HEADLINES

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 2
A JUMBO JET bound for Honolulu blew two tires on takeoff yesterday in Los Angeles and burst into flames, killing two passengers and injuring 50 others. The crash occurred during a heavy rain. The passengers escaped from the plane by sliding down the emergency chutes, one of which was on fire. The man and woman who died slid down one chute and were consumed by flames leaping up from beneath the plane's tail. The plane's pilot, Capt. Gene Hersche, was making his last flight before his retirement.

Friday, March 3
THE BODY of Charlie Chaplin, who died Christmas Day, was stolen from its grave in Corsier Sur Vevey, Switzerland, sometime late Wednesday night. The tiny, unguarded cemetery in the village, where Mr. Chaplin spent his last 20 years, is located in a remote area along a rarely traveled dirt road. Police said the removal of the heavy wooden coffin was an "act of vandalism." They also reported that the vandals may attempt to force the family of the actor to pay ransom. However, no ransom request has been made as yet and the police say they have no leads.

Saturday, March 4
A CONSTITUTIONAL settlement has been signed between Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith and Rhodesian black nationalists turning the country over to black majority rule by December 31, 1978. The historic agreement signed yesterday in Salisbury was denounced by black guerilla leaders outside the country as a prescription for further bloodshed. The pact was signed in a six-minute ceremony capping three months of negotiations between the white-minority regime and three leading black moderates.

Sunday, March 5
A MASSIVE STORM swept over southern California Saturday, causing widespread mud slides that marooned some residents and closed many roads, including several metropolitan freeways. Two persons were killed when slides engulfed a home in Bell Air and another in Woodland Hills. A Van Nuys youth was washed into a flood control channel and drowned. As the latest of a series of rainstorms to batter the area appeared to be subsiding, emergency workers started to dig out a Los Angeles freeway covered by a mud slide that may have entombed cars.

Monday, March 6
UNITED MINE Workers, (UMW), members rejected a new contract in a landslide of negative votes yesterday. As a result of the vote, it is expected that President Jimmy Carter will invoke a back-to-work order under the Taft-Hartley Act today. UMW workers from Alabama to Pennsylvania, and from Maryland to New Mexico, rejected the pact by better than a two to one margin. The strike, which started December 6, now imperils the nation's electricity supply. Gov. William Milliken said last night the rejection means that Michigan residents must "intensify their efforts to conserve electricity."

Tuesday, March 7
In a move to force the United Mine Workers, (UMW), back to work, President Jimmy Carter invoked the Taft-Hartley Act yesterday. Most UMW members laughed at the announcement and union leaders said there was "no way" the miners would obey the President. "They will not go back to work," said Joe Hoskins, president of a UMW local in Ohio, "there's just no way, Bud."

Kerby Carnival Promises Fun for All

Kerby Elementary School students winning first place in the poster contest publishing the Kerby Carnival Saturday, March 18, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. are, (from left to right), ANNA WUERFEL, HELENNANNE D'ALESSANDRA, and AMY ANDREAU. The Carnival will feature everything from a tattoo parlor to a room of video games, with a lunch with the clowns, a silent auction, magic show and flower sale also planned. Tickets are 10 for $1 and are available at the door. (See story, Page 7.)

GPW Views Congestion At Schools

City Proposes Long-Range Program to Educators to Take Cars Off The Streets

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods is requesting public school officials to formulate a program to ward off alleviating traffic congestion at four city schools, when parents drop off and pick up their youngsters, by installing some type of parking area toward removing the cars from the streets.

This matter was viewed by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 6, with the solons unanimously referring a memo from Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook to the School Board for its reply. "Every year we receive complaints from parents of the schools, (in citing Ferry, Mason, Barnes and Monteth), over the problem of congestion," said Officer Crook. "The amount of snow currently on the ground further complicates safety hazards."

Main Objective
Saying Mason was particularly a "bug-a-boo" because of the 35 mph speed limit along Vernier, the officer noted some of his departmental colleagues also have

Woman Collapses During Hearing at Park Meeting

By James J. Njaim
A small drama centered around a woman property owner during a public hearing in the Park Council chambers on Monday, February 27, in which the council started condemnation proceedings to force the woman to repair her fire-damaged home. The woman collapsed and firemen were called to administer oxygen until she was well enough for her son to take her home. Mayor Matthew C. Patterson called a 10-minute recess at the time. The hearing concerned the condemnation of a home owned by Mrs. Florence F. Flora in Pemberton road, where she lived until a fire

GP Symphony Concert Planned for March 19; Duetists to Perform

Third Presentation of Group's 25th Season Set for March 19 at Parcels; Variety of Selections Planned

The Grosse Pointe Symphony's, (GPS), third concert of its 25th season is scheduled for Sunday, March 19, at 3:30 p.m. in the Parcels School auditorium, 20600 Mack avenue.

Piano duettists Weekley and Arganbright will highlight the program. This husband and wife team, called "America's foremost one-piano four-hand team," will perform Malcolm Arnold's, "Concerto for Piano Duet and Strings."

Also appearing in the program will be 17-year-old Andrew S. DeForest of Balfour road, who will play the third movement of Haydn's "Concerto No. 1 in D for Horn."

Given Opportunity
As the 1977 winner of the Thomas Nester Scholarship, Andrew, a senior at South High School, was awarded $200 in cash, given an opportunity to play with the GPS on a regular basis and to make a special featured appearance with the orchestra during the 1977-78 season.

He has studied French horn for seven years, with Keith Vernon of the Detroit Symphony, and has played with several South High music groups, including the Wind Ensemble, as well as with the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra.

The symphony's concert will be under the baton of long-time GPS conductor Fe-destroyed a second floor bedroom and bathroom last May 30. Mrs. Flora now temporarily resides with a friend in Detroit. Her son, Lee Flora, who resides in Rochester, attended the hearing with his mother. Several meetings ago, residents of the Windmill Pointe Subdivision presented the council with a petition bearing several hundred signatures, asking the solons to take necessary steps to force Mrs. Flora to repair her residence so it would not be a detriment to properties in the subdivision. The petitioners charged that the house was filled almost to the ceiling, in practically every room, with all

Merchants, Woods See Eye to Eye

Association, City Strive to Further Improve Communication Between Them

By Roger A. Waha
An effort to further improve communication between the Grosse Pointe Merchants Ass'n. and Woods officials was initiated by the association's president in a communication to the council on three different subjects.

Plan Social Hour
"La Forza del destino" belongs to the rich middle period of Verdi's creative life, which also produced "Il Trovatore," "Rigoletto," "La Traviata" and "Aida," among others. The seven or eight masterpieces he wrote in that area have been labeled "the most extensively performed and best loved Italian operas of all time."

Finnish composer Jan Sibelius wrote musical works that made him a national hero and a world-famous figure. The most popular of his symphonies through the years has undoubtedly been the "No. 2 in D." Its enthusiasts acclaim its power, its drama and its overwhelming emotional quality.

A social hour, when the audience can meet the guest artists and the orchestra personnel, will immediately follow the concert.

NEWS Offers 'Vial of Life'

The NEWS is currently stocking kits and information sheets as part of the "Rotary Vial of Life" program in The Pointe.

It's geared toward senior citizens and those who are continually under medication which might render them unconscious.

Citizens are invited to pick up the material free of charge at 99 Kercheval avenue, on-the-Hill.

All Pointe police or fire departments also have the vials, along with local libraries.

GPW Planners View Exterior Design Control

Commissioners Explore Recommendation of Planning Consultant, Strive to Further Reinforce City's Colonial Design Theme, Consider Architectural Board of Review

By Roger A. Waha
The exterior design regulation of commercial buildings and the creation of an architectural board of review, based upon the recommendation of planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers, was a main item of discussion at the Woods Planning Commission's regular meeting Tuesday, February 28.

At the same time, Mr. Rogers' recommendation on a proposed property maintenance code also was explored, with three subcommittees of commissioners being formed to view this subject along with other areas.

The groups are scheduled to report back to the entire body on Tuesday, March 28.

The commission unanimously approved the concept of an architectural board of review, although no specifics were decided upon regarding its makeup, in a motion stipulating the following three points:

*To further reinforce the city's colonial design theme in the zoning ordinance.

*To review a total site, with all such site plan reviews being done in their entirety by the commission.

*To establish a fee ordinance to support resources for such actions, i.e., toward developing an outlet for funds to obtain input from responsible individuals, thus, touching upon the theme of an architectural board of review.

Have Final Say
These three points were included in a motion offered by Commissioner John Kennedy and also were part of a substitute motion presented by Commissioner Peter Gilzean, which was approved 9-0.

In his motion, Mr. Gilzean also stressed that a fee schedule should be so structured that the commission would have the prerogative to refer any given proposal it deems appropriate to outside resources for evaluation and the determination of recommendations and conclusions with a report back to the commission.

With the approval of this motion, the commission would have final say in the ultimate determination of any proposal.

Mr. Rogers said he would prepare a recommendation on this subject for the commission's consideration and further review as part of the

Crime Picture in City Remains Steady Overall

By Susan McDonald
The crime picture remained steady last year in The City, with larceny and vandalism topping the list of reported crimes as usual, according to the police department's annual report to the council.

Vandalism showed the biggest single increase, jumping more than 25 percent compared to the previous annual statistic. Vandalism was at a five year high of 117 cases in 1977, compared to just 74 in 1976.

Most other major crimes were at near average levels, with eight robberies reported in 1977, compared to five in 1976, one assault, compared to three in 1976, 36 burglaries, compared to 20

Board Set To Ballot On Monday

Reorganization of Central Offices Would Add One Administrator and Realign Some Duties

By Susan McDonald

The School Board will vote next week on a proposal that they again enlarge their administrative staff as part of an overall reorganization of central offices.

If approved, the plan will add one new employee, increasing the number of administrators to 39. The proposal also calls for several realignments of duties within the office, with new job titles assigned to many positions.

The plan is designed to complete the central staff reorganization started by Superintendent Dr. William Coats last year.

At that time two administrators were added at the high schools, three positions formerly held by teachers were removed from the bargaining unit, given supervisory responsibilities and added to administrative ranks, and one position was added in the department of instruction.

Increase Ratio
The additional employee will increase the ratio of administrators to instructors to one administrator for every 15 teachers. The system has been reducing its teaching staff annually by about 20 positions as enrollment has dropped during the past several years.

The School Board is scheduled to vote on the plan at its meeting Monday, March 13, at 8 p.m. at 389 St. Clair avenue at 8 p.m. The trustees have been considering revised drafts of the plan since last November and are expected to approve it Monday night.

The schools' central office departments handle business affairs, building maintenance, research, development and supervision of instruction, public relations, adult education, personnel and many special services.

The realignments reflect some changes in emphasis, according to Dr. Coats. For instance, the assistant to the superintendent for community services' position will be responsible for developing new programs to meet a broad scope of educational needs, based on shifts in the population of the community.

"As the community changes, with increased percentages of senior citizens and couples without children, we must develop programs to meet their needs," he said.

Farms Arson Case Pending

The Farms detective bureau's investigation of the arsons which occurred between last November 5 and 19 is pending, with the suspect list narrowed down to one.

The remaining suspect was given six polygraph, (lie detector), tests on Friday, February 10. He flunked all six tests. When he was informed that he didn't pass the suspect replied, "Your machine must be broken," police said.

A polygraph test is not admissible in court and cannot be used as evidence in obtaining a warrant for arrest. Therefore the detectives are continuing their investigation toward obtaining more evidence.

The suspect, an 18-year-old Farms resident, has employed an attorney and has said nothing about the case since the polygraph test.

Strive to Improve Communication

In response, Mr. Petersen, in viewing occupancy fees, said such fees are collected from every business in the city. All such monies are considered as general fund revenues the same as property tax revenues.

He then listed the way in which the business community indirectly benefits from the revenues collected. These include the following:

- Reduced property tax levy. (GPW has the lowest city tax rate of any community on the east side and one of the lowest in southeastern Michigan).
- Improved street lighting on Mack avenue and annual costs thereof.
- Installation of alley lighting and annual costs thereof.
- Installation and maintenance of litter and receptacles on Mack and collection of trash.
- Ramping of curbs at Mack intersections for the benefit of potential customers of the business community.
- Regular fire prevention inspections.

