." His older sisters are "fine," but Teddy sometimes wishes he had an older brother to play with; Johnny is just a shade too young to be a real companion. Still, he wouldn't trade his family for any other family in the world, (neither would the Lion), and after considerable deliberation he admits that he likes all his siblings "the same."

Likes Outdoor Games Teddy's favorite indoor game is The Match Game, but he likes playing outdoors best. He's happiest riding his bike, he can balance on a skateboard and he can ice skate, "but I can't roller skate."

He goes to the pond at the Country Club for ice skating in the winter. His backyard blends into the Country Club golf course, and he likes this arrangement "just fine."

He's still excited about his first trip to New York, with Holly, Wendy and his mother and father. They went to the World's Fair, where Teddy took out his grey camera and snapped lots of pictures, mostly of the Walt Disney exhibits.

Teddy likes taking pictures. He's been official photographer at family birthday parties and plans to document the Ewald family Christmas this year.

Teddy has gone to Florida "two times;" he likes it there "because it is so hot." He likes the ocean and the sand. "One time we went there for Easter," he recalls.

But he's usually glad to get back home, to his friends and his toys. "You can't play in Florida very well, because all the toys are here," he maintains.

Still . . . if he could go anywhere in the world, he wouldn't go back to New York, he'd go to Florida. The Lion likes Florida, too. "It's hot, and Lions like hot places," Teddy explains.

Bored With Flying The Lion is a good air traveler. Teddy, who was excited the first time he flew, claims now that he's not too fond of flying. "I get restless," he admits.

differ, (good friends don't have to be carbon copies of each other). They also hold divergent opinions on what constitutes a good time: The Lion likes to "walk around all day by himself" or go to a party, Teddy would rather have one or two friends over to his house or go over to theirs for an afternoon of play.

"Lions don't like music"—but Teddy is quite fond of The Beatles, even though he doesn't think they have much future. He believes "they won't be around too long" despite the fact that they are his favorite recording stars.

Teddy would like to be a gardener when he grows up, and he would like to stay in Grosse Pointe. The Lion may be moving on some day; Lions are roamers.

But before and during this year's Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart, and hopefully before and during Christmas Marts for many years to come, the Lion is making his headquarters in Grosse Pointe.

Watches Our Planners He is keeping tabs on the progress of Mart planners, dashing out of town every so often to peek at some of the wares of the 20 shops coming to town just for the Mart.

He is especially interested in the new-this-year shops, Buffalo, N.Y.'s Forum, featuring gay accessories from the Orient, Lilly's unique shifts and materials, Sara Potter Conover's porcelain and small antiques, (especially her handmade coffee tables), and of course, F.A.O. Schwarz.

He has checked the goodies to be offered by New York City's Soupon and reports they are every bit as unique and delightful as those of Au Bon Gout, with which Soupon alternates Mart appearance years.

The Lion is positively ecstatic over the creations dreamed up by local Planned Parenthood members for their very own Mistletoe Madness shop.

The ladies have been working overtime under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell, III, fashioning all sorts of wonderful holiday whimsies, including charming Christmas angels and trees.

The Lion spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Mrs. Emory Ford's home, lending his moral support to workers at all-day addressing sessions, and will join Mrs. Jack Coe and the entire Mart committee for luncheon and a final pre-Mart meeting this Thursday, October 14, at the University Club.

Makes Presence Felt In short, the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart Lion, invisible though he may be, has been making his presence felt just about everywhere in town. And, as Teddy Ewald says, "He's very friendly."

He's even thinking of changing his preferences, of liking winter better than summer. Winter may be the cold season outside, but since the Lion became a Christmas Lion he's learning that December 25, the whole month of December, and well into January, in fact, is the warmest time of the year inside human houses.

And one of the nicest things about this warm winter season, as the Lion is beginning to discover, is presents. He's been talking to some children around town, and he's come to the conclusion that an extra portion of deer meat is all very well in itself, but "toys and stuff" are even nicer. If he were human, he'd most certainly want lots of "toys and stuff"—and he can't think of a better place to find them than the Planned Parenthood '65 Christmas Mart.
