Thursday, April 25
HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE LAWYERS have recommended dropping as many as 30 of 56 potential impeachment charges against President Nixon, including questionable financing of his California and Florida homes. The committee's chief impeachment counsel and his Republican counterpart will make their recommendation today when the committee meets in public session to hear results of its legal staff's preliminary investigation. According to the lawyers draft proposal, the counsel intends to continue investigation of other allegations against Mr. Nixon.

REBEL ARMED FORCES overthrew Premier Marcello Caetano, using cannons and tanks to oust Portugal's dictatorial regime in protest against the African wars of the world's last major colonial power. Caetano handed over the government to General Antonio de Spínola, a liberal minded war hero who he had previously fired, and bowed to rebel demands that he and other high-ranking members of the government go into unconditional exile on the Portuguese Island of Madeira.

Saturday, April 27
LEAKING CHEMICALS from a storage tank in Chicago forced thousands of persons to evacuate their homes on the city's south side and National guardsmen were activated to clear people from the area as the nonflammable liquid vaporized into a cloud about five miles long, a half mile wide and 12,000 feet high. A number of persons were taken to hospitals complaining of dizziness, fainting and burning eyes, and police and firemen working in the area had to wear gas masks.

Sunday, April 28
A CROWD OF ABOUT 85,000 PEOPLE marched on the capital Saturday to urge that Congress impeach President Nixon. The crowd, mostly young and white, was orderly and good humored. The impeachment march was the first major demonstration of its kind since Mr. Nixon's second inauguration in January 1973. Many of the march sponsors were familiar faces from the anti-war protest days of the 1960's, including David Dellinger, Dr. Benjamin Spock, Jane Fonda and her husband, Tom Hayden, and former New York Representative Alard Lowenstein.

Monday, April 29
FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL John Mitchell and former Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans were acquitted of all nine counts of criminal conspiracy, perjury and obstruction of justice in connection with a secret $200,000 cash contribution to President Nixon's re-election campaign. The two had been jointly charged in connection with the contribution by international financier Robert L. Vesco. The jury of nine men and three women deliberated 26 hours over a four-day period, returning to the courtroom during their deliberations to listen again to portions of the testimony and transcript of the trial.

Tuesday, April 30
PRESIDENT NIXON, addressing the nation in a televised speech, said he would make public more than 1,200 pages of transcripts of his conversations about the Watergate break-in and cover-up, but he declined to directly obey the subpoena for the actual tapes of 42 presidential meetings with top aides already implicated. He said he would allow Judiciary Committee Chairman Peter Rodino and senior Republican member Edward Hutchinson to listen to all the tapes to check the accuracy of the transcripts. It is un-

Two New Judges Sit in G. P. Municipal Courts

Two of the three judges currently sitting in Grosse Pointe municipal courts were newly elected in the November 1973 balloting. Clockwise, (left to right), they are Park Judge JOHN URSO, Farms Judge ROBERT PYTELL, and Woods Judge J. PATRICK DENIS. The fourth judge, Douglas Paterson, is on leave and has asked Judge Denis to assume his City and Shores duties. Judge Pytell is in his seventh year on The Farms bench. Except for The City Court which meets on Tuesday, all municipal court sessions convene on Wednesday. The public is invited to sit in on the sessions and see, hopefully, justice in action.

Area Spirit Honored On Law Day

G. P. Lawyers' Wives Cite Young People, 'Concerned Citizens'

The Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives sponsored their annual Law Day awards ceremony on Wednesday, May 1, in The Woods' Municipal Building's council-court room chambers.

Two sets of awards were presented. First, Savings Bonds were given to the first, second and third place winners in the American Bar Association essay contest for grades seven, eight and nine.

Profligate Pens
The question was "Young America Lead the Way! Help preserve good laws, Change bad laws, Make better laws."

The seventh grade winner was Carole Ruwart, of University Liggett. The eighth grade winners were Mary Pat Jackman, first place; Teresa Day, second, and Peggy Emerich, third, all of St. Clare of Montefalco. The ninth grade winners were Bernadette Denneley, first; Lori Kodan, second, and Mary VandenBusche, third, all of Our Lady Star of the Sea.

The second set of citations were the Concerned Citizens Awards, given to Ronald Severini and Leon Sheoyan.

Lake Rescues
On October 28, 1973, Mr. Severini, 19, of Antia avenue, saw a car go out of control and sink into Lake St. Clair. Without hesitation, he dove into the cold and wind.

Pointe Municipal Judges, With Own Styles, View Their Roles on The Bench

Least Visible Group of Public Servants Give Insights Into Their Jobs and Dealing With People; Main Offenses Handled Are Traffic Arrests

By the least visible group of public servants in Grosse Pointe are the municipal judges. Few of us get the opportunity, or the misfortune, of meeting the judges unless we have made a left turn on Bedford road during rush hour, have driven too fast on Lakeshore, or have smoked a joint at The Farms Pier.

So here, for better or worse, is a profile of our three judges and how they view their role of municipal Judge.

Except for Judge Robert Pytell who has sat on The Farms' bench for seven years, the other two judges are relative newcomers. Woods' Judge J. Patrick Denis was picked from 18 candidates who filed for interim judge upon the retirement of Judge Don J. Goodrow. Judge Goodrow had served 26 years as Woods Judge. When the November 7 election came, Judge Denis was elected to serve an unexpired two-year term.

Park Judge John Urso was elected in November after running a vigorous campaign and defeating incumbent William Speer.

The fourth Pointe magistrate, City Judge Douglas Paterson, has asked Judge Denis to serve as "visiting judge" in The City until his return. Judge Denis also handles The Shores Municipal Court as did his predecessor Judge Goodrow.

Speedy Dispositions
Each of the judges brings his personal style to the bench. In The Woods Municipal Court, Judge Denis is known for the speed in which he disposes of the cases. He will start his court session promptly at 8:30 a.m. by reading an explanation of court procedures and the rights of the defendant. He will stress that a person should raise questions if unsure of his rights.

After reading the opening statement, Judge Denis will pass judgement on each case after hearing the testimony of the defendant and the arresting officer. If the arrest is routine and the defendant is not contesting the charge, discussion is kept to a minimum. A "guilty" plea case will often be disposed of in less than a minute.

The other two judges, Judge Pytell and Judge Urso, also hold court on Wednesdays in their cities' council rooms. Both take more time with each case and will explain rights to a defendant.

Center Drive Still Behind

A little more than $16,000 is still needed to meet the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's 25th Annual Family Participation Membership goal to balance the operational budget for the fiscal year beginning Thursday, August 1.

To date $93,776 has been received from 4,891 donor members compared to $66,721 from 5,008 last year.

Follow-up letters have been sent to all Pointe families who have not responded and Frederick C. Ford, Jr., drive chairman, is confident needed monies and memberships will be in by Monday, May 27, Memorial Day.

If it appears necessary, second follow-up letters will be scheduled but hopefully the additional mailing expense and volunteer effort will be eliminated through prompt response now that families are back from spring vacation and are coming to the Center for many May activities.

The Center is located at 32 Lakeshore road.

Elworthy Field Focal Point of City

Problems of Floodlights, Dugouts and Construction of Outdoor Ice Rink Receive Attention

By Nancy Kramer

Several items regarding the transformation of Elworthy Field came up at the regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe City Council on Monday April 15.

The first was an objection to work already completed, entered by Richard G. Mountford, of Neff road, Detroit. Mr. Mountford owns property on Neff in 'The City,' which he rents.

His contention was that the floodlights installed near the tennis courts allowing night games, infringe on the privacy of his tenants. Mr. Mountford asked the council to approve the planting of a six- or seven-inch tree, saying this would sufficiently diffuse the light.

Order Shields
"The trees that would have obstructed residents from the lights were removed during construction of the courts," he claimed.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach informed the council that the cost of a five to five-and-a-half-inch tree was approximately $450 and that a tree of Mr. Mountford's specifications was unavailable. He added the lights are timed to go off shortly after 10 p.m. each evening.

Mr. Mountford said sometimes the lights have been left on all evening to which Mr. Kressbach replied that this occurred during a two-week period when the meters were not functioning correctly. "We have ordered shields for the lights, he further informed the council.

Mayor John L. King told Mr. Mountford The City could not honor his request. "We will try the shields, but even if they aren't the answer, we can't promise we'll plant a tree," he said. "If we plant a tree for you, people with street lights in front of their houses will be wanting us to plant one for them. We want to cooperate, but we really can't do that."

Focus Oppos Dugouts
Another resident concern which came up at the meeting was first aired at the regular March council meeting. At that time, Richard Harrison, vice-president of The City's Little League, sought the council's permission to renovate old dugouts and construct new ones at the field's major and minor

YSD Counseling Story Surprises Woods Officials

Several Factors, Including Final Authorization on the Release of Police-Related Information, And Other Policy Matters, Causes Concern in Public Safety Department, City Administration

By Roger A. Waha

"Their actions hit me cold turkey," said Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand regarding the release of information, related to the Youth Service Division's new group counseling program, by YSD counselors Thomas Canasi and Fred Coonce last month. "Any policy changes will come from me," he stated.

So, the day after the front page story on this program was published in the Thursday, April 18, edition of the NEWS, Director Marchand issued a general order to all public safety department employees focusing upon new releases.

The order says, "All news releases pertaining to department policy, policy changes, feature stories concerning employees, bureaus, the department or similar and like matters shall ONLY be released by the Director of Public Safety or a person so designated by the Director of Public Safety."

"The only exception will be if you are interviewed concerning a specific case or incident on which you are personally involved, then a discussion shall prevail." A copy of the order was sent to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, YSD program coordinator.

"Hit Everyone"
While he had some knowledge of the group counseling program, Director Marchand said, "The YSD counseling article hit everyone. It looked like the counselors were making policy for the YSD. We want to keep the concept of the YSD like a police agency, not a social agency."

The director expressed concern over a number of items in the April 18 story. The articles for donations of various articles, e.g., a rug.

Shores to Hold Village Election

The Shores will be holding its annual village election on Tuesday, May 21.

On the ballot will be three trustees, village president and village clerk. The officers will be elected to two-year terms.

Current serving as village president is Gerald C. Schroeder. The three trustees whose terms are expiring are C. Bradford Lundy, Carl Hedeon and Robert C. Palmer. Holding the office of village clerk is Clifford B. Lorange.

Any Shores resident interested in running for office should pick up a nominating petition at The Shores offices, 795 Lakeshore road. The petitions have to be filed by Monday, May 13.

Girl Scouts Present Bike Day to Shores Trustees

By Kathy Duff

Girl Scouts from Troop 1542 of Trombley School attended the Tuesday, April 23, Shores Council meeting to present their plans for a community bike day in June.

The girl scouts asked that the northbound lane of Lakeshore road be closed for bike riders from 1.5 p.m. on Sunday, June 9. The southbound lane, from the village's southern limits to 771 Lakeshore, would be used to route two-way automobile traffic.

Troop leader Mrs. E. W. Pierce presented the idea to her group after hearing about the very successful bike day in Garden City last fall. The girl scouts said local boy scouts would help the day of the ride by patrolling the

Half Mill Increase Considered

Inflation Plays Role in 1974-75 Budget Figures; Public Hearing Set for May 13 Before Final Adoption

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods' proposed fiscal year 1974-75 budget, as recommended by the Finance Committee to the council, calls for a half mill increase in the tax levy—from 9.48 mills per thousand of the city's current assessed valuation, ($9.48 per $1,000 of State equalized assessed valuation), to 9.98 mills, reported City Administrator Chester E. Petersen last week.

A public hearing will be held on the proposed budget at the regular council meeting Monday evening, May 13. The Finance Committee, which includes Councilmen Conrad A. Naegel, chairman, George A. Freeman and Roger A. Graef, has already reviewed the budget which could be adopted on the 13th, (depending on what transpires at the hearing).

Inflation Hurts
While citing the cause for the half mill increase as "inflation," Mr. Petersen stressed there has been no tax levy increase in the past two years, and there will be no noticeable increase in assessed valuation.

"We still have one of the lowest tax rates in the State and the lowest of the five Pointes and Harper Woods," he said.

In elaborating on inflation, Mr. Petersen said, "Our assessed valuations are going to be down in the sales tax, income tax and gas tax, in all the State shared taxes. The budget has to reflect probable cost increases in utilities, gas, telephone and electric, in hospitalization insurance and in gasoline." Increased costs in salary and fringe benefits also have played a role, he noted.

The cost of gasoline, for instance, jumped 129 percent within a year for city vehicles, e.g., public safety department scout cars, Public Works trucks, et al., he stated.

Around 9,000 to 10,000 gallons of gas are used per month, and the city formerly paid 14 cents a gallon and is now paying 32 cents a gallon.

Pay $10 More
This half mill increase means that Woods homeowners will be paying around $10 more in city taxes, (payable in July 1974).

By way of an example, the

Asks Citizens To Fight Crime

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge J. Baum, who is in charge of the Wayne County Citizens Grand Jury, stated last week that citizen cooperation is necessary for the Grand Jury to achieve the best possible results.

Judge Baum urged all members of the community to help by bringing to the Grand Jury's attention any information or tips concerning crime.

This can be done by letter or postcard. Information should be sent to the Wayne County Citizens Grand Jury, P.O. Box 30, Detroit, Michigan 48231.

The letters or postcards can be signed, or can be anonymous, as the sender chooses.

The Citizens Grand Jury consists of 17 members of the community who have been drafted from their private lives to wage the war against crime and corruption. Each of these citizens serves at considerable personal sacrifice.

The Grand Jurors appreciate information from the public. Information sent to the Grand Jury need not be complete or detailed. If the sender knows or believes that something unlawful is going on, the Citizens Grand Jury will be happy to hear it.

'Walk for Youth' to Aid Various Social Agencies

Eastside Detroit and suburban elementary, junior, and senior high school students and adults will stage a 20-mile "Walk for Youth," beginning Saturday, May 11, at 8 a.m.

The annual event, sponsored by the non-profit Council for Youth Development, (CYD), is a fund raising effort in behalf of a group of youth oriented social agencies not funded through regular channels who are serving Detroit and the east side communities.

This year's event will feature in addition, a Name Calling Contest, according to Cliff Crockatt, CYD president and a student at Wayne State University.

Mr. Crockatt said last year's event was variously referred to as the Turkey Trot and the Muskrat Ramble by the participating students, but this year they are seeking "a name we can live with... one with a little pizzazz."

All participants, who pledge "so much per mile" to the fund, (starting at a minimum of 10 a mile), are entitled to enter a name for the walkathon. The CYD board will make the final decision as to the winner, or winners in case of a tie. Winners will receive a free Coke at the end of the all-day event.

A number of school student councils have sanctioned the CYD walkathon including

The trustees, after hearing the Scouts' presentation, expressed the village's concerns in regard to a bike day. Foremost was their concern for the cyclists' safety, especially since they would be using the lanes nearest Lake St. Clair. Before the Wayne County Road Commission issues a road closure permit, the city must assume all liability and expenses incurred.

YSD Counseling Story Surprises Officials

(Continued from Page 1) 20 sit down type pillows, a record player, refreshments, etc., from residents and businesses on the counselors' parts, all to help create a more relaxing atmosphere for their planned sessions, was not authorized, he said.

