HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, August 15

A LOS ANGELES AIRWAYS helicopter carrying 21 Disneyland visitors broke apart and plunged in pieces onto a playground near Compton, Cal., on Wednesday, killing all passengers. This was the second crash in three months of Los Angeles Airways helicopters. On May 22, 23 persons were killed near Paramount in the worst commercial helicopter disaster in the United States. Both Wednesday's crash and the one in May involved 28-passenger Sikorsky helicopters.

IN A REPORT from Washington Thursday, Secretary Clark M. Clifford indicated that there was a possibility of further limiting or even halting the bombing of North Vietnam if the communists would agree not to place American lives in "greater jeopardy." He said that the current quiet in South Vietnam follows previous patterns of diminished enemy action followed by new communist offensives.

ARJAY MILLER, vice-president of the Ford Motor Company, will head up a new corporation organized to provide financial and technical support to economic development in Detroit's black community. The new group is called the Economic Development Corporation. Its initial finances of more than $1 million will be spent to assist projects defined by Inner City spokesmen as necessary to further the causes of black economic progress and Negro community self-determination.

Saturday, August 17

FORMER PRESIDENT Dwight D. Eisenhower suffered his seventh heart attack Friday. Physicians at Walter Reed Army Medical Center have described his condition as stable. They have interpreted this last attack as serious but have not as yet appraised its full consequence.

THE DEMOCRATS have announced from Chicago that there will be no floor demonstrations for candidates at their forthcoming convention. John M. Bailey, Democratic National Committee Chairman said the decision had been reached after two candidates suggested abandonment of the time-honored tradition.

Sunday, August 18

GOVERNOR LESTER Maddox of Georgia announced his candidacy for President of the United States Saturday before a nationwide television audience from Georgia's state Capitol.

PHYSICIANS at Walter Reed Medical Center indicated on Sunday that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was literally battling for his life. Although no one officially said so, very little hope remained that Eisenhower would recover from the seizure he sustained last Friday.

Monday, August 19

VIETCONG UNITS attacked scores of allied bases protecting Saigon on Sunday in what U.S. commanders said could be the prelude to a new general offensive by Communist forces. It was reported that Americans and South Vietnamese forces have hurled back most of the attacks and killed 300 communists.

Tuesday, August 20

GOVERNOR GEORGE ROMNEY surprised many with his enthusiastic endorsement of Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew from the steps of the Capitol building Monday. In a surprising reversal Romney said of Agnew, this is "a very strong candidate, a very able man." Up until two weeks ago Romney opposed Agnew's candidacy, and it was only last February that he strongly opposed Nixon.

Remote Unit Is A Time Saver

City of Grosse Pointe's Director of Finance, ROBERT C. BENDZINSKI, was on hand when the City installed the first new remote unit for reading water meters at the Washington road residence of Mrs. Sidney M. Caldwell. This makes it possible for the meter reader to get a reading without entering the house.

City, Farms Fish Rodeo August 31

Annual Event Starts At 8:30 a.m.; Big Catches Reported In Warm-Up Competition

The 1968 annual fishing rodeo for Grosse Pointe City and Grosse Pointe Farms will start on Saturday, August 31 at 8:30 a.m., at the Farms Pier. Last year over 400 children from both municipalities participated in the event and over 30 fish were caught.

Last year the grand prize for the City went to Scott Wickland, and for Grosse Pointe Farms, to Chris Cullen. This year the rodeo is expected to have well over 500 participants.

Hot dogs and pop will be served afterwards to all contestants. Also, all those participating in the event will receive

Thief Ransacks Chalfonte Home

A breaking and entering violation was reported to Grosse Pointe Farms police by Ruth A. Ritter, of 387 Chalfonte. The house was broken into when a lower glass pane was broken, and the thief or thieves, gained entrance by reaching inside and unlatching the door.

Farms police reported that the entire house was ransacked. All drawers were pulled out and their contents dumped onto the floors. The only item found missing, they said, was a gold watch with a gold band, value unknown.

Youth Accused in Assault On GP Park Policeman

Two teenagers, one a juvenile, were arrested by Park police at Devonshire and Mack, on Wednesday, August 14, when they were reported exchanging blows with a pipe and a tire iron. The juvenile, who is 16 years old, has been remanded to the custody of Juvenile Court authorities, and is awaiting a hearing on charges of being a disorderly person.

In more serious trouble is Mark D. D'Achille, 17, of 2603 Beniteau, Detroit, according to Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, who said that a warrant accusing the youth of felonious assault was approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. D'Achille, it was said, came at Patrolman Ralph Moore, and swung, it appeared, a two-inch iron pipe, approximately 18

Pointe 1968 Traffic Death Toll Reaches Four as Two Persons Die in LS Crash

Police Officers On Routine Patrol Discover Smashed Car With Victims Pinned Inside; The Fatality Was Unheard And Unnoticed

Two Shores police officers on routine patrol early Saturday morning, August 17, came upon a 1961 Mercury Comet two-door sedan, smashed against a tree, and two men pinned in the vehicle. Both the driver and the passenger were pronounced dead on arrival at Bon Secours' Hospital.

The accident was discovered by Patrolmen John Trevillian and Bruce Darlington, at about 5:05 a.m., while they were cruising on Lake Shore road, near Vernier road. No one heard the noise of the crash, nor was a report called in by passing motorists, apparently because there was no passing vehicular traffic at the time of the fatality.

Pronounced dead at the hospital were Travis Lee Hickey, 27, of 1261 Glaver, Detroit, the driver; and Gerald D. Stripling, 35, of 22935 Lake boulevard, St. Clair Shores. Actual cause of the accident is not known, but police said an open bottle of gin, partially consumed, was found on the front seat of the vehicle, leading to the possible assumption that the pair had been drinking.

Motorcyclist Was First The death of Hickey and Stripling raised the Pointe's 1968 traffic fatalities to four, and the second and third for the Shores. Walter Russell, 27, of 13805 Beth, Warren, father of three children, lost his life on February 27, in the Shores, when his motorcycle went out of control and crashed into a tree in the vicinity of 707 Lake Shore. He died of a broken neck.

Heaviest Storm Inundates Area

Accompanied by severe winds, brilliant and crackling lightning, and ear-splitting claps of thunder, the heaviest rains storm of the year struck the Grosse Pointe area last Friday evening.

Despite the severity of the storm in this district, with the water fall measuring a whopping 3.58 inches, much less damage was reported here than in the northern Detroit suburbs. Records at the Farms water pumping plant on Moross road, showed that the rains fell in three "big spurts", beginning at 8:35 p.m., and continuing until after 11 o'clock. They were timed at 8:35 to 9:25; 10 to 10:25, and 10:55 to 11:10. As a result there were heavy flooding conditions on a large number of street in the Pointes.

Other figures released by the plant show that the total rainfall in the Pointes during this month, to August 19, was 6.20 inches, far above the normal for the area.

City Judge Treats Boys To Surprises

Paterson Makes Youths Visit Dump, Count Slugs and Signs

City Municipal Judge Douglas L. Paterson, meted out some surprises on Tuesday, August 13, when the City of Grosse Pointe Municipal Court convened.

At that time Judge Paterson had before him a youth who was charged with tampering with parking meters. He was fined $25 and ordered to count the slugs found in the City of Grosse Pointe's parking meters during the past six months. This was no easy job . . . there were 4,783.

Convert the slugs into nickles the City lost and you come up with $239.15, not to mention the maintenance involved in taking the jammed meters apart and the actual cost of repairing the meters. Judge Paterson is retaining the slugs for the next parking meter-lampner.

Pick Wrong Target In another case, two teenage boys were charged with littering. The two had thrown empty beer cans at the door of the City police station. They were fined $25 each and made to follow the City rubbish truck to the dump site at 26 Mile road and personally deposit a container of cans and other debris into the pit into which the City trucks dump. Both boys were placed on 90 days probation.

In still another case, four persons were involved in taking a Stop sign and a One Way sign from City streets. All four parties were ordered to count all the Stop and One Way Signs in the City and report that number to Judge Paterson.

Judge Paterson has long been a believer in having offenders assume the responsibility for their actions. These sentences were his way of making the offenders conscious of their offense. They may forget the fines but they won't forget the time spent counting slugs, walking through the City counting signs or traveling to the City Dump!

Schools' Budget Hearing Aug. 26

A public hearing on the operating budget proposed for 1968-69 for The Grosse Pointe Public School System has been scheduled for Monday, August 26.

The special meeting of the Board of Education will be held in the gymnasium of Monteith Elementary School, 1275 Cook road, Grosse Pointe Woods, at 7:30 p.m.

Three Members Of Family Killed In Head-On Crash

James Costello, Auto Club Insurance Executive, His Two Children And Passenger in Other Car Die In Collision

Three members of the James Costello family of Grosse Pointe Woods, were killed Monday night when their car was in a head-on collision on M-72, a quarter of a mile east of M-65, near Millen Township. Killed were James Costello Sr., 46, general manager of the Detroit Automobile Club Inter-Insurance Exchange, his 14-year-old son, Patrick and his seven-year-old daughter, Kerry.

A passenger in the other car, Dennis Allen Stewart, of Owendale, Mich., was also killed.

The Alcona Sheriff's office told the NEWS that they are investigating the cause of the accident but that one of the vehicles apparently crossed the white line. Both cars were totally demolished.

James Costello, Jr., 16, who was driving the Costello car, and Peter, 12, were taken to Alpena General Hospital with multiple lacerations and bruises and are reported in fair condition. John Comment, driver of the other car is also in fair condition in the same hospital.

Three Others Following Mrs. Costello was following the car with their two other children Matthew, 5, and Thomas, 11.

Mr. Costello was appointed general manager of the Exchange on July 1 of this year, the fifth-man to head the Exchange in its 48-year history. Prior to his appointment, he was manager of the Financial and Administrative Operation at the Exchange and the Auto Club. He joined the Exchange in 1961 as manager of Internal Auditing. He became assistant treasurer in 1954 and treasurer in 1960.

He was graduated from the University of Detroit in 1948 and was employed at the General Motors Corporation's Central Auditing Department before his employment with the Exchange.

Home in Edshire Lane He and his wife Constance and six children lived at 19817 Edshire lane.

Mr. Costello was a member of the Financial Executives Institute, the Financial Analysts Society and past president of the Detroit Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditing. He served on the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association and was vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Woods Babe Ruth League.

He was a member of Lost Lake Woods Club, the American Management Association, and the National Association of Independent Insurers.

Trees Attacked By Caterpillars

If the trees on your lot look a little greener than usual and if healthy green leaves are falling to the ground near your home you may have tent caterpillars, as many Pointe residents currently have.

These green, greedy, fuzzy little fellows chew at the stems of the leaves until they fall to the ground. They live in tent-like silken webs and are appearing in droves throughout The Pointe. These caterpillars are from the larvae of any of several moths of the genus Malacosoma.

Cal Fleming Landscapers told the NEWS that they have been doing more spraying against these varmints this year than ever before.

Attorney General Kelley Rules on Riot Ordinances

The ruling by Attorney General Frank J. Kelley on Thursday, that home rule cities and other local communities have the right to grant local officials the right to declare states of emergencies in riot situations, verified the position taken by Grosse Pointe Woods, the City of Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Park earlier this year when their respective councils passed such ordinances giving the mayors this right.

It has been the position of the city solons and their attorneys that under home rule they had this right and Attorney General Kelley verified this stand. The four Pointes were among the first communities to pass such rulings on emergency powers.

Importance Of Election Pointed Out

Drastic Cuts Necessary If Voters Do Not Approve Millage Increase

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of The Grosse Pointe Public School System, has replied to the question, "What will happen to the educational program in the event of a defeat at the polls on September 12?"

"In case of a 'no' vote, the Board of Education will undoubtedly try to secure additional revenue by having another election prior to the 1969-70 year," he said. "September 12 is the last date on which taxes for the 1968-69 year can be levied," he added.

"Planning for 1969-70, which has already begun, would be seriously hampered. For example, the schools would be severely limited in recruiting teachers to meet the increased enrollment projected for 1969-70 or even to hire the number needed for normal replacement if its financial future were uncertain. It would be virtually impossible to offer contracts until a successful election had been held. By then, we would probably not have the pick of the crop of the 1969 college graduates and would have to settle for less well-qualified personnel," he added.