Increased police patrol for the business community beyond that normally supplied to the residential community.

Flower and tree plantings on Mack and Vernier road.

Will Be Reviewed

As for the crossing guard-parking meter fund query, this was viewed at a council meeting several months ago. Mr. Petersen said the payment for crossing guards from the Parking Utility Fund is a legal expenditure and any expenditures from such fund is the council's prerogative.

"Again, payment of crossing guards from the Parking Utility Fund helps to keep a lower property tax levy not only for the business community, but also for the residential community," he said.

This matter has been referred to the finance committee, made up of Councilmen George Cueter, chairman, and John Sabol, plus Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, (an ex-officio member), for consideration in the preparation of the 1978-79 fiscal year budget.

On the long term parking meter rates question, Mr.

Pinkos viewed this matter at the February 6 meeting. At that time, he said only the long term meters because of the costs of operations were affected. He also felt that the previous rate of 25 cents for an all day meter only provided all day parking for autos, (the fee was raised to 50 cents).

The mayor added it was the council's prerogative to change its mind at any time, something that it will continue to do.

Clean Up Snow

Mr. Petersen, in citing the association's overture toward aiding the city, advised the group to direct its attention to having the business community assume responsibility for the removal of snow and ice from the public sidewalk in front of businesses, plus necessary snow removal from any private off-street spaces behind businesses.

Mr. Hill already has responded to this request by sending a letter to association members urging them to take such action.

During the discussion, Mr. Hill said he agreed with the answers from Mr. Petersen, while acknowledging the effort of both the city administrator and the mayor for the report.

At the same time, Mr. Hill urged the city to keep the merchants informed of similar activities, saying it would be good public relations on the city's part.

The association president also shared with the council an apparent parking problem regarding the use of a municipal lot in the area of Hampton road, i.e., the alleged parking of cars at public meters by a business to the exclusion of others. Mr. Petersen said he would investigate this matter and report back to the council.

As the sharing of thoughts and ideas continued, Councilman E. D. Grady said he appreciated Mr. Hill appearing before the council in order to express his feelings and directly respond to questions.

In fact, a suggestion was made that a council member attend one of the association's future meetings toward keeping the lines of communication open, while Councilman John Sabol felt that the group should contact the Wayne County Road Commission and urge them, to consistently maintain Mack during the winter. The councilman cited the city's past efforts in this respect.

Mr. Hill said he would take this request back to the membership for their consideration.

For his part, Mr. Cueter viewed the city's effort during the "Blizzard of '78" toward clearing Mack cross-overs for the benefit of citizens, while Mr. Grady said the city also did plowing and salting on Mack, a county thoroughfare.

The city already has used over 2,400 tons of salt this winter, some 160 tons more than the total for all of last winter.

Good News on Finances

"This council is committed to the most efficient operating budget we can adhere to," he stressed.

Would Be Unfair

Saying all officials naturally like to be consistently under the budget on a month by month basis, Mr. Petersen noted, "We try to cut the budget each year to the narrowest operation, not leaving too much leeway, nor padding it or having excess revenues over expenditures. That would be unfair to taxpayers."

He also noted that in view of the inflationary spiral, the 1977-78 fiscal year general fund budget is only 8.29 percent over the 1976-77 budget.

At the rescheduled regular council meeting on Monday, February 27, the state of the budget was viewed with Councilman E. D. Grady suggesting that all figures be broken down on a monthly basis toward more accurate tracking.

In this manner, it was hoped more seasonal trends regarding expenses of all departments could be pinpointed, e.g., the parks and recreation budget normally is more heavily spent from July through September.

Added Measure

Mr. Petersen said he would see if it would be possible to program such information into the city's computer toward establishing an added budgetary control measure for all officials.

With this approach, Mr. Petersen felt normal expenditures per department on a monthly basis could be obtained rather than view expenses on an accumulated basis.

Even while considering seasonal expenditures per department, such an approach could indicate on a percentage basis whether, for instance, a department is over or under expenses during any given month.

Mr. Petersen said he would check into this approach to see if the computer would be "cooperative" and report back to the council.

School Plan

Special education will get more attention, too, as it will now be the sole responsibility of one administrator.

The position formerly includes all child accounting, (enrollment, census taking, et al.), duties as well as special education tasks. Child accounting will become the responsibility of the director of support services.

The reorganization calls for two assistant superintendents, one for instruction and one for administrative services. They will be responsible for supervising other administrators in their respective areas.

Included in the instruction department will be directors of elementary, secondary and special education, a director of research and development, as well as supervisors of continuing education, career and vocational education and instructional media.

In the administrative services department will be directors of business affairs, personnel and support services, supervisors of buildings and groups and cafeterias, an assistant to the personnel director, a chief accountant, purchasing agent and supervisor of data processing.

Open Meetings Law Reviewed

A communication from City Attorney George Catlin on the review and re-evaluation of administrative officers was received and placed on file by the Woods Council on a 5-1 vote.

This action was taken at the rescheduled regular meeting Monday, February 27.

The subject was viewed by the council on February 6 at which time the solons appeared to prefer that such a review be held in a closed session.

At the time, Mr. Catlin felt that the "Open Meetings Law" would permit a closed session if the review/re-evaluation was combined with a salary discussion concerning the administrative officers, with such a session being deferred to a later date.

However, in response to an inquiry by the NEWS, Mr. Catlin reviewed the act in relation to permitted exceptions for closed sessions.

Section 8(c) permits a closed session for strategy and negotiation sessions conducted with the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement when either negotiation party requests a closed hearing.

Mr. Catlin said this section of the law didn't apply because the administrative officers aren't involved in collective bargaining agreements.

"Therefore, any re-evaluation meeting or salary discussion meeting concerning administrative officers, whether such meetings were to be combined or not, is required to be held as an open meeting. The provisions of the act apply to a regular meeting or a meeting of the committee of the whole council," he added.

CASTING THE LONE DISSENTING VOTE on the motion was Councilman Thomas Fahrner, who said he didn't like the stipulation in the "Open Meeting Law" in relation to discussions of finances.

Mr. Fahrner felt anytime finances are negotiated with non-union personnel they would be conducted in public, whereas similar discussions with union personnel can be done in a closed session if either party requests such a hearing.

The councilman didn't feel this was fair, while adding that he had no strong feelings against bargaining in public.

Woods Seeks Assistance From Nedzi on Siren Bid

The Woods Council is seeking the assistance of Cong. Lucien Nedzi toward expediting the city's application with the federal government for the installation of a storm warning siren system in the community.

Officials had hoped to have the siren, which will be located on Lochmoor Club property, in operation by Saturday, April 1, prior to the spring storm season.

But the Wayne County Office of Emergency Preparedness, which is coordinating the program on a county level, doesn't expect to hear from the federal government, which has to approve the bid and allocate federal funds, until around Friday, March 31.

As a result, the council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, February 27, authorized City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who felt Mr. Nedzi might be able to help, to send the congressman a letter.

The cost of the system is $11,480, and the federal government would pay around half of the installation cost.

Leland H. Onkka, assistant director of the emergency preparedness office, said last week that the city's application was forwarded to the federal government early last month, and his office has to await information on the release of funds.

He noted Washington officials have to look at the total Federal Civil Defense Budget before allocating funds to the state.

Mr. Onkka added that bids for 34 sirens went out, making for an estimated, combined total of $340,000 in requests.

At the same time, the council approved sending a letter of appreciation to the Lochmoor Club for its cooperation in this matter. The club's board of directors approved the installation of the siren adjacent to its maintenance building several weeks ago.

In a letter to Mr. Petersen, Frank J. Plunkett, club general manager, said the club "is glad to have this opportunity to be of service to the very fine City of Grosse Pointe Woods and will always try to help and cooperate in every way possible with you."

Further guidelines are scheduled to be explored by city officials regarding the use of the siren, which could be sounded for a tornado watch and/or a tornado warning.

'Vial of Life' Gets Attention

The Pointe's "Rotary Vial of Life" program has won the attention of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners for possible county-wide application, according to a board of commissioners news release.

The program seeks to save the lives of persons who require daily medication by encouraging them to post a "medical information note" on their refrigerator door to aid rescue teams in the event they become unconscious, according to Commissioner Erv Steiner. The medicine, itself, is placed in a vial and the information note tells emergency teams where it is located.

Mr. Steiner was so impressed with the effort in Grosse Pointe he introduced a resolution before the board of commissioners on January 19, calling upon the Wayne County Health Department to monitor the Grosse Pointe program and, if judged effective, submit a plan for a Wayne County program.

His resolution was unanimously approved by the board of commissioners at its Thursday, March 2, meeting, after receiving a favorable recommendation from the board's Human Resources Committee.

"The Wayne County Health Department will monitor the program and recommend a course of action within 60 days," Mr. Steiner said.

Family Fun Set at North

The Neighborhood Club and the Department of Community Services has scheduled a Family Fun Night at North High School on Friday, March 10. It was previously scheduled for March 17.

Activities will be scheduled from 7 to 9:30 p.m. There will be basketball, ping-pong, swimming, trampoline, tumbling and volley-ball for all age groups, and crafts and movies for younger children.

The activity is open to all residents of the Grosse Pointe District. There is a charge of $2 per family or $1 per individual. Cost for crafts is 50 cents.

Children must be at least three years of age to participate, and those 16 and under must be accompanied by at least one adult.

This will be the last Family Fun Night until the fall.

In 1978 there were 145,000 emergency ambulance runs in Wayne County, with an estimated 87,000 going to private residences, he noted.

"Many persons are found unconscious by ambulance crews and are unable to tell if they are allergic to any medication or if they take insulin, heart pills or some other medication," Mr. Steiner said.

"A simple note on the refrigerator door could be the difference between life and death. This is an extremely low-cost program — but the key to its success is community cooperation."

Soccer Group Seeks Players

Yet another group of parents hoping to start up a local soccer league has been formed under the name Grosse Pointe Soccer Ass'n., according to leader Diane M. Dennis, of Hampton road.

The group is currently accepting applications for both spring and summer leagues. The forms are published in the NEWS and may be returned to Mrs. Dennis, 654 Hampton road, Grosse Pointe Woods 48236.

Mrs. Dennis said the association hopes to support the work of the "Parents for Soccer" group, which recently petitioned the School Board to begin middle and high school soccer programs in the public schools.

She said members of her group plan to attend the Board's Monday, March 20, discussion of the soccer plan. The association plans to conduct training sessions for both girls and boys before league play begins in the spring, she said.

For more information, call Mrs. Dennis at 882-8092.

Woman Collapses During Hearing in Park

(Continued from Page 1) manners of debris, so much so that even at the present time it is almost impossible to enter the premises.

The petitioners also charged that because of the huge piles of "junk," the house has become infested with rats, while pigeons have made their homes on the back porch and inside the building, apparently through the holes chopped in the roof by firefighters. The entire house appears to be deteriorating, they claimed.

At the time the petition was presented, the council gave Mrs. Flora 60 days to start repairing the house.

Monday night's hearing was set because of the expiration of the time limit, with the council asking Mrs. Flora if she had done anything to comply with the repair order.

Mrs. Flora claimed she had gone to the house many times by cab, and began cleaning it up so repairs could be started.

This brought about some denials by several neighbors, who charged every time some of the debris were taken outside for pick up by the city, or furniture placed in the rear yard, Mrs. Flora would take them back inside. One neighbor claimed she was an eyewitness to this on several occasions.

Denying this, Mrs. Flora said she has made every effort to clean up the place and had never returned any debris, or any item into the house.

She said as a result of many trips to her home, especially this winter, and because of her working in the extreme cold, she has become a sick woman and is still ill. She said her trips to the house can be verified by the cab company she had called on many occasions.

Mr. Patterson asked James Ellison, director of the department of public service, if anything had been done toward affecting repairs. The director replied that to date only the electricity has been turned on and so has the furnace. The debris and other items in the house have frozen solid and it could take at least a week before they thaw and can be removed, Mr. Ellison added.

Mrs. Flora's son told the council he has been given a very limited power of attorney by his mother and there was very little that he could do. He said he is not allowed to enter his mother's house, and she forbids him and the contractor to touch anything.

