3rd Election in Row Approved

Voters Okay 24.35 Mills for Schools, 5,576 to 4,588, and .19 Mills for Libraries, 5,828 to 4,290

By Kathy Duff
 "We've got a real streak going," William Huetteman, vice-president of the School Board, announced at the meeting Monday night, April 8. He wasn't talking about the risque fad which is sweeping the nation, rather, he was commenting on the successful passage of the third millage election in a row.

Business tried to go on as usual at the meeting, yet attention was riveted on Dr. George Eddington, assistant to the superintendent, whenever he entered the Board room to post election results on the chalk board. Several times a motion was seconded when no motion was on the table.

Stonehurst To Take Last Bow Apr. 30
 The Grosse Pointe Artists Association and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association invite their members and friends to a gala final evening at the Schlotman's mansion, Stonehurst, Tuesday, April 30. The evening, which will begin at 7 p.m., will benefit a new art facility planned at the Memorial Center.

Significant Win
 The final vote was 5,576 for passage of the 24.35 mills, (an additional 2.85), and 4,588 against passage. The libraries, asking for .19 mills did even better with 5,828 "yes" votes and 4,290 "no" votes.

Following the traditional pattern, the voters in the south precincts voted "yes" while voters living in the north end of town voted "no". Voting down the millage were Mason, Monteith, Poupard and Barnes district voters.

A cheer went up from those present when the successful Ferry district results were posted, $7 to 654. The three-vote margin represented a significant victory for millage workers.

Election Results
 Here are the millage results, precinct by precinct:

School	Millage	"Yes"	"No"
Trombly	429	215
Defer	511	329
Maire	614	337
Richard	702	391
Kerby	792	452
Ferry	657	654
Mason	362	498
Monteith	550	620
Poupard	305	424
Barnes	377	486
Absentees	227	182
(three votes spoiled)
Library	Millage	"Yes"	"No"
Trombly	445	198
Defer	534	301
Maire	655	293
Richard	758	333
Kerby	840	402
Ferry	659	642
Mason	378	473
Monteith	571	590
Poupard	276	451
Barnes	415	447
Absentees	297	160

School Board President Robert D. Warner said, "The Grosse Pointe School System is looking up again, we are almost back to where we ought to be."

His comment echoed the sentiments of most Board members and school supporters who feel that the schools are just beginning to recover from millage defeats.

Area Escapes Storm Damage
 The Pointes escaped damage in the Wednesday night rainstorm of April 3 in which killer tornadoes ripped across Windsor, Ont., Michigan and 10 other states, leaving over 320 dead and thousands injured or homeless.

Some flooded basements and streets were reported in the community. The Woods Department of Public Safety received around five calls of flooded basements and one call of a downed, and arcing, Edison wire. Department of Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallman said, "We were really lucky" as the Lake Front Park escaped damage and flooding.

When asked about conditions in The Shores and its M.O. Park Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferts stated there was no damage at all. The City reported 10 flooded streets but no calls were received on flooded basements. Meanwhile, The Park had two flooded basements, including that of the Municipal Building. These conditions were attributed primarily to sewer blockage. The Farms reported no problems due to the storm.

YSD Detective Kendall Scheduled for Rotation
 By Roger A. Waha
 Detective John Kendall of the Youth Service Division, (YSD), is scheduled for rotation to the uniform division of the Woods Department of Public Safety on Monday, July 1, as part of the new system affecting division personnel which became effective Friday, February 1.

At a Wednesday, April 3, meeting of the YSD's Board of Managers, the board requested this action to be made, said Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. The Woods is managing municipality of the division. Part of this action includes the transferring of Detective Michael Ferrence from the North High School district to the South High School district where he will replace Detective Kendall. Under the rotation plan, all four division members are school liaison officers with two based in the North district and two in the South district.

Mr. Petersen said the YSD, after the July 1 change, will include Detective Ferrence, Detective Donald Schmalz and Detective Wayne Baum with a new officer to be added. At this time, no decision has been made as to who the new man will be, and also on which officer will comprise each district, (outside of Detective Ferrence). Detective Kendall told the NEWS he had "no comment" at this time on his pending (Continued on Page 2)

Pointe Couple Have Cruise To Remember on Stricken, Drifting Queen Elizabeth

Ocean Liner Develops Boiler Trouble So 1,630 Passengers Are Transferred to Another Ship; Everyone Remained in Excellent Spirits

By Kathy Duff
 Returning to Detroit at 4 a.m. Friday, April 5, were Mr. and Mrs. John Nash, of Yorktown road. Instead of sporting a healthy tan and a crop of new freckles from a 10-day cruise aboard the Queen Elizabeth II, the couple came home with a sea yarn unparalleled in marine history.

For the British-owned ocean liner developed boiler trouble and became stranded some 250 miles southwest of Bermuda.

"Everyone remained in excellent spirits, even when all the air conditioning and lighting broke down. At dinner Monday night, April 1, we were told that it was probably the last hot meal we would receive," Mrs. Nash said as she recounted her five-day adventure.

Amazing Logistics
 "The logistics of transporting 1,630 passengers from the Queen Elizabeth to the smaller Sea Venture were just amazing. The Sea Venture was only equipped to handle 600 passengers, and had only 600 deck chairs. Some of the younger passengers slept on the dance floor and in the auditorium. But everyone was a good sport."

Mrs. Nash said they flew to New York City on Tuesday, March 30, to board the ship departing from the New York harbor. The trip was billed as the "football cruise" since pro football coaches and players were aboard to give talks and narrate films for the passengers' entertainment.

"When we woke up Monday morning, we realized that the engines were off and that the ship was drifting," Mrs. Nash said.

At the regular meeting Monday, February 4, the sailors unanimously accepted the bid of the Adamo Wrecking Company in the amount of $10,600 for the demolition of the station.

Now, what will precisely be done with the property regarding possible construction awaits the views of citizens and a decision by the council. This could all transpire at the public hearing.

Despite Accident, Youth's Vehicle Wins in Contest

By James J. Njaim
 Thirteen-year-old Brian Slusser, son of Park Patrolman and Mrs. Charles Slusser, of Maryland road, was heartbroken when a three-wheel terrain vehicle he had constructed was damaged enroute to Garden City where it was to be entered in the Detroit News sponsored contest. He was to have presented his creation for entry by 6 p.m. on Saturday, April 6.

The terrain vehicle, the trailer on which it was loaded and Brian's father's automobile, driven by Brian's brother, Charles, Jr., were damaged on I-94, when an 18-year-old motorist struck them in the rear. Contest officials, informed

It's 'Measure For Measure' In Woods

Commissioners Clean-Up Proclamation Sparks Locally Oriented Resolution

By Roger A. Waha
 A proclamation from Wayne County Commissioner Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., urging all citizens of the county's 43 communities to join in and encourage others to work towards cleaning up their surroundings was the foundation of a resolution by Woods Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan urging local residents to do the same.

This measure was unanimously approved by the council at the regular meeting Monday, April 1.

Last December 6, the Wayne County Board of Commissioners designated the period of April 1-May 31 of each year as an annual clean-up period throughout the county. While Mrs. Mullan's resolution says the council proclaims this time span as a clean-up period in The Woods for 1974, and encourages all citizens and business establishments to participate in such efforts, her perspective isn't limited to a specific monthly time slot, or to 1974 alone.

While no definite plans have been made on this front, Mrs. Mullan is thinking about a variety of avenues towards (Continued on Page 6)

Approve Little League Parade
 The cry of "Play Ball!" was heralded by The Woods Council as they unanimously permitted the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League to conduct its opening day parade Sunday, May 5, at 1 p.m.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 1.

The parade route will be the same as last year, reported Franklin Saad, chairman of the opening day ceremonies. It will form in the Manufacturers National Bank, proceed across Mack avenue, turn into the northern driveway at The Woods Municipal Building and conclude at Ghesquiere Park. Around 600 young sluggers will be participating.

In his motion of approval, Councilman George S. Freeman stipulated that the Public Safety Department be involved in the coordination of the parade.

FLEC Weathering Rough Financial Road; Seek Aid With Membership Drive

Council Ends Fiscal Year Showing $9,000 Deficit; Members and Volunteers Seek Base to Plan Ahead

By Nancy Kramer
 Money may not be everything, but it sure could help. Members of the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), will attest to that fact, since right now the organization is hardpressed, trying to make ends meet. And, as one board member characterized it, "Things are being held together with band-aids."

According to James Blean, FLEC's assistant finance committee chairman, the monetary picture hasn't brightened any since representatives explained their plight to a gathering of city officials from all the Pointes and Harper Woods on January 30. Then, the group reckoned it had about six months of funds left.

Prior to the joint meeting, FLEC representatives met with each city council to present their case and requested each community kick in part of half of FLEC's annual operating budget, approximately $52,000. It was suggested that the municipalities pay an amount directly proportionate to their total population.

Under Scrutiny
 At both of these meetings, city officials could offer little more than sympathy; each claiming time and investigative work was needed to study the requests.

When the NEWS contacted representatives from each of the Pointes this week, (City Managers Robert A. Stone from The Park, Thomas Kressbach from The City, Andrew Bremer from The Farms, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen from The Woods and Village President Gerald Schroeder from The Shores), they all said the request remains under scrutiny.

City attorneys are still uncertain of the legality of allocating funds and financial directors are trying to reconcile any possible appropriations with their budgets. None of the officials were able to predict a rosy outlook as far as FLEC was concerned.

Other Efforts
 FLEC has tried other routes. Under Act 54, they sought federal funding, but their request was pulled before it reached the federal government since the Executive Drug Committee did not see Grosse Pointe as a particularly "needy" community.

The council plans to re-apply, under a new Act 56, that establishes an office of Substance Abuse Services, but according to Mrs. Pat

Charge Detroit Man With B-E

26-year-old Detroit man was arrested and charged with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling stemming from the break-in of a Newcastle road home Friday, March 22.

Stefan Chabrowski stood mute at his arraignment Thursday, April 4, before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis and requested a court appointed attorney. Chabrowski was released on a $2,000 bond pending his examination which was scheduled for yesterday, April 10.

Detective Everett Plumb said, on his request, Detroit police arrested Chabrowski at his home. He also stated none of the missing property has been recovered at this time.

Items reported taken during the burglary included several articles of jewelry and a color television set.

Helen M. Blair, the Center's cateress, is handling the buffet supper. Entertainment will be by the Forrestors whose banjo act was seen in the Junior League Follies. In the Treasure Hunt, guests will be provided clues to find the hidden art works.

A Great Friend
 Mrs. Joseph Schlotman was a great friend and special maintenance donor of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The evening has been made possible through the generosity of her daughters, Mrs. Thomas M. Evans and Mrs. James H. Carmel.

Proceeds from the event will be placed in a special fund for new art facilities and studios for the Memorial's art classes.

Tickets are $15 per person and should be reserved at the War Memorial by Friday, April 26.

Voters Approve School, Library Millage in April 8 Election

in the late 60's and early 70's. Included in the millage package is the addition of 6.5 staff members in the elementary schools to establish a maximum class size of 29 students for grades one and two and 33 students for grades three through six.

Several years ago, in the worst period of millage cutbacks, instrumental music was dropped from the fifth grade and instruction began in the sixth. The instrumental music program will be reinstated in the fifth grade. About five teachers will be added to the elementary schools so that each school will have a half time person to work with the children individually and in small groups. They would work on projects with children who display special talents. The skills teacher would also be used to give additional assistance to children with specific needs in developmental reading, mathematics and writing. A skills teacher will be added in the middle schools for enrichment in the reading and mathematics areas. The program will also add an educator to review, revise and write improved courses of study in the middle school.

Innovate Program
One of the most innovative programs the superintendent and trustees have suggested is the offering of an alternative educational program for students who are chronically unable to adjust to the normal school day. This program was on the top of the teachers' list (speaking through the Grosse Pointe Education Association), and was endorsed by Dr. Anderson.

The program will provide after school classes in English, mathematics and social studies to enable students to complete high school requirements. The program will begin with two teachers in 1974-75 with a third person added in 1975-76.

Currently, education of the handicapped in Grosse Pointe ends after elementary school. A program that the trustees have suggested is the addition of a secondary teacher to assist handicapped students through special teaching methods and materials.

boat was drifting. But we didn't think anything was wrong. The winds had been so strong over the weekend, we thought that they were resting the engines. They had even drained the swimming pools because of the high winds."

Momentary Luxury
She had only compliments for the way Cunard Lines handled the emergency. "We were given bulletins continuously on the situation and the crew went out of its way to make the passengers comfortable."

So the natives wouldn't get restless, the ship began to serve free drinks Monday morning. Luxury went on as usual aboard the ship with the Roaring 20's Party roaring by candlelight Monday night. By Tuesday, the Norwegian Sea Venture had been radioed for a mid-Atlantic evacuation.

"It took us all day to transfer to the Sea Venture. They unloaded us in groups of 40, and we were allowed to take only our carry-on luggage. Our suitcases, containing all our evening clothes and other things, are still on the Queen Elizabeth," Mrs. Nash said.

Made Comfortable
Since over half the passengers were senior citizens, staterooms aboard the Sea Venture were reserved for them. Mr. and Mrs. Nash were assigned deck chairs "near the smokestack." It rained during the night, but the Nashes were partially protected by glass screens.

The Sea Venture tried to make the transplanted passengers as comfortable as possible. They were served a hot dinner once on board and the crew gave up its quarters for the older voyagers.

After landing in Bermuda, the passengers were given accommodations overlooking St. George's bay. They were returned to New York City Thursday night by two chartered airplanes. In New York, the Nashes were given their plane tickets to Detroit.

"I think we were the only couple from Grosse Pointe on the cruise," Mrs. Nash added. "We were told that there were 14 people from Michigan, but most of the passengers were from the eastern seaboard."

Mrs. Nash said her experience would not keep her from signing up for another cruise. "But there we were, drifting in the middle of the ocean for three days. There was nothing to see but the horizon."

Pair Guilty Of Larceny

Two Detroit residents pled guilty to a charge of larceny under $100 before Judge Thomas Roumell at their Wayne County Circuit Court trial Tuesday, April 2. Both had been previously charged with two counts of larceny, i.e., larceny over $100 on the first count and larceny in a building on the second count.

The scheduled sentencing date for Walter Durand Trombly and Sadie Mae Harris is Tuesday, May 14. The maximum sentence to this charge is 90 days in jail and/or $100 fine, Woods police said.

After meeting with Assistant Prosecutor Albert Easton, the attorneys for the defendants and Woods Public Safety Officer Thomas Podewzik, it was decided that a plea originally agreed to by department officers at an earlier date would be made in this case police reported. Judge Roumell accepted the pleas after hearing the facts of the case.

Both individuals were involved in taking numerous wrist watches from Bob's Drug Company, 21034 Mack avenue, last November 26. The pair were nabbed the same day by police, who then confiscated the watches and plastic watch containers.

Drinking Driver Has Fast Trial

A former resident of Wayne was arrested early Thursday morning, April 4, for driving under the influence of liquor, and since he was moving to Kentucky that day, his case was tried right away.

Jimmy Estus Stephens, 26, was first spotted going east on Waterloo by City Corporal Edmond Benthuyts. When he stopped for a red light at St. Clair, Corporal Benthuyts saw him make a left turn onto St. Clair through the red light, and swerve into the right curb, then across the center line, and back again toward the curb.

He was arrested at Charlevoix, when the corporal detected a strong odor of alcohol on his breath.

Stephens refused to submit to a breath test at the station, and when he told police he was to move to Kentucky later on that day, a trial was arranged before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for Municipal Judge Douglas L. Paterson. Stephens pled guilty and was fined $150.

YSD Rotation

rotation.

The division's budget for fiscal year 1974-75 also was discussed at the meeting. "It's up to the individual city councils, and the School Board, to renew their contracts based upon the budget figures," said Mr. Petersen.

Members of the YSD's Board of Managers include all Pointe city managers, (Mr. Petersen, Robert A. Stone, The Park, Thomas Kressbach, The City, Andrew Bremer, Jr., The Farms, and Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis, The Shores), and a representative from the Board of Education, Dr. Joseph Spagnoli.

Lodge 102 Associates Plan Dance

Big Band Sound Ball Set for May 3; Proceeds Benefit Police Widows, Orphans Fund

Do you want to hear the big band sound live again? You can when the Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 102 Associates have their second annual Big Band Sound Ball Friday, May 3, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Light Guard Armory, East Eight Mile road at Ryan.

Last year, an estimated 1,100 people put on their dancing shoes and twirled to the music made famous by Glenn Miller, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Artie Shaw and other notable musicians.

Want Big Turnout
"Being our first one, last year's dance went very well," said Woods Traffic Safety Officer Stephen J. Petrik, Jr., Associate chairman. "We hope to improve through experience gained this year."

The Associates, who number around 300, are businessmen and residents of The Pointe, Harper Woods, the Detroit metropolitan area and even outstate, who have an interest in police officers and their well being.

