THE HOUSE HANDED President Gerald Ford his veto setback Wednesday, voting 316-85 to override his veto to kill Federal coal leasing reform legislation. The vote, and similar action in the Senate Tuesday, was a major victory for environmentalists who have been attempting for several years to update the 1920 Federal Coal Leasing Law. The measure, which now becomes law, mostly affects Western states where large reserves of coal lie beneath public lands.

Friday, August 6

THE SENATE APPROVED Thursday an omnibus bill revising and broadening the Clean Air Act of 1970 that established an ambitious federal-state effort to improve the quality of the nation's air. The new law extends deadlines on auto exhaust standards. The measure, passed by a 78-13 vote, also would add provisions protecting regions of the country where the air quality is already above existing national standards.

A TWO-MONTH upturn of 0.5 percent in the national jobless rate has undercut claims crediting the Ford administration with speeding economic recovery and is sure to make unemployment a political issue in the upcoming presidential election. This analysis was suggested when the unemployment figures for July showed a 280,000 increase over June.

THE MYSTERIOUS "legionnaire's disease" claimed two more victims in Pennsylvania as state and Federal officials are still unable to pinpoint the cause of the ailment which has killed 27 members of the American Legion, who attended a convention in Philadelphia last month. The cause has been narrowed to some kind of poison of an unknown origin.

WITH HIGH WINDS and heavy rains churning off the North Carolina coast during the morning hours Monday, residents of Long Island and southern New England were warned to brace themselves for hurricane Belle. That area was expected to be lashed by winds up to 110 mph according to forecasters at the National Hurricane Center in Miami, Fla.

WILLIAM AND EMILY HARRIS, onetime fugitive traveling companions of Patricia Hearst, were convicted Monday of kidnapping and robbery, but were acquitted of six assault charges tied to Miss Hearst's machine gun attack on a sporting goods store. The jury of seven women and five men, who had struggled with 11 charges against the couple, reduced the most serious of those charges from kidnapping to simple kidnapping, thus giving the pair a reprieve from mandatory life sentences. They still face a possible life sentence on the first degree robbery conviction which carries a five-year to life term. The penalty for simple kidnapping is a maximum of 25 years. The jury also reduced two charges of robbery to simple car theft.

VACANCY VIEWED

Three persons were recommended to fill a vacancy on the Citizens Recreation Commission by the group, and The Woods Council unanimously referred this matter to the Committee of the Whole for further study at its regular meeting Monday, August 2. The trio include Don Brown, of Hawthorne road, David Krause, of Briarcliff drive, and Edward Williams, of Blairmore road.

Young Stars Capture First for Pointe

The City-Farms Babe Ruth League All-Stars, 13-year-old division, captured a first for The Pointe by winning the State Championship Thursday, August 5, while sporting a 7-0 record in the competition. Looking forward to the Ohio-Valley Regional Tournament are bat boy RICK CAMPBELL, (center front, holding sign), along with, (in the front row, from left to right), coach GEORGE CAIRO, DAVE ZERWECK, ROB MAY-WOOD, ERWIN YEE, CHRIS JANIS, ANDY MONTAGUE, JOHN HEIDT and JOHN VENS, and, (in the back row, from left to right), coach JOE MAUL, MIKE SMITH, MIKE McBREARTY, PAUL PROPHIT, JOHN CAMMETT, MIKE MAHON, JOHN DeBOER, GLENN PICHE and coach CHUCK CAMPBELL. Manager JOHN HOHEN stands proudly in the back between John DeBoer and Glenn Piche. (See story, Page 10).

YSD Budget Allocation Approved

School Board Unanimously Okays Participation in Division in 1976-77

By Roger A. Waha
The Board of Education approved a continuation of its membership in the Youth Service Division, (YSD), as the trustees unanimously voted to contribute its contractual share of $26,575 for the 1976-77 fiscal year.
This action was taken at the regular meeting of the Board on Monday, August 9.
With the Board's approval, all agencies involved in supporting the YSD, including the five municipalities, have okayed their share of the division's fiscal year budget of $140,083.
Along with all the Pointes, the Board has been an active member of the YSD since it became fully operational in August 1970.
"Important Element"
According to the agreement with The Woods, the managing municipality of the division, the Board pays the salary and fringe benefit costs of a public safety officer assigned to the YSD. This amount reaches $25,855 this fiscal year. At the same time, the Board also pays $720 for YSD counseling services.
Trustee Joan Hanpeter was approved by a 6-0 vote. (Trustee William Fleming was absent from the meeting). Board president Robert D. Warner said, "The YSD (Continued on Page 8)

Woods Approves New Laws on Violations, Spraying of Elm Trees

Municipality Increases Certain Fines, Strives to Provide Basis for Uniform Fines in Comparison to Other Cities

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Council unanimously adopted two proposed ordinances amending the city code, with one revising the "Violations Bureau" law and providing for increases in certain deposits, while the other eliminates the mandatory requirement for spraying trees for the purpose of controlling Dutch Elm disease on the part of residents, firms and corporations.
This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, August 2.
Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara, who worked on the violations law, said each traffic violation has a corresponding Uniform Traffic Code section number for ready reference, with the overall intent of the revision being to increase certain fines and to provide a basis for uniform fees in comparison with other communities.
View Other Laws
The law, which contains almost 300 different violations, incorporates over 80 monetary changes, around 18 new additions, i.e., violations, and eight which would require a court date. (Previously, some of these only required a fine).
In preparing for changes in the law, a survey of seven communities, including The Woods, based upon its "older" law, The Farms, City, Shores, St. Clair Shores, Harper Woods and Southfield, was conducted for the purpose of drawing comparisons. Some figures from the City of Birmingham also were considered.
After studying low and high figures in each case for a specific violation, a deci-

Youth Dies In Accident In Shores

Mark Schoenith Killed While Passenger in Car Driven by Friend

North High School student Mark Schoenith, 17, the son of Shirley and J. Lee Schoenith of The Shores, became the Village's first traffic fatality of 1976, according to an accident report released by The Shores Public Safety Department.
The youth, a passenger in a car driven by Larry Anderlite, 17, of 1318 Yorktown road, was killed when Larry lost control of his vehicle and struck a tree broadside in front of 914 Lakeshore road, a short distance from the Schoenith residence at 777 Lakeshore.
The accident, which is still under investigation, occurred at 3:48 a.m. on Saturday, August 7.
No Drinking Involved
Mark was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital by Shores emergency ambulance, suffering from head and multiple injuries. He died at 6 p.m. on Saturday.
Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderlite, suffered head and knee injuries, and at the last report, doctors at the hospital said he was in good condition.
Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza, who is investigating the accident, said no drinking was involved, and, as yet, he did not know how Anderlite lost control of the car, which was sheered in half by the impact with the tree.
Relatives told investigating officers that Mark and Larry had left the Schoenith home for a cup of coffee.
Known Figures
It was disclosed that young Schoenith's parents had been home only a short time when the accident happened.
They had been at the family-owned Roostertail Restaurant, Detroit, where a 75th birthday party had been held for Joseph Schoenith, father of J. Lee, and Mark's grandfather. Mark did not attend the party.
J. Lee and his father are nationally known figures in hydroplane racing. The elder Schoenith was board chairman of W. D. Gale, Inc., a Detroit electrical contracting firm until his retirement in 1968. J. Lee is the present board chairman of the firm, and a 1955 Gold Cup winner.
Services Tuesday
Services for Mark were held Tuesday August 10, at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. Rosaries were said on Monday, August 9, at Eppens-Vandeweghe Funeral Home. (Continued on Page 2)

Park Police Nab B-E Suspects after Chase

Five juveniles who attempted to break into Richard Buick-Opel, a car sales agency at 15103 Kercheval avenue, were arrested by Park police on Saturday, August 7, after two of the youths tried to escape in a stolen van, which ultimately crashed into a house.
The driver of the van lost control while trying to make a "U" turn in an effort to escape pursuing officers.
Lt. Gordon Duncan said a citizen called authorities at about 1:15 a.m. on Saturday, after noticing a white van in the vicinity of the agency and the five teens acting suspiciously.
Officers Andrew Meeker and Collin LaLonde answered the call and when the juveniles, all boys and all

Public Schools Open Sept. 9

School will open in the Pointes on Thursday, September 9, reported the Board of Education at its regular meeting Monday, August 9.
Officials said the first instructional day for the 1976-77 year will be the Thursday after Labor Day, as has been the general practice in the school district for several years.
Teachers and other 10-month staff members will report for work on Tuesday, September 7, for a series of planning conferences and workshops.
Meanwhile, an all-staff meeting has been set for Wednesday, September 8, at 8:30 a.m. in the North High School auditorium. (Continued on Page 6)

Woods Hears Pleas for Relief From Flooding

Van K., Perrien Place Residents Present Petition to Council Seeking Improved Sewage in Their Areas; Solons Approve Two Resolutions Relating to Such Concerns

By Roger A. Waha
The severe rain storm and flooding conditions Wednesday-Thursday, July 28-29, brought a torrent of pleas to The Woods Council from Van K. drive and Perrien place citizens who are seeking relief from what they called an "inadequate sewer system" in the immediate area. This transpired at the regular meeting Monday, August 2.
A petition containing 46 signatures of Van K. and Perrien place citizens, along with a signature apiece from one Briarcliff drive and one Rosedale road resident, was presented to the council demanding action on three separate points. After reviewing the document, the council unanimously decided to act upon the petition as presented.
At the same time, the solons unanimously approved the adoption of two resolutions, one to the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores and the other to the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's office, both of which relate to the concerns expressed by citizens.
Meeting Set
In another development towards resolving the matter, the citizens appointed five representatives to meet with four city officials including City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, City Attorney George Catlin, City Engineer Larry Pate and Department of Public Works Director Anthony Guaresimo.
Mr. Petersen said this gathering has been scheduled for Monday, August 16, at which time Mr. Pate will review the current status of the sewer system in the area and offer suggestions towards alleviating the problem.
The petition says the undersigned unanimously demand that officials take the following actions:
● Appoint a committee or use the proper department, if one exists, to forthwith investigate and correct the inadequate sewer system in the city, which causes severe flooding of property to various citizens of the municipality on numerous occasions and not just on what is sometimes referred to as a "20-50- or 100-year rain storm."
Continuing Problem
● To investigate the use of the city's sewer system to be sure that it is functioning to its fullest capacity and is used only by those authorized to do so.
● To investigate with the (Continued on Page 4)

Proposal Discussed At Meeting

Bid to Merge Police, Fire Departments Draws Mixed Reactions from Citizens; Matter to Remain Under Study

By Susan McDonald
Consolidation of the police and fire departments in Grosse Pointe City has come one step closer to becoming a reality as a Citizens Research Council of Michigan report, recommending that such a move be actively considered, was made public last week.
About 70 City residents attended a meeting to both criticize and support consolidation at Maire School on Monday, August 9.
The session was announced by a city-wide mailing on Friday, August 6. It was billed as a public informational meeting, "a kind of lecture," according to City Mayor John King, who lamented, after several speakers were interrupted, that "it is turning into more of a public hearing."
Crime Load Small
The subject of discussion was a 54-page study of the feasibility of consolidated forces in The City. It was commissioned by The City Council last November at a cost of $3,000.
The report concludes, after a detailed study of police and fire service calls, that the crime load in The City is relatively small as are the demands for immediate service.
Simultaneous police and fire emergencies are few, the report says, and in all cases they could be handled by mutual aid or call-back systems.
"The primary thrust of consolidation is to increase the number of officers on the street and to reduce the number of officers standing by in the station," the report says.
With consolidation, The City could reduce the number of public safety personnel from the present 32.3 men to a total of 29, and still increase the average number of men on street patrol from the present 2.2 police to 3 public safety officers.
Unless Nix Idea
Mayor King explained that with the city currently at its 20-million legal taxable limit, the council is desperate for ways to cut costs.
"The only way we can keep our level of services and at the same time lower our costs is to be more efficient. If we use the configuration of duty the report suggests, we could actually provide more protection and save money."
Union officials from both The City Fire and Police Departments indicated their membership is almost unanimously against consolidation.
Fire Lt. Tim Champine, president of the department's Firefighters Local 1975, said, though he did not dispute any of the facts in the report, "I am convinced a consolidation as proposed here would bring about a decline in fire protection.
"We have always worked with at least three policemen and four firefighters on duty at any one time and you can't tell me that four men (Continued on Page 2)

AAA Cites Two Pointes For Safety

Woods Wins Award of Excellence, While Farms Earns Citation in Pedestrian Category

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods and The Farms have once again been honored by the American Automobile Association for their outstanding pedestrian safety records.
Last week, the AAA announced The Woods won its 10th Award of Excellence since 1966, while The Farms received a Pedestrian Safety Citation in the association's 37th annual Pedestrian Safety Inventory.
The Woods has not recorded a pedestrian fatality in 18 years, (its last was on December 1, 1957), while The Farms had one pedestrian fatality last year. Since 1961, it has recorded three such fatalities, (the others were in 1963 and 1971).
Just Says "Thanks"
Both communities competed with 805 other cities in the 10,000-25,000 population class for their awards, which will be presented at a future date by the Automobile Club of Michigan.
Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand and Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook, along with Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber and Traffic Safety Officer F. J. Belanger, were decidedly pleased with the latest honors.
"It's terrific," said Director Marchand. "I don't know if it's luck or . . . I don't know." After a pause, he cited the "great work" of the school crossing guards, good street markings indicating crosswalks, the effective safety education program in the schools and the "great job" done by the safety patrols.
He added, "I think God has got a lot to do with it," while saying he just wanted to say "thanks, that's all."
Officer Crook stated, "I think it's great," while attributing the award to the crossing guards, the safety patrols, "our own enforcement." (Continued on Page 2)

Board Seeks Applicants For Administrative Posts

By Susan McDonald
The Board of Education is taking applications for eight new administrative positions that will boost the system's managerial staff during the next school year.
The main thrust of the new jobs, some of which are simply reclassifications of former, non-administrative positions, is "to give us more adequate manpower to develop programs and to evaluate staff," according to Assistant Superintendent Personnel Lawrence Kennedy.
"Despite all the clamoring we hear about overstaffed administrations, it is simply not so," Mr. Kennedy said. "For years we have not had the staff to adequately evaluate our teachers and programs."
The new jobs, all within the $20,000-$30,000 salary range, include directors of research and development, elementary education and secondary education.
Generally, Mr. Kennedy said these positions should provide "leadership, direction and coordination of programs and added capacities for evaluation of programs and staff."
New administrative positions as supervisor of instructional materials, community services and career and vocational education are reclassifications of jobs now held by non-administrative personnel. (Continued on Page 8)

GPW Considers New Agreement

A proposed three-year contract between The Woods and its public works and administrative personnel will be considered for ratification by the council at its regular meeting Monday, August 16.
The proposal, which has been ratified by Local 1121, AFSCME, (American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees), is from fiscal year 1976-77 through fiscal year 1978-79.
Fiscal year 1975-76 was the last year of a previously approved three-year pact.

