

SENIOR PROJECT REJECTED

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, August 10
THE HOUSE APPROVED the largest appropriations bill in history—$119.2 billion for defense, and included a last-minute amendment to forbid the use of funds for abortions in the military except to save the life of the mother. The measure also contains $2.1 billion for a nuclear aircraft carrier which President Jimmy Carter has opposed. The abortion amendment's sponsor, Rep. Robert K. Dornan, R-Calif., told reporters that defense dollars are not designed to be used for abortions. The house version of the bill is $131 million less than requested by the administration and $9.2 billion more than was budgeted for the fiscal year.

Friday, August 11
THE CHRYSLER Corp. announced it was selling its European operations to Peugeot-Citroen of France in a $500 million deal. The move would raise cash for the troubled automaker and make the French company the largest auto producer in Europe. Chrysler's move was seen by analysts as only the first step toward withdrawal from overseas operations, since those subsidiaries it sold to Peugeot-Citroen were only marginal. The number three automaker needs cash for its five-year program to expand and renovate its U.S. facilities and produce new, fuel-efficient cars.

Saturday, August 12
HOUSE SPEAKER Thomas P. O'Neill postponed action on the extension of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, (CETA), after the subcommittee chairman in charge of the bill requested he do so. Mr. O'Neill expects the bill to pass, but he put off action on the bill until mid-September after a number of amendments threatened to make the program too restrictive. The bill provides federal subsidies for certain public service jobs in 450 cities.

Sunday, August 13
POPE PAUL VI was laid to rest at an outdoor requiem mass celebrated by 104 princes of the church Saturday. Millions of persons watched the funeral services on television in 49 countries in addition to the crowd of 100,000 that packed the square in Vatican City. The pope's body had been viewed by about 500,000 persons during two days of lying in state in Saint Peter's Basilica. The cypress coffin was borne by 12 pallbearers and placed on a rich oriental tapestry before an altar in front of Saint Peter's for the services.

Monday, August 14
EARTHQUAKES triggered fires, gas leaks, rock slides and a railroad derailment yesterday in Santa Barbara, Calif. No serious injuries were reported, but property damage was believed to be heavy in three California counties. The tremor registered 5.5 on the Richter scale according to officials at the U.S. Geological Survey's Earthquake Information Center in Golden, Colo. The quake reportedly knocked people off their feet in the three county area and slightly injured about 50 persons.

Tuesday, August 15
THE ISRAELI CABINET decided to postpone the building of five settlements on the west bank of the Jordan River until after a summit meeting to be held at Camp David next month. The decision to construct the paramilitary outposts was made at a secret cabinet meeting in June, and was only acknowledged by officials last Sunday. The reversal was evidently made in response to criticism from President Jimmy Carter.

Schools Welcome New Principals

4 Schools Given New Principals

Board of Education Approves Appointments at South, Pierce, Maire and Ferry

The Board of Education approved staff appointments Monday, August 14, that will provide four local schools with new principals when doors open this September. Maire Elementary School Principal Donald Bassett will take over at Pierce Middle School this September, while teacher Leo Warras moves into the principal's office at Maire. Another teacher, Audrey Burchett, was appointed principal at Ferry Elementary School.

The appointment of William Mogk as principal of South High School was announced last month, and approved by the School Board Monday night. Mr. Bassett, who has been at Maire since 1967, will be replacing Mr. Mogk at Pierce School. Mr. Bassett taught at Trombly, Barnes, Ferry and Mason Elementary Schools, as well as Brownell Middle School, since he joined the system 26 years ago.

Working on a PhD
He earned BA and MA degrees from Michigan State University, the latter in the area of Educational Administration. He currently is completing work on a PhD in administration at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Bassett has served on many curriculum review and textbook committees, is a member of local, state and national Elementary Principals' Association.

Child's Death Spurs Mack-Vernier Traffic Study by Commission

Wayne County Road Planners Complete Survey at Municipality's Request; Council May Seek Federal Funding for Improvements

By Roger A. Waha
A traffic study of the Mack avenue-Vernier road intersection, requested by Woods officials earlier this summer, received the attention of the council at its regular meeting Monday, August 7. The study, conducted by the planning division of the Wayne County Road Commission, views accident analysis, volume-capacity analysis and field observation of the intersection operation.

One main reason for the city's initiative in this respect was the fatal accident in which a 13-year-old Harper Woods boy was killed on May 22 when his bike made contact with a city garbage truck as he attempted to cross the intersection.

With the study as a foundation, the council unanimously approved a motion authorizing City Engineer Larry Pate to prepare preliminary plans and cost estimates, (based upon recommendations in the study), with the municipality to file a formal application for federal funds toward implementation.

Would Be Beneficial
City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council that county officials suggested the city should apply for monies to the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation for 90 percent federal aid safety funding toward making recommended improvements at the intersection.

The estimated construction cost for such work is placed at around $30,000, said W. G. Sutherland, assistant director of transportation, Wayne County Road Commission.

Solicitation Curbs Hit By Groups

Members of 14 Local Service Organizations Blast Proposed Law at Special Meeting

By Dave Kramer
Representatives from seven service and social organizations blasted a proposed Wood's ordinance that they said would severely restrict efforts to raise funds by solicitations in the city.

At a special committee meeting of the Woods Council on Monday, August 14, Councilmen E. D. Grady and John Sabol and City Attorney George Catlin heard complaints from members of 14 local organizations.

Groups represented included the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, the Northeast Guidance Center, Grosse Pointe Lions, Girl Scouts, Grosse Pointe Jaycees, University Liggett School and the First English Lutheran Church.

Mr. Catlin admitted the proposed ordinance as written, could be interpreted to forbid a priest or minister clergyman from making an appeal for money at a Sunday service. He said the wording could be improved.

Mr. Grady also admitted the ordinance was probably too stringent. "I think we've overthrown it," he said.

The special committee will report back to the council as a whole at its next meeting, scheduled for Monday, August 21. Mr. Sabol indicated his report would be a strict account of what had occurred at the meeting.

The proposed ordinance, which Mr. Catlin said he modeled after a similar ordinance in existence in "Birmingham or Bloomfield Hills," would permit one solicitation per year per group. The group would have to pay a $10 fee, and the solicitation period would be limited to 10 days, during daylight hours.

Mr. Catlin excluded the portion of the model ordinance which required solicitors to be residents of the city.

Could Be Challenged
"Residency is not a legitimate differentiation," he said. "It is my view that it could be challenged in court and the ordinance could be thrown out on the basis that it is unconstitutional. I don't want to recommend to the council an ordinance that I feel is unconstitutional."

The proposal was approved in its first reading stage at the council's July 10 meeting. Mr. Catlin explained the ordinance would have to be (Continued on Page 6)

Election Returns Show Pointers Followed Trend

Local Voters Stick Closely to Pattern Set Throughout State; Zolton Ferency Second to Fitzgerald for Governorship Nomination

A look at final election returns shows that Grosse Pointe voters followed state trends closely in choosing party candidates in the Tuesday, August 8, primary election.

In the contest to select a Democrat to challenge incumbent Republican Gov. William G. Milliken this November, 43.5 percent of the Pointe vote went to William Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald received about 40 percent of the vote state-wide.

Next in line for the governor's slot on the Democratic ballot in The Pointe was Zolton Ferency, who received 27 percent of the local vote. Mr. Ferency received slightly less support, about one-quarter of the vote, on a state-wide level.

Democrats Patrick McCollough and William Ralls received just 12.5 and 17 percent of the local votes for governor, respectively.

Picked Carl Levin
Pointers selected former Detroit City Councilman Carl Levin as Democratic candidate for the US Senate seat held by Robert Griffin, with 40 percent of the vote.

Newspaper publisher Phil Power received 20 percent of the local vote, Richard Vanderveen, 16 percent; Anthony Derzinski, 10 percent; John Otterbacher, 7 percent; and Paul Rosenbaum, 7 percent.

Grosse Pointe Republicans stood behind current Sen. Robert Griffin, awarding him about 84 percent of the vote for renomination, and his challenger, L. Brooks Patterson, about 16 percent. Throughout the senatorial district, Sen. Griffin received somewhat less support against the challenge, winning renomination with a 78-22 percent split.

Democrats had six persons to choose from to nominate a candidate for the First District State Senate seat vacated by gubernatorial hopeful William Fitzgerald. The nomination was awarded to John Kelly, founder of project Retree, an organization that has helped residents of northeast Detroit neighborhoods replant trees and greenery on city walkways to replace the many elms which have fallen in recent years.

State Senate Race
The Grosse Pointe vote in the First District Senate Democratic contest broke down as follows:

- John Kelly, 519
 - William B. Fitzgerald, 450
 - George Verdonet, 409
 - Joe Young, 353
 - M. A. Bartoszewicz, 107
 - Anthony Woldanski, 83
- Mr. Kelly will face Republican Joseph Posch, Jr., in November, who beat his opponent (Continued on Page 4)

Two-Car Collision in Park Fatal to Farms Resident

Berrien C. Eaton, 85, of Stephens road, died in Bon Secours Hospital on Sunday, August 13, of injuries suffered in a two-car collision at Three Mile drive and Vernier. He was on his way home from church services at Saint Clare de Montefalco, according to Park Lt. Gordon Duncan, who said the accident is still under investigation.

The lieutenant said that Mr. Eaton was traveling south on Three Mile drive, with Susan Harris, 23, a resident of The Park, to drop her off at her house, which was on his way. It is not known, yet, whether Mr. Eaton had stopped for the stop street at Vernier and then started up again, or if he had gone through without stopping. As Mr. Eaton went through the intersection, Lt. Duncan said, his car was struck broadside by another vehicle driven by Joseph Pellerito of Devonshire road, who was driving west on Vernier. The impact threw the woman out of the Eaton auto and she suffered a possible fractured jaw and right wrist and facial lacerations when she hit the ground. She was conveyed to Bon Secours by the Park's emergency ambulance. Mr. Eaton's vehicle was overturned and landed on its top, pinning the accident victim in the car. Park firefighters arrived at the scene and it took them some time to pry him loose. A Farms ambulance crew took him to the hospital. Lt. Duncan said that the (Continued on Page 2)

Voters Say No to Plan For Housing

But Handily Approve Issuance of One Additional Class C Liquor License in Community

By Roger A. Waha
For the second time in less than three years Woods voters defeated an advisory referendum question on senior citizens housing at Ghesquiere Park.

With an estimated 37 percent of the city's 14,347 registered voters casting ballots, residents, by a 2,913 to 2,059 count, defeated the seniors' housing question at the Tuesday, August 8, primary election.

While disappointment reigned among seniors, Alex Bardy of Gabby's Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue, was decidedly pleased over the response of voters to a question to grant an additional Class C liquor license in the community.

Residents Say Yes
By a wide 3,037 to 1,830 margin, residents approved a question which asked if they favored the adoption of an ordinance amending the city code to provide that the council "may approve or signify its approval" of the issuance of one additional Class C license within the city.

With the favorable vote, the ordinance was automatically amended and now it's up to the council to decide if it wishes to issue one additional document and, if so, to whom. The question originally reached the primary ballot because of Mr. Bardy's successful initiatory petition drive.

Remains Sore Spot
On senior citizens housing, a similar question was defeated by voters, 2,525 to 1,647, in November 1975, with the proposed use of Ghesquiere Park for such housing being a sore spot with the majority of residents voting. "I'm very disappointed because we really and truly worked hard to have the people understand the situation," said Irene Sutton, chairman of the Senior Citizens Commission. "But this is the way it went and the people didn't believe us."

"I'm glad I didn't vote against it personally because I didn't want it on my conscience." Issue Not Dead
She felt the result was God's will and the future will offer brighter moments in relation to housing. "I've not lost hope, because the need is there," said Mrs. Sutton. "Now I hope the council will take some action."

Saying the issue wasn't dead "by a long shot," she said the need for housing remains with the city, as it is gradually becoming an aging community. Trying to look on the bright side, Mrs. Sutton then noted, "If we didn't do anything else, we made the seniors aware that they have a legal right to vote by absentee ballot and this is a tremendous stride forward."

On a possible next step, she said the commission may make a recommendation to the council that the city study the feasibility of seniors' housing, while adding this step was taken before without much progress. As for an initiatory petition drive to place the housing question on the ballot once again, Mrs. Sutton said she didn't think this would transpire at this time.

Worth The Effort
There was joy at Gabby's over the result with Mr. Bardy saying, "I'm very pleased. The people gave us about a two to one margin on this question. I also want to thank everyone who helped me."

Blow to Chest by Batted Ball Fatal to Park Youth

Eleven-year-old Edward Joseph Randazzo Jr., of 1331 Maryland avenue, was hit in the chest by a hard line-drive while playing "scrub" baseball at the Defer Elementary School playground and was killed, it was disclosed by Park Police Lt. Gordon Duncan. The incident took place on Friday, August 11, while his Big Brother, George Canning, 35, of Detroit, stood by helplessly. Eddie was pitching and struck out his glove to catch the batted ball, which whizzed by and struck him in the chest. He collapsed several feet behind the pitcher's mound. Mr. Canning, who has been Eddie's Big Brother for about a year, ran to the boy. Eddie said he was okay and then stopped breathing. Mr. Canning said he made every effort to start the boy breathing again with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, but without success. Mr. Canning had chosen Eddie from three applicants to the Big Brothers of America. A crew from The Park Fire Department arrived with the ambulance and en route to Bon Secours Hospital, revived the boy for a moment, but Eddie was pronounced dead on arrival (DOA) at the hospital. Eddie's teammate, Michael Cherghezan, 15, and three other neighborhood boys collected a total of $76 from the Randazzo's family neighbors, and gave $50 to the (Continued on Page 4)

Berrien Eaton Dies in Car Crash

(Continued from Page 1) accident occurred at 12:44 p.m. and at 2:20 p.m., Mr. Eaton was pronounced dead, with the cause of death resulting from multiple fractures, hemorrhaging and cardio vascular arrest.

