TRAFFIC PROBLEMS STUDIED

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by The Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 7

MICHIGAN Congressman Charles C. Diggs Jr., convicted in October of 29 counts of fraud in a payroll kickback scheme, lost a battle with his fellow Democrats as they voted overwhelmingly to strip him of his only remaining position of authority in the House. In a party caucus, the Democrats adopted a procedure allowing them to approve or revoke the subcommittee chairmanships of members who have been convicted of a felony. Diggs will probably now lose his chairmanship of the African subcommittee of the House International Relations Committee.

REPORTS OF A BLOODY showdown between Iranian government troops and opponents of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi to occur this weekend brought about a virtual stampede by foreigners and Iranians alike to get flights out of the country. Meanwhile, in Washington, President Jimmy Carter said he doesn't know whether the Shah could survive the turmoil, but the U.S. wouldn't intervene. He said Iran was very important to the U.S. and to the stability of the entire Mediterranean area.

Saturday, December 9

FORMER ISRAELI Prime Minister Golda Meir died in a Jerusalem hospital Friday. She was 80. No cause of death was given, though doctors said she had been fighting a form of blood cancer for more than a decade, including the time she was prime minister, from 1969-74. It also was said that Mrs. Meir had been suffering from a liver infection and jaundice, in addition to an undefined back ailment.

Sunday, December 10

IRANIAN SOLDIERS left 29 dead in two cities after opening fire on anti-shah demonstrators on the eve of the Moslem holy days. Airports were closed, creating panic among the thousands of foreigners trying to leave the riot-torn country, and Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi ordered tanks into the streets of Tehran. Meanwhile, Secretary of State Cyrus Vance reaffirmed American support for the shah, but ruled out direct intervention.

Monday, December 11

PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER got a vote of confidence from fellow Democrats at their mid-term conference in Memphis, Tenn., although party members concerned that Democrats may be giving up their tradition of social action made a strong showing against the President's budget-cutting economic policies. All the Carter administration's political weight had to be used to stop a proposal demanding that next year's social program funding be maintained at current levels. Mr. Carter wants to cut domestic spending by $19 billion.

Tuesday, December 12

MASKED GUNMEN escaped with about $3.5 million in loot, $3 million of that in cash, when they staged a pre-dawn raid at a Lufthansa Airlines cargo hangar at Kennedy Airport in New York. It was apparently the second largest heist in U.S. history. The money taken was on its way to Chase Manhattan Bank headquarters from a bank in West Germany when six or seven men drove a van into the cargo area after cutting a lock at an unguarded gate.

Mason School Girl Scouts Herald Yule Season

The Mason School Girl Scout Troops 887, 138 and 321 participated in the Village Christmas Parade on Friday, November 24, by entering a float that combined a birthday cake celebrating Mason's 50th anniversary and a snowman conveying a Christmas greeting. Uniformed girl scouts and their leaders, some attired in original Girl Scout uniforms of the past century, marched with the float.

Rob Sexton In Church Building

Official Held Up at Gunpoint, Loses $70,
Watch at Grosse
Pointe Memorial

The 62-year-old sexton of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, was held up at gunpoint and robbed of $70 cash and his watch in the church building early Friday evening, December 8.

Ironically, the holdup occurred at the same time a wedding between two Detroit police officers was taking place in the church proper.

The holdup man, after forcing Frank Lobaido to the floor in an isolated part of the church building's offices, took the man's wallet and made him disrobe, Farms police said.

Was on Drugs
The man, who was carrying a blue steel automatic, then escaped down the hall after dropping the sexton's clothes some distance away.

Police said the victim was walking by a room leading to the financial secretary's office when the robber jumped out of the darkness with his gun. The gunman then demanded the sexton open the door to the secretary's office.

When the victim told him he didn't have the key, the

Woods Resident Survives Horror of Lebanese War, Shares Her Experiences

After Barely Escaping with Her Life, Joany Rashid Vows to Help Children Orphaned by Devastation, While Hoping Citizens Will Respond to Pleas of Assistance

By James J. Njaim
A Woods resident of Lebanese descent, who experienced the horrors of the on-again-off-again war that has devastated a great part of Lebanon, barely escaped with her life as bullets and bombs splattered and burst around her in the eastern section of Beirut. Faith and prayer were her only shields during the awful seven days and nights of continuous bombardment and sniper fire of the Syrian army from October 1 through October 7.

Glad to be home is Joany C. Rashid, 24, of Edmundson drive, where she lives with her parents, Carl and Nellie Rashid, who nursed her back to health through the entire month of November. Miss Rashid came back to her family the latter part of October, ill from a virus disease contracted during the 20 hours it took her to travel from Beirut to Junieh, a resort city in Lebanon, to Cyprus. From Cyprus, Miss Rashid booked passage back to the United States.

Leaves Possessions
Miss Rashid and native refugees who were lucky enough to obtain passage by boat from Junieh, were happy to leave by the boat, which had no sleeping accommodations or sanitary facilities. The fact that they were able to escape alive was their prime concern, she said.

She said that when she fled Beirut, she left all her money, clothing and other possessions behind, but she was fortunate to have her passport and an American Express card on her person. Otherwise, she would have had a great deal of difficulty getting back home. She is hoping that eventually her possessions will be shipped back to her, if that is possible.

During the two months she was in Lebanon, both in Beirut and in the mountains where she and countless others had fled after the seven-day siege, she was filled with pity for the thousands of children whose parents were killed from the time the civil war began in Lebanon in 1973.

Police Seek Aid to Find SCS Woman

St. Clair Shores Authorities Request Assistance in Locating Lady Seen in Pointe on December 2

By Roger A. Waha
St. Clair Shores police are seeking the assistance of citizens in discovering the whereabouts of a 73-year-old St. Clair Shores woman who was last seen walking along Lakeshore road near Provençal late Saturday afternoon, December 2.

Lt. Robert Ruseh said on Monday afternoon, December 11, that no word as yet has been forwarded to his department on Freda Hoover of North Shore drive, who was observed walking toward Grosse Pointe Shores around 4:45 p.m. on the 2nd by a friend, Rose Channell of Briarcliff place, who was in a car.

The lieutenant said information has been entered into the LEIN (Law Enforcement Information Network), notifying other police agencies, hospitals have been contacted and her relatives notified with negative results so far.

Lt. Ruseh stated when last seen, the woman, described as 5'5" tall, about 150 pounds, with dark brown eyes, grey hair and wearing eyeglasses, was wearing a beige cloth coat, below the knee, black shoes and socks, a man's hat with its brim down and carrying a black handbag.

Mrs. Channell, who said she attends the same church as Mrs. Hoover in St. Clair Shores, stated she had often taken walks but was concerned because of the approaching evening hour. "It wasn't unusual to see her out walking except for the time of day," she said.

Mrs. Hoover's husband, David, 80, reported his wife missing the evening of the 2nd.

Shares Information
Saying he and his wife have been married for 38 years, Mr. Hoover wanted to inform citizens that she taught music in the Detroit School System for 20 years before her retirement around 1950 in the event former school contacts may know of her whereabouts.

GP Park Solons Hear Criticism On Police Gripes

Officers Association And Citizens Indignant over Failure of Solons to Have Subject on Agenda As Specified at Last Meeting

By James J. Njaim
The Park Council literally refused to hear apparently legitimate complaints of the Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers Ass'n., (GPPPOA), over working conditions and citizen complaints at a meeting held on Monday, December 11. At the last session Monday, November 27, the solons instructed Police Chief Henry O. Coonce to meet with GPPPOA members and present a report at the next regular session, which was Monday night, but this matter was not on the agenda.

Patrolman David Hiller, president of the association, before the meeting ended, asked Mayor Matthew C. Peterson if the council conducted its business according to Robert's Rules of parliamentary procedure, and the mayor referred the question to City Attorney Herold Deason.

Mr. Deason stated the sessions of the council are held, more or less according to parliamentary procedure, but the council can, if it so desires, adhere strictly to Robert's Rules of Order, but this is not necessary.

Only Few Talk
Officer Hiller then asked why there was nothing on the agenda pertaining to new and old business, especially old business in relation to complaints over working conditions brought out at the November 27 meeting by the officers and their families.

The mayor and Councilman Douglas Graham both noted that any complaints, not grievances stipulated under the current contract, should be taken up with the police chief and City Manager John Crawford.

It was estimated that approximately 80 persons were in attendance at the Monday night meeting and it appeared that all were siding with the police officers, although only a few spoke out on the working conditions and the low morale of the officers.

St. James Sets Yule Concert

The three choirs of Saint James Lutheran Church, in McMillan road near Kercheval, will present their Advent, candlelight concert of Christmas music on Sunday, December 17, at 6 p.m.

"The Many Moods of Christmas" will be the theme of the presentation, offering a variety of selections by the Chancel Choir, under the direction of Herman Clein.

The Children's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Dacey, and the Handbell Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Herman Mozer, also will be a part of the concert.

The congregation will do some Christmas caroling as well.

Board Cites Joseph Snyder For His Years of Service

By Susan McDonald
A 16-year legislative career will come to an end this month for Sen. Joseph Snyder, and his constituents are marking the event with a whirlwind of dinners, parties and ceremonies to honor his contributions as a lawmaker.

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education took its turn thanking the 63-year-old senator Monday, December 11, presenting him with a formal resolution citing his many crusades to improve state services to the retarded, mentally ill, aged and on behalf of education.

"We have a warm feeling for Sen. Snyder," said Trustee Joan Hannerper Monday night. "He's been a good friend to education, and he's

GPW Hears Pleas from Residents

Latest Traffic Counts Explored by Officials, Citizens; Further Meetings Planned

By Roger A. Waha
The temporary barricades in the area of the intersection of East Eight Mile road and Brys drive and the intersection of Helen avenue and Brys, approved for installation by the council in September for a 90-day period and subsequently erected in mid-October, will stay put for the time being.

This was an outgrowth of a discussion between Brys drive, Roslyn road and other area citizens with the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, December 4.

At the same time, the effects the barricades are having on Brys and neighboring streets, not entirely unsuspected, were explored after pre-barricade traffic counts were compared with post-barricade counts.

Ups And Downs
As predicted by some officials and citizens, the situation has eased along Brys but traffic has increased on other streets, particularly Roslyn road, which has not only concerned residents of that street but also Brys spokesman Bruce E. VanFarowe, who didn't want one thoroughfare to suffer at the expense of another.

Public Safety Director John Dankel, who indicated post-barricade counts were taken on an ongoing basis beginning some three weeks after the blockade was erected, said the weekday average per 24-hour period along Brys between Mack and Helen, for example, toppled from 2,406 to 504 vehicles.

On the other hand, traffic jumped on Roslyn between Helen and Canton from 573 to 1,706 and on Roslyn between Mack and Helen from 655 to 1,503 vehicles.

Traffic along Hampton showed a slight increase between Mack and Helen, (695 to 770), and between Helen and Canton, (689 to 768).

But on Helen between Roslyn and Hampton, traffic fell from 657 to 376.

Present Petition
Both Brys and Roslyn citizens offered pleas for additional signage in the immediate area, e.g., no right and left turn signs, with 88 Roslyn citizens submitting a petition to the solons.

In the document, the residents protested "the intolerable traffic situations" on Roslyn from Mack to the west city limits resulting from the placement of the barricades.

Project Helps Woods Police

To better utilize space at Woods Department of Public Safety headquarters, a refurbishing project is currently underway thanks to the efforts of the officers and a donation of paneling and carpeting from a donor who, officials say, prefers not to be revealed.

Public Safety Director John Dankel noted the briefing room was too large and the men's locker room too small so the lockers have been moved into the former briefing area and the vacated space, with the paneling and carpeting, will be utilized for briefings.

The new locker room area, near the lavatory and shower room, will now give the men a better opportunity to clean up after a working fire, for instance, while the new briefing room is located next to the lieutenant's office.

In all, the cost comes to less than $200, the director said, with the officers, themselves, pitching in to do the necessary refurbishing.

'Tower' Wins Top Honor In National Competition

Student journalists at South High School have once again captured the Pacemaker Award, the nation's most prestigious honor for high school journalism, awarded annually by the American Newspaper Publishers Ass'n. and the National Scholastic Press Ass'n.

Tree Lighting Ceremony Set

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club, sponsors of the city's municipal Christmas tree, invite all residents to the annual tree lighting ceremony on Sunday, December 17, at the Pier Park. It will begin at 5 p.m. Mayor James Dingemans has been invited to preside and Charlene Rear don, Miss Grosse Pointe Farms will light the tree.

ment which brought every major award for which the paper competed last year," he said.

The Pacemaker will be presented to the "Tower" staff at the Detroit Press Club on Thursday, January 4. Among the members of the award-winning staff are Bill Bradford, Kim Severson, Noel Baril, Eric Hanpeter, Pete Stoll, Dave Thill and Elise Poirier.

Other "Tower" staffers are Sally Russell, Marcy Taylor, Mary Michaels, Sandy Boettcher, Paula Kukucka, John Hogan, Sue Price, Meg Speer, Jean MacDonald, John Tien, Ace Dickson and Eric Steinhauer.

This event, which has become a Farms tradition, is possible each year due to the efforts of William DeGalan, who created the tree, and Jerome Janisse, who refurbishes it each year and puts it up.

Following the tree lighting and carol singing, parties for the invited to the boat-houses for refreshments.

Event chairmen this year are Donna and Sonny Gorenflo, with Jerry Malooly leading the song fest.

It maintains the paper's outstanding record of achievement.

Resident Shares Experience of Lebanese War

(Continued from Page 1) for the past several years, and each year because of the continual strife, the number of orphans has increased. During her visit in September and October of this year, as more and more parentless children were being cared for by Catholic nuns, using whatever shelter left standing and available, including school buildings not demolished by the constant bombardments, she made a solemn pledge that she would do all she can to assist these orphans.

By some miracle she escaped the falling bombs, rockets, heavy artillery fire, 240 mm mortars, incendiary rounds, tank guns and machine gun strafing. Don't ask her how, but she made it to the safety of a convent on one of the mountains. While making her way slowly to the convent, a shell exploded close to a woman several yards ahead, who she said was about her age, and the woman's legs were blown off. Miss Rashid was unharmed, but she went into a semi-state of shock.

Stop Red Cross
"There was no one to help that poor woman," she said. "The Syrians fired at anything or anyone that moved. I was about to go out of my mind. Syrian and Palestinian troops refused to allow any one to help any wounded, not even letting the International Red Cross to bring food and medical supplies to the hapless population. The troops even refused to permit a two-hour lull in the firing to allow the Red Cross to remove the wounded, or to bring in food, water and medical supplies into the sector."

"This, in itself, was a direct violation of the rules of the Geneva Convention. The residents pinned down in this section of Beirut had had no water or food for days. Many, especially children, died of starvation and thirst. How I reached this convent on the mountain I will never know. God must have been with me."

Miss Rashid said that when she arrived at the convent, which itself was under bombardment, she was almost out of her mind. She entered the convent chapel where she saw many children crowded there. This was the seventh day of the merciless pounding of the cannons, bursting bombs and strafing machine gun fire. The children were praying that the terrible ordeal would end, praying in Arabic, their native language, to St. Charbel Maloof, (a Lebanese monk canonized by Pope Paul VI on October 9, 1977).

"The children and nuns were praying to the saint to intercede in their behalf to Almighty God to stop the awful ordeal, so that other children would not lose their parents and loved ones as they did," Miss Rashid said. "Their prayers and chanting were so beautiful, and I was so impressed, that even in my state of mind, I, too, knelt and began to pray. A calmness seemed to settle over me and I never felt so much peace in my entire life."

