

BOARD APPROVES BOND ISSUE

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 13

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter accused the Soviet Union of violating human rights agreements in the trials of two Soviet dissidents, Anatoly Shcharansky and Alexander Ginsberg. In a message to Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, Mr. Carter charged that Russian trials "disregarded due process" and violated the Helsinki agreements signed by the two powers in 1975. Meanwhile, a White House aide said the administration is considering ending agreements between the U.S. and the USSR which are most beneficial to the Russians.

Friday, July 14

FORD MOTOR Co. President Lee A. Iacocca was fired by the company's board effective October 15. The company gave no reason for the dismissal, but rumors of such a move have been circulating around the firm since last month, when major personnel changes were made at the top, including moving William Clay Ford, Henry Ford II's younger brother, to the office of the chief executive. Industry observers had speculated for two years that Mr. Iacocca had fallen out of favor with Mr. Ford, chairman of the auto giant.

Saturday, July 15

A SOVIET court sentenced Anatoly Shcharansky, a leader of the Jewish emigration movement, to 13 years in prison and labor camp for treason, espionage and "anti-Soviet agitation." The hand-picked court audience applauded the sentence, which was two years less than the prosecutor had demanded. Meanwhile in Bonn, West Germany, President Jimmy Carter said the sentence has caused "a sadness the whole world feels." He pledged to continue supporting the cause of human rights, linking U.S.-Soviet relations to Russian respect for dissidents.

Sunday, July 16

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter, speaking in German, told West Germans that Berlin will remain free, "no matter what happens." Meanwhile administration officials said that the U.S. is considering a swap between convicted Soviet dissident Anatoly Shcharansky and two Russian officials charged with spying in America. Although the Soviet Union has not indicated publicly any interest in such a move, news reports indicated that Mr. Carter has received a proposal from the Russians and has accepted it.

Monday, July 17

PRESIDENT JIMMY Carter told leaders from six nations that he was working to reduce U.S. energy requirements and oil imports, gaining in return commitments from the nations to speed economic growth. At an economic summit in Bonn, Mr. Carter informed the leaders that the first part of his energy program would be passed by Congress this week. In other news, a tank truck carrying liquid natural gas overturned on a road north of Mexico City, exploding and killing at least 11 people. More than 200 were injured in the blast.

Tuesday, July 18

JAPAN AND Germany agreed to encourage production and reduce trade barriers, while President Jimmy Carter pledged to cut U.S. oil imports at the summit conference in Bonn. The leaders of the seven wealthiest industrial democracies worked out a plan to create jobs, raise the price of gasoline in the U.S. and prevent airline hijackings.

Big Prizes Up for Grabs at Invitational

Contestants in the 35th annual Lochmoor Invitational Golf Tournament get two shots at winning either of these two cars. A hole-in-one on the eighth hole wins the Monte Carlo at left, donated by Pointer NORM MEROLLIS, (standing in front of the car), while a hole-in-one on the 16th wins the Cougar XR7 at right, offered by Pointer MIKE

Schools to Implement Lunch Law

System to Provide Meals for All Students Beginning in September; Board Prepares for Program

By Susan McDonald

Public school students of all ages will be able to skip the traditional noon-time walk home by buying their lunches at school next year under a new program mandated by the state.

Under a state law passed in 1976 to "promote the health of school pupils," districts must make complete, balanced lunches available to every student starting this September.

Complying with the law will require quite a shift in policy for The Pointe schools, which have always encouraged younger students to walk home for lunch while providing meals for middle and high school students.

The cost of expanding kitchens, building eating areas in each of the 15 schools and buying new equipment for the program will be close to $225,000 next year, according to the district's director of business affairs Larry Rankens. The state is expected to reimburse most of that money, he added.

In the elementary schools, lunch will cost 70 cents and will alternate between hot and cold offerings. A menu of each month's servings will be sent out to parents well in advance, according to Ben Zenn, director of support.

Three Rescued from Lake After Explosions of Boat

Three men, one a resident of The Woods and the others former Pointers, were lucky to escape with their lives Tuesday evening, July 11, in a double explosion that totally destroyed a boat they were riding in a canal at the Jefferson Beach Marina, at the foot of Emerald City, St. Clair Shores.

Two occupants of the craft, Jerry Kezhaya, formerly of The Farms and now of St. Clair Shores, and Michael Wills, also a former Farms resident who's now living in Roseville, were blown off the boat at the first explosion. Mr. Kezhaya suffered a possible head concussion when

Awareness of Community Necessary to Help Meet Needs of Senior Citizens

Nutrition Site Personnel Have Met Many Objectives But Commitment Required from Individuals, Organizations to Aid in Development of Program

By Roger A. Waha

Assessing the needs of area senior citizens remains an ongoing objective of personnel at The Pointe's Wayne County-sponsored Nutrition Site, which opened at the American Legion Hall in November 1976 and moved to its permanent headquarters at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, in January 1977.

One of 48 such sites in Wayne County, The Pointe's site has welcomed an average of 80 seniors per day Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. for a hot noontime meal, socialization and a variety of activities, according to co-directors Mary Aley and Diane Heavner.

The ladies, who will receive Bachelor of Arts degrees in gerontology from Madonna College on Tuesday, July 25, are both part-time with Mrs. Aley working four hours per day at $50 per week and Mrs. Heavner working two hours per day at $20 per week.

Firm Foundation
However, the term "part-time" belies the actual amount of effort they give in attempting to meet the needs of the seniors.

Dedicated toward serving all site participants, including an estimated 30 to 40 "regulars," both ladies, who are mothers of two children, spend many hours at home making certain everything runs smoothly on a day-to-day basis.

And in times of need, they are only a telephone call away.

When the program was at its infancy, they prepared

YSD Stands Pat with Personnel

Board of Managers Agrees Not to Reduce Manpower for Current Fiscal Year; Other Concerns Viewed

By Roger A. Waha

There will be no personnel reduction in the Youth Service Division, (YSD), during fiscal year 1978-79 according to a consensus of opinion as expressed by the division's board of managers, (including all Pointe city managers and a School Board representative), after a meeting Tuesday morning, July 11.

Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, YSD coordinator, called the meeting to obtain the managers' feelings regarding a reduction of manpower in the division, which currently has four detectives, two in the North High School district and two in the South district.

Difficult Question
Mr. Petersen felt if the participants envisioned any personnel reduction for fiscal year 1979-80, (a point cited in earlier budget discussions), it would be best to make such adjustments during the 1978-79 year.

The main reason is because the public safety department currently has three vacancies and could absorb

Correction

Due to a proofreading error, a paragraph in last week's story, "Park Okays Traffic Sign Change with State Aid," reported that the total cost of changing local traffic signs will be $56,226.87, of which $39,351, or 70 percent, will be paid by the city.

It should have read that that amount will be paid by the state under the state highway program, and $16,868.56, or 30 percent, will be paid by the city.

The story pertains to a recently enacted federal law which makes it mandatory that all traffic signs, local, state and federal, must be larger and of a uniform size to aid in cutting down traffic accidents and fatalities.

Woods, Shores Agree to Back Probation Plan

Both Municipalities Join Park, City in Supporting Program by Paying Share of $25,000 Operating Budget; Farms Yet to View Proposal

By James J. Njaim

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 17, agreed to participate in the Grosse Pointe Volunteer Probation Program on a one-year trial basis, following a plea from Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis. The Woods' share to operate the program will be $9,312.50.

Judge Denis, who also presides over the Shores Municipal Court, did not appear at The Shores meeting Tuesday morning, July 18, but a letter was read to the trustees by Village President Gerald C. Schroeder and approval was given to take part in the program, also on a one-year trial basis.

The Shores' proportionate share, based on the population count, is set at $1,275.

Explains Program
The Park and The City have already consented to go along with the probation program on a trial basis, leaving only the Farms Council which hasn't acted on the proposal. The Farms had cancelled its Monday, July 24, session and will hold its next meeting on Monday, August 7, at 8 p.m.

The program is endorsed by the four Pointe municipal judges, Beverly C. Grobbel, (Park); Stanley Kazul, (City); Robert Pytell, (Farms); and Judge Denis. The total cost of the entire program for one year was set at $25,000, with The Park's share being $6,632.50; The City's, $2,805; and The Farms', $4,975.

At his appearance before the Woods Council, Judge Denis said that the $25,000 will be used for salaries, telephone, rent, et al.

He informed the council that so far this year he had placed 39 persons, not all Woods residents, on probation, but of the 39, about 40 percent were Pointe residents.

He informed the solons that under the present system, all fines and court costs imposed by him go into The Woods city treasury, but not probation costs.

Stresses Benefits
Under the volunteer probation program desired by the local judges, not only will the fines and court costs go into their respective city treasuries, but so will the costs which will be made

The office is open Monday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Thursday and Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Citizens Play Big Role In Clearing GPF Arsons

A number of arsons in The Farms have been cleared thanks to the cooperation of area joggers who notified police and, in one case, actually helped nab the culprits.

In the latest incident, which occurred on the night of Thursday, July 13, a woman jogger and a motorist cooperated in apprehending two area youths suspected of setting a Hillcrest fence afire.

In a statement made to police, the jogger said that while she was running along Beaupre avenue she saw two youths walking toward her. Just as they passed, she said

Trustees Eye Addition to South High

Motion Passes, 4-1, with Jon Gandelot Saying Action Is 'Big Mistake'

By Susan McDonald

Despite the protests of one trustee, the Board of Education authorized the issuance of $2.15 million in bonds to finance an addition to South High School at a meeting Monday, July 17.

With Trustees Joan Hanpeter and Ann Arducci absent, the Board voted 4-1 to go ahead with the bond issue without putting the question to a vote of citizens.

The cost of the bond issue will offset an anticipated one-half mill reduction in the school tax rate. The levy will remain at 38.72 mills next year.

Holds to Stand
Jon Gandelot voted against the issue. Elected to the Board last month in a landslide victory over its incumbent president, Mr. Gandelot campaigned strongly against the trustees' stated intention to issue the bonds without a citizen vote.

He held to that stand Monday night, saying the Board "is making a big mistake" in light of current anti-tax sentiment and may be endangering future millage proposals that must go before citizens for approval.

The Board vote authorizes its financial officers to apply to the Municipal Finance Commission for approval of the bond issue. It could be three months before that process is completed and the bonds are actually sold, according to director of business affairs Larry Rankens.

The bonds will finance an estimated $2 million building project at South High School that will provide some 18,000 square feet of additional space for industrial arts and vocational programs.

"Residents and school personnel alike have long recognized the need for extensive renovation of the South industrial arts complex," explained Trustee William Huetteman in a written statement.

