PRESIDENT JIMMY CAR-TER'S plea to organized labor to hold down future wage demands in order to help the President's antiinflation program was rejected yesterday by AFL-CIO President George Meany and other labor leaders. President Carter had said a hold-down of wages would help slow the rise in consumer prices. But Mr. Meany said, "We feel the pressure should be put on the prices rather than the wages." President Carter, who met with Mr. Meany and other labor leaders yesterday, had no immediate comment.

IN A DRAMATIC tie vote yesterday, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee failed to block President Jimmy Carter's Mideast warplane package. The President's package includes the sale of warplanes to Saudi Arabia, Egypt and Israel. The committee's eight-to-eight vote sets the stage for a bitter floor fight in the Senate next week. The vote was a fight, because the bill must now be rejected in both the Senate and the House.

Saturday, May 13 PRESIDENT JIMMY

CARTER bowed to the will of Congress Friday and reduced his request for a tax cut to about $19 billion, down from the $24 billion he had wanted. He also postponed the effective date of the tax cut for three months new administration package.

POPE PAUL, 80-years-old and ailing, crossed Rome Saturday to celebrate mass and say a special prayer for his friend Aldo Moro, the former prime minister slain by the Red Brigades. It was the first time that the pontiff had attended requiem services for any person other than a cardinal. The pontiff also prayed for forgiveness for the terrorists. Italian statesmen and dignitaries from 100 nations joined in the heavily guarded memorial service held against Mr. Moro's last wishes.

Park Officers Also Apprehend Another Suspect, Believed to Be Friend of Man Taken in Farms

Jerry James Woeltge, 27, of Findley, Detroit, allegedly known as "Big Foot," the elusive daytime burglar believed to be responsible for numerous burglaries in the Detroit area, was finally stopped by Farras police on Thursday, May 11, at 1:13 p.m.

He was nabbed after an alert woman called _uthorities when she observed a suspicious white male entering a neighbor's house.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem, who was in on the initial arrest of Woeltge, and Farms Det. Earl Field, both of whom spent many hours questioning the suspect, said that they have reasons to be-lieve that "Big Foot" was responsible for more than 100 burglaries in The Farms and the other Pointes, St. Clair Shores, Detroit, East Detroit and Harper Woods during the past three months.

Chief Cites Citizen

Another man, arrested by Park police during a recent burglary, is being held by police of that city. The suspect is believed to be a personal and close friend of Woeltge, who might have been working with him, according to Park Police Chief Henry O. Coonce, who is withholding the name of the man until a complete interrogation and investigation on this point is completed.

The chief said he is refusing to name the suspect until final proof is, or is not, uncovered that the suspect in Park custody is connected in any way with "Big Foot."

Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber, who dispatched a letter to the resident of Moross road, whose alertness was responsible for the capture of the Metro area's most wanted burglar in a long time, complimented the citizen for being civic-minded enough to be involved.

The letter, which was presented to the Farms Council on Monday, May 15, read as follows:

"On behalf of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department and law enforcement everywhere, please accept my thanks and compliments for your prompt notification of a suspicious person prowling about your neighbor's residence on Thursday afternoon, May 11, 1978.

Released Early

"As a result of your notification . . . upon your suspicions being aroused by your growling dog, (by the way, please buy him a dog bone on us), we were able to apprehend a professional burglar in the commission of a crime.

"Furthermore, we have reason to believe that the burglar arrested through your notification was one of two individuals operating as a team, which the local media has dubbed as 'Big Foot.'

"As such, 'Big Foot' was responsible for countless residential burglaries in the Grosse Pointes. St. Clair Shores, East Detroit, Harner Woods and Detroit, during the past three months. While (Continued on Page 2)

The chief, continuing his letter, stated that the sad commentary is that "Big Foot" should not have appeared at this point in time because "Big Foot," who was in Jackson Prison, was released on early parole from a conviction on a plea bargained reduced charge.