The lieutenant said that Mr. Eaton's death was the first traffic fatality in The Park since 1969 or 1970.

Funeral services for Mr. Eaton were held Wednesday, August 16, in St. Paul's Cathedral in Woodward avenue. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery. Services were handled by the W. R. Hamilton Co.

Survivors are Berrien Eaton, Jr. of Phoenix, Ariz. and Theodore Hambleton Eaton and Anne N. Eaton, both of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Eaton attended St. George's School, Newport, R. I., and Williams College, Class of 1915, where he was member of the Kappa Alpha and Fasesc Societies.

He married Gladys Hambleton of Chicago, in 1917.

He was engaged in the Chemical business founded by his grandfather from 1915 until his retirement December 31, 1963. He was president of Eaton Investment Company.

Housing Plan Nixed

Preliminary plans for proposed improvements have already been prepared and now Mr. Bardy said he wants to contact Rossetti Associates toward finalizing the plans.

The firm is the design consultant for the renovation of Gabby's. Mr. Bardy said, "I feel they're the best in the area."

While savoring the joy of the favorable vote, he also reflected over the many hours of work which brought a C license closer to his door.

"It has been lots of work and I'm tired, added Mr. Bardy. "But it has been worth the effort."

Will Hear All

The next step now rests with the council. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said a public hearing, at which time all interested applicants will have an opportunity to present their cases, will be held.

"On the one additional Class C license, the council could theoretically give it to anybody," he said, while indicating Gabby's would probably be the favorite. "But it's always possible it could go to someone else."

Saying a majority vote of the council is needed to issue one additional document, (which would make a total of five C licenses in the city), Mr. Pinkos said a public hearing date would probably be set at the Monday, August 21, council meeting, with the actual hearing being held in September.

"All interested applicants will have the opportunity to be heard," he stressed.

In assessing voter response to the two questions, Mr. Pinkos said he felt seniors' housing wasn't approved because of the park location.

"Grosse Pointe Woods citizens are reluctant to give up any recreational property. I feel there's no real opposition to senior citizens housing except when it involves the use of recreational property," he stated, while adding a greater degree of acceptance would probably be seen in relation to a school site.

Surprised at Margin

If there was no element of surprise on housing, Mr. Pinkos said he didn't expect the liquor license question to pass as easily as it did.

Saying he would vote in favor of issuing one additional license because it was the will of the people, he indicated more initiatory petition drives might be conducted in the future toward placing a similar question on the ballot.

(The Woods could have up to 15 such licenses pending council approval.)

Noting the mood of the citizenry appears to be changing on this subject, the mayor added residents seem more willing to favor restaurants with a C license as against a bar.

Sewer Repair Completed; Cost Exceeds $400,000

By David Kramer
 The Farms Council, at its Monday, August 7, meeting, approved the final payment of $3,358.30 to the Mancini Construction Co. for its part in repairing the Kerby road sewer, bringing the total cost for the project to well over $400,000 and ending the nearly two year-old repair project.

City Manager Andrew Bremer told the council the total amount of disputed payment to the contractor was "roughly $2,000, which isn't bad for a project of this size." He added that while Mancini has completed its work, some road repairs and landscaping remain.

The problem began in October, 1976, when city engineers discovered a large cavity in the ground by Kerby road. An inspection revealed the sewer was leaking.

City Controller Carrol Lock said repairs were first attempted from the inside. It was later discovered the leakage was more extensive than originally thought, and the pipe began to clog up with sand, especially after heavy storms.

In order to get at the sewer, two shafts had to be dug down to its 47-foot depth, one on either side of Kercheval avenue. The damaged section ran from just east of Ridge road to Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Original estimates for the repair of the 49-year-old pipe were from $250,000 to $300,000.

While repairs were being made, it was necessary to pump raw sewage into Lake Saint Clair, resulting in the beaches at the Farms Pier Park and Crescent Sail Yacht Club being closed for almost a year with high levels of bacteriological contamination. They were finally reopened in May of this year.

The beaches were closed again on July 31 when a similar sewer problem of greater magnitude occurred in Macomb County. They currently remain closed.

Mr. Bremer has explained that the lake dumping was the only alternative to having the sewage back up in residents' basements.

According to Mr. Lock, $375,000 worth of bonds were issued by the Farms to help cover the costs of repair. The remainder is being financed from general funds.

He said the cost to the city this year would be $74,300 for payment of the bond principal and interest.

The work involved placing two corrugated metal tubes inside the sewer and plugging the remainder of the four foot diameter main with filler material. Mr. Lock said that while the new tubes are not as wide as the old sewer line, the resistance to the flow of water through them is less than it was with the old brick line, and thus it can carry the same amount of water.

3-10 Sentence For 'Big Foot'

Jerry James Woeltje, 27, of Detroit, allegedly known as "Big Foot" was sentenced to from three to 10 years in prison for the breaking and entering of a Moross road home on May 11.

Woeltje was sentenced by Judge Charles S. Farmer of Wayne County Circuit Court after he pled guilty to the charge of breaking and entering an unoccupied dwelling on July 11.

Farms police nabbed Woeltje in the home after a neighbor saw him enter the home and called police. At that time, police said they had reason to believe that Woeltje was involved in the break-ins of over 100 homes in the Pointes and other east side communities.

He was originally charged with breaking and entering an occupied dwelling, but the charge was reduced in return for a guilty plea.

While being held in the Farms jail, Woeltje attempted to escape by removing a ventilator in the holding room adjacent to his cell. A dispatcher discovered his attempt and he was returned to his quarters.

Burglars Visit Homes in Park

Burglars visited two homes in The Park Wednesday, August 9, making off with a car from one and a television from another, according to police.

Neighbors called police to 1214 Berkshire road early Wednesday morning when they noticed an auto missing from the garage. Police said the home had been ransacked while its owner, Dennis Hawhee, was out of town.

A 1970 Cadillac was reported missing. Mr. Hawhee has not yet determined what other items may also have been stolen. Police believe entry was gained by breaking a window.

A Michigan Bell Telephone crew alerted police to a second breaking and entering that day at about 3 p.m. at 1253 Balfour road. The crew was investigating reports that a telephone at the residence was off the hook and noticed a window at the home was broken.

The home owner Hazel Drysdale, 88, was visiting relatives when the incident occurred. She reported the television and check book missing.

There will be no house tours in November. Admission and guided tour are $1.50 for adults, $1 for students and senior citizens. Parking is available on Lone Pine road or in Christ Church Cranbrook parking lot.

Cranbrook House, surrounded by spacious grounds and the institutions of Cranbrook Educational Community, is filled with culture, beauty and history.

Cheerleaders Attend Camp

North High School junior varsity cheerleaders have once again done themselves proud. Coached by Roberta Delia, the group recently returned from Alma College after attending the National Cheerleading Ass'n. camp.

While at the camp, they won the coveted "Spirit Stick," four first-place superior ribbons, two second place excellent ribbons and a ribbon for the best overall superstar squad.

The girls included Karen Cooper, Claudia Detin, Sophie Elanges, Lisa Hamilton, Trisha Johnston, Suzy Kappaz, Sheila Lehrter, France Lucido, Sheila Ortisi, Melissa Schade and Erin Whelan.

School Board Sets Major Goals for Year

(Continued from Page 1) to the trustees at an earlier meeting, and had trimmed the list down at the suggestion of Board members Joan Hanpeter and Mr. Gandelot. Mrs. Hanpeter said she appreciated the changes that were made and the compromise involved on many parts. The revision of the document was handled through private memoranda between trustees and the administration.

12 Goals Listed
 The 12 goals, along with brief descriptions, follow in no particular order of priority:

- Improve student learning. Efforts will be made to improve basic skills, promote academic excellence and emphasize physical education, health, conceptual learning in science and social studies, and programs for handicapped students.
- Negotiate fair and equitable employment contracts. The Board hopes new contracts will maintain and improve the capability for effective supervision, but will not be unnecessarily restrictive or constraining.
- Upgrade physical facilities. Included in this objective are the renovation of industrial arts facilities at South High as well as a number of improvement projects at other schools for which the trustees have already budgeted about $2 million.
- Improve the quality of supervision and administration in all areas. Monitoring instruction in the classroom, boosting the role of first assistants and improving the intramural sports program with special emphasis on forming a soccer program are included in this area.
- Improve the implementation and use of evaluation systems. The trustees plan to refine the current teacher evaluation system and improve the way student progress is reported to parents at the elementary level.
- Improve the services of central office. Special emphasis will be given to systems to store, maintain and retrieve personnel data and improvement of in-service training programs.
- Improve employee relations. The board will strive to increase mutual understanding and include those affected by decisions in the decision-making process.

Election

Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner Jr., who received 1,698 Grosse Pointe votes to opponent Buck Rogers' 654 votes.

Slimmer in Pointe
 But in Grosse Pointe, the margin of Mr. Steiner's victory was somewhat slimmer. He was supported by about 62 percent of Grosse Pointe voters and, in The Shores, actually lost the election to Mrs. Gattorn, by a 271-198 split.

Opposing Mr. Steiner on the Democratic ticket will be Valere Huvaere, who received 1,698 Grosse Pointe votes to opponent Buck Rogers' 654 votes.

Both the Democratic and Republican candidates for the 13th District State Legislature seat were unopposed in the primary. Incumbent Republican Rep. William Bryant received 5,939 votes, and Democrat Stanley Fisher received 1,545 votes.

Child Dies

Services were held at St. Ambrose Roman Catholic Church on Monday, August 14. Interment was at Forestlawn Cemetery.

Besides his parents, Eddie is survived by his sister, Rhonda, and his grandmothers, Mrs. Elena Edwards and Mrs. Myrtle Kuczinski.

At present-day car prices, the family automobile usually wears out before the mortgage.

Shores Police Nab Canoeist

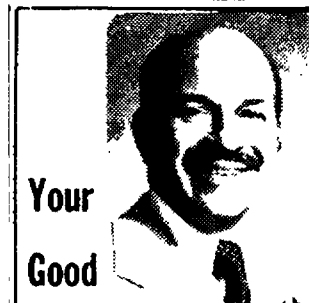

A Farms man was arrested by Shores police after he allegedly attempted to take a canoe ride with a boat borrowed from the back yard of a Lakeshore road resident. Charles Thomas Murphy, 20, of 385 Moross road was charged with prowling under a local ordinance after he was apprehended by the owner of the canoe during the early morning hours of Sunday, August 6.

According to police reports, officers responded to a call from the resident, Helmut Vogt, and found Murphy sitting in the rear seat of a car belonging to Mr. Vogt.

Mr. Vogt said he had chased Murphy, who was carrying the canoe, to the lakefront, where he nabbed him and detained him in the car. The abandoned canoe was later retrieved by Mr. Vogt and the officers.

Police found two other men in the area, both of whom were wet. Mr. Vogt, however, couldn't identify either, and they were released.

- Improve services to the community at large.
- Develop a testing program for the high school. Such a program will be compatible with the extensive system already used in the elementary and middle school.
- Implement career and vocational education programs. This goal involves not only expansion of vocational educational opportunities, but an infusion of career education into the general curriculum.
- Conduct long-range planning. The administration will study enrollment projections and the use of school buildings and look at curriculum issues, grouping of students for instruction and feasibility of conducting advanced courses.

Pair Injured In LS Mishap

An 18-year-old Fenton youth and a 21-year-old Fraser man were hurt after their car struck two trees in Lakeshore road early Sunday morning, July 30, according to the Shores Public Safety Department.

The youth, Jan Olsen, was the driver of the car which, police said, left the roadway in the area of 555 Lakeshore, side-swiped a tree on the center island, continued forward and hit a second tree head on. The vehicle bounced off the tree and came to rest facing southwest on northbound Lakeshore.

Olsen, who suffered a leg injury according to a report from Bon Secours Hospital, was reported in good condition last week, while the passenger, Jeffrey Akers, who was apparently thrown from the vehicle, was treated for bruises and lacerations at Bon Secours and released.

Upon the arrival of officers, Olsen was found behind the wheel and the men placed a cervical collar and leg splint on him and removed him with the use of a short backboard.

No incidents were issued in the violation, police added.

Police Remove Neglected Kids

An eight-year-old girl and 10-year-old boy were placed in the D.J. Healy shelter for children last week after Youth Service Division detectives removed them from their Beaconsfield avenue home because of apparent neglect.

Police took statements from four witnesses in the area who said the children had been wandering the streets, asking neighbors for food and had appeared to be dirty and totally unsupervised for some time.

YSD Det. John Albrecht said he was called to the home by Park police and found "clothing, food and garbage strewn all over, a terrific smell... and the children's mother totally intoxicated," on Thursday, August 10.

Police immediately removed the children and arranged for their temporary shelter in the Healy Home in West Vernier, Detroit.

The children will be physically examined and tested and will receive guidance from a social worker while at the home, Det. Albrecht said.

Next week, Wayne County Juvenile Court officials will review the evidence and determine if charges will be filed against the mother and if the children can be permanently removed from her custody.

He said this marks the second time in as many months that the children have been temporarily removed from their mother.

"The last straw for the neighbors this time was when the little girl asked another child on the block to help drag the mother into the house after she passed out," the detective said. "It's a very sad story."

Police said the children said they hadn't bathed since the "big storm" which police figure was July 26. "They smelled awful," police said.

Although Det. Albrecht said cases of child neglect are unusual in The Pointe, "they're becoming more evident lately."

He and Park Police Chief Henry Counce agreed that neighbors or acquaintances who witness neglect or abuse are often reluctant to notify police.