GP Woods, Farms Honored Again by AAA

Stresses Program
For his part, Chief Ferber cited the overall educational approach and program developed in the community. He viewed the work being accomplished by Officer Belanger in the city and in the schools, while commending him on his fine performance.

Meanwhile, Officer Belanger mentioned the concern of citizens in this area and emphasized the community's traffic safety program via education, engineering and enforcement.

He thanked the teachers for their help within the schools, while noting an emphasis on traffic and pedestrian safety at the cooperative nursery group level, i.e., three- to five-year-olds.

The officer complimented "our safety patrol units, both male and female, especially in the public school areas where fifth graders do this work," and Chief Ferber for "his tremendous job in the traffic safety field by being on top of the situation at all times."

Since 1961, The Farms has received citations for excellence in pedestrian safety each year except 1963 and 1971, said Officer Belanger.

Top Performance
The AAA reports that The Woods, which has won four first place Grand Awards the last 11 years, was honored for top performance in both its pedestrian safety programs and its pedestrian death and injury records.

It also was cited for its extensive school education programs which instruct youngsters, particularly those from kindergarten through third grade, on pedestrian safety.

(The Woods' traffic safety record, including awards, as announced by the AAA was a factor of great pleasure to Officer Stephen Petrik, who was transferred to the road patrol on July 1 after nine years as traffic safety officer.)

While both award-winning communities recorded three pedestrian injuries last year, they were below the national average for the 10,000-25,000 population class, says the AAA.

Related to the overall traffic and pedestrian safety area, Officer Crook plans to contact the principals of Barnes, Mason, Ferry, Our Lady Star of the Sea and University Liggett Schools to see if they are interested in having their schools participate in the Green Pennant Safety Program, sponsored by the "Detroit News" this fall.

"Flutter Excellence"
In a letter which will be sent to the principals, he said the Green Pennant has been the standard by which a school judges its own street safety education and promotion.

"The Green Pennant is a teaching aid, daily demanded by the students to be flown from the school flagstaff. This ever-present demand to flutter safety excellence, causes better safety education, school routing, child street crossing protection and a more thorough traffic record analysis," he stated.

This pennant flies at all elementary schools where no student accident has occurred for at least 30 days with annual banner awards being presented to schools for perfect safety records, he noted.

Officer Crook concluded by saying, "This is my first year as traffic and school safety officer and I now have an opportunity to work with students of our schools in an attempt to make our city a safer place in which to live."

Continuing Efforts
He also wanted to have an opportunity to discuss a safety program being organized for the students, which will include safety talks, films and magic pertaining to safety awareness.

In the same vein, Officer Belanger said he will continue his efforts within the Officer James Cronin, speaking for the police who are represented by Teamsters Local #214, echoed those sentiments.

Need More Debate
"Police and fire work are two separate jobs voluntarily chosen by these men. If the departments are consolidated I guarantee you the police will not voluntarily become firefighters."

After the half hour presentation that opened the program, and the answering of written questions from the audience, the citizens were allowed to verbally address the council and three research council representatives at the meeting.

Several citizens agreed, however, that meaningful input was impossible because of the timing of the meeting.

"While the proposal may well have merit, I am scared stiff about the timing of the meeting," said Draper Hill.

Will Be Studied
In response, Mayor King explained that the meeting was called on such short notice to curb the possibility of rumors spreading throughout the community about consolidation.

He made it clear that the council had made no decisions about implementing the plan and he had no idea when such a decision would be made, except "that we will do a great deal more studying before we make a decision."

Mayor King said he was not in favor of putting the matter to an advisory vote by the citizens as one man suggested. "When the council is elected to represent the people it is not up to us to pass the buck. We must make the decisions," he said.

Three people spoke in favor of the plan, including Eugene C. Mathivet Jr., of Lakeland avenue, who said, "I see creeping crime coming this way from Detroit through Grosse Pointe Park and I'm most interested in having more police officers on the street patrolling. I'm certainly ready to accept this move."

Nab Suspects

Officers Meeker and LaLonde said they arrested the pair in the van. The driver was 15-years-old and his passenger was 16.

The policemen said as they took the pair in custody, two other teenagers, both 16-years-old, demanded to know what the officers were doing to their "cousins." They, too, were arrested.

The fifth youth, also 16, was arrested by Park Officer Rodney Wedding, who was off duty, and saw the boy walking along Jefferson. The five youths were released to the Youth Service Division for further questioning and investigation.

Lt. Duncan said that the van, with its front end completely smashed, was reported stolen from 138 West Fisher Freeway between 10-11 p.m. on Friday, August 6.

Church Plans Folk Service

Saint James Lutheran Church, McMillan road near Kercheval avenue, will conduct its annual summer Folk Service with Holy Communion on Thursday, August 19, at 8 p.m. There will be a rehearsal of the songs of the service at 7:45 p.m.

This service, which will feature special music led by a guitar choir of nine young people under the direction of Ellen Smith, will offer an inspiring worship experience of joyful fellowship.

Pastor George Kurz, who will conduct the service and preach the sermon, will be assisted by various young people of the congregation, who will serve as lectors, acolytes, ushers and in the guitar choir.

The service has been well attended over the past years by all ages.

Woods Views Seniors' Nutritional Program

By Roger A. Waha

A recommendation from the Senior Citizens Commission to proceed with a Food and Nutritional Program being offered by Wayne County was considered by The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, August 2.

The council unanimously referred this matter to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen for his review and study with a report back to the seniors.

Irene Sutton, commission chairman, said seniors, who meet twice a month, were recently asked if they wanted the commission to pursue this program with the city. She stated the majority were in favor of such a program so the organization requested that the city proceed with it.

The program, under the auspices of the Wayne County Agency on Aging, features 23 different sites in the out-county area which provides seniors with well-balanced hot meals at mid-day, said Kelly Hanna, information and referral assistant at the county office.

Indicating there's no such location on the east side, she stated anyone over 60 years of age is eligible to participate and that a 50 cent donation is requested, but not provided. Meals would be provided five days a week during the late morning and early afternoon hours.

At the same time, she stressed such a program provides a location for the out-growth of other county senior-related activities, e.g., legal aid, health screening, field trips, et al.

Citing an emphasis upon socialization, she said, "The main thrust is to get citizens out of their homes and in contact with other seniors."

Meals are provided through Federal funds under Title VII of the Administration on Aging Federal funding program, which she stated includes 20 different sections in which money is allocated.

The first step in the program, pending city approval, is an on-site evaluation of the possible location to house the program. The director of the program will help determine the site which is used, she said. "As long as space is donated, the nutritional group takes it from there. It usually takes a month to get it off the ground."

Indicating she isn't aware of any cost to the city, she noted a potential area of cost would be the location for the program if space isn't donated.

The Harper Woods Council recently turned down a proposal to support this program when a motion to sponsor it failed for lack of support.

Five Injured In Auto Mishap

Five persons, including a three-year-old child, suffered injuries in a two-car collision at Harvard and Maumee on Friday, July 30, according to information released by Park Lt. Gordon Duncan.

All the injured were conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital by fire department ambulance.

The driver of one auto, Raymond B. Overton, 66, of The Park, drove broadside into a car driven by Tama L. Henderson, 19, of East Detroit, who, police said, drove through a stop street, Mr. Overton was traveling west on Maumee.

Mr. Overton complained only of suffering body pains and there were no visible signs of injury on his person. He was alone in his vehicle.

According to Lt. Duncan, Miss Henderson suffered head, chest and back pains and was bleeding at the mouth. She was treated in the emergency room and released. Her three passengers also suffered bleeding wounds, it was said.

They are Theresa J. Jenkins, 20, who emerged from the accident with severe lacerations about her face, abdominal injuries, a fractured pelvis and a fractured rib; David Jenkins, three, who suffered a fracture of the left leg and a fractured pelvis; and Wendy DeBlaere, 16, who suffered only minor cuts on her right leg. All are Detroit residents. David and Wendy since have been released from the hospital.

However, Miss Jenkins, who was temporarily placed in the intensive care unit, is still in the hospital and reported in good condition.

Lt. Duncan said the collision forced both cars over the left west corner curb of the intersection. Both vehicles had to be towed from the scene.

Miss Henderson was issued a violation ticket for ignoring a stop street sign and causing an injury accident. She is scheduled for a court appearance on Wednesday, August 25.

2,000 Hear City Concert

Grosse Pointe City fathers were overwhelmed with the success of their first free outside concert, featuring the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra on Wednesday, August 4.

According to City Manager Thomas Kressbach about 2,000 people enjoyed the pops concert with its Americana theme. The weatherman cooperated fully in producing a beautiful evening for the picnickers at Neff Park.

As to the many suggestions he has received from citizens for a repeat concert next year, Mr. Kressbach pointed out that an anonymous donor made this one possible.

"We'd love to do it next year, but we don't know where the funds would come from," he explained.

Retired Police Chief Robbed

After serving 40 years as a law enforcer, retired City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert found out what it's like to be a victim last week as someone drove off with the family station wagon and camper, all loaded up for a trip to northern Michigan.

Police arrested a suspect, John Thomas Karpinski, 17, of 1432 Burns, Detroit, after a chase which resulted in severe damage to the Teetaert station wagon and a scout car.

Florence Teetaert told police she was awake on Friday, August 6, at 4 a.m., making final preparations for the trip when she heard a car door slam and watched the auto and camper being driven away.

After a lookout was signaled over police airwaves, City Officers Richard Lanski and Arthur Maes spotted the vehicle, with Karpinski at the wheel, on Charlevoix with the lights out.

Retired Police Chief Robbed

When they attempted to pull him over, police said Karpinski cut them off with the result being about $100 damage to the scout car and more than $500 to the station wagon.

Karpinski finally exited the car and fled on foot, police said. He was arrested by Park Officer Andrew Meeker in Grayton road.

The suspect was arraigned Friday on charges of unlawfully driving away an auto and possession of a stolen car.

He is being held in the municipal jail in lieu of a $500 cash bond and was scheduled for examination in The City Municipal Court on Wednesday, August 11.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

by Tom Seiter

Many of the early municipal golf courses were laid out in existing parks, but in recent years most courses have been built on areas specially acquired for this purpose. Fifty acres or more are needed for a nine-hole course, and 100 acres or more for an eighteen-hole course. Land with uneven topography and some woodland is what is most suitable. Because the game of golf requires considerable time, and because most golfers have means of transportation, ease of access to the golf course is less important than with many types of recreation areas.

Whatever your favorite type of recreation, you'll find the equipment and uniforms you need to enjoy it more at GRAY'S SPORT SHOP, 106 Kercheval ave., Grosse Pointe Farms. Woods Citizens Seek Relief from Flooding

(Continued from Page 1) help of the city attorney's office whether or not there are any city, county or state funds that can be appropriated to pay for costs to make the city's sewer system "not only adequate but a workable sewer system for the people and citizens that it serves."

James R. Gilleran, of Perrien place, who read the document aloud to the council, is one member of the citizen's committee. Others include Milton Messerschmidt, of Van K., David Stander, of Van K., John Kennedy, of Perrien place, and John Logan, of Perrien place.

Several citizens called this an on-going problem which, through the years, has become worse. Some cited a sub-division in The Shores, which runs behind homes in Van K. and is at a higher elevation. Because of this reported height difference, water rushes downward into the yards of Van K. residents during such storms, they said.

This situation was the subject of The Woods' resolution to The Shores. Urge Investigation
 That measure says it has been brought to the council's attention that the residential lots in the area of Van K. drive are experiencing rain water run-off apparently occasioned by the difference in grade level between such developed lots and lots in the process of being developed in The Shores.

It states that a possible solution of this problem would be that the developer of the residential lots in The Shores, which abuts and adjoins such lots in Van K. drive, be required to install catch basins in sufficient number to alleviate this rain water run-off condition.

Finally, the resolution urged The Shores Council to investigate this matter in an effort to alleviate the problem being experienced by Woods property owners.

Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers said as of Monday afternoon, August 9, he hasn't seen a copy of the resolution. He stated he has heard about the situation but hasn't as yet seen anything official from The Woods.

Mr. Jeffers added when that time comes he expects the council will explore the matter.

Seeking Action
 Mr. Petersen told the citizens that funds belonging to the city for sewer improvement projects are controlled by the drain commissioner's office. Around $315,000 in unencumbered monies is tied up in nine drainage districts which serve the city, and officials said it was difficult to get the funds released because of the number of districts involved.

This particular point was the subject of the city's resolution to the drain commissioner's office.

It says the city has previously voted and/or authorized the issuance of bonds through the office of the county drain commissioner for the construction of storm drains, and has been advised there is an approximate total of $315,000 in unencumbered balances which remain as the city's share in the various drain construction and/or debt funds which are on deposit within the county and supervised by the various county and intra-county drainage boards.

Continuing, the measure states the city, through its administrative offices, has previously requested the drain commissioner's office to have the necessary plans and specifications prepared by a competent engineering firm, and to advertise for bids, for the construction of eight additional relief storm sewers within the municipality in order to prevent serious flooding of basements and subsequent loss of property or damages during a normal rainfall or storm.

Youthhood Thanked
 Further, it notes, to date, only two of the requested relief storm sewers have been authorized and approved for construction by the county drain commissioner and/or drainage board, "thus delaying the alleviation and correction of the cause for such flooded basements or property damage in many sections" of the city.

Then the resolution cites numerous complaints and petitions which have been received by the municipality demanding the correction of such storm deficiencies.

