BOTH HOUSES of the State Legislature approved bills that will outlaw the sale or use of all fireworks except toy caps and sparklers by July 1. The two-bill package is more stringent than the emergency ban declared by Gov. Milliken and Attorney General Frank Kelley a week ago. An amendment was included in the Senate version allowing persons with fireworks a 24-hour grace period during which they are allowed to turn the explosives in to police. Gov. Milliken is expected to sign the bill today.

Friday, June 23

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter and organized labor were handed a major defeat when a labor law revision bill was sent back to committee in the face of a Senate filibuster. The bill would have made it easier for unions to organize new shops while penalizing employers who deliberately attempted to stop unionization. Senate Majority Leader Robert Byrd made the motion to return the bill to committee after 19 days of debate, during which six motions to limit debate failed.

Saturday, June 24

TEAMSTERS PRESIDENT Frank Fitzsimmons, in a rare news conference, warned the Carter administration to curb inflation or face new wage demands from union members. The 70-year-old union boss also criticized Mr. Carter for ignoring him as a labor confidant. In other news, the President told an audience on a two-day trip through Texas that the U.S. will not be pushed around by the Russians. Mr. Carter also defended Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and national security advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski against charges that they differ on methods of dealing with the Soviets on foreign policy.

EIGHT BRITISH missionaries and four of their children were massacred by black guerillas in a remote Rhodesian school for blacks near the Mozambique border. Six to eight gunmen attacked the mission school during the night. The victims were hacked apart with clubs, axes and bayonets, authorities said. The guerillas described themselves as being from the Zimbabwe African National Union, based in Mozambique.

GOVERNOR WILLIAM Milliken called a proposed Michigan tax reform plan "a serious mistake" and said it would cripple basic government services. The plan, backed by a central Michigan group, would roll back property tax assessments 50 percent immediately. The group, the Coalition for Property Tax Reform, claims to have 110,000 of the necessary 266,000 signatures required to put the proposal on the November ballot. A Milliken aide said the Governor was startled to hear that the group had so many signatures.

Tuesday, June 27

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter threatened to veto a tax cut which is being drafted in Congress, saying that it would offer "huge tax windfalls for the millionaires and two bits for the average American." The proposal, currently before the House Ways and Means Committee, would reduce the level of capital gains taxes and would provide $2 billion in tax cuts for the super rich, while offering the worker who makes less than $20,000 an average of only 25 cents in relief, Mr. Carter said.

Church School Parade Re-enacts Palm Sunday

Approximately 150 children from the Vacation Church School took part in a parade on Monday, June 26, designed to show the students what Palm Sunday must have been like for Christ. Playing the part of Christ was four-year-old NEIL KOPP, being pulled in a wagon. The parade is one event in the adventure center of the school, which is jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church and Saint Paul Lutheran Church. Children from all churches are welcome to the school, which runs for two weeks.

Administrative Staff Eyed by School Board

Trustees Okay Two-Year Contracts Including Pay Raises Based on Merit System; Appoint New Personnel Director, Name Dr. Hoeh to New Post

By Susan McDonald

The Board of Education turned attention to its administrative staff at its last meeting of the school year Monday, June 26, granting two-year contracts that include pay raises based on a merit system and filling two vacancies in the central office.

Mount Clemens attorney Ronald Tonks was appointed new director of personnel, based on the recommendation of Superintendent Dr. William Coats. The position was vacated this spring by Lawrence Kennedy who retired after 25 years with the system.

Mr. Tonks specializes in labor law and is currently in private practice. He has worked as a teacher, union president, organizer and director of labor relations in the Lake Shore School District.

"Ideal Complement" Dr. Coats commented that Mr. Tonks will be an "ideal complement" to the second appointment formally approved by the Board Monday, Dr. James Hoeh, who will become assistant superintendent for administrative services.

Dr. Hoeh has been principal at South High School since 1974. A replacement for him at South has not yet been selected.

The trustees approved a three-year contract for Dr. Hoeh and a two-year agreement with Mr. Tonks. The remaining administrators all received two-year extensions Monday, as well as pay raises based on a merit system.

As a group, the administrators have agreed to seven percent annual increases in pay. Only four of that seven percent will be distributed across the board, though, with the remaining three percent being allocated on the basis of individuals' ranking on a merit scale.

This is the second year of the program. In the 1977-78 school year, a flat five percent raise was given to all administrators, and two percent distributed on the basis of merit.

Important

A deadline change for news copy and classified advertising copy will be instituted for the July 6 edition of the NEWS because of the Fourth of July holiday.

All copy for the news section must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Friday, June 30, while the classified advertising deadline will be 12 noon on Monday, July 3.

But still the deadline for society copy remains the same, the Thursday before the issue in which you want the story to appear, while the display advertising deadline also remains the same, Tuesday at 12 noon.

Tax Levy Drops .25 Of a Mill

But, Because of Hike in Assessed Valuation, Citizens Will Pay An Average of $47.87 More in Taxes

By Roger A. Waha

Cognizant over steadily increasing costs of running a municipal government, yet ever aware of recent tax limitation efforts, the Shores Council at its regular meeting Tuesday morning, June 20, unanimously adopted the Village's 1978-79 fiscal year budget.

The municipality's general fund budget for April 1, 1978, to March 31, 1979, is placed at $1,557,492, some 13.3 percent higher than the $1,376,084 figure for 1977-78.

At the same time, the council, as Village President Gerald C. Schroeder put it, "As an expression to keep costs in line," lowered the tax rate per $1,000 State Equalized Valuation, (SEV), from 17.25 mills last fiscal year to 17.00 mills in 1978-79.

Average Bill Rises Even though the levy dropped .25 of a mill, citizens, according to Village computations, will pay an average $47.87 more in taxes based upon a typical tax bill, an estimated six percent increase. (This may be slightly higher or lower in any given instance.)

This is because the assessed valuation has risen around seven and a half percent in the community, $60,430,156 in 1978-79 over $55,529,440 last fiscal year.

A factor of 1.30 was applied to assessments in 1978-79, whereas the Village used a factor of 1.21 last fiscal year. (A factor of 1.14 was utilized in 1976-77, 1.08 in 1975-76 and 1.00 from 1972-74.)

Revenues other than from property taxes are expected to bring in $530,180 in 1978-79, while monies to be raised from property taxes are placed at $1,027,312, making the $1,557,492 total.

The document considered by the council was the third revised budget as prepared by Mr. Schroeder, Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jafferis and Councilman Robert Palmer.

Eye Sentiment In viewing the recent tax limitation drives and an unclear future, Mr. Palmer told the council he would like to see the tax rate left at 17.25 mills, thus providing an estimated total of $16,000 for contingencies and for DPW negotiations.

"It's ideal to cut taxes but I'd like to keep the rate at 17.25," he said. "But if the council wants 17.00, I'll go for it."

Councilman Carl Hedeon addressed himself to the tax limitation philosophy and working toward such a general.

Vandals Hit GPW Mailbox

Fireworks were apparently tossed inside a mailbox at the southwest corner of Mack avenue and Huntington road Tuesday evening, June 20, causing an explosion which blew open the door of the enclosure and damaged several pieces of mail.

Woods Officer William Deslets reported a citizen told him she observed a black two-door vehicle stop by the box. The driver exited and placed something inside before running back to his car. At this time, she heard a loud explosion.

The suspect was described as white, around 22 years of age with long black hair. Officer Deslets contacted the Detroit Postmaster's Office and was informed that someone would be sent out to pick up the 12 pieces of mail and to repair the mailbox.

Fire Damages Park's Old Place Restaurant

A fire of unknown origin severely damaged the Old Place Restaurant, 15301 East Jefferson avenue, in the early morning hours of Sunday, June 25, according to information released by Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

At 1:25 a.m. an automatic telephone alarm came to The Park fire station, which brought an immediate response of assistance from The City, Farms and Woods under the Mutual Fire Aid Pact, Chief Costa said.

The chief noted the Detroit Fire Department also responded from the Jefferson-Hart Station, without being asked for assistance, but the contingent returned to its station upon learning it wasn't needed.

The fire may have started in one of the employee lockers in the basement and by the time firefighters arrived, the flames had extended through the walls of the locker room and into the basement ceiling.

Chief Costa said because the basement had no window outlets to allow the smoke to escape, firefighters had great difficulty in combating the flames. Three huge ventilating fans had to be utilized to eject the smoke so the firemen could see what they were doing.

He said the smoke was so intense that it permeated the restaurant section and reached

YSD Gives School Year High Marks

Division Detectives Cite Cooperation from All, Make Plans for September

By Roger A. Waha

The Youth Service Division's, (YSD), four detectives all agree the recently concluded school year was a good one and now the officers are making plans for the fall in an effort to maintain and even expand their penetration at all school levels.

Accessibility again remains the keynote of the bureau, with both school officials and representatives of clubs and organizations being invited to contact the YSD, (886-2908), for speaking engagements on a wide variety of subjects.

Let Us Know Det. John Albrecht, who works in the North High School district with Det. James Fowler, said topics include the criminal justice system, the court system, both juvenile and adult, law enforcement, child neglect and abuse, the Emergency "E" program and child safety, along with fire, home and bicycle safety.

"The year went super," said Det. Albrecht, in citing the cooperation of the school administration, students and parents. "Anywhere we've been in the community,"

Summer Music Festival Draws 500 to Opener; Next Concert July 5

Honored Pianist Cynthia Raim to Perform Beethoven, Chopin, Prokofiev, Schumann; Citizens Invited to Picnic Prior to Performance

By Irene Moran

The War Memorial opened its 21st annual Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival on Sunday evening, June 18, with a concert by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, conducted by the orchestra's guest conductor and associate to the music director, Werner Torkanowsky.

Over 500 festival-goers attended the opener which was staged on the War Memorial's lakeside terrace, with the day's rainy weather forecast turning into a perfect evening for the event.

Pre-concert picnickers began arriving at 6 p.m. and soon the audience lawn site was filled with parties and family gatherings, many representing long-time supporters of the festival.

Starts at Two The Detroit Symphony was enthusiastically received, meriting the return bows of Maestro Torkanowsky.

The remaining three concerts will be held on consecutive Wednesday evenings, at 8 p.m., starting July 5 with a program featuring Cynthia Raim, 26, concert pianist.

A native of Detroit, she began playing the piano by ear when only two-years-old. From age six to 18, she was a protegee of Detroit's distinguished pianist and teacher, Mischa Kottler. She then continued her studies at the Curtis Institute of Music with Mieczyslaw Horszowski and Rudolf Serkin. Following her graduation in 1977, Miss Raim won first prize in the annual Three Rivers National Piano Competition. She was soloist with the Pittsburgh Symphony in May 1977, and will appear in major solo recital series in Pittsburgh and Baltimore this season.

While at Curtis, in June 1973, she won second prize in the J. S. Bach International Competition held in Washington, D.C. In April 1974, she was recipient of the Festsrazi Award presented annually by the director to the most promising piano student.

