record of the duration for which each pump was operated by forwarded to us."

The water service official said that in previous years, Detroit has found it necessary to back-drain about 15 million cubic feet of water each year. During the warm weather months, back-flushing immediately followed the operation of the Park's storm pumps, and at intervals between such pump operations.

Helps Control Odors
The weekly flushing, Remus said, is required to control odors from decaying materials which settled out of the flow pumped into the creek at earlier dates. Remus said that the back-flushing will be increased, both in quantity and frequency, in the future. The present rate of 3 1/4 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water drained from the creek into the Detroit sewer system, will be adjusted in about six to nine months, to the prevailing regional rate for advanced treatment.

Slone told the council that the Park pumps storm water into the creek about five times a year on the average, and the city should not be made to pay for the weekly backflushing.

He said what makes the flooding problem so acute at the present time, is the high water table of the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair. Next year the water level is expected to be higher, he added.

Appoints Committee
Following further discussion, Mayor Matthew Patterson appointed Stone, Councilmen Douglas Graham and William Luedders, and City Attorney Richard Rohr as a committee to meet with the Detroit Water Board, to iron out the pollution problem and debate the proposed rate increase, to see if some solution can be determined.

In a recent statement made to the NEWS, Remus cited the Park as the major contaminator of the creek channel.

He also charged that the City and Farms, as users of the Fox Creek enclosures, are receiving storm flow pumping service and sewage disposal service in excess of that for which Detroit is being paid.

Slone said that the Park has a 31-year contract with Detroit, which permits the Park to open flood gates during heavy rains, and that the Park is in complete accord with this contract.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., and Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach, both said that they have received no complaints regarding their cities' contracts with Detroit, and have received no formal or informal notification of Remus' report.

Many Signs

ed from their annual summer sojourns, to which the NEWS Janet Mueller's busy fingers can attest, and some are busy making last minute preparations for a "break" before time runs out on them.

Head football coaches at the Pointe high schools have already put their charges through the first week of twice-daily practice sessions and are burning the midnight oil working out offenses and defenses to befuddle their opponents.

The most accurate sign of the coming of Fall, however, is the announcement of the opening next week of the Pointe' 21 public, private and parochial schools.

Council to File Brief At Injunction Hearing

The Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council is prepared to file an amicus curiae (Friend of the Court) brief to be presented at the injunction hearing against the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in the Wayne County Community College suit.

Mrs. Ray Huetteman, Jr., spokesman for the group made the following statement to the NEWS:

"As an organization representing some 800 Pointers we feel we must present our very positive position in regard to having Wayne County Community College in our town. Grosse Pointe is part of Wayne County and as such should not deny to any of its citizens the right to participate in this very worthy educational program.

"We hope that FURTHER cooperative efforts in education, employment and housing will be encouraged on the part of Grosse Pointe and the total community.

"We also welcome this opportunity to make known our position in a very legal way and thereby awaken other people in Grosse Pointe to the issues and the deterioration of our image that is taking place.

"Whether or not the opponents of the college are willing to admit it publicly, privately the talk is of many outsiders taking over our school. This is of course untrue and a typical attitude about the unknown or untried. Until we begin to think in terms of persons, in this case persons with a real concern for a college education, we shall never grow to the leadership this community is capable of.

"Can we in good conscience deny our residents this opportunity because of the unfounded fears of a few?"

Post Office

lections should be confined to non-residential areas.

Only boxes with less than 100 pieces of mail daily should be initially considered for removal. The curtailment of pickups appears to be part of an all-out economy measure on the part of the Post Office Department.

Mr. Gerhardt told the NEWS currently there is a rider in the United States Senate directing the Post Office Department to use some of its funds to restore the old pick-up set up.

It looks like Pointers will have to wait for further Senate action before any improved mail-pickup can be effected.

school teachers. GPEA wants larger time blocks for teachers to plan classroom work.

The third area, that of salaries and fringe benefits, finds the School Board and GPEA some $200,000 apart, according to Mr. Brown.

Edmund W. Phillips, of the State Labor Mediation Board is meeting with the teams in an effort to facilitate negotiations.

Mr. Brown asked teachers to attend a special general meeting tonight, Thursday, August 28, at 7:30 o'clock, in Knights of Columbus Hall, 18000 East Warren.

Caputo Resigns As Farms Clerk

Peter Caputo, Grosse Pointe Farms City Clerk for the past three years, has resigned. Mr. Caputo will accept a position as director and general manager of The Generous Critic, an art gallery which will be located at 17000 Kercheval.

In a letter dated August 20, addressed to City Manager Andrew Bremer and Mayor William G. Butler, Mr. Caputo said: "It is with mixed emotions that I hereby tender my resignation as City Clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. With sadness because I am leaving the employ of a city and a group of individuals whom I have served and for whom I hold a tremendous amount of respect and admiration; and with happiness because I have been offered a position as director and general manager of a new art gallery which will be headquartered here in Grosse Pointe.

"I have been on the fringes of the art field for many years, and I consider the position now open to me, along with the excellent salary offer, an opportunity for growth in my personal career. Furthermore I am indeed gratified by the fact that I shall continue to be a resident of the Farms.

"I request that my resignation be considered effective in 30 days with the balance of my vacation period, one week, to be taken beginning on September 15 and my resignation becoming official effective September 20, 1969.

"In the meantime I will continue the duties of my office and shall bring up to date all projects at hand. Furthermore I will be available during my vacation period as well as thereafter to serve the City of Grosse Pointe Farms in any way you would have me do so.

"I shall look forward to being your neighbor and a citizen of our community in the future."

In a letter to Mr. Caputo, Mayor Butler said:

"I have realized for some time that your varied capacities and abilities exceed by an ever-increasing margin the challenge of your present assignment with Grosse Pointe Farms. For this reason I was not surprised to learn of your resignation but this fact does not make your present departure any easier to bear; in fact, it will be substantially impossible to find a replacement for your numerous talents.

"For the past several years you have served the city and its various agencies with skill and dedication beyond the call of duty. I personally remember with particular gratitude your service as clerk of the Council meetings, member of the bargaining committee, superintendent of the Barge Acquisition and Placement Activities at the Pier Park and representative of the city at various inter-municipal functions, duties which you uniformly performed with verve and distinction. I also remember, and am grateful for, the enthusiasm, good humor and emotional stability you consistently demonstrated even in the face of considerable adversity. "You are a dedicated civil servant and also a fine person. We will miss you sorely but you leave with our best wishes for success in your new association."

City Manager Andrew Bremer expressed a feeling of personal loss in Caputo's resignation and said he shared Mayor Butler's feeling on Mr. Caputo's contributions to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Police Nab Thief Following Chase

A 16-year-old Detroit boy, who has an extensive juvenile record, was arrested by Park police on Friday, August 22, following a foot chase when the teenager jumped out of a stolen car and ran.

