HENRY FORD II, chairman of the Ford Motor Company, took an anti-pollution pledge Wednesday. He said the company would try to achieve in the shortest possible time products and manufacturing facilities that do not significantly contaminate the atmosphere, waters or landscape. Mr. Ford said the company has budgeted more than $31 million for 1970 to intensify its program on automotive emissions.

A PENNSYLVANIA JUDGE rejected Wednesday a request to exhume the body of Mary Jo Kopechne for an autopsy, that clears the way for a secret inquest into how she died in Senator Edward M. Kennedy's car. Judge Bernard C. Brown of Common Pleas Court said there was insufficient evidence to challenge the original finding of death by drowning.

THE SENATE brushed aside a veto threat and a last-ditch Republican plea for economy Thursday and passed a massive tax bill which would touch the life of every American taxpayer. The biggest tax measure since the adoption of the income tax in 1913 was approved by a vote of 69 to 22, with most Republicans voting against it and most Democrats voting no.

Saturday, December 13

CONGRESS SENT to President Nixon Friday a compromise $4.8 billion housing bill with provisions enabling more poor families to qualify for public housing. One new provision of the bill would require that for each slum home or apartment razed as part of an urban-renewal project, a new low-income dwelling unit must be built in the city or county involved.

MAYOR-ELECT Roman S. Gribbs announced the appointment of Patrick V. Murphy as Detroit's new police commissioner Saturday. Gribbs pledged that Murphy will have a free hand to make whatever changes he wants to upgrade the Police Department, control crime and improve relations between police and Negroes.

THREE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH students, who analyzed by computer the results of the nation's draft lottery, say they have found a pattern in the chosen numbers that indicates the deck may inadvertently have been stacked. The students found that an analysis showed a disproportionate number of December birthdates, 17 of which were drawn in the first third of the lottery, while many birthdates in January, February and March were not picked until the second half.

PRESIDENT NIXON speaking Monday night, announced a new troop withdrawal from Vietnam of 50,000 men by April 15. He described it as one of the "risks for peace" the United States must take. When the 50,000 men are withdrawn, Mr. Nixon will have cut the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam by 105,500 from the time he announced his first withdrawals last June.

THE HOUSE Monday unanimously approved a 15 percent boost in monthly Social Security benefits for all 25 million recipients starting New Year's Day. The bill's manager, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., announced before the 397-0 roll call vote that hopefully the 15 percent boost could be President Nixon's desk by the time Congress adjourns at Christmas.

Water, Sewage Disposal Charges Raised by City

The Grosse Pointe City Council at its meeting of December 15, adopted an ordinance setting the combined water and sewage disposal rate at $3.80 per thousand cubic feet. The previous rate of $2.75 per thousand cubic feet had been in effect since January 1967. During the past two years the cost of water which the City purchases from Grosse Pointe Farms has increased 25 per cent and beginning this January the Detroit Sewage Disposal charge to the City will be increased 100%. City Manager Kressbach explained to the Council that 72% of the increase was necessary to offset the higher rates charged by the Farms and the City of Detroit. The remaining 33% represents the additional amount needed by the City's system to cover increases in water main and sewer repair requirements and labor costs experienced during the past three years. The Council also approved

Questionnaires Provided Public School Students In Fight Against Drug Use

Hope to Obtain Information Which Will Help Battle Problem; Signatures Not Required on Forms Being Distributed

As part of its continuing program of action against drug abuse in the community, the Grosse Pointe Public School System has arranged for students at the middle school, high school and elementary levels to provide them with information on the local drug problem by filling out unsigned questionnaires on the subject.

Among the questions asked at the middle and high school levels are:—Do you smoke, if so how often? Do you drink beer or alcohol, if so how often? A vocabulary of drug terms which the students are asked to match with definitions. Have any of these people told you any facts about drugs for non-medical purposes, parents, friends, teachers, counselors, school administrator, doctor, minister, priest, police or someone else? Further questions include:—Do you know of anyone who uses any of these drugs and then a list of drugs follows. Do any of your friends or relatives use any of these drugs? (List follows.) Have you ever been in a group when anyone has used any of these drugs? (Select from a list of drugs.) Have you ever taken any of these drugs? (Select from a list.) If you have taken any drugs for non-medical purposes, which one did you take first, second, etc.? If you have taken any drugs for non-medical purposes in what grade did you first begin? Which of these terms best describes your own experience with taking drugs for non-medical purposes? Have never taken drugs. Have only experimented. Have taken drugs and quit. Have taken drugs and still take some. I think I am hooked. Where have you seen someone use drugs for non-medical purposes? In your home. In someone else's home. In school during the day. At a school

Lesson Ignored By Poor Driver

David A. Fournier of 19692 Washtenaw, Harper Woods, had to come up with a sum of money to post bond and to pay two fines, before he was released by Farms police on Sunday, December 14.

According to an official report, Fournier was driving south on Moross road at about 2:37 a.m., when he was observed by two Farms policemen as he ran through an amber light, going at excessive speed. The officers, Patrolmen Thomas Kelly and William Fowler, stopped the motorist at Chalfonte and Bournemouth, after which they radioed for a check to determine if he was wanted. The return reply disclosed that Fournier was wanted on two traffic warrants in Detroit police and that his operator's license was suspended, and he was taken to the station. At the station, the Farms authorities were authorized by Detroit to collect fines totaling $27 from Fournier, after which he was issued a violation ticket for going through an amber light, and a second ticket for driving while his license was suspended.

Fournier had to post a bond of $150 before he was able to go home. He is awaiting a hearing date in Farms municipal court.

Tight Money Puts Buyers and Sellers Of Home in Bind

Many Properties for Sale, but Virtual Moratorium on Mortgages Brings Frustration to All Involved In Potential Transactions

By Phil Loranger
There are more homes for sale in The Pointe today than in recent memory, but a tight money market has created a real stalemate between buyer and seller, according to Robert G. Edgar, a partner in Purdy and Edgar Associates, real estate brokers.

"There is little doubt that homes are available and that people have the desire to move, but the money necessary to purchase a new home is just not there," Edgar told the NEWS. "Those persons, looking to buy a home in the 'below $35,000' category, have Federal Housing Association (FHA) and Veterans' Administration (VA) insured loans available, but homes priced above the $35,000 cutoff, present a host of problems for buyers, sellers and realtors."

Virtual Moratorium
Although it is difficult to nail them down to words, lending institutions have imposed a virtual mortgage moratorium by refusing to lend money for home buying. With the exception of long-time customers and those persons having good banking connections, buyers are being hard-pressed to come up with funds for homes.

"It takes the 'creative' real estate broker, one who is experienced in the field and is willing to take the time and spend the effort to arrange a mortgage in today's market," claimed Edgar. "This situation has placed a tremendous burden on all those involved in the real estate field."

Harold Fels, manager of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association offices at 17150 Kercheval, claimed his organization is making loans available to regular customers, but that newcomers are, by necessity, being turned away.

Many Requests Refused
"People are being forced to turn to land contracts or FHA loans," said Fels. "I know we are giving out mortgages, but I also know that most banks are refusing all requests." Land contracts normally require that the buyer put down a lower down payment, but sellers can virtually close the deal if the buyer misses a payment. Land contracts do not have the flexibility of a mortgage and are usually looked at with disdain by buyers and sellers.

FHA and VA insured loans are available, but, once again, sellers attempt to ignore them because they are forced to pay a number of "discount points" by law, which lowers the seller's actual profit on the sale of the home. Thus, most are just "sitting" and hoping for a break.

No Change Seen
"We are not in for a break in the area of mortgages," said Edgar. "I cannot foresee any change in the tight mortgage market in the near future. In fact, I predict that 1970 is going

Minister Sends Invitation To Join Him on Yule Walk

Dr. Harry C. Meserve, minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee avenue, extends the following invitation to interested members of The Pointe Community. "We have various kinds of walks in our community: house walks, garden walks, and the like. On Christmas Eve this year I am going to leave my house at 80 Moran and walk to the church for our Christmas Eve service, which begins at 11 o'clock. The distance is about one and one-half miles, and it takes about 20 minutes."

"I am inviting all who would like to walk with me to meet at our house any time after nine that evening for coffee or hot chocolate, and then to walk with me in silence to our church. I am going to carry a flashlight as a sign of the light that came into the world with Christmas." "The walk will be a testimony of our concern for peace. It is not against our government or our president, but for them, in so far as what they are doing and trying to do represents a serious determination to turn away from the ways of war and destruction and toward the ways of peace and rehabilitation of a war-torn world. "The walk will be a testimony of our love and concern for our own country and all its people; our servicemen in Vietnam and other remote places; the people of Vietnam, Nigeria, the Middle-East; and other war-sick places; the people in our own country who suffer from racial prejudice, from poverty, from hunger and from alienation. "The walk will be a testimony of our desire and purpose to do better at all the things that relate to religion than we have done in the past. "The walk will be a symbol that we are able and willing to expose ourselves whatever the weather, to the effort to

Many Cases Unreported, Says Doctor

Deputy Director County Health Dept. Furnishes News Latest Figures

By Pepper Whitelaw

Hepatitis is in epidemic proportions in Grosse Pointe, according to Dr. Thomas Hamilton, Deputy Director of the Wayne County Department of Health. He told the NEWS that in 1968 some 12 cases were reported. Of these, one was of the serum type and 11 of the infectious type.

So far this year, 42 cases have been reported. Of these 35 have been the infectious type and seven of the serum type.

Dr. Hamilton hastened to add that many cases of hepatitis go unreported and many are reported as infectious rather than serum, because doctors often protect their patients from the stigma associated with having the serum type, which is often a direct result of the use of unsterilized syringes and needles by drug users.

Reveals Marked Rise

Dr. Hamilton said recently there has been a marked rise in serum hepatitis in the 15- to 29-year-old age group. This is the age group that has been increasingly involved with illicit drug use and according to Dr. Hamilton, a definite correlation is apparent. He said this type of hepatitis is common among adolescent users of heroin in the United States and also among amphetamine users when the drug is taken intravenously.

Drug addicts use unsanitary methods of self-injection," he continued, "even if they realize the dangers, lack of concern, rituals associated with addiction, sharing equipment and poor social circumstances all contribute to the problem."

Dr. Hamilton said last year in Wayne County there were 120 reported cases of hepatitis. This year some 340 cases have been reported to date. He said Southeastern Michigan is the only area in the entire United States showing such a marked increase. He attributes the increase, almost all of which is of the serum type, to the upswing in drug abuse.

Required by Law

Dr. Hamilton also stated doctors are required by state law to report all cases of hepatitis to the Wayne County Board of Health. He added "hepatitis is very difficult to diagnose and diagnosis depends entirely on the doctor's clinical impression of each individual case. Some of the symptoms of hepatitis are jaundice (this occurs only in about half the cases involving young adults and adolescents), nausea, tiredness and occasionally pain in the liver area. The only treatment is plenty of bed rest and good diet."

Dr. Hamilton cautioned that effects of hepatitis can be fatal or include permanent damage of the liver. The duration of the disease varies with the individual, but it can last as long as two years.

He said with serum hepatitis isolation is not required by state law. It can only be contracted through needles, differing young adults and adolescents which can be contracted through direct or indirect contact with feces, urine and blood of infected persons.

Help Her Avoid Shots for Rabies

Eighteen-year-old Judy Senopole, 19216 Linville, will have to undergo a series of rabies shots if the dog who bit her on the palm of her left hand on Wednesday, December 10, is not located by Saturday, December 20.

Judy was bitten by a short-haired, medium-sized, brown dog near 19740 Mack. The dog was not wearing a collar. Anyone with information regarding the dog's owner should call 888-3718 immediately. The information could save Judy having to go through the painful rabies treatment.

are helping with state-wide distribution of materials in co-operation with the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

"Three years ago, the Auto Club took a unique approach to holiday motorists who have one or two social drinks and still drive," says Hinsberg. "We publicly stated that although drinking and driving can never be condoned, there is little anyone can do to prevent this holiday practice."

"We know that eight out of every 10 motorists over the holiday will have a social drink or two and still drive."

Hinsberg added that past holiday safety programs which state "Don't Drink Drivers Go to Jail" and "Alcohol Kills," plus other similar admonitions, are ignored by the bulk of the public.

Places Responsibility

"The First a Friend, Then a Host" program is the only positive approach to holiday drinking taken by a safety-oriented organization," adds Hinsberg.

Xmas Carnival Big Production

Christmas Carnival, the City of Detroit's big holiday show at Cobo Hall, generates some impressive statistics.

The Carnival, first developed by Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh in 1962, covers approximately four acres of floor space in the multi-million dollar facility, with the three playground areas alone accounting for more than a quarter-acre.

The ceiling area above the halls is hung with one mile of garlands and 150 giant ornaments, each 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 feet long.

Two thousand man-hours went into just setting up the 30 major exhibits and other attractions such as the 210 trees trimmed with 20,000 Christmas lights.

Statistically speaking, there is one mile of birch log fencing, 1,200 feet of ceiling-high drapery, 180 yards of wood chips and 240 yards of sand in the Carnival.

Detroit Parks and Recreation's use of 2,500 square feet of half-inch thick, honey-comb rubber matting at two of the playground areas is a first for any recreation department in the Midwest.

Operating the show daily is a staff of 60 persons. The supervisors average six miles of walking per day.

Some other important statistics are that Christmas Carnival is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, except Christmas Day. There will be 6 p.m. closings on Christmas Eve and one the last day, December 28.

Admission is free to the Carnival itself and to all the displays and live entertainments offered as many as 16 times throughout the day and evening hours.

Pierce Offering Xmas Program

One hundred fifty-four students of Pierce Middle School will combine their musical talents on the evening of Wednesday, December 17, to present the annual Christmas program.

Parents are invited to begin with a stroll through the building at 7:30, to view the various classrooms decorated for the season. At 8:15 the Glee Club, directed by Stuart Eppinga, will open the program in the auditorium by offering four songs: "Christmas Canon," by Billings, "White By My Sheep," a 17th Century carol, and two by Burt, "The Star Carol" and "O Hearken Ye."

Following this, the woodwind section of the instrumentalists, directed by Dr. James Moore, will perform "Jingle Bells," after which the audience is invited to join them in "The First Noel," "Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Deck the Halls."

Anyone who has forgotten the words to those old favorites will find them projected on the screen on the stage.

Next, the brass ensemble will play "Jolly Old St. Nick," and invite the audience to join in again on "O Come All Ye Faithful," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing."