"It must have been through the intercession of St. Charbel because suddenly at exactly 8 p.m. on October 7, everything became silent. The cannons stopped roaring, the bombs stopped falling and even the rifle fire, except for an occasional sniper fire, ceased. The quiet was more deafening than the noise of the guns and bombs."

Later, Miss Rashid said, it was made known that the United States Government and United Nations officials prevailed upon the Syrians to cease fire.

Even after the cease fire, she said, no one was allowed to enter or leave Beirut's east sector. Any person caught taking food, water or clothing to the sector was shot and killed. Those who tried to leave were killed. Consequently, many died because of starvation, or dehydration because of lack of water. Many people died of sickness and disease. The seven-day death toll ran into the hundreds.

"When I was praying in the convent and saw those trusting children raising their beautiful voices in prayer in Arabic, I was so filled with love and pity for them that I made a promise that if or when, God willing, I returned home I would do everything I could to help them," Miss Rashid said. "These children were three years of age and up."

"I was unable to recover my possessions, but my main interest was to try to escape and I prayed hard for that. This year's visit to the land of my ancestors was marked by the worst attempt of the Syrian and other Moslem forces to annihilate the Christians of this tiny country. 'Beirut, once known as the Jewel of the Middle East' is no longer a jewel. During the seven-day siege, the Syrian army and other Moslem forces continuously bombarded the Christian sector in the eastern part of the city. There is hardly a building left standing in that area. West Beirut, the Moslem sector, is untouched and still intact."

Time of Giving
The horror of the war defies description, Miss Rashid said. Most of Beirut has been leveled by rocket fire, with Russians manning the sophisticated rocketry weapons. The Syrians for years have been buying Russian arms, but Russia refused to sell them rockets and multi-launchers, or train them in their use.

Nothing in the eastern part of the city was spared, she said, not even hospitals, churches, schools or even sacred Christian shrines, all were fired upon and destroyed indiscriminately, and hundreds of persons died.

In her pledge to help the innocent children, orphaned by the insane war in Lebanon, Miss Rashid had this to say:

"The Lebanese children need to be shown kindness in this world of madness. Christmas is a time of giving. It is the time of wishing everyone 'Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men.' The children of the United States who live in the midst of peace and plenty can show the orphans of Lebanon, many of whom do not know what peace means, that we care."

CLARK ELECTED
Harry M. Clark Jr. of The Woods was recently elected to the Governing Council of the Institute of Real Estate Management. The Institute was founded in 1934 to promote high standards of performance in the field of property management.

"Let us warm their hearts with a Christmas gift of love and sharing. To experience the true meaning of the birth of the Christ Child, the Prince of Peace, whose birthday we will celebrate on December 25, send a check in any amount you wish to donate. No gift is too small. Please, help these innocent victims of this horrible and senseless war."

Make checks payable to St. Maron's Lebanon's Children Xmas Gift, or Our Lady of Redemption Church, Lebanon's Children Xmas Gift. The check to St. Maron can be sent to 11466 Kercheval Avenue, Detroit, Mich. 48207; Our Lady of Redemption, 551 East Grand boulevard, Detroit, Mich. 48207.

There are more than 50 volunteers who are willing to stop by your home to pick up your Christmas card and donation, if you do not wish to mail them. Merely call 824-0196, or 271-0611, and tell the person answering where the gift is to be picked up. All donations have been cleared with the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and are tax deductible.

The deadline for gifts, to insure they reach Lebanon by Christmas, is Wednesday, December 20.

Brys Drive

The petition cited the "substantial increase in both commercial and passenger vehicle traffic on Roslyn road at all hours of the day and night, which has greatly disturbed the tranquility of the neighborhood and has threatened the safety of the children in the area."

Saying they could no longer tolerate the problem, the citizens wanted an opportunity to present the facts and discuss proposed solutions.

As it turned out, a consensus of opinion was apparently reached between officials and citizens toward seeking the cooperation of Harper Woods in alleviating the problem.

Director Dankel indicated he will meet with Harper Woods police officials and visit the area to further explore the situation on the spot.

In relation to this, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos supported the idea of Woods citizens contacting their immediate neighbors in Harper Woods to enlist their support in seeking solutions to the traffic problem.

Perhaps, the mayor said, they have similar problems and might be interested in additional signage.

Ultimately, the plan calls for Director Dankel to then meet with both citizen representatives of Brys and Roslyn toward a meeting of minds.

After this transpires, the item will once again be placed on the council agenda for discussion.

Youths Facing B-E Charges

Two 16-year-old boys, one from The Woods and the other from The Shores, have been charged with burglarizing two Woods service stations early Saturday morning, December 2, after a Youth Service Division detective conducted interviews with the suspects.

Det. William Desilets reported last week that the youths admitted their involvement in entering the Lemanski Shell service station, 20397 Mack, and then struck the Speedway service station, 19727 Mack, because things "ran smoothly" during the first break-in.

If this was the case the first time, it definitely wasn't the second time as police, after being notified of glass breaking by a citizen, nabbed one youth fleeing the scene and the other driving, with headlights out, in the immediate area.

Items recovered from the Speedway station burglary included five cartons of cigarettes, 34 individual packs and 13 lighters. Meanwhile, articles reported missing from the Shell station included two Manufacturers bank bags, which were recovered, and $137.09, of which $129 has been recovered.

With the youths' admission, Det. Desilets filed two petitions on each boy with Wayne County Juvenile Court charging them with breaking and entering.

Officers involved in apprehending the youths included John DeLora, John Harwood, Bruce Marone and Carl Schuster.

Block Grant Idea to Buy P&J Dismissed in Farms

By David Kramer
 The Farms city administration has apparently given up on the idea of purchasing the Punch and Judy Theater, 21 Kercheval avenue, after it was determined that such a purchase would not qualify for the hoped for federal funds. The proposal, which never reached the council for consideration, explored the possibility of using money from an available Wayne County Community Development Block Grant program to preserve historical buildings.

Group Offers Yule Cookbook

The Horizon Club, a group of ninth grade girls at South High School, has compiled a cookbook of Christmas recipes entitled "Holiday Happenings."

This collection of over 50 favorite recipes, including hot hors d'oeuvres, cold appetizers, cookies and punch, will assist the hostess planning an open house or Christmas party.

Horizon Club members selected their favorite family recipes for the booklet, which is $1.50 and may be obtained by calling Debby Gibney at 885-8618 or The Pointe Pedlar, 405 Fisher road.

Horizon Club is a high school program affiliated with Camp Fire, Inc., with the girls raising money for a winter camping and cross country ski weekend at Camp Wathana near Holly.

Officers of the group include president Renee Colletti, secretary Debra McAlister and treasurer Lori Gieseking. Other members include Paula Hanpeter, Betsy Hirt, Suzanne Murray, Kathy Paton and Kelly Smith.

Joan Hanpeter of Berkshire road is advisor. As a special Yuletide Service project, the group will go to Children's Hospital to sing Christmas carols.

Crescent Sail Picks Officers

Newly elected flag officers at Crescent Sail Yacht Club's annual meeting earlier this month include W. Lorne Sherry of Carlisle drive, Mount Clemens, as commodore, along with Pointers B. Frank Boehm of Prestwick road and Harvey Pickford of Hawthorne road as vice-commodore and rear commodore, respectively.

Outgoing commodore Roy Broman of Anita avenue was given a standing ovation for his highly successful efforts in guiding the club during the past year.

Two Pointers also were elected to Crescent's board of directors for three-year terms. They are Dennis Cazabon of Kensington road and Ralph Watkins of Bournemouth circle.

Crescent sailors are again happy with a large share of trophies garnered in Detroit River Yachting Ass'n. regattas this season.

Herb Mainwaring of Fairlake lane, a Crescent past commodore, led the prestigious Offshore Racing Class with most wins for the season for the seventh consecutive year.

DECA Alumni Open House Set

The Distributive Education Club, (DECA), of North High School will host an open house for all alumni members on Tuesday, December 19, at the school, 707 Vernier road.

A film of the school store opening will be shown as well as slides taken throughout the years.

The group hopes to establish an active alumni chapter through activities such as the open house.

Interested alumni should call Tom Condino at 343-2322.

Gets Probation In B-E Incident

An 18-year-old Woods youth, charged with the breaking and entering of a business place with intent to commit larceny, was placed on the Holmes Youthful Training Act and one year's probation on Monday, November 27, by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Roman Gibbs, reported Woods Det. Thomas Podaszewik last week.

The youth, Nelson Edward VanAssche, was charged in the incident in which the R and D Arco service station, 19419 Mack avenue, was entered on September 12.

He was arrested inside the building after police received an alarm run to the service station, according to the report.

Small talk sheds little light on any subject — real power has to come from the high line.

Bid Procedure Question Asked
 A question of procedure was raised by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, December 4, in relation to the sale of used police vehicles and city employees participating in the bid process. In the latest sale, one employee was a successful bidder while two were unsuccessful and Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos shared some concern if employees in any way could be subject to receiving "privity information" on the condition of cars. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said to the best of his knowledge the only way an employee could find out the condition of one vehicle over another is to talk with the mechanic who services them. But, he stressed, city mechanics do no work on police vehicles. The mayor felt there were no problems of integrity involved but wondered if the procedure shouldn't be reviewed toward making certain it wasn't possible that any potential bidder has any special information. The council unanimously concurred in the police vehicle bids with Mr. Petersen being scheduled to check over the total procedure regarding the disposal of vehicles.

Evaluation System Viewed

The teachers are evaluated in 11 different areas, including the following: promotes achievement, promotes personal growth of students, uses quality processes, manages behavior fairly and effectively, follows curriculum, communicates effectively with parents and observes professional ethics.

While teacher union president Curt Lange agreed that "things have quieted down" since the system was implemented, he said most staff members still have serious concerns about the system. "Teachers are becoming conditioned to the process; of course they don't have much choice about it.

"But it continues to have an adverse effect on morale—teachers have the feeling that sometimes the evaluation is used as a tool of harassment," he said.

"No one's really opposed to the procedure as such, just the way it's been used and interpreted by certain administrators."

Dr. Hoeh discussed the evaluation process for school administrators at the Thursday meeting, and noted that it has probably produced "a bit more anxiety" among the staff than teachers' system.

The fact that administrators' evaluations do affect their pay raises each year has "caused a considerable amount of anxiety among the administrators," he said.

Administrators received a uniform, four percent pay hike this year, and another three percent increase distributed to the group on the basis of individuals' final ratings. As a result, some administrators may have received an 11 percent pay increase, while some may have received no hike, he said.

Despite some problems, Dr. Hoeh said the plan has improved administration by inspiring closer attention to detail and to Board-established goals for the system.

He noted that the percentage of pay distributed according to "merit" may be trimmed down in the future to avoid excessive differences between administrators' pay.

Awards Night Observed By Beautification Group

The Woods Beautification Commission held its fourth annual Awards Night on Wednesday evening, December 6, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club with 19 different institutions being cited.

Unlike the previous three Awards Nights when the commission itself was responsible for selecting businesses, this year individuals were requested to submit nominations in various categories.

In the Class I category, larger businesses, the A. H. Peters Funeral Home, 20705 Mack avenue, was the recipient of the Mayor's Trophy, a traveling award which will be used on an annual basis.

Earning an honorable mention beautification certificate was Manufacturers National Bank at Mack and Brys drive, while Denton Construction, 20415 Mack, and Cox and Baker, 19521 Mack, received beautification certificates.

Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack, received the Mayors Trophy in the Class II category, medium-sized businesses.

Earning the honorable mention beautification certificate was Ahee Jewelers, 20139 Mack, while Schummers Ski Shop, 20778 Mack, Lounge in The Woods, 20513 Mack, and IXL Glass, 19807 Mack, received beautification certificates.

In the Class III category, smaller businesses, Sullivan-Rollins Furs, 20647 Mack, was presented the Mayors Trophy.

Receiving an honorable mention beautification certificate was Mr. Q Travel, 19517 Mack, while Adrian Art Galleries, 21143 Mack, earned a beautification certificate.

Our Lady Star of the Sea, 467 Fairford road, earned the Mayors Trophy in the Class IV category, which recognizes schools, churches and libraries.

Receiving an honorable mention beautification certificate was Mason School, 1640 Vernier road, while both Barnes School, 20090 Morningside drive, and Monteith School, 1275 Cook road, were presented beautification certificates.

Meanwhile, three special awards were given in the form of plaques.

The Kimberly Korner of Shops, 20311 Mack, received the landscape award, Dr. Michael Luberto earned the rear entrance award for his Mack avenue clinic and the Dried Flower, 20455 Mack, received the neat and clean award.

"The night was very well received because it had more of a warm and cozy atmosphere," commented commission chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe. "The individuals who received the awards were elated, with some participating for the first time."

Saying most commission members and city councilmen also participated in the event, he added, "The new approach was well received."

Sen. Snyder Honored

Grosse Pointe Board of Education Trustee JOAN HANPETER adds her personal thanks to a Board-approved resolution honoring retiring SEN. JOSEPH SNYDER at a meeting Monday, December 11. Calling the lawmaker a "real friend to education" during his 16-year tenure in Lansing, the trustees said his retirement leaves them with a "sense of loss and sadness."

Cited for Years of Service

In its resolution honoring the senator, the School Board cited his "outstanding" leadership of the Michigan legislature, his "responsiveness to constituents and ready accessibility" and his special concern for education.

"By his decision not to seek re-election to the senate, we are left with a sense of sadness at the loss of his counsel and leadership," the resolution concluded.

Sen. Snyder was on hand Monday to accept the resolution, and noted that his work with Grosse Pointe has been full of special challenges that have kept him in almost weekly contact with the School Board.

"I respect what these trustees do," he said. "They are on the 'front line' so to speak—closest to the people and their problems."

"If irate citizens want to talk to me, they have to travel 100 miles to Lansing. By that time, they've usually had a chance to cool off."

The senator cites his work for the mentally handicapped as his most important contribution in Lansing.

"I think I got the legislature concerned with the problems of the mentally handicapped. By my visits to state institutions and surprise inspections, I got the media involved and opened those problems up to the public," he said in a telephone interview.

He said he has not yet decided what he will do after leaving the senate, adding he intends to work only part-time. Offers have come to him from the United Auto Workers, Southeast Michigan Transportation Authority and several mental health concerns, he said.

Sen. Snyder was honored at a sold-out retirement party Friday, December 8, in St. Clair Shores. Friday was declared "Joe Snyder Day" in that city as well.

Wayne Board Loses Brucker

Pointer Wilber M. Brucker Jr., a member of the Wayne State University Board of Governors since 1967, will resign his post effective Friday, December 15, according to the school.

Mr. Brucker, who announced his resignation at the meeting of the board on Friday, December 8, said he was leaving the board reluctantly because of the "press of other activities in his business life."

He is a partner in the law firm of McNally, Brucker, Newcombe, Wilke and DeBona, and has practiced law in the Detroit area for 26 years.

Appointed to the Board of Governors by former Gov. George E. Romney in September 1967, Mr. Brucker served as chairman of the board in 1972, winning reelection to an eight-year term in November of that year.

Born in Saginaw, Mr. Brucker received his AB degree from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University in 1949 and was awarded his JD degree from the University of Michigan in 1952.

He taught Public Utilities and International Law for five years at the Detroit College of Law.

Mr. Brucker is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, the Detroit Bar Ass'n. and the American Bar Ass'n.

In addition to his legal activities, he is a member of the Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts, the Detroit Historical Society, the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council and Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

He and his wife, Doris, live in Merriweather road.