"Not only is the facility

'Big Foot' Pleas To Farms B-E

Jerry James Woeltje, 27, of Detroit, allegedly known as "Big Foot," pled guilty to one count of breaking and entering an unoccupied dwelling before Wayne County Judge Charles S. Farmer on Tuesday, July 11.

He is scheduled to be sentenced on Friday, July 21, at 9:30 a.m. The charge carries a maximum 10-year prison term.

Woeltje also is scheduled for an examination in East Detroit Municipal Court on Tuesday, July 25, on a charge of breaking and entering an occupied dwelling, authorities said.

Both the charge Woeltje was convicted of and the incident in East Detroit occurred on the same day, said Farms Det. Earl Field.

Woeltje was arrested by Farms police on May 11 when a Moross road woman called authorities after observing a strange man entering a neighbor's house.

At that time, Farms police said they had reason to believe that Woeltje was responsible for around 100 burglaries in the Pointes, St. Clair Shores, Detroit, East Detroit and Harper Woods.

He was originally charged with breaking and entering an occupied dwelling, but the charge was reduced in return for a guilty plea.

Woeltje also attempted to escape from The Farms jail by removing a ventilator in a holding room adjacent to his cell. A dispatcher discovered his attempt, and he was returned to quarters.

The mind's direction is more important than its progress. The only driving force found in some is the force of habit.

Residents Against Housing at Ghesquiere Park

Mr. Bengtson felt a school site or even the Seven-Mack Shopping Center might be better locations for seniors' housing as both would be close to transportation, while providing accessibility to shops.

"The park property belongs to all of us," he added.

In response to some of the concerns expressed by the residents, Irene Sutton, chairman of the Senior Citizens Commission, said, "Three years ago, we investigated all available land and came up with Ghesquiere Park. (A similar ballot proposition was defeated in 1975).

Take Nothing Away
"Brandon Rogers, (city planning consultant), in his preliminary land use plan highly recommended Ghesquiere Park and we recommended it again."

She indicated no trees will be cut down, that a green belt would be located around the back of the structure, which would use only three acres of the park's 30-plus acres, and that the height of the complex could even be less than the six floors proposed.

"We'll not take anything away from recreational facilities; only one diamond will be turned around," said Mrs. Sutton. "We're not planning on destroying the park. We'll have a driveway from the side and no cars will be driven through the grounds."

In noting the park is zoned residential, she felt a reason why some residents are opposed to the question is because they "never really have been back to visit the far corner of the park to see for themselves. There's not that much activity back there."

As for a school site, she added officials have indicated there are no current plans at this time to abandon any schools.

Raises Questions
In relation to the proposition, Edward Purdy of Kenmore drive, who lives near the park, expressed his opposition to the question at the rescheduled regular meeting of the council on Monday, July 10.

He also wanted the council to answer a variety of questions, while admitting a few might be speculative in nature.

Mr. Purdy first wanted a definition of "senior citizen" and ultimately had his question answered by Councilman John Sabol, who indicated a senior was a person 55-years-old or older. (Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos also said the age of 62 was considered the minimum in other instances.)

He wondered what effect, if any, the proposed complex would have, in view of the restriction on occupants in the building, i.e., only seniors, on the city in applications for federal funds in relation to requirements.

Mr. Purdy also said he was concerned over any potential cost increases regarding police and fire protection and rubbish removal at the site and was told such costs, as planned, would be incorporated into rents.

Feeling such questions were legitimate ones which the council should investigate, Mr. Purdy, while disagreeing with the location for such housing, praised the Senior Citizens Commission for its interest and work.

While noting some of the questions were difficult to answer at this time, Mr. Pinkos said if the proposition passes and if the council gives the project its okay, a building authority would be formed with many public hearings being held to view specific guidelines, plus some points cited by Mr. Purdy.

Reads Minutes
"We will not use private parks for any such purpose unless the people say so," the mayor stated, while adding those who disagree with the question should vote "no."

Councilman George Cueter told the citizens that officials were aware of all the ramifications and potential problems regarding the question and the creation of a building authority. Meanwhile, Councilman

George S. Freeman read a segment of the minutes of the Citizens Recreation Commission's meeting of June 13 eyeing a presentation from Senior Citizens Commission members on housing.

After a lengthy discussion, the Citizens Recreation Commission unanimously agreed to the following statement:

"While we recognize and respect the seniors right to petition for housing in Ghesquiere Park, we do not believe that any city-owned recreational land should be used for any other purpose."

The question voters will consider reads as follows:

Do you favor the creation of a building authority by the city for the purpose of constructing senior citizen housing for Woods residents only to be financed by a revenue bond issue not to exceed $4,500,000 to be repaid from rentals; such housing to be located in Ghesquiere Park on approximately three acres of land to be donated to the building authority by the city?

GOOD EXAMPLE
If you expect to outshine your neighbors build a real good reputation and keep it polished.

SHOWS GOOD RATE
In fiscal year 1976, the U.S. Labor Department's Job Corps program had a 92 percent placement rate—that is of all youths available for placement, 63 percent went to jobs, 23 percent to school or other training and six percent to military service.

Bond Issue Approved

Second Occasion
The new facility is being designed by William Kessler Associates, which expects to begin construction this October and complete the project in December 1979.

The new building will be mostly underground along Fisher road and will house auto, wood and metal shops. The existing facility inside the school will be renovated to house drafting, art and storage rooms.

While foundations for the new building are being laid, adjacent footings for a natatorium, which may be built at a future date, also will be constructed.

This is at least the second time in school system history that bonds have been issued without a citizen vote. In 1964, the Board issued $675,000 in bonds to purchase 32 acres of land on which to construct North High School.

Places "Urgency"
Mr. Gandelot, arguing against the issue Monday night, said taxpayers felt the Board was "pulling the wool over their eyes" in 1964, and used it as an excuse to vote against millage proposals for 10 years after.

To support the Board's action Monday evening, Trustee Robert Warner pointed out that the Board had cut millage by 1.6 mills in 1975 "without provocation" from voters when it saw it had a surplus in the debt retirement fund.

Superintendent Dr. William Coats, at an earlier meeting, pointed out that the Headlee amendment for tax limitation, which will likely appear on the state ballot this November, will make a bond issue without citizen approval unconstitutional.

That restriction, he said, placed an "urgency" on the Board's vote Monday.

Farms Seeks Meter Maid

The Farms Police Department is looking for a person interested in the position of "parking enforcement specialist," commonly known as meter-maid.

The position, which was created by the Farms Council at its Monday, July 10, meeting, has an expected starting date of September 5, according to a release from Police Chief Robert K. Ferber.

Selection for the position will be made by written test. The top five scorers on the test will be invited to take an oral test, after which a decision will be made.

The written test will be administered on Thursday, August 10, at 6 p.m.

Interested persons should stop by police headquarters, 90 Kerby road, for copies of job requirements and qualifications and an application form for the test.

Woods, Farms Okay Incinerator Pact

By Roger A. Waha
and David Kramer
Both the Woods and Farms
Councils unanimously approved an amendment to their contracts with the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority bringing their pacts in line with a 25-year, $12 million bond issue for new stack construction, ($900,000), and the acquisition of a new disposal site for land fill, ($300,000).

After tabling action on the request at their June 19 meetings, both councils joined Clinton Township on the approval front on Monday, July 10.

Now, all member municipalities, including The Pointe communities, Harper Woods, Mount Clemens and Clinton Township, have approved the amendment to the original pact dated June 6, 1967, extending it to May 1, 2003.

The authority's board had earlier determined that the Series III Bonds be issued for a term of 25 years, therefore, it was necessary to extend the contract for this period of time. All of the communities dispose of their rubbish and garbage at the authority, located in Clinton Township.

Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, who represents his city on the authority's board of directors, said it was better to bond for the 25-year period in viewing costs than to take a pay-as-you-go approach wherein today's taxpayers would have a heavier burden than those in the future.

Councilman John Sabol asked Edwin T. Hoover, general manager of the authority, on the status of the feasibility study of raising the stack and Mr. Hoover said it was around 90 percent complete.

Engineers are performing a model study toward confirming the proper height needed, he said, while noting it should coincide with the initial recommendation, i.e., between 175 and 200 feet.

Saying he expects the plant, which was constructed in 1972, to last about 30 years. Mr. Hoover stated, in reply to Mr. Sabol's question about state requirements in the future, that efforts will be made in the area of pollution control at reasonable costs.

(The authority has been directed by the state to construct the stack because of complaints from Clinton citizens and residents living in surrounding areas over the odors emanating from the plant, and because of the fly ash from the present stacks. As for the land fill site for the ash, the authority is seeking a location which can be used for many years.)

Mr. Hoover told the council that he feels the higher stack, (the other pair of stacks are 100 feet tall), will remedy the plume situation.

He also stressed it was critical to obtain a land fill site, while indicating that as cities grow larger, such sites only become available farther away. In this respect, the overall aspect of higher costs, e.g., the maintenance of trucks, is a concern.

In The Farms, Councilman W. James Mast expressed some concern as to whether the authority would be able to adapt itself to possible new methods of waste disposal in the future.

Ledyard Mitchell, authority representative for the city, assured the council that the authority could adapt itself. "If we shoot it, (refuse), to the moon, presumably we would be the vehicle to do it," he said.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman, meanwhile, asked why paper could not be separated from other trash for purposes of recycling.

Mr. Mitchell explained that each community in the authority pays according to the tonnage it contributes.

"If our tonnage suddenly drops, then all the other communities may pull out," he said.

Diseased Lakeshore Elms Cause Concern in Shores

By James J. Njaim

The total number of diseased and bark beetle infested elms owned by Wayne County, from Vernier road to the south Shores village limits, was originally tallied at 27, but a later count raised this figure to 36, according to information from Shock Brothers Tree Services.

The bleak part of the entire situation is that the county is not taking immediate steps to remove these trees, some of which still have large numbers of beetles nesting in them.

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis said that the county owns a total of 187 elms on Lakeshore road within the Village, south of Vernier road to the Village limits. The county was approached to have the trees removed, but for some reason gave the excuse that nothing can be done until this winter.

Mr. Jefferis said, although Lakeshore south of Vernier is controlled by Wayne County, The Shores will seek a legal opinion from Village Attorney William Killebrew to determine if the Village has the authority, under its ordinance, to force the county to remove the elms infested with Dutch Elm Disease.

"Some of the elms owned by the county on Lakeshore road south of Vernier are alive with beetles," said Mr. Jefferis. "We would like the county to remove the 36 elms because the disease spreads very fast."

"However, we were informed that county officials said that they will have to wait until winter before the trees can be removed."