The auditorium program will conclude with the string ensemble playing "Joy to the World," and the audience and strings offering "We Three Kings," "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," and "Silent Night."

But this isn't enough for these lettermen, so they decided to turn their initiation ceremonies into a worthwhile, fun project. New members were recently auctioned off after school as "slaves" for one entire school day.

After the money was collected, the boys called Action Line and asked it to recommend a needy person or charity. Action Line found just the perfect person for the Varsity Club's $97. It was a little 12-year-old girl who wrote, "All the kids laugh at my big sister who has cerebral palsy because she has to have training wheels on her bike. Could you help me buy a bicycle built for two so I can take her riding with me?" The boys' money bought a shiny, new red tandem for the little girl and an awful lot of Christmas cheer.

Michael Beaupre Appointed New Fire Chief in Farms

Michael Beaupre, veteran fireman, was promoted from captain to chief of the Farms Fire Department by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr. The elevation in rank was announced at the regular Farms council meeting held on Monday, December 15, and approved by the council. The new rating became effective the next day, Tuesday.

Mayor William Butler, prior to the session, disclosed that he "had a very pleasant task to perform," after which he presented the new chief with a gold badge bearing the traditional symbols of the fire fighting profession, and engraved with the legend "Chief, Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Department."

Following the brief presentation ceremony, witnessed by Beaupre's wife of 25 years, Eileen, and his daughter, Suzanne, 16, the new chief was congratulated by the mayor and councilmen and other city officials.

Beaupre succeeds Chief M. William Mason, who retired last month after more than 40 years of service, the last 15 years as the head of the department.

Chief Beaupre was appointed to the Farms Fire Department on July 5, 1946, approximately two years after he married the former Eileen Harris of the Pointe.

On December 1, 1958, he was promoted to lieutenant, and on July 1, 1967, was made captain, and second in command of the department.

He was born in the Farms on July 9, 1919. He is a 1937 graduate of St. Paul High School.

Chief Beaupre is a veteran of World War II, serving five years with the 210th Anti-Aircraft Artillery, United States Army. He spent 25 months with his unit in the Aleutian Islands. He was honorably discharged with the rank of staff sergeant.

The chief and his wife, who reside at 22729 Carolina, St. Clair Shores, are the parents of three other children, besides Suzanne, who is a sophomore at South Lake High School, St. Clair Shores. They are, Michael, Jr., a Vietnam veteran, who lives at home; Dennis, 21, a senior at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, where he is majoring in Business Administration; and Mrs. Karen (Ronald) Harrie, 18, of Big Rapids, Mich., whose husband is an Industrial Technology (Electronics) major at Ferris State College. There is a grandson, Mark.

"I am deeply honored that I have been selected to head the Farms Fire Department," Beaupre said, "and I am proud and happy to be the chief of one of the best firefighting groups in the entire area."

"I am grateful that the city manager has the confidence in me to promote me to this high post, and I am also grateful to the city councilmen for giving their approval. I will do my utmost in fulfilling my new duties and will continue to help maintain the excellent traditions and services of our department for the people of the Farms."

Police Urge Safe Driving During Holidays, All Year

With the Christmas and New Year holidays nearly here, law enforcement agencies throughout the State will concentrate on enforcing traffic laws and apprehending violators, with emphasis on drunk drivers. As it is stressed every year about this time, "Drunk Drivers Go to Jail."

To date this year, according to statistics released by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, a total of 15,739 motorists arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol, failed to pass the breath test. The law stipulates that when the person taking the test registers .15 percent or more on the Breathalyzer, he is drunk.

The law also states that any person arrested and charged with driving while under the influence of alcoholic beverages, must go to court, even if he takes a breath test and fails it. If convicted, the person's license is revoked and not returned until he obtains damage and liability insurance, as provided under the Financial Responsibility Law. This type of insurance must be obtained for three consecutive years, before the person is taken "off the hook."

If, however, a driver is arrested and charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence, and he refuses to take a breath test, his license is automatically revoked, not suspended, but revoked, for a period of 90 days, under the Implied Consent Law.

Where under the FA Law, a revoked license is returned when a motorist complies with the law's provisions, not so under the IC Law.

A driver cannot be forced to take a breath test. However, refusal to take a test, not only will deprive him of the right to drive for 90 days, but after this period, he must take both a written and a driving test, the same as a person applying for a license the first time. If he "flunks" either one, he does not get the license back, but he can keep on trying.

The heads of the Pointe area police departments announced that they have instructed their respective personnel to strictly enforce the law on drunk driving, no exceptions.

They urge all persons to be careful. If you drink, don't drive; if you want to drive, don't drink. A little holiday cheer is all right, but not to the extent that it will impair operating a motor vehicle, they added.

To much alcohol is liable to put you in "hot water" and in the "cooler," or worse yet, if you drive while intoxicated, you may cause damage to property, or injure or kill yourself or someone else in an accident.

Take a taste drive

At the Woods, a test drive is a taste drive. When you get behind the wheel of a new Volkswagen or Mercedes-Benz, you know it's going to ride smoothly, effortlessly...because you already know the reputation of these fine imported automobiles for quality, engineering and craftsmanship. But what you feel when you first drive one is that flush of pride that goes with knowing that you're driving a "classic"...a car created to reflect your own good taste. And after you taste drive one, you'll never want to even test drive anything less.

Surdan Named JA Drive Head

Robert M. Surdam, president and chief executive officer of the National Bank of Detroit, has been named general chairman of the 1970 Fund Drive for Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan.

Announcement of the appointment was made by J.A. president Robert S. Olson, chairman of the board of Ford Motor Credit Company.

Mr. Surdam, from Grosse Pointe Farms, will lead a fund raising team of over 700 businessmen in a campaign which will officially begin on February 2, 1970 and continue through March 17, 1970.

Over 8,000 business firms in Southeastern Michigan will be contacted during this fund drive to enable the young adult organization to continue expansion of its practical economics education program in future years.

The J.A. program in Southeastern Michigan was started in 1949 and has grown to be the largest among the 200 J.A. areas in the nation with 26 business centers serving approximately 7,500 students. They are counseled by over 800 volunteer advisors from business and industry and are residents of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw, Livingston and Monroe Counties. These teens represent participation of over 200 high schools.

Colored Flames Add Yule Beauty

The blazing log in the fireplace can give off flames of many different colors if properly treated beforehand. Adding chemicals to the fire will produce a variety of colors. Chemicals are not added to the fire but to the wood or pine cones before burning.

A solution may be made of the chemicals dissolved in water and kindling or cones soaked and then allowed to dry. A more efficient and economical procedure is to dip the wood or pine cones into glue (an aerosol of glue may be used to spray them), then dust them with the chemicals. You can usually buy the crude chemicals at the drugstore with the colors they give off when they burn. Use care when handling any chemicals. Many will ruin the finish on fine wood furniture and corrode metal surfaces.

Purple: lithium chloride; Violet: potassium chloride; Orange: calcium chloride; Red: strontium chloride; Green: copper sulfate; Light Green: borax, and Blue: copper chloride.

Tight Money

(Continued from Page 1) to be a bad year for business in general. I hate to be the purveyor of such a black business picture, but it will take some doing to shake us out of our present situation."

The banks' attitude on mortgages is understandable. They reason that it is far wiser to invest their money in those areas which pay bigger dividends in a shorter length of time, rather than tying up their money for the length of a 20-30-year mortgage and realizing nominal profit or gain.

Plan Smoker's Clinic

Has Been Successful

During the five; one and one-half hour sessions, the withdrawal techniques first developed by the Seventh Day Adventists and adopted by the Michigan Cancer Foundation will be used. This has been the most successful program yet developed, with more than 70 percent of those attending having been able to quit smoking. This will include exposure to the full range of the hazards associated with smoking, the positive benefits of not smoking. Group Dynamics and the "buddy" system will be used to reinforce the proven methods of smoking withdrawal. Also included will be effective methods to avoid excessive weight gain which often occurs after a person stops smoking.

The Smoking Withdrawal Clinic is free and open to the public. It is being offered by the Hospital to assist those who have made, or plan to make, a New Year's Resolution to "quit smoking."

Pointe Sail Club Elects Officers

By Phil Loranger
The sailing club without a home, but boasting the reputation of being one of the most influential sailing clubs in the nation, took time off from a busy winter schedule to elect officers this week and set its new sheets for the year ahead.
The Grosse Pointe Sail Club (GPSC), founded on September 12, 1948, under the shade of a towering oak tree at the Grosse Pointe Park marina, gathered its 134 members at the Bayview Yacht Club on Friday, December 12, for a four-hour meeting, from which five new officers emerged after a secret ballot.
Elected Commodore for the 1969-70 season was William McCourt, a longtime member of the group, who served the past year's as vice commodore. Norman Rodgers stepped up to the post of vice commodore and Harold Stead was elected rear commodore. Bernard Van Antwerp, who doubles as the club's highly efficient social chairman, was named to the four-man board of directors for a two-year term and Paul Shoup was also named to a two-year term of office on the board. Shoup wears the hat of secretary-treasurer for the elite sailing organization.
This marked the first meeting to which a member of the NEWS staff was invited to observe the club's chicanery at one of its many "homos." The invitation was extended by Past Commodore Bob Verhelle, who began to wonder whether or not it was a wise decision to allow the press at the meeting, as the spirited members began to "warm up" for their evening of debate.

Perhaps, as much as its unique position of being homeless, it is the spirit of this club, which sets it apart from other such groups and propels it to great heights each sailing season.
This, as one member claimed, is a "marching and chowder" group, full of sincere and dedicated sailors, who combine each year to sponsor the unique Tuesday Night Sailing Regattas and gain national attention for their spirited displays on the waters.
A full-fledged member of the Detroit River Yachting Association (DRYA), the club has as its sole purpose the encouragement and promotion of sailing, boating, racing and good seamanship and the desire to foster good sportsmanship and competition in sail racing. There is little doubt that it has also encouraged fraternity among those persons interested in sailing and boating, not only in the Pointe, but wherever its members sail.
Some of the finest and most widely recognized sailors in the area hold membership in the club. Most of the members in fact also hold dual memberships in other clubs.
Commodore McCourt and his new staff of officers and directors—Dale Nouse and Floyd Skikiewicz, are already serving on the board—will face a number of new problems this year, among which are the reorganization of the larger sailing craft racing categories, the proposed establishment of a junior membership and, most importantly, the establishment of a permanent base of operations.
Most club members feel that after 21 years of plying the waters of Lake St. Clair, it would be nice to "come on home."

Holiday Tourney For U-L Knights

The University School Knights will head north for the holidays to participate in a Christmas Basketball tournament along with five other teams at Yale, Mich., according to University School Athletic Director Bob Wood.
"The tournament dates are December 26, 27 and 29," said

Wood. "We feel the arrangement is very good, because one loss will not knock a team out of the tournament finals."
Participating in the holiday tourney in addition to University School will be Capac, Memphis, Cross-Lox, Marlett and Yale. University School has been placed in the middle bracket of the drawing and will oppose Capac on the tournament's first night. The Knights clipped Capac earlier in the season by a count of 61-56.
Success for the Knights will depend largely on the performances of All-Stater Dale McCarty and the Kulek brothers, Ralph and Mark, all three of whom are enjoying good seasons.

Pointe Wildcats Lose Close Game

The Pee Wee Division "Wildcats," who represent Grosse Pointe in the Tri-County Hockey League, faced-off against the Mavericks on Saturday, December 13. The Wildcats kept the puck in Mavericks' end of the ice most of the game, but the opposition net-minder only allowed them to score twice.
With just 9 seconds to go in the game the Mavericks scored, and broke the 2-2 tie. The Wildcats' "heads-up" playing did not produce victory Saturday, however they did win on Sunday in an exhibition game in Canada.

Playing forward for the Wildcats are Bryan Cammett, Jim Carbone, Brian Carron, Pat Fox, Phil Hendrie, Jim Klimchuk, John Lange, Chad Morris, Jeff Welscher, and Dave Maxwell. The defensive linemen are, Dennis Austin, John Batten, Tom McCubbin, and Tom Stewart. Billy Kidd and Jim Farquhar share the goal-tending duties.
All League games are played on Saturday at the Winter Wonderland Rink. Exhibition games this year have been played in St. Clair Shores, Royal Oak, Detroit and Canada.

Color Harmony Guide Available

Shocking pink and hot orange, once enemies, today make a great color combination.
Yesterday's rules that say "brightest colors in smallest areas" and "cool, light colors for background areas" are often ignored according to Kathleen Bufton, Home Economist with the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service in Wayne and Oakland counties.
Although color combinations are freer and more exciting than in the past some guides in color selection and color coordination in home design are useful says Mrs. Bufton.
"Color Harmony for Interiors," a booklet on selecting and coordinating colors for your home, is available free of charge from the Wayne County Cooperative Extension office in Wayne.

Burglar Visits City Residence

City police received a report from Albert Gonas, 819 Lakeland, on Sunday, December 7, reporting a breaking and entry. On that date between 3:30 and 10 p.m. someone entered the Gonas residence through the rear screened-in porch and stole a number of valuable items.
Included among these were a mink stole, a full length mink coat, a brown coat with mink collar, a beige ribbon knit dress with mink cuffs, a man's black topcoat, several diamond rings and a number of pieces of costume jewelry.
Police checked with neighbors in the area but no one heard or saw anything that would help in their investigation. Footprints were found outside and inside the residence.

John LaRose Wins Promotion in Army

John T. La Rose, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. La Rose, 663 Pemberton road, recently was promoted to Army specialist five while serving with the 516th Personnel Service Company near Da Nang, Vietnam.
A computer operator with the company, the specialist entered the Army in September, 1968, and was stationed at the U.S. Army Ammunition and Procurement Supply Agency, Joliet, Ill., before arriving overseas in July of this year.
He is a 1964 graduate of St. Ambrose High School.

Scoring the Pointes

By Phil Lavanger

EDITOR'S NOTE: All six Pointe-area high school cage teams have officially opened their 1969-70 campaigns and there is a long way to go before the final shot is taken and the season's results are in. With this edition, the NEWS begins its game coverage of the local cagers, capsuling the initial efforts of the six teams to date.