Dr. Anderson said that if no other income is forthcoming before June of 1970, approximately $3 million of educational services will need to be deleted from the schools' present forecast of expenditures. "This is a severe reduction and a quick way to express it is that 20 to 25 per cent of the educational program will have to be eliminated," he said.

Dr. Anderson said that there is nothing final at the moment about the specific program reductions that he would have to recommend to the Board of Education, but he said that it will definitely not be "business as usual" if the public turns the schools down on September 12.

Dr. Anderson has outlined tentative recommendations for curtailments amounting to $660,000 in the elementary schools, $475,000 in the middle schools, and $615,000 in the high schools. Other general system-wide reductions could amount for an additional $1,005,000, making a total of $2,755,000.

Opposing Viewpoints "In the preparation of a possible list of curtailments that I might recommend, I have had advice from citizens representing two diametrically opposing points of view," Dr. Anderson commented.

"One group wants a detailed listing of everything that would be cut, and the other says that if we do this, we shall be accused of 'scare tactics.' We wish to make it perfectly clear that if the residents wish The Grosse Pointe Public School System to operate over the next two years with the kind of program it has today, more than $3

Orientation Set For HS Students

Dr. William L. Craig, Principal of Grosse Pointe North High School, has said that orientation for all students will be conducted during the week of August 26.

Ninth graders are to report on Monday, August 26, 10th graders on August 27, and the 11th graders on August 28. There will be two orientations on each day, one at 9 p.m. and one at 1 p.m., for each grade level. A letter of instruction will be posted in the immediate future to all students to indicate more specific instructions concerning orientation.

If a student is unable to attend on the dates specified, he is to report at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium on Wednesday, September 4, for orientation purposes and registration.

The student book store will be open beginning August 21 for the purchase of books every weekday prior to the opening of school on Wednesday, September 4.

LOSES TO THIEF
John W. Sewell of 12720 East Canfield, Detroit, complained to Farms police on Thursday, August 8, that while his car was parked on Fisher road, someone broke into it and stole his Polaroid camera, light attachments and batteries. He did not disclose the amount of his loss.

Importance of Election

million is definitely needed," Dr. Anderson said.

The Superintendent's tentative recommendations at the elementary level would reduce the number of special subjects teachers in remedial reading, music, art, and physical education.

The kindergarten program would be reduced by one-half. Instead of going five half-days a week, children would attend the equivalent of two and one-half half-days.

Book Rental Fee
Free textbooks for elementary pupils would be eliminated and a rental fee of $10 per pupil would be charged.

Elementary audio-visual services and coordinators would be eliminated, as would resource teachers or helping teachers.

"In the middle schools, the academic program would be reduced to minimum requirements," Dr. Anderson said. "We would probably not be able to offer electives."

Other reductions outlined by the Superintendent would occur in counseling services, in the administrative staff, and in audio-visual. The extra-curricular program would be eliminated.

Dr. Anderson said that in the high schools the academic program would be reduced to a minimum. Students would not be permitted electives but could take only subjects needed to meet basic graduation requirements.

Would Stop Athletics
"Such extra-curricular services as athletics, musical performances, publications and clubs would be cut out," Dr. Anderson indicated.

Counseling services would be reduced, noon hour and campus supervision would be eliminated, as would audio-visual services.

The high schools' administrative staff would be reduced, as would the number of teacher assistants.

If the millage is defeated and another not passed, Dr. Anderson indicated that, in addition, the school system would be forced to use its emergency building and site reserves to operate the schools.

"This would leave us in a precarious position if we should need a new boiler in a building or if some other large expenditure were required," he said.

Dr. Anderson indicated that all building maintenance would be deferred, no remodeling or equipment would be replaced.

All school nursing services would be eliminated, and the clerical staff would be reduced at all levels.

Library Threatened
There would also be a significant reduction in the services offered by the Grosse Pointe Public Library, a division of the public schools for 40 years.

All curriculum improvement studies would be eliminated and the central staff of the administration would be reduced.

Miscellaneous services and accounts, community services, traveling expenses, and new teacher orientation would be reduced, as would all school library services.

There would be a reduction in school social workers, provision for salary increases based upon additional training and workshops would be eliminated, and all cafeteria expense would be eliminated.

Accuse Youth

While help was on the way, the patrolmen ordered the combatants to drop their weapons. The juvenile let his tire iron slip to the sidewalk, but D'Achille held on to the pipe.

D'Achille, the sergeant said, stopped back and shouted, "I'm going to kill you!" but it is not known if this was directed at the juvenile with whom he had been fighting, or at Moore, who was close to the youth.

At any rate, D'Achille, the pipe raised high, made a downward motion with the metal. The motion was stopped by Moore and he and his partner wrestled the pipe from the youth.

While this was going on, the juvenile ran from the scene, and was pursued down Devonshire by a group of citizens, who brought him back, and released him to the officers.

LaPratt said that charges were filed against the juvenile, and that he was released to a relative, who is an attorney, to await a hearing in Juvenile Court.

The detective said that while making a custodial search of the older boy, officers found two green capsules filled with a powder substance. The capsules were sent to the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory for analysis, and were found to contain barbiturates.

LaPratt said that the Prosecutor's Office will be petitioned for a second warrant, charging D'Achille with illegal possession of a restrictive drug, a misdemeanor, for which the youth could receive 90 days in jail, if convicted. Beginning September 1, under a new State law, such an offense becomes a high misdemeanor, which can bring up to two years in jail upon conviction.

On Thursday, August 15, D'Achille was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger on the felonious assault charge. The youth stood mute and a plea of innocent was entered for him. D'Achille demanded an examination and asked for a court appointed attorney.

Judge Belanger set examination date for yesterday, August 21. D'Achille was released after posting bond of $1,000.

REPORTS MOTOR STOLEN

Paul G. Angott of 907 Vernier road, called Woods police on Thursday, August 15, to disclose that he had parked his boat and trailer in a vacant lot across the street from 1001 Vernier. Later, he said, he discovered that the outboard motor, valued at $450 when purchased new, was missing from the craft.

that there were no skid marks on the road, but there was evidence that the right wheels left the roadway, and that the car traveled 122 feet before hitting the tree.

In hitting the tree, the policemen said, the accident car slued to the right and came to rest still tight against the tree, ending up facing west.

The families of the victims were notified of the deaths.

Death Toll

hope, who died in St. John Hospital of injuries received when a car her daughter, Mrs. Flora Benvenuti of 23901 Mackay, Romeo, was driving, crashed into a tree on the lawn of the Cia-cia residence. The daughter suffered serious injuries, but is recovering.

The Shores policemen said they found the victims' vehicle impacted against a tree at Stratton place, and the pair pinned inside the car, apparently dead. Nevertheless, Trevillian and Darlington called for an ambulance, and for cutting tools, to free the two men.

Shores Patrolman Ronald Forth responded with the ambulance, and Woods Patrolmen William Duster and Theodore Hinz arrived with the needed equipment and the Woods ambulance.

Hickey's body was removed first, and taken to the hospital in the Shores ambulance, where he was pronounced dead. Duster and Hinz used a crowbar and a tire jack to pry Stripling loose, and rushed him to the hospital in their ambulance. Stripling, too, was dead on arrival.

Since there were no witnesses, police could only surmise what had taken place before the two men died. It is believed, according to evidence, that the pair were traveling north on Lake Shore, at an unknown rate of speed, when Hickey lost control of the vehicle.

The officers at the scene said

Many fishermen have already entered the pre-rodeo which is a warm-up for the regular rodeo. The pre-rodeo started

August 1 and will end the 30th of this month. Those who catch fish at either the Farms or the City park may enter their catch in the contest. The largest fish caught at each park in the pre-rodeo will win a grand prize.

Some of the biggest fish caught so far in the Farms pre-rodeo are 23" catfish caught by Bob Munchausen, 26½" carp caught by Brian Dunn and Tom Staudt, and a 17½" walleye caught by Dean Paradise.

Some of the biggest fish caught in the City pre-rodeo were a 23" pike caught by Sharon Wickland, a 19" pike caught by Joe Cornillie, and 19½" carp caught by Mary Winkler.

So far no girls from the Farms have entered a fish in the pre-rodeo—Come on Farms,

Permit Granted to Torch Drive

The Woods Council on Monday, August 19, granted permission to the United Foundation "Torch Drive" to conduct solicitations in the Woods from October 14 through November 7, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

The annual drive provides operating funds for nearly 200 voluntary community health, recreational and social agencies which service the community.

School Election Results Important in Many Ways

Voter approval of Proposition No. 1 at the September 12 election set by The Grosse Pointe Public School System, will levy a maximum of 4 1/2 mills for operation each year over a two-year period to keep Grosse Pointe competitive with salary schedules of other nearby school systems.

The funds will also help to meet on-going costs of operating Grosse Pointe North High School, will pay increased operating cost of all schools and libraries and will hire and hold additional teachers to meet increased enrollment.

In 1967-68 public school attendance increased to 67.6 percent of the 5-19 year-old population as compared to 66.0 percent last year and 64.6 percent in 1966. Parochial school attendance throughout the district dropped from 31.1 percent in 1966 and 29.4 percent in 1967 to 27.7 percent last year.

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education is committed to the principle of keeping the salaries of the staff members competitive with those offered in comparable Detroit metropolitan area school districts.

The long-range school financing picture in Grosse Pointe is somewhat clouded by the fact that the teachers whose bargaining agent is the Grosse Pointe Education Association, an affiliate of the Michigan Education Association, have not yet (as of August 19), signed a contract for the 1968-69 year.

School officials are of the opinion that the additional two-year operating levy will be sufficient to cover wage demands for the period in question.

Last year's salary schedule for teachers in The Grosse Pointe Public School System began at $6,475 for a bachelor's degree and went to $10,300 in 12 steps. A teacher with a master's degree began at $7,075 and earned $11,700 after 13 years' experience.

Already agreed upon Detroit-area teachers' salaries for 1968-69 include Detroit's bachelor's degree range from $7,500 to $11,200, and master's degree from $8,000 to $11,700. In Bloomfield Hills the BA will command $6,850 to $10,850, while the MA will earn $7,500 to $12,400. The schedule in Warren ranges for a BA from $7,000 to $11,620 and for an MA $7,420 to $12,320.

In addition to financing increased operating costs over a two-year period, school officials are hopeful that some program improvements will be possible. With costs rising each day school officials have said that they cannot predict exactly the nature or extent of any improvements. However, priorities for funds earmarked for the curriculum area include program development at all levels, pre-school and primary education for children with predictable learning difficulties, additional staff for the Department of Instruction, teachers of special subjects for the elementary schools, and new approaches to in-service training for teachers.

The Board of Education seeks authority, through approval of ballot Proposition No. 2, to levy one mill for building improvement and site acquisition over a 10-year period to modernize portions of Grosse Pointe South High School, to begin the improvement of middle school facilities, and to help cope with elementary enrollment increases.

It must be pointed out that, considering rising building costs and the magnitude of the long-range capitalization program, the funds provided by passage of Proposition No. 2 will constitute a modest beginning.

With the limited amount of money made available by the building improvement levy, the school trustees would have to be highly selective of the projects undertaken. For example, they might prefer to give priority to housing all 6th graders in the middle schools and to develop adequate school libraries in the middle schools.

It is vital to the full implementation of the middle school philosophy that adequate instructional materials centers be developed, as well as more flexible classrooms. The money will also give the school system the means to begin a much-needed, long-range housing program at the middle school level. Ultimately, if the population growth continues, a fourth middle school may have to be considered.

Another high priority in the use of building and site funds will be the continued renovation of South High School.

In spite of the fact that Grosse Pointe is an "old" suburb without extensive tracts of undeveloped land, the public schools continue to grow at the rate of approximately 300 to 400 students per year. A survey of enrollments and facilities requirements completed in August, 1967 by outside consultants, shows a projection of 15,496 students attending the public schools by 1980, an increase of 2,646 students over the enrollment anticipated for September 1968.

School officials have had to revise upward by 150 the student population projection for 1969-70 for North High School. In addition, in spite of increased communication with parochial school officials, neither they nor public school administrators can predict with certainty how many of their children will complete their education in the public schools.