The arresting officers, Patrolmen Edward Janost'k and Paul Kenefke, disclosed in a report that they were on routine patrol on Kercheval at 1:47 a.m., when they observed a 1964 Plymouth being driven by a youthful appearing male. The driver turned into an alley at the rear of 15126 Kercheval, where he stopped.

On seeing the approaching policemen, the youth jumped out of the car, and began to run. The officers got out of their vehicle and gave chase on foot.

Janostak and Kenefke found the youth crouching behind a brick wall at 1215 Lakepointe, and placed him under arrest and took him to the station. A check of the "hot sheet" revealed that the auto driven by the young man had been reported stolen in Detroit.

The policemen said that in searching the teenager, they found an ignition system, used to "jump" wires, in the boy's pocket.

Det. Sgt. James LaPratt said that the 16-year-old has been arrested at least 13 times prior to this latest episode, for burglary, possession of burglar tools, car thefts and possession of stolen property.

The youth was released to Detroit authorities, and the stolen vehicle was returned to the owner.

AWAITING TRIAL

Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer found probable cause and bound over Robert A. Bradley, 19, of 1226 Gray, Detroit, for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on a charge of uttering and publishing, in that he passed a bad check. The youth, represented by a court-appointed attorney, had entered a plea of not guilty and waived examination. He is awaiting trial and is in the County Jail in default of a $5,000 bond. The hearing before Judge Speer was held on Wednesday, August 20.

People who always speed on the highways live in danger of arriving at the end suddenly.

Special School Meeting Tonight

A special meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education has been set for 6 p.m. tonight, Thursday, August 28, in the Board Room at 389 St. Clair avenue, to receive bids for the public schools' tax participation loan and to award a contract for the demolition of farm buildings on the Vanderbush site at Grosse Pointe North High School. Educators Approve Lease for Renting to College

Terms of the lease in capsule form follow:

1. In consideration of rents and agreements performed by the Tenant (WCCC), the landlord (Grosse Pointe Board of Education), grants use of seven classrooms, one physics lab room, one chemistry lab room, one biology lab room and one seminar room, which WCCC will use as office and storage facility, as well as restricted use of entrances, halls, lavatories and parking lots (as provided specifically elsewhere in the agreement). The agreement allows WCCC the right to use fewer classrooms or labs than specified each semester, and obligates it only to pay rent for those rooms used.

2. The term of the lease shall be for the two-semester period coinciding with the beginning of the fall school semester of The Grosse Pointe Public School System in September, 1969, and ending with the termination of the spring school semester in June, 1970. The hours shall be from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week, provided that there is excluded from such period any days during which North High is closed as part of the school calendar of the school system.

3. WCCC shall pay $100 per semester for each classroom used, $125 for each lab room used and $200 for the seminar room, and other ancillary facilities such as lavatories, hallways and parking lots. One-half of the sum shall be paid in advance upon execution of this lease and the balance paid upon the commencement of the spring semester; subject to the refund to WCCC of any unused portion of the rental amount in the event of a rescission or cancellation of the lease. If it is proved that the actual cost of the rental amount provided in the lease is in excess of the rental amount provided therein the college shall pay GPBE such excess upon notice of such amount. If there is a dispute as to the amount of excess the matter shall be decided by a qualified arbitrator, selected by both parties.

4. The WCCC agrees:

a) to provide steel lockers or the equivalent to provide adequate storage or any classroom or lab materials or equipment to be stored by the tenant on the premises.

b) to employ and assign on the premises during the term which it occupies them, administrative personnel, (in addition to classroom teachers), to supervise the use by its students of the premises, including entrances, halls, lavatories and parking lot areas as well as maintaining classroom discipline and other administrative supervision of its students which might be needed.

c) it will provide all personnel, materials and equipment to be used in conduct of its classes, administration and direction of its program, and will be responsible for the safekeeping of its materials and equipment.

d) hold harmless GPBE from all liability to persons or property for injuries arising out of the use of the school and that it will fully indemnify the landlord against any such claims.

e) it will reimburse the landlord for the full amount of the cost of repairing any damage over and above ordinary wear to the facility used by WCCC or any equipment in the building which is damaged as a result of the use of the premises by its students.

f) it will obtain liability insurance coverage and shall be responsible for all premium costs in connection with same. Such insurance shall be in a form acceptable to the landlord and certificates of this coverage shall be furnished upon request.

g) it will fully indemnify and hold the landlord harmless against any claims asserted by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods for reimbursement of additional expense for fire and/or police protection resulting for WCCC's use of the facility.

h) it will reimburse the landlord for any increase in insurance premiums paid by the GPBE with respect to the premises as a result of the college's use of same. (Here Ben Zeh, director of administrative services, noted that this had been checked out with the local insurance carrier and that they were assured that there would be no increase in premiums).

5. Landlord provides the tenant with peaceable possession of the facility during the terms and hours specified and shall furnish heat, light and janitorial services. The landlord shall specify entrances, halls, lavatories and parking spaces to be used by the students and personnel of the college. No other part of the building will be made available to the tenant's students.

6. The tenant shall use the premises exclusively for the conduct of courses offered by it. A list of such courses shall be provided prior to the execution of this lease and 30 days prior to the commencement of the spring semester. In no event shall the number of WCCC students occupying the premises at any time exceed 250. (Here Mr. Fuchs asked to amend the contract, as it was originally drafted with the courses listed by name. However, his motion was defeated. The NEWS requested a copy of a letter sent to Superintendent Anderson by George E. Cole, academic director of WCCC which listed the classes scheduled for the Grosse Pointe Learning Center of WCCC.

Courses slated for North High are Beginning Algebra, Intermediate Algebra, Mathematics for Education I, Algebra and Trigonometry, Introductory Biology, Chemistry, Physics Preparatory Composition, Composition; The Essay, Composition: The Short Story, Elementary French, Spanish and General Psychology.

More are Current Economic Issues, Principles of Geography, History of Modern Europe, History of the U.S., National State and Local Government, Principles of Sociology, Humanities, Comparative Religion, Fundamentals of Public Speaking, Accounting for Small Business, Business Law I, Introduction to Business, General Astronomy, Hygiene, Marriage, Conversational French and Spanish Engineering Design Technology, Electro Technology and Report Writing.)

7. Landlord has the right to require the tenant to reschedule its classes in case any activity to be held or to be permitted to be conducted by the landlord in North High, or the Performing Arts building shall in the opinion of the landlord be interfered with by the conduct of WCCC classes, however the tenant should be provided with reasonable notice if rescheduling is necessary. (Dr. Anderson noted that the activity schedule is currently being finalized and when the schedule is completed the rescheduling will be determined.)

8. The landlord will have final approval of all lab instructors employed by the college in conduct of its science or other classes requiring the use of laboratory classrooms.

9. It is expressly agreed that premises may be made by the tenant, however, it may install telephones for its use at its own expense in the office it maintains.