This year, they are hoping for a turnout of 2,000 individuals with the proceeds going to benefit the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods FOP Widows and Orphans Fund.

Nostalgia Formula
"We're hoping that the service organizations come with groups of people," said Officer Petrik. "There's nothing formal about the affair. It's just a dance which goes back to the nostalgia formula. You can dance to music to which you were used to dancing once again."

Carl Edson and his big 17-piece band will provide the music, and memories, for the evening.

Tickets are $5 per person. They include, besides listening and dancing to Mr. Edson's sound, all the beer, ice, mix, chips and pretzels you can enjoy.

Ticket Locations
Tickets may be obtained at any Pointe police station or at the Harper Woods station. They also may be purchased by calling Walter Karal at 881-7438 or George Sproder at 886-4737. The Associates report that parties of 10 can have their tables reserved.

Bob McKendrick is Associate president and Warren Brush is handling publicity for the "really big" dance.

UNIVERSAL THEME
"I look for the universal theme that will allow the audience to identify with the characters. The flexibility of the film medium permits the audience to move inside the heart of a man while the cameras place him within the sweep of his individual world"—Fred Zinnemann, director of "High Noon," "The Nun's Story" and "A Man for All Seasons."

Hot Dogs Inspire Art

Winners in a hot dog poster contest sponsored by Hygrade Ball Park Franks for young art students at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial are, (from front to back), KENDRA BRENNAN, 7, of Kenmore drive, first prize; DEBBY LUBERA, 8, of Willow Tree place, second prize; MIKE CRAMER, 10, of South Rosedale court, honorable mention; CAROLE CLAPP, 10, of North Renaud road, honorable mention, and DANE LACHIUSA, 12, of East Jefferson, third prize. The War Memorial competition was held in conjunction with the Ball Park Franks Drawing and Writing contest for all children between the ages of 6 and 12 in the Metropolitan Detroit area.

Suspects Face Burglary Trial

Two suspects, accused in warrants of breaking and entering an occupied dwelling, were arraigned for examination before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Wednesday, April 3. Both stood mute to the charge and were released on $1,000 personal bond until their trial at the next session of Wayne County Circuit Court.

Awaiting a hearing in the higher court are Kenneth D. Rimmer, 20, of 1107 Chalmers, and Gary A. Emery, 21, of 1178 Lakewood, both of Detroit. Judge Urso reduced their bonds from $5,000, two sureties, to $1,000 personal. Rimmer and Emery had been kept in the local cell until their examination.

The pair were arrested as they were coming out of an elderly woman's Audubon home Saturday, March 23. In one of the men's pocket, arresting officers found a two-inch plexi-glass with a rare coin embedded inside, which the woman identified as belonging to her. The policemen also found a plastic bag inside the house, filled with items belonging to the household.

The woman, whose name and address are being withheld, had just retired to her second floor-bedroom when she heard a noise on the first floor. She locked her bedroom door and called police.

Woods Okays Annual Audit

Price Waterhouse and Company were unanimously reappointed as city auditors by The Woods Council for fiscal year 1973-74. This action, based upon a Committee of the Whole recommendation, was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 1.

City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher said Price Waterhouse estimated that its fee to examine the city's various funds for the year ending June 30, 1974, will not exceed $10,000.

In a related matter, the council also unanimously authorized Mr. Hornfisher to prepare detailed specifications on the audit front for fiscal year 1974-75.

This means several companies will submit their proposals to the city, with the council then selecting the auditing firm it wants for the job.

FLEC Weathering Rough Financial Road

And there are other woes. Center Point, FLEC's drop-in center and hotline for young adults, recently lost a co-ordinator. The remaining co-ordinator, Sister Sean Martin, saw his departure as posing a two-fold threat. "Stability is an important thing in this type of work," she observed.

The loss of leadership isn't likely to strengthen Center Point's base and now, a new person must be employed. "When you have to hire a Master of Social Work, salaries must be realistic," she said. With FLEC's financial straits the way they are, finding another qualified co-ordinator for Center Point will be no mean feat.

In spite of the severe setbacks the council has received, you won't find members and volunteers shaking their heads or teetering on the brink of desperation. In fact, they've just launched a new hotline program called "Dialogue."

Board member in charge of that project, Mrs. Samuel Ulmer, explained how the council could afford such an innovation in the light of its dwindling resources.

"An anonymous donor thought the project was so worthwhile, he's footing the phone bills and those are the only expenses we have," she said.

The phones are manned by volunteer parents, all highly trained in listening skills, dealing with feelings, sexual concerns and psycho-developmental problems. Mrs. Ulmer thinks a hot-line is often a last resort, offering reflective listening, information and referral services.

Since the hotline began only last week, the response thus far, has not been overwhelming. But she sees the program as fulfilling a definite purpose in helping adults to verbalize their own problems; a complement to what Center Point does for younger people in the community.

"Conserve" The Word

Conserve is a very real watchword for FLEC right now. Their fiscal year ended on March 31, showing a $9,000 deficit. "It looks like we can get by with a $5,000 or $6,000 loss," Mr. Blean stated. "We're really trying to conserve what little surplus we do have and we may have to shave quite a few corners. I would say we have about five months of funds left."

Mrs. Horne concurred. "We have enough money to keep things going for the moment," she said, "but we haven't got any kind of base to plan ahead."

Hopefully, some relief will come via the groups' annual membership drive, just getting underway. Tax deductible memberships are available for both individuals and organizations on patron, contributing and student levels. They may be sent to FLEC at Box 5112, Grosse Pointe, 48236.

For people in the area who might yet be undecided about FLEC's merits, the council will present a report to the community at their annual meeting being held Wednesday, May 1, at 8 p.m. in The War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

While Mrs. Horne recognizes the necessity and benefits of such a campaign, she seemed to feel the council needed a more concrete foundation to work with. That's why the group sought the assistance of the entire community through appearances before the various city councils.

"We need a commitment that will sustain us for a longer period of time," she maintained, "something we can build on. So far, we just haven't gotten it. That seems to be our real problem."

Lift Handgun Ban in State

Sportsmen can once again carry their handguns to and from hunting or target shooting without fear of violating Michigan Laws following the signing of S.B. 1186 by Governor William G. Milliken on Monday, April 1.

However, there are some new stipulations in the new law they should be aware of, reported Roger Wenk, president of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

"Provisions in the new law sponsored by Senator Oscar Bouwsma, (R), Muskegon, now require that persons transporting a handgun have in their possession either a concealed weapons permit, a valid Michigan hunting license or a valid membership in an organization having pistol shooting range facilities," Mr. Wenk said.

If any of these three stipulations are met, a handgun may be transported legally in a vehicle if unloaded, wrapped or in a container and in the trunk.

In the case of vehicles without trunks, the pistol may be transported in the passenger compartment if unloaded, wrapped or in a container and not accessible to the occupants.

"I believe sportsmen will be happy to comply with the new law," Mr. Wenk said. "We want to be allowed to use our handguns for recreational purposes only. If the new law will aid law enforcement officials in doing a better job of curbing illegal handgun use and sales, we're all for it."

The law was given immediate effect by the Legislature. It also exempts antique weapons built prior to 1896 or replicas.

If you'll name the Job you want done, we'll do it.

Citizens Offered Advice In Effort to Obtain Gas

By Kathy Duff

There is a way to get gas in the Grosse Pointe area, but you have to know how and where to get it. For openers, it's best not to let your tank get down to the "E" mark because there are certain times when every station in town is closed.

The best advice would be to call your friendly neighborhood gas station and ask when they pump gas and whether there is a purchase limit. Most stations have what they term a "set policy," even though that policy might change from day to day according to gas allocations.

The hottest hours to hit the pumps are in the early morning since many stations pump a limited amount of gas each day, beginning at about 7 a.m. It's a latter day early bird gets the worm syndrome.

Most stations are determined not to run out of gas at the end of the month. Several stations reported being caught bone dry in February or March. Grosse Pointe Service Center was out of gas for two weeks in February and Jess's Service Center ran out in March. Farms Texaco reported last week that they would have no gas until Thursday, April 25.

Some of the gas stations are feeling the allocation pinch more than others. Ray Summers station reports that it is getting only 58 percent of what it received in April 1972. Standard on the Hill said it has 20 to 25 percent less than April 1972.

As far as limiting the amount of purchase, gas station owners are sharply divided on the issue. Village Standard and Joseph's Friendly Service have been known to set $3 limits. But the man at Ray Summers said that people will just go to the next station and wait in another line to get more gas.

Gas-hungry motorists should know that they can be ordered out of the area if their car is blocking a public right of way. Farms police have told motorists, who were waiting in line at Standard on the Hill, to move on because they were obstructing traffic. Some stations said they would cut off the gas flow if a line formed in the street.

One casualty of the gas shortage is the part-time attendant, especially the high school students who worked the evening and weekend shifts. No stations pump gas on Sunday, and most have curtailed night hours. The Mack-Prestwick Service laid off four workers and Mack-Moross Standard laid off five persons. Most stations report laying off two or three workers.

The amount of gas pumped each day varies drastically from station to station. The Kercheval on the Hill Sunoco station pumps an average of 500 gallons a day, Grosse Pointe Gulf pumps an estimated 1,000 a day, and Mack-Moross Standard pumps over 2,000 according to well-placed sources, (near the gas pumps).

So there is a way to win gas roulette. At least, this month there is.

Fleeing Youths Drop Barbells

A set of barbells are still awaiting their owner at the Grosse Pointe City police station. They were found in the northeast corner area of Neff and Charlevoix where two youths dropped them after being chased by City police officers Dennis Van Dale and Ronald Pryor.

According to police, the incident occurred around 3:46 a.m. on Saturday, March 23 when a University road resident complained of two suspicious boys across the street from her home.

When the officers reached the scene, they observed the youths standing on the corner. As they approached the pair dropped the barbells and fled north on Neff, cutting through residents' yards. The officers gave chase but were unable to apprehend the youths.

Park Grants Cab Fare Hike

The Park Council, on Monday, April 8, approved a resolution to adopt, as permanent, an ordinance granting the city's two private cab companies an increase in fare rates to conform to the rate hikes granted to Detroit cabs by the Detroit Common Council.

A 90-day temporary law was adopted by The Park solons on January 7, granting the local firms the right to charge higher rates, hinging on Detroit's move.

The new ordinance merely continues the temporary measure without altering any provisions.

The boosts were requested by The Park's two cab firms, Grosse Pointe Cab and The Veterans Cab Company.

Under the old rate, the fare was 50 cents for 1/5 of a mile or fraction thereof, and 10 cents for each additional 1/5 of a mile or fraction thereof. The waiting period was $5 an hour.

The new rate is set at 60 cents for the first 1/6 of a mile or fraction thereof, and 10 cents for each additional 1/6 of a mile or fraction thereof. The waiting time cost has been boosted to $8 an hour.

The cab firm officials petitioned for the rate hikes because of the increased costs of fuel, labor and maintenance.

Simplicity is one of Louise Seirmarco's main goals in her exhibit "Cats, Birds and Other Good Stuff" now on display in the main lobby of University Liggett School, 1045 Cook road.

Colorful and bright, the artist's work is distinguished by clean design, pure form and intriguing subject matter.

The diversity of Ms. Seirmarco's art is shown in the "Other Good Stuff" exhibit which includes many types of media: collage, drawing, tapestry as well as a uniquely treated wall-divider. This weaving, entitled "Victorian Blue," combines an antique structure with rya-type weaving and macrame.

Ms. Seirmarco teaches art at ULS and is director of publications.

Visitors are welcome to the show which will continue to the end of April.

Youth's Vehicle Takes First Despite Accident

(Continued from Page 1) with a different trailer, arrived at the accident scene, loaded the terrain vehicle on it and drove the boy to Garden City in time to meet the new entry deadline. The contest was open to seventh and eighth grade students in Pointe schools, and Brian, who had been working on the terrain vehicle since last September, constructed only the framework at the school under the direction of his teacher; after that, he was on his own. With financial assistance from his parents, Brian purchased all the needed parts, sometimes one at a time, and sometimes buying more than one part. All his spare time was spent assembling the vehicle until contest time. He submitted his application and then the big day came. Brian and Charles were on their way to The Regional Industrial Arts Fair at Bradcliff School, Garden City, for the event, co-sponsored by the Detroit News and The Michigan Educational Society. Just east of the Woodward exit on I-94, traffic was at a standstill and Charles came to a gradual stop, so as not to damage the terrain vehicle. When he came to a complete halt, the young driver behind him was unable to stop in time and crashed into the rear of the trailer, which was pushed into the rear of the Slusser car. The front and rear of Brian's creation was bent. Patrolman and Mrs. Slusser were notified of the accident — no injuries were reported — and the father promptly called the contest officials and Brian's teacher. Although Brian's entry was damaged, contest judges awarded him the blue first prize ribbon for his work and a second prize ribbon for his ingenuity. They declared him qualified to enter the Statewide contest, the date of which will be announced later. If young Slusser comes out the winner in the State competition in his category, he will receive a prize of $100. This is not the only time Brian has won a first prize award. Last year he entered the regional competition and took first place for a plastic pen holder he created for his father. He embedded three of his dad's pistol shooting award medals into the holder and made an attractive desk two-pen holder set, which his father, a 29-year veteran of the Park Department, proudly shows to everyone. The patrolman and his wife, Florence, have eight children, of which Brian is the youngest. The others are, Patrick, 32; Michael, 30; Kathleen, 25; Mary Louise, 23; Charles, Jr., 22; Timothy, 20; and Judith Marie, 17, an all-A student at South High School, and on the school's Honor Roll. Judith will graduate this June.

(Continued from Page 1) beautifying the city. She realizes this is a "slow" process but that doors could be opened this year for 1975. "At least this year, we adopted a resolution of our own which went along with the other proclamation towards getting involved and beautifying the city. We want to solicit the support of the school system and service organizations in this effort," she said. Participation, commitment and ideas appear the key words in such a project and Mrs. Mullan mentioned some thoughts of her own. This year, she hoped prizes, for example, could be awarded to schools and businesses in a clean-up campaign. "Maybe some of the organizations in future years could take this as their baby and award prizes." Community Support An idea is to get youngsters and parents involved, to solicit community support, where people could go around the city and clean it up. "It's not enough to do it once a year. We have to get enough enthusiasm so everyone could think 'clean,'" she stressed. "The youngsters are the logical place to start. We have to get the parents and schools actively involved. Dates have to be set aside where everyone can go block-by-block in a clean-up campaign," stated Mrs. Mullan. She would like to have a Saturday or two set aside in May where volunteers could come out in force and pick up debris with the ultimate presentation of prizes. "Learning Situation" Mrs. Mullan said at a budget meeting of the council held Monday, April 8, she pursued such a program with her colleagues. The council is considering that $10 be set aside in the 1974-75 budget so the city can join the Beautification Council of South-eastern Michigan, which covers a seven-county area and includes some 50 municipalities. The council also could appoint her as a delegate to this Council at a future meeting, but no official action has been taken as yet. Through participation in the Council, she hopes to gather information on what's happening in other communities on the beautification front. Stressing that Council participation is a "learning situation," Mrs. Mullan plans to assimilate thoughts and ideas on what other municipalities are doing. Obviously excited about such a project, Mrs. Mullan is open to ideas and suggestions from the community in an area in which every member of the city will be the beneficiaries.

Officers Warn Streaking Trio

Three local streakers didn't receive the coast-to-coast exposure of that "dashing" fellow who scooted behind a dapper David Niven on the Oscar telecast, but they did receive a stern warning from police Tuesday evening, April 2. An Oxford road resident called Shores police and reported that several young men were running in their birthday suits west from his home. Officers Harry Hamilton and John Trevillian spotted the youths a few minutes later putting on their clothes in a side drive of another Oxford residence. The trio admitted streaking along the roadway and were then warned about their activities. If they were caught again, officers said, action would be taken. The youths included a 16-year-old Shores juvenile and two Woods lads, a 17-year-old and an 18-year-old. Woods Officer Russell Alard also assisted at the scene. DELIGHTFUL SHOCK "I know of no other medium where on a given night in Japan, in Germany, in Paris, and in London and in New York, the different nationalities can be shocked at the same moment at the same thing on that screen"—Alfred Hitchcock.

Center Sponsors Seven Free Entertainment Events

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is sponsoring seven free events in conjunction with their 25th Anniversary Family Participation Campaign. To date the Center has received $58,053 in donations from 3,085 families in the community. The overall goal, which hopefully will be reached by Memorial Day, is $110,000.

The first free event is a Battle of the Bands for Grosse Pointe high school students. This activity has been rescheduled for Thursday, April 11 at 8:30 p.m. instead of Friday, April 26, as originally announced, in order not to conflict with the Tau Beta - Sigma Gamma benefit at Rose Terrace that night. Tickets for The Battle of the Bands must be picked up in advance at the Center's office by each individual student since I.D.'s must be shown. Total attendance will be strictly limited to 500.

