

FIRE DAMAGES ST. PAUL'S

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, June 8
CALIFORNIA Governor Edmund G. (Jerry) Brown, in the wake of the recently passed Proposition 13, proposed a state job freeze to take immediate effect, while three public employ unions filed suit in opposition to the fiscal austerity necessitated by the measure. The proposition will cut property taxes by about 57 percent and requires a two-thirds vote by the legislature for any increase in state taxes. Many school districts have already started teacher layoff procedures.

Friday, June 9
PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter, in a move designed to curtail skyrocketing beef prices, announced he will allow a 15 percent increase in imports this year. The move will save consumers an estimated $500 million this year. The President claimed his action would not hurt American cattlemen, although their lobbyists denounced the move. Most of the beef imports are to be used for hamburger, which will cost about five cents less than it would without imports.

Saturday, June 10
MORMON CHURCH President Spencer W. Kimball, saying he had received a direct revelation from God, announced the church would end its 148-year policy of discrimination by allowing blacks to become priests for the first time. The move is the most important policy change for the church since it banned polygamy in the 1890's. In other news, the Ford Motor Co. recalled some 1.5 million Pintos and Bobcats to install a plastic shield in front of the gas tanks in order to reduce the chances of the tanks being punctured in a rear-end collision. Ford had bitterly contested findings of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, which found the cars to be unusually susceptible to fires in rear-end collisions.

Sunday, June 11
THE TWO HOUSES of the State Legislature split on the issue of mandatory testing of public school students by the state. While the Senate voted to let districts decide for themselves whether to administer the tests, the House is expected to vote in favor of requiring the tests for all fourth, seventh and 10th grade students. The controversial tests are designed to measure knowledge of basic mathematics, reading and writing skills. Gov. William Milliken supports the tests.

Monday, June 12
A LOCUST EXPERT warned that huge swarms of the insects may force thousands of Africans into starvation if they are not killed off soon. The locusts are devouring at least 8,400 tons of crops a day in the horn region of Africa, which includes the countries of Ethiopia, Kenya and the Somali Republic. Existing locust control authorities are inadequate to cope with the onslaught, said John Malecela, chairman of the East Africa Desert Locust Control Organization.

Tuesday, June 13
AT LEAST 13 PERSONS died when a thunderstorm struck a group of canoeists, throwing them into the icy waters of a wilderness lake in northern Quebec province. The canoeists were all from a private school in a Toronto suburb. Twelve of the drowned were students 12 to 16 years and the other was a schoolmaster. In other news, "Son of Sam" killer David Berkowitz was sentenced to 315 years in prison. Berkowitz, who was convicted on six counts of murder, will be eligible for parole in 30 years under New York law.

Firemen Battle St. Paul Blaze for Five Hours

Firefighters battle the blaze at Saint Paul Church, 157 Lakeshore road, as remnants of smoke envelope the structure in the late afternoon sun of Friday, June 9. Damage to the of the church is visible at the top. Approximately 40 firefighters took almost five hours to completely extinguish the fire.

GP Woods Eyes Empty Dwellings

Council Approves Law Governing Vacant Units, Need for Permit, Demolition Under Certain Conditions

By Roger A. Waha
An ordinance amending the city code by adding a chapter governing vacant dwelling units—requiring a vacancy permit and demolition of such units under certain conditions—was unanimously approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 5.

An objective of the new law, which becomes effective 20 days after its enactment date, is to prevent the deterioration of property values through having vacant homes standing as eyesores in the community.

In relation to the ordinance, the vacant home at 1592 Brys drive, which was destroyed by a fire last January 30 and its condition, which has concerned officials and nearby citizens alike, was viewed, with the home's owner appearing before the council.

Commence Action
The measure, which has the support of planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers in relation to preventing vacant homes in the city, requires the owner of every dwelling unit located in any residentially zoned district which has been vacant for

GP Woods Accepts Bids On Variety of Insurance

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 5, unanimously concurred in three recommendations from the Insurance Commission, accepting a trio of bids on workers' compensation insurance, group life insurance and insurance on all city buildings, et al.

On workmen's compensation, the bid of A. D. McCarthy, of East Eight Mile road, East Detroit, was accepted for three years, to be placed with Michigan Mutual Insurance Co. for the Retro plan at a cost of $52,000 per year with a minimum of $23,200 per year. This was the only bid received. Covering all employees, full-time, (around 100), and

Summer Music Festival Opens with Detroit Symphony on June 18

Twenty-First Annual Event Features Four Concerts; War Memorial's Grounds to Be Open for Picnicking Prior to Each Performance

By Irene Moran
The War Memorial opens its 21st annual Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival, a series of four concerts, on Sunday, June 18, at 7:30 p.m. The opener, staged on the War Memorial's lakeside terrace, 32 Lakeshore road, will feature the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, conducted by the orchestra's guest conductor and associate to the music director, Werner Torkanowsky.

The program will consist of the Overture to "La Gazza Ladra" by Rossini, Symphony No. 4, A Major, Opus 90 (Italian), by Mendelssohn, "Der Rosenkavalier" Suite, Opus 59, by R. Strauss and "Estancia" Dances by Ginastera.

In case of rain, the concert will be held in the Performing Arts Center of North High School, 707 Vernier road.

DeHaven Conducts
The three remaining concerts will be held on consecutive Wednesday evenings, at 8 p.m., starting July 5 with a program featuring Cynthia Raim, concert pianist.

Miss Raim, an accomplished young Detroit artist, was a protégé of Mischa Kottler and is an Interlochen veteran. She is a 1977 graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music where she studied with Mieczyslaw Horszowski and Rudolf Serkin. She will perform works by Beethoven, Chopin, Prokofiev and Schumann.

The concert will be held in the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial.

Then, July 12 will feature a Banquet of 18th-Century Orchestral Music by Detroit Symphony Orchestra members, with Frederic DeHaven conducting.

Mr. DeHaven holds the post of organist and choir-master at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. He is serving as artistic director of the festival.

He will conduct selections by Bach, Handel, Vivaldi and Mozart, with the concert being held in the Fries Ball-Ballroom.

Offers Plan To Develop Hill Area

Landscape Architect Gives Slide Presentation, Hopes for Action from Citizens, Council

By David Kramer
Dave Schervish has a plan. And it's really some plan. It's a plan that seems so far out that many might think it borders on the impossible. But it's exciting, and very real.

What is this plan that he is so excited about? It's what you might call a master plan to completely redecorate the "On-the-Hill" district of The Farms.

It's a plan that involves much more than a simple facelifting of a few stores and yet attempts to retain the character of the Hill.

And it's a plan that would definitely add something to the district, which Mr. Schervish feels is suffering from a long period of neglect and inaction.

Wants It Viewed
His plan, which is the result of a year's work, would make some pretty drastic changes in the Hill area.

For instance, he proposes several multi-level parking structures, two new office towers, some multiple family dwellings, and would you believe, a restaurant located in a tower?

But, with all the changes that would be made, he adds "the idea is not to strongly impact the character of the community."

Mr. Schervish is a landscape architect, who, as part of his requirements for a Masters degree in landscape architecture at the University of Michigan, wrote the Hill development plan for his thesis. He is a lifelong resident of The Pointe.

But he has carried it beyond the stage of academia now. He wants the plan looked at by citizens, the council and developers. In short, he would like to see his plan implemented.

Mr. Schervish has a slide presentation which he would like to show to both the council and all the residents of The Pointe. He says he has put the slide show together to "hit them, (the council and residents), over the head with the plan; to show them something visual."

At this time, he plans on showing the presentation to the entire Hill Merchants (Continued on Page 6)

Gandelot Wins School Board Seat Handily

Challenger Takes All Ten Voting Districts to Cop 3,446 to 1,426 Margin; Supporters of Winner Also Feel Result Is 'Message to The Board'

By Susan McDonald
Jon Gandelot's campaign against excessive administrative spending, large class sizes and "sledgehammer" tactics against teachers won him an overwhelming victory over incumbent Board of Education President John Bruce Jr. in the annual school election Monday, June 12.

The final tally showed Mr. Gandelot winning in each of the 10 voting districts with slightly over 70 percent of the vote. Of the 4,878 persons casting ballots, 3,446 voted for the winner, 1,426 for Mr. Bruce.

Mr. Gandelot and his supporters claimed voters had made a clear demand for a change in School Board policies with the lopsided vote.

Vigorous Campaign
"The Board has been talking a lot about accountability recently," said former Defer School principal and Gandelot supporter, Jesse Lowther. "What we see here is the people holding the School Board accountable." The new Board member, who will assume his new responsibility on Saturday, July 1, said he felt voters had responded strongly to his businesslike approach and his stands on fiscal issues.

"When a popular incumbent president like John Bruce gets beaten as badly as he did, it has to be a message to the entire Board," Mr. Gandelot claimed. "I have listened to many, many people in the last three months and I intend to keep on listening and relying less on the school administration to tell me how to vote."

Mr. Gandelot conducted a vigorous, well-organized campaign centered around several basic issues.

He challenged Mr. Bruce, and the entire School Board, on its recent decision to issue bonds to finance a building addition to South High School without first taking a vote of the people.

Recent additions to the schools' administrative staff came under his attack, as

Three-Alarm Blaze Rips Church Roof

Faulty Wiring Blamed As Cause; Caring Community Responds to Aid Parish

By David Kramer
A three-alarm fire at the 81-year-old Saint Paul Church, 157 Lakeshore road, did some $300,000 to $500,000 worth of damage to the roof and sent three firefighters to the hospital on Friday afternoon, June 9.

Farms Fire Chief Warren Schultz was taken to Cottage Hospital following the fire. He was treated for exhaustion and sent home on Monday, June 12. Firefighter Bob Sharpe was taken to Bon Secours for observation, while firefighter Gary Lutzer suffered a sprained hand while fighting the blaze.

According to Farms Fire Lt. Samuel Candela, some seven pieces of equipment and approximately 40 firemen helped to put out the blaze, which took almost five hours to completely extinguish.

Pull Out Valuables
The fire originated in the space between the roof and the false ceiling of the church. According to Msgr. Francis Canfield, pastor of Saint Paul, the fire had been smoldering some five to six hours before it was noticed at about 4:15 p.m.

The fire was blamed on faulty wiring. Damage was mostly limited to the roof and false ceiling, although the pipe organ and the floor suffered some water damage.

The alarm was called in at 4:16 p.m. when two men, one a passing motorist on Lakeshore road, and the other painting a picture on the front lawn of the Grosse Pointe Academy, saw smoke coming from the church.

The church was empty at the time the fire broke out. Maintenance men and priests quickly pulled out the valuables from the church as it burned.

Mutual aid was requested by The Farms, and firemen and equipment were brought in from all five Pointes, according to Lt. Candela. One snorkel, two aerial ladders, emy chapel instead. Firemen deliberately avoided the priceless stained glass windows in putting out the fire, which Lt. Candela said was a "hard fire to fight" due to the slate roof which held the heat inside and made it difficult to get water on the flames.

Msgr. Canfield praised the firefighters, citing their "heroic courage in working on the slanted roof. If it hadn't been for their courageous work, it would have been far, far worse."

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem of the police department said that all available police manpower was used to aid the firemen in traffic and crowd control. At the height of the blaze, rush hour traffic was rerouted when police closed off Lakeshore road and Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Lt. Candela also had words of praise for the firemen. "They did a beautiful job," he said. "I congratulate all the Pointes."

Msgr. Canfield said that all of the damage would be covered by insurance. He said it will be six to eight months before the repairs will be completed.

An examination of the church revealed that most of the plaster work will have to be replaced, in addition to much of the roof. Msgr. Canfield was thankful for "the generous response of the entire community—even those without a religion—somehow Saint Paul's means something to them. It's incredible the way the people really pour out their hearts to you."