Mr. Petersen felt the entire scope of information presented in the April 18 story wasn't presented to Director Marchand, and Sergeant Thomas Kane, YSD supervisor. He said they were aware of a group counseling format and the fact it was felt more could be accomplished under such a format.

Director Marchand stated he also was concerned with "the impression of a 'crash pad,' lay around" type of atmosphere resulting from this where it would appear that there would be nothing to do. The counselors planned to hold their group sessions in a meeting, "community" room in the basement of Public Safety Department headquarters. They mentioned their interest in knowing if another location might be available for future meetings in case they wished to move out of the police structure.

The city administrator expressed concern over the statement that a basement room may not be the right environment. Mr. Petersen felt the counselors may have been carried away with the social services end of it. "This is a police agency," he emphasized. "This change in the policy concept of the YSD was not brought to my attention."

They felt there could be some problem in meeting with youths at the police station, e.g., the possibility some young people may think of them as police-related. This point concerned Director Marchand, too.

Another point of concern is that there are around 40-45 more days of school left and he felt such a program should have been initiated next September, rather than at this time.

On Policy The NEWS contacted Mr. Petersen for his reaction and thoughts on this matter. He was upset with the fact that part time counselors "should announce policy for the division" and "should be making releases to the press."

New Vehicle In fact, Mr. Petersen said, "I have some reservations in my own mind about being involved in minors counseling as a police agency. This should be done by a social services or a mental health type of agency."

The city administrator felt a conflict surrounding the division is "that many think it should be more social services oriented." Mr. Petersen reiterated what he said at a February 28 gathering, coordinated by the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, which focused upon the YSD.

If some citizens wanted to enlarge upon the social services being offered, "you need a new catalyst or a new vehicle to be created to perform this type of service within the community," he stressed. Again, while he mentioned he has some reservations on "this type of counseling" as related to the basic functions of a police agency, the city administrator said he has gone along with it because it has been of benefit.

Set Meeting Mr. Petersen said a meeting will be held this week between himself, Director Marchand and Sergeant Kane, and the counselors, to discuss why this program, which was scheduled to begin Wednesday, May 1, should start now rather than at the beginning of the school term. He added that the entire situation would also be reviewed.

The city administrator also stressed, "We're not requesting donations" of articles from residents or businesses, and that the location of such planned group sessions will be reviewed.

When contacted by the NEWS for his comments on this subject, Mr. Coonce said he wasn't sure, specifically, what was going on. "I'm not sure about the problem," he stated. "I thought that they had understood," and he added there was apparently a lack of communication along the way. Mr. Coonce said, "I'll know more after the meeting."

"I thought that they had understood," and he added there was apparently a lack of communication along the way. Mr. Coonce said, "I'll know more after the meeting."

As planned, Mr. Coonce, Mr. Canasi and Robert McDonald, program supervisor, children's services, Northeast Guidance Center, wanted to start a group counseling program which they felt is a viable treatment alternative at the division.

They wanted to treat their planned groups as experiences and techniques. At the same time, the counselors, including Deborah Beaufait, would continue their "one-on-one" approach as part of the YSD program.

Originally, a group of eight to 10 male juveniles, ranging in age from 14-16, would meet for a three-month period consisting of weekly, two-hour sessions. One set group would begin and end together. If the first session worked well, further male oriented sessions would transpire.

Mr. Coonce and Canasi felt, with group counseling, more options for everyone, e.g., such as the youths helping each other, would be apparent. There also would be, they said, the benefit of a more relaxed atmosphere. Focal points of the group program would include role playing, awareness exercises and values clarification.

However, Dr. Rubin points out, sometimes people do have to be hospitalized and it is better to be hospitalized close to home where the patient can keep his contacts with family, friends and colleagues.

The hope is to have patients in the hospital only a short period, hopefully less than 30 days, then progress to partial hospitalization and then to an outpatient program. This portion of the program is supported by the three outpatient clinics of the Northeast Guidance Center where the follow-up takes place.

Propose Tax Levy Hike

(Continued from Page 1) average home in The Woods has an estimated State equalized valuation of $20,000 or a true market value of $40,000. Under the 9.48 tax levy, the city taxes would be $189.60. Under the 9.98 tax levy, the amount would be $199.50, according to city computations.

As for various employe contracts, e.g., public safety department lieutenants, corporals and sergeants, and school crossing guards, Mr. Petersen cited the recently settled public safety officers contract, (via binding arbitration).

Based upon this recent arbitration award to the public safety department, the cost to the city for an employe who has completed five years of service, including his salary and fringe benefits, plus estimated amounts of overtime and court time, is around $22,406 per man," he said.

Federal Revenue Sharing Mr. Petersen noted there would have been more of an increase, regarding the affect of the various contracts, if the city didn't apply Federal Revenue Sharing to the street budget.

Federal Revenue Sharing monies totaling an anticipated $92,000 to be received by The Woods during fiscal year 1974-75, plus a remaining cash balance of $41,000 from the prior fiscal year, are to be utilized for engineering, maintenance and improvement of the local street system. Such monies will be directly utilized to offset any further additional increase in the city's tax levy.

"Our proposed budget provides one new service," said Mr. Petersen. "It's presently contemplated towards the furtherance of proposals to provide a beginning for programs for senior citizens, that a part time director of senior citizens activities be appointed."

At this time, he said three people are interested in serving in this capacity with the scheduled appointment of a director to take place in July. The city administrator said "whoever is appointed will be paid on an hourly basis.

New Commission In related information, the appointment of a senior citizens commission to make recommendations to the council regarding programs is scheduled to be on the Monday, May 6, agenda. It's planned that the part time director will be closely involved with the commission.

Senior citizens' activities will include those of a recreational nature, hobbies and crafts, and others. "We hope to coordinate our activities with those of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, but we have not, at this time, explored this with church officials. We hope to do this in the near future as they are willing to cooperate in this regard," said Mr. Petersen.

The proposed general fund appropriation in the 1974-75 budget is $2,638,317. This compares to the $2,843,641 amount in the 1973-74 budget. Meanwhile, the total Enterprise Funds budget, which isn't supported by tax monies, as proposed, is $807,574, while the Special Funds budget is $874,623.

Woods Cites Bon Secours

The Woods Council has joined in helping the Sisters of Bon Secours celebrate their 150th anniversary this year by unanimously authorizing Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos to sign a proclamation in action taken at the regular meeting, Monday, April 15.

In a letter to the mayor, Barry M. Spero, executive director, Bon Secours Hospital, asked his consideration in adopting the proclamation.

The measure says that the sisters arrived in The Pointe area in 1809 to offer nursing care to the ill and injured in their homes for as long as they were needed, and that they eventually obtained an old farmhouse on Cadieux road and converted it to a convalescent home so as to care for the growing numbers seeking their aid. They built Bon Secours Hospital in 1941 and enlisted the aid of the medical community and area residents. Services were added and many advances in medical science were adopted through the years which provided the "highest quality, professional medical care in an atmosphere of warmth, concern and personal attention."

Thus, Woods citizens express their high regard and deep affection for the Sisters of Bon Secours and warmly extend their wishes for a most joyous and happy sesquicentennial celebration and "for a future bright with the traditions of the past 150 years gracing the halls of their beautiful new hospital."

Getting Ready for Big Net Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club is sponsoring the Michigan Open Indoor Mixed Doubles Tennis Championship Saturday-Sunday, May 11-12, featuring both professional and amateur players. Making preparations for the event, (from left to right), are NORMAN J. WERTHMANN, Hunt Club president; LISA CHILDRESS, assistant riding instructor; FRANK J. HUSTER, tournament arrangements chairman; JAMES SYMINGTON, net pro; ELAINE KNIGHT, ticket sales chairman; PRISCILLA KIRLIN, players host committee chairman, and EDWIN V. LARSON, tourney chairman and tennis committee chairman. The horse, Quick Study, is obviously left out of this particular affair.

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club is setting up courtside seating to accommodate 650 viewers for the semi-finals and finals of the Michigan State Open Indoor Mixed Doubles Tennis Championship, which will be held in the Club's $500,000 "tennis barn" Sunday, May 12. There will be additional seating in the Horn and Racquet Viewing Lounge.

On Saturday, May 11, the four indoor Boltex-carpeted courts will be used for the initial matches, with spectators limited to the lounge.

The Grosse Pointe competition is the first separate State tournament for mixed doubles ever held under USLTA sanction in the United States, with results contributing to rankings. Winners of the State title will be awarded trophies contributed by the Bank of the Commonwealth, and share in the $500 purse.

A draw of 16 top teams, professional and amateur, will be made before play begins on Mother's Day weekend. Invitations to enter were sent to professionals and amateurs in Michigan, neighboring states and Canada.

Tournament director Edwin V. Larson announces that teams already registered include several localities: Debbie Mascarin, (partner, John Cook, pro of Bloomfield Tennis House); Peggy Marsh, (partner, former Hunt Club pro Joe Felice, now at the Beverly Hills Racquet Club); Karen Charlton, (partner, David Fisher); Mike Ware, (partner, Sue Pritula);

More are Ray Senkowski, (partner, Mary Hernandez); Doug Brock, (partner, Hunt Club member Emily Gail); Grosse Pointe Indoor Racquet Club pro Anita Sohasaki, (partner, Dick Kasper); and Grosse Pointe Hunt Club pro Jim Symington, (partner, Pam Bacon).

Other teams include Jim Bajor and Beata Gehringher; Owal Kahn and Jenny Wallace; Gil Bogley and June Stack (Sugar Loaf); Dave Markim and Sherry Acker, (Kalamazoo); Ralph Pette and Mary Van Dusen; Topher Ware and Sue Pritula; Rudy Ternando and Phyllis Korol. Still more are Bill Barkowitz and Peaches Barkowitz Krot; Doug MacKenzie and Betty McKee; Mike Yambach and Sandy Muthig; Roy White and Mia Bersch, (Grand Rapids); Rick Feriman and Sue Selke; Fernando Velasco and Sue Eastman, (Chicago).

Finally, Ted Foronda and Joyce Foronda, (Chicago); Don Young and Mary Jane Young; Pete Pursley and Mary Ford, (Grand Rapids); Bob Maramba and Susie Replogle, (Chicago), and Carlos Ciseros and Jean Ball, (Chicago).

Robert R. Rodgers is co-director of the tournament. Other Hunt Club members on the committee for this event include: awards, Hunt Club President Norman J. Werthmann; tournament arrangements, Chairman Frank J. Huster, co-chairman, Jack Cabau.

Facilities, chairman Peter Shields with Bradley N. Peabody, H. Robertson Brinker, Boleslaus Stanczyk; host and party committee, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirlin and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freuhauf; tickets, Mr. and Mrs. Garland M. Knight, Jr.; publicity, Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall with Mr. Rodgers, and tennis professional, Mr. Symington.

City to Resurface Rivard, Notre Dame

The City of Grosse Pointe has taken steps to initiate the resurfacing of Rivard boulevard, (Charlevoix to Mack), and Notre Dame avenue, (Kercheval to Mack), as well as the recapping of curbs at various locations on those streets.

In a communication to The City Council, City Manager Thomas Kressbach noted he had received bids for the resurfacing and recapping of the two streets on Tuesday, April 9.

Of the six bidders heard for the resurfacing job, that of Maraldo Asphalt Paving, Incorporated, for a total of $15,631, was lowest. Of the four received for recapping curbs, the lowest offer came from Vandopdenbosch Construction Company with a net bid of $6,090.

At the regular meeting of the council on Monday, April 15, Mr. Kressbach recommended the bids of those two companies be accepted and that contracts be drawn up with the firms.

It was further noted in the city manager's communication that since The City's resurfacing costs are substantially higher than last year's, due to inflation and the impact of the energy crisis on the price of asphalt, these fees must be included in the 1974 street resurfacing program costs, along with engineering fees and any required repairs to sewers located in or adjacent to streets being resurfaced.

Since the original 1974 budget projection for resurfacing stands at $100,000, and the costs for the resurfacing and recapping work to Notre Dame and Rivard will be approximately $80,000 to $100,000, Mr. Kressbach suggested the resurfacing of Fisher road, which is shared jointly with The Farms, be either deleted from this year's program, or its scope be reduced approximately one half with The City's cost share for 1974 limited to $11,000.

The council unanimously accepted Mr. Kressbach's recommendations and voted in favor of limiting City costs for repaving Fisher to $11,000.

ULS Exhibits New Art Show

A Mixed-Media Show by students at the Society of Arts and Crafts will be in the lobby of the University Liggett School from Wednesday, May 1, through Wednesday, May 15.

Works of 25 to 30 college students will be representative of industrial and advertising design as well as including fine art oils, watercolors, drawings, sculpture and ceramics. Crafts such as jewelry-making, weaving and glass-blowings also will be displayed.

The art work will be later exhibited at the Arts and Crafts Society's Annual Art Show. For those interested, prices will be available upon request.

The public may visit the art exhibit during a school hours Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., on the Cook road campus. Mrs. Mary Perry acts as coordinator of the lobby art shows.

Pointe Municipal Judges View Their Roles on The Bench

Explains Rights
Judge Pytell has said that every person should consult with the family lawyer before appearing in court.

"Even if a citizen does not intend to bring his lawyer to court the day of the trial, he should consult with his lawyer on the charge," Judge Pytell said. "As a judge I will often see a person convict himself by not showing restraint in the courtroom. The defendant must realize that it is a criminal proceeding, no matter how minor the offense. A judge can't act as his attorney."

Judge Urso is the most conscientious in informing the defendant of his rights since he feels that court proceedings should be made understandable to the people. It's possibly an outgrowth of his career as professor at the University of Detroit Law School. He is also in charge of the Urban Law Clinic.

"The reason I am so careful to explain the defendant's rights," Judge Urso said, "is because the courtroom can be a potentially terrifying experience for a person with no previous contact with the law. I want to be sure that the defendant is aware of his rights and believes that he got a fair trial."

Pouring Tears
All three judges will agree that the defendants run the gamut from very casual to terror-stricken. Judge Denis related one case of a woman, in her late 20's, who was charged with causing a minor accident.

"I just couldn't understand it, the tears wouldn't stop," Judge Denis recalled. "Finally, I realized that she thought I was going to send her to jail for her part in the accident. Once she realized that she wasn't going to jail, she calmed down."

Judge Denis recalled another case when a man, appearing on a drunk driving charge, also came drunk to court, "almost falling on his face." The man patiently explained how he was arrested on Lakeshore drive after getting out of his car to ask a policeman directions to Woodward.

Before any of the judges will accept a guilty plea, they will explain the consequences. Once when Judge Pytell was giving a description of what a drunk driving conviction entailed, and the defendant was vacillating between a "not guilty" and "guilty" plea, the wife finally called out from the audience, "John, John, plead not guilty."

Main Offenses
Not all the wives are that supportive in court. Judge Denis recalled one wife coming up to the bench with her husband, the defendant. When asked to enter his plea, the wife said, "He's guilty." The bulk of offenses to come before municipal judges involve traffic arrests. Court jurisdiction includes lawsuits involving not more than $1,500, all criminal matters involving violation of a city ordinance or charter provision, and all State criminal matters where the maximum penalty does not exceed a $500 fine and/or imprisonment for one year. In addition, the municipal judge acts as magistrate for setting bond and binding over the defendant for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court if a more serious crime has been committed.