An evening with the Grosse Pointe Theatre will take place on Wednesday, April 24, at 8:30 p.m. It will feature their award winning review of famous performances and acts from the twenties to today, using actual tapes and recordings of the performances themselves to augment the acts. Preceding this presentation will be an original film of the theatre in action.

On Thursday evening, May 2, at 8 p.m. the Arts and Crafts faculty of the Memorial will stage various demonstrations and exhibits from portraiture to pottery making in different sections of the Ballroom.

On Friday evening, May 10 at 8:30, Bill Kennedy will present the movie favorite "It Happened One Night" starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert.

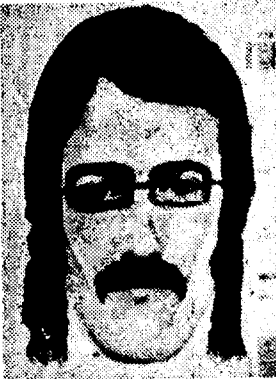

For children, Highlights of Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre productions, celebrating their 20th year under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Reynolds, will be presented Saturday, May 11, at 2 p.m.

An unusual dance demonstration will be presented in the Ballroom on Wednesday, May 15, at 8 p.m. Dance instructors Mr. and Mrs. Ted Forrest will teach the latest in ballroom dancing. Miss Cooper, director of the Center's Corps de Ballet will have her troupe demonstrate the movements of classic ballet while she explains.

Finally, the Center's new ethnic dancing instructor will demonstrate and invite participation in folk dancing as well as staging a brief demonstration of the art of Persian belly dancing.

The Grunyons of Grosse Pointe's local Whiffenpoofs, will present an evening of collegiate male chorus entertainment on Sunday, May 19, at 7:30.

Suspect

A City woman was the victim of a purse snatcher Tuesday evening, April 2, in the Mack-Seven shopping center parking lot.

The lady told Woods Corporal Robert Setchell while coming from Saint John Hospital towards the rear of Kresge's, she spotted a white male sitting along the fence across from Wrigley's. After she parked her car at the rear of the store, she walked to the market, while the man remained at his location.

However, upon leaving and walking towards her car, the man approached her, smiled, pinched her left arm and grabbed her purse. The woman, who tried to maintain control of the purse, was dragged to the ground and ultimately let go.

The culprit escaped across the lot and headed towards Bournemouth. Two witnesses said they saw a white male running from a screaming woman. One stated the man entered a waiting auto with two other white males at the rear of Landmark Restaurant.

The brown and beige flowered tapestry purse, which had soft plastic handles, contained a blue wallet with $16 in cash, a driver's license, charge cards and other miscellaneous items.

Police said the culprit was described as in his early 20's, around 6' tall and of a slim build. He had dark collar length hair, a full mustache and wore silver or gold metal frame glasses. He also was wearing a dark navy coat and dark pants.

If anyone has information on this man, based upon the description a n.d composite picture above, call the Detective Bureau, The Woods Public Safety Department, at 886-2700.

Three Pointers Merit Scholars Make Progress on Fund Teams

About 1,200 high school seniors were named winners of corporate-sponsored four-year National Merit Scholarships. It is the first of three announcements of Merit Scholarship winners to be made in 1974, the 19th year of the annual competition.

The winners were chosen from a group of about 14,000 students who attained finalist standing in this year's competition. Each winner met specific criteria established by the sponsor of the scholarship and received an award that covers up to four years of college undergraduate study.

These Merit Scholarships provide between $1,000 and $6,000 for the four years of college, ($250 to $1,500 per year), based upon the individual winner's financial need.

These awards are underwritten by some 250 corporations, foundations, professional associations, unions and other business and industrial firms that participate as sponsors in the National Merit Scholarship Program.

In most cases, the corporation awards were established for children of employees who qualified as Merit Program finalists, or for finalists who reside in areas or communities where the sponsor has operating facilities. Christopher A. Paton, of Wendy Lane, won a Motorola Foundation Merit Scholarship. The scholarships are awarded to a maximum of 10 high school seniors who are children of Motorola employees.

A North High student, Christopher is a member of the National Honor Society, Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra and his church choir. He plays first chair viola in the school orchestra and has won numerous music honors.

Ellen J. Katz, of Wayburn road, is the recipient of a Chrysler Merit Scholarship given to children of Chrysler employees. A student at South High School, Ellen has selected biology as her field of study.

She is a member of the National Honor Society and the Tower Yearbook staff. She has won a scholastic art certificate, a senior life-saving certificate, besides being a track team timette.

Clayton W. Carson, of Centerville court, also is the winner of a Chrysler Merit Scholarship. Clayton is a student at North High School and has selected mathematics as his major field.

He is a member of the National Honor Society, the cross-country track team, and the school concert choir "Singing Norsemen." He is a Boy Scout and in the German Club besides being active in church activities.

Two additional announcements of Merit Scholars will be made: the 1,000 winners of National Merit $1,000 Scholarships and the winners of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships.

Enlistment of all Group Leaders and Team Captains for the Special Gifts Committee of the Bon Secours Hospital Building Fund has been completed, Edward J. Hickey, III, chairman for this campaign phase, reported this week.

Individual teams are now being organized and all volunteers will attend information meetings next week in preparation for launching an intensive period of committee activity on Wednesday, April 24.

Serving as Honorary Chairman of the committee is Charles Verheyden. The group leaders are William D. Cohan, Clarence F. Wascher, Mrs. Leo A. Marx and Vernon S. Glendening.

Team captains include Gordon B. Gerow, William A. McCourt, George L. Palms, Wallace D. Riley, Mrs. William D. Cohan, Dr. Samuel S. Scarfone, Clayton P. Alandt, Roy J. Leinweber, Matthew C. Patterson, Sr., John C. Prost and Carl E. Meyering. Others include James P. Danaher, Mrs. James M. Kennary, Jr., Dr. Robert E.

CHILLING TEAM Director Tod Browning and the great Lon Chaney, Sr., combined their talents in many films including "London After Midnight," "The Unknown" and "The Unholy Three."

Coleman, John J. Gorman, Jr., Warren D. Cougar, Minert N. Thompson, Anthony E. Mourad, C. W. Ashton and E. Mark Gregory.

THE PARK PHARMACY
Ever hear of tooth grinding? It turns out that this is not a technical procedure performed by your dentist, but an unconscious, although damaging habit among many people. Believe it or not, breaking the habit is both difficult, and frustrating. Now, at the Walter Reed Medical Center, tooth grinders, were instructed to clench the jaw as hard as possible for five seconds, then relax the jaw for the same amount of time, then repeat the procedure five times and to continue the exercise six times a day for two weeks. This seemed to help many break the habit. Our competent sales personnel at THE PARK PHARMACY, 15324 E. Jefferson Grosse Pointe Park, 822-2580, are happy to assist you with all your pharmaceutical needs. We sell and rent convalescent aides, have a complete line of baby supplies, display a full line of American Greeting Cards, and feature Delicious Sanders Candy. Our capable pharmacists will be glad to fill your prescription needs. When you want personal and professional service, visit THE PARK PHARMACY. Open: Mon.-Thurs. 9-8; Fri. & Sat. 9-9; Sun. 10-3.

Festival Cites NH Musicians

At the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association State Solo and Ensemble Festival Saturday, March 23, Grosse Pointe North students received top rating in 18 of 28 events. The events were eligible for State Festival by virtue of First Division ratings gained at District Festival on February 16.

Ninth grade soloists achieving Division I rating were: Andrew Rist, euphonium; David Reed, violin; and David Thomas, trumpet.

Class to Renew First Aid Skills

A Standard First Aid and Personal Safety retraining program for requalification of First Aid Instructors will be held at the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue.

This program will consist of three sessions from 7-10 p.m. on Tuesdays, April 23, April 30, and May 7.

Anyone interested in renewing their instructors first aid card is requested to call the Club at 885-4600 for reservations.

This is a public service program sponsored by the Club and there is no class fee. The only charge will be for required books and materials.

Scoring a passing grade of 85 or better of a possible 100 points in Proficiency I (one step above Solo Division) were: Barbara Martin, violin; Wendy Judson, piccolo; David Cameron, piano; Cynthia Mickas, piano; Lori Bohlinger, flute; John Cochell, clarinet; Lance Potter, clarinet; and David Bastianelli, trumpet.

In Proficiency II (two steps above Solo Division) the following soloists achieved passing grades: Marion Sandmair, flute; Dale Ellis, snare drum; and William Barbour, trombone.

Four ensembles were also top-rated: violin-flute duet, Wendy Judson, flute, and David Reed, violin; brass quintet, David Bastianelli, trumpet, Douglas Edwards, trumpet, Fredrick Van Horne, horn, William Barbour, trombone, Karl Gilewicz, trombone; brass sextet, David Schadler, trumpet, Mark McDonald, trumpet, Douglas Krieger, horn, Neil Williams, trombone, Kenneth Drew, euphonium, Karl Gilewicz, tuba; percussion sextet, Dale Ellis, Jeffrey Hermann, William Kleinert, Steven Lesinski, Joseph Pandori and John Trask.

READY AND WAITING
The real secret of success is to be on the job when the big chance comes along.

SEE THINGS NEW

"The basic aim of cinema is to teach men to see all things new, to abandon the commonplace world in which they blindly live, and to discover at least the meaning and beauty of the universe." — V. I. Pudovkin, famous Russian filmmaker.

This year's winners are Lael Krull, Erich Hintzen, Patti Alexander, Gary Hughes, Kristin Fancou, Charlene Fine, Sarah Ulmer, Suzanne Leon, Carolyn Jones and Carolyn Wise.

More are Mike Reed, Lee Hamel, Mary Martin, Mary Sanders, Ken Klein, Karen Rabbideau, Karen Fine, Sue Bennett, Sue Barton and Valerie Kvale.

Funds for these scholarships are raised by rummage sales, bagel sales, placemat and card sales.

Health Care Act Introduced

Congressman Lucien N. Nedzi (D-Mich) joined in introducing the Home Health Care Act, a bill designed to provide the elderly with health services in their own homes, on Wednesday, April 10.

This measure would authorize the Secretary of HEW to make grants to public and nonprofit private agencies for the training of those persons interested in home health care.

The congressman pointed out HEW figures show that there are persons listed with agencies across the country who would take advantage of such training.

"I think a key freedom we should commit ourselves to," Congressman Nedzi said, "is the freedom of a citizen to live out his life in his own home. This bill is a step in that direction."

The congressman noted the need for such services will only increase with time. "Greater life expectancy, earlier retirement and the increasing tendency of the elderly to live apart from their children guarantee a mounting number of citizens requiring medical services.

"There are now more than 20 million Americans over the age of 65," he said, "and the number of nursing homes has mushroomed to some 23,000. In 1973 more than $4.5 billion was spent on these homes, about 75 percent of it by the government, particularly through Medicaid.

"Sound economics dictates that we provide less expensive alternatives to these institutions before the costs overwhelm us," Congressman Nedzi asserted, "and it has been estimated that home care could cut costs in half on an individual basis.

"More important, I think, is the need to give our senior citizens an alternative to life in a nursing home. A General Accounting Office audit in 1971 found that more than half of the homes in three large states were violating basic government regulations.

"Clearly, there are many good homes, but the significant numbers that have not been up to par make it essential that we do what we can to provide the elderly with an option."

The Village merchants are sponsoring a children's Easter Egg Hunt at Elsworth Children's playground Saturday, April 13.

For the younger children, three to six years exclusively, the egg hunt will be held from 10-11 a.m. For the six- to 12-year-olds exclusively, the egg hunt will be held from 1-2 p.m. at the playground.

All over the playground section will be found jelly bean filled eggs nested in a large plastic easter egg. The merchants in The Village also have donated children's gift certificates which will be placed in many of the large plastic eggs.

The lucky children in both hunts will receive gifts at the designated stores. All parents are urged to bring their children to the Easter Egg Hunt.

The Village merchants will again this year have two Easter Bunnies strolling along Kercheval on April 13 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The bunnies will give away large Easter Bunny Balloons to all the moppets.

PARENT'S GUIDE TO CURRENT MOVIES

BLAZING SADDLES - R - A burlesque type satire of the traditional western. A black sheriff and his drunken sidekick try to evacuate a frontier town to put a railroad through. Obscene gestures, smutty jokes and cursing.
THE GREAT GATSBY - PG - A story about the frivolous side of life in America in the 1920's with a violent, bloody climax. Gorgeous settings and costumes.
THE STING - PG - Two cool 1930's con-men relieve a big time Chicago gambler of a half million. Some violence and cursing. Ricky-tick piano music adds nostalgia.
ZARDOZ - R - Science fiction about an advanced society controlled by the god Zaroz. Plot interweaves theology, psychic power, Genesis, Freud and many other thoughts into the story of the beginning and end of civilization. Violence and nudity.

GP Pageant Finalists Work Towards Big Night

By Roger A. Waha
Ten finalists in The Miss Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant are working steadily towards "the big night" Saturday, May 11, at North High School, when one young lady will be crowned Miss Grosse Pointe for 1974-75.
The Jaycees, sponsors of the event, feel the young ladies are about three weeks ahead of their rehearsal pace of last year and are pleased with the progress being made.

A mock pageant was held Friday, March 29, to prepare the contestants for the real event. Pageant Publicity Director George A. Williamson said the contestants were judged by four different, qualified people.
"Each girl was judged as she would be judged during the regular pageant. And each girl was given criticism towards improving her performance. Now, they have an opportunity to look at the criticism and put their hearts into it," he said.

"From now on, it's up to the girls who are working on their talents, choreography, and the opening and closing numbers."
Radio personality Morrie Carlson of WWJ will once again be master of ceremonies. "Morrie is anxious to be involved this year as he enjoyed last year's work," Mr. Williamson said.

The finalists include Sandra Hamilton, 18, a senior at North High School, who enjoys all sports, music and poetry. She has had special training in gymnastics and was named the outstanding female athlete of 1973, receiving the Softball Limelighter Award.

Janet Wascher, 18, a 1973 graduate of South High School, who's currently attending Wayne County Community College. She enjoys swimming, tennis and boating, and has had special training in ballet. Miss Wascher has participated in the Detroit City Ballet for a year.

Kathleen Ann Lewis, 22, a 1969 South High graduate, was graduated from Michigan State University in 1973. Miss Lewis, who enjoys skiing, tennis, boating and traveling, has had special training in color and design for fashions, and is working in sales at Saks.

Karen Anne Seagram, 19, a 1973 North graduate, won the Miss Congeniality award and was second runner-up in last year's pageant. Miss Seagram, who enjoys water skiing, bike riding and horseback riding, has worked with mentally retarded children. She has had special training in singing and dancing.

Jill Ann Zevallos, 17, a South senior, likes the outdoors, including swimming and horseback riding. She has had special training in modern dance and some ballet, and works as a private duty nurse.

Margaret Anna Zylak, 17, a senior at South, enjoys golf, skating, dress making and designing. She has had special training in clarinet, piano, ballet, plus vocal training. Miss Zylak is a member of the symphony and concert band at South and has won a musical competition award and certificate for citizenship in the band.

Kathleen Mary Loafman, 18, a North senior, enjoys sailing, tennis, traveling and music. A treasurer for her senior class, Miss Loafman plans to use her scholarship towards occupational therapy work at Wayne State University.

Kathleen Laurie Bentley, 19, a 1972 graduate of Lutheran High East, is currently attending the Grace Hospital School of Nursing. She has had special training in ballet, singing, piano and German singing and dancing. Miss Bentley is interested in decoupage and paper tole.

Debra Mary Hennig, 18, a 1973 South grad, is currently attending Macomb Community College. She enjoys all sports, particularly swimming and horseback riding. Miss Hennig has had special training in gymnastics and has won an award for perfected stunts.

Janet Lynn Popp, 18, is a 1973 North graduate, who's now attending Michigan State. She enjoys needlepoint, embroidery and crochet, and has had special training in piano and organ. Miss Popp wrote her own reading for the pageant.

The winner will receive a $500 academic scholarship to the school of her choice from the Jaycees. She also receives a $200 wardrobe, a $500 modeling scholarship from the Barbizon School of Modeling, plus other jewelry, clothing and trophies.

Each finalist will be presented with a $25 savings bond from the Jaycees, and each will have her picture taken by Eddie McGrath, Jr., with the winner receiving a color photo.

Mr. Williamson said tickets will go on sale Saturday, April 20, at Jacobson's, North and South Highs. They cost $3.50 for patrons, $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students.

The publicity director also reported that more advertisements are needed for the pageant program. Interested individuals or businesses, should call Thomas Andris at TU. 6-2972 immediately for further information regarding ads. "We need help from the community," stressed Mr. Williamson in this regard.

NH Finishes Fifth in Meet

Finishing fifth among 75 teams is good, but North High School track coach Tom Gauerke is expecting to do even better when his athletes move into the last half of the season.