Coach Ray Ritter's Norsemen got off on the right foot on Monday, November 8, knocking off a veteran-loaded Mount Clemens team by a narrow count of 66-63, as Gary Bennett singled the nets for 20 points and Mike Zenn added 18 counters for the North High cagers. With four players back from a 1968-69 team, which captured the regional crown, the Mount Clemens team threw a scare into the Norsemen, but "Ritter's Raiders" were not to be denied. Rick DiCiccio and Glen Hilger added nine points each to the winning margin and Brian Webster tallied six points.

A Costly Victory
"It was a good victory, but a costly one," said Ritter. "We lost Zenn for at least one game, when he sprained his ankle in the last 30 seconds of the contest. This week, we also lost Bennett, when he suffered the same injury."

Ritter hopes to go into the Christmas holidays with a 3-0 record, which would put the Norsemen in fine shape for a run at the Bi-County League title.

"That means we'll have to beat Chantondale and talented South Lake in our next two games," he said. "Without the use of our two big men, the going promises to be a little rough."

The Blue Devils of South High, a young and inexperienced bunch, matched Dearborn in shots from the floor, but experienced a miserable night at the free throw line, in dropping a heart-breaking 62-61 match on Friday, December 5.

Free Throws Hurt
"We did not play good basketball, but we still had the opportunities to win the game time and time again," said head mentor Chuck Hollosy, who watched his team miss 29 out of 52 foul shots in the contest. "Each team hit on 19 floor shots, but we sure blew it at the charity stripes."

Led by 6-foot-5 junior Paul Shirar, who collected 16 points, and 6-foot-4 Jim Parker, who added 12, the Blue Devils made it close throughout the game. Dearborn had three starters from last year's squad and that was the difference in the ballgame.

Utilizing a zone press throughout the first half, Hollosy switched his team into a man-to-man pressure defense in the latter half of the game, but to no avail. Jack Critchfield collected 11 points and Skip Shirar, Doug Graham and Pete Farmer added seven points each. The Blue Devils meet Monroe and East Detroit, in their engaging Wyandotte on December 19.

The University School cagers opened their season with a convincing victory over Capac, but the sledding for Coach Bob Wood's quintet became a bit rough in his next two contests, as they dropped battles with Detroit Country Day School and Lutheran East.

McCarthy Has Hot Hand
The Knights outdistanced Capac by a count of 61-56, as All-Everything Dale McCarthy tossed in 30 points, grabbed off 18 rebounds and gathered seven assists. McCarthy, an All-Stater and one of the best "team" players on the circuit, hit four out of five from the charity stripes and connected on 13 of 19 from the floor. Ralph Kulek and Mark Moran added 11 points each.

Leading 35-34 at the half, Country Day put on the stall in the third quarter against the Knights and outscored them 5-2. It was a close tilt until the last six minutes, when inexperience caught up with the University School cagers and Country Day wrapped it up. Mark Kulek netted 16 points for the Knights and McCarthy added 12. Ralph Kulek picked up 11.

Lutheran East gave the Knights their second loss of the young season, when they clipped the Cook road schoolers 53-48, icing the victory in the last minute of play.

McCarthy hit the nets for 20 points, Mike Getz added 12 and Ralph Kulek also picked up a dozen, but, trailing by just three points with a minute to play, the Knights lost the ball and with it the game. "Depth is what has really been hurting us so far this year," claimed Coach Wood. "When we get past McCarthy and the Kulek brothers, we have six boys, who never played a minute of varsity basketball before this season. I'm anticipating better things as we go along."

Fast Start For Lakers
The St. Paul Lakers, led by high-flying Tim Bigham, a 6-foot-3, senior forward, playing his third year of varsity ball, are off to a fast start in the Catholic League's Second Division East, standing with a record of five wins and no losses in the league and five-one overall. The Lakers only loss was a squeaker to Bishop Gallagher in their initial start, but they have come on strong to run over St. David, Salesian, St. Alphonsus, St. Ladislaus and St. Clement in true St. Paul fashion.

"We play eight games before the Christmas break and the boys had to get into good shape earlier than usual this year," said Ed Lauer, the dean of Pointe basketball, who has led the Lakers for the past 31 years. "We are just getting the athletes from the football team into basketball condition."

Senior Terry Allard is one of those boys. The 5-foot-11 guard has been averaging about 10 points a game in recent encounters and that figure is bound to get better quickly.

Bigham, well versed in the Lauer style of play, has been hitting the nets at a clip of 16 points per contest.

How to plan your day without squandering 10 cents on the Free Press.

So you've decided to save ten whole cents on the Free Press. What if it does mean losing that morning bundle of facts that help you plan your day. Don't fret. Here's how you can operate a little information system of your own. Let's start with shopping. Like the latest fashion offerings, bargains, the kind of things you find at your fingertips when you spend 10 cents on the Free Press.

54 fast phone calls does it

It will be easy to find out which of Detroit's big stores is having a sale. All you have to do is make 54 fast phone calls. (That takes less than two hours if you have a tough dialing finger.) Remember to ask about special bargains each time you call . . . and keep a glass of water handy in case you get hoarse.

Supermarket prices? Simply tour all the supermarkets in your area and sample the dozens of small grocery stores en route. Total mileage: about 56 by car—12 on foot (inside stores).

Special events—a cinch

You know how the good old Free Press tells you about all the special events in town. Don't worry. You can always phone the Chamber of Commerce (964-4000) for general information. Then start calling stadiums for sports events, check the leading hotels for celebrities in town worth spotting, and call the Fire Department for parades (or big fires) worth watching. You might start thinking about how much easier it would be to read the Free Press. But, control yourself. Ten cents saved is ten cents earned.

Operate your own classified column

What about all the bargains you'll miss in the Free Press want ads? Like antique desks, used cars or maybe a good buy on a second-hand sewing machine. You can operate your own want ad system. Post a little sign on the notice boards of all laundromats: "Call me at (YOUR PHONE NUMBER) . . . before you send it to the Free Press Classifieds."

Employ an answering service to record everything, and you'll be all set. It just takes a little Yankee ingenuity. Right?

For fashion information, you can call the House of Dior in Paris direct. ($5.00 for 3 minutes) Child care tips? Dr. Spock can be reached at his New York office. ($1.80 for 3 minutes) Recipe ideas? Use the ones you've been using. Maybe your family will get tired of the same old meals all the time, but you'll be saving 10 cents. TV programs? You can find a list in yesterday afternoon's paper—along with the out-of-date news. You'll just have to put up with being 12 hours behind the world when you save 10 cents on the Free Press. As for Dr. Steincrohn, Bob Talbert and Earl Wilson, you'll have to do without them. But maybe your husband can stand in for Billy Graham. Ask him for a parable before he goes to work.

...plus a small computer. (See the Yellow Pages under Data Processing Systems. A half-hour rental costs about $165.) Or you could manage with a slide rule. (Cost: about $4.98.)

Leading a full nightlife is easy

You know how you check the movies and other nighttime entertainment in the Free Press. Now, all you'll have to do is call the 108 theatres in Detroit and suburbs to find a good, clean family film. If you don't have any luck, try the 8 in Windsor. (Toll charge of 10 cents a call.) Prefer something a little different? You can always check out nightclubs, bowling alleys, dance halls, rock festivals, etc. Just let your fingers do the walking and your phone do the work. Around 50-60 calls should do it.

A good full day

See how easy it is to manage without the morning Free Press? So your voice might be shot. And your legs will develop muscles on the muscles. And your dialing finger will have corns. And you'll be too tired to move. But, you can do it, baby! You can save 10 cents and still plan your day without the Free Press.

Why not try it tomorrow?

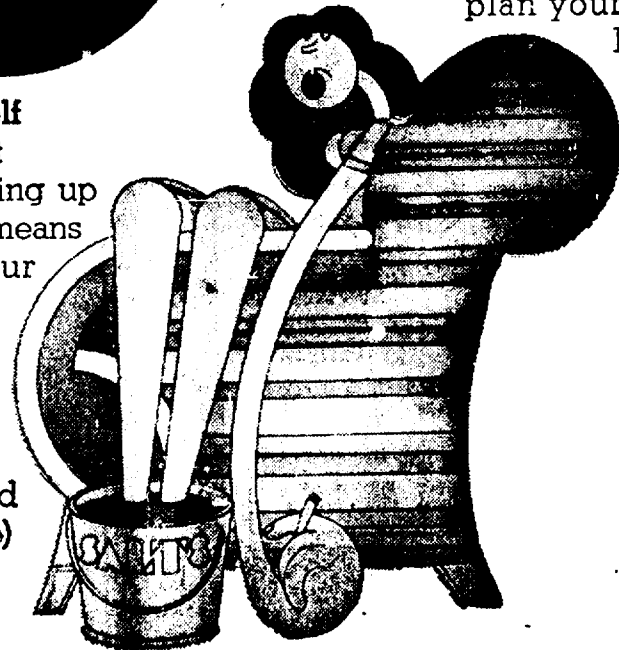

Do-it-yourself horoscope kit

Of course, giving up your Free Press means doing without your Jeane Dixon horoscope.

But, why not cast your own? All you'll need is a set of planetary tables and a book on the subject . . . like The Coffee Table Book of Astrology by Santha Rama Rau, Alan Leo, Isabelle Pagan and others. ($8.95 at your nearest bookstore)

Scoring The Pointes

(Continued from Page 7) Catholic League this year. Eight games prior to Christmas not only places a great deal of burden on all teams too early in the season, but it takes most of the suspense out of the title run, when one team breaks away in the beginning of the year. It also makes it all but impossible for a team, off to a poor start, to get back into the race before it's too late. The Catholic League sports director should take a harder look at his scheduling, tempering it with a bit of foresight.

Friars Still In Race
Austin is well in the race in the Catholic League's Central Division, as Coach "Chic" Chircowski has guided his team to a 2-2 overall record in the first weeks of the season. Austin's two losses have come by a total of only three points, which shows you how tough this league really is. The tradition-rich Friars have defeated U of D High 51-47 and Bishop Gallagher 77-58, while dropping close games to LeLa-Salle, by a count of 64-62 and Shrine 71-70 in a double overtime clash.

Rick Woodbury, a 5-foot-10 guard and senior center Steve Babiaz, who stands 6-foot-4, have led the way for Austin. Woodbury averaged 25 points a game through the first three encounters and is currently hitting the nets at a 20 point-per game clip. The Friars are a running team which primarily comes at its opponents with a zone defense and they are going to make some real noise in the league this year.

Cavaliers Are Learning
Under new head coach, Harvey Heitman, the Cavaliers of St Ambrose may not be setting a record pace, but they are learning and that's what Harvey wants.

"These kids could go 0-16 this year, but, if they learn, that's all I care about and they will come on strong next year," he said. "We are stressing man-to-man defense and the kids are catching on."

Heitman had only one returning player from last year's squad with which to build on for 1969, but that player—Paul Hayner—is a good one. Hayner's been averaging better than 18 points a game and is one of the most exciting defensive players in the league.

Tim Hogan, a 6-foot-3 junior has come on rapidly and may end up being one of the finest players to ever represent St. Ambrose. He hit for 14 points in his last contest.

The Cavaliers stand at 0-4, but the season is young and the Cavaliers are getting older fast.

Club Cage Loops Seeking Officials

An urgent appeal from the Neighborhood Club's Pauline Masak for qualified basketball officials to referee in all four Club winter leagues was made this week to the NEWS, as the opening games of the season drew close and few officials had been heard from.

"We need officials in the Pro League (4th graders), Collegiate (5th and 6th graders), Giant League (7th and 8th graders) and the Adult League," said Pauline. "These are paid positions and we will set it up so that the referees can work at a location nearest their home."

The league teams play at the Brownell and Pierce Middle Schools and also at North High School. Officials can have both their choice of schools and their choice of leagues." Pauline asked that those interested in making some extra "pin" money and giving the Club a helping hand call Mike Clark, basketball league director at the Club as soon as possible. The number is 885-4600.

Pointer Heads Lions Alumni

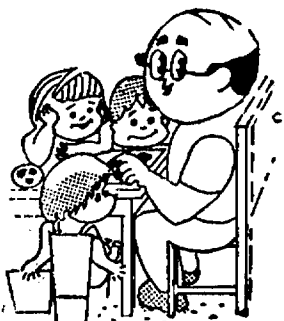

A former All-American at Syracuse University and a tackle on the Detroit Lions Championship football team of 1935, James Steen, of 787 Berkshire, has been named president of the Detroit Lions Alumni Association.

The Lions Alumni Association is made up of 350 former members and employees of the Detroit team and it supports and assists the present members of the team and those of other professional clubs whenever necessary.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Steen was an All-American tackle and captain of the 1934 Syracuse Big Orange. He joined the Lions in 1935, a year after the team had moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, O., and played for two years.

Steen and his wife, Betty, have seven children, of which six are boys, playing football in high school and Little League.

To Make Survey Of Water Waste

City of Grosse Pointe Manager Thomas Kressbach was authorized by the Council on Monday, December 15, to engage The Pitometer Associates to perform a waste water survey of the City's water distribution system.

The main purpose of the survey is to detect and locate all unknown leaks so that they may be repaired. The survey also tests master meters and a substantial number of valves and hydrants in the system.

Mr. Kressbach said that a large portion of the City's system is old and has never been tested or surveyed. He felt such a survey would help tighten up the system and thereby pay for itself in a short period.

The Pitometer Associates specializes in this type of work. Their charge for making the survey will be $3,000. It would take about four weeks to complete.

Petition Drive Lags in Pointe

Member William Bryant, Jr., pointer of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, announces a petition campaign against television drug advertisements which is off to a fast start everywhere but in the Grosse Pointe area.

He said, "The response has been very encouraging except in The Pointe itself. We have groups in Oakland and Macomb Counties and in Wayne County but only two small groups from Grosse Pointe have expressed a willingness to help. We even have a large group in Los Angeles working on it and I spoke by phone on a Los Angeles radio show on Monday.

"The NEWS was the first to report the petition drive. Since then it has been picked up by the Detroit Free Press, Channel 7 and United Press International. Even with all this publicity the response in The Pointe has been extremely disappointing," said Mr. Bryant.

"I don't think," Bryant charged, "that most Pointers are ready to admit the problem belongs to them, that drug abuse is becoming a way of life for far too many Pointe youths. I sincerely hope that people in our area will realize television advertising encourages people to turn on with chemicals and that more people should get involved in doing something about the whole drug problem."

Petitions are available from the Bryants at 331 Mount Vernon, Tuxedo 5-9246 or at 1320 City-County Building, Detroit, 224-5025.