"There are many, many social service agencies that can help children in this sort of situation, but we have to have that one phone call to alert us," Chief Counce said.

Det. Albrecht said it usually takes several complaints against a parent before children are permanently removed from custody.

"You wonder just what will become of these children by the time they're 15 or 16-years-old if they stay in that house," the detective mused.

Tannahill Exhibit Coming To War Memorial Sept. 7

Choice items from the late Robert Hudson Tannahill's "Collector's Treasure" will be shown in a one-time only display at Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, from Thursday, September 7 through Sunday, September 17.

The Center has organized the exhibit as a tribute to Mr. Tannahill on the first anniversary of the opening of its new Art Wing, which has been specially climated for the showing.

Mr. Tannahill, who died in 1969, served on the Board of Directors when the War Memorial Center was founded, and was instrumental in developing the many programs and offerings at the educational center.

Moneys left in a bequest to the War Memorial covered about one-half of the building costs for the new wing. The remaining funds were solicited by a committee headed by Frederick C. Ford Jr., with contributions from the Grosse Pointe Artists Ass'n.

A catalogue of the Tannahill Memorial Exhibition was prepared by William Bostick, former administrator of the Detroit Institute of Arts, who also has prepared in calligraphy a scroll honoring Mr. Tannahill and other major donors to the new Art Wing.

The exhibit includes works selected by Mr. Tannahill from many areas and art forms. Famous paintings from the great impressionists such as Degas to the great moderns such as Picasso are represented, as well as American and Michigan painters' works.

Watercolors and miniature sketches, one by Diego Rivera of Mr. Tannahill, are included. There are African wood carvings, examples of pre-Columbian art in stone and an original cast of the great living sculptor, Henry Moore, as well as silver and early American furniture.

Exhibit hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and 12 noon to 5 p.m. Sundays. Admission is $2 or $1 for students.

Study Intersection

"To alleviate the jog on Vernier through Mack, to increase the margin area between the roadway and the sidewalk across the school and to provide better service for the U-turn movement east of Mack," were objectives of the proposed improvement plan, stated Mr. Sutherland.

For his part, Benjamin Zenn, director of support services for the school system, reiterated the system's concern over traffic safety on the Vernier side of the Parcels School site in a letter to Woods Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara.

Urgent Problem

"For several years, the pedestrian walk from the corner of Vernier to Sunning-dale drive has caused both the building administrator and our office to wonder about the safety protection for youngsters as they walk toward Mack from the Sunningdale side of Parcels," said Mr. Zenn.

The sidewalk and street almost abut one another and except for the curb and chain and posts, there is no safety room should a car lose control coming across the intersection at Mack and Vernier, he stated.

Citing maintenance problems regarding the chains and posts, Mr. Zenn continued by saying, "We feel that at a minimum, the pedestrian sidewalk should be moved back several feet from the street. Beyond that, and perhaps more importantly, a redesign of the corner should provide for improved pedestrian and vehicular safety for those proceeding along Vernier."

Saying that telephone calls from parents regarding the potential hazards on the corner have been received at his office and at Parcels, Mr. Zenn added the system was anxious to resolve "a most urgent pedestrian safety problem" and was willing to meet with other officials toward achieving this objective.

Forward Thrust

For his part, Public Safety Director John Dankel said he felt the recommendations would help improve traffic flow in the immediate area. While the traffic pattern wasn't altered to any degree, movement itself would be eased.

He indicated the next step would be a meeting between Woods officials and school system representatives to explore what can be done toward increasing pedestrian safety if the county's recommendations are implemented.

Meanwhile, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos noted that some citizens consider the Mack-Vernier intersection a dangerous location, while adding he was pleased that some forward thrust toward alleviating the problems has been generated with the study.

Shenkus Gets Hunt Club Post

Dr. Rick Shenkus of Bal-four road has been elected to the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, said Frank J. Huster, president.

Dr. Shenkus, who is on the mathematics faculty of Highland Park Junior College, will serve out the unexpired term of John R. Cobau of Oxford road, who has resigned for personal reasons, Mr. Huster added.

KIEREN TRAVELS

Paul M. Kieren of The Woods recently attended a Fellowship of Christian Athletes conference at Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant. The five-day program was one of 31 conferences scheduled this summer for high school, college and professional athletes. Paul is a 1975 graduate of North High School.

Groups Blast Law

(Continued from Page 1) approved again at its second reading, before it would become law, adding that any substantial changes in its content would necessitate going through the entire procedure again, beginning with a first reading.

The ordinance is aimed primarily at door-to-door fund raising, although several representatives pointed out the wording is broad enough to cover other forms of fund raising, such as phone or mail appeals.

William Kohr of the Northeast Guidance Center said that while his group's fund raising efforts do not use door-to-door methods, their appeals by mail and placards would "be put in jeopardy" by the ordinance.

Could Curb Functions

"The ordinance is potentially so broad it would harm a lot of functions that are beneficial to our community," he said.

Robert Frederick of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club said that his group delivers requests for contributions to residents once a year. He pointed out that some things the group does for the community, such as the bus the club donated to the city, were funded by contributions from residents.

John Easton, president of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club, said his group hasn't gone door-to-door for 12 years. Presently they use street methods of fund raising, such as the sale of Good-fellow Papers.

"You're going after your whole population with this ordinance," he said. "If you try to cut this out, you're going backwards."

Several alternatives to the proposed ordinance were offered by the organizations.

Could Use Signs

One suggested solution was for residents who wish not to be bothered by solicitors to put up a "no soliciting" sign on their houses. Another suggestion was for the ordinance to be limited to door-to-door appeals.

Mr. Sabol and Mr. Grady both said they had received a number of calls from citizens complaining about being bothered by solicitors all the time.

Several of the organization representatives thought it was unfair to so forcefully restrict their efforts on the basis of a few complaints.

"We're responding to a request," said Mr. Sabol. "We have to respond to individual requests."

Mr. Grady agreed, adding that "we think a single voice represents many."

St. James Sets Folk Service

Saint James Lutheran Church of Grosse Pointe, at McMillan road near Kercheval avenue, will conduct its annual Summer Folk Service with Holy Communion tonight, Thursday, August 17, 8 p.m. The service will feature special music by the Guitars Choir under the direction of Debby Reese.

Pastor George Kurz will conduct the services, assisted by Mark Hassig, Lori Stevenson and Al Schweitzer, who will serve as lecturers. Ron Wortman will be Communion Assistant. The message will be offered by Eloise Reed, associated with Winning Women, who will discuss what it means to "turn your eyes upon Jesus."

Mrs. Reed is a Senior High School Sunday School teacher and leads two women's Bible studies, in addition to being a speaker for Winning Women at churches in the Detroit area.

The Folk Service has been well attended over the past years by persons of all ages. The congregation invites friends in the community to participate.

Principals

Mr. Warras, who'll take over at Maire School for Mr. Bassett, has been with Pointe schools since 1969. He taught at Poupard Elementary School before he was appointed first assistant at Maire last year.

Is Austin Graduate

A graduate of Austin Catholic Prep School, Mr. Warras attended University of Detroit and received a MA degree in Philosophy of Education from Wayne State University. He's currently working on a PhD at Wayne in the area of Evaluation and Research.

Mr. Warras has served as principal of summer school programs at Monteith and Brownell schools and has been active in curriculum development in the area of reading skill development.

New Ferry School principal, Mrs. Burchett, has been with the school system since 1967 teaching first through fourth grades at Mason. She will replace John Rohrer, who retired this spring.

Mrs. Burchett directed the Student Centered Language Art Program at Mason and has served as a member of the schools' Professional Study Committee for four years.

Is Morehead Graduate

She holds a BA degree from Morehead State College in Kentucky and a MA degree from Wayne State University in Elementary Education. She has concentrated her post graduate work in the areas of curriculum development and educational administration.

Mrs. Burchett began her teaching career in 1952 in Kentucky, joined Lamphere schools in 1957 and became a reading consultant for the district in 1964. She serves as a part-time instructor at Oakland University.

The School Board announced July 17 that Mr. Mogk would replace Dr. James Hoeh as principal at South High School. Dr. Hoeh has moved to central offices as assistant superintendent for administration.

Mr. Mogk is a 24-year veteran of The Pointe school system.

Farms to Talk About Lakeview

The perennial problem on Lakeview avenue between Carver and Mary street will once again be discussed by the Farms Council at its Monday, September 4, meeting, after three council members asked that it be placed on the agenda.

The problem involves what should be done with the ill-kept section of roadway. Many area residents have complained over the years that the street is a nuisance, citing illegally parked cars, youths loitering and drinking in the area, and drug use as some of the problems there.

The fate of the street, the only section of unpaved road remaining in The Farms, was most recently discussed by council members and about 25 residents at the council's July 10 meeting.

No action was taken by the council at the time, although several residents informally agreed to get together and work out differences about what should be done.

Residents were divided in their suggested solutions, with some wanting the street to be closed and the land divided between the abutting property owners and others wishing to see the avenue paved, lighted and maintained.

At present, the street is barely passable because of the huge holes in the roadbed. Police Chief Robert K. Ferber said that while the street is patrolled by officers, they do not use it regularly because of its poor condition.

Council members Jack Cudlip, W. James Mast and Nancy Waugaman all said the problem was one which should be dealt with by the council. They requested it be placed on the agenda.

Mayor Jan. s Dingeman, however, has indicated he would like to see a high degree of consensus of opinion on the matter before taking any action.

To Show Latest In Furnishings

Designer's Preview, a showing of the latest interior furnishings from around the world, will be held September 15 and 16 at Design Center in Troy, for all members of the decorative arts trade. Design Center, the regional Midwest showcase for fabrics, wall coverings, floor coverings, furniture, and accessories, will display many items for the first time prior to their being shown at other such markets around the country.

A seminar sponsored by the American Society of Interior Designers, National Home Fashions League and the D. C. Ass'n., will be held in conjunction with the Preview.

For the first time, this semi-annual event will also include a Designer's Preview Dinner Dance on Friday, September 15.

Woods and Farms Win Safety Honors from AAA

Grosse Pointe Woods and Farms have again been cited as two of the safest cities for pedestrians in the American Automobile Association's 39th annual Pedestrian Safety Inventory.

The Woods earned AAA's top citation, the Grand Award, for the fifth time and also received an Award for Excellence for the 12th consecutive year in competition with more than 2,300 communities of under 50,000 population.

Automobile Club of Michigan Safety and Traffic Engineering Manager Arthur C. Gibson said the awards recognized The Woods' 20 consecutive years without a pedestrian fatality as well as its outstanding accident prevention program and record.

Only three Grand Award winners are selected from across the United States each year, Gibson pointed out, one from each of three population groupings: over 500,000 population, 50,000 to 500,000 population and under 50,000 population.

Each Grand Award winner already must have been selected for an Award for Excellence in its population group.

The Farms received AAA's Award of Merit, that city's third top pedestrian safety award in the last four years, for achievement in pedestrian safety record and pedestrian program activities. In addition to The Woods and Farms, seven other Michigan communities received top pedestrian safety awards, Mr. Gibson said.

The city of Middleville won an Award for Excellence. Livonia received a third-place Award of Merit and Southfield, Taylor, Harbor Springs, Sebewaing and Coopersville received Special Citations for Pedestrian Casualty Records.

Awards will be presented to Michigan's nine top-rated cities in ceremonies next month, Gibson said.

In all, 50 Michigan communities received awards or citations in this year's AAA competition in which a record 2,656 U.S. cities and 29 states participated, he said.

Heart Research Grants Given

Sixty-six Michigan research scientists have been selected to receive research grants-in-aid and research fellowships totaling $858,265 from the Michigan Heart Association, Dr. Richard Antell, MHA president announced recently.

The projects will be carried out at the University of Michigan, Wayne State University, Michigan State University, Oakland University, Henry Ford Hospital, Sinai Hospital of Detroit and Wayne County General Hospital.

The 66 projects were chosen by the Michigan Heart research committee after a lengthy review of more than 100 applications received.

As the only voluntary health agency in Michigan dedicated solely to reduction of premature death and disability from heart and blood vessel diseases, Michigan Heart each year funds more than 60 projects in cardiovascular disease research. Included in the projects which will be conducted from July 1, 1978 to June 30, 1979, are six fellowships, which are awarded to encourage young researchers to pursue CVD research as their life's work, and two grants awarded by the American Heart Association, Michigan Heart's parent organization, funded in part by Michigan Heart.

In announcing the awards, Dr. Antell said, "We at Michigan Heart are proud of the achievements of Michigan Heart-supported researchers, whose work during the last 29 years has made possible many life-saving discoveries in the field of cardiovascular disease."

The awarding of these grants brings to more than $10 million the total the Michigan Heart Association has given to cardiovascular disease research in Michigan since 1949, and more than $4 million to support national grants awarded by the American Heart Association.

The Michigan Heart Association is a United Way agency.

Classes Set For Adults

Dominican Adult Education Center will hold 10-week classes on Wednesdays, beginning September 20, at Dominican High School, 9740 McKinney road, Detroit.

Detailed brochures will be mailed to all area residents in mid-August, the school says.

Any inquiries should be made to the director of the Dominican Adult Ed Center, Mrs. Jane Roose, at the school, 882-8500, after Monday, August 21.

