HOUSE AND Senate conferees agreed on a compromise proposal to phase out natural gas price controls, ending six months of debate on the subject. The proposal, if approved by the full House and Senate, is expected to be supported by President Jimmy Carter. The compromise may face a filibuster in the Senate led by an alliance of proponents and opponents of natural gas deregulation.

Friday, May 26

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter accused Cuba of playing "a key role in training and equipping" the Katangan rebels who invaded Zaire. The President, speaking in Chicago, Ill., at a press conference, said that while the Cubans knew of the Katangan invasion plans, they made no attempt to stop them. The attack was launched on the bordering nation of Angola, which the President said must share responsibility for the invasion and massacre of whites.

Saturday, May 27

SEN. EDWARD W. BROOKE, R-Mass., admitted Friday that he had made some false statements concerning his personal finances. The senator, who is up for re-election this year, told a news conference that he made a mistake and misstatements in a deposition concerning a $49,000 loan from a liquor dealer. Sen. Brooke asked forgiveness from the Massachusetts voters, but added that he didn't think the matter would hurt his chances for re-election.

Sunday, May 28

U.S. AND SOVIET leaders clashed Saturday during talks at the State Department when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko accused President Jimmy Carter of being misinformed about Soviet-Cuban military moves in Africa. Mr. Gromyko claimed that Moscow has no interest in Africa. Secretary of State Cyrus Vance affirmed the accuracy of the President's information while the foreign minister listened.

NEW EGYPTIAN peace proposals call for the restoration of Jordan's West Bank to that country, it was reported by the Egyptian weekly magazine "October." The magazine's editor, Anis Mansour, is known to be close to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The proposal, submitted to the United States, replaces Egypt's original demands of self-determination for the Palestinians living there.

Tuesday, May 30

CHINESE FOREIGN Minister Huang Hua told a special UN session on disarmament Monday that the U.S. and the Soviet Union will "fight it out" some day, probably with conventional weapons in Western Europe. Hua told the General Assembly to beware of what he called "disarmament hoaxes" made by the two nations. Hua was particularly critical of Moscow, which he said is "bent on expansion."

Financing Format Is Adjusted

Population Criteria Eyed for Financing of Proposed Budget; Need Remains Great Says Park Judge

By Roger A. Waha
The Pointe's four municipal judges, in an effort to make a proposed operating budget of $25,000 for the Grosse Pointe Volunteer Probation Program a reality, have decided to utilize a population criteria, rather than a state equalized valuation, (SEV), criteria, toward financing the plan.

Police Nab Pair after Woods R/A

Charged with robbery armed, (R/A), in the incident are Ricky Cohen, 26, of Mayberry and Goodman Johnson Jr., 27, of East Vernor.

Lighted Rocket Damages Plants

The police nabbed the pair after they allegedly held up a woman in Detroit prior to the robbery for use of her car. The suspects are under investigation by Detroit police in relation to this.

Lighted Rocket Damages Plants

The youth, whose name was not given, told investigating officers that he had placed a lighted rocket in a glass bottle when the bottle accidentally tipped over and caused the missile to change its course. It landed in the neighbor's shrubbery which burst into flames.

Probation Program Has New Criteria for Financing

"We subscribe to the second theory where and when it can be applied. The $25,000 is for primary funding and we hope it will be covered by costs imposed where applicable," she continued.

Contingency Arrives
Saying the court must remain independent from any agency of government, (except for funding), and local police, Judge Grobbel said the judges feel that all municipalities will include some funds for the program in their 1978-79 fiscal year budgets.

In fact, the judge stressed, "We expect to get started July 1 with a funded program. We got pushed in most budgets into the contingency fund and that contingency has suddenly arrived."

In viewing the overall program and its need, she stated, "We need a full-time director but we're asking for a part-time one at least to get a viable program started." (A full-time secretary also is requested.)

Saying she's awaiting further word on a main headquarters building, Judge Grobbel said, in noting citizens of all ages go through the program, numbering an estimated 250 per year for pre-sentencing, supervision or both, so many people at certain points in their lives face a crisis situation and "they need a person to expose them to counseling and direction. It's their saving grace."

At this point, the program, which was founded in July 1974 as a non-profit corporation, encompasses around 40 volunteers, who represent a broad spectrum of age groups and professions. Many, because of activities governing their own lives, are unable to give all the time they would like to help probationers.

Many Needs
"Our director has worked for around four years—for free," said Judge Grobbel. "It's like getting blood out of a turnip. Because of inadequate funding, it's difficult to do what is really needed."

In eying the problem of young people on alcohol, she said, "We need a program suited to them—in the area in which they live. We won't be duplicating anybody else's services but we do want to give personal attention."

An emphasis, here, not only in relation to the young but also senior citizens with alcohol problems; is to give personalized treatment in The Pointe—in an environment in which the individual feels comfortable.

The need to find jobs for probationers, according to the judge, is a "monumental" one. In fact, she even helped two persons find jobs, with the owner, who had drug and alcohol problems, of one business helping on the hiring front because of a sympathy with the overall situation.

Education programs also are important, wherein probationers can find outlets for their skills with many "needing a push to go and follow-through," she said.

Eyes Total Program
With a future goal of having a full-time professional director and a self-sustaining operation, "We will continue to use volunteers always—people from the community under a professional director," said Judge Grobbel.

"We can eventually look toward a total program because the people don't want anything less than what justice demands."

As planned, monthly oversight fees will be imposed on supervised probationers who are able to pay. "The cities have an obligation to those unable to pay but every effort will be made to see a person pays such fees," she stated.

"The cost of a pre-sentencing report will be imposed as a cost on the court for those able to pay."

At the same time, for those who are indigent, she felt an obligation remained to help and this is where a city should come in.