Mr. Flora said the firm, which carries the insurance on the house, has placed $5,000 in escrow toward repair. At least that amount has been set aside because a full determination of the extent of damage has not yet been made because she refused to allow anyone into the house.

Even the repair contractor, who has measured and constructed windows to replace those damaged, has been denied entry into the building, the son said.

Fire Chief Phillip Costa said at the time of the fire, his men were unable to enter the house because of the huge amount of debris, almost to the height of the seven-foot ceilings.

Efforts to enter through doorways were unsuccessful, and the firemen were forced to chop several holes in the roof to fight the fire. The height of the debris caused several firefighters to bump their heads as they made their way to the blaze's source.

The chief said the house should be completely cleared and repairs made, otherwise, there is the possibility of another fire. It is a fire and health hazard, he added.

One neighbor said he had lived in Pemberton for the past seven years. In all that time, the citizen stated, he has never seen any work done around the house so that it would be an asset to the neighborhood.

Councilwoman Ann MacDonald said she sympathizes with anyone who had a fire, but the council must think of the people and the neighborhood, while noting something should be done.

Councilman Douglas Graham suggested that City Manager Robert A. Stone be empowered to enter the house and supervise the removal of all debris and unwanted junk so repairs can be started.

Mr. Stone said he refused to enter a private home without a resolution from the council, if this is legal or if it is not legal, then he must have a court order to do so. Otherwise, he emphasized, it is out of the question.

City Attorney Richard Rohr said the council has the authority to issue a resolution to that effect, if there is danger to the health, safety and welfare of the citizens. The council has the right to condemn any property under the city's ordinance under those conditions.

During exchanges between Mrs. Flora and residents, Mr. Graham, apparently angered by the tumult, uttered a mild oath and demanded to know what the council was elected to represent the people for.

During another accusation by a neighbor, Mrs. Flora called the neighbor a liar, shouting "It's a lie" several times, pounding on the bench for emphasis.

Mr. Patterson spoke in a soothing voice, telling the woman not to get excited, that the council was only trying to clear up the matter in the best interest of everyone concerned.

Mrs. Flora, apparently overcome by the stress, collapsed.

Mr. Stone directed that Chief Costa call his department and have a crew bring in oxygen, for fear the woman might suffer a heart attack. The firemen were summoned by the chief and after the oxygen was applied, she recovered. Mr. Patterson called for a 10-minute recess during this period.

The mayor then asked Mr. Flora if he would take his mother home and return for further discussion in the matter, and the son agreed.

After returning a half hour later, Mr. Flora, who had disagreed with his mother at intervals in the battle of words, told the council that his limited power of attorney was not adequate for him to act on his own.

He said he has taken out many boxes of valuables from the house and had placed them in storage at a considerable cost in rental fees. He also said he is forced to make a 66-mile round trip from his home in Rochester to his mother's house, but he cannot do this all the time because of his work.

However, Mr. Flora said, he will do all he can to try to help clear out the house, with the help of the city, if he is given enough time.

Mr. Graham apologized for his outburst stating, "I am sorry, I did not mean to lean on you the way I did."

Mr. Flora laughed and said, "I am sorry, too, because I came here to lean on you to make you do something about cleaning up this mess and get things started."

The council, on the advice of Mr. Rohr, said it would give Mr. Flora 30 days to clear out the house, and another 30 days to start repairs.

He was informed that after the first 30 days, if the house was not cleaned out, or if his mother interferes, a court order will be obtained to force the council's edict.

ULS Provides Career Boost

At University Liggett School, (ULS), 1045 Cook road, the library is more than a resource center for literature and audio-visual materials. Directed by Mrs. Marlene David, it also is a center for career information and experience.

Currently, there are three programs designed to aid upper school students in their exploration of various career possibilities.

Four times a year, students from grades nine through 12 make group excursions to Detroit where they visit businesses, hospitals and industries to gain helpful information about given occupations.

This program, called "Beyond The Classroom," allows students to get an inside look at jobs they find appealing.

A second program involves a "Day on The Job." Student initiative is the important factor in the success of this program.

Mrs. David keeps a current file on alumni representatives who are active in various professions. Students have access to the file and are responsible for making contact with the individuals with whom they would like to work. Arrangements to spend a day on the job are made between the student and "employer."

For senior students at ULS, decisions regarding college majors and professional goals are given added direction and guidance. In May, students undertake the "Senior Project," subject to approval by a faculty committee.

In addition to student designed projects, the school has established contacts with businesses and professionals who cooperate in the program. Students work in their chosen field for three and a half weeks without pay.

Early exposure to career situations gives the students valuable perspective for judgments on college choices, major concentration in college and eventual career decisions.

Exchange Students Enjoy Big Evening

Denmark, students at South and North High Schools respectively. Not pictured is ULS exchange student Jennifer Tebbs from Australia who was backstage preparing for the Foreign Student benefit performance of "Godspell." Students spent the day attending classes at University Liggett and then enjoyed an international dinner and dessert prior to the performance.

Planners Okay New Building

Preliminary plans for the construction of an office building at the northeast corner of Stanhope road and Harper avenue were approved by the Woods Planning Commission at its regular meeting Tuesday, February 28.

The motion by Commissioner Peter Gilezan also stipulated that the plans be approved subject to the site plan indicating the abutting streets, that a masonry wall near the parking area not exceed a height of three feet and that the type of colonial architecture be considered acceptable because of its location in Harper.

This proposal was before the commission at its regular meeting in January. At that time, action on the plans was tabled so that the members could further explore the documents and specifications. The commissioners also indicated that a few changes in the plans could be made to effect a more colonial type of appearance.

Woods planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers, who discussed the plans with project architect, Gustaf R. Daniell, AIA, said there were very few buildings of colonial design in Harper Woods. He felt the proposed structure would improve the particular neighborhood and be an attractive addition.

Building Inspector Earl Wakely said the one-story structure will be utilized for general business offices by George A. Davis.

Some folks cast reflections just to show how brilliant they are.

Elodie's 100! Happy Birthday

Elodie Cinjaere Wallyn will be 100-years old on Tuesday, March 14. A former Pointer, Elodie lived in what is now the Lakeshore-Vernier road area long before it was an intersection, or even a town.

She now resides at Saint Anne's Nursing Home, 6232 Cadieux road.

Elodie came to The Pointe from Belgium in 1903 when she was 25. Until she married in 1906, she served various Pointe families as a private tutor.

Upon her marriage to Phillip Wallyn, they moved to Detroit where Phillip worked for the gas company. Then in 1915 it was back to The Pointe, where Elodie, Phillip and their four daughters opened a grocery store in Mack avenue.

It was the first grocery store in the area and Elodie and her family lived in the upstairs apartment. She operated the store through the Depression when "times were very hard." Elodie remembers. So hard that she extended credit to some families for several years.

Just before World War II, after all the daughters married, Elodie and her husband moved to Algonac. They lived there on the lake until Phillip died in 1962 and Elodie went to live with one of her daughters.

In April 1977, due to failing health, Elodie went to live at Saint Anne's.

Elodie has 12 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren and as Joyce Cox, office manager at Saint Anne's says, "She is an inspiration and pleasure to those who now care for her."

Jaycees Happy over Big Night

Many months of planning were attributed for the success of the Grosse Pointe Jaycees "Monte Carlo Night" held last month at the War Memorial.

Over 400 patrons participated, sampling "casino life," and around $3,000 was raised to support such continuing Jaycee projects as Reyes Syndrome research and the Burn Center in Ann Arbor.

The combined effort of numerous members, including general chairman Michael Kastner, made the evening a success. Others providing help included "Ric" Ratan, Richard Sims, Dave Gruenwald, Bill O'Keefe, Jim Pattee, Gary Hollidge, Louis Zedan, Craig Hollidge and Don Martin.

Polly Pattee and Judi Zak handled the decorations, while Mike Proffitt and Jay-Teen Chapter members handled coat room responsibilities.

The Jaycees also expressed their appreciation to citizens who participated in the event, plus merchants for their donations of prizes and gift certificates.

Steady Crime Picture

(Continued from Page 1) of this kind of blind patrol anyway," he explained. "A smart crook is going to have people watching for patrol cars and is going to time you."

"Obviously the guys are doing their job. The crime rate is not going up and in the eight months I've been here, I haven't received a single complaint about the service our officers offer residents."

The reduction in miles patrolled is probably due to a cutback in the number of employes on the force, (it's down to 17 full-time officers), excessive out-of-service time on scout cars because of accidents and extraordinary amount of time off by the officers, according to Director Kennedy.

On the average, each policeman took 18 sick days off last year, adding up a total of 300 days. More than half of that was due to injuries suffered on the job, Director Kennedy said.

The City's detective bureau cleared about 26 percent of the known offenses through arrests. As usual, they nabbed more juveniles than adults.

Police arrested 132 persons under 18-years-old for crimes such as disorderly conduct, larceny, trespassing, shoplifting, breaking and entering and narcotic charges. Only nine were charged with vandalism.

The most common charge leveled against the 102 adults arrested in The City last year was shoplifting, followed by narcotics, forged prescriptions, disorderly conduct and larceny.

The addition of a meter maid to the force last year boosted parking meter violations substantially, from 6,600 in 1976 to 10,600 in 1977.

Accidents in The City also hit a five-year high in 1977, with 224 reported, damaging 428 cars. Fifty-six persons were injured; no one was killed.

Congestion

The objective is to have two lanes of traffic open by all the schools, not only from the overall safety standpoint, but also to expedite the free flow of traffic, he said.

"We're looking at loading and unloading zones on school property," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who felt it was the schools' responsibility to provide such areas.

"We hope they would adopt some kind of progressive program over the years at the elementary schools toward providing, (for example), a circular drive," he continued.

On the question of costs for such proposed work, Mr. Petersen felt such expenses should be borne by the schools because "it's their responsibility to provide this as we see it, not the city's responsibility."

Will Cooperate

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats said he will have to examine the city's communication to see specifically what officials have in mind but stated his first reaction is that "their concern appears to have merit."

Stressing the element of cooperation, Dr. Coats added school officials will do what they can to improve the situation as expressed by the city.

In his memo, Officer Crook said all the schools appeared to have the necessary land to install some type of parking area at the front.

As a suggestion, he cited Mason School, where parents stop their cars in the curb lane, (right hand lane), to pick up and discharge their children, and the possibility of having a curb cut or parking bay constructed.

"The curb cut out would remove the vehicle and passengers from the right lane, therefore opening another lane of traffic and eliminating a possible 35 mph rear end traffic accident," he added.

Schools Join For Concerts

The voices and instruments of hundreds of Pointe student musicians will join at two Choirs in Review concerts at North and South High Schools next week, demonstrating the theme "Music Is Basic."

Each concert will feature 650 elementary, middle and high school musicians at South High on Tuesday, March 14, and North High on Thursday, March 16. The performances begin at 8 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Defer, Kerby, Maire, Richard, Tromby, Brownell, Parcels, Pierce and South musicians will perform a variety of works including "Days of Glory," "Scarborough Fair" and "Singing on The Mountain." Massed chorus, middle school choirs, the South High Concert Choir and South Wind Ensemble will be featured.

The North concert will follow a similar format and will include "Variations on a Korean Folk Song," performed by the North Symphony Band. Principal G. Bruce Feigner will conduct the massed chorus and symphony band in the "Battle Hymn of The Republic" to conclude the concert.

Represented at North will be Barnes, Ferry, Mason, Monteith, Poupard, Brownell, Parcels and Pierce.

Bon Secours Has New Head

Sister Regina M. Clifton, CBS, has been appointed president of the board of trustees of Bon Secours Hospital, replacing Sister Justine Cyr, CBS, who will be moving to Rome.

Sister Regina holds Masters degrees in theology and health care administration. She previously served as director of nursing services at Bon Secours Hospital in Methuen, Mass., and assistant professor at the Theological College of Catholic University.

Sister Cyr is moving to serve as assistant superior general of the Sisters of Bon Secours.

Cindy Kolke...marketing manager...head of a department of nine salesmen...college graduate (the hard way, through 9 years of night school)... a very decisive young lady who knows how to watch for the right opportunity and take advantage of it.

