Vandalism Probed

 program later this year, according to Assistant to the Superintendent Dr. George Eddington.

Comes None to Soon
 The meeting apparently came none too soon, as just the weekend before several thousands of dollars damage was done at South High School.

Farms Police reported that someone again opened a fire hydrant near the building on Fisher road, on Saturday night, September 18, dumping almost three feet of water in the school's boiler room, soaking the furnace equipment and knocking out the inner communication system.

Police also reported scattered incidents of window smashing at other schools throughout the district that weekend.

Chief Ferber, whose community houses six schools, led the group in specific recommendations to curb vandalism. He suggested closer police or community observation of school grounds, stricter student identification systems, limitations of student driving privileges and staggering dismissal times at the end of the school year.

Need Citizens' Help
 Surveillance of public buildings, particularly on nights of special school events, might be accomplished by citizen support groups equipped with citizen band radios, according to Chief Ferber.

These "police emergency support units" have been in use in The Farms for some time, the Chief said, and might be expanded with grants from the Federal Law Enforcement Administration.

With the June 1 South High incident in mind, Chief Ferber also suggested using closed circuit TV's to control unruly student crowds.

"If those kids know for certain that they can be identified and are right on film for frommy and daddy to see, they might think twice about getting involved," he said.

YSD Has Equipment
 The Youth Service Division has such equipment available, according to the Chief. The general consensus at the meeting was that Michigan's 18-year-old drinking age contributed greatly to the problem. Sgt. Blair said he had seen a gradual degradation of student behavior since the drinking age had been lowered, and suggested all interested groups make their feelings known to Lansing representatives.

Another problem, from the police officers' point of view, is the scant attention paid the area by the Wayne County Juvenile Court. Bi-monthly youth court sessions would help combat the court's present "do nothing" attitude toward youthful Grosse Pointe offenders, according to Sgt. Blair.

Trivial to Judges
 "Most of these crimes seem trivial to judges used to dealing with Detroit gangs, but for us they are a serious problem," he said.

Mr. Zaccardelli and Mrs. Waugaman agreed that the Board should make an attempt to involve students themselves in protecting their schools.

"The kids' own group and peer relationships are, most important to them at this time," said Mr. Zaccardelli. "It is an approach we should exploit to the fullest."

Mrs. Waugaman suggested this might be accomplished by requiring students find chaperones for their school events, charging that present parent supervision policies are not adequate.

"This would be a way of putting the pressure on the kids to police themselves," she said.

Master Plan

 standards and have a busy traffic pattern.

Would Help Elderly
 The median sale price of a single family home during 1975-76 was $47,500 in The City, the report says. But it also identifies a need for some lower-cost, minimal maintenance residences for the elderly.

Goals identified by the report in the area of housing include renewal of aging buildings with the help of home improvement loan projects, stricter enforcement of zoning ordinances, building and maintenance codes.

The report also cites some of the "historical factors" that still plague the City, such as its old gridiron street pattern established by the early French settlers, its narrow roads and inadequate open space for recreational facilities.

Role of Provider
 "The City's emerging role as provider of services for the region, though, in the form of Elworthy Field, the shopping center, school administration offices and Bon Secours Hospital puts an extra strain on parking facilities, traffic and police and fire services," Mr. Rogers points out.

"If the City is to remain a comfortable residential community a major planning effort must be made."

"Once the plan is adopted the city's zoning ordinances will probably be overhauled as well, according to City Manager Thomas Kressbach.

OBNOXIOUS
 Some folks are so disagreeable that the only way others can get along with them is to get along without them.

Rowdies Dispersed

 them with missiles and verbal abuse, but the policemen slowly moved the rowdies toward Lakeshore and to their cars, a large number of which had been ticketed for being illegally parked.

After the crowd had been dispersed, all officers made a patrol on foot in the area to make sure that all the party-goers' cars had left the area.

The 16-year-old girl was informed by Sgt. Jacobs that cleaning up the entire area of all the debris, on her family's property as well as that of the neighbors', was her responsibility. The girl agreed. She was also informed, since the party took place in their absence, and that the parents will be responsible for all damages to the police cars.

At 11:02 p.m., The Farms and Woods units returned to their respective station, but Sgt. Jacobs and his shift officers, and officers from the midnight shift continued to clear the area of stragglers.

One of the Farms scout cars sustained a cracked flasher light and a creased left front fender. This vehicle was manned by Sgt. Marv Krebs and Officer Timothy Morrison. Another police car, manned by Farms Sgt. Alfred Martin and Officer Thomas Kelly, had a smashed windshield caused by a tossed bottle.

No damages were reported to Woods police vehicles except that one had a bent antenna. The Woods public safety officers who assisted at the scene were Theodore Heinz, Michael VanDeGiuste and Arthur Gekiere.

"The ordeal the police officers had to undergo and the possible bodily harm they could have sustained because of the bottles and other items tossed by these young people, was a terrible thing," said Shores Chief Joseph Vitale. "Any of the tossed items, even a piece of ice, could have caused a serious injury to any of the officers at the scene, for example, a jagged chunk of ice could hit one of the policemen in the eye. Then what?"

"Unsupervised affairs of this magnitude will not be tolerated in this community. As a matter of fact, a large party such as that which took place should be held in halls created for such affairs with the required restrictions, of course, of alcoholic beverages kept out of the hands of young people under the legal drinking age."

The chief reminds all parents that under a Michigan State Law parents are responsible for all damages incurred by their juvenile offspring and these juveniles can be arraigned in Juvenile Court. Adults responsible for such affairs, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Pickets

 "I don't know, I suppose they think they can press a point with this kind of thing," he said.

The receiving line at the affair was headed by past Board president Joan Hanpeter, active Board president Robert Warner, Dr. Coats and his wife. None seemed eager to acknowledge the presence of the picketers and Mr. Warner was visibly ill at ease when passing mention was made of their showing in spite of the rain.

Among the guests at the open house were many parents who came to meet the new superintendent. Regarding the controversy swirling around the use of the money raised in the last millage election some parents felt that the announcement of openings for several new administrators seemed ill-timed.

However most people said they want to give Dr. Coats a little-time to see how he does before they make any firm judgments. At least one parent said that he was anxious to see how the teacher evaluation plan proposed by the superintendent would work out before he would comment on the millage question.

"It sounds like a good idea since it is obvious that evaluations by department heads create unnecessary peer pressure and poor results," he said "I think if the plan has good results, Dr. Coats' actions have been entirely justifiable."

This same parent stated that the picketers had chosen a bad time to demonstrate their dissatisfaction, but conceded that if he were in their position he would likely have a different view.

Park Proposes 24-Space Jefferson Parking Lot

The Park council gave the go ahead signal on Monday, September 27, for a proposed metered parking lot at the southeast corner of Jefferson and Lakepointe, provided money is forthcoming from Wayne County and the Federal Government under the Community Block Grant Program. Estimated cost of the construction is $28,505.

A plan for the construction of the proposed parking lot was submitted to the Park Plan Commission on Tuesday, September 21, by James Ellison, director of Public Service. The plan was approved by the Commission, and presented to the city council for its consideration.

The proposed plans call for setbacks to conform with the adjacent residential area, a masonry wall and other items of construction, including metered spaces for 26 cars, in compliance with city ordinance and permit regulations.

It was disclosed that in recent weeks, The Park had purchased one vacant lot on Mack avenue, between Wayburn and Maryland, and two vacant lots at the corner of Jefferson and Lakepointe for about $23,500. The lots were purchased for badly needed off-street parking.