Judge Grobbel also indicated any municipality who doesn't wish to contribute to the overall proposed operating budget, and who wants to make use of the program, may sign a one-year agreement at $175 for pre-sentencing investigations and $240 for supervised probation.

Need More Info
Complete awareness of the population criteria on the part of some city officials apparently hasn't fully materialized as yet, although the City Council at its Monday, May 22, meeting considered the new format.

The general consensus was that further information was needed, with City Manager Thomas W. Kressbach saying the number of pre-sentencing investigations and probationers per community was needed.

"A brief budget breakdown also would assist us on the use of funds," he continued, while adding he would be interested in knowing what would be the accountability to the judges.

Meanwhile, Park City Manager John Crawford said the latest proposal will be considered by the council at one of its June meetings. Noting the population criteria versus the SEV criteria wasn't the most economical for his community, he said Judge Grobbel has been requested to provide a written report viewing services provided.

where monies will be spent and how the city will recover such monies.

Views Joint Session
Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer said last week he was unaware of the new criteria but that it would probably be considered at some future time by the council when the information is received. He added that some returns would be needed by his community.

Like Mr. Bremer, Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis said he has seen nothing as yet on the new format but indicated if some communication is received it may possibly come before the council.

Noting that under the population criteria his community would pay more money, Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen stated, "I don't think our city will take any action until a joint meeting is held between representatives of all the Grosse Pointe communities."

Planners Deny Development

A request from Standard Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n. of Troy to develop the northeast corner of Mack avenue and Blossom lane, tabled at the Woods Planning Commission's April meeting, was denied by the commissioners at their Tuesday, May 23, session.

In April, residents living in Blossom lane expressed concern over potential traffic problems which would be created by such a business at the proposed location. Citizens also were concerned over possible pollution problems with autos stacked up waiting for the drive-in window.

The request was tabled by the commission basically for the alteration of the original plans to conform to a more Colonial appearance. At the same time, input given by the commissioners and citizens over the variety of concerns could be taken into account by representatives of Standard Federal.

David A. Sheere, vice-president, Standard Federal Savings, said in order to alleviate potential traffic problems, the flow of traffic was reversed so that all traffic would enter the site off of Mack for both parking and drive-up service.

Customers not using the drive-up facilities would then exit from the parking lot directly onto Mack. "Therefore, the only traffic exiting onto Blossom lane would be those customers leaving the drive-up facilities," he said.

Mr. Sheere also noted that the curb cut on Blossom lane would be "considerably reworked" so that traffic leaving the drive-up facility will have to turn right toward Mack, eliminating the possibility of traffic entering the residential subdivision on Blossom lane.

In saying that city officials held meetings with Standard Federal representatives after the April commission meeting, Building Inspector Earl Wakely stated that there wasn't enough specific information on the plans as presented, e.g., precise materials used and various heights.

While feeling the parking problem "turned out well" in Standard Federal's second effort, Mr. Wakely also indicated the proposal could have contained more of a Colonial appearance, while reiterating the need for more detailed drawings.

Name Academy Historic Site

The dedication of the Grosse Pointe Academy Michigan historic site marker will be the highlight of the Friday, June 2, annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Alumnae of the Sacred Heart.

Mrs. Don T. Galvin Jr., alumna of the Academy of the Sacred Heart and former librarian at the Grosse Pointe Academy, spearheaded the research and correspondence necessary to qualify the school as an historic site.

After a 10 a.m. mass, Mrs. Galvin will narrate a slide presentation produced by Mrs. Michael J. FitzSimons from pictures dating back to the late 19th century and progressing to the present.

Sister Maryellen Harmon, RSCJ, superintendent of schools of the Archdiocese of Detroit, will give a brief address prior to the formal meeting and luncheon.

All of the Religious of the Sacred Heart who have taught in Grosse Pointe have been invited to share this day. Former Superior Sister Helen Healy, and past Mistress Generals Sister Mary McCarthy and Sister Mary Hemmert will be on hand to visit with their former students.

In keeping with the historic tradition of the day all past presidents of the alumnae association will be specially honored.

President Mrs. Richard Law will turn over the gavel to incoming president, Mrs. Anthony Fisher. Other officers for the next year are Mrs. Peter O'Rourke, first vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Kolojeski, second vice-president; Mrs. Hal Messacar, recording secretary; Mrs. Peter Mercier, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Timothy Mertz, treasurer.

Members of the board of trustees and Academy students will join the alumnae at the formal dedication of the marker which is located in the circle in front of the main school entrance.

Seniors View Housing Flyer

The Woods Senior Citizens Commission at a Thursday morning, May 25, meeting decided to send out flyers to all seniors in the community exploring the August primary ballot question on proposed housing.

As part of the flyer, which will include an application for an absent voters ballot, an aerial view of Ghesquiere Park will be shown along with the location of the housing complex.

Commission members indicated they are considering the use of commission funds, i.e., around $436 left in fiscal year 1977-78, for printing of the flyer and mailing costs — but only with council approval and the odds for that aren't favorable.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the content of the flyer also will have to be considered by City Attorney George Catlin and the council.

At the same time, the seniors have planned a discussion on housing for their July 6 social meeting at North High School, 707 Vernier road, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Interested residents are invited to attend the session.

In a final note, commission members said they would circulate a second flyer throughout the community shortly before the primary. It will explore the need for housing at Ghesquiere Park as the seniors see it and other information about the proposal.

REALLY A MYTH

The concept that a hearing loss is equatable to a general breakdown in physical or mental capabilities is a myth. The Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation points out that while hearing loss is most common among senior citizens, it can and does strike persons of all ages.

Nab Suspects Responsible For Police Car Damage

Farms police have taken into custody a number of teenage suspects believed responsible for damaging police cars at a Friday, May 12, "graduation beer party" held in Lakeshore road, according to Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber.