Girl Accosted Walking Home

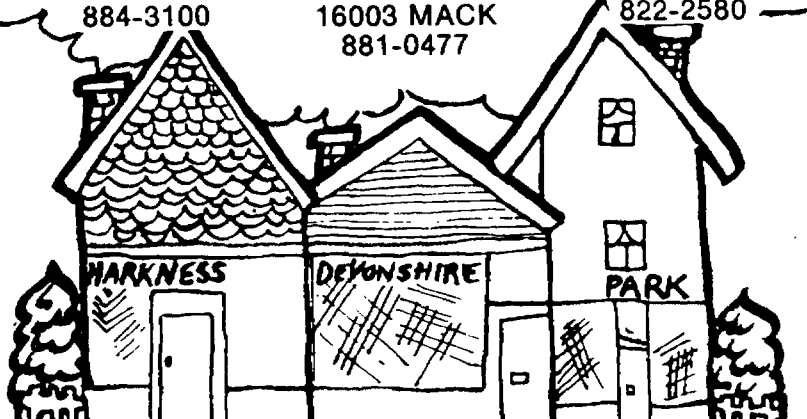

A 14-year-old City girl was accosted by a young man on Sunday, August 13, at about 8:30 p.m. according to City police reports.

The girl said she was walking at the intersection of Charles and Washington road on Sunday when a man grabbed her arm and asked if she wanted a lift.

She told police she pulled away from the man and ran home. She described him as white, about 25 years old, 5'11", and 170 pounds. He was wearing blue jeans and a checkered shirt, and driving a 1978 Pontiac Trans Am.

Farms to Buy New Radar Unit

The Farms Council unanimously approved the purchase by the police department of a new radar unit for its scout cars at its Monday, August 7, meeting.

The unit, which will cost $2,985, was described by Chief Robert K. Ferber as "the most sophisticated unit available." He said the unit has a maximum range of seven miles, and further, it would be able to foil the growing number of radar detection devices now in use by speeders.

The chief explained the unit contained a "programmable micro-processor" which would detect a radar detection unit before it was close enough to the radar unit to detect it. Once the detection unit was sensed by the police unit, the micro-processor would shut the unit down until the vehicle with the detection unit was nearby, when it would be too late for the driver to slow down.

The Farms already has two radar units. In explaining why the department needs another unit, Chief Ferber said he sees "a lot of usage down the road. The biggest complaint here is speeding cars."

The chief said it is very difficult to nab speeders with conventional clocking procedures, since most streets in The Farms are short ones, and do not allow patrolmen to get up behind the speeding violator for clocking purposes.

Pair Attend Athletic Clinic

Kathy Dietz and Margaret Rohr of South High School attended Grand Valley State College's student athletic trainers clinic last week.

The clinic deals with the basics in athletic training as well as the prevention and treatment of injuries common in high school athletics.

The clinic is designed to give students interested in athletic training a more knowledgeable background of the field. As a result, they become a valuable asset to their school and community.

Fall Sports Begin at NHS

Grosse Pointe North's football, cross country and girls tennis teams began their fall practices this past Monday, August 14. The girls basketball and swimming teams will begin their workouts this Monday, August 21.

All ninth through twelfth grade students interested in joining any of these teams should contact North High School between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. for details. North's new phone number is 343-2187.

Obituaries

MISS LILLIAN C. HOGUE Services for Miss Hogue, 78, of The Park, were held on Saturday, August 12, at the Verheyden Funeral Home.

She died on Wednesday, August 9, at Bon Secours Hospital.

A native Detroit, Miss Hogue had been in the life insurance business since 1926. She was a member of the Detroit, the Michigan and the National Ass'n. of Life Underwriters, a life member of the Women Leaders Round Table of the National Ass'n. of Life Underwriters and past president, (and holder of all previous offices), of the Detroit Life Insurance and Trust Council.

The Central Business District Ass'n. selected her in 1961 as one of Detroit's top 10 businesswomen. She was president of the board of trustees of Elliott General Hospital.

Miss Hogue was a past president of the Detroit Business Women's Club, chairman of the Detroit Inter-Club Council of Business and Professional Women's Clubs and chairman of the Cancer Fund Evaluation Committee of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

She was also involved in the International Institute, Women's City Club of Detroit, Michigan League for Crippled Children Inc. and Inter-group Council for Women as Public Policy Makers.

Miss Hogue is survived by one brother.

Interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Many Visitors Enjoy Museum

Some 56,000 Detroiters and tourists visited the Detroit Institute of Arts during July to enjoy the visual and performing arts.

Only the month of July, 1970, when Meadowbrook Theater had downtown performances in the auditorium, registered a greater total attendance for both galleries and performing arts.

That July's total of 77,000 was part of 1970's 1,400,000 visitors, highest year in art institute history.

Museum director Frederick J. Cummings said that the strong attendance showing resulted from the handsomely-installed Chinese exhibition, (paintings from the Sackler collection), and popular offerings in the performing arts.

He also said the record crowds might have been influenced by "You Gotta Have Art" television spots and a double-header promotion which urges visitors to "park once, see them both;" the art institute is directly across the street from the new Science Center.

The July, 1978, average of 14,000 weekly compares with 6,000 in 1977, 9,000 in 1976 and 3,500 in 1975.

Dr. Cummings believes the current attendance momentum may bring the art institute a 1,000,000 attendance year for the first time since the early 1970s.

The popular performing events include Brunch with Bach, the chamber concerts in Kresge Court on Sunday mornings; Thursday evening Jazz at the Art Institute, mid-day puppet shows and daily 2 o'clock free movie comedy classics.

UF AGENCIES

The 137 agencies supported by the United Foundation Torch Drive provide health, social group and recreational services to 112 cities, townships and villages in the Detroit tri-county area.

MRS. HILDA C. BRIGHT Services for Mrs. Bright, 75, of South Oxford road were held on Wednesday, August 16, at the Verheyden Funeral Home.

She died on Monday, August 14, at the Roseville Nursing Home, Roseville.

Born in New Jersey, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles J. Holt Jr. and one grandchild.

Cremation was at Woodlawn Cemetery.

WOODROW L. LAMB Services for Mr. Lamb, 64, of Cook road, were held on Saturday, August 5, at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. Arrangements were handled by the A. H. Peters Funeral Home.

He died on Wednesday, August 2, at Bon Secours Hospital.

A retired principal, he was with the Detroit Board of Education.

He is survived by his wife, Eileen; three daughters, Mrs. Clare Close, Kathleen and Monica; two sons, Joseph and David; and four brothers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Little Sisters of the Poor in Southfield.

Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Red Cross Eyes 'Silent Killer'

A new tactic in the battle against the "silent killer" will be introduced early this fall when Red Cross launches a high blood pressure detection, referral and follow-up program at its blood donor sites throughout southeastern Michigan, according to a news release.

Each time a person visits a Red Cross donor site to give blood, a blood pressure reading is taken as part of the routine pre-screening process for donors. Individuals with readings of 200/100 or higher will be concentrated on in the program.

"We are hopeful that this will give medical personnel access to many people who may not otherwise be reached by other agencies conducting hypertension screening," explained Mrs. Natalie Prince, RN, chairperson, Nursing and Health Services Committee, Red Cross Southeastern Michigan Chapter.

"The follow-up is planned for both people who are currently receiving treatment and those who are not," she added.

Last year, over 255,000 potential blood donors registered at Red Cross blood collection sites in southeastern Michigan.

"About 10 percent of those people were deferred from giving blood for a variety of reasons, one of which is high blood pressure," she said.

She continued by adding that the follow-up program has been based on the premise that there is a greater probability that a hypertensive patient will seek and continue treatment when someone other than a family member shows concern about his/her well-being.

The program is scheduled to go into operation Friday, September 1.

Red Cross Nursing and Health Service regularly offers a free course throughout the community in which the basic skills of measuring blood pressure are taught to laypersons.

Past performances count, but not like today and tomorrow.

There are too many inflation remedies and too few cures.

Woods-Shores Take Title With Win Over Petoskey

By Bob Waldeck
Tim Sheridan hit a two-run seventh inning home run to spark the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Nationals to the State Little League championship over Petoskey, 3-1.

Pitcher John Menzo turned in another superb performance by allowing only three hits while striking out 18 in the game played at Harper Woods, Saturday, August 12.

Petoskey scored their only run in the first inning on two walks, a hit batsman and a passed ball.

The Woods came back in the second inning when John Matouk came home on a fielder's choice by Tim Sheridan.

No further runs were scored by either team and the game went into extra innings. With one out in the seventh, Mike Walkowiak singled, Tim Vrieland forced Walkowiak at second and Sheridan delivered his homer deep over the left-centerfield fence.

The Woods reached the final game by defeating Grand Rapids, 7-1, Friday afternoon. Pitcher Mike Hall gave up but three hits and struck out ten.

The Woods led 2-1 until the sixth when they put Grand Rapids away with a five-run rally. Mike Lee led off with a single followed by Mike Hall's walk, singles by John Menzo, Dave Waldeck and Tim Vrieland. A wild pitch, three stolen bases and walks to Tim Sheridan and Tom Spezia gave The Woods the game.

The Woods now advance to the central states tournament Thursday, August 17, at Taylor, Mich.

Players representing The Woods are Mark Bilkovic,

The club is managed by Bob Rini and assisted by coaches Bud Engel and Bill Lindeman.

Woods Ruth All Stars Capture Ohio Regionals

By Dave Marstiller
The Woods Babe Ruth All Stars, who won the Michigan State Championship at Kerby Field two weeks ago added the Ohio Valley Regional Crown last week. The Regional Tournament was played in Owensboro, Ky. and featured state champs from Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kentucky and West Virginia along with the Woods.

The first game was against Zanesville, Ohio and the Woods took their measure by an 8-0 score behind the four-hit pitching of Bill Babcock who struck out 15. Pete Mogk with two singles and a triple and Matt Costello with a double and two RBI's were the hitting stars.

Karl Kurtz was the winning pitcher as the Woods downed the Hopkinsville, Ky. entry, 12-4. Eric Schubert scored two runs and drove in one, as did John Clem, while Craig Stafford also drove in a key run.

The third game was a loss for the Woods as they were dropped by Park Forest, Ill., 6-5, in 11 innings. Bruce Stewart took the loss even though he pitched seven innings of one-hit relief and contributed two hits and two RBI's in his own behalf. Eric Schubert also had two hits.

With their backs against the wall the Woods sent Evansville, Ind. home by their second defeat, 2-1. Dave Monark was the winning pitcher. Squeeze bunts by John Clem and Matt Costello provided the winning runs for the Woods.

Thursday evening the Woods once again faced Park Forest, Ill. needing to win two games to win the tournament. Bill Babcock got the call in the first game and responded with a 4-0 classic, allowing one hit and one walk and striking out 16. Mike "Zeke" Seagram led the attack with two hits and two RBI's.

Park Forest took a four-run lead in the finale but the batters from Woods didn't give up. The fourth inning saw them come to life as Mike Seagram started it with a double to left, Eric Schubert walked and Dave Monark singled to load the bases.

Bill Babcock hit a sacrifice fly to score Seagram, Don Luberto's pinch-hit single drove in Schubert, Craig Stafford walked to reload the bases and Bob Schaefer followed with a double, scoring Monark and Scott Young to tie the score. John Clem singled to put The Woods ahead.

In the fifth inning the Park Forest catcher, Mayle, homered to tie the score at 5-5. The two teams remained tied until the eighth as a result of another super relief job by Bruce Stewart. Bob Schaefer was awarded first base as a result of catcher interference, Schubert sacrificed him to second and John Clem's single sent him racing home with the winning run to win the Championship.

The team, by winning the tournament, earned the right to advance to the World Series in Newark, Ohio where their first game will be at 6 p.m. against New Orleans, La. on Saturday, August 19.

This is the farthest any Pointe team has ever gone in tournament play and the team gives a great part of the credit to our more than 60 fans who journeyed the 500 miles to Owensboro to cheer them on. We look forward to their continued support in Newark, Ohio.

IF YOU HAD THE OPPORTUNITY to live anywhere in Grosse Pointe, wouldn't you choose to live right on the lake? Doesn't the idea sound great of having your swimming pool just a few steps from your lakefront terrace, between the breakwall and the house. The architect took advantage of the view south to the Canadian shore by locating all the major rooms facing the lake. A total of six fireplaces grace the major social rooms on the main floor and three of the four family bedrooms. The large, family-sized kitchen was designed with the idea that the formal dining room need seldom be used. A large eating area and fireplace are features of this kitchen. Take a look and we're sure you'll be taken away.

Wild, Tame Animals Lure Summer Visitors

Barnyards featuring farm animals and deer that can be petted and fed, fierce timber wolves and bobcats that can be viewed up close and giant dinosaur reproductions are just part of the lure of Michigan's animal attractions, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

The Dinosaur Gardens and Prehistoric Zoo near Alpena contains no living creatures. It is filled with life-size reproductions of prehistoric dinosaurs and birds which inhabited the earth during that period. There are more than two dozen huge, lifelike creatures displayed in a heavily forested tract.

The exhibits took 38 years to construct and assemble. The huge brontosaurus, 80 feet long and nearly as high, took two and a half years to complete. The gardens are open daily from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Detroit Zoological Park in Royal Oak is well-known for its bar-free atmosphere, and it features more than 500 species of mammals ranging from great apes to penguins. A new aviary, the size of a football field, features a free-flight area, with more than 100 species of birds.

The Detroit Zoo has the largest collection of polar bears in captivity and one of the largest and most attractive penguinariums anywhere.

Detroit's Children Zoo on Belle Isle draws thousands of youngsters each summer to view, feed and pet a variety of small farm animals.

The Stage Coach Stop, a theme park on US-12 in the Irish Hills, includes a barnyard with horses, donkeys, goats and pigs. A train ride is available and regularly scheduled, while old-time western shootouts are featured on Main Street.

The Kensington Children's Farm, adjacent to Kensington Metropark near Milford, covers 100 acres bordering the Huron River. The barnyard has live animals to pet and feed, plus pony rides and hayrides.

The Kalamazoo Nature Center, 7000 North Westnedge avenue, features a variety of farm animals and is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. There are nature trails, wooded areas and other wildlife.