City Gives Okay To Tree Project

The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Monday, December 15, approved two contracts with Shock Brothers, one for tree trimming, the other for tree replacement.

The City had Shock Brothers recently conduct a survey at 39 locations where City-owned trees were lost this past year due to Dutch Elm disease, storm damage and other causes. Fourteen additional locations were also surveyed where citizens requested tree planting during this past year as a result of tree losses in prior years.

Based on this survey, City Manager Thomas Kressbach recommended that 31 replacement trees be planted. He said the locations and type of trees suggested for planting have been selected on a basis to permit proper growth of the new tree and also to provide an aesthetic balance with existing trees.

The price of each tree wrapped, wilt-proofed, fertilized and guyed is $79. Diameter of each tree is two-and-a-half inches and replacements are guaranteed up to four trees.

The second contract issued to Shock Brothers in the amount of $3,696 was for trimming some 336 trees. The cost per tree is $11 based on the condition that City forces perform all the necessary cleanup work as they have done for the past three years. During the three-year period the City has had 1,016 trees trimmed.

The blocks recommended for trimming in this year's program include Fisher road, Waterloo to Mack; Lincoln road, Chalfonte to Mack; Rivard boulevard, Maumee to Jefferson; University place, Goethe to Mack; Neff road, Kercheval to Mack; and 10 other trees at various locations.

Farms, Imazu Are Sister Cities

At a council meeting held on Monday, December 15, Mayor William Butler informed the city solons that a letter from Imazu, Japan, has reached him from the mayor of that city. The letter is written in Japanese, with a second letter bearing a translation of the message in English.

In a movement begun earlier this year, American cities have been paired with Japanese cities, as a means of promoting international goodwill and understanding.

In the drawing of names, The Farms was paired with Imazu, in Shiga Prefecture, Japan.

Mayor Butler displayed the letters, and a brochure expounding the beauty of Shiga, and the City of Imazu, and signed by Mayor Shoji Hayata.

Early in the summer, the Farms council approved a resolution, accepting Imazu as its sister city. Mayor Butler wrote a letter, which was translated into Japanese by an interpreter, to Mayor Hayata. The resolution, also in English and Japanese, was sent along with the letter.

Mayor Butler informed the council that the letters and brochure were presented to him by Nagahama Senior High School; and Kazuo Ohtsuka, a teacher at Seta Junior High School, both of Imazu. Both are touring the United States and conducting a survey of Education and English studies.

Mayor Hayata stated in his letter, that his council adopted a resolution on July 11, accepting the Farms as Imazu's sister city, and that it is hoped that some day, soon, he can meet with Mayor Butler personally.

Councilman Mark Stevens offered the suggestion that to further promote goodwill and understanding between the United States and Japan, it might be an excellent idea if students from the Farms' schools and from Imazu's schools become pen pals by writing to each other.

The suggestion won the approval of the council.

She's Reversed Her Opinion On Yule Tree Buying Joys

By Pepper Whitelaw

It was only two years ago that I wrote of my disenchantment with the "cut your own Christmas tree" places that crop up every year at this time. My experience at that time was unbelievable. The trees were all sprayed green . . . cut by a surly employe of the establishment and shoved through a megaphone-styled machine that resulted in the tree being packaged like a Christmas salami.

Last year, I was determined not to face a similar disappointment so I bought the tree, unsprayed and unpackaged, at a local retail outlet.

But a news item in one of our daily papers recently gave me the courage to try once again for that joy that comes only with "cutting your own Christmas tree."

I packed the family into the car, the Maroon Marauder, and set off for a farm in Rochester. As you recall Sunday was snowy, an ideal day for Christmas tree chopping.

When we finally arrived at the spot, I couldn't believe my eyes, for at least three inches of snow covered the ground and trees, making them appear like a winter fairytale. And over to the right, a field of lovely, regal Scotch Pines standing proudly in the cold winter wind. Nearby was a man who exuded the spirit of Christmas. With a smile, a handshake and a caution about using the saw, he directed us to the trees.

Tromping in the snow, among the Scotch Pines, with snowflakes dancing through our hair was an experience that spelled Christmas in its finest letters.

It was with a sense of guilt that we passed up the scrawny trees in search of "our tree" . . . then suddenly . . . there it was in all its glory . . . an eight-foot beauty with our name on it.

With a minimal amount of effort we sawed it down, dragged it up over the hill, through the snow, to the smiling proprietor, who collected our five dollars and wished us a sincere Merry Christmas.

When we arrived home, we gently carried the tree into the living room, placed it in its stand in just the right spot and sat back and admired it.

Now, when we look at it during the holiday season, it will not only represent the spirit of Christmas but a wonderful family adventure that none of us will ever forget!

Patterson Named Officer of MML

The announcement of two new regional officers has been made by Michael M. Glusac, president of the Michigan Municipal League and Highland Park Council President.

Grosse Pointe Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson has been named chairman of Region III, comprised of the cities and villages within Wayne County. The new vice chairman is Southgate Mayor Robert C. Reaume.

Mayor Patterson, who succeeds former Westland Mayor Thomas H. Brown, was serving as vice chairman of the region. A member of the city council beginning in 1959, Patterson has been the Park mayor since 1964. A native of Scotland, he is a past president of the Dodge Division, Chrysler Corporation.

In April Mayor Reaume was elected to his third term as Southgate's chief executive. He is president of River-Oaks Realty Company and manager of his own insurance agency.

The Michigan Municipal League has nine regional organizations which serve as communication links between the state-wide organization and its member municipalities. A regional meeting is scheduled annually for each of the nine areas for the exchange of ideas and cooperative municipal action on matters of mutual concern. The 1970 Region III meeting will be held at Plymouth, on January 15.

Representing more than 430 member cities and villages in Michigan, the Michigan Municipal League serves to unite members in collectively striving for home rule and promoting higher standards of Municipal government.

Church to Hold Film Festival

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will offer a holiday Film Festival featuring nine films of brilliant animators of France, Japan, England, Poland and Canada. The theme, woven throughout the films, is Man In Relationship . . . to woman . . . to environment . . . to God. The films are appropriate for all ages above the ninth grade.

They will be shown in Fellowship Hall on Friday, December 19, Saturday, December 20, and Sunday, December 21, from 8:30 to 10 p.m. Donation is $1.

Among the films presented will be "Actua-Till" by Jean Herman of France, a view of the contemporary scene; "The Game of Angels" by Borowczyk of Poland, an elegy to the memory of the concentration camps; "The Apple" by Dunning of England, dealing with little lyric bits of human beingness; "The Most" by Ballentine and Shepard of Canada, a fascinating documentary of "Playboy" Hugh Hefner.

A BILLION DOLLARS is a figure commonly tossed about these days. Do you realize how much money is really involved?

O.K. You know that a Billion consists of a thousand millions. But how does it relate to a day-to-day handling of money? For example, how does it relate to a $10 bill?

Suppose you stood on a boat in the ocean, and planned to toss away one billion dollars—one $10 bill at a time—with each oncoming wave, every minute, day and night. How long do you think it would take?

Did you know that it would take about 200 years?

Which also goes to show that, if one squanders money like water, he'll find it difficult to Liquid-ate his obligations . . .

Woods Council Approves School Gate Trial

The Woods City Council by a majority vote at its Monday, December 15 regular meeting, approved the installation of a pedestrian gate on a 60-day "trial" basis at the end of Wedgewood drive, near Grosse Pointe North High School. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education earlier in the year had asked the Council to approve such a measure to prevent student damage to the fence at the end of Wedgewood and to enable the students attending North High to more easily get to the school. The Board was denied its request at that time. "The Council members voted to permit installation of the pedestrian gate at the far north end of Wedgewood—a dead end—but placed certain stipulations on the approval," said Chester Petersen, Woods city manager. "Prior to the vote, a two-hour discussion was held on the subject and a number of Hidden Lane residents voiced their opinions on the installation. Although they were quite vocal in their demands, I thought they conducted themselves in the highest manner." At its November 17 meeting, the Council had agreed to defer action on the pedestrian gate, until both its members and the Hidden Lane Homeowners' Association could study the matter further. The trespassing of students through a lot at the far reaches of Wedgewood and the fact that they continually ripped away part of the wooden fence located there to make their crossing north to the school, has long been a source of irritation to both the homeowners, the school board and the students themselves. Jack Thorpe, spokesman for the Hidden Lane residents, claimed that the school board, at the time of the construction of North High, had agreed to erect and maintain the ornamental, redwood fence and that the construction of a pedestrian gate was not part of the agreement made with the homeowners. These stipulations imposed on the school board by the Woods Council are: That the gate can be opened in the morning for one and one-half hours prior to the start of school; that the gate must be closed during actual school hours; that it should be opened in the afternoon, when the first students begin to leave classes for the day; that it must be closed no later than 6 p.m., and that it must remain closed on holidays, weekends and at night. The Board of Education will now be notified of the Council's action and the actual installation and cost of construction must be footed by the Board.

Dr. Sadusk joined Parke-Davis in 1967 after a long career in private and public health areas, and was made a member of the pharmaceutical firm's Board of Directors in 1968. His residence is in Lincoln road. He also is a member of the Board of Trustees of St. John Hospital, Detroit.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools The comparison of school tax rates is a subject that seems an appropriate one for me to discuss this week—especially since we have just received from the Wayne County Intermediate School District the official tax rates from all the county systems.

bookkeeping, and other incidental expenses. Thus, in terms of total tax rates, our district is outdistanced by such systems as the Wayne Community School District (43.3 mills), Garden City (37.5 mills), Livonia (35.97 mills), Allen Park (34 mills), and Inkster (32.9 mills)—to name a few of the 19 districts that have higher total school tax rates than we do.

If we compare Grosse Pointe to the same 43 districts in terms of the tax rate for operation (salaries, supplies, heat, light, water), we find that our district is 14th from the top, outdistanced in Wayne County by Redford Union, Taylor, Dearborn Heights, Crestwood, and Northville—to cite only five.

How does Grosse Pointe's total rate compare with other Detroit-area suburban school districts? Our 1969-70 total of 29.63 mills (27.40 operation and 2.23 debt) compares favorably with the following:

Table with 2 columns: Total Millage, School Name. Rows include Bloomfield Hills (38.81), Oak Park (37.87), Lake Shore (35.58), Birmingham (34.72).

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard THERE IS A SEASON (Geisler) that is upon us — the Yuletide one, no less! Just for fun, let's check over some of last year's book titles to see if we can't find some Christmas gift suggestions. We could say: I'M REALLY DRAGGED BUT NOTHING GETS ME DOWN (Hentoff) but that wouldn't probably be true, as by now many of us are beginning to get a bit tired. In fact, many of us by now are SITTING, STARING, N' ROCKING' (Saxe) — so let's see if we can be of any help. We don't really have a TALENT TO AMUSE (Morley) but rather to be of some assistance. You may even end up by saying HOW DID YOU THINK OF THAT? (Kelleher).

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

For the first time in a long time EVERYBODY will be together at the Ralph E. Crosses' home in North Deeplands road this Christmas.

That everybody includes two sons and two daughters-in-law, a daughter and son-in-law and six grandchildren: A quartet of Pointers plus a very young lady who arrived in her very own country for the first time yesterday and her big, (well, three years old IS big to seven months), brother Nicholas, born in Hong Kong.

Baby sister Ashley was born in Beirut, Lebanon. They're the children of Peter and Carol (Cross) Wodtke who are living in Beirut while Peter covers the Middle East for the First National City Bank of New York.

When Nicholas was born Peter's assignment was the Far East.

It's Ashley's first time in the United States but not her first visit with her grandparents.

The Crosses made her acquaintance in Beirut a little over a month ago, on a spur-of-the-moment drop-in trip to Lebanon. Now THAT was an experience!

"We'd been," explains Mrs. Cross, "in Germany and England for a long time, and we thought, 'Well, since we're this far we'll fly over and see the children before we go home...'"

They were in the Frankfurt airport, their luggage already loaded on their plane, when they happened to glance at a newspaper headline: "Trouble in Lebanon; Beirut Under Curfew."

"The children," says Mrs. Cross, "didn't think we'd make it." The children were wrong.

"When we arrived," Mrs. Cross continues, "the airport was under curfew. But Carol's wonderful Armenian doctor came out to get us." (Doctors and certain officials were exempt from curfew restrictions.)

"It was the worst five days they had. We were on curfew off and on during the day. And at night of course. At times we could hear gunshots.

"Carol and Peter had had several things planned for us; they had to be cancelled..."

But no situation's without compensations. The Crosses and Wodtkes found lots of time to talk.

A Beautiful Beginning To Holiday Month

The holiday month began beautifully for members of the Women's Committee for the Grosse Pointe Symphony who gathered December 1 in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for a Christmas tea that everyone agreed was the "prettiest ever." 'Choraliers' Raising Voices This Season

Mrs. Verne G. Istock, of Broadstone Road, is Director of Newly Formed Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Glee Club

Adding to the Christmas Spirit all around town this year have been the voices of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra "Choraliers," a glee club under the direction of Mrs. Verne G. Istock, of Broadstone road.

Mrs. Istock is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Music, a former choral director and teacher.

The Choraliers, founded last year, are 24 in number. They have performed at several of the Juniors' own functions and for other local groups during this pre-holiday season.

Currently, of course, they're concentrating on carols, presenting programs similar to the ones they sang for Christmas Walkers December 7 in Grosse Pointe and December 12 in Birmingham.

Perhaps you heard them then — or perhaps you heard them at the recent Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Christmas Tea.

And perhaps you noticed, among the group, Pointers Mrs. Donald Briggs, (she's the Symphony Juniors' immediate past-president), Mrs. Pierce Smith, Mrs. William Fulgenzi and Mrs. Rex Ciavola.

Or friends from "the other ends of town": Current President Mrs. David Lott, Mrs. W. Lawrey Mann, III, Mrs. Christopher Mazure and Mrs. John Wells, from Birmingham; Mrs. Edward H a a c k, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Eugene Blanchard, from Dearborn and Livonia.

The Choraliers vary their repertoire according to the season. They are delighted to be asked to sing.

This is a silly.