In addition, Trombly, Defer and Mason elementary schools were opened in the 1920's. And, although all of them have been kept in excellent condition over the years, there comes a time when modifications and major repairs are vital if they are to function effectively.

Members of the Board of Education and staff have said that it will be difficult to consider improvements to the instructional program without additional space. For example, for 1969-70 it has been estimated that the schools require 20 additional professional staff members to meet the needs of the growing population. Therefore, classroom facilities to accommodate the increase in the number of school-age youngsters are needed.

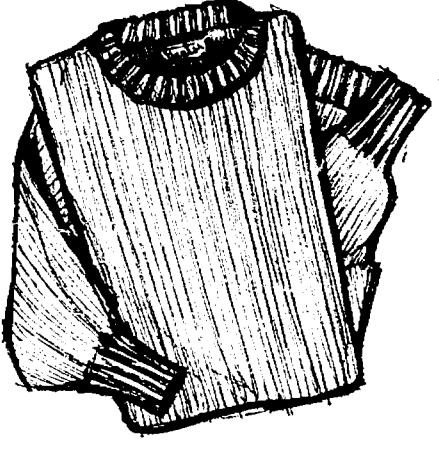

And, in reviewing all phases of the current instruction program, school authorities indicate that many of the future recommendations will be dependent upon additional facilities or additions to existing buildings. Passage of Proposition No. 2 is an effort to find means flexible enough to meet limited housing needs without the necessity of going to the public for bonding approval each year.

Consistency in all things is a man's most precious asset.

Police Wages
Association said: "It just doesn't make sense that one side of the street gets paid $1,000 more annually and better benefits than the other side of the street." He added that Park police face the same risks as their brothers across the street.

The representative also pointed out that "numerous surveys throughout the years of bargaining with city officials have established that the crime rate per capita in Grosse Pointe Park is actually greater than in the two adjacent Detroit precincts."

Appeal to Residents
In mid-June members of the Association sent an appeal to Park residents stating their case. Included in the appeal was a tear-off sheet which read: "I do support the police officers" or "I do not support the police officers" appeal.

The representative said normally such tear-offs get about a 2% response according to national surveys. The Association's response was 15 to 20%. Only two persons responding did not sympathize with the policemen's position. The representative said "even this response, had no effect on the City's negotiators."

Officers in the Association are: Charles Petri, president; Robert Saiford, secretary; Ralph Moore, vice-president; and Gary Mitchell, treasurer. There are 22 patrolmen on the Park payroll.

Marina Bonds Sold by Park

Announcement of the sale of $150,000 in revenue bonds to be used for the development of the waterfront park marina, was made at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Council in the City Hall, Monday evening, August 12.

The bonds were sold to the lowest bidder, First of Michigan Corporation at an interest rate of 4.963 percent. Robert J. Stone, city manager, said the bonds would be paid from boat well rentals, and were sold by "pledging the faith and the credit of the community, without cost to the tax payers."

Much of the discussion during the meeting concerned the progress made with the bath house, and swimming pool at the park, which had been delayed by a strike of construction workers. Neither will be completed before the end of the 1968 season, it was announced.

MORE BIKES GONE
Two bicycle thefts have been reported in the City. Lee Fosati, 1175 Grayton, told officers he parked his bike in front of Kresge's on Friday, August 16, and when he returned a few minutes later the bike was gone. The second report came from Martha Wood, 335 Rivard, who reported the theft of her 26" black and gold bike from the City Park on Saturday, August 17.

Senior Men Bid To Woods Park

A small group of Woods' senior men, who like to keep active, are doing something about it... they are playing shuffleboard.

Five courts are located at the rear parking area, off Jackson, in Ghesquiere Park. At about 6:45 almost any Tuesday evening you can see senior men removing discs, pushers, brushes and folding chairs from their cars in anticipation of the matches to come.

The men play every Tuesday evening from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. Many of the men have their own equipment but equipment is available through the Woods Recreation Department. The courts are lighted and according to Vern Dumas, senior citizen and shuffleboard enthusiast, in good condition.

Mr. Dumas tells us that this is the best time of year to play. Shuffleboard for senior citizens was an idea of Mr. Dumas' some eight years ago when he was appointed to the Recreation Commission. At that time most of the activities at the Park were geared for children of all ages. Mr. Dumas felt that there was a need for activities for senior citizens. Don Hallman, Director of Recreation, thought so too and shuffleboard for senior men was initiated.

Now there are plenty of courts but too few senior men taking advantage of them. Mr. Dumas says this is a wonderful way for senior men to get healthy

Now you get 5% annual interest guaranteed for 4 years. And 7 other benefits.

- 1. Maximum Interest Guaranteed.
NBD guarantees you'll earn 5% annual interest for 4 years. By continuous compounding, your money will actually earn the equivalent of more than 5 1/2% annually.
- 2. Continuous Compounding.
Since 5% is the maximum annual interest rate permitted by law, we couldn't change that. But we could increase the number of times the interest is compounded. We did. We guarantee to compound your interest minute by minute.
- 3. Convenient Withdrawal.
Any money that has been on deposit at least 90 days (the legally required limit) may be withdrawn. You can take it out during the first ten days of each calendar quarter without notice. Or at any time with the usual 3-month written notice. Any money withdrawn will have earned maximum interest right to the time you take it out.
- 4. Add to Your Account.
You can open a Time Deposit with $1,000 or more. Then you can add to it in increments of $100 or more. Even arrange automatic transfer from your checking account. If you start with $1,000 and add $100 every month, for example, you'll have $6,423.95 at maturity.
- 5. New Quarterly Statements.
Statements, mailed you each quarter, show the current total of your account, including the additional deposits you've made. They also show the interest you've already earned. And the total amount that has been on deposit long enough to be available for withdrawal without notice.
- 6. Income Tax Statement.
You get a convenient year-end Income Tax Statement showing the total amount of interest earned during the year.
- 7. Handy Passbook Folder.
Now you can keep all your statements, deposit and withdrawal slips and Income Tax Statement together in this compact passbook-type folder.
- 8. Security and Convenience of NBD.
NBD is one of the largest banks in the country... one reason we can guarantee your money will earn what we say it will earn. And to make it convenient for you, we have nearly 100 offices throughout the metropolitan area. Ask about guaranteed Time Deposits at the National Bank of Detroit.

Resident Has Other Views On Liggett Playground Use

Just when it appeared that the question of neighboring children using the Liggett School playground had been settled to the satisfaction of everyone concerned, the NEWS received the following copy of a letter from still another quarter:

August 14, 1968

Dear Mayor McLeod:

I was extremely interested in the article in the Grosse Pointe News this week entitled, "LIGGETT SAYS RESIDENTS MAY USE GROUNDS".

While the feud between Liggett School and the Shores Woods Homeowners Association rages, it appears there are those of us—most directly affected—who have yet to be heard at City Hall.

I am one of many home owners bordering the Liggett playground. I am, also a taxpayer and greatly opposed to the playground being opened to the public. Actually, since we bought our home in November of last year, the playground has never really been closed. The locks on the gates of the property have been broken faster than either Liggett School or my husband and our neighbors could replace them. The property has been invaded daily and we have been given a small sample of what to expect if it is opened legally.

At this point, I would like to add, the "neighborhood children" mentioned in the News article appear to be in the minority. Two days ago we called upon the Grosse Pointe Woods police to assist us in evicting a group of twenty-some youths ranging in ages anywhere from 16 to 20 years. They had arrived at the playground in a four-car caravan from neighboring St. Clair Shores (where, as you know, there is a fine municipal park) and, judging from the attitude of most of them as they were asked to leave, we fearfully expect they may return later in a less playful mood.

If you, Mayor McLeod, or Mr. John R. Jennings (President of the Shores Woods Homeowners Association) would care to visit us here on Briarcliff drive, in the block between River Road and Wedgewood, we would be very happy to have you note that each home boasts at least one newly-broken window. We have been told that each pane (and they are all thermo-pane windows) will cost between $25.00 and $50.00 to replace. Two weeks ago, a Grosse Pointe Woods police officer viewed the current destruction and estimated the damage at around $350.00.

Besides the damages done to our homes, we and our guests have had to endure the foulest obscene language (shouted, of course) and even the roar of motorbikes being ridden over the sodded grounds.

Many times several unobjectionable small groups of young boys have been asked to leave—simply because their presence in the playground attracts a most undesirable element. However, we feel the children around here—the Real neighborhood children—are not deprived of fine playground facilities. Those who arrive by bicycles or parent-driven cars can, just as easily, drop off at the Woods Park and enjoy the facilities we taxpayers have provided for them. The younger boys have only to travel a few blocks to Ferry School grounds where a (usually) completely deserted playground is available.

I am not a new-comer to the scene, nor am I unaware of the needs of the youngsters in this community. As a native Grosse Pointe, I spent my leisure hours on the George Defer playground, Grosse Pointe Park, or in my own backyard. I, in turn, taught my three Grosse Pointe children to respect the privacy of others. None of us have felt deprived of any happiness.

When my husband and I attended a meeting of the Association last Spring (our first and last) we were impressed with the obvious resentment on the part of some of the membership against the "intrusion" in our midst on the part of the private and non-taxpaying Liggett School. For this reason they seemed to feel completely justified in dictating their demands. We were amazed at some of the suggestions made (but, fortunately, not accepted) to achieve their aims. And we were: (1) ashamed of their lack of consideration and appreciation for a lovely architectural addition to our community, and (2) curious to know if Liggett ran into such bitterness from any civic group when they were located on Burns Avenue in Detroit.

The Shores Woods Homeowners Association MUST realize that the open fields around the Liggett School are rapidly disappearing. With property values increasing and the cost of building rising, each new home represents, at least, a $60,000 investment on the part of the taxpayer. Contrary to the sentiments of the Association, we bought or built these desirable homes across the street from a PRIVATE school playground where, we were given to understand, the Liggett recreation area was off-limits to the public and the most we could expect in the way of a disturbance was an occasional Lacrosse game played by the girls of the school.

Since we did not anticipate the present situation, we feel we should not tolerate anything less than reasonable and orderly conduct on the playground. We would like to know how Liggett School expects to police the playground if it is opened to the public, legally, and how they intend to avoid becoming a public nuisance. We would like to know, as well, if they plan to assume the responsibility for any damages that have been and/or will be incurred.

Please see that this letter is read at the next Woods Council meeting.

Sincerely yours,
Geraldine M. Polkinghorne
(Mrs. Ross E.)

Pointers Named To COG Posts

Two Pointers have been named to Policy Advisory Committee on the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. Mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe David E. Burgess has been appointed to the Public Safety Coordination Committee and Farms Councilman William Kirby has been appointed to the Joint Purchasing Analysis and Action Committee.

The committees will initiate and direct program development in these areas.

Other Policy Advisory Committees have been set up for Solid Waste Disposal Coordination and Educational Requirements and Financing. These areas represent four of 10 major areas of concern SEMCOG has established as initial activities.

In announcing the appointments, William Mainland, Chairman of SEMCOG, noted that the committee members were selected from the delegates to the Council's General Assembly. The delegates, all of whom are representatives of local government in the southeast Michigan region, will assume major responsibility for the development of the SEMCOG's program.

The Council of Governments, a voluntary association of local governments, was created early this year. SEMCOG has been founded in the spirit of voluntary cooperation among existing local forms of government can best combine total resources for area-wide challenges that are beyond individual capabilities of any one local government.

Policy Advisory Committees will soon be appointed for COG's six other priority programs. These areas are: Comprehensive Health Planning, Housing Trends and Needs, Regional Building Code and Enforcement Coordination, and Information Systems Services, Federal and State Aid Liaison, and Regional Anti-Poverty Coordination.

CHARITY CHEATED

An employe of Baskin-Robbins, 17004 Kercheval, called City police on Friday, August 16, to report that persons unknown had stolen a canister, which was on the counter near the cash register, containing $6 or $7 of donations to St. Jude Hospital. Two boys who were in the store earlier were questioned by officers but denied any involvement in the theft.

The new Mercedes-Benz 250: so "over-engineered" it won't mush, sway or wallow—even on cloverleaf turns.