As a result, it says the council at its August 2 meeting earnestly solicits the county drain commissioner's office to take immediate steps which will authorize the construction of the additional six relief storm sewers, and to authorize the construction of any other such sewers as may be deemed required by the city.

These are to be built at a total cost not exceeding the unencumbered sum of $315,000 which is believed to be available for storm sewer construction in The Woods.

Finally, the measure states the council expresses its thanks to Charles N. Youngblood, drain commissioner, for his past cooperation and efforts in helping the city to attempt to solve many of its storm drainage deficiencies and/or other related problems.

"Get Work Going"
 City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher said the two contracts already approved for sewer improvements were by the Black Marsh Drain, Section No. One Drainage Board in the amount of $34,352.48 and by the Girard Drain, Section No. One Drainage Board in the amount of $31,892.15.

Both drainage boards accepted the bid to the Westland Excavating Co. in each case.

Affected areas for such work include the alley east and parallel with Mack avenue from north of Dorthern road to Torrey road, and west of Goethe to the alley east of Mack.

As planned, the additional six relief storm sewers would include work in Severn road, Broadstone road, Littlestone road, Cook road, Holiday road, Oxford road and Ida lane, he stated.

We want to work with the drain commissioner to see if funds can be moved from the other drains so we can get the sewer work done now, said Mr. Hornfisher, who added "We'll try to get them to allocate funds to get the work going."

The city engineer will check other bad areas, e.g., in Van K. and Perrien place, regarding including these into improvement projects and will make a report on the 16th when citizens and officials meet, he added.

Farms Okays Repair Work

The Farms Council accepted the low bid of the O'Connor LaLonde Contracting Co. for asphalt paving within the city. The bid of $52,770.70 was accepted by a 6-0 vote at the regular meeting Monday, August 2.

By a similar vote the council also accepted the low bid of the Vanopdenbosch Construction Co. in the total amount of $13,180 for curb, catch basin and sidewalk repair and replacement within the city.

Woods Council Approves Two Ordinances

(Continued from Page 1) arm around a passenger, which was worth $5. Added violations included overloaded truck spilling contents, $20, opening door into traffic, $10, and passing a stopped school bus, $20. (While a violation of State law, this is an addition to the city's ordinance).

Mandatory court appearances for the following violations remain the same: careless driving, driving under the influence of alcohol, impaired driving, failure to report an accident, reckless driving, allowing an unlicensed driver to operate a vehicle, driving on a suspended license and unlawful use or display of license plates, among others.

Hikes in Fees
Increases in traffic violations basically jumped $5 or $10 depending on the offense. Five dollar hikes include such offenses as blocking traffic, from $10 to $15, parking in fire route, $10 to $15, and defective or improper lights, $5 to $10.

Those increased by $10 include failure to give a proper signal, $5 to $15, failure to give right-of-way to fire, police and other emergency vehicles, $15 to $25, failure to obey a crossing guard signal, $15 to $25, and defective brakes or steering equipment, (car impounded), $10 to $20.

Besides the myriad traffic violations, the law also encompasses building, fire and zoning code violations, animals and birds, general offenses and nuisances, licenses or special council authorization, health and sanitation, streets, trees and shrubs and water-sewer.

Going to Court
Changes in these areas include the following: under fire violations, false alarm, previously $25, now requires a court appearance; under animals and birds, cruelty to animals, formerly $10, now requires a court appearance; under general offenses and nuisances, failure to cut weeds as required, $5, firearms, illegal aiming at a person, $25, and discharge of firearms, $10, all now require court appearances, as does throwing of missiles, formerly $10.

And under licenses or special council authorization, soliciting without authorization, previously $5, is now $15. Finally, under streets, failure to provide adequate pedestrian walkway across any excavation on public property as may be needed jumped from $10 to $25, while depositing or storing any materials, goods, equipment, etc., upon the streets, sidewalks or other public place without official approval also was raised from $10 to $25.

Meanwhile, depositing, dumping or washing any sand, gravel, mud, asphalt, cement or other similar or like materials upon any street, alley, sidewalk or other public place jumped from $15 to $25.

Should Be Treated
Before the amendment relating to controlling Dutch Elm disease, the measure said every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control any elm tree located within the city limits is required to have the tree properly sprayed each year with an insecticide spray.

Now, the law says it's recommended that every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control any elm trees located within the (corporate) limits to have such trees properly (treated) each year with an insecticide spray, (or a chemical injection).

The type of spray, (or injection), to be used will be one approved by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, with a list of such de-terents being available in his office.

At the meeting, Mr. Petersen told the council the city will continue spraying trees on city property, while saying the reason for the removal of the mandatory requirement for citizens, firms or corporations was because it was hard to enforce.

At the same time, he noted, "The spraying of elms is believed to be no longer effective," while citing a new method, the injection of chemicals into the trees.

Bad Year for Elms
The concern over the declining elm tree population in The Woods is readily apparent after talking with Director of Public Works Anthony Guaresimo, who said there are an estimated 5,000 elms in the city today. "But we used to have around 8,000 elms about 16 years ago," he noted.

Combined total elm losses on the average per year on both city and private property number between 130-160 but already in 1976, which Mr. Guaresimo terms "one of the worst years," some 160 trees have fallen. And that total is expected to grow.

The estimated cost of removing one diseased elm, including the stump, runs between $200-$250, he noted.

"I find, myself, the quick removal of trees when they contract Dutch Elm disease is important. This helps more than anything," (in preventing the spread of the disease), stressed Mr. Guaresimo.

One sign that a tree may have the disease is the yellowing, curling and falling of leaves, he said. Residents, who feel their elm may have contracted the disease, should call the public works department via city offices, (884-6800), and personnel will take a sample to check for the disease.

Vicious Vandalism

Although the city had no active tree planting program last year, according to Mr. Guaresimo, in the past as many as 300-400 trees, including a variety of maples, have been planted annually. Not without a touch of disgusted amazement, he said vandals damaged around 200 new trees in one night several years ago, which indicates officials not only have Dutch Elm disease to be concerned about.

As for the newer chemical injection system, Mr. Guaresimo said a local tree company has experimented with it but hasn't had much luck at this time. He estimated it would cost around $250,000 to treat all trees on city property with such injections.

A tree survey and census may become a reality in the city sometime next year as the municipality has been in contact with the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources at Michigan State University regarding the utilization of students for the project.

Such a project would include the investigation of all street trees and their condition along with necessary recommendations regarding replacement, trimming, et al. It also would include the preparation of a master street tree planning program in regards to the planting of various species at certain locations.

Both ordinances become effective on Sunday, August 22.

ONLY EIGHT

The smallest school district in the state is Bois Blanc Pines School District on Bois Blanc Island near the Straits of Mackinac, according to the State Board of Education. It has eight pupils.

Seeks Applicants for Posts

These positions were upgraded, according to Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, because "these people have had administrative jobs in every sense of the word all along," but "contractually they were not allowed to effectively manage."

He explained, "According to the Grosse Pointe Education Association contract, as non-administrative personnel, they are not allowed to evaluate, supervise or manage other members of the unit."

Assistant principals also will be added at the high schools, making a total of three at each school.

"We had three at both high schools for many years but they were dropped several years ago," explained Mr. Kennedy. "We tried to get along without them but it became evident we were just understaffed."

The specific nature of the assistant principal jobs will generally be left to the discretion of the building principals, Mr. Kennedy said.

Dr. Coats, who began his duties as superintendent of schools in the middle of July, said the new positions were created "out of the consensus of opinion of the Board of Education and central staff, that we were understaffed, especially at the high schools."

"There is a severe void in the system, especially in terms of the inadequate follow through on programs in the classrooms," Dr. Coats explained. "It's imperative that we have the ability to gauge the relative effectiveness of our programs and methods."

The Board will be accepting applications for the positions, all of which require at least a Master's degree, through Friday, August 20. Dr. Coats said he is confident they will be filled before the opening of school on Thursday, September 9.

Scouts Enjoy Big Expedition

Returning from a recently successful, two-week backpacking expedition, scaling the rough mountain trails of 12,000-foot Mount Baldy and the 9,000-foot "Tooth of Time" in the New Mexico Rocky Mountains at the Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, N. Mex., were a crew of Boy Scouts from the area.

They included Kevin Kushner, trail advisor Charles W. Donovan, Rick McIntyre, Steve Hunter, Bill Gillette, Stephen Rynearson, Mark Schneider, John Kuhn, Ross Murray, Robert Sheridan and Coleman Rogers.

Olson to Give Racing Award

Oscar L. (Ozzie) Olson, of Renaud road, a popular auto racing figure whose Olsonite Eagles were the class of USAC championship racing for seven years, has announced the establishment of a $10,000 Olsonite Driver of the Year Award.

This annual award to the outstanding American driver will be sponsored by Mr. Olson's company, Olsonite Corp., a leading supplier of steering wheels and custom molded plastics to the automotive industry and the world's largest producer of toilet seats.

Mr. Olson said he decided to establish the award to replace the Martini and Rossi Driver of the Year Award which was discontinued earlier this year after nine years.

Labor History
The Trade Act of 1974 was signed by the President on January 2, 1975, according to the U.S. Labor Department's "Important Events in American Labor History." One provision of the act helps workers who lose their jobs because of imports and provided for secret ballot representation elections and established machinery to resolve unfair labor practices complaints, according to the Labor Department's publication, "Important Events in American Labor History."

What's better than a summer vacation?

you ought to know a DETROIT BANK-er better

A summer vacation plus the help of a Detroit Bank-er.

Short of rubbing suntan lotion on your back, there is a lot your DETROIT BANK-er can do to make your summer vacation a much more pleasant time.

To begin with, you can get your whole trip financed with a Detroit Bank & Trust vacation loan, or you can charge whatever portions of it you wish—hotels, restaurants, gifts—on your Master Charge. (Apply for your card at any office.) Of course, you don't want to take too much cash along, so you can purchase Travelers Checks in the amount you need at any office.

While you're away, you'll want things to run smoothly at home. So for safekeeping, put valuables from your home into a safe deposit box at Detroit Bank & Trust. And while you're gone there are several automatic services you can arrange with your DETROIT BANK-er like direct deposit of your Social Security check, automatic transfer of funds from checking to savings and much more.

These are only some of the things Detroit Bank & Trust can do to help you have a better vacation this year. Your DETROIT BANK-er can probably suggest a few more. So be sure to talk with your DETROIT BANK-er before you leave town. He can take your mind off money so you can relax and enjoy your vacation.

Farms Slates Fishing Rodeo

The Farms' boys and girls Annual Fishing Rodeo will be held Saturday, August 21, at the Farms Pier.

It's open to Farms and City residents under 17 years of age, with the stipulation that children under 10 be accompanied by an adult. Applications may be obtained at respective parks.

The rodeo will last from 9:30 a.m. Refreshments will be served at 10:30 and prizes awarded at 11. Everyone who is registered and participates in the rodeo will receive a prize.

Contestants will receive special prizes for the first fish caught, the longest game fish caught and the most fish caught. Last year's winner from The Farms was Len Bartoszewicz. The two sharing first place from The City were Steve Jankowski and Mike Monahan.

Candy will be distributed to all contestants by the noted clown, Frank Dansbury, while coffee and doughnuts will be served to the adults, courtesy of the Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club.

Board Approves Allocation

(Continued from Page 1) the Board would have taken a hard look regarding the extent of its participation.

Cost Breakdown
The Board's share of the YSD's budget through the years shows the following:

Fiscal years 1970-71 and 1971-72, the budget reached $99,128 and the Board's share, $16,851.78; 1972-73, the budget was $105,532, the Board's share, $15,390.44; 1973-74, the budget was $107,740, the Board's share, $19,885; 1974-75, the budget was $118,217, the Board's share, $22,000; and 1975-76, the budget was $128,198, the Board's share, $24,897.

Meanwhile, each Pointe contributes the balance of the budgetary requirements on a pro-rata share based upon each municipality's assessed valuation. This fiscal year, The Woods contributes $35,703.41; The Farms, $28,920; The Park, $20,555.53; The City, $12,986.97; and The Shores, $11,342.09. The budget also includes a reappropriated cash surplus of $6,000.

Assistant Superintendent-Instruction Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, who is the Board's representative on the YSD's Board of Managers, (which also includes all Pointe city managers), stated, "I'm very pleased the Board was able to continue its role and its participation in the YSD."

"The service provided by the YSD to the school system and to the community as a whole has been invaluable. The YSD continues to give marvelous service."

Dr. Spagnoli noted the Board's approval of its share of the division's budget is consistent with its participation in the past, i.e., the Board's share of the overall budget total is in the area of 16 percent.

When asked would the Board have approved participating in the YSD this fiscal year if all millage propositions failed in the June 14 millage election, Dr. Spagnoli said he couldn't answer that but indicated the Board put a hold on its participation after the millage failed in March.

He added if the propositions were defeated in June,

White wine can be made from "red" grapes. If the grapeskins are carefully removed during the initial pressing, a white wine will result. Many fine white wines are made from such distinguished grapes as the Pinot Noir — the "black" grape. A distinguished white wine is also made from Chardonnay wine grapes, as well as many great white Burgandies. Blanc de Blancs is a most unusual and delicate white wine, of a soft green-gold color, and served slightly chilled, the taste is light and dry.

Cinema League Sets Programs

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League reports it has planned an outstanding series of movies and slide shows for the fall and winter season. The programs, which are scheduled for the first and third Mondays of the month, will be presented in the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

Highlights for the first half of the season will feature photographic productions on Africa, France, Eastern Canada, Land of the Maya and Tunisia.

The opening program on Central Asia September 20 will be presented by well-known photographer Raymond Walk.

Cinema League officers include Walter Forster, president; Samuel Armstrong, vice-president and program chairman; Gerald Pearsall, second vice-president; Harold Hammond, secretary; Esther Peters, treasurer; and Elfrieda Palmentier, historian and publicity.

Members-at-Large are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jinks, Ester Porter and Roy Scharfenberg. The hospitality committee is headed by Mrs. Beverly Pearsall and Mrs. Margaret Elliott.

The public is invited to attend the programs without charge. The social hour following each program is limited to members and their guests.

The group adds it welcomes new members with dues, payable in September, $5 per person annually.