No Signs Allowed

10. Tenant shall permit no signs to be displayed at any time on the premises except with approval of the landlord, nor shall he be allowed to distribute any literature on the grounds except as proper under

Grosse Pointe Sail Club's Home Impossible to Find

By Phil Lorauger

If you're looking for directions to the home of the Grosse Pointe Sail Club, it's true enough to say that you just can't get there from here.

The Grosse Pointe Sail Club, one of the highest rated sailing groups in the nation, does not have a permanent base of operations. In fact, in all of its 25-year history, the club has made its home wherever the wind blows.

"We are unique to say the least," claimed Bill McCourt, vice-commander of the Sail Club and owner of a shoe store at 18849 Kercheval. "We are a full-fledged yacht club without a clubhouse."

Although the more than 150 members of the club have only the gentle breezes which blow off of Lake St. Clair on which to hang their duffle bags, they have made a most significant contribution to the sport of sailing and the impact of the little club has been felt all along Michigan's eastern lake and river shoreline.

"We are members of the Detroit River Yachting Association, (DRYA), and most of our members hold dual memberships with other recognized sail clubs," said McCourt, who is also a member of the crescent Sail Yacht Club. Our sole purpose in this field is to foster the sport of sailing in all age brackets."

Although the club is presently a "nomadic" organization, McCourt pointed out that it is seeking a permanent home for the club facilities.

"This would better enable us to instigate a junior sailing program," he said. "The youth of Grosse Pointe are vitally interested in sailing and we are vitally interested in them."

The three flag officers for the unique club are Commodore Robert Dolson, McCourt, and Norm Rogers, who is rear-commodore.

The highlight of the club's agenda is the annual Grosse Pointe Sail Club Regatta, which has been held on the same weekend as the Chicago to Mackinac race for the past 15 years.

"The regatta is held on the DRYA course in the upper part of the Detroit River," noted McCourt. "We have had as many as 200 boats in the race. An "off" year would find 130 sailing craft in the regatta."

After each regatta, the club sponsors the regatta party at a different sailing club each year. The Commodore's Ball is also conducted at a different location from one year to the next.

The events which have made the club outstanding in its field, however, are the Tuesday night sailing regattas in the waters of Lake St. Clair.

"These weekly regattas have helped so many sailors," said McCourt, who has owned and raced more than a dozen craft, since he first became interested in the ancient sport. "We feel the response from sailors to these races is almost unbelievable."

Crescent Sail Yacht Club members Harvey Freeman and Robert Verhelle, both of whom have served as chairman for the weekly regattas, agree with McCourt.

"These races not only provide a chance for sailors to gain invaluable experience, but they also give the fellows an excellent opportunity to test new sails and get some exercise," said Freeman, who is the 1969 chairman of the Raven class sailing districts.

"The number one summer recreational activity in Grosse Pointe has got to be sailing," claimed Verhelle. "The mid-week classics give sailors some great competitive tryouts and are a lot of fun."

McCourt pointed out that, when the Tuesday evening regattas first began 15 years ago, only 18 to 20 boats participated, but the number of craft competing each week has now jumped to an astonishing 80.

"When you consider that these are held in mid-week, you just have to be impressed," he said.

The course for the weekly contests begins at the Park's municipal pier, runs up to the foot of Rivard, cuts across to the freighter channel and makes its homestretch back to the Park.

Although a different club member serves as chairman each Tuesday, Stan Shank is the overall racing chairman, who makes up the list of races at the start of each racing year.

The races this year started on June 6 and will run until August 26," said McCourt. "This gives everybody a good chance to race and win."

McCourt referred to William Conley, of 1004 Berkshire, one of the deans of competitive sailing, as a real backbone in the club's activities.

"Bill provides us with some great advice and probably is the finest 'sea lawyer' among our ranks," said McCourt.

The club's planning committee will probably spend the majority of the "off season" looking for the right spot on which to permanently locate, but as for now, the club must ride the nearest zephyr.

Find Stolen Car An Empty Shell

Two cars reported stolen in the Park on August 17, were recovered by Detroit police two days later, one vehicle was found completely stripped of all parts, leaving only the body shell.

Stripped of all its parts, including the radiator, was the 1965 Chrysler belonging to Gordon Runions of 1088 Beaconsfield. The auto was stolen from the 15300 block of St. Paul.

Detroit police said that the shell was found abandoned in an alley north of Freud and east of St. Jean.

The second vehicle, also a 1965 Chrysler, belonging to Oscar J. Torina of 833 Grand Marais boulevard, stolen from near Torina's house, was recovered in front of 4030 East Eight Mile road, Detroit. It had been abandoned intact, but with a damaged right side.

Jewelry, Furs Reported Stolen

Mrs. Stanley Wilson, 11 Alger place, called City police on Thursday, August 21, to report someone had entered her home and removed thousands of dollars worth of jewelry and furs.

Mrs. Wilson told police she arrived home at 3:45 p.m. and realized something was wrong when she discovered the garage door leading into the house was not secured. The outer garage door had been left open for a rubbish collection.

When Mrs. Wilson went up to her bedroom to check, she found her dresser drawer had been tampered with and most of her valuable jewelry which included diamonds, pearls and jades had been removed.

She checked the front closet and discovered her stole and fur cape were both missing. Each were valued at $1200.

Police are investigating.

That depends on your sense of humor. If interrupting your washing or ironing to rush upstairs to answer the telephone leaves you breathless, then an extension telephone makes good sense.

An extension telephone saves steps and lets you do your telephoning from where you are. You can select from many smart styles and decorative colors.

Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can have an extension telephone in any funny place you'd like.

Bad Weather, Training Keep Boating Accidents Down

By Phil Loranger

Although more boaters now ply the waters of Lake St. Clair than ever before, fewer accidents have taken place and fewer boating violations have been issued this year because of increased water law enforcement and a better knowledge of the rules of the water ways, according to Inspector John DeVos, head of the Wayne County Sheriff's department Marine Safety Division.

DeVos, a 20-year resident of the Pointe, who lives at 41 Bournemouth, pointed out that the Wayne County Sheriff's boat crew, which operates out of the Farms Pier, is one of the busiest in the county.

"This crew has a brand new 26-foot Lyman and they are the most active group, when it comes to administering safety inspections and issuing boat violations and warnings," pointed out DeVos.

In addition to the indoctrination of boaters in safe handling of their craft by the Sheriff's department and the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, DeVos pointed to the bad weather as a real asset in the reduction of boating accidents in the Pointe area.

"We've had so much rain and heavy weather that many pleasure boaters have shied from the lake on the weekends this year," he said. "Of the 28 drownings which have taken place in Wayne County this year, only one has occurred in Lake St. Clair."

DeVos said the Farms boat crew works an eight-hour day and a five-day week, but that relief crews are called in to keep the boat ready for seven days of the week and that the Farms-based Sheriff's boat is "on-call" 24 hours a day.