On today's high-speed turnpikes, it's easy to forget how fast you're driving. Mentally, you're "velocityized," as one expert put it. So, sometimes you take the off-ramp at a cloverleaf intersection a little faster than you meant to.

You crank away on the steering wheel, but your car tugs straight ahead like a dog straining at the leash. The tires squeal and your passengers squirm. One of life's embarrassing moments.

What "over-engineering" can mean to you

You probably could have avoided the drama if you'd been driving the new Mercedes-Benz 250. It runs rings around most cars. It out-handles and out-maneuvers them to help you avoid anxious moments.

How does Mercedes-Benz make a 4-door sedan with the agility of a sports car? In the words of one critic, the new 250 is "over-engineered."

He's right. And Mercedes-Benz is proud of it. By conventional standards, the new Mercedes-Benz 250 is "over-engineered." It's built to far more exacting standards than ordinary cars.

A patented improvement

The 250's suspension system is patented—one of the more than 5,200 basic engineering patents held by Mercedes-Benz. The engineers simply would not tolerate poor roadholding or a jarring ride.

Their ingenious solution: a pair of anti-sway bars—one in front, one at the back. Without these concealed torsion bars to fight body lean, the suspension's springs would have to be so stiff that the ride would be ruined.

With two anti-sway bars (most cars have one), the 250's suspension is soft enough on a washboard road to absorb annoying jolts. And on a tight turn, it's firm enough to prevent mush and wallow.

A suspension that sacrifices neither ride nor handling is a good example of how "over-engineering" works for you. Here are some more examples:

A superior braking system

Many ordinary cars still use old-fashioned drum brakes.

Today's 180-mph Grand Prix racing cars use disc brakes. So does the Mercedes-Benz 250. And not just on the front wheels, but on every wheel. Drum brakes are cheaper, but tests prove that disc brakes provide the most precise braking possible—at any speed. So Mercedes-Benz engineers insist on 4-wheel disc brakes as standard equipment. With 421.1 square inches of braking area, it's virtually impossible to outrun the 250's brakes.

10,000 body welds

Most conventional cars have a separate body and chassis, held together with bolts. After a while, the bolts can work loose. On a washboard road, the rattles can be deafening. Mercedes-Benz eliminated the body bolts. In their place are over 10,000 individual welds. The result is a structure of immense strength and rigidity. After

This "walled-in" turn at the Mercedes-Benz test track is a brutal test of the suspension. Test drive the remarkable new 250 yourself.

50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 250 will ever rattle.

Overhead-cam engine

Usually, your car's engine is either tuned for power or economy—not both. By employing a sophisticated overhead-camshaft layout borrowed from Mercedes-Benz World Championship sports/racing cars, the engineers were able to improve the engine's volumetric efficiency (its ability to "breathe"). This remarkable engine gives the 250 a top speed comparable to a standard V-8 with the fuel economy of a Six.

"Fatigue-proof" seats

Take a day-long trip in some cars and you'll wind up feeling like a damp washrag. The Mercedes-Benz 250 is engineered as much for human comfort as it is for mechanical efficiency. Orthopedic physicians were consulted in the design of the 250's seats so you'll have proper support on cross-country tours as well as short hops to the supermarket. When you first slip into one of the 250's carefully contoured seats, it may seem firm, but once you get used to it, you'll never settle for "marshmallow" seats again. Mercedes-Benz engineers have respect for your backbone.

These are just a few of the many advanced engineering features of the Mercedes-Benz 250. Taken together, they add up to one conclusion: at $5,060,* this car is one of the shrewdest investments on wheels.

Bon Secours Administrator Transferred to Philadelphia

Sister Mary Gertrude, C.B.S., who has served as a nurse and hospital administrator in this area since 1920, is leaving Grosse Pointe to take up a new assignment with the Sisters of Secours in Philadelphia.

Appointed administrator of

SISTER MARY GERTRUDE

Bon Secours Hospital in 1944. Sister Mary Gertrude has been the principal architect of its development and is known to thousands of residents who have used its services during her long tenure there. In 1961 she became Provincial Councillor of the Bon Secours Sisters.

"The contributions of Sister Mary Gertrude to Bon Secours Hospital and to the entire community are beyond measure," Frank Couzens, Chairman of the Advisory Board said. "She leaves behind a record of achievement that will be a lasting tribute to her and a lasting benefit to all who use the hospital that stands as the principal result of her life's work."

Sister Mary Gertrude's life as a Sister of Bon Secours covers a span of more than half a century. She entered the religious society of women dedicated to medical care in 1915. She made her final vows as a Sister of Bon Secours in the Society's Motherhouse in Paris, France, in 1924. She had been there for a year — the only year in the last forty-eight that she did not spend caring for the sick in this area.

Born in Wilmington, Delaware, Sister Mary Gertrude attended high school and business college there and was employed by the DuPont Company before deciding to become a Sister of Bon Secours.

After entering the Society she was graduated from the Mercy Hospital School of Nursing in Baltimore. One of her first nursing assignments was caring for the soldiers at Camp Meade, Md., during the influenza epidemic of World War I.

In January, 1966, several hundred of her friends paid tribute to her on the occasion of her forty-fifth anniversary in Detroit. A dinner was held in her honor at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and a fund was established in her name to provide educational assistance to members of the Sisters of Bon Secours.

Sister Mary Gertrude's new assignment will be at Our Lady Help of Christians Nursing Home, 56th and City Line Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Kids Use Truck To Do Drinking

A resident of Lincoln road called City police on Monday, August 12, to report a suspicious van truck was parked in front of his residence.

Upon arrival officers found three juveniles in the truck in possession of alcoholic beverages. The three were taken to the station and their parents notified of the charges against their sons. The boys were released to their parents.

The truck belonged to a 16 year old youth who was attending a dance at the War Memorial at the time of the arrests. He told officers he was not involved in the drinking.

The truck was held for the driver's parents.

Cadet Rabant Takes Training at Ft. Knox

Cadet Thomas W. Rabaut, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rabaut, 1015 Three Mile drive, is one of more than 800 junior and senior cadets at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y., who are receiving Army Orientation Training at various Army installations this summer.

The cadet, a second classman (junior), is assigned for approximately four weeks this month to Ft. Knox, Ky.

During this period, he will receive extensive training with a combat unit of the U.S. Army. The training is designed to give the cadets firsthand knowledge of the duties, responsibilities and living conditions of a junior officer.

Each cadet is required to demonstrate leadership ability in several demanding Army exercises.

Cadet Rabaut was appointed to the military academy by Rep. Martha W. Griffith (D-Mich.). He is a 1966 graduate of Austin Catholic High School, Detroit, Mich.

Woods Police Arrest Third Man in $50,000 Theft Case

A third man accused of participation in the embezzlement of more than $50,000 in drugs and other merchandise from the Arnold Drug Store chain, voluntarily surrendered to Woods police on Monday, August 12.

Det. Everett Plumb, who has been working on the case, said that Lawrence J. Timek, 28, of 19179 Cliff street, Detroit, stopped in the station to give himself up and asked why the authorities were looking for him. Timek was informed that he is accused of receiving and concealing stolen merchandise, and that a warrant had been issued for his arrest.

Also involved in the embezzlement and awaiting trial in Wayne County Circuit Court is Kenneth Geisler, 28, of 12522 Dresden, Detroit, who is alleged to have disposed of numerous drugs and items of merchandise to various sources, at 40 percent below cost price, and dividing the money with William Burnstein, 32, of 8547 Hedgeway, Utica, Mich. Burnstein is named as a co-conspirator, but not as a defendant, Plumb said.

Timek told the detective that Burnstein had borrowed $140 from him some time ago, and that about four months ago he was approached by Burnstein and asked if he knew any one who could sell small amounts of drugs that he (Burnstein) had in his possession. The money received would help pay some of the money owed him, Timek said Burnstein told him.

Timek said he gave the items to a third party, whom he refused to name because the person is a family man with two children, and who, Timek said, was not aware that the goods were stolen property.

Timek was arraigned before Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow, on the date of his surrender, on the warrant accusing him of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100. He entered a plea of not guilty and demanded an examination, which the judge set for yesterday, August 21. Bond was set at $500.

The embezzlement came to light, when Burnstein, who did the actual stealing, was confronted by the drug store firm officials, who had received a tip from a St. Clair Shores drugstore owner on June 7 regarding Burnstein, who had been apprehended stealing drugs and consequently fired. Burnstein, a full-time employee of Arnold Drugs, was working part time for the St. Clair Shores store.

Burnstein was called to the head office of his full-time employers, 15186 West Eight Mile road, Oak Park, and when asked about the St. Clair Shores incident, voluntarily confessed the thefts from the place, and also admitted that over a four-year period, he took approximately $50,000 in drugs and other items from the Woods store, 20853 Mack avenue, and other firm stores to which he had been transferred.

Burnstein also admitted taking $50, sometimes $75, and even $100 each week, during the past four years, averaging about $3,000 in cash each year, by merely ringing up undercharged sales and pocketing the difference.

He claimed he took the money only when he needed it, and used it to pay medical bills for his wife, and to maintain living expenses.

Burnstein, who had been an employee of the drug store chain since December 1960, met Geisler at the firm's Hoover-Twelve Mile store in Warren, and struck up a professional and social relationship with him. When Geisler was shifted to another store, an inventory of the Warren store was taken, and losses were discovered that resulted in Geisler's dismissal.

Seven months later, Geisler contacted Burnstein and told him he had the means of disposing of any merchandise, such as drugs and other tangible items, that Burnstein could take out of the store.

Burnstein told Plumb that each night he would take items out of the store and store them in his home, until he had a sizable amount.

In August 1967, he was transferred to the Woods store, and from the time he began work there, until his suspension, Burnstein said, he took a total of $2,580.87 worth of goods, for which he received a share of $450, after they were sold by Geisler.

Burnstein said that his share of the loot sold amounted to an estimated $3,000 a year, besides $3,000 a year in cash he estimated he pocketed.

On June 11, Geisler came to the station with his attorney and surrendered himself. After he was informed of his rights, he confessed that he had been receiving stolen merchandise from Burnstein and that he had disposed of them, splitting money received 50-50 with Burnstein.

Following this, Geisler was arraigned before Shores Judge George Beauchamp, in the absence of Judge Goodrow, and stood mute and waived examination. A plea of innocent was entered for him and he was released on $1,000 bond pending trial in Circuit Court.

Writer Flees to Far Isle Following Shudnabin Week

By Walter Fuller

I've been ensconced on a paradisiacal northern island, far away from the woes of the world, on an estate bounded on three sides by a forest, almost not quite, primeval and on the fourth by a bay the Indians named Potaganissing.

Up there you'll find deer and bear, and all sorts of birds and bees, and fish such as perch, rainbow trout, and bass, in addition to a plenitude of peace and quiet, and other nice stuff like that.

No air on this earth could possibly be purer, and at night the stars look close enough to reach up and pluck from the heavens. And, within 24 hours after arrival a person unwinds, and becomes completely oblivious to all the silly things that are going on around us these days.

Actually, all this came about mainly because of that week that was the week that was—and shouldn't have been! Among the chief shudnabins were one night of a tiresome 17-inning baseball game, and three horrid nights of sitting before the boob tube, and watching the unhappy, sleepy people trying hard to listen to speeches and, at the same time, staring off death from ennui during the blabbering Republican convention.

Suffering Fans
In some strange manner . . . which, at the moment, escapes me . . . I became more or less involved, through no fault of my own, in both the aforementioned gymkanas . . . one in person, the other by remote control. And, I wound up muttering to myself, and walking across the ceiling, which wasn't a very good thing to do.

So, now, let's take the ball game. If you can believe 48,746 supposedly normal humans would sit, smouldering, knee to knee, shoulder to shoulder, and elbow to elbow, with their clothes on, yet in the mammoth sauna which was Tiger Stadium, to watch the Detroit and Cleveland fight a ferocious, and very boresome, battle of brain and brawn, you're absolutely right. They did it—and that includes poor, silly old me.

It's one thing to watch these opposing nine on a pleasant and cool evening winding up things in nine innings. But it's real Dullsville to sit on a hard slat chair, in oppressing heat and humidity, for four and a half hours, watching what some were wont to call the game of the century. After the thing was over I rushed out and got analyzed, and was told I was just as sane as the other 48,475 people in the park—which certainly was some sort of a left-handed opinion.