The Village superintendent said that Shock Brothers has been contracted to foliage spray the 432 elms owned by The Shores, including those north of Vernier on Lakeshore.

"We stand a good chance of saving ours," he said, "because we take good care of our elms. Because of the care we take in trying to preserve our elms, this year we have lost only six or seven."

Mr. Jefferis pointed out the bark beetle came to this country with a shipment of logs, from Holland, to a furniture-making firm in the late 1920's. The shipment was completely infested with the beetles, and in the early 1950's, these insects, then numbering in the millions, began to spread throughout the country killing the beautiful shade trees by the thousands.

Many communities have lost all their elms to the disease. Other cities and towns are still fighting to save their remaining trees.

Once you have decided that you like wines and want to indulge your habit a little more fully, find a good place in your house for a wine cellar. Once a suitable space has been found it is not enough just to throw your wine bottles in. You will want some kind of order and catalogue system. If not too many wines are involved, a chronological order is fine. If a larger selection, we suggest storage by country, age, and type. It would be helpful to make a listing with the names of the wines, shipper, purchase date, vintage and tasting notes.

GPF Approves Lakeshore Tax Split

By David Kramer

The Farms Council approved a request for a four-way tax split of 241 Lakeshore road, currently owned by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Love, while making it plain that the move didn't imply any further permission to develop the property.

The approval was given by the council subject to a determination by the law firm representing the Loves that none of the four parcels created by the split would be in violation of Farms zoning ordinances.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman dissented on the 5-1 vote, which was taken at the council's Monday, July 10, meeting.

The Love's property, site of the recent Junior League of Detroit's Decorators Show House, is currently being eyed by Pointe developer Jerald Radtke, who plans to convert the mansion into four or five condominiums and add a house on the lot behind.

Mr. Radtke's purchase of the property was contingent upon council approval of the tax split, according to George Zinn, an attorney representing the Loves.

The council had tabled the matter at its June 5 meeting, referring it to the Mayor's Advisory Planning Commission. The commission reported that it had been unable to make a recommendation since it had no access to information concerning the proposed development.

Councilman W. James Mast felt that the split would create a violation of a zoning ordinance concerning setback on one of the parcels. The parcel in question, located adjacent to Grosse Pointe boulevard, is currently occupied by a garage and carriage house.

"I am unwilling to support a split when I believe it is not in our best interests," he said.

City Attorney George McKean advised the council that approval of the tax split didn't obligate the solons to approve any building plans on the property.

City Manager Andrew Bremer then suggested that the approval be given subject to the survey by the law firm.

Park Hires New Officer

The newest police recruit working for the Park Police Department is John Schulte, 23, of St. Clair Shores, who, after completing his basic training at the Criminal Justice Institute, formerly the Detroit Police Training Academy, was recently appointed a probationary patrolman.

Officer Schulte, who was born in Detroit and is single, lived in The Farms for 22 years with his parents, before the family moved to St. Clair Shores.

A 1973 graduate of Austin Catholic Prep School, he attended Wayne State University and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice.

Following graduation, he applied for an appointment to The Park department. He replaces Police Officer Charles Slusser, who recently retired after 33 years of service with the city.

The new recruit, who said he always aspired to become a policeman, noted he attended college and majored in criminal justice to prepare himself for his life's goal.

Personnel in YSD

(Continued from Page 1) any person into The Woods' own operations. "If the board desires any reduction, we should do it in the 1978-79 year as we could absorb any personnel now. When we fill our complement in the department and have a full complement of YSD personnel next year, we may have to lay an officer off," (if the board decides to reduce any personnel in 1979-80), Mr. Petersen told the managers.

In calling this a difficult question to explore, Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer cited variables now and in the future, while noting if there was any reduction in personnel, it was possible his community might look at some other vehicle to supply such a service.

Saying that his police chief, Robert K. Ferber, shares his feelings, Mr. Bremer stated if personnel were reduced, both his community and The Woods, (the biggest contributors among the municipalities), would feel the blunt of it, while noting each city houses one high school.

Cites Key Factors
 The division is funded for the 1978-79 year, (at a budget of $162,973), noted Mr. Petersen, who added, "Maybe it is wishful thinking on our part regarding making a determination for the following year. We want to try and protect any personnel we would have."

All the managers expressed a sympathy with Mr. Petersen's position, with Mr. Bremer citing two important factors in relation to YSD budgeting and/or possible reductions in personnel. One is the continuing interest of the school system in paying its share of the budget, while the other is the feeling of Shores officials that a formula other than the current state equalized valuation method for determining each participant's contribution should be found.

In relation to the school system, it paid 25 percent of the total budget this fiscal year and according to a unanimously passed motion by the managers in March, the schools would pay 30 percent of the budget in 1979-80.

Difficult Decisions
 Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, Board representative, said it was difficult to say what action the Board would take during the 1979-80 fiscal year, while City Manager Thomas W. Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City stated all the municipalities and the school system will probably face difficult decisions in relation to their own budgets, along with further explorations of the YSD budget, the method of allocation and personnel requirements.

On the subject of a different financing formula, Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers is scheduled to investigate various alternatives including a population criteria and report back to the managers at a future meeting.

At the same time, the managers, also in March, approved a motion that a possible change in the allocation formula based upon two alternatives, the 1970 census and total school population, be investigated prior to approval of the division's 1979-80 fiscal year budget.

To Explore Idea
 Aware of Mr. Petersen's concern on the personnel question, Mr. Kressbach suggested that possibly one or more division detectives could be temporarily removed from the bureau only for the summer months and then returned to the YSD in the fall. In the meantime, a new officer could be recruited.

Mr. Petersen said the department already has given the agility and written tests toward filling the vacancies, with 37 applicants originally expressing interest including six women and one black. However, the latter potential applicants never showed for the agility test.

He also stated he would explore the suggestion only for the summer without hiring additional personnel toward reducing YSD expenditures.

Late last week, Mr. Petersen indicated it remained a possibility that one or more division detectives could be assigned to the road patrol until around September 1.

"Hand-in-Hand"
 "I'm not sure if it's worth it as there's plenty of activity at the various parks during the summer," he said. He added a determination will be made sometime this week regarding the feasibility of such a proposal.

In a final note in relation to the allocation formula for the YSD, Mr. Petersen suggested if the managers look at this subject, officials also should look at a different formula toward financing the Inter-Municipal Radio System budget which is used by the five Pointes and Harper Woods.

The Farms is managing municipality of the system and Mr. Bremer said both planned reviews should go hand-in-hand.

High school students will be offered a five-course lunch at 75 cents, in addition to the a la carte selections, (hamburgers, sandwiches, pizza, et al.), that have been on the menu in the past.

The law requires that the meals be nutritionally balanced, by including a main protein entree, fruit or vegetable, grain product, (such as a roll), and milk.

To implement the program, the Board of Education retained ARA Food Service Co. at its Monday, July 10, meeting. The food company will hire any additional personnel needed to operate the program, will purchase the food, and provide services of qualified nutritionists and dietitians as well as administer the operation, according to Mr. Zenn.

Will Send Info
 The charge for the service will be about $27,000 a year, depending upon how many lunches are sold. ARA will guarantee to the extent of half its charge, ($13,000), that the program will be self-sustaining, Mr. Zenn added.

ARA provides food services to more school districts in Michigan than any other firm, according to Mr. Zenn. They currently service University Liggett School in The Woods.

Reduced lunch prices or free lunches will be available to low-income students in the district.

Mr. Zenn said notice to that effect, including income requirements and application information, will be sent to all families in the school district before the program begins.

Parade, Dances, Race Highlight Farms Regatta

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club's annual Regatta will be held this year starting Friday, July 21, and continuing through Sunday, July 23, at the Farms Pier Park. All the residents of the community are invited by Commodore Richard Shannon to participate in what has come to be one of the outstanding events of the summer. General chairman and guiding hand for the week-end is Vice-Commodore Ronald Hicks.

A teen dance will open the week-end festivities on Friday. A local group, Voyager, winners of the "battle of the bands" contest recently held at the War Memorial, will play from 8 to 11 p.m. Residents of The Farms and their guests are welcome. Park passes will be presented at the gate for admission. Saturday at 9:30 a.m., the powerboat races will be held under the chairmanship of Jerry Auscherbry. Sonny Gorenflo will conduct the sailboat races which will begin at 12:30 p.m. The children's decorated bike parade and contest is scheduled for 2 p.m. and will be directed by Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Dzuiba.

The contestants will be divided into two groups: the "semi-pros," (those who had help), and the amateurs. Each of the contestants will get a prize. The children's races follow at 3:30 p.m. with Joan and Fred Curto in charge. Following that will be the famous adult contests.

At 6:30 p.m. the Miss Grosse Pointe Farms beauty pageant will begin. Jerry Malooly will MC with his daughter Ellen Malooly as chairman.

Kebbie Blough, Miss Grosse Pointe Farms for 1977 will return from her new home in Indiana to crown this year's winner, who with her court will reign over the week-end.

Dancing under the stars will begin at 9 p.m. with the music of the Ding-A-Lings. This dance is geared to the adult crowd and is held cabaret style under the chairmanship of Past Commodore George Toy and his wife Jean. Ice and popcorn for the dance will be furnished by the club.

With parade marshal Richard Semack officiating, the Annual Regatta Parade will open Sunday's events at 1 p.m. The theme of this year's parade is "classic cars in review." It will feature all antique and classic cars with special interest cars from General Motors Corp., Styling Division, American Motors and McDonald Ford East.

The Corvette Club of Michigan will be represented as well as Sunbeam Tigers Owners Ass'n., several antique car clubs, local antique car owners and the Vernor's Gnomemobile, complete with Gnome.

The Michigan State Police will contribute their "seat belt convincer" to the parade and give demonstrations in the park later. Finally a "40 and 8" from World War I will transpore a dixieland band.

The Moslem Temple of the Shriners will be there with ever-popular Highlanders and Americans.

The parade will begin at 1 p.m. at Kerby road and Mack avenue. It will go from Kerby to Chalofte, Chalofte to Moran, Moran to McMillan, McMillan to Kercheval, Kercheval to Moross and down Moross road to the Pier Park.

Father Albert Hillebrand of Saint Clare de Montefalco parish will give the invocation at the reviewing stand and the short welcoming ceremony will be followed by a demonstration given by the Highlanders and the Americans. The antique and unique vehicles from the parade will be on display in the park.

At 3 a synchronized swimming exhibition will take place at the park pool under the direction of Janet Bradford and Nancy Streicher. Presentation of the trophies to the boat race winners will be at the reviewing stand at 5 and at 6 p.m. the drawing for the raffle prizes will be held.