HEARING LOSSES

Youngsters who exhibit signs of being unusually tense or tired after normal, daily activities may be displaying signs of unrelieved hearing losses, according to officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Children with impaired hearing frequently have to exert special efforts in order to hear enough to know what is going on around them, Crusade officials point out.

Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

"Here are some air-conditioning tips that will keep you from getting hot under the collar this summer"

Detroit Edison is a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation. The wise use of energy plays one of the most important roles in that effort. But it requires a working partnership between those who supply energy and those who use it. Here are some ways you can help conserve energy and save yourself some money the rest of this summer.

You can dial up and hold your costs down.

Don't overcool your home. That's a wasteful use of energy. And expensive. For the most comfort and the most efficiency, set your thermostat no lower than about 10 degrees below the outside temperature. If it's 85 degrees outside, then set your thermostat at about 75 degrees. Otherwise your air conditioner has to work extra hard and your costs go up and up. In a typical house, you can save about 5 percent in operating costs for every degree you move the thermostat up. So, if your house is going to be empty for a few hours, move your thermostat up 5 more degrees and pocket the savings.

Staying comfortable this summer can be a breeze.

When the sun beats down, the heat in your attic builds up and it can be like living under an oven. An attic exhaust fan will get the hot air out and let the cooler night air in, and take the strain off your air conditioner. Good attic insulation works wonders at keeping your home cooler in summer and it will pay off again by saving on heating costs next winter. And don't forget light-colored shingles reflect heat. Whatever you do to keep heat out of your house saves money in air conditioning. Window fans work, too.

Shades of the past.

Before you had air conditioning, there were things you did to keep comfortable, like pulling down the window shades and closing the draperies on the sunny side of the house. That's smart. Because a bare window lets in as much as 35 times more heat than an insulated wall.

So do the same now and you can reduce your air-conditioning costs by as much as 12 percent. Shade your windows from the outside with ventilated awnings or trees and save even more—up to 22 percent of your air-conditioning operating costs.

Maintain your cool.

If you want your air conditioner to take good care of you, keep it clean. This means changing or washing the air filters often. Also, vacuum the inside coils and keep outside coils free of debris. Clean registers and return ducts regularly on central air-conditioning systems, and keep the cooling drain open for free condensate flow. And don't block air flow with furniture or draperies. Your owner's manual lists other maintenance tips. Follow them and keep cool all summer.

Buying a new air conditioner? Maybe the most important numbers aren't on the price tag.

First of all, it's important that you get the right size unit (BTU's). Your salesman can help on this if you tell him the length and width of the area you want to cool. Another number that's important is the EER number. This stands for Energy Efficiency Rating.

MODEL NUMBER ACR20B 74F
VOLTS	CYCLE	PHASE
115	60	1
COOLING BTU/HR	AMPS	WATTS
6400	7.5	800
BTUs		WATTS

You can figure this out yourself. Just divide the BTU number by the number of watts. For example, a unit that delivers 6400 BTU's with 800 watts has an EER rating of 8. (800 goes into 6400 8 times.) The recommended EER number for any air conditioner is 8 or more. You may pay a little more, but you'll save on energy costs in the long run.

Detroit Edison has a folder, "How to stretch your air-conditioning operating dollar." Pick one up at any customer office and start saving, or write to: Customer Relations, Detroit Edison 2000 Second, Detroit, Michigan 48226

Woods Council Postpones Action on Fence Request

By Roger A. Waha A request on the part of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church for authority to erect a fence on the city's right-of-way for the protection and well-being of the students was tabled until Monday, August 16, by The Woods Council.

This action was unanimously taken after a public hearing on the bid ended in a stalemate regarding a specific course to follow. In the meantime, Father Ralph V. Barton, pastor, and Public Safety Director Henry Marchand are scheduled to meet to discuss courses of action towards a solution. Recommendations are set to come from Director Marchand and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen on this.

Father Barton proposed that fences be erected on city property on both Morningside drive and Fairford rather than on school property, as an extra deterrent to prevent playful youngsters from going out into the street from the sidewalk. With the fences on city property, children on the sidewalk would be contained from within its confines.

"None of us like fences but we like children," commented Father Barton, who cited safety concerns, including traffic, regarding the protection of the youngsters going to and coming from school.

However, in a memo to the council on the proposed fence, Director Marchand said, "A check of Our Lady Star of the Sea property does not indicate any necessity for a fence to be erected on public property. There is sufficient space on the church's property to erect a fence parallel to Morningside drive and also Fairford without the need for encroachment upon public property."

He indicated he had no strong objection to the fence paralleling Fairford on a traffic hazard standpoint, but "the reason given for the proposed fence is the safety of the children. If this is the case, why isn't the fence placed inside the tree line, thus not only preventing the children from running out into the street but also climbing the trees?"

In objecting to the fence paralleling Morningside, the director said the view of a driver proceeding west on Fairford and stopping for the stop sign at Morningside will be obstructed to the driver's left.

The angle of the fence in relation to the position of the driver stopped at Morningside on Fairford is such that the fence will obstruct the driver's view of cross coming traffic as effectively as if the fence were of solid masonry construction, he noted.

So for both the safety of children and motorists, Director Marchand suggested the fence alongside Morningside be relocated inside the existing sidewalk.

In summing up the situation, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stated the city would like to give Father Barton what he wants, while at the same time not offending Director Marchand.

As a result, a "meeting of minds" was suggested between both men to work towards a solution in this matter.

Woods Police Find Escapée

Woods police, after receiving information from a Saint John Hospital security guard on an escapee from Jackson Prison, arrested the man in a Moross road lounge early Friday morning, August 6. The man was taken back to prison that afternoon.

Frank James Wright, 24, who was a walkaway from the Dalton Farm Trustee Division, escaped in January, according to police, who added he was sentenced to prison on an attempted, breaking and entering a dwelling charge.

The incident unfolded when the guard told patrolling Officer John DeLora he received information that the man was an escapee from the prison. The guard said the man left the hospital before he could check if there was a warrant on him.

After checking and learning of such a warrant, the guard told the officer the man might still be in the area because his girl friend was in the hospital.

With the man's description at hand, Officers DeLora and Arthur Gekiere checked the immediate area including the Landmark Restaurant, 19299 Mack Avenue, and then the lounge.

While in the lounge, they found the man at the bar. He agreed to go to the hospital so further information could be obtained, and an ultimate LEIN, (Law Enforcement Information Network), check by police revealed the felony warrant.

After being arrested and taken to the station, the prison was contacted. A check was made of the files and a prison officer reported the man should have tattoos on both his left and right arms. The subject was then restrained while police forcibly removed his shirt revealing the tattoos.

Attempts were made to house the man at the Wayne County Jail until prison officials could pick him up. However, police said contacts with the jail revealed they were at capacity with a count at one point during the morning reaching 898 prisoners.

As a result, police returned the man to Jackson early that afternoon.

Suspect Faces Circuit Court

A 24-year-old Detroit man, who's charged with larceny from a motor vehicle, was bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial, reported Woods police.

This action was taken at the Woods Municipal Court examination of Eugene Charles Akins, of 847 Newport, on Wednesday, August 4. The defendant, through his attorney, waived the exam and bond was set in the amount of $200 cash, (10 percent of the original $2,000 bond).

His circuit court arraignment and pre-trial is set for Thursday, August 19.

Akins was arrested on Sunday, July 25, after allegedly attempting to remove a CB radio from the car of a Detroit man at Bonanza Restaurant, 20460 Mack avenue.

The suspect ran from the scene upon being discovered, was chased by the complainant and was ultimately apprehended by police hiding under a house trailer.

Detecting an allergy is not even a simple matter, for the physician, and self-diagnosis is likely to result in error. Fortunately, the family physician or the allergist has at his disposal the means for determining whether or not an allergy is present, the substances responsible for the allergy, and effective means for relief or curing the condition. Early treatment for allergies is important because of the danger of development of more severe types of allergic reactions.

BYC Swim Reign Ends

The Michigan Inter-Club Swimming Association's 1976 summer season ended Sunday, August 1. The Detroit Yacht Club's three-year reign as champions ended when Plum Hollow topped BYC, 572-516.

Over 2,000 persons saw the meet, which was held at Plum Hollow.

LICENSES APPROVED

The Woods Council unanimously approved the issuance of parking lot licenses to 11 different locations including Saint Michael's Church, the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Watkins Harding Co., Lochmoor Club and Harmony House at its regular meeting Monday, August 2.

Bringing home awards for the BYC in relays were Denise DeSantis and Sara Brieden in the 200 free relay and Toby and Todd Lindheim, with Ken Bacilius, in the boys 200 free relay.

Others placing in various relays were Laurie DeSantis and Michelle Quinn, Nick Trost, Pat and Jerry Coyle and Jack Nelson.

Placing in individual events were Denise DeSantis, Hans Brieden, Sara Brieden, Jerry Coyle, Lauri DeSantis, Sandy Fires, Ken Bacilius, Todd Lindheim, Gerri Nichols, Nick Trost, Jack Nelson and Toby Lindheim.

The BYC now has six weeks off before resuming workouts in preparation for the winter AAU season.

Oral Histories Provide Personal Touch to Area

By Susan McDonald

The lives of longtime Pointers Lillian M. Tessmar, Natalie Post, Emily Ghesquiere and Edward Treanor span the decades that saw the transformation of this area from swampy, snake-infested farm land to the crowded suburb it is today.

They speak with equal ease about the Grosse Pointe of the 1890's and that of the 1970's and their stories provide a fascinating, personal view of the events of those years.

At least the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library think so.

That is why, in order to catch those last, real life glimpses of the age of hardy farmers, square dances and wagon rides on tape, they have started Grosse Pointe's own oral history with a $1,000 donation.

Although much of the first donation went to buy tapes and recorders, there are now three, hour-long tapes in the collection stored at the Central Library audio-visual room in Kercheval avenue.

Hopefully, it is just a beginning.

"There is just so much we're missing by letting these people go by, so much that is never recorded in history books," project director Helen Leonard explains.

"I'm trying to interview people with expertise in certain areas, or just longtime residents. Their recollections are filling in the gaps in what we know about the Pointe, from major events to the most commonplace aspects of their lifestyle," Mrs. Leonard said.

Their stories are fascinating. They include tales from the days when "every woman carried a stick around with her to fend off the 'milk-snakes,'" to numerous spooky ghost stories which rose no doubt with the marsh gas common to the area.

They were days of "ruining for fever and castor oil for everything else," Mrs. Post tells us, when "the whole neighborhood would go up in arms when a vaudeville show came to town — the girls' skirts going up!"

Mrs. Leonard conducts the interviews very informally. Instead of urging her subjects to struggle remembering names, she lets them sit back and recollect about keeping house and the old Irish schoolteacher they had in sixth grade, letting the feeling of those hard working days come through.

Library Director William Peters is hoping for a doctoral or masters candidate to come along who will organize and transcribe the tapes, so they will be of more academic value.

Even now, though, they are of unquestioned value to the local history buff or the curious Pointer seeking a real life glimpse at The Pointe's past.

Fishing Rodeo Tops in Park

The weather was bad, but the fishing was good, as 110 young Park residents took part in the annual Park Fishing Rodeo on Saturday, July 10.

A record breaking 71 fish were caught off the Windmill Pointe Park by eager and excited anglers. Prizes were given for the first and last fish caught, along with the smallest, largest and greatest number landed.

A drawing also was held for six grand prizes and 100 smaller prizes.

The first fish caught was a rock bass, hooked less than five minutes after the contest started by Doug Turnbull.

Chris Cohut caught the last fish, a half pound small-mouth bass.

Jeff Thomas and Mike Gusweiler both caught the most fish, six each, for the boys, while Sharon O'Keefe topped the girls division with three finny trophies.

The smallest fish caught was a four-inch rock bass, hooked by Joe Angott.

Girls dominated the big fish category with Patty Ellen O'Grady, Becky Ambell and Amy Scanelkel taking the top three prizes.

Patty won the top prize with a three and a half pound sheepshead.

The grand prize winners were Tom Ellis, Mike Nicholas, Tina Lamb, Paul Burgoyne, Robert Duensing and Pat Hollerbach.

In addition to free hot dogs and soft drinks, no contestant went home without a prize in his hand or a smile on his face.

What Goes On at Your Library

In the waning years of the 19th century a new age dawned—the age of the automobile.

At the turn of this century a mere 8,000 crude motorcars were chugging over dirt roads and cobblestone streets in the United States. Today, some 100 million motor vehicles of all types are in use, traveling a trillion miles a year on four million miles of roads and streets and super highways.

The family car has become an American institution. Four-fifths of American families now own cars on which they depend for going to and from work, shopping and for recreation.

The story of the growth and development of the automobile industry is an interesting one. This week I would like to report on some of the newer books we have added to our collection that deal with the auto and its industry.

In BILLY DURANT: CREATOR OF GENERAL MOTORS, (Eerdmans), author Lawrence R. Gustin tells of one of the early giants of the automotive industry. Yet except for car buffs and business historians, few people today would recognize the name of William Crapo Durant.

Of all those colorful and inventive men who led this country into the age of the automobile, Durant was probably the most flamboyant; and in terms of organizational ability and accomplishment, he also was perhaps the most important.

George S. May's A MOST UNIQUE MACHINE, (Eerdmans), is a fine account of the Michigan origins of the automobile industry. By bringing together a wealth of fascinating information from diverse sources, Mr. May has produced a most readable book that answers the question, "What combination of factors accounts for the convulsive growth of a new industry in a state whose economy was largely a balance of farming, lumbering, and mining?"

A totally different view of the automobile industry will be found in James J. Flink's THE CAR CULTURE, (MIT Press). This is a social history of the American automobile for as Professor Flink states, "The automobile has had a greater impact on the lives of 20th century Americans than the frontier had on our 19th century forebears." He recounts the growth of the American automobile industry and discusses its complex effect on our society today.

A somewhat older book, (published in 1965), but one that gives the reader an excellent history of the motorcar is THE AMERICAN AUTOMOBILE, (University of Chicago Press), by John B. Rae.

From the early days of the Duryea Brothers to the mid-1960's when the 200 millionth auto was produced, author Rae tells of the development of the industry that has played so vital a part in the shaping of contemporary life.