Makes Debut Miss Raim made her debut at age nine, performing Mozart's Piano Concerto in F Major, K 459, with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the youngest soloist in that orchestra's history to perform an entire concerto.

She has since performed with the Detroit Symphony on nine additional occasions, playing a wide range of repertoire. Upon the invitation of conductor Arthur Fiedler, Miss Raim performed with the Toledo

New Detective Joins Youth Bureau July 1

By Roger A. Waha

Woods Officer William Deslets, 31, who joined the department in September 1970, will become a member of the Youth Service Division, (YSD), on Saturday, July 1, replacing Det. Patrick Fagan in the South High School district.

This action was taken as part of the rotation system affecting division personnel, usually on a four-year basis. Det. Fagan will now be reassigned to the uniform division.

While admitting he doesn't know all the "ins and outs" of the YSD, Officer Deslets said he's looking forward to his new position. "It will be a challenge, something new and different. I hope I can do as well as my predecessor. Pat Fagan did a real fine job," he said.

"I know it will be real interesting and I feel I will enjoy working with the young people," added Officer Deslets.

He will join an old friend, Det. Jack Treppa, who joined the department two months before he did, in the South High district.

In fact, his friendship with Det. Treppa dates back to 1967 when his wife and the detective's wife went through nursing school together and both men were in the service. Officer Deslets in the Army and Det. Treppa in the Navy.

Shores Council Okays New Budget

(Continued from Page 1) eral sentiment, while Councilman Frank Colombo said he was against the 17.25 figure "because of the sentiment of the people in cutting down as much as you can."

Noting that the SEV has risen and taxes will still increase even with the 17.00 rate, Mr. Colombo stressed, "We should demonstrate to the community that we are trying to do something. We should demonstrate that we are working in that direction."

In saying the Village is fortunate to have some developments currently underway, he cited a fear, with ever increasing tax burdens, of possibly forcing some citizens out of the community.

Out of Hands
Feeling that the council should strive for the 17.00 figure, Mr. Schroeder said an effort should be made to hold the line despite the fact that certain costs are out of the hands of officials, e.g., insurance.

He also cited "built in" contingencies in the budget, i.e., accumulating funds in the budget over a period of years, to buy needed equipment.

Mr. Palmer then moved that the tax rate of 17.25 mills be adopted and his motion failed by a 4-2 vote with Councilman C. Bradford Lundy joining him in the minority.

The council in an ensuing motion unanimously adopted the $1,557,492 figure for 1978-79 and, finally, the 17.00 mill amount for the new fiscal year.

Obviously disgruntled, Mr. Schroeder, in noting the almost $5 million increase in SEV, said something should be done about the formula used to arrive at such valuations, eyeing the emphasis upon sales. "The assessment of 1,000 homes should not be based upon the sales of 10 homes," he said.

Unknown Factors
Exploring the new budget, Mr. Jeffers said there are so many things which are out of the control of officials on the cost front.

"This makes it difficult to run the Village in a fiscally responsible manner," he stated, while citing the fact that insurance costs were almost $19,000 more in 1977-78 than originally budgeted, ($44,637.50 over $26,000).

Saying the community provides a high level of services for its residents and strives to maintain such services as it has in the past, Mr. Jeffers noted, "Increases in salaries, cost of living adjustments and effects of inflation are difficult to cope with."

"On the other hand, there's a great sentiment today in the taxpayers' revolt. Where we will get off, I don't know."

The 1978-79 budget reflects increased costs in almost every area over the 1977-78 document. An exception to this is financial administration in the administrative category which drops from the budgeted figure of $79,686 last fiscal year to $65,150.

Increases Seen
In other major areas, increases are mainly reflected in salaries, fringe benefits, pension plans and workmen's compensation.

Public safety costs jump from the budgeted $599,711 to $660,712 in 1978-79; building and grounds, $98,771 to $111,040; public works, $129,832 to $137,545; sanitation, $119,360 to $137,893; water department, $135,100 to $165,100; and parks and recreation, $62,800 to $72,700.

Meanwhile, that of budgeted figure in 1978-79. The new budget also contains $20,000 for the resurfacing of the Village's parking area.

Much to the delight of officials, the community is coming off a healthy fiscal year.

While the municipality overspent $39,709.98 in 1977-78, (aforementioned insurance costs accounted for 50 percent of this amount), around $54,000 in additional revenues were received over the budgeted figure of $1,376,084. As a result the community was on the plus side by around $14,000.

How Things Change
This was cited by Mr. Schroeder in his review of the Village's audit report for 1977-78, prepared by Collins, Buri and McConkey, certified public accountants, of Birmingham.

The report contained a 10-year summary of taxes levied and collected, beginning with fiscal year 1968-69. In reviewing this summary, Mr. Schroeder called the municipality's schedule of growth "alarming."

For example, in 1968-69, the Village's SEV was $35,321,485, its tax rate, 15.00 mills, and its total taxes levied, $529,839.95.

In 1972-73, the respective figures were as follows: $43,348,042, 16.25 mills and $704,332.71.

And, again, for 1978-79, the figures show $60,430,156, 17.00 mills and $1,027,312.

Pact Extension Approved

Noting that the constituent municipalities have approved such acquisitions and have amended the original contract of June 6, 1967, to incorporate such approval and the issuance of bonds to finance the cost, the measure cites the necessity for each community to okay a further amendment of the pact to extend the term, making it a total 25 years, to May 1, 2003.

The authority has been directed by the state to construct the stack because of complaints from Clinton residents, (it's located in Clinton Township), and citizens living in surrounding areas over the odors emanating from the plant, and because of the fly ash from the present stacks.

Authority representatives earlier stated they want to comply with the state directive because they wish to maintain a good working relationship with the state and because they wish to maintain positive relations with area citizens.

As for the land fill site for the ash, the authority is seeking a location for the site which can be used for a good number of years.

Some concerns over extending the contract were expressed at the meetings of both the Woods and Farms Councils.

Woods Councilman George Cuetler questioned why should the contract now extend the contract now, saying further information was needed on studies being conducted at the incinerator, e.g., in relation to the height of the new stack.

In fact, Mr. Cuetler recalled the council's motion of approval to the bond issue in January and a stipulation in its content, that such support is conditioned upon the authority securing the necessary engineering studies and tests so the council can be assured of the proper stack height toward correcting conditions of odor and nuisance caused by the downward flow of smoke plume.

Concerns over the future in relation to the incinerator also were viewed, e.g., Would extending the contract be in the best interest of the community and what would happen if, after all the work is done, pollution standards were still not met?

Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, who represents his community on the authority's board, said all eight communities must agree to extend the contract. If one or two fail to do so, the life of the present contract, which carries into the 1990's, would remain in force.

It's The Best
In The Farms, Councilman W. James Mast said he didn't like the idea of the city getting "locked in" to a contract which would run for 25 years.

He pointed out that as waste technology changes, the city may wish to take its refuse elsewhere for disposal.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman said she would like to see paper refuse separated for purposes of recycling. City Manager Andrew Bremer said that such a move would be economically unfeasible.

If some doubts were expressed in The Woods and Farms, the City Council approved the extension without comment, while the Shores Council followed suit.

Indicating engineering studies are continuing, Shores Councilman C. Bradford Lundy, who represents his community on the authority's board, stated he still feels the incinerator is the best in the state.

Shores Raises Boat Well Fees

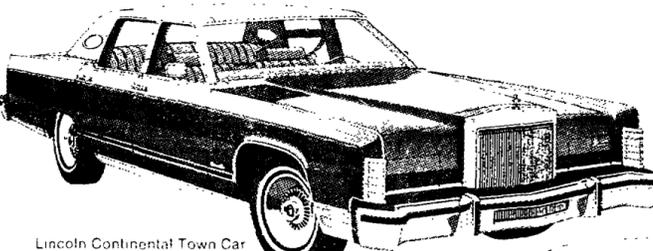

The Shores Council at its regular meeting Tuesday morning, June 20, agreed to raise boat well fees from 40 cents to 50 cents per square foot of area occupied in a fee effective next year.

The reason for the hike is because of an increase in the bond payment for the self-sustaining marina next year, officials pointed out.

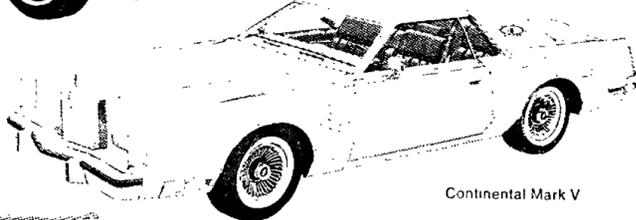

When renewal notices are mailed to citizens next January, the new raise will be viewed.

Wine Lines
by John Lundberg

Tasting a wine is easy, but describing its taste is not. Often, wine brings various fruits into the minds of tasters. Raisins, coconuts, apricots, and raspberries are perhaps the most common tastes described for good wines. Bad wines are often described in terms of a vegetable taste, or flowers, such as geraniums (though you might wonder how many people have actually tasted geraniums). But everyone has their own taste and what might be an apple to one person might taste like a prune to someone else. And who says vegetables don't taste good?

At PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 there's a wine to suit every taste. In addition to our top collection of fine wines, we have keg beer in both 1/2 and 1/4 barrels—great for your 4th of July cookout. We will supply all the necessary tapping equipment at no extra charge, and you can choose from among any keg beer available in the State of Michigan. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri. & Sat.

HELPFUL HINT:

Cold beer is excellent to clear the tannin taste out of the mouth after a long session of wine tasting.

Water, Sewer Bills Rise In Farms, City, Shores

Water and sewer bills to Pointe homeowners will again increase substantially this summer as the result of an Environmental Protection Agency, (EPA), suit to clean-up Detroit's downriver sewage treatment facility.

This month, four Pointe city councils approved increases in the water-sewer rate structures, ranging from a 23 percent hike in The Shores to a 10 percent increase in The Park. All the increases are effective with the regular Saturday, July 1 billings.

The Woods Council approved a new rate structure in May.

The increases are slightly lower than those passed on to Pointes last summer, which ranged from 20 percent to almost 40 percent over previous rates.

The additional charges are the result of an EPA suit against Detroit's downriver sewage treatment plant which serves Detroit and 78 surrounding communities. The EPA charged the facility fails to comply with regulations on pollution standards, plant construction, maintenance and training.

The Detroit sewage authority is raising the improvement funds through a series of rate increases to its suburban customers which began last summer and will continue through the summer of 1979.

The Detroit authority's action has been contested by several of the 78 suburban communities affected.

Approving increases at meetings on Monday, June 19, were the City and Farms Councils.

Farms' rates per 1,000 cubic feet of water will jump from $6.30 to $7.70, about 22 percent. Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer said this would result in an average bill of $30 for three months.

In The City, the increase per 1,000 cubic feet will amount to about 21 percent, from $7.05 to $8.55.

