

GP'S STRIVE TO CUT ENERGY

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

LEON SPINKS scored one of boxing's greatest upsets Wednesday night when he captured the world heavyweight championship with a 15-round split decision over Muhammad Ali and possibly ended the fabled career of the 36's greatest showman. Ali, ring, is bleeding from the mouth most of the fight and succumbed to the relentless pursuit of the 24-year-old Olympic light heavyweight gold medalist. Spinks' professional record is now 7-0-1, while his amateur mark was 178-7.

ROTATING BLACKOUTS for homes and businesses in the Detroit area could begin as early as Thursday, March 16, Detroit Edison reported yesterday. The two-hour blackouts would conserve the existing supplies of coal that are dwindling because of the prolonged United Coal Miners strike. Edison officials made the announcement as they launched a $50,000 campaign to broadcast energy conservation messages on radio and television. They said that although they are planning the blackouts, they hope such action won't be necessary.

Saturday, February 18

LABOR SECRETARY Ray Marshall is working around the clock to find terms to end the coal miners strike. Yesterday he carried a new industry contract over to representatives of the United Mine Workers, (UMW), in an effort to settle the 74-day strike but the miners held out for more. President Jimmy Carter, meanwhile, told a news conference in Washington, D.C., that he asked negotiators to "stay at the bargaining table until a final settlement is reached," or he would take "more serious action."

Sunday, February 19

TWO TERRORISTS claiming to be Palestinians assassinated Egyptian newspaper editor Youssef Sebahi yesterday and then hijacked a jetliner with 16 hostages to Djibouti, Africa. Cypriot Interior Minister Christodoulos Benjamin, one of the hostages, said the gunman shot Mr. Sebahi in the lobby of the Hilton Hotel in Nicosia. Mr. Benjamin was one of the hostages released before the plane took off. In Beirut, a spokesman for the Palestine Liberation Organization denied any PLO involvement in the raid.

Monday, February 20

THE WHITE HOUSE announced yesterday that President Jimmy Carter will begin "immediately" seeking congressional support to force an end to the coal strike. A spokesman described what has been called a "two-step process." Without giving details, the official said Mr. Carter was ready to employ "less attractive but unavoidable" alternatives to resolve the walkout. Press Secretary Jody Powell said, "Consultation with congressional leadership will begin immediately."

Tuesday, February 21

EGYPT BROKE diplomatic relations with Cyprus last night over the airport shoot-out in which Egyptian forces killed 15 Cypriot commandos who were trying to carry out a rescue raid at Larnaca Airport. The commandos were killed Sunday night when they attempted to save 16 hostages from a Cypriot DCB which had been hijacked by two Arab terrorists. The 15 dead Egyptians and 11 wounded arrived in Egypt early today.

Girl Scouts Plan Service for Special Week

Brownie Scout ANNE NICHOLSON and leader SUZANNE NICHOLSON. The service will feature "The World of Scouting" and will be held at Christ Episcopal Church on Sunday, March 5, at 3 p.m. (See story, Page 5.)

Response to 'Vial of Life' Plan Slow

Program Moves Along in Woods But Other Pointes Report Lack-luster Interest

By Roger A. Waha
The "Rotary Vial of Life" program, which is geared toward senior citizens and those who are continually under medication which might render them unconscious, is moving along in The Woods but response from citizens in the other Pointes still remains slow to the surprise of some officials.

Meanwhile, while there are some bright spots in the local program which has received solid endorsements from police and fire officials, the Harper Woods Rotary Club is sponsoring a similar program which will be administered by the fire department.

Woods Det. Lt. Jack Patterson, who has been the spark-plug for The Pointe program, has already participated in five speaking engagements since the first of the year.

Let People Know
He has visited such groups as Woods senior citizens at North High School and the Out-Wayne County Nutrition Site housed in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue.

His next stop will be at the regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter No. 2151, American Ass'n. of Retired Persons, on Monday, February 27, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake.

The district traffic and safety engineer of the Department of State Highways and Transportation contacted The Woods by letter, viewing a request from Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook in relation to traffic problems in the Brys Drive area.

Without Tax Proposal, School Board Seeks Way To Finance Improvements

Bond Issue on Horizon But Officials Say More Information Is Needed at This Time; Besides South Complex, Other Older Schools Need Work

By Susan McDonald
With the collapse of its summer tax collection plan, the Board of Education will be looking around in the next few months for a way to finance major improvements of some of its aging school buildings.

The Board committed itself to issuing bonds, without a vote of the community, to finance renovations of South High School's Industrial Arts Building and a still incomplete list of repairs to several other schools.

The savings, (an estimated $400,000 a year), from the proposed summer tax collection was to be earmarked to pay for the bond issue. Because of a legal technicality, however, the Board dismissed the summer tax project last week as both Harper Woods and Grosse Pointe City would probably be unable to collect school taxes in July.

Could Hike Levy
But it is still committed to issuing the bonds, probably in late spring, according to Superintendent Dr. William Coats.

"We need cost estimates from the architect, (William Kessler), on the South High project before we can really begin to put a figure on this," Dr. Coats explained. "In the meantime, we're putting together a list of some other projects that need attention."

The bond issue may increase the school system's debt retirement millage levy, which now stands at 2.1 mills out of a total school-library levy of 38.72 mills. If that happens, it will be the first time additional school millage has been levied in The Pointe without a vote, according to School Board President John Bruce.

"I don't know how else we can begin to address the repair and renovation of the facilities we have," Mr. Bruce explained. "Ever since our first millage defeat at the polls, in 1967-68, we've been ignoring some of the problems in the older schools. I don't think we've done what should be done to keep the buildings in good shape."

Closing Viewed
"I'd like to see the repairs put on a regular schedule, rather than doing them on a crisis basis. That's good management," he said.

At the same time, Mr. Bruce noted the Board will be following enrollment trends at some of the schools with an eye toward an eventual closing to cut costs.

Woods Readies New Safety Plan

"We're still shooting for the Wednesday, March 1, delivery date for the youngsters," said Woods Det. Lt. Jack Patterson last week in relation to disseminating pads and pencils to all safety patrol children and school crossing guards as part of a Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club project.

The club is donating around $260 to put the pads, with the Kiwanis logo, and pencils into the hands of the youngsters, who will provide extra "eyes and ears" on the street toward reporting suspicious activity.

This intensification of the overall child safety program will be coordinated by the lieutenant and Woods Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook, with about 250 pads and pencils being obtained on the initial thrust.

All safety patrol persons in Woods public, private and parochial schools will receive the materials.

Criminal Activity Up in GPF

Reported Incidents Rise By 22 over 1976; Most Crimes Committed By Young People

By Wendy K. Settle
Reported criminal activity in The Farms increase last year as 519 incidents were reported to police as against 497 in 1976, according to the department's 31-page annual report which covers all police activity during the year while emphasizing major areas of concern and involvement.

In viewing major crimes, no homicides or rapes were reported last year, while one homicide and no rapes were reported in 1976. Eight robberies were reported in both years. Meanwhile, aggravated assault cases climbed from one in 1976 to three last year, and burglary reports rose from 57 to 59 in 1977.

Larceny incidents jumped from 382 to 412 last year, while auto theft reports fell from 46 in 1976 to 37.

Focus on Arsons
"The most disturbing factor I found in the 1977 major crime report," said Police Chief Robert Ferber, "was the involvement of juveniles. As stated in my report, 62 percent of all persons arrested for major crimes were under age 17."

The chief added that "87 percent of all persons arrested for major crimes were under age 25."

The involvement of juveniles also is suspected in the one criminal area that shot up in occurrences during 1977. That tremendous increase was in arson. Twelve arson cases were reported in 1977 as compared to two in 1976.

Eleven of last year's arson cases occurred between November 5 and 19. During that two-week period nine garages, one boat and one house were set ablaze.

The arson cases are still being investigated by The Farms detective bureau. Those cases are part of the 483 cases that the three-person bureau investigated last year.

Another juvenile-related crime, bicycle theft, decreased in 1977. Only 140 bikes were reported stolen last year as compared to 152 in 1976.

GP Officials Review 'Open Meetings Law'

"Sunshine" Measure, Which Became Effective Last April, Has Worked Well for Most Although Some School Board Trustees, Park Mayor Disagree

By Susan McDonald and Roger A. Waha
It's been almost a year since Michigan's "Sunshine Law" forced local governments to open their meetings to the public. While some officials, especially those in smaller units of government, are pleased with the law's results, there are plenty who feel the act has had a detrimental effect on their ability to govern.

Mayors and city managers in The City, Farms, Woods and Shores say they've had no problem complying with the "Open Meetings Law." Its basic effect on those bodies is to open their previously private, informal "executive" or "committee of the whole" meetings to citizens and the press.

"We've always run our meetings like a town hall," says City Mayor John King. "We never tried to hide anything, people are always welcome, so the law has really made very little difference to us."

Not As Efficient
Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos goes even further in his endorsement of the act, saying he's willing to discuss anything at all relating to the public welfare, the law's eight listed exceptions notwithstanding, including salary and wage proposals, administrative officers' evaluations, et al.

In The Farms and Shores, the problem is only with the extra paper work, taking minutes of all meetings and making announcements.

But there is a far different reaction to the act among members of the School Board and the Park Council. They say the necessity to discuss everything in public has put a restraint on their ability to communicate and has limited their effectiveness as public officials.

"It's difficult to be as frank as we should be in discussing certain things," said School Board Trustee Joan Hanpeter. "To the extent that Board members can't be honest with each other—especially about personnel—the whole school system suffers."

St. Paul Youth Set Paper Drive

The high school youth group at Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375 Lothrop road, will hold a paper drive on Saturday, March 4, from 9 a.m. until dark.

Papers may be dropped off in the church parking lot or individuals may call the church at 881-6670, and one of the youth group's members will pick them up.

The money received from the drive will be used to support an orphan boy in India, sponsored by the group, plus other programs which the group conducts.

GPA Teacher Uses CPR To Save Life of Student

By Susan McDonald
It began as a typical school field trip—42 rambunctious Grosse Pointe Academy (GPA) students loaded on a bus headed for a Valentine's Day skating party on Friday, February 17.

But it almost turned into a tragedy when, while speeding along the Ford freeway, one of those 42 kids suddenly slumped across the seat, unconscious and not breathing.

"Because I've had the training, I didn't have to hesitate and run the possibilities through my mind," Mrs. Cook explained. "I cleared her air passage and applied artificial respiration. I just did it... and shook later."

Kneeling on the floor of the still-moving bus, with 40 anxious faces surrounding her, Mrs. Cook applied the techniques. Within moments Andrea was revived, and shortly after her mother was at the scene.

Governor's Address Hits Home

But Many Have Already Taken Variety of Conservation Steps Prior to Speech

By Roger A. Waha and Wendy K. Settle
Gov. William G. Milliken's plea for voluntary energy conservation on the part of all citizens in a Friday evening, February 17, televised address has received a sympathetic ear in The Pointe.

In warning everyone "to prepare for the worst," Gov. Milliken urged citizens to undertake in a power conservation plan a homes, public buildings, stores and at work.

He cited several points including the elimination of outdoor advertising lights and decorative outdoor floodlights, the elimination of commercial display lighting and window lighting and the reduction of interior lighting, turning off lights and electrical appliances in offices when not in use and dialing down to between 65 and 68 degrees.

Schools Take Action
With the possibility of blackouts on the horizon pending citizen compliance with voluntary energy conservation efforts, along with consideration of the effects of the coal strike, Pointe school, hospital and city officials, plus local merchants, remain ever aware of the need to conserve.

In the public school system, an effort is being made toward reducing energy consumption by at least 10 percent, reported Ben Zenn, director of support services.

Mr. Zenn met with all building principals on Wednesday, February 15, and with building engineers on Monday, February 20, toward reviewing the highest energy usage months and zeroing in on a program on a building-by-building basis.

We want to go beyond only electrical conservation but consider natural gas and oil as well, said Mr. Zenn, in relation to main sources of energy for each structure.

Each building will be visited on a consistent basis, he said, while noting each staff has been alerted in the conservation drive. "We need their help, too," he stressed.

Mr. Zenn added, in relation to South and North High Schools which are both big users of energy, that companies have visited each school and "we have some proposals as part of the total capital outlay projects to bring to the Board's attention" toward energy conservation at both locations.

Reorganization Vote Delayed

A Board of Education vote on a plan to reorganize its administrative offices was postponed earlier this month when a trustee objected to the plan's recommendation that additional personnel be hired.

The Board was scheduled to vote on the reorganization Monday, February 13. But Superintendent Dr. William Coats said he will make some revisions in the program because of Trustee Joan Hanpeter's comments and present it to the Board at a later date.

In the meantime, he said the reorganization document will not be made available to the public.

Mrs. Hanpeter voiced her concerns about the additional personnel at a meeting held Monday, February 6.

The reorganization was one of 22 projects for the school year approved by the School Board in September.

One new position—assistant superintendent of administrative services—was posted and applications for it were accepted, according to Dr. Coats.

No one has been hired to fill the job, he added.

Pointes Strive to Cut Energy

Like school system personnel, hospital officials have been energy conscious from past experience. At Saint John, Pepper Whitelaw, public relations director, indicated that an administrative memo on voluntary electrical energy conservation was distributed a week before the Governor's address.

Walk, Don't Ride
This memo urged everyone to strive for a voluntary reduction of 10 percent, including such stipulations as having employees walk down two floors and up one rather than using the elevator, reducing half of corridor, lobby and entrance lighting, along with the elimination of all non-essential lighting and the shutting down of electrical appliances when not in use.

The effort to reduce consumption by at least 10 percent also is an objective at Cottage. "Detroit Edison asked us last week to cut our consumption by 10 percent and we have," said Alice Curtis, public relations director, who noted, "We will go further if necessary."

She said lights have been turned off in various corridors and all personnel have been urged to turn them off when not needed. "The chief engineer also has some contingency plans if we need them," e.g., going on generators, she added.

At Bon Secours, Lois Clamade Armstrong, public relations director, said, "Our building service department has gone over the hospital with a fine tooth comb" toward conserving energy.

Concerns Remain
All lights not needed will be turned off, she said, while citing as an example halls which have windows and are brightly lit anyway.

Stressing a further conservation consciousness, Mrs. Armstrong added, "All general employees have been encouraged to think about the energy they are using and to turn off all unnecessary lights."

