HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 12
THE NATION and the Carter administration got the best economic news in months yesterday when the Labor Department announced a surprising drop in the unemployment rate to 6.4 percent in December. President Jimmy Carter called the drop, "Good news for the country," and indicated that he still wants a large tax cut this year to keep the recovery going. The drop shows that 480,000 persons who were out of work in November, when the percentage was 6.9, found work in December. This is the lowest unemployment level in more than three years.

Friday, January 13
WHOLESALE prices in 1977 doubled over those of 1976, reported the Labor Department yesterday. Mainly because of higher food costs, prices rose to 6.6 percent in 1977. The closing percent for December was 0.7. In addition, prices of food ready for the consumer rose by 1.5 percent in December, up from an 0.4 percent gain in November—the biggest one-month gain in seven months. The December rise triggered higher grocery bills especially for pork, poultry and vegetable oil products.

Saturday, January 14
SEN. ROBERT HUMPHREY died at his home last night in Waverly, Minn. He was 66. Sen. Humphrey's administrative assistant David Gartner told reporters gathered at the lakeside home that the senator died of cancer at 9:25 p.m. (10:25 p.m. Detroit time). Reportedly he died quietly in the sleep-like coma he had lapsed into earlier in the evening. Sen. Humphrey's wife of 41 years, Muriel, three sons and his daughter, were with him when he died. The senator's body was flown to Washington today, where he will lie in state in the rotunda of the Capitol.

Sunday, January 15
EGYPTIAN PRESIDENT Anwar Sadat, in a gloomy appraisal of Mideast peace efforts with Israel, said in an interview yesterday that he has "absolutely no hope" for an agreement on principles that could lead to a settlement. Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin responded to Mr. Sadat's comments by calling for a "cease-fire" on political statements. Mr. Sadat's statement came after a meeting with the Israeli negotiating team. As a result of the announced problems, U.S. Secretary of State Cyrus Vance postponed for at least 24 hours his trip to Jerusalem, where he was to attend the peace talks.

Monday, January 16
THE DALLAS COWBOYS won their second Super Bowl in six years yesterday when they defeated the Denver Broncos, 27-10. Denver's quarterback Craig Morton said, "Dallas seemed to know almost every play we were calling. I tried to audible, but they even read some of them." The Dallas Cowboys' defense, led by Harvey Martin and Randy White, sacked Morton three times in addition to forcing four interceptions. The 12th annual Super Bowl was played in New Orleans.

Tuesday, January 17
JAMES ROCHE and Lynn Townsend, co-chairmen of the Economic Growth Council of Detroit, asked yesterday for the elimination of the Detroit utilities tax and a lowering of the city's resident income tax to make Detroit more competitive in the business market. They also said the city could save millions annually by making the city's government operations more efficient and business-like.

School Officials Dedicate 'Paperback Palace'

Woods Holds Special Meeting to Hear Requests for Additional Permit on Jan. 23

By Roger A. Waha
A special council meeting to consider requests for a Class C liquor license in the Woods will be held Monday, January 23, at city hall, 20025 Mack avenue, at 7:30 p.m. This date was set by the council at its November 21 meeting in order to give all interested parties the opportunity to present their case on the issuance of one additional license in the city.

This action was taken based upon a November 8 vote of citizens supporting a ballot proposition, by a 2,937 to 960 margin, favoring the adoption of an ordinance amending a title of the city code.

Time Limit Set
This provides that the council may approve or signify its approval of the issuance of one additional license in the community.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen indicated last week that five different businesses are expected to have representatives make presentations before the council. Each will have a 15-minute time limit.

All establishments scheduled to be represented are located in Mack avenue. They include Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, Jack Degriek; daEdoardo Restaurant, (formerly Little Caesar's), Edward Barbieri; Carmen's Family Restaurant, Tony Ferlito; Cafe Francaise.

No Pedestrian Fatality Occurs in GP Woods For 20th Straight Year

Public Safety Also Reports 11.71 Percent Decline In Accidents, Traffic Safety Officer Reviews Year, Plans for 1978

By Roger A. Waha
The traffic safety picture in The Woods remained decidedly bright in 1977 as the community for the 20th straight year didn't have a pedestrian fatality, while total reported accidents fell 11.71 percent from 333 in 1976 to 294 in 1977. At the same time, reported pedestrian injuries dropped from five two years ago to three last year.

Whereas the city had one fatal accident in 1976, it had none last year. Non-fatal mishaps totaled 72 for each year, while property damage accidents fell from 260 in 1976 to 222 in 1977.

Obviously pleased with these figures, Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook viewed the drop in accidents by "getting back to the basics"—engineering, enforcement and education.

Feeling Great
On engineering, he said the department spent a lot of time in the area of resigning with extra attention being given to the Brys drive area which, despite the heavy volume of traffic and accident potential, has had only 11 reported accidents since 1971.

In eyeing enforcement, Officer Crook cited the work of the road patrol, and in education, he felt the big push toward "buckling up" while driving played an important role, too, in the accident stats.

Coming off its 11th consecutive American Automobile Ass'n. (AAA), Award of Excellence for pedestrian safety in the 10,000 to 25,000 population class in 1976, The Woods is a good bet to receive another AAA honor for its record last year.

(The city also has won four first place Grand Awards in pedestrian safety over the last 12 years.)

In citing the number of past awards the community has earned, Officer Crook said receiving the Award of Excellence, with five pedestrian injuries in 1976, was an honor. Now, we have had a decline to three injuries last year—this makes us feel great, he said.

Primary Focus
"You feel good when you win an award in competition with all other cities across the country, (in the specific category)," he stated, while adding, "We don't take these awards lightly."

In appreciation, he cited the work of the children, schools, parents and the media. "There are many people involved, more than just one local police department toward the reduction in pedestrian injuries. It's a team effort," he said.

In assessing 1977, Officer Crook recalled, "One of the big plans emphasized, there's no getting around it, was in pedestrian safety, child safety classes are dropped."

Students Try To Bolster Honors Plan

North High Young People Present Idea to School Board, But Support Appears Slim

By Susan McDonald
As enrollment has dropped in recent years at Pointe high schools, a good part of the honors program has gone, too. But a group of students from North High, where all honors English and science classes were discontinued, have an idea they think will help bolster the program.

Armed with petitions signed by 208 students and a few staff members, the students presented their plan to the Board of Education at its Monday, January 9, meeting.

They propose giving students one extra honor point for every 10-hour, (full semester), honors or accelerated course taken.

Seeks Improvement
In effect, the plan would boost students' grades in honors classes by a full mark, from an earned B to an A, for instance, before they are figured into the overall grade point average.

Students' spokesman Bill Cobau said the extra point will encourage students to enroll in honors classes and will make the program more fair to those who do.

"We're striving for improvement of the honors programs," he told the Board. "It's getting smaller every year, fewer and fewer kids are enrolling and eventually classes are dropped."

The students say their classmates won't enroll in the rougher classes because they're worried their grade point average will suffer and hurt their chances for college scholarships.

"Right now, you're penalized for learning more," he said.

Unpopular View
The School Board promised to look into the matter and discuss it again at its February meeting, but there doesn't seem to be much support for the plan among school administrators.

"My view isn't popular with the students, but in the last analysis I don't think their idea works," said Director of Secondary Education Robert Welch.

"These classes should be their own reward. You have a fortunate set of students who can go into more depth on a subject and be present with more challenges. Actually there isn't any more (Continued on Page 4)

Problems with Police Vehicles Eyed in Woods

Five of Seven Patrol Cars Not in Use As of Tuesday Morning, January 17; Officials Say Catalytic Converters Appear to Be Main Culprit, Also Cite Inability to Obtain Parts

By Roger A. Waha
Ever since the delivery of seven 1977 Dodge Monacos for the public safety department early last year, the city has had problems with the vehicles, said Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who added, "We can't keep them running."

The council at its regular meeting Monday, January 16, expressed concern over this situation in light of the fact that four of the seven marked vehicles have recently been out of service, with two autos out for repairs since late December.

Then, on Tuesday morning, January 17, Mr. Petersen reported another car went out of service.

Streets Still Patrolled
He indicated the primary nature of the problem revolves around catalytic converters, and the inability of the city to obtain replacement parts. "Chrysler in its Detroit Parts Depot has no can't get starters, springs or PCV valves," he said.

Mr. Petersen added the cars have been out intermittently since they were originally received but the problem has accelerated since the first of the year.

Despite the circumstances, both Mr. Petersen and Det. Lt. Jack Patterson said there's no public safety problem for the community as other city vehicles and prep radios are being utilized by departmental officers. "Our streets are being patrolled," said Mr. Petersen.

Lt. Patterson, meanwhile, acknowledged this fact, while noting, "Our problem is not being able to put as many marked cars on the road (as we would like). They are the ones which help prevent crime because of their visibility."

To Renew Situation
In exploring this situation, Councilman George Custer asked City Attorney George Catlin if the municipality had any grounds for a lawsuit against Chrysler because the corporation is allegedly depriving the city of the vehicles because of a lack of parts.

Mr. Catlin said he will investigate this entire matter and present some guidelines for the council's consideration at the Monday, February 6, meeting. He also indicated there was a possibility that this situation might be rectified without litigation.

GPF Citizens May Get Wall to Slow Traffic

By Wendy K. Settle
There is a strong possibility that the residents of Belanger road will get the wall they wanted built at the end of their street after requesting it last November toward curbing traffic flow.

Through the creation of a special assessment district to finance the wall, each resident will be required to pay The Farms an average of $280 per lot in three installments. The commercial businesses affected will pay an average of between $148 to $653 per lot.

The Farms Council at its regular meeting on Monday, January 16, heard the comments of the Belanger residents and set a public hearing to further discuss the proposal for February 20.

Woods, Park Hear Pleas On Proposal

Refuse Disposal Authority Seeks Approval of All Eight Community Members for $1.2 Million Plan

By James J. Njaim and Roger A. Waha

Both the Woods and Park Councils gave their approval to the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority to issue $1.2 million in bonds, $300,000 for a new stack and $300,000 for land acquisition for land fill, at Monday, January 9, meetings.

After around a hour long discussion, the Woods Council unanimously approved the bond issue with such support being conditioned upon the authority securing the necessary engineering studies and tests so the council can be assured of the proper stack height toward correcting conditions of odor and nuisance caused by the downward flow of smoke plume.

Meanwhile, the Park Council gave its consent to the bond issue by a narrow 4-3 vote. Voting affirmatively were Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and Councilmen Douglas G. Graham, George Verdonck and Charles S. Tompkins, (reluctantly).

Present Views
Nixing the motion were Councilmen Dr. Roger F. McNeill and Clayton Alandt and Councilwoman Ann McDonald.

The incinerator plant, which serves the five Pointes, Harper Woods, Mount Clemens and Clinton Township, all of whom comprise the authority, is located in Lipke road, between Fourteen and Quin roads, Clinton Township. All eight communities have to give their blessing to the bond issue, it was said.

The bond will be paid through assessment of one dollar to each and above the cost to the community, according to population, i.e., one dollar for each resident residing in the community per year.

Present at both meetings to present the views of the authority, and explain the reason for the bond issue, were Edwin T. Hoover, general manager.

Survey Started To Stop Crime

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber is planning to conduct a crime prevention survey in the Merriweather road area to help residents eliminate what they can do to eliminate possible crimes.

Chief Ferber has made up a questionnaire and suggestion sheet which will be circulated among the residents. It will then be evaluated by the chief.

"The area around Merriweather road is our test area," Chief Ferber said. "We're shooting for 100 percent compliance. If the test area proves successful, we'll try to get it. (the program), budgeted to survey all the homes in The Farms."

The chief noted that it would take "a few months" to complete the survey and at least a year of observance to see if the proposed community-wide plan is worthwhile.

The home crime prevention plan was discussed by Chief Ferber, Municipal Judge Robert Pytell and Farms Det. Earl Pytel at a neighborhood meeting of Merriweather road residents on Wednesday, January 11.

Meeting at one citizen's home, the residents shared their ideas on crime prevention with the city officials. Chief Ferber's circular gives the residents information on how to conduct a home security inspection. The questions and suggestions deal with specifics like locks, windows and garages. Two Woods police officers, trained in home security, will be assisting in the survey.

Efforts of Parents to Save Austin Paying Dividends

By Susan McDonald
As their deadline approaches, January 31, headline approaches, parents on the committee to save Austin Prep are feeling a "little jumpy" but confident they'll be able to keep the school's doors open next fall.

Though nothing is final yet, spokesman C. Bradford Lundy said a budget and organizational plan have been developed to keep the 25-year-old Catholic boy's school operating for several years to come.

All that's needed to make it official is approval from the Augustinian Provincial Council which will gather in Chicago, Ill., to decide on the matter within a few weeks. The council announced last October it would close Austin

Family Fun Night Slated

The Neighborhood Club and the Department of Community Services have scheduled a Family Fun Night Friday, January 20, at North High School.

Activities will be scheduled from 7 to 9:30 p.m. There will be basketball, ping pong, swimming, trampolining, tumbling and volleyball for all age groups, and crafts and movies for younger children.

The activity is open to all residents of the Grosse Pointe School District. There is a charge of $2 per family or $1 per individual. Cost for crafts is 50 cents.

Children must be at least three years of age to participate, and those 16 and under must be accompanied by at least one adult.

Woods, Park Approve Authority Bond Issue

The authority has been directed by the State of Michigan to construct the stack, placed at this time at 200 feet, because of complaints from Clinton residents and citizens living in surrounding areas over the odors emanating from the plant almost daily, and because of the fly ash from the present two 100-foot stacks.

Once the new stack is completed and in use, the two older stacks will no longer be in use except in emergencies.

The authority is complying with the state directive because it wishes to maintain a good working relationship with the state and because it wishes to maintain positive relations with area citizens.

Mr. Hoover said all eight members of the authority have been approached regarding the bond issue, with five of the councils giving their go-ahead for the purchase of the bonds.

He has not yet personally appeared before the councils of The City, Shores and Harper Woods, but said he has been informed by the representatives of these cities, who are on the authority's board of directors, that there will be no opposition.

However, continued Mr. Hoover, although he has not been requested to appear before the three councils to answer any questions they may have in the matter, he is available and willing to come before them.

He said the authority is moving along as fast as it can, and once the bond issue has been cleared by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing, the bonds will be sold.

Then, there must be the necessary engineering work which must be done, architectural drawings made and bids sent out. Once received, the bids must be inspected by the engineers.

An important factor, Mr. Hoover stressed, is the weather, which must be suitable before construction of the new stack can start. The stack, which will be 11 feet in diameter inside and about 13 feet in diameter outside at its base, should take approximately three months to build and be placed into operation.

He said that every effort is being made to comply with the directive issued by the DNR, (Department of Natural Resources), to build the stack and to retain the good will of the residents surrounding the area of the incinerator plant.

The plant was constructed and completed in 1972 at a cost of $3.5 million. The initial cost to the member communities to burn refuse was $10 a ton and through the years has been gradually increased so that this year the cost is $14.25 a ton, an increase of eight percent.

The incinerator plant is in operation 24 hours a day, except weekends, when everything is turned off. To start the incinerator up again, it requires at least five hours before refuse is delivered on Monday, before burning operations begin.

The plant is burning approximately 500 tons of refuse daily, which is good according to national scale for a plant of this size. New members or members are being sought so that the plant can be operated at its full capacity.

As a non-profit organization, the authority operates in a way that the cost of burning is governed by such matters as wage increases, purchase of necessary parts when needed, electricity, et al. If there is a surplus of cash at the end of the fiscal year, this is distributed to the members, according to their fair share.

On the acquisition of a land fill for the ash, if no land can be found, the authority will continue using a private land fill, where ash is presently being deposited.

The authority is seeking a land fill adequate enough to be used for a good number of years. And if no land can be purchased for this purpose, the bond issue will be held to only the cost of constructing the needed stack.

When the plant was constructed, it was thought that the 100-foot stacks, which were built at that height for economic reasons, would be adequate to do the job.