Kenneth Jewell Group Visits GP

The Musica Series of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will present a Christmas Concert with the Kenneth Jewell Chorale directed by Eric Freudigman on Sunday, December 17, at 8 p.m.

The program will include a carol sing-a-long and Handel's Hallelujah Chorus.

Tickets, at $3 for adults and $1 for students, will be sold at the door and are available in advance by calling 882-5330.

Preceding the program, Memorial's music director William De Turk will play

Christmas music on the church's 47-bell carillon. The carillon program begins at 7:15 p.m.

The Kenneth Jewell Chorale, an ensemble of 50 highly skilled musicians, has presented many concerts throughout the midwest since its inception in 1962. Most chorale members are graduate musicians, professional music teachers and featured soloists with local opera companies and major church choirs.

The Chorale has made more than 20 appearances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and has worked with conductors Antal Dorati, Aldo Ceccato, Michael Tilson Thomas, Krzysztof Penderecki, Eduardo Mata, Sixteen Ehrling and Sarah Caldwell.

They also appear regularly at the Meadow Brook Music Festival and recently performed the Mozart Requiem with Musica Aeterna of New York. Their second Christmas record, "A Child is Born," has just been released.

Valet Parking Proposal Under Study in Woods

By Roger A. Waha
A proposed ordinance requiring valet parking for restaurants with 150 or more seating capacity was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, December 4.

This proposal originally was introduced in relation to Class C liquor license hearings in the community, with a focus upon the bid of Gabby's Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue, for such a document.

It was again viewed by the council on Monday, November 20, at which time some members expressed concern over the expense, (or lack of), of the measure.

Only Gabby's, with an estimated seating capacity of over 200, would be affected by the proposal, noted Building Inspector Earl Wakely, while Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos told his colleagues he preferred to have this matter referred to committee.

In citing the original intent of the proposal, Mr. Pinkos stated, "I want to be sure when it's enacted, it will in no way be arbitrary but will be reasonable and equitable," while adding there was no great hurry to act upon the measure that evening.

(It was originally proposed as an emergency ordinance which would become effective upon posting.)

On the 20th, some councilmen expressed concern over the proposal's emphasis, i.e., on restaurants, particularly those which serve liquor, while wondering if all restaurants or other businesses should be included, too.

Pending further adjustments, the measure currently says that valet parking will be required to be furnished between 11 a.m. and 12 p.m. by any restaurant having a seating capacity of 150 or more persons.

Twelve copies of a site plan of the proposed area to be utilized must be submitted to the council for its approval by any establishment required to furnish such parking, with the public safety director also reviewing the plan.

The plan must be approved prior to the issuance of a license to the restaurant to conduct business within the city, with on-street parking being prohibited wherein a valet parking attendant might park a vehicle upon any on-street parking place.

Cars must be parked only in the area designated and approved on the site plan.

Kerby Families To 'Deck Halls'
Kerby School families will gather Wednesday, December 20 at 7:30 p.m. for a "Deck the Halls" classroom open-house and Christmas music program.

Principal Richard Kay invites all Kerby students to bring their families to join the festivities and meet Santa Claus, (George Lewis).

Paul Decker, PTO President, will introduce a short musical program by the 5th and 6th grade choirs under the direction of Susan Weiss and the instrumental band led by Patricia Birch.

The audience will then be asked to join the caroling.

Santa Claus has promised to appear on behalf of Operation LINC, (Linking Individuals to Needs in the Community). He will receive canned goods donated by the students to be distributed to needy homes. There will be Christmas refreshments and treats from Santa for all the children.

All the classrooms will be open so the students can give their families tours of all the "decked halls." This year, the Christmas decorations are the work of students of art teacher Renato Marchesi with the help of PTO parents co-ordinated by Judy Calcaterra.

Talk on TM Set Dec. 19

Several representatives of the International Meditation Society, (IMS), will be giving a free introductory lecture on the Transcendental Meditation, (TM), program on Tuesday, December 19, in the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 7:30 p.m.

They will be discussing how to achieve a state of perfect health through the TM program.

By perfect health it is meant the perfect functioning and perfect harmony of all parts of the body and mind which not only prevents ill-health and eventually eliminates all existing ill-health but leads to a very highly developed state of well-being, officials say.

Other topics discussed will be mental potential, social behavior and world peace.

The IMS which teaches the TM program is a non-profit, non-religious educational institution which now teaches in every country in the world.

The health benefits through the TM program arise from the deep rest it provides the body.

For further information, call the IMS at the Metro East Center at 779-2430.

Stearns Quits County Post
The Wayne County Board of Health is searching for a new director for the county's Department of Health to replace Dr. Perry Stearns of The Pointe, who informed the Board of Health his resignation will be effective January 1, 1979.
Dr. Stearns, who assumed directorship of the state's largest local health department in August 1974, announced his departure at a regular meeting of the Board of Health in late November.
Dr. Stearns said he was leaving to take up public health administrative duties with the Arizona State Health Department.
The board expressed dismay at Dr. Stearns' resignation and said that the county is losing an able and effective administrator.
The board's chairman, Wayne County Commissioner Tom Presnell, said that under Dr. Stearns' directorship the county's Health Department underwent an administrative revitalization and expanded and upgraded the department's wide-ranging health services to Wayne County citizens.
Mr. Presnell noted that it will be difficult to find a replacement with similar capabilities.
Dr. Stearns took over the reins of administering the county's public health needs from a similar position as Deputy State and County Health Officer for Prince Georges County, Maryland. Dr. Stearns held responsible public health positions in Maryland state and county levels since mid-1966.
The Wayne County Board of Health is expected to announce appointment of an acting director shortly.

Police Gripes in Park
One woman in the audience wanted to know what was being done about the working conditions and the low morale of the police. When Mr. Patterson said the officers' wives, who should have had nothing to say about the matter, brought this out at the last meeting, the woman remarked that she was not a wife of a Park policeman, but was speaking as an interested citizen of the community.
Officer Hiller said he was not bringing up any grievances, as defined under the present working contract between the city and the association, but wanted answers to certain complaints, which should have been brought up under old business. Whereupon, Mr. Graham asked the policeman if this was his view or that of the officers of the department. Officer Hiller said it was his alone.
Protection Viewed
The policeman said there has been no meeting with Chief Coonce as yet, but one had been set up for Wednesday, December 13.
Another woman in the audience, in a near hysterical voice, demanded to know what kind of protection is being given to the citizens of The Park, especially those residing in Wayburn. There should be more police cars on the road, especially at night, she said.
"We are not getting protection at all," the woman said. "With the rapes and robberies going on, I am afraid to leave my house to even go for a walk for fear of what might happen to me. I am afraid for my life. Something just has to be done."
Chief Coonce was asked by a member of the audience how many scout cars patrol the streets during the day and night. The chief replied

'Tower' Cited
Mr. Button noted the staff is "enthusiastic about what they are doing, talented in a broad range of journalistic skills, anxious to learn and to improve those skills and supported by parents who are both interested and helpful."
The Board of Education congratulated Mr. Button and several "Tower" staff members on their accomplishment at its Monday, December 11, meeting.
"You people should be very proud of yourselves," said Trustee Robert Warner. "This is the kind of honor no School Board, with any kind of program, can bring to the system."
Mr. Button, in turn, thanked the trustees for providing financial backing and support for the "Tower" throughout the years.
"Most important, though, the Board has given the "Tower" staff the freedom to present a student point of view that sometimes I don't even agree with," Mr. Button said.
Folks who have nothing important to do usually find time to bother someone who does.

Has No Complaint
A male member of the audience said he had no complaints about the response of police when a crime is reported. "When these officers receive a call they respond immediately, which is great. What we are concerned about is the working conditions and the low morale of our policemen and we would like to see this corrected."
The officers, although they were scheduled to meet with their chief yesterday, said in a private interview they felt they were ignored by the solons in trying to put their views across to them.
Among their primary complaints, the officers said, was that they are working with obsolete equipment in the station and that the station, the equipment, et al., should be updated.
They have nothing, at least for the present, against their present wages and fringe benefits, as set forth under the present contract which does not expire until June 1979.

Have Right to Know
Mr. Graham put the answer more aptly during the discussion when he emphasized that "we are not trying to sweep anything under the rug," but are trying to seek the right solution to existing problems and bring them to a fast conclusion.
The council then suggested that the officers meet with Mr. Crawford, but set no specific date, and that a report be made. If the members of the association and the city manager should resolve the complaints, than it would not be necessary to bring up the matter before the council again, it was said.
However, a citizen demanded that if a solution is reached, the report should be presented to the council and to the people of the community, since this is of interest to the residents, who have a right to know what is going on and what is being done about it.

Suspected 'Cat' Burglar Not Guilty in GPW Case

A Wayne County Circuit Court jury unanimously rendered a not guilty verdict on Wednesday, December 6, climaxing the two-day burglary trial of Floyd Harris, 27, of Dickerson, Detroit, the suspected "cat" burglar, stemming from a late summer incident in The Woods, reported Det. Charles Philip Hamel.

Harris, who also is facing a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100 in Detroit, was charged in The Woods with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling with intent to commit larceny.

This charge ensued after Det. Hamel obtained a set of palm prints from a reportedly stolen vehicle allegedly used by the thief after the burglary of a Fleetwood road home.

Police said the prints were sent to the crime lab and the results revealed that the prints on the trunk belonged to Harris. A warrant was then sought and obtained from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

On the verdict, Det. Hamel indicated the prosecution had "good circumstantial evidence," i.e., the palm prints, a citizen who said he saw the suspect slam the trunk lid down and a Harper Woods officer who chased the stolen car on the expressway and ultimately discovered some articles reported stolen from the Woods home.

But, the detective continued, no prints were found on the stolen merchandise and, when Harris was arrested on September 15 at this home by Park Det. James LaPratt and a team of detectives from Detroit's 15th Precinct, none of the items discovered were traced to any Woods burglaries.

Detroit police said Harris is facing six counts of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100 and is currently in the Wayne County Jail in lieu of $15,000 bond. His trial date is still pending.

Self-Cut Trees Set for Harvest

There are nearly a million reasons why more and more Michiganders are cutting their own Christmas trees each winter, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Michigan is the nation's top producer of plantation-grown Christmas trees," states Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager. This year, families can choose from 800,000 evergreens at 68 cut-your-own farms.

There are trees for every taste and budget, ranging from $1 for scotch pine to $50 for douglas firs, blue spruce or large flocked trees, which are sealed and sprayed with a snow-like coating.

"Tree sizes also run the gamut, from young evergreens perfect for children's rooms, to 40-foot giants for churches and other large buildings," Mr. Ratke said.

Many farms this year are using special attractions to lure customers. On weekends, Santa Claus gives out treats to children at six farms and there are farm animals to pet, plus hot, fresh apple cider and doughnuts to enjoy around yule log fires at many others.

"You can ride a wagon or horse-drawn sleigh at 16 operations or even take part in a live Sunday country music radio show at a farm near Lennon," Mr. Ratke added.

Auto Club gives the following advice for persons cutting their own trees:

- Bring a hand saw. Sixty-one farms lend saws, but they could be in use. Axes are banned.
- Remember that while most pines and douglas firs hold needles, balsams and spruces drop them if not properly cared for.
- After choosing a tree, saw close to the ground.
- Bring a rope for tying the tree to the car. Be sure the base is at the car's front.
- Before placing in a stand, angle cut an inch or two off the tree's base to help it absorb water. Fill the stand with water daily.
- Keep trees from open flames and check lights for shorts and bare wires before decorating. Make sure electrical outlets can handle the load.

Vandals Strike Brownell Twice

Vandals hit Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte avenue, twice within three days, taking about $40 cash and a hand calculator the first time and smashing several windows the next.

The original entry was made Wednesday evening, December 6, apparently through an unlocked window at the rear of the building. The cafeteria office was broken into, as was the employees' locker room. Filing cabinets were pried open and an empty coffee machine was opened forcibly.

Then on Saturday night, December 9, the culprits got in through a boarded up window on a garage door. Once in the garage the vandals obtained access to the school through an unlocked door.

Several windows were smashed, one with a fire extinguisher left at the scene. Apparently nothing was taken.

Farms police believe both incidents were the work of kids.

Church Sets Yule Concert

Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, 21336 Mack avenue, will present Don Hustad's "Candlelight Carols" on Sunday, December 17, at 6:30 p.m.

The presentation will feature the chancel choir, under the direction of Robert Kitley, the youth choir, directed by Raynor Hammill, and the children's choir, led by Dr. and Mrs. Tom Beach.

The dramatic musical program will portray the traditional Christmas story with a reading by Dr. Herbert Miller, minister of membership, combining tableaux and familiar carols. Accompaniment will feature organ and percussion. The evening will begin with a candlelight procession by more than 75 participants in the program.

For more information, call the church at 881-3343.

Commissioner Resigns in GPW

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, December 4, unanimously accepted the resignation of Audrey Dolgner, recording secretary, Senior Citizens Commission, effective on January 1.

Mrs. Dolgner, who decided to resign because of personal reasons, has been recording secretary for two and a half years and also has served as housing chairman.

"Thank you for the appointment and I leave with the hope that I have contributed toward solving some of the problems of some of the seniors in our community," she said.

The council authorized that Mrs. Dolgner be presented with a certificate of appreciation for her service to the city.

Obituaries

DAVID C. LOWE
Services for Mr. Lowe, 76, of Cranford lane will be held today, Thursday, December 14, at the Verheyden Funeral Home at 11 a.m.

He died on Monday, December 11, at Bon Secours Hospital.

Mr. Lowe was the former owner and president of Detroit Marine Terminals Inc. He was active in Detroit's port development and city planning until his retirement in 1963.

In 1950, he was appointed to the planning commission of Grosse Pointe Woods. He was later appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

As a member of the Port and Seaway Committee, he was active during the planning and construction of the Saint Lawrence Seaway. In 1962, Gov. John Swainson appointed him a Michigan Industrial Ambassador.

Mr. Lowe was past president of Kiwanis No. 1 and the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe. He was a director of the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital and was a former member of the World Trade Club, the Propeller Club and the Port of Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Jeanne; a son, Donald J. McCarty; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Flood; one brother; two sisters and eight grandchildren.

Interment will be at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

DR. EDWARD K. ISBEY
Services for Dr. Isbey, 74, formerly of The Pointe, late of Port Austin, were held on Tuesday, December 5, at the Trinity Episcopal Church, Asheville, N.C. Arrangements were handled by the Anders-Rice Funeral Home. He died on Sunday, Deember 3, in North Carolina. Dr. Isbey had lived in The Pointe and practiced medicine in the area for 50 years.

A native of Michigan City, Ind., he was a 1928 graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School. Before his retirement in 1973, he was on the staff of Grace Hospital and Holy Cross Hospital, where he was past president and chief of surgery from 1946 to 1970.

Dr. Isbey was one of the founders of Holy Cross Hospital.

He was a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and the International College of Surgeons, and a 50-year member of the Macomb County Medical Society, American Medical Ass'n. He also was a senior member and past president of the Academy of Surgery of Detroit.

In October, Dr. Isbey received his 50-year alumni certificate from the University of Michigan Medical School. He was a member of the Galens Honorary Medical Society, University of Michigan, and was a former member of the Detroit Boat Club and a senior member of Lochmoor Club.

He belonged to Christ Church in The Pointe.

Dr. Isbey is survived by his wife, Marian F., two sons, Dr. Edward K. Jr. and William F., and eight grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society. Cremation was in North Carolina.

MRS. MABLE C. MARINUS

A memorial service for Mrs. Marinus, formerly of The Farms, late of Okemos, will be held at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Wednesday, December 20, at 2 p.m.