The Kellogg Bird Sanctuary near Augusta has swans, ducks, geese, turkeys and peacocks that can be observed up close as they wander freely. Environmental displays may be seen at the multi-purpose reception center, where guided tours can be arranged.

Lansing's Potter Park Zoo, 1301 South Pennsylvania avenue, displays some 150 varieties of mammals and more than 200 bird species. The zoo has monkey and bird houses. It is open daily from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Mott Children's Farm, adjacent to Crossroads Village and the Huckleberry Railroad near Flint, has domestic animals in farmyard settings to watch and pet. Hours are from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

John Ball Park Zoo, Fullerton and Valley streets in Grand Rapids, includes 500 specimens of mammals, reptiles and birds, plus a large fresh-water aquarium. Adventure Land is a newly opened animal petting area. The zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Deer Park Funland, US-31 at Russell road north of Muskegon, combines animals to see and pet with amusement and train rides and a picnic area. Animals on display include monkeys, sheep and deer.

Deer Acres, two miles south of Pinconning on M-13, features a wide variety of domestic and exotic animals displayed in storybook fashion. The entrance resembles a castle.

Saginaw Children's Zoo, part of the city's Rust Park complex, has more than 250 animals. In addition to farm animals, there are skunks, ferrets, raccoons and rabbits, plus an aquarium and reptile exhibit. Hours are from 12 noon to 6 p.m. weekdays, and from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and all holidays. The zoo is located at Rust and Washington streets.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN

SUMMARY OF THE MINUTES AUGUST 7, 1978

The Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.
Present on Roll Call: Mayor James H. Dingeman,
Councilmen Harry R. Fruehauf, Jr., Jack M.
Cudlip, Nancy J. Waugaman, Joseph L.
Fromm and W. James Mast.

Those Absent Were: Councilman Lloyd A. Semple.
Also Present: Mr. Charles R. Moon, representing the City Attorney.

Mayor James H. Dingeman presided at the meeting.

Councilman Semple was excused from attending the meeting.

The Minutes of the Regular Meeting which was held on July 10, 1978, were accepted as submitted.

The Council granted the appeal of Mrs. A. Le-Clerc Howard, thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of a six-foot stockade fence on her property located at 360 Mary Street.

The Council granted the appeal of Mr. Thomas
H. Brown from the determination of the Inspector regarding the portion of the inspection of his property located at 118 Merriweather Road, pursuant to the provisions of the City's Property Maintenance Code pertaining to the paved driveway, thereby waiving the requirement that such driveway be replaced.

The Council adopted a resolution authorizing the Fire Department Chief to execute, on behalf of the City, a proposed Selective, Mutual Emergency Fire
Aid Pact with the City of Detroit.

The Council approved the purchase of one Kustom Signal KR-11 Moving Radar unit at a total cost of $2,985.00, after first determining that because of the unique features of the foregoing unit, it would best serve the City's needs, and therefore the solicitation of competitive bids was waived.

The Council approved the low bid of Flame Furnace in the total amount of $1,368.00, for the purchase and installation of a new furnace in the mechanics room at the Department of Public Works garage; such bid also included removal of the existing furnace.

The Council approved the low bid of Anderson's Vehicle Sales, Incorporated, in the total amount of $15,300.00 for the purchase of three Cushman refuse vehicles.

The Council approved the low bid which met the City's specifications, that of Garwood-Detroit, Incorporated, in the total amount of $2,976.85 for the purchase of one dump body and hoist for use in the Department of Public Works.

The Council approved the purchase of various necessary traffic signal equipment from Eagle Signal c/o Carrier & Gable, Incorporated, at a total cost of $6,149.18; the Council having first waived the requirement for competitive bids for reason that the foregoing equipment is compatible with existing traffic signal equipment within the City.

The Council adopted a resolution confirming final payment to the Mancini Construction Company in the total amount of $3,358.30 for their work in connection with the Kerby Road Sewer Repair Project.

The Council adopted a resolution establishing an increased hourly wage for Election Inspectors in the amount of $2.65, thereby conforming with the minimum wage established by the State.

The Council adopted a proposed State Disaster
Contingency Fund Grant Form Resolution requesting reimbursement for some of the extraordinary expenses incurred by the City as the result of the blizzard which occurred in January, 1978.

The following Reports were received by the Council and ordered placed on file:

A. Police Department Report for the month of June, 1978.

B. Police Department Report for the month of July, 1978.

Upon the Council's concurrence, Mayor Dingeman appointed Mr. Dale R. Johnson, of Moross Road, to the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee, subject to Mr. Johnson's acceptance of such appointment.

The Council granted a modification to the appeal of Dr. John Wolfe, thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of a ten-foot section of fence around a proposed tennis court on his property located at 280 Provenal Road.

Upon proper motion, made supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:35 p.m.

James H. Dingeman Mayor

Richard G. Solak City Clerk

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor: I wish to thank all of those in District One of Wayne County who gave me their support before and during the primary election. As in all elections, voters and candidates alike learn and profit from exposure to each other. My own experience was rewarding, to say the least! Meeting so many in the community who were eager to participate in the campaign and/or share their views with me was truly gratifying. To the voter in the Farms who wrote in my name for Governor—God bless! Please retain your confidence in me. I plan to remain very much a part of the political scene. Sincerely Barbara B. Gattorn

Blackflies Are Summer Pests

There is nothing like being in the woods this time of year, but unfortunately, the blackfly, which can just about drive man and beast nuts, can spoil the fun, according to a Michigan State University press release. May is the prime time for the emergence of this small, black and grey fly, sometimes called a buffalo gnat. The black fly has a stout, humped back, broad wings and short legs. Black flies feed on the blood of wild and domestic animals, including birds. In some parts of Michigan they are vicious human pests. There is little precise information concerning their flight range but most species in Michigan can fly several miles from their breeding sites in streams and rivers. While they bite only during daylight, they have the devious ability to crawl in hair, nostrils and ears or crawl through openings in clothing to feed. "The bite is irritating and produces a wheal, (flat, burning area on the skin), which may cause severe swelling," says Richard Merritt, Michigan State University entomologist. "If an individual is particularly sensitive, the reaction may lead to medical care or hospitalization," he adds. About the best protection is using insect repellents containing diethyltoluamide, (DEET), and tight-fitting clothing. Merritt, the Michigan representative of the North East Regional Blackfly Biology and Control Project, says currently available pesticides are virtually ineffective.

her eggs can mature. Most blackfly larvae developing in rivers and streams are filter feeders meaning they possess fan-like projections around the mouth that catch drifting particles. Merritt says this filter-feeding behavior has prompted research of an insecticide that would kill blackflies in the larval stage. But the major drawback is that the current may carry poison downstream and kill other fish.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

Last week's column was devoted to the elementary and middle school summer program. This week I am writing about the high school and adult summer programs. Under the direction of Donald Messing, five weeks of classes for 232 high school and adult students were conducted at South High School. While most of those enrolling in the classes were public school students, there were also participants from every parochial and private school in the community.

The most popular offering of this year's program was the typing workshop. Two class sections were taught by Jane Leonard, using a video tape technique she and another teacher developed during the school year.

An advanced class was designed to assist students in preparation for office practice or secretarial training courses, while beginning students learned personal use of the typewriter.

A combination art workshop and photography class was conducted under the direction of Barbara Gruenwald. Individualized instruction allowed for experiences in drawing, painting, graphic art, crafts and basic fundamentals of still life photography.

Two English classes taught by Robert Reimer were a writing workshop and speed reading. The writing workshop is a graduation requirement which must be passed by all 10th grade students, and those completing it in Summer School satisfied that requirement.

Speed reading was offered for those who wished to improve their vocabulary, comprehension and rate.

Eileen Hayes taught an advanced drawing and painting class for students with a portfolio in progress. Most of the work done by the class consisted of painting and sketching outdoor subjects on field trips to Greenfield Village, the Detroit Zoo, Saint Paul's Church and cemetery, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Students also visited a Mount Clemens farming area in order to sketch barns and inlets in St. Clair Shores where they were able to do drawings and painting of boats.

The Summer School also offered opportunities for advancement. As a result of taking Mathematics A, students who mastered necessary skills and concepts were able to qualify for the school year accelerated math program.

In addition, several credit courses were available for review, including Introductory High School English taught by John Shanley and two classes of Math IB taught by Carl Justice and Harvey Richardson. Due to successfully completing these classes, nearly one dozen students accumulated enough credits to meet graduation requirements.

Although June 28 marked the conclusion of this phase of the Summer School Program, Mini-Courses in the Basic Skills will be available for all grade levels and adults at Brownell Middle School on August 22 to 24.

Those interested in enrolling in the mini-courses may call 343-2120 for additional information.

What Goes On At Your Library

By William Peters, Director

In 1923 a reference service for newspaper editors called EDITORIAL RESEARCH REPORTS was founded. Today its clients include most of the nation's principal newspapers, the major broadcasting networks and about 3,400 college, public and high school libraries. Congressional Quarterly, Inc., 1977. The editor is Hoyt Gimlin.

A series of 10 reports that have attracted wide public attention dealt with national health issues. These reports have been compiled and issued as a book, EDITORIAL RESEARCH REPORTS ON NATIONAL HEALTH ISSUES, (Congressional Quarterly, Inc., 1977). Suzanne de Lesseps wrote the first report entitled, "Controlling Health Costs." It was written in January, 1977 before President Carter addressed Congress and gave some specifics of his program to contain ever rising costs, but there is an in-depth review of the American Medical Association House of Delegates' position on health care insurance as well as Senator Edward Kennedy's and Representative James C. Corman's Health Security Act which was originally introduced in the 94th Congress.

Ms. de Lesseps presents charts and graphs to illustrate that the cost of delivering medical care leads the inflation parade. Sandra Stencel's report "Abortion Politics" written in October, 1976 deals with abortion.

Abortion entered the realm of politics back in 1959 when a provision of the Model Penal Code proposed by the American Law Institute allowed a licensed physician to legally terminate a pregnancy under certain preset conditions. The thalidomide tragedy of 1962 triggered a serious movement for abortion reform. In 1973 the U.S. Supreme Court in two separate cases, Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, declared that during a woman's first three months of pregnancy the state could not place any restrictions on her decision to procure an abortion except to require that it be performed by a physician.

One of the major surprises of the 1976 election campaign was the prominence of the abortion issue. Ms. Stencel quotes a number of sources that strongly oppose legalized abortion. To many the issue is not a political but a moral one. Sandra Stencel also authored the third report in the book, "Genetic Research." She writes about three areas of concern: Controversy Over Gene-Splicing, Rise of Concern Among Scientists and Emergence of Citizen Oversight.

Like atomic energy, recombinant DNA—a gene-splicing technique which enables scientists to combine the genetic material DNA, (deoxyribonucleic acid), of different species and create new or drastically altered forms of life—has the potential for great benefits and grave perils.

Some scientists fear that continuing DNA research could create dangerous life forms, which if they escaped from the laboratory, might unleash uncontrollable diseases or alter the course of evolution. Other scientists discount the risks and claim that the results of research could revolutionize agriculture, greatly simplify control of pollution and lead to medical cures for diseases like cancer. Human cloning may be the next step although most scientists now oppose it. A national health issue that is receiving an increasing amount of attention is described by Helen B. Shaffer in her short research paper, "Job Health and Safety."

Toxic substances are referred to as a hidden menace which may strike robust workers in their prime years. Business interests and government regulations often conflict in this area, according to the author.

Organized labor, industry, consumer interest advocates, private citizens and the government all have their own list of recommendations for reform and they often do not conform with each other. The battle between smokers and non-smokers is on and will probably get hotter. "Anti-Smoking Campaign" by Sandra Stencel makes for interesting reading as civil rights, Surgeon General's Reports, advertising industry, medical profession and the tobacco industry all play a role. Smoking appears to be a legitimate national health issue. "Obesity and Health" by William Thomas treats a problem that, like smoking is for the most part a self-induced health problem. Thomas sketches the extent and causes of obesity in America. A sizable part of the U.S. population is overweight to the extent that it shortens their lives. A part of the report deals with the problem of gaining society's understanding as there is a built-in prejudice against fat people.

Other National Health Issues covered in the book are: Changing U.S. Drug Policy, Malpractice Insurance Crunch, Strategies for Controlling Cancer and Heart Research. Extensive notes and bibliographies make this book an ideal place to start if one wishes to obtain up-to-date information about the state of our nation's health care program.

Wine Lines. Sake is the national wine of Japan. It is made of rice and is usually characterized as light. But, as with other types of wines, the taste of Sake varies from manufacturer to manufacturer. Each Sake producer in Japan has a formula, often passed down through generations of making sake, which each claims to be the best. The difference in taste comes from the difference in rice strains, water sources, and fermentation methods. The results are some Sakes on the sweet side, and others are very dry. Try different ones until you discover your favorite.

From Japanese saki to Italian chianti to French chablis, PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 has a full selection of fine wines and liquors including all your favorites. Come in and browse around; we are always happy to answer all your questions about wine and to guide you in the selection of the best wine to suit your taste and budget. Hours: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri. & Sat.

Let's Talk Real Estate by John E. Brink. You don't stop to think about buying or selling a home too often so it's natural not to think about some of the things that are so terribly important. The experience of your Realtor is often times the determining factor on whether or not a sale goes through. Some examples: Contingencies that in a way allow you to hedge on your offer yet make it possible to proceed with the offer in a calculated risk way for the seller. Some of these contingencies are that the purchaser must first sell his home or the seller accepts providing he can find another home. Other contingencies are that the husband wants his wife to see the house first, or the sale is contingent upon an independent inspector approving the roof, basement or the like. The timing of contingencies must be realistic and the accepting of them often depends upon the experience of your Realtor. Should you accept an offer contingent upon the purchaser first selling his home. There are ways it can be done safely without jeopardizing the sale of the house should another offer come along. The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0687 are familiar thoroughly with literally hundreds of contingencies along with their drawbacks. Why not call now and talk with one of Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co's associates. They're all schooled for contingencies.