"Pleasure boating—both motor boats and sail boats—is the Pointe's most actively engaged in summer sport," said DeVos. "It seems more Pointers are boating this year than I've ever seen. We almost could use a traffic cop out on the lake each weekend."

Pointers Robbed On Detroit Tour

The sons of two prominent Pointers were robbed on Saturday, August 23, at Grand River and Joy road.

Cort Johns, 25, son of Malcolm Johns of Rivard, and Rial Hamann, 25, son of City councilman John Hamann, were attempting to show exchange students from Stuttgart, Germany, Harald Lauser, Angelika Ruetter, Birgitta Maier, and former Pointer Jean Hammerl, life in the city of Detroit. They hadn't bargained on being robbed.

The group was on its way to the Grande Ballroom, noted for its way-out clientele.

Two Negro males stopped Cort at knife point, stole his wallet and personal papers then fled.

Detroit police told the victims that it was very unwise for people living in the suburbs to come into Detroit.

Driver of Truck Blamed in Crash

George D. Dearth, 14578 Terry, Detroit, was charged under the drunken motor law on Tuesday, August 19, after his truck, which was traveling east on Jefferson, hit a car that was stopped for a traffic signal at Lakeland and Jefferson.

The occupants of the other car, Andrea Jaber, 17, and Donna Jaber, 14, of 2287 East Grand Boulevard were taken to Bon Secours Hospital and treated for head and neck injuries.

When officers James Cronin and Richard Lanski arrived at the scene the truck involved was parked at the curb south on Lakeland from Jefferson. Dearth was sitting in the passenger seat. He was apprised of his rights and asked to take a chemical test. He refused to do so. He was then taken to the City station and jailed overnight in lieu of payment of a $100 bond.

Barnes School Hires Teachers

Jack McMahon, Principal of Barnes Elementary School, 20090 Morningside drive, has announced that Miss Julia A. Strayer and Mrs. Marla Parks will be on his building's staff during the 1969-70 year.

Miss Strayer will teach a third grade class. A graduate of Wayne State University, she has been on the faculty of Lingemann Elementary School in St. Clair Shores for the past four years.

Mrs. Parks, a graduate of Miami University in Ohio, has been on the staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System as well as the Greenhills-Forest Park schools in Ohio as an art teacher.

FENDER DAMAGED
George Schneider, 553 Manistique, Detroit, called City police on Friday, August 22, to report that persons unknown had damaged the left front fender of his car while it was parked at 17441 Maumee.

Among those laws which DeVos credits with cutting down on boating tragedies, is the requirement that water skiers have a 170-degree observer mirror and that they have one member of the party as a full-time observer.

"This means that those Pointe youngsters and adults who like to water ski must have an observer in addition to a driver and a skier," he said. "This guarantees that someone can help out, if a skier 'wipes out' and the driver is thrown overboard."

New laws requiring boaters to sit only in those areas designated for seating and a recent water-safety enactment making it a law for sailboats of all sizes to carry life preservers, also went into effect this year.

DeVos noted that Wayne County boat crews are trained in all facets of marine safety at the annual training seminar in Belaire, Mich., conducted by the State Boating Commission.

"If Pointers need any help regarding questions on boat safety, the fellows at the Farms Pier will assist them," said DeVos. "We feel they are dedicated, well-trained and disciplined officers, who are sincerely interested in the safety of all boaters."

PLEADS GUILTY

Robert Henson, of 1300 Wayburn, pled guilty to a charge of loitering at Dobbs House, a restaurant at Jefferson and Westchester, and was fined $50, with the alternative of serving five days in jail. He paid the fine. The hearing was held before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Wednesday, August 20. Henson was also placed on probation for six months, during which he must remain away from the restaurant and an adjacent gas station.

In this age of raucous, kidney-jolting sports cars, is there a place for a roadster that offers brilliant performance with comfort?

Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

With the addition of .he optional, all-steel hardtop (above), the 280SL convertible becomes an instant closed sports car.

The Mercedes-Benz 280SL at right costs something between seven thousand and ten thousand dollars, depending on options, state and local taxes, and the like.

That's twice the price of the most common little foreign sports cars you see darting along U.S. highways and byways. And it's somewhat higher than such kindred spirits as Porsche, Jaguar XK-E and America's own formidable Corvette Stingray.

In fact, looking at it another way, that compact, solid little Mercedes-Benz two-seater in the photograph is every bit as expensive as the biggest, fanciest, most loaded, six-passenger Cadillac you can buy.

The obvious question is, is it worth it?

Answer: that depends not only on what the car offers, but also, to an important degree, on whether or not you are the kind of person who appreciates what the car offers.

The sports car for grown-ups

If you are out to prove you are the hottest-blooded swinger on the block, look elsewhere.

The 280SL is conceived, designed, and built as a civilized sports car. A car for grown-ups who want all the pleasures of sports car driving—and none of the privations.

Descendant of the World Champion Mercedes-Benz 300SLR, the 280SL is one thoroughbred sporting machine that isn't stark or hard-riding or cramped. That doesn't make you pay for soul-stirring performance with ringing ears and stiff joints.

Nor does it look like a rocket-ship—or a hoked-up, striped-up fugitive from a racetrack. It is sporty. But it is deliberately unflashy, restrained. The car will never embarrass you, whether you are keeping fast company in a road rally—or arriving at the portico of the White House.

Concluded Road & Track after putting the 280SL through blistering tests: "For those who have less than $10,000 to spend, and value finesse, pure quality and drivability more than jazzy looks, it is alone in the field."

If the idea of such a sports car intrigues you, take a few minutes more to savor the details.

Superb handling

The fun and safety of superb handling is what a sports car is all about. So here are the facts. But briefly, since superb handling is what this sports car goes beyond.

You enjoy the leech-like road-ability of racing-type, all-independent suspension with coil springs and heavy-duty shock absorbers. Unequal-length A-arms and anti-sway bar up front. Low-pivot swing axles and trailing arms at the rear.

Although the 280SL stands a mere yard and a half high, it bestrides the narrow road like a colossus. Its 58 1/2-inch track is five inches wider than an XK-E. "Fully controlled, power drifts are this car's bag in the corners," confides Motor Trend.

You stop with the awesome ease and authority of massive, 10-inch caliper-type disc brakes at every wheel. (Standard on all Mercedes-Benz motor cars.)

You're blessed with precise, "feel-of-the-road," recirculating-ball-type steering. Turning radius: tighter than a VW "Bug." Optional power steering: "The best available anywhere"—Road & Track.

Heart? A sophisticated, single overhead-cam, 6500-rpm engine with Bosch 6-plunger fuel injection and 7-main-bearing crankshaft—built and bench-tested for 60 minutes to cruise above 100 mph on Germany's autobahns for hours on end without grief.