He said that some youngsters had already volunteered to clean up the church.

He also thanked Saint Paul Lutheran, Grosse Pointe Memorial and Christ Church for offering the use of their facilities for services and weddings.

All church services are being held in the gymnasium located in Saint Paul School. An altar and organ were borrowed from the convent chapel, and baptisms will be held in the dining room of the rectory.

Msgr. Canfield said that weddings would be worked out on an individual basis. A wedding scheduled for Saturday, June 17, will be held outdoors, weather permitting, he said. Others may be held in the neighboring or downtown churches.

He said that while there were many gold plated ornaments in the church, there was no "gold" as was reported in the "Detroit Free Press."

Gandelot Wins School Election

"Grass Roots Effort" The local teachers' union—which played an influential role in last year's race—stayed away this year, but Mr. Gandelot received strong support from many Pointe teachers and former staff members on an individual basis.

He charged there were serious morale problems among teachers who, he alleges, are being thrown into an adversary role with the administration by "negativism and pettiness."

Gandelot campaign manager Stuart Dow said at least 200 persons were recruited to work on the campaign in the final weeks, indicating to him "that it was a real grass roots effort."

The incumbent, on the other hand, conducted a somewhat lackadaisical campaign. He avoided the traditional "tea party circuit" and had been put on the defensive by many of Mr. Gandelot's challenges to recent Board decisions.

Mr. Bruce said he was obviously disappointed by the vote, but added he was proud of his four years of service on the Board.

"Mr. Gandelot ran a campaign that dealt with issues, just as he said he would. I have full confidence he'll do an excellent job and I wish him the best," Mr. Bruce said. His colleagues on the Board were openly disappointed with the results, too, but most expressed a willingness to work with the new member.

Bruce Praised "The loss of John Bruce's services on the School Board is a loss to the entire community," said Trustee Joan Hanpeter. "As a former teacher, John was able to interpret education to the Board. All of the community is indebted to him for his four years of service."

The vote, by precinct, follows:

- Barnes: 115 Bruce, 277 Gandelot.
  - Defer: 200 Bruce, 201 Gandelot.
  - Ferry: 106 Bruce, 380 Gandelot.
  - Kerby: 221 Bruce, 488 Gandelot.
  - Maire: 192 Bruce, 350 Gandelot.
  - Monteith: 110 Bruce, 356 Gandelot.
  - Mason: 60 Bruce, 344 Gandelot.
  - Poupard: 61 Bruce, 135 Gandelot.
  - Richard: 201 Bruce, 564 Gandelot.
  - Trombly: 120 Bruce, 226 Gandelot.
- Absentee balloting was 40 for Bruce and 125 for Gandelot. There also were three votes for Mickey Mouse and three spoiled ballots.
- The total turnout, 4,878, represents slightly more than 10 percent of the registered voters.

GPW Accepts Insurance Bids

On group life insurance, affecting all full-time employees, the council concurred in the recommendation in accepting the bid, for three years, of the Dennehy Agency Inc., of East Jefferson avenue, to be placed with the Sun Life Insurance Co. at 398 cents per $1,000.

The main focus of coverage includes accidental death, incorporating double indemnity, and dismemberment.

While most areas of insurance have been going up, Mr. Hornfisher said group life for the city has been dropping. It's 45 cents per $1,000 this year and has been as high as 49 cents in the recent past. He felt, in this respect, life insurance was "one of the best plums" in relation to cost.

A total of 17 bids were considered on group life insurance.

Finally, the solons accepted the package deal, awarded to the low bidder for three years, with the Dennehy Agency again the agent. It was placed with the National Ben Franklin Insurance Co. of Michigan at a cost of $88,657.

The coverage includes all city buildings and contents, voting machines, boiler and machinery, liability and automobiles, et. al.

Considering rising costs in this specific area, (the only other bid reached $119,390), Mr. Hornfisher considered the figure to be a good one. "I know of some who charge between $150,000 to $200,000, and the city has been with Dennehy for six years," he stated.

This year, the city is paying around $67,000 but he feels the increased cost isn't "too bad" considering inflation.

One of the big questions which concerned the Insurance Commission was the fact that the city would be assured of coverage over the next three years, and that question has been answered. "We're fortunate," Mr. Hornfisher added. "They were all very good bids."

REMS Pointe To Celebrate

REMS Pointe, the local chapter of the national Multiple Sclerosis Society, will celebrate its third anniversary Monday, June 19, at Saint Michaels Episcopal Church, 20475 Sunningdale drive, at 7:30 p.m.

For further information, call Stanley Netski at 526-8810.

Torch Explodes Can of Gasoline

A gas can exploded in a garage of a Shores home Thursday afternoon, June 8, while a man was working on a garage door with a cutting torch, according to a Shores Public Safety Department report.

Richard Lee Hawkins of the Hawkins Garage Door Co. told authorities the can was at least 20 feet from him at the time. He ran to the open door, got a car out and tried to smother the flames with a carpet.

Sgt. James Jurcak put out the blaze with the booster line and was aided by Cpl. Dan Fronczak and Officers Ronald Klotz and Bruce Darlington.

No one was hurt in the incident with authorities reporting smoke damage to the attached garage, laundry room, a bedroom and the kitchen at the home of Richard Russell of 82 Greenbrier lane.

Center Offers Disco Dances

Ricky Dove is running three Friday night disco dances at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, on Fridays, June 23, July 7 and August 18, at 8:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom.

Couples and singles are both invited. The series of three Friday evenings is $15 while a single evening is $6.

For further information, call 881-7511.

To Bless Fleet At Farms Pier

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club will host the annual "Blessing of the Fleet" at the Farms Pier Park on Sunday, June 18. All Farms residents are invited to participate.

In conjunction with the event, the Coast Guard Auxiliary will conduct safety inspections at the invitation of the boat owner and award a window decal to those boats passing the inspection.

As has been widely publicized, the Coast Guard is giving tickets that carry a severe fine to those boats that do not have all the safety equipment proscribed by law. This is an opportunity to make sure that as a boat owner or operator, each conforms.

Prior to the ceremony, and for the members of the Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club, that organization is sponsoring its yearly pancake breakfast. Chairpersons for the day's activities are Angie and Joe Crea.

Farms Council Hears Appeals

By David Kramer
Two zoning variances were granted, a third modified and one refused by the Farms Council at its regular meeting on Monday, June 5.

Frank Bromley of Mapleton road was granted permission to build a room at the rear of his home although zoning ordinances prohibited it. The council granted the variance on the grounds that the extremely small lot size constituted a hardship.

Thomas Matyniak of Carver road was granted permission to place an air conditioning condensing unit at the side yard of his home. Mr. Matyniak had received verbal okay from his neighbors on the subject.

Meanwhile, Jon Clark of Beverly road appealed to the council for permission to build an eight-foot fence around his back yard, which is located at the intersection of Fisher road and Grosse Pointe boulevard.

A memo from Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber recommended that the fence not be built for traffic safety reasons. However, Chief Ferber said he would agree to the fence if it included certain modifications.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman objected to the height of the proposed fence.

"If everybody had an eight-foot fence our community would look like a fortress," she said. "I can't buy anything on a residential street over six feet."

Mr. Clark was granted permission to build a six-foot fence which incorporated some of Chief Ferber's modifications, e.g., placement.

The council then turned down a request from Rose Terrace, Inc., for a variance to install an exterior cellar door on a home being built on lot 15 of the subdivision.

Robert Wood, architect of the structure, told the council that "it seemed like a good idea for an emergency exit."

However, council members remained firm in their opposition to the scheme, which would have been in violation of the rear lot line clearance.

Miss Grosse Pointe Takes Part in State Pageant

By Roger A. Waha
The performing arts have played a big part in her life and now Debbie Lisotto, 18, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1977-78, faces her biggest challenge this week when she represents the community in the Miss Michigan Pageant in Muskegon.

A South High School graduate, she's currently a freshman at Indiana State University majoring in music and she ultimately hopes to pursue special education in the area of speech and hearing with a minor in music.

Her ultimate goal is to combine special education and her love for music and become a music therapist.

Miss Lisotto's interest in music dates back to the age of two years when she began to play the piano, along with dance and art lessons. Having already studied piano for nine years with Ruth Burczyk, her initial emphasis was in classical piano and now she's broadened her base to include popular music.

At South, she played with the jazz band, accompanied the chorus for four years on the piano and as a singer and was a member of the Tower Belles.

Last year, Miss Lisotto wasn't only crowned Miss Grosse Pointe but also won the talent competition for her performance of the "Ritual Fire Dance" by De-Falla, the same selection she will present at the state pageant.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lisotto of Buckingham road, she said last week she is looking forward to the event, not only in representing the community, but in meeting the other young ladies, in competing with them and in learning from them.

Unplashed by the Miss Grosse Pointe title, Miss Lisotto stated it hasn't affected her personally, while adding, "Everyone likes to be noticed and with the title there's more recognition. But it hasn't changed me as a person."

Her life has been one of many moves until she reached The Pointe six years ago and started Pierce School as a seventh grader. "I was born in Hartford, Conn., moved to Wisconsin, Illinois, Grand Rapids, Detroit and finally Grosse Pointe," she said.

"I've lived in big cities all my life and Grosse Pointe is a suburb of a big city. It's different, quieter," she noted, while citing the beauty of the area, its trees and its location near Lake St. Clair.

With the state event foremost in her mind, she fondly recalled how she first became involved in the local pageant last year.

Miss Lisotto said she was playing with the South High Stage Band at a dinner and Mrs. Gilbert Finger, who, along with Mrs. Carter Billiu, are her chaperones, suggested she should think about participating in the event.

"I laughed as I never thought of it but she started calling me and I felt I would give it a try," she stated.

Besides the fact of a $500 scholarship toward her education, Miss Lisotto stressed, "It offered me another new experience in performance which I have never done before."

And with her participation at the state pageant, which concludes Saturday, June 17, with the finals, she will have yet another performance experience.

GPW to Select Contest Winner

The winner of the Woods Beautification Commission's Flag Contest is scheduled to be announced at the Monday, June 19, council meeting.

As an aid in helping the council decide the winner, Jean Rice, Othello Colechia and Michael Zoiik, flag design committee members, submitted some information to the solons on Monday, June 5, toward helping them determine the winner.

Mrs. Rice presented 16 designs for the council's consideration, with participants ranging in age from 14 to over 50 years. The first prize is $50, while the second and third prize winners will receive $25. She said the prize money has been donated by the Grosse Pointe Merchant's Ass'n.

Suggestions from the committee included the following: the flag should be bold in design and color, it should reflect the sense of the community and that complexities of design and use of color add to cost.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos also praised Mrs. Rice and other commission members involved in the project for their interest and work.

A 26-year-old Detroit man received a sentence of 21 to 35 years in prison on a robbery armed, (R/A), charge and two years in prison on the commission of a felony with a firearm stemming from his involvement in a robbery at Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, last July.

Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel reported that Roderick Simpson of San Juan was sentenced before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Victor Baum on Wednesday, May 31. As a result, the case was cleared and closed by police.

In the same incident, Suzanne Barber, 28, of Washburn, Detroit, was sentenced to two years in prison on the firearm charge and from two to 10 years in prison on the R/A charge last October, the detective noted.

An estimated $115,000 in precious stones and around $3,000 in cash was taken from the store. About $2,000 worth of jewelry has been recovered.

Kiwanis Club Seeks Funds

Robert B. Frederick, chairman of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis fund raising committee, has called for generous contributions in response to the Independence Day solicitation letter soon to be distributed to residents of the area.

Within the next few weeks, a July 4 solicitation letter will be distributed by the Kiwanis Club asking for contributions to be mailed in an envelope addressed to the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis.