At a previous meeting held on July 20, the Plan Commission recommended that further steps be taken to purchase a vacant lot at Pemberton and Jefferson from the Brandau family for $20,000, or less.

City Comptroller - Clerk Nunzio Ortisi informed the council at the Monday night meeting, that the funds for the construction of the parking lot are not in the 1976-

77 fiscal budget. The building of the proposed lot will hinge on funds from the county and Federal Government under the Community Block Plan Program.

If the funds are made available, according to Mr. Ellison, there should be no problem, weather permitting, in having the lot completed by the end of November.

He said bids can be let out to a general contractor, or the city can act as its own general contractor by accepting separate bids on the drainage system, asphalt paving, construction of the masonry wall, etc. Some of the work, such as the landscaping and installation of a sprinkling system can be done by municipal employees.

No lot lights will be installed, since it is deemed that street lights will be sufficient to illuminate the parking area. Still under discussion is whether or not to have 24-hour parking meters.

At any rate, there will be enough parking time available to occupants of the Professional Building which will be adjacent to the lot.

The council approved the advertising of bids, so that in the event funds are obtained there will be no delay in starting the parking lot construction.

Lawsuits Spur Walk Repairs

The Woods Council has awarded J. J. Barney, Inc. a contract to continue a sidewalk repair program which was begun by another contractor but has been expanded because of the filing of two lawsuits regarding defective sidewalks on Mack avenue in which the city has been named as a co-defendant.

Sidewalk repair work in other areas of The Woods has been under way under a city contract with A and T Excavating, Inc. and the new project resulted from two lawsuits in which the city was named as co-defendant with the Wayne County Road Commission.

The original contract could not be extended to include the new work because A and T Excavating has previous contractual commitments. The choice of J. J. Barney to continue the work on Mack avenue, at locations designated by a recent DPW inspection, was made because that company was the second lowest bidder for the original sidewalk repair project.

The cost of the project, which is expected to cover 32,000 square feet of sidewalk, will be $1 per square foot. There is a Woods ordinance which requires the city to make such inspections and property owners to pay.

WHAT'S A KOALA BEAR LIKE ME DOING IN DETROIT?

I was invited in to act as spokesman for those nice folks of Patmon Oldsmobile. You see, when they were figuring out the best way to introduce those beautiful 1977 Oldsmobiles, they figured you might (if they gave me away) stop by and take a look. Well, they really can't give me away; after all, how many talking Koalas are there? Two, maybe three at the most... so they did the next best thing: they ordered the "stuffing" out of stuffed Koala Bears. I'd like to take a second here: You know that rumor about us Koala Bears not liking people... well... it just isn't true... we love people. So if you would like to take home something special for someone special... stop by Patmon Oldsmobile - I'll bet you'll take home one of my friends. We really do like people... Honest! Opps! Almost forgot, during our grand opening week Patmon Oldsmobile will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mon. through Fri., Sept. 27 to Oct. 1st. All you have to do is be eighteen to register. A Koala Bear will be given away every hour from Mon., Sept. 27 through Fri., Oct. 1st. Even if you're not around when your name is drawn, they will make sure you get your Koala Bear. No... they won't be giving away '77 Oldsmobiles, but, at their prices, it's almost like giving 'em away.

In My Working Days There Was No Such Thing As An Individual Retirement Account.

We had no pension plan where I worked, and you didn't get a tax break for putting money aside for retirement, either.

Not like today. Today you open one of those Individual Retirement Accounts, IRA they call it, and the money you put in there is deductible when you file your tax return.

Detroit & Northern Savings has these IRA's and the money you put in there can earn as much as 7 3/4% per year interest compounded daily. Now, daily compounding means it actually pays 8.05% per year. Daily interest and daily compounding. That means the more days your money is in an IRA, the more you earn, because even your interest earns interest. If I could have an IRA, I would get my money into it as early in the year as possible. That way I would earn more — and that's tax-free earnings, to boot.

There's nothing I can do about it now, but if you're still working and don't have a company sponsored pension plan, see the people at D&N and get started. Get that retirement savings plan going as soon as possible, so you can take advantage of that daily interest and daily compounding — all tax free until retirement.

From what I know, D&N's plan is one of the best around. No cost. High returns. Insured safe. Believe me, I've been retired for 6 years and I can tell you, income from Social Security just isn't enough.

St. John Hospital Expansion Causing Neighbor Problems

By George Polgar Jr.
 There is a certain irony in the fact that of all obstacles few seem so insurmountable as those imaginary lines called boundaries that men set down to separate themselves.

A case in point is a relatively minor dispute between a Woods residents group and St. John Hospital which is causing big problems because neither The Woods nor the City of Detroit has jurisdiction to review the facts of the matter and mediate between the two sides.

Behind the story there is about a quarter of a century of poor planning, and some downright negligence.

In 1947 St. John Hospital donated a 30-foot wide tract of land along the northeast corner of its property to the city of Detroit. Beyond that stretch was the boundary line between Detroit and The Woods.

At that time the Mack-7 shopping center was under construction just south of the plot in question and there was some discussion of building a through street from Mack to Linville, which runs perpendicular to Moross.

The Woods set about building the street, or actually a half of a street; to be exact, one lane. Detroit pitched in with a section of one-lane roadway that just didn't happen to fall next to the already constructed Woods lane.

Things were left at that and the one lane built by The Woods was dubbed Kingsville, surely intended to fit its regal dimensions.

This little oddity of suburban planning has remained a two way thoroughfare even though there is no way two cars could fit past each other at the same time. The project was so untidily abandoned that no one even bothered putting in a curb on the Detroit side of the pavement.

In 1972 St. John Hospital saw that the still-unused tract donated to Detroit could be used in a planned expansion of its parking facilities and asked and received permission to take it back. At that time hospital officials conferred with the residents of Kingsville concerning the distance between the proposed parking lot and the street.

All agreed that five feet was sufficient separation and the residents signed a document to that effect.

All of this historical background was provided by Dr. Andrew Dahl, director of planning at St. John. There is no dispute among residents about the accuracy of this account but all harmonious agreement ends there.

According to Dr. Dahl, who presents the hospital's case with a panoply of architect sketches, documents and letters, the problem has come to a head because the residents who originally signed the 1972 agreement are no longer there and the new residents feel that a fence five feet from the roadway would make Kingsville look like an alley thus devaluating their property.

"When we found out that some of the residents of Kingsville road were worried about our plans we had a meeting with them to discuss it," he said. "As a community hospital we try to keep good relations with surrounding neighbors and we certainly don't want to go ahead with something that affects them without consulting them."

On Wednesday, September 15, St. John officials, including Dr. Dahl and hospital president James Farley sat down again with the protesting residents to hammer out their differences.

"We offered them everything they wanted, an extra five feet from the roadway, grass and landscaping, arrangements to make backing out of the driveways on Kingsville easier and even a six foot high barrier so they won't have to look at a 250 car parking area," said Dr. Dahl.

The only thing we didn't give them was a six foot high brick or masonry wall, which, because of expense, we cannot afford."

Instead the architects for the hospital, Smith, Hinchman and Grylls, have suggested a six foot high wooden "habitat" fence. Dr. Dahl has pointed out that according to city codes St. John is only responsible to erect a four foot high and the extra height should be taken as a sign of the hospital's good faith. According to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kirchner, whose yard faces the proposed parking lot, the hospital made no such offers at the meeting.

"So now it's ten feet they are giving us," said Mrs. Kirchner. "That is more than they were talking about at the last meeting but it still isn't what we want. We want a solid brick wall that will keep rain water from the parking lot from flowing into our basements when it rains. And we want that wall where the fence is now, 30 feet from the road; we've measured it."