So when Cindy decided to buy a new car, she started by shopping carefully. Not just for the car...but also for the money to buy it. That was the beginning of another smart move... for Cindy and us. Because, just about the time Cindy was starting her shopping, we were starting our New Car Money Sale.

We're Cindy's bank. Manufacturers Bank. And (like the other banks of Manufacturers National Corporation listed below) we just made a substantial reduction in the interest rates on our auto loans. For example, with the required 20% down payment the interest on a 36 month loan has been reduced from 11.96% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE to 9.76% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. For Cindy, this meant a savings of over $100. An opportunity that was too good to pass up. So she borrowed her new car money from us. And that's the whole idea. We figure if we make life better for young people like Cindy now...they'll make life better for us later on. Maybe our New Car Money Sale can do the same thing for you. Check the chart on the left to see how much you can save. Then ask us, or your dealer for the money to buy your new car. But hurry. Sale ends March 31st.

Woods Planners View Need of Architect's Seal

By Roger A. Waha
 The subject of an architect's seal on remodeling plans, based upon some thoughts from Building Inspector Earl Wakely, was discussed by the Woods Planning Commission at its regular meeting Tuesday, February 28.

Mr. Wakely, who brought this subject before the commission late last year at which time it wasn't discussed, said that several commissioners apparently felt that an architect's seal is necessary on all plans submitted for their consideration.

He questioned this necessity on plans of remodeling building fronts where there's no structural change.

"It is my opinion that a qualified designer of buildings, who may not be an architect, is still capable of designing a building change

Woods Okays Hoist Repair

The Woods Council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, February 27, unanimously accepted the quotation of the Dows Equipment Service, Inc., of Detroit to repair a hoist in the DPW garage.

Leonard Ocelnik, director of public works, said the hoist had a very bad air leak in the rear piston and urged that it be repaired as soon as possible. In fact, he noted that a jeep fell off the mechanism due to the leak.

Mr. Ocelnik also inquired about the Weaver hoist and was informed it was one of the best on the market so he felt it was worth repairing.

The quotation was in the amount of $1,357.94.

'Eyes, Ears' Plan to Start

The Woods Department of Public Safety's "eyes and ears" plan took another step forward with the delivery of around 250 pads and pencils which will soon be given to safety patrol children and crossing guards toward reporting any suspicious activity.

This project became a reality thanks to the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, which donated around $260 to put the pads, with the Kiwanis logo, into the hands of the young people.

Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook hopes to have the "equipment" distributed by the end of the month.

But before this occurs, he will personally meet and instruct safety patrol sponsors at Barnes, Mason, Monteith, Ferry and Our Lady Star of the Sea Schools on specific guidelines to be followed, i.e., several "do's" and "don'ts."

For example, one action the youngsters should take is to obtain a good description of any suspect and/or vehicle, (including the license number), but never go near any suspicious individual or "play policeman."

Officer Crook added it will be up to the sponsors to instill all the "do's" and "don'ts" into the minds of the children, who now will become involved in a further incentive program while manning their corners.

GP's Highway Fund Share Up

The State Highway Commission recently disclosed that gasoline sales in Michigan edged up 2.7 percent in the last quarter of 1977 in comparison with the same three months a year earlier. The Pointes' share for the last quarter of 1977 amounted to a total of $214,044, whereas the amount received during the same period in 1976 was $203,901, the distribution report showed.

This small increase, less than half the 6.1 percent growth between the same quarters of 1975 and 1976, probably reflects increased registrations of lighter weight automobiles and improved engine performances. The number of motor vehicles registered in the state rose by about 270,000 to a record-6.14 million from mid-1976 to mid-1977.

Revenues from the nine-cent-a-gallon gas tax totaled $103,171,559 in the October-December quarter last year, an increase of $2,679,323 for the comparable period of 1976.

In the same period, the seven-cent-a-gallon diesel fuel tax produced $6,106,982, up by $506,036, or 9 percent, accounting for an overall 3 percent increase in motor fuel tax revenue.

Weight taxes from the sale of license plates to resident motorists totaled $28,282,586, an increase of $2,128,913, or 8.1 percent. A great number of these sales take place between January 1 and March 31, the deadline for license plate renewals.

Fuel and weight taxes, plus interest earned and miscellaneous revenues, produced $142,516,379 for Michigan's Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, up $5,599,773, or 4.1 percent.

Proceeds are being distributed to the state, counties and the municipalities after deductions of $13,549,476 for various grants and collection costs.

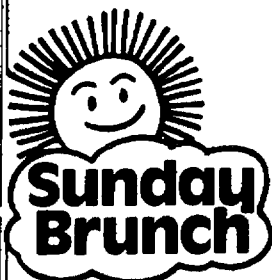

The following were reported as the shares given to the five Pointes: The Woods, $77,279 as compared to $72,950 received during the same period in 1976; Park, $54,863 compared to $52,461 in 1976; Farms, $44,720 compared to $42,978 two years ago; City, $24,758 compared to $23,689 in 1976; and Shores, $12,384, as compared to $11,843 in 1976.

Other 1977 last quarter distributions include $1,280,096 to the State Highway Fund, $5,621,963 to the General Transportation Fund for bus and railway programs and $6,397,843 for collection cost.

Of the $128,966,902 being distributed, The Department of State Highways and Transportation received $57,249,921 as its share for the state highway system. The 83 county road commissions will collect $46,217,967 as their portion and the 531 municipalities, $25,289,013.

Wayne County's 1977 last quarter share will amount to $6,834,490. This compares to $6,661,715 received the previous year for the same period.

CYO Seeks Counselors

The Catholic Youth Organization, (CYO), is looking for young men and women to serve as counselors at its boys camp and at its girls camp on the shores of Lake Huron this summer.

Boys must be 18 years of age and out of high school to serve as counselors. Girls must be 19. Both must be high school graduates.

Girls who are at least 17-years-old and high school graduates may apply for positions or counselors in training. Boys are eligible to apply when they are 17 and high school seniors.

The CYO also is interested in interviewing teachers and college students, especially those who are skilled in crafts, nature study, swimming and group leadership, for positions as specialists.

The organization is seeking to develop a staff that is widely representative of various ethnic, cultural and minority groupings in the metropolitan community consistent with the policy of the agency and the archdiocese with relation to affirmative action.

Counselors will receive free room and board. Pay will vary in accordance with position and experience.

Application forms and complete information may be obtained now at the CYO office, 305 Michigan avenue, Detroit 48226, phone 963-7172.

The CYO camps will be open for four two-week periods, from June 24 through August 19.

Christ Church To Host Choir

Thirty girls from Saint Paul's Church in Akron, O., will join 30 girls from Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, on Sunday, March 12, to sing at the 11:15 a.m. service.

The combined choirs will perform "Litanies a la Vierge Noire" by French composer Francis Poulenc. This unusual work was inspired when Poulenc visited a north-western city in France, Roc Amadour, and first saw the spectacular ebony sculpture of the Holy Virgin.

The musical composition is indeed one of the finest choral works set for women's voices, the church reports.

The festival choir also will sing a service of Evensong on March 12 at 4 p.m. At this service, the "Stabat Mater" by Pergolesi will be performed with a consort of violins, viola and cello, a harpsichord and soloists.

The community is invited to hear the festival chorus at these two services.

The girls choir from Akron is directed by Robert Quade, a leader in Anglican Church Music. The combined choirs of the RSCM Festival will be conducted by Frederic DeHaven, choirmaster and organist at Christ Church.

FINALIST ANNOUNCED
Three Notre Dame High School students have advanced to finalist standing in the 1978 National Merit Scholarship Competition. They are John Sullivan of The Woods, William Nocita of Harper Woods and Mark Sheehan of Detroit.

Careers Eyed At NH Confab

Professionals in a variety of fields spoke with students in an all-day conference on "Business Encounters of Every Kind" at North High School last month.

The 17 professionals who donated their time for the career conference fielded questions about training, pay, responsibilities and benefits from more than 1,200 students during the day.

Among the participants were attorneys, retail executives, real estate agents, accountants, stockbrokers, bankers and owners of small businesses.

During the afternoon session, Dr. Janice Hoffer, dean of students at Adrian College, talked to juniors and seniors about "Surviving As a College Freshman" and "Tips on Taking Tests." The conference was sponsored by North's business education department and coordinated by career education counselor Bonnie Garr.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Channel 4 TV is coming to our office to interview me this evening and by the time you read this column you will have seen the interview if you watch channel 4 News. They are coming to ask my feeling on the recent survey the Park ran regarding Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s Cul-de-Sac Program.

Our view, as we stated in an earlier column, is that the survey is incomplete and inconclusive. It is impossible for people to vote on something that they simply don't understand. Our brochure describes the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. Cul-de-Sac idea in detail. It even produces a map showing where each Cul-de-Sac would be placed. We agreed to wait for the Park survey before we did anymore survey work because we had hoped the Park mailer would be faster. We already knew that the majority of the Pointers want the program but we felt we needed a 100% survey to be conclusive. We understand that of the few questionnaires returned in the Park survey, that the majority of the people did not favor the proposal. This is not what our survey shows and we will, in time, produce results that show dramatically that, in fact, Grosse Pointe almost demands our Cul-de-Sac Program.

It's interesting how such misconception can be drawn from such a novel, creative idea that enhances our property value, makes it more beautiful as well as safe from speeding traffic. Who wouldn't want this? And we have a way it can be done—lots of ways—without taxes.

Class Offered On Masculinity

The Wayne County Community College community services department is offering a class for men on "The Masculine Image." The class will be held at North High school, 707 Vernier road, and will meet every Monday, March 13 through April 17, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Tuition for the class is $24.

Instructors Sharon Hall and Joanne Roth are members of the Transactional Analysis Ass'n.

The class is designed to help men examine the myths, burdens and privileges of masculinity. Through discussion and experimental exercises the course will create an atmosphere of cooperation where men can come together to question, risk and sense themselves. Further information may be obtained by calling 832-4750.

Reassessments in GPF Discussed at Meeting

By Wendy K. Settle
In the interest of the property reassessment that is presently being conducted in The Farms, Carrol Lock, city comptroller, held an informal public meeting on Saturday afternoon, March 4, in the council chambers.

The purpose of the meeting was to explain and discuss the reasons and process of the reassessment. "I tried to explain our reassessment process and the impact it will have on the residents," Mr. Lock said.

The "impact" amounts to an average jump of 8.8 percent in Farms property values which will bring the total assessed values, (50 percent of the property value), up to $138 million for the community.

The meeting was attended by approximately 35 residents and lasted roughly one and a half hours. For the first 45 minutes, Mr. Lock explained the legal responsibilities of an assessor and the assessment process. For the remainder of the meeting, Mr. Lock fielded questions from the audience.

"There are legal requirements that every assessor must follow," Mr. Lock said, "and those standards are set by the state, not us," (the city).

"Basically," he added, "those requirements are, one, that the assessor be certified, and two, that the assessor must find the true cash value of the property. To do this, we use the State Assessor's Manual and follow the principles set in that book. Thirdly, the assessment must be fair, and fourthly, the assessment must be 50 percent of the true cash value."

To find the true cash value, Mr. Lock noted, he looks at the sales of other homes comparable to the property which he's assessing. He noted that there are other variables involved when sale figures are not available.

The assessment process is part of the taxing process, Mr. Lock added, "to figure out basically who pays what."

At the time of the meeting the notices informing the residents of their assessment were not yet in the mail. Mr. Lock said the county is preparing the letters and they should be in the mail by the end of this week.

Mr. Lock also noted that he expects to get a lot of feedback from residents after they receive their notices.

"I'm sure I'll be hearing from a lot of people next week and I'll be glad to talk to anyone about their assessment," he concluded.

Urban League Holds Election

Several Pointers were among the new officers and board members recently elected to lead the Detroit Urban League during 1978.

At the top of the list is Philip J. Meathe, president of Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Associates, who will serve a one-year term as president of the league.

New vice-presidents include Pointers Mrs. Mary Gilmore and Thomas H. Mercier. Andrew G. Creamer will serve as treasurer for the year and Frank M. Hennessey as a member of the board of directors. Both are Pointe residents.