Behind the week-end fun and entertainment lies a solid year of effort on the part of the 150 odd members of The Farms Boat Club. Ads in a brochure distributed to each of the homes in The Farms and raffle tickets are sold to cover the cost.

Now in its 26th year and under the same sponsorship, Regatta Week-end is a firmly entrenched Farms tradition with a third generation enjoying the old-home-week style celebration.

Officers of The Farms Boat Club include Commodore Richard Shannon, Past Commodore George Toy, Vice Commodore Ronald Hicks, Rear Commodore Joseph Leonard, Treasurer Gerald Webster and Secretary Mildred Koepllin.

Immediately following the Regatta, Rosemary Hicks will hold the afterglow dinner at which plans for next year will begin.

Farms Okays Sale of Lot Adjacent to Post Office

By David Kramer
The Farms Council approved the sale of the parking lot, adjacent to the Mack avenue post office, to the postal service at its Monday, July 10, meeting.

City Manager Andrew Bremer said that, while the closing had not yet taken place, the sale of the lot was all but finalized. Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman dissented in the 5-1 vote authorizing Mayor James Dingeman to sign the deed to the lot over to the post office.

City Attorney George McKean read a letter to the council that he received from officials at the post office saying the officials would at all times have 14 spaces available for public parking and would use their "best effort" to see to it that employees park their cars on post office property.

Mr. McKean noted, however, that such agreements would not apply to another purchaser of the lot.

Mr. Bremer said the city will recover the total amount it spent on constructing the lot, (around $200,000), plus interest, from the sale.

In another matter related to the parking lot, the council voted unanimously to adopt a resolution which would end the necessity of the city collecting taxes from the parking lot.

"This is a little oversight," said Mr. Dingeman. "We're taxing ourselves." Mr. Bremer explained that the lot became tax exempt as soon as the city bought it. "We didn't take it off the tax rolls. As a result, the city was writing itself a check for the taxes."

He added that the lot will remain tax exempt under post office ownership, as does all government property. The city had originally bought the land and constructed the lot in an attempt to alleviate difficulties arising from postal employees parking their cars on residential streets in the area.

After leasing the lot with an option to purchase from The Farms, postal officials leased a fleet of Pintos for the workers to drive while on the job. The leased cars were then parked in the lot, forcing workers once again to park their cars on the street.

However, Mr. McKean has met with postal officials who indicated they are negotiating in an attempt to have the employees use their own cars on the job.

He told the council earlier that it is expected that the Pintos will be gone in September.

Back Probation Plan

Under the current probation terms, persons sentenced to a period of probation are taken care of by the Wayne County Probation Department, and the county's treasury benefits through the reimbursement of costs imposed on probationers.

"We would rather place persons convicted of minor crimes on probation, rather than sending them to jail," Judge Denis said. "If we get this program started, we can place those who are convicted on probation, with the stipulation that they work and pay their own probation costs, which will benefit the participating Pointe communities.

"In the case of indigents, those who must have court-appointed attorneys, we will try to find work for them, and, in this way, we are sure that at least 80 percent of the costs can be recovered to the benefit of local treasuries."

Services Ended

The judge said that at one time the Wayne County Circuit Court provided probationary services, but in the early 1970's, this was discontinued, and now he and his colleagues want to start their own probationary service as an alternative to putting convicted persons in jail, simply because it is felt that probationers need counseling and guidance, not jail terms.

The probationer will pay not only a fine and court costs, if the court decrees, but also $10 a month during the entire term of his probation, all of which will enrich the local treasuries, Judge Denis said.

If the Farms doesn't wish to participate in the program, then probation costs imposed will go into the probation fund, he noted.

If a person convicted of a crime and is sent to prison, or to the Detroit House of Correction, (DeHoCo), it will cost The Woods $40 a day to care for that person while he is confined.

Normally One Year

If the convicted person is sent to the Wayne County Court it would cost the city $175 for a pre-sentence report, plus a payment of $20 a month to Wayne County if the person is placed on probation, Judge Denis pointed out.

A convicted person placed on probation is usually given one to two years, but normally it is for only one year, the judge said.

After Judge Denis made his presentation, the council resolved to go along with the program.

Citizens Help in Arson Cases

The other youth was apprehended by the Hillcrest resident whose fence had been set afire. He was nabbed at the corner of Touraine and Beaupre.

Farms police referred the case to the Youth Service Division, (YSD), which will investigate to determine if there is a connection between the incident and other arsons which have occurred in The Farms recently.

Farms Det. Earl Field said that both youths had had previous contacts with police.

Police Chief Robert K. Ferber said that he would recommend that the motorist and the jogger be cited by the Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives for their involvement and concern in nabbing the arsonists.

The chief said the case was unique in that "the police really had nothing to do with it."

"This is the kind of cooperation we're going to need if we're going to stop these incidents," he continued. "My hat's off to these people."

Farms police have two different youthful suspects in connection with a series of fires that were set on the night of Monday, June 10, through Tuesday morning, July 11.

In this case also, a jogger was responsible for catching the culprits. He supplied police with the names of the pair and said a third boy, who he did not recognize, also was involved.

On that night, five fires were set, four of which oc-urred on the front lawn of a Belanger road home, in a pile of trash. The other fire was set in a rubbish container at the rear of Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte avenue.

This case also was referred to the YSD.

Among other Farms arsons which remain unsolved were two U.S. mailboxes which were found burning on the night of April 23.

More recently, two fires were reported the night of Tuesday, July 4, one in a rubbish container at the rear of a Mack avenue business, and the other on the front lawn of another Mack business.

Farms records also show that two fence fires were set on April 2, one in Barclay road and the other in Kenwood court.

Det. Field said none of the fires were set with accelerants, and thus all were "un-professional." Most of the fires were started with small piles of leaves, as were the rash of garage fires which occurred in garages and fences last November.

Three Men Rescued from Lake after Boat Explosion

care, left in his boat without identifying himself.

The St. Clair Shores based U.S. Coast Guard, the Macomb County Sheriff's Water Patrol and the St. Clair Shores Fire Department arrived at about the same time and together put out the fire on Mr. Diedo's craft.

The boat, valued at $3,500, which Mr. Diedo purchased a month ago, was a total loss. It was towed clear of the canal and placed in a storage well.

Mr. Diedo said he and his companions had left the marina at 7 p.m. Tuesday to go water skiing. Prior to leaving the canal, he pulled alongside a gas pump and took on 18 gallons of gasoline.

"Before starting up the engine, I opened up the engine cover and vented the boat for about 20 minutes, which is normal procedure and according to regulations," he said. "I started up the engine and everything was turning over just fine so we went out of the canal."

"Just as we passed the 'No Wake' enforcement sign, I gave full throttle. The boat engine backfired and blew the engine cover a full 30 feet into the air. I was still at the helm and I looked and saw both my friends in the water, blown overboard by the blast.

"Then the second explosion came. I didn't know what happened then. I was in a state of shock, but some one told me that I was tossed 15 feet into the air and into the water. Even in shock, I saw this life preserver and grabbed it, then later felt myself being lifted into another boat."

Mr. Diedo said it was fortunate that the life preserver was close enough for him to hang on to because, if it was not there, he was sure he would have drowned.

He said his boat was completely engulfed in flames when the Detroit policeman pulled him and Mr. Kezhaya out of the water. At about the same time, the man in the second boat rescued Mr. Willis

Class to Fete Miss Eyster

Class reunions are typical among students who graduated from high school together, but who ever heard of an elementary class getting together 20 years after it moved on to middle school?

That's exactly what the adults who hail back to Mary Lou Eyster's 1958-59 class at Poupard Elementary School have in mind.

They've got a special purpose for their third reunion: to honor Miss Eyster on the occasion of her retirement this June after 20 years of teaching, (some 2,961 students), in Grosse Pointe.

Miss Eyster will be guest of honor when the group meets Friday, July 21, at the Harper Woods Community Civic Hall at Harper avenue near Cadieux road at 6:30 p.m.

"I suppose it is unusual for an elementary class to get together like this," said Gasper Gammicchia, who's helping organize the event. "But we were a special group and Miss Eyster was a special teacher. She's one in a million and we all feel we owe a lot to her."

When everybody used fans, nobody cared about EER.

Years ago, when summers got hot enough to fry an egg on the sidewalk, you could switch on the fan and hope for a change in the weather. The last thing you cared about was energy efficiency rating, or EER.

Today, air conditioners keep people comfortable during the summer heat. And it's important to know that some units use less electricity than others to do the same job.

So, if you're buying a new portable air conditioner to cool one room, or central air conditioning to cool the whole house—look for a model with a high energy efficiency rating--or EER number. You'll save energy and money if you buy a model with an EER of 8 or more.

Air conditioners, like refrigerators and other major appliances, are big energy users. And the more efficient they are, the less they cost to operate.

So it's important to use all your major appliances properly and keep them in good operating condition.

Detroit Edison has helpful booklets on the wise use of electricity. Stop in at any Customer Office and pick up what you need.

New National Smoker Study:

Tar/Taste Gap Bridged.

Smokers rate taste of low tar MERIT equal to—or better than—leading high tar brands.

Low tar MERIT, with 'Enriched Flavor'™ tobacco, has shattered the myth of "low tar, low taste."

In a new national smoker study conducted with high tar smokers, MERIT was proven to deliver the flavor of leading high tar brands.

Results Endorse MERIT Breakthrough

Confirmed: Majority of high tar smokers rate MERIT taste equal to—or better than—leading high tar cigarettes tested! Cigarettes having up to twice the tar.

Confirmed: Majority of high tar smokers confirm taste satisfaction of low tar MERIT.

Detailed interviews were also conducted with current MERIT smokers.

Confirmed: 85% of MERIT smokers say it was an "easy switch" from high tar brands.

Confirmed: Overwhelming majority of MERIT smokers say their former high tar brands weren't missed!

Confirmed: 9 out of 10 MERIT smokers not considering other brands.

First Major Alternative To High Tar Smoking

MERIT has proven conclusively that it not only delivers the flavor of high tar brands—but continues to satisfy!

This ability to satisfy over long periods of time could be the most important evidence to date that MERIT is what it claims to be: The first major alternative to high tar smoking.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Within the past six months there has been a rush on houses located on the border of Grosse Pointe and the near eastside. The appreciation has been so significant that it rivals the seemingly run away inflation we're enjoying in the Pointes.

This is good, we feel. It helps stabilize the Detroit property values and by all means it certainly helps the Grosse Pointes' values. It's better to have a healthy, prosperous community next door rather than one that is seemingly "going under!"