Summer is going out . . . but that's not all bad, for there are those, (myself among them), who consider autumn Grosse Pointe's loveliest season.

And, after a stretch of lazy, unscheduled days, it's good to begin looking forward to things beginning to happen.

Just think: Grosse Pointe's Annual Fall Art Festival is less than a month away!

I admit to being an art festival addict. Specifically, to being a Grosse Pointe Fall Art Festival addict.

It's handy—given a good day, I can walk down to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's grounds and wander around, booth to booth, paintings to photographs to pots.

If I get hungry, I can get something to eat. There are art demonstrations to watch. There's a carillon concert from neighboring Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to listen to.

I see lots of people I know, and lots of people I don't know, and lots of artists whose work I've seen before, (and looked forward to seeing again), and lots that are new, (to me, at least), and VERY intriguing . . .

As good days go, it's one of the best of the year. Also: there's no admission charge.

St. Laurent Stars At Autumn Event

Fall Couture Collection to Be Shown at Jacobson's As Benefit for Operation LINC; Candlelight Dinner to Follow

Operation LINC — Linking Individuals with Needs in the Community—is bustling with activity these days, joining forces with Jacobson's in-the-Village to present the entire Yves St. Laurent fall couture collection.

The showing, complete with original music from the Paris showing, will be the star attraction of "The French Connection," a benefit event Saturday, September 9, at Jacobson's.

There'll be hors d'oeuvres and cocktails preceding the fashion show, an elegant, candlelight dinner following it.

Mireille (Mrs. Warren) Wilkinson, of Woodland place, is coordinating a display of French antiques from the DuMouchelle Art Galleries and Danielle, Inc., guaranteed to make those in attendance feel it's the Rue de la Paix just outside Jacobson's door, not Kercheval avenue.

Matina (Mrs. Phillip) Hall, of Heather lane, and Nancy (Mrs. David) Olson, of Bishop road, are co-chairing the event.

Clarence Washer, of Jacobson's, Grosse Pointe, is honorary chairman.

Coordinating the event for the store are Carolyn Barnhart, fashion director, and Judy Simonds.

Operation LINC, launched in 1971 as a pilot project of the Junior League of Detroit, became an independent community agency this July.

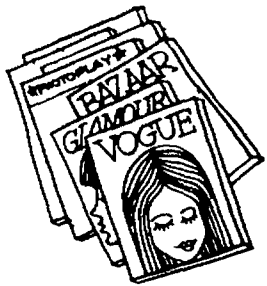

Its purpose is to find human and material resources to meet specific community needs, such as recreation programs, drug prevention and treatment and day care centers, all of which have few alternative means of funding.

LINC's resources include business and civic groups and volunteer organizations. Last year, LINC was able to serve 131 organizations in the Wayne County area.

Mrs. G. Howard Willett, of Lochmoor boulevard, president, is heading LINC in its first year of independence. Mrs. Frederick Metry, of Devonshire road, and Mrs. Thomas E. VanPelt, of Belle Meade, are serving as co-directors of operations.

CATHERINE E. MARTIN, daughter of the ROBERT A. MARTINS, of Lochmoor boulevard, and JAMES V. STUART, son of Mrs. D. V. STUART, of Doyle court. More were DAVID K. MILLER, son of the RICHARD K. MILLERS, of Washington road, SUSAN H. KIRSCH, daughter of MR. and MRS.

Cottage Hosts A Cold Lunch

"The Lunch Hour Slide Show" at Cottage Hospital, held twice monthly and previously available only to hospital staff, goes public this month with a showing of fascinating slides of a science expedition to Antarctica.

Two showings will be available Wednesday, August 23: at 11:35 and 12:05 o'clock in Cottage's lower level conference room. There is no charge.

Wayne State University teacher and doctoral candidate William R. Hammer is guest host for this program on the ice fields and mountain ranges he encountered during a search for vertebrate fossils in the McMurdo Bay area, 300 miles north of the South Pole.

Hammer and his associates in the fields of Paleontology and Geology from Wayne and Ohio State Universities were trained in life-saving techniques at Christchurch, New Zealand, before spending three months in the Antarctic: October, 1977, to January of this year.

Their expedition, which uncovered a rich lode of fossils and fragments dating back 225 million years, was funded by the National Science Foundation.

The public is invited to call Margaret Hutchings, Volunteer Services director of the hospital, at 884-8600, Extension 2455, for advance reservations.

Sandwiches and coffee will be available at nominal cost, or a bag lunch may be brought.

Lunch hour slide shows began this year as a way to bring interesting and informative diversion to the lunch hour for Cottage Hospital staff members.

Over the past months, employees and volunteers have been treated to presentations on the South Pacific Islands, the Scandinavian countries and the city of New Orleans.

Tompkins-Wong Vows Exchanged

Pair Vacation in Europe, Touring Germany, Austria, Hungary and Italy, After Early June Rites in Memorial Church

Raeanne Wong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wong, of Taipei, Taiwan, and Los Angeles, Calif., became James Tompkins' bride Saturday evening, June 3, at a double ring ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

A reception followed at the Detroit Yacht Club, where the bride's mother personally decorated the ballroom with fresh orchids, antheriums, wood roses and other tropical flowers, and with edible, fresh pineapple brought to Detroit from Hawaii by the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Chun.

Favors included hand-painted watercolor paintings done in Taiwan, rolled in agate rings.

After supper was served, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wallace Chun, from San Francisco, danced a hula for the newlyweds, to the strains of "The Hawaiian Wedding Song."

Lace accented the scoop neckline, bodice and sleeves of the bride's white silk organza gown. More lace edged her short train. Ivy, stephanotis and baby's-breath formed her bouquet.

She was attended by honor maid Carol Holmstrom and bridesmaids Marianne Hersch and Karen Schultz, in peach, green and ivory print organza frocks styled with

The newlyweds vacationed for three weeks in Europe, touring Germany, Austria, Hungary and Italy, and are now residing in St. Clair Shores.

Both are graduates of the University of Michigan Business School. Jim is a senior accountant with Coopers and Lybrand, Raeanne an assistant buyer at J. L. Hudson Company.

Out-of-town guests included Don Henderson, who came from Vermont, and Don Henderson, Jr., who came from Pennsylvania, and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins, who came from Illinois. The bride's grandparents,

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chun, and her brother, Randy Wong, came from Hawaii. Her other grandmother, Mrs. Frank Manera, and her aunt, Mrs. Emery Brewer, came from San Bernadino, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bobrow came from New York, and two of the bride's high school friends from Maryland, Jane Nishida and Dan Cushing, also traveled to Grosse Pointe for the wedding.

Motor City Business Women Set Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Motor City Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association will be held Wednesday, August 23, at Jo-Ann's Restaurant and Lounge in East Eight Mile road—NOT at the University Club, the chapter's regular meeting place, as the club is closed in August for vacations.

Cocktails at 5:30 will precede dinner at 6 o'clock. Officers for the coming year will be elected, so all members are urged to be present.

Betty Knop, program chairperson, has arranged for guest speaker William B. Marr, of Marr & Associates, Inc., Grosse Pointe Woods, to talk on Looking Towards Tomorrow.

Vocational speaker will be Lois Paramore, a financial analyst with Ford Motor Company.

Guests are welcome. Interested business women may contact Josephine De Ponia, chapter president, evenings at 881-3545 for further information.

Attic Can Yield Double Benefit for Donors

One of the most popular features of the annual Antiques Market and Sale sponsored by the Junior Group of League for the Handicapped - Goodwill Industries is the Goodwill Booth, selling antique furniture, glass, silver and other items contributed by the public to help raise funds to help the handicapped help themselves.

This year's show at Fairlane Manor will run November 11 through 13.

Funds derived from the Antiques Market and Sale are used to purchase equipment and to help support rehabilitation and employment programs for handicapped men and women.

Anyone contributing antique items to the show is given a receipt for tax purposes. This receipt may be used in the same way as a cash donation when filing a tax return.

As a result of the contribution, the individual receives a benefit—and funds are made available to League-Goodwill to help serve disabled clients.

The public may contribute antique articles by calling League-Goodwill's Public Relations Department, 964-3900. Items sought for resale in the show include wooden furniture pieces, such as chairs, tables and beds; glassware, silver, pewter and other collector items.

League-Goodwill is a comprehensive vocational rehabilitation agency providing evaluation, training, employment and placement services to handicapped men and women with physical, mental, emotional or social disabilities.

'Pearl Fishers' Will Open MOT's 1978-79 Season

Michigan Opera Theatre opens its eighth season at the Music Hall Center September 29 with one of the most exotic offerings of the French repertoire, Bizet's "Pearl Fishers."
Soprano Leigh Munro will alternate the role of Leila with Carmen Balthrop. Rico Serbo will alternate the role of Nadir with John Sandor. Jake Gardner will portray Zurga.
Also highlighting the season will be Catherine Malfitano, performing her first Violetta in "La Traviata," 14 performances of "Show Boat," and "I Pagliacci" in a double bill with a haunting American opera, "The Emperor Jones," based on the Eugene O'Neill play.
The Michigan Opera Theatre Orchestra will make its debut with Mark D. Flint, resident music director, conducting "The Pearl Fishers."
Leigh Munro, whose career started in musicals, proved an overnight sensation when she sang Lina in Sarah Caldwell's production of Verdi's "Stiffelio." With only one day's notice—and no orchestra or stage rehearsal—Miss Munro took over for the ailing Anna Moffo.

Facing an audience that expected Moffo, not Munro, was challenge enough, but by the end of her performance she had won a standing ovation.
Carmen Balthrop is winner of national acclaim for her performance in the title role in Scott Joplin's "Treemonisha" in Houston, Kennedy Center and on Broadway.
Miss Balthrop, who made her Metropolitan Opera debut as Pamina in "The Magic Flute," portrayed Micaela in MOT's "Carmen" last season.
The lush batik designs of Dennis Cigler provide inspiration for set and costume designs by Robert Joel Schwartz, who recently exe-Kern, book and lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein, II, based on the novel by Edna Ferber), opening October 27.

Dominic Missimi, who directed last season's "Carmen" and Bernstein's Mass for Music Hall, will direct.

With the Broadway premier of "Show Boat," America saw the first of a new breed of musical. Not only did the story deal with serious subjects, such as interracial marriages and marital desertion, it also spanned a 50-year period.

In this 50th anniversary year of both America's greatest musical and the Music Hall Center, (where it played in 1933), MOT presents the original "Show Boat," (music by Jerome rarely-seen theatrical four-de-force that premiered with the Metropolitan Opera in 1933.

Alternating in the role will be Pamela Myers who, following her MOT debut as Marguerite in "Faust," will appear in the world premier of "The Duchess of Malfi" in Santa Fe this summer.

Also appearing, as Germont, will be Brent Ellis who portrayed Morris Townsend in MOT's "Washington Square" and most recently starred in the title role of "Don Giovanni" for England's Glyndebourne Festival.

Tenor Barry McCauley, currently with the San Francisco Opera, will make his MOT debut as Alfredo. The production will be directed by Christopher Alden.

The fourth offering of the season is an unusual combination of Leonecavallo's "I Pagliacci" and Gruenberg's "Emperor Jones," opening February 9.

Soprano Marianna Christos returns to MOT in the role of Nedda. Since her debut as Mimi in "La Boheme," Miss Christos has performed major roles with the Boston and San Francisco operas.

John West, last season's Don Jose in "Carmen," returns to portray Canio. Charles Long, New York City Opera baritone, makes his MOT debut as Tonio.

The double bill closes with "The Emperor Jones," a

The exhibit will feature the work of 170 artists and craftsmen from the metropolitan area, outstate Michigan and other states.

There'll be prizes of original art. Light lunches will be available. Chairman of the whole shebang is, once again, Corinne Dolega, assisted by co-chairmen Lee McKinley and Elizabeth Jefferis.

A Perfect Summer Party

But before we say goodbye to Summer '78, let's look back on one perfect summer party: a luncheon at the Cameron place home of Mrs. Thomas K Fisher.

Gerry was hostess to members of the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League who had helped make the '78 Navy League Ball a success, and her honorary chairmanship of it a joy.

She greeted guests in the family room overlooking Lake St. Clair, done in white and soft, (Continued on Page 28)

France Views Young America Via Exhibit

Two hundred years ago, France signed a treaty with the fledgling United States of America which provided crucial military and monetary assistance to the new nation.

In honor of this occasion the Detroit Historical Museum is hosting a travelling exhibit, "France Views America, 1765-1815," organized by the Eleutherian Mills Historical Library, Wilmington, Del.

The exhibit depicts French opinions about America during this crucial half-century as expressed in writing, pictures and song.

Before its arrival in Detroit, the exhibit had been on display in New Orleans and St. Louis, two cities with French heritages as deep as Detroit's.

Featured are French images of the exotic New World, observations of political experimentation as carried out by Americans, desires for unlimited and lucrative trade possibilities and attitudes concerning the American character. Also included in the exhibit are modes of expression of the literate, such as books and manuscripts, as well as those of the illiterate masses: prints, textiles, songs and memorabilia.

"France Views America, 1765-1815" will be on display at the Detroit Historical Museum until Sunday, October 8. Museum hours are 9:30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 1 to 9 Wednesday and 1 to 5 Sunday.