Summary: Some tigers will outdrag you from 0 to 60 on a straight-away. But few, if any, will get around you on the corners—and almost nothing will beat you from 60 down to 0 at a stoplight. (A nice, grown-up's victory.)

"Fantastic" limousine ride

And now, the big difference. In searching for words to praise the almost sinful livability of the 280SL, experts tend to grope upward toward the same adjectives.

"The ride, over all sorts of roads, is fantastic," says Road & Track, simply. "The Limousine Sports Car," rhapsodizes Motor Trend. "For a car that performs so well in the handling department, the 280SL has a fantastic ride...comfort is everything and more than it is in many luxury sedans."

The reason for this unsportsmanlike sports car ride, aside from the ingenious suspension: orthopedic physicians with sympathy for your backbone helped contour the seats. Also, patient Mercedes-Benz engineers have tuned the seat springs to the car's suspension movements—to cancel thousands of tiny, tiring tremors every mile.

Utter calm

The 280SL replaces the raucous bellow of most sports cars with a hum. You can actually converse with your passenger in normal tones.

Doggedly probing with stethoscopes, engineers tracked down and winnowed out irksome harmonic vibrations in the drive train—even in the 90-mph range.

"We don't know of a sports car that is as quiet overall," reports Road & Track.

Room with a view

Inside, the 280SL is proportioned for everyday adults, not acrobats. In a direct comparison with a Porsche, a Corvette, and an XK-E, Road & Track's experts unanimously rated the 280SL the most comfortable.

And what a panorama of the world! "The SL is perhaps the only sports car that gives a commanding driving position and view of the road," says Road & Track. "It's not a very low car, and its tall glass areas, relatively low beltline and visible corners make it one of the most maneuverable traffic cars we've ever driven..."

Amenities

The cockpit is lavishly finished in rugged MB Tex or (optional) rich leather—including, of course, the interior of the glovebox and the underside of the dash. Deep-twist carpeting is hand-fitted to the floor and transmission tunnel.

There are separate controls to help you and your passenger adjust climate at various portions of your respective anatomies.

A remarkable lever at the driver's fingertips performs four functions. Less showy, perhaps, than four extra dash buttons—but far, far handier.

Give the 280SL a quick once-over yourself. Flip up the trunk. Nine cubic feet of luggage space, and a courtesy light. Finger the wood trim. Real walnut, not plastic. Open the door. Chromed on the edges. Close it. Ka-chunk.

(P.S. Yes, you can order a retracting antenna. Yes, you can order automatic shift. And so on.)

A shrewd investment

Finally, the 280SL is built with uncompromising care to be a long-lasting investment.

The body is not bolted into being, like that of an ordinary car, but solidified by thousands of welds. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 280SL will ever rattle. (If you do hear something, check for an object you have misplaced.)

No plastic toy, this one. Unconventional? Defiantly so. Mercedes-Benz does not build conventional cars—and never will.

European delivery brochure

Stop in to arrange a test drive—and, if you plan to vacation in Europe, to pick up an overseas delivery brochure. (Or clip coupon now.) What better sport than to tame your new SL on the flat-out autobahns and Alpine curves of its native habitat?

Other models to ponder: 250 Sedan—an unflappable road car with superb handling and braking.

Vandals Wreak Havoc in Home

Police rushed to the scene after receiving a report from a Lakeland avenue resident on Sunday, August 24, regarding a possible breaking and entry the previous night at the George Cotiechio residence, 595 Lakeland.

Officer Dennis Van Dale and Cpl. Richard Clarke gained entry by prying the screen off the bathroom window on the south side of the house.

They found the house in a chaotic condition. Eggs had been smashed on the walls and ceiling in the living room; catsup, mustard and salad dressing were smeared on the carpeting, the television set, the sofa and draperies in the den. Dresser drawers had been emptied and scattered about the rooms. The mail was dumped in the toilet downstairs. Fingernail polish was smeared on walls and fixtures in the bathroom.

Officers spoke with neighbors who said the family had been away.

When they spoke with Mr. Cotiechio, who had been away the previous night, he told officers that his wife's silver gray mink jacket had been taken.

Boating Safety Course Offered

The Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, a local unit of the United States Power Squadrons, has scheduled its Fall Piloting Class at Grosse Pointe North High School, according to Lt. Richard J. Sherman, public relations officer for the unit.

The first class is slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, September 8, in room 301, at the high school, which is located on Vernier road.

The tuition-free course is both approved and taught by members of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, who are trained and experienced in teaching safe boating. The men contribute their time and skills to promote safety afloat as a public and community service.

The course is open to both adults and young adults and necessary reference materials will be on sale for a nominal cost during the first three Monday night sessions.

Those attending the class are asked to enter the high school from the Vernier road entrance and are requested not to enter from Morningside drive.

Find Marijuana In Youths' Car

Three Detroit youths arrested in the Woods were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court on Wednesday, August 20, charged with the possession and control of marijuana.

The trio was arrested by Woods Patrolman Ronald Hayden on Tuesday, August 12, in the Woods Parking lot, after he had pulled them over to warn them their automobile had defective headlights.

After stopping the group, Hayden noticed a suspicious package in a clear plastic bag, lying in full view on the floorboards in the rear of the vehicle.

Although the youths denied that the package contained marijuana, an analysis by the Michigan State Police crime laboratory confirmed that it was the drug. Woods police said the package contained nearly one and one-half pounds of marijuana.

Arrested were John J. Moffet, 21, of 13941 Chandler Park drive; Gino Puggni, Jr., 22, of 16420 Taöoma, and 20-year-old Jaul G. McClain, of 15629 Liberal, all of Detroit.

"This was an excellent example of 'follow-through' police work," said Capt. Henry Marchand, of the Woods Police department. "This was a real haul of marijuana, which won't get into the hands of users."

All three members of the group were released on a $5,000 surety bond, after appearing before Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow in the Woods.

Schools Engage Art Teachers

Among the newcomers to the professional staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System for 1969-70 will be Mrs. Sandra Morrow and Mrs. Constance Norsworthy.

Both will teach art in several elementary schools. Mrs. Morrow has been assigned to Defer, Mason, and Haire, while Mrs. Norsworthy will be at Poupard and Ferry.

Both teachers are experienced. Mr. Morrow, who has a BS degree from Wayne State University, has taught for four years in the Lake Shore District in St. Clair Shore. Mrs. Norsworthy, a graduate of the University of Michigan, has taught in Detroit.

Quarter of City Hit by Blackout

Twenty-five percent of the City of Grosse Pointe was in total darkness Saturday, August 23, when at 9:50 p.m. Detroit Edison suffered a cable failure affecting an area served by an underground distributor circuit from the Denver sub-station.

That area includes Cadieux to Lakeland and south of Waterloo, which was without power for about an hour and twenty minutes.

The police department, which was deluged with calls from concerned citizens, the City offices and diners at the Village Manor restaurant, continued operations by candlelight. All traffic signals in that area were also out but no accidents resulted from the blackout.

