DEMAND CROSSING GUARDS

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, September 12
MILITARY REFORMERS in Ethiopia today deposed and arrested Emperor Haile Selassie while promising a democracy for the peasants. The 82-year-old emperor was the world's oldest and longest-reigning monarch. The 13-man military committee that has been running Ethiopia for several months said it was recalling the emperor's son, Crown Prince Asfa Wossen from Switzerland to make him a figurehead king without any authority. The city was put under a night-time curfew at 7:30 p.m. this evening.

FIREFIGHTERS ABANDONED their efforts to bring a raging fire under control aboard the luxury cruise ship Cunard Ambassador yesterday. The fire had knocked out the ship's emergency power supply and fear rose that the ship might capsize during the night. The ship, located in the Florida straits 39 miles southwest of Key West, had no passengers on board when fire broke out about 7:15 yesterday morning. A total of 256 crewmen, including 50 entertainers, abandoned ship while 52 crewmen remained to battle the flames.

FORMER PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon has a new and painful blood clot in his left leg and is suffering from "severe strain and mental fatigue," his doctor said Friday. According to Air Force Maj. Gen. Walter Tkach, Nixon's longtime personal physician, hospitalization has been ruled out at the former President's personal request, and he remains "mentally alert." Tkach said he decided against hospitalization after Nixon told him "If I go into the hospital, I'll never come out alive." The physician described him as a "ravaged man who has lost the will to fight," despite the pardon from President Ford.

FORMER PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon or his aide Henry A. Kissinger overruled State Department and CIA advice and ordered about one million dollars spent in an attempt to thwart the election of Chilean President Salvador Allende, a former high intelligence official said Saturday. After being lauded, the former U.S. official said the money was changed into Chilean currency and ultimately funneled by the CIA to Allende's opponents in the 1970 election. Allende won a six-year term, thus becoming the first Marxist to win an election in the Americas.

THE NAACP, with a two-page motion signed by the chief attorney for the association in the Detroit case, Louis R. Lucas, went to federal court to ask that a Detroit only busing plan be put into effect next January. There has been no action in the Detroit case since July 25, when the U.S. Supreme Court rejected a metropolitan integration order that would have linked Detroit and 532 suburban school systems. A new judge must be selected as no one had been chosen to hear the rest of the case since the time of U.S. District Judge Stephen J. Roth's death July 11.

PRESIDENT FORD offered conditional amnesty Monday to an estimated 28,000 Vietnam war resisters, (draft evaders and military deserters), in return for up to two years of public service and an oath of allegiance. He called it "an act of mercy to bind the nation's wounds." The proclamation was offered to those who had resisted between August 4, 1964, and March 28, 1973.

Officers and Directors of Pointe Rotary Club

RICHARD J. FERRARA, M.D., board of directors; MARVIN ASMUS, membership secretary; RICHARD J. PRYCE, treasurer; CLARENCE F. WASCHEK, board of directors; and JOSEPH A. TOLARI, board of directors. Not available for this picture was Minert N. Thompson, Jr., club secretary. The Rotary Club, in keeping with its long tradition, plans another year of active participation in civic and charitable events in The Pointe.

Bold Thief Visits CCD On Sept. 10

Young Man Taps Cash Boxes in Front Office; $242 Stolen in Phone Operator's Absence

The Country Club of Detroit (CCD), 220 Country Club drive, was the target of a robbery Tuesday, September 10, at about 5:30 p.m. Stolen from the front office of the club was $242.01 in cash.

The phone operator at the club, Mrs. Marguerite Scott, reported to Grosse Pointe police that she left the club for a few minutes and returned to find a black male leaving the area behind the counter.

When asked what he was doing in the office he told her he was looking for a map that belonged there and since he couldn't find it he was going to leave a replacement.

Becomes Suspicious
The unknown man then left the office saying he was going to the men's grill to look for his cousin. Mrs. Scott became suspicious of his actions and checked the office, finding a cash box belonging to the day operator out of place.

Another box belonging to the bell man was found hidden from sight and had money missing.

Pointe Lakefront Parks Close after Active Year; Directors Cite Highlights

Popularity of Tennis Soars with More Courts Installed; Woods Looks Forward to New Facilities Due Next Season

As pools are drained and picnic tables are stored away for the winter, Grosse Pointe park directors can anticipate the relaxed pace of autumn with recollections of summer days that kept pools, picnic areas and docks bustling with activity and saw a record number of Pointers take to the tennis courts.

Most of the directors at the five Pointe waterfront parks described it as a below-average summer for attendance, but each recalled personal highlights at his park.

While some directors spoke with pride of a successful regatta, (The Farms), or the opening of new tennis courts to residents, (The City), others reveled in describing plans for a new pool and tennis courts for next summer, (The Woods), or the possibility of an inter-city tennis league.

Attendance Drops
At the Farms Pier Park, Parks and Recreation Director Ed Lauer said attendance dropped from 200,000 last year to 170,000 this year, the lowest since 1968.

"It wasn't a good year for attendance," Mr. Lauer commented, "and we only had two days the park was open in September. Labor Day was a blah. We usually get 3,000, but this year we only drew 585."

A new recreational and tot wading pool was opened to Farms residents this summer. Mr. Lauer said, "The $30,000 pool, donated by Allan Sheldon III, was completed and opened for full operation at the beginning of the season. Mr. Lauer said a new picnic shelter building for inclement weather was also

Paving Plan Killed in G. P. Woods

Residential Opposition Leads to Rescinding of Proposal; Hearing Date Set on Vacation of Street's East Half

By Roger A. Waha
Residential disdain over the proposed special assessment district, (SAD No. 138), for paving the east half of Sunningdale Park led to The Woods Council's abandonment of the proposal. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, September 9.

Michael Barry, of 1626 Lochmoor boulevard a property owner in the proposed district, presented a petition bearing 35 signatures to the council.

It requested the solons to abandon SAD No. 138 and, at the same time, asked the city for a vacation of the east half of the street so it could be returned to the abutting property owners for their eventual utilization as a private drive. Under this proposal, the other half of the roadway would go to the city.

Moves to Rescind

With this development, Councilman Rodger A. Graef moved that the proposed special assessment district be rescinded and his colleagues unanimously agreed.

The vacation request would require a public hearing and Mr. Graef moved that a hearing date be set for the Monday, October 7, meeting to honor the residents' request.

Proposed Storage Ordinance Given Negative Review

Measure Survives First Reading by Woods Council by 6-1 Vote; Some Changes Are Suggested

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods' proposed ordinance providing for the regulation of the outside storage of boats, various trailers, (boat, utility, travel, house), and other recreational equipment received a negative review from several residents who shared their opinions with the council at the regular meeting Monday, September 16.

However, the measure, which has undergone some revisions during its often agonizing, (for both citizens and city officials), estimated 2½ year career, survived its first reading as the solons by a 6-1 vote received and placed it on file. Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan is opposed to the ordinance.

Residents raised various criticisms over the measure's content and offered some suggestions which, they felt, would improve it.

Councilman Ronald R. Keegen, Parks and Recreation Committee chairman, said he took note of all the points which were raised — points which the council would consider prior to the ordinance's second reading and the possible final adoption at the Monday, October 7, meeting.

Can Be Amended
The solons can amend the measure if they deem it necessary before final adoption. Dr. William H. Jevons, who has had a steady interest in the ordinance, told the council he would like to see the ordinance amended to include a provision which has gone into the proposal. But he asked for the clarification of certain sections and suggested possible changes.

He cited, for example, Section 1 (g) and Section 4, (Special Permits). Section 1 (g) defines "stored" or "storage" and says these terms will mean the keeping or standing of a recreational vehicle in any particular place or area, not inside a garage or similar structure, within the city limits for a period of time exceeding 72 hours in any seven consecutive day period.

Section 4 states that any recreational vehicle owner, upon application to the public safety director or his designated representative, and upon a showing of necessity as determined by the director, will be permitted outside storage of such equipment for a period longer than 72 hours each seven day time period by receiving a temporary permit.

Only One Renewal

But in no instance will any temporary permit for outside storage be issued for a longer period than 72 hours in addition to the permitted 72 hours. The public safety director will be empowered to renew such a permit for an additional 72 hours upon his determination of absolute necessity and hardship. In no instance will any permit be renewed more than one time.

Dr. Jevons said Section 1 (Continued on Page 4)

Hot Meeting Attended by Mad Parents

Woods Council Calls Special Meeting to Discuss Situation; May Reverse Decision

By Roger A. Waha
An estimated 95-100 concerned citizens packed the Woods council chambers Monday evening, September 16, and urged the city to get back into the school crossing guard business.

After a consistent give and take between parents, PTA members and crossing guards with city officials, the council unanimously decided to meet within a 48-hour period and make a decision.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said the council would meet Wednesday morning, September 18, (after press time), and decide whether the city should provide crossing guards and have City Administrator Chester E. Petersen continue to pursue negotiations with their union, (Metropolitan Council 1123 AFSC & ME-AFL-CIO), or to stay out of the business entirely.

"We will advise Mr. Petersen of our wishes as he is the negotiator and administrator for the city. We will not override his authority in the city charter," he said. In the meantime, council representatives and School Board members were scheduled to meet Tuesday, September 17, to discuss the situation.

Went on Strike
All the action on the crossing guard problem didn't transpire at the council meeting. Various developments took place last week on all fronts, city, School Board and union, after 17 guards went on strike Thursday, September 5, in a dispute over salary and reassignments. At that time, they resisted a city ultimatum to return to work Monday, September 8. Their failure to do so was considered as their resignations by the city.

Program Call For Volunteers

Persons to serve as Volunteer Probation Officers, (VPOs), are being sought by the Grosse Pointe Volunteer Probation Program. The recruitment drive will last through September with training of VPOs beginning in October.

The new program, which encompasses all five Pointe municipalities, is geared toward helping 17- to 30-year-old offenders who are tried in Pointe courts. Certain cases handled by the municipal courts could benefit more by having a probation program available for the offender.

Anyone over the age of 18 who is willing to act responsibly in the assignment given is eligible to be a volunteer. Interested persons can call 885-8228 or stop by the Volunteer Probation office, 20943 Mack avenue, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Application forms are also available at the chambers of each of the Pointe municipal judges.

Woods Council Studying Seniors' Recommendation

By Roger A. Waha

A recommendation on a senior citizens housing complex and activities building, plus their possible location, was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the Woods Council. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, September 9.

After careful consideration and exploration of possible locations, the Woods Senior Citizens Commission recommended that the council locate the buildings in the west end of Ghesquiere Park, said Catherine H. Brophy, commission secretary, in a letter to Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos.

However, the mayor said (Continued on Page 8)

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra was on stage at Parcels School recently for its first rehearsal of the season. On hand were grandmothers and grandfathers, high school students, businessmen, housewives and everybody in between.

Bicycle Thief To Go to Jail

A Detroit man, charged with larceny under $100 and with violation of probation, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and spend 45 days in the Detroit House of Correction, (DeHoCo), by Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Wednesday, September 11.

Sentenced was Steven Zegros, 20, who gave his address as 684 Eastlawn, Detroit. His probation period, after he has served his time, has been extended one year.

Many Residents Stress Need of School Crossing Guards in G. P. Woods

Mr. Petersen stated the alternatives included (1), To continue to negotiate with the union towards reaching a settlement. "It's been reported that the guards were asking for $2 per crossing, (they had previously received $1.90). We made that offer during negotiations and the union leadership turned it down," he said. Related to this point, Mr. Petersen said at the council meeting that "we could capitulate and meet the last demand of the union of $6 an hour," ($3 per crossing).

(2), To utilize meter maids and the dog warden at the Mack avenue-Vernier road crossing and then consolidate some of the other crossings with the use of traffic signals, e.g., at Holiday and Cook, Marter and Roslyn and Morningside and Roslyn.
(3), Split the cost of maintaining the crossing guards between the city and the school district.
(4), Get out of the business entirely because the city had no legal responsibility to provide guards. In this case, he said the responsibility would mainly be put on the schools with a voluntary program utilizing the resources of the PTA's, mother's clubs, et al., with the city helping train volunteers.