As for a traffic offense, most can be settled by prepaying the ticket at the violation bureau. If a case is brought to court, often the defendant will believe that he is not guilty of the charge. The first time a visitor sits in a municipal court, it might surprise him how often the judge rules in favor of the policeman's testimony rather than the conflicting testimony of the defendant.

"What we have to do is weigh the evidence on both sides. Obviously, the defendant has a personal interest in the outcome of the case. The arresting officer, on the other hand will have been in a position to observe better the action, and his testimony will also be backed up by accurate radar or breathalyzer equipment. I think that it's very important to explain to the defendant the way the court views the evidence and arrives at the verdict," said Judge Pytell.

"Moral" Touches
Each of the judges will occasionally slip into a moralizing lecture when they hand down a fine or sentence. Last Wednesday, April 24, Judge Denis told a young man, charged with failure to stop on a police signal, that he was lucky the officer didn't charge him with speeding, reckless driving and fleeing a police officer.

He let a man plead guilty to a lesser charge of driving while impaired, yet warned that he would not be lenient if a similar offense occurred.

In Judge Urso's Wednesday court session, he reviewed a youth's driving record before handing down a sentence.

Public sanction and approval is an indispensable factor in any lasting victory. Assuming too much, too often, usually means many mistakes.

'Walk for Youth' May 11

(Continued from Page 1) Pierce Middle School and South High School, Harper Woods High School, and Dominican and Notre Dame High Schools. Other participating schools with representatives are University Liggett School, North High School and East Detroit High School.

William Hindle, a science teacher at University Liggett School, and a senior advisor for the CYD, stated the event raised $4,500 in 1973. This year's proceeds will go to the following community organizations: Center Point Crisis Intervention Center, the Detroit Transit Alternative Runaway House, the Hobart Street Project and the Mochogan Committee for Indian Youth Development.

Mr. Hindle mentioned there are no administrative expenses in the all-volunteer CYD and that the benefit ratio is on a one-to-one basis.

This year's event will start at 8 a.m. at the University Liggett athletic field, 1045 Cook road, and finish in the same spot at approximately 4 p.m.

The 20-mile route wanders through a number of cooperating east side communities. Last year, approximately half of the walkers completed the entire course. There are checkpoints every two miles with refreshments for the participants, cheerleaders and places to rest weary feet.

For the more modestly motivated, Mr. Hindle said there will be a concurring miniwalk starting at noon with a ten-mile course, and that the minimum 10 cents a mile pledge was in effect for this event, too.

He added that most of last year's pledges were in the 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 a mile category, and that one walker even pledged $5 a mile and finished the entire course.

The winner of the Name Calling Contest will be announced at the finish, and prizes awarded on the spot. All anyone has to do to enter is show up at 8 a.m. on May 11, or pre-register by calling 824-0350 or by writing CYD, 15222 East Jefferson, Grosse Pointe, Mich. 48230.

New Seawall Safety Threat

The Shores trustees have sent a letter to the Wayne County Road Commission concerning the new seawall construction along Lake St. Clair.

The trustees feel that the seawall, which slopes down to the lake, might be inviting for youths to walk or ride their bikes over. If a person loses his footing, which is easy to do since the concrete will soon be covered with slime and moss from the lake culture, he will go right into the lake.

Trustee Daniel Beck suggested that concrete blocks be laid periodically to thwart any bicycle riders. The idea was endorsed by the council and Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis said he would write the letter.

While the trustees were on the subject of the Wayne County Road Commission, they also asked Mr. Jefferis to complain about the deplorable condition of Lakeshore road in a second letter. It will be the second letter written to the Commission regarding the chuckholes and seams which deface the lakeside thoroughfare.

Believe it or not, motorists, speed is the cause of two out of five fatal accidents.

Probation Program

There is greater co-operation among the municipal judges now more than ever, since they are working together to establish a volunteer probation officers program. All are concerned with what to do with a youthful offender. They know that some youths will be sufficiently shaken by their first contact with the law so as not to participate in any more criminal offenses.

However, they also know that 80 percent of violent crimes are committed by persons who first appear on a minor charge in a municipal court.

Judge Urso has taken the lead in establishing a volunteer probation officers program. He has already called three meetings to discuss the venture with interested community leaders and police officials.

Judge Denis said that he liked to make use of the deferred sentence with first offenders.

"With the deferred sentence, the offender pleads guilty to the charge, yet the charge will be dropped if he goes through a certain period with no other offenses. The problem with this, however, is that if the same person is arrested in another city, I will not hear about it because it will not be in my court. We need probation officers to follow the behavior of that youth," Judge Denis said.

All three judges' salaries are established by city charter or ordinance. Judge Denis is given $3,000 a year from The Woods, $2,400 by The Shores and a portion of the $2,200 The City pays Judge Paterson annually. Judge Urso is given $6,000 a year by The Park and Judge Pytell is paid $3,000 by The Farms.

Area Officials Attend Confab in Washington

Four Pointe officials and two from Harper Woods participated in the Local Officials Conference held in Washington, D. C., Thursday-Friday, April 25-26.

Attending the two-day conference were Mayor Matthew Patterson and City Manager Robert Stone of The Park; City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., of The Farms, and Mayor Joseph Gossel and City Manager Joseph Dorsky of Harper Woods.

On hand to welcome all officials from throughout the State were House Representatives, the Honorable James G. O'Hara, (D), 12th District, and the Honorable Lucien Nedzi, (D), of the 14th District.

The Michigan officials found the conference to be very informative, and several of them took advantage of a tour of the nation's Capitol, while also visiting Arlington Cemetery. The Pointe area officials left for home as soon as the conference was over.

On Thursday, the Michiganders listened to Eric Zauner of Energy Conservation and Environment, Federal Energy Office, whose topic was "Meeting Our Energy Needs."

Louis E. DeCamp of Water Program Operations, Environmental Protection Agency, talked on "Implementing Water Quality Legislation," and William Hewitt of Policy Evaluation and Research, U. S. Department of Labor, spoke on "The New Manpower Program."

On Friday, the representatives of shoreline communities heard timely talks on "Problems on the Great Lakes," given by the Honorable Christian A. Herter, Jr., chairman of the U. S. Section, International Joint Commission — U. S. - Canada; Honorable Frederick O. Rouse, chairman of the Great Lakes Basin Commission; Colonel Early Rush, assistant director of Civil Works, Upper Mississippi Region Office of the Chiefs of Engineers, Army Corps of Engineers, and George K. Bernstein, administrator of the Federal Insurance Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, (HUD).

George Gross, counsel for the Housing Subcommittee, House Committee on Banking and Currency, and James Broughman, director of the Data Systems and Statistics Division of HUD's Office of Community Development, both spoke on "Developing America's Communities."

JC's Ask Help For Bingo Night

The Grosse Pointe Jaycee sponsored evenings of bingo project, which are held the first Monday of each month at the War Memorial, is losing around $350 at this point, reported George A. Williamson, organization member.

Mr. Williamson urges all members of the community to attend the bingo nights and support the project. "We would like to break even in this venture," he said, "as the amount of money we gain goes right back into the community."

Two more evenings are planned in May and June, and after a summer break, the Jaycees hope to continue this project again in September or October.

But at this juncture, they are hoping to have more support from the community for the two remaining 8 p.m. affairs.

Pleads Guilty To 2 Charges

A 20-year-old Harper Woods man, Louis Michael Dittner, pled guilty to reckless driving and driving at night without headlights before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for Shores Municipal Judge Douglas J. Paterson, on Wednesday, April 24.

On the reckless driving charge, he was fined $100 plus $50 costs, and on the driving without lights charge, he was fined $50.

Dittner was arrested early Thursday morning, April 4, after police pursued him at speeds over 85 miles an hour along Lakeshore road.

Motorists who take chances in traffic are sure to bring grief to themselves and others.

G.P. Park Employee to Be Honored Tonight

By James J. Njaim
There is considerable sadness in The Park Municipal Offices, especially in the Police Department and the Violation Bureau because a gracious and well-loved lady has retired from the city's service.

Mrs. Grace McCracken Hiller, of Lannoo, Detroit, served her last day on Tuesday, April 30, after 25 years of service, all of which was spent in the Violation Bureau, first as a police matron and a clerk-typist, records keeper, deputy court clerk and finally as court clerk. She held the latter position until her retirement.

Grace, or Gracie, as she is sometimes affectionately called, was appointed to the Violations Bureau on April 25, 1949, at which time she was sworn in as police matron. She was also assigned the duties of a clerk-typist and keeper of court and violation records.

Shortly thereafter, she was made deputy court clerk to assist Mrs. Delia Monaghan, the regular court clerk.

When Mrs. Monaghan retired in June 1960, Mrs. Hiller was appointed to succeed her.

Mrs. Hiller is a native of Detroit and a graduate of Southeastern High School. She was a widow for 30 years before she married Edwin M. Hiller, a Detroit business executive, in January 1970.

She has two sons by her first marriage, William McCracken, 38, of Mayopack, N.Y., the father of four boys, and Thomas, 35, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., the father of a boy and girl.

Mrs. Hiller's hobbies are golfing and gardening, and she is extremely happy when visiting her sons and grandchildren. As a matter of fact, she plans to spend a few days in New York with her family before returning to Detroit to pursue her hob-bles, especially golfing, which she thinks is the "greatest sport in the world."

The city administration, and municipal employees and friends, will have an opportunity to wish her all the joys of her retirement at a party in her honor tonight, May 2, starting at 6:30 p.m., at the London House East, 23207 Marter road, St. Clair Shores.

On the committee for the party are City Manager Robert A. Stone, Erma Nyiri, who is Mr. Stone's secretary and who is one of the chief coordinators of the affair, besides handling the tickets; Fire Chief Phillip Costa; Assistant Fire Chief David Taylor; Police Lieutenant Gordon Duncan; Patrolmen David Hiller, (no relation), and Andrew Meeker, and Jean Trimble, deputy city treasurer.

"Mrs. Hiller has been a definite asset to the community, always smiling, regardless how hard she might work," Mr. Stone said. "In the years she has been with the city, she has served the community well. We certainly wish her all the luck in her retirement."

Police Chief Henry Coonce

had this to say about the retiree:

"She is a wonderful person to know. She has been with the Violation Bureau for many years and during the time of her service, she has been very efficient and had been very gracious to everyone, even to those who came to the Bureau to pay violation fines. Her smiling "Thank you" sort of took the sting out of paying the fines. She will certainly be missed around here."

Shores Studies Bike Day

 "lane cones" to be placed 50 feet apart in southbound Lakeshore and three overtime police officers to control traffic.
 In discussing the event, Trustee Daniel Beck asked how cyclists would enter the bike parade except at the two terminus points. If a group of cyclists tried to cross the two-way traffic on southbound Lakeshore, there would be a definite safety threat. Trustee Carl Hedeon emphasized that a Sunday afternoon in June was one of the heaviest days for traffic on Lakeshore road, even with all four lanes open to automobiles.
 Another problem mentioned was the possibility of an emergency or a fire in one of the homes, the only access to which would be on Lakeshore. If there were a fire, it would be almost impossible for a fire truck to get through the two way traffic or the cyclists.

 Trustee Beck, who is head of the Parks and Recreation Committee, said he would discuss the event with his group. The Shores trustees promised an answer to the Girl Scouts before they go before The Farms Council to secure the southern part of Lakeshore road which is in The Farms.
 "We certainly would like to support your project," Trustee Frank Colombo said, "but we have to think of The Shores' responsibility."

Club to Start Tennis Clinic

Registration for the Neighborhood Club Tennis Clinic starts Saturday, May 11, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. No registrations are accepted before this date. The clinic begins Monday, June 24, and runs for five consecutive weeks. It ends Friday, July 26.

Pair Charged With Larceny

Two 17-year-old St. Clair Shores youths will be charged under a Woods city ordinance with larceny under $100, a misdemeanor, stemming from their alleged involvement in the breaking and entering of a Hollywood avenue home Monday evening, April 15, reported Detective Everett Plumb. Their court date is pending.

Three court sites are available this year: Elworthy Field, (four courts), North High School, (two courts), and South High, (two courts). Stephenie Pritchko will again coordinate the entire tennis program.

At the same time, two 16-year-old juveniles, (one from The Woods, the other from St. Clair Shores), whose cases were turned over to the Youth Service Division, (YSD), will be placed on the division's supervision program, said Detective Michael Ferrence.

Clinics are offered to children ages nine through teens. Adults can, choose between beginner, intermediate, and advanced classes. The advanced classes are open to all ages. Classes last one hour, (except advanced, one and a half hours), and are given between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The foursome admitted their involvement to Detective Plumb in this incident in which $96.25 in checks and cash has been recovered from the $96.75 which was originally reported missing.

A men's clinic is offered at North during the evening hours.
 A detailed registration sheet may be picked up prior to May 11 at the Neighborhood Club. Persons registering on that date may do so for their immediate family only. For additional information, call the Club at 885-4600.

Three of the youths, including one who was nabbed inside the home, were arrested in less than 30 minutes after the break-in was reported. Another youth gave himself up to Detective Plumb on Thursday, April 18.

NORTHEAST DETROIT LIONS CLINIC!
 ★ 11012 Chalmers

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness has announced plans to offer free eye examinations under the sponsorship of Northeast Detroit Lions Club, and Harper Woods Lions Club between the hours of 9 A.M. and 4 P.M. on Saturday, May 11. Specifically, the Society is concerned with Glaucoma, the leading cause of blindness among adults in the United States. The best defense against Glaucoma is an annual eye examination, since early detection can usually halt its progress. Glaucoma can sneak up on almost anybody, especially after the age of 35. In its early stages it is hardly noticeable, but without proper treatment it can eventually result in blindness. The seriousness of this affliction is of special interest to the Northeast Lions Club, and Harper Woods Lions Club co-sponsors of the free clinic. Because of the Lions' enduring interest in sightlessness, as well as all eye disorders, the Clubs will maintain a staff to aid the professional doctors who will be at the locations at the hours mentioned. The examination usually takes only minutes.

Woods Hires Three Officers

Three new officers joined The Woods Department of Public Safety last month. They're Michael VanDeginste, 26, who started on Sunday, April 21; Walter Hageman, 28, who began attending classes at Detroit's Criminal Justice Institute Monday, April 22, and Thomas Morawski, 23, who started classes at Oakland Community College Monday, April 29.

Public Safety Director Henry Marchand said both Officers Hageman and Morawski need more training hours, and they will be sworn in sometime during mid-June after they complete their classes. All three men are currently on probation for one year.

"I feel the addition of these three men will complete our department in our effort to strengthen the department professionally," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. "We're very pleased to employ men of this caliber, who have obtained various college degrees."

Officer VanDeginste, a South High graduate, received his B.A. degree in Sociology from Ohio University in 1970.

He had been a member of the Detroit Police Department's 11th precinct since 1970 until joining The Woods Public Safety Department. He was assigned to special operations with Detroit police, where he received four departmental commendations for outstanding police work.

The officer and his wife, Nina, also a South grad, have one daughter and live in Detroit.

Officer Hageman, who lives in The Farms, is a South High graduate, too. Before joining the public safety department, he worked at Chrysler in production control.

He holds an associate of arts degree from Macomb Community College, has a B.S. degree in Business Administration from Wayne State University and an M.A. in Management from Wayne. Officer Hageman also attended the University of San Diego School of Law for one year.

Officer Morawski, who lives in East Detroit, is a graduate of East Detroit High School. He has an associate degree in Law Enforcement from Macomb and has received a B.S. degree in Police Administration from Wayne.

