Thursday, November 2

PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER took decisive steps yesterday to bolster the sagging dollar on the international market, making moves to tighten credit and to buy up dollars in the money market. His actions brought an immediate jump in the stock markets, with the Dow Jones rising a record 35.34 points. The moves included raising the discount rate of the federal reserve banks a full percentage point which will correspondingly raise loan rates, including mortgages. The President also announced that the U.S. would allow more of its gold to be put on sale, in an effort to help correct the balance of trade deficit.

LEE IACOCCA, fired Ford Motor Co. president, was named by the Chrysler Corp. board of directors as its president and chief operating officer, in the face of record third quarter losses for the number three automaker. Chairman John Riccardo told reporters that if Mr. Iacocca performed satisfactorily he would be named chief executive officer in a year, the position Mr. Riccardo now holds.

NUMEROUS UNIDENTIFIED flying objects have been reported in the night skies over Michigan and Kalamazoo County during the last week. Among those reporting them are Coast Guard men and sheriff's deputies. Stated reports claim they may be aircraft in holding patterns for landing at Chicago airports. Even a UFO expert dismissed the sightings saying they were probably satellites.

Sunday, November 5

ARAB LEADERS offered Egyptian President Anwar Sadat $50 billion to scrap his separate peace attempts with Israel, and he swiftly rebuffed them. "All the millions in the world will be by the will of Egypt," Mr. Sadat said in a speech before the Egyptian parliament. The Arab delegation, led by the Lebanese prime minister, was met by a junior Egyptian official at the Cairo airport, and they returned home afterward. The Arabs were apparently trying to wean Egypt from its growing economic dependence on the west.

AMID WIDESPREAD RIOTING in the capital city, Tehran, Iranian Prime Minister Jafar Sharif Emami submitted his resignation to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi Sunday night, authoritative sources said. It was unknown whether the Shah accepted the resignation. Tanks and armored personnel carriers rolled through Tehran where rioters, looters ransacked and set fire to the British Embassy. Mr. Sharif Emami had been appointed prime minister by the Shah in August, with the hope that his close ties to Moslem leaders could end the civil strife in the country.

Tuesday, November 7

THE SHAH OF IRAN yesterday installed the country's first military regime in 25 years, while pleading to the nation for unity in "the critical days we have ahead." Meanwhile, bands of anti-shah protesters continued their rioting in the capital city of Tehran. The new military ruler, Gen. Gholam-Reza Azhari, ordered troops and tanks to circle key areas of Tehran.

Soccer Association Says 'Thanks' to ULS

The Grosse Pointe Soccer Ass'n. said "thanks" to University Liggett School for the use of the athletic fields over the last year by presenting the school with a flowing cherry tree on Wednesday, November 1. Among those who attended the tree-planting ceremony near the McCann Rink were, (from left to right), AL BRUCE and JEAN CLAUDE ELIE, of the soccer association,

Vandals Hit GPW over Weekend

Variety of Reports Received by Police with Majority Involving Shooting of Marbles into Windows

An estimated eight to nine malicious destruction to property, (MDP), reports of damaged windows, mostly in homes, were received by Woods police Saturday and Sunday, November 4 and 5, with the majority of the incidents apparently occurring on the 4th.

Police believe some individuals in a car were involved in shooting marbles, possibly via a slingshot, through windows in homes east of Mack avenue.

On Monday, November 6, reports were still trickling in, said Det. Charles Philip Hamel, who also indicated the department does have some suspects in the vandalism.

Offers Estimate
A preliminary estimate of reported damage so far could be in the area of between $1,500 to $2,000, he said, pending further reports and more concrete cost information from citizens.

Destruction to windows in homes via marbles were reported by citizens living in Shoreham road, Lochmoor boulevard, South Boys drive, Sunningdale drive, Birch (Continued on Page 2)

Arrests of Two Youths May Clear Nine Cases

A Park man decided to do a little investigating on his own last weekend when his pickup truck was stolen, and that in August, with the hope that his close ties to Moslem leaders could end the civil strife in the country.

When Mr. MacConnachie went to pick up the truck he decided to ask neighbors in the area if they'd noticed who left the truck on their block, according to Park

Farms Council Approves New Law Governing Dog Droppings at Hearing

Solons Okay Measure, Which Becomes Effective Later This Month, by 5-2 Vote; Two Citizens Attend Session, Express Opposition

Despite the protestations of two residents at a public hearing, the Farms Council adopted an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to allow a dog to "deposit animal excretion of any type" on public or private property other than the owner's, unless it is cleaned up immediately afterward.

The action, taken at the council's Monday, November 6, meeting, came on a 5-2 vote, with Councilmen Jack Cudlip and Lloyd Semple voting against it.

The measure will take effect in 20 days and will provide a punishment of 30 days in jail and/or a $500 fine for violators.

Leads to Contempt
While the ordinance provides stiffer penalties than its counterpart recently passed in The Park, Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber said he doesn't expect very many violations will be issued.

"If an officer actually sees four or five violations a year that would be in the ballpark," he said.

Timothy and Margaret Beck of Moran road were the sole residents speaking on the issue at the meeting, with both of them opposed.

"From a practical point of view I think it is an unnecessary law," said Mr. Beck. "The Farms isn't the Bronx where all you have is concrete. I don't think there's much of a problem here except maybe on the pages of the 'Grosse Pointe News.' "It's just one more instance of the government being on my back and in my pocketbook," continued the owner of one dog. It leads to contempt for laws in general."

Mr. Beck admitted he had no children, and came from a farm environment, but said he felt dog droppings would take care of themselves by rotting away.

Like Beer Bottles
Chief Ferber, a dog owner himself, said he favored the law because it was clearer than past ordinances dealing with the subject. He said his dog never leaves his back yard, but he has to clean up his front lawn anyway.

Mr. Semple expressed strong objections to the law, thinking it was "generated by a very vocal minority." Likewise, Mr. Cudlip felt it was wrong.

"I don't want to see a law enforcement officer coming whipping around the corner saying 'get that dog, get that cat,'" he said.

But Councilman W. James Mast, in support of the ordinance, compared it to cleaning up beer bottles off his lawn, saying he would definitely prosecute the lit-

GPW Okays Probation Plan Pact

One-Year Agreement Spells Out Responsibilities of Agency, City

A proposed agreement between the Grosse Pointe Volunteer Probation Program and The Woods was unanimously approved by the council at its regular meeting Monday, November 6.

The pact, in which The Woods agrees to pay its $9,312.50 share of the program's $25,000 operating budget, is for services rendered by the program to the city's municipal court between July 1, 1978, and June 30, 1979.

All the Pointes had indicated their approval of the program during the course of the year for a one-year period.

According to the agreement, the program will furnish to The Woods, through its municipal court, present investigation reports and post-conviction supervision and counseling of persons referred to the agency by the municipal judge.

It also says that the program will furnish the municipal court with a report concerning the number of cases and reports handled by the agency.

In addition, the report will contain a statement showing the financial operations of the organization and it shall be furnished in January 1979 and July 1979.

At the same time, all fines, costs and probation service costs levied by the city's court upon any person is and will remain the city's property in accordance with the municipal charter, and that any such fines, costs and probation service costs that may be collected by the program from or on behalf of any person referred to the agency by the court will be remitted to the city on or before the 10th day of each month subsequent to the collection.

Further, the agreement notes, this requirement will remain in effect concerning all persons referred to the program by the court during the terms of the pact.

Any extension or renewal of the agreement upon its expiration will require formal action by the council and approval by the agency's board from Chief Schultz. Mr. Easton said that in the event of a fire call when the ambulance is out and the shift is down to four men, the pumper would have to remain in the station until the two men returned from the ambulance run and took it out.

"I just want the residents to know what fire firefighting protection they're getting," he said.

According to Chief Schultz, the city took the action because many firefighters have refused to work overtime. He said there have already been many days when the department has worked with only four men, simply because nobody could be found willing to work for the over-

Census Shows Leveling Off Of Birthrate

Small Increase in Number of Pre-School Children Living in Community Seen over Last Year; Information Also Shows That Pointe is An Aging Community

By Susan McDonald
The end may be in sight in terms of the dropping enrollment that Pointe public schools have experienced since the beginning of this decade. A census report just released by school officials shows a small increase over last year in the number of pre-school children living in The Pointe for the first time in several years.

While the census doesn't predict a "baby boom" based on the census report, they say the figures may indicate a leveling off of the local birthrate.

Enrollment in the public schools has dropped by almost 25 percent since 1970 to just over 10,000 students this year. The census shows that it will continue to drop for several years to come at an average rate of about 400 students a year, according to the school's Director of Support Services Ben Zenn.

Reasons Why
Although no school buildings have been closed by the Board of Education because of the loss of students, studies show that as many as three elementary and one middle school could conceivably be shut down this year without overcrowding other buildings.

The Board has elected not to close schools for a variety of reasons, including the high cost of providing transportation for students and the negative impact a school closing may have on its neighborhood.

The census was conducted in May 1978 by about 30 workers employed by the school system. They went door-to-door throughout the Pointe and part of Harper Woods included in the school district collecting age and language statistics.

The report provides valuable data about the population of The Pointe, in addition to school-age statistics.

The number of people of color living in the district has decreased by 1,766 since 1976, most of them, (1,530), of school age. The Woods was the biggest loser, (658 people), while The Shores (Continued on Page 2)

Goodfellows Sale Okayed

A request from the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club to purchase the annual Goodfellows newspaper sale was unanimously approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 6.

The club's sale will be held on Monday, November 11, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. along Mack avenue only.

Funds raised from the sale will be used to help the blind and in other community projects

GP Fire Department's Shift Strength Lowered

By David Kramer
A recent action taken by The Farms means that the fire department will now work with a minimum of four men, instead of the previous five, until the end of the year.

The action, taken in the form of a verbal directive from City Manager Andrew Bremer to Fire Chief Warren Schultz, means that the fire department will have to be down to a three-man shift before a man is called for overtime.

According to Firefighter Donald Easton, secretary of the International Ass'n of Firefighters Local 1508, that could create a situation where only one fire engine could be used in the event of a fire.

GP Woods Votes 4-3 For Session

All Applicants Will Be Notified of Monday, November 20, Date

By Roger A. Walsh
Another hearing to consider Class C liquor license applicants was scheduled for Monday, November 20, by the Woods Council after a narrow 4-3 vote. This action was taken by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, November 6.

Robert P. Van Wienesersch, attorney for Gabby's Restaurant, 1020 Mack avenue, in a letter to the council requested a review of the matter, while indicating his "further petition for action" on awarding such a license to Gabby's.

The solons at their Monday, October 16, session surprised citizens in attendance by being 4-3 not to issue an additional Class C license, which would make five such documents, pending the approval of the state Liquor Control Commission, in the community.

One Exception
Alex Brady, owner of Gabby's, who conducted a successful initiative petition drive to have the question placed on the August 8 primary ballot, indicated after the meeting on the 16th that he intended to bring the matter up before the solons once again.

He also cited his drive and ultimate voter approval of the referendum question, 3,037 to 1,830, regarding the issuance of one additional C license in the city.

However, no further hearing has been scheduled if all the councilmen voted the way they did on the 16th regarding the issuance of the document.

At that time, Councilmen George E. Freeman, John Sabol, E. D. Grady and Thomas Fahrner voted "yes" to deny all applicants, while Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilmen Robert E. Novikow and George Custer voted against the motion.

The vote regarding another hearing regarding the same with one exception — Mr. Freeman, who, on the 6th, decided to vote in favor of a second hearing.

"I believe the citizens of our city want us (the council), by their vote, to issue a C license to someone," he said. "Another hearing will not hurt."

Free Process
He added, while his vote for another hearing wasn't necessarily a vote for the issuance of an additional license, he was not sure if the voters said to us we should give an opportunity to find someone who would be satisfactory."

Slate Meeting On Elm Disease

Residents of all the Pointes are invited to learn more about fighting Dutch Elm Disease at a public meeting sponsored by The Park on Thursday, November 16.

Dr. Gary Gremery, scientist with the Forest Service Branch of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, will speak at the meeting, to be held at the Grosse Pointe Middle School auditorium, 15450 Kercheval avenue, at 8 p.m.

Dr. Gregory led a study in The Park this summer of the comparative effectiveness of two types of fungicides in combating Dutch Elm Disease, Lignasun DLP and Arboret 20S.

He will discuss the results of that study as well as steel individual citizens can take to control the disease on trees on private property.

LWV Does Well with Bazaar

The League of Women Voters, (LWV), of Grosse

Pointe had a successful "Bizarre Bazaar" in September as the group made a net profit of $774.01.

According to the LWV's newsletter, the league had a total of 48 both spaces sold this year, an increase over last year. Receipts totaled $1,015.71, while expenditures reached $241.70.

Restrained Halloween Reported in Pointe

Best One Yet
Saving the use of the fire apparatus and their potential exposure to vandals on the street, the department armed Dog Warden Johnson with a pressurized water extinguisher and a rake and he was able to douse most of the leaf fires singlehandedly.

In the other incidents, which included some eggings of homes and cars, one breaking and entering of a North Renaud road home, reported on the 31st, netted the culprits a color television set and two rifles, while vandalism to a home in Sunningdale drive resulted in $500 damage to a window.

Meanwhile, in another incident, an explosive device in a mail chute destroyed the box at a Ballantyne court home.

Aware of past problems on both evenings, Director Dankel, who joined the department this spring, said while his own car was the recipient of some shaving cream, he, in return, personally relieved some youngsters of eggs.

On Halloween evening, the director was impressed with the conduct of youngsters and parents on his block when he took his two and a half-year-old daughter trick or treating.

"I thoroughly enjoyed it. Many parents were sitting on their front steps or standing inside the door. Only little kids were out. It was really a carnival atmosphere in my neighborhood with lots of decorations and many kids in home-made costumes.

"I've lived in four states and this was the best Halloween yet," he said.

In the Farms, Devil's Night wasn't as bad as in years past, at least in terms of property damage. However, according to Chief Robert Ferber, the number of incidents was up.

A total of 25 incidents was reported during the night, with the most frequent complaint being that of leaf fires. Other complaints included open fire hydrants, which apparently caused a drop in water pressure reported by the filtration plant during the night, and kids with eggs.

Farms Fire Lt. Arthur Turner said the numerous leaf fires were extinguished with a booster line, using water from 200 and 500 gallon tanks on the trucks.

Kids opening the fire hydrants can be very costly to the taxpayers, he said, because the seals are often destroyed and the hydrants then have to be dug up and replaced.

In addition, the use of pipe wrenches on the five-sided valves damages them.

The police had its 10-member CB support unit out in the neighborhood that night, under the direction of Cpl. Joseph Miller.

Chief Ferber said he's never seen so much damage done "in the name of good, clean fun" as he has since he's been working in Michigan. Devil's Night is much more popular here than it is in other states, he noted.

"On Halloween, incidents were minor but one must remember that the majority of incidents are unreported," added the chief.

The City suffered from the "usual" amount of malicious pranks, according to Det. Lt. Robert VanTeim.

Leaf fires were most common, with about 10 reported throughout the community over the two-day period. Police are investigating one fire in particular that occurred on October 30 at the Mole Hole, 672 Notre Dame avenue at about 7 p.m.

About $500 worth of new cedar bushes were set on fire there and police said only the quick response from the fire department saved the entire building from being engulfed.

Eggings were as troublesome as ever, and about five people reported being pelted on City streets during the two days.

Pellet holes were reported in three Mack avenue shop windows on October 31 at about 7 p.m. as the Ram's Horn, Coins and Stamps and Leon's were all hit.

Quiet in Park
Meanwhile, in The Shores, Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale said, "I'm really happy to report everything went fine."

No problems were reported on Halloween, while the department did receive eight reports on Devil's Night, including three eggings incidents to homes and two leaf fires.

In another incident, seven youths were reported pulling out a stop sign at Lakeshore and Deeplands roads, with one of the youngsters being apprehended.

Most of the usual Devil's Night pranks apparently stayed home in The Park this year. The community reported a minimum of vandalism during the two days — including 25 leaf fires scattered throughout the city.

On Devil's Night, the Youth Service Division's four detectives worked from 4 p.m. to 12 midnight and were interspersed between the five municipalities to assist uniform patrols and the citizenry as needed.

However, on Halloween night, the division resumed its regular schedule.

Vandals in GPW

At the same time, police received a variety of other MDP reports, a few of which also may be related to the marble vandalism pending further investigation.

A storm window was shattered at a South Oxford road home, while someone knocked a 4' by 2' section of bricks from a wall at the Berkshire Apartments, near the Mason School, 1640 Vernier road, playfield.

Meanwhile, some 30 feet of a white picket fence alongside a Hampton road home was ripped down by an auto, possibly by using either a chain or a rope.

A driver's side door window was broken in a car parked near Merit Woods Pharmacy, 19325 Mack avenue, while three garage windows at a home in Aline were shattered by bricks.