At the same time, the City Council voted to decrease the minimum bill from 1,750 to 1,500 cubic feet. City Manager Thomas Kressbach said the move was aimed at taking some of the sting out of the overall rate hike for senior citizens and others who use a relatively small amount of water.

Siren Blast Causes Calls

A short test blast of the tornado warning siren, located at the southwest end of the Lochmoor Club, on Monday afternoon, June 26, brought dozens of calls to The Woods city hall and public safety department from startled residents.

Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara said the switchboard "lit up like a Christmas tree," while Public Safety Director John Dankel noted that the brief blast was to test controls of the system.

Citizens should be prepared for such tests on the first Monday of each month around 12 noon, beginning Monday, July 3. At that time, it's anticipated the siren will blast for from three to five minutes.

Atop a 90-foot pole donated by the Detroit Edison Co., the siren was purchased with city funds and a 50 percent matching grant obtained through the Wayne County Office of Emergency Preparedness. The total cost was $11,480.

Indicating that the siren will be operated by the Department of Public Safety, Director Dankel said a steady blast lasting from three to five minutes will be sounded when a tornado has been sighted or has touched down. Citizens then must listen to their radios for the all-clear.

Another signal is a warbling sound which alternates from a low to a high pitch. This, he noted, would be sounded in the event of a nuclear attack.

At the same time, Director Dankel said in the event of an extraordinary occurrence other than a tornado or nuclear attack, the steady three to five minute blast will be sounded. In this event, a citizen is asked to turn on his radio or TV to obtain necessary information.

Shores Amends Rubbish Law, Concealment Eyed

By Roger A. Waha

The question of rubbish storage prior to a citizen's day of collection was viewed by the Shores Council at its regular meeting Tuesday morning, June 20.

Following the display of rubbish on a resident's property was unsightly, Councilwoman Elizabeth S. Kuhlman said, "It should be concealed from passers by and neighbors and it shouldn't be put out until its time."

Village Attorney William Killebrew cited the problem of a citizen who cuts his grass several days before a collection day and ends up with four or five bags. Where is the resident going to place it?

Mrs. Kuhlman replied that it should be concealed, while also viewing the odor problem of grass clippings, with the citizen to decide where.

Mr. Killebrew said any amendment to the Village's rubbish ordinance would have to be general in wording, rather than specific in nature, i.e., telling residents how to store rubbish on their own property.

As it turned out, the council unanimously re-adopted the measure subject to the additional wording emphasizing concealment, with the amendment becoming effective 20 days after its enactment date.

The affected section of the law eyes the time of placement of disposable rubbish bags or containers for collection.

This section says all rubbish and refuse shall be prepared for collection and placed at the designated collection point on or before 7 a.m. on the regularly scheduled collection day for the particular area being serviced.

However, no such rubbish or refuse shall be placed at such collection point in any residential area before 5 p.m. on the day preceding the regularly scheduled collection day.

The amendment then reads until the time of placement such rubbish bags or containers shall be concealed from view.

Thousands of viewers came down to the "Village" last week to see nearly 80 exhibits in the fourth annual Village Art Fair, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Artists Ass'n. and Village Ass'n.

Proceeds from the event were turned over to the Art Wing of the War Memorial.

Outstanding artists in the show were honored for the first time ever this year with purchase awards made available by local merchants.

First award went to West Bloomfield artist Maureen Voorheis for her three dimensional copper work with enameled overlay. The award was made by the Village Ass'n.

The Walton Pierce award was won by Joyce Ellison of Troy for her water color. Hickey's award went to Gino Lombardi for an off-hand blown glass vase. Paula G. Grissell won the Jacobson's award for her pottery vase with lizard decorations.

Fair organizers were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pluhar of Lincoln road. The awards committee included W. Michael Williams, Clarence Day and Kelly Ketterman.

School Year Receives High Marks

 subjects. Such contact, as against dealing with the youths in a negative way, i.e., in relation to offenses committed, is something which pleases all the division's detectives. For Det. Fowler, who joined the YSD in February as part of the rotation system, affecting division personnel, it has been a period of adjustment but one "which has went better than I expected." Cooperation with personnel in all of the schools has been good, he said, while noting he would like to place an extra emphasis on the middle schools in the fall, showing the teachers what the YSD offers via its program.

"The year at South was very, very nice," stated Det. Jack Treppa. "I feel we had the total cooperation from all the schools in the community and, like the North end of town, we had a number of speaking engagements." He felt most of the teachers at South who can utilize the detectives' services do, in fact, make use of the officers for speaking purposes, while adding he's more than willing to speak to more classes.

Best Year Yet
 Det. Treppa also cited the YSD's involvement in addressing itself to the Rotary "Vial of Life" program and the Kiwanis Club's "eyes and ears program" wherein pads and pencils have been given to all safety patrol youngsters in The Woods. It's planned that the latter program will go Pointe-wide in the fall.

New YSD Detective

 mind that Officer Desilets can do a good job," said Woods Det. Lt. Jack Patterson, YSD supervisor in the detective bureau. "He's an intelligent young man and a calm, collected person." For Det. Fagan, one of the most popular YSD detectives among his associates, his four years in the division has been decidedly fruitful. The last few weeks have seen a number of expressions of thanks from his friends and colleagues including a surprise luncheon in his honor last week. "I really should be doing the thanking as I've had the opportunity to work with many professional people," he said appreciatively. "The four years seemed to go by so fast," the detective mused. "There were many good things I was involved in such as the child safety program and the summer park detail, which I hope stays in effect. There also were the magic shows." At the same time, he said there were some programs he wanted to see to completion, which, up to now, haven't materialized such as a musical type of presentation toward relating to the youngsters.

Beginning Saturday, July 1, Det. Treppa will have a new partner in the South district as Det. Patrick Fagan completes four years of duty in the YSD. For Det. Fagan, this was his best year in the division. "Every year seemed to get better," he said, while noting familiarity with the position played a role in this respect. Cooperation with school personnel, parents, the students and the community-at-large has been positive, he added. On the 1st, Officer William Desilets will be assigned to the YSD.

Old Place Fire

 ed the second floor living quarters of the owner, Diamond Phillips, and his son's family, the Douglas Phillips. Much of the damage was caused in the basement by the fire, smoke and water, but mostly by water. He explained that the heat of the flames melted the solder of the copper pipes, which came apart, pouring unnecessary water into the basement. The chief said that no one was in the building at the time the alarm went off, with the restaurant being completely locked a short time before the fire started. "We are still trying to determine where and how the fire started," Chief Costa said. "As far as can be determined at the present time, it appears that it started in one of the employee's lockers, but we're not sure. However, we are investigating the matter thoroughly."

"I'll be around and I'll put back in for the YSD but this will be up to the administration," he stated. On a personal level, Det. Fagan said the YSD gave him an opportunity of being able to get into an area of specialization where he was able to meet and deal with young people on a day-to-day basis, as against the road patrol where officers deal with people of all ages regularly. "I really feel I relate well with the kids, otherwise the job would have been difficult. I'm also a 'ham' in a way and I've had the opportunity to deal with the masses by way of speaking engagements, which I've enjoyed," he said. "Of all the people in the YSD since its inception, (it became fully operational in August 1970), Det. Fagan has been one of the very best," noted Lt. Patterson. "He has handled himself beautifully and he's very personable. It's sort of sad to see him go."

Staff Eyed

 The merit pay system is geared toward improving accountability and performance on the job, according to Dr. Coats. The staff members proceed through a rigorous series of evaluations throughout the year before they are assigned their final ratings after a conference with Dr. Coats. Though Dr. Coats originally hoped to place all pay raises for administrators on a merit basis, two years of experience with the program has changed his mind. "What we're seeing now is a little too much variability in the pay scales," he said. "Two percent on the merit scale may better suit our purposes." He added in general he feels the administrators have responded well to the system. "Some would just as soon avoid all the excitement, I'm sure, but overall, I think it had a good impact."

"I wish to extend my sincerest thanks to the fire departments of The City, Farms and Woods for their quick response to the alarm. They did an excellent job in assisting us in putting out a very difficult fire. My compliments to them and to the men of our department for a job well done. "Without their quick response, matters could have gotten out of hand, considering where the flames were located and the fact that we had to do quite a bit of ventilating to clear away the smoke to see what we were doing." Not to leave out the Detroit Fire Department, Chief Costa said it is a good feeling to know that The Park has a large neighboring city willing to aid in the fire, without being asked. He said that he extends his gratitude to Detroit for volunteering its service. The chief said that he is unable to determine the amount of damage to the Old Place Restaurant, nor when it will be open again for business.

Fourth of July

 Park will include a flag ceremony, singing of the national anthem by De Shaheen and a special youth band led by Joe Shaheen, according to Ray Starlette, entertainment chairman. Sam Smith will organize games for the children. Everyone is invited to bring their lunch. Park Boy Scouts will be selling hot dogs and pop.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry Valente

For many centuries, men wore their watches on chains. So, there were different fashions in the kinds of watch chains men wore. Gradually, the wrist watch took over in popularity and pocket watches became items of another age. But, lately, there has been a resurgence in the popularity of pocket watches for men, whether worn with vested suits or hanging from belt loops. So, again, watch chains and fobs are in fashion.

Whether you are making a purchase or having an item repaired, our reputation here at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-1800, is your guarantee of satisfaction. If your watch is not working properly, bring it in. We are well known for our reliable watch repair service. If the prongs on your ring are worn, do bring it in to us for rebuilding. Rebuilt prongs add life to your rings and prevent the losing of precious stones.

HELPFUL HINT:

Woods Nixes Request from Seniors on Flyers

By Roger A. Waha
A request from the Senior Citizens Commission to the Woods Council regarding the expenditure of funds for flyers on the housing question at Ghesquiere Park was unanimously denied by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, June 19.

The commission at its Monday, June 12, meeting unanimously approved a motion asking the council to approve the expenditure of approximately $500, (allocated for surveys and questionnaires in the commission's budget for 1977-78), to cover costs of printing and mailing the flyers to all Woods seniors.

As seniors, the flyer quoted the advisory ballot question and indicated an application for an absentee ballot would be enclosed. It also originally quoted city planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers on the park site being a suitable location for such housing.

However, based upon the advice of City Attorney George Catlin, the council denied such expenditure of funds.

Mr. Catlin told the solons he objected to the entire concept because such a request would be an unlawful expenditure of city funds to finance the mailing of the flyer.

As for the mailing of absentee ballots, he said the mailing of the documents to senior citizens could be misconstrued. He stated it would be against the law to use such monies either in support of or against such a proposal via sending a particular age group an absentee ballot application.

For that matter, noted Mr. Catlin, citizens can contact the city on such applications.

At the same time, he suggested that the seniors could form a committee in compliance with the Campaign Finance Reporting Law and file ensuing reports as usual.

With the council's action, Senior Citizens Commission chairman Irene Sutton said she does plan to have a committee formed, while also planning to go to the seniors' group which meets twice a month at North High School to see if they would provide monies, around $150, to print some 6,000 flyers.