Sends Board Notice
In his letter to Mrs. Hanpeter, Mr. Petersen said, "Pursuant to the resignation of all of this city's part-time crossing guards, notice is hereby given that the City of Grosse Pointe Woods is discontinuing the program of providing a school crossing guard service for the Grosse Pointe schools located within the City of Grosse Pointe Woods.
"The discontinuance of such services at all 12 school crossings located within our city shall become effective September 14, 1974; provided, however, that the City of Grosse Pointe Woods shall temporarily supply for the next 30 days such crossing guard services, with current employees," at five locations.
These locations include Mack at Cook road/Allard avenue; Mack at Vernier; Vernier at Mack; Mack at Anita avenue; and Vernier at Morningside drive.
"Please be advised further that the Traffic Safety Division within our Department of Public Safety has been requested to cooperate fully with any related school group or agency in the proper training of personnel to serve as crossing guards for the Grosse Pointe School District as may be desired."
Board Upholds Adams
Mrs. Hanpeter said the Board met in executive session on September 16 to discuss the overall problem and Mr. Petersen's letter. She stated Board members decided to uphold School Superintendent James A. Adams' position, (which she said was as good a response, regarding her feelings, on the situation "as I could give you"), as expressed in a letter, (dated Friday, September 13), to parents.

Dr. Adams said, "The trustees and I are greatly concerned about the notice given by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods that it will discontinue crossing guard service for Mason, Ferry, Monteith, Barnes, Parcels and North High School. We share your deep concern for the safety of your youngsters.
"You are well aware that since the opening of school we have attempted to reach a temporary solution by enlisting the services of volunteer crossing guards. However, in the interest and welfare of the students of Grosse Pointe Woods, it is unthinkable that this vital service could be expected to continue on a volunteer basis. I am most appreciative of the help given thus far by volunteers.
"I personally feel that pedestrian safety is a municipal responsibility. This has been common practice in all the communities in which I have served as an educator.
"This matter will be discussed by the Board of Education in an executive session slated for Monday, September 16. The Board's position will be made known to parents and citizens.
"It is my hope that parents will share the concerns they have expressed so forcefully to the school trustees and to me with the members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Council prior to that body's next public meeting, to be held September 16."
Also Wrote Petersen
In a letter to Mr. Petersen dated Thursday, September 12, Dr. Adams stated, "As I review the contents of your letter, (regarding the possible elimination of school crossing guards), of September 10 to Mrs. Hanpeter, I am greatly concerned.
"From my perspective as superintendent of schools, I am disturbed by the potential safety hazard this would constitute to children in your municipality who attend public, private and parochial schools in Grosse Pointe Woods. The Board of Education will discuss the crossing guard situation at next Monday evening's executive session. Therefore, we shall inform you of the consensus reached.

"I do hope for a continuation of the current amicable relations between the school system and all officials of the municipalities we serve. I was somewhat surprised that we were not contacted prior to this action by The Woods Council."
Union Files Charge
A second development was on the union front. A union spokesman said an unfair labor practice charge against the city was filed with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission last week. Mr. Petersen had no comment on this development.
Realizing the community interest on this matter, YSD Detective Patrick Fagan, president of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association, (GPWPOA), issued the following statement:
"The Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association and its members are in no way involved in the present situation between the city, its crossing guards and the School Board. Our primary concern is for the safety of our children.
"It is for this reason that without taking sides in this dispute, we wish to thank the concerned parents and citizens who are taking time to help cross the children. We hope this emergency will be resolved soon."
Citizens Speak Out
At the council meeting, many citizens expressed their feelings over the city's decision, (which could alter depending on the Wednesday morning meeting), to cease providing the crossing guard service.
John Cobau, of Oxford road, who's the director of Citizens for Education, said this was an issue of great interest for everyone regarding the safety of the children. He cited a section of the city charter, saying the council shall see that provisions are made for persons and their property, including the safety of children in the city.
"I feel the city, rather than the School Board, should provide the crossing guard service. The city has the expertise and its people have training in the area of traffic safety," he said. He noted that crossing guards serve both public and private schools and if the school administration handled it, they wouldn't have authority over private schools.
Want Guards Back
While not condoning the stand of the strikers, he wanted the city to be charitable and urged the council to get the crossing guards back on the streets.
Charles Woodbury, president of The Pointe PTA-PTO Council, first spoke as president of the organization. "I oppose any action to terminate the employment of the crossing guards." He urged further negotiations towards employing the guards and emphasized his concern over the children's safety. "Education is the responsibility of the school system while safety in the community is the responsibility of city government," he emphasized.
Then he spoke as a concerned citizen and urged the city to "reassess its values." In this respect, he cited the $1,980,000 Lake Front Park improvement package and felt the city's values were "a little warped" in relation to what the crossing guards were asking, (crossing guard Mary Moloci had earlier told the NEWS that guards had been striving for a 10-cent raise for four years to up their pay from $1.90 per crossing to $2).
Has Praise for Guards
A resident then told the council that every youngster walking across the street is a $20,000 investment for parents from the time he is born. She stressed the great work of the crossing guards. "Our women are doing a terrific job," she said, while adding the city should spend more money on them.

Woods Public Safety Officer Bruce Marone, speaking as a concerned parent, said he, along with other officers and meter maids, has been a crossing guard since school started this year. He said at any time he could be subjected to an emergency call, would have to respond and leave youngsters without protection.
Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan said many schools provide a crossing guard service and felt the school system has jurisdiction over the students. She said Officer Marone actually gave a good argument for the city getting out of the crossing guard business. She felt if the schools took over this service, they would have more resources.
Calls Stand Silly
Stanley McFarland, Barnes PTA president, accused the city of doing the citizens a real disservice and felt officials should have realized how "critical and emotional" this matter would be. He urged the city to immediately get back to the bargaining table and to get the guards back on the corners. He called the city's negotiating position and stance "absolutely ridiculous, childish and silly."
Mr. Pinkos stated that a contract couldn't be negotiated that evening. "Individual crossing guards can't negotiate a contract nor can Mr. Petersen negotiate with them. It's up to the union."
City Attorney George Catlin spoke on the legality of the city providing crossing guards during the course of the evening. He said the Michigan Court of Appeals has ruled that cities are not bound by any State law to provide trained and paid street crossing guards for school children.
He also cited another ruling in this matter and said, "I know of a number of communities in the immediate area where the school district furnishes crossing guards and not the cities."
Nonetheless, it became apparent as the discussion progressed the residents definitely wanted The Woods to get back into the crossing guard business and were determined to make their views felt.

Shave Parking at Post Office

Farms police changed four parking meters in front of the U.S. Post Office at 18640 Mack avenue, near Warren, from one-hour to 12-minute meters Tuesday, September 10. The action came after the Farms Council voted unanimously the day before to make all six meters in front of the Office 12-minute meters.

At their September 9 meeting, the Council reviewed a police recommendation to alleviate traffic congestion in front of the Post Office. Several Grosse Pointe residents attended the meeting to express opinions on the issue.

The police recommended that the council make four of the six meters short term meters. (Two were already 12-minute meters.) Stanley Thorwaldsen, of Williams avenue, suggested to the Council that the biggest problem and concern is double parking in front of the Office in the morning, especially at the corner of Mack and Warren. Chief of Police Robert Ferber pointed out that many of these double parking violators are postal employees picking up mail, who are forced to commit the violation because of lack of parking space behind the office.

The council then agreed all meters should be as short a time as possible, and Chief Ferber informed the council 12-minute meters were readily available and most feasible for the location.

Woods Studies Traffic Control Device Report

The results of a survey regarding the possible installation of traffic signals at three Woods school crossings was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the council at the regular meeting Monday, September 9.

At the city's request, Reid, Cool and Michalski, Inc., traffic and transportation engineers, of Southfield, reviewed conditions at the crossings in order to determine appropriate configurations of traffic control devices required for the protection of school children.

The crossings are Cook road at Holiday/East Kings court; Morningside drive at Roslyn road; and Marter road at Roslyn. In all three instances, the engineers said it would be difficult to make any case for traffic signals at those intersections.

Charles S. Michalski, who released the study results, stated an adult crossing guard is posted at each of the crossings during school hours. "Stop signs control vehicular traffic in each of the four approaches to the Cook road-Holiday-East Kings court and the Morningside drive-Roslyn intersections. These are frequently described as four-way-stop intersections. "The Marter road-Roslyn intersection is posted with two stop signs which control traffic on Roslyn only. We were advised that this intersection was previously under four-way stop control."

Mr. Michalski also noted, "The statistical analyses do not make a case for traffic signals at any of the three intersections studied. However, this report would fail in its purpose if its sole basis for rejection of signals were based only on a statistical analysis."

"Opportunities for observation of the crossings were limited because the school year was ended before the hard analyses were undertaken. Nevertheless, the participants in this study did see enough to form valid opinions."

At the conclusion of his report, Mr. Michalski raises a question.

"Experience in the Detroit metropolitan area has shown that traffic signals alone cannot always be relied upon to protect children properly at school crossings. Indeed, there are cases where adult crossing guards are stationed (at) signalized intersections," he said.

"In the case of the three intersections included in this study, traffic signals abetted by safety patrol boys or girls would probably perform up to expectations."

"However, would this be acceptable in light of the experience at four-way stop intersections in Grosse Pointe Woods where the burden is on every motorist to stop and not just the 50 percent that would be required to stop for a red traffic signal?"

This question, plus other aspects of the report, will be considered by the council before a decision is reached.

Happiness depends on knowing when you have enough.

FLEC Needs Volunteers

The Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council (FLEC) has issued a request for volunteers to operate its programs. FLEC is a non-profit organization dedicated to strengthening the family unit through community-oriented programs, responding to current social problems which affect family relationships. In cooperation with other organizations, FLEC provides education, information, and short-term counseling to residents in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area.

Volunteers are needed to help in the FLEC office, open 9-3, Monday through Thursday, at 20043 Mack avenue, in The Woods (885-3510) and for Dialogue, a "hotline" for adults who want help but don't know where to turn.

The service, which offers a listening ear plus information and referrals on family problems is open Monday and Wednesday, from 7 to 9 p.m., at 881-0270. Volunteers will be trained.

Medical Clinic, which offers medical services to young people with sexually-oriented problems, needs volunteer doctors and nurses to work two hours per month. Doctors should call 371-5033 and nurses should call 882-4323.

Young adults are needed to man the telephones at Center Point Crisis Center Monday through Saturday, from 4 to 11 p.m., and Sunday, 7:30-11 p.m. Trained volunteers at the Crisis Center offer objective listening and moral support, drug counseling, emotional problems counseling, and referral to other agencies if desired. Interested young adults should call 881-7744 after 4 p.m. for the October training session.

Individuals interested in volunteer work should call the FLEC office at 885-3510.

Postpone Trial Of 2 Suspects

The trial date of two men who recently pled guilty to a charge of attempted larceny over $100 but withdrew their plea was adjourned from Wednesday, September 11, to Wednesday, October 9, Woods police reported.

Officers said the trial was adjourned because one of the suspects, Daniel Sherwood Gibbs, 20, of 11117 Borgman, Belleville, didn't show up so a capias i.e., a judicial writ for his arrest, was issued for him. Both Gibbs and Walter Joseph Cierpial, 21, of 3334 East Ferry, Detroit, are scheduled for trial on the 9th stemming from an incident on March 19.

At that time, the pair, along with John Preston Rials, 20, of 29314 Cahalan, Roseville, were nabbed by Woods police. Rials wasn't charged in The Woods because he was being prosecuted in St. Clair Shores on a breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling charge.

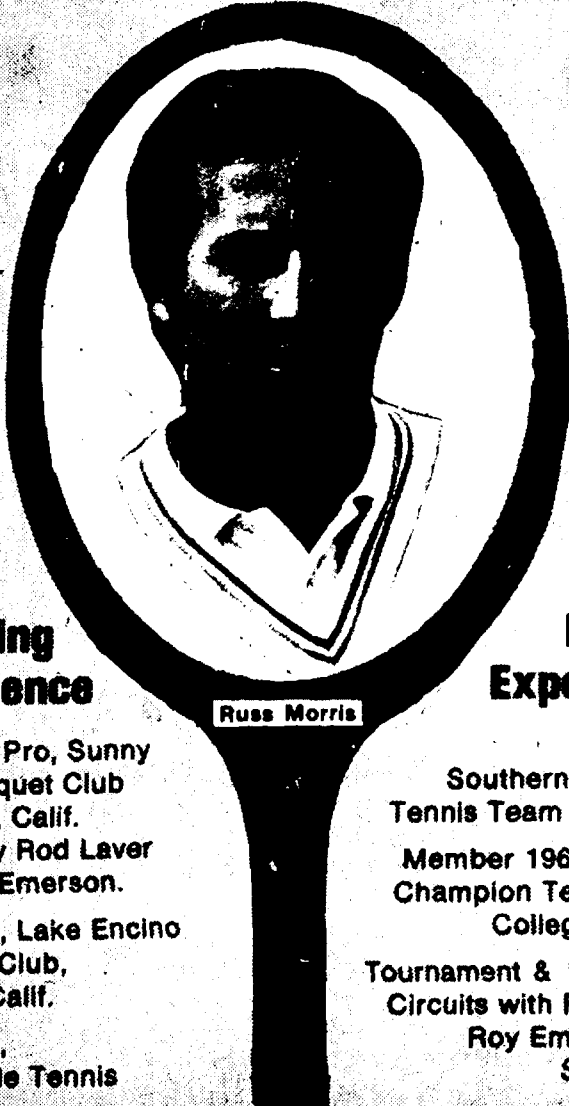

Officers said Rials was recently sentenced in Macomb County Circuit Court to from six to 15 years in prison on the burglary charge.