Mrs. Kirchner went on to say that the residents wanted the wall to have no access openings to their streets. There is a gate in the present fence which is left open so that hospital employees can walk to residences in that area.

"The extra traffic of cars coming up here to drop people off at this gate and interns walking up and down here isn't bad enough; we also have to contend with Detroit crime problems," she said. "There have already been some cases of the police chasing someone in the parking lot and having them get away through this gate."

According to the hospital officials the demands of Mr. and Mrs. Kirchner are not even the same as those of the other residents whose names fill five pages of petitions.

"We don't really know what these people want now," said Dr. Dahl. "Everyone has a different demand. At the last meeting with the residents some people accepted the ten foot proposal; others didn't. Some wanted that area with grass and landscaping and others wanted the whole thing paved over."

Partly because there are so many demands, which include questions of new sewers in the area, a check on further expansion projects by the hospital and traffic problems on Kingsville and Raymond roads, the issue has been put on the agenda of the next Woods Council meeting on Monday, October 4.

According to Woods City Manager Chester Petersen the council has very little to say about the resolution of the immediate problems and the residents have received no response from Detroit.

Fire Prevention Week Will Begin October 3

As long as history continues to repeat itself and countless lives and fortunes are consumed by fires there will always be a place for the observation of Fire Prevention Week.

This year Fire Prevention Week will begin on Sunday, October 3, and continue until Saturday, October 9, and the local fire departments are sending out many of the same warnings that they do each year calling the public attention to the fact that the causes of fires throughout homes and businesses can be identified and controlled with a little common sense.

The warnings about faulty electrical wiring, hazardous accumulations of papers and rags in places like attics and garages and the careful storage of matches and lighters are pretty tiresome and many people are waiting to be told something new.

"Just because the suggestions for preventing fires don't change doesn't make the suggestions any less valid," said City Fire Lt. Tim Champagne. "The initial causes are still the same but in many ways the fires that result are even more dangerous. Today houses are filled with all kinds of petroleum base products — carpeting, plastics, wall coverings, draperies, etc.—and the smoke from these burning materials are dangerous to people even before the building is consumed by a blaze."

With this new twist to an old problem, owners of homes and businesses might consider investing in smoke detecting devices which, according to one commercial "... sniff the air for traces of smoke and warn occupants of the danger."

Smoke detectors are sensitive to smoldering fires in the very earliest stages and are for that reason the best sort of advance warning to give occupants of a building time to get out.

Most smoke detectors when activated emit a sharp sounding warning loud enough to rouse sleeping families. A large proportion of all house fires occur in the middle of the night, making the audible alarm an important feature. Another sort of fire protection device suitable for homes and businesses is the heat detector. Such devices measure the rate of rising temperature in the atmosphere around them and then give out a warning, or in more involved systems set off sprinkling units in the ceilings.

Of course the heat detectors are not as advantageous from the aspect of advanced warning since they are basically designed to activate to an already blazing fire.

"Here in The City our firefighters go around and inspect homes for fire hazards and offer suggestions and answer any questions residents may have about fire prevention tips and devices," said Lt. Champagne. "This is completely voluntary on the part of the residents and we don't issue any violations."

For information about this type of service residents of all the Pointes can call their own respective fire departments.

We need your business.

Last year local businessmen in the tri-county area made a big investment: a sizeable contribution to the United Foundation Torch Drive. And their investment is bringing sizeable returns as the citizens of 113 communities in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties benefit from health and medical research programs, youth and handicapped services, family counseling, aid to the handicapped and many other Torch Drive-supported services.

To these businessmen, we say, "Thanks... we appreciate your business!"

And, we say, "Please... won't you help again?"

The Torch Drive needs your business to make our community a healthy place for everyone... and a better place for you to do business.

In a few days, a special Torch Drive volunteer will be calling on you. Remember, that single volunteer represents nearly 140 different Torch Drive agencies in our community.

Please give a helping hand. Make a big investment through a generous pledge to this year's Torch Drive. We need your business.

Defective Light Nets 2 Tickets

Jaye F. Jumer of 20169 Fairway, was arrested by Shores police on Friday, September 24, for driving a motor vehicle with a defective tail light and ended up with receiving two violation tickets.

Public Safety Officer Gary Mitchell said he was on routine patrol west on Oxford when he observed Jumer driving in the same direction. The officer noted that one tail light on the car had a broken red glass, which exposed a white light.

Jumer was stopped in front of 22 Oxford and asked for his operator's license and car registration. The motorist produced a temporary driver's permit. PSO Mitchell called his station for a routine check via the Law Enforcement Information Network machine (LEIN). The return answer from Lansing revealed that the man's license had been suspended and he was placed under arrest.

At the Shores station PSO Mitchell issued Jumer a violation ticket for driving with defective equipment, and another for driving while his license was suspended.

Jumer was not released until he posted a bond of $150. He is scheduled to appear in court on Wednesday, October 27.

HIGH PRINCIPLES

There is great satisfaction in doing the things in this life that are the most honorable.

Shores Council Approves Two Year DPW Contract

At its regular monthly meeting held Tuesday morning, September 21, The Shores council approved a negotiated two-year contract with the Village's Department of Public Works employees, which granted them an hourly rate increase in pay and an escalator cost-of-living factor. The wage hike is retroactive to July 1 of this year.

The Shores DPW employees, affiliated with The Woods' Local 1121, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), had been paid an hourly rate of $5.52. They were granted 25 cents more an hour for the first year of the contract, July 1, 1976 to July 1, 1977, and another 25 cents an hour from July 1, 1977 to July 1, 1978, when the agreement will expire.

Scuba Diving Class Offered

Classroom, pool and open water dive sessions are planned for a scuba diving course sponsored by the Department of Community Services at Brownell Middle School this fall.

The class will meet at the school, 260 Chalfonte avenue, on Mondays from 7-10:30 p.m. For further information, call 885-3808 or 885-0271.

The new contract is the cost-of-living index will be reviewed every three months to determine whether wages will be lowered or raised.

Another inclusion is the Dental Plan which covers all DPW employees and their families. The Village will foot 75 percent of dental bills and the employees will pay the remaining 25 percent.

Retained in the contract is 11 paid holidays, 12 allowable paid sick days a year, and three paid business days, for example, an employee's birthday.

Also at the Tuesday morning session, the council adopted a resolution seeking the aid of Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner to have the county pave Lakeshore road, especially in the Shores.

It was pointed out that the road is badly in need of paving from Warner road in the Farms to Vernier because of the many chuck holes. At present the County Road Commission is only patching up the holes by filling them in with asphalt, which the Village solons said was inadequate.

It was also pointed out that a section of Lakeshore, between Woodland Shores and South Deeplands, where a little green shed houses a small storm water pump had caved in, causing a bad dip in the road, which makes for dangerous driving. It is hoped, it was said, that this work, present cost estimated at $715,000, could be done before the paving program is over by the end of November. However, the Shores trustees are in doubt that this will be done, since The Shores is low on the priority list.

President Gerald Schroeder said that the county asked the Village to foot one-third of the paving bill when funds are available for the paving project, but the solons turned thumbs down on the request, pointing out that Lakeshore is a county thoroughfare and the responsibility of paving and maintaining the road belongs to the county.

Stars Honored By City, Farms

The city councils of both The City and The Farms honored the coaches and players of the Grosse Pointe City-Farms Babe Ruth All-Star baseball team.

The team, which won the 1976 state and regional championships plus the Ohio Valley Regional Championships held last month in Anderson, Ind., were presented with proclamations signed by both John L. King, mayor of The City, and James H. Dingeman, mayor of The Farms.