There are about 4,000 residents in the area that are affected regarding the odor and ash coming from the plant. This problem must now be eliminated and the only way this can be done is by building the new stack so that the plume will dissipate at a higher level.

The state presently has two suits pending in court against the authority because of the odor and emission problem. These suits might eventually end up before the DNR and the Environmental Protection Agency commission. The law requires that a public hearing be held to receive comments from citizens effected by the problem.

At The Woods meeting, a main concern was cited by Councilman George Cueter who asked what if the authority learns that the stack may not be adequate at a height of 200 feet. "Why start a project without knowing what the true height of the stack should be?" he asked.

He wanted reassurances that a proper engineering study and necessary tests would ensue before a specific height is determined, with such information being available to the council.

An initial study already has transpired and Mr. Hoover told the solons a model study would be conducted before final recommendations from the engineers regarding stack height.

In relation to this, Councilman George S. Freeman said he was bothered by overall cost uncertainties at this time.

Citizens May Get Wall

The memo states that the estimated cost of the wall, (which would run along the Mack avenue alley from the post office to the back property of the home at the corner of Kerby and Belanger), would be $7,970.

Because the wall would block off Belanger from the alley, the city realized that a "T" turnaround would have to be built at the end of the street. The memo noted the estimated cost for this would be $8,041.50.

The residents and businesses will only have to pay for the building of the wall. The cost of the "T" turnaround will be covered by the city with funds from the public improvement reserve.

The reason for the building of the wall is to cut down on the traffic in Belanger road. The citizens cited the huge amount of traffic at all hours of the night generated by the taverns in Mack avenue. They also talked about the safety of their children, excessive noise and speeding cars.

Council members, sympathetic toward the inconveniences which the residents have endured, expressed a positive approach to the building of the wall.

There were no representatives from the businesses involved at the council meeting but Piper's Alley, the major business affected, has sent a letter of credit for $1,700 to the city as its share of the special assessment district.

So, it looks like sometime this spring that construction will begin. And as the result of organized citizen action, the traffic generated by the Mack avenue businesses will be restricted to using Mack avenue and the Mack avenue alley.

It was noted at the meeting that one of the cars picked up from the dealership only made it two blocks before breaking down. This situation was further viewed when Lt. Petterson said, "We get the cars back from the Dodge dealership no better than when we took them in."

At the same time, all seven vehicles are up for replacement this year and Mr. Peterson is scheduled to prepare new specifications for the bidding on such autos.

Park Eyes Three-Year
 Block Grant Projects

By James J. Njaim
 The Park might be eligible for funds of between $100,000 to $120,000 in 1978, 1979 and 1980 under the Wayne County Community Development Block Grant Program, funded by the federal government, according to information given the Park Council in Monday, January 9, by City Manager Robert A. Slone.

One of the qualifications is that the council must hold a public hearing to review specific projects for which funds will be requested. At the hearing, citizens may comment on the best use for the grants.

The council then called a public hearing for Monday, January 23, on the recommendation of Mr. Slone.

Mr. Slone said the area which will qualify for the 1978 grant is bounded by Devonshire, Wayburn, Jefferson and Mack.

Invited to the January 23 hearing are individuals, neighborhood groups and/or private non-profit corporations, who are expected to offer their comments and suggestions.

The hearing will be held in the council-courtroom chambers of the municipal building, 15115 East Jefferson avenue, at 5:30 p.m.

According to this year's program funding application recommendations, prepared by John Stevens and Associates, Inc., The Park's architects, engineers and planners, the approved projects must show that they will benefit either directly or indirectly low, ($10,000), and moderate, ($14,600), income families.

At Monday night's meeting, the council designated the Planning Commission as the formal citizen's advisory group for the program.

Between Tuesday, January 10, through Friday, January 20, the firm will prepare application information cost data, and support documentation for the projects given top priority by the council. Alternative projects can be suggested and submitted. The application requires a comprehensive three-year program of proposed activities.

The deadline for submission of the application is Wednesday, February 15.

Between Tuesday, January 24, and Wednesday, February 1, the firm will work with Park officials to develop and revise required statements of requested projects, dollar amounts and priorities, and confirm with the Wayne County any county-wide priority on project types.

In a report submitted to the council Monday night, previous years projects were listed as alley relocation south of Jefferson, street paving north of Jefferson, sidewalk replacements and wheelchair curb ramps, acquisition of land for open space parking and construction of a parking lot in Mack avenue, near Maryland.

To Demonstrate CPR Technique

Eugene Boyle, MD, chief of anesthesiology at Saint John Hospital, will demonstrate cardiopulmonary resuscitation, (CPR), to members and guests of the Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe at the council's general meeting on Monday, January 23.

It will be held in the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue at 1 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Barriers to Stay for 3 Weeks

By Roger A. Waha
 The barricades blocking the Brys drive-Roslyn road crossovers on Mack avenue will probably not come down for another three weeks, reported Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen on Monday, January 16.

As a result, the four signs approved for placement in the immediate area by the council on Monday, January 9, will not be put up. "They, (the Wayne County Road Commission), will not let us put up the necessary signs because it's their right-of-way," i.e., Mack avenue, he said.

The commission, he added, will be responsible for removing the barriers and placing the signs.

On the 9th, the council, after an estimated 25 citizens, including many area merchants, shared their concerns over traffic safety problems and the reported loss of business suffered by area establishments, voted to remove the barricades.

In their place, two "right turn only" signs would be installed on Brys and Roslyn for eastbound traffic and two "left turn only" signs would be placed on the medians at Brys and Roslyn affecting westbound traffic.

Both the barricades and now the signs are considered temporary measures toward alleviating the heavy volume of traffic which uses Brys drive. At the same time, the signs, it was felt, would help ease the conditions expressed by the citizens opposing the barricades.

At the same time, the council asked Mr. Petersen to seek input and specifics from planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers on this question, and to obtain traffic counts on Brys and Old Eight Mile road. This subject also is scheduled to be considered on the Monday, February 6, council agenda.

In a related matter, Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook said last week he has been requested to explore the feasibility of utilizing "no right turn" signs from 6 to 9 a.m. for southbound Mack traffic turning right onto Brys and Roslyn.

Saint John Programs

Help Aging

Within the next year, Saint John Hospital Home Care Offices may be established at the hospital and at a proposed Ambulatory Care Center and Emergency Services Satellite, (ACCESS), at Masonic boulevard and I-94, St. Clair Shores.

In addition to Home Care Programs, Mr. Staub's major responsibility will be to research and plan the development of a Life Care Community.

A Life Care Community is a complete residential and environmental program which is specifically designed to enable aging individuals and couples to continue an active lifestyle in the community. It is similar to some of the retirement communities located in other parts of the country.

However, it contains the added ingredient of a health services and rehabilitation program which would include such services as home care nursing, physical and occupational therapy, pharmaceutical, and skilled and intermediate nursing home services.

Says Need Exists
 Planning studies at Saint John Hospital indicate that the five Pointes, the eastern portion of Detroit, Harper Woods, East Detroit and St. Clair Shores have more than twice as many individuals 65 years and over as does the average community in Michigan.

Therefore, it is the hospital's preliminary conclusion that a real need exists for a Life Care Community.

Saint John Hospital has two major health care interests in this area. One is that some home environments are inadequate for patients to return to after hospitalization. Sometimes a home is too large to maintain after hospitalization.

In other instances, individuals may need assistance in preparing meals or other aspects of daily living.

In a third example, an individual's husband or wife may need to be cared for in a nursing home — the Life Care Community would make it possible for this couple to continue to remain together, whereas most existing situations force the couple to be separated during a nursing home stay.

Needs Recognized

This project is in the very early formative stages. Mr. Staub's responsibility will be to organize and support the project and develop a specific plan in order to test the feasibility of Saint John Hospital's sponsorship of such a program.

Mr. Staub says, "We recognize the developing health care needs of our community present unique challenges which must be faced. Saint John Hospital, as one of the most respected hospitals in the state, is preparing to meet these challenges."

Mr. Staub is a native Detroit and was graduated from the University of Detroit. He and his wife, Justine, have four daughters, Heidi, Kristine, Johanna and Katrina. They make their home in Fisher road, Grosse Pointe.

Prior to his appointment to the new post, Mr. Staub was the chief executive officer and member of the board of trustees at Alexander Hospital for 11 years. He was an assistant administrator at Saint John from 1964 to 1967.

Save Austin

In fact, Mr. Lundy said the school lost less students this year than it has for the past several years. Enrollment has been dropping by about 30 students a year for the past six years. There are now 406 boys attending.

Details of the new organization are being worked out with the aid of attorney Charles Bayer, who helped organize the Academy of the Sacred Heart's transition into the Grosse Pointe Academy, (also run by a lay board), several years ago. Tuition will be increased from $790 to $1,000 next year according to the plans. Mr. Lundy maintains that's still at least $200 lower than any other Catholic high school in Detroit.

Religious education will continue after the transition, although the teaching jobs may be filled by personnel from orders other than the Augustinians.

The Detroit Catholic Archdiocese has offered the parents their full support, according to Mr. Lundy, and will assist them in locating Catholic personnel to fill in for the Augustinians.

The new board of directors hopes to lease, not buy, the Austin building, located at 18300 East Warren avenue. The Provincial Council plans to hold on to the lucrative land which surrounds the school. A hockey rink, tennis club and auto dealership are located on it.

The Augustinians also operate a school in Tulsa, Okla., and two in Chicago.

RUNS FOR SAFETY

The collared lizard, which normally crawls on four legs, often escapes from its worst enemy, the roadrunner, by rising up and running on its hind legs only, according to "Ranger Rick's" nature magazine for children. If the roadrunner bites off its tail, the lizard grows another in a few months.

No Pedestrian Fatality

(Continued from Page 1) and the Emergency 'E' program, and getting everyone involved in that responsibility toward keeping an ongoing program."

Noting the schools and parents have been very responsive, he said the entire concept is all part of "walking safely" with a final emphasis upon the "E" plan—which is to be used, if necessary, 365 days a year.

At this time, Officer Crook said there were an estimated 250 red "E" cards out in the community, around 50 per elementary school area including Barnes, Mason, Ferry, Monteith and Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Area of Concern
 In reviewing last year's figures, the officer indicated his concern over the rise in bicycle-motor vehicle accidents which climbed from five two years ago to 11 in 1977.

With an emphasis upon enforcement and education, Officer Crook hopes to resume the department's bicycle safety school started last year toward dropping such reports to zero.

The school was begun for those youngsters receiving bicycle safety violations from the department. While starting slowly, he said there was an increase in interest and participation with three such schools being held.

Only three people attended the first meeting at the height of summer vacation period but 10 participated in a later session.

While the school is basically directed to children receiving violations, Officer Crook stated any interested youngster is welcome to attend.

More Injured

In another area, while total accidents were down in 1977, more citizens were injured in the mishaps last year, (106), than in the previous year, (88). He said the reason for this is because in certain accidents, a vehicle was probably carrying several passengers, all of whom might have been hurt in some degree.

This year, Officer Crook said he plans to spend "a great deal of time in the schools on pedestrian, bicycle and fire safety," (with a focus upon smoke detectors). The "E" program also will receive attention on a continuing basis.

On fire safety, he noted that after the fatal fire which claimed the lives of a mother and her two daughters in September, "the kids have been anxious on what to do, what to do." In response, the officer plans on discussing measures toward preventing fires.

He invited any organization to contact him at public safety headquarters, 886-2700, regarding speaking engagements on the aforementioned programs.

Honors Plan

The enrollment drop at North High has made many honors classes economically impossible, Mr. Welch explained. This year, the school is offering advanced math, history and foreign language only.

Eyes Long Run
 Mr. Welch doesn't think the students' plan would help increase enrollment in the program.

"In the long run I don't think it would encourage more students to enroll. And those who would be encouraged would be there for the wrong reasons — just to get more points."

Besides being more interesting and challenging, Mr. Welch said the honors classes prepare students for the standardized placements test in college and may save them hundreds of dollars in tuition.

YSD Supports Cawthorne Bill Eying Juvenile Code

Proposed revisions of the State of Michigan Juvenile Code have been reduced to two major legislative camps, which support conflicting bills, says the Youth Services Division, (YSD), in its December 1977 monthly report.

For its part, by general consensus of the division's detectives, the YSD favors the proposal of House Republican Leader Dennis O. Cawthorne, (Manistee), which proposes a variety of changes, including incarceration for violent offenders, while opposing the removal of the "status" offenses, e.g., school truants, runaways, incorrigible juveniles and curfew violators, from jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

The other bill before legislators from Rep. Lynn Jondahl, (D-East Lansing), proposes drastic revisions of the present system, the most controversial change being the removal of juvenile court jurisdiction over "status" offenses, notes the division.

"Mr. Cawthorne's bill is supported by a number of Michigan probate judges, who formed an ad hoc committee and proposed substitute revisions to the code. In out-going opposition to (Rep.) Jondahl's stand on 'status' offenses, the committee sub-

Picture Aids GPW Police

"If it wasn't for the picture, we would have had nothing to go on," commented Woods Det. Thomas Podeszwick last week regarding a photograph published in the December 15 edition of the NEWS of a larceny suspect.

As it turned out, the suspect gave himself up and a warrant charging him with larceny under a city ordinance has been approved by City Attorney George Catlin.

The defendant, an 18-year-old Lothrop road youth who's a senior at South High School, is now scheduled to appear in court on Wednesday, January 25.

He's allegedly involved in obtaining paper currency at Manufacturer's National Bank, Mack-Lochmoor branch, last November in exchange for 12 rolls of $10 quarter wrappers. They were later discovered to contain a minimum of two quarters and a maximum of metal washers.

The picture, supplied by the department, was taken by the bank's video equipment.

Det. Podeszwick said the youth gave himself up after he was told by students that he resembled the suspect in the picture.

Through the department's subsequent investigation, we were able to make a positive identification of the subject, he said. As part of the investigation, he noted the department did receive some information via anonymous telephone calls.

Since the youth turned himself in, the detective said evidence from the Michigan State Police crime lab, i.e., fingerprints and handwriting samples, confirmed the youth's identification.

"After being interviewed and becoming aware of the information the department had, he admitted his involvement," said Det. Podeszwick.

ULS Players Do 'Godspell'

The University Liggett Players will present a benefit performance of "Godspell" on Saturday, February 4, at the school, 1045 Cook road, at 8:30 p.m. Proceeds from the performance will go to the University Foreign Exchange Program.

Patron tickets are available at $12.50 and include a dinner at 6:30 p.m. General admission is $5 and includes an international dessert and coffee at 7:30 p.m. Valet parking also is available.

Tickets may be ordered from University Liggett School, (ULS), and checks should be made payable to the ULS Foreign Exchange Program. For further information contact Mrs. Richard Doerer at 882-3218.

"Godspell" is a light hearted musical based on the Gospel according to Saint Matthew. University Liggett students from various music groups will form an ensemble to accompany the actors. The music and free-form nature of the play present a challenge for those involved in the production. Chuck Gifford is the director.

Other performances will be on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, January 27, 28 and 29, and Friday, February 3, at 8:30 p.m. A Sunday matinee is at 2 p.m. Tickets are available at the door or by calling the school at 884-4444.

Foreign Exchange students currently attending University Liggett are Jennifer Tebbis from New Zealand and Graham Bullen from South Africa.

mitted a petition to citizens of the state . . . to be forwarded to Gov. Milliken and the state legislators.

"(They stated) they were appalled by the recommendations of the Juvenile Justice Services Commission which would permit our children to decide for themselves whether they should attend school, leave home or seek shelter in publicly funded 'runaway homes.'

"The governor and the legislators were urged to repudiate these recommendations in that they are destructive to family life and depreciate society's commitment to a literate citizenry," continues the YSD.

In viewing the pair of bills, YSD Det. Patrick Fagan said, "We consistently discuss these things within the office when they come to our attention."

The reasons why the division completely concurred with Mr. Cawthorne's bill with respect to "status" offenses were "a culmination of things mutually agreed upon," he noted.