The indicated permission will be sought from the seniors at their Thursday, July 6, meeting on the use of monies donated over a period of time for coffee, et al.

As for the distribution of flyers, Mrs. Sutton said they probably will be hand-delivered to all households in the city a few days before the August 8 primary election.

When asked if she felt the commission's request before the council might hurt the seniors' chances for a favorable vote, Mrs. Sutton replied in the negative, saying that all actions have transpired in public, both good and bad.

She felt a minority might feel this way, while adding, "We'll fight even harder." At the same time, Mrs. Sutton stated the commission is planning to come before the council again to seek approval for sending out absentee ballot applications to seniors as a service.

She also said commission members recently explored the need for seniors' housing in all forms and facets, with members of the Citizens Recreation Commission, saying the group was "receptive but subdued."

City Council Approves New Schedule of Fines

Motorists traveling City streets will face stiffer penalties for violating traffic laws after Saturday, July 1, when a new schedule of fines will go into effect.

The City Council approved increases in the fines for some 80 violations from "splashing" to "speeding" at its Monday, June 19, meeting.

Most of the new penalties are about double the amount of present fines with some exceptions. The new fines correspond more closely to the fines in surrounding communities and, in a few cases, exceed them.

Proposed increases in parking meter violations will not go into effect for about two weeks, until City officials have had a chance to discuss the new rates with the Village Ass'n. at its Tuesday, July 11, meeting, according to Public Safety Director Bruce Kennedy.

Sharp increases in speeding penalties will go into effect Saturday. The fee for being caught driving 16 to 20 miles over the limit will go from $20 to $50, the highest in The Pointe; 11 to 15 miles over will increase from $15 to $35; and one to 10 miles over from $10 to $20.

Other traffic violations were either $15 or $20. The new fee schedule was prepared and recommended to the council by Municipal Judge Stan Kazul, Director Kennedy and City Manager Thomas Kressbach.

The last revision was completed in 1970.

Farms Clears Arson Cases

The rash of arsons which occurred in The Farms last November was apparently cleared up when Farms police questioned a youth who they believe was responsible for the fires.

Although police will not reveal the youth's name, they would say that he is a resident of The Farms. Further, they stated that although he failed a number of polygraph tests, enough evidence is not available to prosecute him.

"We feel he's responsible for the majority of the fires," said Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem. "He flunked six polygraph tests and his only remark was 'your machine must be broken.'"

He said that polygraph tests were not admissible in court as evidence, but that since the youth has known that the police suspect him in the arsons, no more such incidents have occurred.

A series of 11 fires occurred between last November 5 and 19, most in garages of residences in Merriweather, McKinley, Lothrop, Mount Vernon, Cloverly and McMillan roads.

Farms police narrowed down a list of some 30 suspects by interviews and polygraph tests.

A $1,000 reward also was authorized by the Farms Council for information leading to the arrest of the arsonist. The reward money was never utilized.

At the time the arsons were occurring, the police conferred with a criminal psychiatrist who put together a profile of the arsonist.

The profile described the arsonist as a white male between the ages of 13 and 20 who lived in the area. It also stated that he had a deep emotional problem such as schizophrenia for which he had been treated in the past.

Cites Officer On MA Degree

Shores Public Safety Officer Michael Kenyon, 29, who joined the department in June '71, received high words of praise from Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale upon completing requirements for a Master of Public Administration degree at Wayne State University this summer.

"He is a young, outstanding, dedicated officer and I have no doubt he will have a good career in police work," the director said.

"He's the type of officer we're glad to have, any city would be glad to have and the type any chief would be proud to have on his department."

A graduate of Hutzel High School, Lansing, the officer has an associate degree in business from Lansing Community College and received his Bachelor of Science degree from Western Michigan University. He also taught as a substitute teacher in the Roseville School System.

After joining the department, Officer Kenyon, one of four certified scuba divers on the force and a certified breathalyzer operator, had continued his schooling as a member of the department in a variety of subjects, e.g., a detective school and a fire school.

Problems in Brys Drive Viewed Again in Woods

Traffic control in Brys drive was again discussed by citizens and members of the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 19, in relation to a report from city planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers.

One citizen told the solons since the "no right turn" and "no left turn" signs were installed earlier in the year there has been no appreciable reduction in traffic, while begging the council to remove traffic from the street.

He also said the trucks still come through at high rates of speed, a problem in the immediate area for the last three years.

Councilman Thomas Fahrner, meanwhile felt the public safety department wasn't doing the job it could do in relation to nabbing offenders who disobey the signs.

Public Safety Director John Dankel, who joined the department this April, listened to comments of the citizen and the council, saying, because he was basically unfamiliar with the problems, he would have no preconceived notions about possible solutions while saying he would review the matter.

Mr. Rogers, in a letter to council, dated May 25, said he has again examined the Brys traffic question specifically in reference to the feasibility of introducing a cul-de-sac at East Eight Mile road.

In reviewing his recommendations contained in a draft of his land use plan of January 24, along with another report dated January 31, he recommended no traffic enter Brys eastbound from East Eight Mile between 3 and 6 p.m., the point where citizen Bruce Van Farowe's suggests a cul-de-sac be located.

Our other recommendations, all interrelated with each other, were to be "tested on a trial basis through study of 'before and after' traffic counts, accident incidence and resident/merchant opinions on effects achieved," he said.

Mr. Rogers also viewed three solutions to the problem as cited by Mr. Van Farowe. They include the following: Prohibiting any eastbound traffic entering Brys at East Eight Mile, installing a cul-de-sac on Brys near East Eight Mile and closure of Brys just west of alley first west of Mack. All three proposals, he felt, would divert traffic to adjacent streets, e.g., Roslyn and Hampton roads.

On a cul-de-sac on Brys, some property from adjacent properties would have to be acquired to provide necessary right-of-way, thereby reducing the front or possibly side yard spaces for affected homes, noted Mr. Rogers. Engineering plans for a specific site also would be required.

"There is a possibility that because of the short distance of Brys drive between East Eight Mile road and Helen avenue, that a modified cul-de-sac design would be possible. A cul-de-sac on Brys near Mack avenue would necessarily have to meet proper standards owing to the considerable number of homes between Mack and Helen," he continued.

Mr. Rogers then recommended that further new traffic counts, over and above those done in early March, accident data, traffic violations, et al., for the Brys area be taken and compared with earlier data collected prior to the installation of the signs.

If there's no measurable improvement, he suggested other traffic control techniques as cited in his January 31 report.

"Before we would recommend a permanent cul-de-sac at any location, we would certainly suggest a temporary barricade and follow-up traffic counts on adjacent streets," Mr. Rogers added.

A very good friend who owns a home worth $120,000 was wondering if now might not be the time to consider selling and "downgrading" his style of living! The word "downgrading" is what caught my attention. Does moving to smaller quarters necessarily have to be looked upon as losing a bit of prestige? I think not.

The way to do it, I feel, is purchase a small home—and give it the works! There are some of the smallest homes that, upon entering them, become fantastic dream castles. Every imaginable convenience possible, with the finest carpets and decorating are there! It may be true that you have been extravagant—a fifty thousand house with twenty thousand in "extras" quality—but you have accomplished your goal. You now have $70,000 in a home that you truly love and are proud of plus $50,000 cash in the bank!

So when it's time to "step down" call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087. We will take your requirements for that "exact location" and "perfect" house for you to "give the works to". Think how much fun it will be to let the budget go out the window—and live!

Farms Looks At Empty Lot

Parking problems along Mack avenue were again viewed by the Farms Council at its Monday, June 19 meeting, when it discussed the acquisition of an empty lot in Manor road.

The lot, which the city wishes to obtain for parking usage, currently is owned by Arthur M. Keyes of 437 Manor. The lot is located next to his home.

An option to purchase the lot was viewed by the council. It was drawn up with the provision that the city agree to dismiss condemnation proceedings against the Keyes.

According to City Clerk Richard G. Solak, the proceedings by the city "began as a result of the lack of parking in the area—specifically with The Wellington and Dr. Reichert's office there. His, (Mr. Keyes'), lot became a focal point for possible parking in the area. "Mr. Keyes wasn't interested in selling it so the council introduced condemnation proceedings," Mr. Solak continued, explaining that condemnation proceedings are "a means by which a city can obtain property which it feels it needs."

The city must prove the need for the property in court, he added.

The option to purchase, which hasn't yet been signed, was agreed to by the Keyes after the city agreed to drop the court proceedings. The agreement states that the Keyes, upon their sale of the property, will make the sale to the city.

If and when The Farms purchases the property, the cost for construction and maintenance would be shared by The Wellington, Mr. Solak said.

He added that there is no anticipated date for the purchase of the lot. "It's a future thing," he said.

Dr. Robert C. Everett, Dr. William E. Brownscombe, Dr. Roger M. Strong and their staff hosted a Wine and Cheese Party for their patients on Sunday, June 25, at their dental offices on the corner of Lincoln road and Mack avenue.

The occasion was to mark the dedication of the clock recently installed outside the building.

City Mayor John L. King officially unveiled the clock at 2 p.m. with council members Lorenzo D. Browning, Jeanette H. Duffield, Arthur S. Fetters Jr., George D. Henry, Robert L. Nugent and David Robb also participating.

The clock, standing nine feet tall, was designed and made for Dr. Everett in Lausanne, Switzerland. Constructed of brass and wrought iron, it is a giant replica of grandfather's pocket watch.

It is permanently sealed and controlled by means of a mother clock inside the building.

The decorative post is a copy of the 18th century lamp posts found in Les Tuileries in Paris. Dr. Everett intends his clock to serve as a landmark, adding to the beauty of the community and as a service to passers-by, enabling them to check the time.

It is calibrated to be accurate within 10 seconds per year.

The Authority hereby determines that it is necessary to issue additional revenue bonds pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 94 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended, to finance the cost of such stack and disposal site.