Mr. Frederick stated that rising inflation affects the amount of money available for distribution to the recipients of Kiwanis' aid.

Additionally, the Kiwanis Club is attempting to raise sufficient sums to cover the cost of purchasing replacement busses for those already in use.

"The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis hopes to raise enough money this year to fund its continuing programs of financial aid, plus to set aside a sum to purchase a new bus, as well as seek out other areas of financial aid beneficial to our community," the chairman said.

All residents who will be contacted by the Kiwanis are encouraged to make a special effort to raise their contribution this year, officials add.

Center Slating Dixie Concerts

The War Memorial will present two pop Dixieland open air concerts on its lake-side terrace and lawn this summer.

The first will be Sunday, June 25, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and will feature Grosse Pointe's own Tom Saunders on trumpet and his "Surf Side Six."

The group plays regularly at the Presidential Inn and has toured nationally, with Mr. Saunders getting his start right in the War Memorial basement in what used to be the Youth Council's "Bluefoot Inn."

Everyone who enjoys jazz, good rhythms and an up-swing beat is urged to come on down and bring his own picnic hamper, thermos or cooler and enjoy the music. Grounds open at 6 p.m. for picnicking. Shoes may be discarded and dancing on the lawn will be definitely "in," while those who'd rather just listen and watch the show and marine view can do that, too. Admission is $3.

On Thursday evening, August 10, from 8 to 10 p.m. the second Dixieland Concert will take place featuring Chet Bogan and his Wolverine Dixieland Band with soloist Dixie Belle singing the songs of the Roaring Twenties.

The Dixieland Concerts will go on on schedule even if it rains. Picnics, refreshments and music will be moved inside the air conditioned ballroom.

Advance ticket purchase for the Dixieland Concerts will be appreciated to insure their success, the Center adds.

GPW, Harvey Agree on Pact

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods Council unanimously approved an agreement with Harvey Animal Hospital, 18479 Mack avenue, covering fees for boarding and disposing of stray animals.

This action was taken at the regular meeting on Monday, June 5.

The pact indicates the city's desire to utilize the facilities of the hospital, while both parties agree to the following:

- * That Harvey's shall board animals turned over to the hospital by the city and shall charge $4 per day for small animals for five days, $5 per day for large animals for five days and $12 for disposal of an unclaimed animal after five days.

- * That the city shall hold Harvey and its owners harmless against any claim brought by the owner of any animal disposed of at the city's request.

Harvey also shall advise the city in writing within 10 days of receipt of notice of any such claim and to cooperate with the city in the defense of such claim.

Dr. M. P. Lipson, in noting that fees were previously $3 per day for both small and large dogs, along with disposal, cited the increased costs of disposing of unclaimed animals and the normal inflationary situation which made the increases necessary.

In past years, Harvey's received animals from The Woods, City and Farms but now only receives strays from The Woods, Dr. Lipson said.

We have to keep stray animals for at least 72 hours as this is the state law, he continued, while noting, "We rarely dispose of a dog if we can help it."

Obviously, a diseased animal is disposed of, but the hospital makes every effort to keep a dog or cat as long as it can in the hope its owner will claim it. Dr. Lipson also stated efforts are often made to find an animal a home.

The frustrations to everyone involved in coping with the stray dog problem has reached points of incredulosity at Harvey as Dr. Lipson revealed that dogs have been delivered with tags from Kentucky, Indiana, and Chicago, Ill.

In fact, because of the booming dog population in Los Angeles, Cal., Dr. Lipson added he read where officials there are considering an ordinance permitting only one animal, i.e., dog or cat, per household. Most cities usually permit two animals.

Thieves Enter Hardware Store

Thieves entered Lochmoor Hardware, 20779 Mack avenue, and took a CO2 German luger pistol for pellets, B-B's and darts, valued at $50, an estimated $10 in change from the cash register and miscellaneous staple guns, according to Woods police.

The incident was reported Wednesday morning, June 7.

In his report, Officer Wayne Baum said the building was entered through the rear door by cutting a padlock and then forcing a remaining exterior mounted key lock. No obvious fresh pry marks were evident.

Hill Improvement Viewed

Pointer DAVID W. SCHERVISH, of Schervish Associates, shows part of his plan to renovate the Hill shopping district. The plan, which took a year's work to complete, was originally made for Mr. Schervish's Masters degree requirements in landscape architecture. He would now like residents to take a serious look at it.

Offers Big Proposal

(Continued from Page 1) Ass'n. on Thursday, June 22, and the council will be invited. Then, another presentation will be set for the citizenry.

He showed his slides to representatives of the NEWS, Cottage Hospital Administrator Ralph Wilgarde, Cottage Comptroller Robert MacDonald, Robert G. Edgar, of R. G. Edgar and Associates, realtors, and businessman Danforth Holley at his office in the Colonial Federal Building On-the-Hill.

In addition, Mr. Schervish said that a few members from the Hill Merchants Ass'n. have already viewed the presentation.

All the viewers responded positively to the plan, he noted, although there was some question as to whether the residents and the council would accept it.

Mr. Schervish has no price tag on his plan, which would involve considerably more cost than the plan viewed by The Farms a year ago. That plan, drawn up by John Grissim of John Grissim and Associates, had an estimated $15 million price tag.

He did suggest, however, that the money could be raised through the use of municipal bonds or by private development.

Mr. Schervish has some definite ideas about what he would like to see happen On-the-Hill.

For one thing, he would like to see Kercheval avenue more conducive to pedestrians. He would accomplish this by setting "planters" with benches out into the street. Most of the on-street parking could be maintained this way, he says, which wouldn't be available if the sidewalks were simply widened.

He has drawn many of his ideas from such cities as Palm Beach, Fla., Monterey and Carmel, Cal. The ideas of a variety of shops "hidden" down corridors and passageways are particularly appealing to him, and he has incorporated them into his plans.

The stores located on the block between Fisher and McKinley avenue need to be brought together with those further up the Hill, he thinks.

To do this, Mr. Schervish proposes that a parking structure be built in what is now the Richard School playground, with stores located on the street level. He also proposes an "architectural unification" of the lower hill stores. This would involve giving the shops a more contemporary and common theme.

Perhaps the most unusual aspect of Mr. Schervish's plan is his proposed "view tower restaurant." It would be located on what is now South High School's playing field, across the alley from the old service station.

He would leave some buildings on the upper Hill, such as the NEWS office and Arthur Paselk's Florist, as they are, thus retaining some historic character. The others, particularly Salem Square Market, he would like to see made more pleasing to the eye.

The Standard station at the top of the Hill would have to go, he says, and be replaced with an outdoor restaurant. The service station could be relocated to where the empty Sunoco station presently is.

Between the Standard station and Muir road Mr. Schervish proposes two office towers, perhaps connected over present driveway to the parking area by a pedestrian bridge. And, where the special permit parking lot behind McMillan Field now is, he suggests some luxury apartments and another "anchor" store to draw more business to the top of the Hill.

The store should be one which would cater to a Pointe clientele, such as Saks or Neiman-Marcus. Other features of the plan include setting Mike Dilber's car lot back from the road slightly and placing a fountain behind the sidewalk, small "pocket" shops in the empty lot by Picard-Norton and the use of brick to break up the harsh look of concrete and asphalt.

Mr. Schervish feels that the Hill needs a more diverse combination of businesses. At present, there is too great a concentration of realtors in the district, he says.

An ambitious plan? Yes, and he is determined to do something toward seeing it implemented.

"When we don't plan ahead, things just slowly degenerate," he said.

Jim Oberliesen, Community Relations Manager, reminds you:

There are things you can do to control the cost of your phone bill.

We are constantly searching for ways to help you economize on your phone service, but here are just a few ideas on how you can help yourself

Call when it's least expensive. For example, when you're calling long distance, dial direct and plan your calls for times when the rates are lowest.

Budget Service that's really low budget! Look into the availability of Budget Service if you don't make a lot of phone calls every month. It's the least expensive one-or-two party phone service we offer.

Plan to have all your service installed in one visit. For instance, if you move, plan carefully so the installer doesn't have to make extra trips, for which you may have to pay additional charges. And while you're planning for new service, make sure it's going to be the kind most suited to your needs.

Sometimes, little tips can save you a surprising amount over the long haul. We'll keep trying to help you save.

Home Owners Name Leaders

The annual meeting of the Audubon-Whittier Property Owners Ass'n. was held at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Thursday, June 8.

President Don Berschback introduced George P. Johnson, 90, honorary life member, who is remembered for his Christmas displays at his Whittier road home over the years, as well as his garden and back yard picnics for his neighbors.

Others present were Goldie Ballerini, who helped organize the group in 1941, along with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Eugene.

Four block directors on the two streets who will remain in office for one more year are Bruno Domzalski, Bill Mortimer, Hank Gilliam and David Linn.

New directors elected were Tom Strobel, Ken Szymczak, Alan Hart and R. Frank Unger.

Park Municipal Judge Beverly Grobbel spoke of interests and problems in The Park.

At the directors meeting, immediately following the annual meeting, the following officers were elected for 1978-1979: Herb Schervish, president; Mr. Domzalski, vice-president; and Mr. Linn, treasurer. June Amluxen will continue as secretary.

New Law Views Vacant Dwellings

In applying for a permit, the owner would have to fill out an application form provided by the department and pay a $5 fee. Included in the application are explanations on the reason for the vacancy and a statement of the owner's intent regarding securing an occupant for the dwelling.

The ordinance also eyes permit conditions, expiration of permit and renewal, (upon the application of the owner and the payment of $5, a permit may be extended once for a 90-day period after a determination is made by the building inspector that the vacancy is not due to the owner's fault), revocation of permit and appeals of revocation.

It also contains sections on demolition of unlicensed vacant dwelling units, procedures for ordering demolition, a public hearing by the city and demolition by the city.

On the latter section, following a public hearing, the council, if it has determined not to extend the time for commencing demolition, or upon the expiration of any extension so granted, may direct that action be commenced in Wayne County Circuit Court seeking abatement of the nuisance and authority for the city to remove the building.

Will Perform Work
All costs incurred in seeking such court determination and in the demolition and removal of the structure and accessory buildings shall be a lien upon the premises and may, upon council resolution, be carried to the tax rolls as a special assessment, the ordinance says.

At the end of the meeting, William Sandercott, who owns the home in Brys drive, responded to several questions from the council on the status of repairs.

He attended the meeting in response to a communication from City Attorney George Catlin in relation to the new law and the possibility that legal proceedings could be started by the city if nothing was done on the repair front.

Last summer, Mr. Sandercott purchased the home and in November a permit was issued to him by the city for rebuilding. The permit is good for six months and if no action transpires, it becomes void.

In the meantime, some work has been done but apparently not enough to satisfy officials and some residents in the immediate area.

Mr. Sandercott told the council he has started work and intends to repair the entire structure and bring it up to code by Christmas. Mr. Catlin pointed out that the last work was done some four weeks ago and since that time nothing further had transpired.

Review Situation
Further discussions held after the meeting resolved nothing, (with the potential use of a city truck to pick up debris), stated Mr. Catlin, who noted he will watch the situation and report back to the council within 30 days. There's really nothing until the 120 days go by, he continued, in relation to the new law. Mr. Catlin stated once the ordinance becomes fully operative, the city will have some measure of control in such cases.

In the meantime, Mr. Catlin is exploring the subject of building permits in relation to control. At this stage, a building permit is valid if work is started within six months from the time a permit is taken out.

He plans on recommending to the council a change in which a permit will automatically expire in six months if work isn't completed. A section on a time extension also is being considered.

Meanwhile, a citizen questioned the intent of the new law, expressing a concern over potential harassment. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stressed there's no intention to harass.

"If we find the law to be arbitrary or capricious, we will amend the ordinance," he said, while adding, "We need enforcement, (of such a law), to avoid deterioration. It's not for nitpicking purposes."