Meanwhile, at the city level, Park City Manager Robert A. Stone stated only lights that are really needed are being used, while dialing down continues as before.

At the storm water pumping station, pumps will be tested every two weeks now in comparison to every week as in the past, as concerns remain over this operation in the event of an emergency.

In The Farms, City Manager Andrew Bremer stated the city can't dial down much more and have personnel working in the various offices remain comfortable, while all unnecessary lights are being turned off.

Mr. Bremer also said a call was recently received from Edison and, as a result, the city is going to supplement more power for the generator at its water plant as against using power from Edison.

Seeking More Info

City Finance Director Dennis Foran said staff meetings had already been held last week with preparations being made toward conserving energy. "All department heads are working on ideas in case of an emergency and toward saving energy," he noted.

At the same time, a meeting was scheduled with an Edison representative yesterday, February 22, at The City.

Public Safety Director Bruce Kennedy called the session and invited other Pointe police and fire chiefs toward obtaining further information on the current situation as it is today from the public safety standpoint.

In The Shores, Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers said, "We've taken the Governor's message to heart, and will continue to get on everyone's back toward conserving energy," something, he added, which the Village has been conscious of all along.

Finally, Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen stated, in relation to the Governor's address, that officials haven't come to any conclusions as yet, although personnel have taken steps in the past, e.g., dialing down, to conserve energy.

Many Cut Lighting
All merchants, plus others in the community, contacted by the NEWS have either cut down on their use of electricity or are planning to do so in the near future.

Salem Square Market, 107 Kercheval avenue, reported the highest percentage of cutbacks. "We've cut our electricity by about 35 percent," said Mel Ferdinande, co-owner. "And we'll cut down as much as they want, for as long as they want if we have to."

Mr. Ferdinande added, "We don't want those blackouts. Right now we've got the lights in the dairy, produce and bakery cases out, and six rows of overhead lights are turned off."

The Village Food Market, 18328 Mack avenue, also has cut down on electricity. Owner Neil Bell said, "All of our outside lights are turned off except for one floodlight and that's on for security reasons. We've also turned off our sign and the advertising lights."

John Lake, director of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, said the Center is cool but they're saving electricity. "We've dropped the heat, and half of the parking lot lights are shut off. The other half are being turned off at midnight instead of 2 a.m. which has been the shutoff time in the past," he said.

Mr. Lake added, "The exterior floodlights will be left on for security reasons but interior lights are being cut in rooms that are not being used."

Help Out More

Perhaps one business which uses a great amount of electricity is beauty salons. Michael James of Michael James Coiffures, 20527 Mack avenue, noted that with dryers and hair blowers it's hard to cut back. "But we have cut down on most lights," he said. "I'd figure by turning off the lights up front and outside we've cut about 10 percent of our electricity."

Mr. James added, "We have to have some light, I can't cut someone's hair in the dark."

Jacobson's, in-the-Village, is one of the largest stores in the area and because of its size, the store is on Detroit Edison's High Usage list for businesses. "Detroit Edison tells us that we must cut back by 10 percent," said Clarence Wascher, general manager. "Edison got together with us long before the Governor did."

Jacobson's 10 percent cutbacks are automatically controlled through their heating and cooling systems. "The monitor turns the heat on and off at 12-minute intervals," Mr. Wascher noted.

"It really cuts more than 10 percent but because it doesn't really effect lighting, people don't notice our electrical cutbacks. We are going to be turning off the window lights at 9 p.m. instead of 11 p.m. just to help out a little more."

Merchant Groups Act
Ed Kiska of Kiska Jewelers, 63 Kercheval avenue, president of the Hill Merchants Ass'n., and Bill Huntington, of Walton-Pierce, 16828 Kercheval, president of the Village Merchants Ass'n., have both notified members of their associations to conserve energy.

"I've also turned off the lights in my display cases," Mr. Kiska said. "And I've turned off some overhead lights."

Mr. Huntington said the heat has been turned down at Walton-Pierce. "The heat's down, the display window lights are out and some overhead lights have been turned off," he said. "We're trying to cut down by 25 percent."

Meanwhile, Robert F. Hill, of Grosse Pointe Pharmacy, 19795 Mack, president of the Grosse Pointe Merchant's Ass'n., said the board was going to address itself to the energy conservation question at a meeting, scheduled for yesterday, February 22. Mr. Hill stated he viewed the Governor's address favorably and indicated the board will be taking some action.

Eyes Main Light
Tom Krueger, business manager at Ted Ewald Chevrolet, 15175 East Jefferson avenue, said, "We have cut off all of our exterior advertising lights, and we've cut our interior lighting by 50 percent."

The Golden Lion Restaurant, 22380 Moross road, is reminding employees to turn off lights in rooms not in use. Owner Doug Phillips said, "We're turning off all unnecessary lights, but I can't turn off lights in the dining room when people are eating."

"I sent out a memo the morning of Monday, February 20, requesting everybody to turn out the lights when they leave a room," said Hugh Bicksler, business manager of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue. "We're cutting out all decorative lighting."

The church is now primarily functioning with the "light of the Lord," he added.

Jim Pallas Creates The 'Tubedance'

Pointer JIM PALLAS has been a working artist for 15 years. Presently his show "Works in Progress IV" is on exhibit in the North Court at the Detroit Institute of Arts. The largest and most fascinating piece in the exhibit is "The North Court Tube-dance." In the "dance," eight polyethylene tubes inflate and deflate, rising up to 40 feet. "Art helps me be one person . . . rather than a multitude," Jim says. "It makes me grow and learn."

GP Artist Displays His . . .
Ping, Pang, Wow . . . Work

By Wendy K. Settle
Webster's Dictionary defines "Art" as "human creativity . . . a making of things that have form or beauty." Jim Pallas is an artist. Webster's defines "Technology" as "applied science . . . the practical or industrial arts." Jim Pallas is a technician.

This combination may seem to be a contradiction, but put technology and art in the hands of The Pointe artist and what results is fascinating. His pieces bob, beep, light-up, dance and rotate. He even has a picture that walks and draws pictures.

Jim has made art fun, an adventure into science and most of all an exciting experience for the senses. Until Sunday, March 12, an exhibit of his works is on display in the North Court of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The exhibit is called "Works in Progress IV" because Jim is still changing it as he goes. What visitors see on Thursday will not be the same on Saturday and so it goes until the grand finale the last day of the show.

"I'm not sure what I'll do for the last day," he smiled, "but with all this space, it will really be fun."

The North Court of the institute is massive. "When they asked me to do this show, I looked at all the space and thought, 'I'm really going to do something neat with all this room,'" Jim said.

Space to work in gives him quite a thrill, considering his studio at home in The Park is approximately 20' by 20' and it's basically a garage crammed full of equipment and things he needs to create.

So, he created "The North Court Tubedance." This is the largest work in the exhibit. The group of eight polyethylene tubes inflate and deflate according to the changing stimuli in the North Court.

"It's an eight digit binary counter," Jim said. The motion of the tubes is regulated by a small electronic computer that senses light levels in the room. The tubes dance up and down, rising up to 40 feet with a terrific whooshing sound that would calm even the most savage of beasts.

The tubes dance diagonally across the main court area and lead the visitor into a smaller room where he is bombarded by eerie wire sculptures with flashing lights, mirror clouds and rotating plexiglas.

"The Ego Machine" consists of five interactive sculptures. The first, "Wind Attendant" sets off the actions of the other four pieces by reacting to the present weather conditions. It is located outside and is equipped with two wind sensors and a photo-sensitive eye that feeds data to the "Ego Hissel" through an underground cable.

Through the logic structure, (which is a small computer), of the "Ego Hissel" inside the building, the other three pieces in "The Ego Machine" react to the data.

Self-taught about computer logic, Jim says the designs for his little collection are "functional, but insane."

Other pieces in the show include a three legged sculpture called "Baby or Metaphysical Clouds." As suggested by the double title, this unit has two modes.

As "Baby," it carries on feet equipped with markers and creates drawings. As "Metaphysical Clouds," (when it's turned upside down), three mirrored clouds revolve at varying rates.

Three of "Baby's" drawings are included in the show. Other drawings that he (or it) has done can be purchased at the Institute's gift shop. "The first drawing," Jim laughed, "was sold for a dollar. The second for two dollars and so on . . . I think they're up to $19 or $20 now."

The exhibit goes on in a cavalcade of light, color and sound. Valves thump and beads ping, and as you leave the North Court your senses are exhausted and delighted.

"It's all just fun," Jim nodded. And it is!

"Of course we grown-ups are supposed to call it work," he added as he motioned to the tubes dancing in the air. "but how can that be anything but fun."

Theroux Talks Set at Library

Remember The Great Railway Bazaar?
On Thursday, March 2, the Grosse Pointe Public Library Book Review series will feature the writings of contemporary author of that work, Paul Theroux, at 1 p.m. Gerda Bielez, chief of Central Library, will be the speaker. The one-hour program at the library, 10 Kercheval avenue, will appeal to armchair travelers and fiction buffs, as well as devotees of Paul Theroux.

The program is offered free of charge. The public is invited.

Criminal Activity Up

(Continued from Page 1) over the '177 reported in 1976. Other minor crimes reported in 1977 were arrests for narcotics and drugs, which were up to 63 over 54 two years ago. Drunk driving arrests rose to 66 as against 51 in 1976. Arrests for vagrancy increased from one in 1976 to three in 1977, while bomb threats went from seven in 1976 to 11 in 1977.

In 1976 there were no reports of criminal sexual conduct. In 1977 three incidents were reported, one third degree case and two fourth degree. One indecent exposure incident was reported under the three reported in 1976 and one molesting report occurred each year.

The report shows a huge increase in simple assault cases. Forty assaults were reported in 1977 as compared to 29 in 1976. Another jump occurred in larcenies under $100, with 229 reported last year against 213 in 1976.

The total number of liquor licenses in existence in The Farms is 18. Four of those licenses are Class C, allowing the sale of liquor, beer and wine by the glass; two are private club licenses; eight are SDM licenses, allowing the sale of beer and wine in containers; and four are SDD licenses permitting the sale of beer and wine.

Those Honored Merit Board Awards were presented to eight Farms police officers in 1977. Each award was given in recognition of meritorious action. Cpl. Otto Glanert and Officer Gerald Deburghgraeve received the Life Saving Award and eight hours compensatory time off for attempting to save the life of a motorist who had lost control of his car and plummeted into Lake St. Clair.

The accident occurred on August 22, and the victim died 24 hours after the officers rescued him. Officer Clarence Reichling was presented with a Departmental Commendation for an incident that occurred on February 26, involving a high speed chase of an armed robbery suspect.

As the result of a felony larceny arrest on May 1, Officers Phillip Miglio and Johannes Winter received Departmental Commendations. Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem, Cpl. Glanert and Det. Samuel Cardella received Departmental Commendations for the surveillance and arrest of a group of juveniles for breaking and entering. The arrests cleared a number of burglaries which had occurred in The Farms and The City.

In viewing the police outlook for 1978, Chief Ferber said, "I anticipate that The Farms will follow the national patterns and particularly the metropolitan area patterns. The condition of the national economy and, again, the economy of the metro area, will have a major impact upon criminal occurrences in The Farms."

Mr. Riley added in conjunction with such a change, "We can sign Eight Mile road at I-94, Trucks, No Left Turn." This would, however, require a written request from the City of Harper Woods since Eight Mile road is a local street.

In viewing suggestions toward alleviating the high traffic volume in the Brys area, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen cited the range of information the city has obtained, including the input from citizens and the recommendations of planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers.

He also cited the complexity of the problem because three local governments are affected, i.e., The Woods, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores. Citing an overall theme expressed by officials, Mr. Petersen said, "We have no answers now but the city is listening and striving to arrive at the most feasible method to decrease the volume of traffic in Eight Mile and Brys."

He added the further exploration of various alternatives will continue.

Besides Mrs. Bay, Mrs. Cook said she received calls from other parents, thanking her for being there to save the youngster.

It was her first chance to use the techniques she learned last summer, and already she's planning to take a refresher course this year.

"Sometimes you don't appreciate how fleeting life can be until you're confronted with something like this," said Mrs. Cook, a mother of two children. "That's what the incident made me realize."

Police Arrest Young Robbers

Three Detroit juveniles were arrested by Park police on Sunday, February 19, following the hold-up, at knife point, of a newsboy at 15005 Jefferson, near Wayburn, it was revealed by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

According to information released by the lieutenant, the three young robbers approached the newsboy at 9:25 a.m. One of the trio drew a knife and demanded that their victim hand over all the money he had in his pocket.

When their request was refused, two of the robbers grabbed the newsboy and the third ripped his coat pocket, removing four dollars. The three then fled from the scene.

A cab driver, who witnessed the incident, followed one of the young thieves to Philip street in Detroit. He returned to the scene of the robbery, where he told Park Officers Eugene Magnee and Randall Cain, who were questioning the newsboy, where he had last seen one of the culprits.

Officers Magnee and Cain followed the cab driver back to the area where the teen robber was last seen, and searched the neighborhood. They spotted a lad who fit the description of one of the trio and took him into custody in an alley south of Philip.

The boy who was arrested implicated his two companions following questioning at The Park station, and the pair was picked up a few minutes later at their homes. The officers said two of the boys were 13-years-old and the other, 14-years-old. The robbery victim was 15-years-old, it was said.

The three robbers were released to the Youth Service Division for further questioning and investigation. Later, charges were filed against the trio with Wayne County Juvenile Court authorities.

Teachers Have Training Day

While students had the day off Monday, February 20, their teachers were hard at work going back to the classroom themselves to improve their teaching skills at the annual Staff Development Day.

Each teacher attended three sessions during the day at North High School, choosing from a wide variety of presentations by professionals from the University of Michigan, Michigan State, Central Michigan, Wayne State and Bowling Green, as well as representatives from local secondary schools and businesses.

To improve teaching skills, teachers were offered workshops in everything from cognitive styles to transactional analysis in the classroom, which promised to "help you feel okay about yourself and your students."

In addition, instructors had a chance to find out about 20th century artists, memory training, values clarification in career education, death, integrating music with language arts and puppetry.