Section 3. The Authority does hereby adopt the estimate of thirty (30) years and upwards as the period of usefulness of said stack and disposal site prepared by the General Manager of the Authority and the Estimate of Cost in the amount of $1,200,000 for the project prepared by the General Manager of the Authority. There are hereby authorized to be issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 94 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended, revenue bonds in the aggregate principal sum of $1,200,000 for the purpose of paying the cost of the said new stack and disposal site. Said bonds shall be known as "Incinerator Bonds, Series III," shall be dated as of September 1, 1978; shall be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 240, both inclusive, shall be coupon bonds in the denomination of $5,000 each, shall be registrable as to principal only, in the manner hereinafter set forth in the bond form, shall bear interest at a rate or rates to be hereafter determined not exceeding 7% per annum, payable on April 1, 1979, and thereafter semiannually on the first days of April and October in each year, and shall mature on April 1st in each year as follows:

principal and interest on the herein-authorized bonds payable from the revenues of the project; provided, that the amount so set aside in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Series III for interest on the bonds authorized herein, in each month shall not be less than one-sixth of the total amount of interest maturing on the next interest payment date, and the amount so set aside for principal on the bonds herein-authorized, in each month during each fiscal year, shall not be less than one-twelfth of the amount of principal maturing on the next principal payment date, and if there shall be any deficiency in the amount previously set aside, then the amount of such deficiency shall be added to the current requirement. In addition thereto, there shall also be set aside in monthly installments for the purpose of creating a reserve in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Series III, for the bonds herein-authorized, a sum not less than $15,000 during each of the fiscal years which commence on July 1 in each of the years 1980 through 1984, in order that at the end of said time said reserve shall equal at least $75,000, then there shall be set aside in said reserve annually a sum sufficient to restore said reserve to $75,000 at the earliest possible time. If any additional bonds of equal standing shall be issued, the authorizing ordinance shall provide for a comparable reserve therefor. Moneys in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Series III, may be used for the redemption of bonds; provided, that except in case of redemptions of said issue, shall be called for redemption unless the Authority shall have on hand in said fund sufficient moneys therefor not otherwise appropriated or pledged, in excess of the amount of interest and principal maturing on all issues of bonds then payable from the revenues of the system within the next eighteen months from the redemption date, and for the purpose of determining the amount on hand, moneys in the reserve shall not be considered as appropriated or pledged. When the principal amount owing upon any bonds shall be reduced to the amount of the reserve therefor, then the principal of such bonds shall be paid from such reserve.

3. Replacement Fund. Out of the remaining revenues in the Receiving Fund there shall be next set aside in annual installments in a fund to be designated "Replacement Fund" a sum to be determined annually by the Board to build up a reserve for any improvements and replacements to the project which may become necessary from time to time and for the purchase of new disposal sites.

4. Surplus Fund. Revenues remaining in said Receiving Fund at the end of any fiscal year after all periodical transfers have been made therefrom as above required shall be deemed to be surplus moneys and shall be transferred to a "Surplus Fund." Moneys in the Surplus Fund may be transferred from time to time to one or more of the above-mentioned funds or to other funds established by the Board or may be distributed to the constituent municipalities as directed by the Board.

Section 15. In the event that moneys in the Receiving Fund are insufficient to provide for the current requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Fund or the said Bond and Interest Funds, any moneys and/or securities in other funds of the Authority shall be transferred, first, to the Operation and Maintenance Fund, and second, pro rata, to the said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Series II, and the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, Series III, to the extent of any deficits therein.

All moneys in the several funds of the Authority, including reserve moneys, shall be deposited with the National Bank of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan, except the Bond and Interest Redemption Funds (and the reserves thereto) which shall be deposited with the paying agent for each series of the Authority's bonds. The moneys in the Receiving Fund, in the Operation and Maintenance Fund, and in the Bond and Interest Redemption Funds shall each be kept in a separate depository account. Moneys in the Bond and Interest Redemption Funds, over and above those being accumulated for the payment of the next maturing principal and interest, and moneys in any other fund of the Authority may be invested as provided by law upon authorization of the Board. Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
This Saturday, July 1, marks the beginning of my four-year term as a trustee of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. As I assume that office I would like to thank all of those who worked on my behalf during my campaign and who voted for me in the June 12 election.

The overwhelming majority given me in that election has convinced me that the issues I spoke of during the campaign were the issues that concerned the community.

As an elected trustee, I will work to see to it that the citizens of Grosse Pointe have a right to vote on any increase in the bonded indebtedness for school improvements; that classroom size be reduced; that we begin to put an end to increased administrative overhead as our pupil population decreases; and that the relationships within the total school community be improved.

Achieving these goals and facing the problems of our school system will be difficult tasks. I look forward to working in partnership with my fellow trustees in such tasks. I intend to be an active and vocal member of the Board of Education.

I will endeavor to work during my term of office in the interests of those who elected me — the taxpayers and parents of Grosse Pointe. I hope during the next four years to continue to listen to the voices of the community as I consider the needs of our school system.

Sincerely,
Jon B. Gandelot

War Memorial to Host French Market July 3, 4

The French Festival of Detroit, for the second year in a row, will stage its annual gala French Market on the lawn of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, on Monday, July 3, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. and on Tuesday, July 4, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

In case of rain, the festivities will move into the ballroom.

From the official opening on Monday, with local government representatives present and the 17th Century French Marines performing, until the closing hour on Tuesday there will be a continuous parade of entertainers, an abundance of booths with good things to eat, flea market bargains and, overall, a typically French air of joie de vivre and fun.

Pointer William E. Barry, festival chairman, assisted by Pierre Augier, has rounded up a corps of experienced workers to help on the market, many of whom assisted in similar capacities during the several years the affair was held on the Kern block in downtown Detroit.

Mireille Wilkinson will once again flip her popular and delicious crepes, with a variety of tasty fillings available.

She also will oversee, with the help of Denise L. Con-

Films Highlight Fest Program

The 1978 Academy Award winning "The Sand Castle," so selected in the "Best Short Subject" category, and the official two-hour film of the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal, "Games of the XXI Olympiad," will highlight the offerings of the International Freedom Festival's "Cinema Canada" program.

This variety of film subjects, presented in cooperation with the Consulate of Canada and in honor of Cinema Canada's 10th anniversary as part of the festival, will be shown free in the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium.

The two-hour Olympic Games film will be shown Friday, June 30, at 3 and 6 p.m. The film highlights certain participants before, during and after their events, showing the total Olympic experience.

The Academy Award winner and other short subjects — including three other award winners — will be presented on Monday, July 3, at 2 and 7 p.m. These short subjects also total two hours of viewing time.

In addition to "The Sand Castle," the other award winners include "Fiddle-De-Dee" and "Neighbors" by Norman McLaren, and Lotte Reiniger's adaptation of the 13th century French love story, "Aucasson and Nicolette."

Other films on the 10-film program include "The Flight of the Snow," "Little Big Top," "Mosaic," "The Canadian Air Connection," "Energy Carol" and "Spinnolite."

There is no admission charge for any of the film programs.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

Saturday, July 1 marks the official beginning of a new school year. Shortly thereafter the Board of Education will elect officers and begin their official duties for 1978-79. Therefore, it seems appropriate to devote some space to a discussion of the roles of trustees of the Board of Education.

In my opinion, a member of a Board of Education assumes one of the most important responsibilities that can be assigned to any citizen — that of managing public education. Trustees elected to the Board probably learn more about all aspects of education than they ever thought possible.

I wonder how many Grosse Pointe residents realize that the local Board of Education is a uniquely American institution. It is the best known way to make public schools responsive organizations. It is a commitment to local law control and decision-making in education.

Elected Board of Education trustees are responsible for assuring the provision of educational opportunities to all children and youth in local school districts. They also have the opportunity to effect changes in their individual systems.

Another little-understood fact is that local Board of Education members are state officers selected for office in the manner prescribed by law, and for the purpose of discharging a state responsibility.

As state officers they have had to swear to uphold state laws when they exercise the authority of their office at legally called Board meetings.

trouillis, several other food stalls including French cheese and bread, beignets, quiches and French pastries with plump fresh fruit and dollops of whipped cream.

Other committee heads in the food and beverage area are Mrs. William E. Barry, Yves Carboneau, Ray Garavaglia, Mrs. S. Sidney Newhouse and Yvette DePuma, who will head up the epicure.

Mrs. George A. Kappaz and Mya Bruno, in charge of entertainment, have lined up the versatile and ebullient George Zeff, who was born in France, to be master of ceremonies.

The parade of entertainers will include real cancan dancers, Josephine Senicore and her accordion, a mime group, the Sara Paull Dancers and chanteuse Jeannette Lorente. In addition, the 17th Century Marines, outfitted with authentic uniforms and firearms, will go through their paces from time to time.

Others with French Market responsibilities are treasurers, Dan Gorrel and Ralph Mayer; concessions, Elmo Joseph; decorations and protocol, Warren S. Wilkinson; flea market, Mrs. Anthony A. Vermeulen and Mrs. George Mikhail; property, George deBary; volunteers, Mrs. Frances Sheridan; raffle, Mrs. Elmo Joseph; and publicity, Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall.

Traditionally the profits from this annual market, sponsored by the French Festival of Detroit, go to benefit a civic or cultural project in the greater Detroit area.

The proceeds have contributed to the design and furnishing of a French Room at Wayne State University, to the reenactment of the Cadillac landing during the Bicentennial year, to the acquisition of artifacts relating to the French period of Detroit's history, now displayed at Fort Wayne, and to the development of a life-size diorama for the Moran cabin in the Detroit Historical Museum.

Admission to the 1978 French Market on July 3 and 4 is free.

One View from the Capitol

By William R. Bryant Jr.

Equity in education financing has been a phrase tossed about for many years.

Translated it means two things: First, don't let Grosse Pointers get much, if any, state aid for schools and, second, don't even let them vote taxes on themselves to pay for programs and personnel other districts can't or won't, or pay salaries higher than most districts.

With tax limitation and property tax relief being hot issues the scramble is on in Lansing to take advantage of the mood to completely change education financing and install "equity."

The message you and I must get to all lawmakers is that, even though we may want reduced reliance on the property tax, we want to retain local control of schools and local ability to fund excellence in education.

Two constitutional amendments I am offering would accomplish these goals and tax limitation.

Both provide tax limitation basically the same as the ballot proposal for which petitions are being circulated.

In addition, the first calls for replacing local school property tax with income tax at the rate of one percent income tax for each 11 mills property tax eliminated. The switch would be at local option of the electors.

The second, as an alternative, calls for a 50 percent reduction in assessment, cutting assessment from 50 percent to 25 percent. The state would be mandated to make up the difference no strings attached.

Contrast these, however, with the "equity" proposals, one of which would limit locally generated revenue to 12 mills for "enrichment" even though it is obvious the state would soon assume all districts were levying the "enrichment" millage, thereby eliminating it as enrichment and making it part of basic funding.

Please write your state senators and tell them you do not want any constitutional amendment which takes away the local property tax and takes away local ability to locally fund excellence in our schools.

The future of our community is at stake. The times of greatest danger are between now and July 4 when the legislature will recess and again between September 5 and 8 when we will be back in session and could still place a proposal on the November ballot.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters, Director of Public Libraries

Users of public libraries have an uncountable number of interests and needs. Books, magazines, recordings and films supply many of these needs but not all of them.

Much useable information is found in special publications. A few of them are described below.

FACTS ON FILE is a weekly world news digest published in loose-leaf form by Facts on Film, Inc.

Each weekly issue runs about 20 triple columned pages that summarizes news which has been reported in more than 50 foreign and U.S. newspapers and magazines. The editors make use of official government publications, news releases and documents to insure accuracy and breadth and depth of coverage.

An excellent index makes FACTS ON FILE a quick, easy reference source.

CPI DETAILED REPORT is a monthly report on consumer price movements including statistical tables and technical notes.

This publication of the U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics not only gives statistical data, it breaks it down in units that the average consumer can understand. It does however take time to learn how to interpret the graphs and charts.