These next two books are both volumes that deal with problems in the automotive industry. The first is PARADISE LOST: THE DECLINE OF THE AUTO - INDUSTRIAL AGE, (Random House), by Emma Rothschild.

In this book Ms. Rothschild analyzes the auto industry's financial problems, its problems with consumers, with the 50-year-old technology of automobile mass production, and with social attacks on the automobile as a waster of energy and destroyer of cities.

Author John Jerome has submitted his book THE DEATH OF THE AUTOMOBILE, (Norton), "The Fatal Effect of the Golden Era, 1955-1970." Here Mr. Jerome totals up the costs of today's automobile, from highway taxes and repair bills to pollution and social problems, and concludes that it isn't worth the price.

Unless Detroit can adapt says Mr. Jerome, "the same public demand that created the automobile industry will lead to its demise."

Of this group of books my personal favorite is AUTOMOBILES OF AMERICA, (Wayne State University Press), by the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association.

This fine handbook of American automotive history is crammed with information on the automobile, its development, the men behind it and the industry they started.

Included here are photographs, biographical vignettes of the pioneers and other principal auto makers, names of every car ever manufactured in the U.S. and a wealth of other fascinating data about automobiles and their use.

Woods Views Group Permits

The Woods Citizens Recreation Commission discussed group permit applications and the criteria used to allow groups to enter and use the Lake Front Park facilities at its regular meeting last month.

A motion that the commission recommended to the council, that the continued use of the present method and form, and that any exceptions to the use of this system remain the full prerogative of the council, was unanimously approved.

The council acknowledged this recommendation at its regular meeting Monday, August 2.

Ruth All-Stars Win State Championship

The Babe Ruth League All-Stars from The City-Farms won the State Championship for 13-year-olds Thursday, August 5, at Belleville by defeating Birmingham, 3-2. In advancing to the State Championship, the team put together a 7-0 record.

Their other wins included a 20-4 victory over The Park, 5-3 over L'Anse Creuse, 3-2 over The Woods, 7-0 over Niles, 5-1 over Westland and 8-2 over Birmingham.

The winning pitchers were

Gridder Views Grand Valley

South High School graduate Peter Boll has signed a letter of intent to play football with Grand Valley State College, Allendale, Mich., according to Don Thomas, sports information director.

Peter, a 6'2", 195 pound tailback, earned four varsity letters in football and track, and holds the South High School record in the discus besides clocking a 10.2 in the 100-yard dash.

He is the son of John and Mary Ann Boll, of Devonshire road.

John Cammett with three wins, John Heidt with two, Glen Piche with one and Mike McBrearty with one.

The Grosse Pointe team received a tremendous lift with solid defensive play throughout the tournament as only three errors were made in the seven games.

This championship was the first for a Grosse Pointe team in baseball and tournament director, Jim Watkins, was extremely pleased with the sportsmanship and fair play that the boys displayed.

The team will now travel to Anderson, Ind., for the Ohio-Valley Regional Tournament which is a two-game elimination. Grosse Pointe will play the Kentucky winner Saturday, August 14, in their first game. The tournament will continue through Thursday, August 19, and includes teams from Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois and Tennessee, plus Michigan.

The Babe Ruth League requests that persons or merchants interested in supporting part of the cost of the trip could send donations to the Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, P. O. Box 6889, Grosse Pointe 48236.

It's estimated that the trip will cost $1,000.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry Valente

Most of the fundamental processes of jewelry making were known and used in early times: carving, engraving, chasing, chiseling, repousse, hammering, drawing wire, finishing, polishing, and casting. Today, however, even more than technique the expressiveness and symbolism of primitive art is what gives modern artists a new point of departure in the development of modern jewelry that is not only beautiful, but meaningful as well.

Some of the art objects and antique jewelry we have on display at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800, dates back to the 14th and 15th century. We invite you to bring in antique jewelry and estate jewelry and leave it with us on consignment. There is no cost for this service. We will also appraise your antique jewelry. VALENTE JEWELRY is open from 9 'til 5:30 daily.

Add to the list of local authors C. Robert Beltz, Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beltz, of Lakeland avenue, whose novel "L" has just been published.

Bob, raised in Grosse Pointe, is a trial lawyer in Flint now. He hammered out "L" in five months in 1973, working on the love story as an escape from demands of the legal profession, using the subplot to vent some of his personal feelings about life in the turbulent 60's.

He'd thought about writing a novel for a long time... "but I didn't know if I could ever develop the discipline to attempt it."

"On my 35th birthday, I resolved that if I didn't begin to write, I never would."

Two weeks later he started "L," writing on Fridays instead of practicing law. He soon found he was writing over the entire weekend—and spending the other four nights editing the book.

Sharon Beltz helped her husband edit the 304-page hardcover novel.

He knew a bit about what he was getting into: (Continued on Page 15)

Polish Art Friends Enjoy Interlochen

Mrs. John Zukowski, of Whittier Road, is Co-Chairman of Weekend Event; Many Painters Travel North for Programs

Enjoying a recent Interlochen Weekend of music, art and activity were a group of Detroit's Friends of Polish Art, who traveled north via bus, arriving at the quiet campus late Friday night to be greeted by Irene Olejniczak Moran, of Prestwick road, whose welcome included the traditional Polish gesture of offering flowers.

Mrs. Moran, a Friend of Polish Art and of Interlochen, acted as the weekend's hostess.

The busload included Dr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Chrypinski, of Trombley road, (Mrs. Chrypinski is president of the Friends of Polish Art), and their houseguest for the past year Basia Czachorska.

Miss Czachorska, who earned her Masters degree in Law at Wayne State University, studying on scholarship, returned to Warsaw, Poland, last Sunday, August 8.

Among other "bussers" were Mrs. Roman V. Ceglowski, of Woods lane, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kapsa, of Norwood drive, Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Gugala and their seven-year-old daughter Anita, of Littlestone road, the Henry C. Pytells, of Lothrop road, and Dr. and Mrs. John Zukowski, of Whittier road.

Mrs. Zukowski served as co-chairman of the event, with Edward S. Okuniewski, of Madison Heights.

A "przekaska" (snack) awaited the travelers upon their arrival at Housing Unit Five, their quarters for the weekend. Saturday's activities began after breakfast with a walking tour of the campus, ending at log cabin C-10 Hall for a 10 o'clock recital by pianist Andrzej Dutkiewicz, of Warsaw.

For many, it was a chance to renew acquaintance with Dr. Dutkiewicz, who made his local debut in 1974 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, under sponsorship of the Friends of Polish Art.

Andrzej Dutkiewicz, graduated from the State Higher School of Music in Warsaw where he studied piano under Regina Smedzianka and composition under Witold Rudzinski, came to America on a Fulbright Fellowship in 1973-74. He had concertized extensively throughout Europe and Cuba.

He pursued further studies in piano and composition at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N.Y., was awarded a grant from the Kosciuszko Foundation, performed in Washington, D.C., Ohio and New York and was invited to join the National Music Camp teaching facility in the summer of '74.

He returned for a year to his post of assistant professor at the Warsaw Conservatory, toured in South America and the Soviet Union, then returned to Eastman, earning his Doctor of Musical Arts degree this year.

He leaves again for Poland in September. (Continued on Page 14)

Gignac-Jennings Vows Exchanged

Newlyweds Vacation on West Coast, Traveling from San Francisco to British Columbia; Are at Home in Clinton Township

Mary Lou Jennings and Dr. Thomas Abbey Gignac exchanged marriage vows Saturday, June 26, in Iroquois Avenue Christ Lutheran Church. A reception in the Georgian Inn's ballroom followed the afternoon rites, at which Pastor A. Lorenz Grumm presided.

The bride, daughter of former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Phillip H. Jennings, who now reside in Harbor Springs, wore a gown designed and made by her maid of honor.

Fashioned of creme de satin in a modified A-line style, it featured a tucked bodice. The small, standing collar and long, full sleeves were of embroidered organza.

The former Miss Jennings carried a nosegay of dried flowers in the same pale beige and white tones as the embroidery. The small band in her hair was fashioned of matching flowers and, during the ceremony, she wore her maternal great-grandmother's engagement ring.

Her attendants were maid

Miss Stainsby to Say Vows

Mr. and Mrs. G. Dent Stainsby, of North Vancouver, B.C., formerly of McKinley Avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Anne, to James Robert Young, son of Mrs. Edna Young, of Paw Paw, and the late Wesley Young.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé were graduated in May from the University of Michigan, she with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing, he with a degree in Law.

After a mid-September wedding in North Vancouver, they plan to make their home in Washington, D.C.

Their long, Empire frocks of floral chiffon with yellow, green and blue predominating were styled with square necklines and long sleeves. They carried small copper baskets filled with dried flowers complementing the colors in their gowns, and pinned bands of matching flowers in their hair.

Wilfred L. Gignac, Jr., came from Georgetown, O., to serve as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mrs. Wilfred L. Gignac, of Country Club drive, and the late Mr. Gignac.

Ushers were Thomas Liebold and Dr. Robert Savin.

Mrs. Jennings selected a floor length, long-sleeved, mint green shirtdress for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length gown of sky blue crepe, styled with long, blue sheer sleeves.

Both mothers' corsages were white moth orchids.

The new Mrs. Gignac, a Denison University graduate, is a teacher in the Utica Community Schools.

The bridegroom, who received his Doctor of Medicine degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine, is currently working on a fellowship in Cardiovascular Disease at Saint John Hospital.

After a wedding trip to San Francisco, from where they travelled by motor and boat up the West Coast to Victoria and Vancouver, B.C., the newlyweds have returned to their home in Clinton Township.

ALAN SCOTT MEYERS, of Blairmore court, has received a Master of Engineering degree in Electrical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Gignac

Race Day Aids Sisters of Poor

The Saint Joseph Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor is sponsoring a Day at the Races Saturday, September 25, starting at 11:30 o'clock at the Detroit Race Course.

Proceeds from the benefit will help the Sisters meet the debt incurred as a result of renovation of their Home in Detroit, where Auxiliary volunteers have assisted for years, driving residents to and from doctors and shopping centers and helping in the kitchen and laundry.

Renovation was necessary in order to bring the Home up to the highest standards of residential care.

A minimum tax-exempt donation of $15 per person is requested, covering admission to the race course, cocktails and a buffet dinner. Prizes will be featured.

Accepting reservations, (checks should be made payable to Saint Joseph Auxiliary), through Wednesday, August 25, are Mr. and Mrs. William Gough, 1040 Devonshire road, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan 48230.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Gough at 885-0126, or Mrs. Francis Crowley, of Pemberton road, Auxiliary president, at 822-8522.

Double Wedding Celebrated July 31

Katherine Jeanne Sewell Becomes Bride of Richard Lloyd Paulson; Guy William Sewell, Jr., and Alice Collioud Exchange Vows

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting for the double wedding ceremony Saturday, July 31, at which Guy William Sewell, Jr., claimed Alice Collioud as his bride, and Katherine Jeanne Sewell was married to Richard Lloyd Paulson.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy W. Sewell, of DePetris way, are the parents of Katherine and Guy, Jr.

The former Miss Collioud is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Collioud, who recently moved from Moran road to Troy.

Mr. Paulson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Paulson, of Rockford.

The Reverend David Antonson presided at the rites uniting Katherine and Richard Paulson. Monsignor Francis Canfield officiated at the marriage of Alice and Guy Sewell, Jr.

The 5:30 o'clock service was followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, after which both pairs of newlyweds left to vacation in northern Michigan.

The Paulsons will be making their home in Albany, N.Y. The Guy Sewell, Jr., will reside in Troy.

For her marriage, the former Miss Sewell chose a gown of white organza and heavy Venise lace, cap-sleeved, band-necked and Empire-waisted, featuring a sheer net yoke. Her long veil, trimmed with scattered daisy appliques, fell from a matching headpiece.

She carried a cascade of white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy, centered with an orchid.

The former Miss Sewell's silk-faced organza gown was also cap-sleeved, styled with a gently-gathered scoop neck and a bodice and hem outlined with Venise lace flowers. Her chapel length mantilla, falling from a domed Juliet cap, was outlined in matching lace flowers. She, too, carried a cascade of white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy, with an orchid center.

Michele Collioud, honor maid for her sister, and Anne Sewell (Mrs. Thomas) Mertz, her sister's honor matron, wore floor length, white on white eyelet sun-dresses with matching bolero jackets, ruffled at their high necks, hems and cuffs.

Their headpieces were floral wreaths, their bouquets fashioned of yellow daisies and greens.

Alice's bridesmaids, dressed identically in white eyelet over yellow, were Cheryl Cosgray Bowman, of Grand Rapids, and two other sisters, Yvonne Collioud Sisko, of Matawan, N.J., and Dodee Collioud Giroux, of Succasanna, N.J.

Katherine's bridesmaids, in white eyelet over green, were Barbara Lang and Candi Royer. Mr. Paulson asked his brother, Howard Paulson, to act as best man, and Thomas Mertz and Ed Paulson, another brother, to usher.

John M. McLaughlin, Jr., acted as best man for his cousin, Mr. Sewell, who asked Daniel and William Miller, two other cousins, and George Sisko to usher.

Mrs. Collioud chose a long-sleeved, long-skirted ecru eyelet shirtwaist for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Paulson selected beige chiffon, also floor length and long-sleeved.

Mrs. Sewell wore a beige boucle knit, long-sleeved and long-skirted. Each mother wore a beige orchid corsage.

DBE Arranges Special Exhibit

The Bicentennial Year exhibition stressing the ties between England and America, on view through next Monday, August 16, in the Hall of Nations at the International Institute in East Kirby street, Detroit, is the work of the Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan.

The committee responsible for the show includes Mrs. Austin Wheatley, of Hawthorne road, Mrs. Brandon Rogers, of Moran road, Miss Dora Bowlby, of Cadieux road, Mrs. Arthur Drummond, of Norwood drive, and Mrs. William Koonz, of Mount Vernon road.

More committee members are the Mesdames Maurice Carradus, William Appleyard, Gerald Coker, Gordon Fox, June MacKenzie, Betty Silk, V. V. Plastow, Henry Heatley and Al Montbriand.