Three reasons were cited by the YSD in its report including the following:

- We believe that alternative training should be provided juveniles who are unable to profit from continued academic study.
- Rather than give up on those juveniles, permitting them to drift into the sub-level job market, society should provide mandatory trade training which would enable the youth to enter adult life with a wage earning skill.
- We believe that removal of legal control of juveniles with respect to parental control, (incorrigibility), social control, (curfew and truancy), will result in a substantial increase in crimes committed by teenagers, leading to an increase in crimes committed by them as adults.
- Teenagers are not experienced enough in living to make good decisions regarding their own future needs. Guidance is crucial at this time, and the removal of it is no kindness to the youngster.

C Licenses

 Charles Moraco; and Gabby's Restaurant, Alex Bardy.

After the presentations are concluded, the council is expected to make a decision as to which business will receive the license. If each business license is issued at all. Prior to the meeting, the solons will have background information on all businesses.

The community currently has three Class C licensed establishments, (Nightingale Lojange, Lochmoor Lounge and the Grosse Pointe Woods Bar, all in Mack avenue), and the council has the authority to approve the issuance of a fourth license. Up to 15 licenses could be issued pending council approval.

The Ballot C question was on the call due to the successful initiatory petition drive conducted by Mr. Degriek, who has said he hoped he would receive such a license toward thwarting gradually falling profits, a loss of leagues and the possibility that his business would have to be sold within five years.

Middle School Test Set at UL

The University Liggett, (UL), Middle School, (grades six through eight), 850 Briarcliff drive, will hold admissions testing on Saturday, February 4, at 8:30 a.m.

University Liggett School is Michigan's oldest independent day school for boys and girls in pre-kindergarten through grade 12.

The Middle School offers a wide variety of academically challenging courses and an extra curriculum activity program, including an outing club, drama group and several musical groups.

For further information regarding curriculum, interviews and financial aid, and to register for the testing, call Toby David, admissions officer, at 886-4220.

GP Park Okays Cab Fare Hike

Any citizen electing to ride by cab in The Park, or from the Community to any destination, will pay a little more money for cab fare.

The Park Council on Monday, January 9, gave its approval for an increase in fares to two firms operating cabs within the city limits.

Given the go ahead were John Case, owner of the East-Side Cab Co., and Timothy Theodore, owner of Radio East Cab Co., who petitioned the council for the hike to make the fares compatible to those granted cab firms operating in Detroit by the Detroit Common Council.

The East Side Cab Co. operates 10 cabs in The Park, while Radio East Cab Co. operates 15, it was brought out at the hearing.

Riders will now be charged 90 cents on the flag throw, and 10 cents for each additional one-eighth mile or fraction thereof. Waiting time will still be $6 an hour.

The old rate was 70 cents on the flag throw, and 10 cents for each one-seventh of a mile or fraction thereof.

The fare increase is the first since 1975. City Manager Robert A. Stone informed the council. The vote granting the hike was unanimous.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN

NOTICE OF HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kercheval Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on Monday, February 6, 1978 at 8:00 p.m. to hear the appeal of Messrs. Larry Lyman and Chris Jaszczak of the Punch and Judy Theatre, located at 21 Kercheval Avenue in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. Such theatre is located in a Local Business District (B-1). As such classification does not specifically permit the land and/or structures in such a district to be used as a theatre, the Punch and Judy is a legal non-conforming use. Messrs. Lyman and Jaszczak have requested that the Zoning Board of Appeals determine that the zoning of live performances on the premises is equally appropriate to the present and existing use of this property, which is the showing of motion pictures. In the alternative, if the Zoning Board of Appeals does not find as stated above, Messrs. Lyman and Jaszczak have requested that it grant a variance from the provisions of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms Zoning Ordinance which would permit the presentation of live performances at the Punch and Judy Theatre.

The hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Richard G. Solak
 City Clerk and Secretary

Activities Set For Seniors

The Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, has expanded its travel program for senior citizens.

Three programs are now being offered. The first is a travel luncheon special wherein fine eating establishments are visited throughout the area on a weekly basis.

The second, a day trip program, has visited the Renaissance Center, Greek Town, Stroh's Brewery, Tiger baseball, Kellogg's, Frankenmuth, Cross-Roads Village, Fairlane Shopping Center, Belle Isle, Meadowbrook Hall and Theater and the University of Michigan.

Upcoming trips include a look at the Kelly and Company Morning Show today, January 19, and the Greenfield Village Dinner Theater on February 24.

Extended weekend trips also are offered. The March trip will be a Winter Wonderland tour of Canada's northland which will include a ride on the snow train through Agawa Canyon. May will find the group enjoying the Tulip Festival in Ottawa, Canada's capital.

Meanwhile, a new Arts and Crafts program on Thursdays at 1 p.m. at the Club is now being offered. Members of the Village Club have volunteered to instruct the class and they have many interesting ideas.

For further information concerning these activities, call the club at 885-4600.

Who Is Ann's Beau?

Who is this lucky young man who came to the Notre Dame High School sock-up in 1965 and found happiness in ANN MARGRET'S arms? Will he return? These and many more questions will be answered when the alumni sponsor a traditional sock-hop at the school, 20254 Kelly road, on Friday, January 27, at 8 p.m. Alumni, friends and former faculty members are invited. Tickets are $3.75 at the door.

Gardeners Set Meeting Today

For gardeners who can't wait until spring, the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe will begin its 1978 season with a program entitled "Gardening with Light."

The meeting will be held today, January 19, at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, at 8 p.m.

There will be a 15-minute, 16mm full color sound film from GTE Sylvania Inc. entitled "Gardening with Light."

Following the film, a panel of members Phil De Maire and Elmore Frank, with Harold Lee as moderator, will review the movie's highlights.

Both panelists have had great experience in this form of gardening and are enthusiastic about their results.

They also will discuss types of equipment and the most practical means of obtaining best results.

The program will conclude with an informative question and answer period. Guests are welcome.

Woods Hikes Meter Rates

Changes were made increasing three of seven categories of The Woods' long term, (all day), parking meter rates as the council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, January 9, unanimously approved the adjustments.

The affected categories include the following: five cents for a period of time up to one hour, (previously two hours), on certain parking meters designated for long term parking, 10 cents for up to two hours, (formerly four), and 50 cents, (previously 25 cents), for 10 hours.

In explaining the hike, the first since August 1968, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the council was of the opinion that the rates were too low, with some complaints being received from citizens over the holiday season.

Some residents, he said, felt there wasn't enough of a turnover because of the low rates. As it is, Mr. Petersen still felt the overall changes were on the low side.

The four other categories of rates, which remain the same, show one cent for six minutes, five cents for 30 minutes, 10 cents for one hour and two 10 cent coins or a combination of any of the aforementioned coins for two hours.

All money which is deposited must be U.S. coins.

The changes will become effective as soon as the city obtains the necessary conversion parts. A specific time span for the change-over, which will effect an estimated 150 meters, is an unknown factor at this time.

European Tour Set by Schools

The school system's next European study tour for high school-age students will be discussed at a special meeting for students and their parents Thursday, January 28.

The meeting will be held at North High School, 707 Vernier road, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 133.

Students may earn college or high school credits for their study of "Roots of Western Civilization" under the guidance of local teachers and resident instructors in Spain, Italy, Austria, France and England.

The trip is offered in cooperation with the American Institute for Foreign Study.

The group of more than 30 students will depart from Detroit on July 4 and return August 1. Cost, including transportation, hotels, meals, tips and insurance, is $1,495.

Local advisors are Bob Welch, Bob Bradley, Greg Heffner, Bill Taylor and Sheila Joyce, trip coordinator.

Applications must be returned by Wednesday, February 15, and the Thursday meeting will be the last general information session held this year.

For more information, call Ms. Joyce at South High, 884-3200.

GPF Narrows Arson Suspects

Farms police have reported a considerable reduction in the number of suspects in the arson cases. Two suspects remain on the list which originally consisted of 30 names. "Through investigation we've narrowed down the list to two suspects," said Police Chief Robert Ferber. "We've contacted those two individuals and requested that they take a polygraph, (lie detector), test." Both of the suspects have refused to take the test. Chief Ferber noted that the police can not force any suspect to take a polygraph. "The parents, in both cases, refuse to let their boys take

Rotary Club's Auction Party Set for Saturday

The Rotary Auction Party, the annual fund raiser of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, will be held on Saturday, January 21, at Jacobson's. The idea for the event was developed three years ago and each year it has grown in participation and enthusiasm for Rotarians and their guests. Members as well as many other local business people donate beautiful and useful items or services for auction. All proceeds from the evening are used to support community, youth and international service projects. The Grosse Pointe Rotary Foundation has disbursed over $130,000 during the past 11 years for such purposes as Elworthy Field, student college scholarships, aid to the Family Life Education Council, support for the Foundation for Exceptional Children, assistance for the local chapter of American Field Service, as well as total funding for the new Rotary "Vial of Life" program. The Grosse Pointe club was founded in 1937 and is one of 17,454 clubs in 152 countries with a total worldwide membership of 811,000. "Unite To Serve Mankind" is the theme for Rotarians throughout the world in 1978 and reflects the concept of men from different cultures and backgrounds united to encourage and foster the idea of service within their own communities as well as internationally. There are 106 members of the local club representing almost as many different business occupations. The club's weekly average attendance at meetings exceeds 85 percent and demonstrates the commitment of Rotarians to the ideal of service. W. Philip Ardussi is the general chairman of the auction party, while club president Carl Meyering will act as auctioneer. Others playing key roles in the program include Elton Turner, treasurer, Richard Marr, acquisitions chairman, Mark Valente, billing committee chairman, Rex Ciavola, program chairman, and Neil McCracken, hospitality chairman. The auction party isn't open to the public.

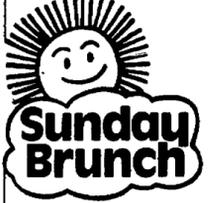

Suspects Face Circuit Court

Two men, who are charged with receiving and concealing stolen property over $100, were bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel last week. This action was taken at the Woods Municipal Court examination of Joseph Anthony Ruggero, 19, of St. Patrick, Detroit, and Christopher Kenneth Mongogna, 19, of Orchard, Warren, on Wednesday, January 11. Both suspects are charged in an incident in which three snowblowers were taken from garages of Fleetwood citizens on Wednesday, January 4. The pair were arrested after a watchful resident notified police after hearing someone run between the houses. He looked out his front window, spotted a van and subsequently saw someone place an object inside it. Upon the arrival of police, both suspects were found in the vehicle which contained the three snowblowers. Both Ruggero and Mongogna are scheduled to have a pre-trial hearing on Thursday, January 26.

Second Robbery Nets $7,500

The second robbery in less than a month occurred at Hughes and Hatcher, 18920 Mack avenue, on the evening of Monday, January 9. Twenty-five to 30 men's suits were stolen for an estimated loss of $7,500. The thieves gained entrance to the store by breaking a large window at the rear of the building. Farms police reporting to the scene found a hammer lying on the floor with shattered glass from the window. A similar robbery occurred at Hughes and Hatcher on December 14. The culprits in the December crime shattered the same window to enter the store and took approximately 60 men's suits. The robbers in the case were never apprehended. The possibility of arresting, or even finding, the thieves in this recent robbery is remote. "We can't get there fast enough because of the alarm system," Det. Earl Field said. "There's about a three minute delay from the time of entry to the time when we get the call because the system only alerts the alarm company and then the company calls us." Det. Field stated. "They, (Hughes and Hatcher), should have an intrusion alarm that rings directly into the police department." Two other suggestions Det. Field had to discourage future thefts were the installation of a non-breakable plastic glass window or metal screens inside the window to deter entry. "Since the last robbery in December," Det. Field said, "they've done nothing to change the situation. It's the same thing, Hughes and Hatcher says it's 'customer

Seeks Estimated Cost of Trips

A request from The Woods' city comptroller-assessor to attend the annual Municipal Officers Conference with expenses paid led to a brief discussion where all city officials would prepare expense estimates regarding future meetings. The bid of City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher for the May 14 conference in Houston, Tex., was approved by the council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, January 9, with Mr. Hornfisher noting the request was made early because the registration fee is now $100 but will be increased later to $150. When asked if he knew what the overall, estimated expense of the conference would be, Mr. Hornfisher said he hadn't as yet figured it out. Councilman Thomas Fahrner, in viewing all meetings attended by city officials, said an advance notice of costs, including plane fare, hotels, et al., when requests are made to the council would be helpful in regards to who goes. For his part, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos felt an attempt should be made on the part of officials to present an approximate cost figure for such gatherings. No councilman objected so City Administrator Chester E. Petersen was directed to require that all future requests to attend conferences from selected and/or appointed officials include an estimate of expenses.

SEM-TA Seeks Citizen Input on Fare Changes The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEM-TA), said in a news release it's planning a new passenger fare structure for use on all its buses and trains and is urging citizens to help make the final decision on the best method. They will have the opportunity to hear SEM-TA explain the proposed fare changes, and can offer their ideas and reactions at four public hearings this month. One hearing is scheduled for this evening, January 19, at the St. Clair Shores city hall, 27600 East Jefferson avenue at 11 Mile road, at 7:30 p.m. SEM-TA purchased four private suburban bus companies in the early 1970's, (Martin Lines, Lake Shore, Great Lakes and Metro), and has retained the fare structures those companies had been charging. As a result, bus fares can vary widely within the region. At the present time, the fare on one route may be higher than on another, although the distance travelled is identical. SEM-TA's goal is a fare system that will be simple and equitable for all its customers. Two alternative proposals will be presented for public review and comment at the hearings. Under both alternatives, fares will be equalized on all SEM-TA routes throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties. In some cases, fares will be lowered by the changes and some will be increased. In all cases, the fares will be easier to understand, and consistent. The two proposals differ in the number of zones and the zone charge. Under "Alternative One," there would be six suburban zones. The maximum fare would be $1.25. The minimum, (or base), fare would be 50 cents and it would be adequate for two zones. For each additional zone travelled, the charge would be 15 cents. Under "Alternative Two," there would be three suburban zones. The maximum fare would be $1, with the base fare 50 cents, also good for two zones. Under "Alternative Two" each additional zone would be 25 cents. Both plans call for a surcharge for premium service which would be added to the regular bus fare. Examples of premium service are Limited Stop Buses, (express buses), Park and Ride and Commuter Rail, (Pontiac-Detroit). As an example, SEM-TA listed typical bus fares between Detroit and various suburbs at this time and the changes as proposed under the two alternatives. Between Detroit and The Woods, (Mack avenue and Vernier road), the present fare is 70 cents. Under "Alternative One" it would be 65 cents and under "Alternative Two" it would be 50 cents. Meanwhile, between Detroit and St. Clair Shores, (10 Mile road and Jefferson), the present fare is 75 cents. Under both alternatives, the respective proposed fares would be the same as for The Woods. Both alternatives allow for discounts for students, the elderly and handicapped. SEM-TA also is studying the possibility of offering discounts for pre-paid fares, such as monthly passes. The public is urged to attend a hearing to offer opinions of these proposed changes. Written comments also may be submitted before Friday, February 3, to SEM-TA, Box 333, 211 West Fort street, Detroit 48231. The telephone number is 962-9800.