The damage was caused after police arrived to quell the party, which had gotten out of hand, and began to disperse the large crowd.

Chief Ferber said the initial blame was placed on the parents of the teenager, because at the time it was not known who was responsible for the destruction to the scout cars, especially one which was badly damaged.

He noted it was refreshing to note that a number of calls were received from teens who attended the festivities and gave names of the youths who did the actual damage.

"In this day and age," said the chief, "it is good to know that at least a few young adults realized their responsibilities in the matter and notified our department of the minority involved in the actual damaging of public property."

He said that the party was originally scheduled for only 250 young men and women, but before the evening was over that figure had more than doubled. The party became so out of control that neighbors, and even the young man who offered the park, called authorities to ask for police assistance to quell and disperse the crowd.

At the Monday, May 15, meeting of the Farms Council, a full report was given to the solons, including a report of the police car damage, which angered the members of the council.

Especially upset was Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman, who demanded to know at the time, "Why the YSD, (Youth Service Division), didn't know about this." The council insisted that parents of any teenagers involved be held liable for any damages.

In a joint statement, Chief Ferber and Lt. Ignatius Backman, initially urged that any one who had any information as to who actually committed the damage to call in person or by phone, and their names, (the informants), will be held in strict confidence.

"As you can see," said the chief, "we did not have to ask the informants to come forward, they did so voluntarily. Naturally, we are not going to say who they are, but it does give one a good feeling to know that young people recognize right from wrong and knew what they had to do. This as a very refreshing experience."

Prior to the information given to the authorities, Chief Ferber wrote a letter to the parents of the teenager, (the parents were out of town at the time), explaining the situation and also informing them that their son had charged $2 admission per person, making a profit of $600.

The chief also itemized the damage to the police cars, including $70 for police overtime, amounting to a total of $489.53. The vehicles, at the time of the party, were brand new 1978 models, and were only in service for one week.

The parents were instructed to make out a check for that amount to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms and direct it to his attention. If the actual culprits are found, the chief stressed, their share of the cost will be obtained from them, and the party-giver's parents will be reimbursed accordingly.

The Farms Council made it emphatically known that state statutes places civil responsibility on the parents of a child under 21 years of age for any damage to property to a maximum of $2,000 per incident.

As a matter of general information, Chief Ferber pointed out, the holding of such parties and charging admission thereof is a violation of both a state statute and a Farms ordinance.

Drake Firm Is Retained

Kenneth Drake Associates, Inc., a Detroit based public relations and public affairs counseling firm, has been retained by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of North and South America.

Mr. Drake and his family are longtime residents of The Farms.

The Congress is the highest legislative body of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America. It specifically addresses itself to administrative matters including education, finance, ecumenical programs, youth, social, moral and humanitarian issues.

More than 1,200 clergy and delegates will convene at the Detroit Plaza Hotel for the Congress scheduled from July 1 through 8.

EARMUFFS HELPFUL

Persons working in excessively noisy environments frequently are provided with protective earmuffs. Conscientious use of these protective devices can help prevent avoidable hearing losses, according to the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation.

Gives Warning On Day Camps

The Farms reported last week that any classified advertisements regarding day camps held at the city's recreational areas or in residential areas are a violation of the city ordinance.

At the same time, City Clerk Richard G. Solak said such also are in violation of state statutes if the operators have not obtained a license for such activity.

Praises Officers
 "The officers of our department, especially Officers Carl and Mink, did an exceptionally fine job in the apprehension of the suspects," said Lt. Duncan. "The two officers used their heads in not pulling up alongside the suspects' car when motioned to do so."

"Taking in all the circumstances, I can say with certainty that if the officers had done so, there is a good chance they could have been shot and seriously wounded or even killed."

"There is no doubt in my mind that the man on the back seat would have fired at the officers," he continued, while adding, "The officers' training in all probability saved their lives. I'm glad that no one was hurt."

The Cadillac turned north on Devonshire, and the officers radioed for assistance, which brought Cpl. Collin LaLonde and Officers Randall Cain and Eugene Magnee.

As Officers Carl and Mink trailed the Cadillac, the passenger motioned for the officers to pull up alongside. The policemen wisely refused to do so, said Lt. Gordon Duncan because one of the male suspects was laying flat on the back seat with a shotgun.

On seeing the other scout cars approaching, the driver of the car came to a stop and the man in the rear seat sat up. When the policeman approached, with service revolvers in hand, the occupants got out. A shotgun was found on the back seat and

Woods Okays Use of Park

The Woods Council, which tabled action on a request from the public school system on Monday, May 1, pending the receipt of further information, granted the bid to use the Lake Front Park at its regular meeting Monday, May 15.

This request, from Reginald Sienkiewicz, director, department of pupil personnel, was for the use of the park, as in past years, by retarded children as part of their summer recreation program.

He asked for permission to use park and pool facilities on June 23, 26 and 30, July 7, 10, 14, 17, 21, 24, 28 and 31 and August 4 from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

However, on the 1st, the council wished information on the number of children participating, along with the number of those residing in The Woods.

Mr. Sienkiewicz, as requested, appeared on the 15th and Councilman John Sabol asked since the other Pointes have park facilities and youngsters from other municipalities participate, why aren't the other parks utilized by the schools?

In noting the trainable mentally retarded program involves 36 children who attend Poupard School, Mr. Sienkiewicz said officials have thought of using other parks but stressed a retarded child thrives on routine.

"The staff would enjoy a change but a retarded child needs a sameness. There also are safety considerations as the children know the park and what to stay away from," he said.

Councilman George Cueter asked Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann if there has been any problems with the program and Mr. Hallmann stated that the youngsters are well managed, with everyone being helpful. With that, Mr. Cueter made the motion to approve the request.