Biggest Mistake

Now, as far as I could determine, the biggest mistake in that ball game was made by a fellow named Don Weri who slammed out what is called a home run in the eighth to tie the Forest City lads.

Kelley Rules

though local communities may pass such ordinances they can only be carried out if they do not conflict with the emergency powers exercised by the governor. Kelley said, "when conflicting orders are issued, those of the governor's of course, will prevail. The validity of the underlying ordinance of the home rule city or other local communities is founded upon constitutional statutory rights of home rule cities in emergencies. It is strongly supported by Michigan law and by public interest in reciprocal and cooperative enforcement of the state police power in times of emergency by state and city officials acting together."

Kelley added, that this "represents his legal judgment on this matter," it would be much wiser to rely upon a full scale response, coordinated by the state rather than permit the piecemeal measures by individual communities.

Kelley recommended that local officials utilize "our modern communication networks" to notify state officials of developing civil disorders.

Teachers, Board Break Off Talks

The negotiations between teachers and the Board of Education were broken off on Friday after a counter-proposal by the teachers to the Board of Education was rejected by Board representatives. Willis Brown, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association told the NEWS that negotiations appear to be at a standstill. He added that contrary to public belief the teachers have not agreed on salary contracts for this coming school year although they have agreed to non-economic aspects of the contract.

Mr. Brown said another meeting is scheduled on Monday, August 26, with a representative of the Labor Mediation Board.

I'll bet you a box of used wild raspberries that along about the 15th inning, as the mighty struggle for supremacy slowly crept along, that old Don was mighty sorry he swatted that four-bagger.

If he hadn't did that, as a friend of mine used to say, we'd all been home a couple of hours earlier, and tucked away in bed.

It's a terrible thing to mention but that swat by Weri caused such prolonged humidity suffering by folks all over the stands, and by a flock of Shriners clad in heavy uniforms who were forced to wait around to do their 'tween games stuff, that maybe he oughta be ashamed of himself. The final win wasn't worth it!

Why I sat there like a know-nothing nunny for more than five hours in that awful heat and humidity I'll never know . . . except the man behind me was a fellow named Jim Niebauer, and he was 90 years old, and he kept telling me how cool he was. So I fell for it . . . the psychology, that is!

Tower of Babel

Now we must need pass along to those horrible, nightmarish nights when the television set became the Tower of Babel as a million Republican orators stumbled over wires to grab microphones which were all over the place.

If it had not been for occasional soothing tones emanating from a voice box owned by a gray-haired dandy named E.

Dirksen, we would have broken into sobs. The only other happy bit of embroglio was the manner in which Michigan's own Jerry Ford handled himself as chairman.

Then there was this odd fellow from one of the Carolinas who popped up so unexpectedly he threw the whole ball of wax into a temporary bit of chaos. Instead he got what is lovingly know as the bum's rush. He may have been a little wild-eyed but that southern gentleman and the balloons which must have taken a minuter or two to inflate, were the highlights of one evening which otherwise may have been lost forever.

If the upcoming Democratic convention in Chicago is as devoid of interest to the public as was the one down in Miami Beach, I'm going to start another campaign to do away with political conventions and give the country, and the choice of candidates, back to the American people.

Why can't we make our own decisions? Why do a flock of a few hundred delegates dictate to 200 million people whom they should have in the White House? It's all a lot of hogwash!

There is much more along this line I could easily write but my boss is looking over my shoulder . . . and so, before I depart, I did want to say my favorite candidate for office on either ticket would be Kermit Klappendooper, if only I could talk him into running.

DRIVE OVER LAWS
City police received a report from Bruce Miller, 616 University, on Sunday, August 11, of persons unknown driving across yards at 616 and 622 University. Upon investigation officers found the tire marks belonged to a small car. The car appeared to have driven up the driveway at 616 University, across the front yard, and into the front yard of 622, then down the drive. Police are investigating.

If you'd like to save some money, you'll be interested in Direct Distance Dialing. It's a more economical way to call Long Distance because direct dialed calls are all Station-to-Station instead of Person-to-Person.

It's easy, too. Just dial "1", then the Area Code, if it's different from your own, and the number you want. For an idea of how much you can save, here's an example. A 3-minute Person-to-Person call between Detroit and Chicago costs $1.30 at the day rate. Dial direct and the cost is only 86¢.

So whenever you're reasonably sure the party you're calling will be there, dial direct and let the savings roll in!

City Replacing Water Meters

The City of Grosse Pointe has begun its Water Meter Replacement Program, which was approved by the City Council last February. The City plans to replace approximately 100 meters annually at no cost to the property owners. Replacement will be based on age and condition of meters.

The new system is a fascinating one. The meter man will carry a small, metal box with a long plug that fits into the outside receptacle and automatically flashes the reading without the meter man having to enter the house.

Ultimately, when all meters have been replaced or converted, the meter reader will get a reading through a punch tape inside the small box. After the meter is read, the tape is pulled out and sent to a Computer Center where the bills are prepared. This system is a great time saver and will reduce the billing time to one week.

If your meter is not included on the list of meters to be converted within the next few years and you wish to have this remote unit installed, the City will do so for a charge of $25, the price of the conversion unit. There will be no charge for installation or labor. The City will take as many orders for these units as time and labor will allow.

Some of the advantages of the new meters are that the reader does not have to enter the house to get the reading, human error is eliminated in both the reading and the billing and the meters can be read in half the time.

Pointers Win Battle of Bands

The "Sounds of Night" came up the winners in the "1968 Battle of the Bands" held at the Music Center in East Detroit last week. Four of the boys currently attend Grosse Pointe High Schools and one is a recent graduate. They received 14 points more than any of the other 50 participating bands. (78 points out of a possible 100.) They were awarded a sound system and a recording contract. The group includes: Joe Doyle, Greg Paige, John Brilowski, Jim Amori and Bob Johns.

Barclay Residents Protest Condition of Vacant Lot

Five residents living in Barclay road affixed their signature to a letter to Farms Mayor William Butler, the city council, and to the Wayne County Health Department, demanding that weeds in a vacant lot in their street be cut.

Warren F. Parker of 433 Barclay, who disclosed that the letters had been sent, claimed that for some time he and his neighbors have been trying to get some action on the lot, located between 433 and 439 Barclay, but to no avail. The condition of the property was described as "disgraceful", and as presenting a health problem to both children and adults.

It was charged that weeds of every variety made it impossible to "keep our own homes and grounds presentable", and that very little action has been taken by the Farms, and therefore, the Barclay residents are entering a protest.

Parker asserted that the Farms council passed an ordinance in May of this year (Code 7-02 Amendment to Nuisance Ordinance No. 170) which should have taken care of the problem.

"Law and order are much in contention these days and we want and demand strict compliance with this new ordinance," the residents stated in their letter.

John DeFoe, director Public Services who is charged with the enforcement of the ordinance, said that the city had sent out notices to the owners of the lot on several occasions, and that when the owners failed to cut the weeds, the city did so.

DeFoe said that the city had stepped in three times and cut the weeds on this lot, when the owners failed to do so, once before the ordinance was amended, and twice after, with the record showing that the last cutting occurred the week of July 5. The fourth cutting is scheduled for this week, he added.

Since this is the first year that the amendment is being enforced, the owners of the Barclay lot, and other lots where the city had to step in and cut weeds, will be billed for the service, as provided by the law. DeFoe said that there is no provision in the law which authorizes the issuing of violation tickets citing lot owners for court, but the owners are sent notices explaining the provisions of the ordinance requiring that weeds at least be cut.

The city cannot make a move unless these owners fail to act and then, and only then, can the Farms use Department of Public Works equipment and manpower to cut the weeds, and bill the lot owners for the job done.

Sometimes it is almost impossible to do any cutting, due to the soft ground, caused by rains, or rocks and debris on the properties involved, DeFoe said. On several occasions, heavy machine equipment became bogged down because of the condition of the ground, he added.

He said that last April 22, he received a letter from Parker who complained of his own neighbors dumping grass clippings and other debris in the vacant lot in question, and that he (DeFoe) sent notices to the residents involved that this practice was in violation of the law and must be stopped. The people were informed that the city will pick up the clippings and other rubbish, so there was no need to dump in the lot. This practice ceased immediately after, DeFoe said.

Metropolitan Club Sponsors 27th Annual Kids Field Day

The Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club, Spirit 20, has again selected the site of Brownell Junior High School grounds, for its annual Field Day for Pointe children, it was disclosed by Park Fire Sgt. Dave Taylor, chairman of the event.

The organization set Saturday, August 24, as the day for the 27th Annual Field Day, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and extends an invitation to all Pointe children and their parents, and other Pointe adults to attend. Admission is by authorized park passes, which must be shown at the gate.

It was estimated that approximately 5,000 persons participated in the 1967 affair, and it is hoped that this number will be equalled or surpassed this year.

As in the Field Days of the past, there will be many free prizes. Entertainment will include free pony rides and rides on the 40&8 American Legion Box Car. Too, there will be clowns from the various police departments to make the children laugh.

There will be gobs and gobs of goodies, such as pop corn, cotton candy, ice cream, hot dogs, and plenty of soft drinks, Taylor said, all for free, thanks to many Pointe merchants. Without the help of these merchants, who also donated prizes, whose generosity is greatly appreciated by the Metropolitan Club, the yearly event would not be the success that it is Taylor said.

Taylor said that the starting time is 10 a.m. sharp, and in order for the children to be eligible for the many prizes, boys and girls must register at designated registration points on the school grounds. There is nothing to buy, but any child who fails to register, will lose a chance to win something.

Although many merchants contributed edibles and prizes, most of food is purchased by the Club, with funds raised through the sale of tickets, which is strongly supported by Pointe residents and people living surrounding areas.

Spirit 20 membership is comprised of policemen and firemen of the Pointe, and mail carriers of the Pointe Branch of the United States Post Office, Mack and Warren.

New Exhibit to Tell The NASA Story

An exciting new exhibit, The NASA Story, will be on display at the National Aviation and Space Exposition at Willow Run Airport, September 14 and 15, it was announced by James V. Votta, executive vice-president of the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association and General Manager of the Exposition.

The remarkable accomplishments of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in its brief nine year history is unmatched in this nation's history. NASA has made a record of which all Americans can take great pride. The NASA exhibit will be a highlight of the 1968 Exposition," Votta said.

The "NASA Story" exhibit provides a theater atmosphere with color slide and tape sound track in a circular 18' diameter by 13' high display. Subjects covered include communication and meteorological satellites, moon photographs, an X15 flight, and astronauts on actual missions.

In addition, models of the Mercury spacecraft, the Gemini spacecraft, the Apollo spacecraft, plus the Lunar Module will be exhibited.

The one-man Mercury spacecraft was the vehicle in which John H. Glenn, Jr. orbited the first American to orbit the earth on February 20, 1962.

The two-man Gemini spacecraft got underway on April 8, 1964, and ended on November 15, 1966, scoring a number of "firsts" such as rendezvous and docking in space and extra-vehicular activity or "space walking."

The Apollo spacecraft is the spacecraft in which the astronauts will fly to the moon and back.

"Depending upon NASA training and flight schedules at the time, we are hopeful that an astronaut will also attend the 1968 Exposition," Votta said. Three of NASA's astronauts have made appearances before the membership of MASA in the past according to Votta. Astronaut Don F. Eisele in 1965, Astronaut Michael A. Collins in 1966, and Astronaut James A. McDevitt in 1967. McDevitt received MASA's "Pilot Proficiency Award" in 1967. The award was presented by Captain Eddie Rickenbacker.

In addition to the NASA exhibit are approximately 200,000 sq. ft. of indoor and outdoor exhibits and more than three hours of aerial demonstrations each day.

The Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association, (formerly the Aero Club of Michigan), is America's oldest state-wide aviation organization, having been organized in 1909. Both Orville and Wilbur Wright are listed as charter members.

Tickets to the Exposition are available at all J. L. Hudson and Grinnell stores; also at BSDUS Flight Service and McGrath Flying School, both at the Willow Run Airport. Reserved box seat tickets must be purchased in advance.