Mr. Meathe has been a member of the league's board of directors since 1974. He has served as president of the Detroit Chapter of Architects, and as a director of the Michigan Society of Architects and the American Institute Architects.

He was a member of the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee for The Farms from 1973 to 1976.

SKATES FOR HAMPTON

Jeff Marshall, the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Hudson of Edgewood road, is playing hockey for the New Hampton School. Jeff's scoring in New Hampton's recent game against Boston University JV's helped the Huskies defeat the JV's, 8-0.

Channel 56 Cites Ahee

The Channel 56 Auction Ten Year Club honored Edmund T. Ahee of Ahee Jewelers, 20139 Mack avenue, on Friday, March 3, for his decade-long support of the annual public television fund raiser.

A team of go-getters, (volunteers who canvass merchants for donations of auction goods), from the same business community will present an oversized commemorative Ten Year Club button to the business donor. Channel 56 hopes to alert merchants of the opportunity of donating merchandise to the Auction.

The Ten Year Club is made up of area merchants, volunteers, celebrities and staff who have been associated with the auction since its start in 1969.

Go-getters are now combing the metropolitan Detroit area in search of donations for the auction. From now until it begins, April 7-15, these go-getters will be bringing in over 7,000 items that will be sold to an auction week audience of over one million viewers.

Merchants should be aware that merchandise valued at $50 or more is still needed. Donations are tax deductible and go to help keep programs like "Dick Cavett," "Sesame Street" and "Monty Python" on the air.

Broken resolutions don't count—it's the ones you keep that show up on the record.

GP City Council Rejects Request for New Home

By Susan McDonald

A young Park couple's bid to build a home on an under-sized lot at the corner of Washington road and Maumee avenue was rejected by the City Council Monday, February 27, after neighbors petitioned against the development.

The council was sitting as the Zoning Board of Appeals to hear the request of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Harcourt road for variances to allow them to build a home on the 100-by-109-foot lot. Zoning laws call for minimum lots of 12,000 square feet, (100 by 120 feet), in that area.

The dispute between citizens and builder began last September and dragged on for several months while the council sought legal opinions and interpretations of zoning laws.

In October, the citizens presented the council with petitions signed by 32 residents, most of them from Washington road, against the building. They argued the proposed house and sub-standard lot would destroy the open, spacious appearance of the neighborhood, which contains some of the City's larger homes.

"If you allow this exception to the zoning law, how many other partial lots are you going to let people build on?" asked Robert Wallace of Washington road.

"That is the key to this issue. We can't keep granting exceptions to zoning laws. There's been too much of that already and it detracts from the neighborhoods. We have a nice town, let's not ruin it," Mr. Wallace said.

Mr. Wallace was pleased with the council's decision Monday night, saying he believes the ruling "will help the city in other neighborhoods, too."

The dispute is typical of several which have cropped up recently in council chambers as the amount of open land in the City has dwindled.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach estimates that his community now is about 99.9 percent developed, with most of the remaining empty parcels odd-shaped or sized, seldom complying with the City's stringent zoning requirements.

"Most of the future developments in the city will probably end up before the Zoning Board for that reason," Mr. Kressbach said. "We'll just have to review each one as they come."

The Smiths said they will probably seek an outside legal opinion on the City's ruling but added they will begin looking for another lot to build on—probably outside the City.

The lot in question is adjacent to one owned by Richard Grow at 375 Washington road.

Alfred Warren To Give Talk

The latest among a group of Grosse Pointe business and professional leaders to speak in the series "What Would You Do?" is General Motors executive Alfred S. Warren Jr. of Stratford place.

General director of personnel for Fisher Body Division and late chairman of Detroit Industrial Mission, Mr. Warren will talk on "Upward Mobility of Minorities and Women" Sunday, March 12, in the Barbour Chapel of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, at 10:30 a.m.

The hard questions of the market place, with their social, political and environmental overtones, are the focus of this series of six talks in which actual situations are considered from the standpoint of Christian ethics. Group discussion follows.

Family life and Bible study classes also meet at 10:30 a.m. Final portions of a CBS-TV special on human psychological development will be shown in the church lounge, with an audience exchange led by Dr. and Mrs. William Leith of Westchester road.

In Room 204, attorney Charles Wright III of LaSalle place will present an analysis of the character of Nicodemus, the Pharisee converted by Jesus, on whom interest has been focussed in recent years by the "born again" movement.

Exterior Design Control Viewed by Planners zoning ordinance study.

No immediate recommendation from the commission to the council in this area is scheduled to transpire until the commissioners' further evaluation.

(In relation to the zoning ordinance revision, Mr. Rogers said he would present an overview of this topic, along with a multiple dwelling study, for the commission's consideration at its meeting this month. He also hoped to tie in the other reports which the group is currently studying.)

"Any new construction, expansion, renovation involving exterior appearance, or parking lot redesign, should be reviewed by the city for appropriateness with the overall city theme, the neighborhood, (commercial and residential), and adjacent land uses," he continued.

A problem in this respect is that beauty is in the eyes of the beholder, and even Colonial architecture and related site design can have legitimate variations, he noted.

But to avoid a particular bias an architectural board of review or committee "consisting of both professional and lay persons can help develop a good design if the architect involved in the project has accepted the city's theme concept," said Mr. Rogers.

He recommended that the zoning ordinance be amended, (as part of the overall ordinance review), to require adherence to a Colonial architectural theme, and comprehensive site plan review, and that a resolution be adopted by the council providing for special fees to allow proper study and workshops with architects and developers.

where a developer would pay a certain amount for a permit, site plan review, et al. could be used to offset costs for professional personnel.

He stipulated, however, that the commission would not divorce itself from site plan review.

Positive Factor

Mr. Gilezan felt such an architectural board of review could make a recommendation to the commission, which, in turn, could make a recommendation to the council sitting as the board of appeals when necessary.

He said, while the commission still maintained its responsibilities and necessary control, such a board of review would be a resource to be utilized at the group's discretion, hence, it would have an advisory role.

Further viewing advantages of having such a review board, Mr. Rogers said a developer coming to the city might think the commission or the planning consultant is not worthy of criticizing his plans but, with such a committee, a higher level of professionalism would ensue in relation to site plan review.

For his part, City Attorney George Catlin felt, since the city is taking a hard look at updating its zoning ordinance, such a board of review, (in focusing upon exterior design), would be a positive factor if, in fact, the city faces any ensuing litigation.

Mr. Catlin also noted a new trend in state court decisions has upheld this type of zoning based upon aesthetics to some degree. In considering the makeup of a board of review, he felt the city stood a good chance to be successful if it was involved in any litigation.

ity, the commissioners unanimously approved a motion by Mr. Gilezan indicating that the city at least consider adopting some form of code for both the business and residential sectors of the community before exploring specifics.

In relation to the latter point, Commissioner Paul Rothenburg suggested, because of the scope of Mr. Rogers' material in writing along with a proposed property maintenance code law drafted in 1975, that a subcommittee be formed to pull together this wealth of material.

The group would then make recommendations to the commission at its meeting this month.

As it turned out, two other subcommittees also were formed to review recommendations from Mr. Rogers and report back to the group.

Forming the subcommittee reviewing the property maintenance code are Mr. Rothenburg, Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Rinaldi.

Meanwhile, Mr. Gilezan and Commissioners Robert Sabo and Charles Van Hove have been charged with reviewing recommendations on political and portable signs, plus roof signs in non-residential districts.

Woods Backing Bill in House

The Woods Council at a recent regular meeting supported House Bill 5718 via a unanimously passed resolution. The bill, if adopted, would correct the inequality of treatment that presently exists concerning the cost of lodging city prisoners, states the measure.

It says that state statutes presently provide that the counties bear the cost for the lodging of prisoners when they are convicted of city ordinance violations in a district court of the first or second class.

The resolution also notes that prisoners convicted of city ordinance violations in municipal courts or district courts of other than the first or second class are a charge upon the city for their lodging in a county jail.

As a result, the council felt the "inequality of treatment" should be corrected.

Colonial Pioneer

At the commission's request last March, Mr. Rogers gave special consideration to exterior design regulation of the city's business and office buildings, accessory structures and overall site layout.

In a letter to the group, he indicated The Woods has been the pioneer in Michigan, in his opinion, of encouraging a Colonial, (Williamsburg, Georgian), architectural theme in commercial building design.

"This architectural control, exercised through city code requirements as well as through cooperation by architects and contractors, is only recently being accepted elsewhere in other municipalities," noted Mr. Rogers.

While saying architectural and design regulation, relying upon reasonable design standards, and materials alternatives, is increasingly becoming a legitimate power under zoning, Mr. Rogers felt that beauty, design and an architectural theme in a community can be a strong secondary purpose, if not a primary purpose, of zoning.

Stating it is impossible to itemize each and every design standard to guide new commercial development, he said an architectural theme can be established with such a theme continuity being reasonable "since the majority of commercial buildings now existing along Mack avenue are of a particular design, (Colonial), and their investment and character should be enhanced and preserved."

Questions Advantages

Mr. Rogers added each action by the city to approve a project sets a precedent, while urging that a closer examination of exterior appearance of new projects, (including expansions), be taken "to preserve the high quality, attractive community which is uniquely Grosse Pointe Woods."

During discussion of this recommendation, Mr. Rogers told the commissioners that an architectural board of review could take a variety of forms, e.g., it could include strong representation from the commission, a member of the council, the building inspector and one or two registered state architects.

Commissioner chairman George Rinaldi questioned the role of the commission with such a board and what advantages it would offer officials.

Mr. Rogers said, for example, the commission might not have an adequate representation of architects on its body, with professional architects being contacted to offer their time in the interest of a better city.

On the cost question, special fees via an ordinance,

Take Some Pictures

But a question in the mind of Commissioner Philip Patanis was how "Colonial" is to be defined. "Talking Colonial depends on who you talk to," he said, while feeling visual examples should be available to show prospective builders.

Mr. Kennedy agreed. As for a specific design theme, a written policy or ordinance should stipulate such a Colonial theme toward providing precise standards for the city, he felt, while adding he didn't want to have officials get "stampeded" by architects' opinions on the meaning of Colonial.

The planning consultant suggested that the commissioners take a series of photographs of buildings representing Colonial architecture in the city and then decide which examples represent good or bad representations.

The pictures could be placed in a scrapbook and shown to prospective builders.

At the least, even if the commission in total didn't want an architectural board of review, Mr. Rogers emphasized the zoning ordinance should be amended to incorporate a definition of Colonial architecture and to stipulate site plan review and a fee schedule.

Segregated Sessions

Finally, Mr. Patanis and Commissioners Raymond Lynch and George Couillard will focus upon recommendations on commercial vehicles and their storage, plus the outside parking of motor vehicles at gasoline service stations.

Further discussion on the preliminary land use plan was tabled.

All three subcommittees were scheduled to meet on Wednesday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. in different locations in city hall to be in compliance with the "Open Meetings Law."

The commissioners expressed some concern over the subcommittees meeting the same night but were reassured by Mr. Catlin this was permissible providing two or more of the groups did not get together, thus forming a quorum, to discuss policy.

(An opinion from Attorney General Frank Kelley said the law did not apply to committees and subcommittees of public bodies which are merely advisory or incapable of making recommendations concerning the exercise of governmental authority, because such bodies are not legally capable of rendering a final decision.)

The particular pains taken to be in compliance with the law under these circumstances, it should be noted, were not without a touch of humor considering the necessary "isolation" of each subcommittee.

Board Would Help

At the same time, Mr. Rogers said a firm site plan review policy of an entire building site, all exposed building elevations, walls, landscaping, lighting standards, signs, roof appurtenances, et al., is vital.

ULS Wins District Crown With Quick 'Renaissance'

The hours of hard work, determination and tremendous team spirit finally paid off for the University Liggett School, (ULS), Knights basketball team when on Saturday, March 4, they captured the Class D District Championship at Royal Oak Kimball gym by defeating Royal Oak Saint Mary, 59-52.

Earlier this year coach Joe Haklin called this season, "the year of the roundball renaissance for ULS." After winning the championship Mr. Haklin added, "The renaissance is over. ULS is now back to respectability in basketball."

The championship win brings ULS back from its disastrous 0-20 record last year.