Mr. Sienkiewicz added that 39 percent of the youngsters participating in the program live in The Woods, with the total being as high as 50 percent in the past.

Set for Walk

"This is the first Jayteen Chapter to ever attempt something like this and it's the first Grosse Pointe Walk for Mankind," noted Mr. Marr.

Room for 17 names are on each sponsor sheet, with the sheets being available at both South and North High, all middle schools, Kent Drugs, 1 Kercheval avenue, and Farmer Jack Super Market, in Mack near Lochmoor boulevard.

In an effort to keep lines of communication between rest stops flowing for the walk, Miss Miszcak said all interested CB radio enthusiasts should contact her at 886-0107 if they are willing to help.

Jayteen chapter members participating in the event include Charlie Thomas, Gene Miszcak Jr., Sue Saalen, Rhona Spitz, Lisa Thomas, Mary Dixon, Bruce Demuelemeester and Bob Arbaugh.

More are Paul Brown, Beth Ferguson, Edie Nicholas, Terri Trask, Sue Demuelemeester, Sue Berubi and Wright Wilson.

The Jayteens, organized last fall for young people between the ages of 13 and 18 years, have already been involved in several events including running the cloakroom at the Jaycees' Monte Carlo Night and in Christmas caroling at the Belmont Nursing Home.

Denler Eyes Anniversary

The first business On-the-Hill, William Denler and Co., will celebrate its 40th anniversary today, June 1.

Opening on the second floor of the Punch and Judy Building in 1938, the business moved in December 1939 to its present location. "We started out with a one-story building and later added a second floor," said Mr. Denler, who noted his firm had done interior decorating work throughout the Pointes, the state and even the country.

"Many of my employees have been with me over 25 years. We have a very, very talented staff," he added.

Mr. Denler will celebrate his anniversary day with many of his clients.

Okay Bargaining

(Continued from Page 1) bargaining agent for our teachers, representatives for the Michigan Employment Relations Commission (MERC), will have to be invited to Grosse Pointe to supervise an election, which would then be certified," Dr. Coats said in a release from his office.

GPEA president-elect Curtis Lange acknowledged that the GPEA, not Local I, is still the official bargaining agent for Pointe teachers.

He said the new affiliation will result in a somewhat different make-up of the teachers' negotiating team, with five local, (Grosse Pointe), members and two appointed by Local I, when the School Board and teachers sit down at the bargaining table next in May 1979.

MERC procedures for the recent election were very specific, Mr. Lange continued, and were followed closely in last Thursday's vote.

Local I is the sixth regional bargaining group formed by the MEA in Michigan.

Advances Cause

The legality of such groups was challenged recently by the northern Michigan Kalkaska Board of Education as a violation of state labor laws.

The Kalkaska Board was found to be in violation of state labor laws for refusing to bargain with the regional group that encompassed its teachers, the Northern Michigan Education Ass'n.

In a decision hailed by MEA officials as an "advance in the cause of coordinated bargaining," MERC judge James Kurtz ordered the Kalkaska Board to bargain in good faith with the regional organization.

With last Thursday's 310-176 vote in Grosse Pointe, all 13 members of Local I have approved the new affiliation. In all, 3,300 teachers will be involved in the group.

School districts included are Anchor Bay, Armada, Chippewa Valley, Clintondale, Fraser, Lakeview, L'Anse Creuse, Mount Clemens, New Haven, Richmond, Romeo and South Lake.

Carillon Music Slated to Begin

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, is presenting its first Summer Carillon Recital Series on Tuesday evenings during June and July at 7 p.m.

William De Turk, Memorial Church's organist-choir-master-carillonist, will be performing the recitals on the 47-bell carillon.

These recitals are informal, out-of-doors, (rain or shine), open to the community free of charge, and are one hour in length. The audience is invited to listen from their parked cars or sit by the lake on blankets and folding chairs, (bring your own).

Each program will be specially prepared for variety and interest—arrangements of hymn tunes, folksongs, light classical literature, popular music, as well as some original compositions for the carillon.

A special program will be presented on the Fourth of July, which falls on a Tuesday. Tower tours will be given after certain recitals.

Mr. De Turk has played carillon recitals throughout North America and Europe, and has been invited to speak at the International Congress of Carillonists this summer in The Netherlands on American bellfounders, and to play recitals.

Before coming to Memorial Church, he was the assistant carillonist for the University of Michigan. He also was the first carillon scholar at the famous Bok Singing Tower in Lake Wales, Fla.

Memorial Church's carillon dates back to 1927 when eight heavy English bells were installed in the tower for the playing of hymn tunes. In 1952, 39 Dutch bells were added to comprise a standard four-octave instrument, making it possible to play most of the carillon literature of today.

Student carillonists play the bells before and after the church services, and frequently for weddings and funerals.

Free literature will be available about the church's carillon as well as about the Guild of Carillonists in North America. This professional organization will be holding its annual Congress in June at Cranbrook and the University of Michigan, and on Thursday, June 15, will be touring the carillons in the area—Memorial Church, Christ Church and Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The Guild will also stop to examine the chime of 16 bells, (the Joy bells), located on Grosse Pointe boulevard near Moross.

Cottage Slates Lung Checkups

If you huff and puff when you try to walk fast, it might be a good idea for you to have your lungs tested at the Cottage Hospital pulmonary function clinic.

The annual one-day clinic will be held Wednesday, June 14, from 2 to 7 p.m. in the hospital board room. There is no charge for the test which takes only five minutes.

Gary Saur, assistant head of the Cottage Hospital respiratory therapy department, will conduct the tests with qualified respiratory therapists working under his direction. Results of the tests will be sent by the hospital to the patients' doctors.