Pingree McKay, II Weds in Montana

Bride Is Former Cheryl Ann Garber, Daughter of Mrs. William C. Nelson, of Bountiful, Utah, And James Garber, of Salt Lake City

Pingree Hazen McKay, II, of Bozeman, Mont., son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert D. McKay, of Beaconsfield avenue, claimed Cheryl Ann Garber as his bride Saturday, June 3, in Soldiers Chapel, Big Sky, Mont.

The mid-afternoon rites at which the bridegroom's uncle, The Reverend Fred G. Wilkins, of Buchanan, officiated, were followed by a reception at Karsts Guest Ranch, Galatin Canyon.

The newlyweds vacationed in southwestern Montana and are at home in Hollow Creek, Mont.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. William C. Nelson, of Bountiful, Utah, and James Garber, of Salt Lake City, wore a floor length, white voile gown styled with long, sheer sleeves.

Lacing from her waist formed a French collar, trimmed with lace, and rows of lace inserts accented her full skirt.

She carried a bouquet of wildflowers and wore wildflowers in her hair.

She was attended at the 3 o'clock ceremony by her sister, Danalee Garber, as honor maid, and bridesmaid

Mrs. Michael Deneault, both of Salt Lake City.

The camisole bodices of their print peasant dresses, trimmed in pink lace, were tied with pink ribbons. They wore matching shawls and carried baskets of wildflowers.

Lawrence E. Schmidt came from Bedford road to serve as his nephew's best man. Scott A. McKay, the bridegroom's brother, ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a sleeveless, floor length dress of blue chiffon. Daisies formed her corsage. The bridegroom's mother selected cocktail length green voile, with an accordion-pleated, trumpet style hem, and pinned white daisies to her beaded purse.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Shifton Gordon, of Salt Lake City, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Ernest C. Schmidt, of Bay City, as well as his brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Dixon, of Medford, Wis., and his uncle and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kahler, of Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. H. S. Ortiz, of Fullerton, Calif.

More were Anthony Bufa, of New York City, Sean Kelly, of Lafayette, La., and Commander and Mrs. H. S. Todd, of Pensacola, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. McKay entertained family and friends at the Rehearsal Dinner in Bozeman's Overland Hotel.

The new Mrs. McKay is attending Montana State University, Bozeman. Mr. McKay, a Grosse Pointe South High School graduate, attended Lawrence Institute of Technology and Montana State University.

The Pingree McKays, II

CHERYL ANN GARBER, daughter of Mrs. William C. Nelson, of Bountiful, Utah, and James Garber, of Salt Lake City, was married Saturday, June 3, in Soldiers Chapel, Big Sky, Mont., to Mr. McKay, son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert P. McKay, of Beaconsfield avenue.

wore a floor length, slate blue knit shirtwaist. Paternal grandmother Mrs. A.B. Jones, of Port Huron, selected a long, V-necked gown of aqua silk, with a matching lace jacket. Their corsages were pink roses.

Among family members and friends traveling from Grosse Pointe for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Diedrich and their son, Arthur, of Berkshire road, and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Hayes, of Oxford road.

Former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Hayes came from Mission Viejo, Calif., where they now reside.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. David Tyler, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and the bridegroom's sisters, Mary and Elizabeth Myers, of Wichita.

Regina Jones Wed in July

Regina Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Jones, formerly of Buckingham road, now of Port Huron, and James E. Myers, III, son of Dr. and Mrs. James E. Myers, of Wichita, Kans., exchanged marriage vows Friday, July 14, in Saint Edwards-on-the-Lake, Lakeport.

Following the candlelight mass, during which the bride's mother sang the Ave Maria, a dinner reception was held at the Elks Country Club in Port Huron.

The newlyweds vacationed in Tobermory, Canada, and are at home in Lawrence, Kans.

The bride's sheer chiffon gown was fashioned with a flared skirt and train. Beaded Alencon lace formed her scoop-necked bodice and double-tiered, capelet sleeves.

Her cathedral length veil, accented with matching lace, fell from an Alencon lace Juliet cap. She carried a cascade of rubrum lilies and baby's-breath.

Cecelia Jones, attending her sister as honor maid, wore pale pink chiffon with lace-touched, capelet sleeves. Similarly attired were honor matron Mrs. Paul R. Jones, IV, and bridesmaids Betsy Whipple, Kathy Schonk and Marcelle Drew, of Kansas City, and Ann Orrison, of Hays, Kans., University of Kansas Sigma Kappa sorority sisters of the bride.

Their Colonial bouquets of pink Sweetheart roses were accented with baby's-breath, which also formed wreathlets for their hair.

Nathan Coe came from Wichita to serve as best man, as did groomsmen Joseph and John Myers, brothers of the bridegroom, and Craig Puent. Other groomsmen were Paul R. Jones, IV, of Port Huron, the bride's brother, and Brian Jacobs, of Denver, Colo.

James Jones, youngest brother of the bride, carried the rings on a satin pillow used in family weddings for 32 years.

Mrs. Jones chose a long-sleeved, scoop-necked gown of rose silk knit for her daughter's wedding. She pinned cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected mint green Qiana, with a matching lace shawl, and a varicolored corsage of garden flowers.

Mrs. Arthur V. Diedrich, of St. Clair avenue, maternal grandmother of the bride,

How About A Cherry Pie?

Have you been hungry for a fresh cherry pie hot from the oven, or a moist short-cake piled high with mouth-watering cherries topped with fresh Michigan whipped cream?

If you are one of the luckier persons who has a cherry tree growing in your backyard, you already know that the long wait for fresh Michigan tart cherries is over. Good things are growing in Michigan and fresh tart cherries now are being harvested for market.

But the fresh tart cherry season is short, running from the first week of July through mid-August when more than 90 percent are processed into jellies and preserves, canned or made into ready-made cherry desserts.

With our state producing 75.7 percent of all red tart cherries and 23,000 tons of sweet cherries grown in the United States last year, according to Michigan Department of Agriculture figures, harvesting these crops for processing is quite an event to see.

Large machines literally shake the cherries off the trees onto large canvas frames that look like a trampoline. From the canvas, they are moved onto long conveyors which carry the cherries to huge vats filled with water.

The water washes, cools and protects the cherries from bruising, thereby maintaining quality for processing. The vats then are taken from the groves to processing plants where they are inspected by electronic sorters to detect and remove imperfect cherries.

After the fruit is washed again and graded by MDA officials, the cherries are placed in a large pitting machine that resembles many miniature egg cartons hooked together.

After visual inspection, the cherries travel to the canning machine to be fresh packed or frozen for storage until shipped to buyers in America and overseas.

Season Line-Up for MOT

(Continued from Page 17) Met production. Mr. Albert, who won national acclaim for his performance in the title role of "Porgy and Bess" in Houston and on Broadway, makes his MOT debut in the powerful role of a self-proclaimed emperor who takes over a West Indies island.

Rhoda Levine, who directed MOT's innovative production of "The Magic Flute" and most recently won acclaim for her staging of "Lulu" with the Netherlands Opera, will direct both "I Pagliacci" and "The Emperor Jones."

Sets and costumes for the double bill will be designed by Neil Jampolis.

Dr. David DiChiera, general director of Michigan Opera Theatre, commenting on the season, said: "The addition of our own opera orchestra is certainly one of the most exciting elements of next season. The artistic quality of all our productions will no doubt be greatly enhanced."

"We're also very pleased to continue to delve into the French repertoire and American opera."

Season tickets, priced from $9 to $50, are available by calling 963-3717, or writing Michigan Opera Theatre, 350 Madison avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Student and group discounts are available. Master Charge and BankAmericard Visa are accepted.

Say Vows in Pointe

In Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday, July 22, DARYL ANN JEANGUENAT, daughter of the Raymond J. Jeanguenats, of Holiday road, became the bride of RONALD C. DAWES, son of Mrs. Kay Dawes, of Livonia, and Charles Dawes, of St. Clair Shores.

Daryl Jeanguenat Married in July

Sterling Heights Is Home for Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Dawes, Who Vacation in North Following Rites

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial was the setting for the reception following the wedding of Daryl Ann Jeanguenat and Ronald C. Dawes Saturday, July 22, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Jeanguenat, of Holiday road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Kay Dawes, of Livonia, and Charles Dawes, of St. Clair Shores.

The Reverend John McCreight officiated at the 5:30 o'clock rites, for which the bride chose a gown of pure white chiffon and illusion, styled with long sleeves and a long train.

Lace trimmed her gown and veil, and she carried a cascade of ivy, baby's-breath, stephanotis, rubrum lilies and miniature, white mums.

She was attended by honor maid Darcy Heckman and bridesmaid Gayle Erjavac, in frocks of seafoam green Qiana with sheer, matching capes, carrying Colonial bouquets of carnations tinted to match their dresses, baby's-breath and daisy mums.

Best man was Dr. John Robison, Robert Jeanguenat, David Rank, Robert Crosby, and Richard Brown seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of silver-blue Qiana, with butterfly sleeves. Blue-tipped carnations and stephanotis formed her wrist corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, in long-sleeved, yellow Qiana, pinned yellow-tipped carnations and stephanotis to her purse.

The newlyweds vacationed in the north, visiting Petoskey and sailing to Mackinac Island. They are at home in Sterling Heights.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nick Liverani, of New York, and from Youngstown, O., several relatives of the bride's mother: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Polkaba, John Molent, Michael Molent, Mrs. Ann Vitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Vitt, MaryAnn Senediak and Mrs. Mary Cohen.

Festival Week Full of Variety

As Meadow Brook Music Festival nears the end of its summer season, its ninth week program features a variety of classical and popular artists plus a Young People's Concert.

Duo-pianists Anthony and Joseph Paratore will play with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this evening, Thursday, August 17. These two gifted young brothers have been called "Princes of the Piano."

The Paratotes will take youngsters on a musical adventure Friday morning, August 18, at 11 o'clock, when they perform at a Young People's Concert.

Their one-hour program, "Fingers and Fun at the Keyboard," will feature a variety of piano specialties including Saint-Saens' Carnival of Animals. Tickets are $3.50 each.

The Symphonic Series Saturday, August 19, will highlight the unique sounds of the New York Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra. Raffael Adier, founder and director of the 12-member ensemble, will conduct.

Featured artist will be harpsichordist Igor Kipnis. Tickets for Thursday's and Saturday's symphonic concerts range from $6 to $8 in the pavilion and are $3.50 on the lawn.

Vocalist Cleo Laine steps into the Meadow Brook spotlight Friday evening, August 18. Born in Middlesex, England, she is a multi-talented singer who has traveled throughout the world performing in concerts, theatrical productions, operas and on television.

She has numerous highly successful recordings to her credit and has received several awards, including three Grammy nominations for best popular female, jazz and classical vocalist.

All pavilion seats are sold out. Lawn tickets are available at $6 each. The Sunday Pops pro-

Let's Hear It for Mosquito

If you're toiling out-of-doors and you think you hear applause for your efforts, it's more than likely the neighbors slapping mosquitos.

Mosquito numbers are up, but not unusually. Mother Nature gave us a reprieve the last two years, (how quickly we forget); actually, the population has just returned to normal.

"The combination of frost during spring and lack of rain during the summer of 1977 and 1976 considerably reduced mosquito populations.

"But this spring was ideal for the development of the pest, which is the typical pattern for Michigan," explains Dr. H. D. Newson, Michigan State University medical entomologist.

If you're curious about what's putting the bite on you, it's the woodland, (Aedes), and the overwintering types, (Anopheles and Culex), none of which are

The Patrick Murphys

 Marriage vows were spoken Saturday, July 1, by CAROL ANN SWENSKI, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Swenski, of Windmill Pointe drive, and Mr. Murphy, son of Mrs. Jack Murphy, of Warren, and the late Captain Murphy, USAF.

Midsummer Rites for Carol Swenski

Lace Accents White Silk Gown And Veil in Which She Speaks Vows to Patrick Dean Murphy; Daisies Form Her Bouquet

The marriage of Carol Ann Swenski and Patrick Dean Murphy Saturday, July 1, was followed by a reception at Lochmoor Club, after which the newlyweds left for a camping vacation in northern Michigan.

They have returned to make their home in St. Clair Shores.

For the 5 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Chester Dundas presided the bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Swenski, of Windmill Pointe drive, chose a lance-accented white silk gown and veil, falling from a Juliet cap of matching lace.

Lace accented their cathedral length train. Her bouquet was fashioned of daisies and baby's-breath.

In floor length, off-the-shoulder frocks of pink and peach with blue flowers were Kathleen Jean Swenski, honor maid for her sister, and bridesmaids Cynthia Zajac and Mary Murphy.

Pink streamers and baby's-breath accented their bouquets of pink daisies, matching their gowns.

Steve Murphy was best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mrs. Jack Murphy, of Warren, and the late Captain Murphy, USAF. Ushers were James Murphy and Richard Kotter.

Susan Porter was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length dress of lavender chiffon with an overlay of rose and blue chiffon. The bridegroom's mother selected floor length rose silk.

Pink roses formed both mothers' corsages.

threats in terms of human disease transmission this time of year.

"Woodland-type mosquitos emerge in early spring from eggs laid last summer and fall, and are generally found in nonpolluted water. The Anopheles and Culex are the types that overwinter in attics, garages, woodpiles, etc., becoming active as spring warms," Newson says.

About the only place in the state mosquitos are not flying about in great numbers is in Bay and Saginaw counties, where a mosquito control district has been established.

"Mosquito breeding pools, detected through NASA satellite photos and the MSU remote sensing unit, pretty much pinpointed areas in which early pest control could be implemented. This is about the only way protection can be obtained."

Until such communitywide action is taken, the local resident has little alternative to slapping, scratching or spraying throughout the summer.

While it's pretty much a losing battle, there are some steps that can be taken to help reduce mosquito numbers around the home.

Malathion may provide temporary control if used to spray shrubbery and tall grasses.