Chief Ferber said he can not disclose the facts, (to the Moross road resident) that a second member of the team is now incarcerated by a local police department for the crime of burglary. Hopefully, these arrests will end a series of burglaries which should have never taken place, he said. Dispatched to Home "Once again," Cheif Ferber stated further in his letter, please accept our thanks for your demonstrated concern for the provision of quality of law enforcement for Grosse Pointe Farms, and please understand that it is only through actions of persons such as yourself which has enabled Grosse Pointe Farms to enjoy a low criminal occurence rate for so

Officer Philip Miglio arrived at about the same time when they were dispatched to the Moross home being burglarized. Det. Sgt. Van Tiem arrived a few seconds later.

On arrival, the corporal ran to the rear of the building and the patrolman covered the front and side, with Cpl. Wooten making the actual arrest.

According to the corporal's report, as he arrived at the rear of the house, he saw a man, later identified as Woeltge, exiting the rear door, which showed evidence of having been kicked in. On seeing the officer, the man re-entered the house and closed the door.

Says He Quits Cpl. Wooten yelled to Of-ficer Miglio that the suspect was in the house, then called for assistance over the prep radio. The corporal called to Woeltge to surrender and a minute later the suspect opened the door and put out one hand, raised high and then fully emerged with both hands over his head.

Before emerging, Woeltge said in a loud voice, "I quit. I'm coming out!"

As he opened the door to come out, Woeltge threw something behind the door, later said to be leather dog leashes, and surrendered without incident.

Sgt. Van Tiem arrived at the rear of the house as the man was coming out of the building, and Officer Donald and was remanded to the Pilon jumped over the fence Wayne County Jail in lieu of and searched Woeltge as the

City Council to Face Decisions on Budget

By Susan McDonald

The Grosse Pointe City Council encountered strong opposition from a few citizens to proposed cutbacks in police and fire manpower the budget Monday, May 8.

City administrators predict a $90,000 deficit next year if the cutbacks or increases in taxes are not implemented. The proposed $2.15 million budget represents a 13 percent increase in spending over last year.

City Manager Thoma Kressbach proposed three alternatives to the council earlier this month to avoid the deficit. He suggested either a 1.31 mill special garbage tax levy; a six-man, (10 percent), reduction in the work force in police, fire and public works departand a reduction of two and no control over."

City union leaders say they simply cannot operate with the more drastic manpower reductions proposed by the city manager.

"Ours are jobs that protect peoples' lives and money,' said president of the firefighters' union Lt. Timothy Champine. "These cutbacks represent a serious danger to us and to the people we're supposed to protect."

Lt. Champine noted that since 1974 five employes have left the police and fire departments and only one vacancy has been filled.

She told police her foot slipped off the brake, hit the gas pedal, propelling the car over a curb and into the rear of another auto. The second car smashed through the two-brick deep wall, leaving a 10' by 5' hole.

Mrs. Radtke said it will take about a week to repair the damage. No charges were filed against the driver.

Sgt. Van Tiem said Woeltge, after admitting kicking in the door of the Moross residence, locked the small family dog in a second floor bedroom. It was this dog's barking that made the Moross resident's pet growl and caused the resident to look out the window to see a suspicious figure in the neighbor's yard. The neighbor promptly called authorities when Woel-tge was seen looking around the backyard, after standing on the rear porch for about a minute, then getting off and entering through a garage door which he closed.

The person who called police described Woeltge as being about 5'8" to 5'16" tall, having medium length hair and wearing a white over shirt with dark buttons and carrying leather straps in his hands. The observant caller also noted that there appeared to be no strange car parked in the area.

However, Sgt. Van Tiem said that "Big Foot" did have a car parked nearby. The vehicle was taken to The Farms station where an on the spot search uncovered several sets of license plates, believed stolen, several changes of clothing, a pair of gloves and two handguns.

The sergeant said Woeltge admitted breaking into at least three homes in The Farms, in Earl court, Beaupre and Chalfonte, although it is felt by police that Woeltge is responsible for many more break-ins in the city. Key Is Cooperation

"I wish to express my com-pliments to the officers who arrived at the Moross residence and apprehended 'Big Foot." said Chief Ferber. "These officers did a very excellent job in arresting one of the most sought after career burglars wanted by law enforcement agencies in a very long time.