Private services were held at Woodlawn Cemetery. Arrangements were handled by the Gorslin-Runciman Funeral Home, East Lansing.

She died on Tuesday, December 5, at Sparrow Hospital, Lansing.

Mrs. Marinus was a lifelong resident of The Farms until recent years. She was the wife of the late Dr. Carleton Marinus, a Detroit endocrinologist.

Mrs. Marinus is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Doenges, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Berea College, Berea, Ky. 40403, or to the University of Michigan Medical School, Ann Arbor.

WALTER KOBY

Services for Mr. Koby, 87, of The Park were held on Wednesday, December 13, at the Arthur J. Van Lerbergh Funeral Home, St. Clair Shores.

He died on Saturday, December 9, at Bon Secours Hospital.

Mr. Koby is survived by a son, Alexander, three daughters, Mrs. Mary Rollins, Mrs. Olga Palmer and Lillian, 11 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Interment was at Resurrection Cemetery.

Red Cross Sets Blood Drives

To kick off its annual Save-A-Life Sunday, December 31, the Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross is holding two staff blood drives.

The staff drives, as well as Save-A-Life Sunday, are part of an effort to boost traditionally low blood supplies during the holidays.

Each holiday season, the Red Cross faces a slump in blood collections because industry, (a major blood source), is shut down, there are fewer collection days, and fewer donors willing to take time to donate.

Unfortunately, the need for blood knows no season, officials say.

Red Cross is urging people between the ages of 18, (17 with parental permission), and 66 to donate blood.

All Red Cross Blood Centers in southeastern Michigan will be open on December 31 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. People who are unable to donate on Save-A-Life Sunday are encouraged to stop in anytime during the holiday season to give blood.

Call 833-4440 or any Red Cross Blood Center, (listed under American Red Cross in the telephone book), for an appointment.

Memories of success and failure help guide many along the difficult path of the future.

Being Honored This Week

By Wilma Greenway

"Grosse Pointe joins its neighboring communities in honoring one of its most distinguished native sons during this, 'Monsignor Edward J. Hickey Week,'" said Grosse Pointe City Mayor John King. "Msgr. Hickey may be 85 this week, but he'll always be young."

"We congratulate him on a lifetime of service to his fellowman, not only in his vocation of religion which he so nobly exemplifies, but equally in the fields of history, of education and of art and culture.

"A number of tributes and mayoral proclamations have named him 'Man of the Week,' but we in Grosse Pointe like to think of him, and his outstanding family, as singularly our own," he said.

The Rt. Rev. Edward Hickey, 85, on Wednesday, December 13, responded with characteristic vigor and wit:

"I'm going to signal my coming of age with a three-day celebration, and the party's on me! All my friends, and art-loving strangers, too, are invited to join the fun at our Art Cloister Gallery, East Grand boulevard at Gratiot, Detroit, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, December 15, 16 and 17, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day," he said.

"I'll swap stories about my adventures in my hobby of collecting art, and there'll be birthday cake and punch and music to brighten the hours.

"And since the Art Cloister is a non-profit venture, I'm putting every antique painting, sculpture and objet d'art on sale, so that if anyone covets one of my treasures, it'll be available at little cost, and there'll be a little additional Christmas donation for charity."

Although his Art Cloister of Saint Mary's, 1122 East Grand boulevard, is world-known and has become a mecca for collectors not only from Grosse Pointe and adjacent communities, but also from many parts of the United States and Europe, it is still a "part-time hobby" for the Monsignor.

He is the top-ranking Monsignor in Michigan, former chancellor of the Archdiocese under Cardinal Mooney and pastor emeritus of big Saint Mary of Redford parish. He lives at Saint Mary's and still serves the earliest Mass each morning. Although retired as pastor, he continues as the oldest active prelate in this area.

As a priest, he is known to people in every state of life for his compassion and understanding—a priest who is open to all, ready with wise counsel and a compassionate heart to serve all whom his life touches.

But now that his priestly duties are lighter, art remains his increasingly absorbing interest.

He spends six hours a day, six days a week, in the Art Cloister—which exhibits some 3,000 pieces of Old World art, covering four centuries.

Monsignor has collected them over the past 60 years, using an inheritance from his parents to acquire the original pieces, and selling the artworks at a modest profit to benefit his church or his many charities.

"I blame my delinquency on my parents," he quipped. "They started me off. Ten years ago I had two churches, two schools, and a 'hobby' of three art galleries to run. Now at 85, I'm getting wiser, and I just have the Cloister... but it has three floors, so it's almost as big."

Wine Lines

By John Lundberg

The final determinant of which wine to drink with which food is you and your own taste. Convention based on years of tasting, however, suggests some of the following wine and food combinations. With soup, serve a Sauterne, Dry Sherry, or Madeira. Chablis, Graves, Rhine and Moselle are well suited for shellfish and hors d'oeuvres. Madeira, Sherry and Champagne are dessert wines. Red Burgundy, Red Bordeaux, Rhone and other reds are recommended with fowl or game. Red meat roasts go well with the same wines, but also taste good with sparkling burgundy.

For a selection of distinctive wines that will enhance any meal, come to PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, Detroit. To complement your wine selection, let us prepare an unusual gift basket, composed of wines, cheeses and other items. Treat your friends or family to a distinctive evening of relaxation and enjoyment with a superb wine selection from PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE. Open 10-10 Mon.-Thurs., 10-11 Fri. & Sat., noon-10 Sun. Tel. 885-0626.

Set Drive-In Nativity Scene

For two millenniums Christians have been recounting the story and importance of Jesus' miraculous birth. This year, a local church group has found an unusual way to share that message with its community.

The youth of the Grosse Pointe Congregational and American Baptist Church will stage a drive-in Nativity Pageant in their church parking lot, 240 Chalfonte avenue, on Sunday evening, December 17. The presentation lasts 15 minutes and will be repeated each half hour from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

From their cars the audience will see and hear a dramatization of the annunciation to Mary, Mary and Joseph's pilgrimage to Bethlehem, the Angels' appearance to the Shepherds, and the arrival of the Wise Men.

The presentation is open to the public.

The most important phase of child management is learning how to understand children.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Some people look at the inflated price of their homes and simply shrug it off as false gains. They feel whatever they gain will be put right back into another home. If you had stock and it was appreciating rapidly you would purchase as much of it as possible. So this is our answer also!

Real Estate has proven over the past fifteen years that it is the very best, most round investment. And as we've said you can live in it, too! Quite a fringe benefit for your number one investment. Naturally, we say upgrade your living by indulging in a finer home — a large one or perhaps one better located to your needs.

If you find you already have your utopia home then best you investigate the excess equity you now own. Your mortgage probably was 80% of the cost when you purchased your equity only 20%! Now that equity is approaching 50%-60%. This is enough to remortgage and invest in income property. The person who sits by idly and does nothing surely will not progress financially. The people of Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 have some interesting suggestions regarding your excess equity — why not call them today?

ULS Coach Sees Victory In Works for Hoopsters

By David Kramer

"Our slogan last year was 'The roundball renaissance.' This year it's 'We're comin' on' and I think we will be." So says coach Joe Hacklin of his University-Liggett School, (ULS), varsity basketball team...

team's personnel. "Their attitude has been super," says coach Hacklin. "We hope the hard work will pay off over the winter." Assisting the coach will be Greg Cosell, who Joe Hacklin says is a nephew of guess who. This year's student managers are Bill Gore and Sal Cavaliere.

"We'll be trying to build on the momentum of what we got going last year when we beat our arch-rival Detroit Country Day for the first time since 1963 on their court."

Coach Hacklin points out that his team is at a disadvantage since the Metro Conference in which they play is basically composed of Class C schools. In fact, Country Day and ULS are the only Class D Schools in it.

But he's confident of his players, which include four seniors, three juniors, one sophomore and two freshmen.

"It's a well-balanced team and all ten should get playing time," he said. "Our prognosis is that we must improve our defense more than any other part of the game. Our strong point is rebounding."

Seniors Jack Roberts and Dave Popkey will lead the team with the most experience. Other seniors are John Kavadas and 6'3" Kevin Wohlfield.

Tallest player is 6'5" junior Don Chamberlin, followed closely by classmate Kevin Karson, at 6'4". John Hindle is the other junior team member.

The third annual Gray's Paddle Tennis Invitational was held at the Hunt Club on Saturday, December 2. Because of the good turnout this year, there were two divisions.

Winners of the A division were Peter Short and Barry Brink, defeating Lou Echlin and Bob Wachter in the finals. The B division winners were Bob Fraser and Don Miller, who outlasted Ken Gutow and Rich Martinez in their finals.

Lil' Wings Tie See-Saw Game

The Grosse Pointe Lil' Wings, Squirt AA travel hockey team, and the St. Clair Shores Lakers played to a 3-3 tie at the Grosse Pointe Community Rink on Tuesday, December 5.

The contest was an exciting up and down affair that saw The G. P. Wings open the scoring in the first period. The two teams then traded goals until the final outcome.

Grosse Pointe scoring went as follows: Joe Sullivan from Andy Roy, John Russell from John Birgbauer and Birgbauer from Russell.

REAL ESTATE — Still the Best Investment You Can Make!

First Offering

DYNAMITE DEAL

Extra cute cottage at a delicious $21,500 price, just off Warren. This two bedroom, low maintenance home is ideal for a couple and is loaded with extras, like central air and fireplace. Look again at the price... everyone has to start out somewhere, and this is a cute home in a nice section of Detroit!

ONCE UPON A TIME BEAUTIFUL CAPE COD COTTAGES WERE ABUNDANT, NOW THEY'RE RARE...

... and at $54,900, this delightful, beautifully decorated "touch of Americana" will soon be gone, unless you call us today. (Because our offerings quickly become FAST SOLDS!)

AT $135,900 IT COULD BE THE LAST opportunity to see this incredibly fine custom ranch home. Now at $20,000 savings over original price, this special ranch will sell quickly! And when you see such "desirables" as three deluxe fireplaces, attached 2½ car garage, all new quality kitchen, 2½ baths on the first floor, the huge family room, central A/C... time out! Words alone won't do it; only by walking thru will you see why we're so enthusiastic. See you Sunday.

AND NOW FOR $175,000 — "The question is" Did you know there's a fine Grosse Pointe Shores Ranch that's just off Lakeshore Drive that could be exactly what you desire? You wouldn't want to buy the wrong ranch would you? You might unless you take a 15 minute look-see. It could be the most rewarding quarter hour of your life.

SACRIFICE SALE — Owner has ordered us to sell his beautiful quality-built ranch home immediately, if not sooner! He'll consider reasonable offers for his two bath property situated in a beautifully convenient area of the Woods. Why not take a moment to walk thru. It's a classic opportunity to beat next springs higher prices, and save thousands of dollars!

OCCASIONALLY, THERE IS SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN... (OR BUILT IN GROSSE POINTE!) If you're the person who wants their home to convey excitement and pride of ownership as well as livability, architecturally engineered, for today's demanding needs in energy efficiency and evading the look of tomorrow in its carefree contemporary facade, then stop just thinking and talking about it let us show you a home destined to be one of the Pointe's most admired by those who "march to a different drummer"

FIRST OFFERING
IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS and what a beautiful package. This four bedroom colonial comes on a private street in the Farms and offers seclusion yet close proximity to Kerby School and the Pier Park. Newly decorated, the first floor plan which includes a large laundry, formal dining room, family room with brick floor, beamed cathedral ceiling and fireplace.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE
WE KNOW YOU'LL LIKE THE LOOKS of this one from the street. Now step inside and see how this little, big house "opens" up. There is a formal living room with fireplace across the front of the house. Beyond the separate dining room is a glass and enclosed porch. A well proportioned family room with bar, full bath and guest bedroom and another smaller bedroom.

THREE BEDROOM COLONIAL with a first floor lavatory and a large, paneled room makes its brief appearance on the market. We say brief because at the price of $28,500 it should sell quickly.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION — Renaud in the Shores. This center entrance plan offers six bedrooms, family room and library, finished basement. Four fireplaces and a paneled games room. Family living and entertaining are in harmony with this family room. Built-in speakers, movie screen, complete wet bar, indoor grill and many extras.

AREN'T YOU GLAD YOU WAITED? That gracious English house with wide halls and generously proportioned rooms is now available and in a location which is most desirable. Beautiful paneling and gum wood accented interior give this offering that something extra. There are four bedrooms on the second floor and a fifth on the third. There are so many extras which include a three car garage.

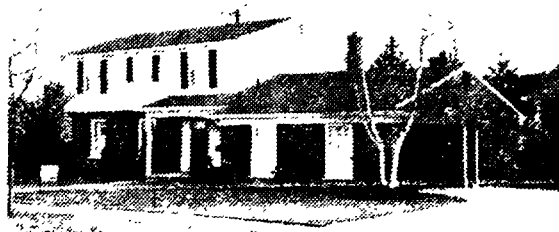

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY on Kercheval in the Pointe. One story 30 x 40 building has plenty of rear parking plus new gas furnace.

JUST OFF JEFFERSON—ON WASHINGTON ROAD is this brand new, southern colonial with four bedrooms on the second floor. To complement the living and dining rooms is a den plus step-down family room with fireplace and a cathedral ceiling.

PURDY & TOLES

CHOICE FARMS LOCATION — Extra special Executive's house near schools, shopping, transportation, etc. The easy maintenance for a house of this magnitude is the benchmark here and add the following: Sensational patio, exquisite grounds living room, library, family room, recreation room and master suite all with fireplaces — 4 additional family bedrooms plus maid's quarters — only the beginning, so call for one of our expert sales personnel for further exciting details.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY — To buy a property that we think has fantastic potential. Located behind the N.B.D. Regional Office in the Village, we offer 90 feet of frontage on Notre Dame plus plenty of depth. The remodeled house is perfectly charming containing three business suites. Because of the width, there's plenty of "off-street" parking and the 4-car garage offers a maximum of storage. This property is zoned business so it's perfect for Real Estate, Insurance, C.P.A.'s, Lawyers, Doctors, etc.

END OF THE YEAR BARGAIN — Not too many vacant properties left — and we offer a tremendous bargain. If you're planning on building in the near future don't miss this 100'x250' lot complete with an almost Olympic sized heated swimming pool — Just build that "charmer" right around it — complements one another.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
 Superintendent of Schools

"Improving Employee Relations" is another one of the 12 Board of Education goals for 1978-1979. By adopting this goal, the Board recognizes the importance of reviewing efforts to improve mutual understanding in interpersonal and collective relationships with employees of the school system.

In an effort to achieve this goal, representatives of our Division of Administrative Services meet monthly with the officers of the four employee associations to discuss concerns about the current contracts.

In addition to these more formal sessions, regular informal meetings are held to try and work out problems without having to resort to the grievance procedure.

A further effort of the central office administrative staff to improve employee relations involves frequent visits to the schools to observe the instructional process and talk with teachers, secretaries and plant and cafeteria personnel on a one-to-one basis.

Another part of this goal is to include those affected by decisions in the decision-making process. A good illustration of this at the secondary level is the list of curriculum changes approved by the Board at its December meeting.

Between the two high schools, 12 new courses were added and several other changes in the curriculum were made. These new courses and curriculum changes started as recommendations from the faculty to building administrators.

Following meetings between the administrators and teachers and between departments of both schools, the resulting curriculum suggestions were endorsed by the building administrators and submitted to the superintendent prior to Board action.

In this particular situation, those affected most by the changes were the ones who instituted them.