Grosse Pointe Park held its Junior Olympics, attracting 135 children with 1,085 entries in eight different events, at the waterfront recreation center on August 8 and 9.

The President's Council on Physical Fitness has a standard rating chart which is as follows:—Poor, Satisfactory, Good, Presidential Award, and better yet is Excellent. But this rating chart is only for children from ages 10 through 17. The Park Olympics ran from ages 4 through 14. First, second and third place ribbons were given.

In the 50-Yard Dash, Donna Mueller, who placed first, won an Excellent according to President Kennedy's chart. Molly Blake, who placed second, won a Presidential Award.

David Hyde, who is 12 years of age, won the Presidential Award in the 50-Yard Dash.

Miranda Burnham, first place winner for 50-Yard Dash—Girls Ages 10-11, took a Presidential Award in first place.

In Standing Broad Jump, Molly Blake, who is 13, took a 6' 10" jump. Excellent is 6' 3". Donna Mueller is Excellent at 6' 6", and Mary O'Connell received a Presidential Award at 6' 2 3/4".

In Standing Broad Jump, the boys 13 years old fell 3 1/2 inches short of Presidential Award. But 12-year-olds made Presidential Award mark of 6' 2", placing one in second place was John Chancy with 6' 3". David Hyde (6' 2") and Kevin McKernan (6' 2") took two third place wins.

Eleven-year-old Miranda Burnham took first place Broad Jump with Presidential Award.

In Broad Jump—Boys 10-11, Dave Ehrlich, 10 years old, tied for first place with Kevin MacConnachie, 11 years old, for a Presidential Award.

Sit Ups for girls 12-13, first, second and third place winners Mary O'Donnell, 62, Donna Mueller, 56, and Molly Blake, 50, won an Excellent Award. Any number over 50 is considered the ultimate for girls.

Sit Ups for boys 12-13 did not match the Presidential Award standard which is 100 for boys at the same age level.

Girls 10-11 surged above the required mark with first place winner Karen McKernan, 61 Sit Ups, and Mary Jarvis with 60 Sit Ups. Again 50 is the number of Push Ups that have to be achieved by girls from 10 years to 17 years and 100 is the number that boys of the same ages must be able to complete.

Girls 10-11 Softball Throw fell short of Presidential Award.

Boys 10-11 also fell short of Presidential Award.

Girls 12-13, Ann Shock, age 13, threw 99' 0" and Sindi Horvath, age 13, threw 97' 3". Presidential Award is 94' 0".

Boys 12-13 age group were above Excellent. Kevin McKernan, age 12, threw 175' 5". David Hyde, age 12, threw 169' 6". To arrive at Excellent age 12, one must throw 165' 0".

Football League Planning Season

By DuWayne Peterson

Last week at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial the Board of Directors of the Grosse Pointe Lions of the All-American Football Leaguers met to work out details for the 1968 season.

Bob Brower, president, stated that letters would be sent out next week to all of this year's participants in Little League baseball and the returning members of last year's Little League football teams, announcing the key dates for the start of the 1968 season.

Initial informal practice sessions will begin on Tuesday, September 3, at 4:30 at the Neighborhood Club. A Parents' Meeting will be held on Thursday, September 5 at 8 p.m. at the Pierce School Auditorium.

Every boy who will be 9 years old by September 1, 1968, or will not be older than 12 years on that date, and who lives in the City of Grosse Pointe or Grosse Pointe Park is eligible to take part in Little League activities.

"We know that many other youngsters who do not receive letters will want to take part," Mr. Brower said. "Many will be new residents of the area unfamiliar with our Little League activities. We want them to know that they, too, are most welcome."

Jim Steen, Athletic Director, announced the following schedule of games for the 1968 season.

September 21 — Riverview Pirates, Away.

September 29 — St. Clair Shores Black Knights, Home.

October 6 — St. Clair Shores Green Berets, Home.

October 12 — East Detroit Tiger Cats, Away.

October 20 — Belleville, Home.

October 27 — Roseville Mohawks, Home.

November 3 — Grosse Pointe Packers, Away.

The biggest bargain package in entertainment, information and all-around fun will be opened at 8 a.m. Friday, August 23. It's the 119th Michigan State Fair, and it will run through Labor Day, Monday, September 2.

E. J. (Jeff) Keirns, the new State Fair general manager, said the emphasis is on "free" this year. He explained that all Music Shell, Grandstand, and Coliseum big-star attractions will be free to State Fair patrons.

The lineup of such attractions is perhaps the greatest in history, with such stars as the Young Americans, Ed Ames, Arthur Godfrey, the Cowells, Frank Sinatra Jr., and George Kirby in the Music Shell, 15 horse shows in the Coliseum; and a smashing auto thrill show and some of the world's best aerial performers in front of the Grandstand.

A feature of opening day will be the Grand Opening Parade, which is scheduled for downtown Detroit at 10 a.m., with bands, floats, horses' beauty queens, twirlers and other marching units taking part. The parade will be on Woodward from the Fisher Freeway to Jefferson.

At the Fairgrounds, Eight Mile and Woodward, meanwhile, the fair itself will be in full swing, with animal judging in the Coliseum, the delighted shrieks of youngsters on Gay Midway rides, the appreciative sniffs of visitors to the cookie and cake displays in the Community Arts Building, the swinging beat on the Teen Scene.

"Consumer Meets Producer" is the theme of the agricultural section at this year's fair. It is being repeated from last year because it succeeded in bringing to city dwellers a better idea of just how the food he and his family consume gets from farm to table. And the fair helps the country folk meet their city cousins, tour Detroit, and find out what their "customers" like.

A record $150,000 in premiums this year has attracted more than 20,000 entries in the various categories.

Beef cattle, dairy cattle, horses, swine, sheep, poultry, rabbits, and pigeons are among the many exhibits, along with grains, and vegetables, honey and nuts, fruit, maple syrup, and flowers.

Homemakers, craftsmen, and artists will show their wares in the Community Arts Building—from canned and baked goods to abstract paintings and sculptures.

The Teen Scene will be popular with the younger set, as instrumental and vocal groups compete daily for honors. Judo and other sports events will be featured, as will career talks and information.

The Gay Midway will offer rides and shows, old and new. There will be industrial exhibits and displays from governmental units offering information and education.

Visitors even will get a chance to see the fair from the air. The Sky Glider, a 1,900-foot-long new ride five stories high, will be in operation to give patrons a panoramic view of the grounds. Helicopter rides also are being offered on the grounds.

The entertainment lineup for the Music Shell includes:

Friday through Sunday, August 23-25 — The Young Americans; Gladys Knight & the Pips; the State Fair Honors Band, made up of the top high school musicians from all over the state.

Monday through Wednesday, August 26-28 — Ed Ames; Smoky Robinson & the Miracles.

Thursday through Friday, August 29-30 — Arthur Godfrey; the Cowells; Tony and Carolyn Godfrey's evening performances will be in the Coliseum horse shows and he also will perform Saturday afternoon and evening, August 31, in the horse show.

Saturday through Monday, August 31-September 2 — Frank Sinatra Jr.; George Kirby & the Goldiggers; Ballet America.

An additional Music Shell attraction will be the finals of the Miss Michigan State Fair beauty contest, to be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, August 28.

The Grandstand attractions will be the Hurricane Hell Drivers from Friday through Sunday, August 23-25. From Monday, August 26, through the end of the fair, the State Fair Aerial Spectacular will be presented three times daily. The Atlantic Fleet's Seabees Drill Team will show its stuff at each Grandstand show. In addition, pre-Olympic trial boxing will be held at 7 p.m. Friday, August 30.

The Coliseum attractions will include livestock judging, exhibits in the halls, and 15 free horse shows, with all kinds of horses on hand, from tiny ponies to giant Percherons.

Special days at the fair will include:

Friday, August 23 — Grand Opening Day, with a morning parade in downtown Detroit.

Saturday, August 24 — Veterans Day, with crack drill teams and drum-and-bugle corps entertaining, and a special ceremony at the Veterans Monument.

Sunday, August 25 — Religion Day, with a sunrise service in the Music Shell at 8 a.m. and everyone admitted free to the Fairgrounds until 8 a.m. U.S. Judge Luther W. Youngdahl will be the speaker.

Monday, August 26 — Old Timers' Day, with senior citizens admitted free until 3 p.m., and contests featuring baldheads, pretty hats, and lots of grandchildren.

Tuesday, August 27 — Children's Day, with special events and reduced Midway prices for the Youngsters.

Wednesday, August 28 — Queen's Day, honoring the candidates for the Miss Michigan State Fair title.

Thursday, August 29 — Governor's Day, with Gov. George Romney as guest of honor.

Friday, August 30 — Family Day, with fun for all and honors for the "Family of the Year", the largest family.

Saturday, August 31 — Michigan Mayors' Day, honoring the chief executives of the state's communities.

Sunday, September 1 — International Day, with honors for and entertainment by the state's ethnic groups.

Monday, September 2 — Labor

Make The Lesson Stick

Congratulations to Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson of the City of Grosse Pointe for embellishing the sentences handed out to a few of our law-flaunting, youthful citizens.

The story is on page one of this issue, but in case you haven't gotten that far yet, the good judge had before him a youth caught tampering with a parking meter.

Four other misguided teenagers who had the temerity to take a stop sign and a one-way street sign from City thoroughfares were all ordered to count every sign of this type throughout the entire municipality.

Two youngsters whose stupidity had led them to throw empty beer cans at the door of the police station were fined $25 each and ordered to follow a City rubbish truck to the dump site in 26-Mile road with a container of cans and other rubbish, and personally deposit the contents in the pit.

Nice going, Judge. We have a suggestion for future dealings with this sort of nonsense, particularly the littering bit. We have become increasingly irritable over the flagrant violating of the ordinances approved by each of the Pointes, having to do with the untidy tossing of rubbish.

The police and all of the residents should be much more alert to this situation. Anyone seen breaking the littering law should be reported immediately, followed by quick prosecution.

not only fun, but which provide and support meaningful projects for the community: projects such as blood-drives; fund raising drives for muscular dystrophy, leukemia, the Heart Fund, and the Cancer Foundation; and community service projects such as painting a recreation center in the Total Action Against Poverty Program, or taking retarded children to a baseball game.

Dear Sir: You are to be highly commended for the editorial in this week's issue of Grosse Pointe News (with the initials WWF) expressing your views about the shocking failure of the voters of the Grosse Pointe Community to exercise their right to vote in the August 6, 1968, Primary Election. Public Schools in Focus

By DR. THEOS I. ANDERSON, Superintendent of Schools During 1967-68 students in The Grosse Pointe Public School System earned important awards in a number of fields.

In May, 25 seniors at Grosse Pointe High School were recognized for outstanding scholastic achievement by the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa.

A high school student was one of the 19 Michigan winners in a competition sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English and another was runner-up.

Nine students from Pierce Junior High School were cited for donating time to various volunteer activities such as the Neighborhood Club and Cottage Hospital.

Three high school seniors were selected to take part in the Fourth Annual Southeastern Michigan Junior Science and Humanities Symposium at Wayne State University late in the winter.

Students were named winners in the Novice Debater's League competition. Another won the American Legion Oratory Contest on the United States Constitution.

Sports stories written by a senior at the high school were included in a publication distributed by the Newspaper Fund.

And at a Band Festival held in mid-winter our students received first division ratings in 37 events.

During the spring we learned that out of 26,000 students (from 700 schools), who took the Michigan Competitive Mathematics examination, three of the 92 winners were from Grosse Pointe High School.

And 11 Grosse Pointe High School students won 18 awards in the 1968 Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition.

The High School Symphony Band, received first division ratings at the District Band Festival and the Symphony Orchestra received first division ratings at the District Orchestra Festival held March 16.

A week later in Ann Arbor instrumental music students received 20 first division ratings at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Six students of Spanish received awards at the state level in the contest sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. A student of German won first place in a competition sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German.

On June 4, 150 seniors at Grosse Pointe High School were elected to the National Honor Society. In early summer we learned that one of our high school students was a winner in the International Science Fair at Cobo Hall.

One of our students was a winner in the Detroit-area Shorthand-Typewriting Contest.