The exhibit is designed to spotlight the simple things of simple people as well as great historical achievements, therefore the Concepts of Justice, the Inviolable Rights of Man from the Magna Charta to the Bill of Rights are portrayed next to such "Embellishments of Life" as an Irish linen tablecloth embroidered by an 81-year-old man and silver, pewter china and glassware brought over and treasured by generations of English, Irish, Scottish and Welsh immigrants.

All these heirlooms were donated by members of DBE Chapters in the Detroit area.

The Concorde SST, capable of crossing the Atlantic in four hours, is coupled with the frail Susan Constant, the boat that brought the first American settlers across the sea to Jamestown, Va.

Contributions from Canada, New Zealand and Australia also are featured.

The DBE, a nationwide organization, has as its two main aims financial support of four Homes for the Aging of any nationality located throughout the United States, (the Midwest Home is in Brookfield, Ill.), and the promotion of Anglo-American friendship.

Set Christian Business Women's August Dinner
The Detroit East Side Council of Christian Business and Professional Women will hold its monthly dinner program next Tuesday, August 17, at 8:30 o'clock at the Thomas Manor in East Detroit.

Anita Fenton will present a demonstration of Country Carvings, and Johnny Hall, singer, composer and recording artist, will perform.

Theme of the evening is "A Touch of Hawaii." Further information and reservations, (the program is open to everyone as is the dinner, but by reservation only), may be obtained by calling Joanne Himmer, 771-0035, or Lucille Dew, 527-0212.

Eleanor Takes Up The Torch

Pointer Eleanor Durno has accepted a top volunteer post in the United Foundation's 1976 Torch Drive. She will lead over 10,000 volunteers as chairman for the Northeast Unit, one of three in the Torch Drive's residential campaign.

The Northeast Unit includes all of Macomb County plus Wayne County communities east of Woodward avenue: Hamtramck, Harper Woods and all Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Durno, an area leader in the 1975 Torch Drive, will direct the recruitment and training of section, region, division, area and neighborhood volunteers within the unit. She has been active in Torch Drive residential campaigns since 1962, and is a board member of the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic, a Torch Drive Agency.

Last year's tri-county residential campaign raised nearly $800,000 in the Torch Drive solicitation area, which includes approximately 1,250,000 single residences, apartments and condominiums in 113 communities.

This year's Torch Drive runs from October 12 through November 4 to raise operating funds for nearly 140 health and community service agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

In Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday, August 7, MELISSA PERRY SPEER, daughter of the Richard Allan Speers, of Moran road, was married to Mr. Tille, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Tille, of Findlay, O.

Tille-Speer Vows Spoken August 7

Westerville, O., Will Be Newlyweds' Home When They Return from Vacation at Jackson Hole, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allan Speer entertained at a reception in their Moran road home following the wedding of their daughter, Melissa Perry Speer, and Stephen Raymond Tille in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Officiating at the 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday, August 7, were Dr. Ray Kiely and Father James Cronk.

The newlyweds, vacationing at Jackson Hole, Wyo., will return to make their home in Westerville, O.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of candlelight Chantilly lace, styled with a scalloped neckline and long, slender sleeves. Her panel skirt formed a round, scalloped train, over silk net.

A Juliet cap of matching lace held her cathedral length, illusion net veil, and she carried a cascade of Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Suzanne Speer, honor maid for her sister, fashioned the attendants' floor length frocks of yellow and white gingham, sleeveless, styled with fitted bodices and self-sashed in back.

A daisy lace-trimmed ruffle accented their wide A-line skirts, repeating the ruffle motif at their scoop necklines. Yellow and white daisies and ivy formed their cascade bouquets.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael McConnell, of Toledo, sister of the bridegroom, Emily Speer, another sister of the bride, Sue Peterson and Lynn Lindsay.

Mr. Tille, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Tille, of Findlay, O., asked Robert Michelotti to act as best man. Guests were seated by Mr. McConnell, Richard Speer, brother of the bride, Mark Brooks and Eric Chaitlain.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of aqua and blue floral-printed semi-sheer cotton, pleated ruffles accenting its V-neck and long sleeves, featuring an obi sash. Her corsage was a small, white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother selected a street length shirtwaist, in blue silk, and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, of Tonnancour place, and Mrs. A. A. Entman, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Raymond Tille, Sr., and Mrs. Frank A. Jones, both of Findlay.

Also coming from Findlay for the ceremony was Judy Tille, the bridegroom's sister. The bride's great-aunt, Miss Camilla Johnson, came from Rockford, Ill., her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, Jr., with Cam, Molly, Gail and Bayard, from Pittsburg, O.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Tille, of Defiance, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMahon, of Mount Vernon, O.

Special guests included the

Preceding Dr. Dutkiewicz' program, which included two polonaises by Oginski-Moniuszko and a Frederic Chopin group, (for an encore, he played his own Suite for Piano), Roger E. Jacobi, president of Interlochen Center for the Arts, greeted the visiting Friends of Polish Art and gave a short talk on Interlochen.

Mrs. Chrypinski extended thanks to the artist on behalf of the Friends of Polish Art.

Post-lunch activities provided free time to visit classes or rehearsals, go swimming, view exhibits, libraries, et al., or rest, as well as an Art Lecture by Michigan State Senator Jack Faxon, emphasizing the importance of recognizing and developing young talent, and a rehearsal of the performance given that evening by Doc Severinsen. Dinner in Stone Student Center, where all meals were served, was followed by a 7 o'clock program featuring the High School Concert Orchestra, conducted by Or- cenith Smith, in the outdoor Interlochen Bowl, and Doc Severinsen's appearance with the High School Symphonic Band, under Arthur Katterjohn's baton, in Kresge Auditorium.

Sunday morning's offering was the traditional Interlochen Service in Kresge Auditorium, with The Reverend Kenneth D. Harvey, of Belfast, Ireland, as guest speaker. The musical portion of the program included Juliusz Lukiuk's Passacaglia, played by Dr. Dutkiewicz.

The weekend visit closed with the World Youth Symphony Orchestra broadcast in Corson Auditorium of the Grand Traverse Performing Arts Center, a recent addition to the campus. Dr. George C. Wilson, Camp director, conducting.

Then it was back aboard the bus, for the trip south, at 3 o'clock.

Friends of Polish Art is an educational and social organization which acts as a medium to promote understanding and appreciation of the arts of Poland, its people and their descendants.

The Interlochen Center for the Arts is a year-round operation. This summer's 1,426 full-time campers represent 19 foreign countries, 45 states, three United States territories and possessions and the District of Columbia.

Camp closes August 23. The Interlochen Arts Academy opens September 21. John R. Hood is Academy director.

The Center is a non-profit institution, supported entirely by tuition and gifts.

China Source For Hibiscus

The hibiscus, (Hibiscus rosa-sinensis), is a tender, tropical evergreen shrub that originated in China. Its Latin name means "rose of China."

According to horticulturists at Michigan State University, the hibiscus is almost ever-blooming when grown properly.

Pot in a soil made of equal parts loam, sand and peat, and water whenever the soil surface starts to dry to keep roots evenly moist. Be sure the container provides for good drainage.

Sunlight and high humidity are necessary for flower production. If the plant is too dry, flower buds will drop off.

Hibiscus flowers look much like hollyhock blossoms. They may be single or double, yellow, salmon pink or red. Each blossom usually remains open only for a day.

Propagation is by rooting four-inch stem tip cuttings.

Miss Russell Wed To Bruce P. Benson

Bride's White Organdy Gown Is Trimmed with Seed Pearl-Studded Lace; She Carries Pink Roses

The wedding of Lauren Marie Russell and Bruce Paul Benson Saturday, June 26, in Grosse Pointe Baptist Church was followed by a reception at Lochmoor Club, after which the couple left to vacation in New England.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell, of Greenbriar lane, selected a high-waisted, cape-sleeved gown of white organdy for the 4 o'clock rites.

Venetian lace trimmed her neck, sleeves and waist, and accented the flounce rimming her skirt hem and chapel train.

She wore a wide-brimmed, white organdy garden hat, trimmed with the seed pearl-studded lace, with a blusher veil and a long, lace-trimmed veil.

She carried a large bouquet of pink roses and baby's-breath.

Her attendants were in white pique sundresses, in flounces embroidered in yellow, pink and blue roses. Each wore a white straw hat, with a large silk rose at the side.

All carried white straw baskets filled with pink, yellow and blue carnations and daisies.

Gail Ann Russell was honor maid for her sister. Bridesmaids were Debi Ihrie, of Mount Clemens, Debra Knopf and Mariann Russell, cousins of the bride, Sandy DiMaso, Sally Cockey, of Baltimore, Md., and Beth Russell, junior attendant for her sister.

Douglas Benson came from Lake Mohawk, N.J., to act as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Olaf Benson, of Manahawkin, N.J. Ushering were David Madeira, of Grantham, Pa., Scott Barnes, of Littleton, Colo., George Thomson, of Bloomington, Ind., Bill Rosser, of Lexington, Ky., and Rich Russell, the bride's brother.

The mother of the bride wore pale blue chiffon, sleeveless and full-skirted, featuring a long, flowing sash in a darker blue shade and a triple-tiered chiffon bodice with a removable tier forming a cape. She pinned coral roses and baby's-breath to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected yellow chiffon, long-sleeved and styled with a scoop neck embroidered in sequins and pearls. Pink roses and baby's-breath formed her purse corsage. The newlyweds are at home in Carmel, Ind.

Set Dock Daze At Boat Club

The Detroit Boat Club Women's Committee, with the Mesdames Robert F. Hodge and Walter Drolet at the helm, has scheduled Dock Daze VIII, the annual summer luncheon party held aboard DBC boats, on next Wednesday, August 18.

Cocktails at 11:30 o'clock will be followed by 12:30 luncheon. Theme in this historical year will be America's Bicentennial.

Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison, in charge of decorations, has donated a prize needlepoint

Varied Theatre Fare for WSU

Fifteen plays representing five centuries of drama will be presented by Wayne State University at the Hilberry and Bonstelle Theatres during 1976-77, according to an announcement by Leonard Leone, director of the WSU Theatre.

This includes the Hilberry repertory of seven plays, the bag. Assisting with arrangements are the Mesdames Herbert Cook, John C. Cook, Daniel M. Adams, Sheldon L. Drennan, Edward Harrigan, William J. Oldani, Marie Skaff, William H. Miller, Jr., and Clifford J. Sullivan.

Bonstelle series of six, and two "firsts" — the debut of a new Black Theatre Touring Company and the first annual Blakely scholarship benefit.

The combined seasons, playing from October to June, will draw from the classics, modern drama, commedia dell'arte, black theater, French farce, musicals and stage adaptations of narrative literature.

Shakespeare, Moliere, Goldoni, Turgeniev, Feydeau, Shaw, Melville, Rodgers and Hart, Orson Welles and more recent playwrights are represented.

Following revivals of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" and Moliere's "The Miser," held over from last year and re-opening October 8 and 15, the Hilberry Graduate Repertory Company will open its new season with "Journey of the Fifth Horse" by Ronald Ribman, adapted from Turgeniev's "Diary of a Superfluous Man."

It will be presented for Theatre Sponsors at the President's Preview November 12, and will open officially the following Wednesday, November 17, at 8:30 o'clock.

Other plays to be added to the repertory and their official opening dates are "The Lion in Winter" by James Goldman, December 15; Shakespeare's "Othello," February 2; Orson Welles' "Moby Dick — Rehearsed," an adaptation of Melville's novel, March 2; and G. B. Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," April 20.

Following the repertory season, the Theatre's new Black Theatre Touring Company will introduce its first production, "The Sty of the Blind Pig," at the Hilberry. Performances of the Phillip Hayes Dean play are scheduled for June 1 through 4. It will be available for tour bookings during 1977-78.

The Bonstelle Theatre series begins October 15 with "The First Breeze of Summer" by Leslie Lee.

This will be followed by Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," opening November 26; Rodgers and Hart's "Pal Joey," beginning February 4; Goldoni's "The Servant of Two Masters," March 11; "Five on the Black Hand Side" by Charlie L. Russell, April 22; and "Hotel Paradiso" by Georges Feydeau

Spring Bride

A May 7 wedding is being planned by PAMELA JO CHARGOT and Mark Brown, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chargot, of Hampton road.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, received her Bachelor of Science degree in June from Michigan State University, where she majored in Retailing of Clothing and Textiles and affiliated with Phi Gamma Nu sorority.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, of Saginaw Township, received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Marketing from Michigan State University in June, 1975.

and Maurice Desvallieres, May 27.

Bonstelle plays run for two weekends, the musical "Pal Joey" for three.

The Studio Theatre, downstairs at the Hilberry, is offering the Theatre's first annual scholarship benefit production, Lanford Wilson's off-Broadway success "Hot L Baltimore," October 21 through 23 and 28 through 30.

Proceeds will go to the Blakely Scholarship Fund, established this past season in memory of the late Professor Don Blakely, who was an assistant director of the WSU Theatre and director of its Bachelor of Fine Arts training program.

Brochures with complete play schedules and ticket information will be available in September and may be requested by calling 577-2972.

Ballet Nights For Festival

The Eliot Feld Ballet moves into Meadow Brook Music Festival this evening, Thursday, August 12, for a three-night stand, followed on Sunday, August 15, by Gordon MacRae and Joyce Hall in "An Evening with Rodgers and Hammerstein."

Ballet performances begin at 8:30 o'clock, the MacRae-Hall "Evening" at 7:30 in Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus.

Tickets and program information is available by calling 377-2010.

Historical Museum Busy on August Wednesdays

The last two Wonderful Wednesday evenings of free family entertainment at the Detroit Historical Museum will feature historic fun dances. Both watchers and participants, (all are invited to try), are welcome.

Early American Dances of the 16th and 17th centuries will be demonstrated by the Fort Lernout Militia next Wednesday, August 18. Traditional Polish songs and dances will be presented by Wisla during refreshment breaks, and dulcimers will be made and played by Stan Materna.

The following Wednesday, August 25, caller Doug McKinnon and his group will invite the audience to join in square dancing, and Stan Materna will be back with his dulcimers.

Good Old Summertime games will also be revived August 25, with all ages welwelcome to try jacks, hopscotch, marble, cat's cradle, paper origami, spool art, et al.