An example of involving people in the decision-making process at the elementary level is the review study of the elementary science curriculum which started last year with a committee of teachers selecting materials to be used on a pilot basis this year.

To determine the effectiveness of different science programs, selected teachers are involved in pilot projects and are attending workshops on their use.

Following an evaluation of all the materials, a recommendation of an elementary science program will be made by those teachers in cooperation with building and central office administrators.

We think that the Grosse Pointe Public School System is a good place to work and want to keep it that way for all of our employees. By following plans and procedures exemplified by the situations related above, we hope to not only maintain our positive work environment but continue to improve it.

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
 My story is short, but I feel it should be told, and the people who went out of their way to help us acknowledged.

On Friday morning, November 24, I took my five-year-old niece, Kari, to see the Santa Claus parade in the Village. We were crossing the street and my niece tripped and fell. Her lip and front teeth were bleeding so I walked over to Kresges, where I hoped but did not expect to be helped.

Due to an abundance of apathy that has developed in this country, I was amazed at, and extremely thankful for, the treatment we received.

I had expected to have been told by the management of Kresges that the situation was out of their hands, or they couldn't help and I should take her home and take care of her myself.

The people of the soda fountain told me that I could take her into the employees lounge, where I could use the bathroom to clean her up.

A few minutes later a young girl walked in with ice cubes and paper towels. She sat and talked to Kari and held cold compresses to her mouth.

The manager came in soon after and said he'd take over when it came time for the salesgirl to go back to work. She said that wasn't necessary because she didn't have to be on duty until 12:30.

The manager sat and talked with Kari and some of the other employees who were in the lounge went to gather needed supplies.

They all acted calm and professional. They told me that when the parade was over, and if her tooth still hurt, that Kari was welcome to come back to the lounge if she needed more ice.

I just would like to say that I'm grateful to the people at Kresges for all that they did for her.

I know that the holidays are a very busy, sometimes hair-raising time for store owners and managers, and I also know that I was asking a lot when I asked them for help.

The soda fountain area is always busy and shorthanded but these people dropped what they were doing and helped someone in trouble.

This may seem trivial and the sort of thing you should shove under the rug, but I feel acknowledgement during these times is needed.

My niece may only be five-years-old, but she's going to remember this incident and the people who reached out to help her.

Apathy is, unfortunately, a rising problem in this country, but this incident of concern and human caring, restored my faith in human nature.

Walkways Discussed in GP Farms

By David Kramer

Following a show of force by Colonial court residents who were opposed to such a plan, the Farms Council voted not to close the walkway from Colonial to Lexington road in response to abutting property owners' complaints.

The council voted unanimously to keep the walkway, one of a number of similar pedestrian accesses in The Farms, open after receiving a petition bearing the signatures of 70 Colonial court residents.

At the same time, the council at its Monday, December 4, meeting asked City Manager Andrew Bremer to look into better snow removal of the path and also to spread the cost of maintaining the walk between area residents and not just the abutting property owners.

Meanwhile, Jack O'Brien, whose home abuts the walk, was told to discuss his proposal to erect a fence along the walk in his front yard with Director of Public Services John DeFoe. He was further told that such a move would require a variance, but that the council would be receptive to such a variance, since Mr. O'Brien's situation presented, in their opinion, a "hardship."

Mr. O'Brien has made numerous complaints to police concerning youths on bicycles riding across his front lawn because of the walkway.

He and Charles Stroad, who lives on the other side of the walk in Lexington, were the most vocal residents requesting the council to abandon the walk. Police reports confirmed the problems the men were having with youngsters and others using the walk.

Colonial residents argued the walkway was a safer way for their children to get to school, since they would otherwise have to walk on Mack avenue. They also pointed out that the abutting property owners knew the walk was there when they purchased their homes.

It was decided that several suggestions to keep motorized vehicles off the walk would be unfeasible, since the walk would then also be inaccessible to plows.

The walkways are a rather peculiar phenomenon to The Farms, which has several which connect streets that would otherwise be dead ends or circles to pedestrians, as they are to vehicles.

Free Class Set for GP Seniors

The public schools hope to increase their service to senior citizens next semester by offering a free seminar through the department of continuing education.

The course, which will cost the system $350, was approved by the School Board on Monday, December 11. It will include a series of 10 lectures designed to meet the needs and interests of elderly residents of The Pointe.

Board President Laurance Harwood, who has long advocated an expansion of services to seniors, said he hopes the course is "just a beginning."

"This is a good start, but I really would like to see the system do more for our seniors in the future," Mr. Harwood said.

MORE EQUAL RIGHTS

More than half of America's millionaires—50.4 percent—are women. Total ratio of millionaires in the population today is one in 900, compared with one in 11,300 in 1948.

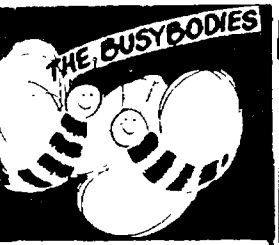

"We spend millions of dollars on our school buildings, and we get a very good return on our investment from 8 to 3:30 each day, but not a very good one the rest of the day," he said. "I'd like to see the buildings used to the maximum."

Proposed topics for the lectures include book reviews, nutrition, real estate, leisure time activities, family relationships, travel, consumer education, cooking and estate planning.

The class will be offered free of charge to students 60 years and older. Coffee and cookies will be served at cost after class.

The school system also offers senior citizens a 25 percent reduction in tuition fees for other courses offered in the community. Seniors are admitted to school-sponsored athletic events, music and dramatic productions without charge.

A recent census conducted by the system shows there are about 9,300 persons 60 years or older living within district boundaries, almost 15 percent of the total population.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Back in 1971, when Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, of Three Mile drive, was president of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, she heard about a Chicago Symphony Orchestra symphony preludes program.

"Well, now," thought Rose LoCicero, "isn't THAT a good idea" . . . and why not try it in Detroit?"

The Detroit Symphony Preludes, sponsored by the Symphony Women, open their eighth season next month, and for those who've already made a New Year's resolution to attend the programs we offer some inside information: hurry up and get your tickets!

For the audience at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is limited to 300, and to say the Preludes are popular is to understate the case. They're SUPER popular.

The first Prelude, Friday, January 19, "What's New in Cellos?" will feature Barbara Fickett, cello, and Alice Lungershausen, harpsichord. The second, Friday, February 23, "My Bass and I," will feature Robert Gladstone, the DSO's principal bass, and Muriel Kilbey, piano.

Each Prelude begins promptly at 11 in the morning. Each is followed at 12:15 by a subscription luncheon. Ticket information may be obtained (Continued on Page 20)

Campbell-Hickey Vows Exchanged

Bride's Gown Is Fashioned of Point d'Esprit, Duchess And Cluny Lace; She Wears Matching Picture Hat

Monsignor Edward J. Hickey was on the altar for the wedding of his great-niece, Susan Mary Hickey, and Allan Gregory Campbell, III, Saturday, November 18, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Father Kevin Britt was the officiating clergyman. Joseph Hickey, brother of the bride, gave the reading and Prayers of the Faithful written by the bride and bridegroom.

The 11 o'clock mass was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom, after which the newlyweds left to vacation in Palm Springs, Calif. They are at home in Southfield.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lincoln Hickey, Jr., of Ford court, wore a gown of antique ivory, heirloom point d'esprit lace. Her Duchess lace peplum flowed into a cathedral train. Cluny lace formed her mandarin collar, circled her waist and accented the cuffs of her long, gathered sleeves.

She wore a picture hat of matching lace, tied with illusion streamers, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis centered with dusty pink carnations.

She was attended by honor matron Mrs. Michael Julien, of Grand Rapids, in a long-sleeved, blouson frock of burgundy crepe with a yoke of ivory lace.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Cheryl Smith and Ann King, cousins of the bride, Martha Zimmerman, Marianne Deagle and Mrs. Richard Mock, the bridegroom's sister.

Each carried three long-stemmed, dusty pink carnations, tied with pink ribbons.

Mr. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gregory Campbell, Jr., of Birmingham, asked John Brennan to serve as best man.

Ushers were Tim and Jamie Campbell, brothers of the bridegroom, Fred Hickey, brother of the bride, Mr.

Mock and James Teegarden. A yoke of white sequins accented the high-necked bodice of the long-sleeved, aqua chiffon, waltz length gown selected by Mrs. Hickey for her daughter's wedding. She pinned Eucharis lilies to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother chose a matinee length burgundy and champagne chiffon print, with a tunic, and a purse corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Give College for Christmas

Looking for that perfect Christmas gift for someone special this year? Why not give a friend or relative a learning vacation at College Week, on the campus of Michigan State University?

College Week numbers are growing every year. Last year, more than 1,200 participants, (ages 17 to 86), came from every county in Michigan to take part in approximately 50 classes, workshops, discussions — and just plain fun.

Among the topics to be covered in classes during College Week, June 18 through 21, 1979, are weight control, menopause, stress, nutrition, self-esteem, retirement, photography, families in transition, inflation, energy conservation and local government.

And one of the best parts of attending classes is that there are no grades!

According to Wilma Miller, College Week program coordinator, there are a number of options available for College Week participants. Many live in a dormitory, ($65 for the total package, including 10 meals and three nights lodging).

Others commute to the week of classes, ($18), and some choose to attend visitors' day only, ($10).

College Week, coordinated by personnel from the Family Living Education program of the MSU Cooperative Extension Service and the College of Human Ecology, has a registration deadline of June 1.

Registration forms will soon be available from Kathy Bufton, Extension home economist in Wayne County, (phone 721-6565 or 563-2950).

Greenwell Is Voice of DSO

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra has named Charles Greenwell as announcer and interview host for the orchestra's weekly statewide radio broadcasts during the 1978-79 season.

The broadcasts are aired in Detroit over WDET-FM (101.9) Wednesday evenings at 8:30 o'clock. They also are broadcast statewide over Michigan's public radio stations.

This season marks the third year of the statewide radio broadcasts. Greenwell will host each week's program, providing introductory remarks and interviewing guest conductors and soloists.

Greenwell began his extensive broadcasting career in East Lansing in 1957 as a producer and announcer for WKAR-AM-FM. He has been associated with a number of radio and television stations in New York, London, Atlanta and Detroit.

Currently, he is an announcer and producer and Public Service director of WORS-FM, Detroit. He also has 15 years of professional experience as a conductor, composer and musician, and holds a Master of Music degree from Michigan State University.

Questers Topic Is Paper Craft

The story of the ancient art of paper craft will entertain Windmill Pointe Questers at their meeting Monday, December 18, in the Buckingham road home of Mrs. Roy Thayer.

Following coffee and a business session, chaired by Mrs. Leo Hardwick, Mrs. Stanley Kenn will present background on the folding and cutting of paper to form decorative designs: a process as old as paper itself.

Origami and silhouettes are two well-known forms of the craft.

Exchanging marriage vows Friday evening, October 20, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church were DEBORAH ANNE BAKER and WILLIAM WALTER ADAMS. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Baker, of Fordcroft road, and Dr. and Mrs. Vincent B. Adams, of Warner road.

Candlelight Rites For Miss Baker

Ceremony at Which She Is Wed to William Walter Adams Is Followed by Reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church was the setting for the candlelight wedding of Deborah Anne Baker, daughter of the William F. Bakers, of Fordcroft road, and William Walter Adams, son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent B. Adams, of Warner road.

Presiding at the evening rites Friday, October 20, were The Reverend Ralph Barton and The Reverend Al Hillebrand. A reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club followed the 7 o'clock ceremony.

The newlyweds vacationed in the Florida Keys. They will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

The bride's gown of crystal-pleated ivory chiffon featured a jacket bodice of re-embroidered lace with crystal-pleated, chiffon, bell sleeves. A handsewn Juliet cap of re-embroidered lace held her cathedral length, silk illusion veil.

She carried fresh, white roses in a cluster of dried flowers.

In cowl-necked frocks of tan jersey, cap-sleeved and sashed loosely in back, were honor maid Kathy Bennett, who carried fresh, coral roses and dried flowers, and bridesmaids Renee Adams Schulte, sister of the bridegroom, Andrea Adams, another sister, Gail Spencer Hartledge, Cindy Shortt and Susan Rinke, the bride's cousin, carrying yellow roses in their dried flower bouquets.

James Adams was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by Dennis and George Adams, two other brothers. William Schulte, their brother-in-law, Gary Baun, the bridegroom's cousin, and John Baker, the bride's brother.

Chris, Bill and Matt Baker were lecturers.

The mother of the bride wore pale peach chiffon. The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of soft grey-blue, shot with embroidered silver threads. Each mother pinned a cymbidium orchid to her evening bag.

Special guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howell, of Sarasota, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. John William Baker, and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tyil.

Cottage Hospital Opens Room for Meditation

Cottage Hospital has opened a meditation room for patients, visitors and employees who need a place to be quiet or alone in times of stress or spiritual need.

It is non-sectarian, located on the third floor of the hospital and simply furnished with a kneeling stand, chairs and a curtained wall with a sculptural piece as focal point.

"It has been part of our overall planning for some time to provide a place where an individual might meet with his priest or minister, or find a restful place to think or pray," explains Ralph L. Wilgarde, Cottage's administrator.

The meditation room is open at all times and is equipped to accommodate a wheelchair.

Start Nursery School Term

Early in the new year — Wednesday, January 3, to be precise — a new year's Nursery School will start at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for children age three to five. Fully licensed as a child care center, the school is under the direction and supervision of Ronna York who holds her Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University and her Masters degree from the University of Michigan. Mrs. York is a former kindergarten and first grade teacher with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The goal of the nursery school program is to offer children a climate conducive to enjoyable learning with children their own age.

Ribbon Farms Meets Monday

Mrs. Joseph M. Scanlan will open her Merriweather road home at 12:30 o'clock Monday, December 18, for the annual Christmas party and program of the Ribbon Farms Chapter of the Quarters, Inc.

They are taught to develop a positive self-image through a succession of new experiences, and they learn to take responsibility for their actions.

Art, music, games, drama, science, reading and numbers are introduced. Quiet times follow active periods. Snack treats are provided.

The school term of 12 weeks is offered in two-day sessions for $96, three days for $144 and five days for $240. Enrollment may be made at the War Memorial office.

Detailed information may be obtained by calling 881-8885.

The Preludes are designed as a combination fun/educational endeavor, promoting interest in the DSO's concert season.

Mrs. Harry W. Taylor chairs the 1979 season. The concert schedule was announced by Mrs. John T. McMullen. It looks like a goodie—but it always is.

Music in the Air

It's a holiday tradition, and a lovely one: Christmas caroling at the homes of Pointe area shut-ins by members of Phase I, the singles group, (ages 20 through 39), which meets regularly at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

They're setting out this Sunday, 60-plus at 6 o'clock, in car pools from the church, and there'll be music in the air for the next two hours as they stop at nursing homes and private residences.

Then it's back to Memorial Church and up, (quietly please: the annual Christmas concert by the Kenneth Jewell Chorale will be in progress in the sanctuary), to the second floor lounge for hot chocolate, cookies and more singing around a blazing fire.

Doesn't that sound like a lovely ending to a lovely night?

Christmas Walk Today

Yes, Virginia... there IS a Grosse Pointe Christmas Walk, and yes: it IS today, (Thursday, December 14).

And yes, you CAN still go a-Walking, even if you didn't get your tickets in advance. They're available at the five homes open for the 1978 Walk during Walk hours, 10 to 4 o'clock.

Cost is $6 per person. It would have been $5 if you'd thought ahead, but who thinks ahead at this time of year?