Using a combination of experienced big-meet performers and some newcomers, North scored in three events in the Class A Spartan Relays Saturday, April 6, at Jenison Field House, East Lansing, to put them among the leaders in a meet dominated by Pontiac Central. The Lansing Journal and Michigan State University sponsored the competition.

North's two-mile relay team improved its winning time at last week's Huron Relays by three seconds, clocking 8:10, but finished second to Ann Arbor Pioneer's strong 8:03.5. The team included Bob Kepler, Jim Fisher, Mark Roberts and Ed Brennan.

Brennan anchored the run with 1:56.5, one of the best half-mile times in the State so far this season.

Tom Hammer took third in the two-mile run, with a 9:30.2. The winner, Pat Davey, of Birmingham Brother Rice, set a new meet record with an outstanding 9:03 flat.

The other point getter for North was its sprint medley relay team, which finished fourth. Kepler, Pat Persichini, Fred Minturn and Brennan turned in a 2:32.4 for the event.

"This is a tough meet to score points in, and we're encouraged by our showing," said Gauerke. "The teams that finished first and second both have indoor track facilities. This is an advantage in early training over those of us who can train only outdoors, and even more noticeable in a year like this, where we've had a lot of bad weather.
"That's why I'm optimistic about closing the gap on these teams as we get farther into our training."

North will be at Mansfield, O., Saturday, April 13, for the biggest high school track meet in the country. Over 3,000 competitors from six states and Canada will be on hand at Malabar High School. The entire city of Mansfield takes part in hosting the event, including hundreds of families volunteering to house and feed the participants in their own homes.

Smash Lights At Monteith

Monteith School Principal John A. Hammel reported several incidents of vandalism to Woods police Thursday, April 4.

Mr. Hammel told Woods Public Safety Officer Stephen Petrik that over the previous weekend some boys were on the school's roof, took five flood lights out and then smashed them.

He also said on Wednesday, April 3, someone was up on the roof and tore up a 10-foot piece of conduit, ripping the wiring loose. The wires led to the flood lights.

A FOXY SOLUTION TO THE GAS PROBLEM.

The '74 Fox by Audi gets about 25 miles to the gallon. Which is about average for an economy car. The thing is, the Fox isn't an economy car. It's a sports sedan. It does 0 to 50 in 8.4 seconds. It has sports car steering and suspension. As well as front-wheel drive. And the fact that you can buy a car that has all this (and more) for a reasonable price provides a Foxy solution to another problem as well.

Pointers Win Hockey Crown

A Grosse Pointe Midget hockey team, the Blue Pointers, have claimed supremacy in the National Division of the South Eastern Michigan Hockey Association.

The team, sponsored by Joe Muer's restaurant, finished in first place after coming from behind to tie the strong Madison Heights Stingrays, 3-3, on Friday, March 23, in league play.

The Pointers then stated to the playoff championship, undefeated, by first sweeping the Lakeland Hawks, 2-1, then scoring five consecutive goals to beat Madison Heights, 5-2, and finally by winning a Saturday, March 30, contest at 6:35 p.m. the second sudden death overtime period against the tenacious runner-up Madison Heights team.

The winning goal was set up by Guy Aubrey, who took a clearing pass from Dave McIntyre and passed to Dave Baskel who scored. Glenn Burton, Blue Pointer's goalie, had a fine season, posting four shutouts and a 1.20 goals against average in league play.

The Blue Pointers' top scoring line of Guy Aubrey, (97 points), Dave Baskel, (81 points), and Steve Sicklesteel, (67 points) combined for a season total of 245 goals. In the playoffs, they scored nine of the team's 13 goals. The line of Andy Bentley, (captain, 62 points), Bruce McDavitt, (50 points), and Charles Boyce, (21 points), scored a season total of 70 goals.

The checking line of Dan Bakich, Steve Douglas and Jim Naughton, (all first-year Midgets), invariably thwarted their opponents' best attackers and on several occasions scored big goals. Bakich and Douglas were fine penalty killers as well.

Defensemen Bill Nesom, Vince Day, Bob Smith, Dave McIntyre and Brian Murphy, had a combined penalty minute average of only 3:40 per game over the entire season of 60 games, a less than two minor penalties per game for the entire defense.

Farms Officers Receive Praise From Residents

Whatever should happen, at least two Farms residents expressed their appreciation for services rendered by officers of The Farms Police Department.

Their letters of thanks were acknowledged by Police Chief Robert K. Ferber, and the services rendered became a part of the officers' records.

The first "thank you" letter was received from George H. Stover, of Vincennes place, and was dated Friday, March 29.

Mr. Stover informed Chief Ferber that a party had been held in his honor on Wednesday, March 27, and a large gift in a six-foot by three-foot box was delivered to his house between the hours of 8 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Minutes after the truck driver parked his van behind the garage on the Stover property, Patrolman Johannes Winter, cruising by, observed the driver of the truck struggling with the crate and stopped to investigate.

After finding out that the trucker's errand was legitimate, the officer assisted the delivery man with the unloading and storage of the crate.

In his letter, Mr. Stover stated:

"I want to commend these men, (he heard from a friend that there was more than one officer, when it was actually only one), not only for their excellent alert security vigilance, but their thoughtful courtesy in assisting the driver.

"I might add that the organization which sponsored the party is made up of men from many communities in the Metro area and word of the driver's experience resulted in excellent PR, (public relations), for your organization and our community."

The second letter, also dated March 29, was from Clyde M. Adams, of Merriweather road, who stated that on Saturday, March 23, he called police at about midnight on the assumption that some person had possibly gained entrance into his house.

"Having no desire to investigate for myself, I called the police," Mr. Adams stated in his letter. "The response was very quick, and although our suspicions proved groundless, the officer in charge assured me that I had followed the correct procedure.

"It was very assuring and most gratifying to see those men arrive so promptly and surround my house in a most efficient manner. The man who answered the phone and the men who responded were very courteous. My compliments to you and to all the men who were there."

Chief Ferber said the names of the officers who responded were Sergeant Eugene Boylan and Patrolmen Timothy Morrison, Gerald Deburghraeve and Phillip Miglio.

The Chief said since Mr. Stover and Mr. Adams took time out to write complimentary letters, he acknowledged both, thanking them and saying he was glad the officers involved were able to be of service.

Chief Ferber added both letters and his acknowledgement of the receipt of the letters will be placed in the permanent record files of the officers.

Easter Rites for St. James

St. James Church, McMillan road near Kercheval, will hold two services on Good Friday, at 1 p.m. and at 8 p.m.

The guest preacher at the afternoon service will be Jeffrey Kinery, teacher of religion at Detroit Lutheran High East, who will return to complete his education to become a pastor.

Pastor George E. Kurtz will conduct both services and also present the meditation on "The Day the Sun Refused to Shine" at the 8 p.m. Tenebrae Vesper service.

There will be three services at St. James on Easter Sunday, at 6:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., with Easter music by the choir under the direction of Herman A. Clein. Pastor Kurtz will preach the sermon on "The Resurrection and the Life."

After the sunrise service, the youth at St. James will sponsor the traditional pancake breakfast between 7:30 a.m. and 9 a.m.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By TED EWALD

Now that Babe Ruth's career total of 714 homers has been surpassed by Henry Aaron, a few facts showing how he dominated the game in his lifetime really prove his immortality. In 1919, the record for homers in one year was 28 set by Edward Williamson in 1884 and in that year Ruth hit 29 to break it, though he was pitching a good part of the time.

In Ruth's third season as a full time batter he broke the lifetime homer record of 136 set by Edward Connor and every homer after that extended his record. From 1918-1934, he had led the league in home runs 12 times and averaged over 40 homers per year for 17 years. When he retired in 1934, he had more than twice as many homers as the second man on the list.

Ruth's 1920 season was the best any ball player ever had in the history of baseball. Here are the stats: 54 homers, 374 avg., 9 triples, 36 doubles, 158 runs scored, 137 R.B.I.s, 14 stolen bases, and the still record slugging average of .847. Ruth's 54 homers were 10 more than any club but one hit during the entire year of 1920.

MRS. LEONA VALADE

Funeral services for Mrs. Valade, 67, of The Woods, were held on Saturday, April 6, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died on Wednesday, April 3, at Bon Secours Hospital.

Mrs. Valade was the vice-president and secretary of Valiant Industries and the Vulcan Engineering Company.

Mrs. Valade is survived by her husband, Wilfred; a son, Jay L.; a sister, and four grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Interment was in Gethsemane Cemetery.

CLARENCE TREADWELL

Funeral services for Mr. Treadwell, 81, of Sheldon road, were held on Monday, April 8, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Thursday, April 4, in Boca Raton, Fla.

Mr. Treadwell came to Detroit in 1913 and began a real estate career as a salesman. In 1920, he established his first sub-division, in Lincoln Park, and began the C. W. Treadwell Company. Specializing in subdivisions, he handled about 3,000 acres in the Detroit area. He was also active in the development of industrial real estate, including the Southfield-175 industrial area.

Mr. Treadwell and his wife, Evelyn, donated the land on which the Treadwell Elementary School stands in Taylor. He was chairman of the board of the Treadwell Real Estate Company and officer of the Treadwell Mobile Home Park in Flat Rock.

Bon Secours Honors Staff

Raymond Peters was announced Bon Secours Hospital's employe of the year at the annual employe awards dinner on Thursday, April 4.

Mr. Peters has worked in the hospital's building service department for the past eight years after retiring from a 32-year career in the automotive industry. "If we need something in the hospital, Ray will either build it, fix it or invent it," Joseph Catalio, director of building service, said. "He has fixed blood pressure cuffs and surgical tools, microscopes, respirators and incubators. He has saved the hospital thousands of dollars in equipment repair or replacement costs. More importantly, the staff know they can depend on Ray to help in a pinch."

A second special award went to Josephine Vitale for Suggestion of the Year. A nurse in the intensive care unit, Mrs. Vitale suggested the hospital purchase additional defibrillation equipment used for reviving a patient whose heart has stopped.

Service awards were presented to employes who have worked at Bon Secours from five to 25 years.

Janet Wendling, a registered nurse who works on the midnight shift, held the top of the list with 25 years of service. Twenty-year honorees included Helen Ireland, Agnes Sheridan and Mary Stack, nursing; Bojana Bilelic and Katherine Snyder, dietetics; Isabel Barry, business office, and Kathleen McCarthy, accounting.

Fifteen year awards went to Deloris Hayes and Margaret Fillmore, nursing, and Bruno Jasevicius, laboratory. Ten year awards went to Judith Brudnak and Barbara Kowalski, laboratory; Phillip Brusoe, building service; Antoinette Daidone and Rose Gasschke, dietetics, and Kathleen Gowdy, Wanda Lega, Herta Schroeder, Gladys Stolzenfeld and Betty Tank, nursing.

Five year awards went to Doris Anderson, Judith Blankenbom, Patricia Carson, Bernice Cooper, Carole Difatta, Muriel Fresard, Joanne Garvin, Patricia Geist, Martha Grant, Isabelle McEachran, Patricia Nicholson, Onnolee Padden, Pauline Ringle and Patricia Smith, nursing; Nancy Helminiak, Emmalee Wilson, Jean Ellis and Lena Estelle, radiology; Kathleen Etenhoffer and Janise Gogoleski, dietetics; Lawrence McCollister, building service; Kathleen Labudde, business office; Mary Lipscomb, environmental service, and Bernice Vanni, personnel.

Club to Start Girls' Softball

Spring is here and so is the Neighborhood Club girls softball league. Openings are available for girls in grades five through eight who live in The City or Park.

Practices will be held at a field close to your home. Games are at other centrally located fields.

There will be a clinic for fourth and fifth graders. It started Wednesday, April 3, at Brownell Field from 4:15-5:30 p.m. The fee is $5 plus membership which includes six sessions on Wednesdays April 3, 10, 24, and Saturdays, April 6, 20, 27, from 10:11-15 a.m.

Sponsors are needed to fund this worthwhile experience for the girls of the Pointe community. A sponsor will give the girls a much needed activity for meeting new friends, and helping them through their formative years, says the Club.

Coaches and umpires are still needed for the league. There will be an umpire and coaches clinic the second week of April.

Call Betz Johnson at 885-4800 for further information and tell her if you are available to coach or umpire.

"... Whereas the truth is that fullness of soul can sometimes overflow in utter rapidity of language, for none of us can ever express the exact measure of his needs or his thoughts or his sorrows; and human speech is like a cracked kettle on which we tap crude rhythms for bears to dance to, while we long to make music that will melt the stars."

—Gustave Flaubert
"Madame Bovary"

He was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, and the Detroit Boat Club as well as a past-president of the Detroit Real Estate Board, past regional vice-president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and former director of the Guardian Banking Group.

Born in Aylmer, Ont., he is survived by his wife, Evelyn; two sons, Robert W. and Donald H.; two daughters, Mrs. Dwight Crawford and Mrs. Robert B. Marr; 12 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Interment was in White Chapel Cemetery.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

To the extent the reaction to Watergate may reflect a national feeling that the real crime is being caught, I am saddened. To the extent the reaction to Watergate reflects a hypocritical view that it is O.K. for some to break laws but not for others, and O.K. for anti-heroes of film and television to be cheered on in their "end justify the means" violence and intrigue, I am also saddened. To the extent reaction fails to put the actual events of Watergate in historical perspective we dangerously ignore history. But, I am hopeful that Watergate will be a good lesson for the nation, its leaders and those who would seek to be its leaders. First, and I believe foremost, people hate being lied to, especially if they feel it is not even a very believable lie because they also hate to have someone seem to assume they are stupid. Second, as much immorality as there may be, people do recognize the failings of themselves and others, and do want a moral leader who, by example and persuasion, will help all the people and the nation be more moral in their actions. Third, our election process and our democratic ideals have been jeopardized by campaign funding and other campaign practices. They do need reform so that they are more open and honest, with less opportunity for any person or interest group to secretly buy an election. Fourth, we exhibit by what to those in other nations is an incomprehensible spectacle that in this nation of personal freedom and freedom of the press, we have the right to openly challenge high officials. I would add, too, that the free press, exalted by the free press, with their power, will better understand that its power must be used with care. Fifth, regardless of the relative innocence or guilt of the President in acts criminal, we must learn from the 1972 election that the choosing of presidential candidates must be done with great care and that we distort our two-party system when one or both major candidates are too far from the center of national political opinion. We had a not very appealing President, distrusted by many conservatives and moderates, opposed by McGovern who appeared to be on the far left. The result was a predictable landslide. Sixth, and akin to the fifth point, we must begin to look toward 1976 and, I hope, make certain the major political parties present solid and positive candidates in 1976 and conduct full, open and honest campaigns.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir, In the last, (March 21), issue your paper reported that a certain Mr. Cole complained to the Grosse Pointe City Council that there was excessive trash on his street. I am a student at North and notice it all over Grosse Pointe. Recently, Woods Mayor, Mr. Ben Pinkos, came and talked to our class. I told him that there was nothing to do in this city, or township for that matter, for people in my age group. He said, "The Council and I are very aware of this, and are working on a solution." Well, nothing has been done. Also, your paper had several articles on the breaking and entering of Grosse Pointe homes. I know as well as anyone else at school, that juveniles are committing these crimes. So, why not kill two birds with one stone. I need a job, and so do many others my age. The Pointes could hire high school students to pick up trash at the minimum wage of $1.60 per hour. This would be great for students and homeowners, and would solve Mr. Pinkos' problem. Sincerely, Bill Frager

To the Editor: We would like to express our appreciation to all voters of the Grosse Pointe School District who supported the schools and libraries in the April 8 millage election. Better schools and libraries make a better community, and we'll all benefit during the next two years. Sincerely, Arlene and John Cobau Co-Chairmen Citizens' Campaign Committee

The Art of Home Decor Ed Maliszewski Carpeting

Fiberglass is the functional fabric used in so many places in your home. Developed to fulfill a need for a washable drapery fabric which is non-iron (the others have a no-iron finish put on the fabric). It is wrinkle-resistant and easy to wash - curtains and draperies must be hand-washed and dripped dry. The fabric is glass and is, therefore, fire-safe. There is some fading, but it is substantially fade resistant. It must be protected from abrasion. Fiberglass Beta is now being used for astronaut suits and consumer apparel and will soon be used in comforters and slippers. People will soon be living in all-glass homes.