Other Wonderful Wednesday attractions range from silent movies to craft demonstrations. Every week, the 1840 Columbian Hand Press prints Wonderful Wednesday mementos.

Further information on Wonderful Wednesdays and the Historical Museum may be obtained by calling 833-1805.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

This is the time when Real Estate companies truly earn their salt. This is the time—that happens every so often, when there are a more than unusual amount of houses on the market. When an excess appears there just aren't enough buyers for all houses. The law of supply and demand tells you that something must give!

This is really a more normal market for Real Estate. For the past few years Brokers have looked longingly at the plush sales of our Grosse Pointe while they fought tooth and nail to sell their listings—and failed more often than not.

What this means to the Seller is that, more than ever, his choice of Company is critical. How much more than normal can they do for you should be the question!

The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, are studied experts. They have trained themselves to know about alterations and their costs. They have an on staff designer free to their clients. They know how to inspect a house so that it can be determined if it can qualify for a one year warranty. Their association with financing is on a personal basis with more than a dozen lending institutions. They know how to assist you, if you are moving out of town, with their fellow Associates in more than one thousand offices across the country. They know merchandising is extremely important and realize that exposure is the key to selling homes. They know and practice many tried and proven methods of creative selling. You can't sit in an office today waiting for that buyer!

One key to selling is Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s one year warranty. Which house would you rather buy for the same price—the one with or without a warranty?

Troutman-Steiger Vows Exchanged

Bride Wears English Lace; Her Attendants, in Apricot and Mint Green Swedish Gauze, Have Flowers in Their Hair

Janet Ann Steiger and Jim Ramon Troutman were married Saturday evening, August 7, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, where a reception followed the 6 o'clock ceremony. They will make their home in New Baltimore.

The former Miss Steiger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Steiger, of Blairmoor court. Mr. Troutman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Troutman, of Oxford road.

Mrs. Pishalski Serves Lambda Kappa Sigma

Mrs. William F. Pishalski, of Ridgmont Road, has been re-elected to serve as national honorary advisor of Lambda Kappa Sigma fraternity for women in Pharmacy, which recently held its 24th biennial convention on the University of Toledo campus.

Mrs. Pishalski held the office of grand secretary for eight years, of grand president for six years. She is the only national president in the fraternity's history elected to serve three terms.

Attending the bride, who wore English lace and a dorie flower ring, were Cynthia Henry, of Petoskey, Kathy Smith, Rita Layman, of Petersburg, Mich., and Shelly Filka, of Waterford. Off-white lace trimmed their frocks of apricot and mint green Swedish gauze. They wore flowers in their hair.

The bridegroom was attended by Richard Steiger, Patrick O'Brien, Tim Livingston and Randy Demers.

The mother of the bride chose a bead-accented aqua gown for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore blue eyelet.

Mrs. Jim R. Troutman

Setting for the wedding of JANET ANN STEIGER and Mr. Troutman, son of the Ramon Troutmans, of Oxford road, Saturday, August 7, was the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The bride is the daughter of the Herbert O. Steigers, of Blairmoor court.

Summer Orientation For WMU Freshmen

The second half of nearly 2,800 students who will be freshmen at Western Michigan University this fall have completed their summer orientation program, visiting the Kalamazoo campus, in groups of 160 to 180, to confer with faculty advisors, register for classes, take a series of tests and visit campus buildings.

Pointers in this second-half contingent included Tim Cota, Karen Hopp, David Nelson, Tecla Bartoszewicz, Cheryl Hamilton, Kathleen Hort, Cynthia Jevons, Constance LaQuere, Suzanne Tahnoose, Joyce Taylor,

Moira Brophy Will Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Brophy, former Washington road residents who now make their home in Bloomfield Hills, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Moira Noreen, to Terrance Allen Bakewell, son of the Gerald Bakewells, of Adrian.

Miss Brophy was graduated from Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and attended Siena Heights College in Adrian and Ryerson in Toronto. Her fiance, an Adrian High School alumnus, attended the University of Michigan.

An October 2 wedding is planned at Saint Hugo of the Hills, Bloomfield Hills.

MOT Seeking Opera Singers

Auditions for the upcoming Michigan Opera Theatre/Music Hall Center, 1976-77 season will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, August 24 and 25, from 3 to 6 and 7 to 9:30 o'clock at the Music Hall Center. Auditions are by appointment only.

Appointments may be made by calling 963-3717.

Needed are singers, (no dancers, children or supernumeraries), for principal roles, secondary roles and chorus in Michigan Opera Theatre productions of Puccini's "Madame Butterfly," November 5, 7, 10, 12, 13; Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta," January 14, 16, 19, 21, 22; and Mozart's "Magic Flute," February 11, 13, 16, 18, 19; and for the Music Hall production of "The Sound of Music," December 18 through 31.

All productions will be performed in English. An accompanist will be provided. No experience is necessary for chorus.

"Washington Square," the world premiere that opens MOT's season in October, has been completely cast.

PAUL F. KEPPLER, JR., of Hawthorne road, received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Capital University, Columbus, O., this May.

Cobo Cabaret Features Pops

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will offer three different musical evenings in Cobo Hall's Riverview Ballroom Tuesday through Thursday, August 17, 18 and 19, when DSO principal pops conductor Richard Hayman mounts the podium for "Cabaret at Cobo."

The Cabaret highlighting two promising young Detroit musicians is designed to raise funds for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's many youth concert series.

These programs were left without adequate support earlier this summer, when the DSO was omitted from the City of Detroit budget for the first time since the Orchestra was re-established in 1951.

The DSO hopes to recover some of that loss in presenting the late-summer Cabaret series.

DSO youth programs include Young People's Concerts, Educational Concerts, In-school Concerts and the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra—a total of some 60 concerts a year for almost 100,000 youngsters.

The young soloists to be featured during Cabaret at Cobo are both members of the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra.

Violinist Susan Synnestevedt will perform the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto Wednesday evening, August 18. Pianist Kenneth Kelter will play Mendelssohn's Piano Concerto No. 1 Thursday evening, August 19.

All three evenings' concerts have been designed by conductor Hayman to follow the time-honored pops format blending light classics, popular tunes and several "pops extras."

Susan Synnestevedt, 13 years old, began her violin studies at age four under Jeanne Rupert at the Detroit Community Music School. She has studied with Detroit Symphony violinist Roy Bengissoon since she was 10. Winner of many local auditions and competitions, Miss Synnestevedt is also a composer; in 1975 she won a National PTA Award for her "Heritage Theme and Variations" for solo violin.

Sixteen-year-old Kenneth Kelter is DSO Youth Orchestra pianist and studies with Maryan Abramson. A native of Birmingham, he is a student at Groves High School and hopes to attend the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia.

Besides the Grinnell Award he has won several other prizes, including the Schoolcraft College Award in 1975.

Tables seating four will help provide an intimate cabaret atmosphere at the concerts. Drinks and refreshments will be available for purchase.

Tickets at $24 and $20 per table, ($4 is tax deductible as a donation to DSO youth programs), are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Montgomery Ward ticket outlets.

Woods Receives Report on Edison Case

An interim report on the Detroit Edison rate case in which the company is seeking an additional $130.6 million in revenue was unanimously received and placed on file by The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, August 2.

Both The Woods and The Park have intervened in this case, along with many other organizations.

In his report, City Attorney George Catlin said the necessary petition to intervene has been filed and the city has been allowed the status of an intervening party to the proceedings.

If the request is granted by the Michigan Public Service Commission, the increase would result in boosts of approximately 11 percent in the cost of municipal street lighting and similar, although slightly less, increases for residential customers," he said.

Edison also has requested an interim rate hike of approximately five percent of the $130.6 million. This bid will be acted upon several months before a decision can be made in the basic rate case, said Mr. Catlin.

"It is anticipated that no decision on the interim rate request will be made by the Michigan Public Service Commission before November 1976."

Other organizations and agencies which have intervened in the case include the Attorney General's Office, Wayne County, Michigan Agricultural Conference, Great Lakes Steel, UAW-CAP, Dundee Cement Co., General Motors Corp., Morton Salt Co., and the Michigan Energy Users Group.

WSU Graduates Many Pointers

Marjorie F. Voohees, of Hampton road, a grandmother with six children, was one of more than 4,000 students receiving degrees from Wayne.

She attended classes for 16 years at Macomb County Community College and Wayne to qualify for her Bachelor of Arts degree in liberal arts.

Among the 150 students receiving Juris Doctor degrees from the WSU law school were Pointers Vernon K. Ausherman, of Lakepointe avenue, Judith Ann Lane Collier, of Pemberton road, Patrick J. Szymanski, of Three Mile drive, and Linda Berns Wright, of Paget court.

Receiving a Master of Laws degrees was Barbara Czachorska, of Trombley road, Pieter H. van Horne, of Lincoln road, was awarded his Master of Laws in labor law.

Awarded Bachelors and Masters degrees at the ceremonies were Bonnie E. Awey, of Briarcliff drive, Barbara J. Bowers, of North Renaud road, Susan B. Bristol, of Moross road, Milan M. Bucko, of Bournemouth road, Glenn A. Cassens, of Belanger road, Coni M. Chamberlain, of Oxford road, Thomas J. Chapman, of Vernier road, and James D. Cnockaert, of Aline drive.

More are Eugene J. and Kathleen G. Cestello, both of Moran road, John D. DeLora, of Brys drive, Gary M. Denolf, of North Rosedale court, Basil J. Doyle, of Ida lane, Thomas J. Duross, of McKinley road, Leslie J. Fouchey, of Avon court, Marcia Geibel, of Hawthorne road, and Stanley A. Giza, of Allard avenue.

Others receiving BS or MA degrees were Robert D. Goll, of Vernier road, Linda J. Janutol, of Fairway drive, Linda D. Jurges, of Mount Vernon road, Colleen A. Kennedy, of Kenmore drive, Jane M. Kent, of South Oxford road, Ellen C. Kirchner, of McKinley road, and Anna B. Kondak, of Hawthorne road.

More are Duane E. Kreutzans, of Aline drive, Henry M. Marchand, of Anita avenue, Leslie K. Mullen, of Kenwood court, Stuart W. Omans, of McKinley road, Pamela K. Patton, of Stanhope avenue, and Joanne Rudolph, of South Maple lane.

Still more are Ralph D. Scrivo, of Touraine road, Nancy A. Stearns, of Littlestone road, Marie E. Szymanski, of West William court, Lorelie A. Tuscany, of Chalfont avenue, Susan L. Trentacosta, of Fairway avenue, Susan C. Turner, of Norton court, Herta Van Hee, of Peach Tree lane, and Barbara K. White, of Fair court.

Proposed water main improvements at various locations in The Woods are on the immediate horizon as the council unanimously authorized the city engineer to complete final plans and specifications for the estimated $133,000 project.

This action, based upon the recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, was taken at the regular meeting Monday, August 2. The motion also stipulated that the city engineer advertise for bids on the job.

City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher said some of the mains at various locations within the city are old and are breaking, and replacements are needed.

As planned, bids are scheduled to be awarded later this month by the council with work scheduled for completion before winter, he said.

The project includes five areas in the city:

- * Oxford road, Mack avenue to east of Holiday road, estimated cost, $75,000
- * Cook road, Mack to Holiday, estimated cost, $35,000.
- * Hawthorne road at the Old Milk River bridge, estimated cost, $8,600.
- * Jackson avenue, Oxford to Kenmore avenue, estimated cost, $9,900.
- * Hawthorne, west of Helen avenue to the Old Girard Drain, estimated cost, $4,500.

The following Reports were received by the Council and ordered placed on file:

A. Fire Department Report for the month of June, 1976.

B. The Summary portion of the Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division's Report for the month of June, 1976.

A petition was received from the residents of the Mack-Calvin Avenues area, expressing their interest and concern regarding the parking lot to be constructed in such area.

The Council scheduled a Public Hearing to be held at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, August 16, 1976, for the purpose of considering a Sidewalk Special Assessment.

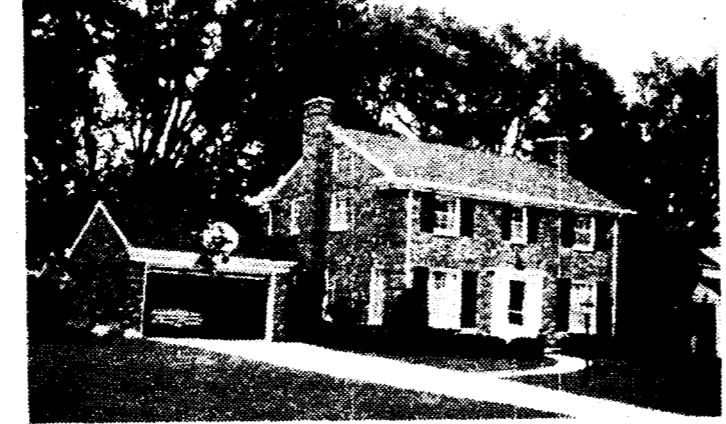

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

FIRST OFFERING

We don't get houses like this too often! Three bedrooms, living room, with fireplace and paneled bookshelves. Beautiful family room—looks like a million dollars. Entire house is neat as a pin and tastefully decorated. Priced in low, low fifties. One year warranty included.

FIRST OFFERING

The master bedroom with its sitting area is unusually comfortable and large. Three bedrooms in all. A lovely "year round porch" plus a paneled recreation room give you all the extras you could desire. Near all transportation and schools—priced in mid 40's, one year warranty included.

FIRST OFFERING

A most wonderful home. Four bedroom, 2 baths. Lovely family room with multi levels. Extra large kitchen carpeted with eating area—semi country kitchen. Paneled rec. room with fireplace. House is so meticulous you are won over immediately. Three car garage. Rear yard with stockade fence makes for very private grounds. A must see—this one. Peace of mind also because you have our one year warranty.

FIRST OFFERING

Retirement home in Algonac. Excellent condition. Shop in garage, extra space in house, low maintenance and high quality workmanship throughout. Immediate occupancy. Complete details and photographs available. Very unusual and cute.