Both councils proclaimed September 20 as a day to honor the team.

The team manager is John Hoben with Chuck Campbell, Joe Maul and George Cairo as coaches.

BUDGET CHANGES

The Grosse Pointe City Council added $49,955 to the police and municipal court funds of their 1976-77 budget, at their Monday, September 20, meeting, to cover increased costs resulting from contracts with its police officers, represented by Teamsters Local 214 and Sergeants' association. The monies will cover salary, social security and insurance hikes.

Swimming and wading pools are often used successfully as ice skating rinks too. Shallow large wading pools and circular or oval swimming pools with shallow water at the edges are especially well adapted to the use. Ordinarily the level of the water to be frozen is several inches below the gutter, primarily to prevent water from entering the gutter and freezing there. In other cases the water level is raised to the top of the pool. The level deck pool seems very well adapted to use for skating.

Professor Proves Ph.D's Do Well Coaching Sports

By Tom Greenwood
Brains and brawn do mix. The day of the hulking football player majoring in engineering at college is over.

Ask Wayne State University professor Kenneth Kline, of Balfour road. A former football player for the University of Minnesota, he eventually obtained his Ph.D. on an academic scholarship.

He's also just received his fourth National Science Foundation research grant for his study of blood and has written a number of papers carrying such mind numbing titles as "Rectilinear Laminar Flow of a Visco-Elastic Fluid" and "Nonlinear Constitutive Equations for Direct-Viscoelastic Materials with Memory."

He also coaches Little League football and baseball.

"This is my third year in coaching," said Prof. Kline. "I'll be involved for another two years and then will be leaving on a sabbatical."

"I sort of fell into coaching by accident. My wife was taking our boys to football practice and mentioned she didn't know anything about the equipment they were to receive. I took the boys instead and stayed around to help. I've been with it ever since."

Prof. Kline, 37, puts in between 20 and 25 hours a week with his football team and works primarily with eighth and nine-year-old players.

"I prefer working with youngsters around that age," he said. "You see more development in that age group. We have a rule of playing every boy that shows up for practice. The games are competitive, but not on the win-at-any-cost level. We keep no statistics in our league and have no league standings. There's no championship game at the end of the year. The idea is just to go out and have fun and not worry about being the top team."

Over the past three years, Prof. Kline has been an offensive coach, a head coach, and this year the defensive coach. "There are a lot of people who are more involved in coaching these kids than I am," he said. "We can really use more parental involvement on all levels. The kids would love to see more adults at their games and the teams could use help both on and off the field."

The teams could also use monetary support. "Each boy wears about $200 worth of equipment," said Prof. Kline. "They help raise this money through program and candy sales. We're going to have to have new helmets by 1980 and that's going to cost a lot of money. All contributions would be gratefully accepted. All the teams are non-profit organizations."

While football is his first love, Prof. Kline also devotes his summers to Little League Baseball.

"Both sports are valuable," said Prof. Kline, "but baseball is more difficult. Football is more of a team sport, while baseball concentrates on skills like batting and catching. There's more pressure in baseball. In football, you've just got to hit, hit, hit."

Prof. Kline hopes to stay in baseball coaching after his sabbatical. "I don't think I can continue with the football team," he said. "I love it, but it just takes too much time."

The entire Kline family is involved in Pointe activities. Two sons play football, Jeffery for the Grosse Pointe Lions, and John on the Lions Junior Varsity team, while daughter Gretchen is a cheerleader. Another daughter, Lisa, is a 10th grader at South High School.

Mrs. Kline is a substitute teacher in the Pointe school system and was the creator of the Great Books program.

"We believe in getting involved in the affairs of the community," said Prof. Kline. "It's beneficial to the community, ourselves and our children."

The Grosse Pointe Lions play their home games at 12 noon on Sundays at Elworthy Field.

"We need more parental involvement," said Prof. Kline. "Come out and support your children. You'll be happy you did."

Lions Varsity Loses Squeaker

In a game dominated by mud and rain, the Grosse Pointe Lions varsity lost to the Roseville Rebels by a score of 7-6. Both offenses were slowed down by the treacherous footing and difficulty in handling the ball.

Harry Constant did a fine job of quarterbacking under these adverse conditions, with Rick Overby and John Strabel picking up good yardage behind the blocking of Steve Cius, Rip Saile and Jim Hartman.

The Rebels scored on their first offensive series, assisted by several costly penalties. From that point, the Lions defense dug in, keeping the Rebels well contained.

The defensive charge was led by John Gregg and Ken Hawk up front with Eric MacMichael, Steve Root and Bill Ratsek filling up the holes with some jarring tackles.

The Lions scoring came in the fourth quarter on a sustained drive with the touchdown coming with only 18 seconds left on the clock.

Ginger Barr and Andrea Reeder of the Lions board of directors invite the Lions fans to patronize the Lions concession stand, as the proceeds are used for players equipment. Jill Bevier, also of the board, predicts fine weather for the next Lions game when the Lions face the Roseville Raiders Sunday, October 3, at Elworthy Field, with the opening kickoff at 1 p.m.

The Grosse Pointe Lions junior varsity team lost a hard-fought battle against the Roseville Rebels by a score of 6-0.

Steve Suminski returned the opening kickoff deep into Rebel territory. While Quarterback John Kline gained substantial yardage over the right side of the Lions offense line with blocking by Dave DeSmyter, Mark Hauser, Steve Carrier and Jeff Pawset, the team was denied a touchdown by a stiffened Rebel defense.

Late in the first half, the Rebels scored their only touchdown by their excellent running fullback. The Lions defense held off the extra point attempt because of an unassisted tackle by Matt Lutz.

The second half saw the Lions offense march deep again into Rebel territory under an aerial attack, with receptions by ends Ned Sparrow, Rob Coddens and Greg Buck. When the Rebels tried to go the air, the Lions secondary of Spence Weidig, Don Walsh and Doug Ross only let them complete one pass.

The balance of the game was filled with tackles from the defense, which consisted of Tom Gibney, Craig Clark and Kurt Allen.

A steady, drizzling rain set the scene for a hard fought, 6-6 tie between the Lions freshman and a gritty Roseville Rebels squad. The Rebels scored early in the game when a lone deep receiver slipped behind the Lions secondary and received a perfectly thrown aerial.

The Lions defense stiffened and stopped the point after touchdown try and contained the Rebels offense the rest of the day. Coach Art Bryant praised the tough play of John Ratsek, who made several key tackles from his outside linebacker position and came up with a drive-breaking interception.

Other fine performances were turned in by Jud Kotas, Jim Wade, John Tavery, John Moffitt and Chris Welsh.

Moving up from last year's Grosse Pointe Pee Wee Open State Championship team are Don Hiles, Tom Smith, Paul Treder, Steve Valice, John Klein, and Tom Koltvedt.

Team members Nick Land and John Van Biesbrouck are additions from previous Little Caesar's teams including the Squirt Open State and National Championship team of 1973-74.

Last year Steve Truba played for the Grosse Pointe Pee Wee "A" District 3 Championship Team while Sam Curcuro, Mark Osler, and Curt Runey are welcome additions from strong Grosse Pointe and East side "B" teams.

The Ziebart Spartans opened their season at Fraser with a hard fought 2-0 victory over Parkie Bees. Don Hiles opened the scoring in the first period with an assist from Rich Carron.

David Parker scored unassisted in the second period. The game featured close checking by defensemen Klein, Koltvedt, Treder, and Valice and strong goaltending by Truba and Van Biesbrouck.

The Ziebart Spartans are coached by Mike Runey and managed by Leonard Smith.