Adjourn Trial Date for Pair

The Wayne County Circuit Court trial date of two Detroiters who are charged with robbery armed with a gun, was once again adjourned, this time from Thursday, February 2, to sometime early next month because one witness in the case was in the hospital, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel last week.

Prior to this latest adjournment, the case was postponed from January 3 to the February date.

Roderick Simpson, 26, of San Juan, and Suzanne Barber, 28, of Washburn, are charged in the incident in which an estimated $115,000 in precious stones and around $3,000 in cash was taken from Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, last July.

About $2,000 worth of jewelry has been recovered.

will serve as mistress of ceremonies. Extending the scouts' welcome to their guests will be Brownie Scouts Gretchen Kogel, Rosanne Locricchio and Lynne Marozin. The Girl Scout Promise and Laws will be led by Cadette Scout Gina Parise.

Speaking on the Girl Scout World Centers in London, England, Cuernavaca, Mexico, Adelboden, Switzerland, and Poona, India, will be Senior Scouts MaryAnn Gallagher, Carole Ruwart, Judy Olsen and Marie Livermore.

The 51st annual presentation of troop donations to the "Juliette Low World Friendship Fund" will be in charge of Junior Scouts Lynley Jones, Michelle Gier, and Jennifer Tuffley. Cadette Scout Jennifer Payne will give the farewell for the program.

Senior Scout Pam Neal will serve as head usher and supervising the parade of International Flags will be Senior Scout Kim Peattie. Guest organist for the service will be Scout father Leslie Sanders of University place.

Among the honored guests who will attend this annual program will be the Rector of the hostess church, The Rev. Robert R. McGregor, and Mrs. Thomas A. Coulter of Westchester road, Mrs. Charles R. Kinnaird of Moran road, and Jean Wayman of Calvin road.

Mrs. Coulter serves as president, Mrs. Kinnaird is first vice-president and Miss Wayman is executive director of Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

Others attending the services will be Girl Scout board members Mrs. Robert Bowen of Whittier road, Mrs. Joseph Graham of Hampton road, Mr. Richard Kay of Rivard boulevard, Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Kensington road and Mrs. Thomas Rochford of Belanger road.

Multi-Media Vespers Set

Saint James Lutheran Church of Grosse Pointe, at McMillan road near Kercheval, will offer a presentation on the greatness of the Lord's love through slides and stereo at its fourth Lenten Vesper on Wednesday, March 1, at 8 p.m.

Entitled "To God Be The Glory," and presented by Bob and Arlene Bush, it is a program based on the love of the Lord at work in our world and lives today.

Moving realism is achieved through the medium of slides projected on three large screens, the use of stereo sacred music and Scripture and Scriptural writings.

Mr. Bush is a graduate of Brooks Institute of Photography and is presently chief photographer, Design Center, Ford Motor Co.

He and his wife made a similar presentation at Saint James a year ago on the theme, "How Great Thou Art," which proved to be one of the highlights of the Lenten season for the congregation.

A cordial invitation is extended to the community for the presentation in the nave of the church.

ANDERSEN JOINS ST

Park resident Gary L. Andersen has joined the "Sports Illustrated" sales staff in Detroit. A graduate of the University of Michigan, Mr. Andersen also has a Master's degree from the Michigan Graduate School of Business Administration. He is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club and Adercraft Club.

Newspaper Boy Reports Assault

A 10-year-old Woods boy was assaulted by a man while delivering newspapers on Thursday, February 16, reported Woods police.

While riding his bike north along River road at Marion court, the boy told Officer Patrick DeVine that a car going south stopped next to him, with the man exiting and kicking over his bike, knocking the youngster to the pavement.

The assailant then leaned over and slapped the boy several times on the shoulder, reportedly during the assault. He then reentered the car and drove from the scene.

The youth told his mother of the incident shortly after it took place, and she decided to call police after reading of attempted abductions in the area in the NEWS.

Seniors' Group Gets Donation

The Woods Senior Citizens Commission was the recent recipient of a $125 check from Councilman George S. Freeman, general agent, Aid Association for Lutherans, in recognition of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the association.

"Our company is celebrating 75 years of service and because of this, we wanted to give some money to various organizations who needed additional help in various areas," said Mr. Freeman.

He added that a contribution of $300 also was given to the Calvary Center in Detroit.

He was described as between 18 and 19 years of age, around 6' tall and of a stocky, athletic build. He was clean shaven, had dark brown ear length hair and wore a light blue vest with brown pockets and no sleeves.

The vehicle was described as very dirty, with a wide chrome molding along the side.

Youth Service Division Det. James Fowler is investigating the case.

Contentment with very little is anyone's greatest asset.

Call us before you move ... you might save unnecessary expense.

If you're planning to move to another home, now's the time to think about how many phones you might need in your new home and what kind of changes you might need in your phone service. A little planning can help you avoid unnecessary installation charges.

Call your Michigan Bell Service Representative. Allow enough time before moving for a full explanation of service and equipment options and time to order the phone service you need when you need it. Remember, once your new service is installed, extra visits by your installer mean extra expenses for you, expenses we'd rather you didn't have to pay.

PLUG UP THE HOLE IN YOUR WALL AND SAVE 24% IN HEATING COSTS!!!

You may not realize it, but every home has a furnace AND a chimney. This chimney is nothing more than a hole in the wall that lets the hot air escape. When the furnace goes "off" there should be some kind of device to PLUG UP this hole and keep the warm air in the house.

Just such a device was invented in Germany and has been used and proven throughout Europe. It is called EFFIKAL and it is an Automatic Damper System.

What is an automatic damper?
It is an electronic and mechanical fuel-saving device which when installed in your furnace-to-chimney flue pipe will open before the burn cycle and close the moment the burn cycle ends, thus preventing "super heated" air already in your furnace from escaping white your furnace is at rest.

Our grandparents recognized this principle years ago. They would open and close their stove pipe damper by hand as needed, thus preventing the escape of hot air. The high cost of home heating caused by the extreme cold winters and possible fuel shortages led us to "rediscover" the old manual damper. It took today's technology to make our grandparent's idea work and work safely on modern furnaces.

The EFFIKAL Automatic Damper System® is the only system that incorporates a Gas Flow Detector. This makes the EFFIKAL system absolutely failsafe!

As the name implies, the Gas Flow Detector detects the flow of gas. As soon as a flow of gas is evident the Flow Detector opens the damper automatically providing complete safety. Even if the pilot should go out and the gas valve should fail, the automatic damper would remain open and vent the dangerous gas out the chimney. As far as is known, the EFFIKAL Automatic Damper System is the only damper offered with such a high degree of safety!

This is why Michigan Furnace Company is proud to call the EFFIKAL Automatic Damper System a failsafe system.

• Tested at Detroit Testing Laboratory

EFFIKAL means Efficient Calories

You can save 3% or 4% by lowering your thermostat or by installing the EFFIKAL you can save an average of 24% on fuel and maintain your standard of living without sacrificing comfort - ergo through efficiency you can save a lot more than through conservation!

Woods Seeks New Treasurer

Two meetings originally scheduled by a committee of three Woods councilmen who are in the process of reviewing applications for the post of city treasurer had to be cancelled.

As a result, Councilman E. D. Grady noted the committee, which also includes Councilmen John Sabol and Robert Novitke, will probably not meet until after Wednesday, March 1, in what's planned to be the first of two meetings.

The council should receive the committee's recommendation around the first part of April.

The big blizzard caused cancellation of one of the earlier scheduled meetings, while the previously announced session from the schools to view the summer tax collection proposal resulted in the cancellation of the second session on Wednesday, February 8, Mr. Grady said.

Ironically, the summer tax plan meeting was then cancelled.

Until a final decision is made to replace Helen L. Fox, who retired on January 3, Betty Doyle, deputy treasurer is handling the position.

'Vial of Life' Plan

In emphasizing it's important to let the people know the kits, including vials, stickers and information sheets, are available, the lieutenant feels this public speaking approach has proven beneficial in disseminating information on the program and in accelerating distribution of the material.

By the end of the month, he estimated some 2,000 kits, which are available at public safety departmental headquarters, 2025 Mack avenue, will be in the hands of Woods residents. He said they also are available in churches and the libraries.

Offers Much Help

Aware that the overall Pointe-wide program has been on the slow side regarding citizen response, Lt. Patterson is satisfied with the way it has gone in the The Woods. He feels the weather has had an effect on overall response in the other communities but feels interest will pick up when the snow and ice dissipate.

Further input via service club announcements and the ultimate possibility that such kits could become available at doctor's offices would be beneficial, he feels.

Besides its obvious benefits for seniors and those on medication, Lt. Patterson said the program itself is helpful to authorities in case of any emergency regarding specific contacts, e.g., a burglary or a fire wherein citizens are away, via the information sheet.

He also suggested that citizens carry an extra sheet on their person in case of emergency.

In the other Pointes, Park Assistant Fire Chief David Taylor said the department, which has some 3,500 kits in stock, hasn't received much of a response, primarily because of the frigid weather. But he indicated the city will start pushing the program with information on the plan being published in the municipality's newsletter.

Thrilled Over Plan

Meanwhile, in The Farms, Officer John Kraiza said his department still has some kits in stock with pickups, again, moving slowly.

This situation is echoed by City Fire Lt. Tim Champine who said, outside of 75 kits delivered to seniors at Bon Secours Hospital earlier this year, only an estimated dozen have been obtained at the station.

Eying the preventive aspects of the program, Lt. Champine, in drawing a comparison with smoke detectors, urged citizens to obtain the kits rather than wait until something happens.

In The Shores, Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale stated the picture hasn't changed much since the first of the year wherein officers were personally distributing the kits to residents, with pickups at departmental headquarters just about nil.

While interest in the program's worth in The Pointe basically remains at a high level despite the lackluster response, Harper Woods Fire Chief Howard LeFevre is thrilled over the "Vial of Life" plan in his community.

It developed as an outgrowth of the program's initiation in The Pointe with the chief exploring the plan with Lt. Patterson. As time passed, the chief's interest continually grew.

Real Lifesaver

"Our rotary club will fund the project and we're now in the process of getting it together. It's one of the finest things we have ever done for the people," stated Chief LeFevre.

If all goes well, around 3,000 kits will be available for pickup on April 1 at fire department headquarters, city hall, the library and at other locations. Girl Scouts are scheduled to put the kits together as a community project.

Saying the kits could be real lifesavers, Chief LeFevre noted they would aid firefighters on the initial response, and also hospital personnel, "because you can't always get hold of a relative for information."

In fact, as a lifesaving device, he felt the kits were at least equal to a smoke detector.

Seeks Way

The bond issue will not automatically increase the debt millage. With some State Equalized Valuation factors on local property soaring as much as nine percent this year, the Board may be able to finance the bonds on the millage it has now, since it will bring in more revenue.

Most rough estimates of the South High renovation have been close to $1 million. One mill of tax, (a mill equals $1 per every $1,000 of assessed valuation of property,) raises about $550,000 for the schools.

Some of the other schools that need attention are Trombly, which is 51-years-old and has a slate roof. Pierce, 39, Defer, 55, and Mason School, 49, according to Mr. Bruce.

Just about half of The Pointe's public schools are more than 40-years-old. The average age of the School Board's 17 buildings is 41 years.

Cindy Kolke...marketing manager...head of a department of nine salesmen...college graduate (the hard way, through 9 years of night school)... a very decisive young lady who knows how to watch for the right opportunity and take advantage of it.

So when Cindy decided to buy a new car, she started by shopping carefully. Not just for the car...but also for the money to buy it. That was the beginning of another smart move... for Cindy and us. Because, just about the time Cindy was starting her shopping, we were starting our New Car Money Sale.

We're Cindy's bank. Manufacturers Bank. And (like the other banks of Manufacturers National Corporation listed below) we just made a substantial reduction in the interest rates on our auto loans. For example, with the required 20% down payment the interest on a 36 month loan has been reduced from 11.96% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE to 9.76% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. For Cindy, this meant a savings of over $100. An opportunity that was too good to pass up.

So she borrowed her new car money from us. And that's the whole idea. We figure if we make life better for young people like Cindy now... they'll make life better for us later on. Maybe our New Car Money Sale can do the same thing for you. Check the chart on the left to see how much you can save. Then ask us, or your dealer for the money to buy your new car. But hurry. Sale ends March 31st.

The moral and ethical implications in making decisions in today's business climate will be considered by Robert M. Surdam, chairman and chief executive of National Bank of Detroit, when he speaks Sunday, February 26, at 10:30 a.m. in Barbour Chapel of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road. His talk will be entitled "The New Corporate Responsibility, Its Challenges and Dilemmas." Mr. Surdam is second to speak in the series "What Would You Do?" begun last Sunday by Ross Roy, head of the advertising agency bearing his name.

It will be continued by four other prominent businessmen on succeeding Sundays. They will present examples of the tough judgments affecting the lives of others that must be made almost daily, together with possible solutions from a Christian point of view, and comment from the audience.

The names of other speakers will be announced at a later date.

The talks are part of a public affairs seminar sponsored by the church in the "middle hour" between services.

At the same time, Dr. and Mrs. William Leith will conduct a study of the cycle of personal growth based on the researches of noted psychiatrist Erik Erikson. A CBS special film also will be shown.

Billed as the "All-Time Hall of Fame" is a review of Biblical figures whose lives parallel conditions today. Mrs. David Antonson will discuss ideological conflict as seen in the confrontation of Ahab, Jezebel, and Elijah.

New Manager

(Continued from Page 1) Councilman George J. Verdonck cast the lone dissenting vote as he preferred another applicant. Voting "yes," besides Dr. McNeill, Mr. Alandt and Mrs. MacDonald, were Mr. Douglass and Councilmen Douglas G. Graham and Charles Tompkins.

Refuses Credit
Mr. Crawford was born in Windsor, Ont., Canada, and came to this country as a small boy. He became a naturalized American citizen in 1958, after he was graduated from the University of Michigan and Macomb County Community College, where he majored as an assessor and in business administration.

He joined the active U.S. Army Reserve in 1958 and was honorably discharged with the rank of staff sergeant six years later. His active reserve duty was at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Fort Sheridan, Ill.

He began public service with the City of Centerline in 1962, and from 1965 to 1969, was its certified city assessor. In 1969, he was appointed to the post of city manager.

During his administration, he was instrumental in obtaining a total of $15 million in federal funds, approximately $1,000 per capita, and with this great influx of federal dollars, was responsible for revitalizing Centerline's business district, housing and other public projects.