Nurse Is Tops at Bon Secours

Pediatrics head nurse Pat Eagan was named Bon Secours Hospital's employee of the year during the annual award banquet held recently at the War Memorial.

Miss Eagan joined Bon Secours in 1952 as a staff nurse. Since then, she has often worked with community groups concerned about family health and made significant contributions to the hospital's pediatrics program.

Presenting the award, Lawrence C. Redouty, associate administrator, remarked, "She is a planner and the new hospital bears the fruit of her labor. She has a reputation for being committed, hardworking and conscientious and she has built these qualities in others."

The Richard C. Connelly Education Award was presented to Gary Williams, RN, who joined Bon Secours immediately following naval service in 1971. Since then, he has used the hospital's tuition reimbursement program to extend his nursing education and is presently working toward a Master's degree.

The Suggestion of the Year Award was presented to Janet Controulis, RN, who recognized a more efficient and economical use of patient materials.

In addition to these awards, service awards were presented to employees who have worked at Bon Secours for five, 10, 15 and 20 years.

Twenty-year awards were presented to Ann Beauchene, Betty Pistrisky, Eleanor Eichbrecht, Peggy Fillmore, Mary Janovich, Bruno Jasevicius, Virginia Rector and Helen Volz.

Fifteen-year awards were earned by Anna Curran, Lenore Henrion, Carol Kapusnak, Leona Omeye, Patricia Richards, Hildegard Schlegel, Gladys Stolzenfeld and Jean Woelfel.

Ten-year awards were received by Bernice Cooper, Genevieve Edwards, Jean Ellis, Joanne Garvin, Margaret Lesperance, Marion Marion, Ruth Mirabile and Dolores Oberly.

Five-year awards were presented to Alice Anderson, Deborah Bagnasco, Jack Cole, Patricia Cote, Dante Despiert, Mark Diener, Valerie Eliopoulos, Dale Eltringham, Donald Fisher, Gary George, Karen Golden, Judith Gruenwald, Penny Gruber, Artie Gutzman, Marge Herwick and Elizabeth Hollifield.

More five-year award winners were Elenita Juco, Marie Kurtz, Barbara Lux, Lucille Maynard, Marie McNulty, Linda Mitzel, Paul Ninness, Enriqueta Padua, David Paye, Alice Plotzka, Mary Rabbish, Bernardita Reyes, Jean Ricker and Edward Sacre.

Still more winning five-year honors were Terri Sandercott, Patricia Shefferly, Becky Tranchida, Marie Tocco, Virginia Wehby, Illene Wnukowska and Kathleen Zebrowski.

Offer Tickets For Pine Knob

The hottest ticket in the state this summer may be for the summer series at the Pine Knob Music Theater, reports War Memorial Center officials.

Last year Pine Knob established new records for attendance and this season they anticipate topping that.

Pine Knob has been so successful over the years, they have expanded the number of acts for this coming season. Some of the performers include Neil Diamond, Foreigner, Crosby Stills and Nash, Dolly Parton, Steve Martin, Frank Sinatra, the Beach Boys and Peter Paul and Mary, plus a dozen others.

Pine Knob is so confident of this year's summer series, they are already forecasting a complete sellout for each performance — almost 20 weeks worth of acts.

Pointers should know, however, that the War Memorial has 50 season tickets for over a dozen of the concerts. Tickets range from $15 to $21 per concert and include free parking at the Center, round trip bus transportation, (except for Foreigner), and reserved seats in the Pavilion.

Tickets are on a first-come, first-serve basis and can be acquired at the front desk of the Center, 32 Lake Shore road.

Year End Feast For Latin Club

South High School Latin Club members donned the traditional Roman garb of togas and stolas to celebrate an authentic Roman Banquet last month at the home of Carol Vulpe in Bishop road.

The banquet consisted of traditional Roman dishes in three courses: olives, carrots and deviled eggs for appetizers; ham, beans and stone ground bread for the main course, and fruit and nuts for dessert.

The students entertained themselves with a Latin singing-a-long, games of mythology bingo and a musical performance by the "Tarnished Brass" band.

The 60 member Latin Club is sponsored by South Tech or Ward Christlieb. It is a chapter of two national Latin organizations

Cyclist Injured in LS Accident

A 17-year-old cyclist was struck and injured in a collision with a car at the Willow Tree place-Lakeshore road intersection on Monday, May 29, a Shores Public Safety Department accident report revealed.

Injured was Paul David Wolff of Flanders, Warren, who suffered severe gashes to his left leg and head. He was conveyed to Saint John Hospital by Shores ambulance where 14 stitches were needed to close the wound on the leg and six for the head cut. He was released after treatment.

According to an accident report, PSO Bruce Darlington and PSO John Trevillian were dispatched to the scene when a report to The Shores station disclosed that a youth riding a motorized bicycle and a car had collided. PSO Harry Hamilton, who was cruising in the area, also arrived at the scene.

The driver of the car, Brian Thorton Moody of Willow Tree place, who was not blamed for the mishap, told the officers he was driving toward Lakeshore, and was about to make a right turn onto the road when he saw a child crossing the street.

Mr. Moody said he stopped and motioned the child to continue crossing, then he drove a little further and came to a stop for a stop sign. He said he crept up, because of a high hedge blocking his view, to see if any traffic was coming.

"I crept up to see if any traffic was coming," he said, "when I heard and felt the car jolt. I looked and saw a kid flying over part of the hood, and then fall to the pavement. The kid was on a motorized bicycle, (moped)."

Mr. Moody said his vision was obscured by the hedge. He said he "saw the first kid's head, but did not see the other kid."

Officers investigating at the scene measured the privet hedge and found it to be about 40" high, extending north and south along southbound Lakeshore and even with the sidewalk on the inside. About 18' south of the intersection, the hedge was 48" high, even when trimmed.

Mr. Moody was released after making a statement at the station. An investigation also is being conducted to determine if the hedge was too high and in violation of a Village ordinance.

GP Jaycees Install New Officers, Give Awards

The 1978-79 board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Jaycees recently took the oath of office at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

In administering the oath, immediate past president Wally Helin ended what was termed another successful year for the organization, which was recognized by the Michigan Jaycees as a "Blue Chip Chapter" for the fourth consecutive year.

Mr. Helin presented several awards at the banquet. The first award presented, "Jaycee of the Year," went to incoming president John Chouinard. The "Keyman" award was then presented to Dave Zak.

The C. William Brownfield award, in recognition of the outstanding first year member, went to Archie King. The John H. Armbruster award, for the outstanding member of more than one year, was presented to Mike Kastner.

Then the outstanding director plaque went to Louis Zedan and the Outstanding Officer award was presented to Mr. Chouinard.

The Jaycees Outstanding Project award went to Tom Sullivan, chairman of their monthly publication, the "Call and Post." Mr. Helin then presented the Outstanding Committee award to Mike Kastner, chairman of the "Monte Carlo Night" committee. Continuing, the Outstanding Chairman award was presented to Chuck LaVeglia, chairman of the Jaycees "Jelly Week Project," proceeds of which are given to the Grosse Pointe Ass'n. for Retarded Citizens, and the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Exceptional Children.

UL Students See Detroit

The fifth grade at University Liggett, (UL), School recently spent two days visiting and touring Detroit in a program planned and arranged by Mrs. Marshall Noecker of Warner road and Mrs. Robert Sweeney of Doyle place.

The children visited East-ern Market and had a two-hour tour of the City-County Building. Visits were made to the mayor's office, Judge Arthur Brown's courtroom, a city council meeting and to Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner.

A lunch and tour of historic Greek Town followed. The afternoon found the youngsters and their chaperones at the Renaissance Center where they toured the NBD Money Museum, law offices of Dykema, Gosset, Spencer, Goodnow and Trigg and the Plaza Hotel. Topping the day off was dinner at the Summit.

Then, the children had an opportunity to tour the Ford Rouge Plant. Luncheon at the Scarab Club followed and the youngsters visited several studios and talked with artist Joseph Maniscalco.

Featured at the new Detroit Science Center that afternoon was the movie "Cosmos" shown in a circular amphitheater on the same kind of projectors used to film "Star Wars."

A bus tour of historic Indian Village, Belle Isle, the New Center Area and the Medical Center followed.

Suspects Held to Face Trial

Two Detroit men were bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on a charge of robbery armed, with an added count of commission of a felony with a firearm, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel.

This action was taken at the Woods Municipal Court examination of Ricky Cohen, 26, of Mayberry and Goodman Johnson Jr., 27, of East Vernor on Wednesday, June 7, stemming from their alleged involvement in the robbery of Onassis, Coney Island, 20760 Mack avenue, shortly after midnight Monday, May 29.

Det. Hamel said Cohen's bond was reduced from $30,000 to $15,000, two sureties or 10 percent.

He stated last week both suspects are currently being held in the Wayne County Jail, pending their scheduled pre-trial date of Thursday, June 22.

The suspects, who allegedly terrorized employees and customers and escaped with an estimated $800 in cash and some personal belongings of restaurant occupants, were arrested a short time later by Park police.

They were stopped, after

Woods police broadcast a description of the wanted vehicle and the suspects, by Park Officers Howard Carl and Timothy Mink at Devonshire and Brunswick.

Both Cohen and Johnson also are under investigation by Detroit police for allegedly abducting a woman in Detroit prior to the robbery for the use of her car.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

There is much talk about warranties when purchasing a "used" home. Are they worth it? Well, anything that works on a "buy" basis such as insurance and warranties can be evaluated fairly easily. We know the buy ratio of the warranty that we put on every one of Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s listings. It's a buying proposition for "E.R.A.", who underwrites the warranty, in the Grosse Pointe area. We worry that we might lose our franchise but have been assured that otherwise.

It just so happens that we have had one very unusual claim, regarding hot water system and furnace. The claim has amounted to nearly three grand dollars.

What we're getting at with all this is that the warranty is a heck of a damn good one. Next time you are listing a home for sale, a warranty tells the new purchaser not to worry. If the furnace blows up and requires thousands of dollars to replace or repair, it will be taken care of by the "E.R.A." warranty. It's a fantastic peace of mind. Plus this it eliminates possible law suits over whose responsibility it should be and whether there was misrepresented by the seller, etc. etc.

Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. is the only company who can offer purchasers a one year conditional $100,000 warranty. Wouldn't it make sense to buy from them? Call us for more details. 882 0087.

Board of Education Raises Adult Tuition

The Board of Education approved a hike in adult tuition rates in the Department of Community Services Monday, June 12.

It will now cost $1, rather than 75 cents, for one hour of adult education. Director Carl Schoessel said the rate increase is aimed at making community services a totally self-supporting segment of the schools.

Another tuition increase, to $1.25 per hour, is expected in about one year toward that aim.

At the same time, School

Board Trustee Laurance Harwood asked Mr. Schoessel to look into ways that community service courses may be offered to Pointe senior citizens free of charge.

Mr. Schoessel said he will report back to the Board on that request at a later date.

Probation Program Receives Boost

one year to see if it works as outlined.

Decidedly pleased over the council's action, Judge Grobbel stressed, "We have a tremendous need in this area," while noting The Park's initiative in this respect might spur the other Pointes to participate.

As planned, she hopes the program, with its focus on a part-time professional director along with a full-time secretary, will officially start Saturday, July 1, with headquarters in The Park Municipal Building.

The next step is to get together past records, (the program was founded in July 1974 as a non-profit corporation), and set up the new plan. Along with the logistical adjustments, a main objective is to hire the part-time director, take on more volunteers, (around 40 currently participate), and retain other volunteers as necessary.

In her report, Judge Grobbel provided the following budget breakdown: salary and fringes, $20,500; payroll tax, $1,700; insurance, $1,000; telephone, $800; supplies, $500; and mileage and parking, $500.