More destruction was reported when a truck ran over four lawns in Torrey road.

Property Maintenance Code Explored in GPW

By Roger A. Waha

Two meetings have been held and another has been scheduled between sub-committees of the Woods Planning Commission and council in an attempt to draw a final draft of a proposed property maintenance code for the city.

The two groups met on Wednesday, October 25, and Thursday, November 2, and are now scheduled to meet again on Tuesday, November 21, said Planning Commission chairman George Rinaldi last week.

Officials who have taken part in at least one of the meetings include Mr. Rinaldi and Commissioners John Kennedy and Paul Rothenburg, along with City Attorney George Catlin, Building Inspector Earl Wakely and Councilmen John Sabol and Thomas Fahrner.

While some differences remain in some areas, mainly in regards to how far a citizen should go in bringing a building up to code, an attempt will be made to iron these out, noted Mr. Rinaldi. An objective, he said, is to prepare the final draft based upon the two sub-committees' input for the consideration of the entire Planning Commission.

Mr. Rinaldi indicated the total group probably won't have this draft in time for the commission's regular meeting Tuesday, November 28, but, rather, for its scheduled session on December 26. In this respect, he wanted all commissioners to have enough time to digest the draft before discussing it.

The subject of repairs was discussed by the sub-committees, with such areas as electrical, plumbing and heating being viewed, he said. In relation to this, what has been termed in the past some "philosophical differences" in relation to the extent of repairs has cropped up.

Both Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Rinaldi in earlier commission meetings had expressed concerns that the code should provide controls without subjecting citizens to heavy costs on the compliance front toward avoiding an undue burden on the homeowner.

Mr. Rinaldi stated this area remains a point of discussion, while adding, "If a home is sound and safe, it should be all right" as against bringing up, to a 1978 code for example, a home that is 50-years-old.

According to an approved motion at the commission's September meeting, an objective of the sub-committee work was to establish a set of minimum standards for use in the proposed code with such standards being acceptable ones for the code's passage of the code.

After the proposal clears the commission, it will then be considered by the council.

Voter Survey Starts Nov. 20

Did you vote on Tuesday, November 7? Were you registered but did not vote?

The Bureau of the Census will ask these and other questions about voting in the 1978 elections in a sample of households in the Pointe and other areas during the week of November 20 to 25.

Robert G. McWilliam, director of the Bureau's Regional Office, Detroit, stressed that no questions will be asked about party affiliation or for whom a person voted. The survey will provide a profile of the typical American voter and non-voter: age, sex, residence, education, labor force status and family income.

These voting questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U. S. Department of Labor.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Birthrate Levels Off

Confirms Trend

The census also confirms a trend that has been cited by many community groups in the past few years: The Pointe is an aging community.

The census shows that 14.8 percent of The Pointe's citizens are 60 years or older, (the national average is about 10 percent of the population 60 and over).

The City has the largest ratio of senior citizens with more than 18 percent of its residents at least 60-years-old. The Farms is the lowest in that category, with 12.9 percent 60 and older.

Of the total school district population of 63,012, there are 15,632 school-age children and 9,305 senior citizens.

Other statistics compiled in the report include:

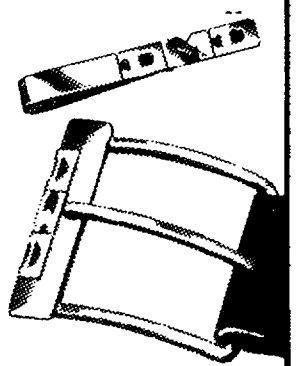

- There was an average loss over the last two years of about 100 children in each school-age group, except the zero to four-year-old group, which showed a 15 percent increase.
- There are 22,420 residences in the school district with an average of 2.81 persons per household.
- About 76 percent of the students attend public schools

CUDINI PROMOTED

Pointer A. Mario Cudini has been named chief engineer at the LaSalle Machine Tool Michigan Plant. A native of Varmo, Italy, Mr. Cudini joined LaSalle in 1969.

in The Pointe, with 16.2 percent electing parochial and 7.8 private schools. In The Shores, however, only 56 percent of the kids attend public schools.

• There are 731 families in the district that speak at least two languages in the home.

Film Features Israel, Sinai

The latest and most complete color movies of "Israel and The Sinai" will be shown for the World Adventure Series by William Stockdale, Yale journalist and travel writer for the "New York Times," Sunday, November 12, at the Detroit Institute of Arts, at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Stockdale filmed the movies in 1977. While non-political and non-controversial, he says, they cover the West Bank and all other major and strategic regions discussed and considered at Camp David.

In Jerusalem, the film pictures the Damascus and other historic gates, the Walls and the Via Dolorosa, twisting old streets and modern shops and supermarkets, a tour of the busy Knesset or parliament, priceless works of art there and in Hadassah Hospital.

Landmarks sacred to three great religions are filmed in close-up—the serene Sea of Galilee, the River Jordan, grottoes, parks and Arab strongholds along the Lebanese border.

ULS Students Enrich Reading

Seventy-eight University Liggett School, (ULS), Upper School students are currently enrolled in a five-week reading enrichment program. Their instructor, Janet Gilbert of Walpole, Mass., is a teacher of the Baldrige reading and study skills program, headquartered in Greenwich, Conn.

The Baldrige program is neither a speed reading course nor a remedial program, but rather a technique designed to enhance students' speed, comprehension and informed assimilation of materials viewed in school.

In the Baldrige program, students use their own texts while learning seven "reading strategies" including survey and speed reading.

The program seeks to help students learn to replace the linear reading they have learned in relation to narratives with a "global" approach that is a more effective method for informational texts.

Suspect Arson In Garage Fire

Farms Police are investigating the possibility of arson as the cause of a fire which completely destroyed a garage, two cars and a sailboat, as well as setting a neighboring garage afire and heavily damaging a third car.

A 1978 Corvette and a 1954 MG which the owner was in the process of restoring were totaled, while about $2,000 worth of damage was done to a 1978 Pontiac during the blaze, which sent flames 20 to 30 feet in the air early Saturday morning, November 4.

The fire, at the home of Gerald Mahoney of Chalfonte road, was reported by a passing motorist. A neighbor, whose garage was heavily damaged when it caught fire from the radiant heat, said he pulled into his driveway just 15 to 20 minutes before it was reported, and saw and heard nothing.

The fire department, however, claims the fire had to be going at least 45 minutes when they arrived.

A number of antiques kept in the garage also were completely destroyed. No known combustibles were kept in the structure, according to reports.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said he has asked an arson specialist to look at the ruins to determine whether the fire was set.

Earlier that night, a worker at the Mack-Moross service station called police to tell them that four or five men in a car bought two cans of gasoline.

Farms Fire Chief Warren Schultz said firefighters were on the scene for more than an hour, although the fire was brought under control in about 10 minutes.

NICHOLS APPOINTED

C.L. Nichols of Belanger road was recently appointed manager of Plant Regulatory Contracts for Parke, Davis and Co. Mr. Nichols, a native of Sheboygan, Wis., joined the firm in 1971 as a chemist. He holds a Bachelor's degree from University of Michigan and a Master's degree from Oakland University.

Peace Lutheran Plans Workshop

An introductory workshop on lay caring ministry and the Stephen Series, an interdenominational and national lay caring program, will be held at Peace Lutheran Church 15700 East Warren avenue, Detroit, on Sunday, November 19, from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Conducting the workshop will be the Rev. Brian Taylor of St. Louis, Mo.

Rev. Taylor is coordinator of field services for Pastoral Care Team Ministries, which administers the Stephen Series. The Stephen Series is a model for the pastor and congregation to use in setting up a lay caring ministry system in their own congregation.

The series is currently being used by congregations of a number of different denominations across the country.

The workshop, which is designed for both clergy and laity, contains a variety of activities as well as presentations aimed at sensitizing and familiarizing the participants to the great potential of a congregation when a number of its laity become involved in caring for one another.

A highlight of the day will be a complete presentation of one of the Stephen Series training topics, "Ministering to Those Experiencing Grief."

Included in the afternoon will be a look at some of the basics of Christian community from a theological as well as a practical perspective.

For further information about the workshop, contact local coordinator, the Rev. Arnold Brannmeier, 882-0254.

Of Peace Lutheran's estimated 1,200 members, about one-third are Pointers.

Schools Sell Building Bonds

National Bank of Detroit came out the winner in some very competitive bidding Thursday, November 2, for $2.15 million of Grosse Pointe School System bonds, issued by the Board of Education to finance a new industrial arts facility at South High School.

With an overall interest rate of 5.47926 percent, NBD beat out 11 other banks and investment firms for the bonds.

Bids came in from as far away as California, and bond attorneys told school officials they were surprised at the large number of interested firms.

Construction of the new facility at South High is scheduled to begin later this month under the direction of William Kessler Associates, architects.

Site Seniors Enjoy Party

Hobos, gypsies, farmers, clowns and Raggedy Ann and Andy danced to the music at the OWLS' (Older, Wiser, Sane, Lovelier), Halloween Party on Wednesday, November 1, at The Pointe's Out-Wayne County Nutrition Site housed in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue.

Chairperson Eleanor Dupuis coordinated the party as 140 guests dined and danced at the event.

Jo Short, who was in charge of decorations, designed black cats perched on orange platforms for centerpieces. While the luncheon meals were served, she entertained on stage doing a Queen Belle vaudeville dance act.

Paul Housie, exercise, nutrition and dance instructor for the group, acted as master of ceremonies and led the seniors in a Halloween grand march.

Shut-ins in the community, who were unable to participate due to illness or handicaps, were the recipients of home delivered hot meals by ladies from Our Lady Star of The Sea Church.

Accompanying the meals were special Halloween candy-filled decorations made by Parcels School Girl Scout Troop 1463.

Seniors at SH To Fete Adults

Grosse Pointe parents and adults should put on their dancing shoes and get ready to swing the night away at "Moments to Remember," a dance for adults sponsored by South High School's senior class Saturday, November 11, from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m.

Music of the '50's, including Elvis and Chubby Checker, rock 'n' roll of the '60's and some '70's disco tunes will be featured at the school gym, 11 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Host Joey Ryan, a disc jockey with WTWR and WCAR, plans to bring choreographers and dancers to demonstrate all the newest and some of the older steps.

Albums and cash prizes will be awarded to winners of a dance contest.

Sponsors are encouraging dancers to don the attire they used to wear to their own high school dances. Prizes will be awarded to the best dressed people in the crowd according to generation.

Admission will be $8 per couple or $4 for singles. Tickets are available at South High from senior class officers and senators and at Jacobson's.

Proceeds will go to the senior class.

Shift Strength Lowered

(Continued from Page 1) time day. Mr. Easton agreed it is sometimes difficult to find men willing to work overtime, but adds there are good reasons for the men's refusal.

For one, the city will not pay an officer his overtime rate if a short shift already has its complement of two officers. Instead, the officer working overtime will only make as much as a pipeman.

The difference, Mr. Easton said, is roughly $16 per day for a sergeant and $32 for a lieutenant.

This leaves three or four men per shift to choose from for working overtime, Mr. Easton explained. A further problem is encountered be-

Church Slates Cafe Potpourri

Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will present Cafe Potpourri featuring members of The Grand Circus Exchange in songs and dance on Friday, November 17, at 8 p.m.

The performance will be held at the church, 17150 Maumee avenue. Tickets are $3.75 or $5.50 for patrons.

For more information, call 881-2196 after 4 p.m.

cause the men on one shift may be working the day before and the day after the one where overtime is needed, resulting in those men having to work a total of 72 hours straight if they want the overtime.

Chief Schultz said he couldn't understand why the men wouldn't want to work a day of overtime, pointing out the men made $247 when they did. He doesn't think the firefighting ability will be substantially impaired because of the city's mutual aid pacts.

Mr. Brenner said the directive was mainly a cost containment measure.

"We've had a tremendous amount of overtime," he said. "Some of the men are making $1,400 a week."

He said the decision was "not an earthshaking thing. It will require more judicious use of mutual aid but we feel the protection is still there."

Mr. Bremer acknowledged the order was given verbally, but said that fact in itself was of no significance. He added the council had approved the move.

You'll get more kick out of your life if you put a punch in everything you do.

Cost Cutter Wins Award

Ralph L. Wilgarde, administrator of Cottage Hospital, announced that Barbara J. Doerr, a registered nurse at the hospital since 1968 and a staff member of the newborn nursery, was a special award winner in the Michigan Hospital Ass'n. and Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Michigan second annual "Share Our Savings" contest for 1978.

An awards banquet held in Traverse City this fall honored winners from nearly 30 Michigan hospitals whose combined innovative cost cutting ideas resulted in documented savings of more than $1.3 million.

Mrs. Doerr received $100 and a plaque for her idea for a tubular net dressing designed to protect the eyes of newborns who require phototherapy.

Finding all previously used methods cumbersome and time-consuming, Mrs. Doerr developed a method using a flexible tubular net dressing and ordinary oval eye pads. While two nurses were needed to apply other methods, one nurse can apply the eye pads using the flexinet.

Mr. Wilgarde said the combined savings of personnel time, the lower cost of the new materials, plus the development of a more efficient method of application, added up to a winning entry for Mrs. Doerr.

A resident of St. Clair Shores, Mrs. Doerr is a graduate of the Mercy School of Nursing, Detroit.

Farms Fireman Sharpe Retires

Farms Firefighter Robert Sharpe, 50, a 27-year veteran of the department, was forced to take a disability retirement as a result of a heart attack suffered while fighting the fire at Saint Paul On-the-Lake Church last June, it was announced by Farms Fire Chief Warren Schultz.

Mr. Sharpe, who was the driver-operator of The Farms' aerial ladder truck, was in the process of moving some of the hundreds of feet of hose used at the fire when he experienced severe chest pains and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

Mr. Sharpe resides in St. Clair Shores with his wife, Germaine, three daughters and a son. The Sharpes also have four grandchildren.

Chief Schultz said the department will miss his services in the future, but added "with his retirement Bob should have a lot of time for baby-sitting those grandchildren."

Mr. Sharpe was born in The Pointe and attended Saint Paul School.

Dog Droppings

Councilman Joseph Fromm didn't feel the law would have to be used very often, hoping residents would cooperate.

The new ordinance also makes it a misdemeanor to own a dog "which by loud or frequent barking, yelping or howling, shall cause serious annoyance to a neighborhood or to passersby."

Arrests of Two Youths

Study Views State Drivers

Are women better drivers than men?
 Whether you answer is yes or no, you can find some support in the preliminary results of the most comprehensive study ever done on Michigan's 6.3 million drivers.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin said in a news release the exhaustive traffic safety study will provide valuable insight into the relationship of accidents to driver age, sex, geographical location, driving convictions and driving record.

Data for the study were obtained between 1974 and 1978 and the first of a series of reports of the study will be made available shortly.

That portion of the study comparing sex of drivers with accidents, violations and a record of driving shows that women hold 46.6 percent of all driver licenses and actually compile better driving records than males.

In a typical year, the following occurs:

- Ten percent of men are involved in accidents compared with only six percent of women.

- Men have 12 times the rate of convictions for drunk or impaired driving.

- Men, in any two-year period, are penalized an average of more than twice as many traffic violations points as women.

- Men receive most of the suspensions, revocations and warning letters for poor driving. In one year, 194,000 of 251,000 warning letters went to men and after re-examinations 21,100 of 22,800 suspensions and 5,150 of 5,300 revocations went to men.

On the male side of statistics, the study shows the following:

- Men do more than twice the driving, averaging 38 miles per day compared with 16 miles for women. Men drive 67 minutes in an average day, women, 33. This trend continues as drivers grow older with women over 75 driving only five miles per day while their counterpart male drivers compile 11.

- The most active drivers are men between 35 and 44 years of age who average 47 miles per day. The most active women drivers are between 25 and 34 and average only 19 miles a day.

This study is part of a comprehensive effort by the secretary of state to re-evaluate the present point system, improve the capability of the department to identify problem drivers and develop new programs to help curb accidents.

Several reports will be issued. The first, known as the "Michigan Driver Profile," will be available shortly and will include the following:

- General information about Michigan drivers.
- An analysis of violations and convictions.
- Driving records of those with violations or accidents.
- Alcohol-related violations and accidents.
- Problem drivers and Department of State driver improvement programs.

Gets Probation In Check Case

A 29-year-old Detroit man, charged with issuing checks without an account or credit, pled guilty to the charge and was placed on two years' probation and assessed $330 in costs on Friday, October 20, reported, Woods Det. Thomas Podaszwick.

This transpired at the Wayne County Circuit Court sentencing of Larry Gardner before Judge Horace Gilmore.

Gardner was originally charged with obtaining money by false pretenses but ultimately pled to the lesser charge, a two-year felony.

The detective said the man was involved in purchasing a television set with a $227.76 check, which proved to be bad. Gardner was wanted by police on a warrant obtained last March and he was apprehended in Chicago, Ill., earlier this year.