He modestly refused to accept any credit for the revitalizing program through the years as city manager, giving most of the credit to the Centerline Council, his very efficient staff and heads of the various service departments.

Will Make Trips
Especially, he said, most of the credit goes to those he worked with in the redevelopment of senior citizens housing and shopping centers, and building and improving the community's tax base, and making the city's citizens aware of the improvements.

Mr. Crawford is married to the former Therese Vetrano of Warren. They are the parents of two daughters, Michelle, 17, and Jacquelyn, 13.

He said he submitted a 60-day in advance resignation to the Centerline Council on February 20, and this was accepted with regret. He will officially assume his new duties in The Park on April 24.

In the meantime, he will make occasional trips to The Park, and under the guidance of Mr. Slone, learn more about his new post.

World Champ Explains Trends in Hair Fashion

By Ann Wallace
Hisato Hanada, world champion hairdresser, originally from Tokyo, Japan, made the first stop of a 10-day tour of the country at Leon's Hairdressers, 17888 Mack avenue, on Monday, February 20, to demonstrate the newest hair fashions.

Robert Navone and Hisato were invited from their shop in Margate, N.J., by Leon Sehojan, owner of Leon's, and Mel Tozer, of the Magic Touch Beauty Salon, St. Clair Shores, to explain new ideas and methods in the changing world of hair fashion.

Hisato won the world championship three years ago in international competition at the New York Hilton Hotel where countries from all over the world were represented.

Mr. Navone and Hisato presented 45 to 55 shows a year throughout the world, including stops in Paris, Italy and Hawaii.

"In the continuing education of our staffs," explained Mr. Sehojan, "Mel and I invited Robert and Hisato to demonstrate for our operators what is planned for the future. It is the best way of keeping our customers up to date with today's fashions. We have to run like hell just to stand still."

Mr. Tozer stressed that the hair fashions of today are dictated by fabrics in clothing and clothing design.

"When the fabrics are stiff and the look is straight," he explained, "the hairstyles follow in the same pattern."

"This season, the new look in clothing is softer both in fabric and design. Likewise the hair fashions also will be softer with a curlier look. So we are fortunate that Hisato and Robert can be here to help us with the new look."

"We feel that the pin curl and tight wave are on their way back. Fashion certainly goes 'full circle' as this was the fashion many years ago."

In attendance for the day at Leon's was State Board of Cosmetologists president Robert Burrell, who was here from Lansing to observe what the needs are for the hairdresser of today.

"We are honored to have Mr. Burrell here today," explained Mr. Sehojan. "It is the first time, I believe, that the president has been present at such an event."

"We are very interested, of course, in the happenings in Lansing, and want to continue to upgrade our profession in any way we can. This is an excellent opportunity for Mr. Burrell to observe the changes that are taking place in hair fashions."

The Wayne County Circuit Court trial date for a 19-year-old Detroit youth, originally scheduled for last month, has been adjourned to sometime in March, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel last week.

He was apprehended shortly after the robbery by Harper Woods police and turned over to Woods officers for investigation.

Club Sponsors Backpack Trip

The Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, is offering its second annual Great Smoky Mountain backpack adventure for teens in grades seven through 12 during the public school's spring vacation.

The trip will depart from the Neighborhood Club on Monday morning, March 27, and return on Sunday, April 2.

Participants will backpack from six to 10 miles per day along back country trails and sections of the Appalachian Trail. The route will traverse a variety of terrain, from valleys to peaks, through the most massive and lofty mountain range in the eastern United States.

Teens are required to bring a good backpack with frame, a warm, lightweight sleeping bag and a pair of sturdy hiking boots. Tents and accessory equipment will be supplied by the Neighborhood Club.

Trip leaders are John Shaheen, a club program director, and Lee Anne Jarnot, an experienced trip leader with a college degree in outdoor education.

The trip fee of $95 includes round trip transportation, meals, pre-trip clinic and accessory equipment. A non-refundable deposit of $20 will hold a spot.

There are limited openings still available for the trip and interested participants should call the club at 885-4600.

Review Board Set in Woods

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, February 6, unanimously set the dates of March 14 and 28 for the city's board of review.

It will be held in the council-court room of the municipal building, 20025 Mack avenue, on both days from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

At that time, all citizens considering themselves aggrieved by their assessments, or who have any questions or comments, may present themselves to the board.

Members of the board will receive $40 per day.

'Open Meetings Law' Discussed

Her fellow trustee, Robert Warner, agrees. "The law has tended to soften me up — I can't probe as deep into matters as I used to because I have to be sensitive to people. I don't care to embarrass administrators in public.

"As a result, I don't think the law allows you to be as efficient as you could be under other circumstances."

Positive Aspects

The long-range effect of the law will be to deter people from running for public office, Mr. Warner says. "It makes it less desirable to serve the community. You're always in a fishbowl."

Though Board President John Bruce shares the other trustees' concern about evaluation of personnel, he sees some positive effects to the law.

"Opening meetings via the act has been good for the members of the public who attend sessions. They now have a chance to hear what the School Board is considering, and have input before the vote. I just wish a more broad spectrum of citizens were taking advantage of it," Mr. Bruce said.

He concludes, though, that the law has cut down on the exchange of information on personnel problems.

Only one city official questioned about the law, Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson, shared the Board members' concern.

Mr. Patterson said the law is unnecessary for well-run, honest communities such as his. The constant interruptions and delays that occur during public sessions tend to slow the council down, and limit its frankness, he said.

On Closed Sessions

"There was nothing underhanded going on in The Park. The 'Sunshine Law' was absolutely unnecessary as far as we're concerned," Mr. Patterson said.

All the bodies make fairly frequent use of the eight provisions in the act which allow them to close meetings under special circumstances. Topping the list are the School Board and Park Council, which have both met at least eight times in closed sessions since last April, when the law went into effect, according to their own records.

The Shores has called no closed sessions since April. The City and Farms have met about three times in private, and The Woods has met once in closed session, although it has tried, without success, on other occasions.

The Woods Council attempted to call a closed session several months ago, but was advised against doing so because there wouldn't be time for proper notices. (The law requires posting a public notice stating the date, time and place of the session at least 18 hours before the meeting.)

Earlier this month the council apparently felt by tying in salary discussions with a review and re-evaluation of administrative officers, they would legally be able to meet in closed session. However, they were advised this wasn't possible because no exception for such a purpose is covered by the law.

Purposes Listed

Finally, the council did call a closed meeting during a public session earlier this month to review public safety department salary demands.

The act allows public bodies to meet in closed session for the following purposes:

- To consider the dismissal, suspension or disciplining of, or to hear complaints or charges brought against, a public officer or employee when the person requests a closed hearing.

- To consider the dismissal, suspension or disciplining of a student when the student or parents request a closed hearing.

- For strategy and negotiation sessions connected with negotiating a collective bargaining agreement when either party requests a closed hearing.

- To consider the purchase or lease of property.

Still Angers Some

- To consult with its attorney regarding trial or settlement strategy in connection with specific litigation when an open meeting would have a detrimental financial effect on the settlement position of the public body.

- To review the contents of an application for employment when the candidate requests the application remain confidential. (All interviews by a public body for employment to a public office must be held in public, however.)

- To consider material exempt from discussion or disclosure by state or federal statute.

- Partisan caucuses of members of the state legislature.

The last exception still infuriates local officials who see it as a double standard.

"The legislature passed this thing on to us, but with that clause they made sure they protected themselves," says Mr. Warner. Meanwhile, Mr. Pinkos feels all segments of government should be treated equally under the law.

Board Hears Soccer Plea

By Susan McDonald

"Parents for Soccer" came away from a recent School Board meeting with high hopes there'll be at least the beginnings of a soccer program in Pointe schools this spring, said the group's spokesman Tom Landauer.

The parent group appeared before the trustees on Monday, February 13, armed with a plan to bring intramural soccer to middle and high schools and 800 signatures in support of it.

The parents told school trustees that soccer is cheaper, safer and can involve more kids than some of the sports programs already supported by Board funds.

Though the group aims at a full-fledged, traveling varsity team in the future, they're asking the Board to set up an intramural league in middle and high schools this spring as the first step. The Board gave no commitments, but promised to look into the subject.

"Soccer makes a lot of sense in terms of the number of kids who can get involved and the low injury rate," said Superintendent Dr. William Coats. "But I don't think we should curtail any of our other sports to start up a new program."

Mr. Landauer said he expects the issue will be formally acted on at the Board's Monday, March 13, meeting.

"I have high hopes that they will be able to deliver this spring, at least on a limited basis," he said.

Mr. Landauer estimated it would cost under $3,000 to fund the intramural program.

Students Go To Lansing

As part of their participation in National Vocational Education week, February 12 through 19, a group of Pointe students traveled to Lansing to inform congressmen about vocational programs in Pointe schools.

Taking the trip on Wednesday, February 15, were South High School students Wendy Browne in distributive education and Kathy Lakomy in office education, and from North High, Anthony Campo, a dental aides student.

Traveling with the group was South High Business Education Department Chairman Charles Hitch.

The students spoke with Rep. William R. Bryant Jr. and Sen. John Hertel.

Today the thing most vitally needed is faith in the future.

There are several different kinds of wine glasses, each one designed for a specific wine's taste and bouquet. All of these glasses are smaller in capacity and shape than the water goblet. Although it is the correct European custom to serve each wine in its appropriate glass, it is quite acceptable to use one type of glass for all wines. The only exceptions are champagne and sherry, which still require their own glasses. No matter which wine you are serving, remember that the glass should only be filled slightly beyond half full.

Fill your glasses with fine wine from PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626; we have an outstanding selection for you to choose from. We also feature a full spectrum of liquors and party goods as well as an extensive selection of imported canned beer. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

Pair to Retire From Schools

Two long-time school employees, Lawrence Kennedy and Margaret Casteel, will take early retirements at the end of this school year, it was announced at the Board of Education's Monday, February 13, meeting.

Mr. Kennedy, assistant superintendent of personnel, will leave his post, because of health reasons, at the end of July after 25 years with the district.

Since 1963, when he was named director of professional personnel, Mr. Kennedy has been responsible for hiring the majority of the schools' teachers. Board President John Bruce noted that "much of the credit for the system's outstanding staff must go to Mr. Kennedy."

In addition, in his present position Mr. Kennedy has been responsible for bargaining contracts with most school employees. "He has been the guiding spirit in helping the Board and the staff to reach a series of mutually acceptable contracts," Mr. Bruce said.

An alumnus of University of Michigan, where he studied mathematics, Mr. Kennedy came to The Pointe in 1953 as a social studies teacher at Pierce Junior High. He has served on the board of directors of the Pointe Little League, Babe Ruth League, and has been an active member of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

Miss Casteel, a counselor at South High School, will retire at the end of July after 33 years with the school system.

As a counselor, director of Y-Teens and the foreign exchange program at South, Miss Casteel was noted for the rapport she easily established with her students, staff members and parents, according to Trustee Joan Hanpeter.

Mrs. Hanpeter went on to note that Miss Casteel had enriched the lives of her students through a number of unusual experiences, including sabbatical leaves to present a lecture series in Great Britain, and worldwide tours.

Miss Casteel received her BA degree from the College of Wooster in Ohio and her MA degree from University of Wisconsin.

Birds Joined By 'Giant Rat'

Most citizens who feed the birds during the winter often have to put up with other creatures who interfere with the tranquility our feathered friends enjoy by muscling in on the food line.

While squirrels are the main culprits in this respect, (after all, they do enjoy sunflower seeds), a Sheldon road citizen apparently felt the idea of having a "giant rat" join the proceedings was a bit too much.

So he contacted Shores police Thursday afternoon, February 16, and responding Officer Michael Kortas told the resident that the animal in his yard was actually an opossum trying to make the best of the freezing conditions in his hunt for food.

After being advised that his visitor was harmless unless trapped or injured, the citizen said he didn't care if it stayed in his yard and ate, (much to the delight of the opossum but probably to the frustration of the birds).

Theater North Stages Hamlet

Theater North, the student acting company of North High School, will present William Shakespeare's "Hamlet" as its third production of the year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 23, 24 and 25, in the Performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road, at 8 p.m.

The lavishly costumed tragedy stars Tony LoVasco in the title role, Cathy Grabke as the Queen, Scott Drouillard as Claudius, Mariann Genamat as Ophelia, Mike Villaire as Polonius and Jeff Jaskowski as Laertes.

Other major roles in the cast of 35 include Rick Klein, Tony Salvaggio, Doug Tito, Terry Gardner, Jeff Reitmeyer, Bruce Stafford, John Fatture and Ed Hammer.

This is the sixth Shakespearean production presented by Theater North. The elaborate setting of the castle of Elsinore was designed by Theater North's director Gael C. Barr and constructed under the supervision of student technical director Jim Arpin and the Performing Arts Center's technical director Don Greenup.

The dueling sequence was staged by Mike Novak through the courtesy of the Neighborhood Club.

Tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for students and are available at the door evenings of the performance.

Tax law permits taxpayers in areas designated eligible for federal assistance to deduct losses on either their current year's tax return or the prior year's return, according to an IRS news release.

Losses to business property are generally deductible in full while non-business losses are deductible only in the amount that each exceeds $100, the IRS said. Deductions are not allowed for the portion of any loss reimbursed or expected to be reimbursed by insurance or other compensation.

Individuals can amend the prior year's return by completing Form 1040X and submitting it to the IRS. Corporate taxpayers should use Form 1120X.

All Michigan counties were designated eligible for federal assistance by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration.

Taxpayers should compile lists of those items damaged or destroyed, and determine their value immediately before and after the loss occurred. Before-and-after photos of the damaged property and judgements of appraisers are helpful in establishing the amount of loss.

Taxpayers who need help in preparing their returns or claiming refunds should contact their local IRS office. Two helpful IRS booklets, Publication 547, "Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses and Thefts," and Publication 584, "Workbook for Determining Your Disaster Loss," also are available free from IRS offices.

Elizabeth Longfellow Dulmage begins a new series of watercolor classes Thursday, March 2, at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. in the War Memorial's new art wing. These water color classes have been taught by Ingrid Hofer, who is moving from Grosse Pointe.