Interested persons may reserve the time for their tests by calling 884-8600, extension 2160.

Fatal Accident Incident Closed by Woods Police

Woods police have cleared and closed their investigation of the fatal accident which occurred Monday afternoon, May 22, at the Vernier road-Mack avenue intersection.

In the incident, Karl Schmitt, 13, of Hollywood avenue, Harper Woods, was killed when the bicycle he was riding made contact with the side of the turning rubbish vehicle. Police said the bike and the victim were apparently pulled under the truck's rear wheels. The boy was pronounced dead on arrival at Saint John Hospital.

Det. Thomas Podeszwick presented a request for a warrant recommendation on Tuesday, May 23, to Wayne County assistant prosecutor William Joyce for his review.

The request contained the facts through the 23rd after the interviewing of around a dozen witnesses of the accident in which Pietro Brancalone, 56, operated the city vehicle involved in the mishap.

Upon reviewing the facts of the case, Det. Podeszwick stated, Mr. Joyce denied a warrant because of insufficient evidence to show negligence on the defendant's part, along with a statement made by the victim's brother that the bike may have had defective brakes.

In view of the decision, the detective said no further action is contemplated.

Det. Lt. Jack Patterson, in this respect, also noted the case is closed pending the appearance of another witness but, at this time, no reopening is contemplated.

Six witnesses who saw the accident were interviewed, while another half dozen, who didn't see the actual mishap but only subsequent actions, also were interviewed, he added.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Grosse Pointe has a unique advantage over most of the other metropolitan villages. Most of our houses were built when the craftsmanship and quality were demanded — and received. Contrast this with the other areas and you'll find a great majority of the housing was built during these latter years where craftsmanship and quality have been replaced with building materials designed to circumvent skilled labor. Somehow the difference isn't quite what we would like.

This is why our values are coming into a new plateau of consideration. Too much of today's building doesn't tend to mature a neighborhood the way our Grosse Pointe residences have grown more beautiful with age.

There are of course other things that don't show like community spirit. This spirit, although, not like a group of people holding hands, is very powerful and obvious. It's there in the way we maintain and decorate our property. It's there in the manner we frequent our own village shops. Most importantly it's there in our Municipal Offices. Our police, fire and general administration executives approach things with a true personal enthusiasm. All these things seem to say we love our Grosse Pointe — and by gosh, we're going to keep it this way.

Incidentally Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 is conducting an all out campaign to survey the home owners on its Community Development Program. Ed Brink is in charge and needs help. If you'd like to join into the spirit please give him a call. Ed is our full time Community Development boss. He has lots to tell you about how, you can help improve our property values!

GPW Planners Deny Request

A request to the Woods Planning Commission to develop a proposed store in the Seven-Mack Shopping Center was denied by the commission at its regular meeting Tuesday, May 23.

Frank's Nursery Sales, Inc., sought to have a nursery and crafts store at the shopping center. Building Inspector Earl Wakely said their plans called for the leasing of the old Wrigley's store. Behind it, the documents called for an outside sales area.

Mr. Wakely, in a memo to the commission, made it clear that under the city code, material and supply type of operations are to be kept and stored within the building structure used for the business. On this basis, he would have had to deny a certificate of occupancy.

The building inspector also noted that the plans indicated an outside nursery sales area measuring approximately 118' by 165' "which would greatly reduce the amount of off-street parking facilities now being used."

Park Nixes Net Court Repairs Without Bids

By James J. Njaim
The Park Council, on Monday, May 22, rejected a recommendation from City Manager John R. Crawford that the four tennis courts located at the southeast area of the Windmill Pointe Park be repaired, and that the contract job be awarded to the Mehlenbacher Fence Co. without taking bids.

The rejection is expected to cause a six-week delay before repairs can be made. Mr. Crawford informed the council that a complete inspection of the tennis courts was made, and several metal poles were found to have completely rusted through. The fence, approximately 10' high, also is leaning dangerously. A number of poles still in fairly good condition are bent at the base as a result of the heavy weight.

The initial opposition was voiced by Mayor Matthew C. Patterson, and later concurred with by the council, who pointed out that bids for the job should be made as required by the Park City Charter.

The mayor called for bids on the project, when a report submitted by Mr. Crawford disclosed that the existing fence enclosing the four tennis courts be repaired on a time and material basis at a price not to exceed $10,000.

The proposal incorporates the utilization of all existing fabric and the replacement of rusted and worn out poles plus the installation of support anchors and additional fabric where needed.

Mr. Crawford said the repair work might not cost the maximum, while taking into consideration that perhaps in straightening out the bent poles, there is the possibility they might snap when pressure is applied.

James Ellison, director of the Department of Public Services, said that the reason the work was to have been given to the fence company was because repair work would have been started without delay. The courts, then, would be ready for use in the shortest possible time by those interested in playing tennis.

Taking bids on the project would delay the repairs by at least six weeks, he pointed out.

Mr. Crawford said after the poles and fences are repaired, city park labor would be used to paint the fence and poles.

To bring the existing courts to useable condition, Mr. Crawford recommended that they be cleaned and scraped, with surface cracks being filled with three coats of Latexite Color System in red and green stripes at a cost of about $4,000.

There is sufficient funds in the Capital Improvement Program to cover this, he said.

He noted the estimated cost to replace all existing fencing material would be between $18,000 and $20,000. The original estimate for re-surfacing the courts was $15,100. The cost to restore the courts to a completely new condition is estimated between $33,000 and $35,000, he said.

However, he added, just the repair and maintenance as recommended should extend the life of the courts for at least another two years before additional repairs and maintenance will most likely be needed.

Bids on the tennis court work will be advertised without delay.

ney in private practice. He's a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University Law School.