Cottage Keeps Health Clinic

The Wayne County Health Clinic at Cottage Hospital, 159 Kercheval avenue, will continue to serve the needs of northeast Wayne County residents for the present time, according to Dr. Perry Stearns, director of the Wayne County Health Department.

Due to a budgeting shift of funds in Wayne County, the expected layoffs of personnel at the clinic, necessitating its closing, did not occur.

The clinic is widely used, as it is the only one in the northeast area of Wayne County, added Dr. Stearns. Skin testing for tuberculosis, immunizations and health information for travelers will continue to be offered.

Hours are Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. Skin testing is done Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

The clinic will be closed Friday, November 10, and Thursday, November 23, Thanksgiving Day.

New Computer Helping Liggett

University Liggett School recently opened a new computer center at both the Middle and Upper School campuses made possible by a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy III.

Under the direction of mathematics department instructor Douglas Werkema, the new center is being integrated into the school's curriculum in a variety of ways.

The new center allows six students to work at one time and already has become an integral part of Algebra classes in the ninth grade and will be used by Calculus, Probability and Statistics classes soon, according to the school.

'Get in Touch' Theme of Class

The body and the mind take a beating in the world as we know it. The pace, busy schedules, desks, demands, needs of others and putting excessive effort into what we do pulls us and we become strangers and sometimes enemies to ourselves, says a release from Wayne County Community College, (WCCC).

A class offered through Wayne County Community College called "Connections and Re-connections" will use psycho-physical exercises in focusing upon the body.

Along with this focus, students will spend some time sharpening their total sense and rethinking some important areas of their lives such as career, health and relationships.

The class will be offered on Monday, November 13, in Room 305 of North High School, 707 Vernier road. Offered through WCCC Community Services, it is taught by Joanne Roth and Sharon Hall.

It is suggested that participants wear comfortable clothing and bring something to lie on.

Church Plans Fall Festival

The annual Fall Mission Festival of Christ the King Lutheran Church, 20338 Mack avenue, has been set for Sunday, November 12, at the 10:30 a.m. service.

Pastor Dwain Gade, chaplain at Henry Ford Hospital, will be the guest speaker.

Prior to his chaplaincy in 1960, Pastor Gade served as pastor to congregations in Armada, Mich., Washington and Mount Clemens.

The work of the hospital chaplain is a specialized area of the Missouri Synod's mission program which reaches more than one million people each year in the United States and Canada.

Pastor Gade has a Master's degree in counselling and guidance, and an Educational Specialist's degree in sociology. He also is a member of the hospital's Cardiac Rehabilitation Team.

SEMTA Offers Bus to Parade

The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEMTA), will offer train and bus service to the J. L. Hudson Thanksgiving Day Parade on Thursday, November 23.

Ten Park and Ride lots will be available for SEMTA bus service to the parade. Customers may park and ride a SEMTA bus directly to the parade from several locations including the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue.

SEMTA bus service will leave at 8, 8:15 and 8:30 a.m. depending on the parking location, and will depart 15 minutes after Santa passes.

Round trip adult and children's tickets for the SEMTA bus service are available for $1.50 each at the J. L. Hudson Co. ticket outlets at several locations including Eastland, the St. Clair Shores Recreation Department at Jefferson and Nine and a Half Mile road and the Neighborhood Club.

All tickets have departure times and parking locations clearly defined.

Tickets may be purchased in advance by mail. A check or money order made payable to SEMTA together with a self-addressed, stamped envelope should be mailed to SEMTA Claus, 211 West Fort street, Suite 1600, Detroit 48226.

For additional information, call toll free 1-800-462-5161 or 962-5515.

Men Gardeners Meet Nov. 16

The popularity of organic gardening has aroused interest to the extent that members of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe are looking forward to their Thursday, November 16, meeting when the speaker will be Mrs. Joseph Banyia of Madison Heights, an expert on the subject.

The meeting will be held at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue at 8 p.m. and gardeners from the entire metropolitan area are welcome.

She will tell her listeners the fundamental requirements to becoming a successful organic gardener.

She is a devoted enthusiast of this method of growing better fruits, flowers and vegetables, and will give a slide presentation which will highlight the basic approaches for desired results.

Mrs. Banyia is past president of "The Town and Country Organic Garden Club" and has many years of experience in this type of growing.

Florian Choir Sets Concert

The Saint Florian Choir will hold its first performance of the season on Wednesday, November 15, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

Solo, ensemble and choral performances will be featured under the direction of Curtis Posuniak, Saint Florian organist.

PARTNERSHIP FORMED

Ted Nichols of Lincoln road has joined with David Bonnell to form Nichols-Bonnell and Associates, Inc., an advertising agency located in McDougall street.

Workshop Held By Girl Scouts

Girl Scout leaders from Maire, Richard and Saint Clare Schools hosted a holiday craft workshop for all Girl Scout leaders in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods cluster.

The workshop was held on Wednesday, November 8, in the Fellowship Hall of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road.

The leaders, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Unger of The Park, neighborhood chairperson, supervised three do-it-yourself craft stations and one large craft display table.

Mrs. H. Short of The Park, craft consultant for the workshop, had many new craft ideas for all age groups in scouting.

Working on the committee to assist Mrs. Unger in the planning were Mrs. Bernard VanAntwerp, co-chairperson, Mrs. Robert Carion, refreshments, Mrs. Richard Eckels, registration, and Mrs. James Weitzmann, fliers, all of The Park.

Others were Mrs. Robert Brackett, publicity, and Mrs. George Maghielse, troop consultant, of The City, and Mrs. John MacLeod, troop organizer, of The Farms.

Heroin in Car for 5-6 Years

A Farms woman had apparently been driving her car for five or six years with at least $15,000 worth of suspected Mexican brown heroin, until she discovered its presence last week.

The woman, who originally thought the narcotic was placed in her car while it was parked on the street in a downriver community, later discovered it had been in her car all along, and had just fallen out of its hiding place.

Eight ounces of suspected heroin was turned in to Farms police on Sunday, October 29, by the woman's husband. Several days later, the man called police to tell them he had found a similar amount in the car.

This second find, originally thought to be heroin, was found stuffed inside the flaps used to anchor a litterbox which was set on the transmission hump of the car. Apparently the first batch of the drug found had slipped out of the pocket, which contains weight to keep the box anchored to the hump. A search of the other pocket turned up the other bag, which later turned out to be nothing but sand.

The litterbox was purchased five or six years ago at an auto wash, the woman told police.

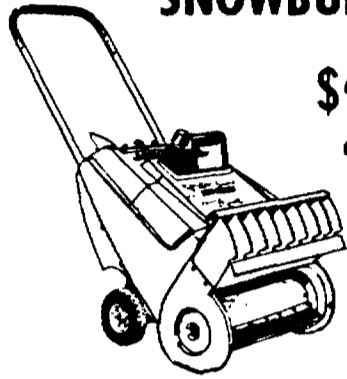

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber said a field test confirmed the original find to be heroin. A similar test on the second batch, however, proved negative.

The chief said the substance would be sent to state police, who would attempt to determine its origin. He added that somebody probably got into a lot of trouble for losing it.

If you can lick a stamp, you can earn 8% interest.

With just a 4 year term!

We make it easy for you to earn more interest on your savings. Over a shorter term. And with much more liberal withdrawal policies than at other places where you could save.

Save by mail at Commercial Credit Industrial Bank in Denver and you can earn 8% annual interest on a savings certificate of $1,000 or more when held for just 4 years. That's an annual yield of 8.24% when compounded quarterly!

Suppose you have to withdraw earlier? You'll still earn the regular savings rate, now 6%, computed to the withdrawal date. There's no 90-day loss of interest like you'd experience at most other places.

These savings plans are available to individuals, corporations and organizations.

Accounts protected up to a maximum of $10,000 by the Industrial Bank Savings Guaranty Corporation of Colorado, a private corporation which is not an instrumentality of the State of Colorado or the Federal Government.

Call toll free (800) 525-8570 if you have any questions. Or lick a stamp, mail your deposit, and start earning more interest the day your envelope is postmarked.

Soccer Group Thanks ULS

A flowering cherry tree was presented to University-Liggett School, (ULS), by the Grosse Pointe Soccer Ass'n. as a gesture of appreciation for the use of the school's fields during 1978.

The presentation, made on Wednesday, November 1, was marked by the tree-planting ceremony near the McCann Rink on the school's Cook road campus.

Dr. Jean-Claude Elie and Alistair Bruce, representing the hockey association, made the presentation to ULS Headmaster Raymond P. Robbins.

Others attending the ceremony included Robert Wood, ULS athletic director and Luis Gomez, varsity soccer coach.

This spring, ULS made its soccer fields available to the association for its use as a home field. Last June, the association held its first annual soccer picnic at the Cook road campus. Detroit Express players Steve Hardwick and Ian Davies signed autographs and played soccer with the children at the event.

The Grosse Pointe Soccer Ass'n. was founded by Dr. Elie in 1978, and has played 17 teams as region 48 of the American Youth Soccer Ass'n.

Brownell Sets Panel Parley

Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte avenue, will host a special National Education Week panel discussion in the school cafeteria on Wednesday, November 15, from 10 to 11 a.m.

The topic of discussion will be "The Changing Adolescent in a Changing World."

Barbara Sjolander, Brownell counselor, will act as moderator. The panel will be composed of Dr. Kenneth Lentz, pastor, Saint Paul Lutheran Church; John Bruce, director, Neighborhood Club; William Desilets, detective, Youth Service Division; Russ Jones, chief psychologist, Grosse Pointe Schools; and the Rev. Michael Donovan, assistant pastor, Saint Paul On-the-Lake Church.

Their comments will be followed by an audience question and answer period.

All Brownell parents and members of the community are invited to attend and are encouraged to visit a class immediately before or after the program.

Class Leaders Named at SHS

South High School's Student Association will work under the leadership of Jean Beaudoin, president, Val Kvale, vice-president, Carol Shaheen, secretary, and Jennifer Zinn, treasurer, during the 1978-79 school year, according to a press release from South Assistant Principal Sheila Joyce.

Elected president of the Class of 1979 was Bob Bedell, who'll be assisted by Betsy Cross, vice-president; Mary Helen Berg, secretary; and Richard Stephens, treasurer.

Junior class officers include president Gail Pollock, vice-president Anne Day, secretary Martha Henes and treasurer Elise Poirer. Bonnie Blazar will serve as president of the school's sophomore class, assisted by vice-president Gretchen Maghielse, secretary Marcy Tayler and treasurer Cheryl Nelson.

PLAYS AT SILVERDOME

Saint Ambrose was one of 10 teams playing in exhibition football games at the Pontiac Silverdome Sunday, November 5, as a prelude to the Catholic high school league's championship triple-header. The team, which plays in the Catholic Youth Organization, (CYO), took on Garden City Saint Damian for a 20-minute battle.

Police Remove Uninvited Pair

A Webber place citizen, who was watching television on Sunday, October 29, had his concentration interrupted by two unexpected visitors and called Shores police for assistance.

Officer Gary Mitchell was led to a rear stairway leading to the second floor where a pair of raccoons had temporarily established themselves. However, they were quickly chased outside through a rear door.

The furry ones apparently entered the home through the convenience of the living room fireplace.

Plan Workshop In Calligraphy

William A. Bostick, former administrator of the Detroit Institute of Arts and currently instructor of Art History and Calligraphy at the War Memorial, will conduct a calligraphic Christmas card workshop at the center, 32 Lakeshore road, on Thursday, November 16, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

He will show how to design and address one's own calligraphic Christmas cards, and will have paper available for the cards, offer the services of a printer or tell how to specify the printing to one's own printer.

Workshop participants will actually produce the calligraphy for their cards during the workshop session.

Participants should bring their own platinum or osmium pens with fine point filled with black ink. They also should bring copy for the greeting and a 12-inch ruler and eraser. The workshop fee is $5 and enrollment should be made before Friday, November 10.

The class is limited to those who have completed a course in Italic handwriting.

Free enterprise produces the goods, and to day we need a system that will lower prices.

Schools to Hear Noted Musician

Grosse Pointe music students will have an unusual opportunity to learn from a distinguished pianist and teacher when Dr. Louis Nagel, a member of the piano and piano literature faculty at the University of Michigan, presents two master classes in local high schools on Friday, November 10.

Dr. Nagel's appearances were arranged by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society, with the cooperation of Russell Reed, instructor of instrumental music at South High School, and Nathan Judson, instructor of instrumental music at North.

Dr. Nagel will be in the auditorium at South at 9:15 a.m. and at North's Performing Arts Center at 10:25.

His subject will be "The Arts of Accompanying and Ensemble Playing" and he will personally perform a piano quintet with four woodwind players from each school.

"These lectures and demonstrations also are open to interested members of the public," according to Mrs. Walter J. Burczyk, who is handling arrangement details on behalf of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society.

College Time to Learn Life

There is a lot to learn for a college freshman, and most of it occurs outside the classroom, says Dr. Robert Minetti, director of residence hall programs at Michigan State University.

Dormitory life exposes students to a variety of lifestyles and values, the challenge of adjusting to a roommate in close quarters and the need to strike a balance between social and academic commitments, Dr. Minetti says.

Learning to live with other people teaches students to be flexible and tolerant and broadens their perspectives on life. Living with a roommate alerts the student to values and priorities about study time, privacy and sharing.

Exposure to a variety of lifestyles challenges the student to clarify his own values and make decisions accordingly. This decision-making process is crucial for the student's development from adolescence to young adulthood, Dr. Minetti explains.

Homesickness and roommate problems might arise during the first weeks of the term, but in most cases these subside as a student feels more accepted and comfortable in the college setting.

An academic adjustment also takes place once a student is settled in the residence hall. Often a student comes to college with high academic expectations, only to find college-level work much more demanding than high school.

"The A student may become the B student in college, and parents and students should be prepared to readjust those grade standards," Dr. Minetti says, "especially until the student learns how to budget study time wisely."

In addition, some students change majors several times during the course of their stay at MSU.

"Many students come to college expecting to become physicians or lawyers only to find that landscape architecture, a major they had never considered, is much more appealing and realistic for them," Dr. Minetti notes.

Residence hall programs are designed for most major concerns that might arise during the year. Academic support programs on how to take tests or write papers are offered, and each residence hall is equipped with large study areas and lounges.

Dances, special dinners, films and other social activities are continually available in the residence halls and, for those who thrive on athletic activity, MSU has an extensive intramural program.

Dr. Minetti advises students to bring only the things they will need, such as blankets and desk lamps, clothes for the season and perhaps a bicycle.

Plants, stereo, things for the walls and small knick-knacks can also be packed away for school — but Dr. Minetti cautions students to remember they will be sharing the room with another person. He suggests making decisions about drapery panels, bedspreads and other items with the roommate.

SHOULD GET TEST

A small child who is not usually awakened by a loud sound may be suffering from a hearing loss, warns the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Such children should be given a complete hearing test, Crusade officials add.

ULS Teachers Attend Confab

Six University Liggett School, (ULS), faculty members are attending the annual conference meeting of the Independent Schools Ass'n. of the Central States, (ISACS), in Chicago, Ill. this week.

ISACS encompasses over 100 independent schools in 15 midwestern states and provides a number of services to its member institutions.

While the organization evaluates and accredits a member institution every seven years, its philosophy in developing standards tries to preserve the freedom of individual schools to practice its own theory and philosophy of education.

ISACS serves as a liaison among its member schools, and between its members and state and federal governments.

ULS faculty members attending the 1978 conference in Chicago are Daniel McGuire, chairman of the mathematics department, Eugene Gill, an Upper School history teacher, Paul Butler, administrative assistant and reading teacher in the Lower School, Frederick Woodhams, an Upper School English teacher, Marlene David, assistant head of the Upper School, and Lynn Rask, an English teacher in the Middle School.

PWP to Hear Antique Talk

The next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners, (PWP), will be held Friday, November 10, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

A coffee hour at 7:30 p.m. will precede the meeting. All parents who are single by reasons of death, divorce, separation or never married are eligible to attend.

The guest speaker on Friday will be Ernest J. DuMouchelle, one of the owners of DuMouchelle Art Galleries in the Renaissance area of Detroit. His family has handled estate auctions and the sale of antiques and art collections in this country and Canada since 1927.

PWP members and guests are encouraged to bring small pieces they consider valuable to the meeting. Mr. DuMouchelle will give his opinion as to whether the article has any value.

The Amigo committee will host a get-acquainted party for all prospective and new members who have recently joined PWP. The date is Friday, November 17.

For additional information on Grosse Pointe Chapter activities, call 881-5892.

Reminder Given by Post Office

There will be no delivery of mail, except Special Delivery and perishable items on Saturday, November 11, Veterans Day.

Postmaster Joseph J. Loukotka in a news release said all post office stations and branches will be closed to the general public on that day.