But the Center says it's fortunate in being able to continue the classes under the excellent instruction of Mrs. Dulmage of McKinley avenue.

Classes are beginning one week later than announced on the Center's Activity Card due to rescheduling made necessary when the recent storms cancelled so many activities. Both the morning and evening watercolor classes are two and a half hours long and are offered for 10 weeks at a fee of $49.

Mrs. Dulmage is a graduate of Ward Belmont and the Pratt Art Institute in New York and has continued her studies at Wayne State University, the Art Students League, New York, in Fontainebleau, France, and San Miguel de Aliende, Mexico.

She was a public school art teacher for 11 years, has taught in the adult education department in Grosse Pointe and has conducted private classes.

Mrs. Dulmage is a member of the Michigan Watercolor Society, the Michigan Academy of Arts, the Detroit Society of Women Painters and the Grosse Pointe Artists. She has exhibited in New York and had one woman shows in Michigan and Ohio.

'Miss Reardon' Staged By GPT at Memorial

The Grosse Pointe Theater, (GPT), continues its production of Pulitzer Prize winning Paul Zindel's comedy-drama, "And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little," today through Sunday, February 23 to 26, in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road.

Performances are at 8:30 p.m. except for Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The show is a brilliant comedy-drama of three sisters — one married and alienated from the family, another plunging toward alcoholism and the third at the brink of madness — who reunite with bittersweet memories and sardonic humor in a family crisis which erupts in a shattering climax.

"The show is hilarious, lively and touching," says director Shirley Shepard of North Renaud road.

Mrs. Shepard, a theatrical veteran in Grosse Pointe over the last 19 years, has worked on every aspect of theater in this time span, most recently directing "Summer and Smoke" and performing as "Evie" in "Gingerbread Lady." She also has won awards in GPT for best actress, best director, three times, and best makeup.

She has found time to do all this while raising a family, (husband and three children), and getting a Masters degree in Speech from the University of Michigan.

The producer of "And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little" is Nancy Fielding of Three Mile drive. Another long time member of GPT, (16 years), she has filled every capacity involved in putting on a production.

Besides caring for a husband and nine children, she also finds time to be on the Volunteer Staff at Bon Secour Hospital.

Stage Manager David Hadden of Meadow lane adds a further dimension to this qualified staff with his 18 years as a GPT member. He also has handled all the different areas of theater for GPT. When he is not involved with the local group, he is an engineer by trade working to raise three children.

The technical director, Harry Stutt of Muir road, has filled this position on many GPT productions. He brings 15 years of GPT experience with him, somehow finding time from his job to build some of the most beautiful sets to ever grace the stage at the War Memorial.

One of the three lead roles is played by Marianne Scherzhay of East Detroit, who portrays "Anna." When she is not teaching school, racquet ball and tennis are foremost on her agenda of relaxing things to do.

Playing the part of "Ceil" is Barbara Roney of St. Clair Shores. She has appeared and worked in GPT productions over the last 28 years in every capacity from president to working on the stage crew.

Over these years she has been honored with the GPT "Clarence Award" five times for acting and stage managing.

"Catherine" is played by Pat Villegas of Lincoln road. When she is not teaching school, her excess time is taken up by her two daughters and husband. She has been seen on stage most recently in the role of "Candy" in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

Other members of the cast are Wally Maher of Three Mile drive, Jamie Bates of Warren, Gigi Gaggini of Detroit and Mary Lou Mantho of Edgemont park.

For ticket information, call the GPT box office at 881-4004.

Uls Features Harp Concert

University Liggett School, (ULS), 1045 Cook road, will present Mary McNair, concert harpist, on Sunday, March 5, at 3 p.m.

Others performing will be ULS students Sylvia Davis, Peter Tecos, Andreas Drath, Beth Wahl, Curtis Doty and Frank Corliss.

The purpose of the concert is to raise money for scholarship to enable ULS students to attend the National Music Camp at Interlochen. The camp, sponsored by the Interlochen Center for the Arts, is an eight-week summer program of training in the areas of music, theater arts and dance.

ULS students performing in the concert are all former campers.

Mrs. McNair currently instructs harp students at Michigan State University. She is a native Detroit and began her harp studies while she was a student at Cass Technical High School.

After graduation from Michigan State University in 1973, Mrs. McNair continued her studies with harpist Lucile Lawrence at Boston University.

During the summer of 1974, Mrs. McNair appeared with the World Youth Symphony. In September 1976, she attended the Sixth International Harp Competition in Tel Aviv, Israel. (Only 30 contestants, world-wide, were invited.)

She also appeared with many local symphony orchestras as well as the Detroit Institute of Arts Brunch with Bach series.

Tickets can be purchased at the school office or the day of the concert. Admission is $2 for adults and 50 cents for students.

For further information, call 884-4444.

Gets One Year On B-E Charge

A 19-year-old Woods youth was sentenced to one year in the Muskegon Correctional Facility, a branch of the Southern Michigan Prison, on Tuesday, February 14, after recently pleading guilty to the charge of breaking and entering of a dwelling with intent to commit larceny.

At the Wayne County Circuit Court sentencing of Anthony Schohl, no consideration also was given for 88 days that the defendant spent in the Wayne County Jail, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel.

Schohl was charged with the break-in of a Vernier road residence last November in which articles, including a stereo set, television set and a radio, were taken. They were valued at around $600.

All the articles were recovered by police after Schohl was spotted at the front door of another Vernier road home and subsequently apprehended at the residence where the items were found.

GPA Cagers Keep Winning

After a decisive 51-27 victory over Saint Clement on Sunday, February 5, the Grosse Pointe Academy, (GPA), Middle School boys basketball team continued its 15-game winning streak on Monday, February 6, by defeating University Liggett, 43-33, for the second time this season.

Capturing an early second quarter 16-4 lead, the undefeated GPA Blazers appeared to suffer a complacency lapse while the ULS Knights put forth a sterling effort to avert a repeat of their 66-14 defeat earlier in the season.

Both teams turned on a strong defensive action in the fourth quarter which closed the gap and resulted in a relatively low scoring victory for the GPA team. High scoring honors were shared by Academy cager, Levi Stubbs, and Mike Paolucci of ULS, who each chalked up 13 points.

Preceding the middle school game the Academy's fourth, fifth and sixth grade team, coached by Ken Kobane, broke its losing streak with a 28-16 victory over the University Liggett sixth graders.

The young Blazer team was led in scoring by fifth grader Walter Connolly and sixth grader Dale Graham with 10 points each.

A good athletic record may get a boy into college, but it won't keep him there.

GPW Church to Celebrate

Members and friends of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue will celebrate the Passover on Tuesday, February 28, at 6:30 p.m.

The event is entitled "A Passover for Followers of Yeshua, The Messiah." This Haggadah will relate the elements of the famed Jewish festival to the Christian faith.

Pastor Dr. Robert C. Linticum will conduct the event which is being sponsored by the church's Women's Ass'n.

He has participated in numerous Jewish and Jewish-Christian Passovers while serving a church in a strongly Jewish neighborhood of Chicago. Attendance at this Passover dinner will be by reservation only.

Child care will be provided for younger children. Reservations for this dinner may be made by calling the church office, 886-4300, no later than Friday, February 24.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

There is a very good chance that the voters of Michigan will be asked again this fall to approve several amendments to the state constitution.

Among the proposals which seem likely to appear on the ballot is one which would prohibit Michigan public school districts from using the local property tax to finance their operation.

Instead, all parents—public, private and parochial—would be given a "voucher" for use in the school of their choice.

Since the levy of property taxes for the schools could be prohibited after January 1, 1979, every one of the countless questions raised by eliminating the use of the local property tax as the basis for funding public education would have to be answered by the State Legislature.

For the information of readers of the NEWS, I am posing just a few of the far-reaching questions which must be answered by the State Legislature.

1. Could the voucher for educational services be presented at any school in Michigan regardless of the place of residence of the child?

2. If there were no geographic restriction on where a voucher could be presented, does this mean that local school district boundaries would be abolished?

3. Could a public, private or parochial school refuse to accept a voucher for any reason?

4. Who determines what grade a child would enter upon presenting a voucher?

5. Would the value of the voucher include provisions for transportation, special education, vocational education and the operation of intermediate school districts?

6. In order to allow for the necessary planning and budgeting, when would a student be required to present a voucher to a school?

7. How would the value of each voucher be determined? (Per pupil expenditures in 1976-77 ranged from $614.74 to $3,304.19, with a median of $1,115.60.)

8. What would happen to the educational program in the 290, (out of the 581 public school districts), who spent more than the median if that were the value of the voucher?

9. How could a community wishing to improve its schools do so?

10. What local control would the people of a school district have over their schools?

There are many, many additional questions which must be answered before the citizens of Michigan make any decision so crucial to their well-being and to their children's education as a shift in the method of financing education.

We will have more to say about this topic in forthcoming columns and in other communications to citizens.

One View from the Capitol

By William R. Bryant Jr.

We are in an energy crisis again, only this time it is coal we are lacking.

Two things about the strike. It never should have lasted this long, and non-union mines should have been protected earlier and to far greater degree.

Two things about the lack of coal. First, it reminds us you can't burn "reserves," that it takes exploration and production and shipment before you can burn a fossil fuel.

Second, conservation must become a way of life, not something we practice for a few weeks or months to get through a crisis. All we do by that type of temporary conserving is avoid the serious, prolonged crisis which must come if we do not learn to conserve all the time.

Two things about federal emergency efforts. First, President Carter should have gotten involved a long time ago, not waited until a crisis was inevitable.

Second, it is not fair to transport, by federal edict, coal from Michigan utilities to Ohio and Indiana utilities to avoid shutting down Ohio and Indiana businesses.

Our utilities stocked up on enough coal to last the entire winter, all the way through March, even into April. Now we get pleas from Ohio, whose Governor in one single day had the guts to come here to Detroit to try to steal a Chrysler plant and then fly on to Washington to plead for coal from Michigan for their Ohio industries.

As far as I am concerned they can burn old tires to keep warm and fuel their industries. We should refuse to allow any coal to leave this state until Governor Rhodes apologizes for his hypocrisy.

Letters to The Editor of The NEWS

To All Newspapers:

I want to make you aware of a legislative crisis which has erupted here in Washington—the outcome of which will affect not only every newspaper in this nation, but literally every person.

I am speaking of the battle for reform of the U.S. Postal Service, the unique system upon which all Americans rely for a dependable means of communication at a reasonable price—and upon which most newspapers, (and their subscribers), rely for distribution.

As you know, NNA, (National Newspaper Ass'n.), and other associations of newspapers and magazines have been advocating passage of a bill known as HR 7700 as the best available solution to the nation's postal problems. And the vast majority of the U.S. House of Representatives agrees. They would agree, that is, if given the chance to vote on HR 7700.

The bill had been slated to come before the full House for a vote (earlier this month). Every knowledgeable person inside and outside the House was forecasting passage by at least a 2-1 margin. However, at the 11th hour, President Carter personally intervened and ordered House Speaker Tip O'Neill to stop HR 7700 from coming to a vote. As a result, the bill, at least temporarily, has been removed from the House calendar.

NNA condemns this action by the President. He has been a consistent foe of HR 7700, (claiming the cost would be too high and supporting retention of the existing postal structure). Of course, he has the right to vigorously advocate his position, (no matter how wrong we believe that position to be), and try to defeat the bill on the floor.

But, for the President to use the tactic he has used here—preventing the members of the House from having the opportunity to vote—is, in our view, reprehensible, and certainly the antithesis of the "open government" pledges he made during his campaign.

HR 7700 may be stalled, but the issue remains very much alive. Please read the attached letter to the President from the bill's sponsors, (Reps. James Hanley and Charles H. Wilson), which provides a complete history of the reform issue to date.

Because this is an issue which touches every American, (and every newspaper), you may wish to inform your readers of the situation here in Washington. We would hope that many of you would also want to express your personal opinions through letters to your Congressmen, to Speaker O'Neill and to President Carter. I would appreciate your sending me copies of any such letters, and also clips of any related articles, columns or editorials your newspaper may run.

Time is short. Please give this issue your most serious—and active—consideration. Thank you.
William G. Mullen,
Executive Vice President,
National Newspaper Ass'n.

The Sponsors' Letter
January 23, 1978
President Jimmy Carter
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500
Dear Mr. President:

During your State of the Union Message you spoke of ending "crisis management" in the Federal government.

We agree with you, which makes it doubly difficult to understand your acceptance of crisis management in the Postal Service and your failure to endorse Congressional efforts to resolve postal problems. Certainly the pressure of various conflicting interests and priorities makes decision-making a difficult task. Unfortunately, however, it is clear that, perhaps mistakenly in an effort to achieve other goals, you have now abandoned your campaign promise to support meaningful postal reform legislation.

We are referring, of course, to your effort to persuade Speaker O'Neill to kill HR 7700, the postal reform bill which we have sponsored. It is common knowledge that the U.S. Postal Service is faced with many serious problems which jeopardize its future as a viable organization. These problems give rise to a number of public policy issues which must be given attention by the Congress.

Clearly, the American people want, and should continue to have, a reliable nationwide postal system in the years to come. You demonstrated a deep concern in this regard in October, 1976, when you castigated "the Republican experiment in postal management." At that time you deplored a series of service cuts and observed that "all the while, the President has failed to act. He has ignored the mounting evidence that service is deteriorating."

"Over the last five years the Postal Service," you wrote, "has been a classic illustration of wasteful, imprudent and inefficient management."
"We must recognize," you concluded, "that the Postal Service represents an essential public service for many people in our country. The ability to communicate through the mails must not only be sustained, but also improved. This I pledge to do."

After many years of careful study, legislation has been developed in a positive manner which would address just the problems which you referred to in your campaign statement and provide some answers. This legislation is HR 7700, which was approved by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee by an overwhelming vote of 19-4.

As you know, this bill would increase public accountability for postal decision-making and guarantee that a reasonable level of postal service will be maintained. Both of these goals are strongly supported by a large majority of the Congress, and indeed, of the public.

Strong examples are the overwhelming vote of 399 to 14 in 1976 on a resolution which supported a moratorium on postal rate increases, service cuts, and post office closings, and the vote of 377-9 last year on a resolution opposing the cessation of Saturday deliveries.

We know that you were committed to cooperation on (this important legislative issue, and were gratified for the opportunity to speak personally with you several months ago at the White House.