He was previously employed as a production worker at the M and W Management Company in Warren.

The trio were hired because of the upcoming retirement of Officer Albert Abend on Saturday, June 1, and because of the resignations of Douglas Dosmas and Frederick Lovelace earlier this year.

Trio Injured In Car Accident

Three youths were injured after their car smashed into an Edison pole along Lakeshore road Sunday afternoon, April 28.

While travelling north on Lakeshore, the driver, David Wayne Sutphin, 18, of St. Clair Shores, told Shores officers he lost control of a 1973 Vega as he entered a sharp curve and was downshifting. The auto left the roadway and crashed into the pole, causing extensive damage to the auto's frontal area. Police said the youth didn't admit to excessive speed.

At the scene, Officers Archie Grieve, Ronald Klotz and Corporal Dan Fronczak found the youths, who also included Raymond Frederick Borgula, 19, of Warren, and Michael James Sweeney, 18, of Mount Clemens, on the ground between 1040 and 1100 Lakeshore.

Dr. Helen Nutting of Lakeshore road, was administering aid to the trio who were immediately transported to Bon Secours Hospital, police said.

On Monday, April 29, the hospital reported Sutphin was in good condition after suffering a fractured arm and leg and abrasions. Sweeney was reported in fair condition with a fractured left leg and a possible fractured skull, plus abrasions. Borgula was treated and released from the hospital.

Officers added no violation was issued in this incident.

Receive Reply to Social Services Resolution

In reply to a previous Woods Council resolution which petitioned the Wayne County Board of Health to re-establish the mental health, counseling and other "social services" programs for eastern Wayne County, the solons received a response to their petition from Mel Ravitz, Ph.D., director, Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Services Board.

At the regular meeting Monday, April 15, the council unanimously referred this letter to the Committee of the Whole for further study with other material related to "social services."

In his letter, Dr. Ravitz said, "One of the very best mental health service agencies in our region" is available to "citizens of your community" — the Northeast Guidance Clinic, 17000 East Warren.

Dr. Ravitz also stated he was sure the Wayne County Health Department and the Wayne County Substance Abuse program would be in touch with the council with respect to the services they can provide.

This request emanated from FLEC, (Family Life Education Council). FLEC appeared earlier this year before the five Pointe councils to seek city funding for their programs. At present, the organization's request remains under study by the respective cities.

Anybody who has the mind to do it, can — so it's having the mind for it that counts.

Works like millions of tiny hoes to make your "inflation garden" a growing success.

lawn & garden gypsum

A natural conditioner for clay soil

"GRAND PRIZE Gypsum adds its own sulfate sulfur and soluble calcium to soil, two nutrients essential to healthy plant growth," says Jerry Baker, America's master gardener and author of "Plants Are Like People."

Spread this natural mineral on your garden this Spring. Then water it in and let nature do the hoeing for you, naturally. GRAND PRIZE Gypsum breaks up hardpan soil so it can breathe. Seeds germinate faster, roots grow deeper and costly fertilizers work more efficiently. Get GRAND PRIZE at your garden center or hardware store.

CLINTON R. AMLUXEN
Funeral services for Mr. Amluxen, 57, of Whittier road, were held on Sunday, April 28, at Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church and the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Thursday, April 26, at Sinai Hospital.

Mr. Amluxen operated his own insurance agency for 28 years, in addition to being administrator of Northwest General Hospital for the last 18 years. He was a past-president of the American College of Osteopathic Hospital Administrators and he served on the national Board of Trustees of Osteopathic Administrators.

He is survived by his wife, June; three daughters, Mrs. Susan Bowler, Mrs. Karen Weissert and Mrs. Christine Wilson; his mother, Mrs. Alfred T. Amluxen; three brothers, and three grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Heart Association. Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

DR. CHARLES H. SHARRER
Funeral services for Dr. Sharrer, 72, of Grayton road, were held on Monday, April 29, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Friday, April 26, at Deaconess Hospital.

A 1925 graduate of Detroit College of Medicine, (now Wayne State University Medical School), Dr. Sharrer was on the staffs of Deaconess, Doctors and Cottage Hospitals.

Born in Pittsburgh, he is survived by his wife, Ellen A.; four daughters, Mrs. Suzanne Carroll Frye, Mrs. Suzanne Mann, Mrs. Sally Engle and Mrs. Merry Miller, and eight grandchildren.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MRS. EDYTHE LOVELESS
Funeral services for Mrs. Loveless, 62, formerly of Merriweather road, and more recently of Detroit, were held on Thursday, April 25, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died on Tuesday, April 23, at her home.

Born in Tennessee, she was the wife of the late William Loveless and is survived by four daughters, Lisa, Joan, Patricia and Carol Mae; one sister; one brother, and nine grandchildren.

Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

PHILIP W. CATALDO
Funeral services for Mr. Cataldo, 50, of Lakeshore road, were held on Thursday, April 25, at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. He died on Monday, April 22.

Mr. Cataldo was president of the United Engineering Company and vice-president of B and L Plastics, Incorporated, both of Warren.

He is survived by his wife, Nora; three sons, Gordon, Philip, Jr. and John; four daughters, Mrs. Gary Shaft, Mrs. Terence Miller, Judith and Carol; his mother, Mrs. Jennie Cataldo; two brothers; three sisters, and three grandchildren.

Interment was in Resurrection Cemetery.

MRS. RUTH MISHRA
Funeral services for Mrs. Mishra, 40, formerly of The Pointe, and more recently of Okemos, Mich., were held on Monday, April 29, in East Lansing. She died on Wednesday, April 24, in Lansing.

She was a graduate of South High School and Northwestern University in Manassas, Minn.

Mrs. Mishra is survived by her husband, Dishada; three sons, Anel, Allan and Anand; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Hutchins; a sister, and a brother.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Ruth Mishra Christ Communications Memorial Fund, in care of East Lansing State Bank, Brookfield Plaza, East Lansing.

Interment was in Glendale Cemetery, Okemos.

IIA Roster Lists Three G.P. Officers As Members

The International Identification Association, (IIA), is a very exclusive organization, boasting a membership of 7,500 police officers from law enforcement agencies throughout the free world.

The Michigan-Ontario Identification Association, (MOIA), which is affiliated with the IIA, is comprised of policemen from Michigan and the Canadian Province of Ontario, with Michigan's membership standing at 75, including three officers from The Pointe.

The three from The Pointe are City Lieutenant Robert Van Tiem, Shores Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza and Farms Detective Earl Field, the latter, who with the blessing of Chief Robert Ferber, attended the spring conference of the MOIA held at the Briarwood-Hilton Hotel, Ann Arbor, Thursday-Sunday, April 25-28.

The MOIA holds two Forensic Science Conferences each year, one in the spring and the other in the fall. The spring session was hosted by Washtenaw County Sheriff Frederick Postill, with the welcoming speech given by Ann Arbor Police Chief Walter Krasney.

William McDaniel, chief of Wayne State University's Public Safety Department, located on the university's campus, was elected president of the MOIA for 1974, succeeding Chief Inspector A. J. Barney Wart of the Ontario Provincial Police. Six members of the organization's board also were elected, three from Michigan and three from Ontario.

Detective Field, who was the only one able to attend the conference, said that of the several speakers, the most interesting was Dr. Robert C. Hendric, M.D., of the University of Michigan Pathology Department, whose topic was "Complete Identification of Deceased."

The Farms detective said Forensic Science is an exact science and covers Finger- print Identification, Polyo- graph, (lie detector test), Document Identification, Forensic Photography, Laboratory Analysis and Fire- arms Identification.

On the international scope, Detective Field said, two American States, Michigan and Washington, and two provinces of Canada, Ontario and British Columbia, subscribe to the IIA, to date.

The MOIA sessions are held twice a year and are beneficial to local police agencies in that members are brought up to date on the science of law enforcement, both on the local and international level. Those who benefit most from the updating are the citizens and communities the police officers serve, Detective Field pointed out.

Chief Ferber, who is a progressive and dedicated policeman and a firm believer in keeping up with current laws and the best methods of enforcement, is an enthusiastic endorser of the IIA and the MOIA. He also is a firm believer in Forensic Science, and other improve- ments along the law enforce- ment line if it means better service to the people of the community.

Brownell Offers Spring Concert

The Instrumental Music Department of Brownell Middle School under the direction of Mrs. Christina Judson will present its 16th annual Spring Concert to- night, Thursday, May 2, at 8 p.m. in the Parcels Middle School Auditorium, 20600 Mack avenue.

The "B" Band will open the program with the technically difficult "Spring Overture" by Peterson followed by "Tangotown" arranged by Kinyon.

Brownell's Symphony Orchestra, which will compete in State festival competition on Saturday, May 4, will present three numbers including Diemer's "Youth Overture," "Andante from Sonatina, Opus 48, Number 1" by Pleyel and Holesovsky's "Bratislava."

The "A" Band will conclude the program with four selections, "April Holiday" by Jackobovic will be followed by "Three Ayres From Gloucester" by Stuart.

Other "A" Band selections are Bratton's "Teddy Bears Picnic" and "Russian Music Suite" by Gordon.

The public is invited to attend. Tickets will be available at the door at a cost of 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Pierce Wins State Awards

Pierce Middle School brought home eight awards from the State finals in the 12th annual Michigan Industrial Education Awards competition held last week at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Winning a first was Brian Slusser for his go-cart entered in the transportation vehicles classification. Ross Murray won second place in this division.

In the wrought iron class, Ron Herndon won second place for his iron and glass tables and Kathy Hall won second for her lamp.

Ron Herndon also won a third in the sheet metal class for his outdoor grill.

Winning a third in the fiberglass classification was Richard Parks who made a hockey goalie's mask.

The second Pierce girl to win was Marinell Sosnowski who won sixth place with her initial ring in the aluminum grouping.

Tom Patzer won fourth in the copper and brass division with his ring.

Buzz Van Almen, the metal shop teacher, said his two girl students were the only ones to win among the 2,257 entrants.

The contest is sponsored by The Detroit News and the Michigan Industrial Education Society. Projects on display include metal and wood crafts and every household object imaginable, even a kitchen sink.

Vacant House Poses Problems

Seventeen Shores residents have signed a petition protesting a vacant and boarded-up house at 90 Vernier road. They are asking that the Shores trustees condemn and remove the eyesore.

Besides being unsightly, the residents say that the house is rodent-infested.

Thomas K. Jefferis, village superintendent, said the owner died during the winter and that the estate was in the jurisdiction of a probate court in Ohio. He also said the village did not have the authority to condemn and tear down the building under The Shores charter or State laws.

The village superintendent said the village would try to settle the problem with the Probate Court in Ohio as soon as possible.

Too many motorists who have passed their driving tests think they can pass anything.

Focus on Elworthy Field

The matter had been tabled due to resident's objections over the proposed site plans, which showed the dugouts would be closed on three sides. The neighbors wanted the shelters constructed so they would be allowed to see all the way through them from their homes to make sure groups could not congregate inside and smoke marijuana or drink, and to keep an eye on their own children who often play there.

The council had turned the matter over to Mr. Kressbach to study, along with Mr. Harrison and the residents. Mr. Harrison came to the meeting armed with two revised site plans.

The first, he said, was the one recommended by the architect. It proposed that the dugout be enclosed on three sides, as requested before, but that the entire front be fenced in, with a permanent gate to allow entrance to and exit from the shelter. The gate would be padlocked when not in use.

Disagreements His second alternate site plan showed a dugout closed only on two sides, with fencing across the back. He stated this type of dugout would not be as permanent as the Little League would like it to be, since the fencing would give with children climbing and leaning against it.

Mrs. Robert Joliet, of St. Clair avenue, who was at the March meeting with her husband, also was present on April 15. She said the residents she represented would be in favor of dugouts built according to Mr. Harrison's second plan. A locked gate would only invite trouble, she believed, and she felt certain that "some smart kid" would take the padlock.

At that point, Jack Rowe, of Washington road, president of the Little League, voiced his opinion that the second plan was definitely inferior to the first. "It, (the fence), will break, kids will climb on it, and leaving the back open does not really protect the kids inside during a heavy storm." The dugouts have never presented much of a policing problem in the past he added and he didn't see why they should now.

The solons then discussed the matter. Councilman George D. Henry felt the League was overselling the importance of dugouts, but Councilman Arthur S. Fetters disagreed. "I think they do serve a purpose," he said and he moved to take the item off the table.

Go with Plan Two Councilman David R. Robb finally suggested doing work on only two of the dugouts, using those for test cases, and the solons agreed to that.

Local AFSers Star in Revue

The Detroit Metropolitan Board of American Field Service, (AFS), is sponsoring "The Event" on Friday, May 3, at 8 p.m. at the Rochester High School Auditorium, Livernois and University drive in Rochester.

"The Event" is a talent revue presented by 33 winter program AFS International Scholarship students from 16 countries and American Abroad returnees.

Three students currently living with Pointe families, Sabina Imhof, Ludwig Lapauw and Helle Markholst, will participate in the presentation.

A dessert smorgasbord will be served following the program and gift items will be for sale at the Boutique.

Donations, $2 for adults and $1 for students, will be used for the scholarship fund and trips for area AFSers. The public is invited to attend and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Woods Praises Its Assessor

Woods City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher received the praise of Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilman Roger A. Graef for his efforts in having the assessed valuation of the city's Lake Front Park reduced from $519,598 to $456,196 for 1974. This occurred at the regular council meeting Monday, April 15.

This is a difference of $63,402 for the park which is located in St. Clair Shores.

Mr. Hornfisher and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen contacted F. A. De Busscher, St. Clair Shores City Assessor, about the park's assessed valuation on Friday, March 8.

They explained the condition of the pool and that the land was on a restricted deed to be used for a park only. If it was not used for this purpose, the property would revert to the original owner, (Mrs. Edsel Ford).

On the following Monday, (March 11), Mr. De Busscher contacted Mr. Hornfisher and said he reduced the assessed valuation by the $63,402 amount.

Sometimes a balanced budget is as great an aid to health as the best balanced diet.

Jacobson's Hosts Margaret Court

NH Harriers Dump Fraser

By Janet Evanski
Despite the cold and windy weather Tuesday, April 23, North High School blazed by Fraser, 85-38, in their second home track meet of the season.

The Norsemen finished first in 10 of the 15 events, capturing all places in both the shot-put and 120-yard high hurdles.

Running an outstanding race in the mile distance event was senior Ed Brennan, who led all competitors by more than 100 yards with a near-record time of 4:22.1.

Also turning in a fine performance was Phil Humes, who proved to be a double winner, taking first place in both the 120-yard high hurdles and 180-yard lows with times of 16.3 and 21.3, respectively.

Humes, a junior, also cleared six feet in the Junior Varsity high jump event.

North ran its next home meet against Clintondale, Tuesday, April 30 after press time.

Margaret Court Meets G.P. Tennis Enthusiasts

By Kathy Duff
Margaret Court, 31, ranked the top woman tennis player in the world, was at Jacobson's In-the-Village Monday, April 29, to promote her new tennis wear line.

But all was not business at the 9 a.m. breakfast when interested Pointers asked Mrs. Court questions as varied as how old she was when she started to play tennis to what she thought of Bobby Riggs, personally.