Police stopped the trio with one headlight illuminated and found two television sets, a record player and radio inside the auto. Investigation revealed these items were taken during the burglary of a St. Clair Shores home.

Both Gibbs and Cierpial are charged with receiving and concealing stolen property, police stated.

Paving Plan Killed

(Continued from Page 1) assessed $3,704.30 and $1,935.70, respectively. The total cost, as proposed, was estimated to be $28,000 of which $11,280 would have been chargeable to the city-at-large and $16,920 would have been chargeable to the district, (i.e., the residents). The proposal included the construction of a 9'-6 1/4"-9" concrete pavement 21 feet back-to-back of curb with necessary drainage in Sunningdale Park from Sunningdale to Lochmoor.

At the Monday, August 19 meeting, over a dozen residents expressed their displeasure with the proposal. Many questioned the necessity for such an improvement with the proposed paving, they felt, not benefiting all families included in the district.

As a result, the council tabled further action to give abutting property owners to Sunningdale Park an opportunity to petition the city for vacation of the street and eventual utilization of Sunningdale Park for their own private drive. In reviewing the reasons for establishing the district, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos cited four points at the August 19 session. These included (1), the council had been informed the gravel road is a public road; (2), the "unique" situation that the street is used both as a private and public road; (3), the city must maintain the road; and (4), that proposed improvements would have benefited the city.

Computer, Guns Taken in B-E

Two long guns and a mini-computer, all of unknown value, were taken during the burglary of a Hampton road home last week, Woods police said.

The incident was reported Tuesday morning, September 10, and officers believe the culprits entered the house sometime between Saturday, September 7, and the 10th.

Several rooms in the house were ransacked and in an upstairs bedroom, police found where the thieves had cut an eight-inch hole in the lower section of a window.

Other goods reported missing include two cut glass decanters, a toy bank with an unknown amount of money and several lighters.

It is better to be mistaken and own up than to continue blindly on the same course.

Storage Ordinance

(Continued from Page 1) (g) and Section 4 fail to make allowances if someone, for instance, is ill for a month or if he took an extended trip. He said there were no provisions in such a case for a recreational vehicle to sit in a person's driveway.

The doctor wanted a paragraph entered in the law so a special permit could be obtained under these circumstances.

In response, City Attorney George Catlin said someone could move a recreational vehicle for this person or, if such a case came to court, the judge may not issue a fine when the facts of the situation were presented. Mr. Catlin added he would keep this point in mind.

Touch of Humor
Not without a touch of humor, Dr. Jevons replied he would like something written into the measure to cover such a case rather than depend upon the kindness of the judge who "may have had a bad breakfast."

The doctor also questioned Section 2 (1) which says no boat exceeding 28 feet in length, as measured by the Secretary of State, and no house trailer or motorized home exceeding 28 feet in length, overall, will be stored within the city. He called the length designation arbitrary and discriminatory and suggested it be eliminated from the measure.

And like other residents, Dr. Jevons took exception to the content of Section 5, (Storage Site Approval).

It says all recreational vehicle owners must obtain an approval certificate for storage from the building inspector and that applications for a certificate must be accompanied by the written consent "to such application signed by the owners of property immediately adjoining the lot or parcel of land upon which the proposed storage site is to be located."

Raps Consent Clause
Dr. Jevons felt the neighbors' consent aspect should be eliminated. If a person fulfills the requirements of the ordinance, why should he run to his neighbors for their consent?, he asked. Another person said it wasn't his neighbors' business as long as the provisions of the measure were met.

Another sticky point with some citizens was the proposed $5 inspection fee which will be paid to the city upon each application. One resident, in objecting to the fee, felt it would be raised in the future, while another citizen said it was "totally useless."

Mr. Catlin said this site inspection fee was a one time charge which would help defer the cost of the building inspector coming out and checking the location.

A resident said this point should be stated in the ordinance because "when you fellas are gone, (referring to the council), new people would be here." This remark inspired some good natured laughter.

Other questions raised by the audience included:

- Is a motor boat and a motor home, which are different in size, considered the same for the purpose of the measure? Mr. Catlin said for the ordinance's purpose they are considered the same and they would require the necessary approval of the storage site.

- How did the ordinance come about? Whose idea was it? Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said its history covers some 10-15 years and is based upon questions and discussions on the residential front, plus some complaints by citizens about the storage of recreational vehicles on private property.
- What about the storage of recreational vehicles on commercial property? Mr. Catlin stated no mention is made of such storage in the measure. However, such storage in a commercial district would be permitted provided the owner complies with all aspects of the ordinance.

Drive a different car each day of the week.

- Sun. A perfect day to relax amidst luxurious surroundings like the Mercedes-Benz 280's.
- Mon. The answer to getting in and out of traffic is to have the same type of steering system as the racing Ferrari.
- Tues. You've got a car that handles beautifully in the rain. That's because it has front-wheel drive like a Cadillac Eldorado.
- Wed. City potholes aren't that bad if you've independent front suspension like an Aston Martin.

- Thurs. A long business trip ahead. Thank goodness the car gets 24 mpg*. That's virtually the same as a VW.
 - Fri. Getting ready for a nice weekend. And all the luggage fits nicely into a trunk as big as the Lincoln Continental Mark IV's.
 - Sat. The whole family is enjoying the ride. Because there's about the same headroom and legroom as a Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow.
- The Audi 100LS
It's a lot of cars for the money.

Pointe Parks Have Active Season

10 Courts in City

"At Elworthy Field, we replaced the dugout on the main diamond and opened six new tennis courts to residents, bringing our total to 10," Mr. Gauerke remarked. "They were very heavily used." Four of the six new courts are lighted, and two were specially built to be used as skating rinks during winter months.

Praising the new tennis courts' operation, Mr. Gauerke said the employment of a new system of reservations was well-received by the public.

"We imposed a 1½-hour playing limit and charged $1.00 an hour, and things ran very smoothly," he said. "Two of the courts were free and were reserved for children."

Mr. Gauerke mentioned the inter-city swim championships, a fishing rodeo and Boating Club events as highlights of the summer.

Neff Park's third-place swim team ranking also drew praise from the director. "It's outstanding for us, considering we're from a community of 7,000 people compared to large communities like The Woods and St. Clair Shores."

Shores Draws More

At the Shores Osius Park, attendance for the months from May to August was up from last year's 54,436 to 56,247.

Don Messing, park director, said the new tennis lights installed on courts this year encouraged playing from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Swimming and tennis lessons were very crowded, he said.

Playground equipment, including spring-activated toys and a stagecoach, were added at a cost of $987.

Mr. Messing counted a tennis tournament and a splash party open to all Shores residents as summer highlights.

Windmill Pointe Park, on the Detroit border in The Park, drew 209,630 residents this year, compared to 220,080 last year. At its Three-Mile Park, also on the Lake, attendance was up to 31,240 from 28,000 in 1973.

"We had our biggest day in the entire history of the park on the Fourth of July this year, with 7,547 in one day," park director William Starr noted.

Mr. Starr said 780 residents enrolled in tennis classes, almost double the 1973 enrollment. "Figures for golf and swimming lessons were much closer to last year," he said, "with about 500 enrolled in swimming and 32 in golf."

Mr. Starr proudly chose Windmill Pointe's first place swim team as the most important distinction of the summer, noting it was the fifth consecutive year it took the honor.

Sail Races Popular

"Our Tuesday night sailboat races were also big events this year," Mr. Starr said. "They seem to be getting more popular every year."

New equipment in the park included a new grill, sink and an ice cream machine in the completely remodeled concession stand.

For next year, Mr. Starr said he hopes The Council will appropriate money for shuffleboard courts at Windmill Pointe and the construction of 10 to 15 new dock spaces.

Although residents in The Woods are looking ahead to the construction of a new pool and eight new tennis courts, Lake Front Park Director Donald Hallmann was busy supervising swim and tennis classes and the maintenance of the pool, constantly being dirtied by the high lake water.

Almost 168,498 residents enjoyed the Park in June, July and August, Mr. Hallmann said, while 181,516 attended it in the same months in 1973. Both pool attendance and requests for tennis permits skyrocketed, he said, probably because of few rainy days.

Tennis Permits Rise

"Tennis permit requests have soared to about the 2,000 mark this year compared to about 1,600 last year," the director remarked.

Mr. Hallmann said new swings and picnic tables were purchased this summer, and shuffle board courts were replaced.

"We're hoping for a fishing pier eventually and new dock spaces, but both are in the talking stage only."

Complementing the long-standing bus service to the park, an exclusive senior citizen bus was added this year, Mr. Hallman said.

"It was not used as much as expected, but we hope that figure will increase next year since 22 percent of Woods residents are senior citizens," he said. "Now that they're getting organized into senior citizen groups, maybe they'll be more active. They might also enjoy the new landscaping that will be added over the old pool."

A total of 7,390 people used the three buses during June, July and August.

Hopes for Tankers

Acknowledging Lake Front's fifth place standing in the swim league this year, Mr. Hallman warned other coaches that their new pool will bring big changes to the team.

"We'll have a new coach and we hope to entice more youngsters into the new, heated pool to regain our position as the number one swimming team in the league."

Jr. Symphony Sets Auditions

President Nathan C. Judson of the Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony announced that auditions for membership in the orchestra will be held at North High School on Monday-Wednesday, September 23-25.

Any student, 10th grade or below, living in the Pointe public school district, or attending any public or private school in the Pointes, is eligible to audition.

The Junior Symphony provides opportunity for younger high school students, middle and grade school students to share an orchestral experience not otherwise available to them. Now in its third year, the Junior Symphony has performed 18 concerts in its first two seasons.

Two formal concerts are scheduled in February and in May, plus two tours of Grosse Pointe schools. Soloists for each of the formal concerts will be chosen from the orchestra.

Russell D. Reed, Director of Instrumental Music at Grosse Pointe South High School, will conduct the orchestra this season. Rehearsals will be held at North High School on Mondays, 4:15 to 8:15 p.m.

"I expect the orchestra to number about 85-90 students," said Mr. Judson. "We plan to accept four flutes, two oboes, two bassoons, four clarinets, five French horns, three trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, three percussion, and all violins, violas, cellos and basses who qualify."

Students should send applications to Mr. Judson at Grosse Pointe North High School. A $10 tuition charge will be used to help cover the orchestra's expenses.

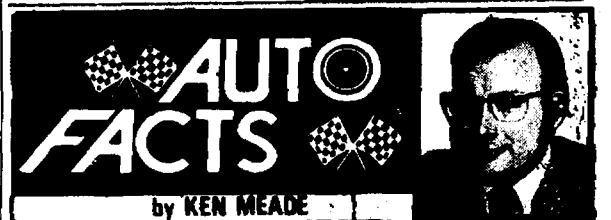

For further information, call Mr. Judson at 886-8100 or 886-4914.

KEEP YOURS COOL

Added air pressure can reduce wear and keep tires cooler on long trips at steady speeds. Add up to four pounds for turnpike driving, but never go above the maximum allowable air pressure molded on the sidewall, for instance "32 psi" for most passenger car tires.

Pine or fir boards set between garage studs add shelf space.

Montana produces more than one billion board feet of lumber per year.

There are three different types of pollution control devices used today. An air injection device is used to send air through injectors in the exhaust manifold; oxygen in the air is used to burn this air. A vapor separator can also collect fuel tank fumes. A positive crankcase-ventilation circuit uses forced air from the air cleaner and engine suction to flush gases out of the crankcases and into the intake manifold for burning. A valve controls the flow so that the basic fuel mixture is unchanged.

You'll find many different types and sizes of cars available at POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave., 884-7210. Pierce Plans Forum Series

Pierce Middle School will again this year hold a series of discussion and information sessions to provide opportunities for parents and staff members to air mutual concerns.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday, September 24, at 8 p.m. in room 223. Topics for presentation include Middle School Reporting to Parents, How and When, and Activities, Expectations and Programs for Pierce Students and Parents. The scope of the meetings, however, is never limited to scheduled topics and any subject matter is fair game for the sessions, asserts principal Bill Mogk.

Meeting dates and times will be rotated throughout the year to provide all interested persons the chance to attend and most will be held within a week following regularly scheduled School Board meetings so topics discussed there can be included on forum agendas.

Woods to Save Money on Salt

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, September 9, unanimously accepted the bid of the Morton Salt Co., 10335 Flora, Detroit, in the amount of $9 per ton of salt, delivered, for the city's street salting program this winter.