Unfortunately, the truth is that throughout the consideration of this proposal in Subcommittee and Committee over the past year there has been a serious lack of continuing communication between the Administration and the developers of the legislation. Perhaps this is understandable in view of the inexperience of some of the new, young Administration staff people who have been responsible for liaison on this issue. Frankly, however, as experienced legislators, we must say that this situation has been unprecedented, even during Republican Administrations.

In September, after delaying our final consideration of the bill for a considerable time to accommodate Administration spokesmen, the OMB testified in opposition to several major aspects of the bill. Since then, there has been no attempt to tell us what the Administration is for.

In addition to the remarkable lack of communication, there is much misinformation about the cost of HR 7700. You have been quoted as stating that the bill would cost $3 to $5 billion a year with the implication that this exaggerated amount will be automatically apportioned forever. This is simply not true. The major increase in public service authorizations would cost from $1.6 billion in Fiscal Year 1979 and $1.88 billion in Fiscal Year 1980—but only if you and the Congress deem that a complete appropriation should be recommended. Other parts of the bill add some minor costs, but the public is not served by misleading cost estimates. We have asked for a justification of your staff's cost estimates, but have not yet received any.

Further, it is important to keep public service costs in a proper perspective. The Postal Service provides a vital service to all the public and to our nation's commercial institutions. Recent modifications to the Social Security law alone will lead to over $227 billion in additional taxes over the next 10 years, and total taxes for that system will be almost $1.9 trillion for the same period.

In other words, the HR 7700 appropriation, if it were continued at the projected Fiscal Year 1980 rate for 10 years, would total only about eight percent of the new tax increases for Social Security. The additional annual cost for taxes as a result of the new provisions of this law will reach $42.8 billion in 1987.

At any rate, a great deal of work has gone into HR 7700, and it represents the ideal vehicle for correcting the glaring deficiencies in current postal operations. It would be tragic if this legislative effort was doomed by the unnecessary failure of a Democratic President to communicate with House members who have been his strong supporters.

Unquestionably, the basic goals of HR 7700 have very broad support within the Congress. Indeed, when the bill is considered by the House it will no doubt be passed overwhelmingly. We would hope that the Administration will henceforth choose to revise its ill-considered position and instead take a constructive role in the development of the bill by opening up meaningful lines of communication with appropriate Members of Congress, and by offering positive alternatives to any specific provisions of the bill which you oppose.

We can assure you that you will find us open and willing to make every effort to resolve whatever differences exist in philosophies about the nature of postal reform. James M. Hanley, Chairman, Postal Operations and Services, Charles H. Wilson, Chairman, Postal Personnel and Modernization

To the Editor:
Having endured the trials and tribulations of yet another Michigan winter and watched with admiration the efforts of our municipal employees to maintain safe and clear streets and sidewalks, we are impressed with the difficulty imposed on these efforts by the presence of parked cars.

While a total parking ban would be necessary to completely solve the problem, it is recognized that this could impose hardship in some instances and is probably not a practical solution. It is felt that considerable improvement in the snow removal effort would result in a municipal ordinance banning all on-street parking overnight during the winter season; for example, the months of November through March from say 3 to 5 a.m.

If valid reasons exist, some streets could be exempt and so posted. Ordinances of this type exist in many areas including Grosse Pointe Woods and appear to be well within jurisdiction of our local government.

While the problem is fresh in our minds it is requested that this subject be reviewed. Respectively yours,
C. K. Eppler

To the Editor:
Having read a "Letter to the Editor" in the Thursday, February 9, issue of the NEWS, signed by a resident of Dearborn, I thought that you should know of a very different response to an accident which occurred on January 27.

I slipped and fell on Handy road and fractured my hip. The mishap was observed by a resident in front of whose house it occurred. She rushed out with a blanket. A neighbor across the street covered me almost immediately and sat at my back to keep me warm until The Farms ambulance and police arrived, having been called by them.

During the short period of waiting, at least 10 neighbors gathered to offer assistance. Later many telephone calls were received offering help which was made available in different ways.

These residents were from Radnor circle as well as from Handy.

You can't imagine how comforting it was to know that so many people were concerned and really cared. R. E. Ashbury,

To the Editor:
Our recent January 1978 property values in the Grosse Pointe School District have been re-assessed or factorized to create an eight percent increase in valuation over last year.

This is two percent over the projected estimate by the School Administration published last year. This two percent addition in valuation will provide over $400,000 for the next year budget. In view of the above "good news," it is hoped that our School Board will reconsider its decision to assess additional bond millage.

Sincerely,

GPW Presbyterian Begins Rauth Memorial Program

The Session of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church announces the creation of the Andrew F. Rauth Memorial Speaker program.

The purpose of this program is to bring to the pulpit of the church outstanding pastors, professors and preachers of the Christian faith.

Developed in memory of Rev. Rauth, former pastor of the church who passed away last September 26, the speakership exists because of Rev. Rauth's deep commitment to preaching. Originally suggested by him, this program will bring national figures to the church once or twice a year in perpetuity.

Rev. Rauth was senior pastor of the church from 1943 to 1966 and its pastor emeritus from 1966 until his death.

After his ordination into the Presbyterian ministry on April 28, 1926, Rev. Rauth served a church in Wisconsin for two years, and then pastored two churches in New York for 15 years. On September 19, 1943, he entered into the most productive and significant period of his ministry upon accepting the call of the infant Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church to be its pastor.

By the time he retired in 1966, Rev. Rauth has seen the congregation grow from 300 to over 2,000 people, the church school swell to over 1,200 and the building completed of the church's stunning but practical edifice directly across from The Woods city hall.

Rev. Rauth had a deep love for preaching. He himself was a strong and inspiring preacher, and he worked at that particular aspect of his ministry. The comprehensive library he developed reflected his deep commitment to preaching and that library is now housed at the church as a resource to the community and Presbytery clergy and laity.

Rather than accept a sizeable gift presented to him by the church, Rev. Rauth requested that this gift be invested to develop a speakership program so that the congregation and community could listen to the best preaching and the best minds of the Christian faith.

That gift became the base for the permanent fund of which the interest will be used to bring noted speakers to the church pulpit.

The first "Andrew F. Rauth Memorial Speaker" will be preaching on Sunday, March 5. He is Dr. Jack L. Stotts, president of the McCormick Theological Seminary of Chicago and its professor of Christian Ethics.

Considered one of America's outstanding thinkers in the field of ethics, Dr. Stotts also will deliver the keynote address at a workshop at the church during the afternoon.

Fashion in jewelry changes along with everything else, but the basic custom of engagement and wedding rings has lasted for centuries. Originally the prospective groom gave his future bride a valuable ring at the time of betrothal as a sign of their agreement. In fact, it was only after the English Reformation that two rings came into use—one for the engagement and a separate one for the marriage ceremony. There is little doubt that early wedding rings signified the husband's possession of, and control over, his wife. However, even in Roman times the ring symbolized other things as well. For example, some rings had little keys attached to them which indicated the wife's power within the household.
For the most fashionable engagement and wedding rings available, see us at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800. We carefully select and grade diamonds for style and value to our customers. Diamonds, both engagement and wedding rings and dinner rings, are available in all price ranges. ## From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

There were, originally, 30 active members, and their names read like a history of our town: Candler and Hibbard, McMillan and Alger, Booth, Bryant, Burton, Detwiler, McGraw, Newcomb, Newberry, Peck . . .

They organized February 23, 1903, as the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors.

Their first monthly meetings and annual exhibits were held in the Detroit Institute of Arts. When the Scarab Club was built, (as a men-only facility), the DSWPS was invited to exhibit in the new structure.

The women accepted—it was, after all, recognition that talent preempts sex—and the DSWPS annual shows were held there until recently.

The Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors' Diamond Jubilee Exhibition, 75th annual show, opens this Sunday, February 26, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's new Art Center.

For about 40 years, the society's home base for regular meetings was the Founders Lounge at the Detroit Institute of Arts. It was a perfect arrangement for work and service.

The growing membership roster included many names from the museum staff and Wayne State University.

In the 60's and 70's, a large part of the membership gravitated to communities surrounding Detroit. The women brought with them the conviction.

Former Pointer Mary Norris Tipton, nationally-known coach and performer, will lead a Critique Workshop next Tuesday, February 28, at 10 o'clock in the Music Room of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Tuesday Musicale of Detroit is sponsoring the program. It is open to the public by prepaid reservation.

Mrs. Thomas I. Young, of Loraine road, a member of the Musicale's Auditions committee, is chairman.

The Critique Workshop, according to Mrs. Young, provides positive guidelines for forming similar small groups in which participants help their peers prepare for auditions and performances.

It is designed to increase confidence in judging performance and, ultimately, to improve the quality of performance.

Mrs. Tipton is currently artist teacher of piano at Rice University's Shepherd School of Music and a performer and faculty member at the Aspen Music Festival.

She has performed with many major orchestras and is known nationwide for tours as a soloist with chamber orchestras, as a member of the Tipton Trio and in recital with her husband, flutist Albert Tipton, former member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Active members of Tuesday Musicale will perform for the workshop. Mrs. Tipton will decide the order of the program.

Soprano Mrs. Eugene Ignasiak, of Dorthen road, accompanied by pianist Mrs. T. Darell Eubank, of Berkshire road, will sing Wolf's "Fuss-raise," "Verborgenheit" and "Mausfallen Spruschlein" and Puccini's "O Mio Bambino Caro," "Donde Lieta" and "Musetta's Waltz."

Mary Levack, of Birmingham, will perform three Liszt etudes at the piano: Transcendental Etudes No. 1 and 3 and Etude in D flat (un sospiro).

Pianist Mrs. H. Van Husen, also of Birmingham, will play Brahms' C Major Intermezzo, Op. 119, Liszt's Consolation and Rachmaninoff's Prelude Op. 32.

Prokofiev's Sonata for Flute and Piano will be performed by Mrs. Donald I. Lahti, of Southfield, and Mrs. Edward J. Gall, of Wedgewood drive.

Mrs. Walter York, of 17721 Park, and Mrs. John F. Dolan, of Lincoln road, will play Beethoven's Sonata No. 1 for Violin and Piano.

A check for $5, (including a box lunch), payable to Tuesday Musicale of Detroit and mailed to Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey, 6916 Dublin Fair, Troy, Michigan 48084, will secure a reservation. More information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Kinsey, 879-6668, or Mrs. Young, 882-9127.

AFD actually precedes FIAF by three years.

The Detroit Alliance is dedicated to understanding and further study of the language, literature and culture of France. The success of its efforts is reflected in a membership of over 300 people, spanning an area from Sarnia, Ont., to Ann Arbor and East Lansing.

Credit for the Detroit Chapter's eminence and longevity must be attributed to Donat Gauthier, one-time Honorary Consul of France in Detroit and former president of the AFD.

Through his efforts the AFD grew and flourished, capturing the attention of many old-line Detroiters and first French families who sought to re-establish ties with the country remembered via street signs and major thoroughfares throughout the city.

"The spirit of the Alliance," says Mr. Gauthier, "has always been principally academic."

"But an organization cannot offer purely intellectual programs and hope to survive. It must appeal to a diversity of interests."

Therefore, in 1930, the organization shifted its heavy literary emphasis to one that included a variety of activities, many centered around music and the arts.

When these functions proved increasingly popular Mr. Gauthier enlisted the aid of Minerva Maiullo, a former opera diva and wife of Detroit attorney Anthony Maiullo, to assist with arrangements and serve as AFD social chairman.

Mrs. Maiullo, with her daughter Florence, (now Mrs. James Merriam Barnes) and a number of other well-known Detroit women lent their personal, elegant touch to AFD functions for several years.

By the late 1930's the Alliance had gone full circle and become "exclusive." It was apparent that the organization had departed from its original concept — and but for World War II the Alliance Francaise de Detroit might have died out, as did so many prestigious clubs when their sources of membership began to depend on the Social Register.

When war broke out the Alliance was suspended. Shortly thereafter a new group was formed, "France Forever," a spontaneously-organized union of Francophiles dedicated to the principle that France would never ally itself with Germany.

Active throughout the war, the object of France Forever was to bring news of France. It did this by inviting to Detroit any and all French war personnel who were scheduled to visit Washington. These individuals spoke primarily on the Resistance movement.

By the mid-1940's, however, the group had gained a large French following and its programs were expanded to include topics of a cultural nature.

This interim link to things French kept the spirit of the Detroit Alliance alive.

At the end of the war, France, like almost every other nation, was in a state of flux. The controversial General Charles de Gaulle headed a provisional government. The French living outside of France were in need of reassurance that stability was being restored to their native land.

It was time to end the factionalism that had split political loyalties during the war.

It's Marygrove Masked Ball Time

Second Annual Mardi Gras Festivity to Be Sponsored by College Executive Council This Saturday

England and the State of Louisiana will make unlikely partners as the Gordon MacKenzies, newly returned from a four-and-a-half year tenure in London with Ford Motor Company, host the second Mardi Gras Masked Ball at Marygrove College Saturday, February 25.

As honorary chairmen of the Masked Ball, Gordon and Marion — he is the newly appointed vice-president, sales operations, Ford North American Automotive Operations—will mix New Orleans jazz and a southern feast of shrimp creole and jambalaya with dinner theater in Marygrove's Madame Cadillac Hall.

This year's Mardi Gras Masked Ball is the second staged by the Detroit college's Executive Council, which numbers among its members Pointers Mr. and Mrs. John G. Crowley, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Freitas, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, Mrs. Helen Honderich, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. McCarthy, III, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Kurth and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero.

Revenue from ticket and gift sales is slated to support college scholarship and education programs.

Marygrove, alma mater for many of Michigan's leading women and now men, (the band is co-chairing the event. Special prize is an Hawaiian holiday for two on Waikiki Beach.

The Mardi Gras committee will again name a scholarship in honor of one of the party's benefactors. Last year's scholarship was awarded to dance and music students in the name of Randy, the Bowers' college-age son.

True to the name of the party, many of the ball guests will come in masque. Party organizers are anticipating the return appearance of one of the city's leading attorneys — as a giant bird.

"Last year we saw everything from hand-held photographic masks to sequins, feathers and plumes," says Mr. Bowers.

"It sounds like a circus, but it's a ball! Ticket sales are far ahead of last year's at this time; this must mean that people are expecting another great party."