With each ticket comes a map, showing you how to get from house to house—to find your first house, we suggest simply driving down Lakeshore (Continued on Page 32)

To Marry

September wedding plans are being made by MARY HELEN MILNE and James Peter Jackel whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Milne, of Lakeshore lane.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and Social Work from Western Michigan University.

Her fiance, son of Mrs. Paul T. Jackel, of Arcadia, and the late Mr. Jackel, received his Bachelors degree in Accounting from the University of Michigan.

Pointer Bridge Girls to Meet

Pointer Girls Bridge Club members gather next Thursday, December 21, at 11:30 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House for their annual Christmas card party.

Mrs. Ralph F. Urso is chairman of the day. Members unable to attend are asked to call 823-0794 by Saturday, December 16.

Dames Deck Whitby Hall

As has been their custom since 1975, members of the Michigan Chapter of the National Society of Colonial Dames of America will provide arrangements of Christmas greenery for Whitby Hall, a pre-Revolutionary home in the Detroit Institute of Arts American Wing, during the holiday season.

Hutzel Ready for Christmas

A hospital may not be anybody's favorite place to spend Christmas, but for those who must Hutzel Hospital, in the Detroit Medical Center, is a caring place to be.

Now, as they do each year, members of the hospital auxiliary including Pointers such as Mrs. Kamran Moghissi are making "Santa's stockings" to carry newborns to their mothers on Christmas morning.

They also make colorful favors for all patients' meal trays.

Release First of Three New Detroit Symphony Albums

The first Detroit Symphony Orchestra recording made under the baton of Music Director Antal Dorati was released in the metropolitan Detroit area Monday, December 11.

The recording, an all-Tchaikovsky album on the London label with the words "Dorati-Detroit" on the front and a gleaming color photograph of the Renaissance Center on the flip side, is also the first produced under a major recording contract by the Detroit Symphony in almost 20 years.

The new release includes Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture with some very special effects, London Records engineers have included the sounds of muzzle-loading Civil War cannon, 10 peal bells of the National Cathedral carillon in Washington D.C., plus the sound of the 24,000-pound Liberty Bell which came to the United States as a Bicentennial gift of Queen Elizabeth II.

In addition, the new LP features Tchaikovsky's "Capriccio Italien" and "Marche Slave."

Dorati and the 1812 Overture are one of the great legends of the recording industry. In the 1950's this combination produced one of the first platinum classics in history.

Maestro Dorati, one of the most recorded conductors of all time, has captured 21 international awards for his accomplishments in the recording field.

The DSO's contract with London Records, Inc., a subsidiary of Decca in London, is for one year with a three-year option clause. Under provisions set forth in the contract, the Detroit Symphony will make at least three LPs a year with Antal Dorati.

Three new DSO albums were produced by London Records last spring in recording sessions in the United Artists Theatre. The old downtown motion picture theatre, which had been vacant since the early 1970's was judged the best recording site by London engineers after they visited all major Detroit concert halls, in addition to numerous churches and movie houses in the area.

The remaining two LPs, scheduled for release early in 1979, are a Bartok album featuring "Deux Images" and Suite No. 1, Opus 3, and an album of Rhapsodies: Dvorak's Rhapsody No. 3 in A-flat, Enesco's Rhapsody No. 1, Ravel's Rhapsody "Espagnole" and Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2.

Host Handicapped, Senior Citizens

Corsages and boutonnieres are made and donated by several garden clubs. Candy rolls are made by local Brownie and Girl Scout Troops.

There is, of course, a visit from Santa. Greetings are always extended by the Junior League president, who this year is Ann (Mrs. Douglas H.) West.

Junior League volunteers, assisted by members of B'Nai B'Rith Women's Council of Metropolitan Detroit, served the meal at the Handicapped/Goodwill Industries party.

Featured entertainment included Les Cochons Bleus of the Detroit Police Department, Joe Vitale and his Quartet and magician-comedian Bill Hart. Special guests were Sonny Eliot and Tiger baseball players Bob Sykes and Milt Wilcox.

Decorations were provided by the Junior League Gardeners Club.

At the Adult Service Centers, Inc., party Junior League volunteers were assisted by the ASC staff who also provided punch and music at a reception before the main event.

It, too, featured Les Cochons Bleus, along with a fashion show and modern dance performance by the seniors themselves. Table favors were donated by the Grosse Pointe Alumnae of Sigma Kappa.

The Detroit League for the Handicapped, now combined with Goodwill Industries, was founded by the Junior League in 1921 as a vehicle for utilizing the skills of handicapped citizens of Detroit and providing them with meaningful employment.

Adult Service Centers, Inc., formerly known as the Senior Center, was established in 1953 by the Junior League to provide recreation and rehabilitation for the elderly.

Co-chairmen of the two Christmas celebrations were Mrs. Michael T. Cameron and Mrs. William F. Zoufal, assisted by Mrs. Henry S. Reynolds, Mrs. Frederick L. Olds, Mrs. David K. Fuger, Mrs. Frederick B. Watts, Jr., Mrs. Michael Kirchner, Mrs. John N. Spain, Mrs. Paul R. Gilleran and Mrs. William S. Turner, Jr.

DSO Christmas Festival Programs Prove Popular

Many of the Detroit Symphony's special Christmas Festival presentations are already sold out and tickets for the remaining holiday concerts are moving briskly, according to a recent report from the DSO.

The 1978 Christmas Festival includes three Christmas Pops programs, two Messiah concerts, (one a "Messiah Singalong"), a Chamber Orchestra concert and six presentations of the Nutcracker Ballet capped by a gala New Year's Eve champagne celebration. All concerts are in Ford Auditorium.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting Saturday, October 21, for the late afternoon wedding of LINDA ANN WHITTINGHAM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Whittingham, of Colonial road, and Mr. Soth, son of Mrs. Dawson Shellhammer Soth, of Fallston, Md., and the late Mr. Soth.

ard Hayman and the Rackham Symphony Choir Friday evening, December 15, and Sunday afternoon and evening, December 17, is a sell-out.

The Detroit Symphony Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Werner Torkanowsky, will feature DSO principals as soloists Wednesday, December 20, at 8:30 o'clock. The program includes Bach's Brandenburg Concerto, Mozart's Symphony No. 29, Hummel's Trumpet Concerto and Haydn's Sinfonia Concertante in B-flat.

Handel's Messiah will be presented Friday and Saturday, December 22 and 23, at 8:30 o'clock, under the direction of guest conductor and associate to the music director Werner Torkanowsky. The Friday concert will be a repeat of last year's highly successful "Messiah Singalong," with general admission tickets at $5.

Saturday evening tickets are available at $8.50, $7 and $5, with children 12 and under half-price.

The Nutcracker Ballet, under the baton of DSO Assistant Conductor Kenneth Jean, will feature Dance Detroit and special guest dancers from the Joffrey Ballet: Denise Jackson and Greg Hoffmann. Performances are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 28, 29 and 30, at 8:30 o'clock. Tickets are $8, $6.50 and $5.

A New Year's Eve performance at 9 will be followed by a gala champagne celebration in the Social Room; tickets are $10, $8 and $6.

Soth-Whittingham Rites Celebrated

Country Club Reception Follows Late Afternoon Ceremony; Pair Vacation in Hawaii, Are at Home in Maryland

The ivory de lustre satin gown chosen by Linda Ann Whittingham for her marriage Saturday, October 21, to Dawson Shellhammer Soth, Jr., was styled with an Alencon lace bodice and sleeves.

Panels of matching lace accented her bouffant skirt and train. Her triple-tiered veil, fingertip length and fashioned of illusion, fell from a figure eight cap embroidered with more lace.

White orchids, stephanotis and trailing ivy formed her bridal bouquet.

She is the daughter of the Thomas G. Whittinghams, of Colonial road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dawson Shellhammer Soth, of Fallston, Md., and the late Mr. Soth.

The 4:30 o'clock rites in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at which The Reverend Ray Kiely presided were followed by a reception at the Country Club of Detroit.

The newlyweds have returned from an Hawaiian vacation to make their home in Fallston.

Mrs. Noel Selewski, honor matron for her sister, and bridesmaids Katherine and Julie Smith, of Middlebury, Conn., their cousins, and Joanne Lynn Soth, the bridegroom's sister, carried multi-colored bouquets of fall flowers.

Their long frocks of periwinkle blue Qiana, with matching hoods, were softly gathered at their oval necklines and sleeves.

Best man was Craig S. Sedler, of Fallston. Guests

The bridegroom's mother, in a Qiana multicolored floral print on beige, selected a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Whittingham, of Southbury, Conn., and her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Smith, of Middlebury, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. William Whittingham, of Madison, Conn., all former Pointers.

Vows Are Spoken

At a mid-afternoon ceremony Saturday, October 21, in Saint Lucy's Church DEBORAH ANN HOWELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Boyd Howell, of St. Clair Shores, and CRAIG ALLIN NORRIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Penn Norris, of Harvard road, exchanged marriage vows.

Autumn Wedding for Miss Howell

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Allin Norris Vacation in Jamaica Following Mid-October Rites; Are at Home in Roseville

Deborah Ann Howell traveled to Saint Lucy's Church in a vintage 1939 Plymouth convertible sedan, courtesy of Vito Ranks, a close friend of the family, for her marriage to Craig Allin Norris.

After the ceremony, the newlyweds were driven to their wedding reception at Revere Hall in the Plymouth, (which had a siren), in procession with a Cutlass, a Monarch, a Gremlin — and a truck.

Presiding at the 2:30 o'clock rites Saturday, October 21, was The Reverend James A. Mayworm. Organist was Paul Fischer. Guitar soloist was Ray LeMay.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Boyd Howell, of St. Clair Shores, wore a traditional gown of silk organza. Chantilly lace accented her neckline, hem and sleeves, which were heavily beaded, as was her bodice.

Matching lace edged her triple-tiered, fingertip length veil, caught by a Juliet cap, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of baby's-breath, stephanotis and white Sweetheart roses, with accents of purple statis.

Susan T. Howell was honor maid for her sister. Bridesmaids were Debbie Bamford, Lynn Franzel, Elaine Crowthers and Valerie Norris, the bridegroom's sister. Their mint green frocks, styled with fitted bodices and A-line skirts, were overlaid with ivory organza and accented with ivory cotton lace. Their pastel, Colonial bouquets featured baby's-breath, daisies, pink Sweetheart roses, statis and stephanotis.

Mr. Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Penn Norris, of Harvard road, asked Don MacLeod to act as his best man. In the usher corps were David E. Graham, Mike Rosetos, David Bamford and Geoff Templeman, of Brea, Calif.

A sprinkling of iridescents accented the waist of the bride's mother's formal length, A-line gown of shrimp tulle. The bridegroom's mother chose a long gown of organza printed in muted autumn tones, styled with a softly draped bodice

Woman's Club Set For Christmas Tea

Madrigal Club to Sing, Peter Marshall's "Let Us Keep Christmas" to Be Read During Afternoon Program

The traditional Christmas Tea for members and guests of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club is scheduled for next Wednesday, December 20, at 12:30 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

The afternoon's program will be presented by the Madrigal Club of Detroit, an all-woman choral group now in its 63rd season.

Mrs. Jon S. Cook, program chairman, will introduce Charles E. Gleason, Madrigal Club director.

Another feature of the program will be the reading of Peter Marshall's "Let Us Keep Christmas."

Mrs. Vene L. Whims, tea hostess, and co-hostess Mrs. Paul H. Schafer have selected Christmas Enchantment as their table theme.

Their committee includes the Mesdames Vernon Aljets, James H. Allen, Karl D. Anderson, O. E. Bolin, John H. Carter, Augustus J. Christie, Peter Clemente, John V. Crane, Maurice Dalesandro, J. E. Hinzman and Forrest Geary.

More are the Mesdames Raymond J. Duffy, John E. Finch, Lee W. Garrett, T. W. Huebenthal, Carl Kienle, Carl Lamparter, Gordon Liesemer, Donald B. McPhail, A. M. Menninger, Stuart Micklethwaite, Joseph Monterosso, Colin B. Neal, Joseph M. Scanlan, Eugene Ziolkowski and Miss Marion Hopson.

Dinner Dance This Saturday

Merry-Go-Rounders' traditional Christmas dinner dance is set for this Saturday, December 16, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, under the aegis of Mrs. Anthony Stocki, chairman, who promises a delectable hors d'oeuvres table during the cocktail hour.

A special snow couple centerpiece has been created by Mrs. John L. Addy, III, and her decorating committee, the Mesdames Peter Dodenhoff, Robert Hanzel and John Harrison.

As always at Merry-Go-Rounder parties there will be surprise entertainment. Alfred Ulman, Jr., was the Magic Show maestro at Lochmoor Club in September — what December will bring is still a mystery, but that's half the fun.

Other committee members working to make Saturday's party a success are Mrs. Joseph Van Deweghe, co-chairman, Mrs. Eugene Stys, secretary, Mrs. Chester Bogan, treasurer, and Mrs. Fred Van Assche, advisor.

Seek Donations For TV Auction

It's not too early to be thinking about the 1979 Channel 56 Auction that will run March 30 through April 7. Channel 56 is asking merchants in the Detroit-Windsor area to donate their end-of-the-year surplus inventory to the auction.

This is something useful that could be done with excess material many retailers and wholesalers have left over at the end of the year. Not only is warehouse space created but the items, when auctioned off, provide on-air credit for the donor to an auction week audience of over one million people.

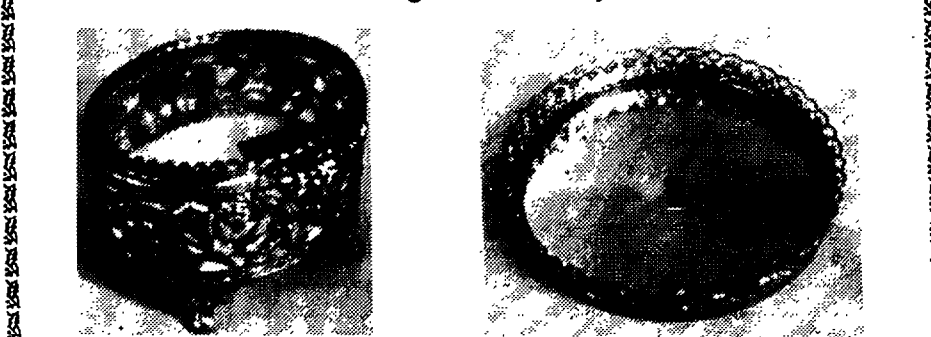

Auction Manager Steven Futernick says, "These donations could be made in time to qualify for a valuable 1978 tax deduction. The auction just asks that all items be new and have a minimum value of $50."

The drive for merchandise donations is the heart of the auction effort. During the last auction, in April, 1978, Channel 56 moved 7,669 items; more will be needed this year to help provide the necessary operating funds for Channel 56.

Thousands of bidders will shop by phone as merchandise is auctioned off by celebrities from the worlds of sports, civic affairs, press, television and radio.

Last year's auction raised over $638,000 on behalf of Channel 56. The money is used to broadcast such programs as "Sesame Street," "Dick Cavett," "Second City TV," "Wall Street Week" and "Masterpiece Theatre."

Christmas Gallery Is Open at DIA

A visit to the Christmas Gallery Shop of the Detroit Institute of Arts resembles an international shopping trip, for this seasonal addition to the year-around museum shops is overflowing with unusual gifts and decorations from around the world.

There are Peshwar cotton wall hangings from India, hand-painted in scenes reminiscent of Arabian Nights tales.

Handmade pottery from the Shipibo Indians of Peru's Amazon basin features black, geometric designs incised on creamy glaze, and an array of 19th century silver amulets, needle cases and clasps suspended as pendants from satin cord comes from the People's Republic of China.