Satisfy Expertise

After citing the organizational structure in the area of control and reporting procedures, (including a list of the board of directors, present director Jean Anderson, staff coordinators and volunteers), Judge Grobbel said both pre-sentence investigations and periodic meetings between volunteer probation workers and probationers are conducted and supervised by staff coordinators who report to the director.

The board of directors, which include all four Pointe municipal judges, operate as a policy making board.

In viewing The Park's case load, i.e., pre-sentence investigations and probationers, she reported 121 individuals were assisted in 1976 and 94 last year.

"It should be noted that the use of probation as a tool by the court was in a limited use because of the lack of professional expertise at the level of director. The purpose for this request of funding from the various municipalities is to satisfy that professional expertise," she pointed out.

On the question of probation cost offset, Judge Grobbel said, "It is my estimate that the cost imposed upon convicted defendants will offset cost of funding for the city" toward the goal of making the program self-supporting.

Try to Recover

For example, she noted, 50 probationers with $20 oversite fees per month would return $12,000 to The Park through the program, upon an initial cost of $6,632.50. "In addition, costs of appointed counsel and restitution could also be recovered through the probation office."

If any municipality decides not to contribute to the program, probation services to such non-contributing cities would be charged at the rate of $175 per pre-sentence and $240 for supervised probation, with such charges further defraying the cost of operation, she said.

According to the population criteria, the other Pointes would pay the following costs: The Woods, $9,312.50; The Farms, $4,975; The City, $2,805; and The Shores, $1,275.

At the meeting, Judge Grobbel responded to several questions from the council. Mayor Matthew C. Patterson asked if the city's share would pay for itself or would costs come out of the amount?

"There are always additional costs incurred along the way. Once they are done, there will be no problem," said Judge Grobbel. "We will have very little equipment, and we have some funding promised for such equipment."

"I believe, in my best judgment, that we will be self-supporting."

In relation to obtaining oversite fees from all probationers, she stated this was unlikely. However, the judge emphasized an objective will be to find a probationer a job so he or she will be responsible for such a fee.

Mr. Patterson also asked if there was any duplication of service with the probation program and the Youth Service Division, (YSD).

Stressing the need for the court to remain independent from local police departments, Judge Grobbel stated, "The whole purpose is to have total separation. There will be no duplication. The YSD handles young people up to 16 years and we start from 17 on up."

On the question of federal funding, several points were mentioned including the negative feelings of many officials to go this route, along with the distinction, pointed out by Mr. Patterson and Judge Grobbel, that such funding in specifically viewing the municipal courts is different from other areas, although the prevailing feeling of all the judges, as indicated, was to go to the communities.

All Will Work

Both the mayor and the judge also questioned why the YSD couldn't be funded in such a fashion, feeling that this matter should be explored.

Reiterating the definite, and desperate, need for the program on a local level, Judge Grobbel told the council facts and figures on the plan will be shared regularly with officials.

We will set up a secretary, (bonded), to take in the money, with accounting procedures being set up so all councils will receive reports, she stated, while adding, "In every way, we will show you how accountable we are."

While feeling, realistically, that the $25,000 figure really isn't enough, the judge pledged to "get every dime's worth of work out of everyone or they won't work at all."

Wine Lines

by John Lundberg

You don't have to buy the bottles labelled "cooking wines" that you find in many food stores to get wine to cook with. These bottles often contain sugar or salt and most good cooks prefer using real wine to cook with. But, this doesn't mean that cooking with wine has to be expensive. Keep the cork from bottles of wine you serve, and if there is any wine left over after you serve it, recork the bottle and put it in your refrigerator for cooking use. Red wines can be stored for cooking for at least one week, and white wines for much longer. Even sparkling wines that have gone flat in the refrigerator are fine for cooking.

At PARKER'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 we have wines for cooking and drinking and will be happy to advise you on which to use for which. Our inventory includes a top collection of imported and domestic wines as well as the full spectrum of liquors and party goods. See us for suggestions for Father's Day giving; we can custom create a gift basket with wines, cheeses and snacks to suit Dad's taste and your budget. Open 10-10 Mon-Thurs; 10-11 Fri. & Sat.

HELPFUL HINT:
Gourmets recommend serving the same kind of wine you cook with. For such an occasion, use the best.

The White Sox captured the first half championship with a record of 9-1 including three shutouts. The standings for the other teams and their won-loss records show the Indians, 6-4; Yankees, 5-5; Tigers, 4-6; Red Sox, 3-7; and Angels, 3-7.

In the first week of the season's second half, the Yankees and Indians took a one game lead last week with records of 2-0. The White Sox and Tigers are close behind at 1-1. The Red Sox and Angels dropped two games each.

The Indians broke a 3-3 tie in the top of the seventh to down the Tigers, 4-3, on Friday, June 9. John Cammett returned to the Indians lineup following completion of South High's season and collected two base hits. Cammett scored the winning run as John Cook beat out an infield grounder for a base hit.

John Heidt went the distance on the mound to pick up his sixth win of the season. Greg Lapinski drove in two runs with a triple in the bottom of the sixth for the Tigers to tie the score.

The Indians won their second game of the week with an overwhelming win over the Angels, 20-3, on Saturday, June 10. Cammett led the hitting with three hits and pitched five innings to pick up the win, his first of the season. Mike Mahon and John Cook each hit safely twice for the Indians.

The White Sox downed the Red Sox, 1-0, in a real pitcher's duel on Wednesday, June 7. Mike Downs scattered three hits in the first four innings for the White Sox before his arm tightened up. Downs was relieved by Jim Blondell who held the Red Sox hitless in the last three innings.

Glenn Piche, another South High player making his first appearance, gave up only two hits in a losing cause for the Red Sox. John DeBoer picked up both hits off Piche and drove in the winning run with his second inning single.

The Red Sox suffered their second straight shutout as they lost to the Tigers, 7-0, on Saturday, June 10. Dan Doyle and Chris Janis combined for a one-hitter for the Tigers with Doyle picking up the win, his third of the season. Todd Pierce led the Tigers with a timely single and two walks. Brian Benz picked the only hit for the Red Sox.

The Yankees defeated the Angels on Thursday, June 8, and the White Sox on June 10 but details of the games were not available.

GP PARK
By Mary Ann Schultz

In The Park Babe Ruth League, Devon Jeffrey hurled a no-hitter against the Braves to spark the Cardinals as they chalked up two more wins to add to their victorious record.

Tom Emmerich, Mary Raymond and Rick Overbey were the main hitters for the Cardinals as they led the team to a 3-0 win. Braves' pitcher Tim O'Neill tried to keep the Cardinals "in their pace" but couldn't handle the Cardinals bats.

Daryl Nihen took a loss against the Cards as coach Mike Raymond's star hitters Tony Alfonso and John Angott both tripled. Alfonso also homered to help the Cards beat the Mets in a 12-2 game.

Andy Pickrann of the Phils won his fifth game of the year by pitching a three-hitter game against the Braves. Ray Regner and Rob Zimmerman got key hits for the Phils while John Terrie led the Braves hitting attack. On Tuesday, June 6, the Phillies fought back from an 8-1 score to stay undefeated in the second half of the season. Dan Shine was the winning pitcher with three innings of hitless pitching, relieving Andy Pickrann who struck out six Padres.

Rob Zimmerman was the heavy hitter for the Phils with a homer and a triple. Bill Winzer had 2 hits and Ted Formanczyk drove in important runs to boost the score to 11-9 in favor of the Phils. Eric Frakes and Dave Landuyt each had two hits for the Padres.

The Dodgers Tony Tocco had two important hits to help beat the Giants, 6-3 on Saturday, June 3. Although the Dodgers led the Giants in the first four innings, Rich Fahle was not ready to lose as he had two hits to help score the runs for the Giants.

Expos' Jeff Parthum has done magnificently batting and fielding for the Expos throughout the entire season. Jeff had three big hits against the Giants on Wednesday, June 7.

In the never ending 14-12 game won by the Giants, Jerry Williams had three hits and Pete Stavale came through again with a double for the Giants. Chris Kohut and Tom Gaitley hit back to back triples for the Expos.

Ballet Dates Set at Center

The War Memorial presents its annual two nights of "Evenings of Ballet" on Thursday and Friday, June 22 and 23. This year's performance celebrates the "25th anniversary" of the ballet department under the direction of Mary Ellen Cooper.

The evening opens with the performance of Chopin Ballade No. 1 in G minor Op. 23, performed by the senior class. The second number will be the presentation of the junior students. The theme will be the dances of the season with music by various composers.

The finale will be the performance of Borodin's Polovtsian Dances from Prince Igor. This will be performed by the senior class and apprentices.

The senior class is composed of students working in the professional classes of ballet training. They have performed at the Tri-City Ballet Festival in Saginaw, and also have danced for the Fine Arts Society and various other programs.

The principal dancers of the group at present are Janet Bristol, Cynthia Ehrlich, Kristen Finger, Marie Leithausner, Anna Platt, Ann Wilson and Melanie Yanchuk.

Performance is at 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and $1 for children 12 years and under. Tickets are available at the Center office, 32 Lakeshore road.

New National Smoker Study:

Important News For 100's Smokers:

Smokers rate taste of MERIT 100's equal to —or better than—leading high tar 100's.

Can low tar MERIT 100's—packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco—measure up to the taste expectations of high tar 100's smokers?

Read the results from a new, nationwide research effort involving smokers who actually taste-tested MERIT 100's against leading high tar 100's.

Results Endorse MERIT Breakthrough

Confirmed: Majority of 100's smokers rate MERIT 100's taste equal to—or better than—leading high tar 100's tested! Cigarettes having up to 70% more tar.

Confirmed: Majority of 100's smokers confirm taste satisfaction of low tar MERIT 100's.

Detailed interviews were also conducted with current MERIT 100's smokers.

Confirmed: 85% of MERIT 100's smokers say it was an "easy switch" from high tar brands.

Confirmed: Overwhelming majority of MERIT 100's smokers say their former high tar brands weren't missed!

Confirmed: 9 out of 10 MERIT 100's smokers not considering other brands.

First Major Alternative To High Tar Smoking

MERIT 100's has proven conclusively that it not only delivers the flavor of high tar brands—but continues to satisfy!

This ability to satisfy over long periods of time could be the most important evidence to date that MERIT 100's is what it claims to be: The first major alternative to high tar smoking.

Receives Report on Edison Case

A report on a recently concluded Detroit Edison Co. rate case from Woods City Attorney George Catlin, with a focus on street lighting rates, was received by the council at its regular meeting on Monday, June 5.

After extensive hearings on the case, the application of which was filed last July 20, the administrative law judge of the Michigan Public Service Commission, (MPSC), has issued his proposal for decision, said Mr. Catlin.

It is anticipated that the MPSC will, in all probability, adopt the proposed decision as submitted.

"The municipal street lighting class of customer is slated to receive an increase of 5.78 percent, which is equal to the overall percentage increase to all classes of customers; Detroit Edison had requested that street lighting rates be increased 8.87 percent," he said.

Continuing, Mr. Catlin said it should be noted that street lighting rates are not subject to fuel and purchase power clauses which automatically pass through to the customer the increases experienced by the utility.

"The MPSC has exempted the street lighting class from these automatic increases in recognition of the fact that fuel costs for street lighting are lower than average inasmuch as usage of energy is primarily during the late night hours."

He expects the rate increase to become effective by the end of this month. In noting that The Park, the Attorney General's Office and Wayne County also participated in fighting the case, Mr. Catlin felt the city's participation regarding the result was worthwhile.

"I think it's important for the MPSC to see that the municipalities are concerned," he added.