He disagrees with a number of recent Board policies, many of them programs implemented by The Pointe's controversial Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats.

"They, (board members), have attempted to do some good things since Dr. Coats came, such as making teachers more accountable for teaching a uniform curriculum. But they've used a sledge hammer to do it," Mr. Gandelot said.

"They've created an aura of negativism that's destroyed the morale of teachers I've talked to, good teachers who have been with the system for many years and have excellent reputations," he continued.

While Mr. Bruce acknowledges some teachers may feel threatened by new policies, such as the year-old evaluation system, he said such reactions may be unavoidable when dramatic changes are being made.

Eyes Class Size
"The evaluation system is of primary importance to the Board," Mr. Bruce explained, "and I'm not sure we could have implemented it without making some people feel threatened."

"But my first responsibility is to represent the students and their parents," he said. "Teachers have avenues to address their concerns."

In addition, Mr. Gandelot objects to the increased numbers of administrators in the schools, coming at a time of a decline in student enrollment and steady decreases in the number of classroom teachers.

He also points out in his campaign literature that there are some 20 elementary classes this spring with more than 29 students in them, although the overall average is just under 26 per class. The levels, he says, are "unacceptable for the money we spend on education."

The two candidates will discuss the issues at the League of Women Voters, (LWV). Candidates Forum set for today, June 1, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

Young Peoples Classes Slated

New for young people at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, this summer are three, three-week series of "Close Encounters with The French Language And Culture."

Session one meets from June 20 to July 6, (omitting July 4). Series number two meets from July 11 to 27 and the last group is from August 1 to 17.

In each session the young people will meet on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Ages seven to 10 will convene from 9 to 10 a.m. and ages 11 to 15 from 10 to 11 a.m. Fee for the first session is $17.75. The remaining two sessions cost $20 each.

The instructor for "French Encounters" is Jane Sigrid Wood, French teacher for the upper and middle schools of the Detroit Country Day School. She has recently completed graduate work at the Institute of American Universities at Aix-en-Provence, France, and the Université Aix-Marseille.

Two, two-week sessions of Children's Art Camp plus a mini-session of one week will be taught at the Center by Donald Schrom of the University Liggett School faculty.

The first session is from June 19 to 30, the second session is from July 10 to 21 and the one week only mini-session is from July 24 to 28.

Ages five to nine meet Monday through Friday from 9 to 10:30 a.m., while ages 10 to 15 meet from 10:30 to 12 noon.

Fee for the two week Art Camps is $35 plus $6.50 for supplies. Fee for the mini-session is $17.50 plus $3.25 for supplies.

Class space for the first session is already filled but places are still open in the following two. Advance enrollment is required.

For further information, call the Center at 881-7511.

GP City Buys New Wagon

The City Council unanimously accepted the bid of Bob Thibodeau Ford for an LTD wagon in the amount of $5,371, (net bid with trade-in), at its regular meeting Monday, May 22.

At its April meeting, the council authorized replacement of the fire vehicle, (station wagon), with a new vehicle. The municipality received bids on a 1978 wagon to replace the existing fire station vehicle which is in need of repair.

Bob Thibodeau's bid was the lowest of the three submitted. The expected delivery date is six weeks.

Wine Lines
by John Lundberg

White wines differ from red wine in different ways besides their color. Generally, white wines do not age as well as reds. Many whites are not dry whereas most reds are. To prevent whites from becoming dry, the fermentation must be stopped before all of the sugar has been converted into alcohol. This means the yeasts, which cause fermentation, have to be removed. A winter can end the fermentation by killing the yeast by adding sulfur, by filtering the yeast out, or by chilling the wine below the temperature at which fermentation can take place.

AT PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 you can choose from a top collection of fine wines, both red and white, imported and domestic. Club Offers Outdoor Trips

Now in its third summer, the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, will be continuing its outdoor adventure program for junior and senior high students with a series of summer wilderness trips.

All trips will be led by John Shaheen, a full-time Neighborhood Club program director, assisted by other qualified adult leaders.

Two trips are of interest to seventh through ninth graders. The first is a backpacking trip to the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Departing July 5 and returning July 11, this seven day trip will take in nearly 35 miles of backpacking along the beautiful Lake Superior shoreline, including the Grand Sable Dunes and the Pictured Rocks escarpment. This trip is ideally suited for beginners at a fee of $90.

The second trip for seventh through ninth graders departs July 19 for Algonquin Provincial Park in Ontario. Returning July 25, this seven-day canoe-camping adventure will teach the novice or experienced tripper a wide variety of canoeing and camping skills in a true wilderness setting. This trip fee is $115.

Two senior high trips, (grades nine through 12), will offer adventure for those interested in a rugged outdoor experience. A seven day Bruce Trail Backpacking trip leaves June 21 for the Bruce Trail in Ontario.

Hiking along the Niagara escarpment, participants will have panoramic views of Georgian Bay, explore caves and old log flumes, fish and swim. This trip returns on June 27, and the fee is $90.

A 16-day trip for serious wilderness trippers will be held from August 9 to 24. This is called the Northern Wilderness Adventure, and encompasses extensive backpacking in Isle Royale National Park and canoe-camping in Ontario's famous Quetico Provincial Park. This trip fee is $285.

Trips fees include round trip transportation, meals, canoe rentals, accessory equipment and a pre-trip meeting. Participants will need their own backpack, hiking or work boots and a lightweight sleeping bag.

Participants are required to have a current Neighborhood Club membership, ($5). Each trip is limited to nine teens and two to three adult leaders.

While ample space remains for the junior high trips, the senior high trips are nearly filled. A non-refundable deposit of $25 will be accepted to hold a place.

To register or for more information, please call the club at 885-4600.