ULS Cagers Drop 3 Games By Bill Fleischmann The hours of hard work put in over the holiday vacation have yet to yield the fruits of victory for the University Liggett School, (ULS), basketball team, as three post-vacation losses extended the Knights' losing streak to five games. ULS opened the second half at Lutheran East on Friday, January 6, and dropped a 67-50 decision. After trailing for much of the first half, the Knights pulled off a four-point play before the buzzer to tie the score, 33-33. In the third quarter, East took advantage of several mental lapses on the part of the Knights and opened up a 16-point lead. The Knights could not come back in the fourth quarter and lost. Jack Roberts was the ULS high scorer with 15 points. A fluke in scheduling pitted the same two teams against each other on Tuesday, January 10. The first half looked like Lutheran East would again dominate but a second half surge pulled the Knights within one. However, a bucket with 10 seconds left gave East the three-point victory margin, 46-43. Liggett's Roberts and Carl Popkey led both teams' scorers with 12 points each. Against Lutheran West on Friday, January 13, the Knights had all they could handle with West's quick, man-to-man press, which forced 15 turnovers in the first quarter. As the half ULS trailed, 45-24. West continued to dominate play in the second half and coasted to a 83-61 victory. The Knights will take on Hamtramck, at home on Friday, January 20. Seek Nominees For CYO Award The Catholic Youth Organization, (CYO), is seeking nominees for the Ed Crowe Award which is conferred each year upon volunteers who have done an outstanding job for at least two years in such CYO programs as athletics, scouting, teen and young adult programs, social services and parish community programs. Anybody may nominate any parish workers who meet those requirements. Last year 115 volunteers received this accolade. Nomination forms and further information may be obtained from the CYO central office, 305 Michigan avenue, Detroit 48226, or by calling 963-7172. The Ed Crowe plaques will be presented to the successful nominees as a highlight of the 11th annual CYO volunteer awards dinner at the Raleigh House on April 9. At that time, the CYO will also bestow the Msgr. Markey Award upon a priest who has made outstanding contributions to the success of the organization. The Joe Glaser Award will be presented to a member of the board of directors who has provided exceptional service to the agency. Admission is $1.

Pleads Guilty to Bad Driving

After three postponements, Joseph James Boitos, 18, of Newberry, St. Clair Shores, finally appeared before Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Wednesday, January 11, and pled guilty to a reduced charge of impaired driving. The original charge was driving under the influence of liquor for which he was arrested on October 7. After accepting the plea, Judge Denis assessed Boitos a fine of $100 and court costs of $50. Boitos, whose operator's license was suspended as a result of the incident by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, said that he will appeal to have his driving privileges restored. He will carry his appeal to the circuit court level. Boitos was arrested by

Offer Course In Real Estate

The Denby Adult Education School will sponsor a primer course in Real Estate Law and Sales, meeting for 12 weeks from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. It begins on Tuesday, January 31, at the school, 12800 Kelly road, Detroit. The basic study material will be the Red Book published by the Detroit Real Estate Board and a Real Estate Form Book provided by a local title insurance company. The Red Book includes the real estate license law and rules and regulations as administered by the Department of Licensing and Regulations Division of the State of Michigan. Subjects of study include mortgages, land contracts, appraisals, deeds, leases, options, listing agreements, landlord and tenant and generally all contracts relating to real estate transactions. This course offers a review for those preparing themselves to take the real estate examination and for real estate sales work and for homeowners buying or selling a home. It is being taught by William C. Ghesquiere, Harper Woods attorney.

Antique Sale Aids Students

The Bishop Gallagher Dad's Club will bring about 50 antique dealers into town for their sixth annual antique show on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, January 27, 28 and 29. The show will be held in the high school gym, 19360 Harper avenue, from 1 to 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, closing at 8 p.m. Sunday. The proceeds will help sustain tuitions of those Bishop Gallagher students whose fathers have passed away. In the last six years, the Dad's Club has made more than $25,000 available for tuition grants.

GPW Corrects Typing Error

The Woods Council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, January 9, unanimously adopted two ordinances as emergency measures due to a typographical error. In the process of recently deleting a subsection of a law entitled "Parking Between Sidewalk and Street Curbing," a section on hitchhiking was inadvertently eliminated due to the typo. As a result, the hitchhiking measure had to be formally adopted and the parking law subsection formally deleted.

Shores Public Safety Officer Gary Mitchell, with the assistance of Farms Cpl. Otto Glanert on the October date, when Officer Mitchell stopped Boitos after a chase at speeds of more than 55 mph south on Lakeshore road. During the chase, according to Officer Mitchell, Boitos was swerving from lane to lane in and out of moving traffic, failing to stop on the officer's signal. The motorist also ignored the scout car flasher and siren. When stopped at Provincial road, three passengers exited the vehicle on orders of the Shores policeman. When Boitos finally got out of the car, he emerged with his fists clenched, just as Cpl. Glanert arrived at the scene. The corporal grabbed Boitos and forced him against his car and searched him for possible weapons. Taken to The Shores station, the passengers were released after identifying themselves, but Boitos became combative and offered to fight all officers present. His offer was ignored, but when the officers sought to remove the handcuffs, four policemen were required to restrain him before the cuffs could be removed. Boitos agreed to take a breathalyzer test, but when Shores Cpl. Daniel Fronczak arrived to administer it, Boitos again became belligerent and swung at the corporal and missed, at which point the man was placed in the local cell.

Let's Talk Real Estate

Every home has its maximum value potential. For example let's say you have a four bedroom home with living room, dining room and kitchen. You have only one bath upstairs and no lav on the first floor. Your maximum potential would probably be another bath upstairs, a lavatory on the first and a family room as a final clincher. You weigh the costs by priority and then you make the improvement making sure not to over build! Here's kind of a formula: The bath upstairs could cost $3,000 to $6,000. It will add a retail value of probably $4,000 to $8,000 to your home. A lav can cost $1,500 to $3,000 and it will add a value of $2,000 to $5,000 to your home. The family room is the clincher and can cost from $6,000 up. If properly done it can add $10,000 to $15,000 to your home. But the point here is if it is not done well you'll not even appreciate your home at all! Now, studying these figures to add a bath, lav and family room we have minimum projected cost of $10,500. These improvements could help your house appreciate probably a minimum of $16,000—not bad, spend $10,500 and make $5,500 profit! The last forte is critical, however, and that is what are houses selling for on your street. If you have a $50,000 street it's not likely yours will appreciate to $66,000. This idea is changing, however. Our guess is that within the next fifteen years you'll have $100,000 homes mixed with $60,000! This is because of the fantastic amount of renovating being undertaken by home owners today. Here's our word to you: if you wonder whether to add on or buy another house we can give you some great tips. Sometimes we'll say sell because of your location but buy the same size house and renovate. Call us—Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087. We love our business!

A HOUSE FOR ALL REASONS is this deceiving property on the curve of Woodland Shores. For the family that desires first floor bedrooms, there are two. For those who want bedrooms on the second floor, there are four. If a separate apartment within the house is necessary, this has one. Have you always wanted a greenhouse? One comes with this house. How about spending some leisure time around your own swimming pool? The large family room has a window wall which faces the pool and patio.

TUCKED AWAY at the end of deadend street in the Shores, and just a block from the lake is this Farm Colonial with something for everyone. Custom built for the present owner, it has a sumptuous master suite on the main floor. Upstairs are three spacious bedrooms and two baths. The enormous living room features a cathedral ceiling with open rafters, fireplace and bay window. The Early American family room also has a fireplace, wet bar and random width, pegged floors. First floor laundry and two lavatories are also on the main floor. Central vacuum system and a heated swimming pool are just two important features.

THE LAKE IS THE BACKDROP for your front yard and the view from most of the important rooms in your next house. A private, brick-paved street leads to this impressive mini mansion on the shore of Lake St. Clair. Three of the four family bedrooms have fireplaces and private baths. There are other bedrooms for live-in help, relatives and whatever. The living room, dining room and garden room all front on the lake. The swimming pool will interest you more next summer, but it is there and waiting.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters, Director of Public Libraries

The 49th anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther King Jr. was observed on Sunday, January 15, even as the nation mourned the death of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey which occurred on Friday, January 13. These two national leaders contributed much to the betterment of the world and were giants in the fight for civil rights.

A Nobel Peace Prize winner in 1964, Dr. King was perhaps better understood by the world outside of the United States than by citizens of his own country where he remained a controversial figure throughout his life. Even today, almost 10 years after his assassination in Memphis, his greatness is not fully appreciated.

For 12½ years from Montgomery to Memphis he practiced nonviolence as had India's great spiritual leader Mahandas Gandhi.

Coretta Scott King, the widow of Martin Luther King Jr. and the one who knew him best, tells about her husband in the cassette series MY LIFE WITH MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., (Caedmon Cassette, 1969). The tapes run over two and a half hours.

Side one tells of the excitement, almost disbelief, when Dr. King was informed that he had received the Nobel Peace Prize. Those considered for the award that year, 1964, were Dwight D. Eisenhower, Konrad Adenauer of Germany, Anthony Eden of Great Britain and Charles de Gaulle of France.

Mrs. King tells why her husband assumed the leadership of the movement to effectively boycott the city buses of Montgomery, Ala., his first desegregated bus ride and of his decision to no longer accept bail but to go to jail and serve the time.

"We Shall Overcome," a Negro church hymn, became the anthem of the civil rights movement during the first sit-in demonstrations in Greensboro, N.C., in February 1960. The famous March on Washington, August 28, 1963, described by Mrs. King. Dr. King, facing a crowd of 250,000, abandoned his prepared speech and declared in ringing phrases, "I Have a Dream," now his most remembered speech.

Near the end of the tape his last speech delivered in Memphis on April 3, 1968, "I've been to the mountaintop," is recalled.

Two other tapes well worth listening to are A DREAM OF FREEDOM, (Mike Whorf, Inc., 1970), a cassette tape of highlights of Dr. King's career, and a 75-minute tape made the evening of March 18, 1968, when Dr. King addressed a crowd of 2,000 people at South High School.

Of his Grosse Pointe visit, he was to say that it was the worst heckling he remembered.

To obtain a better understanding of Dr. King's vision, his book WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE: CHAOS OR COMMUNITY, (Harper and Row, 1967), is must reading. It is a book about power—the power of a nonviolent army.

He argues the common cause of all the disinherited—white as well as black—in a nation where deprived white far outnumber the black poor, and in a world where poverty, racism and militarism are still rampant.

THE DAYS OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., (Putnam, 1971), is a well researched, interestingly written book by Jim Bishop. He captures with poignancy, honesty, humor and rare insight the character of the black leader whose memory we celebrate this week.

"When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, 'Free at last! free at last! thank God almighty, we are free at last!' Washington, D.C., August 28, 1963."

March of Dimes Honors Pointers at Award Dinner

Three Pointers were named to receive major awards at the eighth annual March of Dimes Sports Award Dinner on Wednesday, January 18, at the Raleigh House in Southfield.

Ted Ewald of The Pointe, owner of the Ewald Chevrolet Co. and head of the H. T. Ewald Foundation, was co-honored as the "Distinguished Community Citizen." Co-honoree was Tom Adams, chairman of the board of Campbell Ewald Advertising Co.

Fred Wolf of The Woods, a pioneer in bowling broadcasting and a member of the American Bowling Congress, (ABC), and Detroit Hall of Fame, was honored as "Bowling's Man of the Year."

Mr. Ewald, a former president of the University Club, has long been active in various sports activities and civic affairs. As a letter winner in track, squash and tennis at Yale University and Phillips Exeter Academy, he won the state squash doubles and western doubles for several years. He is part owner of the Pistons and the new Detroit Express NASC soccer team.

As president of H. T. Ewald Foundation, he has given 170 scholarships since 1957 and recently held the Detroit Public Schools athletic program together when he donated $50,000 to the program. He is a board member of Hutzel Hospital, Salvation Army and Northeast Guidance Center Foundation for Mental Health.

Mr. Ewald is married and the father of six children.

Mr. Wolf, former WXYZ radio morning disc jockey, famous for his "Wacky Wigloo," is now a full time bowling proprietor and owner of the Eastland Bowl in Detroit. He produced and narrated more than 800 bowling shows, both radio and TV, including 272 hours of "Championship Bowling" which has been seen on more than 200 television stations. He also is a past president of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Ass'n.

James Pickard, golf pro at the Lochmoor Country Club, was honored along with Tom Deaton, golf pro at the Franklin Hills Country Club, as "Golf's Men of the Year." Mr. Pickard has been a pro since 1962 and a member of the Professional Golfers Association since 1966. He was PGA "Player of the Year" in 1976 and was runner-up as the Michigan PGA "Player of the Year" in 1977.

He won the Senior-Junior PGA Pro Championship with Ben Lula in 1975. He finished third in the Michigan PGA 1977 Championship. He formerly played on the National golf tour and last year competed in the National PGA at Pebble Beach and has qualified for the 1978 National PGA at Oakmont, Penn.

Mr. Pickard is treasurer of the Michigan Section PGA and has served on many of the PGA committees.

'Palace' Makes Reading Fun

With its bright orange decor, floor-to-floor carpeting and bean bags instead of chairs, Poupard Elementary School's new "paperback palace" sounds like an ideal place to read away an afternoon.

The "palace" was formally opened on Wednesday, January 11, by the large group of Poupard parents who put it together, laying the carpet, painting book shelves and ordering all the books themselves.

Church Offers Couples Advice

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, will conduct an "Evening for Couples" program on Wednesday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

The program, entitled "Healing," concerns the healing powers that married couples can use to preserve their relationship.

"Healing" is the last seminar in a series of four "Evening for Couples" programs that the church has been presenting during the month of January.

Small group discussion leaders are Bill and Pat Bakeman, Dwight and Mary Brown, Paul and Lyn Chadock, Bob and Wilma Clark, Don and Delores Fraites and Dick and Phyllis Rabbideau. Further information may be obtained by calling 886-4300.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

Community residents who are reading the press accounts about the request of the Board of Education to our municipalities to put the collection of school taxes on the same schedule as the collection of their own taxes are asking us for a bit more information.

Here, for the readers of the "Grosse Pointe News," is the question currently being most frequently asked, along with our response.

How does the Board of Education plan to use the additional revenues which would be generated by a shift in the date of the tax collection?

The Board of Education has committed itself to undertake a number of critical capital outlay projects throughout the school district.

Some of our facilities are 50- to 60-years-old. Although all have been as well-maintained as possible over the years, there comes a time when major renovation projects are needed if such buildings are to continue to function.

A case in point is the Industrial Arts Building on the campus of South High School. On Monday, January 9, the Board of Education approved an architectural firm to begin a preliminary study of the facility to determine a modernization plan to be followed.

We are exploring alternatives for financially supporting this and other projects. As we continue to study the various alternatives available to us, the one which represents the least burden on local taxpayers would, of course, be a shift to full summer tax collection.

Such a shift would make our collection date coincide with our fiscal year, thereby helping us realize the same benefits now enjoyed by the various municipalities in this school district.

As indicated on many occasions in recent days, the net effect of a summer tax collection would generate an increase of approximately $400,000 per year for the school system with the least effect of all possible alternatives on taxpayers.

Buffet Dinners Set at Center

Candlelight buffet dinners are being featured at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, preceding Grosse Pointe Theater's production of "Bekket," on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 25, 26 and 27.

Hors d'oeuvres, salads, a hot entree table featuring roast beef and fish or fowl, vegetables and an assortment of breads and desserts are served at 6:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom.

Paid reservations at $7.75 must be made at least three days in advance.

For more information, call the Center at 881-7511.

Woods Okays Vendors' Bids

Three refuse vendors licenses were approved by the Woods Council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, January 9, by a 6-1 vote, with the stipulation that no other such licenses be approved this year.

Those whose applications were approved include Paul Della-Casa of Roseville, who has been a refuse vendor in the city for five years or more, Raphael Bernardi of The Woods and Gussie L. Smith of Detroit.

Councilman John Sabol cast the lone negative vote after his substitute motion to approve the applications of Mr. Della-Casa and Mr. Bernardi only, with the council allowing the issuance of one additional license for this year, failed by a 5-2 vote. (Mr. Sabol and Councilman George S. Freeman voted in the minority.)

Mr. Sabol expressed concern over the driving record of Mr. Smith, citing several violations including one for failing to stop or identify himself after a property damage accident in 1959 and one for reckless driving two years later.

However, in assessing all the violations, four in number plus two reexamination dates, City Attorney George Catlin termed his "driving record on the average" side.

After the question was voted upon, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen was directed to formulate guidelines regarding refuse pickup times and traffic safety standards for the city. Current refuse vendor license holders are scheduled to be the recipients of such guidelines, which will probably view curbside pickup only.