Also from the Orient are embroidered silk textiles in various sizes and colors, oval and round silver boxes with convex tops made of Ming dynasty porcelain and hand-made boxes and tree decorations, fashioned from Chinese wheat stalks, in many colors, shapes and patterns.

Kisii stone, carved in Kenya, is the material for appealing animals like a reclining hippo and a more ornate elephant.

Colorful molas, the reverse applique cotton panels created by the Cuna Indians of the San Blas Islands, can be framed or incorporated into imaginative clothing.

The Christmas Gallery Shop features ceramics by four Michigan potters, Ken Thompson, Marie Woo, Jan Sadowski and Stephen Jepson, and carved, natural wood animal toys by George Landino.

The Kurt Schroeders

ROBIN LYNN KAMIN, daughter of the Vernon Kamins, of Glenview, Ill., was married Saturday, August 12, in Immaculate Conception Church, Traverse City, to Mr. Schroeder, son of the O. J. Schroeders, of Fairholme road.

Music Festival Celebrates Christmas

(Continued from Page 22) inception in 1962. Most choral members are graduate musicians who teach music professionally, direct church choirs and are featured soloists with local opera groups and major church choirs.

The chorale first appeared with the Detroit Symphony in 1964. Its director is Eric Freudigman.

Werner Torkanowsky was born in Germany and emigrated with his parents to Israel when he was six years old. He received his earliest training from his mother, a concert pianist.

He became the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's guest conductor and associate to the music director in September of 1977, after 14 years as music director of the New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony.

Torkanowsky made his debut as an orchestral conductor with the Minneapolis Symphony, (now Minnesota Orchestra), in 1960. He has since conducted nearly every major orchestra in the United States.

His DSO conducting debut was in January of 1961, and he has appeared before the orchestra on many occasions, most recently this past October in a special All-Messianic concert.

Soloists in the Chamber Orchestra performance are seven DSO members.

Gordon Staples, concertmaster, was born in Los Angeles and began playing the violin at the age of six. When he was 10 his family moved to Vancouver where he studied for six years with Gregori Garbovizky, a former pupil of Leopold Auer.

Staples began giving concerts at the age of 13. At 14 he was staff soloist for the Canadian Broadcast Company, performing weekly over the Trans-Canada network.

Further study followed, with Jami Szanto at the Philadelphia Academy of Music, from which Staples was graduated, and with D. C. Douins in New York.

Staples made a much-acclaimed New York debut at 19 as soloist with the New York Little Symphony. He has concertized extensively in the United States, Latin America and Canada, and was concertmaster of the New Orleans Philharmonic before joining the Detroit Symphony in 1955.

He was named DSO assistant concertmaster in 1956, concertmaster in 1968, and has frequently appeared as soloist with the orchestra. His instrument is a rare "Salabue" violin, the work of Giovanni Battista Guadagnini in 1779.

Italo Babini, principal cello, grew up in Brazil where he began cello studies under his father at the age of five. As a youth Babini performed throughout South America.

After winning first prize in a competition sponsored by the Brazilian State Department he was awarded a scholarship for study at the Munich Academy of Music; during his years there he also toured with the Munich Chamber Orchestra.

Mr. Babini came to the United States at the invitation of the Yale University School of Music. Before coming to Detroit he studied with Pablo Casals and appeared as soloist at the Casals Festival in Puerto Rico.

In 1959 Babini received first prize at the Tanglewood Music Festival and appeared there as soloist; the following year he became principal cellist of the DSO under Paul Paray.

He now occupies the orchestra's first endowed instrumental post, the James C. Gordon Chair.

Babini has appeared frequently as a soloist with the DSO and has represented both the United States and his native land in concerts abroad. He plays a famous Joseph Guarnerius cello, made in Cremona in 1708.

Miss Kamin Bride Of Kurt Schroeder

Bride's Sister And Mother Fashion Wedding Gown; Roses, Baby's-Breath And Lace Streamers Form Bridal Bouquet

Mr. and Mrs. Kurt John Schroeder vacationed on Mackinac Island following their marriage Saturday, August 12, in Traverse City's Immaculate Conception Church. They are at home in Traverse City.

Mrs. Schroeder, who is employed by Consumers Power Company, is the former Robin Lynn Kamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kamin, of Glenview, Ill.

Mr. Schroeder, who is employed by Brown Lumber Company, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schroeder, of Fairholme road.

Father Eugene Tuller officiated at the afternoon ceremony for which the bride wore a gown handmade by her sister, Jennifer, and their mother. It was fashioned of Qiana, trimmed in lace, and featured a lace jacket made from Mrs. Kamin's wedding gown.

The bridal veil, also handmade, fell from a cluster of baby's-breath, peach and white roses, baby's-breath and lace streamers formed the bridal bouquet.

Jennifer Kamin was honor maid for her sister. Bridesmaids were Lisa Kamin, another sister, Cindimarie Schroeder, the bridegroom's sister, and Kim Halsey.

Gary Schroeder was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Krys Schroeder, another brother, and Mark Kamin, brother of the bride. Marc Schroeder, still another brother, and Steve Best ushered.

The rehearsal dinner was held at Under the Willow Tree. A reception at the Holiday Inn followed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Northwestern Michigan College.

Tri-Deltas Celebrate Sleighbell Day 1978

Members of the Detroit-Grosse Pointe Alumnae Chapter of Delta Delta Delta gave a party for 30 children at Children's Hospital of Michigan Wednesday, December 6.

This special event was the local celebration of Sleighbell Day, on which collegiate and alumnae Tri-Deltas across the nation work for their philanthropy: the support of hospitals which focus research on childhood cancer, oncology and hematology.

The patients, ages seven to 13, enjoyed a magic show by Don Bosco who, when he's not performing, owns and operates Bosco's Party Store. Party favors and refreshments for everyone followed.

The day was coordinated by Mrs. Louis Bridenstine, Jr., of Washington road, chapter president, assisted by Mrs. Sam Minella, of Bournmouth circle.

The party was given with the cooperation of Mrs. A. "Sally" Carpenter, Children's Hospital child life assistant.

Grosse Pointe South High School graduate FRANCES C. MANTHO, daughter of MRS. GEORGE G. MANTHO, of Edgemont Park is enrolled at Sweet Briar College, Sweet Briar, Va.

VISTA, (Volunteers in Service to America); urgently needs volunteers for grass-roots and poverty-related projects throughout the U.S. and its territories. Immediate openings are available for community organizers, architects, lawyers, tenant's rights advocates, urban planners and fund raisers. To qualify, VISTA volunteers must be at least 18-years-old and have a skill useable on local projects. Volunteers serve one year. They receive benefits which include paid living, travel and health expenses, plus a $900 stipend upon completion of service. For detailed information on VISTA, call (313) 226-7928 collect, or write ACTION Recruiting Office, McNamara Federal Building M-74, 477 Michigan avenue, Detroit 48226. VISTA is a program of ACTION, the Federal agency for volunteer service. More than 3200 volunteers serve in locally sponsored community service projects involving low-income people in the vital decisions that affect their lives. The first VISTA volunteers began work 15 years ago in the poorest and most isolated communities in the U.S. Volunteer ranks swelled from the strongly felt impulses of Americans to share with others their caring and their labor. The worst place to live today is just beyond your income.

Youth, Adult Struck by Cars

A 14-year-old Woods boy and a 55-year-old St. Clair Shores man escaped serious injury in two separate accidents which occurred last week in The Woods. The boy, Timothy Roberts of Stanhope avenue, was struck by a car Tuesday afternoon, December 5, while riding his bicycle near the intersection of Mack avenue and Cook road, while Seymour N. Schlein of Edmuntton road was hit by a car late Thursday afternoon, December 7, while walking across Mack avenue near Hollywood avenue.

Both were taken to Saint John Hospital with the hospital reporting Monday afternoon, December 11, that Timothy was confined for several days for treatment of scrapes, bruises and a mild concussion before being released, while Mr. Schlein is in good condition, suffering from a fractured right leg and a laceration in the left temple area. Police said Timothy was struck by a car driven by Cathy Ann Maier, 18, of Helen avenue, Harper Woods. The vehicle was going north on Mack passing through the Cook road intersection on a green light.

Timothy and a witness, a 15-year-old Woods boy, were attempting to cross Mack mid-block and in front of traffic. The one boy crossed to the median but the cyclist was struck in his attempt, with the driver being unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the youth.

A light, misty rain was falling at the time of the mishap, with the only violation issued going to the boy for crossing mid-block, according to the report.

In the second accident, Mr. Schlein was struck by a vehicle driven by Wilfred Owen, 21, of Lothrop road, who told police he was going southbound on Mack in the left traffic lane at the speed limit.

As he passed Hollywood, he said he saw a man standing in the middle of Mack, with the man suddenly walking in front of his car. He swerved to avoid the pedestrian but hit him with the left front of his vehicle.

The pedestrian, meanwhile, told police he thought traffic was clear when he started out into the street. He also said he walked from between two parked cars and was wearing dark clothes. No violations were issued in the incident.

Thieves Enter Woods Home

A Renaud road citizen who had been in Florida for three weeks returned home to discover that his house had been burglarized and vandalized, according to a report received by Woods police Thursday afternoon, December 7.

Det. Charles Philip Hamel, who's investigating the incident, said the entire house was ransacked and, at this time, it has been difficult for citizen John Todd to determine all missing articles because of the condition of the home.

In his report, Officer Thomas Morawski said all the contents in the various rooms were scattered about with, for example, drinks being poured onto the kitchen floor and beer removed from the refrigerator and consumed.

Det. Hamel also said beds were torn apart and a bottle of Geritol poured across one mattress.

Forced entry was gained through an attached garage leading into the residence.

JOINS BOARD

Farms resident William G. Butler was elected to the board of directors of Detroitbank Corp., according to corporation chairman Rodkey Craighead. Another Pointer, Cleveland Thurber, retired from the board last month after 33 years of service. Mr. Butler, partner in the law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, is a former Farms councilman and served as mayor of the community from 1966 to 1975. He is a trustee and president of Elmwood Cemetery, a trustee of the Greater Detroit Society for the Blind, the Detroit Historical Society and the Sheldon Fund.

North Cagers Wallop South

By Rick Mayday
 South High School's varsity cagers suffered their second loss of the season to rival North High, 59-44, at North on Tuesday, December 5. North led throughout the entire game. Glen Williams led the scoring for North with 16 points, followed by Rick Zenn with 11. Senior Kevin Connolly led South's scoring with 12. On Friday, December 8, South rolled over L'Anse Creuse North to an easy 89-49 victory. South dominated in every aspect of the game. At the half the score was 41-27. Sophomore Glenn Piche led the team with 16 points. On Tuesday, December 12, (after press time), South took on Notre Dame in a non-league game. Then on Friday, December 15, they will challenge a strong Sterling Heights Stevenson team at home.

"This year's team has all the quickness it needs, but lacks in size," commented coach Chuck Hollosy. The top three contending teams in the Eastern Michigan League, (EML), are Mount Clemens, East Detroit and Stevenson, according to the coach, who believes East Detroit could be a sleeper.

"Last year East Detroit had four starters who were suspended from their team," he said. "This year all four of them are returning."

Mount Clemens and Stevenson are always good teams, he added.

North High reports the Norsemen made it two in a row by destroying L'Anse Creuse, 80-43, on December 8.

North played solid ball, while showing their ability on the road. Williams led North with 16 points, while Zenn netted 13.

Three days earlier, the Norsemen defeated South High, 59-44.

North's record now stands at 2-2. Their next game is at home against South Lake on December 15.

South Tankers Place 1st, 3rd

By Meg Speer

South High School's tankers opened their season with impressive showings in both the Rochester and Royal Oak Relays held over the past two weekends.

South placed third in the Rochester event, and tied for first with Birmingham Brother Rice in Royal Oak.

The non-league meets proved success is in the air for South as they set three meet records, two in the 200 butterfly relay.

The first record was set by the team of Nick Trost, co-captain John Hessburg, Bill Bradfield and Toby Lindheim, followed by the team of Bradfield, Lindheim, Trost and Jeff Measelle. Both times were 1:42.3.

The first place 200 backstroke relay of Steve Kienle, Rob Wood, Lindheim and Trost also set a meet record at 1:50.1.

The 200 medley relay team of Kienle, Don Hiles, Trost and Hessburg placed first with a time of 1:44.9, and missed the state cutoff by .8 second.

Commenting on the surprise showings, co-captain Pat Coyle said, "We've lost some important seniors but the majority of the team's strength is still here."

It's the fall of the year that breaks the backbone of summer. The idea that might makes right is just another fairy tale.

Having trouble paying your electric bill?

Help us help you.

All of us, of course, must pay for the goods and services we use. From time to time, many of us may have difficulties making those payments—due to illness, loss of employment, an accident or a disability.

If this happens to you, let Detroit Edison know. Detroit Edison has programs to help you if you're having problems with electric bills and to help you avoid overdue bills in the future. The programs are designed to assure uninterrupted electric service.

You can help Detroit Edison help you by getting in touch as soon as possible—by mail, by telephone or by stopping in at any Detroit Edison Customer Office.

Here are Detroit Edison Programs to help when your bill is overdue:

Bill Payment Counseling

Company Customer Representatives will offer advice and assistance and suggest ways to obtain aid in paying Edison bills through public assistance programs such as social service or welfare agencies, if needed. So call or stop in at any Customer Office and talk things over.

Payment Plans

If an extra-large overdue bill seems impossible to pay, don't despair. Payment plans can be tailored to fit your situation and clear things up.

These Detroit Edison Programs can help you avoid problems arising from overdue bills:

Double Notice Protection Plan

When you sign up for this plan, if your overdue bill could result in a service shutoff then a friend, relative or community agency is notified so they can remind you that your bill must be paid, or pay it for you. This plan is especially helpful for the elderly, the sick, the shut-in or persons who spend extended periods of time away from home.

Senior Citizen Rate

If you are 65 years or older and the head of a household, this new rate can help lower your electric bills if you use less than 548 kilowatt-hours a month—848 kilowatt-hours or less if you have controlled electric water heating combined on your regular meter. If you want more information, call or stop in at any Customer Office so that a Customer Representative can review this new program with you.

Wise Use of Electricity

Detroit Edison has booklets on how to use your electric lights and appliances wisely and other ways to save energy around the home.

Stop in at any Customer Office and pick up what you need to get the most out of your energy dollar.

Detroit Edison does everything possible to get in touch with you to see if you need help when your electric bill is overdue. But you can help by getting in touch with Detroit Edison.

Detroit Edison wants to do everything in its power to keep the power in your hands.

So please help us help you.

Yule Pet Advice Given by ARK

A company's recent television commercial shows a family getting a puppy on Christmas out of a closed box and excited happy children handling it.

ARK Humane Education Service says if you are getting a puppy or kitten or any other kind of live pet for Christmas, this is not the way to do it.

Especially at Christmas, ARK tells people that much thought must be given to an animal's needs before acquiring one. A family should know about the costs involved in taking care of an animal, know how to care for the pet and be willing to spend the time and effort on it.

When those requirements are met, then an animal should be introduced to the family in a quiet way, preferably not on Christmas day or Christmas Eve, and have no human hands grabbing at it and frightening or injuring the animal.

Animals react to fright and injury by biting or by becoming shy and withdrawn. The first impression you make on a pet can be a very important one.

The animal should be put on the same diet it had before coming into your home. It should be kept away from Christmas ornaments and decorations. It should be kept from under the feet of holiday visitors.