Man Held Up, Woman Raped

Two males held up a Park man at knife point on Saturday, May 13, at 3:30 a.m. and robbed him of a small amount of cash, then went to the resident's house, robbed his girlfriend and one criminalaly assaulted her before they escaped, according to information received from Park Police Chief Henry O. Coonce.

The male robbery victim's name was not given, obviously to protect public exposure of his female friend, the chief said.

The Park man said he was walking on the sidewalk near his house when he was approached by the robbers, each armed with a long knife. The holdup men demanded money and their victim gave them a small amount of cash.

Noticing that the pair appeared to be angry because he did not give them enough money and fearing that they might harm him, the Park resident informed the two that he had more money at his house a short way down the block.

The robbers then ordered the man to take them to his house, where they pushed their way in after the woman answered the door. Both the man and his woman friend were tied up and the robbers ransacked the house searching for valuables. They took a television set, several valuable items of jewelry and some cash which they were able to find.

Before leaving with their loot, one of the thieves sexually assaulted the helpless woman, after which the pair fled the area. It is not known if they escaped on foot or had a car parked nearby.

Both the Park resident and his lady friend could only give police a vague description of the two culprits, stating that both were black and each was about 25-years-old.

Chief Coonce said the matter is undergoing an intensive investigation.

For his part, Mr. Novitke stated when the seniors came before the council on April 17, he was under the impression that financing would be, in the strict sense of the term, private and that, in fact, it was a different issue, in comparison to the vote in 1975, which was being presented.

She noted that the commission viewed property already owned by the city, with this reducing costs. "The city could actually lease it to themselves as the building would belong to the city.' She also emphasized that no federal or state monies would be used.

Mrs. Dolgner said this site was recommended by planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers in the preliminary draft of a land use plan, while noting that the portion of the park being viewed is currently unused.

"We feel that Ghesquiere Park is the only site feasible at this time," she added.

Conservative politics, the "economics of scarcity" and new attacks on affirmative action programs have pushed blacks and other minorities backward in the quest for social, economic and political equality, Sen. Bond told the group.

"There can be no doubt Americans know the facts about black unemployment and poverty, yet they remain indifferent and unmoved," he said. "The battle lines must be broadened to include the economic system which has denied a fair living to minorities."

Sen. Bond spoke to the group as it celebrated its 10th anniversary at a $12 a plate dinner Thursday, May 11, at the War Memorial. Reaction to the speech

This is a plus benefit for the Seller. This warranty tells the purchaser that most of the things he might worry about such as the furnace, the electrical system, the plumbing system, the built in appliances, etc., etc., are guaranteed to work for a year.

Now if you were purchasing your next home and it narrowed down to two almost identical homes - which would you purchase - assuming they were priced the same? You'd choose the one with the security of the one year warranty naturally. And here's the clincher. How much less would you offer for the one without the warranty? The answer is usually about two thousand less! Now we ask you, is this a plus feature? Call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, and we'll gladly mail you a brochure on this fontastic fringe benefit for both seller and buyer.

Pointers Help In MDA Effort

For the second year in a row, Joe Glover, TV 2 news anchorman, has been named honorary chairman of Muscular Dystrophy Association's, (MDA), Southeastern Michigan Area.

The announcement was recently made by Robert Nederlander, 1978 president of the Greater Detroit-Southeastern Michigan Chapter of received rehabilitation at the Muscular Dystrophy Ass'n.

Joining Mr. Glover in the fight against dystrophy is area poster child Matthew Yotti and local residents who have been named chairmen and chairwoman.

Area chairwomen include Sandra Newberry of The Woods and Beverly Peters for the The Park. They are seeking 30,000 volunteers in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Monroe Counties to conduct the yearly house-tohouse solicitation on Tuesday, June 6, from 5 to 9 p.m.

Updated twice daily, the marine weather announcement includes a relay of the National Weather Service's VHF radio marine forecast for today, tonight and tomorrow for Lakes Huron, Erie and St. Clair.

A personal weather observation also is made at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. on lower Lake St. Clair by seasoned boaters.