As in 1973, the city will obtain around 2,500 tons of salt but unlike last year the price will be less per ton.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said 1973's price per ton was $9.71. As a result, he stated the city will save $1,875 in comparison to last year's total cost.

ACCEPT DUMPSTER BID

The Farms Council at its meeting Monday, September 9, accepted a bid of $3,375 for the purchase of one Cushman refuse collection vehicle. The Farms city administration, after soliciting and receiving bids, recommended the acceptance of the bid. The vote approving the expenditure was five to one.

Finalist

DENISE M. LEONE, of Elm Court, is one of 10 finalists in the 1974 United Foundation Miss Torchy contest.

She was among 43 contestants appearing at the preliminary judging last week. To be eligible for the Miss Torchy contest, girls must be single, between 18 and 25 and an employe of a company which runs an internal Torch Drive campaign for which they've won an Honor Award.

Denise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Leone, is an assistant buyer-management trainee for J. L. Hudson Co. She is a graduate of St. Paul High School and Michigan State University.

The final judging which was to be held Wednesday, September 18, determines the winner who receives a wardrobe from Winkelman's, hairdo and makeup consultations and the traditional UF silver charm bracelet. Ford Motor Co. gives Miss Torchy the use of a 1975 car during her reign which officially ends November 7, last day of the drive.

Mark Beltaire, Free Press columnist; Sharon Brown, WKBD-TV community affairs director; Jacques Coussin, president of the Detroit Medical Center Corp., and Mrs. Wendell Cox are among those acting as judges.

Also included are Mrs. Madge Cyars, public relations director for the Michigan Chronicle; Sonny Elliot, WWJ-TV public relations director and environmental sciences editor; Mrs. Jackie Gordon who appears on her husband's WKBD-TV interview show; and H. Clay Howell, executive vice president of the United Foundation.

Also, Nick Kerbawy, commissioner for State of Michigan Sports Hall of Fame; Jervis B. McMechan, manager of the corporate advertising and sales promotion department for Ford Motor Co.; Miss Jane Moeller, vice-president and manager of Mortgaging and Services Department for First Federal Savings; Ms. Chris Meyers, director of Information and Events for the J. L. Hudson Co.; Miss Marilyn Turner, WXYZ-TV weatherperson, and Miss Doris Wood, director of the Patricia Stevens Finishing School in Detroit.

The 1974 Torch Drive gets underway officially on October 15, with a goal of $34,750,000. The funds raised will benefit 140 health and community service agencies in the tri-county area.

Three Charged with Robberies

Intensive detective work by Farms police and cooperation between three Pointe police departments cracked a burglary ring that had hit numerous Pointe homes.

Arrested and charged with breaking and entering the home of Edsel B. Ford II, on August 21 were Daniel G. Schill, 18, of 22601 Lake Drive, St. Clair Shores; Norman A. Puricelli, 20, of 22500 Furton, St. Clair Shores; and Joseph M. Pelt, 18, of 9804 St. Clair Highway, Richmond.

The three men waived a preliminary examination Wednesday, September 11, in Farms Municipal Court and were bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court, said Farms Det. Earl Field.

Det. Field said Puricelli was taken into custody August 28 in connection with a burglary attempt in the Shores. In interviews with Shores Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza information about the other subjects was revealed and the Shores called in Park Det. Sgt. James LaPratt and Det. William Furtaw to interview Puricelli.

After further investigation the Farms was notified and Det. Field also interviewed Puricelli.

In the original Ford burglary investigation physical evidence had been obtained, said Det. Field.

Warrants were obtained against the three men from the Wayne County Prosecutor's office on Wednesday, September 4.

Schill was arrested Thursday, September 5, Pelt on Friday, September 6, and Puricelli on Monday, September 9.

Det. Field said the case has involved burglaries throughout Grosse Pointe, Macomb county and as far away as Traverse City.

Pelt was released on September 11 to his father on $1,000 bond. Schill is being held in the Wayne County Jail on a $10,000 bond.

Puricelli is also in that jail on a $2,000 bond.

Det. Field noted that the work done in the Michigan State Police Crime Laboratory was essential to closing the case.

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber praised the numerous hours of work Det. Field put into the case.

"The coordination between our department and the Shores and Park was excellent as it always has been."

Slate Scuba Diving Class

The School Systems Department of Community Services is expanding its offering of scuba diving classes this year due to its increased popularity and Raymond Weidenfeller head scuba instructor in the aquatics program at Wayne State University will begin teaching an eight-week course on the sport which begins Monday, September 30, at Brownell School.

Mr. Weidenfeller has had nine years experience in diving and instructing and also holds teaching certificates in first-aid, cardio-pulmonary resuscitation, water safety, canoeing and life-saving. He holds certificates with other organizations in the diving related fields and is certified to teach under both the National Association of the Underwater Instructors and the Professional Association of Diving Instructors. He also is in charge of the Grosse Pointe Police Marine Rescue Team being started in the Detroit area.

Class enrollees who have not yet purchased any equipment should hold off until after the first class meeting when Mr. Weidenfeller will explain the different types.

Registrations and further information may be obtained by calling the Department at 885-3808 or 885-0271.

CADILLAC 1975

Then and Now...an American Standard for the World.

And what a standard it sets for 1975! There's the brilliant new six-window Sedan deVille, on the right. The bold new Eldorado Convertible, left, with that great profile. And seven other new models in the tradition of our 1931 Phaeton and other great Cadillacs of the past. Including a sleek new Coupe deVille. A magnificent new Fleetwood Brougham. Exciting new Calais with youthful plaid interiors. And new special edition cars for that special touch of elegance.

Our feature attraction. Consider that Cadillac 1975 has an array of standard features unsurpassed in Cadillac history. Including Automatic Climate Control, a six-way power seat, AM/FM radio with automatic power antenna (signal-seeking stereo on Brougham and Eldorado), lamp monitors, steel-belted radial tires, power door locks and tinted glass.

Efficient as it is elegant. The best overall operating economy in years is one of the benefits of a series of advancements we call The System. Included is the Catalytic Converter, a new device that does its job of emissions control outside the engine—rather than inside—making it possible to recalibrate the engine for smoother overall performance. Another vital link is our High Energy Ignition that delivers higher voltage to fire marginal fuel mixtures under adverse conditions.

For your added pleasure... there is an inviting selection of other new features available. A glass dome Astrorof. An illuminated entry system for nighttime convenience and security. An air cushion restraint system. A reclining front passenger seat in Eldorado. And shortly after introduction, Electronic Fuel Injection will be available on all models.

This year, slip into something really comfortable... any 1975 Cadillac. The ride is smooth and quiet. Interiors comfortable and sumptuous.

Additional benefits. All this, combined with the use of unleaded gas, a "tighter" torque converter, steel-belted radial tires and other advancements adds up to the best Cadillac performance in years. As well as reduced maintenance and lower overall operating costs. Longer intervals between service. And cleaner air for everyone.

When second best isn't good enough. Cadillac '75 Now at your authorized Cadillac dealer's!

DIAGNOSING THE PROBLEM
If you are buying new tires before you think you should have to, have an expert check to see why the old ones wore out. Learning the telltale signs of underinflation or other common tire wear problems means safer driving and maybe longer tread life the next time around.

CORD WEAR AND TEAR
Remove and replace tires immediately if any ply cords show through snags, cuts or cracks in the sidewall or tread.

Seniors' Recommendation

Cinder said work on an activities building deserved priority treatment as he was concerned about the "drawing away" of seniors to other groups in other areas.
Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan asked if the seniors were aware of the proposed renovation of the Lake Front Park bath house for use as an activities building by seniors and other groups. Commission member R. E. Boyd answered in the affirmative but said seniors needed a structure in a central location rather than one too far out of the way.

Mrs. Sutton said she appointed Mr. Cinder, Mr. Boyd and Gordon Long to a committee of three to discuss this proposal with Mr. Pinkos and Mr. Petersen. "We want to see what has to be done regarding the next step. We don't want this to bog down. We want to keep pressing on this," she said.

Commission members talked with Building Inspector Earl Wakely and toured the city to consider sites for the project, she stated. They felt the best one was the Ghesquiere Park location. Mrs. Sutton said other sites considered included Hampton and Mack, near North High School and Sweeney Park.

"We didn't realize it was up to us regarding special requirements for both buildings," e.g., special fixtures for the handicapped, said Mrs. Sutton, who plans to visit several different senior centers in the near future. In other senior citizen-related activities, Mrs. Sutton said 115 people attended the Thursday, September 5, meeting at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, with Mr. Petersen as featured speaker. Seniors will again meet at the church today, September 19, at 12 noon for an afternoon of fellowship, entertainment, information and recreation.

She expressed her pleasure with the bowling turnout Friday afternoon, September 6, at Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack. Sixteen people participated.

Other scheduled events include a Mackinac Island trip Wednesday-Friday, October 24, for a Mardi Gras style party, (for further information, call Rose Blaskey at 884-5435), and a trip to Toronto Monday-Wednesday, October 7-9, (for more information, call Loretta Bates at 886-3749).

Tree Removal Costs Refused

Farms Public Service Director John DeFoe will have to decide if a Calvin avenue resident can remove an elm bucking his driveway but the Farms council has already told him the removal would not be at city expense.

Richard Grammatico appeared before the council Monday, September 9, seeking permission to remove the tree and asked that the city pay the cost since it was planted by the city several decades ago.

He said the roots of the tree are lifting the apron of a driveway he is constructing at his home. He added that the family station wagon scrapes the concrete if it has any sort of load in it.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman informed Mr. Grammatico of an ordinance which specifically prohibits the city from assuming such costs.

City Manager Andrew Bremer said the Farms would be setting a dangerous precedent if it paid for tree cutting every time a resident wanted to improve his grounds.

Mr. Grammatico told the Council there are numerous large trees on the street and new trees have been planted so he feels the elm's removal would not mar the appearance of the area.

Mayor William Butler told Mr. Grammatico he would have to contact Mr. DeFoe to get a permit to remove the tree.

Mr. DeFoe said a resident wishing to remove a tree for home improvement purposes must first obtain a permit and then place a deposit with the city for the cost of replacing the tree. The replacement is then planted in the same area if conditions permit or in some other section of the city.

The property-owner must also assume the cost of removing the tree.

Mr. Grammatico said he would contact Mr. DeFoe about the problem.

League Honors Tom Kressbach

During the recent 76th annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League, Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach was elected to serve a three-year term as a member of the League's board of trustees. Five other city officials from within the state were named to similar positions and one was re-elected.

Mr. Kressbach has been city manager since 1966. Prior to that time he was an administrative assistant and assistant city manager for the City of Saginaw.

A former research assistant of the League, he served on its finance and taxation committee for five years and was first vice-president of the Michigan Chapter of the International City Management Association.

Symphony Swings into Season

On the matter of expenses, Mr. Kay stated, "Last year, it cost about $14,000 to operate this orchestra. It seems exorbitant — but we are raising that money to preserve the kind of culture that this community is used to."

"There are three things we need from you: You can play well. You can recruit the talent we need here. And you can develop an interest in membership in the Symphony Society."

Mr. Kay hailed the board of directors as dedicated people and expressed the hope that board and orchestra would get to know each other.

Violinists Betty Hilligloss, Alois Chronowski and Mary Alice Cage, and violist Stanley Scottford are four charter members of the orchestra back at their stands for the 21st year.

The orchestra, which has scheduled four concerts this year, rehearses Wednesday nights at Parcels. Because people move and students go on to college, there are always places for new members. Anyone interested in joining may come to rehearsal at 7:30 p.m. or call orchestra representative Shirley Richards at 773-8651.

The first offering of the season will be held on Sunday afternoon, October 13, in the Performing Arts Center of North High, at 3:30 p.m. Featured soloists will be Pointer Ruth Burczyk and her daughter, former Pointer Christine Burczyk Allen, performing Mendelssohn's Concerto for Two Pianos and Orchestra.

Other numbers to be performed are a suite from the Dramatic Music of Henry Purcell, arranged by Coates, the Hungarian composer Kodaly's idiomantic Harry Janos suite, and Dvorak's Slavonic Dances.

Pharmacy Footnotes
 by Fred Seltzer R.Ph.
 THE PARK PHARMACY

Man's most prevalent disease is—you guessed it—of course the common cold. The common cold is responsible for more loss of time from school, work and recreation than all other diseases. Statistics tell us that most people have at least one thing in common—at least one cold a year! Some of us have three or more per year. We all know how awful a cold makes you feel, yet few of us take the necessary precautions to avoid them. Colds are spread by coughing, sneezing, and even through breathing. So if you know someone with a cold, try to stay away!