UNUSUALLY NICE 2 FAM. FLAT

Gone—almost are the days when you can get a lot for a little. Here's a chance to get this beautiful English flat with yesterday's huge room sizes at a price just about a third its duplication cost. Lower flat has three bedrooms, family room, 2 baths and a huge living room and formal dining room. Upstairs flat is the same plus two added bedrooms and a bath on third floor. A great investment and a wonderful home to live in! Won't last long!

FOUR BEDROOM QUAD!

Lovely newer home on Canterbury in excellent move-in condition and early occupancy. Some 2,500 square feet of living space in this unusual four-level quality home. Neither the graceful decor nor the expansiveness can be fully appreciated from the outside. See it Sunday, open 2 to 5, and make an offer.

BIG HOUSE, LOW PRICE

And plush living for a family who needs space and four bedrooms. Recreation room in basement. Oh yes, there's other things like a den, breakfast nook, extra large porch. Priced realistically in fifties. One year warranty.

EXCEPTIONAL

Words can't describe the entire picture. Cul-de-sac for a starter makes it peacefully elegant. Master bedroom suite with attached bath and vanity dressing room. Paneled library. Family room with rustic fireplace and grill. Informal dining area as well as delicate formal dining room. Formal living room and fireplace overlooks trim patio. Attached, garage open, patio outside barbeque and grape arbor. Kitchen! Super!! and naturally it comes with a one year warranty.

INGRID HOFER, OF TONNANCOUR PLACE

By Janet Mueller

"I start with an abstract concept: a mood, feeling or color. When I start, as I am working, I stay very flexible. I see which way the painting will take me. Then I develop the painting by drawing on past visions. I work from memories of the things I have seen and experienced."

Often, she picks up one of her own sketches, using it as a basis for her watercolor interpretation of mood, feeling or color. She carries a sketchbook constantly. She does not work from photographs, preferring the reality she brings to an object or a scene.

Yet her paintings are realistic. A tree by Hofer is a tree, a flower a flower.

But it's always Hofer's tree, and Hofer's flower.

Max and Morris

Ingrid Hofer works at home, in her second floor studio, with a pair of Yorkshire terriers, Max, ("the big one"), and Morris to keep her company. They're brothers, from the same litter, and had never been separated when Ingrid and her husband, Peter, went out to look at them.

The Hofers had intended to get a dog. One dog. But Max and Morris were so obviously a temperamentally-matched set...

Ingrid and Peter Hofer moved to the Pointe three years ago, from New Jersey, when Peter, after 19 years with Union Carbide, took a new job. He's vice-president, technical director of Composite Technology Corporation of Bloomfield Hills.

They have a son, Mark, who holds a Bachelors degree in Microbiology and is working towards his Masters in Biomedical Engineering, and a daughter, Connie, who will be married in August.

This is the first midwestern living experience for both Ingrid and Peter. She is a born Easterner (New York City), who traveled with her mother and father on a visit to Germany just before World War II. The war broke out, and Ingrid and her parents were stuck.

Lived in Berlin

They lived in Berlin, American citizens in a country at war with America, all through the war. Eventually they got home, but not before Ingrid, combining her fashion design and illustration studies at the Meisterschule fuer Mode in Hamburg, Germany, with Art History studies at the University of Hamburg, met Peter, a fellow University of Hamburg student.

They became engaged. Then Ingrid left for New York, to study at the Traphagen School of Fashion, and Peter went on the immigrant quota list for the States. Three years later, Peter was still on the immigrant quota list. Ingrid still in New York, something, obviously, had to happen and, since Peter couldn't come, Ingrid went back to Germany, "to see if I still liked him."

She did. They were married in Germany. Six months later, Peter's quota number came up, and he came to the United States. There'd never been any doubt in Ingrid's mind: she would be an artist, and she has been, a professional, since her first free lance fashion assignments in New York. She did work for the Seventh Avenue fashion houses. Her biggest account was Town and Country Shoes. Then the children came, and Ingrid's hands were full with things other than brushes and pencils for a while.

Focus Changes

Eventually, with Connie entering school full-time, there was time again for art... but Ingrid's focus had changed. The girl who had been mainly interested in fashion design and illustration was now a woman who wanted to do traditional painting.

She started taking classes. A graduate of both the Meisterschule and Traphagen, veteran of classes in Goettingen, Germany, as well as at the University of Hamburg, she has, in the past two decades, studied under Albert Bross, Jr., Pauline Lorentz, John R. Grabaich, Adolf Konrad and Nicholas Reale.

She considers personal contact, class experience invaluable. "You can learn from books," she says, "but it takes you so much longer. An artist can show you things." She believes, too, that it's very important to study under several teachers: the more the better. "Each one gives you something different."

Ingrid Hofer remains a student. She is taking a course in Graphics this summer at the Center for Creative Studies-Coelege of Art and Design, (formerly Detroit Arts and Crafts).

"I was looking for a press," she explains. It's not the sort of thing you find hanging around the average house, but it IS the sort of thing you expect to find at the Center for Creative Studies, and sure enough: the Center had one.

Into Lithographs

So Ingrid signed up for a course that would give her access to a press. Now, for the first time, she is doing lithographs. She loves the, (for her), new medium. "I've found out that, with a little imagination, you can do anything. The sky's the limit!"

She spends two full days each week exploring the limits of her new sky. Ingrid Hofer has been a teacher herself for nine years. She has taught in her own studio. As a senior instructor, she conducted classes in Mixed Media for years at the Academic Artists, Inc. Trailside Museum, at Studio Four in Roseland, N.J., and at the Summit, N.J., YWCA.

She'll be back at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this fall, instructing two classes, day and evening, in watercolor.

Work Wins Awards

Her own watercolors, oils and graphics have been exhibited in numerous juried national, state and local art shows. They have won awards in several Grand National Shows of the American Artists Professional League (New York), the juried semi-annual New Jersey Watercolor Society exhibitions and the annual Catharine Lorillard Wolfe art shows in New York.

She has exhibited three times at the Hudson Valley Art Association show in Westchester, N.Y., at the Audubon Artists Annual Exhibition at the National Academic Galleries in New York City and with the American Watercolor Society, also at the NAG, and farther afield, at such shows as Colorado's Rocky Mountain National.

Last year, she took on two one-woman shows, one at Detroit's Coach House Gallery, the other at Gallery Nine in New Jersey. She'll never do that again! The shipping's not that difficult, but the working to have paintings ready for TWO shows...

From now on, it's one one-woman show for Hofer at a time.

Ingrid Hofer is listed in "Who's Who in American Art," "Who's Who in American Women" and the new, 1976 edition of "The World Who's Who of Women."

Often a Judge

A member of the New Jersey Watercolor Society, the Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club and the American Artists Professional League, both in New York, and Detroit's Scarab Club, (among others), she is known and often called upon as a judge for exhibitions.

She used to do oils almost exclusively. Now, by preference, she works primarily in watercolors, where flexibility is essential. A "dribble," a mistake in oils is very easy to repair: one paints over it. The unintentional brush stroke of the watercolorist is not so simple to correct: it's down to stay, and the flexible artist learns how to use it, to incorporate it into the painting's design and concept.

Ingrid also does a lot of pen-and-ink and pencil drawings, and some pastels. In her spare time, she loves to read. She still does her own sewing, (the practicality of that fashion training is not to be denied), and she enjoys taking care of the Hofers' outdoor garden. The indoor plants are Peter's province.

He enjoys working with wood, tackling any project from a TV to a table in his basement workshop. "Peter can build anything," Ingrid says. "That's not wifely pride speaking: it's a statement of fact."

Peter Does Frames

It's Peter who sees to it that all paintings by Hofer (Ingrid) are framed by Hofer (Peter). Ingrid's drawing background, thanks to the fashion school training, is strong. She considers knowing how to draw very important—but even more important, she feels, is knowing how to SEE.

"You have to learn how to see." That's Ingrid's first instruction, the premise on which she bases her teaching. To look at a thing is not enough. It must be re-

Appearing on a recent Michigan Cancer Foundation panel were Pointers DR. JUDY RAMSDELL, an Oncology fellow at Grace Hospital, and MARGARET DOMANSKI, a social worker at Harper Hospital, members of an inter-disciplinary Oncology team serving the hospitals' cancer patients. Mrs. Domanski also worked on the planning committee for the one-day workshop on "Grief—Its Relevance to Helping the Professional," held at MCF's Detroit office.

EVERETT M. HAWLEY, of South Oxford road, has been appointed to the Michigan State Board of Accountancy by Governor WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN for a term expiring July 1, 1979.

DR. WILLIAM H. GRONE-MEYER, of Windmill Pointe drive, was recently selected as "class marshall" by the graduating class of Wayne State University School of Medicine. Dr. Gronemeyer led the medical students into commencement ceremonies and administered the "Physicians Oath" as part of his duties. He has also been recently promoted to the position of professor of Pediatrics at Wayne State and is the associate chief of Pediatrics at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

DONALD JAY FERGLE, son of the DONALD FERGLES, of Van K drive, will use his four-year Army ROTC college scholarship at Central Michigan University. Graduating 11th out of a class of 485 from South Lake High School, (his average was 3.94), he served as vice-president of the National Honor Society and was a member of the Debate, Chess and Military History Clubs. He also received a four-year Wayne State University merit scholarship.

Named to the spring semester Dean's List at King's College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., is DOLORES MEHAN, daughter of the JAMES MEE HANS, of Fordcroft road who completed her freshman year with a magna cum laude semester ranking. Dolores, whose major is Criminal Justice, was a member of the varsity swimming team last winter. Her father, a King's graduate in Accounting, attended a recent reunion of the College Alumni Association in Wilkes-Barre, bringing along his wife and children.

Pointer JAMES N. MOTT-SCHALL, who served as president of the Notre Dame Club of Detroit in 1951, has been a director of the Club for more than 30 years, is currently serving as president of his Class of '39 and was cited as Notre Dame "Man of the Year" in 1971, has been elected a director of the University of Notre Dame Alumni Association.

ROBERT BARNARD, psychologist in the Grosse Pointe School System's, Department of Pupil Personnel, recently received his Ph.D. in Special Education from Wayne State University. His dissertation topic was entitled "The Relationship Between Reading Achievements of Pupils in Special Education and Teacher Access to an Instructional Materials Bank."

BOB QUIGLEY, son of MR. and MRS. ROBERT L. QUIGLEY, of Washington road, has been elected co-captain of the Tigers' track team for the 1977 season at Wittenberg University, where he recently completed his junior year. The Grosse Pointe South High School graduate, a sprinter who ranked eighth on the squad in points this year, istered, comprehended, recognized as its proper self before it can be really grasped, and until it is really grasped it cannot be translated into art.

Flowers and landscapes are Hofer's forte. "I don't do portraiture. You can't do everything; you'd spread yourself too thin."

She especially loves flowers, and the public seems to agree. Hofer flowers are selling two to one over her other work.

Normally, summer is her Flower Time, but this year... "This is my season for flowers," Ingrid mourns, "and the graphics have taken over!"

She didn't have to let them. She could have said "No!" But that would have been a very inflexible way to behave.

From Another Pointe of View

has a secret love affair with the wife of a medical doctor friend.

It's not a one-time escape. Bob, who lives with his wife and three children on a farm south of Flint, has completed a second novel, due to be published soon. It's set in northern Germany during the Thirty Years War, and deals with witchcraft, religious frenzy, life and death "in the harshness of time when demons abounded."

Summer Visitors

Summer's the time when you're liable to see old, familiar faces in The Pointe, and who should we spot hurrying on-the-Hill last week but Peg Ethridge, up from Akron and ready, as soon as she found a wedding present, ("You have such lovely stores here"), to take off with Kathy and Dave Henes, of Grayton road, on their annual Stratford Festival Summer Safari.

Mark couldn't come this year so it was a trio rather than a quartet for Stratford in '76, but Peg reports all the Ethridges are happy and busy, from Mark, III, who's vacationing in the north with his wife, through Russell, Peggy and Mary, who's been made a proctor at Exeter.

Peg also reports that she and Big Mark will be moving soon. Exactly where remains uncertain, but the general direction is either south or west.

There's a move in Betty and Bob Collins' future, too, from Richardson, Tex., (that's a Dallas suburb), to San Antonio, where they've built a new, contemporary home.

They're making their move mid-month, so Betty cut her usual three-week summer sojourn with her mother, Mrs. Paul S. Giffin, of Moran road, to four days—but sent Susan and Martha ahead, so Grandmother had at least half her quota of Collinses this season.

Betty and Bob drove up to pick up the girls; and Mrs. Giffin managed to corral a goodly group of friends for cocktails in-the-garden before the Collins contingent took off again for Texas.

And Peggy and Jack Fahnstock, with five-year-old Margot, are moving from New York City to Ottawa, Canada, where Jack will be city planning all over the place.

Peggy was also in town this summer, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Raymond Jeffs, of McKinley avenue.

was a member of the 440-yard relay team that finished fifth in the Ohio Conference Meet. He captured first place in the 100-yard dash and placed second in the 220-yard dash in pacing the Tigers to a second place finish in a triangular meet at Ohio Northern University earlier in the season.

BRUCE J. BURTON, of Lincoln road, has been named to the Tufts University College of Engineering Dean's List for the most recent academic term.

Pointer LILLIAN E. KILBRIDE, who celebrated her 85th birthday June 30 surrounded by friends and family, including 10 children, 47 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren gathered at the home in which Mrs. Kilbride has lived for 53 years, was designated "Grandmother of the Day" throughout Wayne County on her birthday via a resolution sponsored by Wayne County Commissioner ERVIN A. STEINER, JR. The resolution cited Lillian for combining family endeavors with equal dedication to parish activities at Saint Ambrose, Saint Paul's and Saint Joan of Arc, plus "exercise of card playing skills that have made her a consistent winner in gin rummy games that she enjoys as her chief recreation."

Enjoying a recent visit to Sun City, Ariz., were MR. and MRS. BERNARD G. KRASS, of Ridgemont road.

Former Pointer E. ANNE AVIAN-RANELLA, Registered Nurse, a Saint Ambrose High School graduate who received her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing this year from Wayne State University, has joined the nursing staff of Harper Hospital in the Detroit Medical Center.

CHARLES EDWARD MOSHER, JR., son of the CHARLES E. MOSHERS, of Cloverly road, has received a Bachelor of Science degree in Biomedical Engineering from Northwestern University.