Ticket information may be obtained by calling 862-8000. Extension 229.

Present Mass by Cherubini

The Old Christ Church Choir and Orchestra will present, for the first time in Detroit, Luigi Cherubini's Requiem Mass in C Minor Sunday morning, February 26, at 10:30 o'clock.

The work was revived in 1950, after years of neglect, by Arturo Toscanini and the Robert Shaw Chorale.

Dr. Malcolm Johns, of Rivard boulevard, professor of Music at Wayne State University and Old Christ Church organist-choirmaster, is introducing it to Detroit audiences.

The Prelude will begin at 10:10 with Virginia Parks performing Francesco Antonio Rosetti's Concerto in D Minor for Horn and Orchestra. Concert mistress is Emily Austin.

Ervin Monroe, the Detroit Symphony's principal flutist, will perform Domenico Scarlatti's Concerto in A Minor for Flute and Orchestra during the offertory.

Old Christ Church is located in East Jefferson avenue at the Chrysler Expressway, just east of Renaissance Center. Free parking areas behind the church may be reached by turning south from Jefferson onto Rivard and west onto Woodbridge.

After the service, the public is invited to a coffee hour in Ledyard Hall.

Maria Luigi Carlo Zenobia Salvatore Cherubini (1760-1842) was born in Firenze, Italy, where, just 56 years earlier, Cristofori had invented the piano-forte: a breakthrough in keyboard dynamics from its predecessor, the harpsichord.

Cherubini's father, conductor of the Teatro della Pergola, began his son's music study on the piano at the age of six. By the time he was nine, Luigi was composing.

At 10 he was proficient enough on the violin to replace a missing player in his father's orchestra; at 17 he was awarded a grant from the Grand Duke of Tuscany which enabled him to study in Venice with the successful composer Sarti.

Cherubini was held in high regard by his famous contemporaries. "Of all living composers of opera," said Beethoven, "Cherubini is the one I most respect."

tion that organization for mutual support and encouragement, a common ground in which to exchange ideas and inspirations, was a good thing.

The Grosse Pointe Painters, the Birmingham Society of Women Painters, the Birmingham Sculptors Guild, Farmington Painters and Mount Clemens Art Center were all started and supported by members of the DSWPS.

A 2 to 5 o'clock reception will officially open the Diamond Jubilee Show Sunday. It will continue at the War Memorial for two weeks, through 5 o'clock Saturday, March 11.

Active in their new, suburban groups, many of the women artists retained membership in the Detroit Society. It was, after all, the parent organization.

It had a history. It was (is) the oldest organized art group in Michigan. Just about every woman artist worth her salt in the metropolitan area had joined the DSWPS.

Mary Jane Bigler, Louise Jansson Nobili, Elizabeth Payne, Helen Copley Gordon, Jan DiMarco, Lily Goodhew, Jean Teague Hascall, Jane Kilgour, Cyril Aronson Miles, Lydia Winston Malbin . . .

The list goes on to include over 400 names, some of them wives of artists—Mrs. John (Georgia) Carroll, Mrs. Alden (Jean) Smith, Mrs. John (Sidni) Coppin—who were painters themselves.

The Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors' 75th annual show will include sculpture and mixed media as well as work in watercolor, oil, acrylics, ceramics, glass and prints. Juror will be Patricia Quinlan, of Wayne State University.

Currently, there are 33 Pointe area names on the DSWPS membership list. Chloe Boehm is vice-president of the society and chairman of the exhibition.

Bernice Carmichael, Bette Prudden, Nancy Proffit, Marjorie Caulkins, Elizabeth Jefferis, Corinne Dolega, Elizabeth Dulmage, Katherine Travis, Marjorie Pankhurst and Pat Penoyar belong.

Distinctive Dining by

Larry Lavigne

A lot of cooking terminology sounds similar but means something quite different. For instance, to "braise" means to brown food in a little fat, with the addition of seasonings and a bit of water or some other liquid. The pan should be covered tightly while the food cooks slowly till tender, on the burner or in the oven. To "bread" food is to coat it with bread crumbs or with some other mixture preparatory to baking or frying. To "baste" is to moisten food as it cooks by applying to it spoonfuls of a sauce or drippings.

Leave the cooking to us at LAMBARDE'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100. All the sauces we use in the preparation of our delicious Italian dishes are made in our kitchen from an old family recipe from Palermo, Italy. Our Fettucine, Lasagne, Gnocchi and Cannelloni are made in our own kitchen and cooked to order just for you, not pre-cooked. Our family has been in the restaurant business for over 100 years. Do come in soon—we're open from 11 'til 11:30 daily and Fri. & Sat 'til 1:30.

Friends of France

(Continued from Page 14) troit and elsewhere there was a growing feeling that their government's representation should be re-established abroad; but with France in the midst of reconstruction there was no money to re-open or operate consulates. And career diplomats were in short supply.

Nevertheless, in 1948, through the suggestion of the Consul General of Chicago, Detroit received a consul in the person of Donat Gauthier.

As a French Canadian his appointment was strictly honorary — but it was the opinion of the Chicago Consul General that Mr. Gauthier's long and successful work with the French in Detroit made him an excellent choice to both re-unite the French community and revive the Alliance.

The Consul General of Chicago's first request to the newly appointed consul was to bring together as many of the French in Detroit as possible for an address on the state of affairs in France, and to pave the way for a renewal of the French spirit in Detroit.

Some 400 people attended this highly successful function, which marked the second birth of the Alliance Francaise de Detroit.

As a consequence of the respect it has gained over the past three-quarters of a century, the Detroit Chapter of the Alliance Francaise and several of its members have enjoyed on-going recognition by the French Government.

By virtue of its scholarship program the Alliance Francaise de Detroit has been acknowledged as committed to promoting academic excellence among students of French in educational institutions throughout the state.

Some 25 Alliance members have been decorated by the French Government for their academic contributions

Jubilee Year for Detroit Alliance

and continuous work as good will ambassadors on behalf of France.

The AFD's presence and consistent contributions to the cultural life of Detroit have been acknowledged by each succeeding city administration.

Functioning in both the social and academic spheres, members of the AFD represent a cross-section of the French-oriented population in the state.

The organization, composed of the French-born, teachers and students of French and Francophiles, provides a yearly program encompassing all facets of French life and culture.

From cabaret evenings, folk song soirees and family participation in the celebration of French festivals to art exhibits, performances by well-known French musical artists, poets and authors and lectures by contemporary French political and civic figures, the Alliance Francaise de Detroit offers enriching fare for everyone, regardless of national heritage.

Most recently, in response to a growing need for a progressive adult foreign language program, the organization opened the Alliance Francaise de Detroit Institute of French, offering classes at all levels of French in six locations throughout the greater metropolitan area.

The Institute has been so well received that the AFD hopes to extend its service to include a children's curriculum.

In addition to marking Mr. Gauthier's 54th year of association with the Detroit Alliance, the organization's 75th anniversary provides a long-awaited opportunity to pay tribute to a host of other loyal friends who have remained active and supportive of the Alliance down through the years.

Among them are Mrs. Beatrice Goubet, Mrs. William E. Johnston, Mrs. Isabelle Cheriez, Mrs. Juliette O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marcks, Mr. and Mrs. E. Burroughs-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Stroh, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reaume, Mr. and Mrs. James Merriam Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kruse and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beaudet.

The first patron members of the Alliance Francaise de Detroit included the Francis Palms, Mrs. Frederic M. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Scripps, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chevrolet, Georges Miquelle, Frank Briscoe, Walter Boynton and Joseph O'Brien.

The office of the president of the Alliance demands not only indefatigable energy but also a command of both the French and English languages, diplomacy and organizational and administrative ability.

Those who have served in this capacity include Mrs. Jesse Pitts, Bernard Walker, Mr. Barnes and, presently, Mrs. Kruse.

Macomb Secretaries To Meet for Dinner

The Macomb Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) will gather Wednesday, March 8, at 6:30 o'clock at Huck's Lakeshore for a dinner meeting.

The Panel of American Women — one Jewish, one Black, one Catholic and one White Majority — will be featured in an open discussion program starting at 7:30 o'clock.

All secretaries and guests in the area are invited. Further information may be obtained by calling Norma Tata, 649-1000, during business hours.

Another Knight of Charity to Be Named

In recognition of his efforts on behalf of the community, its citizens and various charity groups within metropolitan Detroit, John J. Riccardi, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Chrysler Corporation, will join the ranks of a unique group of people who have been feted as Knights of Charity.

The award has been presented to local community leaders since 1954, except for a four-year hiatus during which the awarding society, the Pontifical Institute for Missions Extension, (PIME Missionaries), was being re-structured.

This involved organizational as well as educational programming changes for PIME. Now that they have been made, the society is again sponsoring the annual event.

This year's Knights of Charity dinner dance will take place at Fairlane Manor Friday evening, March 3.

Presiding over the granting of the award will be chairman Frank D. Stella, who will bestow upon Mr. Riccardi a medallion and a plaque upon which are engraved the reasons why he is being honored: "unison in family life; with person-to-person charity."

Vice-chairman is Thomas V. Angott. Ladies chairperson is Mrs. Ray W. Macdonald. Her co-chairperson is Mrs. William E. Johnston.

As in the past, proceeds from the benefit will help train young men for lives of dedication and service to others in nations around the world — Burma, India, Bangladesh, the Philippines, equatorial Brazil, Cameroun, Guinea-Bissau, Thailand, Hong Kong and Japan.

Previous recipients of the Knight of Charity award have included George Meany, George A. Gardella, Harry R. Fruehauf, Stephen J. Bartush, Al Borman, Benson Ford, Anthony DeLorenzo,

St. Pat's Party Opens Month

Members of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club Bridge Group get together next Wednesday, March 1, at noon in the Reception Room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House for a Saint Patrick's Day party.

A sandwich and dessert buffet is scheduled for 12 o'clock with the afternoon of bridge to begin at 12:30 o'clock.

Reservations may be made by calling 882-7481 or 886-8297 not later than Saturday, February 25. Payment for reservations must be received by the chairman, Mrs. Dick Warner, by February 25.

Frank Gerbig, Sr., Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., Paul Zuckerman, Lee A. Jacocca, Stanley S. Kresge, Walker L. Cislser, Joseph Z. Nederlander, Ray W. Macdonald, David Polack, Lynn A. Townsend, Richard C. Gerstenberg and The Reverend Malcolm Cadron, S.J.

People keep asking, "Where are our Cul-de-Sacs?" and we say, "Wait until we have completed our survey of the home-owners in all the Pointes." This is a slow process we admit, however, it's just about the only way it can be fairly done.

The Park officials have just recently acted and we certainly congratulate them. It is very obvious to us that the Cul-de-Sac program is desired by at least 95% of all the Pointers. The Park has sent out a special mailer asking the people what they think about our Cul-de-Sac program. In that questionnaire they bring up taxes and costly studies. We feel this is a mistake because we feel the Cul-de-Sac program should be first voted on for its desirability and secondly, later on, it should be determined how it can be accomplished—by taxes, donations or otherwise. Another thing we discovered about our Cul-de-Sac program was that although it has had tremendous press and T.V. coverage, there are many, many, home owners who still do not know what a Cul-de-Sac is or what our program is, or even how we have planned it!

How can the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. home-owners vote on the "Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co." Cul-de-Sac program if they don't see a map of the proposed locations or read an in-depth brochure that Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. prepared free of charge for all home-owners—which explains every facet of the program?

If you received a questionnaire from President Carter, asking how you felt about Carter's proposed plan to renovate the highway system in the entire county, how would you vote?

So, although we feel the Park has acted conscientiously and in good service for their community, we feel the bill has been dropped and predict the survey to be a flop with the results being unrepresentative, misleading and inconclusive. But for the Cul-de-Sac supporters, never fear, Grosse Pointe Real Estate will stay in there pitching until we have positively heard from the majority of the home owners.

If you have any questions, please call us at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087.

A Lovelier YOU

Pretty hair is clean, shiny and well-brushed looking. This means that shampooing is a beauty necessity. Whenever your hair starts to show signs of oiliness, a shampoo is definitely in order. Once a week may not be enough for your hair. Even if oiliness does not affect your hair, the presence of chemical pollutants, smoke, etc., in your hair, can dull its sheen, and make it less attractive. The right care will make your hair look more lustrous and nice smelling.

AT GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES, 20127 Mack Ave., 881-2090, we use nothing but the finest manufactured products in our beauty treatments, specializing in the use of REDKIN. Toners don't fade; conditioners are the finest. Our formula renews with protein each hair shaft into like-new hair. Our hair reconstructors properly renew each hair. Of course, we have conditioners for every type of problem hair too.

Many Residents Cited in Valentine Promotion

"It's the most exciting thing that's ever happened to our family" was the way 11-year-old Lisa Van Dellen of Nottingham road described the choice of her parents, Ken and Pearl, as the official Village Valentines of 1978.

The entries Lisa and her sister, Kara, 9, submitted naming their parents were among over 1,000 nominations received by Village merchants in the contest. The rules required 50 words or less describing why someone special should be chosen the Village Valentine.

Lisa's description of her mother included the words "... because I love her very much. I am adopted and even though I am, my Mother treats me great. Sometimes we get into small disagreements but usually I learn something from them. I think that I am very lucky to have such a great Mom."

Kara nominated her Dad

"... because he adopted me, and he treats me great. He takes me skiing sometimes ... he is nice and patient, takes me and my family lots of places. I think I'm lucky!"

In agreement, the judges awarded the Van Dellen's a list of over 20 prizes supplied by businesses of the Village Merchants Ass'n.

It was, admits William P. Huntington, association president, a difficult decision for the judges to make. "We received over 1,000 entries, almost all of them deserving of recognition of the tremendous amount of love and admiration for special people," he said.

Because of this, the association awarded 12 runners-up prizes, previously unannounced.

Runners-up "Valentines" included Rosemary Gant of Hampton road, nominated by Mrs. Jack Stephenson of Fisher road. ("Her business friends have never met her, they know only the voice, hearty laughter, snappy chatter. As a handicapped person, Rosie's telephone answering service is her 'social life.'")

Mrs. Jackie Werenki of Anita avenue was nominated by Pat Wylie of Washington road. ("Jackie has been the true pillar of strength to the entire family during her mother-in-law's illness ...")