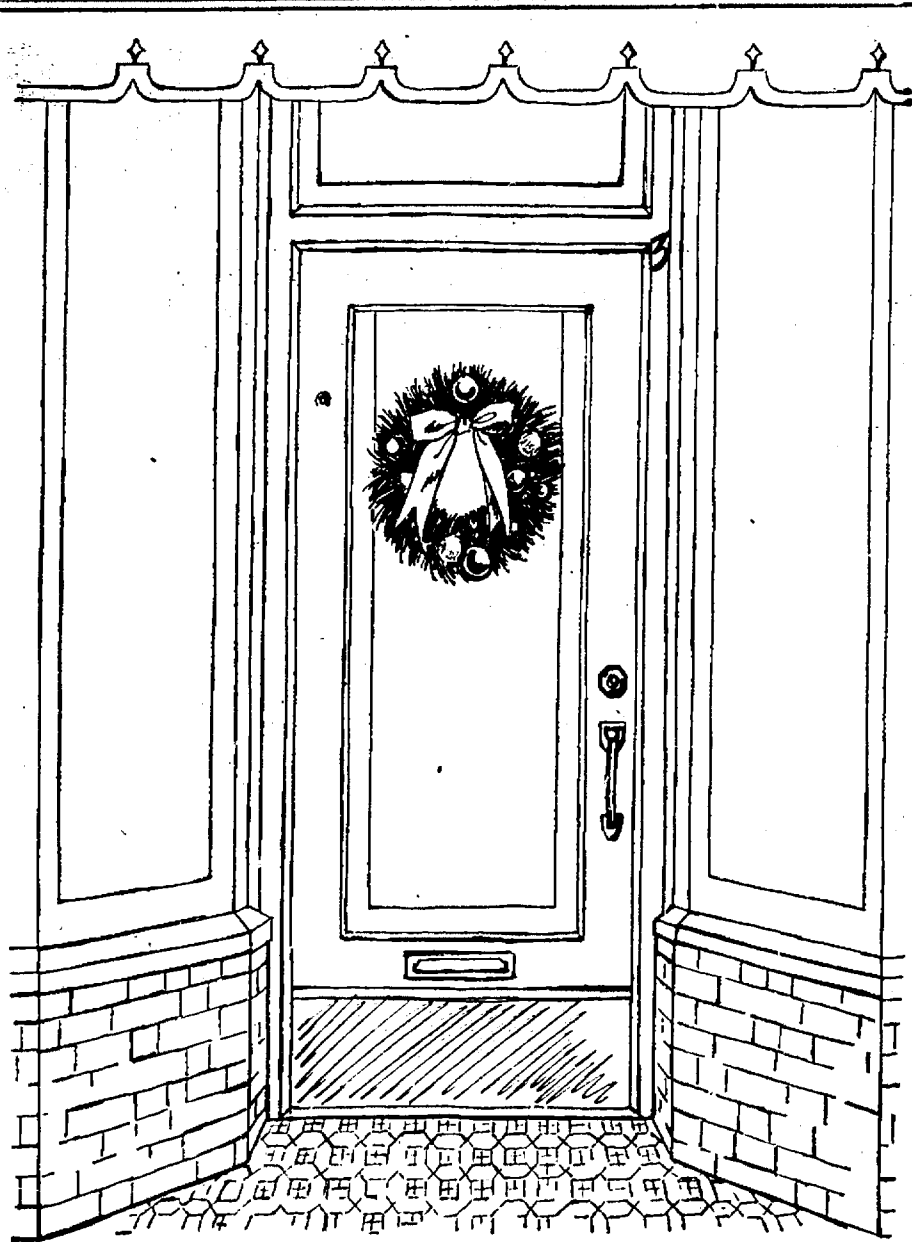

She can't do a thing with her hair. Not a thing. It's curly where it should be straight and straight where it should be curly. She has a big thing on for tonight. And no time for the hairdresser. And she hates herself. Now, isn't that a silly? When one little well-planned wig would solve the whole thing. A wig can duplicate your own hair style exactly. Or be a total change. Whichever. A wig is always there. On tap. Ready when you aren't. And just terrific. Interested? Then see us. We'll see that a smart girl like you is never a silly again.

Deb Season Opens Tomorrow In Pointe

Little Club and Country Club Share Honors as Party Scenes; Mrs. Edsel B. Ford's "At Home" Reception for Granddaughters is December 21

A crowded, joyful week begins tomorrow for this year's Grosse Pointe Christmas debutantes who'll be honored at a series of parties culminating in Lindsay Anderson's day-after-Christmas dance.

Lindsay, daughter of the Wendell W. Andersons, Jr., of Preston place, and granddaughter of Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson, of Lewiston road, is flying home from her studies in Italy for the holidays.

She'll make her formal bow at a dance at the Grosse Pointe Club.

Earlier, December 20, the Little Club will be the scene of another deb party when the Alfred J. Fishers, of Lakeshore road and Palm Beach, Fla., present their daughter Christine — always called Tina — at a tea dance.

Tina's completing her senior year at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Norton, Conn.

Mrs. Edsel B. Ford has scheduled her traditional "at home" reception for Ford family debutantes December 21.

This year's honorees are granddaughters Lynn Ford, daughter of the Benson Fords, of Lakeshore road, and Sheila Ford, daughter of the William Clay Fords, of Lakeshore road.

Lynn's finishing her studies at The Masters School, Dobbs Ferry, N.Y. Sheila's a Yale student.

First of this year's Christmas debts will be Martha Macmillan Stoepel, daughter of the Frederick C. Stoepels, of Grayton road, and granddaughter of Mrs. Ray E. Wadleigh, of Lincoln road, who bows tomorrow at a tea at the Country Club.

A group of parents whose daughters have been friends "forever" will join forces to present the young ladies at a December 23 dance at the Country Club.

Margaret Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Harris, III, of Cloverly road, Lisa Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bowers, of Touraine road, Wendy Ewald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Theodore Ewald, Jr., of Moross road, Martha Schraschun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Schraschun, Jr., of Kenwood court, Cynthia Caskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, of Vendome court, Susan Swan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Maynard Swan, Jr., of Cloverly road, and Mary Dykema, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dykema, of Cloverly road, are the honorees.

June Bride

Planning a June 6 wedding are LINDA RAE BLACK and Richard J. Schneider whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Black, Jr., of Belanger road. The prospective bridegroom is the son of the John J. Schneiders, also of Belanger road.

Williams House Party Is Today

The annual Williams House Christmas party is being held today, December 18, at the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan sponsored residence for young women in downtown Detroit, with Santa Claus—as always!—in attendance.

The Denby High School Choral Group, under the direction of Gordon Nelson, will perform.

Choose Your Approach To Xmas Tree Trimming

Regardless of your hangups or personality quirks you'll find there are only three basic ways to go about trimming a Christmas tree.

1. Take plenty of time to do the job right. Be a fusspot. And when you've finished placing lights, ornaments, icicles, novelties and garlands, all positioned with precise regard for esthetic spacing and color balance, photograph your masterpiece immediately . . . Its absolute perfection will diminish as soon as the kids begin the laying on of hands and right after the family dog begins nosing around.

2. Get the job over with in a hurry. Lead the light strings around the tree, letting the bulbs come to rest where they will. Hang the ornaments two at a time, using both hands. Now stand back approximately four feet and hurl the icicles—plus whatever other soft decorations are left—in the general direction of the tree. You are through. Sit down, elevate feet to hassock or coffee table, and apply coup to wassail bowl.

3. Relegate the job. Let the kids do it all— they say they're at it, walk around the block a few times to spare your nerves the tinkly sounds of breakage.

Whichever approach is habitually yours—and maybe you'd rather not say—it's a matter of indifference in at least one quarter. According to the trade association Toy Manufacturers of America, Inc., its member-producers of decorations, artificial trees and gift wraps are very fond of you.

And why shouldn't they be? After all the total spent on such items this year by you and the rest of the nation's tree-trimmers and present-wrappers will come to almost $700,000,000.

The trees, flame-proof or flame-resistant, account for a significant portion of that total. You can opt for a plastic (polyvinyl-chloride or polyethylene) or aluminum model two to 18 feet tall in light green, natural green, blue-green or silver-white, (the last is most preferred by people in part of the U.S. that never gets snowed on).

Among the "species" are pine, fir, balsam and spruce; with hard, demi-hard or soft needles.

Ornaments used to be exclusively glass; most still are but plastic equivalents are finding increasing favor. Both kinds are sold in a variety of styles: clear, translucent, opaque and veneered.

Best selling colors continue to be the reds, golds, silvers and greens with "hot" decorator colors coming on strong.

The big change in lights took place 15 to 20 years ago with the advent of the midgets—tiny twinklers and flashers now sold 35 to 50 to a string. Sunburst types with tinzel-like reflector shields are especially popular.

For the presents under the tree that complete the Christmas morning tableau you have a choice of giftwraps that are a design blend of the old and the modern. They come in various surfaces (foll, velour or embossed) and in a host of colors ranging from traditional to high fashion.

Finally, for heavy-fingered fathers, there's good news indeed . . . ready-made bows that clip onto ribbons and stick-on (instead of tie-on) to-and-from tags.

Warm Wool Mittens Dot Friendship Tree

Unitarian School Children Fashion Special Gift for their Friends at Riverside Lutheran Church in Inner City

A highlight of the Christmas Season at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church School has been the trimming of a friendship tree with mittens for Riverside Lutheran Church in Detroit's Inner City.

This is the Pointe Unitarian children's present to the children of the Riverside neighborhood with whom they went to day camp this past summer and whose church they visited this past fall.

Each child was asked by Religious Education Administrator Mrs. John C. Krato to bring a pair of new mittens his own size.

The mittens were placed on a tree donated by Nelson C. Frolund to be presented to Pastor Lawrence Steirs and Pastor David Eberhard for use at the Lutheran Church in Detroit's lower East Side. The mittens will be distributed to children in the neighborhood.

GPUCS students have been participating in the Church service during Advent, with upper grade pupils telling the history of customs found round the world during this season. A replica of each custom has been made for display in the church.

Primary classes have been lighting candles in the Advent wreath.

This program has been under the direction of Education Director Mrs. Thomas Bolton and Upper Grade Class Co-ordinator Mrs. George Graham assisted by Mrs. John Singley.

This Sunday, December 21, will be a Family Day with all children attending the opening service and following festivities with their parents.

Pre-schoolers through third grade will have their own Christmas Program under the direction of Mrs. William Lacey and Mrs. Robert Reveley assisted by Mrs. William McCubbin.

Judy Plichta and her third grade class will present the play, "The Hole in the Christmas Stocking."

There will be special treats for the children and a visit by a generous gentleman from the North Pole.

December 28 will be Youth Sunday. During the service there will be a special program for the younger children in Fellowship Hall under the direction of Mrs. Bolton assisted by Mrs. Creighton Lederer and Miss Shelley Cook.

Following the service Dr. Harry Meserve, minister, and the Religious Education Department will host a luncheon discussion for college students and high school seniors. This event is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Erik Erikson.

Betrothed

The engagement of SHEILA ELIZABETH TERRY and John Richard Tomkinson has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney L. Terry, of Moross road.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and Vernon Junior College, Newport, R.I.

Her fiance's schools are the Western Reserve Academy, in Hudson, O., and the University of Wyoming, Laramie. He is the son of Mrs. Richard F. Tomkinson, of Moran road, and the late Mr. Tomkinson.

St. Paul School Has P-T Guild

Early in October, Sister Doeren, Principal of St. Paul's Grade School, called together a group of mothers to discuss and evaluate communications between parents and teachers at St. Paul's. As a result of this initial meeting, it was agreed that a parent-teacher guild be organized to implement a spirit of cooperation and communication between home and school.

A second meeting was held in November at which time a proposal was drawn for presentation and approval of St. Paul's School Board which stated that a Parent-Teacher Guild be established to serve as a liaison between faculty and parents in St. Paul's Grade School.

On December 10, a group of interested parents and teachers from St. Paul's Elementary School convened to formulate plans for the Parent-Teacher Guild. The following members were elected to office: president, Phillip J. Meathe; first vice-president, N. Ledyard Mitchell, Jr.; second vice-president, Malcolm Sutherland; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard G. Gushie; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas McGann; treasurer, John H. Engel; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Lorenzo Browning.

Some of the basic aims of the newly established Guild are:

1. To advance the educational and spiritual welfare of the school children of the parish through a coordinated effort of parents and teachers.
2. To provide steady communication between school and home.
3. To establish cooperative ventures with the other schools in the area.
4. To provide assistance in obtaining instructional materials to meet the ever increasing demands of education.

Junior League Helps Make Happy Holiday

Members of the Junior League of Detroit, once again helped to make Christmas more joyous for 400 handicapped people. Tuesday, December 16, was the date of the annual Christmas dinner party which the Junior League organizes and serves at the Detroit League for the Handicapped.

Mrs. George Parker served as chairman of this year's party. Helping her were Mrs. Theodore Oldham and Mrs. Laurence Connor.

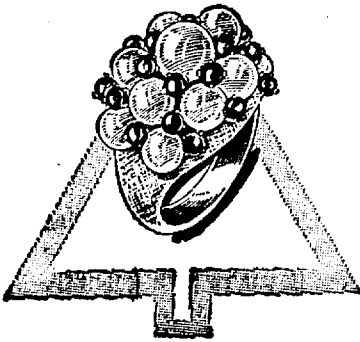

Junior League members always act as waitresses and help for the gathering and see that all guests receive beautifully wrapped gifts which have been donated by interested members of the Detroit business community.

Assisting the waitresses this year were volunteers from the Service Guild, B'nai B'rith Women's Council of Metropolitan Detroit, the Board of Trustees of the Detroit League for the Handicapped, St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church of Birmingham and the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

They're talking more now. And they'll continue to talk right up through Christmas, with two more voices joining in the conversation December 21.

Sunday's the date Dennis and his wife, the family "newlyweds" (they were married last December), fly in from Boston, Mass., for a week's holiday.

Christmas Day the Ralph E. Crosses, Jr., make the trek from Goethe avenue to Deaplans with Ralph, III, 12, Elizabeth, 11, Andrew, four, and Amy, three, for the Big Gathering.

And after Christmas Grandma and Grandpa Cross will have a week-on-their-own with Nicholas and Ashley while Mama and Papa Wodtke bask in the Mexico City sun, enjoying a private holiday before it's time to fly back to Beirut.

Hello—And Goodbye

Dick and Lyn Law—more formally known as Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard A. Law—won't make it home for Christmas. Dick has duty in Quonset Point, R.I., December 25.

So they'll arrive the day after, December 26, for a visit with her parents, the Charles E. Cummiskeys, of Lincoln road, and his, Dr. and Mrs. Albert D. Law, of Harcourt road.