Self Service Postal Centers will continue to be open on a round-the-clock basis, providing stamps, postal cards, stamped envelopes, parcel post scales and rate charts, and collection boxes.

In Detroit, the self-service postal unit is located at the General Post Office, 1401 W. Fort street.

The regular holiday schedule of collections from street letter boxes also will be in effect.

Aim to go right and you will have plenty of elbow room.

Musicians Sell Fruit at SHS

The South High School Bands and Orchestra group will hold its annual citrus fruit sale from Wednesday, November 8, through Monday, November 27.

The fruit is expected to arrive from the Indian River area of Florida about Tuesday, December 5.

Students sell the fruit each year to raise money for instruments, uniforms, travel expenses and summer music camp scholarships.

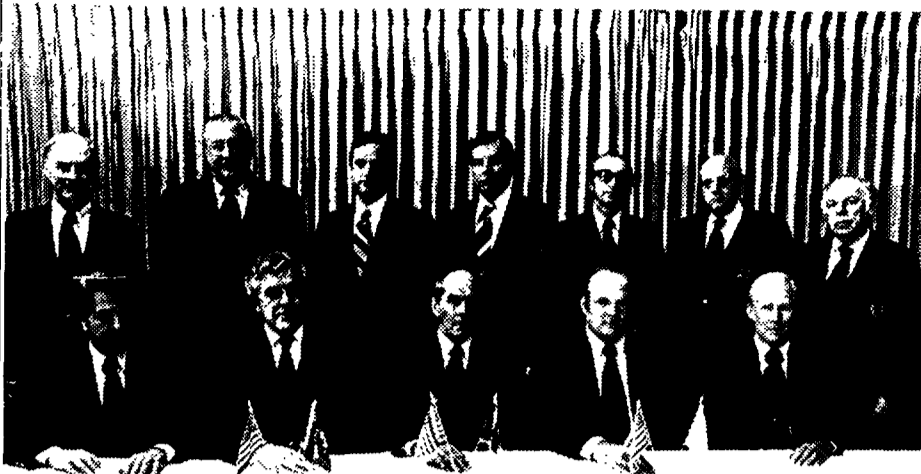

Last year, they purchased a harp for the music department and helped send nearly 50 students to camps.

The fruit comes in two sizes of boxes and two varieties. Students will take orders for tangelos and pink grapefruit in small boxes for $5 each or large boxes for $9 each.

For more information, call the music department at 343-2140.

Liggett Boys Have Good Fall

This fall, the boys sports program at the University Liggett Middle School has been unusually successful.

The varsity soccer team has faltered only once during its campaign, compiling an 8-1 record with the only loss coming at the hands of rival Detroit Country Day School, (DCDS), 3-0.

Since then, however, the team has compiled a string of seven consecutive victories while avenging their only loss by defeating DCDS, 3-1, for the first time in more than five years.

The defensive chores have been ably manned by Jeff Rasimas, Bob Ryan and Peter McClure. Dan Bowen has played well in the goal, allowing just seven to get by, while the scoring punch has come from Larry Van Kirk, (13 goals), Rick Roberts, (eight goals), and David Fitz-Simons, (five goals).

Bon Secours Hospital is coordinating a new class to give area high school students a first-hand look at clinical science in a hospital setting.

Called "Clinical Medicine Biology," the course allows high school seniors who excel in biology to study with hospital personnel and gain knowledge of the application of clinical science in medicine.

The 22 area students selected for the course participate in lectures, view demonstrations of laboratory procedures and study with members of the medical staff and other personnel.

During the class, held on Saturdays in Bon Secours Science Hall, students study topics such as cell structure, blood chemistry and diet.

Bon Secours Hospital's department of medical education is sponsoring the course, which will continue through the fall, in cooperation with two area high schools, Notre Dame and Regina.

GPA Students Dig Fossils

Rock Glen, Canada, was the destination for Grosse Pointe Academy (GPA) fourth and fifth grade classes last month. Their mission was a mini-archaeological dig for fossils present in that area, the residual of the most recent ice age which dates back well over a million years ago.

Having spent more than six weeks on a unit entitled Rocks, Minerals and Fossils, the students enjoyed discovering Trilobites, Colony corals and Brachiopods which are forms of sea life they had been reading about in their text books.

The adventure of climbing ground in the extremely rugged Rock Glen area added an excitement to fossils that faculty members find impossible to create in a classroom.

Besides acquiring additions to their private collections of rocks, minerals and fossil specimens, some students have been inspired to create pieces of jewelry from articles amassed during the dig.

Although the trip was the culmination of the unit, the jewelry will be exhibited and available for purchase at the Academy school supper scheduled for February 6.

After a picnic lunch and informal nature hikes, students returned and Larry Swart, one of six faculty members accompanying the students, summed up the expedition by saying, "No child returned home without at least one fossil and one pound of dirt for mothers to extricate from their clothing."

Heavy Traffic Faces Hunters

Although northbound traffic prior to the opening of firearm deer season should be heavy from Friday, November 10, through the morning of the Wednesday, November 15, opener, hunters should encounter few traffic problems to slow them down, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Previous midweek openings indicate that the bulk of Michigan's 700,000-plus hunters should travel to the northern two-thirds of the state on Tuesday, November 14," stated Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

"Traffic on major roads leading north will be heavy that day, but barring any weather problems, hunters should be traveling at maximum speeds everywhere, with two possible exceptions," he said.

In metropolitan Detroit, right hand lanes of I-96 are closed in both directions between Novi and Milford roads for pavement repairs.

In East Michigan, northbound I-75 is reduced from three to two lanes near the Zilwaukee Bridge north of Saginaw.

Weekend traffic headed for deer country should be slightly heavier than normal November 10 to 12. Volumes should be near normal on Monday, November 13.

Northbound traffic should be heaviest at the following times:

November 10, between 3 and 10 p.m., November 11, between 11 a.m. and 8 p.m., November 12, between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m., November 13, between 3 and 8 p.m., November 14, between 2 p.m. and 12 midnight and November 15, between 5 and 10 a.m.

Mackinac Bridge officials expect nearly 25,000 hunter-vehicle crossings both ways before the firearm deer season ends Thursday, November 30, up about five percent over last season.

Nearly 100,000 buck deer should be taken this season, with most bagged in the first week. That figure is down slightly from last year's record 105,000 kill due to a drop in deer population over the severe winter. The majority of hunters will be in the northern half of Lower Michigan.

Auto Club reminds hunters that they must wear either a hat, vest or coat of blaze orange to hunt public lands. The club also will provide traffic bulletins via radio for travelling hunters between 3 and 11 p.m. November 10 and 8:15 to 11 p.m. November 11 to 14.

ULS Players Open Season

The University Liggett School (ULS), Players will open their 1978-79 season on Friday, November 10, at 8:30 p.m. with their production of John Guare's award-winning play, "The House of Blue Leaves."

Playing roles in the production are Frank Corliss, Jason Ekelman, Gidget Jackson, Kelly Lampe, Andrea Feeser, Doug Rose, Dawn Hogan, Hilarey Feeser, Judy Murray, Adam Davis and Jack Scott. Chuck Gifford is director of the group.

The public is invited to attend a ULS Players performance of "The House of Blue Leaves" on either November 10, Saturday, November 11, at 8:30 p.m., or Sunday, November 12, at 2 p.m.

Tickets at $1.50 will be available at the door. The auditorium is located on the Cook road campus of ULS.

Before you sign up for any new Interest/Checking Plan, read what NBD's UniBank now offers you.

On November 1, 1978, the Federal government allows banks to transfer money from savings accounts to checking accounts automatically with the customer's prior approval.

This allows two important customer benefits: You can earn interest on money in your savings account until it is automatically transferred to checking; or you can be protected against occasional checking account overdrafts.

It is important to understand that interest/checking plans are definitely not for everybody. If you're a customer who maintains a large average balance, then interest/checking may work to your advantage. If however, you keep a smaller balance, you may pay more for an interest/checking plan than with your present checking account. This is because check service charges could very well exceed the savings interest earned.

Find out what's right for you. Before you select any interest/checking plan, analyze and thoroughly understand your own situation.

Different customers have different needs. Recognizing this, NBD offers you a variety of ways to help you best utilize your available funds. Starting with—

UniBank—If you're a UniBank customer, you already know about its many advantages. And if you're not a UniBank customer, you should know that no other bank gives you so much for maintaining a $500 minimum balance in your saving account.

With UniBank, you get No-Charge Checking plus 5% annual interest on your savings (compounded continuously to push the yield up to 5.20%).

The UniBank Consolidated Statement gives you a record of all your savings and checking transactions—including a numerical listing of checks—in one monthly statement.

NBD's 24-Hour Banker gives you access to your money any time of day, 7 days a week at over 30 convenient locations. Extended hours and Saturday drive-in banking add to your banking convenience.

You may also apply for Master Charge and Visa Cards, two of the most widely accepted charge cards in the world.

In addition, NBD offers three options you can add to UniBank to give you even greater flexibility in managing your funds.

UniBank plus Checkmate—When you qualify for Checkmate, we establish a line of credit for you at the bank. Then, anytime you want to write yourself a loan, we automatically cover it by taking money out of your line of credit and putting it into your checking account. Best of all, you pay only simple interest on the outstanding loan and can repay it at any time.

UniBank plus Overdraft Protection—If you occasionally overdraw your checking account, our new Overdraft Protection feature allows you to use your UniBank Savings Account as a back-up.

Here's how it works:

Under this plan, overdrafts are paid up to the balance in your UniBank Savings Account by an automatic transfer to your UniBank Checking Account. There is a charge for each transfer. To qualify for the Overdraft Protection feature, you must have a minimum balance of $500 in UniBank EveryDay Interest savings at the time you open the account.

UniBank/Cash Management Account—With this plan, you can keep your funds in your savings account earning interest until they are needed in your checking account to cover checks. At that time, the necessary money is transferred automatically from savings to checking. This means you can now earn 5% annual interest (compounded continuously) in savings while maintaining a $0 balance in your checking account.

Whether a UniBank/Cash Management Account makes sense for you depends entirely on the number of checks you write and the average balance you maintain in your savings account.

Here's an example: With your UniBank/Cash Management Account, if you write 15 checks per month, your service charge will be $3.25. And if your average savings balance is $750 per month, you will earn $3.18 interest. So, you would just about break even.

Ideally, the interest you earn on your savings should exceed the service charges you incur on your checking account.

To find out more about UniBank, stop in at a nearby National Bank of Detroit office. Your NBD representative can tell you more about all of our UniBank services and help you decide which account best meets your needs.

Let's Talk Real Estate
 by John E. Brink

What effect will President Carter's inflation deflation program have on property values? This is the question of the day for many home owners who are considering selling and repurchasing.

We all know money will be harder to get so let's analyze the money situation. If 12% mortgages should become a reality, a $60,000, 30 year mortgage will be $617.17 principal and interest. Compare this with a 10%, 30 year mortgage of now, which is $526.55 P & I. This amounts to $90.62 more each month, $1,087.44 a year! This could mean driving a car three years instead of two.

For the people who feel a larger home is a necessity, they might consider adding to their present home. They will find out, however, that the new additions will probably cost more than $90.00 a month. So most people will probably bite the bullet and buy anyway. They'll rationalize that appreciation will help recover their costs and they'll be right!

Detroit prices are up primarily because the price gap between the suburbs and Detroit has become unrealistic! Grosse Pointe prices, being lower, have a very obvious price gap when compared with other like, elite communities. Grosse Pointe will continue to appreciate when other areas have "topped out" or stabilized. We are in the very enviable position of knowing where our property values are going.

Summing it all up, we still have a strong market. We are still a bargain to incoming buyers. Because we are also prime properties for lending institutions, we shouldn't have too great a problem finding mortgages! It's important to know your property value and have that knowledge updated every six months. Why not call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, today? We have an excellent staff, anxious to help you in any way they can. That's our job!!

Myths About Marriage Need to Be Examined

The shortcomings of marriage are being spelled out on magazine covers, railed at on television and whispered about at weddings, but Dr. Vera Borosage, Michigan State University specialist in Family and Child Sciences, believes marriage in America is not a dying institution. Dr. Borosage spoke at the recent College Week program sponsored by the MSU Co-operative Extension Service on the MSU campus.

For most people courtship is a time of excitement, of discovery, new understanding and warmth — but what happens after you marry?

According to Dr. Borosage, adjusting to and living with the everyday real person in your mate is seldom easy. There is no secret formula for marital bliss. "Every person is different, so every relationship is different," she said, "but the mental attitude of spouses toward marriage has a tremendous influence upon whether their partnership continues successfully or fails."

People often accept as truth certain myths about marriage which persist in our society, and these myths influence attitudes. Too often people marry with the wrong ideas about what marriage will or will not do for them. Is marriage really problems galore? According to Dr. Borosage, that attitude breeds problems. "A marriage doesn't need crepe-hangers. Negative attitudes have broken more marriages than money."

The myth that marriage is no bed of roses has been processed into our brain since childhood, according to Dr. Borosage. "The American educational system is missing the boat. Children should be given a realistic picture of marriage in school."

Though gloomy statistics indicate one of every three marriages will fail, Dr. Borosage pointed out that America is a marrying society anyway.

"Marriage can't be all that unpleasant — 60 percent of divorced people remarry, and there are still two out of three marriages which don't end in divorce."

She predicted that the divorce rate will probably stop rising and stabilize. One reason may be that today the average person marries at an older age, and an older-age person will probably have a more realistic picture of what to expect from marriage.

Too many people believe the myth that marriage is a downhill experience, according to Dr. Borosage. Most certainly the honeymoon ends, but there's no reason why a marital relationship should be downhill, boring or empty.

Couples can keep a marriage alive. If two people strive to grow as individuals, there is a much better chance that they will continue to grow as a couple, she predicted.

A Cornell University study shows that when couples reach middle age and older, marriages are happier.

The unhappiest years of marriage are when couples are young: during the first 10 years. Financial problems are most likely to occur during the early stages of marriage, and children often lead to marital conflict.

"Once children go off to lead their own lives, the marriage usually gets better — depending, of course, upon the quality of the marriage from the beginning."

Dr. Borosage does not recommend that spouses give up their own individuality and goals. She called to mind the classic case of a wife who sacrifices her time and educational pursuits to work and support the family while her husband finishes school.

The wife becomes isolated in a menial job where she has no opportunity for growth, and suddenly she doesn't measure up to her spouse's standards.

So he divorces her, and she's left with no fruits for her efforts.

"Women should not allow this to happen. Let your husband work part-time. Even if it takes him a year longer to get through school, it will be better for the marriage."

Another myth that should be exploded is the one that contends men are different from women. There are biological differences between the sexes; men are physically stronger, but most women are perfectly capable of doing most jobs men can do.

Except for biological differences, any other differences are learned—not inherent, Dr. Borosage believes. "People are individuals and can't be stereotyped. We need to respond to the person—it doesn't matter what the sex is."

Can children cure an ailing marriage? "That's another silly myth," says Dr. Borosage. If the marriage is wavering, a child is likely to totally destroy what little stability is left.

Is marriage a solution for problems and unhappiness? No, it is not, according to the specialist. Marriage does not change basic personality traits. If people tend to be unhappy or negative, they bring these attitudes with them into the marriage.

Marriage cannot fulfill all of a person's needs either, she said. No couple should expect everything from each other. Each spouse will have needs the other cannot fulfill.

For example, one may want to see a football game while the other wants to see a play. There is no reason why either should give up those individual pursuits.

"Find a friend who shares your interests to fill the gap."

Another legend perpetuated by our society contends that successful marriages have no conflict. "Perhaps if two sheep got married, that might be true," said Dr. Borosage. "But good marriages between human beings do have conflicts."

Successfully married people try to solve their differences; they don't internalize problems. They will compromise or agree to disagree, and after the conflict has been discussed it is forgotten.

"Couples must have the ability to overcome anger and put disagreements in the past. Part of forgiving is forgetting."

Is good communication the cure-all for marital conflict? Not always, according to the specialist. All the talking in the world can't resolve some conflicts or make them any easier to live with.

Furthermore, there are times when "telling all" can make things worse. Spouses should exercise self-control and think about how what they are about to say might affect their mate.

"A lot of marriages have been destroyed because people can't keep their mouths shut and say horrible things to each other," Dr. Borosage asserted.

Another common myth maintains that marriage is more important to women than to men. "That's bunk," Dr. Borosage said. In the old days, women were eager to marry for economic security. Nowadays women are better educated, have more career opportunities and can earn a substantial living on their own.

Furthermore, research has shown that married men are happier, live longer and have fewer psychosomatic illnesses than single men.

In addition, research has shown that while husbands are out in the business world, more homemakers, who are often lonely and isolated, are contracting psychosomatic illnesses and becoming alcoholics.