Woods Burglary Suspect Faces Trial

A 24-year-old Woods man, who's charged with the breaking and entering of a business stemming from his alleged involvement in the burglary of the Roslyn Market, 21020 Mack avenue, late last month, was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court at his examination before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Wednesday, September 11.

Three Woods detectives put in a combined, estimated total of 200-300 hours of investigative work over a six-week period which culminated with the arrest of Larry Joseph Reiningger, of Aline drive, and the clearance of 19 break-ins, including seven in The Woods and one in The Farms.

Reiningger's Circuit Court arraignment and pre-trial conference is scheduled for Wednesday, October 9, police said. The suspect also is being prosecuted in St. Clair Shores on a breaking and entering of a business charge.

Through the work of Dets. Everett Plumb and Donald Sun and Det. Sgt. Bernard

Kelly and the ultimate arrest of Reiningger, police cleared the following break-ins in The Woods: Roslyn Market; Physicians X-Ray Center, 21003 Mack, on February 15; a Roslyn road home on July 24; Vinegarden, 21016 Mack, on August 15; Rabaut's Fabric Mart, 19853 Mack, on Sunday, August 25; and two burglaries of Dino's Pizzeria, 21215 Mack, one on July 19 and the other on August 10. Farms police cleared the breaking and entering of the Farms Delicatessen, 18660 Mack, on August 13. A combined total of 11 break-ins also were cleared in St. Clair Shores, Detroit and Roseville.

City Studies Code Program

The City Council has tabled for further study the matter of adopting a local code enforcement program similar to a system already employed in The Park.

In February of this year, the council took action updating electrical, plumbing, heating and building construction codes, and at the regular meeting Monday, September 16, the same measures were re-adopted to officially exempt The City from having to adhere to the State Building Code.

That code specifies that unless all cities villages and townships in the state draw up their own standards within six months of the date of promulgation of the state code, they will automatically be required to enact the state regulations.

It was noted during the February meeting that plans for a local code enforcement program in the offing and that adoption of the city's own building standards would greatly assist the administration of such a program.

At this month's meeting, City Manager Thomas Kressbach pointed out that a code enforcement program would be a benefit to the City for a variety of reasons.

"This is periodically borne out by inspections of houses following requests for building permits for alterations and from observations by city personnel and inspectors in connection with official duties as fire investigations," he explained.

Noting that many homes in the community were built during the 1920's and 1930's, he said a code enforcement program would act as preventative medicine against property deterioration and added that a locally tailored system would lead to the rehabilitation necessary to insure a sound economic future for The City.

Basically, the code would establish minimum standards to protect the public health, safety and welfare in buildings that, in the long run, would have a positive effect on individual property values and community standards as a whole.

As an example, City administrators have been studying the system used in The Park which calls for a building inspection by city officials any time there is a change in occupancy.

The council reacted positively to the proposed enactment of such a code, but since preparatory steps must be taken before the program can go into effect, held off on adoption.

Mr. Kressbach said December 1 would probably be the earliest date that the city could begin administration of such a program.

Woods Backs Kiwanis Drive

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club received the unanimous permission of The Woods Council to conduct its fund drive via selling peanuts in the city Friday-Saturday, September 27-28.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, September 9.

Both days also were proclaimed National Kid's Days in The Woods by Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos.

Church Slates Unique Service

The 1974-75 church year marks a significant anniversary for Unitarian Universalists—the 150th birthday of the American Unitarian Association.

Universalists in the greater Detroit area will begin the year with a special in-gathering service at the First Unitarian Church in Detroit at 4 p.m., Sunday, September 22.

This service will feature "Walden," a celebration assembled by Berkshire road resident Darrell Eubank to commemorate the occasion.

Based on Henry David Thoreau's American Classic, "Walden," or "Life in the Woods," and incorporating the music of Franz Schubert, the dramatic adaptation includes dance, song, and a visual setting designed to evoke the essences of Thoreau's view of the environment and his own personal development as a human being.

He built his Walden Lake cabin on the property of Ralph Waldo Emerson. Thoreau's closest friend was William Ellery Channing who founded the American Unitarian Association in Boston in 1825.

"Walden," was produced in the milieu of the American Renaissance and emerging Unitarianism and the values which characterized the author's life are essentially those of Unitarian Universalism today: respect for the natural environment and the individual and a constant quest for self discovery and spiritual renewal.

Participants in the service will be soprano Jerry Todd, of Bloomfield Hills, Carol Manetta, principal dancer of the Harbinger Dance Troupe of the Detroit Community Music School and pianists Doris Eubank and Carol Solenberg. Mr. Eubank will appear in the role of Thoreau.

The First Unitarian Church is located at Forest and Cass in Detroit. The public is invited to attend the special celebration.

Baron Gridders Win Two Games

The Grosse Pointe Red Barons traveled to East Detroit and renewed their rivalry with the Tiger Cats in games played Sunday afternoon, September 15.

The Red Baron freshmen opened their 1974 season on a winning note, defeating the Tiger Cats, 27-0.

Grant Gilezan and Eric Safran each recovered a fumble and Jeff Kusch intercepted a pass to set up three of the scores. Tom Van-Pelt netted two TD's, Mike Bautista and Chris Krucki had one each and Brian Augsburg tallied three extra points.

After the game, head coach Rick Moore stated, "I was not at all satisfied with our play execution, but very pleased with the overall attitude and enthusiasm of the boys."

At the junior varsity level, Scott Young scored two TD's and Tom Brown and Chick Steepe each scored one to lead their unit to a 26-0 victory. The game was highlighted by a 75-yard broken field TD kickoff return by Young.

Bruce Stewart scored two extra points and Steve Weyman recovered a fumble to contribute to the win.

Others making their presence felt were Darryl Chauvan, Glenn Piche, Dan Sheridan, Ron Garner, Jeff Garmen, Ray Chown, Tim Krucki, Eric Tech, and Bill Ruswick.

Led by a tenacious defense, the Red Baron varsity squad battled East Detroit to a 0-0 tie. The Baron offense threatened many times in the second half but untimely fumbles were costly. Defensive standouts were Sam MacKool, Steve Shucker, John Clem, Paul Eaves and Mike Jones.

Defense was again the story in the Junior Freshmen contest as the Green Hornets and the Red Barons played to a 0-0 standoff. Fine performances were contributed by Chip Farrah, Willie Wilson and Mark Young.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. James A. Adams, Superintendent

As members of the community are aware, our Board of Education will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. on Monday, September 30, to review and consider the operating budget proposed for the 1974-75 year.

The official notice of that hearing, printed elsewhere in the paper gives the accountant's view of the situation, with columns of figures that may or may not help one to gain a real understanding of the situation. Therefore, in this week's column I shall try to deal with some of the revenues and expenditures of the school district in 1974-75.

Local Revenues
Local property taxes represent the major source of revenue available for operating the school system. Current taxes are estimated at $15,106,782 out of $16,597,181 in anticipated revenues for 1974-75.

Basic State School Aid
The Grosse Pointe School District does not qualify to receive a basic per pupil membership allowance under the State School Aid Act.

As a matter of interest the formula for 1974-75 is as follows: $39,000 State Equalized Valuation per pupil, less the local school district valuation per pupil multiplied by operating millage, (up to 25 mills), multiplied by enrollment of students.

State Equalized Valuation
The State Equalized Valuation, (SEV), for Grosse Pointe of $471,964,200 divided by an estimated last winter enrollment of 11,352 students equals $41,575 per pupil. Because our SEV per pupil is greater than the equalizing factor in the formula, our school district does not qualify for a basic membership allowance.

State Aid for Special Ed.
We expect to receive $343,148 in state assistance for special education purposes including remedial reading, mentally and physically handicapped, emotionally disturbed, teacher aides, special workers, school diagnosticians, and court placed children.

We also receive other state assistance for driver education and transportation of students in special education programs.

Federal Aid
As always, Federal Aid represents a minuscule portion of our revenues. What we shall receive in 1974-75 represents the redistribution of federal funds received from the State for such programs as vocational education, vocational and academic skills training program, and Titles I and II of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Voted Operational Millage
As all of you are aware, citizens approved 24.35 operational mills for two years at the April 8 election. This increase of 2.85 mills represented the amount of money necessary to maintain the existing program in the face of inflation, salary increases and to make some modest program improvements.

Student Enrollment
In February, 1974, our preliminary projected enrollment for the 1974-75 school year was 11,250 students. This projection was revised in mid-August up to 11,350 students. Our actual enrollment on September 11, 1974 was 11,529.

This increase appears to be primarily due to the Supreme Court ruling on the Detroit desegregation case. Therefore, approximately 278 more students are enrolled in our schools than had been

GP Lions Have Rough Openers

The Grosse Pointe Lions Little football team began its 21st season against the Roseville Mohawks in an Eastern Suburban Football League opener Sunday, September 15.

The second half play of the freshman squad provided hope for a successful season in spite of their 20-6 loss to the Mohawks.

Kip Saile, Brad Constant and Byron Carion headed up a stubborn defense while Bayard King and Greg Rivard sparked the offensive running in an attempt to come back from a 20-point deficit.

The Lions third quarter efforts included one touchdown and a second called back. The Mohawks thwarted another Lion threat late in the fourth quarter when an offensive drive fell short of the goal line.

The play of the freshman squad sparked an otherwise disappointing afternoon in which the junior varsity and varsity squads bowled 12-0 and 20-0, respectively.

The little league football program is designed for boys between 9-12 years of age whom, in most cases, may not otherwise have an opportunity during his school career to participate in contact sports.

Weight restrictions combined with age limitations provide for three different squads within a team in order to provide equal competitive standards during game participation.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

"Parties within a party" happen when friends of Cottage Hospital meet their friends at the annual Donation Tea sponsored by the Cottage Women's Auxiliary.

They'll be happening next Wednesday at the Vendome road home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Simon.

Champagne punch will flow in the garden while traditional tea fare is being served in the dining room from 1 until 3 o'clock.

The Mesdames David H. Barker, John Barlow, Carl B. Grawn, W. Merritt Jones, Jr., John N. McNaughton, Longyear Palmer, Elliott H. Phillips, Howard F. Smith, Jr., and H. Gordon Wood will share pouring honors.

The party-planning committee has devised a something-for-everyone afternoon. There'll be informal modeling of Gerry's Boutique fashions. Exotic flora, displayed on the patio by Plants Galore of Ann Arbor, may be viewed—and bought.

A candle mini-shop should inspire guests to start thinking Christmas gifts.

Coordinating plans for the Donation Tea are Auxiliaries Mrs. Kim K. Lie, chairman, and Mrs. Ramfis Fahim, co-chairman. (If you see Madeleine, don't forget to offer congratulations—little Tamara Madeleine, the Lies' SEVENTH child, weighed in at five pounds, seven-and-a-half ounces just a little over two-and-a-half weeks' ago).

GP Celebrity Series Opens October 10

Five Thursday Morning Programs at Eastland Theatre to Be Followed by Subscription Luncheons; Season Tickets Still Available

The 21st annual Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series sponsored by Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League opens its 1974-75 season Thursday, October 10, with Jolie Gabor's talk "It's Never Too Late."

The Series features five Thursday morning programs at Eastland Theatre. Each begins at 11 o'clock and each is followed by a subscription luncheon at Stouffers Eastland.

The Series is offered on a season ticket-basis only at $15 for the five lectures. A few ticket books are still available. They may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Richard Molitor, 839-1912, Mrs. Bernard Pearce, 821-4604, or sending a check payable to Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League to 468 Cadieux road, Grosse Pointe 48230.

Proceeds go towards the $210,000 commitment made by the Assistance League to Bon Secours' Building Fund. "Mama" Gabor will offer tips on how to keep young and ravishing, secrets behind the perennial Gabor glamor as exemplified by herself and her three daughters, Zsa Zsa, Eva and Magda.

Lawrence Gichner's "Adventures in Attics" is scheduled for Thursday, November 14. George Plimpton, "An Amateur Among the Pros," will appear January 9. Bob Wright will present "Musical Theatre Cavalcade" February 13.

The Series closes March 13 with James Beard's "Art of Entertaining." Chairman of the programs this year is Kay (Mrs. Stanley) Renouf.

Ibex To Begin Year October 1

Ibex begins its 1974 fall season with an evening lecture Tuesday, October 1, at the home of Mrs. Donald Chamberlin. Alexander Pollock from the Mayor's Committee for Commercial and Industrial Development will be guest speaker.

In November Ibex has planned an unusual day in Stratford, Ont. A chartered bus ride and box lunches will precede a conducted tour of the Stratford Festival Theatre. Participants will go behind the scenes to examine costumes and sets first-hand.

Many Ibexers are already marking off dates on their calendars for a class in weaving to be taught by Judy LeBeau Thursday evenings in October and November.