CONSUMER NEWS, published by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare Office of Consumer Affairs, comes out on the 1st and 15th of each month. The purpose of this four- to eight-page publication is to report on federal government programs to the consumer.

A recent issue contained a report on Federal Trade Commission proposals to restrict television advertising aimed at children, told readers where to get a list of generic drugs that may be substituted for equivalent but more expensive brand name products, a warning on possible hazards in connection with the use of mercury vapor lamps and an announcement of the recall of Aspen and Volares automobiles.

ECONOMIC INDICATORS is still another government publication.

A Joint Resolution, (S.J. Res. 55), by the 81st Congress authorized the Joint Economics Committee to issue a monthly publication entitled ECONOMIC INDICATORS.

The publication traces the Gross National Product growth from 1967 through 1978, ($796.3 billion in 1967, $1,993.4 billion in 1978), exports and imports of goods and services, gives information about national income, sources of personal income, how much money Americans owe, bond and stock reports, employment statistics and much more.

MOODY'S COMPLETE CORPORATE INDEX, (Moody's Investors Service, Inc.), is a comprehensive index to over 18,000 corporations appearing in these Moody's manuals: Industrial, OTC Industrial, Transportation, Public Utility and Bank and Finance.

The index is useless without the manuals which are all available at the Central Library. There isn't much you can't find out about a particular company if it is indexed.

Remember if you don't see it or can't find it, ask a librarian. The librarian will assist you in using the many special publications that are in our libraries.

Athletes Cited At SH Dinner

South High School's recently held award banquet for spring athletics honored the outstanding athletic accomplishments of many students.

Jim Parson was named the most valuable player in boys track and Chuck Kurtz was voted most improved.

Mary Wilson was honored as the girls' track's most improved runner for her feats in the hurdles. The Hackman brothers, Glen and John, shared the most-valuable award for tennis. The Hackmans were one of the best double teams in the state this year.

Gini Bruce captured the most-valuable player award for girls softball as she contributed consistently throughout the entire season.

Norm Van Sile proved to be the outstanding player on the boys baseball team. Van Sile was named the team's most-valuable player and also won its most improved player award.

He led the Eastern Michigan League in hitting with a .430 average and was voted its all-league shortstop and also made several all-metro teams.

Van Sile established a school record by hitting safely in 14 straight games, and will be up for all-state honors.

Besides baseball, Van Sile also was a tri-captain of the basketball team and has lettered in cross-country. An honor student, he will be attending Kalamazoo College in the fall where he will play both baseball and basketball.

Doctors Head Cancer Study

Dr. Philip Binns and Dr. Norman Nigro, both of The Woods, recently headed a task force for a special cancer study that was developed by Harper-Grace Hospitals physicians as part of the $25 million Cancer Action Now, (CAN), program.

Dr. Binns headed the task force working on head and neck cancers, while Dr. Nigro coordinated the colorectal cancer study.

The medical documents, coordinated by Dr. Melvin Reed, cancer specialist, represent criteria for treatment of four types of cancer and have been sent to the National Cancer Institute for further distribution.

The research study is the first scientific achievement of the CAN program.

CAN is a concerted five-year effort to make cancer detection and treatment available to every resident in metropolitan Detroit.

Funded with $10 million of federal money and $15 million from local sources, the CAN program is the largest cancer control demonstration program ever undertaken in an American city and involves more than 40 agencies including Harper-Grace Hospitals.

Pointe Riders Capture Prizes

Two Grosse Pointers and their horse started off the 1978 horse show season on the right hoof by capturing first place prizes in three of their events during a recent weekend.

Jennifer Holmes of The Farms and Katie Phillips of The Woods rode Ms. Holmes's thoroughbred mare, Water Music, in the first 1978 "B" Circuit horse show, held at Colonial Acres Hunt Club, South Lyon.

Miss Phillips, 14, began the blue ribbon streak by winning Maiden Equitation, the class open to junior riders of either sex who have never won a blue ribbon on the "B" Circuit. Her win qualifies her to go on to Novice Equitation, open to those who have not won three blues, in future shows.

Water Music, who is nominated for 1978 High Point Adult's Hunter and also Regular Working Hunter, earned her day's oats and some points by winning Regular Working Hunter Under Saddle.

Ms. Holmes also rode Music to two point-value third place finishes in Adult's Hunter over fences. In the Warm-Up class over the hunt course of jumps, Ms. Holmes took another third place and beat her trainer, Tim Wright of Metamora.

Ms. Holmes' most impressive first place victory was in the Michigan Hunter-Jumper Ass'n. Adult Medal Class, which qualified her for the ride-off in the "B" Circuit finals at the end of the season.

Riders in the Adult Medal first rode a figure-eight course of nine jumps, including one combination of jumps. The top four riders were required to perform an additional test over the jumps, and Ms. Holmes moved up from fourth to first place in the ride-off.

Riders over 18-years-old must win one first or two seconds in the Adult "B" Circuit Medal in order to qualify for the finals. The "B" Circuit of horse shows is recognized only in Michigan and runs from May through August.

Ms. Holmes and Miss Phillips began showing Water Music together last summer at the finals of the "C" Circuit. Successes at that show prompted them to move up a notch to the more competitive "B" Circuit, held at farms in South Lyon, Chelsea, Flint, Walled Lake and Metamora.

The "A" Circuit, or highest level of competition, is held all over the United States and qualifies its horses and riders for year-end competition at Madison Square Garden in New York.

Haas, director of technical services, MFOA.

A Certificate of Conformance is valid for a period of three years subject to two annual reviews.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Many visitors to the Detroit Institute of Arts have admired the museum's magnificent Chinese and African treasures, a good portion of which were donated by Michigan's Supreme Court Justice G. Mennen Williams and his wife, Nancy.

Last month, a group of Eastern Michigan University art students were privileged to view the Williams' private collection in their Tonnancour place home.

They came with John Van Haren, professor of art at EMU, who was invited by Justice Williams several years ago to bring an Afro-American art class to study the African wood carvings and Chinese pottery.

Van Haren and an EMU colleague, Richard Washington, had consulted Justice Williams, one-time Governor of Michigan who served in the United States State Department for six years as Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, before travelling to Africa on a Rockefeller-Ottlinger Grant to study that continent's folklore.

Hostess to the students and their instructor was Mrs. Williams, who has personal ties to Eastern Michigan University.

She's the former Nancy Quirk, of Ypsilanti, whose father, Daniel Quirk, was largely responsible for the construction of Quirk Theatre on the EMU campus.

Nancy Williams has continued the patron of the arts tradition established by her father. She (Continued on Page 30)

Concert Night at Fort Wayne

A night of 18th and 19th century military music at Historic Fort Wayne on Monday, July 3, will herald the coming of Independence Day in Detroit. The two-hour concert begins at 7 o'clock.

This second annual Freedom Festival event will feature the First Michigan Colonial Fife and Drum Corps and the C. W. Dickerson Fife and Drum Corps from New York, playing music from America's military history, and the 5th Michigan Regimental Band presenting music from the Civil War and late 19th century, plus the colorful Loomis Battery, a Civil War artillery unit.

All four groups appear in authentic period military costumes. Their maneuvers, armaments, musical arrangements and instruments are those of the period they represent.

As this is an event of the Detroit-Windsor International Freedom Festival, there will be no admission charge for the evening. The gates of the fort will open at 6:30 o'clock, allowing visitors time to wander through the fort's tunnels, casemates, powder magazine and ramparts. The barracks museum also will be open for inspection. A 9 o'clock gun salute fired by the Loomis Battery will signal the close of the program.

Additional information regarding the concert or Historic Fort Wayne may be obtained by calling 849-0299.

PORTUGAL

The Portuguese people are delighted to be receiving visitors again and are ready to welcome them all year round. Visitors will find a rich culture, centuries old, marked by the influences of many peoples who settled there over the years—the Visigoths, the Phoenicians, the Romans, the Moors. All have left something of themselves behind.

There is strong folk heritage, and you are never far from a fair or festival, especially between Easter and the end of October. If you want to go beyond Lisbon the choice is wide: the lovely Algarve, with fine beaches, hotels, old towns and modern sports; the fashionable seaside resort of Estoril; the north, above Oporto, rich in folk crafts, wide beaches edged with pines, bursting vineyards for famed Port wine.

Thanks to the new low fares, the plethora of bargain tour packages, Portugal this year will offer some of Europe's best travel values. You can dine in a world-famed restaurant for about $10 each, without wine. Prices for shopping and entertainment are equally advantageous.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James J. Burke, of New York City. Mr. O'Leary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Daniel O'Leary, of Oxford road.

For her late afternoon marriage the former Miss Burke, escorted down the aisle by her brother, James Burke, Jr., of New York City, chose a Victorian gown

Mercedes Hermanovski, daughter of Mrs. Louis Maier, of Douglaston, N. Y., and Arthur Tipling Sempliner, who has his own firm, Chelsea Design Associates, Inc., in New York, were married Saturday, May 27, aboard the yacht "Columbia," where a reception followed the 1 o'clock ceremony.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur William Sempliner, of Vendome road, was attended by two brothers, Claywood Sempliner, of Ann Arbor, and John Alexander (Sandy) Sempliner, of Washington, D.C.

The bride, a painter and environmental designer, wore an antique Victorian gown (c. 1880) of white batiste and lace. Her triple-tiered veil fell from a garland of baby roses.

White daisies, iris and peach roses formed her bouquet.

Honor attendant Constance Woods and bridesmaid Julie Holland, both of New York, wore antique lace dresses and carried bouquets similar to that of the bride.

Mrs. Maier chose a dress of peach chiffon for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore beige chiffon. Both mothers selected cymbidium orchid corsages.

The newlyweds vacationed at Little Dix Bay in the Virgin Islands. They are making their home in Douglaston.

Saturday Wedding for Suzanne Speer

Home in Hartford, Conn., Awaits Mr. and Mrs. John Kiess Henderson, Jr., Who Are Vacationing in Northern Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allan Speer entertained at a reception at their Moran road home following the wedding of their daughter, Suzanne Mary, to John Kiess Henderson, Jr., son of Colonel and Mrs. John Kiess Henderson, of New Orleans, La.

Setting for the 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday, June 24, was Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The newlyweds are vacationing in northern Michigan. They will make their home in Hartford, Conn. For the rites at which Dr. Ray Kiely presided, the former Miss Speer chose to wear her mother's wedding gown of candlelight Chantilly lace, styled with a scalloped neckline and long, slender sleeves.

Her panel skirt formed a round, scalloped train over silk net. A Juliet cap of matching lace held her cathedral length, illusion net veil, and she carried a cascade of daisies, Eucharis lilies and ivy.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Stephen Tille, of Southfield, as honor matron, and bridesmaids Emily Speer, Leslie Henderson, the bridegroom's sister, Molly Macsherry, of Boston, Mass., Barbara O'Reilly, of Burlington, Vt., and Mrs. Kenneth Latronico, of Chicago.