Indoors, Dichlorvos "pest strips" of Pyrethrum, used according to directions, may be effective.

Other mosquito preventive measures to use around the home are:

Get rid of all trash items in your yard which can hold water—they are ideal breeding sites for mosquitos.

Empty the children's plastic wading pool at least weekly and store the pool indoors when not in use.

Repair leaky pipes and outside faucets and move drain hoses frequently enough to prevent water ponding.

Change bird bath water and scrub the bowl at least weekly.

Stock ornamental ponds with top feeding minnows, (goldfish offer little, if any, control), or drain the pond at least once a week during summer and fall.

Fill in tree rot holes and hollow stumps with sand or concrete.

Provide tight, insect-proof covers for all permanent water containers such as wells, cisterns, septic tanks and cesspools.

Make sure rain gutters are not clogged.

Make sure windows are well screened.

Wear repellants in areas where mosquitos are active.

Water Skiers Face Big Test

The Michigan contingent of competition water skiers will be well represented at the upcoming National Championships to be held at Tivoli Gardens, New Brighton, Mich., August 23 through 27. Several top Michigan skiers survived the rigors of the Midwest Regional Tournament last weekend in Tomahawk, Wis. with some turning in stellar performances. Noteworthy among these were Tony Krupa of Jackson, Brent Greenwood of Kalamazoo, Bob Schouten of Flat Rock and Marty Steinhauer of Chelsea. Krupa, who is a three time National Champion and twice Master Champion, easily outdistanced the field to take top honors in the trick skiing event. He also qualified in the slalom event. Greenwood earned enough points to qualify in all three events (Slalom, Tricks and Jumping) and capped his performance with a leap of 141 feet to take the Mens I Jumping Event. He placed second in the slalom event to Bob Schouten of Flat Rock in a tie breaking run-off. Greenwood is the only Michigan skier in the men's division to qualify for all three events in this year's Nationals.

Group Therapy Begins Sept. 27

A group therapy program for teens and adults begins Wednesday, September 27, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore drive, aimed at helping its participants obtain a more satisfying and mature manner dealing with particular problems and everyday pressures. The sessions, conducted by Teresa Gillis and Patricia Griffiths, will be on 12 consecutive Wednesdays, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. and 9 to 10:30 p.m.

Mrs. Gillis, a native of Italy, who with her husband Phillip have resided in The Park for 24 years and raised five children, obtained a Law degree from the University of Palermo and a Masters degree from The University of Detroit Graduate School of Psychology.

The chief psychologist with Recorder's Court, City of Detroit, she conducts forensic evaluations at the Recorder's Court Psychiatric Clinic, a certified forensic facility. Miss Griffiths, a native of Saint Clairsville, O., received her Bachelor of Arts degree from West Liberty State College, West Liberty, W.Va. Her undergraduate work included working with adolescent problems at the Ohio Valley Medical Center, Department of Psychiatry. Her graduate work at Radford College, Radford, Va., where she was a resident director, leading to a Masters degree, involved working with the students at the college.

Further training was received at Marion State Hospital, Marion, Va., and at the Veterans Hospital, Salem, Va. Registration for the group therapy session will be by interview on Wednesday, September 20, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the War Memorial. Fee for the 12-week program will be $150.

For more information, call the Center at TU 1-7511.

The Cover Story . . . at Walton-Pierce this week is coats. Come see the 100% pure mohair coats, made in England. Choose a dove gray double breasted style or one with hidden closing and a clean smooth line. This soft marvelous mohair also comes in winter white in a double breasted tie style or in an interesting look with stitched plaque and buttons, the cut semi-fitted. There are also mohair and wool blends. One coat is a wrap and tie classic in basic beautiful black. There are also luscious wineberry coats that can become the over all choice for your winter wardrobe. Pierre Cardin used this color to create a sleek single breasted coat with a high neckline and narrow self-tie. There is a wine wool boy coat with stitching detail that also comes in black. The perennial camel hair coat is found at Walton-Pierce in traditional and trendy models. There is a smashing nutmeg Ultra Suede double breasted coat with a dyed to match blue fox collar. The collar, you'll be glad to know is removable. For those of you who like plaid, don't miss the nubby wool red and green plaid coat that comes with its own muffler. On blustery winter days, you'll be happy to have Richard Barr's poplin, leather trimmed coat that is lined with silky soft pile and a handy leather purse that is attached to the lining. The coat has a detachable hood. Brass toggles close the coat. Another poplin beauty from the same designer is trimmed with natural raccoon. Just part of the fine fashion coverage you'll find at Walton-Pierce . . . right now!

If you're still living with your kitchen of ten or twenty years ago, you'll be surprised at what the folks at Mutschler Kitchens, Inc. can do for you. A variety of accessories and special purpose cabinets make Wood-Mode, Coppes, and Rutt cabinets functionally beautiful. See them today at Mutschler Kitchens, Inc., 20227 Mack Avenue, 884-3700.

Picture, if you will, some 1,500 people all dressed in tennis clothes, travelling within the various Pointes to all the tennis courts available in the area, both public and private.

That picture will come to life on the morning of Saturday, September 16, when the 11th season for the Tennis and Crumpets tournament gets underway.

"In previous seasons, it has been quite a sight to behold as the players travel to their assigned courts," notes Grosse Pointe benefit chairman Lynn (Mrs. Laurence M., Jr.) Scoville, who adds that the use of the courts has been donated by the owners and their co-operation is much appreciated.

"Up to this point," Lynn adds, "all the preparations for the tournament seem to be in order. Probably the biggest part of my job is coordinating all the committees. My workers have been very efficient, making my job much easier."

Mrs. Scoville says that her husband has been very helpful and supportive of her efforts in planning the tournament. "We both have played in the tournament for several years, so his enthusiasm is very encouraging. He is an avid tennis player and on a court every morning at 6:30 o'clock, right through the winter."

Got Idea in L. A. Tennis and Crumpets was begun 11 years ago when Mrs. David S. Summers, of Whitford road, daughter of honorary chairman Mrs. Emmet E. Tracey, of Provençal road, brought the idea of the tennis tournament as a fund raiser to this area from Los Angeles.

It had been used there to raise funds for the Tracey Clinic. Here, in Detroit, Children's Hospital has received the funds raised by Tennis and Crumpets.

"It all began here in just the Grosse Pointe area," explains Lynn, "but now involves Dearborn, Grosse Ile and communities in Oakland County."

To date, $392,000 has been raised for Children's Hospital by T&C. The funds have been used for the hospital playroom and a cardiac operating room, in the Children's Burn Unit for equipment and research and for a new Medical Cardiology Suite.

Goal Is $80,000 "This year, the goal for Tennis and Crumpets, Inc., is $80,000, designated for the Poison Control Center at Children's," continues Lynn.

"Last year the proceeds from the tournament were a little more than $90,000, with some $37,000 raised in the Grosse Pointe unit.

"The funds were used to complete a pledge to finish the Medical Cardiology Suite, with some excess used for the Poison Control Center."

With so many new sources of potential poisoning of children at hand, the Tennis and Crumpets, Inc., board of directors determined the need this year was for expansion of the Poison Control Center at the hospital.

Begun in 1963, the Center has been designated by the State of Michigan as the "core unit" for the Detroit area. Its major objectives at the time of its inception were to inform parents, children and the public of the dangers present in common household products.

Now, with the wide use of drugs these days, research efforts are continuing in treatment of children who may have accidentally ingested a drug or are overdosed.

Start Plant Research The Center also is concerned with research into plant toxicology as many plants are used in the home today. Some of these, if eaten, are highly poisonous and education of the public is essential.

"A few months ago, in the planning stage of this year's tournament," continues Mrs. Scoville, "the T&C committee toured Children's Hospital. We all were impressed seeing the hospital and its personnel in action."

"Some of the doctors related the problems in the treatment of the children who had been poisoned or who were in other stages of treatment."

"They were very inspirational, to say the least," adds Lynn, "and so the Tennis and Crumpets board of directors which works very carefully with the personnel of the hospital in determining the needs of the hospital, decided this year that the Poison Control Center would receive the funds."

Fit People to Jobs "Last October, I was designated the Grosse Pointe Benefit chairman. In January, the wheels really started rolling with committees set up and the goals specified. Lining up 30 committees and fitting people into the jobs that best suit their talents was such a challenge!

"It is indeed a public relations situation," exclaims Lynn, "but we are progressing very well and I am looking forward to a very successful tournament!"

The first day of play, September 18, all the courts will be in use. The tournament continues Sunday, September 17, and the next weekend, when the finals will be played, at the Country Club of Detroit Saturday, September 23, and the superfinals Sunday, September 24, in the Fairlane Club, Dearborn.

Sunday Is Deadline "The tournament is open to players of all abilities who would like to help a very worthy cause," explains Mrs.

Scoville. "The cut-off date for registration for the tournament is this Sunday, August 20.

"While many of the matches already have been set up throughout the community, there still are some courts available and we encourage anyone to call Mrs. Allan P. LeChard at 889-0807 to set up some court time.

"The cost," Lynn notes, "is $12.50 per person with lunch and tennis balls provided."

In the past, a dinner dance has been held following the superfinals on the second weekend of play. This year, the Grosse Pointe Unit decided to try something different.

"At the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club in Cook road, on the evening of the first day of play, Saturday, September 16," Lynn continues, "we are planning to have a casual buffet, beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

"Dress will be casual. Since enthusiasm is so great after the first day of play as everyone has played that day, it would seem that this would be a super time to have a party. We stress 'casual' as we want everyone to be relaxed after a day of playing tennis.

Party Includes Auction "At the party, along with food, music and dancing," explains Mrs. Scoville, "there will be a people/service auction when 20 to 30 tennis-oriented prizes will be auctioned. All kinds of items, as well as tennis lessons, for example, will be available.

"Advance reservations are necessary and they are limited. Everyone is welcome and one does not have to be in the tournament to go to the party."

For party reservations, call Mrs. LeChard at 889-0807 by Friday, September 8. Cost is $6.50 per person.

Lynn has been involved in committee work in Tennis and Crumpets for five years, first in publicity, then in advertising. The arrangements committee was next, where courts, linesmen, packing up baskets and many other duties were organized.

Past Experiences Help Last year she served as secretary, and with the encouragement of her husband, accepted the chairmanship for this year's tournament.

"My duties certainly keep me busy," Lynn continues, "but they have been made easier by guidelines set down by previous committees.

"I appreciate the expertise and enthusiasm of the experienced members as well as the enthusiasm and new ideas on the part of the new members. They have all blended beautifully in working toward our one goal — raising funds for Children's Hospital."

Besides all these activities, Lynn's summer hours have been occupied with the needs of her family, including her husband and three children:

Wedgwood blue: white fireplace facing a blue davenport, oil painting of blue sky and blue, white-capped waves . . .

Outside, on the Fisher "deck," the Navy League pennant flew from the yardarm.

Opposite the lakeside windows is a trophy wall filled with awards for Gerry from her Miss Navy days and the two tall awards from the Miss America Pageant in which Gerry was elected Miss Congeniality and runner-up . . . and two awards from the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League, an organization Gerry founded . . . and at least 35 silver cups or awards attesting to Tom Fisher's sailing skill.

Focal point at the luncheon was the large, sterling silver sailing award, shaped like an old Viking ship, which Gerry had filled with white daisies and blue bachelor buttons.

The trophy was a conversation piece. Questions kept Gerry busy trying to explain just why it was so special, but it took Tom Fisher to give the ladies the real background:

In 1912, S. O. Richardson commissioned Cartier's of New York City to design an original and outstanding award for the Yacht Racing Union of the Great Lakes.

The result is the Viking ship with sculptured heads at both ends, considered one of the most unusual and valuable trophies Cartier's ever created.

Tom Fisher has won the trophy twice—once jointly with his son, Thomas K. Fisher, Jr.—and has been its custodian before the 1978 race. It's a fabulous piece . . . and the perfect piece of resistance for a Navy League luncheon table.

Among Gerry's guests were Mrs. George Belleau, president of the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States, and Mrs. Maurice Castle, general chairman of this June's Navy League Ball.

More were the Mesdames James Hannan, Roger Harter, James Houlihan and John Lavrakis, past-presidents; Mrs. George Johnston and Mrs. Roy Whitlock, vice-presidents; Mrs. Fraik Nair, treasurer; Mrs. John Kett, secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Mason, corresponding secretary.

Others included Mrs. Holan Kirkman, Mrs. Fred Wood, Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox and Navy photographer John Howard, and Mrs. Navarre Bennett, a special friend of Gerry's who attended the Navy League Ball and has been asked to be a member of the Detroit Women's Council.

They lunched on chicken crepes, fresh fruit and a sensational ice cream cake — loaded with calories, but not a crumb was left: there are times when sticking to one's diet is simply stupid.

the library almost every day to get new books. He is a voracious reader.

"This pleases me so much as both my husband and I love to read. We both were graduated as English majors from college, he from Dartmouth, and I from Connecticut College, New London.

"My husband then enrolled in the Law School at the University of Michigan," Mrs. Scoville continues. "He now is an attorney in Detroit."

Both the Scovilles are natives of the Pointe, with Mr. Scoville a Grosse Pointe South High School graduate.

"I was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School, now incorporated in University Liggett School," explains Lynn. "Following college, I was employed by J. L. Hudson's in the advertising department. My work specifically involved fashion copy for the newspapers.

"Much public relations was involved in that job, and I credit that experience as a great asset in my volunteer work throughout my married life."

Later she held the position of editorial assistant at the University of Michigan's Institute of Science and Technology while her husband was enrolled at U of M's Law School.

So Tennis and Crumpets for '78 is well on its way. And all will be ready early that morning of Saturday, September 16, when the sound heard 'round Grosse Pointe will be "Commence Play!"