Ibex directors for 1974-75 include Mrs. Frank Parcells, president, Mrs. Donald Blain, vice-president, Mrs. Charles Endicott, treasurer, Mrs. Douglas Adair, recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Webster, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Anton Tewes, house committee chairman.

Joan Di Gregorio Says Vows July 20

Selects Ivory Silk Jersey Gown Trimmed With Seed Pearls and Crystals for Rites at Which She Becomes Charles Gallagher's Bride

Greenfield Village's Martha-Mary Chapel was setting for the nuptial mass at which Joan Marie Di Gregorio and Charles Edward Gallagher exchanged marriage vows. Presiding at the 3:30 o'clock rites Saturday, July 20, was The Reverend Father Allen Gruenke O.F.M. Cap.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Di Gregorio, of Hollywood avenue, and bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gallagher, of Pontiac, as well as other members of the wedding party and families, participated in the ceremony, delivering the readings and assisting at the service which was attended by family members and close friends only.

Special guest was Mariacola Villani, of Rome, Italy, the bride's cousin, who recently received her Doctorate in Political Science from the University of Rome. Ms. Villani made a surprise visit to the States to attend the wedding.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Farhat, of Lansing, The Honorable and Mrs. Michael Cavanaugh, of Lansing, Gerald Molloy, of Buffalo, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pesek, of Battle Creek, and Mrs. Mary Aultman and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kowalski, of Manistee. The newlyweds vacationed on Prince Edward Island, Canada, and are now at home in The Pointe. The bride, who received her Bachelors degree from Michigan State University, is a graduate student in Developmental Psychology at Oakland University.

The bridegroom, also a Michigan State graduate, is a junior at Detroit College of Law.

The bride's ivory silk jersey gown featured a chapel train, sweetheart neckline and Empire waist accented with seed pearls and crystal beads. Her ivory silk chiffon veil fell from a garland of fresh baby's-breath.

She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, ivory and yellow roses and baby's-breath with accents of trailing stephanotis and English ivy.

Honor maid Carol Dian Raupp, of Decatur, Ill., and bridesmaids Marina Di Gregorio Farhat, of East Lansing, the bride's sister, and Cynthia Denise Guzik wore bias-cut blue matte jersey frocks with flouced navy blue chiffon bolero jackets.

They carried crescents of yellow roses and baby's-breath set in pulmosa fern. Sprigs of baby's-breath were pinned in their hair.

Flower girls Terese Lynn, Gina Marie and Stefani Ida Farhat and Kimberly Kathryn Di Gregorio, the bride's nieces, were dressed in Victorian frocks of pale blue voile with miniature daisy appliques, trimmed with lace and ribbon and carried wicker baskets filled with white roses, daisies, baby's-breath and yellow rose petals.

Speak Vows in July

Exchanging marriage vows in Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village, Saturday, July 20, were JOAN MARIE DI GREGORIO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Di Gregorio, of Hollywood avenue, and CHARLES EDWARD GALLAGHER, son of the E. E. Gallaghers, of Pontiac.

Gregory J. Almas, of Sylvan Lake, was best man. Groomsmen were Richard J. Di Gregorio, brother of the bride, and Michael T. Gallagher, brother of the bridegroom.

In the usher corps were the bride's nephews A. Richard Di Gregorio and Jeffrey A. Di Gregorio and the bridegroom's brothers Stephen D. Gallagher and Joseph R. Gallagher.

Ring bearer was Norman J. Farhat, the bride's nephew.

The bride's mother selected a floor length shirtwaist of Nile green crepe trimmed with satin and crystal buttons. She wore a wrist corsage of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and baby's-breath and pinned a sprig of baby's-breath and stephanotis to her hair.

The bridegroom's mother pinned a white snowdrift orchid to the jacket of her floor length aqua matte jersey ensemble.

Quilling, Tole Classes Stated

Two new offerings in Arts and Crafts are being presented this fall by the Grosse Pointe Department of Community Services Adult Education Program.

Quilling, an art which first appeared in the 15th century, begins Thursday, October 10 at 1 o'clock. Betty Nelson will instruct the six-week course.

Originally known as "paper filigree" and "rolled paper work" this technique was elaborated on in Italy. From its simple beginnings an embroidery-like array of miniature scrolls and paper rolls emerged from which pictures could be created.

The decorative art spread eventually to France and England, then to the colonies in America.

Examples of Pre-Revolutionary War quilling may be seen in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City.

Decorative and Tole Painting, painting "for the fun of it," taught by Sharon Stoekel begins Monday, October 7, at 7:30 o'clock for an eight-week period.

Participants will learn to paint bright strawberries, (good enough to eat), a sassy fat hen or a wise old owl on barnwood, daisies, violets, mums, et al on "all those old articles you knew you were saving for something."

Further information and class reservation may be made by calling the Department of Community Services, 885-3808 or 885-0271.

DEBORAH J. STRACHAN, daughter of the GEORGE STRACHANS, of Merriweather road, has been named to the Wheaton College Spring Quarter Dean's List.

Peter Surdam Claims Miss Corcoran As Bride

Claiming Lynda Mary Corcoran as his bride Saturday, September 14, in Our Lady of the Assumption Church, Osterville, Mass., was Peter Buhl Surdam. A reception at Oyster Harbors Club followed the 4 o'clock rites.

Both the bride and bridegroom have been making their home in Boston, where he is associated with the First National Bank of Boston.

Slate Evening Group Meeting

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Evening Group will hold a program meeting at the Church next Tuesday, September 24, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Lind Vaughn will speak on Flower Arranging.

Assisting dessert hostess Mrs. John E. Finch will be Mrs. Russell A. Lee and Mrs. Gerrit J. Kastenberg. Margaret Millin will give devotional readings.

The Evening Group will continue its sewing sessions every second Wednesday of the month at 7:30 o'clock at the Church. New volunteers are welcome to assist in making cancer pads for local hospitals.

The next sewing meeting is scheduled for October 9

Macomb Law Wives Open Year Wednesday

Mrs. Thomas Rinehart, of Hampton road, president of the Macomb County Lawyers' Wives, will conduct the group's first business meeting of 1974-75 next Wednesday, September 25, at 8 o'clock in the Mount Clemens home of Mrs. Joseph Claramarito.

The program planned by Mrs. Frederick Zizelman, Jr., and her committee members Mrs. Thomas Landy and Mrs. Vito Cusenza will feature a candy demonstration.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee headed by Mrs. Paul Gilleran.

President-elect of the Macomb Law Wives is Mrs. Thomas Cisaramitaro. Other officers are Mrs. Jacob Feminineo, secretary, and Mrs. Edward Graham, treasurer.

The new Mrs. Surdam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Corcoran, of Wianno, Mass. Mr. Surdam is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan Surdam, of Provencal road and Harbor Point.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza, English net and Venice lace styled with a high, wedding band collar, portrait neckline, cap sleeves and Empire bodice.

Scattered lace appliques accented her A-line skirt ending in a chapel train bordered with lace cameos.

Her long mantilla was fashioned of Alencon lace and she carried gardenias, white roses, lilies-of-the-valley, baby's-breath and cascading ivy in a full, old-fashioned bouquet.

Mrs. Paul G. McDonald, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., in a full length lime green and white silk-screened cotton print banded at her waist with white cotton appliqued lace and a wide-brimmed white straw picture hat with grosgrain streamers, was her sister's honor matron.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically in pale blue, were Cary and Tracy McDonald, of Wellesley Hills, the bride's nieces, Mary Caroline Surdam, the bridegroom's sister, and Lucy Tait Howard and Katherine Louise Benoit, both of Boston.

Yellow Sweetheart roses, white daisies and baby's-breath formed their bouquets.

Robert McClellan Surdam, Jr., was his brother's best man. Frederick M. Schaeffer, of Newport Beach, Calif., Neil T. Brown, Myron G. Sherer, William F. Dore, Jr., of Boston, and the bride's brothers Frederick J. Corcoran, II, of Manchester, Mass., and J. Paul Corcoran, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass., ushered.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Bermuda.

The bride is a graduate of Dana Hall School and Manhattanville College. She is a member of the Junior League of Boston and a debutante of the 1967 season, presented at the Debut Ball in Weston and the Bachelors Ball in Boston.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Trinity Pawling School and Nasson College, Springvale, Me.

Birthdays in Connecticut

The strains and words of "Michigan, My Michigan" and "The Yellow and the Blue" rang through the New England hills as Harry H. Whittingham celebrated his 80th birthday September 7.

Harry and his wife, the former Julia French Broadwell, moved from Edgemere road to Heritage Village, Southbury, Conn., a year ago last May.

After 13 Edgemere years preceded by more than 20 in Merriweather road it was rather a BIG move, but it has proved wonderfully successful. The Whittinghams love life in their largely retirement community, and the community loves them.

Among the group of immediate friends and family members who gathered in the Connecticut western uplands to wish Harry the Very Best of Everything were son Thomas G. Whittingham, of Colonial road, daughter Ann (Mrs. Robert) Smith, of Middlebury, Conn., and son William Henry Whittingham, of Madison, Conn.

The William Nyeholts

PAULA SUE HEFTY, daughter of the Duane Heftys, of Edgemont Park, and Mr. Nyeholt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nyeholt, of Wayburn road, were married Saturday, July 20, in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church.

Nyeholt-Hefty Rites Read On July 20

Pair Vacation in Toronto and at Her Family's Summer Home in Thessalon, Ont.; Bride's Aunt Fashions Attendants' Frocks

At home in Lakepointe avenue are Mr. and Mrs. William D. Nyeholt whose wedding Saturday, July 20, in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church was followed by a reception at Athena Hall.

Mrs. Nyeholt is the former Paula Sue Hefty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hefty, of Edgemont Park. Mr. Nyeholt is the son of the Raymond Nyeholts, of Wayburn road.

The pair vacationed in Toronto and at her parents' summer home, Hefty's on the Rocks, in Thessalon, Ont., before returning to The Pointe where the bride, who attended Macomb Community College, has resumed working for Dr. Jack Williams.

The bridegroom, who attended Calvin College, is now a Wayne State University student.

For the 6 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Perry Thomas presided the former Miss Hefty chose a white organza gown styled with a scoop neckline, attached chapel train and long, sheer sleeves ending in flared cuffs.

Venise lace flowers accented her skirt, Empire bodice

Kreuser. Diane and Andrea Hefty, sisters of the bride, Cheryl DeHommel, the bridegroom's sister, and Robin Overcashier, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids.

Their blue floral, print frocks, fashioned by the bride's aunt, feature cap sleeves and sweetheart necklines edged in Venise lace and Empire waists accented with back ribbons matching the streamer on their white picture hats.

The honor attendant carried a white basket filled with pale and dark pink carnations, corabell heather and baby's-breath. Pink and blue carnations accented the bridesmaids' basket bouquets.

Craig Nyeholt acted as best man for his brother, Ushering were Bruce Meldema, Roger Fleming, Bob Hubrowski and Britt Hefty, brother of the bride.

Flower girl was Tracy Hefty, sister of the bride. Ring bearer was Raymond Nyeholt, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hefty chose a two-piece floor length ensemble of maize silk jersey for her daughter's wedding. Irresistant beading trimmed her jacket collar and cuffs.

The bridegroom's mother selected a pink chifton gown with a lace jacket. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

Fine Arts Launches Season With Party

New Activities Committee Formed to Work with Forward Planning Committee on Special Events during The Year

Appointment of 1974-75 committee chairmen has launched Fine Arts Society of Detroit's upcoming season. The "who head what" announcements were made at a supper party, members of the board entertaining the chairmen Sunday, September 8, in the Rathbone place home of President W. David Kludt and Mrs. Kludt.

A new committee initiated to implement additional activities for the Society membership, is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch, of Lakeshore road.

This New Activities committee will work closely with the Forward Planning committee chaired by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kinney, of Whittier road, in arranging additional and new events during the year.

The events will supplement presentation of three plays and one musical this season.

Other Pointers who have accepted committee chairmanships are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gohle, membership and reception, Mrs. Haig Avedisian, music and choral, Mrs. Frank Judge and Miss Betty Campau, properties, Mrs. Francis Van Deusen and Jack Moldowan, program, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Davis, III, and Mrs. Richard Law, reservations.

More are Frank Brossy, script, Ray Adelberg, set design, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stoetzer, house, Mrs. Margaret Hawksley, costumes, Mrs. Arthur Eisenbrey, makeup, Mrs. Milton Voelkens, roster, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Doll, annual meeting, and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Evans, Christmas party.