Pointe Cinema League Takes Safari

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present its second program of the season Monday, October 4 at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

Fern and Rip Zwickley will show a 16mm movie "Adventures in East and South Africa," an area of the world figuring prominently in today's news. The Zwickleys are well-known circumnavigators, renowned for Rip's extraordinary films and Fern's amusing narration.

This exciting movie was made during a 10-week adventure in Kenya, Uganda, Rhodesia, Mozambique, Tanzania and South Africa. The audience will see at close hand the natives living a simple pastoral and hunting life. This land of sharp contrasts, from tropical Zanzibar to the Mountains of the Moon, is a pageant of one adventurous day after another.

Special highlights are the wild animals in seven reserves, native dances from four different areas, Victoria Falls from a small plane, the colorful ricksha boys of Durbin, a whaling station and snake park, the Transkei Territory with its "red blanket" natives, and a pygmy village relatively untouched by modern man. There are spectacular views of Murchison Falls on the Nile and the Kimberly Diamond mines. At the Higate Ostrich Farm, Rip was ingloriously pitched from the back of an ostrich while Mrs. Zwickley recorded this episode on film.

The public is invited to attend the program without charge. The Cinema League, a War Memorial-sponsored organization, welcomes new members. Annual dues are $5 per person. Social hours following each program are limited to members and their invited guests.

Norsemen Even Record J.V. Squad Also Wins

By Nick Manzella and Kevin Higgins

The Norsemen gridders evened their season record at 1-1 on Saturday September 25, as they downed the Fraser Ramblers, 30-17, behind an explosive offensive attack.

North struck first, moving down field in an eight-play drive to set up Karl Tech's 17-yard field goal. After Fraser failed to move the ball in its first possession, Steve Rodgers blocked a Rambler punt and Mark Pfeffer recovered in the end zone. Tech added the conversion, giving North a 10-0 lead just four minutes into the game.

Fraser got on the board late in the first quarter, scoring on a 30-yard field goal, leaving North with a 10-3 lead.

On the first play of the second quarter, Rob Burns passed to Dave Walz for 75 yards, down to the Fraser one yard line. Jeff Pierick scored the touchdown and following the missed extra point, the Norsemen held a commanding 16-3 lead.

Fraser came back as quarterback Tim Casey ran 55 yards on a third down play for the Ramblers' first touchdown of the game.

After receiving the second half kick, Fraser proceeded to score on its first possession, moving in front for the first time at 8:16 of the third quarter on a short touchdown run.

The extra point gave them a 17-16 lead.

North then moved deep into Fraser territory following the kickoff but a key interception kept the Norsemen off the scoreboard. The Ramblers failed to move the ball, leaving North with excellent field position following Jeff Pierick's 30-yard punt return.

Two plays later North regained the lead, as Bruce Stafford scored on an 11 yard pitch-out. A Burns to Chris Lockhart pass was good for two points, giving North a 24-17 lead after three quarters.

The fourth quarter featured continuous come back attempts by the Ramblers, but the Norsemen defense was too strong. Ken Humes had two interceptions, the second with just 1:12 to go in the game, sealing North's first win in their Bi-County opener.

Earlier in the quarter, Burns once again combined with Lockhart on a scoring play.

This one coming from 40 yards out and giving North their final margin of victory.

North's J.V. squad won its second game of the season, stopping Fraser's team 20-12. Highlights of the game include an interception and fumble recovery by Dave Jankowski, plus all around good play by quarterback John Pierick and halfback Mike Lousha.

WHAT CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CAN DO FOR A FAMILY.

It can bring an understanding of God's closeness and care, helping each one in the family in everything he does.

It can develop a deep love for the Bible, and joyful obedience to God's law.

It can teach every member, and the family together, to heal problems in the way Jesus showed.

How can Christian Science do all this? Through Sunday School classes that strengthen children. Through Sunday services that inspire parents. Through Wednesday testimony meetings where personal accounts of healing are shared. Through Reading Rooms where truths are pondered in quiet.

Won't you invite Christian Science into your family's life?

How does Studio Camera do it?

That's what camera stores all over the state are asking themselves - how does STUDIO CAMERA sell at such ridiculous low prices 365 days a year?

The answer is simple. We keep our overhead low. We run our store efficiently. We DON'T use "razzle-dazzle" gimmicks like so-called "free finishing coupons" or "half off on over-priced electronic flash units."

There's no bagging over price at STUDIO CAMERA. Our Cash Price is our BEST price. All our prices are printed, and up front. No one works on commission, so you buy what you want when you want. You'll never get pressured into package deals, or any of the other gimmicks you've run into in other camera stores.

This straight forward, no gimmick way of doing business is the reason we sell more cameras to more people than any other camera store in Michigan.

We must be doing something right!

Devils Defeat L'Anse Creuse

By Bob Stockwell

A dominating defense was the key in South High School's 21-6 victory over L'Anse Creuse on Friday afternoon, September 24.

Ten plays into the first quarter, fullback Rob Dotson scored for the Blue Devils. Defensive senior tackle Al Jones kicked the extra point.

With one minute left in the first half, quarterback Tom Nihem passed to senior end John Olbeter for a second touchdown. Jones kicked the extra point, and the score going into the locker room was 14-0.

A tough defense by the South team forced L'Anse Creuse to fumble near the end of the third quarter. Grant Piche recovered and South scored on an end run by Brian Myers. Jones again converted.

Coach Russ Hepper freely substituted in the fourth quarter with junior quarterback Jim Kovanda at the controls.

L'Anse Creuse scored in the final minutes, making the score 21-6.

The Blue Devil defense was led by Chris Fielding, 11 tackles; Ken Stockwell, seven tackles; Al Jones, seven tackles; and Frank Coates with four tackles.

Other outstanding players were Rick Baker, Tom Birk, Paul Genter, Rob Dotson and Bob Hermes.

The Blue Devils' next game will be at Port Huron on Friday, October 1.

By Janet Mueller

The next day, Friday, October 15, there'll be an invitational showing of the Charlotte Ford Collection at the Country Club of Detroit.

Planning 'Belle of Amherst' Benefit

Admiring a volume of Emily Dickinson's poems, presented to Mr. and Mrs. George Pierrot in appreciation of their agreeing to serve as honorary chairmen of the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Colleges' 1976 project, opening night, Monday, November 8, of "The Belle of Amherst" at the Fisher Theater, starring Grosse Pointe's own Julie Harris, are, (left to right), MRS. DENISE CONTROULIS, of Moran road, chairman of the Seven Colleges Committee this year, MRS. DEWEY NORTON, of Allard avenue, 1976 project chairman, and MRS. EDGAR GORDON, of Lothrop road, assistant project chairman.

Diane Norton introduced the project to friends and alumnae of Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley at a gala cocktail reception kick-off at the Country Club of Detroit in mid-September.

The play, a smash Broadway hit, portrays the life of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School graduate RHONDA RUDNICK has returned as an upperclasswoman for the fall term at William Woods College, Fulton, Mo.

Flying out to Boulder for the University of Colorado ceremonies at which MARY BETH VITALE, of Hawthorne road, received her Master of Science degree were her father, JOSEPH VITALE, of Hawthorne road, and a aunt, CATHERINE CLAPSADLE, of Vernier road. Emily Dickinson, America's premier woman poet. Miss Harris, at the peak of a distinguished career, presented a reading from "The Belle of Amherst" at a State Dinner at the White House this spring.

Tickets for the benefit, plus pre-performance cocktails and dinner at the Recess Club on opening night, may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Elsie Vieira at 626-8956. Proceeds will provide scholarship funds for local young people who wish to attend one of the Seven Eastern Colleges.