What do these odd bits of information demonstrate? They show, I think, that we are exerting every effort and providing every avenue possible for all phases of the development of the children and youth who attend classes in The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Michigan Bell Offers Slides

HemisFair '68, San Antonio's 250th anniversary celebration, is the title of a new program now available without charge for church, school and civic groups from Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Slides in riotous color will give a clear view of the fun and pageantry found at this birthday party—parades with their marching bands, colorful floats, Spanish dancers, San Antonio historical attractions, the Tower of the Americas, and Kiddleland where young fry talk to their favorite cartoon character by phone.

Arrangements for presenting this new slide talk—whether as a preview, a re-visit or as the one-and-only visit to HemisFair—may be made by calling Michigan Bell's business office and asking for Free Program Service.

the Supreme Court of Michigan. —In addition, delegates to your party's State Convention caucus with other delegates from your Congressional District prior to State Convention time to select two delegates to the National Convention from your Congressional district. The state convention also elects delegates-at-large to the National Convention.

Also on August 15th you had an editorial about the apathy of the Grosse Pointe Voter. I think those who DID feel the importance of this Primary Election and DID vote should know that thirteen duly elected Republican Precinct Delegates DID NOT attend the 14th Congressional District Convention on August 14th. (As noted by Mr. Wells, this is the first and foremost duty of the Precinct Delegate.)

What I want to know (and I did attend the District Convention as an interested Republican Worker even though I was defeated in my delegate race in G. P. Farms Precinct #4) is why did the following Delegates bother to run if they were not willing to perform one of the most important duties of their office; i.e., attend the District Convention:

- Grosse Pointe Park Precinct #2: George Bashara, Sr. Grosse Pointe Park Precinct #4: Edith Bagwell. Grosse Pointe Park Precinct #7: John Axe. Grosse Pointe City Precinct #2: Hudson Mead. Grosse Pointe Farms Precinct #2: Robert Flood. Grosse Pointe Farms Precinct #3: Wilbur Brucker, Jr. Grosse Pointe Farms Precinct #4: Alfred B. Moran. Grosse Pointe Shores Precinct #1: Bradford Lundy, Jr. Grosse Pointe Shores Precinct #2: William Dahling. Grosse Pointe Woods Precinct #3: Charles Chandler. Grosse Pointe Woods Precinct #4: John Mathews. Grosse Pointe Woods Precinct #9: Leon Englehart. Delegate-at-large: Robert Waldron. Sincerely, Anne D. Heenan 54 Touraine Road

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Even though September is hard upon our heels, and we begin to think fall thoughts, we still have a number of summer days for extra reading. Here are some of the most recent books we have added to our collection—they may enhance your hammock reading.

On a hot day, Farley Mowat's THE POLAR PASSION may tempt you. This is a handsome volume dealing with the North Pole. Mr. Mowat is chiefly concerned with the dismissal of the North American Arctic as useless. As an added inducement, this book contains 200 illustrations and maps.

Being an admirer of Brian Moore, I was glad to see a new title by him: I AM MARY DUNNE. This is primarily a book for women—it will involve your empathy, your unconditional sympathetic interest—and it is done with superlative ease. Moore seems to be best when dealing with failed men and frustrated women. In this book, I would say that Mary Dunne is more confused than frustrated.

Another title for women is BORN FEMALE, by Carolyn Bird. Here is detailed the various ways "la difference" does exist and is used against women in the business world. They face tacit discrimination practices are underprivileged, and have been brainwashed into believing they should prefer domesticity.

I found Herbert Tarr's HEAVEN HELP US! fresh! funny and sometimes serious. The story deals with an independent, idealistic young Rabbi and his first congregation in a wealthy suburb. If you enjoyed Harry Kemelman's FRIDAY THE RABBI SLEPT LATE and SATURDAY THE RABBI WENT HUNGRY, this new book by Tarr will be your cup of tea.

Another book which I found absolutely delightful is G. M. Durrell's ROSY IS MY RELATIVE. The Rosy in question is a ponderous elephant with a penchant for booze in any form—an ex-circus alcoholic—whom Adrian Rookwhistle inherits from his Uncle Amos. The rollicking adventures depicted here will almost make you wish you had a Rosy in your family also!

Do you remember the Kim Philby case? Then you will want to read THE PHILBY CONSPIRACY by Bruce Pace. To refresh your mind, Mr. Philby worked half-time for England's Secret Intelligence Service, and half-time for Russia for over 30 years. The authors have converted this story into one of genuinely sobering and fascinating narratives of live-wire deception and deflection.

Have you heard of aerobics? We have a book with this title, written by K. H. Cooper. It is an exercise book, focused on oxygen intake. The idea is to increase each individual's oxygen intake so as to benefit all parts of the body. Running, swimming, cycling are suggested. The author does not approve of isometrics as they only affect the body partially.

Feel like beachcombing? If so, we have the BEACHCOMBER'S HANDBOOK by Euell Gibbons for you. The author spent three years as a beachcomber on Hawaii's main island of Oahu—his sojourn appears to have been a big luau all the way. You will be given pointers on how to pick, pluck, hunt, fish or forage for dozens of dishes. And the recipes will hold up in a modern kitchen.

If you're an antique aficionado, you will like Therle Hughes' COTTAGE ANTIQUES. Here the author concentrates on still readily obtainable English country cottage furnishings and wares. It is a pleasant formal guide for collectors of English antiques.

If you are a reader of THE NEW YORKER, you will want to see ROSS, THE NEW YORKER AND ME, by Jane Grant. The author, Ross's wife, and also his partner, tells the story of the turbulent happy years that gave birth to Ross's great conception.

THE SST: HERE IT COMES, READY OR NOT, by Don Dwigins is a fine account of one of the greatest risk ventures in history, for it is the story of the controversial supersonic transport. The author shows just how the supersonic transport could revolutionize not only flight, but the whole idea of travel.

If it's biography you prefer, let us suggest THE HUXLEYS by Ronald W. Clark. It would seem that this family has been producing geniuses for several generations. Thomas Henry Huxley, nicknamed "Darwin's Bulldog," was a physician, biologist, fearless educational administrator and pioneer. His brilliance was continued in his grandsons Aldous and Sir Julian Huxley.

An unusual book is SCIENCE FICTION BY GASLIGHT, which is a history and anthology of science fiction in the popular magazines from 1891 to 1911. This period saw a high quality in stories, appearing in general interest magazines at a price that nearly everyone could afford. The authors represented are masters of the genre—authors such as Jules Verne, H. G. Wells, Robert Barr and William Hope Hodgson. And many of these stories have never before been included in a science fiction anthology.

So—come in and load up for the few remaining lazy days, or Indian summer days, or rainy days—that are ahead of you.

To The Editor: Our family would like to give a well deserved pat on the back to Sgt. Donald Jacobs and Detective Frank Mustazza of the Grosse Pointe Shores Police Department. We recently had $350 worth of fishing equipment stolen from our boat moored at the Shores dock. Thanks to their very efficient efforts, the four young men responsible were caught and are being punished and to our amazement, all our equipment has been returned even though part of it had been sold. It's very comforting to know our Police Department is made up of men as gentle and concerned as those two were with us. Sincerely, Mrs. John M. Hoy.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

We forced ourselves and started "thinking fall" this week, bought ourselves a new wool dress and lined up tickets to the 16th Annual Junior League Fashionscope.

Both of which "moves in a positive autumnal direction" we recommend unreservedly to our readers: There's nothing more reassuring than KNOWING we'll have something warm to slip into when we need it, something "fresh" that hasn't been hanging around the closet for a good three months...

And we couldn't BEAR to miss out on Fashionscope just because we'd waited too long to place our ticket order — after all, we need to know the direction styles are taking this season in order to plan our own "comprehensive" winter wardrobe.

Fashionscope, in the J. L. Hudson Company's Downtown Auditorium, will be presented twice, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, September 10 and 11, at 2:30 o'clock.

General chairman is Mrs. Richard T. Heglin. General admission tickets are available from Mrs. Arthur T. Waterfall, II, (886-0426), sponsor tickets from Thirza Morrow, (881-4234), and patroness tickets from Mrs. John D. Durno, (882-7203).

Couple Vacation In Canadian Rockies Following Saturday Afternoon Wedding; Will Make Their Home In St. Clair Shores

Masses of yellow roses filled the Little Club Saturday, August 17, providing a floral background for the reception following the wedding of Margret Atkinson ("Marnie") Wakefield and Dr. Charles Munk.

The altar and entrance way of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, setting for the afternoon rites, were flanked with white roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. August Frederick Kammer, Jr., of Cloverly road, and Samuel Chace Wakefield, who came from Minneapolis to give his daughter in marriage.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Munk, of Somerset road.

Pearl embroidery accented the Empire bodice, high neckline and short sleeves of the bride's white lace gown. Her Cathedral length silk illusion veil fell from a matching modified toque headpiece, and she carried a cascade of lilies-of-the-valley and white orchids.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Jeffrey Hudson, the former Pauline Kammer. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Howe, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. George Boynton, Pauline Lord, Suzette Cavado and Jill Dow.

Their Princess frocks of lime and pale blue chiffon featured high, banded necklines, and imported embroidered ribbons trimmed their matching modified toque headpieces. They carried cascades of lime green butterfly orchids.

Best man was Benjamin Weyhing. In the usher corps were Charles Howe, Scott Dean, Dr. Thomas Wehling, Dr. Harry Morris, Warren Windish and the bride's brothers, August Frederick Kammer, III, and Samuel C. Wakefield.

A pale pink Helen Rose dress and matching coat, with pink accessories, was Mrs. Kammer's choice for her daughter's wedding and the reception. The bridegroom's mother selected a coat and dress of pale blue sculptured cotton and a pearl-trimmed hat accented with ribbon and a deeper blue veil.

When the newlyweds left for a vacation in the Canadian Rockies, the bride was wearing a dress and jacket ensemble of red and navy blue silk, a matching bow hat and navy shoes and purse.

Upon their return, the newlyweds will make their home in St. Clair Shores.

Smith-Fricke Vows Spoken August 16

Papal Blessing is Bestowed Upon Couple During Nuptial High Mass; Rites are Followed by Reception at Grosse Pointe War Memorial

Deborah Anne Fricke and Jeffrey William Smith exchanged marriage vows Friday evening, August 16, at a Nuptial High Mass in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church. The Reverend Paul Alandt officiated at the 6:30 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Hubert A. Maino bestowed a Papal Blessing upon the couple.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Egon E. Fricke, of Linville avenue, entertained at a reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial following the rites.

For her wedding, the former Miss Fricke chose a modified sheath gown of candlelight peau de soie embroidered with Alencon lace and styled with a Cathedral train. She wore a matching three-quarter length mantilla veil, also embroidered with Alencon lace, and carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Richard Bivens, of Indianapolis, Ind., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Bischoff, Susan Daleiden, Rita Smykaand and Barbara Steffes.

Their floor length frocks of rose chiffon were fashioned with polished satin trains and cowl necklines, and their floor length illusion veils fell from matching satin Dior headbows. They carried cascades of white mums, pink roses and ivy.

Flower girls Susan Solomon and Deborah Solomon, the bridegroom's nieces, wore long dresses and veils similar to those of the senior attendants, and carried nosegays of mums and roses.

John Smith was best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mrs. Ralph H. Smith, of Champagne road, and the late Mr. Smith.

Heading the usher corps, which included John Chosy, David Crowley, David Ritter and Richard Shrage, was the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Dr. Sam Solomon.

Steven Solomon, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer. The bride's brother, Michael Fricke, and cousin, Patrick Egan, served as altar boys.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fricke selected a satin-trimmed floor length gown of turquoise chiffon. Mrs. Smith, the bridegroom's mother, chose a floor length gown of green chiffon, styled with a lace yoke.

When they return from a vacation in Northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Smith will continue her nursing studies at Providence Hospital while her husband works toward his degree in Electrical Engineering at the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Entered in the annual Rusty Nail Hole-in-One contest are EDWARD A. BATCHELOR, JR., of Touraine road, and MARK CHEFFINS, of Hollywood avenue, both of whom scored their aces at the Country Club of Detroit.

Christmas Ball Planning Begins

The White Christmas Ball, an annual project of the Fonthonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital, will be held this year at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Saturday, December 14.