And if Dick and Lyn spend a good part of that first day here with the Laws, the Cummiskeys won't mind a bit. It is, after all, only fair—for the Laws leave December 27.

They're heading out to California and the Rose Bowl Game via chartered plane with a University of Michigan Alumni group that includes neighbors Mr. and Mrs. John Malcolm.

On the Coast the Laws plan a reunion with son David, Assistant Professor of English at Fullerton College, California State.

Then it's home again for Dr. Law while Verneta stays west awhile visiting her niece, Mrs. Robert Strath, in Orange, Calif.

Meanwhile, back in Michigan, Lyn and Dick and the Cummiskeys will head north to welcome the New Year at Otsego.

Christmas People

They're decorating the people as well as the tree at the Mark Ethridge, Jr.'s this year.

Fifteen-year-old Peggy has made Christmas skirts for all the Ethridge ladies, long red ones for herself and her mother and a long green one for little sister Mary.

They'll be wearing them Christmas Eve, "at home" with the family in Washington road.

St. Paul Pupils Helping Others

Students of St. Paul High School were included in various community service projects this year, with the help of Mrs. Louise Tewart, the Neighborhood Club's Volunteer Coordinator.

Seniors from St. Paul volunteered to tutor first and second grade children in math and reading on Saturdays at Pingree School in the Inner City. The program will continue until April. Boys from St. Paul also referee basketball games and free gym periods twice a week at the Hannon YMCA from 4:30 to 6 p.m.

Responding to a need for volunteers at the School for Exceptional Children, junior and senior girls from St. Paul will work as aides and play with the children for one hour a week during free periods from school. The school, directed by Ruth Hall, is located at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Entertaining again this year at their annual Watch Night party will be MR. and MRS. HAROLD HUNTER EMMONS, JR., of Radnor circle.

Unitarians Back Abortion Reform

In a unanimous vote members of the Women's Alliance of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church recently approved a donation of $100 to the Detroit Chapter of the Michigan Women for Medical Control of Abortion.

Most of the women present signed petitions favoring abortion laws which would leave the decision to abort to the woman and her doctor.

At the January 13 Alliance meeting further discussion of abortion laws in Michigan will be led by Ula Perry.

Coming from their home in Anchorage, Alaska, to spend Christmas with his parents, the GEORGE FOSTERS, of Broadstone road, are DAVID FOSTER and his wife SUSAN.

Young Cellist With Symphony

Lawrence Foster, a 15-year-old cellist whom Leonard Bernstein called an "authentic genius," will make his first appearances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this Thursday and Saturday, December 18 and 20, in Ford Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock.

Alexander Gibson will conduct, ending his four-week visit with the Detroit Symphony.

The program will include the Lalo Cello Concerto in D major and the Dvorak Symphony No. 7. The Thursday night audience also will hear Elgar's "Introduction and Allegro for Strings" to be replaced Saturday night by Holst's Ballet Music from "The Perfect Fool."

Lawrence Foster first came to nationwide prominence when he was engaged by Leonard Bernstein for a 1968 New York Philharmonic Young People's concert.

The televised concert produced reactions from all the major critics. The New York Times said that Foster "plays the cello as though he were an adult virtuoso."

This season Foster is appearing with only a few orchestras in the United States, leaving maximum time for his musical and scholastic studies.

Foster, who has lived in suburbs of Chicago all his life, first began to study piano due to the influence of his sister who studies piano and violin.

He switched to the cello when he was seven years old.

In September of 1965 he began studying with his present teacher at Puillard, Leonard Rose.

Foster began playing in public at the age of eight and at 10 was the winner of the North Shore Music Contest in Chicago, the prize being five performances with the North Shore Symphony. At 10 he was also soloist with the NBC Symphony.

Foster has won the Philadelphia Orchestra's auditions for young people, both for the Academy of Music and the Robin Hood Dell, as well as the Chicago Symphony's young people's auditions.

He is also the winner of Chicago's American Opera Society Award and the National Federation of Music Clubs' $1,000 Stillman Kelley Award.

In Chicago last summer Seiji Ozawa featured Lawrence Foster with the Chicago Symphony in his Four O'Clock Concerts in Ravinia. The Chicago Tribune said of him: "There is no question that this is a major talent worth every encouragement."

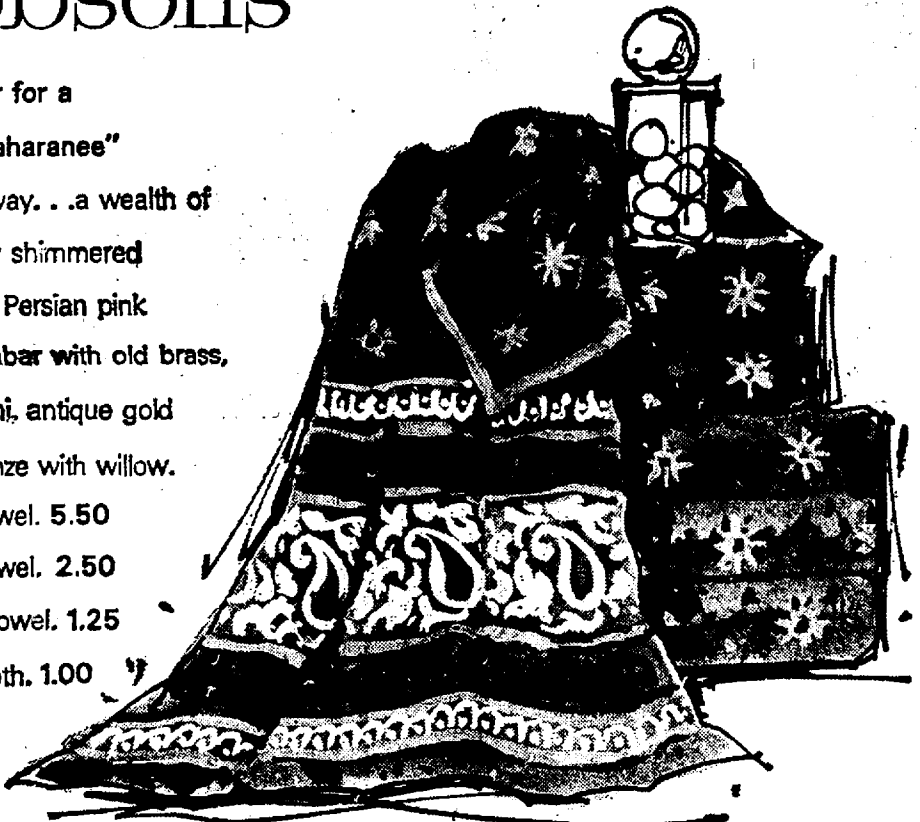

BARBARA J. KIMBALL, daughter, of the HORTON D. KIMBALLS, of Harvard road, is among students at Western Michigan University selected for inclusion in the 1969-70 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Barb was recently named the Outstanding Greek Woman at WMU, chosen by her fellow Greeks on the basis of scholarship and leadership ability. She is currently a member of Mortar Board, president of her sorority, Delta Zeta, and a member of the Campus Discipline committee.

Let Child Know What To Expect

"If your child knows you expect him to obey you're apt to get much better response," contends Kathleen Bufton, Extension Home Economist for Wayne and Oakland counties.

"Make as few demands as possible," she says, "but be sure that these demands are carried out. Otherwise children will soon get in the habit of paying no attention.

"Remember that more flies are caught with honey. You get more done with this approach and you also teach your child the habit of cooperation.

"Losing your temper will only cause him to lose his too or teach him to hold a grudge," Mrs. Bufton continues.

Children should learn that running errands and performing household chores are part of their contribution to the family. Bribery — such as "I'll give you a nickel if you will go to the store for me" — teaches them always to expect a reward.

"However you must be sure the child has suitable duties for his age and capabilities. Begin teaching him when he is still very young to put away his toys as soon as he is finished with them."

As a last suggestion Kathleen advises parents to have the same general rules from day to day. Unless this is done children find it hard to learn good habits and to know exactly what is expected of them.

If a child seems particularly disobedient or troublesome parent should look into the reason before taking action. Perhaps he isn't feeling well; perhaps something has happened to upset him; perhaps he is feeling insecure in his parents' affection because of a new baby brother or sister.

Americans Get Plenty of Beef

Trips to the grocery store usually involve a stop at the meat counter where prices seem to be rising higher and higher. Despite this many United States consumers are getting all the beef they want.

In 1947 most Americans were eating about the same amounts of pork and beef. Today the average American eats twice as much beef as pork says Mrs. Kathleen Bufton, Extension Home Economist for Wayne and Oakland counties.

"Total beef consumption probably won't rise much more unless there is also a rise in the consumption of other types of meat, especially pork," she believes.

"She explains that with the American love of variety meat processors will have to come up with new beef items which are different tasting and easy to fix.

"Even though meat prices are high," Mrs. Bufton says, "consumers still show their appreciation of good food."

Entertaining last week at an anniversary dinner party for General Motors President and Mrs. EDWARD N. COLE at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club were MR. and MRS. WILLIAM A. TERNES, of Three Mile drive, who attended the Coles five years ago at their wedding in Pocatello, Idaho.

Anastasia Manteris Married To Dr. Hsu

Baroque Seed Pearls Are Scattered Over Bride's Ivory Satin Gown; Pearl-Beaded Crown Holds Her Illusion Veil

Exchanging marriage vows Sunday, December 14, at a 5 o'clock ceremony in Assumption Greek Orthodox Church were Anastasia Maria Manteris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas S. Manteris, of Pear Tree lane, and Dr. Unen Du Hsu, son of Dr. and Mrs. Tzan Yuan Hsu, of Heng-chun, Taiwan, The Republic of China.

The Reverend Demetrios Kavadas officiated at the rites which were followed by a reception at the Gourmet House.

The newlyweds will return from a Florida vacation to make their home in Detroit.

The bride's gown of deep ivory lustre satin was encrusted with baroque seed pearls. Her illusion veil fell from a crown of beaded pearls and she carried a bouquet of white Sweetheart roses and carnations centered with a white orchid.

In pearl-trimmed floor length frocks of rose beige silk-and-wool, with matching pearl-studded Dior bows in their hair, were honor matron Mrs. Christine Koch, who wore a corsage of white Sweetheart roses, honor maid Ginny Weitzel, who carried a cascade of white poinsettias tied with green velvet streamers, bridesmaids Susan Watson and Inga Hsu, of Los Angeles, Calif., the bridegroom's sister, junior bridesmaids Alexis Polus and Karen Johnson, cousins of the bride, and flower girl Stephanie Woodburn, of West Peabody, Mass., another cousin.

The bridesmaids and junior attendants carried cascades of pale pink poinsettias tied with green velvet streamers. The flower girl's basket was filled with pink and white roses and carnations and pink rose petals.

Dr. Vasilius Pozios served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushering were Stephen Manteris, brother of the bride, Paul Prentis, the bride's cousin, Dr. Paul Varela, Dr. C. C. Lee and Dr. Andrew Chien, of New York.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Manteris selected a lime green silk-satin ensemble. She pinned white Sweetheart roses to her corsage.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's uncle and aunts,

Two-Year-Olds Have Tempers

Your child's temper tantrums may just mean he's growing up.

At about two a child becomes more mobile and begins making decisions. When you cross his demands, that may mean temper tantrums from frustrations. "Don't be dismayed," comforts Kathleen Bufton, Extension Home Economist for Wayne and Oakland counties. "This is merely a stage of development."

"Your baby is on the way to becoming an adult, able to make his demands more clearly known but still lacking self-control that comes with maturity."

"When you curb a child his natural reaction is anger and resistance," she continues. "If you restrict him too much you can expect not only outbursts of temper but also a feeling of frustration that may lead to difficulties for him later in life."

According to Mrs. Bufton you have two options when your youngster resists. "You can enforce your demands thereby creating even stronger resistance in him. Or you can view the situation through his eyes and try to appreciate and support his effort to 'do it myself.'"

If you must enforce your demands she recommends you do so in a firm but friendly manner. "A resisting child can respect authority, but not if it is turned against him."

When attempts to prevent a temper spell fail and a tantrum must be cured isolating the child is not the best solution.

"It is far better," the Home Economist advises, "to take the child off to some quiet place with new objects of interest. However an understanding adult should be close by."

"This increases the child's sense of security, which is what he lacks when he loses control of himself."

"Certain conditions, such as hunger and fatigue, can increase the likelihood of an outburst," warns the agent. "Also remember that children have a strong need for play materials suited to their development as well as the companionship of other children their age."

These outbursts of a two-year-old may disappear for awhile, only to reappear sometime during the four- and five-year-old period.

"This is not an indication of 'back tracking,'" assures Kathy Bufton. "It merely signals a period of growth when your child is acquiring many new interests and abilities."

"Providing him with lots of affectionate assistance is the best way to prevent temper displays and feelings of hatred for his parents. In this way you can help him become more mature and voluntarily take hold of many responsibilities during his fifth and sixth years."

In conclusion she cautions not to worry if your little one yells that he hates you.

New Foods Can Tempt Children

If you're like most mothers you're probably looking for the ways to teach your children to like different kinds of foods.

and Oakland counties, says one way is to introduce new foods very casually, and in the proper circumstances.

overly tired or excited," the specialist said. "Fatigue can cause both rebellion and resistance to change, and he will be in no mood to accept something new."

Kathleen Bufton, Extension Home Economist for Wayne
Dr. & Mrs. Robert Sillery and Family wish to extend to all our friends
A Very Merry Christmas and
A Happy New Year

Enthusiasm is contagious Mrs. Bufton believes. "If you show that you really enjoy the new food your child will be much more inclined to like it, too."

This practice is used in nursery schools. Fussy eaters are seated at a table with children who enjoy eating.

By watching others readily accept new food the fussy eater soon decides there must be something good about it. How many mothers have heard the comment from their child, "When you do it, it looks like fun"? This pertains to eating, too.

If meals are a time for pleasant conversation which includes the child the feelings of security and pleasure that are generated will make a new food more acceptable. The emotional climate of mealtime is very important.

Mrs. Bufton emphasizes that children are small and things that are average size to adults are overwhelming to them.

"A plate heaped high with an unknown is sometimes just too much for a child," she says. "But a small amount can be very enticing."

Being involved in some way with new food is another way of making it seem more acceptable to the child. Even a small task, such as opening the box, can make frozen vegetables more interesting to a two-year-old. How can he refuse to try to like something he "helped" prepare?