(ARK suggests you lie on the floor for a moment and look up at humans, to imagine how big and frightening things can look to a small animal.)

New pets should be given a check by a veterinarian, and puppies and kittens require inoculations right away.

In many cases, the novelty of the new pet wears off and the animal is neglected, or even abused by the very people who were so thrilled with it at Christmas.

If you find the cost too much — of feeding, neutering, grooming, vet care, (routine and emergency), licensing, yard fencing, replacing things pets soil or destroy, accessories, (leashes, dishes, chew toys), and kennels at vacation time — and find you really don't have time or the desire to care for an animal — take it to one of the anti-cruelty or humane society shelters in the area. Don't abandon any animal on the city streets, freeways or in the country. Take it to a shelter and leave a donation for its care and disposal.

ARK members are happy to help people with questions about pets. Send requests for information to ARK, Post Office Box 65, Warren 48090.

The United Kingdom now produces 54 percent of its food requirements compared with about one-third before World War II.

Brother-Sister Runners Win

A brother-sister combination from the North High School cross country team have qualified for the National AAU Jr. Olympics Cross Country Championships at Shawnee Mission, Kansas on Saturday, December 9.

To qualify for the Nationals, Jim Schmidt, running as an individual entry in the regionals against 100 runners from six states, had to finish in the top eight. Losing his shoe at the start of the two-and-one-half mile race, he still finished a credible fifth — happy but with a sore foot.

Cathy Schmidt, running as part of an extremely strong team, passed four runners at the finish to help her team eke out a one-point victory to qualify for the Nationals.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN

Summary of The Minutes December 4, 1978

The Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present on Roll Call: Mayor Pro-Tem W. James Mast, Councilmen Harry R. Fruehalf, Jr., Jack M. Cudlip, Nancy J. Waugaman, Joseph L. Fromm and Lloyd A. Semple.

Those Absent Were: Mayor James H. Dingeman. Mayor Pro-Tem W. James Mast presided at the meeting.

Mayor Dingeman was excused from attending the meeting. The Minutes of the Regular Meeting which was held on November 20, 1978 were accepted as corrected.

The Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, granted the appeal of Mr. George J. Baer, II, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of an addition to the rear of his residence located at 333 Moran Road.

Following a Public Hearing on the matter, the Council considered a motion to enact proposed Code No. 10-03, Ordinance No. 230, "An Ordinance Establishing and Regulating Hours of Operation For Certain Entertainment Establishments Within the City of Grosse Pointe Farms"; such motion failed for lack of the required number of affirmative votes.

The Council adopted a resolution that no action would be taken by the Council which would result in the removal of the walkway which exists between Lexington Road and Colonial Court or the abandonment of the easement upon which it is located.

The Council adopted a resolution increasing the Doj License fees from $3.00 to $5.00 for initial issuance and renewals thereof if made on or before April 30 of each year, and from $5.00 to $10.00 for renewals made after April 30; such fees shall become effective January 1, 1979 for the 1979 licensing year.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the proposal of the Johnson & Higgins Insurance Agency in the annual premium amount of $2,648.00 for renewal for a three-year period of the City's current Machinery and Boiler Insurance coverage; the Council having first determined that no advantage to the City would be gained through the solicitation of competitive bids.

The Council adopted a resolution confirming the City Manager's appointment of Mr. Earl Perrine as Acting Communications Director.

The Council adopted a resolution scheduling a Closed Session immediately following the Regular Meeting on this date, for the purpose of discussing negotiation matters concerning an employee group.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 11:20 p.m.

W. James Mast Mayor Pro-Tem Richard G. Solak City Clerk Published: Grosse Pointe News, issue of December 14, 1978.

The Prettiest Christmas Gifts . . . are found in the Lingerie Department of Walton-Pierce. One of the newest combinations is blonde silky polyester and black lace. Find it in a teddy, a long night gown that can be worn with a black lace tunic, a camisole and a slip. A black pleated camisole and lined slip is a beautiful underfashion that can double as a party dress. The teddy or camisole with dance pants are excellent choices for those slit skirts and sheer blouses. Many fashionables are wearing them for dreamy, comfortable sleepwear. Bodysuits that sleek the figure come in beguiling colors including nude and toffee. Wolsey Thermals will keep you pretty and warm . . . great for skiers. There are so many beautiful cozy robes and hostess gowns. Perfect for Christmas Eve, is a ruby velour zip front gown with a gold tassel and gold embroidery on the cuffs. It is from Gilda Maria and also comes in emerald green. Odette Barsa slips are for those who love beautiful workmanship and something very different. They are hand-embroidered and applied in Portugal with green ivy and pink blossoms or blue tulips, or pink poodles or would you believe partying mice with cheese? Topping holiday fashions is the cocktail hat found in satin, in velvet . . . with glitter, with feathers, with veils. At Walton-Pierce there are also gala hair ornaments . . . mink on a comb, gold crochet circlets some with sequins and to wear all winter long, a chinelle hat and scarf . . . what a welcome present.

Have you ever come home with a car full of groceries and wondered where to store them all? Wood-Mode cabinets makes a pantry unit that holds canned goods galore and a little bit more. See it today at Mutschler Kitchens, Inc., 20227 Mack Avenue, 884-3700.

I Want To Hold Your Hand . . . is the tune played by the music box when you open the clear lucite container with nail care products and polish by Helena Rubinstein. A beauty of an idea for Christmas gifting at the Notre Dame Pharmacy.

The Island Of Tahiti . . . described by the first explorers as a land of rare beauty. Priced from $699 from Chicago. Travelwise travelers always ask for Mr. Q, 886-0500.

Gifts For About $20 . . . at the Squirrel's Nest, 19849 Mack, include spoon racks, salad bowls (those welcome hostess gifts) . . . bulletin boards, musical jewelry boxes, brass candle sticks and more.

Bijouterie . . . thanks our many friends and neighbors for the wonderful reception they gave our annual Pre-Christmas Sale last week. In appreciation, Bijouterie will repeat the sale offering . . . 10%, 20% or 30% savings for one more week. Bijouterie, 19860 Mack Avenue corner of Huntington, Grosse Pointe Woods, the home of fine diamonds, watches and jewelry. Open every day except Sunday from now till Christmas . . . 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Ed Maliszewski . . . suggests a lasting permanent gift for the whole family . . . a beautiful area rug. There's a wide selection from contemporary to traditional waiting for you at 21435 Mack.

Ron Ruel Says . . . The new styles rely heavily on precision haircutting for line, shape and body. Ron emphasizes healthy, shiny, easy-care hair to show off that precision cut. This may be achieved for the newest styles or the classics by soft and natural perming, hair lightening and toning, highlighting, tinting or a wonderful natural henna treatment. Call 886-4130 for an appointment.

A New Shipment . . . of Tomy's Digital Derby has arrived at the School Bell, 17904 Mack. For your convenience the School Bell will be open 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on December 24.

Know What . . . one single item you can put on that will make you look years younger? A modern up-to-date flattering eyeglass frame. Too many date themselves when they slip on their old fashioned eyeglasses. KATARINA GUNNARSON AND RODOLFO KEMPKKE, GROSSE POINTE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

By Ann Wallace

Levis, Dockside and Alligator shirts—typical dress for the Grosse Pointe South High School student you say? Stockholm, Sweden, an ocean and half-a-continent away, has its share of similarly-clad students in its high schools.

Katarina Gunnarson, from Stockholm, came down the stairs of her American family's home the first morning after arriving in this country, attired in this very "Americanized" dress.

"They couldn't believe their eyes," says Katarina. "They expected something very Swedish."

Rodolfo Kempke, from Torreon, Mexico, which is about 600 miles from Mexico City, had to purchase some of his warmer clothing after arriving in the States in September.

"Our temperature," notes Rudy, (everyone calls him that), "never goes below 35 degrees in the winter, so it has been an adjustment for me. I never have seen snow deeper than one inch, so I am interested to know what the bigger amounts will be like."

Christmas All Over The Christmas season and its customs, though, in all three countries, America, Mexico and Sweden, are surprisingly similar in many aspects.

Rudy notes that in Torreon there are many Santa Clauses. A Santa "arrives" in the homes, as he does here, on Christmas Eve. The children anticipate his arrival just as they do in this country.

"Mexico is about 90 percent Catholic," continues Rudy, "so the religious celebration is the same throughout the country. The Christmas season really begins December 12, the feast day for the Virgin of Guadalupe."

"There are parades. Workers have the day off. The schools also are closed."

"There are not as many Santas in my country," explains Katarina, "but we have many decorations in the homes and stores."

Heralded By Festival

The celebration of Lucia, the Swedish festival of fire and light, when Lucia's appearance, according to Swedish tradition, drives away evil spirits and heralds the return of longer days, takes place December 13. This really begins the season of Christmas for Katarina.

"I have been a 'Lucia,' dressed in a long white gown, with a crown of lighted candles on my head. The festival can take place anywhere, in church or home, and anyone can be selected to be Lucia."

"We have a big smorgasbord on Christmas Day, with a tremendous amount of food available, including a big ham and many side dishes such as herring, meatballs and vegetables."

"Turkey and pork are very popular as traditional foods for our dinner," notes Rudy. "Everyone visits and we have lots of food and exchange Christmas gifts."

Traditions Important One of the most important aspects of Christmas for these two exchange students, and for us as well, are the traditions that families develop throughout the years.

"We write rhymes as clues," Katarina continues, "that would give hints about what might be in a Christmas package before it is opened. It really adds to the excitement of the day!"

While they miss their families, both Katarina and Rodolfo are looking forward to the holidays.

Katarina is the daughter of Ingvar and Britt Gunnarson. Her father is a lawyer, her mother a teacher. Her two sisters, Helena and Charlotta, are 14 and five years old, respectively.

In Grosse Pointe, she is living with Dr. and Mrs. Frank van Deventer, of Merriweather road, and their two children, Matthew, 14, and Sarah, 11.

"This is the first time I have a brother," notes Katarina, "and I think it is just great!"

"In my country we ski very much, so here I have joined a ski club and I am looking forward to skiing when the snow becomes deeper."

Katarina, 17, also enjoys dancing and has enrolled in some ballet classes. Tap dancing and jazz also take much of her spare time.

Rudy Likes Sports Soccer and tennis are favorite hobbies for Rodolfo. He is happy to see the sport of soccer become more popular in this country.

"I also enjoy squash," says Rudy, "but I never have been skiing. When the snow gets deeper, I plan to go and see what it is like."

"Back home, where New Mexico is about a 10-hour drive from home, or about one hour's flight, some people go there to ski, but I never have done that."

Rudy is the son of Rodolfo and Maria Isabel Kempke. He has two brothers, Federico, 20, and Roberto, 14, and two sisters, Veronica, 16, and Maria Isabel, seven. His father is a hotel manager in Torreon.

"My American family here, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Borrego, of Whittier road, speak Spanish and observe the customs of Mexico, so I really have enjoyed living with them."

"In a few days, however, I will be moving to another family, one that does not speak Spanish. This will be very good for me, as then I will be forced to speak more English."

The Borrego family has three sons, Carlos, Ricardo and Fernando, and two daughters, Paula and Gigi.

Hopes To Be Engineer Rodolfo is planning to be an industrial engineer and will study in Torreon. To supplement courses he already has taken in his high school curriculum there, he now is studying drafting, applied science, mathematics, speech and American Studies, which includes History and Literature.

"I started school with kindergarten, at age three, for three years," says Rudy, "and continued in primary school for six years, secondary school for three years and, finally, high school for three years."

"I now am ready to start at the university. I will be

Lieutenant Colonel MARK A. LOUSH, of Hollywood avenue, was awarded the United States of America's Meritorious Service Medal for exceptionally meritorious service while serving as Deputy Commanding Officer of the 106th JAG detachment of the United States Army Reserve April 13, 1970, to April 14, 1978.

Grosse Pointe North High School 1978 graduate PATRICIA A. POPE, daughter of MR. and MRS. ROBERT A. POPE, of Roslyn road, has completed eight weeks of basic training at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N.Y.

MR. and MRS. ERIC GAINES, of Tallahassee, Fla., announce the birth of their first child, a son, CRAIG BENJAMIN, November 12. Mrs. Gaines is the former GRETCHEN MELLINGER, daughter of DR. and MRS. RAYMOND MELLINGER, of Park lane. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. HAROLD GAINES, of Palm Beach, Fla.

MRS. PAUL C. GRACEY, of Touraine court, was among 150 guests attending Mother's Weekend November 5 and 6 at Pine Manor College, Chestnut Hill, Mass., where her daughter, ELIZABETH, is a junior.

Swedish Christmas Dinner Is Scheduled

FRAM Lodge No. 267, VASA Order of America, (a Swedish benefit group), will present a traditional Swedish Christmas dinner featuring lutefisk, boiled potatoes, rich cream gravy, ham, vegetable, Swedish fruit soup, homemade cookies and coffee Friday evening, December 15, at 6:30 o'clock in Immanuel Lutheran Church's Fellowship Hall.

Reservations, at $6.50 per person, may be made by calling the church office, Valley 1-2380.

to Tonnancour place, where The Honorable and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams' home is welcoming visitors.

If you'd like to start from the other end, stop first at Ellair place. It deadends off East Jefferson avenue, towards the lake. All the Grosse Pointe Christmas Walk houses are located between Tonnancour and Ellair place this season.

The Christmas Walk, an annual project of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, features private homes in Birmingham-Bloomfield, (their Walk was last Thursday), and Grosse Pointe, decked in holiday finery, opening their doors to visitors for the benefit of the symphony. All admissions are tax deductible.

Stratford Comes to Orchestra Hall

The Honorable T. Frank Harris, of Stephens road, Detroit's Canadian Consul, is hosting a reception for players from Canada's Stratford Festival, leaders of the Michigan Theatre Association, heads of university drama departments in the Greater Detroit area, senior staff members and volunteers of the Michigan Council for the Arts, plus special friends and benefactors of Orchestra Hall, tonight, on-stage at Orchestra Hall, where the Stratford players are in the midst of a three-day residency.

The Canadian actors are here with the assistance of a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts and in association with the Stratford Shakespearean Festival Foundation and the Friends for Orchestra Hall.

Their residency concludes tomorrow evening with a performance of "This Fair Child of Mine." Tickets are available from the Orchestra Hall box office.

there for about four or five years."

Katarina began her schooling at six and has continued for 10 years.

"In my country," she explains, "nine years of school are compulsory. Then a student may elect to go to 'gymnasium.' (In Europe, this is a classical school, preparing a student for a university. It does not involve athletics at all.)"

"I have had one year of gymnasium," adds Katarina, "studying Economics, History and other courses. I will have two more to go when I return to Stockholm next year."

English Is Compulsory "I have had to study English for five years in the compulsory school, and every year in gymnasium."

Rudy also has had to study English in his schooling in Mexico, each year since beginning school.

Katarina is sponsored by Youth for Understanding, (YFU), a project of the State Department begun right after World War II. In an effort to diminish the strong animosity toward Germany at the end of the war, the State Department contacted the Ann Arbor Council of Churches, and Dr. Rachel Anderson, with the idea of beginning an exchange program.

Only German students coming to this country were involved in the program for the first 10 years. It started with only 21 male students.

Since then, however, many countries in the world have participated, with some 55,000 students being exchanged to date.

Rodolfo is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, which began its program of foreign student exchange by supporting the American Field Service program for 10 to 12 years.

Both Katarina Gunnarson and Rodolfo Kempke had had cases of "homesickness" for about three weeks after arriving in this country. Now over the "hump," both find they are enjoying their visit to this country, learning its customs and its people.