For awhile it appeared that the gap between comparable values was going to make it almost impossible for our good neighboring Detroit friends to afford the move. This is probably one of the reasons why this excellent eastside property has turned around—the gap WAS getting almost out of reason.

So we congratulate the Detroiters who stick it out. They maintained their homes in superb fashion and it's paid off for everyone. Knowing Real Estate is the name of this game and knowing values is our obligation to you. If you'd like a consultation regarding your property value please give us a call—Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087.

Cat Burglar Strikes Again, Robs Three Homes in GPW

Three more burglaries reported to the Woods Department of Public Safety on Saturday, July 15, apparently were the work of the so-called "cat burglar," who has been operating in The Woods, Farms and Park. Woods Det. Philip C. Hamel, who is investigating the breakins, said that the MO, or method of operation, indicates the crimes were committed by the same man.

The homes broken into were those of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Corrigan of Lennon road, reported at 4:56 a.m.; Peter Cast of Fleetwood drive, reported at the station at 6:16 a.m.; and the John Barrs of Beaufait avenue, reported at 9:50 a.m.

Cpl. Thomas Kerving was dispatched to the Corrigan residence for a preliminary investigation. On arrival he found that the intruder had severed or pulled the phone receiver from the kitchen wall and placed it on the floor.

The culprit gained entry into the home by climbing through a kitchen window over the sink.

The burglar took Mrs. Corrigan's purse from the kitchen table, a hand-carved wooden mantel clock from the living room, an eight-inch high portable am/fm radio from the living room, and an office calculator.

The "cat" was operating while the Corrigan's were asleep in a second floor bedroom, according to information given to police.

At about 8:30 a.m., a neighbor of the Corrigan's discovered a brown plastic bag in a bush on the property of 2119 Lennon road, but did not realize what it was until he heard of the burglary.

He called Mr. Corrigan, who called the authorities. Everything taken from the house was recovered, including Mrs. Corrigan's purse, sans $85 it contained.

At 6:16 a.m., Public Safety Officer John DeLora was dispatched to the residence of Mr. Cast of Fleetwood drive, after Mr. Cast personally reported at the station that his house had been entered into during the night.

The officer discovered that the screen had been removed from the east side of a den at the rear of the building. The intruder entered by climbing through the den window, which had been slightly open.

The homes broken into were those of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Corrigan of Lennon road, reported at 4:56 a.m.; Peter Cast of Fleetwood drive, reported at the station at 6:16 a.m.; and the John Barrs of Beaufait avenue, reported at 9:50 a.m.

Cpl. Thomas Kerving was dispatched to the Corrigan residence for a preliminary investigation. On arrival he found that the intruder had severed or pulled the phone receiver from the kitchen wall and placed it on the floor.

The culprit gained entry into the home by climbing through a kitchen window over the sink.

The burglar took Mrs. Corrigan's purse from the kitchen table, a hand-carved wooden mantel clock from the living room, an eight-inch high portable am/fm radio from the living room, and an office calculator.

The "cat" was operating while the Corrigan's were asleep in a second floor bedroom, according to information given to police.

At about 8:30 a.m., a neighbor of the Corrigan's discovered a brown plastic bag in a bush on the property of 2119 Lennon road, but did not realize what it was until he heard of the burglary.

He called Mr. Corrigan, who called the authorities. Everything taken from the house was recovered, including Mrs. Corrigan's purse, sans $85 it contained. At 6:16 a.m., Public Safety Officer John DeLora was dispatched to the residence

The quiet thief then went through Mrs. Cast's purse, dumping the contents on the floor and rifling her wallet. PSO DeLora said that the phone receiver had been taken off the hook, the mouth piece removed and two little wires snipped and the phone placed on the floor.

It was not disclosed if the burglar found any money in the purse, but he did take a wicker basket and a complete silverware service from the dining room, and a record player and a stereo from the den.

At 9:50 a.m., Mr. Barr of Beaufait avenue discovered his house had been entered as he was leaving for work, according to Mrs. Barr, who put in the call to the authorities. The couple said that the burglary must have taken place between 2 a.m., when they went to sleep, and 7:30 a.m., at which time they awakened.

PSO Michael Makowski was sent to the home to take the preliminary report. He found out that the burglar had entered the house by removing the outside screen of a side window of the family room and opening the window to climb in.

A 19" portable color television set was removed from atop a stereo console and placed next to the window through which the thief had entered. The set was still there after the culprit left. The thief helped himself to Mrs. Barr's purse in the kitchen.

The purse was later found in the driveway of 2117 Beaufait, with its contents scattered on the cement. Mrs. Barr said that all the items in the purse were recovered except $60 in currency and about $3 in change. Also missing were three souvenir English coins depicting the 50th anniversary of Queen Victoria's reign, value unknown.

The Barrs said that the family went to bed at about 2 a.m. and heard nothing during the night. Det. Hamel said that all items taken from the homes have been recovered, except two, but did not disclose which. The two items and the money disappeared with the "cat burglar."

Rescues Nest Off Dead Limb

It's a comforting thought for animal lovers to know that a nest of robins, which had to be removed from a tree in Perrien place, ended up in the home of citizens who have had experience in caring for birds.

Michelle Cyr, 16, of Hampton road, who will enter her senior year at North High School this fall, was working trimming trees as part of a crew following up on the city's tree survey.

Discovering the nest on a dead branch of a locust tree, she escaped an attack by the mother in removing it so the branch could be trimmed.

Host Parents Cited at North

North High School Principal G. Bruce Feighner presented awards to the families which hosted foreign exchange students during the 1977-78 school year at the school's recent Awards Night ceremonies.

The Foreign Exchange Adult Committee Recognition awards were given to Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock of Lakeshore road, who hosted Peter Schwab from Switzerland; Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schooff of Lochmoor boulevard, who hosted Raija Salo from Finland; and Dr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Stricker of South Duval road, who hosted Torben Winther from Denmark.

Finding the nest occupied by four eggs, Michelle took it home to her family, which, in the past, has raised ward birds they've found and others which have been brought to them by neighborhood youngsters.

The nest was placed in a home-made incubator — a fish tank with a light — and, last week, she said one egg had hatched, one was in the process of hatching and two remained unhatched.

Michelle is a member of one of two crews working throughout the city on environmental projects as part of a $26,000 grant the city received via the WORC (Work Opportunities Resource Corps), program, administered by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources' manpower division.

Meanwhile, Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen cited Michelle for her conscientiousness and concern — an action echoed by animal lovers everywhere.

The Minutes of the Regular Meeting which was held on June 19, 1978 were accepted as corrected.

Councilwoman Waugaman arrived at this time. The Council adopted a resolution approving the extension of the term of certain bonds to be issued by the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority to twenty-five years, such bonds being necessary to make certain improvements to the incinerator consisting of a new stack and to acquire another disposal site; and further, approving the extension of the City's contract with the Authority to coincide with the term of the above bonds.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the proposed four-parcel split of property for tax purposes, located at 241 Lake Shore Road, in accordance with the submitted plan, subject to the submission to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms of an accurate survey describing the newly-created parcels and the location of the structure on proposed Parcel 1, and further subject to the determination by the City that the possible future development of proposed Parcels 2 and 3 as buildable sites would not create a non-conforming use or structure on Parcel 1 as a result of the necessity of a roadway across each parcel; it being understood that the approval of the four-parcel split for tax purposes does not imply that the Council has approved the parcels as buildable lots.

The Council adopted a resolution revising the "Option to Purchase" which the Council approved on June 19, 1978, concerning Lot No. 130, Grosse Pointe Farms Manor Subdivision, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keyes of 437 Manor Avenue, to include a clause for "Right of First Refusal."

The Council adopted a resolution approving the City's contribution of funds in the amount of $200.00 to cover a portion of the cost of conducting the Grosse Pointe Boys and Girls Fishing Rodeo.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the terms of the tentative agreement reached with the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association concerning the position of Parking Enforcement Specialist.

The Council adopted a resolution requesting Wayne County to waive the collection of the delinquent 1976 City taxes on the property located at Mack and Calvin Avenues which the City purchased in 1976 and subsequently developed into a parking lot.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the re-appointment of the current members of the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee for a period of one year, and further, the appointment of Mr. Philip Meathe as Chairman of the Committee contingent upon the Mayor discussing such appointment with Mr. Meathe.

The following Reports were received by the Council and ordered placed on file:
A. Fire Department Report for the month of June, 1978.

B. Property Maintenance Code Report for the quarter which ended June 30, 1978.

The Council adopted a resolution authorizing the Mayor and City Clerk to sign the Warranty Deed conveying to the U.S. Postal Service and its assigns, the property located at Mack and Calvin Avenues which has been developed into parking area.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 11:25 p.m.

NEW ENGLAND COLONIAL

Classic New England Colonials often combine stone, brick and shake shingles to its most beautiful advantage, and we think you're going to love it! And the 5 bedrooms and 3½ baths afford a growing family much needed room. The kitchen's modern, the yard spacious, and there's a den, too! Priced for less than you'd expect!

TWO FIRST OFFERINGS!

DANGER!

If the appearance of this charming "Cottage Like" three bedroom home doesn't steal your heart, we think the pleasant surprise inside will; like the sun room, or the size and decor of the living room and dining room, or the attractive kitchen. If you're a timid buyer our only advice is to wait a few days... by that time this $58,500 delight should be sold!

POOL FANATICS REJOICE—

1633 SEVERN AWAITS!

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

If you've priced out pools lately, you know an 18' x 32' inground pool with all the "toys" is worth a lot of $. While you're admiring the pool, why not look through the 4 bedroom, 1½ bath Colonial with family room that goes with it?

INSTANT OCCUPANCY EXCELLENT NEWER COLONIAL 928 MOORLAND, IN THE WOODS, NEAR LIGGETT

Now vacant, this exceptional "Scott-Built" Cape Cod flavored four bedroom, 2½ bath Colonial could be your dream home, in time to enjoy weeks of family summer fun at the beautiful new Woods Park. And there's central air for those hot summer days yet to come! Don't overlook the many quality features including extra insulation, big family room with fireplace, and the convenient first floor laundry. too! Shouldn't you see this special home now?

ENGLISH MINI ESTATE 1028 KENSINGTON

Start with a beautifully convenient location, add stately trees and place a premium built 5 bedroom, 3 bath English (including a bedroom and bath on the first floor; if you need it) in this setting. The enclosed porch is just off the family room, and the master bedroom is a spacious 24' long. At $114,000, we invite you to compare this home to anything else in its price range!