Wine Lines

by John Lundberg

One reason for storing wines on their sides is to keep the cork moist. Another is to let the sediment in the wine settle. It is important when serving that the sediment is kept out of the wine glasses. The best way to do this is to decant the wine first. Take the bottle, holding it in the same horizontal position it was in while stored, and pour it slowly, but with one movement, into the decanter. When you see the sediment coming up, stop pouring. The wine that is left in the bottle is good for cooking but not for drinking. To see the sediment clearly while pouring, place a lit candle behind the neck of the bottle.

At PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, Detroit, we have another reason for storing wines and other beverages. We are interested in making available the liquors, wines, beers and champagnes that our customers want. We are happy to be able to make available the variety of quality beverages necessary to meet the varying demands of our community. Stop in and see our fine selection today. Open 10-10 Mon.-Thurs., 10-11 Fri. & Sat., noon-10 Sun. Tel. 885-0626.

HANDY HINT:
 If the cork crumbles while being extracted, pour the wine through a tea strainer.

Advice on Home Heaters Is Offered by Institute

Home heaters that have sat idle all summer can pose a serious fire threat this winter if lighted before they are properly cleaned.

The Insurance Information Institute in a news release advises homeowners to follow a few precautions before using heating units for the first time.

Before firing up furnaces and space heaters:

- Clean out the unit thoroughly, carefully vacuuming nooks and hard-to-reach places. Dust and other trash can accumulate in the unit. When a heater is lit, this dust can ignite all at once—sending a huge ball of flame shooting out of the furnace.
- Check for a leaking gas valve by carefully smelling the air around the heater. If an odor of gas is detected, have a repairman check the unit before trying to light it.
- Carefully follow the instructions for lighting the unit. If the device has a pilot light, make sure it is burning correctly before firing the main part of the heater.
- If a person is unsure how to light his unit properly, he should consider calling a plumber or furnace contractor to do it for him.
- After the heater is lit, keep everything away from it. Be especially careful with bathroom heaters, that the door is not pushed back against it and that clothes are not left hanging near it or piled up next to it.
- Before operating fireplaces or wood-burning stoves:
 - Check the chimney to make sure that it is in good condition and that it has a flue lining. Check for missing flue tiles and cracked masonry.
 - Also make sure that the chimney is free of bird nests; otherwise, there could be a big ball of smoke billowing inside.
 - Do not use a fireplace chimney for venting a wood stove unless the fireplace opening is sealed off to prevent toxic gases from backing up into the room.
 - Avoid connecting more than one heating device to a single chimney flue because flue gases and sparks may pass from one flue opening into another, causing unsatisfactory operation.
 - Use a wood that has been seasoned at least six months, and preferably a year, to prevent the formation of creosote on the lining of the chimney flue. A spark can ignite creosote and cause what can be extremely hot and dangerous fires.
 - Before lighting the wood, make sure the flue is open; or the house will fill with smoke.
 - When burning wax firelogs, only use one at a time. When two or more are used together, the heat inside the chimney is so hot that the soot accumulation will catch fire, sending sparks out the chimney onto the roof and into trees.

Michigan Heart Ass'n. Views Nature of Stroke

One of the most frightening of all the afflictions that can befall the human body has always been stroke, says the Michigan Heart Ass'n.

Located in the brain that most mysterious of all human organs, it was thought that a stroke came completely without warning, leaving its victims with a variety of impaired capacities ranging from slight speech difficulties to total disability.

After years of research and careful observation, however, much of the mystery is gone. Many of the causes are now known, and diagnostic techniques, drugs, surgery and therapy have given the stroke patient a much brighter outlook than was once possible.

Just as important, it is now known that a stroke often gives warning of its impending approach — days, weeks or even months before it happens.

According to Dr. Richard Antell, Flint internist and president of the Michigan Heart Ass'n, the warning signs of stroke are the following:

- A sudden, temporary weakness or numbness of the face, arm or leg.

• Temporary difficulty or loss of speech, or understanding speech.

• Sudden, temporary dimness or loss of vision, particularly in one eye.

• An episode of double vision.

• Unexplained headaches, or a change in the pattern of headaches.

• Temporary dizziness or unsteadiness.

• A recent change in personality or mental ability.

What, exactly, is a stroke? Dr. Antell explained, "A stroke occurs when a portion of the brain ceases to receive oxygen-rich blood, because of either a blood clot or hemorrhage. Deprived of oxygen, brain cells cannot function, and that part of our body controlled by those cells cannot function either."

"An estimated 1,840,000 people in the U.S. are afflicted with stroke. In 1975, stroke killed nearly 200,000 people. These are tragic figures when so many strokes could be prevented."

How? "In general, if you're following a 'heart-healthy' lifestyle, you're also reducing your risk of stroke, since stroke is a form of cardiovascular disease."

"First among the risk factors," said Dr. Antell, "is high blood pressure. A man with a systolic blood pressure over 150 has nearly four times the risk of stroke as a man whose reading is under 120."

"Next is cigaret smoking. A man who smokes more than a pack of cigarets a day runs a risk nearly five times as great a risk as that of a non-smoker."

"High cholesterol is another factor. A man with a serum cholesterol of 250 or over runs three times the risk of stroke as a man with a reading below 194."

"Also, I must add — watch your weight and get regular exercise."

"And remember the warning signs mentioned earlier. If you have had one or more of them, see your doctor. Early detection is still the best weapon that your doctor — and you — have."

Dr. Antell concluded, "If you'd like more information on stroke, just call any office of the Michigan Heart Ass'n. Remember, we're fighting for your life."

The association is a United Way agency.

GP Unitarian Singles Meet

A social hour at 8 p.m. will open the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Singles meeting Sunday, November 19, at the church at the corner of Maumee avenue and Neff road.

The program will feature Jean Graham, discussing antique furniture and collectables. Charge is $3.50 for members, $4 for non-members. Further information may be obtained by calling Nell Oliver, 882-5180, or Martha Shumaker, 468-8856.

'Have and Eat' Cake Session

"How to Have Your Cake and Eat It Too" is theme for La Societe des Jardiniere's meeting next Thursday, November 16. Hostesses for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon are the Mesdames Bruce MacLean and Larry Vandermark.

The program will feature Karen, of Karen's Nook, demonstrating how to create edible vegetable bouquets. Some of the tools she uses will be available for purchase.

LET TAX DOLLARS HELP FINANCE YOUR RETIREMENT

Yes, you can have peace of mind and profit, too, by setting up a tax deferred Retirement Account here at Colonial Federal Savings.

- You'll be happy to learn how easy it is to set up your own retirement program. And how profitable. Either an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) or, if you are self-employed, a Keogh Plan Retirement Account, will help tremendously.
- For your convenience Richard Fournier, V.P. and Thomas Bush, V.P. have reserved time to meet with you by appointment. Or they will participate in your group discussion on retirement financing.
- Put away before-tax dollars.
- Earn almost 8% tax deferred interest.
- Pay less income tax.
- Be protected by Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation.
- Increase your retirement nest egg by as much as 40%.
- Past or future lump-sum pension or profit sharing distribution can be rolled-over into a tax deferred account.
- No fees. No costs.

Be sure you have all the facts and advantages. Call 886-1080 for a meeting with Mr. Fournier or Mr. Bush.

Chess Group Plans Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Chess Club elected officers for the year and laid plans for a pre-holiday club tournament at its annual meeting Tuesday, October 31.

The tournament will run for three weeks beginning Tuesday, November 21. Players will be assigned to sections according to their Chess skill—from novice to expert. Officers elected were A. Lawson Potter, president, Robert McCarter, secretary, and Clarence Knobel, treasurer.

The club has playing sessions every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the War Memorial Alger House, 32 Lakeshore road.

Interested Chess players in the area are invited to telephone 886-3226 for membership information.

The Northeast Guidance Community Mental Health Center will welcome its new director, Dr. Jonathan York, at an open house reception on Thursday, November 16 at 13340 East Warren avenue, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Dr. Eli Rubin, past director, will be honored for his 10 years of service to the center.

Dr. York has been working with the Saint Lawrence Hospital Community Mental Health Center in Lansing since 1974. He has provided his assistance to mental health centers throughout the community in the area of service to older citizens.

The Northeast Guidance Center is a comprehensive mental health facility serving northeast Detroit, the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods.

For more information, call 824-8000.

Soccer, an increasingly popular sport in this country, has a long tradition in the ULS athletic program. Students in each of the school's three divisions — the Lower, Middle and Upper Schools — have an opportunity to learn and to play soccer.

Season Starts for Rockettes

The Detroit Rockettes, women members of the Detroit Curling Club, opened their season in mid-October with a business meeting and luncheon at Lochmoor Club.

Play began last Tuesday, November 7, at the curling club located in West Forest avenue, Detroit.

Isabelle MacKellar is Rockettes president this year. Louellen Bowling is vice-president and membership chairman. Secretary and treasurer, respectively, are Linda Schneider and Judy Savageau.

Committee chairmen include Evie McKay, hospitality; Mary Oliver assisted by Kathy Pearce, Bonspiel; Ginny Bartsch, games and rules; Sally Broderick, assistant games and rules and publicity; and Frances Gadd, representative to the United States Women's Curling Association, who reported on a USWCA board meeting she attended October 3 at the North Shore Country Club, Glenview, Ill.

The 1979 USWCA will be held February 27 through March 3 in Winchester, Mass. The winner will represent the United States in the first World Ladies Curling Championship, to be held March 17 through 23 in Perth, Scotland.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Woods MICHIGAN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council will be considering the following proposed ordinance for second reading and final adoption at its meeting scheduled for November 20, 1978. The proposed ordinance is available for public inspection at the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

ORDINANCE

PROPOSED

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND TITLE II, CHAPTER 3 OF THE CITY CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS OF 1975 ENTITLED SIDEWALKS; BY ADDING THERETO SECTIONS TO CONTROL THE PLACEMENT OF DRIVEWAY APPROACHES AND TO PROVIDE FOR AN APPEAL PROCEDURE.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. That Title II, Chapter 3 of the City Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1975 be amended by adding the following Sections thereto:

2-3-14 PLACEMENT OF DRIVEWAY APPROACH: All driveways constructed or re-constructed upon dedicated street right of ways shall be located thereupon so as not to encroach upon the street right of way in front of any adjoining or adjacent lot, unless the owner(s) of the adjoining or adjacent lot shall consent to such construction or re-construction by executing a written consent therefor. Such written consent shall be filed with the City as an attachment to the application for the permit of construction. Such driveway flare shall not exceed one (1) foot.

2-3-15 APPEAL PROCEDURE: In the event that the consent of the property owner(s) of the adjoining or adjacent lot cannot be obtained, the person proposing to construct or re-construct the driveway approach may request a hearing before the City Council for such permission. The City Council shall hold a hearing on such request after having caused notice of said hearing to be sent, regular mail, to the property owner(s) of the adjoining or adjacent lot as shown on the tax records maintained by the City. The City Council may authorize the proposed construction or re-construction on the street right of way upon finding that same is not detrimental to the surrounding neighborhood or that such proposed construction or re-construction is the most feasible location for the placement of the driveway approach. Such driveway flare shall not exceed one (1) foot.

SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Ordinance shall become effective twenty (20) days after the date of its enactment.

NOTICE

To All Residents of the Grosse Pointe Communities:

You are invited to attend a public meeting to be held at 8:00 P.M. on Thursday, November 16, 1978, at Pierce School Auditorium, 15430 Kercheval Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the problems, requirements and potential for the control of Dutch Elm Disease. Dr. Garold Gregory, Scientist with the Forest Service Branch of the United States Department of Agriculture will be present to answer questions related to saving the American Elm Tree. The City of Grosse Pointe Park, during the past summer, has participated in a study and the use of two systemic fungicides for saving the already diseased American Elm Trees. We believe the disease can be controlled, that is, losses kept low, but this will require effort, money and understanding.

Therefore, your presence at this very informative public meeting is important if you are interested in preserving the American Elm Trees in the Grosse Pointe communities.

Mistakes Cost North Game

In the annual battle between North and South High Schools for football supremacy, the Blue Devils took a 21-15 decision from the Norsemen on Saturday, November 5, at North. It was a game punctuated by costly North mistakes and constant South pressure. Here, North receiver BILL FLEMING tries to evade numberous South tacklers, while a photographer, (left), seeks to capture the moment.

SHS Comes from Behind to Take Norsemen, 21-15

By Bill Bradfield

The South High School Blue Devil football team ended their season with a magnificent 21-15 victory over North High School Saturday, November 4. The win leaves South with a 7-2 record for the year.

Sophomore Ted Formanczyk scored the first two Devil touchdowns as South jumped out to an early 13-0 lead.

His first came on a one-yard scamper after North fumbled on its opening drive. Formanczyk's second score came on a 51-yard pass play from quarterback Bob Baker.

North quarterback Bob Brown connected for two consecutive touchdowns on passes to John Long as the Norsemen jumped ahead, 15-13.

The Devils, however, drove 66 yards with junior fullback John Cammett, scoring on a one-yard blast. Baker got in for the two-point conversion and South had all it needed to win.

"We played a very inspired game of football," said South head coach Russ Hepner. "It was a fair, clean, hard-fought game. I think the fans as well as the players conducted themselves very well, which is a positive reflection of both schools."

South also won the annual senior tug-of-war contest at halftime, an event which the blue and gold have never lost.

The Devil defense, led by the strong performances of Mike Bevier, Frank Coates, Jim Daley, Jerry Bric and Steve Brandt, had an extraordinary year. The Devils did not allow a single point scored on them in the fourth quarter all season.

"It's been a pleasant experience working with 56 players on the team," said coach Hepner. "With that many guys, not everyone gets to play, but these guys kept their enthusiasm up from the beginning of the two-a-day practices until the end. It was a very, very, successful season."

North High coach Jim Krucki said his team's six turnovers are what cost them the game.

"Our mistakes hurt us badly," he said. "We had a better chance in the second half but we couldn't get the ball in. It was just like I told a reporter before the game: the team which makes the least mistakes will win the game."

North had four fumbles, one during its first possession of the ball. In addition, two of its passes were intercepted.

While saying he was "very proud" of his players, and particularly praised defensive end David Fry, the coach admitted his team had "a little trouble" containing South quarterback Baker. "He's an excellent quarterback," he said.

As for the season, coach Krucki said he was a little disappointed. Although he felt the defense was one of the better ones he's had, the turnovers of the offense were damaging all year.

NHS Tankers Are Stopped

By Margaret Sobieski

The winning streak of the North High School girls' varsity swim team came to a halt as they were defeated by Our Lady of Mercy, 103-71, on Thursday, November 2.

First place was taken in the 200-medley relay by Frances Shook, Margaret Wittmer, Cheryl Stoyka and Jenni Elie, while Amy Rentschler took second in the 200 freestyle, and Jeanette Metes placed fourth.

Frances Shook and Chris Truhol placed first and fifth, respectively, in the 200 IM, and, in the 50-freestyle, Jenni Elie took second, with Jane Beck placing fifth.

Once again the divers did well, as Jodi Stout placed first and Kris Mogk, third. First and fourth places were taken in the 100 butterfly by Margaret Wittmer and Lisa Mediodia, respectively. Jenni Elie took second in the 100 freestyle, while Jane Beck came in fifth.

Finishing second in the 500 freestyle was Amy Rentschler, with Jill Figley, fifth. In the 100 backstroke, Frances Shook finished third and Chris Truhol, fourth.

Jeanette Metes placed second in the 100 breaststroke as Cheryl Stoyka followed closely behind with a third. In the last event, the 400 freestyle relay, Margaret Wittmer, Lisa Mediodia, Amy Rentschler and Jeanette Metes finished second.

Coach Fred Michalik commented, "Everyone did a great job, especially the freshmen. The girls have been working very hard this year and I'm very pleased with their performances."

Lil' Wings Win Third Game

The Grosse Pointe Lil' Wings travelled to the Rochester Sports Arena for a Squirt AA matchup with the Avon Islanders on Sunday, November 5, and Grosse Pointe won the tightly contested game, 2-1.

The Wings scored goals in the first and second periods on two well-executed plays. On the first, Joe Sullivan carried the puck behind the Avon net and slipped a backhand pass across the front of the goal. Andrew Roy was "johnny-on-the-spot" in front and banged home the first score of the game.

In the second period, the Wings got their second goal from Kevin Tisdale on a pass from D. J. Ketalhut as they broke across the Avon blue line. Doug Avedisian started the play and also drew an assist.

Avon scored late in the second period when C. Gauden picked up a loose puck at center ice as he left the penalty box and skated in alone on the Wing net.

The third period was scoreless with both teams applying pressure on the opponents goal.

The Wings record now stands at 3-1-1.

North Harriers Fourth in State

By Mark Osler

The North High School cross country team, after an undefeated season in which it won four major invitations, finished a somewhat disappointing fourth at the state championships Saturday, November 4, in Howell.