Bon Secours Hospital's primary feed line went out; however, they have a secondary feed line that provides light in the obstetric department, the corridors, and the operating rooms. Although the hospital experienced no major difficulties during the blackout, Robert Mauer, hospital administrator, told the NEWS the secondary feed line is wholly inadequate and that plans for an auxiliary power generator, which would provide total electrical power during such an emergency, are currently on the drawing board.

School Staffing Job Completed

With the opening of classes in The Grosse Pointe Public School System slated for Thursday, September 4, virtually all staffing has been completed, according to Lawrence F. Kennedy, Assistant Superintendent-Personnel.

Kennedy revealed that, in spite of a nation-wide search which included contacts with colleges and advertisements in metropolitan papers throughout the country, the schools have been unable to locate two teachers qualified to teach automobiles and one to teach electronics.

Therefore, the schools are considering the possibility of offering evening high school credit courses in automobiles if well-qualified area automotive teachers can be recruited for part-time assignments.

Kennedy urged anyone interested in such an evening assignment to call his office (885-2000, extension 54) as soon as possible.

Policemen of all the Pointes have been instructed by their respective chiefs to ticket violators of House Bill No. 3114, beginning September 1. The bill makes it mandatory that all

Educators Approve Lease for Renting to College

11. Either party may terminate the lease for any reason whatsoever, upon not less than 30 days written notice to the other party except when in the judgment of the landlord a material interruption of its normal educational program has occurred by reason of the operation of tenant's program under this lease, landlord may, after a hearing suspend the lease until the interruption has been corrected. The tenant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard at such a hearing. (This clause was a matter of much discussion among Board members. Both Mr. Fuchs and Mr. Sandberg felt that the original proposed agreement authorizing immediate suspension of classes by the School Board in case of any campus difficulties gave the board more protection. Legal council Doug West assured the Board that the doors of the school could be closed immediately if any violence occurred on campus even though not particularly specified in the contract.)

12. Each party agrees to take all action necessary to prevent conduct on the part of students which might endanger the health or safety of other students or the property of either party or residents of the school district.

13. Dealt with official mailing addresses of both parties involved.

14. Tenant may not sublet any part of lease.

15. The lease shall be binding upon an inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the respective parties.

16. Lease is effective for the term specified only and in no event shall the tenant have an option to renew, nor shall it have any right to possess any portion of premises as a result of holding over the specified term.

17. No waiver of any provision of this lease, or a breach thereof, shall be construed as a continuing waiver, nor shall same constitute a waiver of any other provision or breach.

Separate Resolution
By a separate resolution the Board moved to grant authority to the superintendent wherever the word landlord appeared in the contract. This was not included in the lease however.

After the vote, members of the board expressed their views on the college issue. Mr. Fuchs brought up the question as to whether an amendment could not be made which would specify that Grosse Pointe students would be permitted first place in the classes regardless of whether they applied first or not. The matter was discussed and legal consultant West said he felt that according to information he had, and after talking with George Bushnell, WCCC attorney, this type of specification would not be valid.

The question of I.D. cards for WCCC students was discussed and Donald Thurber, chairman of the board of Wayne County Community College assured board members that students will have I.D. cards. The suggestion that GP school system furnish I.D.s to WCCC students was not considered to have any merit according to Dr. Anderson who said he did not wish to get involved in any way with the college's program.

Thrown Open To Public
After the Board members discussion the meeting was thrown open to the public. The board permitted 45 minutes of discussion.

Matt Connor, of Whittier road then asked to be recognized. In a dramatic statement, Mr. Connor told board members that the seven petitioners who objected to the leasing of the facility without a referendum had been virtually damned publicly by a member of the board. (He was referring to an article that appeared in one of the downtown daily newspapers quoting Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.) Mr. Connor said he first must state what they are not, "we are not bigots, racists, segregationists or intergrationists, we are taxpayers in Grosse Pointe, who carry the load." He said that just because his group disagreed with the board a board member had no right to call them bigots. He then asked to whom he could present a substantial number of petitions calling for a referendum on the issue. The board agreed to take possession of the notarized petitions as soon as they were presented to it by Mr. Connor. Mr. Connor then asked the board to formally disassociate itself with Mr. Glancy's statement. Here Mrs. Hykes stated that individual statements by board members were just that, and did not represent the total board feeling.

Sandberg Asks Apology

Mr. Sandberg moved that the board apologize to the seven people involved. Mr. West advised the board to withdraw the motion since it would affect current pending litigation.

Mr. Sandberg did so but expressed his displeasure over having to do so and personally apologized to the group.

Mr. Glancy then said that his statement was a comment on a Free Press editorial written Thursday, August 21, in which he said his views were expressed precisely. He assured the board that whenever he commented in an editorial in a newspaper he expressed the feelings of Alfred R. Glancy, Jr. He added that he made no statement to the Detroit News which was the story Mr. Connor had apparently been referring to.

Monteith Adds New Teachers

Five new teachers have been added to the Staff of Monteith Elementary School, 1275 Cook Road, according to John Hammett, Principal. Beginning their assignments with The Grosse Pointe Public School System when classes begin on Thursday, September 4, are Mrs. H. Judith Bailey, Mrs. Nancy J. Beaugard, Mrs. Christina E. Judson, William J. Rickerman, and Mrs. Frances Whittingham.

Both Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Judson will be music instructors. Mrs. Bailey, a graduate of Wayne State University, an experienced teacher, has been on a leave of absence, while Mrs. Judson has taught in the Goodrich schools following graduation from the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Beaugard, assigned to a fifth grade, is a 1969 graduate of the University of Michigan, and Mr. Rickerman is a recent graduate of Wayne State University. He has completed two years of service with the Marines.

Mrs. Whittingham has taught in St. Clair Chores for five years. Her degrees are from the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

The audience of 150, which crowded South High auditorium were fairly split in their attitudes on the issue. Among those making pleas for the college were Mrs. F. W. Wylie, of Washington road, Dr. Charles Brake, of Balfour road, Malcolm Johns, of Rivard boulevard.

Opposing the issue were Dr. Carl von Gruneigan, Mr. Connor, Edith Wilson and Mary Lauve. Mrs. Lauve suggested that the State Fair Grounds be considered as a site for the college.

Some conversation between Mr. Sandberg and Mr. Fuchs and attorneys Thomas Coulter and Doug West, with regard to a motion authorizing Mr. Coulter's firm to appear in the Civil Action in Circuit Court on Friday on behalf of the Board of Education followed. Mr. Fuchs asked Mr. West just what expense to the board would be involved in this suit. Mr. West indicated that he had no way of knowing at this time.

Mr. Fuchs suggested that the attorneys not be specifically authorized to defend the impending law suit because of the expense involved. Mr. Sandberg questioned Mr. Coulter's right to do any work on the case at all without receiving prior board approval and asked Mr. Coulter on what authority he had proceeded on the case. Mr. Coulter indicated that as attorney for the board he felt it was within his province to do the limited work he had done on the case to date. He said he was asking for specific authorization to proceed with the action at this time as a courtesy to the board.