In a related action, the council unanimously denied the application of Henry Selker of Southfield for a Fuller Brush vendor license. Mr. Prushen in memo

AWARD STUDENTS

The National High School Award for Excellence, honoring academic and extracurricular achievement, has been awarded to Austin Catholic Prep School students John Muter, Michael Shaw, Mark Meyers, Craig Curran, Terry Fleming, Thomas Gallagher, John Bayer, Sam Russo, Matt Stancyczak, Dennis Poupard, Michael O'Brien, Mark Surmont, Robert Blair, Eric Craig and William Bonnell.

The council said Theodore Caldwell for some five years has been the single recipient of such a license in the city. He stated Mr. Caldwell advised he will be applying for a 1978 license.

"For clarification, he also stated the Grosse Pointe Woods sales area is broked into four separate routes so that each Fuller Brush salesman has a particular territory to cover. Mr. Selker obviously intends to cover a route separate from Mr. Caldwell," added Mr. Petersen.

Parley Draws GPW Planners

The Woods Council at its rescheduled meeting Monday, January 9, unanimously concurred with a Planning Commission recommendation authorizing eight commission members, along with City Administrator Chester E. Petersen and City Attorney George Catlin, to attend a seminar this evening, January 19.

Viewing the municipal planning process, it will be held in the Harper Woods Municipal Building.

The approval included the registration and curriculum costs of $18 per person, which will be paid by the city.

Commissioners scheduled to attend include chairman Peter Gilezan, George Couillard, John Kennedy, Raymond Lynch, George Rinaldi, Paul Rothenburg, Robert Sabo and Charles Van Hove.

Adjourn Trial Date for Pair

The Wayne County Circuit Court trial date of two Detroiters, who are charged with robbery armed with a gun, was adjourned from Tuesday, January 3, to Thursday, February 2, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel last week.

Roderick Simpson, 26, of San Juan, and Suzanne Barber, 28, of Washburn, are charged in the incident in which an estimated $115,000 in precious stones and around $3,000 in cash was taken from Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, last July.

About $2,000 worth in jewelry has been recovered.

MDP Incidents Lead YSD List

A total of 47 cases were referred to the Youth Service Division for investigation last month with one proving to be unfounded. This makes the yearly total 829, higher than the 1976 amount of 754.

Malicious destruction of property (MDP), once again led the incidence list as 11 such cases were reported.

Though the number of incidents is substantially below that of November, when 29 were viewed, "the percentage of such incidents per total number of cases for the month is about the same—approximately 25 percent," says the YSD.

Nine boys and one girl were identified as having been involved, with seven inidents as yet not being cleared, the perpetrators unknown.

Larceny, six cases, burglary, three, and violations of stolen property laws, one, involved 11 identified youths. Four of these incidents are unsolved to date.

Runaways, five reports, involved four girls and one boy. Two girls and the boy voluntarily returned to their homes after short absences, while one girl was arrested and returned to her parents.

The other girl was arrested and turned over to the Wayne County Youth Home, her parent refusing to accept her back home.

"Incidents of harassment continually intrigue the minds of juveniles as favored forms of excitement," notes the division. "Sometimes just for kicks, other times for revenge, youngsters make repeated phone calls, both nuisance and obscene, or lob eggs and/or paint or catsup-filled bags against facades of homes.

"Snowballing, too, is a favorite seasonal pastime, frequently breaking window panes.

"Most aggravating are the repeated incidents which cannot be associated by the complainant with any particular child, group, family or incident."

Meanwhile, two marijuana or hashish cases were reported involving three male juveniles.

Four applications for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court, none of which have received court action to date.

During the entire year, 57 such applications were filed. Official court action showed 22 were authorized while 23 youths were placed on probation. Unofficial action revealed seven petitions were denied, three were adjusted and two were referred to another county or service agency.

Cinema League Eyes Southwest

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present "Four Corners of the Southwest," a program of color slides by Howard E. Riley, at its Monday, January 23, meeting in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

The presentation deals with the people, scenery and structures of the states of Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona, four of the most colorful states in our country.

It is inevitable that the influence of the area's Indians crops up here and there.

Many varieties of cacti are pictured, and the show ends with a mule trip to the bottom of the Grand Canyon for an overnight stay.

The public is invited to attend the program without charge. A reception for league members and their invited guests follows the presentation.

The league welcomes new members at the nominal dues of $5 per year.

Letters to The Editor of The NEWS

To the Editor,

Woods citizens rallied in response to the fire which destroyed the home of Hugh Davis (in Roslyn road on Monday, December 26).

A food collection was conducted from Tuesday, January 3, through Friday, January 6, in the area from Littlestone to Bournmouth. The results were a whopping 60 grocery bags of food, including a donation from Mister A's.

Also, about $200 in cash donations were received. All donations were delivered to a neighbor of the Davises on Saturday, January 7. The Davises were there to accept them and were very moved.

It turned out not only to be a lesson in Human Nature... people are basically very good... but a heart-warming reminder that people do indeed care about one another.

We have just lost personal contact, but when called upon in a crisis such as this, it is very gratifying to see so many concerned citizens rally together.

Once again, a special thanks to all those gals who trudged from house to house in snow with red wagons and pre-schoolers in hand. You gave so freely.

A special thanks also to our Mayor (Benjamin W.) Pinkos, who made this all possible by giving me his personal okay to solicit for this cause prior to a January 9 council meeting—where it would have had to be voted upon.

He also suggested that I call the Kiwanis Club. As a result the Davis family will be getting additional assistance.

Thanks to the help and cooperation of Carl Liebold, (owner of Oxford Beverage), members of the Kiwanis, Lions and Crisis Clubs. The Davises will be getting still more help.

Many thanks to all—something like this reaffirms your faith in your fellow man. What better way to start the new year!

A concerned Woods citizen, who requested that her name not be published.

To the Editor:

We can give our School Board a "nice try" as we say in tennis, but it is hoped that the other municipalities will follow The Woods in turning down the proposal to advance the tax collection date from the end of the year to mid-year.

As a 32-year resident of The Park, I have always been proud of our schools and libraries and have voted for all millage proposals, without exception. I still enthusiastically support them but object to this move to increase revenues at the expense of the taxpayer and without his permission.

Others have clearly pointed out that moving the collection date would operate in such a manner. To say that the individual would no longer "feel" the difference after some years is as specious as the claim that the taxpayer wouldn't lose anything after the new plan got going.

Six month's interest on $1,500 is just as valuable to the individual as to the School Board, unless one goes along with the idea that a hidden tax is a good tax.

More involved, but well worth the study of payers of moderate income taxes, is the thought so ably presented to the Senior Men's Club by Dwight Brown, CPA.

Presently, we have the option of paying the school and county taxes before or after the first of the year. It is therefore possible to pay one tax late and the next tax early and so have them both apply to a single calendar year.

Under the new federal tax laws, the state collection is based on the federal return, a much larger "standard deduction" is permitted. By taking it in a year no taxes are paid the School Board or county and electing to itemize deductions in alternate years, a perfectly legal and moral tax avoidance is secured. It is in no way an evasion.

Hopefully, our councils will dismiss the proposed date shift.

Porter Strother,
Of Pemberton road

To the Editor:

I was among those who attended the important meeting on Monday, January 9, at South High School where in a panel discussed the "Summer Tax Collection" plan.

As a past member of the Board of Education and president for several terms I was appalled to learn that the Board passed this "Summer Tax Collection" plan, affecting every taxpayer in the school district—and admittedly would place the greatest hardship on senior citizens and those who presently do not have a mortgage on their homes.

It was stated that this latter group represented somewhere between 30 and 40 percent of the taxpayers.

On an issue affecting all taxpayers in one degree or another I believe, as I stated at the meeting, that a referendum vote should be held on the matter at hand.

If after a thorough examination by the taxpayers they favor such a plan, the Board should have no trouble or fear about it being a favorable vote. If it is not approved by the voters then the Board should re-evaluate the entire matter.

The present method being used has a bit of relationship to the "Boston Tea Party"—taxation without a vote.

Sincerely,
Robert F. Weber,
Of Lakeshore road,
Grosse Pointe Shores

To the Editor:

As a resident of Grosse Pointe Woods, I would like to say what a wonderful police force we have. Of course, this latest incident is not the only reason for this letter but rather the "latest" reason for it.

Many times our fine police have been praised for their immediate response to a call, their protection—they are constantly on surveillance—which makes me feel really safe for myself as well as my family and all of the residents of The Woods.

However, on Friday, January 6, my daughter stopped to mail a letter at the corner of Fairford and Torrey. When she tried to start her car again, nothing happened—just at this moment a "guardian angel" in the form of a Woods policeman appeared, asked her if she needed help and quickly tried to start her car.

He soon noticed that she was out of gas... quite embarrassing... however, the officer asked her to stay in her locked car, and went to get her gasoline!

Very shortly he returned, poured the gasoline in the tank, started her car for her and she was on her way.

Now if that isn't help I would like to know what it. Thank you sir and a very Happy New Year to you and our fine Grosse Pointe Woods police force.

GPT Stages 'Becket' In Fries Auditorium

The Grosse Pointe Theater, (GPT), continues its production of the Tony award winning "Becket" Thursday through Sunday, January 19 to 22, and Wednesday through Saturday, January 25 to 28, in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road.

Performances are at 8:30 p.m. except for Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The saga of Becket, the carousing youth who became the Archbishop of Canterbury, and his beloved friend-turned-enemy King Henry II of England is a colorful tapestry of 12th century England and of two friends who became deadly enemies as they pursued their separate destinies—that of King... and Saint.

"The show is magnificently staged comparing it to the top Broadway shows. The costumes are some of the most lavishly beautiful to ever grace the stage at the War Memorial," said Bob Bowen of GPT.

Harry Albertson, a theatrical veteran in Grosse Pointe and the entire state, is the driving force behind this production. He is the director, set designer, scene painter, costume designer, and set builder.

He has worked in all aspects of theater but finds his greatest love in directing. He has won awards at Wayne State University for playwriting, has acted in summer stock for three years, has won nine GPT awards in varying categories and finds time to be an avid painter.

Mickie Pizzimenti is his right hand gal, handling the job of producer. She has been involved in every aspect of theater short of acting.

One of GPT's older members is taking her first try at stage managing as Patti Thompson of Oxford road is aptly handling the run of the show. Her many years of experience in acting and working back stage give her what is necessary to make everything work.

The technical director, Tom Gallagher of Hampton road, has filled this position on many GPT productions. He somehow finds time, when he is not building homes, to totally immerse himself in building sets.

One of the lead roles is played by Tom Kern, of Sterling Heights. He has appeared in several GPT productions including roles in "Man of La Mancha" as Don Quixote, "The Apple Tree" and "Barefoot in The Park."

He also has been involved in non-acting capacities, directing the show "Company" and working back stage.

The other lead role is played by Bill Clynne, who plays the intricate role of Becket. You may recognize him as the excitable Corbin form last year's production of "Catch Me If You Can." Aside from acting, he directed "A Little Night Music" last year along with doing sound for "One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest."

The cast of 26 is a rather unique one drawing from ages eight to 65. Others in the cast include George Bashara, Jr. of Sunningdale drive, Bob Bowen, Chris Bowen, Katie Bowen and Robbie Bowen of Whittier road, Bob Cuhnan of Detroit, Irene Hachey of Raymond road and David Hertzberg of Detroit.

More are George Hunt of Trombley road, Martha Hunt of Trombley road, Wally Maher of Three Mile drive, Bob McKenna of Nottingham road, Chancey Miller of St. Clair Shores, Ron O'Bryan of Bournmouth, Carol Purdon of Village lane and Wesley Schram of Detroit.

Still more are Joyce Schultzeiss of Lincoln road, Nancy Sortor of St. Clair Shores, Tom Stein of Birmingham, George Valenta of Hall place, Peter Waliko of Detroit, Maril Witt of Detroit, Paul Wheeler of Sterling Heights and Phil Zoufal III of East Doyle place.

For ticket information, call the GPT box office at 881-4004.

Folks who study human nature can read a lifetime and never reach the end of the book.

Health Series To Continue

The Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe will continue the second year of its Family Health Education Program with instructional material at five area schools in late January and during February.

Richard Kay and Dr. Claire Basco will meet with Ferry School parents Wednesday evening, January 25, and with parents of Saint Peters School students on Tuesday, February 21.

Parents of Mason School students are invited to attend the presentation to be given by Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Dahl on Thursday, February 9.

Star of the Sea parents will meet with Dr. Joseph Beals and Sister Sean Hogan on Thursday, February 16, while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feeser will talk to parents of Grosse Pointe Academy students on February 22.

All sessions are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and are open to all parents, regardless of their children's age. After school sessions for fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls and for fifth and sixth grade boys will follow the parent sessions and will be listed in notices sent home from each school.

Students must have signed permission slips to attend these sessions.

There is nothing like a hot drink to warm your innards after a day out in the cold. There are some warm alcoholic drinks that will not only warm you up but also give you an extra glow. Perhaps the best known is Irish whiskey, or coffee speed up with a little whiskey and topped with whipped cream. A delightful hot wine drink is a Scandinavian drink called grogg. It is a spiced wine laced with brandy or aquavit, served steaming hot over almonds and raisins in the mug. Kind of makes you hope for cold weather, doesn't it?

Whether you drink your wine hot, warm or cold, you'll find a full selection to choose from at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Your complete party shoppe, we also feature a complete array of liquors, a big selection of beers, and a fine selection of party goods. Free delivery service. JOY Seeks Aid from Seniors

JOY (Job Opportunities for Youth), is attempting to incorporate senior citizens into its program, but they need help.

The organization would like to expand its service to provide job referrals for senior citizens who have particular skills such as painting, gardening, sewing, needlepoint, baby sitting, housekeeping, carpentry and cooking.

JOY says there's a need in the community for employees with these specialized skills. Senior adults with their experiences and talents can help fill these needs.

The organization also is looking for seniors who would like to help with a lawn and garden workshop which will be offered for teenagers this spring.

Interested adults can sign up at the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, or call the club at 885-4600 for further information.

How often have you looked at an engagement ring and admired the flashes of color it gives off? The technical term for this display of light is 'fire,' and it is most often associated with diamonds. The rainbow you see in a stone is caused by white light being broken up—dispersed—into its component colors. The 'luster' of a given gem describes how the stone looks in reflected light. There are different types of luster, such as pearly or metallic. The ruby, for example, has a silky luster, while the diamond's is called adamantine.

When you look at the engagement rings here at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800, you will find them to be carefully selected and graded for style and value to our customers. We have been designers of fine jewelry since 1934. Come in and tell me what ideas you want incorporated in a ring, and I will design and custom-make jewelry to your taste. Whether you are making a purchase or having an item repaired, our reputation is your guarantee of satisfaction. We're open from 9 'til 5:30 daily and Fri. 'til 7:30.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

In October of 1953, Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., (now Mrs. Peters Oppermann), then a member of the board of trustees of Cottage Hospital, organized a nucleus of 16 women to form a hospital auxiliary. Each of the 16 was asked to invite 10 prospective members to her home and, in turn, these 10 solicited 10 others. From this small beginning, Cottage Hospital Auxiliary has grown to a membership of substantially more than 400.

It's no longer a single sex group. Two years ago, the formal name "Woman's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital" was changed to "Cottage Hospital Auxiliary" in order to meet the changing structure of the organization, a reflection of the changing times. Several male volunteers are now donating their services to the hospital as auxiliary members.

The services performed by Cottage's volunteers have become so diverse that, last year, more than 50,000 hours of work were recorded. Twenty years ago, in 1957, the records show a total of 5,100.

Festivities and fund-raisers are being planned throughout this year to mark the auxiliary's 25th anniversary. The annual meeting, scheduled for next Thursday, January 26, at Lochmoor Club, will feature a champagne brunch.

Guests of honor will be all 11 living past-presidents of the auxiliary.

June in January At Country Club

Fund-Raising is Today's Luncheon Topic for The Women's Association for The Boys' Clubs Of Metropolitan Detroit

Brrr . . . it's cold outside! — but it's June in January at the Country Club of Detroit today, as the Women's Association for the Boys' Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit gathers for a midwinter-(summer) luncheon.

Pris (Mrs. John) Posselius is in charge of arrangements and the program for the day.

Members will gather in the club's French Room, its naturally springlike decor enhanced by springtime accessories.