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:

It is with heartfelt sincerity that we extend our congratulations and thanks to the people of Grosse Pointe. Through your overwhelming support of this year's Grosse Pointe Walk for Man, kind, that distance walked and sponsored will provide precious human lives with life-giving medical care and health education.

We are especially grateful to Walk directors, Mike Profit, Bill Marr and Eugene Miszack Jr., the members of their committee, and the many dedicated volunteers who helped organize and inspire such a successful Walk.

Your community should be proud of the hard work and sacrifices made by these dedicated individuals.

Project Concern also wishes to extend a special thanks to Grosse Pointe's youth, their parents, neighbors and friends whose generous contributions made this year's Walk so successful.

As planned, several of the proceeds from the Walk will go directly toward vital local community service organizations and charitable causes in the Grosse Pointe area. Because you cared enough to be concerned and get in-involved, many precious human lives be saved. To this end, we pledge our best efforts.

David R. Duplanty,
Chairman of the board

To the Editor:

The Junior League of Detroit Decorators' Show House is now a happy memory for the members involved in making this endeavor a success.

This would not have been possible without the understanding and cooperation evidenced by the Grosse Pointe Farms Council, Chief Robert Ferber and the Police Department, Chief Warren Schultz and the Fire Department and the residents of Grosse Pointe Farms.

On behalf of the Junior League of Detroit we would like to thank the entire Grosse Pointe community. We owe the neighbors our sincere thanks for their help and support during the 14 months it took to bring this project to a successful conclusion.

Sincerely,

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Photographs tell a story—the great stories that make history and the simple stories of nameless men and women. Some photographs belong to the ages, others have meaning only for the moment.

Books made up largely of photographs are very popular for they tell their story in an unique way. From the hundreds available at your public libraries I have selected five to make some comments about.

THE INSTANT IT HAPPENED, (Henry N. Abrams, 1975), is a selection of over 100 photographs taken from the 60 million in the Associated Press files.

Matthew B. Brady's photograph taken at the Battle of Antietam on September 17, 1862, is the first picture. Like all of those to follow, the circumstances under which the photograph was taken and the identity of the photograph appear on the opposite page.

One-quarter of the photographs, all black and white incidentally, record our country's wars. The never to be forgotten picture by Joe Rosenthal of five marines raising the flag over the tiny Pacific island of Iwo Jima, for which 8,212 Americans gave their lives, is shown.

The day Lt. Col. Robert L. Stirm met his wife and four children at Travis Air Force Base, California, upon his return from five years as a prisoner of war in North Vietnam, was photographed by Sal Veler. He won a Pulitzer Prize for his efforts.

Murry Becker, one of the Associated Press photographers, heard the chant, "We love you, Lou," as he watched baseball's "Iron Horse" Lou Gehrig step to the home plate microphone at Yankee Stadium.

After telling the 62,000 fans who were there to honor him that, "I may have been given a bad break, but I have a lot to live for," Gehrig, who was slowly dying of a rare kind of paralysis, bowed his head. Becker then shot one of the great pictures that depict human courage.

Such photographs as Truman holding up the "Chicago Daily Tribune" that had as its headline "Dewey Defeats Truman" has traumatized experts for decades. Jack Ruby as he lunged out at Lee Harvey Oswald was photographed by Bob Jackson of the "Dallas Times Herald," Sonny Liston lying at the feet of Cassius Clay in Lewiston, Me., Richard Nixon resigning the Presidency, are all here.

Many of the photographs in THE INSTANT IT HAPPENED you will remember, others you won't be able to forget.

Anthony Burgess and the editors of Time-Life Books have produced a pictorial essay of New York City as part of the Great Cities series. NEW YORK, (Time-Life Books, 1976), is divided into nine sections. Each section pictures the city in a unique way.

The real New York is Manhattan, a 22-square mile island of enterprise and commerce stretching from Battery Park northward to the Cloisters, from the East River across to the Hudson.

Although seven-and-a-half million people call it home, there is not such a thing as a typical New Yorker. The vast variety of people, places and things are revealed in this fascinating, colorful book, a joy to look at and fun to read.

Another land of exciting variety is revealed in ETERNAL HAWAII, (C. H. Belding, 1976). The text is by Edward Joesting and the photography by Aaron Dygart. Both men live in Hawaii.

This book is not about people, it is about yellow sand beaches, high mountains, blue-green lagoons, eucalyptus trees, rugged cliffs and the many other natural beauties of this island paradise. It is well written with beautiful photographs that will appeal to all nature lovers.

Mario Puzo explores the irresistible lure of Las Vegas. The man who wrote the great best-seller, "The Godfather," combines his talent with that of three photographers, John Launois, Michael Abramson and Susan Fowler-Gallagher to produce INSIDE LAS VEGAS, (Grosset and Dunlap, 1976).

It's an amusing book filled with personal anecdotes of Las Vegas—characters, casino fact and myth and free-wheeling opinions on what makes Vegas run. The pictures, only a few in color, make the book.

Picture stories have been done on a number of presidents but Abraham Lincoln is in a class by himself for he was the first president for which there is a photographic record. About 700 photographs were taken of Lincoln, all of them are found in LINCOLN, A PICTURE STORY OF HIS LIFE, (W. W. Norton, 1969), by Stefan Lorant.

This book contains the reproductions of Lincoln's main addresses and letters in his own handwriting, among them the original manuscript of the Gettysburg Address, the second Inaugural, his letters to his war generals and notes and telegrams to his wife.

In the appendix, all the Lincoln photographs are listed in chronological order, with the latest detailed information as to when and by whom they were taken.

GP Swimmer Sets Record

Painter Carolyn DeLuca set a new national record in the 100-meter butterfly Sunday, June 11, in Canton, O.

Swimming in the first long course, (50 meter pool), Masters meet of the season, Mrs. DeLuca lowered the record in the 35-39 year age group to 1:17.6. She also won the 50-meter fly and 200-meter fly.

Another big winner at the meet was Mickey Montagne, 20, who won the 50 free, 50 fly, 50 back and 50 breast. Competing in the 65-69 year age group, Bob Lawrence won the 50 free, 50 fly, 50 back, 50 breast and 400 free.

The three Pointers brought home a total of 12 first place medals.

Girls Spray Obscenities

The spray painting of obscenities at North High School, 707 Vernier road, was discovered on Tuesday, June 6, around 10:50 p.m. when a security guard startled two girls who ran from the area.

Woods Officer James DeDeppo was told that one obscenity, sprayed in blue paint, was found on the south side of the building, while another, in red paint, was discovered on the east side of the auditorium building.

The girls were last seen running toward Morningside drive, with police confiscating three cans of spray paint at the scene.

One View from the Capitol

By William R. Bryant Jr.

The California vote on property tax reduction proves two things, that many people believe taxes are too high and that many people dislike, in particular, property taxes.

Republican legislators, by and large, are very anti-property tax. The reason is that most Republicans represent rural and agricultural constituencies. These constituencies are owners of more property than urban dwellers.

The revolt against the property tax is, however, dangerous. It is dangerous if what people are really saying is that they find it distasteful to have to tax themselves by voting millage. The alternative is, obviously, ly, have someone else tax them.

Local schools, local units of government, local control cannot survive without both substantial authority in the people to tax themselves and substantial willingness to tax themselves.

We could move to local, voted income taxes. They will work if collected by the state as agent for small units which could not administer an income tax of their own.

In a "bedroom community" like the Pointes, with almost total owner occupancy, it could work fairly well.

You miss the vacant property. You impact differently the commercial property. You have a considerable impact on speculation and development of older estates and you miss all non-resident owners.

I favor tax limitation. I favor less reliance on property taxes because today real property is a smaller component of the "ability to pay" of most people.

But beware of property tax elimination or elimination of locally voted taxes. Elimination will lead to more centralized government.

The fresh water pearls from Lake Biwa, Japan, are probably the best known in the world. Like most fresh water pearls, they are rarely round, but usually oval or elongated in shape. In their natural state, they have a light salmon hue, but, if they are exposed to strong sunlight, they gain a beautiful milky translucence. But Japan does not have a monopoly on the production of fresh water pearls. Mainland China and the United States also contribute their share to the pearl market.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Clement E. Conger, curator of the White House and the Department of State, will give an illustrated lecture on the White House and its collections this Saturday, June 17, at 10 in the morning at University Liggett's Middle School campus in Briarcliff drive, where the University Liggett Antiques Show opens today.

It will run through Saturday. Thursday and Friday hours are noon until 10 o'clock, Saturday hours noon until 6. General admission is $3.50.

The furniture, paintings and decorative accessories in the public rooms of the White House were assembled largely through Mr. Conger's personal efforts, for it was recognized that these important areas should be representative of our country's history and culture and no one seemed better qualified than Mr. Conger to make the collection decisions.

The results are beautiful. The rooms speak with pride of our country's past. The collection of White House antiques, mostly from the 18th century, is considered one of the finest in the nation, and Mr. Conger, a determined and dedicated collector of Americana on behalf of the United States, will provide fascinating glimpses of the collection and his part in assembling it at the ULS Antiques Show Saturday morning.

Admission to the lecture is $2.50 per person. (Continued on Page 17)

Jerusalem Family Fair Is Scheduled

Three Evenings of Life in Biblical Times Will Transport Participants to The Promised Land June 20 through 22

A new event for Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, the Jerusalem Family Fair depicting life as it was in the time of Jesus, will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 20 through 22, at the church in Lakeshore road.

Each of the three evenings will be unique, presenting a different aspect of Biblical life.

An introduction through drama, music and dance will be featured Tuesday, from 7 until 9 o'clock, with members of the Detroit area Middle Eastern Christian community sharing their traditions.

Wednesday evening, also from 7 to 9, there will be a chance to visit a marketplace in Old Jerusalem and watch the craftsmen—potters, weavers and carpenters—the fishermen and story-tellers.

The fair concludes Thursday with the Biblical celebration as Jesus would have known it. Participants will begin with a festival dinner at 6:30 o'clock, celebrate with singing and dancing and complete the evening with worship and drama in the sanctuary.

The Jerusalem Family Fair committee, headed by Sally Robinson, is determined to make everything as authentic as possible. The food, costumes and tools used by the craftspeople, the entertainment and even the worship service will contribute to the aura of pre-First Century Palestine.

Unlike a typical church fair, nothing will be sold. The idea is to offer people of all ages, men and women, children to senior citizens, married and single, a chance (Continued on Page 20)

At a mid-afternoon ceremony Saturday, June 10, in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church SHERIDAN LOUISE PURCELL, daughter of the John C. Purcells, of Shorecrest circle, was married to Mr. Kissler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Kissler, of Bay City.

A June Wedding for Miss Purcell

She Speaks Vows to Richard Earl Kissler in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church; Ceremony Is Double Ring

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Purcell entertained at a reception in the garden of their Shorecrest circle home following the wedding of their daughter, Sheridan Louise, and Richard Earl Kissler.

Presiding at the double ring ceremony Saturday, June 10, in Grosse Pointe Methodist Church was The Reverend Perry A. Thomas.

For her 3 o'clock wedding, the former Miss Purcell chose a floor length gown of white silk organza. The yoke of her fitted bodice, detailed with Duchess lace, formed cap sleeves. Matching lace panels accented her skirt and cathedral length train.

Her French silk illusion mantilla was also cathedral length, edged in Duchess lace and scattered with lace motifs. It fell from a matching lace cap and double-tiered blusher.

White roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy formed her bouquet, and around her neck was clasped the antique diamond lavalier worn by her maternal grandmother and five other granddaughters at their weddings.

She was attended by honor matron Mrs. Archibald Dunbar, of Bloomfield Hills, and bridesmaids Mrs. William C. Purcell, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., a sister-in-law, Ann Kissler, of Bay City, the dress of floral chiffon for her daughter's wedding. She carried a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother selected a long, pastel print, two-piece chiffon. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Montgomery, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.