The Norsemen were favored to win the championship in the season's final poll going into the meet. The winner was Brighton, with a score of 85 points. The runner-up was defending champion Grand Blanc with 95.

Royal Oak Kimball finished third with a total of 194 points. North, champion in '73, '75 and '76, had 207 points. The individual winner in the team race was Doug Tolson in a time of 14:47.4 for the three-mile course.

First to cross for the Norsemen was junior Jim Schmidt with a time of 15:17. He placed 13th overall. Next was Dave Schepke, taking 17th in 15:24. Senior Dave Hofmann finished 22nd for the green and gold in 15:32. Steve Lugo followed, taking 68th in 16:05.

Wright Wilson was spiked at the start, but survived to finish 89th, completing the scoring for the Norsemen in 16:19. John Bucacink was close behind in 16:20, finishing 90th. Dan VanVliet finished 99th for North in 16:25.

Five of this year's top seven runners, including top man Schmidt, are juniors and will return next season.

Nervous Winner

Nervousness made Michelle Spivak of Alger place a second place winner in a deodorant firm's nation-wide "Nervous Is Why..." contest. She competed with almost 24,000 contestants by describing a nervous situation that would make an attention-getting deodorant commercial.

Girls at ULS Are Net Champs

For the second time in the history of the tournament, University Liggett School's, (ULS), girls tennis team has won the State Class B championship. In Kalamazoo on Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21, the ULS girls topped rival Kingswood, the team that has won the tournament in the intervening years since ULS last won the championship in 1973, the year of the tournament's inception.

The ULS girls had earlier swept their own regionals with a perfect score of 28. Each of the ULS entrants placed first in her respective division. Members of the victorious regional team were Susie Mascarin, Karen Edwards, Carolyn Danaher and Carol DiGiuseppe in singles, Lisa Peck and Julie Doerer at number one doubles, Ann Lesesne and Shelly White, and Amy Salot and Julie Robinson.

In Kalamazoo, the ULS girls scored 30 points in the tournament, followed by Kingswood with 25 and East Grand Rapids with 18 points. Susie Mascarin, first in number one singles play, became state Class B champion. Other singles winners were Karen Edwards at number two and Carol DiGiuseppe at number four.

JOHNSON HELPS MSU

Julie Johnson of Newcastle road is a sophomore member of the Michigan State University field hockey team which recently won the State of Michigan Amateur Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, (SMAIAW), championship. A 1977 graduate of University-Liggett School, Julie scored in every game of the tournament. MSU will now compete for the Midwest championship at LaCrosse, Wis., over the weekend of November 11 and 12. Julie is an honor student majoring in elementary education.

In doubles play, Amy Salot and Julie Robinson were first at number three. Carolyn Danaher was runner-up number three singles, and Lisa Peck and Julie Doerer were runner-up at number one doubles play. Other members of the Class B championship team were Ann Lesesne and Shelly White.

Two horribly annoying reasons to introduce Mobil Super Unleaded Gasoline.

A car should be seen and not heard. That's why we're introducing new Mobil Super Unleaded Gasoline with a higher octane level.

Not only does it help knock the knocks and pings out of your engine, it could also give your car more power than most other gasolines. (In fact, millions of cars on the road today are being cheated of peak engine performance.)

And what's more, if your car is properly tuned, and still shakes, sputters and backfires after you turn the key off, using Mobil Super Unleaded may help eliminate all that. And that's whether your car is new or old.

And even if you've been using leaded premium gasoline you'll be glad to know that Mobil Super Unleaded's high octane level is high enough to meet anti-knock requirements of most cars today.

Mobil Super Unleaded. Because when you're driving, one of the nicest sounds in the world is the sound of absolutely nothing.

Not available yet at every Mobil Station.

Letters to The Editor

To The Editor:
 As residents of The Farms, we find it hard to understand why The Farms does not own a vacuum sweeper truck for removal of the fallen leaves. We had previously lived in The Park and always had that service.
 It is hard to understand why it should not be provided in a community like The Farms that has so many other good services.
 Just on the basis of cost it makes no sense. We know that the cost of such equipment is not small, but it certainly takes extra manpower to pick up all the bags of leaves.
 And the cost to the residents for plastic bags is not insignificant, not to mention that additional work load placed on so many senior citizens and others who cannot afford to hire this work done.
 Please members of the council, give this your attention.

Gas Swapping Not Serious

Substitution of leaded for unleaded gasoline in new vehicles is not a serious problem in Michigan, according to a survey by Automobile Club of Michigan.

The Federal Environmental Protection Agency recently estimated that 10 percent of the nation's drivers are switching fuels. But an Auto Club survey of 400 Michigan service station operators showed fewer than one in 20 felt gas switching is a significant problem.

Those who did said just six percent or more of their customers are asking to switch gasolines.

Nearly 60 percent of the full- and self-service station operators polled said their customers never had asked to substitute leaded for unleaded gasoline.

Although 40 states prohibit private vehicle owners from altering their gas tank openings to allow entry of larger nozzles used in pumping leaded gasolines, Michigan does not.

There are federal laws prohibiting gasoline switching but they apply only to service station operators, repair shops and fleet operators. Most drivers do not substitute fuels because of the cost of replacing expensive catalytic converters and exhaust systems, which are destroyed by lead gasoline additives, and the prospect of added air pollution.

COULD BE SYMPTOM

A suddenly developing hearing loss in only one ear could be a symptom of a serious medical problem, warns the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Persons encountering such a situation should immediately consult a medical doctor—preferably an ear specialist.

Proposal Eyes Driveway Approaches

By Roger A. Waha
 A proposed ordinance amending the city code, referred to the Woods Planning Commission by the council, has been referred back to the council by the commissioners with a favorable recommendation for its adoption.
 The proposal, which controls the placement of driveway approaches and provides for an appeal procedure, was approved by the commission at its regular meeting late last month by a 6-3 vote.
 On the placement of a driveway approach, the proposal says all driveways constructed or reconstructed upon dedicated street right-of-ways shall be located so as not to encroach upon the street right-of-way of any adjoining or adjacent lot, unless the owners consent to such construction or reconstruction in writing.

 Such a written consent will be filed with the city as an attachment to the application for the permit of construction.

In the event consent cannot be obtained, the citizen proposing to construct or reconstruct the driveway approach may request a hearing before the council for such permission.
 A hearing will then be held with proper notice being sent to the property owners of the adjoining or adjacent lot as shown on the municipality's tax records.

The council may authorize the proposed construction or reconstruction on the street right-of-way upon finding that it is not detrimental to the surrounding neighborhood or that the proposed work is the most feasible location for the placement of the approach.
 The proposal was drafted as a result of events transpiring at the council's September 18 meeting.

 At that time, Dr. Jwong Ling of 559 Canterbury road expressed concern over a long-standing city policy regarding the flaring of driveways on so-called city property, (i.e., between the sidewalk and the curb), about one foot into the lot line of an adjoining property owner.
 This was in relation to a request for a variance to construct a circular drive at 575 Canterbury road from Shorewood E. R. Brown Builders, Inc., 20431 Mack avenue. The bid, which incorporated this flair technique, was subsequently denied.

Dr. Ling stressed he was against this one-foot "encroachment" onto his lot and after further discussion, which included Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos' disenchantment with the policy which dates back some 30 to 35 years, City Attorney George Catlin was instructed to prepare guidelines governing this area in ordinance form.

The mayor at that time also said he was unaware that such a policy had been followed in the past.

Open House Set By Dominican

An invitation is extended to the public, especially seventh and eighth grade girls, to visit Dominican High School, 9740 McKinney avenue, Harper Woods, on Sunday, November 12, between 11:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.

A variety of activities are planned to inform parents and students about Dominican's curriculum and philosophy. Refreshments will be served.

Archdiocesan High School Placement tests will be administered at the school on Saturday, November 18, at 8:30 a.m.

The tests are for eighth grade students and cost $4. For more information, call 882-8500.

VISIONARY

There are many times when a man's imagination takes unfair advantage of his true knowledge.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools

"Developing A Testing Program for The High School" is one of the Board of Education goals for the 1978-1979 school year. However, in achieving this goal to the list for this school year, we realize that it won't be accomplished in just the one year.

This goal aims at an assessment of needs in testing and at the development of a comprehensive program to fulfill those needs, gradually implementing a high school component which will be compatible with philosophies and systems already operating in elementary and middle school testing programs.

We are beginning our work on the testing goal with several of our high school departmental objectives related to studying available standardized tests and developing and implementing departmental tests.

As this process occurs, considerable departmental time is being spent on the need for testing and determining what skills and knowledge are to be tested.

In the English department, this year's emphasis is on reading and writing tests, with some attention also being given to testing library skills, particularly the use of reference materials and indexes.

To measure reading achievement, we are primarily examining nationally administered tests, while we plan to develop our own writing tests in association with the high school writing model scheduled to be implemented during the second semester.

 The high school mathematics teachers are in the process of developing tests for the basic algebra and geometry courses. Some of these tests have been published and are presently being administered.
 In some subject areas, work is being done on developing a framework around which departmental and classroom tests are constructed.

As an example, a list of common life skills objectives has been prepared for each of the basic science courses, and is the basis for teacher constructed classroom tests. A similar list of basic concepts also has been developed for all social studies courses.
 As recommended by the Michigan Council on Physical Fitness and the Michigan Department of Health, the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, (AAHPER), test is being used for middle and high school physical education students.

The seventh and eighth grade test results will be sent to the high school physical education teachers to measure improvement and determine areas of special concern when re-administering the test.
 To further aid individual development in coordination, speed, agility, strength and endurance, specific activities and drills have been prepared for the different physical education units, and these can be measured by the AAHPER test.

In the foreign language area, teachers are investigating standardized tests in order to determine what is available for their use. If a satisfactory test for our curriculum can't be identified, our foreign language teachers may become involved in developing their own tests.
 These examples of departmental activities illustrate the direction we are taking with our high school testing program. While we know it will take some time to develop and implement a complete program, we think significant progress on this goal can be made through these activities during this school year.

Schools, Club Set Fun Night
 The Neighborhood Club and the Department of Community Services of the public school system have scheduled a Family Fun Night for all residents at North High School, 707 Vernier road, on Friday, November 10, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.
 Activities will include badminton, basketball, ping-pong, swimming, trampoline, tumbling and volleyball for all age groups, and crafts and movies for younger children.
 Admission is $3 per family or 50 cents per person, with a charge of 50 cents for crafts. Children must be at least three-years-old to participate, and those 16 and under must be accompanied by at least one adult.

ULS Students Study Geology

University Liggett School, (ULS), eighth graders travelled to the world's largest gravel pit in Oxford, Mich., on Friday, November 3. The students, in connection with their study in geology, collected the major rock types—igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic—at the Michigan Aggregates Co. quarry.

The trip represented the culmination of the eighth graders' study of geology this term. Under the supervision of their teachers, Jane W. Renaud and James F. Schmidt, the students will complete this unit of study by arranging, classifying and displaying the collection made on this field trip.

ULS students often participate in field programs related to their course of study. Sixth graders participated in a similar activity, an archaeological dig in Windmill Pointe drive earlier this fall.
 ULS believes that the graphic application to real life situations of skills and concepts learned in the classroom can be a valuable learning mechanism.

QUATRO STAYS ACTIVE

Former Pointer Mike Quatro is in the process of rounding up tunes for his sixth album, which he plans to begin recording in December. This album he hopes will take him over that magic million mark for sales. Once there, Mr. Quatro says, "The plateau is self-sustaining."
 Mr. Quatro, whose parents live in The Woods, also is working on a movie, which he says is in the process of being bid on by various studios. The movie, which is somewhat autobiographical, will be filmed in four different locations, one of which may be The Pointe, he says.

In November, 1620, the Mayflower Compact was signed, laying the foundation for all of America's democratic institutions.

This Saturday, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, descendants of the Mayflower passengers gather for their annual Compact Day celebration.

Mrs. Lester Hall, of Plymouth, Mass., former historian general of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, will be the speaker at the noon luncheon.

It is being chaired by Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown, aided by a committee of fellow Pointers: Mrs. Elinor Macauly, Mrs. John R. Pear and Mrs. Cleveland Thurber, Jr.

Three hundred and fifty-eight years after the first Compact Day, the General Society of Mayflower Descendants reports a total membership of 18,000, from Maine to Hawaii.

Six hundred and fifty are affiliated with the Michigan Society. All are invited to attend and bring guests to Saturday's luncheon meeting.

Catherine Sings Schubert

Grosse Pointe's Catherine Grimshaw has been chosen by Anta Dorati to sing a solo part in the Schubert opera "Donato and Estrella," to be performed with the Detroit Symphony, conducted by Dorati, at Ford Auditorium Saturday evening.

Catherine currently hosts a weekly opera highlights program on Radio Station WIID Saturdays, from 1 to 2 in the afternoon.

Chamber Orchestra Guild

Pointers Michael Bowden, Ann and Gordon Willett, Ida Cherf and Kay Gruner play active roles in supporting the performing arts.

Their shared common denominator is involvement with the Michigan Chamber Orchestra Guild, the volunteer organization formed just six months ago to support metropolitan Detroit's first professional chamber orchestra.

Their varied backgrounds bring a rich diversity to the MCO Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. George Strickland, III, Vacation on Abaco in The Bahamas Following Evening Rites

At an evening ceremony Friday, October 27, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, with Monsignor Francis X. Canfield and Father James Robinson, SSE, officiating, Sara Lynn Kolowich spoke her marriage vows to George Henry Strickland, III.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frederick Kolowich, of Touraine road, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Strickland, Jr., of Hilton Head Island, S.C., are the bridegroom's parents. The 6:30 o'clock rites were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, after which the newlyweds left to vacation on Abaco in The Bahamas. They will make their home on Hilton Head Island.

The bride's ivory peau de soie gown featured a scooped neckline, Alencon lace bodice bordered with pearls and centered with a pearl motif. More pearls accented her long sleeves of appliqued lace on pointe d'esprit.

Her cathedral length, handmade mantilla of Belgian lace fell from a Juliet cap. Gardenias, stephanotis and ivy formed her bouquet.

Honor maids Martha Stewart Fruehauf and Eloise Rounds Henkel wore frocks of soft coral fashioned with chiffon overlays draped into long, diagonal, pointed panels covering narrow-strapped, Empire bodices.

Bridesmaids, in identical dresses of a deeper shade, were Ann Wood Strickland, of Atlanta, Ga., the bridegroom's sister, Katharine Shapleigh Kolowich, of Cambridge, Mass., sister-in-law of the bride, Laura Forster Cramer, of Hilton Head Island, and Elisabeth Lee Fruehauf.

They carried silk flower arrangements in shades ranging from pale coral to deep rust.

Richard Michael Ryan, of Hilton Head Island, was best man. Guests were seated by James Small Krieger, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Richard Raymond Emerson, of Potter Place, N.H., and the bride's five brothers: Michael Edmund Kolowich, of Cambridge, Robert Bradley Kolowich, of Jacksonville, Fla., Brian David Kolowich, of Hilton Head Island, Thomas Gregory Kolowich and James Convery Kolowich.

The triple-tiered skirt of the bride's mother's long gown of mauve crepe de chine was fashioned of tiny pleats. She pinned white and mauve cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of beige silk chiffon, sprinkled from neckline to waist and down the sleeves with handmade Lyons lace. She, too, pinned cymbidium orchids to her evening bag.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickrel, of South Euclid, O.

More were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jennings, of Louisville, Ky., former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gottfredson, who now reside in La Jolla, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Homan, of Hilton Head Island, Dr. and Mrs. Con Fecher, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Gibbs, of Dayton, O., and John Croghan, of Cleveland.

Still more were the bride's former college classmates, Frances Tuomey, of Brightwaters, N.Y., Marianne Rotella, of Verona, N.J., and Sara Lee, of Dayton, and the bridegroom's former classmates, Tayo Sands, of Danbury, N.H., and Steven Eckstrom, of Bethesda, Md.

Autumn Wedding For Jane Willetts

Reception at Country Club Follows Evening Rites at Which She Speaks Vows to Christopher George Bolton

An ivory chiffon gown accented with Alencon lace and pearls was Jane Patricia Willetts' choice for her wedding Friday evening, October 6, to Christopher George Bolton.

Lace banded her bishop sleeves and a floating panel of soft chiffon fell from her waist.

A petalled chiffon flower at the back of her headpiece caught her veil of ivory chiffon overlaid with pearl-clustered lace. The veil was layered in back, as the gown was layered in front. She carried a natural bouquet of multi-colored flowers.

Cynthia Tate To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Tate, of Rochester, formerly of Kensington road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Mary, to David Scott Taylor, son of Mrs. Douglas Taylor, of Bedford road, and the late Mr. Taylor. An early December wedding is planned.

The former Miss Willetts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton Willetts, of University place. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joseph Bolton, of Bloomfield Hills, are the bridegroom's parents.