President Mrs. Robert N. Lynch will introduce a visitor from Chicago, Mrs. Donald N. Fry, associated with the Boys' Clubs of Chicago which have reaped the benefits of highly-successful fund-raising over the years.

Mrs. Fry will describe to the Detroit women the criteria she has employed in her fund-raising efforts.

Another speaker is flying in from Milwaukee to give her views on the reasons for the tremendous success of the Milwaukee Boys' Clubs.

Lou (Mrs. Victor) Wertz, chairman of this year's Detroit Auto Show Preview Night Boys' Clubs benefit, will present a preliminary report on the project. She hasn't added all the figures up yet—but she knows the total will be in excess of $20,000.

Among those on hand for the luncheon will be Pointers Mrs. J. Addison Bartush, Mrs. William S. Blakeslee, Jr., Mrs. Edmund M. Brady, Jr., Mrs. Bill O. Brink, Mrs. Michael C. Burke, Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, Mrs. Frederick K. Cody, Mrs. C. Howard Crane, II, Mrs. James H. Dingeman, Mrs. David K. Easlick, Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., Mrs. J. Alfred Grow, Mrs. Benjamin Harrell, Mrs. Emily J. LeGro, Mrs. Byron J. Nichols and Mrs. J. Lee Schoenith.

They will be joined by Boys' Clubs Women from all over the metropolitan area, and by some of the men from the Boys' Clubs board of directors, who have accepted the women's invitation to join the luncheon.

Lawyers' Wives to Enjoy Art

Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives plan an Afternoon of Art next Thursday, January 26, at the Detroit Institute of Arts where a noon luncheon in the Garden Room will be followed by a tour of the North Wing from 1 to 2 o'clock.

Reservations may be made by calling 889-0267 before tomorrow, Friday, January 20. Members, guests and prospective members are invited.

Widowed Are Invited to Luncheon Program

The Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Widowed Persons Service has scheduled a program and luncheon, open to all local widows and widowers, for next Wednesday, January 25, at noon at Stouffers Eastland.

Cost is $5.50 per person. Reservations, (checks should be made payable to Widowed Persons Service), must be mailed no later than tomorrow, Friday, January 20, to Widowed Persons Service, P.O. Box 36402, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48236.

Plan Benefit Ball at GPYC

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will become Cinderella's Winter Palace this Saturday evening, January 21, as the Women's Committee of the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan toasts old Russia at a benefit ball featuring a fur fashion show by Jacobson's.

The dinner menu will include Beluga caviar, canapes Moscovit, smoked salmon and Borschtsch Skobeloff, perfect accompaniments to a glass of iced vodka.

There will be Russian dancers and strolling musicians. All proceeds will help the association fight asthma, emphysema and other lung disorders.

Miss Pendency Bride of Timothy Dolan

Margaret Pendency Is Honor Maid for Her Sister; Michael Dolan Serves As Brother's Best Man; Reception Setting Is Lochmoor Club

Mary Ellen Pendency and Timothy John Dolan exchanged marriage vows at an early evening ceremony Friday, October 7, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore. Father James Cronk presided at the 6:30 o'clock rites.

After a reception at Lochmoor Club, the newlyweds left to vacation in Toronto. They are making their home in East Jefferson avenue, St. Clair Shores.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George V. Pendency, of Newberry place, wore a gown of white matte jersey. Lace formed her cap sleeves, accented her bodice and rimmed her skirt hem and train. Her veil, fingertip length, was also edged in lace. White satin streamers tied her bridal bouquet.

She was attended by a sister, Margaret Pendency, as honor maid, and bridesmaids Janet Ferry, Janice Yarema and Debra Monterosso. In peach frocks similar in style to the bridal gown, featuring cut-out tops and cap sleeves of lace.

They carried nosegays and wore peach flowers in their hair.

Michael D. Dolan was best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Dolan, of Alger in St. Clair Shores.

Ushers were Steven Di-Virgil, James R. Dolan, Gary Jones and Michael Stanglewicz who, stationed in Italy with the United States Air Force, flew home for the ceremony.

A chiffon gown, floral-printed in yellow, orange and green on a white background, with a scarf at her neck, was Mrs. Pendency's choice for her daughter's wedding. She carried a yellow flower on her beaded purse.

The bridegroom's mother wore avocado green chiffon, belted at the waist, and carried a white flower on her beaded purse.

Drive for DSO Over The Top

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1977 Maintenance Fund Drive has surpassed its $1.5 million goal to reach a history-making campaign high of $1,501,950 in direct contributions from individuals, businesses and foundations.

"It has been gratifying to serve as campaign chairman during a drive paced by a record number of contributions from individuals, foundations, corporations, businesses and labor unions, and during a year highlighted by an overwhelming resurgence of enthusiasm and support for the orchestra," commented Philip A. Caldwell, vice chairman of Ford Motor Company and 1977 DSO Maintenance Campaign general chairman, announcing the record-breaking total.

Caldwell, who also serves as a member of the Detroit Symphony's board of directors, saluted the campaign team captains and their more than 100 team members. More than 4,019 individuals and some 939 businesses, labor unions and foundations donated to the campaign.

"The positive response from all sectors of the community to our direct appeal for funds indicates strong support for the orchestra's artistic endeavors at home, throughout the state of Michigan and the nation and, indeed, for all future programs which are certain to enhance the stature of this dynamic and valued cultural resource throughout the world," Caldwell continued.

Robert B. Semple, president of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's board of directors, congratulated Caldwell on the success of the 1977 campaign.

"We also are grateful to the Ford Motor Company for its generosity in awarding — as a plus contribution to the drive — a special grant of $325,000 to enable us to produce a nine-program television series based on events of November's Beethoven Festival, to be broadcast over PBS in the fall of 1978," Semple stated.

"Not only has the fund drive achieved its greatest level of success ever in surpassing the $1.5 million goal, but all new monies raised through the campaign have earned additional matching dollars in the amount of $205,332 through the National Endowment for the Arts Challenge Grant program.

"This means that our orchestra's overall campaign activities have raised a magnificent total of $2,032,282 during the calendar year 1977."

The annual DSO fund drive activities are conducted to help cover the difference between the orchestra's earned income and expenses.

To Sell Candy for Camp Fire

Over 4,500 Camp Fire members have taken individual pre-sale Camp Fire Candy orders throughout the tri-county area, and Camp Fire's Detroit Area Council has announced February 10 through 24 as this year's public sale dates.

The council's selling goal for 1978 is 135,000 candy units.

All new products from the Heath and Stuckey companies will be featured this year. Three choices are offered: Heath Mint Truffles, Heath Toffee Miniatures and Stuckey's Peanut Crunch.

All varieties are priced at $1.50 per box.

This annual candy sale remains the single largest fundraising effort of Camp Fire Girls' Detroit Area Council.

Proceeds provide 38 percent of the council's yearly operating budget, and also help support Camp Wathana, a 380-acre resident facility near Holly.

Camp Wathana is open all year for a variety of camping experiences for non-members as well as Camp Fire Girls. Opportunities range from a summer resident program for girl ages six to 17 to group and family camping outings in the fall, winter and spring. Persons wishing information on how to purchase Camp Fire Candy may telephone the Detroit Area Council office, 833-2670. Camp Fire is a Torch Drive Agency serving Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties.

I'm sure you have heard of the great hair stylists of Paris, London, Las Vegas, etc. Now such talent can be found so close to your home at Grosse Pointe Coiffures where Renay Grusling and Pat DeBerry have been proving their artistic skills to the Grosse Pointe public for many years.

Choices Sight Set on Parents

Parents may review guidelines for their children's behavior in a workshop, Kids, Problems and Solutions offered by Choices Women's Center, 14920 Hampton, near East Jefferson Avenue and Aller road, in two Tuesday morning sessions, January 24 and 31.

Instructor is Elizabeth Williams, of Wayne State University, who will provide supportive behavioral information and encourage the discussion and exchange of information related to parenting.

Fee for the workshop is $10.

A Parent Support Group is being formed to enable parents to discuss such questions as how to improve a child's school behavior, how to encourage reading and how to help a child get along with other children.

As one mother says: "Why do I want to spank my kids? I really don't want to be that kind of mother."

More information on the workshop and the Parent Support Group may be obtained by calling Choices, 331-6048, Monday through Friday from 9:30 in the morning to 1:30 in the afternoon.

U. of D. High Gala Night

University of Detroit High School is indeed "ready for another 100 years," and the High School Mother's Club is ready for another U. of D. High Gala Night — the 42nd annual Gala Night, scheduled for Saturday, January 28, at the school. All alumni, parents and friends are invited to attend the dinner dance, which begins at 7 and will feature music by the Austin-Moro Band following a spaghetti dinner, all for $9 per person. "Meet Ball" is this year's party theme. Among members of the '78 Gala Night committee, under general chairperson Mrs. Germano Mularoni, is BARBARA (Mrs. C.J.) STICKFORD, of Merriweather road, in charge of publicity. Reservations may be made by calling the school, 862-5400, or Mrs. Severo Armanda, 349-7255.

Present Music Therapy Symposium in February

Music Therapy: What It Is, Who Needs It and How Does It Work? will be the subject of a conference co-sponsored by the Merrill-Palmer Institute and the Detroit Community Music School Thursday, February 2, from 9:15 to 3:15 o'clock at the Merrill-Palmer Institute's Knapp Building.

The Music Therapy Symposium will include opening remarks by Michael Usdan, president of Merrill-Palmer Institute, and presentations by Anita Louise Steele, registered music therapist from the Cleveland Settlement Music School, and Sharyn Susinko, president, Michigan Chapter National Association of Music Therapists, and head of Music Therapy, Sinai Day Hospital, Detroit.

There will be demonstrations depicting specific approaches in Music Therapy, using conference participants and the audience.

The Detroit Community Music School has initiated a Music Therapy program to develop approaches to enable the handicapped to learn skills in music.

Its primary objectives are to modify specific behavioral patterns which interfere with a person's development and to help individuals react more effectively within their surroundings.

The Music Therapy Department is under the Detroit Community Music School's Outreach Program, directed by Sharon Deffaven, of La Salle place.

Merrill-Palmer Institute, founded in 1920, is dedicated to pioneering in and promoting fuller understanding of human development, parent-child relationships and the social forces that affect families and communities.

The institute is internationally recognized as a leading center devoted to the multidisciplinary study of human behavior.

Detroit Community Music School is a non-profit school of music and dance with an enrollment of more than 800 students.

It provides an outlet for interest and talent and an opportunity for growth for all, regardless of race, religion, sex, age or ability to pay.

The Detroit Community Music School is partially funded by the Michigan Council for the Arts.

"The music performance is not the target of music therapy," explains Miss Steele. "It's the process of learning that counts, that can alter behavior in the direction of a fuller, more productive life."

The symposium is open to the public as well as professionals in the field.

Alpha Phi Has Heart for Saint John

The Detroit East Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi fraternity begins its annual Lollipop Sale tomorrow, Friday, January 20, and will continue to offer the heart-shaped lollipops at 15 cents each, $5 for a box of 36, through Valentine's Day. Proceeds from this year's sale go toward purchase of a Non-Invasive Cardiology Transducer for Saint John Hospital. Area residents desiring lollipops may contact MRS. CHARLES HUEBNER, of Washington road, (left), or MS. JUDY LUNDELL, of Kenwood court, co-chairman of the local drive this year.

Lollipops also may be obtained from canisters placed by chapter members in local banks, cleaners, retail stores and schools. They are also on sale in Saint John Hospital's Gift Shop and Cottage Hospital's Gift Shop.

Cardiac Aid has been Alpha Phi's national philanthropy since 1948. In 1966, the fraternity received the American Heart Association's Heart and Torch Award for outstanding contributions to cardiac care.

For the past six years, Alpha Phi has conducted international lollipop sales to raise funds for cardiac aid projects.

The Non-Invasive Cardiology Transducer, when attached to an echocardiograph, allows the physician to view a large segment of the heart without penetrating the patient's skin. The cardiologist can detect valves opening and closing and various heart difficulties.

Montmartre Night at Alger House

Guitarist-Singing Team of Monique and Gilbert Will Entertain During Pointe Alliance Francaise Scholarship Benefit

A Night in Montmartre! The night in question is tomorrow, Friday, January 20. Time is 7 o'clock. Theme is "Soiree au Cabaret de Montmartre" — which is, of course, an evening party at the Montmartre cabaret.

Sponsor is the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe. Place is the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House.

Immediate purpose: an evening of good fun, good music, good food, good dancing. Long-range purpose: support for the scholarship program of the Pointe Alliance, which sends a student to Paris in the summer for one month, all expenses paid. The second prize winner

France are welcome. Reservations may be made by calling Mme. Bertram, 885-1734, or Mme. Marshall, 881-2706. The French menu, "Menu aux Chandelles," will feature tomato aux crevettes, soupe a l'oignon, coq au vin, laitue de saison, plateau de fromage and mousse au chocolat.

Entertainment will be provided by the guitarist-singing team of Monique and Gilbert with — surprise! — the Cafe Cadieux band.

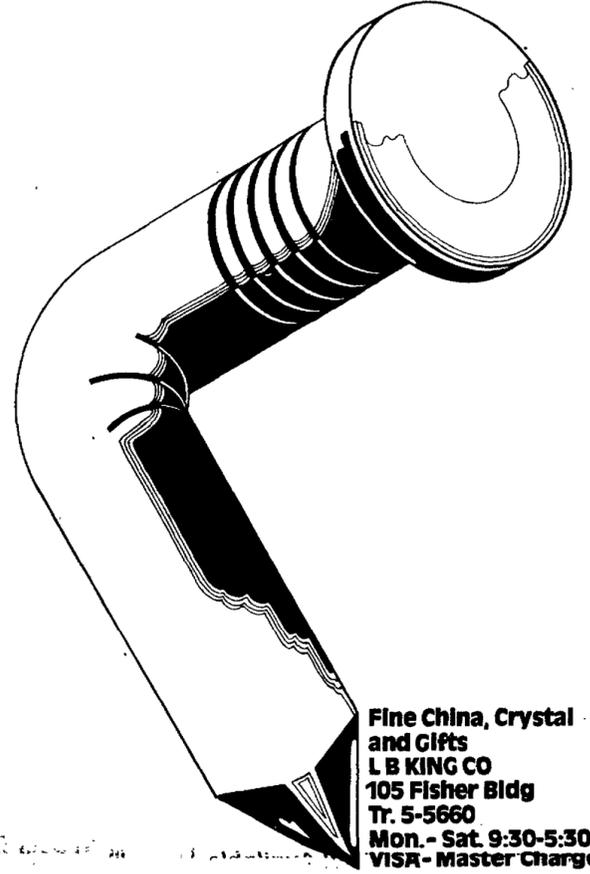

Monique Brienne is a star of French cabarets and cinema, television and radio, an actress who has performed with the Comedie Francaise, a comedienne and a chanteuse.

Gilbert Hennevic, like Monique, has appeared in the best cabarets of Paris and done many tours in his own country and abroad.

Both are very popular entertainers. They will move from room to room and group (Continued on Page 26)

Artists Group Slates Meeting

The Michigan Chapter of the National Society of Toile and Decorative Painters will hold its annual election meeting and fashion show-luncheon Saturday, January 21, starting at 10 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The fashion show will feature hand-painted apparel modeled by artist-members of the society, and will be narrated by hostess Sharon Stoeckel.

The society represents a group of artists who recognize that there are many forms of art, including the folk arts that have come to us from Europe such as Pennsylvania Dutch and Norwegian Rosemaling, Early American Decorative Art, Country Painting and Toile and Decorative Painting.

It is the purpose of the organization to encourage the best in all these art forms. Anyone interested in learning more about the society is invited to attend Saturday's meeting and view the many examples of art by members on display.

To Marry

The engagement of MARY-CATHERINE MAC and CYRIL ANTHONY GROBBEL, III, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur John Mac, of Whittier road. A July wedding is planned.

Miss Mac, a graduate of the University of Michigan where she affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, is now attending Wayne State University Medical School where she is a member of Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity.