Man Convicted In Sex Case

Lester C. Caudill, 21, of Chalmers, Detroit, was found guilty of second degree criminal sexual conduct involving an eight-year-old Park girl, and was sentenced to from five to 10 years in Jackson Prison by Judge Horace Gilmore on Thursday, May 11, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Henry O. Coonce.

Reception Set For Teacher

The Poupard PTO is holding a retirement reception for Mary Lu Eyster, a teacher at Poupard. Miss Eyster has been a teacher for the past 43 years, 20 of which have been spent at Poupard. It will be on Monday, June 5, from 7 to 8 p.m., and is for parents and all former students of Miss Eyster's. The reception is held at the school, 20655 Lennon, Harper Woods.

Caudill, who was originally charged with first degree criminal sexual conduct, pled guilty to the lesser charge. The offense was said to have occurred last December 1, when the convicted man was visiting the parents of the little girl.

The child told her parents of what had taken place and officers of The Park detective bureau and the Youth Service Division, (YSD), after an investigation, obtained a warrant approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and arrested the suspect at his home.

At his examination before Park Municipal Judge Beverly Grobbel on March 3 on the warrant, Caudill entered a plea of not guilty and was remanded to the county jail in lieu of $10,000 bond to await trial.

Burglar Robs Home in Park

Failing to enter through either the front or rear door, a burglar, or burglars, entered the home of George Domine of Whittier road through a second floor window and ransacked the entire house, according to information released by Park Police Chief Henry O. Coonce.

Mr. Domine told investigating officers that the break-in occurred sometime between Friday, May 12, at 1 p.m. and Saturday, May 13, at 9 a.m. at which time he returned home.

Missing, Mr. Domine said, were two rifles, one of which was an antique, a pistol, a television set, two pairs of shoes, a pair of silver candle sticks and a stereo with speakers. He valued the loss at about $1,200.

Woods Okays Variance Bid

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 15, unanimously approved a parking variance permitting the construction of a building to be occupied by Sullivan Furs at the corner of Fleetwood road and Mack avenue.

William Matouk and Anthony Lufty planned to construct a building on the lot but 12 off-street parking spaces were required and the pair proposed 11 such spaces.

The Planning Commission originally denied the proposal at its March meeting because the design had a contemporary rather than a Colonial look. However, at its meeting last month, the commission gave its approval after the plans were revamped.

At the same time, the commission recommended to the council approval of the variance.

Councilman Robert E. Novitke, who said he served as an attorney for Mr. Matouk and Mr. Lufty, requested that he be permitted to abstain from voting on the matter. The council then unanimously passed a motion excusing Mr. Novitke from voting on this issue because of a possible conflict of interest.

Brochure Aids in Complaints

"It's your right to complain to a business when you have a consumer complaint; it's also your responsibility."

Found Guilty On Two Counts

A 26-year-old Detroit man was found guilty on Tuesday, May 9 by a Wayne County Circuit Court jury on counts of robbery armed and commission of a felony with a firearm, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel.

The accused, Roderick Simpson, of San Juan, Detroit, was charged in the incident in which an estimated $115,000 in precious stones and around $3,000 in cash was taken from Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, last July.

The trial, which began on Monday, May 8, concluded the following day when the verdict was given. Simpson's scheduled sentencing date was Tuesday, May 30, after press time.

Suzanne Barber, 28, of Washburn, Detroit, also was charged in the same incident. She was sentenced to two years in prison on the firearm charge and from two to 10 years in prison on the robbery armed charge last October, said Det. Hamel.

"Consumers may feel helpless when faced with a product which won't work or a service which wasn't delivered," said executive director Linda Joy. "Often times they don't realize they have influence in the market place or, more importantly, know how to use it."

"Many complaints can be solved simply by explaining the situation to the store's owner or manager and mentioning how you would like the problem solved," she added. "Most businesses are eager to correct a problem if they're aware of it."

Not only does the brochure emphasize talking to the store's management, it also explains how to document a complaint and what steps are available if the business doesn't respond in a reasonable time.

In addition, "How to Complain" gives the addresses and telephone numbers of several federal and state agencies which handle various consumer complaints.

The council also has brochures on "How to Sue Someone in Small Claims Court," "What to Do When You Can't Pay Your Bills" and the "Consumer Protection Act."

For free copies of the brochures, write to the Michigan Consumers Council, 414 Hollister Building, 106 West Allegan, Lansing 48933, or call (517) 373-0947.

Babe Ruth Results

FARMS-CITY By Joe Fromm

The White Sox remained the only undefeated team in the Farms-City Babe Ruth League Majors with a 5-0 record with one-fourth of the season completed.
The Yankees after dropping their first two games, rebounded last week with three wins to move into a second place tie with the Indians. Both teams have a record of 3-2.
The White Sox handed the Indians their first loss Tuesday, May 16, with a 4-0 win at Kerby Field. John DeBoer went the distance, giving up only two hits for his first win.

and Craig Haase doubled for the Red Sox. Dave Fitzgerald chalked up his first win.
The Tigers won their first game of the season with an exciting 15-1 win over the Indians on May 21 at Elworthy. The game was tied three times at 2-2, 5-5 and 7-7 before the Tigers erupted with eight runs in the last two innings.
The Indians went into the bottom of the seventh trailing by seven runs and scored three runs before winning Tiger pitcher Ray Chown could retire a batter.
Chown struck out one and right fielder Bill Hoey made a sensational driving catch of a sinking line drive to start a double play and end the game.

He wrote it in the first person singular, putting himself in the place of the blinded sailor as he approached the Canadian shore of Lake Huron, a few miles south of Clark Point.