Let the experts at ED MALISZEWSKI CARPETING, 21435 Mack, 776-5510, help you with all your carpet needs. We have one of the largest and finest displays of quality carpeting in all colors, styles, patterns, and textures... choose from our domestic and imported area rugs which include genuine furs and orientals. Our expert installers will install your carpeting anywhere in the U.S. Come in and talk to George Morrison, our service manager, with 35 years of carpeting experience... you'll find his advice invaluable. Open: Tuesday, Wednesday, and Saturday 9:30-6; Monday, Thursday, and Friday 'til 9.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford Chief of Central Library

After five months and 91 million miles, the tiny Mariner 10 spacecraft finally reached Mercury two weeks ago and sent back the first closeup photos of the planet. The 1,000-pound craft made rendezvous with Mercury at a distance of just over 400 miles and the TV pictures received had detail showing features less than a mile in size. The photos show Mercury's surface to be rougher than the moon and pocked with hundreds of large and small craters. Undoubtedly, selections of these pictures will be published in book form in the coming months and we will all have our chance to view the planet closest to the sun while sitting in our favorite armchairs. This is just what was done for Mariner 9 in the new book MARS by Patrick Moore and Charles A. Cross. This atlas was prepared from the more than 1,500 photos sent back by the spacecraft in 1971-72. The details of physical features - volcanoes, craters, and valleys - are shown on charts divided into four quadrants and two poles. The principle of close range automatic probes are explained, illustrated by photographs of surface variations and the two small satellites that orbit Mars. Moore summarizes the advancing telescopic discoveries of the Red Planet since 1659, including charts typical of each period. The position of Mars in the Solar System, its similarities to earth and the plans for a future soft landing of a capsule on the surface complete a fascinating introduction to the Martian world. Other new books on astronomy and astronautics available at your Grosse Pointe Public Library include THIRTEEN: THE FLIGHT THAT FAILED by Henry S. F. Cooper, Jr. A near-disaster in space is the theme of this readable account of Apollo 13's flight. The dramatic episodes of the astronauts in danger are skillfully written by the author, who has already written two space books. The account includes not only the astronauts, but also the ground controllers and their differing concepts of the exciting events taking place. An interesting view of the Soviet space program is given by Leonid Vladimirov in his book THE RUSSIAN SPACE BLUFF: THE INSIDE STORY OF THE SOVIET DRIVE TO THE MOON. The author is a former Russian engineer who defected to the West several years ago. Events prior to that time are explained in terms of his personal observations while later events are based on his analysis of published Soviet accounts. The author emphasizes the part played by S. P. Korolov, who was the leader of the astronautics program. Vladimirov contends that Russia was not as advanced in its space projects as the U.S., but used propaganda to present a more favorable picture to the Western world. For the patron looking for books of a more general nature we have just recently ordered George Abell's EXPLORATION OF THE UNIVERSE, a well-illustrated volume which surveys the entire field of astronomy. This introductory text covers such topics as telescopes, the solar system, light, planets, stars, galaxies and cosmology. This is a title that will appeal to the reader seeking an approach to the study of astronomy that is not overly technical. A good companion to Abell's book is Joseph H. Jackson's PICTORIAL GUIDE TO THE PLANETS. This is an account of the planets which is informative and written in a descriptive rather than a highly technical style. It discusses features of each planet as well as space exploration, life on other planets, etc. This is also a well-illustrated volume, with several of the illustrations in color. A title which reads almost like science fiction is BLACK HOLES: THE END OF THE UNIVERSE? by John Taylor. Nobody has ever proven the existence of black holes - areas of intensely dense antimatter formed by collapsed stars - but theoretical astrophysicists like to speculate on their existence since they would explain so many unanswered questions. In this book a math professor from London University interprets the physicists' theories and carries them to imaginative lengths. The serious student may find this book over-simplified but readers who like their gods arriving in chariots will find some astronomical frissons here.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center's Spring Lecture would really have suffered if Garden Center member Mrs. Wesley R. Johnson had gone off to lie on a sunny beach.

Her helpers did that very thing, but fortunately for the Garden Center—although SHE may not have seen it that way—Mrs. Johnson was local in January, February, March and early April.

So most of the lecture planning was left in Mrs. Johnson's most capable hands, and she has discharged her responsibilities most capably.

Of course, this year's Garden Center Spring Lecturer is an utter charmer, a joy to work with, a GUARANTEED crowd-pleaser...

I do feel a bit silly writing about the gloriousness of me.

But I do think I take rather good, (for an amateur), 16mm color movies, and I'm utterly delighted that the Garden Center has asked me to show them, and I believe you'll find the program interesting.

Since many readers of this column have indicated an interest in my most recent travel articles, on Pakistan and Afghanistan, I'll be covering this territory Wednesday, April 24, at 11 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

I'll have pictures of Hunza and Swat, of the Rajah of Punal and his two daughters, of the Khyber Pass, the Valley of Bamiyan and the lakes of Band-i-Amir.

And since, when I show my films privately, the Galapagos reel elicits the most "oh's" and "ah's," I'll be showing it, too. Even I can hardly believe what my own eyes have seen in the Galapagos: I think it actually BEATS East Africa as the Greatest Show on Earth.

Just wait until you see my close-up of a blue-footed booby...

Reservations for the subscription luncheon following yours truly's fabulous presentation, "Places Time Forgot," at $4.50 each, must be received, with checks, in the Garden Center Room at the War Memorial by next Thursday, April 18.

Home from the south, tanned and ready to act as hostesses, are the indefatigable Mrs. Johnson's fellow committee members, the Mesdames John A. Dodds, Livingstone Howard, David N. Viger, Crawford Frost, Edward F. Lambrecht, Merlin A. Cudlip and John C. Cook.

Short and to The Pointe

MARY SCHMITT, daughter of the JAMES F. SCHMITTS, of Prestwick road, has been elected president of Eastern Michigan University's student body. A sophomore majoring in Political Science, she says she'd like to become a lawyer.

Co-chairman of the fourth annual Michigan Electron Microscopy Forum Symposium scheduled for Wednesday, May 8, at Henry Ford Hospital is DR. CHARLES A. BAECHLER, of Nottingham road, who joined Wayne State University School of Medicine's Department of Physiology after seven years of research at Parke-Davis. Dr. Baechler is currently involved in electron microscopy in Ford's Specialized Center of Research for Thrombosis and Hemostasis. He holds degrees in Science, Biology and Medical Microbiology from Ohio State University, the University of Toledo and Wayne State University. The Symposium's keynote presentation on Membrane Biogenesis will be presented by Yale University Department of Anatomy chairman DR. RUSSEL J. BARNETT, current president of Electron Microscopy Society of America.

Among 52 upperclass Purdue University women recently selected for membership in Mortar Board, national honor society for senior women, is CHERYL LYNCH, daughter of MR. and MRS. RAY J. LYNCH, of Ballantyne road. Cheryl also was honored recently by the Purdue Recreation Association, receiving the Harry D. Edgren Outstanding Junior Award.

Zonta Gives Kidney Machine To Hutzel

JOHN M. O'LANE, M.D., of University place, has been appointed Saint John Hospital's first full-time Chief of Obstetrics and Gynecology. He was also recently named Clinical Associate Professor of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Wayne State University School of Medicine. Dr. O'Lane, who earned his Bachelor of Science and M.D. degrees from the University of Washington, served his internship at King County Hospital, Seattle, and was a Lieutenant Commander in the United States Navy, serving his residency at the Naval Hospital, San Diego, Calif., is a diplomate of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology. He's the father of eight children: JOHN, 18, planning to study pre-law at WSU, Grosse Pointe South High School students TOM, 17, HOWARD, 15, SALLY, 14, Pierce Middle School seventh grader ALAN, 13, and Maire Elementary School students MARY, 11, KEVIN, 10, and nine-year-old KAREN. Dr. O'Lane came to Saint John from Ridgecrest, Calif., where he had a large private practice and was a member of the School Board and Rotary. Prior to moving to California he was Assistant Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Temple University Health Services Center, Philadelphia.

Among exhibitors in the display of work by graduating students of the Consolidated Art Department of the University of Detroit and Marygrove College which opened April 7 in the galleries of Marygrove Liberal Arts Building's fourth floor is Pointer SARA LAURI. The exhibition will continue through May 11.

Grosse Pointe North High School graduate SHELLY A. BILKOVIC, daughter of the EDWARD J. BILKOVICS, of Brys drive, has enlisted in the United States Air Force and will begin basic training May 10 at Lackland Air Force base, Tex., then will enter advanced skill training as an Imagery Interpreter at Lowry Air Force Base, Colo.

Eastern Michigan University senior JAMES CASAZZA, son of the EUGENE CASAZZAS, of Meadow lane, has offers from four prestigious graduate schools. An Economics major with a grade point average of 3.79, Jim is still trying to decide where he'll continue his studies.

Grosse Pointe North High School graduate MIKE SCHOMERS, son of the ROY SCHOMERS, of Allard avenue, won two events recently competing as a member of the Western Michigan University track team. A transfer from Macomb Community College where he placed sixth at the national Junior College Meet in the shot put, Mike took javelin throw honors with a toss of 180'2" and the discus event with a heave of 148'11" at the March 30 WMU Invitational.

CHET CRAFT, of Moran road, is one of 10 Michigan area agency advertising men nominated as the Detroit Club's 1974 Advertising Agency "Man of the Year." The Club of Detroit is composed of industrial, trade and business publication executives in the Michigan area. Results of the voting will be announced at Detroit's third annual Friars Roast, scheduled for next Tuesday, April 16, at the Sussex House in Southfield.

University of Detroit graduate CHARLES B. GOREY, JR., of Stephens road, Chrysler Corporation Vice President—Far East and Africa, has been named to the Marygrove College board of trustees.

JEAN HUGLI, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILFRED HUGLI, of Three Mile drive, has enrolled at the Katharine Gibbs School in Boston for the Special Course for College Women. Jean received her Associate in Arts degree from Green Mountain College, Vermont.

PHIL LEON, of Lakeshore road, playing with MARY ANDERSON, of Los Angeles, won first overall in a 400-player special game held in conjunction with the Spring North American Bridge championships of the American Contract Bridge League in Vancouver, B.C.

JOHN WARGELIN, of Grosse Pointe North High School's Art Department, reports that several North High Art students received honors recently in the Annual Michigan Youth Arts Competition. Accepted in regional judging for inclusion in the all-State show were works by NELSON WALTON, MIKE SMITH, PAULA STEMPCZYNSKI, MARC DAUPHINAIS, KRIS ARO and two by TOM DONAHUE, exhibited for two weeks at the Dearborn Fed-

Tuesday Musicales Sets Artist Concert

Subscription Luncheon to Follow Program by Detroit-Born Pianist Ruth Meckler Laredo; Mrs. Joseph Shaheen Is Accepting Reservations

Ruth Meckler Laredo will star in this year's Tuesday Musicales Artist Concert, to be presented Tuesday, April 30, at 10:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. A subscription luncheon will follow Mrs. Laredo's performance.

Mrs. Joseph Shaheen, of Yorkshire, Tuxedo 2-0710, is accepting luncheon reservations at $5.50 each through Wednesday, April 24.

Members may attend the concert only at no cost. Guests who wish to attend the concert only will be asked for a $2 donation.

Tables accommodate eight persons and members may indicate with whom they wish to be seated when they make luncheon reservations.

The guest artist, Ruth Meckler Laredo, is a native Detroit, daughter of Redford High School's assistant principal. Ruth's mother, a piano teacher, guided her daughter's musical education after she showed a very early interest in piano.

Ruth could play a tune at three, could duplicate whatever her kindergarten teacher played and began her formal training with the late Edward Bredshaw at 10. That same year she won the Ossip Gabrilowitsch Scholarship.

At 11 she placed first in the Adult Division of the Chopin Commemorative Contest in Detroit and performed the Beethoven Piano Concerto No. 2 with the Detroit Symphony at the State Fairgrounds.

She won the Music Study Club's Gwaldis Luloff Award and was national runner-up in the Federation of Music Clubs' Stillman-Kelley Auditions at 15.

She belonged as a high school student to the Tuesday Musicales Student League and the Music Study Club's student group. Summer scholarships awarded by the Study Club enabled her to attend Indian Hill Music Workshop in the Berkshires, where she studied with Seymour Lipkin.

Mischa Kottler was her teacher in Detroit until she was graduated from Mumford High School magna cum laude. On scholarship at the Curtis Institute, she studied with Rudolph Serkin.

She has performed with America's leading orchestras, including the Philadelphia, Detroit, Boston and American Symphonies, the latter under Leopold Stokowski, in solo recital, on records and with her husband, Bolivian violinist Jaime Laredo.

A week prior to the Artist Concert Tuesday Musicales members will gather in the Lecture Hall of Detroit Institute of Arts at 10:30 o'clock for a program meeting: Adventures in French Music.

Pointer Eleanor Lorentzen Peets is chairman of the day. Bernice Van Husen is program chairman. Mrs. Douglas P. MacIntosh is the Musicales' current president.

Burke-Eichenlaub Vows Exchanged

Pair Are at Home in Kensington Road After Toronto Vacation; Sacred Heart Chapel Is Setting for March 23 Rites

Janet Marie Eichenlaub designed all the bouquets and floral arrangements, including centerpieces for the tables at Athena Hall, setting for the reception following the rites, for her Saturday, March 23, wedding to Paul Valentine Burke.

They spoke their vows at a 6 o'clock candlelight ceremony in the Grosse Pointe Academy's Sacred Heart Chapel, where hyacinth plants were placed at every pew and mixed pink floral arrangements decorated the altar.

Father Rinhart Sternemann presided at the nuptials. Bill Eichenlaub, the bride's brother, played the organ, Don Palazzolo the guitar.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Eichenlaub, of Three Mile drive, wore a gown of cream taffeta accented with cotton lace and grosgrain ribbon edged in pale pink.

Lace edged her Cathedral veil and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Honor maid Mary Beth Eichenlaub, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids Mrs. Danny Kresse, another sister, Mrs. Paul Skowronski, the bridegroom's sister, Sandra Bracci, Sue Harning and Ree Shermetaro wore Empire frocks of rose velveteen.

Cream lace accented their scoop necklines and long sleeves.

Their nosegays were fashioned of bridal pink roses, pink rubrum lilies and baby's-breath.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Edward Burke, of Yorkshire road, Detroit, asked Jim DeLoof to act as best man.

In the usher corps were Timothy Burke, brother of the bridegroom, Mark and Bob Eichenlaub, the bride's brothers, Frank Lelo and Mark Fontana, Jack Eichenlaub and Thomas Burke, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, were altar boys.

The mother of the bride chose a long floral crepe shirtwaist, sashed in pink, for her daughter's wedding. She wore pink roses in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother selected a floor length mint green knit, long-sleeved and a line-skirted, and a small bouquet of pink roses and baby's-breath.

Among special guests were

Cooper-Miller Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Miller, of West Elizabeth, Pa., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Betsy, to Michael R. Cooper, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Cooper, of Lakeland avenue.

Miss Miller was graduated from the University of Michigan and is completing work for her Masters degree in Education and Guidance Counseling Certification from Duquesne University, Pittsburgh. She is presently a teacher in Pennsylvania's Mount Lebanon School District.

Her fiance, a Grosse Pointe High School alumnus, is a University of Michigan magna cum laude graduate and Woodrow Wilson Fellow. He is now in the Geophysics doctoral program at Stanford University. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa honorary and Phi Kappa Tau social fraternities.

An August wedding is being planned.

Ribbon Farms Plans A Trip

The Ribbon Farms Chapter of Quilters will travel to Windsor for luncheon as guests of Mrs. William Kabush next Thursday, April 18. Members will meet by 10 o'clock at the Belanger road home of Mrs. John Schneider.

The bride's 88-year-old great-aunt, Mary MacNamee, of Columbus, O., and the James Peppys, of Milwaukee.

The newlyweds vacationed in Toronto and are making their home in Kensington road, Detroit.

Grand Marais Seats Officers

Mrs. Norman Parker was elected president of Grand Marais Quilters at the Chapter's Friday, April 5, meeting at the East Jefferson avenue home of Mrs. John MacKay.

Elected with Mrs. Parker to serve as Grand Marais officers were Mrs. Stanley C. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Chatterson, Mrs. J. Edward Schutte, Mrs. Eugene H. Holstead, Mrs. Robert O. Arner and Mrs. Charles Wright, III.

Following installation of the officers by Mrs. Keith Leibbrand and retiring president Mrs. Charles E. Fisher, Mrs. Wright presented a program on pattern glass, describing pressing techniques in use in 1820 and pre-Civil War leaded glass.

Members brought samples of numerous patterns, including English Hobnail, King's Crown, Daisy and Button, Willow Oak, Mascotte, Sawtooth and Sandwich glass.

Mrs. Wright's presentation was in preparation for the Chapter's May trip to the Toledo Institute of Arts to study the Libby Collections. Former Pointe resident Mrs. John Makara has invited the members to stop at her Gibraltar home for brunch.

The Grand Marais Chapter has welcomed to membership Mrs. David Van Note.

Griffin-Rosser Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher of Sanford, N. C., have announced the engagement of his daughter, Lynne Michelle, to George William Griffin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert James Griffin, of West Crescent lane.

Miss Rosser attended Queens College in Charlotte, N. C., and is a senior at Wake Forest University. Her fiance, a graduate of Duke University, is presently employed at Wright School, Durham, N. C.

The wedding is planned for June 1 at Saint Luke's United Methodist Church, Sanford.