Fine Arts' first show "How the Other Half Loves," a comedy that enjoyed great success in London for several seasons, will be presented November 21 and 22 at the Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

LWV Invites New Members

Welcoming guests and members of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters next Wednesday, September 25, will be Mrs. Frank C. Piku, of Woodland Shores drive, hostess for the Cheesefest replacing the traditional Pointe LWV membership tea this year.

It will begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

A preview of the League program for the coming year will be given by Mrs. C. B. Conover, membership chairman, and Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, president of the Grosse Pointe League, has asked board members to describe what lies ahead in such areas of League concern as "A Study of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government," what the energy crisis means to responsible citizens, ways in which Grosse Pointe can measure the quality of its educational program and other timely topics.

Publications covering a variety of LWV studies will be available, as will tickets for the United Nations luncheon to be held Tuesday, October 8, in conjunction with the American Association of University Women and Church Women United.

League membership is available to any eligible voter. Mrs. Thompson may be reached concerning League of Women Voters activities and community services at 882-3214.

The Cheesefest invitation extends to residents of neigh-

August Bride

August wedding plans are being made by SUZANNE JANE NEEB and James Eugene Swigart whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Neeb, of Chalfonte avenue.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, is presently a senior French major at the University of Michigan. Her sorority is Chi Omega.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Swigart, of Mount Clemens, formerly of Birmingham, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering from the University of Michigan where he is currently enrolled in the Graduate School of Business Administration.

Both communities not served by Leagues of their own. Reservations may be made by calling Shirley Piku at 886-7936 or Ruth Conover at 489-1850.

District One Garden Clubs To Convene

Community Invited to Afternoon Portion of Next Wednesday's Program at Grosse Pointe War Memorial

"Nature to advantage dressed . . ." (Alexander Pope) is the theme for the annual meeting of District One, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan. Members from 53 clubs gather next Wednesday, September 25, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Registration begins at 9, the meeting at 9:30 o'clock. The day's program will feature two outstanding speakers.

At the morning session Donald D. Juchartz, Wayne County Extension director, will present a slide-illustrated lecture on "Growing Plants in Containers."

The afternoon program beginning at 1:15 o'clock, following luncheon will feature Robert H. Friese, well-known Chicago florist, in a flower arrangement demonstration "Exploring the Wonders of Nature."

Mr. Friese is a master at combining wild and cultivated plant materials as well as demonstrating good design, texture and color combination.

Pre-made items as well as those made that day for the demonstration will be for sale.

The community is invited to attend the afternoon program only. Tickets at $3 per person must be purchased in advance by sending a check and a stamped self-addressed envelope to Mrs. Herbert Mainwaring, 11 Fairlake lane, Grosse Pointe, Mich. 48236.

reservations for garden club members at $6.75 each may be paid by check made out to the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, District One, and mailed to Mrs. Marlan M. Holt, 724 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230.

There will be no reservations or cancellations after tomorrow, September 20.

A Lovelier YOU

by JOE

Your hairdo — is it easy to care for, or do you always have to worry? Most experts say the hair that is usually most attractive and easiest to care for combines a complimentary style with a very professional cut. So before you spend another day looking at the same old you, reflect a little about how easy your life could be with the right hair style. Consult an expert for a cut that will be the carefree go-everywhere type — the type that is most important for today's busy life.

If you take care of your own hair, it should be properly cut once every six weeks. At GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES, 20427 Mack Ave., 884-2090, we will teach you how to properly care for your hair between the cuts. At our friendly and relaxing salon, we strive to make your visit with us, the most relaxing time of your busy week. Thinking of coloring your hair? Think of GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES for the finest products and expert beauticians.

Autumn Rites For Miss Ureel

An Empire-waisted white satin gown accented with lace and pearl appliques at her sleeves and high neck and featuring a ruffled cathedral train was Lynn Ann Ureel's choice for her Saturday, September 7, wedding to Paul Merrick Mott.

She wore a fingertip illusion veil and carried an arrangement of white carnations and roses with pink stephanotis.

The Reverend Perry A. Thomas presided at the 5:30 o'clock rites in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church.

Gail E. Ureel, in a long mauve gown, was her sister's honor attendant. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Ureel, of Sunningdale drive.

Bridesmaids, in dusty blue, were Sharon Lilli, Robin Farbman and Dawn Ureel, another sister. They carried long-stemmed red roses.

The bridegroom asked his brother Dale Mott to act as best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Mott, of Norwood drive.

Ushering were James Weir, James Dutcher and Ross Ureel, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother's floor length turquoise gown was Empire-waisted and featured a gold brocade bodice and matching jacket. Yellow roses formed her corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected a halter-topped dress and jacket ensemble printed in blue and pink on beige and a corsage of red roses.

After a reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club the newlyweds left for a camping trip in Canada. They will make their home in Lansing.

Mr. Wright Claims Bride In Georgia

Evening Rites at Which Catherine Dart Schoonmaker Speaks Vows Are Followed by Country Club Reception; Pair at Home in Newport, R.I.

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday evening, August 10, in Saint Mark's Episcopal Church, LaGrange, Ga., were Catherine Dart Schoonmaker and R. Douglas Wright. The Reverend Thomas D. Clay officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony.

After a reception at the Highland Country Club the newlyweds left for a short vacation on Idylls Island, Brunswick, Ga.

They are at home in Newport, R.I., where both are instructors at the United States Naval Academy Prep School.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, Mrs. Anne L. Schoonmaker, of Athens, Ga., and Douglas D. Schoonmaker, of LaGrange, wore a gown of white silk organza over peau de sole fashion with a high neck and A-line skirt. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace centered with seed pearls covered her silk organza bodice and sleeves. Matching lace appliques accented her skirt, hemline and detachable train.

Alencon lace scallops edged her silk illusion mantilla and she carried a prayer book covered with white lace and centered with a bridal bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy.

Carrying arrangements of ivy, stephanotis and baby's breath were honor maid Bonnie B. Schoonmaker, sister of the bride, honor matron Mrs. Douglas Schoonmaker, Jr., of Concord, N.C., and

Phase I Plans Singles Party

Phase I will sponsor a party for singles 20 to 40 tomorrow evening, Friday, September 20, from 8:30 to 1 o'clock at the Georgian Inn, featuring live music by The Royal Ensemble.

Beer is free until 9:00 o'clock. Dress is coat and tie. Admission is $3 per person at the door.

"The Caine Mutiny" starring Humphrey Bogart will be presented at 7:30 o'clock this Sunday, September 22, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. All singles are invited to attend. A social hour follows the film.

A trip to Stratford, Ont., is scheduled for Friday, September 27, through Sunday, September 29, at $8 per person including tickets for two plays and two nights' accommodation at the Stratford Youth Hostel. Interested singles may telephone 526-5281 for reservations and further details.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Singles 20 to 40 are invited to attend. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5350.

Bridesmaids Anne R. Schoonmaker, another sister, Mrs. Matthew M. Rabon, of Rock Hill, S.C., Mrs. Hubert Salter, of Alma, Ga., Ann Burdette, of Sarasota, Fla., and Mrs. Alan M. Wright, of Smyrna, Ga.

The R. Douglas Wrights

Married in Saint Mark's Episcopal Church, LaGrange, Ga., Saturday, August 10, were CATHERINE DART SCHOONMAKER, daughter of Mrs. Anne L. Schoonmaker, of Athens, Ga., and Douglas D. Schoonmaker, of LaGrange, and Mr. Wright, son of Mrs. Rolla V. Wright, who moved recently from North Renaud road to Eastland Village, and the late Mr. Wright.

The bodices of their floor length, Empire-waisted white chiffon over peau de sole frocks were trimmed with covered buttons. Ribbon and lace inserts accented their yokes and the deep cuffs of their long, full chiffon sleeves.

Alan M. Wright acted as best man for his brother, Rolla V. Wright, who moved recently from North Renaud road to Eastland Village, and the late Mr. Wright.

Groomsmen were David Icenhower and Joseph Monticello, of Bainbridge, Md., Peter Short, Douglas Schoonmaker, Jr., the bride's brother, Frank Guginio, of Falls Church, Va., and John D. Lefler, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The bride's mother wore an Empire-waisted, long-sleeved, floor length gown of fern green chiffon over tafeta. The bridegroom's mother's long gown of mint green crepe featured a lace Empire bodice and three-quarter sleeves.

Both mothers selected white phalaenopsis orchid corsages.

One hundred guests gathered in the Windmill Pointe garden of the ALFRED EPSTEIN'S last Friday, September 6, to wish Mr. Epstein a happy 80th birthday. Mr. Epstein, who came to The States from Germany 50 years ago, is retired now. He served as president of Associated Brewing Company and is acting consultant for Armada Corporation.

Garden Clubs Council Meets

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council will welcome new presidents of all Pointe garden clubs and their Council representatives at its first meeting of the year Monday morning, September 23, at 9:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Main Library.

President Mrs. H. James Gram will hear final reports on the Council's summer garden tour from Mrs. H. A. Powell, incoming vice-president.

Plans to continue the Council's planting projects and other conservation-related activities in The Pointe will be discussed. The success of the garden tour will enable the group to purchase, subject to school administration approval, several more large trees for Grosse Pointe South High School.

Christian Women's Groups to Convene

Christian Business and Professional Women whose East Side Council will celebrate its third birthday at a dinner program Tuesday, September 24, at Thomas Manor, and Christian Women's Clubs will hold an area conference Friday through Sunday, September 27 to 29, at Troy Hilton Inn.

Reservations, which must be made by today, Thursday, September 19, and further information may be obtained by contacting Margaret Chapman, of Brys drive, conference chairman, 886-4648, or co-chairman Dorothy Hammond, of Kensington road, 884-7753.

Special feature of next Tuesday's Council birthday party will be an oil painting demonstration by Dorothy Adams. Tenor soloist Raymond Wegner will perform and Roy Berg from Stonecroft Ministries, Kansas City, Mo., will speak.

Eleanor Bowron, 526-6844, is chairman of the September dinner program. Joanne Himmer, 771-0035, is vice-chairman.

OPEN SUNDAY 2 to 5

A unique opportunity to own an elegant home on one of the finest streets in Grosse Pointe Farms. This spacious colonial is set on an equally spacious lot which is landscaped perfectly for the home it surrounds. You have an opportunity to view this property with its large family room, beamed sun room with radiant floor heat, library with fireplace, five bedrooms, four baths, maid's quarters, wet bar, swimming pool, and three car attached garage, Sunday 2-5 p.m. Marty Owens of our staff will be your host and guide, at 100 Lothrop between Kercheval and Grosse Pointe Boulevard.

If you have a penchant for painted white colonials then this could be what you've been looking for. Its attached garage helps to account for the unusually large backyard, well landscaped with cocktail-party-size patio. The "flowing" first floor plan includes a living room, family room and dining room with contiguous access. There is a den with fireplace off the entrance hall. The second floor has four bedrooms with connecting bathrooms. There is a large room on the third floor for hobbies, sleeping or whatever. A complete basement with paneled party room and plenty of storage makes this one fine house package. Better call before someone else wraps it up.

Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Will Meet

Eastside Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta will hold their first fall meeting at 8 o'clock next Wednesday, September 25, at the Mount Vernon road home of Mrs. Stanley Redding.

Graduated seniors from Wayne State University's Alpha Pi Chapter will be initiated into the Alumnae. The program will feature wine and cheese tasting with Mrs. John Baetz, Jr., of Moross road, commenting.

All local alumnae are invited. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. John Czerkis, chairman, 881-8390, or Mrs. Redding, 886-8223.

Macomb Dental Auxiliary Holds Tea

MRS. WILLIAM COSGROVE, (second from left), 1974-75 president of the Macomb Dental Auxiliary, opened her North Brys drive home earlier this month for the Auxiliary's third annual membership tea. Pictured assisting her with party plans are fellow Pointers MRS. ROBERT VALICE, (left), MRS. JOHN WOOTEN, Auxiliary vice-president and tea chairman, and MRS. ROY EUGENIO, (right). The Mesdames James Hayosh and Nick Thoms also were in on the party-planning. Tea guests included Mrs. Elmer Lang, president of the Michigan State Dental Auxiliary, Mrs. Daniel Pierron, MSDA past-president, and Mrs. Carl Baumgart, MSDA recording secretary. The Macomb Auxiliary, currently celebrating its 15th year, is involved in Dental Health Education in Macomb elementary schools, presently working on a new puppet show presentation. The Auxiliary has made a Guide for Dental Health Education in the classroom available to Macomb teachers. Officers for the coming year include, besides Mrs. Cosgrove and Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Richard Pellegrino, president-elect, Mrs. Thomas Borgula, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas, recording secretary, and Mrs. Richard Gerstner, treasurer.

Soroptimists to Gather September 25

Members of Soroptimist International of Grosse Pointe gather at 5:15 o'clock Wednesday, September 25, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial parking lot prior to joining the Detroit Soroptimist Club for an annual Founders Day celebration.