AND BY APPOINTMENT IN THE HEART OF THE FARMS

This beautiful and spacious Colonial suggests a charm and grace reminiscent of a Southern Plantation at the turn of the century. Yet the condition and decor couldn't be any better, as the current owners are perfectionists who accept nothing less than the best, and it shows. We think you'll be especially captivated by the fireplace and bay in the dining room, and by the fireplace that graces the Master Suite. And the grounds are truly beautiful. Shouldn't you see this choice home now?

LAKE SHORE DRIVE

Close to the Yacht Club, this elegant newer home features an incredibly high caliber of construction, which is complimented by a floor plan that is exceptionally workable. The master suite looks like a feature from "Architectural Digest" especially when you see the sunken tub. The family room has a fabulous bar, sunken conversation pit, a walk-in wine cellar and access to both the enclosed porch overlooking Lake St. Clair as well as the kitchen. Frankly, the kitchen is a work of art, worthy of a home so unique and charming. May we show you through?

UNIQUE LAKE SHORE CONTEMPORARY

This contemporary is unique, even to other contemporaries; oversized rooms and a floor plan that was designed to make this an especially fine home for entertaining. Naturally the pool, security system and sprinkler system just add to the fun and convenience, too. Better see this before you purchase anything else.

"COOL" WOODS RANCH

If a fine ranch is your desire, why not enjoy this fully and economically air conditioned newer Ranch home? The condition and decor are like new, and there's 3 bedrooms plus two baths, a family room with fireplace and a most desirable, two car attached garage, too! And there's just been a big price reduction!

HANDY MAN SPECIAL — $15,900!

This property needs help now, but once done would be an excellent income producer for years to come. The owner "wants out" and will accept very reasonable land contract terms!

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

During the summer months, there are many educational programs conducted by the school system. In a series of columns between now and September, I will be writing about some of these, beginning with the Summer Driver Education Program.

Driver education classes are taught throughout the school year, but the greatest number of our students enroll in classes conducted in the summer months. During two, four-week sessions conducted at North High School, 630 parochial, private and public high school students residing in the school district boundaries are modifying their summer schedule of activities so that they can meet the requirements to obtain a driver education certificate of completion.

By state law, anyone under the age of 18 must have this certificate from an approved institution utilizing trained instructors before making application for a driver's license.

In order to obtain a certificate of completion, a student must meet the provisions of the state law which specifies participation in a minimum of 30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of driving, and satisfactorily completing tests and written assignments.

The classroom time is spent familiarizing students with the rules of the road and the proper operation of a car. Textbooks and numerous pamphlets, audio-visual materials and psycho-physical testing devices are used in this phase of training.

A portion of the driving time is spent on a multi-car range. No doubt many residents have driven by The Farms Pier parking lot during the early evening hours when school is in session and have seen students practicing various maneuvers on the range.

Our program provides four hours of this type of driving, which is done on the North High School parking lot during the summer. The other two hours of driving time are spent "on-the-road" in specially equipped cars that have dual controls for the instructors. These cars are marked with roof-top signs.

There is no charge to students who participate in the state-mandated public school driver education program. The program is financed by the state partially reimbursing school districts for their per pupil instructional and operating costs, paying up to $30 per student.

However, in very few school districts does that amount equal what is actually spent training beginning drivers. For example, during the 1976-77 school year, the statewide per pupil expense ranged from $31.13 to $202.13, with the average being $85.99. Our per pupil cost was $49.21, which ranked in the lower 14.5 percent of all school districts.

This relatively low cost reflects the cooperation that we received from the local dealerships providing the training cars for our use, the willingness of The Farms and Shores to supply gasoline at bulk rates, and the comparatively low amount of vandalism damage to the cars.

As in other school districts, the non-reimbursable per pupil cost is taken out of our school system's general fund. Training students to drive properly is a big job for our patient instructors, but when the summer sessions are finished, we hope that 630 of our young men and women will be able to confidently get behind the steering wheel and safely and responsibly handle their cars in today's complex traffic patterns.

Training students to drive properly is a big job for our patient instructors, but when the summer sessions are finished, we hope that 630 of our young men and women will be able to confidently get behind the steering wheel and safely and responsibly handle their cars in today's complex traffic patterns.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters, Director of Public Libraries

Summertime is reading time for a great many Grosse Pointers if the number of books circulated from the public libraries is any indication. Some new titles you may find as interesting as I did.

Mopeds, or motorized bicycles, were developed in France in the 1890's. By the turn of the century they were mass-produced in France, England and the United States. Over 350 models were available in 1903.

By 1915 the motorcycle had largely replaced the mopeds, and it wasn't until the 1970's that the moped reappeared in the United States.

Laura Torbet and Jonathan Sternfield in their book, THE COMPLETE BOOK OF MOPEDES, (Funk and Wagnalls, 1977), tell the whole fascinating story of the little motorized bicycle with the modest price tag and a range of 150 miles on a gallon of gas.

No doubt modern technology will manage to make the simple, efficient vehicle into a complicated, expensive mode of transportation or perhaps the politicians can pass enough laws to so restrict its use that it will soon pass from the scene. But in the meantime we have at least one outstanding book about mopeds.

Emilie C. Harting, the author of A LITERARY TOUR GUIDE TO ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND, has written a new book, A LITERARY TOUR GUIDE TO THE UNITED STATES: NORTHEAST, (William Morrow, 1978).

This is a handy guide to literary landmarks from Maine to Maryland. Included are the homes of Washington Irving, Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Emily Dickinson, Mark Twain and New England towns with rich literary heritages like Concord and Cambridge.

Walking tours of Boston, New York City and Philadelphia point out residences of writers, locales of literary works, gathering places for writers, museums and libraries with important book exhibits.

Literary history comes alive in this outstanding little guidebook. Steve Allen waited 18 years to get his television series "Meeting of Minds" on television, but on January 10, 1977, PBS-TV presented the first group of shows, six, one-hour specials.

In his book MEETING OF MINDS, (Crown Publishers, 1978), Mr. Allen presents the complete scripts of the series. Each program brings together some of history's most significant figures and elicits a crosscurrent of ideas and beliefs that illuminate the past, the present and even the future.

One show brings together Theodore Roosevelt, Thomas Aquinas, Thomas Paine and Cleopatra discussing ideas and experiences concerning which they have special knowledge.

Each show is hosted by Steve Allen. He introduces the personalities and asks questions designed to stimulate discussion. Some readers may feel there is too much Allen written into some of the scripts but by any standard the scripts are thought-provoking, entertaining and highly educational.

Reading MEETING OF MINDS is the next best thing to watching the show on Channel 58.

AMONG THE MISSING, (Simon and Schuster, 1978), is an anecdotal history of missing persons from 1800 to the present. The author, Jay Robert Nash, writes on crime as a syndicated columnist. He has authored many books about crime including, DILLINGER: DEAD OR ALIVE?

The mystery of Amelia Earhart's last flight, the vanishing acts of Agatha Christie, Sherwood Anderson and Aimee Semple McPherson, the search for Jimmy Hoffa are all in this record of human drama, love, vengeance, avarice, adventure and murder. Mystery fans will enjoy this book, but it doesn't contain any new information.

The few black and white photographs scattered throughout the book are small and not very clear.

Our librarians now have the 1978 Mobil Travel Guides. Maps, places to stay and things to do and see make these guides of the United States highly popular.

Golf Tourney Deadline Nears

Those who wish to play golf with celebrities and help the American Cancer Society at the same time should sign up for the Walter Hagen Golf Tournament before Tuesday, August 1.

The tournament, which will be held at the Lochmoor Club, 1018 Sunningdale, on Monday, August 14, is open to all golfers with an established handicap of no more than 40.

Winning teams will represent Wayne County at the state tournament held at Boyne Highlands September 9 and 10. Finalists in the Michigan division will participate at the national tournament at Walt Disney World in December.

This local tournament gives both amateur and professional golfers a chance to compete for a shot at the Walter Hagen championship.

Entrants also have an opportunity to play with more than a dozen area celebrities. Among them are "Detroit Free Press" columnist Joe Falls, former Detroit Lions linebacker Mike Lucci, Detroit Tiger veterans Bill Freehan and Jim Northrup, WJR personality Marc Avery and WJBK sportscaster Ray Lane.

Walter Hagen golf tournaments originated in 1970 to honor the late golfing great Walter Hagen Sr. who died of cancer in 1969.

Proceeds from the events, now sponsored by the American Cancer Society in over 20 states, provide funds for various programs in the fight against cancer.

For more information and/or to register, contact Mrs. Joseph Range of Fairholme road at 884 6093 or the Lochmoor Club at 886-1010.

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor: I am a 64-year-old resident of Grosse Pointe Woods.

My wife and I have lived in, paid taxes to and voted in Grosse Pointe Woods since January 1969, long enough for us to develop an interest in our community.

For the above reasons, I am writing you to express my views about the proposal to build senior citizen housing in Ghesquiere Park. Voters in Grosse Pointe Woods will have an opportunity to vote on the housing proposal on August 8.

As a "senior citizen" who may qualify for the proposed housing, I want to state flatly and without any equivocation that I am opposed to the proposal.

I am against it because I don't believe it is needed and because I don't believe the proposal's sponsors have proven a need for it.

I am against it because its sponsors either haven't done their homework or they aren't telling me what the real costs will be, what the brokers' fees, insurance, architects' fees, legal fees, closing costs. What will be left of the $4,500,000 to build with? Or will the building authority just issue more bonds?

I am against it because I'm opposed to the city pledging its (my), faith and credit to borrow the money to build the housing.

I am against it because I don't want the citizens, (mostly me), of Grosse Pointe Woods having to live with the very real possibility of being faced with a "mini-Silverdome" situation. I hope we have learned something from the citizens of Pontiac.

I am against it because I oppose donating one inch, let alone three acres, of Ghesquiere Park to any group in our community. That park belongs to all of us, but particularly to the two boys, (ages eight and 11), who live next door. They play all over that park the year around. I know they do because sometimes I play along with them.

I am against it because I learned a long, long time ago not to buy a pig in a poke.

As a 64-year-old "senior citizen," I urge all the voters of Grosse Pointe Woods to vote August 8 in person or by absentee ballot and to vote "no" on the proposal for senior citizen housing.

Respectfully, Edward D. Purdy, Of Kenmore road, Grosse Pointe Woods

To the Editor:

The sinister plan to build senior citizens housing in Ghesquiere Park has once again reared its ugly head.

I urge every voter in Grosse Pointe Woods to join me in voting "no" August 8 on this proposed theft of land from our beautiful park.

Many other sites are available for senior citizens housing, but Ghesquiere is the only park west of Mack avenue. Further, it is the only park in Grosse Pointe Woods suitable for use by people of all ages. (Lake Front Park is in St. Clair Shores.)