D. J. DiLaura Claims Bride

Douglas John DiLaura, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. DiLaura, former Kerby road residents who now make their home in Westwood, N.J., claimed Jan Hazen Dysart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dysart, Jr., of Needham, Mass., as his bride Saturday, April 6.

Presiding at the 2 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church, Needham, were Mr. Harold Chase and Father Charles Cushing, the bridegroom's uncle.

After a reception at the Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., the newlyweds left to vacation in Rome, Italy. They will return to make their home in Pompano Beach, Fla.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a white maracaine jersey gown designed with a high neckline, long fitted sleeves and a skirt extending into a chapel train. Beaded Alencon lace appliques accented her fitted bodice and natural waistline.

Her illusion veil fell from a matching appliqued headpiece, and she carried a cascade of white flowers.

She was attended by her sister, Patricia C. Dysart, in a high-necked, long-sleeved frock of pink maracaine jersey, as maid of honor, and by bridesmaids Deborah A. Dysart, another sister, Mrs. John Dymtrow, of Bradenton, Fla., the bridegroom's sister, and Kathleen A. Crane, of Brookline, Mass., whose frocks were fashioned of emerald green maracaine jersey.

They wore matching Dior bows in their hair and carried bouquets of pink and white roses.

Charles DiLaura acted as his brother's best man. Ushering were Mr. Dymtrow, Brooks Sawyer, the bride's cousin, of Dover, Mass., Dennis Damato, of Waltham, Mass., Richard Hartwell, of Bedford, Mass., and Kenneth Bickford of Battle Creek.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR EICHHORST have moved from Kenmore drive to Norwood drive, Harper Woods.

Betrothed

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Steketeec, of Chalfonte avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter CAROL LYNN to Dr. Richard Allen Pittsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pittsley, of Midland. A June 22 wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, will receive her degree in Nursing from the University of Michigan in May. Her sorority is Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Dr. Pittsley was graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School last June and is presently serving his internship at Kaiser Medical Center, Oakland, Calif.

Some self-appointed critics have qualifications but they have passed upon.

Sisters Are Engaged

Mrs. Flora Grzebyk, of St. Clair Shores, has announced the engagements of her daughters, MICHELLE MARKOV, (left), of Norwood drive, to Frank Hodakoski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodakoski, of Fraser, and SANDRA MARKOV, a former Beaconsfield road resident, to Peter MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald, of Beaufort road. Both girls are also daughters of the late Mike Markov. Michelle and Frank plan an October wedding. Sandra and Peter will be married in July.

T. C. Tilley, III, Wed in West

Thomas Clark Tilley, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Tilley, of San Juan, Puerto Rico, formerly of Grosse Pointe Farms where Mr. Tilley served as City Attorney, claimed Joanne Engel, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Francis Engel, of Hightstown, N.J., and the late Mr. Engel, as his bride Friday, March 29, in the Chapel of the Holy Family of Saint John's Episcopal Church, Boulder, Colo. The ceremony at which The Reverend Henry Lewis of Palo Alto, Calif., the bridegroom's uncle, presided was followed by a reception at Boulder's Harvest House, during which newlyweds and guests were serenaded by the New Wizard Oil Combination, a group of Boulder and Denver business and professional men, similar to Grosse Pointe's Grunyons and under the direction of Dr. Walter S. Collins, a former Grunyon. The bride is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, the bridegroom a graduate of Cranbrook School and the University of Michigan, where he affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Both are former members of the San Juan Caribbean Consolidated School System faculty. Sabra Dunham, of St. Paul, Minn., attended the bride. Best man was Joseph Rappa, of San Juan. Miles King and Douglas Thorburn, both of Boulder where the newlyweds will make their home, ushered.

June Bride

Planning a June 28 wedding in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church are MARILYN OPDYKE and Dan Danosky, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Opdyke, of Fairway drive.

The bride-elect, an Our Lady Star of the Sea High School graduate, is a junior in the University of Michigan's School of Business Administration.

Her fiancé, son of the William Danoskys, of Allen Park, received his Bachelor of Arts in Education degree, in English, from the University of Michigan. He is currently teaching English and coaching track at the Holly Oaks Middle School, Holly.

In his self-appraised worth a man's figures don't lie, but his estimates are misleading.

Book Review Group to Meet

The Friday Book Review Group of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church has asked Mrs. Ray A. Kiely to describe her several trips to the Near East and Israel, both as tourist and tour director, Friday, April 19, at the Church.

The meeting starts with tea at 12:45 o'clock. Mrs. Kiely's talk is titled The Promised Land Within.

In charge of refreshments is Mrs. Waldo Fellows, as-isted by Rose Barton, Mrs. Frederick Evans, Mrs. Howard Harrison, Mrs. Philip Davis, Mrs. Robert Henry, Mrs. Ivan Kirilin, Mrs. Frank McIntyre, Mrs. William Bundeson, Mrs. R. L. Shepard and Hulda Martin.

Mrs. Gust Jahnke will open the program with devotions.

Remote difficulties are easily cleared up by doing immediate duties today—not tomorrow.

'Tartuffe' To Raise Scholarship Funds

Seven Eastern Colleges' 1974 Benefit to Be Theatre Party at Hilberry; French-Theme Afterglow Will Follow Performance

Members of the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Colleges, Inc., are busily finalizing arrangements for their 1974 theatre benefit to raise scholarship funds for outstanding Michigan students who want to attend Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar or Wellesley.

Moliere's "Tartuffe" will be presented Saturday, April 27, at 8:30 o'clock at Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre.

Because this year's committee aims to stimulate involvement in Inner City activities, the Wayne State setting was chosen.

An optional subscription dinner will precede the performance and, as a special attraction this year, a complimentary wine and cheese afterglow will follow.

All are welcome to join in the French-theme afterglow festivities.

The Birmingham-Bloomfield Art Association has arranged for an art display in the Hilberry lobby.

Chairman of this year's benefit is Mrs. John E. Barnes, Jr. Her committee include Pointers Mrs. John Controulis, Mrs. William Sallot, Mrs. Bradshaw McKee and Mrs. Edgar Gordon, in charge of advertising. Program books responsibilities are shared by Mrs. G. G. McHugh, Mrs. Jerome Ahlbrand, Mrs. Roger Harter, Mrs. H. James Gram, Mrs. D. D. Krickbaum and Mrs. John Morris. Publicity chairman is Mrs. David Wenzler.

Tickets are being handled by Mrs. Charles Tholen, Mrs. Albert Dickson, Mrs. Charles Marsh and Mrs. Ernest J. Olde, special arrangements by Mrs. G. Clark Whitney, Mrs. Milton Hoffman and Tamar Kuehne.

Mrs. Herbert Fisher is general chairman of the Committee. Vice-chairman is Mrs. Sidney Kelly.

Corresponding secretary and calendar coordinator is Mrs. J. Ahlbrand, recording secretary is Mrs. Gordon, treasurer is Mrs. Kenneth McCoy, College Information chairman is Mrs. John Mozena, special events chairman is Mrs. Philip Moon and Registered Agent is Mrs. Leonard Grabow.

In addition to Committee officers individual college club presidents have recruited their members to work for the benefit.

Presidents are: Barnard, Mrs. Sidney Kelly, Bryn Mawr, Mrs. Bruce Steinhauer, Mount Holyoke, Mrs.

Mozena, Radcliffe, Mrs. John Burdakin, Smith-Birmingham, Mrs. James Dickerson, Smith-Detroit, Mrs. Frederick Fordon, Vassar, Mrs. Donald McCormack, Wellesley-Birmingham, Mrs. Robert Suke-nik, and Wellesley-Detroit, Mrs. Robert Everett.

The Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Colleges was formed in 1938 and incorporated in 1957 in the belief that a joint endeavor would increase the annual scholarship fund-raising projects previously carried on separately by the seven alumnae groups.

The united alumnae organization also has publicized the educational standards of the seven colleges and their great need for private endowments.

Each year the Detroit Committee sponsors one fund-raising project. Its aim is twofold: to raise funds to be applied toward scholarships for outstanding local students, (several hundred Michigan girls have received scholarship funds from the more than $160,000 netted through the Committee's projects), and to sponsor cultural and educational events in the Detroit area.

In the past years the Committee has presented such guest speakers as then Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, Henry Cabot Lodge, Edward photo by Rick Montgomery September wedding plans are being made by KELLY MARIE MCGOWAN and Steven Lee Tafinger, whose engagement has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Eugene E. McGowan, of Hollywood avenue.

Fall Bride

The bride-elect, who is also the daughter of the late Mr. McGowan, works as a private secretary for Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Her fiancé, son of the Donald Tafingers, of Findley, O., holds a Masters degree from Michigan State University and is a member of Chrysler Corporation's Corporate Finance Staff.

R. Murrow and Arnold Toynebe.

It has offered theater for children, Cordon Bleu cooking lessons and bridge lessons by Goren.

For four years the Committee sponsored a Pops concert featuring Arthur Fiedler conducting the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Tickets for the theatre benefit at $7.50 each may be purchased through Mrs. Dickson in Grosse Pointe.

August Bride

DOROTHY HELENE BIST and Joseph Paul Shock, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bist, of South Rosedale court, are making plans for an August wedding.

Miss Bist, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, is presently employed by the Ludington News Company.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Shock, of Three Mile drive, was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School, attended Macomb Community College and is now studying Advertising at the School of the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts.

Seldom are a man's actions as good as the sample submitted.

LWV's Annual Meeting Stated

Members and guests of the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe will gather at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Wednesday, April 24, for the Pointe LWV's annual meeting.

Following luncheon at 12:30 o'clock an election of officers and adoption of the local study program for 1974-75 will take place.

Reservations are limited. They may be made by contacting arrangements chairman Mrs. Paul Eagan, 884-9702, or Mrs. Harold Jinks,

Pointe Book Club to Meet

Members of The Pointe Book Club will gather for their Monday, April 15, meeting at noon in the Balfour road home of Mrs. Wilfred Harrison. Mrs. James Lightbody, of Van K drive, and Mrs. Robert Palmer, of Lakeshore road, will assist the hostess.

Mrs. Enid DeTar will review "Twice Over Lightly" by Helen Hayes and Anita Loos.

Pointe Quester Group to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Questers will gather tomorrow, Friday, April 12, in the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Hugh Stalker. After a short business meeting called to order at 10 o'clock there will be a two-section program.

Various members will show prize antiques or unusual collections and give short talks about them. Included will be a rare milk glass figure, a 150-year-old diary, antique Waterford and other Irish treasures and an old spice box.

Each member will be bringing an antique or attic treasure to donate for a silent auction. This money-making project will provide funds for gifts the Chapter makes regularly to state and national historic preservation projects.

Mrs. John Pear, Mrs. Robert Winckler and Mrs. Sigfield Franz will assist with the luncheon.

Alpha Fellowship convenes at the Woods lane home of Mrs. Marlin Wickline at 12:30 in the afternoon.

Evening Group One has scheduled its meeting for 8 o'clock April 23, at the Ballantyne court home of Mrs. Samuel Harlan. Also meeting April 23 will be Evening Group Two, at 6:30 o'clock in the Church Parlor, with Mrs. Donald McNew, Miss Grace Simmons, Mrs. Maurice Dalesandro and Miss Beatrice Adams serving as hostesses. Devotions will be given by Miss Kathryn Sheedy assisted by Esperanza Manaligod, of The Philippines.

Five Pointes Plans Potluck

The Five Pointes Garden Club gathers Monday, April 15, at 12:30 o'clock for its annual potluck luncheon. Mrs. Robert J. Kazmarek, of Blairmoor court, will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Erickson, Mrs. Edward Weber and Mrs. Leonard Rochte.

Officers for the coming year will be installed, including Mrs. Ludwig Schiele, president, Mrs. William Nixon, vice-president, Mrs. Franklin Quale, recording secretary, Mrs. Jerome Seatrice, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Rochte, treasurer.

Service Is A Tradition for Pilot Club of Detroit

Officers of the Pilot Club of Detroit placed the Club's name on the fourth $3,000 kidney machine it has presented to the Kidney Foundation of Michigan Thursday, March 28 at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

The machine will be used by a Detroit area housewife who is undergoing lifesaving treatments at the Hospital's artificial kidney center.

Eventually the patient will be trained to use the machine at home with the help of her husband.

The gift of the kidney machine brings to $30,000 contributions made by the Pilot Club to the Kidney Foundation in recent years. The presentation was made in connection with the Club's 25th anniversary.

The Club marked its anniversary with a banquet at 7:30 o'clock Saturday, March 30, at Stuffer's Northland Inn. Among those attending was Pointer Ruth Lang.

President Mabel Schilk, of St. Clair Shores, reviewing the Club's activities, stressed the unique service group's efforts for the Kidney Foundation.

Despite heavy job responsibilities the 30 professional women in the Pilot Club have sponsored 23 charitable programs in the past 25 years.

The Club purchased two $3,000 artificial kidney machines in 1969 to start the Kidney Foundation's now well-established kidney loan closet. The closet has provided machines for more than 130 victims of kidney failure who have no means to acquire expensive equipment.

One of the artificial kidney machines, its plaque indicating it is the gift of the Club, recently kept a northern Michigan man alive for four years.

With the help of his wife he used the machine several times a week. During his four years on the machine the victim of kidney failure learned a new trade and supported his wife and two children.

In November, 1973, a suitable donor was found and the patient received a kidney transplant. Today he is on the way to normal health.

Pilot Club funds for the Kidney Foundation and other projects have been raised via card parties, sponsorship of visiting lecturers and sale of Halloween Trick or Treat candy.

The Detroit Club is one of 500 similar organizations in the United States affiliated with Pilot International. Its members are business and professional women.

Among them are a physician, an accountant, two woman bankers, (one an official of the Federal Reserve Bank), an attorney, a publicist, a retailer, an insurance agent and a communications expert.

A unique activity has provided members with a sense of "being together" every day. Each night when the 11 o'clock news comes on television each woman in her own home sits down to sew cancer pads for the Michigan Cancer Society.

As a result every Pilot Club member has been awarded a 100-hour Cancer Society volunteer service pin.

Some women have so many additions to their pins they are ashamed to wear them! It looks, they say, as if they are bragging.

Another pioneer project the Pilot Club helped bring into being is Camp Rankin, a summer recreation camp for victims of muscular dystrophy. Detroit was among the first to set up such a camp, with an assistant for each stricken camper. Now there are many in the United States.

The Pilot Club also helps adult victims of the disease, staging Christmas parties and special recreational activities for them.

When the late Louis Stone, druggist-philanthropist of Detroit's Third avenue, took it upon himself to see that underprivileged children could attend ball games, circuses and other outings, the Club hired busses and provided tickets for many events.

During the Korean War the Club donated $10,000 to the American Korean Foundation, to help Korean children.

Children's Hospital, the March of Dimes, Booth Memorial Hospital and Riverside Clinic have been among beneficiaries of the Club's philanthropic efforts.

Pilots are particularly proud of the Children's Clinic at Detroit's Franklin School. They established the clinic with a gift of $20,000 and the cooperation of the Detroit Board of Education.

Countless children still attend the Clinic for physical exams, eye tests and immunizations their families cannot afford. Neighborhood mothers, in special classes, learn rules for providing good nutrition despite food costs.

For the past eight years, the Club has maintained a scholarship fund at Wayne State University. There are no strings attached to the money. The University is free to use it for any student assistance it deems suitable.

The Detroit Pilot Club has been the winner of a national Lane Bryant Award for Volunteer Service.

At the anniversary dinner Mary Lou Hervey, of Detroit, chairman, reviewed the Club's 25 years, along with Pointer Ruth Gomprow, only remaining active charter member.

Mastectomy Talks Slated

The Michigan Cancer Foundation (MCF) will begin a new series of group discussions for mastectomy patients Monday, April 15.

The discussions, designed to help mastectomy patients deal with emotional and physical reactions to breast surgery, are conducted by MCF patient services and rehabilitation staff.

Each section meets once a week for 10 weeks from 10:30 to noon. A registered nurse and medical social worker attend each meeting, as advisors.

Discussions are held at the MCF Detroit headquarters in the Meyer L. Prentiss Cancer Center, corner of Warren and John R, Detroit.

Mastectomy patients can join either Monday, Wednesday or Thursday weekly discussion groups by calling Eugenia Tokarz at the Michigan Cancer Foundation, 833-0710.

The Foundation also coordinates a mastectomy visitation program. Volunteers who have experienced a mastectomy serve as "visitors" and advisors to hospitalized patients who have recently had breast surgery.

Musicians League To Meet April 23

Members of the Detroit Musicians League, including Pointers Ruth Burczyk and Helene Vabolis, will gather at the Women's City Club Tuesday, April 23, at 10 in the morning for their monthly meeting.

The forum will feature teaching material by Detroit composer Alice Richman. The program will include performances by Ms. Richman, Evelyn Larson, Martha Altee and Carolyn Jewell Anderson.