George Pierrot is known throughout Michigan for his World Adventure Series, one of the nation's longest-running travel shows. Helen Pierrot, a past-chairman of the Seven Colleges Committee, recently celebrated the 50th reunion of her class at Smith College.

For project chairman Diane Norton this is a "double debut" year: the Norton's expect a baby between now and opening night.

House Tour Slated For Mid-October

Tickets for Annual Autumn Fund-Raiser Are Available Now at Grosse Pointe Garden Center or War Memorial

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center's 1976 Tour of Houses, featuring six beautiful and outstanding Pointe homes, is set for Saturday, October 6, and Sunday, October 17, from 1 to 5 o'clock both days.

Tickets at $4 per person may be obtained by contacting the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, 881-4594, or the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 881-7511.

Among those opening their homes for this year's Garden Center fund-raiser are Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm L. Denise, whose "conservative contemporary" residence at the foot of Stratford place, Swedish in influence, incorporates maximal natural sources of light within its design.

The living room ceiling is vaulted, the exterior emphasis horizontal. Rear windows and a serpentine terrace overlook the water. An extensive record library and equipment is an unusual feature, with special sound wiring throughout the house.

Art objects abound, from original watercolors, oils and acrylics to soapstone figures, African artifacts and Steuben figurines.

The Provencal road residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. White, Early American in style, is one of the Pointe's loveliest new houses, built a year-and-a-half ago on half of the property of the owner's older house.

The paneling in the living room, doors and hardware came from the older house. The dining room and farm kitchen have ingenious service features. A beautiful ship model, one of the owner's hobbies, graces the dining room mantel; over it is a sliding panel, hiding a mounted movie screen.

The garden room off the swimming pool at the end of a corridor is thermostatically controlled to prevent steaming. Two large bougainvillea plants stand at either side of a bay window, their lush, peach-colored blossoms a perfect complement to the turquoise pool.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Larsen, Jr., in Hendrie lane is Country French. Featured throughout this 48-year-old house are floors of original Pewabic tile, now collector's items.

Special collections include a magnificent display of Violet Larsen's Egg Shell Art. Among other handmade articles are quilts and examples of needlepoint, crewel, macrame and many other crafts, all the work of the talented owner.

There are many antiques in evidence, too—and over 250 houseplants!

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Danaher's Colonial in Lakeview avenue has deceiving dimensions. Built 10 years ago, it appears small but has ample room for a large family. Art objects and artifacts (Continued on Page 18)

Tea Heralds Historic Memorials Anniversary

Pointe members of the Historic Memorials Society in Detroit, formerly the Mount Vernon Society, traveled to Bloomfield Hills in mid-September to join members from Harsens Island, Midland, St. Clair and all over the metropolitan area in celebrating the Society's 85th anniversary in Detroit at a membership tea in Mrs. Harold Tanner's home, its blue monochromatic color scheme complementing a terrace-to-the-water view of Island Lake.

Mrs. Tanner set her table with two family antique tea services and an Italian cut-work cloth. Her centerpiece—red, white and blue, combined with pale yellow—was especially admired by the 75 guests.

The Society's next meeting is set for tomorrow, Friday, October 1, at 12:30 o'clock, at the Detroit Boat Club, with Mrs. Milton Osgood, immediate past-president, as hostess. Mrs. H. Boyer Marx, of Atlanta, Ga., will speak on Hallmarks.

A World Premier Opens MOT Year

"Washington Square" Debuts Tomorrow Evening at Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts in Downtown Detroit

Among the exciting events planned in conjunction with the world premier performance of "Washington Square," which opens Michigan Opera Theatre's 1976-77 season at the Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts tomorrow, Friday, October 1, is an afterglow, co-chaired by Mrs. John C. Griffin, of Lakeshore road, and Mrs. Robert C. Vander-Kloot, of Bloomfield Hills.

Reservations for the afterglow, open to the public at $20 per person, may be made by calling 963-3717.

Earlier in the evening, a special group of "Premiere Benefactors," individuals from all over the state who have contributed $500 or more to MOT, will be honored at a dinner at the Hotel Pontchartrain, co-chaired by the Aaron H. Gershensons and the Lynn Townsends.

"P.B.'s" will be chauffeured by limousine to the black tie dinner and back to Music Hall in time for the 6:30 o'clock curtain.

"Washington Square" by American composer Thomas Pasateri, with libretto by poet/playwright Kenward Elmslie, is the first major opera to be commissioned and premiered by a professional opera company in Michigan.

According to MOT general director David DiChiera, the company's sixth season was virtually sold out on subscription a full month before tomorrow's opening.

"We are gratified that Detroit, so beset with problems of late, has responded overwhelmingly to a cultural event of great importance to the company and to the citizens of our city and state," DiChiera says.

Pasateri has had his works premiered by regional companies throughout the nation, (Seattle, Houston, Wolf Trap, Baltimore).

His "Trial of Mary Lincoln" was commissioned and premiered by National Educational Television in 1972, with mezzo-soprano Elaine Bonazzi in the title role.

Kenward Elmslie now has five opera librettos to his credit. He collaborated with Pasateri in 1974 on "The Seagull," and earlier did "Lizzie Borden" and "The Sweet Bye and Bye" with Jack Beeson.

He also provided lyrics for Ned Rorem's "Miss Julie."

The production is directed by Nikos Psacharopoulos, founder and artistic executive director of Massachusetts' Williamstown Theatre Festival.

The designer, Santo Loquasto, has designed for the Festival for the past nine seasons, as well as working with the New York Shakespeare Festival, the Twyla Tharp Dance Foundation and several opera companies in the United States.

"Washington Square," conducted by Henry Holt, Seattle Opera music director, features New York City opera soprano Catherine Malfitano, Frankfurt Opera bass-baritone Richard Cross and Elaine Bonazzi, Brent Ellis, Sheri Greenwald, Ronald Raines, Dolores Strazieich and Detroit's Elsie Inselman.

Tickets for MOT's sixth season are available by calling 963-7880.

Other productions in 1976-77 are "Madame Butterfly," "Naughty Marietta" and "The Magic Flute." Tickets for individual performances of all operas also are available. Prices are $3 to $12.

"Washington Square's" opening performance at 8:30 Friday, October 1, will be followed by performances Sunday, October 3, at 6:30

Inside the Mothers Club

The executive board of the Mothers Club of Grosse Pointe South High School held its first meeting of the 1976-77 school year at the home of its president, Mrs. Gerald E. Warren, on Monday, September 13.

The Club seeks to benefit South High's students, both socially and financially, and to interest members and teachers in furthering communication between school and home.

In light of this—following luncheon—Mrs. Warren introduced Dr. William Coats, the new superintendent of schools. In his remarks, Dr. Coats emphasized that he "would welcome feedback from parents; I am more than willing to answer questions."

He spoke briefly on the importance of communication. He is most interested in meeting with any and all parent and community groups.

Dr. Coats feels a system of checks and balances is vital. "There are differences of opinion now and they will be resolved through negotiation. We most work to create a positive image of the school system in this community."

Dr. Coats wants Grosse Pointe to be the best school system in the United States. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education would like a three-year contract with teachers. A millage vote is likely this spring.

Dr. Coats went on to say that he feels there should be a channel of communication. All employees need to know that their "performance" will be evaluated yearly as a process for improving performance.

Finally, he reiterated that the proposed administrative changes are a realignment of existing positions and these changes are being negotiated where necessary at the bargaining table.