The Knights started their quest towards the championships on Monday, February 27, by defeating Marine City Holy Cross, 77-58. Playing excellent defense, ULS forced a number of turnovers and led at the half 39-32.

In the third quarter the Knights put the game out of reach as they outscored Holy Cross, 22-10.

Leading the scoring attack was Jim Catchings with 29 points.

The Knights paired against Immaculate Conception on Wednesday, March 1, in the semi-final game. Again a pressure defense and strong second half shooting enabled the Knights to win, 66-46. ULS leading scorers were Jack Roberts with 18 points and Catchings with 16.

The Saint Mary game was the icing on the cake for ULS. Carl Popkey pumped in 17 pointings, Catchings added 15 to bring his tournament average to 20 points per game, and the Knights held off a second half surge by Royal Oak to win their first District Championship since 1974.

ULS traveled to Livonia on Wednesday, March 8, (after press time), to meet DePorres in the regional playoffs.

South Hosts District Play

South High School hosted one of Michigan's district basketball tournaments from Monday, February 27, through Friday, March 3.

In the first game, South lost to Murray-Wright, 63-59, followed by the defeat of Notre Dame at the hands of Southeastern High, 47-25.

During the second night of play, Wednesday, March 1, Murray-Wright beat North High School, 64-62, in overtime.

The district championship game was played on Friday, March 3, between Southeastern High and Murray-Wright. In overtime, Southeastern won, 54-52, and will now advance to the regional tournament at East Detroit High School.

Wallace Bruce reports the Blue Devils finished their regular season play last week with two league victories over L'Anse Creuse North, (LCN), and Roseville.

South easily defeated LCN's Crusaders, 75-67, despite a poor second half performance. High scorers from South were Tom Geist, 24 points, Norm VanSile, 14, and Jim Parsons, 12.

There were no flaws in the Devils' play on Friday, February 24, when they beat Roseville 55-54 in one of this season's more exciting games. Geist was again high scorer with 18 points, while Parsons added 14 points and 12 rebounds.

Preceding the Roseville game recognition was given to the senior members of the basketball team. Their fine play has enabled South to achieve its best record in a decade, 15-5.

To Parsons, Geist, VanSile, John Hartman and Gordon Erley—our thanks and congratulations, said Mr. Bruce.

PROPOSED ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND TITLE II OF THE CITY CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS OF 1975 BY ADDING THERETO A CHAPTER 13 ENTITLED "SNOW AND ICE REMOVAL AND CONTROL."

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

Section 1. That there shall be added to Title II of the City Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1975 a Chapter 13 entitled "Snow and Ice Removal and Control" containing the following Sections:

2-13-1 DEFINITIONS: As used in this Chapter, the following terms shall have the prescribed meanings: "City" shall mean the City of Grosse Pointe Woods; "Commercial District" shall mean that area or the "City Zoning" Commercial Business District under the zoning map of the city and shall include any district zoned Restricted Office, should such zoning district be added to the zoning classifications of the City.

OCCUPANT OF THE PREMISES shall mean the individual, partnership or corporation that uses or occupies space within a building. In the event that any building is unoccupied, this term shall be construed to include the owner of the premises as recorded in the records of the Wayne County Register of Deeds. In the case of a partnership or corporation, the individual partners and the officers of the corporation shall be deemed the responsible parties under the provisions of this Chapter.

2-13-2 ACCUMULATIONS OF SNOW AND ICE PROHIBITED: It shall be unlawful for the Occupant of the Premises of any building located in the Commercial Districts of the City to permit or allow any accumulation of snow or ice to remain on any sidewalk located on the premises of such building for a period exceeding seventy-two (72) hours.

2-13-3 WALKWAY REQUIRED BETWEEN BUILDING AND CURB: The Occupants of the Premises of any building in the Commercial District, which building has a doorway opening onto a sidewalk accessible to pedestrians, shall maintain a path or walkway of a minimum width of two and one-half (2½) feet free of accumulations of snow and ice between the sidewalk and the street curb in front of such building, whether or not a concrete or asphalt walk extends to the curb. This Section shall not apply to gasoline service stations.

2-13-4 PLACING SNOW ACCUMULATIONS IN STREET PROHIBITED: No person, partnership or corporation shall push, plow, shovel or blow snow into any paved portion of a street right of way so as to leave deposits of snow thereon.

2-13-5 CREATING TRAFFIC HAZARDS PROHIBITED: No person, partnership or corporation shall pile snow in any street right of way in a manner so as to create mounds or piles of snow that interfere with the observations of the drivers of motor vehicles of other traffic using the streets.

2-13-6 SNOW DISPOSAL: Accumulations of snow, which have been made into mounds or piles in a street right of way as a result of clearing out parking lots, gasoline service stations driveways and similar areas, shall be removed from the areas wherein they were placed during clearing operations and shall be disposed of by removal or dumping at a location not within a street right of way and not within parking lots or parking areas designated for off-street parking in the business districts of the City. Such removal operations shall be commenced within seven (7) days and completed within fourteen (14) days of the date of the deposit of such snow and shall be accomplished by the person, partnership or corporation having caused such snow to be placed upon the street right of way and shall be accomplished at such person's partnership's or corporation's expense.

2-13-7 SNOW ACCUMULATION IN PRIVATE PARKING AREAS PROHIBITED: No person, partnership or corporation that is an Occupant of the Premises of any building in a Commercial district shall permit, allow or maintain mounds or piles of snow, which resulted from snow clearing operations, to remain upon parking lots of parking areas set aside for off-street parking of motor vehicles for such building in a manner as to diminish the area available for the parking of motor vehicles in such lots or areas. Mounds or piles of snow resulting from snow removal operations in such areas shall be removed and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Section 2-13-6 of this Chapter.

2-13-8 DEPOSIT OF SNOW IN RIGHT OF WAY IN RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS: No person, partnership or corporation shall deposit snow by pushing, plowing, shoveling or blowing same onto a street right of way not immediately adjacent to and part of the residential property from where the snow is being removed.

2-13-9 RESIDENTIAL WALKS: The owner or tenant in possession of residential property shall not permit snow or ice to accumulate on the sidewalk areas located in front of and parallel to the property frontage so owned or occupied, and in the case of corner lots, on the sidewalk areas parallel to the side of such lot line. Snow and ice shall be removed with seventy-two (72) hours of the cessation of the snow fall and such walks shall be kept clear of drifting or blowing snow so as to be reasonably safe for pedestrian travel.

Section 2. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Ordinance shall become effective twenty (20) days after the date of its enactment.

DSYO to End Season May 7

The Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra, (DSYO), closes its 1977-78 season with a concert Sunday evening, May 7, at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium. The concert, previously announced for March 5, was postponed to the May date because of scheduling conflicts arising from the January blizzard.

It will feature double-bass soloist Stephen Molina, a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and will mark the farewell appearance of Philip Greenberg as conductor of the DSYO.

Mr. Greenberg, who has led the DSYO since 1975, has announced his departure from the DSO conducting staff at the end of this season. He will concentrate on his work as music director of the West Shore Symphony and on guest conducting engagements.

The program will include four works: the overture to Berlioz' opera "Benvenuto Cellini," three sections from Berlioz' "The Damnation of Faust," (Dance of the Sylphs, Minuet of the Will-o-the-Wispis and Hungaria's March), Max Bruch's "Kol nidrei" for double-bass and orchestra and Rimsky-Korsakov's "Capriccio espagnol."

General admission is $2. All concert proceeds go to the DSYO scholarship fund.

Tickets are available from the Ford Auditorium box office or from DSYO members.

GP Woods Approves New Resolution on C License

By Roger A. Waha A new resolution indicating the Woods Council's preference of Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, Inc., 20422 Mack avenue, as the recipient of one additional Class C liquor license in the community had to be sent to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, (LCC). The council acted on this matter at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, February 27, after a communication was received from Roger J. Rosendale, director of the LCC's licensing and enforcement division. Mr. Rosendale said the resolution approved by the council at its special meeting of January 23, when five applicants for the license stated their cases, wasn't acceptable because the corporate name as given was incorrect. (The measure listed the business as Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation Center, Inc., whereas the "Center" should have been left out.) Mr. Rosendale also said the resolution didn't state "above all others" and that the type of license requested wasn't clarified. (The measure indicated GPW Recreation was the most preferred applicant for a Class C or Tavern license.) With his letter, Mr. Rosendale included a partially completed resolution form, while adding, upon receipt of the measure, further action will be taken by his office. Councilman Thomas Fahrner questioned why the resolution wasn't filled out properly in the beginning and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the LCC didn't provide a copy of its resolution form at the time. City Attorney George Catlin said the official name of the organization was incorrect, while taking exception to the fact that the type of license wasn't clarified properly. (The form provided by the LCC said "a new full year Class C license"). Mr. Catlin also felt the terminology used, "most preferred applicant" as against "above all others," indicated some "nitpicking" on the commission's part. Despite some obvious disgruntlement on the part of some officials, the council approved the "new form" of resolution by a 5-1 vote. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos was excused from the meeting as he was out of town at that time. Councilman John Sabol voted "no" in keeping with his previous vote the night of the January meeting for the same reasons, e.g., he didn't feel an additional license was necessary because the city already has three, the possible necessity for greater police coverage at such establishments, plus the chances of attracting "undesirable elements" to the community from other areas. Mr. Sabol also indicated his negative vote wasn't against Jack Degriek, owner of the bowling establishment.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

A sampling of articles on education in the current press serves to give everyone a useful peek at issues which may well have an impact on our public school system and on our community in the future, while others may be no more than provocative, interesting reading.

Attempt to Reduce Our Categorical Aid On March 5 the continuing "Detroit Free Press" editorial page series, "Report Card on the Schools," highlighted recent proposals to reduce our State Aid. As most residents of our school district know, we receive no general State Aid, only funds earmarked for specific purposes. The proposed reduction in Categorical Aid by the State of Michigan to our school system, (and other so-called out-of-formula districts), which are financed largely by the local property tax, was outlined initially by Gov. William Milliken in his State of the State message.

The Milliken recommendation that would affect out-of-formula districts would require that revenue growth per pupil in excess of 110 percent of the prior year level be offset by a corresponding reduction in state categorical aid for which such districts would otherwise be eligible. Categorical funds not utilized as a result of this proposal would be available to other eligible districts. More recently State Senator Kerry Kammer, whose original proposal would give us 95 percent of our entitlement, has come up with a new proposal which would give us just 70 percent.

Let me point out that we receive categorical aid for programs of various kinds, (special education, vocational education, etc.), which the State of Michigan mandates that we offer under guidelines and regulations set up by the state. These moves, coming as they do during the preliminary stages of budget planning for the 1978-79 year, are disconcerting, to say the least.

Regional Bargaining An article in the "Detroit News" of February 25 by the paper's education writer confirms reports that the 90,000-member Michigan Education Ass'n. (MEA), (composed now of 540 bargaining units), will be meshed into some 50 locals. This is part of the push of the MEA, (whose local affiliate is the Grosse Pointe Education Ass'n., (GPEA), toward bargaining regional contracts with school boards.

Besides the emphasis on regional bargaining, the MEA is expected to seek other bargaining goals such as binding arbitration for all grievances and minimum increases matching annual cost of living increases. Readers of this column will recall our earlier comments on the inclusion of the GPEA in Local One, (Composed mainly of Macomb County systems).

Teacher Union Dues According to a report in the "Detroit News" on March 2, the question of whether teachers must pay dues to a union they refuse to join or for services they claim they do not want, has surfaced again. Supposedly the matter was settled by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1977 which said that teachers must pay the dues, but that the union would have to use the money on services to the teachers, rather than for political purposes.

The current case, involving a tenure teacher in Swartz Creek, (Michigan), Community Schools, is based on a ruling by the Michigan State Tenure Commission which declares that teachers cannot be fired for refusing to pay "agency shop" dues to unions they refuse to join. The case is bound for the courts.

The abuse which has surfaced concerning the Plymouth Center is a terrible situation. It is no excuse to say that it must be an exceedingly difficult and exhausting job to work in the residences where the most difficult young patients live. Neither can it be any excuse that the employees cover for each other to protect themselves from unproven charges of abuse arising from situations which were not abuse but necessary physical restraint.