Society News Gathered from the Pointes

Listening In At North

The Grosse Pointe North High School Parent Club was called to order at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 20.

President Mrs. Thomas Diamond introduced Mrs. Floyd Nixon, co-chairman of the millage campaign, who informed members of the areas to be covered by the fractional increase in millage.

They include elementary class size reduction; instrumental music reinstatement at Grade Five; a skill Center teacher; program improvement in the middle schools; a high school alternative education program; improvement of middle schools; a secondary teacher consultant for the handicapped; and adjusted study for elementary school children with learning disabilities.

Mrs. Nixon reminded the board that the remaining millage was renewal for schools and libraries.

She requested permission to send out a letter stating that the board supports a "yes" vote on April 8, the letter to be reproduced in the Club's newsletter.

A total of $8,448 in the bank as of March 15 covered the sale of 1,025 baskets of red geraniums, 407 of pink ones and some plants to the Shore Club on a wholesale basis. The Geranium sale calling program is now underway.

The Spring Benefit chairman reported that the benefit was very successful, with 1,047 tickets sold, and expressed her appreciation to her committee.

It was reported that the Student Association of North is planning a walkathon for the March of Dimes and will distribute millage information.

The Club's Faculty representative announced that report cards were still being reviewed. Next year's cards will include comments and attendance.

New member of the teaching staff is Donna Leung, replacing Barbara Zarna on maternity leave.

Scheduling of students for next year is completed.

UTTER CONFUSION
Occasionally a man on the downward path is also traveling in the wrong direction.

Seek Members For Camp Fire

When the Camp Fire Fund Raising committee first announced plans for a 1974 Sustaining Membership Campaign few people understood much about it. March was chosen as starting point, when former and currently-registered members of Camp Fire Girls Detroit Area Council would be contacted.

A Sustaining Membership package has been mailed to 10,000 families in the tri-county area.

Each campaign package includes a pamphlet, a fact sheet to answer questions about the Detroit Area Council and its financial needs — and the all-important pledge card.

Anticipating that many people will neglect to do anything when confronted with all this, the Council has recruited the assistance of dozens of Camp Fire fathers.

It is the responsibility of these fathers to telephone the head of each Campfire household. The fathers will answer questions and make appointments to stop by and pick up any contributions.

This is the first time Camp Fire father-power has been organized on such a scale, although many dads are helpful during the annual Candy Sale and assist at traditional Mix and Fix weekends at Camp Wathana.

Camp Fire is a Torch Drive Agency. In 1973, 41 percent of funds needed to run the Council came through the United Foundation.

A full one-third of the budget has been generated by the Candy Sale; however this year's sale fell below the 1973 mark of 271,000 boxes — in other words, less profit.

The remainder of the budget has historically been provided by camping fees and donations.

Cost of running the Council for a stable membership figure continues to rise, and it is top priority to increase the membership and make the Camp Fire program readily available to every youngster in the tri-county area.

Plan Seven Eastern Colleges Benefit

Finalizing plans for the Detroit Committee for the Seven Eastern Colleges' theater party benefit, a performance of "Tartuffe" at Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre Saturday evening, April 27, are, (left to right), MRS. DAVID WENZLER, of Lochmoor boulevard, in charge of publicity, MRS. ROBERT EVERETT, of Woodland Shore drive, president of the Wellesley-Detroit Club, and MRS. JOHN CONTROULIS, of Moran road, and MRS. EDGAR GORDON, of Lothrop road, members of the advertising committee.

Easter Seal Kits Go Out

A unique fund-raising program is being employed in the Detroit area by the Easter Seal Society during its annual appeal which concludes Easter Sunday, April 14.

The technique, call Neighbor-to-Neighbor, will reach more than 200,000 households in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties without any door-to-door solicitation.

Twelve-thousand Neighbor-to-Neighbor kits containing Easter Seal fact sheets and contributor envelopes have been prepared during the past several months and distributed to block captains throughout the three counties.

Captains were enlisted during January and early February by telephone recruiters. The captains make the first contribution and pass the kits on to their next-door neighbors. Eventually the kits reach all the homes on a block before returning to the captains, who are responsible for turning them in for tabulation.

Neighbor-to-Neighbor follows the traditional mailing of Easter Seals to previous contributors and potential donors in the three counties.

The Society also is conducting Easter Lily Days sales and Buck-A-Cup Coffee Day programs in area restaurants in an effort to raise sufficient funds to maintain and expand present services and programs in the tri-county region.

Easter Seals maintains service and therapy centers in each of the three counties, annually assisting more than 2,000 handicapped children and adults.

The Easter Seal Center also operates year-round classes and clubs and summer day camps, underwrites the cost of wheelchairs and other special equipment

Cabaret Pops Opens May 11

Entertainment world greats such as Doc Severinsen, Erroll Garner and Richard Hayman will star at the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1974 springtime series of Cabaret Pops Concerts.

Beginning May 11 and running through May 25 at the Light Guard Armory this year's Cabaret Pops offers a combination of classic, popular and jazz music in a relaxed nightclub setting.

Cabaret crowds may order light refreshments and cocktails as they listen to the Orchestra and guest artists.

For the first time this year long-time Pops favorite Richard Hayman will be conducting all the concerts.

Kicking off the series is Doc Severinsen of the Johnny Carson Show, who makes his debut with the Detroit Symphony May 11 and 12. The program will be a musical tribute to the ladies in honor of Mother's Day.

The music of Lerner and Loewe will highlight a May 15 and 16 Night to Remember featuring the Rackham Symphony Choir and special vocal soloists.

The next four concerts are all-orchestral. Richard Hayman will lead the Orchestra in an evening of Million Dollar Movie Themes May 17 and 18 and take an international tour of Ports of Pleasure May 22 and 23.

The final pair of Cabaret Pops Concerts May 24 and 25 will be devoted to the DSO debut of internationally-renowned pianist Erroll Garner and his rhythm ensemble.

All performances, (except the Mother's Day concert, May 12, at 7 o'clock), are scheduled for 8:30 o'clock at the Detroit Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road.

Seating is at tables of four, priced at $20 and $18.

Tickets are available now at Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

Free copies of this year's Pops brochure or further information may be obtained by calling 961-0700.

Yachtswomen Meet Tonight

Yachtswomen, anticipating their spring fashion show, will work on table decorations at their meeting this evening, Thursday, April 11, at 8 o'clock at the St. Clair Yacht Club.

Hostesses are the Mesdames Gail Dennis, Joseph Mostek, Morley Piggott and Frank Weyburn and Ms. Jeanne Green.

Some 600 women annually attend Yachtswomen's spring fashion show, scheduled this year for Saturday, May 18, at the Detroit Yacht Club. Proceeds are used for philanthropic donations connected with marine interests.

Josiah Harmar DAR Will Meet April 20

The General Josiah Harmar Grosse Pointe Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will hold their April meeting and tea at the home of Mrs. Wayne and Miss Mildred Skaglin Saturday, April 20, at 12:30 o'clock. Co-hostesses will be the Misses Ruth and Florence Pendell.

Following the business session Harold Glassford will speak on Early Indian Tribes in Michigan.

Women interested in DAR membership may call 533-5207 for further information.

It takes money to make money — and a lot of something else.

AUTO FACTS
by KEN MEADE

Your car is just like a member of the family, and just like everyone of us, it can grow old. The fact is that each year there are 15,000 parts in your car to grow older — it's a really complex machine. Of course, we all know that some parts wear out sooner than others — and for these little emergency break downs, it's always good to be prepared. Have your car checked regularly, to keep it in good shape.

Regular car check ups as well as major and minor repairs can be handled by the competent staff at POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave., 884-7210. If you like call and make an appointment so we can schedule your car's service at your convenience. ## Easter Chicks Become Hens

That cute little live baby chick you want to buy your child for Easter will, in no time, grow into a big cackling hen—and a big headache for you.

Frank Andrews, executive director of the Michigan Humane Society, a Torch Drive service, warns adults against impulsively buying live bunnies, ducklings or chicks as Easter gifts for children.

"First of all, chicks, bunnies and all furry animals that don't groom themselves can carry salmonella. The germ causes fever and general malaise. And that's just one problem.

"We estimate that about three-fourths of the little creatures are accidentally injured by the children they are given to. The children, of course, are not malicious, but the little chicks and ducklings are extremely fragile. They are just not made to be handled.

"That great Easter gift can turn into a really traumatizing experience for the child who accidentally hurts it.

"And everybody who buys a baby Easter pet has to face the fact that the little thing grows up into a not-so-cute chicken, rabbit or duck.

"Sometimes they end up on people's dinner tables. More often folks bring them to the Humane Society while junior, who has made good friends with his very own Donald Duck, is waiting at the prospect of losing him."

Though unmanageable barnyard pets for Easter are discouraged by the Humane Society spring is a perfect time to adopt a home-loving puppy or kitten.

The Humane Society offers free health exams and verifications of good health from southeastern Michigan veterinarians within seven days of purchase.

Dogs from the Humane Society are $20. Cats are $15. This includes an ID tag, the free exam, preliminary shots, leash, collar and a $10 refund if the pet is spayed or neutered within six months.

The Humane Society is located at 7401 Chrysler drive in Detroit. Branches are at 37255 Marquette in Westland and 1700 Brown road in Pontiac.

Woods Garden Club to Meet

Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club's annual luncheon card party is scheduled for Friday, April 19, at 12:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. A bake sale planned by all members will be an added feature.

Alpha Gamma Delta Plans Reunion Day

Mrs. John Baetz, Jr., of Moross road, is chairman of decorations for the Alpha Gamma Delta celebration of International Reunion Day in Michigan scheduled for Saturday, April 20, at Wayne State University's McGregor Center.

Members of her committee planning to attend include the Mesdames George Auch, of Hawthorne road, Daniel M. Crocker, of Hidden lane, John Czerkis, of Manchester boulevard, Eugene Hillz of Newcastle road, Harold Mertz, of Woodside road, and Cornelius Redding, of Mount Vernon road.

The reunion honors Founders of the international fraternity for college women established at Syracuse University, N.Y., in May of 1904. The late Emily Butterfield, Detroit architect, was among the Founding eleven.

There are now 110 undergraduate chapters on college and university campuses in the United States and Canada, and more than 200 alumnae clubs and chapters.

Mrs. Robert Weddell is chairman of the day's activities which include a coffee hour at 11 o'clock, luncheon at noon and a program.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by contacting Mrs. Weddell at 271-8564.

Special recognition will be given members of the chapter recently installed at Eastern Michigan University who will be attending their first IRD.

Other Michigan chapters are located at Michigan State University, (installed in 1921), University of Michigan, (1922), Wayne State University (1959), Central Michigan, (1959), and Ferris State, (1963).

Wayne State undergraduates, Jane Albrecht, of St. Clair Shores, president, will be hostesses for the coffee hour.

Alpha Gamma Delta was the first National Panhellenic Conference group to establish a national altruistic project. It opened a summer camp for underprivileged children at Jackson in 1921. A similar camp was opened in Welland, Ont., in 1932.

The camp program continued until 1946.

In 1948 the fraternity educational project became education-centered. In association with the National Easter Seal Society a program for training professional vocational counsellors for handicapped people especially those with cerebral palsy, was inaugurated.

Since 1964 funds administered by the National Easter Seal Society-Alpha Gamma Delta have been devoted to training teachers and ad-

Mrs. Harley G. Higbie will be at the lecture, too. She's been vacationing in Hawaii.

Green Thumb Lecture

The Garden Center's next Green Thumb Lecture, scheduled for Wednesday, April 17, at 10 in the morning in the War Memorial's upstairs Garden Center Room, will feature another fantastic local speaker.

Buell A. Doelle, of Beverly road, has promised to discuss the Care and Feeding of Rhododendrons. He'll be introduced by Mrs. Clarence Maguire.

Miss Christine Edwards is chairman of the Green Thumb Lectures, open to all Garden Center members and their friends.

University Liggert Antiques Show

Mrs. William C. Beardslee opened her Provençal road home yesterday to chairwomen for the Ninth Annual University Liggert Antiques Show. The ladies gathered at 10:30 in the morning with Russell Carrell, of Salisbury, Conn., nationally-recognized antiques show manager.

Mr. Carrell will be directing the University Liggert Show, known as one of the country's finest, again this year.

It's scheduled for Thursday, June 13, through Friday, June 15, at the Liggert campus in Briarcliff drive. As always, a gala Wednesday night Preview Party will precede the general opening.

Archives Garage Sale

Members of the Archives of American Art 1974 Garage Sale committee will rendezvous at Jim's Garage next Monday evening, bearing "offerings," (antiques/white elephants/Asian objets d'art), for the September 21 and 22 cleaning-out-of-closets extravaganza.

They'll share cocktails and canapes from 6:30 until 8 o'clock while hearing about the Archives' Oral History Program, this year's Garage Sale beneficiary.

Fine Arts Presents "Fanny"

Fine Arts Society of Detroit will end its 1973-74 season with three performances of S. N. Behrman and Joshua Logan's musical play "Fanny," on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 19 and 20, at 8:30 o'clock, and on Sunday evening, April 21, at 7 o'clock, for which reservations must be made through Mrs. Donald F. Bliss.

Director is Mrs. Edwin F. Lau. Producer is Mrs. Joseph Kinney. Principals include Mrs. Donald Cole as Fanny, Mrs. Henry R. Klein, Albert M. Berteel, Donald Bliss, Donald Cole, William Dennes, James B. Hughes and Robert T. Hughes.

Also in the large cast of 28 are eight young people, children of Fine Arts members: Bonnie Deller, Marion Dickinson, Bonnie Lee Fox, Vicki Gracey, Jennifer Peters, Tom Peters, Douglas Pothoff and Tim Sinclair.

Dr. John A. Pericin is musical director. Mrs. Robert Hughes is choreographer.

Mrs. Justin L. Giltner is in charge of set design and, because the play is set in Marseille, France, Diamond T. Phillips, of The Old Place, will feature after-theatre supper Crepes a la Reine at the Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

ministrators working with persons handicapped by learning disabilities.

Last year an additional grant was made to the National Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

In 1962 to honor the Founders and their alma mater, a periodical library and an annual symposium of professionals working in the area of remediation of handicaps caused by cleft palate and cleft lip were established at Syracuse University.

Since 1964 scholarships have been available to members of Alpha Gamma Delta. Several grants have been made to Canadian projects for handicapped children and adults.

The fraternity has disbursed more than $300,000 nationally for these and other philanthropic projects, and many thousands of dollars and uncounted hours of service have been given locally to altruistic purposes both by the undergraduate and alumnae members.

Pointe Garden Club To Meet

The Pointe Garden Club's Monday, April 15, meeting will be held at the Rivard boulevard home of Mrs. Philip Gould. Mrs. Robert Conder, Mrs. John G. Keyes and Mrs. Byron B. Phillips will assist the hostess.

Miss Louisa Butler, daughter of the founder of the Audubon Society, will present a lecture and slides on birds.

Grosse Pointe North High School graduate CHRIS WILSON made his collegiate debut recently as a golfer for Western Michigan University, shooting rounds of 79 and 76 at the March 30 and 31 Eastern Kentucky Tournament to finish fifth in individual and share third place in the seven-team match.

Music Project For Symphony

A joint project for the commissioning and performing of new works by distinguished American composers will be undertaken by a group of the nation's most prestigious symphony orchestras beginning next year.

The major portion of this project, an important phase of the American Bicentennial celebration, was developed and will be administered by Marshall W. Turkin, executive director of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Funding, in the amount of a $206,000 grant, has just been announced by the National Endowment for the Arts and its Bicentennial Commission.

The monies are to be shared between the Detroit, Cincinnati, National, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and San Francisco Symphony Orchestras.

Commissioned composers include Michael Colgrass, Jacob Druckman, Morton Gould, George Rochberg, Ned Rorem, Lorin Rush and Gunther Schuller.

Each work by the seven composers will be performed by all participating orchestras during a three-year period in rotating order, with the world premiere of Morton Gould's new work scheduled for Detroit in 1975-76.

Martha Cook Luncheon Set

The Martha Cook Alumnae Association of Detroit will hold its annual spring scholarship luncheon Saturday, April 27, at Stouffer's Northland Inn, starting with an 11:15 o'clock social hour.

All proceeds benefit residents of the University of Michigan dormitory for scholastically excellent junior and senior women.

The English Gothic building was erected in 1915. The Association was established in 1935.

Guest speaker at the luncheon will be Gertrude Huebner, presenting Reminiscences of a Lady Regent. A former Martha Cook resident, she presently serves on the dormitory's board of regents.

The Royal Oak Musical Choral Ensemble will perform.

Colony Towne Party Planned

Colony Towne Club members and guests will rendezvous at Bloomfield Hills Country Club Friday, April 19, for their spring luncheon and card party under the sponsorship of members Mrs. Jesse C. Vincent and Mrs. Roger V. Walker.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders and Mrs. Walker.