Mrs. Court, with her brisk Australian accent, thoroughly charmed the audience. In response to the Riggs question, she explained that the match was planned to be a casual event with only 300 spectators. However, once the press heard about it, it blew up to be a huge affair, and Riggs responded accordingly. Mrs. Court stressed that Riggs was a perfectly decent man when away from the publicity circuit.

As far as her new clothes line, which is manufactured by David Smith, Mrs. Court said she has always been interested in clothes design. Several years ago, she started her own boutique.

"I did all of my own buying, and I really enjoyed it," Mrs. Court said. "Since I play tennis so much, I thought that I could design tennis clothes which would be both comfortable and practical. And I think mine are."

Mrs. Court is currently retired from the pro circuit since she is pregnant with her second child. She dropped out when she went into her second month of pregnancy. Her first child, Danny, is two years old.

Her court activity might be cut back for a while, but certainly not her other activities. Her stopover in Grosse Pointe was part of a whirlwind of tennis hot spots in the U.S. to promote her tennis clothes. She was in Indianapolis, Ind., before coming here, and was scheduled for Cincinnati, O., the following day. Her husband is accompanying her.

Mrs. Court recently completed a record-breaking year for a woman tennis player, netting $180,058 in prize money. She pulled what is known as the "grand slam" in tennis by capturing the Australian, French and U.S. Opens tennis tournaments.

She turned the Virginia Slims circuit into her tour de force by winning 13 of 17 tournaments.

In her native Australia, Mrs. Court said there were tennis courts right across the street from her house. No one else in her family was a tennis enthusiast, but she continued to play in school and take lessons. "It was when I was sent to Sidney for some matches that people began to notice me. But I was never pushed by my parents to be a tennis star."

Asked to give advice to any aspiring, or not so aspiring, tennis player, Mrs. Court stressed the importance of keeping fit. "Exercise to improve your speed and mobility on court. Lots of players know how to stroke the ball but they don't know how to get to the ball. And if you can't do that, the greatest stroke in the world isn't going to do you any good."

By 10:30 a.m., the breakfast in Mrs. Court's honor was breaking up. Attending the breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rosch, Aggie Guastealla, Bill Lewis, Fred Trapnell, Roy Sankowski and Ed Halpin.

Later on in the day, Mrs. Court was on the second floor of Jacobson's in the women's sportswear section. As she looked through her designs, she mentioned she was the first designer to make use of gingham check to accent tennis dresses. "This is one of my favorite designs," she said as she looked at a red dress decorated with a red-checked gingham flower pot with red, blue and yellow flowers.

Throughout the morning, Mrs. Court was wearing one of her tennis outfits. Although six months pregnant, she looked great. But it was as much Margaret Court as the tennis dress.

Pair to Face Circuit Court

Two men who allegedly attempted an armed robbery of Kroger's In-The-Village are free on $10,000 bond, awaiting trial in Wayne County Circuit Court.

The pair, John Alexeas, 1675 Gray, Detroit, and Kenneth Borchman, 22024 Bonheur, St. Clair Shores, were bound over for trial in Circuit Court after a preliminary examination was held before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Wednesday, April 24.

The holdup took place on Monday, April 15, around 4:30 p.m. when a man pulled a gun on a security guard who was transferring money from the supermarket.

The distributor in your car directs the secondary current from the induction coil to the various spark plugs of your engine in their proper firing order. Sometimes the timing in the distributor needs to be adjusted, and sometimes the breaker points need to be set. The points are very hard worked components in your car. If they are not properly adjusted, they will not last as long, as they sometimes burn out from constant surges of electricity.

The 1974 Audi: the luxury car with the luxury of 24 m.p.g.

You can panic and put your luxury car out to pasture during the gasoline crisis. Or you can ride it out in luxury in an Audi. Really ride it out. The Audi 100LS gives you 24 miles of ride to the gallon. Twenty-four luxurious Audi miles. In an interior so lush you can hardly tell it from a Mercedes 280. With so much legroom and headroom you'd think you were in a Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow. And the kind of smooth, controlled ride only independent front suspension can give you (ask an Aston Martin driver about that). Combined with the traction and stability of front wheel drive. The kind you'd find in a Cadillac Eldorado. So, you see? You still have the luxury of choosing luxury.

A lot of cars for the money. A lot of miles to the gallon.

Troublesome Juvenile Nabbed Again by Police

A 16-year-old Woods juvenile, who's awaiting a Wayne County Juvenile Court hearing Wednesday, May 8, on three separate charges of breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling, is now charged with unlawfully driving away an automobile stemming from an incident Sunday-Monday, April 21-22.

Michael Ferrence of the Youth Service Division, (YSD). However, the detective stated a petition will be filed on the 16-year-old in the stolen car incident. This juvenile is allegedly involved in several Woods burglaries last November, the break-in of a Putnam place home March 13 and the burglary of a Crescent lane residence in January.

One View From The Capitol

House Republicans, with the help of 12 House Democrats, voted down the present version of the campaign reform bill last Friday. The people of this State have called for a tightening up of campaign laws and judging from the editorials I have read, and the letters I have received, they know that the House Democratic leadership has so far been unwilling to provide that.

Four hours later, Woods Corporal Robert Setchell and Sergeant James Davidson received information from Officer Paul Crook that a 1972 Grand Prix was seen going east on Hollywood from Marter road. A few minutes later, the officers spotted this auto going eastbound on Vernier. The car accelerated at a high rate of speed, zipped through a red light on Vernier at Marter and turned left on Virginia lane, with the officers in pursuit.

Miss GP Pageant Finalists Receive Much Assistance

By Roger A. Waha As the 10 finalists in The Miss Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant steadily approach the big evening Saturday, May 11, at North High School, they have received a great deal of assistance from the Jaycees, who are sponsoring the event. With three more rehearsals to go, the young ladies already have benefited from seeing themselves performing their talent on tape as the organization recently borrowed taping equipment, both video and aural. "Each girl saw her own performance and the reactions were unbelievable," commented George A. Williamson, pageant publicity director.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The temperature may still be dipping down into the 30's, and September is a summer away from spring, but a group of Grosse Pointe women are enthusiastically Thinking Autumn! Thinking Tennis! Thinking Autumn and Tennis! . . .

Thinking Tennis and Crumpets. Brimming with plans to make 1974's Tennis and Crumpets benefit a smashing success, the '74 T&C committee headed by Mrs. Ned I. Chalat, of Middlesex boulevard, gathered at Children's Hospital early last month for a general membership meeting of Tennis and Crumpets, Inc.

There they heard T&C's new goal of a five-year $200,000 pledge to purchase Children's Medical Cardiology Suite outlined.

Specifically, monies raised via the next round-robin metropolitan Detroit tennis tournament will be used for the Hospital's Cardiac Catheterization Room, in which internal heart procedures, vital in successful open heart surgery on infants and children, are performed.

Mrs. Arthur Buhl Hudson, of Merriweather road, has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the Eighth Annual Tennis and Crumpets Tournament, to be held this year the weekend of September 14, with finals and party scheduled for Saturday, September 21.

Last year, over 1,800 players participated. Since Patron Support, (anyone who contributes $20 or more, player or non-player, becomes a T&C Patron), is essential to the benefit's success, committee members gathered at Mrs. Hudson's home last Monday to address a spring Patron mailing. They're hoping, of course, for better than ever response this year.

Anyone interested in lending support who is not on the current T&C Patron letter list may contact patron chairman Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr. She'll have you on that letter list so fast! . . .

Jewell, in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium Sunday, May 12, at 7:30 o'clock. The whole family will return to the War Memorial for the concert.

Mrs. Frank Wellington Coolidge, Michigan's "Mrs. Music," is a concert committee member, an early associate of Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, founder of the National Music oppochos (Friends of the Floor) Society of the Seventh Archdiocesan District, which is holding its biennial conference May 1 and 2 in Detroit, is HELEN ZAMBORNIS, of Morningside drive. Another Pointer, ALICE PAPPAS, is Society treasurer.

A tennis tournament at Windermere Island in the Bahamas turned into an all-Grosse Pointe event last week, with two local boys winning the Windermere Island Club's April invitational doubles tournament and three of their brothers among the top finalists. JIM MURRAY, of Lothrop road, and BILL MECKE, of Cloverly road, captured the doubles title and the first of three sets of Skau Trophies awarded in the tournament. In second place were Jim's brother, STEVE MURRAY, and his partner MRS. FRAN REED, of Lake Forest. III. HART MECKE and MRS. DIANE BIGELOW, of Findlay, O., won the consolation round from BRIAN MURRAY and MICHAEL KNOWLES, of Rock Sound, Eleuthera.

Co-chairman of and competitor in the 1974 Michigan State University Block and Bridle Horse Show was MSU sophomore BETH KRAY, daughter of the RICHARD KRAYS, of Aline drive. Beth, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, has a dual major: Agricultural Communications and Animal Husbandry. She's a member of the MSU Block and Bridle Club and served as distribution editor of Focus magazine.

MR. and MRS. BRUCE P. BRACKEN, of Battle Creek, formerly of Rivard boulevard, announce the birth of a daughter, LISA BRIDGET CONWAY, April 16. Mrs. Bracken is the former JUDITH TOSSY NAPP, daughter of COLONEL and MRS. PAUL G. TOSSY, of Bishop road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. DENIS J. BRACKEN, of Webber place.

Schedule Dykema Memorial Concert

Reception Will Follow Community Music School's Annual Spring Program Honoring its Late Co-Founder

The Detroit Community Music School will present its annual Margery R. Dykema Memorial Concert at 3 o'clock this Sunday, May 5, in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts. Tickets for the benefit will be available at the door.

A reception follows at the School, John R and Kirby streets, Detroit. The building adjoins the construction site of the new Center for Creative Studies, of which the Community Music School will be a part.

Featured soloist this year will be Ervin Moaroe, principal flutist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He will be accompanied by pianist Fontaine Laing, of the DCMS faculty, and by harpsichordist Alice Lungers. (Continued on Page 18)

This is Miss Kinkerooll.

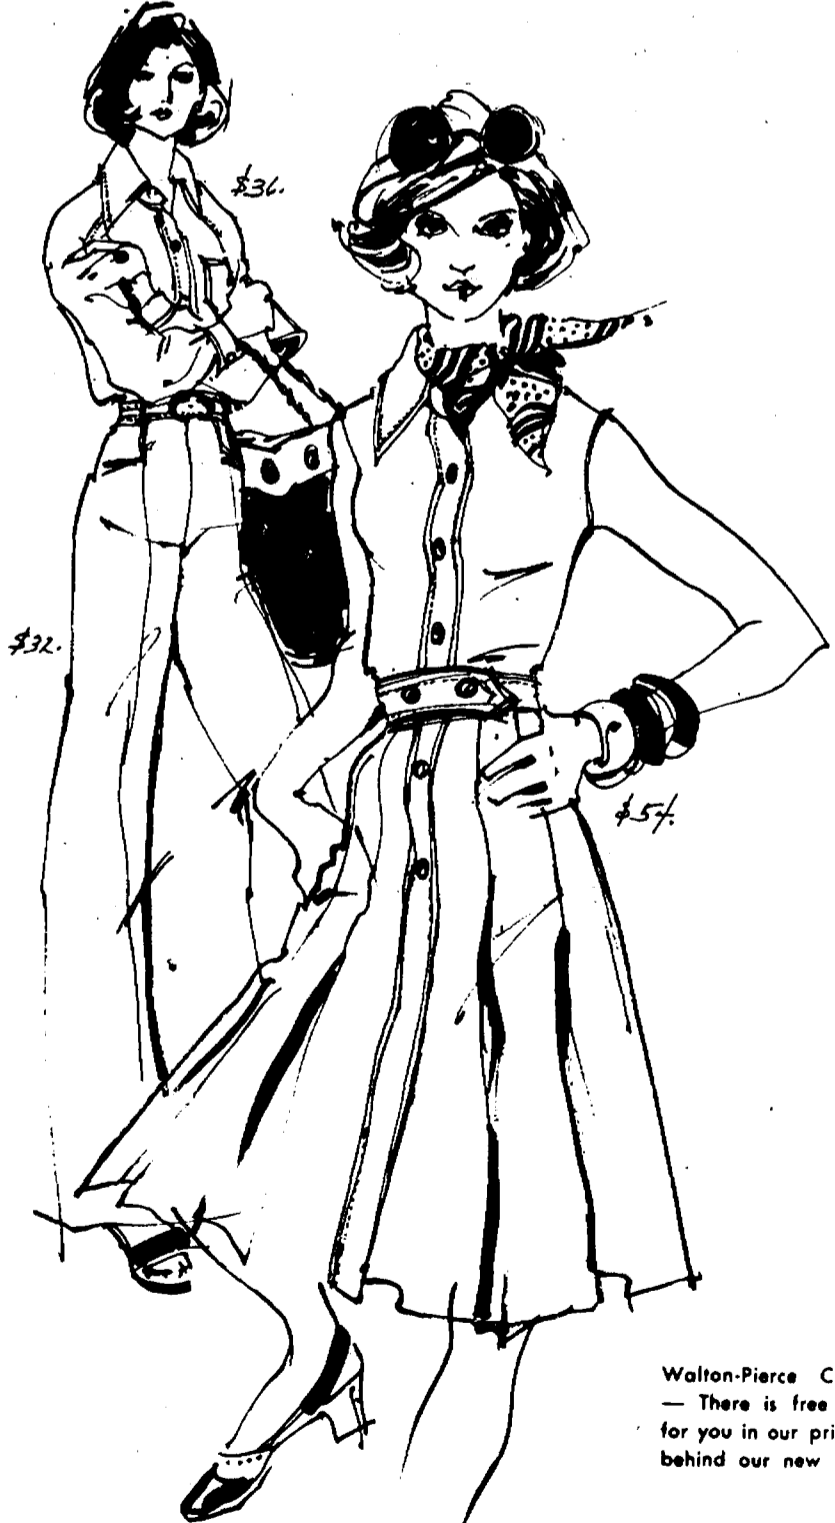

She has a little problem. Oh, her hair looks well enough when it's just been done. As long as there's no humidity. Or rain. Or stuff like that. But let any of these things happen and — plinkety, plink, here comes the kinks. What's a girl like this to do? Easy. A girl like this comes to us and gets her hair straightened all neat and silky and then icky-poo weather will hardly ever bother her at all. If you have a friend with the aforesaid problem, be nice. Tell her about us. And how we can straighten her out. Like that.

Annual Luncheon For Woman's Club

Members to Model Fashions from Martha's Closet after Brief Installation Ceremony; Bridge Games Will Conclude Afternoon

Lochmoor Club will be setting for the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club's annual luncheon, installation of officers and fashion show this year. The party is planned for Wednesday, May 15, starting with an 11:30 o'clock cocktail hour.

After luncheon at 12:30 o'clock members and guests will applaud as Mrs. Dallas E. Newkirk conducts a brief installation ceremony, formally introducing Mrs. Stuart Micklethwaite as the Woman's Club's new president.

Other officers to be installed are Mrs. Dick Warner, first vice-president, Mrs. Lloyd Beemer, second vice-president, Mrs. John W. Murphy, recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Chojnowski, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Alexander J. King, treasurer.

Mrs. Jack Merritt is in charge of the fashion show, to feature clothes from Martha's Closet modeled by Mrs. Augustus Christie, Mrs. Carl Lamparter, Mrs. Russell Phillips and Mrs. Walter J. Bavel.