Mrs. Margaret Hutchings, director of volunteer services at Cottage Hospital, was described by Mrs. Ruth Wendell of Buckingham road as being "... the hub of the wheel in an area where volunteers are badly needed. She is a delight and inspiration to all of us."

Rita Flaherty of Kerby School was nominated in an entry signed by her entire third-fourth grade class as "... considerate and willing to help when we have trouble ... she teaches me to use my brain ..."

Josephine Short of Harvard road was described by Inez Pietra of Vernier road as "... a true valentine pouring love out in many directions ... dedicated teacher, church worker, cheerful volunteer."

Carol Dumont of Roseville was nominated by her daughter Sandra, who said, "For the past six years she has, day and night, taken care of my sister who is bedridden with measles encephalitis, ... who must ... be patterned five times a day ..."

Robert W. Shipton of McKinley avenue was nominated by his wife, Carol, because he is "... selling his Islander 30-foot sailboat to give me a new kitchen and a newly decorated living room. Greater love hath no man."

Doreen DeSmyster of St. Clair avenue was described by her son, David, thusly, "Even when she gets mad at us we love each other always."

Kelly Moustakas, 16, of Harper Woods, nominated by her mother, is "... cook, cleaning lady, laundress while Mom is working ... also holds down a part time job while going to school."

Ray Woodruff, employee of Jacobson's Fabric Shop "... has a dime for the meter when you find you've none, greets you with a wide smile and 'Have a nice day,'" according to fellow-employee Vera Heath of Kensington road.

Pamela Brainard of Neff road was nominated by Mrs. R. S. LeFevre of Lincoln road, while Audrey Leverenz of Bishop road was nominated by her husband, Jack, to round out the list.

Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations for The City of Grosse Pointe Park, Wayne County, Michigan
AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration, HUD.
ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY:
Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations listed below for selected locations in the City of Grosse Pointe Park, Wayne County, Michigan.

These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the flood plain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

DATES:
The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in the above-named community.

ADDRESSES:
Maps and other information showing the detailed outlines of the flood-prone areas and the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations are available for review at City Hall, 15115 East Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan.

Send comments to: Mr. Robert Slone, City Manager, City of Grosse Pointe Park, City Hall, 15115 East Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan 48230.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
The Federal Insurance Administrator gives notice of the proposed determinations of base (100-year) flood elevations for the City of Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan, in accordance with section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 24 CFR 1917.4(a).

These elevations, together with the flood plain management measures required by Section 1910.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State, or regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.

Saint Paul Contributes $12,500 to Help Seniors

A Farms Lutheran church, this week contributed $12,500 for remodeling of a senior center serving the northeast suburbs and Detroit.

The congregation of Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375 Lothrop road, presented the funds to Calvary Senior Center, 4950 Gateshead at Mack, during services on Sunday, February 19.

Calvary Senior Center is a unit of Lutheran Social Services of Michigan, (LSSM). Presenting the check was the Rev. Kenneth Lentz, pastor, and Bernard Woods, of St. Clair Shores, chairman of the congregational committee which recommended the funds be given to Calvary.

Accepting the gift were Carl E. Thomas, LSSM's executive director, and Mrs. Mary Jane Cory, director of Calvary.

Other members of Saint Paul Church's committee included Karl Matuschek of Detroit, and Vernon Olson and Helge Nurmi, both of Grosse Pointe.

The $12,500 is half of $25,000 required to match $75,000 to remodel Calvary Senior Center to make it barrier free and energy efficient. The federal grant was administered through the Detroit-Wayne County Area Agency on Aging and the Michigan Commission on Aging.

The other $12,500 was donated from area churches, the LSSM Auxiliary and an anonymous gift.

Of his congregation's gift, Pastor Lentz said "It's been

Flea Market Set Sunday

Saint Paul School's eighth grade class will sponsor its annual Children's Flea Market on Friday, February 24, in the school cafeteria, 170 Grosse Pointe boulevard, from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Profits from the rental of tables will be used to purchase a gift for the school. The sale will include toys, crafts, white elephants and baked goods.

Calvary Senior Center, which opened July 1977 under the leadership of Mrs. Cory, of Troy, serves 150 meals daily through the Food and Friendship program.

Serving the Denby-Finney area with minor home repair, the center has completed more than 200 minor home repair jobs with a waiting list of almost 90.

The center, which offers free income tax help, also offers information and referral through a VISTA volunteer. AARP and RSVP volunteer programs provide support services.

Calvary formerly was Calvary Lutheran Church, a congregation of the American Lutheran Church. The congregation, when it dissolved last year, donated its church, fellowship hall, parsonage and more than an acre of land to LSSM with the stipulation Calvary's name be continued in service to the older adult.

LSSM, established in 1934, also operates three nursing homes; a retirement residence; a settlement house; manages a group home for mentally retarded adults; places children in foster and adoptive homes; resettles refugees; and offers pastoral care and family counseling and referral.

South Natators Score in EML

South High School swimmers continued their dominance of the Eastern Michigan League, (EML), by handily defeating two EML opponents last week.

In a meet conducted at Sterling Heights Stevenson on Tuesday, February 14, South handed Stevenson swimmers a 121-48 loss, and took all first place finishes except in diving.

Event winners for South were Rod Wood, Peter Dever, Bob Chapelle and Randy Singelyn, medley relay; Toby Lindheim, 200-yard freestyle; Bill Bradfield, 200-yard individual medley; Steve Makos, 50-yard freestyle, and Nick Trost, 100-yard butterfly, (new pool record).

More are John Hessburg, 100-yard freestyle; Randy Walworth, 500-yard freestyle; Steve Kienle, 100-yard backstroke; John Kuhn, 100-yard breaststroke, and Trost, Toby Lindheim, John Hessburg, and Steve Soderberg, freestyle medley.

In a meet against Mount Clemens on Friday, February 20, the Blue Devils not only dominated the meet, but practically wiped the record board clean.

Setting the pace for South were Lindheim with a new school record in the 160-yard individual medley, Trost with new school and pool records in the 200-yard freestyle and the 100-yard butterfly and Pat Coyle with new school and pool records in the 500-yard freestyle.

Other first place finishers for the Blue Devils were the medley relay team of Wood, Kuhn, Hessburg, Makos and Singelyn; Steve Makos and Singelyn; Hessburg, 60-yard freestyle; Lindheim, 100-yard freestyle; Kienle, 100-yard backstroke; Kuhn, 100-yard breaststroke, and the freestyle relay team of Dever, Mike Bernard, Hessburg and Jeff Measelle.

The South swimmers will complete their dual meet season by hosting East Detroit on Friday, February 24, at 4 p.m. and will then compete in the Bloomfield Hills Invitational on Saturday, February 25, the EML Championships on Tuesday, February 28 and Thursday March 2, and the Michigan High School Championships Friday and Saturday, March 10 and 11.

ULS No Match For Cosmos

By Bill Fleischmann The University Liggett School, (ULS), varsity basketball team took Lutheran North as its fourth straight victim before falling to Class C power Hamtramck.

In the match-up on Thursday, February 16, ULS defeated Lutheran North 64-57.

The lead exchanged hands several times in the first half. Strong offensive rebounding made up for the Knights 33 percent shooting from the floor, and the score stood at 27-27 at halftime.

The second half was more physical than the first, as a total of 25 fouls were called. Going into the final period the teams were deadlocked at 46. The Knights took advantage of the free throw line and scored 10 of their 18 points from the line in the fourth quarter. Carl Popkey led ULS with 17 points.

ULS was overpowered by the Metro Conference leader Hamtramck on Friday, February 17, in a 102-77 decision.

The Knights were clearly no match for the Cosmos, who piled up 58 points in the first half. The game was definitely out of hand by the middle of the third quarter when both teams started free substitution. The rest of the game was controlled by Hamtramck.

Burglars Steal Safe's Contents

A burglar, or burglars, damaged a safety deposit vault in the basement of a Park restaurant, located at 15506 Mack avenue, to get at its contents, according to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The lieutenant said that the safe at the Pebbles Restaurant was broken into sometime between 9:30 p.m. on Sunday, February 5, and 5:30 a.m. on Monday, February 6. Missing, he said, was approximately $5,000 in cash and checks, the weekend receipts. There was no evidence of forcible entry into the building, he said.

The burglary was discovered by an employee who opened the place at 5 a.m. Nearly an hour later, when he went down into the basement, he noticed the damaged safe and its contents gone. He promptly called police.

Lt. Duncan said that investigation of the burglary still continuing. So far, there are no clues, he said.

Cottage Sets Diet Classes

Cottage Hospital is again offering diabetic diet classes on the first Thursday of each month, beginning March 2, according to Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde.

The classes, which are free of charge to the public as well as to hospital patients, are presented from 7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital board room.

Lectures by Barbara Youngblood, registered dietitian and assistant dietitian at Cottage, stress patient diet responsibility for care at home and at work. She also explains how foods may be used for personal preference and how the patient can cooperate with the physician.

Spouses of diabetics are encouraged to attend the classes for understanding and assistance with diets.

Reservations may be made for the classes by calling 884-8600, extension 2650 and 2651.

Cinema League Eyes Morocco

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present "Morocco and the Canary Islands," a program of color slides by Raymond C. Walk, when it meets in the War Memorial's Ems Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road, on Monday, February 27, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Walk, first vice-president and program chairman of the Cinema League, made these slides last summer when he and his wife, Charlotte, visited North Africa.

MRS. ANTHONY VERMEULEN, OF LAKESHORE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Come May, Dorothea Vermeulen will have a problem. She's secretary-treasurer of Saint John Hospital's Fontbonne Auxiliary, which has scheduled its annual meeting for May 17, at Lochmoor Club. AND she's Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives Project Luncheon chairman, and the Pointe Lawyers' Wives are holding their annual meeting May 17, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

No one's efficient enough to be in two places, deliver two reports, at the same time.

Dorothea will probably, regretfully, forgo the Fontbonne meeting. As secretary-treasurer she's basically minutes/monetary recorder, her report an overview of Fontbonne's projects throughout the year.

Each project has its own chairman. Each chairman delivers her own report.

Can Use Stand-In Dorothea's is a compilation and, although she doesn't like to use a stand-in, she feels it can be effectively presented by one, for it's impersonal.

The Lawyers' Wives Project Luncheon, on the other hand, is Dorothea's baby.

It's scheduled for two weeks from today, Thursday, March 9, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. It begins at noon. It will feature a fashion show by Walton-Pierce.

It is open to the public. Tickets, at $10 per person—up a bit from last year, but then: what isn't?—may be ordered through Mrs. Donald Miller, 423 Cloverly road, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan 48236.

The Project Luncheon is the Pointe Lawyers' Wives one annual fund-raiser. It began when the Lawyers' Wives began, in the early '60's, as a small party at Hudson's downtown which raised, Dorothea recalls, about $150.

Last year, through the luncheon and the sale of bracelet watches, the Pointe Lawyers' Wives raised approximately $1,800 for their charitable projects.

Projects Changed Through the years, those charitable projects have changed. Proceeds from the first Project Luncheons went for law student scholarships at the University of Detroit, Wayne State University and Detroit College of Law.

For a time the Wayne County Juvenile Court was sole recipient of the Pointe Lawyers' Wives largesse; later, Project Luncheon proceeds were divided between the Juvenile Court and Grosse Pointe's Youth Service Division.

This year's Project Luncheon will benefit the Youth Service Division and F.I.E.C. (Grosse Pointe's Family Life Education Council).

Dorothea Vermeulen has been a member of the Grosse Pointe Lawyers' wives almost as long as there's been a Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives.

"It started in 1960. In the second year, I joined." She served as president of the organization in 1974.

Part of State Group There are about 150 members in the local group now, and the local group is affiliated with the state group, Lawyers Wives of Michigan—in fact, Mrs. David Williams, IV, a Pointe Lawyers' Wife, is current president of the state organization.

Pointe War Memorial's trip to Russia. They were in the Moscow hotel fire. When they became aware that there WAS a fire, they did what came naturally—picked up their bags, (packed and ready for departure the following morning), exited their room and walked downstairs.

At least: it came naturally to Dorothea and Lenore. Most people flee a fire with a little less aplomb. "We were the only two who brought our suitcases."

It didn't faze them, either, when the plane they were on lost a motor between Prague and Bucharest . . . but they wouldn't have minded a slightly less adventurous trip.

She's a Francophile A favorite destination for Dorothea is France. A few years ago, she joined Tity Bachrach's Grosse Pointe War Memorial meander through western France. It was a small group, traveling by private bus.

Last year, Dorothea and Titi (Mrs. Francis X.) Kotcher, a fellow veteran of the western France trip and a fellow Francophile, decided to strike out on their own.

They rented a car and toured the eastern side of France. It was a dream trip. Everything went like clockwork. Everywhere, everyone they met went out of his/her way to help the two American ladies, and Dorothea fell in love with the French people all over again.

"They are something else! Just darling." What about the language barrier? Well, French was Dorothea's major in college. A language gets rusty if it's not used, but after a few days' polishing, immersion in another culture, another tongue, things come back.

"I'd speak the best I could." It worked, and the French loved her for it. Come fall, Dorothea will be off again, to Switzerland and Vienna, where she hasn't been.

She's Real Joiner At home in Grosse Pointe, she keeps busy working for her various organizations. Besides the Lawyers' Wives, the Northeast Guidance Center Assistance League, the Fontbonne Auxiliary, there's the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, the French Festival of Detroit, Inc., the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee, Women of Wayne, Theatre Arts . . .

It's a long list. "You get into one thing, and a friend will say, 'Oh, I want you to join this,'" Dorothea explains. "Probably, for me, it's a good thing. The girls are away, and commitments help me to be independent."

Can mother come east for a visit next week? No, mother can't; she's busy. How about the week after next? Eventually, a time agreeable to all concerned is negotiated.

In most organizations in which she's involved, Dorothea winds up on the organizing end. She's taken reservations for the Guidance Center Assistance League's Detroit Auto Show Charity Preview.

A relatively new member of Theatre Arts, she's helped with food. "And I said I'd help with costumes." That's a field in which she's had prior experience, for she worked on costumes for the Cadillac Pageant during the Bicentennial.

When she's head honcho, general chairman in charge of a project, she follows a rule she learned from Warren Wilkinson. "Just get really good people to chair