Monsignor Francis X. Canfield presided at the 6:30 o'clock rites in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. A reception followed at the Country Club of Detroit.

Bermuda was the newlyweds' vacation destination. They are at home in Birmingham.

The bride was attended by her sister, Sandra Mary Willetts, as honor maid, and bridesmaids Mrs. Jeffrey Wardwell, another sister, Mrs. Peter Hanley, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Ronda Martinez Fisher, Julie Mantho, Mrs. David Ellis and Debra Rogers.

Their mauve-colored, blouson, A-line gowns featured spaghetti straps attached to smocked necklines. Waists were circled with a single tie, and matching shawls were draped through the straps.

Each carried a single stem of white and pink-veined Rubrum lilies.

Peter Hanley acted as best man for his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Christopher Bolton

At an evening ceremony Friday, October 6, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, JANE PATRICIA WILLETTS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton Willetts, of University place, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Bolton, son of the Thomas Joseph Boltons, of Bloomfield Hills.

In the usher corps were John M. Bolton, the bridegroom's brother, Thomas B. Willetts, brother of the bride, Brian Battersby, Bradford Jayne, Frank S. Moran, Jr., and Kenneth M. Cheyne.

The mother of the bride wore champagne Qiana overlaid with flowing chiffon bordered in a hand-painted, mauve and toast print centered with a single, mauve butterfly.

The bridegroom's mother selected a long, mauve gown, styled with a high neck and batwing sleeves, trimmed in white with delicate, mauve stitching.

Special guests included the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Strich, of Birmingham, and the bride's step-grandmother, Mrs. Leo C. Thibodeau, who came from Pompano Beach, Fla., for the ceremony.

Engaged

Plans for a late May wedding are being made by LAURIE SCHWARTZ, daughter of Mrs. Marilyn Schwartz, of Kingsville street, Harper Woods, and James Schwartz, of East Jefferson avenue, and Richard Kroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kroll, of Detroit.

Miss Schwartz is an undergraduate at Wayne State University, working toward a teacher's certificate in Elementary Education. Her fiancé is a hospital corpsman in the United States Navy.

Cotter-Gieryn Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Gieryn, of Bloomfield Hills, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Denise Ann, to Dennis Blair Cotter, son of Mrs. Raymond R. Cotter, of Notre Dame avenue, and the late Mr. Cotter. A late May wedding is planned.

Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Houston. Her fiancé was graduated from DeLaSalle High School and from the University of Michigan's Colleges of Engineering and Law, and is now a practicing lawyer.

North Mothers to Enjoy Tea

The Grosse Pointe North High School Mother's Discussion Group will enjoy a Thanksgiving tea, served by North's food co-op students, at their second meeting of the year, scheduled for Tuesday, November 21, at 1 o'clock in Room A105, located behind the high school cafeteria.

There will be a small charge to cover costs. Speaker will be James Cooper, assistant principal for administrative services and boys' discipline. Reservations should be received by Monday, November 13, by Margy Penirian, 884-8983, or Jean Schwartz, 886-1939.

Mrs. Penirian's home was the setting for the group's first meeting on the third Tuesday of October, when a large group gathered to hear Dr. Kathleen Herschelmann, assistant principal for instruction. A question-and-answer period concluded her talk.

Beaux-Arts Anniversary

This year's Scarab Club Beaux-Arts Ball has particular significance, as it marks the 50th year of the club's residence in Farnsworth street and celebrates the designation of the club, in its 68th year, as an historical structure. The Scarab artists and their guests will mark the occasion by donning headdresses, gowns and masks of shimmering gold, echoing the golden decor of the clubhouse, Saturday evening, November 11. Among them will be ALEX MARINOS, special events chairman, in the elaborate headdress he designed, executed by Helene, BERNICE CARMICHAEL, first woman president of the professional artists' association, and LUCY CARMICHAEL MILNER, who is crowning her mother's ensemble with a golden ship. They're all helping plan the festivities. Ball proceeds will be used to renovate the Scarab Club's historic building in the heart of Detroit's Cultural Center.

Plan Scandinavian Symphony's Concerts

The second concert of the Scandinavian Symphony's 49th season, a benefit performance for the Southfield Public Schools' Community Education Program, is scheduled for this Saturday, November 11, at 8:20 o'clock in Southfield's Birney Middle School.

The program, under the baton of Dr. Valter Poole, will feature the Madrigal Singers of Southfield High School plus a variety of popular, light orchestral pieces ranging from Schubert's "Rosemunde" Overture to Richard Rogers' "Sound of Music."

Closing the program, in honor of Armistice Day, will be John Phillip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

The season's third concert, Saturday, December 2, at Southfield High School at 8:20 o'clock, will feature pianist Boris Maximovich and the Southfield and Southfield-Lathrup High School Choirs.

Tickets for either concert, at $4.50 for adults, $2.25 for students, may be purchased in advance by calling Ethel Jardine, 538-3393, or at the door performance nights.

Information regarding membership in the Scandinavian Symphony Society may be obtained by calling Delores Shank, 644-9203.

Farm, Garden Club to Meet

Mrs. Cecil W. Leopard's Ridge road home will be the setting for this month's Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club meeting. It's planned for Monday, November 13, at 2 in the afternoon and will feature a program by Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr.: "Fun with House Plants."

Hostesses are Mrs. Michael Burns, Mrs. Richard E. Hinks and Mrs. Edward F. Lambrecht.

To Tour Toledo Tiffany Exhibit

The Detroit Historical Society is planning a special tour to the Toledo Museum of Art to view the Art of Louis Comfort Tiffany Wednesday, November 15, departing from the Detroit Historical Museum at 9:30 in the morning, returning at approximately 3:30 in the afternoon.

The $15 per person charge, ($13 for society members), covers all fees, transportation on the Historymobile and lunch at the Toledo Museum. The exhibit includes over 60 pieces of Tiffany's glass, metalwork, windows, jewelry, ceramics and lamps, many displayed for the first time.

Registrations must be made in advance through the Detroit Historical Society, 5401 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48202, (833-7934).

Here's how to know you're getting quality drycleaning.

1. Does your garment have an overall new-looking appearance?
2. Did the dry cleaner get all the spots out?
3. Are the whites white; the colors bright?
4. Are the garments free of double creases or button impressions?
5. Does the garment feel soft and comfortable?

Another way is to bring all your clothes to us.

Mrs. James Fortune

At a noon ceremony Saturday, November 4, in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church BARBARA ALEXANDRIA BRYK, daughter of the Peter Bryks, Jr. of Huntington boulevard, was married to Mr. Fortune, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lane Fortune, of Ann Arbor.

The John Butlers

LINDA DIANE JURGES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jurgas, of Mount Vernon road, and Mr. Butler, son of the John Butlers, of Dearborn Heights, were married Saturday, October 21, in Bethesda Missionary Temple's chapel.

Linda Jurgas Says Vows in October

Southgate Is Home for Mr. and Mrs. John Butler Who Vacation in California Following Their Wedding

Satin Venise lace accented the chiffon-sleeved bodice of the princess style gown selected by Linda Diane Jurgas for her wedding Saturday, October 21, in the chapel of Bethesda Missionary Temple to John James Butler.

Her taffeta skirt, extending into a full train, featured a chiffon overlay. Matching lace bordered her mantilla veil, and she carried a cascade of gardenias, white roses and stephanotis.

The newlyweds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jurgas, of Mount Vernon road, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, of Dearborn Heights, vacationed in San Diego, Calif., and are at home in Southgate.

The 4:30 o'clock rites at

David Bryk, brother of the bride, Robert DellAngel, James Bosscher, Wayne Stone and Dr. David Carron, of St. Joseph. Larry Bryk, another brother of the bride, also helped usher guests to their seats.

Katie Kutscher, in a hand-made, pastel pink, smock-bodied dress, was flower girl for her aunt. Katie carried a small basket filled with flowers matching those of the senior attendants, and wore flowers in her hair.

Joel Soth, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a crystal-pleated, mid-length dress of champagne pink and hand-tinted Alencon lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown of rose Qiana.

Both mothers pinned cymbidium orchids to their purses.

Miss Bryk Married To James Fortune

They Are Vacationing on St. Thomas in The Virgin Islands; Will Return to Make Their Home in Lennon Road

The wedding of Barbara Alexandria Bryk and James Albert Fortune Saturday, November 4, in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church was followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bryk, Jr., of Huntington boulevard. The Leonard Lane Fortunes, of Ann Arbor, are the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds will return from a vacation on St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, to make their home in Lennon road, Harper Woods.

For the noon rites at which The Reverend Daniel C. Compo, pastor, officiated, the former Miss Bryk chose a white jersey gown accented with appliqued Venise lace. Lace formed the band neck of her Empire bodice, cuffed her long, slim sleeves and edged her circular skirt.

A Juliet cap of matching lace held her long, illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, ivy and baby's-breath. In raspberry jersey frocks styled with shirred, circular yokes, highrise waists, full sleeves and soft skirts were honor maid Margaret A. Nye, a friend of the bride since grade school days, and bridesmaids Debra Fortune, of Lansing, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Susan E. Frisbie, Mary Jo Brabant, Mary Ellen Kresky and Sandra Denek.

They carried arrangements of baby's-breath and Sweet-heart roses in two shades of pink, and wore matching flowers in their hair.

The Misses Brabant, Kresky and Denek were classmates of the bride at Grace School of Nursing. All are Registered Nurses.

The bridegroom, a fourth year student at Wayne State University School of Medicine, asked Steven K. Selin to act as best man.

"There's a first time for everything" is the title of next Tuesday's program, which introduces in concert Tuesday Musicales' new active members: violinist Mrs.

Lawrence Girard, soprano Anna Speck, French horn player Pamela Glasser and pianist Mrs. Carlos Gayles.

Mrs. Girard, with pianist Mrs. Walter J. Burczyk, of Littlestone road, will open the program with a Handel Sonata in D Major, Op. 1, No. 13 for violin and piano.

Miss Glasser will perform a Richard Strauss Andante, Bernard Krol's Laudatio and Gilbert Vinter's "Hunters Moon" with Mrs. Robert J. Crossen, of Tonnancour place, at the piano.

Songs by Mozart, Brahms and Faure will be sung by pianist Mrs. Robert S. Laing. Mrs. Gayles will perform the final number, a Sonata by Alberto Ginestera.

Mrs. Maurice Parkins, of Birmingham, will open the November 21 concert with two selections for piano: Rameau's Gavotte and Variations and Alfred Fisher's Six Aphorisms for the Piano.

Mrs. Walter N. Marony, of Dearborn, violin, and Mrs. Crossen, piano, will play Brahms' Sonata in G Major, Op. 78, No. 1.

Soprano Mrs. M. A. Klerx, of Mount Clemens, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Wilson, of St. Clair Shores, will perform songs by Albert Malotte, Rachmaninoff, Schubert, Haydn and Gluck.

The closing numbers, played by piano duettists Mrs. John A. Hendrie, of Deming lane, and Mrs. Edward Vabolis, of Aline drive, are Mozart's Tema con Variazioni, G Major K.V. No. 501 and Mendelssohn's Allegro Brillante, Op. 92 in A Major.

To Salute Wayne Medical Auxiliary

The Wayne County Medical Society will salute its Auxiliary on the latter group's 50th anniversary at a gala dinner dance Saturday, November 18, in the Radisson-Cadillac Hotel's Grand Ballroom.

Chairman is Mrs. Robert A. Gerisch. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Berj H. Haidostian and Dr. Richard Galucci. Bob Allison will serve as master of ceremonies.

Tickets are tax deductible. Proceeds will go toward the purchase of "The Lady T.A.M." (Transparent Anatomical Manikin)—an illuminated, computerized, life-size model of a woman accompanied by a description and explanation of the functions and various organs of the human body—for the Detroit

Plan Program Day at Church

Mary Grace Adams, a past-president of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Association and of the Detroit Presbyterian Association, will be guest speaker Tuesday, November 14, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Program Day.

Mrs. Adams has been moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit and served as commissioner to the General Assembly in 1972. Her other leadership positions include service as chairperson of the YWCA national board's Central Region and as a trustee of Barber-Scotia College in Concord, N.C.

Science Center. Reservation information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Emil Alban, 562-7890, or Mrs. Gerisch, 646-9481.

Detroit Retired School Personnel Meet Nov. 10

Members of the Detroit Association of Retired School Personnel will journey into the year 2001 at their Friday, November 10, meeting at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Hubbell at West Outer drive, Detroit.

They'll assemble at noon with brown bag luncheons, (the association will provide pie and beverages), and remain for a short business session preceding a 1:30 o'clock program by Richard Henderson, manager of Educational Relations for Michigan Bell Telephone Company, whose slide presentation traces the history of the telephone and looks at its future.

Her topic Tuesday will be "Asian Encounter: A Christian Witness." Her program will be followed by a special luncheon in Fellowship Hall, honoring past-presidents of the Memorial Church Women's Association.

A Christmas Bazaar, sponsored by the Archconfraternity, will be held Friday, November 17, from 10 in the morning to 9 in the evening, and Saturday, November 18, from 10 to 6 o'clock at Saint Clare de Montefalco Church. Pictured above, admiring an array of Christmas articles that will be available, are MRS. JAMES MANIERE, (left), and MRS. JOHN KRETZSCHMER. Additional crafts will be featured, plus needlework, ceramics, dried flower arrangements and baked goods as well as prizes for adults and children and refreshments during bazaar hours.

Harper Hospital Benefit Slated

Auxiliaries at Harper Hospital, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Craig and Mrs. Charles Dalgleish, have organized an evening of fun, furs and frolic for Friday, November 10, starting at 7 o'clock, at Fairlane Club in Dearborn.

Guests at the open-to-the-public party will be entertained after dinner with songs by Dr. and Mrs. Yvan Silva. Honorary chairmen of the event are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McCarthy. Music for dancing and fashions from Sullivan-Rollins Furs will be provided by the Jack Qualey Orchestra.

Accepting tax deductible reservations at $50 per person, payable to the Harper Hospital Auxiliary, is Mrs. Vincent Gallant, of Wellesley drive, Detroit.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used for the purchase of a new Telemetry Monitoring Unit for Harper's surgical patients.

Harper Hospital is currently operating such a unit for medical patients only. The new unit could be multidisciplinary, handling some medical patients as needed, but surgical patients would have first priority.

Grosse Pointe area Harper Auxiliaries serving on the benefit committee include Mrs. Paul E. Ruble, president, Mrs. Gerald Bell, president-elect, Mrs. Denis Lenahan, vice-president, and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, treasurer.

Others are the Mesdames John Schneider and James Gotham, members-at-large, and Mrs. Anthony Petrilli, Mrs. George L. Kling and Mrs. Douglas Willis.

Reminder . . . The Stephan Trunk Showing of cruise and spring fashions in year round fabrics will be informally modeled tomorrow, Friday, November 10 in Walton-Pierce, Grosse Pointe. Carry fashion with you. Choose from a new selection of handbags at Walton-Pierce. A favorite from Spain is an oblong boxy suede combined with a tortoise-look plastic. It comes in burnished brown with brown or buckskin with brown. There are handbags from Palizzio, Dorcelle. We like the woven tan leather shoulder bag from Meyer. It is a good size for the petit woman. A good looking, roomy drawstring camel bag from Susan Gail is great for travel . . . near or far. Another traveler . . . a canvas and leather tote has three zip compartments. Toss a salad with style. In the Gift Department at Walton-Pierce there is a group of crystal salad bowls . . . some contemporary and some traditional. From Italy, a cut crystal bowl rests on a silver plated base, it comes with silver plated tappers. A lead crystal frosted rose patterned bowl comes with ornate silver plated salad fork and spoon. A sleek bowl comes with a modern wood and metal fork and spoon. There is a good looking wood cheese and cracker board trimmed with copper and brass. Enjoy the Stephan show and check off your Christmas list in the Gift Department.

Have you ever come home with a car full of groceries and wondered where to store them all? Wood-Mode cabinets makes a pantry unit that holds canned goods galore and a little bit more. See it today at Mutschler Kitchens, Inc., 20227 Mack Avenue, 884-3700.

A Personal Gift . . . his very own zodiac noggin with his sign on high quality Wilton Arne'l. It keeps his beer or ale delightfully cold. The noggin is $10.95 at the Notre Dame Pharmacy.

The Time Is Now! . . . Your Easter holiday travel plans for air, hotel or cruise should be booked as soon as possible to assure confirmation. Travel-wise travelers always as for M. Q. 886-0500.

Order Your Personalized Christmas Cards Now . . . from a wide selection including Red Farm Studio, Masterpiece, Caspari, Regency and more. There are also boxed cards at the Squirrel's Nest, 19849 Mack Avenue.

Thoughtful, Useful . . . Christmas gifts or hostess gifts the Magic Focus mirror for the dressing table is $14.95. Magic Focus compact mirrors are $4 and make wonderful stocking stuffers. Find these hard to find gifts at 19599 Mack Avenue, Woods Optical Studios, between 7 and 8 mile Roads, 882-9711.