The board voted 5-2 with Mr. Sandberg and Mr. Fuchs voting no, to grant the attorney the necessary authority to proceed with the case.

Sleep Well Last Night?
 STILL PLENTY OF HOT WEATHER LEFT!
 by ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

 If you were one of many who tossed and turned last night because of an inadequately cooled house that proved to be too humid and uncomfortable for proper sleep, you might think about some results found in an "Air Conditioned Test Village" survey by the National Association of Home Builders.
 The results showed that the average hours of sleep per night during summer months for adults in a family with air conditioning were 8.1, compared to the non-air-conditioned homes 6.9. When asked, "Do you awake rested?", 95% of those with air conditioning said yes, while only 60% of those in non-air-conditioned homes said they were.
 Some families with air conditioning even mentioned that they looked forward to bedtime on hot summer nights.
 Did you awake rested this morning, or did you find that your hours of tossing and turning actually wore you out more than if you had not been to bed at all?
 We have mentioned many benefits of air conditioning, but this survey points out most dramatically the most noticeable advantage of air conditioning... its comfort-giving benefits.
 Yet one cannot overlook its health-giving benefits. A survey taken by the Williams Company showed that 95% of families with central air conditioning agreed that it had a favorable effect on health. Of these families, 50% agreed that central air conditioning was effective against hay fever and allergies, 22% agreed that it was effective against respiratory conditions and asthma.
 Carrier air conditioning, and in particular, central air conditioning, for year-round climate control, can be the best investment you can make for your family. The family stays home more, has less irritation, enjoys better sleep, and in general finds a definite improvement in their way of life.

Police Assailant Awaits Sentence
 Frank Verhoj, of 14731 Kercheval, Detroit, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of assault and battery, at a hearing held before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer. Verhoj was found guilty and released on bond of $50, pending a sentencing date to be set following a report requested from the Wayne County Probation Department.
 Verhoj, who, according to Park authorities, has an extensive criminal record, was arrested on June 14, following a disturbance at Maryland and Kercheval.
 Police were called to the area, when it was believed that a situation might result, as a large crowd gathered when a fracas developed at a large party affair.
 When Patrolman Andrew Meeker sought to quiet a group of people, Verhoj leaped on the officer's back and began hitting him. Other policemen were forced to pull Verhoj away from Meeker. Verhoj was forcibly subdued and handcuffed and taken to the station.
 Judge Speer said he will sentence Verhoj when the report is received from the Probation Department, and will set a sentencing date accordingly.

Woman Injured In LS Accident
 A Woods woman, driving her car on Lake Shore road, was the only person hurt when her vehicle was struck by another on Thursday, August 21.
 According to a Farms police report, Margaret E. Wissmann, of 261 Hollywood avenue, was traveling west on the road, when an auto driven by Henry B. Joy, Jr., of 274 Provincial road, heading west, went out of control near Moross road, jumped over the curb and across the island, and smashed into the left side of her car.
 Officers at the scene took the woman to St. John Hospital for treatment of a lacerated left knee, after which she was released to go home.
 Joy said that as he approached the intersection, he applied his brakes, and the left front wheel brake locked and he lost control and the car went over the median and into the woman's vehicle.
 In her statement to police, the woman said that she saw Joy's car coming at her, and she tried to avoid a collision, but had to veer away from another car which she almost hit.
 Joy was given a violation ticket for driving a motor vehicle left of center. A court date is pending.
 Damage to each was estimated at about $1,000 according to police.

Woman Injured In LS Accident
 A Woods woman, driving her car on Lake Shore road, was the only person hurt when her vehicle was struck by another on Thursday, August 21.
 According to a Farms police report, Margaret E. Wissmann, of 261 Hollywood avenue, was traveling west on the road, when an auto driven by Henry B. Joy, Jr., of 274 Provincial road, heading west, went out of control near Moross road, jumped over the curb and across the island, and smashed into the left side of her car.
 Officers at the scene took the woman to St. John Hospital for treatment of a lacerated left knee, after which she was released to go home.
 Joy said that as he approached the intersection, he applied his brakes, and the left front wheel brake locked and he lost control and the car went over the median and into the woman's vehicle.
 In her statement to police, the woman said that she saw Joy's car coming at her, and she tried to avoid a collision, but had to veer away from another car which she almost hit.
 Joy was given a violation ticket for driving a motor vehicle left of center. A court date is pending.
 Damage to each was estimated at about $1,000 according to police.

Crescent Regatta Draws 314 Boats

By Phil Loranger

While more than 500 boating enthusiasts dined on hot dogs and soft drinks and watched the crazy-clad clowns perform their tricks along the shoreline, the largest fleet of the season moved slowly through its paces Saturday, August 23, in the 36th

Crescent Sail Yacht Club Regatta. Although wind was at a pre-melium, more than 300 boats participated in the races under cloudless skies. The fleet of 148 small boats, which sailed the single-design course was the biggest of its type ever to race in a regatta on Lake St. Clair.

Although the Spipe has probably become the most popularly competitive racing class boat at the Crescent in recent years, 314 boats of all classes took the gun Saturday, starting at 10 a.m., on a day during which the top winds were eight miles an hour, reaching their peak in the late afternoon.

The wind came hot, heavy and sultry from the southeast as the first boats crossed the starting line, switched course to the northeast during mid-day and ended up blowing gently from the southeast again as the stragglers crawled home.

"This has got to be one of the largest crowds I've ever seen gathered here for the regatta," said Crescent member Arno Neumaier, who viewed the races with his son, Edmund, from underneath the gaily-decked tents, which offered the only protection from a hot sun, which baked the crowd throughout the day and sent temperatures soaring into the high 80s.

The cars of spectators lined the banks along Lakeshore road from the Farms Pier to the privately-owned park at the end of Harbor Hill.

Two-time national champion in the Lightning class, Hank Cavthra, a top Crescent skipper for many years, got the winning gun in the 19-foot class by sailing his craft home in the winning time of 1:21:13, edging his nearest competitor by more than two minutes.

Loren Sherry, another top Crescent sailor, led the way in the Thistle class and Dick Matthews and Bob Benkert, Jr., took the crown in the Tempest class.

The last of the "big" regattas will be held at the Crescent Sail Yacht Club on Saturday, August 30, when the Raven-class districts are held in the lake waters in front of the club.

SOD TORN UP Mrs. Henry Bagle, 356 Lakeland, called City police on Saturday, August 23, to report that persons unknown had ripped up newly laid sod and thrown it on the sidewalk along with pebbles and weights, which were holding the sod in place.