Committee members greeting guests will include Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, Mrs. Milton A. Darling and Mrs. Herman D. Scarney, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Laurence J. Hetzelt and Mrs. William G. Walters, of Birmingham.

Also helping will be Mrs.

William H. Bundesen, of Lincoln road, Mrs. John McNeil Burns, of Colonial road, Mrs. Alfred H. Cousins, of Bedford road, Mrs. Emmet C. Gentleman, of Notre Dame avenue, Mrs. Raymond E. Harms, of Ford court, Mrs. Carol N. Traxler, of North Renaud road, and Mrs. Vincent, of Bedford lane.

Other hostesses are Mrs. E. Stephen Gurdjian, Mrs. Gayard F. Lafer, Mrs. Sterling S. Richhart and Mrs. Gaylord H. Todd, of Detroit, Mrs. Robert J. Hesse, of Warren, and Mrs. Hugh R. Purdy, of The Shore Club.

Colony Towne Club members provide many volunteer hours and funds towards support of the Cancer Loan Closet of Greater Detroit, and participate in a variety of other charitable activities.

FIRST OFFERING

HARD TO FIND so it should sell quickly. We have just listed a colonial near Public and Catholic schools. The kitchen has recently been updated with new refrigerator, stove, dishwasher, and disposal. Central air and lot's a new carpeting. We think you'll love it all, especially the large family room.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE

THE POPULAR COLONIAL with a hint of Cape Cod appeals to almost everyone from the curb. But wait until you get inside and take in that super family room with natural fireplace. Surprised you'll be to find five bedrooms upstairs, and all this house comes priced to attract a host of buyers.

A "MUST SEE" is this gracious French country house being offered in one of the best locations in Grosse Pointe Farms. From the curb the house appears overpowering, but inside you'll find four comfortable, family bedrooms and two more bedrooms over the attached garage. The first floor has a beautifully proportioned living room which is a step down from the large foyer with its circular staircase. The library is as large as many living rooms and the dining room formal enough for a State dinner.

GOOD THREE BEDROOM colonial priced in the mid-thirties. You young people will love the den, the two baths on the second floor and the price.

ALL GOOD THINGS come to those who wait and we are very proud to offer this most exquisite contemporary on S. Brys Drive. Every feature is special from the Philippine mahogany and Comolite stone exterior to the fully equipped kitchen which will delight the most fastidious chef. Four family bedrooms plus that secret bedroom over the heated garage. There's central air conditioning and an intercom system.

SHOULD BE SOLD this week. Only an old timer in the business can remember when you could buy a three bedroom house in this location with a cathedral ceiling in the living room with open rafters, full basement, two car garage, spruced up kitchen and a 1964 price tag of $31,900.

A STATELY HOUSE located in the Farms just a few feet from the Lake has become even more attractive because now it is available for purchase. Designed by Albert Kahn Associates, this petite mansion offers a large entrance foyer with marble floor, a large formal living room with magnificent fireplace and the dining room, library and living room all face the lake. Five bedrooms and four baths comprise the second floor. This one will appeal to everyone... we wish we had more.

St. Clare Math Program Completes Its First Year

By Kathy Duff

St. Clare of Montefalco's Prescription Math Inventory program is nearing the end of its first year. Sister Mary Agnes, math teacher for the seventh and eighth grades, feels that the program is a success even though it is only in its trial year.

"Before, the slow learners were able to hide their weaknesses," Sister Mary Agnes commented. "However, with the individualized testing and assignment program, each child learns to correct his problems. Three hours of tests are given to each student at the end of the school year, and when he returns to school in September, his assignments are laid out for him."

The teacher admitted that math abilities range widely in a junior high school class, sometimes up to a two year skills difference.

"I will sometimes hold a 'traditional' class, in that I will get before the class and explain a new math principle. We will then have a test on the material and any student who is still having trouble, I will work with in a small group."

While Sister Mary Agnes was discussing the math program, which is used in grades four through eight, business went on as usual in her classroom through the help of a volunteer teacher's aide. The volunteer, a retired teacher, would pull individualized lesson plans for the students from a file cabinet.

Her service enabled Sister Mary Agnes to work with the students who were having trouble with their assignments.

Acting Principal Sister Barbara explained the wide use of volunteers in the school. "We rely on a group of mothers to help in the library, in the art classes, and in many other specialized areas such as speech and our Great Books program.

"I think our entire school represents a high degree of dedication on the part of both the teachers and the parents. For many parents, it's not easy to meet tuition expenses. Last year, for example, the tuition went up 15 percent. However, it's a system of education that we all believe in."

About one-third of the teachers at St. Clare are Dominican Sisters associated with the mother house in Columbus, O. They live in the adjacent convent and get paid a small amount each month for living expenses. The other two-thirds of the teachers earn an average of $10,000 a year.

However, both teachers and students are dedicated to the parochial form of education. Right before the lunch hour, a seventh grade class set up a bake sale to benefit the Bishops Relief Fund. Both the boys and the girls in the class were involved in the project and one boy had cooked brownies the night before for the first time. The minute the lunch bell rang, the table was mobbed with fellow students eager to buy the cookies and candy.

Throughout the hallways, bright banners and posters were hung professing a love of God and Jesus Christ, a love of their fellow man, and a commitment to the family. It is definitely a place where God is not "dead" and the line between right and wrong has not been blurred by the relativity of the modern world.

The school, located in the last block of Audubon road at Mack, has 880 students. Most are members of the St. Clare of Montefalco Church which is located on the corner. The school itself is located in two buildings, one of which is 50 years old and houses the early grades.

A modern building contains seventh and eighth grades and has music facilities and the gym. The gym, scene of many victorious basketball games this past winter for both the boys' and girls' teams, was being used for an energetic floor hockey game Thursday morning, April 4.

The boys are required to wear jackets and ties to school, and some of them didn't bother to take off their ties for the indoor hockey game. The girls are required this year to wear red plaid jumpers with co-ordinated blouses, replacing the previous blue plaid jumpers.

"We wanted to eliminate any clothes competition which could exist among the girls," Sister Barbara commented. "So many of the mothers seem happy that we have uniforms."

The acting principal said class sizes average 25 to 26 pupils in the first grade, while the seventh and eighth grades average 31 pupils.

After graduating from eighth grade, many of the students continue to attend parochial schools by enrolling in Austin or Bishop Gallagher. Some, however, begin going to North or South High Schools.

Like the public schools, St. Clare faces a problem of decreasing enrollment. Sister Barbara said an average of 30 fewer pupils are enrolled in the lower classes each year.

The one area of the curriculum the principal sees as lacking is the electives offered to the older boys. Electives such as sewing and art are offered to the girls, but Sister Barbara would like to see woodcraft or mechanical drawing offered which would be of special interest to the boys. She is looking for men who could volunteer about an hour a week to instruct the boys.

Pointe Artists Exhibit Work

A collection of 34 paintings done by members of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association is currently on view at the Lochmoor Club. The show opened on Tuesday, March 26, and will run four weeks. Emily Wolf and Betty Prudden assisted president Julia Ford in hanging the works.

The exhibit is one in a series of monthly showings focusing on the Michigan artist. According to Mrs. Alex Domla, chairman of Lochmoor's Art Council, the group would like to have "a little art gallery, with a continuing program of individual and group shows, which includes local artists."

Founded in 1938 by 21 artists, the Association now has over 170 members. The group has an annual juried exhibition in May and for over 15 years has sponsored, in early September, the Art Festival on the grounds of The War Memorial.

Ohio Northern University Concert Choir has set a concert date of Saturday, April 27, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The choir, brought here by St. Paul Lutheran Church, is under the direction of Karl Roider.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets are $2 and additional information may be had by calling 881-8670.

There's not much hope for the fellow who fills up on dope.

Big Water Pool Slows Speeder

A 20-year-old Harper Woods man was pursued by police and apprehended after a high speed chase in The Shores and St. Clair Shores very early Thursday morning, April 4.

Shores police charged Louis Michael Dittmer with reckless driving and driving at night without headlights. He was released after posting a $150 bond pending his scheduled court date of Wednesday, April 24.

While going south on Lakeshore road, Corporal Dan Fronczak and Officer John Frasar spotted Dittmer going north without headlights. After turning around in an island, the officers pursued Dittmer at speeds over 85 miles per hour on wet roads, which contained a smattering of water pools.

Dittmer passed two other vehicles, slowed down for the curve at 1100 Lakeshore and then accelerated. In the entrance area of The Woods Lake Front Park in St. Clair Shores, Dittmer hit a large pool of water which covered the road from curb to curb, lost control of the auto and left the roadway.

Police said the vehicle caused lawn and tree damage before finally coming to a stop.

island, the officers pursued Dittmer at speeds over 85 miles per hour on wet roads, which contained a smattering of water pools.

Dittmer passed two other vehicles, slowed down for the curve at 1100 Lakeshore and then accelerated. In the entrance area of The Woods Lake Front Park in St. Clair Shores, Dittmer hit a large pool of water which covered the road from curb to curb, lost control of the auto and left the roadway.

Police said the vehicle caused lawn and tree damage before finally coming to a stop.

MARY ANNE BURSLEM, OF SEVERN ROAD

By Janet Mueller

She's so good she takes your breath away, and then, while you're still catching it, she's better. Last September, she won the Highland Dancing Eastern United States Open Championships-Junior Division in Kearney, N.J. Sunday before last, in this year's first spring competition, the 15th Annual Indoor Games sponsored by the Detroit Highland Dancing Society, she took both trophies: the membership and her age group.

She dances with joy, for joy. She practices two hours every day, in the basement, in front of a big, (five-and-a-half by four feet), mirror propped up against one wall.

Her mother, Leona, watches, criticizing, correcting—and applauding, when Mary Anne deserves applause.

Which is more often than either Mary Anne or Leona, perfectionists to the core, will admit.

Let's get one thing out of the way right now: Leona Burslem is no Red Shoes Svengali, no "stage mother," prompting and prodding her daughter to "Dance! Dance!" Nobody could STOP Mary Anne Burslem from dancing.

Has Two Classes

She takes formal classes twice a week. Sharon Capitani is her coach and teacher, first at Grosse Pointe Alger Post VFW, now in Warren. Before a competition, Mary Anne practices "a little bit more" than the usual two daily hours.

One of her classes is a "class" class. One is private. Somehow, she still finds time to be a thoroughly, delightfully normal 14-year-old. With a little more poise than most 14-year-olds, perhaps.

But that, given her background as a performer, is to be expected.

Mary Anne, a seventh grader at Our Lady Queen of Peace Junior High School, likes basketball, roller and ice skating. Member of her school's track team, she has run in AAU competition at Cobo Hall. The 50 and 600-yard dashes are her best events.

Note that all four of these sports demand strong legs.

Note too that being kicked by a Highland Dancer could be WORSE than being kicked by a Kung Fu expert.

For a while, Mary Anne was a cheer leader. "But it due. A new shipment has arrived, just in time for Easter, which includes two-piece and three-piece suits, skirts and dresses, some with jackets, in a choice of colors and materials, of polyester, cottons and feather-weight knits. Michelle's Boutique is open Friday evenings until 8 p.m. 886-1814.

Ring in Easter Sunday... with a beautiful crystal dinner bell from Wright's Gift & Lamp Shop, 18650 Mack Avenue. There are also lovely crystal compotes on pedestals with tear-drop prisms, exquisite multicolored candy dishes, wine and cordial glasses with harmonizing decanters... these lend great charm to table settings for Easter or holidays. Don't forget to send a card to that certain someone.

Mr. Sheridan—Books... 369 Fisher Road has a new exciting supply of old fashioned, hand decorated, panorama Easter eggs made of pure sugar. They make beautiful center pieces or lovely gifts for that special someone as they can be preserved as a "keepsake" over the years.

In Martha's Closet... 375 Fisher Road you will find some great accessories for the horticulturist such as garden gloves, hand cultivators, trowels and watering cans with white handles and decorated with bright red strawberries to make your gardening an interesting chore. All of us at Martha's closet wish to extend to all our friends A Joyous and Happy Easter.

Geranium Sale Is Underway

Grosse Pointe North High School Parent Club's annual geranium sale is underway. A flat costs $6. Colors are Irene Red and Salmon Pink. Students will deliver to buyer's doors May 18. Chairman Red Scherr of Grosse Pointe North High School, 886-8100, may be contacted to place orders.

Women Real Estate Counselors to Meet

Guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe Women's Real Estate Counselors meeting next Wednesday, April 17, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will be mortgage broker Ray M. Dresden. Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock will precede his talk.

Any woman in Real Estate is welcome to attend, Irene Pfeiffer, 884-6200, is taking reservations.

J. LEE SCHOENITH, of Lakeshore road, has been elected to membership in Young Presidents' Organization, Inc., a world-wide educational association of 2,800 chief executives who have become presidents of sizeable companies before the age of 40.

Among Eastern Michigan University undergraduates recognized for academic achievement at EMU's 26th Honors Convention were MICHAEL LEIDI, of Lincoln road, ROSEMARY LUNDY, of Ballantyne road, JOHN PETZ, of University place, JAMES CASAZZA, of Meadow lane, MARY HANDLOS, of Belanger road, BARBARA BARNETT, of Lakepointe avenue, SUSAN KAMISCHKE, of Whittier road, LOIS KAVANAGH, of Kensington road, and CLAUDIA EVATZ, of Lakeshore road.

MICHAEL DODGE, son of MR. and MRS. JOHN F. DODGE, of Yorkshire road, is studying in Caen, France, this semester under Kalamazoo College's Junior Year Foreign Study Program.

Member of the junior class at Judson School, Scottsdale, Ariz., is DEBRA BOOK, one of Judson's most dedicated equestrians, daughter of MRS. BENJAMIN S. WARREN, of Lakeshore lane, and HERBERT V. BOOK, of Southfield.

Grosse Pointe South High School students CAROL and JANET MOHMANN, daughter decided to check it out.

They went to watch. The class was rehearsing for a program the following day. There was a piper there. Skirts, kilts and music swirled. Feet flew.

"Oh, mother!" said Mary Anne, about six-and-a-half then, "Couldn't we come back next week and see some more!"

Turn to the first page of "My Highland Dancing Book" by Mary Anne Burslem, a collection of clippings, programs, photos and personal comments, and read how it all began:

Started at Seven

"I started taking dancing lessons when I was seven years old. My first competition was in 1968 at the Henry Ford Community College. My sister Cindy won a first place gold medal for her Sword Dance when she was a novice dancer. I won my first novice medal—first place gold—for doing my Highland Fling at Oakland University."

Cindy Burslem, whose Highland Dancing competition collection includes 15 trophies and 95 to 100 medals, still competes occasionally. She's studying for her Highland Dancing Teachers' Test this June. Certified, she'll be able to teach Highland Dancing.

So far, Mary Anne has 26 trophies and about 200 medals.

In April, 1969, at the 10th Annual Indoor Games in Detroit, she won her first Age Group medal and her novice trophy.

She picked up her first Age Group trophy at the Ligonier Highland Games in Ligonier, Pa. "All the family enjoyed the Pennsylvania countryside," the Highland Dancing Book notes. "Ligonier is just like a storybook town."

Competes Every Year

She's competed every year since '68, in the United States and Canada, but in the past year-and-a-half she's really begun to MOVE, winning 12 trophies in 12 competitions, from North Carolina to Canada.

Competitions are a family affair for the Burslems. "In the summer we all get together, (grandparents too, if the competition is within easy driving distance of Detroit), pack a lunch, and off we go for the whole day."

Since summer Highland Games competitions are held out-of-doors, even Bobby doesn't mind a day of music, color, athletic events and fun in the sun.

If the distance to be covered demands it, the Burslems may rise at 1 or 2 or 3 in the morning, pile into their station wagon and drive through the night, dancers Cindy and Mary Anne dead to the world in sleeping bags in the rear of the car.

Know How to Rest

Later, competing, the girls seem tireless, fresh. They are. They've disciplined themselves to get the rest they need when necessary, just as they've disciplined themselves to perform in a highly disciplined art.

Everything about Highland Dancing is prescribed. Each step is programmed to be performed in sequence.

Each dance is different. Mary Anne knows 14 in all, from Flora MacDonald's Fancy to the Sailor's Hornpipe.

Dress, too, is prescribed. Hair must be up and off the face. Shoes are custom made, and Mary Anne has four separate costumes. The kilts she wears for Highland dances is Anderson plaid, five-and-a-half yards around the hem when unpleated. Her blue vest, piped in gold braid with thistle-relief gold buttons, covers the lace blouse that just arrived from Scotland. Her socks, hand-framed, come from Ireland.

She dances the Hornpipe in a sailor suit complete with jacket, shirt, pants and authentic Sea Scout hat, the Irish jig in a puff-sleeved kelly green dress, short-skirted and demure with its own white eyelid apron and collar, and special leather-soled jig shoes.

Has Her Favorite

The "Flora MacDonald" is Mary Anne's favorite costume. Full white petticoat under a full, short skirt, plaid