General chairman, Mrs. Michael C. Burke, of Cloverly road, her co-chairman Mrs. Walter L. Van Goethem, Jr., of Pear Tree lane, and their committee members have already begun preliminary planning for the party.

The Ball, always a pleasant event for participants, is an important source of funds for continuing projects at the hospital, thus benefiting the entire community.

Each year, the Auxiliary publishes a program book for distribution at the Ball. The advertisements in this souvenir program provide an important part of the financial proceeds.

Last year, Ball proceeds were used to establish a new Coronary Care Unit. This year, the Auxiliary hopes to use Ball-raised funds to further develop this intensive care facility by adding to now-existing equipment.

THEY'VE ARRIVED

DEAR PAT,

Something has got to be done about patent leather! Grab a mental image of this if you can. I was sashaying through the lobby of the Remington Rand building (Gino Paoli's men's division lives here) going at a pretty good clip and looking, I thought, quite fetching, but business like with my manila tucked under my arm, when I suddenly ground to an alarming stop and toppled into the arms of a bewildered elevator starter. He was no more shocked than I—my shoes had stuck together in a death's grip each refusing to budge. My first thought was to faint—my second to cry. I was miraculously saved from my third which was to ride to the top and throw myself off because Mr. Gino himself came along offering a very continental assist and we rode up together.

So enchanted was I that I totally forgot how claustrophobic I am and that the showroom is on the 38th floor. If I continually describe the next 2 hours as D-I-V-I-N-E it's only because I thought I was in heaven.

Mr. Gino presided over the entire showing. (That dear man had every one hopping.)

This is a whole new world for a dress buyer. Room after room of men's fashions executed with the deft hand of Italian genius. It is truly D-I-V-I-N-E (would you believe marvellous?) to see what has happened and is happening for men—the excitement in styling—the dazzlement in color.

We started with the soft merino wool, long sleeve turtle and mock turtle shirts. I can't think of a male we know who shouldn't own one in all colors (well, hot pink may not be every man's fox and bagel). As for the turtle—it may be someone else's ugly friend but is certainly handsome when given this new masculine treatment.

The turtle look is interpreted many ways at Paoli. My most favorite is the dress shirt—tuck front—cuff sleeve—but then the bulky knit cable garners accolades on its own—and that neat flat knit with contrasting insert is on the must list, too—to say nothing of a smashing ribbed pinstripe I feel in love with. Well, no sense in getting carried away—you'll see them all soon enough.

A bit later a leather and suede group arrive. A select few with the most fresh styling and crafted tailoring, the type of jacket our men have always worn but brought up to date by these busy fingers abroad.

By now the party was over and I didn't think I could consciously ask to come back and review the line so I had to leave this D-I-V-I-N-E atmosphere. (I'm sorry but it was.)

As the shadow of my elevator fell slowly to the main floor I had to remind myself to pace my patents and walk past the elevator man with head high—ever onward!

Best Love,

Jo

Mrs. Holderness is the former Mary-Kaye Denomme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Denomme, of McKinley avenue. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holderness, of Hidden lane.

A reception in the Versailles Room of the Hotel Pontchartrain followed the 11:30 o'clock service, at which The Reverend Thomas P. Flynn officiated.

For her morning wedding, the former Miss Denomme selected a floor length gown of Alencon lace over ivory peau de soie, fashioned with a lace-appliqued Chapel train.

Mrs. Peter Bogle served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Barbara Korjeski, Barbara Schubeck, of New York City, Kathi McClenahan and Mrs. John Monaghan, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore matching pink head-bows and carried clusters of pink carnations and asters.

Best man was James Darling. In the usher corps were James Denomme, brother of the bride, Frederick Brace, of Ann Arbor, Dennis Mukai, of Dayton, O., and John Monaghan.

A street length ensemble of gold textured silk was Mrs. Denomme's choice for her daughter's wedding and the reception. The bridegroom's mother chose a costume of ice turquoise textured silk. Both mothers pinned cymbidium orchids to their purses.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

WHO SAYS there isn't anything new in the house market? For those of you who have become disenchanted believing you've seen or know about them all... read on.

THE FOLLOWING five houses have all been added to our listings in the past few days. These offerings are being advertised for the first time... so are too good to be around for next week's column.

EXACTLY FITS the description outlined by so many of today's home buyers. Colonial architecture, center hall, four bedrooms, extra room on the first floor, close to schools and shopping and priced in the mid-thirties.

CAPE COD with four bedrooms and two full baths, there is a bedroom on the first floor. This one shows so well we should really invite House Beautiful to take some pictures. Located on a deadend street far from the madden crowd.

THERE'S NOTHING odd about this couple of side entrance colonials, which we are showing for the first time. One in the Farms and the other in the Woods, and if you're shopping in the low thirties we've got the goods. Move in for the beginning of the school year. If you don't someone else will, we fear.

A SNAPPY two-family with three bedrooms in each unit. Built in 1952, so the kinks have been worked out and there is a long life ahead for this one. Priced to go at $31,900.

AND PAMPERED over by its particular owner, and looks every inch a prima donna. This Cape Cod on Deeplands could be that small house with large rooms you've been seeking. Two first floor bedrooms with two baths, and upstairs are another brace of bedrooms and baths. There is a generously proportioned library with fireplace and large living room with double access to the secluded patio.

ALSO IN THE Shores and Deeplands, is this seven-bedroom house with baths and a layout which is sure to appeal to a large family. If you want "in" tomorrow, beg, steal or borrow... otherwise don't blame us for your sorrow.

WE TOLD you so. It is possible to buy a center hall colonial on Touraine Road, with four family bedrooms and two more over an attached garage. There is a large family room with fireplace and a library with fireplace. Even at today's high prices this can be picked off in the fifties.

COULD BE that you actually would make a move if you could "trade" that larger house you now rattle about in for a petite mansion with just the room you really need, but not giving up the larger rooms to which you have become accustomed? Allow us to show you this little, big house that could be the logical move for you.

STOP WHISTLE stopping around town seeking out the best three-bedroom colonial available today. Our poll shows this little gem with its white pillars definitely has White House characteristics.

YOUR FAVORITE son will love the complete apartment on the third floor of this gracious two-family dwelling we are offering on Trombley Road. Come up with cash to a mortgage then let your tenant "buy" the place for you. This "house divided" is sure to "stand" your closest scrutiny.

"Deliberate with caution, but act with decision and promptness."

From Another Pointe of View

some time with an aunt who has a summer home on Mondella Beach.

In September she enrolled in the University at Perugia, Italy, near Rome; she has since completed one school year at the University. During her various school vacations, including a rather long one at Christmas, (six weeks), she returned to Switzerland to visit places, such as Lucerne, she had not seen on her original stopover, visited an uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Mario Greco, in Luxembourg, spent two weeks in Paris and traveled into Germany.

Her Easter vacation was spent in Rome with an uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Stefano Falcone.

Anne was visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Guido Greco, in Palermo when last winter's horrible earthquakes occurred. She sought shelter from three of the rather bad quakes. Luckily, no one in her family was injured.

When refugees were moved from one of the hardest-hit villages and billeted in a seaside summer camp near Palermo, Anne was one of a group of young people who volunteered to help them. She was the only American girl in the group.

She did everything from scrubbing floors to changing babies and fixing formulas. Finally, the Doctor in charge asked her to help him.

"I worked all morning in the clinic, giving shots to men, women and children, cleaning wounds, floors, needles, hands, et cetera," she describes the situation and her part in it.

"The worst thing for me was giving shots to babies — I almost couldn't do it.

"I had bought a bag of candy to give some of the little ones; after I gave a shot to one little boy, I gave him a candy to stop his crying and he said, 'Thank you for the candy — but if you give me two I won't cry all day!'"

"Palermo only felt the shaking of the earth, really. Some very old houses fell and maybe one or two people died of heart attacks, but that was all. That's not saying we weren't given a good scare — almost everyone slept outside their houses, and all those having houses at Mondello moved there."

Early last month, Anne's sister flew to Rome. Anne and some of her classmates drove to Rome to meet Mary Louise and bring her back to Perugia for a look at the University.

They're both back in The Pointe now, having flown in from Rome August 12. Anne plans to resume her studies at the University of Michigan, (she spent one year there before going to Perugia). Mary Louise will be a senior at Grosse Pointe South High School.

Mrs. Rains, despite her long residence in Michigan, doesn't qualify as a "Northern Friend." She's a Kentuckian herself — AND PROUD OF IT! — with many family members and friends in the Blue Grass Country.

Shopper's Surprise . . . at Walton-Pierce . . . there's a new display area which was part of the summer re-do! It makes seeing and selecting fashions and gift gathering . . . easy fun! By the way, the fall Lily is in colorful abundance. Early picking is recommended. While we're catching up on the news from Walton-Pierce . . . catch their full page in September's "Modern Bride".

"The Star" . . . with Julie Andrews playing Gertrude Lawrence has important fashion impact. Donald Brooks did the costumes which have influenced Fall '68. Hair-styles are gentle. Soft waves for the sides . . . the back is smooth with a clean neck. This style needs an expert. Patrick whose perfectionist scissoring at Leon's, not only makes the newer hairstyles so wearable but flexible. Call TUxedo 4-9393 for an appointment before Patrick leaves for Europe, September 1st!

Fur For Fall . . . See it on the newsy coats in Michelle's Boutique at Leon, 17888 Mack avenue. Our favorite a blue-gray subtle tweed . . . collared in gray Persian lamb. A deep green coat is edged with black lamb very effectively. So many of the dresses and ensembles take to scarfing! Do collect a few individualist scarfs on display at Michelle's.

Fogarty Fashions . . . are noted for their young but sophisticated viewpoint. The Anne Fogarty collection will be informally modeled at Jacobson's, September 3rd. It has some really beautiful, colorful daytime tweeds and bewitching cocktail dresses . . . from size four.

Classes Starting . . . Sept. 9 . . . oil, watercolor, acrylic, portraits, and sculpture. Enroll early . . . The Canvas & Brush, 16209 Mack "in the Block." 886-6576.

"Painting in Wool" . . . is what talented Marnie Fessenden calls crewel embroidery. She learned it in the east and has been persuaded to teach the technique at the Signe of the Wever, 20956 Mack avenue. Evening classes start September 9th. Crewel is sweeping across the country. We love the traditional Jacobean patterns but crewelwork gives you a chance to do your very own thing . . . Call 881-8197 for class information.

Ed Hickey . . . tells us the League collection of sport-coats is specially designed and tailored for the young man. There's a great selection of plaids, checks and herringbones. Caspari Collectors . . . there's a new shipment of imported French, English, German and Danish greeting cards at The Sphere, 19849 Mack avenue . . . also Caspari's distinctive notes, gift wrap and mats.

He's snapped buildings and captured fashion models on film, of course! His lens services are conveniently available at 16839 Kercheval and personal portraits in color are a speciality. Call 884-4289.

Constructive Correction . . . for eyebrows is expertly done at Edward Nepi Parrucchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue. Eyebrows are arched by the wax method. Many teenagers are getting this correct start in one of the most important beauty basics. Call TUxedo 4-9959 for an appointment. Makeup analysis is a free service.

A Magic Carpet . . . you don't need to transport you to fabled lands. Keshan, Kerman, Bokhara and Sereghan conjure distant places and wealth of ancient design. Pick your carpet at Ed Maliszewski's, 21435 Mack Avenue. It will land right in the decorative picture for 1968 because the trend is to oriental rugs. You don't need a pocket of gold for these excellent reproductions from Belgium. A 9x12 flies out of the store for about three hundred nineteen dollars.

The Posh Set Boutique . . . 18700 Mack avenue, is featuring cape and dress ensembles, afternoon knits, Indian print hostess culottes and raincoats with flair . . . sizes seven to twenty. While you're assembling your fashion finds . . . just try to resist their charming gift items!

Rediscover . . . old favorites like chicken croquettes and beef stroganoff of Wesfields, 15506 Mack at Somerset. We never prepare them at home any more but we do order them there and they are delicious. See their menu and enjoy well remembered favorites of your own.

Word Comes . . . from Christine Williams, owner of Thingamajig's shop in Harbor Springs. She will return to the Pointe area with a new location. It will be announced later. Watch for an early October opening.