Mrs. Warren next presented Dr. James Hoeh, principal of South High School. Dr. Hoeh is optimistic about the coming year, taking the fine opening of school as a positive start. He spoke of the fine student leadership, both last year and this. He distributed a list of the eight new teachers and gave a little background on each.

The lunch hour is improved, according to Dr. Hoeh. It

Slate Garden Club Meeting

Mrs. Glenn Carpenter will open her Radnor circle home Wednesday, October 6, to members of the Windmill Pointe Garden Club.

Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock will be followed by a business meeting and a program on Basic Flower Arranging by Mrs. Charles Pollock, member of the National Council of Accredited Judges, charter member and past-president of the Harper Woods Garden Club and Orchard Lake Garden Club.

Mrs. Pollock will present a special Christmas program for the Detroit Garden Center Tuesday, December 7, at 1 o'clock at The Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

present a logistic problem, since 2,400 students are obliged to eat lunch in one and one half hours in an area originally designed for 270 youngsters.

Student attendance procedures, which remain similar to last year's, have been distributed to all students. Extra copies are available in the counseling office.

The fall fund-raiser Leaf Bag Sale is underway: $9 buys a roll of 100 heavy-duty leaf bags. Money raised from this project helps with scholarships and school needs. Checks should be made payable to the Mothers Club at South High.

The sale ends Friday, October 15. Co-chairmen are Mrs. John Cross and Mrs. Donald Kelly.

Volunteers are still needed to help at South High. Many opportunities are available. Co-chairmen Mrs. Martin Oetting and Mrs. Malcolm Sutherland would be pleased to accept phone calls from willing volunteers.

Many have enrolled as members in the Mothers Club. The $3 dues are payable now, and all support is welcome.

Last June, the Mothers Club awarded 14 scholarships in the amount of $7,650. Students who received these scholarships will be attending many schools and universities in Michigan.

The Senior Class of 1976 has much to be proud of. John Lake, director of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, wrote a letter to Mrs. James Williams in which he praised the seniors' behavior at their very successful senior party.

The class had money left over from their party and wanted to give something to South High. The Seniors bought an amplifier for the renovated auditorium.

Important up-coming events the Mothers' Club helps to organize and support include Homecoming, October 16, and Back to School Night, October 28.

The next meeting of the Mothers Club will be Monday, October 4, at 12:30 o'clock. Each meeting will feature a short, informative, educational program concerning such topics as an explanation of the language arts program and how it flows from elementary school, middle school and high school, and a program on college entrance examinations.

Monday's meeting will feature "A Team Approach to Personal Services for Grosse Pointe South Students," by Detective Pat Fagan, Youth Services Division, Tip McIntosh, South social worker, and Don Messing, South assistant principal.

Named to the University of Missouri - Columbia Dean's Honor List for the 1976 winter term is JAMES ROBERT SELF, of Berkshire road.

from all over the world bear witness to the owner's extensive travels.

The dining room is hung with a Russian chandelier, circa 1830, and contains pale blue Sevres urns and capodimonte service plates presented by Carlos, King of Naples, to Marie Antoinette of France, acquired from the Anna Dodge Estate.

On the patio is the wrought iron railing which originally led from the entrance to the ballroom at Stonehurst, the recently-dismantled mansion of the late Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman.

The entrance hall of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril J. Edwards' impressive Colonial in McKinley place is large and hospitable, with a fireplace and lovely staircase leading at a right angle to the second floor.

The living room contains an interesting collection of antique Japanese porcelain. The library and garden room overlook a charming garden with a huge tree that towers over the house and is especially lit for special occasions.

The dining room, butler's pantry and kitchen, all rooms of ample dimensions, have unique storage and service features.

The Early American home of Mrs. William J. Champion, Jr., in Lakeview avenue, (that's just down the street from the Danaher house: a two-for-one stop for tourists), is a year old, built on three levels with open planning for a spacious feeling.

A greenhouse opens off the country kitchen which, like the hallway, features oak plank flooring. Some rooms are furnished mainly with English antiques, others with antique pine pieces from the portrait over the living room mantel is of George Champion, who was a missionary to the Zulus.

Program Focus is Legislation

The Legislative Study Group of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women will present Dr. Helen Graves, speaking on "Women's Legal and Legislative Demands in 1976," Wednesday evening, October 6, at 8 o'clock, in the Yorkshire road home of Ruby Adams and Grace Harrison.

Co-hosting the meeting will be Suzanne Suski.

Among the topics Dr. Graves will touch on is ERA, (the Equal Rights Amendment), a top priority item at the national AAUW convention in Seattle.

Four more states must ratify ERA during their legislatures' 1977 sessions before it can become law. Eight key unratified ERA states are Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Florida, North Carolina, Nevada, Oklahoma and Arizona.

The month of October, 1976, has been proclaimed Equality Month.

ERA proponents claim the amendment will assure equal rights for women.

Dr. Graves also will discuss the Real Estate Settlement and Procedures Act adopted this summer by the United States Congress. This act is designed to assist Americans on the move by enabling them to find the

Miss Motter Says Vows to Mr. Hunt

Noon Wedding Is Followed by Reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; Pair Are Vacationing in California

Setting for the wedding of Carol Louise Motter and Jeffrey Lee Hunt Saturday, September 18, was Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. The Reverend Hector J. Saulino presided at the noon ceremony.

After a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the newlyweds left to vacation at Bermuda Dunes, Calif. They will be making their home in Westfield, O.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Charles S. Motter, of East Ballantyne court, and the late Mr. Motter, was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas B. Motter.

Beaded, re-embroidered Alencon lace appliques accented the bodice of the former Miss Motter's candlelight chiffon gown, styled with a rounded, scalloped neckline and long, full sleeves ending in deep, lace cuffs.

Her cathedral length train fell from a high yoke, and a beaded lace cap held her floor length mantilla, outlined in lace motifs.

She carried a cascade of cattleya with accents of yellow low static and stephanotis, framed in tropical foliage.

In lime green jersey frocks, fashioned with ruffled sleeves and high, tie necklines, were honor matron Mrs. Thomas H. Roth and bridesmaids Mary Fraser, Ann DiLoreto, Kathy Reynolds, Mrs. William Rowe, the bridegroom's sister, and Becky Sutherland.

They carried crescents of mid-century lilies, yellow static and tropical foliage. Junior bridesmaid Geneva Jahnke and flower girl Greta Jahnke, the bride's nieces, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Jahnke who came from Las Cruces, N.M., for the ceremony, wore Peter Pan-collared frocks of white dotted swiss, puff-sleeved and sashed with lime green grosgrain ribbons.

They carried smaller versions of the senior attendants' bouquets.

Mr. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim L. Hunt, of Ann Arbor, asked John Malacos to act as best man.

Tom Rabatin, Kim Peysner, John Tompkins, Doug Brand and George David seated the guests.

Mrs. Motter chose a long gown of mint green chiffon, styled with a rounded neck and long sleeves ending in deep ruffles, for her daughter's wedding. Yellow cymbidium orchids formed her wrist corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected raspberry organza with a harem border print, featuring long sleeves, a

Cookbook Is Selling Like Hotcakes

Pleased as punch that "The Happy Hostess Entertains" is selling like hotcakes are LINDA SHALAAAN, (left), and MARILYN WHEELER, chairman and co-chairman of the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center's newest cookbook, introduced to League members by their president, Jan Arndt, in mid-

September, at the League's annual fall luncheon at Lochmoor Club. Members and friends of the League share over 250 tested recipes in "The Happy Hostess Entertains." For details on who contributed what, and where you can get the book, check out this week's "From Another Pointe of View."

ship has been invited. The new Center will be officially dedicated, and guests will have an opportunity to tour the facility.