One-Of-A-Kind Christmas Gift? . . . Let Tony Cueter design a very special piece of jewelry for the man or woman at the top of your Christmas list. You can use stones from family jewelry or selected new stones from a wide range of precious stones and diamonds. Stop by and talk to him. There is still time. There are also beautiful original designs already made and waiting for you. Bijouterie, 19860 Mack corner of Huntington, Grosse Pointe Woods. Closed Mondays.

THE POINTE FASHIONS . . . (formerly Julian Fashions) is still the place where you will find a beautiful selection of long gowns for that special occasion in sizes 6-18. Also a wide variety of short cocktail dresses and daytime wear. FREE ALTERATIONS at 15112 Kercheval . . . 822-2818.

Customweave Carpeting . . . is one of the heaviest nylon carpets you can find. It comes in forty decorated colors or you can custom order your own color. It is known for its long wearing quality and beauty. See it at Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack, 776-5511.

The Pointe Pedlar . . . 405 Fisher Road invites you to a free demo on November 11, 11 a.m.-2 p.m. to sample crepes from the Magic Pan Creperie.

A Lovable Toy . . . is Bobbie, the voice control puppy. Your voice can make him walk, sit up and bark. There's a limited supply at the School Bell, 17010 Mack Avenue.

Ron Ruel Says . . . The Styles for '78 rely heavily on precision haircutting for line, shape and body. Ron emphasizes healthy, shiny, easy-care hair to show off that precision cut. This may be achieved for the newest styles or the classics by soft and natural perming, hair lightening and toning, highlighting, tinting or a wonderful natural henna treatment. Call 886-4130 for an appointment.

Perk Up . . . your home for the holidays with new lamp shades and lamp repairs . . . perhaps even a new lamp. Wright's Gift and Lamp Shop is the convenient place to go . . . 18650 Mack Avenue next to the Grosse Pointe Post Office.

Nino of Robert's Place Says . . . Perm it. With curls being such a big hit this season, the new perming improvements will give you the degree of curl you want. Our Sensor Computer Curl is one of the best. Call 886-4130.

Did You Know . . . Perini's is open at 11 a.m. Sunday? A delicious full course meal is only $3.95. You'll enjoy so many good things at Perini's such as home made bread. Perini's is open until mid-night Friday and Saturday. For that late lunch, served from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., you may choose from the $3.25 menu. Those popular Kentucky Hot Browns are $3.25 . . . The mini version is $2.25. There is convenient parking . . . 10721 Whittier, Call 371-2484.

Take A Hike . . . in Pendleton's Knock Abouts just in at Hartley's Country Lane. Red plaids, skirts and shirts waiting for you to match or mix for casual outdoorsy fashion . . . all at 20641 Mack Avenue.

Start Holiday Sewing Now . . . with velvets, crepe bak satin and silk crepe de chine at Designer's Touch, 16925 Harper, 885-0094.

A Super Night for Swedish Council

Having a super time at the Detroit-Swedish Council's super night, a benefit smorgasbord at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House Sunday, October 29, were, (left to right), MRS. NILS R. JOHANESON, of Lake court, who, born Josephine Alger, was brought up in Alger House before it was given by the Alger family to Grosse Pointe for use as a community center, MRS. WALTER W. WOOD, of Renaud road, and WESLEY R. JOHNSON, of Ridge road, current president of the Detroit-Swedish Council.

LINC Poinsettia Sale Is Underway

The holidays are coming, and Operation LINC, (Linking Individuals with Needs in the Community), is engaged in its annual Poinsettia Sale—and is VERY pleased to announce that florist-quality plants, in either red or white, are offered at $6.50 each—which is 50 cents LESS than last year. The poinsettias may be ordered until Wednesday, November 22, by contacting MRS. PAUL CHAUVIN, of Lakeshore road, (left), sale chair-

Luncheon

(Continued from Page 17) arrangements for the fashion show, has asked a group of Woman's Club members to model. They include the Mesdames John V. Crane, Martin Daher, Henry E. Mistele, Joseph M. Scanlan and Dick Warner.

Also modeling will Mrs. Elias' two daughters, Mrs. Robert Page and Mrs. James Boutros. Miss Anne Wronski and Mrs. Arthur Weir, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit.

Assisting Mrs. Elias in overall planning have been co-chairmen Mrs. William Kabbush and Mrs. Boyce Tope.

Variety to Be Featured at Arts And Craft Fair

Virginia Franz and Helen Petsch are chairing Lakeside Palette Club's Arts and Crafts Fair, set for next Thursday, November 16, from 1 in the afternoon to 9 in the evening in the ballroom of the St. Clair Shores Recreation Center in East Jefferson Avenue.

Original paintings and drawings, pen and inks, oils, acrylics and watercolors, framed and unframed, will be featured, as well as papier mache, creative stitchery, notepaper, jewelry, paper tole, polished stones and Christmas items and trims. On-the-spot pastel and charcoal portraits, and refreshments, will be available.

Seek Women's League Aides

The Grosse Pointe Women's League, formerly the Grosse Pointe Jaycee Auxiliary, has just participated in another baby sitting clinic—this one sponsored by the Junior Women's League—and invites persons interested in helping out in various activities benefitting the communities of Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods and the far east side of Detroit, and who enjoy the company of a small group of women of all ages, to call Marcia, 885-7788, or Nancy, 881-5329, for information on the league's next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, November 14.

Party proceeds will provide funds for Achievement Awards, based on academic excellence, character, citizenship, leadership and the need for financial assistance, to 1979 graduates of Grosse Pointe South and North High Schools.

The first award was given in 1952. Last year, four awards were presented.

Mireille Wilkinson . . . of de Bary Travel has just returned from Austria where she checked on castles, mansions, inns for the tourist and pensions for the skiers. Icelandic Airline and de Bary Travel have some fabulous rates to offer you. Call 881-3747 or stop by 17850 Maumee.

New Celebrated Frogs . . . have arrived at "the little store." These amusing green and yellow ceramic frogs come "Just Sitten", "The Thinker", "Diamond Jim", "The Bongo Frog", among the new arrivals . . . some in the form of ash trays or candy dishes. There is a new selection of sun catchers that always seem to fly out of the store. In the Bath Boutique, there are decorator color lucite towel holders, tissue boxes, waste baskets, tumblers and tooth brush holders . . . also new shower curtains at 17037 Kercheval between St. Clair and Notre Dame.

New Unusual . . . imported, crochet ornaments are found among the Christmas tree trimmings at the Kaleidoscope in Kimberly Korners, Mack at Lochmoor.

Short and to the Pointe

(Continued from Page 17) Under terms of a $272,500 grant to Wayne State University from General Motors Corporation, the biochemical and morphological effects of diesel engine exhausts are being studied by the departments of Physiology and Pharmacology, with DR. Pointer JAROSLAW MUZ, M.D., nuclear radiologist at the Harper Hospital Division of Harper-Grace Hospitals, was promoted to assistant clinical professor of Radiology at the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Students named to the Academic Honors List for the spring term at Ferris State College were MARIA D. GRIMAU DO, of Fairway drive, CHERYL A. MAZZEI, of Webber place, PAUL G. MONARK, of Severn road, and MARILYNN C. VEALE, of Canterbury road.

Additional students named to Ferris State College's winter term Academic Honors List included KENNETH D. KLANN, of Blairmoor court, and MARILYNN C. VEALE, of Canterbury road.

Catholic Study Club Meets November 13

The Catholic Study Club of Detroit has scheduled a business meeting for Monday, November 13, at the Federation of Women's Clubs clubhouse in Fenkel avenue, Detroit.

The day begins at 10:30 in the morning with a Mass of Resurrection for Deceased Members offered by The Reverend Robert A. Bretz, pastor of Guardian Angel Church, Clawson.

Luncheon and the business session will follow. Mrs. Edward J. Moody is chairman of the day.

Ski Prix Set For Saturday

The final stages of planning are in high gear as committee members for Ski Prix '78, a fund raiser for the United States Ski Team, look toward their gala benefit this Saturday evening, November 11, at Alpine Valley Ski Lodge.

Presiding over the festivities will be Stein Erikson, Olympic Gold Medalist and World Champion skier.

A silent auction of hundreds of gifts, ranging from ski weeks at Boyne, Bartley House, Big Sky and Vail to ski clothing and dinners at local restaurants, will begin at 8 and continue until midnight.

There'll be live music by Greg Purcott's band, and a gourmet dinner. Tax deductible tickets at $20 per person will be available at the door or may be obtained in advance by calling Don Thomas Sporthaus, 626-9500. Dress is definitely apres-ski.

Scatter Pins . . . magnetic earrings, new buckles and earrings are coming in daily at Two's Company, 399 Fisher Road.

Miniature Angels . . . in wood, pewter or porcelain to decorate Christmas trees are on display at Wicker World along with musical dolls by Schmid.

From Another Pointe of View

Michael, guild president, is a member of the Science faculty at University Liggett School.

Ida, wife of attorney Ronald Cherf and mother of three-year-old Chad, is an active member of the Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives.

Kay is completing degree work at Marygrove College and studying piano. . . and she and Ron Gruner are expecting their first child.

The Willetts both maintain full-time professional careers. Ann is with Aetna Life and Casualty. Gordon is vice president of Standard Fuel Engineering.

Currently, all are involved in preparations for MCO's third annual benefit evening: "A Night in New Orleans."

Date is Saturday, November 18. Place, (once again), is the Detroit Historical Museum.

All also carry supplies of Season '79 Brochures these days, as they acquaint colleagues and friends with MCO's programming. The season starts in early February.

And all will, at the drop of a hat, wax lyrical about "their" chamber orchestra, which has brought metropolitan Detroit audiences so many outstanding musical firsts.

Guest appearances by Sarah Caldwell, for instance. The signing of Eve Queler, Columbia Recording Artist, as MCO's principal conductor.

It's quite a group, this Michigan Chamber Orchestra. It's got quite a guild.

Art to Schools 'Evening Out'

Many Pointers are involved in Art to the Schools, a committee of the Detroit Institute of Arts Founders Society. Members present weekly classroom talks to fourth, fifth and sixth graders throughout metropolitan Detroit, contributing their services and attending monthly meetings designed to enhance their knowledge and interest in art.

And, each year, Art to the Schools has its very own Evening Out.

It's set this year for next Tuesday. It starts with dinner at Young Kim's V.I.P. Palace. Afterward, Art to the Schools volunteers will be guests at the home of gallery owner I. Irving Feldman, viewing a Beta Max film on one of the world's leading kinetic artists: Yaacov Agam.

A Gift of Life from Alpha Phi

The Detroit East Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi has given a grand gift to the children of Grosse Pointe.

Members voted, at their early October meeting, to donate a Resusci Annie, including a set of 100 replacement lungs, to the Grosse Pointe Public School System. It will be used in the Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation unit taught annually to middle school students in Science classes.

Review Club Meets Nov. 14

The Detroit Review Club meets Tuesday, November 14, at Wayne State University's McGregor Memorial Center for luncheon followed by a program featuring Mark Macpherson, director of Information Service at Wayne County Community College, talking on "The Loch Ness Monster: Fact or Fiction?"

Mrs. Robert W. Kefgen, DRC president, will introduce the speaker.

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5
1957 STANHOPE

"House-a-minium." It's a new word, to describe what we feel is the best that a house can offer, combined with many of the fine features you'd expect in a condominium. First, there's the comfort and convenience of a nice residential community, yet without the excess size that so many homes have. The over-all excellence like a "condo model", yet the new low, low price is far less than any comparable condo recently for sale, and a garage and beautiful, yet not too big yard is yours to enjoy... that is, unless someone beats you to it!

1559 SOUTH RENAUD

If you know a custom built home when you see one, better see this one fast as we've just reduced the price $5,000 to make it even more desirable. There's lifetime copper gutters, time saving sprinkler system, new roof, and the newly remodeled kitchen. To add to this list of extras, how about an attached two car garage, and a picturesque wooded lot 90x154? Priced to make you love it!

THANKSGIVING, CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS EVE!

Three of the most beautiful and festive holiday season we have will soon be here, and we have the ultimate entertainment home in which to enjoy them. With its panoramic view of Lake St. Clair, this special contemporary is well priced at $295,000, and the owner will consider a land contract. If it's time for you to step into that fine home you've worked so hard for, we suggest you do it now; while this one-of-a-kind home is still available.

HAVE IT YOUR WAY!

A fantastic contemporary home in the mid 170's should reflect your special touches, and it can, if you act now. Such personal items as floors, tile selections, tub in master bath, wall colors, to name a few, still can be yours. If you want the thrill and pride of accomplishment that is rarely available in our town, let's talk!

JUST OFF THE LAKE, IN THE SHORES

Here is a quality, one owner Ranch home, with most every convenience you could desire under a roof! There's one attractive room after another... 8 in total, which includes three bedrooms. The 2 1/2 car brick garage is attached, the lot is both spacious and well landscaped, and the lower level games room is certain to "ring your bell!" Decide for yourself—let us arrange your private tour now.

TWO FAMILIES UNDER ONE ROOF?

If you have in-laws living with you, need quarters for live-in help, or wish the guest quarters to be away from the other bedrooms, you couldn't pick a nicer ranch to consider than this close-to-everything home in the Woods. The kitchen is all new, there's an exceptionally nice family room with fireplace, attached two car garage, central air, and fine lower level games room, too! Now $149,500.

IT'S NOW THE HOLIDAY INN, HOWEVER...

At $44,900 there are 5 bedrooms, three full baths, plus a den and sitting room. There's even a fireplace in this immaculate inflation buster. So if you're on a budget, and need space put this home on the top of your "must see" list!

ATTENTION MERCHANTS AND BUSINESSMEN LOOKING FOR A COMMERCIAL BUILDING IN THE "POINTE".

On a major street in Grosse Pointe we have an excellent opportunity for anyone who understands "tax shelters"! All brick exterior, one story with approximately 800 square feet (20x40) and it's presently very well decorated. If you could purchase this investment for $30,000 with $5,000 down on a land contract, isn't it important enough to stop whatever you're doing, and let us show you through immediately!

IN NEARBY WARREN. This fine all brick three bedroom ranch, close to schools and public transportation. Hang on to your checkbook, here's the good news... full price is just $27,900 and there's a big assumable $20,079 mortgage at a rare 8 1/2%! If a starter home is what you're searching for... stop and call us right now!

OPEN SUNDAY 2 UNTIL 5

THIS CENTER ENTRANCE COLONIAL at 305 WASHINGTON is even more popular when it is offered on a wide, tree shaded lot in a fine neighborhood one block from the lake. The first floor plan has a den, formal living and dining rooms and a step-down family room with fireplace and cathedral ceiling. The master bedroom has a private bathroom and immense dressing room. A second bath serves the other three bedrooms.

FIRST OFFERINGS

SOMETHING VERY RARE! Located in the Farms on a cul de sac. Ideal location for raising small children, close to schools and shopping. Living room has fireplace, built-in bookshelves. There is a screened porch off the living room, formal dining room, up-dated kitchen, two car garage. Second floor has four bedrooms and full bath.

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY on Kercheval in the Pointe. One story 30 x 40 building has plenty of rear parking plus new gas furnace. Call Mr. Krieger 886-6010.

BY APPOINTMENT

THAT LITTLE BIG HOUSE is great looking from the street, but even more attractive once you step inside. What a fooler... with a total of four bedrooms, one on the first floor. So tastefully decorated and in a fine neighborhood just a couple blocks to Kerby and Brownell schools.

LESS THAN $20,000 and in the Pointe. All white with a picket fence and newly carpeted. Ready for immediate occupancy.

COME ON IN, the view is breathtaking. Because almost every room offers a sweeping vista of the lake with its ever changing scene, you may not notice that almost every room has a fireplace, and the crown moldings, datto, door panels, hardware and floor finishings are perfection in design and maintenance. The kitchen is a masterpiece with all the conveniences yet fine wood cabinets, some with beveled glass, and a cozy fireplace make this kitchen feel like an informal living room. We could run on about the new bathrooms, the heated swimming pool and the new heating system, the separate carriage house. You may just want to run out and buy it.

THREE BEDROOM COLONIAL with a first floor lavatory and a large, paneled room makes its brief appearance on the market. We say brief because at the price of $28,500 it won't last long.

RENAUD ROAD IN THE SHORES and only a few doors from the lake. The center entrance plan features a spiral staircase rising out of the marble floor foyer. To the right of the foyer is a library with fireplace. The dining room is back toward the rear. A living room with fireplace runs the depth of the house. A family room to end all family rooms sprawls across the back of the house. This step-down room boasts a magnificent fireplace wall, an entertainment center with the best in sound equipment and apparatus to project movies and slides. Complementing this family room is a bar room complete with barbeque built-in. A total of six bedrooms and four baths comprise the second floor.