I concur with the idea that a grand jury would have the best chance of identifying those employees at Plymouth and perhaps in the department in Lansing responsible for abuse or cover-up of abuse. Neither the Governor nor legislature will stand for anything less than full disclosure of the facts. In the long run, for the future, I can think of at least three partial solutions. First, the patient's rights office of the department must be strengthened. It may even need some subpoena power mechanisms.

The department may need to employ investigators who not only investigate after-the-fact but who could be placed into wards and residences of state institutions, undercover, as ward attendants. More testing and psychological evaluation needs to be done of prospective and existing employees. Training needs to be augmented and made real. People who are to be ward attendants should be put through a life-like course, put into frustrating and threatening situations and both observed as to reaction and taught how best to cope with themselves and patients in the most constructive and least violent manner. Ward workers should be rotated, as should supervi-

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters, Director of Public Libraries

Many people are convinced that comic strips comprise one of the most widespread forms of contemporary "illiterature." To most public libraries comic books are anathema. However, I am of the belief that comics have value in helping us interpret our contemporary way of life. In 1975, for the first time in the history of journalism awards, the Pulitzer prize for editorial cartooning went to a comic strip: Garry Trudeau's nationally syndicated Doonesbury.

Art Buchwald called Doonesbury, "Not only the best comic strip, but the best satire that's come along in a long time." Satire, outside of comic strips and political cartooning, has largely disappeared from the field of literature, making such books as THE DOONESBURY CHRONICLES, (Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1975), by G. B. Trudeau, of particular significance.

The book is a collection of 572 strips selected by the author that encompasses the full Doonesbury canon, from its origins on a college campus in the late 1960's through the first half of the 70's. Along the way is a motley cast of characters that consist of college football heroes, Vietnam sad sacks, student radicals, a runaway housewife who ends up as a Berkeley law student and an invisible secretary of state named Henry.

Almost 50 years before the Doonesbury comic strip appeared, Robert Sidney Smith introduced Andy Gump in the comic strip, "The Gumps." SIDNEY SMITH'S THE GUMPS, (Scribner, 1974), edited by Herb Galewitz tells about the enormous success of the Gumps from its first appearance in 1917 in the "Chicago Tribune" until it was finally laid to rest in 1959. Sidney Smith died in 1930, but Gus Edson, a staff artist for the "New York News," sustained the strip for 24 more years.

The Gumps was the first comic strip to tell a continuing story, like a serial. It dealt with "real" people and everyday situations, while its satirical comments were subdued they nevertheless were there. A book that deals with the way comics reflect our culture is THE COMIC-STRIP-PED AMERICAN, (Walker, 1973), by Arthur Asa Berger. Mr. Berger wonders why whole libraries could be filled with studies of Shakespeare, Milton, and Dante, (whom relatively few people read voluntarily), while comics, which hundreds of millions of people read, are almost totally ignored.

This book takes the "funny papers" seriously as it traces comics from the Katzenjammer Kids to Little Orphan Annie, Pogo and Peanuts to the underground comics that have become popular in recent years. Only a few comic strip panels are presented, then only to illustrate a point the author is trying to make. It is a fascinating study of a much neglected art form. Don Thompson and Dick Luoff are co-editors of THE COMIC-BOOK BOOK, (Arlington House, 1974), a book for comic-book buffs and those interested in pop culture.

A nostalgic look at comics, but an attempt is made to demonstrate how creators of comic strips have addressed such contemporary problems as youthful alienation, political unrest, peace movement and drug addiction. Comics, the collective day-dream of the American imagination, reveal a great deal about our national character.

The Civil Service Commission and the Department of Mental Health, generally, need to step up their ability to identify and either dismiss or transfer employees who cannot be trusted to deal directly with patients. Staffing at centers for retarded and severely handicapped patients needs to be examined to assure adequate staff, medical assistance and training and education. I have never received any communication from any person alleging any sort of problem at any state institution under the Mental Health Department.

I hope that means the crisis situation at Plymouth is isolated and temporary. It may not be. Please, if you have any such problem, fear, allegation or concern, about any friend or relative of yours, tell me about it and let me try to help.

KALMAR ELECTED At the February meeting of the Detroit Chapter of the Bank Administration Institute, William J. Kalmar of The City was elected to the board of directors. Mr. Kalmar is an assistant vice-president of Detroit Bank and Trust.

Michigan Bell recently proposed sharp reductions in the rates for weekend and late night long distance calls within the state. The proposed rate cuts were part of a package of changes in long distance charges the telephone company is asking the Michigan Public Service Commission, (MPSC), to approve. The cheaper rates would save customers more than $16 million annually, according to a Michigan Bell press release. Michigan Bell also proposed increases on several other long distance services to offset the drop in revenues that would result from the cheaper weekend and late night rates.

The amount of the increases would be the same as the rate cuts. They would apply mainly to daytime long distance calls made Mondays through Fridays and to operator assisted calls. The release said that the rate increases and decreases would not significantly change the company's revenues. A principal feature of the new, "off-peak," rates would be a 50 percent discount on long distance calls made to any point in the state all day Saturdays and Sundays before 5 p.m., and every night from 11 to 8 a.m. the next day. The present discount is 30 percent and would continue to apply from 5 to 11 p.m. weekdays. Michigan Bell has also proposed to cut rates 30 percent from 5 to 11 p.m. on Sundays. The full rate has always applied to interstate calls during this time period. The proposed changes would bring rates for long distance calls dialed within Michigan more in line with rates charged for similar calls from Michigan to other states, the release said. The lower rates would respond to a frequent customer complaint that weekend and late night long distance calls, within the state, often cost more than similar calls dialed to points outside Michigan.

As part of the package of changes, Michigan Bell is asking for a three-cent increase for the first minute on most daytime long distance calls made Monday through Friday within the state. There also would be increases in charges for long distance calls requiring the assistance of an operator, such as person-to-person, collect and credit card calls. In addition, there would be an additional charge of 30 cents for long distance calls from a coin phone to points 20 or more miles away. Even with these proposed increases, the release claimed that Michigan rates for daytime calls on weekdays will remain among the lowest in the country. Michigan Bell's proposals are designed to encourage customers to shift their long distance calling to weekends and nights, "periods when the telephone network has plenty of spare capacity for more telephone traffic," the release said.

Sen. Snyder said it is financially advantageous for persons to enroll for Medicare. "Once you are enrolled, Medicare will pay 80 percent of covered medical expenses after a deductible amount is met. However, persons who are eligible for Medicare benefits, but fail to apply, will be required to pay that 80 percent of their medical expenses," he said.

Wine Lines

by John Lundberg

Most wines are harvested in more or less the same way and then left in the vats to ferment. But there are vital differences. Red, white, and rose wines are each made in a slightly different manner. Also, there are a number of factors that affect the fermentation process — what type of yeast is used to start fermentation, the temperature at which fermentation is taking place, and the amount of air the fermenting juice is exposed to. A good vintner keeps expert control over all of these factors. A good wine can enhance any meal, and PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 has a top collection of imported and domestic wines for your selection. And if we don't have a wine you want, we will be happy to special order and stock it for you. Ask us about our unique custom gift baskets. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry Valente

Anklets are making a comeback in the jewelry fashion world. They reached their height in popularity more than twenty years ago, but faded from the scene in the mod, unisex 1960's. Now, with the return of soft, feminine clothes, women once again are drawing attention to their legs. Anklets are available in a wide variety of materials. The most popular style in the 50's was the delicate gold chain with two hearts or a monogrammed plaque. This type of chain is not only attractive, but also practical—its flat construction does not catch stockings.

At VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800, we have a fine selection of jewelry of all types to suit your personal tastes and budget requirements. We are known for quality and reliability—since 1934. Bring in your precious stones from your old jewelry and we will re-set them in a custom made setting. Let us design a new setting for your old diamonds. We will show you a drawing of your custom-made jewelry for your approval, before we start to make the setting. VALENTE JEWELRY is open from 9 'til 5:30 and 'til 7:30 on Fri. Nites.

GEM TIP: Today you can buy anklets studded with diamonds or other gems.

Snyder Offers Medicare Info

State Sen. Joseph M. Snyder, in a news release, said approximately one million eligible persons 65 and over do not have Medicare coverage. The chairman of a Senate-House Special Committee on Aging coupled that statement with an announcement that there are less than 30 days left for eligible persons to enroll for Medicare benefits. The period from January 1 to March 31 is open enrollment time for most persons over 65 to obtain Medicare assistance but who have failed to register previously with the program. Persons nearing age 65 have a period of seven months within which they may enroll for Medicare: the three months prior to the month of and the three months following the month of their 65th birthday. Sen. Snyder noted that the Social Security Administration estimates 15,500 older citizens in Michigan who could be eligible have failed to enroll for Medicare. "It is tragic that so many of our senior citizens are missing this benefit to which they are entitled. I would urge every person 65 and over to check with your local Social Security Office to apply for Medicare if you haven't already done so." Without open enrollment many persons would miss out on their rightful benefits. Open enrollment of eligible persons for Medicare occurs regularly during the first three months of the year. Sen. Snyder said it is financially advantageous for persons to enroll for Medicare. "Once you are enrolled, Medicare will pay 80 percent of covered medical expenses after a deductible amount is met. However, persons who are eligible for Medicare benefits, but fail to apply, will be required to pay that 80 percent of their medical expenses," he said.

They have sung at the Vatican for the Pope. They have sung at the Royal Chapel of Versailles, and at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. This Sunday they will sing at Christ Church Cranbrook, at 4 o'clock. Since their performance here is sponsored by the Detroit-Swedish Council, there is no charge. All are welcome.

They are the Gothenburg Cathedral Boys Choir of Sweden—50 boys, ages 11 to 18—who, together with their music director, Birgitta Persson, organist, pianist and choir mothers, arrive in Detroit tomorrow.

They are making their first concert tour in the United States.

But they are veterans of European tours. In Italy, in 1974, they sang at the Franciscan Basilica and the Town Hall in Assisi. In Rome, the Pope presented a medal to Miss Persson, along with his personal thanks and blessing.

The choir was formed in the spring of 1962. It is noted for singing Bach's Matthew Passion, Britten's War Requiem, Nilsen's Hymnus Amoris and Orff's Carmina Burana.

There are usually only 12 openings a year; boys are selected after great competition and, once chosen, must maintain a good scholastic record in their regular schooling.

Choir members rehearse two evenings a week in addition to their concert appearances. Each fall they begin the year with several weeks of six-hour rehearsals daily.

Haitian Art on Display at Lochmoor

Paintings from Haiti are on display at Lochmoor Club this month through the courtesy of KAREN ZURAWSKI, of South Brys drive, who has collected Haitian art for the past few years and now represents the Centre D'Art in Port-au-Prince. Most of the artists have never been off the island, and have had little or no education in anything—including painting. Their work is, therefore, not influenced by any school of painting. It is primitive in type, showing a great natural ability in the use of color and design, and depicts life on the island as the artists experience it in their markets, festivities and home environments. Ms. Zurawski has been bringing samples of the Haitians' work to Grosse Pointe, where she has held several exhibits. The show will continue at Lochmoor through April 3.

The program opens with Morton Gould's Variations on "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

Peck, who appeared last year in this series, has gained a reputation for performances that evoke empathy and understanding in audiences of all ages. He has appeared with major orchestras in the United States for the past four years.

Tickets for both performances at $4, $3 and $2.50 are available at the Ford Auditorium box office, all Hudson's and Ward's ticket outlets and the Detroit Tonight desk at the Plaza Hotel in Renaissance Center.

P.E.O. to Mark Founders' Day

Today's Woman will be the topic for Artha Lu Lancaster, a practicing attorney in Flint and a member of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, at P.E.O.'s annual Founders' Day celebration, set this year for Saturday, March 11, at Stouffers Eastland.

Ms. Lancaster's program follows an 11:30 o'clock reception and luncheon at 12:15.

Founders' Day is being sponsored jointly by the newly-formed Lakeshore Round Table and the Detroit Cooperative, representing 25 P.E.O. chapters in the greater Detroit area.

P.E.O., founded on the campus of Iowa Wesleyan College January 21, 1896, later voted to retain its English letters and its off-campus chapters, thus changing from a college to a community group.