He wrote it as a sailor, with a feeling for wind, sky and sea, and with the wealth of practical detail only a sailor can know. Who but a sailor, for in-

Serving with Mrs. White in the coming season will be vice-presidents Anne (Mrs. John H.) Norris, Peggy (Mrs. Jerry) Hodak and Aileen (Mrs. William J., Jr.) Young.

Kathy (Mrs. Chester E., Jr.) Kasiborski is the new treasurer. Anne (Mrs. Leo A.) Marx and Shirley (Mrs. J. Lee) Schoenith will serve as recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively.

Marie (Mrs. Edmund M., Jr.) Brady and Mrs. Norris announced that the final event of this year would be the Second Annual Box Lunch Social and Family Picnic at the BCMD-sponsored camp on Harsens Island.

It's set for Sunday, June 11. Fred K. Cody has again offered his services as auctioneer for the sale of the homemade lunches.

Last year's social, planned as a non-profit "fun day," raised $450 for the Women's Association. This year, recognizing that the men don't want to give up their Sunday golf and tennis, fun-and-games on the island won't begin until 3 in the afternoon.

The group hopes to christen the camp's new sports area, begun thanks to Women's Association fund raising efforts.

Among those present at the annual meeting were Anne (Mrs. Harry D.) Anderson, Andrea (Mrs. Kenneth G.) Edwards, Bonnie (Mrs.

Thomas Hoving To Talk on Tut

Thomas Hoving, former director of New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art, will reveal the untold story behind the Tutankhamen tomb discovery this Sunday, June 4, at a 5 to 7 o'clock reception at the East Jefferson avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan.

Hoving will discuss the behind-the-scenes information he discovered, including the heated rivalries and political machinations that followed the unprecedented 1922 find, while researching his book on the subject, due out in October.

Members of the committee hosting the $50-per-person Hoving reception, sponsored by the Phil Power for United States Senate campaign, include Mary Lee Scherer, Iris Adelson, Tavy Stone, Joyce Garrett, Peggy Winkleman, Marge Jospey and Ana Maria Donovan.

Plan University Liggett Antiques Show

The historic Wardwell House in East Jefferson avenue at Three Mile drive, oldest remaining brick structure in southern Michigan, was an appropriate setting for the final planning meeting for the 13th Annual University Liggett Antiques Show, to be open to the public Thursday through Saturday, June 15 to 17, at ULS' Briarcliff drive middle school campus. Checking some last-minute details with RUSSELL CARRELL, of Salisbury, Conn. nationally recognized antiques show manager, are MARIANNE ENDICOTT, (left), general chairman, and RITA STORMES, secretary to the general committee.

Once again, Mr. Carrell is supervising the ULS Show, ranked among the top five antiques events in the United States.

Once again, pleasures and treasures will abound as 46 dealers, many of whom return year after year, exhibit for sale 18th century English and American furniture, early silver, Oriental and American Indian items, porcelain and pewter.

Show hours are noon to 10 o'clock Thursday and Friday, noon to 6 o'clock Saturday. General admission is $3.50 per person, including a copy of the Show Catalog featuring articles on local history and preservation. The advertising pages provide a visual trip through the architectural richness of Michigan's past.

Clement E. Conger, curator of the White House and the Department of State, will give an illustrated lecture on the White House and its Collections at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The lecture is open to the public, but tickets are limited and should be reserved at once by sending checks, ($2.50 per person), to Mrs. A. J. Galsterer, 825 South Rosedale court, Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan 48236.

Luncheons and teas will be available daily during the show in the Terrace Tea-room, decorated with spring lilacs and violets.

Offer Historic Church Tours

Guided tours of Detroit's beautiful historic churches are being offered, for the eighth straight year, by the Detroit Historical Museum, the Detroit Historical Society and the National Society of Colonial Dames of America in the State of Michigan.

Each monthly tour takes place on a Monday, starting at 10:30 in the morning, and covers five churches. The next is planned for this coming Monday, June 5.

Transportation is via the society's colorful "History-mobile," and a box lunch at one of the churches is included in the $5 per person tour fee.

Each tour lasts approximately five hours and requires advance reservations.

The tours cover a wide variety of churches, all located within easy driving distance of one another, among them St. Anne's, First Presbyterian, St. Paul's Cathedral, Central Methodist, Second Baptist, Trinity Lutheran, St. Joseph's and Mariners' Church.

This year's program has been expanded to include three Thursday evening tours. The first, planned for June 22, will spotlight churches with "tracker" organs. The second and third are set for July 20 and August 24.

Evening tours start at 5:30 o'clock from the museum and include a church supper. Fee is $8 per person.

"Many of Detroit's old churches are recognized nationally for their magnificent architecture and intricate stained glass windows," Nancy Cunningham, executive director of the Detroit Historical Society, points out.

Complete tour schedules may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Detroit Historical Society, 5401 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

Sweet Treats for Diabetics

A brand new booklet of favorite sweets, "Just Delicious and Sugar Free," is being sold by the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation.

Ida Ellenson, an active member of JDF, realized the tremendous need of diabetics, weight watchers and those concerned about their consumption of natural sugar recipes that were sugar-free — but delicious! — so, being an innovative baker and having prepared sugar-free desserts for years that were applauded by all those who tasted them, she decided to put together a booklet of favorite sweets.

She started with five-pound bags of flour, then advanced to 10-pound bags and dozens upon dozens of eggs, experimenting with many sweetening agents and methods of mixing ingredients together to obtain a familiar texture. Bake, taste, throw out, begin again — for one year Ida baked... and the result is her contribution to making life a little more pleasant for the diabetic or anyone else concerned with his/her intake of sugar.

Proceeds from the sale of the cookbooks will go toward research for a cure for diabetes. Mary Van Stream, a Registered Dietician at William Beaumont Hospital, has provided the very important "exchange" information that diabetics and weight watchers must have.