Whole families ride bikes through Ghesquiere Park. Joggers jog through it. Tennis players vie for use of the courts. Tots climb and run here in safety. Older children picnic in "secret" hideaways among the trees.

Little Leaguers learn to play ball here, cheered on by entire families and neighbors, old and young. Football, frisbees and horseshoes abound. In the winter, snow forts proliferate and ice skaters appear.

Ghesquiere is truly a park enjoyed all year round and not only by humans, but also by beautiful birds, rabbits and squirrels. There is absolutely no "unused" part of Ghesquiere Park, and the idea of our city council even considering donating three acres of our park for housing is repugnant to say the least.

The Grosse Pointe Woods land use study cited the extreme deficiency in open space and recreational area in our community. Let us guard what precious little park land we have by voting "no" on August 8.

Sincerely, Carl B. Bengtson, Grosse Pointe Woods

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Four Dartmouth College officers now possess something it is highly unlikely anyone else in the vicinity of Hanover, N.H., can lay claim to—each has a chair, with a dark green, slatted back, tip-up seat, cast-iron frame and small plaque on the back reading: "Removed from Tiger Stadium 1977."

They have one other thing in common. They are dyed-in-the-wool, (not polyester), Detroit Tiger fans.

Two were Michigan-raised, and therefore come by their Tigerishness naturally. Two are "sports," arriving at Tiger fandom by circuitous geographic routes.

Consider the case of James M. Cox, Avalon professor in the Humanities, a native of Independence, hard by the North Carolina border in western Virginia, who became a Tiger fan in the mid-30's out of perversity, when an older brother announced that he was a St. Louis Cardinal fan.

Or Ralph N. Manuel, dean of the college, a native of Brunswick, Md., who was smitten by the Bengals when he watched them play in the first big league game he ever saw, against the old and pathetic Washington Senators.

Peru to Send Heritage Gold

A 10-week showing of "Peru's Golden Treasures," a glittering loan of pre-Columbian goldwork from the Museo Oro de Peru, has been set this coming October by the Detroit Institute of Arts. Dates are Thursday, October 5, through Sunday, December 10.

This display of some 200 works by ancient cultures during the 2,000 years before Columbus landed and the Spaniards conquered the reigning Incas will rival interest created by the Tutankhamun exhibition, according to Michael Kan, the museum's deputy director and curator in charge.

Detroit will be the fourth and final stop in its United States tour. Other museums sharing the Peruvian national treasures are the American Museum of Natural History in New York City, the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago and the California Academy of Science in San Francisco.

"These are precious gold objects which escaped the conquistadors," Kan notes. "Their artistic merit is now greater by far than their intrinsic value."

"They dazzle. They cause wonder, and we have a tantalizing glimpse of ancient cultures which created great civilizations before the European colonists."

Fash/Bash Is a Smash

Fash/Bash Fever, an annual benefit sponsored by the Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts, realized a net profit of more than $20,000 this year for the art institute's Youththeatre and other museum projects.

The figure was reported by co-chairmen Robert and Pam Sorock to Andrew Camden, president of the under-40 group, at a June 24 meeting.

The money will help Youththeatre performances reach some 500,000 pupils throughout the state. Youththeatre's program makes it the largest center of professional, live entertainment for youngsters in America.

Fash/Bash Fever was staged June 22, poolside at the Hotel Pontchartrain in downtown Detroit. Fashioners contributed by the Designer Boutiques/Renaissance Center World of Shops were auctioned and food and beverage sales were underwritten by C. A. Muer, Inc.

This business session also welcomed incoming Junior Council officers for 1978-79. David Potts, of Birmingham, will serve as president, Pointer Elizabeth DuMouchelle as vice president, Mr. Sorock, of Bloomfield Hills, as treasurer, and Pointer Gail Kozlowski as secretary.

Kentucky Loses YWCA Convention Next Year

The national board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the USA has voted to move the 1979 National YWCA Triennial Convention from Louisville, Ky., to Dallas, Tex., because of the uncertainty about Equal Rights Amendment ratification in Kentucky.

The board's decision to move to Dallas is in line with its stand that the YWCA will not hold national conventions in states that have failed to ratify the ERA, or in those states whose legislatures have voted to rescind ratification.

Alpha Phi Hearts Go Out to Saint John

MRS. CHARLES HUEBNER, (left), co-chairman of the Detroit East Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi fraternity's Lollipop Sale, JAMES T. FARLEY, president and chief executive officer of Saint John Hospital, and MRS. ALAN DEVINE, top salesman, are pictured after a check for $1,500 was presented to Mr. Farley on behalf of Alpha Phi. The money will go toward the purchase of a Non-Invasive Cardiology Transducer which, when attached to the echocardiograph, allows the physician to view a large segment of the heart without penetrating the patient's skin. The cardiologist can detect valves opening and closing and various heart difficulties. Not pictured are Judy Lundell, co-chairman of the sale, and Mrs. James Greenfield, top salesman.

The check was a result of months of work by members of Alpha Phi who sold lollipops in local banks, cleaners, retail stores and schools.

Cardiac aid has been Alpha Phi's national philanthropy since 1946. For the past seven years, Alpha Phi has conducted international lollipop sales to raise funds for cardiac aid projects.

Local Alpha Phi president Mrs. Ciss Christensen commented on the fine cooperation members of the community have always given Alpha Phi for the lollipop project.

Polish Clubs Convention Set

Pointer Anna Chrypinski is president of the American Council of Polish Cultural Clubs which has scheduled its 1978 convention for Tuesday through Sunday, August 8 to 13, on the campus of the Orchard Lake Schools.

The Friends of Polish Art are hosting this 30th anniversary convention, which will feature the first North American Polish Folk Dance Festival. It will take place at Oakland University, where workshops on choreography, costumes and folk singing as well as business management of folk dance groups will be conducted.

Convention theme is Ethnic Awareness through the Arts. The ACPCC has set for itself the task of spotlighting public awareness on the history of Poland and on the quality of the Polish ingredient in the modern American mosaic.

Keynote speakers at the opening ceremony will be Dr. Frederick Cummings, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Roger E. Jacobi, president of Interlochen Center for the Arts.

Several events will be open to the public. They include a concert Thursday evening, August 10, at the Birmingham Community House, featuring Detroit soprano Elizabeth Sczygielski, winner of the Marcella Sembrich Kochanski Award, and New York's Slavic Arts Ensemble. Admission is $5 per person.

Admission to the Folk Dance Festival performance Friday, August 11, at Rackham Memorial Auditorium in Detroit's Cultural Center, featuring regional and national dances performed by groups from all over the United States, is also $5 per person. Curtain time is 8:15 o'clock.

Admission to the awards banquet and dance at the Polish Century Club Saturday evening, August 12, is $15 per person. Distinguished Service Awards will be presented in Public Life to Richard T. Davies, former United States Ambassador to Poland, in Arts to artist-sculptor Marian Owczarski. The Founders' Award will go to Walter Zachariastewicz, three-term president of the ACPCC.

Tickets for these three events may be obtained at the Polish Art Center and the Polish American Congress, both in Hamtramck, or by calling 885-4784. Dinner reservations must be received by Sunday, August 6.

The workshops will run August 8 through 11, at $20 for the entire session. Participants must be 15 or older. Further details may be obtained by calling 822-3379 after 6 in the evening.

Two art exhibits and sales also have been scheduled in conjunction with the convention. Wood engraving impressions of Dante's "Divine Comedy" by Stefan Mrozewski and sculpture impressions by Marian Owczarski will be featured August 8, 11, 12 and 13 from noon to 5 o'clock at The Galeria at the Orchard Lake Schools.

Paintings by Jan deRosen, famous for his main altar mosaic at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral, Washington, D.C., and his murals, will be on display at the Hamtramck Public Library during regular library hours August 9 through the end of the month.

Rita L. Whateley Wed in St. Paul's

Raymond J. Morans Are Driven from Church to Reception at Grosse Pointe War Memorial in 1926 Packard

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Moran, who vacationed for three weeks in Hawaii following their spring wedding in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore, are at home in Kercheval avenue.

Mrs. Moran is the former Rita Lillian Whateley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Whateley, Jr., of Ridgemont road.

Mr. Moran is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moran, of Moross road.

Monsignor Francis X. Canfield presided Saturday, April 1, at the mid-morning rites for which the bride chose a traditional gown of Chantilly lace and a waist length veil falling from a wreath of silk flowers.

Roses, carnations, baby's-breath and silk flowers formed her bouquet.

She was attended by Lorie Marvin, in a floor length, peach frock with a sheer overcape, her bouquet, similar to that of the bride, accented with peach carnations.

Best man was Bob Mahieu, who arranged for a 1926 Packard to transport the newlyweds from the church to the reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Ushering at the 10:30 o'clock service were Tom Hogan, Bill Stover, Jeff Albertson and Dennis Hook.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore floor length gowns, the former's dusty pink in color, the latter's baked coral. Mrs. Whateley's corsage was fashioned of stephanotis, miniature carnations and baby's-breath. Mrs. Moran's of gardenias, stephanotis and baby's-breath.

From Another Pointe of View

The Pointe, it was a case of Native Son Tigertown Mania.

The chairs were recently presented to Cox, Manuel and Dinan in a surprise ceremony engineered by Frederick L. Hier, director of public programs at Dartmouth and another Tiger fan, (he hails from Pleasantville, N.Y., and became Detroit-aligned as a Yankee antidote), and Mr. Farley.

Wheels were set in motion when Laurence W. Reilly, Jr., a graduate student in Chemistry, a sports buff and a Red Sox fan—not necessarily in that order—spotted a brief piece in Sports Illustrated late in 1977 that said the Detroit baseball club was refurbishing Tiger Stadium, that the seats were being removed and could be had for $5 each.

Reilly suggested to his wife, Virginia, who works in the same office, that this would be a good gift for Farley, and Virginia, in turn, enlisted Hier's aid. He found out, by telephone, that the seats were indeed available. But the firm that was removing them would not ship them.

Tennis Club Hosts Tourney

This summer for the first time, The Pointe will have Tennis Grand Champions. They'll be determined in matches to be played at the Grosse Pointe Indoor Tennis Club Tuesday to Sunday, August 22 to 27. The winners and runners-up of the doubles tournaments held in each of the five Pointes are eligible to compete in the Grand Champions Tournaments.

Both ladies doubles and mens doubles will be held on Saturday, August 26, with adult mixed doubles on Sunday, August 27. The boys 18-and-under doubles, and girls 18-and-under doubles will be held Tuesday, August 22, through Thursday, August 24.