It has grown to nearly 5,000 chapters, with nearly 200,000 members, in the United States and Canada. There are also P.E.O. groups on college campuses, in retirement and resort areas, Ilse Von Alpenheim has toured extensively in Europe, the Far East and the United States.

Among her more recent concert stage successes is the world premier of her husband Antal Dorati's piano concerto in Washington in October, 1975, and the European premier of the same work in Berlin that December.

She last performed in Detroit in a Chamber Concert last November, at Ford Auditorium during the DSO's Beethoven Festival.

Tickets for the Thursday evening performance are priced at $9, $8, $7, $6, $5, $4 and $3.50. Tickets for the Friday morning NBD Coffee Concert are $8, $6.50 and $5.

Ilse Von Alpenheim, born in Innsbruck, Austria, made her debut at the age of nine. She studied at the Mozarteum in Salzburg with Franz Ledwinka and Winfried Wolf.

Among her recent recordings is the complete set of piano concertos by Joseph Haydn, and she is now finishing a complete set of Haydn's works for piano solo.

A Lovelier YOU
by JOE

Pretty hair is clean, shiny and well-brushed looking. This means that shampooing is a beauty necessity. Whenever your hair starts to show signs of oiliness, a shampoo is definitely in order. Once a week may not be enough for your hair. Even if oiliness does not affect your hair, the presence of chemical pollutants, smoke, etc., in your hair, can dull its sheen, and make it less attractive. The right care will make your hair look more lustrous and nice smelling.

At GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES, 20127 Mack Ave., 881-2090, we use nothing but the finest manufactured products in our beauty treatments, specializing in the use of REDKIN. Toners don't fade; conditioners are the finest. Our formula renews with protein each hair shaft into like-new hair. Our hair reconstructors properly renew each hair. Of course, we have conditioners for every type of problem hair too.

Distinctive Dining by

Larry Lavigne

When eating artichoke hearts you should remember that though artichoke leaves are eaten with the fingers, the heart is eaten with the fork. After all the leaves have been eaten, cut around the heart with your knife to remove the bristles, then cut the heart into bite-sized pieces and eat them with the food. Most people enjoy dipping both the leaves as well as the heart into a dish of melted butter. It brings out the taste of the artichoke.

We have added several new tasty items to our menu here at LAMBARDO'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100. We feature such tasty items as baby spare ribs, crab legs, seafood which is flown in fresh every day, not frozen, etc. Of course, our restaurant has always been known for our great pizza and other Italian dishes. We also cater to banquets and private parties. Cocktails are available for your pleasure as is premium draft beer.

HANDY HINT:

Artichoke leaves should be placed on a separate plate or in a dish after they have been eaten.

Pointers of Interest

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL T. TIMMIS, MIKE AND LAURA, OF CLOVERLY ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Mike, who is in the sixth grade at the Grosse Pointe Academy, likes it "because they have good teachers." Second grader Laura likes it "because they have good classes; I have lots of friends." Nancy and Michael Timmis like it because for them, for their children, it works.

"I think the public and parochial school systems here are great," Michael says. "We have friends with children flourishing in both. We support the public schools, as I believe all citizens should: it's our community and our kids."

Yet Nancy, a Grosse Pointe, (before it was South), High School alumna, and Michael, a University of Detroit High School graduate, products of, respectively, public and parochial elementary school systems, chose to send their children to a private elementary school.

Young Mike went to University Liggett for pre-kindergarten, to Richard for kindergarten. In both, he flourished.

Father Got Restless He might not have gone to the Grosse Pointe Academy if his father hadn't contracted a case of hepatitis. No work for a while—and after a while, the resting got restless.

"We wanted our children to have a Christian education. We had heard about the Grosse Pointe Academy. I had the time, so I went up and observed the Academy classes, and I became very excited about the fact that the children were learning with discipline — with self-discipline — without regimentation."

Nancy and Michael talked it over and decided, "on an experimental basis, really; we'd see how it worked out in the first year," to enroll Mike.

It worked out beautifully. Mike's parents were delighted with Mike's progress, and they were sold on the Academy's brand of education.

Mike Also Approved So was Mike. He came home from school one day early on in his Academy career and confronted his mother. "Do me a favor," said Mike. "When Laura grows up, send her to the Academy from early school."

Michael and Nancy Timmis are general chairmen of Action Auction '78, the 10th annual Action Auction fundraiser for the Grosse Pointe Academy.

Nancy, a member of the Junior League, has taken a year's leave of absence from WJR's "Call for Action" to devote herself to Action Auction. Michael, who during three years as chairman of Wayne State University Law School Fund Raising

Don't Forget The Spring Sale . . . at Two's Company, 399 Fisher Road, 15% off special orders till March 21.

Short and to The Pointe

Spending the month of January as an intern in the field of ceramics in New Windsor, N.Y., was TRACY TINGLEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. TRACY H. TINGLEY, of Rivard boulevard. Tracy is a junior at Wells College, Aurora, N.Y.

A Grosse Pointe South High School 1977 graduate, Airman TOM V. TARANTO, has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., after completing basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. He will receive specialized training in munitions and weapons maintenance.

Named to a recent Dean's List at the University of Denver was KATHLEEN M. BURKE, of Sheldon road.

Lord & Taylor Hosts Benefits

The Children's Hospital Benefit Dinner Dance and Fashion Spectacular held at Lakeside, Thursday, March 2, was hosted by Joseph E. Brooks, chairman of Lord & Taylor and Mrs. Brooks. Receiving guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Warren Sheldon, honorary chairman, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gregg, president of the hospital.

The proceeds from the benefit will be used to purchase life-support equipment for the Neonatal Service which admits almost 1,000 critically ill babies a year. Expansion of the facilities was a vital necessity due to the increasing number of referrals from over 50 hospitals.

Warren Sheldon has been a member of the board of trustees of Children's Hospital for 11 years and is now chairman of the board, devoting a great deal of time to the needs of the Hospital.

Joseph Brooks, who has served on hospital boards, was personally involved in the choice of Children's Hospital because of a deep interest in the hospital's acquisitions, ranging from a pool table to a Beta-Max recorder to a five-minute shopping spree in a discount drugstore, has been received to date.

Trips range from a cruise on a Ford freighter to vacations in Arizona and New Mexico. Special prizes range from a station wagon to a 10-speed bike.

"We think, with a little bit of luck, we will surpass last year — and last year a tremendous job was done."

This is, after all, an anniversary Action Auction: the Big 10. A special anniversary committee has been formed, chaired by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marx. Committee members are the chairmen of past Action Auctions, including Anne Marx and Jim Danaher, who chaired the first.

Have Raised $340,000 They set the pattern for fund-raising with fun. In all, in nine years, Action Auction has raised $340,000 for the school, to maintain standards of educational excellence and to provide scholarship money for deserving students.

Now fund-raising committees from other schools approach Action Auction committee members. "We've heard about your auctions. Would you help us . . . ?"

Rule Number One: Make It a Fun Night. "Our friends tell us," say the Timmises, "that the difference between Action Auction and any other fund-raising auctions they have been to is that they never have quite as much fun at the others."

That's success. No wonder Michael and Nancy are smiling. They've got a good thing going . . . and it's fun to be directly involved with something so many people get so much enjoyment out of."

Greens' Christmas celebration.

Typical of Parents That's typical of a Grosse Pointe Academy parent. "In every area," says Michael Timmis, "parent participation is phenomenal. Not only WILL Academy parents help when asked — they call up and OFFER to help before they're asked."

"I've been in fund-raising for 10 years, and I've never seen this level of participation."

Maybe it's because Academy parents want to make sure their return is commensurate with their investment. "Almost everybody who sends kids either to the Academy or ULS sacrifices somewhat, because it is expensive," Michael notes. "I think this prods parents to get involved: they want to know their sacrifice is worth it."

Maybe it's because, convinced their sacrifice is worth it, they're simply enthused, as Nancy and Michael Timmis are enthused, about the school.

Maybe it's because, enthused about the school, they realize with the Timmises that quality education costs, that overhead doesn't go away, that the only way a school like the Academy can continue is through people like us sharing the load."

Faculty Interacts And it's not just the parents, Academy faculty interact with Academy parents on all levels, including that of enthusiasm and support for the school. The feeling is: we're all in this together.

Annual Giving and Action Auction are the Academy's two fund-raisers. They don't compete. "Most of our Action Auction money comes from people who are not approached through Annual Giving," Michael notes.

Last year's Action Auction was extremely successful, a virtual sellout. Bidders were elbow-to-elbow in the GPYC dining room during the silent auction.

Nancy's goal this year, utilizing the new, silent auction system, is to eliminate the mob scene atmosphere without eliminating the mob. "After all," she says, "crowding is not a totally unsatisfactory situation if you consider the alternative."

The crowd doesn't seem to mind. One reason there IS such a crowd is that people who've been to Action Auction before want to come again. It's a fun evening, and Nancy and Michael want to keep it that way.

Seek New Contributors One thing they didn't want to do was go back to the same people who have contributed over and over over the years and ask them to contribute again. They've made a point of approaching people who've never been approached for Action Auction donations, people who may know little about the Academy but are excited about education.

"The thing that has heartened us most is the way our friends have come forward without being asked."

Michael and Nancy Timmis recognize that an auction is exciting by virtue of what it offers. Judged by that criterion, Action Auction '78 should blow the rafters off the GPYC ballroom.

Home-Grown Talent Export

Dr. Leonard B. Smith, music director of the Detroit Concert Band, headquartered here in The Pointe, in Mack avenue, has been engaged for his seventh season as music director of The Blossom Festival Concert Band.

The Blossom Festival Band presents its annual series in the summer headquarters of the Cleveland Orchestra, Blossom Music Center, located midway between Cleveland and Akron at Cuyahoga Falls.

We lucky hometown folks are accustomed to hearing Smith's quality band performances FREE, (sponsored by the City of Detroit). Ohioans have to pay for the privilege—and they do.

Last July 4, at Blossom Music Center, more than 20,000 patrons paying $4 and $5 broke all previous attendance records, filling management's coffers to the tune of $100,000 for that day's single band concert.

By the by: did you know that daily, from Mack avenue, the Detroit Concert Band, Inc., which recently released Volume VI in the "Sousa American Bicentennial Collection," ships out albums to such remote places as Australia and Japan, to Germany, England, France, Denmark, to Hawaii and every state in the Union?

Patron of the Arts

Over the last quarter century, W. Hawkins Ferry has been the Detroit Institute of Arts' foremost patron in the area of contemporary art. He has been president of the museum's Friends of Modern Art since their inception.

He is a longtime trustee of the Founders Society, and is the museum's Honorary Curator in Architecture. His own fine collection of contemporary art is housed in his magnificent home—itsself a contemporary work of art—in Lakeshore road, overlooking Lake St. Clair.

Next month, Mrs. William G. Milliken will present the Michigan Foundation for the Arts' 1978 Michigan Arts and Michigan Patron of the Arts Awards in ceremonies at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Hawkins Ferry is one of three winners in the second category who will receive a specially-cast, commemorative tile of Pewabic Pottery for outstanding service to the state in support of the arts.

A Date to Circle

Mark your calendars now for A May Party: the glamorous antique sale scheduled for Tuesday, May 16, at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

Yes, there won't be a Christ Church Christmas Fair this year, but if you think of the May Party as an "instead of," think again—for it's something else again . . .

Something super. So mark your calendars. NOW!

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Buell were benefit chairmen. Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. VanderKloot were honorary chairmen. Among the 280 sell-out crowd were Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Blakeslee, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buhl Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. John Lightward, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Warren.

Guests were given a tour of the store, decorated in "wind colors," mirrors and greenery. They moved on to a dramatic showing of Oscar de la Renta's summer preview fashions and then were seated for dinner at tables centered with fresh pink roses. The rose is the symbol of Lord & Taylor and it was even carried out in the rose sorbet dessert.

The benefit for Children's Hospital was the first of three parties sponsored by Lord & Taylor. The second at Twelve Oaks was for the American Cancer Society, and the third at Fairlane Town Center was for the Detroit Institute of Arts, clearly demonstrating Joseph Brooks' belief in contributing to the quality of life in the community where Lord & Taylor makes its home.