Their floor length dresses of kelly green linen featured cap sleeves, scoop necks and selfties at the sides. They carried cascades of pink Sweetheart roses, yellow daisies, baby's-breath and ivy.

Thomas Clemmons, of New York City, was best man. Guests were seated by Richard Speer, Jr., Paul Dellasega, of Harrisburg, Pa., Robert DiGiacomo, of New York, Lawrence Cirjak, of Madison, Wis., and William Rea, of Governors Island, N.Y.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of floral-printed sheer cotton, square-necked and gathered at the waist, with a matching, ruffled stole. Her flower was a single, white Eucharis lily.

The bridegroom's mother also selected a street length floral print, in shades of green and white, and a Eucharis lily corsage.

Special guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, of Tonnacour place, and Mrs. A. A. Entenman, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. A. T. Henderson, of Tavares, Fla., and his uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, also of Tavares, and Mr. and Mrs. William Rasor, of Wadsworth, O.

Others were the bride's great-aunt, Miss Camilla Johnson, of Rockford, Ill., and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, Jr., and their family, and the Robert G. Smiths, who came from Middlebury, Conn.

GROSSE POINTE PARK
By Mary Ann Schultz

The Phillies are currently in first place as they added to their winning streak with victories over the Giants, Mets, Cards, Expos and Dodgers in the second half of the season. Pitchers for the team are Mike Dunne, 5-0, and Andy Pickrahn, 6-0.

On Tuesday, June 20, the first place teams in the Eastern and Western Divisions, the Phillies and Cards, finally met. All nine Phillies starters collected at least one hit as the Phils won, 13-4, to remain undefeated for the past 17 games.

Dan Shine led the onslaught with four hits, two of which were doubles. Ted Formanczyk also had two doubles along with a homer to help the Phillies. Phillies Paul Corrado, Eric MacMichael and Rob Zimmerman each had two hits. Mike Dunne picked up the win with two innings of hitless relief. The Phillies broke open a close game with a six-run lead in the third inning. Rick Overbey and Tony Alfonso each contributed a pair of hits but couldn't keep the score close.

The Giants' Pete Stavale contributed two doubles and a single in the fight to try to break the Phillies winning streak on Saturday, June 17. The Phils won, 11-6.

The Giants and the Mets played an extremely close game with the Giants winning, 13-12. Tom Oechipinti hit two triples while Brik Pardo had two singles for the Mets. Dave Caputo and Brian Pawlak provided the power for the Giants.

On Saturday, June 24, the Cardinals were handed their second loss of the season by the Giants, 12-11. The Cards put up a tough fight as Rick Overbey hit a grand slam homer to raise the score to 7-5 in favor of the Cards in the second inning.

Pitcher Joe Yott was the most convincing hitter for the Giants with three singles, and his homerun in the seventh inning helped put the Giants ahead, 12-10. David Diehl was one of the Giants' stars as he collected two hits and also helped keep the Giants in the game with his excellent relief pitching.

On Sunday, June 18, Padres' pitcher Dave Landuyt stopped the Giants, 5-2. Dan Levitt led the Padres with three hits, while Dave and Tom Caputo each had two hits for the Giants.

FARMS-CITY MAJORS

The Indians took a two-game lead with one week left in the second half of the season. The Indians with a record of 6-1 lead the Tigers, Yankees and White Sox, who are all tied for second at 4-3.

If the Indians win the second half championship, they will meet the White Sox, winners of the first half, in a playoff game to be played at Kerby Field on Wednesday, July 5, at 6:15 p.m.

The only loss by the Indians in the second half came at the hands of the White Sox on Tuesday, June 20, as Rex Ciavola pitched a four-hitter for a 2-1 win. John DeBoer and Mike Downs collected two hits each for the White Sox.

John Cammett pitched a one-hitter as the Indians eked out a 1-0 win over the Tigers on Friday, June 23. Erwin Yee drove in John Heidt when he reached first on an infield error for the only run of the game. Greg Lapinski's first inning single was the only hit off Cammett.

The Indians exploded with 20 runs in the last three innings to overcome a 2-1 lead and down the Angels, 21-0, on Saturday, June 24. John Keane was the winning pitcher.

The Indians hitting attack was led by John Cammett with four hits, John Heidt with a triple and two singles and Mike Smith with two singles. Greg Foster doubled for the Angels.

The White Sox downed the Red Sox, 16-4, on Thursday, June 22. Jim Blondell picked up the win. John DeBoer hit a grand slam homerun as the ball rolled to home plate at the AAA Little League diamond at Kerby Field. Glenn Piche tripled for the Red Sox.

Rookie Rich Richner won his second straight game as the Red Sox defeated the Tigers, 12-10, on June 24. Glenn Piche led the Red Sox with eight RBIs on three doubles and a single. Tom McCormick and John Meier collected two hits each and Brian Benz tripled for the Red Sox.

John Hackett hit an apparent triple and double, both with the bases loaded, to drive in five runs for the Tigers. Hackett's triple was reduced to a single when he was called out on an appeal play for missing second base.

Hackett's double came on the last play of the game as a fine relay throw from first baseman McCormick to catcher Benz retired Chris Janis at a close play at the plate to end a Tiger rally and the ballgame.

Details on other games played last week were not available.

Half truths are usually more dangerous than none at all.

Personal Plate Deadline Nears

If you've ever had the urge to have something different on your Michigan license plate, you have little time left before the Friday, June 30, deadline for ordering personalized plates for 1979.

Owners who had personalized plates this year will have already received their 1979 applications and are urged to fill them out and mail them in with the proper fees by the deadline. Cost is $25 above the normal fee.

Personalized plates will be mailed out when the 1979 sale begins for passenger plates on November 15.

Secretary of State Richard Austin, in a news release, noted that "owners ordering personalized plates for the first time or renewing them after a lapse of at least one year may pick up proper forms at any Secretary of State branch office."

Personalized plates may be obtained not only for passenger cars but for pickup trucks and motorcycles as well.

Mr. Austin said the number of letters and numbers are limited to six for passenger cars and pickups and five for motorcycles. They cannot be all numerals but may be all letters. In combinations, at least two letters must be included with the numerals. Motorcycles may have up to five letters and numbers.

At last count, he said he was "disappointed with the number of personalized plates sold so far for 1979," but indicated that most of the plates are ordered "at the last minute."

The most popular was the Bicentennial plate issued in 1976, when 15,000 sets of three-color plates were sold. There has been a slight drop from that figure in both 1977 and 1978.

Funds after administrative costs collected from the sale of personalized plates are earmarked and used for highway litter cleanup by the Department of State Highways and Transportation.

Giant Tourist Turnout Forecast for The Fourth

Michigan should continue this year's record tourism pace during the big Fourth of July holiday as motorists are expected to drive 770 million miles over the five-day period, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Major tourism barometers such as vacation spending, advance lodging reservations, travel inquiries and vehicle miles driven have increased significantly over last year and those factors indicate a banner July 4th holiday," stated Auto Club Touring Manager Joseph Ratke.

"Travelers already have spent nearly $1.8 billion in Michigan for the first five months of 1978—10 percent more than last year—and many tourism operators feel this record spending will carry through the upcoming holiday," Mr. Ratke noted.

If good weather holds, Auto Club predicts holiday motorists will drive 69 million miles more than in 1974, the last time Michigan had a 102-hour July 4th weekend. The record for a summer holiday is the 870 million miles projected for the 1972 July 4th weekend by the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation.

All Lower Peninsula and 13 of 19 UP state park campgrounds checked by Auto Club expect capacity crowds this holiday, with many of the facilities filling by June 28 and remaining that way through July 4.

"Those optimistic July 4th predictions are part of this year's trend towards increased tourism activity across the state," Mr. Ratke pointed out.

During the first five months of this year, the Michigan Travel Bureau received 6.3 percent more inquiries about Michigan vacations than in 1977 while Auto Club's Touring Department had its busiest first five-month period ever and its busiest May in history.

The West Michigan Tourist Ass'n. said the travel business in their area is up 15 percent over last year and indications are that 1978 should be the area's finest season ever. Tourism in southeast Michigan has increased 17 percent over the same period in 1977. Tourism also is up so far this year in East Michigan and in the UP.

This year's July 4th holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday, June 30, and runs through midnight Tuesday, July 4, and for the third straight summer holiday State Police will have "Operation CARE," (Combined Accident Reduction Effort), in full force to help reduce highway fatalities.

Beefed-up patrols and strict speed limit enforcement on major tourist arteries each day last Memorial Day holiday helped account for a 23 percent drop in traffic deaths from the preceding year. A 42 percent decrease in highway fatalities was recorded when "CARE" was initiated last Labor Day weekend.

State Police will have an additional 200 troopers on roads each day for this holiday and will concentrate on motorcyclists. Thirteen of last July 4th's 34 traffic deaths were motorcyclists or their passengers. Troopers will stress the 55 mph speed limit and proper turn signaling and movements by cyclists.

Motorists also are being urged by Auto Club to be alert for motorcyclists and to avoid alcohol during the long holiday, since 71 percent of the 31 at-fault drivers last July 4th were either known or suspected of drinking.

To help travelers, Auto Club's "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" Holiday News Service will report developments on traffic and tourism from 3 to 11 p.m. Friday and from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Friday through Tuesday.

A 25-member news operation will provide hourly reports to nearly 160 Michigan radio stations plus wire services, daily newspapers and TV.

Report Views Vacant Home

An updated report on the repair of the vacant dwelling at 1592 Brys drive was received by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 19.

The home, which was destroyed by a fire last January 30 and its condition, which has concerned officials and nearby citizens alike, was the subject of discussion in relation to the approval of an ordinance amendment governing vacant dwelling units on Monday, June 5.

At that time, the owner, William Sandercock, told the council he intends to repair the entire structure and bring it up to code by Christmas.

Building Inspector Earl J. Wakely in a memo to the solons said Mr. Sandercock has, in fact, been working at the house and was told by the owner that personnel will be working steadily at the site from now on.

Student Earns Service Award

Bruce Feighner, principal of North High School, recently presented Jeffrey Kirkman with an engraved watch awarded annually by the Rotary Club to the senior who contributed outstanding service to the school and community.

He also has served as treasurer and secretary for the Interact Club, worked on the Goodwill Clothing Drive, the Rotary's International Book Drive, the Georgian East Convalescent Home's Bingo Party and conducted two blood drives at North.

He successfully carried off a UNICEF drive with a Halloween program last fall.

Lochmoor Has Net Invitational

The sixth Lochmoor Club women's doubles tennis invitational was recently held at the club. Championship trophies were awarded at the cocktail party on the terrace following the finals.

Championship trophies were awarded to winners Florestine Schmidt and Fay Robb, and to runners-up Lucy Moran and Lynn Hansford.

In the first championship consolation, trophies were awarded to winners Betty Kohr and Mary Simon, and to runners-up Gloria Kotas and Alice Hackman.