L. J. Herndon, all of Duncan, Okla., and the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Ray Shurlow, of Clare, and Mrs. Gustave Kissler, of Bay City.

William Purcell accompanied his wife north from Fort Lauderdale, and another brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purcell, came from Thousand Oaks, Calif.

Talent Season Is Underway

"Talent Season," offered by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee, is an easy way for members to act as hostesses at little fund-raising parties, usually given in their homes. Sometimes small musical programs are presented, with tea following. Several times women have created special luncheons, and even gone on to a daytime event.

Nominally-priced tickets or donation bowls collect the funds.

Recently, 12 guests of Mrs. Elmo Joseph, of Maumee avenue, enjoyed "Two Encounters with a Benefit"—a Cafe Joseph luncheon and a tour of the Decorators Show House.

In the early spring Florence Silva held a luncheon in her Gary lane, St. Clair Shores, home. Miss Silva also contributed the handsome afghan awarded at last week's Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee annual luncheon. Another prize highlight

Portrait of Lochmoor's First Family

against which President and Mrs. Mihelich, Vice President Ken Adler and his wife, Patti, Treasurer George Kramer and his wife, Nora, and Judge George Bashara, Jr., and his wife, Nancy, greeted the party-goers.

Spring flowers keyed the decor chosen by Jo An Mihelich. Pots of mums were arranged throughout the club, and spring bouquets centered the tables.

Among those at the Mihelich's table were Joseph Mihelich, Sr., East Detroit Mayor William Mihelich and his wife and Heather Bokram who, with Jo An and Pat Cosgrove, was responsible for the redecorating of the club's dining room.

Strolling Spanish guitarists entertained during the cocktail hour. Dancing music was provided by Ray Battani.

Ken Adler, as master of ceremonies, introduced Tom Moran, Lochmoor's 1961 president, and George Bashara, Jr., immediate past-president, who both made presentations to Joe Mihelich. The Adlers presented Jo An with tokens of the club's appreciation for her hard work and devotion.

Those who lasted until 1:30 in the morning enjoyed the President's Pour, with Joe Mihelich, George Bashara, Joe Dimond and Jack Piana acting as bartenders.

A special feature of the afternoon will be the official opening of the Dorothy Karbel Memorial Children's Library and Book Program, a project made possible by the contributions and interest of the family and friends of the late Dorothy Karbel, a long-time member of the Children's Center board of directors.

This activity is being accomplished in conjunction with the national RIF, (Reading is Fundamental), program designed to stimulate increased interest in reading among school age children.

Through the Karbel Library, selected "give-away" paperbacks will be available to children and adolescents who are clients of the Children's Center, at downtown headquarters and the center's satellite locations in the metropolitan area.

Plan Poolside Party at GPYC

A bouquet of fun has been planned for mothers, daughters, grandmothers, aunts, friends and guests of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club members next Wednesday, June 21, when the GPYC presents a mother-daughter poolside luncheon and fashion show. The fun begins at 11:30 o'clock, with cocktails-while-shopping at a group of unique boutiques: Tennis Bananas, (custom sport clothes), Shirt Designs by Anne, The Blind Pig, (bar and family room accessories), Don and Judy Jensen's Arrangement, Unique Decorator Pillows by Beau Grabruck, Karrers Kubicle, Punch and Judy Toyland, Two's Company and The Catch Penny, (personalized gift items).

Art Quatro's music will provide a background for browsers and buyers.

A summer buffet is scheduled for 12:30 o'clock, to be followed at 1:30 by informal modeling by club members of women's fashions from The Front Row and children's clothes from The Small Scene, both located in the Mini-Mall in the Village. If the weather's inclement, luncheon will be served in the ballroom.

Committee members planning the festive day are Letitia Clark, Barb Austin, Kathleen Macdonald, Gayl Lehman, Carol Bania and Kathy Neumann.

Virginia Brown Cited For 50 Years in DAR

Mrs. H. Sanford Brown was honored recently by the Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for having been a member of the National Society DAR for 50 years.

A certificate, signed by the officers of the National Society, and an orchid, the society's official flower, were presented to her at the chapter's year-end meeting at the home of Mrs. J. P. White in Balfour road.

Virginia Brown joined Hillsdale's Ann Gridley DAR Chapter in April, 1928, later transferring to the Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Highland Park, and more recently to Grosse Pointe's Elizabeth Cass Chapter.

She became a member by tracing and documenting her "roots" to Dr. John Ely, who raised, equipped and commanded a regiment of American soldiers in the cause of American Independence. Captured in 1777, he refused to be exchanged and so gave three years of professional service as physician and surgeon to other prisoners of war.

Virginia continues the tradition of service to her country in church, civic and community affairs. In April she was inducted into the Emeritus Club by the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, and received a 50-year pin and Scroll Award.

Mrs. George Johnston, council vice-president, and Mrs. James Houlihan, past-president, are sponsoring the Saturday, June 24, party at the Detroit Yacht Club.

leau, who is president of the Detroit Women's Council, will act as official host and hostess.

Reservations at $7.50 per person may be made through Monday, June 19, by calling Mrs. Edmund Bitters, 886-9596. Proceeds will go to Camp Grace Bentley, a summer facility for orthopaedic and cardiac handicapped children.

Hannan Division of the Naval Sea Cadet Corps.

Larry Papke's Orchestra will furnish music during the cocktail hour and dinner, and for dancing.

Pointe area members of the ball committee include Mrs. Paul D. Grubbs, chaplain, Mrs. Nolan Kirkman, Sea Cadet chairman, and Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, publicity chairman.

Others are Mrs. James M. Hannan, protocol chairman, Mrs. Roger Harter and Mrs.

RICHARD DURANT, admire the Navy League flag that will be flying on yachts of members Saturday evening, June 24, when the Navy League Ball is held at the NYC. Mrs. Castle is chairman of the ball, sponsored annually by the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States. Mrs. Wilcox is publicity chairman. Mrs. Durant is a council member.

An Opportunity For Volunteers

Anticipating the interest and excitement that will be generated by completion of the new Detroit General Hospital and Wayne State University Health Care Institute in the Detroit Medical Center, a Tour Guide System is being developed to explain the medical and architectural concepts behind the new complex and to offer some background on the many exciting art forms that will be incorporated into the structure and the grounds.

With September, 1978 as projected date for "beneficial occupancy" of the Health Care Institute and February, 1979, as completion date for the total operation of the complex, volunteer training for the guides will begin with a luncheon meeting and tour this Monday, June 19, at 10:30 o'clock in Scott Hall, (Room E 1350), in Canfield street, with available parking across the street.

The guides will be trained to direct their visitors through a comprehensive—though not exhaustive—tour and to provide information on the medical philosophies and the architectural concepts, with some construction statistics, along with information on the art work and artists.

This information will be provided at Monday's meeting, for the volunteers to digest over the summer months.

Feature Detroit House Display

The Detroit Historical Museum recently opened a new major exhibit entitled The Detroit House: 275 Years of Domestic Architecture.

Arranged by James E. Conway, the museum's curator of Architectural History, the exhibit spotlights the history of housing in Detroit from 18th century French cabins through the modern homes of today.

The Detroit House will be at the Detroit Historical Museum through the rest of the year. Museum hours are 9:30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 1 to 9 Wednesday and 1 to 5 Sunday.

Admission to the museum is by voluntary donation. Free parking is available behind the building.

It promises to be an exciting time for the medical world and Detroit, and a tour service that satisfies the interests of professionals and the general public should be gratefully received and very rewarding for the guides. Anyone interested in volunteering for this project may call Margot Kessler, 885-6017, for further information. Volunteer hours will be minimal and flexible.

Arts Congress Ends June 17

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present a special Congressional Concert Saturday evening, June 17, at 8:30 o'clock as a grand finale to the first Michigan Congress on the Arts.

Werner Torkanowsky, guest conductor and associate to the music director of the DSO, will be on the podium and will be joined by special guest narrator Pat Paulsen.

The concert is now scheduled to be played in Ford Auditorium, not on Hart Plaza as previously announced; construction delays at the new plaza have necessitated the move.

The program will include Berlioz's Roman Carnival Overture, Copland's "A Lincoln Portrait" with special guest narrator Paulsen, Strauss's "Rosenkavalier" Suite, Op. 59, and three movements from Alberto Ginastera's ballet "Estancia."

This admission-free concert is sponsored by the State of Michigan through its arts funding agency, the Michigan Council for the Arts, the City of Detroit through an annual grant and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Inc.

The Michigan Congress on the Arts runs today through Saturday.

Plan to Wed In November

A November 25 wedding is being planned by Heidi Sue Lindberg and Robert T. Wieringa, Jr., whose engagement was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lindberg, of Rochester, at a party in late May.

The bride-elect is an alumna of Lutheran East High School and Hillsdale College, where she affiliated with Chi Omega.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Wieringa, former Lakeshore road residents who now make their home in Morristown, N.J., is an alumnus of University Liggett School and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Hillsdale College last year.

His fraternity is Delta Tau Delta. He is currently employed by Johnson & Johnson Health Care Division as a territory manager for northwest Ohio.

Three monumental choral works will highlight the Symphonic Series of Meadow Brook Festival's 15th season, opening Thursday, June 22, for 11 weeks.

The schedule includes opening week gala performances of Verdi's Requiem Mass, under the baton of German conductor Klaus Tennstedt. The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Meadow Brook Festival Chorus and the Kenneth Jewell Chorale as well as four internationally acclaimed soloists, including the American debut of the leading tenor of the Bolshoi Opera, Zurab Sotkilava, will be featured.

Mozart's Requiem Mass with the Musica Aeterna Orchestra under the direction of Frederic Waldman, with the Kenneth Jewell Chorale and four vocal soloists will conclude the symphonic schedule of the 1978 Meadow Brook Music Festival Saturday, August 26.

Michael Tilson Thomas, who created a sensation at the Festival last summer with his performance of Mahler's "Symphony of a Thousand," will return to conduct the Mahler "Resurrection Symphony," No. 2 in c, Saturday, July 8, with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the combined Meadow Brook Festival Chorus and Kenneth Jewell Chorale.

Other highlights of the Festival will include the return of Vladimir Ashkenazy who served as artistic advisor for the Meadow Brook Music Festival in 1973. Ashkenazy will both conduct and play an all-Mozart program Thursday, June 29, performing Mozart's Piano Concertos No. 22 and 17.

He also will conduct an all-Tchaikovsky program Saturday, July 1, with the young Soviet pianist, Mark Zeltser, performing Tchaikovsky's First Piano Concerto.

Other conductors featured on the Symphonic Series will be Sixten Ehrling, former music director for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra; Neville Marriner, the British conductor who made an acclaimed debut at the Festival in 1977; and Kazuhiro Koizumi, a young Japanese conductor who will be making an American debut this summer at the Meadow Brook, Tanglewood and Ravinia Festivals.

Theo Alcantara and Oleg Kavolenko also will conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Meadow Brook. Raffael Adler will conduct the New York Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra Saturday, August 19. Frederic Waldman will return for his third successive season to lead the Musica Aeterna Orchestra for Meadow Brook's Mostly-Mozart Festival.

Pianists performing as solists with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the 1978 Meadow Brook Festival include Vladimir Ashkenazy, Mark Zeltser, Malcolm Frager, Lorin Hlander, Eugene Istomin, Peter Serkin and Claudio Arrau.

Misha and Cipa Dichter will appear with the Musica Aeterna Orchestra playing the Mozart Concerto in E flat for Two Pianos. Famed duo-pianists Anthony and Joseph Paratore will appear in recital and Igor Kipnis will make his debut with the Festival's harpsichordist with the New York Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra.