Hockey Season Opens Sept. 6

The Grosse Pointe Hockey Association announced this week the 1968-70 hockey season will get under way on Saturday morning, September 6. All youngsters interested in playing organized hockey this coming season are being urged to register at that time in order to assure themselves a position on one of the teams in their particular age bracket.

This year, as in the past, registration will be held at the GPUS Field House on the Grosse Pointe University School campus.

The Association further states that all preseason ice time has been purchased for practices and tryouts to begin on September 6, after the youngsters have registered.

During the pre-season time period all the players are responsible for supplying their own equipment. However, once the regular season gets underway the Association furnishes all the team uniforms. These uniforms are made available through the generosity of the many sponsors who donate their financial support to this very worthwhile project.

As has been noted previously in the NEWS, Grosse Pointe does not have its own public artificial ice rink and as such the Association strongly urges all interested youngsters to register as soon as possible since there will undoubtedly be many waiting lists made up as a result of team rosters being filled at an early date. Registrations are taken on a first come, first play basis.

The ever-increasing problem of ice shortage is blamed for the limited number of Grosse Pointe youngsters being able to play hockey in the Pointes. However, Bill Gill, president of the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association, points out that the Association has again been fortunate enough to have been assigned ice time by the Grosse Pointe University School and as such over 300 youngsters are expected to be able to play hockey under the auspices of the Association.

Prior to the GPUS rink being opened teams from Grosse Pointe will be traveling to such places as Tilbury and St. Clair, Ontario, as well as to Port Huron, St. Clair Shores and Detroit to hold their pre-season workouts.

This year, Grosse Pointe will have more hockey teams playing in organized hockey leagues than ever before. The Association has been awarded a Squirt and Bantam franchise in the Tri-County Hockey League and these two new teams, combined with the existing Pee Wee franchise will enable Grosse Pointe to have three teams in this well organized and competitive league.

In addition, Grosse Pointe will also have Bantam, Midget and Juvenile teams entered in the South East Michigan Hockey League. It was in this keenly competitive league last year that Grosse Pointe won all three of the League Championships and all indications point to another very successful season.

Grosse Pointe has many more youngsters interested and desiring to play hockey during the long winter season than there is ice time available to accommodate. As such, the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association has left no doubt that it will accept youngsters on a first come first play basis and further, these youngsters must continue to take part in a majority of the practices and pre-season games in order to remain on the team to which they have been assigned.

On the average, there are 11,750 persons per square mile living in the City of Detroit which is considerably less crowded than Chicago which has 15,836 persons per square mile, or Philadelphia with 15,743, or New York with 24,697.

City-Farms Fish Rodeo Saturday

The annual City-Farms Fish Rodeo is slated for Saturday, August 30, at both the Farms Pier and the City's municipal park, with fishing scheduled to start at 8:30 a.m. and wind up at 10:30 a.m.

More than 400 youngsters are expected to participate in the annual derby, which was captured last year by Jim Blenham in the City and Kathy Dowdall in the Farms.

Rodeo Chairman Carl Lieman, of the Farms, and Tom Trombley, of the City, report that pre-rodeo catches have been more than ample and that more than 240 youngsters have registered for the pre-rodeo itself. Of this number, 60 are girls.

The pre-rodeo contest, which is a warm up for the actual rodeo, runs until Friday, August 29. Those catching fish in the pre-rodeo at either municipal park may enter their catch in the pre-rodeo contest and become eligible for the grand prize.

The largest fish entered in the so far are a 21 and three-quarter-inch Carp by Mike Kaufman and an 18-inch Pickerel by Steve Coats.

In the Farms, Drew Miller has entered a 20 and one-quarter-inch Sucker, Chuck Stockwell an 18-inch Carp, Tom Graves an 18-inch Catfish and C. R. Gibson an 17-inch Bass in the game fish division.

There have been approximately 500 fish caught in the pre-rodeo contest with Mike Oehalek turning in a total of 23 fish for the Farms. Hot dogs and pop are the order of the day for all girls and boys after the Rodeo draws to a close on August 30, but all contestants must have a tag in order to receive a prize. Last year, the prizes consisted of rods and reels, bait canteens, minnow buckets and many other items.

From Another Pointe of View

Autumn's almost upon us and with autumn comes, as always, Fashionscope, fall's first and most major fashion show.

This Tuesday, September 16, and Wednesday, September 17, extravaganza will be the 17th Annual Junior League Fashionscope. "Terrific" is an adjective that pops into our minds immediately whenever we think of this particular project. . . . And our advance information indicates 1969 will be Fashionscope's super-terrific year.

Show time is 2:30 o'clock both days in Hudson's Downtown Auditorium. Madelyn Coe, Hudson's Fashion co-ordinator, will co-mmentate with Vogue editor-at-large Francoise deLanglade and a Vogue-created movie defining new fall proportions and looks will be shown.

Tea in Hudson's Seventh Floor Woodward Shops follows each program.

Chairman of Fashionscope '69 is Mrs. Henry Earle, III. Assistant chairman is Mrs. John D. Standish and general ticket chairman is Mrs. James L. Rauh.

Sponsor chairman is Mrs. Howard S. Buhl, patroness chairman is Mrs. J. Peter Smith and publicity chairman is Mrs. Thomas Waterfall, II. Mrs. Joseph R. Dansbury is responsible for membership ticket sales and other committee members includes the Mesdames Nelson Robertson, Phillip L. Rahm, Kevin V. McGarry, Post Fordon, Charles R. Brooks, Allen Ledyard, Richard A. Johnson, Albert C. Dickson, Jr., Pierce Smith and Miss Patricia Chalmers.

These ladies—ALL League members, in fact—are busy with last-minute ticket sales. And they STRESS the fact that tickets, ($25 sponsor; $5 patron and general), are available to the general public.

Mrs. Standish, 884-4604, and Mrs. Rauh, 886-0721, are taking telephone ticket orders.

All money raised via the Junior League's Fashionscope goes into a Community Trust fund and is returned to the community through projects which benefit the entire Detroit metropolitan area.

Currently these include a New Children's Hospital Nursery Playroom, to be constructed, and equipped with League-raised funds and partially staffed by League volunteers; the Junior League Glee Club, which sings in nursing homes, hospitals and schools, and the School Volunteer Program in which Leaguers work directly

D'you Know That?

BY PAUL SCHWEITZER

IF YOU ARE SUPERSTITIOUS, you are not alone. People will cling to their fears, even though most of their qualms are easily explained.

For example, do you believe that spilling salt is a bad omen? . . . Why is "13" an unlucky number? . . . Experts say DaVinci started this with his painting, "The Last Supper"; depicting 13 figures including Judas—in front of whom lay an overturned salt cellar.

Reverence for the occult, belief in omens, charms, and signs is senseless. Yet most of us cling to our pet fears, more so than we realize! . . . Even while knowing full well that to be superstitious, will surely bring—Bad Luck!

Oh, well Superstitions are not for the specific handling of Real Estate problems. Don't trust to luck!