Mrs. Bewley D. Priestman and Mrs. Leo Huetter will provide the music. General party chairman is Mrs. Laurence Holmes, assisted by Mrs. Fred E. Matzka. Mrs. Vene Whims will serve as mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Thomas Pearl and Mrs. Hazen Keith share the hospitality committee chairmanship. Mrs. Morris DeFour is luncheon sponsor.

In charge of table decorations is Mrs. Joseph Montecarlo. The luncheon committee includes the Mesdames Micklethwaite, Murphy, A. E. Tamerelli, Ralph Urso, Sidney DeBoer, James H. Weideman and John Elias.

Chairman and co-chairman of bridge following the fashion show are Mrs. Paul Schafer and Mrs. Charles E. Backoff. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Newkirk or Mrs. John J. Kelly. Reservations must be in by Saturday, May 11.

Participating in ceremonies commemorating Tennessee Military Institute's 100th birthday were DR. and MRS. THOMAS E. SINGELYN, of University place.

KKG Alumnae Plan 'Salad Sampler'

Finalizing plans for Kappa Kappa Gamma Detroit Alumnae Association's eighth annual Salad Sampler luncheon, to be presented Thursday, May 9, starting at 11:30 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Chalfonte avenue at Lothrop road, are general co-chairmen MRS. GREGORY DANGLEIS, of Moran road, (left), and MRS. THOMAS PETERS, of Moselle place. Proceeds from the benefit are always earmarked for KKG Detroit's philanthropy, the Rehabilitation Institute. They'll be directed this year towards furnishing the Institute's chapel. Tickets at $2.50 each may be purchased in advance from Mrs. Edward Hathaway, 778-9078, or at the door. Assisting the Mesdames Dangleis and Peters are committee chairmen Mrs. Harry Sellars, Mrs. William Ludwig, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. Richard Roland, Mrs. John Mertz, Mrs. Allan Hart and Mrs. Willard Smith.

Slate Faculty Wives Picnic

Grosse Pointe Faculty Wives spring luncheon and annual meeting this year will be an experimental departure from former years: partly due to rising prices the affair will be an informal catered picnic buffet, with punch bowls greeting members on arrival at the Lakeshore home of Mrs. John Rohrer in Harrison Township this Saturday, May 4, at noon. Invitations and decorations themes are lunch baskets and wine bottles. The constantly-shifting lake scene will be the "entertainment." The party traditionally honors Faculty Wives' retiring officers, including Mrs. Thomas Buyze, 1973-74 president, Mrs. Paul Pierron, vice-president, Mrs. William Taylor, secretary, and Mrs. Joseph Devine, treasurer. Election of new officers, annual reports and plans for the coming year will follow luncheon. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Herb Ladd and Mrs. Gerald Morrison, assisted by Mrs. Frank Ford, Mrs. Paul Jablonski and Mrs. Rohrer.

Offer French Film Classic

The Grosse Pointe Alliance Francaise will present "L'Etranger," another in its current series of interesting French films, this Sunday afternoon, May 5, at 3 o'clock in the University-Liggett School Auditorium.

"L'Etranger" (The Stranger), a provocative and much-discussed movie based on the 1942 novel by Albert Camus, was brought to the screen by two internationally known film talents: Luchino Visconti in the director's chair and Marcello Mastroianni in the leading role of Mersault.

The late Albert Camus, born in Algiers in 1913, attained in his brief lifetime world-wide renown for his writings in journalism, the novel and drama. His later works influenced by Kafka, are said to have much in common with the philosophy of Existentialism.

Sunday's showing of "L'Etranger," with English subtitles, is free to Alliance members. Guests are requested to make a $1 donation.

Grand Marais Club to Meet

as herb casseroles and breads, relishes and salad, in two sittings, at noon and 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Richard Gerathy, authority on herbal cooking, will speak prior to and post-luncheon. She'll remain available throughout the day to consult with interested gourmets.

Reservations for the luncheon ARE necessary—how would you like to be faced with 20 leftover herb casseroles? . . . or, alternatively, find yourself running out for pizza when you'd promised more exotic fare? — and must be in by Friday, May 10.

Mrs. Hilary H. Micou, of Moran road, is accepting them, at $4.50 per person. Further information may be obtained by calling the Junior League Office, 881-0040.

Incidentally, the Herbal Luncheon is just ONE feature of Earth Fest, which will run from 10 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon. There'll be displays and demonstrations, contests, prizes, an art show, pony rides . . .

It's shaping up as Something Really Wonderful, a "Good News" day for the whole family and the whole community. Check out next week's "Pointer of Interest" to learn more about the entire fair, and EAN.

Mrs. Coulter Heads Girl Scouts

Speaking of "Pointers of Interest" . . . we learned, when interviewing Jan (Mrs. Thomas) Coulter, of Westchester road, our March 28 "Pointer," that she was in line for the presidency of the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit—but we promised not to say anything about it until everything about it was "official."

Well, now it is: Jan was officially elected GSMD president at the Girl Scouts' annual meeting April 24.

So now we can, officially, say "Congratulations!"

Congratulations too to Kerby School Principal Richard W. Kay, of Rivard boulevard, and Margaret (Mrs. Edward W.) Price, of Lakepointe avenue, and Margaret (Mrs. Robert F.) Sullivan, of Neff road, elected to three-year terms on the GSMD board of directors, and to Muriel (Mrs. Thomas H.) Rochford, of Belanger road, elected to a one-year term, and to Joanne (Mrs. Joseph A. Jr.) Murphy, of Kensington road, named to the GSMD nominating committee. Margaret Sullivan will serve as the board's nominating committee representative.

And extra special congratulations to Barbara (Mrs. Donald) Unger, of Harvard road, one of four Girl Scout volunteers awarded Thanks Badges — highest honor in Girl Scouting for an adult member — at the annual meeting.

Mrs. Unger, in 14 years of outstanding service as an adult GSMD volunteer, has been everything from troop leader to area cookie chairman. She's a troop consultant right now. She's been active too in PTA work, assisted with the local bulb planting program and organized and directed community Christmas parades.

She's also been active as mother to Don, 24, Steven, 23, Bill, 22, Karen, 21 and 18-year-old Susan.

GPYC Spotlight Is On Styles

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will present a dinner and fashion show by Bonwit Teller this Saturday, May 4. Women's styles will include evening wear and lingerie. Bonwit's men's boutique will present fine sportswear. Decorations have been designed by Dan DuChene, of the J. L. Hudson Company. Members and their guests will start the evening with cocktails at 7:30 o'clock. Dinner at 8:30 will be followed by the fashion presentation and dancing to Art Quatro's music.

The entertainment committee is chaired by Mrs. Stephen Gagne assisted by Mrs. Michael Whyte, co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. George Baer, Mrs. James Tompkins and Mrs. Fredrick Hillger.

PETER C. REDEBAUGH, son of MR. and MRS. G. ARTHUR REDEBAUGH, of North Oxford road, has been initiated into Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Western Michigan University.

MARY-ALICE AMBROSE, daughter of DR. and MRS. ROBERT H. AMBROSE, of Roslyn road, was one of 23 out of 1,500 eligible girls tapped by Mortar Board at Western Michigan University where she is a Physical Education major minoring in Aquatics and History.

Miss Scully Bride Of Daniel Walsh

Pink Touches at Empire Waist and Cuffs Accent Her Embroidered Organza Wedding Gown; Attendants Wear Pink Qiana

Vacationing on St. Simon's Island, Ga., are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Walsh, whose wedding Saturday, April 27, in Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

They will be at home in Detroit after May 5.

Mrs. Walsh is the former Katharine Jane Scully, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Scully, of North Rensselaer road. Mr. Walsh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Walsh, of Dearborn Heights.

For the 5:30 o'clock rites at which Dr. Harry Meserve officiated the bride chose a scoop-necked gown of embroidered organza touched with pink at Empire waist and cuffs.

Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a Venise lace Juliet top and she carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers and trailing ivy.

In pink qiana halter frocks with matching jackets, carrying arrangements of mixed spring flowers were honor maid Darcie Kerst and bridesmaids Mrs. Richard Schiller, of Ann Arbor, and Carol Peebles.

Michael Parrish, of Midland, was best man. The bride's brother, Robert Scully, and Brian Josen, of Norchester, Mass., seated the guests.

The bride's mother chose a long gown of aqua qiana, long-sleeved and accented with floral braiding. The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown of mint green crepe. Both mothers selected white orchid corsages.

Spanish Club Meets May 6

The Grosse Pointe Spanish Club will gather Monday, May 6, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial to hear Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Bonior and Alfred Benavides discuss the troubadours of Spain and Mexico.

The speakers have made recordings of instrumentalists in various districts of both countries and will interpret their music. A sing-a-long with Mr. Benavides on guitar will be featured.

The public is invited. The Spanish Club meets the first Monday of each month at the War Memorial.

Plan Chrysanthemum Planting Discussion

Getting The Chrysanthemum Started In The Right Way will be topic for discussion at the next meeting of the Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society, to be held at the WWJ-TV Auditorium in West Lafayette boulevard, Detroit, this Sunday, May 5, at 3 o'clock.

Paul Machuga will be speaker and discussion leader. He is a Master Judge, member of the board and lecturer for the National Chrysanthemum Society.

His program at Sunday's meeting will cover instructions, with slides and demonstration, on how to prepare the ground and the proper way of planting and setting the chrysanthemum in the soil, and identification of the various forms of mums.

There is no admission charge. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

KATHARINE JANE SCULLY and Mr. Walsh exchanged marriage vows in Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Saturday, April 27. She is the daughter of the David A. Scullys, of North Rensselaer road. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Walsh, of Dearborn Heights.

Slate Spring Odyssey Day Sunday, May 12

Detroit Institute of Arts Sunday, May 12, (Mother's Day), visitors will be greeted with special attractions both in and outside the museum.

Highly visible at the Woodward avenue entrance will be a colorful one-story sculpture of flowers created by Nancy Platos for the Spring Odyssey Day in the Cultural Center.

Within, a lavish display of Florentine Baroque art will continue to attract visitors to its exclusive North American showing. Twilight of the Medici will be open from 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock, as are all 101 galleries of the museum.

Because dining out is a Mother's Day tradition the museum's cafe will offer its usual menu plus hot Italian entrees to carry the Medici theme into the Italian Renaissance setting of the Kresge Court.

The museum's 1,200-seat auditorium will alternate three classic W. C. Fields comedy shorts with three musical programs performed by Stanley J. Zydek on the auditorium's Casavant organ from 1 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Zydek is director of music for Park United Presbyterian Church, Highland Park. The Fields' films include "The Barber Shop," "The Fatal Glass of Beer" and "The Pharmacist."

The auditorium events are open to the public without charge. The auditorium may be entered directly from John R or via the Theatre Arts corridor from the museum. All institutions in the Cultural Center are participating in Spring Odyssey as members of Detroit Adventure.

Don't be backward about going forward, but be sure you know which direction to go.

STRATFORD 74. TOTAL THEATRE.

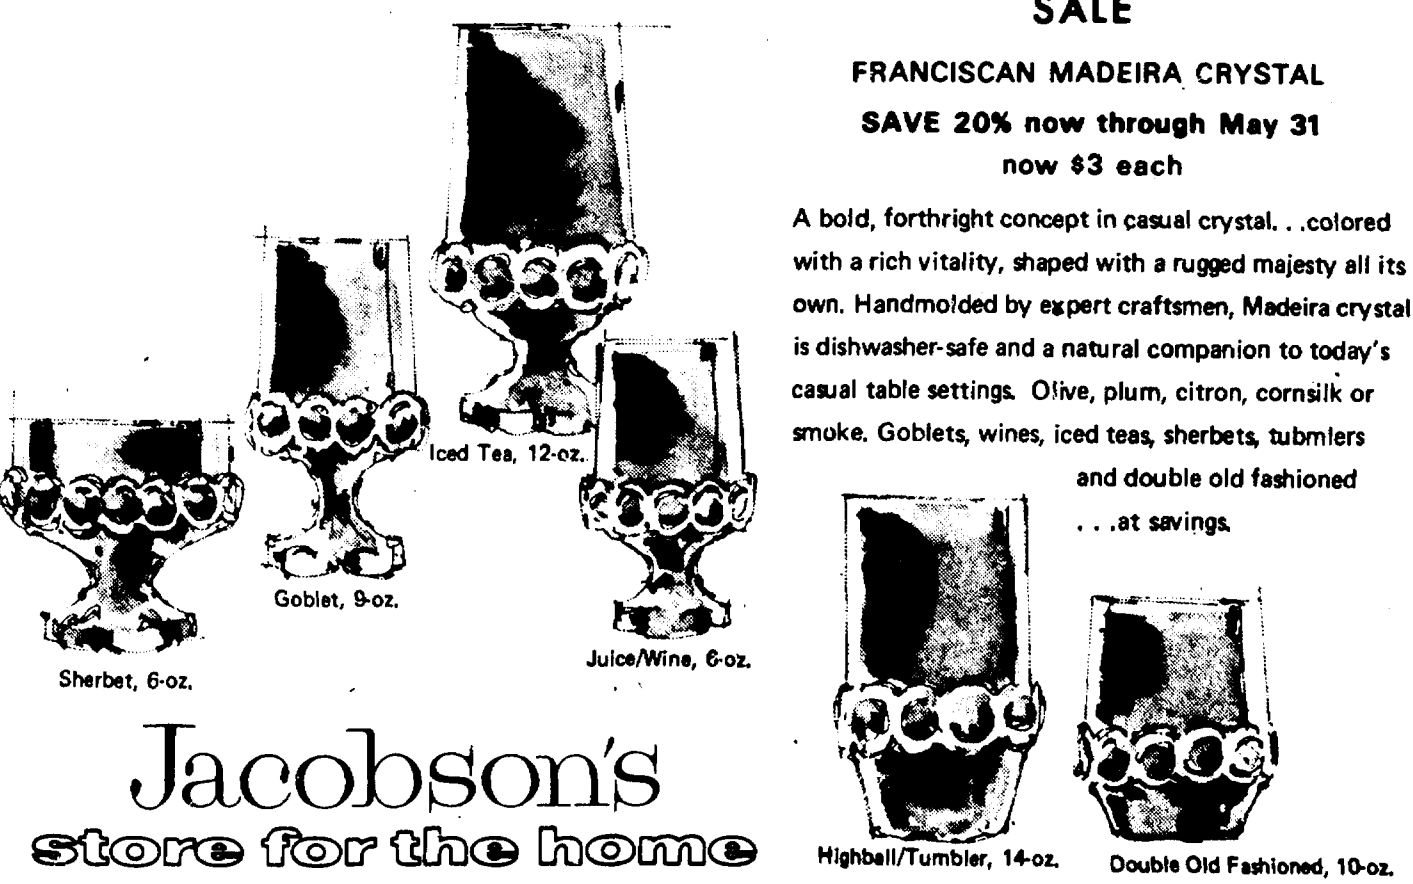

LIFE IN PARIS (LA VIE PARISIENNE) by Offenbach.
 The delightfully effervescent comic opera, LIFE IN PARIS (La Vie Parisienne), holds the stage at the Avon Theatre this season in a new English language version. Offenbach's subject is Paris in the 1880's. The tale is a hilarious confection of farce—with its mistaken identities, disguises and hectic pacing—combined with sumptuous spectacles and beautiful music. The result is an excursion into an improbable, lighthearted world where bored, rich Bourgeois arrange gala balls and banquets at the drop of a fan to deceive gullible husbands and win the favours of lovely ladies. Life in Paris is light opera at its most joyful, by the master of the genre. With Douglas Campbell and Jack Creley. Directed by Jean Gascon. English translation: Jeremy Gibson. Also Love's Labour's Lost, Pericles, King John and The Imaginary Invalid at The Festival Theatre. Contemporary opera and plays at The Third Stage. Outstanding concerts and International Film Festival. For complete information—a free copy of our '74 schedule of events—write to Stratford Festival, Stratford, Ontario or phone Stratford (519) 273-1600. IN DETROIT PHONE (313) 964-4668

Goodwill Vans Rolling Daily

Now that spring is in full swing Goodwill Industries trucks are out daily collecting quantities of assorted household discards which will bring employment to handicapped workers.