Two more things are important when dealing with children and food the specialist says.

Remember that children do have preferences and when you are serving a food that you know he doesn't like, be sure that the other food is something he can enjoy.

Also young children fear hot foods, Kathy Bufton says. Don't be afraid to offer them food that is only lukewarm. They'll be much more inclined to like it that way.

Have Any 'Old' Dolls?

Cleaning out toy chests and closets in preparation for this Christmas influx? Don't just throw away those old dolls—Goodwill needs them NOW. The third annual Doll Derby, a contest undertaken by Detroit Area Camp Fire Girls as a service project to benefit Goodwill, begins in January and lots and lots of "raw material" is needed so that every Camp Fire Girl who wants one may have her very own doll to dress. They'll be judged next March and eventually sold, with proceeds aiding Goodwill's programs for the handicapped. Wondering what next year's winner will look like are Camp Fire volunteer, MRS. EDMUND SENDOWSKI, chairman of the 1970 Dolly Derby, and Pointer, MRS. ROBERT KENNEDY, a Dolly Derby committee member, as they compare 1969 entries with to-be costumed dolls.

Brown University student JOHN EDWARD SIPE, a Grosse Pointe High School graduate, son of MR. and MRS. EDWARD J. SIPE, of Van Antwerp road, planning to concentrate in Engineering and seeking a Bachelor of Science degree, is engaged in an independent study on "Relativity and Cosmology." Last year John did Honors work in Physics. He participated in the Karate Club during his first two years at Brown.

Detroit Area Camp Fire Girls Will Dress Dolls as Service Project Benefitting Goodwill Industries

If there is a doll in your closet, basement or attic that is headed for a Goodwill Collection Center the appeal is made that it be donated now. Goodwill Industries needs dolls for the third annual "Dolly Derby," a doll-dressing contest undertaken by Detroit Area Camp Fire Girls as a service project to benefit Goodwill.

These dolls will be judged and ribbon awards made at a special Recognition Ceremonial next March.

Ultimately they will be put on public display and sold, with proceeds going to aid Goodwill programs for the handicapped.

"Dolly Derby" steering committee chairman Mrs. Edmund Sendowski emphasizes that doll donations should be left in the Goodwill collection center boxes found on supermarket lots and that they should be tagged for the "Dolly Derby."

Mrs. Sendowski, currently a Camp Fire volunteer and former group leader, is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Hague, Mrs. Harry Allick and Mrs. Ewald Scheive, all of Birmingham; Mrs. John Lee, Mrs. Ralph Guntow, Mrs. Joseph King and Mrs. Frank Newberry, of Detroit; Mrs. John Sat-

The "Dolly Derby" contest, originated and copyrighted by Goodwill Industries of Akron, O., is co-sponsored by Goodwill facilities and local girls' groups throughout the country.

Best of Show dolls are eligible entries in an All American "Dolly Derby" held yearly in Akron.

Make Leftover Meal A Delight

How can the "average" homemaker feed her family well and keep the food budget intact? One way is to avoid waste and get every bit of good out of food purchased. Unfortunately we are much more likely to be aware of the low prices on large or quantity purchases than we are of the spoiled food we throw out.

Leftovers present a continuous challenge to the homemaker. When the original enthusiasm for the Sunday roast or the large turkey vanishes she is faced with the problem of how they should make their "second appearance" on the family table.

"Disguising" them is no longer in vogue. Leftovers — and we really prefer to call them "planned-overs" — can and should attract attention, arouse interest and stimulate the desire to eat. Perhaps these suggestions will spark your imagination for utilizing leftovers in a great variety of attractive dishes and give them a new personality when they make their second appearance.

Panel Will Discuss State Of Yale Today

Dialogue Sponsored by Activities Committee of Yale Alumni Association of Michigan Scheduled For Next Monday

Pointers John B. Ford, IV, and Ellen Martin, both currently studying at Yale University, will be among Michigan Yale students home for the holidays participating in a panel discussion on "Yale Now" next Monday, December 22, from noon to 2:30 o'clock.

The program, sponsored by the Activities Committee of the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan, will be presented at Wayne State University's McGregor Memorial Hall.

Reservations, at $3.50 each including lunch to be served promptly at 12:15 o'clock, are being accepted by H. Curtis Wood, III, of Waddington road, Birmingham.

Alumni, prospective students, parents and friends of the University are invited to attend. The discussion will be informal and the Activities Committee promises to provide a forum for a wide variety of student views.

Radicals, moderates and conservatives will be represented in an attempt to discover the REAL story of Yale as it is today, to find out what's happening in New Haven to codes of personal conduct, the look of art, the sound of music . . . in religion, in sexual behavior and in secular morality.

Is the opposition to the Establishment tradition, the "System," based on fact or current fancy? Is the divergence with the past as sharp as some would have yesterday's students—and today's parents—believe? These are among questions to be aired during Monday's "dialogue."

About 75 trucks are needed, primarily for parcel post delivery, including station wagons, panels, covered pickups and small stakes.

- 1 cup cooked peas
1 cup gravy
4 slices dry bread (cubed)
- Brown celery, onion and green pepper in hot fat; add combined meat, potatoes, carrots and peas. Add gravy and season to taste. Pour into casserole; top with bread cubes browned in butter. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes. Six servings.
- CREAMED CHICKEN AND HAM ON BISCUITS
Dice 1 cupful of chicken, 1 cupful of ham (or a combination of any other cooked meat), 2 hard-cooked eggs, ½ green pepper and ½ sweet red pepper. Make a cream sauce by melting 3 tablespoonfuls of butter and blending it with 4 tablespoonfuls of flour, then adding gradually 3 cupfuls of milk. Add 1 teaspoonful of paprika. When thickened, add the diced chicken or meat mixture and heat thoroughly. Serve on hot biscuits or toast. Four to six servings.
- TURKEY OR CHICKEN PILAF
Brown 1 cup raw rice, 1 onion and ¼ green pepper, chopped, in 3 tablespoons fat. Stir as it browns. Add 1 quart stock. Let rice cook tender in the stock, adding salt and pepper, scraps of leftover turkey or chicken and, just before serving, some tomato sauce or some of that tomato-pepper relish you made last summer. Serves six.
- JELLIED MEAT LOAF
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatine
¼ cup cold water
¾ cup boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons grated onion
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish, drained
¼ cup mayonnaise
2½ cups leftover cooked beef, coarsely ground
1 cup chopped celery
Sprinkle gelatine over cold water; let stand 5 minutes; add boiling water and salt, stir until dissolved; chill. When mixture begins to thicken add onion, horseradish and mayonnaise; then blend with rotary beater. Fold in meat and celery and additional seasoning if desired. Turn into loaf pan first dipped in cold water; chill several hours or overnight. Serves four.

Humidification, Electronic Cleaning, Heating, Air Conditioning

Humidification Required In Some Cities

by ROBERT A. "DOC" WILLIAMS

Dry indoor air is a problem in many areas of the country, and the Grosse Pointe area is no exception if the number of humidifiers we have installed recently is an indication.

The problem of dry air in the home is so acute in some areas, that many cities require that some form of humidification be provided for every new furnace installation. Chicago and Omaha require that a humidifying device be installed with every warm air furnace at the time of installation.

We have explained dry air's effect on health and comfort in several ways, but it might be useful to explain further; especially since we are going into the period of the year when winter dryness is at its worst.

Have you ever gone swimming on a terrifically hot day in summer, but felt cold when you came out of the water because a wind was blowing? Or, have you ever taken a shower when someone suddenly opened a door and you felt cold all over?

The reason for this is that moisture normally acts as a blanket of warmth on our bodies; when it is removed, you feel chilly. Here's where a humidifier comes in . . . by maintaining the proper amount of moisture in the air during the winter months, you can prevent this evaporation of moisture and thus feel warmer and obtain greater comfort all winter long.

Properly humidified air not only checks the cause of Junior's colds, but also adds to your relative comfort by preventing the dried out feeling in nose and throat. Home furnishings are saved from extreme dryness that often causes them to become brittle, and to crack and peel.

There are still several months for a humidifier to perform its health, comfort and protection benefits. Buying now will provide comfort for many weeks to come, and insure your readiness for next winter's dryness.

Stop in at our showroom or for a FREE SURVEY of your home or more information on a total comfort system, call "Doc" Williams at 14711 Harper. Williams Refrigeration and Heating, Inc., 14711 Harper. Serving Grosse Pointe since 1937.

Keep Yule Tree Safe with Water

All the known sprays, dips and special treatments still are no match for fresh Christmas trees standing in water. Extensive testing indicates a fresh cut tree standing in water is as effective a fireproofing practice as the best spray-on materials known. Christmas trees will maintain this fireproof characteristic if you promptly cut one inch off the stump and stand the tree in water.

The water treatment will work faster if you soak the tree with a garden hose and keep the tree outside for a few days. The fragrance, freshness, beauty and fireproof characteristic can last up to three weeks if the water supply is maintained while the tree is indoors. But some are too dry to absorb water. When you shop for a tree look for freshness. Be cautious of trees that are crisp or are dropping needles. If you notice your tree isn't absorbing water, then you aren't renewing the fireproof effect. Don't criticize anyone until you are sure you have the facts.

ORDINANCE NO. 138 CITY OF GROSSE POINTE

(Note: Following is the text of Ordinance No. 138 adopted by the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe on December 15, 1969 to be effective ten days after publication.)

AN ORDINANCE TO REPEAL SECTIONS 2.113, 2.114 and 2.118 OF CHAPTER 24 OF TITLE II OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE AND TO ADD NEW SECTIONS WHICH NEW SECTIONS SHALL BE DESIGNATED AS SECTIONS 2.113 and 2.118 OF CHAPTER 24 OF TITLE II OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE, WHICH NEW SECTIONS CHANGE WATER AND SEWER RATES.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS:

1. That Sections 2.113, 2.114 and 2.118 of Chapter 24 of Title II of the Code of the City of Grosse Pointe are hereby repealed and the following new sections substituted therefor:

2.113. Water and Sewer Rates. Charges for water service to each premises within the City connected with the water supply system, and charges for sewage disposal service to each premises within the City having any sewer connection with the public sewers, for each quarterly (3 months) period, shall be as follows:

For the first 1750 cu. ft. or less,
$6.65 (minimum charge).
Over 1750 cu. ft., per 100 cu. ft., $0.380.

2.118. Collection. The City Treasurer is hereby authorized to enforce the payment of charges for water service to any premises by discontinuing the water service to such premises and the payment of charges for sewage disposal service to any premises may be enforced by discontinuing either the water service or the sewage disposal service to such premises, or both, and an action of assumpsit may be instituted by the City against the customer. The charges for water service and sewage disposal service, which, under the provisions of Act 94, Public Acts of 1933 of the State of Michigan, as amended, are made a lien on the premises to which furnished, are hereby recognized to constitute such lien; and the City Treasurer shall, annually, on March 1, certify all unpaid charges for such services furnished to any premises which have remained unpaid for a period of six (6) months prior thereto to the City Assessor who shall place the same on the next tax roll of the City. Such charges so assessed shall be collected in the same manner as general City taxes. In cases where the City is properly notified in accordance with said Act 94 of 1933, that a tenant is responsible for water or sewage disposal service charges, no such service shall be commenced or continued to such premises until there has been deposited with the City Treasurer, a sum sufficient to cover four (4) times the average quarterly bill for such premises as estimated by the Superintendent, such deposit to be in no case less than fifteen ($15.00) dollars. Where the water service to any premises is turned off to enforce the payment of water service charges or sewage disposal service charges, the water service shall not be recommenced until all delinquent charges have been paid and a deposit as in the case of tenants is made and there shall be a shut-off charge of $2.00. In any other case where, in the discretion of the City Treasurer, the collection of charges for water or sewage disposal service may be difficult or uncertain, he may require a similar deposit. Such deposits may be applied against any delinquent water or sewage disposal service charges and the application thereof shall not affect the right of the Treasurer or Superintendent to turn off the water service and/or sewer service, to any premises for any delinquency thereby satisfied. No such deposit shall bear interest and such deposit, or any remaining balance thereof, shall be returned to the customer making the same when he shall discontinue receiving water and sewage disposal service or, except as to tenants as to whom notice of responsibility for such charges has been filed with the city, when any eight (8) successive quarterly bills shall have been paid by said customer with no delinquency.

2. The effective date of the within Ordinance No. 138 shall be ten (10) days after date of publication thereof.

FIRST OFFERINGS SOMETHING SPECIAL for someone special, who cares for a home in Bristol condition! Liggett area. Imposing two year old, four bedroom Colonial with family room, library and spacious kitchen.

A NEW ORLEANS colonial just five years old, and nestled on a deadend street which leads to the Lake. As you would expect in a house of this calibre, the master bedroom has its own dressing room. There are a total of four bedrooms and two full bathrooms and two lavatories. The family room is larger than the living room, and it looks out into the backyard and the heater swimming pool. Large mortgage balance at 6%.

ONE OF THE Pointe's fine older mansions, this graceful beauty has been kept in the peak of condition. The new kitchen is certainly worthy of being placed on a "kitchen tour." Two of the four master bedrooms have fireplaces and every bedroom has a bath. Two extra rooms for entertaining on the first floor to complement the large formal living and dining rooms. The spacious carriage house and secluded garden leading from one of the social parlours.

BY APPOINTMENT A CHOICE location for privacy and beauty. This charming side-entrance colonial offers three bedrooms and two full baths on the second floor. On the first floor there's a large family room and another full bath, plus powder room.

TRULY AN impressive home, with four family bedrooms and three baths, a beautiful family room with a fireplace and built-in bar, and a private landscaped yard, and near the water. For the discriminating buyer.

IF YOUR requirements call for a newer, four-bedroom Colonial with a family room and two and a half baths, you'll want to see this listing in the Woods. A large mortgage and a price tag of just over fifty thousand.

NOW WE WOULD like to mention a "special" three-bedroom, ranch style home where the backyard blends in with the Country Club of Detroit. Built by Walter Mast, with a nice den and Florida room, central air conditioning, plus numerous qualities.

PERHAPS YOUR preference is an English Colonial, on a lovely tree-lined street in the Park. We have one on York-shire with four family-sized bedrooms and a warm, paneled family room. Convenient to schools, shopping and transportation, for the buyer in the forty thousand dollar range.