She expects to receive her Doctor of Medicine degree in June, 1979.

Mr. Grobbel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Anthony Grobbel, Jr., of Three Mile drive, received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in Accounting from the University of Detroit, where he was elected to Alpha Sigma Lambda honor society.

He is with E. W. Grobbel Sons.

Set Symphony Prelude Date

A Woodwind Trio — Paul Schaller, clarinet, Ronald Odmark, oboe, and Lyell Lindsey, bassoon — will be featured Friday, January 27, at the second of this season's four Detroit Symphony Preludes: a series of late morning programs, followed by subscription luncheons, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The Preludes, in their seventh season, are sponsored by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Each begins at 11 o'clock and is followed by a question-and-answer period preceding the luncheon at 12:15. Cost per program is $3, per program and luncheon, $8.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. William Fiscus, 821-7071, or Mrs. John Nolan, 886-6244.

The remaining Preludes will feature Jay Carr, music and drama critic for the Detroit News, and John Guinn, music critic for the Detroit Free Press, Friday, February 24; and a Percussion Ensemble—Robert Pangborn, Salvatore Rabbio, Norman Fickett and Sam Tundo — Friday, March 31.

June Wedding Date Is Made

Mary Pamela O'Hare and Brad L. Boerner whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. O'Hare, of Birmingham, have chosen June 9 as their wedding date.

Miss O'Hare received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University in 1976, her Master of Arts degree from Central Michigan University last year, and is now employed in Houston, Tex., as a speech pathologist.

Mr. Boerner, son of the Wilbur Boerners, of Hillcrest road, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management from Michigan State University. He is now associated with Gilbert-Robinson, Inc., in Houston.

MACLD Guest Speakers Consider Juvenile Code

Guest speakers Y. Gladys Barsamian, Wayne County Probate Judge, Juvenile Division, and Prentis Edwards, registrar, Juvenile Division, Wayne County Probate Court, will address the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities Monday evening, January 30, at 7:30 o'clock at Peace Lutheran Church, East Warren avenue at Balfour road.

Their topic is the Juvenile Code and the Relationship between Learning Disabilities and Juvenile Delinquency.

Judge Barsamian, who believes children are our most precious resource, has spoken out against sweeping changes recommended in the revised Juvenile Code. Mr. Edwards supports her views, and believes there is a direct link between lack of education and criminal offenses.

The meeting is open to all interested members of the community.

To Display Work of Stitchery Guild

Exhibit Opens Tomorrow in Jacobson's St. Clair Lobby, Where Members Will Be Available to Answer Questions

The Metropolitan Detroit Stitchery Guild's promotional display will be at Jacobson's in-the-Village, in the St. Clair Lobby, from tomorrow, Friday, January 20, through Saturday, January 28.

The display moves to Marlene Fessenden's Crewel Studio at the end of the month, for viewing January 30 to March 3, then to Lynn Nadlicki's Yarn and I shop, where it will run March 13 to April 22.

It will also be presented at the Southfield-Sheraton March 5 through 10, during the National Standards Council of American Embroiderers' Midwest Regional Conference.

The exhibit is designed to introduce needleworkers to the guild and its program. Through it, the guild hopes to increase membership — and to inspire needleworkers throughout the area to seek even more creative fulfillment of their needle skills.

The project was conceived and put into action by the program committee: Don Mettler, Verhilla Bankston and Kate Curry.

They chose the basic fabric around which to build a cozy room setting. After deciding on projects and needle skills to be included, Kate lent her enthusiasm and ability as a designer to help members finish their projects during the summer of '77.

Edward Curry volunteered

noon, to answer questions about incorporating needlework into one's home.

Metropolitan area men and women interested in needle stitchery techniques are welcome to visit the guild's general meetings, held the third Monday of each month, September through June, at Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lothrop road at Chalfonte avenue.

The MDSG is a non-profit organization and sponsoring guild of the National Standards Council of American Embroiderers.

MACLD Guest Speakers Consider Juvenile Code

Guest speakers Y. Gladys Barsamian, Wayne County Probate Judge, Juvenile Division, and Prentis Edwards, registrar, Juvenile Division, Wayne County Probate Court, will address the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities Monday evening, January 30, at 7:30 o'clock at Peace Lutheran Church, East Warren avenue at Balfour road.

Their topic is the Juvenile Code and the Relationship between Learning Disabilities and Juvenile Delinquency.

Judge Barsamian, who believes children are our most precious resource, has spoken out against sweeping changes recommended in the revised Juvenile Code. Mr. Edwards supports her views, and believes there is a direct link between lack of education and criminal offenses.

The meeting is open to all interested members of the community.

Rini-Cremins Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cremins, of Jersey City Heights, N.J., announced the engagement of their daughter, Jill, to Richard J. Rini on Christmas Eve.

Miss Cremins is a graduate of Holy Rosary Academy of Union City, N.J. She is presently employed by Pierre Cardin International Apparel, Inc.

Mr. Rini, of New York City, son of Mrs. John V. Rini, of Robert John road, and the late Mr. Rini, is a graduate of the University of Michigan, earned his Masters degree from Eastern Michigan University in Clinical Psychology and is presently a Doctoral candidate at St. John's University, Queens, N.Y.

He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and is a child psychologist at Queen's Childrens Psychiatric Hospital.

Miss Cremins and Mr. Rini were houseguests of Mrs. Rini during the Christmas holidays. An April wedding date has been set.

July Bride

Planning a July 29 wedding are KATHLEEN SUE ELDREDGE, of Mapleton road, and William Charles DiVirgil whose engagement has been announced by her parents, former Pointers Dr. and Mrs. Edward F. Eldredge, who now make their home in Charlevoix.

The bride-elect, an alumna of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School, received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education from Wayne State University last April. She is currently teaching in the Detroit Parochial School System.

Mr. DiVirgil, an Austin Catholic Preparatory School graduate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson DiVirgil, of St. Clair Shores, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wayne State University, where he majored in Communications, last June.

Make Autumn Wedding Plans

Linda Ann Whittingham and Dawson Shellhammer Soth, Jr., whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Whittingham, of Colonial road, are making plans for an October 21 wedding.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, is presently attending Towson State University, Baltimore, Md.

Her fiance, son of Mrs. Dawson Shellhammer Soth, of Fallston, Md., and the late Mr. Soth, holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida Institute of Technology.

Luncheon Card Party At Notre Dame High

Men are welcome at Notre Dame High School's luncheon card party next Monday, January 23, starting at noon in the school cafeteria, Kelly and Eight Mile roads in Harper Woods, next to Eastland Center.

A hot luncheon and prizes will be featured. Tickets, at $2.50 per person, may be obtained through the school business office, 371-8965, or Alice Pomaski, 884-4823.

Plan to Wed Next Summer

A June wedding is being planned by Elizabeth Campbell Ballantyne, daughter of Mrs. Ford Ballantyne, Jr., formerly of Touraine road, now of Madison, Wis., and the late Mr. Ballantyne, and Edward Wheelwright Schuller, son of Mrs. Lawrence Schuller, of Concord, Mass., and Thomas Schuller, of Beirut, Lebanon.

The bride-elect is descended from Captain John B. Ford, founder of Wyandotte Chemical Corporation, and from United Empire Loyalists.

She was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School, attended Trinity College, Dublin, was graduated from Wesleyan University and holds a degree from Pace University as a Nurse Practitioner.

Her fiance is descended from Bishop William Lawrence of Massachusetts and from The Reverend John Wheelwright of the Plymouth Colony.

He was graduated from Connecticut College and is currently attending The Vermont Law School.

Mr. Campbell To Take Bride

Planning an April 1 wedding are Cosette Hull Tracy and William Yates Campbell whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mrs. Martha Tracy, of Lansing, and Douglas H. Tracy, of East Lansing.

The bride-elect holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Albion College and expects to receive her Master of Business Administration degree from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, O., in March. Her sorority is Kappa Alpha Theta.

Mr. Campbell, son of Mrs. Smith Campbell, of Washington road, and Dr. Frederick W. Campbell, Jr., of St. Albans, Vt., and grandson of Pointers Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Yates G. Smith, is an alumnus of University Liggett School.

He, too, holds a Bachelor or Arts degree from Albion College and expects to receive a Master of Business Administration degree from Bowling Green State University in March. His fraternity is Sigma Chi.

Pointe Co-op Nursery Presents Sister Hawver

Members of the Grosse Pointe Cooperative Nursery, located in Moross road, will enjoy an evening with Sister Karen Hawver, S.C., next Thursday, January 26, starting at 8 o'clock.

Sister Karen, a guidance counselor and assistant principal at Detroit's Guardian Angels School, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Mount St. Joseph College, Cincinnati, and a Master of Arts degree in Education in Elementary School Counseling from DePaul University, Chicago.

She will talk on Goals of Children's Misbehavior, identifying the four main goals of children's misbehavior and effective ways of dealing with them.

Some foods, such as truffles and caviar, are prized as much—if not more—for their inaccessibility as for their taste. If we do not consider certain foods as exquisite as others, it is often because they come to us in abundance. One such food is the tomato—think what a kitchen would be like without tomatoes! Unfortunately, tomatoes are most often consigned to a prosaic role in life, like being cut up for salads or made into soup. And though we shouldn't underestimate the tomato's importance—even in such common concoctions—we might occasionally put it to more exotic use, such as in cherry tomatoes with sardine mayonnaise, tomates vinaigrette aux herbes, or chilled tomato soup with mint.

Delicious fresh salads are an everyday happening at LAMBARDI'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100. Our Italian-style antipasto is well-known in the area for being the tastiest and most eye-appealing dish served anywhere. Our fettucine, lasagne, ravioli, gnocchi and cannelloni are made in our own kitchen and cooked to order just for you. These dishes are served with generous portions of delicious sauce made from an old family recipe. Do drop in for lunches or dinner soon and enjoy distinctive dining at LAMBARDI'S.

GOURMET TIP:

Unripe tomatoes ripen quicker on a sunny window-sill than in a refrigerator.

Pointe Boat Club Begins New Year

Eugene E. O'Brien's Successor, Clifford J. Crockford, Promises Continued Emphasis on Sailing At Annual Meeting Before Commodore's Ball

The Grosse Pointe Boat Club held its annual meeting and Commodore's Ball Saturday evening, January 14, at the Detroit Boat Club on Belle Isle, with the largest attendance ever recorded for this annual event.

The occasion honored retiring Commodore Eugene E. O'Brien, of Washington road, and saw the election of a new slate of officers headed by Clifford J. Crockford, of Lincoln road, as 1978 Commodore.

James H. Finney, of Notre Dame avenue, will serve as Vice Commodore, Arthur G. Behm, of Washington road, as Rear Commodore.

Newly elected to the board of directors are Earl A.

Raynal, of Washington road, Charles H. Howe, of St. Clair avenue, and William H. Krieg, of Lakeland avenue.

Continuing in office as Secretary-Treasurer is James O. Hoyt, of St. Paul avenue.

The club's 1977 activities were reviewed during the meeting which followed dinner and preceded dancing.

Highlight was a report on the successful Wednesday Night Race Series launched in 1977 under the guidance of Cedric Guthrie and Earl Raynal.

Tri-Deltas to Enjoy An Afternoon of Art

Members of the Detroit-Grosse Pointe Alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta gather at the Detroit Institute of Arts next Wednesday, January 25, for an afternoon of art.

A noon salad luncheon will be followed by a Docent tour of the museum's Italian collection.

All area Tri-Deltas are invited and may make reservations by calling Mrs. Lester Elliott, 886-3317, or Mrs. Sam Minnella, 884-9401.

Awards were presented to overall winners for the series of 15 races: Richard Bourne, first place, Garson Grunwald, second place, and John O'Brien, third place.

The 1977 Predicted Log Award went to Art Behm. Commodore Crockford, accepting his new office, promised a continuation of the various social and boating events which have proved most popular and meaningful, with a continued emphasis on sailing activities which he feels have given the organization added vitality.

Grosse Pointe Boat Club membership is composed of residents and ex-residents of the City of Grosse Pointe. Although the club has no official clubhouse, it makes its headquarters at the municipal Quarters at the waterfront.

Mr. Wickson to Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Lowe, of Lapeer, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Bethany, to Mark W. Wickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wickson, of Kercheval avenue. A February 11 wedding is planned. The bride-elect was graduated from Roberts Wesleyan College, Rochester, N.Y., and holds a Master of Science degree in Nursing from Wayne State University, where she was elected to Sigma Theta Tau. She is a clinical nurse specialist at the Health Care Institute in Detroit.

Her fiance has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University and received a Teaching Certificate through Wayne State University, where he is presently studying for a Master of Arts degree in Elementary Education.

He is a teacher at Bethesda Elementary School in Detroit.

Winter Dance Workshop Set

A winter workshop for local dancers seeking intensive dance experience is offered by the Dance Department of the Detroit Community Music School next week, Monday, January 23, through Saturday, January 28.

The workshop offers Graham Technique taught by Denise Szykula, director of the Nonce Dance Ensemble, and Corporeal Mime for Dancers and Actors taught by mimist David Swank.

Registration by phone or mail begins Saturday, January 21. Further information may be obtained by calling or writing the Detroit Community Music School, 200 East Kirby street, Detroit, Michigan 48202, (831-2870).

Dance classes for both adults and children begin Monday, January 30, at the Detroit Community Music School. Registration will run January 23 through January 28, between 9 and 5 o'clock. More information and a schedule of classes may be obtained by calling the Detroit Community Music School, 831-2870.

Schedule Annual Dance Concert for Young Folks

The 24th annual Dance Concert for Young Folks will be presented at 2 o'clock this Saturday, January 21, in Wayne State University's Community Arts Auditorium. The event is sponsored each year by the WSU Dance Alumni Association to provide an opportunity for selected high school dance groups to perform with members of the WSU Dance Workshop.

Concert proceeds go to the Ruth L. Murray Dance Tuition Fund and the Delia Hussey Memorial Fund. Tickets at $1 for students, $2 for adults, may be purchased at the door or at the Dance office in the WSU Mathaei Building.

Occupational Health Nurses to Convene

The 30th annual meeting and educational conference of the Michigan Association of Occupational Health Nurses, Inc., sponsored by the Detroit Association of Occupational Health Nurses, opens Friday evening, January 27, with a 7:30 to 9:45 o'clock session at the Michigan Inn, Southfield.

An all-day — 9 in the morning to 5:30 in the evening — program is scheduled for Saturday, January 28, also at Michigan Inn.

All Registered Nurses are welcome. Advance registration must be made before Friday, January 20, by contacting Eleanor Robinson, R.N., Ford Motor Company, 525-3022.

"An Asset to Self — Profession — Client — Employer" is the conference theme. Its purpose is to introduce the theory and practice of assertiveness, to assist the occupational health nurse in becoming more effective in the delivery of health care by identifying alternate ways of working toward goals.

The conference will focus on self-appreciation, self-confidence, self-respect and assertiveness.

Guest faculty will be Fran A'Hern Smith, R.N., M.S., Masters program faculty, Boston University, Boston, Mass. Program chairman is Jane Campbell Geis, R.N., General conference chairman is Esther Guldner, R.N. The program has been approved by the Michigan Nurses Association—CEARP committee for 7.5 contact hours. Nurses must attend both days to obtain certification for contact hours.

ULS to Offer Scholarships

University Liggett School, (ULS), recently announced that applications are now being accepted for next year's Himelhoch Scholarships. Any student in grades nine through 11 not currently enrolled at the school may apply. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of personal merit and according to financial need. The Himelhoch Scholarships were established by the late Rose Phillips Himelhoch in recognition of outstanding personal achievement and integrity. Emphasis is placed on scholastic success, special talents and capacity for leadership. The awards are made for one year in grants not to exceed $1,000. After their first year students are allowed to apply for scholarships from other ULS funds. Students chosen as Himelhoch Scholars for the present school year are Kevin Karson, of Detroit, James Todd, of St. Clair Shores, Gwyn Treiber, of East Detroit, Peter Tecos, of Detroit, Elizabeth Blotsky, of Ferndale, Kathleen Wambly, of Sterling Heights, Lisa Von Dellen, of The Pointe, and Elizabeth Blachut, of Detroit. "These students have exhibited in their general achievements and personal conduct the standards of excellence associated with the Himelhoch Scholars," said ULS Headmaster Raymond P. Robbins. "The school indeed feels fortunate to be able to offer a quality secondary education to those students in the greater Detroit area whose efforts and achievements warrant special recognition," he added. ULS, located in Cook road, is Michigan's oldest independent day school for boys and girls. The curriculum is college preparatory. For more information on the scholarships, call Frederick Scott, director of admissions, at 884-4444.