The Archives of American Art, affiliated with the Smithsonian Institution since 1970, preserves its original documents in Washington, with microfilm copies in regional centers.

It has assembled the world's largest collection of material documenting the history of the visual arts in America. Five million items of original source material are available on microfilm to scholars, students, writers and researchers in five regional centers, in Washington, New York, Boston, San Francisco — and now, Detroit.

The Archives is famous in Detroit for its original and highly successful fundraisers. Its "Evening with Santa" at the J. L. Hudson toy department has become a traditional opener to the holiday season. "Le Lundi Gras," the Archives' most glamorous benefit, (and a traditional sell-out), will be presented next February for the 17th consecutive year at the London Chop House.

The new Midwest Area Center will be hung with an exhibit of rare documents and photos. Among the artists represented will be Thomas Hart Benton, Winslow Homer, Benjamin West and Georgia O'Keefe.

There will also be a very special exhibit of drawings by 19th century American artist Elihu Vedder.

An open house has been scheduled from 10 to 4 o'clock Thursday, October 7, for the Michigan membership of the Archives and the Detroit Institute of Arts staff.

Installation Session Set

First English Lutheran Church Women will install officers at a meeting in the Church Lounge next Wednesday, October 6. Dessert and coffee will be served at 7:30 by Faith Circle, with the program following at 8 o'clock.

ing secretary, Mrs. Jack Schmid, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert Greer, financial secretary, and Mrs. David Nichols, treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Kvale, secretary of Education, has planned a Bicentennial skit, "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Participating will be the Mesdames Norman DuCoin, James Jobbitt, Larry Michaels, William Miller, Donald Mogk and Mrs. Nichols.

Plan Chrysanthemum Society Garden Tour

The Society will present its annual flower show the following Saturday and Sunday, October 9 and 10, at the Tel-Twelve Mall.

Tole Masters Host Meeting

Over 60 teachers and students of Toile and Decorative Painting from Michigan, Ohio and Canada will be attending a meeting and luncheon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this Saturday, October 2, starting at 10:30 o'clock.

Tole Masters of Michigan, a chapter of the National Society of Toile and Decorative Painters, is dedicated to the study of the decorative arts and the preservation of the techniques and methods employed in Early American painting, traditional Norwegian Rose maling and other folk arts.

Painter Sharon Stoeckel will be hosting the meeting and will give a demonstration of painting on fabric. Terry Pernicaro, of Rochester also will be a guest demonstrator.

Mrs. Stoeckel maintains a studio at the Grosse Pointe Academy in Lakeshore road. She teaches classes in Toile and Decorative painting at her studio and for the Grosse Pointe Community Services and St. Clair Shores Adult Education.

Scrimshaw... the Renaissance of an American Art Form

Scrimshaw is the centuries old craft of etching detailed nautical scenes as well as Indian, wild life and floral designs on "fossilized" ivory surfaces. The lines are defined with black or colored ink, while the fossilized ivory ranges in color from creamy white to dark brown. Set in sterling silver and 14K gold, the collection includes rings, pendants and bracelets, as shown above, priced from $15 to $1000

A complete demonstration by a "scrimshander" transforming the natural ivory into a work of art will be presented in Dearborn Thursday, September 30 and Friday and Saturday, October 1 and 2. The collections are also in Grosse Pointe and Birmingham.

A Taste of France

A cook is... a cook... is a cook... unless the cook is the legendary Simone (Simca) Beck, known to millions of Americans as Julia Child's French partner in the creation of the two-volume classic, "Mastering the Art of French Cooking."

Simca Beck is coming to town next month, to celebrate the fall release in paperback of "Simca's Cuisine," and to conduct an exclusive, two-hour lecture-demonstration Tuesday, October 19, at the Somerset Inn.

Michael James, Simca's protege and director of his own cooking school in San Francisco, will assist, along with Birmingham's Carol Worsley.

Simca's appearance is sponsored by the Meadow Brook Gallery Associates as a special project to raise exhibition funds for Oakland University's Meadow Brook Art Gallery.

Pointers Krysl Rollins and Anne Spivak are among committee members planning the event, which will include Simca's lecture-demonstration at 10 and a post-program luncheon at Somerset Mall's newest restaurant, Magic Pan.

Cut-off date for reservations, (due to a limited seating capacity, reservations must be filled on a first come, first served basis), is Tuesday, October 12.

Tickets for the demonstration and luncheon at $50 per person, ($45 tax deductible), may be obtained by sending checks to Mrs. Pat Nagay, reservations chairwoman, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan 48063.

Complimentary copies of the morning's recipes will be available. There'll be prizes, too—lecture-demonstration dishes, prepared by Simca, that will go home with members of her Somerset Inn audience.

A Cookbook Debuts

Mrs. Gerald Ford, Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, Mrs. Henry Kissinger, Mrs. George Romney and Mrs. William Milliken sent recipes.

Others came from The London Chop House, The Golden Lion, Little Harry's, The Old Place, King's Table and Causus Club. Benno's contributed a divine French menu. The Pointe Pedlar provided ingredients and instructions for a prize-winning crepe.

As for local celebrities... Sonny Elliot, Marilyn Turner, Pete Waldmeir, Carol Duval, Jerry Hodak, Bill Kennedy and J. P. McCarthy are among those sharing their kitchen secrets.

They're all a part of "The Happy Hostess Entertains," a unique collection of soup-to-nuts dishes assembled under nine categories: Brunch to Barbecue to Formal Dinner, (and everything possible, teatime sweets to cocktail "salties" in between).

Preview Launches Antiques at Austin

Three-Day Show to Raise Funds for Support and Expansion of School's Educational Programs; Thirty-Five Dealers Exhibiting

A champagne preview this evening, Thursday, September 30, will help launch the first of what is hoped to be an annual series of antique shows and sales at Austin Catholic Prep School.

The show will run Friday through Sunday, October 1 to 3, from 1 to 10 o'clock all three days.

The preview in the Austin gym will feature champagne and hors d'oeuvres plus a pre-showing of collectibles to be displayed and sold. Preview tickets are $10 per person. Formal dress is optional.

Thirty-five local and out-of-state dealers are exhibiting furniture, fine furnishings, clocks, jewelry and a wide assortment of in-betweens. Prices range from $5 to $10,000.

The show, sponsored by the collective clubs and organizations that work at raising funds for the school, will include a special rummage sale of donated "treasures" and a bake sale featuring items supplied by the Austin Mothers' Club.

Food and refreshments will be served in the cafeteria during show hours.

All items on display at the preview may be purchased during the preview. All proceeds go into the school's general fund, to support and expand Austin's educational programs.

General admission tickets are $1.50 if purchased in advance, $2 at the door. Advance ticket information may be obtained by calling co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Earl Antonelli, 884-0174, or Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mencotti, 521-6727.

Once you have decided to become a homeowner, you will possibly need a loan to finance the purchase of the house you like. Remember, of prime importance at the outset, both to you and to the prospective lender, is how much you can afford to pay for a home. To determine this, you will need to make a reasonable estimate of the income the family can realistically expect to receive. An estimate of your family's living costs and payments on other debts, as well as an estimate of total housing expense, including taxes, insurance, maintenance, and loan payments—these are important points for you to consider.

Before you buy a home or any other property come in and talk with the experts at GROSSE POINTE REAL ESTATE CO., 20087 Mack Ave., Grosse Pointe Woods, 882-0087. We will answer any questions you may have and then help you find the home of your dreams from our myriad of listings. If you are selling be sure and call us for the listing. "Exclusively in Grosse Pointe". Hours: Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Sun. noon-5 p.m., 24 hour answering service.