The second championship consolation trophies were awarded to winners Heather Bockman and Ginny Rice, and to runners-up Mary Alice O'Toole and Ann Disser.

This invitational was chaired by Pat Tennet and Mandy Scranton.

Pointers of Interest

WILLIAM E. BARRY, OF LAKEVIEW ROAD, WITH HIS WIFE EILEEN

By Janet Mueller

Bill and Eileen Barry fell in love with France together. It was summer, 1960, and they were on an extended, (14-week), European vacation. It wasn't their first trip abroad by any means: when Eileen worked for Air France, nine years in reservations and sales, they hopped the Atlantic at the drop of a hat — 40, 50 times. "We used to go for weekends."

They've been around the world twice. But, somehow, they always seemed to wind up in France. Specifically, in the south of France, where the weather is good, the atmosphere relaxed.

Since 1960, they've been back every year. One year, they rented a villa on the French Riviera for a week. Finally, in 1974, they decided to simplify matters. They bought an apartment in St. Jean Cap Ferrat, right on the Mediterranean midway between Nice and Monte Carlo.

Among their more noteworthy neighbors are David Niven, Gregory Peck, Rex Harrison and Otto Preminger.

All Villagers

Pretty high-powered company . . . but in St. Jean Cap Ferrat, they're all villagers. "In our village," says Bill Barry, (note the "our"), "you get to know everybody."

Butcher, baker, candlestick-maker: in residence in St. Jean Cap Ferrat, Bill is at the boulangerie at 6:30 every morning to get his baguette of bread. No meal in France is complete without bread.

Conversely, back in the States, in residence in Lakeview road, the Barrys get along very well with very little bread unless Eileen, feeling ambitious, bakes her special Irish bread. That, like French bread, is true food.

Eileen was born in Ireland. She and Bill were married there, in a lovely, 14th century church. Bill's from the Detroit area.

For the past 16 years he was president and general manager of Huron Steel Company. Now he is devoting full time to the new home, a full garden to the presidency of the French Festival of Detroit, Inc., which will present its annual French Market Monday, July 3, and Tuesday, July 4, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Outdoor Fete

It will be set up on the lawn, weather permitting, in the ballroom in case of rain. Monday hours are 11 in the morning until 10 at night. Tuesday hours are 11 until 7 o'clock. Admission is free, and there will be continuous entertainment including, (mais certainement!), can can dancers.

There'll be a Flea Market. There'll be an exhibition drill by the Compagnie Franche de la Marines in 17th century costume. There'll be crepes and cheese and pastries and wine.

There'll be great fun, and gaiety, and charm and the ambiance of a country fair in the heart of France. (I know, I've been), and it's all utterly delightful.

And it's all a lot of work. But it's fun work. "We use about 400 volunteers every year," Bill says. Volunteering, contributing one's time.

New Shades? . . . Frayed cord? Lamp Repair? Bring your lamp base to Wright's Gift and Lamp shop, 18650 Mack.

Start Thinking Fall Sewing . . . Designer's Touch has 100% English lambswool and khaki velour . . . 16925 Harper.

Martha Says . . . "hurry-in" . . . the last three days of her summer sale will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Martha's Closet will be closed for inventory Monday, July 3rd. Happy 4th to all our loyal customers.

is the basis for membership in the French Festival, an organization devoted to furthering the interest of the people of metropolitan Detroit in their city's French heritage.

Participating organizations include the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, of which the Barrys are active members; La Club La Salle, Inc., Paroisse St. Joachim de Detroit and the Societe St. Jean Baptiste de Detroit.

Five-Year History

The first fund-raising event of the French Festival was in 1973, July 1 and 2, on the Kern Block in downtown Detroit. Eventually, the French Market plans to return to downtown Detroit, to the Hart Plaza.

Proceeds from the first year and the following year went to Wayne State University's International Project.

WSU's French Room was designed and completely furnished with the approximately $20,000 raised by the French Festival in 1973 and 1974.

One year, a sizeable donation was made for the acquisition of artifacts relating to the French period in Detroit history. These are now on display in the French Military Exhibit at Historic Fort Wayne.

The French Festival participated in the Bicentennial Year celebration of Detroit's 275th birthday: July 24, 1975. It was a reenactment of Cadillac's Landing, with Warren S. Wilkinson, one of Bill Barry's predecessors as president of the French Festival, (the other is Mrs. Peter W. Stroth), as Cadillac.

Canoes from Quebec The large canoes necessary for this operation were brought all the way from Quebec. The authentic uniforms and guns were later donated to the Detroit Historical Society.

The French Ambassador was in attendance, and a French frigate was sent all the way from France to join in the festivities.

Last year's French Market proceeds were used to develop a life-size Diorama setting for the Moran Cabin, the replica of a mid-18th century French Habitant House on the second floor of the Detroit Historical Museum.

"We don't use any of the funds we raise for club purposes," Bill explains. "Everybody donates their time." This year's project has not yet been finalized, but a committee has been appointed and is concentrating its efforts to do something in the area of the new Dodge Fountain.

Each year the French Festival, in cooperation with the Detroit Historical Society, holds a birthday party in March in honor of Antoine de la Motte Cadillac.

Planning Begins But the French Market is THE Festival fund-raiser.

When Eileen and Bill came back from St. Jean Cap Ferrat in February, they flung immediately into French market planning.

Fall will find them back in France. They're going over for a month in September, especially for the winter, here in Bordeaux. "I might even," says Bill, "work a couple of days cutting the grapes."

For him, it's not work. Bill Barry has been a farmer-at-heart ever since high school summers as a field hand in the celery and onion fields of Imlay City.

For years, he says, he lived in The Farms with a large house and a small garden. Now it's a small house and a large garden—and orchard. Bill Barry is a happy man.

The Barrys moved from Stanton lane a year-and-a-half ago. Their children, Kristine and Kevin, were grown and married, with children of their own: two girls and a boy, at last count.

Bill's Bricoleur

Bill plunged into work on the new house, tearing out walls, putting in plumbing and wiring, having, in general, a ball. In France, the world for him is "bricoleur." That translates, roughly, as "happy jack-of-all-trades."

His new yard stretched 300 feet. That's almost a farm. Bill proceeded to plant every vegetable that would grow in this area — "The flowers," says Eileen, "are mine" — and a Noah's Ark orchard of two-by-two fruit trees: cherry, nectarine, peach, plum, pear, apricot.

They're small yet, but they're all bearing fruit.

And the Barrys are living, at least partially, off the land. "We freeze and can."

Eileen does make it out of the kitchen long enough to play tennis and work with Mireille Wilkinson on their newly-opened Condor Travel.

Full-Time Job

At the moment, weeding and pruning, (and tennis and travel), are taking second place to the French Market. "This time of year," says Bill, "it becomes a full-time job." It's his second year as French Festival president during the French Market.

"And before that, Eileen and I worked on French wines and beers on the Kern Block."

So Bill knows the ropes, but that doesn't guarantee you're home free. What will Bill be doing during the Market? "I'll probably be problem-solving on the spot." (But he smiles when he says that: any problems that arise will obviously be resolved, happily.)

What will Eileen be doing? She's got a great assignment! Eileen is in charge of the wine.

Pierre Augier, of Bishop road, is Bill's assistant French Market chairman, first vice-president of the French Festival of Detroit.

Many Helpers Others handling major French Market responsibilities this year include Danielle VanAssche, of Ballantyne road, George Skaff, of Bedford road, Dorothy Newhouse, of Kerby road, Elmo and Charlene Joseph, of Maumee avenue, Warren and Mireille Wilkinson, of Woodland place, Helen Kap.

Everyone has a grand time. It may not be Ventimiglia, where Bill and Eileen sometimes go to shop when they're in residence in St. Jean Cap Ferrat.

Ventimiglia is just across the Italian border, about 15 miles from the Barrys' apartment. There's a super open-air market. "They must," says Bill, "have about 1,000 stalls."

The French Festival's French Market is slightly more modest. But it's just as much fun — and it's here.

"Vigorous, stylized and dramatic" are the words she chose to describe African art. She stressed that it is primarily functional. The Africans, like most primitive people, decorated their everyday tools and utensils.

Much of the collection consists of masks and other implements associated with the various African religions.

As an example of the Africans' attitude toward their work, Mrs. Williams told of the beautiful, long-horned gazelle figures she and her husband purchased when they first began collecting.

The Bambara gazelles arrived in the United States unharmed — except that the long horns which lent such a graceful line to the pieces had, very practically, been cut short for shipping convenience.

When Justice Williams worked for the State Department and the couple lived in Washington, D.C., part of their collection decorated the walls of their home.

They were quite surprised to discover that the African ambassadors and their families who visited were offended rather than flattered by the display: in their move toward the modern world, the Africans did not want to be reminded of their primitive heritage.

A talk by Warren Robbins, of the National Museum for African Art, convinced the foreign dignitaries their folk art was something to be proud of.

Changes in the customs of African peoples in recent years have had their effects on the export of art works from the continent.

The Williams own two large, Cameroonian human figures they were able to purchase a few years ago because of the proselytizing in Africa by Moslems, who insist that their converts do not duplicate the human form.

And the Dogon people have recently allowed the purchase of some of their ceremonial objects. The custom had been to destroy certain masks every 65 years in a re-birth ritual, but art dealers persuaded the tribes to abandon this practice. The Williams have several of the handsome masks.

Justice Williams' favorites are the firespitters. These unusual wood creations possess the horns of a gazelle, ears of a panther, mouth of a crocodile and fangs of a warthog.

The figure was secretly carried into the jungle where a hot coal, wrapped in wet leaves, was placed in its mouth. When a religious leader returned to his village with a firespitter, steam and smoke seemed to issue from its mouth.

The groups of school children who visit the Williams home are particularly entranced by the figure of a man on the back of a hippopotamus, symbolizing the chief of a tribe who, when he had to make an important decision, would go to the river and sit on a hippo.

Nancy Williams also told several stories about the Chinese pottery collection, the most bizarre being the legend surrounding Chun ware.

Chinese ceramists had been developing Celadon, a type of pottery of the Shung period . . . and one cold day, the pig of one of the artists wandered into the warmth of the kiln and was burned up.

The pottery the man had been baking turned out light blue, with purple spots.

The artist hurried to show his new creation to the emperor, who was pleased with it and ordered the man to make more.

The artist, however, had no more pigs — so he sent his daughter into the kiln!

teers were honored with a special tribute and gift.

Sister Beatrice, SSJ, chaplain at the hospital, honored juniors Andrea Bailey, Cheryl Byers, Janet Byers, Michelle Cannon, Denise Caprara, Tim Clark, Jon Crosthwaite, Margaret Fritz, Carol Ann Hicks, Carol Macilreath, Jadine Moy, Karen Nickloff, Nancy Taylor and Mary Lou Russo.

James T. Farley, president and chief executive officer, and Sister Verence McQuade, associate administrator, both expressed their appreciation to all the volunteers on behalf of the patients, the board of trustees and the Sisters of Saint Joseph.