Ten large pick-up trucks are available each day to collect materials from collection boxes and homes in the metropolitan area.

The principal job of Goodwill Industries, a division of League For The Handicapped—Goodwill Industries, is to train and employ a large number of physically, mentally, emotionally or socially handicapped persons.

To do so the agency needs a large quantity of household discards which are used to keep the workers busy so they can be employed to their fullest capacity.

Always-needed items include all types of clothing, shoes, dishes, bric-a-brac, wooden and metal furniture and miscellaneous household articles.

In most cases Goodwill asks that clothing and small articles be deposited in one of the many collection boxes located on supermarket parking lots throughout the area. By using the collection boxes Goodwill is able to reduce costs. Funds saved can be used to better advantage in the Industries' program.

Goodwill trucks will make home calls for furniture and other large articles or for collection of a sizable quantity of bags of clothing. Anyone desiring a Goodwill truck pick-up may obtain one by calling TRinity 3-3600. Goodwill trucks come only on call and never solicit material on a door-to-door basis.

Groups interested in learning more about the League—Goodwill program of training and employment may arrange for a tour or for a speaker by calling the Public Information Department, also at TRinity 3-3600.

Catherine Schrage Wed In St. Paul's

Charles Lambrecht Ruifroks are vacationing in San Francisco and Hawaii; Will Return to Pointe to Make their Home

At a candlelight ceremony Friday, April 26, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore Catherine Helen Schrage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anthony Schrage, Jr., of Touraine road, became the bride of Charles Lambrecht Ruifrok.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Hawaii and San Francisco, will return to Grosse Pointe to make their home.

The 6 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Father Robert Allen, and The Reverend Douglas Styles presided were followed by a reception at the Country Club of Detroit. The bride's two nephews, James and Joseph Sylvain, of Harbor Springs, were altar boys.

Alencon lace and seed pearls accented the former Miss Schrage's white peau de soie Empire gown and cathedral train. Her double English silk illusion veil, fingertip-length, fell from a small cap of matching lace and pearls.

She carried a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Lauretta Fogt Wed on Saturday, April 27

Lauretta Lee Fogt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Fogt, of Neff road, and Lawrence Hodge, son of Captain and Mrs. Harry A. Hodge, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., exchanged marriage vows Saturday, April 27, at 6:30 o'clock in First English Lutheran Church.

The Reverend Paul F. Keppler presided at the evening rites which were followed by a reception at Regency Manor.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Toronto and the Eastern States. They will make their home in North Miami, Fla.

The bride's gown, white crepe trimmed with Venise lace, featured full sleeves and an Empire waist. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace-accented headpiece.

Baby's-breath laced her cascade of daisy mums, white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John F. Krause served as her twin sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Rosemarie Liska, of Holmes Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Stanley P. Sobotka, of Sterling Heights.

Their floor length frocks of aqua crepe were fashioned with Empire waists, ruffled V necks and ruffled, layered cap sleeves.

Their wore picture hats circled with daisies and ivy and carried nosegays of daisies and ivy laced with mimosa. James Rossi came from Fort Lauderdale to act as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Gerald H. Fogt, the bride's brother, of Mount Prospect, Ill., and Mr. Krause.

The bride's mother wore a full-sleeved, full-skirted formal length gown of floral silk. The bridegroom's mother selected a long, full-sleeved gown of mint green and white chiffon. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

Pamela L. Freeman Married March 9

Bolton, Vt., is Vacation Destination of Thomas Eschmanns Following their Candlelight Wedding; Southfield to be their Home

Wedding vows were spoken in Christ the King Lutheran Church Saturday, March 9, by Pamela Lynn Freeman, daughter of the George Freemans, of Briarcliff drive, and Thomas Eschmann, son of the Fred Eschmanns, of Boulder avenue, East Detroit.

The 5:30 o'clock double ring candlelight rites at which The Reverend Walter J. Geffert and Pastor Brown, of Midland, presided were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The bride wore her mother's heirloom gown of candlelight slipper satin styled with a full train and bodice and cuffs of Alencon lace matching the lace that edged her floor length candlelight veil. She carried three long-stemmed red roses.

In pale blue double knit frocks were honor attendants Grace Mueck, of Windsor, and Renee Freeman, sister of the bride, bridesmaids Susan Fisher, Linda Schreoder and flower girl Kristen Lerner, the bridegroom's niece. Each carried a single long-stemmed white rose.

Best man was Lowell Haas. Ushers were Tom Sleete, Glen Monish, Harry Vandenberg and Brent and Kevin Freeman, the bride's brothers.

The bride's mother chose a gown of aqua voile and lace, the bridegroom's mother a gown of blue tulle. Both selected white orchid corsages.

The newlyweds vacationed in Bolton, Vt., and are at home in Southfield. The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Guilloz, came from South Carolina for the ceremony. Other out-of-town guests were Otto Wittkops, of Bay City, the LeRoy Klemms, of Kalamazoo, and the Ernest Kriegers, of Saginaw.

ANTHONY C. FORTUNSKI, P.E., of Berkshire road, has been elected a director of the National Society of Professional Engineers.

GSMD Focus Is On Ecology

Aluminum mess kits, cloth bandana napkins and sturdy metal pots will replace convenience paper and foil products at Girl Scout camps this summer in keeping with the new ecology-oriented camping program developed by the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

The new program, SpaceShip Earth — Phase II, was recently introduced to more than 200 Scout leaders and other adult volunteers at a special Eco-Action conference in the Veteran's Memorial Building.

Participants viewed a newly-created filmstrip, received special written materials and attended informative demonstration workshops.

Chairman of the conference was Jan (Mrs. Thomas) Coulter, of Westchester road, who also serves as GSMD program chairman. Volunteer trainers conducting the workshop sessions included Pointers Sally Cox and Agnes Kay.

The focus of SpaceShip Earth — Phase II is on using an outdoor setting, specifically a Girl Scout camp, to help the Scouts become more aware of their environment and what they can do to preserve it.

Through education and their leader's guidance it is hoped that the girls will select camping equipment, methods and activities that will leave the least impact on the land.

Dr. William Stapp, chairman of the Environmental Education Department of the University of Michigan, was keynote conference speaker.

Dr. Stapp and three graduate students from his Department have been working with GSMD staff members for several months, designing the program and developing new materials including two booklets — one for girls, the other a leader's guide — and a filmstrip.

The booklets, Exploring Your World through Troop Camping, were distributed at the conference. They are now available to GSMD leaders and Scouts planning

Tea's Theme Is Japanese Next Tuesday

The annual May Tea at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church for all women members and their friends will follow a Japanese theme in honor of its guest Mrs. Albert (Alike Kote) Baggs.

Mrs. Baggs, presently a soloist at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Buffalo, N. Y., will relate her life story in word and song. Title of her program is Out of Darkness, Light.

Mrs. Baggs grew up as a Christian in Tokyo, later served U.S. Army chapels and USO Center with her rich musical talents and came to The States as an "army wife." Her husband is now an associate professor at Niagara University.

Women's Association President Mrs. J. Ross Bush will open the program at 1:30 o'clock next Tuesday, May 7, in the Sanctuary. Rev. David Ray A. Kiely will present devotions.

Tea following the program is under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. L. Gaylord Hulbert and Mrs. Herman Sattler.

Assisting Mrs. Sattler with Japanese decorations are Mrs. William Bundesen, Mrs. Arlington Lecklider, Mrs. Clarence Maguire and Mrs. James H. Weidman.

Among those helping in the kitchen and dining room are Mrs. Glenn Clark, Mrs. James G. Oates, Mrs. Joseph Sperry, Mrs. Clifford Lorange and Mrs. Bernard Whaley. The ministers' wives and six past-presidents of the Women's Association will pour. Child care is available. Tickets at $1 may be obtained at the Church Office or from any committee member.

Bolz Questing For Excellence As Symphony Fund Head

Norman A. Bolz, of Winthrop, Mich., was named general chairman of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1974 Quest for Excellence Fund at a recent meeting of the Orchestra's Development committee.

At the same meeting a goal of $1.5 million was set for 1974.

Mr. Bolz will lead his team of volunteer workers in this three-year phase of a fund drive launched in 1972 to help assure the continuance of the Orchestra as a major community cultural asset.

"Each of us has found it necessary to address new problems emerging out of the energy crisis, which affects the economic stability of the social and cultural environment in which we work and play," Mr. Bolz stated.

"It is, therefore, vital to the well-being of the Detroit community that we maintain the forward momentum on behalf of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, which is one of the bulwarks of our cultural heritage."

The initial phase of the three-year funding program was guided by Orchestra President Robert B. Semple, of University place, who served as 1972 chairman.

Harold G. Warner led the 1973 campaign and will continue to participate as chairman of the newly-formed Development committee.

The Development committee is an executive committee which coordinates the Orchestra's fund-raising activities, overseas immediate and long-range planned giving and provides continuity for the annual campaign.

It is comprised of seven Symphony board members.

Mr. Bolz stated that the response to both the Orchestra's needs and its services in 1973 brought a 63 percent increase in the number of donations as well as an all-time high of $1,350,142 in contributions.

"When you consider the results of our recent campaigns, and add to that the substantial increase in ticket sales last year, I believe we can define an upward trend which can only complement and enhance the renewed downtown orientation," he observed.

Mr. Bolz has been a member of the Orchestra's board of directors since 1970 and a member of its Executive committee since 1972. He is also chairman of the Orchestra's Financial Policy Committee and was instrumental in revising the forecasting of financial reporting of the Orchestra's financial affairs.

He and his wife, Betty, are consistent concert-goers and Detroit boosters.

Mr. Bolz is also on the operating board of the Orchestra and chairman of its Pension Committee.

He has served as chairman of Mayor Coleman A. Young's Task Force of City Government and Organization, is a member of the board of trustees, Executive committee and Finance committee of New Detroit, Inc., serves as a member of the board of trustees and the Funding Review committee of the Economic Development Corporation of Greater Detroit, is a trustee of Walsh College and was Audit chairman for three years for the United Foundation.

He is a member of the Economic Club of Detroit, the Detroit Institute of Arts, Greater Detroit Board of Commerce and the Newcomen Society, the Detroit Club, the Detroit Athletic Club, the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Country Club of Detroit.

Theatre Topic For Phase I

David Robert Kanter, managing director of Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre, will talk about the staging of current productions at a meeting of Phase I, an all-singles group, at 7:30 o'clock this Sunday, May 5, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

A social hour will follow the program.

A Singles Party is being planned for Friday evening, May 10, from 8:30 to 1 o'clock at the Georgian Inn. Live music will be provided by the Cameleon band.

Admission to the party is $3 per person at the door. Dress will be coat and tie. There will be free beer until 9:09 o'clock.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Singles from 20 to 40 are invited to attend. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

Supper With Stars Opens Opera Week

MR. and MRS. GARY L. COWAN, of Fairholme road, (left), and MR. and Mrs. JOHN C. GRIFFIN, of Lakeshore road, preceding Sunday's "Supper." The Mesdames Christensen and Cowan were chairman and co-chairman, respectively, of the program.

Participating in the Wayne State University Medical Annual Fund Class Agents' luncheon April 10 was DR. ALINE U. ORTEN, of Maison road, a member of the Friends of the WSU School of Medicine and clinical assistant professor, WSU Medical School Department of Medicine.

A Lovelier YOU

by JOE

Pretty hair is clean, shiny and well-brushed. This means that shampooing is a beauty necessity. Whenever your hair starts to show signs of oiliness, a shampoo is definitely in order. Once a week may not be enough. Even if oiliness does not affect your hair, the presence of chemical pollutants, smoke, etc., can dull its sheen, and make it less attractive. The right care will make your hair look more lustrous.

For a lovelier you, visit GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES, 20427 Mack Ave., 884-2090. Whether you want a perfect hair cut, natural looking coloring, tone on tone frosting, hair conditioning, a manicure, etc., you'll find us to be the complete one-stop-beauty shop. After all these years, maybe it's time you moved to bigger and better things.

If you've been considering a bigger house, or a newer one, there'll never be a better time than right now to make your move.

And, right now, National Bank of Detroit can help you make that move. We have mortgage money to lend, and we lend more than any other bank in town.

We'll give you prompt word on the approval of your mortgage loan, and set up your closing in as little as two weeks thereafter at an NBD office in your neighborhood.

We might also save you some money. Our closing fee on uninsured conventional mortgages is a simple flat fee that has nothing to do with the size of your mortgage. And that could possibly save you enough money to buy a new chair for your new home, or carpet one of your new bedrooms.

Why not look into a mortgage loan now at any of the more than 100 offices of NBD. The bank that's ready to help you get a new house—now.

Evening Nuptials For Miss Brigulio

Becomes Bride of Michael Rhodes in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church; Pair Are Vacationing for 16 Days in Europe

A gown of white maracaine styled with a Chapel train, its standup collar, yoke and Empire waist embroidered with seed pearls and crystal beads was Angela Brigulio's choice for her Friday, April 26, marriage to Michael Rhodes.

Her illusion veil fell from a matching beaded Juliet cap and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white miniature carnations, stephanotis and baby's-breath accented with coral Sweetheart roses. After the 5 o'clock mass in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church at which Father Donald MacLennan presided and a reception at Georgian Inn, the newlyweds left for a 16-day tour of Europe.

Mrs. Michael Rhodes

In Our Lady Queen of Peace Church Friday, April 26, ANGELA BRIGULIO, daughter of the James J. Brigulios, of Stanhope avenue, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Rhodes, son of Mrs. Michael Rhodes, of Bishop road, Detroit, and the late Mr. Rhodes.

They will return to make their home in Sterling Heights.

The new Mrs. Rhodes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Brigulio, of Stanhope avenue. Mr. Rhodes is the son of Mrs. Michael Rhodes, of Bishop road, Detroit, and the late Mr. Rhodes.

Nancy Brigulio, who served as her sister's honor maid, and bridesmaids Mrs. Philip Sloan, another sister of the bride, and Louise Nowicki wore long frocks of coral Finessa jersey fashioned with high necks and Empire waists.

Each carried an arrangement of white Fuji mums, coral carnations and baby's-breath.

Best man was James Brigulio, the bride's brother. Marc Decker and Bruce Faehner seated the guests.

Mrs. Brigulio selected a silver chiffon gown with a Venise lace bodice for her daughter's wedding. She pinned cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother chose a floor length gown of pink matte jersey trimmed in white lace. Her flowers were pink cymbidium orchids.