Dinner held at the Women's City Club of Detroit at 6:45 o'clock will commemorate the 53rd birthday of the first Soroptimist group.

Mrs. Gannon, active in local and district Soroptimism for over 20 years, was an official delegate to the convention in Portland, Ore., last June. She is a charter member of the Grosse Pointe Club and recently became a sustaining member when she retired from her managerial position with the National Bank of Detroit.

Members are reminded that the annual Grosse Pointe Soroptimist Rummage Sale is planned for Friday, October 4, from 4 to 8 o'clock at Veterans Hall, Mack near Hollywood avenues.

The public is invited to this annual fund-raising event. Proceeds are used for Soroptimist community service projects.

Since you can't go around taking your friends to the store, we've done it for you.

Begin Austin Mothers' Year

Mrs. Augustino Venditti will serve as president of the Austin Mothers' Club for the school year 1974-75, assisted by Mrs. Leo Drolshagen, vice-president, Mrs. Dominic Palazzo, recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Gotfredson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Charles Roarty, treasurer.

Members appointed to serve on the board of directors are Mrs. Edward Perry, annual dues, Mrs. George Daudlin, alumni representative, Mrs. John Geml, mailing, Mrs. Alex Domin, registration, Mrs. John Lizza, chapel chairman, Mrs. David Kasunic, hospitality, Mrs. John Sullivan, publicity, Mrs. Paul Gracey, program chairman, and Mrs. Michael Carollo, parliamentary.

First on the Mothers' Club current agenda was a get acquainted tea welcoming mothers of new Austin students last Thursday, September 12, in the Austin Friary.

A general meeting for all mothers is scheduled for Wednesday evening, October 16, at Austin. The Mothers' Club's annual Rummage and Bake Sale will be held Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19, under Mrs. Anita Creagh's chairmanship.

A date of Thursday, November 21, has been set for the Club's luncheon and fashion show under Mrs. Drolshagen's chairmanship. It will be held at the Gourmet House and will feature fashions by Michelle's Boutique.

Industrial Medical Auxiliary Will Meet

Members of the Michigan Industrial Medical Auxiliary gather for their first meeting and luncheon of the season tomorrow, Friday, September 20, at noon in the Grecian Gardens. President Mrs. Monroe Lechner, of Devonshire road, will officiate.

Inside the Mothers Club

Members of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers Club executive board gathered Monday, September 9, to launch their year's activities with a sandwich luncheon at the home of their new president Mrs. Harold Machamer.

Two School Board members, Mrs. Edward Hanpeter and Mrs. George Magheise, and South High's new principal Dr. James Hoeh joined in discussing plans for the new school year.

Thirty-five members of the executive board attended this meeting. Each assumes responsibility for a particular activity the Mothers Club is committed to provide during the year.

Since it was their first get-together, the members devoted their time primarily to getting acquainted and describing the different activities that will be undertaken. Each year, during registration, the Mothers Club distributes an information packet, including a calendar of events, to each family. Extra calendars are available for 50 cents.

Among items in the packet is the membership form for University Liggett student DAVID LINDOW SCHAFER has been awarded the Rensselaer Medal from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., an honor given 11th graders for outstanding achievement in the study of Mathematics and Science during their junior year.

Named to the Second Semester Olivet College Academic Achievement List is SONYA GOMAH, daughter of the B. C. KOSACKS, of Edgemont Park.

Named recently to the 11-member Lawrence Institute of Technology non-profit Corporation was JOHN R. HARMANN, of Rivard boulevard.

Center Offers Art Programs

Basic Painting and Drawing classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial are scheduled for Monday afternoons, from 12 to 2 o'clock for beginners, from 2 to 4 for intermediate students. Instructor is Edna Kreichelt. Fee is $38 for 10 weeks.

Modern Art in Tempura taught by Victoria Cox of the Parsons School of Design is scheduled for Thursdays from 12:30 to 3 o'clock September 26 through November 14. Fee is $35 for eight weeks.

Picture Framing will be taught by Pat Lindheim in a workshop Wednesday mornings from 9 to noon October 3 through 24. Fee is $25.

Joseph Maniscalco's classes in Portrait Painting, originally scheduled to begin September 25, will start two weeks later, October 9, and continue for 10 sessions. Students meet from 9:30 to noon. Fee is $45.

PTA Council, the Motion Picture-TV Council, the Health Education Council, the Dad's Club, FLEEC, JOY and the Neighborhood Club. It maintains a corps of parent volunteers who serve upon request wherever needed throughout the school.

To better inform members about school programs, each meeting includes a report from a faculty representative and a School Board representative. The faculty representative reported on two new programs at South at the first meeting.

One of them, the Alternative Education Program, is funded by the one mill tax passed at the last millage election. Students, selected on the basis of their special

League Will Meet at GP Hunt Club

The Michigan League for Crippled Children will gather at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon next Thursday, September 26. Mrs. Carl Habermas is sponsoring this first meeting of the new season. Mrs. Earl Macklin, program chairman, has arranged a Happy Talk Forum featuring Channel 4 newsman Dean Miller. A question-and-answer period will follow his presentation. Mrs. Paul Raifel and Mrs. George Peterson are taking reservations from League members whose work throughout the year benefits Camp Grace Bentley's summer program for crippled children.

Decorations at next Thursday's luncheon will be arrangements of mushrooms and strawflowers made by Mrs. George C. Wedge and her committee.

needs in English, Social Studies or Math, are taught by specially-selected teachers. Sixty students are presently enrolled in the program.

In the Vocational and Academic Skills Training Program, designed by Dr. Kathleen Herschelman and state-funded, students are trained and subsequently placed as medical aides or in commercial fields, automotive, distributive and office jobs. Seventy-five students are involved in this program.

The Mothers Club exists for one purpose: to improve the quality of education at South High. It can be more effective with the support of every family's membership.

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

DR. JAMES A. ADAMS, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

"I came to Grosse Pointe because it's the kind of community I want to live in and be active in," he explains. But Dr. Adams also made the move here to take up the post of Superintendent of Schools.

"Grosse Pointe is impressive. The caliber of the people and the amount of financial and human resources here are outstanding." He applies the same term, outstanding, to the School System, elaborating further.

Although Dr. Adams is in the throes of a lengthy, detailed evaluation of what exactly makes the School System tick, he's seen enough to have a few first impressions.

Some Reservations "I have reservations about the structure of the elementary art program. I think some of the class sizes are larger than they should be.

He also believes organization of the middle school level could do with a little tightening up.

It would be unfair to pin him down to anything much more specific until he can settle in and complete his study.

He is, after all, very "new." hired officially May 20, he arrived in The Pointe July 1, and moved into his home the week of August 11.

Off to Kentucky He was leaving the day after this interview to take the clan off to the family farm in Kentucky for a week's vacation.

The midwest, the state of Kentucky in particular, means a lot to Dr. Adams. Born in the small town of Isom, Ky., he has plenty of happy memories of being raised there with his brother and sister.

"I was athletic in high school. I played basketball and football and belonged to a number of clubs. "Yes..." he says thoughtfully, "I'd say that luctant to move in the future. I'd like to stay in Grosse Pointe as long as I'm productive and happy with my career."

But he realizes his position, dependent upon public support, is always subject to change. "A school superintendent is the type of job that's not necessarily permanent. Average tenure is about five years."

Appropriate books from the Center's extensive horticulture library will be on display each week.

The premier program Monday, September 23, features Gerald E. Draheim, extension Horticulture Agent, who will talk on Preparing Your Garden For Winter.

Jerry Draheim, born and raised on a dairy farm in central Wisconsin, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Floriculture from the University of Wisconsin.

Will Miss New York "I think I'll miss New York though," he confesses, "and I know my wife will." But Dr. Adams has plans to involve himself and his family in various Pointe community organizations and functions.

He will very likely continue to belong to a chapter of the Kiwanis Club. Tie all that in with school activities, and Dr. Adams will have very little time for looking backwards.

Education isn't necessarily the be-all and end-all of the life of James Adams, but somehow all conversational roads tend to lead in that direction.

Asked if he can verbalize the most rewarding and fulfilling times he's experienced, the Superintendent pauses a few seconds to collect his thoughts.

Favors Accountability Dr. Adams has always been in favor of accountability, of school officials being responsible to their citizen constituency and acting on the basis of sound judgment.

Anthony says you should get together with the newest Cut-Up, Tom Jackson. Why? To get your head together with a great haircut, shampoo and blow-dry.

Horticulture Lecture Series Starts Monday

An open-to-the-public series of Contemporary Horticulture Lectures at the Detroit Garden Center located in The Moross House, East Jefferson Avenue, starts next Monday morning, September 23.

Each of the five programs is free of charge and will run from 10:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Continental breakfast will be served and there will be an informal question-and-answer period following each presentation.

The premier program Monday, September 23, features Gerald E. Draheim, extension Horticulture Agent, who will talk on Preparing Your Garden For Winter.

Jerry Draheim, born and raised on a dairy farm in central Wisconsin, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Floriculture from the University of Wisconsin.

After service as a Quality Control Director in Wisconsin he joined Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service in August, 1970, and has since been working in Wayne County.

Those services include nursery and landscape programs, advising homeowners on horticulture problems, greenhouse crops, sod production and ecology information and education as well as working with absentee landowners in the development of natural resources.

Mrs. V. E. Smith, from the Cranbrook Institute of Science, will present the second lecture, Cooking With Wild Plants, Monday, September 30.

Howard Joerin's Plants by Light is scheduled for with it, and in Montclair he was responsible for instituting a three-year evaluation design.

"I feel that boards sometimes make decisions involving billions of dollars without thorough enough studies. We should have better and more reliable sources; more evaluation to determine what's needed."

High school students figure in this picture, too. Dr. Adams feels, for the most part, they can supply valuable advice, and he welcomes their positive feedback.

Sunny Side of Forty In his 38 years, James Adams has acquired a considerable amount of experience. His own personally satisfying accomplishments are most impressive to outsiders.

While an older man might not be able to handle the intermittent upheavals or the constant pulling up of roots, the sacrifices come more easily to a man of fewer years.

offers experiences working with community groups in the Wayne County area. Its volunteer opportunities are so varied that the telephone services of a mother with small children can be as successfully utilized as the services of individuals interested in working directly with community groups or in developing project resources.

In a nutshell: LINC needs YOU. Projects served since LINC's inception four years ago include neighborhood drop-in and drug rehabilitation centers, senior citizen homes, children's centers, churches and many other grassroots organizations located primarily in Detroit.

Individuals and groups interested in volunteering for LINC are invited to contact the Operation LINC office, 871-0227, for more information regarding the LINC program.

Further information on Monday's volunteer orientation session may be obtained by calling the LINC office or 886-1844.

And LINC needs things as well as people on a continuing basis. Right now, LINC has a special call out for musical instruments, sheet music, weights, chinning bars, arts and crafts supplies, washers, dryers... and every kind of chair.

The number to call for information and pick-up is, again, 871-0227.

Tennis And Crumpets Finals

Now here's the news you've all been waiting for: preliminary competition in the 1974 Tennis and Crumpets tournament for Children's Hospital is over, and we know who'll be facing whom, (how's that for a grammatically correct phrase?) in the finals this Saturday.

Battling it out for the Class C championship will be Roger and Betty Eger versus Ed and Marie Brady.

Class B contestants are Bob and Phyllis Skau versus Mary Ellen Boyle and John Fisher. In Class A Toni Robinson and Denny Cavanaugh will face Diane McMahon and Norm Sprack across the net.

And may the best pairs win! Play begins at 1 o'clock at the Country Club, (at Austin, if it rains), and after play comes the party, T&C's traditional dining-and-dancing finale.

It's open to everyone, players and non-players, whose $15 per person donations help T&C realize its goal of a five-year $200,000 pledge to purchase Children's Medical Cardiology Suite.

Festivities start at 8 o'clock at the Country Club.

Then on Sunday come T&C's Super Finals, pitting The Pointe's A, B and C standard bearers against winners from Dearborn and Oakland County. Play begins at 3 o'clock at the Court House Tennis and Racquet Club, West Bloomfield.

There'll be a rooters' bus leaving the Country Club at approximately 1:30. Mrs. William J. Denler, II, 886-7609, has reservation information.

There's no admission charge, but proceeds from the sale of drinks will swell the benefit's coffers.

Carl's Corner

Monday, October 7, and Garden Lighting will be presented by the Detroit Edison Company Monday, October 14.

The series closes Monday, October 21, with Mrs. Roger Jameson's demonstration: Using Flowers in Cookery. Her finger food will be served with coffee after her talk.

Chairman of the programs is Mrs. Charles J. Pollock.