AARP Meets On January 26

Grosse Pointe Chapter No. 2151, American Association of Retired Persons, (AARP), will hold its regular meeting at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, on Thursday, January 26, at 12:30 p.m. This will be a luncheon meeting and early reservations should be made by calling Evelyn Kyziat at 773-8434. Herbert L. Scofield, Major General, Retired, U.S. Army, will be the principal speaker. He will be introduced by Mrs. Nora Blixt of The Woods, who is the assistant to the state director of AARP for Michigan. At this session, the new slate of officers will be presented and sworn in. The following Grosse Pointe residents have been elected: President, Edward R. Bunn, first vice-president, Mrs. Lillian Chambers, second vice-president, Mrs. Gladys Greenburg, treasurer, Alfred Fincham, assistant treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn Todd, recording secretary, Mrs. Norma Morris, corresponding secretary, William Johnson (Warren) and directors, Arthur Hillgas and Charles Johnson. Nominating committee chairman is Frank Radke, while members are Mrs. Jeanette Dains, Mrs. Evelyn Kyziat, William Pishalski and Martin Hutchinson. Meanwhile, Mrs. Ruth Jenkins, 331-3391, is accepting reservations for a festive dining and entertainment experience at the International Institute on February 22. The evening program costs $10.50.

UL Open House Set for Sunday

The University Liggett, (UL), Lower School, 1045 Cook road, will hold an Open House on Sunday, January 22, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Following introductory remarks by Mary Thorn, head of the Lower School, and Frederick Scott, director of admissions, guests will have an opportunity to meet students, classroom teachers and administrators. The Lower School houses grades pre-kindergarten through five. University Liggett offers a challenging academic environment with small classes including special activities such as art, music, woodworking and numerous field trips. There also is an opportunity for students to be involved in Student Council, Brownies and Girl Scouts. For further information regarding admissions, curriculum or financial aid, call Frederick Scott, admissions director, at 884-4444.

Lady Novelists Set for Review

What subjects are being covered by the female novelist of the 1970's? Are some female novelists still writing feminist literature? Do all female novelists write from a feminine viewpoint? Do we have many new novelists in this decade? Find out the answers to these and other questions on Thursday, January 19, at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, at 1 p.m. Kris Morris, librarian at Central, will discuss five relatively new novelists of this decade including Toni Morrison, Ann Beattie, Ann Tyler, Joyce Rebeta-Burditt and Judith Guest. Their newest books will be reviewed, as well as other authors of this decade. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

The Fashions At Walton-Pierce . . . will brighten your life these wintery days. First of all there are lots of bargains that are temptingly tagged that will freshen your wardrobe and be easy on your budget. If you're looking forward to traveling south or want a head start on spring the cruise collection is added to every day. Some of the styles can really be worn all year round. Take Liz Claiborne's silky smock top with a ruffled stole. It comes in a beautiful jade green and can be worn in or out of coordinating pants. They are sold separately. Go together beautifully! Sprays of gay flowers are cut out and applied on a white jacket shirt that is edged with yellow rick rack. From Chatta has come delightful wrap around skirts with matching kerchiefs. There's a black and white camel pattern and a red, tan and yellow elephant design. The tops come in black, tan or yellow and are great with other skirts or pants in your wardrobe. From Leslie Fay there's a smart peach pant suit with soft smocking and an elasticized waist . . . The new chiffons come long and short. There is a charming tulip print. Delicate pink tulips are scattered on white satin striped chiffon. It is bow tied in the short version and V neck ruffled in the long length. An unusual combination of brown, purple and blue patterns a short white chiffon cocktail dress. Adele Simpson's elegant dresses are arriving. One favorite is a silky beige softly cut dress splashed with tan and black floral sprigs. Come see all the fashions at Walton-Pierce for a breath of spring.

Is your kitchen the duller room in your house? Let the experts at Mutschler Kitchens transform your out-of-date kitchen into something you'll be proud of. Stop in and see the wide variety of door styles and finishes on display at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue.

Special At The Notre Dame Pharmacy . . . Neutrogena soap. A box of 6 is now specially priced $5.96.

Cruise to Bali . . . from Singapore to Jakarta. See Hong Kong, Penang and Kuala Lumpur by air from $1499 each, 16 days including air from U.S. West Coast and cruise. Travelwise Travelers Always Ask for Mr. Q. 886-0500.

10% to 50% Savings . . . on selected Napier, Trifari and Hobe jewelry at The Squirrel's Nest, 19849 Mack Avenue.

DARN IT . . . Garnet! Why be out in the cold? Warm her up with garnets for January from Bijouterie, 19860 Mack Avenue between 7 and 8 Mile Roads. There's a beautiful selection of garnets rings and earrings.

The New 1978 Frames . . . and sunglasses are at Wood Optical Studio, 19599 Mack Avenue between 7 and 8 Mile Roads. Joyce told us one of the newest frames combines tiny rods of colors such as green and yellow and as you turn your head the effect can be all yellow or all green. Works in other colors too including blue and red. See the Gloria Vanderbilt, Pierre Cardin and other designer 1978 glasses now. Love those gradient tints and two tone tints.

Something lovely . . . in a 100% wool Karastan rug? MRS. JOSEPH H. LACKEY, OF HARBOR HILL

By Janet Mueller

A few years back, as a new member of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Pauline Lackey sold the most ads for the Symphony Juniors' annual Souvenir Program. Her "thank you" was the weekend's use of a condominium at L'Arbre Croche.

The Lackeys loved it — so much so that they returned to L'Arbre Croche as renters, and finally bought their own condominium.

This year, Pauline's second as general chairman of the Symphony Juniors' Souvenir Program, the Junior who brings in the most new ads will get a weekend at the Lackeys' L'Arbre Croche condominium.

Pauline hopes — no: knows — that the '78 Top Sales Family will enjoy it as much as she and Joe, Mamie, six, and Katie, four, do.

World Travelers
Face it: if Pauline and Joe Lackey like a place, it's got to be good. They're Circumnavigators, addicted to exploring the four corners of the globe . . . although, with two small daughters, Pauline doesn't see herself going off to Indonesia next year, or the year after that.

But she'll get there eventually. It's fated. As a small daughter herself, she almost made it.

She was born in The Netherlands. Her parents intended to move to Indonesia, plans were made . . . and war came. Plans were changed. The move was not east and south but west and north, to Canada.

Pauline grew up in Canada, and after finishing high school there Florida looked good. And warm. She enjoyed the University of Miami at Coral Gables.

Post-college, she headed north again, to Detroit, basically to be closer to her family. She met Joe. "We lived downtown for a few years after we were married. We're both very pro-Detroit."

"I think that's one of the reasons I so enjoy working with the Detroit Symphony."

RenCen Re-Location
They moved to The Pointe when Mamie was about a year old, but they still are very downtown-oriented. Joe has just moved into offices in the Renaissance Center. Pauline likes his new location as much as he does.

Spectacular setting. Spectacular views. "Meet me after work; we'll have dinner at The Mikado." If cities aren't for people, what is?

They love Grosse Pointe, too, of course: their home, their neighborhood, their suburb. Joe is the Harbor Hill Park Association's current president. He's been president of the Men's Association at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

He's a lawyer by profession, in the employe benefit phase of the insurance business. He's on the Leadership Team of the $1 Million Round Table, which will meet in Hawaii in June. "We're going." (Need you ask? — by WHY couldn't it have been February!?)

Pauline is working on her seventh piece of needlepoint for his office: a whimsical tortoise who is "moving into clouds today — tomorrow I'll try mountains." She's a genius at finding appropriate office motifs. How about "Only Robinson Crusoe got his work done by Friday?" She loves doing needlesonally involved with the symphony. He's entertained guest artists. Maestro and Mrs. Antal Dorati have had dinner at the Lackey home, making complete conquests of Mamie and Katie.

It Must Be Dorati

Pauline is wise enough to limit her little girls' concert-going to children's programs. Hayman is their conductor. But they KNOW Dorati; now, whenever they hear the Detroit Symphony, they're convinced the maestro they know MUST BE conducting.

Joe, whose hobby is photography, has a charming picture of his two girls with the DSO's world-famous music director.

Dorati is the focus of the Symphony Juniors' Souvenir Program Book this year. Maria Arnold wrote the 12-page feature article on the maestro.

Maria and Pauline interviewed Dorati last May, in San Francisco, where he was guest conductor with the San Francisco Symphony. Maria and Pauline, whose husbands are business associates, had accompanied their men on a business trip to the West Coast.

The result is the editorial feature, with lots of pictures, which Pauline thinks will become a collector's item. "Nothing this extensive has ever been put together on him before."

"He's such an inspiring man! I think that's why our program this year has had its greatest success . . . although I have to say that most of our selling was done before Dorati actually came to Detroit."

Biggest Book Ever

Perhaps it was something in the city air. Dorati, RenCen, a scent of something new, alive. The 1978 Symphony Juniors Souvenir Program Book is not only the biggest money-maker in Souvenir Program Book History — it's just plain the biggest.

"The Detroit business community, I think, really deserves some plaudits. It is consistently most cooperative in supporting civic and cultural enterprises."

"My hope is that the business community's enthusiasm will carry over to individuals." And match the enthusiasm of the Juniors' approximately 250 active members, (about 35 new this year), who expect to raise some $140,000 for the symphony in 1977-78.

The Souvenir Program Book will account for a little more than $40,000 of that total — and Pauline is personally responsible for $9,000 of that $40,000.

It was her own enthusiasm, and a desire to see things through, that led Pauline Lackey to tackle the Souvenir Program general chairmanship two years in a row.

B.P. (Before Pauline), the Juniors had a requirement that every new member had to bring in three new ads for the Souvenir Program Book. But people are good at doing different things: one woman may be a whiz at organization, another can sell anybody anything . . .

The three new ads per each new member requirement was dropped in favor of going with the individual talent within the group. "I decided to create a sales force. And I decided that to group as they make Grosse Pointe's Montmartre night a memorable occasion.

They like to describe their own performances as "un regal d'esprit, de reve, de couleurs, et d'infinie gentillesse!"

Among their numbers will be songs made famous by Jacques Brel, Gilbert Beaud and Edith Piaf, as well as traditional folksongs.

Monique and Gilbert promise "Marjolaine," "Feuilles Mortes," "La Mer," "Plaisir d'Amour," "Chant de l'Alouette" and much, much more.

each chairman should have an assistant chairman."

Flowing Along
The assistant chairmen would be understudies, receiving on-the-job training so they could move easily, after a year, into their chairmanships. "Flow" is the name of Pauline's game. She stayed on for a second year as general chairman because she was curious to see how the flow would go.

Trudy Quigley stayed on too, as chairman of printing and layout. So did Marti Bruno, West Side sales chairman, who was equally curious to see how the innovations would work in practice.

Two other indispensable holdovers from last year's Souvenir Program committee are Maria Arnold and Mary Lou Kerr, co-chairmen of the 1977 Souvenir Program Afterglow. Maria is Program Book editor this year. Mary Lou is Pauline's assistant chairman — and Mary Lou already has commitments from some companies for ads for next year's book.

The 1978 Symphony Souvenir Program debuts at the end of this month, at the symphony's January 27 concert, which will be followed by the traditional Souvenir Program Night Afterglow.

"We're sending invitations to every advertiser, asking each one to be our guest at the afterglow in Ford Auditorium." Butting them up for next year? Partly . . . but mostly a genuine thank you: see what we've done and know that we couldn't have done it without you.

It's always a gala evening, a time for congratulations all around. It's the formal finis to Pauline's term as general chairman.

A New Beginning
The Program Books will continue to be handed out, as long as they last, at every symphony concert until the end of May. Work starts in March on next year's book, after all this year's loose ends have been tied up.

The book out, the task done . . . but I'll probably still be working with the billing chairman in February," Pauline admits.

And after that, what? She and Joe are co-chairing advertising for this spring's Grosse Pointe Academy Action Auction benefit. They're Founders Society members. Pauline has always wanted to do more with and at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

From Another Pointe of View

son and her home in Amherst, Mass. It is the Parke home, too, for it was purchased in 1916 by Dr. Parke's parents, The Reverend and Mrs. Hervey Parke. Dr. Parke grew up there . . . in fact, he occupied the same bedroom as Emily. The house, owned since 1965 by Amherst College, is now listed as an historic site.

It was built in 1813 by Emily's grandfather, Samuel Fowler Dickinson, when Amherst was still a farm community. Samuel Dickinson, convinced of the importance of a good education, founded Amherst Academy and later Amherst College with the help of lexicographer Noah Webster and others.

Edward Dickinson followed in his father's footsteps. Edward was instrumental in bringing the railroad to Amherst and making it the site of Massachusetts Agricultural College, now the University of Massachusetts.

Dr. Parke feels that the intellectual atmosphere of the town, based largely on the efforts of these men, has not changed a great deal from Emily's time. There have been major physical changes, of course. The development of the university, which now has a student body of nearly 30,000, has brought a sixfold increase in population.

But when Dr. Parke was growing up, Amherst was still very much a small town. His mother, Ethel, was a friend of Emily Dickinson's niece, Madame Bianchi, who lived next door at the Evergreens.

The Evergreens was built for Emily's brother, Austin, when he married. Madame Bianchi, Austin's daughter, published an anthology of Miss Dickinson's poetry which is widely read.

Millicent Todd Bingham, another frequent visitor at Parkes', was also a devotee of the poet. Her mother, Mabel Todd, was instrumental in the initial publication of Emily's poems.

In addition to Emily Dickinson and Noah Webster, many other literary figures have made their home in Amherst, including poet Eugene Field and Ray Stannard Baker, biographer of President Woodrow Wilson.

Another poet, Robert Frost, during his professorship at Amherst College, spent many an evening in front of the Parke fire.

This year, Dr. Parke, formerly manager of International Market Research with Parke Davis and Company and Warner-Lambert, now retired, and his wife, a frequent substitute in the English Departments at Grosse Pointe North and South High Schools, have shared their Amherst Experience with American Studies classes at both high schools.

The students find the Parkes' presentation fascinating. The young Pointers are intrigued by descriptions of Emily's home, first brick house to be built in Amherst, its outer walls solid masonry, (three-bricks thick), its roof rafters secured to the ridgepole with hand-cut pegs.

Much remodelling has been done, but the laundry retains its built-in copper wash-boiler next to the kitchen chimney. There are no water taps connected to it, however, for water was brought into Amherst homes less than 100 years ago.

The young Pointers are intrigued, too, by Hervey and Mary's analysis of Emily. Both Parkes feel that Miss Dickinson, a recluse in her own time, today might be active in the Women's Liberation Movement.

She was, after all, a free-thinker. She did not subscribe to the Congregational traditions of her family. She was very likely strongly influenced by Edward Hitchcock, an Amherst professor who taught her science at the academy and who found his religion in the wonders of God's creation.

And Emily was an innovator in her poetry. At a time when most poems followed conventional lines of rhyme and meter, she was more interested in what the words themselves had to say, and she used the metaphor extensively as a means of introducing more food for thought.

A fascinating woman, and very much one for our times . . .

And the Detroit Science Center, just into its fantastic, new building, really intrigues her. She'd love to get involved with Science Center activities.

General chairman of the Souvenir Program, the Symphony Juniors' second biggest annual fund-raiser, (for years, until Musical Marathon, it was first), is a tough act to follow.

Well . . . Indonesia's a tough place to get to. Want to bet Pauline won't make it?