Matthew, diagnosed as a victim of spinal muscular atrophy, is receiving help from the association's own Muscular Dystrophy Clinic, supported annually by MDA's house-to-house campaign.

One new research achievement is in the treatment of myosthenia gravis. This particular treatment involves plasmaphersis, a technique which rids the bloodstream of damaging antibodies. It was developed by MDA grantees at the Children's Hospital of San Francisco.

Working under MDA sponsorship, a research team made a major breakthrough in the treatment of this crippling neuromuscular disease.

Area residents wishing to join the campaign to collect in their neighborhood may call the Wayne and Monroe County Muscular Dystrophy branch campaign office at 937-9123.

In 1861, a thirsty governor of California sent an ambitious Hungarian named Agoston Haraszthy to Europe to bring back cuttings from the famous European vineyards for transplanting in California, Haraszthy was chosen because he had established a reputation for himself as a winemaker by his wines from the Sonoma Valley. So Agoston went and brought back one hundred thousand cuttings, of fourteen hundred varieties. They were all neatly labelled and packaged. But the Civil War had come to the U.S. and people were not interested in wines. Haraszthy and his sons tried to plant as many of the vines as they could throughout California, but were unable to keep track of them all.

Bless You, Pa Edison!

This is a pat on the back for Detroit Edison. Just before the big snows started late last fall, crews of this utility company appeared on the scene where a new house was being built on the corner of Jefferson avenue and Lincoln road. They returned day after day until they had completed tunneling under Lincoln road and digging a trench half way down the block, parallel to the sidewalk and laying cables through the whole excavation.

Suddenly they were gone, and the snows came and obliterated the ugly scars they had created. The seemingly perpetual snows also wiped out the curiosity we had about what had been going on and the reason for this strange operation.

Then came a southern vacation trip, when the snows still covered The Pointe landscape. When we returned, this disguise had melted away. It was time for annual spring yard cleanup, and there were those ugly scars, even more prominent now because of the abnormal ground heaving which winter

We called Detroit Edison and asked if anything was to be done about repairing the damage which had been inflicted. With great courtesy we were connected with the proper department, our com-plaint was patiently heard, our name and address taken and assurance given that we would be called upon within the next few days. Not more than three days later the doorbell rang and we were confronted by a delightful gentleman named Mike, who reported he had looked over the whole situation and the company would take care of putting everything back in shape. And did we prefer seeding or sodding?

It was then that my curiosity was again aroused and I questioned Mike about the project. When he explained that they were simply connecting up power for the new home, I was incredulous. Why in the world would they have to tunnel under a street and dig another trench half a block long? There must be a closer connection.

"Of course. But that would have endangered, and perhaps destroyed eight trees," was Mike's explanation. We carefully scrutinized the other side of the street, and it was perfectly obvious. On our side a number of elms had been lost to Dutch Elm Disease and there was a much wider right-of-way for the new cable. And all of the eight trees on the other side were magnificent elms.

Bless you, Pa Edison!

Fashion Show Is Available

One of the most popular exhibits last year at the De-troit Historical Museum has been converted into a travelling exhibit and is being made available free of charge to interested parties through-

"The Final Touch of Fashion: A Century of Hats, Gloves and Footwear" pre-sents decade-by-decade evolution in women's clothing, from the full, hoop skirt and completely covered styles of the Civil War years through the 1950's when the A-line the "sack," large, dramatic hats and spike heels were in vogue.

The schibit shows how women's fashion often closely paralleled the ebb and flow of world and national events as well as attitudes on woman's role in society.

The exaggerated bustle of the Gay 90's, the large hats and full scarves of the early automobile years, the straight tube and costume jewelry of the Flapper decade, the more mannish 1930's and the very utilitarian, versatile and simple fashions of the Second World War years highlight this evolutionary process.

"The Final Touch of Fashion" is available free of charge on a weekly basis. The only stipulation is that whoever reserves the exhibit must pick it up and return it to the museum.

For more information, call the Detroit Historical Museum at 833-1805.