ANOTHER OLD ENGLISH, but with more bedrooms, in the same price range. The second floor contains four bedrooms and two baths. The third floor has two more bedrooms and a bath. And the first floor has two most desired features—a den and a lav. Assumable mortgage.

RARELY is so much house offered at so little money. Consider that this offering boasts a modernized kitchen, plus combination living and dining room. There are two first floor bedrooms and a large bedroom with a lavatory on the second floor. Priced $31,500.

ARCHITECTURALLY it's called a Bungalow but there's still a lot of living to be done here on Ridgemoor in the Farms. Three bedrooms, two of which are on the first floor, a nicely finished recreation room and a price tag in the mid-thirties, are all in its favor.

Power Squadron Holds Election

In its annual election meeting at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Tuesday evening, the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron elected the following officers for 1970: Commander Howard E. Stoneback, Grosse Pointe Shores.

Lt. Commander, Executive, John H. Wood, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Lt. Commander, Administrative, Donald G. Strand, Harper Woods.

Secretary, 1st Lt. Fred C. Berger, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Treasurer, 1st Lt. Henry E. Webster, Grosse Pointe Woods.

The meeting was conducted by Commander Edward Kimmen who announced that the free Piloting and Small Boat Handling classes would be held at Grosse Pointe High North, January 12, at 7:30 p.m. Officers and instructors of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron serve without pay to promote boating safety through knowledge.

Fire Safety Precautions Urged During the Holidays

Fire safety, all year long, is everyone's desire and goal, but sometimes, and especially during the Christmas season, we tend to ignore all the usual precautions, according to Farms Fire Chief Michael Beaupre.

About this time of the year, home fires tend to increase because people do not take time out to determine the condition of the trees they bring into their houses, the chief said. Occasionally, a purchased tree is freshly cut, which reduces the fire hazard. But, more often than not, this is not the case.

From past experience, the chief said, we know that fire can destroy a six or seven-foot conifer in less than a minute, with flames spreading to draperies, furniture, or anything combustible. Sometimes, the flames spread so fast it blocks exits, which could be fatal if a person is trapped in a room.

"Only approved Underwriters Laboratory light bulbs and extension cords should be used," Beaupre said. "Thoroughly inspect all cords before installing them on your trees—do not use old cords that have dried out, or are cracked and broken because of age."

Insofar as artificial trees are concerned, he pointed out, if they are made of metal, DO NOT use electric lights because of the danger of shocks.

Keep trees and all decorations away from fireplaces, exits, heat ducts, heaters, radios, televisions, and other sources of possible ignition.

Christmas trees will last long-er if they are cut at an angle about an inch or more above the original cut and placed in a stand with a container of water. Keep the container filled with water during the entire time that the tree is up.

For those residents whose homes have fireplaces, guard against sparks igniting carpeting, or any combustible material. Keep a fine screen guard in front of the fireplace to prevent flying sparks from escaping into the room, Beaupre said.

DO NOT, he stressed, toss heaps of tree pieces into the fireplace. At the end of the holiday season, some people tend to chop up their trees and burn them in the fireplace, and in some cases, just heap pieces on top of each other for a high fire. This is dangerous, since pine and other conifers are highly flammable. Flames have been known to shoot out into the room, or upward, igniting the mantel, or perhaps escape through a possible crack in the wall, and starting a fire inside the wall.

"If residents have any questions on home safety, now, or any time during the year," the chief said, "we would be very happy to send our fire inspectors to your home to give advice. Call TUXedo 5-2100 at an appointment."

"I know that I speak for our department, and can speak for the other Pointe area fire departments—we would rather send our inspectors to prevent a fire, than our trucks and personnel to put out a fire."

who, where and whatnot by whoozit

It wouldn't be Christmas... in Grosse Pointe without at least ONE poem by Carolyn Hubbard Lucas celebrating the season. And this year we have THREE!... The first is Carolyn and Russ Lucas' Official Christmas Poem, the verse Carolyn chose for their 1969 Christmas Card... which you've probably received by now: The Lucases mailed them early, just before they deserted East Jefferson avenue for two pre-holiday weeks in the sun at Ocean Reef, Fla. . . . The other two are Carolyn's special Christmas gifts to all NEWS readers . . .

*When, lovely as a summer day,
Old sorrows seemed to slip away
And heaven brushed earth with joy, instead.*

HOLY NIGHT
*The angels sang above the stars
The holy night when Christ was born,
And great kings travelled from afar
His lowly birthplace to adore;
Yet neither king's nor angel's voice
Nor anything the world can give
Can cause His people to rejoice
As learning by His love to live.*

"And Mary brought forth her firstborn Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn . . ."

*The air grew chill around her young bowed head
And winds of death blew shrill and high above her,
But storms that rage and strike the new leaves dead
Passed by in peace and left her Son to love her.*

In the same mail . . . with Carolyn and Russ Lucas' card came the Gari Kerstens', which ALWAYS manages to be first-of-the-season . . . and which ALWAYS brings the Kerstens' wishes for a joyous holiday from their house (in McKinley avenue) to you (wherever it may be) via a picture of the trio of young Kerstens, these charming twin mesdemoiselles and their little brother . . .

Did you notice? . . . The very FIRST house in Lakeshore road to shine forth in holiday finery was Millie and Joe Schoenith's . . .

We thank the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club . . . for once again resisting the temptation to twine multicolored garlands around its tower at Christmas-time . . . There's Something Special about that large single star blinking high above the lake on a dark, clear December night . . .

And we thank the Grosse Pointe War Memorial . . . for once again turning its toward-the-road face into an old-fashioned Christmas Tree, bright with big, old-fashioned, multi-colored lights . . . That's the right way for Grosse Pointe's Family Home to look at this Family Holiday season of the year . . .

PILFERINGS
On Christmas morning my sister opened a large box from her husband. Inside she found a card that said: "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year." Under a second wrapper was a card: "Be My Valentine." More paper and strings came off to reveal "Happy Easter," "Happy Birthday" and "Mother's Day" greetings. Finally she worked her way through "Happy Wedding Anniversary" to the gift, a beautiful mink stole, and the final card, which read: "Gal, you've had it for the year."
— J. V. Rhodes, Reader's Digest

By the time the last little sticker is stuck and the last little ornament hung on the tree, and the last-minute packages festively tied—I'm fit to be.
—H. H. Grenville, Chatelaine

When a resourceful woman we know gives her husband Christmas cards to mail, she always addresses a postcard to herself and hides it in with them. If she doesn't get the card back within three days, she starts asking questions.

In a letter to the editor of the Pottstown, Pa., Mercury, a reader, Mrs. J. Kerr, wrote: "This is the time of the year when a person really needs his checkbook. I do wish the banks would fully abandon themselves to the Christmas spirit and keep a large supply of money on hand. Is there anything more exasperating than having a bunch of checks returned with the notation, 'Insufficient Funds'?"

Burns Indicted On Tax Charge

Lawrence A. Burns, 49, of 837 Berkshire, a lawyer who many times represented reputed Mafia leader Anthony Giacalone, was indicted on Saturday

Election Held By Auto Club

Three Grosse Pointers were named to top posts with the 880,000 member Automobile Club of Michigan during a Board of Directors meeting at the Detroit Athletic Club Wednesday (Dec. 10).

Raymond J. Hodgson, of 570 Renaud road, National Bank of Detroit senior vice president, who ended his two-year term as president of the organization, remains with Auto Club as a member of the Board of Directors.

Elected secretary with Ralph Thomas, Sr., of 222 Merriweather road, also board chairman of Speaker-Hines and Thomas Printing Company. Mervyn G. Gaskin, of 83 Oxford road, a Detroit steel fabricator who is board chairman of Taylor, was named to a three-year term on the Board of Directors.

During Hodgson's presidency, Auto Club gained 100,000 members, its largest two-year growth in history. Its Insurance Exchange protects 770,000 cars with $123 million in policy value and is the 19th largest U.S. auto insurer today. The Club opened two new offices and remodeled 23 others under Hodgson.

James H. Brickley, U.S. attorney, said the indictment was "the result of a long and diligent investigation directed by John J. Olszewski, chief of the intelligence division of the Internal Revenue Service." The 23-member special grand jury returning the indictment is attached to the federal task force against crime and racketeering.

Burns was indicted on three counts of failure to file income tax returns. The maximum penalty against Burns upon conviction would be one year in prison and a $10,000 fine on each count. He was fined $1,500 by Federal Judge Fred W. Kaess in July, 1963, for failure to file returns on gross income of $92,000 for 1958-59-60, including $46,000 in Teamster Union retainers. Judge Kaess said Burns paid $9,000 due in taxes and $3,600 in penalties.

It was one of three attorneys who successfully defended Giacalone against charges of bribing a police officer. Giacalone was acquitted by a Recorder's Court jury in March, 1966. Subsequently, Burns represented Giacalone in one-man grand jury proceedings in Wayne County by Circuit Judges Edward S. Piggins and George E. Bowles.

HAROLD M. EDWARDS, OF BELANGER ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Oh to be on Harold Edwards' Christmas List! Those lucky people who are, may receive a pair of exquisitely crafted wood candlesticks... an intricately designed silver bracelet... a wonderfully colorful copper-enamelled ashtray...

All Edwards Originals. "There's nothing," says Mr. Edwards, "I can't do in wood or metal."

That's no boast: That's a statement of fact.

"I get a notion," he says, "I want to make something. And I go down and do it."

"Down" is to the basement where Mr. Edwards has the nearest working workshop imaginable.

One can't do fine work in a dusty room.

He works with his own tools. Not "bought" tools—his own. He made most of them himself. They're better than the ones he might have bought.

If his current project involves copper enameling he pops over to daughter Zeraldine (Mrs. Frederick) Altman's house in Hillcrest road.

She Has Two Kilns Zeraldine has two kilns. She's the one who introduced Harold Edwards to the World of Home Crafts.

It happened five years ago when Mr. Edwards retired from Chrysler Corporation after a Chrysler career spanning 40 years and seven months.

That's not his WHOLE working career.

A master tool and die maker, (he trained apprentices at Chrysler for 12 years), he started working when he was 13, in his native Canada. At 19 he was a journeyman.

In 1964 he was retired. To become, ultimately, busier than ever.

Clara Edwards says her husband sometimes spends the whole day in his workshop. He rises at 7, studies his Bible for two hours and then heads belowstairs.

But she doesn't have to call him twice to come up for a party.

Has Various Affiliations Harold belongs to the Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club. He and Clara are joint members of Clara and Harold Edwards have been members of Messiah Lutheran Church for 50 years.

Was Dragged to Class

Zeraldine, who persuaded her father to try his hand at copper enameling—"She dragged me down to the High School for a class"—thus precipitating the explosion of artistry in the Edwards' basement, who can't resist if she stops over "just to say hello" a peek into that basement to see what's going on, (the "peek" may stretch into hours, Zeraldine and her father working side by side), isn't the only child who's inherited Harold's talents.

Graham, who has his own home workshop, just finished air-conditioning his house. His whole house.

Lyle's hobby is television. Not watching—working on, repairing. He takes care of most of the Luther Haven sets.

Clara has a special talent too: She's done catering for 23 years. Often with Harold's assistance. He's a FABULOUS coffee-maker.

And when it comes to preparing meat for the Edwards' private meals it's Harold who often does the honors. He's found, since his retirement, he enjoys cooking.

Even the Edwards' poodle, Andre Pierre the Fourteenth, is Something Special. Of champion stock he's "imported from New Jersey."

Is Also Gardener

"I do mostly all the yard work," Harold admits, (Goodness! And we thought retirement meant taking-it-easy!).

"Right now, (we interviewed Mr. Edwards at the end of last month), I'm kind of mad: I had all my leaves bagged—15 bags—and some kids broke them up..."

The Edwardses built their home in Belanger road, moving in March 17, St. Patrick's Day, 1942.

They were quite literally at the back of beyond then.

"We were the last house on the street. The rest of the land was vacant to Kerby road. We used to have a man plow it up—all the neighbors got together for a Victory Garden—and we planted it."

"We had corn growing near Kerby School, 200 tomato plants, celery..."

"There used to be a creek running through our yard, (this was before the house was built). Where our daughter's living now, (Hillcrest's just a few streets over from Belanger): That was all sort of marshy..."

All Open Country

"When our son-in-law was courting Zeraldine he used to run all the way to Seven Mile, across open fields, to catch the last bus back to Ferndale."

If Mr. Altman were doing his courting today he'd have to be a hurdle jumper as well as a long-distance runner.

The Altmans have been married 26 years; the marshy fields were filled in long ago. Houses and fences have taken the place of the open country across which bachelor Fred rode his last-minute sprits.

Zeraldine may have "persuaded" her father to try his first class in copper enameling at Grosse Pointe South High School. She couldn't have persuaded him not to come back for his second.

He continued to come back for two years. He found the work fascinating.

"Some pieces," he notes, "are fired 18 to 21 times."

Zeraldine, he claims, is the family expert in copper enameling. "She makes jewelry and everything."

Harold's not exactly an amateur.

Multitude of Designs His copper-enamelled plaques and dishes are exquisite. Especially his Christmas Plate with its glowing church scene. That took 21 firings.

He can be whimsical. He created one ashtray with an elephant (pink) in a tree (green) on a blue background. "I had a lot of fun with that."

He's done "modern" pieces, swirls of different colors "drawn" with his fingers or a fine wire. And traditional pieces, the Church Plate, the Elephant, a vase of multi-colored mid-summer flowers, using his own free-hand designs.

Parcells Plans Xmas Concert

The "Sound of Christmas" is ringing through the halls of Parcells Middle School. All the vocal music classes have been working on traditional and new carols of the season.

On Thursday evening, December 18, at 8 o'clock, the fifty members of the Sixth Grade Girls' Glee Club and 100 members of the Seventh and Eighth Grade Choir will present the annual Christmas P.T.A. Concert. Some very interesting things are being sung. The Girls' Glee Club will present "The Calypso Noel" featuring Lynn Prisk playing string bass, Tom Cooper, claves, and John Romano, the maracas, and "The Star Carol" and very favorite "Silver Bells."

The Choir will sing "Do You Hear What I Hear," "Little Drummer Boy," "Carol of the Bells," "O Holy Night," and "Carol Fantasy of Familiar Tunes." Each of these groups will be directed by John Carter

Cole and the numbers will be accompanied by Mrs. Eugenia Morgan.

Another interesting feature will be about 80 French students at Parcells who will sing a lovely group of French carols. Mrs. Christie Brady, a French teacher, has been working with this group.