Ruggiero Ricci, celebrating his 50th year as concert violinist, will return to Meadow Brook Thursday, July 13. Other violinists appearing will be Gordon Staples, Henryk Szeryng and Silvia Marcovici. The young cellist, Yo Yo Ma, will make his debut appearance for the Detroit area and Leonard Rose also will perform on a return visit.

Vocalists for the choral portions of the Festival programs will include such international stars as Carol Neblett, soprano, Mignon Dunn, mezzo-soprano, Zurab Sotkilava, tenor, and Paul Plishka, bass, all performing in the opening week Verdi Requiem. Zurab Sotkilava's recent Western debut in Salzburg has been hailed as that of the most promising tenor of his generation with an extraordinary voice. He will be making his American debut at Meadow Brook.

Claudine Carlson, of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear with Diana Hoagland, soprano, in the Saturday, July 8, performance of the Mahler "Resurrection Symphony." Benita Valente, soprano, Kenneth Riegel, tenor, Brenda Boozer, mezzo soprano, and John Cheek, bass, will be soloists Saturday, August 26, for Mozart's Requiem Mass. What has become a tradition at Meadow Brook will be this concluding week's Mostly-Mozart performances featuring the Musica Aeterna Orchestra conducted by Frederic Waldman. Three concerts are scheduled at Baldwin Pavilion and a fourth Woodwind Chamber Concert in the English Garden at the Meadow Brook Hall on the afternoon of Friday, August 25.

The sixth week of the Festival will feature the Ballet Repertory Company presented by the American Ballet Theater with featured soloist Leslie Brown, star of the popular movie "Turning Point."

Meadow Brook Music Festival's format includes Thursday and Saturday evening symphonic concerts, Friday evening jazz performances and Sunday evening pops concerts.

There will also be a matinee Children's Concert Series and a midweek Open Rehearsal Series.

Further program and ticket information may be obtained by calling the Festival box office at 377-2010.

TRAVELWORLD

By DICK D'ANDREA

SPAIN

The big city attractions of Madrid and Barcelona and the glamour of the many Mediterranean resorts continue to be Spain's tourist magnets. But Spain this year would like to pull you away for a while from the splendors of the Prado and the beach life and induce you to see some of the less-known sections of the country. "THE REAL SPAIN" — the inland provinces, rich in history and with unspoiled villages, traditional folklore events—is this year's emphasis.

Spain's prices are generally rated moderate to low, with prices in the countryside apt to be lower than in the cities and major resorts. They are lowest of all for group travelers, whose all-in packages are amazingly modest in price. New air fares are a boon to Spain and she expects to be welcoming more travelers in the off-season, and offering a taste of the real Spain no matter what time of year you choose to come.

TRAVELWORLD's staff can assist you with your travel plans to Spain or any other destination. Stop in at 21127 Mack (North of Vernier) or call 882-8190.

Bell Begins Pilot Study

Michigan Bell began a six-month pilot study Thursday, June 1, in which it will time the local calls of some 20,000 Detroit area business customers.

Donald M. Lambe, Michigan Bell assistant vice-president, said the study will not affect how much the business customers involved pay for telephone service.

When the study begins, the 20,000 business customers, located in seven east, west and downriver Detroit District Exchange zones, will receive an additional page with their actual untime charges and what the charges would have been based on the timing of calls.

No residence telephone customers will be included in the study which was authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The 100th graduation exercises of the University Liggett School (U.L.S.) were held Tuesday, June 6, at the Upper School Campus in Cook road.

The event was marked by the usual excitement surrounding graduations, but this special year was heralded by a congratulatory telegram sent to the school and to the graduating class by President Jimmy Carter.

Mr. Carter hailed University Liggett as one of the finest college preparatory schools serving the country.

Wendell W. Anderson Jr., president of the board of trustees, opened the evening's events with a talk that focused on the 100-year history of the school starting in downtown Detroit to its present dual campus complex in Grosse Pointe.

The school is currently educating approximately 850 students in the Lower, Middle, and Upper Schools.

The speakers for the graduating class were seniors Tomasine Polizzi and Kevin Conley.

There were several awards given during the evening. A special honor was given by Mr. Anderson to Mary K. Thorn, head of the Lower School, who has served the school and its students for 25 years.

Mr. Robbins' challenge to the graduating class was summed up by these remarks: "If there were only one thing that I could give you in return for all that you have given to our school that one thing would be what someone referred to as an habitual vision of greatness."

The evening's festivities concluded with a reception for the graduates, their families and guests.

GPW Studies Racquetball A suggestion that the old Lake Front Park poolhouse be utilized for racquetball was unanimously referred to the Citizens Recreation Commission by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 5.

GROSSE POINTE WAR MEMORIAL BALLET PROGRAM DIRECTOR MARY ELLEN COOPER, WITH PUPIL, CHARLYN CARRIER

By Dwight Cendrowski

This ballet class is certainly not kid stuff. The late Saturday morning group of 10- and 11-year-old girls begins the lesson with elementary moves and limbering exercises. The movements are slow, deliberate. Faces are intent. Away from the supporting bar the girls practice an extended arabesque, accompanied first by the sharp clap and count of the instructor, then by the repeating strains of a record.

The teacher is everywhere, examining postures, pressing stomachs, straightening a hand, shifting a hip. Expressions change. From studied determination a face breaks into a hunch-shuddered grin, then into puzzlement when an errant arm is lifted.

Finally the instructor drops onto the piano stool, clutching her chest in a mock heart attack. "I don't believe it," she whispers loudly. "Do you know that's the first movement you've all performed correctly today. But you'd better be careful because this old heart of mine just can't take shocks like that too often."

The girls all laugh. Tensions are eased, and the class resumes.

Teacher for 25 Years
Mock heart attacks are just one method in the teaching repertoire of Mary Ellen Cooper, director of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial ballet program. Miss Cooper has been instructing young and old in the art of ballet here for 25 years, and she shows no sign of slowing down.

A graduate of the University of Toronto music school, Miss Cooper has studied ballet all over the country, as well as in England. Her own teaching style, based on the classical Cecchetti method, is a curious blend of firm discipline, sarcasm and humor. Many parents have told her she is too tough and demanding of the children. By her own admission the classes are taxing.

"I am here to teach ballet," she says. "If the girls do not want to work and learn, they are better off in a recreation program." She estimates that one-half the young girls who join the program stay with it for several years. The other half find the discipline too rugged and drop out. "Many of those who don't continue have an idealized image of ballet as all glamor and beauty," says Miss Cooper, punctuating her words with a ballet pose. "But it is not like that at all of course. It is hard work."

Many in Agreement
Many parents and children apparently agree with Miss Cooper. She has a waiting list for her beginning classes, which may start girls as young as age five. Several adult women also attend her classes. But of all her students, only one is male, and he is a recent addition.

"This notion of ballet as somehow effeminate and not for men is strictly an American idea," she says. "In Europe a man in ballet is accepted and respected. Whole families of men dance: the grandfather, father and son."

Miss Cooper lists several reasons young girls find ballet beneficial. For those contemplating a career in dance, the classical ballet training gives them the needed background for further study. Although none of her former students is dancing professionally, several are taking advanced courses in tors who feel the dancing is good for certain ailments and physical defects.

Music Is Important
Miss Cooper also wants to expose her students to classical music. "I feel it is important to give the girls a sample of several classical composers, to broaden their tastes."

Her own life has always revolved around music. Her late father and uncle together amassed 99 years of service as percussionists for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. And her mother, now 85, still accompanies the ballet classes on the piano several days a week. She is an accomplished

New York, and many are teaching ballet themselves. "Ballet is also good for a girl's muscle tone and development. It helps the girls become figure conscious, and gives them grace."

She says some of her students were referred by doc-deal of discipline, and I try to develop that discipline in my students.

"But it's often difficult. My students are from all over, not just from Grosse Pointe. And I've taught in Detroit also. Everywhere children are children. The lack of discipline is the same."

Back in the classroom, Miss Cooper is addressing a class preparing for an examination necessary for advancement to the next grade. The girls are scattered about the spacious room, mirror tiles lining one wall, twisting water pipes covering another.

The talk is serious, with warnings of judges' rules and the need for practice.

Yet the classes do not remain somber long. Miss Cooper bounces around the room, cracking a joke to illustrate a point, then throwing up her hands and dropping her head in somber reflection. She selects one small girl to read the directions to a step no one remembers.

"Louder, we can't hear you. Ah, so that's how it goes. Do you think those directions just jumped up on the page in the middle of the night? Maybe that's why no one has read it. Ah."

Serving with him will be fellow Pointers Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., vice-chairman of development, Gilbert Hudson, vice-chairman of public affairs, and George E. Parker, III, treasurer.

Meanwhile, On the Other End of Town . . .

. . . Saturday is shaping up as a Big Day, what with the SEMBA (South Eastern Michigan Bonsai Association), all day—11:30 to 6 o'clock—program in Cranbrook Auditorium and the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra wine and cheese tasting party starting at 5 on the Meadow Brook Festival stage.

Both will draw their share of Pointers. The SEMBA program features a film and lectures, sales, displays and demonstrations including "Creating a Grove Planting" by Grosse Pointe Botanical Gardens' Terry Glancy, who plans to use five Bald Cypress, ranging up to 100 years old, in his mid-afternoon presentation.

Grosse Pointe's Daijina Ki Bonsai Society is a SEMBA member.

The wine and cheese party, sponsored by the Women's Committee for the Meadow Brook Festival, is designed to acquaint Symphony Juniors and their husbands, who will be ushering throughout the season, with summer plans for the Meadow Brook Music Festival.

And in Indian Village . . .

. . . also on Saturday, the Historic Indian Village House and Garden Tour will run from 11:30 to 5 o'clock, starting at the Iroquois Avenue Christ Lutheran Church where tickets may be purchased.

Many of Grosse Pointe's first families came to The Pointe via Indian Village, moving on as the city moved out. The elegant dwellings, most built between 1895 and the late 1920's, were designed by some of the outstanding architects of the day.

They are the early homes of Edsel Ford, Arthur Buhl, James T. Webber, Henry Ewald, Hugh Chalmers, John F. Dodge, Ernest Kanzler . . .

This year's tour features seven homes and two gardens. Proceeds, (tickets are $4 each, plus an additional $2 for a guided walking tour), are used for projects within the Indian Village Historic District.

The new State of Michigan Historic Marker for Indian Village, to be dedicated today, was purchased and erected from funds raised via past tours.

Sharing the spotlight at today's dedication ceremonies with Governor William G. Milliken, Mayor Coleman A. Young and other dignitaries is John Owen, III, of Stephens road, son of the founder of Indian Village and president since 1919 of the former Cook Farm Company, Ltd., the Village's developer.

older teenagers, Miss Cooper becomes even more involved in demonstrating steps. Quietly whistling the accompaniment, she traces out the complicated footwork while the girls look on. The movements of the older girls are more polished, more refined.

"The older girls will show you a much finer line," she advises. "They're more experienced and mature, and naturally more stylish."

Miss Cooper examines each girl's movements, body lines, and head placement. The instruction is very personal, with each girl receiving individual care during the class period. And through it all shines Miss Cooper's enthusiasm. She obviously loves what she is doing.

Now she sits at the piano to accompany a dance. Now she is up again, praising Lisa for a tourne well done, slapping a protruding derriere, taking the lead to illustrate the pirouette.

Classes run six days a week all year, and twice a year Miss Cooper stages elaborate recitals.

Bow to Instructor
This class ends with the customary bow to the instructor, along with a special treat—candy. "And this is not because you danced really well today, oh no. Does anybody know why you're getting candy today? Because it's my birthday, that's right."

One student cried today out of frustration at having missed a step. Many others grimaced, strained, giggled, whispered secrets, laughed. The ballet is definitely alive in Grosse Pointe. And it is definitely not kid stuff.