GREECE

Its superlative antiquities and archeological sites, its ancient culture, beauty, sun and sea, have been drawing Americans in ever-increasing numbers to Greece. Tens of thousands have made pilgrimages to Delphi, traced the paths of ancient wars, cruised among the islands, marveled at the Parthenon and enjoyed the swimming, sailing, diving and sunning. This year Greece expects 700,000 Americans among its 5,000,000 foreign visitors. It is hoped that many will discover more of Northern Greece as well as the beauties of "off-the-beaten-track" islands. Travelers will be encouraged to spend more time than the usual cruise stops on the big, tourist-ready islands: Corfu, Crete and Rhodes.

Again throughout the summer, there will be music, dance and drama galore when the Athens and Epidaurus Festivals present performances by Greek and international companies. On Rhodes, and in Daphni, near Athens, July to September brings prolonged wine festivals, always occasions for music making. With travel costs within Greece still at the modest-to-moderate levels, Greece remains one of the least expensive countries to visit in Europe. It is especially so in the late Spring, and in the early fall, out of the peak season and minus the crowds.

TRAVELWORLD's staff can assist you with your travel plans to Greece or any other European destination. Stop in at 21127 Mack (North of Vernier) or call 882-8190.

NOTICE OF HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms (885-6600) on at 8:00 P.M. to hear the appeal of Mr. Thomas J. Matyniak, owner of the premises located at 358 Carver Street, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the installation of an air conditioning condensing unit at the side of his home at the foregoing location. Such Permit issuance was denied for reason that the air conditioning condensing unit to be located on the foregoing premises would infringe upon required open side vard space of ten (10) feet, thereby requiring a variance from the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

The City Council, upon receipt of such notice, shall call a public hearing for the purposes of determining whether the procedures provided for in this chapter have been complied with and whether there is any reason for extending the period during which demolition must be commenced. Show House Plant Boutique

You haven't visited the Junior League of Detroit's Decorators Show House yet?! Hurry up . . it's only open through this Sunday, May 21, and if you miss it, you'll have really Missed Something.

And if, after wandering through three floors of the former Henry Stephens home at 241 Lakeshore road, you decide to skip the out-back Plant Boutique, housed in the garage-cum-chauffeur's-apartment between the mansion and Grosse Pointe boulevard, you'll have really missed Something Else.

For the boutique plants are gorgeous, and exotic, and reasonably priced. Gorgeous and reasonably priced too are the specialty items available at The View from the Top, the Junior League's own boutique on the Show House's third floor.

Junior League of Detroit members were given the opportunity to view the boutiques, and their Decorators Show House in full dress, Friday, April 28, on the eve of its official public opening.

This Apres Party, (so named because, although it was "avant" the public opening, it was "apres' the "avant" the decorators' arrival party), was

There was cheese and there was wine, served from 6 to 8 o'clock as guests came to admire the work of metropolitan Detroit area designers and Each newly-renovated room featured its decorator representative, accompanied by a Junior League member to assist in answering questions and handling items for sale. Chairmen for the evening were Mrs. John M. Lesesne and Mrs. William C. Beardslee, assisted by

Mrs. Robert Peabody, Mrs. Peter Dow and Mrs. John Lambrecht. Valet parking was provided through the efforts of Mrs. Douglas F. Roby, Jr. Ticket sales were handled by Mrs. M. Marshall Scherer.

Hours for the last days of the 1978 Decorators Show House are 10 to 4 o'clock today, tomorrow and Saturday, 1 to 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

If you haven't been yet, don't just sit there, sipping a mid-morning cup of coffee, thinking how much fun it would be to go . . . GO!

Weather permitting, there's a special treat in store for last day visitors to the Show House: on Sunday, May 21, from 1 to 4 o'clock, a mini-collecer, director of the Christ tion of antique cars will be parked in the courtyard entrance to the French Baroque mansion.

They'll range from Brad Osgood's Excalibur 1977 sports touring car, a luxury, low volumn auto handbuilt in the image of the classic Mercedes SS line of 1928 to 1933, through two cars owned by grandsons of Harry M. Jewett, a 1923 Paige Motor Car Company Touring Car and a 1923 Roadster, to George Hendrie's beautifully restored 1928 model.