The new tournaments are being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Indoor Tennis Club to promote tennis in the Grosse Pointe area by increasing the already wide interest in the various city tournaments.

"There has always been great discussion as to which city has the best players. We think these tournaments would be a fun way of finding the answer," said club president Ed Roney.

While all the Grand Champions this year will be doubles teams, the club expects to extend the competition to include singles players in 1979. The club will furnish trophies to all the winners.

Since entries are still being taken for the five city tournaments, any team interested in becoming Grosse Pointe Grand Champions still has a chance if they hurry. They should register with their own city tennis tournament director immediately.

The winners and runners-up from each city will automatically be entered in the Grand Championship Tournaments. Specific tournament rules are available at the Grosse Pointe Indoor Tennis Club, where other questions regarding the tournaments will be answered. The club's phone number is 886-2944.

GP WOODS-SHORES

By Steven Rusing

The first of the three-game World Series was played Saturday, July 7, between the Dodgers and Orioles.

Dodger Tim Sheridan got on base courtesy of an error in the fourth inning. Then Neal Meubrouck singled, sending Sheridan to third where he stole home. The Dodgers scored three more runs in the fifth on three singles, a walk and an error.

The Dodgers' Mike, (Gator), Gates knocked in two more runs with his double in the sixth. Dodger pitcher Mike Hall gave up only one hit and struck out 12. The final score for the first game was 6-0.

The Orioles evened the series on Sunday, July 8, with a 10-6 win. Oriole Tom Aubrey hit a two-run homer. Dodger Tim Sheridan hit a solo shot for the Dodgers. Dodger Mike Hall had a triple and a single.

The deciding game of the World Series was played on Tuesday, July 10. The Orioles sent Geoffrey Tischbein to the mound. The Dodgers countered with Mike Hall, who stymied the Orioles in the first game of the series.

The Dodgers wasted no time in the first inning, scoring three times. Mike Walkoviak walked, stole second and third, where Tim Sheridan doubled him in for a run. Then Hall tripled, scoring another run. Hall then stole home.

The Orioles retaliated with men on first and second,

Geoffrey Tischbein doubled and the score was 3-2, Dodgers.

The Orioles added two more runs in the third with Tom Aubrey's solo shot and Tim Van Eckoute's double. That made the score 4-3 Orioles.

Hall doubled to start the fifth inning then stole home evening the score.

For the second consecutive year, the third game of the World Series went into extra innings. Frank Reid started it off with a walk. Geoffrey Tischbein doubled with men at second and third.

The Dodgers pulled their infield and outfield in when Oriole Van Eckhoute hit a grounder to short, Frank Reid ran in for the win and the Orioles won their second Little League championship in as many years.

User Pact Gets Nod in Woods

Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos was unanimously authorized by the council to sign a Michigan State Police User Agreement, which is required by state police as a condition of continuing to furnish non-conviction arrest information to the city.

This action was taken by the solons at their rescheduled regular meeting Monday, July 10.

City Attorney George Catlin explained the agreement states that the city and its employees will comply with existing federal and state statutes concerning the use and dissemination of such information.

The pact, he notes, requires the city to hold the state police harmless from any claim or lawsuit arising out of actions by city employees should same involve a lawsuit in which the state police were joined as a defendant.

Under the agreement, the city would be financially responsible for the costs of defense incurred by the state police.

Mr. Catlin felt such a provision is reasonable since it doesn't involve mistakes or negligence committed by the state police but covers only that situation wherein, because of alleged negligence by city employees, the state police is involved in litigation.

He added that the city's liability insurance contracts provide the municipality with protection for the city arising out of contractual agreements of this nature.

Grosse Pointe South High School is losing two veteran faculty members this year, Alice Wellpott and Margaret Casteel, and Lois Lusty, first certified teacher of the Emotionally Disturbed in the State of Michigan, is also retiring from the School System. They'll all be missed.

Miss Wellpott, of the South High English Department staff, has earned a solid reputation for her untiring efforts to help students improve their reading skills.

She's a bit ambivalent about retirement. "Right now," she notes, "we have the kind of program I would like to have had five years ago for slow learners." It would be interesting to stay on another year, to see how it goes.

And she'll miss "my cup of coffee in the morning, and after school, with my co-workers."

Without Regret

But there's the other side of the coin: getting up at 6:30 every winter weekday morning, getting into school in the midst of a blizzard — "and then they tell me I have to go home"

Miss Wellpott, a native of Illinois where she began her career as an elementary school teacher, holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Illinois.

She has also studied at the University of Colorado, the University of Chicago, Wayne and Michigan State Universities, the University of Michigan and Southern Illinois Normal University.

She came to Grosse Pointe in 1954 as a junior high school remedial reading teacher, from a similar position in Rantoul, Ill. She has taught at both Parcels and Pierce, and is recognized as one of the district's truly fine professionals.

She'll stay in The Pointe area, where she has bought a condominium. "This is home." But staying doesn't mean staying put.

Up and Away

Two weeks after school ended, she was off to Mexico. She still has family in Illinois and all over the country, and she hopes now to have a little more time for them.

And just maybe, in the fall, she'll be off to the Holy Land. "I have some friends who are sponsoring a trip there." If she goes, she goes just at the time school starts again, and she recognizes that this might be a good thing. She's never watched everyone else go off to school before.

Then there's Europe. Alice Wellpott has been all over Europe with the exception of the Scandinavian countries, so Norway, Denmark and Sweden figure in her future travel plans. "And sometime, I'd like to go back to Germany." She has relatives there, too.

At home, she'll go golfing every good day she can. "And I plan to do some handwork, knitting, crocheting, and all that — and what I like best of all needlepoint. And I will READ."

If things work out, MARGARET CASTEEL won't only be leaving South High, she'll be leaving the country. She's going to Chicago this summer to see if there's a chance she can get resident alien status in Britain. "I realize it's financially stupid, but it's something I've always wanted."

Always, at least, since 1949-50, when she spent a year in Cornwall as an exchange teacher — and loved it.

She's been back to Britain 28 times. "This will be the first summer in 28 years I haven't been back, but now that I can travel at any time of the year, why should I go in summer?" No more high season tourist travel for Miss Casteel. She never was a typical tourist, anyway.

She's enriched the lives of her students through a number of unusual experiences.

Two Sabbaticals

She has had two sabbatical leaves. During 1959-60 she was invited to present a series of lectures in Great Britain. She spent the balance of the year exploring the world.

In 1967-68 she again lectured in the British Isles and traveled extensively.

Miss Casteel joined the Grosse Pointe School staff in 1945, with prior experience as a teacher of history and civics in Canton, O., and Monroe. She leaves after many years as a South High counselor.

Her training is extensive. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Wooster, O., a Master of Arts from the University of Wisconsin. She continued her education via courses at Michigan and Wayne State Universities, the American University, the University of Hawaii, the College of William and Mary and the University of Michigan.

During her South High years, Miss Casteel has been a valuable member of the Social Studies Department, an outstanding counselor and an effective leader of such extra-curricular activities as Y-Teens.

World View

She's been in charge of South High's foreign exchange students for 15 years. It's an assignment she's relished.

and her colleagues. "My kids are the greatest, and the teaching staff in Grosse Pointe is among the finest I have ever known. The people here are professionals."

Mrs. Lusty came to Grosse Pointe in 1964, after 14 years on the staff in Wyandotte where she taught kindergarten and elementary grades as well as Special Education.

Her first local assignment was on the staff of Barnard Center of the Protestant Children's Home, (now the Children's Home of Detroit). She leaves as a Teacher Consultant for the Mentally Impaired whose schedule took her from Maire to Mason to Brownell to St. Clare School during any given week.

Born in Milwaukee, Lois attended the University of Wisconsin and received her two degrees from Wayne State University. Her superiors have consistently termed her contributions to public education "outstanding."

The Lustys will be staying on in Grosse Ile. It's been their home for years. And Lois will still have several kids in her life on a regular basis: each of her own three kids, Arthur, III, a pediatrician, Mary, who owns a boat and marine hardware store, and Linda, who was a Political Science teacher before she married, has two kids.

Among them is — need you ask? — an Arthur J. Lusty, IV.

his older brother, Joseph W. Farley, and Joseph W. Farley got the chairs, all right . . . and for several months stumbled over them en route to their cars in their garage in Vendome road until Joseph W. and his wife, Jean, collaborated in air-freighting them to Boston.

They traveled by truck from Boston to New Hampshire where some clever blacksmithing and welding by James Farley's son, Robert, produced front legs and feet — and four very happy Dartmouth College officers, who now have lifetime reserved Tiger seats.

Let you doubt they deserve them, consider that Cox's professional study is dominated by a three-by-five foot picture of the World Champion 1935 Tigers . . . and that he keeps one push button on his car radio aligned to WJR in Detroit, so he can catch a broadcast if the ionosphere is cooperating.

Manuel, too, has been known to sit hunched in his car at night, straining to catch a Tiger broadcast; the night Kaline got his 3,000th hit, Manuel hit the horn and blasted the good news through his immediate neighborhood.

As for Dinan and Farley, they were both to the Tiger manor born . . . and don't you forget it!

Tennis, Anyone?

Get out the racquets! Barbara Voorheis is coming to town, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marco, of Chalfonte avenue, and if you're looking for a good game, look no farther than Barbara.

This past year, after two years as treasurer of the Junior League of Fort Lauderdale, Barbara took on the huge job of chairman of the league's involvement in the Virginia Slims of Florida.

"It was a great public relations-marketing experience," she reports. It was also a splendid chance to meet some of America's finest woman tennis players, from Rosie Casals to Renee Richards.

Tennis, in case you didn't know, is Barbara's "thing." She recently won the Ladies' Singles Club Championship at Fort Lauderdale's Coral Ridge Country Club, and the Ladies' Singles and Doubles Titles at Holiday Park, where Chris Evert's dad is the director and teaching pro.

"With his cooperation, I am now working on starting a tennis team at Saint Anthony's School, where he still has one daughter and we have three children."

And at Le Club International in Fort Lauderdale, Barbara and her partner, Joan Holston, played in a fun exhibition match against Bobby Riggs. The format featured 14 ladies' doubles teams, each playing a pro set against Riggs, "complete with all his trick serves, banana balls, et al."

Everybody laughed a lot, including Riggs who, Barbara discovered, "was not the male chauvinist we expected to meet. He was surprisingly personable and entertaining—but an unbelievable gambler!"

So there's Barbara, busy and happy and batting those balls around like mad under the Florida sun . . . and very much looking forward to coming "home" to Grosse Pointe this summer.

"Grosse Pointe will always be 'home' to me," she acknowledges. "I still feel slightly like a Florida visitor."