Wheels For HOPE Ball Set May 31

Proceeds from $100-a-Couple Black Tie Dinner-Dance Will Assist Project HOPE Health Programs throughout the World

Highlighting the Wheels For HOPE Ball to be held at Raleigh House Friday, May 31, will be the HOPE diamond—in replica, it's true, but said to be so similar to the original that only an expert could tell the difference.

Wearing the gem will be Mrs. Herbert J. Bloom, general chairman of the 1974 Ball and one of the original founders of the Detroit Women's Division for Project HOPE.

Invitations for the $100-a-couple black tie dinner-dance were addressed at a special luncheon at the Rager House in East Jefferson avenue last Thursday. Hostess was Wheels For HOPE chairman Mrs. Florence Sisman.

Project HOPE is the principal activity of The People-to-People Health Foundation, Inc., an independent non-profit corporation dedicated to bringing medical teaching programs to developing areas throughout the world, including the United States.

"Project HOPE exists because there are people with hope. People who have given 3.5 million men, women and children on four continents the chance for happier, more productive lives through improved health care," says Joan H. Kolodzie, Project HOPE central regional director.

"These people with hope have volunteered their professional services or have served HOPE at half or even a third of the pay they could earn in the United States. They have given millions of man-hours to help raise funds for the work of HOPE. "All have given to help Project HOPE attain its goal: to bring the skills and techniques developed by the American medical professions to other people of the world in their own environment, adapted specifically to their needs and their way of life."

Currently there are HOPE Schools of Health Sciences in Macelo and Natal, Brazil, Bridgetown in Barbados and Kingston in Jamaica. Project HOPE has for many years worked in its previously developed teaching centers in Peru, Columbia and Tunisia.

Health education and career training programs continue in Laredo, Tex., and Ganado, Ariz., with a new program scheduled to open in El Paso, Tex., this summer. A major new HOPE program is also under development in Ethiopia. Project HOPE will begin to phase into hospital and related activities of Kagnew Station, a former military base in Eritrea, Ethiopia's northernmost province.

More than 100 medical, nursing and allied health personnel will be involved in this education center, and work will be carried out in several locations throughout the African nation.

The Detroit Musicians League's annual meeting at the Women's City Club Tuesday, May 21, at 10 o'clock will be followed by a piano recital by Flavis Varani, of Oakland University. The League's spring luncheon will be held at noon.

Miss Barr Married To Robert Cleland

Caribbean is Newlyweds' Vacation Destination; Hillcrest Country Club Reception Follows Evening Rites

At an evening ceremony in the Wendy lane home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald George Barr, Saturday, April 20, Paula Michele Barr spoke her marriage vows to Robert Harry Cleland.

The 7:30 o'clock rites at which Father Michael Callahan presided were followed by a reception at Hillcrest Country Club. Rows of beading accented the bride's trainless long white jersey gown. Matching beading circled the crown of her white jersey picture hat and net covered the beading, forming a bow in back from which long streamers descended.

Woods Garden Club To Meet

Mrs. George Miles will open her Roslyn road home for the Tuesday, May 7, noon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club. Plans for a May 15 day trip to Holland for the opening of the Tulip Festival will be discussed.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Albert Beaver and Mrs. Frank Dettmer.

She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids accented with stephanotis and white roses.

She was attended by her sisters, Karen Elizabeth Barr as maid of honor and Wendy Patricia Barr as bridesmaid, carrying bouquets of daisies, tangerine roses and baby's-breath.

Their sleeveless frocks, floor length, were fashioned of tangerine crepe.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Lee Cleland, of Port Huron, asked his father to act as best man and the bride's brother, Donald George Barr, Jr., to usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barr selected a long dress and jacket ensemble of apricot jersey and a corsage of apricot-tinted daisies and apricot roses.

Accordian-pleated wrinkles accented the neck and wrists of the bridegroom's mother's long aqua chiffon dress. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Upon their return from a Caribbean cruise the newlyweds will make their home in Port Huron.

Mrs. Robert H. Cleland

The Wendy lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald George Barr was setting for the Saturday, April 20, marriage of their daughter PAULA MICHELE BARR to Mr. Cleland, son of the Delmer Lee Clelands, of Port Huron.

Symphony Gets First Endowed Chair

A gift of $250,000 from the Josephine E. Gordon Foundation has been received by the Detroit Symphony to launch the Orchestra's endowed chair program.

This endowment is the first of its kind in the history of the Orchestra. The Foundation has chosen to endow the Principal Cello Chair, henceforward to be known as the James C. Gordon Chair.

Principal cellist is Italo Babin, who has held that post since 1960.

The Gordon Foundation grant, presented as a memorial tribute to the late James C. Gordon, was recognized by DSO President Robert B. Semple, of University place, as "an important step forward in building our endowment funds, so vital to the long-range financial health of the Orchestra."

While acknowledging the generosity of the Gordon Foundation grant Mr. Semple also pointed out that "not only has a gift of financial impact been received but a significant new program of support for the Orchestra has been instituted, opening a new avenue for continued development."

The principle of endowing chairs or professorships has long been established at universities, but only recently have orchestras sought underwriting of specific key instrumental positions. The Detroit Symphony is now added to the list of leading American orchestras with endowed chairs, including Minnesota with 14, Boston with seven, St. Louis with four and Cincinnati and Seattle with six each.

To Lead WUF in Year Ahead

New Women for the United Foundation (WUF) officers have been elected for the 1974-75 program year.

WUF, the non fund-raising arm of the United Foundation's women's activities, works to recruit volunteers for the annual Torch Drive.

Year-round WUF programs include Healthoramas, the free health-testing events for which WUF annually recruits and trains hundreds of volunteers, and the prestigious Heart of Gold Volunteer award luncheons.

Re-elected president for a second term is Mrs. Joseph A. Vieson, of Birmingham.

Serving with her as vice-presidents are Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow, of Vendome road, Mrs. R. Thomas Snyder, of Dearborn, Mrs. Arthur L. Thompson, of Detroit, Mrs. Raymond Weidner, of Trenton, and Mrs. Isadore Winkelman, of West Bloomfield.

Recording secretary is Mrs. Richard Gamalski, of Warren. Her assistant in the post will be Mrs. Charles R. Kinnaird, of Moran road. Among those nominated for three-year terms to WUF's board of directors are Pointers Mrs. Willard S. Smith and Mrs. Gerald E. Warren.

New Torch Drive residential chairman is Mrs. Robert A. Valk, of Renaud road, who will lead a team of 40,000 women in next fall's campaign.

Mrs. Valk has extended an invitation for volunteers to help with door-to-door solicitation in homes and neighborhoods all over the tri-county area.

"It's the most efficient use of our volunteer time," the new chairman believes. "With one call, we are crusading for more than 140 worthwhile health and community service agencies which help all of us, no matter where we live."

Mrs. Volk adds that the residential portion of the campaign gives retired and self-employed persons a chance to contribute to the Torch Drive, and informs homemakers about where their husbands' paycheck deductions will be put to use. Willing workers may call the United Foundation of

South Takes Two of Three

By Mark Emery
Grosse Pointe South's baseball team dropped a low scoring game against the Shamrocks of East Detroit. South's inability to establish an offense proved to be a decisive factor in the recent 4-1 loss.

Bill Tocco and Steve Morrison combined early to provide South with their only offense as Tocco singled with Morrison aboard. South led until they fell apart defensively beginning in the second inning. Three South errors accounted for two of the four East Detroit runs.

The Shamrocks put two across in the second while adding two more in the fourth. South's pitcher Dick Redmond picked up the loss, his second, while striking out 11 East Detroit players.

South wasted no time against Bishop Gallagher, as Bill Tocco slashed a triple scoring two runs in the first inning. South came back for three more in their half of the second inning. Consecutive walks to Matt Armbruster and Morrison, then singles by Scott Solomen, Chris Montague and Tocco accounted for the second inning scoring.

The Devils brought across another run in the fourth while Gallagher remained scoreless. A South error started a three-run sixth inning for Gallagher, but a strong pitching performance by Armbruster offset any further threat. Armbruster went the distance for the victory, his second win against one loss.

University Liggett fell victim to a powerful South offense in an embarrassing 8-3 defeat. Solomen scored on a Tocco sacrifice in the first inning. South picked up two more in the fourth, three in the fifth and another two runs in the sixth inning.

Park Police Investigate Death of Husband, Wife

Park police are investigating the possible suicide of an elderly Park man and the resulting accidental death of the man's wife.

The investigation is still pending and police are awaiting a report from the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office, which should take about two weeks, it was disclosed by Chief Henry Coonce.

Chief Coonce said evidence uncovered to date indicated that the death of Marion C. Redfern, 70, of 569 Lakepointe, was an apparent suicide. His body was found on the front seat of one of two cars in a garage on his property by a Park firefighter.

The body of the dead man's wife, Mary T., 67, was found on a couch in a basement television program, when she was apparently overcome by carbon monoxide that had seeped into the house.

Police, called to the house by a relative, who had tried unsuccessfully to phone the Redferns several times, and who became alarmed when he received no answer, broke into the house. They found the body of the family's pet dog on the first floor, and they found Mrs. Redfern dead on the couch, with the TV set still operating in the basement.

The police officers, and the firemen who arrived in the emergency ambulance, were forced to wear gas masks before they could enter the building, it was said.

Chief Coonce said the police and firemen, at the scene theorized, although not definitely, that Redfern had started the engines of both autos in the garage after closing the doors. Although attached to the house, there is no door or window leading into the house proper, the chief stated.

Redfern, who was in his night clothes and bathrobe, had to go out of the house to enter the garage, Chief Coonce said. An investigation showed that the gasoline tanks of both vehicles were empty. The keys were in the ignitions, both of which were on.

Fire Chief Phillip Costa surmised that the carbon monoxide must have seeped through the porous bricks and mortar, rendering Mrs. Redfern unconscious before she could realize what was happening. She died of asphyxiation by the deadly gas.

Mr. and Mrs. Redfern are survived by their children, Mrs. Ronald (Sherrill) Albion, and William; and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Redfern also is survived by a brother, Gladden. Mrs. Redfern is survived by a brother, Howard J. Lauff, and two sisters, Mrs. Walton Shannon and Mrs. Robert Benkert.

Funeral services were held in the Verheyden Funeral Home, 16300 Mack Avenue, and from St. Martin Catholic Church, Drexel and Averill court, Detroit, on Friday, April 26.

Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

"I never stuck long at anything I didn't like... On the other hand, there are few things I don't get fun out of, if only the novelty of experience. I love people, except the well-fed smug, and am interested in all new things and all the beautiful old things they do. I love beauty and chance and change... I suppose I'll always be a Romanticist." —John Reed

Set Symphony Concert May 7

The Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony will present its second concert of the season Tuesday, May 7, at 8 p.m., in Parcels Middle School, 20600 Mack Avenue.

Conductor Nathan Judson, Instrumental Music Director at North High School, will lead the orchestra in a varied program featuring Beethoven's Egmont Overture, Bach's Piano Concerto in F Minor, first movement, with Stephanie Leon performing as soloist, and Nellybel's Music for Orchestra.

Following an intermission the group will be back to perform Tchaikovsky's Intermezzo, Saint-Saens' Allegro Appassionato, with Patty Jobbitt as cello soloist, Greig's Ase's Death and Lowden's arrangement of Sounds of the Carpenters.

Both soloists are regular members of the Junior Symphony. Miss Leon, pianist, is an eighth grader at Brownell Middle School, a piano scholarship student of Albert Fillmore of the Detroit Community Music School, and a cellist with the Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony.

She has entered numerous festivals playing both piano and cello, and in March she won first place in the 13-year-old division of the Ann Arbor Annual Bach Competition for piano students. Her two sisters, Suzanne and Kelly, also are also Symphony members. Both play the violin.

Miss Jobbitt, a tenth grader at South High School began the study of cello while a fifth grader at Kerby Elementary School. She is a pupil of Mrs. Mary Ellason.

She has performed solos and ensembles at Solo and Ensemble Festivals for the past four years. She attended Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp for one summer, and two sessions of the All-State Intermediate Orchestra at National Music Camp.

Miss Jobbitt is second chair cellist in the South High School Symphony Orchestra and has been a Junior Symphony member for two years.

SUMMARY OF MINUTES
APRIL 15, 1974

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present on roll call: Mayor William G. Butler, Councilmen James H. Dingeman, Jack M. Cudlip, Joseph L. Fromm, and W. James Mast. Those absent were: Councilmen Nancy J. Waugaman and E. Rust Muirhead.

Mayor William G. Butler presided at the meeting. Councilmen Waugaman and Muirhead were excused from attending the meeting.

The Minutes of the Regular Meeting which was held on March 25, 1974 were accepted as corrected.

The Minutes of the Special Meeting which was held on March 28, 1974, were accepted.

The Council granted the appeal of Mr. Peter B. Clark of 193 Stephens Road, and thereby authorized the issuance of a permit by the Public Service Director for the construction of a six foot fence to enclose the rear yard on his property located at the above address.

The Council received the proposed Budget Document for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1974 and ending June 30, 1975, and scheduled a public hearing to be held at 8:00 p.m. on May 20, 1974, at which time adoption of the foregoing proposed Budget Document will be considered.

The Council approved the proposed Budget for the Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division for the fiscal year 1974-1975, and renewed the contractual agreement with the City of Grosse Pointe Woods for the fiscal year 1974-1975.

The Council approved payment of a statement from the firm of Vilcan-Leman and Associates, Incorporated in the total amount of $272.50 for professional community planner consultant services pertaining to the review of the Site Plan for the development of Rose Terrace.

The Council approved the low bid of Van Liegh Electric, in the total amount of $1,400, to provide electrical service to the shelter building at the Pier Park.

The Council authorized the removal of one tree on the northwest corner of the intersection of Kerby and Beaupre Roads, such removal to be performed by Shock Brothers on a time and materials basis.

The Council received a memorandum from members of the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System, transmitted to the Council by the Policemen and Firemen Retirement Commission, requesting fully paid Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance coverage for retirees of the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System and their spouses, commencing upon their retirement at age fifty-five or thereafter, such coverage to take effect July 1, 1974, upon approval by the voters. Mayor Butler stated that the proposal would be discussed at the upcoming budget meetings.

The following Reports were received by the Council, and were ordered placed on file:

A. Building Department Report for the quarter ended March 31, 1974.

B. Police Department Report for the month of March, 1974.

The Council set the next Regular Meeting of the City Council May 6, 1974, as the date at which the Site Plan for the proposed development of Rose Terrace would be reviewed.

The Council received a communication from Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., Commissioner, Wayne County Board of Commissioners, regarding a "Bike Day" to be held on Lake Shore Drive on June 9, 1974, which would necessitate the closing of Lake Shore Drive on that date. The foregoing communication was placed on the Agenda of the next Regular Meeting of the City Council to be held on May 6, 1974.

The Council adopted a resolution authorizing any two councilmen to sign withdrawals from the escrow account held jointly by the City of Grosse Pointe Farms and Cottage Hospital, and further that the aforementioned Councilmen shall report their action to the City Council at the next Regular Meeting following such action.

The Council adopted a resolution citing the parking area at the Mack Avenue-Moross Road shopping area, which is owned by Mr. J. M. Kogan, as constituting a hazard or nuisance in its present condition; that the City has resolved to rectify this situation according to Section 11.9 of the City Charter; and that the City Council will act upon this matter at the Regular Meeting of May 6, 1974.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m.
